Football Is Back — John Senesky stands among his troops as the Belleville High School football team opened its 1981 training camp. Senesky said he was very impressed with the more than 80 young men who turned out for Tuesday's training session. The Bucs open the season at home on September 26.

Mayor seeks to create town administrator post

Plans to create a major municipal position, township business administrator, are under careful consideration by Mayor Michael Marotti, who may recommend the proposal to the Board of Commissioners within the next few weeks.

"It is still an idea I'm looking into," Marotti said last week, declining to supply specifics yet. "It would be good to have a full-time administrator since we (the commissioners) are here only part-time."

The function of the business administrator is to manage the business affairs of the municipality. The position carries no power to legislate.

Township attorney Frank Zinna determined last week, following an investigation, that hiring a business administrator is permissible in a township under the commission form of government.

Zinna noted, the position must be created by an ordinance and the appointee serves at the pleasure of the mayor and commissioners.

Mayor Marotti predicted that the post would offer an annual salary of about $25,000, which he said would represent a savings to taxpayers, since the administrator's position could well consolidate two or three other municipal jobs presently held by separate employees. He declined to specify which positions might be affected.

The Mayor added that if the commissioners decided to act on this, the position will be advertised.

"I have no one in mind because I don't even know if we'll do right now," the mayor said, "but if we do, I'd like to hire someone before the end of the year."

Group wants to see trustees appointed

Spearheaded by a former School Board president, a movement is under way to restore an appointed Board of Education in Belleville.

Ralph Risoli, who served on the School Board from 1978 to 1980, has long been critical of board activities which he attributes, in part, to the present 27-year-old elective system.

In an effort to reverse what he called board "corruption," Risoli and other proponents of the appointive board have collected, since last spring, signatures on a petition requesting a special election on the issue.

According to New Jersey law, a petition requesting the referendum must be signed by at least 15 per cent of the number of legally qualified voters who voted in the district in the last general assembly election.

Brighton Estates gets another rent increase

By Jeff Weinberger

A unanimous decision by the Rent Leveling Board to grant a 23 percent hardship rent increase to the owner of Brighton Estates apartments has tenants fuming, and attorneys debating the legality of the decision.

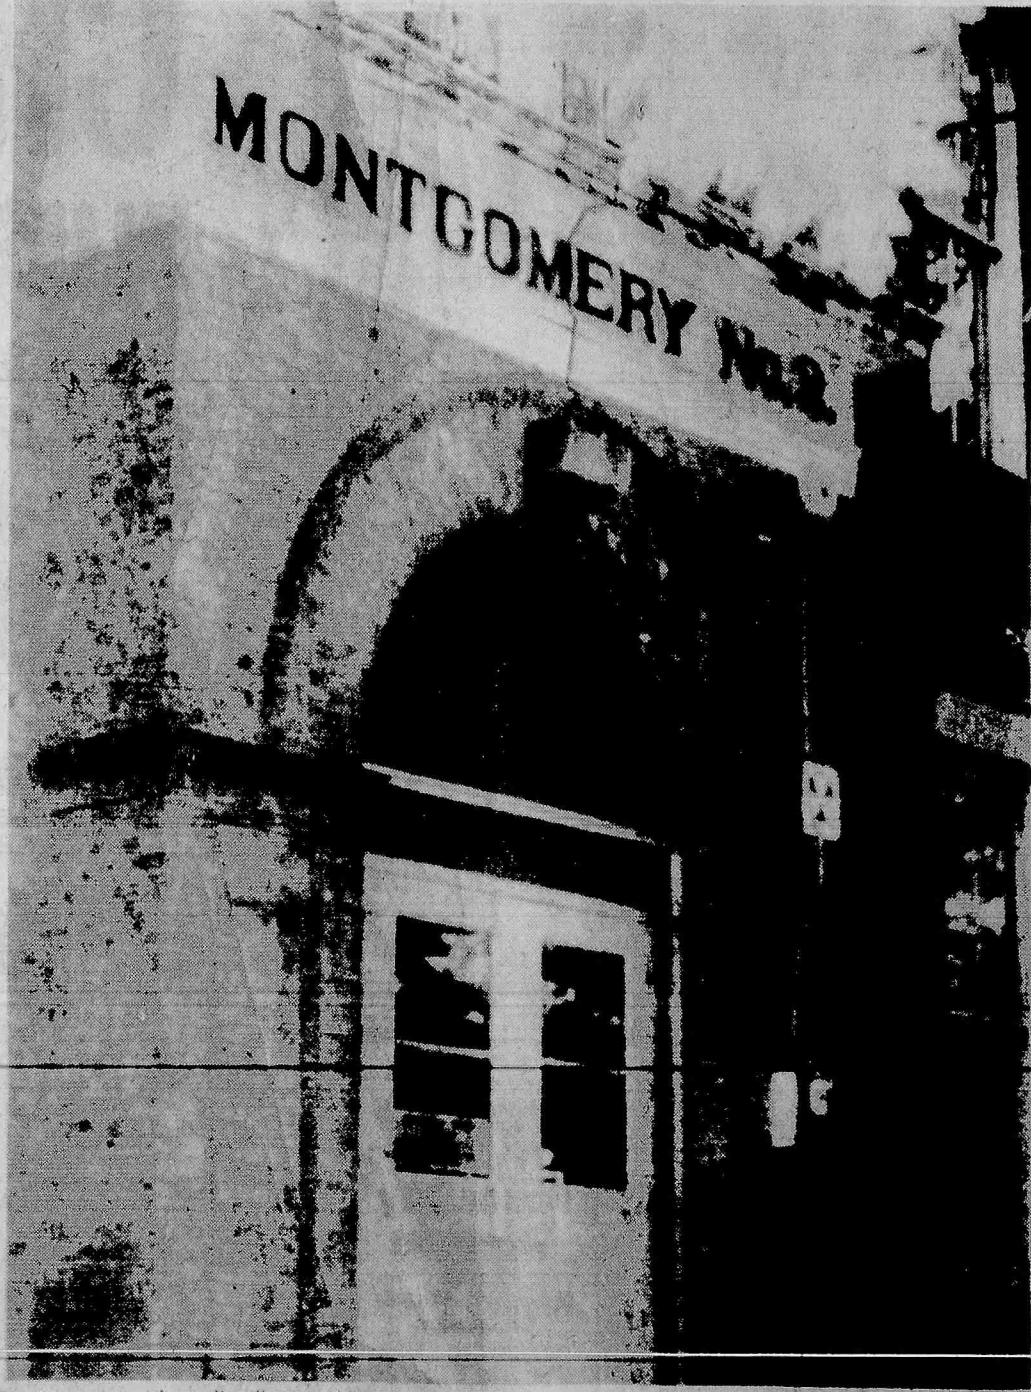

The Board voted 4-0 last Wednesday to approve the increase, which is the second this year at the complex including the annual 6 percent increase permitted under the township's rent control ordinance.

The board's approval was conditioned by a requirement that money collected by Brighton Estates as a result of the increase will be placed in an escrow account to be used only for making repairs and improvements at the complex. The firm, which also owns Joralemon Gardens apartments in the township, was given six months by the board to make the improvements.

But tenants of the 95-unit complex, located on Brighton Avenue, and their attorney, Roy Failla, argue that the Board violated the rent con-

Up For Sale — The Belleville Board of Education voted Monday night to put closed School 2 up for sale, at an asking price of $250,000. The school has been the subject of great debate between parents and board members since closing last September. For now the school will be used for the filming of a major motion picture. ## Board of Education votes to sell School 2

By Linda Telesco

Taking the tradition of September school sales literally, the Board of Education voted Monday night to sell School 2, more than a year after its closing, on the open market at the minimum price of $250,000.

The figure was established through an appraisal of the Mill Street facility and its 1.5 acres of property by G. Fred Burlazzi of Belleville. Following advertisement, bids will be opened at the September 28 board meeting and the sale awarded to the highest bidder.

The second oldest educational facility in the township, School 2 was built in 1894 and acquired additional classrooms through expansion in 1913 and 1967.

As a result of declining enrollments and desegregation restructuring plans, the building was closed at the end of the June 1980 school year and students were routed to Schools 4 and 10. Public outcry and heated controversy surrounded the board's March 6, 1980 decision to close the Soho district facility along with School 1, a Valley area building, in an effort to achieve racial balance and to economize.

The dispute extended to proposed uses for the vacant properties with several board members urging the open market sale in order to gain revenues and reduce the ever-increasing school budget, long a sore point with township voters.

Others suggested converting the building into a much needed community center. In June, Mayor Michael Marotti offered the board $1 for the property, a deal flatly rejected by the board, particularly since the building carries a $70,000 debt.

Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica addressed the board Monday night, prevailing upon the trustees to reconsider their decision to sell.

"Parents in the area hoped for a community house there," he said. "Where do these kids go at night?" Citing increasing crime rates among the nation's youth, Pica argued that the sale would have only a minimal impact on local tax rates which he estimated at five cents, and stated "kids are worth more than the savings."

Expressing displeasure over the board's resolution, Pica reminded them that when they needed the facility their administrative offices now occupy at 383 Washington Ave. but couldn't afford the purchase, the Town Fathers brought the facility and leased it for $1 to the board. "Now is a good time for you to do for the town what the town did for you," Pica said.

Trustee Caesar Romano responded, "Whenever a piece of property becomes available, we want to gobble it up ourselves. People want more ratables." Romano suggested exploiting this "classic opportunity" to see what the value of the property is and whether it heralds a "growth situation" for Belleville. He also recommended utilizing remaining school facilities more fully for recreational purposes, a proposal seconded by several parents who felt that School 2 was not located centrally enough to be a desirable community center.

Aiming to meet with the commissioners in order to devise alternative recreation areas, the board voted 6-0 in favor of the sale. Board president Charles Miele, who initially favored bargaining with the commissioners, yielded to the majority. Trustee Thomas Zampino was absent from the voting.

Bus schedules are misleading

By Ed Capparucci

There is still trouble brewing between residents and officials of New Jersey Transit over the new bus lines which went into effect two months ago.

Residents along Joralemon Street have been complaining to Mayor Michael Marotti and Public Affairs Commissioner Vincent Strumolo about the lack of buses along the route at night.

When NJT put together its new schedule, it had buses running along Joralemon Street, going from Nutley to Newark, at 30-minute intervals after 6 p.m. However, residents

Insurance manager attends conference

Ron Janowski, of 36 Oak Street, recently participated in a three-day business and educational conference in Williamsburg, Virginia, with officers, leading managers and sales representatives of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Janowski, district sales manager of Metropolitan's Essex office in Newark, qualified for the conference by placing his district in the top 10 percent of Metropolitan's 750 district sales offices in the United States and Canada.

A Metropolitan employee for 14 years, Janowski joined the company's Essex district and rose up the ranks as a successful sales representative and sales manager. Over the years he has qualified for Metropolitan's Leaders Conference, Manager's Club, 200 Club, the Professional Management Award and in 1977 and 1978 was ranked the number one sales manager in Atlantic's North Jersey Region. Janowski is a graduate of Life Underwriter Training Council.

He and his wife, Beverly, are the parents of two daughters, Aileen and Georgena, and he is a committee chairman of Boys Scout Troop 102 of Newark.

Five new members join Chamber of Commerce

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce welcomes new members to its organization. The Howard Savings Bank, located at 786 Washington Avenue; Dyers General Cleaning Service, located at 176 Washington Avenue; Traffic Jam, Inc., located at 170 Washington Avenue; Casale Realty, located at 38 Washington Avenue and Raymond Ramos, located at 777 Franklin Street have all joined the chamber.

Congratulations to Louis Cienia, of Charles Jewelers, 163 Washington Avenue, for his confidence in Washington Avenue. He expanded his store from its original area, expanding to the vacant building next door. Some time ago it was occupied by a newspaper, however, the space has been empty for quite a while.

The commerce directors just paid the telephone bill which shows the Belleville Chamber made 27 calls to communities in New Jersey and New York in answer to questions people have asked about Belleville. These questions are posed with reference to many factors, especially inquiries about stores and industries in Belleville.

A very important meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 15 at the Casa Polizzi. All members are invited, and in fact urged to come because at this meeting plans for Chamber Activities for the fall and winter of 1981 will be made. At the membership meeting, commercial officials plan to develop the following: Committees, Dinner-Dance, Membership Community Service, Sales Promotions, and Fun Raising Projects.

JACK BUDNICK, D.D.S.

ELECTRIC TOOTHBRUSHES

Electric toothbrushes are the 20th century's answer to "toothbrusher's elbow." But you can do just as well manually. Their main advantage is that all you have to do is apply the brush to your teeth and the brush does all the work.

Another advantage of the electric toothbrush is its novelty value. It is a mechanical device and children are more likely to develop regular brushing habits because of their fascination with a brush that "does the work." If an electric toothbrush encourages the habit of brushing teeth on a regular schedule, it is well-worth the investment.

The electric toothbrush is definitely a boon to handicapped persons who cannot brush their teeth easily with a regular hand brush.

The late president, Lyndon Johnson was sold on electric toothbrushes. He used to present them (engraved with the presidential seal) as gifts. "I give these toothbrushes to my friends," LBJ told his biographer, Doris Kearns, "then I know they will think of me every morning, and every night."

Senator C. Orechio hails passage to help convict reckless drivers

Senator Carmen Orechio hailed the passage in both houses of his bill, S1417, as a victory for law-abiding citizens in the State of New Jersey. The bill represents strong legislation making it easier to obtain a conviction in cases of reckless driving resulting in a fatality.

Senate Majority Leader Orechio asserted, "I have consistently advocated the tightening of our highway safety laws. The public deserves every possible protective measure to insure that those individuals who would turn an automobile into a lethal weapon are clear that we will no longer consider a 'slap on the wrist' a proper reaction to the taking of a life through irresponsible and negligent driving habits."

The Senator continued, "Statistics indicate that in New Jersey auto accidents leading to death are on the increase. Let us remember that those 'statistics' represent people — families — yours and mine."

Senator Orechio is the immediate past Chairman of the Law and Public Safety Committee in the Senate, and has introduced similar legislation in the past.

The Legislator concluded, "The passage of my proposed legislation in both houses and the expected approval of the Governor is a strong indication that we are moving in the right direction on this important issue. The public has been patiently waiting."

A correction

A headline which appeared in last week's issue of The Belleville Times incorrectly read that Lt. Hugh O'Toole, who recently retired from the Belleville police force, was the first motorcycle police officer in the township's history.

Actually, there were several other officers who served the department as in the same capacity prior to Lt. O'Toole.

Aspirin is the common remedy for many symptoms. However, there are many people who can not take it for various reasons. Some people have a specific allergy to aspirin. Others, with ulcers, should avoid using aspirin because it can irritate the stomach. It should be avoided as well by those who have bleeding problems or who are using anticoagulant drugs. Aspirin has a tendency to decrease the effectiveness of the blood platelet action in blood clotting. Common substitutes are available that work just as well as aspirin but do not have any of these side effects. Avoid upset stomachs with aspirin by taking it with food or milk.

Selling School 2

A fine piece of real estate is for sale. The School Board decided to take bids on the sale of abandoned School 2. Nothing less than $250,000 will be considered. We believe the School Board acted responsibly when it decided to start looking for a buyer. The immediate benefit to the Township of Belleville is to place this real estate on the tax roll. Additionally, it will convert a non-productive building to a facility which will produce jobs. We support the School Board's objective.

Marotti makes sense

Mayor Michael Marotti is seriously considering proposing to his colleagues the creation of a new municipal government — Town Administrator.

The proposal makes much sense to us. Under the commission form of government which governs Belleville, we have five separate departments of government, with five separate heads. With all the best intentions in the world, the interfacing of the five departments can never produce maximum benefits for taxpayers because there is not a single quarter-back.

We believe Mayor Marotti is on the right track when he talks about a town administrator to be the coordinator among the five departments. A non-political town administrator — if such a thing is possible — will save substantial taxpayer dollars.

Hugh O'Toole

Hugh O'Toole retired recently, and to mark the occasion there was a retirement dinner given in his honor last week. On an occasion of that nature, the honoree hears many words of praise, more often than not, the guest of honor finds it difficult to recognize himself from the laudatory comments made by speakers.

Hugh O'Toole's retirement dinner was like most such events — happy, full of reminiscences — a rather joyful occasion.

What made O'Toole's retirement dinner different was the fact that every single word of praise uttered by the speakers of the night was earned by Hugh O'Toole — for indeed he served well the community and the people he came to love. It is a sad day when one retires for the memories of times passed flash through the mind like laser beams — one after the other in quick succession. Some call it a trip down "Memory Lane" — others call it a heart rendering moment.

But whatever — Hugh O'Toole earned his retirement, he earned the praise heaped upon him last week. He has earned the thanks of a grateful community. In your retirement Hugh O'Toole, we wish you continued good health and happiness.

Letters

St. Bartholomew feast has lost its meaning

The following letter was sent to Father Joseph Cestaro of St. Anthony's Church.

Dear Father Cestaro:

Today, I witnessed the end of a 60 year tradition and one which my family and friends have treated with respect and dignity. Our traditional summer's end does not seem to have as much purpose and the meaning of the Feast of St. Bartholomew has lost traditional impact.

It would seem to me that morality is what it is because we have lost faith with tradition. That tradition is what I am most concerned about.

My mother carried on the tradition established by her mother, before her, and I would like to continue to pay our respect to St. Bartholomew by making our donation in the same fashion as did our predecessors.

The Feast this year has broken with everything sacred. The pomp and ceremony was lost and the donation seems to have lost its meaning.

Tradition calls for the Saint to be carried by the faithful through the streets of the Parish. The procession is traditionally led by a Priest, two altar boys with candles, as guards of honor to the Crucifix followed by a band to herald the arrival of the Saint and the ultimate recognition of placing the cape of money on the Saint. The fireworks are shot to climax the tradition.

This year, the North Ward Ambulance Squad, with sirens blaring, was the only advance to a 15 person pilgrimage. The Deacon of the church was the only ranking dignitary of the Church in attendance. No band, no Pastor, no pins, no flare, no impact — nothing sacred.

The Feast has turned into a carnival. The whoopla of the ferris wheel and rides and the profitability of the carnival seems to be the determining factor. The Feast is gone — the carnies are in. This is wrong.

We, who believe in this sacred tradition are hurt by this new carnival atmosphere. We demand to have our tradition held with respect and returned to us with dignity.

If the Saint cannot be in a procession without the dignity it deserves, then, leave it in the church, where we can pay our respect in a more suitable fashion.

When the society ran the Feast, it was run with respect and the procession climaxed the celebration. The Saint was always treated with respect and the honor guard understood its role.

One of the reasons people lose interest in society and become self-centered and self-serving is because we allow traditional values to erode. Please help stop this erosion and return to a more ecumenical spirit where each of the parishioners can continue to worship and pay respect as tradition dictates.

Sincerely,
Mary Strumolo Gammaro & Family
69 Heckel Street
Belleville,

Safety director fighting to keep Belleville clean

To the Editor:

I feel like I am fighting Goliath, day and night. The State of New Jersey through its subsidiary, the Department of Transportation, continues to make Belleville a disgrace, the way they maintain their highways, within our Town.

Conrail, a subsidized governmental agency, pays no attention to the properties owned within the Town of Belleville. Their contention is, "They are short dollars and manpower."

Why don't they divert the vast labor market they have available to them, from the State Welfare Rolls. In order to collect, the recipients should be required to work on public projects such as cleaning our highways, etc.

Wake up our Legislators!

We need help now!

Write your Congressman, Senator, or anyone else you have faith in, asking them to push for legislation, which would make this work force available to all municipalities nationwide.

Matthew A. Pica
Public Safety Commissioner

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The waning carefree days of summer bring thoughts of renewed activity and a return to the basic routine of the work-a-day world and student activities. The threat of increased heating costs looms much like the sword of Damocles over the worried head of the homeowner, while the aged concern themselves over the inconveniences of inclement weather and slippery travel which accompany the shorter days of fall and winter.

The sports fans will get their fill of the annual fall classic, the baseball World Series, a grand finale that will follow the playoff series of the strike-shortened season. Then king football will take front stage through mid-January with the Super Bowl. The college lads and high school gridiron paladins will cavort upon the yard-marked greensward to the cheers or groans of their enthusiastic followers.

Labor Day, set apart to recognize and extol the achievements of the male and female workers of America, this year sees the ominous indication of an anti-labor White House bent upon a union-busting policy to halt inflation by scotching the attempts of the workers to catch up with inflation and taxes.

September brings with it return to the two monthly meetings of the local governing body, while the tempo of political activity will be galvanized to a faster pace with the gubernatorial election between aspirants Tom Kean and Jim Florio, campaigning for the highly coveted chair in Trenton.

The Nov. 3 election also finds Commissioner Mary Senatore seeking a seat in the Assembly while, for the first time, since Belleville will be in the new 30th District, we will get an opportunity to vote for Nutley's popular mayor, Carmen A. Orechio, who is also a state senator seeking reelection. Orechio presently is Senate majority leader; his return to the Senate would seemingly assure his becoming Senate president, a position that would lend much prestige to the people of this community, since the Senate president serves as governor in the absence of the governor from the state.

Scanning some old memorabilia, we happened upon an article calling Camp Carragher a Belleville historic landmark. This shady little nook was described as a scenic, tranquil spot, a description that comes alive when one remembers it as a recreation camp known as Camp Carragher, named after the 1927 commissioner. The camp was used from the summers of 1932 to 1938 by underprivileged children certified by the Health Department nurse. One month was set aside for boys, one month for girls.

The camp pool was the biggest attraction, and other children were allowed to use it for a fee of five cents a season (these were Depression years). In the winter it was a natural spot for ice skating.

An ordinance providing for the construction of a wall enclosing the Belleville recreation camp was passed on Dec. 10, 1935, appropriating the sum of $875. The estimated cost of the project was $15,131. The dry rubble masonry wall was then constructed under federal Works Progress Administration and the Department of Public Works, giving jobs to many of the local unemployed.

An attempt to put the land up for public auction in 1972 brought the residents of the area out in full force to protect the site and its fine wall which surrounds the property. On April 25 the same year, the Belleville Board of Commissioners unanimously dedicated the land for recreational use.

It may be expected that another hassle will develop at the Sept. 10 public meeting of the Planning Board when it hears the matter of a subdivision on property bordering this dedicated recreation area. The subdivision calls for the removal of a portion of that supposed sacrosanct wall.

Careful scrutiny of the ordinance pertaining to the wall shows the patent intent to preserve the structure in its original state, except for normal repairs. The ordinance reads:

Senator Orechio opens headquarters Sept. 11

Senator Carmen A. Orechio (D-Essex) has announced the official opening of his district-wide campaign headquarters for 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 11, at the Sunbank Building on Chestnut Street.

"We are anticipating a tremendous turnout for this important event," said Thomas D'Alessio, Orechio's Nutley campaign coordinator. "Senator Orechio has served his district well — never asking a constituents' party affiliation when he has been asked to help. We are, therefore, inviting everyone — Democrats, Republicans, Independents to come out and celebrate this happy occasion with us."

The office will serve as the central campaign headquarters for the seven towns served by the senator in the 30th District — Nutley, Montclair, Belleville, Bloomfield, Verona, Cedar Grove and Glen Ridge. It will also serve as the Nutley Democratic headquarters for the entire Democratic ticket which is headed by the gubernatorial candidate, Jim Florio.

All of the Democratic district candidates have been invited to the opening. They are Assembly candidate Mary Senatore, Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato, freeholder candidate Vinnie Perrone, in addition to the entire at-large freeholder slate.

Refreshments will be served and the public is invited to attend.

Free eye testing set Sept. 23 at hospital

Clara Maass Memorial Hospital will hold a free eye clinic to test for glaucoma and cataracts 1-5 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 23. Participants will register in the main lobby of the hospital and be escorted to the examination site by volunteers.

The annual screening at the Belleville hospital tests for evidence of any eye disease or systemic disease reflected in the eye. The program is open to all persons over 35 who are not already under the care of an eye specialist.

Participants in the eye screening should be aware that it is not a complete eye examination. The testing detects many but not all abnormal conditions. If a positive diagnosis is made, treatment or followup by a physician is recommended.

Two major causes of blindness are glaucoma and cataracts. One out of every eight blind persons is a victim of glaucoma. Most of them had normal vision most of their lives and lost their sight because of undetected glaucoma.

The disease known as the "sneak thief" involves the building up of fluid pressure in the eyeball. If glaucoma is detected in the early stages, it can be controlled to prevent blindness.

Older members of the population should be tested since it can steal sight without one's being aware of its presence.

Cataract is a clouding of the lens within the eyeball blocking passage of light rays necessary for sight. There are no pills, ointments or drops which will dissolve, absorb, retard or prevent the progress of the cataract. The only known cure is surgery.

Although a delicate operation, cataract surgery has been perfected to a point where it is safe and effective. The results of surgery are dramatic in restoring sight.

No advance registration is necessary for the screening. For more information, call 751-1000, extension 817.

Belleville's past

March 3, 1913, property on Garden Avenue, known as "St. Mary's Woods" was sold and on that same date, it was agreed that the Edward M. Waldron Company of Newark remove the tower of the old church, lower the church and move it 12 feet west to obtain proper space for the new church.

The cornerstone was blessed Sept. 14, 1913 by the Rt. Rev. J. O'Connor, D.D., Bishop of Newark, assisted by the Rev. Thomas J. McEnery, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, Caldwell, and the Rev. George F. Bennett, pastor of St. Lawrence Church, Weehawken. Both Father McEnery and Father Bennett were former boys of the Parish, made their college studies at Seton Hall, South Orange and were ordained from the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception at Seton Hall. The Rev. Charles W. Smith, a brother of Father Smith and Chancellor of the Diocese, was master of ceremonies. The sermon was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Bernard M. Bogan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Plainfield.

Finally, on Sept. 13, 1914, the Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Connor dedicated the new church. Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Thomas J. McEnery of Caldwell. Father Joseph Dolan assisted as master of ceremonies. The sermon was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Mackal of St. Patrick's Church, Elizabeth.

Father Smith died on Friday, Aug. 10, 1923 at the age of 64. He was buried in St. Peter's cemetery and on Decoration Day, May 30, 1924, a monument was unveiled in his memory.

On Oct. 5, 1923, Rev. Edwin Field was appointed pastor by Bishop O'Connor. He renovated completely the "Old School" and modernized it. In 1925, Father Field was busily engaged with the church. True, it was built, but the time had arrived to embellish it. He began to obtain proper estimates and designs and color effects to render the interior devotional as well as inspirational.

A new floor was laid, a new altar rail installed and the altars delicately attuned in harmonious colors, blending with the rest of the church. New lighting effects were installed, all in keeping by design and pattern with the soft dignity of the entire whole. Today, the church and its ornamentation is a matter of compliment and of praise to him by all who visit or pray there.

Never one to be idle very long and with a driving energy, Father Field found other tasks to be done. He purchased the remaining plots of ground to square the entire block of William and Dow Streets, Church Terrace and Bridge Street as church property. He erected a new rectory alongside the church and on March 17, 1927, Father John S. Nelligan blessed the house and they moved in.

Father Field was deeply and sincerely patriotic and he visualized a monument to the men of the military and naval forces of our country who lost their lives in the "several wars." He set off a section of the rectory grounds at the corner of William and Dow Streets as the place for the raising of a fitting monument to their memory. May 30, 1929, the memorial was dedicated with 5000 people present at the ceremony. In the gathering were John Barrett, the last of the Civil War veterans in Belleville, veterans of the Spanish American War and World War I, also the American Legion and its Ladies Auxiliary, Gold Star Mothers and Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Belleville Police and Fire Departments, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts with the Color Guard of the Knights of Columbus and civic organizations — a beautiful and colorful assemblage.

The address of presentation to the church was made by John A. Matthews. The speech of acceptance was made by former congressman James Hammill. The 5000 people sang the "Star Spangled Banner" as Lt. Edward J. Lister of the Foreign Legion raised the flag to the top of the monument. The entire assemblage was led by Most Rev. Archbishop Walsh in the salute to the flag after which, with bands united and colors massed, the people sang the hymn, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name." Taps were sounded and a salute fired under Lt. Commander Morrow of the U.S. Navy.

The named inscribed are of those who made the supreme sacrifice: Harry Benjamin Blekike, Carmen Carruccio, Edward Crowell, Michael Augustus Flynn, Henry Charles Hoag, Edward Joseph Kane, Charles McGinty, Thomas Joseph Mooney, Michael John Murray, Charles Aloysius Schaffer, William Thomas Smith, Edward W. Stockham and George John Kalvo.

On Tuesday, Dec. 8, 1931, Father Field died. He was buried in St. Peter's cemetery, adjacent to the grave of Father James Smith and a monument was erected in his memory.

On Jan. 15, 1932, the Rev. Joseph M. Kelly was appointed pastor. He found, in the midst of a nation-wide depression, a parish free of debt and $20,000 on hand, all due to the magnificent work of the late lamented Father Field.

He made plans for a new school and arranged for the purchase of the old Connolly homestead and Malague and McEnery properties on William and Dow Streets. A new school was built and on Sunday, Oct. 4, 1936, the Most Rev. Archbishop Thomas Joseph Walsh laid the cornerstone and dedicated the school. This school stands as a monument commemorating the centenary anniversary of the parish.

In 1940, a new convent was built next to the rectory. The old school has been demolished and a large parking lot is there today.

Pastors of St. Peter's include:
Rev. Francis Ferrall, 1838-39;
Rev. Bernard McArdle, 1839-40;
Rev. James Dougherty, 1841;

Golden comments

"The present wall which exists on the easterly border of the former Camp Carragher site... shall be maintained in its present state and shall not be altered, removed or reduced in any way except for normal repairs without the specific written authorization of the Director of Parks and Public Property."

But, why, salient question objectors are asking, would the mayor want that fine wall partially removed, especially since it is part of an historic landmark? Most see no advantage to the town and wonder why the other commissioners, without reservation, sanctioned such a move in a resolution. However, the resolution cannot supersede the legislative intent of the ordinance which implied preservation of the wall's status quo.

Dolls to highlight fibrosis luncheon

A collection of nearly 60 dolls will be a special feature of the annual benefit lunch of the N.J. Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, it was announced by Mrs. MaryAnn Smigelski, of Nutley, co-chair person of the event. The unusual array of dolls has been assembled over more than 20 years by Chris Cipolaro, of Parsippany.

"They run the gamut from early 20th century bisque-heads handed down as family heirlooms, to hand crafted Russian peasant dolls found at a garage sale," Mrs. Cipolaro explained. "Many are beautifully clad in traditional folk costume, others simply reflect the culture or character of their homeland," she continued. "Sharing them with others is really special," Chris said, "all the more for a good cause."

Mrs. Cipolaro lives in Parsippany with her husband, Hank, and three-year-old daughter, Wendy. She is a part-time nurse in the I.C.U. of St. Clare's Hospital, Denville.

The luncheon will be held on Wednesday, September 23, 1981, at the Chanticleer in Millburn. It is the major event in N.J.'s state-wide observance of National Cystic Fibrosis Week. Cystic Fibrosis is the number one genetic killer of America's youth. It affects the lungs and digestive system. For further information call 263-1770, or 790-3100.

Knights of Columbus to elect its officers

Council No. 835 will install their officers for 1981-1982 on Monday, September 14 at Knights Hall, 94 Bridge St. with a mass celebrated by (Chaplain) Rev. James Heavey at 8:30 p.m. Refreshments will follow at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The newly elected officers have been formulating plans for the 1981-1982 with social and fraternal programs.

The Belleville Knights have added incentive this coming year. The Knights of Columbus will be celebrating its Centennial nationwide. "A tradition of devotion, a century of service", from October 1981 to October 1982.

During seventy eight of the one hundred years the Belleville Council has established its own tradition of honor and respect. Grand Knight Frank Corbo, announced contributions recently to the following: $3669 to Camp Fatima for the retarded, $1000 to Belleville Boy Scout Troop #364, a special unit of boys who are mentally retarded who are led by Scoutmaster Larry Dempsey, and $1000 to the Mal Condon Canteen which opened on September 19 and meet twice a month at the Knights of Columbus rooms plus another worthy endeavor was the raising of $1,200 for the arthritis fund.

These are just the types of service which the Belleville Council has contributed to and will continue to do charitable work for the community.

Ladies and Gentleman,

You can't grow grass without grass seed!

All lawns need an annual program of lawn care and every program must contain both granular and spray. Some chemicals work better when applied in a granular form, and others, like weed controls and post emergent crab grass controls, work better in a liquid form. All lawns also require periodic aeration and seed, but only Lawn King gives all these via LAWN COMBINE & SPRAY — THE BETTER WAY! WE KNOW IT'S THE ONLY WAY!!!

We are chemical applicators, not miracle workers. We know what your lawn needs and when it needs it. What you see in the program, is what you get. Top quality chemicals and seed — only the best — that's all we use. There's no such thing as "specially formulated for drought."

Aeration, seed, lime, Fungus controls and grub controls are part of our program — not options at extra cost when you need them. By the time you know you need them it's too late anyway. No slopes please. If we can't aerate twice a year we can't help you.

There's a one time charge if you need any extras like a preparatory service, extra seed or additional lime. We may not be the cheapest lawn service around but we are the only ones who give your lawn everything it needs at a price you can afford to pay. You can figure your costs from the chart below. No contracts to sign, no guarantees, no promises, no slopes, and no nonsense. Pay from service to service or prepay for the year and we'll give you a 5% discount too!

If you compare our program and prices with any other company, you'll find that either they are charging too much, or we are not charging enough! Look at it real close and you may even arrive at the conclusion that not only is it better to do business with us — it's cheaper too!

Da Actress — Barbara Vitale of Belleville recently appeared in Hugh Leonard's Tony Award winning play Da, at Seton Hall University. The play ran for six performances.

Belleville actress appeared in 'Da'

Barbara Vitale of Belleville recently was seen at Seton Hall University, in the Theatre-in-the-Round's production of "Da."

The play, written by Hugh Leonard, was the winner of the 1978 Tony Award for best play. New York Post writer, Clive Barnes, wrote that the playwright has taken "the simple setting of accounts at the death of a parent — and enlarged it into a portrait. Most of us have been through the circumstances of mortality, but Leonard has made fun and art of it... It was a play that had charm and love. Its warmth and humor and actuality is the oddly funny story of our lives."

"Da" was presented on the South Orange campus early in August, and run for six performances.

Barbara Vitale of Belleville was seen in the production. Ms. Vitale appeared as Paquette in last month's Seton Hall University Summer Theatre production of "Candide." Last summer she played Gymnasia in "A Funny Thing..." also at Seton Hall.

Buc Shots

A sneak preview of the NFL season

It's in the air now. After a long summer of baseball strikes and controversy, after months of Reggie, George, Winfield, split seasons and who knows what else, football is back with a refreshing new look.

Locally, the Belleville football quad began pre-season drills last week on a voluntary basis and a large turnout of athletes participated. (More on the Bucs on this page.)

Since this column will be pretty much devoted to Belleville sports once the school year begins next week, this seems a good time to get a sneak preview at the NFL season which begins this Sunday. The Jets will be in Buffalo while the Giants will visit Philadelphia. Once again, Buc Shots will give a sneak preview of the Giants and Jets games weekly and will also make a prediction of the NFL's top game of the week.

Over in the NFC east, the Philadelphia Eagles and Dallas Cowboys seem a good bet to battle it out for division supremacy. The Eagles, the defending NFC champs, return a strong lineup and with hard working coach Dick Vermeil pushing his troops, the Philadelphia boys will be hard to stop. Dallas, meanwhile, is always a threat and this year will be no exception. The Cowboys drafted well, picking up a fine receiver in Doug Donley from Ohio State and Danny White will be one of the NFL's best quarterbacks for 1981.

Down in St. Louis, the Cardinals seem ready to make a run at the title and return to the form that made them big winners between 1974 and 1977. The Cards have a talented group led by O.J. Anderson, a two-time 1000 yard rusher. St. Louis was 3-1 in exhibitions which is not a very good indicator, but the talent is there. There is also a lot of talent to speak of in the nation's capital as the Redskins look to bounce back from last year's disastrous 6-10 mark. John Riggins is back and the backfield is further helped by Joe Washington and Terry Metcalf. The defense is a big question mark here but the Skins should improve.

The Giants have the basis for optimism in 1981 but that doesn't guarantee a jump out of last place. The NFC East is a good division this year and while the Giants might finish with a near .500 record, it might still keep them in the cellar. Giant fans will see improvement, but the Giants still need some running help.

Going from a good division in the NFC East to a mediocre one in the Central, the Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions figure to share the title. The Bears have Walter Payton and a formidable defense. Quarterback Vince Evans is better than a lot of people think and Payton will be hard to stop. The Lions feature Billy Simms and a fine coach in Monte Clark. They came close last year with a 9-7 mark, the best record in Detroit since 1973.

Believe it or not, the Green Bay Packers might have reason to be optimistic. The Pack had a good pre-season, beating Oakland, Dallas and Cleveland and with a couple of breaks, the Packers might be dangerous. Green Bay plays an easy schedule and Bart Starr needs a good season if he is to keep his job. Minnesota was iffy to begin with and now with starting quarterback Tommy Kramer out for a couple of weeks, the Vikes will be hard pressed to match last year's 9-7 division title. Finally, Tampa Bay, who came within nine points of the Super Bowl just two years ago, will not be a big factor. The Bucs have an awesome defense but no offense at all and Ricky Bell cannot do it all by himself.

Out in the West, the Atlanta Falcons seem to be the early favorites and can win should Steve Bartkowski remain healthy. The Falcon receivers, Alfred Jenkins and Junior Moore and a good defense should be the factor to edge out the Rams. Speaking of LA, the Rams will be strong with Pat Haden in the lineup and will most likely be playoff material. The Rams always field a good ball club and while some of the big names are gone, the Rams are always feared.

New Orleans and San Francisco both have the basis for hope. The Saints and '49ers, led by Bum Phillips and Bill Walsh, two fine coaches, are very young but have some talent. Those programs are in the right direction after years of disappointment and 1981 could be a big year for both clubs.

In the AFC, the eastern division seems to belong to Buffalo, although New England might have something to say about that. The Bills are tough, period. They have a great coach in Chuck Knox who in 1978 took over a struggling franchise and in three seasons, has led them to an 11-5 mark and the division title. They figure to repeat with Joe Ferguson and Joe Cribbs along with a solid defense. The Patriots once again have the talent to beat anyone but will the Pats hold up under pressure? It's tough to say, but if they can, the Patriots have a good shot at dethroning the Bills.

Down in sunny Miami, the Dolphins just completed a perfect pre-season (4-0) and Don Shula's club will be contenders as usual. Their main problem is how to beat the Jets whom they haven't stopped since November, 1977. Should the Dolphins stop the Jets, they could challenge because Miami has always done well against Buffalo (21-1 over the last 11 years) and New England.

The Jets and Baltimore Colts both have good clubs and both did well in the draft. The Jets have Richard Todd at quarterback and hopefully some dividends will be paid on this rather expensive investment. The backfield, with Bruce Harper, Freeman McNeil, Kevin Long, Clark Gaines and Scott Dierking is tough as is the young defense and fine receiver corps. The Colts drafted perhaps the best in the NFL in 1981 and with Bert Jones, anything is possible.

Like the NFC East, the AFC East seems to be the NFL's most competitive race.

The AFC Central, for years the toughest in the NFL will once again be an exciting race. The Pittsburgh Steelers, contrary to what some experts might say, are far from through. Just ask the Giants. Pittsburgh is still good enough to beat Houston, Cincinnati and even Cleveland. The Steelers also want to get back to the playoffs after missing out in 1980 for the first time in nine years. Jack Lambert leads this still respected defense and not too many people will tell Joe Greene that he's too old to play.

The Cleveland Browns will either come through with another 11-5 mark or have a disastrous season. Cleveland won six games last year in the final minute and should the "Cardiac Kids" not be so lucky this year, Cleveland might be a very cold and empty ball park come December. Houston has Ken Stabler back and Earl Campbell running like mad, but the Oilers do have some problems, especially in the secondary. Houston thrives under pressure however and with Stabler back at the controls, might make a run. Cincinnati has had a reputable ball club on paper for quite a some time now but the Bengals haven't been able to prove it on the field. Maybe this will be the year, but this club is very difficult to figure out.

Out in the West, San Diego will score a lot of points but how

Football Buccaneers impressive during first week of basic drills

Head coach likes outlook

By Mike Lamberti

After a long summer, the Belleville Buccaneers football squad is back and looking for continued success behind their fifth year head coach, John Senesky.

Senesky, who has compiled a 25-13-1 mark in four full years at Belleville, is very happy with his team's first week of drilling. Actual competition didn't begin until Sept. 1, but non-contact drills, which Senesky and staff call the "skills and drills", took place last week with some very pleasing results reported.

The Bucs, who have lost just two times over the last two years in regulation play, had a large turnout for this year's team. Some 85 players are out for the squad, and that total does not include the freshman players. What really makes the head coach happy is the result of the power index drills that took place late last week.

The power index is compiled of the power clean, the power press, the squat and the bench press. An athlete has to perform well in all the events in order to achieve a high score. The 1981 Bucs set a record last week as 23 athletes broke the 5.0 index mark, as compared to the old record of 20 set last year.

For the second straight year, Jeff Walsh led the way in this drill. The senior running back who weighs in at a rock solid 165 pounds, achieved an amazing score of 6.4. Walsh cleaned 230 pounds, pressed 225 pounds, squatted 325 and benched 295. "That's quite a good job," praised Senesky. "Do you realize that he lifted six times his own weight?"

Pete Haverick, another senior running back, was second with a score of 6.3 while sophomore John Guarino placed third with a mark of 6.2. Guarino, only 137 pounds, cleaned 172 pounds, pressed 200, squatted 300 and benched 190. Finally, Danny Palumbo also cleared the very difficult 6.0 hurdle. Palumbo, a senior lineman, will be a tough man for the opposition.

Senior John Bucciarelli set new team records in the bench press at 315 pounds and set a military press record of 259 pounds. "Booch", the Hit'em Hard — Fred Scherrer takes a crack at the tackling dummy during the first day of workouts for the 1981 football Bucs. Head Coach Joseph Senesky is very impressed with the new recruits and feels that with the return of many of last year's squad the team could be better than last year.

Bucs nose tackle of a year ago, weighed in at a strong 212 pounds this year.

Haverick's squat of an incredible 405 pounds led the way in that department while Walsh's clean of 230 pounds was tops there.

The famous Belleville decathlon took place on Monday at 9 a.m. and a full report on the boys' results will be in next week's report. The players were issued pads on Monday afternoon and on Sept. 1, the Bucs began double sessions. Since school does not start until Sept. 9 this year, the team has a full week of hard work before going back to single workouts.

Times coverage to expand this fall with addition of BHS sports teams

High School sports are back once again and The Belleville Times sports department feels that the 1981-82 season will be the best ever. The athletes are raring to go and the enthusiasm is spreading quickly around town.

In order to provide our readers, with the best coverage possible, the department is expanding its sport coverage for this year.

Having added two new features and two new varsity sports to our program, we feel that can offer the readers the best coverage we've ever had.

Starting in the fall of 1981, the Times will do weekly coverage on the football, soccer, cross country, tennis, and gymnastics teams while we will add a new feature, entitled the "NFL REport", a weekly look at the play of the Jets, Giants and the rest of the NFL from the previous week and a look at the games for the following week.

As the weather gets colder, the action gets hotter. Come winter, we will do coverage of the girls basketball, boys basketball, wrestling and indoor track teams as well as the indoor version of "Cosmos Corner" as the outdoor Cosmos field an indoor squad at the brand new Meadowlands Arena.

Come Spring, the excitement continues to mount as the baseball, softball, track, tennis, golf and crew teams enter the limelight. Also we will have "Cosmos Corner" as the outdoor version of the Kings of the NASL bid to earn another championship with more exciting action from Giants Stadium.

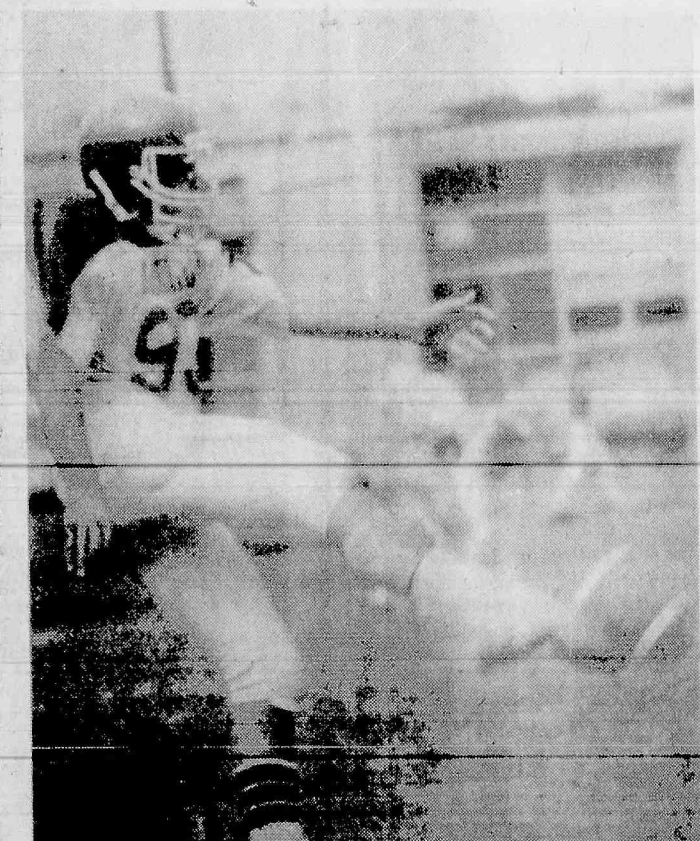

Of course we will continue with the controversial column of Mike Lamberti, "Bucs Shots." Mike will continue to give you his witty and candid comments dealing with Belleville High sports.

The coverage does not stop at the varsity level however. This year, we hope to do weekly coverage of the freshman and junior varsity teams from all sports. Any high school journalist or potential journalist who wishes to do some coverage on a particular sport can contact Ed Caparucci at The Belleville Times at 759-3200, or stop by at 777 Bloomfield Avenue, Nutley between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The sports section will be the largest ever this year with four pages of sports each week. That of course also includes plenty of pictures. Finally, besides just interviewing the coaches, which has been the customary tradition, the Times will also talk to the athletes who participated in the weekly event and get their version of what happened.

All in all, we hope our readers will enjoy our expanded coverage and we remind you that we are always open for ideas. Once again, we hope that 1981-82 is the start of something very special and the sports department is looking forward to working with the Belleville athletes once again.

Kicking Off the Season — The passers, punters and receivers were all out on the field once again with their shoulder pads and helmets as the Belleville Bucs started practicing for the 1981 season which opens on September 26.

Jensen's all-stars coming to town

Jim Jensen's Channel 2 softball all-stars are coming to Belleville to play in a charity game sponsored by the Michael P. Pizzi Civic Association on Sunday September 20.

The game will be held at Clearman Field and will start at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are priced at $1.

This is the first year the Pizzi association is sponsoring the softball game, in which funds raise will go to help fight Multiple Sclerosis. Members of the association are looking for a large turnout in hope that future games could be scheduled to help other various charities.

Jensen is the co-anchor of WCBC Channel 2 news which is aired each night at 6 p.m. Along with other station-members, Jensen travels throughout the metropolitan area to play in benefit games.

For more information about the game and tickets call 759-6195.

Bucs shots

well will the defense do? Last year's AFC title game with Oakland saw the Chargers give up 34 points and that kind of defense will not lead this club to the Super Bowl. San Diego is also without John Jefferson the fine receiver who is sitting it out because of a contract dispute. The Oakland Raiders have two healthy quarterbacks in Jim Plunkett and Dan Pastorini and are of course the Super Bowl champs. Whether the Raiders can repeat is questionable but Oakland will be one of the NFL's best teams.

Seattle, Kansas City and Denver are all question marks. They all have the capabilities to play well, but it's tough to tell how well they will do. Denver cut Matt Robinson in order to keep Craig Morton at quarterback. The Broncos aren't about to win any titles with Morton at the helm, but that's their problem. Seattle and Kansas City have a good offense and defense respectively but are lacking in a lot of key areas.

Thus, look for Philly, Chicago and Atlanta to win division titles in the NFC with Los Angeles and Dallas earning wildcard spots. In the AFC, it should be Buffalo, Pittsburgh and Oakland while San Diego and New England should be wildcard clubs. Come January in Pontiac, Michigan for Super Bowl XVI, my choice is Buffalo and Philly for the championship game.

For all you Richard Todd fans who can gloat because Denver released Matt Robinson, just remember a few facts. First of all, Robinson did more in his one year at the helm of the Jets (1978) than Todd did in his six years combined. Robinson had the team in playoff contention until the 15th week of the season and that was against the NFL's toughest schedule and the Jets were the NFL's second youngest team. Furthermore, because of Robinson's play, the Jets sold out Shea Stadium for the entire 1979 season. Of course, everyone knows that Robinson won the job in the summer of 1979 and lost it after one game because he jammed his thumb in a hotel door. To this day, that still sounds like a pretty dumb excuse to play Todd. That one game Robinson played was a 25-22 overtime loss to Cleveland which the Jets had won in regulation time but Mark Gastineau roughed the passer with seven seconds left and the Browns tied the game.

Robinson's failure in Denver can be stemmed from the Jets. Don't forget he didn't play at all in 1979 and is suddenly made the number one quarterback for the 1980 season with a new team, a new system and a strange area to play in. He showed signs of playing well but was rusty. So Denver cuts him after his best pre-season performance a week ago against Green Bay so they can keep Morton. The Buffalo Bills have realized that Robinson has talent and have picked him up. This should be good for Matt because he'll be playing behind a good quarterback in Joe Ferguson and will be back in familiar surroundings (the east coast.) Robinson should see a log of playing time because Ferguson has a chronically bad ankle and over the course of a long season, (16 games), Chuck Knox will not let Ferguson get banged around week after week, not with a good back up in Robinson. This playing time will give Robinson his confidence back and with a good team like Buffalo, it will be to his advantage.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, who did the 1977 Denver Broncos beat in the playoffs and who did they lose to that year? The answer: The Broncos lost to Oakland (24-14) and Dallas (14-6). They defeated Pittsburgh and Oakland in the playoffs, losing to Dallas 27-10 in the Super Bowl.

For this week's quiz, name the last time the St. Louis Cardinals won a division title, who they played in the World Series and the Series MVP that year.

Finally, this week's NFL picks. The Jets go to Buffalo where the pickings are not easy. The Bills will be psyched with a large home crowd and the Jets will have to strike early if they're going to have a shot. The Jets haven't beaten Buffalo in their last four shots. (By the way, the last time the Jets beat the Bills, Matt Robinson led the way 45-14.) Matty will be on the other side this year and the Bill defense might be too much. Buffalo 23-14.

The Giants are home to Philly and an early season upset is possible. The first week of the season is known for upsets and the Eagles are coming off a stinging loss to the Jets in the pre-season finale. Giants 30-27.

The Nutley Savings bowling team traveled to Las Vegas Aug. 10-12 to compete in the Miller Million Dollar National Tournament.

The Savings squad, made up of Tom Golubic, Gary Bell, Mike Meggiolaro, Frank Sasso and Thomas Reid, all of Nutley, placed 149th out of a nationwide gathering of 358 squads. After the first day of competition Nutley Savings was within 125 pins of first place.

"I'm disappointed," Golubic said. "I really had a feeling that we were going to definitely go out there and take the championship. I got the feeling from some teams out there that they were just in Las Vegas to have some fun. We went out there with an attitude that we wanted to win."

At the end of day one of the competition, Golubic led the Nutley Savings squad with a three-game total of 700. The 700 score was the fourth highest individual series for any bowler in the tourney. Sasso followed Golubic with a day one three-game total of 536. Bell hit 322, Meggiolaro had 458 and Reid scored 454.

"We were in great shape after the first day," Golubic recalled.

"Everything just fell apart for us the second day. We were really in a position to make a move, but I guess it just wasn't meant to be."

The day two totals for the Nutley Savings squad showed Golubic dropping to a three-game total of 575, Reid hit an even 500, Sasso 496, Meggiolaro had 483 and Bell totaled 469.

Golubic attributed the fall in scores on day two to bad breaks and an unfamiliarity with lane conditions.

"We just couldn't get the breaks. Some pins that should have dropped for us didn't," Golubic said. "We were throwing well, but we just couldn't get the breaks when it counted."

A correction

A correction should be made to last week's front page picture caption which referred to the Recreation Carnival Contribution. The proper name for the Assistant Superintendent of Recreation in Belleville is Dennis Buckley, not James Buckley.

Pre-school has openings

There are still a few openings in the Belleville Recreation Department's Pre-School Play Program which is scheduled to begin sometime in September.

The program is designed for four-year-old children and consists of stories, games, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

A session is from 9:15 a.m. to 11:15 a.m., five days a week with a class limited to 25 students. The mothers of the children accepted will serve one duty day about every nine days according to a published schedule. The cost of the 15-week session is $30.00.

School will begin again in September under the leadership of Mrs. Susanne Iannini.

For further information, please contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 759-3142 as soon as possible.

Tennis tourney in Bloomfield

Everyone is invited to participate in the 3rd annual Bloomfield Olympic Benefit Open Tennis Tournament. Men's and Women's Singles, Doubles, and Mixed Doubles will be played on September 12, 13, 19 and 20 at Pulaski Park and Vassar Field in Bloomfield. Entries close Friday, September 4.

The Open Tennis Tournament is sponsored by the Bloomfield Tennis Players Federation and the Bloomfield Board of Recreation Commissioners. Information and applications can be obtained during the day from Jeff Lichter at the Bloomfield Civic Center, 84 Broad Street, 743-9074, or in the evenings, 338-6316; 338-8839 or 748-0825.

Cosmos' corner

By Mike Lamberti

It was billed as a rather exciting game. The champions of the North American Soccer League, the Cosmos, would play the champions of Brazil, Gremio, in a highly touted exhibition game at Giants Stadium.

Gremio, a highly respected team throughout the world would go up against the Cosmos, fresh off a 23-9 regular season and raring for the playoffs which started earlier this week.

Unfortunately, only Gremio seemed to take the game seriously, and the Cosmos were handed their most one sided defeat at Giants Stadium, a 3-1 setback before 30,000 fans.

The Brazilian champs could have tallied more, but Cosmos keeper Hubert Birkenmeier played solid in goal and Gremio had a goal called back because of a controversial offside call. While the Cosmos disappointed their fans with the lackluster performance, it was clearly obvious that their minds were on other things, mainly the Tampa Bay Rowdies. In the playoffs first round, while the Cosmos had a first round bye, the Rowdies surprised the NASL by defeating the tough Vancouver Whitecaps in two straight games. Tampa Bay, (15-17 during the regular season) barely made the playoffs, but have found a second wind and are now anxiously awaiting the Cosmos. One Cosmos player who is equally anxious for the series to begin is Steve Wegerle, who was obtained from the Rowdies earlier this year.

Wegerle left Tampa Bay with pleasure and doesn't have the best of feelings for the Rowdies head coach, Gordon Jago. "Yes, it will be a tough series" said Wegerle. "They have to be happy with their performance against Vancouver and will be looking for us."

"Neil Roberts (a Tampa Bay player) and I are good friends and I've had the chance to talk to him from time to time," he continued. "He seems to feel that Tampa is playing their best soccer right now."

The Rowdies and Cosmos are one of the NASL's oldest rivalry stemming back to 1975. Then the two met in Soccer Bowl 1978 and are relatively even for regular season play. This year, the two teams split their two games and overall, the Rowdies are winless in Giants Stadium, while the Cosmos have won but once in Tampa Bay.

The Cosmos played with their supposed playoff lineup last Sunday against Gremio, but Hennis Weisweiler might make a few changes. The defense, in front of goalkeeper Birkenmeier will probably be Jeff Durgan, Bob Iarusci, Andranik Eskandarian and Wim Rjesibergen. In the midfield will be Johann Neeskens, Vladislav Bogicevic, Roberto Cabanas and possibly Francois Van der Elst while the front line will consist of Giorgio Chinaglia and Wegerle.

Originally, Chico Borja was scheduled to start up front with Chingalia and Seninho but Borja was injured in the Gremio game and is doubtful for the Tampa Bay series. Seninho was replaced in the second half by Wegerle and the South African played very well, setting up the only Cosmos goal by Chinaglia.

While the team gets ready for a shot at another Soccer Bowl crown, all is not happy in Cosmos land. Ricky Davis has not seen too much action lately, same is the case with Angelo D'Bernardo. Van der Elst, who might get a start in the Rowdie series has been absent from the lineup lately and Larry Hulcer, a bright prospect just one year ago, has seen very little action the entire season.

It would appear that whether the Cosmos do well in the playoffs or not, a major rehauling job might be in order at seasons end. This revamping might affect everyone, from the head coach downward as the Cosmos look to build up the attendance after seeing it sag this season.

COSMOS CHATTER: The Cosmos opened the series with Tampa Bay yesterday in Tampa. On Saturday night, game two will be played at Giants Stadium and should a third game be necessary, it will also be played at Giants Stadium next Wednesday. Other quarterfinal round action sees Chicago playing surprising Montreal, San Diego battling Jacksonville and Minnesota tackling Ft. Lauderdale. Should things go as expected, the Cosmos, Chicago, Jacksonville and Ft. Lauderdale will be left for the semifinals. That could mean a Cosmos Ft. Lauderdale semifinal round while Chicago plays San Diego. That's only speculation and don't forget that Le Manic of Montreal, led by Eddie Firmani posted a major upset by stopping Los Angeles and Jacksonville will be no patsy for the Sockers of San Diego.

Accidental injuries on the rise in U.S.

Every year newspaper accounts describe the gruesome carnage, and government agencies record the staggering statistics of accidental injuries and deaths in and around U.S. homes.

ITEM: A 44-year-old Canton, Ohio man was fatally shocked while he stood in his swimming pool, cleaning it with a broom. His arm, officials said, apparently made contact with an electrical filter.

ITEM: A 15-year-old Wayne, Indiana boy was electrocuted when the old power drill he was using shorted out.

ITEM: A 32-year-old man was electrocuted when he stepped in a puddle of water while plugging in an extension cord in the yard of his Palm Harbor, Fla. home.

Last year, about 23,000 people died as a result of accidents at home. An estimated 3.5 million others suffered disabling injuries.

Safety experts at Underwriters Laboratories (UL) warn that, during warm weather, chances for accidents increase.

According to UL, one reason for higher home accident statistics in the summer is the increased use of power tools outdoors. Most people use power tools infrequently. But warm weather is "do-it-yourself" project time for many people, and electric drills, saws and other tools come out of storage. If they've been improperly stored, power cords might have become cracked or cut, water or cold might have damaged the motor or caused deterioration of the insulation. Any tool or appliance that has not been used for several months should be checked out first to make sure it's safe to operate. And, of course, electrical products should not be used outdoors when it's raining or in wet locations, that seems like an obvious precaution but, surprisingly, some people apparently overlook the danger.

Perhaps a person is just finishing up a project and needs to make one last cut with an electric saw as the rain starts to fall; or cut that last section of grass with an electric mower. The risk is forgotten.

A good device to have installed on all outdoor electrical outlets and outlets near water are ground fault circuit interrupters (GFCI). UL engineers say. A GFCI looks just like a regular electrical outlet except that, if there is any dangerous leakage of electrical current, it will cut off the electricity coming from the outlet before a potentially fatal shock can occur. GFCI's should be installed by a qualified electrician. Plug-in models also are now available.

Extension cords are another area of concern, UL safety engineers report. Only extension cords approved for outdoor use should be used outdoors. This information usually is marked on the packaging and on the cord. It's also very important that the extension cord is rated high enough for the device plugged into it. The rating is either in watts or amperes and usually can be found right on the cord. People should check instruction manuals or the electric equipment's labels for its wattage or ampere rating to make sure it's usable with the extension cord selected.

UL engineers emphasize other rules for safety.

Parents should never allow children to operate power tools unless they are properly supervised. The use of power tools requires good judgment and skill. Power saws can cut down trees, drills can bore through sheet metal and circular saws can split two-by-fours. Imagine what these tools can do to a human body?

Properly maintain power tools. In the case of saws and lawnmowers, cutting edges should be kept sharp and clean, instructions for lubricating and changing accessories should be followed.

When using an electric tool, check to see that it's switched off before plugging it in. Sudden starts could be dangerous.

Never carry a tool or appliance by its cord, or yank the cord out of electrical outlets. Keep cords away from heat, oil and sharp edges.

Remember that tools and appliances should be disconnected when they're being serviced, while changing accessories such as blades, and when they're not in use, and they should be stored indoors, in a dry safe place, away from children.

Assembly nominee John Kelly points to inadequate parole board records

"Evidence exists that parole has largely failed to achieve its dual goals; one, it offers little or no protection to the men and women of this area, and two, it is not providing adequate help and services to offenders to prevent them from becoming repeaters," John Kelly, Assembly nominee, 30th District, (R), stated today.

Kelly said, "I am informed that parole boards are largely ineffective. When they tie prison release to participation in treatment programs, they corrupt the treatment process and encourage gamesplaying and manipulation by offenders who put more effort into getting out of prison than in staying out."

Kelly warned, "When they attempt to predict future criminality they fail because so many variables contribute to crime and the elements of chance are in each. The determinants of recidivism are not now and most likely never will be under full social control. The best that corrections can do is attempt to spark the motivation for self-change and to provide help for offenders when they ask for it."

"In the assembly, I hope to work with others to see that this should be done in an atmosphere that is disciplined yet humane," the Nutley civic leader said.

Kelly is studying eight specific proposals that may come before the next Assembly in 1982.

Kelly concluded, "The offender must learn that each person is worthy of setting his own goals and is responsible for achieving them. He/she is to be given a choice to be what he/she is and what he/she will become, even if he/she chooses badly. The job for the corrections agencies serving the seven communities of Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Cedar Grove, Verona and Nutley, is to explain the options, to encourage wise choices (without fear of sanctions) and to provide assistance for those who seek it."

Because of the increasing crime in this area, including Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona, Kelly hopes that interested citizens will share with him their ideas on what can be done to make our communities safer. He can be reached by mail at 37 Wayne Place, Nutley, NJ 07110 or by phone at 661-3200.

Belleville Jaycees receive charter

By Jeff Weinberger

The incipient meeting of the Belleville Jaycees was followed by good news on Friday, when the state Board of Directors of New Jersey Jaycees accepted the new group's charter, making it official.

Several of the Belleville Jaycees' officers already have been chosen, though they will not be officially sworn-in for several more weeks.

Sandy Greenfield is acting president, Fred Vaccaro is acting internal vice president, and Dave Perry is acting secretary-treasurer. The group now has 20 registered members, 12 of whom signed up last Thursday. Greenfield said that the organization would continue to work hard in signing new members over the next few months.

"We are going to continue our recruiting of new members," he said. "There is a lot of thing which we can accomplish in Belleville and the more members we have the better it is for the organization."

John Tiene, president of the Nutley Jaycees, which is sponsoring the new Belleville chapter is confident that the chapter will help the community of Belleville.

"I feel that the Belleville Jaycees will continue to grow and prove to be a valuable community asset," said Tiene. "There are many young men looking to help the Township of Belleville."

Tiene was instrumental in forming the Belleville chapter of the Jaycees. Two weeks ago, Tiene, along with local and state members of the Jaycees, recruited members for the new chapter in shopping centers throughout the township.

Greenfield also had some thoughts on the group he will be heading.

"I feel that there is a renewed interest in the Belleville community for Jaycees," Greenfield said. "Also I feel the Belleville Jaycees will be able to join together with other Belleville organizations to help solve some of Belleville's problems."

Greenfield also gave special thanks to People's Bank, which supplied the organization with its charter fee.

"Without the help of People's Bank and Patricia Conte, their representative, this would not have been possible," said Greenfield. "It is nice to have them behind us and we will be looking to them for advice in the future months."

A number of local Jaycees officials, past and present, attended last week's meeting at the Elk's lodge on Washington Avenue.

Among them were Joe Doyle, a past president of the Belleville Jaycees chapter which lost its charter in 1977 due to a decline in membership.

Also in attendance were six members of the Nutley chapter, including Tiene. They included Alex Sistarenik, a past president of the chapter, Walt Smith, a past president of the state Jaycees and past national vice president, Dave Grisostolo and Ron Zucker, both district directors, and Bob Greenwood, regional director.

Base as part of the N.J. Wing Summer Encampment held recently at the Naval Air Engineering Center at Lakehurst.

Citizens want trustees appointed instead of elected to the board

who support the measure on last Wednesday at the Recreation Center, Risoli displayed statistics indicating that 5,625 Belleville votes had been cast in the June 11, 1979 general assembly election. Requiring only 844 signatures, the petition bears 1197 names, including those of Commissioners Joseph McGreevy and Vincent Strumolo and other public officials.

The petition was filed with the school board administration last Thursday, and will be submitted to the county clerk's office in Newark. State law also requires that the special election be held not more than 50 days after the filing date, or by October 16, in this case.

At Wednesday's session, Risoli cited increasingly high school budgets, lack of expertise in important areas, and excessive politicking as motives for his action. "In my three years on the board," he said, "60 percent of the appointments (made by the trustees) resulted from connections and favoritism."

"Anyone who wants to get elected to this board must play politics," he continued. "And there should be no politicians on a school board."

He also charged that once elected, trustees made appointments based on political advantage rather than qualification for a post.

"Under the appointive system, trustees would be appointed by the mayor and would serve at his pleasure. The appointee is a reflection on the mayor and must perform, or his resignation will be requested," explained Risoli. He added that Mayor Marotti has assured him that if the movement is successful, a trustee from each school district will be appointed to the seven-member panel in order to ensure equitable representation. In an interview Monday, Magotti confirmed that promise, but declined comment on the actions saying only, "I'll abide by whatever the voters decide."

A former president of the Citizens Tax Council and proponent of the appointive systems, Sal Calabro, announced his support Wednesday for the movement.

"The theory of an elective Board is that it represents the people," he said. "But a basic tenet of all business is that if you want a job done correctly, you must appoint a qualified person to do it."

He noted that those who choose to run for the board frequently lack expertise in areas requiring school board decisions.

Risoli added, "The highly qualified people don't want to put up with the hassles of an election campaign. That's why they never run."

Most significant, however, is the projected effect this action will have on the school budget, which is consistently voted down by Belleville citizens.

"It's ridiculous," Risoli said Wednesday. "The Board of Education took 41 percent of every tax dollar to educate only 5,000 kids, but the town took only 17 percent to serve a community of 37,000 citizens."

He noted that an appointed board would permit establishment of a Board of School Estimates, which would be comprised of two board trustees, two citizens, and the mayor. This group would construct a budget then present it for public hearing.

Risoli plans to appoint a coordinator for each school in the township to promote this project.

Anticipating "bureaucratic infighting" and an "uphill battle," Risoli said, "I will debate any board member on this matter, especially the attorney and trustees who removed their children from the public school system and sent them to private schools. Aren't these schools good enough for them too?"

Following Monday's board meeting, board members expressed preference for the elective system. President Charles Miele commented, "People who run for board elections usually attend meetings regularly and care enough to campaign for a seat. I think the public expresses an opinion in the elective system, and public opinion should be respected."

Joralemon Street buses causing time problems

along the route say that no buses run the route after that hour.

"There is no bus service along Joralemon Street after 6 p.m.," said Viola Narucki of 423 Joralemon St. "Buses were supposed to be scheduled to run along Joralemon almost every 30 minutes. But instead, we see no buses at night. It is extremely hard on the people who do not have cars."

Strumolo and James Golden, head of the township's transportation committee, are in the process of arranging a meeting with NJT officials to discuss the situation.

"Commissioner Strumolo and myself have been in contact with members of New Jersey Transit," said Golden, "and we will be arranging a meeting with them very soon in an effort to get service back to the people on a regular basis."

"When we received the new schedules and routes from the officials, we thought that they would be correct," he continued, "but instead they have been very misleading. A lot of people in the area are without transportation, and this is something which we plan to straighten out with NJT officials very soon."

When the bus changes went into effect in late July, NJT officials said that the Joralemon branch would have an eight-minute headway from 6:30 to 9 a.m. and 4:30 to 6 p.m. The schedule also called for the buses to run at 15-minute intervals throughout midday and every 30 minutes after 6 p.m.

Residents along Joralemon Street are happy with the service with the exception of the night timetable.

"We have to admit," said Mrs. Narucki, "there are a lot of buses through there during the day. But it is at night when the problems start. If a resident wants to go to the library or to a town commission meeting, he cannot because there is no means of transportation."

"This is the summer and right now, people don't really mind too much that they have to walk instead of riding the bus," she continued, "but what is going to happen when the cold weather hits? These people cannot or will not want to walk in the cold and the snow. Something is going to have to be done."

Eighth Floor restaurant names general manager

Carmen Rispoli was appointed general manager of The Eighth Floor Restaurant in Nutley this week. The announcement was made by Frank A. Orechio, the corporation president.

Rispoli resigned his position as food and beverage manager of the Ramade Inn in Fairfield. He previously held similar positions with Ramada Inns in Clifton and East Hanover.

Prior to his five-year association with Ramada Inns, Rispoli was employed with Thomm's Restaurant, Newark.

A graduate of Seton Hall University where he earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration, Rispoli owned his own restaurant in Newark for 12 years. He is married to the former Marie Russomano. The Rispolis have three children, Francis, Gabriel and Caymillo.

Orechio also announced the employment of a chief chef, Peter Poli of Livingston.

Poli is the former owner of the Liere Restaurant, Orange, and employed as a chef at Don's 21, in Newark and Mario's Restaurant in Millburn.

Carmen Rispoli

The menu will continue to emphasize Italian-American food. The Eighth Floor is open Monday through Friday for lunch and Monday through Saturday for dinner. It is located at 800 Bloomfield Ave., Nutley, across from the Nutley entrance to Hoffmann-LaRoche and approximately 1,000 feet behind Nichols Park.

Music School — The Belleville Music School finished its second season with its fourth and final concert. Edwin Black, a teacher at the junior and senior high schools served as director. Jessica Valiente and Mark Dombrowski served as student assistants. More than 40 students enrolled for the course.

DeMarco is charged in 'Chop Shop business

The owner of DeMarco Auto Body Ltd. has been charged with four counts of possession of stolen property in connection with the discovery of a "chop shop" which he allegedly operated out of his Cortlandt Street business.

Richard DeMarco, 36, of 6 Glendale La., Fairfield, was charged Thursday with possession of the nose, hood and bumper of an automobile, two transmissions, and a set of license plates, all stolen. He also was charged by state police with possession of two Corvettes whose identification numbers had been obliterated.

DeMarco was charged two weeks ago with conspiring with two Newark men who allegedly stole the T-roof from a Corvette on August 11.

Bail of $1,000, which had been set at the initial hearing, was continued.

According to Lt. Martin McNish, the value of all the discovered auto parts, including car doors, motors, transmissions and other items was about $50,000.

In other business, a 33-year-old Newark man was charged with possession of a dangerous weapon after once having been convicted of a crime prohibiting further possession of such weapons. The man is being held in Essex County Jail in lieu of $2500 bail. The arrest was made by Officer John Kerber.

A Nutley woman was charged with possession of a tear gas gun and released pending trial.

Another case saw a Lyndhurst man fined $200 for shoplifting. Matthew Surowitz, 41, of 330 Post Ave., received the fine for attempting to steal items from K-Mart on August 3.

A Hair — Raiser — Tania Ciliberto, of Belleville, and a haircutter at Artiste Hair Fashions in Millburn, prepares for the all-day cut — a — thon to benefit the Jeffrey Dworkin Infant and Child Development Center in Livingston. The cut — a — thon will be held Sunday, Sept. 13 from 10 a.m. to midnight at Artiste Hair Fashions, 519 Millburn Ave.
