Township Honors Veterans

Remembering Our Heros — Members of the Belleville's veterans' groups braved the rain Monday to take part in the annual Memorial Day services. Pictured here are: John Lorec, a member of the Belleville Veterans Council; and two lady auxiliary presidents, Millie McKeen (r) and Barbara Welter.

A Salute to Patriotism — Members of American Legion Post 105 gather together for the Massing of the Colors during Belleville's annual Memorial Day services. The day of remembrance started with the placing of a wreath of the Passaic River.

A Memorial Wreath — During the rainy Memorial Day services here, a wreath was placed at the memorial in front of Town Hall honoring the township's firefighters. Belleville's police officers were also remembered and honored during the annual ceremony.

Teachers and Board Meet With Mediator

Job Action Suspended; Contract Talks Resume

By Ed Capparucci

Belleville teachers have temporarily ended their job action "as a sign of good faith" according to leaders of the Belleville Education Association.

The job action, which began May 8 as a protest over stagnated contract talks, was suspended after members of the BEA and School Board met May 23 with a state mediator to review negotiations.

"The BEA leadership has temporarily suspended the job action as a sign of good faith after meeting with a mediator and the School Board representatives," said Thomas Testa, president of the BEA.

The teachers' contract is scheduled to expire at the end of June, and contract talks, which broke off April 19, had been going on since Dec. 22.

"I am delighted to see that the BEA has ended its job action," said School Board President Grace Purdue, who along with Dr. Anthony D'Agostino and Ernest Zoppi, represent the board in the contract talks. "I believe that is the sign that both sides are seeking to bargain in good faith to resolve this matter."

During the two-week job action teachers signed in and out with the students; did not take part in any after school activities such as workshops and faculty meetings; withdrew from all voluntary non-paying duties during the course of the school day; and walked with picket signs before and after school hours.

Both sides are scheduled to meet with the mediator, Joe Weisblatt, again June 5 to resume negotiations.

"During the first meeting with the mediator we just reviewed what has been going on and went over the figures which we were proposing and what the teachers want," said Mrs. Purdue. "Hopefully we will get down to serious negotiating at our June 5 meeting."

Rev. Pascale, 91; Church Founder

Rev. Benedetto Pascale, founder and pastor of the Silver Lake Baptist Church for 70 years, died last Tuesday in his home in Belleville.

Born in Italy, Dec. 20, 1892, he came to the United States at the age of 16 after completing his high school education. He joined his brother who had settled in Lawrence, Ma. He worked as a mill hand, and seeing the hardships of workers, became a radical. Here he came to know Christ through the preachings of Rev. A.B. Bellandi, a Baptist missionary, and was baptized into the First Church, Lawrence, Ma., by Dr. F.W. Padelford. From this beginning, Rev. Pascale was actuated by a missionary passion and encouraged by Dr. E.M. Lake, pastor of the Second Baptist Church.

When Dr. Lake moved to Detroit, he took Benedetto with him. He prepared the youth to enter the Divinity School of Colgate University.

In 1914, Rev. Pascale was called to do missionary work in Silver Lake, Belleville, under the auspices of the Bloomfield Church, Dr. Henry C. Potter, pastor. In 1916, he graduated from Colgate-Rochester Divinity School and was ordained. In 1917, he entered Bloomfield College, where he studied for four years.

Through the combined efforts of Rev. Pascale, Dr. Potter, Prof. Mangano, David Garabrant, and Louis Stoiber, the Silver Lake Baptist Church was built in 1914 as a mission of the First Baptist Church of Bloomfield although the original structure still stands, so many improvements and additions have been made that it bears but a remote resemblance to the first building. In 1929, his church became self-supporting and now cooperates with the denominational program. A playground adjoining the church was purchased, a Friendly House was built with full equipment as a recreational facility. This was later turned over to the town of Belleville.

Belleville Voters Head to Polls Next Tuesday For Primary Race

By Linda Telesco

Next Tuesday, Belleville voters will have their say in the presidential year's New Jersey primary elections.

With New Jersey pegged as one of the nation's crucial states for the Democratic presidential candidates, local voters will be asked to select a presidential nominee, a United States senator, Congressional representative and five Essex County freeholders.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. for Belleville's 17,085 registered voters to come out for their candidates. An extremely light turnout is expected.

Local Democrats are following the statewide and national pattern of favoring former vice president Walter Mondale for the party's presidential nominee.

Commissioner Joseph Grande, Ralph DiRuggiero and Belleville's Democratic Chairman Chester Prosperi announced support for Mondale in the election.

"Walter Mondale is the most experienced individual in the Democratic primary," said Grande in a press release. "He has been there before as vice president, he knows the pressures involved, and he has tested and proven leadership."

Commissioner DiRuggiero cited Mondale's record on arms control, environmental protection, and "continued support for working men and women," in declaring his support.

Prosperi hailed Mondale as a Democrat with "appeal to the traditional members of the Democratic Party" whose "strong family ties also will appeal to the residents of Belleville."

Mondale, who served as vice president under Jimmy Carter, is presently the leading contender for the party's nomination, winning major support from traditional Democratic strongholds such as organized labor voters.

Running second to Mondale is Sen. Gary Hart of Colorado whose campaign stresses a "new vision" of leadership for the nation. Specifically, Hart appealed to New Jersey voters by emphasizing the importance of retraining the labor force to work in the high technology era.

Hart also crossed the state this week promising a fight on toxic waste and economic problems.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, the third major contender, made appearances in the state last weekend stressing themes of education for the young, restoring programs for the poor, cutting the military budget, and nuclear arms control.

Dark horse candidate on the ballot is conservative Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr.

Running uncontested for the Republican nomination is President Ronald Reagan, seeking his second term in office.

Voters are also asked to select four district delegates, two males and two females, to the Democratic National Convention.

Appearing on Line K with Mondale are Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro, Assemblyman Stephen Aduhato, and Elois Jones and Ann D. Cummins with alternate candidates Thomas P. Giblin and Linda Barucky Russo.

Delegate candidates on Hart's line include Freeholder President Jerome Greco, Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alessio, Susan Tartaglia and Belen Carlin with alternate candidates James Treffinger and Clara Lagerman.

Jackson line delegate contenders are East Orange Mayor Thomas Cooke, Mildred Garvin, Cathy Harden and Gene Harris with alternate candidates Joseph Fortunato and Willie Norman.

Senator Bill Bradley is seeking reelection to his seat as New Jersey's

St. Peter's Bazaar Set For Weekend

St. Peter's Church will hold a bazaar on June 1, 2 and 3, at the church, 155 William St. The bazaar is open to the public.

The three-day gala will feature games, contests, raffles, 50-50s, pony rides, lots of food and beverages, and plenty of fun for everyone.

A spaghetti dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, June 2, and a break dancing contest, with finals at 1 p.m. Sunday, highlight the bazaar.

Hours of the bazaar are June 1, 7-11 p.m.; June 2, 5-11 p.m.; and June 3, 2-9 p.m. For more information, please call 751-2002.

Belleville Business Bureau

By Howie Halpern

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce and I are especially proud of our treasurer, and my daughter-in-law, Lorraine Halpern, who has just graduated Douglass College. Lorraine is currently employed by People's Bank and has been promoted to its Bancorp Holding Company division, in training for a management position. Mrs. Halpern is the daughter of Bill and Elinore Dixon of Arthur Street, Belleville, and the lovely wife of Jeff Halpern, catering consultant and manager of Towne Deli.

"I'd rather play the piano than do the cooking," says Jaye Tarantino. Tarantino's Restaurant, 140 Washington Ave., has taken on a new delicious atmosphere with a new continental gourmet menu. Trained in the culinary arts, master chef James Tarantino returns to his original kitchen after five years. Jim is a creative artist, adding flavor to this charming bistro. The ambiance is accented with dinner by candlelight and soft romantic music. A talented and gracious hostess, owner Jaye Tarantino will be playing mood music on her antique Wurlitzer piano every Friday and Saturday evening. "And leave the cooking to Jimmy." A welcomed change of pace. For reservations call 759-1220.

Henry Rosenberg, national sales manager of the Dealer Division for Ever Ready Label Corp., has been appointed general chairman for the Bayonne 1984 United Jewish Appeal Drive, a communitywide fund-raising campaign. Mr. Rosenberg has set a goal of $275,000 for the appeal. Best wishes for success are extended to him at this, along with our "thanks" to Mr. Sidney W. Hollaender and Ever Ready Label Corp., 357 Cortlandt St., for their continued support of the Chamber of Commerce.

Phase I of Washington Avenue's parking problem is resolved thanks to Board of Directors of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce member John Resciniti. "Washington Avenue parking is for shoppers and shoppers only." People that park at Avenue meters will now receive up to four violations instead of the maximum $2 fine for overtime parking. If a motorist parks at a meter all day, he or she could be fined up to $8. Cars will be ticketed and tires will be chalked every two hours by police. The next phase under study is for merchants to obtain special parking permits to park their cars in the municipal parking lot adjacent to Town Hall and for municipal employees to park in the spaces already provided for them.

Wash-America — Betty and Ira Feinberg of Tip Top Car Wash, North Arlington, will participate in the March of Dimes "Wash-America" fund raiser May 29 through June 3. The National Car Wash Council and International Car Wash Association has pledged $250,000 to the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation this year. Tip Top is located at 485 Ridge Road, North Arlington.

Teenagers Complete Baby Sitting Course

Four Belleville teenagers recently completed the Clara Maass Medical Center and Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club "Baby Sitting Course for You." They are Rachel Avello, Anna Ramos, Maria Ramos and Renee Traill. Nancy Orto of Clara Maass Medical Center coordinated the course.

The course, which is designed to create more responsible and knowledgeable baby sitters, was open to community teenagers 13 years of age or older. It consisted of lectures and instruction by experts in a variety of areas. Jackie Cozine of the Nulley Emergency Squad talked to the group about first aid, and Captain Hands of the Belleville Fire Department and Patrolman Hochstuhel of the Crime Prevention

Unit, Bloomfield Police Department, shared a lecture on safety and what to do in emergencies. Maureen Villane, head nurse in the Clara Maass Special Care Nursery, and Dr. Mario Szuchman, pediatrician at Clara Maass, shared a discussion on child care.

Those students who successfully completed the 26th annual course received a certificate and are now part of a baby sitting referral service located in the Clara Maass Medical Center Volunteer Department. This service can be reached by calling 450-2267.

Chamber Seminar Planned

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce will be sponsoring an information seminar June 5 and 7 at 7:30 p.m. to inform the public on the redevelopment plan of Washington Avenue. The seminar will be conducted by members of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency. The purpose of these seminars is strictly to inform the concerned, and to give the people of Belleville all the facts surrounding the redevelopment of Washington Avenue.

The chamber officials feel that once the public is aware of the facts, a decision can be reached by all the concerned parties. For further information please contact the Belleville Chamber of Commerce at 759-4848 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Pharmacy Footnotes

Vincent
Cozzarelli
Reg. Ph.

Today drugs are dispensed according to a carefully refined system of categories and regulations. The most basic breakdown is between prescription and over-the-counter (OTC) drugs. For the former a doctor's prescription is required. The latter is available without prescription at your pharmacy. It was not always this way however. As late as 1914 buying any medication, including narcotics and barbiturates, was as easy as buying a loaf of cloth. They could be ordered from national catalogues. By 1938 major changes had occurred. The most fundamental were outlined in that year's Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, the act that established the standards administered today by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA).

All your prescription and over-the-counter drug needs can be met with a visit to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 238 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. "Your Doctor Knows Us—Your Doctor Trusts Us". # Commissioners Agree to Modernize Township's Relic Telephone System

Antique lovers will have to hurry down to Town Hall to get a last look at a local relic — the municipal switchboard and telephone system.

After years of working with what nearly everyone, particularly operator Maureen Gilbert, rates as "outmoded stuff," the township will bring its communications system into the modern era.

Commissioners unanimously agreed last week to hire Garrigan Consulting Associates at a fee of $4,250, for a study and overhaul of the telephone system.

"We've been looking into different systems for a few years now," said Mayor Michael Marotti. He noted that with the recent changes in the communications industry, a result of the divestiture of AT&T, commissioners felt a private consulting firm could find the best technology for the township's needs.

The president of the Clifton firm, Walter Garrigan, and marketing executive Edward H. Lightweis explained their five-phase plan to the commissioners at a recent caucus session.

"The system here is obsolete and getting spare parts for it will be an increasing problem," he said.

In fact, township officials later noted that as long ago as 1978, New Jersey Bell said spare parts could no longer be obtained for the Belleville system and breakdowns were causing major problems for repairmen.

Garrigan further noted that while the Bell System previously maintained all equipment, the recent changes in the industry would put that responsibility upon the township itself.

With the options available now to buy a new system or lease equipment, the consulting firm proposes to do a major study of Belleville's communications needs and seek the best deal possible.

Each step of the firm's five-phase plan is individually priced with the first part, a major study, priced at $1,500, the highest. Phase II, designing the system, costs $750 and each of the subsequent three steps are $750 each.

The firm began the study last week, which Garrigan said should take about two weeks to complete.

Phase II involves designing the most efficient system possible based on the findings of the study. With approximately 140 instruments in the system, Garrigan noted purchase costs could vary as much as $100 per instrument, stressing the need for an efficient design.

In Phase III, the firm prepares specifications for vendors and the project goes out for bidding.

Once a vendor is selected, the project enters Phase IV and Garrigan Associates will coordinate the installation of the system, negotiating contracts and arranging for such matters as arranging wiring of the building.

In the final step, the firm will administer the system, setting up procedures for management.

According to Garrigan, the entire project can be completed by the end of the year.

At the request of Commissioner Ralph DiRuggiero, consultants said their service would include, at no extra cost, a complete check of the telephone billings Belleville presently receives to determine accuracy.

Garrigan, who worked for over 30 years as a New Jersey Bell executive, recently formed his firm which is composed of other former employees of the phone company and of AT&T.

The president said his firm is attempting to bring its services to other municipalities who may be suffering confusion over the rent divestiture.

Blood Chemistry Test Available on June 14

Commissioner Michael P. Pizzi, director of Public Affairs, announces this week that the Belleville Health Department will hold a screening for diagnostic blood chemistry for Belleville residents only.

The blood screening will be held Thursday, June 14, and is recommended for residents 30 years of age and above. At that time, blood will be drawn by registered technicians and sent back to a lab for analysis.

Commissioner Pizzi further stated that a diagnostic computer (SMAC) will scan 23 elements with complete blood count and differential within the blood to detect any abnormalities.

The commissioner said this screening technique is only a partial indicator of an individual's state of health.

For an accurate health profile, it should be utilized in conjunction with an assessment by your physician.

It is advised that a minimum 12-hour fasting period prior to having blood drawn be observed. One cannot eat or drink anything except water during this time.

The cost of the blood test is $5. Payments are to be made at time of pre-registration and only checks or money orders will be accepted. Please do not bring cash as payment.

Residents can pre-register at the Public Affairs building, nursing department, 383 Washington Ave., from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday, June 4, and Thursday, June 7.

Any further questions you may have, please call your local nursing service at 759-0565 or 759-2832.

Commissioner Pizzi urges all residents to take advantage of this blood screening program.

Tuesday's Election

Election time is still here — believe it or not. By this time voters should be weary reading about and listening to the candidates seeking office. But this is the big time. A future President of the United States is at stake. A future U.S. Senator is to be nominated. County Freeholders are seeking nomination and renomination. Delegates to the Republican and Democratic National Conventions are to be elected. Congressional candidates are to be elected.

So there is much reading to be absorbed if we expect the voter to cast an intelligent vote.

For instance, in the 8th Congressional District, Nutley's Roy Taylor is running as a LaRouche candidate. The Democratic Party's candidate is incumbent Congressman Robert Roe. Walter Mondale, Gary Hart and Jesse Jackson are all seeking the favor of New Jersey Democratic voters. On the Republican side, President Reagan will be nominated without opposition.

Incumbent U.S. Senator Bill Bradley is seeking renomination without challenge, and on the Republican side, Montclair Mayor Mary Mochary is in a contest with former U.S. Senate candidate Robert Morris, also an attorney and former president of the University of Texas.

Radio, television, newspapers and the mail all are bringing us messages why one candidate is preferred over another. Frankly, the voter has a tough decision to make next Tuesday.

The Republican decision basically involves a choice between Morris and Mochary for the U.S. Senate. Although both are supportive of President Reagan, there is a major difference between the two candidates. Mochary favors abortion, Morris favors right-to-life. Mochary supports the ERA amendment, Morris thinks present laws are adequate.

In Nutley, Sheriff Tom D'Alessio is running as a delegate pledged to Gary Hart; in Belleville, Susan Tartaglia is the other Hart delegate.

Whatever the party of your choice — remember, as American citizens, the right to vote should not be taken lightly. Recently in El Salvador, people went to the polling places dodging sniper bullets from the guns of terrorists. Here in the communities of America, our problem Tuesday is not the bullet, but lack of a ballot.

Memorial Day is just a short memory day away. The Unknown Soldier of the Vietnam War was buried in Arlington Memorial Cemetery. The ceremony touched a patriotic chord of all Americans throughout the land. The Unknown Soldier will have died in vain if we fail to do our part to preserve our democratic ways — and all we are being asked to do is cast a vote Tuesday. Will you be among those that will rise the patriotic challenge? Wednesday, let it not be said that you were among the 75 percent that failed to vote.

75 Years Young

Holy Family Church recently celebrated its 75th anniversary with a special Jubilee Mass. The church complex remains as a living monument to the determination of one man who made things happen — the late Msgr. Anthony DiLuca. His outstanding work was continued by its present pastor, Father Francis Blake.

Holy Family has contributed much to the sister communities of Belleville and Nutley. Beginning with 1909, it was a religious home for Italian immigrants residing in North Belleville and South Nutley. During the Depression years, Msgr. DiLuca would park his auto and walk the streets, blessing the individual homes and seeking spiritual and financial support.

Holy Family was looked upon as an "Italian" church — so much so that we can recall the occasion when we lived on St. Mary's Place, and the neighborhood priest suggested to us that we should attend Mass at the church where we "belong" instead of St. Mary's Church down the street.

As a child of 12, I didn't quite understand the ethnic division within the Catholic Church. With maturity and hind sight, we understood what the priest that day was trying to tell us.

Holy Family Church and School, pastors, nuns and lay people have combined to make the communities of Nutley and Belleville better places in which to live and work.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we salute Holy Family Church on the 75th anniversary — especially Father Blake and his able staff who have continued the good work begun by their predecessors — and especially Msgr. Anthony DiLuca.

Letters in Print

Teachers Respond: 'We Care!'

To the editor:
In response to "Name Withheld," whose letter appeared in the April 24 edition of the Belleville Times, I would like to set forth several points of information.

•Do teachers really care? Of course we care; and it is ridiculous to assume that teachers are leaving children unsupervised when they enter and leave the premises with the children. Children are receiving on-the-spot, escorted supervision.

•Are we concerned with our contracts? Of course we are. Teachers are parents, too; and it would be irresponsible not to be concerned with our abilities to provide for our children and families.

•As to present salaries, let us set the record straight: a Belleville teacher's average salary is next-to-the-last position in relationship to salaries in 21 other Essex County districts. Certainly Belleville should not be proud of this distinction.

A starting salary of $14,250 for a "new teachers with no past experience, just out of school" is at what price? $20,000 to $40,000 for tuition for four years (and loss of earning power during those four years.)

Compare this salary with starting salaries being offered high school graduates with no professional training ($15,300, working for the School Board).

Compare this salary with any other professional salary for college graduates.

Compare this salary with other public employees' salaries in Belleville.

Compare this salary with the Governor's recommended starting salary for teachers of $18,500.

•Yes, the top pay is $30,900. "Name Withheld" fails to inform the readers that it takes a teacher six years of college preparation (MA degree, plus doctoral equivalency, at an additional cost of about $13,000, minimum) and 19 years to reach that magic number.

Once again, let the writer compare this with the five years it takes Belleville Public Safety employees to reach their maximum salaries (about $25,500).

•One hundred eighty days of work? Why does "Name Withheld" think that the School Board is so upset that teachers are withholding service for "after-school activities, volunteer jobs such as workshops for curriculum, meetings and graduation?" How many of these "volunteer" jobs have teachers been performing for all these years, only to be taken for granted and taken advantage of by public and School Board? Teachers oversee clubs, work on curriculum development and Middle States Evaluation preparations, attend faculty meetings before and after school hours, are advisors and directors of plays and programs at all grade levels, hold evening parent-teacher conferences, attend workshops and instructional council meetings, participate in various study committees. Yes, and supervise the graduation ceremonies.

•As to our salary requests: teachers are definitely not requesting a 15 percent salary increase for the coming year. Teachers are requesting an equitable contract which will place Belleville in a competitive position relative to other neighboring communities.

While "Name Withheld" exhibits a laudable interest in the schools, the figures bandied about are extremely misleading, and even inaccurate.

Perhaps the recent commendation from County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Elena Scambio, should also be considered. In a report on the Belleville Schools resulting in five years' continued accreditation, Dr. Scambio said, "Good things are happening in Belleville." Who is responsible for those good things happening? Teachers. Do teachers care?

I was proud to be a teacher in Belleville on hearing these words in public meeting. Let us hope the citizens of Belleville are also proud.

Class Reunion

To the editor:

Plans for our second class reunion (Belleville High School 1934) in 50 years are rapidly taking shape. However, in order to make this affair a huge success, we will need each member's cooperation.

We are still trying to locate some of our classmates. If you know the address of anyone on the attached list, please pass this information along so that we may contact him or her.

Naturally, we are hoping that everyone will be able to attend, but we must have a general idea of how many we can plan on in order to make reservations. We want you to come alone, with wife, with husband, bring a friend or a guest. In other words, we want you to come.

The class reunion will be held this year.

Sincerely,

Risoli's Comments are Disputed

To the editor:

In regard to last week's Belleville Times, I would like to comment on a few of the statements made by Mr. Risoli regarding the appointment of Carol Russo to the welfare director's job.

First of all, it is my understanding that Mrs. O'Toole resigned as welfare director in March 1984. I also am under the impression that Mr. Ippolito resigned in March 1984. The fact that Mr. Risoli stated Mr. Ippolito resigned in January 1984 seems highly irregular.

Maybe Mr. Risoli doesn't have the facts straight!

Mr. Risoli stated that Mr. Ippolito left the department vacant while one employee was out sick and one was on vacation. I checked the records and this also was not true. The Department of Welfare was never left vacant during the month of January 1984. It appears Mr. Risoli was looking for an excuse as to why he did not vote for Mr. Ippolito. Well, if he felt he should not have voted for Mr. Ippolito that was fine, but why did he make up such stories to justify his vote?

What about the other 11 candidates? I understand there were candidates with college degrees and other candidates with many years of experience in social service delivery. Why were they bypassed in favor of Mrs. Russo who had no experience and no college degree? Why didn't Mr. Risoli have any comments on that and why did he rule out all the other candidates?

Times Praised For Job Well Done

To the editor:

The excellent coverage by The Belleville Times into the nature surrounding the welfare director's position has opened many people's eyes to the inner workings of politics in the Department of Public Affairs. Many people are very much aware of the situation that has occurred regarding the welfare director's position. It is safe to say that the issue is pure and simple politics.

Carol Russo was appointed welfare director not based on qualifications such as a college degree in a field related to that position because she doesn't possess a college degree. She was not appointed for her experience in the field because she has none, nor does she have any experience in public administration. She was appointed because she served as campaign manager for Commissioner Pizzi.

I think the message is loud and clear. I also think the controversy has ended for all intent and purposes, but thanks to the excellent coverage by the staff of The Belleville Times, the people of Belleville were given first-hand exposure to the inner workings of politics.

Thank you.

Strumolo's Defeat Hard to Take

To the editor:

As a retired citizen, my only interest in any election is to protect the people against future rip offs. I was disappointed in the outcome of the special election. Mr. Strumolo was the target of outside politicians who are trying hard to get control of the town. He was a gift from heaven and should have been elected on his record. Some commissioners and their machines, and some board members, gave Mr. Strumolo the business that was a tough combination to beat, some of them work for the county. It could have been a different ball game if the 10,000 people who stood away from the polls came out to vote.

If the county wants to build a new police station on Franklin Avenue to protect county property, that's fine with me. Let them pay for it and hire county police. I do not favor high-rise buildings in Silver Lake or the Valley. They are government-controlled and pay no taxes. We must not let that happen; our taxes would double. Office buildings are something else. They will not increase the school population. The 24-point increase in the tax rate was created by the School Board in three years. It increased the school budget over $6 million. Now that the election is over, I hope those in power will work together for the good of the town and the people.

It is no disgrace to lose by 169 votes fighting both political machines. Their conditions do not happen in the town of Nutley. The town is well managed and rated triple A in my book. No one can serve two masters without hurting the people.

More on Tax Council

To the editor:

In response to the letter where Mr. Veneziano alluded to the fact that the Citizens Tax Council was instrumental in bringing down the taxes in this town, I certainly want to say that I, too, was convinced that you guys were really serious. So when the hat was passed I made what I consider a generous contribution. Then I suddenly remembered much to my dismay, that you guys were peddling the same hot air when you were in the Citizen Tax Union. You know, you guys missed your vocation. You would have been actors.

As the woman pointed out in the letter, "Hey Jackie Rega, as a customer selling you lemon ice, pumpkins, Christmas trees, flowers, etc., which you seem to be doing very well at, and didn't go around supporting these characters. Come on Jackie, please wise up, okay?"

Sincerely yours,
Janet Tuosto

Golden Comments

By James Golden

Two years ago a task force headed by State Supreme Court Justice Robert Clifford recommended that jury duty be shortened, a step the Courts is now undertaking, it also urged abolishment of automatic exemption from jury duty on an occupational basis.

Presently the list of occupation exemptions included doctors, lawyers, police and volunteer firemen, hospital workers, dentists, teachers, soldiers, state lawmakers, full-time custodians of young children, corrections officers, state social workers, fish and game wardens and telephone operators and linemen.

Recently two bills released by the Senate Judiciary Committee would abolish exemptions from jury duty for doctors, lawyers and a score of other workers. The reimbursement for jurors would be increased to $10 a day, up from $5, but with no mileage allowance which is now 2 cents a mile.

A companion bill by Senator Donald DiFrancesco (R-Union) would have senior citizens up to the age of 75 subject to jury duty and provides for a fine of up to $1,000 should anyone fail to appear when summoned by being held in contempt of court.

In recognition of the federal court regulations pertaining to jury duty, the reimbursement is $30 per day and the age limit is 70 years of age which makes raising the state maximum age for eligibility for jury duty up to seventy five years of age absurd.

What 70 year old person or older should be subjected to the hassle of a daily rip to Newark or Paterson that would cost them at least $2.50 a day for a round trip bus fare, out of the $10 a day reimbursement?

Local municipalities and their taxpayers will be hurt if their police and fire personnel and teachers are to be called for jury duty. They will have to be paid while their replacements also must be paid, some possible at overtime rate.

Perhaps some of the now exempt occupations should be eliminated, however, it is not sequitur to assume that doctors and lawyers, police and fire personnel and teachers should be removed from the jury exemption privilege they now hold.

Senator John Russo (D-Ocean) abstained from voting on both bills, he like DiFrancesco is a lawyer. He said commenting upon jury service for lawyers, "That sounds great in theory, no lawyer's ever going to sit on a jury."

Senator Russo explained that "generally" a lawyer, especially one who does a lot of trial work, will be excused because he knows the lawyers trying the case or because one side or the other does not want him on the jury. "Why even make him show up at the courthouse?"

DiFrancesco repudiated that may be true of trial lawyers, but, "There are many lawyers who never go to the courthouse" and should not be exempted from jury duty.

The culling of jurors from both the voter registration lists and the auto driver license lists should provide a plentiful supply of eligible jurors to fill the court room panels. With the increasing number of our young people reaching voting age and registering to vote and who are driving cars, the volume of potential jurors should be limitless.

If our state law makers are looking to improve the state regulations affecting jury selecting policy they might look to the more realistic approach of the federal jury system both in the manner of jury service reimbursement and the age limitation of eligibility of its jurors.

For the aged citizen subsisting on social security benefits alone, the trip from Belleville or Nutley to the County courthouse in Newark by bus, the cheapest mode of travel, amounts to better than $2.50 each day, add on the price of a luncheon meal of $3.50 and the total of $6 out of the $10 reimbursement leaves a modest $4 for this time consuming day...hardly a reasonable recompense for a day's work plus the inconvenience inherent in the travel.

Perhaps our Trenton solons will give some weighty consideration to the problems these seniors among our population would be confronted with by being called for jury duty beyond the age of 70...the age limitation for jury duty set by the federal court regulations.

Carol Russo Can Do the Job

The letters commenting on Carol Russo's appointment as director of welfare, just keep coming in.

It has been quite awhile since The Times has received so much public response involving a single issue such as this — and all of it negative.

I believe that the people who are writing these letters are not directing their anger and frustration on Mrs. Russo, but instead on Commissioner Michael Pizzi and the way he handled the situation. The entire matter had political undertones written all over it.

I have known Mrs. Russo for several years and she is, without a doubt, a charming and intelligent woman. And while she may not have been the most qualified candidate in terms of educational background, Carol Russo possesses a quality which I believe is going to make her an outstanding welfare director. It is a quality which is not found in many people today. Carol Russo has heart. She is also determined to do the job and do it well, despite all the negative publicity which has surrounded her appointment.

And throughout the entire matter, Carol did not complain once about the treatment she was receiving from the press or public. She just continued to quietly do her job. And that right there has to show you something about the lady.

We, along with many others, wish Carol the best of luck in her new post. And we are sure that she will make the welfare department in this community one of the most efficient in the county.

The figures released by the Attorney General's Office last week, stating that fewer high school students are smoking marijuana than three years ago, are very encouraging, but there is still a long way to go in the combat against drug abuse in this country.

For example, the survey also showed that more students are experimenting with illegal drugs. And anytime a student tries drugs, there is a chance that he or she will continue to use them.

The statistic which I found the most interesting was one about alcohol. The survey showed a significant decrease in the percentage of students who drink alcoholic beverages on a regular basis. The percentage of students reporting regular use of alcohol — 10 times or more within the previous month — dropped from 21.6 percent in 1980 to 17.5 percent. That seems to be a drastic decrease, especially when we keep hearing that kids are using alcohol more and more.

Let's just hope that these stats continue to decline throughout the years.

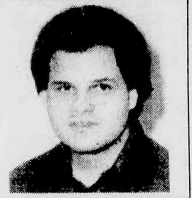

Get out your pens and fancy stationery. If the events of last week are a sign of things to come, it will be cheaper for us to write letters than make phone calls.

Well, not really. But N.J. Bell customers will be paying more thanks to a series of decisions handed down last week by the Board of Public Utilities.

It will cost the consumer an average 30 cents more per month in his phone bill for making local calls, while calling local assistance will cost a dime after just five calls. N.J. Bell was also given the okay to hike the rates for installing new equipment and maintenance charges. Altogether, the hikes will bring the phone company an additional $46.6 million increase in annual revenues.

That's not too shabby, is it?

The answer to last week's Trivial Pursuit question: "What was Beaver Cleaver's teacher's name?" Miss Landers. The question this week is from the category of sports and leisure: "What is the most popular cocktail in the U.S.?"

'Make Today Count' Groups Meet at Two Local Hospitals

"Make Today Count" is a discussion group for patients with cancer and other life threatening diseases and their families. Two groups meet regularly in the Nutley-Belleville area. Both are free of charge, open to all and require no advance registration. The group at Clara Maass Medical Center meets each Monday evening from 7 to 9 on the third floor of the Continuing Care Center. The Mountainside group meets every Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Radiation Therapy Department.

"Our purpose is to give patients and families a chance to talk about their experiences, gain and share knowledge and support and learn to deal as effectively as possible with the changes that the diagnosis of cancer causes in their lives," explained Florence McAlvanah, R.N., M.S.N., leader of the Mountainside group. "As the name implies, the emphasis is on taking each day and living it to the fullest."

Besides offering an opportunity for discussion, the group occasionally serves as a forum for experts in areas that are of interest to the members. Physicians, dietitians, social workers, clergy members and others have addressed the group during the past year.

"We consider this group to be an important part of our comprehensive cancer program at Mountainside," said Mary Manigan, R.N., oncology coordinator at the hospital who was instrumental in forming the group and has served as group leader. "Many of the people who have come to our meetings express the feeling that just hearing from others with similar experiences helps a great deal," said Mrs. McAlvanah.

Quit Smoking Program Set At Clara Maass

Talbot, communications chairman.

Umberto's Corner

Dear Umberto

My mother has grey hair and she doesn't like it anymore. She decided to be brown so she went to a beauty salon to dye it brown and it didn't take. Her hair was messy grey. She went to another place and the color still didn't take. When she went to the drug store she bought brown coloring. She brought it home for me to do. I told her, "If they don't know what to do in a salon how can I do it?"

Waiting for your answer.

The lady with the blouses mother.

Dear lady,

Let me tell you I know the answer! The reason why the color didn't take is because your mother has very light grey hair. It is very hard to color it but I'll tell you one of my secrets how to color it when the hair is stubborn. I see your mother wants to color it brown. Take the color that she chose, mix it with peroxide take a teaspoon of ammonia and put it in the color, mix well. Do not let it go into the eyes, ears, and facial areas. This mixture will work. She will be very proud of you because you did something that the other hairdressers couldn't do.

Yours Truly,
Umberto

School 7 Kids Journey to Poconos

Fifth and sixth graders of School 7 participated in an overnight trip to the Pocono Environmental Education Center in Dingman's Ferry, Pennsylvania on May 8 and 9. The children, 123 in all, were accompanied by 30 parents and eight teachers.

The excitement of the trip began immediately upon arrival at the center as the students engaged in an action socialization experience. This activity was designed to foster reliance on group effort in the efficient solution of problem situations.

As the daily schedules unfolded, the children took part in activities which were both educational and entertaining. Mrs. Cathy Chirico and Mrs. Carol Ferrise, School 7 teachers of the academically talented, conducted a session in nature arts and crafts. This session provided opportunities for the children to explore nature and to create artistic projects from natural material.

Dennis Villano, science teacher, and Miss Anne Aulisi, physical education teacher, took the students on a nature hike. This activity led to the exploration of fossil formation and an investigation of erosion and ecological relationships.

Instruction on the use of a compass was presented by R. Hanos, a School 7 parent, who was assisted by a PEEC staff member. The students had a fine time depending on their compasses for a safe return from the "wild."

Mrs. Marie Kimble, fifth grade teacher, worked with the students on a study of forest ecology. The study led to the identification of trees, collection of natural objects, and the creation of Haiku poetry about nature's marvels.

Miss Diane Simone, librarian, introduced students to meteorology through observation and experimentation. Part of the experience dealt with the history and use of weather instruments.

Mrs. Angela Immediato, fifth grade teacher of the academically talented, taught a lesson on animal identification. Following and identifying animal tracks and learning about animal habits made for an exciting, long to be remembered experience.

Mr. Louis De Lia, sixth grade teacher, led a group of children on a sensory trail. This activity was designed to have participants read the landscape via their senses of touch and smell.

Blindfolds prevented the use of the sense of sight.

Children, teachers, and parents gathered together in the evening to socialize. They engaged in sing-a-long activities and square dancing.

The primary goal of the trip to PEEC was to develop, within the children, an awareness of and a concern for the environment. The goal was met as was the establishment of special friendships, the accomplishment of learning, and the acquisition of lasting memories.

'So That's Where Tires Come From' — Mrs. Patricia Taibi, a parent at School 7, watches as her group of sixth-grade boys work at solving one of the tasks in the action socialization experience.

A Long Day Ahead — A group of fifth-grade boys from School 7 gathered in the orientation room of the Pocono Environmental Education Center, to begin the day's activities. One hundred and twenty-three children went on the trip.

Everybody Ready? — Mrs. Christine Bonacorsa, a School 7 parent, prepares the girls in her group for an outdoor activity at the Pocono Environmental Education Center. All the kids had a wonderful time on the special trip.

We Had Fun — Thomas Spillane, a School 7 parent, and former member of the School Board, reads his group for the action socialization experience in the Poconos.

Decision Needed By June 15

Belleville Officials Want to Study Army Corps' Flood Control Proposal

Belleville officials voiced mixed reactions last week to proposals by state and army engineers to construct flood tunnels through neighboring Nutley to ease the flooding problems of North Jersey.

"It was all very vague," said Public Works Commissioner Joseph Grande who attended a May 16 public hearing on the plan in Nutley.

"I can understand trying to help the situation up in Wayne, but I don't want to see that problem solved and a new one created for communities downstream," Grande said.

He referred to the proposal made by the Army Corps of Engineers to build a tunnel, about the size of the Lincoln Tunnel, that would carry flood waters from the Passaic River basin's badly affected northern communities, such as Wayne, to the Passaic River at the Nutley-Clifton border.

Army engineers and members of the state Department of Environmental Protection presented four alternative plans at the session.

Cub Scout Pack 350 Inducts New Members

Cub Scout Pack 350, sponsored by the Fewsmith Church, held induction ceremonies at its recent pack meeting.

Three Tiger Cubs, Keith Dvoric, Michael Idenden and Donald Taylor, were inducted into Cub Scouts in a ceremony at which they were presented with their Cub Scout neckerchief by Cubmaster Bill Hands and Tom Fowles, Tiger Cub coordinator.

The Tiger Cubs is a pre-Cub Scout organization for second grade boys and an adult partner.

Cub Scouts Jesse Fantacone

and Brian Salmon "crossed the bridge" into Webelos during a ceremony where they leave their cub den behind and progress upward to the Webelos. At this time they exchange their neckerchief for the plaid of Webelos.

Rev. Pascale; Succumbs, 91

In the first years of his ministry, Rev. Pascale met and courted Rachel Corbo. They were wed in 1918. She stood by him until her death in 1957. Mrs. Alba Brunetto, his daughter, took over the duties of her mother as choir director and organist. His son, Rev. Elmo Pascale, was ordained at the same pulpit where his father had been ordained and is now teaching at Lincoln College in Lincoln, Ill.

Among his many affiliations, Rev. Pascale was a member of the Bloomfield Lodge Mason No. 40, Chaplain of the Belleville Police and Fire Departments, Columbus Hospital, Newark, and Clara Maass Medical Center, Belleville; Day Chaplain in Washington, D.C., for the Senate (1963) and the House of Representatives (1962); and Day Chaplain the State Assembly of New Jersey (1962).

He is survived by a son, Rev. Elmo Pascale of Lincoln, Ill.; a daughter, Alba Brunetto of Bloomfield; a sister, Mrs. Filomena Forgiato, Lawrence, Mass.; and three grandchildren.

but all terminated in the Nutley outlet and called for portions of the tunnel to run underground in Nutley.

Although construction of the multi-million dollar project would not begin before the 1990s, engineers are seeking approval from municipalities in the Passaic River Coalition by June 15.

"Before we say anything, we're going to study this a lot more closely," said Grande, who plans to meet with Nutley Mayor Harry Chenoweth and officials of Lyndhurst, North Arlington and Kearny to discuss the effects such a project could have on the communities bordering on the Passaic.

"We have our own flood problems here," said Grande. "When the river is high tide, water almost comes over. We could have a disaster if they bring more water down here."

Answering questions about local flooding, engineers said a series of levees and flood walls would be erected along the river.

Nutley officials expressed concern at the meeting for the effects tunnel construction might have on the properties of some residents.

Chenoweth also noted that storm drains in the municipality do not function when the Passaic River rises by two to three feet which is the predicted effect the tunnel would have on the water level.

Reacting to the hearings and proposal, Belleville Mayor Michael Marotti said, "It's hard to say at this point what it could mean for the townships down here."

Marotti was more tolerant than Grande of the plan. "I don't think the army would spend so much time to correct one problem and use a plan that will create another one," he said.

The mayor expressed some confidence in the fact that the plans were designed by "expert engineers who know what they are doing."

"Besides," he added, "construction is so far in the future. We don't really know what shape the project will take by then."

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

Recent research indicates a relationship between stress and asthma, arthritis, high blood pressure, ulcers, migraines and hypoglycemia and other ailments. The body's defense against stress puts a load on the pancreas and adrenal glands.

Like all parts of the body, the pancreas and adrenal glands depend on nerve impulses to function properly. If a displaced vertebra pinches certain nerves, the pancreas and adrenal glands may not be able to handle the extra load caused by stress. Poor health results.

Chiropractic, by eliminating nerve interference, often corrects the health problems associated with stress.

Belleville Woman is Named Coast Guard's Official Artist

Julia Schleicher of Belleville is an internationally known portrait painter, among whose commissions are those of many notable persons in the United States and Canada. Her portraits, flower paintings, still lifes and landscapes are in many public and private collections from coast to coast, including museums and corporations, such as AT & T.

She is an active exhibiting member of: the Pastel Society of America (charter member), the Chatharine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club, the National Association of Women Artists, Knickerbocker Artists, the National Art League, the American Artists Professional League, the Art Centre of New Jersey, the Hudson Valley Art Association, and the National League of American Pen Women. She is active as juror of selection and awards in the associations listed above.

Mr. Schleicher, a resident of Belleville for 29 years, is recipient of many awards, including gold medals at countless exhibits, including first award for Portraiture at the Parrish Art Museum, Southampton, N.Y., and first award for Still Life at the Parrish Museum, and the National Arts Club, N.Y.

She has exhibited at the Salmagundi Club and was invited to show six paintings at the Hammond Museum, North Salem, N.Y., in an exhibition honoring distinguished women painters of the last 200 years. She has had many solo shows throughout the country, including Washington, D.C., Rocky Mount, N.C., Westtown, Pa., Massachusetts, Maryland, Toronto, Canada, New Jersey and Georgia, to mention but a few.

She has been invited to present many demonstrations of portraiture at the National Arts Club, the National Academy Galleries, N.Y., Aiken, S.C., Easton, Maryland, and many places in New Jersey.

Mrs. Schleicher is an official artist for the United States Coast Guard.

The brilliant technique of Julia Schleicher offers the viewer a refreshing and rare insight into the subtleties of luminosity, atmosphere and color. Her paintings are reminiscent of the graceful style, elegance and vitality inherent in 18th century paintings.

Julia Schleicher's studio is in Montclair.

Whole Theatre Company Offering Summer Art Training Programs

The Whole Theatre Company's Professional Theatre School in Montclair, one of New Jersey's leading centers for performing arts training, has begun its summer semester. The school offers comprehensive professional multi-level training in acting, dance and voice for children through adults taught by a faculty of practicing professionals.

Acting classes and scene study workshops are available on three levels for both adults and teens. Both beginning and advanced pre-teens can also study acting technique. Dance courses are offered for those who have never danced a step to experienced dancers. Students can choose from modern, jazz, performing workshops, a "sampler" course of jazz, modern, ballet and folk and a class specializing in dance auditioning for the musical theatre. There are also dance classes designed for 5-7-year-olds and 8-10-year-olds. The theatre school's voice department trains students in complete vocal technique and song performance in both "Musical Theatre Workshop I" and its "Musical Theatre for the Young Singer," for ages 11-15.

Exciting and innovative workshops are an integral part of the Whole Theatre Company's Professional Theatre School. The school introduces students to such unique workshops as the dance-intensive summerdance workshop for ages 12-17 and the Children's Creative Arts Workshop, where children ages 6-11 explore various avenues of the dramatic arts. The workshop also offers an extended day option, under the supervision of an aide. There are special improvisational performing workshops, mime workshops, classes instructing actors in the art of auditioning for the theatre and musical theatre and classes which introduce actors to universal movement principles to help them move with confidence on stage. Older teenagers and adults will enjoy "N.Y. Theatre and N.J. Film" — a medley of four Broadway and Off-Broadway shows and four classic films to brighten summer weeks. The new "Creating a Play" is a developmental project with professional performers and students collaborating on Yaffa Eliach's best-selling "Hasidic Tales of the Holocaust."

Registration has begun for the 1984 summer semester. For more information, please call the education department at 744-2996.

Belleville's Past

The Hendricks Family
Copper for America
(1755-1939)

Uriah Hendricks, who pioneered in the copper trade, came to New York in the fall of 1755. Scion of a family of prosperous and devout Jewish merchants, he had completed his apprenticeship in his father's counting house in London where he had shown a particular aptitude for the Colonial trade. Not yet 19 years old, he set up shop on lively Hanover Street, New York City, whose shops extended from Wall Street to Pearl Street.

He sold popular articles at prices that attracted the fashionable New York gentry, such as inexpensive jewelry, trinkets and select dry goods. Gradually "looking glasses," clocks that strikes every half-hour, repeating watches and goods fit for the season were added to his small stock. His main source of supply was from his father in London. Aaron Hendricks kept his son informed of the fluctuations of the English market. Uriah in return advised his father of American needs.

A sutler is a person who follows an army or lives in a garrison town and sells provisions to the soldiers. The fighting between the French and the English for supremacy over the colonies, fired Hendricks' imagination.

At the Hanover Street shop he made up the loads of goods, filled the casks and packed the bundles that were sent up the river to Albany, reloaded and hauled by ox carts inland. He felt a deep personal concern for his friends, the safety of his goods and the progress of the conflict. Indian massacres imperiled the lines of the sutlers, whose pack trains were frequently pillaged. Inevitably the brisk trade at the outposts came to an end and because of the constant danger from both Indians and white marauders, backwoodsmen themselves sought safety within the army forts.

Benjamin Lyon, one of Hendricks' ship companions to America and a sutler, was at Fort Henry and another sutler, Manuel Josephson, was at Fort Edward. Josephson witnessed the arrival of the survivors of the Fort Henry massacre, among whom was Benjamin Lyon. In the summer of 1758 Lyon was captured by the French on his way to the British camp at Lake George. About the same time, Lyon's partner, Gerson Levy, Hendricks' other ship companion, was captured by the Indians. Lyon managed to slip through the French cordon and Levy escaped from the Indians. Both stuck to their hazardous trade throughout the French and Indian War. Manuel Josephson, having encountered the survivors of one Indian massacre, thereafter preferred the safety of the city. He took up shopkeeping near the slip-market where Hendricks first entered business and the two men renewed a friendship that lasted their entire lives.

Board Administrator Hands in Resignation

Ed Capparucci

The Board of Education has accepted the resignation of Gerard Gruenfelder, board secretary-business administrator, effective May 25, after failing to work out a comprising work schedule.

Gruenfelder, whose contract was scheduled to expire at the end of next month, handed in his resignation during a special meeting of the board last Wednesday evening. He has accepted a similar post with the East Orange Board of Education.

According to Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello, Gruenfelder had originally agreed to remain in Belleville until his contract ran out. But the School Board and former secretary could not come to terms on a work schedule which would have allowed Gruenfelder to go to East Orange one or two days a week to get organized in his new surroundings.

"The board accepting his resignation was more of an accommodation to Jerry and the East Orange School Board," said Nardiello. "They (East Orange) need him badly and the board in its wisdom decided to let him go. He couldn't handle doing both jobs at the same time, it was just too much."

But according several board members, Gruenfelder had been spending time at the East Orange board offices when he should have been working in Belleville.

"It seems that he was taking two- and three-hour lunches and going over to East Orange to do some work over there, while he was getting paid on our time," one trustee said. "What happened was that a board member was looking for him one day and he was no where to be found. So we decided to let him leave early. We did not need the situation the way it was."

Christ Church Flea Market Set For June 9

The Christ Church, located at 393 Washington Ave., will hold its annual flea market on the front lawn of the church Saturday, June 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The rain date will be June 16.

Dealers from all over New Jersey will be at this annual event and there will be bargains of all kinds. There will also be a 50-50 raffle to be drawn at the close of the flea market.

Anyone interested in taking space at the flea market should call 751-8820 for information and contracts.

Grace Purdue, president of the School Board agreed with the events.

"He (Gruenfelder) wanted to get to East Orange," she said. "We had been negotiating with him to work out a schedule and we gave him one day a week to get familiar with East Orange's system, but he needed his own schedule. So we decided it was best to let him get on his way."

According to Nardiello, the board will start deciding about a replacement for Gruenfelder during the next several weeks.

"The law reads that a school board must have a board secretary at all times," he said. "So for the present time I will take over the business aspect, and Ed Appleton, will serve the secretary post."

"The board has not begun to discuss a possible replacement for Jerry, but I assume the topic will come up in a week or so," he continued.

Appleton, who serves as an assistant board secretary, is a strong candidate for the post, once he receives his degree later this summer, according to an inside source.

Gruenfelder, who served with the Belleville board for the past two years, has recruited by the county's Department of Education to take over the East Orange post. That school system has been plagued with financial problems and board corruption.

Let Saint Peter's College Make a Unique Difference in Your Graduate Education this Summer

A typical dictionary definition of the word "unique" is "that which is without like or equal, unmatched, rare." And if you would look carefully at many college advertisements, you would probably see that at least some of them claim that they are indeed unique.

At Saint Peter's College, we don't really claim to be unique, but we do think that we are rather special. Our Graduate Program in Education is staffed by sensible, realistic, experienced professionals who take the time to sit and talk with students on an individual basis. We'll discuss your career goals and match our classes to them. That way, you know that you are getting that special attention that will lead to your satisfaction and your career goals.

Our Graduate Program in Computer Science for Educators is the only one of its kind in the state of New Jersey. That might qualify us as unique, but we would rather call ourselves just a little special and maybe a step ahead of the rest of the pack. We hope that you'll give us a call and then we can tell you how special we really are.

Besides our program in Computer Science, we offer Degree Programs in Administration and Supervision, Reading Specialist, Teacher of Math Certification and other Certification Programs.

Girls' Junior Four Wins Championship

Two years ago, Sam Giuffrida stood on the dock at St. Andrew's School in Middletown, Delaware, and watched as a girls' junior eight boat, made up of six freshmen, one sophomore and one junior, won a national title in the junior division.

"I thought that after we won that title, nothing could match that feeling," Giuffrida remembered. "Last weekend, that feeling was matched, and then some."

Last weekend, Giuffrida stood on the same dock and watched his girls' junior four boat, made up of the same athletes who won a title two years ago, win a second national championship, in powering fashion, over runner-up Upper Merion High School.

"I'll tell you something," said Giuffrida, "the first one was something else. I'll never forget it. But the second one, well that was unbelievable. To come back and win it again is very special, especially after we missed out last season."

In 1983, with a great deal of pressure bestowed upon them, the Belleville girls finished third in the nationals, by far a tremendous feat, but for those dedicated athletes, third was not good enough.

"I never thought we would win one National Championship, now we have two," said Giuffrida. "It's such a special feeling, the main thing is that the girls earned it. It was a total team effort, I'm very happy for them."

The names are becoming quite familiar and more and more have become synonymous with success. At bow is Stephanie Aiello, Jackie Mele occupies the second post, Maureen Russo is at the number three position, Diane Black is at stroke and the coxswain is senior Elena Gilday. Only Gilday is a newcomer to the National Championship. In 1982, the coxswain was Donna Marinelli.

Aiello, Mele, Russo and Black are all juniors and will come back in 1985 with the same feeling that followed them in 1983, can they win another title. At this point, however, I don't think anyone cares. "We laid low in the finals this year," said Giuffrida. "The girls rowed a tremendous race, we won our qualifying race and in the finals, we won going away. We never trailed and finished three seconds ahead of Upper Merion in open water."

Defeating Upper Merion was a big lift for the girls because they had a constant battle with the Philadelphia school all season long. Another strong nemesis, Nudley High School, placed a very respectable fourth in the nationals. Needless to say, the boathouse situated across the street from the Arlington Diner was very well represented this spring at Delaware.

The season is not over for the girls. With arrangements still in the works, Belleville has been invited to Ontario, Canada to compete in the Canadian Nationals this weekend. "That would be a tremendous experience," said Giuffrida. "There will be boats from Vancouver, British Columbia, Quebec and other provinces racing there. As far as I know, we'll be one of the few teams from the United States at the nationals, although I'm sure we'll see other American boats there. It should be a very big event."

To win a National Championship is quite an honor. To have such an honor

BUC SHOTS

By Michael Lamberti

Sports Editor

bestowed upon a team twice in three years is something that will go down in the annals of Belleville sports as one of the greatest achievements in school history. Congratulations is not nearly enough, but in this case, it will have to do. To Sam Giuffrida, all his coaches, to all the members of the boys' and girls' crew teams, you are the toast of the town and have once more, given everyone a chance to celebrate. We should all be very proud of the young athletes who make up our thriving township. Without them, and their exuberance, it wouldn't be the fine township it is today.

The girls' crew team was not the only boat which did a super job in the nationals. The boys' junior four and the boys' lightweight four also competed at Delaware and came through with solid performances. The boys' junior four, consisting of Mark Walden, John Apicella, Bob Charles, Steve Linfante and Mike Giuffrida, just missed out on the finals.

The boys placed third in their qualifying heat and unfortunately, only the top two boats make the final race. Belleville went on to the petite finals and did a stellar job. "That boat deserves a great deal of credit," said Giuffrida, referring to its 33-17 mark this year. "Its final race and the girls' final race were minutes apart and the boys gave up their shell so the girls could use it in the finals. The boys used our other shell, which is a little older. It was a very courageous thing to do and just shows the class our boys have."

The lightweight four, which was hit with injuries, also missed out on the finals, but did a good job in the petite finals. That boat, consisting of Andrew Colaninno, Dave Siletti, Rick Albanese, Bob Ferucci and Dennis Ives, lost two of its top rowers to injuries. Steve Pisaro suffered an eye and mouth infection and had to miss the nationals while Dave Siletti had an injured hand that required about 45 stitches to heal. Siletti competed in the nationals but was not 100 percent.

"It was a super season for everyone," said Giuffrida. "I can't say enough about all the kids. It's just a great feeling."

The Belleville High School athlete of the week goes to, who else, everyone involved with the Belleville crew program.

Next week, the Belleville High School athlete of the month for May will be profiled. We're winding down on the school year with the year-end stories rapidly approaching.

Congratulations also goes out to the girls' softball team on reaching the county finals for the third straight season. The girls hone for an unprecedented third straight title went by the boards as Cedar Grove posted an 8-5 victory. Nonetheless, Belleville is 22-3 and is now gunning for an NNJIL Division II crown and a shot at the Group IV, Section II title. Good luck to the girls on in their quest for additional honors.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, name the starting infield from the 1981 Belleville GNT championship team. The answer: Eugene Canelliere played at first, Frank Fazzini at second, Ken Constantino at shortstop and Joe Corbali at third. Phil Cerza was the catcher. Glen Ridge scored the first run of the game, but Belleville won, 10-4.

For this week's quiz, in the National Hockey League, only five teams have won the Stanley Cup over the last 17 seasons. Can you name those five teams, the years they won the cup and the teams they defeated to win the championship?

Cedar Grove Upsets Buccanettes in County Tourney

Third Straight County Title Eludes Girls

By Mark Foley

In spite of an inspiring comeback in the bottom of the seventh inning, Belleville was unable to overturn Cedar Grove as the Panthers captured the 1984 Essex County Championship, 8-5, last Sunday night in Bloomfield. The Buccanettes did advance in the state tournament last week, however, and also retain a shot for the conference title.

"We had an opportunity for our third county title," said coach Carl Corino, "but we didn't play up to our game. That had to be one of our worst games all year, as defensive mistakes go. When you play a team of Cedar Grove's caliber, you can't expect to win when you make the mistakes we did."

The two most costly errors came in the second inning as Cedar Grove went from a 1-0 to a 4-0 lead. The winning runs came in the third when winning pitcher Lori Schmitt knocked in one with a sacrifice fly and Kristen Petersen stole home during a play at first.

The top-seeded Buccanettes began the road back in the bottom of the third when Donna Brooks reached on an error and Cheryl Marion walked. Tracy Buono followed with a grounder to the shortstop who threw to second for the force out. But Marion beat the throw and, as the defense argued the play, Brooks raced home to score and Marion moved to third on the throw to the plate. Desiree Johansen also grounded to short, and although Cedar Grove was able to set the force out, Buono's hard slide prevented a relay and Marion scored to cut the deficit to four.

Belleville continued to chip away in the fourth when Brooks drove home Laura Caruso with an opposite-field triple to make it a 6-3 ball game. But the Panthers pulled back to a five-run lead behind a triple by Debbie Borys, a hit that would prove to be very important. The Buccanettes struck back with the runs in the sixth on Buono's single up the middle to remain in contention.

Cheri Tillman led off the bottom of the seventh with a right-field single and, with two outs, Caruso and Sue Schuster walked to put the winning run at the plate and the top of the order at bat. Unfortunately, the miracle was not to be as Schmitt, who struck out four, ended the game on a comebacker to the mound. Belleville's Dina DeAquino struck out six and walked one.

"I was very, very proud of the way we battled back from a 6-0 deficit. That took a lot of heart from our girls," said Corino. "But you've got to give the credit to Cedar Grove who out hit us (10 to 6) and basically played a better game than we did. "But we're not done yet," Corino continued. "Our season is by no means over. We've got a state game with Livingston and a conference game with Ridgewood this week. This will show just what these kids are made of because if we're able to bounce back from this, we can make a run at a conference and a sectional title."

Belleville kept its state hopes alive on Friday, jumping out to a quick 4-0 lead and holding on to win, 4-2, against Morristown. Brooks and Marion scored on singles by Buono and DeAquino, and Tillman knocked in a run with a squeeze bunt. DeAquino brought home the final tally when she stole home.

"Morristown was tough because it had nothing to lose. Livingston's going to be really tough, just like it always is. It's been an outstanding season to date and regardless of what happens, it'll have been a success. We've got a chance, though, to make it all the better."

EXTRA BASES: After the ECT final, Belleville and Cedar Grove had identical 23-3 records. The title was the third for the Panthers, who swept the 1979 and 1980 crowns while putting together a state record 48-game winning streak. Livingston defeated Caldwell, 6-3, in the consolation game. Livingston was scheduled for Tuesday and Ridgewood yesterday, but inclement weather earlier in the week may force both games to be pushed back. The winner of the Belleville-Livingston game will face either Union or Westfield for the North Jersey Section II, Group IV state crown. Belleville and Ridgewood, who are fighting for the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League's Division II title, were each crowned NNJIL champions in last year's two-divisional set-up. Sunday's loss was the first for Livingston in the ECT since May 8, 1981. The loss also ended a record 12-game winning streak for the Buccanettes.

Bucs are Eliminated From State Tourney

In what might have been its final week of action for the 1984 campaign, the Belleville baseball team defeated a strong St. Joseph's squad, downed Morris Knolls, 6-4, in the first round of the state tourney, then were defeated by Livingston, 5-4, in round two of the states last Friday. Belleville is scheduled to play Secaucus this week, but that game may not come off due to Secaucus playing in the state tourney. If the Livingston game was the final game of the season for Belleville, then Ralph La Conte's crew has compiled a very impressive 16-9-2 mark for the season.

In defeating St. Joseph's last week, Belleville finished in a tie for second in the NNJIL Division II, tying St. Joe's and losing out to Ridgewood for the conference crown. Ridgewood posted a 9-1 mark in the conference, with the only loss coming to Belleville last week.

The battle with St. Joe's was a hitter's delight. The Buccanettes came out on top, 12-11, as senior center-fielder John Guarino smacked a three-run homer to highlight a five-run fourth inning at Belleville.

"Along with the Ridgewood game," said head coach Ralph La Conte, "this game has to go down as one of the more exciting contests of the season. We did a good job against a fine hitting team. As a matter of fact, they had to be the best hitting club we saw all season long."

St. Joe's defeated Belleville, 5-3, earlier in the season, so the Buccanettes were hungry for revenge. At first it appeared that revenge would not come. Belleville's was St. Joe's tallied three times in the first inning, but Belleville came back with two in the bottom of the first. Joe Mullaney and Frank Tursi reached base on a single and walk respectively and Anthony Lombardi doubled both home.

St. Joe's, which scored at least one run in every inning, tallied once in the second and Belleville came back with three in its half of the second. A two-run double by Tursi highlighted that spree. The visitors tied the game at five in the third and took an 8-5 lead in the fourth. With the Buccs down by three in the fourth inning, Guarino cracked his first homer of the season to highlight a five-run inning that gave Belleville the lead, 10-8.

St. Joe's came as close as one run, but the strong Belleville bats held their ground and posted a big victory. Sophomore Mark Palumbo gained his fourth victory of the season and Belleville posted out 13 hits on the day in pouncing its league mark to 6-4.

Versus Morris Knolls, the Bucs were victorious in first round, state play. Trailing 4-3 in the sixth inning, Morris Knolls tallied a run to tie matters, but Belleville won it in the seventh when Mario Silvestri, pinch-hitting for Brian Cook, drilled a two-

(Please see "Diamondmen" on page 14.)

Freshman Standout — The Buccanettes' third baseman this season has been freshman Laura Caruso. The girls saw their chances for a third straight county tournament title disappear last week as they lost to Cedar Grove 8-5 in the finals.

Belleville High Tennis Squad Shooting For .500 Campaign

The Belleville tennis team is winding down on a very impressive campaign, with the ultimate goal a .500 season.

The Bucs, who entered the week with a 7-10 mark, hosted Kearny last Friday and hosted St. Joseph's on Tuesday. Tomorrow afternoon, the Bucs close the books on the 1984 season with a match at Paramus Catholic. That match could be the match to decide a .500 season, depending, of course, if Belleville defeated Kearny and St. Joseph's.

In the last two weeks, the Bucs have been involved in some very exciting matches. Belleville added some big victories over conference rivals when they stopped Passaic by a 4-1 count and decimated Hackensack in a 3-2 final. In both matches, the doubles teams were the key to victory and winning within the conference was something that head coach Len D'Armiesto went very pleased about. "Everyone is playing well," the coach praised. "All the kids are psyched, they want to win and are gunning for a .500 season. The matches are really exciting and the team really believes in itself."

An example of the coach's word came in the Passaic match. Just one week ago, Belleville was on the short end of a 3-2 count to the Indians. The second doubles team of Pat Torriello and Joon Hwang lost a tough three-set match and the Bucs went home a little more determined to take the rematch.

"We were ready for them the next week," recalled D'Armiesto. "Everyone was up for a good match and the kids really pulled through."

David Boyd, a senior, was a 6-0, 7-5 winner. After Herb Petrat lost in three sets in the second singles run single, scoring Tursi and John Auriemma.

Against Livingston, Belleville fell behind, 3-1, after one inning, then had to rally to close the gap. "The kids played hard," praised La Conte. "Livingston is a good team, but we stayed with them right to the end. We had a chance to tie in the last inning, but it wasn't meant to be."

The Bucs came as close as 4-3 in the fifth inning as Guarino and Dave Long scored runs following singles, but Livingston added an insurance run in the sixth to take a 5-3 lead entering the seventh. Belleville battled hard, scoring a run when Cook singled home Guarino, but Cook was thrown out trying to advance to second and the rally fizzled there. "I told the boys that one game does not make a season," said La Conte. "We made a lot of strides this season, the team has a lot to be proud of."

senior representative in the Senate. Sen. Bill Bradley, New Jersey's senior senator, is seeking the Democratic nomination in his quest for re-election to the Senate.

Challenging him is Elliot Greenspan, a "stop the war, end depression" campaigner.

Strong contenders for the Republican nomination for senator is Montclair Mayor Mary Mochary. Robert Morris, a regular Republican organization candidate, is also on the ballot.

In one of the more controversial races, Belleville is divided into two different election districts for the Congressional representatives.

Voters in the 8th District, the Silver Lake section, will choose from Democratic contenders Robert Roe or Ronald H. Taylor, Veteran Congressman Peter Rudino is the 10th District's Democratic contender.

Republican candidates include Marguerite Page of the Essex County Republican Organization and William R. Cleveland of the Passaic County Republican Organization.

Voters will also select four nominees for at-large seats on the County Board of Freeholders.

Incumbents Jerome Greco, Thomas Giblin and Adrienne Davis are joined by Cardell Cooper on the party organization line for the Democratic nomination.

Republican organization candidates are Samuel Angelo, Charles Cumminas, Bernice Davis and John P. Collines.

People-to-People Service

"With your help I can read your meter even when you're not at home."

Pat Murch, Meter Reader

Then we can send you exact bills each month.

We know you can't always be home when the meter reader calls. So we've come up with some suggestions that will enable us to read your meter when you're not there. They're convenient, simple and safe.

Four ways you can "beat" the averages

1. If only your gas meter is inside, we can install a remote gas meter reading device. This way your meter can be read from outside your home. For most customers, there is a one-time charge of $60.00 plus tax for the equipment, but no service charge for installation.
2. We can give you a "dial card" to keep in your home. If you know you are not going to be home on a scheduled meter reading date, just set the pointers on the dial card as they show on the meter, and leave it where our meter reader will see it.
3. Another way is to ask for our pre-addressed postpaid "meter reading cards." You can fill one in and mail it to us a few days ahead of your scheduled meter reading date.
4. Leave a key with a neighbor who can let us in, and call in advance to let us know.

We'll help you choose

Our customer service representatives will work with you to choose the best alternative for you. You could call today, in fact, at the number indicated on your bill. Of course, if you can possibly be home when the meter reader comes, all the better. Just check your bill for the next scheduled reading day. Your bill shows if your usage has been averaged. Look for an "A" next to the number in the "Gas Use - Elec. Use" column.

By helping us provide you with accurate billing, we're improving efficiency, and that helps you because it saves money and time for everyone.

That's people-to-people service

Speaking of efficiency, our "Seal-Up and Save" energy conservation messages might help you use energy more wisely. You'll find them with your bill or in your newspapers.

Belleville High School Tennis Squad Shooting For a Winning Campaign

match, brother Jim Petrat put Belleville in front to stay with a 6-4, 4-6, 7-5 victory at third singles.

At first doubles, Henry El-Helw and Jeff Tyther won a tough 1-6, 6-4, 6-2 match to assure a Buc victory and Tortoriello and Hwang, anxious for a little revenge of their own, won 6-4, 6-3, to put the icing on the cake.

One of the biggest victories in school history came at the expense of the Hackensack Comets. Belleville rallied from an early deficit to win, 3-2. At first singles, Boyd was forced to default with a shoulder injury. Herb Petrat and Jim Petrat came back to post big victories in the singles slot to give Belleville a 2-1 lead.

At first doubles, El-Helw and Tyther were on the short end of a three-set match, but the second doubles team of Tyther-Hwang posted a big win and Belleville defeated a strong team from Bergen County.

D'Armento is pleased with the play of his entire squad, especially Jim Petrat, who holds an 11-6 mark. Boyd, who at first singles is doing a super job at 11-5, and the doubles team of Tortoriello-Hwang, which is 9-2. "I think Dave (Boyd) is doing super," said D'Armento. "11-5 against some of the best players in the state says a great deal about his talent. Last year he was blown out of a lot of matches, but this season he is competitive in every match. He's really shown a great deal of improvement."

Certainly a fitting conclusion to 1984 would be to post that elusive .500 season and give the Belleville tennis program a big lift for 1985.

Rec Baseball Action Gets More Exciting

Week three in the Belleville Recreation Men's Wednesday night "A" League was held on May 16. Raising their record to 2-1, the De Bacco Brothers slipped by Burger King (1-2), by a score of 5-3. Remaining undefeated, Rosmore/Hess edged Mr. Dee's Rock Arena (2-1), 6-5. Winning its first game of the year, De Lorenzo Construction defeated Charles Daniels (0-3), 5-3.

Starting double-header action for the remainder of the season in the Belleville Rec Men's Monday "A" League, J & R Insulation (3-2) swept two games by beating Suppa's Bar 9-2 and blanking Suburban Cablevision 10-0. Lifting their record to 4-1, Printing Techniques pasted For Pete's Sake (3-2), 9-3 and then fell to Champion Bumpers (2-3) by a score of 6-5. In the second game, Suppa's Bar (2-3) exploded past For Pete's Sake, 18-8. Champion Bumpers won their second game of the night by turning back Suburban Cable (1-4), 10-4.

The third week of action took place in the Belleville Rec Men's Thursday "B" League on May 17. Sweeping in a double-header, the Red Shingle 2-1, routed Rosebud's Pub, 13-0 and nipped Eastern Molding, 5-3. Eastern Molding 2-1, then bounced back to Shell Campbell Tool, 12-2. Splitting two games, Eastern Sales 1-2, squeezed by Garden State Pet, 7-4, and dropped a decision to Campbell Tool (2-1) by a score of 9-6. Garden State Pet, who remains winless (0-2-1) tied Rosebud's Pub (1-1-1) 5-5.

Knights of Columbus Annual Supper

Knights Honored — Essex County Freeholder Art Clay (c) presents a resolution, passed by the Board of Freeholders, honoring the Belleville Knights of Columbus chapter. Accepting the resolution are: Chairman Frank Corbo (l) and James Kiernan, deputy grand knight.

Scout Donation — Frank Corbo (r) presents Larry Dempsey, scoutmaster of Belleville Boy Scout Troop 364, with a check for $2,600. The Belleville Knights are always running fund-raisers throughout the year, to aid charity organizations and township groups.

Helping Camp Fatima — James Kiernan, deputy grand knight and master of ceremonies at the Knights annual Communion supper, presents a check totaling $5,000 to Sister Ann Domenick and Sister Maryann, for Camp Fatima, a summer camp for retarded children.

Mal Condon President — James Kiernan (l) and Frank Corbo (r), present a check for $1,300 to Richard Akrap, president of Mal Condon Canteen, during the Knights' annual Communion supper held at St. Peter's Church two weeks ago.

The Cooks — Frank Marchesano, his wife, Fran; and Lou Mattia, served as the chefs for the Knights of Columbus annual Communion supper held at St. Peter's Church. More than 200 persons turned out for the event.

Youth Awards — One of the highlights of the dinner, was the presentation of awards to local youths. Giving awards to spelling contest winners were: James Kiernan (l) and Joseph Wolf (r). Accepting the awards are: Elizabeth Petrat, Ann Marie Belnome and Anthony Panullo.

Having a Ball — This table of fellow Knights and their lovely wives, had a wonderful time at the Knights' annual Communion Supper held at St. Peter's Church. More than 200 person attended the big event.

Draws an Extremely Large Turnout

The Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 held its annual communion supper at St. Peter's Church, Saturday, May 19, which was followed with presentation of awards, trophies and plaques. An estimated 200 people attended the ceremonies.

The program commenced when Deputy Grand Knight James Kiernan, who was master of ceremonies, introduced Essex County Freeholder Arthur L. Clay. Freeholder Clay read the following resolution: "Whereas, as every year the Knights of Columbus sponsor a drive to aid mentally retarded and those with learning disabilities and whereas these funds are put to many fine uses such as financial aid to Camp Fatima, a summer camp for retarded children, Mal Condon Canteen, Belleville Boy Scouts. Whereas the activities are just a small part of the many services the Belleville Knights of Columbus provide their community throughout the year including assistance for wheelchair patients in veterans' hospitals, scholarships, student loans to mention just a few. Therefore, be it resolved that the Essex County Board of Freeholders commend the Belleville council for its many fine efforts and worthy endeavors."

Joseph Jarman, insurance representative for the Knights of Columbus, gave a eulogy to Richard A. Fantin, who actively participated in drives to special children and other fine endeavors. Joseph Wolf, youth chairman, awarded trophies to free throw contest winners, Shannon Corris, Rebecca Diaz, Giovanna Malozzi, Harry Burbank, Gene Danchuk and Carmello Rolon. Winners of the spelling bee contest were: Elizabeth Petrat, Ann Marie Belnome and Anthony Panullo.

Past Grand Knight and Former District Deputy John Ryan made mention of the fine work Madeline Kiernan, chairman of the charity ball did.

General Chairman and Past Grand Knight Frank Corbo made presentations to Richard Akrap, president of the Mal Condon Canteen, a check for $1,300; Bernadette Naso, director, Olympic (Special) Committee, $1,300; and Larry Demspey, scoutmaster Troop 364, $2,600. In turn the scoutmaster presented a plaque to K of C Council 835 in appreciation and the final award was presented to Sister Virginia, Mary Ann and Sister Ann Domenick, representing Camp Fatima. The evening was culminated with a fine menu of food, which was prepared for this occasion by Lou Mattia and Fran Marchesano.

The Gang — The officers of the Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 organization, found a moment during the busy evening to take this picture. All the Knights worked hard during the year to raise funds to support the various charity organizations and to show appreciation to the community's youth.

Aiding Special Education — James Kiernan (l) and Frank Corbo (r) present a check to Bernadette Naso, president of the Belleville Special Education Olympics Committee. The Knights made several charity presentations during the evening, as well as giving out awards to children.

Knights' Supportive — Frank Corbo, a former grand knight, (l) and James Kiernan, master of ceremonies of the supper, (r) pose with a member of the Camp Fatima organization, which runs a summer camp for retarded children. For years the Belleville Knights have been helping to support the organization with donations.

RESOLUTION
BELLEVILLE PLANNING BOARD
BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY
RESOLVED BY THE PLANNING BOARD OF THE TOWNSHIP OF
BELLEVILLE, COUNTY OF ESSEX,
STATE OF NEW JERSEY:

WHEREAS, an application has been received for site plan approval and conditional use to construct a small dining area onto the existing Ground Round restaurant which is located in the Parkway Shopping Center Mall complex at 688-738 Washington Avenue;

WHEREAS, the applicant proposes to erect a glass-enclosed dining area at the southwest corner of the existing structure. The dining area will have dimensions of "08'11" in width, length of 38'9" and will contain an area of 423+ sq. ft. Access to the dining area will be via the existing restaurant and a new entranceway fronting Washington Avenue.

WHEREAS, the proposed expansion site is now a sparsely planted area covered with wood chips. There are existing wooden benches to the east of the proposed dining structure which will remain. The benches are used by the senior citizens of Belleville waiting to be picked up by their bus. To the west of the proposed structure is an electric transformer which will remain in place. There is an emergency door and concrete walkway which will be removed. The new door fronting Washington Avenue can act as the new emergency door to the south side of the building.

WHEREAS, the subject property is located in the B-C (High Rise Office Zone).
Restaurants are a conditional use under Article VII of the Zoning Ordinance. The parking capacity for the entire site is 420 spaces, including 259 exterior spaces and 161 within the building.

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that relief requested by the applicant, ELYSIAN DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION (GROUND ROUND), can be granted without substantial detrimment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent and purpose of the site plan ordinance of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT
RESOLVED, that the Planning
Board of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey, on this 12th day of April, 1984, grant the application to ELYSIAN DEVELOP-MENT CORPORATION (GROUND ROUND), with the following conditions:

1. Contingent upon a full review by the Belleville Police & Fire Departments.

2. The finish on the wall of the new structure shall have the same finish as the existing main building.

3. Any signage for the restaurant must come before the Belleville Planning Board for its approval.

4. 36" high concrete filled posts be equally spaced between the two posts shown on the Site Plan reviewed by the Belleville Planning Board.

5. These posts shall be finished with reflective paint.

RESOLUTION
BELLEVILLE PLANNING BOARD
BOARD OF THE TOWNSHIP OF
BELLEVILLE, COUNTY OF ESSEX,
STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
WHEREAS, an application proposes a minor subdivision which involves two existing parcels of land, Lot 33 and 6 in Block 354, Lot 33, which fronts on Hunkle Street, is principally rectangular in shape and contains 6,616 square feet; Lot 6 on Baldwin Place is smaller, containing 2,424 square feet and has a nearly rectangular shape.
Existing on Lot 33 are a 2 1/2 story single family dwelling and a detached garage. Lot 6 contains a two story single family dwelling and a detached garage. Single family uses are admitted in both lots.
WHEREAS, the stated purpose of this subdivision is to enlarge Lot 6 by 2,583.7 square feet and leave Lot 33 with 4,032.3
square feet. The enlarged Lot 6 would contain 6,007.7 square feet and have an 'L' shape.
WHEREAS, the parcel to be subdivided Lot 33, lies within the R-2 zoning district. Since Lot 33 is a one-family parcel, the dimensional requirements of the R-2 zone apply.
WHEREAS, Lot 6 is enlarged
would contain 6,007.7 square feet, thereby bringing the lot into conformance with the R-2A zone requirement of 5,000 square feet. The lot depth would be increased but the existing depth already conforms. Also, the rear setback of the existing garage on Lot 6 would be increased to bring it into conformance with the R-2A zone requirement.

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that need requested by the applicant, EDWARD MES-SNER, can be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent and purpose of the zoning ordinance of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey.
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT
RESOLVED, that the Planning
Board of the Township of Bel-
leville, New Jersey, on this 12th

day of April, 1984, grant the application to EDWARD MESSENER with the following condition which were absent from the original plans:
Key Map
2 Tax Map sheet number
3 Homes of owners of all adjacent parcels within 200 feet
of the subject property
3 Homes of owners of all adjacent parcels within 500 feet
of the subdivision

seven days a week. The Ramundo family thanks you for your continued patronage.

Guide to Dining Out

For Pete's Sake Eat & Drink

For Pete's Sake Eat & Drink, the home of the stuffed deli sandwich.
Pete Vaccaro, proprietor, has made this establishment probably the most popular lounge in this area. Quite different from your average shot & beer place, Pete's surrounds you with a friendly, warm atmosphere offering specials daily and on Tuesdays, his seafood extravaganza featuring shrimp cocktail, fried calamari, shrimp orzo, scungilli salad and a variety of other delicacies to choose from.
All very moderately priced. Dinner specials are offered every evening. Stop by for lunch, dinner or just a sociable drink. We'll be happy to serve you.
