Police say that Zetty shot his wife, Eileen, with a .32 caliber revolver, but they do not know the motive.

Children and senior citizens meet Thursday after school from 3:30-5 p.m. to socialize and make craft projects. The program, held at Belleville's Little League Fieldhouse, began April 4 and will continue to May 30.

Some of the projects have included painted sun catchers, bird houses, leather change purses, and punched tin plates.

Ms. Christine Macysyn, special education teacher, is director. The program is co-sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Belleville, Belleville S.E.F.P.O. (Belleville Special Education Parent & Professional Organization), Mayor Marotti's Municipal Recreation Department and private sponsors.

After the signing, 25 balloons were launched, representing each of the special education classes in Belleville. Each balloon was tagged with a class name and address.

New municipal complex approved

Blight proposal rejected

By Michelle Jeannotte

The question has finally been answered.

After more than two years, the Belleville Board of Commissioners unanimously rejected the proposal for a blight declaration on Washington Avenue last week before a standing-room-only crowd.

The commissioners, with the exception of Commissioner

Joseph McGreevy who abstained from voting, each gave a statement before announcing their vote.

"This decision is one of great gravity," Commissioner Ralph DiRuggiero said. "You can't vote on this on emotion. You have to do your homework."

In his statement, DiRuggiero praised the work of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency, calling it a group of talented members. He said the agency was to be commended for raising the collective consciousness of the township.

DiRuggiero said his reasons for voting against the blight declaration were his acceptance of the plan for a new municipal complex, detailed by Mayor Michael Marotti, and input from the merchants who said they are willing to use private capital to redevelop their properties.

"This is only the beginning," DiRuggiero said. "If we (the commissioners) don't see some improvement, I'll use every tool possible including blight to see that redevelopment happens."

DiRuggiero was not the only commissioner who referred to blight as a possible route of redevelopment in the future.

"I am not going to rule out blight," Commissioner Joseph Grande said. "But I'm not for displacing people unless we have a plan. I'm going to vote yes tonight, but I will seek developers. If we can package land, I will propose blight when it is necessary."

"I still feel the same way about blight," Commissioner Joseph McGreevy said, "but I was told I couldn't vote on the issue."

Commissioner Michael Pizzi also did not rule out blight.

"I'm not leaving blight out for a future date," he said. "I don't consider this (the vote) a defeat. I consider it a step in the right direction."

Marotti, who also said he

Make Way for the New - Belleville Board of Commissioners approved a $10 million proposal last week for the construction of a new municipal complex on Washington Avenue. Mayor Michael Marotti said the parking lot adjacent to town hall may become the site of the new complex which would incorporate a police headquarters and all township departments.

Firefighters face charges

Four Belleville firefighters will face charges of insubordination at a hearing scheduled for June 6.

Disciplinary charges were brought against the four firefighters by Fire Chief George Sbarra for refusing to transport and AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) victim from his Belleville home to St. Michael's Hospital in Newark.

In an effort to keep other firefighters from facing similar charges, Ken Taras and Jack Wille, president and vice president of the Firemen's Benevolent Association (FMB) Local 29, transported the unidentified male to St. Michael's last Thursday.

"The men were only thinking of their families," Wille, a six-year member of the department, said. "They didn't have enough education."

Wille said the men had to get equipment from Clara Maass

Medical Center before transporting the patient. He said they had to wear gowns, masks and gloves so they would not transmit the disease and that afterwards, the inside of the ambulance had to be bleached.

Wille said that the fire department normally makes service runs for the township, but that it rarely transports patients with communicable diseases. He said that there are 16 ambulance drivers on the force, each divided among shifts. The four men facing charges were on the first line of the first shift, Wille said.

"We don't know enough about the disease," he added.

Ken Taras, president of FMB, said that the men are not trained at all in this area. He added that they face problems when someone goes on vacation because they are forced into situations they know nothing about.

"There are some men who will respond to problems and others who won't," he said. "These men were justified in their refusal because they haven't been educated."

To educate the ambulance drivers as well as the entire fire department, Commissioner Ralph DiRuggiero has been planning four seminars dealing with infectious diseases. He said he has been talking with members of the National Institute of Health, the Essex County Hospital Center and the Gay Alliance, a state group.

"We are not in a position to discriminate against anyone," he said. "We have to learn how to transport these patients. We have to remain very fair and open minded about this case."

The four firefighters will be represented by state FMB lawyer Michael Fragoff. - By Michelle Jeannotte.

Drug Week begins

In recognition of the efforts being made by the Belleville Drug and Alcohol Abuse Committee, Mayor Michael V. Marotti has proclaimed the week of May 26 - June 1 to be Drug Awareness Week in Belleville.

This important meeting, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. will feature a program by Jane Albers of the Carrier Foundation, a Belle Mead, N.J. based rehabilitation clinic. Albers is an Addiction Recovery Counselor who will discuss alcohol and drug abuse by teenagers.

This program, arranged by Det. Sgt. William Adelmeh of the Belleville Police Department, is open to the public.

Winners of the school-wide poster contest, related to student messages against drug abuse, will be announced at the

Lifeline Security begins effort to find missing kids

Dynamark Security Centers Inc., in coordination with its national network of franchises including Lifeline Security in Belleville, has begun a national effort to help locate the estimated 1.8 million missing children in the United States through a new program called "Child Seekers."

A major public awareness campaign, "Child Seekers" involves distribution of poster and brochures containing photographs of missing children and runaways throughout the Belleville area, as well as other cities nationwide.

In addition, Dynamark has developed fingerprinting kits and child safety information brochures. The fingerprinting kits, designed to be used by any law enforcement authority in the country if needed, provide a private and confidential method to record a child's identity. Brochures and posters give toll-free numbers of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children and the National Runaway Hotline so that individuals can report information about children, and runaways can call for help or advice.

"The key to child safety is education and public awareness of this national crisis," said Robert and Gail Landolfi, owners of Lifeline Security.

Parents and anyone else interested in "Child Seekers" information can obtain literature at Lifeline Security, 528 Union Ave., Belleville.

Dynamark Security Centers, Inc., the nation's largest franchise of advanced supervised wireless security systems for homes and small businesses, is committed to family safety and crime prevention through home security systems and public service.

HIDDEN DANGER

Patients who take large doses of aspirin for their arthritis risk an overdose if they also take other non-prescription drugs that contain aspirin. Aspirin, a member of the salicylate drug family, is often prescribed in high doses to control the pain and inflammation of arthritis. The amount of these doses must be carefully monitored by a physician to avoid the toxicity which can occur if too much aspirin is taken. If you now take large amounts of aspirin, you probably already know the dangers of exceeding the prescribed dosage. However, you may not be aware that you should also be cautious when taking certain other non-prescription drugs, such as cold remedies, at the same time. Many contain aspirin or other salicylates.

If you have any questions about taking a drug talk to our pharmacist at RCO-SMITH'S PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We are Blue Cross and Medicare approved and carry a full line of convenient aids for sale or rent. These include walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. Hours: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-5pm. Pfaff, chairman of the board, thanked Oberg for his dedicated leadership as the medical center's former president and later as its executive vice chairman of the board. Under his guidance and direction, the hospital grew from a 100-bed facility in Newark to the multi-building medical center of 575 beds opposite Branch Brook Park on the Newark-Belleville line.

In addition to the hospital are two professional office buildings, a school of nursing and several residence buildings for the hospital's nursing staff.

ONE OF THE BEST

The Essex County Sheriff's Office is now one of the best law enforcement agencies in the state of New Jersey. When it comes to providing safety for the citizens of our area, nothing less than the best will do.

Sheriff Tom D'Alessio, a career law enforcement professional who has a degree in criminal justice, is committed to maintaining standards of excellence for the Sheriff's Office.

Sheriff D'Alessio revitalized the Bureau of Narcotics to get drug pushers off our streets. He began a program of voluntary child fingerprinting to safeguard our children. He called for the first civil service exams for Sheriff's Officers in more than nine years. He instituted administrative improvements and he modernized office procedures. Doing the best job, that's what counts.

And when it comes to making Essex County a safer place to live and to raise our families, nothing less than the best will do.

By the way, D'Alessio's camp comes in three breeds: 101 Tackles, 102 Busters, 103 Tackles.

Prayer for Today

Our Marriage Prayer

Lord,
For today, tomorrow and always
We pledge our sacred love,
And ask Thy benediction
From heaven up above.
As joyous we enter
This partnership together,
We pray you will be with us
In calm or troubled weather.
Give us faith in one another,
Respect and loyalty -
A comradeship that deepens
Through years that are to be.
Bless the home that we establish
And be our Honored Guest
From early every morning
Till at night we take our rest.
May our lives reach out to the others
As Thy love in us they see
And may our neighbors know us
As a "Christian" Family!

- Amen

Drought Emergency

Governor Thomas Kean recently announced a drought crisis for New Jersey. And, more recently, the Governor declared a water emergency for the entire state and has imposed mandatory water rationing in 93 northern New Jersey communities. The 93 communities, including Nutley, Belleville and Bloomfield are part of Phase 2 of the state drought emergency. Not only does Phase 2 of the emergency call for stricter mandatory rationing but it calls for a 25 percent cutback in industrial water use.

Some prohibited uses of water are car washing, except in commercial car washes where water is recycled, and watering lawns, except newly sodded lawns between 8 and 9 p.m. for 30 days. Nutley police officers have been issuing warnings and summonses to violators of mandatory water rationing. To be sure, the enforcement will and should increase as the severity of the drought increases.

One resident was issued a summons for watering his lawn and another resident was issued a summons for watering the family car last week. Residents have also been warned by police for washing cars with bucket water (a practice now illegal under Phase 2) and for draining swimming pools. Residents are allowed to fill swimming pools once. However, under Phase 2 which limits residents to 50 gallons a day, filling a pool is no longer a one day job.

This year's drought is one of the worst the state has seen. The drought is being compared to a drought in the 1960s. Two phases of the four phase drought process have been invoked by Governor Kean. If during the month of May we experience a normal rainfall, there is the possibility that we will begin June with a declaration by the Governor initiating Phase 3 of the drought process.

When it comes to the availability of water we are living dangerously. We should participate in the critical need to conserve our scarce and presently diminishing water supply. A permanent answer to our recurring water shortages in northern New Jersey will not be available until 1987.

Future drought measures threaten jobs, homes, health and life sustaining services. To be sure, taxes will not go unaffected either. We had better do our part now than face a future without water.

Memorial Day Memories

Bullets whine around me shells burst overhead -
I dig myself into the mud about me lay the dead -
My breeches torn below the knee reveal a crimson flow -
The leg forever will useless be that I already know -
Suddenly the bombardment ends
as quickly as begun -
Shortly will follow the attack
then all will be done -
I seem to hear the voices of my buddies all about -

But not an answer do I get no mawtchow much I shout - Blurred becomes my vision
as tears wash down my face - Oh! If I could only drag myself out of this pike -
Then right above me
the enemy planes soar -
A bomb drops beside me
- I know no more
When at last I awaken out loud I do scream -
My time has not come!
This is just a dream!

Freeholder Clay explains budget for Essex County

To the editor:

As a member of the county budget committee I have had many requests from county residents for an explanation of the Essex County budget and its impact on good county government and on property taxes. I would like to explain the budgetary process in a manner and in language that everyone can understand.

The formulation of the county budget is a major responsibility of the Board of Freeholders. It is intended to be, and actually is a means of exercising control over the spending of county tax receipts and other revenues by the county administration in their function of operating the various departments that comprise the county government.

A budget for the coming year is submitted by all department heads through the County Executive, and after a series of public hearings during which the County Executive attempts to justify his requests, and the public is permitted input of their personal and sometimes group concerns, the Board of Freeholders finalizes the budget in the best interests of the county taxpayer.

Sometimes department heads ask for more money than is necessary to accomplish their goals. Sometimes in an attempt to save money they eliminate programs that the public feels are necessary.

It takes many hours of studying programs, analyzing figures, consulting with our own accountants plus a feeling of sensitivity to the needs of our constituents before the board finally adds or subtracts dollars and comes up with what they feel is an acceptable budget.

This is the most important linchpin of our form of county government and the ultimate control by the Board of Freeholders over the actions of the administration. Without this method there would be no way to protect the taxpayers interests from falling victim to uncontrolled spending.

Freeholders, although pledged to look over the needs of the entire county are especially sensitive to the demands of their own constituencies. A fair balance must be struck so that good government can provide to all of our residents.

As to my own priorities, I intend to monitor very carefully the following areas. First and foremost of my concerns has always been the subject of public safety with the goal of reducing crime. I will always support programs that can effectively accomplish this most important goal. My previous experience of First Undersheriff of Essex County gives me special insight as to how vital this type of support is. Another priority is health facilities and homemaker services for the elderly who are in need.

During this entire process, we must be ever mindful that unwise spending commitments lead to higher property taxes. I pledge to continue my role as "Watchdog of the Budget" as persistently in the future as I have done in the past.

Yours for Good Government
Arthur L. Clay
Freeholder

Letters to the Editor

Firefighters feel department is 'seriously undermanned'

(Open letter to Belleville residents:)

We are writing this letter to inform you about the situation concerning your fire department. As of May 10, 1985 we are seriously undermanned. The township of Belleville is not replacing the men that are retiring on a one to one basis. The fire department is already eight men short and this year more men are expected to retire. The township is only replacing two men.

As of this date we have only two engines (pumpers) and one aerial (ladder) in service due to major repairs and lack of maintenance due to budget cuts. We have to borrow equipment from other communities to continue our service.

We were just informed of a 12-man minimum before an officer can hire. When the fire department is at a twelve-man minimum, we must sideline an engine and an ambulance which reduces the service to the community. The engine and ambulance usually sidelined (not named) are located at fire headquarters on Franklin Avenue, therefore the citizens that live in that area have to wait for an engine from either Washington Avenue or Franklin Street to respond.

Are the other departments in the township facing the same budget problems that the fire department has? And if they are, are they cutting back on essential services just as we've been ordered to do?

In closing, we would appreciate the concerned citizens of Belleville to question the priorities of the township to the commissioners.

Officers and Firefighters of
The Belleville Fire Dept.

Committee thanks Phil Linfante

To the editor:

We would like to take this opportunity to give thanks to someone who has given so much of his time, thoughts and energy to the cause of special education in our town. He always goes beyond the call of duty to accomplish those things that seem impossible at times. As Special Education Week came to a close, we realized after thanking all the wonderful people who have done so much for our children that this person was not properly thanked for all he's done. Take a bow, Phil Linfante - you deserve it.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Tuesday, May 14, was indeed an epochal day for one of Belleville's venerable outstanding citizens. It was Jack Hudson's birthday and a surprise festive party was tendered in his honor on the occasion of his 57th birthday at the Crestmont Country Club in West Orange.

Mr. Hudson's lineage stems from one of Belleville's oldest families, going back to 1865. He was appointed federal government Homeowner's Loan Corp. appraiser during the great depression of the 1930s, being instrumental in saving the homes of many Belleville homeowners by favorable government mortgage loans.

Long politically active for many years, he was instrumental in inducing former Mayor William H. Williams to seek public office in town. Mr. Hudson is now a Belleville Planning Board member having served for the past 12 years. He was appointed by Hon. Arthur Blake, Essex County Assignment Judge, as Commissioner of Condemnation Proceedings of the Federal Housing Authority in Essex County.

The sumptuous party was sponsored for Jack Hudson by former associates of the Joseph H. Reinhold Co. of Union after 20 years of dedicated service. He also served as associate representative of Parks & Tilford Wholesale Co. of New York City as New Jersey sales of wine and liquors.

Luminaries attending the gala affair were State Senate President Carmen Orechio, Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alesio, Lawrence Orestien, vice president of Reinhold Wine and Liquor Co. distributors, and Jim Melheim, president of the K International Fire Co., a subsidiary of Walter Kiddie Co., formerly of Belleville, now located in North Carolina.

Mr. Hudson and his wife Edna live at 18 Hewitt Ave. They have two married daughters, Mrs. Robert Butler, whose husband is executive vice president of the National Broadcasting Company, and Mrs. Lois McLaughlin of Montclair, whose husband is president of the Wilton Rug Company of Philadelphia, Pa., and Wayne, N.J.

The decision of the township governing officials in ruling against "blight," at this time, in response to the vigorous opposition of the masses of merchants and property owners of the community was bold and courageous action, wisely taken.

While there is universal agreement in the need to revitalize and revive Washington Avenue and the business sections of Belleville there was little need to declare areas blighted to satisfy the capricious whim and fancy of over zealous redevelopment agency constituents. The wisdom of the township commissioners in allaying the fears and alarm the affected business community property owners and householders merits commendation.

The sagacity of their ruling out the stigma of "blight" and their announced plans to proceed with the cooperative program fashioned by the newly organized Belleville Revitalization Committee, orchestrated largely by the support of Louis Cicenia, a local jeweler, and Vincent Frantantonio, a businessman, should ignite the spark to galvanize new activity and a rebirth of business revival and growth development along the avenue and surrounding properties.

The dissenting diatribe of one of the members of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency is assailing the commissioners' decision was in poor taste and unwarranted, since they had only responded to the overwhelming opposition of the people to the disparaging inference Belleville is a blighted town.

Allegations of conflicts of interest, ulterior motives, distortions of fact, and fear tactics on the part of commissioners and other municipal officials are serious charges, as reported in the May 17 issue of the Star, Ledger, and may be difficult to establish.

We applaud the commission on their laudable role of responding to the sentiment, resoundingly demonstrated by the citizenry of Belleville.

Psychotherapy is more than sitting and talking

By Stefan Lerner, M.D.
The Carrier Foundation

Often, when people hear that a friend or family member is going for psychotherapy, they ask, "How can just sitting and talking to somebody help a person overcome an emotional illness? If the idea is just to talk to somebody, why not just to a friend or family member?"

The answer is that psychotherapy is much more than a matter of "just sitting and talking to somebody." Let me explain.

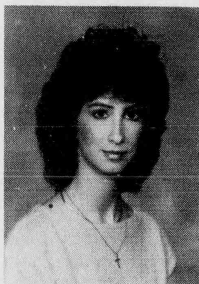

What we need to understand first is that emotional ailments such as depression or abnormal anxiety, and psychosomatic ailments such as sleeping problems, sexual malfunction, gastrointestinal disorders, hypertension and others have, as their base, troubling thoughts and emotions which the patient is afraid to, ashamed to, or unable to express. These may have to do with conflicts about sex, or intense hostility toward a parent, spouse or person in authority; feelings of powerlessness and helplessness to cope with life's problems and difficulties. These troubling thoughts and feelings may be aroused by something that is happening right now - in the family, in school, on the job or in relation to friends or to members of the opposite sex. Or they may have had their origin in childhood and have long since been pushed out of awareness and memory because they were so painful or frightening or guilt-provoking.

How can a disturbing thought or emotion, especially one that is long forgotten, produce emotional and psychosomatic illnesses? The explanation is too long and complex to be given in this brief space, but the basic idea is that intense emotions, acting through our nervous and glandular systems, can and do produce abnormal functioning in our feelings, thoughts, behavior and bodily functions.

The purpose of "talking therapy," meaning psychotherapy, is to enable the patient to bring to the surface and express those thoughts and feelings he has been holding down, or about which he has no knowledge, because of their having been pushed out of awareness and forgotten.

The psychotherapist - whether he or she be a psychiatrist or psychologist or psychiatric social worker or psychiatric nurse - is trained to give the patient a feeling of safety, reassurance and encouragement so that he will bring forth, spontaneously, his troubling concerns - from the present and from the past. Because the therapist is non-judgmental - and this too, has taken considerable training - the patient no longer has to feel afraid, or ashamed or guilty about his thoughts or feelings and therefore, will be more readily able to accept them and express them. As the heretofore-rejected or repressed thoughts and emotions come out, they lose their power to cause the psychological and physical symptoms they have been causing. This does not happen overnight. It may take weeks, months and in some cases, years.

ADVISE FROM A PODIATRIST
Soft Tissue Tumors -
Epidermal Cyst

If you walk into my office and complain of "a ball under my foot or on my toe," we may be dealing with an Epidermal Cyst, which is a mass filled with milkyish type material.

Epidermal cysts appear on any part of the body, seen most often on the scalp and on the plantar surface of the foot. You may or may not complain of pain depending on its location. If found on the ball of the foot directly under a metatarsal it can cause painful ambulation described by some as "walking on pebbles." If left untreated, the cyst can degenerate, become infected and produce pus.

It is often misdiagnosed because it is not seen often and because the skin may look normal when in reality it is not. Occasionally an epidermal cyst may become calcified if left untreated.

The treatment of choice, if painful, is surgical excision. There is little, if any, effective conservative treatment available. It is possible for a Podiatrist to make a protective aperture shield which will redistribute the weight, thereby removing direct pressure from the cyst. This is employed if there are contraindications to surgery.

Q. Dear Umberto,
My hair is bleached and toned to silver-blond, but every time I shampoo my hair it develops a gold cast. What am I doing wrong?

A. Dear Jean,
Use a shampoo designed for tinted and bleached hair and make sure you don't expose it to strong sunlight.

Q. Dear Umberto,
My hair has usually been dry, but it seems that since I became pregnant it has become oily. Does pregnancy give you oily hair and if so, why?

A. Pregnant Reader,
Yes, pregnancy can make your hair oily. I am not a doctor but I believe that your glands are functioning at a different pace, which in turn may be making your hair oily. Don't worry, after your pregnancy, everything should return to normal.

Buc linksters capture NNJIL Championship

It had all started so quietly. The Belleville golf team, led by its impromptu coach, Rocco Colucci, commenced the 1985 season in less than spectacular fashion. The team started 1-5 and Colucci wasn't expecting much more than that. "We're young, inexperienced and lacking the big number one man to carry us in the important matches."

"This, coming from a coach that in four years leading into the season had compiled a 38-16 coaching record, led one to believe that Belleville would endure a difficult season. Then, without much warning, the Belleville golf team began to pick up the pieces. A victory here, a victory there and suddenly, Belleville is 6-6, 4-1 in the conference. "We have a shot at the conference crown," Colucci said, "but we have to stop Nutley and Clifton in a tri match (held last week) to win the crown. It is doubtful, because Nutley is so good."

So, the Bucs stroled into the tri meet and to the surprise of everyone except the Belleville players, the 1985 Belleville golf team is the co-champion of the NNJIL Essex-Passaic Division. What makes the accomplishment even sweeter is that the team Belleville tied was Nutley, whom the Bucs stopped in head to head play. "We tied for the conference championship," Colucci said, a little bewildered at the thought. "These kids (Belleville) never gave up, not for a minute. They came into the tri meet with a lot of confidence. They felt they had a shot at winning the crown and played tremendous golf. They were very determined."

The tri victory capped a week in which the linksters won four matches in four tries. Belleville entered this weeks competition with a 10-6 record, and a conference co championship to hang in the halls of BHS. The Bucs have won nine of its last ten and Colucci, in his fifth season of coaching golf, has a 48-25 career mark at Belleville. "It's not me," he said, "it's the kids. They did the work. I made a few adjustments in the lineup, but they did the job. I'm very proud of them."

The Buccaneers stopped Nutley, 173-181 and Clifton, 173-176 to capture a share of the championship. Nutley had a 52 match winning streak stopped by Glen Ridge last week and after winning a match, the Maroon was defeated by Belleville. Belleville also defeated Caldwell, 193-194 and Kearny, 176-179. "All our matches have been close," Colucci said. "It's been that kind of season for us. I never expected us to be this good this season."

The coach credits that success, in part, to senior Greg Simone. After a slow start, Simone has been red hot and has been averaging 40 and 41 over nine holes. "He's the difference," Colucci said. "We needed that big man in the number one spot and he came through."

Not to be forgotten, junior Brian De Furia has been tough, firing in the low 40's. Seniors Frank Riker and Anthony Palermo have been breaking 45 consistently and their performances have kept Belleville in line for the big conference crown.

Colucci also noted the improvement of sophomores Joe Tower and Tim Nielsen, along with freshmen Joe Ceretto and Joe Dente.

Belleville continued its season this week. The Bucs battled Bergen Catholic, the champion of the NNJIL Bergen Division, yesterday. This afternoon, Simone and De Furia will travel to Nobb Hill Country Club in Freehold to take part in the NNJIL individual championships. Tomorrow, the Bucs battle Bloomfield in a non conference match. Next Wednesday, the Bucs will close the door on this marvelous season with a match against Paramus Catholic.

NOTES: Bucs records since 1981: 8-2, 9-4, 10-5 and 11-5 last season. Colucci said he was more worried about Clifton in the tri match. "We only beat them by three strokes." Bucs are 6-1 in NNJIL, 4-5 outside the conference.

GIRL TALK — Pitcher Michelle Calderone warms up as her teammates look on. From the looks on their faces they don't give the impression that they are 21-4.

Lady Bucs lose to Lancers in ECT Final; face Barringer next

Just missing in an attempt to regain the county championship, the Belleville softball team lost to Livingston, 4-3 in the title game at Pulaski Park last Saturday night.

The loss was the only setback of the week for Carl Corino's team. Belleville defeated conference rivals Nutley, Passaic and Montclair to boost its team record to 21-4. The Lady Bucs are still in line for a conference crown and will begin state play this week. The girls are host to Barringer, this afternoon, starting at 4 p.m. from Clearman Field in round one of the Group IV, Section II tournament. Yesterday, the team faced Kennedy and tomorrow, will host Clifton, starting at 4 p.m. Should Belleville lose today's contest with Barringer, then the game with Clifton will mark the end of the 85 season. If Belleville wins, they will play next Tuesday. That game has not been determined as to site and time.

It was an exciting game at Pulaski Park last Saturday night as Belleville attempted to recapture the county crown it lost last year to Cedar Grove in the finals. This time, the opponent was Livingston and the game went down to the wire. The Lady Bucs scored first, hitting for three runs in the first inning off Michelle Calderone, the freshman who has made believers out of many fans in this area.

Calderone settled down after a rocky first inning and allowed just one run the rest of the game. Belleville's bats were silent through four innings, but began to pick up in the fifth. The girls scored once in that inning and came back with two more in the sixth, thanks to a two run, seeing eye double by Dina De Medici. De Medici's hit brought home Sherri Sorrentino and Cheryl Marion to cut the gap to one run. In the fifth, a single by first baseman Cheri Tillman scored the first Belleville run.

In the seventh, Belleville threatened again, but the Lancers were able to put a lid on the rally and win by one run, 4-3. Calderone was the hard luck loser, but she received praise from opposing coach Tony Hope during the post game ceremonies. "We pressured her, but she came through real well," Hope said. "She is going to be tough for the next three years."

Corino also was proud of his team's effort and extended praise to Livingston. "They (Livingston) did what it takes," Corino said. "Livingston got the big hits and played good ball. Our girls did a nice job, too. They came a long way."

Belleville had better luck with Nutley last Monday, winning by a 9-4 count. The Lady Buccaneers trailed, 4-3 in the sixth inning, but scored six runs to pull away to a five run victory. Calderone was the winning pitcher, relieving starter Debbie

Rowers looking to bring home title from Nationals after winning at Stotes

This weekend, at St. Andrew's, Delaware, the Belleville senior four girls crew will compete for the last time in the high school level. The young ladies will lead the Belleville contingent in the National championships, looking to win a third national title. The girls aren't the only ones looking to bring home the gold.

Sam Giuffrida's crew will also bring the boys junior four and the girls lightweight eight to the Nationals in Delaware. All three teams will be seeded for the Nationals, thanks to their outstanding performance in the Stotesbury Regatta last weekend in Philadelphia.

Last weekend at the Stotes, the girls senior four was victorious, with the boys junior four taking second in its race and the girls lightweight eight placing third. The boys senior four did not make the finals.

"It's the first time that we've had three boats seeded in the finals," said an elated Giuffrida earlier this week. "It's hard to say we're going to win the finals, but I'm very optimistic about our chances. We have some hungry rowers, athletes who believe in themselves and are national power. People know who Belleville is now and other teams have to row their best to beat us."

Giuffrida was especially surprised with the performance of the lightweight eight shell. "They've only been together for four days." He also was pleased with the boys junior four, noting, they will all be back next season and they should do well.

Lady Bucs and Livingston: No strangers

It was a hard fought, intense battle from the outset. The Belleville Buccaneer softball team and Livingston High School got together last weekend to decide who was number one in Essex County at Pulaski Park in Bloomfield. From the opening inning, the game had the earmarks of a thriller and the two teams involved were not about to disappoint their fans.

Enter Belleville High, 20-3 for the 1985 season, a big surprise for a team that had lost an all state pitcher and catcher from the successful 24-6 squad of a year ago. Carl Corino's team was in the county finals for the fourth straight season and fifth time in the last six years. Belleville had won the county title in 1982 and 83 and were upset in the '84 game by Cedar Grove. Clearly the Lady Bucs wanted to bring the title back home to Belleville and continue its trend as one of the best in Essex County.

There was one problem. Livingston, an unseeded, upstart squad, was playing its finest ball of the campaign. After starting 0-5, Tony Hope, the Lancer coach, had turned his team around with good pitching, timely hitting and solid defense. The Lady Lancers had defeated two ranked teams to reach the finals, halting powerful Caldwell in the semis, 16-8.

Back in 1982, these teams had battled for county supremacy and Belleville, behind sophomore pitcher Dina De Aquino, prevailed by an 8-0 count. The game was much closer than that score would indicate, however. Seven of the Belleville runs came in one inning, the fourth, and De Aquino was too much for the Lancer bats on that night. Just six days previous, Livingston had eliminated Belleville from the state running, winning 8-6 in a very controversial affair in Belleville.

The two squads have played some exciting games in the past and this game would rank among the best. Belleville came in with a freshman pitcher, Michelle Calderone. Many of the fans had commented before the game that Calderone had ice water in her veins. Not too many things would rattle her and the young lady lived up to her pre game billing.

Calderone hurled a tremendous game, allowing three runs in the first inning, then settling down to limit Livingston to one run over the last six. Her effort, on most nights, would have been good enough for a victory. However, on this particular evening, the Lady Lancers would be a pinch better.

Livingston took advantage of some good hitting and caught Belleville with a big three run first inning. It was 4-0 after three innings, but Belleville got back in with some key hits from Cheri Tillman and Dina De Medici. De Medici's shot was particularly crucial, because it was a two run double that cut the Lancer lead to 4-3 in the sixth inning. Unfortunately for Belleville rooters, Dina was left at second base and it came down to the final inning.

In the seventh, Belleville had the tying run in scoring position, but could not get the big hit to tie the game. Livingston had won, 4-3, but not before some nail biting moments down the stretch. It was a very exciting game and the emotion of the contest was obvious during the post game ceremony. Both coaches took time to praise the opponent. Corino cited Livingston's good execution. Hope noted with some reservation that Calderone was just a freshman and he wasn't looking forward to battling her for the next three years. He then said that Belleville and Livingston could meet again this year, this time in Group IV, Section II play later in the month. If that game does come off, it could be another thriller.

Congratulations certainly is extended to Carl Corino and his team on a fine season. The girls took a 20-4 record into this weeks action and are still very much in the picture for an NNJIL and sectional crown. Some fine defensive play was turned in by infielders Cheryl Marion and first baseman Tillman, who made some tremendous scoops of low throws. One play that comes to mind right away occurred in the sixth inning. The Lancers had the bases loaded with two outs when a sharp ground ball was hit to Desiree Johansen, the team shortstop. Johansen fired to first, albeit a little low, and Tillman made a Keith Hernandez type catch to snag the out. If that play isn't made, Livingston has two runs and a bigger lead.

Johansen, as usual, was marvelous at short. Some of her backhand plays avoided further Lancer damage. Donna Brooks continues to excel in centerfield. The senior is a tremendous athlete and will be very difficult to replace.

News from the Belleville Soccer Association is once again good. The Belleville Bandits pulled off a big victory, stopping powerful Montclair, 2-

1. The Bandits play in the youngest division of the BSA and have been a big improvement from the fall season. The team did not score a goal in its first six games last fall, then turned it around and won an indoor championship this past winter. Currently this spring, the club has won five games, the most ever by a Division Six soccer team in Belleville. It was also the first Belleville victory over the Mounties in Division Six play.

Montclair took the lead early in the second half, 1-0, but the Bandits came back at the bigger Mountie team, tying the contest on a goal by Ivan Martin. It was Martin's first score of the season. Jim Berg won the game for Belleville when he took a perfect pass from Ed Albanese, Jr., and drilled the ball through the net to give Belleville the lead for good.

Belleville's defense, led by Steve Diequez, Victor Mesce and Joe Colucci kept Montclair off the board the rest of the way. The Bandits also defeated Wyckoff, 3-0. Chris De Tommaso, the teams left wing, came off the bench to score his first goal of the campaign, which proved to be the game winner. Albanese later scored his third goal of the season and Colucci his seventh to assure the win. The Bandits closed out the season last Sunday afternoon at Municipal Stadium.

The coaches of the Bandits are Ted Werner, the head coach, Ed Albanese, Joe Colucci and Jim Florian. The coaches have certainly done a tremendous job in turning the young team around.

In other action, the red hot Strikers, sponsored by La Valle

Restaurant and Pizzeria, stopped Hillsdale, 7-1. Tom Morris led the Strikers with three goals. Frank Ferry, Pablo Pena, Guy Ruocco and Marcel Valente each scored for Belleville. Chris Oese was the defensive standout. The Strikers also blanked Dumont, 5-0. Goalie Chris Hendricks recorded his second shutout of the season. In that game, Ruocco, Pena, Vin Farina, Nick Keykurum and Roger Reel tallied goals. Oese led the defense once more.

The Cobras, sponsored by Rotary Club, were defeated by Wayne, 3-0. The Stars, sponsored by For Pete's Sake, lost two cliff hangers to Old Bridge and Scotch Plains. The scores, respectively, were 2-1 and 6-5. The Blast, sponsored by P.N.C., stopped Valley, 1-0 to gain the semi finals of the Minolta Cup playoffs. In the semis, North Bergen stopped the Blast, 5-2, despite two more goals from Mike Citterella. The Kicks sponsored by Caputo Florist, put it together and defeated Wyckoff, 2-1. Angelo Bagnara scored both Belleville goals.

TheBSA will be hosting the Mayor's Cup which starts tomorrow evening and runs through June 16.

Two losses could prove costly to Buccaneers baseball team

The Belleville baseball team won three games in five tries last week, but the two losses just about eliminated the Bucs from county and conference honors.

Belleville entered the week with a 15-7-2 mark and faced Kenedy yesterday on the road. The Bucs conclude its conference schedule with a game in Clifton tomorrow afternoon, starting at 4 p.m. The seedings for the state tournament were to be decided yesterday and Belleville should begin state play either late this week or early next week.

The Bucs stopped Montclair, Passaic and Nutley last week, but lost a critical conference game to Paterson Eastside and were defeated in the Greater Newark Tourney by Caldwell, 6-0.

Versus Eastside, Ralph La Conte's team started strong, but lost its offensive punch half way through the game. "We hit the ball right on the nose," the coach said, "but we couldn't get that big hit. They made the plays and deserve credit for that. It was a tough loss for us in the conference."

The Bucs lost, 5-3, after scoring three times in the first inning. Allan Ruopp and Joe Mullaney singled to start the game and John Auriemma drilled a three run homer to open a 3-0 lead. Mark Palumbo started for Belleville, but the junior, coming off a pulled groin, reinjured himself on the first pitch and came out in favor of Brian Tice. Tice gave up a two run homer in the first inning that cut Belleville's lead to 3-2.

Eastside tied the game at three in the fourth inning and took the lead for good in the fifth on a two run homer by the opposing pitcher. Tice left in favor of Lou Lu Cante, who finished the game, not allowing any runs.

Versus Montclair, Belleville came away with an 8-5 win, avenging an earlier 6-4 loss to the Mounties. Jim Dunphy started and went the distance to earn his fourth win against no losses. The sophomore struck out nine, walked five and allowed just six hits. The Belleville bats started quickly, scoring two runs in the first inning. Ruopp and Mullaney laney singled and Auriemma reached safely on an error. Dave Long then doubled home two runs and Belleville led, 2-0.

Montclair scored twice in the second and third innings without benefit of one hit. Dunphy walked a few batters and the Mounties used aggressive base running and sacrifice flies to take the lead, 4-2.

In the bottom of the fourth, Belleville scored six runs to regain the lead for good. The big blow in the uprise was a two run single by Mullaney and a three run homer by Long. On the day, Long drove home five runs to aid the Buccaneer cause.

Dunphy allowed one run in the sixth inning and Belleville came away a winner.

In the Passaic game, Belleville had to struggle against a stubborn opponent to win, 4-3. The Bucs trailed, 1-0 in the fourth inning when Mullaney and Auriemma drilled back to back homers. The Indians tied the game in the fourth and Belleville regained the lead, 4-2 in the sixth.

Auriemma singled, but he was erased when Long hit into a fielders choice. Mulhearn singled Long to second and Caponi singled to drive Long home. Lu Cante then hit a single to bring home Mulhearn and give Belleville a two run lead.

Passaic scored once in the seventh, but Tom Reid, in relief of starting pitcher Ruopp, held on to earn the save and preserve Belleville's 14th win of the year.

The Caldwell game was a rematch of an earlier contest when Caldwell won, 5-2. This time, Caldwell hurler Silvio Bonvini was too much for the Belleville bats, holding the potent Belleville offense to five hits and posting a shutout. The Chiefs were 6-0 winners and afterward, La Conte had nothing but praise for his opponent.

"Bonvini was excellent, I give him all the credit in the world. He kept us off balance all afternoon and deserved the win."

The victory elevates Caldwell into the semi finals of the Greater Newark tourney. They won the title in 1982, defeating Glen Ridge. Tom Reid was the losing pitcher for Belleville, pitching the entire game. It was 2-0 entering the sixth inning when Caldwell tallied a pair of runs in the final two frames to pull away.

Last Monday, the Bucs got back on the winning note in a big way, hauling Nutley, 10-0 in conference play. Dunphy was the winning pitcher, his fifth victory in as many tries. Ruopp and Mullaney paced the Belleville attack.

Rec Softball kicks off

The first week of action in the Belleville Recreation Men's Softball League took place last week with some heated battles.

Starting with the Monday "A" League, two teams are presently knotted at 2-0 in first place. Perennial power Suppa's Bar won victories over For Pete's Sake 12-4 and over J&R Insulation 13-1. League new comers NuPlus II got off to a good start as they earned two early season wins over J&R Insulation 14-1 and over Champion Bumpers 8-5. For Pete's Sake (1-1) also defeated Printing Techniques 4-3 while Printing Techniques (1-1) edged Champion Bumpers 2-1. Champion Bumpers and J&R Insulation are 0-2.

In the Tuesday "B" League, Megaro Memorial Home stands atop the standings with a 2-0 mark as they have beaten All Guard Insurance 14-7 and Guy's Auto Salvage 10-8. Roselli's Amoco (1-1) defeated Belleville Political and Social Club 5-1 but dropped a 6-0 decision to All Guard Insurance (1-1). Belleville's (1-1) topped Guy's Auto Salvage 15-3 but lost a squeaker to BPSC 7-6. Belleville Political and Social Club is (1-1) and Guy's Auto Salvage is 0-2.

Game results in first week action of the Wednesday "A" League were: Eastern Molding 8 - Rosmore Pharmacy 6; DeLorenzo Construction 14 - Quick Copy 6; De Bacco's 16 - Michaels Roscomom House 2. The Thursday "B" League got rained out on opening day so results from second week action will appear in next week's edition.

The Belleville entry in the seventh-eighth grade girls Suburban Softball League ran their record to 4-0 last week with big victories over Cedar Grove and Livingston. Belleville defeated Cedar Grove 22-6 in their home opener under the lights at the little league field. The girls scored nine runs in the first inning and coasted to victory. The big hit in the inning was a two run single by Jennifer Bridge. A 12 run fourth inning led the game for the home squad. Stacy Johansen allowed no hits in the game while striking ing out 12 batters in seven innings pitched. Cheri Valsee saved the no-hitter by snagging a pop fly to short left field in the third inning.

Last Tuesday night, the Livingston Lancers came to town and were routed by the Buccanettes 20-4. Kellie McNamara, pitching her first game for the girls, hurled a complete game. After flirting with a no-hitter for five innings, Kellie settled for a six-hitter while showing excellent control. With the entire squad seeing action for the third time in four games, the team rapped out 19 hits. Laurie Dondarski led the offense with four hits while Jennifer Bridge and Diane DiVicenzo, two promising seventh graders, had two hits each. Joyce Burke and Mary Gibbons played well defensively.

Last Friday the team traveled to South Orange, and on Mother's Day Sunday entertained Springfield. This past Tuesday, the girls were home for a game with West Caldwell and tonight will be at Booth Park in Nutley to face the Nutley squad.

Pet of the Week

Please be sure to put your name and the pet's on the back of the photo.

Sorry, photos cannot be returned unless accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Nicholas Alexander Chase (Nikki)

My name is Nicholas Alexander Chase. I am a Shih-Tzu who was born on May 9, 1984. I am owned by Christopher Reid of Nutley and am his first dog.

My ancestors are originally from Tibet, where they were considered sacred dogs because they guarded the temples and the Royal Palace. I, like most of my breed, love people, especially children.

The first day I saw Chris, I ran up to him and untied his shoe laces. Ever since that day, we have been the best of friends. Mrs. Reid, Chris' mother, was afraid of me for the first couple of weeks. I did not help her fears when I chased her into the pantry. But now she's not as afraid.

On warm days, I like to lie on the window sill and watch the outside world. When I'm good, I get a bowl of milk, or some of my favorite treat, cottage cheese. In the winter, I love wearing my sweater. When asked to go for a walk, I run to get it and Chris helps me put it on. I love the snow, but I'm so short that I sometimes get stuck and must be carried. Steps are another problem because of my size. I must be carried up and down them.

On my first birthday, I had a party with Chris' relatives. They bought me so many snacks that I may need to go on a diet. I got so tired from the excitement and opening all the presents that I went to sleep early. I slept most of the next day as well.

I love excitement and am proud to be the first Pet of the Week.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Mugila and Paul N. De Mula

Mr. G. of Belleville asks: "I had a root canal done and my dentist wants to crown it. Why can't I have him just fill it?"

Mr. G. the fact that you decided to keep your tooth and have a root canal rather than extract it shows that you are concerned about good oral health. Well done! In many instances, especially a back tooth, a root canal tooth will fracture if only a filling is put in. That's because a root canal tooth cannot resist shearing forces during chewing as well as a non-root canal tooth. A crown affords the tooth 360 degrees of protection, the kind of protection that's required during chewing. We've seen too often root canal teeth that just had a filling and subsequently within 1 or 2 years cracked so badly that it needed to be extracted. If you make the decision to keep your tooth in the first place (the right choice) then follow your dentist's advice to maintain oral health.

Mental health award to John Kelly

The Board of Trustees of Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Nutley, and Bloomfield presented its first annual Mental Health Award to John V. Kelly, president of Nutley Savings and Loan Association, at a dinner May 10, at the Chandelier, Belleville.

Guests present to honor him included Senator Carmen Orechio, Assemblyman A.J. (Buddy) Fortunato, Essex County Sheriff Thomas D'Alessio, Nutley Police Chief Sal Dimichino, agency staff and board members, and numerous friends and associates of Kelly.

Kelly, a former New Jersey Assemblyman, was selected to be the first recipient of the Community Mental Health Services Award for his continued interest and support of mental health agencies and programs in the community. In honoring Kelly, his many achievements and contributions as a private citizen, public official, and business and community leader were noted.

Assemblyman Fortunato read a proclamation passed by the New Jersey Assembly recognizing Kelly's outstanding contributions to mental health. The agency award was presented to Kelly by William Wood of Nutley, President of the Board of Community Mental Health Services. In her remarks to guests at the dinner, agency director, Alice Ricci, highlighted some of the landmarks in the agency's 27 year history and emphasized its commitment to meeting the mental health needs of the communities it serves through both preventive and treatment programs.

Senate bills would require health insurance companies to cover drug abuse treatment

A Senate committee released a package of bills that would require health insurance companies to include coverage for drug abuse treatment in all policies.

The five-bill package, sponsored by Senate President Carmen A. Orechio, D-Essex, would require all insurance contracts for hospital or medical expense benefits to provide coverage for drug abuse treatment in a licensed hospital or state-approved narcotic treatment center.

The legislation has been modeled after a 1977 law requiring coverage for the treatment of alcoholism in individual and group health insurance policies and Blue Cross and Blue Shield contracts.

"Mandatory insurance coverage for alcoholism treatment was adopted because medical authorities believe alcoholism is a disease," Senator Orechio said.

"Drug abuse is also a disease that causes other costly medical and social problems," he added. "Therefore, treatment for drug addiction should be a medical expense covered by health insurance policies."

The five bills will affect policies written by Blue Cross, Blue Shield, commercial group insurers, commercial individual insurers and health maintenance organizations. The legislation limits the coverage for drug abuse treatment to a maximum of two lifetime episodes of drug abuse for each person covered under the contract.

Currently, most private health insurance reimbursement for drug abuse treatment has been limited generally to treatment given in hospitals on an inpatient basis. However, the less expensive treatment available at drug treatment centers is not covered.

Senator Orechio pointed out mandatory coverage for drug abuse treatment will, in the long run, be cost beneficial for insurers because addicts will no longer need other costly medical services for illnesses stemming from their drug abuse problems.

Among the groups testifying in favor of the legislation Wednesday were: The New Jersey Association for the Prevention & Treatment of Substance Abuse, The New Jersey Association for Children, and State Department of Health and the New Jersey Medical Association.

Law committee has prepared new pamphlet

The Law Day '85 committee of the Essex County Bar Association has prepared a pamphlet that explains the services of the Essex County Crime Victim Witness program.

The program was established in 1982 to protect the rights of crime victims and witnesses and to serve as a clearinghouse for information on the services and compensation available to them.

Tony Malanga and Lorraine Armenti served as co-chairs of the committee. Malanga is with the Belleville law firm of Gaccione, Pomaco, Beck and Zampino and Ms. Armenti is with the Newark law firm of Tompkins, McGuire and Wachenfeld.

One free copy of the pamphlet will be mailed to county residents who send a self-addressed stamped envelope to: The Essex County Bar Association, 24 Commerce Street, Newark, N.J. 07102. Additional copies are available at a nominal charge which includes postage costs.

Shapiro, Greco announce beginning of office paper recycling program

County Executive Peter Shapiro and Freeholder President Jerome D. Greco today announced the beginning of an office paper recycling program for the county courthouse complex in Newark.

Shapiro and Greco planted a tree in a courtyard adjoining the Hall of Records symbolizing the fact that an average office worker can recycle enough paper each year to save one tree.

On an yearly basis, the county expects to recover 52 tons a year, enough to save 884 trees. The county also expects to generate $4,500 in income during the first year of recycling while avoiding $1,000 in disposal costs.

Training sessions began today for selected employees responsible for coordinating the recycling program in their offices. The goal of the program, Shapiro said, is to involve some 1,300 employees at the Hall of Records and County Courts Building in recycling.

"High-grade office paper is not garbage," said Shapiro. "It is a valuable resource which should be recovered and recycled. This program will give county employees concerned about the environment the chance to participate in a recycling program."

"Paper recovery will help to develop a recycling and conservation ethic among county employees," added Greco. The freeholder noted that all municipalities in Essex County will soon have to develop recycling programs in anticipation of the 1987 opening of Essex County's resource recovery plant, which will not accept material which can be recycled.

"It's important that we in the county government set an example by reducing the waste stream to that plant through a model recycling program in our institutions," said Greco.

Greco added that once the office paper recycling program is established at the county courthouse complex, he would like to see it expanded to include newspapers and involve all county institutions.

Shapiro noted that an average office worker discards about one half pound of paper per day or 125 pounds of paper per year, which is enough to save one tree. One ton of recycled paper - the amount the county expects to recycle each week - is enough to save 17 trees, according to Shapiro.

The recycling program will work this way:

1. Each employee saves discarded white paper in a specially-designated folder on his or her desk.
2. When full, employees empty these folders into centrally located bins.
3. Paper from these bins is stored until sold to a scrap paper dealer.
4. The scrap paper dealer bales the paper and ships it to a paper mill for remanufacture into new paper products.

The recycling program is a cooperative effort of the Division of Solid Waste Management and the Division of Buildings and Grounds. The county has contracted with the Hackensack Paper Co. of Jersey City to pick up and remove the paper each week.

Shapiro noted that the recycling program has received the enthusiastic endorsement of Assignment Judge Nicholas Scalera, Prosecutor George Schneider, Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alessio, Surrogate Nicholas R. Amato, Register Larrie West Stalks and County Clerk Nicholas V. Caputo, all of whom have offices at the courthouse complex. "But in order to be really successful," Shapiro said, "this program will require the cooperation of each office worker who realizes that he or she can recycle enough paper each year to save a tree."

Welcome, new businesses!

Conservation - Essex County Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alessio of Nutley (right) joins County Executive Peter Shapiro in planting a tree to mark the beginning of an office paper recycling program at the Sheriff's Office and other offices at the county courthouse complex in Newark. The tree is meant to symbolize the fact that the average office worker discards enough paper each year to save a tree.

Clay will continue fight to lower budget

Essex County Freeholder Arthur L. Clay stated recently that the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders has eliminated a procedural meeting which usually resulted in a lowering of the County Budget and a savings to the hard pressed taxpayer. Clay said the following are some of the demands he would have made at that meeting if it were held and insisted he would continue to fight for a lower County Budget.

Clay noted the following conditions which resulted in higher costs and asked that the Board of Freeholders consider them before the final vote. "I would like to point out the department requests for budgeted salaries include both raises and bonuses which, in most instances, total over 10%. This amount is twice the normal cost of living increase that is given by our local municipalities. A change in this item alone would reduce the Budget significantly," said Clay.

"This budget allows for discretionary grants to groups who are already funded by the County, while such groups as the Teen Arts who serve thousands of our youth have been summarily eliminated this year."

"I have noticed in the past that the give and take of a special Freeholder meeting after the department budget hearings have concluded and before the final budget vote has always resulted in benefits for the County taxpayers. I recall particularly that, following some of the departmental budget hearings held this year, other Freeholders and myself had expressed a desire to cut in certain areas, for example, the County Council's office. I believe lack of this customary Freeholder meeting to give our final input eliminated that possibility," said Clay.

"I must insist that this Board continue this necessary procedure now and in the future. What we have done, in effect, is the same as going through a trial by jury and leaving the verdict to be decided by the court stenographer."

Library offers best sellers

The Belleville Public Library offers a variety of best sellers.

Among the fiction hardcover best sellers are "Thinner" by Richard Bachman, in which a young lawyer finds his body wasting away mysteriously. In "If Tomorrow Comes" by Sidney Sheldon, a young woman destroys the crime lords who get her an undesired prison term, while in "The Lonely Silver Rain" by John D. MacDonald, a yacht's disappearance, and a debutante's murder must be solved by Travis McGee in order to save his life.

In "Family Album" by Danielle Steel, a married couple with five children cope with the crisis of modern America, whereas in "The Hunt for Red October" by Tom Clancy, a Lithuanian submarine driver defects to the United States with the Soviet Union's most advanced nuclear secrets. In "Proof" by Dick Francis, a young wine merchant gets caught in a scam involving murder and vengeance.

"Glitz" by Elmore Leonard deals with the escapades, romantic and melodramatic, of a cop on the lam after a murder in Miami.

Commissioners reject blight proposal; approve $10-million municipal complex

would not hesitate to blight certain areas of the avenue in the future, detailed a plan for a new municipal complex on Washington Avenue. After taking their vote on the blight proposal, commissioners unanimously approved a $10 million proposal for the building's construction.

"We've been doing our homework," he said. "We've been talking about a three-story project in the parking lot next to town hall where we can incorporate a police headquarters and all of the township departments."

Marotti said commissioners have even talked with the school board to see if it might be interested in moving into the complex. He said if a person had to go to town hall for one thing, he can stop off at one of the other offices at the same time.

The Belleville Redevelopment Agency (BRA), which was praised by some of the other commissioners as well, held a press conference Wednesday night airing its views against the commissioners' decision.

"To paint or brick a few Washington Avenue fronts would not give us the additional commercial space and parking needed to spur the economic growth of the avenue," Joseph Dasaro, BRA member, said. "Our proposed approach (blight) would have put an end to the urban decay that has been allowed to flourish on the avenue."

Dasaro also said, on behalf of the BRA, that the commissioners' decision to construct a new municipal complex has demonstrated their intent to see the avenue redeveloped and revitalized. He added that this proposal is only Phase I of the entire redevelopment project for the avenue.

"It has been documented that a business community always gravitates toward a strong municipal center," Dasaro said in a telephone interview. "This phase will prove to be a catalyst for the rest of the redevelopment process."

Dasaro also said that the BRA presented a proposal to the board of commissioners a few weeks ago detailing a project whereby the school board complex (formerly School 1) would be used for relocation.

"If that land could be redeveloped, we could keep people in town if they were to be relocated from the avenue and even move them into newer-type housing," he said.

"The BRA is more optimistic now," he continued. "Each commissioner reaffirmed his commitment to redevelopment. They want to see developers come in, but with firm proposals and funding. If they do, the commissioners will accept blight."

In its statement, the BRA said that the approach to the problem of Washington Avenue has never been a case of one group winning or losing.

"The BRA has always viewed the Township of Belleville to be the spotlighted winner as a result of our success," Dasaro said. "That attitude has been and still remains the mainstay of our commitment."

One other group that believes Belleville is the true winner as a result of the commissioners' decision is the Belleville Revitalization Committee.

"Their decision is putting the township in the right direction," Louis Cienia, committee co-chairman, said. "Their proposal for a new municipal complex is a stimulant for the rest of the business center."

Cienia said, however, that the committee wants to see the commissioners get tough with property owners who do not fix up their property. He also said that the committee will propose to commissioners that they appoint an ad hoc committee of revitalization committee members and perhaps BRA members.

"We're at first base now," Cienia said, "but we have to get to second. The ad hoc committee would get us there. It will enable our committee members to take on a more important role in the avenue's development. We want to continue to work toward the completion of the redevelopment issue."

"The business center links the whole township together," he continued. "Belleville is definitely on the up."

"The Lyndhurst Diner"

540 Riverside Avenue, Lyndhurst
933-7660

By Lisa Grimaldi

The Avondale De Jessa Bridge reopened, and fans of the Lyndhurst Diner will be pleased to know that the popular eatery has maintained its fine quality food and reasonable prices during the bridges two year closing.

For those who aren't familiar with the Lyndhurst, please don't think that its like any other truck-stop diner. The entrees prepared here rival those of many fine restaurants. There are over 100 dinner items, which are cooked to order, any time of day or night.

All meals are accompanied by the Diner's superior salad bar. This bountiful selection includes unusual items such as delicious home-made stuffed grape leaves, feta cheese, assorted beans, seafood salad, coleslaw, potato salad, and Italian olive salad, as well as lettuce and fresh vegetables. It's a substantial meal in itself, and can be ordered alone as a main course.

A basket of assorted warm, fresh rolls is placed on the table as soon as the customers arrive.

The selection of entrees is astounding: poultry, beef, veal, many varieties of fish and seafood, pork, Italian specialties, and daily chef's specials are all available.

I sampled the stuffed calamari with spaghetti, and it was delicious! The tomato sauce it was served in was just hot and spicy enough (it is also available with a sweet sauce). The calamari was tender and fresh, and the breadcrumb stuffing was very flavorful.

My dinner companion tried the reuben sandwich, which was served open-faced. It was piled high with lean corned beef and had a thick cover of melted swiss cheese. My companion, a connoisseur of reuben sandwiches, pronounced it "great".

We ended our meal with a generous bowl of fresh fruit salad, which was full of ripe seasonal fruits. On another occasion, we sampled the rice pudding, which was out of this world, and the fresh strawberry cheesecake, which was heavenly. All the baking is done on the premises, by the diner's own baker.

The waitresses and waiter were all very affable, and their service was prompt and cheerful. John Sakellaris, the friendly owner is often on hand to greet diners, and have a chat with them.

The diner's menu also has full breakfasts which are available any time, and there is a special luncheon menu. Salads and sandwiches are also available anytime, as well as desserts.

The Lyndhurst Diner is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It is located on 540 Riverside Avenue, Lyndhurst, just across the Passaic River from Nutley, via the Avondale De Jessa Bridge.
