Belleville Goes Democratic All The Way

Township To Honor Its Veterans On Sunday

A large turnout is expected this Sunday when the Belleville Veterans Council will hold its annual Veterans' Day Parade, which will proceed along Washington Avenue, starting at 2 p.m.

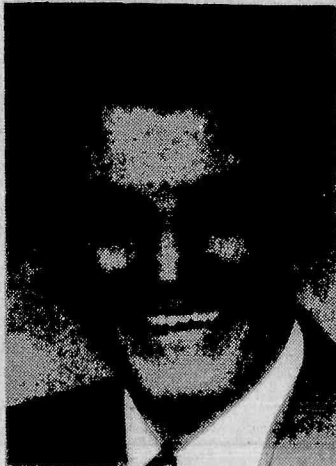

The Veteran's Day parade is one of the largest held in Belleville each year, as residents remember those who served their country in an attempt to preserve peace and honor.

This year's parade will honor Mrs. Mary Hoar, Belleville's first Gold Star Vietnam Mother, whose son, John, was killed in Vietnam on Feb. 13, 1966.

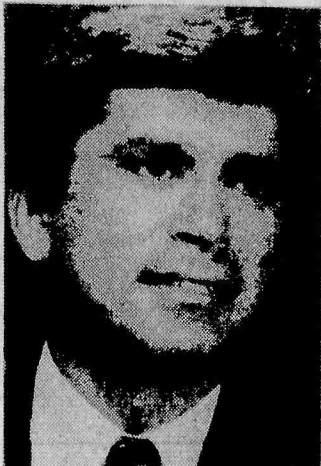

The parade will form on Washington Avenue and Greylock Parkway and proceed south to the reviewing stand in front of Town Hall on Washington and Belleville avenues.

The marching units will consist of the Veterans of Foreign War 275, VFW 6265, American Legion 105, American Legion 299, Amvets 26, Disabled American Veterans Post 22, Catholic War Veterans of Belleville, VFW 299 of Nutley, VFW 6255 of Cedar Grove, VFW 9015 of Newark, the Pearl Harbor Survivors, Ladies Auxiliaries from units VFW 275 and American Legion 299, the Belleville Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, the township Commissioners, members of the Belleville School Board, the Belleville High School Band, and many other groups.

A gathering will be held at VFW Post 275, 17 Belleville Ave., after the parade.

Commissioners To Investigate Redevelopment Agency's Power

Questioning the distribution of power, Commissioners last Monday tabled a resolution advanced by the Belleville Redevelopment Agency to endow that agency with administrative authority over funding.

The halted resolution reads that the BRDA, "with the advice and consent of the Belleville Township Commissioners be empowered to act as the main administrative instrument of the township regarding governmental funding sources and all negotiations relating to the redevelopment process of the township."

Discussing the measure at their caucus session, Commissioners directed township attorney Frank Zinna to study the state statutes pertaining to redevelopment agencies in order to determine the extent to which a municipality is liable for redevelopment agency projects and the degree of input permitted the Commission.

"I want to see the redevelopment agency accomplish what it was meant to do, but I don't want to abandon projects or not have any input," said Commissioner Matthew Pica.

The BRDA was established by Commissioners, in accordance with state laws, to deal with deteriorating sections of the community, particularly Washington Avenue.

The BRDA's authority centered on a blight study of the Avenue which could result in certain properties being condemned and demolished to pave the way for redevelopment.

Mayor Michael Marotti added, "We'll be in the background, they (RDA) will do everything on their own."

Assured by the township attorney that such resolutions were not unusual for redevelopment agencies, Pica still insisted on a clarification of responsibility. "I understand the township will act as a funneling agency in matters of funding, but I want to know how much liability Belleville has."

BRDA chairman Emil Nardachone said Tuesday, "The township will have some liability in any redevelopment project because the municipal government created the agency."

The chairman added, however, "Their liability lessens as the RDA gains funding independence." He said that once the agency establishes a "track record" it can get bonding and seek monies from direct funding sources.

Nardachone further noted that under the tabled resolution the Commissioners have the sole authority to act on their direction and consent," he added.

The chairman also affirmed that as Commissioners' financial responsibility for projects lessens so does the degree of their control over a given project.

"We're an autonomous entity," he explained, but noted that the agency must remain close to the Commission which has the power to raise revenues. "We cannot tax and must have some form of collateral-in seeking funds," he said.

Of Monday's action Nardachone remarked, "I can understand why they tabled it."

The chairman discussed the matter with Commissioners and agreed to change the resolution's wording to give them "advice and final consent."

Nardachone said the agency and Commissioners will be meeting to explore mutually a satisfying ways of handling projects.

Orechio, Fortunato And Aduato Win

By Ed Capparucci

Belleville voters turned out in large numbers on Tuesday as the Democrats sweep all three seats — one senate and two assembly — with new-comer Stephen Aduato leading the way.

Aduato, a 26 year-old Montclair resident, led all voters with a total of 4,843. He was followed by incumbent Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato, who gathered 4,795 votes, John Kelly, who attracted 3,362 and George Riepe, who placed fourth with 2,262 votes.

In the race for state senator, incumbent Senate President Carmen Orechio defeated Bloomfield Attorney Ralph Salerno by more than 1,000 votes, 4,488 to 3,397, while losing just three of the township's 24 districts.

For Orechio, who was elected to his fourth term in the senate, the victory in Belleville paved the way to his win in the 30th District.

"I am very happy to see the township elect the Democratic line," said Mayor Michael Marotti, who along with Commissioner Matthew Pica and School Board Trustee Charles Miele, waited for the final tallies at Town Hall on Tuesday night. "Carmen Orechio has worked hard for the people of Belleville in the past and I know he will continue to do so in the future."

With just one district not reported, figures show that 8,472, or well over 50 percent of the registered voters turned out to the polls on Tuesday.

Aduato, whose uncle Michael once served Belleville in the old 30th District, waged a strong campaign in town, including a door-to-door venture, which helped him to become a familiar face with local residents.

Fortunato, who placed second, will be heading to the Assembly for his fifth term. He has always proved to be a popular figure in town.

Kelly who placed fourth in the 1981 assembly race here, placed third this time, gathering 3,362 votes. In the final assembly position was former Belleville resident George Riepe, who gathered 2,262 votes.

"Buddy Fortunato, along with Orechio helped this township overcome the toxic chemical mess this year, and the people of this community did not forget him," said Marotti. "We expect a lot out of young Steve Aduato and we hope he will help the community and the taxpayers. I along with the rest of the commissioners am looking forward to working closely with all three men."

Local Female Artist Creating Her Way To Success

By Linda Telesco

Everyone has heard of Michaelangelo or Picasso. But most of us would overlook the artist right in our midst, just as we might overlook the aspects of life that a prize-winning artist notices and interprets so vividly.

Township artist Maria Lupo's special vision won her the $500 prize as best overall artist in Newark's sixth annual James Street Art Show held last month.

Exhibiting two paintings and two photographs, the 24-year-old Belleville woman won the distinction over 65 participants in the show and noted that she took first prize in photography at both the 1981 and 1982 James Street shows.

"Ever since I could remember, I wanted to be an artist," said Lupo during an interview last week at the Adelaide Street home she shares with her parents, Alexander and Frances, and her 29-year-old brother Michael.

Reclining in a dark oak rocking chair surrounded by the living room's colonial charm, the artist, with her long dark hair and vivid features, chatted about her work in a manner as comfortable as her cozy home.

"I didn't really study art formally until I went to college," said Lupo, who grew up in Newark where she attended Our Lady of Good Counsel School.

"I think if I had taken lessons so young I would have been ruined," says the artist who values spontaneity in approaching her work. She says that too often young people are rigidly trained in techniques and forget just to look at what's around them and trust their own senses.

"I looked at a tree and drew it. I had nothing to unlearn when I began to study formally," she said, adding, "part of art is experiencing as much as you can, tasting it all."

For that reason, Lupo values the general education she received at Rutgers University in Newark where she graduated with a B.A. in fine arts, taking honors and winning the senior art department award.

Presently, she is pursuing a master's degree in sculpture and photography at New York's Hunter College where she studies under Robert Morris and Alice Aycock, renowned artists whom Lupo cites as important influences on her development.

Interested in science, cultural history, and science fiction literature, Lupo feels a broad education exposed her to many ideas that have influenced her prize-winning work.

"There are two sides to me. I'm a creative artist, but I also have a strong sense of organization and the practical. I think you need both to succeed today" — Maria Lupo

Touring the workshop she maintains in the basement of her home, the artist points to a black and white photograph called "Beings No. 2," which depicts a lonely clump of bare trees interrupted by two white eerie objects, possibly supernatural.

Another painting relies on repeated shapes of human ears, lima beans, and other life objects of similar form. "My work can be called very organic," she explained. "I'm interested in life forms and their relationship."

Working in a variety of media, including paints, pencil, and photography, Lupo is primarily a sculptor and shows the beginnings of a project to be exhibited at Hunter College later this year.

Mummified figures, which will represent different stages of life and death, lie on the floor and worktable of her studio. Interestingly, the artist said she takes inspiration from ancient art, particularly the artifacts of Egypt, the Orient and the Islamic cultures.

"I like to study the culture and see how they organized their lives and how their arts reflected that way of life," she explained.

Lupo was especially thrilled about her studies in Italy. During the summer of 1979 she spent a month in the Tuscany city of Cenina where she studied art history and modeling in clay and fiber. Then she toured much of the country for two more weeks.

"I felt like I found my roots, being of Italian background," she said. "They really know how to live there. Just the way they treat a meal and savor the experience. I felt it was the most complete place on earth."

Though her work is daring and energetic, Lupo maintains a conservative approach to the art movement today. "I would like to see more craft. I'm tired of looking at junk," she said, criticizing some of the Manhattan art scene for the excessive "hype" and inflated prices that it promotes.

Forthright and level-headed, Lupo agrees the art world has become more business oriented and feels today's artists must be practical enough to cope with that.

"The myth of the naive artist painting in an attic just doesn't work anymore," she laughed, explaining the need to deal with galleries for those who organize exhibitions.

"There are two sides to me. I'm a creative artist, but I also have a strong sense of organization and the practical. I think you need both to succeed today."

In the past four years, Lupo has exhibited her work at Rutgers and Seton Hall Universities, the Newark Museum, and New York's Landmark Gallery, among others.

She also won first prize in both a 1979 and 1980 art competition at the Belleville Public Library.

Additionally, the artist has taught her craft at the Newark Museum, Rutgers workshops, and worked as an assistant in Manhattan's prestigious Castelli Gallery.

"A successful artist can live off her work, but it takes time," said Lupo who is determined to earn her livelihood as an artist, art teacher and freelance photographer.

"I'm clear and definite about my work," she said firmly. "I know I can't just continue to copy what was successful. I want to grow and experiment. I like to enjoy my own creating," she smiled, as knowingly as the Mona Lisa.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

Not all back trouble starts with a severe strain such as lifting a far-too-heavy load. A slip or a bad fall need not always be at fault, either. Spinal vertebrae can move out of normal alignment, suddenly or gradually, with no obvious cause other than normal bending and twisting of the spine.

Perhaps this is the reason why some people suffer the agony of back pain without seeking the relief that chiropractic offers. They do not suspect vertebra misalignment because there was no obvious event to cause it.

If you suffer from back trouble, arrange for a chiropractic examination without delay. Phone our office today.

Local Hospital is Awarded Laboratory Accreditation

The laboratory at Clara Maass Medical Center has been awarded a two-year accreditation by the Commission on Laboratory Accreditation of the College of American Pathologists (CAP), based on results of a recent on-site inspection.

John K. Duckworth, M.D., FCAP, chairman of the commission, advised Frank Gradone, M.D., and Peter Kovanic, M.D., co-laboratory directors, of this national recognition and congratulated them and their staff on the "excellence of services you are providing patients and their physicians."

The laboratory at Clara Maass Medical Center is one of 3,000 CAP-accredited laboratories nationwide.

Began in the early 1960s, the college's program was the first peer-review program for clinical laboratory accreditation. Even before government agencies mandated it, pathologists voluntarily were inspecting and accrediting laboratories to maintain the highest quality laboratories possible.

Today the CAP Laboratory Accreditation Program is one of the few recognized by the federal government as requiring adherence to standards equal to or more stringent than the government's own. The inspection itself is one of the most rigorous a laboratory can experience, and may require up to a year of advance preparation by the laboratory staff.

The program uses unpaid, but well-qualified volunteer pathologists, doctoral scientists, medical technologists, and pathology residents from college-accredited laboratories to inspect and evaluate laboratory services and provide unbiased consulting services to the laboratory. Each inspection team is headed by a board-certified pathologist with specialized training in the inspection process.

The inspectors examine the records and quality control of the laboratory for the preceding two years, as well as the education and qualifications of the total staff, the adequacy of the facilities, the equipment, laboratory safety, and laboratory management to determine how well the laboratory is serving the patient.

Since its discovery in 1922, insulin has been the best studied and most useful hormone to be prescribed as a pharmacologic agent. It is used as a treatment for diabetes which is caused by an underproduction of insulin in the body. Normally, insulin is produced by specialized cells in the pancreas responding to the amount of sugar in the blood circulating through it. As the sugar level rises, so to does the amount of insulin secreted into the blood stream. Insulin's effect is to enable the body to use blood sugar as an energy source. A diabetic's insulin supply is generally low necessitating insulin therapy.

Judge Rules State Law As Unconstitutional

Belleville Public School System's Moment Of Silence Comes to an End

By Ed Capparucci

The Belleville school system saw its long-time moment of silence tradition struck down in federal court two weeks ago, when a judge ruled the state law violated the constitution's separation of church and state.

Although the state legislators passed a law requiring a moment of silence before the start of each school day last December, the Belleville Board of Education had been following that practice for several years.

But two weeks ago a U.S. District Court judge ruled that the law was unconstitutional, throwing out the practice.

"I am torn between the two sides," said Board of Education President Grace Purdue. "I can understand the views of those who wish not to partake in the moment of silence, but I also can see the other side and their feelings. I personally like the moment of silence in the school system. Kids come into the buildings each day and they are excited and this calms them down. There is no religious undertones involved at all. We just asked them to be quiet, we did not tell them what they had to think about when they were being silent."

Members of the state legislature passed the moment of silence bill back in December of last year, overriding a veto by Gov. Thomas Kean, who refused to sign the bill stating he felt it to be unconstitutional. After the bill's passage the American Civil Liberties Union went right to work, bringing suit against the Department of Education Commissioner Saul Cooperman, the state Department of Education and two municipal school boards. After Attorney General Irwin T. Kimmelman declined to defend the law, a judge blocked the law's implementation until the case could be resolved in court. The five-day trial started Sept. 13 and was heard by U.S. District Court Judge Dickinson R. Debevoise.

"I think a showing has been made that New Jersey's minute of silence does jeopardize the religious liberties of members of the community and breaches the proper degrees of separation between the proper spheres of religion and government," Debevoise stated in his written decision.

Belleville Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello said that the judge's decision will be enforced locally.

"If this is the court's decision then we can live with it," said Nardiello. As superintendent of schools my job is to see that the judge's ruling is enforced and I will carry that out. Maybe the schools are taking on too much and this is something which should be handled on the family level, at least that is the way the court seems to view it."

Meanwhile Mrs. Purdue says she will check with School Board attorney Lawrence Schwartz to see if the ruling will affect the board's traditional moment of silence, which is observed before each board meeting.

Redevelopment Agency Planning Business Survey

By Linda Telesco

The Belleville Redevelopment Agency, pushing forward its plans for revitalizing the community, agreed at a recent session to conduct a survey of 1,000 industrial and retail businesses in Belleville to determine interest in redevelopment activity.

"We're going to mail this questionnaire to determine which industrial people in town have plans to expand or have intentions of moving out," said the agency's secretary, Joseph Dasaro.

Conducting the meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Office on Washington Avenue, the agency hopes to pinpoint those businesses which are showing a commitment to the community by investing monies into expansion or extensive renovation.

Similarly, BRDA wants to see how many may be considering moving their business out of town.

"We also want to see who wants to be a part of our redevelopment projects," said Joseph Vecchione, the agency's publicist.

Dasaro hopes to have the letters out by the end of this week and the BRDA will schedule a special meeting to discuss results.

Members noted that a more detailed questionnaire will later be mailed to any respondents whose replies show optimism and community commitment.

"We want them to understand this is a group for the betterment of the township. No one is excluded. We are not politically motivated and are volunteers because we live here and want to show faith in our community," said Vecchione.

The questionnaires will be accompanied by self-introductory letters. "We want to make our presence known to the community," explained Dasaro.

Along those lines, members considered establishing a permanent mailing address for the two-year-old BRDA, possibly at 383 Washington Ave. which houses a number of municipal offices.

The decision to conduct a large scale mailing follows close on the recent agreement by Commissioners to permit the BRDA, their professional planning group, and the local Planning Board, to proceed with a blight study of a selected portion of Washington Avenue. Such a study is a state-mandated preliminary to official redevelopment.

Additionally, the agency hopes to have a budget in place sometime this month.

Michael Rosamilia

One of the most humble and great men of our time — our contemporary — our friend and neighbor since birth has indicated his intention to retire from the Belleville school system which he has served so well for all of his adult year. His name — Michael Rosamilia.

Michael Rosamilia was born in the Big Tree section of Belleville, reared in an environment where five cents was a luxury, dropped out of school, resumed his studies at age 27, graduated college, and ultimately became a school teacher in the Belleville school system. And from that beginning reached the academic top — acting superintendent of schools for two years.

While distinguishing himself as an administrator, Mike sought direct contact with teachers and students and insisted that he be given the opportunity to become a school principal once again. A learned scholar, Mike offers a unique combination of intellect and compassion. From poor and humble surroundings, he was able to view the world at — large through the eyes of one who had to make it on his own. His experiences developed his character, integrity, and wisdom. Mike indeed was a man for all seasons and for all reasons. He was nourished on the milk of human kindness. A decent human being, anyone whose life he touched was made better because Mike walked through his life.

Students and teachers fortunate enough to share Mike's time during his tenure with the school system will never forget the compassion, love, and dedication of this fine American.

His academic achievements are not only personal for him but in dispensing, with an even hand, justice and learning to students and teachers fortunate enough to hear his words and share his dreams, Mike will forever live in the hearts and minds of those people — a lasting monument to a man who indeed — is self-made.

In his well-earned retirement, we wish for Mike Rosamilia God's blessings and a long and healthy life.

Thanksgiving Football

The time is opportune for Nutley and Belleville school officials to establish an annual Thanksgiving Day football rivalry between the two neighbors. Beginning with Thanksgiving 1984, both schools have open football schedules.

The recently successful Columbus Day Parade — the joint effort of the Nutley-Belleville communities — clearly demonstrates the desire of people of both communities to join hands as friendly neighbors.

In informal conversations with officials at every level of both communities, we perceive a deep desire to see this annual event come about.

What a thrill it would be to look forward to each Thanksgiving seeing neighbors fight it out on a football field instead of over-the-fence.

Animal Welfare

The use of animals in industrial research laboratories has been going on since research laboratories were conceived.

Animal welfare groups have been in the front line of opponents to the use of animals in industrial research. Animal lovers want the use of federal funds allocated to develop alternatives to animal research, i.e., tissue and cell cultures, use of microorganisms and bacteria, and mathematical and computer simulations.

A 1979 study initiated by Friends of Animals Inc., shows that wider use of alternative testing methods would have no adverse impact upon biomedical research.

The annual budget of the National Institutes of Health is $4.1 billion. Alice Harrington, president of the Friends of Animals Inc., estimates the lives of 60 million of the estimated 100 million laboratory animals tortured and killed in research experiments could be saved. Commenting on the problems, Miss Harrington observes, "Clearly human behavior problems cannot be solved by animal studies; dispensing tax dollars to make pigs drunk will not help alcoholics; making monkeys into drug addicts is as much of a financial racket as is pushing angel dust among children."

Whatever the facts are, no opportunity should be missed to minimize the use of animals in scientific research. There is no doubt that the health of human beings requires some valid animal testing be done in many projects. The effort to minimize the use of animals should be escalated.

Special Education Kids Are Like Everyone Else

To the editor:

It has been brought to the attention of parents of special children that many citizens still do not understand the term, "Special Education."

At a recent Board of Education meeting, a parent addressed the board to say he was concerned about the welfare of his child because his school housed Special Education children.

It is a disgrace when parents label our children. Our children are the same as yours. They are human beings. Most of their handicaps being that their learning process is much slower than the average child.

How would you as a parent of a "normal child" like to have people point their fingers at you or your child.

Don't discriminate against these special children. God gave them to us for a special reason.

So we, too, are labeled "Special Parents."

Sincerely yours,
Bernadette Naso

Captain Jack and Archie Thank Kids and Officials

To the editor:

On April 28, October 4 and 6, I had the opportunity to bring my safety program to the Township of Belleville. Such topics as drug education, strangers, bike safety and fire safety were covered by myself and "Dummy" partner, Officer Archie. This program, which was done throughout the school system, could not have been presented to these elementary children had it not been for the cooperation of the police department and the Board of Education.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to Grace Purdue, board president, and Michael Nardillo, superintendent of schools, who more than welcomed the program and showed much hospitality. For three days I was in the company of a police officer from Belleville by the name of Vincent Cosenzo or "Uncle Vinnie" as the many school children call him. Officer Cosenzo spent many man hours working with me on the program, and not only was he a fine person to work with, but his love for the school children of Belleville could not be expressed in words.

In the seven years of my program, I have never found more friendlier people than in Belleville and this could not have been accomplished without the help of Vinnie, who made me feel more than at home. In closing, I would also like to thank the Belleville Police Commissioner Matthew Pica, for his assistance on the program and his father, Sam Pica, who accompanied both Officer Cosenzo and myself in presenting the program.

The last thank you is to the children of Belleville, whom for two hours each day sat attentively and absorbed every word spoken and I am sure they learned much about safety education. Thank you, Belleville, for taking such an interest in your children and a special thanks to Officer Vincent Cosenzo, none could have come better.

Sincerely,
Capt. Jack & Officer Archie

New Winter Parking Law Annoys Local Resident

To the editor:

It seems that Belleville has found a new way to harass its residents.

On October 25, as I was coming home from work, I observed two men from the town putting up new parking signs on Hornblower Avenue.

The signs read "No Parking When Road Is Snow Covered — Tow Away Zone."

Now, I'm all for keeping the roads clear when it snows, but where do the Commissioners expect us to park our cars? On the south side of Hornblower Avenue there are few, if any, driveways. Therefore that leaves the residents with a very big problem — parking.

I would like to know whose asinine idea this was. I guess that's what happens when we have Commissioners who don't think before they act, or maybe they don't have the ability to think.

I would be very happy to remove my car from the street, if the town would pay for a driveway.

Maybe we should all park our cars at Town Hall or in the Commissioners' driveways.

It seems that Belleville does whatever it wants to do, with no regard to its residents.

The water rates have increased, taxes have gone up and then we are handed garbage such as this.

Really disgusting, no wonder there are so many homes for sale in Belleville. You can blame yourselves for that, Commissioners.

Sincerely,
Peter Arancio

Deducing Yearly Rent Increase Rate is Wrong

To the editor:

The Belleville Rent Board's recommendation that the allowable rental increase be reduced to four percent from the present six percent is not in the best interests of the town, the landlords, the tenants or the homeowners. It is true that the Consumer Price Index in this area is presently at 4.1 percent. But it is also true that the index rose in the month of September at an annual rate of 9 percent. Any landlord or homeowner knows that the cost of operating their property is not reflected in any way by the C.P.I. The prices charged by plumbing, painting, electrical, masonry and carpentry contractors continue to rise at a 10 percent annual rate. New mortgages still command a 13 percent to 14 percent interest rate. When old 8 percent mortgages come due soon, they will have to be replaced at an increase of about 70 percent in the interest rate. Our employees expect and will receive a 7 percent to 8 percent salary increase, and that does not include the skyrocketing costs of health insurance. The major operating expense item for homes or apartments is heating fuel. When the price of fuel increased by 500 percent within a couple of years, the Rent Board made no recommendation to increase the allowable annual rental increase. This fact alone should indicate the irrational thinking of our Rent Board. At any moment another Mid-East crisis could cause another leap in the price of oil or Public Service will justify a 10 percent jump in the cost of gas and electric.

From the aforementioned it should be obvious that to even consider lowering the annual rental increases would result in deferred maintenance of the apartments and a rash of hardship appeals. In addition, the landlords will have grounds for tax appeals which always result in increased taxes for the homeowner. Instead of considering the latest Rent Board recommendation, the council should pass the vacancy decontrol amendment which has been pending for a year. Vacancy decontrol affects no present tenants, and will help provide the funds to improve our property.

Very truly yours,
Samuel Geltman

Golden Comments

By James Golden

At last, the people who use telephones, and who doesn't, are getting the message "we've been porked" by the consent decree by which AT&T must divest its Ma Bell offspring in the name of competition and American capitalism.

Until now, your phone bill has been kept low because Bell local companies got funds from bloated long-distance rates. Now these distant calls will be much lower, but while competition will lower distant rates, local rates will soar.

A surcharge arbitrarily set by the Federal Communication Commission will be charged to tie-into interconnections for long distance calls whether such calls are made or not. That is unfair. The few distant calls most people make could be made from a pay-phone.

The FCC imposed new, accelerated depreciation methods and increased depreciation rates, which the state Board of Public Utilities was forced to accept, increasing monthly phone bills.

Outrageous increases are intolerable. The government in Washington imposed divestiture; now the Washington government wants us to pay for it, and this is only the beginning.

The House and Senate Commerce committees are considering bills to overturn this FCC surcharge. Letters should be sent to your representatives in Congress. This evil hike in the impending cost of a home phone is much worse than the 10 percent withholding tax on interest which was beaten by your letters.

It's cheaper to buy a 20-cent postage stamp to write Senators Bill Bradley and Frank Lautenberg at the U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C., 20510 and Committee members Robert Packwood and John C. Danforth, and Reps. Timothy E. Wirth and John D. Dingell and your New Jersey Congressmen at the U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., 20515, than it is to pay $35 a month in a few years for a home telephone.

If competition is so good and monopoly so bad, why are our telephone bills going up, not down? Why must we pay for services we don't use nor need? Let's rise up in anger and try to stop this government imposed "rip-off" of the little people, and small user of the phone. Let Big Brother Washington and FCC know we don't like their arbitrary plan.

Former President Richard Nixon is writing a new book, "Real Peace: A Strategy for the West." It starts "There can be no real peace in the world unless a new relationship is established between the United States and the Soviet Union." The timing of the book coming on the heels of shooting down of the Korean flight 007 timely explains his conception that we are coming to a critical period in world affairs that is precarious, but precious.

He stresses the need for closer diplomatic and trade relations with Russia — while building strong conventional military forces contending arms don't cause wars, saying human intentions do.

Mr. Nixon feels the struggle between the two giant powers will go on in "a vast gray area between peace and war." He warns "we must not stand aside and let events control us. If we ride the hurricane, we will become part of it."

He would propose regular U.S.-Soviet summitry through yearly meetings that are carefully prepared and calmly held. Offering a short outline of summitry: "An American President should be cordial in personal matters but unyielding in policy matters...a President achieves nothing by bluster and belligerence."

Nixon would give Latin America top priority, since our policy there "has been inadequate, inept, and worst of all plagued by fitful starts and stops." In Central America he thinks, "while our current policy is not an ideal one, it is the least we can do under the circumstances."

Latin American debtors are looking for help as they sink deeper into debt, $320 billion in the hole. These debts cannot be paid under existing conditions. The borrowers can't pay because like individuals, they aren't earning enough. The regions now owe foreign lenders more than three times the amount it earns annually from exports.

There had been fears that defaults might have occurred, but repudiation of their debts would mean certain cutoff of future loans. Some Bankers agree American banks are overcharging Latin customers and making the world debt crisis worse. Many debts are turning sour.

Problem loans have more than doubled for Chase Manhattan and Citicorp last year. Chase said it considered $976 million to be "nonperforming as of last June 30"...the debt bomb is serious.

The Circus is Coming To Town

By Ed Capparucci

For many of us growing old is a process which we would like to slow down. Each year we find ourselves a year older and are left wondering how the time passes by so quickly.

We are constantly seeking to grasp our youth and recapture those fun-filled days of our childhood — a period of life when time means nothing and responsibilities are few. But once a year there comes a time when we can reach back and become a kid once again. And that time is upon us.

The circus is heading to town — well at least to New Jersey.

Starting Tuesday, Nov. 15 and running until Sunday, Nov. 27, the Greatest Show on Earth, Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus, will fill the big top at the Byrne Meadowlands Arena.

As a child I was never crazy about the circus. Many times I remember good old mom asking if I wanted to go see the funny men with their big floppy feet and painted faces. And each year I would decline the invitation saying that I had no interest whatsoever in sitting with a group of noisy peers watching them stuff their faces with cotton candy (which I still despise) and watching them wave their banners and brightly colored flashlights, causing nothing more than a distraction to those around them. But since then I have changed my tune.

It was only three years ago that I attended my first circus and I have been back every year since. It is one night when you can reach back for those long-lost childhood times. For those of you who have been to the circus, you know what I am talking about, and those of you who never had the pleasure of attending a performance, you don't know what you are missing.

As a special treat this year the Belleville Times, along with Ringling Brothers, wants to send three township children and their families to the circus.

The Times is sponsoring a coloring contest (check page 10 of this issue) and will be awarding three local residents from ages 4 to 12 five tickets each for the Nov. 22 performance of the Greatest Show on Earth. One winner will be selected from three age categories: 4-6, 7-9 and 10-12. Children are asked to complete the coloring page and send it in to the Belleville Times office, 800 Bloomfield Ave., Nutley, N.J. 07110. Entries must be received by Nov. 17 and the winners will be notified by phone later that day. Judges will be employees of the Belleville Times. Entries should list the child's name, age and phone number. Once again the coloring contest page is located on page 10 of this issue. So get out your crayons and get busy, you don't have too much time.

I was appalled when I heard that the Reagan administration was getting involved in the Baby Jane Doe controversy, which has been in and out of courthouses throughout New York. For those of you unfamiliar with the story it deals with a baby girl who was born 28 days ago with a small head, fluid on the brain and spina bifida, a failure of the spinal cord to close properly. The parents have refused to allow the child to have an operation which could extend her life into her 20s and many pro-life groups are upset with the decision. So the pro-life advocates have taken the parents to court, where two judges have already agreed that a decision of this nature is indeed up to the parents and that it is a private matter. But the pro-life groups have not given up, and after applying strong pressure to the Reagan administration, are fighting the case once again.

Without the operation Baby Jane Doe is likely to die within two years and even with a successful operation she will remain severely retarded and bedridden for life. Her parents made a decision — a very difficult one — which they feel would be best for both the child and themselves, but the government says the decision is wrong and that another court should have the final say.

The pro-life advocates believe that the parents are doing this child a great injustice. But where will they be when the child needs care for the next 20 years? Where will they be when she needs to be fed, clothed and cleaned? Where will they be when she cries and cannot carry out everyday functions the way healthy children can? This child is going to be severely retarded and in all probability will not be able to do anything for herself.

The government is now trying to decide where parents' rights begin and end. I ask you, what's next?

Edison Laboratory, Home Best Trip Bargain Around

By Ruth Stanley

Have you heard about the best bargain around, the laboratory and home of the world's most famous inventor, Thomas Edison?

The laboratory is the largest of its kind devoted to the "business of inventing." Here you will see Edison's workshop, office, library, inventions, a life-size replica of the first motion picture studio, and much, much more, including the cot his wife had put in his office because the poor woman was upset at finding Mr. Edison often asleep on his office floor. He was, as we would say today, a "workaholic," never taking time out for a night's sleep. You'll also see the clock that stopped at the exact moment Mr. Edison died and his desk encased in plastic to preserve it just as he left it on his last day at the office. It is a fascinating tour conducted by National Park Service guides.

And there is more! Glenmont, where Mr. Edison lived for the last 45 years of his life is only a few steps away in Llewellyn Park. This 40-minute tour includes 23 Victorian rooms complete with the original furnishings and the Edison family memorabilia, plus the added bonus of seeing Llewellyn Park which, as you may know, is a beautiful private residential park off-limits to the public.

Tickets must be purchased at the laboratory located on Main Street and Lakeside Avenue, West Orange. Ask for directions to Glenmont.

All this for the bargain price of 50 cents, with those under 16 and over 62 admitted free. Bet it's been a long time since you got so much for so little. You surely will enjoy this step back into history right at your back door.

Hours: laboratory, daily, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Glenmont closed Monday and Tuesday, open Wednesday through Sunday, noon to 5 p.m.

Defense Plays Big Part In 30-6 Victory

Buccaneers Breeze By St. Joseph Behind Murphy's Strong Running

The last time Nov. 4 fell on a Saturday, it was 1977. That might not sound like much of an event for most people, but for the avid Belleville football fan, Nov. 4, 1977 will go down as "Black Saturday." It was the day Seton Hall Prep defeated the Bucs 63-0.

Now, six years later, Nov. 4 has once again fallen on a Saturday. Unlike the 1977 doom, the Buccaneers are now one of the more respected programs in the state and although the team was suffering through a "rare" two-game losing streak, the team picked the perfect day to avenge the losses. Behind a strong running game and the opportunistic play of the Belleville defense, the Bucs whipped conference rival St. Joseph's of Montvale, 30-6 to boost the team record to 4-3.

Next on the slate is Hackensack High School at Belleville. Kickoff time is set for 1:30 p.m. For the season, the Bucs are 2-2 in the second division of the NNJIL. Following the Hackensack game, the Bucs will close out the year with the annual Thanksgiving Day battle with Kearny.

"We expected a tough game with St. Joseph," said head coach John Senesky, and we got a tough game. They hit hard and came to play."

Despite the lopsided score, St. Joseph's had come to play. They possessed two strong running backs, a pretty good defense and had it not been for some early penalties which the "Opportunistic" Buc defense converted into points, the game might have been a lot closer.

"Let's face it," said running back Mike Murphy. "If we didn't have the interception and the blocked punt, they (St. Joseph) would have been right in it. I don't think we played that well. I'm looking forward to the game with Hackensack."

For all intents and purposes, the game was history after just five minutes. The Bucs, eager to avenge the losses to Passaic and Ridgewood, were out for blood and found it rather quickly. Safety Mark Walsh intercepted a Pete Le Clair pass and returned it to the St. Joseph 29 to put the Bucs in business.

It was there that the "Silvestri Run" made its historic debut. Silvestri, of course, is Jim Silvestri, the Belleville High AD. Following the interception, Silvestri said, "Mike, on the first play, Murphy is going to break it for a touchdown over right tackle."

Sure enough, on the first play, Murphy took a handoff from Walsh and ran around right tackle, 29 yards for a score. The red hot Steve Mulhearn added the conversion and it was quickly, 7-0.

It took just two minutes for the scoreboard to light up again. The Buccaneer defense poured through the line to block a St. Joseph punt, putting the ball on the visitors 23 yard line. On the first play, Murphy carried 18 yards to the five and on the second, Frank Tursi carried over from the five yard line. Mulhearn added conversion number two and Belleville was ahead, 14-0.

No sooner had that happened did Belleville score again. Following a short St. Joseph punt, the Bucs started from the visitor 42. Murphy carried for eight yards to the 34 and junior halfback John Oliveri, playing for the injured Bill Baber, scampered 30 yards to the four. From there, it was Murphy, breezing over from the four and Belleville, following Mulhearn's conversion, led, 21-0.

It appeared the game might match the 63-0 count that appeared on the scoreboard at BHS exactly six years ago, but St. Joseph finally decided to stop playing like its 1-5 record might indicate. "I don't know what it is," said Senesky. "Any team we play is always up for us. St. Joseph did things against us that we didn't see in any films. Look at Ridgewood a few weeks ago. They haven't played anywhere near that level ever since their game with us. When a team plays Belleville, they're always at their best."

The St. Joseph defense, which Murphy appeared to be heading for a 300 yard day against suddenly stiffened. It held Murphy under the 100 yard mark for the evening and stalled the seniors 1,000 yard for the season party. Murphy needs 115 yards to break the 1,000 yard mark for the second straight year. He'll probably break the mark this week against Hackensack.

St. Joe's showed some good power running by Steve Solar, Bob Hastings and Mike Neglia to keep in respectable distance.

The Bucs final score before half-time came when Murphy tackled Le Clair in the end zone for a safety. The Bucs went into the lockerroom with a 23-0 lead.

In the third quarter, Belleville added its final score of the evening very quickly. On the second half kickoff, Oliveri picked up the ball on his 17 and raced 83 yards for a score. It was the first time a Belleville runner had returned a kickoff for six since Jeff Walsh turned the trick in a 1981 contest with Marist. Mulhearn added the kick and Belleville led, 30-0.

St. Joseph's only score came when Le Clair hit Gregory Wilson with a six yard strike early in the fourth quarter. The visitors attempt for the two point conversion failed and Belleville led, 30-6.

BHS Soccer Squad Endures Rough Week

By Mark Foley

It was a rather disappointing week for the Belleville soccer team, as the boys lost two games and tied a third to bring their record to 13-5-2.

The Buccaneers faced Elizabeth on Tuesday in the first round of the state playoffs and will travel to Nutley on Monday to wrap up their regular season schedule with the Maroon Raiders.

The most frustrating part the past week is that the Bucs were held without a goal for during the four games. Against Passaic the booters had the better of the play but were unable to convert any of their chances. The game's only goal was scored by Juan Peralta on an indirect kick with just over one minute left in the third quarter. Goalkeeper Brian Cook, who made 11 saves, and his defense were able to thwart the Indians the rest of the way, but the Bucs could not get their offense on track.

The match against Hackensack was almost a carbon copy. Belleville dominated the shooting by a ratio of two-to-one, including four breakaways, but consistently came just short of putting the ball into the net. Hackensack's Stuart Edwards tallied on a volley kick late in the fourth quarter to give the home team the victory.

Striker Santiago Borja returned to the lineup against Caldwell after a three game absence, but was unable to shake the Bucs out of their scoring drought. Belleville once again had command of the shots, 19-6, but were unable to get the ball over the goal line before the game was called after three quarters due to darkness.

"I said at the beginning of the year that offense wasn't our strongpoint," said Coach Tony DeAquino, "and unfortunately that's what the case is. They didn't play bad, in fact, I thought that they played better than they did in some of the games that we won earlier in the year. We just weren't getting the breaks. We've still got the states, and we'll have to see what we can do there."

THROW-INS: Cook is having an excellent season with a 1.20 goals-against average, six shutouts, and 137 saves. Columbia, who beat the Bucs 4-0 in the ECT semi-final, defeated Bloomfield, 3-1, to capture the Essex County Championship. Belleville finished second in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League's Division II with a 7-2-1 conference record. The division was won by 7-1-2 Ridgewood. The winners of the Belleville-Elizabeth game will face Bloomfield in the quarter-finals of the North Jersey Section II, Group IV State Championship.

Volleyball Wizards Preparing For Tough State Tournament

Practice was the order of the week for the Belleville volleyball squad as the wizards prepared for their opening match in the state tournament. Grace Worley's team started action against Clifton last Tuesday and if successful, will battle Paramus Catholic either today or tomorrow. For further information, you are advised to contact the High School.

The girls were expecting a difficult match with the Mustangs. Most fans will remember that it was Clifton that handed the Bucs their first loss of the 1983 season back in early October.

"They have improved since then, but so have we," said the ever opportunistic coach, Grace Worley. "We all know we should have won that match, so we're really ready for this one. In that first match, we ran out of gas. We had had a difficult week the week before and had to compete in a tournament on a Saturday. Then, on a Monday afternoon, we had to face Clifton. It was a tough stretch."

The girls were hoping to enter the match with all guns smoking, but might have a barrel missing as Debbie Worley, the team's best server and one of the most consistent players on the team, has been hampered with a painful arm injury.

"She'll play in the match, no doubt," said Worley. "We definitely need her, there is no replacement for Debbie. I'm just hoping she'll be up to the match. They've been doing therapy on the arm, but she's had trouble bending it and it's come down to a day to day thing."

If Worley is able to make it, the team had an excellent chance. She will join the set lineup of Faith Adams, Tracy Buono, Donna Brooks, Sheri Phelps and either Liz Goldrick or Kathy Kelleher. "We're going to stick with what we've gone with all year," said Worley.

The match with Paramus Catholic, should Belleville have gotten by Clifton has to be played by tomorrow afternoon. It will be held at Paramus Catholic and will once again be a tough match. Should the girls win there, they would face the winner of a round-robin competition that featured Teaneck, Bloomfield, Passaic and Dickinson of Jersey City. The semi finals of the state tourney are slated for Nov. 16, with the finals on Nov. 19 at Fair Lawn High School.

Rec Department Offering Men's Volleyball League

The Belleville Recreation Department is in the process of organizing a men's volleyball league, which will play its games on Tuesday nights at the Friendly House, beginning on Nov. 15.

Six teams are needed to form a league, with each team scheduled to play an opponent in a best-of-three games set every week. A maximum of 12 players will be allowed on each team roster, with each team must be composed of two-thirds Belleville residents. No entrance fee will be required, but teams are recommended to purchase colored team T-shirts for identification and scheduling purposes.

For further information and to obtain a roster form, please contact the Recreation Department at 759-3142. The registration deadline will be Nov. 15, so act now. Only the first six teams who submit completed rosters will be accepted.

High School Rivalries Seem To Be a Thing of the Past

As a lot of sports fans know, Belleville High School joined the NNJIL conference for the 1982-83 school year, the first time that Belleville has been a part of a conference since the 1977-78 school year. Becoming a part of the conference seemed to please coaches and players. No longer would there be a concern about scheduling and timing of events. The conference would see to it that each sport would compete against set teams and set days.

Last year, the conference worked well. Belleville was teamed with Passaic, Bloomfield, Nutley, Passaic Valley, Clifton, Montclair, Paterson Eastside and Paterson Kennedy. However, the powers to be decided that the NNJIL was too simple the way it was and that the conference should be realigned for the 1983-84 school year. Thus, after one year in the Passaic-Essex Division of the NNJIL, the league was reset with Belleville competing against such natural rivals as Teaneck, Ridgewood, St. Joseph's, Hackensack and Passaic.

Only Passaic seems to make sense in the new alignment. It's about time that the people who make up the leagues and the alignment take a hard look at the rivalries they are missing. A Belleville-Ridgewood or a Belleville-St. Joseph's game will not spur on a great deal of fan interest. First of all, St. Joseph's of Montvale is located near the end of the Garden State Parkway, North. There isn't much in common between the schools. The kids don't know each other, the fans really don't want to travel to the distance and the games don't seem to bring on a great deal of interest.

Ridgewood also is a good 30 minutes from Belleville. Did you ever try to travel to Teaneck or Hackensack for an afternoon tennis or cross country match? Forget about it. Route 4 in Teaneck and Hackensack is commonly known as the Parking Lot of Bergen County. When you sit on Route 4 at 4 p.m., you're going to sit.

When Belleville competed in the Big 10 Conference, it matched up against Montclair, Irvington, East Orange, Orange, Bloomfield, Columbia, Kearny, Nutley and Essex Catholic. There were some nice rivalries there. Belleville hardly ever plays Columbia any more. They never see West Orange, Caldwell, Verona, Cedar Grove or Glen Ridge. Well, the people who align the schools say that teams like West Orange, Caldwell, Verona, etc., are not Group IV schools, so Belleville really can't play them.

The bit about Group IV being stronger than Group I does get a bit silly. Have you ever seen Roselle High School, Group I school, play basketball? The chances are very good that Roselle could defeat 75 percent of the Group IV teams that would challenge it. While Group I and Group II schools do not have the enrollment that Belleville or Nutley might have, they certainly have the talent to match up with some of these schools.

Glen Ridge boasts one of the stronger sports programs in the area. They are about 10 minutes away, if that far, right off Bloomfield Avenue. Columbia High School is right down the Garden State Parkway, approximately 15 minutes away. Columbia is a Group IV school and has an excellent sports program. Belleville doesn't play them, unless it's in a tournament or something out of the ordinary. While Belleville is playing Ridgewood and Hackensack, Columbia is playing Roxbury, Scotch Plains and Parsippany. It doesn't take a geographical genius to understand that rivalries miles, miles and miles apart do not churn up a great deal of fan interest.

What would be wrong with a nine-team conference featuring Belleville, Nutley, Bloomfield, Columbia, West Orange, Glen Ridge, Kearny, Montclair and Caldwell. All those schools are certainly within a reasonable driving distance. There would be some fine natural rivalries. All the schools have a strong sports reputation. West Orange won a Group championship in basketball last year, Glen Ridge has a solid baseball team, Caldwell has always boasted a good sports program both boys and girls. A setup like that, or something similar, would be healthy for all involved. The schools are all top notch and the programs would really be helped a great deal. There are some great rivalries right under our noses. Maybe one day, the powers to be will see this and return the sports to the field, instead of the board room.

Speaking of natural rivalries, can't help but wonder why the NFL continues to mix some of the best games money can buy. The Jets and Giants play once every three years, if they're lucky. The Redskins and Colts play once every three years, if they too, are lucky. Baltimore and Washington are about 40 minutes apart. Don't even mention the Jets and Giants, starting next season, they will be a lockerroom apart.

Take a look at the NFC East. In that division are the Giants, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Dallas and Washington. The Giants, Philly and Washington are good rivalries. Why St. Louis and Dallas are in the east, one will never know. Over in the NFC West, there is Los Angeles, San Francisco, New Orleans and Atlanta. New Orleans is south and Atlanta is about as west as Montclair. Since the NFL is one league any way, wouldn't it be nice to see the divisions realigned, so that the team will play more games against teams that will be a bigger draw.

A proposed six-division alignment would look something like this. In Division A, you would have the Giants, Jets, Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore. Could you see the Giants and Jets playing for a division crown the final week of the season, having already played each other earlier in the year. You wouldn't be able to get near the place. How about Washington and Baltimore battling for a playoff spot in the 15th week of the season. The fans would flock to see the game. It's a natural rivalry.

Division B would feature teams from the southern part of the country. How about Tampa Bay, Miami, New Orleans and Atlanta. Tampa Bay and Miami have played only twice in their history. Seems a bit silly for two teams located about one hour apart, by car, Atlanta and New Orleans is a tough rivalry, always has been.

The third division would be the biggest, a six-team Western Conference, Conference C. This would feature Los Angeles Rams, San Francisco, Los Angeles Raiders, San Diego, Denver and Seattle. Anyone of those teams could win the division here. A San Diego-Rams game would be a big draw. So would a 49er-Raider game. Once again, two natural draws, but they don't play except once every three years.

In Division D, you would have the colder climates, teams like Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cincinnati and New England. These are all AFC teams, but unless they play in the playoffs, a lot of them don't play each other every season. Buffalo and Pittsburgh would be a nice game, especially in the trenches come mid-December. However, they are in two different conferences.

Division E would have Houston, Dallas, Kansas City and St. Louis. Houston and Dallas, no question about that rivalry. Kansas City and St. Louis, once again, no question, a big game. A game like Kansas City and St. Louis, even if both teams are out of the playoff run, would still generate fan interest because both teams are pretty close.

Finally, Division F would have Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Green Bay. That is basically the NFC Central with Tampa Bay excluded.

If the NFL does consider expanding, it should look into realigning the conferences so a few more rivalries could be exposed. Who would you rather see in a late season game, St. Louis and the Giants, or the Giants and Jets. You make the choice.

The answer to last week's quiz. The question was, when was the last time the Pittsburgh Steelers won a playoff game. The answer: In 1979, the Steelers defeated the Houston Oilers, 27-13 to advance to the Super Bowl. There, the Steelers defeated the Rams, 31-19.

For this week's quiz, as everyone knows, the 1982 NFL season was hit by a strike. When the season resumed, the playoff format was somewhat changed. Eight teams from each conference went to the playoffs. Can you name the first round playoff matches in both the NFC and AFC, along with the scores?

Club Manager who is directing the competition, Vic Capcino, under the sanction of the Middle Atlantic Amateur Boxing Federation, said the next round will be fought tonight. Pat Duffy is chairman of the tournament.

WBA heavyweight titlist Gerrie Coetzee will undergo surgery on his right shoulder. Coetzee said the injury is an old one and was aggravated in his bout against Michael Dokes when he KO'd Dokes to capture the title in September in Richfield, Ohio. Doctors have told Coetzee the operation will not affect his hitting power. He said, "After the operation I am going to pressure WBC champion Larry Holmes for a title unification showdown."

ESPN Cablevision presented co-feature 10-rounders at the Cape Cod (Mass.) Coliseum that is still being raved about by the fight beat set. In the first 10-rounder veteran junior welterweight Dick Eklund, 19-8, used his nine years' experience in the fight racket to take a unanimous decision over Terry Crawley, 7-4-1. The other 10'er saw durable welterweight Sean Mannion come from behind to cop a close split decision from Danny Chapman. Mannion, ranked No. 3 by WBA, upped his record to 34-4-1. Chapman dropped to 12-9, but demonstrated he's a much better fighter than his record indicates. Promoter Jim Troy accomplished a good job for the fans in matching four evenly paired battlers.

Norman Conrad, who fought many outstanding light heavyweights, was severely injured in a car accident in Maine several months ago and remains hospitalized.

Rocky Marciano (Rocco Marchegiano) was born and raised in Brockton, Mass., on Sept. 1, 1924. He weighed 184 pounds. Was managed by Al Weill. An all-around athlete, he was an outstanding football and baseball player in high school, and was given tryout as a catcher with the Chicago Cubs farm team at Fayetteville, N.C. The war cut short his baseball career, he served overseas with an amphibious unit. Rocky started boxing while at Fort Lewis, Washington. He went on to the National A.A.U. championships in Portland, Ore., in 1945 where he knocked out four of his opponents in two nights but broke his hand in doing so. Rocky turned professional March 17, 1947. He fought until he retired undefeated on April 27, 1956.

Up to this date Rocky remains the only undefeated world heavyweight champion who retired while still the champion. He was elected to the Boxing Hall of Fame in 1959. Killed in an airplane accident in Newton, Iowa, August 31, 1969, the eve of his 46th birthday. The Brockton Blockbuster, a highly-respected Italian-American leaves an outstanding boxing record: in 49 bouts he had 43 knockouts and six decisions.

WBC featherweight titleholder Hector "The Clutch" Camacho screamed from his home in the Spanish Harlem section of New York, "I resent being called 'The Clutch.' My name is Hector 'Macho' Camacho. I'm now the Macho Man." Unbeaten Camacho added, "Now that Sugar Ray Leonard is retired, I consider myself boxing's new 'king of charisma.' The people hear about me, now they clamor to see me."

Promoter Dan Duva of Main Events Inc., has the promotional rights to WBA junior welterweight contender Johnny Bumphus of Nashville, Tenn. (Lou Duva and Shelly Finkel are managers), and has been trying to get champion Aaron Pryor to defend against Bumphus for a mandatory title fight next year. Pryor said he was not interested in fighting Bumphus, only Ray Mancini. Pryor also stated he will retire if he can't get a fight with Mancini (nobody in boxing believes him). If he does retire WBA could declare the title vacant and match Bumphus and No. 2 ranked Sang-Ho Lee to bang it out for the title.

When we wrote boxing promoter Don King was entering into the music promoting business, many in the fight biz answered, "No way." King just announced he has convinced the hottest name in music to rejoin with his family. You can expect an official announcement, "The Jackson Five are back together and will go on the most extensive tour domestically and then international ever arranged." The tour and souvenir sales are expected to reach upward of $30 million. They don't call Don "King" for nothing!

Undefeated Nino La Rocco of Italy racked up his 54th straight victory by winning a unanimous 10-round decision over Harold Volbrecht of South Africa at San Remo, Italy. The 24-year-old WBC No. 2 ranked La Rocco is now in line for a shot at WBC welterweight champ Donald (Corba) Curry in January or early February.

Johnny Torres, former clever New Jersey fighting machine of Paterson, had been working with several of manager Dan Duva's leather pushers before they had a disagreement, has purchased the contracts of featherweight Diego Rosario of Paterson and junior lightweight Sal Cenicola of Paterson. Torres will manage and train the gladiators.

Al Moore, director of Lou Costello's Gym in Paterson, informs that he has been appointed Eastern booking agent for middleweight Mark Frazier; middleweight Mario Johnson; light heavyweight or cruiserweight Tim Miller and heavyweights Frank Farmer and Jesse Clark. Moore can be reached at (201) 881-9844.

One of the greatest amateur fighters we ever witnessed in action was Joe Carroll. He won every title he ever went after throughout the New England states including the Golden Glove welterweight championship. We just received word that Carroll has opened the Joe Carroll Gym at 1408 Steward Boulevard, Clearwater, Florida.

Frankie Capell formerly fought using the moniker of Frankie Campbell as a fighter and continued to get recognized later as a well-respected trainer. The one battle he helped to a title was Bobby Agrippino's very competent pugs.

Deanne Dempsey said at the New York restaurant, "Jack Dempsey was a New Yorker at heart though he came from the midwest (Colorado), it would be appropriate for Mayor Koch to have a plaque to be commemorated to the champ at Broadway and 49th Street, where the famous Jack Dempsey Restaurant was located for many years."

Girls Faced Rough Schedule

Future Looks Bright As Tennis Squad Completes Tough Season At 8-15-1

The Belleville tennis team concluded its season with an 8-15-1 mark, having played one of the toughest schedules in the area and having competed with a very young, inexperienced team.

What the girls did accomplish was playing against some of the better players this area can offer and there was steady improvement over the course of the year. "It was a real tough year, considering all the obstacles," said head coach Karen Fuccello, who has seen it all through 12 years of coaching tennis, basketball and track. "We didn't have a chance to practice that much because there were so many matches. When we didn't have a match, it usually rained, so we didn't have a chance to improve on our mistakes and get everything together."

There were still some fine performances on the court, most notably the play of first singles, Cheri Tillman. The junior was named to the first team, NNJIL Division II, for her 5-3 record in the conference. Overall, Tillman posted a 10-11 mark and should return in good form next fall. Cheri has been with the Bucs since her freshman year and has been playing with more consistency through the years.

Over at second singles was a familiar sight. Senior Dina De Aquino wrapped up a successful tennis career with a 5-3 mark in the conference and a 7-13 record overall. De Aquino was named to the second team, NNJIL Division II, and now will set her sights on the basketball court, where she hopes to challenge the 1,000 point mark. De Aquino is a natural, all around athlete. She is a competitive tennis player and her tough play on the tennis court should carry over to aggressive play on the basketball court.

Third singles player Janet Reiman posted a 6-17 mark. In her first year of varsity play, Reiman made some mistakes on the court, but she showed marked improvement and will be a big help to next years' squad.

First doubles player Desiree Johansen was named to the Honorable Mention, NNJIL Division II, for her play along with Mary Kudrack. Johansen posted a 10-15 record overall while Kudrack was 9-15. Both girls will be back next season.

Laura Caruso, Lori Terrell,

Angelo Greco, and Claudia Lara also competed in varsity matches during the season. Caruso and Terrell played a good deal at second doubles and could move up next season.

The schedule was certainly tough this year. Ridgewood, most notably, gave the girls some very difficult matches. "Other than Ridgewood, we did pretty well against the rest of the NNJIL," said Fuccello. "We were hoping for a .500 season, but we lost a few tough matches and the outside matches (outside the NNJIL) weren't as competitive as I might have liked."

So, the season is now history for the girls tennis team and most of the athletes will now take part in another sport. It wasn't a bad year, all things considered, but certainly Fuccello is hoping for a smoother road, schedule wise, come next fall.

Buccaneers Find a Few Future Running Backs

By Dino Ibelli

This past week was a good one for the Bucs, for a couple of reasons. First of all the game was a romp of 30-6 over St. Joseph's of Montvale and second, the Belleville Bucs have found some good runners for next season in Olivieri, Gibbons, and La Bruzza.

First this past game. "We lost our psychness after the first quarter," said junior guard John Apicella. "After scoring 21 points in four plays the line didn't open the holes."

We must agree that the adrenalin wasn't flowing after the first quarter, but it started up in the second half again. "They were dirty and cheap on the field" mentioned Bobby Charles, who is a junior center. Penalty yardage in the game totaled 200 yards and some were nullified.

Now for the second finding. Next year's team will have the experience with 15 starters coming back. "The main source is in the backfield" says Steve Kimble, who had his first varsity interception. "We have Olivieri, Gibbons, La Bruzza, Gizzo, and Walsh in the backfield." Everyone of these guys can run. Gibbons has been showing us nice running all season. La Bruzza for a little guy can run. Gizzo who is starting at rover this season, has some speed. The main guy will be John Olivieri. Olivieri got his first varsity touchdown on a kickoff return. "Ollie" amassed 183 yards in total, Saturday night. He made some cuts that would compare him to Lenny Mendola. It will be hard to replace Murphy but this future team has a good chance.

With these guys it brings us to how lucky coach Senesky has been with his running backs. We have had a fine line of running backs to include Lenny Mendola, Mike Nicosia, Paul Scheuplein, Mike Dalla Riva, Frank Fazzini, Jeff Walsh, Angelo Centanni, Mike Murphy, Rob Cancelliere, Billy Baber, and the future backs. This week's predictions: A game to build up the statistics.

Bucs Facts: Offensive player of the game goes to John Olivieri. When asked about his first varsity touchdown. He said, "I never saw the goal line, I kept running and it felt forever. It was a great feeling when all the guys jumped on me to congratulate me."

Defensively, it goes to Mark Walsh with an interception and nine total tackles and Anthony Tucci who also had an interception and eight total tackles. In the tackles race we have Mike Gibbons with 71, Dave Moreika with 68, Mark Walsh with 62, and Dominick Di Paolo with 56.

Cross Country Squad Concludes Year With State Tournament Competition

The Belleville cross country team closed out its 1983 campaign by competing in the State sectional championships last weekend in Elizabeth.

Next week, the Times will review the harriers 1983 season.

Head coach John Tosato brought five runners with him for the sectionals that were held at Warnaco Park. Four boys, Craig Burden, Bob Hutchinson, Ross De Meo and Billy Huamani, along with one girl, Patty Bliss, competed against the top runners in Group IV, Section II.

For Bliss, it marked the final race of a fine cross country career. The senior was a gutsy runner, a fine team leader and a durable athlete. She rarely missed a race or practice and possessed that certain intangible dedication. She wanted to win and her performances exemplified that.

Bliss placed 31st in her race, in a time of 21:59. She will now get ready for the indoor campaign, as will the boys who competed in the championships.

All four men, De Meo, Hutchinson, Huamani and Burden will be back next fall. The return of four promising runners should give Tosato hope for a very successful 1984 season. As for the race last Saturday, Hutchinson placed 49th in a time of 18:33, De Meo was 60th in 19:15, Burden took 61st in 19:16 and Huamani closed out the action in 69th place at 20:01.

"By the time the boys ran, the course was pretty soft," said Tosato. "The times weren't as fast all the way around. The winning time in the boys race was 16:07, which is not that fast for this type of race."

"The team worked hard, we practiced all week for the sectionals and I'm happy with the way we performed. We competed against some pretty good runners. I was very happy with the fact that Patty (Bliss) and Bob (Hutchinson) were able to beat some runners that had beaten them earlier in the season."

In addition to a strong race, Bliss was also named to the NNJL Division II second team. Hutchinson was named to the Honorable Mention in the same Division.

It was certainly a learning experience for the 1983 Bucs. However, the team found four strong runners along the way. Next week, in the recap, Tosato will discuss how his athlete should prepare for the 1984 cross country campaign.

Playoffs Are Ready To Start In Recreation Soccer League

The final weekend of regular season in the Belleville Recreation Soccer A League clearly indicated that the playoffs' championship will be up for grabs.

In action Saturday the Aztecs, coached by Greg Delmotte, were surprised by Jose Chafar's Lancers, 3-1. The Lancers had goals by Geraldito Ortiz (two) and Joe Chafar. The Aztecs' goal was scored by Scott Quilligan.

The upset-minded Toros, coached by Vincent Farina, played excellently and defeated Kevin Tice's Spurs, 3-0. Toros' goal went to Guido Aguiar, Vincent Farina and Harry Burbank.

On Sunday the Lancers defeated the Spurs 5-4 in an up and down contest. Lancers' goals were scored by Ken Sainez (three) and Joe Chafar (two). Chafar is the "A" Division scoring champion with 13 goals.

The Aztecs bounced back from their loss to defeat the Toros, 5-1. Aztecs' goals were scored by Gaetano Roucco (one), Scott Quil-ligan (one) and Roger Real, who finished second to Jose Chafar in the scoring race. Vincent Farina scored for the Toros.

Standings are as follows: Aztecs 5-1; Lancers 4-2; Spurs 2-4; and Toros 1-5. Leading scorers are Jose Chafar, 13, and Roger Real, eight.

In B Division action the Toros and Cosmos ended the regular season play in a tie for second place and played a game to determine second place. The Cosmos, coached by Frank Koch, with goals scored by Jimmy Napalitano (two), Renato De Leon (one) and Joe Citarella (one). The Toros, coached by Densley Fletcher, had a good game, getting two goals from Chris Marcantuono. Cosmos prevailed 4-2 and finished in second place.

In the first round of the playoffs, the third place Toros beat the Comets coached by George Escobar, 4-1. All four Toros' goals were scored by Chris Marcantuono and Robert Cetrulo scored for the Comets. The Toros meet the Cosmos in the semi-final round this weekend.

In other first round action Steve Vogel's Lancers convincingly out-scored Choi Do's Spurs, 6-0. The Lancers' goals were scored by Billy Kimble (four), Daren Lewis (one) and Vincent De Simone (one). The Lancers will meet the undefeated Aztecs in the second round while the Lancers will be looking for an upset over the second place Cosmos.

Exciting Play Dominates Recreation Football Action

There was a great deal of action last week in the Belleville Recreation Football League.

The Chargers defeated the Falcons, 20-0. On a pass from Bill Nehila to Marc Manara, the Chargers opened the scoring on the Falcons. Billy Nehila and Jeff Caruso finished out the scoring with a touchdown each. Ray Zamloot kicked an extra point for the Chargers.

The Bengals shutout the Jets, 12-0. A fine defensive game was played by both teams but it was the Bengals who prevailed in the fourth quarter of the game. Frank Wendling scored on a 30-yard bootleg run with five minutes remaining in the game to open up the scoring. Dan Viscel intercepted a pass from the Jets on the 50-yard line and returned it for a touchdown to finalize the scoring for the day.

The Steelers ramped the Steelers, 40-6. Billy Sypher and Joe Cerreto each scored two touchdowns each to pace the undefeated Chiefs to a 40-6 win over the Steelers. Doug Carroll and Ted Sochaski each caught a pass for a touchdown from Jeff Spilsbury. Nick Turano added three extra point runs.

The Steelers beat the Rams, 33-0. On the Steelers' first offensive play, Joel Nazario scored on a 55-yard run around left end, getting a block from end Carmen Pieterno to free him. Point after was also scored by Nazario. Craig Jackowski scored the second touchdown going 30 yards around right end on a reverse, getting blocks from quarterback John Napolitano and Joe Holland. The point failed. Hilary Debelak picked up a Rams' lateral and scampered 60 yards for the third touchdown. He also had the point after. Debelak also had an interception with a 10-yard return.

Ernie Brodie ran 50 yards around right end, scoring the fourth touchdown, getting blocks from Dean De Stefano and Michael Harvey. Joe Holland got the second interception with a 15-yard return. With 35 seconds remaining and the Rams threatening for the first time with the ball on the Steelers' one-yard line, Craig Jackowski picked off the Rams' pass and returned it 102 yards for the final score.

Officials Needed For Rec Sports

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking officials for its Senior Boys' Basketball League and its Men's Volleyball League, both of which play on Tuesday nights beginning at 6 p.m.

All interested people are urged to contact the Recreation office at 759-3142 as soon as possible for more information.

Life Is Tough When You Don't Have A Reverse

The owner of a new Volkswagen decided to pick up his car at the docks in one of our costal cities in order to avoid paying the shipping charge. He drove his car off the docks without receiving any instructions concerning the operation of the vehicle. He knew how to drive and that was all he figured he needed to know. At lunch time, he pulled up to a restaurant, turned off the ignition and went to eat.

When the young Volkswagen owner came back from lunch, he jumped into his shiny new car, and then he discovered that he couldn't find the reverse gear! Finally, he pushed the car manually into the street in order to continue on his way.

Actually, the Volkswagen did have a reverse gear. He just didn't know how to find it. You wouldn't buy a car without a reverse gear even if the manufacturer was willing to knock a thousand dollars off the sticker price.

Unfortunately, many people who wouldn't think of buying a car without a reverse gear try to conduct human relations without the will to back up or to go in reverse for the sake of harmony. Marriages break up, friendships are severed, and churches fall apart simply because stubborn people won't back up. We dig our feet in the ground and just absolutely refuse to say things like "I was wrong" or "I am sorry" or "It's my fault, why don't we just back up and start over?"

The Bible identifies this destructive behavior trait of stubbornness and pride and warns, "Pride goes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall." (Proverbs 16:18.) This passage implies that you need reverse in your relationship as much as you need it in your car.

Some of you may be faced with the problem of first getting into low gear. The answer is not complex. Believe that God loves you and that the Lord Jesus Christ died on the cross just for your sins, and was raised up again for your justification. Invite Him to come into your life today. (Isaiah 55:6.) This will put you in first gear, and then when problems come you will be able to back up and say with God's help, "I am sorry, please forgive me." But remember life is tough when you don't have a reverse.

Homecoming Couple

Good Looking Pair — Belleville High School seniors, Susan Mostillo and Carmen Cerreto, who will serve this Saturday afternoon as the school's Homecoming Queen and King, posed for this picture in front of the high school earlier this week. The homecoming festivities will take place during halftime of the Belleville-Hackensack football game.

Commissioners Table Bill Concerning BRDA's Power

He said some municipalities deal with the division of authority by entering a contract with the local redevelopment agency, which spells out how they will interact on projects.

When asked how the Belleville panels might handle a disagreement over the fate of a specific project, Nardachone said at this stage it would depend on the project.

State law grants wide powers to municipal redevelopment agencies. They may enter contracts, sue and be sued, take possession of condemned properties, among others.

ASK YOUR REALTOR

By Jan Zepka

If you've never owned a home before, perhaps your main concern in buying one is whether or not you would qualify for a mortgage loan. If so, look at your credit rating as a lender would for the answer.

A bank or mortgage company would be discouraged if you are chronically late with other payments. They would also be concerned if you request extensions on those payments and how often, and whether you were involved in garnishments or bankruptcy.

Lenders look primarily at your credit performance for the three years preceding your application for the loan. If you're aware of an unfavorable report on your record by a recent creditor, you're better off coming to terms with it before you apply for the mortgage.

If you have any questions at all regarding your credit standing, you'd be wiser checking on it yourself before filing a loan application.

Federal law permits you any information you may need regarding your credit rating. In most cases, if you apply in writing to your local credit bureau, presenting identification and a small fee, you will receive the same information that would be sent to a lender.

You could check with the major lenders in this area to see which credit agency they use, then apply to the same for your own personal credit report.

Keep in mind, too, that your employment record will play a major role in the decision of the loan. Lenders will check how long you've been with your present employer. Job-hoppers are considered risks unless there is definite evidence that income has steadily increased with each change, and that each change is within the same field.

Dear Homeowners,
As you may already know, we have been in the home improvement business in this area for several years with 95% of our jobs being acquired strictly on a referral basis. We have found this to be a very rewarding as well as successful method of conducting business, one which has led us to a position where we can now provide our "referral oriented workmanship" as well as handle your financial needs all under one roof. As a result of these positive developments, we have established a small showroom and office, and it would be my pleasure to meet with you there to provide information on the construction methods and materials we shall supply.
If it would be more convenient for you to have us visit your home to discuss your home improvement needs, simply call our office to arrange an appointment.

Sincerely,
J. Kelly, Inc.
