DISPOSAL COSTS WILL JUMP

Commissioners test garbage pact waters

By John Jurich

The Town Commission Tuesday evening decided to float a trial balloon as the first step in solving what looks like a major problem with a future garbage collection contract here.

The town's contract with the local firm of L. Pucillo & Son runs out Dec. 31, and developments in the five years since the contract was signed have all but guaranteed that waste disposal will cost Belleville much more than the total of $1.8 million it has paid for the service since 1974.

How much more is what commissioners want to know, and so next month they will advertise bids using the same specifications as those in the 1974 contract, with a list of alternatives attached.

Essex County Executive Peter

Shapiro, on hand for a meeting with commissioners Tuesday, estimated that their garbage disposal cost might be three times as high. Should that be the case, the town would have serious problems staying within the annual 5 percent state-mandated budget cap.

Aside from the high inflation rate, uncertainty over a new garbage contract has resulted from two factors. The Solid Waste Management Act that went into effect in 1977 mandates a regional approach to garbage disposal, and every county in the state has had to come up with a plan for such disposal. Essex County is planning a "resource recovery facility" at which garbage will be separated and usable parts recycled. The facility will be built in Newark, and Shapiro told commissioners it should be ready by 1984 or 1985.

Meanwhile, the Meadowslands landfill where Belleville dumps its garbage is at capacity and is scheduled to be closed next year. Dumping there has cost the town about $2 a ton. The Hackensack Meadowslands Development Commission, however, will soon be operating a baler to compact the garbage, and that will cost $8.70 a ton. Other costs, of course, are rising too. Rising fuel prices, for instance, make the time spent carting garbage and waiting to dump it much more expensive.

Commissioners Tuesday discussed the possibility of ending or modifying some specifications of the

Trustees reject Watchung invite

By John Jurich

The Board of Education has decided against joining the Watchung Athletic Conference. Instead, Belleville may work with neighboring Nutley to form a new conference made up of independent schools from around the area.

Trustees decided not to join the conference because of reservations about added travel time, fear that traditional rivalries with schools such as Nutley might be eliminated and because of doubts about how much recognition Belleville High athletes might receive playing in an organization far from home.

The vote at Monday night's board meeting was 6-1, with Charles Miele the only trustee backing the plan. The board's 11-member Athletic Advisory Council had voted Thursday to recommend acceptance of the invitation to join the National Division of the conference for the 1981 winter sports season. Trustees were to have been polled by telephone for the final decision since Belleville had to give its answer to conference officials by Monday.

However, trustees wanted more information, and Dr. John Greed, superintendent of schools, told Watchung officials they would have a decision by Tuesday morning. Thus trustees were under considerable pressure to make a decision at their meeting Monday, though several wanted to table the matter for study.

Athletic Council President Vincent Sorrentino told the board join-

New pre-schooler program aims to nip problems in bud

By Mike Olohan

Project BIPPY, a federally funded program to identify and help children ages 3 through 5 who may have learning disabilities, got its start in Belleville this week with the award of a $102,000 grant to the local school system.

Special Services Director Anthony Chirico told school trustees Monday that the program — which he expects will receive funding from now on annually — is especially significant since the earlier children can be helped, the greater the likelihood that their problems will be overcome.

It is crucial, Chirico said, for parents to look for warning signs indicating their child may have a physical, mental or emotional learning impairment.

Warning signs include problems with hearing, eyesight, speech, memory, language, physical development, thinking and reasoning ability and social development, said Chirico. The most common problems are with language and speech.

A special team, including a head teacher, speech therapist and teacher's aide certified to teach handicapped children will be hired to assist a maximum of 18 pre-school children with their specific problems.

Belleville's three child study teams are now helping 638 students with different types of learning disabilities.

Chirico obtained a $102,080 Title VI grant through the state Department of Special Education under the federal Handicapped Act of 1975 to fund Project BIPPY, an acronym that stands for Intervention Program for Pre-School Youngsters. Part of the money goes to pay the child study team.

The state does not mandate special education programs for pre-school youngsters under 5, however,

"pre-school programs help the handicapped to function more effectively a help parents to understand their child's special needs," said Chirico.

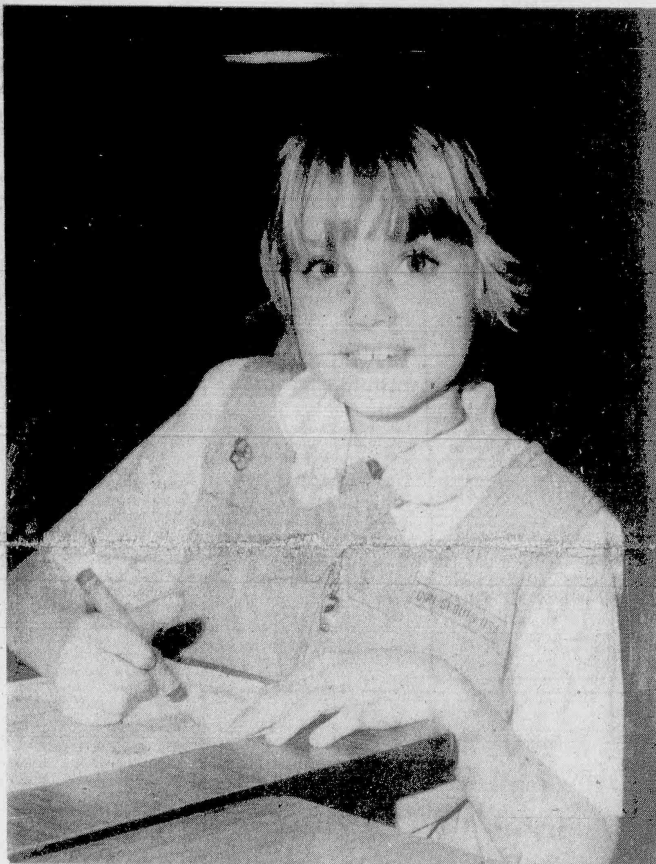

"To work this program is going to take a full commitment from parents in understanding their children's problems. Most programs like this take some time to get off the ground," noted Chirico, stressing the new special education team must screen in the coming months as many of Belleville's 3, 4 and 5-year-olds as possible.

Chirico said the pre-school team will be in touch with town nurses, who visit and keep records on kids under 5, local pediatricians and nursery school instructors to thoroughly screen incoming school children.

The first screening will probably take place in December, said Chirico, noting that all parents will have a chance to bring their children to any of the several screenings planned.

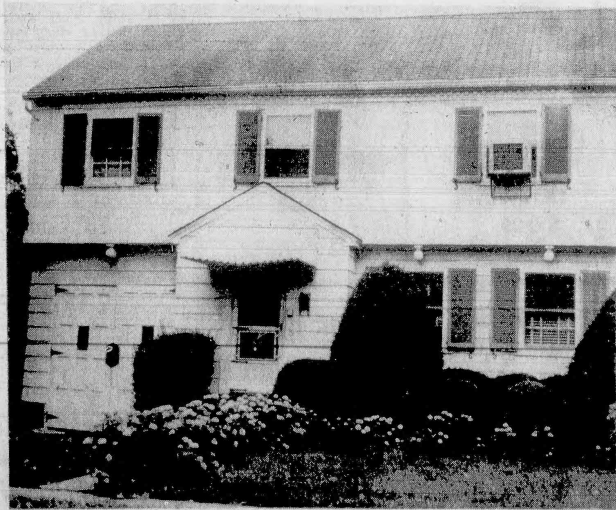

"The teachers, along with parents, are the most important part of the whole educational program," said Chirico. "We (special education teams) need to develop a much closer relationship with the teachers in each school, so that if there's any kind of problem, they'll just be able to pick up a phone and call us with the

GOP candidate outlines plan for hiking homestead rebate

Michael Bucco, Republican candidate for the State Assembly in the 30th District, has proposed that the state return to homeowners through the Homestead rebate program some $25 million in "windfall" sales tax receipts.

Bucco, who district includes Belleville, said in a prepared statement that such a step would increase the average homestead rebate from $190 to $220 a year.

"The Office of Fiscal Affairs has projected that the state will collect some $25 million more in sales tax than it anticipated," noted Bucco. "Unless that money is returned directly to taxpayers, two devastating things will result:

"The already inflation-reduced rebates will become even less meaningful and government will be allowed to grow at our expense just because there is money laying around."

At the same time, Bucco said, New Jersey taxpayers are forced to confront inflation on the one hand and rising taxes on the other.

"Increase the rebate to at least partially mitigate these forces," he said.

Bucco, a Kearny resident, said the failure of the Democratic-controlled legislature to even consider such a move "is just one more indication of its 'taxpayer-be-damned' attitude."

"They brazenly raise their own salaries and expenses," said Bucco, "while the average taxpayer has trouble making ends meet; they allow the executive branch to live in jet-set splendor while the rest of us worry about heating our homes and driving our cars."

"The attitude of the Democratic majority is insensitive. It only considers the condition of the politician and does not regard the plight of the taxpayer at all."

"To continue them in office after November is to continue the folly and the tragedy," Bucco said.

Bucco said he is running for the State Assembly "just because of these attitudes which have become official government policy."

"As a taxpayer, homeowner, father and grandfather, I have to find

Knight essays due Wednesday

Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 is taking part in the New Jersey organization's statewide essay contest for students in the seventh through ninth grades.

The essay theme is "What My Family Means to Me." Essays must be submitted by this coming Wednesday. They should be sent to contest chairman Thomas F. Dillon, Knights of Columbus Council 835, 94-98 Bridge St., Belleville, N.J. 07109. Entries should be typed double-spaced or written legibly in ink. The length may not exceed 500 words, and the number of words should be noted at the end. Students may receive assistance in research, however, they must write their own essays.

Essays must start with the title, "What My Family Means to Me," written at the top of the page with the author's name immediately below. After the noting the number of words, the author should list his full name and address, phone number, school being attended and grade level. This information should be followed by the full name of the author's parent or guardian and his address and phone number. Essays will not be returned.

Prizes will be awarded to first-place winners in each grade at the county and state levels.

new ways to cut corners just to cope with inflation and its soul-mate, rising costs," said the candidate.

"Our legislators obviously don't worry one bit about these things. They just vote themselves raises in salary, raises in expense accounts and special programs so they can buy such things as prescription drugs at $2 a pop."

"These things incense me and I know they are creating anger among the public, I know that because they have told me so."

"The only way to change things is to change things in the legislature," Bucco concluded.

One thing that should be kept in the medicine cabinet is an allosic antipyretic, or, in simpler terms, a bottle of aspirin. Aspirin is effective in reducing the discomfort of occasional headaches, menstrual cramps, and the aches and pains caused by a cold. If aspirin is used only occasionally then a 100 tablet bottle may be sufficient. Watch for excessive crumpling which means that the tablets are getting quite old, or the storage area is too high in humidity.

Keep us in mind at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968 when you have a prescription to be filled. We handle the sale and rental of convalescent aids and baby needs. Russell Slower candies, Times watches and transistor radios are stocked. Open: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HELPFUL HINT:
A child's dose of aspirin is generally no more than half the regular 5 gram dose for adults. It may be less depending on the age of the child.

Filler-Up — Assemblymen Michael F. Aduabato and Jack F. Cali, Democratic incumbents in the 30th District, discuss the current energy problems with Belleville gas station owner, Joe Manochio of Hilltop American.

Democrats Aduabato and Cali call senior rights 'top priority'

Assemblymen Michael F. Aduabato and Jack F. Cali this week pledged that protection of the rights of senior citizens will be a top priority for them when the State Assembly reconvenes. The two incumbent Democrats are running for fourth terms in the 30th District, which includes Belleville.

In a joint statement, Aduabato and Cali said, "The rights of senior citizens have always been a major concern of ours. We think our record over the past six years demonstrates that fact."

Aduabato and Cali said that they have both initiated and supported numerous pieces of major legislation that have helped senior citizens. The Democrats noted that they had fought to save the Prescription Drug Program for the Aged which provides senior citizens with medicine at minimal cost. The Lifeline Credit Program, which Aduabato and Cali also supported, gives a $100 rebate to senior citizens who qualify to help them meet gas and electric bills.

Last month, Aduabato and Cali gave their support to Project YES (Youth Escort Service), a program sponsored by two local community organizations. The two-fold program is designed to give seniors safe and efficient transportation to shopping and medical services. It will also provide a youth escort service to insure their safety while walking in their neighborhoods.

"As chairman of the Assembly's Transportation Committee, I understand the problems that seniors have with public transportation," said Cali. "The state must begin to be more responsive to the transportation needs of seniors as well as other mass transit users. I want everyone to know that we are seeking solutions to alleviate these problems."

"It is a moral crime that our senior citizens cannot walk the streets safely," said Aduabato. "That is why we will work so hard to get the mandatory life sentencing for convicted murderers, that we have sponsored, through the Assembly. It is of utmost importance that these concerns of seniors are addressed in the immediate future and that is why Jack and I are so dedicated to seeing these improved services become a reality."

Aduabato, vice chairman of the Assembly Banking and Insurance Committee, is a lifelong resident of Newark where he lives with his wife Peggy and three children, Richard, Lisa and Michael Jr.

Cali is also a lifelong resident of the 30th District and lives in Kearny with his wife Dolores, and two children, Patricia and Gary. Cali also has three married children, John Jr., Doreen Aiello and Ellen Fiore.

Volker is nuts!

Last week Paul A. Volcker, chairman of the Federal Reserve System said "If inflation is to be reduced, the standard of living of the average American has to decline."

This guy Volcker is absolutely crazy. Never in the history of America has a responsible federal official told the American public it must go backward in order to make progress.

Volcker is saying to the poor, you must lose your jobs and go on relief. He is saying to the middle class, you must take a cut in pay, give up your inside toilet and install the outhouse made famous by the Sears Roebuck catalogue.

Volcker is telling Americans they must give up their refrigerators and go back to the icebox. Volcker is telling Americans they must give up their central air and heating systems and go back to the hot iron and swaddling rags at the foot of the bed to furnish heat through the night. Volcker is telling Americans they must trade in their electric stoves for the old coal stove in the kitchen. Volcker is telling Americans to give up their automobiles and go back to the trolley cars which no longer exist.

In plain English, Volcker is telling Americans to go to hell in a hurry and take an ice blanket with you.

Americans with vision have planned our future to raise our standard of living. And now comes a prophet of "optimism" who tells America it cannot go forward until we return to the unpaved streets, the crank telephone and the horse and wagon.

Never before in the history of America has so high a federal official given such bad advice to a nation which yearns for progressive leadership.

If Volcker does not resign, he should be fired. It is impossible to believe that President Jimmy Carter would want to be burdened with Paul Volcker and his philosophy for recovery if Carter expects to be the Democrat presidential nominee in 1980.

Frank A. Orechio

Carter in trouble

The meaningless Florida mini-conventions of last week underscore the unpopularity of President Carter. We believe the support accorded U.S. Senator Edward Kennedy is a protest vote against the Carter economic policies.

If Carter wants to continue holding down his job, there is precious little time left for Jimmy to turn around the economy.

With interest rates edging towards the 15 percent mark, not only are we faced with a recession but there will be many among us who will classify the drop in our economy as a depression. The people who are adversely affected by the recession and or depression may lose all they own — and these tragedies will be etched in the hearts of the affected. The politicians responsible will just head for the next election unmindful of the heartaches and bankrupt businesses left in the wake of the depression.

The polls read the American public correctly. There is a general dissatisfaction with the Carter domestic record. Unless things change, Carter's job will be up for grabs.

Rent Control

In this period of scarce rental apartments the need for rent control is greater than ever. Nevertheless, rent controls must take into account the escalating costs of repairs, fuel and power. The old 6 percent maximum increase must be reconciled with the realistic problems landlords must contend with during the present double digit inflationary period.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Barry Goldwater is a U.S. senator. He has been for many years. He once aspired to become president of these United States. He didn't make it, probably because of his ultra-conservative Republicanism. Everyone, however, respects his dedicated, loyal Americanism. Nobody pushes Senator Goldwater around — not even presidents. Mr. Goldwater stands tall as a symbol of rugged individualism, fashioned upon the Revolutionary War concept, "Don't tread on me." He is intelligent, courageous and militant when he gets his back up.

The senator is a stickler for observance of constitutional law, and he spends his own money to prove a point in preserving respect for the letter of legal statutes. When President Carter arbitrarily took it upon himself to abrogate our country's treaty with Taiwan in a move to improve relations with Red China, Senator Goldwater threw up the warning flag that Mr. Carter was wrong, that he was usurping the power of the U.S. Senate and Congress.

Arrogantly, Carter defied the law and the senator's warning. Goldwater, joined by 25 present or former members of Congress, instituted legal action against the president's brazen grab of power. Last week, Federal Judge Oliver Gush ruled against President Carter's illegal arrogation of power properly vested in the Senate and Congress.

The White House plans to appeal the verdict, but anyone who is familiar with the U.S. Constitution should know that it reads: "He (the president) shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur." Logic suggests that if a two-thirds vote of the Senate is required to authorize and validate a treaty, it likewise would require similar Senate action to rescind a treaty.

Of late, the Supreme Court has been responsible for several weird decisions that seemed arbitrary and capricious. We hope that if the appeal reaches this tribunal of last resort, the justices will observe the strict interpretation of the Constitution. Any reversal of Judge Gush's ruling would leave a great many suspect that the high court was bowing to executive pressure, the very thing our founding fathers sought to guard against when they devised the separation of powers among the executive, legislative and judicial branches of our government.

The recent announcement regarding a breakthrough in plans for a proposed senior citizen housing project in town may run into some of the snags that are now besetting a similar project in Nutley.

There, the senior project is threatened by debates over the height of the building, who gets to move in, concern about what Trenton, where funding must be approved, will do, and a move in Washington that is underway to eliminate a town's right to offer local citizens the first chance at moving into the federally funded complex.

Congressman Joseph Minish, who represents our district, has alerted local public officials to Washington's efforts to abolish the right of a small community to give preference to local citizens when determining who will be able to rent one of the senior citizen apartment units.

The congressman strongly opposes the proposal because he feels small towns will stop building senior citizen housing projects if communities could not give their own residents first preference. He is absolutely right.

Nutley Mayor Chenoweth and Commissioner John H. Lucy both say that should the "local preference" right be abolished, they both would block the development of the Nutley project. We agree with their firm position on the matter and would suggest that our Belleville commissioners take the same stand on the matter of any proposed local housing of this type.

We wouldn't want a sad experience Newark had over a housing project to happen here. That's the story of how the Grace Development Corporation, made up of the elders of the Grace Reformed Church, was granted an $18.1 million HFA mortgage to build a 472-unit apartment complex but within three months found itself out of the picture. The sponsorship was transformed from the corporation to a limited dividend partnership, taking advantage of a provision in the 1976 federal tax laws that allows limited partnerships a tax shelter for investment in low and moderate income housing. Ownership shares, according to some experts, could be sold off through a syndicate with the tax shelter's return on investment amounting to as much as 35 percent. We wouldn't want anyone to become pawns in such a scheme.

Assembly candidate cites reasons to elect new faces

To the Editor:

I, Michael Giordano, candidate for Assembly, 30th District, was asked what I could do to deal with the many problems which confront us. I have been asked to present my platform to the people for evaluation.

I must be perfectly honest with my presentation for my main objective is to try to convey to the people some of the reasons we, as part of the greatest nation ever to grace the earth, find ourselves in rapid decline. I am going to say something here which no politician would dare say. A politician has but one objective, to get elected. To gain that he would say anything and do anything. We depart from that policy.

First of all the public has consistently placed into office and positions of critical sensitivity, the very people who advocated damaging change to a viable, on going smooth society. You, the voter, has never departed or deviated from electing the same philosophical politicians year in and year out. As you become more and more disenchanted with your political favorite, you refuse to come out anymore to vote, citing as an excuse, "No matter who gets in, they are all the same." This is true only in the sense that you haven't tried any one else. It is you who is at fault for you fail to see your society falling apart all around you. There were a few of us who resisted your elected leaders. Time has proven us right and your politicians drastically wrong. Now, the epitomy of irony, the far out boys who sanctimoniously condemned us for resisting them, have, after having committed their worst damage to our country, begun saying the things we have been saying right along. But theirs is not an awakening. It is just a desperate ploy to get re-elected.

Tell me if you will, who will be at fault if these destructive politicians are given two more years?

As to what I would do in the event I should win election. By that very act, a great positive step would have been taken in that at least one "wrecker" has been eliminated from committing anymore damage. A strong message will have been given that we are no longer going down that long road "A" any more. And that from this point on the direction will be reversed.

You have given a fine machine into the hands of very bad operators. They have turned that machine into a pile of junk. It will take a lot to undo the damage. I cannot do it alone. And I shouldn't be required to do it alone. I will need your help and I expect to get your help in view of the fact that it was you who played such a large role in bringing us to this sad state.

Up until a few short years ago, we had the finest schools in the nation. The architects of "change" moved in with one bad plan after another in the hopes of improving our educational system. They tried one disastrous plan after another, one plan worse than the other, yet they could not be stopped because in spite of their obvious failures they insisted they were right and we were wrong. The truth is, it is we who were and are right. It is time to reverse our course and go back to the point where we went wrong.

We were once a super highway headed in the right direction. Let's get back to it.

Michael Giordano, for Assembly, 30th District

Neighborhood retail zone issue tonight at plan group's meeting

By Donna Abate

A Planning Board committee will hold a special meeting 7:30 tonight at Town Hall to review suggestions for the new municipal zoning ordinance. The full board has already decided on one controversial aspect of the ordinance — the Valley section of town will remain two-family residential rather than being rezoned for industry.

Last Thursday, a sizeable crowd approached planners to give them more suggestions for the ordinance which was passed Feb. 1 with the stipulation that future amendments would be eventually adopted.

The main issue of discussion by far was and still is the controversial neighborhood retail zone for six areas designated at Union Avenue between Greylock Parkway and Greylock Avenue, Union Avenue and Joralemon Street, Joralemon and Passaic Avenue, Belleville Avenue between DeWitt Avenue and William Street, and Franklin Street between Franklin Avenue and Salter Place.

Planners noted that the new zone would keep existing neighborhood retail stores as permitted uses along with residences above commercial uses. But the zone would eliminate conditional uses such as motels, certain restaurants, banks or funeral homes. The law would not apply to existing uses.

According to planners, imposing these restrictions would prevent large businesses from coming into zones which are predominantly residential. The new zone, according to the planners' zoning committee, would not hurt the present neighborhood businesses.

At Thursday's meeting, Virginia

Desmond approached the board with a document listing conditions herself and residents on the stretch of Union Avenue by Greylock preferred in the zone.

Mrs. Desmond, who owns Woodward Funeral Home with her husband, wants "reasonable" conditional uses permitted.

"I don't think our area would be suitable for the construction of a motel," she said. "But other uses like another service station or funeral home should be allowed."

"Conditional uses will still need permission from the town," Mrs. Desmond added. "But at least the law will be there."

Zoning committee members, including the original three, Ed Heibert, Al Schmitt and Joseph Doyle, and new members Chris Albanese and Frank Simeone, are expected to discuss changing the present building height limitation from 30 feet to 35 feet, the number of employees allowed businesses and what type of business will be permitted.

Several commissioners have suggested leaving the zone as it is, but planners say the zone is too general and leaves the area open to any kind of business.

Mrs. Desmond, representing neighborhood retail owners on Union Avenue, asked the board to remove planner Doyle from the zoning committee because he was in "conflict of interest."

"We felt it rather unfair," Mrs. Desmond said, noting that Doyle resides on Greylock Parkway behind the neighborhood retail stores in that area.

The board, however, disagreed and voted unanimously to keep Doyle on the committee. "I was very happy the board stood behind me," Doyle said. "I've worked hard on this ordinance. For the benefit of the residents."

Doyle commented that the new neighborhood retail zone was more beneficial to the people than the previous general business zone. "But the integrity of the land must be upheld in these areas," he said.

The board voted Thursday to keep the Valley section of town two-family residential rather than making it industrial. This area includes various sections between Cortland Street and Main Street. Planners voted 6-1, with Schmitt casting the only negative vote.

Schmitt later commented that he was dissatisfied with the condition of a piece of land by Main and Joralemon Streets. According to the planner, the area contains about six houses surrounded by industry. "Several of the residential uses are eyesores and in a two-family zone, would never get developed," he said. "There's no cut and dry answer,"

Schmitt said. "Residential and industrial uses side by side have an adverse impact on the residential area."

"Personally, I feel more areas should be industry, but there are also very nice neighborhoods in the area," he said. "It's difficult to know exactly how to zone."

Commissioners also favored more industry in the entire area, but Valley residents strongly disagreed. "We like it just the way it is," they say.

Vincent Moller of Stephens Avenue recently summed up the feelings of the residents saying, "Most of us who live in the Valley aren't in any position to go anywhere else."

"You will devalue our property by bringing in more industry," Moller added.

Planners on the zoning committee will review all suggestions tonight and work out final recommendations to present at the next Planning Board meeting in November.

Trustee wants to see new tests used here

By Mike Olohan

Belleville's school system should be using tests that reveal a child's specific weaknesses and strengths rather than comparing them to a national norm, said a school trustee Tuesday.

Board member Anthony D'Agostino said Belleville teachers should administer "criterion referenced" tests instead of the "norm referenced" tests they presently use. Criterion referenced tests evaluate students in precise subject areas, like decoding and comprehension in reading, that help identify problems which might later become worse.

D'Agostino said he is "not being critical" of Belleville's present testing program, but just pointing out a testing method he feels is better. "I'm not trying to say that their testing isn't valid," he said. "It's just that these tests are more detailed."

Belleville uses the Iowa Test, and local scores are compared to a national average. "You don't get into real skill deficiencies with that testing," stressed D'Agostino.

D'Agostino said several school trustees along with Schools Superintendent Dr. John Greed believe "more direction" is needed for Belleville schoolchildren. He said trustees should begin to look at alternatives to the present testing program. "and make it their priority" to change.

"We do have quite a number of kids in Belleville who have failed reading. With criterion referenced testing, 45 different objectives are researched," noted D'Agostino. He emphasized the computers used with criterion testing can point out exact pages in textbooks used by the students where they can look for help.

D'Agostino is a principal at Mount Vernon School, Newark, and in investigating testing programs, he has traveled to Dallas, Tulsa, St. Louis, Boston and other locations. He stresses norm referenced tests "are truly not designed to measure what students know and need to learn nor measure the effectiveness of our instructional program."

"They (norm referenced tests) are quite expensive," he noted, emphasizing criterion testing appears to work better and probably costs less. "Hopefully, educators will eventually consider other testing programs other than standardized or norm-referenced testing programs for this district," said D'Agostino.

"I'm really concerned that the basic skills aren't being taught adequately," he said, adding Mount Vernon School has been using criterion-referenced testing for three years.

The Newark principal stated, "strengthening the relationship between teaching and learning takes place by the improvement of the quality of information about the instructional need of the student."

Parental help is vital to program

When the pre-school program begins, the 18 or less children found with learning handicaps will meet Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at a site yet to be picked. The afternoon time will be used for visits by teachers to the children's homes and training for parents. The program is free, Chirico stressed.

Despite trustees' complaints that more Belleville children might need pre-school help, Chirico pointed out that only eight of 240 pre-kindergarten children tested in May needed special help. Chirico said if more than 18 youngsters are found to need special attention, he will come back before board members and ask them for extra funding.

"If there is a real close home environment, parents will be able to understand when their child is having problems," said Chirico. He said parents should call him at 759-6050 if they have any questions about the program. The special services department is located on the third floor of School 4.

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto,

At the end of this summer I found some strands of my hair to be light blonde. I never colored my hair. The only thing I did was to use different brands of shampoos. I also washed my hair everyday because we bought a pool for our kids this year and I took advantage of it by being in the pool everyday. Can the shampoos and the chlorine change the color of my hair?

Yours,
Blondish Strands

Dear Blondish Strands

Negatory, neither one can cause your lighter hair color. You forgot to tell me you're a dirty blonde. How I know that is because you were sun bleached and dark blondes become lighter from the radiation of the sun. If you have dark hair it'll have reddish highlights. Hoping to satisfy your question.

As Always,

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

We recently came across an ad for one of our major oil companies in which it was stated, "Yes, the United States ought to stop wasting energy, but that's only half the job. The other half is to provide enough energy — secure domestic energy — so deprivation won't be necessary."

One thing that comes to mind after reading this is the ability to pay for energy. It is all right, of course, to hope for enough energy, like gas and electricity and heating oil, without having to worry about the amount or the source of supply. What bothers me is that people on fixed incomes may not be able to afford to pay for enough energy to keep them warm and provide for cooked foods. We have been informed by the usual reliable source that fuel oil will go up in price 50 to 75 percent within the next year and perhaps in the coming heating season. Our concern would have to be with the elderly, especially those living alone with their Social Security benefits and perhaps a small pension as their only income. The $100 credit towards their heating bill is a one-shot deal and could be absorbed in the first or second bill.

Our next concern is in the area of food. With prices skyrocketing the way they have been in the past few years, it is only reasonable to believe that those on low incomes will cut corners on the food intake in order to pay for their gas, electricity and oil.

Nursing and boarding homes could be the answer if it were not for high prices of those facilities. Our last survey showed that the most reasonably priced homes in the immediate area of Essex County had a price tag of $1,200 a month and up. Don't look for relief from government-run-and-regulated homes such as local, state and county institutions. Their price is low and some charge nothing at all, but their waiting lists are long, some with a two-year wait and who lives that long? The economy today is geared to the pace of the working people who earn $200 a week and up. Those with less income are merely existing, not living.

With the deregulation of gasoline, it is probable that the price for that will also rise and those of us who depend on cars will be curtailed in our activities. Won't that be a shame, especially since we looked forward to an unrestricted retirement, hoping to live an easy, relaxing sort of life, instead of the continuing struggle to cope with an ever-demanding society in which someday it will be too expensive to live?

Anniversary Dinner — Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Mauncele of Belleville, chairman of the 25th anniversary dinner-dance of the Occupational Center of Essex County, look over the program for the evening's festivities. The event took place Oct. 13.

The Belleville group was part of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program of Essex County. Members crocheted lap robes for hospital patients.

an entertaining program designed to test the audience's consumer IQ.

In a presentation entitled, "Consumer Quiz," New Jersey Bell Public Relation Supervisor Jerry Schultz used a quiz show format to increase awareness of laws and regulations protecting consumers. The program also included time and money-saving tips on how to get the most from telephone service.

Schultz selected two teams and asked each questions about different areas of consumerism, ranging from the responsibilities of New Jersey's Division of Consumer Affairs to the cheapest time to call long distance. Electronic scorekeeping equipment helped simulate a television quiz show atmosphere.

The students displayed outstanding skill on various qualifying tests administered to nationwide high school juniors.

BHS Principal John L. DeCesare has announced that three seniors at Belleville High have been named commended students in the 25th annual National Merit Scholarship Program. Letter of Commendations from the school and the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) were presented by Joseph LaMonica, Jeffrey Pico and Lisa Schillon in recognition of outstanding performance on the PSAT-NMSQT, the qualifying test for the Merit Program that was administered nationwide to high school juniors in October 1978.

Of the more than one million students entering the competition, about 35,000 throughout the United States are being commended for test performance that placed them among the top 5 percent of participants. Although commended students rank below the level required for Merit Program semifinalists — the only participants who will continue in the 1980 competition for Merit Scholarships — each has shown exceptional academic promise. A spokesman for NMSC, which conducts the Merit Program, stated that the "high performance that is required to be designated a commended student in the Merit Program is an attainment deserving of public recognition. The nation as well as each of these students will be benefited by the continued educational and personal development of their talents."

In an effort to increase opportunities for college admission and financial aid, NMSC offered the high-performing commended students a service in which they could be identified and referred to two higher education institutions of their choice. It is hoped that recognition of these students by the Merit Program will serve as an encouragement to able youth throughout the nation, and that the attention they receive from colleges will help them to obtain whatever information and assistance they may need to pursue their educational plans.

Century cites BHS leader

Kathy Constantino has won the Century III Leaders Scholarship competition at Belleville High School, according to John DeCesare, principal.

The 17-year-old senior is now eligible to compete with other high school seniors throughout New Jersey for two $1,500 scholarships, two $500 scholarships, and also for a $10,000 national scholarship that will be awarded in a conference of state winners in historic Colonial Williamsburg, Va.

Miss Constantino triumphed in the local phase of the Century III Leaders program, a scholarship competition which emphasizes the future concerns of America. Students were judged on the basis of their leadership abilities, community involvement and score on a current events examination. To compete at the state level, Miss Constantino must now write a brief projection outlining what she thinks is one of America's future challenges and how it should be met.

Runners-up in the competition at Belleville High School are Adam Frank, 17, and Michael Sheldon, 17. Kathy Constantino, the daughter of Kathy and Grace Constantino, of 53 Salter Place, now competes with other high school winners from around the state for four scholarships and an opportunity for the $10,000 top national scholarship.

The two New Jersey winners will receive an all-expense paid trip to the fourth annual Century III National Leadership Seminar in Williamsburg, March 7-10, to participate in seminars on current issues. In previous years, speakers at these seminars were such notables as news commentator Howard K. Smith, architect/interiorist Buckminster Fuller and anthropologist Rene Dubos.

The program is administered by the National Association of Secondary School Principals and funded by the Shell Oil Company.

BHS cheerleaders get new uniforms

By Donna Marie Jones

On Saturday, Oct. 13, the Belleville High School cheerleaders who were dressed in bright new uniforms could be seen running onto the football field with the enthusiasm of a winning team.

Although these girls' skirts and vests are of the same style as the old uniforms, the sweaters are a complete and highly noticeable change. The previous v-neck sweaters were gold with blue megaphones secured on the front. However, the girls now perform wearing light-colored, turtleneck sweaters with blue and gold stripes running down the shoulders and sleeves. Blue megaphones with the letters BHS fastened neatly to the front of the upper piece are another characteristic of the new uniforms.

In addition, this squad of 16 girls received a set of blue and gold shakers which consists of a target formation-blue in the extreme center, then gold surrounding the first layer, and finally, blue covering both bottom colors. Above all, the two captains can be easily recognized by the opposition of colors to the rest of the squad.

Although it was extremely cold on that Saturday night, the cheerleaders did not seem to notice the chill in the air. Their advisors, Miss Debra Meola and Mrs. Irene Richter as well as the girls had only one thought in their minds: Their beautiful new outfits and winning the game!

Club news at BHS

The Octagon Club of BHS will sponsor a battle of the bands on Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 6:30 p.m. in the high school gym. Donation is $2 and everyone is welcome.

A yearbook never forgets

By Kelly Martin

Belleville High School held a yearbook assembly on Oct. 17 for all juniors and sophomores. The assembly informed the students that this yearbook will be better than ever. The yearbook will contain not only sports sections but sections and pictures of clubs, classroom activities and other school activities.

George Franklin of Taylor Publishing Company, printer of the yearbook, spoke to the students about these new improvements and the value of a yearbook after a person's high school days are over. A slide show called "A Yearbook Never Forgets" drove Mr. Franklin's point home by showing, in pictures, the memories of a school year the book holds.

This assembly, like a similar one last year, is expected to boost the yearbook, because it showed the students the value of a yearbook.

Gridmen awaiting spaghetti feast

By Steve Minler

Tomorrow, the Belleville High School cheerleaders are sponsoring the second annual spaghetti dinner for the Belleville High School football team and coaches in the cafeteria from 6-10 p.m. Spaghetti and meatballs will be served, along with salad, bread, soda and cake. The food is being catered by the Chandelier Restaurant on Franklin Avenue.

Along with dinner, slides will be shown of this summer's practices. The dinner event is hoped to be carried on through the years to come.

Cheerleaders Roseanne Fortunato, Cheryl Casale and Eileen Apicella feel the dinner shows a lot of school spirit and is a lot of fun. The money for the dinner is paid for by the cheerleaders' treasury, which holds fund-raisers. The idea was thought of by the cheerleaders.

School visits Newark sites

By Cathy Biolsi and Nancy Lisboa

Class trips have begun in School 9 this month. The first trip was moderated by Principal Grosch and third grade teacher Mrs. Castellano. They took the third grade history class to various places in Newark. First they visited Newark Airport where they explored the luggage room, the terminals and, outside, observed the airplanes in motion.

Then they moved on to City Hall, the Federal Post Office, Penn Station, Newark Museum, St. Michael's Hospital, Sacred Heart Cathedral and Essex County Park. As they passed all these sights, they were informed on each.

The trip lasted from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. When the class arrived back at the school, it discussed all the places that it had been to that day. The children enjoyed themselves but best enjoyed visiting the Newark airport and museum.

The next trip to be taken this month was Mrs. Mele's kindergarten classes. Her classes visited the Fire Department on Oct. 10.

The children were shown the fire engines and observed their functions. They then were shown the ambulance and its importance. They also had their blood pressure taken and discussed everything they had learned. The children seemed to have enjoyed themselves also.

Model program seeks the artistically gifted

By Barbara Gundry and Nancy Coffey

A model program aimed at recognizing artistically gifted high school students has been opened to Belleville seniors who are outstanding in the visual arts, music, dance, theater or writing. This program is open to any student who feels he qualifies in one or more of these areas.

students will be recommended to the Commission of Presidential Scholars for consideration as 1980 Presidential Scholars in the Arts.

Every year, the program honors the nation's most academically accomplished graduating seniors. These seniors are then invited to Washington, D.C., to receive the Presidential Scholars Medal. All the teachers will assist in the selection. Anybody who enters will be considered.

Dr. Richard Bennegun, director of guidance, seemed optimistic that BHS would have several applicants in each category.

Hungry Jocks — BHS football players (l-r) Bob LaBruzza, Carl Lordi and Lenny Mendola are holding their appetites for a spaghetti dinner tomorrow night at 7 which will be sponsored by Belleville cheerleaders. Co-captain Dawn Castell (standing, right) and Cheryl Casale will be among the squad cooks.

Chamber to honor fire, police officers

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce's annual dinner-dance will be held Saturday, Nov. 3, at the Branch Brook Manor. The evening begins with a 7 p.m. cocktail hour, followed by a prime rib dinner at 8.

The Chamber will pay tribute to the town's Public Safety Department. Deputy Fire Chief Robert J. Shaughnessy and Police Capt. James G. Mundy will be honored for their service.

Imperiale faults Dems on crime law

Former State Sen. Anthony Imperiale, a candidate for the Assembly in the 30th District, said in a prepared statement that incumbent Democratic Assemblymen Michael Adbuto and Jack Cali "should be ashamed of themselves" for supporting passage of the state's revised criminal code.

"I charge the legislative representatives of the 30th District with being nothing more than Democratic puppets for Governor Byrne," said Imperiale. "It is inconceivable that these men would support a revised criminal code which allows necrophilia (sexual relations with dead bodies). It is apparent that these legislators did not do their homework."

"The revised criminal code had also disarmed our court attendants who are only allowed to carry their weapons in the course of performing their duties," said Imperiale. "With the ever-increasing violent crime in our state, one would tend to arm more police to protect our citizens, rather than to limit their power and disarm our police."

Imperiale charged that the criminal code was not thoroughly studied and was passed at the bidding of the governor and Democratic majority leaders in the legislature.

Imperiale claimed the law would allow live sex shows in the state's 567 municipalities. "It appears that our legislators vote for what is immoral rather than what is moral," he said.

"I will do everything in my power to fight for a Senate bill that will delete from the criminal code allowing live sex shows to be permitted in our communities," said Imperiale. "This is an example of conformity politics, whereby legislators do not think for the benefit of the people, but rather, vote for legislation to conform with old party ties, for which they obtain favors that benefit their party and not the people."

Shenton promoted to staff sergeant

William H. Shenton Jr., son of Martha Keegan of 15 Elena Place, has been promoted to staff sergeant while serving with the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C.

Shenton is a 1970 graduate of Belleville High School. He joined the Marine Corps in September 1971.

Meanwhile, Marine Pfc. Donald G. Hagara, son of Nicholas and Cecelia de Hagara of 79 New St., has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, Calif.

During the 10-and-a-half-week training cycle, de Hagara learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards expected of Marines.

De Hagara participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle and marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1977 graduate of Belleville High School, de Hagara joined the Marines in June 1979.

Diane J. Williams now air sergeant

Diane J. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Williams, 311 Stephens St., has been appointed a noncommissioned officer (NCO) in the U.S. Air Force.

She completed training in management, leadership, human relations and NCO responsibilities before being awarded her appointment. Sgt. Williams is an administrative specialist at Langley Air Force Base in Hampton, Va.

Miss Williams is a 1974 graduate of Belleville High School.

There will be a drawing for a Bulova watch donated by Charles Jewelers. New members will be welcomed and the Chamber's officers and board of directors will be introduced. Full table groups will also be recognized.

Susan Santiglia will sing "The Star Spangled Banner" and Rev. James Heavey of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church will deliver the invocation.

The Belleville Foursome Orchestra and Entertainers will provide dancing music, and accordionist Charles Nunzio will play dinner music.

Craig Fund ends charitable work

The Craig Fund which was designed to assist massively disabled Belleville residents has gone ceased operations as a result of action by its board of trustees.

Founded in 1971, the fund had spent hundreds of thousands of dollars in its quest to provide elevators, additions to homes, hospital beds, special equipment, wheelchairs and therapy for handicapped recipients. Funds were raised through direct contributions from individuals and organizations, sales of birthday candles at annual July 4 ceremonies at Municipal Stadium and sponsorship of special basketball games between residents and members of the Giants and Jets football teams.

The purpose of the fund was to help the afflicted and their families withstand the initial financial impact related to their condition. The fund's board of trustees felt that its mission had been accomplished.

Buc Shots

Fiery Buccaneers cool off just a bit

OK, try to figure this one out. The Belleville Buccaneer football team, with its 3-1 record and convincing victories over Livingston and Passaic, its emotional victory over a good Nutley team and a heartbreaking loss to state-ranked Montclair, had a supposed breather against the Campers of Irvington, a team that was winless in its first four games and had scored just six points the entire season. The Bucs were favored by everyone to win the game in a breeze. What happened was a bit of a surprise.

Oh, Belleville did win the game, the Bucs' fourth victory in five tries. But the way the Bucs won was a bit disturbing for the fans who were at the game. Belleville scored on its first possession, which was no shock. However, the Bhe-Gold could not muster another point the entire evening off a Camper defense that was averaging about 25 points a game.

What saved the Bucs last Friday night was the rock-solid defense, one that has shut out Nutley, held Livingston to one touchdown and limited Montclair and Passaic, two offensively explosive clubs, to two touchdowns apiece. The Buc defense preserved a 7-0 victory for John Senesky's troops, who deep inside must already be starting to get psyched for the Seton Hall contest on Nov. 3.

Belleville scored its only points courtesy of a 65-yard touchdown pass from Ed Aulisi to Lenny Mendola, the team's leading scorer. It was the second time this season that Aulisi had hit Mendola for the only points Belleville would score. Belleville beat Nutley 7-0 with Aulisi throwing to Mendola for the only touchdown. Mendola had a very productive evening, rushing for 77 yards on 21 carries.

The Bucs' offensive machine was missing a large fuse because Mike Nicosia, the team's leading rusher and one of the finest runners in the county, was sidelined with a knee injury which he suffered late in the Passaic outing. The senior hopes to be suited up for the Seton Hall contest, but only time will tell if he'll be ready.

Aulisi is turning into a strong all-around player. His passing stats might not be as impressive as last year's, but the senior has made up for that with fewer interceptions and a better control of the offense. His coolness at the helm is something that any good team needs in order to be successful. The Bucs have a good backup quarterback in John Norton, also a senior. He doesn't have the strong arm that Aulisi has, but he is a good runner and doesn't panic in pressure situations either.

The main reason for Belleville's lackluster performance was probably the Passaic game the previous week. The Bucs were so fired up for the unbeaten Indians that when the Campers came in the following week, it was difficult for the players to take them seriously. But the important thing to remember is that Belleville did win the game despite a subpar effort and chances are that the Bucs will be better prepared emotionally for the Eagles of Essex Catholic who fly in Saturday night.

Double congratulations are extended to the New York Jets. Last Sunday, the team gained its second straight victory, a convincing 28-19 win over the Oakland Raiders. The win snapped the Raiders' three-game winning streak and was the first Jet win over Oakland since December of 1968 when the Jets won at Shea Stadium for the AFL title. What won it for the Jets was a super defense, one that intercepted Ken Stabler five times, and the running game, which is tops in the NFL.

Congratulations also have to be extended to the Jet coaching staff. The Jets are the only team in the NFL right now which keeps its starting quarterback, who is perfectly healthy, on the bench so it can play its $500,000 bum, Richard Todd. Most fans know that Matt Robinson won the starting job in the pre-season. Now the head coach of the Jets, Walt Michaels, is a man who sticks with his decision, so it seemed the starting quarterback for a while would be Robinson. Well good old Matty played one game before being removed in favor of Todd.

The Jets are now at the halfway point of the season. They have a 4-4 record, which could easily be 6-2 had Michaels not been so stubborn and used Robinson in the pressure situation. The Jets opened the season at home with Cleveland and Robinson at the helm. Despite a sore thumb, he led the Jets to a 22-19 advantage with only 14 seconds left in the game. However, the defense committed a costly turnover, and Cleveland capitalized with the tying field goal and eventually won 25-22 in overtime. So now in the second week of the season, Robinson is benched and Richard Todd is put in. The Jets lose at Foxboro to the New England Patriots 56-3. Now I know you can't blame Todd for the shellacking the Jets took. The defense was absolutely horrendous. But if the Jets had generated a little more offense maybe the defense wouldn't have had to stay out on the field so long.

Week number three saw the Jets return to Shea for the Detroit Lions. Detroit is probably the worst team in the league right now, and the Jets behind a strong running game won 31-10. Todd's passing wasn't that much of a factor because all he had to do was hand off in this game.

The following week, the Jets traveled to Buffalo to play the offensive-minded Bills. In the first half, the Jets scored 24 points, but Buffalo countered with 19. In the second half, the Bills continued the offensive surge with 27 more points. The Jets, well they scored seven, those points coming on the last play of the game. Todd, who has all the consistency of a typhoon, fumbled away a touchdown and threw three interceptions.

The Jets staggered back to Shea with a 1-3 record and a game with 4-0 Miami. The Dolphin game was won by the Jets because of a super defense. In case you forgot, New York won 33-27. Now before you go complimenting Todd on leading the Jets to 33 points, look at the facts. The Jets scored 14 points with Todd sitting on the sidelines. They blocked a punt and fell on it in the end zone for one score, and Bobby Jackson intercepted a Bob Griese pass and ran 30 yards for a touchdown for another score. Had the defense not chipped in with those two scores, the Jets would have lost 27-19.

The next week, the Jets traveled to Baltimore to play the winless Colts. The Colt offense could not score a lot of points against the Jets tough defense, but Todd was even worst against the Colts' defense, ranked 21st in the NFL. Todd led the team to two field goals and the Colts won 10-8.

Last Monday night, the Jets were home to face Minnesota at Shea Stadium. There were posters all over the stadium reading such things as "We want Matt, and that's that," "A better coach would use Matt," and "Come on Walt, put the better player in." Well Michaels continued using Todd and the result almost was disaster. Todd could muster no offense that night, but the Jets won 14-7. Schaffer Suggs intercepted a Tommy Kramer pass and scored a touchdown, and the Jet defense recovered a fumble and gave the offense the ball at the Viking 24-yard line. Todd did manage to lead the team to a score on that turnover.

With the fans screaming for Robinson now, the Jets played a Please see "Buc Shots" on page 19.

Drained gridmen find Campers rough going

By Mike Lamberti

Whew. That's the best way to describe the reaction local fans had to the Belleville-Irvington football game last Friday night. The Bucs beat the stubborn, winless and practically offenseless Campers of Irvington 7-0 before a relieved crowd at BHS Stadium.

The win boosted the Bucs' record to 4-1, the team's finest start since 1970, while Irvington, off to its worst start in quite a while, slipped to 0-4. The Bucs will stay in the friendly confines of BHS for another night game, this one with the Eagles of Essex Catholic Saturday at 8.

Buc head coach John Senesky was pleased to come away with the Irvington win. "It was tough for the guys to get up for this game," said the coach. "The Passaic contest last week was very emotional and drained the players. Irvington put forth a fine effort and tried many different plays. I was very impressed with their quarterback, Davis."

The contest started as most figured it would. The Bucs won the toss, for the fifth straight time, and scored on their first possession. Quarterback Eddie Aulisi fired a short pass to speedy Lenny Mendola who carried the ball some 60 yards for the first, and as it turned out, the only score of the contest. Ralph "The Bear" DePasquale hit the point after attempt and Belleville led 7-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, Michael Davis, the Campers' one-man show, returned all the way to the Buc 28. However, the Campers with Davis at the helm, could not crack the vaunted Buc defense and consequently were forced to turn the ball over on fourth down.

The Bucs started a drive from their own 29 and marched all the way to the Camper 20 without benefit of a pass, a weapon usually found in the Belleville arsenal. Mendola picked up 34 yards in the drive, but it ended short of the goal line when Aulisi fumbled on fourth down and the Campers recovered.

Neither team could mount much of an offensive threat in the first half, although Belleville did manage a short drive to the Camper 26 that was halted when Belleville lost the ball on downs.

In the third quarter, Irvington mounted what proved to be its most effective drive of the evening. From the Camper 25, Mike Perez gained to the 32. Davis then hit Barry Wilson for 18 yards and a first down at midfield. After an Irvington penalty, Davis fired a 21-yard strike to Phil Gregory and a 32-yarder to Calvin Pearson, and the Campers were on the Buc 12. However, the Campers made some sloppy mistakes which put the ball back on the 22, and they could penetrate no further than the Buc 14. The drive ended with Perez falling short of a first down.

Behind the running of Mendola and some key bursts by Dante DeNotaris, playing in his first game in over a year, the Bucs put on a time-consuming drive that just about took the wind out of the Campers' sails. The Campers got as far as the Buc 27 in the fourth quarter, but once again it was the defense of Belleville that made the difference.

The Campers' final try for a score was squelched when Paul Schupplein intercepted Phil Cocuzza's pass. The Bucs were home free.

BUC NOTES: Senesky cited the fine play of Danny Amadeo, Phil Cerza, Mendola and the entire Buc defense... No major injuries in the game, but Mike Nicosia, the star fullback, missed the Irvington game due to a knee injury suffered in the Passaic outing. He hopes to be back for the Seton Hall game Nov. 3... One final note, last week's column neglected to mention one of Belleville's coaches, Joe Vitiello. Major apologies.

Kicked Out — Belleville High goalie Jack Baumgartner puts the ball back in play after registering a save in Monday's game with Kearny. For more pictures and a story about the soccer team, see page 14.

Putting It Off — Goalie Baumgartner makes a save Monday in the last quarter as Belleville's Jaime Villalobid (right) comes in on the action. Kearny won 1-0 in overtime.

Eagle pigskin club in rebuilding year

Another youthful, inexperienced football team comes to town Saturday night when the Essex Catholic Eagles take on the Bucs at Municipal Stadium. Game time is 8 p.m.

Unlike Irvington, which departed Belleville this past weekend having given the Bucs a strong challenge, Essex Catholic at least has a win under its belt. The Eagles defeated East Orange in their season opener 8-7.

Since then, the Eagles have found the going rough. They lost to Bergen Catholic 27-0, Orange 21-7 and Don Bosco 15-6 before finding themselves on the field with Seton Hall last weekend. What happened is by now well known. John Merklinger, the Pirates' super fullback, scored 35 points to lead his team to a 49-6 victory.

Second-year coach John Allan, who teaches at Seton Hall, is optimistic about his team's future, even if the present looks a little bleak. "I'm not knocking the kids," he said. "They've grown and gotten a little better week by week."

The team has only two returning lettermen. "We're inexperienced, that's true," said Allan. "We lost 20 to 21 seniors who graduated from last year's team. That's not too rational, but it's a fact, and we're mistake-prone enough and find ourselves up against teams of enough quality so that we've been defeated."

Still Allan sees the team's youth as its greatest asset. "Just the fact that we are young and growing means that we have nowhere to go but up in our progress," he said.

The Essex Catholic game features a balanced running and air attack with many players starting both on offense and defense. "We probably have a fairly balanced attack this year," said Allan. "We've passed as much as we've run. I'd guess that in that march (the touchdown drive against Seton Hall) we caught about three passes in about a 10-play march."

More importantly, enthusiasm ran high among the Eagles, though they were behind by two touchdowns after the first minute and were taking a bad beating. "At Seton Hall," noted Allan, "their appraisal is that the kids didn't quit out there."

Tackle Charlie Matos and guard Jim Visco are the only returning lettermen from last season's 4-4-1 team. One of those losses came to Belleville 19-0, a game in which Mike Nicosia scored ran for 154 yards, scored three touchdowns and intercepted two Eagle passes.

"We knew they had everybody back and they beat us last year, so we knew they would be a very fine team," said Allan of Belleville.

The Eagle offensive starting lineup has Wayne Linfante and Richard Lueders at the ends, Matos and Pat DiSarno as tackles, Visco and Semler at the guard spots, Dave Malanga at center, Darryl Green the quarterback, Robert Price the tailback, Don Floyd at fullback and Al Lewis at wingback.

Linfante and Lueders are the defensive ends, Matos and DiSarno the tackles and Visco and Semler the linebacks. The cornerbacks are Joe Heredita and Todd Green, while Harvey Osborne and John Melillo will be the safeties. Anthony Robinson is the middle guard.

Montclair Mauler — Nick Zarra of Belleville is a starter on defense for the Montclair State football team. Zarra, a 6-3 senior, recorded 20 tackles in the team's first four games.

Division I Lancers triumph 8-0 in Rec soccer contest

The Division I Lancers continued their winning ways in Belleville Recreation soccer last week, shutting out the Toros 8-0. Mike Silletti scored four goals, Mike McGreevy three and Duane Alexander one to help the Lancers to their second victory of the young 1979 season.

The Spurs edged the Aztecs 3-2 in a closely fought battle. Eddie Acosta, Steve Mulhearn and Ernie DeRosa scored for the victors, while Jim Dasaro chalked up two goals for the losers. The Aztecs (0-2) held an early 2-1 lead but the defense crumbled in the last period. Franco Cencarelli, Mark D'Antonio and Arthur Russo were exceptional in a losing cause.

In Division II, the Toros, Cosmos and Aztecs all improved to 2-0, while their opponents dropped to 0-2. The Toros defeated the Spurs 6-1 behind the scoring of John Arrietta who had two goals and Gary Picci, Tommy Morris, Marlon Acosta and Jimmy Murphy who had a goal each. Nick Aurimemma scored the lone Spur goal.

Louis Lucante's three goals paced the Cosmos in a 7-0 rout of the Comets. Anthony Lunetta, Armando Nardone, Gustavo and Robbie Widuch also scored for the winners.

The Aztecs topped the Lancers 3-1 on two goals by Philip Zamlot and one by Steve Woodcock. Chris Nardone drove one shot home for the Lancers.

Division III play was highlighted by three shutouts last week. The Cosmos halted the Comets 6-0 on five goals by Walter Capozziuca and one by Steven Tice. The Toros and Spurs were forced to go to a shootout after a scoreless regulation game, and the Toros got the decision on goals by Pete Russo and John Sorocolla. The Lancers defeated the Aztecs 5-0 on three goals by Joe Cereto and two by Harry Burbank.

Cobras, led by Alberto Chafar, grab season's first win 8-1 over Warriors

By Fred Lardaro

Magnificent sunshine and the Cobras combined to make this past October weekend uncomfortably warm for a pair of foes and provide soccer excitement for partisan throngs that gathered in Belleville Park for Saturday and Sunday matches.

Recently signed Alberto Chafar collected three goals and an assist as the Cobras literally buried the West Orange Warriors 8-1 Sunday. It was a game in which striker Lou LaConti continued to use his lightning speed and seemingly endless energy to make life miserable for opposing defenders while scoring two goals.

Halfback Alan Ruopp added two goals, and Tommy Morris employed deceptive, cat-like skills as he tightrope the sideline, dribbled into the penalty area and with a vicious, resounding kick, drilled home the Cobras' eighth goal.

And on defense, it is no longer simply the Oswaldo Stefanon show. Marc D'Antonio played exceptionally well in both weekend contests, and Freddie Calvache seems to have found a home at the sweeper position. Calvache assisted on five of the Cobras goals.

The Cobras had lost Saturday's match 5-1, but the powerful Allendale Arrows found the Belleville team to be anything but a pushover.

LaConti scored the Cobras' lone goal early in the second half. Goalkeeper Brian Cook was dauntless in the face of a 27-shot attack and kept the game as close as 3-1 until Allendale managed two goals in the final 10 minutes.

Cobra coaches are pleased with the weekend developments. "We played two very technically sound matches," said Coach Sam MacArthur. "The players are beginning to understand their positions and their individual responsibilities to a team effort. But more importantly, they are becoming more confident."

New faces on the Cobra roster are Alberto Chafar, Eduardo Acosta, George Ricci, Steven Mulhern, Jim Eustice and Mike Gable. Part of their initiation to the Northern Counties League and adjustment to the Cobra team was an 8-0 whitewashing suffered in Wyckoff. But these new players have also added a new dimension to the Cobras on offense and defense.

The signing of Acosta as a halfback frees Lou LaConti to become a striker. The result is a greater scoring punch. Acosta is a finesse player and an excellent complement to Mike Salletti and Alan Ruopp in the midfield.

Chafar, Ricci and Eustice strengthen the team at forward, while Mulhern and the very physical Mike Gable give the Cobras depth on defense.

The Cobras seem to be putting it all together as they prepare for their next match on the road in Franklin Lakes.

"We've been patient with a very young team," explained assistant coach Gabe Micchelli. "A lot of our players are 10 and 11 years old. In Division III, most of our opponents are 13. We deliberately went with the younger players so as to build for the future."

The Cobras have been involved in agonizingly close matches throughout the young season, and indeed, their future appears to grow more promising with each successive match.

QUICK KICKS: "Comparing the competition in the Northern Counties League to the competition in our town's Recreation League is like comparing the Belleville varsity football to the Giants... There isn't any comparison," said Gabe Micchelli... The Cobras are now 1-4-1.

Giants lead pack at 2-0 as Rec football begins

After being snowed out and rained out, the Belleville Recreation Football League finally began action last week. With two games complete, the Giants have the early lead with a 2-0 record. They are followed by the Steelers (1-0-1), Rams (0-1-1) and Dolphins (0-2).

The Giants, coached by Elmer Haug and Nick Grande, defeated the Rams 27-6 in their opening game. In the first quarter, they scored three times on drives down the field, capped by the runs of James Apple, Michael Dellaquila and Scott Doyle. The Giants' last tally came in the fourth quarter when Anthony Iadimanco plunged over the goal line.

In their second game, the Giants beat the Dolphins, last year's champions, 22-0. Scott Doyle was the big gun, scoring three touchdowns and extra points. A safety was requested when a Dolphin punt was snapped out of the end zone. Bolstering the offensive and defensive lines for the Giants were James Miele, John Apicella, Robert Capece, Phillip Marinaccio, Nick Celfo and Alan Zenobi.

In their first game of the season, the Steelers, coached by Bob Haug and Frank Roselli, registered a 34-12 victory over the Dolphins. In the first quarter, Rickie Roselli broke off tackle for a 60-yard TD run. The blocking was provided by Derk Lombardi and Scott Hulley. Roselli added a touchdown pass, scored three touchdowns himself and gained 200 yards rushing. Frank Mosca scored on a three-yard run late in the game, and Danny Ward caught a touchdown pass. The big play for the Dolphins was a 75-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by John Capetta. The Steelers and Rams battled to a scoreless tie in their second game. Good defense and numerous penalties which stalled the offenses were responsible for the blanks on the scoreboard.

Each team was on the verge of scoring in the fourth quarter. The Rams were stopped on the 5-yard line due to the defensive efforts of Steelers' Scott Hulley, Donald Washington, Jim Demgard and Anthony Cook. The Steelers' threat came on a 50-yard drive, but they fumbled on the Ram 5. They also stalled on the Ram 20-yard line. The Rams lost a big player for the season when Eric Anderson was sweeping left and broke his wrist trying to ease his fall while being tackled.

The Rams are coached by Bob Van Tassel and Angelo Luongo. Jim Wandling is the Dolphins' coach.

LEAF-RELIEF

FOOTBALL SEASON IS NEAR AGAIN. BUT IF YOU DON'T HAVE A SNAPPER, THE RAKING SEASON IS HERE AGAIN.

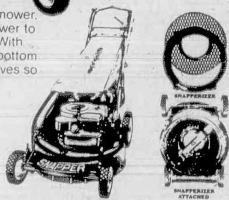

SNAPPER "High Vacuum" riding mowers not only do a good job of cutting grass, they pick up the cuttings, leaves and litter in a hurry. Depending on the size of your spread, optional catchers are available with six and thirty bushel capacities. That means you may be able to mow and vacuum your entire area without stopping to empty.

If your lawn area doesn't require a riding mower, there's also a SNAPPER walk-behind mower to get fall chores out of the way in a hurry. With an optional Snapperizer attached to the bottom of a SNAPPER mower, you can shred leaves so the bag holds over twice as many and you have to empty it less often.

Ask for a demonstration of a SNAPPER. You'll see why SNAPPER owners are able to enjoy more of the games.

FREE SNAPPER POWER T-SHIRT with the purchase of any SNAPPER Mower, Tiller or Tractor at participating SNAPPER Dealers.

MOVE OVER, FOOTBALL

Buccaneer soccer club seeks higher goals

By Donna Abate

Belleville residents not too involved in football may have noticed that there is another exciting sport in town which is slowly drawing larger crowds. The game is soccer and the Buccaneers club is currently sporting a proud 6-4-1 record.

And proud they can be especially after their recent bouts which spotlighted a tough ballclub goosing with team spirit and talented booters.

Team effort was rarely more evident when the Bucs met the Irvington Campers last Tuesday to add another victory to their total or when they were giving the Nutley Raiders and the Kearny Cardinals a run for their money in regular-season games. And a moment's rest couldn't be found as the Bucs met Verona in a county tournament contest Sunday, the team's third outing in four days.

The toughest and probably most heartbreaking game took place Monday afternoon when top-ranked Kearny edged the Bucs in overtime 1-0.

The Cardinals trampled over the Bucs earlier in the season with a 6-0 mashing, but Belleville came back in full force this time, holding Kearny until the last minutes of the second overtime period.

"We took the starch out of them with the caliber of ball we played," said BHS Coach Tony DeAquino. "We almost shook up a lot of people."

"We proved something that day," he added. "We received respectability."

The local booters played their hearts out against "fifth-ranked Verona in the county tourney Sunday, but Verona managed to steal away with a 2-1 victory.

Belleville took the lead early in the second period when Pat Leonidis booted a goal after a pass from Dennis Dilcan. Verona perked up in the beginning of the fourth, however, tying the bout until one minute left when Hillbilly Lou Agosto added another tally.

"We played tough," DeAquino stated. "After the Kearny game, we proved we can play anyone," he added, noting that the team will probably compete in the state tournament as well.

"Galo Calvache and John Lee come to play every game," the coach continued. "and Pat Leonidis will do anything to get the ball."

"We've got a great club," DeAquino said.

The Bucs stirred the Maroon Raiders last Friday in a game which ended in Belleville's first tie as the booters battled Nutley through overtime with a tally of one against one.

Belleville took an early lead when Tony DeBenedetto scored in the second period with a pass from Jeff Hageman. Nutley later tied the game in the third period. Jack Baumgartner's 20 saves kept the Maroon Raiders from gaining the victory.

Last Tuesday, the Bucs clipped Irvington 3-1. After scoring in the first period, the Campers seemed confident until the Bucs fired up in the third period with three consecutive tallies. Jeff Hageman started the streak with a skillful headball followed by an indirect kick by Calvache.

John Lee almost immediately got Belleville on the board again, booting in an unassisted goal three minutes later. And Pat Leonidis secured the win with two minutes left in the same quarter on another tally.

Baumgartner kept a close check on the Campers with 10 saves. "I'm so pleased at how well Jack is playing," Coach DeAquino later commented.

The Bucs will meet Essex Catholic 3:45 p.m. tomorrow at Clearman Field and then will face an undefeated Queen of Peace club in a Monday night bout starting 6 p.m. at the Stadium.

The Belleville booters wind up the season with games next Wednesday at home against Orange and next Friday afternoon at West Orange.

"We could win them all," an optimist DeAquino said. "You never can tell. We'll play one game at a time and respect each opponent."

Football, is the game in this town for the moment, but listening to the cheers of the growing soccer audiences, it seems the Buc booters are slowly gaining ground.

Hard Knocks — Buc booter Dennis Dilcan gains control of the ball as the Kearny Cardinals plan their defense in the third period of a game that ended with Kearny winning in overtime Monday.

Halftime Activity — Soccer Coach Anthony DeAquino chats with a referee during halftime as the Bucs met Nutley in a game that ended in a 1-1 tie in overtime Friday.

Teamwork — Brian Woods (background) gets ready to pass to Jaime Villadolid as the Bucs struggle against a tough Maroon Raider team.

Eying the Ball — Galo Calvache (left) and Pat Leonidis maneuver the ball away from Irvington in the second period in a game in which the Bucs blasted the Campers 3-1 last Tuesday.

Last Tango — Jim Kane (right) and a Montclair Mountie battle for the ball in a recent game in which the Bucs went on to trip the Mounties for a 2-1 win.

Lee Way — Buccaneer John Lee (right) struggles with the Maroon Raider defense. Belleville tied Nutley here last Friday 1-1.

Travel, loss of rivalries factors in decision against conference

ing the conference would "benefit the overall picture in sports," and BHS Athletic Director Jim Silvestri, also a council member, strongly defended the conference proposal.

It immediately became clear, however, that trustees had their doubts. Trustees Peter Clarizio and Anthony D'Agostino complained p.m. Monday make-up time for that Belleville athletes and the rain-outed football games would system's sports program were not getting enough recognition from the larger area newspapers now and worried that with the local teams playing in a division with no Essex County schools that recognition could dwindle even further.

Several board members pointed out that travel time would be increased with Belleville playing schools like Rahway, Hillside and Roselle, and D'Agostino said the 3 p.m. Monday make-up time for that Belleville athletes and the rain-outed football games would system's sports program were not getting enough recognition from the ing more instructional time away." Board President Ralph Risoli said fans from the general public, especially senior citizens, would be adversely affected too by longer travel. "We want grandparents, cousins, aunts and uncles to see these kids in action," he said.

Silvestri said traveling times would be comparable to those now. He also contended that the Belleville sports program would eventually get recognition since it is on the upswing. Belleville's wrestling teams, he said, have been successful for many years and now have wide, automatic recognition. "If you start winning year in, year out, you're going to get recognition," Silvestri told trustees.

Silvestri said that because of existing contracts, Belleville would be able to retain its football games with Nutley and Livingston, the two biggest fan draws, even after joining the conference. But trustees worried that that situation might change in the two years before Belleville joined.

Trustees Michael Chieffo and Caesar Romano asked Silvestri to explore the possibility of forming a new conference. "The point I'm trying to make is that if all the independent get together, we're no longer independent," Romano said.

Chieffo said a new "Meadowlands Conference" could be formed with just six teams, the number it takes to create a recognized championship conference. He said high school sports might then move in the same direction as professional sports in which football teams, for instance, play each other twice in the same season.

Silvestri was to have met this week with acting Nutley High Athletic Director Tom Gallucci to discuss the possibility of a new conference. The idea already has some support on the Nutley Board of Education.

strong game against the Raiders last week. The defense was awesome, setting up the Jets' first touchdown with an interception. In the second half, with the Jets trailing 10-7 and the fans forming a lynch mob, Todd threw, up a Hail Mary pass blessed by Pope John Paul II. The ball was caught miraculously by Wesley Walker in the end zone. The Jets scored a third touchdown on a Scott Dierking run and sealed up the win when Todd hit Mickey Schuler in the end zone with a pass that couldn't miss. You see, Schuler was all alone in the end zone — there wasn't a Raider within 15 yards of him.

Come on, Walt, you've done a great job in rebuilding the Jets into a fine club. You've helped to bring back respectability to Shea Stadium, and let fans can look at their team with a great deal of pride. The Jets are only a game behind second-place Miami and have a good chance at the playoffs. Why don't you solidify an already strong team with a proven leader in Matt Robinson? The defense can't carry Todd the rest of the season.

Congratulations to the Pittsburgh Pirates on their great comeback in the 1979 World Series. The Pirates won the Series 4-3 after trailing three games to one. The unfortunate victims of the Pirate onslaught were the Baltimore Orioles who had a marvelous season. Both teams have a great deal to be proud of, and the Series was a very exciting affair. Major league baseball had a great season in 1979. Look for more of the same in 1980.

Finally, the answer to last week's quiz. The question was what team did Belleville beat in 1972 that was undefeated and considered a good shot at the state crown? The answer is Orange High School. Belleville beat the 1972 Orange 7-0 in a driving rainstorm for Orange's first loss of the season. Belleville at the time was 1-3-1 but would go on to a 4-4-1 record.

Now here's this week's quiz. When was the last time a Belleville football team defeated Seton Hall and where was the game played?

New garbage contract will be very expensive

old contract in order to cut costs. Several options had been suggested to the board in a letter from Mark Lerner, a lawyer with the Newark firm that represented Pucillo. Lerner said the suggestions might be considered regardless of whether or not Belleville eventually signed a contract with Pucillo.

Lerner said the town might build provisions for added fuel and labor costs into its contract to give the disposal firm a cushion. The contract might also be broken into individual parts, like pick-ups for schools, businesses and multi-family dwellings, he said, and bids be let out on each. Lerner suggested a 60-pound limit on cleanup materials, with the exception of freezers, refrigerators and other heavy appliances. The limit now is 200 pounds.

Pickups might be altered, Lerner said, so that garbage would be collected from schools and apartments only at the curb to save time and money. Lerner suggested that the town consider ending the requirement that its contractor provide a dump site for the town's trucks and residents.

Commissioners considered these and several other proposals but decided they would like to try to keep the present contract specifications if possible. "We want to give the same services to the taxpayers," said Mayor Michael Marotti, who suggested the present contract be bid again. "Then if they (the bids) come in and they're too high, we can cut here and cut there," he said.

Town Attorney Frank Zinna pointed out, though, that if the bids were rejected there would be little time to let out new ones before the present contract expired. Commissioners eventually agreed to advertise one, three and five-year contracts with the present specifications but with Lerner's suggestions attached as alternatives.

The 1978 season proved to be a great one, as Head Coach Frank Burns led the Scarlet Knights to a 9 - 3 record and an appearance in the nationally televised inaugural Garden State Bowl, against Arizona State University.

With a core of 29 returning Lettermen, including 14 Starters to work with, Coach Burns believes 1979 will be another proud season. 1979 will also be a major step to the '80's and fulfillment of the future of Rutgers University Football.

Coach Burns and the entire team look forward to seeing you in the stands. The Scarlet Knights want and need your support. Winning is a total team effort; and, with your tickets, you're a part of the team.
