Bethany Lutheran Church Names New Woman Pastor

By Linda Telesco

When life cutted Nancy Moore to a career in music, she said yes. When called to become a schoolteacher, she again said yes. Marriage and motherhood beckoned and her reply again her pastorate, the first of her clerical career, at Bethany Lutheran Church on Jordanon Street.

"I'm very pleased to have been called to Bethany," said the personable pastor last week. "The people here are very friendly and I have high hopes for the congregation."

A direct, lively conversationalist, the clergywoman discussed her new role during an interview at the church's parish house on New Street.

Ordained last May 19, Rev. Moore begins her first full-time pastorate since her graduation from Drew Theological Seminary last year.

Since then, she fulfilled an internship at St. John's Lutheran Church in Summit, received clinical pastoral experience at Overlook Hospital in that community, and served as visiting preacher in a number of Lutheran churches.

"I have always been close to the Lutheran Church," explained Rev. Moore, a Pennsylvania native.

"If the option of becoming a minister had been there when I was younger, I might have considered it then, but that just didn't come about until later," she observed, noting that she always served the church in some capacity during her youth and young adulthood.

An organist and choir director since the age of 15, the former Nancy Schaeffer later worked as a private music teacher, a teacher in the Trenton public school system, and a recreation director in the Philadelphia schools.

"I think my ministry will be a better one because I have lived a little longer and had so many life experiences to look back on," she said, labeling herself a "practical person" who likes to put things into action.

Undoubtedly, the clergywoman feels her experience as a wife and mother of six is an invaluable resource in her ministry.

"Reaching out to youth and helping them to find a positive self image is important to me," she said.

Rev. Moore and her husband William, are the parents of five daughters and 14-year-old son David. A graduate of Beaver College in Pennsylvania, Rev. Moore decided to return to school when all her own children were in school themselves.

"I entered Drew to study the Bible, but I had no specific intention yet of becoming a minister," she said, admitting that although the thought crossed her mind occasionally, she dismissed it, thinking she was "too old" to pursue a new life.

The turning point came when she realized that a terminally ill classmate, who had less time ahead of her by all appearances, was not allowing that to stop her.

"She gave me the courage. That's when I decided to do it," said Rev. Moore.

She has since decided that the ad-

Vow To Fight 'Dirty Deal'

Township Officials Upset Over State's Flood Plan

It may be a swim against the current, but Belleville officials will join a fight against plans to eliminate severe North Jersey flooding by building a tunnel to convey excess waters to the lower Passaic River.

Public Works Commissioner Joseph Grande blasted the $930-million plan which was formally recommended last Tuesday by the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).

"This project will be a burden on the lower Passaic area and I will do everything possible to make sure that we do not get the dirty end of the deal," said Grande.

The commissioner said he met with representatives from other concerned communities which border on the lower Passaic such as Kearny, North Arlington, Lyndhurst and Nutley to discuss opposing the measure.

"We have until June 26 to voice our objections to the project, and I believe we are going to be very vocal about this plan," Grande said.

Opposed communities complain that the plan to construct a 13-mile tunnel as large as the Lincoln Tunnel to draw the devastating flood waters away from ravaged North Jersey will only move the problem to another area.

"It (DEP) is only solving one problem by creating another and it is not fair to the people of Belleville and surrounding communities," said Grande.

He complained that despite several public hearings held on the matter, including one last month at Nutley Municipal Building, the state officials "have been very vague about the entire matter."

After an introduction and a flurry of public hearings last month, the DEP formally presented the plan last week at Wayne Valley High School located in a region that suffers from heavy flooding conditions.

Designed with aid of the Army Corps of Engineers, the tunnel would travel underground through Nutley and carry floodwaters to the Third River, near the Clifton and Nutley border. The waters would eventually pass into the lower Passaic River and carry to Port Newark.

Although the tunnel would not pass into Belleville, local officials worry about the effects of rising water level in the river which has already caused some flooding problems in the Valley and Silver Lake districts.

Although opponents of the plan agree something must be done to ease North Jersey's plight, they hesitate to accept the recommended solution.

The Army Corps has met with ongoing resistance to numerous proposed plans over the past five decades to solve the region's flooding problem, and this alternative appears to be no less controversial.

Trustees Will Discuss Early School Closings

At the request of upset and angry parents, the Board of Education will examine the possibility of closing down schools during extensive heat waves, such as the one experienced in this area last week.

More than 30 parents from the board complex Monday night to express their concern of children learning in classrooms where the temperature reached higher than 90 degrees last week.

"The children are uncomfortable and distracted by the excessive heat in the school buildings," said Eileen Brown, president of the School 8 Home and School Association. "I toured the building with trustee Phil Linfante last Tuesday and found temperatures ranging from 94 to 98 degrees. I believe that this condition

Chester Prosperi Named Democratic Chairman

After 26 years, the Belleville Democratic Party has a new chairman — Chester Prosperi.

Prosperi was elected as the party's new leader last Monday night, taking the place of the late Mary Senatore, who led that position since 1958.

"I am honored and happy to serve the Democratic Party of Belleville as its chairman," said Prosperi, who served 24 years as the township Democratic vice chairman. "Unity is something which the Belleville Democratic Party has always had and now we intend to be even stronger."

"All of the party's officers will play a major role in the organization," he continued. "We will be conducting meetings each month, unlike before when we met only a few times a year. The Democrats have always been strong in this community and I will continue to follow the same policies that Mrs. Mary Senatore did during her years as chairman."

Elected as vice chairman, was Marie A. Gammara, who defeated a challenge by Paula Basso. The final vote was 277-52.

Other officers are: Betty Barr, second ward chairman; Edith DeFeo, first ward chairman; Marleen Meil, secretary; Ruth Zieme, treasurer; and Anthony Natuale, sergeant-at-arms.

There are 48 district leaders which represent the 24 districts in the community.

New Schedule At St. Peter's For Masses

Msr. John M. Byrne, pastor of St. Peter's Church, announced that the impending transfer of associate pastor Rev. Anthony Lionelli and the poor health of visiting priest Rev. Genadius Diez, has compelled the parish to reduce the number of scheduled Masses.

The new schedule is as follows: Saturday, 5:30 a.m.; Sunday, 9, 10:30 a.m., and noon. Daily Masses will be at 7:30 and 9 a.m., Monday through Friday and 8 a.m. on Saturday. The Miraculous Medal Novena Mass will continue on Mondays at 7 p.m.

Msr. Byrne quoted the new Canon Law of the Church which states, "It is not permitted for a priest to celebrate the Eucharist more than once a day except in certain instances when the law permits."

He added, "It looks like the shortage of priestly vocations that we have been talking about has finally come home. I am confident that our people will understand the problems and adjust to the new schedules."

The new Sunday schedule becomes effective June 30 on the new weekday schedule June 25.

Rev. Nancy Moore

was again affirmative. Not surprisingly, when the spirit moved her to forge a new career path in mid-life and study for the ministry, the answer proved positive.

Tel-Med Answers Your Health Questions

What are the seven warning signs of cancer? How does exercise affect your heart? What is Ray's Syndrome?

The answers to these health care questions and many more are just a phone call away on the Clara Maass Medical Center's Tel-Med system.

Tel-Med is a free health information service provided by the medical center for you and your family. You can select from a list of more than 300 tape-recorded messages about a wide variety of health and personal concerns. This service can be done anonymously by dialing 751-7000. When a volunteer operator answers your call, simply request the desired tape either by number or exact title.

"This service is well used," states Holly Bauer, director of volunteer services at Clara Maass. "Since February 1978 when the program first began at Clara Maass, more than 250,000 calls have been logged. On the average, the medical center receives approximately 100 calls a day." Each tape is from one to five minutes long and each has been approved by medical authorities. The tapes are not to be used in an emergency, to decide if you have a health problem, or to replace your doctor.

"We encourage residents to use this free service as often as they like," said Bauer. "First-time callers can better acquaint themselves with Tel-Med by listening to tape 429, 'What Is Tel-Med.'"

The Clara Maass Tel-Med tape library is open 9 a.m.-6 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 10 a.m.-3 p.m. on Saturdays. Tel-Med is closed Sundays and holidays.

Special Education Olympics are Held

The Special Education Parents and Professional Organization (S.E.P.P.O.) held its sixth annual Special Education Olympics recently.

The olympics were once again held at Belleville Senior High School and were greeted with widespread community support and student participation. This year's olympics were under the direction of Mrs. Bernadette Naso and Donald Mintz.

The olympics began with Dr. Anthony P. Chirico making opening remarks and introducing a formidable list of dignitaries who helped out with this event. Dr. Chirico pointed out that the SEPO olympics were somewhat unique in that they included children with differing handicaps. After the introductory comments, the olympians then marched into the gymnasium led by Mrs. Grace Purdue, president of the Board of Education. After the opening procession, a salute to the flag was led by the color guard of Troop 364 under the leadership of Larry Dempsey. After a crisp flag ceremony, the olympians did warm-up exercises led by Mrs. Lydia Salzano from the Michael Marotti Civic Association.

Although strict records are not kept, it is thought that some SEPO Olympic records were probably broken. As each heat of each event was run, the winners were given medals presented by Mayor Marotti, Michael Nardello, superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Grace Purdue. This year further adult participation in the actual athletic events was encouraged. Various volunteers were encouraged to enter some of the events and to compete against other adults. The parent-child event was well received and many parents ran the relay race with their child. Most of the children took some pleasure in seeing their mother or father on the winners' stand along with them. After everyone had built up a huge appetite, the group met at the Traffic Jam restaurant in Belleville where they were treated to a fine luncheon prepared by chefs at the Chandelier. As the olympians departed from the luncheon, most had a renewed interest in sporting competitions and many were thinking about the other olympics — held in Los Angeles during the summer months.

Prayer For Today

We thank Thee, Lord, for the glory of the late days and the excellent face of Thy sun. We thank Thee for good news received. We thank Thee for the pleasures we have enjoyed and for those we have been able to confer. And now, when the clouds gather and the rain impends, permit us not to be cast down; let us not lose the savor of past mercies and past pleasures; but, like the voice of a bird singing in the rain, let grateful memory survive in the hour of darkness.

Flood Problems

One of the proposals for alleviating the recurring flood problem of the Passaic Valley Basin, including much of the lands of Pompton Lakes, Lincoln Park, Fairfield and Wayne, is the construction of a 44-foot diameter tunnel, 13 miles long connecting Wayne with the Passaic River at the Clifton/Nutley border. The Army Corps of Engineers presented seven alternatives to eliminate the flood problem. Four of the alternatives featured construction of tunnels.

The Army Corps of Engineers has been studying the flooding problems since 1936. To this hour, nothing has come of the proposals because no one in New Jersey took the initiative to bite the bullet.

The most severely affected homes that are involved number 100. At the outside, considering the worst case situation, 1500 homes might be involved. An estimated cost to purchase the homes range from $7 million to $110 million. The people of the Valley can't wait until the 1990s for a solution to the flood problems. The answer must be around the corner. The cheapest, quickest answer is the acquisition of those flood-prone properties by the state — a quick buy-out. Additionally, the river channels should be dredged and widened, levees should be built now — and not in the 1990s — upstream in the Wayne area to bring immediate relief to homeowners living on the fringe of the flood-prone area.

We disagree with the tunnel concept. Building levees in the Clifton, Nutley, Belleville, Newark area brings us no comfort. Only Monday of this week the swollen Missouri River in South Dakota and Wisconsin caused extensive flooding that led the Army Corps of Engineers to state that 40 to 50 levees along the Grand River in Missouri had failed or had been overtopped by flood waters. Additionally, a dike broke last Saturday, sending a "wall of water pouring through town." The dike never breached in 40 years, contained at least three big holes. This experience only proves that building levees in the Nutley/Belleville area to protect us from flood waters would place us at the mercy of a bulging Passaic River.

The tunnel concept sounds good on paper, but in the real world, we are convinced it is something we cannot and should not live with.

The giant tunnel to end the Passaic Valley Basin flooding peril should not be accepted by Nutley, Belleville, Newark or New Jersey.

Illegal Immigrants

There are millions of illegal immigrants residing in the United States — how many millions, no one really knows. Congress is considering a bill that would grant amnesty to these millions of illegal aliens.

The alleged reason for changing the Immigration Law is to stem the influx of illegal aliens.

How unfair this provision is to those people in countries throughout the world who have been on a waiting list for years to migrate to the United States through legal means. Have we arrived at the day when an illegality should be rewarded?

The new bill would also allow farmers to bring in unlimited numbers of undocumented workers subject to approval by the Attorney General for up to 11 months to perform services or labor in seasonal, agricultural employment. This amendment is justified on the basis that it is needed for emergencies involving perishable crops — 11 months?

If there are illegal aliens in this country, they have no right to be here — they should be sent back to the land of their birth and make application through the legal process. By any measure, the proposed amendment to the Immigration Law is bad and should be defeated by the United States Senate.

Sheriff D'Alessio Claims Fireworks Dangerous, Illegal

To the Editor:

We are about to enter the summer vacation and holiday period, and as the Sheriff of Essex County, I feel that I must point out some very important facts to our children and their parents.

As we celebrate the traditional summer holidays of July 4 and Labor Day, many of us find enjoyment in the use of fireworks and fire crackers. With the exception of paper and plastic caps for cap guns, the use of these "novelties" is illegal and very dangerous.

The laws of New Jersey are very strict in this regard and the penalties are severe. More important, however, is the fact that these items are quite hazardous and they place the user in danger of great bodily harm. In each of the past few years New Jersey has had well over one hundred people treated in hospital emergency rooms for burns, eye injuries, lacerations and even amputations. Fortunately there have been no fatalities.

We do our children a disservice if we do not educate them to these dangers or if we in any way condone or encourage the use of fireworks.

As a concerned parent I urge each of you to report to either the Nutley Police Department or the Essex County Sheriff's Department, anyone using or attempting to sell fireworks or firecrackers in your neighborhood.

If we all take the time to make these facts known to our children and employ a little common sense ourselves, we should truly be able to enjoy our summer months more fully, and hopefully eliminate one more hazard from our every day life.

Very truly yours,
Thomas J. D'Alessio
Essex County Sheriff

District Leaders Are Praised

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to commend Marie Gammara on her recent re-election as Democratic District Leader in the Silver Lake section of town.

Her victory is noteworthy in that it reflects the tremendous amount of support to her by the residents of Silver Lake in recognition of her continuous efforts to maintain a high standard of living in this area.

Mrs. Gammara garnered a record-breaking 277 votes, the most ever received by a district leader in this township. The people of Silver Lake recognize the outstanding job Marie, along with her partner Larry Cuomo, have done over the years.

Congratulations to both of them.

Clay Proposes Change In New Rebate System

To the editor:

I am an Essex County freeholder and I have sent letters to all state legislators, urging that the homestead rebate procedure be changed from the present cumbersome and expensive system of direct checks to the simpler and much less costly method of direct deduction of the rebate from state income returns.

The result will be millions of dollars in savings to the state plus a savings of time and money to the taxpayer. If you examine the present rebate system program, you will find that the state is paying for 1.3 million forms that are sent to the homeowners. The state is paying the salaries for people to process these forms two times. Once in sending them out and once again in checking and filing them when they are returned. The state is paying the postage for the 1.3 million forms that are sent out and the homeowners are paying 20 cents each for the 1.3 million forms that are returned.

It is easy to calculate the cost of postage alone which is about three quarters of a million dollars. The cost of the forms and the clerical help necessary must amount to an additional several million dollars. I believe that if these forms were incorporated into the state income tax forms, then an entire clerical procedure and costs of forms and mailings would be eliminated.

If the homeowners would then be permitted to deduct the amount of the rebate, which should be based on some formula adopted by the legislature, an entire cost of clerical procedure for sending out the checks would be saved by the state and thereby the taxpayers who provide the state with its funds in the first place. Homeowners would no longer be inconvenienced by sending back the forms and only be required to send their tax forms as they now do and since they would have only one mailing, they would save 1.3 million 20-cent stamps.

It is common knowledge that the homestead rebate was a trade-off for the state income tax and that the form and timing of the actual sending out of these checks was a political advantage of the then incumbent governor. The incumbent governor was then a Democrat and the incumbent governor is now a Republican. So now that both parties have received their political benefit, let us give the benefit to the taxpayers. This procedure is the way it is successfully done for tenant credits and it is only right and fair that we treat the homestead rebates in the same manner.

Yours for good government,
Arthur L. Clay
Freeholder

Jack Hudson Is Right

At last Thursday's Belleville Planning Board meeting, a question arose involving the concerns of Washington Avenue residents and business owners. During the dialogue on the subject, board member Jack Hudson objected to a proposal to create a committee to further study the problem.

In Jack Hudson's words, "Studying is a political answer; what we need is to give the people of Washington Avenue an opportunity to be heard, and then told what to expect." A member of the audience observed that Mr. Hudson's comment was "the most sensible answer we had in years." As a result of the dialogue, the Belleville Planning Board will mail invitations to every resident, business tenant and landlord on Washington Avenue inviting them to attend a Planning Board meeting scheduled solely to hear the concerns of Washington Avenue residents and property owners.

The only thing missing from the proposed meeting is participation of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency. A joint meeting of both boards with all the affected people will go far toward comforting those who see displacement in the months ahead.

The Planning Board is moving in the right direction. Its work should be encouraged by other public officials.

Insurance Explained

To the editor:

Given the rather complex nature of automobile insurance, it is not surprising that so much misinformation has worked its way into the public dialogue concerning the surcharge imposed on persons convicted of driving while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

The surcharge of $1,000 per year for three years imposed on drunk drivers is not a new program. Similar surcharges were previously imposed on drunk drivers and collected by the insurance industry.

The only new aspect is that the surcharge will now be collected by a state agency, rather than by the individual's insurance carrier.

Prior to the implementation of the Joint Underwriting Association, as a part of the insurance reform package approved by the Legislature, the drunk driving surcharge imposed by insurance carriers ranged from a low $387 to a high of $951 in the state's 27 insurance rating areas. This surcharge was also imposed for a three-year period.

Under the legislation approved by the Legislature and signed by the Governor, the surcharge will be uniform for all drivers convicted of drunk driving, no matter the rating area involved.

The insurance company surcharge system was totally illogical. A drunk driver poses just as great a threat to himself and others whether living in a rating area in Essex County or a rating area in Salem County, yet the surcharges fluctuated wildly across the state.

The uniform charge is a recognition that driving under the influence is a serious violation, no matter where it occurs.

The $1,000 per year surcharge is, admittedly, higher than that imposed under the old system, but it is the strong feeling of the Legislature, the Governor and myself that those who drive while drunk pose an enormous threat to the life and safety of others on the highway.

The surcharge will impact upon approximately 30,000 persons, who comprise slightly more than a half percent of the 5.2 million licensed drivers in the state. That half percent, incidentally, was involved in more than 30 percent of all highway fatalities in 1983.

Avoiding the imposition of a surcharge is, in fact, quite simple: If you drink to excess, don't drive. Or turn your car over to a friend who has not overindulged.

Clifford Snedeker

Golden Comments

By James Golden

Prior to the 1980 presidential election, Ronald Reagan, the candidate, publicly pledged that he would not alter Social Security in any manner if he were elected. Well! He didn't keep his word on that. Between David Stockman and himself, the Reagan administration and the Republican Congress, especially in the Senate, Social Security was emasculated to the point of deferring and reducing cost of living increases, reducing payments to the next lower even dollar and made the cardinal sin of taxing Social Security income, which was originally adopted as law to be tax exempt, after an arbitrary threshold set by his hand-picked committee had been exceeded. Likewise, Medicare deductibles were increased and are being scheduled for even greater increased payments by beneficiaries.

Now the President's Treasury Secretary, Donald Regan, appointed by President Reagan, stated that federal deficits will require a re-evaluation of Social Security in the late 1980s to determine whether all retirees should receive benefits. On NBC-TV's "Meet the Press," Mr. Regan stated, "I think we're going to have to revisit and rethink: Why do we have Social Security and what do we want it for?"

He said the Social Security rescue plan approved last year by Congress is not adequate for the long-term fiscal health of the program, which he said was originally intended "merely to help people who would be destitute when they got older."

"Today, regardless of what a person receives in the way of a pension from a corporation from which he's retiring or the like or how much they've saved or how much wealth they have, they still get Social Security," Regan said.

"The question is, is this justifiable in this day and age when we have such mammoth costs in the Social Security system?" Regan said that while nothing should be done about Social Security eligibility at the low end of the economic ladder, "at the upper end of the scale I think we've got to re-examine it."

Political pundits and the media are convinced that President Reagan, were he re-elected, will seek a "means test" to determine eligibility for Social Security payments; that, just as had been done by taxing Social Security payments above a set threshold, they are planning to cut off the Social Security of any with income above a poverty level they would set.

When Regan was asked whether he were suggesting a "means test" for Social Security recipients, he said, "No, not a means tested (system). But I do think that somewhere along the line, at some cutoff point, we may well want to say, well, why does such a person as that really have Social Security?" We interpret that to suggest he and the President want the "means test" cutting off of Social Security payments for everyone with income above their arbitrary set poverty level.

The hell with that. Those on Social Security are only getting what they paid into for. Should they be punished because they saved a few dollars for their retirement or were frugal?

The White House, worried by Regan's remarks with an election coming up, tried to scotch the disclosure of the administration's policy plans for Social Security when a deputy press secretary the next day denied plans to revamp Social Security, but he declined to say whether Regan was speaking on behalf of the administration.

House Speaker "Tip" O'Neill, responding to Regan's comments, told reporters, "this has been an administration of the rich and they can't get away from it. There's no doubt they wanted to devastate the Social Security system." It will be a campaign issue again, he said.

Senator Lawton Chiles (D-Fla.), the senior Democrat on the Senate Budget Committee, said Regan's comments "sound like something (Regan) is going to do if he is re-elected."

If the Senator is right, and you are getting Social Security or soon expecting to, you had better remember Ronald Reagan didn't keep his campaign promise the last time when he said he'd never alter Social Security, so why should we believe him now?

We believe Treasury Secretary Donald Regan's comments on the future of Social Security under another Reagan administration would mean the end of what we had thought would provide most of us with a reasonable retirement security.

If that's the plan of the Reagan-Regan clan of rich Republicans, let's vote them out of the White House and the Congress, and give our government back to we, the people of the United States, as the preamble of the U.S. Constitution reads.

Belleville's Lemon Ice Man

Mother Nature is playing games with the east coast once again, as we went right from the bitter cold of winter to the weltering temperatures of summer, without experiencing the pleasant weather of springtime. Try to remember the last time we recorded 90-plus heat during the early portion of June. It seems like the summer of '84 has come upon us quicker than we would like.

But the people of Belleville really have a head and shoulders advantage over other communities in the metropolitan area when it comes to relief from the heat. For you see, the people of Belleville have Jackie Rega to provide comfort on those dog-days of June and as anyone knows, Jackie Rega makes the greatest lemon ice in the country, if not the world. It could be 100 degrees, but one cup of that ice makes you feel totally refreshed.

And not only does Jackie have the most tasty way of beating the heat, he is also a pretty generous guy as he has shown this week. All the children in the Belleville school system were provided with free lemon ice Tuesday thanks to Mr. Rega, along with a little help from School Board Trustee Gabe Nazzola and yours truly, who delivered the ice to the happy kids.

There are over 2,000 elementary school children in the Belleville system, and everyone of them who attended school Tuesday were treated to the tasty and refreshing pleasures of lemon ice.

Boy, that Jackie is a nice guy.

The kids attending school last week needed more than lemon ice to beat the unbearable heat in the school buildings. I was at School 4 last Thursday and after 10 minutes I thought I was going to pass out. And remind you, last Thursday was not as hot and humid as it was earlier in the week.

Parents have been complaining about the effect the heat has been having on the children, and one teacher at School 4 informed me the kids were practically passing out due to temperatures which were reaching 108 degrees in the classrooms.

At School 4 the lights in the hallways and classrooms were off in order to cut down on the amount of heat. So what do you do about a problem like this? The kids have to attend 180 days of school during the school year according to state law, and you certainly can't afford to place central air conditioning throughout the buildings. So what is the answer? The students at the high school were released early one day last week due to the heat, but you cannot just release elementary school children since many of the their parents work. I don't know the answer, but it is something which the School Board will have to discuss in case something like this occurs again in the future.

According to a letter printed in this month's edition of the American Association of Retired Persons News Bulletin (provided to me by Mr. Cornelis Vander Zwan), many senior citizens have been complaining about solicitations they are receiving from the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare. The organization, which is chaired by James Roosevelt, a former U.S. Representative and son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has been requesting that seniors send $10 to its cause. Seniors have been complaining that they have not received a membership card which they are supposed to when they make a contribution. They are also worried that it they do not send money, they will lose their benefits — this is not true. The group, which registered as a lobby in March has thus far raised over $1.7 million, but remember, you do not have to send money.

Also some "facts" which the groups print about Social Security and Medicare have been found to be untrue, so be aware before sending your hard earned dollars.

Juniors Forming Make-Wish Group

Concerned residents of Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield are invited to attend an organizational meeting to form the second sub-chapter in New Jersey of Make-A-Wish Foundation of America.

Make-A-Wish, headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona, helps children who are terminally ill to make their wishes or dreams a reality. This event is sponsored by the GFWC Junior Woman's Club of Belleville. The meeting will be held at 51 Rossmore Place, Thursday, June 28 at 8 p.m. The general public is urged to attend.

The Belleville Juniors dedicated to this worthwhile endeavor have slated two fund raisers for the 1984-85 club year for this new organization. Make-A-Wish, begun in 1980, has 30 chapters in 22 states and last December it sent Amy Benham, 7, a Hodgkin disease patient, to Washington to pull the switch and light the White House Christmas tree. Other wishes the foundation has worked for are special trips, computers, and even a visit with Mr. T.

The Belleville Juniors hope that many individuals will volunteer their time to help in some way to ease the anguish and brighten the lives of those whose time is so short. For more information, call 751-4173.

Religious Viewpoint

By Rev. Robert Paul

"I am your child...You have brought me into this world and raised me to what I am today...If I am not what I should be, please don't be too hard with me, for I am your product...My actions advertise the quality standards of our home...Do not point out one of my playmates as an example of how I should behave — by doing so you are admitting that his parents are doing a better job than you...You say that you are a Christian...yet I very seldom see you read the Bible, and when church time comes you make little effort to attend, giving me no encouragement to go either.

You say that you love me, yet it has been years since you put your arms about me at bedtime and with tears in your eyes asked your heavenly Father to watch over me as I slept...You seem to be more interested in my school grades than in the condition of my soul...you give me the impression that it is better to be popular than to be pure, better to be attractive on the outside than to have that 'inner beauty' that comes to one who loves the Lord Jesus Christ. So the next time you feel like throwing up your hands and saying, 'I just can't do a thing with you,' please remember you have had the opportunity to influence me since I was born. Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. This means Bible study and prayer in our home everyday, and this has not been the case. If you are not happy with me, I'm not the only one to blame."

Parents should be extremely careful what kind of magazines they have in their closets. What would your children think if they found stacks of "Playboy" or "Penthouse" magazines there? If you tell them not to watch dirty television programs or movies and yet they find erotic magazines in the closets, the only conclusion that they come to is that you are hypocrites. There is nothing worse than such a conclusion in the minds and hearts of children in regard to their parents. (Acts 17:11).

Summerfun Theatre Announces Schedule

Summerfun, New Jersey's largest professional summer theater, will open its 13th season with the New Jersey professional debut of "Amadeus."

Cloaked in mystery, melody and melodrama, Peter Schaffer's Tony Award-winning play spins an engrossing tale weaved around the suspicion that Mozart was murdered by his contemporary rival, Antonio Salieri. This awe-inspiring drama will run June 26-30.

Part play, part event, "Amadeus" brings to life the rivalry in the courts of 18th century Vienna between the two composers. Interwoven in this conflict is Salieri's anger at a god who would bless a man like Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, whose portrayal in the play is in sharp contrast to the picture many historians have painted of the genius, with talent, and curse the conscientious Salieri with mediocrity. Beyond the mystery tale and theatrical excitement, "Amadeus" is a universal story about human nature told with great humor and compassion.

"Amadeus" is the first of six shows to be presented as part of Summerfun's seven-week season. The remainder of the season consists of John van Druten's "Bell, Book and Candle," Helen Hanft's "84 Charing Cross Road," Beth Henley's "Crimes of the Heart," Anthony Schaffer's "Sleuth," and the musical hit, "The 400 Blows."

Summerfun is in residence at Montclair State College, Upper Montclair. All performances are at 8:30 p.m. in air-conditioned Memorial Auditorium. Ticket prices are $7, Tuesday through Thursday, and $8.50 Friday and Saturday. Season subscriptions are still available. Student and senior citizen discounts are always available. For reservations or further information, call Summerfun, 746-9120.

Belleville's Past

The Hendricks Family

In 1770, Aaron Hendricks, Uriah's father, died in London and Uriah sailed for London and settled his father's estate. In 1775, Uriah's wife, Eve Esther, passed away, leaving a family of eight small children.

In 1776, it became certain that the British were going to take over the city and many people departed, but Uriah had to stay with his large family. He saw the British take possession of New York. On Sept. 21, 1776, a disastrous fire, which began in a wooden house near the Whitehall Slip, spread rapidly through the older district. It engulfed part of the section that Hendricks and other citizens had petitioned the legislators to improve 12 years earlier. The holocaust made no distinction between the wooden houses of the poor and the stone mansions of the rich. Hendricks' home was untouched. In addition to the problems that the occupying British military had to face in quartering its troops, it also had to meet the unexpected circumstances of providing for those left desolate by the destruction of 493 houses. Hospitals, barracks, prisons and lodgings were in immediate demand. First the city warehouses were requisitioned, then the churches. On William Street, the North Dutch Church was turned into a prison. Only St. Paul's and St. George's, the loyal Anglican churches, were untouched by the British. For some reason the synagogue, too, was spared.

Washington and his army re-entered the city on Nov. 25, 1783.

In the spring of 1785, Uriah's only surviving son, Harmon, joined his father in the business. Uriah contributed to various charitable affairs and aided his less fortunate business associates when they were in economic distress or in ill health. He established a pattern of charitable conduct that was later emulated by his son, Harmon.

Uriah married Rebecca Lupez in 1787, 12 years after the death of Eve Esther, and moved to 112 Pearl St.

Big Hits Hard to Come By As Braves Hit Losing Streak

By Michael Lamberti

The chances are good that Sal Garilli and Whitey Herzog have never met one another. However, these two men should get together and discuss their problems, because their complaints will be practically identical. Last week, the Belleville Braves went through three games of futility, not scoring many runs and losing games they should have won. Meanwhile, in St. Louis, Herzog's Cardinals were suffering through the same problem. Once again, the big hit was the difference and the Cards couldn't come through.

The Braves' record fell to 3-5 as they entered this week's action. On Tuesday, the team was in Parsippany and yesterday, traveled to Union. This evening, at 6 p.m., the Braves travel to Irvington and on Sunday, will host West Orange in a 6 p.m. start. Next Monday, the team will be back in Parsippany for an 8 p.m. start.

After defeating Union to start the week, the Braves fell upon hard times, losing to defending champion West Orange twice and a good Verona squad once. "It wasn't a good week," Garilli said quite frankly. "We're not hitting the ball. I can't explain why, we've got a talented ball club. It's just a slump and we've got to come out of it."

The week started with a 6-5 win over Union. In this game, Anthony Coco started and hurled a pretty effective game. "Anthony did a good job there," said Garilli. "We didn't help him in the early going, however." The Braves trailed, 5-1 in the seventh when the bats suddenly woke up. Timely hitting by Bill Feehan, Steve Karlick, Greg Weber and Joe Corbalis (three RBIs on the night) helped the Braves rally from a four-run deficit to win, 6-5. Ken Brylinski was the winning pitcher in relief and Scott Wohlrab picked up the save.

Versus Verona, the Braves lost, 5-3, marking the third time in the early going that Belleville has lost to Verona. Glen Colatella, a Kean College product, started the game and pitched rather well. The problem came in the offensive category where Belleville left eight men on base. Dom Vazzano managed two hits for the Braves. Greg Weber had one and Feehan had a hit.

The first West Orange game saw Belleville on the short end of a 13-5 count. Jim Tensfeldt hit a home run to help the Belleville cause and his teammates Karlick and Corbalis also came through with round trippers, but they weren't enough to hold off the red hot West Orange bats. Wohlrab started for Belleville, but he was ineffective and yielded to Rick Kiernan. Unfortunately, Kiernan wasn't much better and Jerry Wauden was called upon to coll off the Red Sox bats. He did a good job, hurling five scoreless innings, but most of the damage had been done.

Last Saturday, the Braves lost to West Orange again, this time, 6-3. The Red Sox tallied six times in the second inning off Scott Lutz and were never headed. Wauden came in to close the door once more and did a very effective job in relief. Belleville tried to come back as Karlick double. It wasn't enough, and the Braves dropped its fifth game of the young season.

Boxing Show Set For Next Tuesday

The Veterans Boxers Social Club of New Jersey will again present its annual charity boxing show.

President Ray Spencer announced there will be 10 bouts, featuring outstanding Golden Glove stars. All profits will go to charity.

The bouts will be televised over OBC-TV, starting at 8 p.m., June 26, and will be held at Belleville Municipal Stadium. All seats are $5.

Also that evening many boxing greats will be presented. You may purchase tickets by phoning Ernie Ratner, 751-2260, or at the gate.

Former High School Track Coach Sets Record in Special Olympics

Former Belleville head track coach Richard Ruffalo made national news last week by competing in the United States Association for Blind Athletes' National Championships and setting a world record along with taking home four gold and two silver medals.

Ruffalo now takes his talents to the International Games for the Handicapped that began last Sunday at Mitchell Park, adjacent to the Nassau County Coliseum, Long Island. Ruffalo, representing the United States, will compete against athletes from 51 nations. The games have been widely publicized by a number of major radio and television stations, so much so that President Ronald Reagan will be attending the games. Ruffalo was set to meet the President earlier this week.

In the Nationals, which were held in St. Louis from June 3-June 9, Ruffalo, along with his older brother Joseph, were practically unstoppable. In the competition, 28 athletes from New Jersey competed. The age brackets ranged from 11 through 62. The New Jersey team also set a record, winning 109 medals, breaking its own record of 78 set last year.

Richard Ruffalo, 33, won four gold medals, taking top honors in power lifting (220-pound class), the javelin (51.35 meters, a new world record), the 50-meter free style and the 100-meter back stroke. Ruffalo took second place in the shot put and discus, earning silver medals for his efforts there.

Joseph Ruffalo, competing in the Class "B" Masters, for ages 30-39, won four gold medals, two silver and one bronze. The gold came in the 181-pound power lifting class, the 400-meter run, the discus and shot put. The elder Ruffalo captured a silver medal in the 100-meter run and long jump while taking a bronze medal in the 800 meters. The combined effort of Richard and Joseph Ruffalo resulted in eight gold medals, four silver and one bronze.

The 13 total medals that the Ruffalos earned is a national record for brothers.

Fifteen-year-old David De Notaris also competed in the games at St. Louis. University. Competing in Class "B," De Notaris, from Belleville, took a silver medal for wrestling and a fourth place in the pentathlon. De Notaris, competing in the 14-19 age group, gave a very good account of himself with the silver medal. Most of his opponents were four to five years older.

Kevin Scott, a college student from nearby Clifton, won two gold and two silver medals competing in the Class "C" division. Michelle Gizzi, a college student from Nutley, also did a fine job in St. Louis. She took a gold in the powerlifting, 123-pound class. Gizzi set national records for her showing in the bench press, squat, dead lift and overall total. She took a second for her part in the "Gold Ball" competition and third in the pentathlon.

Winning Ways — Belleville High School softball coach Carl Corino led the girls to another successful season this year, as he won his 100th game as a coach coach for BHS. The girls finished the season with a mark of 24-5.

Belleville Soccer Club Defeats West Germany

The Belleville Soccer Club Division III defeated Munich, West Germany, 4-1, under the lights at Belleville Stadium on June 12.

Belleville, coached by Manny Valeria, opened up early and controlled play against a strong Munich team. Goals were scored by Alex Arava and Keith Woods. Belleville opened up a quick 3-0 lead. With the score 4-0, Munich started to pressure Belleville and finally broke through to power its only goal of the game.

After the game, the traditional trading of shirts took place among the players to give each player a remembrance of playing an international soccer game.

Belleville Soccer Association wishes to thank the players and coaches of both teams, the officials, and especially Mayor Marotti for his support and the hundreds of fans who came and watched a fine international game.

High School's Spring Teams Enjoyed Competitive Year

Last week, we began the wrap-up of the 1983-84 sports year at Belleville High by reviewing the fall and winter teams which did so well. Now, we'll take a look at the spring sports which all performed so well and continued the trend of sports excellence at Belleville High.

The spring sports this year consisted of baseball, softball, golf, crew, track and tennis. It goes without saying that all the teams were very competitive against some solid competition. The baseball team enjoyed a fine turnaround after a tough 1983 campaign.

Ralph La Conte's crew was 8-17-1 last year, playing with a young and inexperienced line-up. Following the 1983 season, the Buccaners dedicated the 1984 season to bringing back a winner in Belleville baseball. It was done by a group of seniors who wanted very badly to be winners. It was also done by a coach who was criticized heavily after the 1983 season and wanted to prove he belonged as coach of the Buccaners.

The final result was a 16-9-2 campaign for 1984. Playing with a line-up that featured a heavy senior influence but saw a number of underclassmen make a contribution, the Bucs were in every game they played. Their most lopsided setback was to Nutley by a 4-0 count. The pitching staff was strong all year long, headed by senior Frank Tursi. Tursi also led the Buccaners bats but had plenty of company in the lumber department. Anthony Lombardi, Joe Mullaney, Joe Borrello, John Guarino, Dave Long, Mario Silvestri and Brian Cook all turned in excellent campaigns. The same can be said of John Auriemma, who defeated Ridgewood with two homers and Dean Stierck and Billy Baber, who shared second base.

Belleville was 6-4 in the NNJL, Division II, finishing second and losing only to Ridgewood, which was 9-1 in conference play. Ridgewood's only loss was the 7-6 thriller at Belleville. The Bucs advanced to the second round of the Greater Newark Tournament and were ousted by Livingston in a heartbreaker in the state tourney. It was an excellent season and one that brought back respectability to a baseball-rich town.

Carl Corino's softball team had another outstanding season. The girls, led by seniors Tracy Buono and Dina DeAquino, won 24 games, lost just five and placed second in the NNJL, Division II. The final rankings of the Star Ledger listed Belleville number one in Essex County, although the girls were upset by Cedar Grove in the championship game of the county tourney, ending Belleville's two-year hold on the crown.

The Buccanettes lost twice to Union, the latter defeat eliminating the girls in state competition. Two more losses came to Ridgewood, who always boasts a solid ball club. Buono set 18 hitting records during her four-year stay at BHS and will attend Rutgers University in the fall. DeAquino, who was still undecided on college, won 19 games in her senior year and finished with 24 victories in her high school career.

Solid performances were also turned in by sophomore Desiree Johansen and juniors Donna Brooks, Cheryl Marion and junior Cheri Tillman. Johansen, playing at shortstop, did not strike out the entire season while Brooks, the center fielder, showed good power and blazing speed on the base paths. Next year will be a rebuilding year for Belleville. Although they lost just two senior starters, both girls were a mainstay on the battery for four years and will be very difficult to replace right away.

The crew team, under Sam Giuffrida, had a monumental campaign. The big story, of course, was the return of a national title to Belleville. That honor fell upon the girls' junior four, which won a national championship at Delaware and marked the second time in three years that a Belleville girls' boat won a national championship.

The girls' junior four of Stephanie Aiello, Jackie Mele, Elena Gildav, Maureen Russo and Diane Black, were unstoppable in the latter stages of the season. The girls' only loss down the stretch came to a school from Canada in the Statesbury Regatta. All five girls also were members of the championship junior eight boat of 1982. The girls also competed in the Canadian Nationals the following weekend and took third as a lightweight four.

Gildav is the only senior on the team, so the girls should once again be a powerhouse next spring. Sam Giuffrida's team did not end with the girls, however. The boys' junior four, a gutsy and determined group, advanced to the state finals, as did the boys' lightweight four. Overall, Giuffrida's teams competed in some of the toughest races the United States has to offer. In addition to the regattas and races with boathouse rivals Nutley and Kearny, Belleville competed in the "Rick," races that were held weekends in Philadelphia and featured some very good teams on the East Coast. The entire season was an excellent experience for the team and next year, the outlook is just as rosy.

The Belleville golf team, under fourth-year coach Rocco Colucci, were supposed to be rebuilding after graduation took its toll last spring. While the Bucs scores did falter a bit this year, the results were surprisingly successful. The Bucs put together an 11-5 record, finishing second to undefeated Nutley in the NNJL. Colucci's reasoning for his team's success was that most of the competition was also in the process of rebuilding. The team was based around senior Jimmy Apple, a class act who was an exceptional player and leader. The senior averaged in the low 40s for the 1984 season and was one of the most consistent players in Essex County. Apple will attend Upsala and replacing him next spring will be a challenge. Greg Simone, Brian De Furia and freshman Joseph Tower are some of the candidates who will be looking to pick up the slack caused by Apple's graduation.

On runner, things didn't look too good for the boys' and girls' track team. There weren't too many victories, but the team's future seems in good shape. The boys, coached by John Tosato, returned a strong squad next spring, headed by freshman Craig Burden, juniors Bob Hutchinson and Billy Huamami, along with Felix Rodriguez, Mike Siletti and J.R. Di Vincenzo. Seniors Dennis Bogden and Tim Daoudin did a good job in the field events this spring. The girls were paced by senior Patty Bliss, a four-year performer and Nancy Cocco. Karen Fuccello had a young and very inexperienced team to work with.

Finally, the Belleville tennis team, under Len D'Armiento, was 9-11 in its best season ever. Senior David Boyd and Herb Petrat led the Bucs, who just missed out on a .500 season. Sophomore Jim Petrat will return next year and probably will get the nod for the number one singles position. The younger Petrat was 13-6 at third singles. Boyd, playing a first singles, was 13-5 and Herb Petrat posted a 10-9 mark at second singles. Pat Tortoriello and Joon Hwang did a good job at first doubles and Jeff Tyther, Ronnie Cha and Hany El-Helw shared work at second doubles.

That wraps up the 1983-84 school year. It was a season of records, a season of highs and a year of tough defeats. Overall, the sports enjoyed a solid campaign and now, the attention will be focused to the 1984-85 athletes who will have their turn to continue that fine Belleville tradition. A final good-bye to the seniors of 1984 and a word of thanks for all the excitement and enthusiasm you gave the fans of Belleville. Good luck in your future and may good health and fortune always come your way.

The quote of the year might have to go to Rocco Colucci, the golf coach, on his comment following the birth of his second son a few weeks back. "I've got a backcount now," the coach said. "I've also got a threesome for golf as well."

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, name the two teams in the past 11 years to win the NBA title on their home court. Not including Boston's victory last week, the answers are Portland in 1977 and Los Angeles in 1982.

For this week's quiz, name the last time the Boston Celtics won the NBA title on their home court and the team they defeated for the crown.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

One of the best welterweight fighters in the country a few years ago, Charlie Fusari, is ailing and reports are not good. Charlie of Irvington, always had a hearing problem. But that didn't stop him from defeating such classy contenders as Freddie Archer, Rocky Castellani, Tony Pellone, Tippy Larkin, Tony Riccio, Al Guido, Terry Young, Jimmy Flood and many others. He was rated among the top 10 in the world from 1948 through 1952. Fusari was born in 1925 in Acamo, Italy. He was brought to America at a young age.

Promoter Don King has not announced definitely who will be on his planned sensational heavyweight card. King, who has all the top heavyweight fighters tied up, said the boxers have not been paired at this time. Tim Witherpoon, Greg Page, Renaldo Snipes, Mike Weaver, Pinklon Thomas and David Bey are mentioned to compete. The fight buffs claim Weaver and Thomas are this close to being paired.

Randy "Tex" Cobb was unsuccessful in his bid for the WBC heavyweight title against champion Larry Holmes on Nov. 26, 1982. On that date, Cobb got it in his face with more fists than he ever thought possible. Last Saturday in Atlantic City he got hit with as many fists, while losing a nine-round unanimous decision to the U.S. karate champion, John Jackson.

Michael Green of Plainfield, won the 119-pound amateur box-off at the 1984 Eastern Olympic trials in Lake Placid, N.Y., by decisioning Tracy Harris of New Paltz, N.Y. Harris is the adopted son of former heavyweight champ Floyd Patterson and is trained by Floyd. Another Jersey fighter, 165-pound Adam Garland of Piscataway, won his bout by decision over Paul Peek of New York City.

Middleweight Sanderline Williams, 9-1, of Cleveland, Ohio, scored a 10-round unanimous decision against Terry Holmes, 12-2, of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Giacobe "Jake" La Motta was born July 10, 1921 in the Bronx, New York. He started his professional boxing career on March 3, 1941. He was a rough, tough brawler soon gaining the nomie plume of "The Bronx Bull." Jake fought in 106 combats, winning 83, losing 19 and fighting in four draws. La Motta won the world middleweight crown by knocking out Marcel Cerdan in the 10th round. He lost it via the KO route in the 13th stanza to the great Sugar Ray Robinson. Jake fought them all, he barred no one. Among the top battlers he crossed mits with included: Joey De John, Billy Fox, Fritz Zivic, Jackie Wilson, Ossie Harris, Tony Janiro, Robert Villmain, Bob Saterfield, Eugene Hairston, Dick Wagner, plus many more. La Motta became a good box office draw in Detroit where he fought 21 times and of course, in New York City.

Sugar Ray Leonard used Marvelous Marvin Hagler's Brocton, Mass., gym in preparing for his warm-up fight with Kevin Howard in The Centrum, Worcester, Mass. In appreciation, Leonard gave $1,000 to the Marvin Hagler Scholarship Fund. Word had been around that Sugar Ray wanted to go against Hagler if he had no problem with Howard. Negotiations were allegedly in progress for the bout to be in November. Let's forget about Hagler now that Leonard announced his retirement again.

Short Shorts: Joseph F. Hagen, considered one of the greatest light heavyweight champions of all time, fought for 17 years as Philadelphia Jack O'Brien. The shortest fight program had to be at the Dreamland in San Francisco on July 19, 1929. All seven bouts ended in KOs with a total elapsed time of 22 minutes! Four bouts ended in the first round, two in the second, and one in the third. Frankie Gilmore was a licensed referee for 15 years with the Illinois Athletic Commission. He has been judge or referee of the Golden Gloves Tournament and National Collegiate Athletic Association for 20 years. "Packy" "Kid" Lydon was known as the hardest puncher of the bantamweight division. As proof he had a chain of 43 one-round knockouts.

A rugged young Italian lightweight out of Denver, Colorado, throwing leather under the nom de plume of Jimmy Hanlon, invaded Philadelphia, where he became a big favorite of the fight fans. Hanlon is another warrior who was willing to exchange punches with all comers regardless of how good a reputation they presented. At one time newspapers and newscasters reported Jimmy Hanlon had departed this world by self-promotion. We are happy to inform the suicide was not Jimmy Hanlon the professional fighter. The last we heard about Jimmy, he was operating a news stand at Gratiot and Van Dyke streets in Detroit, Michigan.

Four of the roughest, dirtiest fights witnessed in recent time had to be between Sandy Saddler and Willie Pep, Oct. 29, 1948, Feb. 11, 1949, Sept. 8, 1950 and Sept. 26, 1951. Saddler was known as a master at handling it out, but lacked sportsmanship to take it when the going got rough. Pep also was no slouch at the rough stuff when he had to use it. The bouts were marred by butts, heeling with gloves, stepping on feet, holding back of head while punching the head. Everything went except decency and fair play. All bouts were fought in New York City.

The workout for Larry Holmes against Gerrie Coetzee faced another crisis last week when the letter of guarantee for $4.5 million was not produced as scheduled. A spokesman for the promotional group claimed, "It wasn't that we didn't have it." If so, why the delay?

Sugar Ray Leonard's decision to honestly retire gets our hurrahs. Sugar Ray's so-so performance against a so-so opponent, Kevin Howard, was the convincer. He just doesn't have it anymore. Leonard has the important things for life — his family, wellbeing, all his marbles and fortune.

At Wembley Arena, last Sunday, Jimmy "Bonecrusher" Smith knocked Frank Bruno for slumberland trip in the 10th round after losing the first nine rounds in an upset. In a bigger upset, Buster Drayton KO'd Mark Taylor in the seventh round.

Promoter Danny Doyle of West Hartford, Mass., has been a shareholder in 14 Sugar Ray Leonard fights, including the Kevin Howard clash. Doyle only handled the main event, Sugar Ray's older brother, Kenny, was the promoter and matchmaker of the bouts on the undercard. Kenny has been promoting fights in small clubs in and around Maryland for over a year.

Silvestri Put Together Solid Season For Bucs

In the June 7 issue of The Belleville Times, an article was written about the Belleville baseball team, summarizing the club's marvelous 16-9-2 campaign. Head coach Ralph La Conte, in reviewing his troops, praised his seniors for their gutsy performances and credited the underclassmen with the team's turnaround.

Unfortunately, one man was omitted from that list, an unfortunate mistake on the part of myself. Mario Silvestri, a senior, put together a solid campaign for the Buccaneers, but somehow he was left out of the article. During the 1984 season, Mario hit .353, with 18 hits in 51 at-bats. Silvestri shared the designated hitter role with John Auriumma and was a very valuable pinch-hitter.

The senior also tallied four doubles, two triples, smacked one homer, drove in 20 runs and walked seven times. Silvestri had an on-base percentage of .466 and a slugging percentage of .569. In NNJIL action, Silvestri had five hits in nine at-bats. He drove home seven runs. "Mario was our Rusty Staub," said La Conte. "He did everything we ever asked of him. He was a fine player."

Silvestri was third on the team with his hitting, second in slugging percentage, was tied for second with runs batted in, tied for the team lead in triples, and had two game-winning hits, one of which was against Morris Knolls in the first round of the Group IV, Section II playoffs, a game that Belleville won, 6-4.

Once again, The Times wishes to express its apology to Mario and his family. His fine statistics certainly speak for themselves and the oversight was most unfortunate. Congratulations to Mario Silvestri on his outstanding season and once more, congratulations to the Bucs on their excellent showing on the diamond.

Grammar Schools Host Annual Olympics

The second annual Belleville Grammar School Olympics were held at Municipal Stadium last weekend and the results were very impressive. Head track coach John Tosato reported that over 200 young men and women competed in the olympics, which were held for youngsters from grade four through six.

"All participants received either a medal or ribbon," explained Tosato. "We also awarded trophies to the schools with the winning relay teams and the school with the most gold medals."

A number of people were responsible for the success of the day. Tosato, along with Karen Fuccello, Pat Forte (principal of School 4) and Dana Caruso, a 1981 BIS grad and current Montclair State standout, were very much involved with the running of the day. Teachers Joseph Cancellieri, Ann Aulisi and Sabrina Martin also put in a great deal of work toward the success. The Belleville Italian American Civic Association (BIACA) was the sponsor of the event. Tosato also expressed thanks to Mayor Michael Narotti and Al La Balbo, the director of the physical education department for the Belleville school system. In addition, some 15 members of the 1984 Belleville High School track team lent their support.

In the fourth grade division, the winners in the boys' competition were S. Vogel in the 50-yard dash, C. Tuosto in the 100-yard dash, T. Talmadge in the 400-meter run, M. Rosair in the running long jump, C. O'Brien in the standing long jump and J. Mardaugen in the softball throw. Vogel hails from School 10, Tuosto from School 8, Talmadge from School 3, Rosair from School 5 and Mardaugen from School 3.

The girls in the fourth grade that posted victories included K. Berardi (School 8) in the 50-yard dash, D. Eccles (School 8) in the 100, N. Hahn (School 7) in the 400, J. Tower (School 3) in the running jump, J. Comb (School 4) in the standing long jump and J. Conklin (School 8) in the softball throw.

The boys' winners in the fifth grade were: A. Harris in the 50-yard dash, J. Mahoney in the 100, D. Nguyen in the 400, R. Dowd competing in the running long jump, J. Cicielese in the standing long jump and C. Faro throwing the softball. For the fifth grade girls, the victors were D. Raymond for the 50, V. Davitt in the 100, D. Groeling in the 400, S. Gonzalez in the running long jump, L. Doria for the standing long jump and V. Hutchinson for her softball throw.

Finally, the sixth grade boys who posted wins were: M. Rubus for the 50, J. Sternik for the 100, N. Bui in the 400, E. Neil in the running long jump, W. Phelps for the standing long jump and J. Aughenbaugh for his softball throw. The girls' winners in the sixth grade level were: M. Dowd for the 50, S. Johansen in the 100, J. Baltensperger for the 400, C. Voss in the running long jump, J. Burke in the standing long jump and M. Marcantano for the softball throw.

Summer Music Program Set Once Again

Once again the Belleville Board of Education will sponsor a summer music school.

This year the program will be held at School 3, where the academic program will be. It will be possible for a student to take the summer music program and still be enrolled only in summer music.

The summer music program will run for five weeks from Monday, June 25, through Friday, July 27.

On the second, third, fourth and fifth Fridays there will be a concert program at 11 a.m. featuring the students of the music school. The public is invited and admission is free.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Mrs. R. of Nutley asks: "What causes gum disease and is it hereditary?"

No, Mrs. R. it is not hereditary, but it is caused in the following way. Any food, especially sticky and sugary kinds, left on the teeth after brushing, serves as a place for bacteria to live and grow. This place is called plaque, which eventually gets pushed under the gum (gingiva) when other meals are eaten.

Plaque under the gum acts much the same as a splinter left under the skin. The gum gets swollen, red, tender, and in addition, bleeds easily and could cause bad breath. These are all signs of an infection, and the gum disease is called Gingivitis.

When recognized, and caught in its early stages, Gingivitis can be cured by proper oral hygiene. The dentist should be called if any of the aforementioned signs should appear. Left untreated, gum disease does not disappear by itself, but rather spreads to the jaw bone, causing loosening, loss of teeth and a general unhealthy feeling.

So remember, Mrs. R. use proper brushing techniques, eat no sweets, and consult your dentist for evaluation of your oral care. Thank you.
