She's Retiring — Helen Lukowiak, a member of the Belleville Public Library staff for the past 25 years, poses behind the desk where she has become a very familiar face to the many residents who go to the library. Mrs. Lukowiak, who is retiring in November, began her career with the library in October of 1958.

Helen Lukowiak Retiring After 25 Years at Library

By Linda Telesco

Sometimes you know a friend like a book. Sometimes you know a book like a friend. Helen Lukowiak of Belleville can make both those claims.

For the past 25 years, Mrs. Lukowiak has been a friendly and informative fixture on the Belleville Public Library staff, a post she will leave when she retires on November 1.

"It's been a very pleasant place to work. I like all the people I've worked with and the many patrons I've come to know over the years," said the personable, attractive librarian during a recent interview in the new wing at the library's main branch at 221 Washington Ave.

Mrs. Lukowiak began her career at the library on October 6, 1958. "It was supposed to be a temporary job," she explained. "My kids were in school at the time and I wanted to return to work, but only on a part-time basis."

However, in those days, the library offered no part-time work and was in need of a full-timer. "The board (of trustees) asked me to try it on a full-time basis for a while," she related and smilingly added, "Well, I'm still trying it."

A native of Bloomfield, Mrs. Lukowiak spent a good part of her youth growing up in Michigan where her father's work took the family.

She later returned to the area, graduated from Belleville High School, and landed her first job in the math department of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. in Newark.

With the eye for detail typical of a good librarian, she recalls that October 6 was also the anniversary of her employment at that firm. "It just must be my date for starting new jobs," she observed.

In fact another coincidence in her life makes for an anecdote only a librarian could appreciate so fully. During her years at the insurance company, she married Belleville native Andrew Lukowiak — who is now deceased — and the couple had what she refers to as "My Three Sons," Bruce, Craig, and David.

"It was not until I was expecting my third child that a friend pointed out the alphabetical order names among the family's males.

"We had our A, B, and C, so that settled it," she said. "We knew the next one had to be a 'D,' and he turned out to be David," she said, amused at the way fate already put her on the path to cataloging and alphabetizing that would mark her long career at the Belleville library.

In addition to practicing her letters, raising three boys gave Mrs. Lukowiak essential experience she needed in her first assignment at the library job.

"I began in the children's department when some of the pre-school programs were just starting," she explained, recalling the days when she led games and storytelling sessions for the tots.

Now, she maintains control over the circulation desk of the main branch where books are charged out and returned. Additionally, Mrs. Lukowiak supervises the library's part-time workers, most of whom are students.

"I have worked for many different directors over the years and each one had something special to contribute to the library," said the woman, who is now the most senior member of the staff.

The most significant changes she observed in her time are the recent expansion of the library's Washington Avenue facility and the increasing sophistication of the equipment.

"We've kept up with the times. We have everything here right down to the newest in video readers," she commented.

Although such advanced equipment helps library workers to serve the public, nothing replaced the kind of personal touch Mrs. Lukowiak brings to her work.

"After many years of serving regular patrons, I have come to know them and their reading tastes," she said, adding that she tries to recommend new arrivals to people who will enjoy them.

"I'm very interested in meeting one of the readers on our shut-in list. She's 88-years-old and reads a tremendous amount of books," said the librarian, who enjoys selecting the books for those readers who cannot get out to come to the library themselves.

Mrs. Lukowiak is an avid reader herself, preferring the lighter works of writers such as Evelyn Anthony. "I confess that although I have always been a reader, I don't read as much as some of my patrons," she said. "I have many other interests. I like to crochet and knit and I really can't limit myself to one pastime."

An observer of her public, Mrs. Lukowiak does not think reading activity has decreased over the years, at least not among adult patrons. "Some of the kids, though, have become very dependent on copy machines and don't read full articles which could give them more information than they need just for homework."

Her only criticism is of what she thinks are increasingly tasteless and suggestive books on the market today.

"Sometimes we get patrons looking for that sort of thing, but they're in the minority," she added.

A member of the Friends of the Library, Mrs. Lukowiak also serves on the executive board of Belleville's Grace Baptist Church, activities she is certain will keep her busy in her retirement.

She describes herself as a "flag-waver" who has enjoyed her many travels around the United States and looks forward to doing more of the same.

"I'm not sure just what I'll do with my free time yet," said Mrs. Lukowiak. "I'm sure I'll keep very busy."

Athletic Director Worried About Scheduling

Belleville Faces Problems With League Realignment

By Ed Capparacci

Once again school officials have realigned the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League and once again Belleville High School finds itself faced with athletic scheduling problems for the 1984-85 school year.

"With the new formation of the league we find ourselves needing two outside football games to fill the 1984 fall season," said James Silvestri, athletic director at BHS. "And filling the schedule is going to be close to impossible."

The NNJIL consists of 19 schools and is broken down into three divisions — two divisions consisting of six schools each and the final division holding seven schools. Belleville is in Division II, along with: Hackensack, Passaic, Ridgewood, St. Joseph and Teaneck. The divisions were formed on basis of school population with the larger schools in Division I and the smallest schools in Division III.

Last Wednesday school principals from the 19 schools gathered to discuss the league and voted to do away with the three-division format and interdivisional play. A move which Silvestri plans to appeal.

"Larry Schwartz (School Board attorney) and myself will schedule a meeting with the state athletic association to appeal the alignment of the league," he said, after receiving approval from the School Board. "Something has to be done about the situation."

What the new realignment for the 1984-85 school year will look like is two divisions — one consisting of strictly Bergen County schools and the other Essex and Passaic County squads. Belleville will be placed in the Essex-Passaic Division which will also house: Clifton, Paterson Kennedy, Paterson Eastside, Bloomfield, Montclair, Passaic, and Nutley. The Bergen County Division will consist

New Car Insurance Measures Will Cut Cost, But...

By Ed Capparucci

Car owners throughout the Garden State are bubbling with optimism over reformed car insurance measures passed by the state legislature last week — laws which many feel will cut insurance premiums drastically.

The reform package — which was signed by Gov. Thomas Kean last week — ended eight years of debating between state leaders attempting to cut car insurance costs. (New Jersey has the highest average premiums in the country.) According to lawmakers the bills could result in an average reduction of $150 in insurance premiums per car. But one insurance agent says that while consumers could indeed save on their car insurance, they will be subject to "coverage reductions" as well.

"What the new laws are offering people is a choice," said Gabe Nazzola, a member of the Belleville School Board and an All-State Farm Insurance agent. "They can trim their insurance premiums, but they will also be trimming their coverage. You are not getting anything for free, in the long run it will cost the consumers."

The new measures will enable car owners to reduce amounts of insurance coverage by electing to cut options in their present policies. But the new laws do not eliminate no-fault or the requirement that car owners carry liability insurance. Drivers must still carry personal injury protection to cover medical costs, and liability insurance to cover costs of injuries or damages to another person or property.

There are several features to the major bill, sponsored by Senate President Carmen Orechio and Assemblyman Michael Addubato, but the provision of the bill which most legislative leaders believe will save consumers money permits motorists to direct their health insurance carriers — Medicare, Blue Cross and Blue Shield and other plans — to pay either the first $500, $1,500 or $2,500 of medical expenses, with the car company paying the balance. According to state officials the option, if taken at the $2,500 limit, could cut personal injury protection (PIP) costs by an average of $40 an insured car, but Nazzola says that may not be true.

"At this present time no one is sure how much savings car insurance owners will experience," he said. "State officials are simply pulling figures out of mid-air when they make announcements to the public. How can they know how much these cuts will save policy holders, when people in the insurance business are not even sure?"

Motorists will also enjoy the option of dropping coverages for loss of income, funeral benefits, essential services and other parts of the PIP package. Also available is a Set-off Option, where motorists agree to repay the medical expenses paid by the insurance company, if the client receives a jury award or court judgment from a car accident. The repayment could not exceed 20 percent of the award.

"This is a good way policyholders can reduce their rates," said Nazzola. "They will agree only to pay back what the insurance company puts out if the party wins its case in court. For example if driver A is in an accident and the insurance company pays $5,000 in bills and he wins $100,000 during a court hearing, he would pay the insurance company back. It is very simple."

more of the cost.

"The law looks great up front," he continued, "but when it comes time to pay the fiddler, we (insurance agents) are going to see auto body shops increasing estimates, to cover the costs the insurer originally agreed to paid. This is a problem we face now, but it is going to get worse."

Another bill would require establishing a system of mandatory, non-binding arbitration for lawsuits under $15,000. "This is an excellent bill since it will help lighten the court calendars," said Nazzola, "but I would have liked to see it made to $100,000 instead of $15,000. Juries today are most of the time too generous and give the store away to people who don't deserve it. An arbitrator would see that fair settlements are given more often."

While Nazzola says he is happy to see that legislators have made reforms, he sees the insurance policy owner getting hurt in the long run.

"What the general public will learn is that they cannot have their cake and eat it too," he said. "They will realize what services they were receiving before these bills went into effect. Basically you are not saving any money on your insurance. What you are doing is getting a different type of insurance coverage. Less."

Much is made of the fact that aspirin may cause gastric upset. In fact, only about 5% of all people who take aspirin get an upset stomach. This number would decrease even further if people were to take their aspirin with milk. It protects the stomach from any mild irritation although it will slow the absorption of the aspirin a bit. It is also possible to take a very fine particulate aspirin for a quicker dispersal of the drug in the stomach. This is preferable to aspirin types that break up into larger pieces in the stomach.

LEADERSHIP Gets Things Done!

and that's how Carmen Orechio got your car insurance rates lowered

For more than a decade, New Jersey motorists have cried out for real auto insurance reform...something that would relieve them from paying the highest rates in the nation.

With each new session of the Legislature, hopes were consistently dashed as the powerful lawyer lobbies, under a system so bad that it was literally, driving rates beyond most people's ability to pay.

Then Carmen A. Orechio became President of the State Senate.

Working with Gov. Kean and using his well-earned reputation for integrity, Carmen Orechio skillfully created a coalition of Republicans and Democrats against the lobby and on behalf of the motorist.

Result Car owners can now save up to $150 a year per car in insurance premiums. Carmen Orechio's leadership, his dedication to the cause has made auto insurance reform a reality.

As of next year, New Jersey's drivers will be able to reduce their premiums by agreeing to sue for injuries only after medical bills exceed $1,500; the limit had been $200. They may save even more with higher deductibles, by leaving some medical coverage to health insurers like Blue Cross and by assigning up to 20 percent of injury awards to insurers. The average driver might save $150 a year.

No-Fault Reform,

Compared with reforms in other states, fault auto insurance bill signed by New J. Governor Kean is modest. After such a pro-

Much credit should go to Assemblyman Michael Addubato and Senator Carmen Orechio, who sponsored the bills and led the debate, while Governor Kean ably prodded the legislators to recognize the public interest at last.

Joseph Ciccone

With a unanimous vote, the Belleville Board of Education appointed Joseph Ciccone, vice principal at the Middle School, as the new principal of Belleville High School.

Nutley-born and Nutley-educated, Joe Ciccone has been a member of the Belleville school system since 1970. Starting out as a social studies teacher, he moved up the ladder to become vice principal at the Middle School.

As vice principal of the Middle School, Joe Ciccone was the beneficiary of the tutoring, knowledge, and experience of one of New Jersey's leading educators, Middle School principal Mario DiMaggio.

The selection of Joe Ciccone was not an easy one, for the board had 10 applicants who are outstanding in their own fields — any one of whom could, and would have made a good high school principal.

Ciccone had to overcome the keenest competition to achieve the high honor which he now enjoys.

While attending to his teaching responsibilities, Ciccone continued his education and soon will receive his doctorate from Seton Hall University.

Ciccone's appointment enjoys the support of the educational community.

Joe Ciccone inherits a Belleville High School which is well thought of — and he now has an opportunity to continue to move it ahead.

He has our best wishes as he accepts the awesome responsibility which is his — and his alone.

Ugly — Ugly — Ugly

We thought the negative reaction of his party members would have led the Republican candidate for State Senator to campaign on the high road available to any self-respecting candidate who observes the rules of fair play. But with the former Florio campaign manager, Republican campaign candidate Ralph Salerno, he has a commitment to the low road and, thus, it appears to be to the end of the campaign.

The message which now assaults the ears and eyes of anyone whose misfortune it is to read his material or listen to his comments. He is now resorting to a thinly disguised racial connotation message intended to sway voters. We all know that in the politician's normal reference to "food stamps," therein is disguised reference to poor blacks. It is the code word bigots use.

There are similar code words that have racial connotations. For instance, when the Republican State Senate candidate mails independent letters to voters of Nutley, Montclair, Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Verona and Glen Ridge, which state "Stop your tax dollars from going to Camden and Newark so that they stay here in Bloomfield or Nutley where they belong," it has a racist connotation. There are various programs approved by Republican Governor Thomas Kean and most Republican Senators and Assemblymen that relate to aid for the big six cities. Only two of these cities have black mayors — you guessed it — Camden and Newark. Is it mere coincidence that the Republican State Senate candidate compares the seven basically white suburban towns that make up the 30th Legislative District with the two large cities in the state that have black mayors? Is this not a subtle effort to motivate the blue collar-white suburban voter to vote against Senate President Carmen Orechio for racist reasons? Subtle as it may be, no one can deny the evil intent of the effort.

When the Republican State Senate candidate for five weeks launched a sustained effort to damage a public reputation of an honorable public official by attacking his family members, he established a new low in legislative campaigning. Why he didn't attack Senator Orechio's 90-year-old mother and his widowed sister in his immoral, un-American attack escapes us. One wonders why he stopped with the males when the females were just as handy. The honor role of former Republican Senate candidates includes the names of the late Senator Michael Juliano, Former Assemblyman John Dennis, and Bloomfield Councilman John Crecco. These men campaigned with dignity, self-esteem, self-respect, and showed the same measure of respect and esteem for their opponent. These were good and decent men, who in losing, would rather be respected than elected.

Now for the first time in the history of legislative elections, a racial connotation issued has reared its ugly head through the mouth and hand of a most unworthy Republican candidate.

Frank A. Orechio

Letters in Print

Times Reader Defends Golden's Comments

To the editor:

I have been reading the Belleville Times for quite some time and have always been interested in reading the letters to the editor and also the column entitled "Golden Comments."

Although Mr. Golden discusses issues which may be considered controversial, as an American citizen it is his inalienable right to do so. Mr. Vander Zwan, (who has spoken out against Mr. Golden in recent letters) and everyone else possesses the same right. However, in his unnecessarily vicious and disregarding attack against Mr. Golden, and in his anxiety to communicate his point of view, has omitted or misinterpreted some valid points.

Does Mr. Vander Zwan realize that there are hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of senior citizens who were often unemployed and underpaid during their so called "45 productive years," thereby limiting their ability to save? That many, if not most, did not have the ability, if not the opportunity, of advanced education or training so as to elevate themselves to higher salaried jobs? How about certain circumstances, such as catastrophic illness; fire or flood, which in wiping out their meager life savings made it impossible for them to supplement their Social Security income? That there have been reported cases where some elderly people, not as fortunate as some, have resorted to eating dog food in order to survive. What about these people? Do we turn our backs on them and say "You should have prepared for the future," as Mr. Vander Zwan suggests?

Before going any further I wish to point out the fact that none of my comments have been made for personal interests or reasons. Having been a federal employee for 30 years and not having contributed into Social Security, I am ineligible to receive benefits under the law. Therefore, I feel that my opinions are unbiased and unprejudiced. I do not believe that "liberal spenders" would provide all, but neither do I believe in the concept that by giving to the rich, some of it will trickle down to the poor. At the risk of sounding vulgar, I feel that the only thing the poor can expect to trickle down from the rich is the human excretion of liquids. And I don't mean sweat. Where was that trickle-down concept when the working class was subjected to "sweat shops"? Where was it when, not too long ago, wages were frozen and prices were not?

It may be true that Mr. Vander Zwan would not suffer much if his Social Security benefits were cut in any way. Then, by all means, he should not lie, but notify his representative that he is in full accord with the measures at hand. However, to those who do feel that their benefits are being threatened, then they should take the same action and write to their representatives, voicing their opinions in the same manner. That, in my opinion, is the only way you can present and preserve your interests.

Several years ago I accompanied a delegation of my co-workers to Washington in an effort to enlist the support of our representatives on a certain piece of legislation. Congresswoman Dwyer was asked why she was voting against this legislation. She pointed to her desk upon which there were two stacks of letters. One pile was about 12 inches high and the other pile about two inches high. She stated that these were letters from her constituents and that the large pile of letters asked her to vote "No." She, therefore, was obliged to cast a dissenting vote. Communicating with their congressmen is more important than many people realize. I, therefore, advise all citizens, whatever the problem, pro or con, listen to Mr. Golden and write to your congressmen. Don't let politics or politicians dissuade you from trying to protect your best interests.

Reader Doesn't Believe School Board Was Right

To the editor:

I should like to thank The Belleville Times for its fine story in the Belleville Times Sept. 8. It explained how all but two Board of Education members defied the written law by ignoring the statutes...Mr. Charles Miele and Miss Donna Rainone are to be credited for their stand to uphold the law in the case of school administrator Dr. Anthony Chirico.

This man should have been dismissed for acting as his own agent in a firm he owns while serving as a school administrator and selling material to it, as pointed out by Dr. John Greed before he resigned as the superintendent of the Belleville school system.

Notwithstanding among other things, the board attorney's statement as quoted in The Times, "The board could have done nothing about the matter," unquote. The same gentleman being a board member. In 1979 resigned as such from his non-paying job to continue his law practice on a full-time basis only to be a short period later find enough time to be appointed board attorney on a well paying scale.

The local Board of Education does not, in my opinion, properly do their job. Dr. Greed as much as said so in his farewell statement to The Times it has too much "wheeling and dealing." Was not Mr. Lally years ago supposed to sell his home and move to Belleville as vice principal of the Middle School? However, he sold his home all right but moved even farther from Belleville.

Dr. Greed said Belleville isn't a bad town. But to throw out four superintendents in 20 years, it can't be them, it must be the board. Wasn't one member a few years back accused of taking wood? Look at the payrolls. Many board members' relatives' names appear there on...in fact, too many consider how often school board members use the board as a "stepping stone" to seek a commission seat.

Many feel this board has performed disgracefully in its inconsistency of having fired two teachers for stealing football ticket money, but overlooked Dr. Chirico's flagrant violation of the education state statute 18A:6-8.

In an effort to restore credibility to the board, those members who voted to retain Dr. Chirico under the circumstances should consider resigning forthwith.

Break Up Of AT&T Company Will Bring Major Problems

To the editor:

I feel like screaming, stamping my feet, and luxuriating in a full-course tantrum — but it won't do any good; AT&T can never be put together again...I don't think.

Why, oh why, did anyone have to mess with such a wonderful company? "If it ain't broke, don't fix it!" AT&T gave its customers the best buy for their money. It was reasonable in cost, proficient, and generous with its "perks." Its employees were courteous, efficient, and always at your finger-tips ready to render service. Alas, it has all gone the way of the five-cent cigar, the two-cent newspaper (thank God some are still a bargain!) and the $1.59-per-pound steak. Please someone, tell me why "they" found it necessary to do this awful thing!

I shudder to think how much more it is going to cost us to receive less service and efficiency. If "monopolies" are as good to the public in every way as AT&T was, then long live the "monopolies" and down with "divestiture"!

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The synopating beat continues on accentuating that obnoxious word surcharge. Its surcharge on insurance and almost everything that government can come up with to force the consumer to subsidize utilities, insurance companies, business and industry.

Now its acid rain, the contamination caused by the emission of gas wastes from coal-burning power plants, most from the midwest that are carried by air currents to threaten the ecology of Canada and the northeastern part of the United States, including New Jersey.

These harmful emissions can be reduced by burning low sulfur coal, washing coal before burning or installing scrubbers that remove sulfur from the gases pouring from industrial plants. These scrubbers are expensive and there is opposition by manufacturing concerns to compulsory installation of these scrubbers.

In New York when Con Edison decided to convert two generating plants from oil to coal, that state's environmental commissioner ordered the installing of scrubbers. At the federal level, the Reagan administration has been indifferent about the acid rain problem up to now.

William Ruckelshaus, the new head of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, is taking a strong position on this matter. It is expected a strong acid rain policy will be drafted, on a limited basis. Congress is working on a broader based proposal that would underwrite the conversion costs. Can you imagine how?

That's easy! By levying a nationwide tax on consumer utility bills, about 50 cents more on monthly charges...another surcharge. How much of this surcharge guff are we, the consumers, going to put up with?

Already our gas and electric bills hit consumers in New Jersey with about 13 percent of their monthly charges which reflect the average gross receipts and franchise taxes which are paid to the state and distributed to N.J. municipalities. What more do they want?

When the utilities show profits, the stockholders make money, but, when it comes to making up losses or paying for needed scrubbers, the lawmakers pass the costs on to the consumers and the suckers get stuck with the bill. It's about time we call for an end to these damn surcharges.

What price glory in the great game of American politics? NEWSWEEK headline "Michigan's Governor Pays for His Success," an interesting story unfolds about James Blanchard, a gutsy freshman governor who worked out the solution to Michigan's financial woes — and is now getting clobbered by the voters.

When the 41-year-old former Democratic Congressman took office in January, he inherited a $900 million state budget deficit and Michigan had a 17 percent unemployment rate. The state couldn't find a bank to back its sale of $500 million in short-term notes. The auto industry was reeling from the loss of sales to foreign cars. In desperation the new Governor had to suffer the humiliation of being bailed out by five Japanese banks for a $6 million fee.

In a little more than six months Blanchard balanced the state's books. A small budget surplus is likely when the fiscal year ends...Blanchard went to Wall Street to explain Michigan's economic miracle. The state's latest offering of short-term notes was backed by a 10-bank consortium led by Citibank N.A. — and Blanchard was rewarded when Moody's Investor Service gave the deal its highest rating. "We believe that Michigan is now back on a course of financial stability," said Richard Kezer, a senior vice president at Citibank. Blanchard's predecessor, former Governor Milliken, said, "He did what he had to do, and I commend him for it."

With such friends you'd be surprised to know that Blanchard's only enemies are most of the voters who elected him. Why! Because to balance the state's budget, he raised the state income tax 38 percent and cut spending $225 million by laying off employees.

A Detroit News poll showed only 34 percent of the voters approved of his performance in office. Citizens — enraged by the tax increase — started a grass-roots recall movement which in 90 days claimed to have collected 530,000 signatures to remove Blanchard from office. The recall needed 760,000 valid signatures, but the anti-Blanchard forces are challenging the 90-day time limit.

If the recall movement fails, Blanchard will have until 1986 to make voters forget his harsh treatment. "I don't like it, but what can you do?" complains the Governor. "You can't take the bull by the horns in this state and be Mr. Nice Guy." There is a strong ring of truth in that statement.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Diamond — nee Lori Tucci

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gelpi — nee Cheryl Ann Manning

Lori Ann Tucci Wed Cheryl Ann Manning To Howard Diamond Wed to Joseph Gelpi

Wedding vows were exchanged Aug. 27 in Sacred Heart Cathedral, Newark, by Lori Ann Tucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tucci of 61 Rossmore Place and Howard Cliff Diamond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Diamond of Roselle.

A reception followed at San Carlo Restaurant, Lyndhurst.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a v-necked, long sleeved sateen and lace gown accented with pearls and beads and fashioned with a cathedral train.

A tiara headpiece held her veils and she carried white roses, stephanotis, white cymbidium orchids and babies breath.

Anita Fagnoli of Belleville was maid of honor. Leona Siubis and Anna Longo of Belleville were bridesmaids while Caryn Diamond, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid and Lauren DeMaio of Parsippany, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Paul Schiraldi of Hillside was best man. Ushers included Don Tucci of Belleville, brother of the bride and Andrew Miller of Rahway, Michael Olszak of Fairfield, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Tucci chose a royal blue ribbon chiffon gown while the groom's mother was in a pink Qiana gown with a short cape of chiffon.

Mrs. Diamond, an alumna of Seton Hall University, is with Rossmore Pharmacy, Belleville.

Mr. Diamond, a graduate of Kean College, is pursuing a masters degree in criminal justice at Rutgers Graduate School. He is with the Union County Prosecutor's Office, Elizabeth.

The couple honeymooned in Bermuda and have made their home in Belleville.

Cheryl Ann Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Manning of Belleville and Joseph Gelpi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gelpi of Belleville, exchanged wedding vows May 21 in Holy Family Church, Nutley.

The Rev. Francis Blake performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at The Manor, West Orange.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a satin and organza gown accented with a long sleeved lace jacket. Her headpiece was a brimmed hat of lace and she carried white roses.

Cindy Manning of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Delores Liberty, Janet Gelpi, Donna Luzzi and Kathy Kerr, all of Belleville, and Debbie and Dawn Riefolo of Cedar Grove. Deanne Riefolo was junior bridesmaid while Denise Riefolo and Veronica Liberty were flower girls.

The honor attendant was in a dark lavender gown and a pillbox hat and carried a cascade of pink, purple and white flowers. The others were similarly attired in light lavender.

Guy Gelpi of Belleville was his brother's best man. Ushers were Gary Gelpi, Tony Liberty, James Luzzi, Chris Manning, Joey Tortorello, Danny Arre and Kenny Nicoscia, all of Belleville.

Mrs. Manning chose a pale pink silk taffeta and organza gown while the groom's mother was in a gown of aqua blue Qiana. Corsages were of baby orchids.

Mrs. Gelpi is with Givaudan Corp., Clifton, while Mr. Gelpi is with DuPont, Clifton.

The couple is living in Belleville after honeymooning in Acapulco, Mexico.

Compassionate Friends Set Remembrance Service

The Essex County Chapter of The Compassionate Friends — a national organization for bereaved parents — will sponsor a Service of Remembrance and Affirmation for Bereaved Parents next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at St. Paul's Congregational Church, Franklin Avenue and St. Paul's Place. This is the first time the chapter is holding such a service.

Planned for parents who have lost children and who reside in the northern counties of Bergen, Passaic, Essex, Morris, Union and Hudson, the special ecumenical service will provide a formal means for these parents to express their feelings of love and remembrance for their deceased children. It will also express their affirmation in being able to get on with their lives after the trauma of their loss.

The service will include poetry, responsive readings and a special litany written by a minister who is also a bereaved parent. Special songs with guitar accompaniment will be interspersed throughout the readings. The non-religious service will include statements by a priest, a rabbi and the minister as well as by members of the Essex County Chapter reading messages from other chapters across the country. The service will commence with the symbolic lighting of candles representing remembrance, rebirth and renewal. A reception will follow with time for refreshments and personal sharing.

The Compassionate Friends is a self-help organization for bereaved parents, founded in 1969 in England. Since then, over 250 chapters have been formed in the United States and Canada.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

Do you often sleep on your stomach? Women, especially, seem to favor this position and it is believed to be one of the reasons that women actually do have more headaches than men.

When sleeping "tummy-side-down", the head must be turned sharply to one side or the other in order to breathe. This causes a rather severe distortion of the vertebrae of the neck. This, in turn, may lead to vertebral misalignment with irritation of the nerves of the neck, the cause of three-fourths of all headaches.

Your headaches may be due to vertebral misalignment, which chiropractic adjustment could correct. Phone our office.

"That makes me mad! I paid twenty cents more for that pound of coffee just yesterday. Look at that tomato juice! Twelve cents less for the same brand...and look, I could have saved even more on this other brand, and it's just as good.

Think I'll take this with me when I go shopping tomorrow and see how my store stacks up. Hmm. There's that tea I've been looking for. I can even find out if my Grand Union has exactly what I want.

I've never seen anything like this...over nine thousand supermarket prices in one book! I save when I buy specials, but most of what I buy is at regular prices. Now I can easily check on regular prices with this Price Finder book. And it's free every week!

Imagine printing this every week! Grand Union must have a lot of confidence in its low prices to do that.

They've changed their whole policy—they've dropped their regular prices to match the lowest price supermarket chain, Pathmark. Grand Union says they'll keep lowering them if they have to. That's why they're giving out this big list of prices, the Price Finder, so we can check on how competitive they are. And are they! Maybe they'll become the low price leader!

I sure like their low prices!

Volleyball Squad Hits Small Slump

Following a disastrous match to start its week, the Belleville volleyball team came back with two victories and boosted its record to 12-3 on the season.

Grace Worley's Wizards were home to Hackensack on Monday and visited Teaneck yesterday. Tomorrow, Ridgewood will be in for a 4 p.m. match, a revenge battle after last week's loss to the Bergen County team. Next week the girls will host Bloomfield on Monday and Passaic on Tuesday.

Last week the girls were uncharacteristically blown out by Ridgewood, 2-15 and 2-15, then got themselves together to defeat Holy Family, 15-3 and 15-5 and Passaic, 4-15, 15-2 and 15-3. In between the two victories, the girls were losing a tough match to Paramus, 9-15, 15-6 and 10-15.

"It was a half and half week," said Worley. "We had a few lapses and lost two tough matches. We have some tough ones coming up as well, so we're looking to get things together."

Against Ridgewood, the girls

Hwang's Goal Keeps Buccaneers In Fight For Essex County Crown

By Mark Foley

It was the situation every player dreads — a sudden death shootout with the team's season riding on one kick. It is a moment of indescribable pressure.

But four Belleville Bucs were equal to the challenge and the final one, reserve forward Joon Hwang, scored a goal that will be long remembered — a goal that gave the Buccaneers a 2-1 victory over West Essex in the opening round of the Essex County Tournament.

The stage for Hwang's heroics was set after the two teams played to a 1-1 tie through regulation time and two overtimes. Both sides then had to designate five players to take penalty kicks. Belleville's chances looked good as goalkeeper Brian Cook stopped the first three opposition shooters and Santiago Borja and Jamie Jerez converted to give them a 2-0 lead in the shootout. However, West Essex's Walt Bishof saved the next two Buc shots, while his teammates beat Cook twice to even the score.

This brought on sudden death. Each team would get another shot — if both scored or both were stopped, the shootout would continue until either team was able to take the lead. West Essex's first man scored, placing everything on the shoulders of Mike Silletti, who rose to the occasion and kept Belleville's hopes alive. After the second West Essex player also scored, so did Keith Woods, a freshman who had played in only one previous match. But Rich Geng put the next kick for the visitors wide, apparently giving Belleville a chance to win. It was not to be. Referee George Welsh ruled that some spectators had interfered and ordered a re-kick, which was hotly protested by Coach Tony DeAquino to no avail. Given a second chance, Geng did not miss and handed the "hot potato" to Karl Hauschild. He needed only one shot to keep the nerve-wracking suspense going.

When Cook stopped the next shot and there were no whistles from the officials, Hwang stepped forward and put his shot easily into the lower left-hand corner before being mobbed by his joyous teammates. The win brought Belleville's record to 9-2 and placed the team in the quarterfinals with a match at Irvington this Sunday at 2 p.m.

"We're doing enough to win and, for the season, we're doing better than we expected we'd do," said an

Bucs Breeze By Teaneck Behind Murphy's Running

Playing in its home opener, the Belleville Buccaneers football team shut out Teaneck last Saturday, 33-0 to boost the team record to 3-1.

This Saturday, the Bucs will host Ridgewood High School starting at 1:30 p.m.

It was a good showing for the Bucs, coming off the tough 14-6 loss at Montclair the previous week. Belleville used a strong running effort from senior Mike Murphy (199 yards) and a good performance from quarterback Mark Walsh to pave the way to victory. The Buccaneer "Blue Wall" defense was also at its best, limiting the Teaneck offense to only one effective drive, that coming at the outset of the game. On the season, the Wall has allowed the opposition just 20 points, 14 of those coming in the loss to Montclair last week.

A sparse home crowd saw the Bucs jump out to a 6-0 lead when Frank Tursi ran over from eight yards out. The score culminated a 49-yard drive in seven plays which started following a fumble that was recovered by Anthony Gizzo. From the Teaneck 49, Walsh picked up five yards to the 44. Murphy then went to work, picking up 22 yards in three carries and advancing the ball to the Teaneck 22. From there, Tursi and Murphy took turns carrying the ball with Tursi finishing the drive with the eight-yard run. The conversion failed and Belleville led, 6-0.

The Bucs' next scoring drive was short, but effective. Following a Teaneck punt, Murphy gained five yards to his 45, then took a handoff from Walsh and ran 55 yards down the Teaneck sideline to pay dirt. The Bucs went for two points with Murphy picking up the three yards and the score opened up to 14-0. Before the end of the half, Belleville capitalized again when it drove 75 yards in 10 plays.

From his 25, Tursi gained seven yards and Murphy another five for a first down at the 37. Billy Baber then got into the act, gaining nine yards to the 46 and Murphy plowed through the Teaneck defense for 12 more yards and a first down at the visitor's 42. From there, Tursi added seven yards and Walsh shook up the Teaneck defense with a 30-yard burst on a quarterback keeper for a first and goal at the five. Murphy then finished the drive, scoring from the one two plays later to balloon the lead to 20-0 at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Bucs added another tally thanks to a blocked punt by D.P.B. (Designated Punt Blocker) Wayne Graham. The senior came in untouched and deflected a punt, setting up the Bucs at the Teaneck 26. From there, Murphy

Cross Country Squad Continues Its Slump

In what could be termed a disappointing week, the Belleville cross country team lost three races and saw its duel-meet record fall to 0-9 for the season.

The Bucs will close out their duel schedule this week with a match in Livingston tomorrow afternoon. On Tuesday, the team was in Hackensack.

Last week, the team lost a double-duel meet to arch rivals Nutley and Bloomfield at Brookdale Park. The results were a bit disappointing considering the team was gunning hard for that match. Head coach John Tosato was looking forward to the meet as a possible victory, but the team could not muster up the necessary points.

"We had some good performances," said Tosato. "However, we didn't have enough at the finish and lost both ends of the race."

The Bucs did receive a strong performance from junior Bob Hutchinson. "Hutch" was the fifth runner across the wire, the first Buccaneer across in a time of 18:21. Junior Ross De Meo was the second man for Belleville to cross, running an 18:51 and finishing 12th overall. Next for the Bucs was the ever improving Craig Burden with a time of 19:55, good for 14th place. Rounding out the field for Belleville was Billy Huamani in a time of 20:35, good for 16th place.

Earlier in the week, the team battled an awesome squad from Passaic and fell, 15-50. One bright spot was the effort of senior Patty Bliss who won the girls race in a time of 20:07. Hutchinson was the first runner across for the boys, but the Bucs were simply outmatched in that race.

Last Saturday, the team competed in the Essex Catholic Invitational, held at Branch Brook Park. Bliss, once again, had a strong showing, taking 20th place in the girls varsity race in a time of 21:51. Burden took home a medal for his effort in the freshman race, placing eighth in the 3K event.

Following the duel race with Livingston, Belleville will compete in the NNJL championship next Tuesday at Garret Mountain. Following that race, the team will be in Branch Brook Park for the Essex County championship on Friday.

Soccer Teams Still Winning

The Belleville Flash, sponsored by Casa Polizzi, remained undefeated and on top of its division with a 5-0 defeat of Elmwood Park.

Mike Alfano (one goal, one assist), Mike Cappasso (one goal, one assist), Robert Ricci (two goals), Joe Burke (one goal), Mike Citarella and Emilio Farino (one assist each) supplied the offensive power while Mark Tonnelli came up with another shutout.

In the Division 3 competition it was the two first place teams, Belleville Americans, sponsored by Caputo Florist, up against a tough Elmwood Park squad. A final 0-0 tie held on some excellent play by both teams.

Belleville's Steve Tice in goal, John Scorticola, Tony Narciso and Ron DePiro managed a defensive gem. All the credit in this game goes to Steve Hywell who got the assignment to shut down the league's leading scorer, and he held him in check the entire game.

Belleville High Track Squads on Rebuilding Road

The names have long since graduated from Belleville High School, however their memories will live on forever. Cross country and track fans of Belleville High School will always recall the fine running of Mike Fortino, Bill Goodwin, Steve Budrick, Jim Beck, Nelson Seda, Mike Graham, Tom Graham, Dean Santulli, John Carlos and a host of other top names that filled the decade of the 70's with excitement and tough matches.

It's been a while since the Belleville track team has posted a winning record, 1975 to be exact. That year, the team posted an 8-6 mark and lost four matches by 27 points. For cross country, the wait has been even longer. The last time that program saw the winning side of the ledger was in 1974 when the club posted a 7-5 mark with Beck, Doug Wamsley and Walt Siubus leading the way. Lean times have befallen this program since, but, as bleak as the light may seem, there is something at the end of the tunnel for fans to be hopeful for.

John Tosato, who took over the cross country program from Rich Ruffalo this fall, has a number of new ideas that gives a good indication that the harriers want very much to be the competitive club they once were. Although their record does not show it, the Bucs are beginning to form a nucleus that could lead to long term success on the cinders.

"This year," said Tosato, "the goal was to get a lot of people out for the team. We accomplished that (20 members came out for the team with 14 still remaining). My only disappointment was that we had a small turnout in the girls area, but a lot of the schools in the state have had poor turnouts in the girls section this year."

"We ended up with four good runners this year and we're looking to establish a fifth runner who can really help us with points. The top four men are serious runners and have shown marked improvement over the year."

Those four, Ross De Meo, Bob Hutchinson, Craig Burden and Bob Huamani are all underclassmen, with Burden just a freshman. All four, as mentioned, have been steadily improving. De Meo, a junior, has been on the scene since his freshman year. About the only thing that has kept him from developing into a fine middle distance runner is injuries and illnesses.

The talent is there, no doubt. The hard work and motivation to win is there. It's just that De Meo has the "Phil Simms" syndrome. He never can go through a season 100 percent healthy. When he does, the area teams can watch out, this man can run with the best of them.

Hutchinson, also a junior, has been living proof that with hard work and dedication, the job can be done. Over the summer, Hutchinson attended track camp, an occurrence that Tosato feels will be contagious to the other team members. "We're hoping to have more athletes in camp this summer," said Tosato. "It's certainly a big help and Bob's improvement over last year was certainly noticeable."

Burden, in his coach's words, was a huge surprise this fall. Running for the first time on the varsity level, Burden was the first Buccaneer to cross the line when the Bucs opened the season with Ridgewood in late September. He's been very promising all season long and last week at the Essex County Invitational at Branch Brook Park, Burden took eighth place in the freshman race, earning a medal for his hard work.

Running is a sport that does not require the use of a lot of equipment. About the only thing necessary is a pair of good track shoes and the desire to keep on going even when the body says to stop. If a runner like Burden can continue to improve and believe in himself, there's no telling how far he can go.

Huamani, a sophomore, has been showing marvelous improvement since the season started. He is now a legitimate number four runner on the squad and with this years experience, will be a solid entry for the next two years.

Over on the girls side, the top runner has been senior Patty Bliss. A four year girl, Bliss has earned a number of medals for her accomplishments in cross country and track. She is a good middle distance runner and has the potential to be a solid runner on the collegiate level. A predecessor at Belleville, a girl named Dana Caruso, is solid proof that with that little extra, you can achieve your goal. Caruso is not an imposing athlete. At 5-2, 95 pounds, she certainly is not going to run over you unless she's driving a mack truck. However, she'll blow by you in a race because she is indeed one of the best middle distance runners in this area. At Montclair State College, she is a junior and the number two runner on a very good squad. Caruso is certainly someone to look up to when it comes to achieving your goals.

BUC SHOTS

The Bucs cross country team now runs its home meets at Nutley High School and Tosato likes the new course. "At first, the kids had a little trouble with it, but now we're enjoying it and the competition with Nutley helps both teams."

Tosato will also enter his third year of coaching the indoor team and sees that experience as very important. There are no dual matches in the indoor season, rather it's a chance for the athletes to work on their skills and go for individual honors. Certainly, for the cross country members, the indoor season can only help their chances at improving their skills.

The coach is also busy with the grammar school track program, one that was started last year with the cooperation of the teachers and physical education departments of the respective grammar schools in town. The idea has become a rousing success. Last spring, in the championship meet held at the high school, a large turnout of athletes and parents came out for the festivities at Municipal Stadium. Medals and trophies were awarded and the sport certainly gained a needed shot in the arm.

Tosato also hopes to move the program up to the seventh and eighth grades as well, this way the runners are consistent all the way through high school. "They have to know what track is about at an early age," said the coach. "It's difficult on the high school level to choose a sport that they're not at all familiar with."

The work will take time and the schedule the team faces is quite difficult. It takes a while to build up a winning program in any sport, but the groundwork has been laid out. The cross country program at Belleville High School is beginning to show signs of a recovery and while President Reagan won't use that recovery in his campaign speech, perhaps John Tosato can one day boast of the program that he revitalized at Belleville High School.

The Family Council of the Essex

County Geriatrics Center in Belleville will hold its third annual dinner dance to raise funds for the 332 chronically ill and elderly residents. This is the only fund raiser sponsored by the Council and all proceeds are used to benefit the residents directly. Previous donations have included $5000 towards a dental clinic and $2000 for a large screen television for the activities center.

The dinner dance will be held on Friday October 28, 1983 at the Branch Brook Manor, Washington Avenue and Mill Street in Belleville at 7:30 p.m. Jack Ventura and his band will provide entertainment. Tickets are $30. per person.

For tickets, please call chairperson Erma Mastro at 667-4430.

A very special welcome to a very special baby. Jennifer Marie Ferrick was born into this world on October 13. Jennifer Marie is the daughter of Gerry and Diane Ferrick and I personally would like to congratulate that tremendous couple of a beautiful addition. Jennifer Marie checked in at a whopping 9 pounds, 6 ounces and is 23 inches long. Get out the basketball, folks.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, which teams have not won a division title since the format was set up in the major leagues in 1969. The answer: Cleveland, Toronto, Seattle, Texas, San Diego and the Chicago Cubs are the only clubs that haven't won.

By the way, the Belleville High School athlete of the week is Mike Murphy of the football team for his 199 yards rushing and three touchdowns last week against Teaneck. For the year, Murphy has over 500 yards rushing and has scored 44 points.

For this week's quiz, name the last time a World Series went five games and the teams involved.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Middleweight Alex Ramos (18-2-1) of the Bronx, N.Y., fouled his way to defeat against Murray Sutherland (42-8-1) of Bay City, Mich. According to observers Ramos had the better of the bout. However, he lost points hitting Sutherland below the border a few times. Sutherland's manager Don Dorr has been approached for his gladiator to meet Bobby Czyz. Ramos is managed by Shelly Fikle.

It was good news to see Percy Richardson of Trenton in the corner of WBC heavyweight champ Larry Holmes for the Scott Frank workout. Richardson is one of the three most reputable cutmen in the boxing business. Ace Maratta of Totowa, and Eddie Aino of Philadelphia, are the others. Richardson was director of the Trenton PAL programs for many years. He was an active member of the New Jersey Athletic Commission working close with Commissioner "Jersey Joe" Walcott and Deputy Commissioner Bob Lee. He is now community relations principal for the city of Trenton.

Philadelphia heavyweight Tim Witherspoon will swap haymakers with James Tillis of Chicago for the North American Boxing Federation championship belt. They will be on the Michael Dokes-Gerrie Coetzee WBA heavyweight title fight undercard.

Co-promoters Don Elbaum and Ted Menas put together another exciting fight show for The Tropicana in Atlantic City, last Tuesday: Don Poole, 146, of Toronto, Canada W-Dec. in eight rounds over Tom Moody, 145, of Columbia, Ohio; Clint Barnes, 196½, Philadelphia W-Dec. in eight rounds over Frank Payne, 195½, Braddock, Pa.; James Buddy McGirt, 141, Jersey City WTKO in first round over Leslie Toney, 138½, Youngstown, Ohio; Len Villers, 160½, Youngstown, Ohio, W-Dec. in eight rounds over David Todd, 161½, Oxon Hill, Md.; Carl Riskus, 151½, Pittsburgh, Pa., WTKO in seventh round over Robert Jackson, 153, Hampton, Va.; Luis Gonzales, 109½, Bronx, N.Y., W-Dec. in four rounds over Otis Bernard Graves, 115, Newport News, Va. Referees were Paul Venti and Tony Orlando. Judges were Duane Bobick, Ernie Durando and Milo Savage. Jim Taylor handles the publicity for Elbaum-Menas.

Don Nisivoccia won a 12-round decision over Herman "The Worm" Ingram to capture the New Jersey State Bantamweight championship at the Essex Racquet Club in West Orange. The two Newark battlers put on a good show and the fans showed their appreciation. Nisivoccia is managed and trained by Paul Minai and Dom Bufano. Two other fighters of the Minai-Bufano stable were also on the card. Welterweight Jose Fuentes of Jersey City and Tyrone Easton of Newark fought a six-round draw. Middleweight Tommy Merola of Newark lost a close split decision in six rounds to Phil Hannibal of Rahway. It was a Carlos Dee Enterprises promotion.

Dwight Braxton (Qawi) the "Camden Buzzsaw," former WBC light heavyweight champion with his 5 ft. 6 inch height looks more the size of a middleweight, says he's serious about getting down to 165 pounds. Murray Sutherland of Bay City, Mich. accomplished the feat after suffering a TKO in the six-round by light heavyweight Eddie Davis in Las Vegas, June 11, 1982.

For WBA lightweight champion Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini, no fight is easy. He gets hit far too often. Defensive fighter, he's not. For Mancini's own sensible future, we hope he meant what he said at a press conference before the Orland Romero fight: "I'm going to retire before 1984 ends." "That's exactly what I've in mind, while he still has his faculties," manager Dave Wolfe said.

The boys down "cauliflower alley" are still buzzing about the neat job the North Haledon pride and joy Charlie "White Lightning" Brown did in outpunching and outboxing former WBC champion Alfredo Escalera at Madison Square Garden. The fans may or may not have been watching a future champion in Brown.

Popular, personable middleweight of Newark, Tommy Merola, may hang 'em up. Tommy lost a close split decision last Wednesday. He never did care for the rigors of training. If you don't care to devote the time to get in the best of condition, it is better to quit.

The absent Lou Duva from heavyweight Scott Frank's corner was expected to happen. Frank has been a problem-child to Duva for several years. Lou said two days (Thursday) before the Holmes-Frank fight (?), "I'm going to pack him (Frank) in for good." The clincher was when Duva discovered he was not to be in control of Frank's corner during the Holmes' fight.

Junior middleweight Kirkland Laing of England, injured in a bout on the Holmes-Frank undercard, is listed in satisfactory condition in Atlantic City Medical Center. Laing suffered a concussion when knocked out by Freddie Hutchings (23-1) in the 10th and final round. Laing (24-4-1) was confused and incoherent as he was being helped back to his corner. When he was knocked to the canvas by Hutchings, his head hit the mat very hard.

Philadelphia's Jeff Chandler knocked down Japan's Eijiro Murata five times en route to a TKO in the 10th round and his eighth successful defense of the WBA bantamweight championship. The referee stopped the bout at 1:54 of the 10th when Murata went down for the third time in the round. Chandler also floored Murata for mandatory eight-counts in the second and third rounds. Murata's diary dropped to 24-3-2. Chandler went up to 32-1-2. Chandler said after the fight he wants to take on WBC bantamweight champ Alberto Davila next. "There must only be one champion and it is me," Chandler said. "I will fight him any place and any time."

Marvis Frazier, who could be world heavyweight champion by this year's end, and Duane Bobick, who one thought he might own the same title, boxed a three-round exhibition Thursday, Sept. 22, at the Golden Eagle Arena. Promoter Joe Verne said the unusual meeting between two of the most well-known heavyweights in the sport was supplemented by the usual monthly program of a eight-round windup, a pair of six-rounders and a trio of four-rounders. Popular publicist Sy Roseman handles the public relations chores for Verne.

One-time heavyweight title contender Duane Bobick, now 33, who retired four years ago with a pro diary of 48-4 and 42 KOs, has decided to make a comeback. Bobick quit in 1979 because of nagging bursitis in both shoulders. He boxed a three-round exhibition with heavyweight title prospect Marvis Frazier, Thursday, Sept. 22, at the Golden Eagle Arena as an extra attraction to promoter Joe Verne's regular monthly boxing program. Bobick said he is presently selling real estate in the Atlantic City area. He is also a referee and judge for the New Jersey State Athletic Commission.

Welterweight Marlon Starling, who has been dazzling the boxing whirl with his sensational string of victories, is scheduled to trade punches with (Juan) Pablo Baez of the Dominican Republic, now fighting out of Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 1, 1983, in New Haven, Conn. The bout will be 10 rounds or less.

Girls' Tennis Team Suffers 2 Shutouts

Whitewash was the order of the day for the Belleville tennis team as the young squad lost two matches by way of shutouts.

The girls continue their ludicrous schedule with four matches this week. On Tuesday, they were at Holy Family, yesterday they hosted Ridgewood, today they are in Kearny and tomorrow the girls travel to Nutley. Considering the team also played last Monday, that makes another week of all matches and no practice.

At the outset of the season, coach Karen Fuccello was critical of the 26 match schedule, citing her young team would have hardly any practice time in battling the tougher teams of Bergen County. The coach couldn't have echoed truer words. The season hasn't been that bad, all told. The girls have won five matches, but according to Fuccello, "we've had two practice days, if we're lucky since the season started. We have no consistency because we don't have time to practice what we're doing wrong."

Last week, for instance, the girls lost to Teaneck, 5-0 and Paramus by the same count. Fuccello was happy with the play of Janet Ryman at third singles and the improvement of Desiree Johansen and Mary Kudrack at first doubles. However, the last time the girls battled these teams, Belleville fared much better which leads back to Fuccello's claim of little practice.

Cheri Tillman, at first singles, is a talented player who competes practically all year at the game. She got off to a good start this fall, but Fuccello admits her top player is having problems. "She's been inconsistent," said the coach. "I really can't pinpoint the problem, but she's having trouble maintaining that consistency, that rhythm." Tillman, like any good player, needs the opportunity to play continually to work on her errors. Without the proper practice time, the job is that more difficult.

Second singles player, Dina De Aquino is also enduring some hardships. Like Tillman, she is having problems with her consistency and is committing a lot of unforced errors. De Aquino is also a good player, but the toll of matches every day is beginning to affect her play as well.

Ryman, at third singles, has been improving along the way and gives Fuccello a lot of optimism for the future seasons.

The coach is also happy with the play of her doubles teams. Kudrack and Johansen are working much better together and Lori Tirrell and Laura Caruso at second doubles also have shown some improvement. Tirrell has a better ground stroke since the season started and Caruso is a good player at the net.

Needless to say, the season has been taxing on the young squad. There is two full weeks of competition left on the schedule and the girls will certainly battle down to the last smash. The question of so many matches is one that should be examined in future seasons. Does the extra play help the team, or does it hinder a young team and take away from the learning experience the game offers on the high school level.

Ridgewood Offering Big Challenge to Bucs

By Dino Ibelli

On Saturday the Buccaneers defeated Teaneck by a whopping 33-0 score and it really wasn't a battle from the beginning. Teaneck is now 0-4 and Belleville is at 3-1.

Next week promotes a problem as Ridgewood comes to town. They are very big and tough. And are in a tie with Belleville and Montclair for first place in Division 2 of the NN-JIL.

"We have to get psyched for Ridgewood and work just as hard after the big win," said senior co-captain Billy Baber.

"They are well-coached and have good size," mentions Steve Tribuna, who is a junior defensive tackle. Steve had a fine game, in on 11 tackles and a couple of sacks.

Mike Murphy, who is probably one of the best backs in state history, had 23 carries for 199 yards with 20 points. When asked about his biggest game of the season, he credited the front line of tackles Bob Mozeika and Ralph De Falco, guards Ralph Chimento and Dom DiPaolo, and center Tony Lombardi.

"The line did an excellent job, the holes were huge," says Murphy, who needs big holes to fit his 6'1", 245-pound frame through.

Billy Baber had his best game in his career. He averaged 6.4 yards per carry. "Having Murphy back there is great. I love running behind him while he blocks out somebody for me," says Baber. "Tursi is also great to have."

As for Tursi, where did he come from? If you followed Belleville football in 1981, he was a split end. He never played much. "My sophomore year made me not go out my junior year." When asked why he went out his senior year, he stated, "I lifted, got a little bigger and just gave it a shot."

"Next week the defense has to get the ball because they are peaking," says Tribuna. Steve, you may be right. The key will be what Murphy, Baber, and Tursi can do with the ball. The defense must hold Ridgewood down. Prediction: As long as nobody looks ahead to Passaic, it will be a victory.

BUCS FACTS: Offensive stars go to the front line, Murphy and Baber. Defensively, it goes to Mike Gibbons and Steve Tribuna who were in on 11 tackles and Dave Mozeika who had nine tackles.

Warming Up — Anthony Lopomo passes the soccer ball around during warm-up exercises before a recent game at Clearman Field. The boys advanced last week in the Essex County Tournament.

Discussing The Play — Head coach John Senesky talks with Dom DiPaolo about a play during Saturday's game. The defensive and offensive lines for Belleville both enjoyed a good game by performing some solid blocking.

Practicing — Anthony Tucci catches a pass from Frank Zangari during practice on Saturday afternoon before the game against Teaneck.

Good Going — Mike Murphy (r) is congratulated by Anthony Gizzo after scoring his third touchdown of the day against Teaneck on Saturday afternoon. Murphy also gained 199 yards on the ground.

Go Get Him — Junior Anthony Capaccio goes for a tackle against Teaneck's Andy Gordon, during the Bucs' 33-0 win on Saturday afternoon at Municipal Stadium.

A Great Day — Mike Murphy breaks a tackle on the way to a 199-yard game against Teaneck on Saturday afternoon. Murphy also scored three touchdowns on the day.

No Good — Ralph Chimento tries for the extra point after a Murphy score. It was far enough, but wide to the right. The Bucs did however score 33 points on the day.

Recreation Football Season is Underway

In the Recreation Department's A Division football league, the Steelers beat the Rams and the Chiefs defeated the Giants.

Joe Holland and Ernie Brodie gave tremendous blocks enabling Greg Jakowski to run 60 yards around the right end to give the Steelers the first score of the game. Joe Nazario also scampered 65 yards around the left end for the second and final scoring for the Steelers. Blocks by Carmine Patierno and Dean De Stefanó enabled Nazario to get free for the score. The final score was Steelers 12, Rams 7.

Jeff Spilsbury threw for all four touchdowns to give the Chiefs a 28-7 victory over the Giants. Ted Sochaski caught three touchdown passes and Joel Nasser caught one touchdown pass. Billy Sypher scored all the extra points on a good job rushing.

In the B Division the Bengals shut out the Falcons, 33-0, while the Jets defeated the Chargers 6-0.

The Bengals' John Sternick took the opening kickoff and ran it back for a touchdown. Mike Rubas scored the second touchdown of the first half on an end run to give the Bengals a 13-0 halftime lead. John Stampone scored three times in the second half for the Bengals on a fumble return, a 40-yard run and a two-yard run to give the Bengals a 33-0 win. Frank Wendling played solid defense and did an all around good job at quarterbacking for the Bengals.

Mike Senesky scored on a four-yard plunge in the first quarter to give the Jets a 6-0 lead that lasted throughout a fine defensive game played by both teams.

Bucs Beat Teaneck; Ridgewood is Next

and Baber did the work, with Murphy scoring the Bucs' fourth touchdown of the day with a three-yard run. On the day, Murphy would finish with three touchdowns and for the season he now has seven scores and a two-point conversion for 44 points. Murphy is a top candidate for the scoring championship of Essex County, an honor that last bestowed a Belleville runner in 1981 when Frank Fazzini led the way.

The final score of the day came when Walsh scored his first career varsity touchdown on a three-yard run. The play culminated a 33-yard drive, highlighted by an 11-yard run by John Olivieri.

"We were a little flat at the outset," admitted head coach John Senesky. "But we're 3-1 now, which is a little better than 2-2. I think the team picked up a lot of confidence with the win. Murphy gave the offense of big boost and (Frank) Tursi and Billy (Baber) ran well."

Senesky was also happy with the play of junior quarterback Walsh, who adds a fourth dimension to the Buc backfield. "He can run very well," said the coach. "With Mark running, it adds an extra lift to our backfield. He is turning into a very good quarterback."

Walsh is also developing into a fine defensive back and ranks near the top in team leadership in tackles. "We're using four different guards and all four have been doing a good job," said Senesky. "The offense is starting to believe in itself and we're beginning to get the job done."

Senesky also hinted that this ball club certainly does have a lot of potential. They possess a good runner up the middle in Murphy, and Baber and Tursi add a good dimension with speed and versatility. Both men can run the ball well and both can catch the ball coming out of the backfield. With Walsh, they have a passer who can zing the ball and run the ball with effectiveness. If Walsh isn't in there, Frank Zangari can do the job. Zangari is a smart quarterback who doesn't make mistakes and can keep his team in the ball game.

The offensive and defensive lines are beginning to jell, led by Ralph De Falco, Steve Tribuna, John Apicella, Dave Mozeika, Robert Mozeika, Dom Di Paolo and Ralph Chimento. The team has a good long threat in Carmen Cerreto, who was injured in the Montclair game but was back in uniform, true to his word, starting at wide receiver against Teaneck. Junior split end Gerald Kraus also is developing into a good deep threat.

This Saturday, Ridgewood should offer a stiff test. The Bergen County school boasts a good ball club this year and should be a good challenge. The game should also be a good test for the following week's game with Passaic. That game, of course, will be in Passaic and should be a super encounter.

NOTES: Thankfully, no injuries to report. The Teaneck club did not have many fans on their side of the field which should make the home side even more appreciative for the large backing it gets game by game.

Girls Hit Small Slump

were simply not in the flow of things as the home team won easily in two sets. "It was a superb effort by Ridgewood," said Worley. "They played a fine game and we didn't get the points. We have another shot at them (tomorrow afternoon) and we're hoping for a better performance."

The next day against Holy Family, the Wizards were back in form, winning in two sets. "Defensively, we were outstanding. Offensively, we were outstanding," said Worley. "Donna (Brooks) and Faith (Adams) did a good job at the net against their big girl. It was a good effort all around."

The topsy turvy week continued the next day when the girls lost in three sets to Paramus. "Things started off bad for us," said Worley. "There was only one official at the game, and it's tough to call a game by yourself. The official did a good job, but missed a big call which turned around the third set. Later the official apologized for the call, but it was too late."

Soccer Team Stays Alive In County Play

elated DeAquino. "We have a good shot against Irvington. We scrimmaged them before the year to a tie, and there's no reason to think that we can't beat them. But as far as the regular season goes, we've got the games coming up that'll either make us or break us: Hackensack (last Tuesday), Ridgewood (today) and Teaneck (this Tuesday). What we do there will make the difference with regards to the regular season."

That is because earlier last week the team worked its way past a surprisingly tough St. Joseph's squad, 2-1, and literally fought Passaic to a 3-1 win in which four players were ejected. Borja and Nick Sotomayer gave the Bucs what appeared to be a safe 2-0 lead in Montvale before St. Joseph's Joe Duffy scored to tighten the last five minutes of the game.

Against the Indians, Carlos Kingalaha, who also scored the first goal on the West Essex match, opened an early 1-0 lead for Belleville. Play became much rougher after Passaic tied the game in the third quarter. This led directly to the other two Belleville goals, both by Borja and both on penalty kicks. Needless to say, there is no love lost between the two teams and their next meeting, at Passaic's School Stadium, should prove to be interesting, to say the least.

DeAquino is obviously pleased with the improvement of his team, seeded fifth in the ECT and ranked 17th in the New Jersey Soccer Coaches' Association poll.

It's always difficult making the decision to sell a home you've been living in for a number of years. But, once you've made the decision, you should be objective in evaluating the condition of the house to determine whether or not it will interest a prospective buyer.

In doing so, pretend you are a buyer, or even a general contractor. Walk through the house and look at it in a way you never have before, then make a list of all the maintenance that needs to be done.

You can never anticipate where an interested buyer will direct his attention. He may totally ignore the new furnace you installed a few months ago, but focus on a room that needs painting, or a torn screen on a basement window.

Your Realtor can advise you as to what needs touching up and repairing before your house is listed, but it's wise to make your own check list and have the distracting repairs made before you even invite an agent into your house.

After you've made your repairs, walk through your home again and make a list of all the things you can do to make it more attractive, spacious and bright. For example, be sure the house is neat and uncluttered by cleaning out closets, bookcases, the basement, attic and garage.

You should try to make your home as tasteful and attractive as possible, and one your prospective buyer can visualize himself living in and identify with as his future residence.

Also, be sure you point out what is "for sale" with the house and what you are selling separately, what is in working order and what is not. This should be included in the listing agreement with your broker.

For additional information on what maintenance is essential before selling your house, or any other real estate questions, contact:

Belleville's Past

Together with the Stephens mill and mint, the other industrial establishments of the budding township were either closed down by the crisis or had to curtail their production considerably. The Hendricks mills, the stamping and mixing apparatus of the Hinton & Moore white lead factory, and the machinery of other plants were silenced. The latest addition to Belleville's industries had failed altogether. It was the Eagle Printing Company which occupied a "stone factory of several hundred feet in length" on the old Stout tract, where a calico bleaching and printing business was carried on. When it closed its doors "more than 100 hands" were thrown out of employment.

Foremost of all, Belleville's shipyards were laid idle. Their saws and caulking hammers were silenced. Auxiliary industries were as much affected by the slump who had produced anchors and other hardware for the ship builders, and brass buttons for the coats of master mariners and their mates at the same time. Idle also lay the North Belleville quarries of Cornelius Thomas, William Harrison, John D. Robinson, Abraham Joralemon and Alex Philip, which had produced not merely building stone and road foundation material, but also the stone ballast used by the sea-going vessels that came off the ways in Belleville. Fort Lafayette in the Narrows of New York Bay was built from stone from Abraham Joralemon's quarry.

Nor were Belleville's farmers saved the consequences of the economic depression. Sheriff J. Osborn, Jr., was kept busy advertising that he would "expose for Public Vendue" some well-stocked farms or town lots. On one occasion he "levied on 70 Building Lots of Land...part of the farm lately owned by H. Holmes."

These lots were part of one of the several real estate developments that had, as in Newark and other industrial towns, sprung up in Belleville, too, during the boom years preceding the depression. The Holmes tract had run up from Main Street to the heights of present-day Washington Avenue. Together with other farm lands and mill sites along Passaic and Second and Third Rivers, it had fallen into the hands of speculators, had been parceled out into building lots, and even streets had been mapped out on it. Some of the latter actually became Holmes, Stephens and Cortlandt streets. But most of these mushroom enterprises were entirely wiped out when the bubble burst in the panic of 1837.

Foreclosures and tax sales were usually held either at T.A. Seaman's Mansion House, on the corner of Rutgers and Main streets, or at "Nicholas N. Joralemon's Hotel, situated in the village of Belleville and more specifically at the corner of John and Main streets."

NNJIL Realignment Upsets Belleville High

of: Bergen Catholic, Ridgewood, Hackensack, Teaneck, St. Joseph, Don Bosco, Paramus, Paramus Catholic, Fair Lawn and Bergenfield.

"What the principals of the Bergen County schools wanted was to form a strictly Bergen County conference," Silvestri told members of the School Board Monday night. "We will now be in a division with several schools that have a population edge over us. Eventually it is going to hurt our athletic program."

While this year the schools are allowed to participate in inter-divisional play, the new alignment set for next fall will not permit it, thus leaving Belleville with only seven games for its football schedule.

"It is going to be quite hard to find two teams to complete the football schedule," Silvestri said. "Most schools belong to leagues and the ones with open dates often are located far outside our district and we do not want our kids to have to travel far to compete in athletic competition."

When Belleville first entered the NNJIL back in the fall of 1982 the alignment consisted of two divisions similar to the one recently established. But several schools in Belleville's division complained during hearings before Judge Eric Erickson that the alignment limited their ability to fill athletic schedules, particularly in the field of girls sports, since the league prohibited inter-divisional play. They also complained that the placement of three minority schools, Passaic, Paterson Eastside and Paterson Kennedy, created a racial imbalance between the two divisions. Judge Erickson later recommended to the commissioner of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association that the NNJIL be realigned and that interdivisional play be allowed. When this was approved and the three division format was established.

"Now what the Bergen County school officials are doing is turning their backs on the state's decision and going back to the old league alignment," said Silvestri. "I do not like it and several other schools which will be in our division are not happy with it either."

Silvestri told the School Board he was happy with the three-division alignment and would like to see it continue, but that will be left up to the state athletic commission to decide.

Belleville Democrats Are Planning Brunch

Mary V. Senatore, Belleville Democratic chairman, has announced the Belleville Democratic County Committee will hold its 21st annual "Champagne Brunch" on Sunday, November 6, at the Chandelier Restaurant, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Senator Carmen Orechio, Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato, Assemblyman-elect Stephen

Aduabato, along with many municipal, county and state elected officials will be guests at the brunch.

This occasion will be highlighted by honoring three county-committee members for over 20 years of dedication to the Democratic Party: Chester Prosperi, Ruth Ziemer and Dottie Sutton.

Anyone wishing to attend may call Ruth Ziemer, treasurer, at 759-6027.

Belleville Junior Women Hosting Fashion Show

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville will host a fashion show on October 21 at the Cameo in Garfield at 6:30 p.m. Proceeds of this fashion show will benefit the renovation of the children's room at the Belleville Public Library.

Fashions will be presented by

Chic Boutique in Nutley and furs by Tres Chic Furs Limited, New York. Chairman Michele Monica and her committee have worked very hard to make this fashion show, entitled "Everything's Coming Up Roses," a success. For information and tickets call 759-5656.

Religious Viewpoint

By Rev. Robert Paul

In the spring of 1871, a young man picked up a book and read 21 words that changed his life. The young man, a medical student at Montreal General Hospital, was worried about final examinations and was troubled about what he should do with his life, where he should establish his medical practice, and how he would build it.

The 21 words that changed his life were written by Thomas Carlyle. The man who was challenged was William Osler, founder of John Hopkins School of Medicine. These are the words:

Our main business is not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.

This truth is taught in the Bible. "Give us this day our daily bread." (St. Matthew 6:11.) Notice the words "this day." The prayer asks for today's bread only. We are to live one day at a time. If we live each day for God's glory, we will automatically be prepared for tomorrow and the future.

Worry really means to divide the mind, and "a double-minded man is unstable in all his ways." (James 1:8.) A person troubled by worry is divided emotionally, mentally and spiritually.

General Ulysses S. Grant, in his memoirs, tells how one night he was dizzy and could not see well because of violent headaches. His entire body ached. The next morning a horseman galloped up to him with a note of surrender from Robert E. Lee.

Grand said, "I was instantly cured when I saw the contents of the note. Every pain left me; even my headache." He had been sick from worry.

The cure for worry takes on many forms. Try rejoicing. "Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say rejoice." Tyr trusting. "Trust in the Lord, and do good." (Psalm 37.) Try work. "Trust in the Lord, and do good." One of the best cures for worry is work. "It is not work that kills men," wrote Henry Ward Beecher. "It is worry. Work is healthy." Try counting your blessings. Another aid for overcoming worry is to list your blessings. Someone said, "I had the blues because I had no shoes; till upon a street I met a man who had no feet."

Finally, focus your attention on the Lord Jesus Christ, as the one who died for your sins, and was raised up again for your justification. Commit yourself totally to Him, and He will free you from worry. "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (St. John 8:32.)

J. KELLY INC.
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
Dear Homeowners,
As you may already know, we have been in the home improvement business in this area for several years with 95% of our jobs being acquired strictly on a referral basis. We have found this to be a very rewarding as well as successful method of conducting business, one which has led us to a position where we can now provide our "referral oriented workmanship" as well as handle your financial needs all under one roof. As a result of these positive developments, we have established a small showroom and office, and it would be my pleasure to meet with you there to provide information on the construction methods and materials we shall supply.
If it would be more convenient for you to have us visit your home to discuss your home improvement needs, simply call our office to arrange an appointment.
Sincerely,

Prison systems are only a bandage.

Preventing child abuse is a cure.

Abuse as a child is a common thread that runs through the lives of most men and women in prison today.

And statistics show that the violent crime in America is often committed by adults who were abused as children.

Not all abused children grow up to be criminals. If we can prevent child abuse, however, we can decrease America's crime rate.

And child abuse can be prevented.

The National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse is a private charitable organization that knows how to prevent child abuse.

But we need your help to do it. We need money. We need volunteers.

Take the first step toward preventing child abuse. Send us your check today. Or write for our booklet.

Because if we don't all start somewhere, we won't get anywhere.

National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse
