Belleville Teachers Take 'Job Action' Over Stalled Talks

By Ed Capparucci

Belleville teachers, frustrated with stagnated contract talks, have taken a job action, according to Thomas Testa, president of the Belleville Education Association.

The job action, which started Tuesday morning, calls for teachers throughout the district to sign in and out with the students and also "remove themselves from all voluntary non-paying duties the course of the school day," including curriculum development, and Middle States committees.

That we hope to accomplish by taking on this job action is to have the community realize that the teachers have fallen far behind in the pay scale at the county level and the Board of Education has not attempted to upgrade this," said Testa, whose organization represents the district's 335 teachers. "The teachers of this community still care about the children, but we resent the negative attitude presented by the board. The negotiations to this point have been a waste of time and money for the taxpayers of this community. We are not asking for the moon, we just want what is fair."

The recommendations for the job action, which were almost unanimously approved by the BEA membership on Monday, involves four phases.

* Phase I: All teachers are advised to sign in and out with the students. Teachers are urged not to attend any after school activities such as workshops, faculty meetings, etc. All teachers are advised to meet in a designated area at their prospective schools so that they may enter the building as a unified group.

* Phase II: All teachers are advised to withdraw from all voluntary non-paying duties during the course of the school day, such as, Middle States, curriculum development, instructional council, report card committee and the testing committee.

* Phase III: All teachers are strongly urged to hold picket signs, before and after school.

* Phase IV: All teachers are urged to boycott all duties involving graduation. However, teachers are advised to attend and sit together as a group during the commencement ceremonies.

"This phase of the job action is just the first step," said Testa. "God only knows what is next if the negotiations don't start to get better. We are not going to hold back any longer. We have been negotiating since December and we have gotten nowhere. The board says it has no money to pay us what we want and deserve."

Large and Concerned Crowd Attends Blight Proceeding

By Linda Telesco

Blight makes might. That could have been the theme last week when Belleville residents and business people turned out more than 200 strong to protest proposals for redeveloping Washington Avenue by declaring portions of it blighted.

Belleville High School auditorium was the setting for last Thursday's public hearing on a recent blight study done of the Avenue as a first step toward revitalization. The hearing, required by the state for any blight proceedings, permitted the public to address comments to the Belleville Redevelopment Agency — the panel that set the study in motion, and the local Planning Board.

While everyone agrees something must be done about Washington Avenue, the BRDA and citizens disagreed about the methods.

"If you declare blight, that's what you'll end up with," said Michael Giordano of Valley Street whose home falls into a targeted area for redevelopment.

Giordano was one of the evening's many speakers who warned that declaring blight is a self-fulfilling prophecy.

Joe Thor, an attorney for several Avenue businesses, noted that such declarations put fear into a community.

Faced with the uncertainty a blight study causes, the attorney suggested people may sell their homes before they lose them. Merchants may relocate to save their businesses. Property owners, reluctant to invest in properties ripe for the wrecking ball, will permit deterioration.

"Then you will really have a blight situation," Thor noted, drawing enthusiastic applause.

Members of the BRDA, aware that their plan might cause fear, tried to convince the public that the study did not propose to wipe out the entire street.

"Belleville needs more ratables and it is a prime place to attract the kind of developers that can bring those ratables in," argued Emil Nardachone, chairman of the BRDA.

The central focus of the hearing (Please see 'Avenue' on page 8.)

Strumolo Finishes In Second

In what could only be termed as a two-man race, Ralph DiRuggiero edged out former town leader Vincent Strumolo to capture a seat on the Belleville Board of Commissioners.

The final vote totals were: DiRuggiero, 2,263; Strumolo, 2,094; Joseph Fornarotto, 880; Joseph Dasaro, 766; and Sam Papa, 458.

"I am extremely happy," said DiRuggiero, during an interview at his celebration party held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. "It was a lot of hard work and time. We went out and met the people and gave them a choice. But it was not something which I did alone. I had a lot of help. My wife, mother, friends and family all played a major part in my victory."

It was a very light turnout for the special election, which took place to fill the vacancy left by former Public Safety commissioner Matthew Pica, who resigned in February, due to family obligations. Only 6,461 (or 37.5 percent) of the township's 16,940 registered voters turned out in heavy rains Tuesday.

DiRuggiero will be sworn-in at a special commission meeting scheduled for Friday at noon at Town Hall. It is also believed that the commissioners will vote to change some departments.

DiRuggiero, 33, is an assistant administrator for general services in the Essex County government, and it was the support of county officials and members of the Belleville Board of Education, which enable him to beat out Strumolo.

For Strumolo, who has attempting a political comeback after his narrow defeat last May, this may have been his final effort to serve once again as commissioner.

Mayor Michael Marotti, said he was happy to see DiRuggiero win, despite that he did not publicly endorse any candidate during the election.

"Ralph worked hard and got the people to come out and vote and he deserves a lot of credit," said Marotti. "I welcome him to the board and I am sure that he will work hard to do the best job he can for the people of this community."

For Fornarotto, the defeat was his third in three attempts at a seat on the board. Both Dasaro and Papa were running for the first time.

Kiwanis Club Hosting Annual Card Party

The Belleville Kiwanis Club will host its annual card party Thursday, May 17 at the Amvets Hall, 100 Newark Ave., starting at 7 p.m.

The Kiwanis Club is anticipating raising $4,500 to help handicapped and underprivileged children of Belleville. The Kiwanis Club also offers a scholarship every year.

The chairman for the event is John Januzzi. Committee members are: Gene Reilly, eds; Nino Baccarelli, food; Frank Pitt, ads; Mike Marotti, tickets; and Tony Peda, gifts.

Tickets are priced at $6 and include food and beverages. Tickets are available at the door.

State Delays Approval Of Welfare Director

By Linda Telesco

The State Department of Welfare has delayed approval of Carol Ann Russo as Belleville's new welfare director pending "clarification of the appointee's background and credentials," according to state officials.

In a related development, commissioners introduced a municipal salary ordinance this week that lists the director's post as full-time, even though it was reportedly changed to part-time in March.

Carol Povia, a spokeswoman for the State Department of Human Services, said last Friday, "We've requested further information from Belleville's Local Assistance Board (LAB) in order to be certain Mrs. Russo's appointment is in compliance with state regulations governing selection of welfare department directors."

She noted that such requests were not unusual and "in no way indicates Mrs. Russo will not be approved."

The new development adds fuel to the already controversial fire surrounding the March selection of Russo for the post which was vacant since last June when the previous director retired.

At that time, Commissioner Michael Pizzi and the LAB agreed to cut the welfare director's position to a part-time post, a move that brought protest from Belleville's then welfare investigator, Michael Inpolito, who was also performing the director's post in a temporary capacity.

Inpolito, who was one of a dozen applicants for the director's job on a permanent basis, charged that Pizzi's

Belleville Resident Chairs Convention

Alan Browne Jr., speech-language pathologist, Orange Board of Education, and resident of Belleville, served as co-chair of the program moderators committee at the convention of the New Jersey Speech-Language-Hearing Association at the New Brunswick Hyatt Regency held May 3-5.

More than 800 speech-language pathologists and audiologists from New Jersey and surrounding states attended the 22nd annual meeting of the state's organization of speech-language-hearing professionals.

Convention topics included seminars in use of computers as augmentative communication devices by persons unable to speak, assessment of child language disorders among speakers of Black English, hearing testing by brainstem evoked response audiometry, and other issues in the care and treatment of individuals with communication disorders, including at-risk infants and aged persons. There will also be an extensive display of commercial and professional exhibits, a video tape theater, poster sessions, and social events.

Browne has been an instructor in lip reading for the past two years at Westfield Adult School.

Maunceles Are Selected Fund-Raiser Chairmen

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Mauncele, of Garden Avenue, Belleville, were selected as fund-raising chairmen for the Belleville area for the Occupational Center of Essex County's third annual canister drive which was held May 4, 5 and 6.

The occupational center, located in Orange, is a private, non-profit rehabilitation facility, providing services to more than 300 mentally and physically handicapped adults from the Essex County area on a daily basis. Volunteer fund raisers carried canisters for contributions from shoppers at key community supermarkets throughout the weekend's event. Belleville residents were urged to give generously in support of the center.

Non-nutritive sweeteners are very important to the U.S.'s roughly six million diabetics who cannot metabolize sugar. While there is no single, perfect, low-calorie sweetener, a combination of these substances is often used by manufacturers to achieve better tasting products. The most recent sweetener to come to the public's attention is aspartame, which was approved by the FDA in 1981 for use as a tabletop sweetener and, last year, for use in soft drinks. It is two hundred times sweeter than sucrose, or common table sugar. Aspartame is manufactured from two amino acids, phenylalanine and aspartic acid, which are digested as protein. It should not be used by individuals with phenylketonuria, which is a genetic disease whose sufferers are unable to metabolize phenylalanine.

"Back trouble" is an almost universal complaint. Each year, an estimated five million Americans become new victims of spinal maladjustment and resultant back pain. Accidents, in autos, in sports or at work are frequently cited, but over-exertion or awkward movement may also cause the problem.

Pain may be experienced not only in the back but also in the neck, shoulders, arms or legs, chest, stomach and, very frequently, as a headache. Chiropractic is a healing technique which is aimed at correcting the cause and thus providing prompt relief from pain.

Gruenfelder Will Not Renew Contract Here

School Board's Secretary
Heading To East Orange

By Ed Capparucci

Gerard B. Gruenfelder, who has served as secretary-board administrator for the Belleville Board of Education for the past two years, has announced he will not renew his contract in June, but instead has accepted a similar post with the East Orange School Board.

Gruenfelder, who replaced Mary Shader in June of 1982, informed the Board Monday evening in private session of his intention not to remain in Belleville.

"I am leaving Belleville with mixed reactions," said Gruenfelder during an interview Tuesday afternoon. "I have gotten to know a lot of people here and leaving is a lot tougher than most people could imagine."

According to Michael Nardiello, superintendent of schools, terms are being worked out when Gruenfelder could work part-time in East Orange, while remaining with the Belleville board until his contract expires on June 30.

"The East Orange Board of Education needs Jerry very much," said Nardiello. "The board over there has been experiencing major problems and they would like him to start as soon as possible. We are trying to work something out where Jerry could go to East Orange perhaps one day a week to work until his contract expires. Of course, there will be some type of salary reduction for the time he does not spend here in Belleville."

"The board would never stand in the way of someone who is making a positive career move," Nardiello continued. "Most of the work will probably fall into the laps of myself and Mr. (Michael) Lally. But we also have some good people in this system who will make things a lot easier for all of us."

According to Gruenfelder, he did not actively seek a new post, but instead was approached with the East Orange offer.

"I was attending a meeting when the Essex County superintendent of schools asked me for my resume and also asked me to file an application for the East Orange post," Gruenfelder said. "And when East Orange came back with its offer, well, it was just too good to refuse."

Trustee Gabe Nazzola said he was sorry to see Gruenfelder go. "I am disappointed to see him leave us at this time," Nazzola said. "If he had stayed one more year, he would have jelled into our system. There were some minor problems in which board members expressed dissatisfaction about Jerry, particularly their request for background information on certain issues. But he has certainly proved to be a fine business-administrator. And has done a good job for us here in Belleville."

In recent months the East Orange Board of Education has had its problems and is undergoing state and county investigations.

"It is certainly a challenge to go and work for the East Orange Board of Education," said Gruenfelder.

"The state was in here and the county is still in here. The system has had some unfortunate occurrences, but hopefully things will straighten out."

Nardiello also said the board will soon be deciding whether to stay within the system and find a new secretary-board administrator, or go outside the system as it did in 1982 with Gruenfelder.

"Finding a replacement for Jerry is something the board will have to discuss soon," said Nardiello. "Last time the trustees went outside the system to find a secretary, this time I do not know what will happen."

Before coming to the Belleville school district, Gruenfelder had served as the assistant superintendent for Business Affairs in the Minola (New York) Union Free School District. He was one of five finalists for the post which drew 55 applicants.

The appointment of a new board administrator back in 1982 was a controversial matter in the district since trustees hired a private consultant to screen applicants for the post at a $1,200 fee.

DENTALLY SPEAKING
By Drs. James D. Muglia
and Paul N. De Maio

Mr. C. of Belleville asks, "If you get your teeth capped, do you still have to have root canals?"

That depends on why your teeth are being crowned (capped) Mr. B. If the reason is cosmetic and the teeth being reshaped have little or no filling, no root canal will probably be needed. If the teeth have extreme fillings and are occasionally sensitive, more likely than not, root canal should be performed prior to crowning.

In crowning, a tooth must be restored and tapered. In a fairly healthy tooth, the procedure is well tolerated by the tooth with little or no discomfort afterward.

Often, if the health of the tooth is questionable and the tooth needs no injection, crowning is performed with no root canal. The crown is then temporarily cemented for several weeks. If any discomfort should arise then, the crown will be lifted off and the root canal performed before the same crown will be put back on. Thank you.

Prayer For Today

O God, give us the courage to accept with serenity the things we cannot change. Give us the courage to change the things that should be changed. And give us the wisdom to distinguish the one from the other.

John Renna

Last week, a legislative Joint Appropriations Committee held the last of a series of public hearings listening to members of Gov. Thomas Kean's Cabinet justifying their budget requests.

The public official singled out unfairly for criticism was Commissioner John P. Renna of the Department of Community Affairs.

Mercer County Democrat Senator David Stockman cross-examined Renna on an alleged failure of the Community Affairs Department to cure the ills of the big cities.

Commissioner John Renna patiently explained that the woes of the big cities were not the creation of the Kean administration — that the big cities have been in trouble for the last 15 years.

Renna wondered aloud how a legislature could expect the Community Affairs Department to do more for the big cities when cutbacks in department budgets are the order of the day.

John Renna has been one of the best commissioners of the Department of Community Affairs since its creation. Enterprise Zones is no longer a slogan; Renna has given it meaning. Thirty-two urban communities eventually will participate in the Enterprise Zone Program beginning with Newark and Camden — two Enterprise Zones which are now in the process of creation.

Under Renna, the state has provided low-interest loans for the first time to homeowners. Eighty-five million dollars has been committed to finance local commercial and development projects, public works projects, civic centers, cultural and performing arts centers, and urban industrial parks. Commissioner Renna is a dedicated, faithful public servant. He is a credit to the administration of Tom Kean, and to the State of New Jersey.

Religious Viewpoint

By Rev. Robert Paul

At the time of the sinking of the Titanic, one of our great American preachers was in Belfast, Ireland. The Titanic had been built in Belfast, and there was great local pride over the mighty ship. She had been heralded far and wide as the "unsinkable ship." Sixteen members of the church in Belfast, all skilled mechanics, went down with her. The mayor said that Belfast had never known such grief as that which came over this terrible tragedy. When the news finally was verified that the gallant ship was certainly lost, so deep was the grief that it is said strong men met upon the streets, grasped each other's hands, burst into tears, and parted without a word.

The Sunday after the tragedy, the visiting American preached in the church to which the 16 mechanics who had been lost, belonged. Not only was the building packed with people, but on the platform were Lords, Bishops and Ministers of all denominations. In the audience were many newly-made widows and orphans sobbing on every side. The great preacher took as his subject, "The Unsinkable Ship." But he did not apply that term to the Titanic, which on her first voyage had gone out into the Atlantic Ocean and crashed into an iceberg, carrying her precious cargo of human lives down to watery death.

No, the preacher's message was about the other "unsinkable ship," the frail boat on the sea of Galilee, unsinkable because the Master of land and sea was asleep on a pillow in the after part of the vessel. (St. Mark 4.) Thank God He still lives and rides the billows and controls the storms, and when the children of men take their only true pilot on board, we will ride out the present storms and He will bring the vessel through to the fair harbor of our hopes.

We say with the hymn writer, "Master, the Tempest is Raging." But when you are fully trusting in Jesus Christ, you need not fear the storms because you are in the "unsinkable ship." So make sure today that you have been born again, and then we can say Jesus Saviour pilot me over life's tempestuous seas. (St. John 3:5.)

Preparing County's Budget Long Process

To the editor:

I am responding to many constituents' questions for an explanation of the workings of the Essex County Budget and for a list of my priorities regarding budget allocations. Formulation of the county budget is a major responsibility of the Board of Freeholders. It is intended to be and actually is, a means of exercising control over the spending of county taxes and other revenues by the county administration in its function of operating the various departments that comprise the county government.

A budget for the coming year is submitted by all department heads through the county executive, and after a series of public hearings during which the county executive attempts to justify his requests and the public is permitted input of their personal and sometimes group concerns, the Board of Freeholders finalizes the budget in the best interests of the county taxpayer.

Sometimes department heads ask for more than is necessary to accomplish their goals. Sometimes in an attempt to save money, they eliminate programs that the public feels are necessary.

It takes many hours of studying programs, analyzing figures, consulting with their own accountants plus a feeling of sensitivity to the needs of our constituents before the board finally adds or subtracts dollars and comes up with what it feels is an acceptable budget.

This is the very touchstone of our form of county government and the ultimate control of the Board of Freeholders over the actions of the administration. Without this method there would be no way to protect the taxpayers' interests from falling victim to uncontrolled spending.

As to my own priorities, I intend to monitor very carefully the following areas. First and foremost of my concerns has always been the subject of public safety and reducing crime. I will always support programs that can effectively accomplish this goal. My previous experience as first undersheriff of Essex County gives me special insight as to how vital this type of support is. Another priority is health facilities and homemaker services for the elderly who are in need. We must also provide for the necessary environmental protections especially in the areas of pesticide spraying and waste disposal. Sufficient funds must also be provided to investigate and prosecute abuses of the welfare system, in order to prevent a recurrence of such things as the $14 million welfare over expenditure we have had in the past three years. It is also necessary to tighten up the entire citizen services programs so no one who is truly needy is without support but that no waste is incurred in the process.

Since the provision of funds in creating a budget is so important, it is necessary to watch very carefully that the county administration does not spend our tax dollars on unnecessary and wasteful programs such as overpaying administrative staff with excessive bonuses, or closing down public facilities such as the Branch Brook Park Ice Skating Arena. Sometimes there is a tendency to accept state and federal grants that require a percentage of matching county funds just for the sake of obtaining the state and federal grant money even if we do not actually need the item the funds are to be used for. Just because funds are available doesn't mean you have to spend them. I try to always remember that state and federal funds also come out of the taxpayers' pockets and are not a gift.

Yours for good government,
Arthur L. Clay

Fire Chief Sbarra Defends His Department's Actions

To the editor:

I have seen your televised interview of former Commissioner Vincent Strumolo and feel that his responses to your questions need a correction. He has always been evasive and will never give a straightforward answer.

To hide his failure as the director of Public Health, he insinuated that the Belleville Fire Department was aware of the problems in 1980.

The roles of the fire department are: 1) fire prevention; 2) fire protection; and 3) fire extinguishment.

We have met the above three requirements at 507 Main St.

The letter received by our department on April 24, 1980 mentions nothing about a toxic waste problem in that building, but rather points out of a possible fire violation on the outside of the premises.

Upon receiving the letter, an inspection was made and an order to correct the violation was issued.

Approximately two months after issue of our notice and constant re-inspections, the violations were corrected, to a certain level.

Former Commissioner Strumolo has given the interviewer a false impression of what the letter really stressed.

During the chemical problem which arose in 1983, I and the members of the fire department put in countless number of hours to provide the fire protection and fire extinguishment that may have been required.

I ask former Commissioner V. Strumolo where was he? I never once saw him on the scene. While the people in the area were worried and bewildered, could he have been in the beautiful sun of Florida?

He as director of the Health Department had the duty to take the bull by the horns and evacuate the children of School 9, but he didn't do it.

It was my request to Assistant School Superintendent Mike Nardiello to evacuate School 9.

I would suggest to Mr. Strumolo that if you must criticize, offer some constructive criticism, and not criticize a department that is doing a good job under adverse conditions.

Shame on you Mr. Strumolo for trying to hide your failure on the Belleville Fire Department.

Sam Papa Has Helped Many At Bridgebrook Apartments

To the editor:

Before you read this letter, ask the question, "Why does Mike Giampietro stay at Bridgebrook Gardens?" The answer to this question is simple, "Sam Papa." He is a man who is fighting for the rights of middle-income people. He feels we all deserve decent housing, which consists of well-maintained and violation-free apartments.

As a tenant now and living at Bridgebrook Gardens, 725 Joralemon St., Sam Papa and I have fought hard for tenants' rights.

The problem Bridgebrook Gardens is facing today is that for the last 15 years we have not been inspected properly, so when the tenants finally realized what was happening, it was very hard to go back to the state and explain what the state inspectors passed up on for 15 years. Examples of this are: 1) no fire escapes; 2) 34 kitchens without vents to the exterior; 3) four bathrooms without vents to the exterior; and 4) additional heat detectors needed in all garages and passageways. As of April 16 these violations were supposed to be corrected, and as of today, nothing has been done.

From December of 1983 to this date, tenants have been stepping in human waste. Mr. Govel, who manages this complex, promised the tenants and the municipal court that the sewer system would be repaired by April 4. It's now April 30 and nothing has been corrected.

I, Mike Giampietro, was night super at Bridgebrook for two years. When I started telling the tenants of the violations they were living with, I was fired by Govel's office. For stating the truth I was fired from my job!

I, Mike Giampietro, am proud to know Sam Papa. A man who has given up so much time and energy into helping causes he believes in.

Letter Policy

The Times continues to receive letters on a variety of topics which unfortunately, may never find their way onto our editorial page. That is because they are unsigned.

As a matter of policy, The Times accepts only signed letters. "Signatures" such as "A Concerned Citizen" or "A Worried Parent" will not do. Only names will suffice. However, we will withhold names from publication upon request.

Golden Comments

By James Golden

We'd like to suggest that President Ronald Reagan better acquaint himself with the concepts of the Monroe Doctrine and Pan-Americanism, subjects he seems to be most benighted about, as attested by his brash Central American policy which borders upon violation of international law...action for which he has been rebuked by Congress of the United States, and rightly so.

The Monroe Doctrine states, "...with governments which have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of suppressing them, or controlling in any other manner their destiny..."

Pan-Americanism is the dedicated movement of inter-American cooperation among the 21 republics of the Western Hemisphere, based upon the development of closer relations and the promotion of mutual understanding. It embraces three political principles: the sovereignty of each member; regional collective security against aggression; and arbitration of international disputes.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt's statement of the Good Neighbor Policy in his inaugural address (1933) and in an address to the Pan-American Union on April 12, 1933 introduced a new era of intensified effort in the field of inter-American relations.

The Good Neighbor Policy dedicated the United States to support the Monroe Doctrine and pursue friendly relations with all nations. It was the first real attempt to Pan-Americanize the Monroe Doctrine. In accordance with the principle of non-intervention, the Platt Amendment was abrogated (1934), armed forces were withdrawn from Haiti (1934), and a treaty of nonintervention was signed with Panama (1936).

The Inter-American Conference on Problems of War and Peace convened at Mexico City in 1945. Among other resolutions adopted at this highly successful meeting was the Act of Chapultepec. This document continued the development of mutual hemisphere security first proclaimed at Lima, later incorporated into the Organization of American States, set up in 1948. The Declaration of Washington (signed 1951) dealt with the internal security of the hemisphere in military and political aspects. Afterward the United States signed bilateral military aid pacts with several American republics, designed to facilitate exchange of materials and equipment and ensure joint action in the defense of the Americas.

Mr. Reagan's intemperate and hasty foreign policies, frowned upon the State Department, and criticized by many in Congress, displays the weakness of impetuosity and a reluctance to heed sound counsel. It is fortunate that wiser statesmen in the Legislative Branch of the federal government can impose constraints upon an impulsive Chief Executive whose views and, especially foreign policy objectives, might produce a crisis situation.

The Lebanon situation was an unnecessary, unwise nightmare that the State Department advised against, just as they now fault our present Central American intervention which flouts every concept of the Pan-Americanism policies the United States is pledged to promote.

The Reagan policy of ignoring the World Court in an arbitrary and unilateral manner is an unprecedented role for this government, as a signatory nation, to have espoused. It destroys the respect of the Central and South American people who have been taught to hold for a friendly North American neighbor.

President Reagan may feel confident in his overweening composure about his bellicose policies in Central America, which smack of international brigandage, but he obviously fails to recognize the great loss of respect this country will incur because of his policy of aiding in mining the harbors of a recognized international nation at which we are not at war.

It was an ill-conceived act which deserves the censure of the Congress. Perhaps Mr. Reagan may learn that statesmen mold history...actors only play the part, after the scenario is written for them.

Belleville High Students Interview Kean

Two students from Belleville High School questioned New Jersey Gov. Tom Kean during a special all-student edition of bi-weekly cable television series, "The State of New Jersey." The program was aired, statewide, on CTN (Cable Television Network).

Representing Belleville High School were Dennis Bogden, a senior, and Christina Hallam, a junior. Both students questioned Kean on the topic of education.

Bogden, 17, is vice president of the student government. He is also a Key Club member and a participant in the student advisory committee to the principal.

Hallam, 17, serves as student government secretary. She is also active in the school's Key Club and is a member of the junior senate.

Bogden and Hallam were two of six students featured on the all-student program. Other state schools represented were Nutley High School and Clifton High School.

"The State of New Jersey" is produced by Press Broadcasting Company of Asbury Park. The program regularly features Gov. Kean and guest reporters who discuss pertinent state issues. The five-minute "Student Forum" segment is a recent addition to the program format, designed to give New Jersey high school students the opportunity to meet with Gov. Kean and to ask questions on state issues.

"The State of New Jersey" airs alternate Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. with "Newsmakers" on CTN.

Interviewing The Big Man — Dennis Bogden and Christina Hallam, students at Belleville High School, had an opportunity to interview Gov. Thomas Kean during a special all-student edition of the bi-weekly cable television series, "The State of New Jersey." Both students questioned the governor about education.

Cub Scout Pack 350 Holds Derby Races

Cub Scout Pack 350, sponsored by Fewsmithe Presbyterian Church, Belleville, held its annual pinewood derby at the recent pack meeting.

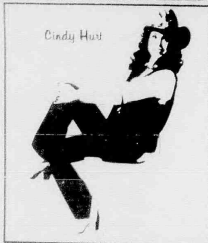

The winners were determined by a series of heats run for each den and run-off races of the top cars determined the best car in the pack. Taking home trophies for 'Best In Den' were John Durr, Den One Keith Domonowski, Den Two: Bill Hands, Den Four: and Bret Hendrix, Wehelos. 'Best In Pack' was awarded to Anthony Werner, who, along with Hendrix and Durr, will represent Pack 350 in the district competition. 'Trophies of Participation,' donated by Steve's Key and Lock of Belleville, were also given to all the cubs involved.

Cubmaster William Hands officiated and served as starter. The judges who indicated the winners in the races were Judy Hands, Paula Hendrix, Mike Caravetta and Bill Idenden.

The participants, each cub had to design his own car and carve it from a block of pinewood. Cars should be decorated in any way the competitor wished, but the final product could not weigh more than five ounces to qualify.

Annette D'Angelo Joins DeCarlo Real Estate Firm

Ann DeCarlo, owner of the Ann DeCarlo Real Estate Agency, has announced the addition of Annette D'Angelo as a sales representative to the Bloomfield-based firm.

Mrs. D'Angelo of Bloomfield, has served as vice president of the Bloomfield Board of Education and has been active in school and community affairs for the past 12 years. She is a graduate of Rutgers University.

The Ann DeCarlo Agency is one of the most successful full-service real estate offices on the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors. Formed in 1972 the agency has increased its staff from one to a highly-motivated owner, Ann DeCarlo, to a sales force of 12 professional brokers and sales associates.

The company specializes in the sale of one-to-four-family homes in the Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Montclair area. The agency is also a major lister of one-to-four-family homes because of its ability to expose the listing to three Multiple Listing systems, the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors, the Montclair Board of Realtors and the West Essex Board of Realtors.

One of the reasons for the agency's success in listing and selling residential properties is its membership in RELO, the world leader in corporate and executive relocation. The Ann DeCarlo Agency has the ability to transfer anyone to all 50 states as well as internationally.

Last year was the most successful year for the agency, highlighted by the fact that four of the seven sales associates of the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors to qualify for the New Jersey Association of Realtors "Million Dollar Sales Club" were from the agency. When asked for the reasons for this increase in sales, Mrs. DeCarlo stated "that the service to the client and fair dealing with the customer to be the important, also a highly trained and professional sales staff dedicated to that purpose."

1984 is already proving to be more successful for the agency with substantial increase in the number of sales over 1983. If you are thinking of selling your home, call the Ann DeCarlo Agency at 748-5288 for a free marketing analysis.

Belleville High School Students Offer Car Care Services For Seniors in May

By Ed Capparucci

During the month of May, Belleville senior citizens will be able to take advantage of a car repair program, being conducted by the Belleville High School auto shop classes.

The program, which was approved by the School Board Monday night, will provide senior citizens with the following automobile repair services: oil changes, grease jobs and tire rotations. Seniors are requested to bring their own materials and a service donation of $1 will be necessary to cover items not supplied by the car owner.

"I believe this program would be conducive to improving our community relations with senior citizens and be an asset to our district in the passage of the school budget," said Joseph Ciccone, principal of Belleville High School, in his report to the board.

Trustee Gabe Nazzola also agreed the program would help improve relations with the senior citizens and the school system.

"By offering programs such as these for our senior citizens," said

Nazzola, "they can see something productive for the money they spend in taxes each year. Many of them think they give and give and receive absolutely nothing in return. Programs like this can only help us in getting the budget passed each year."

Victor DePauw, who is coordinator of the high school's vocational-industrial education department, contacted several schools in the area to see if any of them offer such programs to senior citizens. In his report to Ciccone he said, "Bloomfield was the only system that has a policy regarding auto students servicing the cars of senior citizens. I was told that providing services for senior citizens is an important part of the school's community relations program."

The program, which took effect May 7, has a list of guidelines which seniors must follow:

- * All senior citizens must make appointments for the services.

- * Eligibility for the senior citizen service will be defined as follows: the car must be owned by the senior citizen, the age requirement will be 60 years or older, the car owner must be a resident of Belleville, and the senior citizen must supply proof of the above items when requested.

- * The car owner will supply all necessary parts.

- * The owner of the car will sign the Board of Education approved release form.

- * And finally, a service donation will be limited to $1 which will cover items not supplied by the car owner.

Trustee John DiStasi said he was pleased that the school system was "giving something back to the senior citizens of the community," but was concerned that the program would have a negative effect on the "continuing educational process."

"I have absolutely nothing against a program like this in our school system, but I am concerned that it may interfere with the classroom work," DiStasi said. "I would like to see our kids doing more than just changing oil and rotating tires. Even I can do that."

Ciccone said the program would be conducted during the month of May only, but if it proves successful that the types of services offered could be broadened. "By trying it on a trial basis first, we can see how successful it is," Ciccone said. "If we get positive results then perhaps it can become a permanent program at the high school."

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto,

O I have red scaly patches on my hairline so I bought a well known medicated shampoo recommended for this condition, but it doesn't seem to be working. I read your column and have a lot of faith in you...what would you recommend?

Maureen Davey

A. My dear Maureen, Those patches could be caused by a nervous condition or they may be a sign of psoriasis which is also caused by an internal nervousness. If you are moderately nervous those patches can be cured by a shampoo and a vigorous scalp massage, followed by a cold water rinse. This method works better than any medicated shampoo on the market and it's a lot cheaper! It does, however, take guts to stick your head under the ice cold water tap.

P.S. I thank you for complementing me on doing something interesting for the ladies of the community. Something I enjoy doing so very much! Your comments are always appreciated (good or bad) because listening to you keeps me on my toes.

More Than 200 Attend Meeting Avenue Blight Hearing Draws Large and Mostly Critical Crowd

was the report done by Township Associates, a private planning firm retained by the township two years ago to provide a formal study of Washington Avenue.

The president of Township, Thomas A. Thomas, presented a slide show and lecture informing the audience of the agency's findings and recommendations for redevelopment.

The area approved for study is the portion of Washington Avenue from the Newark border to Joralemon Street, reaching east to the railroad lines and west to the rear property lines of properties that front on Washington Avenue.

Within that area, Thomas reported, are buildings and structures ranging in conditions from those seriously in need of rehabilitation or redevelopment to those in good condition with the most seriously degraded properties lying in the Mill Street William Street section.

Thomas explained that according to legal procedure, the Planning Board must decide which of the studied properties should be termed blighted. Commissioners must then approve or disapprove of the planners' finding.

Any property declared blighted, may then be acquired by the BRDA and sold to developers for redevelopment.

Officials conceded that the procedure could displace some businesses or residents. They noted that according to state law, the BRDA is obligated to pay for relocation of merchants and residents as well as to offer compensation to a property owner who may lose holdings in the process.

"We'd be living if we said nobody would be displaced," said BRDA member Gabe Nazzola. He added, "I will make every effort to see residents housed and businesses relocated as near as possible to their original sites."

However, citizens urged the Planning Board to deliberate carefully over the plan. In their comments, they criticized the vagueness of the plan, BRDA's inability to estimate costs of redevelopment, and the extent of power invested in the agency.

"The time is ripe to give Belleville back to the people," argued Vincent Frantantoni, a Mt. Prospect Avenue resident and owner of a Washington Avenue laundromat.

Frantantoni warned that the BRDA should have specific development plans in mind before labeling any properties as blighted. "That could put this town into turmoil for the next 20 years," he said.

Joseph Fornarotto of Union Avenue, urged the planners to table the matter "perhaps indefinitely," a suggestion that drew cheers from the crowd.

Fornarotto, who works for the Essex County Housing Authority, told stories of impoverished families in Newark and East Orange who were also promised "relocation."

"They've been relocated, all right," he said. "One family is living in a church basement. There just are no guarantees in a situation like this."

Fornarotto, like many other speakers, noted that merchants and residents of the target areas have been renovating their own properties.

Those who pointed this out urged a conservative approach. "The construction code official and other town officials should inspect the decaying properties, serve notices on the guilty parties, and let the people make their own improvements," said Fornarotto.

He continued, "We don't need a major study. Enforce the laws we already have."

Catherine Mingle of Rossmore Place, objected to any plans that might demolish historic structures in the community. "Belleville is a good town," she said. "Somebody should take a walk in the Valley and see the homes in good condition there."

One Washington Avenue resident, Frances Campbell, told The Times afterwards that she and her husband put their house up for sale last November when they heard talk of a blight plan.

"We bought our home in 1974 and put a lot of money into renovating it, but we just felt too uncertain to wait and see if we might lose it," she explained. When asked why they chose to sell without speaking to officials first, Campbell said, "I've called local officials on several occasions about other matters, but got little response. I didn't expect any this time."

From the business community, Fred Turnbull, owner of the Short Stop Diner, protested the plans. "I will resist relocating," said Turnbull, who has been operating the diner he built himself since 1950.

Like Turnbull, several commercial enterprises flexed legal muscle. Attorneys appeared to register objections on behalf of Peoples Bank, Provident Savings Bank, and Fidelity Union, all of which protested labeling the classification of their locations as possible blight.

Ed Sperchini of Division Avenue, concerned over the revelation by the BRDA that it is empowered to take its investigation to any neighborhood in Belleville, asked the qualifications of agency members.

Murmurs rose from the crowd when Nardachone said he worked for the Newark Housing Authority.

The Planning Board, chaired by Joseph Doyle, agreed to give the matter further consideration before rendering any decisions.

Planner Ralph Risoli questioned the overall estimated costs of the project.

Nardachone said it was "impossible" to cite figures before the area for redevelopment is defined. He did say the agency would seek county and federal monies to finance potential projects.

Planner Chris Albanese also suggested redevelopment begin not with blighting, but with forcing out-of-town absentee landlords to maintain their Avenue properties.

"I can think of at least 68 parcels where enforcement would improve the decay," he said.

Sitting with the planners, Commissioner Joseph Grande sounded a note of support for the BRDA's efforts.

"We can't hide our heads in the sand," he said. "There are many streets and roads in Belleville in dire need of repair. The only way to accomplish that, and the other needs of the community, is to broaden our tax base so we can pay for it."

Vera C. Paglia; Succumbs at 62

Vera C. Paglia, 62, of Hope Road, Blairstown, died Feb. 28 in Newark Beth Israel Medical Center. She lived in Belleville before moving to Blairstown six months ago.

Born June 27, 1921, in Milledgeville, Georgia, she was the daughter of Joel Farmer and Ellie Evans Farmer.

Mrs. Paglia was a member of the auxiliary of the D.A.V., Warren County Senior Citizens, Belleville Senior Citizens Clubs, and East Orange Veterans Hospital Family Group.

Surviving are her husband, Peter Paglia, Sr., her sons, Peter Jr., and Patrick Joel; three sisters, Mrs. Weasé Black of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Belle Lane of Pineville, N.C., and Mrs. Alice Frazier of Milledgeville, Ga.; three grandchildren, Angela, Carol and Sandra; and daughter-in-law, Vivian of Blairstown.

Services were held at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Maplewood, on Saturday, March 3, following the funeral from the Charles F. Hausman and Son Funeral Home, Irvington.

Interment and religious services were held at Holy Family Cemetery.

Ramona Minai; Accountant, 25

A Mass for Miss Ramona A. Minai, 25, of Belleville was offered Monday in St. Peter's Church after a funeral from the Kiernan Funeral Home. Miss Minai died Thursday in Mountainside Hospital, Glen Ridge.

She was an accountant for the Sterling Drilling and Production Co., New York City, for the past year. She attended St. Peter's Grammar School and was graduated from Queen of Peace High School in 1976. Miss Minai graduated from Jersey City State College in 1982.

Born in Glen Ridge, she lived in Belleville all her life and was an active member of St. Peter's Church.

Surviving are her parents, Paul E. and Geraldine (Lubershi) Minai; and two sisters, Mrs. Paula McAllister of Phoenix, Arizona, and Miss Linda of Belleville.

Mrs. Agnes Donlon; Retired Bookkeeper

A Mass was offered May 2 in St. Peter's Church for Miss Agnes L. Donlon, who died April 28 in the Columbus Hospital, Newark.

Miss Donlon was a bookkeeper for the Lackawanna Railroad, Bloomfield, for 52 years before retiring in 1968. She was a charter member of Court Sancta Maria 61 of the Catholic Daughters of America.

Miss Donlon was a lifelong resident of Belleville. In St. Peter's Church, she made arrangements. Interment was in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Anthony Vasfaiio; Machinist, Age 58

A Mass was offered April 30 at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church for Anthony J. Vasfaiio, 58, who died April 26 at the St. Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston.

Mr. Vasfaiio was a machinist for the Automatic Switch Company, Florham Park.

He was a member of the Electricians Local 3 of New York. Born in Newark, he lived in Belleville for seven years.

Surviving are his wife, Virginia, a son, John of Belleville; his mother, Ida Casfaiio of Newark; three brothers, Frank of Edison, Rudy of Newark, and Joseph of Belleville; and two sisters, Laurina and Mafala Vasfaiio, both of Newark.

The Biondi Funeral Home made arrangements. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Anthony Rinaldi; Meter Reader, 52

A Mass was offered May 1 at St. Anthony's Church, for Anthony Rinaldi, 52, who died April 27 in the Sloan Kettering Memorial Hospital, New York.

Mr. Rinaldi was a meter reader for the Belleville Water Department for nine years. He served in the Army during the Korean Conflict.

Mr. Rinaldi was a lifelong resident of Belleville.

Surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Rose DeAgnino, Mrs. Joseph Brave, Mrs. Anna Gabriela, Mrs. Dorothy Soriano and Mrs. Frances Jensen, and two brothers, Joseph and Michael.

The Zaro Funeral Home made arrangements. Interment was in Glendale Cemetery.

Jerry Czarnecki, 71; Retired Food Grocer

A Mass was offered May 4 in St. Mary's Church, Nutley, for Jerry Czarnecki, 71, who died May 1 in the Clara Maass Medical Center.

Mr. Czarnecki was a food grocer employed by the Overlook Market of Belleville 36 years.

Born in Clifton, he lived in Belleville for 30 years.

Surviving are his wife, Charlotte, and two daughters, Miss Geraldine and Mrs. Lorraine Tualdo.

The L. Donald Harrison & Son Funeral Home of Nutley made arrangements. Interment was in St. Michael's Cemetery.

Little Girl Doing Well After Transplant

A Series of Fund Raisers Planned For Katie Reilly

By Linda Telesco

If Katie Reilly could follow her dreams over a rainbow, something more precious than a pot of gold would be waiting for her.

The 2-year-old leprechaun, with the heart-melting smile, suffers from a life-threatening liver ailment that can be cured only by an organ transplant.

Katie, the granddaughter of Nutley resident Jean Reilly, underwent a successful liver transplant last March, and this week left the hospital and is reported in stable condition. Doctors say it will be one year before they can officially announce if the operation was successful.

Meanwhile, Katie's family faces astronomical medical costs. Her surgery cost over $170,000, and the medication the girl must take twice daily, "cyclosporin," is more expensive than the price of gold, ounce for ounce.

But Katie's parents, Kevin and Helen Reilly of Hollisdaysburg, Pennsylvania, have not lost hope in their rainbow, and one New Jersey organization is determined to help the family reach the treasure at the end.

"Joining Hands, Inc." is a non-profit corporation established by Barbara Lightner of Old Bridge for the purpose of assisting families like the Reillys.

Active in community work in Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield, Lightner is bringing her fund-raising efforts for little Katie to the area this month.

Clara Maass Will Host Seminar

"Support For Clergy Who Minister To Cancer Patients" is the topic of an open seminar for community clergy sponsored by Clara Maass Medical Center. It will take place Tuesday, May 15 from noon until 2 p.m. and will include lunch.

The seminar will focus on the issues faced by ministers who counsel cancer patients and their families. Guest speakers for the afternoon will include Corinne Devereux, M.D., medical director of Radiation Oncology at Clara Maass Medical Center and assistant professor at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey; and the Reverend Christine Lesch, pastoral care coordinator of Hospice, Inc., Montclair.

For further information and reservations, please call Donald E. Blume, director of Chaplaincy Services at Clara Maass Medical Center, 450-2066.

"This year we pledged to raise at least $150,000 for Katie Reilly's medical bills that are mounting rapidly even as you read this," said Lightner, who has already raised $8,000 in the south Jersey communities that contribute to her program.

With a strong program already going in Nutley, home town of Katie's father and present home of her grandmother, Joining Hands will hold three local fund-raisers this month. Lightner also pointed out that strong support has come from Belleville residents.

The events will be fun for the participants, but little Katie, who will be much helped by a good turnout, is not having the carefree childhood every tot deserves.

Katie's condition, Biliary Atresia, creates a malfunction in the liver which blocks bile ducts, forcing bile into the stream which results in jaundice.

Katie received the liver she desperately needed from a Detroit family which donated the organ following the death of an infant.

On March 15, the child underwent a 12-hour operation in Pittsburgh's Children's Hospital where her progress is monitored daily.

While Katie recuperated with other seriously ill children at the hospital, her parents kept a daily vigil at Ronald McDonald house, a home away from home for families of children undergoing extended medical treatment. Katie is now staying at the local Ronald McDonald in Pittsburgh.

An employee of McDonald's, which operates the special homes, Lightner was inspired to form her volunteer organization to seek other ways of assisting afflicted families.

Joining Hands will sponsor a benefit softball game with the CBS All Stars vs. McDonald's Big Bats on May 10 at Monsignor Owens Field in Nutley.

A May 16 game pits the McDonald's team against players from WNEW at the same field. Both games are set for 8 p.m. For further information call Charlie Kucinski at Nutley Town Hall, 667-2800.

A fashion show will be held May 21 at the Nutley Manor Restaurant. Tickets are $16.75 and those interested may call Sandra Carbone at 284-0810.

Joining Hands will also run a telephone June 10 from the Nutley Manor. The event will be broadcast from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on OBC-TV Channel 36.

Anyone who wishes to donate $500 or more or those seeking more information about the organization may call Lightner at 591-9581.

Intramural Program Is Scheduled For Fall At the Middle School

By Ed Capparucci

Starting next fall, seventh and eighth grade students who do not participate in interscholastic sports activities, will have an opportunity to flex their muscles after school thanks to an intramural sports program approved by the School Board Monday night.

The program, which was proposed by Middle School Principal Mario DiMaggio and Al Lo Balbo, area supervisor of physical education and health in the Belleville school system, is designed to provide students in the Middle School with after school athletic activities.

"This is an excellent start of something in cooperation with the municipal government and the School Board to provide some activities for students who are not participating in interscholastic sports," said DiMaggio. "The program will give the kids somewhere to go. And if successful we hope to continue with a more in-depth program. Right now we want to see what type of interest is generated by the children."

The program, which will be implemented next fall, is being conducted with the support of Mayor Michael Marotti, who serves as director of the Recreation Department.

"Mayor Marotti is very supportive of this concept and has offered supervisory assistance from the Recreation Department," said Michael Lally, assistant superintendent of schools, in his report to the Board of Education. "And since the Middle School facility is available from 3-4 p.m. this program does not create custodial overtime costs and does not impact upon interscholastic programs."

The Middle School intramural program will follow an "open gym" concept involving such activities as volleyball, basketball, touch football and softball. The gym will be open two days a week from 3-4 p.m. Administration officials hope to expand the program to include competition among students.

"The initial approach of the open gym is to provide activity flexibility to the Middle School child," said Lally. "This approach may evolve into a more structured activity of league alignment and scheduled competition, but initially it will not."

Phil Linfante, a new member of the School Board, was happy with the program, but disappointed that it took so long to develop.

"I remember when this program was first proposed by Mr. DiMaggio and Mr. Lo Balbo over a year ago and I was sitting in the audience at the time," he told his fellow colleagues. "I thought at that time it was an excellent and worthwhile program, but I am disappointed that it took the board over a year to give final approval to it."

DiMaggio said the delay in the program's implementation was due to administrative staff changes.

"It took us longer to get the approval of this program due to the transition of the superintendent and assistant superintendent positions," said DiMaggio. "We wanted to start this school year, but it took time for Mr. Nardiello and Mr. Lally to straighten things out. So while we were late, there was no harm done."

Chamber of Commerce Hosting June Dinner

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce will host a dinner to honor its past presidents, Friday, June 15 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 94 Bridge St. starting at 8 p.m.

According to Howard Halpern current president of the chamber, "The dinner is to honor and introduce all of the chamber's distinguished past presidents. The evening promises to be a full-filled extravaganza with good food, wine, beer, music, dancing, games and reminiscing about the Good Old Days in Belleville."

Net proceeds from the dinner will go to the community activities fund to promote business in Belleville.

Tickets are priced at $20 per person and the reservation deadline is June 1. For tickets or more information call 759-4848.

Religious Viewpoint

Mothers

By Rev. Robert Paul

It was in May 1907 that Anna M. Jarvis of Philadelphia, Pa., who thought that once a year sons and daughters should pay tribute to their mothers, arranged for a special service in her church and asked that white carnations be worn. The plan appealed to many, and the next year more churches held services honoring mothers on the second Sunday of May. By 1911 services were being held in every state in the Union, as well as in Canada, Mexico, South America, Africa, China, Japan, and some islands. In 1914, Congress officially designated the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day, and President Wilson issued a proclamation requesting people to display the national flag as a public expression of love and reverence for the mothers of the country.

The Holy Scriptures have special things to say about mothers. "Honour thy father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise."

— As is the mother, so is her daughter."

It was Abraham Lincoln who said, "All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother."

The Holy Scriptures list at least seven powerful characteristics for measuring motherhood. (See Proverbs 31.)

1) She seeks the good of her husband which develops his trust in her.

2) She is industrious and therefore has no time to be a busybody.

3) She is consistently looking after the welfare of her family.

4) She has good judgment when it comes to the financial well being of her family.

5) She spends time in ministering to the needs of those outside her own family.

6) She is honorable, wise and kind.

7) She is one who firmly fears (reverences) the Lord Jesus Christ.

"You cannot do these things in your own strength, but God will help you when you by faith trust His son, Jesus Christ, as your own Savior and Lord." (Romans 10:13.)

Belleville Woman's Club Members Win 10 Awards in District Contest

Twelve members of the Woman's Club of Belleville had good cause to be elated upon their return from the Eighth District Achievement Day held April 18 at the Hi-Hat Club in Bayonne, for they had won 10 awards, including five first place.

The Eighth District has a total of 22 clubs. There are 11 districts in the state forming the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs. At this meeting the morning was devoted to two-minute reports by presidents of each club, giving a resume of the club's activities and accomplishments of the year past. The key speaker was Mrs. Alfred Constant of Oakland, vice president of the NJFWC, who in May will be installed as state federation president.

Belleville was proud to report that its members had given 3,738 hours in volunteer services as well as active participation in civic and cultural events, and that $503 was donated to federation and scholarship funds.

The afternoon session is given over to the presentation of awards for entries which were judged. Mrs. Fred Wallace was awarded first place for her dressmaking, her Raggedy Ann doll and a crevel worked picture. Mrs. Stephen Kelemen won first place for her photography. Mrs. Chancy Kenney won first place for her pecan rolls and second place for her cherry coffee cake. Mrs. James Ferraro received second place for her dressmaking and honorable mention for her yeast bread, second place for her crocheted doily. Mrs. Angela Schoemer won third place for her oil painting. The first place winners will now be judged for state recognition when the NJFWC holds its convention at Great Gorge in May.

Previous recognition has been made to other members of the Belleville Club for other talents. Mrs. Lenore Keeney won third place for her short story in creative writing and Miss Ruth Hogan honorable mention for her book review and haikus. Mrs. W. Douglas Clark at the District Music and Drama Festival held in April, received recognition for her monologue "Barbara Fritchie" and a play which she wrote and then directed when members of the club performed last November. The music department, under the direction of Miss Edith Richards also received an award.

Mir Mousavi Is Certified As Diplomate

The American Board of Internal Medicine has announced that Mir M. Mousavi, M.D., F.A.C.P., has been certified as a diplomate in the subspecialty of Medical Oncology (diagnosis, treatment of cancer) after he successfully completed their qualifying examination.

Dr. Mousavi, whose office is located at 5 Franklin Ave., in the Clara Maass Professional Center, has been in practice for seven years with Norman R. Gevirtz, M.D., F.A.C.P. He is also a diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine and a fellow of the American College of Physicians. Dr. Mousavi is affiliated with Clara Maass Medical Center where he is the first board certified cancer specialist on active staff.

Fund Raiser Starting For Deborah Hospital

May has been designated as the month for Deborah Hospital's annual fund-raising drive. Volunteers from the hospital's Belleville-Nutley chapter will seek donations from residents at all local supermarkets, banks and stores.

Joe DeBabbo will serve as the Belleville chairman for the drive, while Bob Daniels will lead the effort in Nutley. Deborah Hospital specializes in treatment of heart disease.

Deborah Hospital volunteers will be wearing heart logo pins and stickers to be identified. Call 759-8558 for more information.

Fall 2-1 Against Top-Ranked Ridgewood

Bucs Drop Heartbreaker; But Rally Against Hillside

A hard luck defeat and a big rebound victory highlighted the Belleville baseball team's week of action. The Bucs lost a heartbreaker to Ridgewood, 2-1, then bounced back to stop Hillside, 9-6. On the season, Belleville stands at 8-4-2.

The Bucs hosted Teaneck on Monday and were host to Passaic yesterday afternoon. Tomorrow, the team travels to Montvale to face St. Joseph's and Saturday, will travel to Nutley for a game with Central in first round action of the Greater Newark Tournament. More on the GNT later in the article. Next Monday, the Bucs battle Ridgewood in a rematch at Belleville High School.

Head coach Ralph La Conte was very happy with his team's play against Ridgewood, despite the hard luck outcome. "We showed we can play with some of the best teams in the state," the coach said, noting Ridgewood's 12-1 record. "We had our chances to win, we couldn't push across the runs when we had the chance."

Senior Frank Tursi hurled a marvelous game, but absorbed the setback. In six innings, Tursi allowed just four hits, but was outduyed by Mike Merejo of Ridgewood. Belleville drew first blood in the contest with a run in the first inning.

John Guarino drew a walk and was sacrificed to second by Joe Borrello. Tursi then lined a single up the middle and Belleville led, 1-0. In the second frame, Dave Long and Anthony Lombardi hit back to back singles, but Belleville was stalled at that point. "If we could have scored a run or two there," said La Conte, "it might have changed things. Instead, we couldn't push the runners home and it changed the momentum a little."

In the fourth, Ridgewood tallied its only two runs when the lead-off batter doubled and scored when the ensuing hitter lined a long shot to dead center, then Guarino fielded a bounce, but on his attempted throw to the cutoff man, Guarino fell on the macadam and the hit resulted in a two-run homer and an injury to Guarino's arm. Luckily the injury was not serious.

The Bucs had a threat in the fourth inning when Joe Mullaney singled and was sacrificed to second. However, the Bucs couldn't get him home from there. In the fifth, Allan Ruom singled, advanced to second, but once more, could not cross the plate.

The following day, Belleville rebounded with a strong offensive performance and drilled Hillside, 9-6, in a game called after five innings because of rain. The Buccaneer bats came through with 12 hits and the pitching of Mark Palumbo was enough to defeat a pesky Hillside team.

The Bucs tallied twice in the first inning. Joe Borrello and Tursi hit singles and both men scored on infield errors. Hillside came back with a run in its half of the first, cutting the gap to 2-1.

In the third, Guarino singled, went to second on a walk to Tursi and scored on a Long single. Mullaney, carrying a red hot bat ever since his arrival on the varsity, drilled a two-run single, scoring Tursi and Long to increase the Bucs' lead to 5-1.

In the fourth, Belleville increased the margin to 9-1. Brian Cook, Guarino and Borrello drilled singles to load the bases. Up came Tursi and the senior drilled a grand slam homer to break the contest wide open.

Hillside did not give up. The home team tallied three times off Palumbo in the fourth to cut the gap to 9-4 and twice more off Tom Reid in the fifth to slice the lead to 9-6. In the top of the sixth, Belleville tallied five more runs, but the rain came in abundance before Hillside had a chance to bat in the bottom of the sixth. The umpires called the game at the point and high school rules state that a game under those circumstances is reverted back to the last complete inning. Thus, Belleville came away a 9-6 winner and Palumbo earned his second varsity victory.

Warming Up — Brian Cook, the first baseman for the Belleville Bucs, takes some warm-up tosses between innings of the Belleville-Teaneck game. The Bucs loss 4-2.

On Deck — Joe Borrello awaits his turn at bat during Monday's game against Teaneck. The Bucs have been playing exciting baseball this year and have compiled an 8-5-2 record thus far.

DeAquino No-hits Caldwell; Girls Play Millburn Saturday

By Mark Foley

As any follower of the sport of softball can attest, pitching is 90 percent of the game, and good pitching will usually overcome good hitting by the same ratio. Belleville learned that lesson from both sides last week, defeating Caldwell, 2-0 on a no-hitter by Dina DeAquino, and becoming the 42nd consecutive victim of Ridgewood, behind a one-hitter from Maroon all-star Debbie O'Connell, 3-0. The Buccanettes, who also downed Teaneck, 9-4, to run their record to 13-2, will face Millburn in the quarterfinal of the Essex County Tournament on Saturday morning in Belleville.

Pitching possibly the finest game of her career, DeAquino allowed the Chiefs only two baserunners, both of whom reached on misplays. The big play of the evening came in the fifth inning when left fielder Tricia Tramutola made a tumbling catch of a blast by Danielle Durino that would have gone for at least two bases. DeAquino, whose record is now an impressive 11-2, also knocked in Cheryl Marion for what would prove to be the game-winning run with a single in the first inning. Sue Schuster scored the only other run of the contest with a steal of home in the second inning.

Schuster also got Belleville's only hit against O'Connell as they played a good game but were just unable to overcome the defending state champions. The game was a pitcher's duel for four innings until Ridgewood got the only scoring opportunity of the afternoon and capitalized on it. After loading the bases on two hits and an error, Debbie O'Connell, Donna's younger sister and an all-state player in her own right, ripped a bases-clearing double to account for all three runs.

"Ridgewood was tough," said coach Carl Corino, "as we'd ex-

(Please see 'Girls' on page 15.)

'Maturity Process' Worked in Developing Frank Tursi

A year ago, one player was an unsure varsity competitor and the other was limited to strictly jayvee ball. A year ago, the Belleville baseball team was a shaky 8-17-1 with a number of unproven ball players who needed varsity experience.

Now, one year later, these two players have helped turn the Belleville baseball team into one of the better teams in Essex County. Frank Tursi and Joe Mullaney are the Belleville High School athletes of the month for April. Their contributions to the baseball team this spring are two of the reasons why the Buccaneers are 8-4-2 and are improving game by game.

Tursi, a senior, is considered the leader of the club built by head coach Ralph La Conte. "It was a maturity process with Frank," La Conte said. "He had to settle down a little and this year, he's done that. Frank is the leader of our pitching staff and sets a very good example. You couldn't ask for a better example. I have a great deal of respect for Frank and he feels the same for me. He is a very emotional player and gives everything he has to the game."

Tursi's stats speak for themselves. On the mound, he is 3-2, having lost that heart-breaking 2-1 game to Ridgewood last week. He has a solid earned run average of 2.65, has struck out 39 batters in 34-and-one-third innings and has given up just 13 earned runs. Tursi started the season for Belleville, leading the Bucs to a 2-0 win over Barringer on opening day. Tursi limited the Bears to one hit and quickly posted notice that he would be a pitcher to reckon with.

The senior had just one bad outing, losing to Essex Catholic, 11-7. Other than that, he has been a model of consistency, and has helped the Buccaneer pitching staff to some impressive statistics in the early going.

At the plate, Tursi is also having a solid campaign. Through 14 games, the senior is hitting .442, with two homers, one a grand slam, 18 runs batted in, a .667 on base percentage, a .651 slugging percentage, two game-winning hits, versus Hillside and Eastside, and 17 runs scored.

"He does a tremendous job in right field, as well," said La Conte of Tursi. "Right field is probably the toughest outfield position to play. He does it very well and anchors a very strong outfield (along with Dave Long and John Guarino). His times have come, he is a very good leader and has worked hard to achieve it. Things haven't come easy for him, but he has deserved everything he has earned this spring."

Tursi hopes to play baseball on the collegiate level and is considering San Diego State, Fairleigh Dickinson University and Seton Hall for next fall. He is a very talented athlete. During the fall, Tursi went out for the varsity football team for the first time. Usually a senior playing varsity ball for the first time will have a very difficult time making the roster. Tursi not only made the team, he was a starting running back with Mike Murphy and Bill Baber and led the Bucs to a 6-3 season.

He has excellent speed, is in top physical condition and is a fine all-around athlete. His future certainly looks bright and the Belleville baseball team should be in good shape with Frank Tursi on the team this year. "He's been through the good and bad," said La Conte. "Last year, we were 8-17-1 and Frank had a 4-1 record on the mound. That should tell you something about his talent."

At the outset of the 1984 season, Joe Mullaney was on the junior varsity team. "I felt that Joe could use the extra playing time so I sent him to the jayvee team," said team that won just eight times for the 1983 campaign. Currently he is hitting a whaling .500, with two homers, 10 RBIs and 13 runs scored. Mullaney has two doubles to his credit, leads the team with three game-winning hits (versus Clifton, Kennedy and Montclair) and has a team leading .808 slugging percentage.

"He's made a cohesive infield," said La Conte. "With the addition of Joe, our infield is pretty well set. He has given a great deal of stability."

Mullaney now teams with shortstop Joe Borrello, second baseman Dean Sternik and Bill Baber, first baseman Brian Cook to form a solid infield. Mullaney is just a junior and should be one of the leaders for next year's team. Right now, he is one of the main ingredients for a Buccaneer baseball team that has turned itself around after a tough 1983 season and is once again thinking big.

Congratulations to the Belleville softball team on its fine showing thus far. The girls were ranked number one in Essex County and have the top seed for the county tournament. The girls are looking for their third straight county championship and at this point, they look like a very good choice. Dina DeAquino continues to excel on the mound and what more can you say about her batmate, Tracy Buono. The senior is back on a team for Carl Corino's team and is one of the biggest offensive threats in the area. Donna Brooks and Desiree Johansen are also looking strong as the big part of the season approaches.

Believe it or not, the spring season is coming to a close and the long summer months are approaching. Our summer schedule is not 100 percent set, but the tentative list includes coverage of the Belleville boys' basketball team in the Bloomfield Summer League, the Belleville Braves baseball team, the weekly flashback article and a weekly look at Major League baseball. I'll be on vacation the last two weeks of June, so beginning the first week in July, the summer articles will begin.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Donna Brooks of the softball squad. Brooksie, playing a solid left field, is one of the top hitters for the girls, who are ranked sixth in the state and have just two losses.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, in 1974, the Boston Celtics and New York Knicks last played in the playoffs. Name the result of that playoff and the Celtics' starting five. The answer: Boston won in five games, averaging defeats to the Knicks in the 1973 and 1974 conference finals. The Celtics' starting lineup was Dave Cowens, Don Nelson, John Havlicek, Jo Jo White and Paul Silas.

For this week's quiz, let's think back to the old ABA days. The New York Nets were one of the dominant teams in the later days of the ABA, winning titles in 1974 and the final ABA title in 1976. Before the Nets won their first title, they were considered one of the league's doormats. In 1972, however, the Nets pulled off a big upset in the ABA playoffs and eventually made the finals. Can you name the upset the Nets pulled off in the first round of the ABA playoffs, the team they beat in the next round and the team they played in the finals? Also, name the Nets' leading scorer that season.

La Conte. "The first time he played for the varsity team this year, I knew he would be here for good."

When Mullaney first made the scene, the Bucs were struggling with a 2-3-2 mark. He stepped in, provided a good spark at third base and his bat was a big lift to the Bucs. "He was one of the men responsible for the big five-game winning streak," said La Conte. "He is a real good contact hitter and has given us some power as well."

The Bucs' five-game winning streak two weeks ago produced 52 runs and lifted the team to a 7-3-2 mark, not bad for a

By Steve H. Frank

Undeclared lightweight Harry Arroyo, 26, of Youngstown, Ohio, fought a smart fight against Charlie "Choo Choo" Brown of Philadelphia and was awarded a TKO at 2:07 of the 14th round by referee Larry Dazzard. Arroyo, 24-0, followed a well-planned glove-dent and dominated every round by counter-punching the wild-swinging 26-year-old Brown. Brown, 23-3-1, won the IBF lightweight belt after a close split decision 153-130 slugging match with Melvin Paul of New Orleans on Jan. 30, 1984. Both Arroyo and Paul fought over at The Sands in Atlantic City.

June 15 WBA junior middleweight champion Roberto Duran of Panama will try for his fourth boxing title. On that date he squares off with WBC champion Tommy Hearns of Detroit. Duran won the lightweight title from Ken Buchanan of England on June 26, 1972; welterweight crown from Sugar Ray Leonard of Maryland on June 20, 1980; and present title from Davey Moore of New York on June 16, 1983. We don't know whether Hearns believes in omens or not, but we note Duran has won previous championships in the month of June.

At a meeting with the press in Buffalo, N.Y., Wednesday to hype the fight between Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini, 29-1, of Youngstown, Ohio, and Livingston Bramble, 20-1-1, of Passaic, N.J., scheduled for June 1 the usual barbs were tossed between the two contestants, nothing new. The bout is for Mancini's WBA lightweight title. The featured undercard bout between WBA's junior welterweight champ Johnny Bumpus, 22-0, of Nashville, Tenn., now fighting out of Clementon, N.J., and Gene Hatcher, 20-2, of Fort Worth, Texas, could steal the spotlight from the main event.

It was a pleasure to see and meet two fistic greats of the past at the Bob Connolly promoted boxing show at the CYC in Scranton, Pa. Billy Conn, the ex-lightweight champion, was introduced from the ring and the popular "Pittsburgh Kid" was received by a thunderous ovation. We caught up to former heavyweight champ Joe Frazier as we were leaving the building to head back to Jersey.

Traveled to the Catholic Youth Center in Scranton, Pa., Wednesday to catch a glimpse of a young middleweight, John David Jackson of Lansdale, Pa. Jackson was very impressive and displayed a lot of potential. He fought and banged out Keith Todd of Philadelphia at 25 seconds of the third round. Jackson, 20, had a sparkling amateur career, 155-9. As a pro he now has two fights under his belt, both won by knockout. In his pro debut at The Sands in Atlantic City, March 11, Jackson belted out Kim Brady Carriker for a first-round TKO. John David is managed by Jimmy Connolly and promoted by Bob Connolly. He is trained by one of the best trainers in the business, former middleweight Georgie Benton.

Results of other bouts at the Scranton CYC: lightweight Matt O'Malley of Scranton, showed off an improved form in knocking the body with good body shots to capture a six-round unanimous decision over Ricky Clements of York, Maine; welterweight Johnny Herbert of Lansdale, Pa., WTKO at 2:22 of fourth round over Dwayne "Buzz" Jones of Troy, N.Y.; welterweight Kevin Rooney of Catskill, N.Y., and Terry Crawley of Hyannis, Mass., fought to a standstill eight-round draw. (In their previous bout on Nov. 22, 1982, Crawley emerged the victor.) The main event had Brooklyn welterweight Johnny Turner scoring a TKO at 2:30 of the fifth round over Ya Ya a/k/a Johnny Jones of Brooklyn, N.Y. Promotion by Bob Connolly, John Hedi, matchmaker, and S. Roseman, public relations.

In a battle, meaning "war" between Philadelphia middleweight's Monday at Atlantic City, Frank Fletcher kept a steady attack with lefts and rights to the head and body of Jimmy Sykes to capture a well-earned 10-round unanimous decision. Fletcher now 18-4-1 was in line for a shot at Marvellous Marvin Hagler's title until he was sidetracked by Juan Domingo Roldan's sixth-round KO on Nov. 10, 1983 in Las Vegas.

At New York's Felt Forum Friday, Vilomar Fernandez, 140, of New York City, W-Dee in 10 rounds over Billy Parks, 138-2, of New Orleans, La., and Juan Ramon Cruz, 134-0, of New York City, WKO in second round over Forest Winchester, 133-0, native of Kalamazoo, Mich., fighting out of Columbus, Ohio.

During a press conversation last week at the New York Boxing Writers' annual dinner, Don King abruptly mentioned he had a meeting with Larry Holmes and one of the promoters in Easton, Pa., and received his money ($750,000) and the fight (Holmes-Gerrie Coetzee) will go on. King, who holds a promotional contract with Coetzee, was going to hold up the fight if he wasn't paid to release Coetzee to show up for the Holmes' workout.

Welterweight Tommy Ayers of Cincinnati was awarded a TKO in the fourth round when Lanny Edmonds of Detroit did not answer the bell for the fourth (Michigan State Boxing law). Ayers was not sharp with his punches as in the past. He did connect with Edmonds' body with hard-punches that decided him to quit. Ayers hoisted his ring diary to 22-1 as Edmonds slipped to 13-3. In the main event, 22-year-old Milton McCrory of Detroit, successfully defended his WBC welterweight crown by taking a controversial TKO in the fourth round from Gilles Elbilha, 24, of France. The referee stopped the bout with Elbilha bleeding from the nose and cut over his right eye. However, he did not appear to be hurt. Gilles objected loud and long, via his American representative, George Kanter, to no avail. Emanuel "Manny" Steward manages/trains Edmonds and McCrory. Ayers is handled by Buddy La Rose. The above bouts were at the Corbo Arena in Detroit.

WBC junior featherweight champ Jaime Garza of Los Angeles will defend the championship against Felipe Orozco of Columbia, South America, as part of a double header May 26 at a site to be announced.

Crew Squad Posts Big Philly Victory

Rallying from a sub par performance in the Goodwill Regatta, the Belleville crew team stormed back to a solid finish in the City Championships, held in Philadelphia last weekend.

Belleville will now compete in the Mid-Hudson Regatta in Poughkeepsie this weekend. The following weekend, it's the Statesbury Regatta and the last weekend in May, the Bucs will travel to Delaware for the National Championships.

"I'm very happy with the team's performance," said head coach Sam Giuffrida. "The team really came back strong after the Goodwill Regatta and I feel they are in good shape for the big races coming up."

The girls' junior four won the league championship by four seconds. The big victory, against some solid competition, boosted the boat record to 16-0 on the season. "They rowed very well," said Giuffrida, "although they felt they didn't row well. Right now, they're 16-0 and looking toward the Mid-Hudson."

The junior four boat seems in excellent shape. Last weekend, one of the regulars, Jackie Mele, had to miss the City Championships and sophomore Kathy Zamora was selected to take her place. "We have some good depth on the team," commented Giuffrida. "We put Kathy in and never missed a beat."

Zamora teamed with regulars Stephanie Aiello, Maureen Russo, Drane Black and coxswain Elena Gilday to lead the junior four to a big championship. Only Gilday is a senior and the future of the girls' boat certainly looks solid.

The success continued with the junior four boys' boat. With sophomore Mark Walden, juniors John Apicella and Bob Charles, sophomore Steve Linfante and senior Mike Giuffrida leading the way, the junior four placed second, among 18 boats at the City Championships. "That boat had a tough outing in the Goodwill," recalled Giuffrida. "They came back strong and in the finals, defeated Nutley and Kearny. That was a big lift for them and gives them a great deal of confidence for the Mid-Hudson."

Giuffrida noted that the junior four boat did not have a very good qualifying race, but poured it on in the championships to place a very respectable second. Only Haverford of Philadelphia managed to defeat the strong Buccanero boat.

Next weekend, Giuffrida will bring his entire crew to Poughkeepsie.

(Please see "Statesbury" on page 15.)

Good Form — Frank Tursi, the Bucs' pitching ace, performed well against top-ranked Ridgewood, but suffered a heartbreaking 2-1 setback. As of Monday, the Bucs were 8-4-2 on the season.

Suburban Girls' Team Starts Another Season

The Belleville entry in the girls' Suburban Softball League opened up its 1984 season last week by playing four games within a seven-day span.

This year's team, with seven girls returning from the 1983 league runner-up squad, swamped Summit by a score of 31-0 in a game played at the Marotti Little League Field. Starting pitcher Michele Calderone threw a nifty one-hitter, while striking out four and walking none. The game was decided in the first inning when the Buccanettes scored 18 runs. The hitting stars were Raquel Nelson with four RBIs, including a two-run triple, Calderone with four hits, Janine Luzzi with five RBIs, including a three-run triple, and Giovanna Mallozzi with four RBIs and a booming three-run home run to the fence in left field.

Last Monday, the squad traveled to Nutley to start a three-game road trip. Belleville was leading in the game, 16-6, when play was suspended in the Nutley home half of the fifth with one out. The Buccanettes scored all their runs in the third inning — an inning which was highlighted by two grand slam home runs, one by Mallozzi and the other by Luzzi. Jackie Tillman and Raquel Nelson each chipped in with two hits apiece to aid the hitting attack. The Belleville coaches played the game under protest since the Nutley squad was not in uniform. A decision from the league office is pending.

On Wednesday, the girls lost to a good Cedar Grove team by a score of 5-2. In this game, winning pitcher Pam Koller limited Belleville to just three hits while striking out 12 batters. Cedar Grove won the game by pushing across three runs in the bottom of the sixth to break a 2-2 tie. Losing pitcher Michele Calderone pitched a gutsy game while catcher Ellen Kempksi played a great game defensively for Belleville.

Finally, last Saturday night, the squad lost a tough game to West Caldwell by an 8-7 score. In a well-played game, highlighted by numerous defensive gems, West Caldwell scored the deciding run in the bottom of the fifth inning after Belleville had tied the score at seven with three runs in the top half of the inning. The Buccanettes threatened in the top of the seventh inning by loading the bases with two outs, but the West Caldwell pitcher retired the last batter to secure the victory. Mallozzi paced the offense with a two-run triple while Laura Dondarski, Kempksi, and losing pitcher Tillman played outstanding defensive softball.

The team's official record stands at one win and two losses. This past Tuesday, the girls played Livingston at home, while tomorrow night, Friday, the squad travels to South Orange for an 8 p.m. game. On Mother's Day, the squad is on the road again to play Springfield in a 1 p.m. start.

Rec Softball Season Starts

The results of the Belleville Recreation Men's Softball Monday Night "A" League for week one are as follows: Printing Techniques shut down J & R Insulation, 5-0; Champion Bumpers lost to Pete's Sake, 10-0; and Suburban Cablevision accepted a forfeit from Suppa's Bar.

Here are the Tuesday Belleville Men's Softball "B" League results for week one: Roselli's Amoco edged Megaro Memorial Home, 14-13; Brothers Total Construction slashed Belleville Political/Social Club, 14-3; and in a close contest, All Guard Insurance fell to Belleville Shoes, 5-4.

Little League Round-Up

The excitement of being a part of Little League baseball could be seen on 120 bright and smiling boys and girls as opening day festivities filled the day of Saturday, May 6.

A perfect sunny and warm day and a big crowd added to the thrill of the youngsters as they marched with their coaches through the gates of the Little League field. Mayor Michael V. Marotti, commissioner of the Little League baseball, led the group of dignitaries which included Congressman Joseph Minihis, Freeholder President Jerry Greco and many commissioners and school board members. Mrs. Grace Purdue, president of the Board of Education, threw out the first ball to Mayor Marotti and it's play ball for the 1984 Little League season.

Golfers Winning Despite Rebuilding

The Belleville golf team, supposedly in a year of transition, continues to impress, defeating two more teams and running its season record to a solid 6-4. This week the Bucs will face Nutley tomorrow afternoon and battled Passaic Valley last Monday. Most importantly, Belleville is 3-0 in the NNJIL.

Head coach Rocco Colucci sees steady improvement in his troops and is very opportunistic for the future of his team. "This is probably one of the best groups I've ever had. Everyone is showing improvement, everyone wants to get better. This is a game of peaks and valleys. If a player lets the game get the better of him, then he might as well hand it up. You have to keep working at the game all year long. On some days, you will find your game to be perfect, on other days, nothing seems to go right."

Belleville's last two setbacks have been to West Essex and Nutley. The battle with Nutley was a non-league match, so the Bucs' record in the NNJIL is still unblemished. Versus West Essex, Belleville was in over its head and lost by 28 strokes. Against Nutley, the Bucs lost to an undefeated Maroon squad, 178-195.

The last two victories came over Kearny and last week over Passaic, 195-215. Senior Jimmy Apple is back on track after an early season slump. Apple is averaging 41 for nine holes and his game seems to be getting better. Greg Simone and Brian De Furia also are showing improvement, with De Furia tallying a 44 in his last game against Passaic.

Frank Riker came through with a very impressive 42 over the back nine at Branch Brook Park. Colucci is also happy with the sharp play of freshman Joe Tower and Frank Greco. Once again, both men have been improving week by week and their future certainly appears promising.

In addition to the dual matches coming up, there are some individual matches that Colucci is looking forward to. The Essex County Championships, which Colucci feels will be a wide open field, are scheduled for May 29 at the Forest Hill Country Club. The NNJIL individual tourney will be on May 31st from Nob Hill Country Club in Freehold. Last year, Apple finished a very impressive third in the overall tourney.

"We have some good young players," said Colucci in closing. "They all have an excellent attitude and are great players to work with. I'm very happy with our play thus far and feel we have a real good chance down the stretch."

more of a battle from here on in."

ected. Dina pitched a great game, but like I said before, this game would probably be decided on a mistake, and we made it and it cost us. They're going to be tough for anyone to beat. We've got them again on Monday up there and we can beat them, but we'll have to be a little tougher at the plate."

The Buccanettes cruised over Teaneck, scoring in each inning en route to the 9-4 win. DeAquino got credit for the win, with Laura Caruso picking up the save in relief of DeAquino and Debbie Patierno. The big hit was supplied by Tracy Buono, who clubbed her fifth home run of the year. Donna Brooks also went four-for-five with two runs batted in.

Looking toward the county tournament, Corino said, "To be perfectly honest, I don't know all that much about Millburn; we've never played them while I've been here. I expect them to be looking to knock us off. But we've been in so many tight games, runs have become harder to come by this year. Let me say this: We're very fortunate to be 13-2 and in the position we're in. Even against Caldwell, as great as Dina pitched, they had the tying run at the plate with their best hitter up in the bottom of the seventh. It's been a battle all year and it's going to be even EXTRA BASES: In addition the ECT game on Saturday and the rematch with Ridgewood on Monday, Belleville will travel to Hackensack for an afternoon match on Wednesday. DeAquino's no-hitter, the fourth of her career, came on her 18th birthday. The senior right-hander threw three blanks last year over Livingston, Shabazz and Passaic Valley. She allowed no bases on balls against Caldwell and, in fact, only threw three balls to a batter once in the entire game...Millburn came from behind to defeat Nutley, 3-2, in the preliminary round of the ECT...Last week Belleville played four games in three days, defeating Teaneck Monday, playing Nutley Tuesday, and playing Passaic and Lyndhurst, all away, on Wednesday...Belleville currently holds a 1-1 record in the second division of the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League. Underclass pitchers Caruso, Patierno, and Karen Fulda were expected to see a great deal of action in last week's hectic schedule...Schuster's double against Caldwell was the first extra-base hit of her varsity career...The seventh and eighth grade Suburban League team has been playing opening matches before the varsity's night games.

Jensen All-Stars Playing Charity Contest Tonight At Nutley

Jim Jensen and his CBS All-Stars will play a benefit game tonight in Nutley for the Katie Reilly Fund, a campaign to finance a liver transplant.

Jensen, and his colleagues from CBS and Channel 2, will take on the McDonald's Big Bats in an 8 p.m. game under the lights at Monsignor Owens Park, Park Avenue, Nutley.

Pre-game ceremonies at 7:30 will feature a performance by the Nutley High School Cadet Band under the direction of Lester Hrbeck.

"This is for a good and needed cause and it promises to be a night of fun as well," notes Barbara Lightner, regional public relations coordinator for McDonald's.

Advance tickets at $2.50 may be obtained by contacting Charlie Kucinski at the Public Safety Department (667-3300).

"We'll have plenty of good seats on sale at the gate as well," notes Miss Lightner.

The following Wednesday, May 16, disc jockeys from radio station WNEW in New York will be on the Owens Field for a second benefit with the McDonald's Big Bats. That game will also benefit the Katie Reilly Liver Transplant Fund.

for the Mid-Hudson Regatta. As for the competition in the Flecks and last weekend's success, the coach was very happy. "Competing in the Flecks gave us competition against some excellent schools who got to know who we are. It should put us in good shape for the later races."

NOTES: Mike Giuffrida will be attending the University of Delaware this fall. Gilday plans to attend Rutgers University. Overall, 18 teams competed in the Flecks. The boys' junior four boat is 23-5 overall. Aiello, Mele, Russo, Black and Gilday were all members of the 1982 boat that won the national title on the junior level. That boat consisted of six freshmen, one sophomore and one junior.

State Delays Russo's Appointment as Welfare Director

decision to change the post to a part-time one was a political one engineered to weed out applicants who sought a full-time job so the post could go to Russo, who served as Pizzi's campaign manager in the May 1983 commission election.
Pizzi denied the charges, claiming that the change was "to save the taxpayers money" since he didn't think Belleville's welfare cases "warranted a full-time director."
When Russo, who was employed as a clerk in Pizzi's Public Affairs Department since December, won the post, Ippolito resigned after 10 years with the department.
Pizzi, under fire from angry citizens, repeatedly defended Russo as "the best choice for the position" and stated she was the choice of the LAB as a whole, a five-member welfare department panel on which the commissioner sits.

Before his resignation, Ippolito noted that he and several other applicants for the director's post either held college degrees or had long experience in welfare work or both.
Russo is not a college graduate and her only experience in welfare work was her four-month stint as the clerk, according to the LAB chairman Ralph Risoli.
Pizzi had said, however, that other qualifications, such as "a type of caring personality and community service" figured into the decision. "College degrees are not everything," he has said.

However, the state General Assistance Manual provides guidelines for appointing welfare directors and strongly recommends candidates with degrees or compensating on the job experience.
According to Richard D. Parla, the chief of the state's local operations bureau, those guidelines "are not carved in cement" but if there is any question as to the credentials or method of selection of the appointee, state officials may ask the municipality to show good reason for bypassing the manual's guidelines before giving approval to the director designate.

Parla also noted that following a special staff meeting last Friday, state officials decided to release the funding due Belleville's welfare department.
"Those funds are routinely delayed when a new director is not officially in place," he explained, "but we decided to free the monies while this matter is pending to avoid causing hardship among Belleville's welfare recipients."
Risoli said Monday that the LAB received a letter from the state last week requesting "more complete information" on Russo.
He said a special open meeting will be held May 14 at 9 a.m. in the welfare department to make public the state's specific requests.

Following a commission meeting Monday night, Pizzi commented, "I don't see any problems with Carol eventually receiving full approval."
He confirmed the state wanted "some basic information" but said he was "not sure exactly what it is."
He also said he would stand "100 percent behind her appointment."
Moments earlier, the commissioner faced the fury of a citizen who questioned why a new salary ordinance, introduced by commissioners that evening, continued to list the welfare director's post at full-time salary of $21,047 minimum to $23,741 maximum.
Henry Charzewski of Joramelon Street, demanded commissioners alter the ordinance before final vote so that the welfare director's position is listed as a part-time one with a correspondingly reduced salary.

"Don't make a fool out of the people of Belleville," shouted Charzewski, who asserted that Pizzi should put in writing the fact that he changed the director's post to part-time as an economy measure.
Previously, opponents of Pizzi's plan charged it was a ploy to ensure that Russo would get the position over applicants who could only accept full-time employment then later the job would be reinstated as full-time.
Pizzi had denied that, but refused comment Monday as to why the ordinance remained as before.
Attempting an explanation, Mayor Michael Marotti told Charzewski that the municipal salary ordinance lists a number of titles and salary ranges for positions not held by anyone.
"They're there in case we should have a need to appoint such an employee. Then we won't have to make special ordinances," Marotti explained.
The mayor also assured the disgruntled citizen that Russo was being paid at a part-time rate amounting to half of the full-time minimum salary in the ordinance, or a little over $10,000.
Charzewski, dissatisfied with the defense, urged commissioners to revise the ordinance by eliminating all jobs not actually filled and by listing them in correct status.
"If you need to fill a job, you can do it by special means so the people are aware of exactly what is and what is not being spent," said Charzewski.
Another citizen, Sam Petraceca, agreed with Charzewski that the present ordinance is "misleading to the people." He also suggested the board "make public which jobs are filled and which remain vacant."
Commissioners voted unanimously to adopt the ordinance on first reading. Public hearing and final vote come up May 21.

Job Action Taken By Local Teachers

But they always seem to find money when they look hard enough."
The first meeting between teachers and the board negotiation team — which consists of Grace Purdue, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, Ernest Zoppi and Larry Schwartz — took place Dec. 22, 1983. Since that time 30 hours of negotiations have taken place between the two sides, before an impasse was agreed to April 19.
According to Testa, teachers in Belleville are seeking a contract which will "make us competitive with teachers from the other 20 districts in the county." Testa says statistics compiled show that Belleville teachers are close to the bottom of the pay scale compared to teachers from the other districts. He also says the board is seeking to trim the teachers' dental plan.
The Board of Education has offered teachers a two-year package, calling for a 5.5 percent increase this year, and 7.5 the next. The teachers' contract expires at the end of the school year.

observing the situation and principals have been asked to fill out reports of any incidents," he said. "Thus far everything has been going well. The teachers have to do what they have to do. I just do not want to see them stand in the way of the educational process."
According to Testa, teachers should be waving picket signs by the end of the week.

"I believe we have been very fair in negotiating," said Purdue. "They claim they are far behind other teachers in the county and we are saving you cannot play catch up in one year. We have also scheduled two dates for a mediator to review the case, but they turned down both of them and that is the reason for the delay."
According to Michael Nardiello, superintendent of schools, the job action went very smoothly the first day.

Lawn Gone?

Time to call Lawn King

All lawns need an annual program of lawn care and every program must contain both granular and spray. Some chemicals work better when applied in a granular form, and others, like weed controls and post emergent crab grass controls, work better in a liquid form. All lawns also require periodic aeration and seed, but only Lawn King gives all these via LAWN COMBINE & SPRAY — THE BETTER WAY! WE KNOW IT'S THE ONLY WAY!!

LAWN KING ANNUAL PROGRAM
1. Power Aeration Power Raking Broadleaf Weed Control Fungus Control Post Emergent Crabgrass Control Fertilized Lawn	2. Balanced Fertilizer Broadleaf Weed Control Fungus Control Crabgrass Control Grub Control (Liquid)	3. Balanced Fertilizer Broadleaf Weed Control Fungus Control Crabgrass Control Grub Control (Liquid)	4. Power Aeration & Raking Balanced Fertilizer Broadleaf Weed Control Fungus Control Post Emergent Crabgrass Control Fertilized Lawn	5. Balanced Fertilizer Extra Heavy Fertilizer Fertilized Lawn

We are chemical applicators, not miracle workers. We know what your lawn needs and when it needs it. What you see in the program, is what you get. Top quality chemicals and seed — only the best — that's all we use. There's no such thing as specially formulated for drought.

Aeration, seed and lime are part of our program. Fungus controls and grub controls have always been part of our program — not options at extra cost when you need them. By the time you know you need them it's too late anyway. No slopes please. If we can't aerate twice a year we can't help you.

Someone will call to discuss the lawn with you. There's a one time charge if you need any extras like a preparatory service, extra seed or additional time. We'll tell you what you need. We may not be the cheapest lawn service around but we are the only ones who give you your lawn everything it needs at a price you can afford to pay. You can figure your costs from the chart below. No contracts to sign, no guarantees, no promises, no slopes, and no nonsense. Pay from service to service or prepay for the year and we'll give you a 5% discount too!

If you compare our program and prices with any other company, you'll find that either they are charging too much or we are not charging enough! Look at it real close and you may even arrive at the conclusion that not only is it better to do business with us — it's cheaper too!
