DESPITE TRUSTEE PLEAS

Commissioners slice school tab $300,000

After over an hour-and-a-half of argument Monday night, town commissioners voted 3-2 to slash $300,000 from Belleville's defeated $12.4 million school budget.

Board of Education Vice President Ernie Zoppi made repeated impassioned pleas to commissioners to lay down their budget-cutting axe, but they wouldn't even consider it. All the commissioners favored trimming the school tab, though two eventually voted against the cut that was made because they felt it was too large.

Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica, a former nine-year school trustee and past president, appeared annoyed when former colleague Ralph Risoli, now board president, told him he saw no places where the budget could be cut.

"Come on Ralph, I was on this board too," said Pica, emphasizing there were several financial maneuvers trustees could perform to come out with a sizable year-end surplus. Pica, who voted against the cut that was decided upon, noted that Risoli said last year that even with a much lower cap and budget, he could have trimmed $500,000 — an assertion Risoli sidestepped.

While Belleville's four other commissioners glanced at large notebooks of budget figures, Pica pointed out that $200,000 alone could be cut by simply axing unanticipated income, or the budget surplus as of June 30, 1980, the end of the fiscal year.

However, most trustees didn't want to cut anything, which angered both Pica and Mayor Michael Marotti, who said that cuts would have to be made because the budget was rejected.

"What's the sense of us, year after year, going through the same hassles?" asked Zoppi. "Let's go one year where we both leave happy. You don't have to cut anything. I don't think you can logically find a place to cut," said Zoppi, who later found $60,000 could be eliminated by subtracting maintenance costs for Schools 1 and 2, both slated for closing in September.

Most commissioners seemed perturbed over trustees' attitude about recommending areas to cut, and seemed puzzled that no savings were shown, despite the two closings scheduled. However, board members are still uncertain whether Education Commissioner Fred Burke will accept their desegregation plan, which includes closing Schools 1 and 2.

No matter how many times Pica repeated $200,000 should be cut, Zoppi disagreed. Without missing a beat, but definitely turning a few heads, Zoppi remarked, "Our problem is we're anticipating spending the unanticipated revenue." He prodded commissioners to "give us a logical figure (reduction) that we can live with."

"I don't see any salary accounts going down," said Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevy, who along with Marotti and Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo voted to cut $300,000.

Pica suggested throwing the whether to retain Servomation's services.

"I think we've made improvements, but I don't know how much," she said.

Lunch program seems a success

Looking to eliminate a $25,000 school lunch deficit accumulated over several years, trustees hired Servomation Corporation last fall to handle the district lunch program. Although final figures have yet to be compiled, the program seems to be turning a profit, a profit that will look very good after years of losses.

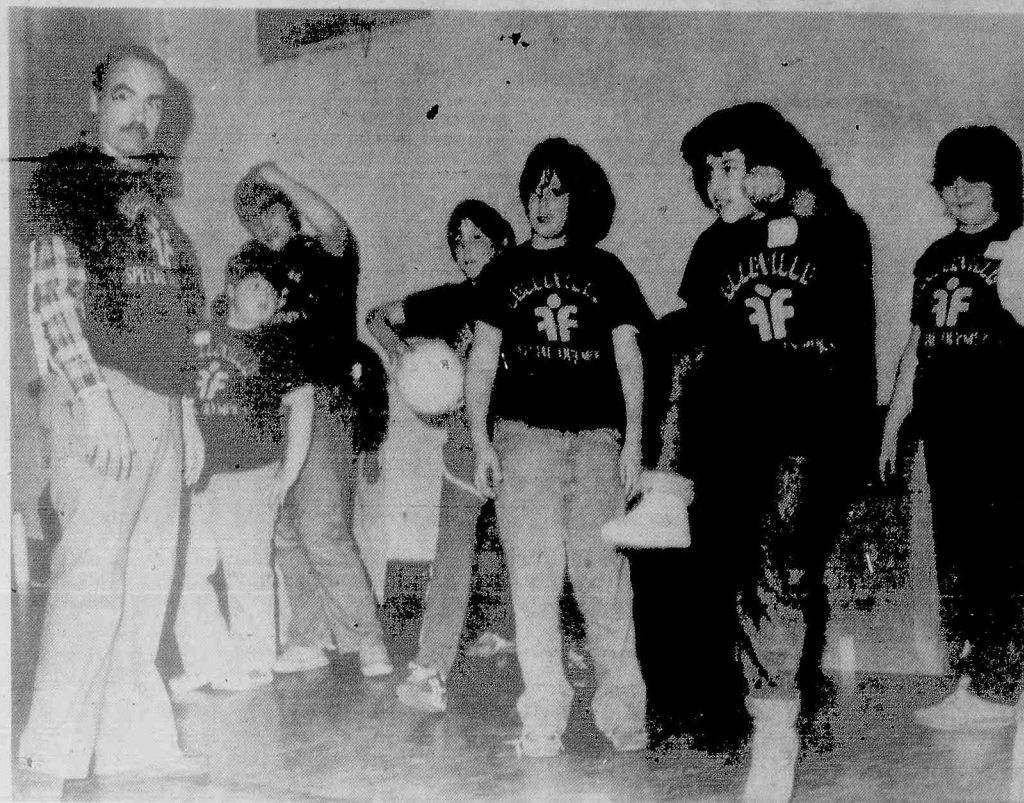

In January, the first hot lunch program ever was begun in the elementary schools, offering hot meals for $3 a week to students, and so far that program also looks very successful. Besides turning a profit, the program is getting hot, nutritious meals into young, active bodies.

"We have very high standards," said Sherry Gray of Servomation, who's overseeing the whole Belleville school hot lunch program. "Our lunch accounts have gone up about 100 in the senior high to the best of my knowledge, and I guess that indicates they like the food," said Gray.

Gray said all the hot lunches provided contain one-third of the minimum recommended daily adult requirements of vitamins. She said a survey recently conducted revealed students at the junior and senior highs want more Italian-style foods and those tastes have been accommodated. Ravioli and stuffed sausage have been added to the menu, along with veal parmigiana, spaghetti and meatballs, lasagna, eggplant parmigiana and stuffed shells.

"The goal of our school lunch program is for the student to eat a balanced lunch, but you have to give them what they want also," said Gray.

Servomation Corporation is paid on a flat-fee basis by the School Board, with any profit or loss going right back to the Board of Education, said Gray. She noted the company's contract expires in June, when trustees will again consider

Officials here are wary of new sex ed mandate

By Mike Olohan

Sex education — only two words, but say them anywhere and you're sure to provoke a lively, if not heated, discussion of peoples' morals, values, beliefs, fears and inhibitions.

When New Jersey's state board of education decided to consider mandating sex education or "family life" programs in public schools, it stirred up a lot of resentment but also some support from health educators.

Last Wednesday, after nine hours of testimony both negative and positive, the state board voted 9-1 to install mandatory sex education in K-12 beginning in 1983. The board also left an option for those parents who don't want their children to attend "family life" courses, to be exempt from taking them.

The new course will include much more than just talk about anatomy, biology and reproduction, topics currently addressed in most health or sex education curriculums for high schoolers, including Belleville's. The state board's decision raises anew the questions of whether parents are doing an adequate job in helping their children understand themselves and their bodies and whether the schools should be doing that job instead.

"There's been a conspiracy of silence about sex education," said Belleville School Superintendent Dr. John Greed this week.

"There's a great need for effective sex education programs today," said Greed, pointing to the pervasiveness of sexual come-ons in advertising and television.

"But the schools are really not equipped to tackle this kind of problem," he added. "I've personally come 180 degrees on this... you can't deal with the moral issues and religious questions it brings up in the schools," said the superintendent.

Greed said he was once an avid advocate of comprehensive sex education in public schools but found out that was impossible. He said a total, thorough program is not possible because "you have to divorce sex education from morality" when it's being taught in the schools.

He said it's "very hard" for teachers to remain neutral when discussing sex education topics because everyone has strong feelings that they want to express. Greed said sex education classes in Boonton, where he was formerly superintendent, discussed methods of birth control, which caused problems because students

Town joins battle for county rebate

Belleville has joined other Essex municipalities in a suit seeking massive rebates on taxes paid to the county.

Newark and Millburn were the first towns to ask for rebates, basing their claims on a New Jersey law that entitles towns with 400 or more acres of state or county property to a 75 percent rebate on county taxes, and those with 200 to 300 acres to a 50 percent giveback.

Besides Belleville, six other towns have joined in the suit which was scheduled for a preliminary hearing yesterday before the Essex County Tax Board in East Orange.

The Essex County Geriatrics Center property, Hendricks Field Golf Course and Belleville Park account for 236 acres of county land. This year, the town is estimating it will pay almost $6.6 million to the county in taxes, so a 50 percent rebate would mean well over $3 million returning to the town and a good-sized reduction in the municipal tax rate.

The county contends the state law applies only to land on which there are state or county institutions, which would invalidate Belleville's claim since the Geriatrics Center is the only such institution. It is unclear how soon the case will be decided, but it must be settled soon since Essex County has until May 2 to come up with a tax rate.

Recount of school race scheduled this morning

Board of Education President Ralph Risoli is anxiously awaiting the results of a school election recount scheduled for 9 a.m. today at the Hall of Records in Newark.

Risoli was nicked by only 53 votes by newcomer John DiStasi, who wracked up 1,841 tallies to Risoli's 1,788 in the March 25 School Board election.

Taking first place was Tom Zampino, a local divorce lawyer, with 2,366 votes. Incumbent Anthony D'Agostino, a Newark school principal, was second with 2,262 votes. Tom Spillane, a Bell Telephone engineer, gathered 1,580 votes and placed fifth.

Risoli said he really didn't intend to file a recount request but was persuaded to by his campaign aides, Trustee Caesar Romano and Judy Olivieri, who urged him to send a letter requesting the official recount.

Risoli said the recount should be completed by 10 a.m. when the "official" winner will be announced. Risoli said 13 other politicians in different New Jersey communities have requested recounts which will be made today.

Risoli feels he lost the election by receiving fewer votes from the School 5 district, senior high and American Legion districts and about 100 fewer votes from School 3.

However, he says he's not bitter at losing to DiStasi, if indeed he did, and may even run next year for election, if he feels like it.

Risoli says he's lived his whole life in Belleville and no matter what happens, could never be bitter over any election.

Bacteria are one-celled plant forms belonging to the Shizimycetes class or organisms. They range in size from ultramicroscopic to those which are almost visible to the naked eye. However, none can be seen clearly without the aid of a microscope. Bacteria are found everywhere in nature. Most bacteria, in fact, are nonpathogenic and do not cause disease. They do, however, play vital roles in the carbon and nitrogen cycles on earth particularly in the composition of waste materials. A relatively small number of bacteria are pathogenic which do produce diseases.

The Knights of Columbus icon of Our Lady of Gaudeloupe will be on view at St. Peter's Church 3 p.m. this Sunday. Pope John Paul II blessed the icon on his visit to the United States last year.

A family hour of prayer will be held at the church 3 p.m. Sunday, and Frank Corbo, grand knight of Council 835, has invited all parishioners to attend.

Due to the fire at the council hall, the Belleville Knights have been forced to postpone their sports and Polish nights until further notice. The events had been scheduled for April 14 and 26, respectively.

Annulment discussion at St. Mary's 8 Monday

Rev. Edgar Holden, director of the Newark Archdiocese's Ministry to Divorced Catholics (MDC) will speak about annulments at St. Mary's School Hall 8 p.m. this coming Monday. The meeting is open to all and there is no admission fee.

Catholic Daughters set auction Tuesday

Court Sancta Maria 61 of the Catholic Daughters of America will hold a Chinese auction this coming Tuesday.

The event will take place at St. Peter's School auditorium. The general public is invited. For information, call 751-2002.

Monday's will be the first MDC gathering held at St. Mary's. Rev. Timothy J. Horgan, pastor of St. Mary's, will greet those present and introduce the speaker. There will be a question-and-answer period following the talk.

"There is a great curiosity among Catholics about church annulments. Unfortunately, the concept is often clouded by myths and misinformation," Father Holden said. "We will give everyone present a chance to ventilate his/her views on the topic. It'll be a spirited meeting."

Coordinators for the program are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Brien.

A committee has been formed to deal with abuses and economic problems of seniors living in the state's boarding and nursing homes. This committee has been chosen from the Office of the Ombudsman for Institutionalized Elderly and the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services.

The committee, known as Patient and Resident Abuse (PARA), was formed to fill a need for representation for patients of these homes. If you have a relative or friend in any nursing facility who feels he is being abused or not properly cared for, get in touch with the committee at 800-792-8379.

Complimentary copies of a publication, "A Guide to Medical Self-Care and Self-Help Groups," for those who work with the elderly, can be obtained by writing to National Institute on Aging, Self-Help, Expand Associates, 8630 Fenton Ave., Silver Springs, Md., 20910.

Rep. Robert Roe (D-8) has sponsored a bill in the lower house for legislative that would provide increased benefits under the Medicare program to liberalize home health care benefits. The bill would increase the opportunity for senior citizens to continue living in their own homes and apartments while receiving the medical service that they may need.

The legislation would eliminate the three-day prior hospitalization requirement and provide benefit coverage for homemakers and periodic chore services. It would eliminate the $60 deductible, expand coverage to services provided in community mental health centers, authorize Medicare payment for occupational therapy services, foot care, eye glasses, hearing aids and dentures and also provide for examination and fitting of these devices. If this bill becomes law, it would go a long way toward alleviating the squeeze that we seniors are experiencing because of cost of health and general cost of living increases.

Prayer for today

Incline your ear, O Lord; answer me, for I am afflicted and poor.
Keep my life, for I am devoted to you; save your servant who trusts in you.
You are my God; have pity on me, O Lord, for to you I call all the day.
Gladden the soul of your servant, for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul;
For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in kindness to all who call upon you.

Hearken, O Lord, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my pleading.
In the day of my distress I call upon you, for you will answer me.

There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, and there are no works like yours.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O Lord, and glorify your name.

For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds; you alone are God.

Teach me, O Lord, your way that I may walk in your truth; direct my heart that it may fear your name.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify your name forever.

Great has been your kindness toward me; you have rescued me from the depths of the nether world.

O God, the haughty have risen up against me, and the company of fierce men seeks my life, nor do they set you before their eyes.

But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity.

Turn toward me, and have pity on me; give your strength to your servant, and save the son of your handmaid.

Grant me a proof of your favor, that my enemies may see, to their confusion, that you, O Lord, have helped and comforted me.

Clara Maass — a good neighbor

This past Saturday, a large community health fair was held at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital's School of Nursing. Over 1,000 residents visited the fair where they were able to have their blood pressure, hearing and breathing checked and have tests done on other vital functions.

The friendly nurses and volunteers at the fair also explained various health programs such as the Vial of Life for senior citizens and the Tel-Med hotline that offers health information of all kinds to residents. For those addicted to tobacco, there was a stop-smoking booth. In addition, information was offered on diets and nutrition, among many other topics. All in all, a good day for the community, one that will be repeated next year since the fair is to become an annual event.

Many groups and individuals, including the Belleville Rotary Club which sponsored a Health Wise Van, worked together to make the fair the great success that it was. The community should extend its special thanks, though, to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital without whom the fair would not have been possible. Clara Maass demonstrated that the scope of its care for people goes beyond those immediately in need of medical help — it extends to all residents. The men and women at Clara Maass Hospital are not just interested in cures, they are interested in prevention, the best medicine.

Thought for today

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.
Give love, and love to your life will flow,
A strength in your utmost need;
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.
Give truth, and your gift will be paid in kind,
And honor will honor meet,
And a smile that is sweet will surely find
A smile that is just as sweet.
Give sorrow and pity to those who mourn;
You will gather in flowers again.
The scattered seeds of your thought outborne,
Though the sowing seemed but vain,
For life is the sowing and reaping,
'Tis just what we are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

The people have spoken: cut school budget by $2 million

To the Editor:

My sincere thanks to the people for the defeat of the school budget. It was the right thing to do.

The closing of three schools in my opinion is wrong and has produced a storm of protest. The people involved in that dispute also have rights and pay taxes.

Two new members have been elected to the board. It is my hope they will be wise in their ways and reconsider that issue. It could hurt too many young children crossing dangerous places.

I am appealing to the commissioners to go over the school budget with a fine comb and eliminate all the fat not only on the grounds it is illegal but also it is too high for a town the size of Belleville.

In two years the School Board increased the budget from $10 million to $12 million. It was soundly defeated each time. It is now your problem. That's how the people wanted it. That mandate should be upheld.

I am looking for a cut in that school budget of $2 million since we the taxpayers are paying that school tax twice. That law which is on the books to remove the school tax from the tax bill is being violated. That issue should be decided by the courts.

All new jobs to be created under the bond issue should be abolished unless paid by the state. They created the mess which discriminates against the people who want their children to attend the schools in their neighborhood.

If these schools are closed against the wishes of the people, there must be layoffs in the school system.

I hope they get the message. We are fed up paying extra taxes to keep politicians fat and happy. We also have families to support.

Sincerely yours,
Albert Guglielmi

State needs new gun law

To the Editor:

In the past few months five New York police officers have been killed, 10 have been wounded and many have been shot at. I believe now, today, everyone who meets in Trenton to legislate from the governor down elected by the people should and must pass the gun law.

Why wait for one of our own to get mugged or shot with a gun?

In Massachusetts, after a bill was passed, gun homicides dropped more than half. This is what New Jersey needs.

Guns are killing cops. Some 862 persons were slain with guns in New York last year, more than two per day. (the Love State).

I hope our legislators in New Jersey keep our slogan (The Garden State) and pass a stiff law now.

Thank you,
Joseph Fornarotto

Times' 'George M!' review skipped a couple of beats

To the Editor:

Several weeks ago, I had the pleasure of attending a wonderful production at Belleville High School — the musical "George M!". I must say that it was an evening of fine entertainment for the entire family. It was the following week when I read The Times review that I became rather dismayed as to one "small" detail. The impression I had of "George M!" was that it was a terrific musical. Apparently other people had the same feeling as they left the show singing some of the popular tunes of the era. However, in Mr. Olohan's review, the only mention I could find of the music in this musical was a reference that the audience was "talking in glowing terms about the actors, orchestra, chorus, dancers and bouncy songs." I believe the orchestra should be praised for an excellent job and it should be noted that the musicians involved included some high school students supplemented with professionals who should also be commended.

The main purpose I have in composing this letter, however, is to lend some importance to something that seems to have been taken for granted — that being the musical interpretation itself. A musical is nothing without the music and the music nothing without the musical director, Mr. Thomas Finetti. Mr. Finetti invests not only his time and talents, but involves himself totally with these productions and I think it only fair to give credit where credit is due. So, in the future, Mr. Olohan, please try to remember the man behind the baton who is extremely responsible for making a musical the success it is. Mr. Finetti, I and many others salute you on a job well done.

Sincerely,
Michael D'Alessandro

NOW AT FIDELITY, YOUR $3,000 CAN EARN 14.007%

EFFECTIVE ANNUAL YIELD ON

13.549%

ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE.

(Effective 4/17 through 4/23)

You don't need $10,000 to invest in a $10,000 26-week certificate. Fidelity—and only Fidelity—will lend you the difference interest-free.

You deposit:	At Fidelity you earn an effective annual yield of:	At many banks you earn an effective annual yield of:
$3,000	14.007%	11.370%
4,000		12.220%
5,000		12.720%
6,000		13.060%

8,000		13.480%
9,000		13.620%
10,000		14.007%

No ifs, ands, or buts. The Small Saver's Big Interest Account at Fidelity has no competition.

Just make a deposit of as little as $3,000 and Fidelity will lend you—absolutely interest-free—the amount needed to bring your deposit up to $10,000. The result: Even $3,000 can earn the big $10,000 26-week savings certificate rate. At other banks, you have to pay an annual percentage rate of 1% on the loaned amount. So the more you borrow, the less you end up earning.

And there's no risk. Unlike money market funds, the interest rate is guaranteed for six months. Certificates are insured by the FDIC on amounts up to $100,000.

Open a Small Saver's Big Interest Account today at our office nearest you. It's another way Fidelity keeps life simple.

These annual percentage yields assume that both principal and interest are left on deposit for a full year. Withdrawals prior to maturity may be made only with consent of the bank. A substantial interest penalty is required for early withdrawal. Federal regulations prohibit the compounding of interest. Only individual and joint accounts are eligible.

Spring Tea — The auxiliary of the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley recently held its spring tea. Chairman for the event were (l-r) Mary Elizabeth DeMallie of Bloomfield, the organization's secretary; President Mignon Thorpe of Nutley, and Irene Decker of Belleville, who was the hostess.

Mental Health hears appeal to prod state

An appeal to the communities of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley to work for increased support of mental health programs was made recently to members of the local Community Mental Health Services Auxiliary.

Ruth O. Cowell, executive director of Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, spoke at the auxiliary's spring tea given at the home of Irene Decker of Belleville. The meeting was well attended, and residents from each of the three towns were on hand.

Mrs. Cowell urged her audience to contact local legislators on the State Appropriations Committee and ask them to work toward increasing the state budget for Medicare payments in the health field, particularly mental health.

The inadequacy of present allotments, she said, causes Medicare patients to suffer from insufficient mental health services. Essex County legislators on the Appropriations Committee include Sen. Wynona M. Lipman and Assemblywomen Mildred Barry Garver and Jane Burgo.

Mrs. Cowell said a second appeal should be directed to State Human Services Commissioner Ann Klein to urge the inclusion of provisions in mental health regulations for caring for community children and adults in regular out-patient and preventive services.

Newly drawn-up rules call for work only with those patients who were formerly institutionalized or those at risk of being placed in institutions. The new, stiff regulations have not yet gone into force.

Umberto's Corner

Leaving your interesting questions aside, I am very delighted to dedicate my corner to a person who this week will celebrate her birthday. Let us all get together and wish a Happy Birthday to my right arm, I'm speaking of our dear Maria. The 19th she'll be one year older but younger in spirit and in styles. Maria, on behalf of our customers and your co-workers, Happy Birthday! Buon Compleanno.

Now that I'm wishing a Happy Birthday, being informed by a little bird, I would like to wish a Happy Birthday to Tammy from me and especially from Ree. Happy Birthday to both of you.

Marines promote Wayne Wittmann

Belleville resident Wayne L. Wittmann, son of Bertha and Louis C. Wittmann Jr. of 32 Elena Place, has been promoted to the rank of private first class.

Wittmann is serving with the 2nd Marine Division at the Marine Corps Base at Camp Lejeune, N.C. He joined the Marines in July 1979 after his graduation from Belleville High in June.

Navy Airman James W. VerNooy, son of Anna VerNooy of 142 Linden Ave., is participating in refresher training at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. He is a crewmember aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Guadalcanal whose home port is Norfolk, Va.

Refresher training simulates all aspects of actual battle. The crew is taught to react as a team to nuclear and chemical attacks, fires and damage within the ship, personnel injuries and other emergency situations. When the training is complete, the ship will rejoin the fleet as a battle-ready unit.

The Guadalcanal is designed to launch helicopters which carry Marines and their equipment to the beach during amphibious assaults. VerNooy's ship is 592 feet long, carries a crew of 528 and can accommodate more than 500 Marines.

A 1977 graduate of Belleville High School, VerNooy joined the Navy in July of that year.

Pvt. Philip C. Seelinger Jr., whose wife Adela and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Seelinger Sr. live in Belleville, recently completed Army basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

During the training, Seelinger received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy and justice, first aid and Army history and traditions.

Also completing his basic training at Fort Knox was Pvt. Otis E. Davis, whose wife Elaine lives in Belleville. Davis' mother, Mrs. Audrey E. Davis, resides at 1971 McCarter Highway in Newark.

Pvt. Philip Seelinger Jr.

Marine Capt. George E. Kondreck Jr., son of Helen E. and George E. Kondreck Sr. of 53 Van Houten St., has returned from a cruise in the western Pacific.

Kondreck is aviation safety officer of Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron (HMM) 265, based at Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii. During the six-month deployment, his squadron traveled aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Tripoli. Squadron members participated in three major exercises, "Vulcan Operations," "Fortress Gate" and "Kangaroo III." Kondreck and his fellow crewmembers had the opportunity to visit Australia, Hong Kong and Singapore.

HMM-265 flies the Sea Knight helicopter. The unit's primary mission is to transport personnel and cargo for ground units.

Kondreck is a 1969 graduate of Essex Catholic High School and a 1974 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., where he received a bachelor of science degree.

Now Time Singers at Wesley April 27

The nationally known choral group, the Now Time Singers, will appear in concert at Wesley United Methodist Church 7 p.m. Sunday, April 27.

The Now Time Singers, based in Warrington, Pa., have been appearing in concert throughout the tri-state area for the past 10 years. The entire group of 80 singers recently released its first record album of contemporary and gospel music.

The singers appear at the Bucks County Playhouse, at the Miss Bucks County and Miss Philadelphia Scholarship Pageants, at annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Townships Supervisors, and at numerous churches, auditoriums, schools and convention halls throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

The non-profit group is under the direction of Ralph A. Miller, Bert C. Daikeler does the narrations.

The Now Time Singers have sponsored a wide variety of educational programs for both youth and adult groups throughout the Delaware Valley, and many of its singers are members of the production company that performs all the musicals at the Bucks County Playhouse in Hope, Pa.

First signs of the season crop up at School 9

Squirrel Scrunch — Second grader Joseph Kulyeshie does his best squirrel imitation as he, along with his fellow classmates, welcomes spring in a gala play at School 9 the week before last. — Photos by Mike Olohan.

Pupils present 'Hello Spring'

By Nancy Lisboa

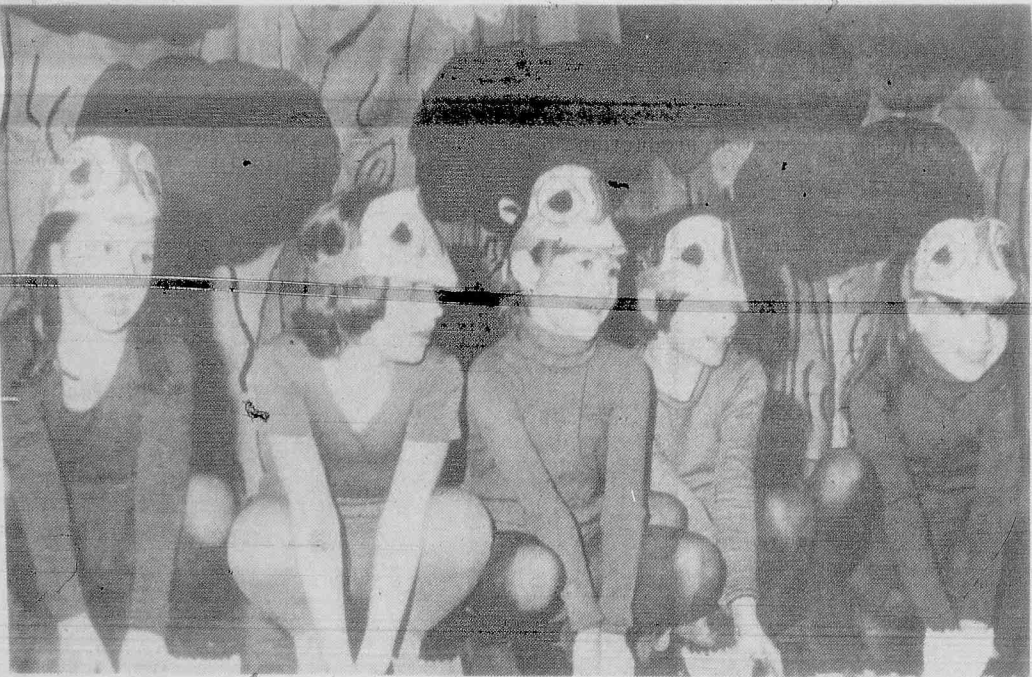

School 9 presented the first sign of the new season with a play called "Hello Spring." Pupils from kindergarten, first, second and third grades were responsible for the success of this most delightful performance.

The advisors who made the play possible were Miss Mary Lou Mele, Mrs. Carol Spina, Mrs. Pauline Orsulak and Miss Marian Castellano. They were amazed at the effort the youngsters had exerted. The play opened up with a story about groundhog day and proceeded with different signs of spring.

Mr. Parr, the music teacher at School 9, played various songs for the different characters in the performance. We on the School Page congratulate the pupils and teachers and all the people who made the play a complete success.

Which Wabbit — Da wabbits went this away, say Franco Vitello, Donald Wohl and Jason DeRoos as they nibble on orange stalks and peaceably enjoy the spring weather.

Bed Bears — About to awaken after a long winter's nap are Kevin Anderson, Donald Wohl, Nello Fiero and John Van Houten. Kevin is a kindergartner and the rest are first graders.

Crafty Crocuses — Bedecked in pedals of astounding colors (take our word for it), Angela Scala, Danielle Stecher, Tammy Scheumeister, Danielle Collett, Shannon Hughes and Debbie Insano, all of School 9's second grade, exercise their stems.

Rose Garden — Three of the cutest little flowers growing could be found budding at School 9 as Michele Velten, Mona Santiago and Maria Lisboa decorate the scene.

School 1 pupils read to help less fortunate

Olympic Eyeballers — The three School 1 winners in the recent reading olympics are Lisa Raub, Lisette Rodriguez and Elliot Gonzalez. Kneeling in front are Raymond Sobanko and Leonard Palumbo.

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville recently sponsored the reading olympics for the March of Dimes at School 1, under Mrs. Linda Caputo, the social services department chairman. Mrs. Catherine Albanese, Mrs. Marie Calisto and Mrs. Lucy Cappello were teacher coordinators. Grades four, five and six participated in the event. Individual students sought sponsors for each book read.

High-scoring students included Jennifer May, Lisa Eastman, Leonard Palumbo and Raymond Sabanko from grade four. Elliott Gonzales, Lisette Rodriguez and Lisa Raub from grade six, were winners. Lisette Rodriguez was high for the school with 34 books on her list. Students received medals from Mr. Pat Forte, School 1's principal.

Writing fun at School 3

Why are Mrs. Bradley's, Mrs. Follansbee's and Mrs. Pfeil's third grade classes tackling writing assignments as if they are fun? Because the class is taking part in Weekly Reader's writing pals program, and letters are flying back and forth between the third graders in School 3 and third graders from Kansas, Oklahoma and Illinois.

What have School 3 kids written to their writing pals in the Midwest? They have mentioned the tall buildings, busy streets in the area and have shared their hobbies and interests.

The Midwesterners have told local youngsters about farms and ranches, cattle and grain. They also tell about their families and friends and what they do to have fun.

The third grade teachers at School 3 feel that the writing program has given a new spark to language study. The children are as anxious to write letters as to receive them.

BHS students don bonnets

By Melissa Prill

Another Easter has passed and the students at Belleville High School can look back and reminisce about their Easter Bonnet Day, which took place Thursday, April 3.

All students were asked to wear hats of any style, but those representing Easter bonnets of years ago were most preferred.

The enthusiasm and great Easter spirit of the school made for a very successful day. Thanks should go to Maryann Nicolardi, a student at the high school, for instituting the school spirited event.

Well Read — Mrs. Linda Caputo of the Junior Woman's Club and reading coordinator Catherine Albanese eye several of the olympic reading medals as Jennifer May and Lisa Eastman, both fourth graders, keep well posted.

Academically talented put on entertaining Broadway review

About 800 youngsters and adults got a mesmerizing, scintillating and often humorous rendition of many Broadway show songs and vaudeville skits March 29 and 30 as Belleville's academically talented classes performed "Vaudeville-Broadway" from 1880 to 1980.

The show's format was conceived and choreographed by Pat Pagano and Sue DiRuggiero, both teachers of the academically talented in fourth through sixth grades. Both teachers constructed and painted the scenery themselves, along with rehearsing the pupils for over a month.

Enough money was raised at both performances to help finance a trip to Thunder Mountain where academically talented fifth and sixth graders spent two days learning about farm animals, nature and the interrelationships of human and animal life while also "roughing it" in unfamiliar surroundings.

Most of those attending the production of "Vaudeville-Broadway" left high in spirit, indebted by the uplifting effort of those students involved in its production.

Songs and entertaining skits from "Oliver," "West Side Story," "The Sound of Music," "Annie," "Grease," "Carousel," "Mame," "Beatlemania," "Godspell," "Man of La Mancha," "Bye, Bye Birdie," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Hello, Dolly," "Shenandoah" and "Cabaret" were all part of the three-hour extravaganza.

Assistant director Lisa Buccino and scenery artisan Ken Burde did much to lighten the burden on Pagano and DiRuggiero, who were also assisted by an ample complement of ushers and a stage crew.

After the singing and dancing ended, the loud applause was ample evidence that "Vaudeville-Broadway" had been a success, and an overwhelming success because of the effort, time, care and concern that had gone into its production.

Rollerskating 'party' comes up on June 10

By Ava Zarrello

If you are a rollerskating fan and would like to help out the Belleville High School yearbook staff, this information could interest you. The yearbook staff is planning to rent out the U.S.A. Rollerskating Rink in Wayne as a fund-raiser for the 1980 yearbook.

This unique method of fundraising will open the rink up to Belleville High School students on June 10 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. The tickets, $2.50 and $3, will be sold by the staff in school during the month of May.

Each student who intends to go on the rollerskating party will have to provide for his own transportation. The party and fund-raiser all wrapped up in one should prove to be a beneficial occasion for the staff.

Sheepish Grins — Mike Danduone, Chris Goldrich and John Morrell lean back and take it easy on a recent trip to Thunder Mountain. The academically talented fifth graders are in Mrs. Sue DiRuggiero's class.

State officials hoping to use tests to measure progress of students

By Kelly Sweeney

On March 28 and 29, the juniors at Belleville High took the Minimum Basic Skills Test given by the state of New Jersey. Along with the juniors, grades one, three, five, seven and nine participated in the test.

The tests, which contained sections in the mathematics and English departments, consisted of approximately 60 to 85 multiple choice questions in each group. Besides both educational sections, the tests questioned upper grades on their high school course selection, the districts of their prior education and their plans for the future.

At the eleventh grade level, the English section contained questions from simple junior grammar to answering sections on reading and composition at higher high school levels. The mathematics division varied from basic mathematical addition and subtraction to formulas in algebra and geometry.

The tests are given each year at different grade levels in order to estimate an average student's progress in that educational year. Results are compared to see how the student has or has not progressed as he continues his education.

By 1985, the state of New Jersey wants it to become mandatory that each senior be capable of passing the test in order to graduate. With the results of these tests, the administration can decide if a particular student will need extra assistance in mathematics or English in order to graduate from high school. With the continuing effort to support this law, the Education Department wishes to see that each student graduate has the proper knowledge to succeed in the world today.

Drowning death of youth raises several questions

They held his funeral last Thursday. Many of his friends and teachers came to St. Peter's Church to say a final farewell nearly three months after he jumped off of Belleville's Rutgers Street Bridge apparently trying to elude several North Arlington police officers.

His name was Vincent Bove, a 16-year-old Belleville High School junior. He was found April 3 by two men who were playing frisbee by Doremus Avenue in Newark. He was floating in the Passaic River.

His father and brother, both named Anthony, searched the banks of the Passaic for nearly a month after he allegedly jumped in. Finally, they were able to get help from the county for their search, but no traces of Vincent were found.

Only because a relative of his overheard someone talking about a body the Newark police had recovered from the Passaic, was Anthony Bove, Vincent's father, able to find his son. Because of its decomposition, the men who found Bove's body thought it was that of a 30-year-old man.

But Bove's father checked out the tip, a tip that culminated in his finding Vincent's body, only positively identifiable by dental records.

What exactly happened the night Vincent jumped off the Rutgers Street Bridge into the Passaic is still unclear to Bove, who plans to continue looking for answers.

"My son Vincent was made to look like a criminal," said Bove, stressing how police reports of the incident, carried in newspapers, made it appear that not only did he steal the car, but that he was running from the law, which Mr. Bove says is untrue.

On Jan. 26 at about 1:30 a.m., a car driven by Vincent was spotted by North Arlington police moving "erratically" along the Belleville Turnpike. They gave chase. Bove apparently then ran from the vehicle after stopping by the Rutgers Avenue Bridge and supposedly dove into the water to escape from police.

Just last week, however, a new fact that was either covered up or conveniently overlooked, emerged after Bove's father revealed that North Arlington police officer George McGuire fired a shot at his son while the boy was swimming away in the water. McGuire, according to police reports, fired the shot hoping to get the youth to swim toward shore.

However, Bove cannot believe that anyone would fire a gun based on such backward logic. "Would you swim to the shore if someone fired a gun at you?" he asks rhetorically, wondering what McGuire could have been thinking as he pulled the trigger.

Bove also cannot understand why McGuire was not removed from active duty after the shooting incident, another question in a small list of missing pieces he has compiled.

Bove has gone to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Newark to press his case further and is also prodding the State Attorney General's Office for a more in-depth probe.

But Bove's father checked out the tip, a tip that culminated in his finding Vincent's body, only positively identifiable by dental records.

What exactly happened the night Vincent jumped off the Rutgers Street Bridge into the Passaic is still unclear to Bove, who plans to continue looking for answers.

"My son Vincent was made to look like a criminal," said Bove, stressing how police reports of the incident, carried in newspapers, made it appear that not only did he steal the car, but that he was running from the law, which Mr. Bove says is untrue.

Resident pleads guilty to fraud

A Belleville man has pleaded guilty to charges that he took part in a scheme to defraud the Prudential Insurance Company.

At a March 28 hearing in U.S. District Court in Newark, James Raimo, 36, of Maple Avenue admitted to submitting false claims to Prudential. He said he had used bogus names to obtain medical insurance benefits.

According to the government, Raimo was just one of several persons involved in the scheme coordinated by a former Prudential employee who had processed the false claims and issued checks payable to those involved in the plot. Checks were mailed to an address set up beforehand by one of the co-conspirators.

Five other persons have pleaded guilty in the case.

New Jersey commercials are being shown in Spain

N.J. Labor & Industry Commissioner John J. Horn said that New Jersey has begun marketing its tourist assets to the international travel market.

New Jersey's first sales presentation was made in Spain, "one of America's fastest growing sources of tourist trade," said Commissioner Horn.

How to buy a $10,000 26-week Certificate with $3,000.

$3,000 earns you more than it's ever earned before.

Until now you needed $10,000 to earn high rates on 26-week savings certificates. But with First National State's 26-week Certificates you can earn the high rates shown on the chart with a deposit as small as $3,000.

How does the Certificate work?

You deposit any amount from $3,000 to $9,000 in increments of $1,000. You then borrow the remaining amount to reach the total sum of $10,000. In other words, First National State lends you the difference between what you deposited and the $10,000 cost of the certificate. For this we charge only 1%. A quick look at the chart shows you the rate your investment will earn.

Beats Money Market Funds, Savings Banks and Savings and Loan Associations.

Just compare the return on the First National State Certificates to what you can earn at Savings Banks and Savings and Loan Associations on amounts under $10,000. Plus you don't have the risks of Money Market Funds.

RISK #1. Money Market Funds fluctuate daily, so you have no long term assurance of a high rate.

FEDERAL REGULATIONS PROHIBIT COMPOUNDING OF INTEREST DURING THE TERM OF DEPOSIT. SUBSTANTIAL INTEREST PENALTY IS REQUIRED FOR EARLY WITHDRAWAL. INTEREST CALCULATION IS BASED ON 365/360. APPLIED TO ORIGINAL DEPOSIT AND/OR LOAN. *ANNUAL YIELDS ARE EFFECTIVE WHEN ORIGINAL PRINCIPAL IS LEFT ON DEPOSIT FOR A FULL YEAR.

RISK #2. Money Market Funds are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency.

First National State Certificates will not fluctuate and are insured by the FDIC up to $100,000 plus you have the convenience of investing through a full service bank where you can also take care of all of your other banking transactions.

Get in on the Investment Action.

If you have from $3,000 to $9,000 to invest for six months, don't settle for anything less than the First National State Certificate. Go to your local branch and purchase your certificate in person.

Or...

If you have $10,000 or more, get in on the money making action now. Just fill out and mail the coupon to us. Or stop in at any First National State office and purchase your certificate.

Cosmos look like the team to beat

After a while, winning seems to come quite naturally to a very successful team. Take, for instance, the Cosmos. The team opened up its 1980 season with a 4-3 overtime victory over Houston in the Astrodome.

Three days later, they were beaten 4-1 by the Fort Lauderdale Strikers. Last Sunday, the Cosmos came back for their season home opener and found the competition just as tough as the first two games. The result was a physical 2-1 overtime victory over the Minnesota Kicks.

The Cosmos have been anything but impressive in their early stages this season, but with the rash of injuries that the team has endured, the slow start is easily understandable. For instance, Johann Neeskens, the stalwart of last year's 24-6 club, has been out with a neck injury. For Neeskens to miss a game means that the injury is quite severe. He played a major portion of last season with a dislocated shoulder and badly pulled groin.

Wim Rjesibergen, the Cosmos' fine defender, has been sidelined with a bad foot and only time will tell when he returns to the lineup.

Franz Beckenbauer, the Cosmos' all-world midfielder, missed the Minnesota game with a bad leg, and Ricky Davis, the team's fine young American midfielder, has been playing on a very bad thigh muscle.

As for the opening home game, the Cosmos introduced a number of new players and brought back some old players who figure to make a big contribution to the team. Giorgio Chinaglia is back and is within six goals of becoming the NASL's all-time leading scorer. Giorgio, as always, was booed by the fans when he was introduced.

Davis is expected to have a good season, once his thigh returns to full strength. He was named the North American Player of the Year for 1979 and is considered by many to be the best American soccer player in the league at the moment.

A newcomer to the team is Julio Romero, the team's fine midfielder. Romero is only 19 years old but does things so well that the veterans seem in awe of him. He scored twice in the opener against Houston and is a super passer.

The goaltending is secure with Hubert Berkinmeir in the nets. Backing him up is young American David Bracic, perhaps the best prospect in the league at the goaltending position. Birkenmeir has been very impressive in all three games. He can't be faulted for the loss to Fort Lauderdale because he had no help from his teammates in that one. Minnesota didn't get too many shots on goal, but when they did, Birkenmeir was called upon to make some difficult saves.

Jose "Oscar" Bernardi is a newcomer to the team and his signing was a big event in the Cosmos' history. Carlos Alberto is back, and the aging defender is still considered the finest in the world.

The home game drew just 51,000 fans, a disappointing figure as far as the Cosmos are concerned. Last year, the team drew 72,000 plus for their opener with Fort Lauderdale. The poor attendance figure is partly blamed on the team's slow start this season. The just recently concluded transit strike that hit New York City can also be part of the reason for the low turnout.

The Cosmos girls were their usually charming selves, and believe it or not, the fans actually cheered for them. Werner Roth, the team's captain for a number of years, was honored before the game. Roth retired at the end of the 1979 season and is devoting his time to the Cosmos' front office.

For the Cosmos to return to the Soccer Bowl, they will have to be injury free and play up to their considerable capabilities. The team will have a new head coach in June by the name of Hennis Weisweiler. Weisweiler is thought to be the finest coach in the game today and will be a big influence on the Cosmos. Let's hope his arrival will bring about stability and not turmoil.

The United States Olympic Committee voted to boycott the 1980 summer Olympics, thus complying with Jimmy Carter's request. Personally, I feel the committee did the right thing. When the leader of this country makes a request to the people of this country, especially in a case like this, the obvious thing to do is back him up. When the national security of the United States is at stake, the Olympics become a secondary event. It would be nice if the problem in Afghanistan could be resolved and the games go on as normal. But if they can't, then the people of the United States have no business competing in Russia.

The major league baseball season is underway with the Yankees and Mets having split their first four games of the season as this is written. The Mets divided four with the Chicago Cubs but have a long way to go. The Yankees split with the Texas Rangers, but everyone knows that the Yankees don't get serious about the season until the middle of August.

Some local teams have been making a big name for themselves recently. The Buc softball team is off to a 3-1 start behind some good defense and consistent pitching. Add this to a some timely hitting and fine coaching by Eve Corino and you have the start of a fine club.

The boys' baseball team is sizzling with a 3-0 mark behind the torrid hitting of Steve Coffey. Coffey is hitting a "mere" .667 for the season with six safeties in nine at bats. He is the Belleville High School athlete of the week.

The National Basketball Association playoffs have been proceeding just as scheduled. The Milwaukee Bucks and Seattle Supersonics are battling on each other in the West semifinals, while the Los Angeles Lakers are drubbing the Phoenix Suns. The Lakers lead the series 3-1 and figure to wrap it up soon. The Bucks and Sonics are all tied up at two apiece and that series has been nothing short of World War III.

In the East, the Boston Celtics are destroying the poor Houston Rockets. The Celtics led that series 3-0 with the closest game a 19-point Celtic victory. Boston is looking like a good bet to win the whole thing. The Celtics have super depth and excellent coaching.

The Philadelphia 76ers are on the verge of beating Atlanta and moving on to the East finals against Boston. The 76ers figure to give Boston a better series than Houston did, but the Celtics will probably win.

In the NHL, the playoffs are finally starting to mean something. In the first round, 16 of the 21 teams made the playoffs and consequently there were some laughs for series. Now that the dead wood is gone, the league can finally start to play some good games. The Islanders and Rangers both were impressive in the first round and will be tough to beat.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question: Who was the first fighter to defeat Muhammad Ali? The answer: Joe Frazier. Frazier defeated Ali on March 8, 1971, to retain his heavyweight championship. Frazier won the fight on a unanimous decision and decked Ali in the 15th round on a hard left hook.

For this week's quiz, can you name the last year that the New York Mets had a winning season?

Diamondmen sparkle in two latest victories

By Mike Lamberti

With the pitching phenomenal and the hitting starting to peak, the Belleville High baseball team is starting to look mighty tough to beat.

Last week, the Bears of Barringer and the Indians of Passaic ran into the Buc windmill and were sent reeling. The Bucs stopped Barringer 4-2 and stomped over the Indians 14-0. The local club's record now stands at 3-0.

On Tuesday, the Bucs were scheduled to play Irvington. Today, they travel to Orange for a game with a tough Valley squad. On Saturday, they will play a doubleheader with West Essex, at West Essex starting 11 a.m. This coming Tuesday, the Bucs return home for a 3:45 p.m. battle with Kearny.

Buc Coach George Zanfina is quite satisfied with his team's effort thus far. "We hit well against Passaic (14 hits)," noted the coach. "Our pitching ERA is 1.00 over three games. Steve Coffey is batting at a strong clip and some of our other guys are starting to come around."

Rich Vitiello is four-for-10 this year with four RBI. Dominick Vazzano has four ribbies and Frank Fazzini is three-for-10 with a home run.

Against Barringer, the Bucs were paced by the pitching of Ed Aulisi. The senior hurler tossed seven innings of eight-hit baseball, striking out four, and walking two. Anthony Coco came on in the seventh to finish up for Belleville. Jose Sabatell took the loss.

Barringer jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Botte doubled and scored on a Ward double. The Bucs tied it in the second when Vazzano reached on an error by the rightfielder, advanced to third on a Vitiello single and scored when Aulisi hit into a force play.

In the third inning, Belleville grabbed the lead for good. With one out, Coffey singled and scored when Vazzano powered a home run. In the sixth inning, Belleville padded the lead to 4-1 when Joe Guarino singled, went to third on a Coffey single and scored on a single by Mike Nicosia.

Barringer threatened in the seventh when Coppola singled and scored on a Diaz safety. However, Coco, the Bucs' ace in the hole, came in to put the fire out.

The Passaic game was out of reach after the third inning. After a scoreless first frame, the Bucs went to work on Joe Cammarato in the second. Fazzini led off with a single and stole second base. Aulisi doubled him to third and Bob LaBruzza walked to load the bases. With one out, Lenny Mendola singled home Fazzini. Mendola was picked off first base, but the spot was quickly occupied when Coffey walked. Nicosia then singled home two runs.

In the third inning, Belleville added to its 3-0 lead when Vitiello reached safely on an error by the shortstop and Fazzini crashed a home run.

With their lead at 5-0, the Bucs exploded for seven runs in the fourth to put the game totally out of reach. The big hits in that frame were by Vitiello, Aulisi, Mendola and Coffey. Vitiello singled with the bases loaded, driving home two runs. A third run scored on an error. Aulisi singled home a run, Mendola walked with the bases loaded and Coffey doubled home two runs.

The winning pitcher for Belleville was Nicosia. The senior allowed just two hits over six innings. He struck out 10 and walked four. Rick Kiernan came in to pitch the seventh inning. He allowed two hits and struck out one.

Belleville crews sink opponents in strongest outings this season

By Mike Olohan

It was close. So close that it almost couldn't be clocked. But it was, and when the watch was read, it showed Belleville's varsity crew beating Arlington by one-tenth of a second.

That's right, just one-tenth of a second, but that tenth of a second was very important for eight varsity rowers because it marked their second win of the season in three tries.

Last week, they nicked Kearny's varsity by 1.4 seconds after losing to Upper Merion opening day. Yesterday, Belleville's varsity took on Nutley's crew, with a chance to lay claim to boasting rights of the boathouse since they've already beaten Kearny, which also shares the building. Kearny has beaten Nutley's varsity.

Filling the varsity shell are coxswain Scott Watkowski, stroke Tom O'Kean, George Skrutskie, Matt Martin, Donald McKinstry, Cliff Williams, Joe Giuliano, Chris Nash and Nicholas Massa at bow, temporarily replacing Bob Cassin.

The third eight and jayvee and senior four races all had to be canceled Saturday because of two-foot waves which kicked up with the wind but died down in about 40 minutes.

The Belleville freshmen won by about eight seconds. Their race was called 200 yards before the finish because waves were thrashing the shell, nearly stopping their progress at times. Everyone was soaked by the time they reached dockside.

The girls' varsity eight shell shel-lacked Arlington by 12.8 seconds, and the second girls' boat beat Lower Merion by 1.8 seconds and Arlington by 15.1 seconds.

Belleville's jayvee girls beat both Arlington and Lower Merion Saturday. In the jayvee boat are coxswain Sue Tomaselli, stroke Vivian Tomaselli, Kim Nash, Denise Nuzza, Cristina Trinidad, AnnMarie McAlinden, Donna Marinelli, Kelly Nash and Dawn Paglia at bow.

Coach Sam Giuffrida was ecstatic over the varsity boys' narrow win. "I was very pleased with the victory because, once again, we came from behind, about two to three feet behind and we pulled it off in the last 100 yards," he said.

The coach noted that Belleville's non-stop wins against Arlington marked "our first sweep of the year. But I like to take them one day at a time," he said of each week's races.

Belleville has a free Saturday this week but takes part in the Long Island Championships next weekend.

Softball team goes on a tear

Youth and enthusiasm. These are two good words to describe the Belleville High softball team.

With just two upperclassmen, the Buccanettes have been relying on an exuberant type of play that should lead them to some big victories. Thus far, it's worked quite well. The team won two games this past week, boosting its record to an impressive 3-1.

The girls stopped Lyndhurst 3-2 and beat Montclair Immaculate 8-4. Yesterday, the team traveled to Lyndhurst for a rematch with the Bears. Today, the girls host an unbeaten Bloomfield squad.

Against Lyndhurst, Debbie Jinks hurled seven strong innings to earn her first victory of the season. Jinks allowed nine hits, struck out one and walked four. She was also aided by some fine defensive plays. "Our defense really came through in this one," said head coach Eve Corino. "Our hitting is still coming around, but our pitchers are starting to get in the groove. They're not walking as many hitters and are throwing quite well."

The Buc girls scored once in the second inning when Nancy Coffey singled and came home on a Donna Campagna triple. Campagna, just a freshman, has been the team's most consistent hitter. In the fourth, the girls tied the game when Rosie

Belleville volleyball squad shows promise in openers

Although the Blue-Gold volleyball team has lost its first three matches, the performance of the Belleville girls has been anything but discouraging.

The Buccanettes, beginning their first season ever, lost their opener to Livingston Tuesday last week. After taking the first game 15-9, they were beaten 12-5, 7-5.

Caldwell gave the local girls an even rougher time last Thursday, winning handily 15-3, 15-4. The Belleville jayvee, however, came through in its match 15-12, 7-15, 15-7, to record the first interscholastic volleyball win in BHS history.

Mad-Netters win title in women's volleyball

The Mad-Netters have completed a perfect 1980 season of volleyball. The Netters played their final game last week against the Set-Ups and won by default. The Set-Ups were forced to forfeit the set due to a lack of players. And so for the second consecutive season, the Mad-Netters have finished in first place. The Set-Ups' loss opens up the standings for a possible third-place tie.

In the only action of the night last week, the Fragiles defeated the

The varsity traveled to Montclair Monday and was soundly beaten 15-1, 15-5. Both Montclair and Caldwell are top 10 teams, and the number of squads in that category on the Belleville schedule will undoubtedly make for some tough going this season. "It's very difficult the first year when you are playing teams who rated in the top 10 in the state," said BHS Coach Grace Worley Tuesday.

Still, the Buccanettes are gaining great experience playing the best teams around and already some progress has been made. "The girls have shown outstanding qualities going after the ball," said the coach. "It's just experience at this particular time that's holding them back. Still, they're coming along very quickly."

Several players have looked good so far. Coach Worley singled out junior Sandy Nardone as showing "outstanding promise for next year." "She had a very good game in all three games," said the coach. "She's developing her skills very quickly, and if she continues she could get a scholarship someplace if she wants it." Junior spiker Donna Dombrowski has also been playing well, according to the coach, as has senior, Marie Clarizio on defense. The team needs to stress the other side of the game a little more, though. "We're going to have to switch to more of an offensive game to beat some of the teams," noted Worley.

The Belleville girls could use a little more size too, although Nardone, Clarizio, Shawn Juliano and Dombrowski are not small. Dombrowski is lost to the team for the time being, however. She came down with an inner ear infection last week that threw her off her balance.

The Belleville girls needed all the help they could get yesterday facing Nutley with its super spiker Tracy Dixon. The Buccanettes have a layoff until April 30 when they take on Clark away. Meanwhile, more matches are being added to the schedule.

Blue-Gold track club shows strength in Caldwell defeat

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville High boys' track team lost a close match to Caldwell 85-46 this past week, while the girls' team was having a tough time, falling 106-22 to the Chief ladies.

The teams' records now stand at 0-3. The boys host Newark Tech and Orange in a double dual meet 3:45 p.m. today, while the girls take on Orange.

Head coach Rich Ruffalo was very happy with the boys' performance, against Caldwell. "We were shut out in the high jump, long jump and pole vault because we didn't practice those events," said the coach. "We don't have the facilities yet, and thus we couldn't prepare for them. If we had some of those points, we might have been even closer."

Russ Pagano captured the shot with a throw of 42-3. Joe DeLorenzo was second with a toss of 41-11. In the discus, DeLorenzo was the winner with a toss of 121 feet. Ruffalo expects the senior to break the school record of 154-9 in the disc by the end of the year. Pagano took a second in the javelin.

In the running events, freshman Jim Castelli took second in the 100 meters in a time of 13.0. John Renninger was second in the 200 meters in 25.8, while Castelli was third in 26.4. Renninger won the 400 with a 57.5 clocking, while Xavier Gonzalez was third in 58.2.

Tommy Graham won the half-mile in 2:08 and clocked third in the 1500 meters in a time of 4:26.

Steve Drake was second in the high hurdles and finished second in the 400 intermediate hurdles, setting a school record of 66.4 in the process.

For the girls, Jo Ann Benechi improved her discus mark with a toss of 60 feet. That's some 10 feet better than her previous throw.

Cecilia Graham finished second in the 200 with a time of 30.8. Franchette Polite placed second in the 400 in 70 seconds, and Barbara Gundry was third in with a 70.8 clocking.

Le Ann Long was second in the 1,500 at 5:57.9, while Tamara Nahar won the 3,000 meters in a time of 13:23.8. Lauri Nevins was third in the 3,000 at 14:23.

Chici Liberti took third in the low hurdles with a time of 20.4.

The girls were without the services of all-purpose runner Dana Caruso. Caruso has been sidelined with tonsillitis, and it is hoped she'll be ready to go in a few weeks. Ruffalo expects her to be in good shape for the championship meets in May.

'Atlantis' contest set for Saturday

The second annual "Mr. Atlantis" and "Teenage New Jersey" contests will be held this Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Bloomfield High School auditorium.

The Mr. Atlantis contest will feature body-builders from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, while the teenage portion will include only New Jersey talent. Sixty-seven men will be participating in the event.

Participants will be judged on muscularity, symmetry and presentation. A disc jockey will supply the music which will accompany each presentation. Thirty-two trophies will be awarded to the winners.

The contests are being sponsored by Frank Guarneri, a Bloomfield detective, and Richie and Bob Giordano, the owners of Giordano's Gym here in Belleville.

Tickets for Saturday's event are $5 and are available at Giordano's, 538 Washington Ave., and Wonder Health Food Store, Washington Street, Bloomfield. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Softball team rebounds from first loss to take 3

Leonidis doubled and came in on a Lois DeLuccio single. Finally in the seventh, Jinks won the game for herself with a home run.

It was quite a comeback for the girls, who trailed, 2-0 after the first inning. The Bears might have scored more, but Coffey made a dazzling Graig Nettles stop at third, halting a rally. Outfielder Kim Indierio stopped another rally with a perfect throw to Coffey at third base to cut down a Bear runner.

The Montclair Immaculate game was batting practice for the locals. The girls banged out 12 hits, more than enough for winning pitcher Debbie Mundy. Mundy hurled the first six innings, allowing nine hits, one walk and four runs. Cathy Woods pitched the last frame and recorded the save.

There were a number of hitting stars in this game for Belleville. Joycie Iacullo, who has been nothing short of sensational in the field, contributed with two hits in four at bats. She doubled and singled and scored two runs. Marilyn McCaffery, along with Iacullo the only senior on the staff, went two-for-four and scored two runs. Coffey was one-for-four, Leonidis was two-for-four with a run scored. Campagna was one-for-four with two RBI, and De Luccio added a double to the winning cause.

Michele DeMayo, the girls' tough pitcher, is out of action with a kidney infection. It is hoped that she can rebound and be back with the team in a couple of weeks. She is sorely missed on the field. — Mike Lamberti

Cheering tryouts scheduled May 1

Belleville Bronco cheerleading tryouts will be held 7 p.m. Thursday, May 1, at the Recreation House, Joramemon Street and Garden Avenue.

Girls now in fifth, sixth and seventh grades are eligible for the tryouts. Cheering requirements include the gridiron, get-in-step, down by the river, an individual, cartwheel-split, C jump, spread jump and Mary Jane.

Girls are required to wear sneakers and shorts or gym suits.

Gunners top Hungarians in state soccer round 8-1

By Fred Lardaro

New Jersey soccer powers are discovering what teams in the Northern Counties League have known for quite some time: The Belleville Gunners are one of the finest teams in the state.

This past Sunday, the Gunners traveled to New Brunswick and subjected the local Hungarians to an 8-1 thrashing as Belleville continued to advance in the State Cup Tournament.

The match featured the Gunners' superlative team effort for which they are dreaded...and something extra. A bench-clearing brawl that spread into the stands marred the closing moments of the game.

Ramiro Borja opened the festivities when he launched a 35-yard direct kick into the Hungarians' goal past the goalkeeper who stood in awe of the kick.

Minutes later it was Borja, again, running onto a push pass from John Lee. Borja fired another torrid blast that burst high into the goal and ripped several spikes used to hold down the net from deep within the ground. The goalkeeper was again caught off guard because of the velocity of the kick.

Throughout the afternoon, the goalkeeper seemed to be just going through the motions of diving or throwing his arms out almost praying that the ball might hit him so that he could make the save. Such tactics might stop the kicks of lesser opponents, but not the Gunners.

Galo Calvache scored the third goal on one of his patented drives as he dribbled around, through and over defenders. His magnificent work was setting the stage for an explosion of tempers as frustration built in Hungarian defenders.

Borja and Carlos Gonzales scored as the Gunners established a 5-0 half-time advantage.

The Hungarians scored to open the second half when Gunners' goalkeeper Guido Vacacela unwittingly flattened an opposing forward in the penalty area, and that forward converted a penalty kick. Vacacela was again nearly flawless in his third State Cup match, with ample help from his defense.

The Gunners answered with Calvache's second goal, and the team began to play possession ball as opposed to running up the score.

But Calvache became involved in an altercation deep in the Hungarians' penalty area. He was continually fouled off the ball, and the official failed to call the penalties. One defender showered Calvache with obscenities. When Galo laughed them off, the defender became so infuriated that he charged after Calvache. Galo ran behind teammate John MacArthur in search of sanctuary. The official became aware of the situation and called the defender over to issue him a warning.

With less than five minutes remaining in the match, the Gunners drove into the heart of the Hungarians' defense. Joe Puga advanced with the ball into the penalty area only to have his legs viciously chopped out from under him. The official whistled for a penalty kick. As both teams set for the kick, the defender who had attacked Calvache earlier jumped an unsuspecting Galo and proceeded to punch the Belleville forward in the head.

The Gunners charged to Galo's rescue. The Hungarians charged in the fray. Fans charged onto the field. Coach Cullen and Belleville Soccer Association representative Sam MacArthur attempted to restore order as did responsible members of the Hungarian Club, pulling combatants out of a pile-up.

When the smoke had cleared, there were several minor injuries.

quite a few ripped shirts and the Hungarians' defender was thrown out of the game.

Play resumed. Joe Puga scored his penalty kick and Pat Leonidas added a goal to the final 8-1.

The Gunners face North Arlington in their next State Cup match. Matches will now be played at neutral sites as the tournament winds down.

QUICK KICKS: The Gunners almost suffered a forfeit to the Hungarians. The team car-pools for road matches. Coach Cullen entrusted goalkeeper Guido Vacacela to drive the point. Vacacela attends Rutgers University in New Brunswick and assured the coach that he was quite familiar with the location. It is fortunate for the Gunners that Vacacela is an excellent goalkeeper for he is certainly no pathfinder. Coach Cullen fumed as the car-pool passed the same Oldsmobile dealership for the third time. Finally the Gunners stopped to ask for directions and arrived at the field two minutes before the kickoff. The Hungarians would have pressed for a forfeit rather than face the powerful Gunners.

BHS tennis team shut out by Seton Hall and Caldwell

By Mike Lamberti

The Buccaneer tennis team dropped two matches last week, suffering a shutout at the hands of both Seton Hall and Caldwell.

The team's record is now 0-3. Today, the Bucs travel to Verona and tomorrow will be in Branch Brook Park for a 3:45 p.m. match with Essex Catholic.

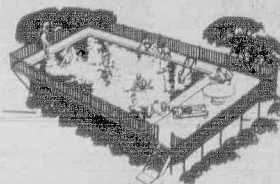

Head coach Mike Pollard expressed some hope based on his team's efforts last week. "The guys won some matches," said the coach. "It's just a shame that our schedule is so rough because we could be winning if the competition wasn't so tough."

Second singles player Anthony DeMeola went to three sets in the Seton Hall match before losing a toughie. Anthony Collasordo, playing at first singles, was equally tough, losing 6-4 and 7-5.

The first doubles team of Kenny Beck and Jerry Gold has been termed "scrappy" by Pollard.

Handicapped children share thrill of victory

Blurred Boot — Scott Nause gets off a skyrocket in the kickball competition at Saturday's special olympics. He won a medal for his performance. — Photos by John Jurich.

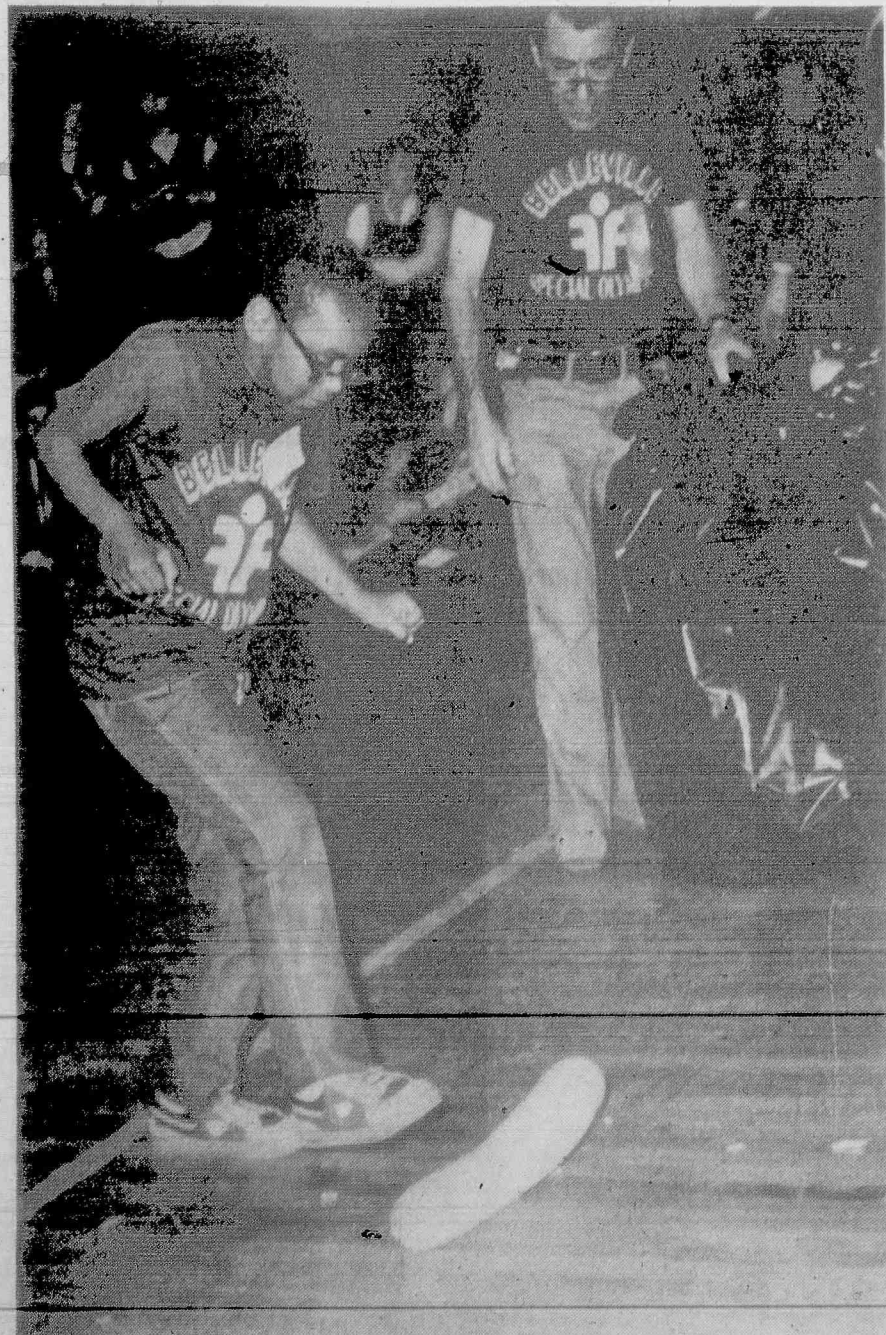

Major Medalists — Posing with their winnings are Donald Stefanelli, who garnered a gold and two silver medals, and Danny Visel, who won two golds and a bronze.

Spectators — Elizabeth Flatley and family friend Tom Dolan enjoy the proceedings. The special olympics for mentally handicapped children were held Saturday at BHS.

Tunnel Twist — Denise Biss makes her way through the first part of the obstacle course, one of several events in Saturday's olympic competition.

Pop Goes the Plastic — Eugene Bradley takes a step before stomping on the balloon in front of him. Breaking the balloon marked the last step in the obstacle course, and a popular one it was.

Family Affair — Fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters came out to watch their loved ones compete Saturday. Pictured here (front) are Mary Ann Marino and children Gianna and Carlo, and Clara Catena and children Pamela and Richard. In back are Michael Gable and Danny Visel.

Nap Time — Worn out watching the strenuous events on the gym floor, 3-year-old Kevin Augustowicz sleeps on the lap of his mother, Amelia. On either side are his brothers, Jeffrey and Adam.

Play review

Part-Time Players make fine debut in Simon play

By John Jurich

Excellent performances. Near perfect production. An overflow audience going home still chuckling and marveling at the same time over the high quality of the show it had just seen. An evening at the Actors' Cafe, the Nutley Little Theatre or the Studio Playhouse? No, the debut of a new and talented group called the Belleville Part-Time Players.

The Players are the brainchild of Belleville High School junior David Scuif, better known up until now for his films, some of which were shown last fall at the Branch Brook Manor. Schoner directed, constructed and designed sets and handled lighting and programs for the Part-Timers' first production, "The Prisoner of Second Avenue," which played Sunday at the Nutley Italian-American Civic Association's clubhouse.

Belleville High School students made up the cast and crew for the Neil Simon comedy and did a top-notch job, not even taking into account that it was their first effort. The audience, which spilled out into the aisles, roared at the one-liners and came away just a little bit awed at the surprising professionalism of the performance.

"Prisoner" is the story of Mel Edison, a middle-aged advertising executive finding it increasingly dif-icult to cut his way through the undergrowth of the urban jungle. He and his wife Edna live in an "egg box" apartment that makes him feel like a caged animal and they are surrounded by obnoxious neighbors and the stench of Himalayan heaps of garbage.

After Edna and Mel are robbed down to their dental floss and Mel loses his job, his emotional health takes a nosedive. Eventually he snaps and begins seeing a psychiatrist. Sunday was by Lisa Bongo as the Woman who tormented Mel from her upstairs apartment by throwing water on his face from time to time.

Don Flynn and Marianne Potito provided good comic segues as TV newscasters Roger Keating and Marie Jennings, though both could have used better lighting when they sat in the wooden box representing a television set. The only other noticeable flaw in the production, Debut Performance — The Belleville Part-Time Players surround founder-director David Schoner who is seated in the chair they gave him to mark the group's debut Sunday. In front are Anthony Complitano, Paula Penna, Schoner, Lisa Bongo, David Flynn and Don Flynn. In back are Marianne Potito, Alicia Colasuonno, LuAnn Fiorendino, MaryLou Clark and Diane Schichram.

Mel's breakdown brings his three self-centered sisters and tightwad brother into the picture. The play ends in an uneasy truce between Mel and his mind. These events, gloomy on the surface, are made funny and sometimes hilarious with Simon's usual caustic humor. David Flynn as Mel was marvelous, a comedian as much through gesture and facial expression as through speech. MaryLou Clark as the loyal, ever-cheerful Edna was even better. Her squeaky-high voice was perfect for the part and the audience loved her.

Anthony Complitano as Mel's brother Harry also had the crowd in stitches, and Alicia Colasuonno, Diane Schichram and LuAnn Fiorendino as Mel's sisters — Jessie, Pearl and Pauline — were fine, though they had lesser roles.

One of the best "performances" other than a shaky line or two, came in a bit of staging in the first scene of Act II when Mel and Edna were dining at a table that couldn't be seen by the entire audience.

Other than that, everything went off very smoothly. The props used by the actors were well chosen, and the timing of lines and silences was exceptionally good, a sign of intelligent direction.

Just about the only negative thing that can be said about "The Prisoner of Second Avenue" is that it won't be seen again. Sunday's was a one-shot only performance, but David Schoner and the Belleville Part-Time Players are planning another production for sometime this summer. It will be one theater-goers the whole area over won't want to miss.

Sacred Heart Players present 'Fiorello' this Saturday night

The Sacred Heart Guild Players of Vailsburg will present their production of "Fiorello" this Saturday and Sunday and April 26 and 27 in the school playhouse. Proceeds from the show will help defray the cost of Sacred Heart School's operating expenses.

"Fiorello" will be the fourth production in as many years for the Players. Past shows included a musical review, "Guys and Dolls" and "Pajama Game."

The current production is being directed by Bruce Byrne who is being assisted by Diane Cuttolo, Charles Queenan and Dave Hunt, a team that has had wide experience in performing as well as directing all over north Jersey. "Fiorello," which had a successful run on Broadway for a number of years, takes place in New York City shortly before World War I. The story details the rise of Fiorello LaGuardia from an obscure New York City lawyer to his surprising election to Congress and then as mayor of New York.

"The Little Flower," as LaGuardia was affectionately known, will be portrayed by Bob Madara of Vailsburg, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Madara of Belleville.

Other members of the cast will include Patricia Bradley as Marie, Al Salemataro as Neil, Jerry Medford as Morris, Bob Santucci as Mr. Lopez, Nick Pucciarelli as Mr. Sappatella, Judy Cicora as Dora, Ed Griffith as Floyd, Ronald Chiarello as Ben, Donna Faraone as Thea, Ronnie Kubiack as Miltz, Paul Reil as the Dealer and Jackie DeSiena as Mrs. Pomerantz.

Tickets are $3.75 and can be obtained by calling the Sacred Heart rectory at 373-9790. All shows will start at 8 p.m.

SENIOR CITIZENS ALWAYS $1.50

THE CRITICS AND PUBLIC AGREE... There's nothing funnier than Peter Sellers in "Being There."

"Generic Drugs"

The New Jersey Drug Utilization Review Council has published a drug formulary showing acceptable manufacturers for certain drugs where substitution on a prescription is mandated for the pharmacist, unless the patient or doctor specifies otherwise.

Question-How much can I save on a generic prescription?

Answer-This figure can vary from drug to drug, but a good ball-park figure is about 30 percent.

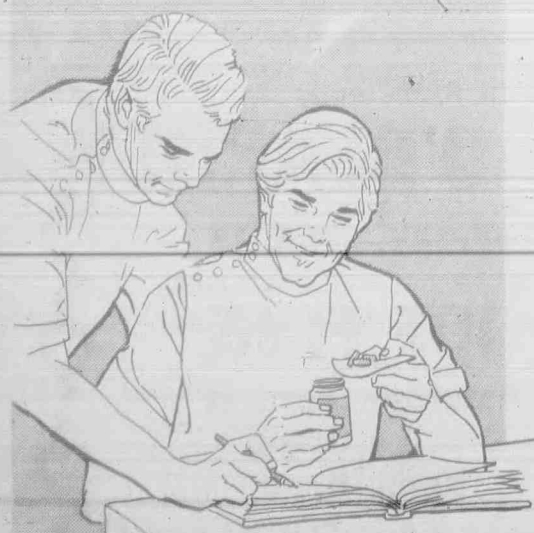

Question-Are all generics manufactured only by small generic companies?

Answer-No. There are many "branded generics" or other generic drugs manufactured by some of the larger drug companies in our country specifically to capitalize on the generics market.

Question-Do all medications have a generic equivalent?

Answer-No.
