Schools Superintendent Resigning From Post Here

By Linda Telesco

Schools Superintendent Dr. John Greed confirmed Monday he has accepted a new superintendency position in the Sparta school system and will resign early this fall from the Belleville post he held for seven years.

"I have accepted Sparta's offer but still have to work out a contract with them," said Greed in a telephone interview. "I will not leave Belleville before September. I haven't worked out a resignation date with our board and I owe them that courtesy."

Presently, the 52-year-old administrator earns an annual salary of $52,000 to oversee the township's high school, middle school, and seven elementary facilities.

In his new post, he will earn $57,000 yearly to administer Sparta's four schools and 2,800 pupils.

"There are a number of reasons why I'm leaving, but I plan to put most of them in writing to submit to the board," said Greed.

Greed said members of Sparta's nine-trustee School Board had met with some Belleville trustees to discuss Greed's candidacy, so the resignation is not unexpected.

The administrator expects to make his formal announcement to the board during its August 8 private executive session.

Board President Grace Purdue and Vice President Tom Spillane are both vacationing and unavailable for comment this week. However, Trustee Gabe Nazzola said Monday he expects the board to appoint Michael Nardiello, presently assistant superintendent of personnel, as acting superintendent once Greed leaves.

As for permanent replacement, Nazzola said, "The board will have to find out if we are legally bound to advertise the position or if we can simply fill it with an internal candidate," a move Nazzola endorses.

The trustee speculated that if the board is not obliged to entertain outside applicants, Nardiello stands a good chance of moving into the top position permanently.

Of his Belleville term, Greed said, "I am proud to be associated with Belleville schools. We have some of the best teachers and administrators here." Greed also said he has seen Belleville improve into an even better system over the past seven years, one that can finally put a stop to "the negative image" Belleville suffers statewide.

In fact, the administrator said that negative image worked against him last year when he failed to receive the superintendent's post he sought in the West Orange School system.

Greed noted he won the Sparta post out of 65 applicants, many of whom he respected. "I was very flattered to be chosen," he said.

He will replace Walter J. McCarroll who resigned last May to accept an assistant commissioner position with the state Department of Education.

Greed was unanimously appointed to his Belleville post in February 1976 and assumed official responsibility in August of that year, replacing retired superintendent Anthony Greco at an annual salary of $36,000.

From the outset, Greed's term in Belleville has been controversial. Even his appointment sparked disagreements from those who objected to going outside Belleville to fill Greco's post.

Though he moved to the township within months of his appointment, he still faced innumerable controversies.

His term over saw such matters as state ordered desegregation busing, the closing of Schools 1 and 2 over objections of many citizens, unpopular expansion of the administrative staff and criticism by citizens who knew of his attempts, in the past two years, to seek employment outside Belleville.

"I assure everyone, the Sparta position is the only one I applied for this year," Greed said.

Before coming to Belleville, Greed served as superintendent of schools in Boonton for five years and as director of curriculum and school superintendent in Florham Park from 1961-1966.

The administrator lives in Belleville with his wife, the former Clara Carrerra. They have four children.

Plan To Readvertise For Scavenger Services

Town Fathers Claim Discrepancies As They Reject Garbage Bids Again

Commissioners tossed another scrap on the messy local garbage issue when they voted last week to reject both of the recent bids for scavenger service and readvertise for new bids.

"We just felt those bids were not competitive based on our current contract," said Township Attorney Frank Zinna of last Wednesday's decision to reject offers that could present up to $900,000 increases for present services.

On July 11, Belleville rebid for scavenger service under a court order. A previous court decision had voided the $2,778,992 five-year contract the township awarded last December to Browning-Ferris Waste Industries (BFI) of Fairfield.

In the second rounds of bidding, the same two scavengers which had bid in December, were again the sole competitors, but this time both submitted substantially higher figures for approximately the same periods of contract service.

BFI, the lower of the two, proposed fees of $590,000 for one year, $1,936,497 for three years, and $3,685,742 for five years.

The competitor, L. Pucillo & Sons of Lodi and Belleville, bid $610,000 for one year, $2,250,000 for three years and $4 million for five years.

By contrast, in December the Fairfield firm submitted figures of $477,928 for one year, $1,554,952 for three years, and $2,778,992 for five years.

At the time, Pucillo had bid $620,000 for one year and $2,160,000 for three years, losing out to BFI since Commissioners sought the savings promised in that firm's five year offer.

Attorney Zinna said Tuesday BFI claimed to have submitted an unfeasibly low bid last winter in an effort to obtain the contract but were losing money on the deal.

"We can't understand how there could be such a discrepancy in figures only a few months later," said Zinna, who labeled BFI's actions as "a windfall."

Efforts to reach BFI's president Thomas Loy on Tuesday for comment were unsuccessful.

Favoring the decision to reject the new bids were Mayor Michael Marotti, and Commissioners Matthew Pica and Joseph Grande. Commissioner Joseph McGreevy voted against rejection and Commissioner Michael Pizzi was absent from the session.

McGreevy said Tuesday he would have favored going with BFI for the new price on the three-year contract. "How many times are we going to rebid this to try for a lower price," he said. "Either way it's a gamble. I don't think the three-year price is that far out of line."

Pizzi, who oversees scavenger collection, could not be reached for comment this week.

The rebidding was the result of a legal complaint made by Pucillo against both Belleville and BFI over the December contract award to the Fairfield firm.

Until December 31, Pucillo had been Belleville's scavenger for over 20 years, but lost the lucrative municipal contract which went to BFI effective January 1.

On December 28, Commissioners awarded the new contract and three days later, Pucillo filed a lawsuit charging Belleville and the other scavengers with irregularities in the bidding procedures.

In March, Newark Superior Court Judge Richard Newman nullified Belleville's contract with BFI on grounds that the Fairfield company failed to submit legally required documents at the actual bidding time last December 14.

Belleville unsuccessfully appealed Newman's decision. In June, a three-judge panel of the Appellate Division upheld the March opinion of the Newark judge and ordered the township to rebid.

Presently, the township is seeking a stay of that decision order before the New Jersey Supreme Court and had hoped to have a response before selecting a new scavenger.

Ironically, Zinna noted, BFI has been battling Pucillo in court on the issue of that original contract. "It doesn't make sense they should fight to keep the contract if they claim they're not making a profit and had to submit such high bids this time around," Zinna commented this week.

As permitted by court, BFI has been performing local garbage collection on a per diem basis under rates provided in the voided contract.

They have not indicated they will discontinue that practice according to Zinna. However, Pucillo previously expressed willingness to assume the per diem collection, if necessary, until a final decision is made.

High School is Holding Summer Registration Now

Belleville High School will conduct its annual summer registration program for students planning to attend the school for the first time on the following dates: August 4, 5, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26. Parents who want to register students must follow this procedure:

- Call for an appointment at the guidance office, 759-4338.

- Obtain your child's health records from his former school. Students will not be allowed to attend classes until the nurse approves their health records.

- Bring proof that you reside in Belleville. We request at least two separate proofs of residence. The proof of residence can be such things as an automobile driver's license, a rent receipt, a utility bill, etc. Most residents should be able to furnish several such proofs.

As a final note, be aware that Belleville does not accept students whose parents reside in another district. Belleville High School makes no tuition agreements with any parents. Attempts to evade this policy will be dealt with in a firm manner. Students who have already been scheduled last year at the Belleville Middle School, or at the local Catholic schools, need not call for an appointment. These students already should be ready to start school.

Recreation Department Plans Summer Carnival

The Belleville Recreation Department will hold its annual playground carnival on Thursday, August 18 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Proceeds from this year's carnival will be donated to the Bobby Travers Leukemia Fund, to benefit the 12-year-old Belleville youth who has leukemia.

The carnival will be held at the Recreation House at 407 Jorammon St., and it promises to provide much enjoyment for children of all ages in the form of games, stands, prizes, and food and drink. The day's activities will be fully supervised by the summer recreation staff.

The rain date for the carnival will be Friday, August 19. Everyone is welcome to attend.

A Winner — Al Camacho (l) of Belleville is congratulated by Bob Bilodeau, vice president of corporate affairs for Suburban Cablevision, as the company's 150,000th subscriber. Camacho, a resident of Rocco Street, was awarded with a color TV.

Local Resident Selected As 150,000th Subscriber

Philip R. Patterson, general manager of Suburban Cablevision, recently announced that the company has signed on its 150,000th subscriber — a Belleville resident.

As part of the activities surrounding the event, a 19" Zenith color TV was awarded to the 150,000th subscriber, Al Camacho of 45 Rocco Street. The presentation was made by Jim Higgins, Suburban's director of marketing, at a reception held at the company's new TV-3 studio complex in Woodbridge.

G. Barry Gage, president of Suburban Cablevision, also presented a plaque to Robert Bilodeau, founder of Suburban Cablevision, in recognition of his leadership and contribution to the company.

Representatives of the programming services on Suburban's system, members of the press, and the management personnel of Suburban attended the reception.

Company employees also joined in the festivities marking the 150,000th subscriber count. A series of breakfast buffet parties was held at company locations in East Orange, Woodbridge and Cranford.

Patterson commended Suburban's entire staff of 325 employees for their fine effort in achieving the 150,000 subscriber number. "Suburban Cablevision is the fourth largest cable system in the United States in subscriber count," said Patterson, "but more importantly, number one in efficiency of operation, programming and quality of service."

Lautenberg Seeks Telephone Measure

U.S. Sen. Frank Lautenberg (D-N.J.) has introduced legislation called the "Home Phone Act" which is aimed at preserving basic home phone service for the elderly, poor and the out-of-work.

The Senator said those persons will be among the first unable to cope with the projected price hikes next year which will be attributable to the break-up of A T&T and regulatory actions of the F.C.C.

The legislation is the inaugural bill sponsored by the Senator, and differs substantially from several other bills pending before Congress relating to the impact of the A T&T divestiture.

last month, warned that the A T&T divestiture will have a major economic impact on millions of local telephone subscribers nationwide, particularly the elderly, poor and out-of-work.

Lautenberg's bill would impose federal surcharges on long distance carriers, such as A T&T long lines, MCI and Sprint, among others, and on private communications systems, so-called "by-passers," which circumvent local telephone systems. The federal surcharge fund would also be supplemented by charges on intra-state calls.

The surcharge fund would be distributed to local telephone companies providing basic service, and state public utility commissions could establish qualifying thresholds for the elderly, poor and the out-of-work.

Lautenberg's bill differs markedly from several other related measures before Congress because it does not extend surcharge support to geographic res, which the Senator criticized as "subsidize everyone hemes."

"Those bills would not guarantee essential telephone service for people who otherwise would be unable to afford it," the Senator said. "Instead, they would provide subsidies to those geographic areas of the nation where phone costs are high, primarily rural areas, where it is costly to lay and maintain a network to a widely dispersed population."

Mary Tonges Named Hospital Director

Mary Crabtree Tonges of Montclair has been named director of Nursing Services at Clara Maass Medical Center, replacing Nancy F. Masiello, who recently retired.

Mrs. Tonges received her B.S.N. degree from the University of Iowa and her M.S.N. degree from the University of Illinois. She is certified in Nursing Administration by the American Nurses Association.

Mrs. Tonges, who grew up in Dixon, Ill., began her nursing career at Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago where she was a staff nurse, head nurse and nursing supervisor.

She was drawn to the field because of its intellectual challenge and service to others.

Mrs. Tonges also served as Assistant Director of Nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital in Chicago. For the past five years, she has been a Director of Nursing at Northwestern Memorial Hospital.

The new director has held academic appointments at Northwestern University as clinical instructor in nursing education and at the University of Illinois College of Nursing as an instructor in nursing administration.

Mrs. Tonges has been published in several journals, including the Journal of Nursing Administration and Nursing Administration Quarterly.

Mary Tonges

One of her articles dealt with cost-benefit analysis applied to patient education — a concept familiar to business and industry but used less often to evaluate professional clinical programs in non-profit organizations.

Mrs. Tonges is a member of the American Society for Nursing Service Administrators, Sigma Theta Tau Nursing Society and the Women Health Executives Network.

Her husband is a product manager at American Cyanamid in Wayne.

Former Local Resident Starts Job in Charlotte

Some people arrive at career choices by design. Others, like Constance Byers, formerly of Belleville, by accident.

Last month, Ms. Byers, 26, started work as an auditor for the Charlotte office of Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co., thanks to her husband's 1978 motorcycle accident.

Ms. Byers and her husband, Carl, were students at North Carolina State University in Raleigh when his accident put him in the hospital for two months and on crutches for nearly a year. To earn more money, she quit school and went to work as a bookkeeper for the university's continuing education center.

"That's how I got interested in accounting," Ms. Byers said.

The couple moved to Charlotte in 1980, where he went to work for Broadway & Seymour Inc., a computer software firm. She enrolled at UNCC as an accounting major.

At UNCC, Ms. Byers, a 1975 graduate of Belleville High School, made the chancellor's list, became a member of the honor society and served as treasurer of the Honorary Accounting Society.

Seems Like Only Yesterday...

Council Reinstates Planning Board; School Board Looking For Funding

Thirty Years Ago

Two mild cases of polio were reported in town, thus bringing the Essex County total to 17 cases since June. Two boys, ages five and four, were taken to the Essex County Isolation Hospital, where they were reported in good condition. The cases brought the town's total to five for the year, including one which led to the death of a four-year old boy. According to Essex County Chapter of the National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis, the 17 county-wide cases, represented an increase of four from the year before.

Evan Thomas, superintendent of schools in Belleville, was among the school district leaders who attended an annual workshop at Columbia University for school administrators. The group concluded that school officials should seek the cooperation of the general public to find ways to improve the salaries, working conditions and professional status of teachers. In a "Charter" of recommendations, which summarized its discussion, the group declared that "a more adequate number of our ablest young men and women will become teachers if they are shown a profession with higher pay, better employment conditions and recognized professional status."

Twenty Years Ago

The Belleville Planning Board was re-created by the Town Council at a recent town meeting. The council, with James Golden voting in the minority, adopted an ordinance for a five-member board — the mayor, a councilman, and three citizens appointed by the mayor. The board replaces the seven-member body which was abolished last March by a 3-2 vote.

The council heeded to a plea by the Chamber of Commerce, which asked, through Harry French, executive director, for the board's reinstatement on grounds that it is "essential to orderly progress and growth" and it is "vital" to the future of the community.

Voting against the board, Golden said town planning is a trend which can lead to "planning for evil as well as good. Such boards tend to be high-handed and often take actions which boomerang and lead to white elephants."

The directive against municipal employees participating in the recall movement was clarified when town Manager John Burnett said workers may sign petitions and attend meetings, but may not become "protagonists" for either side.

Earlier Burnett said no town employee could take part in the recall movement headed by former councilman Thomas Greco and Councilman James Golden, against Mayor Robert Laterza, and Councilmen Vincent Strumolo and George Addonizio.

Ground-breaking for the construction of the new $1 million church of Holy Family in Nutley took place. The first spade of earth was turned by the Rev. Msgr. Anthony DeLuca, pastor of the church since 1933.

The new church which will serve many residents of Belleville, will seat 1,120 and be constructed by Riefolo Constructors of Belleville.

Ten Years Ago

Belleville Board of Education officials planned to meet with officials of the State Department of Education to plead their case to restore the $450,880 cut by the Board of Commissioners from the 1973-1974 budget. The state will hear arguments from both sides and the commissioner of education will later render his decision on the fate of the disputed funds.

Stephen Raleigh Elected As Elks' Exalted Ruler

Stephen J. Raleigh of Belleville Elks 1123 was recognized as a newly elected Exalted Ruler at the 119th Convention of the Grand Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, held in Honolulu, July 24-28.

Raleigh is one of more than 2,300 Exalted Rulers nationwide.

Each Exalted Ruler is elected by his lodge in March, and takes office in April for a term of one year.

The Exalted Rulers heard convention reports that the Elks donated more than $25 million to various charities during 1982. Since the Elks began keeping records 102 years ago, more than $430 million has been donated for charitable purposes.

The Elks, in addition to numerous other charitable ventures, sponsor the Elks Hoop Shoot, a free-throw basketball shooting contest entered by more than three million boys and girls each year.

The convention delegates have also unanimously elected Kenneth V. Cantoli of Hasbrouck Heights, N.J., the new Grand Exalted Ruler for 1983-84. G.E.R. Cantoli will serve the 1.6 million Elks until July, 1984.

A Great Lady

It was at the beginning of the 20th Century — she was an illiterate and 14 years old — when her 16 year old sister and she departed from the shores of Naples, Italy, to the promised dream of America. Her father, mother, and younger brother waved goodbye to the daughter of a member of Garibaldi's vaunted cavalry. Her three older brothers arrived in America a year earlier.

The ship was a freighter — the frightened teens didn't exactly go first class — for there was no class to describe conditions aboard the freighter during that five-week stormy trip bridging the Atlantic.

A woman, recommended by a family friend, because she had influence with the immigration department, and thus, could help the teenage immigrants through the difficult and demeaning experience at Ellis Island, met them inside the quarantine area — took their bags and told them she would meet them after they cleared immigration, for the horse and buggy trip to North Newark.

Well — they cleared immigration — but their erstwhile "friend" was nowhere to be found — she had vanished with all the valuables these two teenage immigrants had — the little girls were left with only the blouses on their backs.

A sympathetic and more affluent fellow passenger — aware of their crisis, volunteered to help. (The young girls could only speak Italian). A contact was made with a brother in New Jersey. This brother was more than a brother — he was a pal — his name was Generoso Cocchiola.

He didn't have much money — working for $1 a day there wasn't much he could save, but, nevertheless, from his meager savings he bought clothes for the two sisters he loved so much and put them up in his apartment in North Newark. And this is how this 14 year old immigrant was introduced to America — in a strange and sad way.

Did she lose faith in America? Did she ask this country to become bilingual — and, thus, make her tongue America's second language?

No — with renewed courage — she picked up her shattered dream and moved on to the future — resolved to make it in America.

And so it came to pass that the "matchmaker" played out his role and she married a young, handsome, ambitious, fellow countryman who turned out to be the greatest of the greatest.

They married — happy but broke. Their kitchen table and two chairs were loaners. But — this beautiful couple shared the American dream — freedom, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Happiness meant raising a family, a home, a steady job, moonlighting jobs — and a business on the side.

In time one daughter and three sons came along — four more mouths to feed. When the great depression of 1929 descended upon her household this is what she and her husband faced — a mortgage and a home completed at sky-high prices three months before the crash, four children, ages two, five, 11 and 14 to feed, dress, and send off to school.

She never despaired — even when her husband's work week was cut to one day. Neither did she seek alms nor visit the Nutley Welfare Department. Pride, self-esteem, courage, and self-confidence — qualities shared equally with her husband, sustained her family over the rough times.

This teenager — who came to the shores of America unable to read, write, or speak English — learned to speak and understand the language of her adopted country — never going to school but listening to people around her and picking up the language of a new country.

She taught herself to identify and work with figures. And with this limited knowledge — limited funds — but unlimited courage, she up and opened a neighborhood grocery and vegetable store. After all — she reasoned — even in a depression people must eat — and at the very least the store would provide the family food "at wholesale."

And so for her the years rolled on — her father, at age 67, came to these shores in 1916 and lived in her home for most of his remaining years. He died in 1949 at age 100.

Her husband — ever the dedicated family servant, died prematurely at age 61. He was a super human being. Gentle, kind, firm, personal integrity and character beyond question — like his wife — he was a slave to his family. He would work seven days and seven nights during those tough depression years to earn enough money to maintain a home and feed a family of six. It took her seven years to make the emotional adjustment as a widow to go through life without a trusting and a loving partner and companion — her beloved husband.

Today she is 90 — God Bless Her. What manner of lady is she now? Is she still as strong and spunky as she was when she left Ellis Island 76 years earlier, with only the blouse on her back?

Well — just Sunday night her three sons visited with her — in her home — discussing the possibility of a live-in companion — an idea nurtured by her daughter. To her oldest son's suggestion that a companion would be good for her, she replied — "No thanks, I don't need anyone." To her youngest son's suggestion that a live in companion would make her days more joyful and her evenings less lonely, she replied, "No, I said I don't need a stranger in my house." To her second son's suggestion that an Italian-born, Italian-speaking live-in companion would be available morning, noon, and night as a companion, cook, and housekeeper she turned and uncharacteristically exclaimed, "No, I don't need anybody, God Damn It! You're crazy!"

The lady — my mother — our mother — Marie — Carl — Carmen and the undersigned. Happy Birthday — Mom — from all of us — God Bless You and Keep You in good health. We love you — but please — no more G — D —.

Love, Your Son

Senior Citizens' Club Isn't Political Group

To the editor:

A brochure entitled "The Belleville Senior Citizens' Human Services Directory," dated January 1983, has recently come to my attention. As the founder and organizer of the Senior Citizens' Social Club of Belleville, N.J. Incorporated, I take strenuous exception to the information compiled on page No. 15 of the directory, wherein, under the heading "Group Activities and Organizations," one shall find the activities listed therein as "Politics and Group Activities" following the Senior Citizens' Social Club's name. Far from it!

The above named club, which holds its meetings on Friday afternoons at the Recreation Building on the corner of Mill Street and Franklin Avenue, here in Belleville, was organized most emphatically with the understanding there was to be "No Politics"! The club's by-laws so state!

I am surprised that Rotarian Bob Gaccione, the Rotary Club's coordinator for this directory, chose to list the club's activities as "Politics"! The directory relates that "every effort has been made to" provide a comprehensive source of information. I suggest the effort made was insufficient as it relates to the activities of the Senior Citizens' Social Club!

Any personal political activities pursued by individual members and/or officers of the Senior Citizens' Social Club of Belleville, N.J., Inc., should, in no way, be used to judge the group's recreational activities! Perhaps the "Politics" listed under the above club on page No. 15 is in the wrong group's activities? Correction, please!

Respectfully submitted,

Reader Disagrees With Diplomatic Immunity

To the editor:

I would like to apologize to my readers and friends of the Belleville Times and the Nutley Sun for not writing an article of my own in quite a while. You see, I dictate my letters because my hands won't cooperate in writing myself and the woman who usually helps me do this lost her husband recently and there in lies the problem.

A week or so ago, watching "60 Minutes" on Sunday night, I saw a story about a man in Virginia who was shot by a son of an Ambassador to the United States from one of the South American countries. Therefore, he has diplomatic immunity. When they found this out, he was let go and his name erased from the police record. Is this right or wrong? Breaking the law applies only to citizens?

I'm well aware of reprisals. There is an old saying that goes: "Tit for tat, butter for fat, kill my dog and I'll kill your cat."

However, all countries should be equally responsible for expecting obedience to the law.

The man that was shot was a "bouncer" in a clothing store. When the guy came in and held up the store, the man and a friend ran after him. They caught up and the culprit was overpowered and captured. He didn't realize he was shot until it was all over. Now, he's trying to get compensation from this country and the one the gunman is from. I'm pretty sure he'll probably not get anywhere because of diplomatic immunity. It's true good relations with other countries must be maintained, but must right be compromised because of it? A lot of money is wasted in this country because of this and the many injustices that go along with it.

We have to come to some kind of an agreement on this. Something like this should demand a restitution, regardless of what country is involved. The law is the law. What's good for one is good for all, regardless of color, race or religion. This should be standard procedure in all countries with no allowance made for "Diplomatic Immunity" in such serious cases.

As far as this man that was shot is concerned, he should get compensation from the government or an attempt should be made to bring the man who is now out of the country back to stand trial.

This is only one case, there are many not mentioned and it takes millions of dollars away from our government and American people who have to suffer with taxes that are sky-high; partly because of this stupidity.

Sincerely,
Bill Rundle

More 'Entitlement' Laws Add to Bureaucratic Mess

To the editor:

According to a recent press release, if Sen. Frank Lautenberg (D-N.J.) has his way, private telephone service will wind up as another item on the long list of "entitlements" for the all too familiar class of beneficiaries. Surely there is no need to make a Federal case out of providing phone service for the exceptional situation, where it is truly needed as a life line. This is a perfect example of how we got in the bureaucratic mess we are in today. At one time, private phone service was a luxury. Today it is more of a convenience and comfortable way of communication between neighbors, friends and relatives, or for ordering a pizza.

It definitely does not fall in the classification for subsidy as shelter, food, fuel, etc., etc. Since the press release does not mention that the Honorable Senator would finance this new benefit out of his own pocket, it no doubt will, eventually be taken out of the paycheck of his working constituents, getting up at six in the morning, to support their families and to pay for their phones, whether they agree or not, for such is the "Democrat" way.

Spanish Speakers Should Learn Our Language Here

To the editor:

Nothing raises my blood pressure so speedily as a Spanish-language sign in a hospital, public building, public transportation vehicle, etc.

What's wrong with expecting people who have adopted our country as their home to learn the English language and reserve their ethnic language for private get-togethers and homelife? Does one ever see such signs in Italian, German, Greek, French, Japanese, etc. in public places? If other ethnic groups can and have for years accepted English as the native language, and learned to use it, why can't those of Hispanic background?

Now they are talking about forcing manufacturers to place customary warnings in Spanish! Why must we go the way of bi-lingual! Why must we cater to one specific ethnic group? I say, this is America . . . and anyone who wants to live and work here must learn and use the "American" language.

Hooray for Mayor Thomas Dunn of Elizabeth, who has the wisdom and courage to tell it like it is! I agree wholeheartedly with his directive regarding language and dress of city and state employees while on the job and performing their duties. Otherwise, I can visualize a modern "Tower of Babel!"

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Monday August 8 at 8 p.m. is the meeting of the local Board of Commissioners which unanimously adopted at its July 11 meeting, over the strong objections of citizens and members of the local Chamber of Commerce, the ordinance captioned "CAPITAL ORDINANCE APPROPRIATING $1,725,000 AND AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF $665,000 BONDS OR NOTES OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE FOR CONSTRUCTION OF A NEW PUBLIC SAFETY COMPLEX CONTINGENT UPON RECEIPT OF MATCHING FUNDS IN ADVANCE FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF P.L. 98, THE EMERGENCY JOBS ACT.

For those who read the fine print in this ordinance, we read under Section 5. For the said improvement or purpose stated in said Section 2, there is hereby appropriated the sum of $1,725,000, said sum being inclusive of all appropriations heretofore made therefore and including the sum of $35,000 as the down payment for said improvement or purpose required by law and now available therefore by virtue of provisions in a previously adopted budget or budgets of the Township for down payment or for capital improvement purposes.

We read under Section 6(a) For the financing of said improvement or purpose and to meet the part of said $1,725,000 appropriation not provided for by application hereunder of said down payment and, funds anticipated from the Federal Government, negotiable bonds of the Township are hereby authorized to be issued in the principal amount of $690,000 pursuant to the Local Bond Law of New Jersey. In anticipation of the issuance of said bonds and to temporarily finance said improvement or purpose, negotiable notes of the Township in a principal amount not exceeding $690,000 are hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to and within the limitations prescribed by said law.

We read under Section 7. (a) The said purpose heretofore described is not a current expense and is a property or improvement which the Township may lawfully acquire or make as a general improvement . . .

(b) The period of usefulness of said purpose within the limitations of said Local Bond Law according to the reasonable life thereof computed from the date of said bonds authorized by this bond ordinance, is 40 years.

From the small print we learn that the ordinance caption is misleading in that $690,000 in bonds and/or notes will be floated at a time when interest rates are high, that the life expectancy of the proposed complex is 40 years and that the ordinance states that the purpose (Police and court, NEW PUBLIC SAFETY COMPLEX) is a property or improvement which the Township may lawfully acquire or make as a general improvement.

We seriously doubt that the Township of Belleville would ever be able to acquire the land upon which they propose to construct this edifice and we question the propriety of the patent fallacious impression that is could be considered a general improvement for the Township, if it were built upon the County's land.

Likewise, in banking circles it is unheard of to seek or expect a mortgage or loan on leased land that doesn't have a 99 year term. It is reported that Fidelity even turned down Prudential when they applied with a 50 year lease.

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce and those opposing this questionable ordinance should go to next Monday night's town Commission meeting, voice your objections, write the Federal agency in Washington that reviews the applications seeking these matching funds, alert the bonding companies who might consider purchasing these notes or bonds.

The statement, legally required on bonding ordinances, which was published in the July 21 issues of the Belleville Times, the legal newspaper of the Township of Belleville, reads, "The ordinance published herewith has been finally passed and the 20 day period of limitation within which a suit, action or proceeding questioning the validity of such ordinance can be commenced as provided in the Local Bond Act, has begun to run from the date of the first publication of this statement."

Were litigation considered, it would appear that the validity of floating a $690,000 bid on bonds or notes for improvements on property which the Township lacked ownership or even a long term 99 year lease with the option of renewal, might well be challenged.

It raises the ogre of having our taxpayers paying interest on bonds or notes which they will have to eventually pay off, while the County becomes the ultimate beneficiary. We don't like it.

Rape-case Justice Completely Wrong

By Ellen Goodman

At last, the sweet smell of justice. After 3½ years, the five young men who once upon a time pleaded guilty to the gang-rape of a 39-year-old woman in Holbrook, Mass., finally were punished for a crime. Last Wednesday, they were handed a two-year suspended sentence and ordered to pay damages for assaulting the woman's car.

How are these men finally brought down by the harsh manner of justice, you may ask. For those who have forgotten the details of this nationally publicized case, a brief chronology:

On Jan. 23, 1980, a group of young men met the woman in a bar. This woman, forever after referred to as "a former beauty queen," went with them to a nearby wooded area. So did her car. There, five of the men maintained that she offered to have sex with them all for $200, and she maintained that they raped her.

What is agreed upon by everyone is that the men took turns. While one was mauling her, the others were mauling her car. At the end, the bruised auto was rolled over an embankment. The bruised woman was left naked in the January night.

A sixth man, who later testified against his friends, may have saved the woman's life by returning to the scene and driving the woman to a nearby fire station.

On Oct. 5, 1981, in a plea bargain, the five men agreed to plead guilty to rape. In return, the judge — who called this "a consensual sexual adventure that went off track" — gave them a suspended sentence and $500 fines to be paid in $5 weekly installments. Four days of public outrage later, the judge revoked the suspended sentences, ordered their guilty pleas withdrawn and ordered the case to trial.

After many legal machinations that included one trip to the U.S. Supreme Court and another to the Massachusetts Supreme Court, and a mistrial, the five went to trial in April 1983. This time they pleaded not guilty to rape and to malicious damage to the woman's personal property.

On June 17, they were found not guilty of damaging the woman but — hosanna and pass the scales of justice — guilty of damaging the car. Last week, they found out that crime doesn't pay.

Well, what have we learned from the successful prosecution of the gang bang-up of a car? That it's easier to convict men of battering a chassis if the chassis is made of tin? There are several things to be considered by the legal profession, especially by those who have the misfortune to be on the side of a woman in a rape case. Here is one of them: It is better to have a car as a client than a woman.

This car, unlike this woman, was not penalized or being unable to testify at the trial. Nor did anyone in the courtroom bring up the automobile's private history or reputation, although it is suspected that the car had once received bruises for which it was at fault. There are even rumors that the car once plunged willfully into a fender-bender.

In addition, cars cannot be judged harshly for frequenting a bar, although occasionally they guzzle gas. A car is rarely remembered as "a former beauty queen," even though it may once have been the star of a local showroom somewhere.

Moreover, jurors do not generally care about the appearance of automobiles: What was the color of the seat covers? Was it wearing a see-through sun roof? Was it a racy foreign number? It is rare that a Mercedes 450-SL is suspected of enticing vandals.

Suppertime Talks — Book of Ruth

"And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn; and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down."

Yes, there are more beautiful books in the Bible than Ruth. The Psalms and the Gospel of Matthew (the Sermon on the Mount) are such. But there is something human, so humanly poetic about the story of Ruth that touches this sentimental soul.

And Naomi, her mother-in-law said to her:

"Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking."

When we turn to the Bible, we generally look for the New Testament for the gentle Jesus and His parables. Or when we want to become mighty theological and reach the Lord through the intellect, we turn to Paul and his Epistles. Or when we are in despair, we turn to Job and we lament with him. Few of us, it seems, turn to the Book of Ruth which is so much a contrast to the books that surround it in the Bible.

We read:

"And he said, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter; for thou hast showed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as though followedst not young men, whether poor or rich."

"And, now my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirerest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman."

That immortal passage: "... that thou art a virtuous woman." What women in this world would prefer a better description — "A virtuous woman?" Beauty, charm, wealth, handsome husband... successful career? Simple Ruth, working in the field:

"And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech."

"And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and upon the reapers, The Lord be with you. And they answered him, The Lord bless thee, 'Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?'"

Those brilliant, sensitive men who wrote the King James version, why did they choose that word "damsel?" I do not know the original Hebrew, but the poets who wrote the Book of Ruth selected the perfect word. Not "girl" or "woman" or "female" or whatever — but damsel. Only a poet would have chosen such a perfect word. Would not every woman want to be called a damsel? At least once in life? By at least one man?

Yes, Ruth is the eternal love story. For Boaz does marry Ruth. His excuse is to continue the "inheritance" — the inheritance that would make Ruth the great grandmother of David and an ancestor to Jesus. But we know better. We know that really Boaz yearned for Ruth because she was "a virtuous woman."

Umberto' Corner

Dear Umberto,

My husband is walking around with a rainbow on his head. Thank God he needs glasses and he can't see the three colors on his head. I feel guilty for the messy color job, but I don't know what to do. He is thirty-three and all grey. He looked sophisticated but old. I bought chestnut brown and mixed the color with peroxide and applied it. It came out very well. A month went by, his hair grew so I reapplied the same color. There was some difference in the color. I followed the same process the third month. It came out in three different colors. Why did this happen?

Your Reader With the husband with a rainbow on his head

Dear Reader,

Your husband had the hair that I would like to have - grey. If we could exchange, I would pay a good sum. First, don't apply that type of a mixture on a man. There are colors on the market which do not contain peroxide, designed for men. If you use those peroxide colors you must apply the color on the roots first. After 15-20 minutes you apply it all over. Try this method and you'll see a vast improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Swinarski — nee Mary-Louise Fortunato

Mr. and Mrs. Swinarski Honeymooned in Mexico

Holy Family Church was the setting for the marriage of Mary-Louise Fortunato, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fortunato of 497 Joralemon St., to Michael C. Swinarski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Swinarski of 86 Tappan Ave.

The Rev. Gerald Sudol performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Chandelier, Belleville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown with illusion neckline, long bouffant sleeves tapered at the wrists and cathedral train. Trimming was of lace and beads.

A matching hat held her floor length veil and she carried a cascade of silk roses.

Rosanne Fortunato of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included other sisters of the couple, Diane and Angela Fortunato and Lynda Swinarski, all of Belleville and Lisa Pacico of Fairfield and Natalie Bucciarelli of Old Tappan.

They were attired in royal blue taffeta gowns with light blue sashes and carried silk arm bouquets. The honor attendant's pillbox hat was royal blue and the others were light blue.

Bobby Giordano of Belleville was the best man. Ushering was the bride's brother, John Fortunato, James Fusaro, Tony Cortese and Frank Ameo, all of Belleville and George Mobilio of Woodbridge.

Mrs. Fortunato chose a pearl gray Qiana gown with organza jacket while the groom's mother was in matve. Both had cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Swinarski, an alumna of Union County Technical School, is a dental assistant in Upper Montclair.

Mr. Swinarski, a graduate of Bergen Community College, is a sales representative for American Tobacco Co., New York.

The couple honeymooned in Acapulco, Mexico, following the March 20 nuptials and have made their home in Belleville.

Belleville's Past

Williams, who had been secretary of the State Commission on Economy of his home state, Massachusetts, came to Belleville in 1923 with his ability as administrator of public finances already well established. In 1926 Mayor Kenworthy appointed him as a member of the Zoning Board. Following his election to the Town Commission in 1930, Williams was chosen by his colleagues as head of the Department of Revenue and Finance. This department did not merely include the routine financial affairs of the town. It also acted as town treasury, as tax assessor, and as collecting agency for all taxes, including the water tax. Administration of the Sinking Fund for the town's debt service also fell under the sphere of the department.

In his new capacity, Williams was able to put the town's finances on a sound basis, despite the increased demands made on them by the exigencies of the depression days. His success netted him top place in the next town elections of 1934. Unanimously his colleagues elected him as mayor. Instead of assuming, as all previous mayors had, the Department of Public Affairs, Williams kept the Finance Department and instituted a new taxation and budget policy on a basis described by himself as "the-pay-as-you-go plan." A steady downward revision of tax rates was effected. The rate had been 4.46 in 1932. It was 4.14 the following year, 3.94 in 1934, and had reached the low level of 3.75 in 1937.

Mayor Williams' fiscal policy found the strong support of the Belleville voters. In the last election, on May 10, 1938, Williams, receiving the highest number of votes in a field of 14 candidates, returned to office, together with three of his former associates on the town commission: Joseph A. King, Patrick A. Waters and William D. Clark. Louis A. Noll was elected as the fifth member of the board. The various departments of the town administration are now distributed in the following manner: Mayor Williams, Revenue and Finance, and Department of Public Property; King, Public Affairs; Noll, Public Parks and Buildings; Clark, Public Safety; Waters, Public Works.

Other prominent officers of the town administration are: Florence E. Morey, town clerk; John F. Coogan, Jr., tax assessor and deputy mayor; William C. Knapp, tax collector; Lawrence E. Keenan, town attorney; Herbert Vail and Martin Meehan, town physicians; T. Russel Sargent, town treasurer; John H. Hewitt, director of municipal welfare; M. J. Sheehan, town engineer; Everett B. Smith, recorder; Eugene M. Gavey, registrar of vital statistics; Joseph King, building inspector; Eugene T. Berry, health inspector; Edward J. O'Connor, plumbing inspector.

The commissioners of the Sinking Fund are Floyd Bragg, Hallis Franklin Hickok, Francis McFadden and the mayor. The mayor also heads the Police and Firemen's Pension Board, on which Town Clerk Miss Morey and Town Treasurer Sargent also serve, beside Russel Rose, A.R. Reid and John Monaghan.

Athletics, Fishing and Art Highlight This Week At Local Playgrounds

By Jerry DiGori

The Little League playground highlight of this week was a trip to Verona Park. The activities for the day included a "learn to fish" program sponsored by the Essex County Parks & Recreation Department and a visit with the traveling zoo sponsored by Turtleback Zoo.

Billy Escott proved his expertise as an experienced fisherman when he reeled in three fish within 30 minutes.

The Recreation House playground last week saw many of the children having fun with creativity by drawing and coloring. Special recognition goes to Linda Thompson, Lisa and Lori Phillips and Tracy Mastrogiovanni for their efforts.

The big event of this week at the Friendly House was a pizza party. Ten large pizzas were consumed along with three cases of soda. Participants included Laurie Dondarski, Mike and Vinny Cosenzo, Byron Fogle and Matt Mancuso. Joey Mastrocicola was a triple winner, taking the pizza eating contest, Pillsbury Dough Boy look-alike contest and the Carrom Pool Tournament. Painting and key chains were also quite popular with Joshua Gherrity and Christopher Mota.

The Junior and Senior Leagues won both their games against the Rec and the Friendly House at the School 10 playground. They both remain undefeated. The Senior League capped a 14-1 victory with a game-ending triple play involving Joe Cicola, Ray Ruggiero and Steve Mulhearn. The School 10 playground is looking for both trophies this summer.

Wiffle ball was the game of the week again. Stacey Johansen, Steve Tice, George Speer and Robert Gibilisco all participated.

Toni Ann Cicola, Kim Snyder, Cindy Snyder and Luanne Kot participated in a basketball shooting game of around the world last Friday. Toni Ann Cicola reigned as champion.

The game of the week at the Stadium was chess. A tournament was held on Friday and Bobby Mozeika was crowned the champion this past week. Other participants were Sammy Fusaro, Rob Ferucci, Anthony Zarro, Steve Linfanti, Carmen Fortunato, Dan Senesky, Sal Woodcock and Mike Senesky. The atmosphere during the tournament was extremely competitive.

Once again softball, knock-hockey and pool were popular. Participating were Dave Harrison, Chris Marcantuono, Jamie Galio, Lenny Linfanti, Robert Lupo, Tim Cook and Rob Hutchinson.

An outstanding performance was turned in by Dan Senesky in chess and NFL Strategy, the ultimate football simulation game, in defeating director Sammy Fusaro repeatedly.

A variety of activities were enjoyed at the School 9 playground last week. Touch football was once again popular as were knock-hockey and wiffle ball. To cool off during this hot week, relay races with water balloons were held. Participants included Nicole Briganti, Toni Briganti, Tracy Burke, Terry Temple and Veronica Huchretter.

The highlight of the week at Kelly's Court playground was a disco dance contest on Thursday afternoon. Participants included Joset Cafone, Cathy Petrillo, Jamie Briganti and Gina Cafone. The winner was Joset Cafone and the runner up was Jamie Briganti. Second runner up was Cathy Petrillo and third runner up was Gina Cafone.

Participants in arts and crafts were Lisa, Eric Scaperatto, Gina Cafone and Rene Salkowski. They made butterflies, mice and flowers out of styrofoam, pompom balls, clothespins and pipe cleaners. All had a creative and enjoyable day.

Softball games were held at Clearman Field playground with School 10 winning with both their junior and senior teams on Monday against the Rec. The junior team was led by Steven Tice and the senior by Vinnie Marchello and "Mo" Mulhearn.

The Friendly House defeated Kelly's by the score of 18-6 in the Junior League. Clearman defeated the Stadium 15-5 behind the hitting of Jay Marchese and Anthony Oliver.

In Senior League action, Kelly defeated Friendly House 9-7 behind the hitting of Donna Brooks and Ronnie Spera. Clearman defeated the Stadium 13-3, with Jimmy Dunphy leading in the hitting.

Local Junior Women Attend Club Orientation

The Eighth District's June Orientation entitled "Summertime" was held at the Jersey City Woman's Clubhouse. The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville attended this orientation, along with the other clubs from the Eighth District. MaryAnn Flor, president of the Belleville Juniors, Joyce Wittish, Georgeann Ventola and Linda Caputo were the representatives from the Belleville. Joyce Martelli, Eighth District Advisor, presided over the meeting. Guests included Ann Quinn, junior director of NJSFWC; Joyce Fredericks, northern assistant director; Linda Rissel, central assistant director; and MaryLou Sullivan, JMD representative to Federation Board and chair of Nominations. Along with many other guests from the State Board, the Eighth District was well represented by Jan Ehlers, education chairman; Bernadette Szpila, international affairs chairman, and Marie Vicciariello Partners in Progress chairman. Barbar Spillane, past junior director; Marilyn Marinaccio and Barbara Flannery both past Eighth District advisors were also present.

To end the meeting, the Junior Pledge was recited by all clubwomen. Anyone wishing more information about The Junior woman's Club of Belleville or if you are between the ages of 18-35 and would like to join our organization, call 751-4975.

For aching muscles, many people look to a pharmacy's shelves for minty-smelling balms. These substances are known as counterirritants. When spread upon the skin, they cause an expansion of local blood vessels that increases blood flow. This in turn produces a warming effect on the underlying muscles as the blood automatically flows through them in an effort to reach the skin. The increased blood flow provides more oxygen for the muscles. If the cause of muscle pain is a lack of oxygen or a constriction of blood vessels, the counterirritants will generally bring relief. The major constituent of counterirritant analgesics is menthol which stimulates nerves to feel cold yet depresses pain nerves.

Braves Reach Critical Stretch; A Playoff Spot Is On The Line

What might have been the proverbial straw that broke the camels back fell on the Belleville Braves last Sunday at Municipal Stadium, with a freak ground ball quite possibly costing the Braves a playoff spot.

For Belleville, now 12-19, the final week of the season has approached. The team will play nine games in a six day span and started that stretch with a doubleheader against the Union Jays and Rams at Union on Tuesday. On Wednesday, the Braves were in Irvington and tonight will be at Milburn. Tomorrow, the Union Rams are at Belleville for a 6 p.m. start. Saturday, West Orange comes in at 5 p.m. and Sunday will be a doubleheader with Irvington and Maplewood at Belleville. The Braves will then close out this disastrous week with a game in Parsippany next Monday. That battle will be the final game of the regular season. The Braves are hoping for a few more.

"20-20 will do it," said head coach Sal Garilli referring to the fact that a 20-20 mark will earn a playoff spot. "Our backs are to the wall. We have to win eight of our last nine or the season ends next Monday. It's going to be a tough stretch."

Belleville might have dug itself in too far last Sunday at home. In that contest, the Braves lost to Maplewood, 9-8, blowing an 8-2 lead in the process. The winning Maplewood runs scored when a routine, double play ball took a routine bad hop on the Braves questionable infield. Instead of exiting the inning with an 8-6 win and a 13-18 mark, Belleville lost the contest 9-8 and dampened their hopes.

"We couldn't make th big plays," said Garilli. "This was a crushing defeat. If we win this game, we're right in the thick of things. Now, we have to win seven games next week against some very good teams. It's not impossible, but it's going to be very difficult."

What about the bad hop, something that has plagued the Braves at many home games this year. "I don't know," said the coach, a bit puzzled. "It seems that routine ground balls that hit the infield either bounce up or bounce away. It should be a little smoother than that."

The Braves did win a few ball games last week, whipping Milburn, 9-2 in their best outing of the week. Paul La Rocca hurled the entire contest for Belleville and Jeff Lauschage and Joe Corbalis powered homers. Dave Starr had two hits and has been marvelous the last four weeks. "Man, he's been making some major league catches out there," Garilli said of his prize centerfielder. "He's also hitting the ball a ton. The same is true of Dominic (Vazzano). He's been tearing the ball all season long."

Vazzano was four for four versus Maplewood and had a pair of hits in the big win over Milburn.

The Braves added to the win column with a 7-4 victory at Parsippany. In this contest, Scott Lutz hurled a strong ball game and Jeff Bradley and Mark Roll contributed three hits each. "Scotty (Lutz) pitched very well," said Garilli. "We got good hitting here and got a win."

Basketball Squad Hits Low Streak

If you happen to see Don Roll around town, don't ask him how things went for the Belleville boys basketball team last week. About the only answer he'll give you, is, "Don't ask, it was terrible."

The Summer Bucs, after making good strides in the first three weeks of the season, fell apart last week, losing two ball games and putting a damper on their playoff hopes this summer. The Bucs are now 2-3, having lost three straight and face a rigid test in this, the last week of the regular season.

Belleville battled the Bloomfield "B" squad on Monday in a make up game and then squared off with the Bloomfield "A" squad on Tuesday. Realistically, Belleville had to win both games in order to qualify for the playoffs.

"It was a terrible week," said Roll. "First off, we didn't have (Phil) Colalillo. He missed the Clifton game all together and then got hurt early in the Nutley contest. Without him at 100 percent, the offense definitely staggers."

The Bucs were downed by Clifton, 74-68 and were ripped by Nutley, 69-55. In the Clifton contest, Colalillo did not play, having participated in the Seton Hall league and missing the contest. With Colalillo, Belleville would have probably won the game. "We made a lot of mental mistakes," said Roll. "Our passes were bad, we were making bounce chest passes, when they should have been bounce passes and were poor against the press. It was just a bad week all around."

Danny Ward led the way for Belleville with 20 points and Bill Nankervis popped home 18. Nick Sotomayer scored 13, Mike Sochaski tallied seven, Dan Riordan finished with four and Steve Kimble tallied a foul shot.

Against Nutley, Colalillo was back in the lineup, but he banged up his thumb in the early going. "I don't know if he broke it or not," said Roll. "It was really puffy and didn't look too good. He sat out the first quarter and most of the game for that matter. He begged me to put him in the game and he came through with a good effort. I give him a lot of credit."

In about two quarters worth of work, Colalillo finished with 23 points, not bad for a guy with a sore shooting hand. The Bucs were further hampered by the ejection of Dave Boyd early in the game. "David has to learn not to let the referee's get to him," said Roll. "I will admit they weren't good, but Dave has to play the game and let me worry about the officials."

Without their top defensive player and with Colalillo playing at 30 percent, Belleville couldn't match the Nutley style and ended up losing by 14 points. Furthermore, Joe Borrello, an almost certain starter for the regular season, missed the Nutley game and is doubtful for the Bloomfield contests.

In addition to Colalillo's 23, Ward scored eight points, Nankervis had eight, Sotomayer tallied six and Riordan finished with four.

"It's simple, we have to win both games to make the playoffs," said Roll. "The officiating in the Nutley game wasn't too good but we weren't much better. We have to forget about those games and concentrate on this weeks games."

Times Flashback

Belleville Crew Team Defeats Tough Atlantic City Squad

April 25, 1968.

After a hard week of practice, the varsity, JV and freshman shells pulled into the dock, tired but with smiles on their faces last Saturday. All shells deserved praise when they each beat an Atlantic City crew by a safe margin.

Facing first, the freshman had no trouble in defeating Atlantic City as they took them from the start and kept increasing their lead as the miles progressed. Backed by Giuffrida and Villano, the freshman have a great deal of potential and possibly could go undefeated this year after last weeks win over Arlington High School in Poughkeepsie. Because Atlantic City had brought only one freshman shell with them, it was a three boat race with Belleville fielding two shells.

Belleville's first and second freshman crews rowed the mile respectively in 6:11 and 6:26 to Atlantic City's 6:44. Debris soon cluttered the mile course as the tide was coming in, making the coxswains job a lot harder than in normal conditions. The junior varsity race was next on the agenda. Again, Belleville won this by a wide margin. As compared with the freshman high stroke of 44, jayvee had a perfect 36 the entire mile, winning by a healthy 30 seconds. After they lost to Arlington last week, they made a fine comeback to defeat Atlantic City.

Belleville jayvee oarsman: bow, De Jonge, 2-Breckinridge, 3-Jurusik, 4-De Feo, 5-Fink, 6-Newman, 7-Corino, stroke- De Feo and coxswain, Cavaluzzi. Times were 5:20 for Belleville with a 5:50 for Atlantic City.

The closest race of the day developed between the varsity crew of both schools. Belleville took the start with a 45 and had about a half a boat lead. During the first quarter, Belleville built its lead at times to five seats, but that was all. At the second quarter marker, Atlantic City had pulled upon Belleville again to narrow the lead to about two seats. It was here that Belleville had a low stroke of 31 as compared to Atlantic City's 34. Through the remaining quarter, Belleville's lead was never too certain.

At the Belleville Bridge, the Belboys finally took control of the visiting crew. It was precisely this strategy that coach Michael Lally had set all season long. "The last quarter mile makes the difference," Belleville crossed the finish line with a time of 5:17 to Atlantic City's, 5:24. The varsity shell consisted of: bow-Corino, 2-Fabian, 3-Mueller, 4-Bereaford 5-Bernaduzzi, 6-Keegan, 7-Faltraco, stroke-Murray, cox-Maglio.

Atlantic City sought a disqualification of the varsity event, claiming that oars had touched during the race. Officials who had seen the race soon disallowed the claim. On Saturday, Belleville crews will travel to New Rochelle, New York where they will compete in the annual Blessed Sacrament Regatta, which will be a six boat race this year. All crews are looking for another win. All supporters are invited to come and view the race and cheer their crews on.

EDITORS NOTES: For many years, the Belleville crew team has been one of the best in the area. Beating Atlantic City, whom Belleville raced annually until 1976, was a big win. Atlantic City was always a very strong crew. Sam Giuffrida was the freshman coach back in 1968. Michael Lally is of course the principal of Belleville High School now. For nostalgia fans, in April of 1968, the Green Bay Packers were the dynasty of the NFL, the St. Louis Cardinals were the world champions of major league baseball and the country was deep in the Vietnam War with campus uprisings. Also, the country was shocked by the shooting of Dr. Martin Luther King and two weeks later would be equally shocked by the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy. The Fifth Dimension and Gary Puckett and the Union Gap were some of the top groups back then. A quarterback by the name of Joe Willie Namath would later take his upstart team from the AFL, the New York Jets, to the Super Bowl in January, 1969. The New York Mets were a last place ball club back in 68. Things haven't changed that much after all.

A Look At The Upcoming Professional Football Season

It is the month of August. The temperatures are hovering in the mid 90's, the humidity makes it feel like 110 in the shade and the major league baseball pennant races are in high gear now. The beaches are full of people and summer vacation is beginning to wind down, to the regrets of many students who will be back at Belleville High School come September for another school year.

In the midst of all this talk of sun tan oil and beach parties, it's only appropriate that football would be the big time item in town. You remember football, until this year, it is normally played in the autumn months with championship games in sub zero temperatures and wind chill factors of 35 below and worse. This year, the avid fan got a taste of the sport from March through July with the USFL. However, it's not the same as the NFL and following last week's Hall of Fame game from Canton, Ohio, and the start of the exhibition season this week, this seems like a nice time to talk about this years NFL season.

First off, there won't be a strike, that's for sure. The 1982 season was ruined with the strike, which cost the season of nine crucial games and set up a playoff format that was ridiculous to say the least. There were teams in the playoffs with 4-5 records and the play wasn't as good as in previous seasons. The Washington Redskins, with their 8-1 mark, won the crown, beating the 7-2 Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII, 27-17. It was a good game, but still left many wondering how good Washington would have been had it played the usual 16 game slate.

This year, we'll find out. In the NFC east, Dallas, Washington and St. Louis all made the "playoffs" last year. Dallas and Washington made it to the NFC championship game while St. Louis was blasted by Green Bay in the first round. The Giants finished 4-5 while the Eagles and Dick Vermeil were a surprising, 3-6. This season, the good money was on Dallas, but all the talk of the drug incidents with many key Cowboy players will take its toll. Whether the allegations are true or not, Dallas has to be affected by the rumors. Washington is trying to avoid the jinx of winning the Super Bowl. The last time a Super Bowl winner made it back to the playoffs the following year was 1979, when Pittsburgh beat Dallas in January, 1979 and returned to beat the Los Angeles Rams in the 80 Super Bowl. Since then, the Super Bowl winner has faltered in the following season.

Will it happen again, only time will tell. There is one thing to keep in mind, however. Washington did not play many good teams in 1982. Because of the strike, the Skins avoided Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Cleveland and most of their victories came against Philadelphia, the Giants and St. Louis, three clubs who did not do that well last season. With a full schedule, and with teams like the LA Raiders, San Diego and Denver on the slate, we'll see how good Washington is.

St. Louis might steal the crown here, but it all depends on how the defense holds up. They have a good offense, are capable of scoring points and have a quarterback, Neil Lomax, who can do the job. Defense is the question, though, and might be the Cards downfall.

The Giants, with Butch Woolfolk and Rob Carpenter teamed for the entire season will be trouble, make no mistake about that. The defense is loaded and if they settle the quarterback issue better than the Jets in 1979 (remember Todd Robinson) did, this could be a legitimate contender. Don't forget, they made the playoffs in '81 and whipped Philly in the first round. A word on the Brunner-Sims battle for the quarterback job. Number three man, Jeff Rutledge, might be the Giants best choice. He can run much better than Sims or Brunner and has an excellent arm.

Philly, with a new coach, is a question mark. They have had a solid program since 1978, however in 1982, they were horrible. This year, they could either contend for the top spot or spend the season watching films of the 82 season.

The NFC central, Pete Roselle's favorite, because it is indeed a division of

BUC SHOTS

By Michael Lamberti

Sports Editor

parity. All five clubs are mediocre, to say the least. However, there is one team, Green Bay, who might change things here. The Packers were 5-3-1 in the mini season last year and won the first round of the playoffs before losing to Dallas. This year, the Pack could challenge for the entire championship of the NFC. They have the offense, receivers like Lofton, Jefferson and Kaufman are starters on anyone's team. If the defense holds up, they could be one of the best in the NFC.

The Packers should win the division and be followed by Minnesota, Detroit, Chicago and Tampa Bay. Without Doug Williams, who seems determined to sit out the 83 season, the Bucs are going nowhere. They have done reasonably well the last couple of seasons but without a top quarterback, this club is destined for the cellar.

In the NFC West, try San Francisco to regain its 1981 form. The Niners have too much talent and anyone knows that last seasons 3-6 mark can be turned around. Atlanta and New Orleans will be close with the Rams trying to regain past form but falling yort.

Thus, the predictions in the NFC will be the Giants stealing the east with a 10-6 mark, followed by Washington at 10-6, Dallas at 9-7, St. Louis at 9-7 and Philly last at 6-10. In the NFC central, Green Bay is favored at 11-5, Minnesota at 8-8, Chicago at 7-9, Detroit, 7-9 and Tampa Bay, 5-11. In the west, San Francisco 10-6, Atlanta 9-7, New Orleans, 9-7 and Los Angeles, 6-10. Washington and Dallas will be the wildcard clubs with Washington advancing to face Green Bay. San Francisco will battle the Giants in the other playoff game. When the smoke clears here, San Francisco and Green Bay could battle for the NFC championship, going with Green Bay and the home field to win it.

In the AFC, the Jets have to be the favorites. Gone is Walt Michaels, finally, and in is Joe Walton who knows his players and communicates with them very well. The Jet offense is loaded and the defense, with Joe Klecko healthy, is solid. Only injuries will deprive this team of the title. Miami will be second because New England, Buffalo and Baltimore cannot beat them. The Dolphins are a solid entry, have been for years. Baltimore will win a game this year, New England will capture a few and Buffalo might be the doormat of the league. It's a shame, the Bills were once a solid team.

The Central will see Pittsburgh return to the top. After missing the playoffs in 1980 and 1981, Pittsburgh returned last year only to lose to San Diego, 31-28 in the waning seconds. This season, the Steelers have drafted well and still have a good mix of veterans and rookies who are gaining experience. If Bradshaw is healthy and firing 80 yard bombs, the Steelers will win.

Cincinnati has a load of problems. They have two players, Cris Collinsworth and Dan Ross, who will leave for the USFL in another year. A few more have admitted problems with drugs. All in all, this could be a long season for the Bengals, but they'll take second because Cleveland and Houston aren't good enough to catch them. The Browns made playoffs last year with a 4-5 mark, and with a full season will not make the playoffs this year. Houston was lucky it played only nine games last year, The Oilers were 1-8 and weren't as good as the record would indicate.

The West could be anyone's pick. The LA Raiders were 8-1 last year, 7-9 in 1981 and 11-5 and Super Bowl champs in 1980. If you go by the trend, the Raiders will have a down year. Don't count on it, though. They're too good and have too many veterans for that to happen. San Diego has a ton of talent, have been to the threshold a number of times and could spill in this time. Seattle has Chuck Knox coaching them now. He could make a winner out of anything he coaches. Look at his record at Los Angeles and later Buffalo. The Hawks will be in the chase. Kansas City has some solid talent, won't catch the top teams but could still finish .500 or better. Denver, with Mr. Elway, will not be in the running. Everyone is making a big deal about John Elway. However, in his reign as quarterback at Stanford, Elway did not light up the scoreboard with W's. He will not turn the Broncos around by himself.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, who has the most losses in the AFC championship game. The answer: The Oakland Raiders are 3-7 in the AFC title games.

For this week's quiz, which club has lost the most NFC title games and when did they play in the championship game.

Heard at Ringside

By Steve Frank

Top Rank Inc. president/promoter Bob Arum on Tuesday, said, "WBA welterweight champion Don Curry of Fort Worth, Texas, will make his first defense of his title against Roger Stafford of Philadelphia in Marsala, Italy, Sept. 3, 1983." Curry has a record of 16-0 with 11 KOs. Stafford the No. 1 contender displays a chart of 22-3 with 18 KOs. Arum pointed out the bout will be televised by ABC-TV Ch. 7, on it's "Wide World of Sports" program.

A quick stopover at Grossinger's in upper New York State and one could have seen Michael Spinks, Mustafa Hamsho and undefeated English heavyweight Frank Bruno busily going through their training routines.

Junior middleweight Earl Hargrove of South Philadelphia is 22-0 with 22 knockouts which is a pretty fancy record in any league. Earl is a tremendous boxer-puncher with all the tools to be a future champion. He is managed by Gary Hegji, trained by onetime middleweight contender George Benton. Chester Springs, Pa. businessman Bob Connelly has the promotional prerogative. Hargrove's next outing is scheduled for Wednesday, August 17 in Atlantic City when he faces Darryl Penn of Portland, Ore. in a 10 rounder. Sy Roseman handles the P.R. duties for Connelly.

Jack Branca replacing Jack Rendaville as chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission wasn't the only change made by Governor Mario Cuomo. Former heavyweight champion and one of the most sincere individuals, Floyd Paterson has been replaced by Jose Torres, former light heavyweight champ. We can't comment on the appointment of Branca except that his brother is famous former Brooklyn "Dodgers" pitcher. Torres is a good selection.

Middleweight Kevin Mosely of Seldon, N.Y. traveled out to the Dunes in Las Vegas and took a 10-round decision from Marshall Felton of Los Angeles. In another scheduled 10 rounder heavyweight David Bey of Philadelphia made shortwork of Chicago's Grady Daniels by sending him to dreamland in the 1st round.

Dr. Dan Mariano is always helping youngsters by keeping them busy and physically prepared for adult life. A brainchild of the doctor is the Meadowlands Boxing Club-Gymnasium. Members of his boxing team have become the best amateurs developed in Bergen County during the club's four year existence. The gym is located in the basement of the United Methodist Church at 56 West Passaic Ave. in Rutherford. It remains open throughout the summer months. For info (201) 935-4466.

New York City, Felt Forum, Friday: Heavyweight Eddie Gregg of Kew Gardens, New York remained undefeated as he scored a unanimous 10 round decision over Walter Santemore of New Orleans; In the co-feature: light heavy weight Alvin Manson of Anderson, Ind. dropped Phil Capobianco of Huntington, N.Y. 3 times earning him an automatic KO at 2:59 of the 2nd round. (Manson dethroned Phil's brother John, in February); Junior featherweight Wilfredo Vasquez of Puerto Rico stopped the oft-beaten Robert Mulins of Spartanburg, S. C. at 2:1 of the 2nd round.

Madison Square Garden now has the tickets available for he Ray Mancini WBC lightweight title defense against Orlando Romero. Tickets are scaled from $20 to $100. The bout is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 15.

Marciano Bernardi of Paterson traveled to Halifax, Nova Scotia, let loose with a barrage of lefts and rights from the opening bell and battered Canadian middleweight champion Ralph Hollett from post to post until finally Referee Hubert Earl called a halt to the scheduled 10 rounder 34 seconds into the 3rd round. Bernardi not being a Canadian citizen can not claim the title. Hollett of Halifax won the crown by a TKO in the 8th round Fernand marcotte, June 15, 1981.

Doug De Witt the Yonkers middleweight recovered very well from nose surgery in November, 1982, was one of Marvin Hagler's sparringmates in preparation for his title defense against Wilfred Sycypion. De Witt is a good body-puncher as is Sycypion.

Ms. Cora Wilds of the District of Columbia Boxing and Wrestling Commission told the press, "The D.C. Commission has suspended the license of Eddie Mustafa Muhammad for not honoring his contract by not making the agreed 175 pounds for his bout with Michael Spinks." The WBA and WBC has dropped Eddie Mustafa from their ratings. Eddie was still hollering the scale was rigged. Promoter Butch Lewis once against pointed out he had the scale calibrated by a team from the Federal Bureau of Weights and Measures. A government inspector Francis Murray stood by during the weigh in.

Teddy Mann of Philadelphia quit the fight jungle after three successive losses in 1982. May 16 lost a unanimous 10 round decision to John Collins in Chicago and Oct. 20 lost via a TKO in 6th round to Doug DeWitt in White Plains, N.Y. Mann claims he has his head on straight and will return to the "wars" on Aug. 2nd at Atlantic City's Tropicana. Promoters Don Elbaum and Ted menas said they have lined up William "Caveman" Lee of Detroit for a 10 round middleweight scrap.

Promoter Don King did not have a goot 7 days for his business last week. He lost the Juan La Porte Wilfredo Gomez fight to Madison Square Garden; he was dropped by the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas (now trying to get back into Caesars Palace); ABC-TV dropped their broadcast deal that paid King promotions $400,000 per bout and his lawsuit with rival promoter Butch Lewis over Greg Page has been postponed for the second time and has cost King about $400,000 in legal fees.

Meeting up with former world middleweight champ Rocky Graziano at Atlantic City's Playboy was no surprise, to learn he was working for the hotel-casino was the surprise. The public relations department informs Rocky has been hired as Casino Marketing Executive. You've come a long way with your des and dos Rocky.

The most underrated lightweight in the Eastern part of the United States could be 25-year-old Freddie Reyes. Since turning pro Sept. 18, 1980, he has compiled a 15-0-1 diary. Reyes trainer Quenzell Mc Call explained, "Freddie has all the tools. He can punch, good defense and has lots of heart." Reyes is ready to take on all opponents from 135 to 140 pounds. Joe Verne has promotional rights and his manager is Joe's father, Chuck Verne. Sy Roseman handles the publicity form Joe Verne Promotions.

Being unranked by WBA and WBC didn't faze bantamweight Oscar Muniz of Pico Rivers, Calif. as he went about the business of handing the heavy favorite and WBA champion Jeff Chandler of Philadelphia his first pro defeat. Muniz won a split decision is a 10 round non title fight at Atlantic City's Sands H-C. Muniz raised his record to 36-3-3. Chandler dropped to 31-1-2. Judges Tom Kaczmarek and Phil Newman scored it for Muniz 5-4-1. Frank Brunette saw it 5-4-1 to Chandler.

In other bouts at the Sands, undefeated lightweight Anthony Fletcher of Philadelphia dethroned Miguel Rodriguez of the Dominican Republic in a 10 rounder; junior middleweight Calvin Porter of Philadelphia won the nod in 10 rounds over Larry Mc Call of Cincinnati, Ohio and in a scheduled 8 rounder between two Philadelphia middleweights, Kevin Perry put the sleeper on Randy Coleman at 2:34 of the second round.

As written before the Duran Moore title fight, Duran is rehearsing a Latino band and will be its vocalist. The panamanian has complete a break-in date and is taking the group to Miami. He is extremely popular in Florida.

Cosmos Corner

Cosmos Must Watch Out For Chicago As Playoffs Continue To Draw Close

Next month, when the playoffs start, the Cosmos, along with the Vancouver Whitecaps, will be favored to go to Soccer Bowl 83 in Vancouver. They will be favored because during the course of the 83 campaign, those two clubs have been the most consistent winners. For five years, the Cosmos and Whitecaps have put together strong records and the Cosmos have won the championship of the NASL in 1977, 1978, 1980 and last season. In 1979, Vancouver won the crown, beating the Cosmos in the semi final round of the playoffs.

The Cosmos are also aware of the team who won the championship in 1981. They were a group called the Chicago Sting and this year the Sting seem determined to regain their crown after the disastrous 13-19 campaign the club underwent last year.

Last week, Chicago beat the Cosmos again, this time by a 2-1 count at Soldier Field, bolstering its record to 11-8 and trailing the Cosmos by "only" 28 points in the eastern division standings. What the fans might not realize is that Chicago has played just 19 games, compared to the 22 the Cosmos and most of the NASL teams have already played. Chicago participated in the MISL this winter and started the NASL season three weeks after everyone else. If the Sting can win consistently over the next month, they have an excellent shot of overtaking the Cosmos for the division title.

The 2-1 victory marked the third time the Cosmos have lost to Chicago this year. The teams will battle once more, at Giants Stadium on August 21. Lifetime, the Sting hold an 11-5 mark against the defending champs, have beaten them in Soccer Bowl 81 and defeating the Cosmos for the championship of the Trans Atlantic Cup title in 1982.

Four of Cosmos five wins came in 82, when Chicago faltered. In 1981, Chicago beat the Cosmos twice in two tries and later won the championship of the NASL, 1-0 in the shootout.

Sting coach Willy Roy, who won his 100th career game last Saturday, feels that his club gains an extra incentive when it plays the Cosmos. Against the rest of the league, his club has just .500 however and the Cosmos must be hoping that Chicago can be knocked off in the playoffs before they have to tangle with them.

In the game last Saturday, Chicago jumped out to a 1-0 lead and held that margin until midway in the second half. At that point, Julio Caesar Romero scored on a blast from 25 feet to tie matters at one. Ten minutes later, however, Chicago scored the game winner on a goal by Paul Hussan. Strangely enough, the Cosmos have dominated all three contests this year as far as overall skill and ball control is concerned, however they cannot finish off the pesky team from Chicago and that could prove to be dangerous when the playoffs begin.

Yesterday, the Cosmos hosted the San Diego Sockers at Giants Stadium. Giorgio Chinaglia and Franz Beckenbauer, out with injuries for three weeks, were scheduled to return to the club, giving coach Julio Mazzei a little more depth. His team has been hurting lately and needed the game with the Sockers to keep pace in the east. San Diego came in as the hottest team in the NASL, having won five straight after a terrible 2-12 start. The Sockers could still make the playoffs, and considering they have been to the NASL semi finals four years in a row, cannot be counted out of the action.

DeBacco and Suppa's Claim League Titles

The Belleville Recreation Men's Softball League season concluded last Thursday with DeBacco's claiming the "A" Division Tournament championship and Belleville Shoes capturing the "B" Division title. In the finals of the "A" Division, DeBacco's took two stright from a previously undefeated Suppa's Bar team, outlasting their foes in 14 innings by a score of 5-4 before winning game two more easily by a 13-4 tally. DeBacco's ended up 17-2 on the season while Suppa's finished the same 17-2 mark.

In the "B" Division championship finals, it was a showdown between two Tuesday night league teams, Suburban Cablevision who won their league night with an 11-4 record, and Belleville Shoes who finished a close second with a 10-5 mark. Although Suburban Cablevision set back their opponents in three head-to-head meetings during the regular season, Belleville Shoes displayed greater post-season power by defeating Suburban in two straight contests to take the "B" Division crown. Winning by scores of 14-4 and 6-3, Belleville Shoes ended the season at 14-5 while Suburban Cablevision finished with a 13-6 record. Despite losing the playoff tournament, Suburban's regular season championship was a major improvement form their last-place finish in the two previous seasons.

En route to the finals in the "B" Division' tournament, other game results look like this — Semi finals: Suburban Cablevision 8 - International Paint 4, Belleville Shoes 13 - Silver Lake Auto Service 7; Quarter Finals results were as follows: Silver Lake Auto Service 8 - DoLorenzo Construction 4, Belleville Shoes 6 - Red Shingle 5, International Paint 13 - Garden State Pet 1, and Suburban Cablevision 8 - Roselli's Amoco 0.

Football Clinic Is Available

Terry Porter, Sam Bowers and Dwight Sullivan of the New Jersey Generals will be instructors at a free football clinic sponsored by Essex County Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs from Aug. 8-12, from 4-7 p.m. at West Side Park Community Center Football Field in Newark.

This exciting clinic will allow inspiring children the opportunity to meet with and learn from the professionals. Non-contact drills, namely throwing, catching, kicking and defensive lineback play will be the fundamental skills of concern at the clinic.

Nicosia Tearing Up Atlantic Coast League

The term contract hitter fits Mike Nicosia, who will be a junior starting this September, like a glove. It makes no difference where the talented fly-catcher plays, he is always making contact with the baseball.

Currently playing with the Jersey Pilots of Atlantic Coast Baseball League, the 5-10 and 170-pound outfielder from Belleville has a fine .351 batting average for the first 20 games.

Nicosia has 26 hits in 74 trips to the plate with three doubles, four triples and 13 runs batted in. His figure for triples is tops in the Atlantic Coast League.

This past spring, Nicosia turned in a .352 batting average for Coach Fred Hill's Montclair State Indians in 46 games. His figures showed 61 hits in 173 with 12 doubles, six triples and 11 home runs.

Like most youngsters today, Nicosia worked his way through Belleville's amateur baseball programs. First at Little League at age eight then the intermediate level and finally to the Senior League.

Nicosia was actually recruited by be gunning for come September and they will have to stay healthy, and hungry, if they are to win a sixth NASL title.

Hill as a football-baseball prospect. However, a knee injury in his senior year at Belleville influenced Mike to just play baseball in college.

As a freshman, Nicosia was an instant success at MSC. He turned in a .365 batting average getting 42 hits in 115 official trips to the plate and had nine doubles, three triples and two home runs.

THANKSGIVING NOVENA TO ST. JUDE
O Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and call you to be invoked. St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. Say three Our Father's, Hail Mary's and Gloria's. Publication must be promised. This Novena has never been known to fail. I have had my requests granted.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Oh, Holy Spirit, thou who are all knowing, who brightens every path that I may reach my idea, thou who givest me this divine gift of forgiving and forgetting wrongs done unto me and who in every instant of my life art with me, I'd like in this short dialogue to affirm my gratitude for all your blessings and affirm once again that I never want to part from thee through the issuance of material things abound. My desire is to be with thee and all my loved ones in perpetual grace. Thank you for your mercy on me and mine. (Persons should pray 3 consecutive days without revealing petition. Within 3 days, grace will be obtained regardless of how difficult the petition may be.) Publish this prayer once grace is obtained. Grateful for grace attained.

Religious Viewpoint

The Pitcher Plant

By Rev. Robert Paul

When we visited America's Keswick, Whiting, New Jersey, my wife and I took the Nature Walk; and we saw many beautiful flowers and plants including the Pitcher Plant. Though very attractive it is actually a real prison and death house to every insect that enters it.

It has somewhat the shape of a tall pitcher, small at the bottom and larger at the top. It secretes a fluid that attracts insects to itself. Drawn by the smell of this fluid, the various bugs, flies, etc., enter into the mouth of the Pitcher Plant and begin to eat the good tasting fluid which is around the edges. Desiring more and more of this nice fluid, they crawl down farther and farther into the plant to where it is plentiful.

Slippery little spike-like fibers pointing downward on the inside of the plant make the going down very easy, but bar the way out. When the insect tries to climb back out of the plant, these little spikes are like an army of swords lined up against it. Escape is impossible, and at last the entrapped, struggling insect's strength is all used up and it falls into the pit of the plant. Here it is drowned by the very fluid it so desired.

What a picture this is, young people, of the way of the world, sin and Satan. They would tempt us by what looks so nice and tastes good for the moment and then entraps, and holds us captive and destroys us.

The little insects are deceived by the plant with its sweet tasting fluid. They think that the plant has something nice to offer them, but find too late that it only takes away all they have — even their very life. So it is...with sin, the world and Satan. They are all deceivers. The Bible warns against the deceitfulness of sin. (Hebrews 3:13.)

To be deceived means to be fooled. You think you are going to get something nice, and it seems enjoyable for a while, but then things change and you are held a prisoner. For all have sinned and are caught in Satan's snares and there is only One who can deliver us from sin and Satan's prison house. (Mat. 1:21.)

Dear reader, where are you? Are you running after Satan's sweet tasting, deceiving sins and its bondage, or have you really been born-again, set free from the prison house of sin through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ? Be warned by the Pitcher Plant.

Are you reducing your risk of heart attack?

Most coronary risk factors are preventable, curable or treatable. Do you know what they are? Test yourself. Find out how much you know about preventing a heart attack. This is not a pass or fail test. Its purpose is to tell you how much you know about avoiding a heart attack.

- Which is a major risk factor to heart attack?
 - High blood pressure.
 - Cigarette smoking.
 - High levels of cholesterol and fat in the blood.
 - Diabetes.
 - All of the above.
 - Which additional factor may contribute to your risk of heart attack?
 - Obesity.
 - Family history of heart disease.
 - Lack of regular exercise.
 - All of the above.
 - Which health risks are most controllable by the individual?
 - Risks related to your behavior and habits.
 - Inherited traits.
 - Problems in your environment, such as air pollution, highway conditions.
 - Conditions that require care from hospitals, doctors and other health professionals.
 - If you feel uncomfortable pressure, shortness of breath or pain in the center of your chest lasting 2 minutes or more:
 - Drive yourself to a hospital immediately.
 - Wait an hour, it may be heartburn or indigestion.
 - Call an emergency rescue service.
 - Leave a message with your doctor's answering service.
 - Which foods add to cholesterol in the blood?
 - Polysaturated vegetable oils and margarine.
 - Low-fat milk and yogurt.
 - Egg yolks, butter and cheese.
 - Fish and poultry.
 - A stroke happens when oxygen-rich blood is cut off on its way to the brain. Warning signals of stroke include:
 - Temporary dimness or loss of vision, particularly in one eye.
 - Unexplained dizziness, unsteadiness or sudden falls.
 - Sudden, temporary weakness or numbness on one side of the body.
 - Temporary loss of speech.
