Lawsuit Is Filed By Govel

The owners of Bridgebrook Gardens, a controversial garden apartment complex on Joralemon Street, have filed a lawsuit against the Rent Leveling Board.

Filed in Newark Superior Court last week, the suit brought by Bridgebrook Associates aims to prevent the board from hearing any complaints by Bridgebrook tenants.

The suit also seeks to have Ron Platt removed from his seat as chairman of the board during any hearings on Bridgebrook matters. The suit charges Platt indicated a prejudice to tenants during an April 5 hearing on the matter of rent overcharges claimed by more than 50 tenants.

The suit also charged Platt with making derogatory remarks to the complex's managing agent, William Govel at that hearing.

Platt was not available for comment Tuesday. Neither Govel nor board attorney Frank Cozzarelli returned phone calls for comment.

Bridgebrook Gardens, a 250-unit complex, has been a source of ongoing tenant-owner controversy.

Residents frequently bring complaints to township officials that health and safety violations as well as violations of their lease agreements often go ignored by management or are stalled indefinitely at Rent Leveling Board hearings when the management consistently requests postponements.

A tenants' group also filed suit against the complex last month for failure to meet certain state requirements regarding condominium conversion projects.

Bridgebrook Associates last year took steps to begin converting the complex to condo units.

Election Day — This Belleville resident signs in at the American Legion Post 105 on Washington Avenue. A good turnout was reported at this polling place, as was reported throughout the township. Residents joined in re-electing Ronald Reagan to another four years in the White House.

Residents Re-elect Reagan In Strong Voter Turnout

Belleville voters turned out strong Tuesday to hand President Reagan another four years at the nation's helm.

Following the predicted state patterns, local voters also crossed party lines to send Democratic incumbent Bill Bradley back to the U.S. Senate for a second six-year term and to elect two Democrats to the House.

When final figures were counted Tuesday night, over 13,000 township residents cast ballots in the election.

Belleville has 18,427 registered voters, an increase of 1,342 from the June primary totals, according to township clerk Mary Lou Hood.

Joining the national sweeping victory margin for the incumbent President and Vice President George Bush, Belleville gave the Republican team a total of 8,671 votes.

Falling far behind was Democratic challenger Walter Mondale and his running mate Geraldine Ferraro with 5,048 votes.

In the race for the U.S. Senate seat, popular incumbent Bill Bradley drew 8,322 votes winning

Plant President's Sentence Canceled

The president of a Main Street chemical plant closed by authorities for hazardous conditions will not have to serve her jail sentence.

Marianne Pratter, 47, of West Orange, saw her 30-day weekend prison sentence voided last week by Superior Court Judge R. Benjamin Cohen in Newark on grounds that she had a has a serious heart condition.

The sentence was imposed last May by Superior Court Judge David S. Baime. Pratter pleaded guilty last March 30 to two charges against her in connection with a series of toxic leaks in 1983 at the site of her now defunct firm Research Organic-Inorganic Chemical Corp.

For the charges of "recklessly storing chemicals and creating a rise of widespread injury," Pratter received the prison sentence, an order to perform five months of community service during her three years' probation and a $15,000 fine.

The other penalties remain unchanged. Judge Baime imposed a weekend jail sentence because of Pratter's heart condition, which he said was documented, and her need to care for a 9-year-old son.

Judge Cohen vacated the sentence after Pratter's attorney, Stephen Draich, argued she would be at risk, according to a doctor's examination, if she went imprisoned with her heart ailment.

Essex County Assistant Prosecutor Richard Verde objected to dismissing the sentence, arguing the state's doctor found no "subjective" but "no objective" signs of heart disorders.

Group Faces Voting Problems Here Again

For one group of local residents, casting ballots on Election Day required efforts above and beyond the call of civic duty.

The citizens live in an apartment building on 569 Franklin Ave. in Belleville. Or is that 1 Franklin Ave. in Nutley?

That's the million dollar question and the one that cost the residents their right to cast ballots at what normally would be their polling place, Belleville High School.

When resident Richard Polo arrived at BHHS to cast his ballot Tuesday, he was told he could not do so because he was not listed on voting records as a resident of the address.

Polo called The Times saying the problem affected nearly 50 registered voters in the address.

According to Polo, the owner of the building maintains a Belleville address for residential purposes, but lists the house as a Nutley mailing address.

The mixup occurred when election material mailed to residents at the building was returned to the Essex County Superintendent of Elections.

According to Karla Squire of the superintendent's office, the Nutley Post Office "erroneously" sent the mail back so the people at that address go on the judge's order list.

Squire referred to a list of people with questionable addresses who would be permitted to vote by

Township Family Finds Itself at Loose Ends in Apartment Search

By Linda Telasco

For most people, these early days of November herald the approach of the holiday season, anticipating warmth, cheer, and family gatherings.

But while others prepare happy homecomings, one Belleville family fears they come themselves homeless come Thanksgiving.

"I'm getting desperate. I don't want my family out on the street or separated," said Michael Porcello as he described his plight.

A disabled veteran, Porcello lives with his wife, Florence, and their severely handicapped 13-year-old son, Domenick in a Horsholme Avenue apartment.

The 44-year-old father seemed dejected as he spoke in the living room of his apartment. He and his family had been through problems in the past finding suitable and affordable housing.

"It's hard for anyone who needs an apartment and doesn't have a lot of money," said the soft-spoken man. "But it's harder when there's a handicapped child to think about."

As he spoke, he looked toward the next room where Domenick, clad in corduroy pants and a striped polo shirt, lay curled on a floor mat, a victim of cerebral palsy and other disorders.

The family must vacate their apartment by Nov. 17, the result of a legal agreement made in August by Porcello and the new owners of the two-family house he lives in.

Porcello agreed to the moving date in order to forestall eviction proceedings begun by the property owners who purchased the house last spring and asked the Porcellos to vacate the first floor by June.

"I want to get out, but I haven't been able to find anything," said Porcello who said his financial condition cannot meet the going rents.

Porcello is unable to work because of his disability and the family survives on the $185 he receives monthly from the Veterans Administration as well as the $200 weekly salary his wife earns as a nurse's aide at Clara Maass Medical Center.

"We can barely buy food the way we live. I don't see how we can afford these rents," he said.

When the Porcellos first moved into their apartment January 1983, the rent was $390 monthly including heat, according to a copy of the lease agreement with Porcello's former landlord.

When the one-year lease expired last winter, Porcello's rent was raised to $420 monthly.

A month later, the family was notified by then landlord Pratul Patel of his intention to sell the property. They were told to vacate by June 30, but scarcity of apartments, Porcello said, made it impossible for him to comply.

A formal complaint was filed in Superior Court against Porcello by Joanne V. Wapowsky, one of the new owners.

In July, Wapowsky and the other owners Frank Vena, Peter McGowan, and Phyllis McGowan notified Porcello they would begin legal eviction action.

In the same letter, the new owners notified Porcello his monthly rent would be increased by $200, for a total of $620, as of Sept. 1.

"I just can't afford to pay that," said Porcello, who pays his own heating and utility bills.

According to New Jersey and local rent laws, two-family houses are among the structures exempted from rent control. Officials agree the action taken by Porcello's landlord is a common tactic to force tenants out of an apartment.

In a hearing last August, Porcello was represented by the Community Health Law Project in his case which ended with a stipulation of settlement.

According to the CHIP's managing attorney, Joseph Young, the landlords agreed to drop the eviction proceeding if

Committees Will Meet Friday at Town Hall

A special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, Belleville Redevelopment Agency, and the Belleville Planning Board will be held Friday, Nov. 9 at 7 p.m. in Town Hall.

The three committees will meet to discuss a proposed redevelopment plan for a portion of Washington Avenue.

The proposal, which may call for a declaration of blight along certain designated parts of the Avenue, was introduced last winter by the BRDA and is still under study by the Planning Board.

The joint meeting of the panels will also discuss a recent report on the proposal prepared by the Planning board consultant Grace Harris.

The public is invited to attend, but there will be no public comment.

Porcello agreed to vacate by November 17.

Now that the date is looming over him, Porcello is fearful. "If we're put out on the street, the state may take our son away. They'll say we can't care for him."

Although young Domenick can see and hear, he is confined to a wheelchair and is unable to speak, or feed himself.

He is not toilet trained and must be diapered, his father noted.

Although doctors suggested Domenick may improve with sustained physical therapy, the family has been unable to afford the treatment.

Presently, Domenick's orthopedic supplies and bills are paid partly by Medicaid and partly by the State Division of Mental Retardation.

The youth is transported daily to a day-care center in Newark, a service funded by the Belleville Board of Education.

In addition, Domenick will require corrective surgery for scoliosis, a spinal disorder that weakens one side of his back.

Because of Domenick's disability, the father is searching for another first floor apartment, large enough to accommodate his son's hospital bed and permit living space for the parents.

Although the family received rental assistance from the state in the past, Porcello said the state will not contribute aid toward an

Construction Begins at River Mill West

Construction of the first phase of development of River Mill West, a 130-unit luxury condominium complex, has commenced in Belleville.

Completion of the first phase, which consists of 42 condominium units, is scheduled for early Spring 1985, reports Govel Realtors of Belleville, exclusive sales and marketing agent for River Mill West.

"Since the condominiums of River Mill West will be similar in design and style to those of the highly-successful River Mill Development, we are quite optimistic about the success of this new condominium project," says Nicholas Gisondi, executive marketing director of Govel Realtors.

Priced from the mid-$70,000's to the mid-$80,000's, the condominiums feature two-bedroom, 1-1/2 half bath floorplans, private exterior balconies, wall-to-wall carpeting, all modern appliances, air conditioning, and spacious interiors.

Designed to take full advantage of the aesthetics of Belleville's Third River, the River Mill West condominiums are being built on the river bank not far from the original River Mill condominium community.

Cerami Construction Company, one of Essex County's leading residential developers, is building River Mill West.

NO SWEAT

Sweat is produced by two sets of glands in the body. The eccrine glands turn on the flow when temperatures are hot or when you physically exert yourself. The apocrine glands act in response to emotions. Keeping cool, comfortable and odor-free calls for the use of either a deodorant or antiperspirant. The one you should use depends upon how much you perspire. If wetness is not a big problem, a deodorant will probably be fine. Most deodorants contain anti-bacterial ingredients that mask odor. Antiperspirants, on the other hand, stop the flow of perspiration as well. They usually contain aluminum salts which block the pores from releasing moisture. Aluminum zirconium, often found in roll-ons, is the most effective of these salts.

Sisters of Charity at St. Peter's Celebrate 125 Years

As part of a year-long celebration, the Sisters of Charity of St. Peter's in Belleville will be having their own special local celebration Nov. 11-17 highlighting their ministry in education.

The original mission of the Sisters, formed in 1859, was to serve the needs of the times in the newly formed Diocese of Newark that encompassed the entire state of New Jersey at the time. They not only taught the children but also helped care for the wounded Civil War soldiers. A few of the Sisters actually met the troop trains returning to Newark, and worked in the temporary hospitals that had been set up. Records indicate that one Sister even shaved the soldiers and cut their hair. They cared for the orphaned children as well.

However, times have changed needs of the people of God. They have survived in an age when stability and commitment are very precious commodities, and they have survived with vitality and with a vision for the future.

They have recognized the gifts of culture and scientific sion of change, even when it was not easy or not always popular to do so; to adapt when necessary, and to continue the mission.

Education Ministry Week begins with a Prayer Service Sunday, Nov. 11, 4 p.m. in the church. All former graduates and their families, priests, religious and lay faculty are invited to a special "Comeback" Refreshments will be served in the convent after the service.

Faculty-Staff Appreciation Day will be held Monday, Nov. 12 with parents and students honoring their present faculty and staff with a special luncheon and presentation. The highlight of the day will be the Faculty-Students Olympic Events at 1:30 p.m. in the gym.

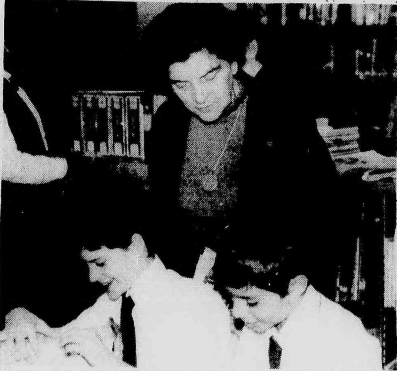

On Tuesday, Nov. 13, the faculty and staff have prepared a variety of events that will give the students a change of pace in their usual classroom routine. All grades will be treated to doughnuts, juice and ice cream. Walt Disney films and cartoons will be part of the day. The students in grades 5-8 will participate in a balloon launch at 1 p.m. The younger students will receive buttons and a balloon.

The students will spend an afternoon with their grandparents and adopted Senior Citizen Grandparents Wednesday, Nov. 14 as part of Grandparents Senior Citizen Day. A chicken dinner will be served in the school's cafeteria. Students will take their grandparents on a tour of the school. The day will conclude with dessert and entertainment in the gym at 1:30.

All benefactors will be invited to a coffee and dessert hour to be served in the school's cafeteria Thursday, Nov. 15, 2:30 p.m. Desserts will be baked by the Sisters and faculty.

A dinner will be held Thursday night at the Westmont Country Club. All Sisters of Charity will be in attendance with their lay staff. At this time plaques will be presented to a representative from each school by the Provincial of the Community.

Sisters of Charity at St. Peter's — Sister Anne Roberta talks with St. Peter's School students (L-R) Frank Wendling and Louis Coco about their class projects. There are 10 members of the Sisters of Charity presently teaching at St. Peter's.

An Important Role — Sister Mary Kathleen, St. Peter's School librarian, helps Louis Coco look up his subject in the card catalog. The Sisters of Charity are celebrating their 125th anniversary this year.

drastically since those early years in the newly formed Diocese of Newark. So, too, have the needs of the people. No longer is there need to meet the troop trains returning from war; no longer is there need to gather orphans in from the streets.

As the needs changed, so did the Sisters of Charity, who over the span of 125 years were always willing to change, to adapt to the times — times of war, times of epidemic, times of poverty, times of ignorance, times of upheaval — no matter what the need.

It is true the changes in the ministry of the Sisters and in their lifestyle were often radical over the years, especially since the mid-1960s. So, too, were the changes in the social, political, economic, and religious world, however.

In every stage of their history the Sisters of Charity have responded to changing needs and circumstances through a variety of ministries, by relinquishing or adapting older ones and by adopting new ones. Therefore, the community may well be characterized by three key words — change, adaptability, and continuity, or perhaps "continuity in change."

That's why some ask those very challenging questions, "Where are all the Sisters of Charity?" "What are they doing?"

The Sister are still serving the technological progress which have enriched human life and helped to bring about the possibility of a global community. Consequently, the Sisters are striving to be responsible members of this interdependent world community.

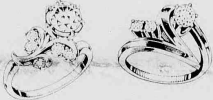

In Belleville, the Sisters of Charity are primarily teachers of youth. Ten Sisters are involved in the everyday lives of the students attending St. Peter's Elementary School.

In addition to their educational responsibilities, some of the Sisters are engaged in other parish ministries, thus sharing their charisms with a larger community of people.

So, from the care of the Civil War soldiers to the care of victims of influenza to the education of the immigrants to the diverse ministries of the 20th century, the Sisters of Charity have had the vi-

Prayer For Today

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises?

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.

Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

If there is righteousness in the heart here will be beauty in the character.

If there is beauty in the character
there will be harmony in the home.

If there is harmony in the home
there will be order in the nation
When there is order in the nation
there will be peace in the world.

I do my thing,
and you do your thing.

I am not in this world to live up to your expectations and you are not in this world to live up to mine.

You are you and I am I,
and if by chance we find each other,
It's beautiful.

Holy Family Church

The year was 1909 when a small church call Holy Family was established at 115 Harrison St. in Nutley. That structure is still standing today, but during the past 75 years Holy Family Church has grown into a community institution, touching the lives of generations of Nutley and Belleville residents.

But back in 1909 and the ensuing years, conditions were not so easy and the building of a new church no easy task. We can still picture Father Anthony DiLuca during the 1930's, in his old car stopping along local streets, collecting quarters to help build the new church.

At the time, Holy Family was founded primarily to serve the Italian-American community. In the early part of the century, Nutley's Saint Mary's Church was known for its service to Irish-Americans, and Mount Carmel's parishioners were largely Polish-Americans. Today the old ethnic lines which may have separated the Catholic parishes have faded. Seventy-five years after its founding, Holy Family Church has a congregation of thousands that include parishioners of every color, race and ethnic background.

Much of the effort that led to Holy Family's congregation becoming more homogeneous has been due to the devoted work throughout the church and community by its current pastor, the Rev. Francis Blake, who for most of his adult life worked closely with Monsignor DiLuca.

The parish boundaries today, as in 1909, continue to encompass both the Nutley and Belleville communities. And besides a church, Monsignor DiLuca also founded a grade school which today reflects high academic standards and whose graduates attest to the high academic quality of its education.

Holy Family Parish has grown from a relatively small Roman Catholic Church into a community institution. That growth was due not only to the efforts of Msgr. DiLuca and Father Blake, but to literally thousands of unsung heroes both within and out of the religious structure. An army of dedicated sisters and priests assisted by community volunteers not only staffed the school, but over the years built a parish that expanded its concern to include sponsorship of recreational, social and community activities ranging from a theater group to the C.Y.O.

Seventy-five years of community achievement and continued strength may at times appear impossible when one considers the challenges of modern times and its diversions. Consider only the advent of television ministries which work against church attendance, and often divert contributions from community parishes to places afar. Proudly, we hail the 75th anniversary of one of Belleville's great enduring institutions. Holy Family has made Belleville a better place in which to live and work. A community with high religious values is a community with a strong moral base. We commend and thank those early pioneers and those who continue their work today at Holy Family for this continuing historical and humane achievement.

Avenue Renovations Already Taking Place

To the editor:

Mr. Orechio's editorial, "The BRDA," in the Oct. 25 issue has planted some seeds of doubt and suspicion in my mind. In his editorial, Mr. Orechio lauds the efforts of the BRDA and criticizes our Planning Board consultant, Mrs. Grace Harris.

I have attended every Planning Board meeting since April 1984, several BRDA meetings, and many township meetings. From this vantage point, I am puzzled as to where Mr. Orechio gets his facts. I cannot recall a Belleville Times reporter being present at a Planning Board meeting since May 3, 1984. If he was getting information from other sources, I must tell him he was misinformed.

The truth is the BRDA has been in existence for several years and by its own admission it has no definite plan for redevelopment. Yes, it has a proposal before the Planning Board for "Blight Declaration," but nothing clear as to what would be developed on these so-called "blighted parcels." Who would the developers be? Where would the funds come from? How long would this take? Where would the displaced residents and businesses go? These questions and more have been asked many times and are yet to be answered.

In defense of Mrs. Grace Harris, the Planning Board consultant, she submitted her report at this time because she was not asked to do so until the August 1984 meeting. Her report would not negate the work of the BRDA, it simply suggests more information be forthcoming, and certain plans be in place before a condition begins which cannot be reversed. "Blight" is not the route to go. How does anyone have the audacity to suggest that Washington Avenue is hopeless when there are renovations and new construction taking place right now?

Let's look at facts. In the past few years we have seen major renovations taking place, such as: Belleville Typewriter and Kar-Kare, complete new storefront, Crescent Press, entire building renovated; Fidelity Bank, (now First Jersey), new interior alterations and exterior work; Charles Jewelers, complete interior exterior refurbishing; Honda, a half block of complete interior and exterior work; Provident Bank, brand new building and parking lot; library, beautiful new addition; Peoples Bank, extensive interior and exterior renovations including parking lots, sidewalks, and surrounding areas; Wesley Church, exterior work, 246 Washington Ave., entire work front including two new storefronts; Garden State Farms, brand new, in and out; Maytag Laundromat, brand new in and out; Rossmore Pharmacy, addition and parking lot; Belleville Motor Lodge, large addition; Bell-Ridge Plumbing, brand new building; and if I were to continue north of Jaramela Street, the list would fill this page. Is this what you call "decay," Mr. Orechio? Are these the kind of things that take place in a "blighted area?"

And I'll give you more facts! Right on Mill Street, where we are told to beware of the "Newark creep," luxury condominiums are now being built. Also on Mill Street, a newly renovated building housing a luxury sport car business and several other remodeled businesses and buildings. More facts! A major exhaust system company has just applied to the Planning Board for approval to build another brand new building, and guess where, right in the middle of the "blighted area." The Planning Board is backlogged with applicants for business expansion and new construction.

The "revitalization" of Washington Avenue has begun and all by private interests and private capital. Not one cent was taken from taxpayers, local, state, or federal. Our town fathers must continue this kind of development by providing the proper atmosphere. If we remove the stigma of "blight" we will reap the benefits of even more renovations and new construction which will increase our tax base immediately. Applications for zoning variances, etc., should be simplified and handled in a more expeditious manner. The BRDA, commissioners, and Chamber of Commerce should be attracting developers for the vacant parcels of land we already have and for the properties which are currently for sale or lease. This would displace no one.

The expansion of our Town Hall should be pursued so we can incorporate all of our township agencies in the building, together with a two- or three-level parking lot. We already own the land all the way back to Valley Street. If it was feasible to build a brand new building on Franklin Street why can't we do it in the present site on Washington Avenue?

The Chamber of Commerce is moving in the right direction with its recruiting program and its new weekly news article which is very informative. Mr. Halperin is doing an excellent job.

On June 14, I submitted a letter to the Planning Board, drafted with other concerned citizens, outlining 10 proposals that could be enacted immediately for the revitalization of Washington Avenue. No one would be displaced by our plan and results would be seen immediately instead of fifteen or twenty years of upheaval with no guarantees of results.

A meeting is scheduled for Nov. 9 of our commissioners, Planning Board, and the BRDA. All citizens should attend this meeting because their actions will affect our town and our lives into the next century. The May 3 meeting at the high school and subsequent meetings have produced hundreds of people protesting the actions of our town fathers in the route they are pursuing for revitalization. We have alternate plans, but they seem to be falling on deaf ears. Let's shout it an octave higher. Belleville is not a "blighted area."

Sincerely,

Vincent J. Frantantoni

School Repairs Being Made Says Board of Ed President

(The following letter was sent to Mrs. Evelyn Muselli from the Belleville Board of Education President replying to her letter to the Editor which appeared in last week's edition of the Belleville Times.)

Dear Mrs. Muselli:

It was extremely disheartening to me to read your letter in the Oct. 25 edition of The Belleville Times, under the caption, "Middle School is 'A Disgrace'."

I would like you to understand that this Board of Education has made a commitment to refurbish the school and bring it back to a standard that both you and I can take pride in. This is going to require both time and money. For too many years, in an effort to stretch the tax dollar, the maintenance portion of the school budget has suffered, the result of which you have evidenced in your letter pertaining to the Middle School.

Over the past three years, the Board of Education has invested over $300,000 in capital outlay improvements to this school. With the exception of the windows, these improvements are not readily visible. The installation of new roofs, hot water heaters and the like, while not cosmetically enhancing, are nonetheless necessary. As we complete the exterior repairs to the building, we will be in a position to begin correcting those conditions which you have noted, classrooms, corridors, and such areas of high visibility.

I would like to point out that the Human Services Facilities Construction Bond Issue, Question 2 on the Nov. 6 ballot, is not the bonding referendum that the Board of Education has been contemplating. The school district bond question will be submitted to the citizens in the upcoming spring.

In an effort to allay your fears, let me say that with the assistance of concerned citizens such as you, we will be able to continue with the renovations which have already begun and return the Middle School to a standard that the citizens of Belleville have every right to expect.

Sincerely,

Grace A. Purdue
President
Belleville Board of Education

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Reports that some thoughts had been given to the prospects of the local School Board's selling School 1, have alarmed many citizens, some in high places in the local government. The edifice and grounds are now utilized as the administration offices of the Belleville Board of Education and the site where public meetings of the Board are held.

It will be recalled that School 2 had been sold, razed and is now the site of tax ratable property. Valley residents, proud of their heritage and sectional pride, expressed disgruntlement at the closing of School 1 a few years back. Their further concern is being aroused over what use the Cortlandt Street school property would be converted too, were it sold.

Word is being spread that a religious group might be interested in acquiring this site. A zoning variance could be sought permitting industrial use or utilization as a branch office of a large corporate group, such as an insurance firm, a warehouse or even a U.S. Postal depot, such as the one on Main Street which they must vacate the first of the year, provided it be on a rental basis.

Religious groups and the United States government do not pay taxes. This community and its taxpayers are already overburdened by the vast volume of tax-exempt lands and buildings in Belleville, two hospitals, a nursing home, a large county park and a golf links along with Newark reservoir and its pipe line. Enough is enough! Ratables we need. - Don't sell any more township or school board land to tax exempt agencies.

Senate President Carmine Orechio, who is our representative in the State Legislature, on Oct. 9 presided over a meeting of New Jersey County and Municipal Government Study Commission in Nutley at which it was voted unanimously to recommend that Trenton assume the burden of relieving counties the cost of running the court system and the eventual transfer of welfare costs from the counties to state level.

Among those attending the session were several of the most conversant figures of government on all levels in the state, including J. Est. C. Roock Jr., director of Rutgers University Bureau of Governmental Research, who commented, "This is the first comprehensive analysis of municipal government in New Jersey since the 1970s."

The report details how the patterns and responsibilities of municipal government are changing and the recommendation is made that municipalities adopt an administrative code. The impressive influence of the gentlemen attending this meeting is indicated by their titles: Assemblyman Robert Hollenback; Guy Milhard, executive director N.J. Association of Counties; John Alotti, administrative assistant to Assembly Speaker Alan Karcher; Senator John Lynch; Tom Edwards of the Senate Majority Staff; and John Trafard, executive director N.J. State League of Municipalities.

Senator Orechio had already drafted legislation to reassign the financial burden of the County court system to the state. A final decision on how to go about transferring the cost of "human services" including health and public welfare has not been made, although the Senate Commission did make a definite recommendation. Under Orechio's bill, money saved by counties would have to be used for property tax relief.

County Executive Peter Shapiro, also a member of the N.J. Government Study Commission, has called upon the State Legislature to act on the bill sponsored by Senate President Orechio that would appropriate $150 million for a state takeover of the Superior Court system.

Shapiro had proposed the use of surplus state funds to pay for the court system as an alternative to Governor Kean's $90 million tax rebate plan; saying a state takeover of county costs "is long overdue and would provide significant and long-term property tax relief, especially in urban counties like Essex."

Library's Italian-American Program Has Newark Bakery for a Sponsor

Josie's House of Tarralles, 194 Bloomfield Ave., Newark, a sponsor at the Belleville Library's Italian-American Program Oct. 11, continues to grow in reputation as a favorite among celebrities and politicians.

The Newark bakery supplied tarralles to Belleville Library's Oct. 11 program, much to the delight of Library Director David S. Bryant. The tarralles also have become a favorite delicacy for such show business personalities as: Undie Floyd, Frankie Valli, Anthony Quinn, Bobby Rydell, Frankie Avalon, Regis Philbin, Sergio Franchi, Yankee baseball broadcaster Phil Rizzuto, Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro and New York Governor Mario Cuomo.

"Thank you very much for the large carton of tarralles that helped to make our Italian-American Program a big success," said

Bryant in a letter to the Newark bakery. "We served pastries, but it was your tarralles that had our audience hungry for more."

The Newark bakery is a family operation, led by Josephine and Vincent "J.B." DeVigno. Other family members include Gina, Vinnie and Ronnie DeVigno. The tarralle is a folk pastry from southern Italy, described as a cross between a bread stick and a bagel.

The House of Tarralles was featured in the March 6, 1981 edition of the Italian Tribune, six months after it opened.

Wells Family Holds Reunion; Influenced Belleville's Past

The Wells family of Nutley and Belleville held a reunion Sept. 30 at the Holiday Inn Jetport. Elizabeth. The reunion was attended by Belleville Mayor Michael Maratti and Commissioner Joseph McGreevey.

The family has lived in the area for over 100 years. Rev. David Wells was the founder and pastor of Little Zion UAME Church in 1881. His brother, Rev. Joseph E. Wells, succeeded him as pastor.

The late Theodore Wells was active in church and community activities. The late William Wells was the landscaper for the old Soho Hospital and planted the first cherry trees in Belleville Park. Another active church member was Audrey Holmes, the daughter of Rev. Joseph Wells.

Members of the Wells family currently living in Nutley include Georgette Whitley, Josephine Brazier and Florence Wells Bailey. The late Grace Wells Olphin, active in local church affairs, also was a Nutley resident. Wells family members presently residing in Belleville are Ernest Olphin, Norma Wells and Evelyn and James Browne.

Mayor Marotti proclaimed Sept. 30 as "Wells Family Day" in Belleville and presented a proclamation to family members. Following the Saturday night celebration, family members attended a worship service at Little Zion Church. Josephine Brazier was the director of ceremonies and Audrey Holmes performed an organ solo. David Wells, the oldest living member of the family, presented a donation to Rev. McBeth.

The affair was planned by Grace Gay of Orange, Ernestine Randolph of Montclair, Evelyn Browne of Belleville and Shirley Nichols of Plainfield.

The tunnel, 13 miles long, 40 feet in diameter and 150 feet below ground, has received considerable opposition from area residents as well as Nutley and Belleville township commissions.

Voters Face Problems Again At Township Polling Place

court order issued by Newark Judge John Dios on Election Day.

Squire said the landlord and the Nutley and Belleville post offices were at fault in the confusion. "This has been a problem for the past five years," she said. "We've done everything we can to correct it, but we get no cooperation," she added.

Squire said Judge Dios has ordered her to file a motion to "straighten out this situation."

A clerk of the carrier division of the Nutley Post Office said Tuesday that mail addressed to 1 Franklin Ave., Nutley is delivered.

Bob Colasanti, the mail supplier to the carriers, said, "We do deliver regular mail to that area," adding that he had heard of the confusion surrounding the building.

Because of the Election Day holiday, the Belleville Tax Assessor's Office was closed Tuesday and information about the building or its owner could not be verified.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Q. Ms. H. asks: Are white fillings better than silver fillings in the back teeth?

A. White fillings or composite fillings are used primarily for esthetics. The composite fillings are made up of glass particles and a glue material that hold these particles together. The problem with the composite material is that it washes out or is soluble in the mouth. When placed in the back teeth where they rub together, they have a greater chance of dissolving. This then causes a space between two teeth where food may get lodged causing additional problems or the teeth may grind together causing a change in the bite. In addition, the American Dental Association has not yet approved of white filling in the back teeth as being ideal treatment.

During the past year, computer literacy courses were developed for grades seven and eight. The curriculum includes, a history of computers, used to process information, an understanding of how computers effect society, and an understanding of how computers are used for instruction and the solving of problems. It is expected by the end of the nine-week course that each student should be capable of writing a simple program, as well as, knowing how the computer can assist him/her in other educational area.

The computer room houses 14 computers with accessories which include, regular and color screens, disk drives, printers at School 5, has been transferred to the Middle School to teach the course. In addition, there are several staff members that have received computer training and are also qualified to teach the course. Mr.

Dj Maggio, principal of the Middle School, hopes that eventually all teachers will receive some computer training. Once this objective has been accomplished, the total impact of the computer in the classroom will have been accomplished.

Cub Pack 350 Wins Annual Gold Rush

The Bear and Weeblo Dens of Cub Scout Pack 350 were named co-winners of the Belleville District Boy Scouts annual Gold Rush, held Saturday, Oct. 27, at the Conklin Scout Reservation in Bounton.

Seven teams comprising 37 Cubs and representing the various Dens (Wolf, Bear, Weeblo) of Packs 301, 307, 350, 377 competed against each other by performing diverse tasks which could be found in their scout handbook. Tasks ranged from the naming of one U.S. Senator from New Jersey and their Congressman, to tying two pieces of rope together with an overhead knot. Each Den performed different tasks according to its rank.

The event took place in a "Wild West" setting. Carrying equipment in homemade "covered wagons," each team visited six Western "towns" where they were greeted by a "Mayor," who assigned them the different tasks and judged their performance. Teams were awarded from between one to five "gold nuggets" at each town, based on how well they performed the tasks. The Bear and Weeblo Dens of Pack 350 achieved victory by receiving 25 nuggets each, and were awarded a plaque. Both teams will eventually share a perpetual trophy which they can keep until next year's event. A blue ribbon was also awarded to Pack 301 for constructing the best wagon, judged according to craftsmanship, ability, and best design.

Statute of Limitations Should Extend For Cases Involving Toxic Wastes

Legislation introduced by Senate President Carmen Orechio would extend the statute of limitations for commencing criminal prosecutions for unlawful handling or disposing of hazardous substances.

Senator Orechio explained under current law criminal prosecutions must be commenced within five years of the date of the crime. However, evidence of a criminal act concerning illegal handling or disposal of toxic materials often is not discovered or indeed discoverable, until years after the offense," he said.

In recognition of this problem concerning environmental crimes Orechio said his bill "would provide that a prosecution or criminal actions, concerning hazardous substances must be commenced within five years of the date of the discovery of the crime."

"This measure will hold polluters more accountable for their criminal actions and bring violators to justice," he said. "It will make it easier to prosecute polluters such as those who have caused the recent problems of toxic contamination in Belleville, Montclair and Glen Ridge," he added.

Buccaneers Move Into the Section II Playoffs!

Barreling Through — Anthony Gizzo is looking for running room in last weekend's victory at Paterson. The senior speedster tallied over 100 yards for the first time in his career and Belleville won, 19-7. Gizzo capped the game with a 65-yard run late in the contest that sealed the win.

Bucs Defeat Paterson, 19-7; Secure Spot in Section II Tourney

By Michael Lamberti

It didn't come easy and it certainly did not come without some sacrifices, but the Belleville Buccaneers are on their way to the Group IV, Section II playoffs following a 19-7 victory over Paterson Kennedy last weekend in Paterson.

The competition will not let up this weekend, despite the assured playoff berth. Belleville will battle the red-hot Mounties of Montclair, at Municipal Stadium, starting at 1:30 p.m., on Saturday. The game is of significant importance to both squads. For Belleville, a victory will clinch the Essex-Passaic Division of the NNJHL. The Bucs are currently 5-0 in the conference and lead Montclair (4-0) by one half game with two games left. A Belleville win would also boost the team's standings in the seeds for the playoffs, which begin on November 17.

For Montclair, in order to gain a third straight entrance in the Group IV, Section II playoffs, it must defeat Belleville. The Mounties are the defending champions, having defeated Union in last year's final. Should Montclair lose, they could miss out on the playoffs. Entering this game, Montclair sports a 5-1-1 record and crowned Nutley last weekend, 47-0.

Last weekend, the Bucs boosted its team record to 6-1 with a 12-point victory over Paterson Kennedy. The win was quite costly, however. No less than five Buccaneers were at Mountainside Hospital for X-Rays following the hard hitting affair. Two of the players left with relatively good news, however three key players were not as fortunate and could miss the remainder of the campaign.

First off, quarterback defensive safety Mark Walsh suffered a bruised arm and will start this weekend. Running back John Oliveri, the team's best pass catcher out of the backfield, went down early with a recurring shoulder injury, but should be okay by kickoff on Saturday. The same cannot be said of linemen Dominick Di Paolo, Ralph Chimento and defensive end Jim Caponi. Di Paolo suffered a cartilage damage in his knee, the second injury to a Belleville player's knee on artificial turf this season. Di Paolo, the Bucs' inspirational leader on the field, could miss the remainder of the season.

Chimento has a badly sprained ankle, suffered late in the game, and is doubtful for the Montclair game. He might be back for the playoff contest on November 17. As for Caponi, he suffered a broken rib in the victory and his status is up in the air. Some good news came to head coach John Senesky when it was learned that Anthony Pravatia, who had suffered a knee injury earlier this year at Paterson, might be ready for this weekend's game with Montclair. Pravatia, a lineman, will be needed more than ever and Senesky feels he might be ready. "He might play on Saturday," the coach said. "We'll

(Please see "Bucs" on page 12)

Hand Off — Quarterback Mark Walsh (10) hands off to Jim Murphy in last weekend's 19-7 win over Paterson Kennedy. Murphy, a sophomore, has been very impressive in his work this season and should be a big asset next season.

Volleyball Team Wins First Playoff Round

In a topsy, turvy week of action, the Belleville volleyball team went from bad to good, from lousy to awesome and in the process split four matches. The girls battled Ferris High School of Jersey City in the second round of the Group IV, state tournament. Ferris was ranked second in the group and should provide the girls with some stiff competition. If Belleville wins that match, which was held yesterday, then it will continue in the tournament. Should the girls lose, then the 1984 season will be completed.

The team, last week, lost to Clifton in two sets, then rallied to stop Paterson Eastside in two sets. The next day, the girls were on the short end of a two set defeat at the hands of Teaneck, but the team rallied to stop Bayonne in two devastating sets to win in the first round of the Group IV tournament. For the season, Belleville holds a 15-7 record.

Versus Clifton, Belleville lost by counts of 7-15, 7-15. "Nothing worked in that match," said head coach Grace Worley. "No passing, hitting or setting. Our offense was terrible. We didn't do well at all."

Worley cited a lack of backline play as the key to the Buccaneers' defeat.

Against Eastside, the girls rallied to win in two sets, 15-3, 15-8. With some college scouts in attendance, Debbie Worley and Donna Brooks put on a good show. Worley finished the match with 25 sets and Brooks had 11 hits and three blocks. "We tried some different things in that match," recalled Worley. "We tried some middle hits and some quick hits and it worked out pretty well. We played very well in the match."

Just one day after playing a solid match, the girls were back on the short end, this time to

Cross Country Team Finishes Season With NNJIL Meets and Championships

The Belleville cross country team concluded its 1984 season with competition in the Group IV, Section II championships last weekend at Warnock Park, Elizabeth.

John Tosato's Bucs competed in the NNJIL championships and the county race as a prelude to the sectional championships and fared rather well. In the NNJIL meet, the big story was the first place finish by freshman Joyce Luongo in the freshman girls race. Running the 3-km., Luongo finished in a time of 15:18 and was credited with the first place medal.

"She ran an excellent race," said Tosato. "There were about 35 runners in the race and she did a fine job. Her time, especially at Garret Mountain was very good."

For the boys in the NNJIL, Bob Hutchinson finished in 60th place overall with a time of 18:41. Right behind him was Bill Huamani, with a time of 18:42, good for 62nd place. Sophomore Craig Burden was 67th in a time of 18:50. Overall, Belleville finished 14th in the race.

At the county championships in Branch Brook Park, senior Bill Huamani was the leader for Belleville, coming in at a time of 17:59. Over the last three weeks of the season, Huamani has been the most consistent performer on the Buccaneer team. He is closing out his senior year on the cross country cinders on a very positive note.

Burden was the next Bucs across, with a time of 18:09. Hutchinson finished in a time of 18:22. Ross De Meo, 20:19 and Mark Huamani, 20:22. For the girls, Luongo continued her strong showing with a time of 24:40 and sophomore Donna Lee Daidelin finished in a time of 26:10.

Finally, at the sectionals last weekend, Hutchinson led the boys with a time of 18:59. Burden finished at 19:19 and De Meo, 21:40. Huamani did not compete in the sectionals due to his taking the college boards.

It was a season of improvement for the Buccaneer cross country team. Billy Huamani did a fine job over the last month of the season. "Down the stretch," said Tosato, "he was our number one runner.

Huamani will now concentrate on the indoor track season, which begins in about two weeks. Burden turned in a solid season and will now concentrate on basketball during the winter months. He will be back for the outdoor track team come March.

Hutchinson was a consistent performer during the season. He was always near the top of the pack and should be ready for a big indoor season. Joseph Di Vincenzo, during the indoor season, "He showed a lot of improvement during cross country," said Tosato.

John Zurlo, a distance runner, will be competing for the indoor team, as will freshman Matt Fabian, Matt Dellino and Paul Ramos. Mark Huamani, a freshman, will be taking part in the basketball program.

Ross De Meo, who started the season on the inactive roster, came out for the team in early October and started to come around in the later stages of the season. He will be running in the outdoor season, but is questionable for the upcoming winter campaign.

Four BHS Students Share Athlete of the Month

During the month of October, a number of athletes have made a solid contribution to the Belleville athletic program. Trying to pick one out of so many fine individuals is next to impossible, so the pick for the Athlete of the Month for October will be split among Michael Gibbons, Linda Wujak, Donna Brooks and Debbie Worley.

Gibbons, the fullback for the Belleville football team, has been a steady performer since the opening game. His play has certainly helped the Buccaneers to a 6-1 record and berth in the Group IV, Section II playoffs. Replacing the "legends" Michael Murphy at the difficult fullback position, Gibbons, a 5-8, 188 pound tank, has been very difficult to bring down.

"Michael does a fine job, on both offense and defense," praised his head coach, John Senesky. "You have to remember, Michael is being hit on just about every play in the game. On offense, he is either running the ball, or blocking. On every play, he is making some kind of contact. On defense, he plays nose guard and is one of the best we've ever had at that position."

A statement like that does not come easy, especially from Senesky. The Bucs have been blessed at the nose guard slot for many years, with people like Joe Garofalo and John Bucciarelli to name a few that did a superb job at the position. To put Gibbons in that kind of company says a great deal about his ability.

"He gives us a full game on both sides," continued Senesky. "On defense, he is being double teamed on most occasions. That's over 400 pounds coming at home snap after snap. Then he goes on offense and does a fine job running the ball."

Indeed, Gibbons has been a fine runner. He has rushed for over 100 yards on three occasions this season. In the opener against Don Bosco, he ran 57 yards for a touchdown late in the contest to seal a 14-0 win. Against Paterson Eastside and Bloomfield, Gibbons accounted for six touchdowns overall and was a big force in the giant victories over Passaic and Clifton.

When the football season ends, hopefully in early December, Gibbons will turn his attention to wrestling, where last season he compiled an unbelievable 26-2 record, advancing to the state tournament. He will be a heavy favorite in the 188 pound class this year.

"There have been many performers that have helped us to the season we've had," said Senesky. (John) Oliveri, Mark Walsh, (Anthony) Gizzo, our offensive and defensive lines, there have been so many people that have contributed. It hasn't been a one man show by any means."

As the Bucs gear for a playoff run next weekend, they can be assured of receiving a full game from Michael Gibbons, in every phase of the game. It's the only way that Gibbons and the Buccaneers football team knows how to play.

Linda Wujak, a senior gymnast, has been a very pleasant surprise for first year coach Ray Lannuzzi. "She's been our most consistent performer," the coach said. "She has had to battle back from a few injuries and she was pretty sick a few weeks back, but Linda has been very impressive. Unfortunately for us, she is a senior."

Lannuzzi is also impressed with Wujak's work ethic. "On many occasions, I have to tell her, 'Linda, that's enough.'" She just doesn't want to stop practicing. She puts a great deal of time and effort into the sport."

The girls are currently 2-8, but Lannuzzi sees a great deal of promise in his younger athletes for said of his many freshman and sophomores. But it's been Linda's excellent athletic ability which has really helped us this year. Gina (Lemongello) has been our inspirational leader this year and Linda has led with her athletic ability. Both girls have been integral parts of the season."

It won't be easy to replace an athlete with the character and poise of Linda Wujak. Her excellent season and hard work should certainly be an inspiration toward the younger athletes that will represent the vaulters and jumpers for the years to come.

When one looks at the Belleville volleyball team and its marvelous success throughout the season, the mention almost always points to two athletes. Donna Brooks and Debbie Worley. The two almost seem synonymous with Belleville volleyball. "Without them," said head coach Grace Worley, "we wouldn't be where we are today."

Where the girls are today is a 15-7 record and advancement to the second round of the Group IV, state tournament. Brooks and Worley have indeed been a big part of that success. "A lot of the college scouts who come and see us play have complimented on how well the two work together," Worley said. "Debbie does the setting and Donna finishes it with some strong hitting. I really didn't think we would make it to the state tournament this year. They have been the main reasons for the success that we have enjoyed."

This isn't to say that Worley has not been helped by some of her younger players, such as Christine Melillo, Liz Goldrick, Renee Petino and Sheri Phelps, but the main thrust of the team's success certainly lies with the two talented seniors. Debbie Worley is a straight A student and has a number of colleges looking at her next year, both for her athletic ability and academic prowess. Brooks is a B student and has a number of schools interested in her as well. Donna's talent extends beyond the volleyball court. When this season ends, it's off to the basketball team and her fourth year of varsity competition for Karen Fucello. The girl hoopers, now that Jennifer Apicella and Dina De Aquino have graduated, will be relying very heavily on Brooks. After basketball, it's off to the softball diamond, playing in center field and helping Carl Corino toward another big season.

Debbie Worley, Donna Brooks, Michael Gibbons and Linda Wujak are just four examples of the fine athletes that Belleville produces year in and year out. They certainly deserve our praise and gratitude.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Bob Mozeika of the football team. "During the last month, Mozeika has been nothing short of awesome on both sides of the line. He has been outstanding," said Senesky. "Bobby has been all over the field, making some tremendous plays. I can't say enough about his ability." Mozeika has been one of several Buccaneer linemen that have been tremendous this year. Ed Stangl, Don Di Paolo, John Apicella, Ralph Chimento and Steve Trabuna are some others that have been outstanding this year.

The Buccaneer Honor Roll for the fall semester will be previewed in early December. The feature was very well accepted last year and we should have another strong turnout of athletes for the 1984-85 season.

The answer to last week's quiz. The question was, name the players who scored in Belleville's 14-7 win over Morris Knolls in the 1980 playoffs, the starting backfield and the other playoff game in 1980. The answer: Frank Lazzini and Paul Scheuplein scored the TD's.

Finally, congratulations to Clifton High School on its impressive victory over Passaic, 16-0 last weekend. Let's hope that the fans of that town are better winners than losers, because your showing after the Buccaneers' 7-3 win over the Mustangs a few weeks ago left a lot to be desired.

For this week's quiz, in the 1981 season, the Giants and Jets both made the playoffs. In the final week of the season, the Jets had to help the Giants by beating an NFC team. The Giants had already helped themselves by beating an NFC rival the day before. Name the team that the Jets beat in the '81 finale, the team the Giants defeated and how both clubs did in the '81 playoffs.

Soccer

In Division A of recreation soccer, the undefeated Lancers, with a record of 4-0-1 met the Toros (3-1-1) in a battle which would determine first place and ended in a 1-1 tie.

Louis Messano of the Toros opened the scoring in the first quarter on a breakaway and then for two periods the Toros held down the pressure of the Lancers. In the third period Ron DePiro scored with the assist going to Kenny Sainz. The game ended at 1-1 leaving the Lancer record at 4-0-1 and the second place Toros at 3-1-1.

In other action the Aztecs (1-3) met the Spurs (0-4). The Aztecs got three goals from Ketan Giam and strong defense play from Tim Cook. The Spurs got goals from George Durizas who has two and Miguel Miranda who had one. The score ended at 3-3.

In Division B the battle of the unbeaten for first place was again on the line. The Cosmos (3-0-1) met the Aztecs (4-0). The game was dominated in part by the Cosmos and had more scoring chances than the Aztecs made their shots count.

Darin Zullo opened the scoring for the Aztecs on a penalty kick but Gregory Groeling scored four minutes later deadlocking the game, 1-1. The Cosmos kept the Aztecs in there on end for almost the full third period but finally Brian Travers, the league's leading scorer, broke away and scored for the Aztecs. The Cosmos had numerous chances in the fourth period but just couldn't score. Scott Jaworowicz and Joe Ciarella played excellent for the Cosmos while goalkeeper Matt Kastner played outstanding. Kevin Ernst played outstanding in midfield for the Aztecs. The Aztecs are 5-0-0 while the Cosmos are 3-1-1.

In last week's action Markese Beverly, not Beverly Marrese, scored a goal for the Cosmos against the Spurs.

In another battle for fourth place, the Toros played the Spurs. The Spurs came into the game winless while the Toros were coming off a 1-0 victory and the Spurs won their first win. The Toros dominated early on three goals but Gabriel Suarez scored on a penalty kick and Matthew McGough scored on a 60-yard breakaway run to bring the score close. But the Spurs scored early in the fourth period to put the game away.

Final regular season standings for B Division are as follows:

Aztecs	5-0-0
Cosmos	3-1-1
Lancers	3-1-1
Toros	1-4-0
Comets	1-4-0
Spurs	1-4-0

In recreation football Division A, the undefeated Chiefs continued their winning ways by defeating the Giants, 39-6. Nick Turano led the scoring for the Chiefs with three touchdowns. John Sternick attributed two touchdowns. John Stampone totaled eight points also for the Chiefs. Kevin Marion, who has been brilliant as quarterback for the Chiefs, added an extra point.

In Division B, Bill Prosperi and Mike Connolly led the Bengals' defense to a 34-0 shutout of the Falcons. Mike Rubas scored two touchdowns for the Bengals, while Joe Cucuzza and Jamie Zigarelli added one touchdown a piece. Jose Marino and Mike D'Acchille added an extra point for the Bengals.

The Chargers' defeated the Jets, 12-0. Billy Nehls connected with Joe Bliss on a 70-yard touchdown pass with only 10 seconds remaining before halftime to give the Chargers a 6-0 lead.

The Chargers' running game accounted for their second touchdown. Behind the blocking of Sean Kimball, Danny Hywell and Jason Schaefer the Chargers marched 75 yards in 15 plays. Jason Apple capped the drive on and 8-yard run for the final score.

Football standings are as follows:

Division A
Chiefs	5-0-0
Steelers	4-1-0
Rams	1-4-0

Division B
Chargers	4-0-1
Bengals	3-1-1
Jets	2-3-0
Falcons	0-5-0

Peanut Touch Football

The fourth week of action in the Belleville Peanut Touch Football League took place Oct. 27.

Raising their record to 3-1 the Cowboys overpowered the Jets (0-4), 31-0. Dave Andrews led the way for the winners, running for one touchdown and throwing for two more. A 20-yard interception return for a touchdown by Jim Napolitano padded the lead and Jason Gonzalez ran for another score.

The Jets, a young team, are better than their record indicates and look to play a spoiler role the rest of the season.

Improving their record to 4-0 the Giants passed by the Chiefs 31-7. An exciting air show was put on by Kevin Johansen and the Giants as he threw 15-5 and 45-yard touchdown passes to Mike Puleo and another to his brother Kenny, to account for most of the scoring. Fine linemen play was shown by Giants Sam Marino and Tony Talbi.

The Chiefs (1-3) were paced by quarterback Todd Connolly who ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

Peanut Touch Football standings are as follows:

Giants	4-0
Cowboys	3-1
Chiefs	1-3
Jets	0-4

Bucs to Face Montclair Next; Last Contest Here Was in '80

have to see what his condition is like during the week."

As for the game, the Bucs were not as sharp as in previous victories over Passaic and Clifton, but after two big games over state ranked teams, it wasn't as easy for the team to prepare for a 2-4 Kennedy squad. "They have played everyone tough," Senesky said of Paterson Kennedy. "We expected a tough game and got it. We were up against the wall."

Belleville scored first, driving 81 yards in 17 plays and using up most of the first quarter in the process. Anthony Gizzo, who rushed for over 100 yards on the day, had a big 16 yard run in the drive and some strong running was turned in by Michael Gibbons and Walsh, who made a few key first downs on quarterback keepers.

The touchdown came on a one yard run by Gibbons, his eighth touchdown of the season and first in three games. Jim Dunphy added the conversion and it was 7-0.

Kennedy made it known that it was here to play. In the second quarter, following a Belleville punt, the Knights tied the game when quarterback Verri Freeman found Peter Festa with a 26 yard TD pass. The conversion was added by Bryant Lighty and the game was tied at halftime.

In the third quarter, Kennedy took the kickoff and drove as close as the Buccaners ten yard line. The defense stifled there and Lighty attempted a 27 yard field goal that was wide left and the Bucs had new life.

"That was a big play," Senesky recalled of the missed field goal. "It took some life out of them and put us back in the game."

Early in the fourth quarter, Belleville got the break it needed. Following a short Kennedy punt, the Bucs started from the Knight 40 yard line. Walsh hit Steve Kimble with a 14 yard pass. Gibbons had six yards to the 20 and Walsh four more to the 16. The drive went to the Kennedy one yard line where Gibbons finished the play, spinning off a would be tackler and scoring his second TD of the game. The conversion failed, but the Bucs were back in front, 13-7.

Minutes later, following a PK punt, Gizzo took a handoff from Walsh and burned the entire PK defense for a 65 yard touchdown. "I never saw Anthony run that fast," said Senesky. "He out ran the entire secondary."

The conversion missed, but the Bucs were in control, 19-7.

It was a big victory for Belleville. Clinching a playoff berth for the fourth time in the last six years, Belleville is second only to Union in playoff appearances over the last six years. The Farmers have been in five of the last six years, missing out in 1980. This season, they will probably be the top seed in the playoffs and have been nothing short of awesome in its first seven games. Last weekend, the Farmers shutout previously unbeaten Rahway, 35-0 and continue to be number one in the local ratings.

NOTES: This was the first meeting between the Bucs and Knights since 1982, when Belleville won, 14-0. The game with Montclair will mark the Mounties first appearance in Belleville since a 7-6 Buc win in 1980. The two teams did not play in 1981 and the last two games, in 1982 and 1983 were both in Montclair, with the Mounties winning by scores of 22-2 and 14-6.

Playoffs Feature Tough Union; Others Still Battling for Spots

With the Belleville Buccaneers football team now assured of a playoff spot in the Group IV, Section II playoffs, let's take a look at the other teams that will make up this season's competition in the tournament.

Belleville will go to post-season play for the second time in the last three years and fourth time in the last six campaigns. The other participants in Group IV, Section II will feature Union, which is 7-0, ranked number one in New Jersey and is a team that many feel is unbeatable.

The Farmers breezed by powerful Rahway last weekend, 35-0 and boast a huge offensive line, a fine running game and a good passing quarterback. Lou Reitano's squad lost in the championship game last year to Montclair after it had defeated the Mounties in the 1982 championship game.

In Belleville's last playoff appearance, 1982, the Bucs lost a heartbreaker to Union, 12-7, falling behind 12-0 after seven minutes, then rallying in the second half before falling short.

In addition to Belleville and Union, three teams are battling for the remaining two spots. Montclair, Morris Knolls and East Orange all have crucial games this weekend that will decide post-season bids. Montclair, of course, plays our Bucs at Municipal Stadium. The Mounties are 5-1-1 and need a win to assure a berth in the playoffs. Montclair is the defending champion Group IV, Section II and is looking for a third straight post-season bid. Should Montclair lose this weekend, they could end up on the outside if Morris Knolls and East Orange, both of whom are 5-2, win.

Morris Knolls will battle Hanover Park this weekend in a game they are favored to win. East Orange, however, has a much more formidable task. The Panthers have to face the Pony Pirates of Seton Hall Prep, ranked number seven in the State and owners of a 7-0 record. Seton Hall will be a difficult assignment.

The prediction here is that Montclair will advance to post-season play, whether they win or lose this Saturday. Morris Knolls will round out the foursome and will play our Buccaneers in the first round of the state playoffs, set for Nov. 17. The other first round game could be Montclair and Union. Stay tuned.

Kick Off — Bobby Charles (52) kicks off to start the second half of the game in Paterson last weekend. Charles will see action at linebacker this weekend, now that Dominick Di Paolo has gone down with a knee injury.

Firehouse Visit — School 9's first grade and kindergarten classes, accompanied by Mrs. Cynthia Browne and Miss Mary Lou Mele, visited the fire department building on Washington Avenue. Captain Tom Nuvoccia (standing) and Fireman Art Whitman demonstrate a piece of equipment to the children. The visit was to emphasize Fire Prevention Week.

Week's Celebration For BHS Key Club

Key Club International, a high school service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International, is observing the week of Nov. 4-10 as Key Club Week.

The members of the Key Club of Belleville High School are part of an international organization of over 100,000 students dedicated to serve with purpose their God, country and fellow man, seeking to give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life. They promoted the adoption of higher standards in scholastics, sportsmanship, social contacts and a more concerned citizenship. Through their purposeful service, they have helped to build better communities making their motto, Caring-Our Way of Life, more than just words — making it become a goal for living.

The current adopted theme of "Manhours For Mankind" is aimed at providing over 5,000,000 manhours of community service with many of these hours benefiting the community.

Volleyball Team is 2-2 In Matches Last Week

Teaneck, 10-15, 8-15. The score pretty much tells the story. Belleville did not have one of its better matches and had to rally in each set after falling behind by a wide margin.

In the Bayonne match, Belleville was all over its Group IV counterpart and won, 15-1, 15-0. "Bayonne is a new team," said Worley. "We played a real good game. Debbie set well. Donna had some excellent hits. They (Bayonne) are a young team, a team that will be tough in the next couple of seasons."

In the victory over Bayonne, Liz Goldrick served up four aces in the first game. Sheri Phelps came through with nine straight service points and Renee Petino finished with the remaining six points to round out an easy victory.

Heard at Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Former popular middleweight Bobby Cozy, 25-1, returned to Totowa, N.J. World where he head his first pro fight on April 24, 1980, as a light heavyweight. He made a successful debut in the heavier division by defeating Marvin Mack, 11-5, of Philadelphia. Cozy won a 10-round decision. Mack was down in the 8th round for the only knockdown of the bout. In the semi-windup Sal Cenciello of River Vale, N.J. outpointed Joe Rickett of Phoenixville, Pa. in an 8-round featherweight contest. Cozy and Cenciello broke into boxing by training at the Lou Costello gymnasium in Paterson, N.J.

George Chaplin veteran heavyweight out of Baltimore, Md. was selected to be next opponent for comebacking Gerry Cooney of Hempstead, L.I. in December. Chaplin, 32, lost to David Ray, Mike Haydock, Gerrie Coetzee and Greg Page. As a professional fighter he has won 26, lost six with two draws. Cooney, 28, has only lost one fight of 27. This will be Cooney's second comeback fight promoted by Sam Glass. The first fight in two years ended in a knockout of Phil Brown in the fourth round. Glass said the Chaplin-Cooney bout will be televised by a cable network, but not HBO.

Promoter Dan Duva said Main Events hopes to hold the rematch between World Boxing Association lightweight champion Livingston Bramble of Passaic and former titleholder Ray Mancini of Youngstown, Ohio, in January. Duva will first need and okay from the WBA.

The sharpies along with "Gleason's punch party" are breathing heavy over talk of a championship punch party between undefeated heavyweight champ Larry Holmes, 35, of Easton, Pa. and unbeaten light heavyweight titleholder Michael Spinks, 28, of Philadelphia in the works for January. Though only in the talking stage HBO, ABC and Katz Sports Network are reported bidding on TV rights. HBO informs the press "HBO has refused to accept such a match up."

Josephine Abscrombie, president of Houston (Texas) Boxing Association, said she has signed Frank Tate, who captured the Olympic gold medal by defeating Canada's Shawn O'Sullivan in the 156-pound division. Abscrombie, who fought in six-round middleweight fight against Mike Puccirelli, of Pittsburgh, at the Summit Houston Arena.

German Draz, native of Puerto Rico, now of Paterson, N.J., via Brooklyn, N.Y., fighting in the lightweight division had won six consecutive victories when he had the misfortune to lose the ring lining of his left hand at his work place. He stopped in at the Lou Costello Gym last week to inform his manager, Al Moore, that the hand has healed and he is ready to resume his boxing career. Moore advised, "Not before the hand is examined by New Jersey State Athletic Commission doctor (Dr. Donald Novich)."

The Duvas are expected to give up the gym in West Paterson and head for Philadelphia. Shelly Finkle is reported opening a gymnasium for trainer George Benton at 18th and Gerard Ave. Benton trains Finkle's stable of fighters now in Philly at a rented gym.

Oscar Muniz, 38-4-3, of Pico Rivers, Calif. beat up on Johnny Carter, 26-3, of Philadelphia, for 12-rounds to capture a unanimous decision at Atlantic City's Sands Hotel. Muniz became the United States Boxing Association bantamweight champion by his victory.

The National Boxing Association staged its first annual dinner in New York. This new organization was established two years ago by New York attorney Howard I. Carny and publisher of boxing publication "Boxing World" Irving Abrson of Florida. The purpose of the NBA is to eventually provide a working pension, medical and health insurance protection and employment for boxers after their boxing careers have ended.

Heavyweight Marvis Frazier of Philadelphia raised his record by earning a unanimous 10-round decision over Bernard "The Bull" Benton of Toledo, Ohio, at Atlantic City's Atlantis Hotel last Tuesday. The Philadelphia fought a smart fight using a strong left jab followed by short right hooks. The other half of the heavyweight double feature saw Carl Williams of New York remain undefeated, 16-0, after a disastrous first round to win a unanimous 10-round decision over James Tillis, 30-5, of Chicago. Tillis dumped Williams on the seat of his trunks twice in the first round.

North American Boxing Association (NABF) stripped unbeaten James Shuler of his middleweight champion status. The reason for the NABF's action was said to be due to inactivity by the Philadelphian.

Gymnasts Suffer Fifth Straight Loss; Place Fifth in NNJIL Tournament

Despite some strong performances from Linda Wujaek, Aise Davies and Gina Lemongello, the Belleville gymnastics team dropped its fifth straight match to Kearny, 80.95-77.0 and fell to 2-8 on the season.

Roy Iannuzzi's team, which competed in the NNJIL tournament last week, closed out the season last Tuesday with a night match at Passaic Valley.

Versus Kearny, which was the only match of the week for Belleville, Wujaek took third place in the vaulting exercise with a score of 7.70. The senior then came back to take third in the floor exercise with a score of 7.20.

Daves, a sophomore, took second place in her favorite event, the uneven parallel bars. In the balance beam, Jill Lillis was second with a score of 7.05 and Lemongello, third with a score of 6.20.

In the NNJIL tournament, Ridgewood was the overall winner, with Clifton second. Montclair third, Bloomfield fourth, Belleville fifth, Hackensack, sixth and Teaneck seventh. Belleville just missed out on fourth place, losing to Bloomfield by 15 points.

A strong performance was turned in by Davies, who scored a 7.10 on the uneven parallel bars. In the floor exercise, Wujaek finished with a score of 6.95 and Lemongello, a 6.70. The vaulting exercise saw Lillis tally a score of 7.5 and Wujaek, a 7.5.

"I'm seeing improvement on the team," said Iannuzzi. "The freshmen on the team look good and our upperclassmen have been doing a good job. It is going to take time, but the team has been improving and will have more experience for next season."

President Reagan Gets Votes Here in Strong Voter Turnout

widely over moderate Republican challenger Mary Mochary, the former mayor of Montclair, who received 4,657 local votes.

In the House races, Democrat Peter Rodino retained his seat, hold in the 10th District seat with 840 votes. His Republican challenger, Berkeley, pulled only 454 votes.

A split Congressional district, Belleville also falls partly into the Eighth District where Democrat Robert Roe won with 4,895 votes over the 4,504 ballots cast for challenger Marguerite Page.

In the races for Essex County Board of Freeholders, unofficial figures showed the two contenders for the Fifth District seat in a dead heat.

Tuesday's count gave 5,590 votes to Republican incumbent Art Clay, w but showed challenger Democrat Charles Kucinski at 5,322 votes with one district still uncounted at press time.

Earlier in the evening, a jubilant Clay arrived at Belleville Town Hall to hark in what appeared at first to be encouraging returns.

"I never expected to win Belleville," grinned the tall blond Clay as he shook hands all around accepting congratulations that may yet prove to have been premature.

Voters also elected four candidates to at-large seats on the Board of Freeholders. Apparent winners and their vote counts Tuesday were: Marion Crecco, 6,222; incumbent Freeholder President Jerome Greco, 6,137; Sam Angelo, 5,751; and Charles Cummings, 5,482.

Other candidates and their results were: John Collins, 5,309; Thomas P. Gihlin, 5,205; Adrien Davis, 4,826; and Cardill Cooper, 4,784.

As expected, local voters gave strong approval to the 38 referendum questions including authorizing $150 million in additional state spending.

The first question approved would grant the state $90 million in bonding authority to create technology centers at public and private educational institutions, an effort to make New Jersey a national focal point for advanced scientific and research study.

Belleville voters also favored a constitutional amendment that would dedicate 2.5 cents of the present gasoline tax of 8 cents a gallon to guarantee revenue bonds for improvement of state transportation systems.

Also approved is the public question to broaden the power of senior citizens' groups permitting them to hold rallies in order to use the proceeds to support their activities.

Voters also favored exempting retirement benefits received under federal law, including Social Security payments from state taxation.

Though totals of public question balloting was not completed by press time, officials declared all questions victorious by a large margin.

Township Family Continues Search For New Housing Within the Area

apartment priced above what they call "fair market value."

"It's almost impossible to find anything decent that falls in the guidelines," he said, noting that he refused offers from some agencies because the areas were unsafe.

The father is also dejected over what he calls "discrimination" against the handicapped in locating an apartment.

"Some of the real estate places I visited told me my son's condition would make it harder for us to get a place because so many landlords don't want that in their house."

In fact, the Porcellos have a history of housing problems.

The family came to Belleville two years ago after experiencing difficulties in a Bloomfield apartment. According to Porcello, the landlord there objected to daily visits for Domenick by a state-paid nurse.

The family had moved to Bloomfield from their residence of nine years in Union. "We were forced to get out of that apartment when I tried to get the landlord to fix some of the problems in the house," said Porcello.

Convinced that nobody cares about "the problems of the elderly or the handicapped," Porcello called the American system "cruel because it forces some people to live like they're animals."

In an effort to make his case heard, Porcello has written to New Jersey Senators Bill Bradley and Frank Lautenberg as well as to Assemblymen Buddy Fortunato and Stephen Adubato.

He also took his problems to Belleville's Welfare Department. Director Carol Ann Russo said to get a place because so many landlords don't want that in their house.

He also assisting the family is the Essex County Tenants Association in Montclair. President Leigh Ann Zeolino said, "We're doing everything we can do. We're not a placement service, but we can get information and advice."

She commented that Porcello's situation was typical of "the sad situation of tenants in two-family houses who have no rights under the law."

Bill Bertin, a legislative assistant in Assemblyman Adubato's Bloomfield office said, "We've contacted every agency possible through our office. Most of them said nothing could be done, but we're trying. We even try to keep track of news on possible apartments, but there is not much more that can be done."

Porcello said he hopes to remain in the Essex County area, near his wife's job and son's Newark school. Anyone who can help his family may call The Times at 759-3200.
