Mary Senatore wins Belleville vote; but loses

Tough Defeat — Commissioner Mary Senatore reviews the vote tallies in the 30th district after learning the news that she had been defeated in the race for one of the two state Assembly seats. Senatore finished second in the race in Belleville, but fourth overall in the district. With her is her campaign manager Elmer Hermann (center.)

Nearly 70 percent of Belleville's registered voters turned out at the polls Tuesday to support their hometown girl Mary Senatore. But Mrs. Senatore's support fell apart throughout the rest of the 30th district, as she finished fourth in the Assembly race.

Nutley's John Kelly and Incumbent Buddy Fortunato won the two Assembly seats up for grabs.

Mrs. Senatore received 5,176 votes in Belleville, second only to Fortunato, who gathered 5,292 votes. Cedar Grove Councilwoman Josephine Mongiello finished third in Belleville with 4,534 votes, while Kelly followed with 4,197 votes in the township race.

In the governor's race, Belleville backed Democratic Congressman Jim Florio by a wide margin over Republican Thomas Kean. But as the Times went to press time most news sources were declaring Kean the next New Jersey governor in what had to be the closest state election ever.

Florio received 6,171 votes to Kean's 4,670 in Belleville. But it was Kean who pulled out the entire 30th District vote by a 33,317 to 30,661 mark.

In the Senate race, Belleville residents backed Democratic Incumbent Carmen Orechio, who handily defeated Bloomfield Councilman John Crecco 5,790 to 3,902. But Orechio had a harder time throughout the district as he won by a 30,891-29,071 count. It was Orechio edge in Belleville offset any lead which Crecco developed in Battle over 'township' funds over; Belleville gets $540,000 in 1982

By Linda Telesco

A delay which would have postponed Belleville's receipt of nearly $540,000 in federal revenue sharing funds, was officially corrected as of Tuesday, according to Mayor Michael Marotti.

"There was a chance we wouldn't get the money for 1982 as we thought, but now we'll get it," said Marotti who joined a delegation of Essex County officials that visited Trenton and Washington, D.C. last month to set matters straight.

The additional monies represent Belleville's entitlement portion as a township. Due to a quirk in the federal revenue sharing law, townships receive substantially more funds than towns do.

As a result, several municipalities such as South Orange, Bloomfield and Nutley changed their designation to township within the past two years in order to qualify for additional money.

Belleville joined the ranks when locals voted overwhelmingly to change from a town to a township in a special election held last July 21.

Legislation proposed by State Senator Carmen Orechio (D-30) permitted municipalities to call special elections prior to the November general election in order to file for the funds by the October 1 deadline for 1982 entitlement periods.

However, a "paperwork error" in Washington's Federal Office of Revenue Sharing would have delayed receipt of the 1982 fiscal year, according to Belleville Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood who accompanied Marotti in the Essex County delegation and gave the following account.

Representatives of seven new townships in the county, including Belleville, met with officials of the Department of Community Affairs in Trenton early last month in order to ensure that the process of certifying each municipality's new designation had been done properly.

Veterans parade marches Sunday

Belleville residents will pay tribute to the brave men and women who have served their country, when the annual Veteran's Parade takes place this Sunday, Nov. 8.

The parade will start at 2 p.m. at Washington Avenue and Greylock Parkway, north of American Legion Post 105. It will travel down Washington Avenue and past the receiving stand erected in front of Hall.

The parade is taking place under the sponsorship of the Belleville Veteran's Council, comprised of Amvets Post 26, American Legion Posts 105 and 299, V.F.W. Posts 275 and 6265, D.A.V. Chapter 22 and Catholic War Veterans 1187.

Opening the parade will be the Belleville Fire Department and fire fighting equipment, followed by the Grand Marshalls.

The Grand Marshal honors this year will be shared by Aldo Di Chiara, past national commander of the Catholic War Veterans and Nick Raimo, past national commander of the Italian-American War Veterans.

Mayor Michael Marotti, past state commander of AMVETS will serve as honorary Grand Marshal.

Following the grand marshalls will be the Belleville High School Band and twirlers, under the direction of Andrew Silbert. Commissioners Mary Senatore, Matthew Pica, Joseph McGreevey and Vincent Strumolo, along with members of the Board of Education will also attend while participating in the festivities.

In the second division of the parade will be the St. Lucy's Fire and Drum Corp, Newark; the Vietnam Veterans Marching Group, Newark Veterans Center; the U.S. Naval Sea Corps Marching Unit and Rifle Team; the VFW fourth district, headed by Commander Harry Crane; VFW Post 6255 Color Guard and Auxillary, Cedar Grove; VFW Post 275 Color Guard, Post Car and Auxillary of Belleville, lead by Commander Anthony Monte and President Ann Fernicola; VFW Post 6265

School Board dedicating new BHS wing Saturday

The Belleville Board of Education will be unveiling its new $900,000 high school vocational wing this Saturday starting at 10 a.m.

Board President Charles Miele will make the dedication to the wing which was under construction for almost a year. Along with Miele will be the entire board staff, Mayor Michael Marotti, Commissioners Matthew Pica, Mary Senatore, Vincent Strumolo and Joseph McGreevey.

The five-room construction will house vocational classrooms and consist of classes in beauty culture, general woodworking, and commercial arts. There are also classes in building and construction trades, as well as auto repairs. There is a lecture room for students and an office for vocational instructors.

The vocational program is the first of its kind in the Belleville School system and was largely funded through a $679,000 grant secured by the Superintendent of School Dr. John Greed two years ago.

"There are more and more high schools developing classes dealing with vocational studies," said Greed, "because more and more students are going into vocational fields. This program will offer a good learning experience for those students who wish to enter one of the fields."

The wing, which has been in use since the beginning of the school year, will house 150 students, therefore easing the overcrowding problem caused by the 9th grade students moving to the senior high school this fall.

"The wing was designed with the thought of transferring the 9th graders from the junior high to the high school," said Greed, "therefore creating a traditional

Town Hall may move

In a decisive move to remedy overcrowding in Belleville Town Hall, Mayor Michael Marotti notified the Board of Education this week that it may be forced to vacate the offices it rents from the municipality at 383 Washington Ave., when the lease expires in two years.

Announcing his intentions at last Tuesday's town meeting, Marotti said, "Town Hall is overcrowded, everything is obsolete, buildings need new roofs and smoke detectors and we don't have enough money to expand."

Marotti hopes to obtain either to acquire another facility for the township's operations or to expand the 68-year-old building at 152 Washington Ave. that presently houses three of the municipality's five departments.

"I want all town personnel and departments under one roof," he said, but with prospects of obtaining funds so bleak, the Mayor considered a third option, moving municipal offices to 383 Washington Ave.

That property was acquired by the township in 1972 for Belleville's Department of Public Affairs. Prior

School No. 2

Well, here we go again. School 2 is on the front burner again, a subject of dissension and discussion.

Monday night the school board accepted a contingent bid of $275,000 by a construction company which wants to use the site to build townhouses.

The action has made Mayor Michael Marotti very unhappy. Marotti wanted the school board to convey title to the Township for use as a civic center, but school board trustees thought otherwise. The buyer paid this contingency upon his offer — a variance must be granted by the Board of Adjustment to construct a 37-unit townhouse development in the one and two-family residential zone on Montgomery Street, now occupied by the school. If the Board of Adjustment turns down the application, the property, undoubtedly, will remain with the school board. If this event should occur, the school board should move readily to confer with the Board of Commissioners and convey title to the Township of Belleville for use as a civic center.

The School Board presently occupies a township office building at 383 Washington Ave., paying one dollar a year. Mayor Marotti has threatened to terminate the occupancy of 383 Washington Avenue by the school board to permit the township to consolidate the offices of all five commissioners, freeing up the present town hall for Public Safety Department purposes.

In the face of this possibility, School Board trustees were foolish to turn their backs upon the Township Commission.

Unbelievable!

We were obliged to take a second look at Page 1 of the Oct. 27 New York Times because we could not believe our eyes. The lead story in that newspaper advised its readers that James C. Miller III, the new chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, said the commission should no longer protect consumers from defective products and unsubstantiated advertising claims.

Mr. Miller said the agency's efforts to improve product quality have been ill-advised. "Imperfect products" should be available, he said, because consumers have "different preferences for defect avoidance." Miller further stated, "Those who have a low aversion to risk — relative to money — will be most likely to purchase cheap, unreliable products." Mr. Miller also said companies should not be forced to substantiate advertised claims.

If this is the cornerstone of President Reagan's humanistic philosophy, please give us back Mr. Carter.

Frank A. Orecchio

Dick Renna

Last week death claimed one of Belleville's most dedicated citizens — Dick Renna — the victim of a heat attack at the wheel of his car. At 44, Dick Renna was too young to die; he has so much to give to his neighbors, his friends, strangers who become friends — and to the Town of Belleville, which he loved so much.

Renna was very active in the civic and political life of the Town of Belleville, as well as the county of Essex. He served as president of the Essex County Multiple Sclerosis Association, a group organized six years ago and serving clients in the Belleville/Bloomfield area. He was a main organizer of the Belleville Citizens Patrol, the neighborhood group which makes Belleville a safer place in which to live.

Belleville loses much in the passing of Dick Renna — his family loses all — a sad day in the life and times of the Renna family and the Township of Belleville.

A look into the future without Anwar Sadat

To the editor:

President Sadat of Egypt was assassinated Oct. 6, 1981. It was done so quickly that nobody could believe it. But to a great many of us that know history, it did not come as a great surprise. I for one did expect it from just about any country outside of Europe. Example: you go to bed one day with a man in office and wake up the next day with somebody new. You don't know where they came from but there they are.

What kind of a man was Anwar Sadat? I did not know the man personally, or read anything about him for that matter. I got most of my information from radio and TV. But to me he was a gentleman who will be respected long after these problems are gone. But his memory will live on in the pages of history as one of the greatest peacemakers of all times. This man stuck his neck out almost single-handedly in his own country as well as many other countries around him, more than any other leader that we can remember in a long time. The last one that I can remember was our own Harry S. Truman.

Will his death turn back the clock? I do not really think so. Although some leaders the world over will try very hard to get rid of the peace treaty that was signed at Camp David in 1979 with President Carter, Prime Minister Begin and Sadat himself. It would be a crying shame if the clock did go back and another war came out of it. When is man going to learn that wars do not solve problems? They only create bigger ones and make more of a mess.

Mr. Sadat came to realize this and he was so right. But I suppose as long as we do not make a better living for all the people of the world there's always going to be wars, chaos and destruction. I guess most people like this because for one thing it does keep everybody doing something. It keeps the majority of people working in the industrial countries and killing one another in the non-industrial countries.

We have to find a way that peace can be made without destroying one another. Sadat came out of poverty so he knew what poverty was. He tried very hard to solve his country's problems and the nations' around him. Let not his death be in vain. But let it shine for a better opportunity for all of us. World War I was supposed to be the war to end all wars. I just hope that Sadat's death, unfortunate as it was, will do just that. Man has dreamed this from the beginning of time. Let's start to bring it about.

One of the last things he said before he died was, "It's incredible." He couldn't believe that it actually happened the way it did. He long knew, as all men of his calibre, that assassination is a great possibility. Yet, he was not afraid of it. A few weeks before his death he told a reporter, "I will not die one minute sooner before God wants me." Indeed he was a great gentleman.

Sincerely,
Wm. H. Rundle

A request to push again on proposition 13 question

To the editor:

I sent a similar letter to Mr. Tip O'Neill. Congressmen and Senators:

We the people want "Initiative and Referendum" so we can put "Proposition 13" on the ballot. We demand it! California is doing remarkably well since it was approved three years ago.

Their economy is booming, jobs are plentiful, according to "Reader's Digest" latest issue of Oct. '81.

Homeowners tax bills dropped $800 at first, now as much as over $1,000.

President Reagan knows this, since it was his state as governor. He should have cut property taxes instead of income taxes to help the people.

He should stop pouring billions of dollars into warfare and bombs.

We too protest nuclear armaments like the Europeans.

Sincerely,
Stella Draghi and senior citizens

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Will we now get back to the routine normalcy of mundane living now that the frenetic pace of the political whirligig campaigning has ground to a halt with the ecstatic joys of the victors and their followers and the dejected disappointments of the vanquished and their supporters?

The annual Fall baseball classic has given us a new World Champion and New Jersey gets a new Governor as an outgrowth of Tuesday's election results. King football takes over Sunday afternoons while the man of the house sits glued to the TV, quaffing the amber fluid suds as the big gridiron giants cavort on the greensward and the little lady "stews" over the fact that she can never garner that much of his concentrated attention for so protracted a time...something like from 12:30 p.m. until 60 Minutes comes on the tube.

Despite the significance of the absorbing events that attracted the attention of most, there have been a few developments that may have escaped our notice...things closer to home affairs that have impact upon Belleville people.

Disturbing renewed reports that Walter-Kidde, whose labor contract with U.A.W. workers union runs out next year, is making menacing imitations that they will close their Belleville plant unless the employees take a 35 percent reduction in their present wage scale...an unreasonable demand, we feel, in a period of unrestrained inflation, high taxes and interest rates.

It is imperative that our Mayor and other town officials intercede in this sensitive matter; Walter-Kidde has been a good neighbor and we can not afford to lose the much needed taxes they pay to the town. Surely, tactful negotiations can produce an equitable, fair solution to this problem...one that will redound to the benefit of everyone...the employees, the company, the town and its taxpayers.

For many years we have been clamoring for service fees to be assessed against local plants and industries that use artesian well water in their operations. Although this water is not purchased from the town, its waste is disposed of through the town's sewage system which is measured by the Passaic Valley Sewage Commission which charges the town on a metered basis.

The expansion of the PVSC sewage plant has occasioned the need to substantially increase the charges levied against its participating municipalities, including Belleville; therefore, it becomes incumbent upon our town commissioners to exact these charges from any facility in town whose waste from artesian well water is disposed of through our sewage system.

Likewise, Clara Maass Hospital, a tax exempt non-profit institution, paying few, if any, taxes, but, one of the biggest users of our sewage system for disposal of its vast waste should also be brought into line by being charged for this service, especially, since they are only paying for their water at cost, and didn't even want to pay that.

Mayor Marotti wanted to acquire the no longer used for educational purposes School 2 from the Belleville Board of Education for a nominal fee. It was to be utilized for town recreational and TV studio purposes. The School Board declined his offer, notwithstanding the fact that the mayor permits the board to use its Board of Education Administrative offices on Washington Avenue, which is town owned, for one dollar a year.

Up in Nutley, the Board of Education owns the old former Italian Orphanage which, like Belleville's School 2 is in the process of being auctioned off, and being unused for educational purposes and subject to real estate taxes, has received its first tax bill from the town in the amount of $10,130. Payable to the town by the Nutley Board of Education.

Commissioner Strumolo who has been trying for some time to incorporate a Division of Mental Health in the Belleville Health Department, rather than having the town contribute to the Community Mental Health Service of Bloomfield, Belleville and Nutley, got a big boost for his proposal from an editorial that recently appeared in Bloomfield's new weekly newspaper, Bloomfield Life. Bloomfield's Mayor Kinder and Health Officer D'Arco and that town governing body seem inclined toward the same thinking.

The editorial called the idea of a division of mental health in Bloomfield a good idea that is financially inviting as well. So, too, would it be in Belleville.

A Center Halloween — Pioneer clowns and other members of New Jersey Bell's 540 Council of the Telephone Pioneers of America threw a Halloween party for residents and staff to the Essex County geriatric Center in Belleville. The New Jersey Pioneers are part of a nationwide organization of veteran Bell system employees involved in community service.

Senior notes

By George Chenoweth

We are pleased to announce that Eunice Conover of Belleville will be a representative to the White House Conference on Aging. This event will take place in Washington, Nov. 29 to Dec. 3.

Mrs. Conover is sponsored by Rep. Joseph Minish and she will represent the 30th Congressional District. Her trip will be partly financed by the Belleville Senior Citizens Club.

The Conference, which is made up of delegates from around the country, is to determine future needs of senior citizens and distribution of funds allocated under the Older Americans Act.

Now that the election is over perhaps it would be a good time to pause and reflect on the direct bearing that politics have on our pocketbooks through the passage of fair laws or by failure to pass fair laws to protect the senior citizens of our state and of our country.

Legislation is the product of politics. The people whom we have elected through the political process are the ones who will make the laws by which we must live. It is better to have a friend of the senior citizen making these laws than an enemy.

Politicians, those who have been elected to office, serve the people who elect them. If we, as senior citizens, are to survive in this complex society that we live in, we must have a voice and a part in electing decent lawmakers. In other words, we have at stake a vested interest in elections and laws that are proposed and passed as a result of those elections.

We hope that the newly elected officials will live up to their campaign promises so that we as senior citizens can be proud of our choice.

The seniors who belong to organizations are usually told, through their officers and committee people, of information regarding health care, housing, transportation, legislation and other valuable data. For those who do not belong to senior's clubs, you are urged to become involved through the New Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens as an individual. The cost of membership is $2 per year which entitles the member to receive the monthly publication "Senior Power" and have a voice in decisions at the state-wide convention. The New Jersey Federation is organized to make activists of seniors in New Jersey, their leaders work to protect the economic and social well-being of all seniors.

Dinner set for retiring secretary

On Dec. 9, the Home and School Association of School 10 of Belleville, will be hosting a retirement dinner for Mrs. Rita Pisano, a much admired secretary.

Mrs. Pisano has been the binding force at School 10 for 14 years and anyone who has worked with her is welcome to attend. The dinner will be held at the Forest Hill Country Club in Belleville. For reservations and further information please call Mrs. Pat Taibi at 751-6794 or Mrs. Mary Ann Vitali at 751-2278.

Atlantic City bus trip Nov. 15

Belleville High School Home and School Association is having a bus ride to Atlantic City, Sunday, Nov. 15. Cost is $19.50 per person. Trip includes a continental breakfast served at 8 p.m. in the high school cafe, games, activities, and prizes (en route) also $10 in quarters. On the return trip, free beverages, and a surprise. Money raised will go for the scholarship fund. For information call 759-7727 after 6 p.m. Seating is on a first paid basis.

Baby Pack — This is what Halloween is all about, the little kids. And they really got a kick out of their holiday. Most of them showed up with mom, and none of them were disappointed.

Strange Kids — You can bet that this group does not dress like this everyday of the week. So when Halloween comes along they make the most of it. And to help celebrate the holiday they attended the Junior Woman's Club Halloween parade.

Mr. Peanut and Friend — You could never guess who these two Belleville kids were in their costumes. But they were among the nearly 100 children which turned out for the parade.

Flopping Ears — This was the tallest rabbit that most people have ever seen. And she appeared at the Woman's Club halloween parade last Saturday to take part in the contest.

Halloween parade held by Jr. Women

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville sponsored a town-wide Halloween Parade on Saturday Oct. 31. Mrs. Mary Ann Flor, drama chairman for the Junior Club, organized the day's festivities. Children of all ages were welcome to come to the high school stadium and participate in the morning events. Awards were given for the Most Original, Funniest, Scariest and Prettiest costumes. Over thirty prizes were donated by local business organizations for the parade. Each child received trick or treat as well as juice and doughnuts, and to the added delight of the children, they all had a chance to parade in front of T.V. cameras because Michael Chieffo's cable crew videotaped the parade.

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville wishes to thank Mayor Marotti for generously supplying juice and doughnuts, and the following business organizations for donating prizes: Heller Parkway Burger King; Franklin Avenue Burger King; Brunswick Olympic Bowl; Branch Brook Ice Skating; Pathmark; Foodtown; ShopRite; Chicken Galore; Franklin Avenue Carvel; Sherman's; and Washington Avenue Stride Rite Shoe Stores.

A very special thanks to the panel of judges who had the very difficult task of judging the spectacular array of costumes; Mayor Michael Marotti; Mr. Pat Forti; Mr. Thomas Spillane; Mr. Joseph Cappello; Mrs. Janet Pickover; Mrs. Annabel Nardachone; Mrs. Barry Schafter; and Mrs. Lenora Keeney.

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville appreciate all the support that was given to make this Halloween truly special for the children of our township.

Pretty Ladies — These Belleville gals were dressed up for the Belleville Junior Woman's Club halloween parade. They were dressed as a cheerleader, Raggey Ann, Cinderella, Little Bo Peep, Dorothy, A clown and a baby. They used a lot of imagination to dream up their outfits.

Strong Man — This little fella amused most of the crowd gathered at the Junior Woman's Club Halloween Parade held last Saturday. What everyone wanted to know, was how he grew that mustache?

A Little Doll — She may be dressed like a doll, but we bet she looks like one everyday. This cute little girl is not the least bit camera shy during the Halloween parade on Saturday.

How About a Lite — This had to be one of the most unusual costumes of the day at the Junior Woman's Club Halloween parade. It is amazing what kids will think of now these days.

Knights of Columbus planning a service for Pope John Paul II

Belleville Council No. 835 of the Knights of Columbus will hold a special prayer service for the intentions of Pope John Paul II tonight at 7:30 p.m. in St. Peter's Church. Grand Knight Frank Corbo has announced.

The prayer hour is part of a special Marian service that is being held through much of the world under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus who are celebrating the 100th year of their founding.

stated that the general public is invited to view the Murillo reproduction. He noted that the principal intentions expressed by Pope John Paul II in his recent public statements are improvement of family life, a stronger love relationship between spouses, vocations to the priesthood and the religious life, world peace based on justice and compassion for the needy.

The council will also be offering a memorial Mass for all deceased members of the council and their families in St. Peter's Church. The Mass will be offered on Sunday, Nov. 8 starting at 8 a.m. and the general public is invited.

Grand Knight Corbo explained that the month of November, when the Feast of All Souls is observed by the Catholic Church, is the traditional time to remember all those who have passed on. He also pointed out that the Knights of Columbus, who this year are observing their 100th birthday, have a tradition of praying for all deceased members. In addition, he noted, a special Mass is offered daily for deceased members of the Knights of Columbus throughout the world in St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut, which is regarded as the national Shrine of the Knights of Columbus.

The fraternal society was founded in the basement of St. Mary's Church and has had strong ties with it ever since. The Church recently has been completely refurbished with the Knights of different states and provinces providing for the cost of individual pews there. The pews carry the emblem of the different states and provinces and are reserved for the Knights from these areas at special ceremonies.

With a membership of more than 1.35 million, the Knights are now active in the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, Guatemala, Panama, Guam and the Virgin Islands.

Woman's Club play auditions this Sunday

Quit sitting around wasting time, come on down and get involved in theatre. Open auditions for "Fenwick: A Christmas Musical" will be held on Sunday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at 51 Rossmore Place, Belleville. The show itself is a children's musical about a tiny elf who longs to become one of Santa's helpers. Naturally, he runs into his share of problems and people along the way, but in the end his love of children and all living things pull him through.

It includes bright costumes, fun characters, singing, dancing, a real Santa and Mrs. Claus, a team of reindeer and some special surprises that will provide Christmas cheer for children of all ages.

The program is being sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville. This is the Junior Club's major fundraiser and proceeds will go to local charities as well as to their state project which is The New Jersey Chapter of the National Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation (SIDS).

Commissioned to mount the production for the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville are the Nutville Junction Players a group comprised of youth and young adults from Nutley and Belleville areas. So if you're a teenager (or just feel like one) come on down and get involved. Actors, musicians, dancers, singers, technicians...etc. All are welcome. For more information call Mrs. McGough at 759-7746.

All Work Fully Guaranteed — Over 20 Yrs. Experience
Just need some advice? Don't know where to turn? Stop in or call Tedd for some straight talk about your car problems.

The Belleville Public Library has announced its list of event for the month of November. Highlighting the activities will be an art exhibit by Pamela Cohen, and a Christmas display by Madeline Wiegmann. Both exhibits can be seen at the library's main branch located at 221 Washington Ave. during library hours.

On November 3, adults get a chance to get into the upcoming holiday spirit with a craft program on designing 'Wood Christmas Placques.' The program will take place at the main branch and start at 10 a.m.

At the same time, in the Children's room of the main branch, Mary Ellen Baker will lead a story hour for children. Story hours will also take place on Nov. 5, 10, 12, 17, 19, 24, and 25 at the main branch, all start at 10 a.m. Another story hour will take place on Nov. 25 at the Silver Lake Branch, also starting 10 a.m. Preregistration is required for all the story hours.

On Nov. 5 a spelling bee will take place at the Silver Lake branch starting at 3:30.

Nov. 7, there will be a 'Book Bingo' at the main branch, and that will start at 10 a.m. It will be repeated on Nov. 20 starting at 3:30 p.m.

A feature film 'Rebecca' will be shown at the Washington Avenue branch on Nov. 12, starting at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are free at the library.

On Nov. 13 a library program, called 'Fun and Games' for children and young people will take place from 1:30-2 p.m. at the Silver Lake Branch.

A toddler's cooking will take place at 10 a.m. at the main branch of the library on Nov. 14.

A holiday program, 'Holly Days' will be presented by Jayne Hopkins of PSEG at 10 a.m. at the main branch.

Nov. 19 another program by Ms. Hopkins will be 'Christmas Around the World.' It starts at 10 a.m. It will be repeated on Nov. 25.

A 'Thanksgiving Day Handicraft' will take place at the Washington Avenue branch on Nov. 21 starting at 10 a.m.

A craft program on making 'Christmas Hangers' will take place Nov. 24 at the main branch starting at 10 a.m. It will be repeated on Nov. 25. Call the library at 759-9200 to register.

And finally the feature film 'Godzilla vs. the Bionic Monster' will be showed Nov. 27 and 28 starting at 1:30 p.m. at the main branch.

Tri-town club names 'Woman of the Month'

"Woman of the Month" program was inaugurated at the Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley's October's meeting in honor of National Business Women's Week, which was celebrated October 18-24.

This honor is bestowed upon a member of the club who has shown distinguished and unselfish service to the club and community and has displayed outstanding leadership qualities.

Miss Elsie Ciccone, who has been a member of the club for 27 years, was this month's recipient.

Miss Ciccone, who is proud of being a native born "Nutleyite," worked as secretary at Nutley High School prior to her retirement in 1964.

Besides chairing the Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club's Scholarship Committee, Miss Ciccone also devotes her time to the Nutley Family Service Bureau's Women's Auxiliary, the Nutley Historical Society, Nutley Symphony Society, the Historic Restoration Trust of Nutley and the Dr. V.D. Mattia Memorial Award

Committee, on which she has served since its inception in 1973. In addition to these affiliations, Miss Ciccone also belongs to the N.J. Association of School Secretaries.

The club, which was organized in 1953, also honored its charter members that evening. Honored were: Mrs. Mitzi Thomas, Miss Gwendolyn Struble, Miss Eleanor Storer, Mrs. Emily Bajek, Miss Mildred Spatz, Mrs. Hazel White, Miss Harriet Dean, Miss Helene Matt, Mrs. Harriet Ramsing and Miss Helen Terry.

In addition to the Tri-Town's community activities, the club is also active in the N.J. State Federation of Business and Professional Women, and recently hosted their Third District meeting.

Women United hold mission service Friday

Church Women United will once again sponsor a World Community Day. The organization is world-wide, and views mission projects as one of its chief concerns.

This year observance service will be held tomorrow, Nov. 6 starting at 8 p.m. at Montgomery Presbyterian Church, Mill Street.

The highlight feature is the presentation of "The Least Coin" when the pennies saved by members are brought as an offering to help support in needy areas.

Church Women United has sponsored World Community Day since 1934.

The speaker will be Jon Barton, hunger enabler for Newark, Newton and Elizabeth Presbyteries of the United Presbyterian Church. He has been in Washington, D.C. planning for the observance of "World Food Day."

A fellowship time will be held after the service, under the direction of Mrs. Helen O'Donnell and Dorothy L. Fisher.

What should you do when you have the flu? You will probably have a fever, sometimes as high as 103 degrees, body aches, a runny nose, scratchy throat and general discomfort. Stay in bed or at least rest. As long as the fever lasts, take aspirin or acetaminophen (Tylenol) every four hours and drink plenty of fluids. A fever tends to dehydrate the body. As a result, additional fluids are necessary. An extra quart of fluid a day per degree of fever is generally recommended. You probably won't feel up to par for a week. If the fever lasts for more than two days, consult a physician.

School Board dedicating $900,000 wing Saturday

four-year secondary school system."

Last month Greed received more good news about the financing of the construction of the wing, when the Vocational Education Division of the State Department of Education announced it would help fund the program.

The cosmetology, or beauty culture, was funded $15,000 for teachers' salaries and $19,000 for equipment. The construction trades classes were funded $14,000 in salaries and $27,500 in equipment. The School Board also received $9,000 to assist with cooperative industrial education and the general woodshop.

The current cost of the wing to the Board of Education is approximately $150,000, but Dr. Greed hopes the board can get the State Department of Education to pick up the rest of the cost in future years.

"There is little doubt in my mind that the board will be reimbursed for the entire cost of the project," the superintendent said. "In future years the money which we receive from the Vocational Educational Department will pay for the complete cost of the wing."

"This year we received over $80,000 from the state, and while we will not receive that much next year, whatever we do receive will go to pay for the wing," he continued.

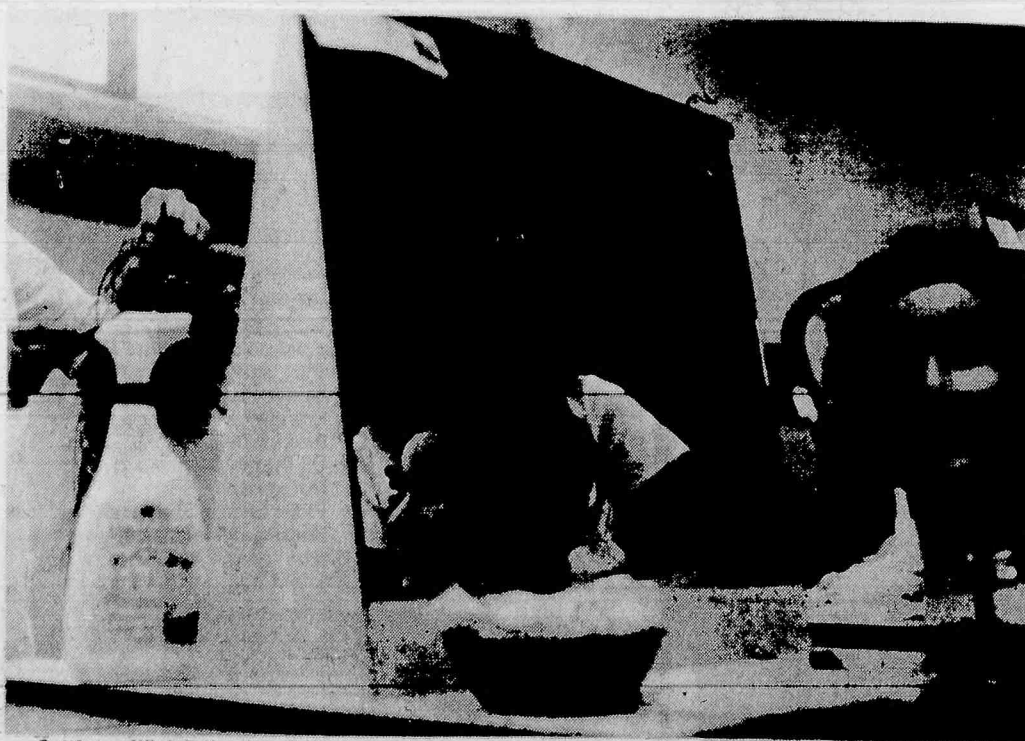

The public is invited to attend the dedication on Saturday, which will be followed by a tour of the wing conducted by Belleville High School students.

Hair Styling — Karla Iantozzi and Robyn Forsyth are getting learning experience while in school thanks to Belleville High School's new vocational wing which will be dedicated by School Board President Charles Miele on Saturday. Most of the cost of the wing has been funded through the state.

Art Designing — Chella Calvachr is at work doing some commercial art. That is only one of several classes now taught at the high school in the new $900,000 vocational wing, which was completed this summer. The addition will help ease the overcrowding in the high school.

Setting a Wighead — Sue Boice is another student taking advantage of the vocational classes now offered at the high school. Many town members will be on hand as the School Board dedicates the new wing on Saturday, including Mayor Marotti and the rest of the Commissioners.

Hospital Dinner-Dance — The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Guild will hold its annual dinner-dinner Nov. 14 at the Florham Park Country Club. Cocktail hour begins at 7 p.m. and proceeds of the night will benefit the hospital's Cancer Treatment Center. Planning for the fund raiser are (l-r) Joan Franklin, Rose Tedesco, Nella Lima and Marge Glancaspro. Tickets are still available and interested persons can contact Mrs. Lima at 667-1032.

Seems like only yesterday

By Michelle Jeannotte
5 Years Ago

Almost 80 percent of the registered voters in town turned out and joined the rest of the state in backing President Gerald Ford and the casino gambling referendum. The success of the gambling referendum, perhaps the hottest issue of the election, came out a two to one favor in town. Congressman Joseph Minish was given the largest single tally by any candidate with a total of 9,493 votes. Recent labor troubles in town required further budget transfers in order to meet police contract requirements. A strike at Wallace and Tiernan and a "sick out" by county employees at the Essex County Geriatrics Center in town required excessive overtime payments to officers covering those areas, and forced Commissioner Rocco Saletta with the possibility of finding more money. The Board of Commissioners met in a special session to effect the transfer of $56,000 in order to meet the contract demands.

10 Years Ago

Former Town Attorney Nicholas Amato was elected Essex County Surrogate as the Democratic Organization had a strong showing. Although Tax Assessor Peter Torre was one of the top voter-getters in Belleville, he lost his bid for a State Assembly seat. Former Nutley Commissioner Carl Orechio showed up as a strong Republican candidate in town. Of the 18,161 registered voters in town, only half bothered to show up at the polls to cast their votes. A variance allowing a 432-unit garden apartment complex to be built on the Belleville-Nutley line headed the agenda at a meeting of the Zoning Board of Adjustment. Slated to be the largest complex in the area, the "mini-community" would be built near River Road. Half the apartments would be built in Nutley and 216 units would rest in Belleville. Frank Leo of Nutley, applicant for the variance, purchased the tract of land from the Sonneborn Paint Company. An ordinance to permit pool halls to remain open until 2 a.m. was the main topic of discussion at a Board of Commissioners meeting. At the time, pool halls were required to close at midnight, but owners of Guys and Dolls Billiard Lounge on Washington Avenue claimed they were discriminated against because other recreation businesses in town remained open until the early morning hours. Residents of the area claimed a "hardship" because patrons were abusive towards them and their property. The board had defeated a similar ordinance the previous year.

Political leaders in Belleville weren't making many predictions about how much their party would win by but informed observers had acknowledged that the town would give a plurality to the Democratic ticket, headed by Richard J. Hughes, candidate for governor. A new apartment district, a revitalized shopping center, a huge industrial park, slum clearance and improved roads would become realities within 20 years if a master plan which the Belleville Planning Board had under consideration was adopted in January. The Board of Education continued its fight for a new high school in Belleville by its decision to resubmit the school building referendum to voters in December. Warnings were issued by Superintendent of Schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee that unless overcrowded conditions were alleviated by a new high school, double sessions at the present school "were inevitable." The cost of this was estimated at $200,000.

30 Years Ago

Belleville's 54-man Police Department — third lowest paid in Essex County — appealed to voters to support their referendum for a 10 percent "across the board" salary increase. Deputy Chief Kenneth Smith was unanimously elected chairman of the police referendum committee. Placed before the voters in the general election, the proposal would increase maximum pay for patrolmen from $3,600 to $3,900.

Last year, more than 180,000 men died before the age of 65 because of cardiovascular disease.

Woman's Club holds hat luncheon party

Pretty hats, brightly colored hats, high hats and just hats were much in evidence at the annual luncheon given by the Woman's Club of Belleville, members of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs.

All the women attending the luncheon held at Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, Union Avenue, on Oct. 22, were required to wear hats or pay a fine. Hats were for rent and proved to be a popular way to join in the spirit of the day.

Songs about hats were sung by the choral group of the club, under the direction of Miss Edith Richards, chairman of the Music Department. Table decoration also carried out the theme.

The grand finale was a parade and judging of hats. The judges narrowed the category to the most original creations which were fashioned by the wearer.

Mrs. Joseph Talbot won first place with her fresh vegetable creation. Mrs. Anna Rose Mazur wore a hat made from beer cans. Mrs. Julia Celso made use of a decorated brown paper bag. Mrs. Harry Winfield wore a Carmine Miranda type and Mrs. Chancy, president of the Belleville club was surprised to be selected as wearing the prettiest handmade hat.

The judges were John Greed, superintendent of the Belleville schools, Mrs. Benjamin Pickover, advisor to the Junior Woman's Club and member of the Evening Department of the club, Mrs. Wallace Cox and Mrs. Roy Shote of Nutley. Prizes were presented by Mrs. Keeney and her guest Mrs. Joseph Fiscella, vice president of the Eighth District.

A successful mini-fair was held and the quilt which won first prize for Belleville club at the NJSFWC convention held in May, was on display.

Hats Galore — Hats were everywhere during the Belleville Woman's Club annual hat luncheon held in Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church. All the women attending were required to wear a hat of some type.

'The Gin Game' opens at Actor's Cafe Friday

"The Gin Game" by D.L. Coburn opens a six-week run at the Actor's Cafe Theatre, in residence at Bloomfield College, Franklin and Fremont Streets, Bloomfield tomorrow tonight, Nov. 6 and then will be performed on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., through Dec. 12. Always confirm Thursdays.

"The Gin Game," winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Drama on Broadway in 1977-78 concerns Weller Martin and Fonsia Dorsey, both placed in a seedy nursing home, and who find mutual interest in playing gin together. They reveal intimate details of their former lives and as the game turns one-sided, these secrets become weapons used against one another. A searing look at two lonely old people who can't fit in or resign themselves to their fate.

David G. Kennedy, producer-director portrays Weller Martin and Lois Raebek of New York portrays Fonsia Dorsey.

Reservations can be made by calling 429-7662 at any time. They are held at the box office to 15 minutes prior to start. The cafe atmosphere allows patrons to bring their own beverage and snacks. There is ample free parking. Senior citizens and students receive $1.50 off all tickets at all times. Tickets range from $3.50 to $6 depending on location and day of week.

Following will be the Actor's Cafe Theatre's annual production of "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens every evening from Dec. 16 through Dec. 26 except Christmas Day.

Montclair Drama Club opens 'Laura' tonight

The Montclair Dramatic Club, organized in 1889, will present the stage version of the film classic "Laura" beginning tonight, Nov. 5 at Penick Auditorium, Montclair Kimberley Academy, 201 Valley Road, Montclair. The play, a murder mystery set in the 1940's in New York City, will also be staged Friday, Nov. 6, Saturday, Nov. 7 and Nov. 12, 13, and 14. Curtain time for all performances is 8:30 p.m.

The club's 187th consecutive production is under the direction of Montclair's Ted Hatrak. The cast includes: Tacey Brewer (Laura), William Eddy (Waldo), Steve Schweer (Detective McPherson), Ken Cleardin (Shelby), Keith Sproule (Danny), Lois McRoberts (Bessie), and Mary Elizabeth Ghini (Mrs. Dorgan).

Tickets for all six performances will be sold at the door. Admission is $6 for non-students, $2 for students, and $4.50 for senior citizens. Telephone reservations may be made by calling 239-5128. For theatre party information, call Mr. McGill during the day at 773-9300.

Clara Maass' medical tapes offer 'advice' to stay well

Remember the good old days when grandma used to offer all her age-old remedies and advice on how to stay well? It was comforting to know that someone cared enough to offer the best she knew.

The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Tel-Med system offers this concern plus up-dated medical advice on how to stay healthy, recognize early signs of illness and handle accidents that we may encounter. Now is the time, before the winter sets in, to acquaint yourself with this innovative service which may prove helpful to you and your family.

Tel-Med is free and simple to use. When you call 751-7000, you should request the tape you wish to hear by number or exact title. Topics covered by the health information service include child diseases, home health care, mental health, diet and drug abuse, diabetes, the digestive system, and many others. Some of the topics pertinent to the winter months include "Sore Throat" No. 70; "Viruses, What Are They?" No. 40; "Exercising, Warm Up Slowly" No. 1101; "The Flu" No. 300; "Pneumonia" No. 7; and "Chronic Cough" No. 581.

A brochure of the more than 200 tapes can be found in many places in your town — schools, health department, etc. Brochure of the tapes are also available by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Tel-Med c/o Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville, N.J. 07109.

The health tapes run three to five minutes, upon which you will hear a discussion of the illness or problem in which you are interested.

Tel-Med is designed to provide health information but is not to be used in an emergency situation or to take the place of your family physician.

If your club or organization wishes to distribute Tel-Med brochures please contact Mary Dominski in the Public Relations Department, 751-1000, ext. 817.

Advice From A Podiatrist

Schall C. Frank, D.P.M.
Surgeon Podiatrist
HEEL PAIN

Q. What is a Heel Spur?
A. A heel spur is an overgrowth of bone in the heel or calcaneus. It usually is as wide as the width of the heel. X-rays taken will conclusively show this overgrowth.

Q. What is Plantar Fasciitis?
A. A thick band attaching from the anterior part of the heel going forward branching out to the toes. It is often described as being a ligament due to its strength and biological makeup.

Q. Can you see these conditions at the same time?
A. Most definitely. Many runners over a prolonged training period develop first Plantar Fasciitis then Heel Spur Syndrome.

Q. What causes these conditions?
A. Heel Spurs can be hereditary and often are systematic. However, a sharp thrust or force or excessive recent weight gain can be the initial precipitant. The most important cause is Pronation, (abnormal motion of the foot) causing the leg to internally rotate. This force stretches the Plantar Fascia causing the arch to flatten placing stress at the ilga-ments origin at the heel. This in turn causes pain and eventual bony growth termed "Heel Spur".

Q. What can be done to correct these conditions?
A. Conservation treatment is available to the Podiatrist such as strapping, padding, etc. A more vigorous approach is steroid injection with strapping. Once the acute stage has passed, your Podiatrist can make Orthotic Appliances to prevent pronation and return the stretch of the Plantar Fascia.

Q. Can my heel pain be caused by something else?
A. Possibly with examination and X-rays, the Podiatrist will delve more deeply into your history. Heel Pain may be due to Hyperlipidemia, Nerve Entrapment, Rheumatoid Arthritis, etc.

If you have any questions which I have left unanswered or unclear, please write my office and I will be very glad to answer them in my column.

Local student wins essay

Rose Marie LaTerza, a sixth grader at Silver Lake's School 4, is the winner of the 1981 Columbus Day Essay Contest, an annual event sponsored by the Italian Tribune News of Newark.

The contest is conducted among elementary and secondary students, each in separate award divisions, throughout the tri-county area.

Tribune officials said that a total of 250 students entered this year's competition.

Rose Marie received a $50 U.S. Savings Bond for her elementary division essay which dealt with the research of Christopher Columbus' ideas and the improvements society can effect by applying his ideas to our world today.

In addition the young essayist was formally congratulated by the Board of Education at last Monday's meeting.

As trustees and administrators lauded Rose Marie's achievement, Board Vice-President Anthony D'Agostino praised the student's award as particularly impressive in view of the large numbers of both public and pariochial school entrants. "Rose Marie makes me proud I was there to see this," D'Agostino added.

With a poise that characterizes her prose, Ros  Marie graciously thanked those who publicly honored her.

Rose Marie LaTerza, a sixth grader at School 4 was named the winner of the 1981 Columbus Day essay contest sponsored by the Italian Tribune News. Rose Marie was congratulated by the Belleville School Board last week for her efforts in the contest. She received a $50 Savings Bond for her winning essay.

Belleville Boy Scouts holding Expo this coming Saturday

Boy Scouts and Webelo units of the Belleville District are having a Scout Expo this Saturday, Nov. 7 next to the firehouse on Franklin Avenue from 9 a.m. til dusk.

Visitors are welcome to browse around the area and see "Scouting in Action." A full day of activity is planned including tent pitching, outdoor skills, camping, cooking, conservation and much more. Stop over and spend a few minutes, bring the family. No charge.

Forty-one scouts and ten leaders from Troops 302, 304, 350, 387 and 388 travelled by chartered bus to Yorktown, Virginia to partake in the festivities and celebration of the re-enactments of th surrender of Major General Earl Charles Cornwallis' British forces to General George Washington's Continental Army and Lt. Gen. Count de Rochambeaus' French Army. Thousands of volunteers were dressed in the uniforms representing the British, Continental, French militia of the day. Encampments of these various armies were visited to observe their daily living activities.

Other activities included close inspection of new military equipment, a visit to the Fort Eustis Transportation Museum and a trip by motorized launch to the guided missile cruiser, U.S.S. Josephus Daniels.

The scouts returned to Belleville on Monday evening.

Belleville's past

In 1916 Fire Chief Nicholas Comesky called the attention of the Board of Commissioners to the difficulty in responding to fire alarms in the Silver Lake section.

The roads were bad and the La France 500 gallon pumper purchased in 1914 could not stand all the request made of its.

On March 18, 1919, Mayor John H. Waters who was a volunteer fireman himself, declared publicly that "the Essex Truck had displayed such a temper from frequent visits to the repairman that it would be unwise to jeopardize the town by placing too much confidence or reliance on its ability to perform."

Five weeks later on April 24, the old Douglas mansion in the Soho section caught fire. The old house might have been saved from serious damage had not the engine broken down and a hose split open. By the time frantic efforts had succeeded to patch up the hose and bring the engine to work, the historic mansion had been entirely destroyed. "A bucket brigade save some of the out-buildings," declared the Belleville Times laconically.

The paper headlined its account of the fire: "Douglas mansion burns when fire equipment fails to stand test." The loss was estimated at $20,000. The following year a Day-Elder hose wagon was bought for Automobile Company No. 1. The old La France pumper was turned over to the Eastwood volunteers on William Street.

In 1923 the volunteer system was done away with and the part paid and part call department was organized. William T. Hirdes was named Fire Chief and nine firemen were added to the force. That same year fire headquarters was established at the Willima Street Fire House.

Classes of '71 and '61 reuniting on Nov. 27

The Nutley High School class of 1971 will hold its 10-year class reunion Friday, Nov. 27, at the Town and Campus, 350 Pleasant Valley Way, West Orange.

The reunion will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will feature an open bar, a live band for dancing and a full-course dinner. The date of Nov. 27, the day after Thanksgiving, was chosen by the reunion committee since it was felt former classmates would be in the Nutley area visiting relatives and friends for the turkey holiday.

"Right now we're expecting over 250 classmates to attend," reunion committee member Tony "Nick" Nicosia said. "We have people coming from as far away as California and Utah. Everyone is looking forward to having a great time.

For more information on the event, members of the class of 1971 should contact Nicosia at 235-0673 or Christine Guerino at 991-4256.

The NHS class of 1961 will hold its 20-year reunion 7:30 the same night at the Glen Ridge Country Club.

For more information about that get-together, call Jim Piro at 661-0710.

Buc Shots

October star; Rosie Leonidis

During this past month, many athletes made their mark in Belleville sports.

In football, Frankie Fazzini was his usual aggressive self, piling up points and leading the Bucs to a fine season. Phil Cerza, playing an awesome defense, spearheaded a fine Buccaneer attack.

Brian Woods has been everything a soccer coach could ask for. His aggressive play and determination should make him an all-state candidate this year.

Barb Gundry and Ross De Meo led the cross country team, while Kim Indiero just completed a banner season for the girls' tennis team.

However, the Belleville High School athlete of the month for October is Rosie Leonidis. The senior tennis player, who just completed a fine year at first singles, made an incredible comeback the last month, winning all eight of her duel matches and posting a 10-2 mark overall for the month of October.

Knowing how the season started for her, it's easy to see why Rosie is one of the top athletes in the school.

As a lot of local fans now realize, Leonidis hasn't exactly been the recipient of good luck these days.

It all started back last December when in a basketball game against Cedar Grove, she went down with a sore knee that was soon diagnosed as cartilage damage. The injury shelved her for the duration of the basketball season and in early March, micro-surgery was performed.

Being a super competitor, Rosie was back on the softball field in a matter of weeks, lending her support to the team with her usual steady play at second base. As the spring progressed, Leonidis was rapidly returning to the Rosie of old. She was running hard and showing that super determination that is the mark of a fine athlete.

The Summer of '81 started out in even better fashion. Rosie was riding her bike an average of 13 miles a day and played many hours of tennis, psyching up for her senior year. Not to be forgotten was Rosie's participation in the St. Phil's summer league, a girls' basketball league with some very good competition. As the summer drew to a close, Rosie appeared to be in the best shape of her life. She was talking about playing tennis, basketball and softball and couldn't wait for the season to start.

Then suddenly, like a bad dream, it happened. In one of the final summer league games, Rosie went for a loose ball and tumbled on some mats off to the side of the court. With pain etched across her face, it was clear that the injury was one to be taken seriously.

From an athlete in excellent shape one day, Rosie found herself on the operating table the next day. With a second knee operation in just a matter of six months, no one could blame her if she didn't give sports another try.

Rosie Leonidis isn't just anyone however. Incredibly, within a matter of days, she was back on the tennis court, preparing for the tennis season that was just a week away. When the girls' tennis team started its 1981 season, Rosie was there, playing first singles.

The month of September wasn't the best of times for her, however. She suffered through a 2-5 start, losing some matches, mainly to Lauri Lupinacci of Nutley and Tracy Everett of Kearny. However, as the month of October rolled around, it appeared that the knee was no longer a concern to Rosie.

"It never really bothered me from the outset of the season," she admitted. "I think a lot of my early season problems were in my head. I was afraid to try certain things because I could have hurt the knee. But once I decided to play my old style, everything seemed to fall in place."

Surprisingly enough, Rosie admits that the second operation was the best thing that could have happened for her.

"I was up and around in a matter of days," she said. "After the first operation, I had a much more difficult time getting around. The second one seemed to correct things."

Although basketball will not be in the cards for her this year, Rosie's first love is tennis and she is very hopeful of continuing her career in college. A top student, Rosie is planning to attend either the University of Richmond, NYU or Villanova taking up a possible career in engineering.

"I would really like to play college tennis," Rosie continued. "It's really tough there and if I could play well, that would be like a dream come true."

Although tennis is an individual sport, Rosie credits her coach, Karen Fuccello, with the success she savored this year.

"Miss Fuccello gave us the strategy and told us what we were doing wrong," Rosie said. "Although we have to do the job out there, it's good to have a good like Miss Fuccello lending us the support."

In October, Rosie rebounded to defeat Lupinacci of Nutley and then won her biggest match ever against Everett of Kearny. "That was my best win by far. She had beaten me pretty easy in September (6-0, 6-0) and I was very anxious to even that score."

Saying that her tennis idols are Martina Navratilova and Chris Evert, Rosie will continue to work at her game in the hopes of becoming a major college tennis player. As far as I'm concerned and I'm sure her fans share in this sentiment, Rosie Leonidis will be a big success in anything she tries. You couldn't find a better athlete, person or student. She is indeed a one in a million girl.

The 10th anniversary of the Belleville-Seton Hall football games takes place this Saturday at BHS and all is on the line. The Bucs could pretty well assure themselves of a spot in the playoffs with a victory, while Seton Hall is coming off a big win against Bergen Catholic. It promises to be a hard fought, bitter game between two tough rivals. Although the Hall leads this series, 6-3, don't forget that Belleville has won the last two games, including that beautiful victory, 34-8 last season.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was can you name the team that shutout the Dallas Cowboys in the 1970 season on Monday Night football, the score of the game and where it was played? Also, the teams that Dallas beat in the playoffs that year. The answer: Dallas lost to St. Louis, 38-0 in St. Dallas. The Cowboys rallied in the playoffs however by beating Detroit, 5-0 and San Francisco, 17-10.

For this week's quiz, let's go to baseball. You all probably know that the American League has had a horrible time in the All-Star game. Can you name the last time the American League won the game, the score of the contest and the managers in that game?

The Belleville High School Athlete of the Week is Brian Woods. The senior captain of the soccer team scored three goals in two games and is the Bucs' leading scorer with 23 points.

Bucs beat Clarkstown, 21-3; face Seton Hall here Saturday

Fazzini, Walsh, Centanni lead rushing attack

By Mike Lamberti

When you travel some 50 miles, play a fired up team from upstate New York, and to make matters worst, not play up to our potential, well the results might be disastrous.

Well, meet the 1981 Belleville football squad.

Having fulfilled all of the above requirements not to mention some very shoddy officiating in the first half, the Bucs defeated Clarkstown North, 21-3, displaying a super defense and awesome running game.

For the Bucs, now 5-1, the biggest game of the season awaits them on Saturday when the Pony Pirates of Seton Hall invade BHS for a 2 p.m. kickoff.

Despite its 2-3 record entering the contest, Clarkstown North played a fine ball game, displaying a good running game and a fine defense that in the end suffered from fatigue. This game was vintage Belleville from the third quarter on as the Bucs did what they had to do in order to win. Frank Fazzini, Jeff Walsh and Angelo Centanni all cracked the 100 yard rushing mark for the afternoon, as the Bucs' offensive line was at its best.

After winning the toss, Clarkstown took the kickoff and moved form its 14 to the 29 where it had to punt. Belleville on its first possession did move into Clarkstown territory, but were also forced to punt.

The first score of the contest came on Belleville's next possession. From their own 41, Fazzini ramble 32 yards to the Clarkstown 27. Centanni, playing by far his best game ever, scooted seven yards to the 20, followed by a 15 yard run by Fazzini once again. From the Clarkstown five, Fazzini then needed runs of four and one to give the Bucs the early lead. Robbie Canellierie added the conversion, and it was 7-0.

It appeared the game would be a

Super Defense — The Belleville Buccaneer's defensive team led by linebacker Phil Cerza (90), has allowed only 39 points in its first six games, including a shutout against Nutley. This week the boys gave up only three points to Clarkstown North.

blowout as the Bucs drove form their 49 to the Clarkstown six on the next possession. However Jeff Walsh fumbled, igniting the Clarkstown defense and the rest of the first half, the Bucs were denied offensively.

Clarkstown's only score of the game came late in the second half when Jim Poszor booted a 26 yard field goal. The three points culminated Clarkstown's most effective drive of the game.

Quarterback Dan Rubbert came up with some strong passes that kept the Bucs confused. All together the junior QB tallied some 64 yards passing in the drive. However, the Buccaneer defense played tough when it had to, and the held the Rams from then on.

As the first half ended, it appeared that Clarkstown would have the momentum going into the second half. After all, it was 7-3 Belleville, but Clarkstown, on its own field and fired up seemed to have the edge.

The edge, however, was not meant to be. The Bucs that went into the lockerroom a bit rejected, came out fired up and played like professionals.

Belleville was simply awesome in the third quarter, scoring twice on drives of 74 yards in 11 plays and 79 yards in 14 plays. The Clarkstown (Please see "Bucs" on page 14.)

Booters defeat Bailey Ellard, 3-0 after tying Carteret High at 2-2

By Mike Lamberti

The Belleville soccer team had a good week, tying Carteret 2-2, and then beating Bailey Ellard by a count of 3-0.

For the season, the team's record is now, 5-6-3 with West Orange on tap tomorrow afternoon away.

Once again, the story of the Bucs games last week was Brian Woods. The senior captain, who leads the team in scoring with 23 points (nine goals, five assists) tallied both scores in the Carteret game and scored once in the Bailey Ellard whitewash.

Mike Van Embergh also had a fine week, scoring once and assisting on three other goals. Mike Vega also a good week, scoring in the Bailey Ellard game and assisting on the Van Embergh goal.

"We might not be the most talented team in the state," said head coach Anthony D'Aquino. "But I have never seen a more determined group of athletes. These kids give it everything they have and never die. You can't say anything but good things about an athlete when he gives you 100 percent."

In the Bailey Ellard game, Brian Woods was of course the hero on offense, but the goalkeeper Bob Cook also deserves some recognition. Had Cook not made some big saves, the game could easily have been a one goal difference. Van Embergh started the scoring off of an assist by Vega. Later in the first quarter, Vega returned the favor by scoring off a fine pass by Santiago Borja.

Borja, the teams second leading scorer with 17 points (seven goals, three assists), is rapidly developing into a fine all around player, who should be one of the state's best by his senior year. He, of course, comes from a fine soccer family.

The final goal of the Bailey Ellard contest came from Woods off an assist by Van Embergh.

The Carteret game should have been a Belleville victory but a few unlucky breaks cost the Bucs a win. After Carteret tallied the first goal, Belleville stormed back with second and third period goals by Mr. Woods. Late in the third quarter, Carteret scored a goal to tie matters and after both teams played a scoreless fourth quarter, the game ended dead locked.

"It's happened to us a lot this year," D'Aquino said referring to the Bucs giving up goals late in a period. "We have a team down and then bang, they score a quick goal."

BHS Hall of Fame to host testimonial

On Friday, November 6, at the Branch Brook Manor, the Belleville High School Hall of Fame Association will sponsor the first of what it is hoped will soon be an annual affair honoring former Belleville High School varsity greats. Tickets to the testimonial dinner will sell for $15 per person and go on sale within the week.

The newly formed Hall of Fame Association is an arm of the Belleville Board of Education and its Athletic Council, and was organized to carry out a project begun four years ago but not continued by Mike Chieffo and Fred Puleo while Athletic Council members. Over 50 former sports stars were inducted at the awards dinner held Chieffo and Puleo; however, the codified structure set up by the new association will limit future groups of inductees to ten per year.

To be eligible, a Belleville athlete must be an alumnus of the high school for at least five years, or have been a coach or athletic director at the high school, must have contributed to the athletic program at the school beyond that expected of most individuals, must have had an outstanding record of achievements on the field of play, must have shown leadership, desire, and an ability to overcome whatever handicaps were placed in his or her way. Belleville alumni who have excelled in post high school sports may also be considered.

The association is looking to the people of Belleville for help in uncovering the names of town's outstanding past performers. Nomination forms can be picked up at the Senior High School for those interested or the form published below may be submitted to the association at the high school's mailing address. According to Evelyn Hannon, president of the association: "All that we hope to do is to honor as many deserving past athletes as possible. The name of every nominee will be given full consideration, and we hope that the very idea of such a Hall of Fame is the kind of thing that can give Belleville and its athletes a boost."

Rec League

Jets clinch first place in light-weight league

Fourth week action in the Belleville Recreation Football Division and the Jets in the Light-weight Division clinch first place with big wins. The Steelers topped the second place Giants 19-6 while the Jets stopped the second place Falcons, 26-6. Other Light-weight action saw the Bengals and the Chargers battle to a 6-6 tie.

The Steelers held a 6-0 half-time lead thanks to key runs from Jimmy Dunphy and Anthony Gizzo. Dunphy's 33-yard run to the 17 yard line resulted in the game's first score, a 17-yard run by Gizzo. The Steelers threatened early in the second half but the drive was stopped thanks to an interception by Giant defenseman Jerry Petrucci. Moments later, Sean Mulcahy tied the score for the Giants on a three-yard run. Gizzo once again gave the Steelers the lead on a 35-yard run, then adding the extra-point. After a 53-yard run by Gizzo to the 13 yard line, Andrew Martinez closed out the scoring for the Steelers with an eight-yard run. Mike Pronel added an interception for the Steelers while Martinez added a blocked punt.

The Jets, on a Mike Iacona two-yard run jumped out early on the Falcons, and it was clear sailing from there. Moments later, after a Jamie Galioto interception, quarterback Anthony Lunetta boot-legged 17 yards to increase the Jet lead to 13-0 at half-time. Falcon running back Billy Sypher narrowed the gap on an electrifying 93-yard touchdown run. Iacona once again widened the margin for the Jets, catching a 24-yard pass from Lou Lacante. Lucante moments later sealed the victory for the Jets with a five-yard touchdown run of his own. Defensively, Lucante recorded three interceptions in the game, while Iacona had a 60-yard punt return for a touchdown called back. No. 18 James Obenauer also scored a touchdown on a pass for the Jets which was called back. A fine defensive game for the Falcons was turned in by Charles Gerris, Joel Nasser, Jeff Spilsbury and Robert Bruzichessi.

In a strong defensive battle, the Girls' gymnastics squad ending improved season

By Mike Lambertl

As the Belleville gymnastics team winds down its second season of competition, many signs of improvement during the course of the campaign point to optimism for the future.

The girls closed out the 1981 campaign with an away match in Hasbrouck Heights. Carol Giuffrida's team, which won its first varsity match this fall, battled Caldwell last week and was on the short end of a 73-56 count.

"We started out well," said Giuffrida referring to the Caldwell match. "As usual, we did very well in the floor exercises, but our weakness has been on the beams."

Donna Slonim and Laura Lombardi competed in the floor exercises, both doing quite well. The vaulting exercises were especially gratifying for Lombardi as she won that event. Laura Cairo tied for second place in the vaulting as Belleville had by far their best offensive show in that event.

The balance beams and the bars were sweeps for Caldwell which pretty much spelled defeat for the locals. "We showed some signs of improvement," said Giuffrida. "If you saw us at the beginning of the season and now, then you would see a big improvement. Our girls really put out during the season and I couldn't be happier or prouder of the team's effort."

The victory in the vaulting exercise was very big for the incomparable Laura Lombardi. In case there is someone in BHS who doesn't know it yet, she'll be transferring to another school within a matter of weeks and her last few matches ina Belleville uniform have been by far her best. She will be missed by the team, not only for her gymnastic ability but also for her vibrant personality and hard working determination.

Tennis squad wins to conclude season

Concluding a fantastic season, the Belleville tennis team whipped both Irvington and Madison to close out the season with an 11-4 mark, 13-6 counting tournament play.

Next week, the Times will Present a wrap up of the girls most productive season in the sports seven year history.

Karen Fuccello's team, which lost all four of its regular season matches by counts of 3-2, were in top form last week as the girls were 5-0 winners against Madison and 4.5-.5 victors over Irvington. In the Madison match, Rosie Leondis was a 6-1, 6-0 winner while Kim Indiero posted a 6-3, 6-0 victory. Angela Chimento, who has a sense for excitement, needed three sets to beat her opponent, 1-6, 7-5, 6-3. The doubles team preserved the shutout as Gina Pasquale and Joy Santangelo won, 6-4, 6-4 and Dina D'Aquino and Sheree Tillman won, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3.

In the Irvington match, the girls breezed by the Camperettes as Leondis won, 7-5, 6-0, Indiero had no problem by a score of 6-0, 6-2 and Chimento was a 6-3, 6-4 winner. The doubles team of Pasquale-Santangelo won, 6-0, 6-2 and the second doubles team of Cathy Woods and D'Aquino had their match called by darkness, thus the splitting of the last set.

As mentioned earlier, the girls had by far its finest season ever and with just three seniors lost to graduation next this spring, the next few years do indeed look bright for the team.

Off and Running — Frank Fazzini gains 17 yards in the game against Clarkstown before he is tackled. Fazzini picked up a total of 164 yards in the contest. Jeff Walsh and Angelo Centanni also broke the 100 yards rushing mark during the game.

Bucs' rushing defeats Clarkstown North, 21-3

defense, although game, could not compete with the methodical Buc offense that grinded out gain after gain behind the super running of Fazzini, Centanni and Walsh.

Following the second half kickoff, Belleville started from its 26. Fazzini started things with a gain of two yards, followed by a John Borello 10 yard screen pass for a first down to Fazzini. Walsh then picked up another 10 for a first down at the 48. Centanni followed with a 13 yard gain to the Clarkstown 39. After Fazzini was stopped for no gain, he picked up four yards on his next carry and was followed by another four by Centanni. At the 23, Walsh added 11, moving the ball to the 12, before Centanni closed the gap with a 10 yard gain to the Clarkstown two. Centanni then bulled up the middle for the score, as Cancelliere added the conversion making the score 14-3.

The buc defense, now sensing that the wind was out of Clarkstown sails, held the home team without a first down on the next possession.

Then without the benefit of one pass, the Bucs drove upfield with a balance running attack, with Fazzini leading the way with a 17 yard run.

But the true story of the drive was the blocking of the Bucs' offensive line as they psuhed at will at the Clarkstown defense. Fazzini score Belleville's final touchdown and Cancelliere once again added the conversion.

The fourth quarter saw Belleville threaten several times, but some miscues cost them some more scores. However, the Bucs did the job when they had to and that is certainly a sign of as good ball club.

Afterwards, Buc head coach John Senesky praised his club.

"They were up against some adversity in the first half," he said, referring to the officiating. "We got the job done and despite the fact we didn't play a great game, we did a good enough job to win."

Clarkstown head coach John McConegly was very impressed with Belleville.

"They were awesome," the coach said. "They sis everything that was needed to win. Without a doubt, they have one of the finest teams I have ever seen."

Profession wrestling at BHS on Nov. 20

Vinnie Consenzo announced Monday that he has arranged to bring professional wrestling back to Belleville (High School Gymnasium) for the fourth successive year, on Nov. 20.

This year's exciting show will feature many new faces. In fact most of these matches will feature opponents who have never wrestled against each other at any previous location.

Among the match-ups for what promises to be a thrill-packed card, sponsored by the Michael-V. Marotti Civic Association and sanctioned by World Wide Wrestling Federation and New Jersey Athletic Commission, will include: Magnificent Muraco (bad guy) vs. Rick Martel; King Kong Mosca (bad guy) vs. Tony Carea; Bulldog Brower (bad guy) vs. Curt Henning; Baron Mikel Scicluna vs. Lee Wong; Ron Shaw vs. Hans Schroeder; Dave O'Hannon vs. Robert Soto; and Larry Sharpe vs. Angelo Gomez.

This has always been the question, "Is professional wrestling for real?" The fans say it is. The wrestlers say it is. There is only one way to be convinced — come to the Belleville High School Gymnasium on Friday, November 20.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. First bout will start at 8 p.m.

Jets win first place spot

Bengals and the Chargers played to a 6-6 tie. Jack Calandra scored the lone touchdown for the Chargers on a 45-yard punt return, while Douglas Carroll added the scoring for the Bengals on a 28-yard pass reception from Jay Marchese. Strong defensive performances for the Chargers were turned in by Domenick Milano, John Aurieemma and Anthony Fusaro, while Bengal stand-outs included Mike Danduone, Richie Mangogna and Nicky Turano.

After four weeks, Light-weight leading scorers, are: Mike Iacona (Jets) 51 pts.; Lou Lucante (Jets) 33 pts.; Jack Calandra (Chargers) 30 pts.; Billy Sypher (Falcons) 30 pts.; and Danny Harrington (Falcons) 25 pts.

Heavy-weight leading scorers are: Andrew Martinez (Steelers) 37 pts.; Anthony Gizzo (Steelers) 32 pts.; Sean Mulcahy (Giants) 30 pts.; Todd Conforti (Giants) 20 pts.; Jimmy Dunphy (Steelers) 14 pts.; Sam Zamloot (Giants) 14 pts.

The Belleville Recreation Soccer League standings tightened up during fourth week action as the Aztecs set back the Toros in "A" Division play, 6-3. Both teams are now knotted at 3-1 to lead the division, following last week's decision. The Aztecs used the Zamloot connection to tally their six goals, four by Phil Zamloot and two by brother Russell. The Toros got on the scoreboard behind John Arrietta (2) and David Long.

Buccaneers' offensive line leads rushers to victory

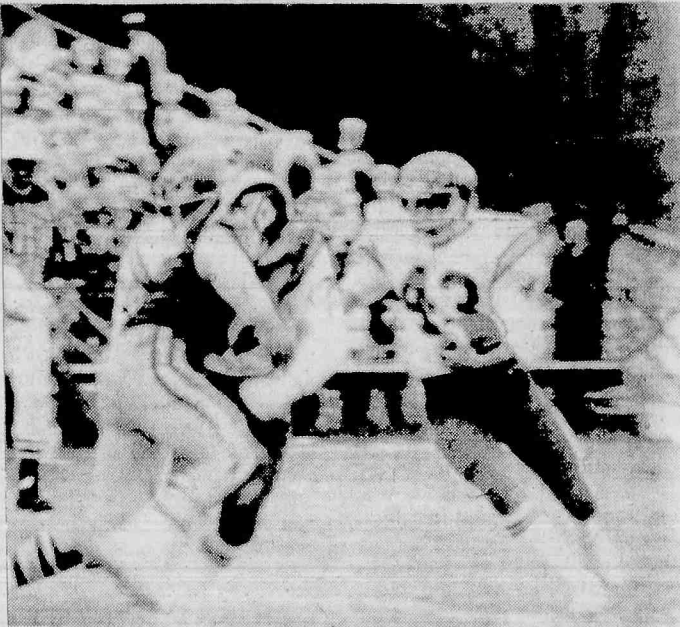

Mean Linebacker — Phil Cerza is a familiar face to each opposing football team that the Bucs face, since he is chasing them most of the afternoon. Cerza is part of the Bucs' defense which has allowed only 39 all season long.

A Running Team — The Bucs ran a strong game against the Rams of Clarkstown North last Saturday, picking up 399 total yards offense in the contest.

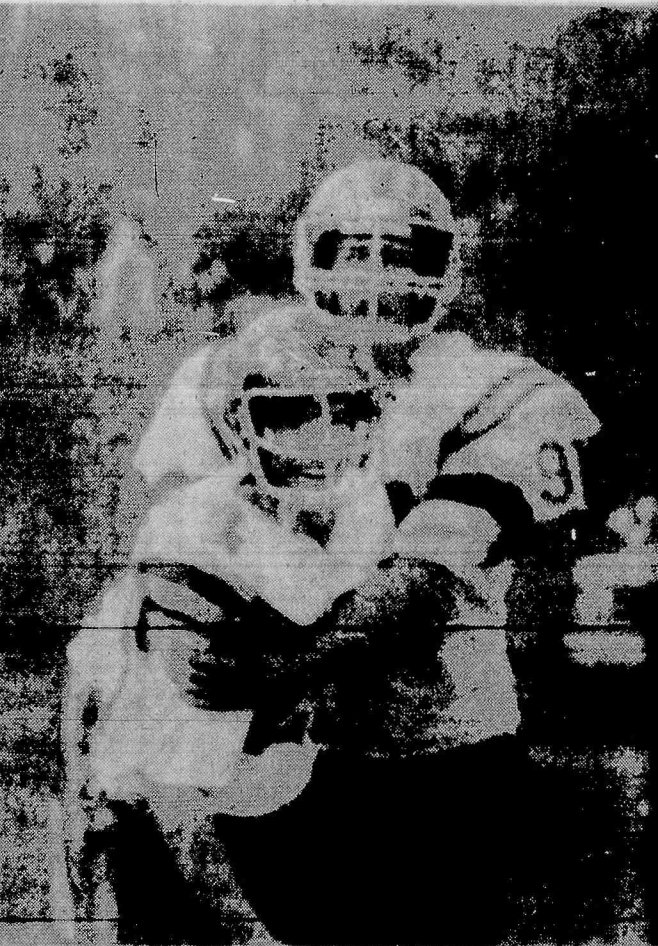

Congratulations — Angelo Centanni, who rushed for over 100 yards is congratulated by his teammates after scoring a touchdown in Saturday's game against Clarkstown North.

100 Yards — That is what Jeff Walsh (43), Frank Fazzini and Angelo Centanni rushed for in Saturday's game against Clarkstown North. This week they will be running against the Ponies of Seton Hall.

So Close — Robbie Cancelliere makes his third extra point conversion during Saturday's game, as a Clarkstown North player (78) comes so close to blocking the kick.

Nice Catch — Jim Castelli (23) is congratulated by Phil Cerza after intercepting a Clarkstown North pass in the third quarter of Saturday's game.

Face to Face — Belleville Buccaneer center Bob Cassin stands over the ball in Saturday's game against Clarkstown North, which was won by the Bucs by the score of 21-3. Cassin has had an excellent season standing over the ball and giving snaps to quarterbacks Robert Woodcock and John Burrello

Town recreation department starting new winter activities

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced the start of seven new activities, slated to begin sometime this month. The Women's Volleyball League will commence on Tuesday, Nov. 10 at School 3 from 7-10 p.m.

Wrestling for boys ages 6-15 will begin on Tuesday, Nov. 17 from 6-7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Wrestling applications are available at the Rec. House and in the schools. A Color Guard Clinic for girls age 8-14 will start on Wednesday, Nov. 18 from 3:30-5 p.m. at the Friendly House.

The very popular Girls' Gymnastics program, led by high school coach Carol Giuffrida and her talented staff, will begin its Saturday routine on Nov. 21 from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Friendly House. Girls ages 6-14 are welcome to attend.

Men's Open Basketball will also begin on Saturday, Nov. 21 from 1-4 p.m. at the middle school boys' gym. The Boy's Elementary Basketball Clinic for boys ages 8-11 will tip-off on Saturday, Nov. 21 from 1-3 p.m. at the high school. The Boys' Junior Basketball Clinic for boys 12-14 will start on Monday, Nov. 23 from 7-8:30 p.m. at the Friendly House.

Belleville's Annual Turkey Shoot will be held at the Pistol Range, corner of Joralemon Street and Hoover Avenue, on Sunday, Nov. 22 from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. All men, women and children over the age of twelve accompanied by an adult are invited to participate.

Weight lifting contest held in Succasunna

There were some world famous as well as some of the United States' top athletes present for the Appalachian Body Building Championships in the not-so-famous town of Succasunna, N.J., Sunday, Oct. 25.

In attendance was guest lecturer and poser Franco Columbu, he holds the distinction of being a chiropractor from California via Sardianni and the title of Mr. Olympia the number one body builder in the world. His advice for others was to stay away from steroids; instead he recommended eggs and fish as the best source of protein in the diet because, they are easily absorbed. He also advised body builders to seek regular chiropractic care in order to have good health and to be a better competitor.

Mike Bridges, World Class weight lifter, was also present. He set an unofficial world record. After two warm-up bench presses at 415 lbs. and one at 505 lbs., he pressed 525 lbs. for the unofficial record. Next month he will compete in India where he will shatter the record officially.

The winner of the competition was 19-year-old Bill Leaghy who trains at the Gateways Center in Bloomfield. He received trophies for best teen-ager and Class C as well as the open competition. His next competition will be in February at Freehold, N.J. where he expects to do well. His chiropractor is Dr. John P. Duncan in Nutley.

Jets topple Giants, 26-7; sack Simms nine times

By Mike Lambert

This gets better each week. The New York Jets, a 19-3 loser to Seattle a week ago, defeated the New York Giants, a 32-0 winner over Seattle two weeks ago, at Giants Stadium, by a resounding score of 26-7.

If that doesn't throw blow your mind, then nothing will. In any event, the Jets' dominance in this battle left a lot of fans wondering how good they boys from Shea can really be.

The rest of the NFL looked like this: San Francisco, this year's cinderella story, stopped Pittsburgh; Miami stopped Baltimore; Atlanta rebounded by pulverizing New Orleans; Cincy boosted its mark to 6-3 by whipping Houston; San Diego lucked out versus KC; Los Angeles pulled out all the stops to edge Detroit; things are back to normal in Chicago as the Bears were ripped by Tampa; and finally, the Raiders got a big victory over New England.

The Jets defense, which has been one of the most underrated in the NFL this year, had a super afternoon, sacking Phil Simms a record nine times while holding the suddenly potent Giant running game in check throughout the afternoon. The Giants only score came when Jet punter Chuck Ramsey fumbled at the two yard line and Beasley Reece picked up the loose ball and ran it in.

Richard Todd was not overpowering but he did get the job done and his TD pass to Wesley Walker was a perfect strike. The Jet runners did a good job chewing up precious time once the Jets built up a 16-0 lead and Pat Leahy continued his current hot streak with four field goals.

The San Francisco 49ers are for real, leave no doubt about it. Last week, they traveled to Pittsburgh where the defense did a great job on Terry Bradshaw and the offense did the job with some fine passes by Joe Montana. With their record now 7-2 and Atlanta on tap next week, the Niners could run away with the division should they pull out the next two games.

The poor Baltimore Colts, who were supposed to be the NFL's most improved team this year, lost its eighth straight game as the Dolphins breezed, 27-10. For the year, the Dolphins are now 6-2-1, leading Buffalo by a half game and the Jets by two. The Bills won its second straight over Cleveland as Joe Ferguson lit the sky up with passes and the Bill defense did a fine job against the Browns fine passer, Brian Sipe. Finally, those Cincy Bengals, the NFL's second cinderella team this year, ran its record to 6-3, tops in the AFC central with a 34-21 victory over ailing Houston.

Now for this week's picks:

JETS at BALTIMORE: O.K., so the Jets are supposed to win this game and run the record to 5-4-1. The law of averages says the Jets should win because they have a better team. However, the Colts are 1-8, haven't won since opening day and at home will be very itchy to win. If the Jets don't come down off of the big high of the Giants game, the Colts will steal it. Baltimore 24-21.

GIANTS at GREEN BAY: The Giants lost, 23-7, to the Packers four weeks ago and since Green Bay is such an up and down team, it figures the Pack will be down for this one after the win over Seattle last week. The Pack has a world of talent on offense, but somehow lose the games they're supposed to win. This will be a big test of the Giants character and a must situation to boot. Giants 28-20.

ATLANTA at SAN FRAN: The Falcons are walking thin ice here, playing a red hot team at home and a fired up defense. Despite its 5-4 record, the Falcons are much better than that mark, and with the chance of falling three games behind the Niners, Bartowski and company will be ready. Atlanta 27-23.

BUFFALO at DALLAS: On Monday Night, the best game of the week, assuming that Cosell keeps his mouth shut. Dallas, coming off that huge victory versus Philly knows that Buffalo is no slouch but might take this game with a lower intensity level than last week. If they do, that might be trouble. Buffalo, although winning the last two weeks, hasn't been that impressive and is due to pull off a big win. It could come here. Buffalo 21-20.

TAMPA BAY at MINNESOTA: The Vikings have a measure of revenge here, having lost to the Bucs back on opening day. Minnesota has one of the most explosive offenses in the league and with Tampa Bay playing well, but erratic, a few quick scores could mean a long afternoon for the Bucs. Minnesota 31-20.

CINCINNATI at SAN DIEGO: The week's biggest upset. The Bengals were supposed to be an easy game for the Chargers back in September, but this is November and Cincy is 6-3 with their eyes on a title. San Diego has been very lucky to win their last few games and even at home, Fouts and company might be in for a big struggle. Cincy 21-14.

PITTSBURGH at SEATTLE: With Jack Patena's job hanging on the result, the Hawks will give the Steelers a battle. However, with Pittsburgh clinging to second place and with Cincinnati playing so well, the Steel curtain can least afford a let down now. Bradshaw to Swann and Stallworth along with a good defense will probably be enough to win here. Pitt 24-13.

The rest of the NFL: KC to whip Chicago; Detroit by a nose over Washington; LA to rebound opposite New Orleans; Oakland over slumping Houston; Miami to stop New England; Philly over St. Louis; and finally, Cleveland to upend Denver.

Last week's picks: 9-4. For the year: 70-40.

HOUSEKEEPER/CHILD CARE

We need an individual who loves children (we have 4 preschoolers), our dog (German Shepherd), and enjoys working in the reasonably hectic environment they guarantee. If you can completely maintain our general housekeeping (except major cleaning, which we contract out) & can help care for our children when we step out, while still maintaining a pleasant disposition, then we look forward to receiving your application & references. We live in Nutley, close to good transportation. Live out, needs drivers license. 40 hours a week, at $180.

Veterans parade scheduled for this coming Sunday

under Commander Rocky Andreatola, Belleville, and VFW Post 1302 second division Color Guard, Kearny.

The third division of the parade will be highlighted by the Lakeland Regionaires Drum and Bugle Corps, Monroe, N.Y.; Picatinny Arsenal Float, Army; Phil DeSaro, American Legion Department Executive Committee Member; Sal Balesteria, American Legion County Commander and Staff; American Legion Post 105 Color Guard led by Commander Ray Wellen, Belleville; American legion Post 299 Color Guard and Auxillary led by Commander Manny Comito and President Manuel Preston, Belleville; and American Legion Vietnam Veterans Color Guard.

The fourth-division will consist of the St. Columille Gaelic Pipe Band led by Pipe Major Pat McGonigal, Kearny; AMVETS Post 26 Color Guard led by Commander Carmen Zicaro, Belleville; Knights of Columbus Council 835, Belleville, and local Boy and Cub Scouts.

In the fifth division will be the Cadets of Pearl River Junior Drum and Bugle Corps; Elks Color Guard Lodge 1123, Belleville; Girl Scouts and Brownies; 13th Volunteers Regiment of New Jersey Color Guard, and Pershing Rifles Drills Team and Capers, Seton Hall.

In the sixth division will be the Spirit of '76; Disable American Veterans Chapter 22 Color Guard led by Commander Nunzio Cupo, Belleville and Nutley; Catholic War Veterans Post 1187 Color Guard; Michael Pizzi Association Marching Group, Belleville, and the Belleville Recreation Twirlers.

In the final group, the seventh division, there will be the Melrose Black Hawks, Perth Amboy; the Nutley Patriots Twillers, Nutley AMVETS Post 30; the Bloomfield Elks Colors Guard Lodge 788 and the Military Vehicle Collectors Club.

"God-Bless America" will be sung by Susan Santiglia.

Township get addition funds from state revenue sharing

ly. Two weeks later, a representative of the Community Affairs Department, accompanied the delegation to the United States Census Bureau in Marlow Heights, Maryland for federal approval of the township's certification.

Chief of the Census Bureau John Coleman explained that a "foul up in paper work" had caused, some problems in certification of these municipalities in time for the 1982 fiscal year's allotment.

There was no question that the townships would receive their new funds for 1982, the question was when would they receive them.

Final determination lay with the recently appointed Director of Federal Office of Revenue Sharing Michael Hill.

Returning to New Jersey, the delegation held a "strategy meeting" with Congressman Joseph Minish (D-11) who urged the group to return to Washington and argue their case with Hill before a federal decision was rendered.

Following Minish's advice, the group returned to Washington last Thursday and met with Hill who proposed to correct the problem by using reserved funds set aside for such inequities.

That drew fire from the Treasury Department which questioned the proposed use of the reserve, but Mrs. Hood said Monday that Minish called early in the day to announce the approval of the solution after all.

Another problem faced by the newly developed townships was that "older" township such as Maplewood filed objections with the Revenue Sharing Office in Washington, D.C., arguing that the pool of monies for township assistance should not be depleted by those communities which this year changed their names to "township" solely to qualify for added federal funds.

But Belleville won the Maplewood challenge, and now the township's 1982 budget will be increased by $540,000.

Expressing satisfaction that all worked out well, Mayor Marotti said the funds will be budgeted towards capital improvements.

Senatore people upset over hometown support

An early mood of jubilation turned to gloom as Commissioner Mary Senatore, defeated 30th district Democratic candidate for New Jersey Assembly, conceded defeat to the tearful crowd that jammed her Washington Avenue election headquarters Tuesday night.

"The people made their choice," Mrs. Senatore said to a glum gathering of sobbing supporters. "I thank everyone for all their help and I'll always be a Democrat."

Senatore's campaign manager, Elmer Hermann of Essex Fells noted the "bitter disappointment" in the returns indicating a blow to the district's Democrats.

Despite early returns showing local Democratic victories in contests for state senator, and one State Assembly seat, the township proved a maverick among the seven other municipalities of the newly formed 30th district where Republicans pulled stronger than expected.

One of the two assembly seats open in the 30th district was won by Incumbent Democrat Buddy Fortunato of Glen Ridge with an unofficial total of 31,130 votes.

The other seat went to Republican John V. Kelly of Nutley who received 30,601 votes.

District wide, Josephine Mongiello, a Cedar Grove Republican got 29,754 votes and Senatore trailed with 26,345. As the Times went to press figures were unofficial, not accounting for absentee or emergency ballots.

By contrast, the Belleville voters gave a definite if narrow victory to both Democrats. Unofficially local tallies gave 5273 votes to Senatore and 5187 to Fortunato. Mongiello grabbed 4334 Belleville votes and Kelly received 4197.

Senatore, Belleville's Public Works Commissioner, is a lifelong resident of the township and a graduate of elementary School 5 and of Belleville Senior High School.

A longtime Democrat, the 58-year-old Passaic Avenue resident served as the township's party chairwoman for 24 years.

"I called the Belleville race accurately," she said when asked if she expected stronger local support, a sore point with many of her devotees who denounced local voters for disloyalty.

"I think the rest represents a Republican trend," Senatore added, saying she will not bid for an assembly seat again, she said.

In an emotional departure, Senatore was embraced by her local publicity manager, Caesar Romano who told her, "You ran a good race and you did it like a lady, Mary."

RIDGE MANOR CONDOMINIUMS

439 Ridge Road, Lyndhurst, N.J.
WHY BUY A CONDOMINIUM?
IT'S THE SMART THING TO DO

From an economy and investment stand point it makes sense. In most cases, after tax and interest credits, it costs less to own your unit rather than pay rent. Plus the advantages gained in the present spiraling inflationary market.

CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING EXAMPLE (ALL FIGURES ARE APPROXIMATE)
RENTAL COSTS $625. month X 2 yrs. - $15,000

Purchase (30% Down)	Purchase (20% Down)
