Water Rates On the Rise In Township

Local water rates will increase by more than 50 percent beginning July 1, as result of a measure approved by the Board of Commissioners this week.

In a 4-0 unanimous vote Monday night, officials amended the water service ordinance blaming increases on rate hikes from the township's water supplier and anticipated losses of major local customers which must be offset.

The new rates for metered water service are as follows: minimum quarterly rates not exceeding 1,000 cubic feet, $10; first 50,000 cubic feet, $10 per thousand cubic feet, up from $6.50 per thousand; from 50,000 to 300,000 cubic feet, $8.40 per thousand cubic feet, up from $4.90; and 300,000 cubic feet and over, $7.10 per thousand cubic feet.

The amendment also supersedes all other inconsistent rates and repeals 10 subsections of the original ordinances among them: rates for quarterly users-monthly, unmetered water services, kitchen boilers, rates for builders and masons, miscellaneous uses, water hose uses, and non-profit hospital corporations.

According to Finance Commissioner Zinna, the township's water department, the township faces increases from its only water supplier, Newark Water Company.

McGreevy said the utility proposes to raise Belleville from $250 to $425 per million gallons. "We refuse to pay the new rates," McGreevy said after the meeting. He noted the township's contract with Newark Water Company expired "at least two years ago" and Belleville has continued to pay at the old rates. "The onus is on them in this one," he added.

The Commissioner said the utility has been billing Belleville at the new rates. (Please see 'Commissioners' on page 15.)

School Board Attorney Has Contract Renewed

Lawrence Schwartz, former president of the Belleville Board of Education, had his contract as the trustees' attorney renewed for the fourth consecutive year last Monday night by a vote of 5-2.

Schwartz was retained by the board for the 1983-84 school year at the cost of $10,000 — an increase of $2,500 from last year. The board also gave Schwartz an increase in hourly fee rate of $65 to $75 for matters dealing with negotiations, litigation, arbitration and grievance cases.

Voting against the increase was board Vice President Thomas Spillane and Trustee John DiStasi.

"I am quite upset over this contract," said Spillane in an interview this week. "I doubt that the board would entertain the idea of giving raises as high as this to full-time ad-

Variety Show Planned For Travers Fund

The Bobby Travers Leukemia Fund will be presenting The J.P. Dancers on Thursday, June 30 at Belleville High Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The J.P. ## Move Draws Both Criticism and Praise

Commissioners Add Third Deputy Police Chief to Staff

By Linda Telesco

Drawing both criticism and praise from citizens, Commissioners unanimously approved a measure Monday night to add the position of a third deputy police chief to the present force at a salary of $31,460.

According to Public Safety Director Matthew Pica, who sponsored the ordinance, the additional post will "put more men out on the street" in an effort to improve overall police coverage.

Presently, the police department has two deputy chiefs. The staff as set by the new same legislation includes: one police chief, three deputy chiefs, six captains, six police lieutenants, seven sergeants, and patrolmen in a number "to be determined by the necessity to properly provide police protection" in the township with a population of 35,000 on 3.3 square miles.

Pica explained that by putting the new deputy chief on desk duty during evening shifts, more high-ranking officers could go out on patrol.

When the measure was introduced June 6, Pica noted, "We have a captain lieutenant, and sergeant out at night. By making these changes in designation, we can get two more out on the road — one on each tour — without putting a whole new man on the force."

Meeting Set For Friday

Town Officials Seek To Sell Chemicals

By Linda Telesco

Declaring Belleville's toxic scare more firmly "under control," Township Attorney Frank Zinna announced plans Tuesday to seek disposal of the 1,006 containers housed on the Main Street premises of the Research Organic-Inorganic firm, the site of several toxic leaks last Month.

Following their regular township meeting, Commissioners met in executive session Monday night with officials of Peabody Clean Industries, the Linden chemical agency contracted by Belleville to perform the testing and cleanup of the Main Street facility, a food-flavoring manufacturing plant closed by a court order since leaks were discovered last month.

At the session, Zinna said Tuesday, municipal officials instructed Clean Industries to seek prospective buyers for the salable virgin chemicals at the plant. "About 40 percent of the 1,006 containers are sealed and Commissioners hope to sell them and realize some monies," Zinna said.

He noted prospective buyers would be permitted to examine the available materials beginning Tuesday. Additionally, Zinna said he will ask the owner of the closed business, through her attorney, to recommend possible buyers.

Citing double advantages to this arrangement, Zinna said the municipality might be able to obtain revenues from sales in order to "reimburse ourselves for what we have already expended."

Emergency response and subsequent professional aid in the matter, which began with the first toxic leak May 20, has already cost Belleville approximately $160,000 to $170,000 as of this week, Zinna estimated.

Earlier this month, Commissioners appropriated $250,000 in the municipal budget for the cleanup and hope to recover some of the monies through sales of the goods on site or through federal or state aid.

Another advantage of private sales is that the buyer will be responsible for removal of the purchased chemicals, relieving the municipality of still another costly step in ridding the Valley neighborhood of the chemical containers, a move delayed under advice from experts who performed extensive compatibility tests and grouping to avoid hazardous accidents by attempting to remove unidentified substances.

Zinna said officials will continue their meeting on Friday evening to formulate plans for removal of all the containers.

Belleville has maintained control.

Playground Program Is Starting On Monday

The Belleville Recreation Department's summer playground program will begin on next Monday, June 27.

Playground sites will be located at Schools 8 (Clearman Field), 9 and 10, at the Municipal Stadium, the Rec House, Fairway Park, the Friendly House and Kelly Field on William Street. The special education playground will be at the Belleville Little League Field beginning July 5.

The playgrounds will be open to all Belleville residents ages 6 through 17 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1-4 p.m., Monday through Friday until August 19.

A college director will be on hand at each playground to organize games, parties and other activities, and an arts and crafts supervisor will travel from site to site.

Learn-to-swim classes, tennis lessons and special tournaments will be held throughout the summer. The playground season will wind up with the Recreation Department's annual carnival, proceeds from which will go to charity.

Blood Bank On Tuesday

Once again it's time to donate your gift, a pint of blood.

The Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 will sponsor its annual blood bank at the Knights' hall, 94 Bridge St. on June 28 starting at 3 p.m. The Knights encourage members, their families and friends to join in this worthwhile endeavor, to help those who are in need of this life-giving gift that many can offer.

"Why not make this your first time in donating a pint of blood," said Gerard Hickey, chairman of the blood bank program. "Those who have given in the past, we invite you to give again. So many are in need of the gift only you can give."

The hours for the blood drive will be from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. The drive will be conducted through the North Jersey Blood Center, located in East Orange, which will set up the necessary equipment in the Knights' hall.

Former Past Grand Knight and Town Clerk Eugene "Cappy" Barnett was the founder and chairman of the blood bank for over 30 years. Further information can be obtained by calling 667-2363.

Good-bye BHS — There were a lot of happy and smiling faces at Municipal Stadium on Tuesday night as Belleville High School held its 86th annual commencement exercises. Look for pictures of the seniors' graduation, along with the Middle School graduation program, in next week's issue.

Move To Be Made During Summer

Tire Distributor Purchases Vacant Walter Kidde Plant

The 430,000-square-foot Walter Kidde plant, located on Main Street, has been sold to a tire distributor. The plant, which was sold by the Kislak Company, the state's oldest real estate organization, will be occupied by Max Finkelstein Son Inc., of Long Island City, N.Y., the largest distributors of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company products in the east. The firm intends to use a portion of the Kidde property for its Goodyear distribution business and plans to develop a portion of the 25-acre tract as an office and research center for other high quality industrial uses.

"We are very happy to see another company move right in and prevent the land from being vacated," said Mayor Michael Marotti. "But at the same time we are sorry to see Kidd leave. They have been very good to the town and we will miss them a lot. But the officials said it would be cheaper to make their products elsewhere and you cannot fault them for that."

"We are very concerned with the flow of ratables in the town and all the commissioners are thankful that someone will be picking up what Kidd left behind," he continued.

Kidde officials announced in March of 1982 that the plant would be closing its operation in Belleville and moving to newly constructed facilities in North Carolina, because of the high manufacturing cost here in Belleville.

Originally constructed in 1941, the property has been used continuously by Kidde for the past 42 years to manufacture fire extinguishers and allied equipment. During World War II and the Korean War, Kidde used the plant for additional high priority defense work under U.S. Government contracts.

The plant is of steel, brick and concrete block construction and provides heavy electric power, air compressors and rail service.

Finkelstein will continue to operate its other existing facilities in Astoria-Queens, N.Y., Westchester County and Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island. The Belleville purchase will mark the firm's expansion into New Jersey. The move will take place this summer.

Provident Savings Bank Promotes 3 Employees

Vincent Festa, Marcia Likely and Joan Richter have been promoted to assistant vice presidents of Provident Savings Bank, it was announced by Kenneth F.X. Albers, board chairman and chief executive officer.

Vincent Festa joined Provident in 1972 as a teller trainee. After serving as a customer service representative, he was promoted to assistant secretary and teller officer. Instrumental in the opening of six Provident offices in the Delaware Valley, he also managed a number of branches. Festa is currently a member of the Bloomfield/Provident Savings Bank merger support team. He is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking.

Marcia Likely joined Provident while attending New England College. Upon receiving a B.A. in business administration, she was assigned to the bank's proof department and later placed in charge. When named an assistant treasurer in 1977, she was assigned to the adult department and retail banking division. She is currently officer-in-charge of the remittance and transfer department.

Joan Richter commenced her banking career with Bloomfield Savings Bank as a teller trainee. After an initial assignment at the Brookdale office, she was appointed an assistant secretary, assistant manager and manager of the Ampere office. Soon after the Provident/Bloomfield merger, Richter was named assistant vice president and manager of the Brookdale office.

A body temperature of 98.6 degrees is more of an average than an absolute. Normal temperature for the human body varies considerably with age, sex and time of day. Infants and children, for instance, run an average normal temperature of about 99 degrees. Most elderly people, on the other hand, run an average normal temperature of 97 degrees. Women vary in normal temperature according to their menstrual cycle. Right after ovulation, a woman's temperature will usually rise a degree. Also, most people wake up in the morning with a body temperature that is lower than that with which they went to bed. Monitor your own temperature to find what is the normal reading for you.

Young Belleville Cutie Wins Contest As Little Orphan Annie Look-Alike

By Linda Tesesco

From comic strips to movie screens to the Broadway stage, Little Orphan Annie is one of America's enduring darlings.

One little Belleville girl has a special affection for the frizzy-haired character whose "hard knocks" life in a Depression era orphanage was transformed into one of luxury through the generosity of her rich benefactor, Daddy Warbucks.

Six-year-old Melissa Zabowski of Division Avenue was one of two winners in a recent "Annie Look-Alike Contest" held at Rutherford's William Carlos Williams Center for the Performing Arts.

"I was really happy I won. I love Annie," said Melissa who competed against 45 contestants ranging from ages of 2 to 12.

The daughter of Phillip and Eva Zabowski, Melissa chattered about her victory during a recent interview at her home, surrounded by her mother, 3-year old sister Erica, a pet cat Timmy, and two goldfish.

An exceptionally pretty child with her huge dark eyes and tousled brown curls, Melissa actually resembles the very young Shirley Temple but her mop top and optimistic charm are characteristic of the beloved cartoon orphan, who evolved into the subject of a hit Broadway play and its movie version.

"Everyone told us she would be a sure winner," said Eva who noted that a friend of the family informed them of the contest because he was certain Melissa had a good chance to grab the title.

"She really surprised us when she got up on the stage at the Center and sang 'Tomorrow,'" Eva said, referring to the most popular tune of the long-running "Annie" musical production.

Although singing was not required of the contestants, who were asked only to approach a microphone and introduce themselves, apparently someone overheard Melissa singing her favorite "Annie" songs outside before the contest and informed the judges who asked the little girl for a special performance.

"We'll never forget that moment," recalled the proud mother. "My husband says it was the high point of his life."

Eager to please, Melissa stood up, put on her recording of "Tomorrow" and sang along for The Times while cherubic Erica spun gaily around, a born dancer.

Fair, delicate, and elfin slim, Melissa is also a model and has appeared in catalogs for Spiegel's, McCalls, and Jamesway.

Her mother explained, "Ever since she was a baby, people told me Melissa should try modeling, but I never forced her because she was too bashful before."

Modeling for the past year, Melissa goes on her treks into Manhattan with her mother. "I am not a stage mother type. I tell her it's just for fun, help her to learn her part, and neither of us takes it too seriously," said Eva, a warm person who delights in the childhood antics of both her daughters.

Poised, polite, and giggly, Melissa is not fazed by the admiration heaped on her although she has been fending off marriage proposals from some pretty persistent suitors in her kindergarten class. "I tell them they have to wait until I grow up," she giggled.

Belleville Cutie — Melissa Zabowski, 6, of Division Avenue in Belleville, was recently one of the two winners in the "Annie Look-Alike Contest" held in Rutherford. Melissa is a kindergarten student at School 3.

Looking to that time, the School 3 girl said she would like to be a teacher. "I love school," she declared displaying an alphabet book she completed in Mrs. Kugel's afternoon kindergarten.

Before then, though, the curly haired beauty may find herself lured by the stage. One of her favorite kindergarten projects was a recent performance given by the children who sang tunes from another musical "Barnum," and played instruments in a miniature orchestra before an audience of parents.

"I got to play the triangle and I really liked that," said Melissa who answers most questions with a polite "yes" or "no," but converses freely on topics she fancies.

An avid reader, Melissa is a strong influence on her little sister who pays close attention to her older sibling's every move.

Dissimilar in appearance from Erica who is a rounded, straight-haired blonde, Melissa and her sister share a bubbly, light-hearted nature and both inherited their witty mother's sense of fun.

"We're going to be relaxed about Melissa's professional life. We'll just take things as they come and enjoy the good times we have on our trips into New York," said Eva.

Laughter is plentiful in the attractive Zabowski house where Melissa, whose tomorrow looks very bright, enjoys an obviously happy today.

Red Ribbon Ringer Sunday Sees Successful Turnout

As a result of the Red Ribbon Bell Ringer Sunday held June 5, which demonstrated the humanitarian concern of the township for captive GIs, 5,000 postcards earmarked for President Ronald Reagan and the Vietnamese ambassador to Southeast Asia, were signed by local residents. The postcards requested immediate action on the issue of 2,500 unaccounted Americans from the Vietnam War.

The Bell Ringer opening ceremonies at town hall were broadcast by all the television and radio networks. Since the broadcasts, public awareness is mounting in other towns and many are planning to follow in Belleville's footsteps with their own launching of a Bell Ringer Sunday.

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville wish to thank Mayor Michael Marotti and Commissioner Matthew Pica for their total support of this project. They also greatly appreciated the help and cooperation extended to them from Fire Chief George Sbarra, Chief Baldwin, Chief George Lister, and the Belleville Fire Department who alerted the residents the sounding its sirens that volunteers were in the area.

The club also wishes to applaud the generosity of the following businesses for donating refreshments and food for the volunteers: Belleville Liquor Store, Belleville Wine

Shop, Bellwood Park Liquor, Garden Liquor, Greylock Liquors, Pioneer Wines & Liquors, Raino Liquors, Washington Liquor Store, White Oak Liquor Shoppe, Fleming's, Corbo & Marbach's, Frade's Deli, Washington Avenue Pathmark, Belle Maid, Towne Deli, Corner Deli, B & T Deli, Blimpie, Sylvestro's Garden Meat, Esposito's Meat Market, Bill Tones, Washington Avenue McDonald's, Myer's Bakery, Nanina In the Park, Cassa Polizzi and the Chandelier.

Mary Ann Flor and Georgeann Ventol, co-chairmen of the event, apologize that there were some areas not reached due to a shortage of volunteers.

Belleville Motel

Hearings have been in progress on an application by the Belleville Motor Lodge, made to the Belleville Board of Adjustment for permission to add 18 units and 26 parking spaces to its present facility.

Belleville does have some industry. It is surrounded by more. A hotel-motel facility, properly operated, is an asset to any community. According to public testimony, Hoffmann-La Roche, ITT, Seton Leather Company, and New England Engineering Company are among the corporate clients that use the motel facility.

There is an insufficient number of hotel rooms in the area. In fact, Belleville could use a first rate hotel of a couple hundred rooms. People that require hotel and motel rooms represent additional spending power potential for our local merchants.

The Zoning Board should give careful consideration to insure that residential area neighbors are not required to put up with a nuisance. At the same time, the Zoning Board should insure that a traffic flow pattern be established that would eliminate congestion on Belleville's main street.

Just as long as there is no encroachment upon the rights and privileges of neighbors, at this juncture of the hearings, the granting of the request may be in the public interest.

Complaints of neighbors should be accommodated, for after all, a home represents the individual's life-long principal asset. It should be respected.

Larry Schwartz

Larry Schwartz is counsel to the Belleville Board of Education. He is among the outstanding attorneys who specialize in Board of Education matters. Schwartz is highly skilled. He commands high fees for his services. This week the Board of Education increased his hourly rate from $65 to $75. It increased his retainer from $7,500 to $10,000.

For the quality of service that

Larry Schwartz is able to render to the Belleville School Board, $75 an hour compensation is a bargain for Belleville taxpayers.

Paul Volcker

Paul Volcker, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, was reappointed to another term by President Ronald Reagan and designated as chairman.

The reappointment should receive the confidence of Wall Street. Volcker has demonstrated extraordinary skill in manipulating the power in his command. We are unhappy that interest rates have remained on the high side, but we receive consolation in the knowledge that, given the long run, interest rates should come down to one digit — while at the same time, inflation should be at the bottom of the pit.

We sense a buoyancy in the economy — not much — but enough to give us comfort that better days are on the way. What all of us need is more faith and confidence in the future — more stress on the positive side — and less emphasis on the negative.

Sure — there are 10 million people unemployed — but isn't it better to remember the 100 million that are employed? We face this fall and winter in the belief that prosperous times will take over our laggard economy. Area residents and businesses should be better off six months from now than they are today.

Meanwhile, every effort should be made to return the unemployed back to their jobs.

Atlantic City Trip Hard on Seniors

To the editor:

On March 23, I visited the Resorts Hotel. Apparently due to overbooking, we sat in the parking lot for one hour waiting to unload.

I must commend the Resorts' security workers. They would not allow anyone to sit, stand or lean against anything except a slot machine. These workers knew no place for anyone to sit down.

At lunch, after offering the last cup of coffee, the waitress tactfully cleared the tables.

Thus, 'no sit down relief.'

At the lounge, after paying $2 for a six-ounce glass of club soda, with two-thirds full of ice, the waitress kept pushing for another drink. Again 'no sit down relief.'

Two senior citizens went to an empty pool to sit but were asked to leave immediately.

After five hours senior citizens were sitting on the floor in a corner because they couldn't stand anymore.

Where are sitting places in these hotels?

We spend our money, especially in the winter, and are treated very shabbily!

The Chamber of Commerce needs to arrange for more boardwalk benches. The Gaming Commission needs to make sure there are places to sit after spending our money and we are tired.

After six hours of standing, I pulled a ligament in my leg. My first winning day produced $42. So far I spent $87 for the doctor plus medication and weeks of agonizing pain. Was it worth it?

Grande Sorry About Water

An open letter to the residents of Belleville:

On Sunday, June 19, the Department of Public Works instituted a program of operating fire hydrants to eliminate the discoloration in the water system.

The time of operation is from Sunday through Thursday, from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m.

We are sorry for any inconvenience that this project may cause, but we are sure that this work shall be of great benefit to all.

Happy Resident Writes Poem About Our Mayor

To the editor:

For the next four years
There's a name you'll hear
The man we honor
And glad he's mayor

A man of distinction
For you and for me
The man we all know
As Michael Marotti

He's a dedicated person
Who tries his best
And as seen by the votes
He's passed every test

He gives it his all
And is for the town
And that's why he's serving
An additional round

He's a man we'll remember
And always say,
No matter the circumstances
He did it his way

He pulled no strings
Yet got the job done
And again I say,
That's why he won

He'll be honored as mayor
And a hell of a man
And always remembered
As the town's right hand

And when time goes by
And he's no longer there
His thoughts will be for us
And he'll always care

So here's to you Mike
And all you have done
And speaking for many
We're all glad you've won.

American Legion Baseball Is Back in Belleville Again

To the editor:

At this time, we would like to take this opportunity to thank Mayor Michael Marotti and Ralph LaConte. Two weeks ago we were informed about the American Legion Baseball situation in the Township of Belleville. Because of our love for the game, we had inquired how to form a team for Belleville. Along with the help of many others and the moral support of Mr. LaConte, we're pleased to say the Township of Belleville now has a team. Again, Mayor Marotti came to the aid for the youth of Belleville by donating uniforms as well as his own personal interest. Last but not least, we would like to thank the following people for their donations: Gerard Castelli, Tony Lombardi, Mike Marotti, Ralph LaConte, Joseph Grande, Mr. and Mrs. A. Pursi, the Kiwanis Club, Lombardi's Meat Market, Jon Nardachone and Associates, and the Optimist Club.

Any other donations, please contact the coaches. All donations are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
Coaches Dan Borgo
and Joe Lipoma

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

May 10 Belleville held its quadrennial municipal election. A poor turnout of local voters offered us a few surprises by ousting defeated 20-year incumbent Vincent T. Strumolo, replaced Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, who chose not to see re-election, by former Planning Board Chairman Joseph Grande, who ran an exceptionally strong race, coming in second to front runner Mayor Marotti. As expected, Mike Pizzi, a close runner-up four years ago, hit the jackpot this time running third. The doyen of the Board of Commissioners, Joe McGreevy, captured his perennial spot as Revenue and Finance Director while Matty Pica, despite a concerted drive to replace him as Director of Public Safety by some sources, held on to that post.

Among the also rans: Joe Fornaroto proved a formidable contender gathering many votes, but, not as many as he had been led to believe he'd get. Was he "shafted" by some that he had presumed to be his supporters? Politics does make strange bedfellows. Kevin Kennedy, the youngest candidate, did surprisingly well, collecting 1,432 votes. He has youth on his side and we may be expected to hear from him in the future.

We believe that the local election was well covered by the fair and objective reporting of the local paper's staff. The editorial views reflecting the sentiments of the publisher and its editorial staff were, we believe, within the confines of accepted journalistic propriety.

It is fortunate that Belleville has a local newspaper, especially, since unlike the former Newark Evening News which "Always reaches home," the present Star-Ledger, a good "wire paper" lacks a suburban news bureau and seldom covers Belleville news unless it's of the sensational variety.

It is now noted that with the change in the Board of Commission meetings to Mondays, it enables the publication of School Board and Commission meeting news to be printed the same week they are held. This also facilitates prompt publication of legal notices to enlighten interested readers.

Not even the New York Times is impeccable, so it is not unspeakable to say that there are "gripes" about this paper. There are some which are vindicated, some aren't...some are judgment decisions of the reporter who must comply with space limitations, deadlines to meet or even administrative directives which must be adhered to, respect to observance of fair objectivity and a discerning search for truth...news stories lack the latitude of expression found in opinion columns. The good reporter and editor, and this paper has them, don't spout out words to reflect his or her personal sentiments or feelings on subjects on the basis of sentiment or emotion...they try to paint, by words, a visual picture for the reader.

Politics are fertile ground for controversy; Those who partake of it like to bask in the glory of the printed word. The Fourth Estate knows this, often shrouding themselves with a protective covering to prevent their being exploited by publicity seeking individuals. Sometimes, this ignoring of what is brought out a public meetings deprives the public of information that they have a right to read of...The readers of a local newspaper especially.

At the first business meeting of the town governing body held after the May election, Kevin Kennedy, the young candidate for commissioner who received 1,432 votes, addressed the body, sought and received permission to inspect public town records; He, also, spoke of reputed zoning violations which he was advised would be investigated.

Mr. Henry Charzewski, who along with Kennedy, raised questions about waste drums at various locations with Charzewski questioning Commissioner Pica about an incident in the Valley last year pertaining to offensive odors.

These matters were not reported in the local paper, questions have been posed as to why they hadn't been, but, that was a judgment decision best to be evaluated by the outcome of results of an investigation. Conservative reportorial coverage would not justify speculation.

Surely, were it established that zoning violations existed, as there may be, they will be reported in your local newspaper.

Belleville's Past

Difficulties in collecting the new water tax led the township in 1883 to establish various rates, amounting to 25 cents per $100 valuation on unimproved properties, 30 cents in the case of churches, 35 cents for improved properties, 37 cents for factories, and 50 cents for stores. By 1890, however, a uniform water tax of 15 cents for state and county taxes; school and road taxes were 25 cents each; the poor tax was 14 cents; lamp tax 13 cents, fire tax 5 cents and incidentals 16 cents. These "incidentals" did not include the service on the bonded indebtedness, totalling 47 cents. There was also a special "map tax" of 14 cents, to pay for the maps which the township committee had recently ordered, and a special 5 cents assessment for the paving of William Street. The total rate amounted to 2.42.

This high rate was probably responsible for the relatively large arrears, which amounted to $646.19 for 1888, $638.19 for '89, and $581.20 for '90. The township eventually placed "same in the hands of the Constable for collection."

A substantial reduction in the tax rate followed almost immediately. For 1892, based on a valuation of $1,431,375 for real estate and of $180,991 for personal property, the tax rate was 2.04. That was still considerably higher than 1.87 for Newark and 1.17 for Livingston, which was the lowest rate in Essex County. But neighboring Franklin at the same had the highest tax rate in the count, 3.42. In 1895, with the total valuation of taxables increased to $1,766,331, Belleville's tax rate amounted to 1.91, as compared with 1.92 for Newark, 1.33 for Livingston, and 3.25 for Montclair.

Typical in every respect for those quiet years was the meeting of the township committee held on May 1, 1893 "for the purpose of organization." Only four of the newly elected committeemen were present: H.W. Underwood, J.T. Boylan, Percy Jackson and G.W. Williamson. A. Lintott was absent, but like the others, had filed his oath of office with the township clerk, J.J. Hannon. Underwood was chosen unanimously as township chairman. Boylan was elected treasurer and was voted a salary of $150 for the year's term of office, but was requested to post a $10,000 bond. Other bonded officers were the poor master, $2,000; the constable, $1,000, and the water collector, $1,000.

D. M. Skinner and O. E. Perry were elected by the committee as town physician and town counselor respectively with a salary of $100 per year. A.O. Fairchild was chosen collector for the water tax, with five percent of his collections as his fee.

The committee then formed a number of subcommittees to facilitate the township business. Williamson and Boylan were the poor committee. Boylan and Jackson, the water committee, Jackson and Lintott, the law committee, Lintott and Williamson, the auditing committee, Jackson and Boylan, the road committee, and on the lamp committee finally, Underwood served for the first district, Williamson for the second, and Lintott for Silver Lake.

Suppertime Talks — Simone Weil

"The love which unites Christ abandoned on the Cross to his Father at an infinite distance dwells in every saintly soul. One point in this soul is always with the Father. 'Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.' The sensitive part is always exposed to the torture of affliction. In such a soul the dialogue of Christ's cry and the Father's silence echoes perpetually in perfect harmony."

Simone Weil wrote those profound words towards the end of her short life (February 1909 to August 1943) in one of the most agonizing essays ever written, "The Father's Silence." I never forget that day in the winter of 1952 when I first read it. I was tortured by this French Jew turned Christian who could write: "Sin is an offense offered to God from resentment at the debts He owes and does not pay us. By forgiving God we cut the root of sin in ourselves. At the bottom of every sin there is anger against God."

Over the next couple of years, I digested every book she wrote. I fell in love with her and her afflicted soul. I fell in love with her as I had done or would do with the Brontës and Emily Dickinson and Margaret Fuller and Dorothy Day and Mary Shelley and George Eliot and St. Theresa and Simone de Beauvoir, and in the fire of youthful passion, with a Spanish anarchist by the name Maria Louise Berneri. Yet, as I look back, Simone Weil affected me most deeply at that age.

She wrote: "At the bottom of the heart of every human being, from earliest infancy until the tomb, there is something that goes on indomitably expecting, in the teeth of all experience of crimes committed, suffered, and witnessed, that good and not evil will be done to him. It is this above all that is sacred in every human being."

And she believed it and lived it. She studies philosophy at the Lycee Henri IV and got close to French marxism, pacifism, the trade union movement and, ultimately, the working class. She wrote a thesis on "Balance and Perception in Descartes." She was to write brilliantly about science and then about ancient Greece, the glory of Hellenic Civilization, and the masterful Socratic dialogues of Plato.

By 1932, she had made her choice to go to work in factories, first in an electrical plant and then on the assembly line at the Renault works in Paris. And she wrote: "Our factories have become festering grounds of evil, and the evil of the factories must be corrected. It is difficult, but perhaps not impossible. It is high time that specialists, engineers and others concerned, should be exercised not only to make objects, but also not to destroy men. Not to render them docile, not even to make them happy, but quite simply not to force them to abase themselves."

In 1936, while writing about science and ancient Greece, she became interested in Christianity. But the Spanish Civil war broke and she spent two months in Spain with the Republicans, avoiding the communists and the fascists. She began teaching near Paris and became familiar with mysticism. It is said she experienced a "mystical revelation" while on retreat at a Benedictine Abbey. Suddenly, when Hitler began his conquest of Europe, Simone Weil gave up her pacifism.

In 1941, the Vichy pro-Nazi government dismissed Simone Weil from her teaching, because she is a Jew, no matter her religious conversion. She found work on a farm and then on a grape orchard. By 1943, and now engaged in longer and more intense mystical contemplation, she refused to eat, saying that Nazis are inflicting hunger and violence on innocent people. By April of 1943, after a brief visit to the United States, she refused medical treatment and food. The doctors say she died of pulmonary tuberculosis and starvation. But it is more likely she died in affliction as her way to Christ. For she wrote:

"The man who has known pure joy, if only for a moment, and who has therefore tasted the flavor of the world's beauty, for it is the same thing, is the only man for whom affliction is something devastating. At the same time, he is the only man who has not deserved this punishment. But, after all, for him it is no punishment; it is God himself holding his hand and pressing it rather hard. For, if he remains constant, what he will discover buried deep under the sound of his lamentations is the pearl of the silence of God."

She was denounced by many Jews for her desertion of the religion of her forefathers, even during the Holocaust. At the same time as she denounced the leaders of the Jewish faith, she criticized the Catholic Church and most Protestant churches as well. Yet, Andre Gide called her the most spiritual writer of the 20th Century. Albert Camus, whom she resembled somewhat in her fierce humanism, called her "the true spirit of our time." And the highly conservative T. S. Eliot made her a saint. In her death, her friends said of her that she was "a Christian without a church."

After I read much of her work, I come across the words (written in Italian) that are on a plaque attached to her gravestone: "La mia solitudine l'attrui dolore germiva fino all' morete." "My solitude held in its grasp the grief of others till my death."

Religious Viewpoint

Son Guilty? — Mother Guilty?

By Rev. Robert Paul

She stood before the Judge, her face white with terror. It was without doubt, the bitterest hour through which any mother could have lived. She heard the evidence and confessed within her own soul that it was conclusive. Her boy was guilty? The Judge was a kindly man, with sympathetic heart, but he could not change the facts. The crime had been committed, the law prescribed the penalty; the court must do its duty, but as a last resort, the Judge called the mother before him to counsel with her, thinking she might be able to offer some solution.

"Your Honor," she said, "I can't believe it. I don't understand it. We've always sent him to Sunday School."

"You may have sent him. Have you furnished him with any religious training inside the home. Has he ever heard the voice of prayer raised at a family altar? Has he ever had a religious book placed in his hand by a mother in whose religion he had confidence? Has his father ever taken him aside for an evening to instruct him in the things of God and righteousness? Or have you depended upon the Sunday School to train your boy in these matters, while you have been content with providing him with food, clothing, and shelter?"

"You see, it is extremely important that your boy should be in a Sunday School every week, but the teacher under whom your boy sits in that school may be limited by the religious training you give him in the home."

"If your son comes to the teacher with some training, a superstructure of faith and conviction can be raised on that foundation. But if he comes into Sunday School spiritually illiterate, the teacher must begin at the beginning and do it in competition with the home, which by its silence on such subjects, has trained him to think religion is unimportant."

"You do well to send him to Sunday School. But when you sent him, you still had an obligation to discharge. You have not done your duty unless you have done more than send him to Sunday School. Nothing less than parental training plus the Sunday School will suffice."

Water will not rise higher than its source. Parents, make sure today that you are a born again Christian, and then instruct your children in the Bible daily, and go regularly to a Bible preaching church where Jesus Christ is truly Lord. "Children obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right." (Ephesians 6:1) — Fathers, bring your children up in the discipline and admonition of the Lord."

Spider Causes Accident

A Belleville woman, distracted by a spider in her car, struck a parked vehicle. While driving her 1971 Chevrolet Impala on Franklin Avenue, Laurie J. Scott was distracted by a spider crawling in the car. While watching the travel of the bug, her vehicle struck a parked 1971 Buick.

The car, parked on Franklin Avenue, about 180 feet from Liberty Avenue, owned by Angelo Baldes-same of Belleville, was damaged and towed from the scene.

Scott complained of facial pain but refused medical attention. There was no reported damage to her vehicle.

Paola Capozzoli of Belleville was driving a 1980 Chrysler, owned by Emilio Capozzoli of Newark, north on Main Street and started to make a left turn into the K-Mart parking lot, when the car was struck by a car traveling south on Main Street.

Capozzoli said she did not see the 1977 Chevrolet, driven by Dona M. Tischio until the point of impact.

Tischio stated she was traveling straight forward on Main Street when the Capozzoli vehicle suddenly turned in front of her before she could stop her car.

Rosina Capozzoli, a passenger in the Chrysler, complained of a shoulder injury. Dona Tischio and a passenger in her car, Marjori Herlihy were cut about the face.

Capozzoli and Herlihy were transported to Clara Maass Medical Center in the town ambulance. Tischio refused medical attention, stating she would visit her physician.

Margaret V. Bruggeman of Nutley was driving on the exit road from Route 21 onto Mill Street when she came to the crossing at Main Street in Belleville, she applied her foot brake pedal and was amazed it did not work.

While trying to remain calm, Bruggeman operated the emergency brake, only to discover that it did not respond.

The vehicle, out of control, smashed into a wall located on the property of Wallace & Tiernan, 25 Main St.

Local police officer Ronald Edwards responding to a call from police headquarters about an emergency at the location, observed the extent of the situation, immediately called on his car radio for ambulances.

The injured, all occupants in the vehicle, Margaret V. Bruggeman (chest), Margaret Bruggeman (head), Margaret Maikranz (head), Kerry Maikranz (face) and William Maikranz (lower leg), all residents of Nutley, were transported to Clara Maass Medical Center.

A summons was issued to the driver and the Mercury car was towed from the scene.

Mary Pignatello, Steven Sanders Exchange Vows in Holy Family

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sanders — nee Mary Pignatello

Mary Pignatello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pignatello of 33 Center St., and Steven Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Sanders Jr. of East Hanover, were married May 14 in Holy Family Church, Nutley. The Rev. Gerard Sudol performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Westmount Country Club, West Paterson.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin and a lace mantilla.

Mary Pignatello of Middletown was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Debbie Amodio of Jersey City, Candace Pignatello of Bloomfield, Karen Casey of Lake Hiawatha and Regina Seneca and Pam Sanders of East Hanover.

They were attired in lightning blue silk taffeta gowns with lilac and blue silk flower rings as headpieces. The honor attendant carried lilac and blue silk flowers and the others had lilac, blue and white silk flowers.

Joe Seneca of East Hanover was best man. Ushering were Michael Pignatello of Middletown, Jack Pignatello of Bloomfield, Bill Holgate of Hopatcong, Don Casey of Lake Hiawatha and Frank Deubel of Cedar Grove.

Mrs. Pignatello chose a lilac chiffon gown while the groom's mother was in dusty blue chiffon. Corsages were cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Sanders, an alumna of the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, is a dental hygienist with Group Dental Associates, Union.

Mr. Sanders, a graduate of New York Institute of Technology, is an architectural draftsman with Air Tech Industries, East Rutherford.

The couple is living in Bloomfield following a honeymoon in St. Croix.

Lola Ann Iacobucci to Wed Charles A. Fanelli This Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald H. Iacobucci of Nutley announce the engagement of their daughter, Lola Ann, to Charles A. Fanelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Charles Fanelli, also of Nutley.

Lola Ann Iacobucci

Miss Iacobucci, an alumna of Nutley High School, is a secretary with the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners in Newark.

Mr. Fanelli, an alumnus of Belleville High School, is employed with his father in a family owned business.

East Nutley Garage.

The couple will exchange vows Oct. 2 at Holy Family Church.

CMHS HOTLINE

Sister Should 'Inform' On Teenage Drug User

Dear CMHS:

I am 13 years old. I am writing because my brother who is 14 is getting into an awful lot of trouble with drugs. He used to use them once in a while, but now it seems he's high all the time. I'm really worried about him, especially since he has begun to steal money to buy the drugs. He made me promise not to tell our parents. They don't seem to notice what is happening to him. I don't know what to do.

Worried

Dear Worried:

The fact that your brother has confided in you indicates that you and he have a pretty good relationship. It also indicates that despite his protests, he may really want you to tell your parents. It's a way of getting help without directly asking for it. This is often true when people are conflicted about what they are doing but can't or won't seek help on their own. This seems to be the case with your brother, so it's important that your parents be informed. While you didn't say what drugs he is using, the increased usage and stealing are serious and, if continued, may even become life threatening. While I can certainly understand your reluctance to break a confidence and admire your loyalty to your brother, there are times when these values have to take second place. You must assume that your brother is unable to make rational decisions at this time.

It may help you to know that trained psychotherapists, whose work is based on establishing and maintaining trust, inform clients that the limits to confidentiality are reached when a person's actions are a danger to himself or others. You may consider telling your brother in advance that you intend to inform your parents and why. You might even give him the chance to tell them himself before you do. He may be angry with you now, but hopefully may also feel relieved and eventually even appreciate your concern and love. Good luck.

Seems Like Only Yesterday... State Plans to Construct Addition To 'Dangerous' Route 21 Highway

Thirty Years Ago
The town council approved a plan of the Public Service Co-ordinated Transport to consolidate its 42 bus line in Irvington with the 82 line which runs through Belleville.

Erwin Kull presented the application for the bus route plan which calls for 42 buses on the 82 line to be replaced with 33 buses on the new line, which will run from the city subway on Franklin Avenue all the way to Irvington. The trip would take one hour and 15 minutes and cost 25 cents.

Wilfred Yudin, owner of Yudin's Paint Store, was elected president of the Belleville Lions Club.

Twenty Years Ago

The New Jersey State Highway Department announced it would receive bids for the construction of another section of the Route 21 highway in Belleville and Newark. The new section, located east of Main Street (McCarter Highway), which it parallels, will absorb most of the heavy traffic volume now carried through town on the existing state highway. It will eliminate a dangerous curve near Bayard Street, where several traffic deaths have occurred over the years. The project should take one year to complete and will extend from Riverside Avenue in Newark to Williams Street in Belleville, for a distance of 1.2 miles.

Two Belleville beauties took first and second place in the Miss Mutual Benefit Life of 1963 contest held in Asbury Park. Sandra Ferguson, 19, of Arthur Street was crowned queen and Lynn Hundertpfund, also 19, was named runner-up.

Fifteen Years Ago

Anthony Imperiale hoped to gain support for his North Ward Citizens Council during a meeting here. The council had been described by many as a "vigilante and extremist organization."

The group had been patrolling the Belleville-Nutley area with 15 unmarked radio cars. Imperiale had been booted out of a Nutley bar, after the owner had been warned by Nutley Mayor Harry Chenoweth that he was in danger of losing his liquor license if he continued to hold meetings for the group in his establishment. The leader of the Belleville-Nutley wing, Thomas Benecchi meanwhile, had chastized Nutley's mayor for spending $40,000 in riot control equipment, which had deemed ineffective and insufficient.

One Year Ago

Angelo Risoli, a lifelong resident of Belleville, was elected as the new GOP township chairman, replacing Jerry Ferrara, who held the post for 26 years. On the Democratic side, Mrs. Mary Senatore was re-elected as the township chairman for the 25th consecutive year.

Rev. Genadius Diez celebrated his 60th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood in a concelebrated Mass held at St. Peter's Church. Rev. Diez was ordained as a priest back in 1922 in Pittsburgh at the age of 26. He served as St. Peter's assisting for the past 30 years offering daily Mass on weekdays and hearing confessions on Saturdays.

Grande Starts Charity Fund

A "Senior and Youth Contribution Fund" has been set up, whereby Commissioner Joseph Grande's weekly paycheck from the Township of Belleville will be put into this fund.

Requests for contributions must be made in writing to Commissioner Joseph A. Grande, c/o Senior and Youth Contribution Fund, Department of Public Works, 560 Cortland St., Belleville, New Jersey 07109. The committee for this fund will be: Ernest Musmanno, chairman; Joseph Lipoma, trustee and Harry Reynolds, trustee. Requests will be screened by this committee.

Dog Licenses Are Available

Every person who owns, harbors or possesses one or more dogs within the Township of Belleville, must pay a fee of $4.50 for each dog, and also 50 cents for the registration tags.

The owner of every dog must pay the annual license fee to the township clerk on or before Jan. 1.

Duplicate tags will be issued only on proof in writing by the owner or a member of his household, to the township clerk of the loss of the original tag, and on payment of 25 cents.

Any dog not licensed pursuant hereto shall be subject to seizure by any person appointed for that purpose by the Board of Commissioners, and if not redeemed within seven days after being seized it may be destroyed as humanely as possible. Any dog that does not have a license or registration tag attached to it shall be deemed unlicensed and subject to seizure.

Any owner of a dog which has been seized hereunder shall upon establishing ownership to the satisfaction of the town clerk, be entitled to reclaim such dog. The redemption fee of $2 shall be paid to the department of revenue and finance and certification by an official of the department of revenue and finance shall be required for the release of any impounded dog. During the hours when the department of revenue and finance is closed the officer in charge of the police division of the department of public safety is authorized to accept redemption fees and grant certification of payment of same.

A dog owner not complying can receive a summons to appear in municipal court, where a $20 fine could be imposed.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

Every muscle in the human body functions according to messages from the brain, carried by the nerves which connect the brain to all parts of the body. The main nerves run along the spinal column, protected because they are located within the hollow vertebrae of the spine.

Nerves branch out from the spine, passing between the vertebrae. If any vertebra is moved from its normal position, the nerves that pass through or near that vertebra may be pinched and irritated to the extent that pain results and muscle function may be impaired.

Chiropractic can find and correct spinal misalignments. Phone for an appointment.

Orechio Opens Campaign Headquarters

Senate President Carmen A. Orechio's campaign headquarters in Nutley was opened last Thursday night, June 9, as an overflow crowd of nearly 450 supporters were on hand to meet and speak to the State Senator, who represents the 30th Legislative District in Essex County.

Orechio's campaign manager, Essex County Freeholder President Jerome Greco, said he was impressed by the number of "enthusiastic" people who attended the grand opening. "The constituents of the 30th District should be proud and pleased that Senator Orechio has served them with diligence and dedication," Greco said.

"Senator Orechio is a state leader who is sensitive to the needs of the towns which make up his district," Greco said. "I urge the voters of the 30th Legislative District to return Senator Orechio to his fourth consecutive term in office so he can continue his service as a recognized leader in state government."

Many state, county and local officials were present at the gala event to lend their support and endorse Orechio. Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato (D-Essex), County Executive Peter Shapiro, Freeholder Tom Giblin, Essex Sheriff Tom D'Alessio and Assembly candidate, Steve Aduabato Jr. were among those attending the opening at the headquarters which is located at the corner of One Town Hall Square and Chestnut Street in Nutley.

"I am heartened by the number of people who came out to support my re-election bid and the opening of my campaign headquarters," Orechio said.

The Senator, who is serving his second term as the Senate President, and who serves as acting governor when Gov. Thomas H. Kean is out of the state, said, "I hope the people of the 30th District find my record satisfactory and return me to represent them in Trenton for a fourth term."

Orechio was first elected to the State Senate in 1973 and was re-elected in 1977 and 1981. He was chosen by his Democratic colleagues to serve as their majority leader in 1980 and 1981. In 1982, he was elected to the Senate Presidency, the position he currently holds.

Orechio's district includes the towns of Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona.

You have been away on a trip or out for the evening. As you walk up to the house, you notice the front door is standing wide open. Immediately, you think "Did I lock that door before I left?" Coming closer, you see the lock has been broken, and through the open door you see the contents of the hall closet strewn about the floor. Now the realization strikes you — "We've been ripped off."

Throughout the house, the terrible aftermath of the burglar is seen. Drawers have been pulled out and dumped, closets emptied, coin banks smashed. Your jewelry, appliances, silverware and other valuable belongings are missing.

When the police officers arrive, they begin asking questions, "Did you lock all the doors and windows before you left? Did you leave a light on? Did you have an alarm? Do you have a list of the serial numbers of the missing items?" To each question, you answer, "No, I never thought of that." Slowly, you realize that you had taken hardly any precautions against the possibility of being burglarized, and now your home is a shambles and your property is gone.

It can happen to you

If this, or something like it, didn't happen to you, consider yourself lucky. It did happen to more than a million persons last year, causing nearly a billion dollars in losses. All indications point to another large increase in the number of burglaries again this year. To insure that you will never have to live through this experience, the New Jersey Crime Prevention Officers Association with the assistance of most police departments have proclaimed the month of June 1983 as Burglary Prevention Month. During this special month, police authorities will offer trips in foiling the would-be intruder.

Basic home preparation

Your home or apartment should be protected with several simple devices. All doors should be equipped with strong pin-tumbler locks, which have the "dead bolt" feature. This type of lock is "jimmy-proof," which means that the bolt cannot be forced back by a burglar tool or pocket knife. It locks and unlocks only with a key. If the door has a glass panel, it should be small and placed high in the door, so that entrance cannot be gained by breaking the glass and crawling through or reaching in to unlock the door.

Windows also, should be protected with a strong lock, preferably one which locks the window, when open slightly, as well as when closed. Particular attention should be paid to basement and second-story windows, which are frequently overlooked.

Your home can be "cleaned out" in just minutes by experts, so see to it that your windows and doors are locked and alarms set every time you leave the house.

What you should do before going on a vacation

Even though your house will be empty, it should appear as though it is "lived-in." One or more lights should be connected to an automatic lamp timer, which turns them on at dusk and off at bedtime. This creates the impression that someone is inside. Outdoor lights that turn on in the evening also add to the lived-in look and put a spotlight on attempts to break in. Shades and drapes should be left in their normal positions, not pulled tightly shut. All deliveries, such as milk, newspapers, etc., must be discontinued. Arrangements could also be made with a neighbor to keep the grass mowed and to remove circulars and handbills left on the porch. Mail can be held at the post office or removed from the mail box by a friend until your return.

The garage should be closed and locked whenever you are away. This protects you in three ways. First it protects the tools, ladders, mowers, etc., which are kept in the garage, from being stolen. Second, it prevents these tools and ladders from being used to break into the home itself. Finally, it keeps the would-be burglar from knowing that the car is not there, which is an indication that no one is home.

Whenever you plan to be away for several days, be sure to notify the police department. Tell them when you will leave, when you will return and where they can obtain a key in case of emergency. It is advisable to leave a key with a relative or friend, who will check the house occasionally, water the plants and take care of any minor difficulties which may arise.

While it is advisable to notify the police and one trusted neighbor about your planned absence, be careful not to tell everyone in town. Don't leave notes on the door or in the milk bottle and don't allow the local newspaper to mention your trip until after you return.

Keep the risks low

In spite of your precautions, a particularly determined burglar may disregard all your efforts and break in anyway. In case this happens, try to make the burglar's "haul" as painless to you as possible. Don't keep cash around the house. Jewelry, stocks, bonds and other valuables should be kept in a safe deposit box. A storage vault is an place for furs during the summer, for double protection against hot weather and burglary. Keep a record of the serial numbers which are found on appliances, typewriters, cameras and many other valuable items. This will assist the police in recovering the goods if stolen, and also provides the necessary information for a quick settlement of your insurance claim.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Drop Four Of Five Games

Braves Suffering Through Tough Mid-Season Slump

By Mike Lamberti

Sal Garilli would like to believe that his Belleville Braves are a lot better than the team's current record would indicate. Chances are, Sal Garilli is right, but currently his club is in the midst of a tough slump.

Belleville had what the coach called a "critical" week of action coming up. Yesterday, the team traveled to Union to face the Rams. Tonight, the Braves are in Irvington for a 6 p.m. start. On Saturday, Maplewood comes to town for a 5 p.m. start and Sunday, the Braves are in West Orange, also for a 5 p.m. start.

Last week, the Braves struggled noticeably, losing four of five games to lower the teams mark to 4-8. "L.O.B., L.O.B.," is all Garilli could say when asked about his teams play last week. L.O.B. stands for left on base and the Braves did a good job of leaving men in scoring position. "That's the name of the game, scoring runs," said the coach. "Right now, we're not getting the men home, we've had our chances but we're not connecting. This is a good team, I'll continue to stand by that. We're going to get better."

The Braves are a good hitting club. They are batting .350 as a team, however they are only hitting .185 with men in scoring position. Thus, the team has been missing on crucial hits, and have been losing games they could easily have won.

Last week, the Braves lost to Union, West Orange, Verona and Milburn. They did manage a victory, at home against the Union Jayhawks as pitcher Scott Lutz hurled a complete game for the victory.

"Scotty pitched a strong ball game," said Garilli. "He did a good job of keeping them off balance and his control was excellent."

Lutz did not allow a walk in seven innings, striking out five and allowing seven hits. Dominick Vazzano was the hitting star, driving home two runs. He was assisted by Jimmy Walsh who pounded a triple for two ribbies and Mark Roll, who came through with a clutch single with the bases loaded to drive home two runs.

Against West Orange, the Braves were on the short end of a 10-2 decision. In this contest, Iggy McMillian had two hits for Belleville and Joe Corbalis and Andy Gould scored runs for the local team. However, it wasn't nearly enough as Bill Stoughton, the Braves pitcher, was extremely wild and the Braves fell behind early.

The Braves were also flat in a 7-4 defeat at the hands of Milburn. In that contest, Steve Slotnik pitched but received little support from his mates. On two different innings, Belleville had the bases loaded with one out, however they didn't score one run.

The Union Rams administered a 7-2 defeat to Belleville last week. In this contest, the Rams scored all their runs on Belleville errors. "Seven runs, all of them unearned," was all that Garilli could say about that game. The Braves didn't hit the ball with any authority and were far from sharp.

The team's best game of the season was a 4-3 loss to Verona. Verona is the best team in the league thus far this year and earlier in the season defeated Belleville by a wide margin. This time, they were given much tougher test. "It was an exciting game, one of the best I've seen," said Garilli. "We had the tying run on base in the last inning, but couldn't get it home."

Verona had taken a 4-0 lead

Rec Softball Squad Goes to Title Finals

The Belleville Buccanettes of the Suburban Junior Girls' Softball League concluded their season this past weekend by competing in the league playoffs, including the championship game, in this their first season in the league.

On Saturday, the seventh-eighth grade girls traveled to Millburn and defeated the Millburn squad by a score of 11-10 in a semi-final game. Millburn jumped on top 3-0 in the first inning but the Buccanettes tied the score at three in the fourth inning, when Laura Caruso drove in one run with a ground out and Danean Rock knocked in two runs with a booming two-run double to center field with two outs. Millburn took a 5-4 lead into the sixth inning when Belleville erupted for seven runs on seven hits to break the game open. Seven different girls had RBIs in the inning as the team batted around. Millburn made the final score close by rallying for five runs in its last at bat. The home team had the tying and winning runs on base with two out, but winning pitcher Laura Caruso struck out the last batter to insure the victory. Caruso, Michele Calderone, Tricia Tramutola, Danean Rock and Cindi Ruggiero led a 16-hit attack which sent the team into the finals.

On Sunday, the team traveled to Memorial Field in Livingston to face Caldwell for the league championship. Before a large Father's Day crowd, Caldwell eked out a 6-5 win in a game that will never be forgotten by those who attended it. Caldwell jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning and increased the lead to 4-0 in the second inning. Belleville battled back to tie the score at four in the bottom of the second inning when, with two outs, Tracy Puleo walked, Cindi Ruggiero reached on an error, and Danean Rock walked to lead the bases. Danean Rock and Michele Calderone each walked to cut the deficit to 4-2 before Tricia Tramutola delivered a two-run single to left to tie the score. Pitcher Laura Caruso then shut out the Caldwell team through the next four innings while Belleville took their only lead of the game at 5-4 in the bottom of the fifth inning when Lisa Zecca reached on an error, stole second, went to third on a single by Caruso, and scored on a single by Tracy Puleo.

The score remained 5-4 Belleville

Legion Baseball Squad Returns To the Diamond in Belleville

A lot of local fans might not know it, but the Belleville American Legion baseball team is alive and well, making its return to the diamond following a year layoff in 1982.

Danny Borgo is the head coach of the Legion, assisted by Joe Lipoma. Borgo, a 1979 graduate of Belleville High School, is the all time winning pitcher at BHS. He won over 20 games during his three year career. Borgo was recently graduated from Monmouth College, having completed a successful collegiate career here.

The team actually formed just two weeks ago, thanks to the help of Mayor Michael Marotti and head varsity baseball coach, Ralph La Conte. Dennis Buckley and Tony Lombardi have also assisted the team in its start.

Belleville lost its first two games of the season, bowing to Vailsburg, 9-5, blowing a 5-3 lead in the last of the seventh inning. The team was also halted by Bloomfield, 4-0.

"We're a young team," said Borgo, "with no seniors and a lot of inexperience. The kids will need time."

The team is made up mostly of the players who competed for the varsity baseball team this spring. Catching is freshman John Auriemma while Anthony Lombardi is at first base. Lombardi had a strong season for the Buccanettes and should be a big help this summer. Over at second, Dean Sternik and Allan Ruopp share the chores. Shortstop is filled by Joe Borrello, a top fielder with a strong bat. Over at third is Joe Mullaney.

The outfield sees John Guarino in center and Frank Tursi over in right.

Jim Caponi and Dave Long have been sharing the work in leftfield.

Guarino and Tursi were solid members of the varsity team this spring and Borrello might be one of the best shortstops in the area.

Pitching will be shared by Tommy Reid, Tursi, Mark Palumbo, Charles Bocchino, Steve Mulhern and Rich Muraski.

"We're going to need time," said Borgo. "We only got together two weeks ago and the team will need some experience."

The Bucs will be in Caldwell tomorrow night and on Monday will host Newark in a 6 p.m. start. On Wednesday, the same Newark squad will be at Belleville for a 6 p.m. start and Friday, Nutley is home for a 6 p.m. game. All games are played either Monday, Wednesday or Friday.

John Senesky Named Belleville Coach of the Year

October 2, 1982. That date might sound like a normal day to many folks, but for a certain group of fans at Belleville High School on that sunny day, October 2 was to be an unforgettable day.

On that day, Belleville High School and Passaic would play a football game, the second game of the regular season. Both teams came in with 1-0 records, Passaic having ripped Thomas Jefferson of Brooklyn, 26-6 and Belleville taking care of Passaic Valley, 27-0. While the teams had gotten off strong, there seemed to be a glowing difference between the two teams.

Enter Passaic, number one in the state of New Jersey, 15th back in the United States and winners in 13 straight games, dating back to 1980. The Indians had gone 11-0 in 1981, beating Belleville, 7-0 in their toughest game of the season. In 1982, Passaic returned a majority of that team, with Craig Hayward leading the way. Hayward was being compared to some of the best running backs in state history, not a bad comparison considering the Passaic runner was only a junior.

Belleville, on the other hand, had a young squad. Gone were the big names like Frank Fazzini, Phil Cerza, Angelo Centanni, Jeff Walsh, Danny Palumbo and Eugene Cancelliere. The "new" Bucs were young, small and inexperienced. Dave Grant, at 6-4, 230, was the biggest player by far on this team. Experts considered the Bucs chances to be slim to say the least. Passaic was just too good, too quick.

What the experts didn't realize was that Belleville made up for their physical setbacks with a gutsy, determined effort never before seen on the high school level. As everyone knows, Belleville went on to defeat the Passaic Indians, 3-2, setting off a celebration at Belleville High School of unheard of magnitudes.

Tom Elsasser, the head coach at Passaic, later said that the Indians lost the game on the sidelines, a tribute to the Belleville coaching staff. When one is reminded of the Belleville coaches, one name comes to mind right away — John Senesky.

For five years now, Senesky has led the Belleville football team to winning records. In 1979, 1980 and 1982, he led them to the Group IV, Section II playoffs, leading the 1980 squad to the finals. He has posted a 39-14-1 mark for regular season play since he took the reigns in 1977. His mark, including playoff games, is 40-17-1. Since the 1977 season, Senesky has posted an incredible regular season record of 37-8-1. Since 1979, the Bucs are 31-5. They have lost one road game in four years and last seasons 8-1 regular season featured a tie for the NNJIL title and another appearance in the Group IV, Section II playoffs.

For his tremendous coaching in 1982 and for that matter, his entire career, Senesky is the 1983 Belleville High School Coach of the Year.

The 1982 season, like the 1980 campaign, saw a Belleville squad which was young and inexperienced. The newspapers said the Bucs were a year away. The odds said Belleville couldn't beat Passaic, would have a tough time with Clifton and would be no better than 5-4 this year. Needless to say, the record speaks for itself. Following the 3-2 win over Passaic, the Bucs ripped Clifton, 37-0 before losing their only regular season game, 22-2 at Montclair.

The following week, Belleville rebounded against a solid Nutley team and won, 10-3. They whipped Eastside, 30-0, Bloomfield 21-6, Kennedy 14-0 and Kearny on Thanksgiving Day, 33-6. In between the Kennedy and Kearny game, Belleville battled Union in the first round of the Group IV, Section II playoffs at BHS.

Like the Passaic game, the Union battle was an exciting contest. The Bucs fell behind, 12-0 at halftime before the defense, spearheaded by Craig Mack and Grant, stiffened in the second half and the offense, led by Robbie Cancelliere, made a gallant effort to come back.

The Bucs cut the deficit to 12-7 when Billy Baber scored from six yards out following a tremendous drive led by sophomore quarterback Mark Walsh, playing for the first time at QB on the varsity level. Walsh had replaced John Borrello, who went out with a shoulder separation.

They were driving again, having reached the Union 25 yard line late in the game. However, a Belleville fumble proved to be costly as Union pounded on the ball and held on to a 12-7 win.

Union coach Lou Rettino would later say, "That (Belleville) is a class operation. John Senesky is a great coach, I can't say enough about him."

When you talk to any coach about Belleville High, the first thing they'll say is Senesky. He has been a tremendous coach and has earned the respect of his peers and players.

"The players (from 1982) had so much heart," recalled Senesky. "There's something special about these kids. Their heart and desire was the main reason for our success this year."

Senesky coaches in a town where the fans always want the best. He realizes that, and has put out some great ball clubs, teams that create excitement and winning. Perhaps his best team was back in 1980, when Fazzini was a junior running back and John Melillo was the quarterback.

In that season, the Bucs got off slowly, losing to Livingston on opening day, then gradually building up. Following a 13-9 win over Passaic in week four, the Bucs took off in high gear, ripping Marist, 35-7, Essex Catholic, 34-0, Seton Hall Prep, 34-8 and Clark, 20-12 to advance to the state playoffs. The win over the Prep was later described by Senesky as "the best win here, ever." Senesky would later say that the Passaic game of 1982 was the best game in BHS history.

In the playoffs, the Bucs defeated Morris Knolls, 14-7, before losing to West Essex, 22-7, in the state finals. It was a great season and a majority of that squad would return for the 81 campaign.

When you ask a football fan at BHS about the 81 season, he'll probably tell you it was disappointing. The Bucs finished the season with a 7-2 mark, losing out on a playoff berth to Barringer, a team the Bucs had ripped, 39-14, during the regular season. Belleville lost that 7-0 contest to Passaic and later would lose a controversial 27-7 game to Seton Hall. Both Seton Hall and Passaic went to state titles, posting a record of 22-0 combined.

The days weren't always rosey for Senesky. When he first took control of the varsity in '77, the Bellboys finished 2-6-1, having lost games by scores of 40-0, 34-7, 36-12 and of course, the 63-0 rout to Seton Hall. In between, there were some promising games, including a 26-18 win over Essex Catholic.

In 1978, the team improved to 6-3 and in 1979, the Bucs finished 8-2, beating Seton Hall, 14-13 at BHS and traveling to Giants Stadium, playing Union and losing, 15-12.

The strides that Senesky has taken with the football program can be termed incredible. His off season liftings, his decaholan that is held before the start of every season, and most importantly, the respect from his players, has led to the great football that can be found at Belleville High School these days. In 1983, the Bucs will once again be back on the field, and once again, you can bet the team will be back at the top. It's the John Senesky way.

Congratulations to Caldwell High School on winning the Group III softball title two weeks ago. There is one thing in the Star Ledger which was a bit confusing. Caldwell was ranked third in the final state rankings and first in Essex County. As everyone knows, Belleville won the Essex County championship and it would seem, played the tougher schedule. Caldwell was eliminated in the county semis by Bloomfield, 6-1. It would make sense that Belleville should have finished the season number one in Essex County. While they were eliminated in the state tourney, the Bucs lost to a school from Union county and were clearly the best team in Essex County this year.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Heavyweight contender Gerry Cooney of Huntington, N.Y., had his fight with former sparring partner Phil Brown postponed for the third time due to a knuckle injury. The bout has been postponed from June 18 to July 24. Today it was announced the fight will be held Sept. 9. The fact is the injury is more serious than Cooney's co-managers Dennis Rappaport and Mike Jones want to admit. The fighter's career is in peril. Surgery may be necessary. Rappaport said, "We are reluctant to do that (surgery) because there is no guarantee."

The fall of another "hothouse" fighter was viewed at the Felt Forum last Friday. Jose Baret of New York was KO'd by Floyd Mayweather of Cleveland at 2:45 of the eighth round in a scheduled 10-round welterweight bout. Baret, who won his first 15 fights — via the knockout route — on handpicked losers, was stopped in the fourth round by Marlon Starling in his previous start.

Newark's Dwight "Tiger" Walker grabbed himself a spot on Friday's Felt Forum boxing card when he subbed for junior middleweight Mark Medal and the "Tiger" won a unanimous 10-round decision from Wilbur Henderson. Walker raised his chart to 16-2 with six KOs. Medal had to withdraw from the Henderson bout when he was floored by the flu.

Power-puncher John Mugabi, a native of Uganda, now living in London, Eng., will swap haymakers with rugged Gary Guiden of Muncie, Ind., on Sunday, July 3, at Curtis Hixon Hall in Tampa, Florida. NBC-TV Channel 4 will broadcast; Mugabi has an unblemished record 19-0 all by knockouts. Guiden, former USBA 154-pound titlist, boasts a 39-6 with 35 KO diary. Record info of fighters by Alessi Promotions.

The fight-best set has it that former holder of three different world titles Wilfredo Benitez is going in over his head July 16 in facing rugged Mustafa Hamsho of Bayonne. Benitez could be derailed in his quest for a fourth title.

We were shocked to read in the Kentucky Enquirer on Tuesday, June 14, while in Covington, Kentucky, the following, "Middleweight boxer Bobby Czyz's 39-year-old father committed suicide as the family slept at the home in Wanaque, N.J. Robert Czyz died of a single bullet wound to the head. He left no note to his family and it was not clear indication of what led to his suicide, police said."

Before we headed to the banks of the Ohio River, a group of Philadelphia friends of veteran middleweight Bennie Briscoe gave him a dinner and what a wonderful tribute to the former title contender. Among the many fighters, past and present, in attendance at Palumbo's Restaurant in Philly, were Marvin Hagler, Eddie Mustafa Muhammad, Bobby "Boogaloo" Watts, Emile Griffith, Jeff Chandler and Vito Antuofermo. Briscoe fought the best including former, current and future champions in his 21 years in the busted-beak business. He compiled a record of 66 wins (53 by KOs), 24 losses and six draws. Bennie was only knocked out once in his career. Rodrigo Valdez in Monte Carlo for the vacant WBC middleweight title on May 25, 1974.

Boxing promoter Don Elbaum, who promotes fights in Atlantic City and Cincinnati, said he is negotiating to sign a bout between Alexis Arguello of Nicaragua, now fighting out of Florida, and young, undefeated Tommy Ayers of Cincinnati. Elbaum said, "I have telegraphed an offer to Arguello — $150,000 if he'll fight the undefeated junior welterweight in Cincinnati in July." When he hears from Arguello, Elbaum will work out details. Buddy La Rosa, Ayers manager, had no comment at press time.

Promoter Don King announced a WBA junior lightweight title bout pitting champion Roger Mayweather, 16-0, of Las Vegas and Benedicto Villablanca, 30-6-1, of Chile at an undetermined site on Aug. 17.

The World Boxing Council (WBC) gave the council's lightweight champion Bobby Chacon of Los Angeles until Friday to make a deal to defend the title against No. 1 challenger Hector "The Clutch" Camacho of the Bronx, N.Y. Camacho's manager, Bill Giles, claims Chacon is ducking on an agreement to fight his warrior. Promoter Jeff Levine claims to have a Chacon-Camacho signed contract for the fight. He said he had sent WBC president Jose Sulaiman in Mexico City a telegram demanding the fighters honor the agreement.

The British Boxing Board of Control rejected a request by former WBC light heavyweight titleholder John Conteh of Liverpool to renew his license to fight again. This is the second time in nine months the commission turned down a request by Conteh. The reason: A medical examination in September, 1982 revealed a bruise on his brain stem. Conteh has been examined by six doctors at his personal cost and all have agreed with the board's doctors.

Timothy "Buddy" Hayes, one of the best featherweights to ever pull on a glove is the president of Ring 4 of the Veteran Boxers Association. Buddy is co-operator of the Cambridge (Mass.) Boxing gymnasium with Eddie Bangs.

Clint Jackson, junior middleweight is recuperating from a collarbone fracture, writes from his Nashville, Tenn. home, "Despite my record of 23 victories (19 by KO) and only two losses I can not receive the recognition I deserve. I'll beat any junior middleweight or middleweight in the top ten. I'm one fight away from a title. They can't deny me forever." He continues, "The politics and frustrations of boxing is unbelievable. They did the same thing to Marvin Hagler for eight years." Jackson is trained and managed by a Tennessee attorney, Stan Allen and Allen's wife, Betty Sue.

Middleweight Andre "Sugarman" Cooper of Blackwood, N.J., kept his record on the winning side by scoring a 10-round unanimous decision over Sanderline Williams of Cleveland, Ohio, at The Tropicana in Atlantic City, Tuesday. Cooper boosted his record to 15-0 with 12 knockouts. Williams, former 1982 National Golden Gloves champion, suffered his first pro defeat in six bouts.

Playboy Hotel/Casino, Atlantic City, Sunday: Joe Thomas, 236½, Throop, Pa., WTKO in third round over Clayton Parker, 196, Caser, N.C.; Willie Harris, 152, Eagleville, Pa., W-Dec. in eight rounds over Derrik Doughty, 155, Columbia, S.C.; Stan Butler, 218, Eagleville, Pa., W-Dec. in eight rounds over Roger Troupe, 213, Buffalo, N.Y.; Dawud Shaw, 173½, Pottstown, Pa., WTKO in first round over Rodney "Pee Wee" Mc Connell, 145, Philadelphia. Zack Clayton and Joe O'Neil handled the referee chores. Judging was done by Phil Newman, L. Wallace and Charlie Spina. It was a Joe Hand promotion.

Former WBA lightweight champion Hilmer Kenty, native of Austin, Texas, fighting out of Detroit, Mich., who announced his retirement after losing the title to Sean O'Grady, April 12, 1981, due to an eye injury. He was on a successful comeback until a curious (fast count) KO loss to Robert Elizond in the second round. Kenty decided to try again at a return to the ring and won a 10-round decision over veteran James Martinez of Houston, Texas. Kenty is now 23-2 with 15 knockouts.

Joe Bugner claims he was robbed by the officials in his fight against Marvis Frazier in Atlantic City. He publicly called the officials "idiots." According to the way this writer observed the bout, Bugner only won two rounds of the 10. On July 2, 1973, in London, Bugner lost a 12-round decision to Smokin' Joe Frazier, Marvis' father. Bugner said, "Joe Frazier was a superior all-around fighter than his son."

Cosmos Corner

Up, Down Week For Cosmos; Former Champs Go in First

By Mike Lamberti

Following their stirring victory over Hamburg of Germany, the Cosmos struggled, losing a tough 2-1 decision to Team America in the shootout before whipping Toronto at Giants Stadium, 5-1 last Sunday.

The Cosmos are 8-4 and yesterday entertained the Chicago Sting at Giants Stadium. The victory over Toronto moved the Cosmos back into first place in the Eastern Conference of the NASL.

The Cosmos were at their very best last Wednesday in defeating Hamburg. Only a month ago, the Germans won the European Championship and came to Giants Stadium a rested, solid ball club. It was going to be the ultimate test for the home team, and the Cosmos came away very impressive victors.

The final count was 7-2, amazing when you consider that Hamburg was leading, 2-1 at halftime. Second half goals from Giorgio Chinaglia, Rick Davis, Steve Moyers and Roberto Cabanas were the key to victory as the Cosmos completely dominated play.

The Cosmos didn't have much time to savour the win. Following the game, the team headed the Washington, D.C. to face Team America, an NASL entry compiled of American players in training for the U.S. National team which will compete for the World Cup.

While T.A. is an experiment, they have been doing very well. The club came into the game with a 6-4 mark and were leading the Southern Division of the NASL. They do not possess a legitimate goal scorer, but they have a very good defense, led by former Cosmos standout, Jeff Durgan.

There was also some controversy, because current Cosmos standout Rick Davis and Cosmos forward, Steve Moyers, both Americans, declined the Team America invitation and decided to stay with their original team. "Don't get me wrong," said Davis. "If this was the National Team, I would be there in a minute. Team America is an NASL franchise and I figured my best bet would be to stay with the Cosmos. When it comes time for the National Team, I'll be ready and willing."

Moyers voiced the same sentiment, but the D.C. crowd thought differently, booing Davis and Moyers rather loudly when the two were introduced to the large crowd. In any event, T.A. played a sound defensive game, were helped by an "own goal" by Franz Beckenbauer and won in the shootout, 2-1 for the biggest victory by far.

The loss was the second straight league game for the Cosmos and the team had to stagger home to face the Toronto Blizzard on Sunday in a key matchup. The Blizzard came in with a 7-4 mark, leading the Eastern division by two points over the Cosmos.

The home team struck quickly, with Cabanas scoring twice in the first half and Chinaglia tallying in the second half along with Franz Beckenbauer, who scored on a tremendous move.

Thus, the team battled the Chicago Sting last night in a key game. Chicago won the NASL championship in 1981, defeating the Cosmos in the shootout. However, the Sting fell upon hard times in '82, until the heartbreaking last inning. Caruso had retired the first two Caldwell batters and had a one ball-two strikeout count on the next girl, when, on the next pitch, catcher's interference was called on a swing and the batter was awarded first base. After the next girl walked, putting runners on first and second, Caldwell's clean-up batter hit a line drive to center field which went for a two-run double when the Belleville center fielder slipped and fell while trying to field the ball. This gave Caldwell a one-run lead which they held on to in the bottom of the seventh. Losing pitcher Laura Caruso pitched a brilliant game, walking four and striking out seven, while Tricia Tramutola, who suffered a sprained finger on the interference call and remained in the game, had two hits and two RBIs. Lisa Zecca and Raquel Melson each played their usual strong game defensively for Belleville.

The team finished the season with a fine record of 15 wins, four losses in this its first season in the league, and came within one pitch of being the league champs. The team members included: Raquel Melson, Daneen Rock, Michele Calderone, Tricia Tramutola, Samantha Russomanno, Lisa Zecca, Laura Caruso, Carlene Hahn, Tracy Puleo, Cindi Ruggiero, Eva Merk, Giovanna Mallozzi, Gina McDonald, Jackie Tillman, Renee Pettineo and Carolyn Giuffrida. Coaching the girls this year were Pat Templeton, Phyllis Trezza, Bob Trezza and Ken Fulda.

Local Wrestler Starts Tour

Former Belleville High School wrestler, Walter Bennett has been selected by 1980 Olympian and world champion Gene Mills to be on a United States Wrestling Federation (U.S.W.F.) cultural exchange team. The team will depart for Budapest, Hungary on July 15 to compete and train with an assortment of olympic-level international gorups. From there they will tour Czechoslovakia, Austria, Switzerland and West Germany for further competition.

This rare opportunity and distinct honor will require a minimum of $1,000 per team member. This relatively inexpensive cost is made possible by the host countries, who have agreed to defray expenses by providing reduced cost room and board accommodations.

It would be greatly appreciated if you or your organizations would assist in raising the required funds so that this young man may serve as an ambassador of good will for our community and nation. Potential sponsors should call Mr. Bennett at 751-0681 for further information.

Papasidero Has High Hopes

Belleville Placing Squad In the Bloomfield League

After a successful stint in the Bloomfield Summer Basketball League last year, the Belleville boys' basketball team will return to the league this summer, with big goals in mind.

The team will be under the direction of Don Roll, a 1978 Belleville High School graduate who currently is the assistant varsity coach at Kearny High School during the winter months. "Even though Don coaches at Kearny," said head coach Joe Papasidero, "his heart is still in Belleville. He should really help our program."

Under NNJIL rules, a head coach cannot coach a summer basketball team, thus Papasidero is confined to watching his team from the sidelines.

Roll will be assisted by Tommy Smith, another BHS grad from 1978. During his playing days, Smith compiled over 900 points and ranks as the fifth all time scorer at Belleville High. He was an aggressive player during his high school days and should be a big help to the young Buccaneer players.

"Don and Tommy will run the show," said Papasidero. "I sat down with Don and discussed personnel with him a few weeks ago. Right now, he is running practices and doing a very good job. We should do pretty well in the league."

Last season, Belleville posted a 6-2 mark, losing in the semifinals to Bloomfield on a last second basket. Bloomfield went on to lose to Essex Catholic in the final round. This summer, the league should feature the same teams from last summer, thus Nutley, Bloomfield and Essex Catholic should be back again. Passaic Valley, which featured a strong entry in 1982, is scheduled to return as is Cedar Grove. The official schedule is not set as of press time, but Papasidero hopes to have that by next week.

Belleville should be well represented this summer. First off, Phil Colalillo, who should break the school scoring mark this year, returns for his senior year. Colalillo averaged 24 points an outing in 1983, but was snubbed by the Star Ledger for all county honors. Despite being the second leading scorer in both the area and county, Colalillo did not make the all county slate.

Joe Borrello, the team's point guard the last two seasons, will also be back to lead the backcourt. Borrello came into his own late last season and should be one of the top guards in the NNJIL this fall.

The team had over 25 athletes coming out for the summer league, players who competed in the seventh and eighth grade league, the freshman, junior varsity and varsity squads. "We had an excellent turnout," Papasidero said. "It's going to be tough for 25 kids to play on one team though, we'll probably have to cut a few players."

Papasidero is very optimistic about this season. The Bucs finished the 1982-83 campaign with an 11-16 mark, taking eventual state champ Plainfield to the brink before losing in the state tournament. The Bucs had upset Weequahic in the first round to earn the game with Plainfield.

"We have some young players coming back this year, players with varsity experience," said Papasidero. "I'm really looking forward to this season."

The Bucs will compete with Teaneck, Hackensack, Ridgewood, St. Joseph's of Montvale and Passaic this fall as the NNJIL has been realigned. The coach feels that participation in the summer league will be the first step toward a successful season this winter.

Football Try-outs Set For June 26

entering the seventh inning against Belleville pitchers Scott Treverson and Stoughton. Belleville came back in the seventh frame when Steve Karlick walked and advanced to second when pinch hitter Bobby Getz walked. Gary Cook beat out an infield single to load the bases, bringing up Iggy McMillan. The Brave outfielder did his job, hitting a sacrifice fly to drive home run number one. Dave Starr then walked to reload the bases, setting the stage for the games most exciting play. Dominick Vazzano, who has been on a tear the last two weeks, hit a rocket up the middle that appeared to be a clean single. Somehow, Gary Hill of Verona got to the ball, flipped to second for a forceout, before the second basemen throw to first was wild, bringing home two runs. With the score 4-3, Verona won the game when the final Belleville batter struck out.

"It was a good game and a good indication that we can play with the good teams," said Garilli. "The top teams in this league are playing .850-900 ball, which is bound to come down a little. We're going to be in there before the seasons over, this team is too good not to be in the running."

Giants and WNBC Will Play Softball

Everyone in the Clara Maass Medical Center service area, which includes Belleville, Nutley, Lyndhurst and North Arlington, will benefit by the big softball game which will pit the football New York Giants against Don Imus and the WNBC Grand Slammers. The game, set for tonight, June 23, at 7:30 p.m., will be held at Breslin Field, Riverside County Park in Lyndhurst.

Proceeds will benefit Clara Maass' emergency medical services. Emergency medicine deals with life- or limb-threatening illnesses and injuries, as well as the everyday accidents that bring over 83 million Americans each year into their local emergency department for medical care.

Among the players likely to bat in the WNBC lineup are Don Imus, Charles McCord, Johnny Dark and Al Rosenberg. They'll have lots to say to Giant big guys Terry Jackson, Bill Neill, Mark Haynes, Butch Woolfolk and company.

Tickets, prices at $4 each, are available at the medical center, the North Arlington Rescue Squad and various other locations. For details, call 450-2150.

DeLorenzo, Suppa's On Top in Rec Play

DeLorenzo Construction swept a double-header last week to remain atop the Belleville Recreation Men's Softball League — Thursday "B" Division standings. DeLorenzo (9-3) rallied past Red Shingle 20-6 and defeated Eastern Sales 9-1. Garden State Pet (8-4) ran past Eastern Sales 9-6 and Campbell Tools 13-2; while Red Shingle (5-7) team 7-0. Eastern Sales is now 3-9.

Suppa's Bar improved to 7-0 to stay ahead of the pack in the Monday "A" League last week. Suppa's topped Joe's Alignment 8-1 and Printing Techniques 9-5. For Pete's Sake (6-1) defeated DeWitt Savings 13-1 and Joe's Alignment 9-5. Printing Techniques (2-5) outlasted J & R Insulation 14-11, and DeWitt Savings (2-5) trimmed J & R 9-7. Joe's Alignment fell to 3-4 while J & R Insulation now stands at 1-6.

Suburban Cablevision pulled out two close victories to remain in first place in the Tuesday "B" League. Suburban Cablevision (10-1) topped Belleville Shoes 5-4 in eight innings, and edged Silver Lake Auto Service 2-1. Belleville Shoes (7-4) lost a 14-9 decision to Belleville Political & Social Club (3-8), but BPSC slid to Kasey's 7-6. Kasey's (4-7) also shut out Roselli's Amoco 17-0. Silver Lake Auto Service (6-5) beat Roselli's (3-8) by an 8-6 margin.

In the Wednesday "A" League, De Bacco Bros. swept a double-header to clinch first place, thereby repeating last year's title. De Bacco's (11-2) decisioned Burger King 5-3 and Charles Daniels 13-1. Rossmore/Hess (9-4) edged Michael's Roscommon House 5-4 and bested Charles Daniels 12-0. Michael's Roscommon House (8-5) won a 5-3 victory over Megaro Memorial Home (1-12), and Burger King (5-8) also topped Megaro 10-8. Charles Daniels is 5-8.

Belleville Drops Its Legal Battle For Reimbursement of $125,000

By Linda Telesco

Belleville dropped its legal battle against a six-month-old Superior Court decision ordering the township to reimburse its former scavenger some $125,000 for additional taxes and surcharges.

Township Attorney Frank Zinna told a citizen at the June 6 Board of Commissioners meeting, "the case is no longer in litigation" since a previous challenge to a similar decision was lost by Parsippany-Troy Hills, a North Jersey community.

"We decided, in view of the Par-Troy Hills results, to dismiss the matter, pay the losses, and not accrue interest on that," Zinna explained.

In the process of litigation, Belleville challenged the December decision of Newark Superior Court Judge Reginald Stanton who ordered Belleville to repay its then scavenger, L. Pucillo and Sons, Inc. of Lodi and Belleville, for the additional charges imposed at the dumping grounds used by the scavenger as a result of state legislation enacted in the course of the township's most recent contract with the collectors.

In an effort to cover the added costs, Pucillo tried unsuccessfully last year to renegotiate the last $1.5 million three-year contract with Belleville. That contract expired on December 31, 1982 and the township had selected a new scavenger for the upcoming five years.

In issuing his decision, Judge Stanton agreed with Pucillo's attorney, Mark Lerner of Newark it was "not fair" to burden the business with costs imposed because of legislation.

Belleville, however, argued it had a valid contract with the firm, and state legislation enacted during the life of that contract could not alter its agreed upon terms.

One piece of legislation in question is the 1975 Solid Waste Management Act under which the Hackensack Meadowlands Development Commission approved a plan requiring users of its dump site, including Pucillo, to pay a rate-averaged fee for uniform costs.

Then, the Recycling and Sanitary Landfill Closure and Contingency

Acts were adopted in 1981 adding surcharges to finance statewide recycling program and landfill contingency fund.

Both acts imposed on landfill owners a tax surcharge based on the amount of waste disposed at the site. The landfill owners then passed costs along to the scavengers by charging them a fee in order to dump collected waste.

Forced to pay on the spot, scavengers attempted to recover losses by renegotiating existing contracts and, according to Belleville's attorney, Par-Troy Hills is the unsuccessful model case in the issue, discouraging further litigation.

Third Deputy Chief Added to Police Force

Objecting to the measure, Henry Charzewski of Joralemon Street said, "You're trying something out at the taxpayers' expense," referring to Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevy's point that the new position reflects a $28,000 difference from the present costs.

The irate citizen charged the need for the move was not substantiated. "Maybe we don't need a deputy chief. Maybe we need more patrolmen. How do you know?" he asked, suggesting the township should have sought a professional evaluation of police needs by an independent agency prior to making any changes.

Pica responded, "I made my evaluation in concert with the chief of police (George Lister). He's the expert."

Charzewski complained further that the experiment would prove costly even if Commissioners decided to abandon it at a later date.

Although Pica assured him that with proper documentation the Commissioners could "declassify" the position if it does not serve Belleville's needs, he conceded to the citizen's point that the officer involved would be entitled to an appeal which could be both lengthy and expensive.

In contrast, another citizen praised the measure as "a sound and necessary move." Jerry Di Nicola of Union Avenue recalled that in past years Belleville had three deputy chiefs. "We abolished one position when George Lister was made chief. The town has been shortchanged ever since," he said.

Vice president of Research and Development Security, a private North Jersey detective firm, Di Nicola hailed the move as beneficial because "it puts cops on the street, not behind the desk." He also noted rookies on patrol would benefit by having more experienced officers out there with them.

"This is not just a move to give somebody a promotion," the citizen continued. "This will give more flexibility to the entire police department," said Di Nicola, adding "that deputy chief position never should have been abolished in the first place."

According to records provided by Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood, there is a precedent for the new ordinance since in 1972 provision was made for three deputy chiefs on the books. That number dropped to two in 1981 and last Monday's measure re-established the original number.

The post will be filled when all necessary certifications are complete, Pica had said, declining to name possible contenders.

Launching a Career — Lois Tirrell of Belleville does some fashion modeling during the School 5 PTA fashion show held at the Bethwood in Totowa. The fashions were supplied by Fashions For Less.

Town Officials Looking To Sell Toxic Chemicals

of the site closed by court order on May 18 because of operational improprieties now under scrutiny in the County Prosecutor's office.

Last week, Superior Court Judge Reginald Stanton in Newark permitted Belleville to maintain the control of the plant and granted the township the authority to begin the cleanup procedure.

The judge ruled, however, all proceeds from sales of chemicals must go into a township-controlled fund that can be removed only with another court order.

Marianne Pratter, the owner of Research Organic-Inorganic Chemical Corp., was represented at the hearing by her attorney, Frederic Ritger of Newark.

Judge Stanton granted Pratter permission to review any business records and material which pertain to her case, but such examinations must be conducted in the presence of Belleville's attorney or officials.

Moreover, Ritger has filed suit against Belleville, township officials, and Clean Industries, charging them with unlawfully seizing control of the company last month.

In that action, the company's head chemist, Muhammad Aslam of Jersey City, was arrested and charged with soliciting another person to unlawfully release a dangerous or destructive substance.

The matter is in the hands of Essex County Prosecutor George Schneider who announced early this month he had evidence that acetone related chemicals were unlawfully poured down drains in the plant and released into Belleville's sewer system. Schneider had said he plans to present the evidence to a grand jury soon.

about his contract renewal. "I have always been involved in education and the community of Belleville, and I am very happy with the way things worked out."

Schwartz served on the Belleville Board of Education as a trustee for 10 years and as president from 1974-75. He is also a member of the Rutgers University Board of Governors.

the back due increases retroactively, McGreevy said, "They better not try that."

In replying to a citizen's inquiry, McGreevy conceded although the utility raised Belleville by one-third, the township increased local rates by approximately 55 percent.

"We're losing our biggest customer July 1," said McGreevy in explaining the disparity. On that date, the Universal Foods Corporation's Mill Street yeast factory leaves Belleville.

Following close on the departure of the Walter Kidde Co. in the Valley, McGreevy noted the loss of two major industrial water consumers in the township. — Telesco
