Ghostly Spirits — These ghoulish creatures are waiting to greet visiting trick or treaters Halloween night this Wednesday. The two skeletons waiting on the steps are temporarily "living" at the Duffy house on Joralemon Street while the cute little ghost can be found at 11 Liberty St.

Ghostly Spirits Come Alive As Halloween Approaches

By Linda Telesco

"I ain't afraid of no ghost," so says the theme song from the current hit movie "Ghostbusters," but when Halloween is in the air, superstitions seem a bit more spine chilling.

According to ancient beliefs, Oct. 31 was the last day of the year in the calendar of the Druids, a Celtic cult known as nature worshippers.

The Druids believed that on that night, the spirits of all who had died during the year would be assembled for a final judgment. Some who had lived evil lives, would be doomed, as punishment, to inhabit the body of an animal.

Although the night before All Saints Day evolved over the centuries, becoming little more than a day for fun and trickery in modern society, many still believe that on Halloween night, especially toward the approach of midnight, the veil between the world of the living and that of the spiritual is lifted permitting easy crossing from one to the other.

Both good and evil spirits may visit the living, one to torment and the other to warn about future events. Belleville neighborhoods may find themselves haunted next Wednesday by the township's spooky past.

Living in a locale favored by the ghostly can have its benefits though. Indeed, if spirits more easily cross to the world of the living Halloween the living may also call upon spirits for help or revelation.

Halloween night is a prime time for divinations, seances, crystal ball gazing, Ouija board consultations are the order of the evening.

Take your chances roaming the town looking for a gracious ghost, but a better idea is to stay home and enjoy the visits of little costumed Bellevillians.

Haul-Away Begins Work Collecting Garbage Here

By Linda Telesco

Delayed by a legal challenge that never got off the ground, Belleville's new garbage collectors went to work last Thursday.

Haul-Away Inc. of Hoboken began work on the five-year $3.4 million contract the firm won by a unanimous vote of Commissioners in August.

Slated to begin work on September 12, the day Belleville's 1-year $598,425 contract with Browning-Ferris Waste Industries (BFI) of North Jersey expired, the Haul-Away was stalled when the township's former scavenger filed suit against both Belleville and the Hoboken firm in an attempt to void the new contract.

According to Township Attorney Frank Zinna, a three-judge panel of the Appellate Division of Superior Court ruled last Wednesday after a 10-day hearing that BFI had no standing on which to challenge the township's contract award to Haul-Away.

"The court said BFI had no standing on which to pursue litigation," said Zinna.

The plaintiff firm sought to block the contract award on grounds that Haul-Away failed to submit all documentation required at the time bid proposals were presented to the Commissioners.

Specifically, BFI complained that Haul-Away failed to include an affidavit of non-collusion at the time of bidding on August 6 although the document, required according to the municipality's specifications, was submitted the following day.

Belleville contended in its argument that the omission was immaterial and easily remedied and fought for the right to validate the contract with the firm.

BFI was the only other bidder at the August session asking $4,732,460 for a five-year contract. Since Sept. 10, BFI continued to collect Belleville trash on a per diem rate based on the last contract.

The Fairfield firm, represented by attorney Arthur Kohn, was the victim of a similar legal suit in connection with Belleville garbage collection over a year ago.

In December 1982, BFI had been the lower of only two bidders seeking the township's municipal contract.

The other challenger, L. Pucillo and Sons, had been the township's scavenger for nearly two decades at the time, but appeared to lose out to the newcomer.

Commissioners awarded a five-year contract to BFI slated to take effect January 1, 1983.

However, just two days before Pucillo firm filed suit claiming BFI had failed to submit both an affidavit of non-collusion and a financial statement on the time of bidding although both were supplied within days.

In March, a superior court judge declared Belleville's contract with BFI void because of the omitted documents and permitted Pucillo to continue collection on a per diem basis.

Meantime, Belleville was ordered by courts to rebid the contract. After several unsatisfactory bidding sessions, the township awarded BFI in September 1983 a one-year contract.

Apparently operating on the same principal, the Fairfield firm sought to put Haul-Away in a similar position last month.

On Aug. 21, Superior Court Judge Paul Murphy ruled that Belleville could award the contract to Haul-Away. Murphy, according to Zinna, did not see the later submission of the affidavit in question to be a serious block to the contract, a decision contradicting the one against BFI in 1983.

Company officials said failure to submit the document was accidental and claimed there was some lack of clarity on the amateur in the specs.

BFI sought a stay of Judge Murphy's decision but the Appellate Division refused in August to grant the stay on grounds that BFI "was not a party to the action," in question.

In the time BFI was employed by Belleville, residents complained of irregular collections, particular on holidays, and sometimes impolite service.

Legislation Introduced by Orechio To Appropriate Funds for Water Plant

Senate President Carmen Orechio this week introduced legislation to solve the clean water problem in Belleville by providing the means to build the water filtration plant for Newark.

"I intend to advance these measures with my full support because the people of Belleville have been forced to tolerate discolored water for far too long," said the Senate president.

Commissioner Plans Lawsuit To Force Water Cleanup Here

Though recent attempts to remedy Belleville's dirty water problem have run dry, Public Works Commissioner Joseph Grande plans a counterattack.

"I'm going to take Newark to court," said Grande after the township meeting on Tuesday. Dissatisfied with efforts to get action through administrative channels, Grande said the Essex County communities that share Belleville's complaint may band together in a joint legal action against the Newark Water Company.

The Newark company is the supplier of water to Belleville and several other municipalities experiencing similar problems with periodically discolored water flowing from residential taps.

Previously, Grande said the problem — which occurs each year — resulted because Belleville was one of a handful of communities that received unfiltered water.

Only two weeks ago, the commissioner wrote to state Assemblyman Stephen Aduhato (D-30) asking that the legislator

"Through my years of experience in the State legislature, I have learned that the best way to get things done is to face every facet of a complex problem," he said. "In this case, to help the people of Belleville, we also have to help Newark."

In that regard, the Senate President has introduced a bill to appropriate $8 million in state money toward construction of the proposed $40 million water filtration plant for Newark which will be used by Belleville residents.

"This $8 million appropriation measure would restore funds to an existing law which provided a 20 percent state grant for the total cost of the filtration plant," the Senate president said.

"Unfortunately, this funding was lost when an emergency appropriation was needed to deal with the drought of 1981," he said. "It is now time, as a matter of simple justice, to restore those authorized funds at the same percentage of the project's total cost."

The second element of Senator Orechio's proposal is contained in a bill he has introduced which would effect substantial cost-savings by authorizing construction of the water filtration plant by private enterprise.

"Through the research of my Senate staff and consultation with experts in this area, it has been determined that the filtration plant can be completed by private enterprise at a savings of up to $10 million," Senator Orechio said.

The third component of the Senate president's plan is the provision for a low-interest loan to be made available for completion of the filtration plant through the creation of an Environmental Infrastructure Bank.

"This plan for Belleville is workable and it is realistic in light of the complex problems that must be faced," he said. "But the crucial ingredient, for which I pledge my wholehearted support, is the cooperation of all local and state officials. Together, we will reach our shared goal — clean water for the people of Belleville."

Township's Parking Meters To Serve as Business Booster

Belleville's parking meters may soon be doing double duty as billboards for local businesses.

A proposal to sell advertising for posting on municipal meters was presented to the Board of Commissioners Tuesday by Meter Readers of Ridgely Park.

Representing the 5-month-old firm, Paul L. Passante explained the system, billed as "a new concept in advertising," would generate revenues for the township while promoting patronage of local merchants.

"It's a fairly new idea in New Jersey," said Passante who noted the system has worked successfully in numerous California communities and is under consideration by some New Jersey communities, including Perth Amboy, Rutherford, and Kearny.

According to Passante, Meter Readers would pay Belleville for every meter used. He estimated the pay would range from $2 to $3 per month for every meter rented to a merchant.

The merchants would pay the firm between $8 and $12 monthly for the advertising space.

Passante said the ads would be 3x4 inches and could be attached to either the front, back or side of the machine depending on its make.

According to company literature provided by the firm, Meter Readers agreed that if hired, it would approach local merchants and businesspeople first before attempting to sell space to outsiders.

They also request a two-year lease with interested municipalities.

No political ads would be posted under the agreement.

Passante said Tuesday he first expressed an interest in dealing with Belleville to Police Chief George Lister last June.

The representative was invited to present the firm's plan to commissioners by Public Safety Director Ralph DiRuggiero.

Following the presentation during the board's pre-meeting, Mayor Michael Marotti said he would send the details of the proposal to Chief Lister. "We want to wait until his recommendation," Marotti told Passante.

Lister is away until the end of the month at a police chiefs convention in Utah.

Afterwards, DiRuggiero said he thought the advertising might be a good idea. "I'm in favor of this if it helps keep people shopping in Belleville."

When asked if he thought such a project might detract from the township's appearance, DiRuggiero said, "It depends on how they are posted. Once we see them, we'll know if that might be a problem."

Washington Avenue is the only street in Belleville with parking meters. A major thoroughfare, the Avenue is the home to many local businesses and is the object of recent revitalization plans designed to end what officials fear is a trend of decay and deterioration.

Buccaneers Win!

Sweep — Buccaneer running back John Oliveri (43) follows lineman John Apicella for good gain in third quarter of last Saturday's contest with Passaic. The Bucs stunned the previously unbeaten Indians, 7-0, dealing Passaic its first loss since Thanksgiving Day 1982. The victory was Belleville's fourth of the season, against one loss and gives them four wins against Passaic over the last six years.

Belleville Business Bureau

Don't Hire Employees; Lease Them

By Howard P. Halpern

A new concept in hiring employees, lease them from a leasing firm. When a business owner turns his employees over to a leasing firm, he no longer legally has any employees and he becomes the sole employee of his own firm. Work patterns remain the same and the owner retains ultimate control over his staff, hiring, firing, promotions, and discipline. The leasing company assumes all administrative and fiduciary responsibilities, providing benefits, payroll taxes, and meeting the payroll. The owner sends the firm one check each pay period. As large employers, leasing firms can get much better group insurance rates than small businesses can. Since Congress passed the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act in 1982 more and more businesses have been turning to leasing companies.

What's a great investment for industrialists, professionals, or business owners large of small? An investment, paid annually, that could help your business grow, be recognized as a reputable firm, help the community bring more business to the area and be part of an organization that will go to bat for you in matters of expansion, zoning, parking, and local regulations, etc. If you're thinking that this is just another advertising gimmick, mail order promotion, or securities investment scheme, you're dead wrong. This prominent townwide organization is not a social club of a charity organization even though your investment is completely tax deductible. General membership meetings are held once a month with a few social activities throughout the year to loosen you up. The officers and board members are elected by their peers in the business community and are there to serve you, the business person. This is not "Trivial Pursuit," because there's nothing trivial about this organization. We are the Belleville Chamber of Commerce. Join us.

Most recently joining the Chamber is Transport Innovations Corp. Based in Ridgefield, T.I.C. has been in business for a little over ten years. ICC regulated, this multi-faceted transportation firm deploys a fleet of tankers and vans that haul general commodities, chemicals, and general freight nationwide. In mid-July 1984, T.I.C. has taken over the Belleville Franklin Taxi Co. the official name will be D and E Taxi Co., but will continue to use the Belleville Franklin name for the sake of familiarity to the public. Larry Dougherty, marketing coordinator for the company, hopes to start a limo service along with their courier service within a year. Belleville Franklin Taxi is located at 70 Franklin St.

This week's tax tip: The Tax Reform Act of 1984 requires one to keep elaborate records to write off business auto expenses. Government imposed, stiff record keeping requirements, might force many people using their cars for business to lease them. Leasing is for a fixed period and includes maintenance and repairs which makes record keeping much easier.

Business Talks Today

Survival and growth of industry will be one of the topics at a meeting sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, today, Oct. 25, 6 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave.

Speakers will include Everett Shaw, executive director of the Essex County Economic Development Corporation and members of the Belleville Board of Commissioners.

The meeting features a hot and cold buffet at $12 per person. Advance reservations are required. You may send a check payable to the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

A NEW KIND OF BIRTH CONTROL PILL
Many women, a few years ago, switched to oral contraceptives with low concentrations of estrogen and progestin. This was to reduce the risks of cardiovascular diseases as well as the risks of other less dangerous side effects of pills with higher hormone doses. Now, the Food and Drug Administration has approved a new kind of birth-control pill, called the "triphasic." It is designed to correspond with a woman's natural cycle. It provides varying hormonal dose levels to reduce such side effects as missed periods and to aid the body in adjusting to the new hormonal levels. The triphasic pill is currently available by prescription.

Whenever a drug becomes available we stock it for the convenience of our customers. For complete prescription service come to ROSHORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We carry baby needs, cosmetics, toiletries and film. Free prescription delivery is provided. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-5pm Sundays.

Current Books Are Listed In Library's Collection

The Belleville Public Library has recently added current books to its collection.

In the fiction area, "The Fourth Protocol," by Frederick Forsyth deals with a London jewel robbery with plots and counter plots behind the Iron Curtain. "First Among Equals," by Jeffrey Archer concerns three men vying to be chosen the prime minister. "Lincoln," by Gore Vidal is a fictionalized account of the Civil War presidency, and "Crescent City," by Belva Plain talks about life in New Orleans as seen from the viewpoint of a Jewish woman. Additional new fiction includes "God Knows," by Joseph Heller, a story about King David told in a comic and irreverent style.

In "The Aquitaine Progression," by Robert Ludlum, a lawyer is caught in a conspiracy to seize the Western world. "The Outsider," by Howard Fast deals with life in a small New England town as seen by a young rabbi and his family. In "Role of Honor," by John Gardner, James Bond leaves government service to become a private spy, while in "Full Circle," by Danielle Steel, the relationship of a mother and daughter are changed by the fluctuating values of the past 40 years.

In the nonfiction area, "Loving Each Other," by Leo Buscaglia suggests setting our priorities right in order to enjoy life to the fullest. "The Kennedys: An American Drama," by Peter Collier and Dave Horowitz discusses the dark as well as the glamorous sides of four generations of a prominent family. "Pieces of My Mind," by Andrew A. Rooney are essays by the television and journalist commentator, while "Wired," by Bob Woodward relates the troubled life of the late entertainer, John Belushi.

These are just a few additions to the library's book collection. To take out or reserve any of these books, just come in person to the library, or call the circulation desk at 759-9200.

The library also has a full text of the presidential debates, contained in the Oct. 8 issue of the New York Times.

The BRDA

The Belleville Redevelopment Agency was virtuously created — designed as a rocket to propel Belleville forward at a faster pace than a crawl. Its members serve without pay. Dedicated, able, professional — they labor week in and week out, attempting to develop a program for progress for Washington Avenue. For most of the year, their efforts have been met with abuse. Maybe, the group did not articulate well enough its objectives and the benefits to the taxpayers at large. For the past two weeks, the Belleville Times has published stories relating to the Redevelopment Agency proposals and the report authored by the Planning Consultant to the Belleville Planning Board who authored a report which concerns itself with a basic plan for redevelopment of Washington Avenue calling for a Town Commission official declaration of blight along designated portions of Washington Avenue. Planning Board Consultant Grace Harris has raised questions and issues that may result in negating the work of the BRDA.

The time has arrived for action and not words. As Consultant to the Belleville Township Planning Board, Miss Harris has been aware of the existence of the BRDA for all the years of its existence. At this late date in the planning process of the BRDA, she authors a report — and by the way — a much needed one — whose only result at this time may mean more and more delay. The decay of Washington Avenue began years ago at the Newark line — and it has crept uphill, and now encompasses most of the area to the Belleville Town Hall building.

Belleville is a good town. It's populated by fine, decent, patriotic Americans. Residents of middle-level income and blue collar workers represent a majority of our population. Inevitably, the property tax keeps rising and rising with no end in sight. The burden of property tax is heavy. Public officials elected and appointed and trusted with taxpayer money are honest and incorruptible. The Town Commission is responsible for a minuscule part of the money raised by property taxes. Most of our tax monies go to fund our public education and our county government.

The only relief in sight to keep Belleville property taxes from rising to a point where residents can't afford them, and thus, be obliged to leave Belleville is broadening the tax assessment base by new construction.

That is the objective and the main thrust of the BRDA. The finished product cannot come too soon. No stumbling blocks should be placed in the way of the BRDA objective. We urge a joint meeting be held soon of the Township Commission, the Planning Board and the BRDA. These three groups collectively will influence the future of Belleville for most of the next century. What they plan to do will long be remembered by future generations who will either benefit or suffer from the action or inaction of our present public officials. The time has come to stop stalling and start going.

Bill Bradley

U.S. Senate Senator Bill Bradley is asking voters to re-elect him to the seat he won six years ago. His opponent, former Montclair Mayor, Mary Mochary, has said nothing meaningful to persuade voters to reject Bill Bradley's request for a second term. Through clever television ads, Mochary is trying to say "If you vote for Bradley and want Reagan, a voter cancels the Reagan choice." One has to be stupid or illiterate to make that leap of judgement. That appears the main argument Mochary makes against Bradley.

There are a million reasons why Bill Bradley has earned re-election. He is brilliant. He is dedicated. He has represented all New Jersey residents without fear or favor. He has compassion for the poor and believes the rich should be treated fairly also. Bradley has introduced a novel tax base which claims the respect of leaders of both parties and leading economists in the nation. Here is a man that stands head and shoulders above most U.S. Senators. He is respected by his colleagues in the Senate and his counterparts in the Congress. Through his record of service to the people of our State — and because he can do more for us than any of his opponents (there are six U.S. Senate candidates), it seems almost a patriotic duty to re-elect Bill Bradley.

We are proud to have Bill Bradley as our senior U.S. Senator. By Bill Bradley's presence in Washington, New Jersey has gained more respect, more consideration and more federal aid. A man of impeccable integrity, Bill Bradley has earned the public trust and another term.

Zoning Code Changes Worry Elderly Resident

To the editor:

I think that owners of residential sections in Belleville should be aware that Mayor Marotti, Mr. DiChiara and Mr. Dominick of the building department have changed the zoning code so as to destroy the atmosphere and safety of residential sections. It is now possible for anyone to put a shanty 21x11 foot along side of your home and block your windows so the police cannot see them even though the offending people have a 75-foot backyard where they could put the shanty and keep it from along side of a home. They can build 4 feet from their back line where in 1948 they had to stay 20 feet from their back line. This is spitefulness and discriminatory. The back of this shanty has never been finished off, which is facing my house and they allow Antonio Rizzi to pile old wood along my side fence which has brought rats and mice and will bring termites and carpenter ants. Mr. Marotti and his department hates old people. They will not fight fairly but bring in employees who have to agree with him or lose their jobs. He could better use his time to improve the town rather than downgrading so people don't have to be ashamed to admit they live here. Mr. DiChiara told me these people could put a machine shop in here if they want to. When I told Mr. Dominick I didn't want to come home some day and find my home in ashes he said, "Well we will just hope it doesn't happen." This shanty could be easily moved to the middle of the yard at 569 Joramelon St. so as not to be along side of my house as it is only bolted together. I would warn anyone owning in a residential section to write to your senators and congressmen before you fall prey to this scandalous, outrageous treatment by Mr. Marotti and vote at the next town election and vote their kind of people out of office so you don't have to lay awake at night worrying that your house will be burnt up and your life's work and perhaps your life taken from you. I am 81 years old and have lived in this town all of my life and would like to live my last years free from worry and in peace as every American is entitled to. You can see what I mean at 569 Joramelon St. and the name is Rizzi. We fought to keep tyranny out of America and now it is right along side of my house. They have no equipment to burn wood.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ethel Christie Slunis

Middle School Is 'A Disgrace'

To the editor:

On Oct. 17 I visited the open house at the Belleville Middle School. I walked into the meeting and listened to the principal, Mr. DiMaggio, apologizing for the condition of the school. He was reassuring the parents not to judge the quality of education by the condition of the building.

The building is a disgrace. I went from classroom to classroom and I could not believe that I send my child to such a dump everyday. I'm surprised that the teachers can teach under such conditions. I was ashamed to be a Belleville resident and taxpayer.

I understand that if the Human Services Facilities Construction Bond issue, question 2 on the ballot, is passed Nov. 6, it will enable the Board of Education to repair the building. I certainly hope that all the voters realize the importance of our children and their education to the future of Belleville.

I recently read an article in The Belleville Times entitled "Senior Citizens Are Important" by Mr. Halpern. I agree, but let me say, that without the youth of Belleville our town is going to die.

Sincerely,
Evelyn Muselli

Growing Populations Should Be Controlled

To the editor:

The rapid population growth is an outstanding feature of recent times. These are the figures:

At the time of Christ, the world's population was 150 million; 1500 years later, in the year 1500, it doubled to 300 million; 220 years later, in the year 1720, it doubled to 600 million; 150 years later, in the year 1870, it doubled to 1.2 billion; 80 years later, in the year 1950, it doubled to 2.4 billion and 34 years later, in the year 1984, it doubled to 4.8 billion.

Almost 2000 years ago it took 1500 years to double, now only 34 years. The reason why in this century it takes less years for the population to double is because the mortality, especially in infants, has been reduced, and the people live longer.

If in another 34 years from now, in the year 2018, the present population doubles, it would be almost 10 billion, and that would be a portentous worldwide disaster. If the rest of the world does not emulate China, the world's largest nation, who has been able to hold down population growth by taking drastic steps of inducing couples to have only one child, then the world will have unmountable problems and difficulties not in the United States or Europe, where there is better control of the growth and the resources of food, shelter and other necessities of life are sufficient, but in the Third World, where three-quarters of the people on earth live in poverty and where the growth is the greatest.

Those countries of Africa and South Asia are already overcrowded, poorly fed, poorly sheltered and with not enough land and other resources to grow enough food and to have the means to procure even the bare necessities for existence. Without family planning the pressures that a 10 billion population will have will be intolerable and the quality of life will be threatened.

Housing, sanitation, food, water, crime, jobs and nutrition are just a few of the problems that already begin to confound officials in many countries, and this would become impossible to overcome. Where will four billion jobs be found to sustain 10 billion people?

It is up to the more advanced nations, together, to induce the countries of the Third World to adopt, without delay, the program of China in preventing further growth of their population, otherwise, the entire world will face suffering and turmoil.

Sincerely,

Vincent Visceglia

Hahns Appreciative

To the editor:

On Friday, Sept. 7, the home of Conrad Hahn of 48 Salter Place had a fire which wiped out almost his entire lower floor and did a lot of smoke damage to the entire house.

We would like to express our thanks to the Belleville Fire, Police and Emergency squads for all their attention and courtesies extended at this time. Thanks also to all our neighbors who took up a collection and to relatives and friends of all our families.

We cannot express ourselves enough to everyone who has come to aid at this time.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Perhaps it's because Belleville residents are more complacent or tolerant of annoying high decibel air noise than the people across the river in Kearny who turned out in droves at a council meeting in the community to vociferously complain and protest against the intolerable plane noise created by aircrafts taking off from Newark airport.

We Bellevillites, likewise, have been adversely affected by the changed flight pattern which went into effect about Aug. 20 at the busy expanding airport. The 1983 brochure statistics show a 43 percent increase in air travel and a 46 percent increase in air cargo at Newark airport.

Prior to the recent change, the aircraft approached the airport in landing with motors and jet power reduced; now with the pattern changed to that of taking off which requires full power to become airborne the heavy roar of the planes distressful and annoying.

At the Kearny meeting the angry residents expressed resentment over the noise conditions. A high school teacher complained that the plane noise was cutting into his class time and is getting worse claiming, "I lose at least six minutes of teaching time per class." Another teacher complained that not only did he lose class time from the plane noise, but that the constant distractions made it difficult for students to pay attention.

Among the most common complaints voiced by the residents was that the plane noise interfered with their ability to enjoy television and radio programs, and the disruption early morning flights caused to their sleep.

Others protested the frequency of the annoying flights counting as many as 28 low-flying planes within a 90-minute period, while question as raised as to why the planes are now flying directly over Kearny when in the past they arched out toward the meadows before climbing.

A representative of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, which runs Newark airport, said, "It is regretful you have suffered the fallout from this. We have an airport which is growing at a spectacular rate. We're doing all that we can." The residents did not agree.

The airport representative started to deny the flight pattern had been altered, but was stopped by a councilwoman who said, "I've lived on Schuyler Avenue for years and in the past two years the path of the planes has changed. They used to fly over the Meadowlands. I could see them from my window. Now they go right over Bergen Avenue, right over a hospital, a parochial school and a public school."

Some at the meeting resented the treatment received when they tried to complain to the Federal Aviation Administration in New York, claiming they were getting a runaround.

Kearny Mayor Henry J. Hill told the Aviation and P.A. officials that something must be done soon.

It would seem then, that the only hope in the vague replies of the FAA and the P.A. was that it will "look and see what (it) can do to alleviate the condition."

While the disturbing plane noise over Belleville may not be quite as thunderous as it is in Kearny, nonetheless, it is most annoying and more disturbing than it had been for the past several years.

With the increasing number of flights and expansion of Newark Airport, not to overlook the heavy volume of flights into and out of Teterboro Airport which fly over Belleville, and to mention the cavalier attitude of the Federal Aviation administration and the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, as demonstrated in the case of Kearny's complaints, and the capricious flight pattern changes which worsen already practically intolerable air noise conditions: would it not be timely and fitting to put these agencies, which control aviation in this area, on notice that we, the people of Belleville, will not countenance suffer nor suffer any further aircraft noise, in excess of what we now endure? A notice to this effect by our township fathers to these agencies we recommend strongly. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

'Stork Club' Celebrates New Arrivals

Childbirth is a time of joy, sharing and celebration. At Clara Maass Medical Center's exclusive "Stork Club," new parents can now enjoy a festive, complimentary dinner for two, complete with private dining room and water service, honoring the birth of their new baby.

"This new service reflects one philosophy of family-centered maternity care and is a logical addition to our program," said Mary Tonges, R.N., M.S.N., Director of Nursing. "We recognize that the birth of a baby is a very special event in the life of a family, and want new parents to have an opportunity to celebrate with us."

Invitations to the Stork Club are presented to all new mothers upon arrival to their post-partum room. They are requested to make reservations with the nursing staff indicating their preferences in date and meal entree. Guests may select from a menu which includes filet mignon with sliced buttered mushrooms, rock cornish game hen with wild rice, and prime rib of beef au jus. There is a choice of salads, potatoes and vegetables and to top it all off, a delicious dessert.

Although the Stork Club provides new parents with a memorable evening before mother and baby return home, the Clara Maass Maternity Care Program begins long before an expectant mother reaches the delivery room.

Early in her pregnancy, she is invited to attend the Medical Center's Expectant Parents classes. In small, informal classes, expectant parents are given a better understanding of the normal process of pregnancy, labor, delivery, post-partal adjustment, and care of the newborn. Specially trained maternity nurses conduct the series of five meetings.

Near their last month of pregnancy, a unique Maternity Tea is scheduled. Expectant parents are invited to tour the maternity suites and nursery, ask last minute questions, and get acquainted with the labor and delivery nurses. Tea and cookies are served and a large packet of relevant information is distributed.

"We want our patients to be as familiar with our programs and services as possible," said Camille Jones, R.N., maternity care coordinator. "They are encouraged to ask questions about what we have to offer or about what to expect as patients. Besides our Expectant Parents classes and Maternity Tea, we invite couples to tour our facility every Saturday and Sunday."

Once in the Maternity Unit, mothers enjoy the features of a liberal, family-centered program. One of the goals of the Clara Maass Maternity Unit is to provide the best of both worlds — all the comforts of home with the reassurance of a modern medical facility.

According to Dr. Margaret Brisco, Director of the Obstetrics/Gynecology Department, "We have tried to create an atmosphere for family interaction. The birth of a baby is an important event that is to be cherished for life. We have all the safety in a medical sense without the hospital atmosphere."

During the early stages of labor, the early labor lounge provides a relaxing atmosphere for expectant parents before the use of labor and delivery rooms are required.

In the later stages of labor, couples may choose to take advantage of the "Birthing Room." Complete with brass bed, rocking chair, and birthing plants, the birthing room provides all necessary equipment and facilities for the patient to remain in the same comfortable environment for the entire birth process.

"We have all the alternatives," said Dr. Gerard Cicciocioppo, attending obstetrician and gynecologist, and president of the Clara Maass Medical Staff.

"Nothing is structured and we will try to accommodate any request."

After the baby is born, "bonding" is encouraged — eye-to-eye and skin-to-skin contact between mother, father and newborn. The mother may breast feed immediately and the father may help bathe the infant at birth. Rooming-in is another option the mother may choose for her baby. Instruction on care of newborn are available to both parents during the patient's hospital stay.

Other children in the family are also included in this special time. Clara Maass's sibling visitation program allows older brothers and sisters to meet the new baby and spend time with their mother. Sibling bonding is also available, at which time older brothers and sisters are allowed to hold the baby in the presence of their parents. This can happen immediately after birth in the delivery room, or once any time during the patient's hospital stay.

The overall implications of the family-centered maternity program at Clara Maass are far reaching and the choices and opportunities for couples are limitless. But most importantly, the open and friendly atmosphere at Clara Maass enables new parents to experience the birth of their baby the way they want it remembered — as a family affair.

Stork Club — New mom Gina Maffucci and her husband Michael were the first guests at Clara Maass Medical Center's new "Stork Club." Parents can now enjoy a complimentary dinner honoring the birth of their new baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lepore Jr. — nee Michele Weedo

Michele Weedo Wed To Bernard Lepore

Wedding vows were exchanged Sept. 22 by Michele Weedo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Weedo of 660 Belleville Ave. and Bernard Lepore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lepore of 357 DeWitt Ave.

The Rev. Anthony Mroz of St. Valentine's Church, Bloomfield, performed the ceremony in St. Peter's Church. A reception followed at The Fiesta, Wood-Ridge.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of imported Alencon lace highlighted with pearls, a lace-trimmed cathedral train, an illusion neckline and long sleeves. A Juliet cap of beaded lace held her veil and she carried white roses, carnations, stephanotis and babies' breath.

Gayle Weedo of Belleville was her sister's maid of honor.

Bridesmaids included Donna Marinelli of Belleville and Lisa Raccio of Long Valley, cousins of the bride, Rosemarie Toscano of Wayne and Maria Aiello of Belleville. Junior bridesmaid was Grace Zecca of Lexington, Ky.

They were attired in rosette taffeta gowns with fitted bodices and bouffant sleeves. Headpieces were Juliet caps in more taffeta trimmed in pearls. The honor attendant carried a cascade of pink roses, white and pink carnations and babies' breath. The others carried large and miniature elegance carnations in rose and white.

Arnaldo Lepore of Orange was his brother's best man. Ushers included Joseph and Patrick Lepore of Hillsdale, cousins of the groom, Anthony Tomaselli of Belleville and John Rizzuto of Bloomfield.

Mrs. Weedo chose an aubergine crepe gown and jacket ensemble trimmed in maribou. The groom's mother was in a lilac chiffon gown trimmed in sequins and pearls. Corsages were white lilybuds.

The couple are graduates of Belleville High School and Montclair State College. Mrs. Lepore is with the Senior Care and Activities Center, Montclair.

Mr. Lepore is with Matrix Instruments, Orangeburg, N.Y.

They honeymooned in Bermuda and have made their home in Bloomfield.

HEALTH WISE

By Ralph J. DiMaio D.C.

The typical new patient who makes his first visit to a chiropractor is a person who has tried everything else in the search for good health. That new patient hopes to find a tangible form of relief... a pill or other medicine... which will cure his ailment.

The typical new patient finds it hard to accept the simplicity of chiropractic. How can anything as uncomplicated as a spinal adjustment improve one's health?

The fact remains that chiropractic is often effective where other techniques have failed. Phone for an appointment.

Pasta Party — Kindergarten students at Holy Family School held special activities during the week of Oct. 8-12 to honor Christopher Columbus. The highlight activity for students was held Oct. 11, when they prepared pasta and recited the magic chant or cooking. The pasta cooking party was used to teach sequencing, measuring and scientific observation. The students, pictured in the school kitchen, wore Columbus hats which they made. Pictured at the pasta party with the kindergarten students is Holy Family School Principal Sr. Marie Gagliano and members of the teaching staff.

Board of Education Members Attend School Workshop '84

Nine Belleville School Board members and administrators will attend Workshop '84, "Excellence in Education: The Possible Dream," a conference for the state's public school leaders in Atlantic City from Oct. 24-26. "This conference will offer nearly 150 training and information sessions on subjects that are integral to the operation of our district's schools," said Phil Linfante, board trustee and representative to the N.J. School Board Association.

Third Graders Learn Script

"Ah, October!" Some say the most beautiful month of all. For School 4's new third grade class it will be an exciting start for a brand new school year.

"John Baldi says, 'Learning to write in cursive is fun,'" while Laurie Cuomo said, "Writing in cursive is faster than printing."

Another highlight for the children was their first trip of the school year. They visited the New York Aquarium on Oct. 2.

Nearly 7,000 school board members, administrators and other educators are expected to attend the 33rd annual workshop.

Art Teacher Comes Back

Belleville High School welcomes Mrs. Caroline Furno as a "new" faculty member in the art department. Actually Furno is not new to the Belleville Public School System. Her teaching experience covers a number of years at the Middle School. Last year she was granted a leave of absence in order to pursue further graduate study in the field of art.

Caroline Furno
BHS Art Teacher

In addition to having high academic credentials and a vast experience in the teaching profession, Furno has a background in the business art world.

This year's conference is sponsored by the New Jersey School Boards Association, New Jersey Association of School Administrators and New Jersey Association of School Business Officials.

"At Workshop '84 we will have the unique opportunity to exchange views and discuss educational issues with fellow board members and administrators across the state. Our schools can only benefit from such a forum," said Linfante.

Those attending Workshop '84 include: Board President Grace Purdie; trustees, John DiStasi, Seymour Grossman, Phil Linfante, Gabe Nazziola and Ernie Zopp; board attorneys, Lawrence Schwartz and Nathanya Simon.

Mrs. Catherine Chirico, elementary school teacher at School 7 will present "Creating, Writing and Reading" at the workshop today.

Linfante said, "The knowledge and training we will gain at Workshop '84 will prove invaluable in bringing us new ideas and a better understanding of the state and national issues that affect our community's schools."

The New Jersey School Boards Association has conducted workshops since 1952.

Class Enrollment Increases In BHS Business Courses

The business department at Belleville High School began the 1984-85 year on an optimistic note. Enrollment in the word processing classes has almost doubled because students are becoming more aware of the job potential in this highly technical field. The increase resulted in five full-year classes. Mrs. Linda Montanino joins Mrs. Lorraine Strollo as the second word processing instructor.

A new semester course, Introduction to Data Processing, replaced the key punch classes, will include training on the basic concepts of the TRS-80 microcomputer. The school now has five of these computers.

Enrollment in the typing classes has also increased considerably, while accounting and stenography classes decreased slightly. The school recently received and installed 30 new Smith electric typewriters for beginning and advanced typing instruction. Four Silver-Reed, Model EX 66 electronic typewriters were also installed for the more advanced office practice, word processing and cooperative office education students.

All business courses are elective and are open to all students.

New textbooks, supplementary materials and supplies were received to upgrade and modernize the school's curriculum.

"We must continually strive to keep pace with the world around us," said Mr. Ernie Musmanno, business department supervisor.

Over the years the Future

Business Leaders of America Club (FBLA) has been very successful and will be active again this year. Mrs. Strollo and Mrs. Montanino are the co-advisers.

Business programs such as the distributive education and cooperative office education have already placed students in businesses throughout the area. Mrs. Barbara Klotz and Mr. Ralph LaConte coordinate these instructional programs and on-site visitations of all students involved.

New Course — Daniel Grasso, BHS teacher, gives us a look at the TRS-80 microcomputer. The computer is used to teach Introduction to Data Processing, a new business course at the high school.

College News

Mary Hul-Ok Pak, daughter of Mrs. Marianne Y. S. Pak of Belleville, entered the freshman class at Bryn Mawr College this fall. Pak is a graduate of Queen of Peace High School in North Arlington.

Founded in 1955, Bryn Mawr was the first college in the nation to offer both graduate and undergraduate degrees to women. It continues today to offer more than 30 programs in the liberal arts and sciences to its 1200 undergraduate women and to the more than 600 students in its two coeducational graduate schools.

Bryn Mawr's students come from 49 states, several American possessions, and 42 foreign countries.

Robert Barnes of Belleville is employed this fall at Essex County Weather Service, Cedar Grove as part of the Cooperative Education program at Montclair State College. Barnes is majoring in geoscience at MSC and will be earning college credits, along with a salary and experience, through this co-op position.

Ruby Theodos of Belleville is employed this fall at Bac Data, Totowa also as part of the Cooperative Education program at Montclair State College. Theodos is majoring in computer science and will be earning college credits, along with a salary and experience, through this co-op position.

Cooperative Education is a flexible program in which students work part-time or full-time during a semester or two of their four-year curriculum. It is popular with students because they can learn work environments as well as specific tasks. Employers benefit by the program, also, by having motivated students as employees for the fall term.

Two Belleville residents received their degrees at graduation ceremonies at Kean College, Union, Aug. 19. Tracy Mullaney received her bachelor's degree in marketing while Nanette Rotonda received her master's degree in guidance and counseling.

BHS Stresses the Need Of a Foreign Language

Because of the necessity and effort to strengthen the humanities, foreign language requirement is again becoming "a must" for most colleges. Under the leadership of Michael Lally, assistant superintendent, Joseph Ciccone, high school principal, and Mario DiMaggio, middle school principal, the need of and appreciation for foreign languages has clearly been felt and strongly been fostered in many different ways.

Teachers have been directed toward new ways and new techniques in motivating and teaching foreign language students. Mr. Frattaroli, foreign language supervisor, is working toward improving the curriculum and coordinating the program between the middle school and high school.

The hiring of personnel has also been an important change in the foreign language department. Two new teachers have joined the department this year to replace Mr. Gelsomino who retired in February and Mrs. Newton who retired in June. They are Maria Franca and Domenico Tabano.

Franca comes to BHS with two years' experience in the Perth Amboy school system. She was born in Venezuela and lived in Portugal and Italy. She is certified in Spanish, Italian, French, and is fluent in Portuguese. She is married and has a 3-year-old girl. Her hobbies are exotic foreign cars and traveling.

Tebano, who is replacing Mr. Gelsomino, brings to BHS the vitality and enthusiasm of the young teacher. He was born in Italy and is presently at Italian Ph. D. candidate at the Rutgers University. He is certified to teach Italian and has several college credits towards the French and Spanish certification. He is married, with a 3-year-old boy, and his wife is going to have another baby in December. Tebano's hobbies are soccer, fencing and bicycling.

There is no doubt the foreign language department has been doing very well these past years. That is partially shown by the fact that its initial enrollment this year has increased up to 851 students. With the hiring of two young teachers, the department is certainly headed toward a bright future marked by great enthusiasm and new creative approaches to teaching.

New Recruiters Assigned Here

U.S. Army Staff Sergeant James W. Robinson has recently been assigned to the Army Recruiting Station at 630 Washington Ave.

Robinson, 15-year veteran, has completed tours of Germany, Thailand and Vietnam where he served as a radioteletype operator. He is a native of Whitefield, N.C. U.S. Army Private E-2 Pablo Gonzalez has also been assigned to the Army Recruiting Station in Belleville.

Gonzalez, a 1984 graduate of David Brearley High School, took his basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., and his advanced training as a radio teletype operator at Ft. Gordon, Ga.

Gonzalez will be stationed at the recruiting center for 45 days before going to Germany.

BHS Marching Band Takes Form

New Image — Members of the BHS Flag Twirling Squad and Color Guard perform one of their routines during a pep assembly held at the start of the football season.

The High School Marching Band is the subject of much conversation this fall because of the new image. Formerly the front line (flag, color guard, and twirler) units performed independently during performances. The new image is similar to the drum and bugle corps formations in which all units are an integral part of the overall field formation.

This year the Belleville High School Marching Band will appear at various competitions throughout the state. In addition, the Belleville Music Parent's Association will sponsor a band competition which was held at the Belleville Municipal Stadium last Tuesday. This was an ambitious venture which required a great deal of effort from parents in the areas of setting up add books, publicity, food services and obtaining judges for the evening.

The marching band season actually started in August before the opening of school with the annual Marching Band Camp. The band camp proved to be a lot of hard work and a feeling of accomplishment for the students. The program consists of six four-hour days in which the band and squad members worked on music, marching, and various routines. This year's fall show will prove to be the most ambitious one ever attempted by the Belleville High School Marching Band. In addition to performing and sponsoring high school band competitions, the Belleville High School Marching Band performs at all the football games.

Police Continue Investigation Of Burglaries in the Township

A rash of burglaries in the past few weeks is under investigation and police may have the problems solved this week, according to Police Chief George Lister.

"We're working on a very strong lead and expect to make an arrest sometime within the next few days," Lister said on Friday before leaving for a police chiefs convention in Utah.

No arrests were made as of Monday, according to Deputy Chief Frank Haigh. "We're working on it though and hope to resolve this soon," he said.

According to Lister, at least 20 reports of break-ins were made in the past six weeks.

The incidents occurred in the areas of Greylark Parkway,

Baldwin Avenue, Smallwood Avenue and other surrounding streets.

In all cases, Lister said the break-ins occurred in the early morning hours and mostly on weekends.

The victims reported various sums of money missing. Lister had no figure on how much in total had been reaped by the perpetrator.

"The person apparently takes whatever is readily available, usually some cash or wallets left out in the open," the chief said.

Lister noted there had been no attempts to rob large valuables such as stereos or television sets. Also there have been no reports of assault or injury upon any of the theft victims.

Lister said last week police obtained fingerprints and detected a repeated method of operation that may lead them to an arrest.

"We have a very, very good idea of the person we're after," said Lister, who noted only one person was suspected in the incidents.

CMHS Offers Teenage Workshops On Crises

A series of workshops for adolescents between the ages of 14 and 18 are being offered by Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley. These workshops will deal with the issues surrounding separation and divorce in the family and their effects on family members.

The workshops will be held Wednesday, Nov. 7 and continue for eight consecutive Wednesdays.

6-7:30 p.m. The offices of Community Mental Health Services located on the grounds of the Essex County Geriatric Center at the intersection of Belleville and Franklin avenues. A fee of $25 will be charged for the entire series but arrangements can be made for those who cannot pay.

For information or to register, call Susan Kunkel of Marlène Riordan at 450-3100.

Maria Prosperi Appointed Town Democratic Chairman

Chester Prosperi, Belleville's Democratic chairman, and Marie Gammara, vice chairlady, appointed Maria Prosperi, coordinator of Belleville for the Mondale/Ferraro ticket in the November election.

"To ensure a Democratic victory, we can not do it alone. We need volunteers staffing phone banks, dropping literature and working on election day. The phone banks will be held on every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. from now until election day. During the past two weeks with the help of the Belleville Democratic County Committee members we have registered 350 new voters in Belleville at the Pathmark on Washington Avenue," said Ms. Prosperi.

If you have any questions or would like to be a volunteer, contact Maria Prosperi at 759-2568.

Italian-American Dinner Nov. 10 at Wayne Manor

The Belleville Italian-American Civic Association will hold its 18th annual dinner dance Saturday, Nov. 10 at the Wayne Manor, Rt. 23 in Wayne.

Debbie Canduri Golub, the Bella Signorina who represented the association in the Columbus Day Parade Oct. 7, will be one of the honored guests.

Music will be provided by "The Blending Generations."

Cost of the dinner dance, including a cocktail hour, is $33.

Adolf Vecchione is chairman of the event.

For tickets, call Vecchione at 759-2622, Chris Albanese at 759-3950, George Shirra at 751-4528, or Aldo Di Chiara at 759-4722.

Arthur Clay Rally Here

A campaign rally and reception for Freeholder Arthur Clay will be held Thursday, Oct. 25, 7:30 p.m. at 159 Washington Ave.

Clay is a Republican candidate seeking re-election. He represents Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Monteclair and Nutley.

Recovery, Inc. Will Release New Pamphlet

Recovery, Inc., a community mental health resource group in Nutley, will release a new pamphlet next month written specifically for local business and industry.

The new publication will provide information on Recovery's self-help method of mental health through "will training." The pamphlet is designed to be useful in corporate personnel, employee relations and medical departments.

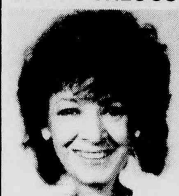

Recovery holds weekly meetings every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Nutley Parks Department building, 44 Park Ave. There are 13 other Recovery groups which meet throughout the state. Copies of the new Recovery pamphlet, as well as information on the group, can be obtained by calling 766-7466.

Local Pharmacy Aids Anti-Drug Campaign

Pharmacists Against Drug Abuse (PADA), and anti-drug abuse public information campaign designed to help educate parents on the health dangers of the abuse of drugs by children was recently launched nationwide. Now that children are back in school, and PTAs are renewing their activities, Rossmore Pharmacy, 338 Washington Ave. will serve as a key community resource for information on drugs and drug abuse.

Sponsored by the Pharmacists Against Drug Abuse Foundation, PADA, focuses on alcohol and marijuana which, according to pharmacist Vincent Cozzarelli "are the two drugs school age children are most likely to use in entering the drug scene." The campaign also focuses on cocaine, the fastest growing drug of abuse in America. Vicent. "Parents and school age children need to know that using these drugs is harmful.

Bucs Shut Out Passaic Rival, 7-0 in 'Classic' Game

Signal Caller — Quarterback Mark Walsh barks signals in last weekend's thriller with the Passaic Indians. Walsh threw a touchdown pass to John Olivieri in the first quarter to account for the only score as Belleville won, 7-0.

Senesky's 50th Buc Victory; Indians' First Loss Since '82

By Mike Lamberti

Year after year, the rivalry between Belleville and Passaic seems to get stronger. Last Saturday at Municipal Stadium, the Buccaneers and Indians got together again, and once more the game can be filed in the category of "classic."

Battling the odds, as well as a very good Passaic team, the Buccaneers did it again, defeating the Indians, 7-0 before a large and very enthusiastic crowd at BHS. The victory boosts Belleville's record to 4-1 and sets up another critical contest this weekend in Clifton. For Passaic, the setback was its first since November 1982 and only its fifth regular season setback since 1979. Four of those losses have come to Belleville, with the only other loss coming to Montclair on Thanksgiving Day 1982. The Indians are now 4-1 on the season.

"State of mind," is how head coach John Senesky described the Buccaneers' phenomenal success against Passaic over the last six games and give it our best. We have to, because Passaic is a super team. They have a tremendous defense and fine all-around club."

What was also etched in the minds of the Buccaneer players was a 28-7 loss to Passaic last year at Passaic High School. In that game, the Bucs jumped out to a 7-0 first quarter lead and were tied with the Indians at seven mid-way through the third quarter. At that point, the Indians took control and by the final stages of the contest, the taunting and finger pointing were clearly evident as the game became a mockery in the final moments.

This year's contest was a return to the fine games between the two teams over the last six years. Hard, intense hitting took the place of intimidation. "That was a game of football," commented assistant coach Joseph D'Amolha, the man responsible for the Bucs' fine defense this year.

Even the officials commented on the fine game the two teams played and the respect shown for one another. The Buccaneer defense was solid throughout the contest and the Passaic defense matched them, with the exception of the opening drive of the game.

Belleville won the toss, and wearing a color combination that was made popular in 1980 (blue pants and blue jerseys), started from its own 22. Passaic jumped off sides, giving the Bucs a first and five at the 27. From there, fullback Michael Gibbons, who enjoyed another 100 plus rushing day, raced 22 yards to the Passaic 49. Gibbons kept the drive going with a four yard run off tackle to the Indian 46. The senior fullback kept the momentum going with an 11-yard run to the Indian 35. With a first down at the 35, John Olivieri gained 2 yards to the 33 and Mr. Gibbons drove nine more to the 24. For another first down, Olivieri added four to the 20 and Gibbons two more to the 18, but quarterback Mark Walsh was sacked on third down, moving the ball back to the 23 and setting up a crucial fourth and nine.

The Bucs opted for a passing play and Walsh, with excellent protection from the offensive line, found Olivieri in the end zone with a perfect pass. The Belleville contingent went crazy as the Bucs jumped out in front, 6-0. Jim Dunphy added the conversion and it was 7-0.

The Belleville defense was up to the challenge of the strong Indian running game. With Troy Giles cutting up yardage, the Indians twice drove deep into Belleville territory in the first half, but the Bucs defense faced the challenge, stopping both drives on downs.

In the second half, Belleville could move no closer than the Passaic 37, but the magnificent punting of Dave Long kept the Indians at bay throughout the contest.

The heat also played a significant role in the ball game. With temperatures hovering in the mid-70s throughout the contest, both teams were noticeably affected late in the game. "A lot of our players were going both ways," explained Senesky. "They were Tearing Through — Defensive Steve Kimble (84) avoids a Passaic blocker and is looking for the Passaic quarterback. Kimble played a fine game on both sides of the line.

Lancers Lead Division In Recreation Soccer

In Division A of the Belleville Recreation soccer, Jose Chafar's Lancers remain undefeated. Steve Hywel, the league's leading scorer, had two goals to bring his season total to 11.

Kenny Sainz had two goals with Ron De Piro and Mike De Gennaro having single tallies in defeating Greg Delmott's Aztecs, 6-0. For the Aztecs, Joe Guinta played excellent in goal while Dale Watkowski, Joe Nagewitz and Shaughn Miller played excellent in the field.

Vinnie Farina's Toros got three goals from John Sciorriello and single tallies from Emilio Farina, Omar Bejarano and Bobi Willis to pace the second place Toros to a 6-1 win over Antonio Navarro's Aztecs. The only Aztec goal came from Ketan Gima and Tim Cook played excellently in goal.

In Division B Vinnie Farina's Aztecs are alone on top of their division placed by strong goal tending from Matt Kastner and having the league's leading scorer, Brian Travers, with 11 goals. They outplayed Steve Ralli's Spurs, 5-0.

Michelle Pszonka and Kevin Ernst have been solid in the middle field for the Aztecs. The Spurs, now 1-0-2, are not out of it yet and their coach thinks they'll improve game by game. The Aztecs are 3-0.

Bob Jaworski's Cosmos are holding second place with a 2-0-1 record and defeated George Escobar's Comets, 4-2 in a great game.

Team Effort Leads to Bucs' Victory Over Indians

When you look back on the Buccaneers' big 7-0 victory over Passaic last weekend, it is very difficult to pinpoint the credit to one person. Indeed, this victory was a team effort from the word go. Every man on the roster played a role toward that win, whether it be cheering a teammate on, participating in the game or coaching from the side lines.

Back in 1982, when Belleville stunned the state with a 3-2 victory over then number one Passaic, head coach John Senesky credited his teams "heart and desire" for beating a club that was nearly invincible that year. On paper, the Bucs didn't belong on the field with the 82 Indians, but players like Robbie Cancelliere, Craig Mack, David Grant and John Borrello proved otherwise. That game certainly was a team victory and everyone shared in its glory.

This year, the situation was somewhat similar, however, the Indians were not ranked number one going in (they were number four, big deal) and there wasn't Craig Heyward and Nate Heyward running the ball. Mike Volpe wasn't the quarterback this time, but the scenario was close.

Passaic had come in with a 4-0 record, were 11-0 in 1983 and had not lost a game since bowing to Montclair, 14-13 on Thanksgiving Day, 1982. In its victory over Passaic two years ago, the Bucs were facing a team that was 1-0, was 11-0 in 1981 and had not lost a game since Belleville beat them mid-way through the 1980 campaign, 13-9.

They had an 18 game regular season winning streak then and a 16 game streak this time. The results, however, were the same. The Buccaneers came through with a rousing victory, winning by way of shutout and dealing the Indians its first blanking since a 10-0 loss to North Bergen in the Group IV, Section 1 playoffs of 1978. Lord knows the last time the Passaic squad was shut out in the regular season, although Belleville was close in 1982, allowing only a safety and that came voluntarily when Cancelliere stepped out of the end zone in order to avoid punting deep in his own territory.

This win reaffirmed the Buccaneers' position as top team in the area. After losing to Bergen Catholic, 21-0 in week number two, there might have been some questions. The Bucs answered all questions and did it as a "family," something that Senesky always makes reference to when discussing his team.

There was the steady play of Mark Walsh at quarterback. Number 10 threw the touchdown pass to John Olivieri in the first quarter for the only score of the contest. It wasn't your typical TD pass. Walsh threw it with a big rush coming in, with a fourth and nine situation from the Passaic 23 after the Bucs had driven from its own 22. He hit Olivieri right on the numbers and the senior running back, himself coming off a bad ankle sprain, grabbed the ball and got the score.

Michael Gibbons continues in the long line of fine Belleville runners,

There was Michael Murphy, a 6'2", 245-pound lumberjack. Frank Fazzini, Michael Nicocia, Lenny Mendola, Angelo Centanni, Jeff Walsh, Paul Scheurlein and Billy Baber in the past couple of years and Gibbons can certainly add his name to the list. He rushed for over 100 yards for the third straight week, ironically the Bucs have won all of those games, and is beginning to make a name for himself in this area. What is really scary is that Gibbons is known for his wrestling ability, more than his football prowess.

Anthony Gizzo played another fine game, not only in the backfield, but also on defense. The offensive line, a group of men who answer the call week in and week out, did the job again. Ralph Chimento, Dominic Di Paolo, Ed Stangl, Steve Trabuna, Robert Mozeika and John Apicella were super on both sides of the line. Di Paolo, the inspirational leader of the line, made some crunching blocks to set up some big runs by Gibbons and Olivieri.

Steve Kimble does the job week in and week out, both at tight end and defensive end. Not too many people get by Mr. Kimble on defense. Split end Donald Washington made a big catch in the ball game and Gerald Kraus, a fine receiver, is doing a good job in the defensive secondary as well.

Amro El-Helw has also been impressive at wide receiver and poses a good threat with Washington. Joe Feith made two interceptions, the second a magnificent grab of an errant Passaic throw that pretty much sealed the game.

You can go on and on about the heroes that this contest produced. Anthony La Bruzza, Jim Dunphy, Dave Donnamaria, Bobby Charles, it can go from numbers 1 through 99. Every man had a part in this victory, whether he played in this game or not. They all wore the blue and gold with pride and displayed it against one of the best teams in the state.

The victory was a personal triumph for Senesky as well, because it was his 50th win as head coach of the program. Since coming here in 1977, Senesky has made this program one of the best in the state. Year in and year out, the record speaks for itself (6-3, 8-2, 9-2, 7-2, 8-2, 6-3 and this year's 4-1 record). He gets the job done and draws nothing but raves from his peers.

The Buccaneer coaching staff as a whole deserves credit. Joe D'Amolha, a man associated with Buccaneer football for many years, has assembled a marvelous defense this year. It has recorded three shutouts in five games and has allowed just 27 points in the first five contests. 21 of those points came in one game.

Michael Welsh has been doing a solid job for a number of years, ditto for Gennaro Russo. Former Buccaneer players Russell Pagano, Carl Lord and Russell Cirillo, along with Phil Galitto round out this dedicated staff that has put together another fine football team in 1984.

It was the first shutout in the famed Passaic series since the 7-0 Passaic thriller in 1981 at Municipal Stadium. That game, even though our guys lost, was a marvelous contest that produced a number of heart stopping moments. That Passaic team of 1981 might have been one of the best teams ever assembled to play high school football in New Jersey. Melvin Ross, Mike Volpe, Craig Heyward, they were all super.

It was just a marvelous ball game between two class teams and will go down as another "classic" in the long line of big Belleville-Passaic football games.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Debbie Worley and Donna Brooks of the volleyball team. Both girls have been instrumental toward the Bucs success this year. Grace Worley's squad entered this week with a 10-5 record and are gearing for the state tournament.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, name the coach who replaced Vince Lombardi as head man of the Green Bay Packers. The answer, Phil Bengtson replaced the legend end lasted just two seasons, the 1969 and 70 campaign. Dan Devine succeeded Bengtson and stayed until 1975, when Bart Starr became head coach.

For this week's quiz, when the New York Jets defeated the Kansas City Chiefs last weekend, it marked the first time that the Jets have hosted the Chiefs since 1971, when New York won, 13-10.

Camel Bolle, Troubleshooter

LOOK UP AND LIVE!

Beware of all power lines

I'm Camel Bolle, a Troubleshooter at PSE&G, and that slogan, LOOK UP AND LIVE, adopted by the New Jersey Utilities Association, could save your life.

ALWAYS steer clear of power lines, transformers, substations, or buildings or fences displaying signs that say DANGER HIGH VOLTAGE.

Be sure your children are aware of the dangers of high voltage areas. Climbing a tree with wires near it or running through it is especially hazardous, because your child could accidentally be injured or killed.

Call PSE&G first

Use string, not wire, on kites and don't fly them in areas where there are power lines or substations. If a kite does get caught in a high voltage area, FIRST, call PSE&G. We will remove it for you. DO NOT attempt to climb a utility pole, a tree or fence or pull on the string.

If you see a broken power line, stay away. Call PSE&G or your fire or police department right away. At home, NEVER use an aluminum ladder while working near wires. Do not trim trees that have wires running through them or near them.

When you are working on the exterior of your home, and especially if you have aluminum siding or if you are installing a TV antenna, stay well clear of any wires attached to your home. If in doubt on how to proceed, call PSE&G and we will advise you.

Overhead wire safety extends to the inside of your home, too. If you have installed additional major appliances be sure to check with your electrician to avoid any danger of overloading the circuits. Such a condition could cause a fire.

Kiwanis Club's 29th Annual Dinner For Past Presidents Held Oct. 18

The Kiwanis Club of Belleville held its 29th Annual Past President's Night Oct. 18 at the San Carlo Restaurant, Lyndhurst.

Richard Fonseca, outgoing president, was honored by his fellow members. He was awarded the Past President's plaque and pin in recognition of his service during the past year.

One of the accomplishments the Kiwanis Club achieved this past year was raising the club's membership back to the minimum 25 members. Don Cairns, Kiwanis State Governor, honored Fonseca and the membership with a Charter II certificate for their accomplishment.

The installation of the club's new officers was conducted by Lt. Governor George Clarkson. New officers for the 1984-85 year are: John Iannuzzi, president; Seymour Grossman, first vice president; Michael Megaro, second vice president; Frank Pitt, secretary; and Armond Russo, treasurer.

John Iannuzzi was awarded the Kiwanian of the Year Award for his contributions to the organization. Frank Pitt was awarded with a special gift from Fonseca for his dedication as secretary over the past year.

The Board of Directors for the Kiwanis Club are Frank Arena, John Bruno, Nino Bucciarelli, Albert Cairo, Joseph Grande, Michael Marotti, Tony Peda, Gene Reilly and Vincent Sorrentino.

Seymour Grossman served as toastmaster for the evening.

The Kiwanis Club is a service organization which supports such programs as Little League baseball, Homecoming Day, Special Olympics, and the needy.

Soccer Team Loses; Both by 2-0 Scores

By Angela Killen

The Buccareo soccer team lost two matches to conference rivals Don Bosco and Montclair last week, both by scores of 2-0.

The Bucs were in Passaic on Tuesday and will host Nutley this afternoon, starting at 4 p.m. Next Tuesday, the team will travel to Paterson to face Kennedy High School, starting at 4.

As usual, the Bucs played a stingy defensive game, but couldn't get any points on the board against two very strong teams. The team was hampered by the loss of Mike Silletti, who could miss the remainder of the season with a pulled hamstring. Silletti was listed as doubtful for the Nutley and Passaic games and is questionable for the Paterson Kennedy game next week.

The team did receive some good performances from Keith Woods, Luke Silletti and Bill Donnerstag. Donnerstag, the goalie, continues to impress with his ability in the net. In both losses, he was beaten by some difficult shots, but that doesn't take away from his excellent performance on the season.

Against Don Bosco, Luke Silletti took control of the contest with some good ball handling and some big steals. He found Ozzie Stefanon on a few occasions to set up some possible goals, but the shots didn't connect and the Bucs wound up on the short end of another tough contest.

Gymnasts Look Ahead To Clark and Kearny

Wujack's potential is not easy to compensate for.

Iannuzzi was pleased with the performance of two freshmen in the Clifton match. Anne Carlucci and Dina Cardinale both saw action and did a very good job. "They both deserve recognition for their hard work," the coach said. "It was Anne's first meet and I have high hopes for her. She was a little nervous going in and was just coming off a virus. Dina also did a good job."

Carlucci scored a 5.85 in the floor exercise event and Cardinale, a 5.5, also in the floor exercise. "The team continues to improve," said Iannuzzi.

Volleyball Team Loses One, Wins Two

After losing a tough match to powerful Ridgewood last week, the Belleville volleyball team got back on the winning track, downing Montclair and Passaic to bring their team record to 10-5.

Grace Worley's Wizards faced a busy week of action. The girls hosted Nutley on Monday and were in Teaneck yesterday. This afternoon, the team will host Neuman Prep, starting at 4 p.m., from BHS. Tomorrow, the girls travel to Paterson to face Kennedy High School. Next Monday, the team travels to Clifton and on Tuesday, will host Eastside, starting at 4 p.m.

"We played well, but not well enough," was Grace Worley's comments following a tough two-set defeat to Ridgewood. The final scores were 15-13 and 15-9 against one of the better clubs in the state. "They played a little more consistently than we did," the coach continued. "We played well at times but against a team like that, you can't let up."

After the loss to Ridgewood,

Belleville got its act back on the winning trail by defeating Montclair, 15-7, 10-15, 15-2. In the game, Debbie Worley had 25 sets and the team prevailed despite the absence of senior Donna Brooks, who was sidelined with a sore arm. "We didn't use Donna," explained Worley, because we had a big match coming up with Passaic and wanted to rest her against Montclair because her arm was sore. It was difficult without Donna. Debbie had 13 saves, which is a little unusual."

The coach also pointed out the fine performance of junior Sheri Phelps, who had four aces and played well at the net. "Montclair was much better than the first time we played them," said Worley. "It took three games to beat them. They have come a long way and will be a tough team to handle next season."

Versus Passaic, the girls had a revenge factor in mind and did a solid job in downing the Indians, 15-7, 15-6.

Democrats Keep Your Taxes Going Up and Up. Republicans Think Enough is Enough.

The Democratic Essex County Freeholders have raised taxes, increased government spending, and have placed an unfair tax burden on the suburbs.

And it's getting worse.

Under the Democrats, your taxes continue to go up. Spending has increased to record numbers. County Government is growing larger, and is full of waste and inefficiencies. Your representation is growing less and less effective.

What's more, the Democratic Freeholders increased their own salaries this term by 20%. Now they are paid $18,000 for a part-time position.

The Republican Alternative.

Republicans want to reduce your taxes, cut government spending, and keep your hard-earned tax dollars at the municipal level, where it belongs.

Republicans want to give you effective two party government, providing a system of checks and balances that will stop the Democrats from taking unfair advantage of your tax dollars.

Your Republican candidates — former Freeholder and County Treasurer Samuel J. Angelo, Business Executive and television talk show hostess Marion Crecco, former Essex County Sheriff Chuck Cummings, and Livingston Councilman and former Mayor John Collins — want to put an end to the unfair tax burden on the suburbs. Rec Giants Lose to Rams, 20-0; Chiefs (3-0) Still Undefeated

In Belleville Recreation football Division A Michael Marchello ran for two touchdowns to enable the Rams to beat the Giants, 20-0. Frank Van Syckel rounded out the scoring for the Rams with a touchdown. Frank Orei turned in a fine performance as the Rams' quarterback.

In a tight fought battle for first place, Nick Turano led the undefeated Chiefs to a 30-12 victory over the Steelers. He scored three touchdowns from 50, 12 and 10 yards. Kevin Marion completed two touchdown passes, one for 42 yards to John Sternick and another for 20 yards to Timmy Witt. Both the Steelers and Chiefs turned in excellent defensive performances.

In B Division, the Bengals took control of the game against the Jets after trailing at halftime, 6-0. They were able to come ahead on two touchdown runs by Mike Rubas. Joe Cucuzza added an extra point for the Bengals. Fine defensive play was also turned in by the Bengals with such players as Joe Marano, Billy Salvatore and Doug Phelps contributing. Chris Fallone turned in a fine performance as the Bengals' quarterback.

Marc Manara opened the scoring on a 15-yard sweep to give the Chargers a 6-0 lead over the Falcons. Billy Nehila connected with Joe Bliss on a 60-yard pass. Sean Kimball scored on the next play on another play from Billy Nehila for a 12-0 lead. Sean Kimball then scored his second touchdown of the game on a 2-yard plunge for the final score. Nehila completed eight out of nine passes for over 100 yards.

The standings are as follows:

A Division
Chiefs	3-0
Steelers	2-1-0
Rams	1-2-0
Giants	0-3-0
B Division
Bengals	2-0-1
Chargers	2-0-1
Jets	1-2-0
Falcons	0-3-0

Jets Lose to Giants, 26-6 In Rec Peanut Football

In week two of the Belleville Recreation Department, the Giants overpowered the Jets, 26-6. Leading the scoring for the victors was Kevin Johansen, who threw a 30-yard pass to Mike Conte, threw a 1-yard scoring strike to Mike Conte, ran for another score, and threw one more touchdown pass, a 20-yarder. Scoring for the Jets was Matthew Landolfi who caught an 8-yard pass from Brian Davis.

Also undefeated are the Cowboys who routed the Chiefs, 31-12. A 4-yard quarterback keeper by Dave Andrews tied the score at six for the Cowboys before they ripped off three straight touchdowns. Mike Raibick intercepted a pass and returned it 15 yards for a score. The score that gave the winners a 18-6 lead was a 25-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Dave Andrews to Mike Raibick. Scoring twice was Jimmy Napolitano who grabbed two passes of 25 and 35 yards. The Chiefs were led by quarterback Todd Connolly who ran for one score and threw a 25-yard pass to Bobby Roselli late in the game for a final score of 31-12.

Bucs' Victory Shows Team Strength; Face No. 2 Clifton Mustangs Next

A marvelous performance was also turned in by defensive back Joe Feith. Late in the contest, the senior was credited with two timely interceptions, the second qualifying under the label of "magnificent." Feith made a diving leap for the football, grabbed it just before it hit the ground and preserved the Buccaneers' biggest victory since the classic of all classics, the 3-2 Buccaneer triumph over Passaic in September 1982.

As the clock ran down, a wild celebration took place at mid-field and Belleville had re-established itself as a football power, erasing any doubts that might have seeped in after the 21-0 loss to Bergen Catholic which now seems light years away.

"We can't let up," warned Senesky. "Next week, we have Clifton, and they're a super ball club. They have tremendous size, talent and experience. We can't let down for this game."

Clifton will enter the game ranked number two in New Jersey. The Mustangs have a 4-0

Football Game Dinner Nov. 21

The Belleville-Nutley Italian Fiorente Club will sponsor its first Belleville-Nutley Thanksgiving Day pre-game football party Wednesday, Nov. 21, 7 p.m. at the club's headquarters, 34 Carmer Ave., Belleville.

Guest speakers will be Belleville coach John Senesky and Nutley coach Peter LaBarbiera.

The cost, which includes a hot buffet, wine, beer and soda, is $15.

For tickets, call 751-1534 as soon as possible. Tickets will be limited.

The Thanksgiving Day game is Thursday, Nov. 22, 11 a.m. at Belleville Municipal Stadium.

mark, with the only blemish a 7-7 tie with Montclair two weeks ago. Jack Jones' team possesses an awesome defense and an offense which broke loose for 37 points against Eastside after faltering in the early going. Once again, it should be a very exciting ball game. As for Passaic, a big win for our local heroes, but now the concentration will be focused at a group of hungry Mustangs from Clifton High.

Tennis Team Bows to Nutley; Beats Conference Rival Twice

The Belleville tennis team, despite losing its top player, found two conference victories last week and bowed to arch rival Nutley.

Karen Fucello's team, now 7-11, entertained Paterson Kennedy on Monday and were in Clifton yesterday. The girls will host the Mustangs of Clifton this afternoon in what should be the final match of the 1984 season.

The girls posted two wins last week, stopping Passaic twice and losing to Nutley. They received a strong performance from Desiree Johansen, who started the season at second singles, but was elevated to the top spot when Chen Tilmann went down with a severe ankle sprain and will sit out the remainder of the year.

"Desiree played very well against Passaic," commented Fucello. "She won both matches and is starting to look good at the position. About the only thing that has hurt her is inexperience. She is an excellent athlete."

Johansen's inexperience cost her in the Nutley match, but she rebounded in the second Passaic match of the week to post her second victory. The junior looks to be the number one player for next season and should fill in well.

At second singles is Jackie Tilmann, just a freshman. Cheri's younger sister also won two matches last week, both against Passaic. The freshman, elevated to the number two position when her sister was hurt, has an abundance of talent and will form a solid combination with Johansen next fall.

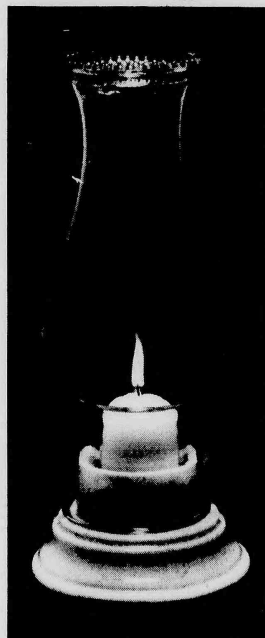

Mary Kudrack, a senior, won her first singles match of the season against Passaic, playing at third singles. In the second match with the Lady Indians, Kudrack teamed with Lori Tirrell to post a victory in the doubles competition.

"Losing Cheri hurt us a great deal," said Fucello of her star first singles player. "However, it gave us a chance to see some of

C of C to Honor Local Leaders

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce will honor some of the area's most prominent public figures at its 20th Annual Dinner Dance this year. The event will be held Saturday, Nov. 24 at the Branch Brook Manor, 13 Washington Ave.

Those to be honored include Grace Purdue, president of the Belleville Board of Education, and Essex County Sheriff Thomas D'Alessio. All will be honored for their services to the community and the surrounding area.

This promises to be one of the largest social gatherings of the Chamber of Commerce in recent years. The festivities begin at 7 p.m. with a cocktail hour and a smorgasbord followed by a prime rib dinner. Dancing and entertainment will be provided by the Berkley's.

Tickets may be purchased at the Belleville Chamber of Commerce office at 155-A Washington Ave., or by mail. Tickets are $40 each.
