Stay Within 5 Percent Caps

Commissioners Introduce Budget Which Calls For No Tax Increase

For the second consecutive year, Belleville's municipal tax rate will remain stable, as the Board of Commissioners presented a proposed 1983 budget which calls for an increase of over $1 million in appropriations this week.

Additionally, Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevy and his colleagues noted that despite recent alterations in state law that would permit municipal budget increases of up to 7 percent over the previous year's figure, Belleville has managed to stay within the older guideline of a 5 percent ceiling.

Total general appropriations for this year are $13,993,950 up from last year's $12,934,622. The 1983 amount to be raised by local taxation is $6,054,710, maintaining the current property tax rate at $1.36 per $100 of assessed valuation.

By that rate, a house valued at $50,000 would be taxed $680 for 1983 the same as last year.

When asked why they held the old limit, Mayor Michael Marotti said, "We didn't want the tax rate to go up."

Surprisingly, Commissioners say they have achieved these economies even though Belleville this year experienced a $235,000 reduction in federal revenue sharing monies from its $794,000 portion in 1982.

"All the departments cooperated to cut spending," said McGreevy after Monday's caucus session where the board discussed its proposed budget.

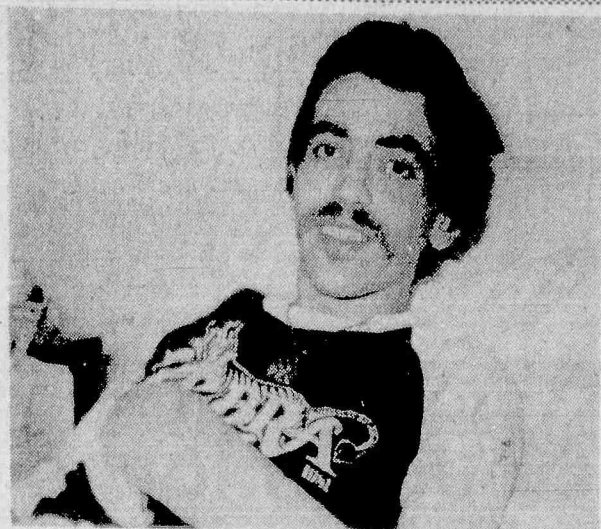

He did not give specific examples of how the savings was achieved, but insisted there were no cuts in municipal salaries or services.

Proposed 1983 appropriations for the individual municipal departments are as follows: Public Safety, $4,716,252 up from last year's $4,492,944; Revenue and Finance, $1,330,826 from $1,001,555 in 1982; Public Works, $624,575 up from last year's $565,766 and Public Affairs, $1,097,010, up from $1,024,919 in 1982.

The 1983 reserve for uncollected taxes figure of $1,337,181 is up slightly from last year's $1,303,759.

Commissioners also noted Belleville's status as a debt-free municipality remains unchanged.

The public hearing on the proposed budget is set for April 5. By that date, Commissioners will determine the effects of this year's county tax rate and of the School Board's proposed $16.5 million budget.

Belleville Hero Is Recuperating

By Linda Telesco

"Nobody wants to get involved anymore. People don't care about each other. It's every man for himself, today."

Sound familiar? Just when those sentiments get you down, a knight in shining armor comes along, polishes up our tarnished ideals, and makes us believe (in humanity) again.

That is the story of Frank Derbin, a 28-year-old Belleville resident who last week came to the rescue of a mugging victim in Silver Lake and sustained an injury in the process that landed him in the hospital.

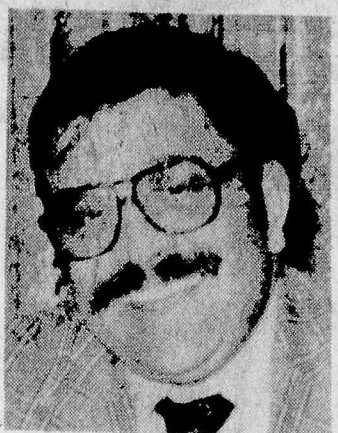

On Feb. 28, at 3:30 in the afternoon, a Newark couple completed their routine shopping trip to the Belmont Avenue

Looks To Future Education

D'Agostino Seeks Re-election To Board of Education Seat

By Ed Capparucci
Looking to the future, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, senior member of the Belleville Board of

Dr. Anthony D'Agostino

Education is throwing his hat into the ring once again.

"We have to look up the road and prepare our children for the future," Dr. D'Agostino said in an interview Monday. "The children who are now in kindergarten are the children of the 21st century. And although many people may not be concerned at the moment, we must realize that it is right around the corner."

D'Agostino, who will hold his campaign kickoff tomorrow, March 11, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 98 Bridge St., starting at 7:30 p.m., is the fourth person to enter the School Board race. He is joined by current board President John DiStasi, local businessman Gabe Nazzola and former board member Ernest Zoppi.

D'Agostino is completing his first full three-year term on the board, but has been a member since February of 1979, when he was appointed to replace resigning board Trustee Lawrence Schwartz. D'Agostino was later elected to a one-year term and in 1980 again won re-election to a full three-year term on the board.

Before becoming a member of the Board of Education, D'Agostino proved himself to be an active parent involved in school affairs. He served on the Athletic Council, and was a member of the School 7 PTA. He also took part in a community awareness survey with Schools Superintendent Dr. John Greed.

"I have always been active in school affairs in Belleville even before I became a member of the board in 1979," D'Agostino said.

D'Agostino says he is not only running on his record, but also because he wants to help clear up some major "concerns" in the school system.

"Money is perhaps the greatest concern at the present time," he said. "We must look to tighten our belts due to the cuts in state and federal aid we are scheduled to receive. What I would like to see is the Board of Education develop a partnership

Fingerprinting Students Could Start Very Soon

The Belleville Board of Education formally approved last week a program which will enable parents of elementary school students to have their children fingerprinted free of charge.

BHS Presenting Spring Concert Tonight at 8 p.m.

The Belleville High School Band and Jazz Ensemble will present a spring concert tonight, March 10 in the Belleville High School Auditorium at 8 p.m.

The evening's program will feature the concert bands' performance of music from 'Westside Story,' as well as one of Sousa's great marches, 'The Thunderer.' Some of TV's most famous movie themes will be featured in 'The Concerto For Prime Time.'

The jazz ensemble will play rock as well as jazz. The Big Band era of the 30s will be recalled with such tunes as "Bandstand Boogie." Jazz versions of Broadway show tunes such as 'What I Did For Love' will be featured.

Donations of $1 will be accepted at the door. The proceeds go toward the annual band trip. Senior citizens will be admitted free with proper identification.

By a 6-0 vote, the School Board set the wheels in motion for the fingerprinting program, which first started almost two months ago in Union County and has been catching on with communities throughout the state at a rapid pace.

Local school and police officials are hoping that the program can get underway here as early as the end of the month. At the present time, local police officials are checking with police departments throughout the state which have already set up similar programs.

"We are now in the process of checking with other law enforcement departments to find out what type of problems they may have encountered in setting up a fingerprinting program in their communities," said Belleville Police Chief George Lister. "We want to know how much time and cost is required. We are also checking out various release forms which will be needed."

Lister said he hopes the FBI would supply the fingerprinting cards to the community free of charge, and noted that a meeting between police officials and Schools Superintendent Dr. John Greed would take place sometime this week.

Siblings of elementary students will also be eligible for fingerprinting by the school.

The program will take place at the school and the fingerprint cards will be kept by the parents.

Creative Students — Students from Miss Brenda Albanese's class at School 10 built an exhibit of a city in the year 3,000. The project displays how houses, public buildings and transportation may look in the future. See story on page 13.

Candidates' Forum Set For Wednesday

The Belleville Democratic Club will present a public forum on the Belleville Board of Education election March 16 at the Chandelier Restaurant, 340 Franklin Ave., starting at 8 p.m.

According to Michelle Dalbo, president of the club, the main purpose of the forum is to examine the issues and familiarize the Belleville residents with the candidates involved.

The four candidates this year are, John DiStasi, Gabe Nazzola, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino and Ernest Zoppi.

Each candidate will be given a five-minute period to present their positions. A question and answer period will then follow.

The public is invited to attend at no cost and refreshments will be served. For more information please call Michelle Dalbo at 751-5590.

Library Friends Meeting Tonight

"New Tax Regulations" will be discussed by N. Richard Grassano, CPA at 8 p.m. in the meeting room of the library, 221 Washington Ave., tonight, March 10. The program is being sponsored by the 'Friends of the Belleville Public Library' which will hold a short business meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Grassano is a member of the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants and will discuss how the new tax regulations may affect you. He will bring you up to date and answer questions about 1982 taxes, forms and laws. The library will make available state and federal forms for that evening.

At the business meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. items that were to be discussed at the February meeting (which was cancelled due to inclement weather) will be on the agenda. The February program on genealogy has been rescheduled for the April 21 meeting.

Block Tax Tip

Interest Payments

Interest paid on loans from banks, insurance companies, credit unions, loan companies, tuition payment plans — or individuals — as well as finance charges on goods bought on the installment plan or with a credit card, such as a car, appliances, or furniture — is deductible on your income tax return. According to H & R Block, the tax preparation firm, the interest payments can be deducted if they are separately stated or can be definitely determined and proved.

The interest portion of monthly mortgage payments provides a substantial deduction for many taxpayers. The interest paid is generally shown on the statement furnished by the lender; if it is not, a statement may be requested.

There is usually a separately stated finance charge for items such as jewelry, furniture, appliances, etc. purchased on a store's revolving charge account. This amount may be included as an itemized deduction on the income tax return.

Credit card customers may also deduct as interest the finance charges that are based on the unpaid monthly balances.

Designated finance charges charged against your bank account under a bank credit card plan are also deductible as interest as long as no part of the charge is a service charge, loan fee, credit investigation fee, or other similar cost.

H & R Block points out the same tax rule applies to interest charged on payments to an institution of learning for tuition and lodging.

St. Patrick's Parade Is Set For Saturday

By Steve Blank

Next door neighbor Nutley will hold one of the largest St. Patrick's Day parades in the state this Saturday, March 12 starting at 2 p.m.

The fifth annual event sponsored by the Nutley Irish American Association, will kick-off from the corner of Harrison Street and Franklin Avenue. The parade will proceed down Franklin Avenue, passing the reviewing stand at the Nutley Savings and Loan Association and conclude at High Street.

All Belleville commissioners will be marching with the invited guests. Also participating will be the Belleville Knights of Columbus, Belleville Elks and the honor guard of the Belleville VFW Post.

Gov. Thomas Kean will view the cavalcade from the reviewing stand, while former Gov. Brendan Byrne, Congressman Joseph Minish and various other state and federal dignitaries march in the procession.

Assemblyman John V. Kelly, parade chairman, pointed out the main objective of Nutley's Irish Club is to promote and stage a "spectacular parade" for the citizens in and around the area.

Kelly expressed his pride in the parade committee's choices of Bernard Gallagher as grand marshal, who was the Essex County and Nutley's Democratic chairman, Patricia Lydon as deputy grand marshal and Elizabeth Jochem as parade queen.

Vinnie Dunn, president of the Irish-American Association, stressed the theme of this year's celebration is brotherhood and peace. Dunn invites all townspeople of all faiths to the second annual Gaelic Mass which will be offered at St. Mary's Church at 11 a.m. the day of the parade.

"The Mass is one of the most touching and beautiful aspects of our St. Patrick's Day festivities. Our association cordially invites everyone to attend," said Dunn.

The first parade was held on a cold, damp March day in 1979 and has blossomed into the second largest St. Patrick's Day parade in the state.

One of the founding fathers of the parade was the late Municipal Court Judge of Nutley, Robert Citrino, a gentleman of distinguished Italian heritage.

"No matter what nationality or religious affiliation I urge all citizens to watch our parade. It is a special day which everyone will enjoy," Dunn stated.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

When any part of the body is suffering from damage caused by disease or injury, it usually activates a warning in the form of pain. Pain is nature's warning that something is wrong and needs care.

Pain killers cannot cure...they only minimize the warning signal. If the warning is not heeded, the pain may gradually disappear over a period of time because the ability of the nerves to react and send warning pains becomes limited.

Chiropractic specializes in locating and correcting the causes of pain...not the treatment of symptoms.

Prescribed medications may affect different people in different ways. Every individual's body chemistry is unique which may lead them to experience a reaction to a particular drug. An adverse reaction to medication may be as mild as a slight rash, nausea, drowsiness or a vague headache. More serious side effects are prolonged vomiting, bleeding, marked weakness or impaired vision or hearing. In most cases, a doctor is familiar with the side effects, if any, that a prescribed drug may cause and will so warn the patient. If, however, the patient notices a severe or unexpected adverse reaction, the physician should be contacted at once.

One of the duties of a pharmacist is acting as a consultant and source of information to your physician about many of the newest drug products. If you ever have a question about your prescription medication call ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 759-1956, 759-1968, 338 Washington Ave. Russell Shaver, candy, cosmetics, toiletries, baby needs and tobacco products are stocked. AVOID "RIP OFF" READ THE...

FACT #1	Read & re-read the small print. Beware of phrases like, "none in stock," "8 weeks delivery," "one in stock," or "many others in stock with popular options."
FACT #2	Why do some dealers spend $4,000 for a full page ad to advertise "none in stock," "one in stock," "will order." You better believe there is a rip-off and you are the target.
FACT #3	$80,000 per month in advertising costs are not unusual for the "Go-Go" dealers. Guess who pays for all this advertising?
FACT #4	Factory charges to dealers are the same. It makes no difference if the dealer buys one or one thousand cars. Bigger is not necessarily cheaper.
FACT #5	At Bigelow Motors, you deal with one salesperson & one manager. You are not subjected to pressure by six different "managers."
FACT #6	There is never any charge for "documentary fees" at Bigelow. These fees run as high as $95. (What the heck are documentary fees?)
FACT #7	Many highway dealers have an overhead of over $200,000 per month. Bigelow Motors is mortgage and rent free. Bigelow operates with a minimum overhead.
FACT #8	Bigelow Motors was founded in 1939. It is still run by the original owners. If you have a complaint you can enter their offices and talk to the owners.
FACT #9	You can't buy anything today that even comes close to Chrysler and Plymouth. We sell the best engineered, high mileage cars on the road. Note the absence of safety recalls. You and your family are safest in a Chrysler or Plymouth product.

Nutley Woman Named Also

Eddie O'Neil Named By Mayor Marotti To 13-Town Architectural Committee

Edward O'Neil of Belleville and Jeanne Van Steen of Nutley have been appointed by Mayors Michael Marotti and Carmen Orechio respectively, to the committee for a 13-town architectural tour.

"An Architectural Sampler of North-West Essex," scheduled for May 15 from noon to 4 p.m., is a major project of the local chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Arts Council of North-West Essex, a broad-based arts organization. The Arts Council serves not only Belleville and Nutley but also Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Verona, Cedar Grove, Roseland, Essex Fells, West Caldwell, North Caldwell and Fairfield.

O'Neil, a retired longshoreman, is president of the Belleville Historical Society and author of a weekly newspaper column on Belleville's past, which appears in The Belleville Times. His current community activities also include helping the Belleville firemen celebrate their centennial, and organize a museum.

Mrs. Van Steen is president of the Nutley Historical Society and serves on the town's Historical Trust and its Bicentennial Committee as well as on the Essex County Girl Scout Council and the Nutley League of Women Voters.

According to the two local representatives, the unusual event will conduct guests by chartered bus from Montclair State College to notable structures and sites in each of the affiliated communities. The tour is designed for generalists interested in local culture and history, and not for architects or specialists. To enhance its value, guides knowledgeable in both architecture and local lore will point out noteworthy exterior features and place them in local historic context.

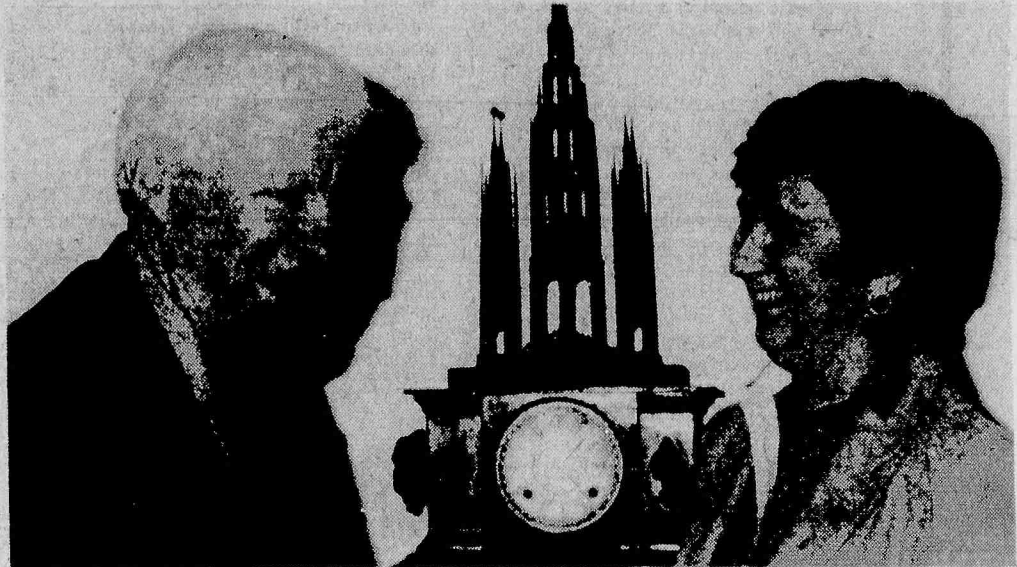

Because the tour focuses on exteriors, guests will not enter any of the designated buildings, but there will be stops for closer viewing.

The committee is planning a booklet describing each participating town and its architectural points of interest, some of which will be featured on the tour. Guests can view the others later at their leisure.

Co-chairmen for the event are Dr. L. Howard Fox, vice president of the Arts Council, and Gerry Schaefer, president-elect of the Newark/Suburban Chapter, New

Following the four-hour circuit, buses will return to the MSC campus for a wine and cheese reception. On display at that time will be a juried photographic exhibit of architectural features of the tour area.

O'Neil, Mrs. Van Steen and the representatives of the 11 other towns are already at work listing the outstanding landmarks in their communities. A committee of architects will select those to be featured, and prepare the narration which will enrich guests' appreciation of the sites.

A Tax Break

The Township Board of Commissioners introduced a budget for 1983, which, for the second consecutive year requires no tax increase. Under recently enacted legislation, the Township Commission could have increased expenditures to seven percent instead of the old five percent cap. The Township Commissioners acted in the most frugal and responsible manner in keeping down the increase to the old five percent level.

Belleville enjoys a unique status in America. It is one of a handful of communities in the United States that is debt free. Truly, Belleville is a "pay as you go" community. The Township Commissioners are giving taxpayers another reason why they should be re-elected in May.

Frank A. Orechio

Marotti, Pica & Strumolo

Mayor Michael Marotti and incumbent commissioners Matthew Pica and Vincent Strumolo have all declared for re-election at the May 6th Municipal Election.

These three incumbents deserve re-election. They have been responsive and responsible. Mr. Strumolo enjoys a unique status. He is the only public official who was elected a commissioner, then was elected a councilman when that form of government prevailed, successfully fought a Recall Election, and when the present government was returned to commission type, Strumolo was again successful and won election to the new commission. Since that time, he has been elected and re-elected to the commission.

Marotti, Pica and Strumolo are men of integrity, they served well the people who elected them and are most deserving of re-election.

Thoughts for Today

I cannot promise you a lifetime or even a day
For my days and yours are bound to others through a lifetime commitment

What I can offer is simply Me
For whatever amount of time we can steal

I offer you laughter for laughter is beauty
I offer you honesty for honesty is pure...

...I offer you patience for patience is needed to gain trust
I offer you sincerity for through my sincerity I will show you my inner being and desires...

All I ask in return is for you to be honest and open for through your honesty and openness

I will receive from you all that I offer

Letters in print

Consumer Protection Is Working Well Here

To the editor:

Please accept this letter as one of great appreciation on behalf of Edward Leonard, Consumer Protection (Department of Revenue and Finance) in Belleville. We would like to make all Belleville residents aware of the professionalism and effectiveness in the performance of his job.

Leonard resolved a consumer problem for us wherein a carpet cleaning company came into my home and shampooed our rug. As a result of the shampooing, the solvent they used ruined the rug and to add insult to injury, the color was being picked up from the rug by our shoes with color being transferred to my kitchen floor. Needless to say, we tried almost a year and a half to get the company to remedy the problem, but to no avail. When we finally brought the matter to Leonard's attention, he resolved it. The rug was replaced and a new kitchen floor, as well.

Leonard should be commended for the fine job he did for us. We are convinced that without his knowledge of consumer problems, we would have been left to absorb the cost for the above.

Often we hear the negatives about employees whose dedication to his/her job goes overlooked. We ask that you print this positive note about a very dedicated man. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Ralph and Susan Cafone

Velodrome Will Impose On the Faithful Skaters

To the editor:

You are probably aware that the county is contemplating closing the ice skating facility in Branch Brook Park and converting it to a velodrome. There are many citizens and groups who are opposed to the transition, while I have yet to find anyone, other than the promoters, who are for the transition.

Mr. William C. Scalzo, director of Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs, cites the deficit, particularly the energy cost, as the reason for the move, and yet he indicates there will be ice cycling at the Branch Brook Ice Center. He also indicates that all of the activities at the Branch Brook Ice Center and South Mountain Arena can be consolidated. Now, how can we have ice cycling without energy and, since the West Orange Arena now has a full schedule, it is inconceivable to consolidate without some of the groups, the public, and senior citizens being cast aside.

As to bike riding for the public, would it not be more practical to spend part of the $4 million park improvement on bike trails and, if clinics are desired, to hold them in the Ice Center during the summer when ice skating is suspended.

With hockey becoming more popular, there will be more need for this facility than ever and, with proper promotion, all of the recreation departments and schools could schedule time at the Ice Center for good healthy exercise, and the bike riding could be on park trails in the fresh outdoors.

I feel the public should have a say in the matter and, as one of the Freeholders commented, a public hearing should be held so that the taxpayers could understand the proposal of the county, the cost and repercussions, and they could express their approval or disapproval. Another Freeholder has indicated it is in just the proposal stages and has to be voted upon, while a concerned citizen has advised me she has had a letter from Mr. Scalzo stating that the rink will close and the velodrome is indeed a reality.

Being in my 70s, I well remember the velodrome in Newark and it certainly was not an asset to the community. In the 30s we had a velodrome in Nutley and, again, it was not thought kindly of. To quote from The Nutley Sun in November 1938: "Velodrome sore thumb of Nutley." Shortly thereafter, it was demolished — a financial and recreational failure.

The reason for the change apparently is the deficit of $150,000, which is less than $2 for each piece of real estate in the county. A recent editorial in your paper cited the accomplishments of the County Executive for his first term, and rightly so. You also asked, what is he going to do for an encore. If it is to cut services at such a small cost, I do not feel it is justified.

Since this is the only ice skating facility in the eastern part of the county, and there are many citizens who would like to have a say in the matter, it would be appreciated if you would run an article outlining the complete proposal, the history of the velodrome in Nutley, and if and when the taxpayers are going to have any say in the matter.

Your help would be appreciated.

Sincerely,
George B. Pifer

Recent Letter Gains Support

To the editor:

Following my letter to the editor which was published in the Belleville Times edition of Feb. 24, enumerating the many benefits showered on us Senior Citizens, and in particular by the Social Security Administration, I received several cards and letters, in addition to many phonecalls, upon my return from a week's stay in New Hampshire.

Invariably, they expressed wholehearted support for the message expressed in my comments, with about 50 percent coming from Senior Citizens like myself. I very much appreciated receiving them, especially the one from Mr. "D'A," who I learned served on diesel Subs during the last war also. I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of you once again. What was particularly encouraging is the fact, that it reinforces my belief, that President Reagan was elected on his program of reform, now so popularly known as "Reaganomics," a term coined originally by his jealous detractors, now a shining crown, a reward for his unselfish efforts on our behalf, ALL of the citizens of this country.

People Who Like to Smoke Can Make Own Decision

To the editor:

This is in response to a letter which appeared in the Jan. 5 issue of The Times. Why doesn't Douglas Chester, president of the antismoking "GASP" group (perhaps the acronym should stand for "Gadflies Angering Sensible People") quit beating around the bush? Why doesn't he just come out and say what he and his followers really want — prohibition of smoking?

C'mon, Doug. Adults make their own decisions about whether or not they smoke. They don't need "GASP," the state legislature, or anyone else making that decision for them.

Smokers and nonsmokers have coexisted peacefully for centuries. Why? Because most of us can tolerate occasional minor annoyances, whatever they might be. Most of us realize that everyone doesn't dance to the beat of our personal drum.

I wonder if the state legislature would like to lose the millions of dollars the state government squeezes from smokers each year? I wonder if they are willing to further exacerbate the economic hardships already faced by the thousands of small businesses in New Jersey that rely, at least in part, on tobacco sales for their survival.

Finally, I wonder if the state legislature really wants to pass laws that segregate people and encourage hard feelings.

This is one taxpayer who hopes the legislature uses a little sense and doesn't cave in to the busybodies of the world.

Sincerely,
David Goldfarb
Executive Director
Tobacco Distributors Association of New Jersey

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

William Simon, a New Jersey resident, having served as Secretary of the Treasury under both President Nixon and President Ford, sounded a strong note on a recent CBS telecast of the popular "60 Minutes" Sunday program. Logically, he was interviewed on the subject of finance and taxes.

An intelligent and discerning man versed in the many nuances of the world of money and policies of the various world governments whose practices influence international world trade and banking, Mr. Simon significantly noted that only the United States, among the great world powers, penalizes savings with heavy taxation.

Pointing out that European nations encourage savings by excluding most of it from taxation. They recognize that untaxed savings interest encourages savers to continue to put more money into the banks, while augmenting their account with the accumulated interest accrued.

The more money the banks have in savings accounts, the more they have to lend to borrowers, be they industries, commercial concerns or buyers of cars, clothes or many other commodities. This stimulates business and commerce. It provides employment and it inspires an incentive to save.

In the United States, bank interest on money subjects anyone getting it to the old "double-whammy." First you get taxed for having earned it, then when you save it, or invest it to earn more, the IRS calls it "unearned income" and they tax it again, at a higher rate than earned income.

We believe there is much merit and sound, good advice that former U.S. Secretary of the Treasury William E. Simon has offered the American people and to the President and the members of the Congress. It would serve the country and its "savers" well were they to heed his sage counsel and get hopping now, to get things back on track.

We would like to offer the following illustration of what we regard as an anomalous quirk of the United States tax laws, as they apply to "unearned income" in one specific case.

Little Billy, 4 years old, was walking with his mother on the sidewalk by his home. A woman neighbor walking her large dog on a leash stopped to chat with Billy's mother. Suddenly, without provocation, the ferocious dog who had once before attacked and bit someone, lurched upon the child inflicting severe lacerations of the face, head and eye; emergency units were summoned and Billy underwent plastic surgery in a two-and-a-half hour operation.

The customary litigation and insurance negotiations ensued. Time consuming delay was required because of the possibility of the boy's need for further plastic surgery because children's bone and facial features often change to the extent that another operation may be necessary.

Ultimately, settlement which required judicial sanction, was arrived at. The Court, following customary procedure, ordered a trust fund be set up for Billy over which the Court retains control. Billy must obtain a Social Security Card and is responsible for taxation on the interest accruing on the money in his trust fund. Billy, now 9, hardly capable of knowing much about the intricacies of filling out a 1040 form. The kid's parent gets the job.

The boy's dad who doesn't even like paying income tax, let alone figuring it out, seeks out a tax accountant, who following the law, points out to Billy's father that trust fund interest is considered "unearned interest" and that because he is a Child Dependent and that a special formula established by the IRS must be followed...that's the rub...the kid has to pay a higher tax.

Let's show how it works, using abstract figures as shown in Department of the Treasury IRS Publication 17 (REV. Nov. 82) Chapter 1, Page 14:

1) Adjusted gross income	$2,500
2) Zero bracket amount for a single person	$2,300
3) Itemized deductions or earned income whichever is larger	0
4) Line 2 minus line 3	$2,300
5) Add lines 1 and 4	$4,800
6) Exemptions	$1,000
Taxable Income	$3,800

What a rip-off. The kid got $2,500 interest, but must pay tax on $3,800. He must pay $192, rather than the regular $26 tax on that income.

Unearned interest pays the most.

Travers Fund Is Scheduling Flea Market

The Bobby Travers Leukemia Fund is holding a flea market March 12, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Belleville Elks at 254 Washington Ave. Proceeds will be used to help defray medical expenses.

Some of the Cosmos Soccer cheerleaders will be present, as will New York Jet football player Stan Waldmore. Stan will be at the market from 1-2 p.m.

The public is asked to participate in this endeavor by attending and/or donating articles that can be sold. Monetary contributions can be mailed directly to: Bobby Travers Leukemia Fund, P.O. Box 71, Belleville, N.J., 07109.

This Sunday a Hair-Cut-A-Thon by Head over Heels, 153 Washington Ave., will take place to raise funds. The program will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Coffee and donuts donated by Duncan Donuts will be offered.

Bobby is an 11-year-old boy who has been fighting Leukemia for five years. He is associated with the Belleville Soccer Association and recreation baseball. Even though his hospital stays are frequent, his spirits and hopes remain very high.

Officials would like to thank the people that made the candy drive such a success and hope that future events will be as successful. Anyone wanting information about donating anything please call 751-2857, 759-4368, 751-1997.

Charter Ceremonies Are Held For Sub Junior Woman's Club

The Sub Junior Woman's Club of Belleville was federated as a charter club of the General Federation of Women's Clubs Dec. 14, joining the largest organization of volunteer women in the world.

A charter ceremony was conducted Feb. 22 to formally announce the formation of the club. Mrs. Linda Caputo, president of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville, called the ceremony to order. The Junior Collect was read by Mrs. Ann Quinn, Junior Director of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs. The Pledge of Allegiance was lead by Mrs. Rosemarie Breslin, Northern Assistant Director and "America The Beautiful" was sung by Veronica Valvano, accompanied by Tricia Spillane. Mrs. Caputo welcomed the group, congratulated the sub juniors, thanked Mrs. Barbara Spillane for her help in her capacity as sub junior advisor and the Junior Woman's Club for hosting the party.

Other guests present were Miss Jan Ehlers, state corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Lou Sullivan, chairman of nominations and junior representative to the Federation board, Mrs. Marie Vicchiarillo, Partners for Progress chairman, Mrs. Bernadette Spilza, international affairs chairman, Mrs. Joyce Martelli, state sub junior advisor, Mrs. Barbara Flannery, Eighth District advisor, Mrs. Sandy Hartmann, president of Clifton Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Jackie Reformato, president of Rutherford Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Carol Brown, president of Nutley Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. JoAnn McGough, chairman, Evening Membership Department, Woman's Club of Belleville, and Mrs. Lenore Keeney, president of the Woman's Club of Belleville.

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto,

Last week I had a perm in a beauty salon. The perm came loose on top and looser around the nape of the neck. I went back to the beauty salon and showed the girl. I told her I wanted it tighter. She replied, "Once a perm is done, it cannot be redone." I can't see the point. Why did this happen and praising you as a trouble-shooter, do you have any method to help me?

Ms. Mary Stewart

Dear Ms:

Yes, it can be redone, only if the perm has been wound in the proper way and only if it is done in two weeks after you had the first perm.

Probably, she didn't apply enough lotion in the back to saturate the hair. I suggest you condition your hair, put larger rods on the top, smaller rods on the nape. Apply lotion on the nape. Let it stay about 5 minutes and then apply the lotion on top of the head. Let that stay another 5 minutes — altogether it will take 10 minutes. Rinse, towel dry, then use in similar method with the neutralizer.

A reception followed at Hotel Sheraton, Hasbrouck Heights.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of English netting covered with Venice lace and fashioned with a high neckline, long sleeves and cathedral train. A matching veil was held by a half crown of lace and she carried white roses centered with a removable orchid.

Madeline Moscatello of West Milford was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Rosemary English of Tampa, Fla., and Debbie Resciniti of Belleville, cousins of the bride, and Nancy Pope of Belleville.

The honor attendant was in a dusty rose pleated gown with a net jacket in the Victorian style. She carried burgundy carnations and roses and wore matching flowered combs in her hair. The others were in burgundy gowns and carried dusty rose carnations and roses.

Domenick Carmagnola of Denville served as his brother's best man. Ushering were Fred Moscatello of West Milford, brother of the bride, Vinnie Resciniti of Belleville, cousin of the bride and Sep Sucameli of Parsippany.

Mrs. Moscatello chose a silver gown with matching jacket trimmed in sequins. Her wristlet was of small pink roses. The groom's mother, in a mauve crepe gown, had a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Carmagnola, an alumna of West Milford High School and Joseph Paterno's Beauty School, Denville, is with Shop-Rite of West Milford.

Mr. Carmagnola, a graduate of Morris Catholic High School and Morris County College, is owner of Anthony's Pizzeria and Family Restaurant, Rockaway.

The couple honeymooned in San Francisco, Hawaii and Las Vegas and have made their home in Wayne.

Seems Like Only Yesterday... 2 Men Die in Newark Water Main Pipe; Town Council Cuts School Board Budget

By Ed Capparucci
Thirty Years Ago
Two men died after being trapped in an old Newark water main on Union Avenue for more than three hours. Local rescue workers tried to enter the 30-inch pipe, but could not reach the men. The workers included Fire Chief William Dunleavy, Deputy Chief Harry White, Commissioner Harry Sullivan, Captains Carl Hundertpfund and William Favian and firemen Michael Cafone, Daniel Spillane, Edward Carr and Robert Shafer, along with many more.

After evaluating the situation, workers decided to dig the men out of the pipe. The digging took place at the corner of Union Avenue and Mill Street. Unfortunately, shortly after the two Newark men were pulled out of the pipe they died on route to the hospital.

Sentiment in favor of full $500 raises for both the Belleville police and firemen were expressed by three speakers at the Belleville Board of Commission budget hearing. But because of an error in transcribing some figures, an alteration of $6,300 in the Public Safety budget, the Town Fathers could not take any action on the budget.

Twenty-five Years Ago
The Town Council slashed $40,000 more off the Belleville Board of Education budget. This brought the total amount of deductions from the School Board's budget to $85,000. The School Board had cut $45,000 originally from its budget after the first vote on the budget.

Patrolman John Dean of the Police Benevolent Association denied the charge of James Golden that he had intimidated Golden's Union by telling them to "take it easy," in opposing raises of $400 for police and firemen. Dean stated that he could not understand how Golden could accept a raise for his own Union and then try to prevent the police from doing the same.

Twenty Years Ago
Anger, disbelief and cries of outrage followed a series of articles appearing in the Newark News which depicted Belleville as beset by racial strife and stringent discrimination.

Councilmen, realtors, police and fire officials all denied making the statements attributed to them in the articles.

Mayor Robert M. Laterza, a lifelong resident of Belleville said he had never known of racial discrimination or segregation being practiced here.

In a six-and-a-half hour long session, the Belleville Town Council adopted a 1963 municipal budget of $1,981,388; killed the Planning Board, with creating a seven-member advisory board to replace it and unanimously passed a resolution calling for the Newark News to prove its allegations of racial discrimination here.

The budget represented an increase of $179,377 over last year's total and in one councilman's opinion is "the best shake Belleville ever had."

The Belleville Community Welfare Council elected Alan H. Bernstein as its chairman and Mrs. Victor L. Hart as the council's vice chairman.

Ten Years Ago
Mayor Joseph McGreevy announced the Board of Commissioners had dipped into the towns' reserve funds and transferred $1.4 million to reduce the town's share of the 1973 tax rate to $1.30 per $100 of assessed valuation — an increase of one tax point over last year.

He further said the goal of the Commission is to keep the next tax rate "below $6." With the new adjustment made in the town budget, the projected tax rate stands at about $6.13.

Belleville police arrest the second of the two men charged with atrocious assault and battery on an off-duty Belleville police officer.

Deputy Chief Frank Haight and Officer Ronald Edwards were off duty and entering a local tavern when Edwards was attacked by the two men. Edwards drew his gun and announced he was a police officer, but one man escaped.

Belleville became part of a largely Democratic state district under a plan approved by the New Jersey Reapportionment Commission.

Belleville was placed in the 30th District along with Secaucus, Kearny, Harrison and part of the North Ward section of Newark. All five communities have been said to be Democratic strongholds.

One Year Ago
School Board officials assailed $378,743 in state aid cuts to Belleville and said they will not lower the present $15 million budget to make up for the reduction. The trustees sent a resolution of protest to legislative representatives informing them that Belleville will adhere to the original entitlement of $5,631,361 set by T & E in December.

The largest cut in aid by the state came in the area of equalization aid. Belleville lost $316,316 in this area, receiving $3,743,604 pit pf the original $4,050,920 appropriated by the state. Other areas cited were state compensatory education, capital outlay and debt service. No cuts were made in the areas of approved transportation, special education and an English language program.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. John Greed said if the cuts went through, the district would be forced to dismiss 20 teachers and eight administrators.

Joining other objecting Essex County communities, Belleville added fuel to the fire of criticism that has apparently burned out an proposal by Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro that municipalities assume street cleaning responsibilities beginning in June, for county roads within their boundaries.

Commissioners objected specifically to the annual reimbursement rate of $275 per mile swept suggested by Shapiro. With a total of 5.95 miles of county road, the township would receive yearly compensation of $1,636.25.

New Jersey Transit officials announced they were re-routing the 90 line bus which was running along Belmont Avenue. The bus would go through Franklin Street, to Watsessing Avenue to Grove Street and take effect in April.

The girl hoopsters advanced in the state tournament as they edged by Elizabeth in the first round of the Group IV, Section II tournament by the score of 53-49. Jennifer Apicella scored 42 points in the girls' victory.

Future Playground Site — This vacant lot located on Cortlandt Street in the Valley section of town, will soon be the site of a new playground thanks to Ray and Enid Post and Chester and S. Thomas Aitken, who donated the four lots to the township.

New Recreation Area in Valley Made Possible Through Donation

A generous gift to the community will give Belleville residents a new recreation area in the Valley district.

Commissioners agreed last week to accept the gift of four vacant lots donated by Ray and Enid Post and Chester and S. Thomas Aitken, ex-ecutors of the estate of B. Thomas Aitken and use them for recreation area.

The lots at 230-234 Cortlandt St., will be the site of a new playground to be constructed through anticipated funding from an Essex County Community Development Block Grant, said Mayor Michael Marotti.

"I always wanted a play area down there," said the Mayor last week. He hoped the new recreation site would replace the loss of the School I playground, which became a bus parking lot last year when the Board of Education located its administrative offices in the former school building on Cortlandt Street.

The Cortlandt Recreation Park is one of the 1982 projects submitted by Commissioners for the federal monies which are distributed through the County grants.

Plans call for landscaping, swings, and a basketball court. Marotti said construction would probably start in May or June and be completed in time for summer activities.

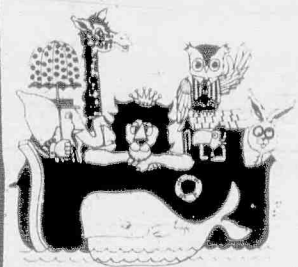

However, funding problems may pose an unexpected delay in the plans. Originally, Belleville requested $130,000 from the Block Grant committee for the project but was awarded only $65,000, according to Bill Katterman of Bruno Associates, Inc., the township's funding consultants.

The difference was to be made up by applying for Green Acres grant, another federal funding program. Although Commissioners voted unanimously at their last session to submit a formal request for the extra funding, they learned from township Engineer Neil Siciliano that Green Acres is running out of funds and the future of this project may be shaky without the added monies.

Angered, Mayor Marotti said, "I told Bruno Associates I wanted all the money to come from the Community Development Funds." Marotti explained that with Green Acres funding, the township would have to put up the needed monies first and expect reimbursement later. "We just don't have it," he declared. Siciliano told the board, Bruno is already seeking contingency funds from the county which may provide a remedy. Moreover, Gov. Thomas Kean is acting to find a solution to maintain the Green Acres program, according to a report in The Star-Ledger last Sunday.

Start retiring today.

Build tomorrow's retirement fortune with a tax-sheltered IRA Account at Spencer Savings now!

It's never too early, or too late, to start planning for retirement. And right now the incentives are the best ever!

Today, everyone who works, even those covered by another pension plan, can take advantage of our new Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It makes good sense and lots of money.

Here's why.

Every dollar you contribute to your IRA is tax-deductible, right off the top. Plus, all the interest you earn over the years is tax-sheltered until you retire

(when you should be in a much lower tax bracket). So, you save both ways.

Married working couples can now contribute up to $4,000 of yearly income. Couples with one working spouse can put away up to $2,250. And single individuals can contribute a maximum of $2,000 each year. All tax-deductible. All tax-deferred.

The sooner you start your IRA, the more money you'll have at retirement. It's that simple. Choose the plan that's best for you and start retiring today. You'll enjoy a much richer tomorrow!

Ventriloquist Police Officer May Be Coming To Belleville

A Mountain Lakes police officer is often seen with a dummy on the seat beside him in a police car. No not another cop, a wooden dummy. The police officer, Jack Nicholas, is a ventriloquist, and the dummy is Archie — a ventriloquist's doll.

Archie wears a mini-police officers' uniform and sits beside Jack as he accompanies the veteran cop on all his rounds. Jack and Archie take a lot of ribbing, they also get their share of praise.

Since 1978, the Jefferson resident and his wooden buddy have become something of an educational sensation. The famous duo perform as "Captain Jack and Archie," putting on a one-hour safety show covering drug abuse, strangers, bike, traffic and fire safety, plus other safety topics. After their show, 24-page coloring game books are handed out with pictures and a certificate. The program is designed to entertain with a comedy act for schools, institutions, hospitals, shopping malls and other locations where children meet.

Belleville's Police Director Matthew Pica and Police Chief George Lister are discussing with the Board of Education the possibility of having "Captain Jack and Archie" perform their educational-entertaining program for the local students.

"Captain Jack and Archie" have presented their comedy-educational program for students at schools in Boonton, Lakewood, Parsippany-Troy Hills, Montville, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel of Boonton, Madison, Mountain Lakes and East Hanover, hospitals in Chester and Mountainside, A.Y.M.C.A. in Mountain Lakes. They have also made appearances in New York and Pennsylvania schools.

The Mountain Lakes Police Department allows Nicholas to visit local schools on his working shift, but schools outside the community he visits on his own time and he charges a small fee to cover expenses.

Belleville's past

Stagecoaches

The Newark stages took two routes. Some ran down Mill Street to Main Street, to the Gully Road and to Newark via the old Newark-Aequackanonck road (now Broadway). The others ran west on Mill Street and south to Newark over the "back" road. The back road began at Second River and ran over what is now Summer and Lincoln Avenues, meeting the main Newark road, then as now, at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Adams' Hotel, at Mill and Bridge Streets, was used by the "hill" passengers as a waiting station, and the Mansion House by the Main Street passengers. Flanagan's stage, one of the many in the series of lines between Belleville and Newark, was famous for the stentorian tone in which its owner-driver announced that it was about to depart. Flanagan's "All-aboard!" from the Adams' Hotel innyard is reported to have been audible "clear to the other end of the town."

The stage lines had schedules suited to the season and it was customary to announce changes in the public prints. In the Daily Advertiser of January 25, 1841, Thomas Mason, "grateful for past favors" announced that his new stage, "The Phoenix," was now running on "Winter arrangement" and would leave the Pavilion in Belleville at 8 a.m. and 2 p.m., respectively, "calling at Harrison and Adams' Hotel" on its way to Newark. On the return trip The Phoenix would leave "Stewart's, Newark, at 10 o'clock A.M. and 5 o'clock P.M., calling at Tucker's and all the Principal Hotels." The owner added that "slates will be kept at each lace for the names and residence of his friends and others who will patronize him."

However, the old stage lines might have been able to improve their service and speed, they could not much longer hold their own against the Iron Horse, Belleville had been granted a charter for a steam railroad as early as 1836, but the scheme failed to materialize.

There was no lack of attempts to give the town the benefit of the new transportation medium. A number of Belleville manufacturers and other townsmen, among them Uriah Hendricks, John Van Rensselaer, William Wright, George Bird and Elias Van Arsdale, appeared as the prospective incorporation of a Belleville-Newark Rail Road, for which a charter was requested of the 1849 Legislature. They were willing to raise $150,000 for the laying of tracks "from a suitable point in Belleville to some point in Newark." They also asked for "authority to construct a branch, or lateral road, to any factory, or other print in Belleville, or Bloomfield, or to any basin on the Morris Canal in those townships." Their road was to "connect with the New Jersey and Morris and Essex railroads with their consent." They were going to charge four cents per mile for passengers, and 10 cents per mile for every ton of freight.

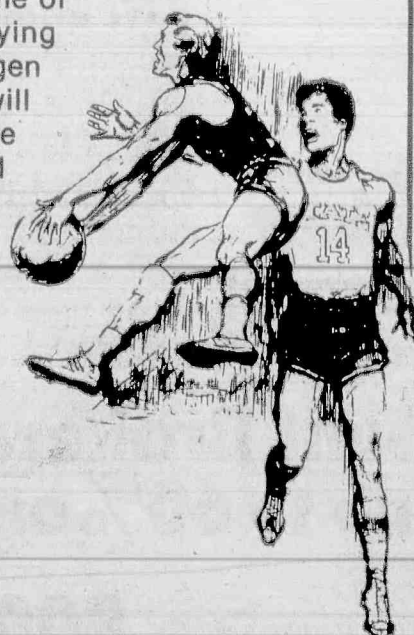

The charter bill was already in its third reading when, apparently due to pressure by older railroad companies, the Legislators decided to postpone action till the next session. Eventually it was consigned to the limbo of forgotten bills.

In 1853 plans were made for another railroad, running from Bloomfield through Belleville to New York. These plans also came to naught, for Bloomfield wanted the railroad to run on the south side of Second River, while Belleville just as obstinately demanded that it run along the north side.

God's Wise Design

By Rev. Robert Paul

Dwight D. Eisenhower said, "It takes no brains to be an atheist. Any stupid person can deny the existence of a supernatural power because man's physical senses cannot detect it. But there cannot be ignored the mystery of first life — or the marvelous order in which the universe moves about us. All of these evidence the handiwork of a beneficent Deity. For my part, the Deity is the God of the Bible and Christ His Son."

Much of God's great wisdom and marvelous design can be clearly traced. For instance, the earth rotates on its axis at approximately 1,000 miles per hour. If that had been 100 miles per hour, our days and nights would be 10 times longer, and our planet would alternately burn and freeze. Under such circumstances vegetation could not live!

If the earth were as small as the moon, the power of gravity would be too weak to retain sufficient atmosphere for man's needs; but if it were as large as Jupiter, Saturn, or Uranus, extreme gravitation would make human movement almost impossible. If we were as near to the sun as Venus, the heat would be unbearable; if we were as far away as Mars, we would experience snow and ice every night even in the warmest regions. If the oceans were half their present dimensions, we would receive only one-fourth the rainfall we do now. If they were one-eighth larger, our annual precipitation would increase fourfold and this earth would become a vast, uninhabitable swamp!

Water solidifies at 32 degrees above zero fahrenheit. It would be disastrous if the oceans were subject to that law, however, for then the amount of thawing in the polar regions would not balance out, and ice would accumulate throughout the centuries! Our God put salt in the sea to alter its freezing point!

It is obvious that the Creator has planned this world to suit man's needs. Nature is like an outstretched finger pointing toward the living God. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork." (Psalm 19:1.)

God loves you so much that He sent His only son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to die on the cross for all your sins, and to be raised up again for your justification. It only remains for you to acknowledge your sinfulness, and call upon the God of the Bible for salvation. "For by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." (Ephesians 2:8,9.)

BHS Shifting Its Offices

By Traci Sherman

Lately it seems that Belleville High School is playing a game of musical offices.

Vice Principal George Nucera's office was moved to the first floor near the boys' gym and newly appointed Vice Principal Marilyn McGrath took over Nucera's previous office, and according to Principal Michael Lally, there are many very good reasons which justify the switch.

Lally said when Mrs. McGrath began her position as vice principal, her office was located next to Nucera and across the hall from the main office, and a minor crisis erupted. It seems that between students reporting to the main office, Nucera's office, Mrs. McGrath's office and the nurse's office, there was a never ending flow of traffic to that one concentrated area of the school.

"There is now reduced action in the main office by having the vice principals dispersed throughout the building," said Lally. Only seniors report to the main office now, where Vice Principal John Westlake is located.

Suppertime Talks — Irving

By Russell Roemmele

Not counting Ben Franklin who was first in everything Washington Irving was the first great American writer. To be sure, he ranks easily with the most enduring of all authors. True enough, he is not read; but that is our loss. I cherish Washington Irving, because I was fortunate to have had an eighth grade teacher who insisted we read him. All eighth grade teachers should insist students read this elegant yet simple, and most prolific writer. He was also a damn good reporter, of the New York City scene by the way.

Washington Irving—yes, he was named after the general—was born in New York City. He wrote about life in the New York of his day, but more lastingly about the New York under the Dutch, before the English and later the American conquest. He mixed history, legend, myth, fiction and gossip about Peter Stuyvesant and the other Dutch leaders. Listen to Irving describe the valiant, cantankerous Dutch commander:

"But what, oh Muse? was the rage of Peter Stuyvesant, when from afar he saw his army giving way? In the transports of his wrath he sent forth a roar, enough to shake the very hills. The men of the Manhattoes plucked up new courage at the sound, or rather, they rallied at the voice of their leader, of whom they stood more in awe than all the Swedes in Christendom. Without waiting for their aid, the daring Peter dashed, sword in hand, into the thickest of the foe. Then might be seen achievements worthy of the days of the giants. Wherever he went, the enemy shrank before him; the Swedes fled to right and left, or were driven, like dogs, into their own ditch;...."

Everyone knows the story of Rip Van Winkle and the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow" and other of his tales of the ghosts and mysteries of the sin-haunted Dutch plantation owners, townspeople and lowly tenants along the Hudson. If you go along the Hudson, in autumn on a late Sunday afternoon; and you go off the main roads, you will still find the ghosts and mysteries and even the sins of the Dutch plantations. They are waiting for another Washington Irving.

He was the first American writer of substance who became an expatriate for a time. He lived and wrote in England, including happy stories of Christmas customs. He befriended two of the masters of European literature, Thomas Moore the Irish poet, and Sir Walter Scott the English novelist. His writings of England are unread there or here today, which is unfortunate, for they bring back an England that no longer exists—a kind of stroll through the old countryside.

Next to his writings about New York, his "Alhambra," about the grand Moorish civilization that inhabited part of Spain for centuries and which had no rival for cultural expression, is still moving and surprisingly accurate. The writing is typically clear, but profound:

"Never was the annihilation of a people more complete than that of the Morisco-Spaniards. Where are they? Ask the shores of Barbary and its desert places. The exiled remnant of their once powerful empire disappeared among the barbarians of Africa, and ceased to be a nation. They have not even left a distinct name behind them, though for nearly eight centuries they were a distinct people. The land of their adoption (Spain), and of their occupation for ages, refuses to acknowledge them, except as invaders and usurpers. A few broken monuments are all that remain to bear witness to their power and dominion, as solitary rocks, left far in the interior, bear testimony to the extent of some vast inundation. Such is the Alhambra—a Moslem pile in the midst of a Christian Land; an Oriental palace amidst the Gothic edifices of the West; an elegant memento of a brave, intelligent, and graceful people, who conquered, rule, flourished and passed away." No one can write better than that.

Washington Irving came home to America. He wrote about the West. Oh yes, his Christopher Columbus is still a timely book. He continued to write about New York, Knickerbocker himself. When I first read Irving I could not believe one author could have been so informed so aware of the past and the present. I envied his learning, his cast of characters (like Shakespeare's), his plots, his irony, his satire, his fear and trembling on a lonely road in a terrible storm with a Calvinist God turned the other way. It took me a while to understand why his bound volumes disappeared from home libraries. How much we miss, not reading him. For example, this passage from one of his stories:

"How many bright eyes grow dim—how many soft cheeks grow pale—how many lovely forms fade away into the tomb, and none can tell the cause that blighted their loveliness? As the dove will clasp its wings to its side, and cover and conceal the arrow that is preying on its vitals, so is it the nature of woman to hide from the world the pangs of wounded affection. The love of a delicate female is always shy and silent. Even when fortunate, she scarcely breathes it to herself; but when otherwise, she buries it in the recesses of her bosom, and there lets it cower and brood among the ruins of her peace. With her the desire of the heart has failed. . . ."

We need quote no more. His attainment is obvious. It is for us to read him again. We should visit his simple graveside in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery in North Tarrytown, near the Hudson River, at its most majestic. Simple and majestic, so are the writings of Washington Irving. Why do we not read America's first great writer?

Art Work on Display At Public Library

Currently on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library are the works of Mrs. Bebe Sumliner, a New York artist.

Mrs. Sumliner began painting 15 years ago when her husband, Bernard bought her oils and an easel as a holiday gift. She has since studied with Dori Marder, Harry Shoulberg, whose works are in the permanent collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and Evelyn Eisgrau, a member of Artists Equity. Presently she attends classes with Myron Heise at the Educational Alliance in New York City.

Mrs. Sumliner, who works exclusively with oils, exhibited at the Belleville Library in 1975 with her mother, Essie Cohen, and her niece, Pamela Cohen, in a Mother, Daughter, Granddaughter Exhibit at the library. Mrs. Sumliner enjoys painting a wide variety of subjects: Elegance, The Bazaar, Autumn, Bolivia, Walking With Grace, Susie, Stormy Sky, Market Place, Simon, Yellow Flowers, Selling, In Thought, The Little Dancer, The Mother, The Buyers, Grape Vender, The Rabbi and In Bed, and, in most instances, uses the human form in her works.

Some of her art work on display includes: Windswept, Sky, Ballerina,

School 10 Kids Build a City

The "Future City" exhibit in Miss Brenda Albanese's class at Number 10 School focuses on the way of life in the year 3,000. This display features a projection of how houses, public buildings, transportation, and the government may appear in the years to come. All children were involved in gathering information, creative writing, discussions, creative thinking, and written and oral reports. Different committees formulated the laws for the city which are displayed on a classroom bulletin board. Moreover, all subjects were integrated to provide a most interesting and unique learning experience.

D'Agostino Seeking Re-election to Board

with business and corporations throughout the community. I know the local chamber of commerce is moving in that direction, but I would like to see a program like that receive a bigger push. We truly need to develop strong ties with businesses in our area."

D'Agostino says he would also like to see some expansion at the high school, particularly in the gym, cafeteria and special education classrooms.

"I have a very sensitive concern for the special education situation at the high school," D'Agostino said. "I believe we are doing an excellent job with the special ed program on an elementary grade level, but at the high school, I would like to see the classroom there expanded. I also am concerned with the wrestlers practicing in the cafeteria, instead of the gym. I again believe there is a need to expand in both the cafeteria and gymnasium."

But for D'Agostino, his biggest concern is the future and how the students in the Belleville school system will be prepared for it.

"With the 21st century coming, a vast amount of technological knowledge which our children will have to deal with," D'Agostino said. "I want to make sure that they are prepared to deal with the computer age we are coming into. But in order for that to be possible, Belleville will have to jump on the stick now. We cannot afford to wait any longer."

D'Agostino points to revising and updating curriculum guides as one of the keys in keeping Belleville students on course with the rising technology we are now starting to experience.

"I am very happy with the process the board has made in the areas of testing, but I feel more can be done with updating and improving curriculum guide. I would suggest a year-round committee which could look into and continuously deal with the problems at hand."

D'Agostino is currently assistant superintendent of elementary program with the Newark school system, and is one of the very few who have the distinguished pleasure of serving as both an administrator and School Board trustee. He has two children presently in the Belleville school system and two sons, now in college, who are graduates of Belleville High School.

Local hero injured after fighting mugger

Pathmark and prepared to load their groceries in the car.

"Somebody suddenly bumped me from behind then took my wife's purse and ran off," said the 64-year-old man who asked not to be identified.

"I tried to chase him, but he was a young guy and too fast for me," the Newark man continued.

To his surprise, he noticed a group of neighborhood people saw his plight and joined in the chase.

"It was just wonderful the way they got involved. There must have been at least 10 of them," said the victim, adding that a passing van aided the chase by blocking the road on Heckel Street so the suspect could not pass.

By the time the Newark gentleman reached the corner of Heckel and Davenport Streets, several citizens had recovered his wife's purse and were holding the suspect until police arrived moments later.

"Nothing was taken and we were very grateful for all the help we received," said the Newarker. "It just proves what people can do if they care enough about their neighborhood to get involved."

The main hero of the tale, though, was Frank Derbin who told The Times his story last week from Clara Maass Hospital where he was taken after the Monday incident.

A Wallace Street resident, Derbin was visiting relatives on Heckel Street that afternoon when he witnessed the chase.

"I felt sorry for the lady and I went after the guy," he said. "If that was my mother, I'd want someone to help her."

Derbin said the fleeing man dropped the purse in his haste. "I picked it up, but decided I'd try to get him too," he added.

Derbin said several blocks later

Mike Lamberti's

Buc Shots

Sports editor

They are probably best described as the coaches behind the scenes. They do unbelievably good work, but rarely received much recognition for their work. Still, they are the main reasons for the success that has been achieved on the varsity levels.

Rocco Colucci and Debbie Meola certainly fill this bill. The jayvee coaches for the boys and girls team respectively, they have been doing a super job and have earned the respect and admiration of their players.

Colucci has been with the Belleville basketball program since the 1980-82 season. He follows another crazy jayvee coach, Hank Adamowski, who now is running a successful business. Colucci was graduated from Essex Catholic High School where he was a star basketball player. After attending college, Colucci accepted the assistant coaching job at Belleville and to talk to Joe Papasidero the head coach, you couldn't find a better man for the job.

"He does a great job for me, I can't say enough for his dedication towards his job. He wants to win real bad and gives his kids a lot of encouragement. I just can't say enough about him."

A big fan of the "Honeymooners" television series back in the 1950's, Colucci is a comical type, a guy who can keep you laughing and take even the most critical, tense situation and keep the entire team loose.

However, Colucci is also an intense competitor from the word go. A case in point was the Belleville-Kennedy game played earlier this season at Kennedy High. Papasidero was confined to bed with a high fever and Colucci had to coach the jayvee and varsity teams that night. The varsity didn't have a good evening against Kennedy, losing by a wide margin.

"Rocco called me after the game," Papasidero said later on. "He could hardly talk, he was so drained. He felt that he let the program and the team down. I told him that was ridiculous, that the circumstances, were rather difficult."

While Colucci took the defeat to heart, he didn't stop trying and has developed into a very sharp coach. "He's helped me a lot," said Papasidero. "He's showed me a lot with his awareness and heads up coaching. Having a guy like that in our program certainly is a plus for us."

His players, in a word, love him. Ray Kimble, a four year member of the varsity team, once called him "Father Carmine," a reference to the "Rocky" character in the famous movie. The nickname has stayed ever since. Papasidero likes to call him "Norton," a reference of course, to Ed Norton of the Honeymooners. In essence, Rocco is a popular man, a guy everyone can like and respect.

Finally, Colucci is a 12 month coach. After the end of the 1981-82 season, Colucci, Papasidero and myself attended the NIT championship game at Madison Square Garden. While the fans were going crazy in the stands, Papasidero and Colucci were diagramming plays on the back of a popcorn box for the following season. Dedication, an attribute that any coach should work for, is certainly an attribute that Rocco Colucci should be known for.

Debbie Meola has been a part of the sports scene for well over a decade. Meola attended Belleville High School, was graduated in 1972 and then went to Kean College, earning a bachelors degree in science. She then returned to her alma mater in 1976, taking the assistant coaching job, under her old coach, Karen Fucello.

Meola played on the first girls basketball program back in the early 70's. Fucello was the coach back then and today the two of them have combined to make the Belleville girls basketball team, one of the best in the area.

Meola's jayvee teams have been incredible. She has had but one losing season over a seven year stretch and has developed some impressive talent along the way. Name like Gundry, Apicella, De Aquino, Ritacco, Salerno, Leonidis and Brooks have been tutored under the Meola regime and have gone on to some pretty impressive varsity careers.

Like Colucci, Meola is also respected by her teammates and is a very dedicated coach. She also is the queen of the one lines. If your ever down and need a funny line or two to renew faith, don't call dial a joke, call Debbie Meola instead.

"She's been so loyal to the program," Fucello said. "She's a motivator, a confident and as far as I'm concerned, one of the best trainers in this state."

Indeed, Meola does an outstanding job as the team trainer. Debbie recently achieved a masters degree in physical education and does a marvelous job in taping the players and taking care of their ailments. "Her taping has been commended by some orthopedists," Fucello said.

"She's a very supportive person. Debbie started many of the kids in basketball when she was an elementary school teacher. She's a graduate of Belleville and its always nice to see the graduates of this school come back and return what they feel the school once gave them."

Meola and Colucci are two of the youngest, brightest coaches this school has. The future success of the sporting program certainly depends on people like these. Let's hope we have them in our corner for many years to come.

The Belleville freshman wrestling team added another notch to its crowded belt by capturing the Passaic Valley tournament two weeks ago.

The Buccaneers captured the tourney over eight teams, an amazing feat considering they took only nine wrestlers to the tournament.

At 115 pounds, Mike Iacona won a first place medal, pinning his way through the tourney. Second place medals were awarded to Time Buckley at 92 pounds, Sean Mulcahey at 158 and Mark Minichini at the 170 pound slot. Third place went to John Gabriel at 108 pounds.

Jamie Jerez, who captured first place in the Kearny wrestling tournament, could not wrestle due to a rib injury. All in all, Dennis Villan's team did a superb job, winning three tournaments, capturing the NNJIL conference and posting an undefeated season.

On a much happier note, a special hello to former BHS star Barbara Gundry. The reason why I'm being so nice to her is that her favorite team, the Philadelphia 76ers, lost to the Boston Celtics last weekend. Get used to it Barb, come playoff time, that will become a way of life.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week goes to John Borrello on his fine game against Weequahic High School last week in the state tournament. Borrello scored 14 points and did a nice job handling the tough Weequahic press.

The "B.T. Top 10" for this week is: Louisville, Houston, UCLA, Kentucky, North Carolina, UNLV, Missouri, Memphis State, St. John's and Virginia.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, which team won the 1978 Essex County boys basketball tourney, and whom did that team defeat. The answer: Valley stopped Shabazz.

For this weeks quiz, name the four teams in last years NCAA final four.

Finally, we'll look at the state basketball tourney for boys and girls next week.

Girl Hoopsters Advance In State Tourney Action

By Mike Lamberti

Dina De Aquino scored a career high 26 points and pulled down 15 rebounds as Belleville whipped Elizabeth, 82-63 in first round action at the Group IV, Section II playoffs. The victory boosted Belleville's record to 20-6.

The girls were at the Dunn Center in Elizabeth for second round action against old nemesis Irvington last Tuesday. If the locals win that contest, they will play the Plainfield-Union winner for the Group IV, Section II title Saturday night at the Dunn Center. If the girls lost to Irvington, then their 1982-83 season will have been completed.

De Aquino was outstanding, scoring 16 points in the first half, 10 in the first quarter when Belleville jumped out to a 28-13 first quarter lead. "We were excellent in the first half," said Karen Fucello. "Our defense was a bit shaky, but when you run as much as we did in the first half, something has to lack. We did a good job and are looking for a tough game with Irvington."

Indeed, the girls had a struggle on their hands with the Campers. The two teams met in the consolation game of the Essex County Tournament two weeks ago, and Belleville came out a 55-42 loser. Last season, the girls were stopped by the Campers in the second round of the state tourney at Elizabeth, 46-42.

While De Aquino played her finest game of the 1982-83 season, a junior named Jennifer Apicella continued her marvelous scoring streak. Apicella tallied 44 points on the afternoon, popped home 26 in the first half and added 11 rebounds to her credit. For the season, Apicella has tallied 872 points and is shooting 78 percent from the foul line.

Grapplers Eliminated From State Tourney

By Dino Ibelli

The Regions proved the fine quality of wrestlers the Buccaneers had this season. No one will be going to the states, but Belleville had a couple of close ones at the Region II tournament held last week.

At 101 pounds Dom Cerreto took a third place medal by beating Mark Pitserski from Cliffside Park in overtime 3-2, but Cerreto lost in the semifinals to Tom Dunn of Lyndhurst 6-1 also in overtime. He ended his season at 22-3, but will be heard from before he graduates.

At 148 pounds James Meyler, who probably had the toughest weight class this Region, took fourth place, losing to state champ Guy Russo in the semifinals. Meyler ended his season at 15-8. Jim, who is only a junior, will be back next season.

The most exciting wrestler this season, Mike Gibbons, took a third in the Region tournament. Gibbons beat Scott Pyper of Kearny 8-3 in overtime to pick up the medal. He ended his sophomore season at 18-5-1.

Mike Giuffrida had a tough opening round to end his season at 15-5 along with Al Henry who came up short with a final 14-7 record. At heavyweight, Mike Murphy was also knocked out.

Belleville has not ended its wrestling season, but has proved that a young team can win.

Bellboys Dropped From States; Close Season With 11-16 Mark

It was a strange week of action for the Belleville boys' basketball team. The Bucs lost a game they were supposed to win, won a game they were supposed to lose, then stayed nip and tuck with a team they had no right staying close with.

The result to all this was one victory, two defeats and an end to the 1982-83 season, a campaign which saw the Bucs finish with a very strong 11-16 mark.

Next week The Times will review the Bucs season.

The locals started the hectic week with a tough 56-49 loss to arch rival Nutley. It was a game that Joe Papasidero and company were hoping to win, so it was no surprise that the coach was a little teed off following the contest. "We played a pretty good defense, but Nutley was hitting at a high percentage. What I'm upset about was our offense, it was non-existent."

Phil Colalillo tallied 21 points and Dave Grant hit for nine, but the Buccaneers never seemed to get on track on the offensive end of things. Nutley jumped out to a 14-12 lead after one quarter before Belleville rallied to tie things at 26 for intermission.

The Raiders pulled away in the third quarter, outscoring the Bucs, 12-8 and then hit some crucial free throws down the stretch to win going away.

In addition to Colalillo and Grant, senior Mike DiStasi, the forgotten man of this year's team, hit for eight key points down the stretch. John Healy hit for seven and John Borrello closed the scoring with a field goal.

The following day, Belleville traveled to University High School in the heart of Newark to battle Weequahic in first round action of the Group IV, Section II tournament. Weequahic came in with a 12-9 mark, possessed a 6-6 center and 6-5 forward, and a group of sky writers that figured to give Belleville a rough afternoon.

It was a tough ball game, with Weequahic the taller and quicker ball club. However, Belleville was the more determined and hit the crucial shots down the stretch. The result: Belleville stunned the fifth seeded team in the section, 56-54 and earned the right to advance to Plainfield for the second round.

There were many heroes. Colalillo hit for 23 points and John Borrello played a phenomenal game, scoring 14 points and keeping Weequahic off guard all afternoon. Healy finished with nine points, Grant tallied eight and Joe Borrello scored two.

The Buccaneers jumped out to an 18-12 lead after one quarter and were up by seven points, 31-24 at intermission. The Newark school chipped away in the second half, coming as close as one point late in the fourth quarter, before Belleville pulled away to a big victory.

The win was the first for the boys' basketball team in state tournament play since March of 1975 when Belleville traveled to Union and won, 50-48.

"Our kids did a super job," praised Papasidero. "We went down there and did a job against a bigger club. Phil (Colalillo) was super and Johnny (Borrello) was the key. Weequahic automatically doubled up on Phil, so when John started scoring, they had to respect him as well. That helped open up our offense even more."

Last Friday, the Bucs went to Plainfield to battle the state's 15th ranked club. Plainfield was a finalist in the sectional championships last year and fielded a very strong ball club this year. After the first quarter and early stages of the second, it appeared the Cardinals were on their way to an easy victory.

The home team jumped out to a 13-5 lead after one and boosted the margin to 19-5 early in the second. Suddenly, Belleville decided to play with the Cardinals, not be in awe of them, and the results were eye opening. The Buccaneers cut the 14-point deficit to eight at halftime (31-23) and trailed by just six, 49-42 after three full quarters.

The fourth frame started off where the third left off. Belleville continued to chip away at the Cardinal advantage, and with 5:00 left in the game, trailed 55-51. Plainfield called time

After grabbing the big lead in the first quarter, Belleville extended the margin to 47-30 at halftime. The scoreboard read 62-42 after three and Belleville coasted in to its 20th victory of the season, 82-63.

The 20 victories also marks the first time that a Belleville girls' basketball team has reached that milestone. "We've been close the last couple of years," said Fucello referring to the 20 victory plateau. "It was a nice win, we're looking forward to the next game."

NET NOTES: De Aquino now averaging 12.7 ppg and hitting 59 percent from the foul line. Donna Brooks third in scoring with a 5.5 average. The last time Belleville defeated Irvington was late in the 1980 season. Apicella has 2,114 career points, De Aquino gunning for 1,000 by late next season.

Applications available for Rec sports activities

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced that applications for all recreation baseball and softball leagues for Belleville children ages 8 through 15 are now available in each public and parochial school, as well as at the Recreation House.

Children who are 8 years old before August 1, 1983 and who will not be 13 before July 31, 1983 are eligible for organized baseball in either the Peanut, Junior or Little Leagues.

Those children wishing to try out for Little League must completely fill out their applications and return them to their schools by March 4, 1983. Those preferring to play in either the Peanut or Junior Leagues must completely fill out their applications and return them in person at 407 Joralemon St. before March 18, 1983 with their birth certificates.

Applications for girls' softball and senior/intermediate baseball are also available. Girls 8 years old on August 1, 1983 and whose 10th birthday falls after July 31, 1983 are eligible for Pee Wee League softball; girls 10 years old on August 1, 1983 and whose 13th birthday falls after July 31, 1983 are eligible for Pigtail League softball; and girls 13 years old on August 1, 1983 and whose 16th birthday falls after July 31, 1983 are eligible for Junior League softball. High school freshman or jayvee team players are not eligible, however. All applications must be returned to the Rec House with birth certificates by Friday, March 18, 1983.

Boys ages 13 through 15 on July 31, 1983 are eligible for Intermediate or Senior League baseball. All applications must be returned with birth certificates to the Rec House by March 18, 1983. Boys who are playing organized high school ball are not eligible, however.

In all cases, the applications must be completed in full and signed by a parent, and all returning players must re-apply. Applications accepted after the March 18 deadline will be considered late and will be treated accordingly. The Rec House hours for baseball-softball registration are Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.-noon and 1 p.m.-4 p.m. The office will also be open one night a week for registration — call 759-3121 for time and day.

out, and Belleville apparently had the momentum.

"We had them wondering," said Papasidero. "Afterwards, their entire coaching staff praised our program. They were very impressed with our showing. They said we were the best prepared team they've faced all year long."

The Cards went on a 13-point streak following the time out, boosting the lead to 68-51 and assuring themselves of a victory after it seemed that Belleville was going to pull the upset of the year.

BHS Jayvee Grapplers Finish With 12-0 Mark

By Dino Ibelli

The Belleville jayvee wrestling team took the NNJIL title with a 12-0 record. Coached by Joe Nisivoicic, they also took the JV Kearny Tournament. In that tournament nine men wrestled and all of them came home with medals.

At 101 freshman Dennis Ives took over the reins. At 108 pounds Conrad Hahn was man. A little more experience will help these wrestlers for their future.

At 115 pounds Vinnie Padula had a fine season picking up a gold medal in Kearny. Vinnie, only a sophomore, should see action on the varsity level.

At 122 pounds Darren Sneddon was undefeated and also picked up a gold medal. Darren should see some action next season. Mike Siletti also wrestled in this weight class.

At 129 pounds Luke Siletti posted an undefeated mark, taking the Kearny Tournament and taking a second in the prestigious North Bergen Tournament. Luke will see some action next season.

At 135 pounds Sam Zamloot posted a 4-1 mark and Ralph Zarro had a record of 10-1. Zarro took a third in the Kearny Tournament. He also wrestled 141 while Danny Cifelli

The final count was 76-58, but anyone who attended the game will tell you it was a lot closer than that.

Colalillo finished his junior season with 23 points and Healy finished his varsity career with 11 points. Joe Borrello had seven points, Grant played another strong game hitting for six, junior Danny Ward scored seven points and played a phenomenal game. DiStasi scored two points and John Borrello scored two. Borrello missed the last three quarters of the game with a shoulder injury.

recovered from an illness.

Jimmy Racanelli did most of the work at 141 and 148 pounds. Jimmy took the Kearny Tournament. He also had a few matches at 158 pounds. Jimmy should fit well into the lineup next season.

Probably the best jayvee wrestler in the state came in half way through the season. Carmen Cerreto was undefeated and took both tournaments. Carmen has had an injury prone career but will have a fine year next season.

At 158 pounds, Eric Arvidson took the Kearny Tournament with an 8-2 record. Eric also wrestled a couple of varsity matches early in the year.

At 170 pounds, Jamie Lijo took the Kearny Tournament and placed a third in the rugged North Bergen Tournament. Lijo had a 14-2 record with a couple of varsity matches.

At 188 pounds, Tim Daudelin had a fine season taking a fourth in the North Bergen Tournament and a first in Kearny. Daudelin also saw some varsity action early.

At heavyweight, Anthony Capaccio wrestled losing only twice. Capaccio took a fourth in the North Bergen Tournament. He also wrestled in the varsity lineup earlier in the year.

According to Main Events promoter Dan Duva of Totowa, N.J., WBA junior welterweight champion Aaron Pryor of Cincinnati and Alexis Arguello, native of Nicaragua, now of Florida, have verbally agreed to rematch this summer. Pryor stopped Arguello in 14 rounds, November, 1982, in a terrific punch-for-punch duel in Miami that was voted "Fight of the Year." Arguello, 30, has held titles in the featherweight, junior lightweight and lightweight divisions and will again bid for an unprecedented fourth division title. Arguello surrendered the lightweight title last week because he can no longer make the 135-pound requirement.

Former world featherweight champion Will Pep (Guglielmo Papleo) was born in Middletown, Conn., Sept. 19, 1922. Pep, known as the "Will o' Wisp" fought from July 3, 1940 to March 16, 1966. He was a cutie and knew every trick of the boxing trade. Pep engaged in 241 bouts, won 229, lost 11 and fought one draw. He is now promoting monthly boxing cards in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

It's difficult to believe European heavyweight champion Lucien Rodriguez of France would jeopardize a big moolah world title shot against WBC titleholder Larry Holmes or WBA counterpart Michael Dokes and defend his European title against Joe Bugner of England. There's little doubt Rodriguez wouldn't take Bugner, but, there is always that chance of a cut or other injury.

Michael Dokes and Mike Weaver rematch for the WBA end of the heavyweight crown is heading for Reno, Nev., probably on April 22. Canadian heavyweight Trevor Berbick and Renaldo Snipes of White Plains, N.Y., will go in the semi-windup. Snipes is among others being mentioned for a May go at WBC Larry Holmes. Scott Frank and Louis Rodriguez are also in the running for a shot at Holmes' crown. In the meantime Berbick has been approached by promoters to glove duel with countryman Gordy Racette. It would be a Canadian titular rematch.

Almost overnight, Joe Verne has become a big-time, successful boxing promoter. Up until recently, Joe, 35, was content to promote small-club fights and not make a fuss about it. Today, people are still talking about the exciting Jan. 27 fight card that packed over 3,000 fans into Philadelphia's Golden Eagle Arena, featuring the pro debut of Joey Giardello, Jr. Verne was always a fight fan, but had been busy operating the family's wholesale furniture distributor business, since 1965. He is now president of the multi-million dollar business known as Home Line Industries, Inc., but he leaves the day-to-day operations to brother Lewis, 34, who is executive vice president. His father, Charles (Chuck), age 63, is also in the business. Joe Verne has a tie-in with Joe Frazier's stable of fighters. This connection gives Verne promotional rights to all of Frazier's fighters. Chuck will co-manage with Frazier, the pugilists.

When Roger Mayweather defeated WBA junior lightweight king Samuel Serrano of Puerto Rico, he became the first to dethrone a titleholder in 1983. Mayweather chalked up his 15th straight win by KOing Serrano in the eighth round at San Juan, P.R.

I may be wrong, but — Unbeaten lightweight Jimmy Paul of Detroit's Kronk Gym Gang is heading for a big build up by the TV pundits. Paul has an impressive diary of 13 for 13, all by knockouts against formidable opponents.

World Boxing Association (WBA) light heavyweight champion Michael Spinks of Philadelphia, who has trained for all his previous title-fights at upstate New York pulled a switcheroo. Spinks went down to Florida to sharpen his sights for the glove duel with World Boxing Council (WBC) titleholder Dwight Braxton of Camden, N.J. at the Atlantic City Convention Hall on March 18.

Two popular New Jersey fight managers, Lou Duva of Totowa and Lenny Shaw of North Haledon, are reported to have joined forces. Duva and Shaw combined will have control of the largest collection of outstanding fighters in the State of New Jersey. The fighters will train at the Americana Hotel, Great Gorge, Mc Afee, N.J. Trainer Georgie Benton is expected to handle Duva's fighters, while Don Turner will oversee Shaw's stable of youngsters.

Stars, Netters Lead Volleyball Standings

There were just two "A" Division games this week in the Recreation Women's Volleyball League. The Misfits forfeited to the Shooting Stars and De Bacco received a bye to wrap up Division "B" play.

The first match of the evening pitted the Set-Ups against the Jammers and it was full of excitement. Pat Scheible had a fine night as her team defeated the Jammers in three sets 15-11, 16-14, 18-16. Connie Guarino made some great plays for the Jammers but the effort wasn't enough.

In the second match of the evening, the Netters, led by Pat O'Brian, defeated the Fragiles 15-4, 15-9. The Fragiles' Lucille Priolo played a good match despite the losing effort.

The standings are as follows:

"A" Division
Netters	7-1
Set-Ups	4-4
Jammers	4-4
Fragiles	1-7
"B" Division
Shooting Stars	7-1
De Bacco	5-3
Misfits	3-5

Rec Basketball League Involved in Playoffs

Senior Boys'

This week in the Senior Boys' Basketball League finals, Walker Transport defeated the Hollywood Knights 36-31 in triple overtime.

Joe DeFeo sent the game into overtime with one second left on the clock, tying the game 25-25. Donald Brooks tied the game for Walker Transport to send it into the second overtime.

Walter Brooks was high scorer for Walker with 10. Robby Cancelliere was high for the Hollywood Knights with 14.

Men's League

This week in the Men's Basketball League playoffs, Tobler defeated Freas & Pat's 67-65. Marty Higgins was high scorer for Tobler with 20. Joe Liloia also had 15. Vinnie Chianca scored 21 points for Freas & Pat's.

The Knicks rolled over Suburban Cablevision 112-51. Jeff Smedburg scored 56 points for the Knicks, Gary Mascitelli also had 10 points. Ron Pennetti was high scorer for Suburban Cablevision with 25 points, Dennis Buckley also scored 15 points.

Santini's Pizzeria defeated Harry Anderson, Inc. 79-60. Joe Zangari was high scorer for Santini's with 20 points. Donald Roll also scored 15

Little League Tryouts Set

The Belleville Little League will hold their tryouts on the following nights at the Belleville Senior High School Gym, 100 Passaic Ave., Belleville: Monday, March 14 and Monday, March 21 at 6:30 p.m.

Outdoor tryouts will be held at Clearman Field on Saturday, March 26, at 10 a.m. All youngsters are required to have a glove and also to wear sneakers.

Division III Squad Gains Third Place

Belleville Division III finished the 1983 Northern Counties Tournament at Rockland College at 3-2-1 for third place. A tough 3-3 tie in the sixth week kept Belleville Soccer Association from the finals.

The defense with Peter Hywell in goal, Jim Dunphy, Stan Freile and Gus Lijo at fullback, allowed the least goals against in the Division, only eight for a 1.33 GA average.

Offensively Lou Lucante (three goals, two assists), Tom Morris (three goals, one assist), Keith Woods (two goals, five assists), Jim Dunphy (two goals, two assists), Joe Charfar (two goals) and Vince Morello (one goal) were leaders for this fine team. We will hear more good things when this team starts its outdoor season this spring.

At Wayne PAL tournament the Belleville Flash, sponsored by Casa Polizzi, chandelier, and Pro Lumber, continued its winning ways with a 3-1 win over sports friends.

With Rich pretto in goal, stopping strong shots by sports friends, the game was played well and dominated by BSA. Joey Salamanca played a strong defensive game.

Goals by Mike Alfano, unassisted, Doug Phelps from Alfano, and Mike Capasso from Richie Quine kept the Flash where they belong, on top with a 3-1-1 record.

The Belleville Kings remain undefeated at Bergenfield. This week the victims were Tenaflly. The Kings scoring was done by Alex Araya (four), Mike Peloso (three), Walter Capazucca (two), Steve Hywell, Oscar Valeira, and Jose Tabarez one each.

Total Hair and Skin Care Is Available at 'Synergy'

Beauty in the '80s encompasses more than a stylish haircut and surface application makeup, say Gary and Bernadette Zupan of Synergy on Valley Road, Upper Montclair.

"Today it is knowledge of total hair and skin care for men and women," say the couple. "This is our ideology and this is what sets our shop apart from mainstream hair salons. Our haircuts and services offer more than just shorter hair—anyone can shorten hair."

The Zupans say that when a new client walks in, the total person is taken into consideration. What does the present hairstyle look like? Does it require maximum or minimum care? What kind of clothing does the client wear, high fashion or traditional conservative?

Synergy services are primarily haircutting, perms and haircoloring. Extensions of the unpretentious salon are manicuring, waxing, facials and makeup consultations.

"We strive for versatility in hair-cutting," says Bernadette. "We provide more than a geometric precision haircut. We listen to what clients say. We are not scissor-happy and we're consistent in our work from visit to visit." Adds Gary: "We like our customers to feel they pay for what is left on their heads, not what is on the floor."

Acknowledging a haircoloring "boom," particularly in the 25-45 age group, Gary says that colorists "are not taking the time to research the products they use. They are using products that have been around years. New products are out that are more effective, leaving the hair a lot nicer, with truer tones and longer lasting color."

"I guess what we are trying to say," says Bernadette, "is that if you are looking for a change in hair style or skin care but do want an intimidating atmosphere, then we invite you to Synergy because we make people feel comfortable while providing the best services."

A Spirited New Approach to Decorating:

SCHUMACHER

Designed by JACK PRINCE
WAVERLY

Join in the Aerobic movement and discover the wallcoverings that dance!
There are contemporary prints — with a country flair. Soft pastels — and dramatic geometrics. Neutrals — and striking brights. And they're all original designs by Jack Prince, printed on scrubbable, strippable, pre-pasted, pre-trimmed, vinyl-coated wallcoverings that couldn't be easier to care for.

Coordinate your Aerobics with correlating fabrics specially designed to mix and match. Even kitchen accessories and comforters are available. The decorating possibilities are endless. And the price is just Fabulous!

Comedy group coming to 'Peppercorn's'

The Broadway Local, a New York City improvisational comedy group, will give a special St.
Patrick's Day show March 17 at Peppercorn's Restaurant, 13
Herman St., Glen Ridge.

Peppercorn's, Glen Ridge's first dining restaurant and specializing in continental cuisine, is owned by Conrad and Sharyn Bennett of Glen Ridge.

The Broadway Local, which appears regularly at the Improvisation in New York, has been acclaimed by Stiller and Meara, Monteith and Rand and Joey Adams. The group has appeared at the Manhattan

Playboy Club, the Chelsea West Side and Manhattan Punch Line Theatres and the West Bank Cafe. The performers are George Wilson, Michael King, Dom Irrera, Lisa Mende and Montclair resident Mary Thompson
Hunt. Musical director is Sue Anderson who conducted "Pirates of Penzance" on Broadway.

Dinner at Peppercorn's on St.
Patrick's Day will be served between 5 and 8 p.m. and the show begins at 9 p.m. Cost per couple is $35. Dinner will include salad, choice of entree, coffee and dessert.

Smart 3-piece suit by St. John's from the beautiful collection of hand-loomed knits available at ALEX, 620 Valley Road, Upper Montclair, New Jersey 07043. 201/746-4800. Mon.-Sat. 9-5:30.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Oh Holy Spirit, thou who art all knowing, who brighten every path that I may reach my idea, thou who givest me this divine gift of forgiving and forgetting wrongs done unto me and who in every instant of my life art with me, I'd like in this short dialogue to affirm my gratitude for all your blessings and I affirm once again that I never want to part from thee though the illusion of material things abound.
My desire is to be with thee and all my loved ones in perpetual grace. Thank you for your mercy on me and mine. (Persons should pray 2 consecutive days without revealing petition. Within three days grace will be attained regardless of how difficult the petition may be.)
Publish this prayer, once grace is attained.
Grateful for grace attained D.B.

CMHS hotline

Dear CMHS:

I am the mother of three children, two girls ages 11 and 13 and a boy age 8. My oldest daughter has been giving me a lot of trouble lately. She and I have had several fights concerning her curfew, her tight jeans, etc. I am worried that she is falling in with the wrong crowd and might be exposed to drinking and drugs. She also wants to go out with boys and I feel she is too young. My 11-year-old looks up to her and wants to do everything the same as her sister. How can I effectively deal with my teenage daughter?

A Worried Mother

Dear Worried Mother:

I can certainly understand your concern for both of your daughters. I am sure that you want to guide your children and do what is right in order to prepare them for adulthood. Your 13-year-old sounds as if she is experiencing growing pains. It is normal for girls her age to raise questions concerning make-up, clothes and boys. At 13 your daughter is moving into adolescence and struggling to find her own place. It is important for you as a parent to recognize her needs as a growing young woman, while at the same time establishing rules appropriate for her age and offering guidance to help her in decision making. Other mothers in your daughter's class are certainly experiencing the same concerns. Would it be possible for you to speak with some of them? Perhaps you also have friends with children the same age. If there is another parent in the home, it's important for you to openly discuss this with him. The two of you would need to agree to clearly follow one set of rules and regulations.

Adolescence is a difficult time for both parents and children. A firm yet kind hand during this stage of your daughter's growth will be mutually beneficial.

Baltimore heavyweight George Chaplin won on a foul-disqualification at 2:41 of the 9th round over former title contender Ernie Shaver of Warren, Ohio, Tuesday, in Baltimore. Referee Harry Cecchini stopped the one-sided bout after warning Shavers for blows below the border in the 3rd and twice in the 9th round. The washed-up, 38-year-old Shavers was badly beaten as his record fell to 67-15. He was well behind on points and lost every round to the 30-year-old Chaplin. Chaplin raised his record to 18-15-2.

Davey Moore of New York will defend his WBA junior middleweight title against Roberto Duran of Panama and Ray Mancini of Youngstown, Ohio, will defend his WBA lightweight crown against Kenny Bogner of Trenton, N.J. at the 7,000-seat Sun City Superbowl in Bophuthalswana, South Africa, promoter Bob Arum announced. The championship doubleheader is to be held on May 27. Arum added a live 30-minute concert by Frank Sinatra will also be featured.

The best fight on the Feb. 4 card at the Centrum in Worcester, Mass. was between Danny Long of South Boston and Mark Mainiero of East Boston. Long copped a 10-round decision to win the New England Junior Middleweight title. The main bout, Marvin Hagler-Tony Sibson middleweight championship fight received all the media coverage.

We may see a unification of the heavyweight titles soon; WBC titleholder, Larry Holmes, had said it would never happen. He claims if he fought and lost to WBA champ, Michael Dokes, the fans would say he was passing his title to a chosen successor. Holmes and Dokes are promoted/managed by Don King (King's son, Carl, is the front-man, listed as manager). And it is Don King who is pushing for the unification matchup. I agree with Holmes, "The aroma from such a bout would not be good for boxing."

World middleweight champion Marvin Hagler was honored by the State of Massachusetts, Thursday, at a packed chambers of the senate. Hagler was given a standing ovation as he made his way to the dais after being introduced by Sen. Royal Bolling, Sr. He was presented proclamations from Gov. Michael Dukakis and Senator President William Bugler. As Hagler departed the chambers, signing autographs or posing for pictures with legislators, their aides and other statehouse employees, he was again given a standing ovation. Hagler was introduced as a native of Brockton, Mass. According to Webster's Dictionary, "Native: Belonging to a particular place by birth." Marvin was born in Newark, N.J., May 23, 1952.
