Strumolo, Pica enter board race

Incumbent Commissioners Vincent Strumolo and Matthew Pica announced this week they will seek re-election to another four-year term on May 6.

To date, they join Mayor Michael Marotti and community activist Joseph Fornarotto as announced candidates for a seat on the five-member panel.

Although all present terms expire this year, neither Commissioners Mary Senatore nor Joseph McGreevy has made a definite announcement to seek re-election.

Strumolo, the senior member of the present board, has 18 years of local governing service to his credit, including two terms as a councilman, when that form of government prevailed locally.

A proponent of Commission governing, Strumolo heads the Public Affairs Department and prides himself on the increased services brought to Belleville under his tenure.

"I'm running on my record of past performance and I intend to continually improve all services to the people of Belleville," Strumolo said in a recent interview.

Among the specific achievements of his department, the public affairs chief pointed to his effective transportation committee which has fought recent bus service changes and reductions by New Jersey Transit.

"Other towns have been cut more drastically by N.J. Transit than Belleville has and I believe that's because we're working so hard to keep our services," Strumolo said.

He also takes pride in the extended health services his department provides free of charge to local residents. "We have Wednesday clinics, perform Pap smears for township women, give medical exams to the local Scouts and Little League teams when they need them," said the Commissioner.

His colleague, Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica is completing his first term as Commissioner.

Record breaking week for two BHS athletes

By Mike Lambert

A pair of Belleville High School juniors made history last week, as Phil Colalillo and Jennifer Apicella broke the 1,000-point and 2,000-point scoring marks, respectively.

For Colalillo, 1,000 came in the Buccaneers 76-32 rout of St. Cecilia last Thursday afternoon at Kearny. The junior tallied 30 points for the afternoon, hitting the magic mark early in the second quarter.

Colalillo thus becomes the first player in Belleville boys' history to break the 1,000-point mark in his junior year. The all-time leading scorer, Abdel Anderson and the number two man, Wayne Bubet, both broke the marks early in their senior seasons.

"You couldn't find a more coachable person," praised Colalillo's head coach, Joe Papasidero. "Phil works hard game by game and always puts out 100 percent. He earned the 1,000 points and next year he will be one of the best players in this state."

Those same voices of praise have been used about Jennifer Apicella since her freshman year. The junior tallied her 2,000 point last week when Belleville battled Shabazz High School at Belleville. Apicella came into the game needing 19 points and reached the goal early in the third quarter on a driving layup.

Apicella, who scored her 1,000 point in February of 1982, is in line to become the state's all-time leading scorer. Katie Larkin currently is the state leader, having tallied 2,745 points from 1978-1980. Apicella enters this week's action with 2,064 points and is in excellent shape to bypass Larkin's record next season.

For this season, Jennifer has scored 828 points, is the state's second leading scorer and a sure bet for all-county, area and state honors.

There are a list of the top four scorers in Belleville High School history:

Jennifer Apicella, 2,064*, 1980-present
 Abdel Anderson, 1,398, 1972-1975
 Wayne Bubet, 1,252, 1978-1981
 Phil Colalillo, 1,010*, 1980-present

Township officials will appeal judge's garbage contract order

By Linda Telesco

A recent Superior Court decision voiding Belleville's new five-year scavenger contract and ordering the township to rebid for trash collection will be appealed, Mayor Michael Marotti told The Times Tuesday.

Seeking to maintain the $2,778,992 contract with Browning-Ferris Waster Industries of North Jersey (BFI), Commissioners voted 4-1 in

By Ed Capparucci

Ernie Zoppi, former president of the Board of Education, has announced he will once again seek election to the board after a two-year absence.

Zoppi filed his petition at the board offices Monday morning, making him the fourth candidate seeking one of the three seats available during the April 12 election. Other candidates are current board President John DiStasi, trustee Anthony D'Agostino and local businessman Gabe Nazzola. The deadline for filing petitions is today, March 3.

Zoppi served on the School Board from 1978-1981, including one year as vice president and one year as board president. He was defeated in the April 1981 election, finishing third behind current board members Thomas Spillane and Donna Ramone. Now he wants another chance "to serve the people of Belleville."

"When I lost back in 1981, I was disappointed, but after a while I thought 'let someone else give it a try for a while,'" Zoppi said in an interview Monday night. "I have remained involved in school matters throughout the two years by attending meetings and keeping the lines of communication open with politically involved people, and now I want to become even more involved once again."

During Zoppi's three-year term the Board of Education found itself faced with difficult issues including desegregation and the closing of Schools 1 and 2 due to declining enrollment.

"During the three years I was involved on the board, we went through some hectic times because of the sensitive issues and problems we dealt with," Zoppi said. "At times it was very aggravating, but we accomplished a lot. Many people disagreed with some of the stands we took on issues and some of the things I said, but you cannot please everyone. We worked to make our school system a better one for our children."

Zoppi said he sees no "major issues" involved in this year's board race, but believes "some things could be done better."

"I do not believe there have been any major issues concerning the board for the past two years," Zoppi said. "It seems that all the major problems fell on us during my three years, but as I said before, all the problems were resolved, even though not to everyone's liking."

Zoppi, a resident of Fairway Avenue, has lived in Belleville for the past 21 years. His three children have all been educated through the Belleville school system and his daughter has been a teacher in the system for the past nine years.

He was a member of the Educational Advisory Committee, the Athletic Committee, and an

Block Tax Tip

Working parents

A substantial credit — up to $1,400 — is available against the income tax liability of working parents who must pay child care expenses in order to be gainfully employed.

A child care credit can be claimed for the care of dependent children under 15 years of age, older dependents who are mentally or physically incapacitated, or for a taxpayer's disabled spouse. In the case of divorced parents, only the parent having custody of a qualifying child for the longer period during the year may claim the credit.

The rules allow a maximum credit of $1,440 for child care along with other employment-related costs — those expenses incurred to allow the taxpayer's home. Cost for maid or household services performed such as those of a babysitter are eligible employment related costs if the services are performed for a qualifying individual.

The amount of expenses which may be taken into account for purpose of the credit may not exceed $2,400 for one qualifying individual, $4,800 for two or more qualifying individuals, or the taxpayer's earned income (or lesser of the taxpayer's or the spouse's earned income if married). The credit ranges from 20 to 30 percent of child care and employment-related expenses, depending on household income.

Dairy store, laundry coming to Avenue

After sitting vacant for a year, the former Jolly Cleaners building on Washington Avenue has been sold to an investment group, which will use the property for a dairy store and a laundry mat.

Planned improvements to the building at 294 Washington Ave., by the buyer, Holmes Street Investment Group, has enabled Govel Realtors, which sold the property, to secure long-term leases for the building's retail space shortly after the sale.

Ralph Giordano, executive vice president of Govel said the sale has turned a local eyesore into a valuable source of revenue for the community. He represented Govel in negotiating the sale of the 7500-square-foot two-story building and worked in cooperation with Julius Feld of Argus Realty in negotiating the leases for the space.

Under terms of the leases, Garden State Stores, trading as Krauszer Dairy Store, and Maytag Home Style Laundry will occupy the space. The aggregate value of both leases is approximately a quarter of a million dollars.

Jolly Cleaners, an established Belleville business, was owned and occupied by Arthur Jackson for 24 years until a main water line break caused the collapse of the building last year.

Giordano said the negotiations involved intricate financial details, but led to an agreement by the seller to take back a mortgage on the building.

"The seller, realizing interest rates were down, wisely took advantage of a situation in which he could derive more interest on his money than he would if he would put his money into CDs (Certificates of Deposit) — and with a reasonable term," Giordano explained.

According to Giordano, Belleville officials have expressed delight over the improvements to the Washington Avenue building.

"Not only does this sale and the subsequent improvements to the former Jolly Cleaners building bring rates back to Belleville, but it also enhances the vitality of Belleville's commercial life," Giordano said.

Hilltop condominiums selling at a rapid rate

Construction of Hilltop II condominiums in Belleville is progressing rapidly with completion of the project's 16 units scheduled for April.

William W. Govel, president of Govel Realtors of Belleville, selling agent for the new condominiums, reports that 11 have been sold to date.

"The very positive early response to Hilltop II is a strong indication that we can anticipate a complete sell-out of the project at the time of completion in April," Govel asserts. "This response confirms the demand for moderately-priced condominiums in this area."

The condominiums, located at 10 Barnett Lane, are priced from $49,900. According to Govel, the selling prices of the two-bedroom luxury condominiums have kept sales activity at Hilltop II brisk, despite the fact the condominiums are still under construction.

Located in close proximity to shopping, banking and public transportation, Hilltop II condominiums offer a long list of standard features, including: energy-efficient construction, insulated windows, sound-proofing floors, individual heat and thermostats in each room, individual thru-wall air conditioners, wall-to-wall carpeting, ceramic tile bath and work-saver kitchen with all-modern appliances.

Additionally, Hilltop II offers

FACT #1	Read & re-read the small print. Beware of phrases like, "none in stock," "8 weeks delivery," "one in stock," or "many others in stock with popular options."
FACT #2	Why do some dealers spend $4,000 for a full page ad to advertise "none in stock," "one in stock," "will order." You better believe there is a rip-off and you are the target.
FACT #3	$80,000 per month in advertising costs are not unusual for the "Go-Go" dealers. Guess who pays for all this advertising?
FACT #4	Factory charges to dealers are the same. It makes no difference if the dealer buys one or one thousand cars. Bigger is not necessarily cheaper.
FACT #5	At Bigelow Motors, you deal with one salesperson & one manager. You are not subjected to pressure by six different "managers."
FACT #6	There is never any charge for "documentary fees" at Bigelow. These fees run as high as $95. (What the heck are documentary fees??)
FACT #7	Many highway dealers have an overhead of over $200,000 per month. Bigelow Motors is mortgage and rent free. Bigelow operates with a minimum overhead.
FACT #8	Bigelow Motors was founded in 1939. It is still run by the original owners. If you have a complaint you can enter their offices and talk to the owners.

Would aid Washington Avenue

Assemblyman Fortunato sees solution to township's development problems

Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato (D-Essex) thinks he has an answer to problems like the decaying business district along Washington Avenue in Belleville, or Nutley's desire to develop an enlarged downtown shopping area.

Just as independent authorities build and maintain large-scale projects like the N.J. Turnpike and the Sportscomplex, Fortunato believes the "Municipal Development Authorities" he's proposing will offer "a comprehensive solution to such massive problems as urban blight, lack of adequate housing and unemployment."

Specifically, Fortunato's plan would use both funds earned from casino money reinvestment and through local real estate taxes.

Identify Area

A municipal development authority could be set up by an individual municipality or by neighboring towns. The first step is to identify the geographical area involved — the streets, blocks and land parcels.

Next, tax assessments within the district would be frozen at their present level for municipal tax collection purposes. But any increase in property value brought about in future years would be assessed by the new Municipal Development Authority and would be used to pay off the bonds floated for improvement projects.

Finally, Fortunato says, the authorities could also be a mechanism for the mandated reinvestment of casino profits throughout the state.

When asked if the legislation is the most significant proposal offered by Fortunato during his six years in Trenton, he said, "If not that, then certainly the most comprehensive. This bill is more than a half-inch thick and has required more than a year's research," the Essex County Assemblyman said.

Other Projects
Besides Washington Avenue redevelopment, the kinds of projects Fortunato has in mind for the new authorities would be new streets and roads, building of industrial parks, construction of multi-family housing, industrial, pollution control, recreation and civic projects.

Much of the research work for the bill was done in Fortunato's role as chairman of the Independent Authorities and Commissions Committee in the Assembly.

Initial reaction among Assembly leaders has been excellent; the bill has yet to be discussed in any depth with Senate leaders although members of the upper house have been contributing ideas which have been incorporated in Fortunato's bill (A-3167).

As the bill now stands, the special development authorities could only be set up by communities qualifying for urban aid. That includes Belleville and Bloomfield, but not Nutley.

"Nutley is in a unique situation in that the town is surrounded by urban aid communities. But this bill will be improved further and it might be a good idea to let a Nutley combine with a Belleville or a Bloomfield to redevelop districts bordering such towns."

By The Summer

Fortunato says he hopes to conduct public hearings on the bill before summer.

If a single town were to set up a municipal development authority under Fortunato's plan, the district would be administered by the mayor, deputy mayor or council president, chief finance officer, planning board chairman and three public members.

In cases where two communities were involved in the authority, three members would come from each town involved: two elected officials and one public member.

The bonds issued by the authorities would be tax-free and could be purchased at interest rates competitive or lower than those offered by banks.

Fortunato says he was prompted to begin his research by "the economic crunch that was affecting municipalities. One of the things this does would be to replace lost federal and state aid," the Assemblyman notes.

"I hope this legislation is given a thorough but expeditious review by the legislature," he concluded.

Testimonial dinner planned for retiring Sy Grossman

A testimonial dinner honoring Assistant Superintendent of School Seymour (Sy) Grossman, will be held on June 23 at the Fiesta in Woodridge.

Grossman, who has served in the Belleville school system as both a teacher and an administrator for the past 37 years, will retire on July 1.

Grossman has served as assistant superintendent for instruction since 1973.

Reservations for the dinner are limited to 350. For tickets or more information call, Nancy Despenzire at 751-5984, Nino Bucciarelli at 759-9723 or John Iannuzzi at 759-8234.

Assemblyman's Bill — Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato has come up with a bill outlining Municipal Development Authorities, which he believes could solve massive urban and suburban problems.

Scoring Juniors

Belleville High School juniors Jennifer Apicella and Phil Colalillo have made many people in the community very proud to say they are from Belleville. Last week Jennifer scored her 2,000th high school career point, making her the first Belleville basketball athlete ever to reach that prestigious mark. She is now in reach of passing the all-time state scoring leader Katie Larkin, who scored 2,745 from 1978-80. Barring any injury, Jennifer could pass the mark shortly after the midway period of the next season.

Meanwhile, Phil became the first player in Belleville boys' history to pass the 1,000 point mark in his junior year. Sometime early next season Phil should pass, once again barring injury, Abdel Anderson, the school's leading scorer, who scored 1,398 from 1972-75.

While both have excelled in basketball during their high school careers, they still have maintained excellent grade averages as well in their quest to become well-rounded young people.

They are two young adults who have made their fellow students, teachers and members of the local community very proud. We congratulate them both for a job well done.

Media 'Nice Guys' brainwashing public

To the editor:

What's the big deal about the revelation that writers and TV producers are left-wing social reformers and are swaying unwitting viewers to their way of thinking? They've been writing a pack of king-size lies for years. Starting beautiful people and nice guys in key roles, the public eagerly buys the package.

We have never bothered to check out the accuracy of what is fed us, even when it is revealed that people who have reaped millions from our great country have anxiously worked for our enemies. Ed Asner donates thousands of dollars to the communist cause in Latin America — with money he earned right here.

Henry Fonda raised a family in wealth and comfort, yet his offspring aided those who killed American youth. Jane married a man who helped burn the city of Newark. He now is in the California Legislature, thanks to the millions earned by his wife and father-in-law. Tom Hayden, the monster, is now Mr. Nice Guy.

Anyone worth his salt has known for years of the greatest brainwashing effort in the history of mankind, going on right here in America. The astounding thing about it all is that it is now, at a time when the damage is complete, that conservative groups come up with the revelation "TV Producers Eye Social Reforms." Tell me, sirs, where the hell have you been? The entertainment field, as well as TV and the news media, have already been all but taken over by the reformers.

When John Lennon was shot in New York, I watched and listened to major news reporters weeping over his death, telling the viewers of the enormous influence Lennon and the Beatles had had over their lives. Recently, an ex-Beatle confessed to what really happened to them: "We were four lads full of drugs and booze. We didn't know what we were doing or saying most of the time."

Imagine, the great, intelligent minds, those who read the nightly news to us on all major networks, being influenced by four drug-deadened youths mouthing the solutions to world problems: "All we are saying, is give peace a chance." This is not to mention the adults who have now taken responsible positions in our society who are still impressed by the four drunken, drugged lads from Liverpool.

Local school officials demonstrate concern

To the editor:

I know that the snow removal project for the Town of Belleville was a trying time. Although they did a great job on cleaning the streets, the intersections were mounds of snow. It made it very dangerous to cross the streets, especially for the school children. If the residents in Belleville, who have corner properties would clean these areas, people wouldn't have to complain to the town.

Since my seven year old has to walk eight blocks to school, I was very concerned for his safety. Some people didn't even shovel their walkways and we had to walk in the street to get around.

Thankfully, Mr. Rosamelia, principal of School 7, and Dr. Greed, superintendent of the Board of Education came to my rescue. These two men showed deep concern for the safety of their children in this community. The snow was removed from these corners as soon as they learned of the situation. All of this was done for one little seven year old and other children in this area.

I want to thank Mr. Rosamelia, Dr. Greed, Dr. Greed's secretary, who's name I never did get, but who was very pleasant and understanding, and the Town of Belleville for showing they really do care about the safety of the school children.

Respectfully Submitted

Vietnam problems need attention of U.S. people

To the editor:

It has now been over 12 years since the United States was chased out of South Vietnam. The memories and the aftermath have now for the time being, been swept once again under the proverbial carpet. The three-day Vietnam memorial dedication in Washington was nice. It pacified Vietnam veterans all over the country, myself included. But it will never erase the stigma and reality of the problems it has caused then, and even now. To just put the whole episode in a "Pandora's Box" and lock it up for ever...is not the solution. Facts are facts, and they will never be forgotten. Especially one hard, real fact. And that is that our M.I.A.s are still missing, and our POWs are still prisoners. The United States sent those men over to South Vietnam, I feel it's about time we make a valiant effort to get back what is rightfully ours.

On Nov. 27, 1982 a group of American and Laotian mercenaries led by Lt. James Gritz, a former Green Beret, attempted a rescue operation, to free 120 American POWs, reported being held in Laos. The attempt was noble, however, it was also futile. The mission was aborted.

The fact that this rescue attempt was not in any way sanctioned or supported by the U.S. government, that it was totally operated, funded by private citizens, the men who took part were strictly volunteers, "Soldiers of Fortune." If you will, these facts are what deeply upsets me, as I feel it should to every American, and especially to every veteran of every war. Why wasn't our government involved? Why does the U.S. not want to follow up on this nagging problem that has been haunting this country all these years? How much longer will the families of these men be made to suffer, they are not just soldiers, they are fathers, husbands, brothers, sons, and lastly but not least, they are Americans. Whether they be dead remains, or living heroes, they belong home. The government has seemed to be trying to avoid this issue for all these years. Something is terribly wrong here, and the American people should no longer sit idly by. We can spend billions of dollars bringing "rocks back from the moon," can't some of that be spent on bringing back American heroes to a home, or resting place that they died for in the first place? I feel it's time for America to put her priorities in order. The moon and the stars will always be there...they can wait.

Letters should be written to your Congressmen, Senators, etc. Petition them to put political pressure on Washington. If enough pressure can be applied, maybe this problem and just maybe all problems of this "Vietnam Vendetta" can be finally put to rest.

Our efforts may accomplish nothing...and then again they may accomplish everything. Nicholas Cerreto

No article for athlete

To the editor:

As a Belleville resident, I question why there wasn't an article on Craig Mack, who made all-state in football.

To become all-state is a great achievement for Craig Mack and also an honor for the town of Belleville.

As a neighbor, I saw this young man grow up to be a respectful and fine individual dedicated to sports. Anytime I saw Craig on Continental Avenue he was always involved in some sport.

The football season has been over since Thanksgiving Day and in three months, not one article or mention has been made about Craig Mack.

Your newspaper and also Mike Lamberti's sports column should recognize the feats of this young man and publicize it.

The citizens of the town of Belleville should know what an exceptional football player he was for Belleville High School. Let the whole town know what an outstanding young man Craig Mack really is.

Sincerely,
Pompey Molivaro

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The wide focus of attention centering around the response of Congress and the reaction of the various groups expected to unleash unparalleled opposition to several of the proposals suggested by the President's National Commission on Social Security Reform in its attempt to bailout the faltering Social Security fund raises the commanding question of what is the best alternative solution.

NEWSWEEK, in its Jan. 24, 1983 issue, offered "A Skeptic's Challenge" by Walter E. Williams which we believe offers clear and intelligent ratiocination in seeking out a workable alternative in informative treatise style that merits review in high governmental offices.

Mr. Williams is a professor of economics at George Mason University in Fairfax, Va., in concise compendium synopsis format he refers to Social Security demeaningly, saying Social Security is a lie, a bad deal and an economic roadblock. A mandatory private pension system would provide more for the elderly and spur growth in our flagging GNP.

The lie is explained as a misconception that the employer pays half the payroll tax. The truth, he contends, is that both the employer and the employee share come out of the employee's paycheck. The employer treats his share just as he treats any other fringe benefit; The employee's cash pay is adjusted downward to reflect the noncash pay. There are lies, he says, you're told that Social Security payments are contributions...a contribution is voluntary. Social Security taxes are not. You're told that these contributions go into a trust fund for future payments. No such thing, he says, your only guarantee of payments is the willingness of workers to pay increasing taxes. The maximum tax now is $4,342 a year and probably will go up.

Labeling it national obstruction, he illustrates, that if a person were able to invest the money now taken by Social Security taxes in a private retirement plan, that money would be available to investors for the purchase of plant and equipment. But no such thing happens with Social Security payments, totaling $180 billion last year, because as soon as you pay Social Security taxes, they immediately go to a Social Security recipient. Martin Feldstein, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, has estimated that Social Security reduces private savings by about 35 percent. Feldstein concludes that because of reduced savings — and hence investment — our GNP is lower than it would otherwise be.

Mr. Williams expresses apprehension over the plight of our younger people, since they are the ones who will pay increasingly higher taxes and find, in the autumn of their lives, a bankrupted, politically unacceptable system. Polls continue to show that the younger element of the country's work force fear that Social Security won't be in existence when they retire.

SOLUTIONS. No one wants to turn old people out into the streets. We must recognize that Social Security, while well intentioned, was a mistake — one that won't be corrected by raising Social Security taxes, raising retirement age, reducing benefits or dragging federal employees and Congressmen into the morass. These steps just postponing the crisis for three or four years, the time between elections. The solution is to bail Social Security private, since every estimate shows that a private retirement program, such as a mandatory IRA, would be superior (Mr. Williams notes he would reluctantly make such a program compulsory only to address the criticism that people would not otherwise prepare for old age.)

HOW DO WE GET THERE? First we acknowledge that among current workers those above a certain age have already paid so much into Social Security that they would do better staying in the system than abandoning it. That age is approximately 40. Everyone who is younger than that would leave the Social Security system and kiss goodbye the money already contributed. The sweeter is that at 65 they will be well off and most likely better than they would have been with Social Security. Those people over 40 who desired to stay in Social Security would continue making payments and would receive benefits when they retire. All who are already retired would get benefits now prescribed. There would be a shortfall of revenues against expenditures — perhaps more than $100 billion — that would have to be funded out of general revenues. While it is a frightening figure, we can count on it to fall.

Mr. Williams concludes contentedly that privatizing Social Security will make the nation better off economically by putting billions of dollars into our capital-starved economy. It will avoid social problems as well.

'Tube' death court battle continuing

Despite the death of an 84-year-old Belleville woman who had been kept alive in a semi-conscious state since last August, a precedent-setting court battle is continuing, says Nutley attorney William Strasser.

At issue is whether the use of a nasal-gastric feeding tube is an extraordinary means of supporting life. Strasser, who represents the nephew and legal guardian of Mrs. Clare Conroy, had asked that the use of the tube be discontinued.

N.J. Superior Court Judge Reginald Stanton agreed with Strasser and said the tube could be disconnected, but an appeal to the N.J. Appellate Court stayed the action. Mrs. Conroy died two weeks ago Tuesday in a Bloomfield nursing home.

The issue could now be declared "moot", but as of the moment,

Strasser and the nephew, Thomas Witemore, want to press forward with the case which is scheduled to be heard by the Appellate Court in Hackensack on March 8.

"Mr. Witemore wants to continue with the case so others aren't put through the pain and suffering as was his aunt," Strasser said.

Mrs. Conroy died of a variety of diseases. She suffered from organic brain syndrome, a gangrenous leg that had rotted away flesh and bone and had lain motionless in a fetal position since sometime last August.

"She remained awake with her eyes open, but there was no higher brain function beyond that," said Strasser who is with the Nutley firm of Donohue, Donohue, Costenbader and Strasser.

Most drugs are likely to have three names. The first usually consists of a series of numbers and words that can best be deciphered only by a medicinal chemist. It is the "chemical" name. Pharmacologists usually concern themselves with the drug's second name, the "generic" title. It is usually found on the drug label in very small print. Lastly, there are the proprietary or trade names. There can be as many trade names for a drug as there are manufacturers who make it. As a result then, we buy the same drug under many names and prices. The discriminating consumer must isolate the generic name of a drug in an effort to achieve the lowest cost.

We make a special effort to provide the best service to our customers. For all your prescription needs come to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We're Blue Cross and Medicare approved. Wheel chairs, walkers, crutches, canes and other convalescent aids are handled. A gift department is also available. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

HANDY HINT:
Ask your doctor if a prescribed medicine can be dispensed under its generic name.

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto,

Last week I had a perm in a beauty salon. The perm came loose on top and looser around the nape of the neck. I went back to the beauty salon and showed the girl. I told her I wanted it tighter. She replied, "Once a perm is done, it cannot be redone." I can't see the point. Why did this happen and praising you as a trouble-shooter, do you have any method to help me?

Ms. Mary Stewart

Dear Ms:

Yes, it can be redone, only if the perm has been wound in the proper way and only if it is done in two weeks after you had the first perm.

Probably, she didn't apply enough lotion in the back to saturate the hair. I suggest you condition your hair, put larger rods on the top, smaller rods on the nape. Apply lotion on the nape. Let it stay about 5 minutes and then apply the lotion on top of the head. Let that stay another 5 minutes — altogether it will take 10 minutes. Rinse, towel dry, then use in similar method with the neutralizer.

School Board seeking new committee; local prisoner of war is finally released

By Ed Capparucci
Thirty Years Ago

Members of the Board of Education were in the process of submitting nominations for membership on a new Lay Advisory Committee to board President Eugene J. Kelly, for consideration at a special meeting to be held later in the month.

Each board member was to submit a list of 10 names to Kelly, to create a pool of 50 applicants, which would be sifted down to form a committee of 25 members.

Meanwhile several School Board members conceded that the furor over the dismissal of the Lay Committee could have been averted by more tactful handling.

Classes for Belleville fire fighters were started by Captain Carl Hundertpfund in techniques for rescue work in the event of people being trapped in buildings due to bombings, floods, tornados or other disasters. The program would train the firemen as instructors for Civil Defense units, when and if they can be organized. Captain Hundertpfund was selected by Public Safety Director Harry J. Sullivan and Fire Chief William Dunleavy to attend a two-week course at the Civil Defense training center in Maryland last month for this specific purpose.

A Senate Small Business Committee meeting in Washington reopened an investigation to why the Hoyer Products Inc., of Belleville failed to get an Army contract although it was low bidder. The contract, from the Ordinance Tank Automotive Center, Detroit, went instead to the seventh lowest bidder.

Twenty Years Ago

A study by the Belleville High School guidance department indicated some 43 percent of the 280 member Class of 1962 would continue their education. Another 34 percent are attending four-year colleges, while 9 percent are in vocational schools. Office workers, trade and industrial work claimed some 46 percent of the graduating class. Twenty-one male graduates entered the armed forces and only 5 percent of the former students were out of school and unemployed.

Groundbreaking took place at the site of the new Peoples' Bank branch to be located at the corner of Joralemon Street and Franklin Avenue. The $175,000 construction will be called the Aitken Office, named after Thomas Aitken, chairman of the board of Peoples.

Ten Years Ago

Army staff Sergeant Martin Frank, a lifelong resident of Belleville was freed by the Viet Cong after five and a half years of captivity.

Frank was captured by the Viet Cong on July 12, 1967, one day before his birthday and about two months before his tour of duty in Vietnam was scheduled to expire.

He graduated Belleville High School in 1959 and entered the Army in April of 1966 about two years after he separated from his wife. After completing basic training at Fort Dix, he was sent to Fort Polk in Louisiana to learn jungle warfare.

It was five years, six months and 16 days before his parents knew he was even alive.

The Board of Education and the Board of Commissioners met in closed sessions to discuss possible cuts in the School Board budget. The Board of Education offered no cuts and defended its case to leave the $7.4 million package intact. The meeting was over shadowed by a difference of opinion between the two boards concerning the School Board's right to use appropriated funds from the 1972-73 budget to cover operating deficits from that budget.

One Year Ago

The Walter Kidde Company announced it would be phasing out its operation in Belleville and move it to a new plant purchased in Wilson, North Carolina. The move by Kidde will cost an estimated 400 employees their jobs and the township of Belleville tens-of-thousands in property taxes.

Company officials said it would affect the maintenance, production assembly, machine shop and clerical workers. The company also said it would maintain its professional headquarters, engineering and professional staff here in Belleville.

A company spokesman said the move was necessary due to the high manufacturing cost at the Main Street plant. However union leaders said the company threatened last October to move its operation out of Belleville if union members did not take cuts in salary and fringe benefits. At the time, the union leaders said the company was asking for a 35 percent cut in wages and benefits in order to keep the plant economically productive. Kidde is located in the Valley section of Belleville and has been there for 40 years. More than 1,000 persons are employed by the plant, including many from the Belleville-Nutley area.

School Board trustee Caesar Romano announced that he was "sitting out a year," and not entering the School Board election race, after serving on the board for 12 years.

Romano, who called the present Board of Education, "The worst Board I have ever served on in my 12 years," said he would sit back and re-evaluate the issue before deciding to run once again in 1983. "I got involved in the Board of Education because I saw a need," Romano said. "There was a time when people got involved in this community, but that is not the case any more."

ED-ITORIALIZING

Goodbye M*A*S*H

Now tell the truth. When you saw Hawkeye riding off into the sunset Monday night during the last segment of M*A*S*H, didn't you feel as though a little part of you had died? I know that I did.

I have been watching M*A*S*H since I was 14 years old. When you think about it, that is a long time.

Tax advice is available for seniors

Senior citizens who need help with their tax return forms can look for help at the Belleville Public Library.

The Internal Revenue Service has completed training over 1,300 community representatives throughout New Jersey who are available to provide free assistance to those needing help in preparing their federal income tax forms. The local library is just one of 300 sites throughout the state offering this program.

The Tax Counseling for the Elderly program, known as TCE and the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program, known as VITA, are community affairs programs in which the efforts of volunteers are enlisted to help low income, handicapped and elderly persons with their tax forms.

Although the major thrust of the VITA and TCE programs is to provide assistance to the low income, handicapped, and elderly the tax volunteers will assist any taxpayer with a relatively simple tax return, including the Form 1040-A and Form 1040 with Schedules A and B and other commonly used tax forms. The TCE program will be available at the library, located at 221 Washington Ave., on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to noon. Please call 751-0559 for an appointment.

The funny thing is that I am not a television person. M*A*S*H, 60 Minutes, the local news and sporting events are perhaps the only TV programs I follow. But over the years I became very accustomed to seeing the faces of Hawkeye, Margaret Houlihan, B.J. Hunnicut, Charles Winchester, Father Mulcahy, Cpl. Klinger and, of course, many of the original gang, Trapper John, Col. Blake, Radar and Maj. Burns.

Throughout the 11 years which M*A*S*H invaded our homes each week, the stories got better and the human interest developed a deeper and warmer touch, yet the laughs and humor remained. And it will remain with us for years and years to come.

As I sat and watched M*A*S*H on Monday, I turned to my wife (who had tears in her eyes) and told her I could not believe this was the end of a series and group of characters we had come to know and love throughout the years. I think everyone could relate in some way or another to one or more of the characters we have seen over the years in M*A*S*H. But thanks to reruns we will not have to forget our favorite television people forever. Think about it. Did you ever think the day would come when you were thankful for reruns?

And I thought it was going to be a boring and dull School Board race this year. Until Monday morning, there were only three candidates up for the three vacant seats. But with the filing of Ernie Zoppi, we now have four candidates, so it looks like it will be perhaps an exciting year in the Board of Education election.

I received two letters this week and both were unsigned, so they will not be published. One dealt with the township's snow removal and the other with the story we wrote about senior citizens and nursing care. If the persons who wrote the letters wish to see them in print, then they will have to call or write to me telling me their names. Once again, no unsigned letters will appear in The Belleville Times.

Strumolo, Pica enter petitions for upcoming commission race

A resident of Mt. Prospect Avenue, Pica won his present seat after serving nine years on the Board of Education.

"I love this town," said Pica this week declaring his intention to run again in May.

Naming his priority as "the health and welfare of all Belleville," Pica said he will devote particular attention if re-elected to the redevelopment of Washington Avenue.

"I believe in investing in our main avenue," he said favoring township funding of the Redevelopment Agency, a recently established organization operating without a budget.

Reviewing the accomplishments of his first term, the youngest commissioner said, "We've established a number of new programs in the police and fire departments and have improved morale among workers."

He also noted renovation of safety equipment as an important accomplishment during his tenure.

Patricia Lydon named St. Patrick parade queen

Patricia Lydon, a Nutley resident, has been selected deputy grand marshal of the township's fifth annual St. Patrick's Day parade on March 12.

Joining the ranks with Lydon, which organizers say will swell over 1,000, will be Michael Flannery, the 81-year-old grand marshal of New York's St. Patrick's Day parade.

Gov. Thomas Kean will view the proceedings from the reviewing stand at Nutley Savings and Loan while former Gov. Brendan Byrne, Congressman Joseph Minish and numerous other local, state and federal dignitaries step briskly down green-lined Franklin Avenue.

Lydon is a first generation American whose parents emigrated from County Mayo, Ireland. She has been with Public Service Electric and Gas Company for 32 years and is presently supervisor of the confidential payroll division, the first woman in the finance department to advance to that management position.

Lydon currently pens a column for the Irish Echo, a New York City based newspaper with the largest circulation of any Irish-American paper in the country. Earlier, she wrote a weekly column for the now defunct Shamrock tabloid.

A graduate of the College of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, Lydon has taken several trips to Ireland over the years and fondly recalls that she spent the entire summer of 1948 in the Emerald Isle.

original member of the Valley Association. He has also served on the township's Redevelopment Agency and is a member of the Optimist Club, the Italian American Association, The Michael Marotti Civic Association and the Mary V. Senator Civic Association.

"I have always been a person who gets involved," Zoppi said, "and anytime a person serves a public office it is hard to walk away. The itch is always there, and I am feeling the itch once again."

He will bring people up to date and answer questions about 1982 taxes, forms, and laws. The library will make available state and federal forms for that evening.

Due to inclement weather, the February meeting was cancelled. Items that were to be discussed at the February meeting will therefore be discussed on March 10. These items will include: anniversary of the Belleville Friends, card party fundraiser, fall bus trips, membership social, annual library art show, gift to the library from funds raised and upcoming programs and activities.

Essex County Tourney provided lots of action

If you're a fan of high school basketball and missed the championship games of the Essex County tourney for girls and boys, chances are, you missed some of the best basketball this area has offered in many years.

The 1983 Essex County Tournament provided the fans with some long lasting memories and first class play. For the record, Shabazz and Montclair repeated as county champs in the girls and boys finals, respectively. However, how they achieved their titles is quite a tribute to the respective programs and just goes to show that a champion doesn't give up its title without a supreme test.

Both clubs were toiling on the brink of disaster before coming through. First off, Shabazz and Clifford Scott started the festivities last Friday night at Seton Hall University. As usual, the Bulldogs had a large following, the fans were very vocal and certainly were the "sixth man" for the very talented Shabazz squad.

On the other side, enter Clifford Scott, who can't seem to sell out a phone booth. The Scotties were just as talented, but those fans certainly made their presence known, and for Shabazz it came just in the nick of time.

Here's the situation. Shabazz, the defending county champion, the defending sectional champion, the fourth ranked team in the state and a club with a 22-0 mark, were losing and losing big. The Scotties entered the fourth quarter with a 16-point lead, extended the margin to 18 points and then fell asleep.

Now, Clifford Scott is not a slouch by any means. This was their third straight trip to the county finals, they are the defending state champions in Group II and possess perhaps the best guard in the state in Countess Irvin. No matter what Anette Williams, the Shabazz coach says, Irvin is three classes and a half better than Bulldog guard Shopaine Horton will ever be.

In any event, Shabazz managed to cut an 18 point deficit in six minutes to an even ball game with seconds remaining. By this time, the Hall was rocking, you would have thought the University team had just stopped Georgetown, and it was clearly evident that Scott didn't have a chance. It was a shame, too, because the Scotties were so much the better team for 27 of the 32 minutes the game was played.

With 10 seconds left, Shabazz tallied the winning field goal and only a desperation basket by Irvin before the final horn sounded made the final score 64-62. The place went into pandemonium and Scott and his six fans went home a loser for the second straight year.

The following day, Seton Hall Prep and Montclair battled for the boys' title. The teams were evenly matched from the tip off. Seton Hall had the experience factor in its favor, while Montclair might have had the slight height advantage.

However, what the Mounties possessed most was that intangible, the desire to win. Last year, as a veteran club, Bob Lester's team roared to the finals, whipping Shabazz 75-46 for the title.

This time around, without the names like Curtis Ritchwood and Darrell Giles, the Mounties had to use savy, excellent coaching and a few breaks to earn the title. Believe me, both teams wanted this game in the worst way.

The Hall jumped out quickly, Montclair with Dwayne Jones and Robbie Osborne, came back to even the score in the third quarter and then Montclair took control of the game. The Mounties boosted their lead to eight points in the fourth quarter and the Pony Pirates big man, Stanley Woods had just fouled out.

Enter Tom Ard, a 6-foot senior who made believers out of everyone in the crowd, Bob Lester included. Ard brought his team back from a 56-48 deficit late in the contest to a 56-all tie and overtime.

It appeared the Pirates, who by the way were playing on their home court, had the game won in overtime number one. With four seconds remaining, Seton Hall led, 60-58. Enter Mr. Osborne, Montclair's sharp shooting guard for a one in one. With the Pirate fans cheering and the place still rocking from the Shabazz-Clifford Scott game the night before, Osborne sunk both shots and the game went into the second OT.

It was there that Montclair decided to put things to rest. Behind the play of Jones and Osborne, whom Lester calls the two best guards in the state, Montclair pulled away in the waning seconds and came away a 62-60 winner before an emotionally drained crowd.

The final scene, with Lester and Seton Hall coach Bob Farrell hugging each other at center court, told it all. Both teams were winners as were Clifford Scott and Shabazz, but only one could come away the ultimate victor.

To Shabazz and Montclair, congratulations on your second straight Essex County championships. Certainly it was much tougher this time than last year, and can you imagine what a chore it will be for these two to win it again in 1984.

The "B.T. Top 10" for this week has changed a bit. With UNLV losing twice, we have a new number one ranked team. The rankings for this week are: Louisville, UCLA, Kentucky, Houston, North Carolina, Virginia, UNLV, Missouri, Memphis State and St. John's.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week goes to Phil Colalillo and Jennifer Apicella. Need I say why?

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, which team did Apicella score her 1,000th point against and how did she do it? The answer: Jennifer scored point number 1,000 against Nutley as Belleville won, 60-44. She scored the magic point on two free throws.

For this week's quiz, who won the 1978 Essex County tourney, and who did that team beat in the finals.

Finally, the Belleville High School athlete of the month will be profiled next week and we'll look at the freshman wrestling team.

11 Wrestlers Finish Third or Better

Third consecutive district title belongs to Grapplers

By Dino Ibelli

For the third consecutive year Belleville took the District VII crown single-handedly. Belleville had 11 wrestlers in the tournament, with all taking at least a third or better. Belleville ended up with 136.5 beating Bloomfield who had 98.

Other schools involved were: St. Benedict's Prep, 87; Kearny, 82.5; Glen Ridge, 63.5; Essex Catholic, 38; Nutley, 35; Montclair Immaculate, 2; Newark Eastside, Harrison, 0.

At 101 pounds, Dom Cerreto picked up a district championship by pinning Joe DePiro of Essex Catholic and in the finals, decisioning Monica Nadela of St. Benedict's 15-1. Cerreto is now 20-2 and headed for the Regions for his second go round. Cerreto should do well but he must look out for John Sabback of West Essex.

At 108 pounds, Belleville forfeited. At 115 pounds, Mike Giuffrida beat Fred Pita of Kearny 6-2 and lost a tough one to Lee Balpardo of Nutley 8-3. Giuffrida is making his second trip to the Regions with an impressive 13-7 mark.

A little bit of a disappointment at 122 pounds. Anthony Stefanelli took a third losing to Fred Semaio 2-0 in the semi-finals in overtime. This is Stefanelli's second medal. He took the District VII crown his sophomore year and also a third in the Region. He ends his season with a 14-6 record.

Ricky De Prizio lost his District VII crown by losing to Joe Matarazzo of Bloomfield 3-2. In the semis, Ricky settled for a third by beating Rob Re of Essex Catholic 6-4. Ricky ends his season with a fine mark of 13-5.

At 135 pounds, quite possibly the biggest upset came. Ron Caruso, who many thought would be on his way to the Regions, got beat 6-4 by Steve O'Neill of Bloomfield. Caruso then took a third by beating Jason Scarpone of St. Benedict's 12-2. He may still be going to the Regions. In the finals, Bob Critides of Glen Ridge was hurt pretty bad, so Caruso may have a revenge match against O'Neill. If not, Caruso had a spectacular year at 16-4.

A grudge match occurred at 141 pounds. Al Henry of Belleville took his second silver medal at District VII. Henry decisioned Tim Snellen of Glen Ridge 6-4 but lost to Essex County champ Mike Gianetta by a 7-4 score. He will be making his second trip to the Regions and should

Girls place fourth in county tourney

By Mike Lamberti

It was an exhausting week of action for the Belleville girls' basketball team, one in which the hoopsters placed a rather disappointing fourth in the Essex County Tournament.

The girls will battle the winner of the Columbia-Elizabeth game in the first round of the Group IV, Section II playoffs this afternoon. The game will be played at BHS and is slated for a 4 p.m. tip off. At press time, Elizabeth was the favorite to advance against Belleville.

Last week, the team stopped conference rivals Kennedy and Nutley, and in between bowed to powerhouse Shabazz, 62-48 and Irvington, 55-42 in the consolation game. For the season, Belleville is 19-6, the team already assured of its best season in program's history.

The week started with a Monday morning battle in Kennedy High School. The girls were noticeably sluggish, probably thinking ahead to the big game with Shabazz the following Wednesday.

In any event, Belleville trailed the hosts, 12-11 after one quarter and rallied to capture the lead, 22-18 at halftime. The two teams played an even third quarter before Belleville pulled away in the final frame for a 13-point victory, 55-42.

Jennifer Apicella, who would

Bellboys take part in state playoffs; Colalillo breaks 1,000 point mark

Junior forward Phil Colalillo became the first boy in BHS history to break the 1,000-point mark in his junior year, as Belleville whipped St. Cecilia, 76-32 last week.

The Buccaneers battled arch rival Nutley last Monday and traveled to Clinton Place School in Newark on Tuesday for the first round of the Group IV, Section II playoffs with Weequahic High School. If the Bucs win that contest, they will travel to Plainfield for the next round. Should the boys lose to Weequahic, then their 1982-83 season will be history.

In addition to Colalillo's heroics, the Bucs were stopped by conference rivals Paterson Kennedy, 91-45 and to Bloomfield, 64-53. For the season, Belleville is 10-14, 4-11 in the NNJIL.

Applications available for Rec sports activities

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced that applications for all recreation baseball and softball leagues for Belleville children ages 8 through 15 are now available in each public and parochial school, as well as at the Recreation House.

Children who are 8 years old before August 1, 1983 and who will not be 13 before July 31, 1983 are eligible for organized baseball in either the Peanut, Junior or Little Leagues.

Those children wishing to try out for Little League must completely fill out their applications and return them to their schools by March 4, 1983. Those preferring to play in either the Peanut or Junior Leagues must completely fill out their applications and return them in person at 407 Joralemon St. before March 18, 1983 with their birth certificates.

Applications for girls' softball and senior/intermediate baseball are also available. Girls 8 years old on August 1, 1983 and whose 10th birthday falls after July 31, 1983 are eligible for Pee Wee League softball; girls 10 years old on August 1, 1983 and whose 13th birthday falls after

The big story of the week was Phil Colalillo. Against St. Cecilia's, Colalillo scored 30 points, breaking the 1,000-point barrier. He becomes the first player in boys' history to crack the mark in his junior year and all indications are that Colalillo will break Abdel Anderson's record 1,398 points by the end of next season.

The Bucs had a field day against the Saints, scoring 50 unanswered points in the first half. After St. Cecilia scored the games first two points, Belleville scored 50 straight before the Saints answered with a field goal before halftime. Colalillo scored the magic points in the second quarter and with Belleville ahead, 50-4 at halftime, head coach Joe Papisidero's only problem was which players to use in the second half.

All tolled, Belleville used 14 players in the game, and all 14 scored at least a field goal. Colalillo was high scorer with 30 points while John Healy finished with 11.

Earlier in the week, the Bucs lost to powerful Paterson Kennedy, 91-45 at BHS. "They have to be the most improved team in the league," said Papisidero of Kennedy. "They are good and should be tough in the state sectionals."

Kennedy led, 16-9 after one quarter and 45-19 at halftime. The third quarter was a total wipeout for the Buccaneers and the fourth quarter was a jayvee contest.

Senior Dave Grant played his best game of the season, hitting for 15 points and pulling down 16 rebounds. Colalillo scored 14 and Steve Kimble finished with four points.

Finally, the Bucs took it on the chin at Bloomfield, 64-53. "That was a good game," said Papisidero. "We jumped out to a lead, fell apart in the second quarter, but then came back strong in the second half. It's real tough to play them on their home court and to be down by 13 at halftime, it made things even tougher."

The Bucs led, 17-16 after one, but trailed, 37-24 at halftime. The Bucs cut the gap to 48-41 after three quarters and came within four points in the final frame. The Bengals then regrouped, hit some crucial free throws and Belleville lost a tough game.

Colalillo scored 24 points, although he played a sub-par game. Healy finished the game with 15 points and Grant had a fine evening on the defensive end.

"Our season is winding down," said Papisidero. "We have to work hard these two games and finish on a high note. The kids have done a nice job this year and we'd like to finish with a flurry."

NET NOTES: Bucs split their two NNJIL games with Bloomfield this year. All tolled, the Bucs were 2-1 against the Bengals, having downed Bloomfield in the Nutley Holiday Tournament. Bucs defeated Nutley earlier in the season at Nutley. Colalillo is averaging 23 points a game.

Junior Varsity bowlers capture first in NNJIL

The Belleville junior varsity bowling team finished the regular season with first place in the NNJIL.

By wrapping up the conference crown, the Bucs swept by Clifton, 7-0. Leading the team to victory was junior Laurie Scott, who came through with a 183. Scott then came back to pace the Bucs to victory in the second and third matches, bowling counts of 166 and 184 respectively.

The team's next conference victory was a sweep versus Kennedy. In this match, Scott was the story again, pacing her team to a 139-pin victory in the first match. Sophomore Lou Saccheiro tallied a 170 in the second game to lead Belleville to a 643-540.

Anthony Paserchia was the key when Belleville downed Eastside, 7-0. Paserchia was the top bowler as Belleville breezed to an 82-pin victory in match one. In the second match, Nick Weegar tallied a 188 and Belleville won, 676-469. Sam Danchack was the leader in the third and decisive match as Belleville won again, 605-443.

The following day, Belleville broke the 100 victory mark for the season as the Bucs ripped Nutley. In this match, Paserchia and Weegar were the heroes. In game one, Paserchia tallied a 199 and Belleville won by 64 pins. In game two, Paserchia and Weegar tallied 188 and 184, respectively as Belleville won by 18 pins. Nutley came out winners in the third match.

For the season, Belleville's jayved team finished with an incredible 104-15 record.

Atlantic City, N.J., Tropicana Hotel-Casino, Tuesday: Heavyweight Marvis Frazier of Philadelphia, WTKO at 2:33 of 5th rd. over out-of-shape Amos Haynes of Youngstown, Ohio, when referee halted the fight with the unconditioned, dazed Haynes hanging onto the ropes. The 28-year-old Ohio fighter started to breath through the mouth as early as the 2nd round. Frazier's climb through the ropes was his first since Sept. 16, 1981, when he knocked out Newark's Guy Casale in the 4th round at Las Vegas. To Frazier's credit, he did look sharp, had nice moves and could have easily beat heavyweight's of better calibre.

Las Vegas, Nev. The Showboat, Monday: Junior lightweight Freddie Roach, native of Dedham, Mass. fighting out of Phoenix, Ariz. WKO in 9th rd. over Bobby Pappion of Forth Worth, Texas; Light heavyweight Chris Schenke of Salt Lake City, Utah, WKO in 5th rd. over Grover Robinson of Fort Worth, Texas.

Middleweight Jose Cruz of Jersey City will battle at Hazlet, N.J. on March 11 in a six-rounder against Tyrone Denby of Atlantic City. Larry Schyrock of Paterson, N.J. will take on Tyrone Denby of Atlantic City. Larry Schyrock of Paterson, N.J. will take on Ronnie Jefferson of Middletown, N.J. in a 4-round middleweight matchup. Cruz and Schyrock are managed by Al Moore. Originally this boxing show was scheduled for Feb. 25.

Several members of the Diamond Gloves Alumni met Monday, Feb. 7, at the Lou Costello Gymnasium in Paterson, to formulate plans for the 50-year (1933-1983) reunion dinner in August. Present were, Sam and Al Capone, John Gentile, Kenny Malone, Ronnie Burns, and Johnny Vegas. Bernie Taylor conducted the session.

Denmark-based Ugandan Ayub Kalule said he is retired. The former WBA junior middleweight titlist was kayoed in 7-rounds by Mike Mc Callum of New York in Atlantic City. Kalule, a southpaw, leaves a mark of 40-3 with 19 knockouts.

The New York Athletic Commission is not helpful for boxing or in building good relations with those concerned in the promotion of boxing. A recent example was demonstrated when lightweight John McQueen of Philadelphia, scheduled to fight Louie Hubela of Brooklyn, demanded (shakedown) double the amount of his previously agreed purse, Lenny Shaw of Shaw's Galaxie Promotions and his promoter Ms. Pat Loudermilk considered McQueen's demand out of order and refused to pay the added sum. Shaw and Loudermilk wanted to replace McQueen-Hubela bout with another main event, the commissioner refused the replacement. The entire show had to be canceled causing disappointment to the fans. Not disheartened, Lenny Shaw will try again March 5. The New York Athletic Commission did suspend McQueen and requested the Pennsylvania body to do the same. Sy Roseman is public relations person for Galaxie Promotions.

The best junior olympic boxers from the Northeast Region I will converge on the Dennis M. Lynch Arena, Pawtucket, Rhode Island. The Northeast Region one championship will bring together the winners from tournaments held in New Jersey, Metropolitan New York, Connecticut, Adirondack, Niagara and Maine. The tournament will be a four-day event, beginning May 27 through Memorial Day, May 30. Over 210 of the U.S.A.s. outstanding amateur boxers are expected to compete. This will be the last advancing step to the USA/ABF Junior Olympic National championships to be held at the Olympic Training Center, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Sailor Don Sauer, former U.S. Navy welterweight champion, writes an interesting column about boxing for several magazines. Don is now located at 71 Main Street, Kingston, Mass. 02360.

Last month Joe Verne Boxing Promotions introduced Joey Giardello, Jr., to the boxing world. On Thursday Feb. 24, another special event — the merging of the Verne and Joe Frazier boxing families. On the card to be presented at the Golden Eagle Arena in Philadelphia, Marvis Frazier a heavyweight and Hector, fighting as Joe Frazier, Jr. as a junior welterweight, are brothers. Rodney, heavyweight, a nephew to Joe Sr. plus junior lightweight Joey Giardello, Jr. Opponent will be named later, the main event will be an 8-round junior welterweight scrap between Robert Adams of Philadelphia and George Burton of Baltimore, Md. Sy Roseman is handling the public relation chore for the new combo.

Marvelous Marvin Hagler of Brockton, Mass. holder of the WBA and WBC middleweight belts, after disposing of an unqualified challenger Tony Sibson of England was scheduled to square-off with WBA top-ranked Frank Fletcher of Philadelphia on May 20 (Wilford Scypion of New York via Fort Worth, Texas, defeated Fletcher by a unanimous 12-round decision and should be given the chance to tackle Hagler). Hagler is scheduled to follow (in July) with a "mandatory" defense against WBA's No. 1 contender Juan Domingo Roldan of Argentina. Roldan blasted out a soft touch in the 8th round, Wilber Henderson of Hartford, Conn. in the undercard. Roldan is a wild-swinging, unskilled journeyman. One wonders on what basis he rates to be a number-one challenger?

Felix Malave of Paterson, N.J. will desert the amateur boxing ranks, after compiling an impressive record, for the professional wars. The junior welterweight has signed a contract to be co-managed by Al Moore and John Taylor. Malave is seriously training at the Lou Costello gym looks forward to having his first pro battle soon.

Blackwood, N.J. High School, Saturday: ESPN middleweight champ Andre "Sugarman" Cooper of Blackwood remained undefeated (14-0) by scoring a kayo at 1:50 of 8th rd. over Anthony Crudup, 9-3 of Washington, D.C. Lightweight Dennis Cruz 14-1, of Bronx, N.Y. WKO in 5th rd. over Jo Jo Virgil, 10-9-1, of Savannah Ga; Heavyweight Donald Clifton of Blackwood, made a successful pro debut by kayoing George Lanton, 1-3, of Haverstraw NY, at 2:58 of 1st rd. over John Mc Lain, 3-1-1, of White Plains, N.Y.; Junior middleweight Charlie Boston, 4-0, of Trenton, N.J. WKO at 1:48 of 2nd rd. over Robert Alvarado, 2-1, of Vineland, N.J.; Welterweight Daryl Mitchell of New York W.Doe. in 4rds. over Gil Mc Coy of Mount Vernon, N.Y. and middleweight Bobby Thompson of Mount Vernon WKO in 3rd. over Elroy Mills of Washington, D.C. Momentum Enterprises handled the promotion.

Undefeated junior middleweight Brian Porreca of Medford, Mass. continued on his winning course as he racked up another victory with a third-round TKO over Ray Rivera of Lowell, Mass. Dr. Bloomenthal recommended that referee Walter Byars stop the fight after examining Rivera's cut and bruised face. The bout was fought at Freeport Hall, Dorchester, Mass. Jimmy Farrell promoted.

Sully Emmett had trained many a good fighter around the gyms in the New England States. Emmett is now located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. "The warm weather is agreeable to me. I am back in business of training fighters and have quite a few under my wing," he writes. Sully is about 80-years-old and still climbs in and out of the ring unassisted. A little slower, but he makes it.

later in the week make history, tallied 36 points, hitting 16 of 19 from the foul line. Dina De Aquino tallied eight points, Marlene Talmadge scored a field goal, Kathy Woods was four of four from the foul line, Loreli Wells scored three points and Donna Brooks finished with a field goal.

The next game was the battle with Shabazz High School in the semi-final round of the Essex County Tournament. The contest was played at Belleville High and if you arrived at the contest after the opening tip off, chances are good you couldn't find a seat. It was the largest crowd in BHS memory and the fans were treated to an exciting first half.

The Lady Bucs jumped out to a 16-12 first quarter lead, but Shabazz regrouped and took a 32-24 lead into intermission. While the fans rooted their favorite team on, many in attendance were counting Apicella's points. Entering the contest, the junior needed just 19 to hit the magic 2,000 point plateau.

Apicella had 14 points at halftime and it took just three minutes of the second half before she hit the big point. A driving layup at the 6:25 mark of the third frame brought the house down as Jennifer became only the 10th player in state history and the second in county history to crack the mark. Ironically, she wasn't aware that the layup broke the mark. The place was so noisy that the game wasn't stopped for another 20 seconds.

Following her score, Shabazz came roaring down and hit a layup before the referee could stop the contest.

While the Belleville fans celebrated the milestone, their team was slowly but surely losing control of the game. The mighty Bulldogs, ranked fourth in the state and undefeated for the season, were quietly pulling away. At the end of the third quarter, it was 44-35 and by the midway point of the final frame, the visitors were in command by a dozen.

The final count read 62-48 with Bulldog center Lisa Long leading all scorers with 30 points. Apicella finished the game with 27 and was followed by De Aquino's 13.

Two days later, the team traveled to Seton Hall for the consolation game and were blown away, 55-42 by the Irvington Campers. Belleville came out flat from the start and were really never in the game. The Camper defense double-teamed Apicella throughout the contest and the Belleville offense sputtered noticeably. Apicella did finish with 26 points and De Aquino tallied 10, but it was hardly enough.

Finally, the girls got back on the winning note by stomping by arch rival Nutley, 56-48 last Sunday afternoon. In this contest, Belleville coasted to a 30-12 halftime lead, then held their breaths as Nutley cut the gap to 47-46 late in the game. Some heroics by Apicella and Donna Brooks kept Belleville in front down the stretch and the Bucs won the game going away.

Apicella finished the draining week with a fine 30-point effort, 14 of those coming in the final quarter. De Aquino tallied 15 points and Brooks closed with three. Four Bucaneer players tallied two points.

NET NOTES: Apicella is averaging 33.1 points a game. She has tallied 828 points for the year and has 2,064 for her career. The junior is also tops at the free throw line, hitting at a 78 percent clip. The 25 games Belleville has played thus far represents an all-time high for a single season. The most the team ever played before was 22. De Aquino has 303 points for the season, an average of 12.1 a game. Woods is second at the free throw line, hitting at 77 percent. Belleville is shooting 66 percent from the line as a team. The team averages 58.5 points a game. Belleville played Elizabeth in the first round of the state tourney last year, winning by 11 at Bloomfield High School. The girls then lost in the second round to Irvington, 46-42. Last year's team was 17-6, the best mark in program's history until now.

Belleville finished 12-3 in the N.J. JHL, their second game with Bloomfield having been cancelled because of a conflict in the schedule.

Belleville Americans lose tough 3-2 contest

At the Cougar-Adidas invitational the Belleville Americans, sponsored by DeBacco Bros. Sporting Goods, played their final game of indoor soccer against the Union kicks, and came away with a seasonal tough 3-2 loss. At half time Union was leading 2-0 even though Belleville played strong and dominated the first half.

The second half started with BSA ready to play. Early on, John Scorchiola passed off the side boards and Ronnie DePiro sent a strong shot home for a 2-1 score. Not much later it was reversed with Ronnie DePiro passing to John Scorchiola who scored on a picture perfect shot from way out to knot the score 2-2.

The score stayed tied until five minutes remaining when Union scored the go ahead goal. Belleville pulled the goalie with two minutes left but to no avail. Strong play again by Scorchiola, DePiro, Steve Tice, Anthony Zarillo, Fabiano DeFabrizio will give the Americans something to look forward to in the outdoor spring season which starts in three weeks.

At Bergenfield the Belleville Kings turned away Teaneck 10-0 on fantastic goal tending by Jack Conde who stopped numerous shots for the shutout.

Belleville has dominated this tournament and has gone undefeated to the point. Mike Peloso and Oscar Valeira supplied the assist and scoring feeds to the tournament scoring leader Alex Araya who added five goals to his total.

Grapplers capture title for third consecutive year be making some noise with his 14-6 mark.

At 148 pounds, junior Jim Meyler won the District VII crown whipping Carl Quick of St. Benedict's 11-0. Meyler will take his 14-6 record to the Regions. Meyler must be careful of Pat Smith from Seton Hall and Guy Russo, the returning state champ.

The upset or disappointment of the tournament for Belleville took place at 158 pounds. Ron Charles lost a heartbreaker to Rich Araujo of Glen Ridge 3-2. Ron picked up a third by beating Paul Geiger of Kearny 9-6. Ron has ended his fine senior year at 16-4.

At 170 pounds, C.C. Giuliano lost a very tough match to Sonny Arena of Kearny 2-1 in overtime. Giuliano picked up a third by beating Paul Vinges of Glen Ridge by a 2-1 margin. C.C. had an 11-2 mark and started halfway through the season. C.C. will be missed.

At 188 pounds, a great, but disgusting match occurred. Mike Gibbons beat Scott Pyper of Kearny 10-9 for the District VII title. Gibbons had no problem getting to the finals. Now the disgusting part. Pyper took his match off the mat into the stands. It was truly unsportsmanlike. To make matters worse after losing he starts banging his head against the bleachers. If he hit it right he would probably be watching the Regions instead of participating. Gibbons at 16-4-1 should do well in the Regions.

At Heavyweight, Mike Murphy picked up the District VII crown by defeating Dave Waechter of Kearny 5-4. Murphy also got revenge against Angelo Zevna of Bloomfield pinning him at the 5:24 mark in the semis. Murphy will be taking his 6-2 mark to the Regions this weekend at Pasaic Valley.

Overall Coach D'Alessandro will be sending six wrestlers to the Regions.

Town Fathers to appeal garbage contract order

because the original bid submitted by the firm last Dec. 14 failed to include the required affidavit of non-collusion and financial statement according to Cozzarelli's interpretation of the court opinion.

The matter was brought to court by Belleville's former scavenger L. Pucillo & Sons, the only other firm bidding for the new trash contract last December.

Pucillo, who had served Belleville over 20 years, filed a complaint charging there were irregularities in both the bid submitted by BFI and the specification and advertising procedure of the township.

Representing the township at a Feb. 8 hearing, Cozzarelli argued the missing documents were supplied by BFI on Dec. 17, well in advance of the Commissioners' Dec. 28 decision to award the contract to BFI.

"We felt no advantage was given to either side so Pucillo's complaints were not material," Cozzarelli had said.

Although the judge dismissed several other points in the complaints advanced by Pucillo's attorney, Mark Larner of Newark, he voided the contract and ordered Belleville to receive new bids by April 1 and have a new contract in place by May 1.

However, in appealing, Belleville hopes to retain the contract which offers the township substantial savings for trash collection.

In the interim, BFI will perform scavenger services and be reimbursed at the same rate on a per diem basis.

Expressing his opinion, Mayor Michael Marotti said he thought an appeal would give the township a fighting chance to save dollars. "If we rebid this, we don't know if BFI or anyone with as good a price will compete," he said.

At a recent township meeting, activist citizens urged Commissioners to appeal because they felt certain Pucillo might be the only bidder if the field is reopened and if uncontested, the contract prices would soar.

Despite the savings apparent in the BFI contract, Commissioner Strumolo and his colleague Mary Senatore had favored in the December voting a one-year trial period for the new Fairfield-based firm and opposed the resolution to award a five-year contract at the outset.

Belleville's past Stagecoaches

But the clatter of stagecoaches was by no means silenced in Belleville's streets. Several stage lines following the Newark-Paterson pike continued to provide the inhabitants of Belleville's main section with transportation the north and south.

One of them was distinguished by carrying the United States mail and its owner could proudly announce this important fact in Newark Daily Advertiser:

Newark and Paterson Stage
New Arrangement
Commencing January 1st, 1840
U.S. Mail Line

A coach will leave N. Brewer's Franklin House, Paterson, at 8 o'clock A.M. Leave Newark, Stewart's Hotel at 2 o'clock, P.M.

The above coach will pass through Belleville and Acquackanonk every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. All bundles and packages attended to with care and dispatch.

P. Fine, Agent and Driver

All baggage at the risk of the owner thereof.

Transportation to Bloomfield "and points west" was provided via the Belleville Turnpike. The Newark-Pompton Turnpike (Bloomfield Avenue) also served the residents of the Sun Fish Pond (Silver Lake) district of Belleville. They had but to walk across the fields to meet the Newark-Bloomfield stagecoach as it came bowling along the road that then cut across the southwest corner of Belleville.

There, in the vicinity of the old toll house that some old-timers may still remember, a regular stage stop was provided at Baxter's Hotel. Just about the time that Belleville was getting ready to strike out on its own, the famous old stage line changed hands. Under a woodcut depicting a fine coach drawn by four racing horses with the curls of a long whip over them, the public was informed by "George W. Sharp, Prop. and John A. Sharp, Agent and driver," that, "commencing Monday, November 26," the Bloomfield-Newark stage would leave Munn's Hotel at West Bloomfield "at 6:30 a.m., and Baxter's Hotel, East Bloomfield, at 7 o'clock A.M." The new owners also pointed with pride to the fact that "passengers by this line will arrive in Newark in season to take the steamboat to New York in the morning."

There also existed several direct stage lines from Belleville to Newark, serving mostly as "feeders" for the Newark-Jersey City railroad. Although supposedly meeting a pressing demand, these Belleville-Newark stages had frequent financial difficulties and changed hands often. One of the best known of the later stage owners was "Jimmy" Riddle, whom a few old residents of Belleville still recall. According to William Knapp, Belleville tax collector, "the only conveyance between Belleville and Newark in those days was Jimmy Riddle's stage. He did not only carry passengers, but also the mails." Jimmy's stage ran on a "pretty regular" schedule, and was started off and heralded upon arrival by a bugle fanfare.

Recreation wrestlers placed 4th in tourney

The Belleville Recreation Wrestling team participated in the Essex County Junior Wrestling League's annual wrestling tournament. The 10-team day long event was held at Millburn High School.

Taking the top team honor was Glen Ridge with 119 points, followed by West Essex with 118.5 points, Caldwell with 118 points and Belleville with 109 points.

For his great wrestling performance, Joe Perna of Belleville, 60 pounds, was awarded the Outstanding Wrestler Award for the tournament. On his way to winning the championship and trophy, Perna, seeded fourth with a 4-0-1 record, pinned Bloomfield's Murphy in 28 seconds, pinned first seeded Fiore of Caldwell in 2:04 and major decisioned Millburn's Kleinstein 12-5.

The first place winners of the tournament will travel to Roselle Park on March 3 to participate in an all-star match with the champions from Union County.

Coaches Joe Nisivoccia and Lou Riccardi were very proud of the fine performances from each of their wrestlers.

"Our recreation wrestlers have improved a great deal since the start of the season," said Nisivoccia. "Many have skillfully developed their ability to work pinning combinations along with developing success on takedowns."

"The success and development of the Belleville Recreation wrestling team can clearly be seen in this year's win-loss record, the high place finishes in the very competitive tournaments and in the fact that a first-year Belleville wrestler was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler of the League Tournament," he continued.

Also winning a championship for Belleville was Armando Nardone, at 112 pounds, with a pin in 51 seconds, followed by a 3-1 and 2-0 decision.

Placing second, were 80-pounder

John Stampone, with a pin at 57 seconds and a 4-0 decision after being stopped with a 3-0 defeat; Mike Kraus, 85 pounds, registered a pin at 2:14 and a major decision of 12-1 before being stopped with a 4-0 defeat; and Heavyweight Stanley Babula recorded a pin at 2:23 and 2:05 before being stopped with a 29 second defeat. Third place finishes went to Joe Cerreto, 75 pounds, Phil Zamloot, 95 pounds and Al Best, 135 pounds.

The squad, in its last meet of the season, defeated the Pequannock recreation wrestling team 52-31. Registering the only pin for Belleville was 90-pounder Mike Iuliano, who flattened Jim Swierkoici in 3:30. Coach Nisivoccia was very pleased with Mike's wrestling performance.

The wrestling squad took third place honors in the Kearny International Wrestling Tournament earlier this month. Taking first place individual honors were Joe Perna, 60 pounds; Mike Kraus, 85 pounds; Mike Iuliano, 90 pounds; Armando Nardone, 112 pounds and Al Best, 135 pounds.

Second place honors went to 80-pounder John Stampone.

Coaches needed for softball

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking coaches for its Girls' Softball Leagues. Women or men interested in coaching a team in the PeeWee League for ages 8-9, Pigtail League for ages 10-12, or in the Junior Girls' League for ages 13-15 are urged to contact the Recreation Department at 759-3121 as soon as possible.

Sportsmanship, basic skills and fun are the objectives of the leagues. Every player on each team who attends required practices will play in every game. Share your interest and knowledge with the youngsters in town.

CMHS Hotline

Dear Community Mental Health Services:

I've been having trouble with my 15-year-old son who won't respect his curfew of 10 p.m. I've grounded him and taken away various privileges. He was doing fine for a while and has recently come home late again. I told him that the next time he was more than 15 minutes late, I would lock him out of the house. Am I too strict?

Firm and concerned

Dear Firm and concerned:

Setting limits on your children's behavior is one of the most difficult and important tasks of parenthood. Without knowing more details about your family, it sounds as if you are trying to manage problem behavior appropriately. Be sure that you follow-through with contingencies, or your children will take advantage of you. To speed up the process of getting your son to mind curfew, you might offer, as a reward, one night of later curfew for every 10 nights he arrives home by curfew.

Netters hold slim lead in Rec volleyball action

Exciting is the word to describe the action in the Women's Volleyball League this week. All the teams played aggressively, especially the Set-Ups, who received fine play from Cindy Corris, to upset the previously unbeaten Netters 15-8, 8-15, 15-6. Mary Jane Ruffino made some great plays but the Netters couldn't overcome the Set-Ups. The other "A" Division match was the Fragiles versus the Jammers. The Jammers, who were paced by JoAnne Touw, were able to come from behind to post a 3-15, 15-11, 15-1 victory. The Fragiles got some fine plays from Wendy McArdle.

In the "B" Division, the Misfits received a "bye" while the Shooting Stars were battling it out with DeBacco. Donna Iacobelli had a great night for DeBacco but it wasn't enough as the Shooting Stars, led by Kim Forlenza, came from behind to tally the win 14-16, 15-6, 15-11.

With just two weeks left before the playoffs the standings are as follows:

"A" Division
Netters	6-1
Jammers	4-3
Set-Ups	3-4
Fragiles	1-6
"B" Division
Shooting Stars	6-1
DeBacco	4-3
Misfits	3-4

Local runners prepare for Cherry Blossom run

With the cold bite of winter upon us, runners of all ages look forward to the first warm winds of spring which allow a frostfree jog around the park. The 1983 Cherry Blossom Run, a 10 kilometer race through Branch Brook Park on April 17, is expected to be a spectacular competition under the first budding cherry blossoms of spring. Of the 725 registered runners in last year's race, 22 were from Belleville.

William C. Scalzo, director of the Essex County Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs, expects that number to double. "Due to response to the preliminary distribution of applications, I expect the number of runners to increase significantly this year," he said. Proceeds from the fourth consecutive Cherry Blossom Run will continue to pay for the maintenance and replacement of cherry blossom trees in Branch Brook Park, which is the oldest county park in the nation and is listed on both the National and State Registers of Historic Places.

Branch Brook Park's cherry blossom display includes 2,500 trees and

Sen. Bradley seeks funding from Senate for improving school educational programs

Sen. Bill Bradley urged the Senate to provide up to $400 million a year for schools at all levels to use in a drive to improve and increase teaching of math, science, computer skills, foreign languages and vocational education.

Bradley made the remarks as he joined a group of senators from both parties in co-sponsoring proposed legislation that would authorize the funding. The measure is called the

"Education for Economic Security Act."

"Our economic security depends upon the education of our people," Bradley said. "In order to compete internationally, the American work force must be second to none. But, in many fields our edge is slipping and our educational institutions simply can't keep up with the rapid pace of technological change. It is imperative that our schools and colleges more effectively train students for the new job demands of the 1980s. We need to strengthen our present instructional programs and improve teacher training and retraining programs to fill the gaps."

Under the legislation, more than 40 percent of money spent would have to go to elementary and secondary schools and be specifically earmarked for development of instructional programs, foreign language teaching, and acquisition of equipment. At least another 20 percent of the total funding would be spent for development of vocational education programs in new and emerging technologies. And all remaining money would be provided for institutions of higher education, primarily for training of new teachers and retraining of teachers currently working in other disciplines.

The aid would be allocated to individual states through a formula tied to their school-age population, and Bradley pointed out that state and school officials would have "broad discretion" in spending decisions so that they can "tailor programs to local needs."

To illustrate the need for the legislation, Bradley noted that:

- Nearly one-half of the high school math teaching posts in the country are now vacant or filled by people with either temporary or no certification.

- There has been a sharp drop in the number of secondary school math and science teachers being trained.
- Only one-third of all high schools offer more than one year of math or science instruction.

- At least half of all high school students now take no math beyond algebra and no more than one year of science.

- The average score for students taking scholastic aptitude tests in math fell from 502 in 1963 to 466 in 1980.

- Over the past 15 years, there has been a 40 percent decline in high school credits awarded for foreign language study.

- Recent studies show that only one-sixth of U.S. college graduates "majored" in math, science or engineering — compared with more than 25 percent in Japan, more than 33 percent in West Germany and over 50 percent in the Soviet Union.

"I know some people doubt that we can afford a new multi-million dollar education program in these times of fiscal austerity," Bradley said. "In my opinion, however, the real question is whether we can afford to forego this kind of legislation and still address the many challenges confronting us. And I believe the answer to this question is clear. The facts speak for themselves."

Kelly introduces bills to aid municipalities

Assemblyman John V. Kelly (R-Essex) has introduced two bills that will provide payment in lieu of taxes to municipalities by the counties and the state. The bills are similar, except that one pertains to state-owned properties, and the other to county-owned properties.

Under the terms of these bills the state and county would make a contribution to each municipality in lieu of taxes, where the state or the county owns substantial parcels of tax-exempt land. The amount of money to be contributed to the municipalities would be determined by an equitable formula, included in the bills.

Kelly said he sees a real need for the passage of these bills. Many municipalities feel the effect of having state and county property within their boundaries. These properties occupy land space which could be used for tax ratable property, while also using local services without compensation.

"I know a large proportion of municipalities would like to provide for snow removal, street cleaning, minor repairs, removal of litter and general maintenance on state and county-owned roads, land and buildings," said Kelly. "But it is financially impossible for them to do so and stay within their budgets."

"I personally think the municipalities can do a better and more cost effective job of servicing the state and county properties within their boundaries. The opportunity will exist for communities to provide a high quality service, while saving time, paperwork and taxpayers money," Kelly concluded.

Smaller communities or communities with little state or county land would not be affected by these bills. Where the state or county contribution is calculated to be less than $500 no contribution would be made for that year. Also, the state and county would help to pay only for those portions of the municipal budget from which their state or county actually derived benefits.

Lands excluded from this legislation would include state forest, state parks or county parks, educational institutions and riparian lands.

These bills would go into effect Jan. 1, 1984, thus allowing time for the various local, county and state governing bodies to prepare their budgets accordingly.

Assemblyman Kelly represents the 30th District which includes Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona.

Holy Family registration next week

Sister Marie Gagliano, M.P.F., principal of Holy Family School in Nutley, has announced that the registration dates for admittance to the upcoming September kindergarten class will be March 8 and 9.

Registrations will be held in the school building, at Brookline Avenue and Harrison Street, on Tuesday, March 8, from 1-2:30 p.m. and on Wednesday, March 9, from 9-11 a.m. and from 7-8 p.m.

Children must be five years old by Dec. 31 of this year. Birth and baptism certificates must be presented during registration. Medical records, as required by state law, must be on hand by the end of June.

Holy Family, which is the largest grammar school in the Belleville-Nutley area, has almost 600 children in its kindergarten and eight grammar grades. Pupils come from the surrounding Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield areas. The 1983-84 academic year will be the school's 34th year of operation. The school has its own bus service and this year has introduced a computer training program for children in grades four through eight on an optional basis.

Sister emphasized that children are accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis, and that parents should therefore take care to register immediately. Children need not be brought to the school on the registration dates.

The Holy Family Day Nursery, at 174 Franklin Ave., Nutley, is affiliated with the school and provides day nursery care for pre-schoolers.

Drug store robberies seen as federal crime

Congressman Joe Minish (11th District) wants to make it a federal crime to rob pharmacies to obtain drugs.

Minish pointed out that in 1981, the most recent year for which statistics are complete, 1,987 drug stores were robbed at gunpoint. The motive of many of these robberies was to obtain prescription drugs which can be abused as narcotics.

The Congressman is a sponsor of H.R. 1255, which makes it a federal crime to take controlled substances, either by force or intimidation, from pharmacies or doctors authorized to dispense them under the Controlled Substances Act. The bill is limited to armed or violent robberies, and it carries a penalty of up to 10 years imprisonment and/or a fine of $5,000 for the first offense. Assaults with a dangerous weapon which jeopardize life and limb would be punished by 15-30 years in prison and a fine of $15,000. If anyone were killed in a pharmacy robbery, the penalty would be 20 years to life in prison.

Minish noted that the bill would be effective in tracking down drug robbers because it would allow federal authorities, such as the FBI and the Drug Enforcement Agency, to enter appropriate cases in cooperation with state and local authorities.

"This bill is needed because our neighborhood druggists have become targets to narcotics addicts and to criminals who would sell controlled substances illegally," said Minish. "Pharmacists and their customers deserve the protection of federal law because this kind of robbery violates the drug restrictions of the national government."

Minish maintained that the legislation was one part of the comprehensive effort needed to fight drug addiction and drug-related crimes on all fronts. "We owe it to our pharmacies and to their customers to keep drug stores safe places for everybody," he said.

Recycled packaging week beginning on March 14

Gov. Thomas H. Kean has proclaimed the week of March 14-19 "Recycled Packaging Awareness Week" to highlight a statewide consumer education program being launched by the New Jersey Food Council and the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs. New Jersey is the first state in the nation to mount such a program on a statewide basis.

New Jersey's "Recycled Packaging Awareness Week" is part of a national consumer education effort called "Shopping for the Symbol of the 80s." The program focuses on the benefits of recycled paperboard packaging and aims at increasing awareness of the recycling symbol — three arrows that form a connecting circle.

As part of the program, women's club members are labeling the shelf space on which products packaged in recycled paperboard are stocked in participating stores. The special shelf tags bear the recycling symbol and statement "This Product Packaged in Recycled Paperboard." Recycled paperboard is used to package hundreds of every-day grocery and household items.

"The initiative behind this event is highly commendable. 'Shopping for the Symbol of the 80s' is a worthwhile program that alerts New Jersey residents to the important ways that they can continue our state's exemplary resourcefulness in recycling and solid waste management. In these areas, I believe we can consider ourselves a model state and, by proclaiming this statewide effort, I hope we're setting a precedent for others to follow," Gov. Kean said.

Fifty supermarkets are participating in the program, including Nutley Park ShopRite, 437 Franklin Ave.

According to Barbara McConnell, president of the Food Council, "The 50 store outlets involved in this campaign represent all of the council's membership, which includes some of the nation's largest supermarket chains. There is unanimous concern for paper recycling among our members. We're very aware of the role supermarkets can play in stimulating paper recycling and we want to demonstrate this to the public. Our decision to sponsor this program in stores throughout New Jersey comes because, as a united grocery association, we realize that this is one area where we can really help increase consumer awareness," Ms. McConnell added.
