Commissioners decide not to appeal Certificates of occupancy awarded to River Mill West

By Kara Laczynski

The Belleville Board of Commissioners decided at its meeting Tuesday night not to appeal Superior Court Judge Murray Simon's order that all certificates of occupancy for the River Mill West condominium complex on Mill Street be released.

The board passed a resolution Nov. 27, 1985 not to issue the certificates, which are required before property closings can be finalized. The certificates were held against an outstanding water bill of $485.981 owed by the property's previous owner, the Universal Foods Corp.

The Belleville Zoning Board of Adjustment also required that one of the nine buildings be moved 15 feet to comply with building requirements. Work has begun on that project, according to Construction Code Official Robert Domenick.

In his decision Friday, Judge Simon also ordered that a lien in Belleville's favor be attached to the $500,000 surety bond that Universal Foods had to post with a title company in order for the Nutley Service Corp., owners of the River Mill West complex, to obtain insurance on the property.

That bond and $420,851.80 in cash was deposited by Universal Foods attorneys in a trust fund account opened with the Superior Court Clerk on Nov. 4, 1985 following an order by Judge Simon. Of the cash, $100,000 was released to Belleville following an order by Judge Simon at a hearing Dec. 23, and the township was ordered to issue certificates of occupancy for 36 of the total condominium 130 units.

The Nutley Service Corp. joined a countersuit against Belleville and its codefendants as an intervenor on Friday, assistant township attorney Frank Cozzarelli said. Belleville did not contest that company's involvement in the suit.

They would have filed a separate action against the township if we had contested," Cozzarelli said.

When asked about his decision not to appeal Friday's order, Mayor Michael Marotti referred questions about the matter to township attorney Frank Zinna.

Zinna said that he informed the commissioners of available options, and that "we do have a lien against the funds." He acknowledged that the lien could ultimately be removed by Judge Simon pending the final outcome of the case. The next hearing will be scheduled this week, according to Cozzarelli.

In other business, the board received notice that its federal revenue sharing allotment would be decreased by 8.35 percent from last year's $252,409.62 grant. The cut of $21,648.79 is equivalent to a drop of one-half of a tax point.

Belleville will lose the entire grant in 1987 when the revenue sharing program will be discontinued.

Drug/alcohol counseling sessions offer support to BHS students

A drug and alcohol counseling program may be offered to high school students during the evening hours if it is approved by the Belleville Board of Education.

A proposal for a drug and alcohol counseling program was introduced to the board by Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello at its meeting Jan. 6.

The counseling program, according to Belleville High School Principal Joseph Ciccone, would be conducted in the evening hours by a high school guidance counselor trained in dealing with students affected by drug and alcohol abuse.

"If a school has been identified by the school system for having a drug or alcohol problem, the counseling sessions would be mandatory," Ciccone said.

The number of counseling sessions, which would be one hour approximately three times a week, would be determined by the guidance counselor, he said, adding that they would also be offered to high risk students.

According to Ciccone, administrators and staff members are often confronted by parents seeking advice and counseling in resolving adolescent problems.

"If the problem has not surfaced in the school environment, the only alternative we can give to the parents is to seek outside counseling," he said. "Often, a single parent cannot afford the cost of outside counseling services or to attend a counseling session during the course of the school day. The evening counseling sessions would provide those parents with an opportunity to resolve their situation."

Sooner or later, an adolescent problem will surface in the Pooled Loan Program - Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro, left, discusses a new loan program offered by the Essex County Improvement Authority (ECIA) with Belleville Commissioner of Public Safety Ralph DiRuggiero, right, and Belleville School Board Secretary Edward J. Appleton, center. The "pooled governmental loan program" allows municipalities and school districts to borrow money for capital projects at lower rates.

Low-interest loan program available for capital projects

By Michelle Jeannotte

The Belleville Board of Commissioners and Board of Education can borrow money for capital projects at reduced rates under a loan program operated by the Essex County Improvement Authority (ECIA).

The program, approved by the Essex County Board of Freeholders, creates a "pooled governmental loan program" by issuing $100 million worth of variable rate demand bonds, which typically sell for as much as two points below the fixed-rate general obligation bonds commonly used by municipalities to finance capital projects.

Municipalities and school districts, in turn, would be able to borrow money from the loan pool at reduced rates.

The ECIA is offering short-term loans with a lower interest rate," Commissioner of Public Safety Ralph DiRuggiero said.

"ECIA borrows the money and turns around and loans it to towns and school boards."

DiRuggiero, who recently attended an ECIA meeting with Belleville School Board Secretary Edward J. Appleton, said the loans received from ECIA would be paid off earlier than bonds which are usually paid off in 25-30 years. ECIA loans would mature within 10 years, he added.

"If the school board was interested in the ECIA loan program for a capital project, it would have to be put through the referendum process (whereby it is voted by the public)," DiRuggiero said. "If the board of commissioners were interested in the loan program, for example, if we wanted to use the money for road work, we would approve it through an ordinance."

"If I'm not mistaken, we are only the second county in the state to have this type of program," he continued. "Bellevue, Mercer and Essex counties are the only ones in New Jersey. This is a real new, innovative program."

DiRuggiero said that he spoke about the program with other commissioners and the mayor (who attended an earlier ECIA meeting). Although no definite plans for use of the program have been scheduled, the board is considering some projects, he said.

"We're (school board) actively looking into the program," Ed Appleton, school board secretary, said. "ECIA makes available a different instrument. It offers a variable rate which is somewhat cheaper than serial bonds which are set at a fixed rate. It is definitely something we would consider."

Appleton said that the board would consider the ECIA loan

Welfare department provides programs for the needy

By Michelle Jeannotte
The Belleville Welfare Department provides needy township residents with a variety of assistance programs.

A general assistance program through state guidelines is provided for residents 18 and older, according to Carol Ann Russo, director of welfare. Adults with children are referred to the county welfare department for Aid for Dependent Children.

The welfare department, located in the Public Affairs Building at 383 Washington Ave., also handles cheese and milk distribution, the Food Stamp Program and the Home Energy Assistance Program and acts as a distribution site for the Salvation Army.

Besides taking applications for welfare, we really are a social service referral agency, referring people to different agencies which can help them," Russo said. "A lot of time is consumed by that."

In order to apply for general assistance, as well as other assistance programs, a person must meet eligibility guidelines.

"Basically, for the general assistance program, a person has to be without any resources at all," Russo said.

According to Russo, there are two types of general assistance clients - the unemployed and the employable.

"If you are unemployed, for instance, when you're sick, we act as a temporary service and refer you to Social Security for disability or supplemental security income," she said. "Basically, we get the person into the right social service department that is going to help them."

"Sometimes people are wandering around and they really don't know where they're supposed to be, especially if they're older," she added. "Welfare is used temporarily and we're also paid back for that service."

An employable client, according to Russo, is younger, usually in their 20s.

Maybe that person just had a bad start or is an alcoholic or dependent on drugs, but they can work," she said. "We help them to fill out applications and tell them they should always be looking for work. We make phone calls, schedule interviews and even provide a work program which is set up in Belleville."

Work is provided for Belleville residents at the Essex County Geriatrics Center and at such township departments as the Public Works and Public Affairs.

"We assign them to work so many hours for the welfare grant," Russo said. "A supervisor is set up to make sure they're there and working. If they don't work the hours, they don't receive their checks."

According to Russo, the amount of hours a client is required to work depends on the amount of the grant awarded to them. For example, a $133 grant (which is the highest amount) is divided by the minimum wage in order to determine the number of hours of work required. Sometimes that amount may only be $25 a month, she added.

Approximately 50 Belleville residents are receiving monies from the general assistance program, Russo said. That amount, she said, has been kept down by investigative work performed by Stephen Schwed, Belleville welfare investigator.

"People walk off the street everyday," she said. "We don't just help our clients. A senior citizen may walk in and need help filling out a form. We just are there as a social service to make people aware of what programs are available."

According to Russo, one of the programs presently working at the welfare department is the Home Energy Assistance Program which is administered through the Essex County Department of Citizen Services.

The program, of which applications are now available, is for low-income families as well as needy families having trouble heating their homes.

Appointments for the Home Energy Assistance Program may be made by calling the welfare department at 450-3380 between the hours of 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Redi-Med celebrates opening with drawing & special guest

Redi-Med, a walk-in medical care center located at 64-70 Ridge Road in Lyndhurst, will host a grand opening celebration Saturday, Jan. 25, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The grand opening celebration will include a sweepstakes drawing for a three-day trip to Atlantic City and a special guest appearance by television soap opera star Chris Robinson, who currently plays Dr. Rick Webber on WABC's General Hospital. In addition, free gifts will be provided and free blood pressure testing will be available.

The Redi-Med Center, which will be open for business daily from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. beginning Sunday, Jan. 26, provides immediate medical care for minor emergencies - no appointment necessary - to the areas of Essex, Hudson, Bergen, and Passaic counties, with costs well below those of a hospital Emergency Room.

Directed by Dr. Carl P. Deyhle, the newly-built facility is staffed by personnel well trained in emergency medicine. Dr. Deyhle is eligible to become board certified by the American College of Emergency Physicians and is certified in both Advanced Cardiac Life Support and Advanced Trauma Life Support.

The Redi-Med Center provides laboratory testing and modern x-ray services on the premises, leading to rapid and efficient patient management. In addition to treating minor emergencies, which include cuts requiring stitches, sprains, high fevers, fractures, rashes, minor burns, childhood illnesses, colds and flus, and croup, Redi-Med provides physical examinations for employment, school and sports as well as continuing family care.

Senior citizens find fun & friends at club meetings

By Kara Laczynski

Although retirement, too often means a surplus of idle time for people used to busy schedules, Belleville seniors find friends and fun to fill an afternoon at meetings of the Friday Club.

Held in the Senior Citizens Clubhouse on the corner of Mill Street and Franklin Avenue, the club features cake and coffee, bingo, arts and crafts and more at their weekly meetings from 12:30 to 4 p.m. Fridays.

The senior clubhouse also is home to the Tuesday Seniors and many Belleville seniors hold memberships to both clubs.

More than 200 people packed the main hall at last Friday's meeting. After a brief organizational session, the seniors ate coffee and pastry, purchased for 30 cents total, while sitting at long tables. Nickel-a-card bingo followed refreshments, with prize money split 50-50 with the house.

Dues of $1 per year from each of the nearly 900 registered members cover most expenses, and the Township of Belleville also pays for the physical plant of the clubhouse, according to Friday Club president Harry Reynolds.

Special events are partly financed through reasonably priced fees. Tickets to the New Year's Eve Party, for example, were $15 each, and entitled the guest to dinner, drinks and dancing to a live band.

We couldn't get Julio Iglesias like the Essex House so I had to kiss the women myself," Reynolds joked.

In addition to holiday parties, the Friday Club also sponsors trips to Atlantic City, area restaurants and theaters.

Volunteers provide staffing for the kitchen cleanup, bingo and other events. The kitchen crew, called "hospitality girls," often begin preparing the dessert service at 10 a.m.

A craft club is held on Monday afternoon by Friday Club members. Knitting, crocheting and needlepoint are practiced at the sessions, and clothing produced at these meetings is donated to charitable organizations, according to "hospitality girl" and knitting club member Lettie Meyer.

Membership to the Friday Club and all senior clubhouse groups is open. Seniors must be over the age of 60 and be residents of Belleville. The clubhouse is wheelchair-accessible.

Most of these people look forward to the club all week long, kitchen crew member Geanette Zdziebko said. "It's one of the best parts of their lives. They meet friends, socialize and get out a bit."

School board budget

The Belleville Board of Education last week adopted a $19 million budget for the 1986-87 school year. While the proposed budget reflects a 25 tax point increase, it is a half million dollars under the maximum state permitted budget.

Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello calls the document a "bare bone budget." In past years, the school board had the luxury of utilizing surplus funds to keep down the amount to be raised by taxation. Unfortunately, the surplus has been practically depleted — down to $200,000. As a result of this circumstance, the total amount of the projected expenditures must be raised by taxation.

Nardiello points out that 83 percent of the budget expense is mandatory — that only 17 percent arguably can be an area subject to the discretion of the school board. This percentage includes students' supplies, summer employment program, summer custodial and maintenance employees, an athletic trainer who must be state-mandated next year, and home instruction.

Nardiello underscores a very significant dimension of the budget — it provides for no new programs.

We accept the representation that the document is a bare bone budget. Can any budget be decreased? Of course — but at what cost? Many times cheap is expensive.

Voters should remember that school board members are unsalaried. They serve for the joy of advancing the ambitions and goals of our students — and they also serve to protect their vested interests — which means low property taxes. All school board members are taxpayers and, thus, they share in common with all homeowners the awesome burden of paying property taxes.

We have a good school board. The integrity of its members is unchallenged. Their dedication to the work at hand is legendary. School board members sacrifice personal family life, spending night after night attending to the public business, while neglecting the need to share their evenings with their families. This is the greatest sacrifice a citizen can contribute in order to improve the quality of life for the community that is home to all school board members.

Tom Kean's program

In his State of the State message Tuesday, Gov. Tom Kean called for the creation of the Office of Lieutenant Governor. It's overdue. The office should be created — and the sooner the better.

The Governor also asked to have the June Primary Election moved earlier in the year to give New Jersey residents a more important voice in the selection of Presidential candidates. This is what one would call pride in New Jersey. Good for Tom Kean.

Gov. Kean also asks that voters be given the right of initiative and referendum to propose and approve changes in state law and make government more responsive. It is an excellent objective. The Democrat Senate passed such a law, but the old Democrat Assembly buried it in committee. Now the proposal should fly.

The Governor advocates that the troubled Motor Vehicle Agency be reorganized to eliminate the political patronage system. The proposal is long overdue and should be adopted without any debate.

Perhaps, most important of the Governor's recommendations is Kean's request to revamp New Jersey's Civil Service System, last changed in 1908. As for boxing — while complimenting the State Investigation Committee for its investigation of the sport, Kean does not support the commission's recommendation to abolish it. The Governor's position is that he favors reform, not abolition — a point well taken.

A significant request made by the Governor was to amend state insurance laws.

The status of auto insurance is an abomination. Reform is long overdue. The subject is on the top of everybody's agenda — so one wonders why auto insurance reform should not be accomplished within the next 30 days? We all know the answer — politics —

Letters to the Editor

Campaign coordinator defends Kelly & Crecco

Jan. 6, 1986

To the editor:

Now that all is said and done, I think it is time that everyone knows the truth about the Nov. 5, 1985 election.

As the true Belleville coordinator of John Kelly's campaign headquarters on Union Avenue, the facts are that these two candidates, both John Kelly and Marion Crecco did not win on the coattails of Gov. Thomas Kean.

These two candidates did a lot of campaigning. They walked door to door and attended community affairs that were very important to them.

While some people were showing their faces at breakfasts and political affairs, the hard-working and caring people were distributing literature and putting up signs. Many of these people could have gone to these too, but decided it was more important to do work for this very important election.

As far as Angelo Risoli (Belleville Republican chairman) is concerned, he did very little. If anything to really help these two candidates, Mr. Risoli did not have a sign on his house or a sticker on his car. Angelo Risoli never showed his face in the Union Avenue headquarters during the election.

The two candidates won this election on the issues and the faults of the incumbents who did not represent the 30th District. You can tell by their voting records in Trenton what they really represented, especially Mr. Aduvato.

This election was won by the middle-class working people in the 30th District. Republicans, Democrats and Independents who worked together to elect people to represent the 30th District.

Also, in a letter to the editor, Chester Prosperi (Belleville Democratic chairman) wrote about how Mr. Aduvato won Belleville. I would like to know what election he is talking about, while three pages later in the same edition the results were printed. They showed how he lost the Township of Belleville to both candidates.

Even though you are the Belleville Democratic chairman, how could you have supported Assemblyman Aduvato with the bills he sponsored, especially Bill A-721, the Gay Rights Bill. This bill would hurt the 30th District and the State of New Jersey.

Religious Viewpoint

You are the light of the world

By The Rev. Robert Paul
Formerly of Grace Baptist Church,

In the Alps in Switzerland nestled an obscure village with a castle and a church of rough hewn stone, reached by worn steps up the mountainside. The peculiar thing about this church is that it has no lighting system nor ever has had one.

A traveler there heard a church bell ringing and saw folks coming out of the narrow streets, each bearing a quant little bronze lamp filled with oil and having a wick. She approached a worshiper and said, "Please, I am a stranger here, will you tell me why you carry a lamp to church?"

The woman replied, "Why, yes I would be happy to. Years ago a Duke lived in that castle. He built the church, endowed it, and asked that each worshiper bring his own lamp."

The traveler replied, "I should think that would keep folks from attending the evening service."

"Oh, no," it works just the other way," the worshiper said. "It is called the Church of the Lighted Lamps. Everybody who goes makes it a little brighter, and when anyone is tempted to stay at home or go somewhere else, he just remembers that dear old church needs everybody's lamp, and if your lamp isn't there, there is so much less light."

There is also the awareness that those down below who are not believers in the Lord Jesus Christ can see the dimness or brightness of the lamps in the windows," she continued. "And not only does the church miss your light, but you miss the blessing by not being there."

The woman happily carried her light up to the church building and joined in the brightness of the evening worship.

Then spoke Jesus again unto them, saying, "I am the light of the world, he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." (St. John 8:12) Put your trust in Jesus Christ who is the light of the world, and allow His light to shine out through your life. Jesus Christ died for your sins and mine, and when we invite Him into the life, He will give you light.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (St. Matthew 5:16)

The importance of each one's shining light may be seen again as we think of the result. First, men see your good works in the light that shines. Second, they glorify God because of that shining light and our good works.

Not every 'expert' opinion

By The Rev. Gerald Fortunato
Silver Lake Baptist Church

When David Ben-Gurion, premier of Israel, a major desert development project was undertaken. Eventually, the engineering experts reported the project was impossible; that there was no way the desert could be reclaimed. However, Ben-Gurion held another opinion. He appointed a new team of experts and the work went on.

Humans often settle too easily for the opinion of an "expert." We submit to a false authority.

The most common mistake is settling for one's own opinion of oneself. The theory is, "I ought to know what I want." Possibly we're right in thinking of everyday living on earth: food, clothing and shelter. But in understanding our spiritual needs and diagnosing true values and worthy goals, our opinion is likely to be as off base as Ben-Gurion's first engineers.

The sole expert who really knows us and can prescribe for our needs is our Father God. Paul testified, "He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence" (Ephesians 1:8). He knows exactly what we need in every situation.

and He is always concerned to provide what is best for us.

As the ultimate expert, God knows when to work within us — even though we ask Him to work for us. He knows when to work toward our sinfulness even though we prefer to be rich or clever.

He knows when to deny us what we want in order to give us something better.

If you've been your own do-it-yourself expert, it's time to change the team. God is the one to believe, accept, obey. He will solve your "impossible" problems and see that your major needs are fulfilled. And He will bestow divine wisdom. He is also expert enough to cope with all your little problems and needs.

That's truth worth remembering next time you are about to let yourself into a headache.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

There was one political reporter who commented before the Nov. 5, 1985 election for Governor on the planned proposal to raise the Governor's salary from $85,000 to $116,000 and also those of cabinet officers and state judges which were to be increased also.

Other than this obscure reference of these salary increases, all else was strictly hush-hush before the election — why stir up the voters who might object to raising politician's income when jobs are scarce and few-falces are in sight for the average wage earner.

Who cooks up these proposals? You can be sure it isn't the guy who goes to work with a dinner pail or the lady garment worker who sews all day or the train conductor or any of the other working people earning their daily bread.

It's the proposal of the plutocratic blue-ribbon panel whose members come from wealthy big business and banking interests who command huge salaries and wield great influence in the world of finance, industry and insurance.

These persons make big bucks and maybe they feel embarrassed by the fact that individuals like the Governor and cabinet members, who wield such great power, are only getting small wages in comparison with what they're raking in, and as far as being kind to judges, what big business magnet wants to snub the jurist who might be trying a case before his court?

On Tuesday, Jan. 14, the 202nd Legislature was sworn in with the Republicans holding a majority in the Assembly for the first time in 14 years. The Senate remains controlled by a Democratic majority with John Russo as Senate President with Argentin Orechio serving as pro tem Senate President.

Since salary increases would require approval of both Houses of the Legislature, there is considerable doubt that this "lame duck" session will vote on this issue.

This fact raises a peculiar quirk concerning the proposed salary increase for Gov. Thomas Kean. He will begin his second term on Jan. 21. The new Senate President, John Russo, is quoted as saying, "We're not going to be rushing through salary increases in a lame duck session." But he added that it could be done during the first week of the next Legislature.

If it is not done before Kean's second term begins, then the proposal to raise the Governor's salary would be constitutionally prohibited for the next four years.

Senate President Russo said, "where? the new Legislature acts on the salary increases during its first week depends in large part on whether the Governor is able to convince the public these pay hikes are justified." He contended it is up to Kean to make the case that his subordinates need merit raises.

Russo said that while the Senate will be "cooperative," it cannot and will not be a "rubber stamp." He remarked, "The Governor has to understand that just because he wants something, doesn't mean he's going to get it."

Firing the way things are beginning to line up, it looks like a most animated and turbulent two years under the gold dome cupola of the Capitol.

President Ronald Reagan's plan to sell the Federal Housing Authority to private bidders and cut housing subsidies in the 1987 fiscal year has provoked remarks of acerbity from Mayor Edward Koch of New York City. "It's nuts," Koch said. "Why doesn't he sell the Washington Monument?"

We haven't seen this kind of turning your back on low income people since Mayor Antonio F. Quattrone, the mayor, said, referring to the queen beheaded during the French Revolution.

Rep. Barney Frank (D-Mass.), said Reagan's proposal is appalling, but not surprising. We have a serious housing crisis in many areas and it is being exacerbated by Reagan Administration policies," said Frank, who is chairman of the House governmental operations subcommittee on housing and unemployment.

That Congress would not approve Reagan's plan — many housing officials, dubbed the plan "misericable," "criminal," "insensitive," and "penny-wise and dollar-foolish."

classroom if we do not offer a parent an alternative solution he added.

Today, if a student is identified as having a problem with drugs or alcohol, he is counseled by a Crisis Intervention Team, Ciccone said. This team, which meets during the school day, consists of a student's guidance counselor, a member of a Child Study Team (usually the school psychologist), the school nurse and Dr. Richard Benninger, director of student services.

"We are trying to improve this by offering an evening counseling program," Ciccone said. "We are trying to provide support to both students and parents."

According to Ciccone, Helen Cafone and Rose Marie Candioro, guidance counselors at BHS, have been selected for the evening drug and alcohol counseling program. They will be required to attend a drug and alcohol training seminar if the program receives approval from the board of education.

"We have been looking into screening centers," Ciccone said, "but we have not decided on which one. We are looking for the one that would best provide our counselors with up-to-date information on dealing with drug or alcohol abusive students and provide them with background."

The counseling program, Ciccone said, was recently approved by the Belleville Drug and Alcohol Abuse Committee, whose members originate from various groups in the community.

"This type of program shows the community that we are paying attention to the town and making an effort to find solutions to its children's problems," Ciccone said.

Heart association unit elects officers Jan. 22

Members of the American Heart Association's newly formed Belleville, Bloomfield Nutley unit will hold its election of officers at a meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Bloomfield Civic Center at 84 Broad Street.

President, vice president and secretary will be elected at the meeting, which is open to the public. New members will be eligible to vote. Roxanna Imbriano, acting chairperson, said.

The chapter was formed in November when a meeting was held at the Belleville Public Library.

"We've gotten almost 70 people to commit themselves to the unit already," Imbriano said.

Tentative plans for the unit's energies are now under discussion, according to Imbriano. Areas in which members may become involved include educating children about smoking through the public schools and fundraising for the New Jersey Affiliate.

In addition to the three officers to be elected Wednesday, committees will also be set up. Chairmen of the development committee, for fundraisers, programs committee and communications committee are needed. All units and committee members will double as elected members, installed for two-year terms. Officers are elected to one-year terms.

After the Jan. 22 meeting the unit will install a regular schedule of four meetings per year, including fundraising events.

For more information attend Wednesday's meeting or phone Dina Killings, New Jersey area field coordinator, at 376-3636.

program to fund repair work needed at the middle school. Although $400,000 has been appropriated for repairwork at the middle school in the 1988-89 school budget, more work will have to be completed.

According to Appleton, monies for repair work can either be funded through a capital outlay appropriation or a debt service. If the board decides to go the route of a debt service, ECIA loans may be utilized.

If the school board authorizes a bonding referendum and it is approved," he said, "we can either go out and sell our own bonds or use ECIA monies."

"At least we have the money to start repairs at the middle school," he continued. "We will examine the rates generated by this program prior to the 1987-88 school budget and consider our options."

Board office accepts nominating petitions

Deadline for filing nominating petitions for vacancies on the Belleville Board of Education is Thursday, Feb. 6, at 4 p.m.

Nominating petitions are available at the office of Board Secretary Edward J. Appleton, 190 Cortlandt St., between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Three seats will be vacant for this year's school board election on Tuesday, April 1. The seats belong to Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, school board president, John DiStasi and Gabe Nazziola.

The New Jersey School Boards Association has supplied the district with information booklets entitled, "Be Part of a Great American Heritage: Serve on Your Local School Board." These pamphlets will be given to those citizens considering school board candidacy.

Plea hearing scheduled for Francesco Polizzi

A plea hearing date has been scheduled for Jan. 27 in the sexual assault case against Belleville businessman Francesco Polizzi, 21 of Nutley and will be heard before Superior Court Judge Anthony J. Irlani.

Essex County Assistant Prosecutor Robert Laurino, attorney for prosecution of the Polizzi case, said in a telephone interview Friday that he does not expect Polizzi to "plea bargain" for lesser charges.

"His attorneys have indicated to me that they will plead not guilty to the current charges," Laurino said. If the plea hearing is a normal course of action, it's pretty much mandated.

Attorneys for Polizzi could not be reached for comment.

Polizzi pleaded not guilty Dec. 13, 1985 to charges of sexual assault, endangering the welfare of a child and promoting prostitution. Co-defendant Joseph Baio of Newark also pleaded not guilty to similar charges.

The charges stemmed from an alleged assault involving a minor which took place between March and June of 1985 at the Belleville Motor Lodge on Washington Avenue. Polizzi is co-owner of that motel and also owns the Polizzi Building Company and Casa Polizzi Restaurant, both of Belleville.

Polizzi is also standing trial in New York for the "pizza connection" heroin smuggling case, in which he and 20 others are accused of moving $1.6 million worth of narcotics into the United States via Sicily.

Polizzi and Baio are free on $2,500 bail bonds.

WITH A NUTLEY SAVINGS' IRA GETTING A BREAK FROM THE IRS IS A...

PIECE OF CAKE.

Have an urge for a tax break? Then we've got a sweet deal for you.

Open an IRA account with Nutley Savings and plan for your future financial security and at the same time arrange for a substantial deduction on your Federal Tax Return.

You can deposit up to $2,000 a year and even more if you're married. $2,500 for each of you if your spouse works... and up to $4,000 for working couples.

You pay no taxes on your IRA deposits or on the interest you earn until you begin to withdraw the funds at retirement. Your money makes money and you get the tax break you're looking for.

Choose from a variety of Individual Retirement Accounts paying high market interest rates. Interest is paid from the day of deposit. So why wait? It's a tax advantage you can't afford to pass up. Stop in today and turn your next coffee break into a tax break. It's that simple. Getting a break from the IRS is a piece of cake.

Federal regulations permit withdrawals as early as age 59½. Premature withdrawals may result in a penalty and loss of tax-deferred status.

Stephen N. Adubato discusses defeat and future possibilities

By Phil White

Gov. Thomas Kean's reelection sweep throughout the 30th Legislative District was so "astounding," Assemblyman Steve Adubato believes, that "none of the so-called issues raised in the campaign really made any difference at all in the outcome."

Adubato, who steps down from his Assembly seat after a two-year term next Tuesday, admits he may have made some political errors along the way. But, he says, "I loved my job and I'm going to miss it."

He wouldn't say, however, whether he'll seek another two-year term in 1988 but "I certainly haven't ruled that out."

Both incumbent Democratic Assemblymen, Adubato and Buddy Fortunato, were defeated by Republicans John Kelly of Nutley and Marion Crecco of Bloomfield. The GOP will hold 50 of the 80 Assembly seats when the Assembly reconvenes Tuesday. Kelly already has been appointed chairman of the Assembly's Housing Committee.

Adubato reflected on his two years in the Assembly during a "New Year's Day interview" on OBC TV when he assessed his political past and looked forward to the possibility of serving again.

Although he pounded away during the campaign on such issues as the quality of water in Bloomfield and Belleville, or the fears of transferring Wayne Township's floods to Nutley by way of a proposed 14-mile giant tunnel, Adubato said none of those issues really mattered in the end.

"Anytime an incumbent governor carries a swing district like ours by a 77.23 percent margin, it's kind of tough if not impossible for an Assembly candidate on the opposite ticket to win. It was a testament to Gov. Kean's popularity," he said.

Adubato said that another

political liability was added to Gov. Kean's overwhelming victory—the indictment of his running mate, Buddy Fortunato.

"Even the fact that my running mate, Buddy Fortunato, was under indictment, was a liability. It doesn't take a political genius or a political expert to realize that," he said.

Adubato praised the candidacy of John Kelly, who lost his seat to Adubato two years ago only to win it back at the November election.

"For someone to decide he wanted to return to office, and to campaign hard—it's not easy—it's a real test for anyone. My hat's off to him."

"But will I run again for the Assembly in two years? Right now, I'm looking forward to a little privacy. I feel I need about a year to do the things I want to—maybe teaching, some skiing, and running in the New York Marathon," Adubato said.

"I can't commit myself now to what I might do in 1987. Will I run? As I said, I really loved my job so it's a consideration "I haven't ruled it out."

Adubato was also asked about the possibility of challenging State Sen. Carmen Orechio in the 1987 Democratic primary.

"I've always enjoyed a positive relationship with the Senator. More of my bills were passed into law than for any other freshman legislator and I certainly needed Senate President Orechio to do that."

"I wish him all the best of luck in 1987 and as for me, I haven't really made any decision about what I am going to do," Adubato said.

He suggested that speculation about his challenging Orechio is "something that only journalists bring up. I hear that some rumor 'myself' every day."

Adubato said that as a new Assemblyman, he may have moved too quickly and not always played by the political rules. His passing local Democratic Party leaders did cost him support, he admits.

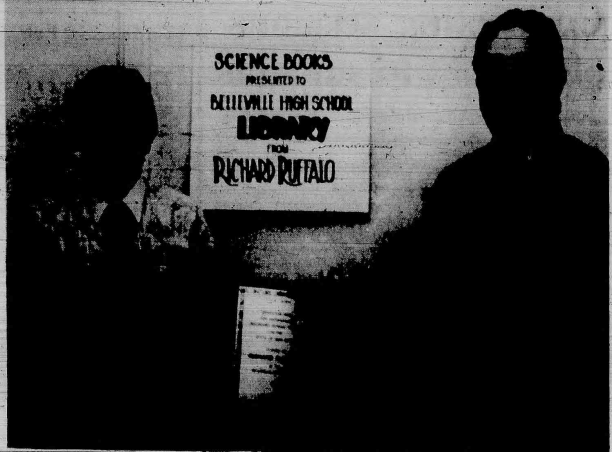

"Yes, if I were to do it all over again, I would pay greater attention to the politics of the job. I know at times I moved a little too quickly. I was called by some folks as a little 'too brash.' Maybe that was because I was a little too reluctant to accept the slowness of the legislative process and the difficulty with getting anything accomplished down there."

Adubato said he was most proud of the fact he was able to maintain a full-time legislative office in Bloomfield and serve full time as the district's representative.

He's proud, too, of "the visibility" he gave to such problems as the quality of Belleville and Bloomfield's drinking water, and the problems associated with the flood tunnel proposal to Nutley.

His biggest disappointment is that little has been done to remove the radon soil contamination in Glen Ridge and Montclair.

"But all and all, I think there were some small accomplishments. And that makes me feel good. I loved my job. I really did."

T. Aitken, J. Vecchione & J. Johnson re-elected to board at Clara Maass

S. Thomas Aitken and Joseph Vecchione of Belleville and John H. Johnson, president of Johnson Buick, Inc. of Belleville, have been re-elected to the Board of Trustees of Clara Maass Medical Center for three-year terms.

Aitken, who will serve as treasurer to the board, is president and chairman of the Board of Peoples Bank, Belleville, and Vecchione is vice president of public relations for Prudential Insurance Company, Newark.

Other officers elected to the board for 1986 are John F. Kiddle, honorary chairman, Henry C. Pfaff Jr., chairman of the board, Herbert Glatt, chairman of the executive committee, Robert S. Curtis, president of the medical center, John E. Cavaliero, John F. Cowell, Albert E. Del Negro, M.D., and James V. Hardman, vice chairman. Kenneth A. Morrison, secretary, Joel Dalva, assistant secretary, Neil W. Buie, corresponding secretary, and John L. Kiddle, assistant treasurer.

IN THESE TIMES WHEN QUALITY AND CONSIDERATION LAG FAR BEHIND PROFESSIONAL PROFITABILITY, IT IS A WELCOMED BREATH OF FRESH AIR TO FIND THERE ARE STILL THOSE IN THE PROFESSION WHO PLACE A STRONG EMPHASIS ON PERSONALIZED ATTENTION AND A WARM, CARING MANNER.

From the family of Marie Di Giovanni we wish to thank the Harrison Funeral Home, Nutley for the skillful handling of her last honors. From beginning to end, we were all pleased by the attention to detail and consideration to each request.

My personal thanks to Mr. Donald Harrison's enduring patience, kind manner, and ever professional handling of the many details so new and overwhelming in these circumstances.

I felt confident using the Harrison Funeral Home's (formerly Stanton's) services now as our family had in 1961 for our father, and thank Donald for having maintained the same high standards of quality, care and thoughtfulness as his father before him.

Our mother looked beautiful.

Basketball teams lose three games

It wasn't a very good week of action for the Belleville basketball teams. The boys and girls lost three games each, to Bloomfield, Eastside and Montclair. The losses left the girls with an 0-5 slate and the boys at 1-6. The schedule will provide little in terms of a breather for either team throughout the month of January.

Despite the slow starts for the team, there is little reason to panic. First off, both teams are very young. For the girls, there are just three seniors, led by Desiree Johansen, Dina De Medici and Tracy Delaney. Fuccello has been using a good deal of freshman and sophomores this winter and is already talking about various basketball camps this summer.

"All this experience will make much difference if the team does not go to camp and play during the summer," she said. "That's the key to long term success, what the team does during the off season."

When Johansen, the team captain, graduates this spring, the leader of the 86-87 squad will probably be junior Laura Caruso. Right now, the forward is learning to play in the paint and is showing signs of being an outstanding performer. Freshmen Simone Edwards and Laurie Dondarski have been looking good while sophomores Judy Nehila and Raquel Melson continue to improve. Nehila is being counted on to help Johansen and Caruso with the scoring. Melson has split time between the junior varsity and varsity teams and has the potential to be a good varsity guard.

Young players like Sandy Brew, Maria Longobardi and Danielle Pizzi will be vital ingredients to future success at Belleville High. All three girls have the desire and potential, all they have to do is continue to work at the game and the results could be impressive.

For the boys team, Rocco Colucci sees his club in the same situation as Fuccello. There is some good talent developing. When he took the job as head coach in November 1984, Colucci figured it would take three years to have the program where he wanted it. In his second year, Colucci sees improvement, but warns that, without off season preparation, it could all go for naught next fall.

The Bucs have been involved in summer league play for the past four years, with last years action in the prestigious Elizabeth Summer league a big step. The only starter on this years team that is a senior is Don Washington. Returning for next year includes Leon Puentes, Ted Sochacki, Bob Hutchinson, Craig Burden, Chris Goldrick, Frank Myrrell, John Morrell, and Loung La. Needless to say, there is good talent coming back next season.

The 1985-86 season is a critical time for the younger players on both the boys and girls teams. It is a good year to get the necessary experience against the strong conference teams. While their records might not be too good right now, don't write off these young players. Certainly their better days are ahead of them and the learning time is now.

Softball, Already?

Believe it or not, the softball season is not too far away. The James Dombrowski Softball League (JDSL), the largest league in Northern New Jersey, is expanding and seeking new teams. The JDSL plays on Saturday's and Sunday's and finishes with an All Star Game, three rounds of playoffs and a World Series. There is also an annual radio station game. Last year, WNEW-FM accepted the challenge. The entry fee for any team interested is $125.00. Any interested teams and players can call Jim at 997-2689 or 909-7362.

The Super Bowl

Not too many surprises in the conference championship games last weekend. I thought the Rams would score at least a touchdown on the Bears, but credit that big defense in the Mid West for putting up another goose egg. The Patriots win was not too surprising. They remind me of the 1980 Oakland Raiders, a wild card team that had made the most of its opportunity in the playoffs. Everyone spoke of the jinx involved with New England not winning in the Orange Bowl since Lyndon Johnson was President of the United States. The law of averages said that New England was due for a victory there sooner or later. Can the Patriots beat the Bears? The oddsmakers say no, but the oddsmakers said the Jets couldn't beat the Colts in 1969, either. The build up over the next two weeks should be interesting.

Athlete of the Week

This week, the award goes to the girls distance medley team, which set a new school indoor record. The four participants were senior Darrell Jackson, freshman Dawn Cotter, junior Lisette Colone, and sophomore Joyce Luongo. Congratulations to coaches John Tosato and Barb Gundry for doing a good job with the entire indoor team.

These Weeks Quiz

With the New England Patriots making it to the Super Bowl, only three teams from the old AFL, before the 1970 merger, have not played in the big game. Name the three teams and the closest they have come to making the Super Bowl.

Parting Thoughts

Ala Abdelnaby of Bloomfield is a devastating player. At 6'11", who knows how much bigger he will get. He does so many things well and should make Duke University a continuing powerhouse next year. Duke is currently 14-0 this season. The Belleville wrestling team continues the fine tradition. Head coach Joe Nisovic is doing a tremendous job in his first year as head coach. The girls basketball team is looking for Claudia, the teams manager. Claudia, if you are reading this column, phone home. After ten years of coaching at Belleville High, Debbie Meola still has that great sense of humor. Karen Portuese is doing a very good job coaching the girls freshman team. The young squad has come a long way since November.

Wrestlers win two more

Season record up to 5-0 as grapplers score big

By Joe Piegario

Don Bosco Prep and Montclair High School were the latest victims for the Buc grapplers as the BHS wrestling squad ran its season dual meet record to 5-0.

The Ironmen of Don Bosco were trounced by a score of 45-15 while the Mounties of Montclair were defeated by a 42-24 margin.

The two victories saw the emergence of two more individual stars. While everyone this season has become well acquainted with the names Cerreto and Nardone, not everyone was so well informed with the names Iuliano and Silletti.

Mike Iuliano, a sophomore wrestling in the 100-pound division, has become the leadoff hitter in a lineup which boasts one of the best first four in the area. Iuliano's current record is 7-1 with four pins and a default to his credit.

Versus Don Bosco, Iuliano led off the dual meet with a win over Andy Peden that put the Bucs ahead by six points. He followed that victory with a 16-second fall over Montclair's Rich Loewy; the fastest pin this year by a Belleville wrestler.

The second-new star is David Silletti, a senior who now sports a 7-1 record for the year four pins and a technical fall. While Silletti is not really new to the varsity lineup the way 7-5 as a junior, he is finally living up to his capabilities. As a junior, he lost matches because of careless execution and a noticeable lack of wind. This year, Silletti is in excellent shape and has tightened up his repertoire of moves.

Against Don Bosco, Silletti scored a 16-1 decision over Jeff Janischek and followed that up with a fall over Chris Nazarian of Montclair. In the Montclair bout, Silletti wrestled at 157 pounds to get ready for today's meet with Paramus.

Belleville's "Terrible Twosome," Joey Cerreto and Armando Nardone, both ran their respective records to 8-0 with impressive victories.

Cerreto has become the wrestler other teams avoid as he was awarded his third forfeit win in the Don Bosco meet. Cerreto showed why he has been avoided as he whipped Cory Hinds of Montclair by a 13-5 margin. Hinds is a four year varsity starter for the Mounties and has earned three trips to the Regional Championships.

Nardone barely broke a sweat versus Don Bosco as he pinned Nick Cirigliano in 3:06 of the second period. Mondo moved up from 121 to 134 pounds in the Montclair pounds, but the result was the same as he scored a technical fall over Mike Bellace by a 16-0 margin.

At 107 pounds, freshman John Stampone stretched his own record to 5-3 as he split his two bouts. After a 5-4 loss to Vito Bet of Don Bosco, Stampone rebounded nicely with a fall over Montclair's Matt Schinelli at 4:48 of the final period.

Stampone has drawn the most difficult assignments this year in terms of established opposition, yet he continues to improve with each new challenge. Tonight's dual meet should pose more of the same problems for Stampone as he should face Steve Katz of Paramus, last year's district champion in his respective area.

Girls' BB team (0-5) loses three straight

When Karen Fuccello looks back on the 1985-86 girls basketball season at Belleville High, chances are very good that the week of January 7-11 will not be on the teams highlight film.

The girls were beaten by three NJJIL opponents and watched its record fall to 0-5 last week. Belleville played Immaculate Heart of Westwood on Tuesday and will host Passaic tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. Next Tuesday, the team travels to Nutley to face a big challenge in the Maroon Raiders. Next Thursday, the girls will host Kennedy, starting at 4 p.m.

The girls struggled through a difficult week of action. It started with a 66-31 pounding at the hands of Bloomfield, continued with a 47-25 loss at home to Eastside and mercifully ended with a 58-33 loss in Montclair. In all three games, the girls could not mount an offense and felt victim to too many turnovers and poor foul shooting.

Fuccello, who has watched her team get off to its slowest start since 1976, is searching for answers in regard to the teams sluggish start.

"I can't figure it out," the coach said after the Montclair debacle. "We're going to have to make some changes for next week. We just can't seem to get the offense in gear and we're throwing the ball away too much when we get near the basket."

Entry and alleviate the situation, Fuccello looked to senior Desiree Johansen at the point guard position against Immaculate Heart. Johansen is very familiar with the various offenses and has the patience to run the necessary plays. Problem is, with Johansen, the teams leading scorer, at the point, Belleville might be thin near the basket and will probably miss Johansen's good shooting in the paint.

Against Bloomfield, it was disaster shortly after the National Anthem. To begin with, Judy Nehila, a sophomore swing, was out with an illness. Fuccello attempted to make some adjustments, but Bloomfield was well prepared. To make matters worse, Tracy Delaney, a senior forward, injured her ankle during the warmups and played just one half.

The Lady Bengals jumped out quickly, breaking a four all tie with 11 straight points before a Johansen free throw. The Bengals then scored the last four points of the quarter and led, 19-5 after one.

The second quarter wasn't much better. Bloomfield outscored the Bucs, 14-5 and were well ahead at the half, 33-10.

The second half was basically clean up time for the younger players on both squads. Bloomfield outscored Belleville, 16-6 in the third and 19-15 in the fourth to win handily.

Freshman Simone Edwards led the Belleville attack with eight points. Junior Laura Caruso had six and Johansen, who entered the game with a 13.5 ppg average, was held to three.

Against Eastside, the Belleville offense was held in check again. The Ghosts led, 7-5 after one and 15-10 at intermission.

In the second half, the visitors continued to pull away, outscoring Belleville, 10-6 and 22-9 to win by a 22-point margin. Edwards and Caruso led the way for Belleville again, with six points each. Johansen was held to three points and Nehila, back in the lineup, scored three.

The contest with Montclair looked to be a good test for Belleville. Both teams came in with 0-4 marks, but the Lady Mounties looked like a finalist in the County tournament with good board play and timely outside shooting.

The first quarter was close, as Johansen popped in six points, Caruso two and Nehila two. After one, it was 14-10. The score has quietly worked its record to 7-1 this year while pinning five opponents, the last four consecutive. Criscione hammered Joe Schettino of Don Bosco in 1:55 of the first period, then used only 1:29 to pin Derrick Haley of Montclair. Criscione is aching to have a rematch with Steve Godsell of Nutley in order to avenge his only loss, a freak pin in the Bloomfield Christmas Tournament.

Belleville's 157 pounder had a rugged week but still managed to improve his record to 6-1. Mike Minichini was in a dogfight with Don Bosco's Scott LaForge before he outmuscled his foe to score a fall at 5:44 of the final period. Against Montclair, he was moved up to 169 pounds to prepare for the upcoming Paramus meet and almost met with disaster.

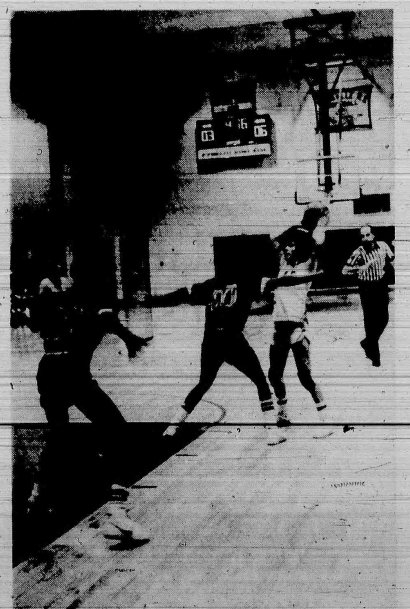

Facing the Mounties' Toby Markowitz, Minichini struggled to a 3-3 draw. It should be noted this match was the only one in which tighter officiating would have meant a difference in the outcome of the bout. Markowitz stalled the entire third period and most of the second, but avoided penalty points and earned the draw.

Carmine Iirone returned to the lineup after an injury to his hand and beat up on Montclair's Tiran Minney before ending the carnage with a fall at 3:19 of the second period. Now at 4-2 for the year, Iirone will play an important part in the Bucs' drive for a fourth consecutive District 7 championship.

Bucs notes: Soph. Dawson Bloom, junior Mike Martinez and senior Russ Zamloot were all given their first ever varsity appearance and all three were involved in pins. Bloom and Zamloot on the down side and Martinez on the up side. Tim Buckley is 4-4 on the year, while Jason Silletti is 1-1. Belleville's toughest match of the year is tonight versus Paramus. It would be a real boost to the team, the coaches and the school if they had a whole bunch of people there screaming and hollering for the good guys. Quiz question of the week: The 1981 North Hunterdon Lions Classic was such a competitive tournament that 31 of the participating grapplers at one time or another earned a trip to the state tournament in Princeton. What Belleville wrestler had the misfortune of facing state champ John Parr of Passaic Valley in his first ever varsity match?

Answer next week. Wrestler of the week goes to Dave Silletti for scoring a fall and a technical fall out of his weight class.

Heavyweight Marc Criscione

Girls' distance team breaks school record

By Michael Lamberti

The Belleville indoor track team took part in the County Relays and turned in some good performances.

The Bucs next competition will come on January 25, at the Short Developmental meet at Red Bank Field House. All races in that meet will be individual, with no relays scheduled.

Head coach John Tosato fielded two medley teams and a shot put relay team for both the boys and girls. The coach was happy with his teams effort in all the events.

"We had some runners out because of a class trip," he said, "however, the kids did pretty well. We had a good turnout this season, so I've been able to field more athletes for different events than in past seasons."

In the girls distance medley, Darrell Jackson, Dawn Cotter, Lisette Colone and Joyce Luongo combined for a 15:37, a school record for the indoor event. Jackson, a senior, ran the half mile, Cotter, a freshman, the quarter, Colone, a junior took the three quarter mile and Luongo, a sophomore ran the mile to complete the good time.

The two mile relay, where all four athletes run a half mile, saw Jackson, Donna Lee Daudelin, Colone and Luongo finish in 12:43.

The shot put relay of freshman Dawn Cotter and senior Sandy Cotter threw a combined 44'5". Tosato expressed pleasure with that performance because a girls shot put team is new to the indoor circuit at Belleville.

For the boys, the distance medley team finished in 13:44. Nick Compitiano (senior, half mile), J.R. Di Vincenzo (senior, quarter mile), David Rosamilla (junior, three quarters) and Greg Morriello (miler) turned in a strong race. Compitiano ran a 2:15 in the half mile to start the race for Belleville on a fast note.

The same four men took part in the sprint medley, combining for a time of 4:40. The shot put relay of Jon-Paul Lenczuk and Paul Santinelli finished with a combined throw of 59'11".

It's been a productive winter, thus far, for the team. Since the weather has been fairly reasonable, the team has had the opportunity to run outside more often, under the close eye of coach Barb Gundry. With the addition of Gundry, Tosato now has the time to work with the hurdlers, jumpers and throwers and leave Gundry with the runners. Hopefully for the team, the indoor performance indoors will spell success on the outdoors when the outdoor season starts in early March.

Boys & girls basketball clinic begins

The Belleville Recreation Department will be conducting a basketball clinic for boys and girls, ages 12-14, on Saturdays beginning Jan. 18.

The clinic, which runs through March, will be held in the Middle School boys gym from 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Basic instruction of fundamental skills and strategy will be stressed.

Girls win game in BB league

The Belleville Recreation Department's entry into the Suburban Junior Girls' Basketball League improved to 1-1 last week as it defeated West Orange at home, 38-20.

Leading the scoring for the 7th-8th grade Bucsnettes was Stacey Johansen with 28 points.

Meanwhile, the Belleville boys' team fell to 0-3 as it lost to Maplewood (20).

Mike "Bulldog" Iuliano is wrestling's ambassador

By Joe Picardo

Mike Iuliano, a sophomore with personality as well as wrestling ability, is this week's spotlighted Belleville grappler.

Nicknamed "Bulldog" by his teammates for his physical and aggressive style of wrestling, Iuliano has accomplished a great deal in only two years of high school competition.

As a freshman, Mike compiled a 21-1 record with his lone defeat coming as a javay performer in the prestigious Kearny Junior Varsity Tournament. That 21-1 log ranks as the second most successful freshman record in the history of BHS wrestling. By the way, the only grappler to have a better record as a freshman was Chris Mismanne, and we all know what he accomplished before he graduated state champ in 1980.

Iuliano has become Belleville's ambassador for wrestling as he mixes well not only with his own teammates but with opposing schools and their respective athletes. Coach Joe Nisvoccia has been calling Iuliano his "Good Will Ambassador" for two seasons now and is predicting great things for Mike.

"I knew Mike was a champion the first few times I watched him compete," Nisvoccia said. "He has that drive and determination I had when I wrestled in high school. Before he graduates, he will be in the states."

That "bulldog" title originated from a move Mike uses on his opponents and became so much a part of the recreation program that Coach Nisvoccia initiated the "Bulldog" Award for the wrestler who best exemplified that style of competition. The award is no longer called the "Bulldog" Award. It has now been changed to the Most Valuable Wrestler Award.

A solid student, Mike "Bulldog" Iuliano currently owns a 7-1 record as a varsity performer with his only loss coming at the hands of West Essex's Frank DeMarr, the preseason choice to win the states at 102 pounds.

To echo Coach Nisvoccia's words, Iuliano will be a champion before he leaves high school. What the coach forgot to say was Mike is already a champ, and is the writer's choice to win the gold medal at 102 pounds in the District 2 Championships.

Belleville Recreation Dept. sponsors girls' softball clinic

The Belleville Recreation Department will sponsor a girls' softball clinic for middle and high school students.

The clinic will be conducted on Fridays, Jan. 17, 24 and 31, Feb. 7 and 28 and March 7 at the Middle School boys' gym from 6-8 p.m.

An aspect of the game will be demonstrated and practiced at each supervised session.

Participants must provide their own gloves and must wear sneakers.

No advance registration is required.

Collucci's squad loses to powerhouse teams

After watching his team lose a heartbreaker to Bloomfield, head coach Rocco Collucci saw his team fall victim to two conference powerhouses, Eastside and Montclair.

Two weeks ago, Collucci called the January portion of the Bucs schedule the "buzzsaw". With his team at 1-6, the schedule shows not let up. The Bucs played host to Don Bosco last Tuesday and will be in Passaic tomorrow night for a 7:30 p.m. start. Next Tuesday, Nutley comes to town for a 4 p.m. tip off and next Thursday, it's back on the road, this time in Paterson to face Kennedy. That game will commence at 7:30 p.m.

The Bloomfield game was definitely one that Belleville let get away. The Bengals came in with its headlined center, 6'11" Aa Abdelnaby, a senior who is headed to Duke University next fall. The big man certainly made his mark, scoring 32 points and taking control of the boards.

Abdelnaby also made his mark on defense, picking off a key pass in the late stages of the game to insure a Bengal victory.

Belleville had control in the first half, leading 13-11 after one and 27-20 at intermission. The Bengals cut the deficit in the third quarter, outscoring the Bucs, 16-12 and trailing 39-36 entering the final frame.

There, the visitors iced the contest with good foul shooting down the stretch and the big hands of Abdelnaby. With 17 left in regulation time and Belleville down 32-50 with the ball, Abdelnaby deflected a cross court Bucsnettes pass, which landed in a Bloomfield player's hands. Two foul shots later, the Bucs were down by four and the game was over.

The final count of 56-50 was even more painful when you consider that Belleville missed four foul shots (6-15). Bob Hutchinson led the way for Belleville with 14 points. Ted Sochaski had 13, Don Washington, nine, Leon Puentes, five, Craig Burden, six and Frank Morrell, three.

Against Eastside, Belleville was up against one of the best teams in New Jersey. After a slow first quarter, in which the Ghosts led by two, 8-6, the pabe picked up in the second. Eastside put on the burners and outscored the Bucs, 18-9 to lead 26-15 at intermission.

The third quarter saw Eastside continue to pull away and the final frame was wrap up time for the Ghosts en route to a 62-32 win.

In that game, Sochaski had 12, Burden, six, Washington, five, Hutchinson, four, Morrell, three and Puentes, two.

Finally, the Bucs closed out a tough week with a 72-54 loss against another powerhouse, Montclair. The Mounties came to Belleville with two early season losses, coupled with six wins, and weren't taking anything for granted.

The visitors jumped out to an 18-12 first quarter lead and extended the margin to 41-26 at halftime. It was 59-38 after three quarters and Belleville rallied somewhat in the fourth, cutting the final deficit to 78 points.

Puentes, after slow offensive performances against Bloomfield and Eastside, finished with 12 to lead Belleville. Washington and Sochaski had 11 each, Chris Goldrick had eight, Hutchinson finished with six and Burden, Frank Morrell and John Morrell to had two each.

narrowed to 18-16 in the early stages of the second quarter, but Montclair took charge from there, scoring 10 straight points and not looking back from there. At halftime, it was 34-20 and the second half saw Belleville come no closer than 19 points.
Johansen had 12 to lead Belleville, with all her points coming in the first half. Fucello moved Johansen to the point guard position in the second half in an effort to calm down her erratic offense. Nehila finished with eight, Caruso, seven and Dina De Medici, Danielle Pizzi and Dondarski had two each.

NOTES: Johansen continues to lead team in scoring with 9 pg. Caruso has a 6.2 average and Nehila, 6.0. Belleville shooting just 36 percent from the foul line. Johansen had her best day at the stripe against Montclair, hitting six of seven. Girls missed 13 foul shots in 22-point loss to Eastside. On the season, team has missed 72 foul shots (41-113). Delaney suffered pulled ligaments in her ankle and was questionable for the immaculate Heart game.
