A Library Donation

A Book of the World — Belleville Public Library director David Bryant (r) is presented with a copy of 'Dun's Employment Opportunities Directory' by Peoples Bank officials, S. Thomas Aitken, chairman of the board (l) and Bill Brown, cashier. The book, which was donated by the bank, lists career opportunities throughout the country.

Township to Receive $65,000 For Additional Police Hirings

Belleville will receive some $65,000 in state funds to hire additional police and fire personnel as result of a legislation agreement forged by Senate President Carmen Orechio.

The sum is part of a $7.4 million emergency package adopted by the state to avoid massive layoffs in urban public safety forces because of budgetary constraints.

Orechio insisted, at the time, that any urban aid to major cities such as Newark be extended to include communities such as Belleville.

"Protecting the health, safety and welfare of its citizens is a primary responsibility of any government and the $65,000 will help Belleville officials meet this very basic goal," said Orechio.

Belleville is one of 28 urban aid communities to share in the extended package. Qualifying municipalities must have populations over 35,000 and a combination of low ratables and high property taxes.

Originally, the measure, as proposed by Gov. Thomas Kean, entitled state funds for the six biggest cities in New Jersey: Newark, Camden, Elizabeth, Jersey City, Paterson and Trenton. But under pressure from State Legislature Democrats, the Kean proposal was expanded to cover smaller municipalities.

Other communities which will receive similar funding include: Montclair, Bloomfield, West Orange, Kearny, Hoboken, Plainfield, Union City, Lakewood, West New York, Perth Amboy, North Bergen, Irvington, Passaic and East Orange.

According to Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica, Belleville must file for the funding and will do so within the week through the municipal grantsmen Bruno Associates of Newark.

Pica said the monies will be used to "avert layoffs of public safety personnel."

Want To Enter Wanaque South Project Commissioners Seeking To Change Water Supply

By Linda Telesco

Belleville may once again have a chance to own its own water supply and end the rising costs of the utility.

Commissioners last Monday approved unanimously an ordinance to enter into the Wanaque South water diversion project, a still uncompleted construction that would yield participating communities their own water supplies.

"We received word from Wanaque that there was water available, so we prepared an ordinance to show our willingness," said Mayor Michael Marotti after the session.

The notification from Wanaque is not a guarantee Belleville would be accepted to the project yet, said Marotti, although he is confident that will be the result.

Marotti said such details as how much water would actually be allotted to Belleville, if accepted, are still uncertain. "I think we'll get what we originally applied for," he said.

In 1981, Belleville first attempted to join the project, a daily allotment of five million gallons, the municipality's approximate daily use.

The township applied in September 1981, but was rejected by December of that year for lack of room in the project.

If accepted now, Belleville will join other communities already participating in the project; Bayonne, Cedar Grove, Newark, Nutley, Wayne, Bloomfield, and Kearny.

First planned in 1973, the diversion project is a joint venture of the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission and the Hackensack Water Co.

Slated for completion in spring of 1986, the project is expected to yield between 75 and 90 million gallons of water daily, half of which will go to Hackensack and the rest to be shared by the participating municipalities.

The project involves the expansion of the Wanaque Reservoir, drawing water from the Ramapo River.

According to Wanaque South project coordinator Frank Orechio, the anticipated yield range is greater than originally expected because of extended plans to build on the Monksville Reservoir.

"With half going to Hackensack and the rest to the communities, the five million gallons Belleville applied for is available," said Orechio on Tuesday.

A major benefit for participating communities is cost savings and a

Firemen's Contract Receives Approval

Commissioners unanimously agreed to authorize a two-year retroactive contract with the Belleville Fireman's Mutual Benevolent Association (FMB) pursuant to an arbitrator's decision.

The decision awards Belleville's firefighters a 7 percent salary hike retroactive to Jan. 1, 1983. Also, as of Jan. 1, 1984, the firemen affected will receive another 6 percent pay raise.

As of Dec. 31, 1982 a first year firefighter earned $14,898. Top of the scale at step 5 was a salary of $21,215. Also captains and deputy chiefs earn $31,060.

Officers will be raised by a performance agreement.

The Dec. 1, 1983 decision by arbitrator John J. Pearce, Jr., grants firemen the same benefits recently won by the local PBA.

Under the agreement, the employees receive one additional paid holiday, the Friday following Thanksgiving Day, bring total paid holidays to 13.

The contract also gives employees family coverage under dental plan with $275 maximum.

Additionally, the decision restores longevity pay and grants employees, as of Jan. 1, 1984, two personal days on time worked basis and extends bereavement leave to include grandparents, step-parents, and step-siblings.

Sick days remain unchanged at 15 per year, but are permitted to accumulate.

"It's a fair and final offer under the statute," said Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica of the contract.

Watch Program Will Meet On January 25

The Belleville Crime Prevention Unit will hold a meeting for all Block Captains for all zones of the Neighborhood Watch Program on Wednesday, Jan. 25, at 7:30 p.m., at the Recreation House, corner of Jorammon Street and Garden Avenue.

Any other interested citizens may attend and we surely welcome their appearance.

During this meeting we will discuss the Neighborhood Watch Program and how you can help in keeping your property safe from intruders. As most of you are aware, the Neighborhood Watch Program is essential to any police department. We need your help in keeping our great township of Belleville a safe and clean place to live in.

Zoners Hear Testimony in First DeWitt Expansion

First DeWitt Savings and Loan Association last week applied to the Zoning Board for permission to expand its premises.

Located at 463 Washington Ave., the bank aims to construct a two-story addition to its north side and to expand its on-site parking area to Floyd Street.

According to bank president Henrik Tvedt, the project will enable First DeWitt, which maintains six branches in other communities, to establish an operating headquarters in Belleville.

Additionally, the officer said, expansion would permit the bank to move its mortgage office, presently in Bloomfield, to Washington Avenue, a consolidation of services that would be more convenient for bank patrons.

"We need a headquarters," Tvedt said in testimony to the board. "If we don't get it in Belleville, we'll have to seek one elsewhere," he added.

Claiming assets of $236 million, First DeWitt provides checking and savings services as well as home improvement, mortgage, and auto loans.

"We have 1,000 loans worth about $22 million in Belleville," said Tvedt, who noted he hopes the expansion will bring in another 15-30 patrons daily, as result of greater convenience for the customer and extended services offered by the bank.

The executive described plans to offer services such as safety deposit boxes and a 24-hour automatic teller. "We would need more platform space to accommodate the personnel that would provide the services," explained Tvedt.

He said the present circumstances were cramped. With a checking and bookkeeping department working out of the Washington Avenue building's board rooms, the bank's board has been holding meetings in the Cedar Grove office.

"We believe our expansion would be a good thing for Belleville and definitely have a place in the redevelopment of Washington Avenue," said Tvedt.

He also cited First DeWitt's need to expand as essential "to compete in today's banking world," by providing the additional services.

First DeWitt employs a total of 62 full-time and 19 part-time employees. Of those, 29 full-timers and five part-timers work in the Washington Avenue office.

Tvedt predicts that if the application is approved, 10 full-timers and several more part-timers would be added to the Belleville staff.

In reply to questions by an attorney representing area residents who object to the proposal, Tvedt said the added staff would be personnel transferred from First DeWitt's other offices.

He said there were "no plans at this time" to hire new staff members.

With five objectors registered against the plan, most of the evening's questions centered around the parking situation at the bank.

Tvedt said there are presently 28 customer parking spaces on the bank site. Another lot across the street contains 25 spaces and is designated for employees.

The president said the bank has not had many parking problems and employees and off-duty Belleville police officers "keep traffic moving" on particularly busy days.

Zoning Chairman Joel Pisano asked Tvedt if the expansion of the building, without extending the parking lot, was a feasible alternative.

Tvedt replied it was not.

The renovation plans would eliminate five of the existing on-site parking spaces, but the bank plans to permit customers to use the employee lot if necessary.

Several objectors complained that

(Please see 'First' on page 13.)

Looking To Expand — First DeWitt Savings and Loan Bank, located at 463 Washington Ave., is looking to construct a two-story addition and expand its on-site parking area. Bank officials have applied to the local Zoning Board for permission and the case will be continued next month.

Aerobic Dance Class Will Keep You Fit

There's a new and effective way to lose weight, keep fit and have fun doing it—it's called "Rebound Aerobic Dancing" and along with nutritionist Rose M. Green, M.A., R.D., who will help tailor your appetite, it will enable you to recover from this relaxing, binging, no exercise holiday season.

Rebounders have been selling in stores for many years, but up until now there was never a developed program to teach you how to get the most benefit out of them. Linda Palumbo, director of Rebound Aerobic Dancing, Inc., located at 184 Pompton Ave., Verona, was the first to actually bring aerobic exercise classes, specifically designed on the rebounder to the east coast. Students participating in a rebound aerobics program have had weight loss, loss of inches, loss of cellulite, increased stamina and endurance, increased muscle strength and tone, better mental attitudes and greater heart efficiency.

Mrs. Green, director of the Nutritional Health Consultants, located at 77 Park St., Montclair, has developed a strong and effective weight loss program in conjunction with rebound exercise. In the weight loss and compulsive eating class, you will learn about dieting and weight control, a basic knowledge of nutrition and developing techniques for monitoring eating patterns, binging, snacking at the wrong times, and overindulging in problem foods such as carbohydrates.

In addition to designing these programs, Palumbo and Mrs. Green have developed a training school where they train, certify and contact individuals in the exercise field. Rebound aerobics will have an open house throughout the month of January. You may participate in a free class and find out more about our weight control classes. For more info you may call Palumbo at 751-9481 (home office) or Mrs. Green at 674-0454 (home office).

Belleville Car Dealer Receives Selling Award

Louis Luzzi, new vehicle salesperson for Bigelow Motors, Inc., Chrysler-Plymouth dealer in Belleville, received an award for individual performance in selling Chrysler-Plymouth vehicles.

A resident of Belleville, Luzzi has reached the Silver level of recognition in Chrysler-Plymouth's unique Sales Professionals Club.

Specially-designed incentives and awards are provided for outstanding product knowledge and sales achievement at three performance levels — Bronze, Silver and Gold. Membership in each level is determined by points earned for sales of new cars and trucks.

The program continues throughout the 1983 model sales year. The top 50 Chrysler-Plymouth retail sales personnel will win a trip to a three-day National Sales Conference.

Dorothy Kisal Will Lead March of Dimes Campaign Here

The March of Dimes 1984 Mothers March campaign in Belleville will be led by Dorothy Kisal of Overlook Avenue.

As town chairwoman, Ms. Kisal will join mothers throughout the country in a nationwide neighbor-to-neighbor appeal for funds to fight birth defects.

"Mothers March has a special meaning because mothers from around the area will come together to form the initial campaign of the new year for the North Jersey Chapter," said Ms. Kisal. "I know that the residents of Belleville will give the mothers their warm support."

Mothers March will take place Jan. 21-29, with Jane Burgo, New Jersey Secretary of State, serving as the campaign's honorary chairwoman.

When taking an antihistamine to relieve allergy symptoms, weight gain is certainly not the expected side effect. However, some medications cause just that. Drugs can bring about weight gain by causing water retention, increased appetite or thirst, cravings for sweets or a slowing down of the body's metabolism. The gain can range from a pound or two in just a few days to 20 pounds or more over several weeks or months. This can be dangerous, particularly for patients with heart and kidney disease. Report any unusual weight gain to your doctor when taking any medication. Fortunately this type of weight gain is usually reversible when the drug is discontinued.

If you have questions concerning your medications, speak to either your physician or our pharmacist at ROSMARE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. A full line of convenient aids is available including walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes for sale or rent. We also stock baby needs, cameras and film. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

Public Affairs Department Provides Complete Community Transportation

By Michelle Jeannotte

In recent years the cost of transportation has skyrocketed, causing many persons, especially the elderly, to worry if they can afford to commute — even around the township. But thanks to the efforts of the Public Affairs Department transportation problems no longer exist.

For the past nine years, officials at the Public Affairs Department have been providing transportation services for the entire community as well as for senior citizens.

Started in 1975 by then Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, Dial-A-Ride provides local transportation, free of charge, for all residents of Belleville.

"Because this service is public-funded, the general public must have the privilege," said Ralph Risoli, who oversees the program for Commissioner Michael Pizzi. "We do, however, limit the transportation to the municipality itself. If a resident needs transportation outside of Belleville, we refer them to other agencies."

The Dial-A-Ride program provides two vans which run from 8:30 a.m. to 3:35 p.m. Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays. According to Risoli, the Division of Transportation receives 35-40 calls a day.

"As far as we're concerned, there is no other program in the County of Essex that can match our program here," Risoli continued. "We book 35-40 appointments per day, picking up residents and bringing them to their destinations. We then pick them up again to bring them home."

Appointments for Dial-A-Ride are made by calling the Division of Transportation at 759-2600.

Staff members of the department drive the vans and answer the phones. One position for the program is provided through a grant from the Essex County Office of Aging.

The Department of Public Affairs also provides another transportation service, however, this one is strictly for senior citizens.

In 1974 two senior citizens buses were provided to transport seniors to various places in the community, including the shopping areas, banks and municipal buildings. The buses travel from the Silver Lake section to the Valley section, covering the entire town.

The buses run on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., with the schedule allowing the seniors two hours to complete their tasks.

"We give the seniors schedules of stops and maps which outline the bus routes," Risoli said. "We try to make it as convenient as possible for them."

Risoli feels this program is important because "we have discovered Belleville is a knitted community and the program allows visiting across town. It is important to get the senior citizens out of their homes to visit children or relatives who may live on the other side of town."

According to Risoli only police and firemen are hired to drive the buses because "they are well up on emergency situations."

"Police and firemen are schooled and trained for emergency situations," said Risoli, "and are always on the alert. If anything should happen, they are right there to respond and call for help."

Because the department is interested in the welfare of the senior citizens, in case of inclement weather, the buses are taken off the road. "If it becomes a dangerous situation, we cancel the buses. However, the Dial-A-Ride program still services the community."

According to Risoli, the department "intends to keep the programs on and make them better." Concluding, he said, "It is sometimes hard to get these programs funded, but as long as we do, the programs will continue."

The Division of Transportation is located on the first floor at 383 Washington Ave.

Public Library Holding Annual Book Contest

For the fifth year, the Belleville Public Library will be sponsoring its National Library Week Picture Book Contest. The contest is open to kindergarten children through Grade 6, junior high school students, senior high school students, and adults. First, second and honorable mention prizes will also be awarded for the best illustrated books at a special awards program, Thursday, April 12, at 3:30 p.m., when prizes will be awarded.

The book that is submitted may be fiction or non-fiction, should be illustrated with original drawings, or pictures from magazines, or photographs, and should be made from construction paper, oaktag, or any other substantial material. It must be original and not copied from another author.

All entries must be brought to the library by Saturday, March 24, at 5 p.m. Judging will be done on the basis of creativity, proper English, and artistry. Judges for the contest are Adrea Cohen, assistant library director; Cindy La Rue, reference and young peoples librarian; Fred Lewis, technical services librarian; David Bryant, library director; and Lorraine Kimmel, senior library assistant.

Directions for the contest are available at the library. For further information, call Adrea Cohen, contest coordinator at 759-9200.

Charles Miele

An outstanding member of the Board of Education has decided to call it quits — thus depriving the community of his continuing service. He is Charles Miele, former president of the Board of Education. Miele cites lack of time and personal priorities for his decision. In his announcement Miele pointed out that changing conditions make it impossible for him to continue giving 100 percent of himself to his School Board responsibilities. Indeed, Charles Miele has given 100 percent of himself to improve the quality of education available to our students.

Miele has been an independent thinker — always supported measures to improve the quality of education in his never ending search for excellence. Charles Miele has been a good citizen — he has been a dedicated School Board member. His absence from the School Board will leave a void that will not be easy to fill, for Charles Miele is a class act — one hard to follow.

It is a grateful community that acknowledges Miele's substantial contributions to making a good school system better.

Town Budgets

Early reports from Town Hall and the Board of Education make it very clear that 1984 will not be the year of no real estate tax increase.

Both from the Board of Education and the Town Hall we are told to expect relatively, substantial property tax increases.

From the Board of Education comes a suggestion that a $5 million capital improvement bond issue may appear on the ballot.

With its history of budget rejections, the School Board may be in trouble seeking voter approval of a $5 million capital improvement bond issue.

Any businessman recognizes that delaying needed capital improvements expense will be compounded if deferred too long.

That property maintenance is necessary for all the schools, there is no doubt. The question is whether or not 1984 is the year.

Both at the Town Hall and the School Board we have prudent economy-minded public officials, who, by the way, also pay property taxes. They need not be reminded the property tax burden already is heavy. We have confidence these public officials will consider budgets that reflect utmost consideration for the overburdened taxpayer.

Prayer For Today

O Lord God everlasting, Which reignest over the kingdoms of men, so teach me I humbly beseech Thee, Thy word, and so strengthen me with Thy grace that I may feed Thy people with a faithful and a true heart, and rule them prudently with power. O Lord, Thou hast set me on high. My flesh is frail and weak. If I therefore at any time forget Thee, touch my heart, O Lord, that I may again remember Thee. If I swell against Thee, pluck me down in my own conceit...I acknowledge, O my King, without Thee my throne is unstable, my seat unsure, my kingdom tottering, my life uncertain. I see all things in this life subject to mutability, nothing to continue still at one stay. Create therefore in me, O Lord, a new heart, and so renew my spirit that Thy law may be my study, Thy Truth my delight, Thy church my care, Thy people my crown, Thy righteousness my pleasure, Thy service my government; so shall this my kingdom through Thee be established with peace.

Former BHS Student Looks For Reunion

(An open letter to Michael Nardiello, superintendent of schools.)

It was with great interest that I read of your appointment as superintendent in our Alumni News from Montclair State. As a person born and raised in Belleville, New Jersey, I was delighted to see that a fellow graduate of two institutions had been so honored.

I graduated from Belleville High in 1934 and from Montclair in 1938. It bothers me that our 50th reunion date is coming up and there appears to be no one to start a reunion. As you can see, living in Arizona poses a problem in terms of committee work, but I would certainly be east for that occasion. Do you think anything will be happening? Is there no one from the Class of 1934 that can get the ball rolling?

Whatever the outcome of the reunion, my letter was motivated by your appointment. Congratulations!

Very truly yours,

New Hospital Bed Does Wonders in Healing Ill

To the editor:

There is a new bed in the hospital circles that I would like to tell you about. It's called "Clintron Therapy." What kind of bed is this? Well, to begin with, it's new. I don't think it's been out more than a couple of years. It's a wonder! As I'm writing this article, I am on it right now.

It's unique feature is that it's run by electricity. It has crystals and sand of a very fine substance; even finer than that found on most sea shores. When you lie on these things, it's just like being on the ocean. Only pressing your body down makes you feel it. You can hear the movement if your ear is pressed into it. It keeps pressure off the body to help prevent and heal bed sores. It does very good!

In most cases, I'd say it heals within six months to a year; perhaps even less.

It is a little noisy because of the motor. However, you can get used to it. Now it doesn't even bother me. Nor do my roommates even hear it. It also stops and goes so there is rest in between.

I just hope and pray the hospitals, nursing homes and other institutions all over the country will eventually get these beds. Best thing that's come along in its field since waterbeds.

I realize it costs money. Unfortunately, everything in this country is too much money, but that's the way our society is.

A thought to ponder. If they can spend money on sports stadiums and send money to dictators who may or may not be for us, they can take care of their own citizens who are in these homes.

So, gentlemen, I would like to remind everybody, including myself, that charity begins at home.

Sincerely,
Bill Rundle

The Friendly Visitors Program of Community Mental Health Services will hold its regular volunteer monthly meeting, Thursday, Jan. 26, at 3 p.m. at Fewsmith Memorial Church, 444 Union Ave.

The program will be a 1983 review of the Friendly Visitors activities. There will also be a special slide presentation by Bill Crawford, a Nutley volunteer of the Friendly Visitors for six years, who will discuss his recent trip to Alaska and British Columbia.

The Friendly Visitors Program is a telephone reassurance and visitation program for the frail elderly of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley. For more information, call Marly Angeline, 450-3136.

Golden Comments

By James Golden

Many of us are familiar with the E.F. Hutton cliché that "When E.F. Hutton talks, people listen." Indeed they do, especially local school boards across the country, according to a recent TIME education story...something our Belleville trustees might consider.

Pennsylvania school districts are listening to E.F. Hutton to the extent of enlisting the services of the big broker and other consultants to help them boost the value of their tax revenues, which otherwise might remain in non-interest-bearing checking accounts or small savings accounts earning only 5 1/4 percent interest.

Since March 1982, a number of districts have been pooling their tax receipts and investing the resultant millions of dollars in the Pennsylvania School District Liquid Asset Fund. The fund buys U.S. and state government securities, treasury notes and bonds for example, earning interest of about 10 percent. Result: this year the school fund raised $15.5 million in interest for its member districts. This makes voters happy because the earnings keep property tax increases down. The school revenues are not tied up long periods of time: districts can write checks on the fund.

Lincoln Moyer, executive director of the Pennsylvania Association of School Business Officials, says: "The fund's advantage is that we have broadened the possibilities of return on investments without jeopardizing safety."

Unlike many school managers who routinely invest their tax dollars, Pennsylvania districts have consolidated their revenues in order to negotiate top interest rates. Some states do not allow school districts to make their own investment decisions, but the idea of a pool is beginning to catch on. Michigan and Illinois are working with E.F. Hutton to set up an investment fund early in 1984.

James Betchkal, associate director of the Washington-based National School Boards Association, which is helping to organize the plan, says: "A lot of school districts are money poor, but very few are short of ready cash. We're finding that even if you have that cash for 24 hours, you can do something with it."

Illinois now runs an investment pool for its local governmental agencies, including 200 school districts. "School treasurers are often able to earn enough in interest to pay the salaries of one or more teachers," says Burnell Heinecke, special assistant to the Illinois state treasurer.

Since 1982 the Pennsylvania fund has grown from seven of its 501 school districts, with pooled assets of $2 million to 140 districts, with $115 million invested as of last fall. The big winners from the pooling of funds are the smaller-districts. Norman Weinheimer, executive director of the Michigan School Board Association, says: "You don't get much interest from a $15,000 investment by itself, but pooled it draws higher interest."

One small Pennsylvania district, by investing $2.6 million of this year's $12.6 million budget in the fund, expects to increase interest earnings by 20 percent, to $200,000, which may be used to buy equipment, such as computers, and reduce property taxes. Says School District Manager Wallace Jones: "Anything you can do to lessen the burden on the taxpayer is very important." He is so correct.

May we respectfully suggest that our Belleville school trustees explore the advantages inherent in a plan such as this. It certainly proved helpful in Pennsylvania...why not in New Jersey.

ED-ITORIALIZING

ABC Production on Incest Applauded

Officials at ABC-TV should stand up and take a bow for their courage to show the movie "Something About Amelia," a film dealing with the shocking and controversial subject of incest.

Incest is perhaps one of the final taboos in this country which people have been afraid to face, yet according to officials who deal with it on a daily basis, the problem is one of major proportions. Personally, I never dreamed that the crisis was as wide spread as authorities tell us. I, along with millions of others, thought of incest as being a crime committed by step-parents and dirty-minded uncles — most coming from lower class families. But according to figures, incest has no status boundary and is committed by natural parents as well as step-parents.

During commercial breaks in last Monday's special broadcast, ABC affiliates throughout the country aired telephone numbers of social service agencies, instructing viewers to call in reports and incidents of incest. And the response was overwhelming. The State Division of Youth and Family Services said the hotline, which averages five or six calls a day, received 99 calls following the movie, many directly related to incest and child abuse. One Bergen County man turned himself in to police after viewing the movie, admitting that he had been sexually abusing his 16-year-old daughter for the past two years.

Incest is a subject which is not discussed openly in many homes, if any at all. And you have to believe the reason is that many people just do not believe the problem really exists. But after viewing "Something About Amelia," I am sure that a majority of people in this country have changed their opinions about the severity of incest. Throughout the country calls were received on hotlines from mothers who suspected something going on between their husbands and daughters, but they tried to ignore it. Now the same mothers were searching for information on what to do about the situation.

As I sat at home watching the movie, I found myself wondering how a man could sexually abuse his own daughter, his own flesh and blood. And the more I pondered the thought, the more I found my stomach becoming nauseous. While I found the film to be depressing, I am happy to see that ABC took the first step in bringing this program to the attention of the American public. We have had films dealing with homosexuality, wife abuse, child abuse, drunk driving, alcoholism and nuclear war. It's about time that this country woke up to all the problems which we face instead of hiding them under the covers, because in the long run it is innocent children who are victimized and suffer.

Residents of Belleville will be losing an outstanding community representative when Charles Miele resigns from his School Board seat on April 2. Charles has been active in school affairs in the township for a long time, and his leadership qualities have been demonstrated over and over again.

One thing I have noticed about Charlie during his tenure on the board is that he is his own man — at least that's the way he appears. During his five-year term — including one year as board president — he has repeatedly voted with his conscience and many times has been on the losing end of a board decision.

He has also been very honest and open with the press, at least since he concluded his term as president. When he served as leader of the Board of Education, Miele was cautious about what he said and released to the paper, but since that time he has become a good and honest source of information and has been a major help to my staff and myself.

The loss of Charles Miele will be a large one to the community of Belleville.

Music Parents Hosting Fund Raising Dinner

The Belleville Music Parents Association will be having a fund raising dinner for the benefit of the music program students on Wednesday, Jan. 25, at 6 p.m.

The dinner will be catered by the nationally famous firm of "Luncheon Is Served." They will provide door prizes, valuable food coupons (approximately $2 worth for each person), diet hints and a food presentation.

The dinner and program should finish by 7:30 p.m. if started promptly at 6 p.m. as scheduled. It will be a nice opportunity to take the family out to dinner at an extremely reasonable cost and at the same time help support the music program of the school system and meet the parents of other students who share the same interests as your son or daughter.

Students of the music program, grades 5 through 12, will be bringing home the ticket order flyer. Simply complete the bottom of the form, tear or cut off and put in an envelope along with your remittance. Return to the high school by mailing to: Frank Scelba, Music Department, Belleville High School, 100 Passaic Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109, or send in with the student. You may also call for ticket information by calling the dinner chairperson, Mrs. Lorraine Leming at 751-6251 or Scelba, at 759-4700.

We are hoping that the parents who have a son or daughter in the band, the orchestra, the color guard, the flag squad, the twirling squad, or the various chorus groups, will give us their support by bringing their families. Tickets are $5 per person. Please make your checks payable to "BMPA Dinner."

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

Can small childhood injuries carry over to cause trouble for adults? Yes! Sometimes a simple fall, without apparent harm, can cause a spinal misalignment. This may result in only minimal pain and stiffness and is usually simply ignored.

After years of neglect, more bumps, falls and strains, this misalignment can get bad enough to pinch nerves, with pain and discomfort that cannot be ignored. It is far better to treat all troubles early, while treatment is simple and relief is prompt.

Whatever the nature of your health problem, give chiropractic a chance. Phone today.

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto,

I am married to a handsome guy. I love him so much, but he is losing his fine hair on the top of his forehead. I see that you opened a unisex extension, adjacent to your store, where you cut men's hair. I told my husband to go see you but he refused. He thinks you only do ladies hair. Is there a way his hair can look fuller?

Your Guess Who Customer

Dear Guess Who Customer,

Yes, there is a method to let sparse, fine hair look fuller. Just good curl permanent. You can give him the perm. Use smaller rods on the top and large ones on the sides and the nape of the neck. This will give him more curl on top, looking fuller all around. Yes, we do many men in our unisex extension. Let me take this opportunity to thank those wives, mothers, sisters, and girlfriends who recommend our hair cutting. Thank you for your many compliments and the praising of my coworkers. Believe me, I never forget that I was a worker. My weekly fondest to Linda, Ellen, Wightman and Paula Mc Gurloch.

Theatre Training School Starts Soon

The Whole Theatre Company's Professional Theatre School, one of New Jersey's leading centers for performing arts training, located in Montclair, will begin its spring semester the week of Jan. 30. The school offers comprehensive professional multi-level training in acting, dance and voice for children through adults, taught by a faculty of practicing professionals.

'Acting Technique' and 'Scene Study' classes are available on three levels for adults. 'Auditioning For Theatre' divulges the art of successful auditioning, a must for all actors. 'Acting Technique' and 'Scene Study' are also offered on the teen and pre-teen levels.

New this semester is 'Three Ball Juggling,' requiring only three lacrosse balls and no experience. Learn the basic three ball patterns and develop the skills to entertain bank tellers, stupefy produce managers and drive retrievers wild.

'Creative Dramatics' is specially designed for children 5 through 7 and 8 through 10. The children explore individual imagination through improvisation, story-telling, theatre games and related movements. 'Dance For Young People,' also for 5 through 7 and 8 through 10 year olds, fosters a creative spirit and enjoyment of dance. For a Drama/Dance Saturday, enroll your child in both 'Creative Dramatics and Dance' from 10 a.m. to noon.

The Theatre School's dance curriculum includes 'Musical Theatre Dance I and II' for adults interested in learning dance in the tradition of Broadway and movie musicals. Adults and teens are also offered both 'Modern and Jazz Dance' from the beginner level up. The new 'Dance For Young People' develops dance skills and a creative spirit in 5 through 7 and 8 through 10 year olds. The school's unique 'Dance Performing Workshops' are offered for both adults and teens. The workshops culminate in performances at the Whole Theatre Company and spring touring. Young people ages 14 through 17 with a background in modern, jazz and or ballet are encouraged to call the Whole Theatre Company education department for a Saturday, Jan. 14 audition time for the 'Dance Performing Workshops.'

The voice department trains students in complete vocal technique and song performance in both its 'Musical Theatre Workshops I and II,' specifically designed for the singing actor. 'Musical Theatre Workshop II,' available by audition only or by instructor recommendation, offers students the opportunity to perform and tour locally in the spring. 'Singing For the Young Actor' is specially structured for students 11 through 15 years old.

Registration is now in progress and can be done by mail or in person any weekday at the Whole Theatre offices at 22 South Park St., Montclair, 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., or at the box office at 544 Bloomfield Ave., 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. For more information please call the education department at 744-2933.

Undecided About Political Future

Former Assemblyman John Kelly Reflects on His 2 Years in Trenton

By Michael C. Gabriele

The new session of the State Assembly opened Jan. 10 in Trenton. While it marked the beginning of legislative duties for many representatives it marked the close for John Kelly of Nutley.

Kelly, the president of Nutley Savings and Loan Association, lost his assembly seat in last November's election to Democrats Buddy Fortunato and Steve Aduabato. Kelly, who served one two-year term as a Republican representative, took time out to reflect on his experience in state government and his plans for the future.

John Kelly — The president of Nutley Savings and Loan and former Republican assemblyman from the 30th District reflected on his two years in office during an interview last week. Kelly said that his political plans for the future were undecided.

"I thoroughly enjoyed the chance to serve the people in Trenton," Kelly said last Friday morning during an interview in his office. "It was all very rewarding for me. I made many friends and met many people from around the state. Anyone who has complaints about our government or politicians should take a ride down to Trenton and see what really goes on."

Well known and admired for his support of community activities and organizations in Nutley, Kelly captured 6,625 votes in the Nov. 8 election. When first elected as an assemblyman in 1981, Kelly received over 7,000 votes from Nutley residents.

"They used to call me 'the wanderer' in Trenton because I moved freely on both sides of the isle," Kelly said. "I've never been concerned about bills being Democratic or Republican. If a bill is good, I'll support it no matter who proposes it. I think that people in politics get too caught up in the whole idea of following party lines. I never went in for any of that nonsense. I liked being perceived as an independent assemblyman. When people come into my office, I never ask them if they're a Democrat or Republican."

Kelly said that he was uncertain of his future political plans, in state government or elsewhere. After losing the election last November, many circles in Nutley began to whisper about John Kelly being a strong candidate for that township's Commission election scheduled next May.

"I've thought about it," Kelly admitted, referring to running for a commission seat here. "I know people are talking about it and many have already asked me about it. I don't know. At this point I'd have to say I'd doubt if I would run. It's a big decision, and I'd have to talk it over with my family. I think that being a commissioner in Nutley would be even tougher than working in the State Assembly. I also happen to like all of the commissioners that are there now, so it would be a difficult position to get into. But I have an open mind about it. There's still plenty of time to think about it."

Reflecting on his two-year tenure in Trenton, Kelly said that his greatest accomplishment was a $4 million jobs training bill, which he co-sponsored with Assemblyman John Paul Doyle of Bergen County. As far as unfinished business, Kelly mentioned two bills which he sponsored: one which would provide funds to families for children with catastrophic diseases, and a bill which would provide a 30-year jail sentence to convicted kidnappers.

"I was given assurances by my colleagues in Trenton that they would push through the catastrophic disease bill," Kelly said. "That would provide money to families for children that are seriously ill. Medical expenses are really astronomical today, so that bill would provide relief for people. My kidnapping bill would set a mandatory 30-year jail sentence for anyone who abducts a child for pornography, rape or blackmail."

Kelly added that during his two years in Trenton he tried to stay away from any legislation that had to do with banking, given his position as president of a savings and loan.

Acknowledging his widespread support in Nutley, Kelly said that the reason for his loss last November was due to the fact that he wasn't as well known in other communities as here. When questioned about recent compliments paid to him by Aduabato in the Dec. 22 issue of The Belleville Times, Kelly smiled and said: "Well, it's good politics to never attack your adversary."

Kelly had the same smile and wink when asked about statements made by Senate President Carmen Orechio when the new session in Trenton opened last week. Orechio was quoted as saying that Kelly was "his favorite Republican legislator."

"Well, I'm not in Trenton anymore," Kelly said. "Carmen has always been a gentleman toward me. I have no complaints about his treatment of me and I don't think that he can complain about my treatment toward him. I have no axes to grind with Democrats."

One minor ax he had to grind was with an environmental group from Essex County which endorsed Aduabato in the last election. "I question their sincerity," Kelly said. "I think that they were Democrats in disguise."

Though many in Nutley supported Kelly's bid to return to the assembly, a typical comment which was always made about the savings and loan president was that "John Kelly is too nice a guy to get mixed up in politics."

"I don't think that the political world is as evil as some people might think," Kelly said, responding to the statement. "I saw no corruption when I was in Trenton, and I found most people in government to be hard working and sincere. However, some politicians have their vision clouded by all of this partisan party nonsense. The public suffers from all of the political protocol which goes on. Unfortunately, that's the only thing which people see sometimes. I've heard many voices in the legislature speak about bipartisan cooperation in the legislature and with the governor. I've taken many

Belleville's Past

James B. Hervey's laundry, mentioned in the editorial, had been located since 1862 "on the old Jorammon property, by the river." Four years later, another steam laundry was established by William C. Blewett. An anonymous writer, devoting several columns of the Newark Sentinel of February 8, 1870, to a description of "Belleville and Its Environs," also told about a visit to Blewett's laundry where "new shirts are brought from New York to be done up." Passing swiftly over the mechanical parts of washing, drying and starching, the author dwelled at length on the more pleasing aspects of the plant. "In the ironing room," he wrote, "may be seen about 50 girls, chiefly Irish, all neat, tidy and cheerful, thumping away with their irons and piling new clean shirts by the cord. A day's work is regulated by the number of shirts ironed. The girls board in the establishment, and earn from $8 to $35 per month. They are well behaved, and maintain good characters."

Hervey employed about twice that number, a hundred girls, in his plant. The Sentinel's esthetic reporter would have been decidedly less favorably impressed with the behavior of Hervey's laundering colleens, had he been able to observe them change to fire-spitting iron-throwing terrors with the arrival of what the Sentinel was pleased to call "The Heathen Chinese in our Midst."

The paper reported that "Mr. Hervey, wishing to increase his force of employees, and being unable to supply his want with reliable help in this vicinity, took the hint of the Massachusetts' shoe-manufacturers, and about two months ago, went to San Francisco to secure Chinamen. He succeeded in securing 68 men, through the principal Chinese agency in San Francisco, agreeing to pay them $30 a month each in gold coin, for their work, they boarding and clothing themselves. The contract is to hold for three years."

However, "due to threats of violence against the imported laborers,...it was deemed advisable that their entry into the place should be made under the cover of the night, and it was just midnight when the Mongol recruits for the labor-market were marched into the silent streets of Belleville and assigned to safe and comfortable quarters in one of the laundry buildings. Hervey, who frequently was given the courtesy title of "captain," remembered what army experience he had had, and had a high board fence "erected immediately around the works, to prevent, for the present, any intercourse between the Chinese and too curious visitors." A large portion of his female help walked out on him, and the unsuspecting Celestials were editorially lambasted as "the new bete noir of the great labor question," who had, as the Sentinel put it, "invaded the sacred soil of New Jersey." Papers of opposing viewpoints, on the other hand, referred to the striking laundry girls as "unmanageable females."

people down to Trenton with me over the last two years and they came away very impressed."

Commenting on the job being done by Governor Thomas Kean, Kelly said that he felt he was doing well and was trying to help the cities of the state. During the campaign last fall, Kean expressed his support of Kelly.

Addressing the issue of state education, Kelly said the major thrust for reforms must come from teachers and those in the education community. He also questioned the theory of the merit pay plan for educators which has gained support from Governor Kean.

"Merit pay sounds like a good idea in theory, but who is going to administer it and apply it. On what will the merit be based? You could have a good teacher and lousy students, or a lousy teacher and good students. What we are dealing with here are the minds of our children. If you want to have good teachers and attract quality people to the education field, then you have to pay good salaries. But at the same time you must eliminate waste and accept the facts of life. You can't convince me that every course they teach in high school and college today is absolutely necessary. The teachers must clean up their own shop and address these issues themselves. If they leave it up to the politicians then they will be getting a lot of arbitrary decisions and cuts."

Speaking on the subject of political lobbyists, Kelly seemed to show respect for the role they serve in government. "I know that many people complain about lobbyists and the way they try to influence elected officials," Kelly said. "Actually, they're a pretty well-informed group and they do their homework. You have to listen to them because they know their product. A good legislator must listen to them but read into what they're saying. They're not necessarily a bad group just because they try to put their point across."

Kelly said that it was the late Nutley Municipal Judge Robert Citrino who first got him interested in politics. "Bobby was the person who asked me to run," Kelly recalled, noting that prior to that he was never interested in a political career. "I've had some honors in my day, but I think that holding an elected office was the top one. Maybe some politicians just accept it as another job, but I was always impressed with the office and the responsibilities it carried. I truly enjoyed my two years as an assemblyman."

"I wish more young people became involved in politics," Kelly said as a final thought. After making the statement, Kelly paused and added with a sly smile: "Well, maybe I shouldn't say that. After all, it was a young person that defeated me (meaning Steve Aduabato, who just turned 26 this month). Young people should take time out to examine the political world. There are laws being passed today that will affect them for the rest of their lives."

Commissioners Seeking New Water Supply

stabilization of rates expected over a period of 40 years.

Presently, Belleville receives water from the Newark Water Company and faces increasing rates and service deemed unsatisfactory by citizens and officials.

"Our major concern is if we can get the Silver Lake area to receive the same as the rest of the town," said Marotti.

That section of Belleville is linked with portions of Newark in matters related to billing and water supply.

According to Orechio, Belleville's ordinance will be reviewed within the next several weeks. If approved by the project authorities, Belleville must then apply to the state Department of Environmental Protection which will conduct a hearing on the township's applications.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Operation Sidelines Colalillo For Season

Hoopsters Hit Hard Streak With 3 Consecutive Losses

If you happen to see a Red Cross truck pull up in front of the Belleville High School gymnasium, don't be surprised if its driver is Joe Papasidero.

It was that kind of week for the Belleville boys' basketball team. First off, Phil Colalillo suffered a ruptured appendix before last Monday's game with Bergen Catholic. Colalillo was rushed to the hospital for emergency surgery and as of Monday, was still in the hospital recovering. Needless to say, his season has come to a premature end, a tragic ending for a talented senior who was making a lot of noise in the early going of this season.

The loss of Colalillo, along with three tough games, sent the Bucs to three defeats and lowered the team record to 4-6. Belleville's loss to Bergen Catholic, 59-38, Nutley, 63-56 and Paterson Kennedy, 82-37. The combined record of those three schools was 24-2 as The Times went to press last Tuesday.

This week the Bucs hosted St. Al's on Monday, traveled to Eastside on Tuesday and will be in Teaneck tomorrow afternoon for a 4 p.m. tip off. Tuesday, the Bucs will host Ridgewood in a 4 p.m. start.

In addition to the loss of Colalillo, Dave Boyd, the Bucs' starting forward, had his shoulder popped in the second quarter of the Nutley game and is playing with a good deal of pain. Brian Cook has a bruised hip, David Long, a jawbreaker, tore ligaments in his ankle and he's out for the year. Jayvee player Rick Stallone has a jammed finger and another player is just returning from a suspension.

The Bergen Catholic game saw Belleville play a tough defensive game, but without Colalillo, the offense lacked punch. "I give our kids a lot of credit," said Papasidero. "They have been playing hard, they're not giving up because Phil is out. We played a good defensive game against Bergen Catholic, but they were big and strong. We couldn't match them on the boards."

BC jumped out to an 18-5 first quarter lead and led, 25-12 at halftime. They put the game away in the third quarter, outscoring the Bucs, 16-9 and won by 21 points. Danny Ward had 17 points for Belleville and Boyd added 10. Mike Sochaski had seven points, Steve Kimble two and Cook, two. The Bucs point guard, Joe Borrello, was held scoreless in the contest.

The Nutley game was a tough battle between two crosstown rivals. The Raiders came in undefeated and were playing without their big man, Tom Downey, who went down because of a broken ankle. "They had a tremendous balance," said Papasidero of Nutley. "They can go to so many players and come away with points. They are a very well coached club."

The score was tied after one quarter at 14, but Nutley went to their fast break in the second frame and took a nine-point lead into the lockerroom, 37-28. Belleville came back with a strong defense, outscoring Nutley, 11-5 and cutting the gap to three points, 42-39 entering the final quarter. It was there that Nutley took command, outscoring the Bucs by four points and winning by seven, 63-56.

Boyd, despite playing with a bad shoulder, was the high scorer for Belleville, hitting with 19 points. Borrello had 12, Kimble 11, Ward, nine and Cook, five. For Nutley, the attack was paced by 19 points from Pat Higgins and 15 from Bob Harbison. Doug Marshall scored 10 points and two players tallied nine and eight points respectively to close out the scoring.

Versus Kennedy, Belleville was up against a solid team, one of the best in Northern New Jersey. Needless to say, without Colalillo, the Bucs were in for a tough go of it. They did keep it close in the first half, trailing 6-4 after one quarter and 24-14 at halftime. In the second half, the Kennedy attack caught fire and the visitors outscored the Bucs, 58-23 in the second half to pull away to a 45-point win.

Ward and Borrello paced Belleville's attack with 12 points each. Boyd had six in limited action,

Girls Fall in Rough Contest To Nutley, Coach Concerned

Despite a 9-1 record and two impressive victories last week, head coach Karen Fucello is far from happy with her team's play. Furthermore, the Buccanettes face a very difficult stretch in the schedule, and their top scorer is just coming back from a sore ankle.

Last Tuesday the girls hosted Eastside at the high school. On Saturday Belleville will battle conference rival Teaneck, at Seton Hall University, starting at 1 p.m. Tuesday, the girls will head up to Ridgewood for a big contest with a very good Ridgewood club.

Last week the girls lost a tough two-point battle to Nutley, 41-39, then came back to rout Paterson Kennedy, 58-47 and Hackensack, 67-34. The loss to Nutley was particularly painful because Jennifer Apicella was playing with a sore ankle and the girls blew an eight-point lead in the fourth quarter.

The game was hard-fought from the outset. A large crowd, which had witnessed an unusual doubleheader with the boys' and girls' basketball programs hosting Nutley, watched as two undefeated squads from neighboring towns played a typical Belleville-Nutley type of game. Hard-fought, low scoring and usually coming down to the wire.

Belleville was in command for most of the contest. They led, 13-10, after one quarter and 21-18 at halftime. In the third quarter, the girls opened up a nine-point lead but Nutley, with balanced scoring, managed to cut the gap to 31-28 entering the final frame.

The Nutley defense did a strong job on Apicella. The senior all-American, who had injured her right ankle the previous week against Passaic, was notably not 100 percent. The Maroon defense swarmed all over Apicella with an aggressive defense that kept the senior off track throughout the evening. Apicella would finish with 11 points, well below her average, and fouled out with a little over three minutes left in the fourth quarter.

The fourth quarter was Belleville's downfall, as Nutley outscored the hosts, 13-8, to win a tough contest, 41-39. In addition to Apicella, Dina De Aquino was high scorer for Belleville, hitting for 13 points. Donna Brooks had 11 points for Belleville and Tracy Buono added four. The Nutley squad was led by Debbie Cullen, a sophomore guard, who poured in 16 points. Cullen was outstanding from the jumpshot and gave Belleville fits throughout the evening.

The following day school was closed due to the snowstorm and the next day, Belleville traveled to Paterson to battle Kennedy High School.

"We were flat for that game," said Fucello. "Not having a chance to practice on Wednesday hurt us. It seems like there is one obstacle after another. Obstacles, obstacles, obstacles. First it was the snow, then on Friday we could only use half of the gym because there was a wrestling match that night."

Versus Kennedy, Belleville jumped out to a 12-4 first quarter

(Please see 'Girls' on page 12.)

Cutting The Corner — Danny Ward, a senior guard for the Belleville High School basketball team, makes his move in a recent game against St. Aloysius. Ward scored 21 points in leading the Bucs to victory.

Grapplers Continue Their Winning Ways

By Dino Ibelli

Due to the inclement weather, the Belleville wrestling team had its match with Don Bosco Prep cancelled. In its only other match, the Bucs routed Teaneck, 63-4 to boost their record to 4-0. This week, the Bucs were in Bergenfield yesterday, travel to Ridgewood on Saturday and will host Paramus next Wednesday, starting at 7:30 p.m. The Ridgewood match is a 1:30 start.

The Teaneck bout was a fast match, but very effective for the young Bucs. Tim Buckley won his first varsity match by pinning Steve Dondoro late in the first period. At 107 pounds, Dennis Ives won his varsity match by way of forfeit.

With a 12-0 lead, Dom Cerreto boosted his record to 9-1 by pinning Jon Samuelson in 1:28. Cerreto has really bounced back from his loss to Vic Pallante of Caldwell in the semifinals of the Bloomfield tournament.

Mike Giffirda picked up a

Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball Squad Looks Impressive

When the Belleville girls' basketball season comes to an end this season, it will mark the conclusion of a marvelous career by Jennifer Apicella. Needless to say, replacing a person of Apicella's talents will be difficult, almost impossible to say the least.

What people might forget is that Loreli Wells, Dina De Aquino and Tracy Buono will also be graduated from BHS this spring. Returning to the court next season will be junior Donna Brooks and a host of underclassmen who will suddenly carry a great deal of responsibility on their shoulders.

As mentioned in last week's column, head coach Karen Fucello is assisted by a strong staff. The junior varsity coach is Debbie Meola, a 1972 graduate of Belleville High School and a woman that has been associated with the basketball team since the 1976-77 campaign. She has coached a number of strong junior varsity units, but perhaps this year's team rates among the best.

Meola was unavailable for comment last Monday afternoon, but Fucello was quick to point out that the junior varsity team is one loaded with enthusiasm. "They are a very coachable crew," said the coach. "They work hard, want to learn and have been giving a good account of themselves in games. They are a pleasure to coach and are one of the most talented teams we've had in a few years."

The team boasted a 5-3 record entering this week's action. The roster is made up of Desiree Johansen, Susan Aschauer, Sheri De Piro, Tracy Delaney, Dina De Medici, Tammy Mc Queen, Maria Garcia, Maria Caruso Cathy Zammita, Angel Greco Barbara Conilla, Adriana Puentes, Sheri Phelps, Sheri Sorrentino, Cheryl Marion and Paula Sclari.

The girls started the campaign by defeating Paterson Eastside, 26-21. In that game, Johansen led the way with 10 points, followed by eight from Marion, six from Phelps and two from Sclari. It was a game in which Belleville led most of the way, taking a one point lead into the fourth quarter and pulling away to victory in the late stages of the contest.

The next game was a 44-22 victory over Montclair. Once again, Johansen was the leader, hitting for 18 points. Phelps tallied 14 and Maria Caruso had six. Belleville jumped out to a 12-6 first quarter lead and once again, put the game away for good with a 17-4 fourth quarter spree.

The girls won their third game in a row, edging Clifton, 24-21, in Clifton. Johansen was once again the high scorer, hitting for six points. De Medici popped in five and Greco had four. The teams first loss of the campaign came to Bloomfield, 25-21. Belleville led, 12-8 at halftime, but fell victim to a hot Bloomfield squad in the third quarter and were outscored, 13-4. Greco had 11 points to pace Belleville while Johansen had five.

The team lost its second straight at the hands of Passaic in a high scoring contest, 59-55. After taking a 13-10 first quarter lead, Belleville was blitzed, 26-10 in the second quarter and had to play catchup ball the entire second half. They came close, outscoring Passaic, 24-15 in the final frame but they couldn't make up the deficit. It was a great game for Johansen, once again, as the sophomore hit for a career high 28 points. Sheri Sorrentino had seven and Caruso, six.

The team dropped its third straight at the hands of excellent squad from Nutley, 53-38. The girls trailed, 33-29 entering the final quarter, but this time, it was Nutley who broke free in the final frame to post a big win.

Game seven saw Belleville get back on the winning track, defeating Paterson Kennedy, 36-30. In this game, Belleville had to rally from a 21-9 halftime deficit and did so by outscoring Kennedy, 14-5 in the third quarter and 12-4 in the final frame. Johansen, who else, was the top scorer, tallying 15 points and Sorrentino had 12.

Last Saturday, victory number five came in a 28-24 win against Hackensack. Johansen was once again the scoring leader, hitting for 13 points.

Needless to say, Johansen is the team's top scorer so far this season. She's averaging 12.5 points an outing and has a good move to the hoop. A tough competitor, Johansen has seen action on the varsity level, although it has been limited. Look to see some good things from this young lady next fall.

Marion started the season on the jayvee level, but she has been playing mostly varsity ball since the Christmas holidays. Cheryl is being counted on as a valuable member of next year's team, as is Sheri Phelps. Another sophomore, Phelps has the size to be a good forward for the varsity next fall and is a very coachable athlete. Fucello sees big things from her.

A number of fine players have come up through the junior varsity team. Players like Dina De Aquino, Loreli Wells, Rose Leonidis, Barbara Gundry, Karen Portuense and Donna Brooks made their start for a varsity position by playing junior varsity ball for Debbie Meola. Maybe, in another year or two, we'll be able to say how Desiree Johansen, Cheryl Marion and Sheri Phelps all started their excellent careers through the junior varsity team.

Good luck to Dino Ibelli, one of our Times sports reporters who recently underwent surgery on his knee. Dino is doing very well and should be running the marathon in the not too distant future.

Former head track coach Rich Ruffalo is involved in a very special olympic team. Ruffalo, long a weight lifter and a former standout javelin thrower at Bloomfield High School and later Montclair State College, has earned a spot on an olympic team that we'll elaborate on more next week. Ruffalo has been teaching at Belleville High School since the fall of 1974. He was the cross country coach at Belleville High from 1974-1982 and the track coach at BHS from 1975-1982. Ruffalo is now an assistant coach on the varsity track team, assigned to the weight team.

Who do you like in this Sunday's Super Bowl? At the outset of the season, I picked the Packers and Jets, so what do I know. When the playoffs started, it appeared the Raiders and Redskins were headed towards a collision course for the Super Bowl. When they met in the regular season, Los Angeles blew a 35-20 fourth quarter lead and lost, 37-35. This game could be as high scoring and exciting. Both teams boast an excellent running attack, massive front lines and a strong secondary. There doesn't appear to be a weakness on either club. Jim Plunkett is throwing the ball as well as he did in his Cinderella 1980 season when he led the Oakland Raiders to a 27-10 Super Bowl victory over Philadelphia. We'll predict the Raiders to win this game, 44-31.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is David Boyd of the boys basketball team. Boyd scored a career high 19 points in the Nutley game last week despite separating his shoulder at halftime. Boyd is a gutsy type of player, a great defensive man and a player any coach would love to have.

For this week's quiz, name the teams the Raiders played in their previous Super Bowl encounters, the years the games were played and the final score. Also, name the Raiders coach and starting quarterback.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Promoter Ron Katz put on his first boxing show of 1984, Friday, January 13 at the Westchester County Center in White Plains, N.Y. Katz has promoted many crowd-pleasing, action-filled cards at the Center in the past few years. This year's main bout saw another thriller between hard-punching Doug De Witt of White Plains meet the crafty, veteran Freddie Boynton of Red Bank, N.J.

Welterweight Marlon Starling of Hartford, Conn. will face the only boxer to defeat him, Donald Curry of Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 4, 1984 in Atlantic City. Curry, 17-0, is the undefeated World Boxing Association welterweight champion, and Starling, 31-1, said he will win that title. And we believe him. Starling said at a press conference, "I lost to Curry because I was into the limelight and the 'Macho Man', instead of concentrating on what I know how to do best." "I understand Sugar Ray Leonard wants Curry's title back, if Leonard wants that title he's going to have to come to me because after Feb. 4 it will be mine," Starling said.

Met up with Joe Musto, fight follower for more years than he'll admit. Joe claims to know Ray Mandello, George Russo, Johnny Indressano, Jerry Albano, Sal Bartolo, Billy "Honey" Melody, Mickey Landers, Ernie Sawyer, Joe Fanaro, the Luonto Brothers, Harry Foley, Frank (Luongo) Roberts, etc. He continued to mention names until finally he was told that we were already lost. Some of the names we recognized, a lot we never heard of. Joe always enjoyed the small club fights. "That was where the action was a few years back," he said.

Former outstanding light heavyweight Bobby Covino, out of Somerville, is training a youngster, welterweight Brian Porreca of Medford, Mass. Bobby said Porreca has been improving with every fight. "We're bringing the kid to the top slowly," said Bobby. Brian's mother is Deputy Mayor of the City of Medford.

We are happy to learn the Veteran Boxers Social Club of New Jersey with Ray Spencer, president, honored a deserving young boxer at their 15th annual dinner-dance at Bissis' Restaurant-New Jersey State hantamweight king Don Nisoviccia of Newark. Don is a sincere gentleman in and out of the ring. He has learned the boxing trade well by listening and following the instructions of his manager/trainer Paul Miami of Belleville and advisor Dom Bufano, owner/operator of Bufano's Gym in Jersey City.

Marvis Frazier, who was the victim of a last-round blow-out by heavyweight champion Larry Holmes, has a torn tendon in his right leg. Frazier tore the tendon while sparring on Tuesday at his father's (former world heavyweight champion Joe Frazier) Philadelphia gym. Marvis was training for a Feb. 3 fight in Atlantic City. He has a record of 10-1. He will be out of action for 3 to 6 months according to the doctors.

Jim Taylor, publicist for promoters Don Elbaum and Ted Menas, sends word that the promoters have plenty of Tuesday night fight action lined up for Atlantic City's Tropicana. Jan. 10 was the heavyweight grudge, free-for-all between Dorcy Gayman of Jacksonville, Fla. and Clarence Hill of New Rochelle, N.Y. On Jan. 17, welterweight Jose "The Threat" Baret of New York clashes with rugged Philadelphia Ernest Jackson, Jan. 24, will have the battle of the undefeated welterweights when Maurice Blocker of Washington, D.C. exchanges haymakers with Terry Holmes of Kalamazoo, Mich. Jan. 31, the sensational welterweight from Cincinnati, Ohio, Tommy Ayers returns to face a "toughie" in former North American champion Jorge "Kid Dynamite" Morales out of Los Angeles. Records: Gayman, 9-1-1. Hill, 15-2-1. Baret, 11-2. Jackson, 8-3-1. Blocker, 15-0. Holmes, 12-0. Ayers, 14-1 and Morales, 30-9-1.

Cedric Kushner, manager of World Boxing Association heavyweight titlist Gerrie Coetzee said he had given up hope, for now, that a Coetzee-Larry Holmes fight will happen. "Coetzee will take one of the top 10 heavyweights in April. Gerrie can become a poor man waiting for Holmes to finish fighting the has-beens and have-no-its," according to a spokesman.

Senator John Calandra (R-Bronx) submitted a measure to the legislature that would hike injury benefits for boxers fighting in New York State from a maximum of $750 to $7500 and increase death benefits from $10,000 to $100,000. The benefits presently in effect have not been changed since 1920. Calandra's proposal includes protection for referees from individual liability for their judgements in the ring and would establish a drug and urine test that would be required for every boxer prior to entering the ring for their bouts.

President/promoter Bob Arum of Top Rank, Inc. said, "Closed-circuit television is a dying business. People just aren't interested in paying $20, $25 to $30 a ticket to see two fighters on a screen no matter who they are."

Former WBC featherweight champ Bobby Chacon has been suspected of having taken too many punches for his own future, wrote just before his bout with Ray Mancini on January 14, 1983 for the World Boxing Association lightweight crown. "I took a brain scan for the fight. The doctor told me I don't have anything to worry about - I don't have any brains."

Harrah's Marina in Atlantic City opens its 1984 boxing schedule on January 18, with Philadelphia's own Steve Traitz, 17-1, meeting Virginia State light heavyweight titleholder Bluford Spencer, 12-5, in the Broadway Theatre. Heavyweight Joe Thomas, 13-0, of Phoenixville, Pa. vs. Leroy Boone, 15-16-2, of Norfolk, Va. and junior middleweight Willie Harris, 14-0, of Eagleville, Pa. will meet an opponent to be named. The 3 bouts will be 10-rounders.

The New Jersey fight crowd mourn the loss of 76-year-old, Philip De Luca, who was an outstanding fighter among the world's best featherweights and lightweights using the ring-name Philie Griffin. Phil fought featherweight champion But Battalino and lightweight kings Tony Canzoneri and Jackie "Kid" Berg, also many title challengers and the best fighters of the two divisions.

The New York State Athletic Commission has ruled the contract Ed Gersh and lightweight Howard Davis signed is valid. The contract states Gersh is the one and only manager of Davis according to Commissioner John Branca. Two Long Island lawyers have lured Davis away from Gersh by giving the fighter $50,000 and a Rolls Royce. Gersh went before the New York Supreme Court on Friday in order to establish a legal claim to his rights as the manager of Davis.

Bruce Curry will put his 17-fight win streak on his shoulder and World Boxing Council lightweight crown on the side of his head and dare undefeated challenger Billy Costello to knock them off. Jan. 29, in Beaumont, Texas. Curry of Garden Grove, Calif. has a 34-7 with 17 KOs. Costello, favored to knock the chip off the shoulder and lift the crown, is 26-0 with 16 KOs.

Bob Arum, president of Top Rank Inc. said, Thursday, "Marvin Hagler won $5.5 million for his successful defense of his WBA and WBC middleweight titles against Roberto Duran who earned $4.5 million." Arum said Top Rank made $2.5 million. Pat Patronelli, Hagler's manager, said, "We have our accountant checking the figures in New York right now."

Heard from former heavyweight Joe Ferry. Joe was a good-looking guy of fair fighting ability. He wisely accepted the advice of friends, quit the pug ugly game business and headed for Hollywood. Joe has been only playing bit parts but has appeared in numerous films and has been able to put a few bucks aside for the future. He's a nephew of the legendary Philadelphia Jack O'Brien.

Recreation Wrestlers Suffer Two Defeats

This past week the Belleville Recreation Wrestling team battled two of the top-ranked schools of Essex County Junior Wrestling League, dropping a 59-31 loss to Caldwell and a 59-28 loss to Bloomfield.

Coach Nisoviccia comments, "Although we lost both matches, I'm still very proud of all the wrestlers because they did give 100 percent of their effort on the mat. Also, I'm sure toward the end of the season many of our new first year wrestlers will be displaying much more talented performances."

Against Caldwell, Angelo Torromeo (70 lbs.) recorded the fastest fall by bringing his opponent's shoulders to the mat in 26 seconds with a near-side cradle. Undefeated John Stampone (85 lbs.) pinned his opponent in 3:20 after building a 10-0 lead, before Joe Cerreto wrestled to a 14-5 major decision in the 90-pound division. In the 100-pound division, Mike Iuliano matted his opponent in 1:22 with the move he has become famous with, the three quarter Nelson. At 126 pounds, undefeated Armando Nardone won by decision when he managed to skillfully bring his opponent to his back in the third period with a near side cradle.

Against an extremely strong Bloomfield team, undefeated 80-pounder Bill VanSyckel decked his opponent in 22 seconds, undefeated 85-pounder John Stampone (3-0) won a 10-0 major decision while undefeated 90-pounder Joe Cerreto (3-0) pinned in 3:40 to bring Belleville to an early lead in team points.

Another six team points were recorded by undefeated Armando Nardone who pinned his opponent in 1:23 of the second period.

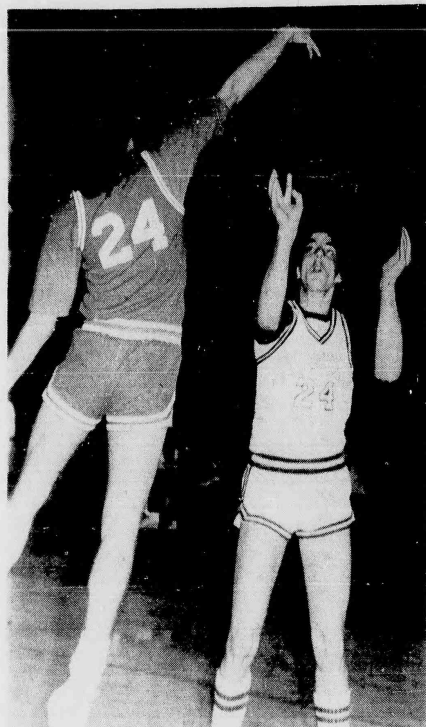

Boys Lose Phil Colalillo For the Year

Nick had four and Kimble, three. For Eastside, Anthony McCaskill had 26 points, Stecy Hargrove tallied 17 and Charles Bridges, 13.

"We're going to go with our healthy players and give it our best," said Papisidero. "No one here is giving up, there are still spots of games left and the players will be plugging hard."

NOTES: The Bucs stand a good chance at two victories this week. They defeated St. Al's on opening night by 20 points and Teaneck is a hot and cold club that could be caught napping. Eastside is loaded, a team that is said to be better than Paterson Kennedy. Their only loss was a two-point defeat at the hands of Camden in the Meadowlands Arena back on Jan. 3. In that game, Eastside led by nine points in the fourth quarter. Camden is ranked ninth in the United States and first New Jersey, so needless to say, Eastside was in there with the best.

It's Good — Bill Nankervis, a senior forward, scored 17 points during the Bucs game with St. Aloysius. The boys improved their record to 5-6 with the win.

Girls Fall to Nutley But Comeback Strong

lead and extended the margin to 31-20 by halftime. In the third quarter, the girls extended the lead to 43-30 and coasted home, 58-47. "We held their big girl (Carmella Crawford) in the first half, but then decided to let them back in the game," said Fuccello a bit sarcastically. "We were inconsistent in the second half."

After a slow start, Crawford came on to score 29 points to lead Kennedy's attack. For Belleville, Apicella was back in form, hitting for 41 points. The senior was a perfect 13 of 13 from the foul line. De Aquino tallied 10 points and Brooks, seven.

Last Saturday Belleville hosted Hackensack and came away an impressive 67-34 winner. Apicella was once again the story, hitting for 36 points. Brooks tallied 18, De Aquino nine, Cheryl Marion had a field goal for two and Desiree Johansen scored her first varsity basket to round out the scoring.

Belleville took command early in the NNJLL contest. The Bucs jumped out to a 15-6 first quarter lead with Apicella scoring 13 of the points. The lead ballooned to 31-14 by halftime. 50-23 after three quarters and the final count of 67-34. An early 10-point spree by Belleville in the first quarter erased a 4-3 Hackensack lead and Belleville never looked back.

"We have to be a finely tuned machine for Eastside, Teaneck and Ridgewood," said Fuccello. "We had a game scheduled with North Bergen this week, too, but due to unprofessionalism on their part, that game was cancelled."

Confession Is Good For the Heart

By Rev. Robert Paul

Al Johnson, at 19 years of age, had joined two men in robbing a Kansas bank. However, the case was closed by police after two convicts were killed in an auto crash and mistakenly identified by bank officials as the robbers, and Al felt sure he would never be caught.

Later he married a born-again Christian girl and pretended to be a Christian before her, and she knew nothing of his past crime. Then someone sent him a tract in the mail, entitled, "God's Plan of Salvation." Reading it, he noticed that one of the Bible verses said, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13.)

The realization struck that salvation was for him. He could be forgiven and his conscience set free. He knelt in prayer and accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his own personal Saviour from sin. (St. John 8:32.)

Al's life changed. He stopped a lifelong habit of lying, and after much thought and prayer, he confessed his crime. His confession made television newscasts and newspaper headlines even in Canada.

Under a Kansas statue of limitation he was set free, although he chose to repay his share of the stolen funds to the bank. Today, Al Johnson is the manager of a service station, the father of three admiring children, and an outstanding Christian worker in his church.

I am sure you will agree that it is a crime to steal and lie, but there is another crime that is worse than that. That crime is to say "No" to the Saviour of the world. And those who say "No" to God's offer of pardon through the Lord Jesus Christ will go out of this world into a lost eternity. (Rev. 20:15.)

How wonderful, God offers you forgiveness of sin, peace with God and much more by your simple trust in his son, Jesus Christ. God can use the same verse in your life as he did for Al Johnson. "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Accept God's love gift to you and become a part of the family of God. (See Acts 16:31.)

League Action Heating Up

Recreation Basketball Going Strong

Men's Basketball League

Week five of the Belleville Men's Basketball League took place on Thursday, Jan. 12 with six games.

For Pete's Sake (5-0) remained undefeated by turning back Mr. Muggs (2-3) 84-65. Bruce Gardner paced the winners with 26 while teammate Mike Hennessey added 18. Game high scoring honors went to Mr. Muggs' Steve Dondarski who poured in 28. Mark Veniero also scored 12 in the loss.

Todd McDougal pumped in 30 points and Dan Dunn added 19 to lead Nutley Pub (5-0) over Rosebud's Pub (3-2) 78-55. The second loss of the season put Rosebud's two games behind first place, but high scoring Dan McLoughlin continued to produce a firing 30 points in the defeat.

Suburban Cablevision's comeback fell short 67-52. Ten-Two (2-3), led by Kevin Smith (21) and 16 apiece from Frank Mauro and John Thompson, held on for the victory.

The losers' high scorer was Rufus Johnson (21) and teammate, Rick Kiernan added 10. Suburban Cablevision slid to 1-4.

Senior Boys' League

On Jan. 10 the fourth week of action took place in the Senior High Boys' Basketball League.

Undefeated Walker Transport (4-0), paced by Ricky Wells' 14 and Don Washington's nine, beat Z & Z Contracting 44-29. The losers (2-2) received 13 points from Rick Antolini and nine from Don Yanuzzi.

Seventeen points by Frank Gencarelli and 11 by teammate Eric Anderson propelled Vinnie's Deli (3-1) over the Opec Oilers 36-28. At halftime, the Oilers (2-2), who got eight points apiece from Herb Petrat and Bob Hutchinson, were only trailing by one but got outscored 21-14 in the second period.

Village Video (3-1) hung on to squeeze past Viking Barbell 29-28. The winners were led by Pete Dorizas (14) and Chris Fatch (seven) to up its record to 3-1. Viking Barbell (0-4) led by seven points with just under five minutes remaining before foul trouble resulted in only three players finishing the game. The loss came despite Mike Tucci's 13 and Charlie Kingalahu's nine points.

"Us" comeback fell short as Jackie's Luncheonette (2-2) defeated them 21-12. The losers only scored five points in the first half. Six points apiece by Jim Demard and Mike Debelak was enough to secure the victory. "Us" fell to 0-4.

Suburban Junior

The Belleville Recreation Department's entry into the Suburban Junior Boys' Basketball League improved its record to 6-0 last week to remain atop the league's "B" Division standings. The Bucs scored victories over West Caldwell 43-41 and South Orange 52-34 to remain undefeated. Leading the way thus far this season for the seventh-eighth grade hoops have been Ted Sochaski and Leon Puentes, both of whom are averaging 15 points per game.

The Belleville Suburban Junior Girls' basketball team handed Cedar Grove a 50-28 loss on Jan. 14 to improve its record to 2-1. Leading at halftime 21-8, the seventh-eighth grade Buccanettes were powered by Judy Nehila (32 points) and Sandy Brew (eight points). Coach Sal Mauriello noted that it was a total team effort in which all team members played, and the game was highlighted by superb defense, utilizing both a full and a half-court press.

forfeit victory at 121 pounds. At 128, one of the closer matches of the evening saw Darren Sneddon beat Teaneck's Bruce Jones, 10-7. At 14 pounds, Luke Siletti had to go late in the second period to pin Mark Danetz to raise the Bucs' lead to 33-0.

Teaneck's only victory came at 141 when Rich Swartz decisioned Ralph Zarro by an 11-3 count. The victory was four points in the books for Teaneck, but marked the Highwaysmen's final shot at points. From there on, the heart of the Bucs' lineup was too much. At 147, Carmen Cerreto pinned Eric Shorter in the first period. Jimmy Meyler showed Sal Newmayer the lights in 1:22 of the first period.

Jamie Lijo pinned Paul Lambert in 1:26 of the first period, Mike Gibbons continued to assault would-be challengers, pinning Mark De Pew in 2:34 and Mark Criscione won by forfeit in the heavy weight class, closing out a dominating Belleville effort. The loss lowered Teaneck's record to 2-3.

NOTES: Gibbons is now 9-0 for the season, Meyler 10-1 and Cerreto, 9-1. Lijo is 4-1 after a late start. Wrestler of the week goes to xphomire Tim Buckley for his first varsity win. Buckley is a hard worker and should be one of the top wrestlers in the lower weights before his tenure comes to an end.

parking was a more serious matter than the president's testimony implied.

One man said the employee lot was abused by motorists who parked unauthorized vehicles there. Two other objectors complained of frequent congestion near the parking area.

A final decision is expected when the hearing continues at a special meeting set for Jan. 31 at 8 p.m. The Zoning Board meets at 383 Washington Ave.

Young Artist's Works Displayed At Belleville Library in January

Currently on display at the Belleville Public Library is the artwork of Pamela Cohen, a senior at Wayne Valley High School. Miss Cohen has studied oil painting since she was nine years old with Nina Lalin, a Wayne artist.

She has exhibited her artwork in group art shows at the Wayne Public Library, the Willowbrook ministries, as well as exhibiting on an individual basis at the Woman's Club of Belleville and the Belleville Public Library. She has earned second place and honorable mention at the Wayne Sunnyside Outdoor Art Show, Best in Show at the Belleville Public Library's Outdoor Art Show, and was a $50 bond winner for the poster contest, "Keep Wayne Clean."

In addition to her artwork, Miss Cohen has many other interests. A National Honor Society and Spanish Honor Society member, she has been a class officer each year of high school, a feature editor for Signals, the school newspaper, an assistant journalism editor for Embers, the school yearbook, a member of Zonta, a service organization, and the one-to-one organization for the mentally retarded. She is tap captain this year for the Student Athletic Association show.

Recently she was runner-up in Miss Passaic County Junior Miss and has been a finalist in the Miss N.J. Teenage Pageant, where she won a trophy for the best high school application. She was also elected to Who's Who Among American High School Students this year. Pam plans a career in economics and law.

Talented Girl — Pamela Cohen, who has been studying art for most of her life, has a display of her works at the Belleville Public Library during the month of January.

Dear Homeowners,
As you may already know, we have been in the home improvement business in this area for several years with 95% of our jobs being acquired strictly on a referral basis. We have found this to be a very rewarding as well as successful method of conducting business, one which has led us to a position where we can now provide our "referral-oriented workmanship" as well as handle your financial needs all under one roof. As a result of these positive developments, we have established a small showroom and office, and it would be my pleasure to meet with you there to provide information on the construction methods and materials we shall supply. If it would be more convenient for you to have us visit your home to discuss your home improvement needs, simply call our office to arrange an appointment.
