Commission introduces relaxed store closing law

By Linda Telesco

Correcting their hasty introduction of "an overly restrictive" store closing ordinance, the Board of Commissioners introduced a re-drafted measure Tuesday, altering both hours and conditions of the original form.

The new ordinance prohibits operation of retail businesses located in, adjacent to or bordering on residential zones between the hours of midnight and 5 a.m. of any day.

Exceptions include establishments serving food and/or drink for on-premises consumption or those which maintain three or fewer employees on the premises during the restricted hours.

The original draft, basically identical to the new one, curtailed operation of the same businesses from 11 p.m. to 5 a.m. regardless of night shift size.

The ordinance was proposed to reduce crime in town during the night hours, but when the commissioners first introduced the measure on June 9, they had not yet determined which or how many businesses would be affected.

As a result of observation conducted by police patrolling that shift, the commissioners and town attorney compiled a list of about 15 stores that might have been affected.

Armed with the new information, the board agreed to table the measure at the June 23 public hearing, fearing that several businesses which do not contribute to the town's disturbances would be unnecessarily penalized.

"This problem started with one business in one area of town and I don't want those who conduct an orderly store to suffer," declared Mayor Michael Marotti at last week's hearing.

Commissioner of Public Safety Matthew Pica had suggested a re-drafting that would make establishments in question "subject" to closing curfews if judged by the commission to be violating the peace and tranquility of a residential zone.

Town Attorney Frank Zinna, who drafted both forms, had cautioned Pica that failure to enforce closing hours uniformly may provoke "a myriad of legal problems."

Zinna observed that the new form, with its extended hours, probably would have minimal effect on most of the businesses pinpointed in the police survey, since few are open after midnight anyway.

One store which will be affected if Please see "Silver Lake" on page 19.

New bus schedule creates problems

Residents along Wilber Street have been flooding Town Hall with calls this past week, complaining about the recent New Jersey Transit Department bus route changes.

According to Town Clerk Mary Lou Hood, Wilber Street residents are upset that the change in the bus lines have routed the buses to travel down Wilber Street, which they feel is defacing their property.

"There have been a lot of calls to our switchboard," said Hood, "and most of the people are very upset with the buses travelling down Wilber Street. They are saying that it is a nuisance and it is also will depreciate their property."

The NJ Transit department changed its bus routes throughout Essex County starting last Saturday, in a move which was frowned upon by Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo and members of the town's Transportation Committee, which met with members of the NJT several times before the changes were instituted.

Commissioner Strumolo's office has also been swamped with calls from upset homeowners along Wilber Street which caused the commissioner to released the following statement:

"In recognition to the heavy volume of complaints being received in by both the Town Clerk and myself, regarding the faulty bus service and disturbing annoyance being experienced by local residents as result of the New Jersey Transit ordered route, schedule and increase fare change."

"Despite recommendations from my office about the effect such changes would have on the public, which were ignored, the state agency Please see "New bus" on page 19.

Festivities are planned for Fourth of July here

As many flock to the shore to escape the heat and the chaos of city life at holiday time, many other Bellevillites will stay home to experience the traditional ceremonies of the Independence Day celebration here in town.

To start the festivities Saturday the Recreation Department will hold its annual field day for youngsters ages 6 to 14 tomorrow at the Municipal Stadium, starting at 10 a.m.

The events, which are open to all young Belleville residents is divided into three age categories. There is a junior division for 6 to 8 year olds, an immediate division for 9 to 11 year olds and a senior division for the 12 to 14 year olds.

Events will include the 50 and 100 yard dashes, an agility race, a three-legged race, a sack race, a girls' relay race and a boys' tug-of-war.

All activities will be supervised by members of the Belleville Recreation playground staff under the direction of Steven Dondarski. Trophies will be awarded to the winners and all will share in slices of watermelon.

Rain date for the field day activities will be Monday, July 6.

On Saturday, July 4, a spectacular fireworks display will be presented at the stadium starting at sundown. Rain date for fireworks is Sunday, July 5.

In all, it promises to be an exciting weekend and Bellevillites young and old are invited to share in the glitter of our country's historic day.

Refuse strike leaves town without service

By Ed Capparucci

Since negotiation for settlement of the garbage strike fell through Tuesday night, Belleville officials are wondering how they will comply with Gov. Brendan Byrne's executive order making towns responsible for garbage removal.

Negotiations for settlement of the garbage strike went down to the wire Tuesday night, but the New Jersey Municipal Contractors Association and the Teamsters who collect the garbage could come not to an agreement of terms, thus hitting Northern New Jersey with its first garbage strike in more than a decade.

Residents of Belleville like many others in towns throughout the state are wondering how they will dispose of their garbage should the strike drag on.

On Tuesday night final negotiations for ratification of the teamsters contract, which expired midnight, fell through, leaving little hope for a speedy settlement.

Without the teamsters, there will be no garbage pick-up, except by local town employees due to the governor's issue of executive order, which force the towns to take over the garbage collection until a settlement can be reached. The order also makes residents separate their garbage into glass, cans, newspapers and food. The state hopes that by separating the garbage it will make it easier for towns to make pick-ups.

But the situation does not end then. Even when the Belleville Public Works Department starts to remove the garbage the question will be, "Where will they put it?" Workers at the landfill dumping sites, have said that they will honor the picket lines set-up by the teamsters, therefore leaving no place to dispose of the trash.

Vote July 21 on change from town to township

By Linda Telesco

"What's in a name...a rose by any other name would smell as sweet," said Juliet to Romeo, unaware of municipal machinery.

And with the change of a name the Town of Belleville could smell a lot sweeter.

The Town of Belleville by the name Township of Belleville "stands to gain over $400,000 annually from the state in revenue sharing," said Mayor Michael Marotti to the assembly at last week's commission meeting.

Armed with a survey of public opinion, the commissioners designated July 21 as a special election day when Belleville voters can vote "Yes" or "No" to the question, "Should the Town of Belleville become the Township of Belleville?"

On that same day, Bloomfield voters will also answer the same question at their polls, following the lead of several other towns that changed designation upon learning of a legal quirk that entitles townships to additional revenues yearly.

When the news reached Belleville nearly a year ago, the commission and Town Attorney Frank Zinna investigated the implications of the change. According to Zinna, "There are no apparent drawbacks to the township status and the added monies provide a great advantage." Zinna added that other than the eligibility for the funds, no other important distinctions between the designations have been discovered.

In April, Belleville mailed its 17,000 registered voters survey cards asking if they would favor putting the question on the ballot. "A large majority responded affirmatively," said town clerk Mary Lou Hood, who noted that only a single negative response came in on an unsigned card.

The commissioners put $8,000 in the budget to cover the cost of the Please see "Vote" on page 3.

Fire hydrants being flushed this summer

Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore announced that the town will be flushing all fire hydrants on Friday and Saturday nights between 11 p.m. and 1 a.m. throughout the summer, in an effort to clean up the town's water.

The Public Works Department has been receiving numerous complaints in recent weeks over the condition of the water which at times gives off a light brown color.

"I just want to advise residents that we will be working this summer to get the water clean," Commissioner Senatore said. "We have had many complaints about the condition of the water and we are going to make every effort to finish the job by the end of the summer."

Senatore said the water will be discolored during the hours of flushing and advises all residents to not use the water then if possible.

"We decided to do the flushing late at night so that it is not a great inconvenience to residents," Senatore said. "I advise that everyone take their showers earlier, at least for the rest of the summer."

Local insurance agent attends sales seminars

Belleville resident Helen A. Guster, a Metropolitan Life Insurance Company agent, was among the anticipated 5,500 members of the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT) which gathered in New York City June 21 to June 25.

Members of this exclusive life insurance sales association attended the organization's 54th annual meeting in which 39 countries around the world were represented, making the MDRT meeting the most comprehensive sales forum in the life insurance industry today.

During the five-day meeting, more than 75 professional speakers discussed subjects of vital concern to those in the life insurance field. Experts in such areas as estate planning, taxes, inflation and law will shared with members their knowledge in the series of intense seminars.

Truck supervisor on job 42nd year

Emmanuel Rose of Belleville is celebrating his 42nd anniversary this month with Chester Jackson Tank Lines in Kearny. During his more than four decades with that company, "Manny" has developed a better perspective on the industry than "BJ and the Bear" ever could have.

In 1939 when the 20-year-old Rose started working for Jackson driving a 10-wheeler, the company's founder ran the nine-truck operation with the help of his wife and a few drivers.

Today Rose is the safety supervisor for an operation that has changed dramatically since 1939. The company is now owned by Chester's grandson and operates a fleet of 75 sophisticated bulk liquid chemical tanks which deliver throughout the Middle Atlantic and New England states.

Rose is responsible for the safety and security of all hazardous chemical shipments. His job includes spot checking all loading and unloading sites to insure that Chester Jackson drivers are wearing proper gear and adhering to the company's safety procedures and that the client's facilities are properly equipped for any emergency.

"There just aren't any shortcuts when it comes to handling hazardous materials and wastes," Rose said. "Sometimes it may seem like there's an easier, faster way to handle something, but when you weigh the risks you find that you would really be taking a senseless chance instead of finding a shortcut."

Company officials accept or reject new business on the basis of the inspection Rose makes of the potential client's plant site.

During Rose's limited free time, he is involved in a number of community activities. He is serving his ninth term as president of the guard of honor at St. Peter's Church and is a member of the Belleville Knights of Columbus and the Belleville and Kearny Chambers of Commerce.

Cable contract to Totowa firm

UA Columbia Cablevision of New Jersey has awarded Cable TV Advertising Associates, Inc., Route 46, Totowa, contractual rights for sale of all commercial time to advertisers on its New Jersey system.

In making the announcement, John Kerr, Cable TV Advertising Associates president, said the agreement with UA-Columbia includes exclusive representation of all live Madison Square Garden sports events, local origination programs, the "Super Bingo" show and selected special events telecasts.

"We are pleased to represent commercial time sales for one of the largest cable systems in the state and nation," Kerr said. "We look forward to offering regional advertisers the opportunity to place their commercial messages before UA-Columbia's 350,000 viewers in 53 cities and towns in four North Jersey counties," he added.

In addition, the new agency also has agreements to offer advertisers commercial time on Cable News Network, the Atlanta-based, 24-hour-a-day news operation founded by Ted Turner, which has entered its second year of successful operation. Kerr said that local spots available through his firm will reach 750,000 viewers on both UA-Columbia and Suburban Cablevision which serves Essex County.

The Totowa firm also represents advertising for "Cable TV Program," a bi-weekly TV guide published in Ohio and read each week by over 87,000 UA-Columbia New Jersey subscribers.

Cable TV Advertising Associates, Inc., is headed by Kerr and William Shagawat, who formerly held advertising and sales executive positions with UA-Columbia Television.

Local woman strangled, found at shopping mall

A young Belleville housewife was found murdered in Willowbrook shopping mall last Monday, and Wayne police say they are still puzzled in their investigation.

Candice Short, 24, of Joralemon Gardens, was found strangled, beaten and stabbed in the front seat of her 1970 Oldsmobile by her husband, John and father, Fred Austin, who went looking for her when she failed to return home that night.

Police say that John Short and his father-in-law were concerned about the young woman when she didn't return after leaving for the mall at 7 p.m. They proceeded to the mall where they spotted her car parked in the Sear's store parking lot. Her husband smashed the window of the locked vehicle with a tire iron and found his wife lying on the floor of the front seat.

Mrs. Short, who is the mother of a two-year-old girl, was a graduate of Belleville High School in 1975. She died from manual strangulation according to the Passaic County medical examiner who performed the autopsy early Tuesday morning.

She suffered a four-inch deep stab wound in her left breast, a black eye and bruises to her shoulder and chest. Police say that the stab wound was caused by a small screwdriver or ice pick, but no weapon was found in the area.

Police ruled out robbery as a motive because Mrs. Short's diamond ring and pocketbook were still in the car when she was found. Captain Donald Pavlak, who is supervising the investigation, said that relatives and acquaintances of the victim are being interviewed to try and retrace her steps the night of the murder.

Mrs. Short was last seen when she left her daughter at her sister's house at about 7 p.m. on June 22 and headed for the mall located on Route 46. According to the autopsy she was dead two to four hours before her body was found.

Mrs. Short, who was known as "Candy" by her friends, was a 1975 graduate of Belleville High School.

Wayne police have asked anyone with information to call a special number which has been set up, 694-3288. All calls will remain confidential.

Teens hurt in gang fight

Two Belleville teenagers were in the hospital early this week listed in serious condition following a gang rumble which took place in Clifton early Saturday morning.

Dominick De Filippes, 21, and Allan Curid, 25, both of Roosevelt Avenue were admitted to St. Mary's Hospital in Orange with head wounds suffered in the brawl. Hospital officials say that Filippes sustained a fractured skull and is in critical condition, while Curid, who suffered multiple head wounds, was listed as satisfactory.

Passaic police have arrested one 19-year-old man and are looking for another in connection with the incident.

The young man, who lives in Passaic was charged with two counts of aggravated assault and two counts of possession with a dangerous weapon for unlawful purpose.

The trouble began at about 2 a.m. in a Clifton tavern when words were exchanged between the youths and they moved out into the parking lot to "settle it." Clifton police responded quickly to the scene following complaints by patrons of the bar, and broke up the fight. By the time police arrived, most of the youths were gone, and the rest were told to move on.

According to witnesses the kids from Clifton and Passaic left the parking lot, but were followed by the youths from Belleville and Nutley in two other cars.

The youths collided again at Benson Court in Passaic's Third Ward and the second battle was on.

By the time Passaic police arrived on the scene, many of the youth had fled. Witnesses said that the youths used tire irons, baseball bats and sticks to fight with. They also said that several young women also participated in the fight swinging at one another.

The Passaic man arrested was one of the youths who fled from the scene, but he later gave himself up to police. He was held in Passaic County Jail on $25,000 bail.

Passaic police say they do not know what caused the fight, but were investigating the incident. They also plan to make the second arrest soon.

If voters bring their support for the change to the polls this month, Mayor Marotti plans to use the additional funds to lower the local tax points. "The only problem I can foresee," said Marotti, "is that if more towns decide to change, the money in the pot will decrease and our portion might shrink."

In recent years the town of West Orange, Montclair, Maplewood and Fairfield have all changed to townships to cash in on the additional monies.

Prayer for today

To you I lift up my eyes who are enthroned in heaven.
Behold, as the eyes of the servants are on the hands of their masters, as the eyes of a maid are on the hands of her mistress.
So are our eyes on the Lord, our God, till he have pity on us.
Have pity on us, O Lord, have pity on us, for we are more than sated with contempt.
Our souls are more than sated with the mockery of the arrogant, with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 122: 1-4

Brendan Byrne

The New Jersey Sports Authority gave Brendan Byrne's name to the new indoor arena. There is mumbling and grumbling from Republicans and Democrats alike over the action. The opponents claim that Brendan Byrne should not be so honored, that the sports arena should be named in honor of veterans or anyone else but Brendan Byrne.

When Brendan Byrne became Governor in 1974, the Sports Commission was on the drawing board. The Cahill administration put the project together but it failed in one dimension — financing. Brendan Byrne was instrumental in obtaining a five bank joint venture — all New Jersey banks by the way — which ultimately put the money up to build the structures and that gave birth to the Meadowlands Authority.

Should Brendan Byrne's name be on the Sports Arena? Yes. Brendan Byrne has been an incorruptible Governor. He has performed his job reasonably well. Could he have done better? Maybe. Could his name be remembered on the front of the Sports Arena? Yes — a thousand times yes — Brendan Byrne is a decent man, well motivated, not perfect, but dedicated to his job in the state. He has served us well and he certainly is entitled to this little bit of recognition for eight years of sometimes painful duty.

School 8

Involuntary teacher transfers have been recommended at School 8. Parents of students attending the school have complained over the possible disruption of six cases involving the transfer of three experienced lower grade teachers into higher grades, placing new staff members in formative grades, thus creating an atmosphere not conducive to teaching or learning.

Parents gave high marks to the teachers involved. School Principal Arthur Pico defends the transfer expressing the view that the changes would make a good school even better. Pico observed "Administrative decisions must be respected if we are to service a total program for your children." Pico agreed with the parents as to the excellence of the teachers involved. Pico says that is the reason why he recommended the changes. Arthur Pico makes sense — but the other side of the coin suggests to us that leaving the teachers in the class they now instruct makes just as much sense. Put new teachers in the vacancies and leave the teachers where they now are. Try it — the school board may like it.

Joseph Lordi

This week marks the retirement of New Jersey Casino Commission Chairman Joseph Lordi from the post he has held since the inception of casino gambling in New Jersey.

Lordi previously served with distinction as Essex County prosecutor for many years. As a member of the New Jersey Casino Commission, Joseph Lordi practically created the tremendous industry which is now flourishing in Atlantic City all to the benefit of the State of New Jersey and its people.

Lordi's retirement affords him the opportunity to begin a new career. An attorney, Lordi is expected to go back to the practice of law, but his experience in public life is a quality that should not keep him out of public office for long.

Throughout his public life, Lordi has performed his duties with integrity and excellence. The casino industry is always exposed to influence of the wrong kind. Lordi saw to it that the Commission work was performed in a manner which brought credit to the State of New Jersey.

Belleville court mishandled postponement of fight case

To the Editor:

There were surprised, annoyed and disappointed members of the fourth estate at last week's session of the Belleville Municipal Court when they learned that the scheduled case of assault and battery involving former School Board President Ernest Zoppi, his son Ernest III, and commission candidate and town critic Joseph Fornarotto was not to be heard, but, rather had been postponed and rescheduled for hearing before Nutley Magistrate Robert Citrino at the Nutley Municipal court 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 29.

The charges filed resulted from a fight at the Belleville Board of Education office after the March 23 meeting at which a caustic exchange of words between Zoppi and Fornarotto resulted because the board president refused to allow the critic to speak, although he persisted in doing so. Why will four months have elapsed before this case is heard? Justice delayed is justice denied.

The May 7 hearing on the case before Belleville Judge Edward Abromson was not heard when the local magistrate disqualified himself because of his association with two of the three defendants and several witnesses, including Mayor Michael Marotti.

A few days after the hearing, Judge Abromson indicated that Nutley Magistrate Robert Citrino would be assigned to hear the case. The case was scheduled for last Thursday morning in Belleville Municipal Court and no notification was given to the news media that it had been changed.

The Star-Ledger, Belleville Times and The Telegram had their reporters there last Thursday with the Passaic Herald News hanging in with "wire reports" on the outcome. Not only were these newspapers subjected to needless expense and the inconvenience of their reporters taking away from other assignments, but, most significantly were their readers denied the information that they might have gotten from these publications had they been notified in advance of the rescheduling of this hearing. How many, keenly interested in this case, might have been spared an unnecessary trip to Town Hall were they given the opportunity to have been advised, in advance, through their daily and weekly newspapers of the hearing date change?

Then, too, we might inquire, why should there be a change in venue in the place of hearing? Although there may be precedent for such a change, would it not be preferable to have the case heard in the town, as had so often been the past practice, where the crime or violation was perpetrated?

Previously, when the local magistrate was unable to preside or disqualified himself, as in this particular case, another magistrate would preside at the local court of the community in which the alleged offense had been committed. What justifiable reason is there to have this purely Belleville case moved to another town to be heard? We think it should be heard in Belleville, if at all.

Furthermore, we deferentially suggest that all further cases involving the local municipal court's postponements or changes in venue of highly publicly significant cases, such as the Zoppi vs. Fornarotto trial, be made known to the news media in sufficient time for them to notify their readers before the originally scheduled hearing date.

Had this been done, the oversight last week might well have been obviated.

Writer judged hastily in letter on stabbing

To the Editor:

Richard Ottenstroer Jr. begs the question in his letter to the editor dated June 18 asking for justice. By his own admission, his opinion was formulated on hearsay, rather than facts. He then proceeds with his character assassination of the "person" who stabbed Paul Scheuplein. He goes on to say, "he is said to have a lengthy criminal record, this was not this person's first crime. What became of justice? What became of his penalties?"

Did Richard condemn the "individual" without bothering to check and separate facts from fiction? If there were no previous crimes, there would not be previous penalties. I'm sure, if the time were taken, he would not be able to substantiate any charges of "a rather lengthy criminal record, highlighted by numerous assaults."

We can all be thankful Richard is not a judge. By his standards, he would be judge and juror. Without regard for the individual's rights under due process of the law, there would be no justice, only condemnation.

Principal faulted on fire alarm bell

To the Editor:

It was no surprise to hear that the automatic fire bell had been turned off at the Junior High due to a rash of false alarms before the real thing which occurred there last week. This is a typical DiMaggio move to turn your back and hope it will go away. Instead of getting to the root of any problem, this is what he does and it's been going on too long.

Thank God this didn't turn into a real tragedy. Mr. DiMaggio shouldn't be around children, what are we waiting for? Next time we might not be as lucky.

Senior Notes

By George Chenoweth

The newly elected officers of the Senior Citizens' Social Club of Belleville were sworn in by Mayor Michael Marotti at the Senior Recreation Center Friday, June 5. Inducted into office were Margaret L. Basso, president; Harry Reynolds, first vice president; Betty Barf, second vice president; Ann Buonopane, treasurer; Theresa Leonardis, recording secretary; Helen Heizenreder, corresponding secretary; Sally Hood, parliamentarian; Nicholas Mauncele, sergeant-at-arms, and Thomas Basso, John Vaccari and Josephine Melinara, trustees.

The Belleville Senior Citizens' Club officers were also sworn in by Mayor Marotti Tuesday, June 23. They are George Chenoweth, president; Joseph Restaino, first vice president; Josephine Strumolo, second vice president; Della Jackrell, recording secretary; Jean Torremeo, corresponding secretary; Anthony Giampietro, treasurer; Anthony Araniecke, parliamentarian; Nicholas Mauncele, sergeant-at-arms, and Mary D'Armiento, Eunice Conover and Al Walker, trustees.

For you seniors who do not belong to a group, there are opportunities galore waiting for you, should you care to join. Most clubs meet once a week, some monthly. The group in the park, sponsored by the Essex County Park Commission, meets Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at the Pink House on Belleville Avenue. The Seniors' Social Club, mentioned above, meets Fridays at the Senior Recreation Center on Mill Street at Franklin Avenue. The Belleville Senior Citizens' Club meets at the same place Tuesdays. There is the Retired Men's Club that meets Wednesday mornings at Fewsmith Church and the Old Guard of Belleville that meets at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Bridge Street the first and third Tuesdays of the month in the a.m. The AARP holds a meeting on the first Thursday of every month also at Fewsmith Church and there is a group of seniors meeting at the Dutch Reformed Church on Main Street.

So you see, seniors, there is no excuse for you not to belong to at least one of these clubs. The opportunities are there for, first of all, good fellowship that could dispel that feeling of loneliness if you choose to give it half a chance. There are trips that some of us could not afford if we were to go individually. The trips include such desirable places as the Catskills in New York State, Wildwood Crest in the spring and fall, the Bahamas and even Hawaii. Radio City Music Hall and ballgames (if they start up again) have proven popular in the past, and so have one-day trips to Pennsylvania Dutch Country, Atlantic City and boat trips up the Hudson River. There is no reason to stay home by oneself — get going and enjoy the fun!

Most of the organizations in town have access to information regarding the welfare of senior citizens through an information and referral service. Do you have a problem? Contact one of your centers and if it doesn't have an immediate answer to your dilemma, it can get the solution for you through our town health department, the New Jersey Federation or the Essex County Division on Aging. They are there to help you.

Pica Association picks its officers for '81-82

The Matthew A. Pica Civic and Welfare Association has elected officers for 1981-82 year. Len Gianette is the organization's new president.

The rest of the slate installed last week includes Joe Santiglia, vice president; Grace Purdue, secretary; Madeline Fratella, corresponding secretary; John DiStasi, treasurer; John Frade, sergeant-at-arms, and Phil Linfante, Joseph Del Guercio, Roger Hanos, Blanche Daley and Mary Baldwin, trustees.

Also elected were committee chairmen. They are Bridget-DiStasi, achievement award; Phil Linfante Jr., constitution and bylaws; Joyce Frade, fund-raising; Michael Nardello, grant screening; Sam Pica Sr., historian; Margarita Pica, hospitality; Betty Barr, membership; Don Monica, program; Blanche Daley, publicity, and Joe Santiglia, raffle.

Shapiro moves to oust Greco from center post

It looks as though the Shapiro Administration will win its battle with Roger Greco, medical director of the Essex County Geriatrics Center, and force the 69-year-old doctor to retire in August.

Greco, who will be 70 next month, received a letter from County Administrator Daniel Boggan Jr. June 18 saying that he would be replaced.

County Executive Shapiro denied earlier last month that he was trying to force Greco out, but the letter said the medical director would be replaced before the end of the summer. His term is scheduled to run until December 1982.

"The care of the residents at the Geriatrics Center is a real concern to which we should be addressing our energies," Boggan wrote in his letter to Greco. "While your effort to maintain a high level of services to the patients is admirable, it is not acceptable that others who are responsible have not been required by you to maintain that level of service."

Greco has admitted in the past to problems he has encountered in managing the medical staff at the center.

The County Board of Freeholders has given Greco its full support since the rumors of his pending dismissal surfaced a few months ago.

"The Board of Freeholders held a meeting a few weeks ago and we have given Dr. Greco our full endorsement," said Freeholder Jerome Greco (no relation.) "The man has given years of dedicated service to the county and desires to serve out his full term. He is still very useful to the county."

Greco has expressed a strong desire to remain on at the center where he has served for more than 40 years. Over recent weeks, many patients and their families have expressed anger over the possible dismissal of the doctor. The Board of Freeholders has received many complaints about the dismissal and letters of support from patients and relatives for Greco.

"At the meeting there were family members from the Geriatrics Center protesting the ouster of Dr. Greco," Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato said, "and we agreed with them 100 percent that the doctor should be kept on at the center until he is ready to retire."

Shapiro would not comment on the dispute, but it was only two weeks ago that he said he would not attempt to remove Greco from his post.

"I am in no way trying to get Dr. Greco to retire," Shapiro said, "and even if I wanted him to retire, I would not have to force him, I could fire him."

Woman's Club wins honors for quilting

The Woman's Club of Belleville has won the first-place award for quilting at both the state and Eighth District levels. The honors go to the club's American home department under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Wallace and to Mrs. James Ferraro who spent many hours completing the quilt.

The hand-sewn quilt is an original design, reversible, with one side in pastel colors and the other in autumn shades. The club's first-place finish at the district level qualified the quilt for judging at the New Jersey State Federation of Woman's Clubs convention held at Great Gorge May 5-7.

Six members of the local club attended the convention. They were Mrs. Chancy Keeney, president; Frances Zeiss, recording secretary; Mrs. Wallace and her sister, Louise Kacubski, Mrs. W. Douglas Clark of the fine arts department and Ruth Hogan, federation secretary and the club's first vice president. Several other members of the club stayed for the day May 6.

Mrs. Keeney and her chairmen gave their reports at the club's annual luncheon May 20.

Beth Rovell and Christopher Kondreck

Beth Rovell will marry Christopher Kondreck

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rovell of Belleville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beth, to Christopher Kondreck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kondreck, also of Belleville.

Miss Rovell, a graduate of Belleville High School and Essex County College, is a physical therapist assistant.

Mr. Kondreck, a graduate of Essex Catholic High and Rutgers University, is a Belleville police officer.

A May 1982 wedding is planned.

Essex Legion Auxiliary installs '81-82 officers

The Essex County convention of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the White Eagle Manor in Bloomfield June 20.

The gathering was opened by the convention chairman, Alma Wilson of Unit 152. The chairman then presented the gavel to the honorary chairman, Essex County President Marie Scalercio, who conducted the business of the meeting. Chairmen of various committees then presented awards for outstanding performance during the 1980-81 chapter year. The meeting also included a memorial service under the direction of Chaplain Maryanne Young of Unit 73.

The Essex Auxiliary entertained Department of New Jersey President Carmella Voza and her officers who installed new county officers for 1981-82. The new officers are Rita Moore of Unit 190, president; Alfreida Evans of Unit 152, first vice president; Stella Marone of Unit 319, second vice president; Betty Doeffinger of Nutley Unit 70, treasurer; Rose Petti of Belleville Unit 105, historian; Florence DeAngelis of Belleville Unit 299, recording secretary; Dolores Howard of Unit 73, corresponding secretary; Cecelia Ohnmacht of Unit 299, chaplain; Rose Grisby of Unit 16, sergeant-at-arms, and Jean Anello of Unit 382, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

PREVENTING SPORTS INJURIES

No one would think of playing tackle football without wearing shoulder pads and a helmet. Yet, far too many youngsters play contact sports, without wearing protection for their mouths. This results in all too many cases of split lips, broken, chipped and knocked out teeth. For example, fifty two percent of all football injuries occur in unprotected faces and mouths.

The best way to prevent all this mouth damage, is to wear a mouth protector. Bars across football helmets don't do the same job. They don't protect the teeth and jaws from an upward blow on the chin - only from a blow straight against the face. Dental injuries to football players wearing proper mouth protectors have been almost completely eliminated. Most old-style mouthguards, such as those we see boxers using, are not very easy to wear because they are bulky. Talking is just about impossible. Many players prefer to talk and be comfortable and risk the chance of injury rather than wear one. However, a modern mouthguard, made to an accurate model of a boy's mouth doesn't interfere with mouth breathing, stays in place when the mouth is opened, allows clear speech and is comfortable.

Tri-Town Women award scholarships to students

The Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley honored six area high school students during its May dinner meeting held at the Branch Brook Manor.

Each year the club raises funds and awards scholarships to one girl from each of the three high schools, Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley. One girl from each school also received a $100 bond for typing proficiency. The individual scholarship awards this year were $350.

The scholarship winner from Belleville was Lisa Sisbarro of 206 Passaic Ave., daughter of Henry and Gloria Sisbarro. She has three brothers, Fred, Dennis and Henry Jr. She has been an Avon sales representative and her career goal is to be a business executive. She has not chosen a college. At BHS, Lisa was a member of the varsity crew team, Key Club, National Honor Society, Spanish and Ski Clubs. She was also a vice president of the Student Government Organization and captain of the flag twirling squad.

The typing proficiency award for Belleville went to Paula Casale, daughter of Emil and Lee Casale of 210 Brighton Ave. Miss Casale has a sister, Marilyn DeRogatis, and a brother, John. She plans to attend Montclair State and major in accounting. She works part time as a typist for Michael Iacangelo. At BHS she was a twirler, member of the Key Club, student government and student council.

The awards program chairman is Elsie Ciccone of Nutley. Her committee include Ruth Williamson and Toni Marone of Belleville, Frances Foley, Hazel White and Marion Hansen of Bloomfield and Ruth Bedford, Helene Matt, Margaret Mostica and Nancy LaBruzza of Nutley. The committee chose the scholarship winners from 81 entries.

Miss Ciccone thanked the business education teachers from the three schools who conducted the typing contests in which 90 students participated. The teachers were Michael Mussmanno of Belleville, Richard Stout of Bloomfield and Ronald Barker of Nutley.

John McTiernan, 52; Obituaries bank vice president Edythe L. Woodman; was food salesman Robert W. Beck, 67;

Donald Polk; accountant

A Mass was offered Friday in St. Thomas the Apostle Church, Bloomfield, for John McTiernan, 52, who died June 23 in Middlesex General Hospital, New Brunswick.

Mr. McTiernan was assistant vice president of Heritage Bank North, Cedar Knolls. He was an Army veteran of the Korean Conflict.

Born in Belleville, Mr. McTiernan lived in Lyndhurst before moving to Old Bridge 22 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Irene; two sons, David and James; two daughters, the Misses Jacqueline and Lorraine; a brother, James; and two sisters, Mrs. Claire Boyce and Miss Marion.

The Rezem Funeral Home, East Brunswick, made arrangements. Interment was in Holy Cross Burial Park, South Brunswick.

Anthony DiMeo; mail handler, 59

A Mass was offered Tuesday in St. Anthony's Church for Anthony DiMeo, 59, who died Friday at Columbus Hospital, Newark.

Mr. DiMeo was a mail handler with the Newark Post Office for 13 years. An Army veteran of World War II, he was a member of the Barbone Mosco Post of Belleville.

Surviving are his wife, Theresa; a son, Philip of Belleville; a daughter, Mrs. Anna Volpe of Belleville; his mother, Mrs. Anna DiMeo; a brother, Peter of Florida, and three grandchildren.

The LaMonica Memorial Home, Bloomfield, made arrangements. Interment was in Glendale Cemetery, Bloomfield.

Carmello Torre; truck driver, 72

A Mass was offered Saturday in St. Matthew's Church, Edison, for Carmello Torre, 72, who died June 25 at Community Memorial Hospital, Toms River.

Mr. Torre was a truck driver for the Asa Duckworth Company, Newark, 25 years before retiring 10 years ago. He was a member of Belleville Elks Lodge 1123.

Born in New York City, Mr. Torre moved from Bloomfield to Toms River 10 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Mary; a son, Arnold; three brothers, Joseph, Rosario and Santa Mecca; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Beardsford and Mrs. Stella Vietiello, and two grandchildren.

The Koyen Funeral Home, Metuchen, made arrangements.

Carmela Cuccolo; Mass on Monday

A Mass was offered Monday in Immaculate Conception Church, Newark, for Carmela Cuccolo, 61, who died Saturday at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Born in Newark, Mrs. Cuccolo lived in Belleville for 15 years.

Surviving are her husband, Isadore; three daughters, Mrs. Marie DeMarzo, Mrs. Patricia Montagna and Miss Carol; a son, Richard; four sisters, Mrs. Madeline Garofolo, Mrs. Josephine Faenbaker, Mrs. Ann Valpone and Mrs. Dolores Mongrella; three brothers, Gerard, Rocco and Albert Zara, and 10 grandchildren.

The Biondi Funeral Home made arrangements.

GRAND UNION

For your food shopping convenience

All Stores OPEN Saturday, July 4th

Check your local Grand Union for exact hours.

DOUBLE COUPONS!

All this week in Belleville & No. Arlington

OFFER EXPIRES SATURDAY, JULY 4

Now, any manufacturer's "cents off" coupon (on brands and sizes we carry) will be redeemed for double savings. For example, if the coupon gives you 50¢ off, Grand Union gives you double value or 1.00 off. (Because of the current market conditions on the supply of coffee, and to insure every customer a fair share, we are limiting our double coupon coffee redemptions to one container of coffee per shopping family. Coupons for additional coffee purchases will be redeemed at face value.) This offer does not apply to Grand Union, or free, or any retailer coupons, or where the total will exceed the price of the item. (Cigarette and milk coupons prohibited by law)

Summerfun's 'Mr. Roberts' does not match the original

When one thinks of "Mr. Roberts" what comes to mind are the images of Henry Fonda, James Cagney, Jack Lemmon and the Academy Award winning movie. Together the group is a hard combination to beat, and very few, if any, theater groups could even put together a near respectful version of the World War II comedy. But the Summerfun Theater Group did the best job possible with its presentation at Montclair State College last week.

Under the direction of Joseph Long the play moved along quickly and smoothly. But at times it was hard to keep from judging the actors in the Summerfun production from the original in the classic movie, but perhaps it added a new dimension to the play.

Michael Folie, who played the Captain turned in the most dramatic performance of the entire cast, and seemed to be the only one to slip away from the movie version. His portrayal of the man hated by his entire crew was delightful.

Bruce McKillip, who played Mr. Roberts, not only acted like Henry Fonda, but looked a little like him also. It was hard not to feel as though you were watching the movie.

And Robert Beuth, who looks nothing like Jack Lemmon, turned in a strong performance as the frenetic Ensign Pulver.

Long did an excellent job maneuvering the actors about the small college stage, while still giving the effect of a ship at sea and in port. His direction added depth and reality to the one set which was used throughout the entire production. You could almost smell the salt air, and feel the heat of the sun as the men worked loading cargo aboard the ship.

But more importantly than the stage construction, Long kept the actors unified as a crew, instead of individual actors.

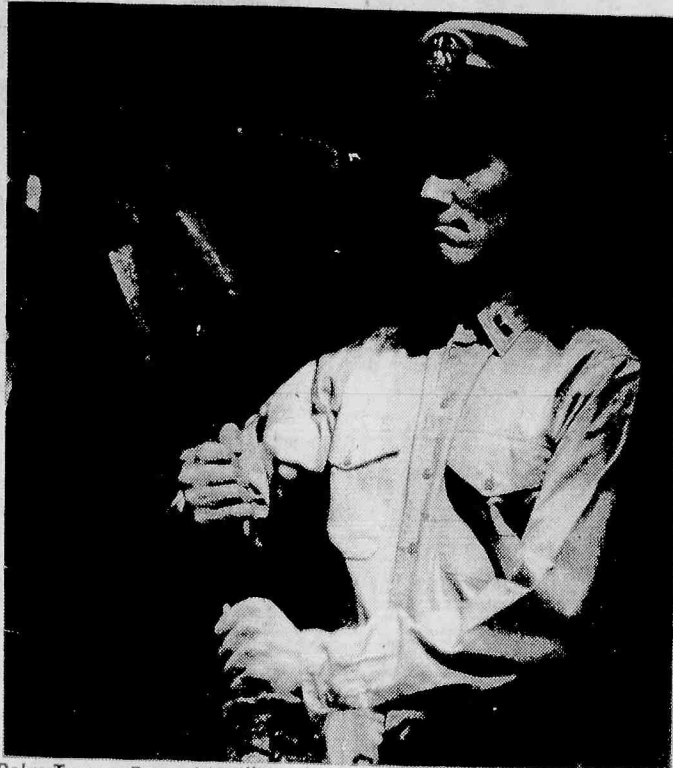

Beuth seemed to have the role of Ensign Pulver born within him, as he made his comedy antics visible whenever he appeared on stage. And McKillip with his easy-going and strong portrayal of Mr. Roberts, may have captured the hearts of the audience, but it was the performance of Folie as the captain which left the audience applauding for more. His strong performance throughout the play left a cold feeling on everyone. His undesirable love for his palm tree given to him for by an admiral for having the best cargo crew in the south Pacific seems unnatural for a man who cannot generate love or emotion to other human beings, but can find compassion for a plant.

"Mr. Roberts" is about a lieutenant and his efforts to be transferred from a cargo ship to a battle ship where he hopes to see soon war action and feels he could be of more use. But it is the captain, who knows how much Roberts means to the crew, who continually denies not only the transfer, but liberty and movies right to the entire crew.

As Mr. Roberts, McKillip displayed strong authority as well as respect from his men, who cannot understand his desire to fight in the war.

While the play, like the movie lacks the true character depth, it does give the audience at least a little view of two of the major characters — Roberts and Pulver. But it is not really enough to get the audience involved with the characters, and instead keeps them looking for the comedy antics.

While nothing will ever top the Academy Award winning performance given by the actors in the movie, the Summerfun Theater came oh so close.

Palm Tree — Bruce McKillip as Mister Roberts takes matters in hand as he throws over the Captain's despised palm tree in a scene from 'Mister Roberts' which was presented at the Summerfun Theater at Montclair State College last week.

Nutley Little Theater officers elected; shows for new season are announced

With the election of officers and the announcement of its coming season of production, the Nutley Little Theatre is gearing up for its 47th year as one of New Jersey's outstanding community theatre groups.

Victoria Chalk Little of Montclair was elected president of the local organization, and was sworn in at the group's monthly meeting, held June 26. Also elected were Linda A. DeSimon, Nutley, as vice president; Gretchen Kanter, Paterson, as secretary; Mary Tiene, Nutley, as treasurer, and Gail Rog of Wallington and Robert McCormick of Nutley as members-at-large.

The Little Theatre will once again offer free acting classes this summer. The free eight week course will commence in July.

The beginners acting class will be offered on Mondays starting July 6. Class will be in session every Monday from 8 to 10 p.m.. No previous experience is required, just a desire to learn. The advanced class will be offered on Wednesdays starting July 8. Class will be in session every Wednesday from 8 to 10 p.m. Previous study with the Nutley Little Theatre is a requirement for admission to the advanced class.

For more information, and to register for the classes, contact instructor John Loan at 667-2319 evenings.

All classes will be held at the Nutley Little Theatre "Barn," 47 Erie Place, Nutley. Class size is limited to 20 each so register now.

Chalk Little will direct the season opener in September with a production of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest."

A variety-type show presented by NLT's Youth Action Committee, which is an adjunct group composed primarily of Nutley High School students, directed by Dennis McGuire of Nutley, will follow in November. The final show of 1981 will be offered in December and will highlight two one-act comedies by Noel Coward, and will be directed by Lin Weber-Cort, Nutley, and Robert Pace of New York City.

In late January of 1982, the group hopes to present the New Jersey premiere of "A Couple White Chicks Sitting Around Talking," which recently concluded a successful run off-Broadway. The work will be directed by John Loan of Nutley.

Spring productions will include Alan Ayckbourn's "Bedroom Farce," directed by De Simon and presented in March. An April presentation of "Who's Life Is It Anyway?," directed by Gail Rog will follow, and the season will conclude with "The Boys in the Band," directed by Lee Guest-Moore of Glen Ridge and offered in June.

"We're on the brink of an exciting season," said Chalk Little. A subscription series will be offered for the second year. Anyone seeking further information on how to subscribe should call 667-2319.

Belleville resident stars in Seton Hall production

Barbara Horan Vitale, a resident of Belleville will be seen in the Seton Hall University Theatre-in-the-Round's upcoming production of "Candide," which opens tonight.

The play boasts a score by Leonard Bernstein and a book by Hugh Wheeler, author of Broadway's Sweeney Todd, and is based on Voltaire's story. Candide has been taught that "all's for the best in this the best of all possible worlds." But things don't seem to turn out that way for him in his travels around the world.

Miss Vitale has previously worked with the Nutley Little Theater and The Barn Theater in Montville where she was seen in such productions as The Shadow Box and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest.

All performances will begin at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the box office located in the Bishop Dougherty Student Center, or can be purchased on the night of the performance. Free parking is available. For reservations or more information call 762-9000, extensions 211 and 227 or 325-8726. General admission is $4.50. Senior Citizens, $3.50.

Movies and art highlight library

The Belleville Public Library has announced its schedule for this month. Highlighting July activities will be a long list of movies, an art exhibition by Lisa Grasso and a display of decorative pot holders by Madeline Wiegmann.

Most of the exhibits and show can be seen at the library's main branch, located at 221 Washington Ave.

A crafts for older children will be given July 6 in the Children's Room at 10 a.m. At the same time a program on how to start a stamp collection will be given by Cindy Bloom, while a "Fun and Fitness Popeye Hour" will be given at the library's Silver Lake branch located at 30 Magnolia St.

A course in "How to Play Boggle" will be given at 10 a.m. July 7 at the main branch, and at the same time a children's story hour will also be held. The library will also hold a preschool story hour at the Silver Lake branch.

There is a busy schedule of events set for July 8 including a visit from animals at Turtleback Zoo to the library's main branch at 10 a.m. A program on coin collecting will be given also at 10 a.m. A course in bicycle care and maintenance will be offered at 10 a.m. and followed by a exercise and fitness course at 2:30 p.m. All programs will take place in the main branch.

Old Beatle movies will highlight the July 9 schedule as the fabulous four will be aired at 11 a.m. in the Silver lake branch. At the library's main branch a film about tales of New Jersey can be seen at 12 noon. a crafts for younger children will be presented at 10 a.m.

More movies will be shown on July 10 in the main branch including "Hog Wild" and "People Soup." the films start at 10 a.m. A toddler story hour will take place at 9:30 a.m.

A bowleg race will take place at the Silver Lake Branch on July 13 starting at 10:15 a.m. In the main brach a crafts for older children which will start at 10 a.m. and a foil art program which will begin at 10 a.m. will take place.

Two lunch hour films on the art of Italian and French cooking will be shown on July 14 in the main branch. A "Painting on Jeans" program will be held at 10 a.m., and at the same time a children's story hour will be held. Over at the Silver Lake branch a preschool story hour will be held at 10 a.m.

A "Christmas in July" craft program will be offered on July 15 in the main branch at 10 a.m. At the same time the Junior Women's Club will conduct a handicrafts program.

Movies once again highlight the day at the libraries on July 16 as the Silver Lake branch show "Marx Brother Mosaic" and "Beauty and the Beast." The films start at 11 a.m. In the main branch the movie "Hollywood, The Selznick Years," will be shown at noon.

The films "I Know an Old Lady," "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Clown" and "Bear Facts" will be shown July 17 at the main branch starting at 10 a.m. A toddler story hour will take place at the Silver Lake branch at 10:15.

A family program of magic will be offered by David Lalin, will take place July 20 at 7 p.m. in the main branch. Reserved tickets, which are free, are now available at the library. A trivia sports conest will take place in the Silver Lake branch at 10:30 a.m.

A film on the art of Chinese cooking will be shown at noon at the main branch on July 21. On the same day a children's story hour will take place at 10 a.m.

On July 22 a program on cookless cooking will be offered at the Silver Lake branch starting at 11 a.m. A crafts program on making Christmas place mats will be conducted at 10 a.m. in main branch. At the same time a Peter Pan filstrip will be aired in the Children's Room.

On July 23 the movie "The Eagle

Has Landed" and "The Universe" will be shown at noon and 3 p.m. in the main branch. Earlier in the day a crafts program will be held for children at 10 a.m.

A program on making decorative bottles will be given at the main branch at 10 a.m. on July 27. The will also be held.

On July 29 a exercise and fitness course will be offered at 2:30 in the main branch. A movie "The Web" will be presented at the Silver Lake branch for environmental studies at 10 a.m., and at 11 a.m. "Scrimshaw Art" will be presented.

Parents advised on the dangers of fireworks

Every Fourth of July, children ask the same old questions, and parents grapple for some new answers and reasons why fireworks are off limits to youngsters.

"You're ruining our fun. What harm can a firecracker do anyway?"

When you were a kid, you did everything you wanted. What's wrong with fireworks? Why can't I have fun like you did?"

Before surrendering to their pleas, parents may want to explore some evidence of why fireworks can be dangerous.

In May of 1976, in a New Jersey high school a prankster tossed an illegal firework device into a glass cabinet in a corridor. Seconds later, two teenage girls passed within three feet of the cabinet, as the device exploded. One girl died when glass cut her jugular vein.

Having fun was the reason two boys gave for seeing off a firecracker in a tree stump in Walnut Creek, California in June of 1979. When firemen finally put their hoses away, two persons were hospitalized and three homes gutted. Damage was put at $330,000.

In the aftermath of new year's celebrations in January of 1980, some children on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, gathered pieces of firecrackers and put them in a small glass bottle. One lighted the powder and the result was a three-year-old girl died and six companions were hospitalized for injuries from the explosion.

Bystanders are often innocent victims of explosions. Last July 4, and 18-year-old Bremen, Indiana man died from a fireworks accident...a four-year-old East St. Louis, Ill. boy was killed when a roman candle misfired in a home fireworks' celebration...and on the preceding day, a Montana man died when a mortar shell exploded.

Many thousands of fireworks' displays on Independence Day are uneventful except for the festive holiday spirit that results from "the bombs bursting in air." Cities, towns and villages across the nation stage the displays because residents are less inclined to set off their own fireworks after having their fill of the public celebration.

In spite of this, untold Americans risk life and limb every year in an effort to create their own explosive devices. On July 3, 1979 three persons died when homemade fireworks exploded in the basement of a West Philadelphia home as three explosions ripped through the structure. A few days later, a 16-year-old Texas youth died when his homemade firecracker exploded.

What is being done to combat these fireworks related injuries and deaths?

Working cooperatively, agencies at the local, state and federal levels are enforcing prevailing laws governing the sale of illegal fireworks, and stepping up inspections of contraband fireworks exported to the U.S. or manufactured domestically by unlicensed firms.

Some states have closed their borders to fireworks of any kind. Fifteen states have banned everything except the caps used in toy cap pistols, while 14 states allow caps and sparklers, but prohibit everything else. The remaining 21 states have differing laws, but they essentially ban all fireworks except those which meet the requirements of the federal government.

The U.S. Department of Transportation regulates interstate transport of fireworks, including packaging, marking, labeling and placarding.

Consumer protection against dangerous fireworks became a federal responsibility in 1966 when Congress enacted the Child Protection Act. With that law, the so-called "blockbuster" fireworks were declared illegal. Cherry bombs, M-80 salutes and the giant firecrackers containing more than two grains of explosive powder were banned.

In 1973, when the CPSC was established, fireworks safety became a priority. Three years later, fireworks safety was strengthened further. In December 1976, the agency ruled that firecrackers sold to consumers could contain no more than 50 milligrams, almost 160 percent more explosive powder.

With the clamp down, fireworks-related accidents at first declined significantly, but are now on the rise, CPSC says.

During the last year before the 1976 law took effect there were about 11,000 injuries from fireworks. The figure declined to 8,200 in 1977 when the new regulation took effect, and to 7,100 in 1978, but it rose to 8,100 in 1979 and to 9,424 last year.

Product abuse appears to be the most frequent cause for fireworks injuries. CPSC's study in 1979 showed that over 60 percent of the injuries from legal or illegal fireworks were due to product misuse, not product malfunction. Furthermore, the malfunctioning fireworks were, for the most part, banned fireworks under the federal law. In those cases where malfunctioning legal fireworks were involved in accidents, the injuries were minor and did not often require hospitalization.

For July 4, 1981 the federal law permits only the sale of Class C firecrackers which contain no more than 50 milligrams of explosive powder. Some state laws are more stringent. Among the other Class C fireworks permitted by federal law are fountains, roman candles, wheels, California candles, spike and handle cylindrical fountains.

Local man held for rape

A 19-year-old Belleville man was arraigned earlier this week on charges of raping a William Street woman Saturday night.

The man who resides on Terrace Place was also charged with aggravated assault and threatening to kill. He appeared before Nutley Municipal Judge Robert J. Citrino, who was sitting in for Belleville Municipal Judge Edward J. Abromson. Citrino referred the case to the Grand Jury for investigation.

The arrest was made by Patrolman Frank Parillo.

Belleville's past

Belleville Junior High School on Washington Avenue and Holmes Street was built in 1916 as a high school. It was a picturesque school set back about 300 feet from Washington Avenue with a sloping, green lawn. Shrubbery and some large trees added to the beauty of the place.

A cinderblock wall about five feet high ran the length of the school on Washington Avenue. A wide entrance in the wall had a pair of stone steps that divided at the foot of the entrance, each rising about 20 steps in a semi-circle to a walk. The walks would meet about halfway up the lawn at a large single stone stairway that led up to the steps that were at the front door of the school. In the area between the walks was a flagpole and a sundial.

An indoor swimming pool was used for a few years and then was discontinued.

It was considered a singular honor to be a senior, and the front door was used only by them. All underclassmen had to use the side or back doors.

In 1923, an addition of nine more classrooms was erected on the Holmes Street side of the school. In 1936, another addition was added to the front of the school on Washington Avenue, ruining the beautiful campus.

The building continued in use as a high school until 1964 when the present high school was built on Passaic Avenue. The Washington Avenue structure was then made the junior high school and still serves in that capacity today.

Zoppi-Fornarotto case postponed once again

By Linda Telesco

The Zoppi-Fornarotto assault and battery case, scheduled for hearing in Belleville Municipal Court last Thursday, has been postponed to July 29 when it will be heard in Nutley Municipal Court at 6:30.

Originally scheduled for hearing last month, the case had been first postponed to the June 25 date when Belleville Court Judge Edward T. Abromson withdrew from it on grounds that he knows the parties involved and several of the witnesses, among them Mayor Michael Marotti.

Nutley Judge Robert Citrino was expected to preside at the June 25 session in Belleville, but now will hear the case in Nutley.

The case involves former School Board President Ernest Zoppi, his 27-year-old son Ernest III, and frequent board critic Joseph Fornarotto.

The three men came to blows just after a school board meeting, while still in the board's administrative building on Washington Avenue last March 23.

During the meeting, Fornarotto persisted in attempts to address the board, although citizens' remarks are not always permitted during public executive sessions.

First resisting the efforts of his longtime antagonist, the elder Zoppi finally relented, allowing Fornarotto to speak. After the meeting, words were exchanged about "stepping outside" and a fight ensued in the hallway.

Each man accuses the other of throwing the first punch and the several witnesses, who had been present at the meeting, provided widely varying accounts. The younger Zoppi claims that he got involved "to protect my father."

Later that evening, Fornarotto was treated at Clara Maass Hospital for bruises and a cut lip. The following morning, he filed assault charges against both Zoppis. Later in the day the Zoppis filed counter charges.

Three weeks later, Zoppi lost his bid for re-election to the School Board, running third on a ticket of six candidates. Many political observers speculate that the assault case hurt his chances to maintain a board seat.

Playground action starts big at School 10

Miss Match — The sides don't seem to fair as little Anthony Pucciarello tries to block a shot taken by one of the taller kids during the first day of the open school playgrounds.

School 10 — Everyone gets into the picture during a group round up at the School 10 playground, which is supervised by Sam Fusaro. More than 35 kids signed up for playground action during the first day, which according to Fusaro was "amazing."

School 10 playground

The recreation department's school playground season got underway this week, and over at School 10, the turnout was amazing. According to the playground supervisor Sam Fusaro, more than 35 kids signed up for the playground program before noon on Monday. "I really can't believe the turnout I got here today," Fusaro said. "This has always been the best playground in town, and the kids here prove that. "Last the older guys here won the Senior League baseball championship," he continued, "and this year we feel that we can do it again. They are a great group of guys." Fusaro said that there will be a lot of parties and events taking place at the School 10 playground this year. "We are going to have a watermelon party and a pizza party," Fusaro said. "There is constantly something going on around here, and the kids love it."

Bouncing Ball — This young lady could be seen all over the playground participating in various activities. The playground program will run eight weeks.

Hoopers — All the pros are back once again for another exciting year this summer. These guys enjoy basketball and baseball the best.

Slugger — Wiffle ball is one of the biggest sports activities at School 10 during the summer. This young lad proves he can take his rips.

Sisters — Roseann Stalai holds her younger sister Maria, who is a little nervous in front of a camera. Both young ladies enjoy the craft making events which take place at the playground.

Little Ladies — These young girls took time out for their potholder making to pose for a picture during the first day of the school playground program.

Senior Champs — These sluggers were the champs of the playground Senior League last year, and vow that they will repeat this year. The spend every afternoon in the blazing sun practicing for the new season, which will start next week.

Mike Lamberti's

Buc Shots

Coach of the Year — George Zanfini

There were many coaches this past year who did an outstanding job for the Belleville athletic program.

Who can forget the fine job that John Senesky did for the football team, leading the Bucs to a 9-2 record and a berth in the state finals. Of course, Gene D'Allesandro's matmen also had an incredible season, posting a 13-1 record and capturing the District 7 title.

Karen Fuccello led the tennis squad to a 9-5 record and later the girls basketball team to a 15-7 mark. The 15 wins pushed Fuccello's career victory mark over the century level.

However, the one coach that certainly deserves to be called the Belleville Coach of the Year is George Zanfini, the head baseball coach who this year led the Bucs to a 22-7 record and the championship of the Greater Newark Tournament.

Zanfini, is a very articulate and sometimes modest man, has put together an astounding seven year record of 123 victories as compared to only 39 setbacks. Along the way, the Bucs have captured a GNT championship, have appeared in two GNT finals, have been in the Group IV, Section II finals three times and have played some very exciting baseball that leaves some very memorable times.

Zanfini took over the reigns left by Charlie Travers in 1975. In his first year, the Bellboys posted a 14-10 record, but at one time held a 10-1 mark. After losing it's opener, the Bucs went on a 10 game winning streak before bowing to Irvington in that now famous 14 inning marathon. That loss took the wind out of the Bucs sails and the team sagged after that. However with players like Steve Gerard, Vic Pasquerello, Chipper Biafore and Joe Panalone along with slugger Louie Grasso, the team was still one of the most respected.

Perhpas Zanfini's most memorable season to date was the 1976 campaign. That was the year the Bucs were 24-4 and for six weeks were the top ranked team in the state. Players like Biafore, Greg Dunleavy, Ricky Loma, Greg Petite and John Guarino were the key reasons why the Bellboys were so strong. Losses to Livingston in the GNT semis and the Group IV, Section II finals spoiled an otherwise great year. The latter game with Livingston was extremely controversial with a very questionable call in the last inning that cost the Bellboys the game.

In 1977, it appeared the Bucs would roll to another great year like 1976, but Zanfini developed hepatitis after an 11-3 start and the team finished with an 18-15 record without him. Rocco Balsamo, John Clarizio, Phil Agosta, Anthony Gammara and Pat Nufrio were the big men on that 1977 club, who might have been one of the states best had their leader remained healthy.

Zanfini was in top condition for the 1978 season and the Bucs responded with a fine 18-4 mark. An upset loss to Columbia in the first round of the GNT marred an other wise good year as Agosta, Nufrio, sophomore Mike Nicosia and Danny Borgo led the way.

In 1979, the Bucs came through with an impressive 17-4 record despite the fact that a good part of the season was missed because of a very bad winter. The Bucs were once again upended by an upstart team from Irvington in the GNT, but the play of Nicosia, Ed Aulisi and Don Tensfeldt along with Joe Francheschini made the year another fine one in the annals of Belleville baseball.

Last season, the Bucs turned in a 17-7 record and in the process handed Zanfini his 100th career win. The team made it to the GNT finals before losing to nemesis Livingston but avenged a tough loss to Linden in the state tournament in 1979. Players like Aulisi, Nicosia, Anthony Coco sophomore Frank Fazzini and Dave Steve Coffey made the year a good one.

Now of course we come to be 1981 campaign. The 22-7 record and GNT championship was a big surprise to the coach for a big reason. Zanfini lost practically all of his starters from the 1980 team and had only two players, Coco and Fazzini returning. However, players like Roger Lentz, Eugene Cancellieri, Ken Constantino, Phil Cerza, Dave Starr and Jerry Ross came through with big plays and Zanfini feels that the 1981 team was one of the most determined groups he ever handled.

When the Bucs had won the GNT title from Glen Ridge, Zanfini felt that the title was for all the Buc players he had coached in his seven years and that the victory was a mark that all players should hold with pride.

George Zanfini is that type of man. A very non-selfish competitor, he expects the best that each man can offer and in return will reward them with a winning ball club and memories that the players will keep with them long after they graduate from Belleville High School. As for next season, Zanfini certainly has a lot to look forward to as far as talent is concerned. Another important aspect is that the players will have a lot to look forward to as far as their coach is concerned.

Well, Sugar Ray Leonard end Thomas Hearns will fight to unify the welterweight title sometime in September. The fight should be the richest in boxing history and draw a huge crowd, not only live but also on closed circuit TV.

While the fighters will rake home millions of dollars a piece for their efforts, the fans should see a fight they'll never forget. I feel that Hearns, with his superior reach and punching ability will take out Leonard in the early rounds. The only way that Leonard will be able to handle Hearns is with an early KO. It will definitely not be another farce like the second Duran-Leonard fight.

In the heavyweight scene, Mike Weaver will have to fight Jim Tillis or lose his WBA title. That could postpone a big fight with Gerry Cooney that was scheduled for October. Perhaps, just perhaps, this could open the doors for a Larry Holmes-Cooney fight instead. It might be better for Cooney that way anyhow. Holmes might be a better fight in the long run. Weaver, though is a very dangerous fighter. Just ask John Tate. Also, you can ask Holmes, who knocked out Weaver in the 12th round a couple of years back but at one stage of the fight he appeared to be really badly beaten by Weaver. Weaver, with more experience, can now beat Holmes and I feel can also beat Cooney.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, who played in the 1975 World Series. The question was, how many games did the Red Sox series of 1975 go, where was the final game played, who won the series and the winning and losing pitchers in the final game. Also did any pitchers in the series hurl a complete game.

The answer: The series went seven games, the final game was played in Boston, Cincinnati won the series, Clay Carroll won the last game and Jim Burton lost it. Luis Tiant of the Red Sox hurled the only complete game of the series in game one.

For this weeks quiz, let's check your tennis ability. Bjorn Borg has won the Wimbledon title for five straight years. Can you name the player who won the title in 1975, the year before Borg started his streak.

Hurling carries Legion to three more victories

The Post 105 baseball team got strong pitching and adequate offense and sailed to three victories this past week to raise its record to 5-1. The Legionnaires defeated North Newark 5-1 Monday, Montclair 5-3 Friday and Vailsburg 2-1 last Wednesday.

Belleville hosted Bloomfield yesterday and travels to Cedar Grove today. Home games with Millburn and Livingston follow Monday and Wednesday.

Mike Forte gave up just five hits and two walks in going the distance for Post 105 against North Newark at Walker Field. Sal Fishetta took the loss.

The opposition took a 1-0 lead in the third on an RBI double by Ron Wilson. Belleville tied the game in the fourth frame when Joe Corbalis singled and came around on Dick Vazzano's double.

The local Legionnaires won the game in the sixth inning. After Joe Guarino and Dave Starr had reached base on a pair of fielder's choices and Corbalis had walked, Vazzano cleared the paths with a booming triple. On the next play, Bobby Brave hit a grounder and got aboard as Vazzano was tagged out. Eugene Cancelliere then singled Brave home.

Belleville scored early and held back a Montclair rally Friday at Municipal Stadium. Bobby Grogan went the first six innings, giving up three runs on five hits, walking one and fanning four. He got relief help from Joe Lipoma and Anthony Coco.

Post 105 grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first. Guarino singled and Starr doubled to put men at second and third and Fazzini's single brought both home. In the third inning, Brave walked and several plays later scored on a sacrifice fly by Corbalis.

Montclair drew within one run in the fifth inning when DeMuro smacked a two-run homer. However, in the home half of the frame, Belleville got two runs to put the game out of reach. Rich Vitiello walked, Brave singled and Corbalis lashed a double to give Post 105 a 5-2 advantage. Montclair scored a single run in the sixth.

Anthony Coco locked with Owens of Vailsburg in a pitcher's duel last Wednesday. Both men surrendered just three hits, but Coco was slightly more effective.

Belleville scored its two runs in the second inning. Vazzano singled and Cancelliere reached on a fielder's choice. Another fielder's choice allowed Vazzano to score and Vitiello to take a base. Brave then singled for another tally.

Coco hit a batter in the fourth and gave up a triple or Vailsburg's lone run. Post 105 threatened in the sixth when Corbalis tripled but could not stretch the lead.

Coco struck out five and walked one. Owens fanned two and walked none.

All-State — Frank 'Bear' Fazzini was one of two juniors selected to the Star-Ledger's first team All-State last Sunday. Fazzini was phenomenal this year as he batted .534, belted 10 homeruns and drove in 48. His homeruns and RBIs were school records as were his team leading 55 hits. He also stole seven bases and scored 37 runs.

Marotti softball squad beats Nutley to go 4-2

By Mike Lamberti

Softball is a rising sport in Belleville and the interest is mounting every year.

The town has fielded a team in the Garden State "A" League and many of the participants are members of the varsity club that posted that impressive 18-8 mark during the regular season.

The girls have played six games thus far and have a 4-2 record. On Tuesday, the club was at Clark and on Wednesday traveled to Hillside. On July 12, the girls return home to battle Chatham in a 4 p.m. start. By the way, the girls home games are played at Belleville High School.

The team's name is the Marotti Association and the club is coached by Denise Zarra, a 1979 graduate of Belleville High School.

The team's latest victim was Nutley last Sunday. Belleville came out on top 4-2 as Leonora Siubus was the winning pitcher. She hurled a complete game to boost her record to 2-0 as the girls did some good base running and strong fielding to earn the win.

The team's infield consists of Mona Stampe at first base, Rose Leonidis at second, Joyce Iacullo at shortstop and Nancy Coffey at third. Coffey, by the way, was voted third team all-state and first team all-county and Group IV last week by the Star-Ledger. The junior will be looked upon as one of the best players in the state come next spring.

In the outfield is Lauren Peterson, Donna Campana and Lisa Frey. The pitching assignments have been filled by Siubus, Lauren Van DerMay, Dina DeAquino and by coach Zarra.

Thus far, Siubus has a 2-0 record, Van DerMay is 2-1 and DeAquino is 0-1. Coffey is continuing her torrid pace this summer in the batting department with a .467 average. Leonidis, now 100 percent healed from a knee injury, is batting a robust .333 and Van DerMay is also hitting at .333. Marilyn McCaffrey is batting .250 as she shares the catching assignment with Tracey

Town sponsoring Borja Day July 29

Belleville will honor Cosmos soccer player Chico Borja at a game Wednesday, July 29, against the Portland Timbers.

The Michael V. Marotti Civic Association is sponsoring bus rides to Giants Stadium to see Borja, a Belleville resident and BHS graduate, and his teammates in action. Buses will leave the Little League Field House on Montgomery Street at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

Tickets, $10.50 apiece, may be obtained by calling Mayor Marotti at 759-9100, extension 851, or Charlie Miele at 759-4458. The reservation deadline is July 15.

ONLY YOU

Cosmos corner

By Mike Lamberti

You'll have to excuse the Cosmos if they're not tickled pink about their league leading 16-5 record. You'll also have to excuse Giorgio Chinaglia if he doesn't like to talk about the shootout.

You see, the Cosmos, despite the fine record, have to think that the 1981 season is starting to resemble the 1979 season. That was the year that the Cosmos posted a 24-6 record, the NASL's best, but were ousted by the Vancouver White caps in the playoffs. Vancouver, by the way, defeated the Cosmos twice during the regular season and then knocked the Cosmos out of the playoffs in the conference finals.

Now, in 1981, the Cosmos have been beaten by the Chicago Sting for the second time this season, by a 6-5 count, in the dreaded shootout. The week was far from a total loss however as the club defeated Ft. Lauderdale at Giants Stadium, 2-0, last Wednesday.

Yesterday, the team hosted the National Team of Greece in an exhibition and will host the Tulsa Roughnecks this Sunday at Giants Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Every team seems to have an achilles heel and the Cosmos have found theirs in Chicago. The Sting and Cosmos have met eight times in their history and Chicago has come out on top seven times. The Cosmos other nemesis, the Vancouver Whitecaps, are also having a strong season and although the clubs don't meet during the regular season, they could very well match up come playoff time.

Last Sunday's game, played at Wrigley Field in Chicago was a thriller. The Chicago fans, who are used to mediocre baseball from the Cubs, saw a first class battle all the way. The crowd, the largest ever for a Chicago game, saw the Cosmos rally from 2-0 and 4-2 deficits to send the game into overtime. The Cosmos, trailing 5-4, scored on an Ivan Buljan goal with just :35 left in regulation.

Giorgio Chinaglia and Julio Caesar Romero tallied twice in this contest. For Romero, it was his third; the past week has been a memorable one for him. He started off last week with no goals scored but tallied once against Ft. Lauderdale and came through strong against Chicago.

Chinaglia now has 23 goals in 21 games and appears to be back in the groove after hitting a mini slump about three weeks ago. For goalkeeper Hubert Birkenmeier, it was a tough game. He was much better than the score might indicate, but the Sting offense was superb and on many occasions, the Cosmos defense appeared confused.

The teams battled through a scoreless sudden death overtime. The Cosmos were fortunate to get to the shootout because the Sting had many opportunities to win in the OT. Only the goalkeeping of Birkenmeier saved the Cosmos.

In the shootout, only Seninho was able to push the ball into the net. Chicago tallied twice and it came down to Giorgio. If Chinaglia scores, the shootout continues, if not the Sting is a winner. Giorgio has never been a fan of the shootout and unfortunately his shot was saved by the Sting keeper and the Cosmos had lost their fifth game of the campaign. By the way, two of their losses have come via the shootout.

The Ft. Lauderdale game was quite different. Close to 40,000 fans filled Giants Stadium to see a rematch of Soccer Bowl 80. The game was exciting as the Cosmos played flawless soccer in the first half and built up a 2-0 intermission lead. The first goal was a bit controversial as Chinaglia sent the ball by a surprised Jan Van Beveran, the Striker keeper.

Van Beveran, the top keeper in the NASL so far this year, is an exciting player to watch and had it not been for some of his saves, the score could easily have been five or six to nothing.

Peanut Champs — The Astros have become the champs of the Tuesday — Thursday night Peanut league as they combined a record of 11 — 1 on the season. From (l to r) in the first row are: Craig Zoppa, Brian Doyle, Joe Omposki, Joe Cella, Marc Merlinger and Larry Hope. Second row: Keith Pabst, Lenny Estrella, Joe Marino, Brian Conforti, Dennis DeVitt, Ray Caruso, Dan Viscel and Scott Apple. Third row, the coaches are: Sal Postiglione, Frank Biafore and Mauro Tucci.

Freas and Pat's Bar breaks losing streak

Freas and Pat's won its first game in two years of play in the Essex County Tavern League by bombing Waterhole of Bloomfield 13-5 Sunday.

The Belleville softball club gained the win of the strength of superb pitching by Tommy Bowers and two towering home runs by Vinnie Chianca. The rest of the club also contributed to the attack and even got help from the old warhorse himself, Freas Willis.

In other games involving Belleville teams, FMBA defeated Fric and Frac of Newark 7-5, Town Cottage set back Danny's Inn 8-6 and Nanny's Cafe won a forfeit over Halftime of Bloomfield. BJ's Tavern lost to Suppa's 917 of Newark 12-2.

After its big win, the Freas and Pat's club returned to the home watering hole and hosted a party complete with champagne. One manager of an opposing team wisecracked that the champagne tasted like vinegar — waiting as long as it did for that first win before being opened. However, the whole day left a sweet taste in the mouth of a victory-starved club.

The league has an off weekend coming up due to the July 4 holiday. The standings after 10 games:

Tot program has openings

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced there are openings in the Pre-School Play Program for four-year-old children. The program consists of stories, games, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest period and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

A session is from 9:15 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. five days a week, with class limited to 25 students. The mothers of the children accepted will serve one duty day about every nine days according to a published schedule. The cost of the 15 week session is $30.

School will begin again in September under the leadership of Mrs. Suzanne Iannini.

For further information and enrollment, please contact the Belleville recreation department at 759-3121 as soon as possible, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Pet Shop record now 6-3 in JDSL

The Nutley Pet Shop upped its record to 6-3 in Division A of the James Dombrowski Softball League by defeating the North Arlington VFW 17-14. The Pet Shop is hoping for a wild card berth in the 28-team league.

The victory was keyed by Joe Mustachio and Ray Marx who combined for five hits, six RBIs and a home run.

Mr. Dee's is undefeated behind Falkman's arm

A correction to last week's Men's Softball article:—In Wednesday Men's "A" League action, Mr. Dee's defeated De Bacco's 6-0, not 6-5. Pitcher Gary Falman has now hurled three consecutive shutouts for Mr. Dee's.

Behind the ace pitching of Gary Falkman, Mr. Dee's swept a pair of shutouts to improve to a perfect 11-0 mark. Mr. Dee's victims in Wednesday "A" Men's Softball play last week were Frenchy's, 1-0 and Campbell Tools, 12-0. Holding second place on Wednesday is De Bacco's, who beat Frenchy's, 10-0 and Howard, 8-3, to boost their record to 9-2. Belleville Hess (6-5) moved into third after beating Howard, 20-6, and edging Campbell Tools, 7-6, in 12 innings.

Thursday "B" Men's Softball League action last week saw Kawasaki and International Paint become knotted at 7-2 in a tie for first place. Kawasaki edged Burger King, 10-9, and Garden State Pet, 9-7, while International Paint set back Red Shingle, 8-1 and Giordano's, 6-5. Burger King also defeated Red Shingle, 6-4 as Garden State Pet bested Giordano's, 9-4.

Joe's Alignment stayed atop the standings in the Monday "A" division with a 10-1 tally by defeating B.J.'s Tavern, 13-2 and De Witt Savings, 3-2. Second place USA (8-3) split, trouncing Roselli's, 15-1, and falling to B.J.'s Tavern, 11-0. De Witt also topped Belleville Shoes, 7-3, before Belleville Shoes stepped on Roselli's, 6-1.

In the Tuesday "B" circuit, Minuteman Press needed a come-from-behind 7-5 victory over Circle II to keep first place with a 9-1 count. Second place Hair Design (7-3) edged Belleville Political and Social Club, 10-8, while third place J. R. Insulation (6-4) flattened SPH Limousine Service, 7-3.

After winning their respective divisions in the Peanut League this year, the Tigers and the Astros are preparing to show their excellence in this week's post-season tournament. Tournament action last week saw the Aces upset the Cubs, 19-8, the Dodgers bested the Clippers, 18-10, the Bombers defeated the Bears, 11-6, and the Yanks drubbed the Indians.

Other Peanut league scores last week were as follows: Indians 18-Giants 15; Dodgers 20-Aces 14; Tigers 15-Bears 9; Braves 14-Giants 12; Yankees 11-Cards 2; Astros 16-Indians 2; Bombers 17-Aces 16; Indians 28-Pirates 27; Bears 14-Cubs 12; and Tigers 27-Dodgers 8.

Playoffs are set to begin this week in the Junior League with the Dodgers facing the White Sox in the National League division, while the Aces and Tigers will battle it out in the American League.

The White Sox, who were 6-0 in the second half, rolled over the Pirates, 12-4, led by the pitching of Billy Sypher with 13 strikeouts. Hits by C. Patierno, N. Turano, J. Mele, and J. Lenhart paced the attack, supplemented by homeruns by B. Sypher and K. Marion. B. Bizzaro broke the game open in the top of the third inning with his best hit of the year, a triple with the bases loaded. The White Sox held their lead with one more run in the fourth inning, four in the fifth and two in the sixth.

The Dodgers, who were 9-3 overall, beat the Braves, 4-3, and the Cubs, 32-1 last week. Sal Marchello led the attack with two homeruns and he also earned the pitching victory.

Junior League scores from earlier this month were: Pirates 15-Cubs 4; Bears 18-Cardinals 13; Tigers 13-Indians 8; Tigers 2-Bombers 1; Pirates 5-Braves 3; White Sox 4-Dodgers 0; Yanks 14-Braves 3; Clippers 7-Cards 6; Yanks 19-Cubs 7; Giants 10-Braves 4; Dodgers 4-Pirates 3; Tigers 6-Bears 1; Clippers 9-Bombers 3; Aces 9-Cards 8; Yanks 6-Giants 2; tigers 15-Cards 0; Cubs 10-Braves 10, tie game; Yanks 9-Pirates 4; and Cards 14-Indians 9.

The Mets and the Yanks each have three victories in the second half Intermediate schedule, with the better team figuring to face the Braves in the playoffs.

The Senior league ended with a second half tie between the Pirates and the Yanks, who will meet to determine the league championship.

Tenants and landlords feud over rent control ordinance

By Linda Telesco

The Commission Chambers was overflowing last Tuesday with tenants and landlords anxious to address the Board of Commissioners on the proposed amendments to the town's rent control ordinance.

"There will be no changes in the ordinance unless the Rent Leveling Board presents recommendations that satisfy both sides," announced Mayor Michael Marotti, adding that suggestions wouldn't go into effect until September or October.

Five members of the Rent Leveling Board approached the commission earlier this month to discuss such changes as gradual decontrol of vacated apartments and modification of the present 6 percent increase permitted a landlord to an increase of 8 percent.

These proposals had drawn an outcry from tenants who objected that lifting controls would force them to seek affordable housing elsewhere.

Although Mayor Marotti dismissed the Rent Leveling Board that night by insisting that only when they return "as a unified group," will he consider action, citizens restated their grievances last week.

Speaking for the New Bridge Brook Gardens Tenants Association, Michele Goldfarb said, "60 percent of our residents are senior citizens who cannot afford rent increases," and she added that members of the association have been going door-to-door soliciting support for rent controls.

Goldfarb disagreed that maintaining controls would result in a decay comparable to that of the cities Newark and Paterson, a criticism raised at the June 9 meeting by Commissioner Matthew Pica.

"If you permit decontrol, you'll have children out on the streets," she warned the commissioners. "Stand behind us or landlords will take advantage of tenants."

Goldfarb later told reporters that a three-room apartment at Bridge Brook runs about $350 per month including heat, and few tenants could afford unregulated increases.

Representing the same tenants' association, Dorothy Gottheimer urged the commissioners to maintain "one of the finest rent control laws around."

Contending that "fair landlords are not in the majority" Gottheimer charged that Govel Associates, landlord of Bridge Brook, "fails to comply with existing laws." And asked "What would happen to tenants if even those were abolished?"

She explained that the association has recruited 75 new voters who will vote in favor of rent control.

Both spokeswomen elicited thunderous applause from the standing-room-only crowd that flowed out the door of the chambers.

Speaking on behalf of local landlords, Chris Albanese of Frederick Street acknowledged rights of tenants, but added, "Give the property owner a fair shake. Who in his right mind would invest $100,000 in a building for a 10 percent profit? This control discourages investments."

"There are probably only three or four gouging landlords," Albanese continued. "Don't ruin things for the majority." He also charged that the Rent Leveling Board fails to protect tenants anyway, claiming that it had granted him a 22 percent hardship increase last year, which he refused to pass onto his tenants.

Albanese rebutted a Tenants' Association claim that rent control doesn't affect the town's tax base.

"The owners of Bridge Brook are from out-of-town and buy up property for an investment," Albanese said. "Then they request a tax rebate and residents pick up the tab for it." Albanese charged that Goyal received $263,000 in rebates on the Bridge Brook property last year.

When outraged tenants jeered him, Albanese retorted, "Rents are cheap in Belleville. That's why you people live here; otherwise, you'd get out."

In an effort to calm tempers, Mayor Marotti assured the crowd, "We want to satisfy both sides in this matter." Awaiting recommendations from the Rent Leveling Board, Marotti named September as a deadline date for action and said that future meetings on rent control issues would be held in a school "to accommodate everyone concerned."

New bus schedule creates problems

impertinently imposed its drastic changes with wanton disregard for the public and their elected officials.

"I suggest that written objection and complaints concerning these revisions be sent by all concerned and addressed to: Mr. Jerome C. Premo, executive director of NJT, 1035 Parkway Ave. Trenton, N.J. 08625; or call the toll free number at 800-772-2222."

"I deeply deplore the stand taken by the state transit agency in imposing its schedule upon the public."

James Golden, president of the town's Transportation Committee, said that many people are planning to attend the commission meeting next week to voice their disapproval in the system.

"If the people go to the commissioners, they are not going to accomplish much," said Golden. "The commissioners tried to get the NJT to listen to different proposals before this operation even went into effect, but they did not want to listen. They had their minds made up early on. There is nothing the commissioners can do about the buses running along Wiber Street. If the people want to be heard they will have to tell their complaints to the NJT."

The changes in the bus routes were the first changes to come along in years, and were looked upon by transit officials as a way to better the public transportation system in local communities. But if the residents of Wiber Street have their way, the bus routes would be changed again very soon.

Silver Lake residents continue to press for Pathmark closing the ruling is adopted on July 14 is the Belmont Avenue Pathmark which has been a source of concern and complaint to Silver Lake residents who attribute their area's rising crime rate at the 24-hour store.

Angry locals packed the chambers last week to voice their repeated objections to the store's all-night operation and to challenge the defense of Pathmark representatives.

Expressing the sentiments of area citizens at the meeting, Marie Gammaro said, "We have high crime rates and are tried of muggings and theft in Silver Lake. We want Pathmark closed after 11 p.m."

Other critics complained that too often pathmark provides an excuse for outsiders to lurk in that area of town where they would otherwise be noticed. Residents complained that often muggers follow shoppers off the store premises and assault them in their own homes and neighborhoods.

Dick Renna, Vice-President of the Belleville Citizens' Patrol, a volunteer crime control group, added, "After 11 p.m., few of the shoppers in Pathmark are from Belleville. The store attracts garbage from outside our town."

One citizen, however, objected that mandatory closing hours pose

"an injustice to other stores in town." Henry Czersweski of Joralemon Street declared, "Hiding behind bolted doors is not the answer, better police control is."

Disagreeing strongly, Bob Notare of Frederick Street related that his car, which was parked only yards from a manned police car in the Pathmark parking lot, had been stolen while he shopped. "Closing the store, not adding police, is the only solution," Notare recommended.

However, representatives of Pathmark argued that the store has become a convenient "scapegoat" for an increasing crime rate that exists everywhere today.

Anthony J. Napodano, counsel for Supermarkets General Corporation, stressed the commitment and cooperation Pathmark has demonstrated to the town in its 30 years of operation here. Napodano pointed out that citizens repeatedly cited "recent crime problems" in Silver Lake, yet the Belmont Avenue store has operated since November 1971 and extended to a 24-hour system in May, 1972.

"For 9 years, there was no problem," he stated, adding that Pathmark even built another 24-hour market, approved by the town, on Washington Avenue last February.

The attorney argued that when the store was granted permission to expand in October, 1980, "no mention was made of limiting our hours." He stressed that Pathmark cooperated with requests from the commissioners and planning board to strengthen their security force.

"We have a strong economic commitment to Belleville," he said, noting that Pathmark employs over 500 workers, many of whom are locals, and "expects to pay $83,000 in real estate taxes in 1982."

Napodano claims that surveys show "80 percent of those questioned favor 24-hour shopping." He also cited statistics from local police reports for the period of January-March 1981 showing "only 28 incidents of local crime (two and a half percent) occurred at Belmont Pathmark and most of those were prior to 11 p.m."

According to Napodano's findings, 14 of those incidents, or half of all crimes committed at that location, occurred between 7-8 p.m. and 3-4 p.m. These figures drew protests from area residents, one of whom was barred from the chambers after shouting that the attorney "is lying."

Napodano cited a recent editorial in the Times that suggested

"counter-productive" aspects in closing a well-lighted, active establishment simply by being open. He cautioned the commissioners against "the fallacy of an easy solution."

Charging that the proposal is "arbitrary, unreasonable, and capricious" and that it "goes beyond the legitimate power of a municipality in denying Pathmark due process of the law," Napodano stated, "We do not wish to litigate this issue but are prepared to do so."

Robert E. Wunderle, Vice-President of Public Affairs for Supermarkets General Corporation, acknowledged that Pathmark had considered several possible options should the ordinance be adopted.

"We could obtain an injunction and continue operation, take direct court action, or simply do nothing," he explained, adding that no decision has been made yet.

An economist for the corporation, Wunderle affirmed that Pathmark could suffer "considerable financial losses" from curtailed hours, but declined to specify dollar amounts.

DO YOU KNOW?

...That alcohol and medicine, like oil and water, do not mix. Alcohol can cause many unpleasant or dangerous drug interactions. In some cases it may add to the effect of a drug, perhaps strongly intensifying the drowsiness component of antihistamines or tranquilizers. Conversely it is capable of reducing the wanted effect of other medications such as Dilantin, a popular anti-convulsant drug. Alcohol's range of action and interaction is alarmingly wide and should be approached with extreme caution by any user of medicine.
