State Paves Way For Special Election Mayor Marotti Hopeful For May Contest

Candidates Lining Up For Election

Just when the Board of Commissioners seemed all settled in, six months after the May elections, the race is on again.

Whether the goal is to win a special election in the spring or share a Commissioner seat during November's general elections, several contenders are already eyeing the position of Public Safety Commissioner Matthew Pica, who resigned this week.

To date, four names emerge as leading possibilities to serve out the remainder of Pica's four-year term which expires in May 1987.

In the forefront is former Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, a veteran who served 19 years as a Belleville official.

Strumolo lost his bid for re-election last May when he came in sixth behind the top five vote getters. He lost by a slim margin and many observers think his chances for winning office again are good.

Though not available for comment this week, Strumolo previously told The Times he would consider running for Pica's office when put up for election and he also expressed willingness to accept a temporary "caretaker" appointment if Commissioners chose to use that alternative until an election could be held.

"I have the experience and I know the community," the longtime public servant had said. He also stressed that as a retired man, he would not experience the conflicts Pica said faced him.

Pica announced he was resigning as a result of demands on his full-time management job and needs of his family.

Fornarotto Court Case Receives Postponement

A hearing on assault charges involving a citizen and local official, which will be held in Bloomfield Municipal court, has been adjourned to March 21 at 10 a.m. according to the Bloomfield court clerk.

The hearing involving Belleville's Code Enforcement Officer Robert Domenick, 45, and activist citizen Joseph Fornarotto, 60, was originally slated for this week.

Fornarotto last week said the hearing would be postponed because one of the witnesses to the alleged assaults, township Registrar Ralph Risoli, is ill and unable to testify this week.

Efforts to confirm that information were unsuccessful. Neither attorney responded to calls from The Times. Domenick is being represented by Frank Cozzarelli of Belleville and Fornarotto by Marvin Waxman of East Orange.

The hearing was moved to Bloomfield early this month when Belleville judge Edward Abramson disqualified himself from the case because it involves a local official.

The case involves an altercation that occurred between Domenick and Fornarotto on the morning of Jan. 24 at the offices of the Public Affairs Department on Washington Avenue.

Police reports show no indication that Domenick suffered physical at-

Township Regains State Funds For Police and Fire Personnel

Belleville won the fight this week to regain $65,000 in state monies originally promised to the municipality in January.

The New Jersey Local Finance Board, after hearing testimony Monday from Mayor Michael Marotti and other municipal officials, voted 5-1 to reverse a recent state decision that would have denied Belleville the promised allotment.

Early this month, the Department of Community Affairs rejected Belleville's formal application for the promised allotment citing the township's "fiscal stability" and lack of need as reasons for the rejection. The funds are part of a $7.4 million emergency spending bill approved last month by Gov. Tom Kean to avert layoffs of police and fire personnel in urban areas.

A special provision in the bill designated portions of the package be granted to qualifying communities, and Belleville was one to receive $65,000.

"We're very pleased with the result," said Mayor Marotti on Monday, noting that Belleville was the only one so far of several rejected communities to win its appeal.

Marotti said the funds will be used to maintain four newly hired police officers who may have suffered layoffs if the money was denied.

Marotti was accompanied to the Trenton hearing by Police Chief George Lister, Fire Chief George Sharra, Township Treasurer Isadore Padula, and the municipality's auditor Nathan Honig.

Also supporting Belleville in testimony before the board was Assemblyman Stephen Aduvato (D-30) who has been aiding Belleville in its battle since the beginning.

In presenting the argument that Belleville did indeed need the monies, officials cited the unexpected expenses incurred by the township in the past year.

Foremost was the costly clean-up of the toxic chemicals at the Research Organic-Inorganic plant on Main Street which ran the township nearly $500,000 last year.

Although the state reimbursed Belleville for half that amount, the township expects to pay an expected $500,000 more this year for the final stages of the clean-up.

Other factors in Belleville's argument included a binding arbitration award of 13 percent increase to Belleville's police and fire forces.

Additionally, Marotti said, the township suffered losses in ratables over the past two years when large businesses, such as the Universal Foods yeast factory, decided to close its local plant.

By Linda Telesco

The state legislature cleared the way this week for Belleville to conduct a special election to fill the seat of Public Safety Director Matthew Pica who resigned from the Board of Commissioners this week.

According to Mayor Michael Marotti, the election — if agreed upon by all Commissioners — may be held during the first week of May.

State law requires that the election be no less than 60 days or more than 120 days from the date the post is actually vacant which will be March 1, 1984.

With three unexpired years remaining on Pica's four-year term, the four other Commissioners — all of whom were elected to four-year terms last May — seemed to favor the special election as the option for dealing with the vacancy.

The question is now when? The May date is a possibility but officials estimate costs of a special election at that time will run the taxpayers about $10,000.

Another alternative may be to place the contenders for the post on the ballot during the general election in November.

"That will cost between $3,000 to $4,000 extra," said Marotti who noted a drawback of that plan, though more economical, was that only four voting Commissioners would preside over sessions for the next eight months.

"We really might have some problems getting things done if there are only four votes and they don't all go the same way," said Marotti.

For that reason, the Commissioners seemed to favor filling the seat with a substitute for Pica rather than assigning a present member, most likely the Mayor, to oversee two departments until the general election when a replacement could be elected.

Another alternative might have been for the board to appoint a caretaker commissioner until the general election. However, both Commissioners Joseph Grande and Michael Pizzi objected, insisting the public be permitted to select any new officials in an election.

While Mayor Marotti thinks the board will approve a special election "as soon as possible," there is still question of expense.

When asked if he still favored the idea of a special election, Grande said Monday, "I'd like to give this more thought because of the cost involved," although he added he did not find a fee of "$10,000 or less" unacceptable.

Neither Pizzi nor McGreevy could be reached for comment this week. However, Marotti said McGreevy indicated that he thought a special election would be too expensive.

Citizens who favor filling the post as quickly and economically suggested at recent public meetings that the local names he placed on the June primary ballot.

However, officials said that is not a possible alternative in a community with bi-partisan elections since the primaries are organized for partisan elections.

Mayor Marotti said the decision will be made, probably at a special Commissioners' session, within the next two weeks, and following Pica's official departure.

Pica's resignation, a surprise to most of the community, was announced in January, just seven months after the Public Safety director won his second four-year term on the board.

A former School Board official, recognized as a strong personality in local politics, Pica said his decision to leave public office was motivated by the pressures of his full-time position at Raia Industries and a desire to spend more time with his family.

Seven Candidates Seek Seats This Year On School Board

Two more candidates filed petitions last week for the Board of Education election, thus making the number seven, who are seeking three open seats on the board.

Former School Board president Ernest Zoppi threw his hat into the race for the one-year seat, while Ronald Cuomo filed petitions seeking one of the two three-year seats.

Zoppi, who served on the board from 1978-81, becomes the second candidate seeking the seat left vacant this year by trustee Charles Miele. Richard Melham, a 17-year resident of Belleville is Zoppi's opponent in that race.

Cuomo becomes the fifth candidate seeking one of two three-year seats on the board. Also running are incumbents Donna Rainone and Thomas Spillane; former assistant superintendent of schools Sy Grossman and St. Peter's elementary school teacher Phil Linfante.

During his three-year term, Zoppi served one year as the board's vice president and one year as president. He was defeated in his re-election attempt in 1981 and also failed in a bid to win a seat on the board again last April. He placed fourth behind Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, John DiStasi and Gabe Nazzola.

Zoppi said he is running for the one-year seat, because he believes experience is important.

"When a new comer is elected to the Board of Education, it usually takes him three to six months to become aware of everything," Zoppi said. "Having the ex-

Eugene Reilly Named Realtor Board Head

Eugene J. Reilly, owner of Reilly's Real Estate and Insurance, 394 Washington Ave., Belleville, was named president of the Board of Realtors of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville.

It is the third time that Reilly has served as president of the group, holding the office in 1968 and 1975. It is also the third time that he has succeeded George F. MacMunn, owner of MacMunn Co. Realtors, Nutley, as president.

Joining the realtor board in 1940, Reilly became a licensed state real estate broker in 1946. He first entered the business in 1935 as a salesman with the business founded by his parents, Thomas W. Reilly first founded the business in 1915. Eugene Reilly became the owner in 1946.

An Army veteran, Reilly served during World War II in both the European and Pacific theaters of combat. His career in the service began in August 1942 and lasted until January 1946.

"The real estate market is doing very well on a local basis these days," Reilly stated. "Real estate was in a slump two years ago, but things have changed for the better. If anyone has been thinking about buying a home, now is the time to do it."

A resident of Clifton, Reilly is married to the former Patricia Garland. He has four children, Mrs. Jean Pellegrino, Patrick, Eugene Jr. and Elizabeth, as well as four grandchildren.

Wallace & Tiernan Supporting Local School Program

It was recently announced that Wallace & Tiernan Division, Pennwalt Corporation will provide financial support for the local "Mathcounts" program. Mathcounts is a nationwide competition designed to stimulate the study of mathematics at the junior high school level. This year the program is being organized and administered by the New Jersey Society of Professional Engineers.

Ronald A. Casatelli, P.E., NJSPE Mathcounts' state chairman, credits the generous support of Wallace & Tiernan and other sponsors for making it possible for students from nearly 100 schools in the state to participate. Wallace & Tiernan is a worldwide manufacturer of water and wastewater treatment equipment, industrial feeders, pumps, and precision pressure instruments. The main plant and headquarters has been located in Belleville for 70 years and the company has always supported community activities.

Casatelli, a professional engineer and a sales manager at the Belleville plant, cites the importance of developing an emphasis on advance mathematics at the junior high level. The first phase of the program involves in-school coaching for students from the seventh and eighth grades. Teams are formed from the participating schools and they compete in a series of regional and state competitions. The finalists will participate in the national finals in Washington, D.C. in May. Winners at all levels will be recognized with individual, team, and school awards. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration will host the national champions at a special presentation dinner and provide a special tour of the Kennedy Space Center.

Tax Tip

Dear H & R Block

Q. I have so many papers to get together this year that I'll never be done by April 15. What happens if I can't file by then? U.L., Clifton.

A. By filing Form 4868 before April 15 you can get an automatic four-month extension of time to file. Unfortunately this does not give you an extension of time to pay. If you feel you will have a balance due on your return, you must remit that amount with the 4868.

Q. As a private trucker I bought a new vehicle for $25,000 last year. Can I depreciate the whole amount or do I subtract salvage value. M.T., Nutley.

A. Salvage value is no longer considered under the ACRS cost recovery system. Under the new tax laws you may expense up to $5,000 this year and depreciate the remaining $20,000. In addition, you may claim an investment credit on the $20,000 you are depreciating.

Q. My only income is my salary from my job in New York. May I deduct my IRA on my New York return? H.C., Belleville.

A. Since your IRA is based on income earned in New York, you may take it as adjustment on your New York return. On the other hand, New Jersey does not make any allowance for an IRA, so your New Jersey return will effectively include tax on the amount of your IRA contribution.

Q. In my job I am frequently asked to make a donation to one politician or another. Can I deduct these on my tax return? P.H., Newark.

A. There is a credit for one-half your political contributions (up to $50 per person and $100 per married couple) that fall into the following categories: 1) a candidate for public office or a campaign committee working for his election; 2) a political party; 3) a newsletter by a holder of public office or a candidate for office.

Q. My dog jumped up and knocked a very expensive vase off the coffee table. Can I claim a casualty loss? A.L., East Orange.

A. A casualty results from a sudden, unexpected, and unusual event. Damage by a family pet is not considered a casualty.

Belleville College Student Competed For Prestigious Rhodes Scholar Award

Joann Rizzolo

The interviews to select this year's two Rhodes Scholar candidates from New Jersey sounded like a role call for the nation's top universities — Harvard, Yale, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Princeton.

But for the first time in 10 years, a student from St. Peter's College, Jersey City, was in the running for the prestigious scholarship.

JoAnn Rizzolo of Belleville was the college's first female to vie for the award. A senior majoring in both English and classical studies and minoring in theology, she was chosen from among 40 state residents to be one of 14 students interviewed by a panel of judges. Although Rizzolo was not nominated a Rhodes Scholar, she welcomed the experience gained from the interview and reception the night before.

"People didn't know what to say to me after I was declined," she said. "I had as much chance as anyone. I was just myself, because the panel would know if I was faking it. All of the people were friendly, and they didn't overwhelm me."

Rizzolo would have had good reason to feel in awe of the judges. All were former Rhodes Scholars except noted pollster George Gallup, Jr. Other judges included Reginald Stanton, a 1956 St. Peter's College graduate who serves on the New Jersey Superior Court, and Nicholas Katzenbach, attorney general for former President Lyndon B. Johnson.

While most candidates begin preparing their Rhodes applications a year in advance, Rizzolo decided to check into it only 30 days before the deadline after Dr. John Benson, chairman of the college's classical studies department, and James C.G. Conniff, director of the journalism program, urged her to apply. She reviewed the application with Dr. John Walsh of the graduate study center before finding out that she fulfilled most requirements.

"I mailed my application materials the day before they were due," Rizzolo said. "Five days before the interview, I received the call from the committee."

She plans to offer pointers to future St. Peter's students who apply for the scholarship. "I wrote down everything from the interview to give other students an idea about what to expect," she said.

While attending St. Peter's College, Rizzolo's activities include writing for the college newspaper, organizing pro-life rallies with a Celebrate Life theme, and preparing programs for the campus ministry's liturgical group. She is also a member of Alpha Sigma Nu, the National Jesuit Honor Society, and has received the college's Cross Keys award for her involvement in extra-curricular activities.

Rizzolo was valedictorian of her Good Council High School graduating class, and currently serves as editor of a newsletter for St. Peter's parish in Belleville. She works as a writing intern for New Jersey Transit, and plans to attend law school this fall to study communications and media law.

Smoking is a habit with little or nothing to recommend it. Yet stopping is seemingly almost impossible once the habit has seized you. The withdrawal symptoms are very real. Since the craving for nicotine seems to settle in the kidneys, one very real aid in stopping is a small, white pill containing labetalol hydrochloride. By taking this pill according to the package instructions, it helps displace the nicotine collected in the kidneys. It flushes away, replaces it with a non-habit-forming product and eliminates the desire for cigarettes. The package instructions also suggest taking regular and frequent showers to wash away the nicotine that is excreted through the skin, sweat and pores.

We hope you'll make it a habit to bring your prescriptions to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We handle a full line of prescription drugs, as well as over the counter medications. Cigarettes, toiletries, transistor radios, tobacco and smokers sundries are handled. ## I Wish — I Wish — I Wish

I wish — I wish — I wish there was a place called "the land of beginning again." That would be the appropriate refrain for our Belleville High School girls' basketball team.

Last Saturday night at Seton Hall University, our girls lost a heartbreaking game — and if they had to do it over again — and begin the game again, they would be sure winners.

But winning is not everything in life. When you give your best — you do your best — the score becomes only incidental. There are three sides to a coin when playing a game. There is the winning side — the joyful side, and the losing side — the sad side. And then there is a third side, the joy that comes from the knowledge that you did your best and gave your all, win or lose.

Saturday night was a night

County Welfare

The Essex County Division of Welfare is in the news again. This time it is bad news. At best, a difficult department to govern, Freeholder President Jerome Greco and Freeholder Pearl Beatty led an investigation into the fiscal operation of the division.

They uncovered a great deal of mismanagement — simply stated, the Division of Welfare was a loosely-run fiscal operation, costing taxpayers millions of dollars.

Moreover, the Board of Freeholders was misled more than once. Over a three-year period, the Freeholders Board appropriated more than $10 million toward the operation of the Division of Welfare on the representation that these monies would come back to Essex County through federal grants. There was no federal money — an indication that such representation was a lie. The Greco-led investigation uncovered an astounding lack of fiscal accountability. Some welfare clients would ask for duplicate checks on the basis when our girls reached new heights of courage. They lost the game, but in the process, developed stronger ties of love and affection for each other, and this result cannot be measured by the numbers on a scoreboard. Sometimes, when folks lose a game, they believe they have lost everything, but you really don't lose everything until you lose faith.

Friday night in the Belleville High School gymnasium, the Belleville High School girls' team will win, and our lovable Jennifer Apicella will go beyond the 3,000 point mark to establish a new girls' record for high school basketball play! Beautiful!

that they lost the first check. In many cases, this was a rip-off — the total amount of money lost in this manner was $2,200,000.

At public budget sessions of the Board of Freeholders, an effort was made to intimidate the Freeholders by having great numbers of welfare recipients attend the budget meetings to pressure them into being more generous with the Division of Welfare budget.

The visits to the Welfare Field Offices by Greco and Beatty found those facilities to be understaffed. Mothers with two children in their arms waited in long lines for hours before they reached the clerk.

There is a lingering suspicion that at least $4 million of taxpayer money was mispent. This suspicion should be investigated.

People with compassion all want to see the poor who are entitled to welfare receive the public aid available. However, the poor taxpayer should not be asked to be ripped off by those who would attempt to cheat the government.

Prayer For Today

Almighty Father, Source of all blessings, we thank Thee for the preservation of our life and for the joy of living, for the powers of mind and heart and for the wisdom that comes to us from seers and sages filled with Thy spirit.

Teach us to use wisely the blessings Thou hast bestowed upon us. May prosperity not enfeeble our spirit nor harden our heart. May it never so master us as to dull our desire for life's higher ideals.

And should adversity come, may it not embitter us nor cause us to despair, but may we accept it as a mark of Thy chastening love which purifies and strengthens. Let every obstacle become an incentive to greater effort, and let every defeat teach us anew the lesson of patience and perseverance.

Gird us with strength to bear our trials with courage. Let not the loss of anything, however dear to our hearts or precious in our sight, rob us of our faith in Thee. In light as in darkness, in joy as in sorrow, help us to put our trust in Thy providence, that even through our tears we may discern Thy divine blessing.

New Redistricting Plan Is Unfair to Township

To the editor:

The redistricting map of the congressional districts adopted by Third Circuit Court Judge of Appeals John Gibbons, Chief District Court Judge Clarkson Fisher and District Court Judge Stanley Brotman constitutes an affront to the dignity of the self-respecting people of Belleville.

A strong, firm protest and appeal must be filed against this absurd monstrosity which is unprecedented, ridiculous, bizarre and an unpardonable evidence of deprivation of the individual and collective rights of the voters of this community.

The unconscionable thought of splitting Belleville and Kearny strips voters of their communal ties and imposes excessively unreasonable hardships upon the town clerks of both towns.

It is improper for the arbitrary, capricious will of three federal jurists to arrogate to themselves the role of the State Legislature in such a manner that it influences the outcome of future congressional elections in a partisan manner, especially when it can contribute to the defeat of one of the best congressmen in Washington, Joe Minish.

Who could ever justly splitting Belleville into two separate congressional districts, one encircled and enclosed as an isolated enclave islet of one congressional district within the surrounding jurisdiction or another district, separated from the continuity of the main parent district, while isolated from the newly devised district?

This anomalous, incongruous arrangement is patent outrageous and a fatuous, fantastic error of law which offers incredulity to the commentary of Judge Gibbons who cited the legislature's plan for "an obvious absence of compactness and an intentional gerrymander in favor of certain Democratic representatives."

Such judicial reasoning provokes doubts of the objectivity reasoning of their published ruling, since compactness, of itself, militates against the logic of the three judge federal court panel's decision to sunder this Belleville compactness.

Might not one assume that the juridical panel's map, at least by indirectness, produces results tantamount to Judge Gibbons' quoted statement, about "an intentional gerrymander in favor of certain Democratic representatives" apply in reverse?

Let's go for an appeal.

Respectfully submitted,
James R. Golden

Joseph Minish Is Outstanding Congressman

To the editor:

I am at a loss for how angry I am, in fact I am "damned mad." As a Republican, I vote for the man, not the party. We are going to lose a great man in Congressman Joseph Minish if this plan to re-district stands. As always, Belleville loses out. I don't want to be in Congressman Peter Rodino's District or whoever. Joe Minish was railroaded into a Republican District, to be beaten. This man is an asset to the state and to what was the 11th District. I feel that Gov. Thomas Kean is "shafting" us again. In November of 1983 I voted for Senator Carmen Orechio, and Assemblyman John Kelly, due to the fact they cared about Belleville, although we lost Kelly and he did care. I'm asking everyone to write to me at P.O. Box 192, Belleville, N.J. 07109, saying we want Congressman Minish in our district. In turn, I'll give the letters to Senator Orechio to exert his influence to reverse the three federal judges' redistricting plan. Their ruling should be appealed to over rule this flagrant gerrymandering scam. We can't afford to lose Joe Minish — a man who cares.

Parking Problem Upsets Joralemon Street Residents

To the editor:

Re: "No parking" signs on Joralemon Street between Cortlandt and Stephen streets.

Residents of Belleville in this one block are, as a whole, law abiding citizens. They went along with the Department of Public Safety after the signs were posted, but now, after some months of bitter experience, wish to be heard. Accidents or no accidents, the law says a car driver must have control of his vehicle at all times. Signs posted "no parking here to corner" is in every town suitable to drivers except on this one block. Since the Grand Union plaza on Main Street and K-Mart has been built, Joralemon Street has become a super highway. There is no control of cars tearing down from Washington Avenue and Main Street in abundance and at speeds which exceed the residential speed limit.

At this point, homeowners, tenants, families with babies, visitors and relations, and working women who travel by car and walk are getting angry. Car owners are also pondering their future problem. The residents on this block own cars and have no place to park them. They park away from home and carry babies and bundles to the houses. Women coming home after dark are in fear, even though the town says nothing to worry about, truly only until someone gets raped, mugged or some injury. Who are they to predict such stupid nonsense? Today no one is safe walking at night in the best of areas.

Who ever heard of women dropping off children and babies at the curb, and drive around looking for a parking space and walking back to their homes. Who ever heard of parking over night on private property because the town forbids parking. This is against the law. It has been noticed that only this particular block forbids parking on both sides. Signs can be posted on side streets — caution dangerous intersection. There are stop signs posted and no parking here to corner already, and a school crossing guard on Stephen and Joralemon streets. School children do not cross Joralemon and Cortlandt streets. The residents feel that the town is discriminating against them. There are no driveways at some houses on this block and not enough of parking at their residence. They are at this time talking about taking some private action to get these signs taken away or posted only on one side where the properties have yards and driveways to pull into or no parking within certain hours for school children which isn't necessary or reduce speed signs.

It has been seen where children actually get in the middle of the street with their hands up to stop the cars when they want to cross.

The residents want action now, and it is up to the town to solve their problems. After all property owners on this block pay taxes also. When they moved in homes with no driveways, they had on-street parking and now are stuck with properties hard to sell and hardships to boot. They are entitled to consideration. The governing body of towns follow the same pattern. Some one gets a brainstrom stupid idea, and it becomes law. If it affects them the idea never pops up, and they make sure it doesn't cause hardships for them.

As visitors in the evening hours after dark are leaving, they have to have residents walk them to their cars in cold bitter weather or watch their families and guests walk to K-Mart to get their cars. We trust this matter can somewhat be relieved immediately or as a group we are forced to take some action.

Letter policy

The Times continues to receive letters on a variety of topics which, unfortunately, may never find their way onto our editorial page. That is because they are unsigned.

As a matter of policy, The Times accepts only signed letters. "Signatures" such as "A Concerned Citizen" or "A Worried Parent" will not do. Only names will suffice. However, we will withhold names from publication upon request.

Golden Comments

By James Golden

An enraged and embattled "boss" Rega is seething over the reaction to the letter to the editor appearing in the Feb. 9 issue of The Times concerning the rift in the local Italian-American club which bore his signature and address.

His indignant rage is not engendered by the publication of the letter for which he claims authorship and submission of, but, because of the incredulity of many that he was the actual author and composer of the massive which produced hostile reverberations more characteristic of an enemy missile bent upon blunting the conciliatory aim of the new president of the club.

What irks the pensively petulant angry "boss" is the reluctance of so many to accept his talent as a letter writer composer by their assumption that a "ghost writer" authored his published letter.

We are without knowledge of the authorship of the epistle in controversy or whether it was typed or handwritten, which, if it were, might more clearly indicate the identity of the author. The fact that the submitted correspondence was signed by Mr. Rega offered legitimacy for its publication and an expression of his sentiments. He expresses no compunction for his views.

The thing that plagues the "boss" is the reluctance of those who challenge his ability to compose a well written letter to the editor. Why do they think I'm incapable to write? He asks. Inquiring, Am I not a successful businessman? Do I not have a host of friends, many in high places? Am I not an active, interested member of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce? Do I not become involved with local matters affecting school and town matters affecting the interests of the people? Are these the qualities of a person who is accepted in social circles throughout this area; Could I share this role were I ignorant and unable to write an intelligent letter? I'm not illiterate, as these people would like to make me out to be, protests "Boss" Rega.

This is not an apologia to vindicate Mr. Rega's views as a disgruntled club member of an organization's leadership nor his resentment over the question being raised over the authorship of the controversial Feb. 9 published letter over his name...our concern is over the unfounded inferences, in some quarters, that this writer had, in any manner, participated in the preparation of that letter...This is to disabuse anyone of such fallacious intimations.

Senator Carmen Orechio and Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato and Steve Adubato, all Democrats, are saying there should be more state aid to keep property taxes down in the suburban communities within their 30th District and are determined to make this aid issue one of this year's big budget scuffles. They claim the Kean administration will have a sizeable budget surplus that will reach close to $300 million by July 1. Instead of the state nestling away this surplus, it should be added to increase the municipal aid program, they contend.

The Governor and his aides charge the legislative Democrats' claims are exaggerated because the budget does give more aid and is the biggest increase in years.

Earlier this year three Essex municipalities, including Belleville, were supposed to receive more aid because of emergencies. However, Barry Skokowski, director of the Division of Local Government, rejected extra aid to Montclair, West Orange and Belleville, which will lose $65,000 because he rejected the extra aid because he found their finances were in "good shape" and did not meet the state standards of "cash deficits, short falls in revenue, personnel reductions, tax collections" or property values lower than the statewide average.

As a result of the rejections, the Assembly is calling for an investigation of why Mr. Skokowski denied the extra anticipated aid. He is the individual who ignored this writer's claim of an illegal town transfer of town monies in 1979 and only corrected the matter when the State Public Advocate applied the power of his office.

Even though Belleville's emergency aid was rejected, it still will get more money than last year, if approved by the Legislature, the amount will be $408,872, up $103,785 over the previous amount.

One ponders, could it be that a disappointed Republican administration, lamenting a clean democratic sweep in the November election in the 30th District, is trying to wreak its vengeance and revenge upon the people of Belleville?

South Street Seaport
Exciting Place to Visit

By Ruth Stanley

Begin your visit to the South Street Seaport at the Visitors' Center, 14 Fulton St., New York City, where you can acquaint yourself with the many options available. There are various ticket packages. Inquire about these. The people there are very helpful. You may wish a conducted walking tour, a ship tour, a gallery visit, an opportunity to view artisans at work (these vary from day to day) etc., etc.

But, you ABSOLUTELY must go next to the South Street Venture, an hour-long visually exciting display of the history of South Street. This presentation incorporates one main screen, 29 auxiliary side screens and 104 projectors — you are literally wrapped in sights and sounds. The film traces the history of the port with appropriate sound and visual effects; everything from ship rigging dropping into view to steam and spray spewing forth from the great waves engulfing the ships rounding Cape Horn, sea chanteys, brass bands and a marvelous fireworks display all set your heart pounding and your mind whirling. It's a marvelous display and great fun learning history this way.

From here you can wander the Belgian block streets, a myriad of shops, view varied old buildings, tour ships and eat in any number of restaurants or food specialty shops. (housed in the renovated Fulton Fish Market), taste food from every country and culture, shop from pushcarts. It's all a feast for the eyes and the senses.

The historic ships that are available for touring are many and varied: Peking, Waverree, Ambrose Light House, Lettie G. Howard, Pioneer, Aqua and Major General Hart. The Peking is the world's last and largest square-rigger and is the actual ship you will see in the film rounding Cape Horn in one of the stormiest voyages ever recorded. The Ambrose Light House for more than two decades lit the way for square-riggers, steamers and ocean liners through the Ambrose Channel into New York harbor. All of the ships on display are different and fascinating and all tell a story of their own.

The best way to travel to South Street Seaport is by PATH to the New York World Trade Center. From there, it is approximately a half mile walk to the seaport.

Time permitting, you may want to take a detour and visit Fraunces Tavern. Located about five blocks from the seaport at 54 Pearl St., Fraunces Tavern was built in 1763 and is still serving meals and libations today. The Long Room on the second floor was the scene of General George Washington's farewell address to his troops after the Revolutionary War in 1783 and is today maintained as a museum as is the entire second floor.

There is no admission charge for the museum. Lunch, dinner or drinks may be enjoyed on the first floor in a charming colonial setting complete with roaring fires in the fireplace (weather permitting.) Prices are rather high and one must make a reservation, lunch being very popular with people working in the Wall Street area nearby. When making reservations, request either the Tap Room or the Tallmadge Room. Phone (212) 269-0144.

Walking through history can be an exciting and enjoyable way to spend a day or two in lower Manhattan.

Mr. and Mrs. Andre Von Suppiny — nee Maria Perrone

Maria G. Perrone Bride
Of Andre Von Suppiny

Maria Grace Perrone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Perrone of Belleville, and Andre Von Suppiny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Von Suppiny of Caldwell, were married Oct. 16 in St. Joseph's Church, East Orange.

The Rev. Gerard Tranccone, cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Wayne Manor.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned with an illusion neckline, bodice and Juliet sleeves of beaded and sequined Alencon lace, tissue tulle skirt and ruffled cathedral train. A matching brimmed hat accented with silk flowers held her veil and she carried white silk roses and red silk tea roses.

Marygrace Marino of Belleville was her cousin's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Patti Weinberg of Arlington, Va., Nora Von Suppiny of Green Brook, sister-in-law of the groom, Marylou Genovino of West Orange, cousin of the bride and Fran Perrone of Roxbury, sister-in-law of the bride. Stephanie Marie Perrone, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

They were attired in red tulle ruffled jacket and skirt ensembles and wore modified Juliet caps with self-flowers. The honor attendant carried white silk roses and red and pink silk rosebuds while the others carried white roses and red rosebuds.

The flower girl, in a baby pink chiffon gown, had a wreath of silk flowers in her hair and carried a basket of pink and white silk flowers. John Von Suppiny of Caldwell was her brother's best man. Ushers were Raymond Von Suppiny of Green Brook, another brother of the groom, Kurt Davis of Newark, Carl Perrone of Roxbury, brother of the bride and Gennaro Bifulco of Montclair, Sammy Marino, cousin and Godson of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Perrone chose a teal chiffon gown with multi-colored beading and a sequined jacket. Her corsage was of white roses. The groom's mother, in a plum silk dress with matching jacket, had a pink rose corsage.

Mrs. Von Suppiny, an alumna of Belleville High School and Essex County Vocational School, is a hairdresser at 2nd Floor Haircutters, Montclair.

Umberto's
Corner

Dear Umberto,

My husband is walking around with a rainbow of 3 colors on his head. I feel guilty for the messy color job, but I don't know what to do. He is thirty-three and all grey. I bought chestnut brown and mixed of the color. I followed the same process the third month. It came out very well. A month went by, his hair grew so I reapplied the same color. There was some difference in the color. I followed the same process the third month. It came out in three different colors. Why did this happen?

Your Reader With the husband with a rainbow on his head
Dear Reader,

Your husband had the hair that I would like to have. — grey, if we could exchange I would pay a good sum. First, don't apply that type of a mixture on a man. There are colors on the market which do not contain peroxide, designed for men. If you use those peroxide colors you must apply the color on the roots first. After 15-20 minutes you apply it all over. Try this method and you'll see a vast improvement.

Ninth Grade Students Taking Graduation Test

During the months of March and April, each ninth grade student in Belleville High School will be tested on three separate occasions to satisfy New Jersey State graduation requirements. These tests will be administered in Belleville High School on March 6, 7, 8, 27, 28, and April 17 and 18.

On March 6, 7, and 8, all ninth grade students will take the new, more difficult, New Jersey State test. This test will not count toward graduation requirements until the class of 1989. Nevertheless, all ninth grade students in the state are required to take the examination for validation purposes.

On March 27 and 28, all ninth grade students, plus any student who has not achieved the minimum proficiency level, 65 percent in computation and 75 percent in communications, will be tested. Any student who does not meet the minimum level will be assigned during the next year remedial classes in math and/or basic reading and will be required to retake the test. If a student does not pass the test by the end of his or her senior year, the student must not be allowed to graduate.

On April 17 and 18, all students in Belleville High School will take the tests of Achievement and Proficiency, an achievement battery required by the state of New Jersey. The last test is used to identify students for state-mandated compensatory education programs.

Parents are requested to be aware of the testing dates and to impress their children with the seriousness of the program.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMalo D.C.

The brain, nervous system, kidneys and adrenal glands all have an influence on the output of the heart, the volume and viscosity of the blood, the elasticity and resistance of the arteries. Any abnormality in these areas may be evidenced by hypertension...high blood pressure.

For example, a pinched nerve in the low back area can result in malfunction of the kidneys or adrenal gland. When the nerve energy supply is improved by chiropractic adjustment, normal function is restored.

A chiropractic examination will determine whether chiropractic adjustments could help you. Please for an appointment.

Wesley and the Robber

By Rev. Robert Paul

As John Wesley rode across Hounslow Heath late one night, singing a favorite hymn, he was startled by a fierce voice shouting, "Halt!" while a firm hand seized the horse's bridle. Then the man demanded, "Your money or your life."

John Wesley obediently emptied his pockets of the few coins they contained and invited the robber to examine his saddlebags which were filled with books. Disappointed at the result, the robber was turning away when Mr. Wesley cried, "Stop, I have something more to give you."

The robber, wondering at this strange call, turned back. Then Mr. Wesley, bending down toward him, said in solemn tones, "My friend, you may live to regret this sort of a life in which you are engaged. If you ever do, I beseech you to remember this, 'The blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, cleanseth us from all sin.'"

The robber hurried silently away, and the man of God rode along, praying in his heart that the word spoken might be fixed in the robber's conscience.

Years later, at the close of a Sunday evening church service, the people steamed from the large building with many lingering around the doors to see the aged preacher, who was none other than John Wesley.

A stranger stepped forward and earnestly begged to speak with Mr. Wesley. What a surprise to find that this was the robber of Hounslow Heath, now a well-to-do tradesman in the city, but better still a child of God through personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. The words spoken that night long ago had been used of God in his conversion.

Raising the hand of Mr. Wesley to his lips, he affectionately kissed it and said in tones of deep emotion, "To you, dear sir, I owe it all."

"Nay, nay, my friend," replied Mr. Wesley softly. "Not to me, but to the precious blood of Jesus Christ which cleanseth us from all sin." (1st John 1:7.) St. Paul writes in Ephesians 1:7, "in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace."

School 3 Holds Successful Fashion Show

School 3 Dealt A "Full House"

By Joanne Friend

School 3 held its annual card party and fashion show on Feb. 10, at the Branch Brook Manor. The principal, Austin MacArthur, was the "Ace" for the night.

The room was lavishly decorated, the theme was Valentine's Day and his Home and School Association turned out to be his "Queen of Hearts." They went above and beyond to make his night a success. The ladies "shuffled" through the door one by one making a "full house" attendance of 360 people.

The music for the evening was supplied by Mrs. Carol Mateyka, Richie Ferrara and Ernie Della Sala.

The fashion show was emceed by Mrs. Maryann Diguglielmo. The models consisted of MacArthur's present and former teachers. The fashions were supplied by Hit or Miss on Main Street in Belleville and each outfit received a better "hand" than the last.

As an added treat for the evening, one of the models was our "Seven of Diamonds," Ms. Marilyn Hawthorne, a new school principal in town.

Also attending MacArthur's affair were numerous members of our Belleville Board of Education and our purchasing agent for our school system.

If all the ladies "played" their cards right, they went home with one of the 176 prizes that were graciously donated by our commissioners and numerous local merchants.

The " Joker" of the evening, Mrs. Joanne Friend, raffled off a cabbage patch doll which was won by Mrs. Lois Andrews.

MacArthur would again like to thank his Home and School Association, Mrs. Dottie Loesner, his secretary, and most of all, the ladies that attended and played their hands with a "full deck" to make this fund raiser the success it was.

One of the family — Members of the School 3 Home and School Association, Micki Ferrara (l) and Joanne Friend, pose with a Cabbage Patch doll, which was raffled off at the annual card party and fashion show.

Having a Great Time — Those in attendance at the School 3 card party included from left to right: Grace Purdue, president of the Board of Education; Joanne Friend, School 3 Home and School member; Micki Ferrara, School 3 Home and School member; and Toni Marone, purchasing agent, Belleville school system.

Senior Citizens Gather to Campaign For State Medically Needy Program

One hundred leaders of the New Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens assembled on Monday, Feb. 13 at the Father English Community Center in downtown Paterson to make public their campaign for a state "medically needy" program. Such a new state initiative would provide seniors, disabled individuals, and families with low incomes and high medical expenses with Medicaid type health coverage. As many as 87,000 New Jersey residents could be aided by such a "medically needy" program. If enacted into law by the New Jersey State Legislature, such an effort would be funded on a matching basis with the federal government.

According to Edith Edelson of New Brunswick, chairperson of the NJFSC Health and Welfare Taskforce, "By not having a medically needy program, New Jersey has missed the chance to utilize federal funds in providing for the health care needs of its citizens; the federal government would pay 50 percent of the medical costs under a medically needy program, and would begin to share some of the expense involved in the state's pharmaceutical plan."

Over 30 states currently have a program for the medically indigent similar to the one the New Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens is calling for. New Jersey and Delaware are the only northeast states that do not have such a program. Of the major industrial states only Texas, Ohio, and New Jersey are lacking a medically needy program.

At this Valentine's Day eve, event leaders of the 10,000 member state federation presented their case for the development of a medically needy program and their detailed campaign aimed at securing its passage by the Legislature. The federation has chosen the motto, "Have a Heart New Jersey — Assist the Medically Needy," for their campaign. Andy Gottberg of Dumont, president of the New Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens, said of the campaign, "By means of an active educational and organizing effort among senior clubs and community groups we hope to close this tragic gap in the government's health care safety net."

Hugh Dunlap, president of the Passaic County Council of Seniors and Federation trustee, said, "Valentine's Day 1984 will have added significance because it will mark the first day of the federation's Medically Needy Campaign; an effort by concerned senior and community leaders to put the health care problems of our state's poor and near poor black on the public agenda."

Apicella a Shot Away From History

Jenny Needs 2 Points to Reach 3,000; Shabazz Beats Girls For County Title

By Michael Lamberti

It was the defending champion, reeling on the ropes in the late rounds as the underdog, the less experienced team, made a spirited surge that almost had the judges leaning toward the upset. However, in the end, it was Malcolm X. Shabazz High School, known to most people as just Shabazz who held on for a close decision over a relentless Belleville girls basketball team in the finals of the Essex County championships last Saturday night at Walsh Auditorium, Seton Hall.

The girls will get their acts back to basketball tomorrow afternoon when Morris Knolls comes in for a 4 p.m. tip off in round one of the Group IV, Section II championships. The game is set at Belleville High School. Should Belleville win, they will face the winner of the Morristown-Nutley encounter at Elizabeth High School. The date and time of that match was not available at press time.

Last week, Belleville played in two very exciting contests, both on a team and individual standpoint. As a team, Belleville got a giant monkey off their back when they stopped nemesis Irvington, 56-54 in an exciting semi final at Belleville last Wednesday. Jennifer Apicella led the way 36 points, outdueling Irvington's marvelous center, sophomore Tammy Hammond who scored 28 points, but was zero for five from the foul line.

The game was tough and go from the outset. Belleville held the lead for most of the contest, but as head coach Karen Fucello would later say, "we kept letting them back in the ball game." The Campers, down by as many as eight in the second half, made a solid comeback as Hammond took control of the offensive boards and Belleville missed a few critical shots that kept the Campers close.

The girls led, 12-8 after one quarter and 26-21 at halftime. They increased the margin to 45-40 after three, but that was where Irvington began to come back. Paced by Hammond, the Campers closed to 54-52.

then tied the game on a layup by Hammond. Enter Cheryl Marion, a 5-6 junior who is supposed to be a leader for the future, not the present. The junior forward, the sixth man in Fucello's lineup, hit a big layup over a reaching Hammond with :27 left to give Belleville the two point lead, 56-54.

The excitement wasn't over, however. Irvington came back, following an Apicella free throw miss and Hammond drove the length of the floor, missing two layups as the buzzer sounded.

"The breaks went our way," admitted Fucello. "She (Hammond) had three tries at the basket, she just missed. We were on the receiving end of a big break there."

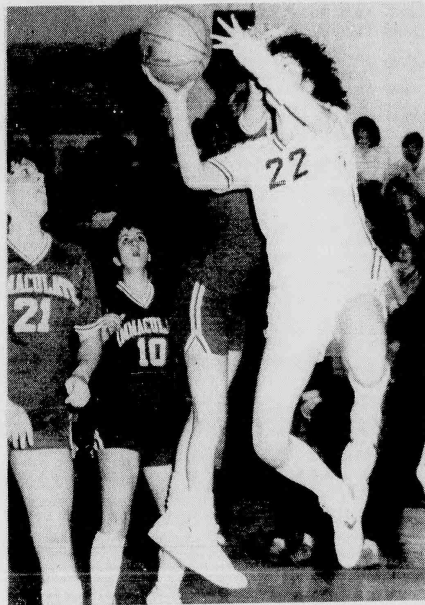

In addition to Apicella, who played a super game throughout, Dina De Aquino popped home ten

Hoopsters Close Year With a 6-18 Record

The final game of the 1983-84 basketball season for the Buccaneers boys' team epitomized what a disappointing year it's been for Joe Papisidero and Company. The script has become all too familiar. The Bucs are in a close game, they work hard, force a late turnover, but can't capitalize. The other team wins and Belleville has another difficult setback to swallow.

Last Friday, the Bucs closed the books on a disappointing year by bowing to Kearny, 66-63 at BHS. It was a game that Belleville fell behind in early, rallied in the closing stages but fell short as the final buzzer sounded on what turned out to be a 6-18 season.

In addition to the setback to Kearny, Belleville also fell victim to Hackensack, 88-48, and defeated Arts in primitive conditions, 53-43. The victory over Arts snapped an 11-game losing streak. Since Phil Colafillo went down in early January, the Bucs posted a record of 2-15. Many of those losses were in Proceeds from the event will be donated to the Katie Reilly Liver Transplant Fund.

The Wizards feature Tex Barnwell, a master trickster with a basketball who demonstrates his own unique interpretation of basketball rules and who might even be seen cheering his teammates on from the stands.

Do not miss this opportunity to come and see basketball at its finest and funniest, a game that the whole family can enjoy. Tickets, courtesy of Printing Techniques, Nutley, are $3 if purchased in advance or $4 at the door, and may be purchased at Nino's, Union Avenue, Belleville; The Belle Maid, Joramelon Street, Belleville; Sally's Auto Parts, Franklin Avenue, Nutley; and from members of the Student Government Organization. For further ticket information contact Mrs. Pat Pugliese at 759-4700.

Gibbons and Meyler Capture District Titles, Regionals Next

By Dino Ibeli

For wrestling fans, this is the time of year that separates the true wrestler from the one who just makes weight. It's time for the regions, which began last night at Passaic Valley High School and will conclude with matches tomorrow and Saturday night from PV.

The Bucs lost their hold on the District VII championship when they bowed to St. Benedict's by a team score of 111-89. Belleville will send six wrestlers to the Region II championships, two of which captured district championships last weekend at Kearny High School.

Tim Buckley ended his sophomore season at 8-8 when he bowed to Pat Napoli of Glen Ridge after pinning Melhoun of Montclair Immaculate at 4:56 of the third period. Buckley should be a solid entry for the Bucs next fall.

At 108 pounds, Dominick Cerreto was defeated in the championship round by Troy Spells of St. Benedict's, 7-6 in a controversial final. Cerreto gained the finals by pinning Templeton of Glen Ridge at 1:37 and O'Rourke of Nutley at 1:50. Cerreto will take a solid 22-2 record into the regions and will probably tackle Spells once more in

(Please see 'Grapplers' on page 12.)

Essex County Tourney Provided Expected Excitement

The Essex County basketball tournament. Throughout the years, the tourney has proven to be one of the best in New Jersey and this year was no exception.

The boys' game, played last Saturday afternoon from Seton Hall's Walsh Auditorium, featured Clifford Scott High School against Montclair High School. For the Mounties, this was their third straight appearance in the ECT, having won the titles the last two seasons. Montclair's coach, Bob Lester, has an incredible 302-57 record during his coaching career at East Orange, Atlantic City and now, Montclair. His record in the ECT is a marvelous 37-4. He's taken nine teams to the ECT finals and has won seven of them. At Montclair, he's been at the helm since 1979-80 and has a record of 102-26 there. You can't beat his record, or his accomplishments during his high school career. Perhaps one day, they will rename the tourney the Bob Lester Tournament.

In any event, Clifford Scott, coached by Greg Tynes and featuring a lineup that would have some colleges in awe, won the game, 67-65 when Robert Odom scored off his own miss with 17 seconds left in the game. This was a battle of Scott's height and strength under the boards against Montclair's speed and superior defense. In the end, the height was just enough.

Scott, now 22-1, appears headed toward another Group championship, but this time they'll have to do it in Group III, instead of its usual place in Group II. The Scotties' front line is 6'7", 6'6" and 6'5". They have the strength to match just about anyone in the state, possibly Camden being the only team that Scott could not handle. It was Camden that handed Scott its only defeat during a tournament in December. If you've ever seen Camden, you would know why Scott lost to them. Led by Kevin Walls, who tallied 81 points in a game last week, Camden is undefeated and should be the team to beat in Group IV when the state tourney starts this week.

The girls' final, of course, featured Belleville against Shabazz and was just as exciting. Belleville fell behind by 16 points in the third quarter, then made a spirited comeback behind the team play of Jennifer Apicella, Dina De Aquino and Donna Brooks. Brooks tallied 14 points on the night and Apicella led all scorers with 22. She now needs just two points to break the 3,000-point plateau and she'll do it tomorrow afternoon against Morris Knolls in round one of the state tourney. The game will be at Belleville.

Belleville played a good ball game, but couldn't dig themselves out of a second quarter hole that saw them trail by 10 points (33-23) at halftime. The girls did cut the lead, slowly but surely, coming as close as two points (47-45) and having the chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter.

Shabazz, which won an unprecedented third straight ECT title, has proven that it is the best team in Essex County once more. When the 1983 squad, which went unbeaten and won a state title, lost most of its starters to graduation, the feeling was the Lady Bulldogs would need a year of rebuilding before challenging for top honors once again.

Instead, Shabazz came right back, posting a 20-1 record and a balanced attack. The team is now favored to win its second straight Group III title. The Lady Bulldogs won the game because of a pressing defense and their ability to hold Apicella down. Jenny was triple teamed at times and finished below her average.

That doesn't take away from the marvelous showing that Apicella and the rest of her teammates put forth. Jenny scored 22 points with three players breathing down her neck all night. She broke free when other players might have quit. The effort on the part of all the girls is to be commended. They didn't win the championship, but they did win a lot of big games to get to the championship.

Now it's time to think state tournament. The Group IV, Section II field is loaded, with Irvington, Belleville and Plainfield among the class elite. Columbia,

BUC SHOTS

Morris Knolls and Morristown could also challenge for the top spot, although Plainfield is favored by most experts to win and advance to the Group IV championship game for the third straight year.

The Lady Cardinals are a very strong squad. They return the entire starting unit that made it to the championship game last March and have a club that is very experienced in the big games. In 1982, the Cards, with three sophomores in the starting lineup, lost by two points to Atlantic City in the Group IV finals. Last year, it was a 10-point setback to Hamilton West in the state finals with an all junior starting lineup.

It was an exciting week of action for the girls' basketball team in Belleville. Its big win over Irvington in the semifinals of the tourney will go down as one of the most exciting games in recent memory. Speaking of Irvington, they have a very talented team, led by sophomore Tammy Hammond, who has already broken the 1,000-point mark and could give Jennifer's record a serious run before it's all over.

The New York Jets finally wised up and traded Richard Todd to the New Orleans Saints. In exchange, the Saints gave the Jets a first round draft choice. That just goes to show how much stock Todd had with the other teams in the NFL. The Saints would only part with one draft pick, wouldn't trade any of their established players and now have four quarterbacks on the roster. It should be interesting to see how much time Todd gets in the deep south with Kenny Stabler and Dave Wilson also calling signals.

As for the Jets, they will probably go with Ken O'Brien, a man with enormous talents. He has a super arm, good size and will be a fine player. He'll need time, it's just too bad that he didn't play at all during the 1983 season. Speaking of the Jets, did you see who won the Jacksonville, Washington USFL game last week? Jacksonville won, 53-14, as Matt Robinson led the way to victory. Good old Matt, wouldn't it be nice to see him come to Giants Stadium, blow out the Generals and Walt Michaels and leave with a big grin. I'll always say it, Robinson was robbed, ripped off or anything else you would want to call it. Thank God that Todd is finally off the Jets' back. Good luck to New Orleans, they'll need it.

The Belleville boys' basketball team closed out the regular season with a 66-63 setback to Kearny. The final team record is 6-18. It was a far cry from the record that many people had expected when the season started. Injuries decimated this team, as everyone knows and the season turned into one of character building for the Bucs and coach Joe Papisidero. So, next year, the team will have to try for that elusive 500 season, one that hasn't been in Belleville since Abdel Anderson, Joe Dunn, John Megna, Doug Jackson, Michael Meagher and Bob Tosi led the way back in 1975. It seems light years ago, when the fans would scream, "Sink it Ab!" when the big center would take a jump shot.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week goes to Donna Brooks. The junior center played a solid game in the championship round of the Essex County Tournament. She scored 14 points and pulled down eight rebounds. On the season, she's averaging 11 points a game and will be one of the big players on next year's team.

The Belleville High School athlete of the month will be profiled in next week's issue.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, what college did Julius Dr. J. Erving attend and what professional team did he play with after graduation. The answer: Erving played for the University of Massachusetts and started with the Virginia Squires of the ABA.

For this week's quiz, name the current names of these former teams: The New York Highlanders, the New York Titans, the St. Louis Browns and the Kansas City Scouts.

Recreation Basketball Leagues Close Regular Seasons — Playoffs are Next

Men's League

The final week of the regular season took place on Thursday, Feb. 23, in the Belleville Men's Basketball League.

Remaining in first place with a 10-1 mark, the Martucci Brothers sailed past Mr. Muggs, 73-55. R. Garriga led the winners with 17 and teammates G. Bell and N. Chianca scored 16 apiece. The losers were paced by D. Jackson, who totalled 23, but their record slipped to 4-7.

Club 36 East, propelled by C. Jernigan (27) and B. Johnson (23), finished the season at 6-5 by routing RLM Graphics, 90-42. The loss was the 11th straight for RLM who got 15 points from T. Beverly.

Thirty-seven points by R. Clark and 16 by M. Lilia ignited Tobler (7-4) over the Knicks, 72-68. In the loss the Knicks (4-7) received 18 apiece from M. Fillan and D. Kiel.

Winning their third straight game, Rocky's Raiders up-ended Rosebud's Pub, 73-68. The winners (5-6) were led by G. Simpkins (23) and F. O'Keefe (12). Rosebud's finished in fourth place with a 7-4 record and was led by P. Kofka (25) and D. Roll (16).

S. Cavione and D. Dunn combined for 42 points in fiery Nutley

Pub (9-2) over Suburban Cable, 103-67. The losers (1-10) got 26 from R. Johnson and 21 from Ron Pennetti.

For Pete's Sake finished the season with only one loss by exploding past Ten-Two, 86-47. Providing the points were B. Gardner (26) and T. Hanley (15). Ten-Two finished at 3-9 and got 15 from F. Mauro.

Over 30 League

The Men's Over 30 League played on Tuesday, Feb. 21, to make up a night of basketball due to the snow of Jan. 18.

In overtime, Radio Shack (3-5), led by F. Carraccia's 18 points and B. Cozier's 11 squeezed by Tobler, 58-57. The losers fell to 5-2 and received 23 points from M. Higgins and 12 from J. Dattoli.

B. Byers scored 27 points and teammate D. Wright added 11 to propel undefeated Vito Sylvestro's Meat Market past Newark Beverage, 58-40. In the loss, Newark Beverage (4-4) got 16 from P. Magrone and 11 from L. Guy.

Another close contest was between the Belleville Knights and Miele's Caterers, and in overtime the Knights prevailed, 39-33. The winners (1-7) had balance scoring led by

C. Foehner (nine points). Miele's was paced by C. Corino (15) and A. Sorrentino (10) but its record fell to 0-8.

Sally's Auto raised its record to 6-2 as the team beat Megaro Memorial Home, 56-39. D. Hollywood scored 15 and E. Paterson helped with 10 to secure the victory. The losers (4-4) were led by P. Megaro who scored 10.

The ninth week of action in the Belleville Men's Over 30 Basketball League took place Feb. 22.

Sally's Auto Paris' comeback fell short, as Vito Sylvestro's Meat Market remained undefeated (9-0), 38-37. B. Byers and J. Rush combined for 30 points in the victory. The loss left Sally's at a 6-3 mark. The team received 16 from E. Vogler and 12 from D. Hollywood.

Winning for the second straight night, the Belleville Knights turned back Newark Beverage, 32-26. Leading the way for the victory was B. Hoarle (14) and C. Foehner (12). Newark Beverage was led by B. Iannuzzi's 16 but slipped to 4-5.

Gaining their first victory of the season, Miele's Caterers defeated Radio Shack, 42-37. Eleven points apiece by R. Della Terza and A. Sorrentino led the charge. The losers fell to 3-6 and received 12 points from F. Carraccia. M. Higgins' 20 points lifted Tobler (7-2) over Megaro Memorial Home, 47-36. Falling to 4-5, Megaro received 18 from A. Ieryolina and 11 from P. Megaro.

Senior Boys' League

The semifinals of the Boys' Senior High School Basketball League were held on Feb. 14.

Riding on 16 points apiece by P. Dorizas and J. Apicella, Village Video exploded into the championship game by wiping out "US", 44-16. The losers, who were last week surprised heavily favored Vinnie's Deli, were led by J. Mundy (10) and finished the season at 2-7.

Ricky Wells almost single-handedly turned back Z & Z Contracting's comeback by scoring 27 points in a 52-42 victory for Walker Transport. In a super contest, which was tied 26 all at half-time, the losers received 16 from A. Martinez and 12 from E. Zangari and finished the season with a 5-4 record. Walker Transport is bidding for another undefeated season and of course, more championship trophies.

Grapplers Take Second Place In Districts, Regionals Next

the regional finals. Vince Capriglione was not so fortunate. The freshman lost a tough 5-4 decision to Rene Calderon of St. Benedict's, who went on to a third place finish. For Capriglione, he finished with a very impressive 6-4-1 season and is a man who should be a dominant wrestler for BHS in the next few years.

Mike Giuffrida, who took a second in his sophomore and junior years, finished third in his senior campaign. 'G' pinned Cicchino of Glen Ridge at 1:41 of the first period but lost to Dennis Hall, 7-4 in the semis. Giuffrida came back to defeat Pat Scarpace of St. Benedict's, 11-3 to take third place and advance. Giuffrida will take a 16-4-1 record into the regions, attempting another shot at state competition.

At 129, Cam Rispoli stunned the big crowd when he pinned Mark Gerbino of Glen Ridge at 1:57 of the first round. Gerbino came into the districts the number one seed and was picked by some pre-season polls to make it to the state finals. Rispoli then lost his next two matches, taking fourth for the tourney. Rispoli ends his injury plagued junior year at 1-4-1 and if healthy, should be solid next fall.

At 135 pounds, Luke Siletti got caught in the grasps of Anthony Delvescovo of Essex Catholic and was shown a quick exit from the districts. A junior, Siletti, finished with a good 14-8 mark.

Over at 141 pounds, Ralph Zarro beat Pat Eggert of Nutley, 13-3 to advance to the semi finals. There, he lost to Jason Scarpace of St. Benedict's, 7-4 before coming back to take the bronze, pinning Frank La Tourmouse of Kearny in 4:49 of the third period. Zarro will take a 15-8-1 mark into the regions. He will face some tough competition there, notably Guy Russo of West Essex and Andrew Chermack of Hasbrouck Heights.

Jim Racanelli also took a third place, defeating Matarazzo of Bloomfield, 11-5, losing via pin to Pat Caruso of Essex Catholic but coming back to defeat Gerard Stokes of St. Benedict's, 13-8. "Rac" will take a 5-5 mark into the regions against the likes of J.R. Dawson from Kearny and Tony Servidio of Clifton.

Jim Meyler regained his District 7 crown, pinning Tom Evanchuk of Kearny, defeating Dave Hurley of Glen Ridge, 12-6 and hearing Harold Stevers of St. Benedict's, 12-0 in the finals. Meyler will go to the districts with a 22-2 record. Perhaps Mike Fano of West Essex will create a problem for Meyler as he attempts a berth in the states.

At 170, Jaime Lijo ended a fine senior season by defeating Lee Padner of Nutley, then losing to Sonny Arena of Kearny, and Tom Caruso of Essex Catholic, 8-6. Lijo concluded his season with a 14-6 record.

At 188, what more can you say about Mr. Michael Gibbons. Not since Chris Musmanno in 1980 has Belleville had a wrestler who enters the regions with an undefeated record and sheer dominance of his opponent. Gibbons pinned his way to a second straight district championship, beating Correto of Nutley. Paul Vignes of Glen Ridge and Dave Gochipinti of Harrison in a total time of 7 minutes and 36 seconds. Gibbons, who took a third in the regions last winter, will come in with a 24-0 record. It will probably be Gibbons and Rich Cynowya of Clifton for the regional finals. Gibbons defeated Cynowya, 7-5 in the Bloomfield Holiday tournament back in late December.

At heavyweight, freshman Mark Criscone ended his season at 5-5, losing to Angelo Zeuna at 1:21 of the first period. Criscone should be a very good wrestler for the Bucs in the next three years.

Three Rec Wrestlers Remain Undefeated

The Belleville Recreation wrestling team, a member of the Essex County Junior Wrestling League, finished its league season with a 5-4 record. The team also finished fifth place in the league tournament, dropping two places from last year's third place finish. This year's first place honor went to the undefeated Caldwell team.

Three undefeated Belleville grapplers took first place honors. Eighty-five-pound Essex County champ John Stampone finished his league season with a 12-0 record. The 90-pound county champ Joe Cerreto also finished 12-0 and for his excellent performance received this year's award for the tournament's "Outstanding Wrestler." Armando Nardone, the 126-pound county champion, remains undefeated in two years with a 27-0 record, he is 12-0 so far this season.

Bringing home bronze medals from the county league tournament were 60-pounder Emilio Nardone who finished fourth place and holds a 7-4 record; 65-pounder Ralph Perna who finished third place and holds an 8-2 record; 145-pounder Dawson Bloom who finished third place and holds an 8-4 record; and 85-pounder Bill Van Sychel who finished fourth place and holds a 5-5 record.

Other Belleville wrestlers included Anthony Zarro, 80 lbs.; Mike Iuliano, 95 lbs.; Bob Mulcahy, 100 lbs.; Mike Zaccarella, 105 lbs.; Danny Nappi, 112 lbs.; John Raimo, 119 lbs.; Ken Henry, 135 lbs.; and heavyweight Frank Pacheco.

Joe Cerreto was the recipient of the trophy this year while Joe Perna took the honor last year.

The next recreation wrestling event will be when the Belleville wrestlers try to improve last year's second place finish in the Kearny Invitational Tournament, while they will also begin participating in several out-of-league matches and the All-Star meet.

Rash of Injuries Played Major Part In Boys' Disappointing 6-18 Season

the close game variety — games Belleville might have pulled out had Colalillo been healthy.

The week started off with the loss to Hackensack. "They had too much speed for us," said Papasidero. "We stayed with them for a while, but they wore us down and their press hurt. Without our starters, we couldn't handle them."

Adding to the injury list was the loss of Mike Sochaski, who broke his ankle in the loss and obviously missed the final two games. The loss of Sochaski, along with Colalillo and Dave Boyd, meant the front line would be no bigger than 6 feet.

Belleville trailed Hackensack, 15-14 after one quarter and 35-25 at intermission. In the second half, the Comets took control, outscoring the Bucs by 12 in the third quarter and 27 in the final frame. Danny Ward continued his fine play, hitting for 25 points to lead all scorers. Boyd, who has been hampered with torn ligaments in his ankle, did play, scoring six points. Joe Borrello had five for Belleville.

The Arts game was played at the Chancellor Avenue Annex in Newark. If you ever plan to vacation in the area, you must make that gym one of your stops on the itinerary. It had all the modern conveniences of your everyday cave. "It was a very small gym," said Papasidero, trying to be kind. "I think it was culture shock for our kids when they first went into the gym. I don't think the two rims were even and there wasn't even a scoreboard. They kept count on a chalkboard and they used stop watches for the official clock."

Despite these fun surroundings, Belleville did lead, 16-7 after one quarter, although Papasidero swears it should have been 16-5. "There are eight seconds left in the first quarter," the coach recalled. "They take the ball, throw it inbounds. The Arts player dribbles, passes to another player. He dribbles, takes a jump shot, the shot misses, they rebound, pass out, another player tries a layup, that misses, then another player attempts a layup which goes in." Keep in mind this was all done in a span of eight seconds. By the way, coach, were there any officials at this game? "There were, upon occasion," Papasidero replied.

Belleville led, 30-23 at the half, 41-33 after three quarters and escaped with a 10-point, 53-43 victory. Ward had 24 points to lead Belleville, Borrello tallied 10, Boyd nine, and Mauricio Puentes had four.

Finally, the Bucs returned to the modern confines of Belleville High last Friday night and lost the toughest to Kearny. The game ended on a very controversial note and had Papasidero fuming for hours after the contest. Even on Sunday, two days after the game, the coach was still upset about the call.

Here's the situation. Belleville had fallen behind by nine points at halftime (38-29) and trailed by 12 (47-35) in the fourth quarter before the Bucs started to come back. Behind the fine shooting of Boyd, Belleville cut the gap, tying the game at 61 when Boyd hit a jump shot with 58 seconds left. Kearny took the lead back at 63-61 when Walt Windle (31 points on the evening) canned a jumper.

The Bucs came back, with Boyd doing it again, tallying a jumper to tie the game at 63. Enter Mr. Windle, who hits another jumper from 15 feet with 18 seconds to go, giving his club the two-point lead, 65-63.

Papasidero called a timeout and planned his strategy. "We wanted them (Kearny) to think that Ward would get the ball. Really, we planned on David (Boyd) to get it because he was doing so well down the stretch. Boyd, indeed, did get the ball. He drove the lane, lays in a two-point with one second to go, forcing an apparent tie and possible overtime. At the instant that Boyd tallied the field goal, the official blows his whistle and gives the indication that the basket is good.

"I thought we had a three-point play at the buzzer," said Papasidero. "Man, was I wrong." Instead of the two-point, the official changes his decision that the basket is good and says Boyd committed an offensive foul. Kearny hit a useless shot at the buzzer and won by three.

It seemed like a fitting way to end the season, another game that Belleville should have won but somehow didn't. It's been a long tough road for the Bucs this year. It's a shame that a team favored to do so well this winter fell upon hard times. "They played hard all year," said Papasidero of his squad. "I can't say enough about those kids."

big points, Donna Brooks had seven and Marion had three life saving points.

The victory set up the championship round with Shabazz, who easily defeated West Side, 75-52 in the second game of the doubleheader. The Lady Bulldogs, winners of the past two ECT finals, were supposed to be rebuilding this year after losing the nucleus of last seasons 28-0 squad to graduation. Shabazz had other ideas and the Newark City League power has bounced back to post a 20-1 record and are now favored to repeat in Group III.

The Bulldog defense, who kept as many as three players on Apicella's trail the entire evening, did the job in the second quarter as they broke open a close game to lead by ten, 33-23 at halftime.

Belleville started off strong, leading 14-8 midway through the first quarter as Apicella, De Aquino and Brooks all contributed. Then, suddenly, the Buc guns suddenly started to fire blanks and Shabazz, behind Liza Donnell (19 points and MVP of the game) and Sharonda Phelps, came back to tie, 14-14 after one quarter.

The Lady Bulldogs continued the heat, popping home the first eight points of the second quarter to take a 22-14 lead and give them 14 unanswered points.

In the third quarter, the Belleville defense came to life. Behind the strong play of Loreli Wells, Belleville started chipping away at a 39-23 Shabazz lead with Apicella coming alive and breaking through a fierce Bulldog 'D'. Apicella tallied eight of Belleville's 12 points in the third quarter and the fans, aware that she needed just six in the fourth to reach 3,000 career points were fired up for a wild fourth quarter.

The final frame was exciting. Belleville came closer, cutting the margin to 47-45 and Apicella on the line, awarded a one in one from the line in an effort to tie the game. The senior missed the front end. Shabazz rebounded and seconds later, Earlisha Dell sank two big free throws to give Shabazz the 49-45 lead and pretty much assure victory.

Apicella tallied 22 hard earned points, coming within two points of 3,000, a plateau she should reach in the early stages of the Morris Knolls game tomorrow afternoon. Brooks, playing a tough game under the boards, had 14. De Aquino scored eight and Tracy Buono, two.

For Shabazz, an unprecedented third straight Essex County championship. For Belleville, second place, their best showing ever, but a little difficult to swallow at the time. The girls are now 20-6 and certainly have proven what a fine team they are. Their accomplishments will be remembered with pride for years to come.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Murray Gaby, manager of up-and-coming heavyweight Jose Ribalta, is recuperating from a bout with his ticker in Florida. Gaby is a former amateur and collegiate boxing champion. Cuban born Ribalta, now of Passaic, N.J., via Miami, is in the good hands of his trainer, Tommy Parks of East Orange, N.J. New Orleans better now fighting out of Albany, N.Y., Phil Brown, signed a promotional agreement with Cha Cha Garcia. The undefeated heavyweight shows promise of becoming a contender by 1985 according to Garcia.

The television networks have no desire to touch the heavyweight mismatch between Larry Holmes and John Tate slated for Reno, Nev., April 6. The card will also include Randall "Tex" Cobb and Mike Weaver, not against each other, opponents to be announced.

New Jersey Hall of Fame inducted the following during its 15th annual dinner, Feb. 24, Mario Centi, the hall's president, Joey Haddad, Ray Powell, Dan Kopick, Nick Cocozza, Ray Arcel, Jim Marsilio, Dr. Max Novich, Joe Palileo and Tony Margenhi. The event was held at The Princess in Lodi, N.J.

Jimmy Paul of Detroit successfully defended his USBA lightweight championship against an unknown answering to the moniker of Richard Fowler. Paul had difficulty with the awkward Fowler in scoring a ninth round TKO at the Joe Louis Arena in Detroit.

Tommy Hearn was making a lot of noise shouting off his mouth at a press hearing after gaining a 12-round decision over Luigi Minichillo to protect his WBC welterweight crown. Hearn shouted, "I'm going to give all those guys a chance at the title, starting with Roberto Duran. After I unify the title, I'm going after Mr. Big Mouth (Marvin Hagler) for his middleweight titles, then I'm going after the light heavyweight championship." Hearn's manager, Emanuel Steward, added, "There's no need talking about Sugar Ray Leonard, he'll never fight Tommy."

Greg Page of Louisville, Ky., and Philadelphia's Tim Witherspoon, the WBC's top-ranked heavyweights, will fight it out for the title vacated by Larry Holmes because of a dispute between Holmes and WBC. Also on the Page-Witherspoon card, Carlos De Leon of Puerto Rico will defend his WBC cruiserweight championship against second-rated Anthony Davis of Las Vegas. The two title matches are scheduled for March 9 in Las Vegas.

Mike Jones has reestablished himself as one of the better managers after the way he smoothly maneuvered Billy Costello to the WBC lightweight title. Word out of Florida has Alexis Arguello dominating the gloves again and challenging Costello, the Kingston, N.Y., slugger. We also hear WBA lightweight champion Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini desires to take on Costello. However, Mancini's manager, Dave Wolf, said, "It's news to me and Ray would never go after a match without my knowledge."

Tommy Hearn, 25, of Detroit, successfully defended his WBC junior middleweight title by pouncing out an unanimous 12-round decision over Luigi Minichillo, 28, of Poggio, Italy, at the Joe Louis Arena in Detroit. Mich. Former WBC fifth heavyweight champ Matthew Saad Muhammad of Philadelphia lost on a TKO when referee Max Harnish stopped his bout with Willie Edwards of Detroit in the 11th round. Edwards retained his NABF championship. In another bout, former WBC welterweight titleholder Wilfredo Benitez of Puerto Rico scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Stacey McSwain of Charlotte, N.C. Hearn is now talking about unification of titles bout with WBA champion Roberto Duran in June.

New Jersey Chapter of Italian-Americans honored Paul Cavaliere of Wayne, N.J., and Antonio (Tippy Larkin) Pilletieri of Garfield, N.J., by induction into the National Italian Sports Hall of Fame (based in Chicago) at Loews Glenside Hotel, Teaneck, N.J. Feb. 10, 1984. Cavaliere, boxing name Cavaliere, was born in Paterson, N.J., was active in the squared circle for 15 years and engaged in 115 bouts, winning 111, losing three and fought one draw. Paul deposed James J. Braddock for the light heavyweight crown of New Jersey and defeated Tony Galento for the state heavyweight title. Considered the fastest and cleverest heavyweight in the world by many, including Gene Tunney, Cavaliere held seven world championships. Joe Louis, Jack Sharkey, Primo Carnera, Max Baer, Jack Dempsey, Mickey Walker and Tim Larkin. Today, Paul is a respected, far-hoing official in New Jersey. He was inducted into Boxing's Hall of Fame, Sept. 12, 1971. Tippy Larkin's bio will appear in a future issue.

Roger Stafford, the No. 1 rated welterweight in the world for much of 1983, will return to action against Jinit Nash, Wednesday, March 14 at the Playboy Hotel and Casino in Atlantic City. The Stafford-Nash glove-slinger will be one of three eight-rounders being co-promoted by Philadelphia promoters Joe Verno and Joe Hand. Featured in other parts of the triple card will be unbeaten junior welterweight Gregg Edelman of Merchantville, Pa. Opponents for Edelman and Serrano will be named later. Sy Roseman promises to forward more info as it breaks. Sy handles public relations duties.

World Boxing Council named Mike McCallum, Jamaican born, now of New York, to No. 1 contender among its junior middleweights. McCallum is now the mandatory title defense for champion Thomas Hearn. Both fighters are trained by Emanuel Steward of Detroit's Kronk Boxing Team. When reached by phone, Hearn said, "I will not fight a teammate. It's WBC's problem, not mine."

Unbeaten Philadelphia's hard-punching junior middleweight Earl Hargrove has his first step toward a world championship coming up. He has signed for a bout against Jesse C. It's Mark Medal for Sunday, March 11 in Atlantic City. Twenty-seven-year-old Hargrove will take his outstanding record of 24-0 all by KOs into the ring while Medal, 26, has won 19 straight since he lost his only fight March 24, 1980. He now boasts a 24-0 with 19 KOs. The bout will be televised nationally on NBC TV Ch. 4 Hargrove's promotions are handled by Bobby Connolly, Chester Springs, Pa., businessman.

Undisputed middleweight king Marvelous Marvin Hagler came down from his Brockton, Mass., home to attend a press meeting in New York's Friars Club last Tuesday and expressed his views on happenings in the fight world. On thumbless gloves, "It shouldn't be up to Sugar Ray Leonard to dictate things like thumbless gloves. He's acting like 'Tim McBrown'." The Roberto Duran fight, "Duran staying the distance soon we could have been the best thing that happened. It got all the little guys out of the way, so they all got better. This took Tim (Leonard). The Leonard-Kevin Howard thing, 'I was excited until I found out Leonard's fighting a turkey.' A Hagler-Leonard fight, 'Leonard will never agree to fight. He'll use the thumbless glove gimmick as an excuse. I'll not use the thumbless mitt, Leonard or no Leonard and no matter how big the purse.' All this talk could be hype to stimulate interest in a bout between Hagler-Leonard. Promoter Bob Arum said a Hagler-Leonard fight 'could knock up between $20-25 million.'

WBA welterweight champ Donald Curry was unimpressed in demonstrating he has nerve by trying for a knock-out in the 15th and last round when he had the decision over him. Curry fought with Marlon Starling. It's very doubtful Sugar Ray Leonard will care to swap punches with this tongue-in-cheek comeback.

Special Election Is Likely in May

Last week, Joseph Fornarotto — an activist citizen who has run for office several times — announced his intention to seek the soon-to-be vacant post.

"I am the people's candidate and I will serve all the people," said the 60-year-old resident of Union Avenue.

An outspoken critic of local government and officials, Fornarotto ran unsuccessfully in the May Commans' election showing seventh in a field of eight candidates.

Fornarotto, who works for the Essex County Housing Department as an inspector, said a victory for him would be "a fair chance for the community and the taxpayers in Belleville."

Activist businessman Joseph Dasaro also said Tuesday he would "seriously consider" offering himself as a candidate if a special election is slated for the vacancy.

The owner of Belleville Travel on Washington Avenue, Dasaro said he was approached by "a number of local groups" to enter the election.

"I would like to prove that things can get done in Belleville," said Dasaro who has been a strong proponent of measures to revitalize the community's commercial district, where his business is located.

A member of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency, which has begun proceedings to begin such a renewal project, Dasaro expressed pride that "things have really begun to move in the past few months after 25 years of people just talking about revitalization."

As a commissioner, Dasaro said he felt he could be even more effective in accomplishing that goal of redeveloping Belleville.

"I want to streamline this town from a businessman's point of view," Dasaro said Tuesday. He defined his formula simply. "You have revenues and liabilities in operating a municipality," he said. "You must keep the revenues above the liabilities, if you want to make progress."

Another hopeful who names redevelopment as a major motive for seeking a Commission seat is Ralph DiRuggiero. A lifelong resident of Belleville, the 33-year-old DiRuggiero said Monday, "I am very seriously considering being a candidate in election for the Belleville Commission."

A Belleville High School graduate, DiRuggiero resides on Joramelon Street with his wife, Susan, who teaches at School 7.

He currently serves as an alternate member of the township's Zoning Board and belongs to the Optimist Club.

DiRuggiero is an assistant Essex County administrator for General Services, a post he has held for two years. He also served since July 1980 as a county purchasing agent.

Previously employed by the Office of Management and Budget in New York City, DiRuggiero feels his professional background strongly qualifies him to deal with the municipal matters facing Commissioners.

"There is no reason why Washington Avenue cannot and should not be turned around," said the young hopeful who would like to see Belleville restored to the state it enjoyed "when I was growing up."

He feels both the commercial district and other portions of the township, notably Silver Lake, have gone neglected over the years.

"We have a lot to offer in Belleville and we should make ourselves known," said the citizen who holds a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Scranton and is currently studying for his master's in Public Administration.

This will be a first attempt at an elected office for both Dasaro and DiRuggiero, if they proceed.

Zoppi and Cuomo Add Names To Board of Education Race

perience I feel I can handle the one-year seat better than someone who has no board experience. I do not have to take the time require to become adjusted to sitting on the Board of Education.

"The other reason I decide to seek the one-year seat was that I hated to see someone run unopposed, as would have been the case," he continued. "Now the people can make a choice."

Last Friday ballot positions were drawn for the April 3 election, with Donna Rainone taking the number one spot on the ballot in the race for the three-year seat. Following her on the ballot are: Linfante, 2A; Grossman, 3A; Spillane, 4A and Cuomo, 5A. In the one-year race, Richard Melham drew the top spot on the ballot, followed by Zoppi.
