History of Thanksgiving remembered

Students celebrate holiday with school plays and feasts

By Kara Laczynski
Junior pilgrims and Indians are celebrating Thanksgiving this week at several Belleville schools.

A Thanksgiving dinner will be hosted by School 7's fourth grade for all students today at 10:30 a.m. At School 4 kindergartners, first and second-graders prepared, served and feasted on a holiday meal last Friday, Nov. 22 under the direction of their teachers. Turkeys were donated by School 4 parents.

A play recounting the first Thanksgiving took place at School 9 on Monday, Nov. 25, with fifth and sixth graders acting all parts.

All classes discussed the history and customs of Thanksgiving, that most American of holidays. As everyone knows, it started out as a symbolic embrace by those born in America of 50 or so immigrants who came to escape persecution in their native land-England.

With the landing of the Mayflower near present-day Plymouth in 1620 came 102 Britons, looking to found a new Israel but woefully unprepared even to sustain themselves. Their first brutal New England winter cut their numbers down to 55 by the spring thaw. Weak and ignorant of how to survive in their new country, they were delivered from sure extinction by a native resident of the land, Tisquantum, or Squanto, as the foreigners called him.

Squanto took an easy liking to the Englishers, even though a few of their ex-countrymen had kidnapped him and brought him to England by fishing boat years earlier. Fluent in the pilgrims' language, Squanto was able to teach them to plant corn, squash, pumpkins and other American vegetables. He also showed them effective techniques for fishing and hunting in their new home.

The pilgrims' first harvest in their adopted homeland was a bountiful one and owed to the friendship of Squanto and his people, the Wampanoag. In celebration, the English expatriots invited the Wampanoag to a feast which featured the newly-reaped vegetables and wild game, including the turkeys once numerous in the forests of the Northeast.

A friendship treaty was sign between the leaders of both tribes - Gov. William Bradford and King Massasoit, after whom the colonial state of Massachusetts was named.

Our modern holiday derives from both the atmosphere of conviviality of this ancient feast, and the spirit of giving thanks to God from another celebration which took place around the same time.

The Puritans, who landed around what is now Boston in 1630, held a holiday in which

Elementary school policy gives guidelines to parents

By Michelle Jeannotte
An elementary school discipline and attendance policy, which offers guidelines to parents, was brought before the Belleville Board of Education for its approval Monday night.

(Because of the early holiday deadline, the events of that meeting and the contents of the policy will appear in the Dec. 5 issue of The Belleville Times.)

According to Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally, the policy was established because of parents' request for consistent and continuing guidelines.

"At the time of the request, the district already had policies written for grades 9-12 and 7-8," Lally said last Thursday. "We thought that a request for an elementary school policy was paralleling the effort."

Once the school board was approached with the idea of an elementary school discipline and attendance policy, Lally asked principals in the district if they were interested in serving on the committee. Parents as well as staff members were also asked to serve on the committee, he said.

The committee consisted of three elementary school principals (Pat Forte of School 4, Archibald Gallombardo of School 5 and Marilyn Hawthorne of School 7); five teachers (Mrs. A. Lang, School 4; Miss C. Richter and Mrs. M. Capriglione, School 5; and Mrs. M. Kimble and Mrs. C. Fiscella, School 7); and three parents

(Mr. M. Bruzzio, School 4; Mrs. J. DeBenedetto, School 5; and Mr. S. Petracca, School 7).

At the request of administration, Frank Catrambone, middle school vice principal, and Marilyn McGrath, high school vice principal, served on the committee as resource people, Lally said.

The committee began working on the policy in March and completed in October. Once the policy was developed, it was reviewed by administration and the consolidated parents' group, Lally said.

"We reconvened in October to review their comments and considered them in the final draft," Lally said. "It was then

Churches host service at Wesley Methodist

Seven Belleville churches will come together in a community Thanksgiving service tonight at 7:30 at Wesley United Methodist Church, 225 Washington Ave.

Churches participating in the community service are: Belleville Reformed Church, Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, Montgomery Presbyterian Church, Silver Lake Baptist Church, St. Peter's Church and Wesley United Methodist Church.

The Thanksgiving message, "If You Think, You Will Thank," will be delivered by The Rev. Gerald A. Fortunato of the Silver Lake Baptist Church.

According to Pastor June Hewitt of the Wesley United Methodist Church, the evening will be a real celebration, complete with music provided by a combined chorus and Mrs. Marian Schantz, minister of music. Also featured will be a solo by The Rev. Howard Day of Montgomery Presbyterian Church.

A fellowship hour with refreshments will follow the service.

Four seniors selected to compete in Junior Miss Program

Four Belleville High School seniors have been selected as finalists to compete in the Essex County Junior Miss Scholarship Program on Sunday, Dec. 1, 3 p.m., in Nutley High School's auditorium.

The four seniors, Susan Aschauer, Colleen Kelleher, Linda J. Pissott and Anna Turano, will be competing against other high school seniors throughout the county.

A $1,000 scholarship will be awarded to the winner.

Susan Aschauer, an active participant in school activities, is president of the Key Club, a member of the Student Government Organization (SGO) and a member of the National Honor Society.

Besides being selected as a Garden State Distinguished Scholar, Aschauer is the drum major of the Belleville High School Marching Band and participates in the North Jersey Regional Chorus.

Colleen Kelleher has been involved in the National Honor Society, the SGO, school plays and other school organizations. She is the vice president of the Key Club and is active in the Senior Senate and the committee planning the senior prom.

After graduation, Kelleher plans to attend college and pursue a career in business administration.

Linda J. Pissott, recently selected a Garden State Distinguished Scholar, performs in the Belleville High School Marching Band as co-captain of the twirling squad. When she's not practicing as a lead dancer in "The Wiz," she is working as a cashier at the Pathmark on Washington Avenue.

Upon graduation, Pissott plans to continue her education with a concentration in pre-law.

Anna Turano has participated in many activities throughout her years at Belleville High School, particularly as a member of the varsity track team in which she received varsity letters. She has performed leading roles in the school productions of "Annie," "Pippin" and "The Wiz."

Turano is also an active member of the SGO and is working part-time through the Cooperative Home Economics Program.

Tickets for the Essex County Junior Miss Scholarship Program, sponsored by the Nutley Jaycees, will be available at the door.

Fund Raiser - Nick Sicurello of Belleville, right, chairman of Wallace & Tiernan's Charity Fund Drive this year, points to a chart indicating 88 percent of the Belleville-based firm's employees contributed. The company raised more than $51,000 for United Way and approximately $13,000 for other charitable organizations. Looking on are WATCO Charity Fund Association members (l-r) Tom Devine, Jim Laudati, Gloria Hokanson and Irene Hayes.

Wallace & Tiernan employees raise monies for United Way

Employees of Wallace & Tiernan Division, Pennwalt Corporation in Belleville, raised $38,351.04 during the recently completed WATCO Charity Fund Association Drive.

The total figure was up from $22,379.76 last year.

Under the Charity Fund, rules, approximately $25,580 will be earmarked for United Way. The Pennwalt Foundation will match that amount "dollar for dollar" resulting in more than $51,000 for United Way this year.

Approximately $13,000 will be contributed to other organizations supported by the WATCO Charity Fund.

The drive enrolled 172 new members, according to Harry Neugold Jr., group president at Wallace & Tiernan. He also said that more than 88 percent of the company's employees participated in the fund-raising effort.

K-Mart employees give food baskets to needy

Employees of K-Mart in Belleville will donate 10 food baskets to needy families in Belleville and Nutley on Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 27.

The needy families were located by the United Way of Essex and West Hudson through the Department of Public Welfare of Nutley, Municipal Welfare Department of Belleville, and two United Way beneficiaries — Family Service Bureau of Nutley and Family Service Bureau of Newark, Belleville and West Hudson.

The Thanksgiving baskets, donated by K-Mart employees, will include a 12-14 lb. turkey, potatoes, vegetables and pumpkin pie.

K-Mart employees have also arranged to donate 15 food baskets on Christmas Eve as well as subsidize a shopping spree of their store by 20 needy children in December.

Army staff sergeants are assigned to recruiting station in Belleville

U.S. Army Staff Sergeants Fred DeToro Jr. and Rocky J. Lockwood have been assigned to the Army Recruiting Center at 630 Washington Ave., Belleville.

DeToro is an eight-year veteran who last served with the 7th Special Forces Group at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, as a radio operator.

DeToro hails from San Antonio, Texas.

Lockwood is a 13-year veteran who has served in Germany, Korea and Hawaii as an ammunition manager.

He hails from Kansas City, Mo.

Choruses will sing Christmas carols at Nutley store

By Kara Laczynski

Shoppers looking for a brief respite from the rigors of Christmas gift buying will find it at the Janette Nutley Center next week when two area choirs perform carols in the store.

A combined chorus of members of the Verona-Cedar Grove Chorus and the St. Bonaventure Choir will sing this Sunday, Dec.

1 from 3-4 p.m. and again on Wednesday, Dec. 4 from 8-9 p.m. for evening shoppers.

Belleville's Assembly of God Church Choir will perform on Sunday, Dec. 8 from 3-4 p.m.

"We wanted to do something nice for our customers at this time of year," said Nicholas Mazzola, general manager of JNC and coordinator of the musical events.

The joint Verona-Cedar Grove and St. Bonaventure Chorus joined voices last year at the store, and the outcome was "a great success," according to director Vivienne Bono.

"We plan to sing popular Christmas songs and feature a few soloists during our performances," said Bono, who boasts a long list of musical credits, including being the director of the Hoffmann-LaRoche Chorus and vice president of the Nutley Chapter of the Friends of the New Jersey Opera. An accomplished musician, Bono will accompany the chorus on piano.

Pauline Di Quattro, director of the Belleville Assembly of God Church Choir, said that she plans to feature carols with religious themes.

"I have nothing against popular Christmas music, but since we represent a church, we didn't want to leave the Prince of Peace in the background," said Di Quattro, whose husband is the Reverend Anthony Di Quattro, pastor of the Belleville Assembly of God Church.

Rita Favolaro, choir coordinator, agreed. "We want to convey the true meaning of Christmas," she said.

Congregant Madeline E. Hermes will accompany the choir on piano and will also play a special solo entitled "Chapel Chimes."

Members of the Belleville Assembly of God Church Choir are: Daniel Collins, Rose D'Angelo, Sarah DiBiasi, the Reverend Anthony Di Quattro; Annette Franco, Jeanette Franco, Jennie Gaccione, Nancy Gesualdo, Gilbert Hermes, Jr., Patrice Hermes, Wanda McCarthy, John Sayno, Connie Simeone and Rita Tavolaro.

Singing in the Verona-Cedar Grove Chorus/St. Bonaventure Choir will be Ruth Ribar, Betsy Ribar, Nora Mullen, Leonard Kientz, Ray Phillips, Alice Cotton, Donna Boech, Karen Williams, Linda Bartell, Lynn Vincent, Jan Harder, Dee Lombardi, and Howard Haimann.

Richard DeMarco is arrested for operating a 'chop shop'

Richard DeMarco, owner of DeMarco's Auto Body on Mill Street in Belleville, was arrested Nov. 19 and charged with sale and transfer of a handgun and attempted hindering apprehension and prosecution stemming from a scheme to steal back evidence against himself.

The arrest stemmed from an investigation by the Essex County Prosecutor's Office that began in 1983 as a probe of illegal weapons sales. Authorities, including the Prosecutor's Office, the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms and the auto unit of the New Jersey State Police, executed search warrants at the Fairfield home of DeMarco along with the Edison home of Dominick DeNora, who owns the All-American Auto Salvage in Rahway.

Authorities seized $38,000 in cash and three stolen handguns from DeMarco's home, Schneider said. Police also found a complete "chop shop" for altering and converting cars, he added.

Tool sets, vehicle engines with altered serial numbers, various motor vehicle documents, tools for altering car serial numbers and repainting equipment and coded key-equipment.

DeMarco was released on $20,000 bail.

BACTERIAL MENINGITIS VACCINE

Newly approved by the FDA, and now available, is a vaccine that prevents bacterial meningitis caused by hemophilus influenza type B (HIB) bacteria. Bacterial meningitis, the inflammation of the membranes covering the brain and spinal cord, affects up to 20,000 children under age five each year. It can cause hearing impairment, paralysis, seizures, mental retardation and death. The HIB bacteria is the leading cause of meningitis. The new vaccine is strongly recommended for children 24 months or older. It is also recommended for those children 18 months or older who are at higher risk such as those attending day care centers. Single injection immunization doses of the vaccine will be distributed through pediatricians and family-practice physicians.

If you have any questions on this vaccine call your physician. If you have any questions on medications call ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. ## The Geneva Summit Television commentators and columnists are posing the question — who won at the Geneva Summit, Ronnie Reagan or Mike Gorbachev?

Others are trying to develop a competitive story over the performances of Nancy Reagan vs. Russia's First Lady, Raisa Gorbachev. Who was more fashionably dressed, Nancy or Raisa?

It looks like we are approaching the silly season — with some reporters failing to concentrate on the more important aspects of the Geneva Summit meeting.

We are very happy with President Reagan's performance. We are pleased with the fact that Russia's Gorbachev appears to be a more realistic leader than any of his predecessors. Additionally, far and away, Gorbachev has a superior intellect when compared with his predecessors. Able and distinguished, Gorbachev is still a Communist, but nevertheless, he appears to live in the real world, well knowing a nuclear war is unthinkable.

Twenty million Russians lost their lives in World War II. They never want to face a repeat performance — and we don't blame them. The Geneva Summit meeting was the first step in the long road back to peace on earth.

Peace will not come overnight. There are too many brushfires around the world that will go on for some time before we can see an end in sight. However, the fact that Reagan and Gorbachev met — and intend to repeat their performance next year and the year after should give the world great comfort.

We appear to be on the road to a more peaceful world, thanks to Reagan and Gorbachev. But peace doesn't come easy. One has to work at it with more dedication than it takes to win a war. Major wars are usually shortlived, but a lasting peace is forever. And what you do forever, takes a lot longer, than what one does in a short period of time.

The Geneva Summit Conference should not lead us to believe that Communists are ready to abandon their goal of world conquest. We have no problem with two opposite ideologies not only fighting for survival, but fighting for an expansion of their terrain — but the fight should be with words and not guns.

One giant step toward that goal was achieved by the Geneva Summit Conference.

Our New Town Hall

There is a controversy brewing over plans to build a new municipal building adjacent to the existing one, on Washington Avenue.

A group of citizens, under the banner of "Belleville Revitalization Committee," object to the plans, and recommend the present town hall be expanded eastward, by building an addition in the back of the existing structure. The argument goes that the land already is owned by the town — and therefore, why not use it, instead of buying the more expensive land on Washington Avenue which could otherwise be used for private development, thus increase tax rates.

There is logic to the group's thinking, but the tilt is in favor of the Township Commissioners' plan. A spanking new addition, fronting on Washington Avenue, meets the objective of "Revitalization". Most, if not all, of Washington Avenue is subject to revitalization. The heart of the street is still the town hall — and probably will remain so. The popular idea would be to adopt the citizens committee's suggestion, but in the long run, it would defeat the very purpose of the existence of the Belleville Revitalization Committee.

However, the Township Commission should rethink the idea of building a civic center to serve recreational purposes and a museum to house Fire Department relics. The Fire Department Museum collection is at the Franklin Avenue Firehouse. While it is not on our main street, it's still close enough for interested citizens to visit.

Public meetings on major issues are held to provide an opportunity for citizens' input on matters of great public concern. It appears appropriate to set aside an evening to hear all the arguments on both sides of this issue — bearing in mind that citizens elect Commissioners to act for them and in their place. The final responsibility will rest with the elected officials.

The Flea Market

Well, the Valley section of Belleville will not have to contend with a flea market, and all the problems such a facility obviously brings with it.

The proposed flea market was too close to School Nine — only one block away — for the comfort of parents whose children attend the educational facility.

Flea markets are well attended — drawing customers from a very large area. A flea market located on a highway some distance from educational facilities could be countenanced. The applicant did the right thing by our people by withdrawing his application. By taking this action, the applicant probably eliminated a rejection by Belleville Board of Adjustment.

Marion Crecco is 'breath of fresh air'

To the editor:

In response to an article in your column, Mr. Golden, where you made reference to the last gubernatorial election, suggesting that it was the coattails of Governor Kean, who elected John Kelly and Marion Crecco to the Assembly, then further on, you made mention of three people, who worked diligently for the two Republican Assembly candidates. Jim, let me refresh your memory.

On numerous telephone conversations, that I had with you, among many other politicians and also the people that you mentioned, did not give this woman a chance in hell, to make any kind of a showing, let alone, win. You were justified in believing that she could not win. At first, I had my doubts too; in as much as every politician, starting with the commissioners and the board of education members (with a few exclusions) made it abundantly clear, especially to me, that not only she couldn't win, but they definitely were not going for her. It went this way with the commissioners, who all seemed to be for Kelly, and some were for Kelly and Fortunato or Kelly and Adubato.

The board members also made it clear that they were for John Kelly and Adubato or Fortunato. So, if you talked to the politicians, this woman was out. Jim, if you search your memory, this runs parallel to the first time that you ran and won. If you talked to the politicians then, you didn't have a prayer in hell! They were all lined up against you, saying that you were crazy, being a loud-mouthed bus driver and making reference to your large vocabulary; in other words Jim, doing everything to hurt your election. In spite of all these odds against you, I still predicted that you were going to win, for the same reason that I didn't falter in Marion Crecco's election. (Not only did you win Jim, but you came out top man.)

Jim, because of my business rapport with the "grass roots" people, especially in Belleville, they gave me confidence, even though the politicians were out to knock your ears off (politically speaking). With Marion, the only difficulty in getting her elected, was to let her get out to meet the people, eyeball to eyeball.

As I walked the streets with her, house to house, I could see the tremendous response from the "grass roots" people. I, as a businessman, who is always selling something, started to analyze her. This was easy for me, because this woman didn't even look like a politician, didn't act like a politician and didn't speak like a politician, you might say, to borrow an old cliché, "a breath of fresh air," in the political arena.

As for the people that you mentioned in your column, election day, they were all very visible, wearing Kelly hats, Kelly buttons and handing out Kelly brochures. That reminds me, once again, when you ran and after the election when you won, they all tried to jump on the band wagon. This woman's victory, like yours, enables her to go to Trenton, uncommitted to all the politicians and to be committed only to the voters of the 30th District. Jim, you also were elected by the people, which enabled you to speak your peace, free of any obligations to the politicians.

To Marion Crecco, I want to wish her the very best of luck, and that I was honored to have worked with many of my friends, who do not need to be mentioned, because they want nothing from Marion Crecco, but her services to the voters of the 30th District and the very best that she has to offer to the taxpayers. God speed to her in all her endeavors.

New town hall site is wrong choice

To the editor:

Democracy! It's a constant battle to exercise it in Belleville.

For the past several months I have been attending town meetings with members of the Revitalization Committee to keep abreast of our Town Hall expansion. Each time we asked the status of the project, Mayor Marotti told us they were in the process of hiring an architect. A few meetings ago, we asked the Mayor if he would allow citizens to offer input to the project when an architect was selected. He stated he would do so and would contact us at that time. We were never called!

At the Oct. 22 meeting, a resolution was approved authorizing the board of commissioners to retain an appraiser for the purpose of purchasing the two properties adjacent to Town Hall (north). ($2500.00 was allocated for the appraisal of these two properties.)

The people of Belleville supported a bond issue to extend our present Town Hall and construct a new police station to the rear, on property already owned by the town. By building on our own property, we would not have to acquire land and buildings at taxpayer's expense and in doing so, lose valuable ratables.

There are benefits by adding to the rear. An elevator can be installed in the new section which would also service the old structure. Another benefit would be to preserve the historic facade on our present building which is embellished with bold letters in stone, "Belleville Town Hall". The statues and columns in front of this lovely building were recently restored. The entire building is still in the process of having all new windows installed. Our municipal court was recently renovated in beautiful, expensive, maintenance-free formal paneling. An addition to this building should preserve its irreplaceable characteristics, not detract from them.

At the Nov. 12 meeting I asked Mayor Marotti why he made the decision to buy the two properties next door and build an entirely new building. He said the five commissioners made the decision. When I pursued the matter, as to where they received their advice or input, the Mayor screamed, "The Town Hall is going next door and that is all there is to it!"

Many questions have gone unanswered. Why weren't concerned citizens allowed input? Why was land being purchased even before an architect was hired? Why is valuable Washington Avenue frontage being purchased which would result in a loss of ratables? Do we need more tax-exempt property in town, especially on Washington Avenue? Do these five gentlemen have the right to spend our tax dollars as they see fit, without our approval?

Once again, public apathy allows this to happen. Let's all get out to the next town meeting and get these questions answered. It's your money!

By the way, an architect was hired that evening, Nov. 12, by resolution 24. No such resolution appeared on the agenda. Why was it hastily added on at the end of the meeting? Will the questions ever end in Belleville?

Resident agrees with town hall locale

To the editor:

I would like to express my opinion about the recent determination by the Belleville Board of Commissioners in regards to the location of the new municipal complex.

I agree with the Washington Avenue location decision. The reason is logical, sound and should give a message to any business or developer considering a possible Belleville location site and also to the businesses already on the Avenue.

When the mayor publicly announced that there would be a resolution in regards to a $10 million bond issue for the purpose of building a new municipal complex, he did so on the same night that the commissioners gave their determination of possibly designating part of Washington Avenue as a blighted area.

Mayor Marotti said that he believed Washington Avenue could be revitalized without blight and to "start the ball rolling" he announced the bond issue regarding the municipal complex. It would seem senseless to build the proposed structure behind our present Town Hall. Are we revitalizing Belleville Avenue and Valley Street or Washington Avenue?

I don't believe that the Washington Avenue location would in any way diminish the historical beauty and design of our present Town Hall. It would represent an analogy in structure, whose theme could be expansion and growth but not forgetting from where we came.

I would take pride knowing that our municipal complex would be on a main street in the heart of town. It rightfully belongs there.

Yes, we should be mindful of how our tax dollars are spent, but we should also consider the long-range benefits. What better way to say to any sincerely interested developer or businessman, we believe in our community so intensely, as a whole, and in the rebirth of Washington Avenue specifically, that we ourselves invested in it.

Belleville needs senior citizen housing

To the editor:

Wake up Belleville! As a member of a choral group, I have been privileged to sing at various places. Most of our performances are at senior citizen homes — the latest being in Verona.

We were very much taken back by the way they live. The apartments are beautiful, clean and plenty of recreational facilities. While talking to them, they told us how happy they are to live out their final chapter of their lives in such a pleasant environment.

So why am I writing this letter? I am living in Belleville over 25 years. As of this writing, my husband and I live in a garden apartment in Belleville. Two years ago, the state granted the landlord permission to convert to condominiums. We have been given a three-year stay. One year is already gone and it's impossible to find suitable quarters to move to.

Belleville is being overtaken by "condos." What about the seniors who live here? We have paid our "dues" and helped to keep Belleville beautiful. Where do we go from here? Almost all towns have at least one senior housing project. Where's ours? Or don't you care? Wake up Belleville, seniors vote also.

Although I am writing this letter on my own, it can be made certain that a great many Belleville seniors share the same feelings.

School 7 students donate turkeys to needy families in Belleville

By Michelle Jeannotte

Sometimes people don't realize how lucky they are to have the things they do until they hear about the misfortunes of others.

Well, students at School 7 heard about some of the misfortunes other people experience right here in Belleville and thought they'd do something about it.

Students in Mrs. Angela Immediato's fifth grade class at School 7 began a project that eventually involved the entire school population. The students, through advertising, heard about Nutley ShopRite's turkey promotion whereby you save $500 worth of receipts and receive a certificate for a 18-22 lb. turkey.

Over a one-month's period, students saved enough receipts for seven turkeys - more than $3500 worth of receipts, according to Mrs. Cathy Chirico, a fifth grade teacher.

The certificates for the turkeys will be handed over to the Belleville Welfare Department which in turn will hand them over to seven needy families in Belleville. Chirico said.

According to Mrs. Carol Ann Russo of the Welfare Department, the certificates will be placed in baskets which were donated by the American Association of Retired Persons Chapter 2051 of Belleville. The baskets will contain canned and paper goods donated by the Kiwanis of Belleville, senior citizens and Brownie Troop 188 of Belleville, as well as donations from other civic/social organizations and individuals, Russo said.

"It's the time of the year when you actually give to people directly," Russo said. "It's a chance to recognize people in this town who are needy. I think what the students at School 7 are doing is wonderful. Giving to those less fortunate is a very rewarding experience."

The baskets containing the certificates will be given to needy families with children, Russo added.

Certificates for the turkeys must be redeemed at the Nutley ShopRite on Franklin Avenue.

Thanksgiving comes

By The Rev. Gerald A. Fortunato
Silver Lake Baptist Church

Thanksgiving comes with yellow singing days,
A harvest moon, a hearthside's kindled blaze;
Aroma of the ripened fruit, with pumpkins gold,
A table spread and favors manifold.

Thanksgiving comes with scarlet woodland trials,
A dancing red leaf shower the breeze unveils,
With berries in a clustered bright bouquet,
With wild geese winging in a V-display.

The kitchen shelves are like a grand bazaar
With jams and pickles in each shining jar;
The turkey browns; there's sweet potato pie,
And mums are everywhere to beautify.

Thanksgiving comes with loving ties so warm,
Reunion and a glory for the home;
The Pilgrims' faith; the full years that are crowned;
And heartfelt praise for blessings that abound.

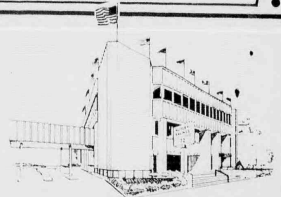

"A
Happy Thanksgiving
on this festive American holiday to all our good friends and their families!"

Italian heritage essay contest winners are honored

By Kara Laczynski

More than 60 relatives and friends of talented Belleville students came out on Tuesday, Nov. 19 to support the winners of the Italian Heritage Biography Essay Contest.

Sponsored jointly by the Belleville Public Library and the Belleville Italian-American Civic Association (BIACA), the contest drew more than 70 applicants from the middle school and senior high school.

Prizes were donated by BIACA Savings bonds for $200, $100 and $50 were awarded to the first, second and third prize winners in each of the two age categories for students in grades 7-9 and 10-12.

Honorable mention prizes of $10 each were given to five essayists in each age group.

BIACA president Chris Albanese said the contest was conceived after his organization donated 17 books about Italian heritage to the library last year.

"We came up with the idea of the biography contest because we donated the books and thought, how are we going to get the kids to go to the library and use them?" Albanese said.

The contest was effective in exposing students to the collection, according to Belleville Library Director David Bryant.

"There was light utilization before the contest was announced, and heavy use of the books afterwards," he said.

Students chose a wide variety of subjects about whom to write, from 15th century explorer Amerigo Vespucci to Frank Sinatra. The life of renaissance artist Leonardo da Vinci was a popular theme, according to Bryant.

The contest was so successful that BIACA is exploring the possibility of making it an annual event.

"We will have to sponsor more fundraising events to cover the cost, but I think it can be done," Albanese said.

In the category for students in grades 7-9, the contest winners were: Kimberly Fraone, grade 8 first prize; Joey Viscido, grade 8, second prize; and Subodh Lal, grade 8, third prize. Honorable mention recipients were David Aufiero, grade 8; Sue Aufiero, grade 8; Melanie Bonacorsa, grade 7; Chantel Hughes, grade 8; and Marc Nakashian, grade 8.

Winners in the category for students age 10-12 were: Veronica Valvano, grade 11, first prize; Jennifer Zarra, grade 10, second prize; and Lenore Chieffo, grade 12, third prize.

Robert DiGori, grade 12; Laura Messito, grade 12; Eric Nazzola, grade 11; Antonia Zangari, grade 10; and Gail Zucker, grade 12 received honorable mentions.

for professional use as recognition of her mother's devotion. The following year she was admitted to the New York State bar.

The next fourteen years she stayed at home to care for her three children, Donna, John Jr. and Laura. She occasionally worked as a part-time civil lawyer for her husband's real estate business. In her spare time she was involved in local politics.

In 1974, Geraldine Ferraro took a full-time position as an assistant district attorney in the Investigation's Bureau. In 1975, she was assigned to the Special Victims Bureau, which handles cases of rape, child abuse and domestic violence. She quit the D.A.'s office in 1978 because of her dissatisfaction with a boss who paid her less than her male colleagues. I support her in this act because it is female discrimination. There is no reason why women should get paid less than men for doing the same job.

In 1978, she became the Democratic representative from the 9th Congressional District. During her years as representative she did many things to help her old neighborhood in Queens. In 1980 and 1982 she won reelection. She has strong beliefs concerning current issues and she acts on them. She has voted against mandatory busin. I sort of agree with her and disagree on that subject. She supports funding for abortions especially in cases of rape. I agree with her 100% in this topic. In 1980 and 1982 she was elected secretary of the Democratic caucus. In 1984 she was appointed chairman of the Democratic platform committee, the first woman to hold that post.

The first nomination by a major party of a woman for vice president would generate media exposure and entice women to support the Democratic ticket. Walter Mondale took these factors into consideration. He considered Ferraro and Dianne Feinstein, Mayor of San Francisco, as possible running mates. On July 12, 1984, Ferraro agreed to run with Mondale. Mondale was hopeful of drawing votes from Italian-Americans and women. But Mrs. Ferraro believed she was selected because she was qualified.

As soon as the campaign started, her husband's tax returns started the campaign on a sour note. But this did not stop the Mondale-Ferraro campaign. They went from state to state, city to city, attending political parties and meetings and debating against Reagan and Bush about many topics. But most of all they fought a hard battle. But the hard battle suffered a hard defeat on November 6, 1984. President Reagan won forty-nine states and 525 electoral votes. The Democratic ticket got 13 electoral votes, but it took 36,930,923 of the popular vote.

Even though the election had had results, Mrs. Ferraro is thinking of bidding for the Senate seat of New York Republican Alfonse D'Amato in 1986.

The Zaccaros live in a large home in the Forest Hills Gardens section of Queens. They own a winter home in St. Croix and a beach house on Fire Island.

They have three successful children: Donna, a financial analyst; John Jr., a student at Middlebury College in Vermont; and Laura, a student at Brown University.

Mrs. Ferraro's courage and strong determination open new doors for women. Her acts influence my life and the lives of other women. She has shown how everyone can succeed through hard work. She shows women that it is possible to have a career and manage a family at the same time. I also think she has opened many doors to careers that were unthought of for women. She is an inspiration for all of us.

Guglielmo Marconi paves way for overseas communication

By Veronica Valvano

Grade 11

Guglielmo Marconi, a great Italian inventor and physicist, was born on April 25, 1874, in Bologna, about the same time that Alexander Graham Bell was attempting to perfect the invention of the telephone. Unlike many successful scientists, Marconi did not rise out of a poor and unfortunate family structure. Possessing a small fortune, his father was actually a retired businessman and a distinguished land owner. Annie Jameson Marconi, a vivacious Irish singer, was his mother, teacher and guide. His brilliant discoveries which greatly benefited the future of mankind can be attributed to his strong character. Having inherited the commercial success of his father and the strong individualism and deep musical background of his mother, Marconi was full of the determination and self-confidence of a true achiever.

Unknowningly, Guglielmo Marconi's legacy may have been planned at birth. During the rejoicing of the Marconi's servants upon Guglielmo Marconi's arrival, an old gardener commented: "Che orechi grandi hai!" "What big ears he has!" According to family legend, his mother brashly answered: "He will be able to hear the still small voice of the air." This physical feature was truly an asset for a man whose destiny was to expand the science of long distance communication. Thus, unconsciously, his mother had perceived a valuable premonition.

Completely untroubled and free from worry, Marconi's childhood at his father's Villa Grifone at Pontecchio in Italy was very pleasant. As a boy, Marconi was self-sufficient and absorbed in his own world of science, invention and study.

During his lifetime, Marconi made many contributions to humanity. His extensive studies and experiments began when he entered the University of Bologna. While studying there, he worked with Professor Augusto Righi, a man who had been studying electromagnetic waves for quite some time. Marconi believed that these waves could carry messages from one place to another. He succeeded in sending messages a distance of one mile in 1895.

Because the Italian government showed no interest in his work, Marconi was to England. In 1896, he took out the first patent for wireless telegraphy, and a year later, he formed Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., in London.

Communication was established across the English Channel, and eventually in 1901, Marconi communicated signals across the Atlantic Ocean for the first time. Adopted by the British and Italian navies, Marconi's transatlantic wireless telegraph was available to the public in 1907. Four years earlier, Marconi had started a news service between the United States and England for the London Times.

Besides being in charge of the Italian forces' wireless equipment, he also made a few important discoveries during World War I. He found that short waves, requiring less power than long waves, could be sent for great distances. Also, Marconi invented the beam aerial system that sends signals in one direction. Modern long-distance radio communication depends on the short waves and directed beam improved by Marconi.

Marconi was awarded honors and titles in many countries. In 1909, he and Ferdinand Braun jointly received the Nobel Prize in physics. He received the title of marchese (marquis) in 1929, and shortly after, became president of the Royal Italian Academy.

When Guglielmo Marconi died in 1937, he was experimenting with short waves and microwaves.

Without the effort and dedication of men like Marconi, this world wouldn't have the advantage of fast communication. Before his discoveries, overseas communications took months, sometimes years. Not only were his experiments important for wireless telegraphy, but they also became valuable for the present day radio. Every time a toner, such as myself, flips on the "top forties," he should be grateful to Mr. Marconi.

As for myself, I can always remember the radio being there for me. It is a companion, a news reporter, a teacher and a source of enjoyment.

Knights of Columbus sponsor blood bank

The Eugene "Cappy" Barnett Blood Bank, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Council 835 of Belleville, will be conducted Friday, Dec. 6, from 3 - 7 p.m. at the K of C Hall, 94 Bridge St.

Giving a pint of blood is virtually painless and the experience is rewarding for the donor, Gerard Hickey, blood bank chairman, said.

Pints of blood collected will be used for medical treatments. Components of blood, such as plasma, packet cells and clotting factors, will be used.

This year's goal, according to Hickey, is 50 pints.

The drive is open to all members of the community as well as brother knights. A complete physical is recommended before donating blood, Hickey said.

For information, call Hickey at 667-2263.

Clara Maass Medical Center submits certificate of need to state department

Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville has submitted a Certificate of Need to the New Jersey State Department of Health, according to Robert S. Curtis, president.

"The certificate outlines the hospital's future strategies to downsize our acute care function and upgrades the medical center's commitment to the elderly through the expansion of services and the establishment of a long-term care component," Curtis said.

"The certificate will allow the medical center to renovate and modernize the main patient care building which has been the focus of acute care for 25 years," he added.

Major components in the Certificate of Need are:

- Creation of a comprehensive Geriatric Program to include two Long-Term Care Nursing Units, Medical Senior Day Care, Nutrition/Education Programs and Health Screenings.
- Creation of an eight-bed surgical intensive care unit.
- Conversion of 100 acute care beds to long-term care for the elderly.
- Major renovation and modernization of several key departments in the facility: Same Day Services; Pharmacy; Respiratory Therapy; Radiation Oncology; Medical Records;

Nursing Units; and Radiology.

- Modernization and refurbishment of the physical plant to include patient rooms, increasing the number of patient bathrooms and expanding nursing stations, upgrading the heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems and modernization of the elevator system.
- Other areas of renovation include: Nuclear Medicine,

Emergency Room and Pre-Admission Testing.

The total cost of the Certificate of Need is approximately $10,000, Curtis said.

"The Board of Trustees and I are most confident that the direction set forth in the Certificate of Need will position the hospital to effectively respond to future demands on our facility," Curtis said.

Interagency Council plans Dec. 9 meeting

The Belleville Interagency Council will meet Monday, Dec. 9 at noon, at the Cerebral Palsy Center to discuss its programs for 1986.

Members of the group include the AARP Chapter 2051, the Belleville Board of Education, Belleville Special Education, Belleville Department of Public Affairs, Belleville Ministerium, the Belleville Public Library, Clara Maass Medical Center, Community Mental Health Services, the Cerebral Palsy Center, Consolidated Presidents, P.T.O., Division of Youth and Family Services, Essex County Geriatric Center, Family Services of Newark and the Junior Woman's Club of Belleville.

Among the projects that the Belleville Interagency Council has sponsored include: the Belleville Community Information Center at the Belleville Public Library, a central resource listing all available services and where to obtain them; seminars and workshops on child development, parenting skills, and the problems of aging; television coverage of Belleville's service agencies, taped by WBHS; and "Focus On" articles in the Belleville Times, outlining the purposes and organization of Belleville's human service agencies.

Gregory Jarman wins essay contest

Gregory Jarman, a fifth grader at School 7, was among the winners of an essay contest sponsored by the Benedetto Croce Educational Society of Newark. Jarman was one of two winners selected from Belleville. Following is his essay, based on the theme: "Christopher Columbus: Determination Equals Success."

By Gregory Jarman

Christopher Columbus was a man who had a dream. He wanted to be a sailor, and went to sea when he was 14 years old. As he grew up he began to believe that the world was not flat as most people said but instead it was round, and that he could sail to the west and go all the way around to India in the East.

People laughed at his ideas, and for many years he had no chance to try it. But finally the Queen of Spain gave him the ships, Nina, Pinta and Santa Maria so that he could try to make his dream come true. He sailed in 1492 and many people who watched him leave thought he was crazy and would never be seen again.

Even his own sailors had doubts, so after they sailed on the empty ocean for weeks and found nothing they wanted to turn back. But Columbus wouldn't give up and he kept them going. Finally they landed in the new world. He had not found India, but he found something even better. It was a whole new hemisphere that later would become many new countries and home for millions of people.

The lesson of Columbus is that if you really believe in something you must try your best and not let other people discourage you. Today there are people who have many great dreams like finding cures for diseases and exploring space and so forth. The ones who finally do it will be people like Columbus who don't need the agreement of everyone to start out and have the courage and determination to make their dream come true.

Library sponsors annual picture book contest

The Belleville Public Library will sponsor its National Library Week Picture Book Contest for 1986.

The contest is open to students, grades K-12, as well as adults. The books written may be fiction or non-fiction, should be illustrated with original drawings or pictures and should be made from construction paper, oaktag or any other substantial material.

Each entry must have on its cover the name of the book, the author's name, address, telephone number and school and teacher's name if the author is a student.

One of the main requirements for the contest is that the book must be original and not copied from another author. All entries in the contest must be brought to the library by Saturday, March 8, 1986, at 5 p.m.

Judging will be done on the basis of creativity, proper English usage and artistry. All entries must be legible or they will not be judged. Books with a mixture of handwritings, such as a combination of cursive and printing in the same paragraph, will not be judged. Correct paragraph and margins should be utilized.

Judges for the contest include David Bryant, library director; Adrea Cohen, assistant library director; Cindy LaRue, reference and young peoples librarian; Kathleen Mollica, branch librarian; and Alice Norris, children's librarian.

Questions regarding the contest should be addressed to Adrea Cohen or David Bryant at 759-9200.

Belleville High School Class of '65 holds gala reunion at Chandelier

Celebrating the 20 year reunion of the Belleville High School Class of 1965 are Joyce Colanino Burns of Fairfield, Sandra DeMaio Olszak of Fairfield, Eleanor Mostello Iracana of Lake Hiawatha, Linda Silvestri Raniero of Bloomfield, Marlene LaLuna Joanow of Bloomfield, Olga Matthews Pomaco of West Caldwell and Elaine Peda Perna of Roseland.

Floral thank you - Joseph Burns presents a bouquet of flowers to Elaine Peda Perna of Roseland, chairperson of the 20 year reunion of the Class of '65.

Mr. President - Joseph Cervaso of Nutley, president of the Class of '65, greets his former classmates and their guests.

Trim your Thanksgiving bird with two great new traditions

Thanksgiving brings with it a variety of traditions - from the beginnings of winter, to family gatherings, to holiday football games. But certainly the foremost tradition of the holiday is a sumptuous, satisfying meal. This Thanksgiving, you can bring a tradition of the best tasting, freshest foods and cooking ease to your table with these recipes and ideas from your Grand Union supermarket. At Grand Union, you'll find the highest quality and widest variety of products for your holiday meal needs, at low prices to be thankful for.

Turkey is a budget-beater at any time of the year, and it gives more for your money than any variety of poultry or game bird. At the Grand Union Butcher Shop, you'll find the freshest and meatiest turkey for your holiday meal, as all Grand Union's domestic poultry is USDA Inspected and guaranteed Grade A to assure you of high quality and wholesomeness.

When choosing your bird, allow one pound per serving, or three-quarters pound per serving for large turkeys over 12 pounds. Fresh poultry cooks best and tastes best while it's still fresh, so purchase your fresh turkey from Grand Union within a day or two of your dinner. Remove it from the store wrapper, lightly wash it and pat dry, then wrap it loosely in butcher paper or waxed paper and store it in the coldest part of your refrigerator.

Turkey is certainly the traditional feast of the day, but you can bring new traditions to your Thanksgiving table with these recipes from Grand Union: Dried Fruit Stuffing and Savory Sesame Seed Biscuits. Made with fresh, wholesome ingredients from Grand Union, they provide a change of taste for the meal and make perfect trimmings for a traditional Thanksgiving feast.

As with traditional stuffings, bread cubes mixed with sauteed onion and butter provide the bulk for Dried Fruit Stuffing. But its unique flavor comes from dried apples and peaches or pears, soaked in brandy, then mixed with raisins, grated lemon rind and seasonings. Dried Fruit Stuffing is a special treat for Thanksgiving turkey and it can also be used with duck, goose or pork.

When it comes time to bring on the bread at Thanksgiving, bring on another change of taste with Savory Sesame Seed Biscuits. A basket of piping hot biscuits makes any meal special, and Savory Sesame Seed Biscuits will flavor your Thanksgiving feast in a unique way. They're made with traditional biscuit fixings of flour, baking powder, baking soda, butter, salt and milk, but with the special addition of toasted sesame seeds from Grand Union mixed throughout.

You'll find dozens of other recipes using wholesome ingredients available free of charge at Grand Union. And for more tips on choosing and cooking fresh poultry and game birds, pick up a copy of Grand Union's "Fine Fowl" booklet, available at the meat and poultry counter of most Grand Union stores, the one-stop shopping place for your holiday cooking needs.

DRIED FRUIT STUFFING
6 tablespoons butter
1 medium onion, finely chopped
4 cups stale white bread, broken in 1/2-inch pieces
1/2 cup dried apples, soaked in brandy until soft
1/2 cup dried peaches or pears, soaked in brandy until soft
1/3 cup raisins
Grated rind of 1 lemon
Salt and freshly ground pepper
In a medium skillet, melt butter. When foamy, add onions and saute until tender. Add bread cubes and saute a minute more. Transfer mixture to a mixing bowl. Drain apples and peaches and cut into small dice. Add them to mixing bowl along with raisins, grated lemon rind, 1 teaspoon salt and half a teaspoon pepper. Mix thoroughly and stuffing is ready to use. Makes 6 cups.

SAVORY SESAME SEED BISCUITS
1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
6 tablespoons chilled butter, cut into 1/4 inch bits
3 tablespoons milk
Flour
1/3 cup toasted sesame seeds*
Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In a mixing bowl, combine flour, baking powder, salt and baking soda. With two knives, or in a food processor, cut butter into flour until it resembles oatmeal flakes. Make a well in center and pour in milk. Gather dough together into a ball. If dough is too wet, sprinkle on some more flour; if too dry, sprinkle on more milk until you have a soft dough. Knead in sesame seeds and wrap in waxed paper. Chill for 1 1/2 hours. On a lightly floured board, roll out dough until 1/8 inch in thickness. Dip a biscuit cutter, about 1 1/2 inches in diameter, in flour and cut out biscuits. Gather dough scraps in a ball, roll out again and cut out biscuits until all dough is used up. Transfer biscuits to ungreased baking sheets and bake for 12 to 15 minutes or until golden. Serve warm. If made in advance, reheat for 5 minutes in a 250 degree oven. Makes 4 dozen 1 1/2 inch biscuits
*You can toast plain sesame seeds by baking them on a baking sheet in a 350 degree oven for 10 minutes or until golden.

Glunk wins NNJIL meet

By now, everyone in town is aware of the amazing accomplishments of Kelli Glunk. The junior gymnast was dominating during the regular season and went on to win the NNJIL championship at Montclair High School.

From there, Glunk advanced to the sectional championships last weekend, taking a fifth place and earning a shot at the state championships, held last night. Needless to say, it's been a story book season for a young lady who almost did not come out for the team back in September.

It was the encouragement of her boyfriend which convinced Glunk to give gymnastics a "second" try this fall. Her story is an interesting one, a young lady who dedicated herself to a sport at an early age, but wore herself out and decided to give the sport a rest.

"I started with ballet lessons when I was two years old," recalled Glunk. "When I was seven, I began gymnastics. By the time I was 11, I was going to gymnastics school and living away from home with my coaches. It was gymnastics, six days a week, six hours a day. I would go to school in the morning, then work out all afternoon."

Needless to say, it was quite a regimen for a young girl just 11 years of age. The gymnastics school that Glunk attended was in Maryland and Kelli lived away from home for two years.

"When I was 13, I quit," said Glunk. "I was burnt out, tired and wanted to come home. I didn't like being away from my family."

So, Glunk came home and decided on cheerleading as her high school days approached. As late as last spring, Glunk was a cheerleader for Belleville High.

"My boyfriend got me to thinking about gymnastics again this season," Glunk said. "The season was already two weeks old, and I decided to give it a shot."

It doesn't take a genius to realize that coach Ray Iannuzzi was delighted with Glunk's decision to compete.

"She's a super kid to be around," the coach said. "She is so coachable and is a big help with the other girls. She is always willing to help out with anything for the team. I couldn't be happier with her all around effort."

Respect for Coach and Teammates

While Iannuzzi is thrilled with Glunk's all around ability, Glunk is quite impressed with her coach.

"I think he's a great person. Coach 'I' is easy to get along with and has really helped me this season. He has taught me a lot and has helped me with some different tricks."

As for her team, Glunk is quite optimistic about next season.

"I think we have a lot of talent coming back next season. The fan turnout this year was real nice, we had big crowds and hopefully we'll have that same success next year. There's a lot of talent on this team."

Missed Opening Match

Iannuzzi knew from the first practice on that Glunk was a special athlete. He didn't want to put any additional pressure on her, but her performances quickly took her out of the shadows. After missing the Clark match because of dental work, Glunk started with a bang, sweeping past Hackensack in the balance beam, parallel bars, floor exercise and vaulting and winning three out of four against Hasbrouck Heights. The following week, she swept past Bloomfield and Teaneck, helping her team to a 4-1 start, its best ever.

Glunk comes from a big family. In addition to her mother, Marie, and father, Charles, Kelli has two sisters, Annie and Nicole and two brothers, Michael and Charles. She also has the admiration and respect of all sports fans at Belleville High School. She has been an outstanding competitor with her best days still ahead of her.

Annual Dinner

The Italian Florentine Club of Belleville and Nutley will hold its second annual Belleville-Nutley football dinner on Wednesday, November 27, 1985, the night before the big game. The head coaches from both teams will speak at the dinner. Last year, approximately 150 people attended the dinner, which turned out to be a rousing success. Proceeds from the dinner will go to a scholarship for a deserving member of the Belleville and Nutley football teams. Last season, John Apicella of Belleville was the local recipient. Apicella is playing college ball at East Stroudsburg. Tickets are $18.00 and can be purchased by calling Belleville High School A.D. Jim Silvestri at 751-1534 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. The dinner will be held at the Florentine's headquarters, located at 34 Carner Avenue, Belleville.

Clarification

I would like to clarify one point in reference to last week's column about the smaller crowds at Municipal Stadium this season. In no way did I imply that there were no loyal Belleville football fans. On the contrary, there are a number of diehard fans, who show up week in and week out to cheer the team on. That point was noted in the article last week. The only thing I asked was, what happened to the larger crowds we were used to in the past? You don't have to convince me of the loyalty and pride that the Belleville sports fans have. The loyal Belleville fan will always stick by his, or her, team. The words Pride and Belleville are certainly synonymous.

Giants Stadium Super Bowl?

Could it be an all New Jersey Super Bowl come January? Could be, especially with the Jets and Giants playing super football right now. Many consider the Jets to be the best team in the AFC now, and the Giants, by virtue of its win against the Rams last week, certainly appear to be a top contender in the NFC. Of course, there is a team from Chicago which could challenge the Giants bid to the big game. Needless to say, the final month of the season will be interesting.

Athlete of the Week

This week, accolades go to Dave Long, who made some key receptions in the Montclair game and has been an outstanding performer all season long.

This Week Quiz

The Chicago Bears are having an outstanding season this year. Back in 1977, the Bears made the playoffs for the first time in 14 years. Name the Bears coach that season and how the team did in the playoffs.

Belleville-Nutley rivalry put to the test once again

By Michael Lamberti

On Thanksgiving morning, the Belleville-Nutley football rivalry will be renewed once more, and with it, another chapter in the long and hard hitting history of the series will be added.

Kickoff is set for 11 a.m. at Nutley Park and a large crowd should witness a good ball game.

You don't have to remind either team what happened last year. Belleville had come into the contest with a 6-2 regular season mark, 6-3 if you count the playoffs. The Saturday before, Belleville had traveled to Union and were trounced, 42-0 by the eventual state champions. With three days rest and a lot of momentum left at Union, the Bucs were flat in a 19-6 loss to the Maroon Raiders.

The victory was Nutley's first against Belleville since the 1977 season and assured the Raiders a winning season at 5-4. The loss was particularly painful for the Bucs because Montclair had lost to Passaic on Thanksgiving morning. If the Belleville had defeated Nutley, it would have won the NNJIL title by one half game over the Mounties. Instead, Montclair and Clifton shared the conference crown with a 5-1-1 mark while Belleville tied with Passaic for second place at 5-2.

"That was a very tough defeat," remembered Buccaneer coach John Senesky. "A victory would have given us the conference crown and made the season one of the best in Belleville history. It was a tough loss, especially for the seniors."

Senesky, a Belleville player in the early 60's, knows the importance of the Belleville-Nutley game.

"If we can beat Nutley this year, it would be like a winning season for me," the coach said. "It's been a disappointing year (the Bucs are 2-6), but a victory over Nutley would be very special, especially for the seniors."

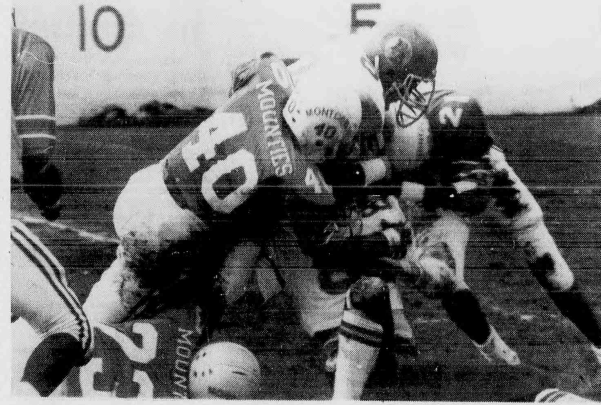

On the other end of the coin, the victory was big for Nutley. Coach Pete La Barberia called the victory over Belleville the biggest in his coaching career at Nutley. After a six year absence from victory in the big game, Nutley savored the hard earned victory and reclaimed the annual trophy that is presented to the winning team.

While the rivalry is old, the Thanksgiving Day contest of the Belleville-Nutley game is new. This is only the second year that the two teams will play on Turkey Day. In 1983, the clubs met on opening day, at Nutley, with Belleville winning, 12-6. Mike Murphy led the Buccaneer attack on that day.

In 1982, the teams met in week five, with Nutley looking to pull a big upset over a Belleville team ranked highly in the state. The Raiders played a tough defensive game, but Murphy was the difference again, running 83 yards from scrimmage in the second quarter for the only TD of the game. Belleville won 10-3.

In 1981, the Bucs had a veteran team consisting of Frank Fazzini, Phil Cerza, Jeff Walsh, Angelo Centanni and Craig Mack. Using a balanced attack and taking advantage of Maroon errors, Belleville coasted to a 26-0 victory. The only negative aspect of the game

Gymnastics team completes campaign at state finals

After months of competition, the Belleville gymnastics team ended its campaign at the state championships last Wednesday as Kelli Glunk competed in all four events.

Next week, the Times will wrap up the 1985 season for the team.

Glunk, the junior gymnast that set every possible Belleville gymnastics record, finished with an impressive score of 34.4 in the all around competition. To say the competition was strong could be an understatement, according to Buc coach, Ray Iannuzzi.

"The competitors were tough," praised Iannuzzi. "There were some tremendous scores out there. Kelli was in with the best in the state. The girl who won (from Paterson Kennedy) finished with a score of 38.1 (out of a possible 40). She's going to Madison Square Garden to compete later in the month. That gives you an idea of what kind of athletes were there."

Glunk did a fine job in all four events. She scored an 8.2 in the uneven parallel bars. In the balance beam, Glunk fell during her routine, but still finished with an 8.15. On the floor exercise, Glunk scored a tremendous 9.05.

"The sixth place score in the floor exercise was 9.20," Iannuzzi said. "That gives you an idea of how good the other girls were."

In the vaulting exercise,

Glunk scored a 9.0, rounding out a tremendous season, one that started against Hasbrouck Heights in late September and ended with a trip to the state finals.

"I'm really proud of her," Iannuzzi said of Glunk. "I told her that on the way down to the states and afterward on the way home. I also told her that there's no reason why we can't come back here next season."

Thus, the 1985 season is now officially in the record books for Belleville High gymnastics. It was a season in which the team posted a 6-4 mark, the first winning season in school history. Next week, a look at all the athletes that made the '85 season possible.

Rec open gym begins Dec. 7

The Belleville Recreation Department will be conducting registration for its Men's Open Gym for Basketball until Dec. 6.

The Men's Open Gym will be conducted on Saturdays, from 1-4 p.m., beginning Dec. 7 at the Belleville Middle School Boys' gym.

The program will be limited to Belleville residents only who must register for the program at the rec house, 407 Jorammon St. Residents will be required to pay a $1 application fee, which includes a photo identification card used to gain admission to the gym.

When applying, each participant must furnish his driver's license as proof of residency and a close-up facial photo.

Registration will be conducted Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m., at the rec office. Residents who cannot register in person may mail in a copy of their driver's license along with a picture and the $1 application fee.

For information, call the rec office at 450-3422 during regular office hours.

Patel and Lijo play soccer at Stevens

College Soccer Players - Sanjay Patel of Belleville, left, is a reserve forward for the Stevens Institute of Technology varsity soccer team. The junior, in his third year of competition, will be looking for a starting role next fall. Jaime Lijo of Belleville, right, a sophomore at Stevens Institute of Technology, is a fine back for the varsity soccer team. This is his second year of varsity ball and Lijo should be a big part of Stevens' plans for next year. The Stevens varsity soccer team posted a record of 22-9 this fall. Lijo also earned IAC honors for his efforts.

New Jersey Nets offer seniors two $1,000 college scholarships

The New Jersey Nets of the National Basketball Association for the sixth consecutive year, will award two $1,000 college scholarships to local high school seniors.

The local winners will be among 50 seniors throughout the nation who will be awarded $1,000 scholarships by the Association and its 23 teams as part of the League's scholarship program, first started in 1980.

"A college education is more important than ever before," said Lewis Schaffel, executive vice president of the Nets. "We recognize the importance of a college education and are most pleased that, for the sixth consecutive year, we will be able to assist two local students achieve their goal of a higher education."

In order to apply for a New Jersey Nets scholarship, a senior must submit an official application form, his or her high school transcript, SAT scores, a letter of recommendation from a faculty member and an essay of under 500 words on the subject, "The Importance Of A College Education."

Applications must be received by February 14, 1986, and scholarship winners will be announced by March 14, 1986.

The scholarships can be used at any accredited four-year college or two-year junior college or community college.

Scholarship applications and information can be obtained from high school guidance counselors or by writing: Scholarships, New Jersey Nets, Meadowlands Arena, East Rutherford, N.J. 07073.

Applications will be judged on the basis of academic and extra-curricular achievements, along with the contents of the essay.

To be eligible for one of the two New Jersey Nets scholarships, a senior must live within a 75-mile radius of the Meadowlands Arena in East Rutherford.

was that Tom Apicella broke his leg in the contest and missed the remainder of the campaign.

In 1980, the teams met at night in Municipal Stadium. Both clubs scored quickly as John Melillo hit Ken Constantino with a 50 yard scoring pass and Nutley came right back with a 72 yard run to tie it at seven. The two teams then played tough defense the rest of the way. Late in the fourth quarter, Melillo, on a fourth down pass, found an opening up the middle and ran 31 yards for the winning score. The Bucs won, 13-7.

In '79, it was one big play that won the game for Belleville. Quarterback Ed Aulisi hit Len Mendola with a 41 yard pass in the third quarter for the only tally in a 7-0 Buc win. Once again, defense played a key role.

Belleville won big in 1978, 31-0, marking the first Buc victory in the series since 1971 and the first Belleville TD against Nutley since 1973. Nutley posted a 7-3 win in 1974 and tossed shutouts in 1975-77 by the scores of 0-0, 14-0 and 7-0 respectively.

Elks to collect toys & food at football game

The Belleville-Nutley Elks Committee on Child Abuse will conduct its third annual food and toy drive at the Belleville-Nutley Thanksgiving Day football game at the Park Oval.

Members of the committee will be collecting food and toys at the gate. Donations will be given to the Marine Toys for Tots and the Belleville-Nutley Committee on Child Abuse.

The '75 game, played in a steady rain, saw Belleville lose two touchdowns by penalties. The scoreless tie of '75 was the only such game over the last 20 years, possibly longer.

It should be another entertaining contest on Thanksgiving morning at Nutley. Who knows what new heroes will emerge from this game.

Academically-talented students enjoy trip to Pennsylvania

(The following article was submitted by the fifth and sixth graders of the Academically-Talented Program at School 7 to Michael Nardiello, Assistant Superintendent of School District of School Michael Lally and the Belleville Board of Education detailing the highlights of their trip to Lancaster, Pa.)

By Emily Fair

On October 28 through October 30, we toured some parts of Pennsylvania. We went to Valley Forge, where we saw a part of a chapel. We went to a museum and took pictures of George Washington's hair, some of the weapons he used, some of the clothing he wore and other interesting things.

We also saw George Washington's Headquarters. Throughout the area, there were so many places that said, "George Washington slept here" or "George Washington walked here." He must have really gotten around! We also saw some of the huts that all of his soldiers slept in during the war in 1775. We were told that just about all of the men in the army died that winter from the cold weather and starvation.

We learned that a war may be won, but sometimes it doesn't even matter - unless the fighting was for something that was a really good cause.

Next, after Valley Forge, we went to the pretzel factory in Lancaster. We got free samples. For some reason, they weren't as good as the pretzels we had gotten in a grocery store.

After the pretzel factory, we toured the Amish farms and learned all about what foods the Amish people grow. The one farm we found most interesting was the tobacco farm. The Amish grow tobacco with radish plants. When it is done growing, they cut it and hang it upside down to dry out. Then they sell it and make over $1,000 a year.

Following our visit to the farms, we went to one of the Amish houses to see what was inside. We saw the worship room, which, by the way, was very interesting. We saw the kitchen and other parts of the living quarters.

Our next stop included a visit to Gettysburg, where we saw an electric map of the Battle at Gettysburg and a short movie about the war. After the movie was over, we saw the cyclorama of the Battle of Gettysburg. From the movie we learned that many people fought in a short, but hard, war to protect their freedom. We should be thankful for our brave ancestors.

We toured the battlefield with a guide who made everything a whole lot of fun. We also went to see where Abe Lincoln delivered his Gettysburg Address. That was pretty interesting since we always wanted to know what it was like.

The last part of our trip took us to Philadelphia where we went on a tour of some main historical attractions. That was fun, too. We saw the Liberty Bell, the Philadelphia Mint, and a lot of other places. We learned a lot about other kinds of people of present times and of long ago in the 1700s and 1800s.

Many of us thought that the most worthwhile part of the trip was Gettysburg, where we learned about the Gettysburg Address and the battlefields. The cyclorama was good, too, but not the best. The battlefields would be the place many of us would like to go back to.

The place that was the least favorite of many of us was the huts where the soldiers stayed during the winter at Valley Forge. We don't know why it was the least favorite place, but maybe it was because of the feeling we got when we thought how many good men died in those small huts. It just doesn't seem right.

All in all, our trip to Lancaster, Pa., was a very exciting and educational experience. We got to meet many different people, we learned first-hand about our country's history and we had a lot of fun doing both.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

I'm sure if the leader of the Turkeys, (let's call the leader "Turk") could speak, Turk would say: "On behalf of all the turkeys, please keep your teeth. We turkeys never took care of ours and lost them. Now every year because we can't speak clearly, we just 'gobble, gobble.' People think we're hungry and feed us. We get fat and nice and tender for this time of the year just for you. But please remember after you eat one of my friends and then eat mince and apple and pumpkin pie and pudding and ice cream - please brush your teeth. Don't lose your teeth, and wind up saying 'gobble, gobble.'"

If you're not sure go see our friends Dr. Muglia and Dr. DeMaio. Tell them "Turk sent me."

Kelly set to assume Assembly seat; auto insurance reform gets top billing

By Robert Abrams

John Kelly's experience with elected politics has been an on-again, off-again, and on-again affair.

Originally elected to the state Assembly for a two-year term in 1981, Kelly, a Republican, lost his seat two years later to Democrat Stephen Aduabato Jr. Then, in a comeback attempt, Kelly regained his seat from Aduabato in this month's general election, which also included the landslide victory of Gov. Thomas Kean over his Democratic challenger, Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro.

Kelly and his running mate, Marion Crecco of Bloomfield, soon will hold the two Assembly seats in the 30th legislative district, after winning them from Aduabato and his fellow incumbent, A.J. Buddy Fortunato.

Kelly, who is president of the Nutley Savings and Loan Association, said in his office Friday that he sees a connection between his and Crecco's successful challenge of their Democratic opponents and Gov. Kean's overwhelming victory.

"I'm not an egotist. I think the governor had alot to do with our winning," Kelly said. "This (30th) district is a swing district. It's not easy, so when you have somebody leading the charge like that it has to help us."

Kelly added that a truer test of Republican strength will come in 1987 when Kean, who is a very popular governor, will not be seeking reelection.

"The 1987 election will be the real true test of how good we (Republicans) are. That's the acid test," he said.

Like the governor, Kelly said that auto insurance reform will be among his priorities during his term of office.

Kelly said he wants to set limits on the amounts courts can award individuals for pain and suffering which results from an automobile accident. Specific dollar amounts would correspond to types of injuries. "You break an arm, there's only so much you're going to receive. No more — no less," he said.

"You can't have these cases where they get millions and millions of dollars, because we're (the public) just paying for that. That's craziness," said Kelly, who, during his initial term in the legislature was a member of the Insurance and Banking Committee.

"You're going to see (auto insurance) reform in these two years, or you're going to see all 80 (legislators) thrown out," Kelly said emphatically. "I don't think the public is going to stand for any more of this nonsense."

Kelly said he feels that the real estate tax is the biggest problem facing residents of Essex County.

"The only way you're going to resolve that is you've got to get the state to absorb some of the county costs," Kelly said.

Consistent with this, Kelly supports shifting the costs of running welfare programs and courts from the counties themselves to the state.

Having counties foot the bill for welfare programs and courts is especially unfair in highly urban counties, such as Essex and Hudson, Kelly said. "What I'm saying is it's fairer distribution if it comes out of general revenues, and it comes from everyone in the state," he said.

A bill that would have shifted the costs of the courts from the counties to the state was introduced earlier this year by state Senator Carmen Orechio, also of the 30th legislative district. The bill, which had strong bi-partisan support, was vetoed by Gov. Kean.

Kelly said he also will promote two other legislative initiatives which he began during his first term of office — helping senior citizens pay their real estate taxes, and assisting parents whose children have very serious illnesses which result in substantial medical expenses.

Kelly wants to use state casino revenues to establish a fund from which senior citizens can borrow money to help pay their real estate taxes. A lien would be placed on the borrower's house, and the money paid back to the state when the borrower passes away.

"A lot of (senior citizens) can't afford to live in the houses they've worked for 40 or 50 years because they can't afford the real estate taxes, and their pensions, or social security is inadequate," Kelly said.

He would also like to pass legislation to provide medical assistance to families earning under $100,000 when children in these families have very serious illnesses. Kelly said that the state would step in with financial assistance when such families have spent 30 percent of their annual incomes on medical expenses.

In another matter, Kelly said he wants to open three joint legislative offices with Crecco in Montclair, Belleville and Bloomfield.

"We ran as a team, and we're going to continue as a team," he said of his relationship with Crecco. The legislative district which Kelly and Crecco represent includes the Essex County communities of Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona.

The Republican sweep in the 30th assembly district coincides with the overall Republican success in the assembly, which shifted from Democratic to Republican control after this month's election.

Kelly, who will be sworn into office on Jan. 14, said his legislative initiatives have a greater chance of success now that the assembly is controlled by the Republicans. He said it was difficult to get his bills out of committee during his first term in office in what was then a Democratic-controlled assembly.

"The last two years I couldn't do much. When you're in the minority there is nothing much you can do," said the Assemblyman-elect. "At least (now) I'll be able to defend my bill or present it. The last time I had no chance."

- "Death Is a Lonely Business," by Ray Bradbury. A mystery, a love story and a fond reconstruction of Venice, Calif.

- "Fit for Life," by Harvey and Marilyn Diamond. The natural body cycle, permanent weight loss plan that proves it's not what you eat, but when and how.

- "Herbs and Apples," by Helen Hoover Santmyer. A novel concerning a writer, whose decision provides a surprise ending to this rich, evocative work, laced with nostalgia.

- "How to Talk Golf," by Dawson Taylor. Insight of golf luminaries from the turn of the century to the present.

- "Incorporate Yourself: How to Profit By Setting Up Your Own Corporation," by Judith H. McQuown. McQuown, an expert in money management, explains the dollars and cents advantages of incorporation.

- "The Measure of the Universe," by Isaac Asimov. The author chooses the domain of the universe to show how big is big and how small is small.

- "Jane Brody's Good Food

Book: Living the High Carb-hydrate Way," by Jane Brody. An American cookbook, destined to take the place alongside the "Joy of Cooking" and the "American Cookbook."

- "The Murder of a Shopping Bag Lady," by Brian Kates. Who was she and how had she come to the end is the theme of Kates' investigation.

- "Is Salami and Eggs Better Than Sex? Memoirs of a Happy Eater," by Alan King and Mimi Sheraton. Food, places and conversations is what this book is all about and also his reminiscences.

- "Love and War," by John Jakes. The unforgettable saga begun in North and South continues, following the Hazards, as the nation is led over the brink into civil war.

- "Safe Houses," by Lynne Alexander. Story of Gerda, a Hungarian Jew.

- "A Stay By the River," by Susan Engberg. Engberg gives us 11 stories, profound and with depth.

- "Word of Honor," by Nelson DeMille. This is a novel, dealing with moral culpability in war.

- "The World of Coins and Coin Collecting," by Ganz. Heavily illustrated chapters explain how to build, organize and display a coin collection.

Students celebrate Thanksgiving holiday

thanks for food had strong relevance to their lives.

Arriving in America in summer, the Puritans had no time to plant for harvest, and by winter supplies were being fast exhausted. A supply ship they sent for upon arrival had not come, and they feared it lost or pirated, perils common in that time.

Fearing massive starvation, the leader of the group, Gov. John Winthrop, set the 22nd day of the current month, Feb., as a day of fasting and prayer in hopes of gaining a divine deliverance from hunger. The deliverance came through on that day, as their ship came in with food to last for months. It had simply been delayed.

An annual fall holiday of this anniversary eventually evolved within the Puritan community largely to offset the absence of Christmas in their culture.

Puritans had tangled with King Charles I because of their denunciation of Roman Catholic elements still part of the fabric of the Church of England. When they had control of their own colony, the Puritans forbade the celebration of saints' days, Christmas and Easter which by virtue of their merry-making nature was in their view too "popish" and therefore divorced from the simplicity of early Christianity. A holiday vacuum then existed in winter, and Thanksgiving filled the gap. American Catholics were forbidden from celebrating the holiday until the mid-19th century, long after its spirit of austere Protestantism had faded.

Abraham Lincoln made the holiday official in 1863, and a war-weary Union embraced it as a day to pray for peace. And though the Civil War ended two years later, Southern states, hesitant to adopt this "Yankee" holiday, did not celebrate Thanksgiving until the mid-1870s.

The controversy surrounding Thanksgiving is now only part of history, and on Thursday Americans here and abroad will take drumstick in hand and happily eat too much. The holiday retains its special significance in the hearts of new Americans especially, who feel a brotherhood with the first settlers and give thanks for their new home.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Struck By Fire - This two-and-a-half story frame house at 52 Academy St. was struck by fire early morning Nov. 16. The fire broke out behind the fireplace and rose up through the walls. The front of the house was untouched by the flames, however, the entire rear of the house was gutted.

Morning fire destroys rear of one-family

By Michelle Jeannotte
An early morning fire destroyed the rear portion of a two-and-a-half-story home Nov. 16.

The fire, which broke out at 6:48 a.m., started behind the first floor fireplace at 52 Academy St., according to Deputy Chief Leo Killen of the Belleville Fire Department. According to Killen, the Yoerg family, who lived in the one-family home, escaped unharmed.

The fire was reported by Mr. Leroy Polite of 127 Stephens St. who was walking his dog when he spotted the fire, Killen said.

Mr. Polite ran to the corner and pulled the fire box, Killen said. He then went back to the house where he alerted the family who was sleeping at the time.

Joseph Yoerg, his wife Roberta and their four children, ages 8-13, were leaving the house as fire engines arrived, Killen said.

The fire, which spread up the walls to the roof of the house, destroyed the entire rear of the one-family home.

"It wasn't for the efforts of Mr. Polite," Killen said, "the family would have become fire casualties."

Elementary school policy gives parents guidelines

presented to board counsel for its review.

"I don't see any problem with the policy being approved," he said. "Everyone had an opportunity to say something, including parents, teachers and administrators."

If the policy is approved, it will take effect January of 1986, Lally said. The entire policy will be printed and given to all elementary school children for their parents' review. Parents will be requested to sign a form verifying they received a copy, he added.

Brownies raise money for relief fund

Brownie Troop 1 of School 10 recently donated money to the Catholic Mexican Relief Fund to help those who suffered in the Mexican earthquake.

The girls, who brought in their loose change in for two weeks, raised $10.10 for the relief fund. In recognition of the girl's donation, Archbishop of Newark Peter L. Grety sent a letter thanking them for their contribution.

Brownie Troop 1, which consists of 18 girls, is led by Carol Graziano.

Inspection stations open Nov. 29 & 30

For the convenience of motorists over the long Thanksgiving holiday, all 36 state inspection stations will be open Friday and Saturday, Nov. 29 and 30, according to Robert S. Kline, acting director of the New Jersey Division of Motor Vehicles.

All division offices and field facilities will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 28. With the exception of the inspection stations, all other motor vehicle offices will be closed on Friday and Saturday, including agencies and driver testing centers.

The inspection stations will be open Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturday from 7:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

With the anticipated increase in the volume of traffic over the holiday period, Kline reminds motorists to use their seatbelts in compliance with New Jersey's new seatbelt law.

"It is important that you buckle up not only because it is the law, but because seatbelts save lives and reduce serious injuries," he said.

Twelve people died in highway crashes in the state during the four-day Thanksgiving holiday in 1984. There were 10 highway fatalities for the period in 1983 and 12 in 1982.

"These are tragic statistics that no one can afford to have repeated this holiday, but they also were recorded before the seatbelt law," Kline said, adding that there was only an 18 percent compliance rate then compared to today's 40 percent compliance rate.

Religious Viewpoint

"You Think You're Old?"

By The Rev. Robert Paul

If you think you are old, then consider Nobel Prize winner Albert Szent Gyorgi who continues to work at cancer research at the age of 91! Industrialist Armand Hammer, at the age of 86, follows a worldwide itinerary that leaves his junior executives exhausted. Congressman Claude Pepper, 83, actively campaigns for senior citizens. Ninety percent of the people over 65 show no mental impairment. Doesn't that make you feel better?

Pablo Picasso was still painting at 91 years of age and Grandmaster Moses at 101. Arturo Toscanini gave his last performance at 87. Konrad Adenauer was Chancellor of West Germany at 87 years of age. Arthur Rubinstein excited audiences with his piano playing well into his 90s. Alfred Lord Tennyson at 83 wrote his famous poem, "Crossing the Bar."

Daniel Webster wrote his monumental dictionary at 70. John Wesley, at 83, was annoyed that he could not write more than 15 hours a day without hurting his eyes and at 85, he was ashamed he could not preach more than twice a day. He complained in his diary that there was an increasing tenderness to life in bed until 5:30 a.m.

There is a saying that the old can do anything that the young can do - it just takes a little longer. Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old by deserting their ideals.

The following prayer may be necessary in some cases. "Lord, keep me from getting talkative and particularly from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from the craving to try to straighten out everyone's affairs."

"Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally it is possible that I may be mistaken. Please keep me reasonably sweet; I do not want to be a saint - some of them are so hard to live with! With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all - but thou knowest, Lord that I want a few friends to the end of this life."

"None of us have the guarantee that we will live a long life, but we can trust God to take care of us each day and make the best of each day for His glory." (1st Cor. 10:31.) One of the greatest joys in this life is to know the Lord Jesus Christ as personal Saviour and Lord and to walk so as to please Him. "For by grace are you saved." (Eph. 2:8.)

Then when this tent is folded, it will be absent from the body and present with the Lord which is far better. If you do not have this assurance, then look at this verse. (St. John 5:24.)

RESOLUTION

BELLEVILLE PLANNING BOARD
BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY
RESOLVED BY THE PLANNING BOARD OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, COUNTY OF ESSEX, STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
WHEREAS, an application has been received for the construction of a four-family apartment building on Lot 61 in Block 248. The site in question is located on the northerly side of Mill Street between Clinton Street and Union Avenue.

WHEREAS, Lot 61 has frontage of 50.00 feet on Mill Street, side lot lines of 126+ feet and contains an area of 7,097 square feet. The site is presently occupied by a single-family, 1 1/2 story frame building which will be demolished to make way for the new development. The existing building is located on the northerly side of Mill Street between Clinton Street and Union Avenue.

WHEREAS, the applicant proposes to construct a four family apartment building having dimensions of 40 feet by 44 feet and containing an area of 1,760+ square feet. The building would be set back 60 feet from Mill Street. The proposed building would contain three stories.

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that relief requested by the applicant, HUDSON BAY COMPANY, INC. THOMAS CALECA, can be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent and purpose of the site plan ordinance of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Planning Board of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey, on this 10th day of October, 1985, grant the application with variances for front yard, lot size and width, side yard, to HUDSON BAY COMPANY, with the following conditions:

1. Includes parking spaces as shown on latest revised Site Plan.
2. All of the required items as indicated on the plan of record with the Planning Association approval and brought up to standards as suggested.
3. Approval by the Town Engineer, and if necessary, based on his report, subsequent review and approved by the Planning Board.

RESOLUTION

BELLEVILLE PLANNING BOARD
BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY
RESOLVED BY THE PLANNING BOARD OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, COUNTY OF ESSEX, STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
WHEREAS, an application has been received for property known as 17 Franklin Street (Lot 23, Block 760) for use as a Chinese restaurant, with a take-out service. The site is located on the southeast corner at the intersection of Franklin Street and North Seventh Street.

WHEREAS, the site is situated on the east by a car wash, which is partially located, in the City of Newark. At the rear of the lot is an existing service vehicle off-street parking lot having ingress and egress from North Seventh Street.

WHEREAS, the applicant proposes to use a section of the existing one story commercial building on the site which also contains a beauty salon and television sales and repair service. The area the applicant intends to use was formerly a large delicatessen.

WHEREAS, the subject property is located in the B-1 Zone (Neighborhood Retail).
WHEREAS, the Board has determined that relief requested by the applicant, KAM CHENG (Golden Cheng Restaurant) can be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent and purpose of the site plan ordinance of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Planning Board of the Township of Belleville, New Jersey, on this 10th day of October, 1985, grant the application to KAM CHENG (Golden Cheng Restaurant) with the following conditions:

1. A dumpster be situated at the southwest corner of the building adjacent to the pipe guards and parallel to parking space #5.
2. This restaurant be strictly a take out restaurant only.
3. No tables in waiting or main area.

Willies

By Lisa A. Grimaldi

Willies in Bloomfield has an amazing variety of food, (I counted over 300 items on their menu) whether you go there for breakfast, lunch, or dinner; a meal or a snack, Willies is sure to please all. It is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and the quality of the food and service never varies.

Willies full meal specialties include fresh seafood, charcoalbroiled steaks, and home made pastas and Italian dishes, such as shrimp and eggplant parmigiana.

For those who want a lighter meal, lunch or snack, Willies has a full line of tasty sandwiches (club, hot, or cold), hamburgers (eight varieties), and a generous selection of cold salads.

Willies is located at 9 State Street in Bloomfield center. The phone number is 748-7417. All menu items are available for takeout. There is a convenient ramp at the entrance so it is very accessible to handicapped persons.

If you still believe in me, save me.

For nearly a hundred years, the Statue of Liberty has stood on the edge of the New World, America's most powerful symbol of freedom and hope. Today the ravages of almost a century of weather and pollution have left their marks. Corrosion has eaten away at the iron framework. New holes continue to appear in the copper sheets that form the exterior.

Less than a mile away, on Ellis Island where the ancestors of nearly half of all Americans first stepped onto American soil, the Great Hall of the Immigration Center is a hollow ruin. Rooms are vandalized, passageways overgrown with vegetation, walls crumbling in decay.

Inspiring plans have been developed to restore the Statue and to create at Ellis Island a living monument to the ethnic diversity of this country of immigrants. But unless restoration is begun now, ceremonies marking the hundredth anniversaries of these two landmarks in America's heritage could be held in commemoration of national treasures that no longer exist. Sections of the statue have already been declared unsafe and closed to visitors. The 230 million dollars needed to carry out the work is needed now.

All of the money must come from private donations; the federal government is not raising the funds. This is consistent with the origins of the Statue. The French people themselves paid for its creation. And thousands of American school children contributed to its construction and to the pedestal.

The Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Centennial Commission appointed by President Reagan is asking every American business, every American citizen to join in raising these funds. The torch of liberty is everyone's to cherish. Could we hold up our heads as Americans if we allowed the time to come when she can no longer hold up hers?

One hundred years ago school children gave their pennies to put her up. Your dollars can keep her from falling down.

Send your tax deductible donations to THE LADY, Box 1986, N.Y.C. 10018. Or call 1-800-USA-LADY toll free. ©1984 The Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation
