Town reconsidering sidewalk sale denial

Belleville merchants persuaded the Town Commission Tuesday night to reconsider its earlier decision ending sidewalk sales here. It appears likely that the sales will be reinstituted, though perhaps not as many will be held.

Commissioners had denied a request from the Chamber of Commerce for a sidewalk sale Aug. 9-11 and banned future sales on the ground that they were not "in the best interest of the town." Tuesday, however, commissioners were told that exactly the opposite was true.

"It's like giving us an extra month of business," said Stanley Slavin of Terry Shops, noting that on past sidewalk sale days three times more business than normal had been done. "For the merchants of Washington Avenue, it's very, very vital," said Slavin.

Slavin and Chamber Executive Director Harry Francis pointed out that merchants are permitted to hold sidewalk sales in all of the towns bordering Belleville and those immediately beyond. "You put us in a very bad competitive situation with every single one of our neighboring towns," said Slavin.

"Sidewalk sales are the single best promotion a retailer can run," said Slavin. "The whole purpose is visual merchandising."

"The visual impact of having merchandise out has tremendous effect because of the large volume of traffic on Washington Avenue," he said.

Commissioners had felt the sales were unsightly and criticized them because they blocked sidewalks. Slavin proposed that merchants bring some uniformity to the sales, placing racks in a horizontal, not perpendicular, position to curbs. Slavin noted that Washington Avenue sidewalks are unusually wide, about 20 feet, and said racks could be placed in such a way that there would be a clearance of 10 feet, the width of sidewalks in many other towns. He emphasized, though, that sidewalk sales should not be limited to Washington Avenue.

This year, Chamber members held three sidewalk sales and would have had a fourth had the commission not denied their request. Slavin proposed that the Chamber limit itself to two sales a year. The first would be the Thursday through Saturday after Mother's Day, about mid-May, the second the Thursday through Saturday the week after the week following the Fourth of July. Those dates would allow for spring and summer clearance.

Slavin stressed to commissioners the popularity of the sales with customers, noting that stores here received calls asking when the next sale would be held. "Customers like it," he said. "It's a family day, a day to bring out the kids and stroll the avenue."

Commissioners had few questions, and when the Chamber members had finished making their presentation, Marotti told Slavin, "We'll study this, make up some guidelines and sit down with you and Harry and go over it at our next meeting."

Zone law action will have to wait

By Donna Abale

After a year of studying the new zoning ordinance, the Belleville Board of Commissioners and the local Planning Board met for the first time as a whole to discuss proposals to amend sections of the new law. However, after a sometimes stormy hour-long meeting, anxious residents learned they would have to wait another 35 days for any action.

Town officials debated several controversial parts of the ordinance — including a proposed new neighborhood retail zone, height limitations, residential uses in general business zones and industrial zoning in the Valley section — but no action was taken.

Commissioners' recommendations were submitted to the planners for further study. The Planning Board's findings will be sent to the Board of Commissioners for final say in late October.

The new neighborhood retail zone affecting various sections of Belleville headed the discussion list and prompted the most debate. The new zone places more restrictions on businesses than a general business zone. (See related story on this page.)

Debate has long history

Tuesday night's debate at Town Hall was just the latest in a long series of meetings and clashes over the Belleville zoning ordinance.

It all began back in 1976 when the New Jersey Municipal Land Use Law was passed and Belleville along with other towns was ordered to bring its zoning ordinance into conformity with the new state law by February 1977.

The Planning Board assigned a committee of three — Ed Hebert, Al Schmitt and Joseph Doyle — to review the old ordinance and come up with a new one.

The committee found Belleville's old ordinance so "frayed," "unorganized, contradictory and misleading" that it applied for an extension to complete the new ordinance. The state set a deadline of Feb. 1 this year.

Working piece by piece, the three planners spent almost two-and-a-half years in overtime trying to come up with a new ordinance. The committee submitted its findings to the rest of the planners who in turn studied, revised and formulated them together with their attorney and sent them to the Board of Commissioners in October 1978.

From then until this past January, the ordinance was surrounded in mystery. It was unclear whether both sides would be satisfied. — See page 5.

'Vest Fund' holds breakfast Sunday

The Concerned Citizens of Belleville will hold a breakfast 10 a.m. this Sunday at the Chandelier Restaurant to mark the end of the Police V. St. Fund drive.

Organization members reported this month that nearly enough contributions had been received to help all of the town's police officers with bulletproof vests.

For tickets to the breakfast, call Frank Stanecki (751-0391), Richard Melham (759-3481), Vito Sylvestro (759-6049) or Vincent Cosenzo (751-1110).

Eyesore of the week

Untidy Walkway — Many residents walking along Franklin Avenue near Mill Street have complained of lots such as this one near the railroad tracks and the variety of debris in the area.

Need some cash quick? Here's a place to get it

If you want some quick cash and don't need to tell time for a while, there's a place where you can trade in your watch for dollars until you're back in the money. What may be Belleville's first pawnshop has opened at Charles Jewelers, 163 Washington Ave.

"If you need money and the banks aren't open and if you have anything of value, we will lend you money," said owner Louis Cicienia. "Pawning is a needed service."

Cicienia took over Charles Jewelers just over a year ago when former owner Aaron Cohen retired. "Belleville has never had a pawnshop in its history," according to Cohen. Cicienia stressed that his store has not become strictly a pawnshop. "We're still jewelers offering expert watch repair, engraving and retail but now we provide the extra added service of moneylending."

"With the popularity of the Meadowlands Race Track and Atlantic City, more people are in need of a pawnshop service," Cicienia said. "It's the business of the times." The extended service will also help flourish business on Washington Avenue," he added, noting that there are very few pawnshops in the surrounding area or in the state for that matter.

How does a pawnshop work? According to Cicienia, persons who want to pawn valuables can leave them at the shop three months. After that they can either pay the premium and interest on an item and get it back or they can simply pay the interest and keep it there another three months. The amount lent will depend on the value of the valuables.

"Every item is registered," Cicienia noted. "We work in full cooperation with the Belleville police who have established a file for all of our items."

"I don't want to get involved in any wrongdoing," Cicienia added. "I tell each customer that a report will be made to the police if they don't show up." — See "Town's first" on page 21.

Opening Night — Assemblyman Michael Aduabato and Jack Cali are joined by Belleville Democratic Chairman Mary Senatore and Vice Chairman Chester Prospero and the Aduabato-Cali girls.

Aduabato, Cali lauded at Belleville opening

An overflow crowd of more than 300 spilled out onto the street last week to celebrate the opening of the Aduabato-Cali campaign headquarters at 143 Washington Ave.

Assemblymen Michael F. Aduabato and Jack F. Cali, Democratic incumbents in the 30th District which includes Belleville, were joined by some of the state's most influential leaders. Among those speaking in support of the two candidates were Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro, Assembly Speaker Chris Jackman and State Sen. Frank Rodgers who is chairman of the Aduabato-Cali campaign. Local officials on hand included Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, chairman of the Belleville Democratic Party, and Chester Prospero, vice chairman.

"Two men can do more working together than one can do alone," said Aduabato. "That is why we are certain that the people of the 30th District will unite behind both Jack and myself so that we can continue to work together to give you the representation you deserve."

Cali expressed great confidence about the campaign ahead. "We have been fighting for six years in Trenton for our constituents," he said. "I am sure you will allow us the opportunity to serve for at least two more."

Last week, Aduabato and Cali also addressed a rally of over 750 senior citizens in Newark's North Ward on safety, transportation and other concerns of the elderly.

"We feel that the state and other governmental agencies must provide the kinds of programs that directly benefit seniors," the two said later in a joint statement. "Because the state has failed to follow through on Aduabato-Cali programs, the answers are coming directly from the community."

The statement referred to Project YES (Youth Escort Service) which is cosponsored by the North Ward Educational and Cultural Center and the Residents for Community Action. "We have worked hard to see that the State Department of Transportation provides vehicles for these programs," Aduabato said.

"In my role as chairman of the Assembly Transportation Committee, I have had the support of my colleague Mike Aduabato in pressing for this kind of support for senior citizens," Cali added.

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome Robert Misurell as the new director of the Essex County Division of Aging. Although we could not attend the meeting of the Essex County Council of Senior Citizens Clubs Sept. 17 because of a previous commitment, we were told that many dignitaries were on hand at the Civic Center in Bloomfield for the ceremony.

Rev. Kelmo Porter began the meeting with an invocation. This was followed by the usual opening rites. County Executive Peter Shapiro spoke to the delegates, praised the senior advisory board and also mentioned the appointment soon of a task force for senior affairs. "It was hoped," he said, "that transportation needs and heating needs would be resolved before long."

Robert Misurell was sworn in by County Judge Spier, and photographers and news people were on hand to record the momentous occasion. Director Misurell said he was overwhelmed by the welcome and hoped to work closely with seniors in programs that would take an intelligent look at the elderly with a view toward bridging the generation gap and being aware of seniors' needs.

Needs of seniors that demand attention would be link-up of the county's towns by bus routes, and a monthly newsletter to be published by the Division on Aging to keep up informed of innovative ideas and policy changes. James Prunedfer, director of the New Jersey State Office on Aging, spoke on the goals that his office hopes to achieve, and Eugene Zoppo, past president of the New Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens, expressed the feelings of all by praising the outgoing county director of aging, Bernard Gallagher, for the part he had played while in office. It was a commendable performance. Welcome to Robert Misurell as director of the Division on Aging. May we at the council have a happy and prosperous relationship.

Senator Ted Kennedy, D-Mass., attended the latest legislative conference of the National Council of Senior Citizens in Washington, D.C. Kennedy keynoted the affair and promoted his comprehensive National Health Care Bill. He had this to say of the Carter Administration's piecemeal plan: "If we just go ahead and give a little benefit here, a little benefit there in order to keep senior citizens quiet, we will have failed."

Of the catastrophic illness provision that would force older Americans to pay the first $3,000 of the medical expenses, Kennedy said, "Many seniors don't even have the three, four or five dollars for prescription drugs. (Note: In New Jersey, eligible seniors are covered under the Pharmaceutical Assistance Program.) Kennedy urged all concerned seniors to swamp their representatives in Congress with mail demanding the Kennedy-Waxman bill to insure adequate health care as a right of all Americans.

Chamber to honor police and firemen

The Chamber of Commerce will honor the town's police and firemen when it holds its annual dinner-dance Saturday, Nov. 3, at the Branch Brook Manor. The Chamber is now taking orders for program advertisements.

The gala event begins with a cocktail hour at 7 p.m. A prime rib dinner, at $8, will be followed by two open bars. Introduction of the Chamber's officers and board of directors, new members since the last dinner, full tables and VIPS will take place after dinner.

Entertainment will be provided until 1 a.m. by the Foursome Orchestra and Entertainers, and roving accordionist Charles Nunzio will play dinner music. There will be door prizes and souvenirs.

Tickets, $25 each, must be purchased by Oct. 25. It is suggested that those desiring full tables of 10 to 12 order tickets as soon as possible.

The program ad deadline is Oct. 10 and copy should be enclosed with orders. A full-page ad is $65, half-page $40, third-page $35 and quarter-page $30. For information, visit the Chamber at 302 Washington Ave. or call 759-4848.

AARP member returns from health conference

Raymond Boxer of Belleville attended a conference on the nation's health care system held Sept. 11-12 at the Hartford Civic Center in Connecticut. President Carter was the main speaker at the event sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) and National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA).

Boxer, 35 Division Ave., is legislative chairman of Belleville AARP Chapter 2051.

The two-day forum, entitled "At Issue: Health Care," explored the impact of inflation on medical costs, national health insurance, deficiencies in the Medicare and Medicaid programs, the importance of preventive medicine, and alternatives in long-term care.

Carter made news at the forum by telling the retirees that though he had a great respect for them, he was "not tempted to join your ranks soon," an indication that he would seek reelection.

Among other speakers were Senator Lowell Weicker, R-Conn.; Val Halamandaris, special counsel to the House Select Committee on Aging who is directing an investigation of health and safety abuses in nursing homes; House Ways and Means Committee professional staff member Dr. John Holloman, and AARP-NRTA Executive Director Cyril F. Brickfield.

Since the area was pretty poor, we mostly played with a lot of heart and practically no equipment.

The 11th man.

They called us Father Feeney's Fighting Foots. A rag-tag collection of country kids rounded up by the Padre. The only requirement for joining his athletic club was an almost insane devotion to the sport of football.

Father Feeney kept the team going on donations. Since the area was pretty poor, we mostly played with a lot of heart and practically no equipment. For instance, each player was supposed to furnish his own football shoes. Turned out I was the only guy on the team who couldn't afford any. So Moose Wozniak good-naturedly allowed me to share his. Moose's shoes weren't any too swanky to start with, being hand-me-downs from his big brother, but they served the purpose.

Moose'd come hobbling off the field and unlace. I'd slip into his shoes and dash back out. Only problem was Moose wore a size 12. I wore size 9. So I had to stuff the toes with paper. Then I'd spend all my time on the field with my toes butted up against wadded newspapers. All my life I remembered that sensation.

And all my life I remembered the team. And the man who taught me the game, and that life has its goals, too. When I got my first job, he was the one who advised me to join the Payroll Savings Plan. And those U.S. Savings Bonds been growing ever since.

One thing I did was set aside a portion of those Bonds to pay back an old debt. Finally, I was able to send Father Feeney a big donation. Along with a note that said: "Father, make sure everybody has a pair of football shoes... and make sure everybody has the right size."

No matter what your goals are, U.S. Savings Bonds can help you reach them. So join the Payroll Savings Plan at work now. Buying Bonds today can help make sure you win big in the future.

Prayer for today

Oh God, before I say or do anything I turn to Thee to ask for self-control and silence before I act. Supply the strength that I need just now if I am not to act impulsively.

Quiet the demands of my bruised feelings. Bring calmness and confidence to my troubled spirit. Restrain any desire to hurt the one I feel has let me down.

And, most of all, make me want to understand him, dear Lord.

Amen

Police vests

Approximately $11,000 was raised from merchants and citizens to equip our police force with bullet-proof vests.

The effort had its humble beginnings with citizens who take pride in their police department.

It was our opinion that the town should have provided the funds to purchase the bullet-proof vests. We are overjoyed that civic pride and appreciation for our police work made possible the purchase of the bullet-proof vests with voluntary contributions from the plain Janes and Joes of our community, the business and industrial segments of our proud town.

Congratulations to all of those who made possible this very valuable and necessary gift.

The Meadowlands

Last week the Hackensack Meadowlands Commission gave final approval to the development of a regional shopping center in the Meadowlands.

On the front burner of the Meadowlands Commission is a petition for rezoning of thousands of acres for a second regional shopping center.

A development of regional shopping centers in the Meadowlands will result in an economic crisis for Belleville. The average merchant is just about able to stay in business. With the coming of one or two regional shopping centers in the Meadowlands, those marginal merchants will be obliged to close shop. That event will spell the beginning of the end for the Belleville retail area.

More important perhaps is the impact upon the local tax rate. Without real estate taxes from commerce and industry, Belleville homeowners will probably see their real estate taxes rise 50 to 100 percent. This result will compel homeowners of Belleville to sell their valued homesteads because of their inability to pay a prohibitive real estate tax which, by the way, the local commission will be unable to control.

The Meadowlands should be used for commercial, industrial and office development use and not for retail purposes. Commercial, industrial and office development would provide jobs for people in Belleville which are necessary before anybody can spend any money.

Either through legislative or executive action, the state of New Jersey should move to freeze retail development in the Meadowlands.

Pan Am and National

Pan Am World Airways has purchased over 75 percent of the outstanding stock of National Airlines. Pan Am wants to merge National Airlines into its facility. We believe the merger of Pan Am would best serve the economic interest of our area.

The modern Newark International Airport has not been developed to its potential. Only two of the three satellites are in use and even those two are not working at capacity.

A Pan American takeover of National Airlines should increase the traffic at Newark International Airport. Such a result would spill over into increased real estate activity as well as commercial, industrial and retail activity and just about touch every part of one's daily life.

For us, the merger cannot come soon enough — the sooner the better.

Carter is slipping

Leaders of one of the major Democratic counties in the country last Friday decided to endorse Senator Edward Kennedy for president, thus rejecting President Jimmy Carter.

The south Florida County of Broward, whose county seat is Fort Lauderdale, saw its chairman, Eddie Kay, claim that "The Democratic party in this county is in danger. If this president is renominated, I fear he will not be re-elected." In addition to Kay, three county commissioners and a number of other important elected officials endorsed Kennedy. The chairman of the Dade County Democratic Committee, whose county seat is Miami, also endorsed Senator Edward Kennedy. Until the developments of last week, Carter was expected to carry Florida easily. Now it looks like a toss-up. If the Carter position continues to erode, the inevitable will happen — President Carter following in the footsteps of the late President Lyndon Johnson.

The economical problems are killing Carter's chances. The problems of the Middle East, Africa and Cuba don't help Carter.

To say that President Carter's political fortunes are in jeopardy would be the understatement of the year.

A decent man, President Carter deserves better. Unfortunately, time and events are against him.

The Haitian Republic

Almost weekly, the South Florida press publishes stories of boat people departing the shores of Haiti for the promised gold of America.

Almost without exception, the Haitian refugees reaching the shores of Miami and Fort Lauderdale complain about alleged political oppression. The laws of our country permit us to accept political refugees. So — it is very convenient for a Haitian wanting to make it in America and pick up the gold to be found in the streets of our cities to claim political persecution and thus obtain safe refuge in America.

We have been to Haiti many times. Nowhere did we see any evidence of political oppression. The natives seem gay and carefree, although poor by our standards. Rich and poor are relative terms. Every Haitian native we saw appeared to have enough to eat and a roof over his or her head.

President for life, Jean-Claude Duvalier, is a young man of 28 years who has compassion and is respected by the people he governs.

Haiti is a poor country by relative standards. Its people are mostly unskilled and, therefore, obliged to work at low wages.

We take the complaints of Haitian refugees arriving in South Florida with a grain of salt. They are fraudulently claiming political refugee status in order to remain in the United States of America. These refugees who illegally reach our shores are competing with native Americans for relatively scarce jobs. Returning Haitian refugees to their own country would in no way endanger their lives. For their own good — and the good of America — Washington should not swallow the sob stories that accompany the illegal immigrants.

Apartment owners cite fuel's high cost

To the Editor:

Home and apartment heating time is now only a couple of weeks away. The same amount of dollars spent for heat and hot water last heating season will now buy less than half the required gallons to provide the same heat and hot water.

It was proposed that the landlord can file a hardship application to cover over 80¢ per gallon of oil. First of all, an application filed in February 1980 would only account for November and December increased heating costs. To provide for heating costs of January, February, March and April of 1980, a hardship application would be filed in February 1981. Between now and then we will not have the funds available to even start to pay for the doubled cost of fuel oil. The financial statement of our complex does not qualify us for a bank loan to cover this extra cost, even if we were inclined to make such a loan, which we are not. Our complex is owned by a general partnership, so any loan would be a personal loan. Many of our partners are retired and on a fixed income and are unable to go personally on a loan.

For the last time, I beseech the Rent Board and Town Council to provide us with the necessary funds to pay for adequate heating. Countless summonses issued on the landlord for failure to supply adequate heat will not pay for the needed oil. We require an immediate rental if a dire emergency is to be avoided this winter. Our fuel supplier has notified us that he expects payment within 10 days after a delivery.

Very truly yours,
Samuel Geltman

Town outlines position on TV

To the Editor:

The following letter has been sent by the Board of Commissioners to Suburban Cablevision:

Dear Mr. Cleary:

The Town of Belleville has received notice of request for an increase in rates for Suburban Cablevision which has the franchise for Belleville.

The Board of Commissioners of the Town of Belleville wishes to go on record as being opposed to this proposed increase which would put an unfair burden on the subscribers.

Very truly yours,
Eugene G. Barnett,
Town Clerk

Integrity and accuracy in the reporting of news and events is the quintessence of a reputable newspaper. This publication diligently strives to retain its reputation in those categories. It cannot, however, as a weekly paper, be responsible for belated notices of meetings of public bodies, such as the Belleville Board of Education, which are received after a deadline for publication.

The Belleville Times/News prominently displays on its editorial page a bulletin board of events for the impending week. In its Sept. 13 issue, the paper listed for Monday, Sept. 17, the following: 8 p.m. Board of Education monthly business meeting (open with full public participation. — 383 Washington Ave.

On Thursday, Sept. 13, the day after printing of the paper, receipt of a notice dated Sept. 11 from the secretary of the Board of Education arrived at The Times/News office indicating that the meeting would be held at Belleville High School.

We adventurously learned of this change in venue and questioned School Board President Ralph M. Risoli as to how this could conform with the requirements of the Sunshine Law. We were told that in the event of an "emergency," the board would be covered by conspicuously placing a notice of any change on the door of a public building. Such a notice had been so placed.

We called the Trenton office of the public advocate which confirmed that such a notice would suffice if an emergency truly existed. We wondered how many citizens might have been confused and given up and gone home. We thought it was a poor way to run things and decided to get in our two cents' worth on the matter.

When remarks from citizens were called for, yours truly jumped up and asked School Board Attorney Lawrence Schwartz why the session was designated as an emergency meeting. President Risoli interrupted offering to explain. That was unacceptable; we wanted a legal view. reminding Mr. Risoli that he was not a lawyer. The school board attorney stated it was NOT an emergency meeting.

At this point we contended that the posted notice on the public building did not suffice, since the board attorney ruled that this was not an emergency session, that, therefore, the provisions of the Sunshine Law were not being properly complied with.

Trustee Zoppi asked if we suspected wrongdoing. He was assured that was not the case, that our objection was predicated upon a challenge to the right of the board to change the meeting place on the grounds of an emergency when even the board's legal counsel stated it was not an emergency session.

During the discussion on the subject it was brought out that one of the contributing reasons for changing the meeting from the scheduled Sept. 24 date was because of a night high school football game at the stadium that evening. We have no objections to the date change, only the change in place of the meeting. We'd be the last in the world to knock high school sports, having played for the Blue and Gold back in the late '20s and early '30s.

While Mr. Schwartz offered the opinion that the meeting was proper and appropriate, we reminded the board attorney that his opinion did not define it as legal, but remained only an opinion until it could be resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction. We still contend that the board has ignored the purview and intent of the law. And that's our opinion.

We'd suggest that in the future all notices of changes in the time, date or place of school board meetings be given the local papers prior to their Wednesday deadlines, even if the notices have to be sent by courier or hand-delivered.

Debate over new zone ordinance centers on four main provisions

proaching, the issue finally appeared on the commission agenda for Jan. 23. Over 125 citizens appeared at Town Hall, including Virginia Desmond of the Wadsworth Funeral Home, former commissioner Robert Gruhin, Eunice Conover and representatives from the Valley section of Belleville.

Residents argued that the new zoning ordinance should have been presented to the people for review rather than be hastily voted on that evening. But as Planning Board attorney Thomas DiBiasi noted, "We could be operating under no ordinance as of Feb. 1, and we could be under attack on this point for any proceedings in court."

Commissioners voted to pass the committee's ordinance, specifying that amendments to it would be made at later dates. Only Commissioner Mary-Senatore voted no. "I appreciate the work put into the construction of the ordinance, but I feel the last voice on this law should be the people's voice," she said.

What about the people's voice? Planning Board Chairman Joseph Grande took the blame that week for the lack of public hearings. "It was my fault. I should have scheduled some hearings on the changes at the Planning Board level before it got this far," he said.

But Grande also set up two emergency meetings voluntarily to hear citizen input on the new zoning ordinance. The meetings were set consecutively for the following two Thursday evenings at Town Hall. Grande and other planners said that they were receptive to changing the ordinance and would recommend amendments to commissioners.

Planners listed every recommendation that came out of the special meetings and stated their reasons for agreeing and disagreeing. The whole package was sent to commissioners in early March. Residents waited for months to see whether their recommendations would be incorporated into the new law.

Two weeks ago during a regular commission meeting, Virginia Desmond demanded to know what was going on with the new zoning ordinance. Mayor Michael Marotti said he was sick of hearing commissioners being accused by "not doing anything" and he urged commissioners to attend a special meeting Sept. 18 to discuss their final suggestions for the zoning ordinance and submit them to the Planning Board.

That night, commissioners discussed what they believed to be a "vague" list of recommendations and composed their own list of suggestions which was sent to planners along with the invitation to discuss the list at the pre-meeting Tuesday night.

The recommendations over which the boards and residents disagree can be grouped into four categories. The first is the controversial B-D or neighborhood retail zone.

This zone includes sections of Union Avenue between Overlook and Campbell Avenues; Union Avenue on the corner of New Street; Belleville Avenue between William Street and DeWitt Avenue; a section near Joramemon Street and Passaic Avenue and Franklin Street between Franklin Avenue and Saller Street. The zone would limit further business in these areas.

The purpose of this new zone, according to the committee, was to restrict the zone to neighborhood retail business such as service establishments, small offices and professional buildings. The new B-D neighborhood retail zone permits three employees at each business and imposes a height limitation of 30 feet and a minimum lot size of 5,000 square feet with 50 feet frontage and 100 feet depth.

Residents are worried that changing the zoning from general business to the new neighborhood retail zone will depreciate the value of their land, and they along with several commissioners want the areas to be zoned for general business.

The second controversial area of the new ordinance is the height limitation of three stories and 40 feet imposed in the industrial zone. The limits under the old law were eight stories and 100 feet. Planners noted that the trend in industry is toward lower structures, but commissioners and residents feel the limitation should revert to what it was.

The third controversial area comes on Washington Avenue where planners were asked to allow residential uses in the general business zones. Planners want to discourage mixed uses in a business zone (other than the new neighborhood retail district), while several commissioners feel residential uses should be allowed.

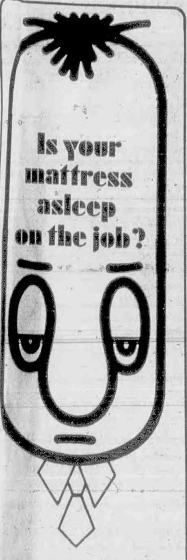

The fourth category concerns the Valley area of Belleville including various spots near lower Joramemon, Cortlandt, Academy and Main Streets. The new zoning ordinance has classified several sections as commercial business, general business and two-family residential. The main controversy is over whether there should be more industrial business areas. Several residents and planners want to restrict more industry, but commissioners and other residents favor more industry. — Donna Abate

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto,
For years I have been plucking eyebrows of one of my customers who lately came up with a silly idea. She claimed that somebody told her to shave her eyebrows because she does them that way and it's better. Also she claims it will not hurt and it will look smooth. I told her that it is dangerous and will grow faster. She said that she will write to you and ask you. She just left my chair and here I am writing to you before she does. Please write about plucking the eyebrows so she can read it.

Thank you,
Your Colleague

Dear Colleagues,
I don't pluck eyebrows. I just know about the growth. I hope that the lady that you pluck will not miss my answer to your letter. Yes, it is true, by shaving the eyebrows with a razor is dangerous. Not only that but they do grow faster and you didn't tell your customer that they grow stronger. By plucking the roots will come out too, and will take longer to grow. By shaving they will be back in a weeks time. Hoping to satisfy you,
Yours,
Umberto

Girl Scouts learn to live in great outdoors

Belleville troops hold annual camporee

Hike Halt — Troop 292 Scouts Doreen Sente, Marion Apple and Gail Malangone take a short rest during a backpack hike up to Summit Field on the South Mountain Reservation. — Photos this page by Donna Abate.

The weekend before last marked a special time for Belleville Girl Scouts as various town troops gathered together at South Mountain Reservation for their annual camporee.

Friday evening activities were hampered somewhat due to the rain, but the girls snuggled together in their cabins for an evening of food and fun.

The sound of reveille woke the girls for a 6:30 a.m. flag ceremony Saturday conducted by members of junior Troop 688 led by Lisa O'Malley and cadet Troop 321 led by Betty Doelfinger of School 10.

After a homemade breakfast of eggs and bacon, french toast and pancakes cooked on open fires and tin can stoves, the girls met for a program of straw-weaving taught by Gloria Corriveau. Later, conducted by Pat Russo, the girls participated in a nature walk which went toward the carrying of Junior Observer Badges. Sue Gasparini then supervised relay races.

The Times/News took in a bit of exercise, joining the troops for a backpack hike through the rocky paths and waterfalls near Summit Field. Hot dogs and hamburgers cooked on tin can stoves and "buddy burners" awaited hikers after the journey.

Dinner time brought the aromas of roasting chickens, campfire stew and sloppy joes as the girls exhibited their skill at making fires, cooking and dishwashing with "dunking bags."

Come Saturday evening, members of junior Troop 476 of St. Anthony's Church under the leadership of Rita Charles, retired the colors and led the girls to a campfire where each troop presented a skit or song depicting a part of the Girl Scout Law.

Troop 961 of Lewsmith Church under Mrs. Russo, led the flag ceremony Sunday morning. That was followed by a non-denominational service conducted by senior aides Donna Dombrowski, Debbie Mundy, Wendy Rovell and junior Troop 591 of Christ Church under Miss Gasparini.

The last day brought the girls together for kickball and other games, including the maneuvering of a billowing parachute.

A rendition of favorite scouting songs, the distribution of camp patches and the retreat of the colors by Troop 292 of School under Judy Carroll made up the closing exercises.

Staff members for the camporee were Doris Cypoliski, chairman; Gloria Corriveau, Thelma Gasparini, Betty Rovell and Mary Mundy.

Happy Hikers — Various troops from Belleville displayed great energy as they set out on a three-mile hike during their camporee the weekend before last at South Mountain Reservation.

Nature Moment — Andrea Cammarato of Troop 292 is lost in thought on the nature trail to Summit Field at South Mountain Reservation.

Spanky And His Gang — Cadets Sharon Russo (left) of Troop 961 and Kim Marcavage of Troop 950 brought along their dog Sparky to join in the scouting fun at the annual camporee.

Homemade Stove — Lisa Current demonstrates hunger survival techniques as she uses a homemade stove consisting of a coffee can and a tuna can of wax and cardboard to prepare her meal.

Judy's Angels — Troop 292 members Gail Malangone, Cathy Rossi, Cindy Carrol, Doreen Sente, Maridn Apples and Jill Lillis show what scouting is all about in their expressions as they indulge in a round of chicken-fights. The troop leader is Judy Carrol.

Mountaineer — Donna Dombrowski, junior assistant leader for Troop 591, takes an adventurous moment to explore a rocky mountain area near a waterfall during the scout hike to Summit Field at South Mountain Reservation.

Tired Trooper — Junior leader Sue Gasparini of Troop 591 gives a welcome lift to little Heather O'Malley during the tedious hike to Summit Field. Heather is the 3-year old daughter of junior Troop 688 leader Lisa O'Malley. After the hike, the girls demonstrated their cooking prowess using the most simple outdoor methods of preparing food.

Fast Ball — Troop 591 assistant Wendy Rovell attempts to catch a fast pitch as Robyn Sheppard watches in the stands. The scouts enjoyed several games after their hike to Summit Field.

Backpack Preview — Troop 476 scouts of St. Anthony's Church, under Rita Charles and assistants Carol Uzzolino and Michelle Pugliese, pack together hamburgers and homemade stoves as they prepare for their three-mile hike to Summit Field. This cabin was their home for the weekend camporee which began Sept. 14.

Trustees resolve students won't get 'scared straight' at Rahway just yet

By Mike Olohan

Belleville trustees may not be "scared straight" of allowing some high school students here to attend the Life's Program at Rahway State Prison, but they have said "no go" at least temporarily.

When Schools Superintendent Dr. John Greed advised board members that a field trip to Rahway State Prison was being planned, several seemed surprised, not sure what the trip's repercussions might be. The board voted last Monday to postpone the trip indefinitely.

"No matter what happens, this board is going to be held responsible. Let's not create a problem where there is none," said Vice President Eric Zoppi.

The schoolers appeared worried over possible psychological damage that could be done to a child verbally abused by inmates involved in the program. The inmates shout, curse and make gestures, some obscene, at their captive audience to impress upon them the cruel, harsh realities of prison life.

Greed said that originally some students constantly getting into trouble were recommended by their counselors for the inmates' program. However, Zoppi thought those students might get more hostile because they alone were chosen to participate in the Rahway State program.

"We don't want to isolate children because they've had problems, many of the children who wind up in jail are not the same children that have problems in school," said Zoppi.

Greed said Belleville High School Principal John DeCesare asked if he could send some students to see the Rahway program on a selective basis, as long as the parents also agreed.

"There must be an okay from the parents before any trip is taken," said Greed, emphasizing parents are always consulted whenever their children go on a field trip.

"We're still liable for any situation that might occur in that institution or in a car or bus on the way to and from there," said Trustee Anthony D'Agostino, noting not all people benefit from the brutal, barren, raw environment at Rahway.

However, Trustee Caesar Romano thought the Rahway experience would benefit students. "It's down to earth and gutsy, they put the fear...into them. It has made a lasting impression on many of the kids that went down there. They (inmates) tell it like it is," he said. "It's a very valuable program."

After hearing warnings of possible psychological damage caused by the inmates' abuse, Romano said, "Maybe that's the gamble we'll all have to take."

"This program is geared to the hardcore juvenile delinquent, it's not for the faint-of-heart. If you put a child in there who's just feeling his oats, you could do much harm to him," said Trustee Mike Chieffo.

Board President Ralph Risoli noted that the TV program about the life's program, "Scared Straight," showed that 16 of 18 teenagers included did not commit any crimes afterward: WNEV-TV, Channel 5, broadcast "Scared Straight" in the New York area several months ago.

Recently, a $10 million lawsuit was filed by the parents of nine Ridgely Park teenagers, claiming the youngsters sustained permanent psychological damage because of their experiences at Rahway.

However, James Landano, president of the Lifers, said all parents must sign consent forms before their children are sent. The form note that children will be subjected to harsh language about prison life, which could include personal attacks on their attitudes, talk of homosexuality and rape and continued cursing directed at them.

"Don't tell me that this doesn't work, it's made a lasting impact on kids," said Risoli, before trustees voted to postpone any trip to Rahway.

Landano, when told several youngsters became nauseous after taking part in the Lifers Program, said he was glad. "If a description of prison life will make a 13-year-old vomit, that's great," the prisoner was quoted as saying. "It will be a lasting impression for every time he thinks about committing a crime."

School committee recommends tests, exposure list for mathematics pupils

By Mike Olohan

If you don't know the score, or at least how to figure it out, you're in big trouble in today's society. But Belleville elementary school graduates won't have to worry if a Board of Education committee has its way. They'll be required to be able to add, subtract, multiply and divide from now on.

A special committee that worked on Belleville's math curriculum for grades K-6 for two weeks this summer, presented its proposals to trustees last Monday. Those recommendations included a proposal for extensive testing. Trustees will vote next month on the plan.

The tests would be administered before and after concepts are taught to determine whether children have grasped those concepts. Pupils would need to score 65 percent on the post-test to pass. Those scoring lower would receive help from a state compensatory education teacher. Test scores "should have no status" in determining final grades, according to the committee proposal.

The committee's guiding belief was that instruction "should be sequenced in such a way that children experience successful progress, for this builds confidence and provides motivation for continued learning."

The group recommended both concepts and vocabulary, "minimum exposure lists," it felt essential to understanding mathematics at each grade level.

In kindergarten, for instance, addition and subtraction would be taught, along with recognizing denominations of money, days of the week and months, telling time and measuring temperature, and identifying shapes like circles, rectangles, triangles and squares.

Second graders would have to be able to count by memory to 100, recognize written numerals, subtract two-digit numerals, skip count by twos, fives and tens, and learn measurements on a line, clock and calendar.

"I'd like to commend this committee for a job well done," said Trustee Anthony D'Agostino, who agreed that more revision in curriculum guides is necessary to make Belleville schools responsive to students' needs.

Committee Chairman Elizabeth Laughney said, "Children learn well when they know what they are expected to learn and when they find their learning tasks meaningful. Further, children need an adequate background to accomplish each learning task." Committee members feel the revised curriculum provides this background.

Besides Laughney, committee members were Eleanor Arthur, Flora Aulisi, Jean Dailey, Carolyn Falvey, Michael Harvey, Jeannine Horan and Carol Passarella.

Several trustees have said that parents must attempt to teach their children basic math and English before they enter school because between the ages of 1 and 3, a child's curiosity and interest in the world around him is growing rapidly.

Many psychologists believe a child's attitudes towards learning are shaped by the time he enters kindergarten.

Senesky's roots at BHS go deep

John Senesky is entering his third year as head football coach for Belleville High School. However, he has dedicated himself to the Belleville football program for a much longer time than three seasons.

John attended Belleville High in the early '60s and was a halfback-fulback for some pretty good football squad here. He broke his leg scoring a touchdown against Nutley one year. Senesky later attended Montclair State College where he continued his football career. After graduation in 1967, he took a teaching position at Belleville Junior High School and also filled the vacant freshman football coaching position. From 1968 to 1974, John was at the reigns of some excellent Belleville teams.

In 1974, Senesky was hired as an assistant coach for the varsity football team and in the spring of 1977, he was awarded the ultimate prize, the head coaching position at Belleville High School, a position that he had desired for quite a long time.

According to John, there was quite a rebuilding job awaiting him. "We only had five or six players with any true varsity potential," he explained. "The guys were young, quite eager, but very green."

"We used emphasis and technique last season and it paid off very well (a 6-3 Belleville season)," he continued. "In 1977, there was a lot of confusion on the field and the result was some bad losses."

Senesky's debut with Belleville was a rocky one as the Belboys were dealt a 40-0 loss by Livingston. Belleville lost its first four games, three by shutouts, before posting an upset win over Irvington. Improvement continued the following week with a 26-18 win over Essex Catholic. However, the following week, the locals were blown away by Seton Hall 63-0. Belleville concluded 1977 with a 2-6-1 record, but also with a great deal of much needed experience.

"Coaching is a 12-month operation," Senesky explained. "At the end of the current season, the first thing to do is to look at the games we lost and try to figure out why we lost. The next job is to work on next season and try to figure out the better coaching techniques."

Senesky's coaching staff is one of the finest teams in the area. "They're just great, their help has been tremendous and they do a great job with the players," said the head man. Senesky's assistants are Joe D'Amola, Ralph Borgess, Joe Vitello, Carl Papianti, Carl Corino, Vinnie Casale and Mike Welsh. Casale and Welsh are working with the freshman team. D'Amola is the veteran of the staff. Borgess and Papianti both teach at Kearny High School but are true Bellevillians when it comes to the Belleville gridiron.

Senesky is a native Bellevillite. In 1962 he was a starting running back for a Belleville team that went 8-1-0. "I had a good year that season," he remembered. "I scored six touchdowns and it was just my junior year. That team had a great attitude, sort of modeled ourselves after the Green Bay Packers of that era."

"Probably our biggest win of 1962 was the Nutley game," continued John. "Nutley had a good team that year and we had to play them just before Thanksgiving because the original game had been postponed because of a hurricane. Anyhow, we beat Nutley 33-13 and capped an incredible year for us. In the final ratings, we were ranked second in the group behind Clifton."

Belleville's only loss that year came at the hands of East Orange, always a state power in football. The Panthers were led by All-American running back Jim Oliver. One year later, Belleville opened up with East Orange again and once again was beaten 13-6. Senesky described it this way: "It was the hottest day that I can remember. The heat was blistering and the game was grueling. East Orange won the game, and it sort of put a little pin in our balloon."

Belleville went on to a 6-2-1 season, but Senesky didn't have a big part in it. A year earlier, he had scored twice in the big win over Nutley. In 1963, John's season came to a disappointing end when he suffered a broken ankle scoring a TD against the Raiders. "Actually, we didn't know for several weeks that it was broken," the coach recalled. "I ran on it rather well and did manage to play a game. It was after the Kearny game that the ankle swelled up badly and then I had it X-rayed. I found out it was broken and the leg was put into a cast for six weeks."

In college, Senesky earned a starting job midway through his sophomore year. He wasn't big (5-10, 175), but his determination earned him the starting spot, which he would keep for three years.

That same determination is quite evident in Senesky's coaching at Belleville High. "It's great to win, but the best part of Belleville football is the pride that has been restored to the town," said John. "There was a time when it was great to be a member of Belleville football. However, a couple of years ago, that pride seemed to be tarnished. My main job was to bring some of it back to Belleville."

Watching the Bucs, it's clear that pride has been restored. "The kids are great. They listen, love to learn and just are a pleasure to coach," said Senesky. "They don't second-guess you or even question a decision."

Regarding this 1979 season which began Monday, Senesky had this to say: "I think we can have a super team. We're very confident about our abilities. However, we have a tough schedule and the guys must realize that there are no breaks. I'm looking forward to a good year."

Senesky's enthusiasm in undying and his patience is a wonder. His unique gift for coaching football is a great present for the town of Belleville. It should be quite interesting to see how the season progresses.

Walt Michaels, the Jets' head coach, has always had my great support and utmost respect. I think he has done a fine job in rebuilding the Jets. He's working through the draft, not through trades. He has a great mind. He supposedly sticks by decisions he makes. Why then did he give Matt Robinson, a man who had earned the starting quarterback job, such a raw deal?

Michaels played Robinson for one game, the opener against Cleveland, and hasn't played Robinson since. Instead, Richard Todd has been at the helm of the club. Now Michaels says that Todd is his number one man and he'll stick by him. If Michaels likes to stick by a decision he has made, then Matt Robinson should be calling signals right now. Todd has shown little poise in running the team.

Gridmen rout Lancers on ground, in air 35-8

By Mike Lamberti

It was complete rout, almost a picture-perfect game. The Belleville Buccaneer football team started the 1979 season just as it had ended the '78 season, with a big win.

The victim of the Buc assault was Livingston. One of the better teams in Essex County, believe it or not, Belleville totally dominated the Lancers, dropping them 35-8. On offense, Eddie Aulisi had a fine second half passing and a fine game overall in leading the team. Aulisi threw two touchdown passes, both in the second half, and Mike Nicosia ran up and down the field like a gazelle. Lenny Mendola, the speedy halfback, burned the Lancers with quick spurts up the middle. The offensive line was marvelous. The defense was superb, allowing just a second-quarter touchdown and shutting out the strong Lancer passing game from then on.

It all started when Belleville won the toss and elected to receive. Mike Calvito returned the kickoff to the Belleville 42, and the Buc offense quickly went to work. Nicosia started things off with an 11-yard run into Lancer territory. Frank Swaine, who played a solid game at fullback, gained two yards. Mendola picked up seven and Swaine another two for a first down at the Lancer 39. Nicosia galloped 19 yards to the Lancer 18. Mendola continued the drive with a nine-yard jaunt to the 9. Nicosia picked up six yards and a first and goal at the 3. Two plays later, Aulisi dove over from the 1 and after a Gabe DeFabrizio kick, Belleville was on top 7-0.

Livingston quarterback Vio Pecora, who was much better than his stats indicated, threw an interception on Livingston's first series. John DeCesare intercepted for Belleville and the Bucs were on the Lancer 44. The Bucs moved to the 27, but penalties snuffed out the drive. The first quarter ended 7-0.

At the outset of the second quarter, the Lancers started what proved to be their most effective series on offense for the evening. Pecora was the star of the drive as he drilled some fine passes into the pads of the Livingston receivers. He hit Inga for 18 yards, Alpert for 13, Wickner for 12 and culminated the drive with a 27-yard TD pass to Alpert. In between there was a fine 14-yard run by Wickner, one of the finest backs in the county. Livingston tried for two points and Pecora Please see "Buc effort" on page 13.

Buc booters nip Passaic Indians

By Donna Abate

Although the Belleville Buccaneer soccer team sank under Kearny's weight last Friday in a painful 6-0 bout, the local booters swam into their second win of the season when they leaned over Passaic Monday 2-1.

Passaic smacked in the first point in the opening quarter, but the Bucs tied up the battle halfway in the second when Pat Leonidis followed John Lee's pass into the net.

With 13 minutes to go in the fourth, Leonidis fired a pass to Dennis Dilican who booted in the winning point from 10 yards out.

John Larkin, Jack Baumgartner, Galo Calvache and Brian Woods also aided in the victory over Passaic. Goalie Baumgartner saved a number of shots as the Bucs outshot their opponents 16-8.

But Baumgartner was under attack three days earlier when the Kearny offense took command on the field, outshooting the booters 22-7.

"Kearny controlled the game throughout," Coach Anthony DeAquino said. "They had a lot more skill."

Kearny booters took a quick lead at the half 2-0, scored two more in the third and added another two points in the last period to shut out the Bucs 6-0.

Sweeperback Larkin did not participate in the Kearny game due to illness and Coach DeAquino said, "His absence really hurt us." But center halfback Lee and stopper Calvache gave the opponents a little trouble.

Asked how he felt after three games, DeAquino said he thought every game the booters play in from now on will be close. "Our main problem is that we have a lot of skill, but not enough depth," he noted.

"We need more offense and I'm still working on combinations," he said. "We've got to get an even amount of strength on the entire field."

DeAquino said that the team lacked speed on the outside but added that he was "pleased" with the team's efforts. "They walk off the field with their heads up," he said proudly, "and that's what counts."

The Buc booters are now 2-1 overall and have scored only three points so far this season. The Bucs met Essex Catholic yesterday and will face Nutley away tomorrow afternoon at 3:45. The Bucs have their first home game 3:45 this coming Wednesday afternoon against Seton Hall.

MS boxing matches tomorrow at BHS

The Multiple Sclerosis Association of Essex County will sponsor 12 amateur boxing matches beginning 8 p.m. tomorrow at Belleville High School.

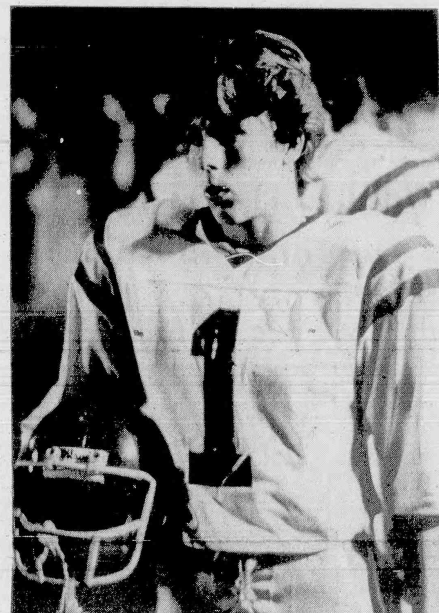

Proceeds from the annual event will go toward therapy for patients afflicted with the nerve disease and for the MS center the association wants to build in Belleville.

Sponsors of tonight's bouts are Mayor Michael Marotti, Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, Chiefs Motors, Suburban Oil Burner Service of Nutley, the Belleville PBA, the Zarro Funeral Home of Bloomfield, Michael Pizzi, Statewide Guard Service of Hackensack, Town Cottage, Suit Yourself 1 of Bloomfield and Schwartz, Pisano and Nuzzi, Counselors-at-Law. In addition, one bout has been dedicated to the late "Two Ton" Tony Galento. The Best Boxer Award will be dedicated and presented by Charlie Fusari.

Tickets are $3 for general admission, $5 for ringside.

Up in the Air — Rosie Leonidis serves to her Kearny opponent Thursday at the Municipal Stadium courts. The Belleville girl lost 3-6, 5-7. The young home tennis team had its troubles this past week.

Twilight Clearing — Sophomore Brian Carpenter stands during the national anthem. Afterwards he and his teammates pasted Livingston all over the Municipal Stadium field. Final score, 35-8.

Cross country 0-5 but still improving

By Mike Lamberti

The record might not show it, but the Belleville High cross country team has been improving steadily since the opening race of the season.

Currently the team is 0-5, but keep in mind that it has been up against some top-notch teams. Belleville dropped decisions to Passaic,

Montclair, Essex Catholic, Kearny and Caldwell in its first two weeks of action, but the losing string didn't seem to worry head coach Rich Ruffalo that much. "The guys are starting to come around," the veteran coach said. "Paul Long and Dean Santulli have looked good in the middle of the pack, and Tommy Graham has looked real strong up front. I definitely feel that we can win some meets, but most important, I know these guys have been showing steady improvement."

Tennis team topped twice

The Belleville High girls' tennis team dropped two matches last week to lower its record to 0-3 for the season. The Buccanettes were beaten by West Orange last Tuesday 5-0 and fell to Kearny Thursday 4-1.

The local netwomen were at Nutley Tuesday and host Orange 3:45 p.m. today. They take on Irvington tomorrow at home.

At powerful West Orange, BHS first singles player Carol Salerno was defeated by Nanette Hansen 0-6, 2-6, while Rosie Leonidis, at second singles, was topped by Judy Lehman 0-6, 1-6. Third singles player Angela Chimento lost to Jackie Rowe 0-6, 2-6.

The first doubles team of Karen Pettinoe and Gina Pasquale was taken by Maureen Skillman-Judy Hanauer 5-7, 1-6, while the second combo of Kathy Cossentino and Joyce Iacullo lost 2-6, 1-6 to Ann Marie Marouzi and Debbie Capko.

Pettinoe and Pasquale got Belleville's first victory of the season against Kearny's Linda Woods and Nancy Rubin 7-6, 6-0. Iacullo-Cossentino were beaten by Donna Battista and Sue Wendura 1-6, 3-6.

Carol Salerno fell to Jackie Theobald 3-6, 0-6. Rosie Leonidis put up a good fight but lost to Jill Nicholas 3-6, 5-7 and Angela Chimento was beaten by Gina Theobald 1-6, 4-6.

The closest the Bucs have come to victory thus far has been against Montclair. The Mounties won 22-35, but as Ruffalo explained it, "We didn't expect to face them when we did. We practiced very hard the day before the race and were quite surprised that Montclair was at the race."

The reason for Ruffalo's surprise at Montclair's attending the meet was because Belleville was only supposed to face Kearny and Essex Catholic. The latter is a county power, and Ruffalo figured he would give the team a hard workout the day before the race. Montclair, a good club but not as powerful as the other two teams, also was at the meet and earned a victory at the Bucs' expense.

Ruffalo has also been pleased with the performance of Dana Caruso, a junior with a world of talent. Caruso is coming very close to breaking the Buccanette cross country record held by Sue Smith. "She's really good," said the head coach of Caruso. "Against Calicut, she ran against 23 other girls and tied for first place. She ought to have beaten the other girl, but opted to run with the girl, instead of trying to pull out the win. She has really come along."

The entire Buc team seems to be coming along and could very soon earn that first win.

MHS gridders green but talented

By John Jurich

The first test of just how good the Belleville High football team really is comes this Saturday when the Bucs travel to Montclair for a 1:30 p.m. game.

The Bucs, coming off a 35-8 victory over Livingston that was not totally unexpected, face a bigger challenge in the Mounties, always an area powerhouse.

Montclair blanked Irvington 19-0 in its opener using strong games both on the ground and in the air. "The fact that we won in the opening game is always a special thing," said MHS Coach Butch Fortunato. "You never really know how a squad is going to react until their actually on the field."

Fortunato has been watching Montclair teams take to the grid for 40 years now and most of those teams have been good ones. The Mounties were 6-3 last season and beat Belleville 27-6. Fortunato, who was at Monday's game here, expects a more difficult time with the Bucs Saturday.

"They're very, very well coached and well disciplined. It's a hard-hitting Belleville team, as good as any team we'll face this year."

"You could see the difference that a year's experience makes," Fortunato continued. "We felt that Belleville had great potential last year but that they were a year away."

Experience is an area that worries Fortunato on his own team. "We're young, green, inexperienced," he said. "Of the first 22 players, only three have any real varsity experience."

Nonetheless, the talent is definitely there. "We have size and we have the speed," the coach said. "Our backs are small but very, very quick."

We have good running backs and our line has good size and great speed." The Mounties will use that speed against Belleville. "You never like to feel that you have to depend on a ground game," said Fortunato, "and for the first time in a long time we have some good pass receivers. If Belleville has a weakness, it's in their pass defense."

The quarterback position will be shared about equally between junior Cal Drew and Todd Carnivale, both of whom can throw the ball well. The running backs are sophomore Chris Frasier and senior Steve Puryear who gained 160 yards rushing against Irvington and devastated Belleville last year.

Gordon and Brooks are the defensive ends. Gibbs and junior Michael Ceasar the defensive tackles. Senior George Henshalwood is the nose guard, with seniors Bill Jonathan and Pete DiGeronimo at the linebacker spots. Lewis is the monster back.

In the deep secondary, Puryear will play safety with senior Terry Frye and sophomore Darryl Giles at the corners.

At Your Service — BHS doubles player Joyce Iacullo awaits the serve during Thursday's match with Kearny at home. Iacullo and Kathy Cosentino lost their match as did the Buc team which dropped to 0-3.

Fidelity Union rescues struggling Cobra team

By Fred Lardaro

Charging to the rescue like the proverbial cavalry, the Belleville branch of Fidelity Union Trust Company announced last Friday that it will sponsor the Cobra soccer team. The Cobras and their parents organization, the Belleville Soccer Association (BSA), were fast becoming an endangered species at the mercy of inflated operating costs.

BSA President Sam MacArthur found it necessary to seek outside resources and found Fidelity sympathetic to the association's needs. "Fidelity Union has relieved the financial burdens that were crippling us," MacArthur said, "... and their support guarantees the BSA's continuing participation in the Northern Counties Soccer League."

More information will be available as details of sponsorship are finalized later this week, but MacArthur was obviously overjoyed as he trained his Cobras in Belleville Park Monday evening.

"Statewide, Fidelity is noted for promoting the game of soccer," MacArthur said. "Support like the Belleville branch is extending us means so much to the kids. It was good to find someone so genuinely concerned."

On the field, Mark Palumbo provided two goals off penalty kicks enabling the Cobras to salvage a 2-2 tie in their confrontation Saturday with the visiting Parsippany Orangemen.

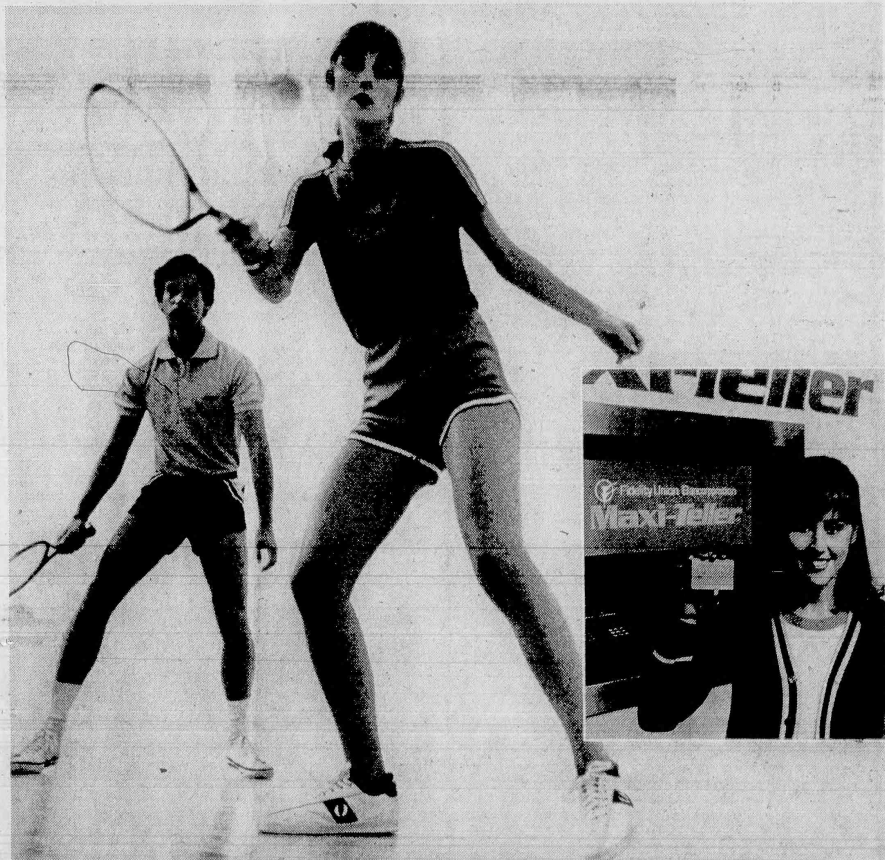

However, it was center-forward Freddie Calvache who generated most of the Cobras' offensive excitement. The diminutive Calvache displayed the heart of a lion as he flaunted his skills in the penalty area, forcing frustrated defenders to foul him twice. Belleville was awarded two penalty kicks for Calvache's efforts, and Palumbo converted both.

It was the erratic play of the Cobra defense that had allowed Parsippany to establish 1-0 and 2-1 advantages. Cobra goalkeeper Brian Cook was near flawless throughout the afternoon. His key saves made it possible for the Cobras to equalize.

Robert Widuch, the right-halfback was also credited with several saves, one during a frantic flurry directly before the Cobra goalmouth. A score there would have given Parsippany a 3-1 edge in the waning moments of the game.

QUICK KICKS: The Cobras dropped their season opener to Nutley 2-1, a game in which they outshot the Maroon Raiders 35-4... that's right, 35-4. Mike Selletti scored Belleville's only goal.

Buc effort near perfect

found Alpert again. Belleville trailed 8-7.

The Lancer lead would be short-lived, however. After the teams traded possessions, Lancer punter Nick Pollaro squibbed a punt that was good for negative three yards. Belleville took over on the Lancer 12-yard line, and it took Nicosia all of one play to put Belleville back on top. His run off right tackle gave the Bucs the lead back 13-8. The locals missed the point after attempt.

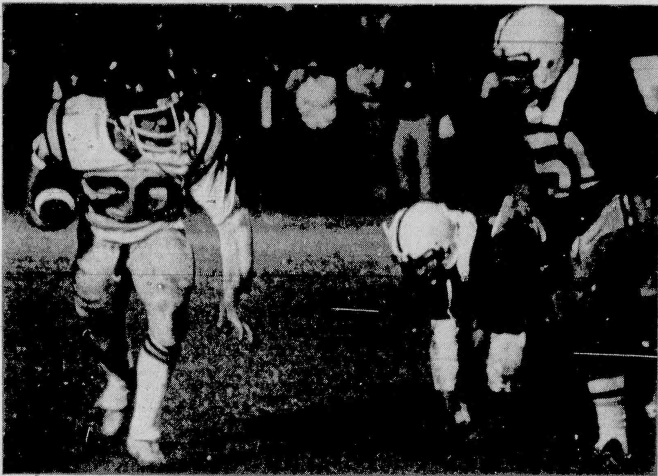

They didn't waste much time in extending their lead, though. After a Lancer punt, Belleville took over on its 25 and plowed downfield. Mendola started it with an 11-yard run. Swaine struggled for three and Nicosia popped through for seven more and a first down. The big play, the cruncher for Livingston, occurred when Mendola found a hole up the middle and spurred downfield. One of the Lancer defenders thought it better to drag him down face first, and the move cost the Lancers 15 yards. From the 28, it was Nicosia again, gaining 11 yards on two carries. Mendola got three yards to the 14 and Nicosia finished the job with runs of eight and six yards, the latter good for six Buc points and a 19-8 lead. Aulisi got the two-point conversion, legging it into the end zone. The half ended with Belleville comfortably on top 21-8.

Livingston was looking for any way to crack the vaunted Buc defense, but nothing seemed to work. Pecora did throw some fine passes they were dropped by his teammates. On the Bucs' first possession of the second half, Nicosia drove from the Buc 42 to the Lancer 48, good for 10 yards. His next carry was good for nine more yards to the 39. Aulisi, who hadn't completed a pass in the first half, found DeFabrizio for 10 yards and a Lancer penalty moved the ball to the 34. Two plays later, from the Livingston 37, Aulisi stepped back and found Mendola open in the end zone for a touchdown. Ralph DePasquale converted and the Bucs led 28-8.

The final Buc score came late in the fourth quarter as Aulisi hit Jerry DiGori with a 22-yard strike. DePasquale hit the point after attempt, and the Bucs had a 35-8 win. Head coach John Senesky used his substitutes for the last six minutes of the game and they too almost racked up a score. The Lancer defense managed to hold, but Belleville was well on its way to victory number one, and there should be plenty more where that came from.

Landed Lancer — Three Buccaneers combine on this sack of Livingston quarterback Vic Pecora late in the third quarter. Pecora hit on 12 of 28 passes for 111 yards and a touchdown on the night.

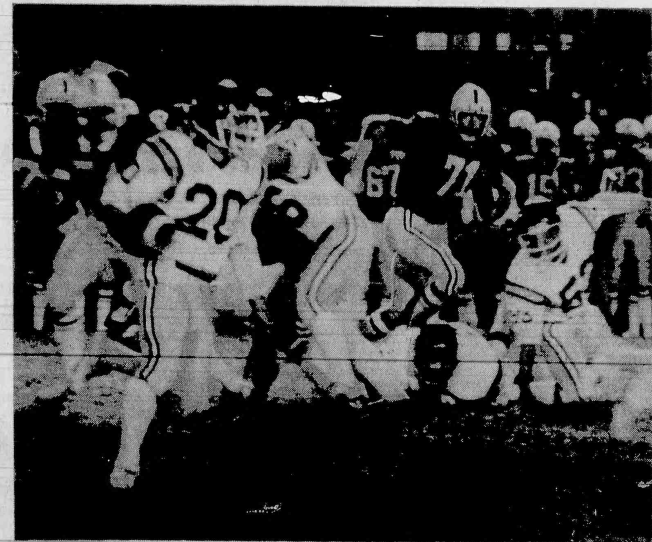

Making It — With coverage from Adam Pappas (right), Paul Scheuplein moves downfield for seven yards later in the fourth period. The Bucs scored at least once in every quarter to break the game wide open.

Costly Facial — Livingston's Greg Menarguez hauls down Lenny Mendola by the mask. Mendola got seven yards on the play as it was, the penalty gave Belleville 15 more and set up the Bucs' third TD.

Initial Score — The first of many touchdowns the Bucs will undoubtedly score this season came on Belleville's first series in Monday's game here. Quarterback Ed Aulisi did the honors, diving in from the 1-yard line.

Starting It Off — Mike Nicosia barrels his way 19 yards to the Lancer 18 in the first quarter. A Belleville touchdown followed in short order. Nicosia had a great night, carrying 15 times for 137 yards, an average of 9.1. He scored two TDs.

Do It Yourself — Ed Aulisi looks for a receiver then runs the ball into the end zone himself for a two-point conversion. The tally put the Bucs ahead 21-8 as the half came to a close.

Belleville Barbell Club retains its eastern title

The Belleville Barbell Club successfully defended its team title at the Eastern States Weightlifting Championships held at the Albany YMCA, Albany, N.Y., last weekend.

The team champion in 1978, the Belleville club once again emerged the victor with 79 points against a total of 12 for runner-up Central Falls Weightlifting Club of Central Falls, R.I.

First-place winners for Belleville were John Maynard, 181-pound, class; Brian Derwin, 220-pound class; and Bruce Klemens, superheavyweight class.

Derwin's lists of a 314-pound snatch and a 413-pound clean and jerk showed that he will be a top contender for a berth on the 1980 Olympic team. Earlier in the summer, Derwin had won the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs, Colo. Competing in the heavyweight class, he had a 303-pound snatch and a 407-pound clean and jerk. He placed fourth in the earlier Senior Nationals held in Totowa and sponsored by the Belleville club. The top four went on to the National Sports Festival with all expenses paid by the U.S. Olympic Committee. Belleville Barbell Club Coach Bucky Cairo also traveled to the festival at committee expense.

The rest of the team this past weekend consisted of Rich Goldberg, 148-pound class; Jim Kisser, 165 pounds; Gerry Rooney, 181 pounds, Ray Lavender, Bob Wentlejewski and Tim Caso, 198 pounds; Jim Repice, 220 pounds, and Bill McKeon, 242 pounds.

Repice snatched 275 pounds, cleaned and jerked 374. The rest of the totals were: Klemens, 281 and 341; Lavender, 264 and 341; Wentlejewski, 242 and 336; Maynard, 242 and 325; Caso, 242 and 319; Rooney, 220 and 292; Goldberg, 203 and 264, and Kisser, 187 and 242.

The next big step for the Belleville team is the 1980 Senior Nationals being held in Philadelphia. The club holds its practices in the weight room at Municipal Stadium and has thanked Mayor Michael Marotti for use of the facility.

Punt, pass, kick slated Saturday

The 1979 punt, pass and kick competition, sponsored by the Belleville-Nutley Jaycees and Mead Ford, 515 Washington Ave., Belleville, will take place this Saturday at Nichols Park on Bloomfield Avenue in Nutley.

Any boy or girl between 8 and 13 who can punt, pass and kick a football — or who'd like to try — will want to compete. Participants compete only against others their own age and there is no body contact.

No special equipment is needed and participation does not impair a youngster's amateur standing. Judges score one point for each foot the ball travels on the fly, minus one point for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of the center tape.

Youngsters, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register at Mead Ford or at Nichols Park on the day of competition. There is no entry fee.

DeMaio goalkeeps at Keystone College

Tony DeMaio, son of Anthony and Gloria DeMaio, 36 Dorothea Terrace, has taken over as first-team goalkeeper for the Giants of Keystone Junior College in LaPlume, Pa.

The 5-11, 160-pound DeMaio who registered 12 shutouts as an all-state honorable mention at Bloomfield High last season, won the starting job at Keystone with difficulty. The freshman beat out returning All-Region XIX goalkeeper Nate Larocca for the position. "Tony is a real go-getter," said Giant Coach Dennis Mishko.

Planners must restudy zone law

other businesses in the area, objected vehemently to the new zone.
Mrs. Desmond, who has attended every meeting on the new ordinance, said property value would be decreased by the new zone since limitations on what businesses could operate in the area would restrict owners wishing to sell property to certain buyers only. "This is devaluation, Mr. Doyle," Mrs. Desmond told Planning Board member Joseph Doyle, "and I don't care what anybody says, even if the president of the United States comes in here and says it."

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore agreed with Mrs. Desmond on another point when she objected to the provision of the neighborhood retail zone which limits businesses to three full-time workers. "This is discriminatory if you're going to set a limit in one area and not another," Mrs. Senatore said.

Commissioner Matthew Pica said that property value would increase in the new zone and asked planners just what businesses would be restricted from the area.

"We would have to review any larger commercial operations," said Doyle, who was a member of the committee which devised the new ordinance. "We are trying to prohibit businesses that demand more

The boards also discussed height limitations which were changed by the new zoning ordinance to three stories and 40 feet. They had been eight stories and 100 feet. "Why not just leave the height limitation as it was," some commissioners asked.

Planning Board Chairman Joseph Grande said that modern planning concepts stress one-story buildings. "They're more practical and more economical," he said.

"It's not possible that a business with eight stories will come into Belleville," he added. "No way."

"If we don't make restrictions, we may as well not have a say in what goes on in this town," Grande continued. "We'd be leading the horse right out of the gate."

Several residents rose to their feet when the proposal to change residential zones in the Valley to industrial zones was discussed. More zones were designated residential under the new ordinance to limit industry. Commissioners, however, suggested that more zones for industry be allotted.

Vincent Moller of Stephens Avenue asked the board why it wanted to rezone the Valley. "Most of us who live in the Valley aren't in any position to go anywhere else," he said.

"You will devalue our property by bringing in more industry," Moller stressed.

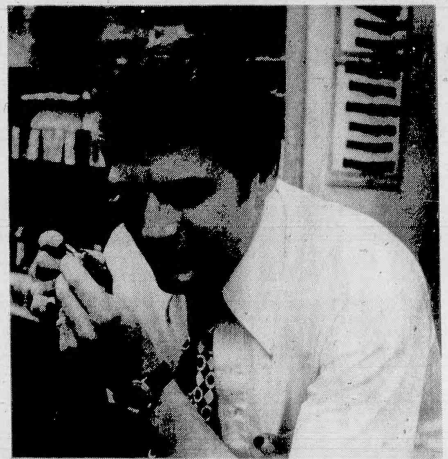

Commissioner Matthew Pica explained that he favored industry and said that more industry would raise property values rather than lower them. "We're not saying that you have to move, you can live there as long as you like," he said.

"Surrounded by industry?" Moller asked. "That's not very nice conditions to live in."

Moller said he would continue to try and convince commissioners that people in the Valley are "happy with the way the Valley was zoned" in the new ordinance. "We're not going to be sacrificial lambs for the town of Belleville," he said.

Planning Board members in attendance — Chris Albanese, Grande, Doyle, Al Schmitt, Henry Kellenbence and Frank Simcone — invited residents to attend the board meetings every second and fourth Thursday of the month to express views on the new zoning ordinance.

The next Planning Board meeting will be 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, at Town Hall.

be made to the police."

Cicienia finds his location on Washington Avenue an asset to business. "It's an excellent location to generate more traffic on the avenue," he said. "Any commerce is an asset. Competition breeds business."

Cicienia has worked for 25 years in the pawning business which he claims is an "unusual and unique" service. "You need a lot of experience to be a pawnbroker," he said, "there are very stringent laws attached."

The store owner required a special pawning license from the New Jersey State Banking and Insurance Commission to open the service.

"If people have poor credit or no bank references, they can come to us," Cicienia said. "They don't have to go to a mall."

"Malls can't compete with us and our services," he stated. "People should shop Belleville."

"We've maintained a reputation as the town jeweler," Cicienia continued. "When I took over the store last year, I knew this was the right location, even then."

"We're not exclusively in the pawning business, we only lend money on jewelry," he said. "If you need money in a hurry, you can come to us."

Cicienia, a former Belleville resident, now lives on Evergreen Avenue in Nutley with his wife Barbara and their three daughters Maria, 15, Lisa, 13, and Annette, 10. — Donna Abate.

Distinguished Members — Roy Willis, past commander of American Legion Post 105, and Walter Weiss, a 56-year Legion member who has held every position at the post by commander, pose for a picture at Saturday's installation of officers.

Legion Officers — Legion Post 105 officers installed Saturday were Ronald Hoelzel, second vice commander; John Nolter, ritual; Patrick Wynn, commander; Henry McHenry, service; Jim Malik, sergeant-at-arms; John Heirty, first vice commander.

GOP candidate planning series of town meetings

Michael Bucco of Kearny, Republican candidate for State Assembly in the 30th District, said he intends to hold a series of town meetings to allow voters to "make my campaign their campaign." The 30th District includes Belleville, but there was no word on when a meeting would be held here.

Bucco said that it is traditional for candidates "to take their own counsel, develop their own issues and deliver their own message" and said his meetings with the public are intended to let people know "I'm more concerned with what they have to say than with what the politicians want."

Bucco said that government in the past seven years "has literally turned a deaf ear to the person on the street."

"When there was a great uproar over the reappointment of (State Education) Commissioner (Fred) Burke to a second term, that uproar was ignored," Bucco continued. "When senior citizens lobbied for a subsidy for their prescriptions, the politicians eagerly cut themselves in on the program, almost bankrupting it."

Bucco said the Democrats had lost the knack for leadership which he said was developed from listening to the public. "My contact with the public will not be from the deck of a paddle wheeler on the Passaic River," said Bucco. "It will be on the streets on the North Ward, Belleville and Hudson County."

"The issues I want to talk about and solve are the things that my friends and neighbors want handled by a legislator," Bucco said he would continue the practice of meeting with citizens' groups after taking office in January.

ShopRite Coupon

19¢ One (1) 1-lb. box ShopRite LONG GRAIN BROWN RICE

Coupon good at any ShopRite market. Limit one per family. Effective Sun., Sept. 23 thru Sat., Sept. 29, 1979.

Come to ShopRite and redeem any manufacturers' "Cents Off" coupons by purchasing items at ShopRite and we'll give you double the savings designated on the coupon (not to exceed value of item purchased). This Double Coupon Savings Program applies to manufacturers' coupons you clip from newspapers and magazines (excluding cigarettes, milk, tax, lottery tickets, prescriptions and any item prohibited by law)—not "Free" ShopRite, or other retailers' coupons.

During the course of this offer, there is the possibility of unusual demand for a particular manufacturer's coupon item. If the item does become temporarily unavailable, request a ShopRite "Rain Check". This entitles you to "Double Savings" on the manufacturer's coupon item when purchased within the expiration date of the "Rain Check".

This offer effective only in N.J. ShopRites north of Trenton except Hamilton Twp. from Sun., Sept. 23 to Sat., Sept. 29, 1979.
