Board approves course offerings

The Belleville Board of Education approved educational programs and/or course offerings for the 1985-86 school year at its meeting Monday night.

Educational programs offered in grades K-6 include: language arts/reading; mathematics; spelling; penmanship; social studies; science; art; library skills; music; physical education; health; family living; supplemental instruction program; and special services program.

Course offerings for the middle and high schools are listed in the schools' respective handbooks.

Matters in Brief

Training offered for food handlers

The Belleville Health Department will conduct a training course for all food handlers who work in Belleville on Thursday, Sept. 26, 7-9 p.m. at the Department of Public Affairs, 383 Washington Ave.

The program will cover the latest methods and techniques developed to achieve required levels of sanitation in food establishments, Thomas J. Longo, health officer, said.

Participants will hear from experts in the field and will be given materials to which they can refer. A question and answer period will follow the presentations.

Everyone who attends will receive a certificate which may be displayed in their respective establishments.

To register, write Longo at the health department or call him at 450-3389. A fee of $4 will be charged for each participant.

No votes taken at zoning meeting

The Belleville Zoning Board met last Tuesday, but no votes were taken because only five of the seven board members were present.

Among the items on the agenda were several applications for construction of apartment buildings.

The Riverside at Belleville, Inc. requested permission to build four three-story apartments at 309-319 Main St. The buildings would consist of 32 apartments.

Frank M. Leo proposed to construct three townhouses at 178-184 William St. The structures would be two-and-a-half stories high.

Another set of multi-family dwellings were proposed by Jens Hansen. The proposed structure, on the site of 119-121 Ralph St., is a two-story residential retail buildings, consisting of two four-room apartments on the second floor and a retail tailor shop on the first floor.

The next zoning board meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 17.

Speakers discuss variety of topics

Speakers on a variety of subjects are available at no charge through the Essex County Speakers Bureau, according to County Executive Peter Shapiro.

Brochures listing the speakers available and the topics they cover are available free by writing or calling the Essex County Office of Public Information, Room 431, Hall of Records, Newark, N.J., 07102, 621-4440.

Speakers can address such topical concerns as child support enforcement, consumer rights, alcoholism, battered women, services for senior citizens, garbage disposal and economic development.

The speakers are county officials who are well versed in public speaking and knowledgeable about the topics they address. The county executive and members of the Board of Chosen Freeholders are also available for speaking engagements.

Arts resource directory available

The eighth edition of the Arts in Education Resource Directory, published by The Arts Council of the Essex Area, is available.

Completely revised and updated, the directory lists more than 250 assembly programs, lectures, workshops and residencies that are appropriate for school-age audiences. It lists contact names, telephones, addresses, program descriptions and fees.

The cost of the directory is $5 for members of the Arts Council and $6 for non-members, plus $1.50 per copy for postage and handling.

To order a copy, send a check payable to The Arts Council of the Essex Area to Arts Council of the Essex Area, Montclair State College, Life Hall, Room 221, Upper Montclair, N.J., 07043. For further information, call 744-1717.

Performing His Duty - School board attorney Lawrence Schwartz, left, responds to a question during the board's meeting Monday night. A majority of the board members say the reason the figure paid to Schwartz's law firm is so high is because he is just doing what the board asks him to do.

Residents still argue board's lawyer fees

By Michelle Jeannotte

The Belleville Board of Education's legal fees were once again the main issue at its meeting Monday night.

In discussing the $95,228.50 lawyers' fees, Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, board president, said that he had received a letter from Thomas Spillane requesting all expenses incurred by the law firm of Schwartz, Pisano & Simon, including medical expenses, insurance and negotiations.

D'Agostino also said that the contract for the law firm had been renewed for the 1985-86 school year and said that members of the board should be commended for making a "very conscientious" decision.

Although D'Agostino and the majority of the board members was content with the legal fees paid to the Schwartz's law firm, residents in the audience were still not satisfied. Residents say they are not questioning the ability of Schwartz and his law firm, only that they are concerned the legal fees are too high.

"If you take the figure of $95,228.50 and divide it, it comes out to six straight months of 40 hours a week," Richard Yanuzzi of Greylock Parkway said.

However, board member Phil Linfante said that Schwartz works on a 13-month basis. Therefore, the hours spent in one week are 19 and not 40.

First DeWitt marks 100th anniversary

Henrik Tvedt, president of First DeWitt Savings and Loan of Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Hopatcong, Parsippany and Bricktown, has announced the celebration of the association's 100th anniversary.

Activities in connection with the event start this month and will continue throughout the month at all 10 offices, Mr. Tvedt said.

"First DeWitt Savings," Mr. Tvedt said, "started operations on Sept. 13, 1885, in Bloomfield, and has paid uninterrupted dividends in every one of the 100 years since its founding. In all those years it has never lost a cent for any of its depositors despite wars, panics and depressions. This association has survived six wars, the Great Depression, and financial panics, and has grown in strength, stability, security and service."

The institution started out as the Bloomfield Building & Loan Association with offices at 285 Glenwood Ave., Bloomfield. Subsequently the association merged into The First State Savings, and in 1976, DeWitt Savings of Belleville and First State merged to become First DeWitt Savings and Loan. Mr. Tvedt continued as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Colorful Background

It was an interesting and colorful period that set the background for the founding of the tiny savings association. On the national scene, a local man occupied the White House - Grover Cleveland of Caldwell, Queen Victoria was in the 48th year of her reign. The Brooklyn Bridge had just recently opened to horse-drawn commuters from Flatbush and the first electric street railway began operation in Baltimore.

Mark Twain's publishing firm was successfully marketing Ulysses Grant's Personal Memoir to cover ruinous debts incurred by the general in the panic of 1894. Geronimo, the Apache Indian, was terrorizing the West while desperadoes still robbed trains of the western railroad complex owned by Jay Gould, one of the "Robber

Three salaries increased

Salary ordinance receives approval

An ordinance increasing the salaries of three Belleville employees was approved, 4-1, by the board of commissioners at its meeting Tuesday night.

Opposing the ordinance was Department of Public Affairs Commissioner Michael Pizzi.

The ordinance, introduced by Mayor Michael V. Marotti at the board's August meeting, gives salary raises to the township's construction code official, superintendent of recreation maintenance and superintendent of recreation. All are positions which fall under the Department of Parks and Property, of which Marotti is commissioner.

Salaries for Robert Domenick, construction code official, Tony Caruso, superintendent of recreation maintenance, and Dennis Buckley, superintendent of recreation, increase approximately $3,000-$4,000.

The maximum salary for the construction code official increased from $33,542 to $36,547 and from $30,563 to $34,196 for both the superintendent of recreation maintenance and the superintendent of recreation.

All three, along with all township employees, were granted 7 percent salary increases in March. However, Mayor Marotti said that the increases were still not equal to the salaries given to supervisors in other township departments. "At the time of the salary ordinance, there were different salaries for the same positions in all the departments," Mayor Marotti said. "We (commissioners) discussed it and decided to just go with the 7 percent increases. However, they still weren't given the same as other supervisors in other departments. The commissioners decided to bring in individual ordinances for increases and I waited six months for them to

Student gets letter from the President

By Michelle Jeannotte

A fourth grader at School 4 recently received a thank you letter in the mail. The letter was not your typical note of thanks, but rather a special thank you from the President of the United States.

Maria Perez of Belmont Avenue received the letter in August, only weeks after sending get well wishes to President Ronald Reagan, who was recovering from surgery.

Maria, along with classmates attending a summer program at School 4, wrote the letter after her teacher mentioned President Reagan's illness to the class.

"I wrote 'Dear President Reagan,'" Maria said. "I heard that you were very sick and I feel very sad because you are like a part of my family. I hope you get well soon."

"I think I got a letter from him because I wrote 'dear,'" she said softly. "I was very surprised to get the letter."

In the letter, President Reagan thanked Maria for the get well message and said that it brightened his day.

"Mrs. Reagan and I believe that God has blessed us with friends of all ages," the letter stated. "Thank you for taking the time to let me know you are my friend. Your kindness is the tonic I needed."

The letter from President Reagan has brought Maria somewhat of a celebrity status around School 4 and in Belleville. She recently appeared on Channel 7 Eyewitness News as well as Channel 41, a Spanish channel on cable.

Maria, who is the daughter of Ramiro and Maria Perez and

Candidates express concerns in debate

By Karen A. Lynch

The four candidates for the state General Assembly's 30th District discussed a variety of issues, ranging from use of funds to controlling taxes, in a debate last Thursday night in Bloomfield.

The candidates—Democratic incumbents Buddy Fortunato and Stephen Aduabuto Jr. and Republican challengers John W. Kelly of Nutley and Marion Crecco of Bloomfield—were each allotted five minutes to speak about their achievements and goals. A set of questions prepared by the Bloomfield Taxpayers Association, which sponsored the debate, was followed by inquiries from the audience of about 60.

Fortunato opened the session by recognizing distinguished members of the audience, including Mayor John W. Kinder, Freeholder Art Clay, former state Assemblyman Carl

Provident Savings Bank offers zero coupon certificates (CDs)

A zero coupon certificate of deposit (CD), called the "pusycat," is being introduced in New Jersey by the Provident Savings Bank of Jersey City.

"As innovative bankers, we at the Provident believe our customers should have the opportunity of investing in zero CDs, which like regular CDs carry insurance from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. and we believe they should be able to do so without having to pay the broker fees and commissions attached to zero bonds," Kenneth F. X. Albers, Provident chairman, said.

The Provident is issuing its zero CDs for periods of from five to 10 years, with maturity values of from $3,000 to $10,000, Albers said.

As an example, a deposit of $3,670 for 10 years, based on an annual rate of 10 percent for all of that period, would have a maturity value of $10,000, he said.

Interest on zero CDs is subject of yearly taxation unless the instrument is designated for a retirement account such as an IRA or Keogh.

"Don't overlook the ordinary of just saving for a rainy day of your own," Albers said. "By putting away a relatively modest sum now into a zero CD such as ours give you a high current return. You can do a lot better than with any ordinary savings account."

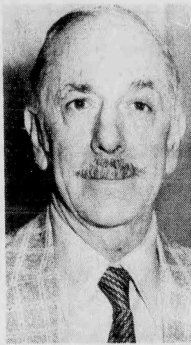

Albers said that zero CDs are ideal for custodial accounts to be used for future projects as a child's college education, a vacation home, supplemental retirement income or a daughter's wedding.

Early withdrawal of a zero CD is subject to penalties.

James Devine appointed to CPA tax subcommittee

James P. Devine, C.P.A., was recently appointed to the tax determination subcommittee of the tax division of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and was also appointed vice president, professional development, for the Morris-Essex Chapter of the National Association of Accountants (NAA).

The AICPA is the national professional organization serving a membership of 235,000 C.P.A.s in private practice, industry, government and education.

Receives Certificate - Joseph Fornarotto, Jr. of Belleville was recently presented a Certificate of Appreciation from the Sgt. James W. Hennessey Auxiliary to Post 712 Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States for his patriotic flag display honoring the American hostages held in Beirut.

Yoon Suh promoted to product manager

Yoon Suh of Belleville has been promoted to product manager at Goldstar Electronics International, announced Young J. Kim, president.

Mr. Suh will supervise Goldstar's black-and-white and color television lines, creating strategic plans for the product category and also oversee the company's management information systems.

For nine months prior to his appointment, Mr. Suh was a market research analyst with the company.

Before moving from South Korea to the United States in 1982, Mr. Suh was an intern at the Bankers Trust Company and an assistant manager of the Korea Exchange Bank, both in Seoul.

A graduate of Seoul National University, he earned an MBA degree in 1985 from Harvard Business School, where he was president of the Harvard Korean Association.

Mr. Suh and his wife, Ku-Oh, have two children.

COFFEE AND WHEEZING
As far back as 125 years ago, doctors noted that strong coffee was a remedy for asthma. Now, a Canadian study verifies that the caffeine in two cups of strong coffee can significantly relieve asthma symptoms in young patients with chronic cases. Caffeine was found to be as effective as theophylline, a standard prescription asthma medication. The researchers were quick to point out, however, that caffeine is not a replacement for theophylline or a remedy for older patients. Caffeine works for children because their bodies easily break it down into theophylline. Adults have a harder time. Caffeine may be viewed as a temporary alternative for chronically asthmatic children when their prescribed medication is not readily available.

All types of prescription medications are readily available at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. Free delivery is provided. "Your Doctor Knows Us-Your Doctor Trusts Us." We handle transdermal patches, Times watches, Russell Stover candies and many other items. Hours: Daily 9 am-10 pm, Sun. 9 am-9 pm.

Belleville motorists are reminded of law as non-users of seat belts are summoned

By Kara Laczynski
Belleville motorists are getting used to the mandatory seat belt law, while others have received some not-so-gentle reminders.

Forty seat belt summonses have been issued by Belleville Police since the law was enacted on March 1 of this year, according to Captain Robert Russomano.

Non-compliance with the law is a secondary offense, so police cannot issue a summons unless the motorist has been stopped for another violation. The fine for not wearing a seat belt is $20.

"People are forced to think about car safety and that is the greatest advantage of the law," Capt. Russomano said. He added that most people wear seat belts now.

But the degree to which seat belts have saved lives or reduced injuries is unknown, he said.

"We have no way of estimating the effect of seat belt use on injuries," he said. "The number of reported accidents is roughly the same as it was last year at this time."

Approximately 800 accidents are reported yearly in Belleville, Capt. Russomano said.

According to the law, all front seat car passengers over the age of 5 are required to wear safety belts. The driver is legally responsible for children under the age of 18. Passengers over 18 are responsible for themselves and may be given summonses.

Those exempt from the law include front seat passengers in cars manufactured before July 1, 1966 when safety belts were first used in this country; people with medical excuses; and rural letter carriers while delivering mail.

Children between the ages of 18 months and 5 years must be secured in car seats in the front seat and must wear belts in the rear seat.

rear seat.

If the number of children under age 5 exceeds the number of safety belts available, the unbelted children must ride in the rear seat.

The section of the law governing children under 5 has been in effect since April 7, 1983. Thirteen of the summonses given out this year were for violations of this section.

Rosh Hashanah celebrated next week

By Kara Laczynski

The Jewish population of Belleville will ring in the year 5746 during Rosh Hashanah next week at Congregation Ahavath Achim, 125 Academy St.

Rosh Hashanah will be celebrated the first two days of the seventh Jewish month, Tishri, or from sundown Sunday, Sept. 15, to sundown Tuesday, Sept. 17.

On this joyous holiday, Jews celebrate the birth of creation from which time they count the years. A ram's horn or shofar is blown to sound the new year and to celebrate Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son, Isaac, to God, who intervened and accepted instead the sacrifice of a ram. God then sounded one of the ram's horns on Mount Sinai.

At home, Jews celebrate the new year with large, sumptuous meals to insure an abundant year. Sweets such as teiglach and honey-dipped apples are eaten in the hope of a sweet year and challah bread, usually made in an oblong, braided shape, is baked to symbolize the desire for a full, round year.

Jews also journey to a live body of water to figuratively cast away the sins of the old year into the sea.

Services are scheduled at Congregation Ahavath Achim for Sept. 15 at 6:30 p.m.; Sept. 16 at 8:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.; and Sept. 17 at 8:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rabbi Nathan Laufer and Cantor Kenneth Simkus will conduct the services.

Vandalism continues at Clearman Field

By Michelle Jeannotte

The most recent act of vandalism to strike the Township of Belleville occurred at Clearman Field only a few days before the beginning of the new school year.

Broken beer bottles and spray-painted graffiti were seen all along the stands and the walls, both inside and out of the Clearman Field two weeks ago.

"Every Monday, it's just atrocious," Superintendent of schools Michael Nardiello said. "We send someone to clean it up every day."

The latest incident of vandalism seemed to have a new twist to it, however. One of the cement columns had been broken away during the weekend.

"Someone had to put a chain around it and pull it with a vehicle," Nardiello said. "It's just something you can't do with your hands. What I don't understand is how the neighbors across the street (Holmes) did not hear anything."

When the school grounds crew discovered the broken column, Nardiello called the police and asked them to put a heavier patrol along the Clearman Field area.

Gates to Clearman Field are never closed, so access to the field is always available. Even if the gates were closed, Nardiello said, they (kids) would find a way to get in.

"Graffiti is a problem all over Belleville," he said. "However, the greatest problem of graffiti is found on school property. It's costing us and the taxpayers money."

Any resident who wishes to report an incident of vandalism, contact Nardiello at 751-7242. All calls will be kept confidential.

First DeWitt Savings Celebrates 100th Year

One hundred years ago this week, the board of directors of the First DeWitt Savings & Loan predecessor held its first meeting. It started out as the Bloomfield Savings & Loan Association, merged into the First State Savings, and in 1976, DeWitt Savings of Belleville and First State merged to become First DeWitt Savings & Loan.

During these past one hundred years, First DeWitt Savings has compiled an enviable record. It has paid uninterrupted dividends in every one of its one hundred years since its founding. Throughout its one hundred years, it has never lost a penny for any of its depositors despite experiencing the world's greatest wars, the world's greatest depressions and the world's greatest financial panics. Indeed, First DeWitt has used its one hundred years to grow in "strength, stability, security and service." Under the leadership of its president, Henrik Tvedt, First DeWitt Savings & Loan is considered one of the strongest, most successful financial institutions of its size in the state of New Jersey.

From its humble origins, First DeWitt Savings now consists of more than ten offices all located in this region, with the main office at 463 Washington Avenue, Belleville.

Mr. Tvedt, president and chief executive officer for the past twenty-four years, exemplifies the public service and commitment of the entire board of directors. Former president of the Garden State Chapter of the American Savings and Loan Institute, Mr. Tvedt is also a past president of the Essex County Savings & Loan League. Most recently, Mr. Tvedt served as a member of the board of governors of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board in New York City.

His dedication to civic affairs is highlighted by his service to the Boy Scouts of America. Not too long ago, Mr. Tvedt was honored as a distinguished citizen by the Tamarack Council Boy Scouts for his outstanding history of service to his profession, to the community and to Scouting.

We are tempted to wish the First DeWitt Savings & Loan another one hundred years of stability and success—but then, in the words of an old friend, why limit the work of the Lord?—so, to Mr. Tvedt and his colleagues, we extend our congratulations upon achieving a milestone in the history of a fine community citizen. Now is the opportunity to say thanks to First DeWitt Savings & Loan for the civic contributions its leaders have made to our community throughout the years of its existence.

Pet Grave Abuse

What happens when your trust is betrayed? Have you ever had the experience?

This is about a family pet. The Blairstown Pet Cemetery is a facility available to pet owners whose pets have died and the owners are interested in a dignified burial or cremation for what many of us perceive as a family member.

Recently, it was discovered that the Blairstown Pet Cemetery owner dumped bodies of hundreds of dog and cat carcasses in a trench which according to authorities were to be either cremated or buried in individual graves. Police authorities suggest that other trenches covered over with dirt may also exist on the 137-acre plot. The revelations of the alleged fraud perpetuated upon pet owners by the Blairstown Pet Cemetery people has led to traumatic experiences by the owners who thought their pets were either cremated or buried in a single grave. For many among us, the love of our pets is the most important part of our life. Betrayed by a merciless greedy businessman, pet owners are up in the air over the apparent fraud, wondering if their pets were among those piled up in the trench.

This week, Senate President Carmen Orecchio introduced legislation calling for jail terms of up to eighteen months for pet cemetery operators who fail to provide for the promised cremations or burials for pets. Outraged over the apparent behavior of the Blairstown Pet Cemetery owner, Senator Orecchio stated "There should be swift and certain punishment for those who would violate a public trust out of greed and particularly for those who would deceive a bereaved pet owner." We hope his bill becomes law without delay — and that the jail sentence applies to the owners of the Blairstown Pet Cemetery — if they are guilty.

For those of us who sent the bodies of our pets to Blairstown Pet Cemetery for cremation, we received an urn in the mail; but how sure are we that the urn contains the remains of our pet? One goes to sleep nights wondering whether or not the family pet is to be found with hundreds of other pets in plastic bags in an open trench. It is a gruesome sight to behold — one that gives a pet owner no peace of mind and a troubled heart.

Resident offers suggestions to curtail board's legal fees

To the editor:

This letter is in response to the Aug. 29 editorial concerning the Belleville Board of Education legal fees.

The figure is not $80,000 which was described as "a lot of money." The figure is not even the astronomical sum of $81,500, which the board thought it spent. The figure is not even the outrageous sum of $90,000 which civic leader Jackie Rega thought the board spent. It was actually the obscene amount of $95,288.50 that the Belleville Board of Education paid for legal expenses last year.

The board recently signed another contract with a $5 per hour increase with the same firm. Without any other action by the board, we can expect legal expenses to run well over $100,000 this year. And if that happens, the outraged citizenry is liable to tar and feather the hapless board.

In order to avoid this unfortunate result, the board will have to take some positive steps to avoid further catastrophic legal bills. There are some very positive steps that the board can take. I would suggest that the board take the following steps:

1. Limit the board personnel allowed to contract the attorney on board business to the superintendent, assistant superintendent and the school business administrator.
2. Require board employees to log all contracts with the office of the board attorney, copies of which should be submitted on a weekly basis.
3. Discuss in detail at public meetings bills submitted by the board attorney.
4. Have all contract negotiations conducted by board members and employees during this crisis period instead of by the board attorney.

5. The board should open up the position of board attorney to all attorneys eligible to apply for this job. This is the only way that the board will ever know if it is paying too much.

Apparently the board does not realize that the attorneys are prohibited by professional ethics from soliciting business. As a result, the board sits, waits and no one ever even inquires about the position of board attorney.

In order to do this, it will be necessary for the board to advertise the position and request quotes from attorneys for professional services. However, I do not believe that an attorney should be hired on price alone. But by requesting quotes the board would be able to determine if it is getting its money's worth and hire an attorney or firm which will give it the best service for the taxpayers' money.

The board could pass a resolution requesting all future boards to make the seeking of professional quotes an annual event.

If the board were to accept these suggestions, I am sure that there would be a substantial reduction in legal fees this year and in subsequent years. Of course, I am well aware that I do not have all of the answers. I do think it would be wise for the board of education to solicit suggestions from the community at large to solve this problem which has reached such astronomical proportions.

Pupil transportation policy doesn't consider child safety

To the editor:

I am writing this letter to express my extreme displeasure with the Belleville Board of Education's new pupil transportation policy, which translated means pupil abandonment policy.

I have two children attending Belleville schools, but only one is affected by the new policy. My son is in the fifth grade academically-talented program at School 7. His regular school would be School 3.

Having measured the walking distance from my home to School 7, I find we are approximately three houses short of the 1 mile limit for him to be eligible to take the bus to school.

I feel it is very sad that in these times when child safety should be the number one priority, the Belleville

Board of Education feels otherwise. As a parent, I do not feel it is safe for a 10-year-old child to walk this distance alone. I say alone because all of the neighborhood children will only be walking as far as School 3.

Did anyone at the board stop to consider that the children attending out of district schools will have to leave home earlier and get home later, making them more vulnerable or was money once again the most important factor?

At this point I have two options: one is to let my son walk this distance to and from school alone; the other is to pull him out of the academically-talented program and return him to his regular school. Either way, the child loses!

Citizens gain writer's support for speaking out against fees

To the editor:

I felt compelled to write this letter in support of the Belleville citizens who have taken the time to speak out against the outrageous legal fees charged to the Township of Belleville. It is my understanding that the Belleville Board of Education was billed $95,288.50 for the 1984-85 school year.

I learned of the controversy concerning the legal fees through the pages of The Belleville Times and Orecchio Broadcasting, cable channel 36. These news organizations provided the format through which concerned citizens informed their fellow Bellevilleites of the overblown expenditure.

Belleville residents Jackie Rega, Richard Yanuzzi and Thomas Spillane should be commended for their efforts on behalf of the taxpayers and our children. In my opinion, these men deserve support from the entire community. Jackie, Rich and Tom, keep up the good work.

come in with them. So I introduced mine in August.

"I'm not ashamed to bring it out," Mayor Marotti said. "I defend my department."

Mayor Marotti said that since the township employee who held the position of assistant superintendent of maintenance died, the position has not been filled. The duties of that position will now be given to the superintendent of recreation maintenance, who will eventually be given the title of superintendent of parks and public property, Marotti said.

"I think I'm saving the department $29,000," he said. "We're giving him (superintendent) $3,600 for doing the extra job."

Commissioner of Public Works Joseph Grande, who became angered, said he was unaware that Mayor Marotti was going to introduce the ordinance at the board's last meeting.

"Just so that no one is misled," he said, "when the salary ordinance was prepared in March, I was told we were going with the 7 percent increase so I went along. At the next meeting, I am going to introduce a salary rate change. I want to give everybody the same rate change."

"The increase will be a merit increase," he continued. "My drivers only make 13 cents more than a laborer and my operators make less than secretaries. Since 1979, 17 people in my department retired and only 13 have been replaced. There were four salaries that were unwarranted."

Salaries increases for the three township employees will be given next year, Mayor Marotti said.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The New Jersey Bell pamphlet, delivered with your phone bill, tells the sad story of divestiture of AT&T brought about by the Justice Department, courts and the Federal Communication Commission (FCC) and what it has accomplished in ruining phone rates.

It tells you how you're helping pay for telephone service in Beverly Hills, explaining that half-million dollars a day goes from the pockets of N.J. Bell customers to help subsidize local telephone service for people in other states such as California, Texas, Wyoming and Florida.

The money you pay for long distance calls goes to long distance companies. They, in turn, reimburse N.J. Bell for connecting you to them. Federal regulators require N.J. Bell to put these fees collected for long distance companies into a nationwide "pool." Local telecommunications, like N.J. Bell, then recover their costs from the pool.

N.J. Bell, being a low-cost company, gets back less than it contributes — high-cost companies take out more than they put in. Last year, $190 million left New Jersey to pass on to help telephone customers elsewhere. That's about $500,000 a day.

N.J. Bell says it considers it unfair to its customers and New Jersey to have to collect $190 million to pass on to others and indicates it is now actively making that point with federal regulators and legislators. That's good, but so too should we, the suckers, that FCC makes us pay an access charge that probably goes into that "pool" of $1 a month this year and going to $2 a month next year, whether we make long distance calls or not.

It's a damn "rip-off" and we should get after our Congressional representatives and Senators to put an end to this "gouging."

Congress should pass legislation barring the FCC from ordering of access charges arbitrarily; such charges should only be applied on long distance calls actually made. It becomes obvious from the N.J. Bell pamphlet that the Reagan administration's policy regarding telephone rates and unwarranted access charges are doing an unpardonable disservice to the little people who need phone service they can't afford.

The state Board of Public Utilities should step in, establishing "lifeline" phone rates, as is supposedly provided by Congressional directive to the FCC. Access charges should not be subjected to residential phone users who don't make or use distant calls or lines. Should a rare distant call be made, assess the access charge to that call or others on the individual calls... Not an arbitrary FCC monthly access charge for something never used.

FCC Chairman Mark Fowler, appointed by President Reagan, and other service members first set a $4 monthly access charge. Congress, on objections of their constituents to such an outrage, rebelled threatening to "throw out" entirely residential access charges, as they should have, by assessing such a charge only on such distant calls made.

This administration wanted the charge for some unexplained reason; a compromise was struck, so the people are stuck with an unmerited penalty that is unjustified, but who the hell are we? Only little people who must do the bidding of their decrees. What happened to democratic action? There's not much about these days.

Let's clamor to get rid of these phone access charges. Why should all phone users have to "kick in" to subsidize the phone bills of the rich people of Beverly Hills and the rest of the country? It's unethical for the government to expect or demand that we pay for phone services we don't use and then take the monies they ask of us and give it to other states to subsidize their high-cost long distance companies. There is no sense of equity nor fair play in such an arrangement.

Get on the ball! Write Congress telling it to "kill" the access charge.

Board of Education hires nurse full-time for schools 3, 7 & 10

By Kara Laczynski

In spite of an anticipated decrease in school enrollment, an additional nursing position was created by the Belleville Board of Education for the 1985-86 school year.

Kathleen Pizzano, R.N., will divide her time among schools 3, 7 and 10. There are now four full-time nurses who will serve their time among seven elementary schools. Three nurses serve the junior and high school levels, one at the middle school and two at the high school.

"Elementary schools have had minimal nursing coverage, especially in critical periods such as lunch times when minor injuries such as scrapes and cuts tend to occur," Mr. Michael Lally, assistant superintendent of schools, said.

"Ideally, each elementary school with an enrollment of more than 300 children should have its own full-time nurse," he added.

Four elementary schools had more than 300 students in attendance last year. School 3 had 373 students; School 5 had 333; School 7 had 424; and School 8 had 340.

There were 213 students enrolled at School 4 and 130 and 193 students at schools 9 and 10, respectively.

Enrollment figures for this year will not be available until Sept. 30, however a slight decrease in enrollment is expected at each school.

"Regardless of school enrollment, we have to have nursing coverage," Mr. Lally said. "However, no children have ever been in danger."

"When a nurse is not present at one school, we always assign a nurse on call who is at a school only 10 minutes away by car," he said. "And in case of an emergency, the principal will simply take the child to the hospital."

Kathleen Pizzano, R.N.

Hearing evaluation conducted at Maass

A Hearing Evaluation Service, sponsored by the Rehabilitation Medicine Department of Clara Maass, will provide comprehensive audiological services for inpatients and outpatients of all ages.

Routine hearing tests will be performed by Andrew Sperling, M.S., to determine the degree and nature of a person's hearing loss and whether he or she is a candidate for a hearing aid.

In addition to routine hearing evaluations, the services will include diagnostic site of lesion evaluation, pediatric hearing assessment, evaluation of auditory perceptual abilities, acoustic immittance testing and brainstem evoked response audiometry.

Brainstem evoked response audiometry, which measures the electrical activity of the brain in response to sound, is especially helpful to the physician in diagnosing neurological problems that involve the hearing system and is available for those who cannot be tested by standard methods.

Acoustic immittance testing often assists physicians in the diagnosis of middle ear disorders, while auditory perceptual examinations consist of a battery of tests for children and adults who may have difficulty processing information and have learning problems.

A component of the expanded Rehabilitation Medicine Department includes speech and language therapy. Michele Syme, M.A., a certified speech and language pathologist, evaluates speech and language abilities, plans treatment and provides appropriate therapy in group or individual settings.

For information on hearing evaluations and speech therapy, call Clara Maass Medical Center at 450-2050.

Fortunato urges residents to learn 'bill of rights'

Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato urged residents of Belleville to learn the particulars of the recently enacted "bill of rights" for crime victims.

Fortunato said media coverage of the Crime Victim's Bill of Rights (Assembly bill 571) has been weak and the public should be better informed of the provisions of the legislation recently signed by Governor Thomas Kean.

Fortunato, a co-sponsor of the "bill of rights" for crime victims, emphasized the new law protecting the rights of crime victims and witnesses is an essential element in the combined effort of law enforcement agencies and the public in fighting crime.

The "bill of rights" for crime victims states victims and witnesses to crime are entitled to be free from intimidation, received medical attention if a law enforcement agency says such attention is necessary, have property returned promptly, have their inconveniences minimized, and be compensated for their loss whenever possible, Fortunato noted.

Fortunato said his 30th District Office would assist any victim or witness to crime in understanding his or her "bill of rights." The district office is located at 559 Bloomfield Avenue in Montclair or can be reached at 744-5441.

Friends of the Library sponsor sales Oct. 26

The Friends of the Belleville Public Library will be sponsoring a book, arts and crafts and cake sale Saturday, Oct. 26, 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Those wishing to donate books may bring them to the library between Oct. 19-22 or may call David Bryant or Adrea Cohen at the library, 759-9200, to make arrangements. Crafts may also be donated at this time.

Membership dues for the Friends of the Library may be renewed and taken out the day of the book sale. Checks to the Friends of the Belleville Public Library are tax deductible.

Mayoral Proclamation - Mayor Michael Marotti signs a proclamation declaring the week of Sept. 16-23 as "Junior Woman's Club Week" in recognition of the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville's annual membership drive. With the mayor is Julie Paoella, Junior Woman's Club membership chairperson.

Junior Woman's Club celebrates annual drive

Mayor Michael Marotti has proclaimed Sept. 16-23 as "Junior Woman's Club Week."

Membership to the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville is open to women between the ages of 18 and 35.

Members of the club are offered the opportunity of unity, fellowship and cooperation in work on educational, philanthropic, cultural and social activities.

Club representatives will speak at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave., on Tuesday, Sept. 17 and Thursday, Sept. 19 at 10 a.m.

A membership meeting will be conducted Monday, Sept. 23, 7 p.m., at the club house, 51 Rossmore Place. The theme for the evening will be "A Friendly Introduction."

For information on the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville, call the membership chairperson at 759-4836.

Craftsman featured at library program

The Friends of the Belleville Public Library will present a program featuring craftsman and artist Michael Accunzo of Belleville on Thursday, Sept. 19, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Accunzo is also a well-known local artist, garnering numerous Best in Show and First Prize awards in oils at the Belleville Library's Outdoor Art Show.

The Friends of the Library will conduct its business meeting at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

The program has been arranged by Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, program chair.

"Sometimes the elderly need extra help."

Patricia Ebron, Service Representative
Newark Customer Service Center

That's why we've prepared this special booklet for senior citizens.

Special Assistance Programs

You'll find information on many of PSE&G's services, but the information on PSE&G's special assistance programs could be of particular interest to you.

Our THIRD PARTY NOTICE SERVICE can be used by anyone, but it can be especially helpful in trying to prevent loss of service for the elderly or handicapped. Sometimes, due to a financial or health crisis, they might not respond to notices of overdue payments. If a relative or friend agrees to act as a "third party," they will get copies of any overdue payment notices sent to the customer. While the Third Party is not responsible for payments, they will be alerted to the problem so they can let the customer know. This program also works well for those with reading or language difficulties.

There's an explanation of the LIFELINE CREDIT PROGRAM administered by the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs. This program is designed to assist qualified senior citizens and disabled persons in paying their energy bills.

If you depend on LIFE SUSTAINING EQUIPMENT, such as respirators or dialysis machines, we can give you service restoration priority if there is an electrical outage which affects your device.

You'll find full descriptions of all these programs in the booklet, with details on how you can participate. There's a lot more information included so you'll want to keep it handy for the times you may need it — such as how to reach emergency personnel at any time of day, or billing and payment information.

Send for your copy today by filling out the coupon. Or ask for one next time you visit one of our Customer Service Centers.

That's people to people service

We want to help you use energy more wisely too. Look for our "Seal-up and Save" energy conservation messages with your bill, or in your local newspaper.

Please send me a copy of the Senior Citizen Handbook of PSE&G Services.

AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

Proudly Celebrates Its Centennial Year

HENRIK TVEDT

*President
& Chief Executive Officer*

FIRST TO SERVE — 1885

When we first opened our doors the Morris Canal was an important waterway winding through territories now part of our service area such as Hopatcong, Belleville, and Bloomfield. The canal has gone — but FIRST DeWITT still prospers. And in its first century of service the Association has never lost an investor a penny — and has never missed a dividend, through many wars, depressions, and major recessions.

FIRST IN SERVICE — 1985

Now with ten modern, convenient offices and service that has become a tradition, FIRST DeWITT celebrates its 100th Anniversary. As we celebrate, we are proud to be FIRST in the many services we offer. And as we start our second century we commit FIRST DeWITT to the same kind of conservative management that has advanced the financial good fortune of our many fine customers.

FIRST IN CONVENIENCE — ALWAYS!

Our offices are located strategically for the greatest customer convenience. Evening and Saturday hours are available.

Belleville children return to school as summer ends

School Begins - Belleville children returned to school last Wednesday to start the 1985-86 school year. More than 4,000 students are enrolled in schools throughout the district. Students at School 7, as well as in other schools, seemed a little disappointed that summer was over so quickly. - Photos by Kara Laczynski.

Sen. Carmen Orechio presses legislation to punish abusive pet cemetery operators Senate President Carmen A. Orechio says he will press for legislation to severely punish operators of pet cemeteries who desecrate the final resting places of pet animals.

"For many of our citizens, the love for their pets is an important part of their lives," said Orechio. "There should be swift and certain punishment for those who would violate that relationship out of greed, and particularly for those who would deceive a beloved pet owner," he said.

Council offers training jobs for residents

The Essex County Private Industrial Council, a non-profit government agency, currently has training slots available for people who meet the Jobs Training Partnership Act (JTPA) requirements.

The council has approximately 169 jobs available to Essex County residents.

Jobs available include food service, building maintenance, office automation, roofers, machinists, secretarial, medical secretary, data entry, dental assistant, electronics assembler and stationary engineer (apprenticeship).

Transportation, child care and limited needs base allowance payments are also available to qualified applicants.

To see if you qualify, call 678-0111 for an appointment. The Essex County Private Industrial Council is located at 576 Central Ave., East Orange.

angered" to learn that the operator of the Blairstown Pet Cemetery allegedly dumped the carcasses of dead pets in a pit after agreeing to cremate the animals at the expense of the owners.

"If these charges are substantiated, the punishment should include far more than a fine for illegally filling in a landfill area," he said.

"Anyone who would insult the dignity of a pet owner like that deserves to go to jail. This issue goes far beyond a simple fraud," he said.

Bereaved pet owners were presented with ashes in urns allegedly containing the remains of their departed pets, according to published reports.

"But the fact of the matter is these people have no way of knowing whether those ashes are authentic," Orechio said.

Police have been besieged with calls from pet owners who are demanding to know whether their pets have been unceremoniously dumped in the pit, the Senator noted.

"Unfortunately, there are times when, try as we may, there is just nothing we can do to right a terrible abuse which has taken place," he said.

"What we can strive to do, however, is to take steps so that the same wrong is not repeated with impunity."

Orechio said he has directed his Senate legal staff to develop legislation to impose appropriate criminal sanctions on pet cemetery operators to serve both as a deterrent to future abuse and as punishment for what he described as "an unthinkable wrongdoing."

"When I think of the contributions that pets make to the lives of children, the elderly and those who are alone, I can only say that we owe it to these people to take every step we can to ease their emotional burdens when they lose their beloved animal friends," he said.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Miss T.R. asks: "When I smile my teeth are too noticeable. Can you suggest anything?" (Before we answer the 5th reader to call "Dentally Speaking" will get a surprise gift.)

Miss T.R. If they are too noticeable because of their length then simply recontouring them using a high speed hand piece is all that is needed. This is painless, quick, and the results are often dramatically pleasing. The small amount of enamel that is removed does not weaken or promote decay either. These teeth are quite thick and since they are located in front of the mouth they are easy to keep clean. However if they are too noticeable because of contrast in color then either bonding or crowning can be done to match the surrounding teeth. As always please contact your dentist for the right treatment for you. Thank You!

Library offers variety of non-fiction books

The Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave., offers its patrons a variety of non-fiction books.

Some of the selections offered at the library include:

- "Astrological Love," by Naura Hayden. Provides information about yourself, your loves, your friends and family and the birthdays of more than 5,000 world famous people.
- "The Browser's Book of Beginnings, Origins of Everything Under (and Including) the Sun," by Charles Panati. A compendium of writing facts about the origins of diverse subjects, such as man, manners, great religions, etc.
- "The Further Prophecies of Nostradamus: 1985 and Beyond," by Erika Cheethan. Cheethan focuses her articles on prophecies with relevance for the next few decades.

- "The Grace to Grow: The Power of Christian Faith in Emotional Healing," by William Wilson.
- "Life Choices: How to Make the Critical Decisions," by Gordon Porter Miller. Covers life choices in education, careers, marriage, family and lifestyles.

- "Making Peace With Your Parents," by Harold H. Bloomfield. A book that will help you come to terms with your parents, whether or not your parents are alive.

- "The Minimal Self-Psychic Survival in Troubled Time," by Christopher Lasch. Points the way to a cultural transformation that rejects both technological "Relaxation and Meditation Techniques," by Leon Chaitow. A practical guide to overcoming stress and common ailments through relaxation therapies.

- "Sourcebook for Older Americans," by Joseph L. Matthews and Dorothy Matthews Berman. A comprehensive guide to income benefits for older Americans.

- "Write Your Own Wedding," by Mordecai L. Brill. A collection of contemporary resources to aid in planning and personalizing your wedding, including prayers, ring exchanges, readings and music.

To reserve these or any other books, call the circulation desk at 759-9200 or come to the library in person.

Program Ends - Participants recently enjoyed a final reading party at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave. More than 300 children participated in the summer reading program. The children, who read more than 10,000 books, were awarded with certificates and were given a chance to get the autograph of New Jersey Jenkins (above). - Photos by Michelle Jeanotte.

Arts and crafts display is exhibited at library

An arts and craft display, provided by the Essex County Geriatrics Center in Belleville, is currently on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave.

The different mediums used in the display range from simple cutting out and coloring projects to macramé, sewing, knitting and crocheting useful articles.

The arts and crafts programs at the Geriatrics Center aid in increasing physical, mental and social health. Residents of the Geriatrics Center are offered individual and group sessions.

The display can be viewed on the second floor of the library during library hours.

Norman Minker demonstrates his wood carving techniques

Norman Minker of Belleville will offer a class in wood carving Monday, Sept. 23, 7-8:30 p.m., at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave.

Mr. Minker will explain the stages in wood carving and will demonstrate his technique.

The program will be offered to high school students and adults. Call the library at 759-9200 to register.

Mr. Minker has exhibited at numerous craft shows in this area. He has also given lectures at the Belleville Library on his Egyptian wood carvings and found art, as well as exhibiting in the display case of the library.

Crafts and story hours among library's activities

The Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave., has announced its schedule of activities for the month of September.

Activities being conducted during the month of September include:

Rose Petti attends auxiliary convention

Rose Petti, president of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 105 of Belleville, recently attended the auxiliary's 65th national convention in New Orleans.

The American Legion Auxiliary is the world's largest women's patriotic organization with nearly one million members worldwide.

Convention reports revealed that auxiliary members had served more than 6.5 million hours doing volunteer work and had expended more than $16,500,000 on the programs of the auxiliary.

Included in the total are 2,300 scholarships with a value of $658,000; 917,000 hours and $4-43,000 spent for help to the elderly; $326,000 for aid to handicapped and institutionalized children; $314,000 donated to special olympics; $4,885,000 expended for men and women veterans in V.A. hospitals and nursing homes; and $217,000 and 65,000 hours for community projects.

Membership in the American Legion Auxiliary is open to mothers, wives, sisters, daughters and granddaughters of members of the American Legion or of veterans who are deceased and were in service during the eligibility dates for legion membership. Call the American Legion Unit 105 for more information.

Clara Maass entered in health race

Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville will be among 43 New Jersey Hospitals which have entered teams to race in the second annual "Run for the Health of It," Sunday, Sept. 15.

The 12-mile relay, sponsored by The General Hospital Center at Passaic, will be conducted through Passaic's Third Ward Memorial Park.

Each team entered by a hospital is made up of three men and three women and will be competing for trophies. Trophy categories include the Grand Prize Traveling Trophy, trophies for teams with the three best times and trophies awarded to team members in several age categories.

Registration for the relay will begin at 9 a.m. A 2-mile Fun Run will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. followed by the 12-mile relay at 10 a.m. For information, call the Community Relations Department of The General Hospital Center at Passaic at 365-4363.

Income limits for seniors are increased

Income limits for pharmaceutical assistance for senior citizens and the disabled were increased Aug. 1 to $13,250 for single persons and $16,250 for married couples. Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato reminds Belleville residents

The increases in Pharmaceutical Assistance to the Aged and Disabled program are part of the 1986 Appropriations Act of the State Legislature. Fortunato says. The toll free hot line is 1-800-792-9745. Fortunato pointed out.

Applications and brochures describing the program can be obtained at Assemblyman Buddy Fortunato's office at 559 Bloomfield Ave., Montclair or by calling him at 744-5441.

NO SULFITES

on Grand Union Produce. Ever!

Why

do some food stores and restaurants use sulfites? To keep fresh fruits and vegetables from turning brown, and wilting.

What

is wrong with sulfites? They can cause an adverse physical reaction, even fatal shock, particularly where there is an allergic or asthmatic pre-condition.

Who

is using sulfites on produce? We don't know. We do not and have not. Not on any produce, fresh vegetables or fruits. Not on any Salad Bar item. Grand Union has never used sulfites to preserve produce; and never will.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Buc Shots

By Mike Lamberti

Writer marks 10th year of sports coverage

They say that time flies when you're living fun. September 20, 1985 will mark ten years for me with the Belleville Times sports department and over that period of time, I have had the opportunity to witness some of the most exciting high school sporting events that the State of New Jersey can offer.

My first article appeared in the September 20, 1975 edition of the Times. It was a story of the then Bellboy Cross country team, of which I was a member. It was the beginning of my senior year and if you told me then that I would be covering Belleville sports and enjoying it so much, now, I don't think I would have believed you.

The reason for my enjoyment of the sports scene here in Belleville is because of the parents, fans and most importantly, the athletes that make up Belleville High School sports. Without them, sports in Belleville would not be the same.

What I most appreciate about the people of our township is their honesty. If you're doing a good job, they'll tell you. More importantly, if you're doing what they feel is a less than adequate job, they will tell you that as well. The Belleville resident does not beat around the bush. He, or she, gets to the point, tells you what they would like to see, and hopefully, gets what they're looking for.

The Belleville resident also takes their sports seriously. They tune out in large numbers for sporting events and lend their support in a very vocal manner. That enthusiasm often spreads to the young athletes that represent our township in such a professional manner. It also spreads to our hard working coaches, that put a great deal of time and effort into their work. The Belleville coach is dedicated. There is really no other way to describe he or she.

The coaches are not paid a great deal of money to direct the youth of Belleville. They do it for the love of teaching the young kids of our township how to be not only better athletes, but better people as well.

Most importantly, there are the athletes of this township. These are the young men and women, ages 14-18, that go above and beyond the call. They are very talented athletes that put in a great deal of time in practice toward the goal of being one of the best.

Quite often, the Belleville athlete does not have the goal of being a professional athlete. Once in a while, a natural does come along. But, for the most part, the Belleville athlete is just a hard nosed, determined young man or woman that is eager to work hard and represent its township in a class manner.

There are so many memories from the 1975-1985 seasons. For this week and next, I'll try and look back on some of those memories and the athletes that made those particular events so exciting. Win or lose, the Belleville athlete has always given a reason to be proud. At the high school level, winning should take a back seat to the enjoyment of the particular sport and the ultimate goal, the rounding of a young athlete into a fine person.

The 1975-76 school year marked the season of the tremendous baseball team at Belleville High. It also was the season of the Belleville boys crew team that won the Stotesbury Regatta. The Belleville wrestling team, coached by Jim Silvestri, posted a 13-1 record and defeated Pascack Hills after that school had won 56 consecutive matches over a five year period.

Athletes like Chipper Bialore, Alan Cervasio, Carl Arlt, Robert Villano, Jim Beck, Vin Mustachio, Mark Montagna, Keith Waddell, Mike Barbone and many, many more made the '75-76 season so enjoyable.

In 1976-77, success on the wrestling level continued in droves. Silvestri had departed the wrestling job to become the A.D. at Belleville High, but the job was in more than capable hands with Gene D'Allesandro now running the show.

Mark D'Amico, Mark De Giacomo, Ron Grolmond and George D'Allesandro were among the leaders of the team that lost just one match, that coming to Westfield. The football team, under Tom Testa, was 2-7, but the team lost some close games that season. Baseball started off with a bang, but head coach George Zanfir was shelved with hepatitis and the team finished with an 18-5 record. Still, performances by Scott Osche, Doug Stone, Anthony Gammaro, Mike Lemongelli and Rocco Balsamo made the season memorable.

The 76-77 season also marked the beginning of a girls track team at Belleville High. Coaching the squad was a rookie coach, Debbie Meola, just recently graduated from Kean College. Meola, a former Belleville High School student, started the team with some good athletes. The girls I remember right away from that team were Sue Smith, Peggy Gilday, Dorothy Widich, Karen Sciacca and someone who was a very good friend of mine throughout the years, Jackie Wic.

In 1977, the emergence of the Belleville tennis team was big news. The first year of varsity competition, the team did not win a match, but players like Mike Gorr, Anthony Satriano and Ted Zangari made the matches interesting.

Next week, we'll take a look at some memories from the 1977-78 school year through the '84-85 seasons. Athletes like Frank Pazzini, Mike Graham, Sue Smith, Dana Caruso, Barb Gundry, Jenny Apicella, John Melillo and a host of others will be remembered as I take a quick and nostalgic look at the past ten years of Belleville High sports.

Remember When

Okay you long time Belleville sports fans. Did you know that on September 4, 1937, Doris Kopsky of Belleville became the National Bicycling Association's first women's champion. Doris covered the one mile course in 4:22.4 in Buffalo, New York.

Scrimmage set for Saturday

Belleville Bucs play Essex & Madison in tri-scrimmage as Senesky watches

The Belleville football got its first taste of competition for the 1985 season last weekend, playing West Essex and Madison Borough in a tri scrimmage.

John Senesky's Bucs will play host to Bayley Ellard in a scrimmage this weekend at Municipal Stadium. The scrimmage is set for Saturday morning, 10 a.m., from the practice field.

With the season set to start in two weeks, Senesky got a good chance to watch a number of athletes in the tri scrimmage last weekend.

"We have a lot of young kids this year," Senesky said. "We're trying to create depth this season and see what the kids can do at different positions. We have a lot of kids and at this point are working on individual techniques. For the first scrimmage, the team looked pretty good. We found some good young players that should fit in pretty well."

Last season, Senesky went with a senior oriented team and did not have a lot of depth. Thus, when the team suffered a rash of injuries in a seventh week victory over Kenney, the season took a turn for the worst over the last three games. From a 6-1 mark, the Bucs lost by 28-0, 42-0 and 19-6 counts to three powerful teams. In all three games, the Bucs were without five regulars and the lack of depth proved costly to the team.

On the offense, Senesky is working with Dan Senesky, Al Best and Robert Ferrucci at quarterback. At fullback, Sean Mulcahey, John View and Frank Montagna have been seeing time.

Mulcahey played some last season and looked good in his opportunities. He is a senior while Montagna and View are in their junior seasons.

At halfback, Senesky has five candidates, Jim Dunphy, Lou Lu Cante, Dan Harrington, Jay Marchese and Joe Delle Monache have looked good in practice and could see varsity time.

Dunphy, Lu Cante, Harrington and Delle Monache are juniors while Marchese is just a sophomore.

"Marchese has looked good on both sides of the field," Senesky said.

On the offensive line, seniors George Pravata (center), Dave Silletti (guard), Nick Cerami (guard) and Steve Linfante (tackle) are leading candidates. Junior Gerard Corbo could see time at the other tackle position.

At the end positions are junior Jaime Galisto and senior Don Washington. At tight end will be Dave Long, although he missed the first scrimmage with an injury.

On defense, Anthony Pravata, a senior, should see a lot of time on the line. Pravata was a member of the '84 team, but a knee injury in the third week limited his play the rest of the way.

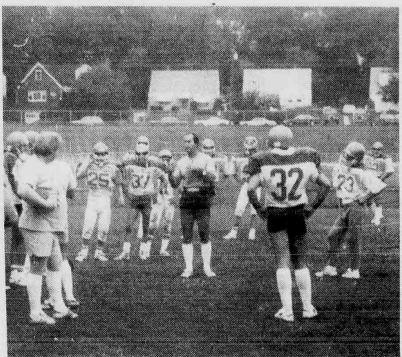

Junior Corey Wells, at 6-0, 200, should see time on the line. Washington looks good at defensive end while junior Al Best could be in the defensive back field. Sophomore Craig Jackowski is a possible linebacker, as is junior John Magi. Also in the defensive secondary could be senior Dennis Ives.

Senesky's concern now is that the players take full advantage of the scrimmages in preparation for Don Bosco, the season opener on September 28.

"We have a lot of players who were on the junior varsity last season," he said. "The question now is how far have they matured this season and where do they fit in for this year's team. We found some good football players in the first scrimmage. We'll find out more this week."

Cross country team practices for opener

Despite the late summer heat and humidity, the Belleville cross country team has been working hard in preparation for the opening match scheduled for next Friday.

The Bucs open the 1985 season at Brookdale Park with Bloomfield providing the opposition. John Tosato's team will run its home meets at Nutley's Di Muro Park for the third straight season.

Tosato is very happy with the turnout and attitude of his athletes this fall.

"We have about 14 boys out for the team so far," explained the coach, "with another three or four expected soon. Many of the kids came in good shape for the season and we're ahead of last years pace as far as conditioning is concerned."

There are some familiar names leading the Buccaneer attack this year. Among the seniors is J.R. Di Vincenzo, a sprinter on the track team, but an improving long distance runner. The other upperclassmen are Nick Complitano, Jeff Tyther and Tim Neilson. Complitano, who had an excellent track season last spring, went to cross country camp over the summer and appears in excellent condition.

The '85 team has a good blend of youth and experience. Currently, there are four juniors on the team. Among them is Craig Burden, back for his third season of competition. As a freshman in 1983, Burden made a fast name for himself by winning his first varsity race. He has been a fine athlete for Belleville High, competing for the cross country, basketball and track squads his first two years.

John Zurlo, Al Schweer and Mark Huamani round out the juniors on the roster. Schweer attended camp and Burden reported in excellent condition after working out all summer.

Sophomores Leon Puentes, Bob Scheibel and Greg Moriello should also help the team. Puentes is an excellent basketball player and the cross country

Young players form BHS volleyball team

With the opening game just a week away, the Belleville volleyball team is working hard in anticipation of some solid competition.

The girls will host Passaic Valley next Friday, at Belleville High, starting at 4 p.m.

Head coach Grace Worley is happy with her teams performance thus far, noting that all positions are wide open this year.

"There is no position secure this year," the fifth year coach said. "The big thing now is that the girls learn to work with each other. We have a lot of young players, with good potential, but they have to learn how to work with the older players as far as setting and hitting are concerned."

Worley is happy with the young talent that is on the team this season. The team has just two seniors, Sheri Phelps and Lisette Rodriguez. Both girls were key members to last years very successful team. The two upperclassmen will be flanked by a host of sophomores and juniors that are quickly learning the system.

Juniors Christine Melillo and Renee Petineo return after successful sophomore campaigns.

"Chris will be up front for us this year," Worley said. "Renee will be playing on the back line. She is a very good defensive player."

Sophomores Quynh Mai, Carolyn Guffrida and Tina Miller, along with freshman Simone Edwards should also see varsity time.

"Edwards has very good jumping ability," praised Worley, looking for someone with good leaping ability to replace the graduated Donna Brooks. "Mai looks very good in practice, too. Tina has been working on hitting and blocking and Carolyn has been coming around, also. Right now, we're looking for the team to jell, to get their coordination down and learn the assignments."

Although the team lost just three seniors to graduation last June, the departures were costly. Lost were Brooks, Debbie Worley and Liz Goldrick. All three players were vital to the success of the '84 team, a club that went to the state semi finals before losing to Fair Lawn.

As for this season, Worley doesn't quite know what to expect.

"There are some good teams out there (the NNJLL)," she said. "The potential is there for our team. The team is inexperienced, but we're looking pretty good. We have some more practice time available before the first match next Friday, and we'll use that time to get ready and have our lineup in the best shape possible."

The team has posted three straight winning seasons. The talent is there for a fourth straight victorious season, but the girls will need the playing time to determine how far the '85 team can go.

NOTES: Worley was very happy with the Belleville High School gymnasium, that was totally revamped for the new school year. "It's beautiful, they did a tremendous job on it. The girls were very happy with the appearance. I'd have to say right now that our gym is one of the nicest looking gyms in the area."

Hip and Leg Pain

Sciatica is a frequently misunderstood and under-treated disease condition. Actually sciatica is a medical inflammation of the sciatic nerve which supplies the tissues of the thigh, lower leg and foot. It is most often caused by a tearing of the disc or more rarely, a tumor or cyst between the vertebrae of the lower back.

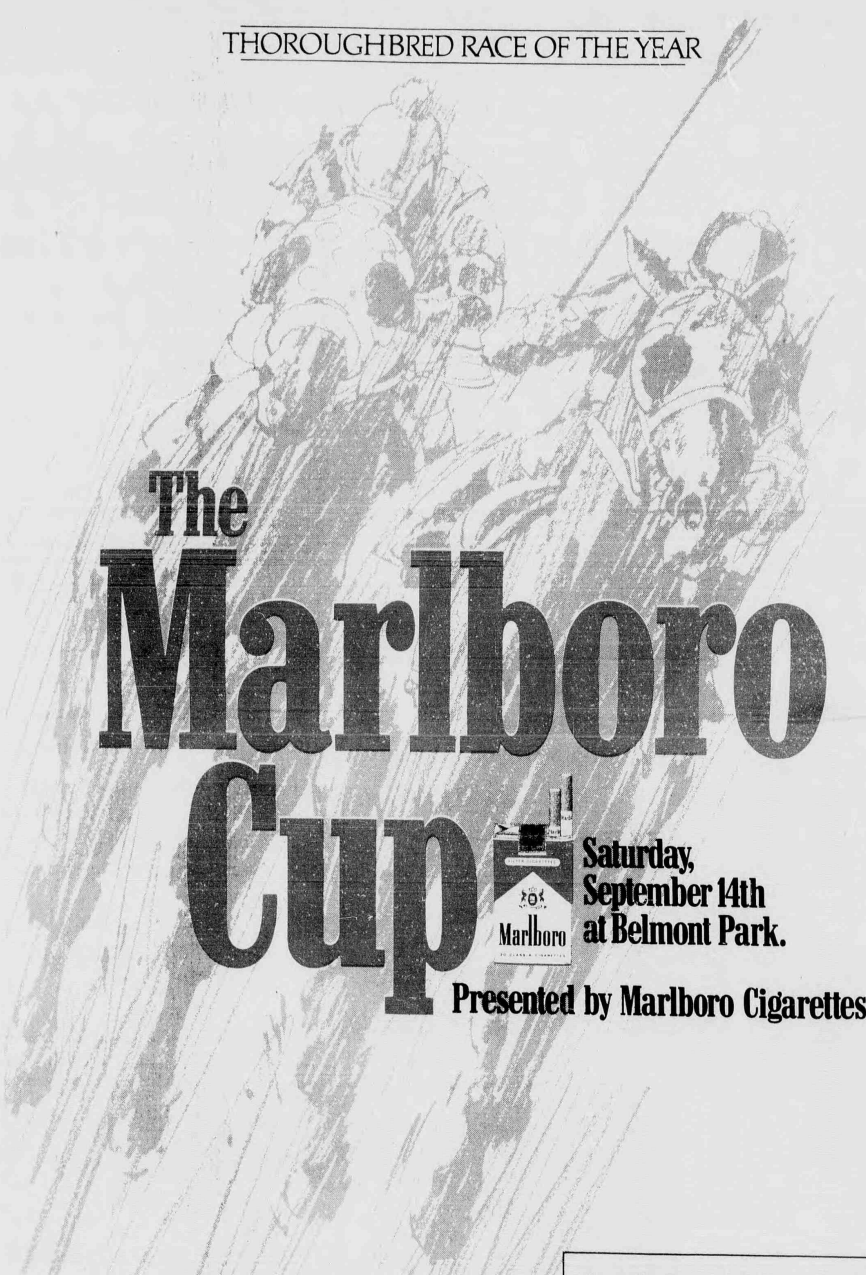

The sciatic nerve is the largest nerve in the body. It runs about as big around as the thumb. Intervertebral irritation along its course can cause crippling pain. Sciatic pain may be tearing and sharp, or it may be a numbness, burning, tingling, prickling, or aching sensation. Even a minor irritation may bring little or no relief. It is almost impossible to find a comfortable position.

Sciatica most often starts with a long period of intermittent mild low back pain. I've had a weak back for years, as a common expression among sciatica victims.

Rarely do misaligned vertebrae correct themselves spontaneously and permanently. The answer lies in the experience, training, and skill of a doctor of chiropractic. Only rarely is it necessary for a patient to undergo surgery. The chiropractor uses no pain killing drugs or short pain relievers. The patient can be sure the doctor is working on the underlying cause and not the pain symptoms. If you have a weak back or sciatic nerve pain seek chiropractic care immediately. It may be the only treatment that will help.

Residents argue school board's legal fees

Board member Ernest Zoppi, in defending Schwartz, said that the $10,000 retainer charged by the law firm is acceptable.

"We have an attorney who is accessible to all members at any time," Zoppi said. "We have a firm, not just Mr. Schwartz. Last year 565 hours were spent in litigation, 18 months for just one case. All four were tenured cases and that takes a lot of time. In fact, one is still in litigation."

"We did what we had to do,"

he added.

Out of the figure paid in legal fees, $53,200 was for the four cases, Zoppi said. When you look at a $17 million budget, $95,000 for legal fees is not much, he said.

"This year was an exceptional one," he continued. "We've won those cases and the people aren't with us. I think you're fighting the wrong case. The teachers were fighting to get out of the system were being paid while they were suspended."

"If the taxpayers believe there is an impropriety, they should go to the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, not the board of education," Gabe Nazziola, board member, said.

D'Agostino, stepping in, said that any suggestion of impropriety or allegations were unfair and cautioned board members on what they say in public.

Grace Purdue of Garden Avenue, former school board president, took offense at Nazziola's statement, saying that while she was on the board, she had complete faith in Schwartz's ability as a lawyer.

"When I'm speaking tonight, I'm defending myself as a former member of the board," Purdue said. "When I was a member of the board, I approved those (Schwartz's) bills. It's my credibility I'm defending."

Purdue also took offense to Nazziola's suggestion that board members handle negotiations with teachers and administrators.

"When you board members took on negotiations, all of you failed," she said. "Negotiations did not move forward until a professional stepped in. Dollars are not the main thing."

"Mr. Schwartz alone is not putting in that time - the entire firm is," she said. "There are three people who are experienced in school law."

When asked why he why he quoted a figure of $81,000 at the board's last meeting, D'Agostino said that was the only figure he was aware of at the time. The figure he quoted was from July 1984 to April 1985. Edward Appleton, school board secretary, verified his statement, saying that board members are given updates on total figures periodically.

Suggestions were then made that total figures on all billing be available to board members each month.

Student gets letter from the President

sister of 4-year-old Ramiro, enjoys reading, writing and math and gym classes. She has received a number of awards for writing as well as for penmanship. During lunch time, Maria is a hall patrol. Her duties include making sure no one gets hurt while running to the water fountain.

"If someone falls, it's going to be my responsibility," she said.

Outside of school, Maria enjoys taking dancing lessons. She has been attending dance classes at a studio near her home for two years.

"I take tap, jazz and ballet lessons," Maria said, "but I like tap the best because it sounds snappy."

Maria may also be taking modeling lessons along with her brother, her mother added. Mrs. Perez said she received a call from a modeling school in Paramus only a few days after Maria appeared on television.

Maria, who will turn 9 tomorrow, says she would like to be a doctor when she grows up. For now, though, this bubbly girl seems quite happy just being a fourth grader.

If she saw President Reagan today, what would she say?

"I'd say thank you for the thank you note you wrote to me and I'm glad that you're not sick anymore."

And who says the children of today don't have any respect for their elders?

Lawn Gone?

Time to call Lawn King

All lawns need an annual program of lawn care and every program must contain both granular and spray. Some chemicals work better when applied in a granular form, and others, like weed controls and post emergent crab grass controls, work better in a liquid form. All lawns also require periodic aeration and seed, but only Lawn King gives all these via LAWN COMBINE & SPRAY - THE BETTER WAY WE KNOW IT'S THE ONLY WAY!!

LAWN KING ANNUAL PROGRAM

We are chemical applicators, not miracle workers. We know what your lawn needs and when it needs it. What you see in the program is what you get. Top quality chemicals and seed - only the best - that's all we use. There's no such thing as a specially formulated for drought.

Aeration, seed and lime are part of our program. Fungus controls and grub controls have always been part of our program - not options at extra cost when you need them. By the time you know you need them, it's too late anyway.

Candidates express concerns

Orechio, Councilman Bob Feterly and Save Our Schools President Ralph Riccio.

The major issue besides the environment is how we're spending money and can we cut expenses," Fortunato said.

He said he advocates trying to retain as much of the state surplus as possible and giving it back to the property owner.

"With Washington cutting funding for programs now in place in New Jersey, we'll lose if we fool around too much with surplus," he said.

Stephen Aduabato Jr.

broke from party ranks to vote for such a bill and said it "cuts across party and philosophical lines and lets the people decide."

Aduabato noted that, as a member of the Joint Appropriations Committee, he supported a bill that would set aside $300 million of state surplus for a "rainy day fund" for emergencies. He also said he supported a property tax reform measure that would return $145 million to homeowners and tenants.

John V. Kelly

Former Assemblyman Kelly, who remained seated during the debate because of a back problem, stressed a bipartisan approach to problem solving.

"I detest partisan nonsense. Forget whose bill it is," he said.

"It's we in Trenton," he noted he had run with now-Gov. Thomas Kean in 1981 on a platform that opposed taxes. But upon assuming office, he said, he became aware of how much money was spent by the Democratic-controlled Legislature during former Gov. Brendan Byrne's administration.

"Now I want to return to Trenton to support Tom Kean in controlling taxes," Kelly said. He also advocated state-issued bonds as a way of financing services, noting "the interest today is pretty good."

Fortunato countered Kelly's comments with "Bonding is a sophisticated way of taxing."

Marion Crecco

Crecco, who also remained seated, acknowledged her status as "the new kid on the block who's just getting started." She said she was not new to the political process, however, because of her marriage to Bloomfield Councilman-at-large John Crecco.

She also noted she started and operates a "successful" business of her own, which has given her an understanding of financial matters.

"Government and business go hand in hand," she said.

The candidates also responded to prepared questions about other issues, including franchise taxes and the feasibility of initiative and referendum, which is not permitted by New Jersey's constitution.

First DeWitt Savings & Loan celebrates 100th anniversary

Barons' of high finance. Three years were yet to elapse before the Great Blizzard of 1888 and the disastrous Johnstown Flood.

In our nation's capital, the Washington Monument was dedicated in a colorful ceremony and shortly thereafter, on Bedloe's Island, the Statue of Liberty was unveiled to greet the "new blood" from Europe, German, English, Polish, Italian and Irish immigrants, many of whom ultimately took up residence in Belleville and Bloomfield, found employment here, and became depositors of the old association. The year also marked the latter end of a decade in which banking and savings institutions increased tenfold.

In sports, boxing fans were cheering John J. Sullivan, the heavyweight champion, still fighting bare-knuckle fights that often lasted a bone-crushing 75 rounds or more!

In turbulent seas off the coast of Rhode Island, a yacht called Puritan won the America's Cup in two races, successfully defending against the Royal Yacht Squadron of England.

$4,630 becomes a half million dollars

Out in Louisville, racing fans were still talking about the 11th running of the Kentucky Derby, won by a horse named Jockey, who by a horse named Jockey who received the largest purse since the start of the famous race - $4,630. If the owner had deposited this sum in a good savings institution and left it there until today drawing compounded interest, his grandchildren would have more than a half million dollars in their passbook.

Meanwhile, horse-drawn vehicles and the steam railroad were the principal means of road transportation. It would be many years before trolleys, automobiles and airplanes came along to plague the small communities with noise and air pollution problems.

Depositors of the association, if they wished to go to Newark or New York, had the option of the Bloomfield Turnpike (now the Belleville Turnpike), the railroad, or the "old road" which followed the general route of Bloomfield Avenue.

Freight and cargo still were brought in via the Morris Canal from both directions - the Delaware and the Hudson Rivers. Belleville and Bloomfield were important "ports" along the route of the old waterway where "skinny dipers" enjoyed their summer swimming between mule-drawn barges. Today, a beautiful mural reflecting activity along the old waterway, can be seen at the Bloomfield Avenue office of First DeWitt.

Just as the Morris Canal 100 years ago provided the means for North Jersey's industrial growth, 100 years later, First DeWitt, with offices in Hopatcong (the canal's water source), provides a steady flow of financial services in Belleville, Bloomfield, Hopatcong, Cedar Grove, Parsippany, Bricktown and neighboring communities, all influenced by the canal.

Start of the Association
The association started operations in the middle of this colorful and dynamic period, on Oct. 20, 1885, very modestly, on the second floor at 285 Glenwood Ave., Bloomfield, known then as Dodd's Hall. Only one other financial institution was operating at the time in Bloomfield.

Tom Henderson became the first president and he served in that position for eight years. Charles Seibert was one of the founders, and treasurer, a post he held for 35 years. Mr. Seibert was an early "apostle of thrift." Hundreds of residents became homeowners through his help, influence, and through his position in the association.

Up until 1898 there were only two paid officers - the treasurer, who was paid semi-annually at $142.20, and the secretary at $118.55.

First Depositor
The first depositor was a confident William R. Raab, who was issued Certificate No. 1 in the new savings association. His name appears again in later years as a treasurer and director.

At the end of the first year of operation there were 140 depositors and assets totaled $6,456. At the turn of the century the growing association had 877 depositors and $346,985 in assets. Today, First DeWitt has assets surpassing $300 million.

In 1887 the directors of the association purchased land at 36 Broad St., Bloomfield, at a cost of 75 cents per front for 25 feet, and in April of 1898 contracts were issued for a two-story building to house the young association. This building cost $5,557 which will be a matter of comparative interest to builders and homeowners today. The directors weighed the value of installing those "new fangled" electric lights, but in typical conservatism opted for the less expensive and more reliable gas lighting.

The second floor of this new building became the meeting place of this association. The first floor became a profitable rental to various businesses in succession such as the Reinheimer's Grocery Store, the Bloomfield Coal and Supply Company, and the Independent Press, which used it as the offices and print shop for the paper as well as for turning out job work. Subsequently, old timers will recall, it became the

Old Traditionslinger
Today, First DeWitt Savings continues in its role as a leading thrift institution.

But the old traditions linger in modern settings at 10 offices in Belleville, Bloomfield Center, Watessing Center, Brookdale, Forest Hill, Cedar Grove, Hopatcong, Parsippany and Bricktown.

In 1943, application was made to the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation for insurance of its accounts under the National Housing Act. Today all accounts are insured up to $10,000 by virtue of this move.

Each year First DeWitt has provided the efficiency, good judgment and conservatism of its operation by declaring a dividend, or dividends, even during the dark days of the depression following Roosevelt's bank moratorium. These dividends ranged from a high of 12 percent down to the current competitive rates. This sound practice built depositor confidence in the association and led to its continued growth despite periods of apprehension and tight money conditions.

Moving With the 21st Century

As First DeWitt celebrates its centennial celebration in 1985, it moves with the 21st century in mixing young blood, management maturity and conservative business practices to foster thrift and home ownership in its marketing areas.

"Our objective," Mr. Tvedt said, "is to continue our policy of service and friendliness to the community that has shown continued confidence in our association over the past century. We plan to move forward and to be an integral part of New Jersey for years to come."

President for 24 Years
Mr. Tvedt, the current President and Chief Executive Office of First DeWitt, is a resident of Bloomfield and Toms River and has headed the association and its predecessors' associations for 24 years. He is a native of Norway and is a graduate of Bergen Commercial College in that country. He also attended Upsala College as well as the American Institute of Banking and the American Savings and Loan Institute.

He is past Chairman of the New Jersey Savings and Loan League and has been a member of the Board of Governors of the League.

He is a former President of the Garden State Chapter of the American Savings and Loan Institute and was Deputy Governor of the Institute. He is a past President of the Essex County Savings and Loan League and is a member of its Board of Directors.

For the past three years, Mr. Tvedt has been a member of the Board of Governors of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board in New York City.

He is highly active in civic affairs, and was honored as a Distinguished Citizen by the Tamarack Council Boy Scouts of America for his outstanding history of service to his profession, to the community and to scouting.

The current Board of Directors is comprised of the following individuals: Henry F. Albinston; Frank H. Bridge; Walter J. Davis; Herman W. Leitzow; Clarence R. Lommerin; John L. Planson; Michael J. Quigley; Henrik Tvedt; and Harry Ziegler.

The association's 10 offices are located as follows: main office, 463 Washington Ave., Belleville; corporate headquarters, 6 Pompton Ave., Cedar Grove; four offices in Bloomfield, at Bloomfield Center office, 667 Bloomfield Ave., Brookdale Office, Broad St. & Watchung Ave., Forest Hill Office, 60 Belleville Ave., and Watessing Office, 20 Watessing Ave.; Cedar Grove office, 532 Pompton Ave., Cedar Grove; Hopatcong office, Sharp Ave & Hopatcong Road, Hopatcong; Par-Troy office, 1980 Route 10, Morris Plains; and Bricktown office, 1161 Burnt Tavern Road, Bricktown.

GREEN APPLE
Cafe

By Lisa Grimaldi

A new restaurant has opened in the area, which has perfect blend of atmosphere, food, drink and quality service. The Green Apple, located in the Pathmark Center on the Nutley/Belleville border, is, in one word, a delight.

The interior has been completely transformed from the previous restaurant's (The Ground Round) decor. Now, it is fresh, airy and spacious. The prevalent color is, obviously, green, but my favorite aspect of the restaurant is a model train that runs on track around the restaurant, high up on the wall.

The waiters and hostesses are all attractive, friendly, young people (mainly college students) who wear a uniform of green polo shirts and khaki slacks. Our waiter was a very personable student from the University of Delaware, working here for the summer. He had a thorough knowledge of all menu items, had many suggestions, and he graciously fulfilled all our requests.

The menu of The Green Apple is small, but everything on it is made to order, and there is enough variety for many appetites. The popovers from the appetizer list was a delicious, generous platter of delicately deep-fried mushrooms, zucchini, potato skins, and my favorite, an onion ring loaf which was made of fresh red onions. Chris, one of the capable managers of the restaurant, had such sample something from each section of the menu. He cooked the Crabmeat stuffed Sole to "a succulent perfection." The portion was generous and was served over an intriguing rice. The Stuffed Chicken Breast was also delicious, and both entrees were served with either a baked potato or freshly cut french fries.

There are many salads to choose from, with some interesting variations to the usual iceberg and chef salads. The spinach salad was fresh and delicious, and was served with a great hot bacon dressing.

The Burgers here are incredible! They are made of a one-half pound fresh ground beef, and they are huge. There are many types of the Pub Burgers on the menu. The menu also features Croissant Sandwiches. The Turkey, Bacon, and Swiss Sandwich was fantastic, the croissant was overfilled, and was served with a slice of sweet watermelon, and chips.

A special of the day was the Three Cheese Quiche. I am not usually a fan of the dish, but this quiche was extraordinary. It was light, fluffy, and tasty, and was served with a big slice of home-made cornbread. There is also a special Mexican section on the menu, which has some interesting dishes.

For dessert, there are several home-made confections which are out of this world. The Chocolate Chocolate... Cake, was so rich and delicious, that it must be shared with someone. In fact, each generous slice is served with two forks! There is also a sinfully delicious Chocolate Chocolate Chip Ice Cream, which was the ultimate indulgence to end the meal with.

The menu is the same for both dinner and lunch, although there are daily specials. The restaurant is open from 11 AM until 2 AM daily, except on Sunday, when it closes at midnight.

The Green Apple is located at 720 Washington Avenue in Belleville, right on the Nutley border, an ideal spot for lunches, after work drinks and appetizers, dinner, and late night snacks, with a full bar list also. I highly recommend it.

First Aid Tips

• Bites or Stings-Insect: For minor bites or stings apply cold compresses and soothing lotions such as calamine. For bee stings remove stinger with tweezers and apply cold compresses. For tick bites, cover tick with a heavy oil to slow its pores. If the tick does not disengage, leave oil on for 30 minutes. Carefully remove all parts with tweezers. Wash area thoroughly with soap and water. Consult doctor immediately if any reactions occur such as hives, rash, pallor, weakness, nausea, vomiting, collapse or tightness in chest, nose or throat.

• Animal or Human Bites: Thoroughly wash wound with soap and water. Cover with a sterile dressing and consult doctor. (Note: Every effort should be made to restrain any animal to observe or rabies. Notify police or health officer.)
