Head Injury Association Helps Resident Recover

By Linda Telesco

George Martucci sat quietly in the warm living room of his Tappan Avenue home as he glanced toward his wife, Henrietta, who swayed in her rocking chair.

"I sometimes feel my son died. He died five years ago," said Martucci.

But Jimmy Martucci, 32, sat on the sofa only a few feet away from his parents.

The elder Martucci voiced the sense of loss often felt by relatives when a loved one suffers a life-altering head injury. "He's just not like the son I had. He'll never be the same again," said the father.

Until five years ago, Jimmy was like any other handsome, active young man. Then one November night, everything changed.

Jimmy, then 26, had worked a full day at his job as a maintenance mechanic for K-Mart in North Bergen. That night, he went out partying as he loved to do.

"I really overdid it and fell asleep at the wheel of the car while I drove home," he explained in an interview last week. Jimmy was seriously injured in the resulting car accident that occurred on Route 3 in Clifton.

Comatose and paralyzed on his left side, the young man was hospitalized for nearly a year after the accident. The family faced a myriad of conflicting reports from doctors.

Some predicted Jimmy would never walk again, but he walks and talks and is generally functional. However, he is a victim of what the National Head Injury Association calls "the silent epidemic."

According to Shielah Bowden, chairwoman of an Essex County chapter of the NHIA, head injuries can be very devastating to the victim and the affected families.

"Many times the injured person can look and seem normal and appear to have recovered from other accident injuries, but they often cannot return to their full level of functioning and may never regain the personality they once had. It can be like living with a stranger," she explained.

Victims often suffer memory loss and weak attention spans, often causing them to quit jobs or school.

The need to cope prompted two fathers of head injured children to establish last year a New Jersey division of the National Organization formed in 1980.

Presently the Essex County chapter, which serves families like

New Rent Ordinance Expected Monday

Town Fathers are expected to introduce a revised rent control ordinance at their session this Monday.

Meeting with members of the Rent Leveling Board in the Nov. 21 caucus, Commissioners directed township attorney Frank Zinna to draft the ordinance with its seven new additions, some of them altered still more at the recent meeting. The ordinance will be presented for first reading at the Dec. 5 Commission meeting at Town Hall.

Most significant is a proposal to reduce the current ceiling on permitted annual increases from 6 percent to 4 and 3 percent.

Rent Board Chairman Ron Platt explained, "When heating costs rise, landlords come in requesting increases so they can meet the expenses." He noted that since fuel costs have decreased in the past two years, the 6 percent increase should be reduced accordingly.

The board proposed to set the ceiling at 4 percent in units where heat is supplied and 3 percent in units where tenants supply their own heat.

"I'm in favor of lowering the ceiling," said Commissioner Joseph Grande. "When does the working guy get a break?"

However, Commissioner Matthew Pica cautioned that before the measure is adopted, the committees should review the number of tax appeals filed on local properties.

Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevy informed him that all township apartment owners went in for tax appeals last year, a circumstance Pica fears could seriously detract from local values.

The Rent Board also proposed to adjust further an amendment that would require owners or managers of multiple dwelling units to file an annual statement indicating the rent for each unit and any changes incurred since the prior filing.

Initially, the RLB proposed a $5 fee to accompany the filing, but board member Danny Del Tufo suggested charging $1 per unit for each filing. "It's unequal to charge owners of large complexes the same as owners of small ones," said Del Tufo, commenting on the quantity of paperwork involved.

Another change was inserted in the proposed amendment for vacancy decontrol. Under the new terms, a landlord would be permitted a 15 percent increase in rent on an apartment vacated. That hike would include the annual rent increase permitted the landlord and would be the only increase allowed on the specific unit for the period of the year,

Knights Hosting Annual Blood Bank on Dec. 8

The Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 will hold its annual Eugene "Cappy" Barnett blood bank, Thursday, Dec. 8 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 94 Bridge St., starting from 3 p.m. until 7 p.m.

In the 1940s the late town clerk Eugene Barnett founded the Knights of Columbus blood bank that now bears his name. Over the years, the North Jersey Blood Center, which collects and processes the blood for Council 835, have released thousands of pints of blood to help save the lives of Knights, their families and others like police and firemen who have donated to the blood bank.

According to Jerry Hickey, blood bank chairman, in addition to people locally, the blood will also help benefit hemophiliacs, leukemia patients and other large blood users in hospitals anywhere in the United States.

Unusual demands for the blood since the beginning of the year have depleted the blood banks supply so now there is a critical need for donors. All persons are urged to donate their blood so others may live.

Hawthorne Unanimous Selection School Board Appoints New School 7 Principal

By Ed Capparucci

The Belleville Board of Education voted Monday night to appoint Marilyn Hawthorne, a teacher at School 3, as the new principal of School 7, effective Dec. 12.

Miss Hawthorne, who has been a member of the Belleville school system for more than 20 years, will be replacing Michael Rosamilia, who announced his retirement two months ago.

By an unanimous 7-0 vote, the School Board made Miss Hawthorne the second woman administrator in the district. She joins Marilyn McGrath, vice principal at the senior high school as the only two women presently serving in administrative positions in the Belleville school district.

"I am very excited and enthusiastic about receiving this post," Miss Hawthorne said in an interview Tuesday afternoon. "I am very anxious to get started in the position and I am very thankful to be given the opportunity by the Board of Education."

A product of the Belleville school system, and graduate of Belleville High School, Miss Hawthorne earned her bachelor degree from Kean College in elementary education and her masters from Seton Hall in administration and supervision.

She first entered the Belleville school district in 1962, serving as a second grade teacher at School 1. In 1966 a post opened at School 3 and she became a third grade teacher at the school. Since that time she has taught at each elementary level and in all subject matter, including piano and photography courses.

"I am most appreciative of all the help and encouragement I received during my years at School 3 and I have established many friendships there," Miss Hawthorne said. "Mr. (Austin) MacArthur has displayed outstanding leadership at the school and I have to thank him for all his help. I am leaving an excellent school and going to another excellent school. I am looking forward to the challenge very much."

School Board Vice President Thomas Spillane said that Hawthorne was one of 18 applicants who applied for the post.

"The board did not conduct interviews for this position, but instead went on the recommendation of the administration," Spillane said. "Last year we did interview Miss Hawthorne for the high school's vice principal post, but we were concerned with her lack of experience in secondary education and gave the position to Marilyn McGrath. But I, along with other members of the board, were very impressed with her and I think that she will do an excellent job at School 7. She has been involved in elementary education for the past 20 years and having her as principal of School 7 is going to be a big plus for our school system."

Board President Grace Purdue agreed with Spillane's evaluation of Miss Hawthorne's abilities.

"I think the selection of Miss Hawthorne as principal of School 7 is an excellent choice," she said. "The woman has proven herself as being very capable and I believe she will relate very well to the children. I am also happy to see that the appointment was a woman."

Rosamilia, who has served as principal of School 7 for the past six years, is retiring after spending 34 years in the Belleville school system, including two as acting superintendent of schools. During his long and fruitful career in the Belleville school system, Rosamilia wore many hats including crew coach, guidance counselor, assistant superintendent of schools and elementary school principal.

"Mr. Rosamilia is a very kind, warm and intelligent person," said Hawthorne. "He has always been very generous in offering help and I am looking forward to working with him during our transition period."

Volunteer Enjoys Helping Others

By Karl Greene

The Red Cross functions primarily through the efforts of its many volunteers. Some of these dedicated workers have donated their time and talents for a good number of years. One such person is Lillian Metcalfe of Belleville.

Lillian first became associated with the Red Cross about 35 years ago when, as a Girl Scout leader, her troop was taught first aid. She started teaching that and then switched to a pilot program for children patients at the old Soho Hospital in Belleville. This project, for children with TB, was eliminated and the children sent back to the Sanatorium in Verona.

Mrs. Metcalfe then began her long association with the VA Medical Center in East Orange. For about 20 years she took two buses each way to perform her volunteer duties. She is a good example of great devotion to the veterans, and love of her job. The Red Cross has furnished volunteers to the VA Medical Center since it opened about 31 years ago, and Lillian has worked there all that time. She received a 30th anniversary service award from the center last year.

Lillian and her husband Robert will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary next June. He is a member of the Belleville and Nulty Old Guard chapters.

Thomas Terzo Elected Self-Insurers' President

Thomas P. Terzo, a former Belleville resident, has been elected president of the New Jersey Self-Insurers' Association by its Board of Governors.

The New Jersey Self-Insurers' Association is an organization of approximately 60 prominent firms in New Jersey who are self-insured for Workers' Compensation. These member firms and their subsidiaries comprise over 70 percent of the self-insured manufacturing, public utility and retail trade and service firms, and employ over one-quarter million people in the State of New Jersey.

Terzo, manager of Workers' Compensation, joined Ingersoll-Rand Company, Phillipsburg, in May 1974, as administrator of Workers' Compensation and became manager of Workers' Compensation in December 1975.

A graduate of the Class of 1963 from Belleville High School, he graduated from Rutgers University and earned his master's degree at New York University.

Many severe back problems originate with or are aggravated by slippery streets and sidewalks that make walking a hazard. Ice, snow or any slick wet surface may cause people to slip and fall, or almost fall. Whatever the cause, the result is often a sore back.

A slip that causes wrenching of the back may result in over-stretching of muscles and ligaments. This in turn can cause a spinal misalignment or, equally serious, the aggravation of any minor misalignment that may have been present for some time.

Chiropractic spinal manipulation is an effective treatment for such types of injuries. For natural, drug-free chiropractic treatment, please see.

In the aftermath of criminal tampering with some over-the-counter (OTC) drugs, the Food and Drug Administration issued new regulations. Those OTC drugs manufactured after May 5, 1983, have to be packaged in containers that are tamper-resistant. Those in the industry call them "tamper-evident" because the packaging makes it evident to the consumer if someone has tried to open it. By February 5, 1984, all non-exempt OTC products in stores are supposed to be in tamper-resistant containers. Old merchandise is to be removed, recalled or repackaged. These steps have been taken to assure consumers of safety when taking OTC drugs.

Will Ease Overcrowding Problem School Board Trustees Give Approval For Two Mobile Trailer Classrooms

By Ed Capparucci

Looking to make more room available for the crowded special education classes at the senior high school, members of the School Board voted 6-1 Monday night to have two mobile trailer classrooms installed on the high school grounds.

The trailers will house five classes a day averaging 20-25 students per class, thus opening up two classrooms in the high school, which will be used for special education programs.

Board members stressed that the trailers are only a temporary solution to the overcrowding problem which they hope will be solved by next September.

"We have decided to construct three classrooms and a guidance suite onto the high school," said board president Grace Purdue. "This we hope will solve the overcrowding problem with the special education students at the high school. Several bids on the construction of the classrooms are being evaluated at the present time and we hope that construction can start soon so that we will have the classrooms available by September of the next year."

"This is an emergency situation facing us and the special education program," said Trustee Gabe Nazziola. "Special ed students had been using a small resource room where three or four groups have been receiving instruction at the same time. Something had to be done and it had to be done quickly. This is our best alternative."

The trailers, which were purchased from the Mobile Field Office Company, will cost the board an estimated $6,500, for the next seven months. The renting cost for each trailer is $375 per month, and installation cost will run about $2,500.

The lone opposing vote to the installing of the trailer classrooms came from Trustee Charles Miele, who said he wanted some more questions answered before voting yes.

"How can I vote yes for something which I know hardly anything about," he told his colleagues. "We do not know what type of enclosure there will be for the children, if the trailers will receive fire department approval or about the amount of power which is needed to operate them. I feel the board needs the answers to these questions before giving its approval."

But Trustee Anthony D'Agostino

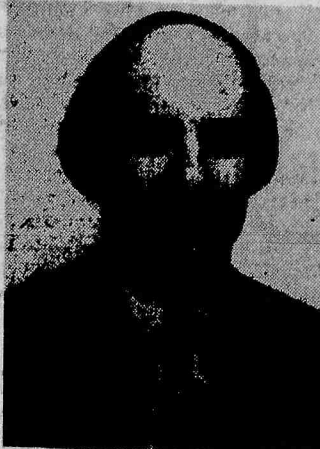

said the trailers were the board's final alternative.

"There are simply no empty classrooms available in the high school and as a last resource we must use these structures," he said. "There is a severe overcrowding situation involving the special education students and the administration has been over every part of the high school looking for more space and they have told us there is none to be found. Considering the fact at hand we have determined that this is our best bet. I am against trailers, but this is our last resource. What's left, tents?"

Nazziola told board members it has their obligation to listen to the outcry of the public.

"We have an obligation to respond to the public's concern," he said, "and the situation involving the special education children has been a top priority of many people. We would look kind of foolish if we turned a deaf ear to the communities' needs."

Martin Luther King

At long last the Congress of the United States has passed a law establishing a holiday to honor the memory of Martin Luther King.

President Ronald Reagan indicated he would sign the measure because of its "symbolic significance."

There is resentment in some quarters over the action of the Congress. Some Senators and Congressmen were opposed outright to the holiday declaration. There were still others who thought the holiday should fall on a Sunday so that it would not be a paid holiday for federal employees. The significance of Martin Luther King's life on this planet is not a symbol. Martin Luther King was more than a symbol. He was a leader of a people who were entitled to every right granted by the constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Martin Luther King lead the non-violent fight for the black person to be treated equally. Even today, the wheels of justice grind slowly. The Constitution of the United States guarantees that every American is entitled to equal rights. Despite this guarantee, many laws have been passed to insure that the black person receives rights which whites take for granted.

The rights of the black person have been trampled upon ever since the beginning of this democracy. Over a period of 200 years the black person is still fighting for the rights guaranteed under the constitution.

The declaration of a Martin Luther King national holiday will remind us at least once a year that our black brethren were unequal partners in the development of this great country. They have felt the heel of oppression and bear the scars of discrimination. A Martin Luther King national holiday is a small comfort to those among us who must live out there in the real world day after day in the full knowledge that a Nation under God in some ways continues to treat some among us as second class citizens. In doing so we brutalize ourselves.

Every person is entitled to his or her self-esteem, dignity, and self-respect. The declaration of a national holiday in memory of Martin Luther King is a giant step forward in recognizing the continuing needs of our country to provide justice for all.

Kean — Big Cities

Last week Gov. Thomas Kean promised he would ask the legislature to pass a supplemental appropriation bill designating $5 million additional state aid to the big cities to provide the money to fund the police and fire departments.

It was only last week the strident voices of Republican candidates for Senate and Assembly were advising voters throughout the state — especially in our Legislative District — "Stop sending your tax money to Newark and Camden. We should keep it here in our own town." These positions were taken with the knowledge and approval of the Kean administration.

Thomas Kean stood next to candidates who were giving voice to this line — asking voters to elect them in order to assist Kean in adopting Republican sponsored legislature.

Maybe these candidates were making a good point. Why should the Senator and the two Assemblymen representing us vote to send $5 million to the big cities for police and fire support when there is no provision to give our police and fire departments a dime? Doesn't simple justice dictate the suburban communities get a few bucks too? The suburbs do not have a problem meeting their tax bills.

We believe the big cities should be aided in their efforts to protect lives and property with a adequate police and fire departments — but so, too, should the suburban communities receive their proposed share of state aid for the same purposes. And it behooves Thomas Kean to include in his message to the legislature a direction to provide a measure of state aid to suburbs like Nutley and Belleville, if Thomas Kean decides to seek reelection in 1985, he should be in a position to tell the voters of our communities that he did not neglect our taxpayers who must assume their police and fire tax burden.

Letters in Print Reader Was a Fan Of Old School Rivalries

To the editor:

Mike Lamberti's latest column, in which he severely criticized the lack of conference rivalries, was well taken. However, there was poor research. In the spring of this year, the West Orange Board of Education voted to close West Orange High and make it a middle school effective June 1984. The high school students will go to Mountain, a school off Pleasant Valley Way, near Eagle Rock Avenue and Essex Green.

Do you like "Cheers," a very funny sitcom? The theme song mentions that you'd like to go "where everybody knows your name." This should be a theme song at next restructuring.

I went to Northeastern Bible College in Essex Fells from 1964-69 and want to return to Jersey. Those days there was continuity. In even years Belleville would play Bloomfield at Foley, Nutley would be at Belleville Municipal Stadium, Foley play Montclair in Oval and end season in Kearny. Bloomfield would have the Bengals invade Woodman for the Montclair game. In odd years, Bloomfield would come to Belleville Municipal Stadium, while Bellboys invade Oval to play Maroon. Maroon would go to Woodman to play tough Mounties while Bloomfield and Kearny visit the Oval. When the Big Ten was terminated, so was continuity.

Since 1980, Montclair hasn't had the same rivals all grid seasons. Bloomfield has only played Clifton all those years. Nutley only has Belleville who only has Passaic, Nutley and Kearny. And you even wanted Belleville in Iron Hills-Roxbury, Morris Knolls and Morristown? — long trips — who knows of Belleville.

Yours truly,
George R. Rosner
53 So. Partition St.

Mary Says Thank You

To The Editor:

I would like to sincerely thank the Belleville Democratic Committee, Mayor Mike Marotti, and the Town Commissioners, for their support in this past general election on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

Thanks to the voters for their full confidence shown to the A-line candidates. It was a Great Victory!

Sincerely,
Mary V. Senatore
Democratic Chairman

High School Students Thank Fund Raisers

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the parents of the high school students who have already sent in their $2 "one time donation" toward our fund raisers for the year.

If you have not yet sent in your money, please take an envelope now and let your child bring it to his first period teacher with "Mrs. Anna Marie Perna" written on it.

Please don't forget, we need as much support from the parents as we can get. We need your help! Please.

All fund raisers benefit your child or children as well as the next person.

Thank you,
Mrs. Anna Marie Perna
First Vice President

Golden Comments

By James Golden

Persistent reports of dissension and strife keep emanating after meetings of the local Italian-American group sessions, giving indications of a power struggle within the ranks over control of the organization.

Reports suggest that a recent meeting of the body erupted into a shouting match that might have ended with fisticuffs had not restraints been applied by cooler heads among the group.

Dissident segments apparently warring over the suspicion that political considerations are being injected into the affairs and policies of the organization, protest the stepped-up activities of once dormant members in offering opposition to the then unchallenged rule of the reigning coterie.

Back in early spring of this year, a ruckus ensued over membership acceptance of a political candidate seeking local office; the latest hassle concerns selection of the organization's president, one of the candidates of whom is a public office holder.

It is fortunate that, according to related accounts, the presiding officer, Mr. Simeone, saw fit to declare the bellicose meeting adjourned at the point whereby physical restraints became necessary to keep antagonists apart.

It is most regrettable that such internecine dissent should sunder the local unit of the Italian-American Organization. Immediate steps must be instituted to ameliorate and resolve this unfortunate rift. Should the divergent factions be unable to peacefully settle their differences, then state or national officers might be called upon to bring peace to the Belleville Chapter of this fine national organization.

Perhaps it's the turbulence of the times in our troubled world, but there seems to also be disgruntlement among some elements of the two rival senior citizen groups over use of the town's building on Franklin Avenue dedicated for senior citizen activities.

Seems both groups have grown in membership that exceeds the fire department limitations allowed for attendance in the structure, which is causing problems. Many of them have a way of plaguing the town fathers beset with pleas to find a solution.

Weight watchers take note: The American Medical Association reports that if you want to lose a pound, you have to eat 3,500 fewer calories than you use, or use 3,500 more calories than you eat. You constantly use calories, even when you're asleep.

Yes walking has value in improving health of heart and lungs and offers value in improving suppleness of joints and in improving muscle power, however, a 20-minute easy walk uses 60 calories. If everything else stayed the same, but you took a 20-minute walk every day for the next two months, you'd lose a pound. On the other hand, if you decided to reward yourself with a bottle of beer after every walk, you'd gain a pound — even with the walking.

Republican U.S. Senator Robert Dole, a Republican Senate Finance Committee chairman, has a plan to cut the budget deficit. He wants to reduce cost-of-living adjustments on Social Security payments — except those linked to poverty programs — by 2.5 percentage points while producing a 2.5 percent annual increase in personal taxes. In other words, if senior citizens aren't at the poverty level, they get cut out of Medicare and cost of living increases to keep up with inflation...How ruthless can the Republicans be when it comes to elderly citizens?

Field Trip — Seventh grade students at Belleville Middle School recently visited the Hackensack meadowlands. Several of them peer into the Hackensack River which abounds with aquatic life. All of them soon came to realize that the meadowlands means more than professional sports teams, arenas and racetracks.

Seventh Graders Learn Meadowlands Is Being Destroyed by Careless People

By John Cerza

The seventh grade science classes of Mrs. Perkins visited the Hackensack Meadowlands Development Commission and saltmarsh. The purpose of this trip was to inform us about how the meadowlands is being destroyed by garbage dumps and the carelessness of people.

Many people think the only thing living in the meadowlands is the Giants and Cosmos, but that's untrue. These marshes contain natural beauties such as birds, animals and plants. This place supplies these animals with food, homes, resting areas and protection. The meadowlands is an estuary which is an area where salt and fresh water meet.

As the bus approached the marshes, the students could smell the stench and odor of the garbage dumps. When they got there, they saw a slide show about the animals that lived there. Then the students climbed the "artificial" mountain made of garbage and headed for the Hackensack River. On the way, they occasionally stopped to get a closer look at the beauty through their binoculars, supplied by the HMDC. Through the binoculars, the students saw ducks, terns, gulls, hawks and falcons. They also learned about many of the plants that could be seen with the help of Jim and Vivian, their guides throughout the trip.

When they arrived at the Hackensack River, two of the students put on boots and went into the water with a seine. Meanwhile, the others were searching for fiddler crabs. In the net they found grass shrimp, kil-lifish and Atlantic silversides. Then Jim, assisted by two boys, used an instrument to obtain a water sample that was tested for its oxygen content.

Diamond Jubilee — Holy Family Church will celebrate its 75th anniversary diamond jubilee next year. Events scheduled include a special Mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Peter L. Annamarie Santoro Hard times make life easy for military recruiters. When severe unemployment and a tight job market send young men and women to the enlistment office in large numbers, the services can afford to be picky.

Last year the all-volunteer armed forces filled their quotas with high-quality recruits and turned applicants away. Sixty percent of those accepted scored above average on the Armed Forces Qualification Test and 86 percent were high school grads. Two years before, only a quarter of Army recruits scored above average and 54 percent had finished high school.

This year, high-quality applicants are being put on waiting lists or told to "come back in October" — the start of a new fiscal year, when the Pentagon hopes Congress will raise personnel ceilings. Meanwhile, re-enlistment rates are high. Members on active duty are being transferred to the National Guard and Reserves, in some cases involuntarily, or released before their terms are up.

Veterans can get more information and assistance from any American Legion Post or Veterans Administration Office. — Al Keller Jr., National Commander.

A Psalm Enshrined Too Long

By Rev. Robert Paul

In Miami, Florida, as well known physician came down the steps of an apartment building and started toward his car. As he moved close to his car, a passing man noticed that his lips were moving, and remarked to the physician, "You are too young to be talking to yourself."

The physician smiled, "I wasn't talking to myself, I was saying the 23rd Psalm." Maybe the expression of surprise and delight on the other man's face made him continue. "I just came from the fourth floor room of a little old Christian woman who can't live much longer. She asked me if I knew the 23rd Psalm. When I told her I claimed it as my very own and that I leaned on it every day, she replied, 'Let's say it together.'"

His voice was a little husky when he asked, "Didn't Jesus call himself the Good Shepherd? Wasn't he talking about himself when he pictured the shepherd's going into the mountains after that one sheep that didn't come in?" Then very slowly he quoted the verses. "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Did you notice that this wonderful Psalm begins on earth, but ends in heaven? When you make your decision to have the Lord as your shepherd, then you can be assured that you will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. To make it still more personal count the personal pronouns in this Psalm. You will find at least 28.

Yes, this 23rd Psalm has been enshrined on a marble pedestal too long. We need to take it down and break it up and use it. It is something to live with, and also something to live by. But remember the key lies in verse one, "The Lord is MY shepherd." Use the key to unlock the truths of this Psalm for your own life. (St. John 1:12.)

Fortunato Demands Federal Action On New Mobile Intensive Care Fees

Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato (D-Essex) has called on Congress to approve legislation sponsored by New Jersey Congressional representatives which would prevent individuals from having to pay as much as $500 for services provided by Mobile Intensive Care Units (M.I.C.U.'s).

Fortunato's statement came at a press conference where members of MICU's and volunteer first aid squads from throughout the state gathered to protest this new federal regulation which became effective Nov. 1.

Fortunato explained that currently MICU service — which is employed for life threatening emergencies such as heart attacks — is included under Medicaid as an inpatient service.

However, due to a ruling by a Federal Health Care Financing Administration, any patient who receives MICU services and is not admitted into a hospital will be charged for that service. The charge is estimated to range from $200 to $500.

The assemblyman noted the substantial problems this new system will create.

"The MICU program, working in cooperation with volunteer emergency squads throughout the state, provides a statewide network of mobile advanced life support teams that can mean the difference between life and death," he said.

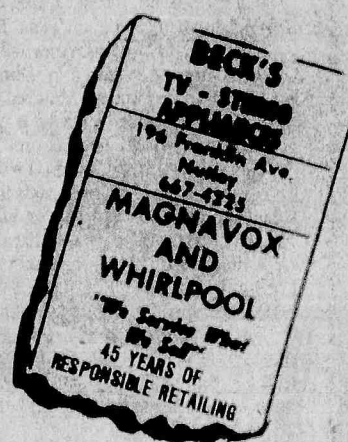

"By refusing to consider MICU services as part of hospital care, the federal government is placing a severe financial burden on the 40 per-

"Moreover, changing the MICU reimbursement system to a fee-for-service system will hurt first aid squads; they will suffer a loss of contributions because the residents they serve fail to distinguish between their unpaid, all-volunteer services and the paid MICU service," he added.

The lawmaker also noted that shifting the cost of MICU services from inpatient to outpatient status does not save the federal government any money.

"Our state's mobile intensive care units provide a service that is essential to those who are in life threatening situations. Any effort to make the service they offer, and that of our volunteer first aid squads, less effective must be stopped immediately," Fortunato said.

By Jan Zapka

Although it's been said that buying a house is never a pure investment, in most cases, the advantages of the purchase outweigh the disadvantages for the buyer. A house is not only a safe place to put your money, it's the only investment you will make that you can live in.

The early 1980s shakeup in the residential real estate market has changed many views on home buying. Nevertheless, through a mortgage you still commit to a regular enforced savings program and the mortgage interest and real estate taxes are also tax deductible.

The home you buy can also be regarded as a springboard to a better home, and if you sell and reinvest in another house within two years, you can defer taxes on the profit.

Keep in mind, too, that profits up to $125,000 are tax free without reinvesting if you are 55 years of age or older when you sell.

Although it is inevitable that you will face unpredictable cash layouts for repairs and replacements in the house while you own it, you should still have reasonable control over your basic housing costs.

Buying a house forces you to question your future lifestyle, goals and commitments. But, on the whole, the security of the investment should be foremost in your decision to buy, rather than buying the home just to make money on it.

If you have any questions about the pros and cons of home owning, contact a member of the Board of Realtors of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville.

Acting Career Grows For Felicia Farone

Felicia Farone, formerly known as Felicia Falzarano, a 1979 Belleville High School graduate, has received her first equity contract from an equity theatre, thus making her a member of the Actor's Equity Association which is the union of stage performers.

She will be doing a production of "She Loves Me" at Portsmouth, New Hampshire's Theatre-by-the-Sea, from Dec. 1 through Jan. 1.

Miss Farone received her B.A. in speech and theatre from Montclair State College in May of this year. She then followed four months of summer stock in Rhode Island in such shows as "They're Playing Our Song," "Annie," "Barnum," and "Showboat" as Ellie May Chipley. Last April she was seen as the female lead, Rosemary, in the Montclair Operetta Club's production of "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

Miss Farone's young career has been highlighted by such roles as Anita in "West Side Story," which she did in the spring of 1982 with a touring company and another season of summer stock in 1981. She starred in the Montclair State College Players' production of "Chicago" last fall as Velma Kelly.

Over the past four years, while earning her degree, she has appeared in 15 full-length musicals, six of which were produced by the Montclair Operetta Club of Upper Montclair, four children's theatre musicals and in a cabaret act. She also danced at Larry Richardson's Dance Gallery in New York City in Dianne McPhearson's "Divorce," performed with Dick Shell's dancers in concert and in four annual Montclair State College Dance Festivals and several workshops.

Miss Farone presented her first modern dance group piece, entitled "The Telling" in collaboration with Karen Kalbfel at the 1983 MSC Dance Festival.

Bucs Breeze Past Kardinals Behind Murphy and Baber

Two touchdowns by Mike Murphy and solo tallies by Bill Baber and Mark Walsh propelled the Belleville Buccaneers to a 28-6 win over arch rival Kearny in the annual Thanksgiving Day classic at rainy Municipal Stadium.

Next week, the Times will wrap up the team's successful 6-3 season.

It was a typical Belleville-Kearny game with the final score not an indication of the close game it actually was. The Bucs took advantage of the big play early in the game to account for two touchdowns. Murphy scored both times in the first half to stake the Bucs to a 14-6 halftime lead. His first run was good for 39 yards and the second, a 70-yard sprint, gave Murphy 100 points for the season and wrapped up the Essex County scoring championship for the all-world senior.

For the year, Murphy rushed for nearly 1,300 yards, breaking his mark of 1,225 yards set in 10 games last season. He scored in every game this season and by winning the county scoring championship, marked the second time in three years a Belleville runner has accomplished that feat. In 1981, Frank Fazzini tallied 102 points to lead the county.

"We played a solid second half," praised head coach John Senesky. "Everyone played well, it was a good team effort."

The Bucs final scores of the day came in the fourth quarter when Baber, who ran perhaps his best game of his career, scored from 16 yards and Walsh iced the contest on a keeper from 10. With the exception of Walsh, the Bucs lose their entire backfield. They do, however, return the offensive and defensive lines and the continued improvement of the freshman and jayvee teams this year gives hope to continued success next fall.

For Kearny, Mike Short, the Kards fine fullback, scored the only touchdown and came up with some impressive runs to keep the Kards close. Kearny, actually, had the better scoring opportunities, but they couldn't capitalize when it counted and the Belleville defense, led by two Frank Tursi interceptions helped to keep the visitors at bay.

While the Bucs lose some top rated seniors this year, they will return a strong nucleus next year. Returning will be running backs John Oliveri, Anthony Gizzo and Mike Gibbons. Walsh, of course, is back for his senior year at quarterback and safety. At split end will be Gerald Kraus, who came through with some nice catches this year. Anthony La Bruzza could help in the backfield and solid Steve Kimble will add a good dimension at defensive end and tight end.

The line, which was rebuilt twice this year, seems to be steady. Returning will be junior John Apicella, Steve Tribuna, Ralph Chimento, Dom Di Paolo, Jeff Tyther, Ed Stangl, Anthony Capaccio, Carlos Goias and Robert Mozeika.

There is some talent back next season and most importantly, experience. What the freshman and jayvee programs will produce is yet to be seen, but the Buccaneer football program should continue its marvelous success.

NOTES: Since John Senesky took the reins at BHS in 1977, the Buccaneers have posted a record of 45-17-1. They are 43-11 since 1978 in regular season play. The team has also participated in the playoffs in 1979, 1980 and 1982, missing by one game in 1981 and 1983. That's called consistency. Only Union and Passaic can boast such a consistent program over the same time span in this area. No injuries to report in the Kearny game. The Bucs were a solid team this year, losing only one player to injuries, that being Ralph De Falco. Next week's wrap up is a tribute to the seniors who did a super job this year and concluded a great career in fine fashion.

Scoring Champ

High Hopes Surrounding Start Of Winter Season

Starting next week, the Times will begin full coverage of winter sports as the campaign hits full gear toward the season's openers slated for mid-December.

A lot is expected from the teams that will compete. For the girls' basketball team, everyone knows of the exploits of Jennifer Apicella and Dina DeAquino, but there is also Loreli Wells, Donna Brooks and newcomer Desiree Johansen to contend with. The girls are coming off their best season ever, 20-7, and hope to repeat last year's performance behind a small front line, a quick backcourt and some good outside shooters.

Apicella, being recruited by more than 150 schools, enters her senior year with over 2,100 points and in good shape to break the state scoring mark of 2,745 points. She will be used primarily at forward, but should also see time at guard. Head coach Karen Fuccello figures Apicella to be a guard in college, thus, the need to play the versatile athlete at the guard position as much as possible during the season. Apicella can rebound, shoot, assist and in essence, do it all. Barring an injury, she should be in store for a solid season.

De Aquino is gunning for the 1,000-point mark and needs about 500 points to do so this year. She developed into a solid outside shooter last year and has good rebounding potential. When she's on, De Aquino can be one of the deadliest players in the area.

Brooks can leap with the best of them. The junior is a tremendous all-around athlete, has good shooting ability and will be used mostly at center.

Over on the boys' basketball team, Phil Colalillo enters his senior year looking to break the Belleville High School boys' scoring mark of 1,394 points. He should do so by early January and could set a season record for points scored. Colalillo, at 6-3, 215 pounds, is a solid forward. He should have a number of colleges desiring his talents next fall.

Joe Papisidero's squad has a number of players returning from last seasons 11-16 team. The Bucs 11 victories last year marked the first time the team cracked double figures in three years and only the third time in nine years that the team has won 10 or more games. This year, the team faces a tough schedule, but Papisidero has experience and some good speed on his side. Optimism at the camp is at a fever pitch and with the addition of Don Roll as assistant varsity coach, the players and staff are all looking for a big year.

Gene D'Allasandro's wrestling team should continue its strong record, although D'Allasandro is the type to keep you hanging at all times. The Bucs wrestling team has been one of the best in Essex County and Group IV, Section II for many years. Their records have been tremendous and it's natural for the fans to want the success to continue this fall.

The Belleville bowling team, under the direction of Mike Early, hopes to improve on last year's 44-19 mark. The jayvee team, which won the NNJIL title last winter, will head the varsity team this year, so it's easy to see why Early is optimistic about the upcoming season.

For the indoor track team, head coach John Tosato begins his third year. The harriers will compete in special weekend meets. For the most part, the practices will be the key part of the season. Tosato hopes to get his crew in good shape for the outdoor campaign in March. He hopes to get his weight people in shape and his middle and long distance runners some valuable work during the winter months.

Dreams of conference titles, state scoring records and exciting play fill the minds of the avid Belleville sports fan. While the athletes are hopeful toward a successful season, the bottom line is for the competitors to have fun and look back on the good times they had at Belleville High School.

Women's Volleyball Will Be Starting Soon

The Belleville Recreation Department is in the process of organizing its women's volleyball league, which will play its games on Tuesday nights at School 3 starting at 6:30 p.m.

Three more teams are needed to form our league, with each team scheduled to play an opponent in a best-of-three games set every week. A maximum of 12 players will be allowed on each team roster, composed of Belleville residents. No entrance fee is required, but teams are recommended to purchase colored T-shirts for identification and scheduling purposes.

For further information, please contact Denise Zarra, league official, at 751-1033 after 5 p.m. Only the first three teams who respond will be accepted into the league this year.

Our Three Girls Deserved their Inspirational Dinner

Last Tuesday at the Chandelier, a dinner was held to honor three young ladies on their tremendous accomplishments during their high school career. The dinner was a testimonial to their fine efforts over the first three years of their career and a "good luck" from the township of Belleville for the final season.

The Belleville Times was the proud sponsor of the evening, and while the girls were the honored guests, the township of Belleville turned out to be the real winners. For it was the township of Belleville which produced Jennifer Apicella, Tracy Buono and Dina De Aquino and the it was the township that paid tribute to these three fine young ladies.

Everyone in attendance, and believe me, there were a lot of people there, were a part of the affair. Whether it was buying tickets, selling tickets, helping with the seating, or just attending, your being there is what made the night so beautiful. Looking out at the crowd during the evening gave me a feeling of pride, that was of course after the woodpeckers left my stomach at the outset of the program. It's not easy talking to 350 people who are all looking at you, but once the program got rolling, the ceremonies spoke for themselves.

The heroes, well there were 350 of them to be exact. However, there were some people who deserve extra special consideration. First and foremost, the publisher of the newspaper, Frank Orechio who donated his time and effort toward the successful running of the evening. There were three meetings of the dinner committee, the meetings covering everything from the size of the tables to the color of the napkins. It might sound silly, but when everything is running well, the end result is success.

A very special accolade must go to Mario Di Maggio, the principal of the Belleville Middle School. Mr. Di Maggio was an integral part of the evening. He gave a great deal of himself, he worked extra hard towards the success of the night and the little things, that so often go overlooked by many in attendance, went through smoothly thanks to Mario.

Mayor Michael Marotti, a class man at all times, donated a great deal of his time and came up with one of the most original gifts of the evening, life size portraits of the three young ladies in uniform. If you were at the dinner, or wish to view the ceremonies on OBC-TV this week, you are aware of the beautiful pictures that were presented to the girls.

A great deal of civic groups made presentations to the girls. Proclamations were read from Grace Purde, the president of the Board of Education and Mayor Marotti, while Superintendent of Schools, Michael Nardiello, made a stirring speech about the girls academic accomplishments.

Karen Fuccello, Grace Worley and Carl Corino, who coached the girls over the first three years gave strong speeches. Fuccello's was masterful, her speech hitting everyone in attendance with a lump in the throat. She spoke of civic pride, of the girls returning to the township what the township had given them. She spoke from the heart, as did Corino and Worley, and that is what makes a night like Inspiration night worthwhile.

The list goes on. The people in attendance at the dinner were first class all the way. The girls, as nervous as they were all gave fine speeches. Jennifer Apicella thanked everyone, especially her family, for being a part of the evening. Tracy Buono, a well spoken young lady with a world of potential and desire, thanked everyone for coming, praised her parents and congratulated all three Dina and Jennifer for being a part of the magic evening. She also said she hoped that this kind of pride will last for many years at Belleville. Finally, Dina De Aquino spoke of the day being like Christmas, "I don't think we need a Christmas this year" she said. She spoke from her heart, she spoke with pride, she spoke with class. That was the story of the entire evening. Perhaps Mr. Nardiello put it best later on when he said, "I don't think we could have planned the dinner any better. It went beautifully."

There were all winners at this event. The girls were winners, the parents were winners, the people in attendance were winners. Everyone was a part of a very special evening. I would like to thank you for being a special part of the night, November 22, 1983, the evening that the Township of Belleville paid tribute to three of the best athletes in Belleville High School history.

An added note to the dinner, I'll let you in on a secret. While the Belleville Choir sang the National Anthem so beautifully, I really thought I was going to run out of the restaurant. I was so nervous, looking out at the large crowd, I thought I would never make it. Thank God my stomach let me through the night. Seriously, special accolades to Thomas Finetti and the Belleville Choir on their fine job.

The first annual Buccaneer Honor Roll will be published in next week's issue. Twenty-four athletes covering the six fall sports were chosen. The athletes were selected for excellence on the athletic field and excellence in the classroom. Stay tuned.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Frank Tursi of the football team. Frank intercepted two passes in the Bucs 28-6 victory over Kearny on Thanksgiving Day.

On the subject of fall sports, a mistake was made on the cross country wrap up and thankfully it was brought to my attention at the dinner last week. Patty Bliss was not the only runner for the girls squad this fall. Christina Hallam also participated in for the team, an oversight on my part. Christina did a good job for the harriers and also played a big role in the preparation of the dinner. She's a hard working young lady, cut in the mold of the class Belleville athlete that we are all so proud of.

Winter sports are on tap now with the opening games and matches slated for mid-December. Stay tuned for further stories involving the girls basketball, boys basketball, wrestling, bowling and indoor track teams.

As we near the Christmas season, I'd like to say Merry Christmas to my future niece, Jennifer Marie Ferrick, who was born on October 13, 1983 and gets prettier everyday. I guess I'm a little partial, but it's exciting for a new baby on its first Christmas.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, who played in the 1980 Rose Bowl and what was the score. The answer Ohio State and USC played in the 1980 classic with USC winning, 17-16 on a late touchdown by MVP, Charles White. White also won the Heisman Trophy that year.

For this week's quiz, name the last time the Green Bay Packers made the playoffs, other than last season, how they did and the team's quarterback.

Finally, next week's column will be dedicated to the "Boys in Section 160." More on that column in next week's edition.

Heard at Ringside

By Steve Frank

Pedro Aldinato, one of Paterson's bantamweight title-contenders prospects, won a hard-fought eight-round decision over previously undefeated Darrell Thigpen of St. Louis, Mo., Saturday at Atlantic City's Sands. Aldinato pushed his record up to 13-2. Thigpen was America's leading amateur boxer with 131 bouts and now has a pro record of 6-1. Trainer Tommy Parks, mgr. Al Moore and trainer Oscar Suarez accompanied Aldinato. Other bouts ended as follows: Middleweight Frankie Minton, Indianapolis, Ind. W-Dec. in 4 rounds over Robert Thomas, Philadelphia; Lightweights Kenny Willis, Bridgeport, Conn. and Fred Pendeton, Philadelphia fought a 6 round draw; Heavyweight Gary Lightbourne, New York W-Dec. in 6 rounds over Charles Vanderhall, Long Island, N.Y.; Lightweight Terrence Alli, Brooklyn WKO in second over Jerome Artis, Philadelphia and junior lightweight Gerald Hayes, East Orange, N.J. W-Dec. in ten rounds over Juan La Porte, New York.

Talented, highly-respected fight trainer Tommy Parks revealed at Paterson's Lou Costello Gym he is training heavyweight Jose Ribalto for his debut at Madison Square Garden on Fri. Dec. 9 in an eight-round. Ribalto is managed by Murray Gaby of Coral Gables, Florida, formerly of Newark, N.J. Parks also trains Livingston Bramble, Bobby Czyz, Pedro Alindato.

Last Friday night in the gymnasium of the Paterson Catholic Regional High School the Diamond Gloves Amateur Boxing tournament came to a conclusion. Tournament director Bernie Taylor remarked, "It was an outstanding action-packed meet with over 144 entries. The fans enjoyed the fights from start to finish." Newark's South Ward Boxing Club came from behind to ease out the Lou Costello Sportsmen Club of Paterson by one-point for the team trophy 36-35. Coaches Eddie Moore and Charlie Thomas of the Newark club and Oscar Suarez and Jose Maldonado put together a talented, well-conditioned array of fighters. Suarez and Maldonado represent the Costello club. The Silk City Boxing Club of Paterson finished third with 29 points. New Brunswick's PAL placed fourth with 19. The first three teams in point scoring will receive trophies.

Undefeated lightweight Charlie "White Lightning" Brown, 19-0, hails from the Quad Cities area where Davenport, Ia. and Milone, Ill. join, fighting out of North Haledon, N.J. earned a hard-fought unanimous 10-round decision over favored Frankie Newton, 24-1-1, of Oklahoma, at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Nev. Thursday. Brown was a battered victor as Newton used an uppercut effectively. Don Turner, White's trainer, said, "Charlie went to school tonight. One thing he learned was how to get away from an uppercut." Brown did learn the hard way as his face bore evidence after the melee. He was cut around both eyes and in the mouth. The judges saw it - 97-93, 97-93 and 96-94 for Brown. In other scheduled 10-rounder middleweight Juan Roldan, 50-2-2, of Argentina WKO at 2:58 of the sixth round over Frank Fletcher, 17-4-1, of Philadelphia. Roldan is WBA's number one ranked middleweight. Fletcher is 8th.

Vickie La Motta, divorced wife of Jake La Motta, the former middleweight champion, arrived in Las Vegas ready to punch her ex out. According to Vickie, she had two plane tickets mailed to her which she bought. Jake got them before Vickie. He sold one and used the other to attend the Hagler-Duran fight.

Former heavyweight Scott La Doud, trial horse for many aspiring titlist, notified he has definitely retired with a 30-13-4. Le Doud said he saved his bucks and owns two taverns in the Minneapolis, Minn. area that caters to the sports mob including fighters, Vikings (football) and the North Stars (hockey) crowd. Le Doud's ring retirement had been recorded in this column several weeks ago.

Jersey City's junior middleweight sensation Mark Medal scored his 18th consecutive win Thursday at Madison Square Garden as he took a unanimous 10-round decision from Philadelphia's Kevin Howard. Medal, 26, in recording this victory by a wide margin now displays a 21-1 chart. Howard dropped to 19-4-1.

Sal Vella, a first-rated middleweight battler had to quit the fight biz due to a serious eye injury in a vehicle accident in Waltham, Mass. It was a tough break for Sal but he was luckier than bantamweight Ray Mandello who lost his life in a car crash.

Frankie Duane (D'Antico) fighting out of Elizabeth, was one of the state's busiest mitt slingers while forming an amateur record of 129-3 and pro chart of 149-3 for a total of 284 fights (278 won, 6 lost). As an amateur Frankie won the New Jersey Golden Gloves title in the 126 lb. class during 1935, 1936, 1937 and 1938, the New York Diamond Glove championship in the 126 lb. class from 1939 to 1941. As a pro Frankie was ranked number two in the world as a featherweight. When he moved up in weight it wasn't long before he gained the number three rating as a lightweight. Duane went into the service during WWII where he gained more weight. Upon discharge he concluded his active, exciting ring career as a welterweight.

The United States Supreme Court refused to review the embezzlement conviction of former California boxing promoter Ross Field a/k/a Harold J. Smith, who was convicted in 1982 for his involvement in the $21.3 million ripoff against Wells Fargo Bank. Fields contends the trial judge committed errors during his trial. Fields was heading a promotional group MASP with Muhammad Ali as frontman. Ali was not involved in the scam.

Middleweight Juan Domingo Roldan of Argentina is still celebrating his 6-round kayo of Philadelphia's Frank "The Animal" Fletcher in Las Vegas on the Hagler-Duran title fight undercard.

Belleville Buccaneers Will Truly Miss Many of This Year's Star Players

By Dino Ibelli

Well, the 1983 Football season has come to an end, most of us thinking better than 6-3. The Bucs lost to two state ranked teams in Montclair and Passaic, also to a team that played like it was state ranked. This Belleville team will lose 14 players and two managers.

The first year lettermen will begin with manager Gabe Rispoli. Gabe played his junior year, but due to an injury in pre-season he had to retire early. "Gabe" will most likely be attending Montclair State College. His humor, including the turkey dinner idea will be missed.

Next is Joe Obenauer. Due to the fine offensive line of the Bucs, Joe "Obie" could not break in at tackle. Joe should be attending a local college next year.

Lenny Iannia is also a one-year letterman. Lenny played on specialty teams and his fiery attitude will be sorely missed.

Anthony Lombardi is next. Tony played most of the year at center. He was a fired up ball player, but due to his size, he probably will not be playing football when he attends college in September.

Wayne Graham is one who will be missed. Who will forget the blocked punt in the Teaneck game and the couple of near misses of punts.

Joe De Rose will head to Technical School next year. Joe was always on specialty teams. His humor will be definitely missed. He was probably the best specialist player on the Bucs.

Frank Zangari, played defensive back, "Frankie Z" has had a fine year. "Z" will probably go to Seton Hall University next year.

Frank Tursi played defensive back in the Kearny game and came away with two interceptions. He also played a fine running back position.

Frankie will probably go to college to continue his baseball career as a pitcher.

The last one-year letterman is Carmen Cerreto. Carmen came out for the team for his first and only football season. His personality was the best and he never complained about a thing. Carmen, one thing must be said, "Where were you when you were a sophomore?" Chances are he was just as good as Ken Constantino. Cerreto will be wrestling this winter.

The two-year men start with Tom SanGiacomo. Tom was on specialty teams for two years and played some tackle this season. Tom will probably go to a local school, but football may be over.

Anthony Tucci who suffered a knee injury late in the season will also be missed. "Tuch" will be best remembered for his interceptions and his continuing of the fine Tucci tradition which was left off by his cousin Gerard back in 1980.

Billy Baber was one of the four captains. A two-year back for the Bucs, Billy defied the odds of his size and had his best game in his career against Kearny. Billy will be missed but unfortunately, he will not be playing ball in college.

The three-year men start with Mike T. Murphy the trainer. "Lil' Murph" will be missed. He has been around since the Fazzini and Cerza years. Many hours have been put in by this young man. "Murph" will be attending Montclair State College or Rutgers Newark. "Murph", It won't be the same.

Ralph De Falco is next. This captain has had an unlucky injury prone career having dislocated his shoulder twice this season. Ralph's desire for the game was shown when he played with his arm braced and chained in the Passaic game. Ralph was a fine example for youngsters.

Dave Mozeika's hard hitting will not be forgotten. Dave at 6 feet 2 inches, 195 will attend a big school in September. Dave has been in on over 180 tackles in his two years at linebacker. Colleges he is considering are Florida State and Michigan. Dave. Good Luck!

On Nov. 14, 1981 this next player ran 16 yards for a touchdown against Carteret late in the fourth quarter. Everyone probably thought he was just "a late scrub" to replace Fazzini in the game. Not likely. Mike Murphy continued running over and around people for two more seasons.

Murph's accomplishments include over 2,500 yards, over 150 points. All county, league and state selections and the biggest one, he's showed every scout at the Belleville-Passaic game who was clearly the classiest and best fullback in the state. To the best running back in the history of Belleville football, good luck at West Virginia, Penn State or Florida State.

FACTS: Offensive stars go to Murphy and Baber. Defensive stars go to Gibson, Walsh, and Dave Mozeika. Tackle guard, Tom Constantino at Seton Hall. Linebacker, Mike Murphy at 72.

Hockey Star — Steve Giuliano of Belleville, is a hockey player for the Essex County Chiefs in the Bantam Division. Last year his team played in the regional championships, after winning the division title.

Belleville Student Enjoys His Hockey

Belleville Middle School has its own hockey star.

Steve Giuliano plays left wing in the Bantam Division for the Essex County Chiefs, who last year won the division title for Youth League. The 17 boys that comprise the team won the districts which enabled them to travel to Buffalo, New York and play in the regionals. All of the northeastern states make up the regionals. The Chiefs beat Massachusetts, tied Buffalo but lost to Rockford, Illinois.

Steve's dad started him playing ice hockey several years ago when he began skating at Branch Brook Park. Now, practice is at the South Mountain Arena on Thursday nights. Home games are played there either on Saturday or Sunday afternoons. Fans are welcomed. So far the Chiefs' record is 2-3 but Steve expects his team to do well again this year.

In addition to playing hockey, Steve has been fortunate to be in a television commercial. You may have seen him on Channel 9 or 5 advertising Rold Gold Pretzels. The commercial was filmed last year at Ice World and took 12 hours to make. It runs for 30 seconds. Look for Steve and the Essex County Chiefs on television.

Soccer Association Squads in Playoffs

The Belleville Americans (Division 3), sponsored by De Bacco Bros. and Caputo Florist, went into the playoffs of the Progresso Suburban Youth Soccer League after finishing second in regular season play, against West Paterson in Belleville and came away with a solid 5-2 victory to place them in the finals.

Goals by Mark Tobia (two), Steve Hywell (two), and Ronnie De Piro provided the punch. Assists went to De Piro (two) and Anthony Zarro (two). Defensively Chris Oese controlled the midfield with strong play. Fullbacks Anthony Cultrara and John Scoriola helped goals Steve Tice stop the West Paterson attack.

The Belleville Flash (Division 4), sponsored by Casa Polizzi, faced a strong Totowa team at Belleville in its playoffs and defeated Totowa 3-1 to move into the finals of its division play.

Down 1-0, the Flash goalie, Mark Tonnelli shut down the Totowa team while Mike Cappasso scored all three goals to send Belleville to the finals. Assists from Robert Ricci on Cappasso's goals were the deciding factor, while Ricci played a strong defensive game.

In the No. Counties League, the Belleville Suns, sponsored by JNC and Rossi Travel, defeated South Orange 2-0 with two goals by Chris Ricci on assists from David De Tonna and Jimmy Landon. Richie Quine and Billy Zigmund controlled the midfield while Brian Davis, Ricky Constantino, Joe DeRiggi and Jason Ventola did the work on defense. The shutout was split between goalies Landon and John Del Mauro.

Belleville's Past A Century of Industry

But copper still ranked first among Belleville's industries. The Hendricks mill was no longer the sole producer. Grist and flour mills and other shops had been turned by enterprising businessmen into plants where copper was processed into sheet metal, brass and wire.

One of these mills, located on the Stephen Van Cortlandt holdings, had a varied career, until it finally also served the processing of copper. Until 1810 a man named Marks conducted it as a flour mill. The threat of a new conflict with England caused the State Legislature to pass, on February 7, 1811, "An Act to regulate Gun Powder Manufactories," and shortly after John Pine Decatur, a brother of the famous naval hero, and himself a retired navy officer and commander of the "new Troop of Newark Horse," took over the old Marks place and converted it into a powder mill. By the time the Centinel was able to report, on September 4, 1811, that

The frigate President, com. Rodgers, United States com. Decatur; and sloop of War Wasp sailed from New York on Thursday last on a cruise.

The firm of Bullus, Decatur * Rucker could advertise in an adjoining column of the paper:

SINGLE, double and treble F. and Cannon Powder, manufactured at the Belleville Mills, and warranted to be equal to English, or any powder made in this country.

The business was successful until, in 1814, an explosion occurred, which has gone down in history as the first major industrial accident in Belleville.

Contemporary records have it that with tremendous report, followed by earthquake-like rumbling, these buildings that a moment before sheltered the inmates of this hive of industry, were torn and hurled hundreds of feet in the air. What could be more horrifying than the scene presented here? Upon the ground lay human beings, bleeding, groaning, dying, and some already dead.

One eye witness declared many years after: "I always regretted that I had been tempted to look upon the scene." And as much as half a century later reputed remnants of the explosion would still be found when fisherman, hauling for shad on the reef just below the Second River, could "scoop up occasional shells from the bottom of three or four inches in diameter."

The victims were buried in the cemetery of the Old Dutch Reformed church. But when Decatur soon after planned to rebuild his factory, he met with the united opposition of Belleville's citizenry. Their protests must have endangered the owners' wrath, for one Belleville citizen, probably a bit too vociferous in his objections, was set upon and cruelly beaten in the public streets by a member of the firm.

Revised Rent Laws Expected on Monday

regardless of how many times the apartment is vacated.

The committees also decided to eliminate completely any amendment granting subpoena power to the board. Previously, that power was considered as a measure to compel landlords and tenants to appear before the RLB when summoned for a hearing.

"We don't feel the state statute on whether this power can be granted rent leveling boards is clear cut," said Zinna. Commissioner Matthew Pica also expressed fears of "costly litigation" if the board should be challenged on such a power.

In another controversial matter, the new ordinance will permit any board member "who has served since the inception of the board" to remain on the panel even if not a township resident.

An amendment was proposed to limit RLB appointments to Belleville residents or to non-residents who own township property. Adhering strictly to that would rule ineligible veteran board member Danny Del Tufo, who moved out of Belleville several years ago, but remained on the board.

Commissioners were divided on the issue. "I have nothing against you," Grande told Del Tufo last Monday, adding, "I'm just opposed to the idea of having a non-resident serve on one of our boards. We have 38,000 citizens in Belleville and we should be able to get someone who can serve on them."

Grande also feared that to word the ordinance to permit Del Tufo's term, but rule out service by other non-residents could start a "poor precedent."

Another opponent, Commissioner Matthew Pica, argued that a non-resident could not have Belleville's best interests at heart. "If you're so interested in Belleville, why didn't you stay in Belleville," Pica said to Del Tufo.

The rent leveler exchanged heated comments with Pica over the issue. Del Tufo, often regarded as a pro-tenant board member, voiced his opinion that Pica participated in an organized movement, sparked by disgruntled landlords, to remove Del Tufo from the board.

The Commissioner denied any such association.

Favoring the measure to retain Del Tufo was Mayor Michael Marotti. "Back when we started this board 10 years ago, we couldn't get anyone to serve on it. Danny Del Tufo took the bull by the horns and got things done," said Marotti.

Rent Board members spoke in support of their colleague, claiming his long experience as a major asset to their proceedings. Member Viola Spray said, "I can see objecting if absence was a problem, but Danny is never absent."

Other amendments proposed include requiring landlords to obtain, for a $10 fee, a certificate of occupancy from local health and building code officials before renting a vacated apartment.

A final proposal stipulates that tenants who file complaints of overcharge in their rentals will be entitled, if successful, to rebates of overcharges for no more than the two years prior to the date of the complaint.

Similarly, tenants who have vacated an apartment have 45 days from their vacating date to file complaints of overcharging.

Head Injury Victim Recovering With Aid From Discussion Group

the Martuccis, is one of seven in the state, where an estimated 1,700 people suffer head injuries each year.

The year-old Essex chapter numbers about 30 members and meets on the premises of the Kessler Institute of Rehabilitation in West Orange although it is not affiliated directly with the hospital.

"We offer emotional support to the families and victims and try to promote public awareness of the problems of head injuries," said Mrs. Bowden whose husband was severely injured in a car accident five years ago.

The Essex chapter meets once a month for discussion and informative sessions. The chairwoman said many meetings are devoted to educating the families on such practical matters as how to obtain Social Security funds available to certain young victims or how to deal with insurance companies in trying to cover the often staggering costs of treating a head-injured relative.

Also, the group attempts to provide some recreation for the head injured victims who may attend with their families. "They really need the social interaction so we do welcome them to come," said the chairwoman. Attendance is free of charge.

Jimmy Martucci attends those meetings with his sister Mrs. Clare Salweski. "I really like to go. It gets me out of the house," he said.

For the Martuccis, the support group is one part of the picture. Presently, Jimmy is also participating in a cognitive rehabilitation program at the Kessler Institute.

The program is designed for outpatients and seeks to bring head injury victims to their fullest functioning levels, returning them to a work or school situation if that is where they would normally be.

According to the Kessler program director, Dr. Irene Parisi, to qualify for rehabilitation a patient must be at least one year post-injury, exhibit no seriously aberrant behavior, physically independent, and be motivated to work in a group atmosphere.

Potential patients are first tested to determine level of functioning and deficits. Once accepted, each patient is given individual attention based on specific needs and must also participate in group activities.

"It's a fairly intensive program requiring patients to come four days a week from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.," said the doctor. "While here, they work about 40 percent of the time in groups and the rest of the time with the staff."

Dr. Parisi noted the peer interaction was very important since most of the victims needed to relearn socialization skills.

The Kessler program maintains a close one-to-one or two-to-one ratio of student to staff. The staff includes neurologists, psychologists, speech and recreation therapists, and social workers. "It's an inter-disciplinary program designed to deal with the complex effects head injury can have," explained Dr. Parisi.

The physician noted that it is often difficult to predict just how much recovery can be expected in a given case.

Patients attend the Kessler program for 20 weeks. If in need of more therapy after that, they may enter Phase II which is a work program. "Patients volunteer their services on a job suitable for them at the institute. While working, their progress in social skills is monitored," said the doctor.

Kessler also maintains vocational counselors to help place patients who have reached their goal level of functioning into a job.

The cognitive rehab program is expensive and most patients have bills paid by insurance carrier, particularly under no-fault.

Costs for Phase I are $700 a week and for Phase II, $100 a week.

There are five patients presently in the program and Dr. Parisi explained there is a waiting list of eight more. "We do try to refer those who cannot wait to other institutions with cognitive rehab centers," she said.

Jimmy Martucci is in his seventh week at Kessler. "I like it because I meet people there," said the young man who found himself friendless when the reality of his condition set in years ago.

Although he has regained what experts say is 80 percent of his functioning, the Belleville man still copes with memory problems, weak manual dexterity, and vision disorder.

He cannot drive and failed at an attempt to return to his K-Mart job several years ago.

"I can walk now and I'm grateful for that," he said. Jimmy hopes to return to work someday and said he really loves maintenance work.

"We just don't know how much more he will recover. It's impossible to say," said Jimmy's father, who is retired from his 30-year position as a mechanic with the City of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Martucci had sold their home in Newark and began to enjoy retired life down the shore when their son's accident forced them to adjust anew.

Martucci last year purchased his Belleville home to provide Jimmy with some space to live in since he was so confined by his injury.

Jimmy's mother reflected on her son's frequent bouts with depression. "Sometimes he says he doesn't want to wake up," she said.

But both agree that the Kessler program and the head injury support group have brought positive change to their son.

"Now when he wakes up he knows he has someplace to go and looks forward to it," said Martucci.

Jewish Community Prepares For Beginning of Hanukkah

By Linda Telesco

Today marks the first day of Hanukkah, the eight-day Jewish Festival of Lights.

A time for reaffirming faith, Jewish families will gather around the Menorah, their sacred candelabra, to kindle the light of faith each night of the festival.

Although a minor date on the Jewish calendar, Hanukkah is a feast of clearly authenticated origin. The festival commemorates the victory in 164 B.C. of Judas Maccabaeus and his armies over the Syrians who tried to annihilate the Jewish faith by imposing Syrian-Greek customs upon the Israelites.

According to the account in the Old Testament Book of the Maccabees, the Syrian king defiled the Jewish temple, but the faithful Jews rededicated it. Among the debris from the battle, the Jews found one cruse of oil sufficient to light the temple for only one day, yet the oil miraculously kindled for eight days.

Today, lighting the Menorah recalls the physical miracle, but also inspires Jews to rededicate themselves to the faith of the Maccabees.

The eight candles represent faith, freedom, courage, love, charity, integrity, knowledge, and peace.

While lighting candles, Jews celebrate with parties, special foods, gifts and games for children.

Belleville Congregation Ahavath Achim on Academy Street will commemorate Hanukkah in services Friday night at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday morning at 9 a.m.

Congregation President Bob Gruhin will preside over the services.

A 'family atmosphere tradition' will be kept alive at one of Belleville's unique establishments, Tarantino's Restaurant at 140 Washington Ave.

Billed as New Jersey's 'Jewish-Italian' restaurant, Tarantino's will offer a special Hanukkah treat to patrons during the next week.

Jaye Tarantino, who owns the eatery along with her husband, is the Jewish half of the partnership. "We're going to light a candle each night of the holiday and serve all customers my special latke," she said.

Latke (potato pancakes) is the traditional food of the festival. Jewish families serve them with the helping of warmth and joy that characterize this happy festival.

To all the good little boys and girls in Belleville.
By this time I'm sure you know I'm very busy here at the North Pole preparing all the toys for all you boys & girls.

Every year when I finish my ride through Belleville on Christmas Eve, I think to myself that someday I will come to visit the boys and girls in Belleville, because they are so good.

Well, guess what? This year I am coming to visit you. I will be arriving on Saturday, Dec. 3rd at Noon in front of Town Hall in Belleville, where I will greet all of you good little boys and girls.

Afterwards we will open the doors of my North Pole headquarters located at the Belleville Chamber of Commerce office, 155A Washington Avenue, where pictures with me can be taken.

Looking forward to seeing you,
Santa Claus

J. KELLY INC.

Dear Homeowners,

As you may already know, we have been in the home improvement business in this area for several years with 95% of our jobs being acquired strictly on a referral basis. We have found this to be a very rewarding as well as successful method of conducting business, one which has led us to a position where we can now provide our "referral" oriented workmanship" as well as handle your financial needs

all under one roof. As a result of these positive developments, we have established a small showroom and office, and it would be my pleasure to meet with you there to provide information on the construction methods and materials we shall supply.

If it would be more convenient for you to have us visit your home to discuss your home improvement needs, simply call our office to arrange an appoint-

Sincerely,
