Vandalism Still Exists Despite Numerous Solutions

By Michelle Jeannotte

Vandalism is not a new subject to Belleville taxpayers. During the course of the year, school property is damaged in some way, whether there are windows broken or buildings written on. When property is damaged, it costs money to repair.

The Board of Education and Township Commission have been battling the problem of vandalism in a number of ways, including the passage of a graffiti ordinance with stricter penalties. However, the problem continues to exist.

Most of the damage done to school property includes broken windows and graffiti. Time after time these broken windows are repaired only to be broken again. Whether the damage is done by residents or outsiders, no one can be sure.

According to Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello, solving this problem is not easy. "Last year it cost $3,500 to repair the graffiti damage done to School 4 (on Magnolia Street)," he said. "That paint soaks right into the brick and is extremely hard to remove. Our maintenance crew had to resal the building after removing the paint."

Although there has been no more damage than there has been in the past, says Nardiello, the type of vandalism recently experienced is "frightening."

What he is referring to was the discovery of a shotgun blast fired through a school bus parked in the board complex lot on Cortlandt Street (the site of School 1).

"Because there is vehicular access to the parking lot, anyone can pass through," he said. "We recently had a $5,000 estimate on an enclosed fence, but that cost is too high."

The fence, which now surrounds the board complex, covers only one-third of the area according to Commissioner Joseph Grande who was at last Monday night's Board of Education meeting. Grande is also the superintendent of grounds and property at the board complex.

Until recently the buses were kept overnight at the Department of Public Works lot also on Cortlandt Street along with the department's equipment. This fence is locked after working hours. However, when the fire occurred there in November, all Board of Education buses were removed. Grande did say, however, when the area is cleared within the next few months, the buses can once again be kept there.

"I've suggested a number of ways to cut down on the vandalism here," said Nardiello. "But the board doesn't want to spend the money unnecessarily if the buses are going to be moved soon."

Nardiello has suggested increased lighting around the board complex lot and even hiring an overnight watchman. However, paying a watchman would be a costly undertaking for only a short period.

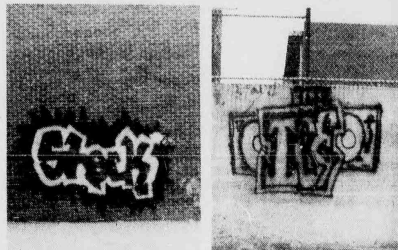

"We've spoken to the police department and they've been very cooperative," said the superintendent. "They've agreed to patrol the area as often as possible, but again, that may take them away from their other responsibilities."

Nardiello said this recent episode of vandalism is more serious because it is life-threatening. "One of the bus drivers could have been in the bus when the shotgun was fired and could have been seriously hurt," he said. "This has now become a threatening situation."

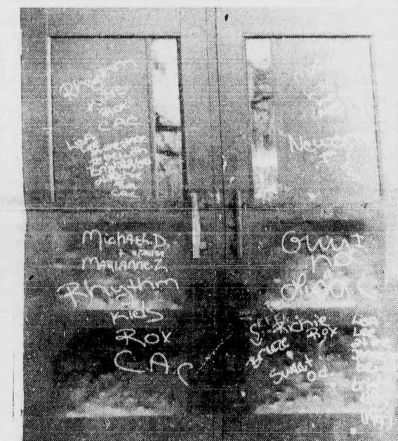

According to the superintendent, the bus drivers are afraid to drop the buses off in the lot late at night. "Because of the winter sports, some of our bus drivers don't get back to the lot until after 11 p.m. After this happened, they became afraid. Wouldn't you?" he said. "This was an overt act against society."

In totaling school property damage this school year, it was estimated that $500 was spent on repairing broken windows of both school buildings and school buses. Damage also included a broken antenna and fire extinguisher spray inside one of the buses.

"Repairing this damage is quite an expenditure," Nardiello said. (Please see "Vandalism" on page 9)

Vandalism Not Yet Wiped Out — Even with the efforts of both the Board of Education and Board of Commissioners to decrease the problem of vandalism, it still exists. Evidence of graffiti is shown on schools throughout the town despite stricter penalties enforced by a recent township ordinance.

Heavy Snow Causes Problems; Closing of Schools Questioned

Last Thursday's snow caused a number of problems for Belleville residents, but at last Monday night's Board of Education meeting, the biggest complaint came from mothers who were confused as to whether school had been closed during the course of the day.

According to Schools Superintendent Michael Nardiello, the decision whether or not to close school is his. "On that particular day I instructed my secretaries to call the schools and tell them to call parents. Parents were given the option of picking up their children any time after 12 p.m. or leaving them in school," he said. "At no time, however, was school declared closed."

Nardiello said there is a system by which he discusses the weather situation with neighboring Bloomfield and Nutley schools superintendents. "If I hear a weather report that predicts snow and there is not enough snow on the ground the night before, I set my alarm for 4:30 a.m. to check further," he said. "If there is snow by morning, I discuss the situation with Mr. Morris and Mr. Fadule. If we feel there is sufficient snow on the ground which may affect the safety of the children, we close the schools.

"I also work closely with our police department," he continued. "On that morning I was told both the state and county were out salting the roads by 4:30 a.m. Even Commissioner (of Public Works) Grande had crews salting the roads early. Traveling would not be a problem in the morning and by the time school was let out the snowfall would have stopped."

According to Nardiello, when the snow began to fall heavier, he made the decision to push the lunch time up to 11 a.m. so that

Library Director Exhibits Work Of Collected 1900s Memorabilia

Until the creation of the Interstate Highway System, Roadside America was the transportation network of two-lane numbered highways, weaving from coast to coast and passing through small town America.

Currently on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library during January are the collected postcards, cars and signs, constructed by David Bryant, Library Director of the Belleville Public Library.

"All are part of that naive, but to me, very rich designed era of 1925-1940," Bryant said. "There were no accumulations of highway 'strips' that now bombard us with bright plastic logos for gas and fast food. The 1925-1940 time period is full of quality construction, wonderful neon, and an optimistic design philosophy that held quaint notions of the future."

"Trying to attract the motorist driving by a diner or tourist cabin at 50 miles per hour called for an imaginative design, clever signage, and a look, that if foolish on close examination, might be just fine when viewed through a windshield at speed," he said. "Roadside America was full of architectural quirks, oddities, and to me, secrets of aesthetics that create unconventional designs, for commercial reasons."

The exhibit can be viewed daily during library hours at the main branch, 221 Washington Ave. For further information, call the library at 759-9200.

Local Century 21 Firm Offers Career Options

The brokers and sales associates from Century 21 Homes R. U.S. Inc., 544 Washington Ave., Belleville, will join thousands of other Century 21 associates throughout the United States as they participate in the first Century 21 Career Opportunity Week, scheduled for Jan. 21-27.

Century 21 offices will conduct special career information sessions designed to explain the financial as well as personal benefits afforded by a career in real estate with special emphasis on the exclusive Century 21 Career Trak training program.

"No other real estate sales organization can offer someone the size, expertise, diversified services, training and opportunity for growth as the Century 21 system — the largest real estate sales network in the world," John A. Gomez, broker of Century 21 Homes R. U.S. Inc., said.

"Whether it's someone contemplating a career in real estate, or someone already in the real estate business, the benefits are substantial. A real estate career is a career to be proud of, and, with our office and the Century 21 system behind you, you know you're working with Number 1 team in the industry."

During Career Opportunity Week, Century 21 Homes R. U.S. Inc. will help people evaluate, or present career positions and outline the unique features a real estate career with the Century 21 system offers them.

"We invite college students, empty nesters, people seeking career changes, retirees, or those who have left the real estate field to contact our office during the Century 21 Career Opportunity Week and ask us about a rewarding career in real estate," Gomez said.

Contact Century 21 Homes R. U.S. Inc. at (201) 751-8800 or visit the office located at 544 Washington Ave., Belleville.

Optimistic Outlook for 1985 Business

By Howard Halpern

What kind of business is in store for us in 1985? After 25 years of steady growth, the economic forecasters seem to be especially confused. Some say growth will continue. Some look for a recession starting in the next few months. Perhaps it's the fact that the federal budget deficit continues to grow, putting pressure on interest rates.

President Reagan rules out tax increases and Congress resists spending cuts. Huge trade deficits and the tremendous strength of the dollar also pinch our economy. The forecasters, economists, and survey analysts are painting a gloomy picture. But they do not actually make the investments or employ workers, or make decisions that create the economy.

The economy is up to the actual businessmen and they are extremely optimistic. For them, 1985 has the look of a very good year, and are prepared to act on their beliefs. This was the opinion of 1700 New Jersey business executives surveyed in the New Jersey Business and Industry Association. The survey respondents have a good track record. The forecasters predicted a recession for 1984, but the Business Outlook Survey said flatly that the year ahead would bring strong growth — and it did.

Can President Reagan fulfill his goals? The first few months of his new term will be more difficult than his first four years in office. He will have to maintain economic growth while avoiding inflation, bring the deficit down without increasing taxes, cut spending programs that have support of powerful interest groups, preserve military buildup in an economical way, create free trade policies to offset huge trade deficits, arrange for arms reduction programs with the Soviets, etc., etc. No matter what, we're in for a very interesting year. Don't be deterred on investments because of possible tax law changes. The government assures investors that the changes would not be retroactive.

With so many apartment buildings going co-op or condo, including right here in Belleville, the apartment renter in this situation has an alternative. Forced to either "buy" the apartment or get out, one should certainly consider buying. The "condo" is a great tax shelter while building up equity. As real estate taxes, "points," and even the annual dues to the owners association.

An even better reason to purchase a condo is to use it as a business by renting it. You will offset your mortgage payments by rental income, deduct monthly maintenance fees and possibly be entitled to a deduction for depreciation. Later you can then purchase a two- or more family home and use your condo as a down payment by second mortgage. Who knows, you might be well on your way to becoming a real estate tycoon. The possibilities are endless.

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce held its first luncheon of the year at Tarantino's Ristorante. A "full house" was in attendance including Mayor Marotti and Commissioner DiRuggiero. Prior to the luncheon, the Chamber mailed ballots to each member to vote for issuing a public statement on the Chamber's position for blight/redevelopment of part of Washington Avenue. The results were made public at the luncheon. The official Belleville Chamber of Commerce position is conclusively clear. Yes, redevelopment should commence forthwith.

Alden Elected Chapter President Of N.J. Patient Representatives

Anthony J. Grasso

Mrs. Barbara Alden, Clara Maass Medical Center Patient Representative, has been elected President of the New Jersey Chapter of the Society of Patient Representatives.

The 50-member organization is a branch of the American Hospital Association and is affiliated with the New Jersey Hospital Association. The Chapter meets quarterly to discuss common concerns, promote patient rights and educate each other on current health care issues.

As the Clara Maass Patient Representative, Mrs. Alden serves as liaison between patients and the Medical Center as a whole, seeking solutions to problems, concerns, and unmet needs. She acts on the patient's behalf recommending policies and procedures to administration in order to improve service to patients.

For many patients, a stay in the hospital is a traumatic experience. "When patients are away from their family and friends, feelings of isolation are not uncommon," Mrs. Alden said. "Their fears are very real and feeling isolated from the 'real world' can be terrifying indeed."

Frequently, just knowing someone whose primary responsibility is to 'listen' and to 'help' makes the patient feel more secure and therefore more comfortable.

Grasso Joins Grand Union

Anthony J. Grasso of Belleville, has joined The Grand Union Company, one of the nation's largest supermarket chains, as State and Local Tax Manager.

In his new position, Grasso supervises a four-person staff at one of the company's financial headquarters in Paramus.

Prior to joining Grand Union, Grasso was Audit Group Supervisor for the Florida Department of Revenue, working at that organization's New Jersey Office in Secaucus. He is a graduate of Adelphi University, Garden City, N.Y.

NSAIDS AND HEART DISEASE

According to a recent study published in a prestigious medical journal, some types of arthritis medication, taken by people with heart disease, can actually worsen the heart condition. The report says that non-steroidal, anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs), which are often used in the treatment of arthritis, can block the body's ability to reduce the heart's work load. NSAIDs interfere with the body's ability to produce prostaglandins. As a result, the body may not be able to decrease the amount of force needed to pump blood through the vessels. This will put strain on the weakened heart. It is important that people with both arthritis and heart disease realize the possible connection between NSAIDs and their heart condition. They should discuss it with their doctors.

Before you take any medication you should discuss it with your doctor. Drugs can affect each person differently and you should be aware of the side effects, as well as the good results. Whenever you need information on a drug talk to our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1928, 759-1956. For Valentine's Day see our selection of cosmetics, toiletries, Timex watches and gift items. Open: 10am-10pm daily, 10am-9pm Sundays.

HANDY HINT:

There is no evidence that NSAIDs can cause heart disease in a person with a healthy cardiovascular system.

Area College Conducts Early Admissions at BHS

Seventeen seniors in Belleville High School can rest a little easier because an area of uncertainty in their lives has been removed. The area of uncertainty was whether or not they would be accepted by a college for next year.

The indecision was removed by Ms. Maria Entzinger-Moreno, a representative from the Office of Admissions, William Paterson College, who conducted on-site admissions interviews at Belleville High School in December. Entzinger-Moreno commented favorably on the high quality of the students from Belleville High School who applied.

William Paterson's on-site admissions program is an innovative approach to the college admissions process, moving the interview to the high school where the students' records and people who work with the students are readily available. The program at Belleville was arranged through the efforts of Entzinger-Moreno and the Belleville High School Guidance Department.

President Reagan

The nation witnessed the inauguration of America's 50th President, Ronald Wilson Reagan. Republicans have asked the nation to give President Reagan another four years; and so this week he started the second four years of his Presidency.

Fact or fiction, the truth of the matter is that the world perceives America's military stronger today than under the administration of former President Jimmy Carter. For whatever the reason — Reagan's showmanship or the size of the Defense Budget, there is a feeling of military strength that pervades throughout this nation. And that is good for America. The spread of Communism into Central America has been blunted by Ronald Reagan. Despite the fact that Reagan has not met with the leadership of Soviet Russia, all the world acknowledges Reagan as a stand-up President — a man who will not roll over and play dead.

From the very inception of his first term, Ronald Reagan served notice to all Americans and the world that he will not be pushed around — witness the action when the Air Traffic Controllers struck. He gave them 48 hours to get back to work or be out of work. They chose to be out of work — believing that President Reagan would eventually back down and make peace with them. Reagan's response is history — he did not back off from his original position — and he won the battle.

So, too, with his dealings with Russia. Ronald Reagan was practically ordered by Russia not to place nuclear arms in Western Europe. He did. The Russians cut off peace with America — but now they are back at the peace table.

For America, the economy is going well. Inflation is in control, and the prime interest rate is coming down. The Gross National Product reached a peak in 1984 — a peak not seen since 1951. There are more good times ahead. Reagan has given us reason to feel good about America — to take pride in America's achievements. He has issued a call for renewed patriotism and faith in the future of our country. Reagan has Americans doing what late President Kennedy urged all of us to do. And that is — ask not what your country can do for you — but what you can do for your country.

America is on the roll — and Reagan is determined that it continue on a roll for the next four years.

May God bless him and keep him in good health as he continues to serve all of us in a job which requires the holder to assume the world's most awesome responsibility — peace on earth and a nation enjoying economic health.

14 K Demagogue

In his first year in office, Assemblyman Steve Aduabato has compiled a demagogic record second to none.

It is quite obvious that Mr. Aduabato will do anything to gain publicity. For instance, this week he appeared before the Verona Township Council to brag about his efforts to solve Verona's water problems. Tuesday, the Ledger quoted Aduabato stating "The Verona water situation looks clearer. I'll continue to speed up the process to have it cleaned up."

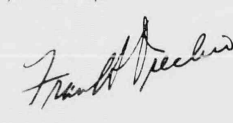

Verona receives its water from the Passaic Valley Water Commission. For the past few months, Verona has experienced a corrosivity problem with its water. The Passaic Valley pipeline that serves Verona also serves as a water take-off for communities before Verona and after Verona.

The communities on either side of Verona have had no water problems. Verona officials, for a time were of their belief that the water problem was due to the lack of adequate treatment by the Passaic Valley Water Commission. As a result of a meeting arranged by someone other than Aduabato, officials of the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, the North Jersey District Water Supply Commission and the Passaic Valley Water Commission met two weeks ago with officials of Verona Township. At that meeting, the Verona Township officials were satisfied that the quality of water delivered to Verona met the high standards established by the State of New Jersey. The internal problem of corrosivity linked to a need for Verona to refine its water distribution system. How Mr. Aduabato intends to cure the internal water problem of the Township of Verona when he states, "I'll speed up the process to have it cleaned up" escapes our imagination. Aduabato further stated that the Verona water problem would be his top priority in 1985 and added that he expected it to be solved by the spring of 1986 — there he goes again — taking credit for somebody else's performance.

It's one thing for a public official to make promises — and have the ability to keep them — it's another thing for public officials to make promises, deliberately misleading the public in an attempt to acquire a couple political brownie points.

Up to this point in his two-year term Mr. Aduabato's lack of candor is becoming his major handicap.

Resident Details Scene Of Police Harassment

To the editor:

Nothing is more embarrassing than being harassed by the Belleville Police. Today I stopped in front of the shoe repair shop on Belleville and Union Avenues to run into the repair shop for one minute.

Upon getting out of my car, I heard a siren. I looked around to see a police car stopped for the light, beckoning me to move my car. I got back into my car and legally parked on Smith Street to find the Police directly behind me.

As I began proceeded to get out of my car, I observed the officer writing out a ticket. Who do these police officers think they are? They ride through town thinking they are better than everyone. When needed in an emergency they are no where to be found. Why? Because they are busy harassing citizens like myself, all they know is how to give out tickets and pull people over for things that they have done themselves in police cars.

I have seen them stopped for a traffic light then all of a sudden sound the siren, proceed through the light and after going through the light, shut the siren off. Yet if someone else did this try to go through a light or something similar, they would get ticketed. Half the time when you call them for an emergency they don't respond at all or if they do they respond 15 to 20 minutes later.

I hope the Chief of Police is reading this and can remedy this situation, as someone will not put up with there abuse. We pay their salary by all the tickets they write. You would think they would treat the people of Belleville with respect.

Sincerely,
Donald J. Phillips

Resident Passes on Idea To Find Missing Children

To the editor:

Last year, at the end of the broadcast (and later re-broadcast) of the television movie "Adam," photographs of missing children were flashed on screen for a period of no more than 10 seconds, yet several of the children shown were recovered within a week of the movie's airing.

A dairy company in Chicago has come up with a unique idea to help find lost children by printing two photographs of youngsters on each carton they sell, along with a pertinent information on them to aid in their return.

Maybe if the local dairy and retail companies were asked to cooperate with this idea, we would see more of these children returned to their families.

The addresses of the largest dairies are as follows: Tuscan Dairy Farms Inc., 750 Union Avenue, Union, N.J. 07083; Pathmark (Supermarkets General Corp.), 301 Blair Road, Woodbridge, N.J. 07095; and Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., 2 Paragon Drive, Montvale, N.J. 07645.

Sincerely,
Donald Moran
Hornblower Avenue

Public Affairs Commissioner Thanks Organizations for Holiday Donations

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to wish an abundance of blessings to A.V.R.P., Kiwanis Club, Salvation Army, Browne Inn 37, Senior Citizens Clubs of Belleville and Essex County, St. Peter's Church, American Legion Post 299, Commissioner Joseph A. Grande, Wesley Methodist Church, Italian Forensic Society, Sherman's and other concerned Belleville citizens for their tremendous gifts, cash and toys to our department to share with those less fortunate than others. These many gifts donated toys for distribution and their desire to share with others are indeed gratifying.

It is known that we cry out against the world that divides us into the haves and have-nots, the rich and the poor, the privileged and the underprivileged. However, we must always remember that God is with us and our hearts must always be filled with hope for the future.

Christmas should be very special to all of us; that's why God, at Christmas, gave us his eternal love. May the Good Lord keep you all in good health in the years ahead.

Sincerely,
Michael P. Pizzi

Diminished Lack of Respect Results from 'Me' Attitude

To the editor:

My subject, that which is tearing America and the world apart today, hate and deception and misconception, should be replaced with love and understanding. A God given prescription to a safe and sane world.

Greedy desire, through the me attitude is bolstering this modern society, a society lacking in respect of family and friends.

Truly a sorry state of affairs when the news media of great nations of the world sponsor violence and deceit. Such untruths and misconceptions, can only bring on a crises, which may cause the elimination of the human population.

To the press of all nations, let truth be the word of the day. God given, with love and understanding, truly the prescription for tomorrow — if there is to be one.

Sincerely,
Philip W. Bell

OBC Interview Approaching

(The following letter was sent to Bill Gruver, news director of OBC-TV Channel 36 from the Passaic County Elks Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center.)

Dear Mr. Gruver,

Thank you for your assistance in notifying the public of available services to young handicapped children through your interview on Dec. 20, 1984.

Your interview has given us the opportunity to alert the public to our free services and possibly help a child in need.

Thank you again for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Julianne Kusz,
Case Manager
Early Intervention Program

To the editor:
I wish to publicly thank the Belleville Fire Department, as well as the efficient and courteous members of the ambulance squad, who provided prompt transportation for my wife Carol's trips to and from the hospital.

Sincerely,
Wilfred Yudin

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

After the regular mailman on Belleville carrier route 75 retired almost two years ago, the patrons of this route suffered the worst delivery service imaginable, finally we got a man who really believes carrying the mail is a fine joy.

Now we learn that the Newark Main Post Office will decentralize mail carrier operations from the Belleville Annex facility located at 245 Main St. and will be relocated at the 413 Washington Ave., Post Office building which began Jan. 12.

With the move, relay boxes are being placed alongside regular mail boxes at various locations and will be painted green. They are used by the letter carrier to hold mail for pickup upon reaching that point of the route. Belleville will receive 85 of those boxes to accommodate the 28 returning routes.

Now the patrons on this carrier route have their fingers crossed hoping they don't lose the good mailman they have. Why do they do this to people?

In response to our correspondence with U.S. Senator Bob Packwood apropos to the telephone access charge he writes, "I understand your concern over the access charge which the Federal Communication Commission (FCC) wants to place on local customers."

"For decades, long distance telephone rates have subsidized local rates to keep them below cost and affordable. The FCC now wants to reduce the burden on long distance rates and ask local customers to pick up more of what it actually costs for them to use the local network."

"There is clearly a lot of confusion about this whole issue. I want you to know I believe in a fair method of paying for service, and I will do everything I can to make sure every customer only pays their fair share."

Senator Packwood presents a rational evaluation of situation brought about by the determination of the Reagan Administration to support corporate interests at the expense of the little guy... now being called upon to pay $2 a month more on the phone bill for something that isn't used... so that big corporations can make more money by getting cheaper phone rates that the individual "little guy" pays for. It stinks. If enough people "raised hell" against this imposition it could be beaten... write your congress representatives telling them to stop the FCC ruling on the access charge... Congress can do that.

Fifty years ago the state passed strong traffic laws that eliminated local speed traps by taking away from municipalities the power to establish speed limits and put traffic lights and signs. During the last few years three state laws were passing chipping away this protection.

The retrogression back to the bad old days started when Gov. Thomas Kean signed a bill increasing the minimum traffic fine to $50 and letting local governments keep half the fine. Later a second law gave municipal officials the power to set speed limits and install traffic signs on any street that did not cross into a neighboring town without prior state approval.

Now, without much comment, we have another law giving municipalities authority to put up a traffic signal within 300 feet of a school without advance state approval. The bill provides that before the light can be put up, the local engineer has to certify that it is needed, it conforms to state standards and it was installed in the interests of safety.

All this small town control being handed back to local governments to regulate traffic brings back memories of those horrible days back when the motorcycle cop hiding behind billboards, working with his friendly companion the local magistrate, patrolled the highways of the state looking for speeders and other motor vehicle lawbreakers in pursuit of justice, truth and a few bucks for the town.

Township's Democratic Club Swears in New 1985 Officers

The Belleville Democratic Club marked the beginning of its new year with a swearing-in ceremony of the 1985 club officers last Wednesday evening.

Joel Pisano, Esq., administered the oath of office to the following individuals: President Marie Gammaro; Vice President Ralph DiRuggiero; Legislative Vice President Christine Molinaro; Treasurer Joseph Alricio; Recording Secretary Marie Prosperi; Corresponding Secretary Marlene Neil; Sergeant-At-Arms Tony Natural; Trustees Ed DeFeo, Ruth Zeimer and George Mitchell; and Honorary Trustees Chester Prosperi and Mayor Michael V. Marotti.

After taking her oath of office, President Marie Gammaro pledged to continue the fine work of outgoing President Chester Prosperi. She also expressed her desire to enhance the vitality of the political organization by increasing its membership as well as its involvement in political matters.

All those interested in becoming a member of the Belleville Democratic Club are cordially invited to attend the next meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 13, 8 p.m. at the Marotti Field House on Montgomery Place. For further information, please contact Marlene Neil at 450-0425.

'Ghosts' Provides a View Of Struggles with the Past

The Whole Theatre continues its 1984-85 season with the unveiling of an innovative production of "Ghosts." Henrik Ibsen's classic portrayal of a woman's struggle to preserve her family and to come to terms with the "ghosts" of past beliefs and prejudices. Previews are January 15-17. The play which opened last Friday, runs through Feb. 10.

"Ghosts" is Ibsen's most effective presentation of what will happen to us if we fail to face ourselves soon enough," stated the play's director, Austin Pendleton. "He shows us, through the tragedy of these characters what happens when we deny the truth about ourselves and the situations in which we find ourselves."

Olympia Dukakis portrays Mrs. Helene Alving, a kind woman of principle who has lived her life as "duty" would dictate. Dukakis is a founding member and the artistic director of the Whole Theatre. Her many roles here include the title role in "Mother Courage," Hecuba in "The Trojan Women," Lyuba in "The Cherry Orchard," Nora in "A Touch of the Poet" and Madame Arcati in "Blithe Spirit" last season.

Dukakis has appeared in many productions on Broadway, Off-Broadway, at the New York Shakespeare Festival, American Place Theatre and in regional theatres across the country. The recipient of an Obie and a Theatre World Award, she will soon be seen in the film, "Flanagan" with Geraldine Page.

Scott Burkholder plays Oswald, Mrs. Alving's artist son who is haunted by the "ghosts" of both his past and that of his parents. Burkholder was seen on Broadway in "The Pirates of Penzance," "Eminent Domain" and "Caine Mutiny Court Marshall" at the Circle-in-the-Square.

Louis Zorich is Pastor Manders, the ever-good, duty-bound minister. A founding member of the Whole Theatre, Mr. Zorich returns to Montclair from his starring engagement with Dustin Hoffman in the critically acclaimed Broadway production of "Death of a Salesman." Zorich also appeared in "Becket" with Lawrence Olivier and Anthony Quinn. He worked extensively in regional theatres, including the Whole Theatre. His film credits include "The Muppets Take Manhattan," "For Pete's Sake" and "Fiddler on the Roof." He will soon be seen in the movie, "Flanagan."

Lucinda Jenney portrays Regina, who is in service to Mrs. Alving and loved by Oswald. Jenney made her Broadway debut as Judith in "Gemini." She has been seen in many Off-Broadway productions, and has appeared at regional theatres such as the Long Wharf, Arena Stage and the Williamstown Theatre. Her many television credits include "All My Children" and "As The World Turns." She will be seen this spring with Judd Hirsch in the CBS movie-of-the-week, "First Steps."

Apollo Dukakis plays Engstrand, Regina's father. Dukakis is a founding member and the Associate Artistic Director of the Whole Theatre. He was nominated by the New Jersey Drama Critics as Best Actor for such portrayals as Victor in "The Price" and Harry in "Lus" at the George Street Playhouse.

Director Pendleton has directed "The Cherry Orchard" and "Angel Street" for the Whole Theatre, and appeared in the title role in the theatre's production of "Uncle Vanya." He is an Associate Director at the Williamstown Theatre Festival where he most recently directed Tennessee Williams' "Vieux Cattle" with Richard Thomas and Marsha Mason. In New York he directed "The Little Foxes" with Elizabeth Taylor, and "Mass Appeal" with E. G. Marshall and Scotti Burkholder. He has received a Tony nomination and two of Chicago's "Jelf" nominations as a director. His acting appearances include "Fiddler on the Roof" on Broadway, the movie "What's Up Doc?" and television's "St. Elsewhere."

Tickets range from $16-$21, with a student and senior discount rate of $13 Tuesday evenings and matinees. Student rush is $7. For ticket information or to charge tickets, call the box office at 744-2899.

Holy Family Church Setting For Zinni-Paolino Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged in Holy Family Church by Valerie Ann Paolino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Paolino of Nutley and Nicholas Zinni, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zinni of Newark.

The Rev. Francis Blake performed the Sept. 8 ceremony which was followed by a reception at The Cameo, Garfield.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown featuring a bodice of illusion and a moon lace accented in beading and sequins, puffed taffeta and lace sleeves, taffeta skirt with lace hemline and cathedral train. A half wreath of white silk flowers and beads held her veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, an orchid, stephanotis and babies breath.

Andrea Michele Paolino of Nutley was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Anna Manetta of Nutley, Christine Zinni of Cliffwood Beach, niece of the groom, Maria Carroll of Virginia and Jill Keziazos of Belleville.

The honor attendant was in a corsage taffeta gown with matching hat and carried a slight cascade of lavender roses, white poms and babies breath. The bridesmaids were attired in lilac taffeta gowns with matching hats and carried one pink rumrum lily, mini-carnations, white poms and babies breath.

Anthony P. Zinni Jr. of Cliffwood Beach was his brother's best man. Ushers included the bride's brother, George Michael Paolino of Nutley, Timothy Meitzler of Belleville and Charles and Frank Molinaro of Newark.

Mrs. Paolino chose a pink chiffon and satin gown and wore a wristlet of pink miniature roses.

Mrs. Zinni, an alumna of Nutley High School and The Berkeley School, is a legal secretary for a senior partner in the firm of Walder, Sondak, Berkeley & Brogan, P.A., Roseland.

Mr. Zinni attended Bloomfield Vocational and Technical School and is fleet manager of Auto Exchange, Sayreville.

The couple honeymooned in Hawaii and have made their home in Sayreville.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Zinni — nee Valerie Paolino

HEALTH WISE

Vertebral subluxations... misalignment of one or more vertebrae with their neighbors... result in pinched nerves. The nerves are pinched when the misalignment closes off the openings between the vertebrae where nerves exit from the spinal column to reach every part of the body.

A pinched nerve is unable to carry its full supply of nerve energy to muscles or organs, which cannot function normally without nerve control. Pain and/or disease is the result.

Chiropractic provides a sensible, drugless way to better health through the correction of vertebral misalignments.

Dear Umberto,

Lastly my mother has been persuing too much on her head. I have been searching for a shampoo designed for persuing heads. I couldn't find any that work and control the scalp perspiration. It is so unbearable that she perspires a lot on her head and not that much on her head. Better yet, choose a color coat to her natural shade and color. You'll see that the method will diminish the perspiration on the scalp. The reason for color is to dye the pores.

Yours,
Umberto

DENTALLY SPEAKING
By Drs. James D. Muglia
and Paul N. De Maio

Mr. J. of Belleville writes: "Once a tooth is crowned can it still get decayed?"
As you know Mr. J. a crown covers 360 degrees of a tooth and often goes under the gums. In those cases if your dental hygiene is good and you keep your gums healthy the possibility of decay under your crown is very small. If your crown ends above your gums again your tooth will not be decayed if your hygiene and diet is good.

So Mr. J. once a tooth is crowned it's very well protected but if that tooth is neglected it can become subject to the same problem as an uncrowned tooth.
Keep up good daily hygiene and you'll be fine. Thank you.

Social Studies Lesson Combines Research

In the public's ears these days, when one hears the word "research," the first image created in one's mind is that of a laboratory and an effort to mix chemicals or science materials together in the form of an experiment to get the proper mix and find an answer.

In social studies, research is not so very different. The work areas and ingredients are not the same, but the student seeks an answer after carefully gathering and piecing together proper elements or part of a social studies puzzle.

In the social studies curriculum of today, the teacher, the textbook and the curriculum guide present the student with research problems. Each course at the high school requires the student to find answers to problems using social studies methods of research. Indeed, some skills learned in earlier grades are again brought forward and applied. Staff teachers in the social studies conduct how to do and where to look lessons to gain the best efforts of their pupils.

Many hours may be spent reminding and teaching students how to present their thoughts in an orderly and proper manner. Knowing how to write is important, but equally important is the where to find and how to use procedures. In most cases, the social studies teacher will take the class to the library soon after the assignment for research is given. Working with students, who need extra help and assisting others with ideas of where to find and what to look for, the teacher guides each student down the proper path toward success in the project.

Later on, after most of the information has been properly located, a social studies teacher will take class time to review and illustrate what are the writing mechanics of research. These are consistent with the English Department's guide.

As one can tell, the research assignment is usually long range one. It is also given an important grade equal to a major test grade. The skills of research challenges each student to be creative in thought and composition. These skills are wholeheartedly recommended as proper by all educators.

Here are a few suggestions for parents: 1) be as supportive of your children as you can be. A parent's suggestion can easily solve some questions of each student; 2) read what your children have written, checking what was required of them; 3) drive them to the public library when they need it and; 4) insist on them doing their very best for the research.

Remember, the ideas we as humans have need to be expressed and the problems presented by the assigned research project will expose each child to satisfying their needs.

Advanced Italian Students Eligible for College Exams

November was a month of hard work for the high school Foreign Language Department. It was characterized by grade make-ups and special help given to individual students in need of improvement. Nevertheless, there were two pleasant interruptions—the teachers' convention and the Thanksgiving holiday.

One of our teachers, Miss Francine Kirsh, attended the Atlantic City Convention and returned with some interesting material on curriculum and foreign languages in the grammar schools.

Mr. Frattaroli has been researching for standardized testing for the department, and thanks to the help of Mr. Philip Esposito, guidance counselor, it has been possible to get the College Board exams for our advanced level of Italian. The test of the exam was ordered from Princeton and it will be administered this month. Great merit for the research and finding of the test goes to Mr. Jules Palmieri and his Italian Club.

In effect, it was the Italian Club members who wrote to Princeton requesting that such test be made available to Italian students. After a favorable answer from Princeton, different tests were taken for the acquisition and administration of the College Board exam.

Distinguished Scholars — Donna Musmanno (left) and Rose Ann O'Kean, seniors at Belleville High School, have been selected to one of New Jersey's first class of Distinguished Scholars. The Distinguished Scholars Program provides for a $1,000 annual scholarship award for a period of four years of undergraduate study at a New Jersey college or university. The Distinguished Scholars awards are offered to less than 2 percent of the New Jersey seniors. The purpose of the Garden State Distinguished Scholars Program is to recognize New Jersey students for their secondary school academic performance.

School Page English Department Stresses Writing Skills

The Belleville High School English Department, under the supervision of Leonard Marciano, is stressing writing skills through a number of techniques.

Marciano and Sandra Gottheimer, English teacher, have attended several writing workshops and are using acquired techniques, especially the "process" method in the classroom.

Teachers have access to a minimum exposure guide, a traditional guide, and a newly developed writing skills array and use a number of media sources and magazines to motivate students to write.

A number of writing books, including Warriner's, are used to guide teachers with their program. In fact, Warriner's textbooks are used throughout grades seven to 12 to help teachers with the articulation of the writing program.

Teachers are following a standardized method of writing mechanics especially for longer themes, special reports, career papers, etc. In fact, a standardized writing mechanics booklet was introduced to the supervisors to utilize throughout all disciplines.

The main idea of the writing program is to encourage students to write, whether it is homework, book reports, tests, special reports, poetry, short stories, etc. Throughout the program, teachers will emphasize the "process" approach to writing and develop their students' cognitive and creative ability.

Sharing His Talents — Joe Attanasil of Sebastian, Inc., recently spoke to the cosmetology classes at the high school about the latest methods of color highlighting.

Professional Speakers Visit Cosmetology Classes

The Cosmetology Department at Belleville High School is constantly keeping the most innovative trends in the world of beauty and fashion in its course of study. Just one example of this is the presentation of the latest hair-coloring techniques and skin care and makeup artistry by one of the industry's most popular companies, Sebastian, Inc. of Fairlawn.

During the month of November, the cosmetology classes were fortunate to receive first-hand information and instructions from Joe Attanasil of Sebastian on the latest methods of adding "clear" color highlights along with conditioning treatments to alleviate hair problems and highlight the hair—sometimes in one step. Many high-fashion colors and techniques were demonstrated.

The students were able to learn and apply these techniques under the skillful supervision of the highly trained professionals.

Makeup and skin care were also a highlight of the month and the students were especially delighted with the "make-overs" and skin care techniques which were demonstrated by Suzanne Page also of Sebastian, Inc.

Sebastian, Inc. is a 10-year-old company, which re-educates its staff and brings experience and learning to our school to help keep the cosmetology program as one of the finest and most updated programs available in Vocational Education.

BHS Work Program Prepares Students

The Cooperative Office Education Program at Belleville High School is designed to bridge the gap between the termination of the student's secondary school experience and the beginning of a useful career for her or him in the business community.

The actual business environment is a most desirable facility in which to expose and train high school students in a field of specialized vocational choice within the comprehensive secondary school system. The business environment not only provides vocational-technical training needed for successful job achievement but also invaluable exposure to a working situation which gives impetus to the positive development of mature attitudes and those disciplined work habits commanded by the world of business.

At the present time there are 15 students in the Cooperative Office Education Program at the high school under the supervision of Mrs. Barbara Klotz who supervises on-the-job training at work and teaches the related instruction in school.

Following are the students and places of employment for the 1984-85 school year: Theresa Baglione, D A & D Sales; Andrea Carr, Automatic Data Processing; Doreen Garajo, Corporate Licensing Department, Hoffmann-La Roche; Lorraine Leming, Employee Sales, Hoffmann-La Roche; Susan Mundy, Peoples Bank; Sue Narciso, Travel Department, Hoffmann-La Roche; Karen Odorizzi, Garage Services, Hoffmann-La Roche; Renetta Omar, Immunopharmacology Department, Hoffmann-La Roche; Lisa Pena, Automatic Data Processing; Michele Petrillo, Yerg, Inc.; Christine Quick, Lloyd Engineering Co.; Diana Rodriguez, Commercial Data Processing; Maria Roig, Clinical Pharmacology Department, Hoffmann-La Roche; Susan Romeo, Human Resource Planning Department, Hoffmann-La Roche; and Karen Yulis, Patent Law Department, Hoffmann-La Roche.

Health Teacher Attends Teenage Suicide Program

Ray Iannuzzi, a Health Education teacher in Belleville High School, attended a workshop on adolescent suicide at the James Fallon Institute, in Wayne, in November.

The main theme of this seminar was to help people who are involved with teenagers identify the warning signals of suicide contemplation. This is currently a serious problem and statistics show that it is the second leading cause of teenage deaths.

Some of the main signals people should be aware of are giving away prized possessions, talking about death constantly, involvement with drugs, taking unnecessary risks, and telling others they won't be around much longer. Over 90 percent of these people who attempt to commit suicides give some of these warnings. In their way, they are crying out for help. They are hoping someone will recognize this dire need and help them.

Snow Causes Problems For Township Parents

the children could have a hot meal before going outside. "One directive was sent from this office and that was that parents had the option to take their children out of school," he said. The school buildings were to remain open until closing.

Trustee member Ernest Zoppi reinforced Nardiello's message that even if parents have the option of picking their children up, it doesn't mean school is closed.

What seemed to cause the confusion was when the message reached the schools. Different schools gave parents different messages and caused parents to wonder if their children would be sent out in the snow.

What also angered parents was that even though they were told the buses would be on schedule, they arrived early leaving children to enter homes with parents being there.

Nardiello explained that the buses are used for both the middle and the high school and that if they didn't pick up the children early, they would never make their second run in time.

"One directive was given from this office," said Board President Grace Purdue. "There couldn't have been five different directives. I'm sure Mr. Nardiello made the decision with the children's interest at heart. There was no consistency in our school buildings and that is what caused the confusion. I don't think you'll see this happen again."

According to Nardiello, all schools have a phone chain in such a case of emergency with the exception of the high school. "They say with the number of students they have, this system would be impossible," he said.

To alleviate the situation, Nardiello along with a committee, has devised a temperature guide which he intends to follow. "This is not a policy," said Nardiello. "Policies are unbending whereas policies are more flexible to given situations."

According to the guide, which covers both hot and cold weather, "should the temperature within a school building, because of a malfunctioning furnace, drop enough to threaten the physical well being of our children the superintendent of schools will consider early dismissal or reassignment of said students. Every attempt will be made, by the principal, to contact the parents of the students who are dismissed or reassigned to another building."

"In the future, if we are subjected to inclement weather, all schools will be closed or if schools are kept open, they will remain open and no children will be dismissed unless their parents request permission to take them home. Bus schedules, of necessity, will run late."

Vandalism Continues To Strike Township

said. "It costs approximately $30-$40 each time one window is broken."

All schools, with the exception of School 10, have had old windows replaced. New windows have been coated with a special sealer and are even more costly to repair.

What the superintendent can't understand is why haven't the vandals been caught? "Most of the graffiti at the schools had to have been done during the day," he said. "The work is so detailed it couldn't have been done at night. There is even some graffiti near the second floor of School 4. The only way it could have gotten there is if they had a ladder. You mean to tell me no one saw this?"

"Especially now with the graffiti ordinance that was just passed by the Board of Commissioners, these vandals will be held accountable for their actions," he said. "I totally support this ordinance and hope residents keep a watchful eye."

Cherry Blossoms in Winter? — Yes, there were some cherry blossoms growing in Branch Brook Park just before the snow fell. This picture was taken by Mrs. Ciccone of Belleville in late December.

M. Tonges Appointed Nursing Administrator

Mary Crabtree Tonges has been named Vice President of Nursing at Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville. The Montclair resident had held the position of Director of Nursing since 1983.

Tonges received her B.S.N. degree from the University of Iowa and her M.S.N. degree from the University of Illinois. She is certified in Nursing Administration by the American Nurses Association.

Tonges, who grew up in Dixon, Ill., began her nursing career at Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago where she was a staff nurse, head nurse and nursing supervisor. She also served as Assistant Director of Nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital in Chicago, and later served as Director of Nursing at Northwestern Memorial Hospital.

The new vice president has held academic appointments at Northwestern University as clinical instructor in nursing education and at the University of Illinois College of Nursing as an instructor in nursing administration.

She has been published in several journals, including the Journal of Nursing Administration and Nursing Administration Quarterly. One article dealt with cost-benefit analysis applied to patient education, a concept familiar to business and industry but used less often to evaluate professional clinical programs in non-profit organizations.

Tonges is a member of the American Organization of Nurse Executives, the New Jersey Society for Nursing Administration, and Sigma Theta Tau Nursing Honor Society.

Bucs Finish Second In Elizabeth Tourney

By Joe Pigaro

Belleville's undefeated matmen continued their drive to the District 7 title by placing second in the inaugural Elizabeth Minuteman Classic last Saturday. The Buccaneers were ahead by a scant one-and-a-half points going into the heavyweight finals, but North Bergen's Joe Falato ended the suspense by pinning Neptune's Eric Gamble in 2:51 of the second period.

North Bergen's Bruins won the event with 121.5 points. Belleville's Bucs were second with 117 points followed by Neptune (91 points), JP Stevens (79.5 points), Long Branch and Elizabeth (61 points), and Lakewood (54.5 points).

Dom Cerreto attained a permanent spot in the BHS Hall of Fame as he recorded his 69th career victory in the semifinals, a third period fall over Bobby Busto of Lakewood. He is now the all-time leader in Belleville wrestling history with a 69-19 slate, passing Chris Musmanno's record of 68-8.

The glory of that victory faded quickly however, as Cerreto was beaten in overtime 3-2 by Long Branch's Joe DiBiase for the 115-pound championship.

Leading 5-3 with less than half a minute remaining in regulation time, Cerreto gave up two back points on a tilt by DiBiase. Questionable at best, the call sent the match into overtime tied at 5-5.

In the extra period, four of the five points scored were penalty assessments awarded by the referee. The most damaging was a roughing penalty assigned Cerreto for an illegal slam, giving a point to DiBiase and the match.

On the brighter side, Vince Caprigione returned to the mats for the first time this year and walked away with the first place trophy at 135 pounds. Wrestling with poise and surprising efficiency, Caprigione beat the first, second and fourth seeds to notch his initial three wins of the season. While he was at 135 pounds for the tournament, Caprigione will probably get down to 129 and remain in that slot for the remainder of the season.

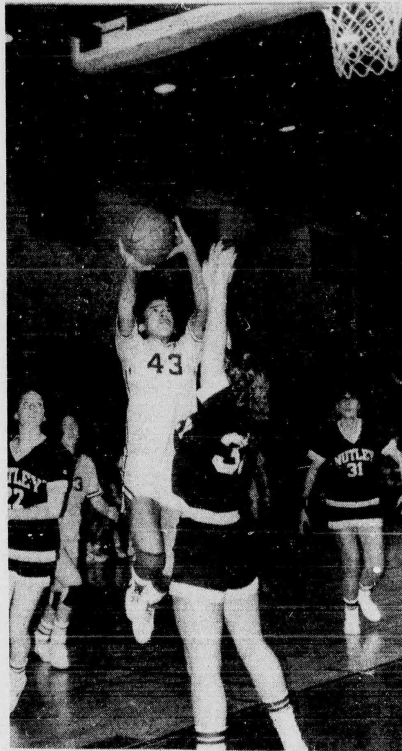

As usual, Mike Gibbons was the favorite at 188 pounds, and as usual, he did his job with a flair. Seeded first, "Iron Mike" drew a bye in the first round, he then proceeded to give a clinic on takedowns and pinning combinations as he ran up enormous leads before pinning his two foes and winning his third tournament title of the year.

Gibbons is now the only Buc grappler with a perfect record, currently 13-0.

The Bucs' third champion, Joe Cerreto, also drew a bye in the first round before pinning his foe from JP Stevens High School in the semis.

In the finals, Cerreto built up an early lead, then held on for an 8-6 decision over Hector Marino.

(Please see "Bucs" on page 13)

To the Hoop — Donna Brooks is unstoppable here, driving to the basket for two of her team high 15 points. The senior leads the Buccaneers in scoring this season with a 10.3 average.

Party Honors Local Team As Softball Champions

The D & M Printing softball team of Belleville, 1984 World Series Champions of the James Dombrowski Softball League, will be honored at a party Saturday, Feb. 2, 8 p.m. at the Kearny Eagles Hall, 164 Midland Ave., Kearny.

Trophies will be awarded to Billy Gallagher, World Series MVP, Joey Mustacchio, Lugie Chimento, Bobby Brave, Joe Koehler, Pete Haverick, Jeff

Jimenez and Mike SanGiacoma, all of Belleville, and Jimmy DeAngelis of Nutley who was selected 1984 season MVP.

The party will be held in conjunction with the league's annual organization meeting.

The party, which includes free admission, free beer, and a live band and D.J., is open to the public. For more information on the party or about joining the league, call James at 997-2689.

Record Falls to 5-6

Girls' Varsity Team Loses to Nutley, 50-54

They came to Nutley with a 5-4 record, a three-game winning streak and thoughts of defeating a team with a 9-3 record. With a foul shot here, a jump shot there and maybe one less errant pass, the Belleville girls' basketball team would have left Nutley with a 6-4 record and thoughts of how nice it is to defeat a strong Nutley team. Unfortunately for Karen Fuccello and company, the end results were a bitter loss in overtime and a flat setback to Paterson Kennedy two days later that lowered the team mark to 5-6.

Belleville looked to get back on the winning track when the team traveled to Paramus on Tuesday. This evening, the Bucs will be in Clifton for a 7:30 p.m. tip. Tomorrow evening, the opponent is Bloomfield, at 8 p.m. from Bloomfield High. Next Tuesday, the team will come home to battle Eastside, starting at 4 p.m.

"We played a good game against Nutley," said Fuccello, "and could have won the game. We had a poor third quarter and missed 17 foul shots on the day. We were pretty close to winning that game nonetheless."

Belleville started quickly, taking a 17-11 lead after one quarter. Nutley came back to cut the deficit to three points (28-25) at intermission. However, the third quarter was disastrous for Belleville as Nutley outscored the locals, 12-4 and assumed a 37-32 lead entering the final frame.

Belleville could have given up in the fourth quarter, but the Buccaneers' ride was back intact as the girls outscored Nutley by five points (16-11) and forced overtime. It was in the extra session that Nutley took advantage of its opportunities and Belleville was dealt a difficult four-point defeat.

Sophomore Angel Greco played her best game of the season, scoring 14 points. Senior Donna Brooks led the Belleville scoring attack with 15 points. Cheryl Marion had eight points, as did Desiree Johansen. Sheri Phelps finished with three points and Sherri Sorrentino closed with a field goal for two points.

Two days later, Belleville went to Paterson to face Kennedy and played a less than spectacular contest. "We were flat in that game," Fuccello said. "We couldn't practice the day before the game because of the snow and we went in flat. Our shooting was poor and we fell behind early."

After trailing by just one (10-9) after the first quarter, Belleville was outscored 12-2 in the second frame and trailed, 22-11 at intermission.

Kennedy kept the pressure on in the third quarter, outscoring the Bucs two points and then held on as Belleville staged a small rally in the final frame. Kennedy won the game, 44-36 as Carmella Crawford scored 30 points and broke the 1,000 point mark in her career. Marion led the way for Belleville with eight points. Phelps had six, Brooks and Greco finished with five, Johansen scored six, Sorrentino finished with four and Laura Caruso scored two.

Thus, the week ended in less than convincing manner. In one game, Belleville played an excellent contest against a good team and lost in overtime. In another, the girls were less than effective against a team they could have beaten. Hopefully, better times are coming for the girls hoopers. Maybe this week will be the time.

NJIT Coach Scores 100th

Jim Catalano, formerly of Belleville and head basketball coach at New Jersey Institute of Technology, recently registered his 100th coaching victory when NJIT defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 77-59.

Catalano entered the 1984-85 season as New Jersey's top active coach in NCAA Division 3. In the nation, he was ranked ninth with a 92-37 record for a .710 winning percentage. As NJIT won eight of its first games this season, his record improved to 100-39.

Girls' Basketball Squad Faces Bright Future

The clock ticked slowly and painfully that evening in March 1984. Five, four, three, two...the buzzer sounded and an era had come to an end. When the Plainfield girls' basketball team stopped the Belleville girls, it marked not only a loss, but the final game in the lucrative careers of Jennifer Apicella, Dina De Aquino, Loreli Wells and Tracy Buono.

As I traveled home that evening, in what seemed to be a never ending bus trip, I wondered what the future of the Belleville girls' basketball team would be like. Certainly, there was no quit in its head coach, Karen Fuccello, because she had posted winning records at BHS before the emergence of Apicella and De Aquino. It just seemed odd that next November, Jennifer wouldn't be on that court, shooting her foul shots in that smooth manner, or going coast to coast on a patented layup.

Now, 10 months and an eternity later, the Belleville girls' basketball team is alive and well, with a bright future in store. While the team does not have the offensive explosion it possessed a year ago, Fuccello isn't crying the blues and remembering the past.

"There were some great times back then," the coach said. "But now is the time and I'm very happy with this team's progress thus far."

It had started slowly this season. The girls were 0-3 before victory number one came against Becton in the consolation game of the team's holiday tournament. After a victory over Montclair and a loss to Immaculate Heart, the girls posted consecutive wins against Clifton, Passaic and Wayne Valley, then played a whale of a ball game against an excellent Nutley squad before losing by four in overtime. Only a mediocre effort against Kennedy last Thursday has put a damper on a very impressive month of January for Fuccello's troops.

"As a team, we do many things than past teams that I've coached," Fuccello said. "This team picks things up very quickly. We make a lot more adjustments on defense that I wasn't able to do in the past. They comprehend the changes that are being made and adjust very well."

The girls went into this week with a 5-6 record and needed to win two of the next three games to assure a berth in the state tournament in March. "We show signs of executing well, but we still have work to do in that department," said Fuccello. "We also need someone to take that shot without hesitation. Our foul shooting has been poor this season, which is something that should be automatic. Those shots are girls and we have to take advantage of those. Concentration, that is the only thing that can make you a better foul shooter."

In the past, Apicella was good for 35 points a game, taking that jump shot that just seemed like magic when a rim with a net was close by. Jenny took control of a game single-handedly. She craved for the final minutes of a close game where she could get the ball and hit that crucial jumper, or take that big foul shot. Even as a freshman, Apicella had a natural feel for the game of basketball. Her entire life seemed to revolve around the game and it certainly showed on the court.

A player of that calibre does not come along often. Maybe once in a lifetime. But the group of athletes that currently calls itself the Belleville girls' basketball team is gaining success and confidence by playing as a team and doing all the little things that are necessary to win.

Senior Donna Brooks, the final "link" to that 1983-84 squad that finished 22-7, does a marvelous job in the pivot. She is the team's top scorer with over 10 points a game and her rebounding ability is vital to the team's success.

Another senior, Cheryl Marion, has come on strong after a slow start and has impressed Fuccello with her leadership ability and all out hustle.

Junior Desiree Johansen is also picking up after a slow December. "Desiree has to play a tenacious four quarters of basketball," said Fuccello. "She can't lose her concentration and has to learn to play both ends of the floor consistently."

Johansen has added a good scoring touch and could be even better offensively if she would take the jump shot when presented the opportunity. Experience should help her to improve on the offense.

Another junior, Sheri Phelps, has been a solid defensive player for Fuccello. "In a way, she is like Loreli (Wells) who was the girl's fine defensive player of a year ago. I usually assign Sheri to our opponent's best offensive player. She does a solid job on defense in every game."

Junior Sherri Sorrentino is not just good coming off the bench. According to her coach, she is "great coming off the bench. She gives us so much, both on the offense and defense. Sherri is doing a fine job for us."

In the Nutley defeat last week, sophomore Angel Greco scored a career high 14 points. More good things will be heard from this guard before her days at BHS are over. "She has been playing excellent basketball over the last five games," Fuccello said. "She is coming around and can really help us offensively."

Sophomore Laura Caruso is learning game by game and is seeing time both on the junior varsity and varsity level. The same can be said of freshman Judy Nehila, who possesses a lot of natural skills and once again, will need time to develop into a solid varsity performer.

Now in her 13th year of varsity coaching at Belleville High, Fuccello boasts a record of 166-100 in her distinguished career. From the period of December 1980 through March 1984, there were some special athletes at Belleville High that gave the fans of this township some very special memories. However, they are now memories and the future is what Fuccello is looking at. The gym might not be as full this year as it was last season and the emphasis might not be on scoring records and television appearances, but the Belleville girls' basketball team is continuing that trend of excellence and it looks as if that trend will be a part of the school for years to come.

The Belleville High School athlete of the week is Angel Greco of the girls' basketball team. The sophomore scored 14 points against Nutley and is doing an excellent job in the backcourt for Fuccello.

Michael Lamberti's BUC SHOTS

A word of congratulations to Michael Gibbons, the marvelous senior wrestler that is dominating the 188-pound class once more. Gibbons won the Elizabeth Tournament last weekend and boasts a perfect record thus far this season. Last year, Gibbons lost just twice, a controversial decision in the finals of the regionals and a tough loss to the eventual state champ in the first round of the state tourney. The way he is going now, Gibbons looks like a good bet to go back to the states and challenge for the gold.

Here is the answer to last week's quiz. The question was, name the participants in Super Bowl XIV, the final score, the team quarterbacks and head coaches. The answer: Pittsburgh defeated the L.A. Rams, 31-19. Vince Ferragamo was the quarterback for the Rams and Terry Bradshaw for Pittsburgh. Ray Malavasi coached the Rams and, of course, Chuck Noll led the way for Pittsburgh.

For this week, other than last weekend's Super Bowl, only three teams in the first 18 games have scored first but have lost. Name those teams and the years it happened.

Boys' Varsity Basketball Squad (1-14) Starts Strong, Finishes on Short End

If the game of basketball were played in three quarters, chances are good that the Belleville boys' basketball team would be highly ranked in the county standings. Unfortunately, the game of basketball was invented with four quarters in mind and the Buccaneers cannot seem to overcome the "third quarter blues," a syndrome that has cost the team at least six ball games this year.

The Bucs were host to Paramus on Tuesday and will play host to Clifton this afternoon, starting at 4 p.m. Tomorrow, the Bucs will host Bloomfield, in a 7:30 p.m. tip off. Next Tuesday, the team will stay home for a 4 p.m. start with Eastside.

Last week, Rocco Colucci's team was on the short end of a 50-37 count to Nutley and a 66-44 final against powerful John F. Kennedy High School. In both contests, the Bucs played strong first halves, then succumbed to strong third quarter bursts from the opposition.

Entering this week's action, Belleville sports a 1-14 mark. In at least six games, the Bucs suffered from a poor third quarter and it ultimately cost them the game. On the season, Belleville has been outscored 216-111 in the third quarter. In the Wood-Ridge contest back in mid-December, the Bucs lost, 51-38 and were outscored, 14-5 in the third quarter.

In the West Morris contest, the Bucs lost by two points and were outscored by three (12-9) in the third quarter. Move over to the Don Bosco contest, Belleville was beaten by 22 points (72-50) and were outdistanced, 28-9 in the third frame. In the Clifton game, Belleville was outscored 20-12 en route to a 24 point setback. Against St. Aloysius, the Bucs were beaten by six in the third quarter and lost by 13.

Finally, in the two losses last week, Belleville was defeated by 13 points against Nutley after being outscored by 14 in the third quarter and lost by 22 to Kennedy after losing the third quarter by 13 points.

On the season, Belleville has only outscored one team in the third quarter and that was against Morris Hills. Belleville's only victory of the campaign.

"I really can't put my finger on it," said Colucci of his team's third quarter slump. "A lack of experience, maybe. We're ice cold coming in to the second half, the other team wears us down, a lack of depth, maybe a lack of execution. I think they all have a part in it."

In the Nutley game, Belleville trailed 15-12 after one quarter and 26-20 at halftime. In the third frame, the Maroon opened it up, outscoring Belleville by 14 points (18-4) and cruising to a 13 point win. Mike Sochaski led Belleville with 12 points, followed by Ted Sochaski with 10 points and four each from Donald Washington and Leon Puentes. The Bucs were horrendous from the foul line, shooting seven for 23 from the stripe.

"You can't win games shooting like that," Colucci said. "This team has to take advantage of everything it gets. There are no easy breaks, no easy games. If we get 23 foul shots, we have to take advantage of those free shots."

In the Paterson Kennedy game, the pattern was pretty much the same. Belleville played a strong game against the number seven ranked team in the state, leading after one quarter, 13-11 and trailing by just six, 29-23, at intermission. In the third quarter, the proverbial roof fell in once more, with the Bucs falling short, 23-10. Belleville came back with a strong fourth quarter, led by Craig Burden, a sophomore, but the damage had been done by Kennedy.

On the night, Ted Sochaski led the way with nine points, followed by seven from Donald Washington, and six from Mike Sochaski, Burden and Bob Hutchinson. The Bucs were hurt by the absence of senior Steven Kimble, who continues to watch from the sidelines after suffering a badly sprained ankle. It is not known how long Kimble will be out of action and his absence is noticeable on the Buccaneer front line.

There is still plenty of action left this season and plenty of time for the Buccaneers to remedy their "third quarter blues." If they succeed, they could win a few of those tight ball games. If they don't, the future might spell the same results as the past.

Hands Up — Freshman Ted Sochaski (35) takes a jump shot during the Belleville boys' basketball game against St. Aloysius at BHS. Sochaski has been impressive in his varsity performances and has a bright future in store.

Traveling Soccer Teams Unite Under Association

The Belleville Recreation Department announced the traveling all-star soccer team, formerly under Recreation Department introduction during the spring season, are now under the auspices of the Belleville Soccer Association.

This move was made in an effort to align all traveling soccer under one organization and to avoid conflicts in player eligibility, conflicts with baseball season, conflicts in scheduling and lack of playing facilities.

Contact Ron De Piro at 751-6893 or 667-0006 for more information.

Stretching — Junior Desiree Johansen attempts a short bank shot during the Nutley game. Johansen is second on the team in scoring with a 9.8 average. Belleville lost the Nutley game in overtime, 54-50, and was 5-6 entering this week's action.

Heard at Ringside

By Steve H. Frank

Al DeVito has been connected with the sport of boxing for one-half century and continues to enjoy being part of it. As an amateur boxer he engaged in 26 bouts and won them all, 19 by KO. In the professional ranks his record in 22 bouts was 21 won, one lost. After serving in the Armed Forces, DeVito accepted the responsibility of refereeing amateur fights. His status as a referee has been considered the best. Not one serious injury has happened in any bouts during 32 years as a referee. He retired from that strenuous part of the sport and is now an official with the New Jersey Athletic Commission as a judge of boxing bouts. DeVito has been inducted into New Jersey's Boxing Hall of Fame an honor that he is very proud of.

Dick Lovell, Larry Holmes' publicist, reported, Larry will pursue a slander suit against Dennis Rappaport, one of heavyweight Gerry Cooney's co-managers, for alleging Holmes took a stimulant during the Holmes-Cooney fight, June 11, 1982. "It is a conspiracy to discredit Larry, the champion," said Lovell.

Undeclared world lightweight champ Michael Spinks, native of St. Louis, Mo., now fighting out of Philadelphia, may be too good a fighter for his own financial future. There are no young prospects capable of drawing fans thru the turnstiles in Spinks' division. Two rematches against former WBA champion Eddie Mustafa Muhammad (Eddie Gregory) fell apart. A rematch with former WBC titleholder Dwight Muhammad Qawi (Dwight Braxton) went down the drain when Qawi couldn't make the weight.

Unbeaten Gregg Edelman, the 19-year-old New Jersey State Junior welterweight titlist, from Merchantville, N.J., faced the stiffest test of his young fistic career when he took on Arnie Wells of Davison, Michigan, last week in a 10-rounder at Resorts International Hotel in Atlantic City.

Goody Petronelli, co-manager of world middleweight king Marvelous Marvin Hagler, said "Hagler will start training for the Thomas Hearns' fight March 1 at his training camp in Provincetown, Mass. Emanuel "Manny" Szwad, manager-trainer of Hearns, reported, "Tommy begins the same day in Paris, France. He will help Kronk Gym fightmate Milton McCrory prepare for his March 9 WBC welterweight title defense against number one ranked Pedro Vilella." The Hagler-Hearns explosion is set for April 15.

ESPN Cablevision and Bob Arum's Top Rank Promotions will conduct an annual boxing tournament designed to develop new fistic stars. It was announced by Steven M. Bornstein, ESPN Vice President of Programming, and Bob Arum, chairman and promoter for Top Rank. The 1985 tournament, which began last week will involve eight fighters (four in a few divisions which lack adequate number of quality young fighters) in each of 10 weight classes ranging from bantamweights to heavyweight. Once crowned, the ESPN champions will begin to defend their titles. Fighters with over 20 professional fights will not be allowed to participate. The winners in each division will receive a 1985 General Motors Buick Century in addition to the ESPN exposure which has helped propel many previous ESPN champions to stardom.

Andre "Sugarman" Cooper of Blackwood, N.J. pummeled Philadelphia's Jimmy Sykes around the ring in Atlantic City until referee Larry Hazzard stopped the mismatch at 1:41 of the fourth round. Sykes as never in the fight. Cooper floored the Philadelphian in the first and twice in the fourth round. Cooper now sports an impressive record of 17-2 with 17 knockouts. Sykes' chart slipped to 13-9-1 with 10 KOs.

Reports indicate that Randy "Tex" Cobb will be heavyweight Gerry Cooney's next opponent. According to the sharpies along Gleason's Alley, Cooney will fight the winner of the Cobb-Hearn "Quick" Tilis leather exchange booked for El Paso, Texas Jan. 17.

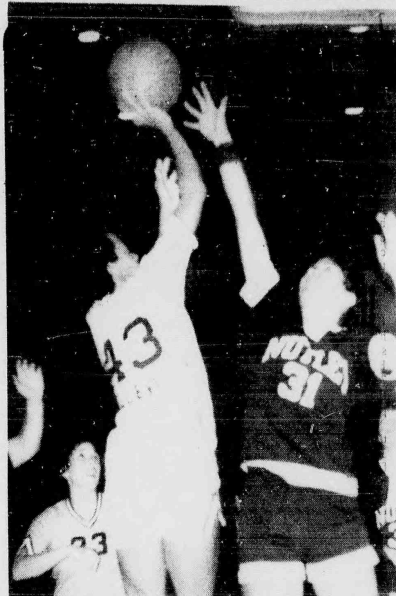

Thinking out loud — a good match-up would be between Mike McCallum of Brooklyn, N.Y., and David Braxton of Detroit, Mich. for McCallum's World Boxing Association junior middleweight crown. Braxton is ranked third by the WBA and is the North American Boxing Federation titleholder.

Kay "Boom Boom" Mancini remains disturbed over the boxing lesson he got while losing his WBA lightweight title to Livingston Bramble. Mancini was a badly beaten fighter when he fell stopped the mugging in the 14-round. Mancini of Youngstown, Ohio, refused to shake hands with Bramble at their rematch press conference at Gallagher's Restaurant in New York City. The rematch will be at Reno, Nev. Feb. 16 HBO will broadcast.

Welterweight Mark Breland of Brooklyn, N.Y. continued to pad his record with mismatches. At Harrah's Marina Hotel in Atlantic City, Breland won a unanimous six round decision over unknown Marlon Palmer of Pottstown, Pa. Judges Frank Brunette and Rocky Castellani scored the workout 5-1. Judge Lawrence Wallace had Breland the winner of all six rounds.

Icon Spinks has returned to the training grind and expects to see ring action before the end of the month. The former heavyweight champ is now managed by Emanuel "Manny" Steward of the Detroit-based Kronk Boxing Team. Spinks with a 12-4-2 record hasn't fought in 21-months.

Two private jets have been made available to fly Marvin Hagler and Thomas Hearns on a 17-city publicity tour, coast to coast, starting in January. The tour is to hype their battle scheduled April 15 at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas.

Pressure Defense — Donna Brooks of Belleville stretches high to shoot a jumper during the Nutley game last week at BHS. The senior tallied 15 points in the game, but Belleville lost by four in overtime.

Bucs Finish Second In Elizabeth Tourney

of North Bergen. Joey now has a 12-1 slate for the season and has tied brother Dom for the most varsity wins as a freshman.

Belleville had one other second place finisher, Cam Rispoli at 141 pounds, while Tim Buckley (108), Ralph Zarro (148), and Marc Criscione (HW) all finished third.

Mondo Nardone (122), Vinnie Padula (129), Sam Zamlot (158), and Sean Muleahy (170) all were beaten in the first round.

NOTES: The field in the tourney was relatively tough as Long Branch was the District 23 champ and ranked 16th in the state by The Star Ledger... Neptune was District 23 runnerup while North Bergen placed second in District 6... ### HIVONA TO ST. JUDE

This service has been known for for this service must be paid for 3 consecutive days. Publication must be promised.
Q: How to Judge Appointe and Marty, great in value and rich in miracles. You know, of Jesus Christ.
faithful reference of all who revere you. special patronage in time of need to you. I have reason from the depth of my heart and humility, but to whom else has given great power to come to my assistance. He is my present urgent plea.
In return, I promise to make your name known and praise Him for His service.
St. Jude, pray for all who seek your aid.

PRAYER OF

APPROPRIATION
TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Holy Spirit you who solve all problems, who light all roads to you that contain a goal. You who give me the Divine gift to forgive and to love. I promise to target all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me.
I want this short prayer to thank you for all things and to thank you once again for never want to be separated from you, even in part of all my life. I will be with you with your eternal Glory.
Thank you for your mercy and me and mine. The person must say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. After five days, the prayer will be granted even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published in the media after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor, only your initial should appear at the bottom.

Religious Viewpoint

When Telephone Went Mad

By Rev. Robert Paul

Shortly after the first edition of the Miami Herald had gone to press on Sunday night, Dec. 29, 1946, Timothy Sullivan answered the telephone at the city desk. "Please help me," a woman's voice pleaded, "My husband is bleeding to death."

Sullivan got the entire story. The man's name was Rudy Kovarik, from Dearborn, Michigan. They were on vacation and he was sick and in the Biscayne Hospital. The AB-RH-negative blood he needed was not available at the hospital or from other sources. Without a transfusion, the doctors thought he might not live until morning.

What could the city editor do? A man was dying, a woman's heart was breaking. Then he got an idea — WCB5, 14 blocks away, where it was almost time for Walter Winchell to go on the air on a nationwide broadcast. The operator at the radio station refused to let him talk to Winchell, but after some insistence and pleading, she put an assistant of Winchell on the phone. He took a memo of the situation and Sullivan sat back to wait.

Soon the telephone began to go mad. The Herald office, the police station, and the hospital were all swamped with calls from all over the nation. People as far away as New York City began to board planes for Miami, the corridors of the Biscayne Hospital were crowded, and traffic jammed the nearby streets as would-be donors tried to get to the hospital.

The actual donor was a tourist from New York who heard the broadcast on his car radio, then checked his army dog tags for his blood type, and then drove two blocks to the hospital. In a few minutes his life-giving blood was flowing into the veins of the stricken man. A few weeks later a healthy looking man walked up to the Herald's city desk to thank Timothy Sullivan for his efforts.

Human kindness is one thing that is surely needed in this world of today, but there is one who made a greater sacrifice when He died and shed His blood that we might live. The Lord Jesus Christ gave His life by shedding His blood on calvary's cross for the forgiveness of your sins and mine. "In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace." (See Ephesians 1:7)

Two Residents Eligible For Pick-6 Bonus Drawing

Belleville residents Louis Paraboschi and Carl Pissott are finalists in the New Jersey Lottery "Pick-6 Lotto" Bonus Drawing Wednesday, Jan. 30 in Atlantic City.

In addition to the top prize of $1 million ($50,000 a year for 20 years), the drawing will decide a second cash prize of $50,000, one third prize of $25,000, one fourth prize of $10,000, and fifth through 10th prizes of $2,500 each. The remaining finalists will receive $250 consolation prizes.

Finalists won their ways into the drawing by matching, in exact order, the five-digit bonus number picked Thursday evenings as part of the televised drawings for the "Pick-6 Lotto" weekly game.
