Annual JC Festival Set For July 19-23

Next Tuesday through Saturday, July 19-23, the Nutley Jaycees will hold their 12th annual summer festival at Father Glotzbach Park on Park Avenue in Nutley.

Exciting children's rides, games of chance, mouth-watering foods and special "family entertainment" will highlight this year's event. Pizza-Time Theatre's superstar mouse, Chuck E. Cheese, will be on hand Saturday from 2-3 p.m. to entertain the youngsters, while during the week clowns and a Dixieland Jazz Band will keep the action moving.

For all muscle men and women, this year's festival features the "High Striker," where you can pit your strength against "the bell."

A unique, new "Strawberry Short Cake Booth," will feature stunningly attractive and life-like dolls for young girls. In addition, a new booth featuring huge stuffed animals of all sorts will also add to every youngster's enjoyment.

The always exciting "Fish Toss," whereby youngsters can "go fishing" with a ping pong ball is back again, the water-dunking booth will be open all five days during the week by the Nutley Emergency & Rescue Squad, the extremely popular rock 'n roll T-shirt and hat booth will be there, along with a wide variety of booths featuring radios, TVs, clocks, kitchen appliances, baseball caps and banners, plus a new "Crazy Quarters Booth," which makes you a winner when you drop your quarter into a clown's mouth.

Pre-school Registration Is Available

The Belleville Recreation Department is now accepting registrations for the pre-school play program for 4-year-old children. The program consists of games, stories, songs, arts, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties especially designed for pre-school children.

A session is from 9:15-11:15 a.m., five days a week, with class size limited to 25 students. The cost of the 15-week session is $45. The mothers of the children accepted will serve one duty day about every eight or nine days according to a published schedule.

School will begin again in September under the leadership of Mrs. Susanne Jannini. For further information and enrollment, please contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 759-3121 as soon as possible, Monday to Friday 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

New Scavenger Contract Bids Cost $900,000 More This Time

By Linda Telesco

Moments before envelopes were accepted in Monday's latest round of bids for Belleville's scavenger contract, state police officials detained bidder Carmine Pucillo in the Town Hall vestibule and served him with two subpoenas to appear before a state grand jury investigating scavenger practices in New Jersey.

Twelve minutes later, Pucillo, president of L. Pucillo and Sons of Lodi, and Browning-Ferris Waste Industries of Fairfield submitted the only two bids for collection in a controversial rebidding this year that promises possible increases of up to $900,000 for scavenger service.

Det. Howard E. Butt of the Organized Crime Bureau and Frank Bradley, a state investigator with the Division of Criminal Justice approached Pucillo as he was about to enter the chambers to submit his bid.

Flashing identification badges, the officers explained — in the presence of a Times reporter — one subpoena demanded Pucillo's testimony and the other his firm's records at a hearing slated for July 14.

"This is very embarrassing. I'm about to go in and bid on a contract," said the burly, bearded Pucillo, who had proceeded to telephone his attorney. He returned and submitted his bid by the 8 p.m. deadline.

When the last call for bids was sounded, in Commission Chambers, the state officials inspected the envelopes prior to public reading.

State officials told The Times, the Pucillo subpoenas are another development in the ongoing state probe of scavenger practices in New Jersey, and expressed concern about "how many times this contract has been bid."

The Pucillo firm is already embroiled in litigation against Belleville and BFI, the township's present contractor. Last Monday's round of bids were the result of a Superior Court order issued last month, a matter the township presently has before the Supreme Court.

In June, a judicial panel of the Appellate Division upheld a March opinion by a Newark Superior Court judge who voided Belleville's current five-year $2,778,992 contract with BFI which was awarded the firm on last Dec. 28 and took effect Jan. 1.

The three-justice panel upheld Judge Richard Newman's nullifying decision on grounds that BFI failed, at the time of original bidding on

New Police Station Approved Despite Citizens' Objections

Despite a massive objection from the local merchants, Commissioners unanimously approved last Monday a capital ordinance appropriating $1,725,000 and authorizing issuance of $665,000 bonds to finance construction of a new Public Safety complex contingent upon receipt of a federal grant.

First introduced June 28, the measure may fund construction of a $1.6 million police building planned for a county-owned land parcel on Franklin Avenue, next to the present fire department headquarters.

However, over 50 merchants and residents turned out to protest plans to remove the police headquarters from the center of town.

The department is presently located in the basement of Town Hall on Washington Avenue, quarters which officials deem as too cramped and inadequate for the department.

Chamber of Commerce President Jaye Tarantino read a prepared letter to the Commission expressing results of a poll taken among the Chamber's 175 members.

"In the recent pre-election days, all of the Commissioners and those running for office were in full agreement of the urgency of the revitalization of Washington Avenue," she read. Tarantino later warned the board that moving the police station out of its central downtown location would have two negative effects. She contended there would no longer be a clear deterrent to "the encroachment

Local Woman Selected As Finalist in Pageant

Patricia Perez of Belleville has been selected to be a state finalist in the 1983 Miss United Teenager Pageant to be held at the Ramada Inn in Pennsylvania on July 29.

Miss Perez, 17, a student at Belleville High School, will be competing against other finalists for a trip to Hollywood, California, and Waikiki Beach, Hawaii. She will also compete in the national finals for $15,000 in scholarships, $2,000 wardrobe, a new automobile for the reigning years, $3,000 appearance contract and many other prizes.

Contestants will be judged on scholastic and civic achievements, beauty, poise, and personality. No swimsuit competition or talent is involved. Each contestant must also

A Man of the World — Joe Dasaro

Seasoned travelers or not, most people in summertime pack up their bags and troubles anticipating a time away from it all, an opportunity to broaden their horizons, or a cure for a case of incurable wanderlust.

For one Belleville man, travel is both a way of life and a means of living, and a visit with Joe Dasaro of Belleville Travel Service is glimpsing most of the globe in the space of an hour.

"I grew up in this business. I come from an airline family," said Dasaro, who along with his brothers, James and Michael, has operated the agency at 129 Washington Ave. since 1965.

Their father, the late Peter Dasaro, worked 27 years for American Airlines, where Michael later worked also. Jim's experience was at Northwest Orient Airways and Joe worked for 23 years in New York Airways' helicopter service.

"When we first opened this business, there were 5,000 travel agencies in the United States," said Joe, in a lively interview at the busy office last week.

"Today," he continued, "there are over 21,000 agencies in the country." He excitedly points out that the industry flourished and more people than ever are traveling extensively. However, he cautions, "there are lots of hobby agents out there who don't really know the business."

Dasaro prides himself on having first-hand knowledge of most places customers are interested in. "People want to know if you've been there, and usually I can say yes and give them first-hand information," he said.

Articulate, warm, and amusing, Dasaro reflected on his experience with travels and travelers. When asked if, after so many years in the business he can "classify" his customers, he said, "There certainly are recognizable types, but sometimes I really need intuition to advise a customer correctly," he explained.

"We always get the types who want to be pampered, first class all the way and money is no object," he laughed. "Sometimes, I'll try to suggest vacations with more adventure to them so that kind of customer does not find himself on an island bored because everything's been done for him already."

Most people have some idea of where they want to go, but many ask for advice from the experts. "First, I find out how much money they want to spend, how much time they have, and what kind of places they favor," he said. "Then, I get into psychology. I talk to the customer to see if he seems laid back or a constant mover. There's a vacation style for everyone and it's my job to find it."

Dasaro said he takes his counseling responsibilities very seriously. "For a large portion of our customers, a trip is still something they've saved a long time for. It should be a dream come true and I try to make that happen."

The Dasaros frequently travel themselves, sometimes as tour guides, in order to evaluate hotels, restaurants, and other attributes of vacation spots. "We try to keep up. Standards are always changing and customers may find that a friend's recommendations no longer hold up."

Surprisingly, for all his experience, Dasaro is anything but blasé. When he talks about the glories of Hawaiian Islands or the splendor of Florence, a listener is magically transported to those locales.

"I love seeing the world," said the Bellevillite who, at 18, frequently traveled to exotic locations for a single weekend at a time.

"While my friends were driving down to Seaside Heights, I was on my way to Rome or Paris," he recalled.

He laughs at the suggestion of growing bored after so many treks. "There's so much to see and so many ways to see a single place," he smiled. "When people tell me they've been to Rome I ask, 'When?'"

"I've been to the Colosseum at 7 in the morning. Nobody but the pigeons and me. There's a hush, then, if you really listen, you can hear the crowds roar," he whispered, talking of ancient Roman games held in the celebrated structure.

Because of his own experience, Dasaro likes to recommend "moving vacations" to interested customers. "I send them to San Francisco. They can spend some time in that beautiful city then drive down California's west coast or through Carmel, Monterey and some of the most beautiful scenery in the world."

He calls Rio de Janeiro "the most exciting, colorful city in the world." He warned to China where the people were "gentle, different," and looks forward to a planned trip to Russia "because I've never been there."

But after all of that, Dasaro thinks there's no place like home. "The United States is the most diverse, exciting country in the world," said the man who has driven from sea to shining sea and still finds the land new and inviting.

When asked where Belleville residents like to go, Dasaro said most local customers aim for cruises. "In my opinion, it's the ultimate vacation and spoils you completely," he laughed.

Two of the most unusual trips arranged by Belleville Travel Service were for local residents. One young scuba diver arranged a journey to the Truk Islands in the South Pacific in order to dive among sunken World War II Japanese warships.

A Belleville couple in their 80's took a honeymoon to Cameroon in Africa to visit a relative who serves as a missionary there.

"We try to meet any request," said Dasaro, who is also careful to caution Americans about dangers and difficulties they may encounter in some parts of the world.

Looking for adventure? Dasaro suggests an Amazon cruise. Taking the children? Disneyland is standard, but the agent recommends dude ranches and other youth oriented attractions. "They'll never forget a trip to Washington D.C. and the Smithsonian Institute," he insisted.

For vacationers making up their minds on short notice, he has a wealth of suggestions from enchanted nights on a Caribbean Island, to enjoying old time fun in New Orleans.

Belleville born and bred, Dasaro is living proof of the benefits travel can bring. Rather than leave his native community or live elsewhere, the businessman seeks to make Belleville all it can be.

A member of the township's Redevelopment Agency, Dasaro seeks to help rebuild Belleville's spirit.

He also hopes one day to organize local student travel groups. "Every young person should see the world. They'll learn so much and learn to appreciate what they have here as well."

His young sons, Joseph and Anthony, have already been on three cruises.

Dasaro tells a story, "One day, I heard a group of men at a poolside talking about retirement. Most said they would travel when they retire and see the world. I asked myself, 'What will I do when I retire?'"

Optimistic, energetic, and profoundly youthful, Dasaro said, "I guess I'll just go right on doing what I'm doing."

Dinner-Dance Raises Funds For POW-MIAs

"Congratulations" and "When is the next one?" were some of the feelings expressed on Saturday, June 11 at American Legion Post 105 on Washington Avenue. A fund raising dinner-dance was held to raise funds to help maintain the National Forget-Me-Not for POW-MIAs Chapter in Somerville. All proceeds from the event, along with an American flag for the chapter, were presented to Chapter President Amy Theodore by Bob and Sandi Pidcock, chairman and co-chairman for the evening. Entertainment was provided by Gene Pobol, Sr., a magician from Dover, The Daytop Band from Parkersville, N.Y., did a wonderful job with the music, and Jim Cava, a Vietnam veteran, sang his very moving "Red Ribbon Song." They donated their talent in the fight to "Bring Our Men Home." Dinner was catered by John Michael of North Arlington.

Students, Teachers Adjust to Middle School Concept

Educational Structure Change At Middle School Working Well

For years it was referred by students as "The Zoo." But since its change from a junior high school to a middle school, not only have students' grades been improving slightly, but the atmosphere in the facility has improved 100 percent.

"There are many improvements which can be named since the Board of Education made the move to change the Junior High School to a Middle School," said Mario DiMaggio, school principal. "It's been two years since I have heard the term 'The Zoo' or 'The Jungle' used to describe this place."

It was back in 1981 when members of the School Board decided to move the ninth graders out of the junior high and send them to the high school, thus making the junior high school a two-grade school, consisting of seventh and eighth graders.

"At one time this building held 1,525 students," said DiMaggio. "now we have 775 students, which is well within reason."

"We are now on a single schedule with all the students coming to school at the same time and leaving also at the same time," he continued. "It was the split schedule we were using two years ago which created most of the discipline problems in the school. Ninth graders were dismissed from school at 1 p.m. and would hang around until 3 p.m., starting trouble. Many of the neighbors would complain about the amount of damage done to their property, but since the change, the vandalism has decreased sharply."

Joseph Ciccone, vice principal at the Middle School, says that with fewer students, he not only "gets to see the bad ones, but the good ones also."

"The change to a middle school has given me an opportunity to get deeper involved with many of the students throughout the school," said Ciccone. "Before I was confined to the office, seeing kids who were having problems, but now I get a chance to get out of the office and into the classroom where I can get a better idea of what is going on."

"When we had the ninth graders here, there wasn't a week that would go by that the police would not pick up at least one student who was cutting school," Ciccone continued. "but now if it occurs twice a year, that is a lot."

DiMaggio believes that the reason student absent rate and truancy is declining is due to the school environment.

"The children who attend this school have a lot of pride," he said. "They are much more happier students, who are not ashamed to identify with their school. The parents are also satisfied and also proud to identify with the middle school. Before the change there would be a lot of anxiety on the part of the parents and the students who would be attending the Middle School, but I believe that we have tackled many of those anxieties by creating a more relaxed atmosphere here."

To make the incoming sixth graders feel more at ease, school officials created an orientation program, in which the sixth graders visit the school in June to become familiar with the building and meet some of the administrators and teachers.

"The orientation program is just another way we have tried to make the adjustment of attending a new school easier for students," said Ciccone. "There are still anxieties, but the feelings of the parents and the students coming in are positive ones."

"Statistics show that the scores of the Iowa Basic Skill exams have increased over the two-year period," said DiMaggio. "But the amount of the increase is not very significant. We are always pleased to see a rise in test scores among the students, but once again we must be careful not to get carried away by making claims which cannot be backed with facts."

Also on the rise is the number of students who achieve honor status over the course of the year.

During the 1980-81 school year, 28 percent of the students received high honors, while 29 percent received regular honors. During the 1982-83 school year, 31 percent of them were named to the high honor list, while 30 percent achieved regular honors.

While both men are happy with the progress the Middle School has made over the past two years, they are determined to make sure that the program moves in the right direction.

"We have broken the facility into six academic teams which will be meeting each day of the week to plan courses and activities for the school year," said DiMaggio. "It will be an informal meeting in which the group of teachers will be able to discuss any school matters they wish. The group will also meet with the principal, the vice principal and the guidance counselors during the week. We believe that this will enable the teachers and administrators to work closer together in making the system work better for the students."

The response that an individual patient has to a drug, with a specific dose on a particular schedule of administration, varies. A drug always acts in combination with specific physiology and life patterns to produce individual effects. Not only is the response to a drug different among various individuals, but each individual differs in physiology, chemistry and life pattern under different circumstances. For example, disease or fatigue may change an individual's response to a drug. So it must be said that the action of a particular dose of a specific drug cannot be expected to be exactly the same each time, only similar.

The View From Managua

The heat in Managua is as oppressive to an American visitor as the slogans screaming from the walls of a disheveled city. For all its alleged omnipotence, Yankee imperialism no longer guarantees functioning air-conditioners at an Intercontinental Hotel.

Still, that's what you expect in a city at war. More surprising are the cool answers to the most pressing questions: (1) Do American-backed insurgents seriously threaten Managua's leftist rulers? (2) How deep is the public's discontent? (3) Is there anything left to negotiate with the now avowedly Marxist regime?

The consensus among observers of different stripes is: (1) No real threat yet. (2) Less discontent than Washington believes. (3) Yes, if the negotiations turn on America's acceptance of the revolution and Nicaragua's recognition of American scrutiny concerns.

"These are men with a problem," said a Western diplomat, "but it is a manageable problem. If the fighting continues at present levels, and if the Sandinistas avoid anything stupid like invading Costa Rica or provoking a war with Honduras, they'll be in power for years to come."

Stupidity cannot be ruled out. The Sandinistas were stupidly boorish to the Pope, stupidly use mobs to stifle dissent, stupidly exaggerate C.I.A. poison plots. But where survival is at stake, the junta of nine Sandinista commanders is not so dumb. They are more than holding their own in the two-front skirmishing with insurgents. And they're turning conflicts to their advantage.

That is because nationalism, not Marxism, sustains the regime. The Sandinistas find it easy to galvanize support against insurgents financed by Americans and employing former officers of the hated Somoza dictatorship. Militia members are being hardened in four-month tours at the border front. Every casualty is an occasion for national mourning, magnifying the threat to people still inspired by General Sandino, who eluded the U.S. Marines a half-century ago.

No one in Managua has reliable reports of significant urban resistance, terror actions or demonstrations against the junta. No army or militia units have responded to the calls to defect from Eden Pastora, a former Sandinista commander who has suspended a small insurgency.

To attribute the public's acquiescence only to indoctrination and suppression is to underestimate the regime's standing. It is firmly identified with a nationalist cause. It has advanced literacy, medical care and social services among the long neglected poor. The shortages, of soap or sugar, are shared by all — and blamed on the insurgencies.

The Sandinistas also gain stature from their professions of nonalignment and lip service to pluralism and a mixed economy. Actually, you could hear more criticism of Moscow from Italian Communists. And the Sandinistas obviously censor their press, harass the private sector and keep political opponents toothless.

So what is there to negotiate? A senior commander, Tomas Borge, gives this list: ban Nicaraguan arms shipments to Salvadoran rebels (already vehemently denied); discuss the "democratization" of Nicaragua; forbid foreign bases, Cuban or Soviet, on Nicaraguan soil.

What about all those Cuban advisers? We have no objection to U.S. advisers in El Salvador or Honduras, Mr. Borge retorts, so how can you deny us ours?

The commander's grudging pragmatism may be a ploy. It may be too late for any deal between Managua and Washington. But to test the junta's sincerity is not a sin even, I found, among the Sandinistas' sworn enemies.

Commissioner Grande Is Doing the Job Well

To the editor:

It seems to me that a certain commissioner who took a stagnant department for the past 16 years is trying to make it work. "And work right." So he changed the department people where he thought they do best. Now I didn't vote for this man cause I felt he was just going to be a "rubber stamp" or a "stooge." I know, now and honestly believe I was wrong. I do get around in this town and sit with town bosses, ex-commissioners, board of ed people, etc. This man is doing the job, 110 percent of it.

I hear "taxpayers" say he's doing the job. Now when you do a good job no doubt you make people mad. But you also make friends. I now consider myself to be a friend of his. That doesn't mean four years from now I won't run if he does, or if sooner he has to run again. I'll run, but I will support him if he has to, and I don't see him sell out. I have seen him at one town meeting, he's sincere. He's openminded. I don't think he'll miss many meetings. The second one he missed was due to the passing of Mrs. Grande's father. On behalf of myself and my civic association, we send our prayers. Commissioner Grande keep up the good work. Our road will cross but it'll be for the betterment of Belleville.

A Letter Of Thanks

To the editor:

A word of thanks to the Belleville Senior Citizens Club, Inc., for their generous contribution to the Deborah Heart and Lung Hospital in Brown's Mill, N.J.

Too many times has it been said or implied that the Senior Citizens are forever receiving benefits but never of a giving nature. This is just one case that dispels that thought.

The Belleville Club has made two sizable donations to Deborah to date and I understand that they have contributed to other funds for people in less fortunate circumstances than themselves.

Thank you, members of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club, Inc.

Yours truly,
Eunice Conover,

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Ignoring the relative merits or need for improved police department facilities we have reservations about the practicality of abandoning the recommendations of the Townplan Associates in their feasibility study designed to revitalize Washington Avenue and the ailing business district for which the township paid $14,000.

Twenty years ago, Councilman Tom Greco, a draftsman whose family was in the construction business, pointing out the topography of the town hall offered an ideal situation to build a two- or three-story attachment to the present building with parking facilities underneath. Even back then consideration was being given to moving the police department into a more modernistic headquarters. Our present court room, the Commission Chambers, has been modernized and air conditioned. It seems adequate to meet the needs of the community — were future enlargement advisable — the proposed addition to the present Town Hall, suggested by Councilman Greco, would accommodate that need.

Already Belleville is in the unique situation of having built a new fire station on Franklin Avenue on land the county owns. Reports have it that we have little in the way of ownership rights or the certainty that a change in county administrative office or control of the Board of Chosen Freeholders might not rescind whatever terms presently exist. An analogy could be offered of someone building a house on someone else's land without proper "paper" to define all the terms of an agreement.

We are apprehensive about building upon land on which the township lacks title to. Likewise, we fear that bonding attorneys and the federal funding agency might look with askance upon such an arrangement.

This ordinance pledges the full faith and credit of the township for payment of the principal and interest of the obligations authorized by this bond ordinance. Would any bank or savings and loan association grant a mortgage to anyone who didn't hold title to the land? We think not.

The Franklin Avenue fire station served the best interests of both the township and the county. It stationed both men and equipment in a built-up area which reduced response time in the event of fires or emergencies. The county received lower fire insurance premiums on its Soho Hospital complex.

The situation regarding the police headquarters is decidedly different, as well as that of the court. Both are accessible by public transportation. The principal business area is along the strip constituting Washington Avenue and the K-Mart, Grand Union shopping complex. Police cars are patrolling throughout designated areas and are in constant communication with headquarters by radio. Only back a few years, consideration was being given to buying the corner lot on the south east side of William Street and Washington Avenue on which to build a new police station. Why move it from that general location now?

Surely, if an application for federal funding under the Emergency Jobs Act providing monies to local governments for public works projects can be sought to build on land that the township doesn't own, it would seem that they would fare much better if they were to apply to enlarge and expand the present town hall which they own in its entirety.

The highest tax assessments are set upon Washington Avenue business property, therefore, logic suggests that every effort and consideration should be given to revitalizing and building up the image of this once bustling commercial district. A bird in the hand is worth two in a bush.

In a June 27 letter, Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro agreed to lease the parcel in the northeast corner of the Essex County Geriatrics Center to Belleville for a police station. The mayor said no rental fees had been named, but he expected it would be "about $1 a year," the usual rate for such "donations."

We feel that is pretty tenuous and unsafe grounds to commit the credit of the township upon. Especially, is this so, in view of the stated life expectancy of the proposed police station as 40 years. What happens should Shapiro no longer be among the higher echelons of government and a new county executive or new Board of Freeholders decides to "take over" and orders Belleville out?

Prayer For Today

We come before Thee, O Lord, in the end of Thy day with thanksgiving.

Our beloved in the far parts of earth, those who are now beginning the labors of the day what time we end them, and those with whom the sun now stands at the point of noon, bless, help, console, and prosper them.

Our guard is relieved, the service of the day is over, and the hour come to rest. We resign into Thy hands our sleeping bodies, our cold hearths and open doors. Give us to awaken with smiles, give us to labor smiling. As the sun returns in the east, so let our patience be renewed with dawn; as the sun lightens the world, so let our loving kindness make bright this house of our habitation.

Religious Viewpoint

Up in the north country a Christian missionary was speaking to his Indian friends on the subject of complete surrender of themselves to the sweet will of God.

As he spoke, an old Indian chief arose, walked forward, and laid his tomahawk at the missionary's feet. "Indian Chief give his tomahawk to Jesus Christ," said he, and sat down.

Still the missionary spoke on, his subject the love of God, of the gift of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, and of His claim upon lives as noted in St. Matthew 10:37, 38. "He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of men, and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me, and he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me is not worthy of me." Rising from his seat, the old chief walked forward to the front once more. Unwrapping his blanket from his shoulder he laid it at the speaker's feet, saying, "Indian Chief give his blanket to Jesus Christ." Again he sat down.

But still the missionary preached on concerning the love of God in Christ Jesus. Still he showed how God had rifled heaven of its choicest gifts and sent Christ to this earth to redeem lost people, when Jesus gave himself for the sins of everyone. (John 3:16.)

Presently the old chief disappeared from the meeting. By and by he came back leading his pony to the tent door. He tied it to the stake and again walked up the aisle. Facing the missionary, he said, "Indian Chief give his pony to Jesus Christ," and once more he took his seat. He had given about all he had — all the things he had considered valuable.

And now as the missionary preached of the God who spared not His only Son, but freely gave Him up for us, he pressed upon his listeners the claim of Jesus Christ upon the life. Still the message kept sinking into hearts.

Finally the old chief arose for the last time. He walked forward with tottering steps to the front of the tent. He knelt down reverently before the missionary. With tears streaming down his bronzed cheeks he said, with trembling lips, "Indian Chief give himself to Jesus Christ."

God's message to you: "My Son give me your heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways." "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." A common failure is to give things instead of yourself. God wants you!

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

Often, a spinal misalignment which causes extreme pain, even to the point of disability, is the result of years of neglect. Small injuries to the spine, caused by over-exertion, improper lifting or whatever, have left the spine vulnerable to that final "slight" injury. That means back trouble that can no longer be neglected.

Chiropractor care can often correct misalignment and provide immediate relief. In some cases, trouble that took years to develop may require a little time to treat satisfactorily.

Phone for an appointment for a chiropractic examination which will establish the facts about your health problems.

Mrs. Marion Winters Dean of Garwood announces the engagement of her daughter, Michelle Suzanne, to Wayne S. The bride-elect graduated from Belleville High School and attended Kean College of New Jersey. She is a

CMHS HOTLINE Widowed Persons Need To Reach Out to Others

Dear Community Mental Health Services Hotline:
I am 67 years of age, recently widowed and live alone in a third floor apartment. Presently, my health has not been too good and it is difficult for me to get out. I do not feel like doing much anymore. Life seems overwhelming for me much of the time. My husband and I did everything together. I miss him terribly. Because of our togetherness, I had need for few friends. Now the four walls just seem to close in on me.

Overwhelmed.

Dear Overwhelmed:
You are experiencing a natural grieving process with the passing of your husband. It is normal to feel overwhelmed and lonely. It is often difficult to do daily tasks when the person you shared them with is no longer there. The fact that you have written this letter may indicate to you that you are ready to help yourself at this difficult time. It may be helpful to speak to your minister/priest about your feelings. Also, you may find it helpful to talk with others who have suffered a similar loss. There are support groups in the area such as "Second Phase" (743-4400), a self help group for widowed persons. This may be a beginning to new relationships as well. Reaching out to others, even though difficult, may be a key to helping yourself. The Friendly Visitors Program (751-1750) has volunteers who visit weekly or telephone daily to homebound seniors in Bloomfield, Belleville and Nutley.

Also, when you are feeling better, keep your eyes open for Senior activities and events in your newspaper that may be of interest. But remember, this is a major life crisis for which you will need time to adjust and you must go at your own pace.

Holiday Cruise — Joyce Juliano and Angel Vicari of Belleville are shown on the deck of the Home Line's flagship, S.S. Oceanic just before sailing from the Isle of Manhattan to the sun isles of Bermuda and Nassau in the tropical Bahamas on a week's holiday cruise.

Mission Outreach Seeks Donations

St. Theresa's Mission Outreach Inc. is seeking support for a gift table at the fashion show to be held Oct. 19 at the Cameo Restaurant, Garfield. A donation of new or used articles in

A senior commander, rounds Borge, gives this list: ban Nicaraguan arms shipments to Salvadoran rebels (already vehemently denied); discuss the "democratization" of Nicaragua; forbid foreign bases, Cuban or Soviet, on Nicaraguan soil.

What about all those Cuban advisers? We have no objection to U.S. advisers in El Salvador or Honduras, Mr. Borge retorts, so how can you deny us ours?

The commander's grudging pragmatism may be a ploy. It may be too late for any deal between Managua and Washington. But to test the junta's sincerity is not a sin even, I found, among the Sandinistas' sworn enemies.

Prayer For Today

We come before Thee, O Lord, in the end of Thy day with thanksgiving.

Our beloved in the far parts of earth, those who are now beginning the labors of the day what time we end them, and those with whom the sun now stands at the point of noon, bless, help, console, and prosper them.

Our guard is relieved, the service of the day is over, and the hour come to rest. We resign into Thy hands our sleeping bodies, our cold hearths and open doors. Give us to awaken with smiles, give us to labor smiling. As the sun returns in the east, so let our patience be renewed with dawn; as the sun lightens the world, so let our loving kindness make bright this house of our habitation.

Junior Women Raised $1,800 For Charities

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville was again successful in its fundraising attempts as over $1,800 was allotted for contributions this year. The club's annual contribution night was held recently and the Juniors voted to give donations to the following: two Belleville High School scholarships, Belleville Public Library, Bobby Travers Fund, Greater Newark Christmas Fund, CROP, Friends of the Library, CARE, UNICEF, Paws Animal Shelter, Ronald MacDonald House, Channel 13, Renaissance House and Federation charities.

Besides raising money for internal club affairs and local charities, the Belleville Juniors are community oriented and have sponsored such activities as a poetry contest, Halloween parade, and, in conjunction with the library, have co-sponsored an outdoor art show, essay contest and helped at craft hours.

Members have aided the Lyons' Club with its annual eye and ear screenings, made over a dozen learning aids for the New Jersey Commission for the Blind, sewn mastectomy kits for the Cancer Association, assisted in kindergarten screenings and sponsored a CROP walkathon and UNICEF drive at Halloween.

The shut-ins of Belleville affiliated with the Essex County Nutritional Program have received gifts from the Juniors at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The Belleville Juniors have also gone caroling during the holidays to the Geriatrics Hospital and nursing home.

They also sponsored pictures with the bunny and sold boutique items and fresh potted flowers and Italian cookies at the Grand Union Mall.

St. Anthony's School Closes Doors; Town Purchases Senior Citizens' Bus

Twenty Years Ago

The Belleville Teachers Association filed a petition with the Belleville Board of Education asking its members to "kindly please stop negotiating with special groups and to negotiate with the association as a whole." It was stated that the board's policy of negotiating salary raises individually or with just a few teachers was grossly unfair. This resolution was filed by Raymond Smith, president of the Belleville Teachers Association.

Mayor James Tully, a Marine Corps reserve major, was on hand at Port Newark to swear-in a special marine company leaving for training on Parris Island. Among the 200 New Jersey residents was Fedele Galio of Belleville.

Ten Years Ago

Although 40 letter carriers were transferred this week to the Main Street Annex from the Washington Avenue Post Office, Mayor Joseph McGreevy said he received a letter from Postmaster-Manager Joseph Benucci stating that full-customer service would be maintained on the Avenue.

McGreevy said the carriers were moved because the Washington Avenue office had become over crowded, but services will be maintained at the building at 415 Washington Avenue for the duration of the Post Office lease. The lease expires next year, but Benucci promised that if no suitable facilities could be found on Washington Avenue, the lease at 415 Washington Avenue would be renewed. Mailing and the sale of stamps would still continue at the Washington Avenue office.

A panel of three Superior Court judges voted to turn down an appeal by the Villa Italia Corporation which sought to reverse a decision by the state ABC preventing the group from transferring its liquor license to a Washington Avenue motel.

Anthony Bencivinni of Villa Italia requested the transfer of the license from the establishment at 501 Washington Avenue to the Belleville Motor Lodge at 369 Washington Avenue, because of parking restrictions at the Villa. He said the motor lodge offered ample parking and had restaurant space available.

Other tavern owners and liquor stores, including Princeton Bar and Grill on Joramoon Street, fought the matter, saying the license transfer to the motel would place a tavern well within a 1,250 radius of another liquor selling establishment, which is against the town's ordinance.

The Board of Commissioners voted unanimously to purchase a 24-seat bus to transport senior citizens throughout Belleville free of charge. The bus, which cost $8,500, would make two trips per day and travel through the main shopping area on Washington Avenue, to the Belmont Avenue Pathmark in Silver Lake and to Soho Hospital.

Mayor Joseph McGreevy was concerned with the size of the bus, saying it could be too small, but Commissioner Vincent Strumolo convinced him that if more buses were needed, they could be obtained through the federal government.

One Year Ago

The Archdiocese of Newark, after completing a three-year study involving local schools to determine which ones are strong enough to survive during these perilous economic times, announced that St. Anthony's School would close its doors after more than 25 years of service to the Township of Belleville.

The school, which opened in 1955 was forced to close its doors at the completion of the school year because of low enrollment and rising cost. About 132 children were affected by the decision and would attend school in the fall at St. Peter's in Belleville and St. Francis Xavier in Newark.

Alicie Ricci was appointed as the new executive director of the Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, replacing Ruth Cowell, who served in the post for the past 23 years.

A community home for mentally retarded adults opened at 44 Maple Ave., in the Soho district of town. Eight retarded adults between the ages of 21 and 55 will be brought in from various state institutions to make what is expected to be their permanent home. The group would consist of six men and two women, racially mixed, who will learn to live as a family and have as normal a life as their capabilities permit. Two supervisors from the New Jersey Association for Retarded Persons, located in East Orange, would be present in the home.

Braves Push Closer to .500 Mark With 2 Very Impressive Victories

By Mike Lamberti

Last week the Belleville Braves played their best ball games of the 1983 season, then suddenly played their worst game of the campaign. The result: two wins, one tough loss and a combined record of 8-11 for the season.

The Braves had a big week of action. On Tuesday, they were in Milburn. Tonight, they will travel to Verona, and tomorrow will be at West Orange. Sunday, the Braves are home to Verona for a 5 p.m. start and Monday, Verona is the opponent again, this time at 6 p.m. in Verona. The games with Verona are critical, because the Braves trail the club by just three games for second place in the Northern Division of the ECBL.

Against West Orange last week, the Braves, according to head coach Sal Garilli, "Played their worst game of the season. We couldn't do anything right. It was a disaster and it's a shame because we had one of our biggest crowds."

Scott Treverson started, but he lasted only two-thirds of an inning before yielding to Scott Lutz. The Braves committed five errors in two innings to put the game out of reach rather quickly.

Earlier in the week, the Braves ripped Parsippany, 11-6 in a night contest at Parsippany. In this contest, Joe Corbalis, the Braves hard-hitting third baseman, did a solid job. He had four ribbies and pounded a double and single to lead the hitting attack. Corbalis, a 1981 Belleville High School grad, did a solid job during his high school days and was one of the key players in leading Belleville to the Greater Newark Tournament Championship over Glen Ridge.

Tim Walsh also helped in the Parsippany outing, hitting a triple and accounting for an RBI. Steve Slotnik started and pitched the first six innings before yielding to newcomer Paul Dirocco who pitched the seventh inning, striking out the side.

The Braves best game of the season came against the Union Jays, one of the better teams in the league. The stage was set for another marvelous performance by Anthony Coco, another of the stars from the 1981 GNT championship over Glen Ridge. Coco earned his third victory of the season without a setback by blanking the hard hitting Jays, 1-0.

Coco struck out eight, pitched a complete game and allowed just two hits. "He's been marvelous," said Garilli. "We're trying to use him more and he's starting to come around strong."

This was only Coco's third start of the season. The fireballing rightbender has been strong in all of his outings, however he needs additional rests in between starts because of a tender elbow. He seems to have corrected some of his "mechanics" problems and could be one of the best pitchers in the league.

Belleville's only run of the day came when Walsh walked and moved to third on a single by Dominick Vazzano. Garilli then called for a double steal with Walsh coming home. The play worked perfectly as both men advanced safely and the winning run scored.

"We played some good ball games last week," said Garilli. "It's just too bad that we had to play so poorly against West Orange last Sunday. This week is critical. We have a good chance of catching Verona, but we have to beat them this week. The season is half way over now, this is the time for the key games."

Orange scored five points to put them ahead, 19-18, but Mike Sandomeno then put in a layup to give Belleville a 20-19 halftime lead.

Burlazzi opened the third period for the Bellboys with a layup but Orange came right back with two points to tie the score for the fourth time at 22-22. After a jump shot by Larry Letore and a foul each by Letore and Sandomeno gave Belleville the lead again, the Tornadoes scored six straight points to go ahead, 28-26. Then Burlazzi put in a jump shot to end the third quarter, 28-28.

About midway in the final period, a six-point rally by the Bellboys, in which Apostel scored five points and Annichiarico one, made the score 38-30 and gave them the lead for good. The four points scored by Orange in the final minutes made the final score, 40-36. Senior Charles Apostel showed good form against these teams scoring 11 points in each game. He was high scorer for Belleville in the South Side game but Richie Burlazzi's 12 points against Orange was high for Belleville in that game. Burlazzi, also a senior, played a fine game for the Bellboys.

an off six straight points after which each team scored 13 points. Charles Apostel led the Bellboys in this period with seven points and the score at the end of the first half was 38-17. The Bellboys outscored South Side in the third period, 12-10 with Higgins scoring four points on a pair of jump shots to make the score at the end of three periods, 48-29.

In the final quarter, South Side pulled ahead to a final score of 67-38 with Lon Wright and Ed Chisone scoring six points apiece for South Side. Wright was high scorer for the game with 25 points.

The Orange game was an exciting one in which the lead changed hands several times during the game, the Bellboys finally winning on a fourth period charge. In the first period, four points each by Charles Apostel and Richie Burlazzi plus a two-pointer by George Sheridan accounted for Belleville's scoring in that quarter, while Orange scored 11 points for an 11-10 first quarter lead.

Early in the second period, Orange made it 13-10 on a jump shot by Cerbone. Then, field goals by Burlazzi and Sal Lo Coco and a foul by Frank Annichiarico gave Belleville a 15-13 lead. After the score had been brought to 18-14 Belleville,

Bellboys Bounce Orange, 40-36 In Big Ten Conference Game

Feb. 11, 1960

The Belleville High basketball quintet, coached by John Westlake, split two games last week, losing to South Side High on Tuesday, Feb. 2, by a score of 67-38 and defeating Orange High, 40-38 in a Big 10 conference game on Friday, Feb. 5. Both games were played at the Belleville gym.

The victory over Orange kept the Bellboys from finishing last in the Big 10 since neither team had won a conference game previously. Ironically enough, the only other game that the Bellboys have won this season was against Orange High also, but in a regular season game. This game, the last Big 10 contest for Belleville this season gave them a final conference record of one win and nine losses and an overall record to date of 2-12.

South Side had gotten off to a quick 9-0 lead before "Red" Higgins sank two foul shots for Belleville's first score. Two more foul shots by Mike Smith and Richie Burlazzi finished the scoring for the Bellboys in the first period, while South Side, sparked by Lonnie Wright's 10 points in the quarter jumped to a 19-4 first quarter lead.

In the second period, South Side

Summer Basketball League H

For the second straight summer, the Belleville boys' basketball team is competing in the Bloomfield Summer basketball league, stage one in what head coach Joe Papasidero hopes will strengthen his ball club for this fall.

Last year, Belleville played in the summer league, doing rather well. The Bucs posted a 6-2 record, then bowed out of the playoffs in the semifinals when Bloomfield beat them on a last second basket. Although the Bucs did not win the title, the playing time gave the athletes some valuable experience and it certainly carried over to last season's success on the courts.

Belleville finished the regular season with an 11-6 mark, the 11 wins the most by a Belleville team since the 1979-80 squad posted an 11-13 mark. Papasidero's first season as coach. This past season, Belleville posted two victories over Bloomfield, stopped Nutley for the first time since January, 1980 and then won a big game by beating Weequahic in the first round of the Group IV, Section II playoffs. Belleville was beaten in the next round by Plainfield, but that's not too bad considering Plainfield went on to the state title, beating clubs like Trenton, Paterson Eastside and Montclair along the way.

Papasidero is very happy to have his players in the league and sees this as a big step toward the regular season which starts in November. This summer, the Bucs are being coached by Don Roll, himself a Belleville High School product that now coaches at Kearny High School on the jayvee level. Because of league rules, a head coach cannot coach his players during a summer league, thus Papasidero is just a spectator at the games.

The Bucs have gotten off well, winning their first two games. The league is made up of eight squads, including Belleville.

Conference rivals Nutley, Bloomfield and Clifton join Lyndhurst, Parsippany, Essex Catholic and a Bloomfield jayvee squad to make up the eight-team field. The top four teams will make the playoffs which start in early August and the competition, according to Roll, looks just about even.

"It seems like a well balanced league, it is well structured and the league director seems to do a very good job. I think it will be good experience for the kids."

Roll is a good basketball man. He graduated BHS in 1978 and went on to Kean College, where he was graduated in 1982. He played basketball for BHS and later played at Kean before injuries shortened his career. He received a golden offer in 1982 when he was offered the assistant coaching job at Kearny. It gave him some valuable experience and now, with the resignation of the head coach there, Roll has a good chance of assuming the head spot come next season. He is a deserving coach and should do a super job if he receives the job.

The Bucs lineup for this summer consists of Phil Colalillo, Bill Nankervis, Danny Riordan, Nick Sotomayer, Joe Borrello, Danny Ward, Dave Boyd, Mike Sochaski, Brian Cook, Brian Tice, John Morell, Frank Morell and Luong Bala. The team has been a part of Papasidero's program for a couple of seasons now and the chemistry is starting to jell. The players now know their rolls, they play them well and the end result should be one of the most successful seasons in school history.

Papasidero, as mentioned, took over the reins in 1979 when Danny Grasso resigned. His first season, the Bucs posted an 11-13 record, getting off to a 9-3 start before falling a bit in the second half. That team made it to the Essex County Tournament for the first time in five years and later made an appearance in the tourney.

The following year, the Bucs won a very deceiving mark considering a squad lost nine games by eight less. It was one of the most exciting at BHS in quite a while and 26 didn't win, there was a new addition to the program and a burnin' win.

In 1982, the team slacked one with three victories and coming at disappointing showing. Unlike the team, that squad did not play were on the short end of a lot of games.

Last year, things turned around way. The Bucs, playing in the JIL, finished with an 11-16 made it to the Essex County Tournament and state tourney. The state v Weequahic was the first state victory for a Belleville team despite losing to Plainfield in the loss did a great deal for the confidence. At one stretch in quarter, Belleville trailed by 15 points, they gave the more talented field squad a run for the money with strong feelings for the season.

"Belleville basketball has a tough," said Roll, "however, look at the teams we played, why we didn't win too many

Basketball Squad Off to Quick Start

With defense and a strong fast break, the Belleville boys' basketball team has gotten off to a quick start in the Bloomfield Summer Basketball league.

The Bucs had one game this week, battling the defending champions of the league, Essex Catholic, yesterday. Next Tuesday, the Bucs face off with Clifton and on Thursday, will face a stiff test with Bloomfield.

The league plays all of its games at Pulaski Park in Bloomfield with two games per night. More on the league in Buc Shots. The Bucs are coached by Don Roll, a 1978 BHS grad who is an assistant coach at Kearny High School during the regular season. Because of league rules, the head coach of a team, in this case Joe Papasidero, cannot coach his team during the summer league.

Last week, the team started its second campaign in the summer league by ripping Lyndhurst and pulling away from Parsippany. In both contests, the Bucs were in total command, whipping Lyndhurst by an incredible 54 points and Parsippany by a more respectable 20.

"We did a good job in both games," said Roll. "We outplayed Lyndhurst, especially defensively. Against Lyndhurst, our starters didn't play in the fourth quarter at all. We have dominated both games down the stretch."

The Bucs have been running a very effective fast break and thanks to Dave Boyd, are leading the league in steals. "He's incredible with stealing the ball," said Roll. "I don't think I've ever seen anyone with such good instincts."

In the 83-29 rout of Lyndhurst, Phil Colalillo led the way with 26 points. Colalillo, who will be a senior this fall, should break the all-time BHS scoring mark for boys this year. He has been working very intensely, since the end of the regular season back in March and will be looked upon as a team leader and force under the boards. Last season, he led the Bucs to an 11-16 mark and was second in the county in scoring, breaking the 1,000 point mark in the process.

Bill Nankervis added 15 points for Belleville in the Lyndhurst victory. Against Parsippany, Colalillo once again led the way, popping home 27 points while Danny Ward scored 12 and Nankervis, seven.

"We've been working with 1-3-1 halfcourt trap," explained Roll. "Our fast break has been very effective and we've been running hard. There are some good teams in this league, so it's important to do well in every game."

Braves Push Closer to .500 Mark With 2 Very Impressive Victories

By Mike Lambert

Last week the Belleville Braves played their best ball games of the 1983 season, then suddenly played their worst game of the campaign. The result: two wins, one tough loss and a combined record of 8-11 for the season.

The Braves had a big week of action. On Tuesday, they were in Milburn. Tonight, they will travel to Verona, and tomorrow will be at West Orange. Sunday, the Braves are home to Verona for a 5 p.m. start and Monday, Verona is the opponent again, this time at 6 p.m. in Verona. The games with Verona are critical, because the Braves trail the club by just three games for second place in the Northern Division of the ECBL.

Against West Orange last week, the Braves, according to head coach Sal Garilli, "Played their worst game of the season. We couldn't do anything right. It was a disaster and it's a shame because we had one of our biggest crowds."

Scott Treverson started, but he lasted only two-thirds of an inning before yielding to Scott Lutz. The Braves committed five errors in two innings to put the game out of reach rather quickly.

Earlier in the week, the Braves ripped Parsippany, 11-6 in a night contest at Parsippany. In this contest, Joe Corbalis, the Braves hard-hitting third baseman, did a solid job. He had four ribbies and pounded a double and single to lead the hitting attack. Corbalis, a 1981 Belleville High School grad, did a solid job during his high school days and was one of the key players in leading Belleville to the Greater Newark Tournament Championship over Glen Ridge.

Tim Walsh also helped in the Parsippany outing, hitting a triple and accounting for an RBI. Steve Slotnik started and pitched the first six innings before yielding to newcomer Paul Dirocco who pitched the seventh inning, striking out the side.

The Braves best game of the season came against the Union Jays, one of the better teams in the league. The stage was set for another marvelous performance by Anthony Coco, another of the stars from the 1981 GNT championship over Glen Ridge. Coco earned his third victory of the season without a setback by blanking the hard hitting Jays, 1-0.

Coco struck out eight, pitched a complete game and allowed just two hits. "He's been marvelous," said Garilli. "We're trying to use him more and he's starting to come around strong."

This was only Coco's third start of the season. The fireballing right-hander has been strong in all of his outings, however he needs additional rests in between starts because of a tender elbow. He seems to have corrected some of his "mechanics" problems and could be one of the best pitchers in the league.

Belleville's only run of the day came when Walsh walked and moved to third on a single by Dominick Vazzano. Garilli then called for a double steal with Walsh coming home. The play worked perfectly as both men advanced safely and the winning run scored.

"We played some good ball games last week," said Garilli. "It's just too bad that we had to play so poorly against West Orange last Sunday. This week is critical. We have a good chance of catching Verona, but we have to beat them this week. The season is half way over now, this is the time for the key games."

Basketball Squad Off to Quick Start

With defense and a strong fast break, the Belleville boys' basketball team has gotten off to a quick start in the Bloomfield Summer Basketball League.

The Bucs had one game this week, battling the defending champions of the league, Essex Catholic, yesterday. Next Tuesday, the Bucs face off with Clifton and on Thursday, will face a stiff test with Bloomfield.

The league plays all of its games at Pulaski Park in Bloomfield with two games per night. More on the league in Buc Shots. The Bucs are coached by Don Roll, a 1978 BHS grad who is an assistant coach at Kearny High School during the regular season. Because of league rules, the head coach of a team, in this case Joe Papasidero, cannot coach his team during the summer league.

Last week, the team started its second campaign in the summer league by ripping Lyndhurst and pulling away from Parsippany. In both contests, the Bucs were in total command, whipping Lyndhurst by an incredible 54 points and Parsippany by a more respectable 20.

"We did a good job in both games," said Roll. "We outplayed Lyndhurst, especially defensively. Against Lyndhurst, our starters didn't play in the fourth quarter at all. We have dominated both games down the stretch."

The Bucs have been running a very effective fast break and thanks to Daye, Boyd, are leading the league in steals. "He's incredible with stealing the ball," said Roll. "I don't think I've ever seen anyone with such good instincts."

In the 83-29 rout of Lyndhurst, Phil Colalillo led the way with 26 points. Colalillo, who will be a senior this fall, should break the all-time BHS scoring mark for boys this year. He has been working very intensely since the end of the regular season back in March and will be looked upon as a team leader and force under the boards. Last season, he led the Bucs to an 11-16 mark and was second in the county in scoring, breaking the 1,000 point mark in the process.

Bill Nankervis added 15 points for Belleville in the Lyndhurst victory. Against Parsippany, Colalillo once again led the way, popping home 27 points while Danny Ward scored 12 and Nankervis, seven.

"We've been working with 1-3-1 halfcourt trap," explained Roll. "Our fast break has been very effective and we've been running hard. There are some good teams in this league, so it's important to do well in every game."

Bellboys Bounce Orange, 40-36 In Big Ten Conference Game

Feb. 11, 1960

The Belleville High basketball quintet, coached by John Westlake, split two games last week, losing to South Side High on Tuesday, Feb. 2, by a score of 67-38 and defeating Orange High, 40-38 in a Big 10 conference game on Friday, Feb. 5. Both games were played at the Belleville gym.

The victory over Orange kept the Bellboys from finishing last in the Big 10 since neither team had won a conference game previously. Ironically enough, the only other game that the Bellboys have won this season was against Orange High also, but in a regular season game. This game, the last Big 10 contest for Belleville this season gave them a final conference record of one win and nine losses and an overall record to date of 2-12.

South Side had gotten off to a quick 9-0 lead before "Red" Higgins sank two foul shots for Belleville's first score. Two more foul shots by Mike Smith and Richie Burlazzi finished the scoring for the Bellboys in the first period, while South Side, sparked by Lonnie Wright's 10 points in the quarter jumped to a 19-4 first quarter lead.

In the second period, South Side

an off six straight points after which each team scored 13 points. Charles Apostel led the Bellboys in this period with seven points and the score at the end of the first half was 38-17. The Bellboys outscored South Side in the third period, 12-10 with Higgins scoring four points on a pair of jump shots to make the score at the end of three periods, 48-29.

In the final quarter, South Side pulled ahead to a final score of 67-38 with Lon Wright and Ed Chisone scoring six points apiece for South Side. Wright was high scorer for the game with 25 points.

The Orange game was an exciting one in which the lead changed hands several times during the game, the Bellboys finally winning on a fourth period charge. In the first period, four points each by Charles Apostel and Richie Burlazzi plus a two-pointer by George Sheridan accounted for Belleville's scoring in that quarter, while Orange scored 11 points for an 11-10 first quarter lead.

Early in the second period, Orange made it 13-10 on a jump shot by Cerbone. Then, field goals by Burlazzi and Sal Lo Coco and a foul by Frank Annichiarico gave Belleville a 15-13 lead. After the score had been brought to 18-14 Belleville, Orange scored five points to put them ahead, 19-18, but Mike Sandomeno then put in a layup to give Belleville a 20-19 halftime lead.

Burlazzi opened the third period for the Bellboys with a layup but Orange came right back with two points to tie the score for the fourth time at 22-22. After a jump shot by Larry Letore and a foul each by Letore and Sandomeno gave Belleville the lead again, the Tornadoes scored six straight points to go ahead, 28-26. Then Burlazzi put in a jump shot to end the third quarter, 28-28.

About midway in the final period, a six-point rally by the Bellboys, in which Apostel scored five points and Annichiarico one, made the score 38-30 and gave them the lead for good. The four points scored by Orange in the final minutes made the final score, 40-36. Senior Charles Apostel showed good form against these teams scoring 11 points in each game. He was high scorer for Belleville in the South Side game but Richie Burlazzi's 12 points against Orange was high for Belleville in that game. Burlazzi, also a senior, played a fine game for the Bellboys.

later made an appearance in the state tourney.

The following year, the Bucs were 4-18, a very deceiving mark considering the squad lost nine games by eight points or less. It was one of the most exciting teams at BHS in quite a while and although it didn't win, there was a new found dedication to the program and a burning desire to win.

In 1982, the team slacked off, finishing with three victories and coming up with a disappointing showing. Unlike the 1980-81 team, that squad did not play well and were on the short end of a lot of one-sided games.

Last year, things turned around in a big way. The Bucs, playing in the tough NN-JIL, finished with an 11-16 mark and made it to the Essex County Tournament and state tourney. The state victory over Weequahic was the first state tourney victory for a Belleville team since 1975 despite losing to Plainfield in round two, the loss did a great deal for the Bucs confidence. At one stretch in the fourth quarter, Belleville trailed by just five points, they gave the more talented Plainfield squad a run for the money and left with strong feelings for the following season.

"Belleville basketball has always been tough," said Roll, "however, when you look at the teams we played, you can see why we didn't win too many games."

Indeed, Belleville has been up against some tough ball clubs. Looking back to the mid '70s, Belleville battled teams like East Orange, Orange, Montclair, Bloomfield and Irvington, all members of the Big 10 and teams that were loaded with super talents. Orange had Greg Tynes, Montclair had a guy named Craig Robinson, East Orange had players like Mike Booker, Cleveland Eugene and later Clyde Bradshaw. Who can ever forget Bloomfield and T.K. and Kelly Tripucka and Irvington had Kenny Webb, who later went on to Fairleigh Dickinson and became that school's all-time leading scorer.

"When the season started," said Roll, "we were 0-10 right off the bat. This isn't to say we weren't good, it's just that those clubs were awesome."

Indeed, it got frustrating playing such big teams day in and day out. Only 1975, when Belleville had Abdel Anderson, were the Bellboys ever able to finish with a .500 record inside the Big 10. That year, they were 8-8 in the conference and 5-0 outside the conference.

fan support. Everyone loves a winner, let's give this program the support it deserves.

With the summer months upon us, baseball is the big sport in town. I've had a chance to go to some ball parks outside of New York and have this to say. Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium and Veteran's Stadium in Philadelphia are head and shoulders above Yankee Stadium and Shea Stadium. The people who go to ball games in Philly and Pittsburgh are avid fans, however, they do not conduct themselves with the same ridiculous performances that we see in New York. People do not get drunk, start fights or shout obscenities every time a player makes an error. Would you believe that a family can go to Three Rivers Stadium and have a good time. Try going to Yankee Stadium in the beautiful Bronx and say that. It's gotten to the point where going to see the Yankees is an experience. Parking there and trying to get out after a game is a major problem. You see a lower class of people at the games and unfortunately, this lower class ruins the games for the people who enjoy baseball. Going to Shea is no bargain, either. The going rate for a box seat at Shea is $8. The Mets, as everyone knows, do not provide a great deal of excitement, they haven't since 1976. The Phillies, a club that has done 100 times better than the Mets since '76 and the Pirates, a solid entry for a number of years, charge less than the Mets do for box seats. Furthermore, their stadiums are clean, the food is good and the people are first class. Do you know that in Philadelphia the fans actually sing the National Anthem? They don't make stupid noises during our country's song, they don't yell out dumb expressions and they don't make jerks out of themselves. However, once the game starts, those fans also take avid interest in their team. They don't like to lose, will boo when their team makes a mistake and can be very vocal. The same holds true in Pittsburgh. The Pirates have one of the cleanest ballparks I've ever seen. The food is great, they have tacos, nacho chips with melted cheese, great hot dogs and assorted other ball park snacks. The pizza is actually hot and tastes like pizza, not card board. The people are friendly and work the concession stands professionally and with pride.

Summer Basketball League Helps Players Stay Toned

For the second straight summer, the Belleville boys' basketball team is competing in the Bloomfield Summer basketball league, stage one in what head coach Joe Papasidero hopes will strengthen his ball club for this fall.

Last year, Belleville played in the summer league, doing rather well. The Bucs posted a 6-2 record, then bowed out of the playoffs in the semifinals when Bloomfield beat them on a last second basket. Although the Bucs did not win the title, the playing time gave the athletes some valuable experience and it certainly carried over to last season's success on the courts.

Belleville finished the regular season with an 11-6 mark, the 11 wins the most by a Belleville team since the 1979-80 squad posted an 11-13 mark. Papasidero's first season as coach. This past season, Belleville posted two victories over Bloomfield, stopped Nutley for the first time since January, 1980 and then won a big game by beating Weequahic in the first round of the Group IV, Section II play-offs. Belleville was beaten in the next round by Plainfield, but that's not too bad considering Plainfield went on to the state title, beating clubs like Trenton, Paterson Eastside and Montclair along the way.

Papasidero is very happy to have his players in the league and sees this as a big step toward the regular season which starts in November. This summer, the Bucs are being coached by Don Roll, himself a Belleville High School product that now coaches at Kearny High School on the jayvee level. Because of league rules, a head coach cannot coach his players during a summer league, thus Papasidero is just a spectator at the games.

The Bucs have gotten off well, winning their first two games. The league is made up of eight squads, including Belleville.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Personable Tommy Merola of Newark made his first appearance in many months to the fight racket when he fought at the Essex Racquet Club in West Orange. Tommy made it an impressive comeback by scoring a TKO over Al-Malik Mc Laurin of East Orange in the first round. Merola weighed in at 169 pounds. Mc Laurin was 164. Tommy is handled by Paul Minai of Belleville and Don Bufano of Jersey City. Another one of Minai-Bufano's fighters, Jose Fuentes of Jersey City, also won on a TKO in the first round. Fuentes won over Farahd Hakin of Newark. Fuentes came in at 150 pounds. Hakin was 142. In the main bout N.J. light heavyweight champion Junior Edmonds of East Orange won a 10-round decision over Vic Valentino aka Pat Cuillo of Niagara Falls, N.Y., now fighting out of Vineland, N.J. It was a Carlo Dee Enterprise promotion.

NBC-TV Ch. 4 will televise live from Italy the scheduled 10-round bout between Nino La Rocco (Tidjani Sidibe) native of Africa, fighting out of Italy, against Pete Ranzany of Sacramento, Calif. on Sunday, July 24. The fight will be shown between 4 and 5:30 p.m. New York time on NBC's "Sportsworld" program.

Howard Davis of Glen Cove and Dix Hills, Long Island, was at a press conference Friday, and told the press he signed a four-year promotional contract with promoter, Don King. Twenty-seven-year-old Davis said, "I've been fighting seven years as a pro and still looking for a title. I'm ranked No. 2 among the lightweights, but am having trouble making 135 pounds (the lightweight limit). My goal is a title shot at Bruce Curry, the WBC junior welterweight titleholder."

World Boxing Association champion Michael Dokes of Akron, Ohio, will make his second defense of the title in September when he exchanges haymakers with Gerrie Coetzee of South Africa. A site was not announced by promoter Don King. The 24-year-old Dokes captured the title by defeating Mike Weaver of Gatesville, Texas. Dokes has a 26-0-2 record. Coetzee is 28-3-1.

Up Brockton, Mass., way on Monday, Goody Petronelli, manager of world middleweight king Marvin Hagler, said, "We have verbally agreed to terms for the champ to defend against the new junior middleweight champion Roberto Duran. Hagler is in Cape Cod and will be in Brockton tomorrow (Tuesday) and we're sure he'll sign the agreement." Goody added, "Stick around for the press announcement." Sure enough, Tuesday, a conference with Bob Arum, promoter, Hagler, co-managers Goody and Pat Petronelli, Hagler's attorney, Steve Wainwright, and a few scribes, it was announced about the contracts for the Nov. 4 Hagler-Duran battle which could earn $10 million for each fighter. No site has been agreed upon at this date. Wainwright said, "The fight will be televised on closed circuit in theaters and on pay-per-view TV arranged by Bob Arum's Top Rank Promotions."

World Boxing Association may pressure their junior middleweight champ Robert Duran, to fight a leading contender in that division before battling middleweight king Marvin Hagler. According to WBA's rule No. 6, a newly crowned champion must sign within 90 days to defend against the No. 1 available contender within six months. The No. 1 contender, Tony Ayala, is in prison for at least 15 years. No. 2 contender, Wilfred Benitez, says he no longer will campaign as a junior middleweight. No. 3 contender is undefeated Jamaican Mike McCallum, now fighting out of New York and is available.

Thirty-one-year-old lightweight James "Bubba" Busceme of Beaumont, Texas, announced on Wednesday he has hung 'em up. Busceme leaves a 32-6 record. He lost to up-coming Livingston Bramble of Passaic in Atlantic City on Oct. 7, 1982. The Texan had a shot at the WBC lightweight when he lost to champion Alexis Arguello in Beaumont on Feb. 13, 1982, via a TKO in the sixth round.

World Boxing Council President Jose Sulaiman announced that Hector "The Clutch" Camacho of New York will face Rafael "Bazooka" Limon of Mexico for the vacant WBC featherweight crown on Aug. 7. Bobby Chacon of Los Angeles became a former champion when WBC stripped him of the title for refusing to honor a contract to fight Camacho. Camacho has a 21-0 record. Limon is 47-12-2. CBS-TV Ch. 2 will televise the bout nationally, promoter Don King said.

Stripping of titles is nothing new in the boxing racket. Not that the fan agrees. It has been said and repeated many times, "Titles should be won and lost in the ring," is still in the minds of the person buying the ticket to a fight.

At a meeting of the New York State Athletic Commission, Wednesday, Maryin Kohn, deputy commissioner, "The manufacturer and the New York State Police have found evidence that the gloves used by Luis Resto were tampered with before his 10-round decision over Billy Collins on June 16 at the Felt Forum in New York City." The commission suspended Resto for one year. Carlos "Panama" Lewis, Resto's trainer, has been suspended for life in the state of New York. Resto's second, Pedro Alvarado, also had his N.Y. state license permanently suspended. Another cornerman, Arthur Salzman, known in the boxing whirl as Art Curley, was not penalized. Commissioner Jack Prendevede said, "Resto's 10-round decision victory over Billy Collins has been declared a no-decision."

According to reports out of Las Vegas, the Marvin Hagler-Roberto Duran expected "war" for Hagler's middleweight crown will be fought in that town. Promoter Bob Arum is said to be negotiating with The Dunes and Caesars Palace for a good deal.

Plans were explored at the Governor's office in Trenton for an Italian-American Hall of Fame in New Jersey. Three former middleweight champions were on hand to add an extra sock to the discussion, Joey Giardello, Rocky Graziano and Jake La Motta.

Co-promoters Don Elbaum and Ted Menas have signed Canada's outstanding junior middleweight scrapper Bobby Bland of Toronto to exchange punches with slugger Don King of Indianapolis, Ind. Bland and King will square off on Tuesday, July 19, at Atlantic City's Tropicana. Jim Taylor is the publicity person for Elbaum and Menas. Taylor was also a sportscaster with a local TV station.

WBC heavyweight titlist Larry Holmes admitted Wednesday from his Easton, Pa., home that he has indeed agreed to fight unranked Marvis Frazier of Philadelphia. Newark promoter Murad Muhammad and Provident, R.I., promoter Bob Andreoli will co-promote. Next question to Larry: "What about WBC's threat to strip you of the title?" Answer: "The fight is going to come off with WBC, ranking or without. I'm a businessman as well as a fighter. I'm in this game to make money." Holmes said, "WBC offered me $2,250,000 to fight Page and I'm to get over $3 million for Frazier." Promoter Joe Verne of Philadelphia, who has exclusive promotional rights to Frazier, has agreed to step aside, as Verne answered the question about his place in this matchup. He (Verne) remarked, "For a nominal figure." NBC-TV Ch. 4 will probably televise.

Holmes called later from his Easton, Pa., office to say he is not refusing to fight Greg Page. "I have a signed agreement with my friend Don King to fight Page," no date was stipulated. He also said he notified WBC of his coming fight with Frazier and asked the council for an extension for all other fights, and mandatory title defense against Page.

Yankees Capture League Title With Perfect Record

The Belleville Yankees captured the Senior League title this season, closing with an undefeated record of 10-0, with two ties.

"When you practice hard every day like our team did, the result is that you win. That's what these kids did," John Paucullo, team manager, said with pride. "These boys are only 14 and 15 years old, but they played like they were seniors in high school."

Leading the team in offense was John View with 20 hits and Jim Dunphy with 18. View and Dunphy also tied for the team leadership in stolen bases with 30. Joe Llamas added 19 steals to the team effort.

Dunphy was also a standout for the club on the pitching mound, leading the Yankees with 30 strikeouts, appearing in four games. View also pitched in four games and recorded 23 strikeouts, while Eugene Danchak added 21 strikeouts over four games.

Each member of the team won a trophy for the Senior League title. The Yankee roster for 1983 included Girard Buono, Joe Tortorello, Vito Caprio, Frank Morrell, Jim Dunphy, John Magi, John Groome, George Ricci, Eugene Danchak, John Morell, John View and Joe Llamas.

Members of the coaching staff for the Yankees included Earl Wake, Charles View and Ken Kotowski. The team was managed by John Paucullo.

Along with his expert coaching ability, Paucullo is a key member of the Pipers' volleyball team which has won the championship in the Nutley Parks and Recreation league for the past three years. Recognized for his clutch play late in the season, Paucullo is known throughout the league as "Mr. March."

Belleville's Past

As new departments were added, the town's administration apparatus outgrew the space it formerly occupied in schools and fire houses. The need for adequate and representative quarters became imperative.

In December 1912 Mayor Denison and a committee previously appointed reported to the town council that they had found an available site for the planned town hall at the north-east corner of the Washington Avenue-John Street intersection, "being 142 feet on Washington Avenue and 189 feet on John Street."

The property was owned by Harmon W. Hendricks, an outstanding industrialist, whose family had been connected with the Belleville copper industry since Colonial days. The purchase price for the site was $10,500. A sum of $60,000 was appropriated the following February for the erection of the town hall.

At a special meeting on April 19, 1913, the town council accepted the plans and specifications submitted by Charles Granville Jones, a local architect. A reward of $50 each was voted the other architects who had entered the competition. John L. Hudson was appointed "special inspector for the Town Hall building," and the George A. Shedden Company, New York City, was awarded the contract. With appropriate exercises in which all of Belleville's civic and fraternal organizations participated the cornerstone of the new town hall was laid by Mayor Denison on Saturday, July 13, 1913. A year later on December 30, the first town council meeting was held in the as yet unfinished building. That meeting was also the last one for the outgoing administration of Mayor Denison.

John C. Lafaucherie, Joseph A. Manning, Samuel Cathcart, and Bechtholdt, Carragher, Cyphers and Deniel four members of the previous council, formed the administration for 1914. The end of the year saw another change in the flexible constitutional status of Belleville. On October 20, 1914, the town accepted the form of a commission government, as authorized by the Walsh Act of 1911. John H. Waters, Edwards Hates and John D. Caldwell took office on December 1 as the new commissioners.

At the organization meeting Waters was unanimously elected by his two colleagues to act as mayor and director of the Departments of Public Affairs and Public Safety, respectively. Mathes took the Department of Revenue and Finance, and Caldwell the Department of Parks and Public Property and of Streets and Public Improvements. Robert C. Minion was elected as city clerk by the three commissioners, Harold A. Miller as attorney and Leroy F. Vermeule as town treasurer.

A week later the commissioners set their own salary. That of the Mayor was $1,000 a year, while the two other commissioners received $750. The town attorney received $1,200 annually, the treasurer $700.

Weisweiler's Death Stuns Players; Cosmos Regain First Place Position

By Mike Lamberti

Last week, the soccer world was stunned and saddened by the death of Hennis Weisweiler, known throughout the world as a standout coach and respected in Europe as one of the best in the business.

Weisweiler was also known to the Cosmos, for it was he that coached the team from 1980-81, leading the squad to two Soccer Bowl appearances, winning in 1980 before bowing in the shootout in 1981. Following the '81 loss, the Cosmos dismissed Weisweiler, replacing him with Prof. Julio Mazzei.

The death of Weisweiler, who was struck by a heart attack, overshadowed the team's performance last week. After losing for the second time to the Chicago Sting back on July 1, the Cosmos blasted Team America at Giants Stadium, 4-0 to recapture first place in the NASL East. The loss dropped Team America's mark to 8-6.

Against the Sting back on July 1, the Cosmos jumped out to a 2-1 lead midway through the second half before that old Sting jinx struck again. Chicago is notorious for humbling the Cosmos and post an 11-5 lifetime mark. Four of the Cosmos five victories came in 1982 when the Sting went through one of the worst seasons in their history. This time, the Cosmos fell apart in the latter stages, giving away four second half goals and losing, 5-2.

Suppa's Bar, Suburban Capture Softball Titles

Suppa's Bar and Suburban Cablevision, earned titles in the Belleville Men's Softball League Monday "A" and Tuesday "B" Divisions, respectively, last week. Suppa's Bar boosted an unblemished 15-0 record for the season, defeating Printing Techniques 12-11, DeWitt Savings 14-3, DeWitt Savings 12-2, and J & R Insulation 10-9 over the course of the last two weeks. The second-place finisher in the Monday "A" League was For Pete's Sake with an 11-4 record, as they defeated J & R Insulation 6-5, Joe's Alignment 13-10, and J & R Insulation 12-1. Printing Techniques finished in third at 7-8 after topping Joe's Alignment 5-4 and For Pete's Sake 13-7, while a fourth-place Joe's Alignment team (7-8) bested Printing Techniques 7-6 and DeWitt Savings 3-2. J & R Insulation (3-12) defeated DeWitt Savings (2-13) by a 5-4 tally.

Suburban Cablevision boosted their record to 11-2 to clinch the Tuesday "B" League title, falling to Kasey's 5-2 but bouncing back to thwart Roselli's Amoco 7-5. Sitting in second place at 8-5 is Belleville Shoes as they edged Kasey's 6-5, and Silver Lake Auto Service (7-6) sits in third place after beating Belleville Shoes 12-8. Belleville Political and Social Club (4-9) defeated Silver Lake Auto 10-3 but fell to Roselli's Amoco (4-9), by a 7-1 margin. Kasey's is now 5-8.

Tuesday league makeup results from this week were in too late for press time, and both the "A" and "B" Division post-season tournaments were scheduled to begin this week as well.

DeLorenzo Construction captured the Thursday "B" Division crown in the Belleville Recreation Men's Softball league last week as they defeated Red Shingle 12-0 to up

David Breic, starting for an injured Hubert Birkenmeier in goal, was much better than the final count might have indicated. The American goalie was let down by some defensive lapses and made a mistake of his own to contribute to the Sting flurry. It was the second loss in 10 days to Chicago, the Sting having beaten the Cosmos at Giants Stadium on June 22.

The team came back strong last week, avenging an earlier loss to Team America with a 4-0 triumph. The four goals were the most given up by T.A. this year and a large crowd of 35,000 plus were entertained by the Cosmos stirring play.

Steve Moyers, Roberto Cabanas (twice) and Angelo D'Bernardo led the Cosmos scoring attack. The victory boosted the team mark to 11-6 and moved the Cosmos two points ahead of Toronto in the league standings. The game also marked the return of Giorgio Chinaglia to the Cosmos lineup. However, Chinaglia went out with a pulled muscle in the second half and will miss about two weeks of action.

Some final thoughts on Weisweiler. Having covered the team during his coaching tenure, I know his loss was a shock to many of the players. However, Weisweiler, while considered one of the best coaches in Europe, was not a very strong influence in America. When Hennis arrived on the scene in May of 1980, the Cosmos were a very popular draw, attracting crowds of 60,000 and better for home games. As he stayed on, the crowds became less and less and the enthusiasm that was so strong when he first arrived gradually diminished.

He did develop some fine talent, mainly Angelo D'Bernardo and Chico Boria, but most of all, Weisweiler's presence caused a great deal of unrest and was the cause for some of the Cosmos current attendance problems, if not all of them.

New Garbage Contract Will Cost More; 2 Subpoenas Issued By State Officials

Dec. 14, to submit the legally required affidavit of non-collusion and a financial statement for the North Jersey subsidiary of the national company.

Moreover, the panel ordered Belleville to re-advertise for new bids within 30 days. Monday's bidding was in accordance with that stipulation.

However, Assistant Township Attorney Frank Cozzarelli, who is representing Belleville in the matter, is seeking a stay of the order before the New Jersey Supreme Court.

The litigation was begun by L. Pucillo and Sons, the only bidders competing with BFI for the municipal contract last December.

Represented by attorney Mark D. Lerner of Newark, Pucillo filed a complaint against the township and BFI charging irregularities in the bidding procedure.

Cozzarelli said the township contends the omitted documents by BFI were "immaterial and curable" and had been submitted by the company well before the contract award.

Cozzarelli called Pucillo's action "sour grapes" since the firm lost the contract with the community it served for nearly two decades.

The firm's last $1.5 million contract with Belleville expired last Dec. 31. At the bidding two weeks before then, Pucillo proposed costs of $620,000 for one year of service, and $52,160,000 for three years.

They were edged out by BFI which proposed $477,928 for one year, $1,554,952 for three years, and $2,778,992 for five years. Commissioners favored the five-year option seeking cost savings for Belleville.

This week, their worst fears were confirmed when the same two scavengers competed, both submitting substantially higher bids than in December with BFI still the lower of the two.

The Fairfield firm proposed base bids of $590,000 for one year, $1,936,497 for three years, and $3,685,742 for five years. Pucillo bid $610,000 for one year, $2,250,000 for three years, and $4 million for five years.

Ironically, if low bidder BFI were to win another five-year contract under the newest bidding terms, Belleville would pay the scavengers $906,750 more for the same service provided under the original contract now in litigation.

"Obviously, we're not happy about those figures," said Township Attorney Frank Zinna on Tuesday. He explained Commissioners hoped for a response from the Supreme Court before they must make a decision in the new rounds.

A favorable court decision would permit Belleville to retain the original less expensive contract.

Presently, BFI is performing garbage collection for the township on a per diem basis as approved by the courts pending further decisions.

Construction of Police Station Approved Over Many Objectors

of Newark upon Washington Avenue" and noted that if the board did remove the police department, citizens might interpret officials as abandoning an area in need of all the support it can get.

"We're interested in revitalization. We don't want to see Washington Avenue fall down," said Tarantino to the applause of her colleagues.

Representing the Belleville Redevelopment Agency, a panel established to deal with blighted areas of the community, Joseph Dasaro reminded Commissioners their proposal contradicts recommendations made by planners.

Dasaro read a recent letter from Thomas A. Thomas, president of Townplan Associates of Middletown Township to Emil Nardachone, chairman of the BRA.

The letter referred to a study done by the private planning firm last year, at a cost of $14,000 to the township, seeking suggestions to upgrade the business district.

TA strongly recommended focusing on a "recognizable town center" and designed a rendering with the police department as the focus of that center.

"We feel such a proposal flies in the face of plans offered by Townplan," said Dasaro voicing what he said is the recently adopted position of the BRA.

He labeled plans to remove the police department "the last nail in the coffin of Washington Avenue."

Most of the merchants who spoke voiced similar remarks, adding their own feeling that having the physical presence of the police building in the center of town was a deterrent to crime, particularly crime against businesses and their customers.

Michael Pariso of Pariso's Furniture store on the Avenue noted, "I've been here 37 years, and I believe that just the appearance of police cars traveling back and forth to change shifts is a deterrent to crime."

Bruce Kerner of Kerner's News Delivery at 122 Washington Ave., expressed fear many merchants had of the decay at the south end of the Avenue near the Newark border.

"I close my store early because of the atypical people that come in there after 6 p.m.," he said heatedly. He also stated the Fidelity Bank, directly across the street from Town Hall, experienced a lower rate of robbery compared to community banks more distant from the police station.

The merchants suggested Commissioners adhere to an earlier plan to expand police facilities on township-owned property adjacent to the present Town Hall building.

One citizen, Jerry Di Nicola, cautioned the board against constructing an expensive complex on property not owned by the municipality.

Occasionally growing angry at the criticism, Mayor Michael Marotti and Public Safety Director Matthew Pica told the objectors that the location of the police station was not as significant as the patrol cars that would still ride the Avenue.

Marotti asked Bill Katterman, the township's grantsman, if the municipality could use any awarded monies in a different location from the intended site.

Katterman replied the present application, which was made prior to the July 1 deadline, lists the Franklin Avenue site. "Maybe, if we get the monies and tell the government we've found a more promising location we can still use it, but we have to show good faith by approving the appropriations ordinance to get the funds in the first place," he explained.

The entire project is contingent upon receiving $1 million in federal funds under the Emergency Jobs Act, a federal program providing monies to local governments for public works projects.

If successful in obtaining the grants, the municipality will match that with $725,000.

The proposed proposal is to erect a 24,000 square foot, three-level facility on Franklin Avenue. On June 27, Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro indicated in a letter to Commissioners willingness to lease the desired parcel to Belleville.

Mayor Marotti said rent had not been set but anticipated a nominal charge, such as $1 a year, making the rental a donation in effect. Presently, the Franklin Avenue fire station exists on county-owned land with a long-term lease agreement.

"We thought it would be a good idea to locate a new police headquarters next to the fire headquarters," Pica said Monday. Previously, he noted that if the federal monies do not come through, the plans for this construction would be abandoned.

However, Commissioners have several alternate plans in mind they assured merchants and citizens they will study further. — Telesco

Commissioners Approve Chemical Clean up Pact

Within weeks, Valley residents should see the complete clean up of a toxic waste site at 507 Main St., location of the Research Organic/Inorganic Company.

Attempting to clear up the matter that began last May 18 when the first of several toxic leaks terrorized the area, Commissioners this week awarded the clean up job to Solvents for Energy, Inc. a West Milford firm.

Total estimate for the clean up and disposal of the 1,006 containers on the site is estimated at $99,995 within a 20 percent range, according to a June 30 correspondence from S.J. Prohivney of the firm to Township Attorney Frank Zinna.

According to Zinna, Solvents for Energy is neither a chemical transporter nor a disposer. "They are brokers who contract the work out," he explained to Commissioners at Monday's caucus session.

The attorney said he called the state Department of Environmental Protection to check the credentials of SFE, and of the list of licensed disposers provided by the brokers.

"The DEP saw no problems with SFE," he reported, adding that the only snags were the failure of some of the agencies used by SFE to renew their licenses. "There are no problems with violations," he stated.

Zinna said the firm predicted they could clear the site in 15 working days and would begin as soon as they obtained the local approval which came during Monday's Commission meeting.

In a related measure, Commissioners approved a $100,000 emergency appropriation to fund the clean up.

Last month, the township appropriated $250,000 in emergency funds to finance testing and protective packaging of leaking drums by Clean Industries, a private Linden agency retained by Belleville from the first night of the toxic scare.

Zinna estimated Monday night municipal costs in the matter have run to $185,000, but local officials hope to be reimbursed by state and possibly federal funds.
