LICENSE DECISION COMING TUESDAY

Fear keeps residents quiet at disco inquiry

By Donna Abate

After a two-day hearing in which residents refused to testify against Parrillo's, the Belleville Excise Board postponed a decision whether to grant a liquor license renewal to the disco until next Tuesday night at 6:30.

Although over 200 signatures appeared on a petition against granting Parrillo's a renewal of its liquor license which expires June 30, not one resident would testify during Monday night's hearing.

"Let it be shown on record," disco attorney Allen C. Marra said in conclusion, "that out of the 17 people in the audience, not one of them came forward on the issue."

Also noting the record, Town Attorney Frank Zinna said in rebuttal that the residents "felt they would just be repeating the same testimony as earlier cases" and felt they were "satisfied" with the previous transcripts.

Several residents present during the hearing avoided cameras and refused to comment, however. Some felt "afraid" to testify for reasons of "singling themselves out" or "being ripped by Marra in cross-examination."

"Do you blame us?" one resident asked.

The town's case against Parrillo's did, however, include a large amount of official testimony. Zinna called nine Belleville patrolmen last Thursday night to testify on numerous parking summonses and several incidents such as fights, assaults and loud noise alleged to have taken place at the establishment.

Zinna also asked the excise board, which includes Mayor Michael Marotti and Commissioners Vincent Strumolo, Joseph McGreevy and Matthew Pica, to accept court manuscripts prior to January 1979 in order to avoid "repetitious testimony."

Marra objected saying that the transcripts were not related to the renewal of a liquor license, but Marotti accepted the evidence.

During Belleville Officer George Sheridan's testimony on noise complaints at Parrillo's, attorney Marra asked if The Fountain Restaurant when opened emitted more noise in the area than on nights when it was closed.

"You can't compare these two establishments," Zinna objected. "The Fountain is not before the board."

"It is fair," Marra said. "It's only a quarter of a mile from Parrillo's."

Along with Sgts. Cornelius Berigan and Robert Estelle and Officers Vincent Masi, Allan T. McGinn, John Martucci, Arthur Connelly, Roland Berry, Vincent Capetta and Sheridan, Zinna also called Town Court Clerk Cheryl Coolick.

Marra strongly objected to Miss Coolick's testimony charging that it was only "heresy testimony. The best evidence is from the people. This testimony is not subject to cross-examination."

"But these convictions are important because they emanate from Parrillo's," Zinna said. "Our town has Please see "Excise" on page 20.

Scenes of school's final days

First Graduate — Scott Jackson (center), injured in a motorcycle accident last Tuesday and unable to attend the graduation ceremony at BHS Tuesday night, was presented his diploma at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital that afternoon. With him (l-r) are BHS Principal John DeCesare, School Board President Ralph Risoli, his father Robert Jackson and School Superintendent Dr. John Greed. More photos next week.

Site of courtyard at BHS uncertain

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held Tuesday morning for the new student courtyard at Belleville High School, but the site where the shovels turned the earth may not be the one at which the facility will eventually be built.

School trustees are still not agreed on where the courtyard should be built and Tuesday's groundbreaking was nearly canceled at Monday's Board of Education meeting. The ceremony had originally been set for June 11 but was postponed by the board for further study of the site. With graduation Tuesday and school closing yesterday, trustees voted this past Monday to at least go ahead with the ceremonies, however.

The courtyard was the project of this year's senior class, and students sponsored a benefit basketball game in February between professional athletes and Board of Education members to raise money for the facility. "We will not see the senior class again and frankly, they worked their butts off to make this game a success," said Trustee Michael Chieffo Monday in arguing for permitting the groundbreaking to take place.

As it now stands, the courtyard, with benches and tables for use by students on lunch or study breaks, would be built in front of the high school in the area to the left of the one-way driveway and the right of the pathway onto Passaic Avenue. Chieffo said the spot, "barren now," was the best one and would "create a campus atmosphere" at the high school.

School Board President Ralph Risoli worried that having the courtyard at the proposed site would present security problems and suggested the site be the existing yard at the center of the high school since that spot could be enclosed and sealed off from outside intruders.

Several board members, however, pointed out that the courtyard would be visible from classrooms if it were built at the school center and thus would create a distraction. Cora Boyce, a citizen active in school affairs, also noted the area Risoli proposed was now used by science classes engaged in environmental studies.

Chieffo argued that the area in front of the high school would be secure because it could be easily watched, but Risoli said it would be hard to close down since it would be open and that would lead to more problems. "Don't you think that by it being there at nighttime that it would create more vandalism?"

"It's possible," said board Vice President Ernie Zoppi. "Possible! That's a fact," replied Risoli.

Chieffo noted that youngsters now congregate around the basketball courts by the high school, but though the courts have been there a number of years, the board has received nothing other than occasional noise complaints.

Wherever the courtyard is finally located, it will receive considerable community backing. The phone company has agreed to donate poles that can be cut up for tables and benches. Cerami Construction Company of Belleville will contribute blocking and brick and Mayor Michael Marotti has arranged for a town machine to do the excavation.

New senior bus service will begin this morning

By Mary Dominick

A bus service which will provide a transportation link between Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley for senior citizens will be launched today.

The intermunicipal network, the first of its kind in Essex, will be run by the county's Transition Office and Office on Aging. It will expand significantly the transportation facilities for elderly residents by using the mini buses now running in the three towns.

According to Larry Cuomo, who planned the new program, the service will function only on Thursdays until its success is evaluated. Cuomo said that the service may then operate on a two-or-three-day-a-week basis.

Senior citizens will be able to travel to fixed points in Bloomfield and Nutley by meeting at a depot at the merge point of Joratanom Street, Hoover and Bloomfield Avenues. The schedule for the day is as follows: At 10 a.m., seniors will be picked up at Garden and Belleville Avenues, and the bus will proceed to the depot at 11:05. At 11:30, the bus will make stops all along Washington Avenue from King to Mill Streets, and at noon the bus will stop at Garden and Belleville Avenues again. The bus will proceed down Washington Avenue to King Street at 12:30, and at 1:05 the bus will stop at the depot. It will then go down Washington and make a final stop at the depot at 2:15.

The buses will meet at the depot a total of three times to transport seniors across the town lines. Cuomo said that the new service will enable seniors to take advantage of the health, educational, cultural and shopping facilities in all three towns.

The residential population of the service area numbers 118,771 persons, of whom 19,658 are 60 or older. Residents of Bloomfield, Belleville and Nutley who are eligible for the new program represent 14 percent of Essex seniors.

For further information about the program, contact the Essex County Division on Aging, 520 Belleville Ave., at 751-6050.

Breaking Ground — Belleville High senior class president Joe Longo digs in at groundbreaking ceremonies Tuesday for the future student courtyard. With him are student officers Charisse Ritacco, Susan MacArthur, Luann Graffeo, Peggy Gilday, Ed Aulisi, Marie Clarizio, Gladys Greed, Susan Costa, Ferly Esquillo, Ken Constantino and Phil D'Agostino.

Today final day to register for summer music classes

Today is the deadline for students to register for the summer music school being sponsored by the Recreation Department in cooperation with the Belleville Music Parents Association. Tuition will be $22, and any Belleville student is eligible to attend. Classes and lessons will be geared to meet the needs of students attending.

The music school will operate for five weeks, Mondays through Fridays, June 25 through July 27. Classes will meet daily 8:30 a.m. to noon at School 7, located on the corner of Jorammon Street and Passaic Avenue.

Instructions will be given in fundamentals of music, beginning wind instruments and strings, intermediate and advanced bands, orchestra, high school, marching and dance bands.

Instruments being taught are flute, oboe, clarinet, saxophone, bassoon, trumpet, trombone, french horn, baritone, tuba, violin, viola, cello, string bass and drums.

There will be assembly programs to which parents and other interested persons are invited 11 a.m. to noon July 6, 13 and 20 in School 7's all-purpose room.

Grand Opening — Ribbon-cutting ceremonies for Wallcovering Direct Inc. were held recently at the store's 161 Washington Ave. address. On hand (l-r) were partner Erni Zoppi, Commissioner Mary Senatore, Mayor Michael Marotti and Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Harry French.

Comments and letters can be sent to RITA, care of the TIMES/NEWS, 108 Greylock Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109. Letters may be signed or submitted anonymously. Rita is a social worker at the town's Juvenile Aid Bureau. Her weekly column is geared to those problems facing adolescents, their parents and anyone else dealing with teenagers.

Dear Rita,

I was just looking at pictures of my parents when they first got married 20 years ago. I was surprised to see them laughing and having a really good time with each other, just like I do with my boyfriend now.

It's hard to imagine that my parents today were those two people then. Now they always seem to argue, and I never see them have fun!

I don't think I want to get married if that's what a relationship turns into. Can I make it different for me when I grow up?

Hoping for a Better Way

Dear Hoping,

There are many ingredients that go into making a good marriage. Among them are being ready for a more responsible relationship, having similar goals and some interests and — what I feel is greatly lacking in many relationships today — the opportunity to develop one's own individuality.

From what I have observed and experienced, two people have to continue to grow with the world around them and learn to appreciate not just each other but outside interests as well. Otherwise, they start to melt together and destroy their compatible but unique qualities.

It's important to have things in common, but I think it's also just as necessary to develop different interests as well, such as dancing, exercise, hobbies, education, music, museums, friends, even trips. That way, you can still have a part of you which is all your own and add to what you have already with each other. New interests help keep the relationship alive and growing.

So next time your boyfriend or husband isn't interested in taking extra classes, do it by yourself! If your wife or girlfriend doesn't want to jog at 6 o'clock, give her and yourself a break and face the dawn alone! You'll both learn to appreciate this new freedom.

As long as you don't go into marriage expecting it to be the only key to happiness and an end in itself, and continue to grow inside, you'll have a much more interesting relationship and life.

Added facilities needed for school hot lunches

Local elementary school children may enjoy hot lunches in the upcoming academic year if trustees decide to participate in the federal National School Lunch Program.

Board administrative secretary Mary Shader explained that the national program "assured 75 percent of the funding for hot lunch facilities in each school."

Mrs. Shader noted, however, that a new electrical unit would be needed in School 1 which is not equipped with enough power to handle the hot lunch facilities. If School 1 received the unit it needs, children at nearby School 2, which is not equipped either, could also be served.

The new electrical unit would cost approximately $4,500. The hot lunch program could still be run without the new electrical unit, but food would have to be transported from another school to Schools 1 and 2.

The Gausepohl victory

Essex County Democrat Chairman Horace Bus Gausepohl scored a major victory last week in winning reelection to his post when all indications were that he would lose by 200 votes. Eighty-five percent of Essex County Democrat committee members turned out for the contest. Gausepohl had to beat down formidable opposition in order to score his upset victory.

As Democrat county chairman, Bus Gausepohl has no jobs to offer the faithful. Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro's authority is sufficient to line up troops in support of what Shapiro seeks. In the matter of electing an Essex County Democrat chairman, Shapiro was determined to oust Gausepohl from the post. Shapiro went further. He requested Gausepohl to step out.

Gausepohl defied Shapiro and the result is now history. We supported Gausepohl for the election because we believe politics needs more honest people like Gausepohl. Instead of encouraging Gausepohl to retain his leadership spot and work together, Shapiro became a divisive force in the Democrat Party.

The only reason there is division in the Democrat ranks today in Essex County is Peter Shapiro. Gausepohl stands for integrity in politics — and Shapiro could well learn a few lessons about integrity in politics by sitting at the knee of Gausepohl.

We believe Peter Shapiro should return to the job for which he was elected — Essex County executive — and stop trying to influence county employees to pursue his political edicts.

Shapiro has monumental problems facing him in his post. We cannot see how or why taxpayers should subsidize Shapiro's daytime political activities when the tax burden is already too great. We wonder how much it costs the taxpayers for Shapiro and his cabinet to take time out of their busy day to conduct a campaign to elect a Democrat county chairman. They used taxpayers' telephones on taxpayers' time. At least this is what appears to be common knowledge — and if it is a fact, there goes integrity in government.

The major problem facing both parties is the need to elect a State Legislature which will deal with the question of redistricting the legislative districts in 1981. The big guns of both parties will be imported for the November election.

The time has come for Gausepohl to get the right time from Peter Shapiro. If Peter Shapiro would only stick to his knitting, he could probably make one great county executive. Meanwhile, at Democrat County Headquarters, the voters of both parties can be assured there is a man of integrity at the helm of the Democrat Party.

The SCI

The State Commission of Investigation has been given another five-year lease on life. This week, the New Jersey Assembly gave final legislative approval to the extender.

Although Senator Carmen Orechio voted for the bill as finally enacted, he is of the opinion the work of the State Commission of Investigation has been so productive that the agency should be a permanent one. However, the votes are lacking in the legislature to give permanent life to the agency.

The new legislation gives the Senate the power to approve two of the four commission members.

We agree that the commission has accumulated such an excellent record that it should be made permanent.

However half a loaf is better than none and we applaud the legislature for approving the five-year-renewal.

Frank A. Orechio

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Congratulations are in order for the resurgence of Democratic organization strength in re-electing Essex County Democratic Chairman Horace "Bus" Gausepohl. It was not only a win for the popular, affable Gausepohl who starred on the gridiron for Belleville High back in the 30s, but a severe setback for Peter Shapiro who was thwarted in his effort to take over party control.

Shapiro, the county executive, backed Montclair Chairman Walther, a pilot for United Airlines, in his bid to unseat the winner in the expectation of gaining sole control of the party and its patronage with its advantages in view of next year's presidential elections and the role Essex County might wield in the party's state delegation.

In spite of the narrow margin of victory of only 74 votes, the win demonstrated conclusively the mounting antagonism growing within the ranks by old-line party stalwarts toward Shapiro for his seemingly bold attempt to arrogantly "rule the roost" and run roughshod over many long-established Democratic leaders throughout the county.

This was best indicated when 22 members of the party supported Gausepohl's re-election by calling him "the person who will guarantee the continued first-class status of the Essex County Democratic Party." Among them were such party powerhouses as Newark Mayor Gibson, Essex County Sheriff Cryan, Essex County Register Stalks, County Freeholders Beatty and Scaturro and East Orange Mayor Tom Cooke Jr.

Walther's campaign literature stressed his "special relationships" with Shapiro, Governor Byrne and President Carter. Walther suggested these were keys to provide "jobs," the patronage and fund-raising ability needed to bring a banner victory for the party in the county. Apparently, this approach didn't set too well with the old-guard pros of the party. They often find ways of making "arrangements" to assure entrenched power.

It would appear that is exactly what occurred. Gausepohl's win produced victory for his entire team, with Queenie James, Newark's South Ward vice chairman, replacing Commissioner Mary Senatore, the Belleville chairman, who did not stand for re-election as county vice chairman.

Standing proud in victory, "Bus," in a short statement proclaiming his well deserved triumph, lashed out at Shapiro, reiterating his scorn for Shapiro's request that he step down as county chairman. Said Gausepohl, "I don't think anyone in the county has the right to tell any individual not to run for county chairman... That put my back up and for God's sake, don't take kindness for weakness and sincerity for stupidity."

Replying to criticism that he was weak and indecisive, Gausepohl put Shapiro on notice he'll not be "pushed around." Gausepohl had indicated he plans to retire from his post as head of the Division of Public Works in Shapiro's administration when eligible for his pension in August.

Many feel that prior commentaries by a political reporter for a daily paper may have had considerable effect upon developments in the outcome of the county chairman election in the Democratic party. One of his opinions suggested "Gausepohl's days appear to be numbered. He wasn't helped when some anti-Shapiro Democrats began suggesting that State Sen. Carmen Orechio take up the battle against Shapiro-Walther." The writer also "put on the spot" Commissioner Senatore when he wrote, "According to sources, party vice-chairman Mary Senatore, who is also the Belleville municipal leader, has promised her support to Walther." This might have left the inference that she was "obliged" to do so, in view of her cushy county job over which Shapiro exercises jurisdiction, or else.

In regard to his commentary concerning State Senator Orechio's role in the county chairman's election, it is the studied opinion of this writer that it was Senator Orechio's support of "Bus" Gausepohl and his team that "crushed" Shapiro's bid to become the political sultan of Essex County and thwarted his ambition to "call all the shots." Me thinks the lad aspires to gain power too fast.

Program on drug abuse attracts small crowd

To the editor:

Where were YOU? On Wednesday, May 16, an informative program concerning drug abuse was offered at the High School sponsored by the Belleville Citizens Drug Committee. Perhaps ten people other than the Executive Committee were in attendance.

What can be more important than learning how to help your child? Awareness is a key part in coping with the problems our children face. You might be tempted to say "Oh no! Not my child." And maybe you are right, but this problem is no longer limited to the inner city. It is our suburban children who are entangled in the web of drugs.

If we even had the officers and executive boards of our 11 schools we would be reaching a large percentage of our population. You are the representatives of your schools. You could be carrying the message. Don't you feel this is part of working for our children? The wonderful job you do with your fund raising is a small part of what you could do.

Representatives of the officials of our schools and town were present. However, more support is needed to be successful.

The problem is all around us. If it hasn't touched us we should be ever grateful to the Almighty. Show your gratitude. Help someone else. Be aware. Learn what you can do.

It is curious that during election time every headquarter is buzzing with people every night in the week. Maybe we should call on these leaders to help us arouse your interest!

We need to attack this problem as a community, not just a few people. We must be our brother's keeper. We can all participate, no matter how small to make our community safe and drug free.

Next meeting is June 26 at 8:00 p.m. in the Board of Education Office. Belleville Drug and Alcohol Committee

Charge rec grounds hangout for vandals

Town Commissioners last week heard a resident's plea to close down the recreation grounds at Springer and Garden Avenues at nightfall.

Carmine Sicurillo of 201 Garden Ave. charged the area had become the site for fireworks discharges, vandalism, drug-dealing and teenage drinking. A group of 10 to 15 youths had placed the neighborhood "in terror," he said, and added that by "hanging out there, they're disturbing the peace and quiet of hard-working people."

The recreation site now remains open until about 10 p.m. May through October and until about 8 p.m. the rest of the year. Sicurillo asked commissioners last Tuesday for a closing time of sundown throughout the year, but they were not receptive.

"Children don't have anywhere to go now," said Mayor Michael Marotti. "For a handful, you're asking us to close it down."

Marotti noted that there were legitimate recreational activities taking place at the site, and Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica added that closing the grounds at night would only mean transferring any problems from that area to another. "What do we do with the kids when they leave there?" he asked.

Sicurillo told commissioners the site was so strewn with broken glass from beer bottles that children couldn't use the swings there during the day. He also said his house had been a target of vandalism — he had to replace the aluminum siding and an egg was thrown through a screen — and added he could sue the town "for hundreds of dollars" if he chose. "Why do you ask us something and then come through with a threat?" Pica asked angrily.

Pica said the best solution to the problem was more effective law enforcement and prosecution. Sicurillo said later, however, that calls to police had not alleviated the problem.

BHS class in CPR due in autumn

Students at Belleville High School this fall will be studying more than their usual course work. Under a program being coordinated by Hoffman-LaRoche, classes will be given in the art of saving lives by cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Besides Belleville, the program will be introduced at Clifton and Nutley High Schools, reports Doug Weir, chief coordinator of emergency medical services at Roche.

The emergency method of sustaining breathing and blood flow until medical help arrives has increased survival rates of thousands of patients stricken with heart attacks and other medical crises. Now, the number of people able to perform this lifesaving technique will be increased as potentially thousands of high school students are taught the CPR method.

Weir, an experienced paramedic, has already taught the basics of CPR to hundreds of people. He learned of the proposal to train high school teachers while serving on the American Heart Association's Instructor Training Board.

Working with Hubert Roth of the Nutley Emergency and Rescue Squad, Weir coordinated the project, recruiting CPR instructors from both inside and outside Roche. Management lent support by making Roche facilities available for the classes.

"We had a tremendous turnout," Weir reports. "We taught almost 40 teachers." After learning the basics, teachers who pass a special instructor's training class will be qualified to go back to their respective schools and teach CPR to high school students.

Nursing students graduated in ceremony at Clara Maass

Capping — a symbolic ceremony signifying the freshman nursing student's formal introduction into the profession — was held for Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Nursing School students at the First Lutheran Church of Montclair.

Thirty eight students were capped including Gerard Cinque, the first male to enroll in the local school. The young women received caps, the symbol of their chosen profession, while Cinque received a chevron for his uniform. Harold A. Brack, Ph.D., speech and homiletics professor at Drew University, was guest speaker. He addressed the students, faculty, hospital staff, family and colleagues on "Care, Competence and Compassion in the Nursing Profession."

THE FRESHMEN performed a choral selection, "Watching the River Run" by Loggins and Messina, while holding the symbol of nursing, the lit candle, in honor of Florence Nightingale.

The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, affiliated with Upsala College in East Orange, offers a three-year diploma program in nursing. This prepares the student to become registered professional nurses. Clara Maass School of Nursing is accredited by the National League for Nursing. This signifies recognition by the U.S. Office of Education that the school's program has met or exceeded national standards of excellence in nursing education.

This excellence is verified by the outstanding passing rate achieved by Clara Maass graduates on the State Board of Nursing Licensing Exam. There is a close student-faculty relationship which nurtures individual effort, independent study and intellectual curiosity. The curriculum is designed to reflect experimental theories of education and to promote student mastery of the nursing profession in actual practice.

'Friends' organized for youths at shelter

The Friends of the Essex County Children's Shelter is a group of concerned citizens who have joined together to enhance the well-being of the children whose temporary welfare is being handled at the Belleville Shelter.

The functions of the Friends include promoting the services and purpose of the shelter, assisting in volunteer programs, raising funds for special projects and providing for any other services that may be of assistance in fulfilling overall programs and purposes. At present, the Friends are focusing upon raising funds for recreational projects, since the shelter's budget for such activities has been drastically reduced. The first fund-raiser will be a recipe book which will be produced at the shelter in the near future.

The Friends are seeking to enlarge their ranks. Anyone interested in helping to promote the growth and development of these children, whose family lives have been severely disrupted, may contact Helen Seay, director of volunteer services, at 751-7666, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Howard's trust marks 50th year

The Howard Savings Bank is celebrating the 50th anniversary of the founding of its Trust Department, according to Murray Forbes, president and chief executive officer.

In 1929 the Howard became the first mutual savings bank in the country to offer trust services to its depositors on a full time basis. Since then its Trust Department has grown to a staff of over 400 people who are experts in all fields of financial management.

"Our prime concern has always been the individual attention that each client requires in order to realize his personal financial goals," Forbes said. "We have tax specialists who keep up to date on current tax regulations, and a special investment section of our Trust Department devotes itself exclusively to portfolio management for its customers."

THE FULL RANGE of personal services offered by the Howard indicates the extent to which it has taken on the financial care of thousands of its clients. Not only does the bank serve in various capacities in connection with wills and trust agreements, but for several years now the Howard's Trust Department has offered master pension plans and master profit sharing plans.

One unusual aspect of the Howard Trust Department's operation is the use of an IBM "System 3" computer that offers daily review of assets, speedy crediting of dividends and interest to individual client accounts, plus extensive audit controls.

"When dealing with the public, this is a must," according to DeWitt C. Reynolds, vice president and trust officer. "Information which is fed into the computer today is available in all our reports tomorrow morning. We're in a position to provide immediate information to our clients regarding any phase of their accounts."

Reynolds, who has been in the Trust Department since 1960, reflects on certain incidents which stand out in his memory.

A winner of the Irish Sweepstakes once entrusted his prize to the Howard for investment, and many stars of the sports and entertainment world have come to its Trust Department for financial advice.

"Many years ago an estate being settled by the bank contained a coin collection," according to Reynolds. "In the course of determining its value, a Flying Eagle penny was discovered among the coins and was appraised at tens of thousands of dollars. The heirs were fortunate in having the expertise of the Howard's Trust Department in evaluating the estate and realizing its true worth."

THE FIRST TRUST officer at the Howard was Frank E. Quimby, who was assisted and succeeded by John W. Kress in 1941. Twenty years later Kress became president of the bank and in 1970 was elected board chairman. When he died in 1973, his career had spanned half a century and brought him great distinction as a banker and community leader.

Presently located at 80 Main St., West Orange, the Howard's Trust Department will soon be relocating to the bank's new operations center at 200 South Orange Ave., Livingston. A regional trust office is also maintained in Shrewsbury for the benefit of South Jersey residents.

"When you convert to gas heat, we first make sure your home uses energy wisely!"

Arch Van Vliet, Sr.
Marketing Representative

"You now can convert to gas heat because many restrictions on the use of gas have ended. But first, we have to make sure that your home won't waste heat. After all, gas is one of our nation's most valuable energy sources.

"We check to see if your home has adequate roof insulation, proper storm windows and doors, and an automatic night-and-day thermostat.

"Just call us for a free home heating survey. You'll find out if your home meets the requirements for using energy wisely. We'll also tell you more about gas heat and give you an idea of costs.

"When you convert to gas heat you get important extra benefits without charge. We provide adjustment service to the gas burning parts' and controls of your furnace. And we check your unit periodically to be sure it's clean and safe.

"PSE&G's gas supply outlook is the best it has been in years. Conservation has helped a lot.

Pipeline companies have also increased their deliveries to PSE&G, and new federal legislation has spurred additional gas production which probably will further increase our gas supply.

"But remember. If you're going to convert to gas heat, make sure your home meets our wise-energy-use requirements."

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

Effective with your July Social Security payment, you should receive a 9.9 percent increase in your benefits. Supplemental Security benefits will also increase 9.9 percent.

Legislation to create a national system of health insurance is being sponsored in the House of Representatives by Rep. Robert A. Roe (District 8). Roe says that the comprehensive health measure is designed to create a national system of health security benefits which, through national health insurance, would make comprehensive health service available to all residents of this country.

The measure would also distribute health care costs more equitably in relation to income and would provide major protection against catastrophic costs. Known as the Health Security Act of 1979, the bill seeks modifications in the organization and method of delivery of health services which will increase the availability and continuity of health care.

This legislation has been referred to the House Ways and Means and Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committees. Said Roe, "Adequate health care for all of our people must now be recognized as a right, and a national system of health security is the means to implement that right." This bill is not to be confused with the Kennedy-Corman health bill.

Roe also introduced a bill, HR-711, which will provide for automatic increases in Social Security benefits on a six-month instead of an annual basis.

Vacation checklist. In addition to all of the obvious things to do before you leave home, such as notifying your mailman, milkman and newsboy to discontinue deliveries, the American Automobile Association suggests the following: Arrange to have someone mow the lawn, unplug your TV set and other appliances.

Turn off your furnace and air conditioner, make sure that the gas stove is turned off and check all windows and doors for security, including cellar windows and garage doors. Hook up a light or two and perhaps a radio to automatic timers to turn on in the evening and off at about midnight. Do not have your telephone disconnected, hide a key outside or leave any note about your absence.

A year in athletics not to be forgotten

Graduation day Tuesday marked the end of a very proud and great year in the annals of sports at Belleville High School.

It all started last August with the varsity football team. Football at Belleville had been on the downturn gradually since the 1974 season, and the start of the '78 campaign didn't look too bright. The squad was up against a difficult schedule and was just 2-6-1 in 1977, having been shut out four times. However, second year coach John Senesky and the team had the desire and talent to make a run for respectability.

The opening game of the season was a night contest against the powerful Lancers of Livingston. Livingston has been a perennial power in football and 1978 was no exception. It was a great surprise, therefore, when Belleville, now nicknamed the Buccaneers after being called the Belboys for so many years, stunned Livingston 28-14. The victory was particularly sweet considering that the Lancers were 40-0 winners over Belleville in 1977.

Week number two was a home contest with the Mounties of Montclair. Montclair was expected by a lot of football experts to win the state crown and had a devastating running duo of Steve Puryear and Hal Jackson. The Bucs concentrated so well on shutting down that tandem that they completely forgot about the tough Mountie passing game. Quarterback Ken Testa threw two touchdown passes in a matter of two minutes and wore out the Bucs with a display of devastating defense en route to a 27-6 win.

The third game of the season was the one that fans and players wait for every year. The classic Belleville-Nutley rivalry had turned into a Maroon Raider dominance in the past several years. Belleville hadn't won against the Raiders since 1971, hadn't a touchdown since 1973 and was scoreless since 1974. The Bucs put a quick and explosive end to all that with a 31-0 trouncing of Nutley.

The Bucs went up against a group of gazelles with football uniforms in the fourth week of the season. The Indians of Passaic gave an awesome exhibit of speed and passing and burned the Bucs 38-13. The Bucs won the following week 27-7 in their first road game of the year.

At the homecoming game against Essex Catholic, Belleville used some key runs by junior fullback Mike Nicosia and played excellent defense in turning back the Eagles, 19-0.

With its record at an amazing 4-2 and with the possibility of a post-season playoff berth, Belleville traveled to South Orange to play the Pirates of Seton Hall. The game might have been a little more enjoyable had the officiating not been so one-sided. Seton Hall used some good running by John Merklinger and won the game 28-6.

Belleville won the last two games of the season by beating Clark 16-7 and blanking Kearny 21-0 on Thanksgiving Day. All told, the team had three shutouts and limited two teams to just one touchdown. Senior Angelo Santinelli earned all-county honors at the center position, and juniors Ed Aulisi, a quarterback, and Nicosia earned honorable mention in the county.

The soccer team, a varsity squad for four years now, came through with its first winning season, by posting a 10-5-3 mark. Shortly after the season ended, head coach Tony Cahill announced his retirement.

The girls' tennis team finished on the .500 level against some very tough competition. Head coach Karen Fucello and her team were up against powerhouses Caldwell, Livingston and Verona as well as a tough match with Nutley.

The cross country team had a tough season, winning just twice. The team was hit with a major blow when captain Mike Graham was sidelined with a stress fracture of his foot and missed the entire season.

Good things continued in the winter months. The wrestling team finished 6-21 for the regular season and then went on to capture the county, district and regional crowns. Junior Chris Musmanno was one match away from an undefeated season when he was beaten in the state finals.

The girls' basketball team finished the season with a 16-7 record, the most wins in the history of Belleville girls' basketball. Head coach Karen Fucello led the team to the Essex County semifinals and to the second round of the state finals. The jayvee team under the direction of Debbie Meola finished at 9-5, so the varsity team looks very promising for next year.

The boys' basketball team got off to a good start but faltered and closed with a 4-16 mark. Head coach Dan Grasso announced his resignation from the coaching reins after six years. A bright note was the play of senior Pete Martin in the center position. The four wins were the most for the team since the 1974-75 season.

The spring clubs finished off a great year on the field. The track team finished with its most successful season in three years. Seniors Joe D'Agostino, Mike Graham and Karen Portuese all advanced to the state finals, and Graham broke his own half-mile record during the season. Junior Tom Graham had a magnificent year doubling in the mile and two-mile, while sophomore Dana Caruso was brilliant in tripling in the half, mile and two-mile.

The crew team turned in a .500 record, but good things look to be in the future. The freshman shell had a great year, and the club returns a lot of this year's rowers to next year's team. In addition, the girls' crew team, in its second year of existence, did an admirable job.

Tennis, under the direction of Mike Pollard, had a disappointing year after a promising season in 1978. The final record was 3-14, but there were some silver linings, mainly in the play of senior Gary Giancone and the doubles play of underclassmen Kenny Beck and Jerry Gold, and Bradley Clinton and Vinnie DeMeola.

The golf team finished with a remarkable 12-3 record but will lose practically the entire team to graduation. Women's athletics made a successful close with the softball team posting an 11-6 record. Denise Zarra, the team's catcher, led the squad in hits, average and with an on-base percentage of .667.

Finally the baseball team had another outstanding season under George Zanfini. The final record was 17-4. The team was led by senior pitcher Dan Borgo who posted an 8-2 record and had six saves. He also hit .323. Junior Mike Nicosia was the sparkplug at the plate with a .375 average. Junior hurler Ed Aulisi was 3-1, and sophomore Anthony Coco finished with a 6-0 mark on the mound.

The class of 1979 was a group of athletes who should not be forgotten. And a great group of people. They deserve the town's thanks and appreciation.

Legion baseball returns to the local sport scene

Nancy Lopez — Nancy Lopez, one of the most popular figures in women's sports today, speaks with reporters after winning the prestigious $100,000 LPGA Coca-Cola Classic at the Upper Montclair Country Club in Clifton. Donations and proceeds from ticket sales at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital realized over $5,000 to benefit the hospital's community health and education programs.

First squad in three years here looks like a good one

By Mike Lambert

After a long absence, a Belleville American Legion baseball team has returned.

The team, coached by Anthony Bruno and Jack Throckmorton, is back in action after three years of no Legion baseball here. The way Bruno sees it, the Legion team looks very strong. "The kids are talented and are good learners," said Bruno who has coached most of the players on the club since they were in the Little League. "I think we should definitely have a good season."

The Legion team was scheduled to have opened the 1979 summer season with an away game against Livingston, but the contest was postponed because of wet grounds. Yesterday the Legionnaires were host to Essex Catholic.

The locals will play their home games at the BHS stadium, the same field where the varsity baseball team plays. As a matter of fact, many of the players on the Legion team saw action on this year's 17-4 varsity team.

There was not a great turnout for the club, but the 18 players on the team possess a great deal of talent.

Some familiar names appear on this year's roster. For instance, guess who will be one of the pitchers? If you answered Dan Borgo, you were right. Joining Borgo on this year's team will be Mike Nicosia, a .375-hitter on the BHS varsity; Joe Franceschini, the varsity first baseman; Anthony Cosentino, a fine defensive catcher for the varsity team; Tom Agosta, Eugene Cancellieri, a standout pitcher for this year's 20-2 freshman team; Steve Coffey, Jerry DiGiori, Frank Esposito, Jerry Fazzini, Carl Garofolo, Joe Guarino, Mike Pellagrine, Mike Raimone, Joe Lipoma, Mike SamGiacomo and slugger Jimmy Tensfield.

The team has 15 games on the schedule, not including the playoffs in August. All told, there are eight teams in the league, and the games will last for most of the summer. Nutley, which has had a Legion team for a number of years now — a team which had a lot of Belleville players when there was no Legion squad here — will also be fielding a team. The competition should be tough, fierce and extremely exciting.

Strong pitching enables Giants to top Pirates for Senior crown

The Senior League Giants defeated the Pirates 6-3 in the final game of the season this past week to secure the league title. Both teams were unbeaten in the second half of the game began, but the combined pitching of Joe DeGregorio, Vinny Lombardozzi and Robby Cancelliere halted the Pirates in their bid for the championship.

Cancelliere, Lombardozzi, Joe DeFeo and Robert Walker led the way offensively for the Giants who finished the season undefeated with a 9-0-1 mark. Coached by George Marino, and Lenny D'Armiento, other members of the championship squad were David Stefanelli, Ralph Woodcock, Matt Pitera, Lenny Russo, Michael Concato, Bob Bolchune, Patrick Morrison, Andrew Sclari, Steve Poto, Mike Jetton, Andy Zoppi and Sterling Lutz.

Earlier in the week, the Giants edged the Braves 5-4. Robby Cancelliere led the way with a single, double and triple. Mike Jetton started the game for the Giants and was relieved by the game's winning pitcher, Andy Zoppi. An outstanding effort was made by the Braves' pitcher, Joe Pontrella, who struck out seven.

The Giants also topped their rivals, the Cubs, 7-1. Vinny Lombardozzi outdueled Jim Mingucci in a strong pitching effort. The scored was tied 1-1 in the fifth inning when Robert Walker doubled and stole third. With two outs, Robby Cancelliere went in the winning run. In the seventh inning, Joe DeFeo tripled with the bases loaded for insurance runs.

Other Senior League results in the final week of play were Pirates 10, Cubs 8; Braves 12, Yanks 7, and Yanks 7, Mets 7. Besides the Giants, the Cubs were 6-3, the Pirates 5-5, the Mets 2-5-3, the Yanks 2-5-2 and the Braves 1-7-2.

Chip Bialore off to Sarasota after signing pact with Cubs

Belleville's Anthony "Chipper" Bialore has signed a professional baseball contract with the Chicago Cubs. He left last Thursday for Florida to play for the Sarasota Cubs in the Gulf Coast Rookie League.

Bialore, who had just completed his junior year at Monmouth College, was picked by the Cubs in the 23rd round of the college baseball draft June 7. How do you recognize Chartered Life Underwriters?

They may appear to be like any other businessman with whom you come in daily contact, but they are especially qualified professionals, persons who have earned the CLU designation by completing five years of intensive college-level studies and have met the national professional and ethical standards required to become a Chartered Life Underwriter.

The objective of the CLU program is not only to help life underwriters gain the subject knowledge that is needed to serve their clients' life and health insurance needs well, but to instill in them the attitude of placing the clients' interest above their own.

There is a Chapter of the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters in your area. Get to know them better so that they can better serve your life insurance needs.

Braves win Junior National title

Frank DeFranco drove in the winning run in the bottom of the sixth inning with a clutch single. Lenny Wilson pitched for the victory. Jim Siclari had three hits for the Dodgers, and Dawn Frahm and John Messaglia added one apiece. Tim Buckley and Mike Danduno pitched well for the Dodgers in a losing effort.

Other scores: This week were Indians 18, Cards 15; Clippers 18, Tigers 8; Cubs 20, Giants 4; White Sox 27, Pirates 19; Bears 28, Aces 8; Cards 14, Borifbers 10; Clippers 11, Bombers 9 and Yanks 14, Pirates 3.

In early second half season action, the Tigers chalked up two victories. Scoring six runs in the fourth inning, the Tigers went ahead 10-7 and held on to win 10-8 over the Aces. Rich Curto led the Tigers with two doubles and three RBI. A.J. Serafino, John Scricco and Andrew Persaud each had two RBI. Tim Daudelin provided the go-ahead run with his RBI. John Scricco pitched his second straight victory, striking out 10 and getting some good defensive help from Anthony Cosenzo and Nicky Wendling.

The Tigers, with their best performance of the season, jumped off to an early lead and held on for a 14-5 win over the Indians. Rich Curto pitched a four-hitter for his second win of the year. Curto went four-for-five with five RBI. The other run-batted-in came from A.J. Serafino (three), Andrew Persaud (two), John Scricco, Gary Gunbracht, Joe Nelson and Timothy Kane.

Peanut League
The Giants (8-1) maintain their hold on first place in the Recreation Peanut League. They defeated the Clippers 18-13, the Pirates 6-3 and the Astros 8-7 this past week.

The Cardinals were winners over the Pirates and over the Astros 11-4. ## Wrestling tourney at BHS Saturday

The Belleville Wrestling Parents & Friends Association will sponsor an area wrestling tournament Saturday at Belleville High School.

Those who were in high school in the 1978-79 academic year are eligible to participate. High school weights and rules will apply.

Fees are $4 for advance registration, $5 at the door. For information, call Joe Zarra at 759-8147 or Sam Graziano at 759-8117.

Santinelli tapped for star grid game

Angelo Santinelli of Belleville High School has been selected to play in the first all-star, all-state football game at Rutgers University June 30. The senior center, chosen by a committee of the New Jersey Interscholastic Coaches Association, will be a member of the north team.

Net proceeds of the game will benefit The New Jersey Association for Retarded Citizens (NJARC), a 30-year-old non-profit organization that has been a principal advocate for programs and services for the retarded.

Tickets — $2 for students, $3 for adults prepaid and $4 for everyone at the gate — are available from the NJARC state office in New Brunswick or from most local county units. A limited supply of free tickets for mentally retarded persons is also available on request. For information, call 246-2525.

Newark golf open scheduled to start June 22 at Weequahic

The public is invited to walk the greens and follow the golfers during the Newark Open at Weequahic Park in Newark beginning June 22.

The tournament, sponsored by the Essex County Parks Department, is restricted to Newark residents. Qualifying rounds will be held June 22-24 with match rounds on consecutive weekends, July 7-8 and July 14-15.

Both qualifying rounds and match play begin at noon. For more information, call 923-1838.

LaBate had triples and Gerard Cimolo, Vincent Vollerio, John Cerza, Scott Gridley and Anthony Paulth had doubles. In other action, the Tigers overwhelmed the Braves 14-5 and the Dodgers beat the Bombers 27-16.

Women's, Junior Softball
The Sluggers continue to hold first place in the Recreation Women's Softball League. In the Junior Girls' Softball League, the Cheetahs remain in first with no losses.

The Cheetahs defeated the Bobcats 9-7. The winners dominated in the first inning, scoring eight runs. Lois DeLucchio hit a homer for the Cheetahs, and Lorraine Bini smacked one for the Bobcats. Excellent fielding by Denise Nuzzo, Karen Lordi and Carol Russo halted the Bobcats' comeback effort.

Pigtail League
The Reds defeated the Yankees 18-6 in the Pigtail League. The strategy of two "pitchers" seemed to work as Nicole Infantozzi and Renee Pittineo felled well at the position. Debbie Patierno and Infantozzi contributed offensively.

The Cardinals won a 12-9 victory over the Dodgers. Highlights included a home run in the second inning by Karen Fulda. Runs were also scored by Dawn Dunscombe, Michelle Guarnacci, Michele Ferrara, Dina Bocchino, Mary Kudrak, Susan Adams and Kecia Gonzalez.

The Cardinals beat the Mets 11-3 to improve to 4-2. Dina Bocchino hit a home run in the second inning, and Michele Guarnaccio played well defensively, catching several line drives and high pops.

The Dodgers and Tigers played an excellent defensive game. The key run was driven in by Cara Norbut who also contributed good defensive plays. First base was manned well by Linda Wujak. The score was 2-1 in favor of the Dodgers, but the Tigers scored a run on a single by Dawn Romano and a triple by Lou Ann Graziano. The final score was 2-2.

The Reds defeated the Mets 9-3. Contributing to the victory were two doubles by Debbie Patierno and triples by Maria Waldheim and Nicole Infantozzi.

The White Sox stand in first place, the Cubs and Tigers tied for second.

Confirmed: Majority of smokers rate MERIT taste equal to—or better than—leading high tar cigarettes tested! Cigarettes having up to twice the tar.

Confirmed: Majority of smokers confirm taste satisfaction of low tar MERIT.

And in research conducted among current MERIT smokers:

Confirmed: 85% of MERIT smokers say it was an "easy switch" from high tar brands.

Confirmed: Overwhelming majority of MERIT smokers say their former high tar brands weren't missed.

Confirmed: 9 out of 10 MERIT smokers not considering other brands.

First Major Alternative To High Tar Smoking

MERIT has proven conclusively that it not only delivers the flavor of high tar brands—but continues to satisfy! This ability to satisfy over long periods of time could be the most important evidence to date that MERIT is the first real alternative for high tar smokers.

Fiero Fury — Anthony Fiero, part owner of Parrillo's, hesitates to answer Town Attorney Frank Zinna about a parking problem at the disco as Excise Board members (back, l-r) Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, Mayor Michael Marotti and Commissioner Matthew Pica preside. Zinna established that Fiero had never asked all commissioners about help to solve the parking shortage.

to deal with these problems."

Public Safety Director Pica agreed with Zinna, noting the testimony stemmed from decisions made by Municipal Court Judge Edward J. Ahronson.

Marotti agreed to hear the testimony, and Miss Coolick then cited a list of previous charges against the disco which included a pin ball violation along with two assault and battery convictions.

At Monday's hearing, Marra called Police Chief Joseph Smith as his first witness. Marra noted that the police blotter from January 1979 to the present would be taken as evidence.

Marra questioned Smith on what the blotter (a daily record kept at the police desk on all incoming and outgoing calls) read concerning every Friday and Saturday night within the six months.

Marra stressed that the blotter showed many "unfounded complaints" against Parrillo's, and he also noted that the names and addresses of every complainant were not known.

Marra also called Anthony Fiero, one of Parrillo's owners, to the stand and questioned him about how receptive town officials were toward alleviating parking problems in the area.

"Everybody shrugged their shoulders," Fiero said as he explained that he tried to seek additional parking for Parrillo's through Commissioner McGreevy's office and the office of the town clerk.

"Did the police ever approach you about a parking problem or other problems concerning Parrillo's?" Marra asked later.

"I ask them every night how everything is," Fiero claimed. "And they say 'things are getting better.'"

Marotti questioned Fiero as to whether he had tried to contact commissioners about parking. Fiero answered that he had not.

Zinna asked Fiero why he wanted more parking space, and the disco owner answered, "For myself and my employees."

"Do you mean to tell this court that you do not believe you have a parking problem?" Zinna asked.

Fiero hesitated and said, "No."

Chief Witness — Belleville Police Chief Joseph Smith (seated) is called to the stand by disco attorney Allen C. Marra to read the daily blotter regarding complaints against Parrillo's. The town's Excise Board will decide Tuesday whether the "disputed disco" will receive a liquor license renewal.

Suit being filed to stop Pathmark

that the Pathmark complex was not under the planners' jurisdiction.

Krieger told planners that "if there is a lawsuit filed," the resolution would be considered. He also said that he would not direct any action against the Planning Board, but against Shopping Center Developers.

In other business, several residents approached the board and questioned the zoning requirements for fences. Some inquired about constructing seven-foot fences to protect swimming pool areas.

According to the old ordinance, a height requirement of six feet is mandated, but planners said they would review the new ordinance and present the correct standards at the next meeting July 12.

Sperduto's Restaurant is a delightful surprise

There is an old saying, "Never judge a book by its cover." This was never more true than with one of the finest Italian restaurants in our area.

Sperduto's, located directly across from St. Anthony's Church at 80 Franklin St. in the Silver Lake Area of Belleville, hardly gives the external appearance of gourmet dining.

Once inside, however, one finds that the tantalizing aroma and classic cuisine is in keeping with the finest Italian tradition.

Angelo Sperduto and his son Gerald are the chefs in charge of the entire kitchen. What they do for shrimp scampi, clams sasingo and clams oreganata is sheer magic!

For those with delicate appetites, a word of warning. The portions are quite large, so pace yourself accordingly. Do not pass up the fettucini alfredo or the linguine with white clam sauce cooked al dente and deliciously flavored with garlic.

When selecting entrees, an excellent choice is filet gimbotta, a marvelous mixture of broiled filet mignon slices, fried potatoes and green peppers. Another delectable selection is chicken Murphy, heavily spiced with pepper and cooked to perfection.

Since Sperduto's does not have a liquor license, it is recommended that you bring your favorite wine or liquor which the waitress will cheerfully chill and serve with your meal.

Desserts are selective but superb. Italian canoli and creamy cheesecake melt in your mouth.

Pleasant to report, the food is moderately priced for the portions served.

During the weekend it is best to arrive early since the dining room is small and reservations are not accepted. Monday is the only day Sperduto's is closed.

For an evening guaranteed to delight the most fastidious epicurean, treat yourself and your family to Sperduto's Restaurant.

Unity Institute now located at former Montclair Library

Unity Institute has moved: It is now located on the ground floor of the Unitarian Church Annex, formerly the Montclair Library. The entrance is still on Church Street, on the east side of the building. The address remains 67 Church St., Montclair, N.J. 07042.

The move has increased the working space in the office. For the expanded Unity Institute programs in the coming year, the public can be served more efficiently in the new quarters. Good news for the public — no more stairs to climb!

Unity Institute is sponsoring a concert, film and chamber music series for its 1979-80 season, which will mark its 60th anniversary. A few of the highlights include the great concert artists Ashkenazy, de Larocha, and Pinchas Zukerman, plus such special events as the Pennsylvania Ballet and the Waverly Consort. A new feature for Unity will be a jazz concert by Dizzy Gillespie. The film series is presenting "Metropolitan Opera Stars on Film," with personal commentary by Francis Robinson, plus its regular travelogues which will include Ireland, Israel and China in the series of eight films. The Montclair Chamber Music Society will perform six recitals sponsored by Unity Institute.

For additional information, phone the Institute office at 744-6770 or write for a brochure. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
