Health Problems Concern Officials As Strike Continues

Belleville is one of the 200 municipalities in New Jersey suffering the effects this week of striking sanitation workers.

With the prospect of garbage accumulating during a hot, humid holiday week, Mayor Michael Marotti said Monday he conferred with local Health Officer Tom Longo to seek temporary solutions.

"We will be trying to educate the people on how to handle the strike," Marotti said.

The mayor was optimistic that Belleville could handle this crisis smoothly based on the results of the seven-day garbage strike in 1981.

"During the last strike we were able to set up dumpsters throughout the community and hopefully we can do that once again," he said.

Belleville's scavenger, Browning-Ferris Waste Industries of North Jersey is one of the teamsters union that began picketing at major landfills in the state on Monday.

Some 1,400 union members were reported to have walked off their jobs at midnight Monday. While negotiations were in a stalemate, federal mediator John Bello predicted little could be accomplished before the Wednesday Independence Day holiday.

Health Officer Longo is one of several officials scrambling for ways to avoid the threats posed to public health during this crisis.

"I plan on meeting with the commissioners and several other department heads in the next few days to see what alternatives we can take," Longo told The Times Monday.

One possible plan is to set up roll-offs at designated spots in the township where residents can bring their garbage for disposal. However, the idea may remain on the drawing board since Longo said the strike would make it impossible for the township to obtain the roll-offs from the scavengers.

A second solution is also flawed. Longo said officials considered having municipal workers collect the trash and bring it to the dumps, but striking workers at the landfills would prohibit disposal.

For now, the health officer recommends some precautions residents can take to help themselves.

First, separate all food generates and small food debris from other waste such as paper, glass, and cans.

Rinse all food containers of food residue before discarding. Double bag all food waste, place double bag in leak-proof container with tight-fitting lid and store in a cool, shaded area.

Do not place any garbage at the curb. There will be no collection service to clear the streets.

The health department apologizes to the citizens of Belleville for the inconvenience.

New Condo Site — The site of the former National Yeast Company, 800 Mill St., will be the new home of a condo complex, which was recently approved by the Belleville Zoning Board. Construction workers are in the process of clearing the grounds for the project.

Township's Dirty Water Causing Major Problems

It happens every spring and summer. Belleville develops a drinking problem. But the culprit is non-alcoholic.

Complaints about the quality of township water pour in almost as soon as the mercury rises.

One resident, Pat Alicandri of Wallace Street, voiced the same complaint for the past four springs. "I don't know what to do," said Alicandri. "The water looks brown and I can't cook or wash with it. It's really a big inconvenience."

Like many other township residents, Alicandri goes through this situation every year. "This year is worse, though," she said. "Now I have a 4-month-old infant and have to think about making formula and cleaning bottles, not to mention washing baby clothes so they're clean enough."

Alicandri resorts to using bottled water to prepare the formula for her child who suffers from a digestive disorder. "What can I do about the rest of my needs?" she asked. "I can't wash dishes in bottled water."

Alicandri said each year she calls the water and health departments but receives no satisfaction. "They just tell me there's nothing they can do," she said.

The resident said water discoloration occurred three times this spring in her area.

When asked about the problem, Public Works Commissioner Joseph Grande said Monday, "This problem really is out of our control, but we're trying to help our residents as much as possible."

Grande explained that Belleville gets its water from Newark Water Company. "Newark told me it's in the process of putting in a new filtration plant and relining and cleaning out the water main that feeds Belleville," said the Commissioner.

He added, "Until that job is done, I don't think we'll see much improvement in the situation."

He said that complaints have decreased this year. "Last year we had calls every day. This year there were only two," he said, noting that while the problem was experienced all over town, most of the calls in past times came from the Soho area.

Grande agreed the water has an unsavory color and some residents complained to him of an odor as well, but he said the quality is checked regularly to be sure it is safe for drinking.

Belleville sends 16 samples every other Thursday to Garden State Labs in Irvington for testing, according to the Commissioner. In addition, he noted, the township checks the PH level and chlorine content of local waters every other day.

"We can let the public know the water is safe to drink," he said. As far as problems with laundry and bathing, Grande suggested residents first check the color of the water in the toilet bowl and postpone washing or bathing if it does not appear clear. "I know it is not a good answer, but it's the best we can do now," he explained.

In an effort to handle the problem, the Public Works Department will flush out township hydrants sometime in the middle of the summer. "When we did it last year, it helped the situation," he said.

An announcement will be made prior to actual flushing to avoid inconveniencing citizens, added Grande.

Mill Street Condos Approved

By Linda Telesco

A new condominium project is soon to rise on the Mill Street site formerly occupied by a yeast company.

Cerami Construction Inc., of Belleville won approval from the Belleville Zoning Board to construct over 130 condo units on the property at 800 Mill St.

Zoning Board Chairman Joel Pisano explained that the panel approved the project only after reducing its original scope calling for more units.

"The board was impressed that the application could be granted but reduced the size of one building to cut down on the total number of units," Pisano told The Times Monday afternoon.

He also said the board relaxed parking requirements to 175 percent in order to "put more greenery" into the proposal.

According to the chairman, Charles Cerami, president of the applicant firm, explained his intention to purchase the property.

Cerami had a contract to purchase the land contingent upon winning a zoning variance that would give his condo project a green light.

Cerami, who is vacationing, could not be reached for further comment this week.

The condos will be built on the site formerly occupied by the National Yeast Company. The company, which after decades of operating in Belleville, closed shop last year for economic reasons.

Summer Camp Opens June 29 At CMHS

The 13th season of the summer camp for local children with special emotional needs was kicked off Friday, June 29, with a picnic at the Community Mental Health center in Belleville. This is the summer program of the agency's therapeutic school for those children of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley needing this type of special attention by professional teachers and counselors. Parents and friends of the children enrolled were invited to attend and enjoy the picnic.

The camp serves two age groups — Camp Starburst enrolls children ages 2½ to 5 largely from the year-round therapeutic school — and Camp Sunburst is for those ages 6 to 12 from families receiving other services from the agency. A total of 40 children are now enrolled, 10 in the younger group and 30 in the older.

Also attending the camp will be selected brothers and sisters of emotionally handicapped children.

The camp program, staffed by 25 specialists, includes speech and art therapy, music and non-competitive sports including swimming and overcoming fear of the water. Social and educational activities include cook-outs and other parties, day trips and movies in inclement weather.

An adjunct of the camp activity is the Junior Counselor in Training program in which unskilled teenagers receive on-the-job training leading to regular summer employment. They receive a small payment to cover their expenses.

Sub-Juniors Are Adding Renovation

The Belleville Sub-Junior Woman's Club will be taking a collection to help the renovation of the Statue of Liberty during the township's annual fireworks show Wednesday night, July 4 at the Municipal Stadium. Persons are urged to give to this generous cause.

Making Smiles — Every patient at Clara Maass Medical Center recently had their lunch tray brightened with fresh springy daffodils, donated by the Belleville Kiwanis Club. Those special occasion parties always seem to be coming up. Emphasis on food and beverage is of course very important. But often overlooked when giving a party are the decorations and party favors. Virginia Ng is an artist when it comes to party favors. Virginia owns The Jovial Card & Gift Shoppe, 143 Washington Ave. Her shoppe is beautifully decorated and is always fully stocked with merchandise. She can inscribe special dates on glasses, plates, cups, or ribbons for champagne and wine bottles. Virginia is a calligrapher, and utilizes her craft for the inscriptions. Also available are wishing wells and umbrellas for showers, often free for buying party favors. When you visit Virginia's shoppe, you'll open the door and hear little bells tinkling and smell the delightful aroma of scented candles. If you have a little time, ask about her recent trip to China.

Some years ago I can remember buying a bicycle for my son's birthday. I can also remember having to put it together. I thought I did a good job, until he tried to ride it. Jeffrey found it difficult trying to sit on the handlebars while trying to pedal the seat. Unfortunately, Jim Hayes wasn't around to put it together for me. Jim owns The Other Bike Shop, 272 Washington Ave., and the newest member of the Chamber of Commerce. Only 23, Jim is a master "bike smith" with close to 10 years' experience. He sells Peugeot, Shogun, Ross and General bicycles and services almost any brand. If it's a "dirt" bike or a 10-speed touring bike, he's got it.

Does anyone remember "old man" Taffet's Department Store? That was a long time ago. In 1947 Michael Simon and his lovely wife Renee took over Taffet's and renamed it Michael's Men's Wear, and has had a successful business since located at 138 Washington Ave. Michael's stocks a wide variety of men's clothing and accessories, such as Jordache, Sergio Valenti, Camper, Fame, Chams, Ricardo, Lee, Wrangler and many more. Mike and Renee stock up to 1,000 shirts and 500 pairs of slacks and jeans not to mention the socks and ties, and underwear. Mike says, "If you can't find an outfit here, you'll have to settle for the Emperor's New Clothes." The Simons have two children, Mark, a Newark prosecutor, and Susan, a New York designer.

New companies provide an important impetus to our state's economy and employment — however, their survivability for long-term success and profitability tends to remain doubtful. Many new ventures emerge in a wide range of business endeavors — manufacturing, services, construction, wholesale/retail trade, etc. The majority is small business. And it is these small businesses that offer the bulk of new job opportunities to the growing labor force.

Mrs. Audrey Terry Wins Tribute Award

Audrey Terry of Belleville was recently chosen as one of 27 professional women in central New Jersey to receive the 1984 Tribute to Women and Industry (TWIN) award sponsored by the YWCAs of Westfield and Plainfield. TWIN recognizes women who have made a significant contribution to industry in a managerial, executive, or professional role.

Currently, Terry is the department head of Human Resources Administration at AT&T in Springfield. She has been employed with AT&T for 16 years. During this time, she was assigned as department head of Springfield's inspection organization. Terry was in charge of supervising field personnel responsible for assuring the quality of products purchased for resale and for use in AT&T's internal manufacturing operations. These representatives initiate quality assurance investigations on a broad spectrum of products at vendor locations.

As part of her responsibilities on this assignment, she assisted in the development and application of quality programs including sampling and other inspection plans. Terry helped tailor the application of quality assurance and quality control procedures to match the needs of the customers and the capabilities of the vendors. When necessary, she worked with the vendors to modify their quality programs for maximum effectiveness.

Terry is a graduate of Rutgers University where she obtained a bachelor's degree in chemistry. She also has a number of credits toward a master's degree from Stevens Institute of Technology.

David Grossman Attends Convention

David J. Grossman, an Equitable Life agent from Belleville, was among an estimated 6,000 members of the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT) gathered in New York City June 17-21 for their exclusive life insurance sales association's 57th annual meeting.

Forty-seven countries around the world were represented, making the MDRT the most comprehensive sales forum in the life insurance industry.

During the five-day meeting, 100 professional speakers discussed subjects of vital concern to those in the life insurance and financial planning fields. Experts in such areas as estate planning, taxes, inflation and law shared their knowledge in a series of intense seminars and morning general sessions.

Realtor Picnic — The Board of Realtors for Bloomfield, Nutley, Glen Ridge and Belleville held a gala picnic enjoyed June 9 in Kingsland Park. Food, refreshments, games and raffle prizes marked the occasion, which featured warm, sunny weather. Pictured (l-r) at the affair are picnic committee members (kneeling) Marge Catena, Jack Reilly, (standing) Marcia Gushard, Lu Montell, Eugene Reilly, Camille Maas, Marie Moscar and Jay Baumgartner.

Hexachlorophene is a phenol derivative that is not inactivated by soap. It is an antiseptic that is effective in killing many different types of germs. It used continuously it can also reduce body odor. It has also proven to be very effective in the reduction of staphylococcal germ infections in infants in hospitals. There are, however, some problems associated with its use. It is quite likely absorbed into the blood stream through mucous membranes. It is absorbed to some degree by intact skin and will enter the body in large quantities if the skin is broken with a wound or burn. For these and other reasons, the FDA has banned its use except by prescription.

All types of prescriptions will be filled easily by our staff at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We stock baby needs, greeting cards, Russell Stover candy, cosmetics and toiletries. There is also a camera and film department. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

Rossi and Florio Win Re-election

Anthony Rossi and his running mate, Rose Florio, easily won re-election to another term as Democratic committeeman and committeewoman, in the 49th District, which comprises most of the Stephen Crane elderly area. With a total of 189 votes, the Rossi team enjoyed a better than 70-vote margin over the opposition.

On paper it appeared the election would be a lot closer since the opposition was out in full strength. However, the opposition had the wind knocked out of its sails when it mistakenly underestimated the political strength of Rossi, a gutsy, two-fisted battler. The opposition pulled every trick in the book in an effort to unseat the Rossi team but to no avail.

Nutley Jaycees Hosting Annual July Festival

An exciting week of rides, games, special entertainment, free giveaways and old-fashioned family fun kicks off July 17 to 21 at the Nutley Jaycees' 13th annual Summer Festival on Park Avenue.

The action-packed festival begins each week night at 7 and a 2 p.m. on Saturday. Special family discount coupons will be seen soon in local newspapers.

Besides amusement rides for children and teenagers, wheels and games of chance will offer a variety of merchandise from televisions and hair blowers to T-shirts for rock 'n' rollers and cuddly dolls.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoon, balloons will be given out free to all children under 10 years of age. A surprise celebrity "raff" will make his second annual festival appearance on Saturday to the delight of all youngsters.

Over 100 dealers will also be offering their handicrafts and art creations along with useful and sometimes unusual household items at Saturday's one-day-only flea market, held directly across the street from Father Glotzbach Park on Park Avenue.

This year's Jaycees Festival committee includes chairman John Tien, coordinator Joe Carrino and sub-committee chairmen, Mike Olohan, George Biondi, Alex Sstarenik, Dave Sargent, Ken Vava, Jaycees' president John Campanile, Don Harrison, Tim Tanko and Frank Biancola.

This year's "festival of foods" is also extensive. Everything from Oriental style barbecued pork served shishkebob-skewered to corn-on-the-cob smothered in butter, along with the traditional favorites such as zepoles, pizza, ice cream, cotton candy, hot dogs, pretzels, sausage and peppers will all be there.

The Nutley Jaycees will also distribute membership applications to any young man aged 18-35 interested in joining the organization. A "Jaycees Information Booth" will be manned by Nutley Jaycees' Management Development vice president George Biondi to answer any questions about the Jaycees which the public might have.

Are you allergic to penicillin, morphine or sulfa? Do you have arthritis, a heart problem, or other "hidden" medical condition? Do you take medications regularly? Or want to be an organ donor?

Do you sometimes go out without proper identification? Or has the identification you generally carry ever been lost or stolen while traveling?

If you answer yes to one or more of these questions, wearing a Medic Alert bracelet or neckchain could help save your life if an emergency health situation should arise. Medic Alert is like insurance — it's there if you need it.

The individually engraved Medic Alert emblem will alert the doctor to your particular medical condition. This can help insure that you get proper treatment in an emergency.

The front of the bracelet or pendant bears the symbol of the medical profession, and health care personnel are trained to look for it in emergency situations.

The back is custom engraved to show whatever medical conditions the wearer may have that are not immediately visible, such as allergies to drugs, diabetes, heart conditions, epilepsy, high blood pressure, or many others.

The emblem also includes a 24-hour toll-free telephone number that emergency personnel may call to secure additional medical records. Medic Alert members can update these records annually.

It is natural to think that accidents happen only to others. But, unfortunately, sometimes they happen to us!

In emergencies, the information provided by the Medic Alert's life-protecting system can be invaluable to attending physicians since it helps prevent mistakes or inappropriate medical treatment. And wearing the emblem gives people a sense of security — just knowing their medical records will be there if needed is reassuring.

Even persons without serious medical conditions wear the Medic Alert emblem for identification purposes, including organ donors, joggers and travelers.

The cost of the Medic Alert bracelet or neckchain is only $15. This includes a lifetime membership in the Medic Alert Foundation.

If you plan to travel or just stay home, this emergency medical identification system is the one kind of insurance that can actually help save lives. Medic Alert members hope they will never need it. But in a medical emergency, it supplies critical medical data in seconds.

For a membership enrollment form, or other information, contact Medic Alert Foundation, 777 United Nations Plaza, New York, N.Y. 10017, telephone (212) 697-7470.

Kean Is Right

Recently some environmentalists have called for the resignation of Department of Environmental Protection Commissioner Bob Hughey. This drastic request is based upon an alleged failure of Bob Hughey to deal efficiently with the removal of toxic waste materials. Governor Tom Kean responded to Hughey's critics by strongly making the point that Bob Hughey has been in the forefront in cleaning up toxic waste dumps in New Jersey — that the problem is statewide, and 50 to 75 years in the making. Gov. Kean issued a ringing endorsement for Bob Hughey's performance.

We have had a number of dealings with Bob Hughey. New Jersey is fortunate to have a person of his ability and dedication to head up the Department of Environmental Protection. Hughey is a hard-working, dedicated public official. Instead of throwing stones at Hughey, he should be applauded for trying to remove governmental red tape in order to deal effectively with problems adversely affecting the environment.

Hughey is a good and dependable man, entitled to better treatment from people who assert a sincere interest in a clean environment.

Religious Viewpoint

Sobering Statistics

By Rev. Robert Paul

Jim is a high school student. He picks up some friends for an evening drive — they take beer with them. In a few hours Jim is dead. He is one of the 50 young Americans who die each day in alcohol-related accidents. Surveys show that half of our high school students drink regularly, much of it during driving situations, and that 20 percent of seventh grade students drink without supervision.

Alcohol is America's number three health problem and number one drug problem. There are at least 18 million alcoholics and problem drinkers in our country today. Ninety-seven percent of these are in homes, offices and factories.

Each year problem drinkers are involved in one million traffic collisions with more than 28,000 deaths and 500,000 injured. Over 55 percent of all highway deaths are alcohol-related. Between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m., one in every 10 drivers are intoxicated.

Alcohol is a contributing factor in 31 percent of homicides, 36 percent of suicides, 31 percent on non-auto accidents and 75 percent of crimes. The cost of alcohol-related crimes in each state is staggering. Industry also experiences great losses. The latest available figure was $25 billion annually.

The number of chronic alcoholics in the U.S. Navy is estimated at 30,000 and their alcoholism costs the taxpayers $45 million a year!

In today's emotionally frustrating and technologically complicated society, many people are turning to the bottle as an escape.

Although it's long been known that excessive drinking damages the brain, a new report contends that even social drinking destroys brain cells. Evidence shows that when a drinker begins to feel the least bit giddy, a few of his brain cells are being killed. A heavy drinking bout can damage or destroy as many as 10,000 cells.

The Bible says, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." You need the power of God through faith in Christ to keep you from this awful habit, and that is why the Lord Jesus Christ told us we had to be born again. (St. John 3.) Friends, believe God loves you and that Jesus Christ died for your sins, and raised up again for your justification. "The just shall live by faith." Trust Christ today! (St. John 1:12.)

Letter Policy

The Times continues to receive letters on a variety of topics which unfortunately, may never find their way onto our editorial page. That is because they are unsigned.

As a matter of policy, The Times accepts only signed letters. "Signatures" such as "A Concerned Citizen" or "A Worried Parent" will not do. Only names will suffice. However, we will withhold names from publication upon request.

Principal Says Thanks To Editor For Treat

To the editor:

On behalf of School 7, I would like to extend my thanks to Ed Capparucci, editor of The Belleville Times, for his participation in the delicious lemon ice treat last week. It was a delightful lift which carried us through an otherwise unbearably hot day.

Sincerely,
Marilyn Hawthorne
Principal of School 7

Committee Leaders Say Thank You To Supporters

To the editor:

We would like to thank everyone who came out to vote for us and the committee that helped us get elected in the June election. We will try to serve the people to the best of our ability. We will have an open-door policy so that you can call on us at any time. Thank you again.

Respectfully,

Lois Servidio

TV Report On Pope Effective

To the Editor:

I saw the story of John Paul II on television April 23 and enjoyed it very much. I have always found watching documentaries, especially when it is filmed in other countries, very interesting.

My brother-in-law watched it also and he said he didn't realize how much violence was in it. What do you expect? It was Poland in the '30s and '40s under the Germans. After that, under the Russians. So it was known for much violence.

As for the man himself, it was a very interesting story. What a remarkable man we Catholics now have at the head of our church. He is realistic enough to bring a few changes to the Catholic Church. I feel there are a few needed. I won't go into details again because of what I have stated as being needed in earlier letters. My readers know what I refer to.

I sure enjoyed the life story of this man. I think it was unique and superbly done. How he was raised and then finally decided to serve God. For awhile there, he had to struggle and didn't know which way his life was to go.

Sincerely,
Bill Rundle
Essex County Geriatrics Center
Belleville

Boxing Leader Thanks OBC For Coverage Of Fights

To the editor:

I would like to extend my thanks and appreciation to OBC-TV and Mr. Caesar Romano for their excellent coverage of our annual charity boxing show. Caesar was just terrific as the commentator and his crew did a wonderful job of filming the bouts.

Thanks again for a job well done.

Ray Spencer
President
Veteran Boxers Club of N.J.

Senior Citizens Are Planning July 19 Trip

Golden Comments

By James Golden

U.S. Senator Richard G. Lugar, a Republican from Indiana whose term ends in 1989, is chairman of a fund-raising move to retain the Republican majority in the United States Senate. He writes, "...he (President Reagan) told me how very worried he was about the outcome of the 33 Senate races that will be gearing up very soon."

Of course, Mr. Reagan is very much worried since it has been the Republican Senate majority which has given him almost everything he asked for and helped to block the measures he opposed.

With Senate Majority Leader Howard Baker leaving the Senate next year, what better way to attract favorable attention as the leader of the GOP in the next session of the Senate than to fill the coffers of the National Republican Senatorial Committee in a drive to elect those he hopes will do the bidding of the White House should Mr. Reagan be re-elected President.

Now! To get to the U.S. Senate, you have to be rather clever and polished and Senator Lugar seems to be a pretty "sharp cookie." He and Senator Baker realize that there are several levels of strata among our society in relation to wealth. Taking this in mind, they set up applications to participate by contributing in differing amounts.

With polish and class, they call upon the "small fry" Republican to contribute $33. Why? Because that's just $1 for each Senate seat up for election, but, oh boy, for the big boys it's a different story. They're the "money bags." They are invited to contribute $1,000 for membership in the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle or $2,000 to include your spouse for 1984 membership in this exclusive organization.

Inner Circle members must be nominated for membership by a past or present Republican member of the United States Senate and must contribute annual dues of $1,000. The Republican Senatorial Inner Circle is dedicated to working for continuing Republican members of the Senate, as well as the election of new Republican members. The committee channels millions of dollars into Republican Senate campaigns via direct financial aid and professional assistance. All Inner Circle funds are escrowed to go directly to Republican Senatorial incumbents and candidates.

Despite all of its ballyhooed exclusivity, the recipient nominees invited to join by sending in their $1,000 or $2,000 check is advised they may "fill in the names of the individuals you are recommending for membership on the reverse side of this card. A full package of information regarding all the benefits of Inner Circle membership will be forwarded to them upon acceptance in the Inner Circle.

Smacks of being a clever device designed to entice affluent contributors to "shell out" their shekels in a massive money drive to re-elect Mr. Reagan President and perpetuate a Republican controlled United States Senate by subtle blandishment and cajolery. They'd be "suckers" to be "taken in" by such a ploy, unless, of course, they're the rich Republican "fat cats" who have "cleaned up" under Reagan Administration policies or taking good care of the rich at the expense of senior citizens who are faced with staggering Part B Medicare cost increases proposed by the Administration.

This proposal would nearly triple the premium by 1990 from $146 in 1983 to $492 in 1990, adding $1900 to out-of-pocket costs for a single Part B enrollee and $3800 to out-of-pocket costs for a couple between 1985 and 1990.

Although the Part B premium now represents only 25 percent of government expenditures for Part B, beneficiaries actually pay over 60 percent of physicians' charges under Part B due to additional out-of-pocket payments associated with required Part B deductibles and coinsurance and charge reductions for unassigned claims.

Under the current law, the Part B deductible equals $75 and the Administration wants hikes annually. The Health Care Financing Administration estimates that the deductible would be $80 in 1985, a $5 increase, and rise yearly thereafter.

The legacy that President Franklin D. Roosevelt left the senior citizens of this nation is being emasculated and destroyed by the policies of President Reagan and the Republican Party...they don't deserve a damn cent.

Money should be contributed to drive them out of office.

Tennis Lessons Are Available

The Belleville Recreation Department will again offer tennis lessons and learn-to-swim lessons for children ages 8-15 this summer. Both programs are tentatively slated to begin the week of July 2, and more information on both programs can be obtained by contacting the Recreation Department or by visiting a director at one of the playground sites.

Tennis lessons will be held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings at the stadium tennis courts, from 9:30-10:30 a.m. for 8-11-year-olds and 10:30-11:30 a.m. for ages 12-15.

Learn-to-swim lessons at the Friendly House will be scheduled in the afternoons, according to the number of participants from each playground. Both programs should run approximately six weeks.

Anyone who is interested must be 8 years old by July 1. There is no charge for either program, and tennis students must supply their own racquets and balls.

These programs are for Belleville residents only.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMalo D.C.

Chiropractic science holds that vibrant good health is normal and natural and that good health is dependent on the full, unimpeded functioning of the nerves and the nervous system.

When ill health, in whatever form, occurs, the chiropractor looks for a vertebral misalignment that might be pinching a nerve and thus shutting down the required flow of nerve energy.

Not only back trouble but any problem in any of the body's muscles, glands or vital organs can often be relieved by correcting the basic cause—a misaligned vertebra.

Alcoholics Must Admit That A Problem Exists

Dear CMHS:

A friend told me you helped him get help for himself when he was feeling depressed so maybe you can help me also. My problem is my father. He lost his job a year ago when his company moved to California. He collected unemployment and was given severance pay and we all looked at it as being a well deserved vacation. Two months passed by, then four and the vacation was turning into a nightmare. Dad sat home drinking at least a six-pack of beer nightly. He became nasty, moody and plain hard to live with. Dad finally found a job paying him one third less than what he was making before. He continues to drink in the evenings and although his disposition is a bit better, he continues to belittle our efforts to get ahead.

I think dad has a drinking problem but no one in the house is willing to listen to what I have to say. I love him and don't want him to end up on skid row. What can I do?

A Concerned Son

Dear Concerned Son:

Clearly, it is difficult for you to confront your father alone since other family members are supporting his denial. But you should not hesitate to make your thoughts and feelings known to your father and other family members. Alcoholics must first acknowledge their problem before they can change. What you can do is help your dad get involved with a program if he expresses a desire to stop drinking. There are many different forms of alcohol treatment. Certainly he ought to be examined for any medical problems that might be related to his drinking. Perhaps if his doctor confronts him with some physical damage, it might jar your father into seeking out peer counseling like Alcoholics Anonymous.

Belleville's Past

*The Hendricks Family
1755-1939*

Lotteries provided the legal means of raising the funds that paid for building many of the churches, colleges and public institutions of early America. It was business Uriah Hendricks never let slip out of his hands. He conducted all sorts of lotteries.

Uriah Hendricks' Pearl Street home was located not far from the Battery. Edward Livingston, a lawyer who later became Secretary of State, lived close by as did Archibald Gracie, in a stately mansion. On the southern corner of Pearl Street, fronting the Battery, Gardiner Baker opened a menagerie in 1794. Here he exhibited a variety of wild animals which could be seen for a small admission fee. Under the guidance of his father, Harmon Hendricks, he was sent on a tour of the states to become acquainted with the American market. Shortly after his return, he embarked on a voyage to the West Indies to learn the island trade. He returned to Pearl Street in 1792 after an absence of almost a year. His apprenticeship completed, he was eager to venture into the business world on his own. With money that he had saved and the assurance of a loan from his father, he rented a storehouse in the Old Slip. Harmon Hendricks was determined to enter the island trade in preference to the carrying trade with Europe.

The West Indian trade proved very profitable. Hickory canes, hair ribbons, umbrellas, watches, cheap jewelry and barrels of New England onions, flour or apples were shipped regularly from New York to Jamaica. In return, he received such produce as coffee, quince, pears, pimento, ginger, "Spanish segars" and puncheons of castor oil. After the Revolution, Uriah Hendricks resumed the trade with the English merchants. He imported vast quantities of copper, tin, lead, pig and bar iron from Bristol and London. The American consumer, after the Revolution, was as dependent upon manufactured English goods as he had been when he was still a colonial subject. Americans still brewed English tea in the brass or copper kettles that were made in Bristol; their food was still served on the shiny tin plates that were cut and edged in the London mills and those who wore brass buttons on their waistcoats knew that the foundries of Great Britain had produced them. The soap boiler who required thick sheets of copper for his vats, the small farmer who converted part of his corn and rye crop into whiskey and needed good copper bottoms for his stills, and the coppersmith who used a variety of bars, rods and plates, all could turn to Uriah Hendricks satisfied that their needs would be supplied. New York City brass founders, coppersmiths, tin stores, plumbers, and pewterers were the backbone of Hendricks' local trade.

Before the Revolution, England would not permit any manufacturing to be carried on in America. Raw materials would be sent to England and the finished product returned. After the war, it still continued to be so even though Alexander Hamilton tried to encourage domestic manufacturing.

School 7 Annual Candy Drive Raises Over $8,000 For Educational Purposes

The OPE of School 7 completed its annual candy sale and once again the parents and students made it a huge success.

More than $2,800 in prizes alone were awarded to the students, according to Susan Cafone, the president of OPE.

Along with the several hundred Burger King food certificates awarded to the students who sold candy, there were many other valuable items. They included calculators, Sony Soundabouts, Kodak Disc cameras, Cabbage Patch sleeping bags and gift certificates from Micky Music.

The classroom selling the most candy was awarded a pizza party. The winners in the K-3 grade level were the students of Miss Doherty's morning kindergarten class. At the upper grade level was Mrs. Rusomano's fifth grade class.

Overall the drive netted more than $8,000 profit. Many items are purchased for the school thanks to the hard work of parents and faculty who made this program a success. Among the items purchased were software for the computers in School 7, additional educational materials for each of the classrooms and $1,000 for the library to purchase new books. The OPE also purchased new gym equipment, made donations to the scholarship fund as well as subsidizing field trips and running an assembly program on reading.

In the past such things as new school equipment, among which was a video tape machine, had been purchased with the proceeds of this sale.

"As a parent and educator in the Belleville school system, I would like to commend the parents and teachers for their fine effort," said Dennis Villano. "A special note of thanks to Mrs. Cafone and her many workers for a fine and successful drive."

Top Prize Winner — Marilyn Hawthorne, principal of School 7, poses with Deane Tunis, the top prize winner in the School 7 candy drive. Over $8,000 was raised through the event.

'Amadeus' Hits High Notes at Summerfun Theatre

By Mike Olohan

"I absolve you all of mediocrity," she pleasure to watch. The play marvelously re-creates the 18th century rivalry that developed between Vienna court composer Antonio Salieri and a young upstart named Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Through the play, the audience relives the events that led up to Salieri's deathbed assertion that he poisoned Mozart — if only spiritually.

R. Paul Hamilton's buoyant, adolescent portrayal of Mozart helped him steal virtually every scene he was in. As the carefree, Candide-like Mozart, Hamilton delivered pom-pom-puncturing lines with gusto and provided an energizing presence that made every other character around him come alive. As Antonio Salieri, Craig MacDonald was magnificent. Mac-

Donald's acting range — from play narrator and wheedle-haired bound old man to his quick transition into young, jealous Salieri and the grey-cloaked messenger of God — was done skillfully and methodically. His emotional range and the believability of each character made Salieri both a multi-dimensional and breathtaking stage presence.

Daniel R. Corey, Wayne Bushell and Ed Francisco were superlative in their roles as the Council to the Baron. When all three first appear on stage, it's hard to tell whether they're was figures since they stand perfectly still for several minutes. Then suddenly they move into the scene, each adding his own uniquely upper-crustian accent to the roles they play. As the Baron, Michael Monte plays a benevolent, insulated leader but adds the perfect lighthearted complement to Hamilton's Mozart. As the Baron over Vienna's 18th century musical mediocrity, he tells Mozart his operas are good but they "just have too many notes." An interesting observation, to say the least.

One aspect of this play that was particularly impressive was the crispness of each character's dialogue and the perfect pacing which kept the action from stagnating. The only debit: at times, Salieri's words, or more accurately ramblings, were incomprehensible and detracted from the play's enjoyment.

Yet, the stage decorations, as finely detailed and unobtrusive as possible, were truly exceptional in recreating the ambience of 18th century Vienna. Robert Klinghoefer, the production designer, is to be heartily commended.

The costuming by Annie Milton was also exquisitely period-provoking, and added an essential nuance to the historical accuracy of playwright Peter Shaffer's Tony Award-winning drama. The musical segments were flawlessly interspersed and sounded a high note; though Memorial Auditorium's sound system could use a little fine tuning. Betty Sanders deserves praise for her crucial contribution.

On a personal note, I saw my first play at Summerfun Theatre several years ago and rarely have I been disappointed. It seems that with each new company of actors and actresses (combining both old and new members), the group brings more depth and versatility than the previous troupe. I applaud producer W. Scott MacConnell for his dedication in providing Broadway-quality theater to North Jersey residents.

Wolfgang Mozart — R. Paul Hamilton's buoyant and adolescent portrayal of Mozart in the Summerfun Theatre's production of 'Amadeus', was the hit of the show, as he stole virtually every scene he was in.

Belleville Junior Women Elect New Executive Officers for 1984

The Junior Woman's Club of Belleville began its 14th year with a candlelight ceremony in honor of the installation of the 1984 executive board officers.

MaryAnn Flor took the oath of office for her second consecutive term as president of the club.

Other new officers include: Kathy Decker, first vice president; Georgeann Ventola, second vice president; Joyce Wittish assisted by Ellen Honsinger, third vice president; Cathy Watson, treasurer; Julie Paoletta, corresponding secretary; and Kathy Shandra, federation secretary.

New members welcomed into the club this year included Karen Saegers and Chris Monaco.

Guests included: Sherry Moccia, junior advisor; Barbara Spillane, sub-junior advisor; Tricia Spillane, sub-junior president; and Mrs. Lorena Clark served as installing officer.

Mrs. Flor delivered the president's message, a theme of which was "The Challenge to Make It Happen — Improvement Through Dedication and Cooperation."

Future club events include the opening of a local chapter of the "Make A Wish Foundation," the annual husband and wife social, and a dinner-fashion show which will be scheduled in the fall of 1984.

All women between the ages of 18 and 35 are welcomed to join. For additional information, call 751-4975.

Braves Suffer Three Losses; Garilli Looks For Answers

Inconsistency. It has spoiled a number of good teams and has given managers and players a great deal of gray hairs. You don't have to look far to find a good example of a team with those qualities. The Belleville Braves are struggling right now, having dropped three games in the last four tries and head coach Sal Garilli is reaching for some answers.

The Braves will host Millburn in a big game tonight at Belleville High School, starting at 6 p.m. On Sunday, the team will be in Millburn for a 5 p.m. start. Earlier this week, Belleville traveled to Union to face the Jays.

"We're very inconsistent," said Garilli of his 6-9 team. "On some days, we look like the best team in the league and on others, well, we are very lackadaisical. I've said it before and I still feel this way: We have the best team in this league and when everyone gets it together, we'll be tough to stop."

The Braves might have shown some signs of breaking the drought.

Last Friday, the team defeated defending champions West Orange, 12-7, as Greg Weber and Dominick Vazzano led the offense.

Weber, according to Garilli, has been unbelievable of late. In the West Orange game, he pounded out two homers and entering this week's action, has seven at-bats. "He's been unbelievable, just super," said Garilli of his slugger. "Greg has tremendous bat speed, he's really been doing a great job."

Another man who has found the hitting groove is Vazzano. Entering this week's play, he has a robust .466 batting average, good for third in the Essex County Baseball League. In the West Orange victory, he had two hits and has been very tough to stop in the last two weeks.

Anthony Coco, after a slow start, has begun to find the groove on the mound. The former BHS star won his first game of the summer in defeating West Orange in relief and Garilli is hoping his ace pitcher can continue the trend.

Recreation Softball League The Scene of Exciting Play

Week seven in the Belleville Recreation Men's Monday "A" Softball League was filled with a great deal of action. For Pete's Sake remained tie for first place by squeezing out Bumpers, 2-1. Also in first place, Printing Techniques won two games, slashing Champion Bumpers, 8-1, and J & R Insulation, 11-4. Dropping two games, Suburban Cable lost to J & R Insulation, 11-4 and Suppa's Bar, 5-0.

The sixth week of action took place in the Tuesday Men's Softball "B" League on Jun 19. Belleville Shoes climbed into a tie for first place by sweeping two games, beating Roselli's Amoco, 11-6, and Megaro Memorial Home, 15-7. Splitting two games, Brothers Total Construction jarred All Guard Insurance, 13-12, and lost to Roselli's Amoco, 9-6. The Belleville Political/Social Club dropped two games, losing to Megaro Memorial, 5-3, and to All Guard Insurance, 8-7.

De Bacco Brothers won two games in the Belleville Recreation Wednesday "A" Softball League during the fifth week of action. They defeated De Lorenzo Construction, 7-0, and Burger King, 8-5. Sweeping a double header, Charles Daniels slipped by Mr. Dees Rock Arena, 12-7, and De Lorenzo Construction, 7-4. Splitting two games, Rosmore/Hess lost to Burger King, 10-7, then bounced back to beat Mr. Dees Rock Arena, 6-3.

Week seven took place in the Belleville Men's Thursday "B" Softball League on June 21. Eastern Molding split two games, beating Campbell State Pet, 8-2, dropping two games, Rosbud's Pub lost to Red Shingle, 15-14, and Eastern Sales, 6-5. Campbell Tool beat the Red Shingle, 12-8, and finally Garden State Pet tied Eastern Sales, 12-12.

The eighth week of action took place in the Belleville Thursday "B"

Softball League on June 28. Remaining in first place, Eastern Molding (10-3) beat Rosbud's Pub, 8-7, and then lost to Eastern Sales, 6-5. Splitting two games, Campbell Tools (8-5) crushed Garden State Pet, 16-3, and lost to Rosbud's Pub (3-9-1), 8-3. Garden State Pet (6-5-2) bounced back to beat the Red Shingle, 7-2. Eastern Sales (4-8-1) accepted a forfeit from Red Shingle (6-7).

Week six in the Belleville Recreation Wednesday "A" Softball League was held on June 27. In first place, Rosmore/Hess (6-3) divided two games, getting crushed, 9-1, by De Lorenzo Construction, then coming back to defeat Charles Daniels, 8-6. The De Bacco Bros. dropped two games, losing by the identical score of 5-2 to Charles Daniels (4-5) and Mr. Dees Rock Arena. The Rock Arena (5-4) also defeated Burger King (3-6), 7-4, who also lost to De Lorenzo Construction (4-5), 6-5.

The ninth week of action took place in the Belleville Men's Tuesday "B" Softball League on June 26. Tied for first place, Brothers Total Construction (9-4) swept a double header, beating Megaro Memorial Home, 9-8, and Belleville Shoes, 12-5. After losing that game, Belleville Shoes (9-4) squeezed by Belleville Political/Social Club, 1-0.

Former BHS Diamondman Finds Pleasure in Travel

With the summer months upon us, Buc Shots will do some feature stories on former Belleville High School graduates and what they're doing now. Our feature begins with a 1978 BHS grad who always had a desire to be a travel agent, and today he has become one of the best in the business.

His name is Phil Agosta, a former baseball player for George Zanfini who has fond memories of his days at BHS. "We had some good teams when I was there," Agosta recalled the other day. "Coach Zanfini helped me a lot and I consider him a very good friend today. A lot of the guys I played with back then are friends of mine today. We had a lot of fun back then. I just can't believe it's been six years since I graduated."

As a sophomore in 1976, Agosta was a jayvee player and remembers that varsity team. "They were 24-4 that year, and playing alongside those guys gave us a lot of confidence for the next season."

Agosta remembers the 1976 season as a learning experience for him. His biggest game came in a jayvee contest when he cracked three triples, drove home seven runs and led Belleville to a 14-11 victory.

In 1977, the season started off rocky but ended in near disaster. The Bellbros were 11-3 at one point of the campaign, but disarray broke in when Zanfini went out with hepatitis and the team fell to 18-15. "That year," said Agosta, "I thought we had one of the better teams in the state. We started off looking good and I figured the second half would be super. I really thought we would win the state title that year."

Agosta's memories that year included a big state tournament game, with Scotch Plains. "I don't think I was ever as nervous as I was before that game. The place was packed, it was unreal."

In 1978, with Zanfini back on the sidelines, the new Bellbros returned to the annals of victorious baseball. "My senior year, we had a solid team," remembers Agosta. "We had Joe Franchiscini at first base, Jerry Fazzini at second, Jim Tensfeldt at shortstop and Pat Nufrio playing third. Our catcher was Mickey (Lemongelli) and the outfield was myself in left, Mike Nicosia in center and Dean Campana in right field."

The pitching staff was anchored by Danny Borgo, the winningest pitcher in BHS history. Borgo teamed with Campana to lead Belleville to an 18-4 record. "We played Our Lady of the Valley under the lights," recalled Agosta, "and lost 2-0. It was a super game, a great pitcher's duel between Tim Byron and Borgo. Byron was one of the best pitchers I ever saw. He had tremendous stuff and kept us off balance most of the evening."

The next day, Belleville had a morning contest scheduled with West Essex, and turned to Campana to get the team back on a winning note. "Dean pitched a one-hitter, we won the game and got back on track," said Phil.

After graduation, Agosta decided to attend computer school, but it wasn't his liking. "I always wanted to get into travel, so I left computer school and gave the travel industry a try." It wasn't easy at first. While working as a trainee in the travel business, Agosta sold insurance to make extra money while he learned his ultimate trade.

After attending the Roberts Walsh Business School, Agosta took a job with World Travel of Fairfield, N.J., and has been doing very well ever since. "I wouldn't give it up for anything," said Agosta. "I've been able to travel a great deal and the work is great. I'm hoping to start a travel agency of my own soon and possibly expand that business."

Phil also plans to be married on Sept. 29, 1984 to Debbie Guarino, a 1978 graduate of Belleville High School. "There are so many good memories when it comes to Belleville High," Phil said. "There were a lot of friends, a lot of good times. I think my success today has a lot to do with my upbringing in Belleville. I learned a great deal from this town."

There are many memories, most notably when the 1978 Belleville baseball team won the last Big 10 championship before the league folded. "Playing with those guys was great," Phil said in closing. "It brings back a lot of nice memories."

Seeing a young Belleville graduate doing well in the business world is extra special because he or she is a product of the Belleville school system and the Belleville way of life. During the summer, we'll be profiling other former Belleville athletes who have gone on to careers and how they feel about their days at Belleville High School. If you have anyone in particular that you would like interviewed, give me a call at The Belleville Times or drop a line to the paper. I'd be glad to listen and would appreciate your input.

Next week, the summer sports swing into full gear. In addition to the Belleville Braves, we'll have the Belleville boys' basketball team in the summer league, the Belleville legion team, the Flashback story and the weekly major league baseball story.

What do you think of the United States Football League playoffs? Even the most disinterested fan had to take some interest in the Michigan-Los Angeles encounter last weekend. The longest game in professional football history, played in 100-degree heat. It was quite a test of stamina and raw guts. Perhaps people don't realize the pain it takes for athletes to play in that kind of weather. I know they're highly paid players and it's their job to play, no matter what, but the game was exciting and it could have been a big boost to the United States Football League.

Speaking of a big boost, the San Diego Padres had a special occasion last Friday night that attracted over 50,000 fans at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego. Having been at the game myself, I can say firsthand it was an unbelievable affair. While the Padres and Cardinals were playing on the field, the game marked the 10th anniversary of the San Diego Chicken and fans throughout the country came to see this historic mascot, who makes over $1 million a year to strut around the stadium. It was a blockbuster affair, too bad that kind of event couldn't be held at Yankee or Shea Stadium. It would be of interest to the fans and might rekindle some of that lost magic that has befallen on Yankee Stadium.

The biggest sporting event in the history of sports, the Olympics, will take place in Los Angeles starting on July 27. Even though the Soviet Union and a number of Eastern Block Countries will not attend, the games will be a big success. Having just been in California, I can tell you that the games are a near sellout. The enthusiasm is tremendous and the people will come out, whether or not the Russians are there. Because, despite all the politics, all the jabber and jabber, the bottom line is when an athlete steps onto that podium and hears the national anthem of his country playing in the background, no one really cares whether the USSR, Cuba and East Germany pulled out. These athletes have worked all their lives for this one moment. It should be a super affair and hopefully, one with long lasting memories for the United States team.

For this week's quiz, name the participants in the 1955 World Series and the outfielder who made a sparkling catch to preserve victory for his team.

Heard At Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Sugar Ray Leonard's retirement announcement covered up the sham during the end of the Leonard-Kevin Howard bout at the Centrum, Worcester, Mass. The scoring by the judges and referee was uncanny. They only gave Howard a 10-9 round that Leonard was decked. In rounds that Leonard did the best show-boating, and nothing else, they gave him 10-8. The scoring was weird. Referee Richard Flaherty's action in stopping the fight was also irregular. The bout was stopped while the fighters were in a clinch. Howard was not cut, not marked, was able to protect himself and capable of fighting. The fight was stopped to save Leonard. The crowd's booing of Flaherty's lapse of the rules and regulations demonstrated he was in fog land. Massachusetts Boxing Commission has a standing eight-count rule. Howard was not given an eight-count.

The fight between former WBC heavyweight champion Larry Holmes and WBA titlist Gerrie Coetzee faced another crisis last week when the guarantee letter of credit for $4.5 million was not produced. A spokesman for the promotional group claims, "It wasn't that they didn't have it." If this is true, why the delay? The two fights that remain vivid in the minds of many old timers pitted world welterweight champion Tony De Marco of Boston, Mass., and challenger Carmen Basilio of Canastota, N.Y., on June 10, 1955, with Basilio winning the crown by a KO at 1:52 of the 12th round at Syracuse, N.Y. In the second "war," Basilio retained the crown by a TKO at 1:54 of the 12th round in Boston, Mass. Both pugilists greats fought a clean, colorful, toe-to-toe slugfest.

According to one boxing historian, "Jersey Joe" Walcott started fighting when he was 16 years old. After 27 years in the ring — at age 43 — he kayaked Ezzard Charles to capture the heavyweight title on July 18, 1951. All record books show "Jersey Joe" was born in 1914 — we never did believe it — and never will. He was certainly more than 10 years old when he had his first professional fight against Young Firpo in 1924. Ring Record Book now omits Walcott's early record.

It is disheartening to note the little ink used to notify the boxing world about the passing of one of boxing's most popular scrappers to ever pull on the mitts and a former welterweight champion, Fritz Zivic at age 71. The former Pittsburgh crowd pleaser always gave the fans their money's worth of action during 230 fights over a 19-year span. Zivic captured the title from Henry Armstrong, who was considered unbeatable, via a 15-round decision on Aug. 28, 1940, and dropped it on a 15-round decision to Freddie "Red" Cochrane of Elizabeth, N.J., on July 29, 1941. Fritz zipped his last three years in a Pittsburgh Veterans Hospital with a brain disorder.

HBO, the cable outlet, is scheduling the long-awaited return to the ring of heavyweight contender Gerry Cooney of Huntington, L.I., on July 23. Cooney will fight Phil Brown of New Orleans, La., at Las Vegas or Houston site. Twenty-seven-year-old Cooney is 25-1, his only loss was to Larry Holmes on June 11, 1982. Brown, 28, is 22-0-2.

Thursday at The Golden Eagle Arena, Roger Stafford, 148, of Philadelphia, continued his return to the ring with an eight-round unanimous decision over Larry McCall, 152½, of Cincinnati, in the main event. In other bouts: Murray Frazier knocked out Maurice Young, 144, of Philadelphia, at 1:45 of first round. Frazier of Philadelphia weighed 137½; Chris Bajors, 147, of Philadelphia, WKO at 1:13 of the third round. Harold Hart, 141½, of Cincinnati, Jocko King, 133, of Philadelphia, WTKO at 2:51 of third round over Maurice Reed, 135½, of Cincinnati, and Eddie (E.T.) Thomas, 138½, of Philadelphia, and Anthony "Cobra" Williams, 139, of Philadelphia. The program was a Joe Verne promotion. Sy Roseman handled the publicity.

If the promoters of the Roberto Duran-Thomas Hearn's slugfest get together with Caesars Palace, the battle could be held in Las Vegas. The promoters say the deal to hold the bout in the Bahamas was never completed and the move is possible.

A bucket of ink was used to inform readers about the thumbless gloves to be used by Sugar Ray Leonard and Kevin Howard, made by Franklin, a company Leonard represented. Actually, the fighters wore gloves manufactured by Everlast. Angelo Dundee, a leading trainer of many top fighters in America and advisor for Mac Gregor Sporting Equipment Manufacturers, says of the thumbless gloves, "I believe a comprehensive medical study needs to be made before any fighter uses them. The thumb can go to sleep from being in a stationary position." The writer has heard similar complaints from fighters using the gloves while training at Gleason's and the Times Square gyms.

WBA lightweight champion Ray Mancini of Youngstown, Ohio, is the seventh fighter of Italian extraction to hold the lightweight title. He was preceded by Paddy De Marco of Brooklyn, N.Y., Sammy Angott (Samuel Emmit) of Washington, Pa., Lou Ambers (Louis D'Ambrosio) of Herkimer, N.Y., Tony Canzoneri of New York City, Sammy Mandell (Samuel Mandello) of Rockford, Ill., and Rocky Kanas (Rocco Tozzo) of Buffalo, N.Y. Mandell was the best, in his prime, an extremely clever technician who could also belt an opponent out.

Atlantic City's Tropicana put on a short four-bout card on Tuesday. Promoted by Don Elbaum and Ted Menas Productions. Joseph Summers, 152½, of Atlantic City, W-Dec. in four rounds over Juan Ward, 149½, of Allentown, Pa.; Reggie Boyer, 154, of Philadelphia, WTKO in second round over Ron Sulem, 158½, of Sloansville, N.Y.; Jeffery Hill, 166½, of Philadelphia, WTKO in second round over Theodis Legion, 165½, of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Sanderline Williams, 159½, of Cleveland, Ohio, W-Dec. in 10 rounds over Terry Holmes, 159½, of Kalamazoo, Mich. Williams was brought in as a substitute for Leroy Hester of Miami, Fla., who backed out at the last minute. It didn't bother Williams as he proceeded to upset the highly-touted Holmes.

Jack Dempsey-Gregory Carnation fight in Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, N.J., drew the first million dollar gate and was the first radio broadcast of a title fight.

Carmen Basilio was born in Canastota, N.Y. He started his boxing career as an amateur when he was 20 years old. After winning 11 of 14 bouts, he turned professional in 1948 at age 21 and announced his retirement from the squared circle April 25, 1961. In between Basilio's start and his retirement, he had 78 battles, winning 55, losing 16 and fighting seven draws. Carmen won the world welterweight title June 10, 1955 and lost it March 14, 1956. He regained the crown Sept. 12, 1956. Carmen vacated the welterweight throne and moved up to welterweight to capture the middleweight championship Sept. 23, 1957. Six months later, he lost the heavier title. Basilio is as popular today, at age 57, as an up-state New York businessman as he was when he packed arenas wherever he fought. Basilio is married. His hobbies are mixing with people, fishing and hunting.

Tuesday at the Tropicana in Atlantic City, middleweight Lindell Holmes of Detroit flattened Leroy Hester of Miami, Fla., in the sixth round of a scheduled 10-rounds. Holmes now sports a 20-2 with 18 knockout record. Hester's chart dipped to 14-4 with 12 KOs.

Wednesday at Harrah's in Atlantic City, cruiserweight Anthony Davis of Las Vegas, Nev., punched out a unanimous 12-round decision over veteran Jesse Burnett of New Orleans. The 38-year-old Burnett, for the fourth time, announced his retirement from boxing.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Melo

Ms. Laurie of Nutley asks: "What are impacted wisdom teeth?"
Well Laurie, wisdom teeth are the last set of molars we get. Throughout our lives, we get three sets of molars; the first at age six, the second at age twelve, and the last set between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one. Due to the mixing of large teeth and a small jaw, there sometimes isn't enough room for the last set of molars, the wisdom teeth, to fully erupt. The wisdom teeth then get locked into the jaw below the second molar. When this happens, it is a possibility of pain, abscess or a cyst developing around the unerupted tooth. This tooth should therefore, be extracted.
Thank you.

Why Not Save on Both Special and Regular Prices this July 4th Week!

Grand Union Regular Prices are Low; Grand Union Specials are Lower!

Grand Union has hundreds of Specials this July 4th Week besides the low low regular prices they prove every week with the Price Finder. You'll save, cookout or in!

Nothing less than USDA Choice Cuts; plenty of Fancy or US #1 fruits and vegetables; all the Big Brands. Quality high, prices low.

Only Grand Union proves their low regular prices with the Price Finder, helps you find Low Special Prices with the Red Dot.

Grand Union Consumer Price Finder

Contains over 9,000 regular prices for your shopping comparison.

As of July 1, 1984

Grand Union matches the lowest leading supermarket in your community.

Grand Union Red Dot weekly specials are even lower than the regular prices in this book. Do not compare these regular prices with weekly specials of any supermarket.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

This novena has never been known to fail. This novena must be said for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised.
O Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg of whom God has given great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and call you to be invoked. St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid.
Amen
Say 3 Our Father's, 3 Hail Mary's and 3 Gloria's.
L.C.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

This novena has never been known to fail. This novena must be said for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised.
O Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg of whom God has given great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and call you to be invoked. St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid.
Amen
Say 3 Our Father's, 3 Hail Mary's and 3 Gloria's.
L.C.

WE'RE FIGHTING FOR YOUR LIFE

WE CAN'T GUARANTEE YOU'LL NEVER HAVE A HEART ATTACK.
BUT A FEW FACTS CAN IMPROVE YOUR ODDS.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE. It often has no symptoms! So have your blood pressure checked regularly, no matter how well you feel. If it's high, take your doctor's advice. Then stick with your treatment program.

OVERWEIGHT OVERBURDENS. Stay at a healthy weight. If you need to lose, do it sensibly. By following a low-fat, nutritious meal plan. The American Heart Association can suggest good reducing diets; consult your doctor, too.

SMOKING? STOP! No cigarette is safe. And the sooner you quit the better. But take heart: within just a few years of stopping, your risk of death from cardiovascular disease will be almost the same as if you had never smoked.

EXERCISE GOOD SENSE. It's smart to have a physical before beginning any new exercise program. And choose activities to build cardiovascular endurance. The American Heart Association has information to get you started.

EAT TO YOUR HEART'S CONTENT. Because a high-fat diet can contribute to your risk of coronary artery disease, choose foods that are low in saturated (animal) fats and cholesterol. And stay on your best behavior: the good die old.

LEARN TO LIVE. For medical advice, your physician is a good source of information on your individual risk of heart disease and stroke. For helpful ideas on helping to prevent these health problems, contact the American Heart Association.

PUBLIC NOTICE GARBAGE STRIKE

DEAR RESIDENT:

B.F.I. (BROWNING FERRIS INDUSTRIES) IS OFFICIALLY ON STRIKE EFFECTIVE JULY 2, 1984. THERE WILL BE NO GARBAGE PICK-UP UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

RECOMMENDED PRACTICES TO BE USED DURING STRIKE

1. Separate all discarded food debris and food waste from all other non-food waste materials ie, paper, can, and glass bottles.
2. Rinse all food containers of food residue.
3. Double bag all food waste and food scraps.
4. Store Garbage Properly - Store double bagged garbage in a leak proof container with a tight fitting lid and place in cool shaded area. Garbage is not to be placed at the curb.

This office is sorry for any inconvenience caused by the strike.
