TOWNS BECOME PART OF 30TH

Belleville, Nutley unite in new election district

By Ed Capparucci

To the delight of officials in both towns, the State Reapportionment Commission announced this week that Belleville will be joining Nutley in a new legislative district.

The new 30th District encompasses most of the old 27th with the exception of Essex Fells and Caldwell, both predominantly Republican communities. Heavily Democratic Belleville should tip the new 30th in that party's favor.

That of course pleases State Senator Carmen Orechio of Nutley and Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato of Glen Ridge, Democrats from the present 27th District who will now be representing Belleville in Trenton. The second assemblyman, Republican Carl Orechio of Nutley, is not seeking a new term. He announced last week he will retire from state politics after serving in the New Jersey Assembly the past 10 years.

Both Carmen Orechio, who is Senate majority leader, and Fortunato have announced their intention of seeking new terms. The second assembly seat will be a coveted prize likely to go to the Democrat. Please see "Belleville" on page 27.

MS center hits snag on traffic

The Zoning Board has postponed action for another month on a request by the Multiple Sclerosis Association of Essex County to build a therapy center in the Valley.

The latest in a long series of delays for the project came after zoners received a letter from the Board of Education which asked for time to study the effect the center might have on nearby School 9. His frustration turning to anger, Association President Dick Renna said this week he would go before trustees at their next public meeting and answer any questions they have about plans for the project in order to remove what could prove to be a serious obstacle in its way.

The town donated a vacant lot at Ralph Street and Bella Vista Avenue to the Belleville-based association three years ago. The association wants to put up a one-story building approximately 50 by 100 feet on the site. The therapy center would provide free treatment to persons with multiple sclerosis, a disease of the nervous system which strikes young men and women and causes crippling and blindness.

The association first came before zoners with its application early this past summer, but it was denied. Please see "Multiple" on page 27.

Flowerama marks 20th year in town

"If you offer the people something that's new and treat them right, they'll come back," says John Iannuzzi.

The words aren't too flowery, but as a formula for success, they serve very well. And anyway, Iannuzzi's business is as flowery as you can get.

Iannuzzi owns Flowerama, at the busy intersection of Washington Avenue and Rutgers Street. Flowerama has been at that location since 1967, but first opened here in 1961. This month, Iannuzzi celebrates 20 years in business.

"The warmth that flowers offer surpasses any monetary gift," says the amiable Iannuzzi. "It says love better than a card and it brings nature's warmth right into your home."

Iannuzzi's large store offers every kind of flower imaginable, and his three employees, manager Sal Melillo, designer Ron Gothier and helper and delivery driver Gary Schlick, keep the place sprouting with new ideas.

Iannuzzi firmly believes in offering innovative flower designs, and so Melillo composed a bunny rabbit flower display for Easter. The rabbit, placed in an Easter basket, is made of moss, which attracts the ivy placed in the pot centered in the basket.

Asked if florists copy each other's styles, Iannuzzi smiled, saying, "We call them the 'eyeballs.' They're the people who come by and stare at your displays." Sometimes, Iannuzzi said, he discovers copies of his store's original displays being marketed elsewhere.

It's little wonder other florists would try to copy Flowerama's displays, as its window facing Washington Avenue is a bouquet of

Annual spring concert tonight at high school

The Belleville High School Music Department will present its annual spring concert at 8 o'clock tonight in the BHS auditorium. The program will include performances by the mixed chorus, orchestra, concert band, chamber orchestra and jazz ensemble.

Vocal director Thomas Finetti has chosen for the program selections from "George M!" and "West Side Story," along with "My Spirit Sang All Day" by Gerald Finzi, two Negro spirituals and Debussy's "Salut Printemps." In addition, Marianne Scarpelli and Anthony Complitano will sing songs from "Brigadoon."

The orchestra, under the direction of Edwin Black, will perform the "Finale" from Brahms's First Symphony, Offenbach's "Orpheus in the Underworld" and selections from "A Chorus Line." A skit featuring favorite characters from "The Muppet Show" will also be included. Selected students comprising the chamber orchestra will perform "Country Dance" by Gretret and Vivaldi's "Concerto in D" for two flutes. Soloists for the concert will be Jessica Valiente and Ruth Fabian.

Andrew Silbert's concert band repertoire will include "The Golden Shield Concert March" by Jacob, "Hans Solo and the Princess" from "The Empire Strikes Back," and Citizens' Watch has okay of police chief — for now

By Rich Leardo

Belleville Police Chief George Lister warned this week that independent citizens' groups formed to combat crime may encounter legal "repurcussions" should they become involved in police business.

Lister's statement came after a meeting Monday night with leaders of the new Belleville Citizens' Watch Association, which was formed in the wake of a recent crime wave in Silver Lake.

Though he is not happy with the new organization, Lister met with representatives of the group — whose ranks swelled to about 100 after a rally last week — to discuss how police and residents could work together to deter crime in the area.

The meeting was apparently amicable enough, but differences remained. Lister told The Times Tuesday he felt that the group could better serve the people and interests of Belleville if it encouraged members to join the police auxiliary. Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica issued the same call at a town meeting last month during which Silver Lake residents complained of inadequate police protection.

However, the association's vice president, Dick Renna, believes police officials are asking residents to do something more dangerous and less effective than what his group has in mind. "We're family men, and we're not going to be targets," Renna told The Times Tuesday. "The way men in blue uniforms are being shot today, we're not going to go around wearing uniforms."

Lister added that association members told him they wanted nothing to do with any official auxiliary police functions which would not be directly related to the prevention of crime.

Lister tried to allay fears expressed by association members last week that the Police Department might "harass" residents because they are not acting in an official capacity when they patrol the streets. During the meeting he told the representatives that he would "talk to the officers" to insure that no such conflicts arose. He was, however, concerned that the people might take the law into their own hands. "I want them to be the eyes and ears of the police, and nothing more, that's the main thing," the chief said.

The association may have somewhat different ideas, though. "We're going to be out there trying to alleviate some of these problems and we're going to use as much force as necessary to hold criminals until

Egg hunt Saturday

The Belleville Optimist Club will sponsor its third annual Easter egg hunt 9-11:30 a.m. this Saturday at the Mill Street entrance to Branch Brook Park.

The hunt is open to children pre-school through 12 years old. There will be prizes of chocolate rabbits and jelly beans, and some eggs will contain "surprise coins."

The Optimists invite all Belleville children to the event and promise no child will go home empty-handed.

Chamber Notes

Everyone enjoyed our last board of directors meeting where the subject was "How to Conserve Water" and the speaker Superintendent of Public Works James Soldo. Our next meeting will be noon Tuesday, April 21, at the Casa Polizzi Restaurant. The subject will be plans and programs for the balance of 1981. The programs suggested at the special meeting April 2 will be the main topic at the April 21 meeting.

Thank you, Flowerama! At our last regular meeting, held St. Patrick's Day, everyone received a green carnation which was donated by Flowerama, 180 Washington Ave., a store which first opened in April 1961. John Iannuzzi & Co. have given 20 years of service to Belleville and nearby towns and cities.

It is important that the president and Congress do all they can to overcome inflation and to determine what we have to do to adequately improve or increase our defense equipment and manpower. There is also something else that needs devoted and energetic attention — crime.

How can a country like the United States explain to the world why and how the terrible events in Atlanta and other places have happened? Government, civic and religious groups should do something to overcome the terrible situation in this great country. Incidentally, my home was burglarized about five weeks ago.

Automatic teller network undergoing an expansion

Peter Cartmell, chairman of the board of Fidelity Union Bancorporation, one of the state's largest financial institutions, has announced that Kranzley & Co., Inc., has been selected to support the rapidly expanding shared automatic teller machine (ATM) network which Fidelity anchors.

"The system will give Fidelity the ability to share its highly successful ATM network with other New Jersey financial institutions," noted Cartmell. "This will enable customers of participating financial institutions to have access to their accounts at numerous locations throughout the state, seven days a week, 24 hours a day. The system will be operational in the early fall with the member banks of Fidelity Union Bancorporation and the Summit Bancorporation as initial participants."

Kranzley & Co. of Cherry Hill is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Anacom, Inc., an Indianapolis-based computer services firm. The company's EFT 8500 transaction switching and processing system, which will support the shared network, is already in place at three of the largest regional EFT systems in the country. These include the Rocky Mountain bankcard system, one of the most geographically widespread shared ATM networks in the country; Maryland Switch, Inc., and Metroteller Systems in Buffalo, N.Y.

"We are particularly pleased to have been selected by Fidelity to serve the transaction needs of consumers in our home state," said Arthur S. Kranzley, president of Kranzley & Co. "We anticipate that the system will be used to its full capability to provide New Jersey financial institutions with the most comprehensive array of electronically delivered retail services."

At present, Fidelity operates 39

ATMs and expects to install additional machines by the end of 1981. The Summit Bancorporation joined the shared network and will install up to eight ATMs in the first year of operation. The Fidelity office at Belleville and Washington Avenues is part of the system.

Donald A. Morrow, Fidelity's executive vice president for operations, commented, "The convenience for the consumer is the key issue. By opening the shared network to all types of New Jersey-based financial institutions, we anticipate having over 200 shared ATMs in 17 counties within the next two years. This means that consumers will be able to make cash withdrawals, deposit cash and checks into their accounts, obtain account balance information and transfer monies from one account to another any time they want, at locations all over New Jersey."

Fidelity reported total assets of $3.2 billion as of year's end.

Zampino will head State Bar program

Belleville attorney Thomas Zampino will preside over the family law section program of the New Jersey State Bar Association's annual meeting May 13-16 in Atlantic City.

More than 1,000 lawyers from around the state are expected to attend the meeting to participate in seminars and discussions of current issues facing the legal profession.

Zampino, who is a Belleville School Board trustee, spoke on the topic, "Matrimonial Law from the Office to the Courtroom," in a seminar sponsored by the Essex County Bar Association March 17 at Livingston High School.

The program was one of 10 sponsored by the Essex attorneys' organization as part of a "back to school" effort for members. "I am pleased that someone of Mr. Zampino's caliber and expertise agreed to donate his time to improving the profession," said Bernard A. Kutner, president of the 3,000-member association.

Zampino, a partner in the firm of Gaccione, Pomaco, Patton, Beck, Zampino and Jackson, located on Union Avenue, specializes in matrimonial law.

Dawn Beyer off to Taylor in fall

Dawn Marie Beyer of Belleville Avenue will begin studies in September at Taylor Business Institute, Paramus.

Miss Beyer will be enrolled in the executive secretarial program which is designed to prepare students for secretarial positions. The career program will include word-processing concepts, personnel management and advanced secretarial procedures.

The daughter of Robert and Margaret Beyer, Miss Beyer is a senior at Belleville High School.

BABY BOTTLE TOOTH DECAY

From a dental point of view, nursing babies from bottles can cause problems. Dentally-speaking - what's the worst thing you can do to a baby? Stick him in his crib with a bottle at nap time and let him fall asleep with the bottle in his mouth. Milk or juice in the mouth and on the teeth turns to acid and causes teeth to break down rapidly. Many babies who sleep with a baby bottle develop severe tooth decay, often in their front teeth. The problem is not the bottle but what's in it. The sugar in the milk, formula, or fruit juices causes the decay. Sometimes, these teeth become so decayed they cause severe pain and may break off or have to be extracted.

During the day, the baby swallows these drinks quickly, so there is no damage to the teeth. During sleep, the liquid pools behind the baby's teeth and keeps them bathed in sugar for hours.

One solution is to give baby the last feeding before bedtime. If your baby is still using a bottle when his teeth begin to appear, let him use it for short periods of time awake or sitting up. If he is using a bottle as a pacifier, put water in the bottle.

Kiwanis gift of flowers

Budding Donation — Signaling the start of spring and symbolizing hope for the future were hundreds of daffodils donated to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital by the Belleville Kiwanis Club. The flowers were used to brighten patient lunch trays. Making the presentation are (l-r) Eugene Reilly, public relations chairman; Patrick Kiernan, chairman of supportive churches; John Iannuzzi of Flowerama, agricultural committee chairman, and President Frank Pitt. Geraldine Brown of the hospital's dietary department accepts the first daffodil. The donation is a tradition of the Belleville service club.

Convention policy is on 'back burner'

School trustees have yet to approve a detailed policy on convention expenses, despite their vow last October to do so as soon as possible.

Trustee John DiStasi prodded his colleagues to adopt a policy following allegations made against Trustee Caesar Romano of double-billing expenses at last year's National School Boards Convention. Now DiStasi is getting discouraged.

"I feel like I'm a broken record. I just get pushed aside on certain issues," said DiStasi last Monday. He reminded trustees about a month ago that no policy had been adopted. Last Tuesday, board attorney Lawrence Schwartz said he had sent a copy of a proposed convention policy to trustees for study.

"There's no formal policy right now, and I'd like to see one," said DiStasi, however. Schwartz said the proposed policy did not differ from accepted practice — trustees would be reimbursed only for air fare, rooms and meals. No do's and don'ts are apparently included, though.

Schwartz said he "wasn't sure" what trustees did with the policy he submitted, adding it was only "legally binding" if approved at a public business meeting. Otherwise, he said "it's not legally binding but its effect is binding."

Only DiStasi has pressed for a convention policy but admits "with the budget presentation, this got pushed to the back burner. But I intend to see it through. I'd like to see some guidelines on mail allowances, travel allowances, and possibly trips be taken on a rotating basis."

DiStasi said he didn't think Schwartz should be proposing any board policy since he's an attorney, not a board member. "Mr. Schwartz was supposed to recommend a policy, but I don't think it's legal for him to recommend policy," DiStasi said.

The policy question arose when residents started questioning the $4,421 trip taken April 18-23 by Romano, Board President Ernie Zoppi, Vice President Charles Miele and Schwartz (who covered his own expenses) to the National School Boards convention in San Francisco. Some $1,640 was spent on "miscellaneous" items such as coffee, breakfast, drinks, snacks, lunches, parking, gas, a rented car and tolls over five days, according to those attending. In September, a grand jury began looking into Romano's expenses. The investigation has been in limbo for months.

While some critics want to end convention trips altogether, most trustees are against the idea, contending Belleville schools would lose out if trustees didn't see new products and hear new ideas and have an opportunity to compare notes with out-of-state board members.

Vote registration set for Town Hall

Town Hall will remain open until 9 p.m. April 30, May 1 and 4 so that new voters and those who have moved may register for the June 6 primary election.

30th district

As we predicted, the town of Belleville was added to the old 27th legislative district, thereby joining Nutley, its neighbor, in the new 30th district.

The addition of Belleville is good for the district. Belleville and Nutley have much in common. Hundreds of Belleville residents share personal bonds with Nutley residents. The towns have a common border — and they have common problems.

With the inclusion of Belleville, two towns were dropped from the district, Essex Fells and Caldwell. The change adds a Democratic community and removes two Republican towns. With the realignment, this legislative district will probably produce a Democratic senator and two Democratic assemblymen.

Incumbent State Senator Carmen Orechio, majority leader of the New Jersey Senate and probably the next Senate president, will seek re-election, as will Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato of Glen Ridge. Both Orechio and Fortunato are Democrats. Assemblyman Carl Orechio gave notice two weeks ago that he would not seek re-election.

The redistricting plan is about as perfect as one could expect, given the selfish interests of some commission members.

We are happy that Nutley and Belleville are back together once again.

Frank A. Orechio

School election

Two new board members were elected last week, Tom Spillane and Donna Rainone.

Board President Ernie Zoppi lost his bid for re-election. Hurting his chances were the brawl he was involved in recently and the voters' attitude toward the school budget. Zoppi lost the election by 176 votes — not very many when one considers that he was targeted for defeat by various political forces.

However, the educational system must continue to function with a defeated budget and in the face of a defeated school board president. Tom Spillane and Donna Rainone have the capability of making major contributions to the welfare of our school population, the staff and the taxpayers. Spillane, a New Jersey Bell Telephone engineer, has excellent community credentials. Involved in the civic affairs of Belleville, Spillane has a broad handle on problems confronting both taxpayers and our students. Ms. Rainone is a county employee who is very excited over the challenge that a school board seat presents. She is a fresh face on the scene, capable of bringing to her work new ideas and a measure of imagination.

We congratulate the winners — and also the losers — for in the final analysis, without the losers in the race, voters would have had no choice. Even losers serve an important purpose in our democracy.

Frank A. Orechio

School budget

Voters were displeased with the school system budget. Their displeasure was reflected in the thrashing the document received at their hands — 1,659 to 610.

Things are tough out there. People are having a difficult time trying to make ends meet. Even two jobs in the family today seem to be inadequate to cover the cost of living.

This is a message that apparently did not reach the ears of the School Board members.

With the elimination of two schools, there should be a substantial decrease in the operation of our school system. It did not happen. People became angry, and, so, at a time when what Belleville badly needs is favorable publicity, especially as it pertains to its school system, the negative voices of our voters were heard loud and clear beyond the boundaries of Belleville.

The bruised and battered budget document must now receive the attention of skilled surgeons. Fat must be cut from the budget body without impairing the school system. It is not an easy task, but we are confident the people's will shall be done.

Letters

Police displayed wisdom helping disturbed citizen

(The following letter, dated April 5, was sent to Public Safety Commissioner Matthew A. Pica.)

Dear Commissioner Pica:

A Belleville citizen needing psychiatric care was brought to the attention of the Belleville police during the month of February.

At the time, the citizen was loud at times and irrational but basically harmless. The police brought him to headquarters then to Clara Maass Hospital where he left about two weeks later.

The whole police procedure, though simple-sounding, was an emotional roller-coaster experience for all concerned, in my opinion, because of the citizen's unstable state of mind and emotions at the station, in the police car and at the hospital.

Throughout, the police handled the person with large doses of understanding, politeness, care, tolerance, compassion, integrity, wisdom and patience, patience, patience. I would like to mention the names of the police involved for the record, and may they have a record of this letter in their files. They were Captain Monday, Captain Zecca, Lt. O'Toole, Lt. Koelsch, Officer Sheridan, Officer Cappetta, Officer Natale, Officer McGinn, Sgt. Barrigan, Officer Connolly.

Captain Zecca, to me, especially stood out among the officers for his insight and wisdom. He impressed me as having the understanding of a modern-day Solomon. He figured out and verbalized in lightning time what was wrong with the citizen in what would have taken 15 years for a trained psychiatrist to learn and then get across to a patient.

May I commend your Police Department with the highest praise... They are like sparkling diamonds — valuable and outstanding. The average citizen should be more aware of their value, finesse and class.

Sincerely,
Carmela Silvestri

Letter policy

The Times continues to receive letters on a variety of topics which, unfortunately, may never find their way onto our editorial page. That is because they are unsigned.

As a matter of policy, The Times accepts only signed letters. "Signatures" such as "A Concerned Citizen" or "A Worried Parent" will not do. Only names will suffice. However, we will withhold names from publication upon request.

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

I had the opportunity to hear a talk on crime against the elderly by Barbara Wallace, a detective with the Essex County Sheriff's Department. She appeared at the April 7 meeting of the Belleville Old Guard to which the wives of members were invited. Mrs. Wallace is an excellent speaker and is very knowledgeable on the subject matter and particularly well versed on the subject of rape. Contact the Sheriff's Department if you wish to hear her at one of your meetings. You may be shocked at what you hear, but you may be awakened to the reality of what is going on around you and you will be given the opportunity of knowing what to do if you should ever find yourself in a crime-related circumstance.

There are two ways of judging the oldie. They are based either on a stereotype of the failed-health, rocking-chair, don't-make-waves sort of person, or the active, over-60 person who loves life and lives it to the fullest and stays active even into his 80s or 90s. The old myths are fading. We remain a viable group in our society quite able to take care of our needs. Most of us would continue working if we could and if we were not put out to pasture at a given age that has been set by the government. Our needs are few and we can still think along with the best of them. IQ tests administered to groups over a long period of time show that there is very little difference in the level of intelligence as we move from one age group to an older age group.

The over-60 generation is sometimes portrayed as a group of greedy people with schemes meant to raid the federal treasury for greater benefits financed by young taxpayers, when actually we are merely reaping the fruits of our long labor. We, the seniors, are responsible for legislation that is needed to protect us in our old age. America is coming of age! Can we help it if we are living longer? Perhaps some of the younger generation would be pleased if all people died at about age 65. Then they would not have to support the elderly. (Of course, this way of thinking would change when they became age 60.)

Today the idea of "getting old" still scares a lot of people to death. In fact, it seems many people would rather die than get old. A National Institute of Health survey revealed that most people expect to live a longer life than they really want to. The years of old age, they feel, are not worth living. In truth, most of their fears are unfounded, merely myths. These myths can be dispelled by not living a life of boredom and uselessness. It is up to the individual to get out and mix with all age groups. There is no reason to be lonely and alone. There are people who would welcome your companionship, there are clubs to join with a variety of activities, with places to go, new people to meet, new dining experiences, vacations together. Let's fool all of the skeptics, let's live long and useful lives!

You might not think that fish scales and lacquer could do very much for jewelry but they do. They make up what is called the "essence" that is used to cover beads of glass, plastic, or sea shells to create imitation pearls. The fish scales provide the iridescence, the lacquer and the shine. Although they lack the deep luster and glow of real pearls, imitation pearls can be quite attractive. However, it is only nature that can create the crystalline structure of a real pearl.

Do you have a piece of jewelry that seems to have lost its luster? At CHARLES JEWELERS, 163 Washington Ave, Belleville, we can refurbish most of your jewelry to its original exquisite state. We carry one of the largest and finest selection of Bulova, Timex and most Seiko watches. At CHARLES JEWELERS you can choose from a very large selection of diamonds, birthstone and occasional rings as well. Come in and see us today or call 759-2468.

Historical Society to visit reservoir on Saturday

The Belleville Historical Society has visits to sites of historical and general interest planned for the spring.

Inquiries have been made to the society about the Newark Reservoir and its grounds on Joralemon Street, and members will visit the site 10 a.m. to noon this Saturday. The public is invited.

The reservoir was built in 1869 to supply Newark with water. The water was pumped from the Passaic River into the reservoir by a station on Main Street in the vicinity of Greylock Parkway.

In 1885 when the Passaic became polluted, the Pequannic

Watershed area was developed as a source of water. The water was fed into the reservoir through the gatehouse built in 1891. The gatehouse is in use today and water is still being received both from the Pequannic Watershed and the Wanaque Reservoir.

The reservoir has joint connections with the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission system in Wanaque, the Newark and Passaic Valley systems. It is a quarter-mile in circumference with a minimum capacity of 14 million gallons and a depth of 22 feet.

Society members are hoping the visit to the reservoir will highlight the seriousness of the water shortage and create more interest in conservation.

Cartoonist's work at library

The artwork of Kay Kato, author of "On Location in New Jersey," a weekly feature appearing in The Star-Ledger, will be on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library now through May 15.

Kato's work as a sketching reporter and columnist has taken her to many places and given her the opportunity to meet and draw noted personalities such as Bob Hope, Phyllis Diller, Shirley Temple Black and others.

Following her training at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Kato devoted her time to oil painting and watercolors. Her work has appeared in one-woman shows at the Boston Public Library, R.C. Vose Art Galleries and in New Jersey Woman's Clubs. She has also exhibited at the Montclair Art Museum, the Newark Public Library and the New Jersey State Show.

One of America's few female cartoonists, Kato, who also lectures, has won over audiences both in live appearances and on TV with her ability to draw quickly, expressively and accurately.

Her work is on display at the library's main branch, 221 Washington Ave.

Troop 350 sleeps in old-style tents

Two weeks prior to a weekend backpacking and camping trip, Troop 350 Scouts were busy constructing tents out of duct tape and cut trash bags. The idea for making the tents came from the 1911 Scout Handbook. The Scouts were paired and each pair was responsible for its own style of tent.

The trip with 14 Scouts started Friday evening, March 27, from the parking lot of Glen Gray Scout Reservation along the Cannon Ball Trail to a water spring at the far end of the camp. The hike took about an hour and was made without the use of flashlights. Arriving at the campsite, the troop joined Post 350, which had arrived an hour earlier.

Saturday morning, the troop, using map and compass, bushwacked across the camp to a new water spring site to have lunch. Then the Scouts crossed the camp again, this time to Tepee Springs. Here, evening camp was set up. Stew, pepper steak and baked muffins were the main ingredients for a supper cooked using a reflector oven. Post 350 joined the Belleville troop for the evening campfire.

Sunday morning, the troop broke camp and hiked the Tepee Trail back to the parking lot for the return trip to Belleville. Approximately, six-and-a-half miles of rugged Ramapo Mountain terrain was hiked and eight Scouts earned hiking skill awards.

Concert Lineup — Vocal director Thomas Finetti (right) appears with some of the students who will be taking part in tonight's annual spring concert at Belleville High School.

Concert set for tonight

The jazz ensemble will perform themes from "Dallas," "The White Shadow" and others.

Students involved in the Belleville music program have much to look forward to this spring — the band trip to Washington, D.C., the orchestra trip to Great Adventure Amusement Park. On May 19, the chorus will attend a buffet dinner in the high school cafeteria and then travel to New York City to see a performance of "The Fantasticks," the longest running American musical comedy.

Donation for tonight's performance will be $1.

Group hopes clean-up effort will change its image, town's

Members of the Unification Church on Terry Street are hoping to "change our image" by donating their time and effort to help beautify Belleville and assist residents with chores like painting, babysitting, window-washing and minor repairs. Initial reaction to their "neighborhood service project" seems to be positive.

Since Belleville became "home" to the printing presses of The News World two years ago, most Unification Church members, commonly known as Moonies, have kept a low profile, preferring a quiet existence to the public controversy any outside activities might have generated.

Now, attempting to change the negative perception many people have of their church, local Unification members are offering assistance to community residents in the hope that people may change their attitude towards the small group of the Rev. Moon's followers who reside here.

Just recently, a group of Belleville press employees, who help print

"The News World," the New York paper founded by the Unification Church, cleaned up an area next to the railroad tracks off Essex Street. A Department of Public Works crew aided them by hauling away about 50 large trash bags of paper, cans, glass, sticks, mattresses and household garbage tossed there by some neighborhood residents and passers-by.

By helping clean up Belleville, whose name means "Beautiful Village," the Unification followers say they hope to instill more community pride in residents, so they will show more concern in keeping their neighborhoods clean.

"We want to get people interested in helping each other, and multiply that interest so they'll clean up places like these on their own," said Aase Pfaender, a Norwegian Unification church member, while walking in an open lot just behind the Belleville Press building.

Though a group of employees helped police the area about two weeks ago, already abandoned bottles and paper could be seen accumulating there last Thursday.

Ultimately, Mrs. Pfaender, along with Bob Randolph and Dave Perry, who talked to The Times, say they'd like to achieve the "respect" of townsfolk. Achieving that respect, they believe, requires action not words, and the "neighborhood service project" was an idea Mrs. Pfaender thought would go over big. Following her suggestion, Randolph had pamphlets printed detailing the project's aims.

However, when they started to give the pamphlets out door-to-door, they were stopped and told to get a permit. Commissioners were scheduled to discuss their permit application Tuesday.

The Unification church members said weren't worried about receiving permission since they feel their project is a good idea. They say they want to help people and want nothing in return except maybe a "thank you." They're not trying to convert anybody, they say, they just just want to let people know they're here.

"I don't like living in a garbage dump. I wish people would take more responsibility for what they do," said Mrs. Pfaender, as Randolph and Perry stood around pointing out where large areas of garbage existed just a short while ago.

"They (public works crew) seemed pretty happy when they saw we had the stuff in piles when they picked it up," said Randolph, adding the local department responded quickly in carting away the debris. "We haven't done too much since we've been here," said Randolph, "so we thought we'd do something like this."

Fight case postponed

The assault and battery case involving former School Board president Ernie Zoppi and critic Joe Fornarotto was postponed until Thursday, May 7, last week in Municipal Court.

The postponement was agreed to after attorney Joel Pisano, representing Zoppi and his son, Ernie III, asked for more time to study the case.

The Zoppis filed charges against Fornarotto and Fornarotto against them following a fight that broke out at the Board of Education offices March 23. Fornarotto had severely criticized the board president during school trustees' meeting that night, and afterwards the elder Zoppi approached Fornarotto and asked to talk with him in private. Moments later, a scuffle was heard in the hallway outside the board meeting room, and several men rushed to the scene to break up the fight.

It is not clear who threw the first punch, but all three participants in the minute-long brawl were on the floor when it was stopped. The following morning, both sides filed assault and battery charges against each other.

Competition Winners — Belleville and Nutley students attending Daniels Dance Studio of Nutley captured a trophy in the small fry category at a competition in New York City March 15 sponsored by the Dance Educators of America, a nationwide professional organization of dance teachers. Shown here (back, l-r) are Kirsten Sandberg, Gina Sparaco, Keri-Ann DeLuca, Madelyn Chiusano, Jill Welker, Lori Ann Marinaccio and Gina Giuriceo; (front, l-r) Michele Gomes, Theresa Hoarle, Stephanie Mastandrea and Carmel Ann Caruso. Theresa Hoarle also won a solo trophy in the same category.

Title I schedules meeting April 30

The Title I District Parent Council will meet 8 p.m. Thursday, April 30, at School 9, located at 301 Ralph St. All teachers in the program will attend, and parents are invited.

Title I is a federally funded remedial reading program which is sponsored by the Belleville Board of Education. The program supplements the regular reading classes held in the town's elementary schools.

During the month of April, the Title I newsletter spotlights the program at School 9. The program has two full-time teachers, Maria Christiano and Marianne Fass. Both teachers work with small groups of children daily for half-hour sessions in grades one through six.

In the lower grades the emphasis is placed upon phonics along with word analysis. Various materials are used with each group in order to make reading a pleasurable experience. Materials include phonics workbooks, basic goal readers and crossword puzzle books. In addition, teachers plan activities and games. The children enjoy role-playing with the puppets. Many times their imagination is stimulated by having them create their own stories and putting their thoughts in writing.

In the upper grades, the emphasis is on comprehension and recognizing the main idea in a story through the use of "skillboosters," comprehension workbooks and "building strategies." Great stress is placed upon putting events in sequential order, identifying cause and effect and predicting outcomes.

Included in the Title I program at School 9 are games and activities for all grades. The children enjoy participating in educational games such as Scrabble, Spill and Spell, Phonetic Quizmo as well as teacher-made games.

The students celebrate different holidays and seasons through construction of arts and crafts projects related to their reading activities.

Spring and Easter activities are now in progress. Miss Christiano's primary grades will be making muffin cup flower gardens with each flower containing an example of the skill being taught. The upper grades will be writing Easter poetry. Easter bunnies will also be part of the program.

Mrs. Fass's "Novelettes" in the first grade have had a lot of fun acting out "The Three Little Pigs" using stick puppets. During April, they will construct spring mobiles using sight words.

The upper grades enjoy participating in a "Star Wars" contest. The contest consists of new vocabulary words from the stories read each month. Every four weeks, there is a special surprise for the student who is able to match the most definitions.

All of Mrs. Fass's children will go on an Easter egg hunt. Each egg will contain a word puzzle or riddle and the best detective will be the winner. Reading can be fun, especially around the holidays!

Babe in Politics — Lauri Melham, 8, of Joralemon Street cuts a cake with Congressman Bob Roe who is running for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the June 2 primary. The occasion was the opening of Essex County Roe for Governor headquarters at 137½ Washington Ave. More than 200 persons attended the campaign kickoff.

Prior to his elevation to the episcopacy, Bishop Francis held administrative and teaching posts in Missouri, Texas and California. He is a former president of the Black Priests' Caucus and of the Major Superiors of Men. He is a board member of Catholic Relief Services and of the National Catholic Conference of Interracial Justice. Currently he is chairman of the Greater Newark Urban Coalition.

Reporter gets Essex PR post

County Executive Peter Shapiro has announced the appointment of Tom Malcolm as acting director of public information.

Malcolm, 27, comes to the $20,000-a-year county job from The Herald-News of Passaic, where he was a municipal and courthouse reporter. His most recent assignment was the Essex County Courthouse. He also served as chief of the paper's Morris County bureau during 1978.

Before joining The Herald-News, Malcolm worked briefly as a copyboy at the New York Daily News. A native of Belleville, he is a 1976 honors graduate of Montclair State College where he majored in English.

"Tom Malcolm's experience in journalism and his knowledge of the workings of county government make him an ideal candidate for a job which requires working with the media to keep citizens informed about what's happening in county government," said Shapiro in announcing the appointment.

Malcolm, who now lives in Montclair, replaces Emma Byrne of Maplewood who in March went on a three-month unpaid leave of absence from her county post. Shapiro said if Byrne chooses not to return to the directorship when her leave is up, he will formally nominate Malcolm for the job. Malcolm's appointment would then have to be approved by the Board of Freeholders before becoming official.

Kiwanis playing cards on April 30

The Belleville Kiwanis Club will hold its annual card party 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 30, at the Junior High School, 279 Washington Ave.

Nino Bucciarelli, the club's first vice president, heads the committee planning the affair, and tickets can be obtained at his candy and paper store on Union Avenue near Greylock Parkway.

The card party is the civic and service organization's major fund-raiser for the year, and the entire Kiwanis membership is expected to participate. The club is hoping for support from residents.

Fibrosis Foundation taps Essex chairmen

Jack Gurrera of Belleville and John Tiene of Nutley have been appointed chairmen of the 1981 Cyclin' for CF Bike-a-Thon campaign in Essex County. The announcement was made by Leo A. Doran, president of the Greater New Jersey Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The two community leaders will coordinate an effort to inform the public about cystic fibrosis and to raise funds for research and care of children and young adults afflicted with the disease.

Cystic fibrosis, an inherited disease which is presently incurable, is characterized by a thick, sticky mucus which clogs the lungs and digestive system. "In its relatively short history, the work of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation has increased the average life span of sufferers to over 20 — a significant improvement over previous statistics," Doran said.

"It is very necessary to educate the public in order that these strides in improvement may continue," said Doran. "That is what the Cyclin' for CF Bike-a-Thon campaigns are all about."

School 3 show slated for May

"Spring Fever" will be the theme of School 3's annual card party to be held 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 1, in the school's all-purpose room.

The event will feature prizes and a fashion show by the Mandee Shop. Tickets are $2.50 and include the price of refreshments and favors.

For information, call card party chairman Michele Dalton at 751-5828.

Flowerama sets trends — and has its imitators color, mesmerizing passersby with its intensity.

"We are trendsetters," says Iannuzzi with unabashed pride. "We just try to make things interesting in our store so that when customers come in they can see our creativity."

Selling flowers for a living "is more of a hobby than a job," says Iannuzzi, adding his 20-year association with Belleville residents has kept his business blooming.

He scoffs at those who say Belleville isn't a good town for business. "There's no problems with residents in town, just problems with the merchants," says Iannuzzi.

He says businesses would thrive locally if merchants weren't so scattered in three different shopping areas, and if merchants offer reputable, reliable products in a congenial atmosphere.

He said he hopes either office buildings or garden apartments are soon built along "The Avenue" so the added number of people will increase business activity there.

But in the desert of Washington Avenue, Flowerama is a business oasis. "A lot of people call and say they just happened to see our display either on Washington Avenue or Rutgers Street," notes Iannuzzi. "Our displays are the things that sell flowers for us since we do a lot of our business over the telephone," he adds.

But customers who treat themselves to a visit to Flowerama's shop will immediately whiff the penetrating scents of various flowers upon entering. After that, customers are given free reign to wander about and look at the live, dried and silk flowers crowded in in corners of the colorful store.

One of those who came to look and stayed is part-time worker Seymour Grossman, who is Belleville's full-time assistant school superintendent. He has been helping out around the store for about 10 years. Grossman is a Flowerama fan, enjoying the happiness and life flowers exude.

Flower-buying has undergone several trends since Iannuzzi opened up for business. "Twenty years ago, it was polyethylene flowers that were big," he notes. "Then it was dried flowers, now it's silk flowers." Flower arrangements are always popular though, and besides Easter bunnies, Iannuzzi's workers have constructed displays of Little Orphan Annie, a plumber's wrench, an ice cream cone, a pinball machine and an antique car.

Though the popularity of polyethylene flowers may have seen its day, there is one thing Iannuzzi would like to pluck from the past — a revival of Belleville's old cherry blossom parade would really warm his heart, but he doesn't know if it's ever going to happen again. "I hope it comes back. Belleville's a very community-minded town and this would be good to have again," he says.

Most of Flowerama's flowers come from South America, notes Iannuzzi, since growing flowers in North America usually costs too much due to rising fuel costs for heated greenhouses. Iannuzzi remembers when Madison, N.J., once was the "rose capital" of the northeast. "But they don't grow roses there anymore. It's too expensive," says Iannuzzi with a shrug.

Coach remembers '75 Irvington game

"The game I'll never forget." Every coach has one, and this week, Buc Shots starts a new feature based on those memories. For the first of the features, head baseball coach George Zanfini was asked to talk about his most memorable game.

Zanfini chose the Belleville-Irvington baseball contest back in 1975 as the one he'd never forget. It was indeed a good choice. The 1975 Belleville High baseball team posted a 14-10 mark, but the club at one time was a threat for the No. 1 ranking in the state.

Belleville had lost to top-rated Irvington 2-0 on opening day as Camper Ron Krill fired a no-hitter. After that initial setback, the Bellboys had reeled off 10 straight victories, over East Orange twice, Kearny, Bloomfield twice, Passaic, Nutley, Orange, Montclair and Columbia.

The Bellboys rematch with the Campers was slated for May 9, 1975, and perhaps one of the biggest crowds ever to witness a Belleville baseball game filled the home stands at the high school to watch a simply marvelous battle.

"We were really looking forward to that game," recalled Zanfini. "Irvington had a good ballclub with phenomenal pitching, and we wanted revenge after losing our opening game to them."

In the Bellboy first inning, John Guarino singled and took second on a fielder's choice. Dino DeNotaris then tripled him home and Belleville led 1-0. Meanwhile, Belleville pitcher Greg Petite was hurling a magnificent game. The junior pitcher blanked Irvington through the first five innings before the Campers broke through in the sixth.

Bill Bodnar hit a single, stole second base and scored on a scratch single by Jim Kennedy. Irvington had tied the game at one, and Camper pitcher Jim Wacker was pitching a masterful game. Wacker would pitch the first seven innings, allowing just three hits and striking out eight batters.

Belleville failed to score in the sixth and seventh innings, thus sending the game into extra innings. Krill, to the chagrin of Belleville and its fans, came on to pitch the eighth inning. Although the Bellboys did manage to hit the ball off him this time, they failed to score that all-important winning run.

The Bellboys had golden opportunities in the ninth and 13th innings to win the game, but on both occasions, Krill slammed the door shut. In the ninth frame, Anthony Biafore doubled, but failed to score. In the 13th, Belleville had men on first and third, but again could not score.

Petite, the Bellboy pitcher, threw 11 beautiful innings, striking out five and allowing just one run on four hits. He gave way to Bobby Giordano with one out in the 12th inning and Giordano continued to pitch with the same effectiveness as Petite.

For a while, it appeared the game would last until the next morning. Neither team could get that big run which would change the course of the game. In the Camper 14th, Irvington finally got through to Giordano, putting men on first and second. A fellow by the name of Rob Politan then smacked a three-run homer over the centerfield fence that silenced and stunned the large Belleville crowd.

Belleville had one last chance, but Krill managed to dispose of the Bellboys and Irvington went home with a 14-0 record in a game that was indeed a marathon.

"We've always had good crowds here at Belleville," said Zanfini. "However, I would have to say that the crowd that day was the biggest I've ever seen. The weather wasn't the best that day, there was some rain and a lot of clouds, but the kids did a tremendous job. I couldn't have been prouder of their effort."

The lineup on that memorable day was Joe Pantelone in centerfield, Vic Pasquerelli at second, Anthony "Chipper" Biafore at shortstop, Louis Grasso at first base, Steve Gerard at third base, Johnny Guarino in rightfield, Greg Dunleavy catching, Dino DeNotaris in centerfield and Petite pitching. Michael Cancelliere was the designated hitter.

The loss chopped the Bellboys' record to 10-2 and the following day, the team had the chore of playing Wayne Valley. Belleville came through with a big victory, but the team soon went into a tailspin and lost five straight.

"The Irvington loss did take a lot out of us," Zanfini said. "Even though we won the next day, the kids suffered a big let-down after that. However, I would have to say that the loss helped us towards the big year we had the following season."

That following year, 1976, the Bellboys came through with a 24-4 record, including a string of 20 straight wins. "That was perhaps my most memorable season, but the Irvington game was the game that I'll never forget," said Zanfini.

This year's version of the Belleville baseball team has jumped out to a 5-0 start. The Bucs were paced by a brilliant pitching performance by Anthony Coco last week against a good Barringer squad. Coco allowed just two hits and struck out 10. He is perhaps one of the best pitchers in the county this year and should be a big asset for the Bucs in the upcoming games.

The softball team, under Carl Corino, has jumped out to a 4-1 start and is starting to put all the pieces together. The girls have a solid ballclub this year and will be a big threat for the county title.

The Buc quote of the week goes to Brian Allum of the track team. Brian was so psyched up by his performance against Caldwell that afterwards he said, "Take my car, I'm running home."

The Belleville athlete of the week award also goes to Allum. Brian did a great job last week for the track team, winning the 400-meter hurdles and in his leg of the mile relay, catching a Caldwell runner who was 30 yards ahead of him.

The Cosmos opened up their home schedule with a 3-1 victory over the Minnesota Kicks. Hernan "Chico" Borja, the Belleville native now with the Cosmos, injured a knee and had to miss the opener. As the season progresses, I will be doing some reports on the Cosmos' games of the previous week and Hernan's part in them.

The NBA playoffs are in high gear and the some of the developments are not just surprising, they are stunning. The Boston Celtics swept the Chicago Bulls which was nothing special, but how about the western playoffs? There is a good possibility that two sub-.500 teams will be in the Western Conference championships. The Kansas City Kings and Houston Rockets both finished at .40-.42 but are doing very well

Buc diamonders maul the Indians and Bears

Score wins five and six

By Mike Lamberti

Things are going so well for the Belleville High baseball team these days that head coach George Zanfini is actually starting to crack a smile.

Now this is not to say that the coach is getting over-confident, but Zanfini has been very pleased with his ballclub the last two weeks. "Yes, I would have to say we're playing real well," admitted the coach.

That's putting it mildly. The Bucs hold a 6-0 record, last week making Passaic and Barringer their latest victims. As they have since the beginning of the season, the Bucs used an awesome display of power and some good pitching to pull away to lopsided victories.

Belleville hosted Irvington on Tuesday and will be in Bloomfield this afternoon for a 3:45 p.m. game. On Saturday, the team will host West Essex and on Tuesday, the club will travel to Kearny for an 11 a.m. contest.

Barringer, one of the better teams in the area, boasted a strong lineup, but it was no match for the relentless Anthony Coco last Wednesday as he pitched the Bucs to a 9-0 victory.

The senior hurler was simply magnificent as he allowed just two hits in striking out 10 Bears over the seven-inning game. It was Coco's second straight complete game and the senior hurler is proving more and more that he is one of the best pitchers in the county.

The first two innings were scoreless, but Belleville broke through in its half of the third. Pat Forte led things off with a single and was moved to second on a sacrifice by Rich Valente. Bobby Brave singled home Forte for the first run and Jerry Ross reached safely on an error that allowed Brave to score. Frank Fazzini then settled the issue for all intents and purposes with a towering home run, his first of the campaign, and Belleville led 4-0.

The Bucs came back to score three more times in the fourth and closed out their torrid hitting attack with two extra runs in the sixth. Overall, the Bucs pounded Barringer starter Bob Nann for nine runs on 12 hits. The Bears hurt their own cause by committing four errors.

Bobby Brave, Fazzini, Joe Corbalis, Coco and Forte each chipped in with two hits. Corbalis and Forte collected doubles towards the Buc victory.

Saturday against Passaic, the Bucs had a field day, bombing the Indians by a 22-7 count. The game was more like batting practice as Belleville collected 19 hits and pitcher Roger Lentz wrapped up a very easy victory.

"I really don't like these types of games," said Zanfini. "The only good thing about it is that everyone got a chance to play. Other than that, we really don't get much out of it and the kids really can't keep up their intensity for the full seven innings."

Belleville tallied once in the first

Please see "Baseball" on page 18.

Smiling Score — Joe Corbalis finds it difficult to keep a grin off his face as he crosses the plate in last week's 7-2 victory over Our Lady of the Valley. Corbalis's run was one of 69 the Buc baseball team scored in its first six games.

Softball squad wins two; at Orange this afternoon

By Mike Lamberti

Displaying an awesome hitting attack and some strong pitching, the Belleville High softball team jumped all over Glen Ridge and Lyndhurst last week to boost its record to 4-1.

The girls were at Union on Monday and Irvington Tuesday. Today, the team will travel to Orange and on Saturday will be host to Montclair Immaculate starting at 10:30 a.m.

Carl Corino's squad was a 14-4 winner over Glen Ridge last Monday and last Saturday was a 9-2 victor over a previously undefeated Lyndhurst team. "We played real well against Lyndhurst," said Corino. "We had some timely hits and we're running the bases real well. Debbie Jinks also pitched a masterful game. It was perhaps her best game ever."

Jinks indeed has been playing very well of late. The senior hurler has a good fast ball and is working on a very effective changeup. In the Lyndhurst battle, Jinks pitched a complete game, allowing just three hits and giving up only one walk.

Jinks is not the only member of the team to be doing well. Nancy Coffey is getting better week by week. The junior third baseman is having a great year so far both at the plate and in the field. She has a strong throwing arm and is a very reliable hitter.

Kim Indiero is playing a good shortstop and is the "Willie Randolph" of the team. She gets on base at a very consistent rate and also has great speed.

Second baseman Donna Campana is hitting the ball very well these days. Her key hit with the bases loaded started the girls to the big victory over Lyndhurst.

Finally, Mona Stampe has been doing a superlative job at first base. Stampe's defense has been very strong and her knack for digging out the bad throws has helped Belleville preserve some victories.

This week's games, Corino was hoping to pitch Kathy Woods against Union, Dina DeAquino against Irvington and Angela Chimento to hurl at Orange. Debbie Mundy figured to get the starting nod against Montclair Immaculate.

"I'm going to try to use all of our pitchers this week," said Corino Sunday night. "The real tough part of our lineup is coming up pretty soon and I want to give all of our pitchers a lot of time so they'll be ready for the tough teams."

Golfers' opportunity at tournament time

Those clubbers from Belleville continue to be quite impressive. This week, the Buc golf team racked up its second victory without a setback by turning aside a good Seton Hall squad 11 1/2-6 1/2.

The team hosted Kearny Tuesday and Essex Catholic yesterday. This coming Monday, the local linksmen will battle powerful Bloomfield at Forest Hills Golf Course. They will travel to Passaic the next day.

The Bucs had to contend with both the elements and the Pony Pirates Monday. Luckily, the team managed to handle both and won a big match in the cold. "They were pretty good," said Coach Rocco Collucci speaking about Seton Hall. "They usually have a good squad and they were good competition. The Bloomfield match next week will be real big because they always have a powerful team and will be very tough for us to handle," he added.

John Pontrella and Frank Dunn both were 3-0 winners in their matches for the Bucs. Ron Wittmann was a 2 1/2-1/2 victor and Jack Mallack won his match by a 2-1 count.

Freshman Frank Wedekin lost a tough 2-1 decision and Mike Natale closed out the local entries with a 3-0 loss.

Please see "Golfers" on page 19.

Oar results are mixed

By Rich Leardo

Although the varsity and jayvee crew squads did not have good outings, the freshman and girls' teams did well enough to pick up the slack and win a majority of the races Saturday against Arlington High in New York.

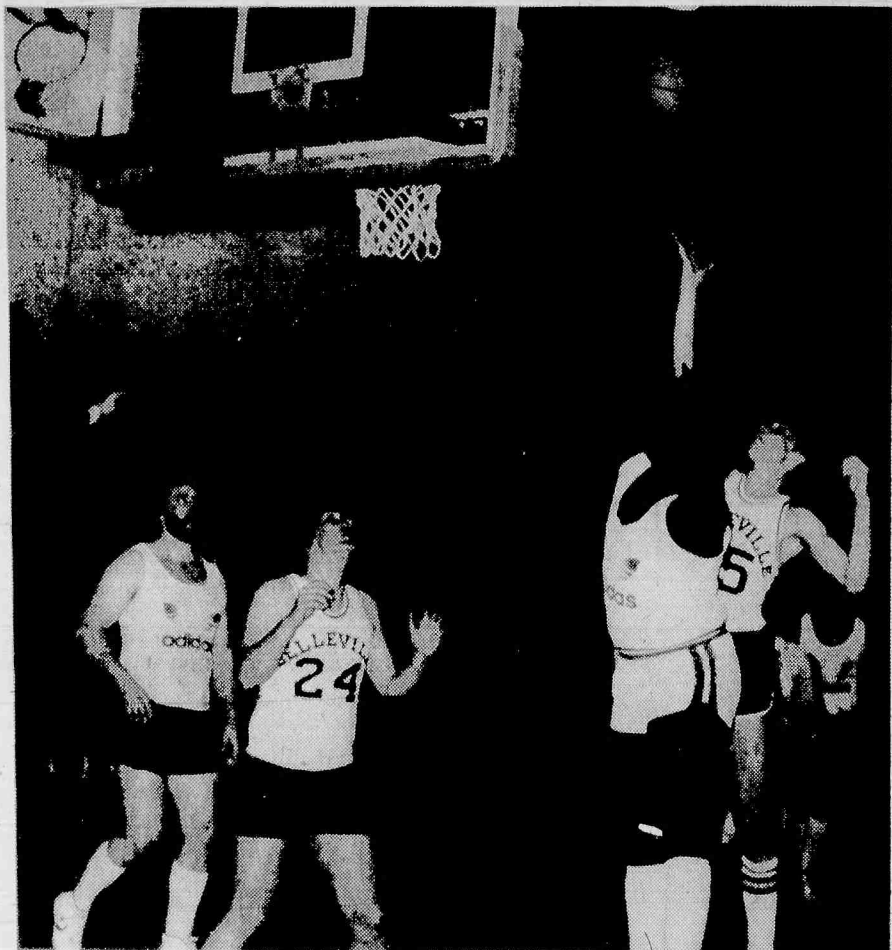

The day began with the varsity eight team losing to its Arlington counterpart by a 10-second margin. The Arlington team was bigger and more experienced than the Belleville shell, which is comprised of six juniors and two sophomores and really could be racing as a junior eight. Arlington's boat, on the other hand, was made up entirely of seniors.

Coach Sam Giuffrida was not too shaken by the defeat, realizing that the Arlington squad is one of the best on the eastern seaboard.

The jayvee eight also dropped its race with Arlington, this one by about eight seconds. Once again, the Bucs were at a disadvantage because their jayvee crew is made up of inning and collected four big runs in the second. Kenny Constantino led things off in the second with a single. Rich Valente in turn singled him to third base and Valente promptly stole second. Bobby Brave then singled home both Constantino and Valente, and Jerry Ross's one-bagger brought home Brave. Frank Fazzini then lined a triple to easily score Ross, and the Bucs had a 5-0 lead.

The locals scored two more in the third inning and put matters to rest in the fourth with six runs. Brave led off by reaching safely thanks to an error by the Indian leftfielder. Jerry Ross singled him home and Fazzini stroked another single. Phil Cerza was hit by a pitch to load the bases and Joe Corbalis walked to force in a run. Pat Forte then doubled home Ross and Fazzini and Constantino's fielder's choice drove in Cerza. Valente then singled to bring in Forte and the Buc lead was extended to 13-0.

The biggest challenge for the Bucs through the rest of the game was to stay awake long enough to hold their big lead. They did that with no problem at all, scoring six more times in the fifth inning and three times in the sixth. Passaic, meanwhile, scored twice in the fourth, once in the sixth and closed out the game with four runs in the last half of the seventh.

Lentz pitched a good game, hurling the first five innings, allowing just two runs on two hits, strikingout six and walking two. His record now stands at 2-0, the losing pitcher was Ralph Sancyk.

BUC NOTES: The hitting parade thus far is led by Fazzini who is batting at a robust .625 clip. Brave is hitting .500, Forte .474, Coco .385, Corbalis .389 and Ross at .348... The Buc pitching staff is led by Coco who is 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA. He leads the staff with 12 strikeouts... As of game six, Belleville had scored 69 runs for the season while allowing just 20. That averages out to about 11 runs per game to just over three for the opposition.

Tensfeldt playing shortstop at NJIT

Jim Tensfeldt of Belleville is a shortstop on the New Jersey Institute of Technology baseball team now in the midst of its 31-game schedule.

Tensfeldt was an outfielder last season when he led the club with a .368 average and had 17 runs batted in, scored 24 and hit two home runs. The sophomore was an outstanding infielder and pitcher for Belleville High School.

Coach Gene Schmid was expecting great things from his team this season. "I'm optimistic with the material we have here," he said. "Overall, it's the best group I've had to work with here. It's the most talent ever for the NJIT baseball program."

Schmid's club took a week-long trip to St. Petersburg, Fla., from March 13-20 and he came back liking the looks of his Highlanders. "We're good defensively," he reported, "and if we hit the ball, we'll be able to hold our own with any team on our schedule."

Local figure skater first in New Jersey

Ellen MacNeill of Belleville placed first in her division in the 18th annual New Jersey Council of Figure Skating Clubs Competition.

She won the juvenile freestyle class over 10 other 15-year-old girls April 4 at Mennen Arena in Morristown. With first-place votes from three of the five judges, Miss MacNeill narrowly edged out Patty Balbo of Wayne. Alexandra Sala, also of Wayne, finished third.

It was a satisfying win for the Belleville girl who had lost to Miss Balbo by a narrow margin two weeks before in a competition at Ice World in Totowa.

The three-day event in Morristown included skaters 8 years old through senior year in high school. Each April, all the major clubs in New Jersey send their best skaters to compete in freestyle and precision-team skating and ice-dancing classes.

Explanation of Appropriations for "Other Expenses"
The amounts appropriated under the title of "Other Expenses" are for operating costs other than "Salaries and Wages."
Some of the items included in "Other Expenses" are:
Material, supplies and nonbondable equipment.
Repairs and maintenance of buildings, equipment, roads, etc.
Contractual services for garbage and trash removal, fire hydrant service, aid to volunteer fire companies, etc.
Printing and advertising, utility services, insurance and many other items essential to the service rendered by municipal government.

The following schedule compares the components of the 1981 levy with those of 1980 for Town purposes only:

	1981	1980	1981	1980	1981	1980
	Estimated	Actual	Estimated	Actual	Estimated	Actual
For All Municipal Purposes	$4,865,099.18	$3,678,374.49	$1,186,724.69	$1,091,883.83	$1.09	$0.83

While County and School tax levies and rates cannot be accurately forecast at this time, the amounts for these purposes used in establishing the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" or the so-called "Cash Basis Overlay" conform to mandatory provisions governing the preparation of the Local Municipal Budget. The County Budget and its distributive effect on our Town has not been determined as of this date and the amount to be raised by taxation for School Purposes will not be determined until a later date. When School and County Taxes are finally determinable their effect on the 1981 tax rate will be made known to the public.

TOWN OF BELLEVILLE

After deliberations on the details of departmental requests, operating appropriations have been set at minimum levels to continue to provide needed services. In this connection it is pointed out that a substantial portion of operating expenses is determined by contractual obligations for both salary and other expense elements, over which the Governing Body had little or no control.
The Board of Commissioners urge all taxpayers to attend the hearing on the Budget for the year 1981 to be held at Town Hall on April 30, 1981. The Board of Commissioners shall be pleased to respond to any questions at that time.

The Board of Commissioners

Belleville will be part of a new 30th District

who wins his party's nomination for the June 2 primary.

Belleville officials are extremely pleased that the town is joining Nutley and other suburban Essex towns in the new 30th District. For the past decade, Belleville has been part of the present cross-river 30th which also includes East Newark, Harrison, Kearny and Secaucus in Hudson County and Newark's North Ward. With Belleville and Nutley in the new 30th are Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair and Verona.

Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore, who also serves as town Democratic chairman and has been rumored to be a possible candidate for the second assembly seat, lobbied strongly to move Belleville into a "more suburban" district.

"I was pushing for the change all along," Mrs. Senatore said. "And I am very happy with the changes. Belleville belongs in a district with other suburban communities, and not in a district which separates us by a river."

Carmen Orechio, who also serves as mayor of Nutley, was especially delighted at having Belleville in his district.

"I am very happy to have Belleville join Nutley," the senator said, "but it is something that should have happened long ago. Both towns have many similarities, with the exception of the population.

"I feel the plan was a fair one and well evaluated by the commission," Orechio continued, "and I am really not too sorry about losing Caldwell and Essex Fells since both were mainly Republican."

Monday was the last day the Reapportionment Commission could act without delaying the primary election scheduled for June 2. The plan was approved by a 6-5 vote. The five no votes were registered by the Republicans on the board, while the Democrats and a court-appointed 11th member voted in favor of the district changes.

The new 27th District will include East, West, South Orange and Orange, the North and West Wards of Newark. Republican Assemblyman Anthony Imperiale, who now represents Belleville, will move over to that district. Belleville will also lose Sen. Frank Rodgers and Assemblyman Michael Aduato, both Democrats.

Patrols can't arm, warns Chief Lister

the police arrive," Renna said at last week's association meeting.

Renna said this week's meeting with Lister went well for the most part, but added there were some points on which the association and police disagreed. Both Renna and Lister did agree that if the group stayed within the law in making its patrols, there would be no problems.

Lister said he did not feel the citizens' group was entirely appropriate, but that he could not prevent private citizens from patrolling their own neighborhood streets. He made it abundantly clear, though, that none of the patrols would be permitted to carry any type of weapon. "We don't want any vigilante acts coming out of this," the chief emphasized.

Lister concluded by saying that the association was new and that it should be given a chance. "It's too early to make any assessment of the group, so we may as well give it time," the chief said.

Smoke detector code rarely enforced here

Nearly three months after passage of a state law requiring smoke detectors in the rooms and hallways of buildings with three or more units, local officials and tenants report compliance is spotty at best and enforcement rare.

But that will soon change, according to Ralph Pfleger, chief of the state's housing bureau. "All apartment owners are being put on notice that we're going into a penalty stage...fines make people comply," said Pfleger.

The 480 dwellings in Belleville with three more more units were checked by the state in late 1980, before the law went into effect, but inspectors will soon be back to recheck the buildings which failed inspection some six months ago.

The statute required compliance by Jan. 11, but Ron Platt, president of the Belleville Organization of Tenants (BOOT), says while some landlords have begun installing detectors, most aren't even bothering since local officials don't have the authority to enforce the new law.

And Fire Chief George Sbarra agrees. His department can suggest smoke detectors be installed but can't take legal action against reluctant landlords. He said his department can cite landlords for obvious fire hazards, but lacks legal power to demand smoke detectors be installed.

Pfleger conceded local enforcement is difficult, but said landlords throughout the state are being notified by mail that fines will be imposed by state inspectors. The charges will be $50 per detector missing upon first inspection and $500 per detector missing upon second inspection.

Pfleger emphasized it's much cheaper for landlords simply to install smoke detection systems than pay fines. Detectors are required in all apartments and "common areas" like hallways and lobbies.

Platt is suggesting that local tenants who don't want to wait for any of the state's 26 housing inspectors to reinspect local dwellings write letters to their landlords giving them 30 days' notice that unless they install smoke detectors, they'll purchase their own and deduct them from their rent.

He says the New Jersey Tenants' Organization is recommending that landlords be given 30 days' notice to comply so "if he (landlord) takes you to court, I'm sure the judge will rule in favor of the tenant. Right now, they're in violation if they haven't installed detectors."

Though Pfleger wasn't sure about deducting smoke detector costs from monthly rent, he emphasized local authorities could enforce the state's smoke detector law simply by adopting it as a local ordinance—an idea no local official or tenant has yet mentioned.

Pfleger says by adopting a local smoke detector ordinance, town officials can join "a cooperative housing inspection program" in which state inspectors follow up on local inspectors' work, pressuring violators.

Tenant complaints to Pfleger's department should be written, he said. His department has lost 10 inspectors out of an original 36, due to the state's drought emergency program which has left him temporarily shorthanded.

"I don't think there's been much done to enforce this," said Platt, reached Monday. However, if Pfleger's department begins imposing fines, more smoke detectors should appear.

Two Points — Assemblyman Anthony Imperiale addresses the new Belleville Citizens' Watch Association last week. The association has become the subject of some controversy. Meanwhile, Imperiale learned this week that he would no longer be representing Belleville in the State Assembly.

Heart attack or stroke could make the best years of your life the worst.

You have loved ones, a future, good health. It could all be lost with a heart attack or stroke. And that happens. Last year, nearly one million Americans died of heart disease and stroke. And 200,000 of them died before retirement age.

The American Heart Association is fighting to reduce early death and disability from heart disease and stroke with research, professional and public education, and community service programs.

But more needs to be done.

Multiple sclerosis center runs into new zone delay

animously in August. That was because the town had stipulated in its agreement donating the Valley property that it was to be used specifically for a therapy center. The association had been anxious simply to open the building, which will cost between $250,000 and $300,000, and use it for offices and as a meeting place for patients until there was enough money to hire therapists. However, zoners felt allowing that arrangement even temporarily would violate the terms of the agreement.

The association got its therapists, though, and was ready to proceed last month. However, zoners delayed the new application again because they had only just received prints of the plans and hadn't had time to look at them.

It was at the March meeting that a new problem surfaced for the association: About 30 residents were on hand to object to the therapy center. School 9 is located across the street from the site, and residents felt the center might present a traffic hazard once it opened. They asked the Board of Education to look into the case.

Renna believes the objectors are misinformed. He points out that the center will handle only a limited number of patients at a time and that the association hopes to have a bus to carry them to and from therapy, thus eliminating most car traffic. He says the association is willing to make accommodations in its plan, though, if it can be shown they will increase safety.

Renna also says the association will gladly seat a resident of the School 9 district on its board so that community members could monitor the center operation and object directly to anything they didn't like. The association also has a long-standing offer to let community groups use the center hall for meetings and events on nights when the space was available.

Whether all this will get the center built won't be certain until after the next Zoning Board meeting May 5, and probably longer.

In other major business last Tuesday, a proposal for a two-story condominium at 416 Joralemon St. was withdrawn under heavy fire from area residents. The five-unit structure would have been located on a lot across from Garden Avenue. The applicant, Robert Dvorak of 511 Franklin Ave., made his withdrawal motion in a brief letter to the board, and did not give any reasons for his decision.

Residents objected to the plan because the condo would have been on a bend in Joralemon Street. With cars moving in and out of the lot and children coming from nearby School 7, residents felt the building would create a hazard.
