Belleville High School passes the test

Working On It - Belleville High School Principal Joseph Ciccone (second from right) uses a chart to demonstrate how the recommendations of the Middle States Evaluation Committee will be worked out by the school staff and administration now and in the future. With Ciccone are (l-r) Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally, Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello and School Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino.

Middle States Evaluation report commends staff on preparation

By Michelle Jeannotte

A self-evaluation and three years of preparation have proven to be instrumental in the success of Belleville High School's Middle States Evaluation.

In a presentation made before the board of education Monday night, Belleville High School Principal Joseph Ciccone detailed the 28-page written report prepared by Louis W. Scott, chairperson of the Middle States Evaluation Committee.

Every service provided to students at Belleville High School was examined by the 24-member committee during its three-day visit. Ciccone said. Committee members specialized in individual fields of education, detailed their findings which were compiled in Scott's report.

The areas of study ranged from the school and community to the philosophy and objectives to the educational program, including every subject area from art to special education. Student activities program, learning media services, student services, school facilities and the school staff and administration were also examined by the Middle States Evaluation Committee.

In the report's introduction, staff members of Belleville High School are complimented on the preparations made for the committee's visit, including the orientation dinner the night preceding the three-day observation.

According to the report, the self-evaluation made by the entire staff of Belleville High School was objective, realistic and well done, and made the work of the visiting committee much easier than it otherwise might have been. The booklet formed as a result of the self-evaluation listed strengths, needs and plans of the school.

The process of evaluation made by the Middle States Committee has three phases: 1) self-evaluation in which the staff took a long, hard look at all aspects of Belleville High School in order to gain new insights and perspectives; 2) work of the visiting committee whose results are detailed in the report sent to Ciccone and the central office; and 3) follow-up studies undertaken by the school as a result of the visit and report.

In preparing the report, Scott said, committee members analyzed the pertinent self-study materials prepared by the school, observed the school personnel at work in specific areas, had discussions with pupils and staff, and presented their findings to the entire visiting committee.

It is quite obvious that Belleville High School is a well organized and administered high school with a principal and administrative staff who display positive leadership qualities and who are implementing goals that are consistent with objectives of the staff and the needs of the community," Scott said. "The committee was impressed by the general demeanor of the student body. Home and community values have played a positive part in the development of the young people, but so has the faculty of this school."

The visiting committee was extremely impressed with the rapport that exists between the students and staff," the Scott continued. "This relationship was very clear to all of the visiting committee and it is a strength upon which to build."

Overall, committee members believe Belleville High School provides a broad educational program designed to meet the Elementary lunch program requires additional aides

By Michelle Jeannotte
Procedures concerning the use of aides and supervision of children during school lunch periods was discussed by elementary principals and the Belleville Board of Education at its meeting Monday night.

School 4 Principal Pat Forte, along with School 9 Principal Michael Harvey and School 7 Principal Marilyn Hawthorne, presented a report to the board after polling all Belleville elementary school principals.

During the one-hour lunch period (11:30-12:30 p.m.), elementary school principals supervise those students staying for lunch with the help of aides. Forte said. Lunch aides supervise students while they are eating, clean up when children are finished, monitor the restrooms during students' use and conduct structured outdoor and indoor play activities which are contingent upon the weather.

According to the report, the ratio of lunch aides to students throughout the district is as follows: School 3, 5:300; School 4, 3:137; School 5, 4:325; School 7, 6:400; School 8, 6:275; approx.

School 9, 2:100; and School 10, 3:150.

A recommendation to hire more school lunch aides was presented to the board. The rationale behind the recommendation, according to Forte, was that the ratio between school lunch aides and students should be lowered to provide a more structured atmosphere. Additional aides, Forte said, could also be hired for schools with classified students.

"If we could lower the ratio," he said, "we'd be a lot better. Aides are not fully trained as professionals."

"If the principal's image is not there - once a principal walks out, you lose control of the children," he added.

According to Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello, it would cost the school board $18,000 to start if the ratio was lower.

Structured activities, supervised by school lunch aides, are planned once students are finished eating, Forte said. These activities are planned for indoors as well as outdoors when weather permits.

Forte Harvey and Hawthorne said that students usually participate in these activities in two groups - one for the first, second and third graders and one for the fourth, fifth and sixth graders. The separation of the younger and older students provides for pupil safety, they said.

Each school, however, handles the situation in a different manner. School 9 Principal Michael Harvey said. At School 9, from September to October, students go outside with the first-third graders going outside while the fourth-sixth graders stay inside and eat and then vice versa.

For the most part, he said, all students stay inside from November through April.

During inclement weather, some principals put students in their respective classrooms under the supervision of an aide. This practice, Forte said, depends on the size of the school facility.

According to the report, students are kept inside after lunch if a combination of temperature and wind chill factor falls below 34 degrees or it is rainy or snowy or when the surface conditions are poor or unsafe.

The school nurse, with the above criteria in mind, makes the decision of whether students should be allowed to go outside.

During the lunch period, the school nurse is stationed in the nurse's room where she is able to attend to injuries and physical conditions of the students. According to Forte, School 4 shares a nurse with School 7. If an injury occurs while the nurse is not there, a student is taken care of until she returns at 2 p.m. When she does return to the school, she checks the student and makes a phone call to his or her parents.

Making phone calls to an injured student's parents is a responsibility of the school nurse, he said.

County offers land for senior housing

Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro told the Belleville Board of Commissioners Tuesday night that the township will be allowed to use county-owned land for a senior citizen housing project.

Shapiro told commissioners that the Township of Belleville would be permitted to use land on the site of the Essex County Geriatrics Center on Franklin Avenue. The parcel of land which the township would be allowed to use, if necessary, is that adjacent to the new Belleville Fire Department headquarters.

Shapiro told commissioners during their public session that the county is "very enthusiastic about the progress" being made in the area of senior citizen housing for Belleville residents.

"It is a badly needed facility and the county will try to help in any way it can," he said.

Joseph Dasaro of Carpenter Street asked Shapiro, if the county has considered converting the Geriatrics Center to a senior citizen housing complex.

The Geriatrics Center provides 322 beds for county residents," Shapiro said. "We would have to consider building a new facility before deciding to convert it to a senior citizen housing complex. We have to be able to provide the same services we are providing now."

"It would probably be more cost efficient for the county to build a new center - a more modern one," he added. "But before we turn over the center for senior citizen housing, we

Deadline draws near for filing petitions

The deadline for filing nominating petitions for vacancies on the Belleville Board of Education is next Thursday, Feb. 20.

All nominating petitions must be submitted to the office of School Board Secretary Edward J. Appleton at 190 Cortlandt St. by 4 p.m.

Petitions can be picked up at the board secretary's office Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Three seats will be vacant for this year's school board election Tuesday, April 15. The seats belong to School Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino and board members Gabriel Nazzola and John DiStasi, who recently announced that he would not be seeking re-election to the board.

The drawing of names will take place Saturday, Feb. 22. The last date for a candidate to withdraw his or her name from the ballot is Friday, Feb. 28. A signed written notice must be submitted to the board secretary by 4 p.m.

For information on becoming a school board candidate, contact the school board secretary at 751-7242.

Lower income taxpayers benefit from new tax laws

By Bert Tobia
H & R Block District Manager

A change in the tax law for 1985 can work to the advantage of lower income taxpayers. An earned income credit can be claimed by taxpayers who:

- have some earned income and both earned income and adjusted gross income are less than $11,000.
- are married filing jointly or qualifying widower and have a qualifying dependent child;
- are head of household and provided a home for a qualifying child for the last six months of the year.

The amount of the credit can be as much as $550. Whatever amount is not needed to cover your tax liability is refunded directly to you.

As a matter of fact, even if you have no tax liability, you should file a tax return just to claim this credit. Anyone expecting to be eligible can request his employer to pay it to him during the year instead of waiting to file his tax return.

Leonard Kriegman

Kriegman is appointed to bank advisory board

Leonard Kriegman has been appointed to the North Arlington Advisory Board of Broad National Bank, according to an announcement made by Richard P. Garber, president.

Kriegman is the president of Newark Light Company, Inc. of Belleville, a wholesale distributor of electrical supplies selling to contractors, industrial and commercial accounts throughout the state.

Born and educated in Newark, he is a graduate of the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts and has served as president of the Jersey Electrical Distributors Association.

High school passes Middle States Evaluation needs of the majority of the students as well as a broad range of activities and athletics. However, the committee reported that there were some serious concerns about the limits of the facility, including a crowded cafeteria and classrooms and storage limitations.

"A concern that came to us from the staff was the limited educational horizons of the students," Scott said. "It is difficult to change values and attitudes. However, with the very obvious influence that this staff has with the student body, I believe a concentrated effort could make an impact on broadening the educational horizons of the student body."

As far as the educational program is concerned, Belleville High School meets the needs of students by providing a comprehensive educational program in academic, business and vocational areas.

"A strong academic curriculum prepares the college-bound student, while courses in business and vocational subjects ready the students for the job market, insuring both groups successful transitions into adult society," Scott said.

High school staff members were commended on the revised curriculum guides which are implemented by thorough daily lesson planning and high-quality classroom presentations, as well as the strong mutual support and communication between administration and faculty and among faculty members.

Some of the recommendations made by the committee in this area were: consideration be given to increasing graduation requirements and re-evaluating the early dismissal policy to encourage students to take advantage of the educational opportunities by choosing more elective subjects; effort be made to balance class sizes throughout the school day (relating to overcrowded classrooms); and an effort be made to provide additional teaching stations, storage in department areas and teacher work areas near department locations (relating to the limitations of the school's physical plant).

Although the school was commended on the physical plant's cleanliness and on-site management, the committee believes there is a need for an additional gymnasium, locker room and storage area and an expanded cafeteria.

In one of its last areas of study, the Middle States Evaluation Committee commended the staff and administration in providing "a quality educational program in an inadequate facility, often under adverse conditions."

Recommendations to the staff and administration included: monitoring class size; taking action to remedy the serious limitations that an inadequate facility imposes on providing optimum educational opportunities for students; and that scheduling practices be examined to assess their impact on staffing, class size and room utilization.

In its conclusion, the committee describes Belleville High School as a fine school, "one of which all of you should be very proud."

Recommendations made by the committee are intended to give further direction to your effort to provide an increasingly more effective educational experience for the young people in the community served by your school," Scott said.

Responses made by staff and administration of Belleville High School to the recommendations made by the Middle States Evaluation Committee will be reported in the second part of the series.)

County Executive Shapiro offers land to township for senior citizen housing

would have to find another site. Once we did, we would be able to put the building and land on the market and perhaps gain more money. That is something we have to look into."

Mayor Michael Marotte had earlier told members of the audience that the township has hired a consultant who will help the board with the filing of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) grants. HUD monies received by the township can be used for the construction of a senior citizen housing complex.

John Sweeney will act as a consultant to a senior citizen housing committee which has not yet been formed. The committee, the mayor said, will consist of one or two residents of the community who will be selected by each of the commissioners. The selection by commissioners will provide the committee with a broad scope of residents, the mayor said.

In other business, Shapiro expressed his support of the county's plan to expand four intersections along Joralemon Street.

The intersections are that of Main Street Union Avenue, Franklin Avenue and Hoover Avenue, all at Joralemon Street. The intersections, which have been scenes of repetitive accidents, will be expanded for the addition of left-hand turn lanes and signals.

The intersections are unsafe, Shapiro said. "Last year alone, we counted 15 accidents."

Shapiro also pointed out that the loss of parking spaces at Peoples Bank and the shopping mall along Franklin Avenue would be minimal. Merchants complained last week to the Belleville Board of Commissioners that the loss of parking spaces would have a detrimental effect on business.

The merchants are estimating 13 lost parking spaces at Peoples Bank and 20 spaces at the shopping mall, he said. "The county estimates a loss of one to three parking spaces."

The county executive also said that the cost of the project would be undertaken by the county and that no cost incurred upon the Township of Belleville.

The township would only have to pay a price if it canceled its agreement with the county to expand the intersections, he said.

In his presentation before the board, Shapiro also informed the commissioners and residents about projects concerning county parks. Included in future projects is a redesign of the playground at the eastern end of Belleville Park on Belleville Avenue.

Shapiro said the county is willing to spend $20-$25,000 for a new design.

Also included in future projects for county parks is a Park Ranger Program allocated in this year's county budget (not yet approved by the Essex County Board of Freeholders).

The Park Ranger Program is aimed with the intent to better enforce park laws through authority figures other than county police, Shapiro said. By Michelle Jeannotte

Star Spangled Banner

Since 1931, the national anthem has been the "Star Spangled Banner." Now we hear talk about changing the national anthem to "America the Beautiful."

Talk of the change arose from the days following the national loss of our gallant crew members of the space shuttle, Challenger, when all of America was mourning — and when our people looked for a way to express their numbed emotions.

Many among us, sought and found, refuge in the words of "America the Beautiful" — and so, attention was given to legislation already in place sponsored by Congressman Andrew Jacobs, Jr. of Indiana, who wants to replace the "Star Spangled Banner" with "America the Beautiful" as our national anthem.

Arguments in favor of the change include comments that the language of the "Star Spangled Banner," i.e. "the rockets red glare" and "bombs bursting in air" have different connotations in 1986 as opposed to the time when Francis Scott Key, highly motivated by patriotic instincts, watched a battle of the War of 1812, and recorded his relief and joy by conceiving the lyrics of the "Star Spangled Banner." We're also told the music, with its formidable high notes, is embarrassing to most of us. And the argument goes on and on.

Congressman Jacobs suggests that the lyrics of "America the Beautiful" glowingly portray the America we love. The song speaks of "amber waves of grain" — "the purple mountain majesties" — "above the fruited plain." And the "God mend thine every flaw, confirm thy soul in self control, thy liberty in law."

We are told there is no sanctity about the "Star Spangled Banner." The music is from an old English drinking song, the words were composed to fit the tune, and finally in 1931, it was officially adopted by Congress.

We publish below the lyrics of the songs. Would you make a change?

"Star Spangled Banner"

Music — John Stafford Smith, 1771
Words — Francis Scott Key, 1814

O say can you see
By the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
At the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd
Were so gallantly streaming
And the rockets' red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there,
O say does that Star Spangled
Banner still wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

O thus be it ever,
When free men shall stand
Between their loved homes
And the war's desolation!
Blessed with vict'ry and peace,
May the heaven rescued land
Praise the power that hath made
And preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must,
When our cause is just,
And this be our motto,
"In God is Our Trust."
And the Star Spangled Banner
In triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave.

"America the Beautiful"

Music — hymn "Materna," Samuel A. Ward, 1882
Words — Katherine Lee Bates, 1895

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.
O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul
In self control
Thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self
Their country loved
And mercy more than life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness
And every gain divine.
O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

Passersby help wounded dog hit on Washington Avenue

To the editor:

I was coming back from mailing a letter in front of town hall when I first spotted the big black dog. He was sitting on his haunches, smack dab in the middle of Washington Avenue, traffic zipping by him in both directions. I was just passing R & S Auto store and turning into William Street when it dawned on me that something was wrong with the dog.

A young woman was kneeling close to him trying to soothe and comfort him. As I approached the animal in the street, I realized that he had been injured. He stood, trembling with his forelegs straight out and his eyes glazed. Several other people gathered around the dog to see if they could help. One fellow covered him with his jacket to protect him from the falling snow and to ward off any shock.

A panel truck parked in the middle of Washington Avenue to protect the dog from further injury from the oncoming traffic. I ran to the R & S store to ask if someone had called the police. They hadn't. They had not known anything about what had happened. Graciously the young lady at the counter made the call.

I returned to the middle of the street next to the dog. Traffic slowed to a near stop, with people expressing concern and sadness over the poor animal. By this time it was becoming clear that the dog was not going to survive his injuries. He laid down and began to twitch, not much, just a little. The police arrived quickly and immediately asked if anyone had seen what had happened.

The girl said that she saw a truck hit the dog, but could offer nothing other than that it was a small truck. The man who offered to cover the dog with his jacket said that it was a flat bed truck, that the front wheel looked as though it hit the dog. The driver did not stop. It is not known whether or not the driver was aware of hitting the dog.

This was no stray animal for he wore a chain that had many dog tags affixed to it. One of the officers gingerly reached for the chain to get the number. I believe he called the number in to notify the owner. The police acted splendidly and with much compassion.

Everyone there tried to make the dog's last remaining moments as easy as possible. Why do I write about the big black dog?

To the driver who hit him. Could you have been a little more careful? Maybe not. I don't know. But if you did know you hit that dog, don't feel too bad. He was surrounded by caring people.

To the owners. We know you must have loved that dog as it was obvious that he was well cared for and the tags attest to the fact that whoever owned him, cared for him, loved him.

I just think that whoever owned him might like to know that he died not alone in the middle of the street without anyone caring about him. He died surrounded by dog lovers and just plain folks who felt about a life so carelessly snuffed out. Without making a sound, he died. Tenderly the police picked up his limp body and placed it on the sidewalk for the ASPCA to pick him up.

We all hoped that Blackie would make it, but he was too badly hurt to survive.

It was now about 1:30 Feb. 4. The snow began to fall. Now heavily everyone went on about their business.

Treat taxpayers' money as your own

(Open letter to Gabriel Nazzola.)
I read your letter to the editor on Feb. 6, 1986.

Perhaps you are correct when you state that "It is also misleading to attempt to compare the educational system budget of two adjacent towns."

But I think that Mr. Golden was stating the difference in attitude toward the budgetary process. And he captured that difference extremely well.

Perhaps you are not aware of it. Mr. Nazzola, but the rampant inflation of the past 10 years is finally over. Our senior citizens who are living on fixed incomes can no longer expect 40 or 15 percent increases in Social Security benefits.

Those of us who are employed are getting raises of 2 to 3 percent if any raise at all. We cannot afford a 14 percent increase in school board taxes. Mr. Golden captured the fact that the board in our neighboring community understands the problems faced by the citizens of our towns.

The way I see it with an inflation rate of approximately 3 percent, increasing state aid and a declining enrollment, we should be able to continue the restoration of our physical plant, improve the quality of education, be fair to the staff and still not raise taxes.

But I knew that we were in for a huge increase when I saw the board's reaction to its legal fees. Last year the board paid an astronomical $96,228.30 for legal fees and to date has made no attempt to control its legal expenses.

If you are really worried about the credibility of the board you will start treating the taxpayers' money as you treat your own money.

Thanks to those who helped with car

To the editor:

On one of the coldest Sundays coming home from church, we pulled over to the curb in front of a bank on Washington Avenue in Belleville with a flat tire.

We say a grateful thank you to Michael Hogan of Belleville and also to an unknown driver of a van who also stopped to lend assistance.

All they accepted was a thank you. We want all who read this to know there are still some caring persons around to help when it's needed.

Someone wants you for a valentine

By Rev. Gerald Fortunato
Silver Lake Baptist Church

Have you ever felt sorry for yourself because someone else got more valentines than you did? Or have you ever felt sorry for someone who got just one valentine?

Valentine's Day is a special day because it is so wonderful to be loved and have people tell us so. We do this by giving or receiving a valentine. But there is something much more wonderful than receiving a valentine from one of your friends.

It is to know that the heart of Jesus Christ is loving and large enough to take us all in and, no one need be left out. Jesus came from the heart of God. He is God's valentine to us.

Most valentines are heart-shaped. There are more than 750 verses in the Bible that mention the heart. From these we discover that our heart means one whole self. And so we say, "I love you with all my heart."

The heart thinks, feels, loves and acts. Your heart is you. When God says in the Bible, "Give me your heart," He is saying, "Give me yourself."

Jesus also spoke about the things we do that come from our hearts.
David Livingston was a famous missionary to Africa. One day an African chief came to him and asked him for medicine to change his heart. He said,

"My heart is very proud and angry and I want something to give me a new heart."

Can you guess what Mr. Livingston did? Yes, he held up his New Testament and told the chief that this was the book that could change the heart.

Your heart is like a house. It has a door and Jesus wants you to open that door and let Him come in. There is a verse in the Bible (Rev. 3:20) in which Jesus is saying, "See I stand knocking at the door. If anyone listens to my voice and opens the door, I will come into his (her) house."

Christ wants you for His valentine.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

School board trustee Gabriel Nazzola, whom former school superintendent Dr. John Greed allegedly alluded to as "nasty," petulantly displays his venom by falsely alleging deliberate distortion was presented in this column published Jan. 23, 1986.

Likewise, we know of no one who would deliberately display ignorance. At the time of publication, no school budget had been published indicating the amount of state aid the board was expecting to deduct, as was so clearly pointed out in Tom Spillane's former school board newsletter, letter which bore the caption, "Voters will not support a 26-percent tax increase."

Originally Gabe Nazzola said: "This school budget reflects a 25.3 tax point increase." Now he says that it equates to a 26.3 tax point increase. Was he guilty of deliberate distortion when he presented the original figure?

Gabe Nazzola, a Republican appointed by Gov. Thomas Kean to serve on the local Redevelopment Agency, evinces displeasure over what he suggests is a continual criticism of the President of the United States. No such thing, we merely chide his policies as so many public officials do today, even those of his own party. (Star Ledger Feb. 6, 1986, front-page story.)

There is no need to resort to distortions. The published comparative budgets show Belleville's school budget increased $1,507,444 over last year's while the Nutley school board claims an increase of but $826,968 overall from the previous year.

The disparity in the number of students in the two school systems is not that significant to merit the difference in the increases on a comparative basis.

We are not cognizant of the amount of state or federal school aid is to be made available, but like former school board member Tom Spillane, we don't believe the voters will support a 26-percent tax increase in the school budget along with the additional tax increase we can expect in the county and local government taxes.

In fact, we don't think they should. Who among the town's homeowners want to get rapped with an added $131.50 tax increase (caused from school budget increases alone) on a home assessed at $50,000?

We vividly recall Mr. Nazzola's voluble campaign rhetoric and his commitment to the policy of not being afraid to spend money for education. However, we never suspected that his enthusiasm for this expenditure went so far.

Perhaps many who supported him in his previous campaign will have foreseen him in his bid for reelection this April.

In regards to Mr. Nazzola's suggestions regarding in-depth homework, let me remind him of the story often told by a successful politician. He had done many favors for a farmer content for which the man showed gratitude, however, bad times fell upon the farmer and the land and he began to feel the politician with his hat in his hand asking for an unreasonable favor that was impossible to fulfill. Two years later the politician on the reelection trail came upon the older farmer reminding him of the many favors he had done for him, so he asked the farmer to vote for him again, to which the farmer replied, "What have you done for me lately?" What have you and the budget committee done for us this year Mr. Nazzola?

Remember Gabe, those you pass on the way up the ladder, you sometimes pass again on the way down. In conclusion, if you need a lexicon to "decipher" words used, perhaps some may question your qualifications to serve as a school board trustee.

Letter policy

The Belleville Times encourages residents to express views about town and school and international events in the Letters to the Editors' column.

All letters submitted to The Times must include signature, address and telephone number. No letters will be printed without confirmation.

Kiwanian Donation - The Kiwanis Club of Belleville recently donated "Marco Narco," coloring books which demonstrate the effects of drug abuse to third and fourth graders district-wide. One student in each grade will be awarded a $50 savings bond for the best colorings. Making the presentation were Kiwanians Michael Marotti, left, John Iannuzzi and Seymour Grossman (second from right). Accepting the books are School's Principal Archibald Gallombardo, center, with fourth graders Danielle Stabile and Kevin Ernst, and Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello, right.

School lunch program needs additional aides

To keep down the increase in injuries to students during the elementary school lunch periods, principals must take in account the safety factor, Mrs. Hawthorne, School's principal, said.

The safety factor is always the utmost importance when considering lunch period activities," she said.

Part of the safety factor is making sure students adhere to the K-6 discipline policy recently adopted by the Belleville Board of Education. During the lunch period, students are not permitted to leave the school or school grounds and are expected to cooperate with lunch aides and remain seated until they are dismissed.

Once students are allowed to play, they are expected not to fight or cause disturbances and cooperate with the lunch aides.

Students who misbehave during lunch periods are disciplined by their respective principal. Most elementary school principals require their students to write an essay which must be signed by a parent, Forte said.

In conjunction with the school lunch program, students who go home for lunch are not permitted to return to school until 12:20 p.m., Forte said. An elementary school principal may send a student home if he or she reports to school before that time.

According to Forte, every parent was sent a copy of the district policy which includes details of the school lunch program and guides for student discipline. Parents were required to sign a form verifying receipt of copy.

Resident arrested by Postal Service for selling drugs during work hours

Allen West, 29, of Belleville is one of 13 postal service employees arrested by postal inspectors last week for selling drugs at the New York International and Bulk Mail Center in Jersey City.

West, along with 12 other postal employees, was arrested Feb. 4.

According to Thomas W. Greulich, United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey, and E. P. Flanagan, Postal Inspector in Charge, Newark Division, the defendants sold heroin, cocaine, codeine, dilaudid, marijuana and hashish in amount worth $30 to $300 at the Bulk Mail Center while on of ficial duty.

The arrests ended a five-month investigation by the United States Postal Service under Flanagan's direction in which Postal inspectors observed the employees selling drugs and recorded these transactions.

If convicted, 12 of the defendants, including West, face a maximum sentence of 15 years imprisonment and a $125,000 fine. Igor Jancyk, 32, of Jersey City, faces a maximum sentence of five years imprisonment and a $50,000 fine.

WITH A NUTLEY SAVINGS' IRA GETTING A BREAK FROM THE IRS IS A...

PIECE OF CAKE.

Have an urge for a tax break? Then we've got a sweet deal for you.

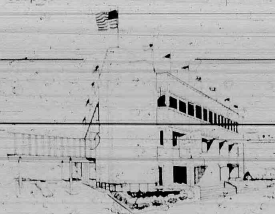

Open an IRA account with Nutley Savings and plan for your future financial security and at the same time arrange for a substantial deduction on your Federal Tax Return.

You can deposit up to $2,000 a year and even more if you're married... $2,250 if either you or your spouse works... and up to $4,000 for working couples.

You pay no taxes on your IRA deposits or on the interest you earn until you begin to withdraw the funds at retirement. Your money makes money and you get the tax break you're looking for.

Choose from a variety of Individual Retirement Accounts paying high market interest rates. Interest is paid from the day of deposit. So why wait? It's a tax advantage you can't afford to pass up. Stop in today and turn your next coffee break into a tax break. It's that simple. Getting a break from the IRS is a piece of cake.

Federal regulations permit withdrawals as early as age 59½. Premature withdrawal may result in a penalty and loss of tax-deferred status.

American History Month recognized through books

The Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave., has added a collection of books in recognition of American History Month.

Some of the selections include:

- "A Cultural History of the American Revolution" by Kenneth Silverman. The first comprehensive cultural history of the Revolutionary period from 1763 to 1789, tracing the growth of painting, music, literature and the theatre against the contours of politics and history.

- "The Dawn's Early Light" by Walter Lord. The climactic shaping of the land of the free during the hazardous events of 1814 in Washington, Baltimore and London.

- "Decisive Day: The Battle of Bunker Hill" by Richard M. Ketchum. A classic exposition of our greatest revolutionary battle.

- "The Fall of Saigon: Scenes from the Sudden End of a Long War." The fall of Saigon weaves together the lives of more than 30 persons caught in the crisis of these days.
- "Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War" by Alfred H. Guernsey and Henry M. Alden. Contemporary accounts and illustrations from the greatest magazine of the time with 1,000 scenes, maps, plans and portraits.

- "The Hundredth Year: The United States in 1876" by John D. Bergamini. An overall picture of America in 1876—labor, blacks, women, artists, writers, politicians, generals, statesmen, criminals, people and events.

- "Inventing America" Jefferson's Declaration of Independence" by Garry Wills. An interpretation of the famous document by a journalist and trained classicist.

- "Life and Times in Colonial Philadelphia" by Joseph J. Kelley Jr. Thirteen sharply etched essays show how energetic Philadelphians transformed a tanglewood into the second largest city in the British empire.

- "Rise and Fight Again: Perilous Times Along the Road to Independence" by Charles Bracelen Flood. This exciting account of revolutionary campaigns in factual history told with the literary style of the novelist.

- "Statue of Liberty: The First Hundred Years" by Bernard A. Weisberger. This is a comprehensive history of America's most compelling symbol.

Future Plans. The trustees of the Belleville Public Library recently discussed plans for library programs and projects for this year. Looking over some ideas are (l-r) Mrs. Richard A. Shaffer, secretary; James J. Cozzarelli Jr., Joseph T. Casale, president and Kenneth Brox, treasurer.

John Rotondo exhibits photos at Belleville Public Library

The photography of John P. Rotondo of Newark is on exhibit this month at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave.

Rotondo, a funeral director, received his B.A. from Rutgers University and his M.A. from Fairleigh Dickinson University.

A veteran of the Korean War, he started photography seriously when assigned to the Assistant Chief of Staff G-3, Pentagon, photographing the scenes of Virginia, Washington D.C. and Mt. Vernon. He has also photographed scenes of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and many European countries during his travels, considering Cape May and the Jersey shore as the finest areas of photography.

"I enjoy the outdoor scenic conception for photographic work," he said. "Waterfalls, forests, at sunset or dusk, long shadows, birds against the sky as well as the charm and warmth of European towns, villas, and lakes appeal to me.

Among the places he has exhibited are the Bergen County Museum and the West Orange, Caldwell and Bloomfield public libraries.

In addition to his exhibit,

Rotondo has provided a photographic collection of World War II and Korean War scenes in the second floor display case in recognition of American History Month.

Show airs on WBHS

Program hosts employees of Cerebral Palsy Center

The February program of the Belleville Interagency Council features David Bryant, director of the Belleville Public Library, interviewing Kenneth Watson, educational supervisor and Dot Reeves, psychologist, of the Cerebral Palsy Center in Belleville.

They discuss the early intervention and adult programs as well as the services of the center.

The television program is part of the Interagency Council's attempt to familiarize Belleville residents with the work of its social service agencies.

The show is aired on WBHS Channel 34 and is produced by Assistant Library Director Adrea Cohen and directed by Marilyn Mango, media specialist at Belleville High School.

Information about the agencies in the Belleville Interagency Council are available at the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave.

ASPIRIN AND FEVER
It is well known that although it does not affect normal temperatures, aspirin (aspirin, Bayer) like salicylates, lowers fever. During a fever, aspirin acts to reset the body's thermostat to normal temperatures. It also dissipates the body's excess heat by increasing perspiration and dilating blood vessels. However, it is not always desirable to reduce fever. A fever is an important symptom. It is helpful in following the course of a disease and is important to find out what the cause of a fever is, not just the fever itself. When in doubt as to whether to use aspirin for fever, consult a doctor.

It's important to consult your doctor before taking many medications. If you have a question about using an over-the-counter medication at the same time you are taking a prescription drug, your pharmacist would be happy to give you the answer at ROSSANDRE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved. Stop by and pick up a box of Rusbell's Stevia candy for your Valentine. Hours: 9 am-10 pm daily, 9 am-9 pm Sundays. Have a happy Valentine's Day.

HANDY HINT:
Pregnant women should avoid using aspirin whenever possible.

'Celebrate Books' features adult and children books

The February program of "Celebrate Books" which airs on WBHS Channel 34 will feature two segments - one for children and one for adults.

On the Wednesday show, which airs at 12 and 7:30 p.m., Alice Norris, children's librarian, will give a book talk on bears and cats, while Kathleen Mollica, branch librarian, will show a flannel board dealing with animals wearing clothing.

Among the books that will be shown are: "How Do I Put It On?" and "What a Good Lunch!" by Shigeo Watanabe; "The Berenstain Bears Go to the Doctor" by Stan and Jan Berenstain; "Teddy Bears 1 to 10" by Susanna Greiz; "A Bear Called Paddington" by Michael Bond; "Winnie the Pooh" by A.A. Milne; "The Pooh Party Book" by Virginia Ellison; "The Big Bears" by Fred Johnson and "Major: The Story of a Black Bear" by Robert McClung.

Also, "Don't You Dare Shoot That Bear: A Story of Teddy Roosevelt" by Robert Quackenbush; "Where's Spot?" and "Spot's First Walk" by Eric Hill; "The Last Puppy" by Frank Asch; "Old Mother Hubbard" by Hawkins Colin; "Harry the Dirty Dog" by Gene Zion; "Benji's Dog House" by Margaret Graham; "David and Goliath" by Shirley Hughes; "The Trouble With Tuck" by Theodore Taylor; "Mine for the Year" by Susan Kuklin and "Something Sleeping in the Hall" by Kania Kuskin.

These book titles are available at the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room.

"Where Is It?" by Tana Hoban; "But Where Is the Green Parrot?" by Thomas and Wanda Zacharias; "Whose Nose Is

This?" by Dr. Richard Van Gelder; "Animals Should Definitely Not Wear Clothing" by Judi Barrett and "The Cat in the Hat" by Dr. Seuss are available at the Silver Lake Branch Library, 30 Magnolia St.

On the Thursday show, which airs 7 p.m., Library Director David Bryant will discuss interesting cookbooks in the first half of the show, while Cindy LaRue, reference and young peoples librarian, discusses the new fiction titles available during the second half of the show.

Among the cookbook titles discussed are: "The After 50 Cookbook" by Donna Hamilton; "The Best of Jewish Cooking" by Craig Claiborne's "The New York Times Food Encyclopedia" by Joan Whitman; "Fast and Natural Cuisine: A Complete Guide to Easy Vegetarian and Seafood Cooking" by Susan Geiske and Mindy Toomay; "Feast of Spain" edited by Luis Bettonica and "The Garden Way Bread Book: A Baker's Almanac" by Ellen Foscoe Johnson.

Also, "Home Sausage Making" by Charles Reavis; "Italian Vegetarian" by "Cooking A Wealth of Traditional Italian Dishes Using All the Goodness of Natural Whole Food Ingredients" by Jo Maria Angelo; "The Joy of Pasta" by Joe Farinella and Louise Imperiale; "No Salt Cookery: Wholesome Recipes for Low Sodium Eating" by Sarah Bounds; "The Regional Italian Kitchen" by Nika Hazellon and "The Sugar Free Cookbook" by Jennifer Pinker and Veronica Oxley.

Some of the new fiction books that will be discussed on the second part of the show include: "Cycle of the Werewolf" by Stephen King; "Dead Man's Ransom" by Ellis Peters; "Flaming Tree" by Phyllis A. Whitney; "The Hyde Park Murder" by Elliott Roosevelt; "The Lays of Beleriand" by J.R.R. Tolkien; "Manifold Revisited" by Joan Aiken; "Mrs. Pollifax and the Hong Kong Buddha" by Dorothy Gilman; "The Nantucket Diet Murders" by Virginia Rich; "Queen of This Realm" by Jean Plaidy; "Palm Beach" by Pat Booth; "Path of the Eclipse" by Chelsea Quinn Yarbro; Kay and

"The Windsor Plot" by Pauline Glen Winslow.

To reserve any of these books, call the library at 759-9200.

"Celebrate Books" is produced by Assistant Library Director Adrea Cohen in conjunction with Marilyn Mango, director at WBHS. Assisting are Pat Murano, Sharon Russo, Kenneth Brucato and Lou Toriatiore.

Radziewicz becomes personality on Pennsylvania radio station

Mark Radziewicz of Belleville has become an overnight personality at radio station 'Classic Gold 92' in Edinboro, Pa.

Radziewicz, a 1985 graduate of Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania, has worked in radio for the last five years. He joined the SRU radio station WRCK as a disc jockey and eventually worked his way to general manager in 1983.

While a student in college, he went on to professional radio as a nighttime announcer at WACB, Kittanning, Pa. and WRST-New Castle.

Radziewicz also has major market television experience including jobs at ABC Sports, Cable News Network, and Newark's 166 Stereo Music Television.

'Classic Gold 92' went on the air Jan. 6, 1986 at 3 a.m. with Radziewicz. The first record on 89 on the station was "Twist and Shout" by the Beatles, which Radziewicz says portrays the station's image and philosophy.

Radziewicz is also assisting the station's operations manager in developing station promotions and contests. The first major promotion of Radziewicz's influence began Feb. 1 for St. Valentine's Day.

DENTALLY SPEAKING
By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Mr. V. H. Bloomfield asks: "I should get a toothache at night so it's easy to put aspirin of rub whiskey on the tooth."

Dr. Muglia replies: "Rubbing whiskey on your tooth is good for a toothache. Aspirin on a toothache works on the tooth and can cause additional harm. You see, Mr. V. if you rub enough whiskey on the tooth, eventually the alcohol becomes absorbed through your blood stream and you could care less if you have a toothache. You may not even remember your name. You might just as well drink the whiskey because it works the same way. Aspirin works through blood absorption also. In addition, however, aspirin often causes kidney burn through its waste properties. So not only do you keep your toothache, but you have an additional 1041 degree burn. So Mr. V. take a aspirin and call your dentist. That's the best and safest advice. Thanks for writing."

PRESIDENTS' SALE

Dear Customer,

In the Nutley tradition of Presidents' week celebrations we announced our annual Presidents' Sale. It begins this Saturday, February 15th and continues for one week ending Saturday, February 22nd.

Each of our home furnishings departments is contributing something special to make this sale our best ever. For example, on any furniture, sleep or recliner purchase of $300 or more we are offering 12 months no interest financing. Absolutely no finance charge for one year.

From our electronics department we are offering beat the competition pricing on all our VCR's and we are adding free labor installation on every unit purchased during sale week. Now what's your excuse?

From our appliance department it is only fitting that the great names of Lincoln and Washington be honored by specials from the honored brands of GE, Hotpoint, Whirlpool, Maytag, Gibson, Magic Chef, RCA, Fisher, Toshiba, Sylvania, Tappan, Caloric and Litton.

Come down and discover for yourself the values that make this Presidents' Sale the one you can't afford to miss.

Very truly yours,

Rocco, Joe and Bob

P.S. We will be serving cherry tarts and coffee continuously.

P.P.S. Take advantage of our instant credit program set up specially for this sale.

Mrs. Sam Scucci - nee Beth Prullage

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ciarleglio - nee Lisa Brown

Constance Brown - Kevin Olvaney

Beth Ann Prullage bride of Sam Anthony Scucci Mr. and Mrs. Ciarleglio Constance Ann Brown honeymoon in Vermont to wed Kevin Olvaney

Beth Ann Prullage and Sam Anthony Scucci were married Jan. 11 at New Chapel on the University of Evansville campus.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prullage of Evansville, Ind. and Mr. and Mrs. Sam S. Scucci of Cedar Grove, formerly of Nutley.

Paula Prullage, of Chapel Hill, N.C. was maid of honor for her sister and another sister, Janis Polley of Bloomington, Ind. was bridesmaid.

Richard Scucci of Rockaway served as his brother's best man with Gary Scucci of Milford, Ct. also a brother of the groom, as groomsmen. Ushers were Joseph Prullage of West Lafayette, Ind., the bride's brother and Willard Polley of Bloomington, the bride's brother-in-law.

A reception followed at Sweeney's Too in the Ramada Inn.

The bride earned a degree in nursing from the University of Evansville. She has been employed in the neonatal intensive care nursery at Welborn Hospital.

The groom graduated from the New Jersey Institute of Technology with a degree in electrical engineering. He is with Stone and Webster Engineering Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. Scucci will live in Boston.

Holy Family Church was the setting recently for the marriage of Lisa Marie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown of Belleville, to Thomas H. Ciarleglio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ciarleglio of Milford, Ct.

The Rev. Gerard Sudol performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Snuffy's Patisserie, Renaissance, Scotch Plains.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white organza gown with an illusion bodice and high neckline accented with lace. A matching headpiece held her chapel length veil.

Connie Brown of Belleville was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Angela Milano of Bloomfield, Lorraine Castelli of Bloomfield and Rebecca Bellone of West Haven, Ct.

They were attired in royal blue satin gowns with matching hats and carried heart shaped bouquets.

Christopher Blake of Devon, Ct. was best man. Ushering were Bruce Ciarleglio of Milford, Roger Ciarleglio of Southington, Ct. and Robert Bellone of West Haven.

Mrs. Brown chose a burgundy gown and wore a pink rose and carnation corsage. The groom's mother was in a light blue gown with a blue rose and carnation corsage.

Mr. Ciarleglio, an alumna of Belleville High School and The Berkeley School, is a nursing secretary at Milford Health Care Center, Inc., Milford.

Mr. Ciarleglio, a graduate of Platt Regional Vocational Technical High School, Lincoln Technical Institute and a planner at Sikorsky Aircraft, Shelton, Ct.

The honeymooned in Vermont and New Hampshire following the Oct. 26 nuptials and have made their home in West Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown of Belleville announce the engagement of their daughter, Constance Ann, to Kevin J. Olvaney, son of Mrs. Charlotte Olvaney of Kearny and the late Mr. William Olvaney.

Miss Brown, an alumna of Belleville High School, is a secretary with The Lempert Co. Mr. Olvaney, a graduate of Kearny High School, is a truck driver with Newark News Dealers Supply Co.

The troth was made known Dec. 14, 1985. An April 1987 wedding is planned.

When winning's the goal, is the youngster a victor?

By James L. Elmore, M.D.
The Carrier Foundation

I believe it was Vince Lombardi, the famed football coach who said, "Winning isn't everything; it's the only thing." I have wondered what kind of a goal that sets for youngsters in their formative years and how the y fare, emotionally and physically, if they strive to pursue this goal not only to achieve and succeed, but to come out at the top, the winner.

True, this is a capitalist, free-enterprise society where achieving and succeeding are certainly desirable and acceptable goals. But the way Vince Lombardi put it, echoing some leaders in the political and business world, that is not enough. One has to be the winner to get to the top, even if it means gouging and clawing and treading on your opponents on the way up, making that the only goal of your life.

But there also exists in our society an opposite view that holds that winning is not the only thing, nor even an important thing, what is more important, whether it be in sports, business or social life, is to play the game for the fun and enjoyment of it. This view does not deny the importance of achieving and succeeding, but holds that in the process, it is not necessary to beat your opponents or competitors down. Rather, it is better, more wholesome and more healthy to be a good sport, to be considerate, a decent person, concerned about other people's welfare and their feelings.

You can go into any group and get people to line up on both sides of this issue. How do psychiatrists feel about it? I can't tell you what all or even most psychiatrists think, but I can tell you what study and clinical experience have found.

We know that there are some people in sports, business and politics who are endowed with a powerful aggressive drive and for whose power and domination are everything, whose physical and emotional contributions can withstand the most severe and punishing stress with little damage, as they drive themselves to reach the top, to be "Number 1."

Washington, De Medici are team leaders

This is a story of two senior athletes who have been asked to make a sacrifice for the future of the programs in which they participate. Instead of achieving individual glory, which sometimes goes along with being a senior, these two are providing leadership to the younger athletes that will look to attain greater glory in their senior years.

Dina De Medici and Donald Washington, members of the girls' and boys' varsity basketball teams respectively, are doing a good job in their special roles as team leaders this year. De Medici is joined by two other seniors on the varsity team. Much has been said about Desiree Johansen, the team captain who has taken the role of point guard and one of the top scorers. The other senior is Tracy Delaney, a forward who has seen her play somewhat limited by injuries this winter. Delaney has struggled with a bad ankle and the flu, but has still made a contribution to the program, in the form of leadership.

A good leader must have many attributes. A month ago, in a profile on Johansen, the qualities of good leadership consisted of patience, poise and the ability to motivate. In Johansen's case, she had the talent to score points, she was the teams' leading scorer last year, and held that role for a good portion of this season. When Johansen was asked to tackle the point guard slot, a position in which she would not score as many points, the senior responded as a true leader would.

De Medici, in the eyes of her coach and peers, is a second coach on the court. She is very well respected, by her teammates and coach, Karen Fucello.

She has been very steady, Fucello said of De Medici. Her defense is the best part of her game. She doesn't have the quickest of feet, but she understands the concepts of the game and what to do out there. She is especially strong in man to man defense. She has played it to perfection over the last two games. It's been text book defense and while it's a small scope of the entire game, it's nice to see someone who understands it so well.

De Medici, who plans to attend college after graduation this spring, enjoys her role. As a matter of fact, she is planning to major in physical education and become a coach one day.

This is her first year of varsity ball. De Medici played junior varsity ball for her first three years and when this year came around, she was asked to fulfill some heavy duties.

She is being called on to do a lot, Fucello said. "In practice, she leans on the younger kids, asks them to work and push harder. She is a good example, because Dina is always working hard in practice and this sets the tone for the younger players."

The girls' varsity, following last Monday's game with Kearny, holds a 2-13 record. There won't be a state tournament, a county tournament or NNJL championship to think about. However, the three seniors on that team don't seem to mind all that much. They are not only playing, but they are teaching. They are working to mold the younger players who could return the Belleville girls' basketball program to the prominence it once held. In two years' time, when the Laurie Dondarski, Simone Edwards, Raquel Melson and Judy Nehila are established players, the names Dina De Medici, Desiree Johansen and Tracy Delaney might not seem synonymous right away. However, a closer look into the programs' foundation will show that these three seniors, class of 1986, certainly made an impression.

You can't say enough good things about Donald Washington. Here is a young man who is the only senior on the boys' basketball team. He plays power forward, along side Ted Sochaski and Bob Hutchinson. His slam dunks in practice, normally electrify his teammates and his good nature and class attitude are something that is not measured in the box score. The people who keep the score book don't add points for being a leader, but those who know Belleville sports can certainly admire the work of Donald Washington.

Donald is a leader, he gets everyone together, said coach Rocco Colucci. He is a great practice player, by that I mean he gets on the younger players to practice hard. Donald is an excellent motivator. He is a very good athlete, in tremendous condition and is very easy for the younger players to understand.

Washington does not limit his talents to just basketball. During the fall, he played varsity football for John Senesky, doing a tremendous job at defensive end. He showed good speed and tremendous strength.

I'm just sorry that Donald is so physical, Colucci said, because he gets himself into foul trouble. He is so intense under the boards, he wants to win very badly.

Colucci also admires Washington because he has such a positive outlook on life.

He doesn't take everything seriously, Colucci said. He has a very positive attitude and that makes him such a good leader.

The official record will show that Donald Washington averages 6.6 points a game and leads the way in rebounding. The official record will not indicate what a tremendous individual Donald Washington is, or the value he holds to his team.

On a personal note, special thanks to Dina De Medici and Donald Washington for doing a great job, even if the bottom line was not their own personal glory.

Athlete of the Week

Laurie Dondarski of the girls' basketball team gets the award this week. The freshman played two stellar games against Eastside and Shabazz last week at the difficult point guard position.

Bucs shaken by Cardinals after rout over Bengals

By Joe Piegario

Belleville's hopes for a spot in the sectional championships were shaken by a resented up Kearny Cardinal was after an unexpected 30-26 loss at the victor's home gymnasium.

Earlier in the week, Belleville had looked outstanding in an easy 38-18 rout of arch rival Bloom-

Buckley sets example for younger wrestlers

This week's spotlighted grappler is tri-captain Tim Buckley. A senior, Buckley has lettered in wrestling for three consecutive seasons. Last year, he placed fourth in the District 7 Championships, 108 pounds and won the Belleville Summer Tournament at 115 pounds. An excellent student, Buckley is the quiet man on the varsity team. With free spirits Joey Cerreto, Lou Lukonte and Mike Minichini on the squad, Buckley has chosen to lead his team by example, rather than bravado.

Tim Buckley

Coach Joe Nisvoccia states, "I'm a leader on our team. He is a disciplined, hard worker in practice. Many of our younger great-ers need someone to set an example for them and Tim sets that example. His hard work and positive attitude are a guide to the younger kids on the team."

Buckley is also a dedicated team man as his decision to wrestle at 129 pounds would indicate. Normally a 115 pounder, he agreed to compete 14 pounds above his normal weight to allow two other teammates the chance to have varsity experience.

Every match has been a life or death struggle for him because of the severe weight disadvantage, but he has still managed a credible 8-9 record with four pin falls. Active in many school activities, Buckley has performed in all the school's theatrical productions this year. He was applauded in "The Wizard" where he played the part of the Tin Man. He is active in student government and plays the drums in the high school band at football games.

At every match, he is one of the most popular wrestlers with the fans. He literally has his own booster club as Mom and Dad, sweetheart Monique, brother Dennis and a host of others follow him wherever he goes.

Whether or not Buckley chooses to go on to college or picks some other avenue of life, he will be a success. His quiet, classy style of doing things can only work to his benefit.

Free throws become point of agony for girls' basketball team (1-13)

Free throws. Most coaches call them "bunnies" or "chip shots" or "free points." For Belleville girls' basketball coach Karen Fucello, they've become a point of agony in a 1-13 season.

The girls played Kearny last Monday, and took on Montclair on Tuesday. This afternoon, the team will be in Passaic for a 4 p.m. start. Next Tuesday, the team will host Nutley, also at 4 p.m. A game with Ridgewood, scheduled last Friday night, was postponed due to snow. A Make-up date has not yet been set.

The girls lost two games last week, bowing to Eastside, 34-33 and Shabazz, 61-32. The latter contest was the first round of the Essex County tournament. In both games, free throws played a vital role in the final outcome. Against Eastside, Belleville's poor foul shooting was particularly painful. The girls lost to the Ghosts, 34-33, missing 11 foul shots (9-20) in the game.

You can't say we didn't have our chances," Fucello said afterwards. "You lose by one point and miss 11 foul shots. It's not too hard to determine where we lost this game."

On the postgame side, Belleville did play much better against Eastside than it did the first meeting in early January. In that game, the Lady Bucs lost, 47-25 at home, looking ineffective on both sides of the court. This time, the girls played a much stronger game.

The first quarter was a tight, defensive game, with Eastside leading, 7-6. Belleville's scoring came from a Laura Caruso layup, a Camiso jumper and a jump shot from Desiree Johansen.

In the second quarter, Eastside took the lead for good, scoring eight quick points before Simone Edwards tallied a layup to make it 15-9. The half ended with the Ghosts leading, 17-13.

Belleville came within a point on five different occasions in the second half and tied the game at 26 late in the fourth quarter. However, the girls could not move ahead in the game. There was, however, a controversial finish to the game which involved an officials oversight.

Bowling teams place fourth in league play

By Michael Lamberti

It's been a season of improvement for the Belleville bowling team. It's also been a season of firsts for the team.

This is the first year in which the bowling team has a girls' varsity squad. Head coach Mike Early, who coaches both teams, is happy with the effort put forth by both varsity teams.

The boys' team has no seniors and the girls have just two.

For the boys, junior Mike De Benedetto leads the way with a 168 average. Behind De Benedetto is freshman Lou Bruno, who is carrying a very impressive 164. Sophomore Vinnie Orrei is third with a 162 role and sophomore Manny Ferreira carries a 158 average.

Leading the girls is sophomore Liz Puglio, whom Early terms the "most consistent bowler on the team." Seniors Gina Bliss and Gena Janowski and juniors Chris Salvatore, Lori Filipek and Vera Karen round out the varsity roster.

Both teams are in fourth place in the NNJL. The boys' team has played giant killer with the league's elite, however, the Bucs have not been able to gain ground on the front runners.

"We beat Bloomfield (first place), Clifton (second) and Nutley (third)," said Early, "however, we haven't been able to beat the teams behind us consistently. We haven't been able to pile up the points."

For the girls, Early says the early performances have been very good.

"Considering this is the first year, I'm very happy," the coach said. "It takes a while for the sport to catch on, but we've had the same six bowlers all season long and hopefully next year, we will have a larger turnout."

The Bucs will close out the regular season this afternoon, playing Nutley. The boys will then prepare for the state tourney, which begins on March 8. This afternoon's match with the Maroon Raiders will be at Leisure Lanes on Route 46 West. The match starts at 4 p.m.

Buc hoopsters lose to state-ranked Eastside, 43-39

Suffering yet another close defeat, the Belleville boys' basketball team lost a tough game to state-ranked Paterson Eastside, 43-39.

The boys' game with Ridgewood was snowed out last Friday night. There was no make-up date for that game as of last Monday.

The boys were scheduled to play Montclair last Monday, but that game was moved to yesterday. Last Tuesday, the team played at the Meadowlands Arena, versus Kearny at 4:45 p.m. Tomorrow night, the Bucs are in Irvington Tech to play Newark Tech in round one of the Essex County Tournament. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

The Bucs were scheduled to face Passaic tomorrow night, but that game has been rescheduled for Feb. 27. Next Tuesday, the team goes to Nutley for a 4 p.m. start and next Thursday, will host Teaneck, also at 4 p.m.

The young Bucs played their hearts out last Tuesday afternoon against Eastside, but fell short after losing a five-point lead in the final quarter.

"We could have won, again," head coach Rocco Colucci said.

We had a five-point lead (37-32) in the fourth quarter. However, some turnovers and missed shots hurt us down the stretch. Eastside has a very good team, you're not the number seven ranked team in the state by accident. It sure would have been nice to beat them, though."

With the Bucs leading, 37-32, Eastside ran off eight points to take a 40-37 advantage. Bob Hutchinson, who finished with 14 points, hit a jumper to cut it to 40-39. At the 17 mark, Belleville fouled an Eastside player and the end result was one free throw made.

With the Bucs down by two, Belleville set up for the tying basket, however the shot fell short and Eastside hit two free throws at the buzzer to win by four.

Hutchinson led the way for Belleville with 14 points. Ted Sochaski added 13. Don Washington and Leon Puentes had four each and Loung La and Chris Goldrick closed with two points apiece.

With the team's record at 3-12 and with two weeks left in the season, this seems a good time to look back on some of the performances turned in by the Bucs.

Bear in mind that the team has just one senior, Washington. The team has showed marked improvement over last season. About the only thing that has hurt them is inconsistency. The players will play a superior contest and sometimes follow it with a less than spectacular effort. A young team will be prone to those types of errors.

Ted Sochaski and Leon Puentes have been the offensive forces for the team this year. Both men, who are sophomores, are also doing a good job in the leadership department. Junior Bob Hutchinson has looked very good at times.

"Hutch" has an excellent outside shot, but he does admit that he hesitates in taking the shot consistently. When he's on, Hutchinson adds a strong dimension to the Buc offense and takes pressure off of Sochaski and Puentes.

Chris Goldrick, Loung La and Craig Burden have looked very good in their respective roles. Goldrick has good leaping ability and a nice jump shot. La has been a good ball handler and Burden possesses good speed ball handling abilities.

If players like Frank and John Morrell, Steve Schwed and other junior varsity players continue to improve, the results could be very satisfying for next season.

The one senior, Washington, has been invaluable to the 35-36 team. Not only is he strong on the boards, but Washington has been a very good team leader to the young squad. He is an excellent athlete and his strength on the boards will be missed next season.

Rec grapplers finish season; split decisions in last two meets

The Belleville Recreation Wrestling team finished its regular season league dual meets with a 6-3 record.

In a recent tri wrestling meet, the recreation squad split a decision with a win against Bloomfield, 58-30, and a loss against Maplewood South Orange, 49-32.

Registering falls for Belleville against Bloomfield were the grappling Perna brothers. John Perna (60 lbs.) showed his opponent the lights in 35 seconds while his brother, Ralph (90 lbs.) took 1:12 to finish off his defender.

Anthony Velardo record a fall in 2:33 at 95 lbs. while Ken Henry (145 lbs.) took 30 seconds to defeat his opponent.

Winning by decision were George DelGrande (65 lbs.) with a score of 15-5, Angelo Torromeo (85 lbs.) with a score of 13-9 and Mike Rubas (112 lbs.) with a score of 10-8.

Scoring falls against Maplewood were Belleville's 112-pounder Rubas with a 35-second fall and Matt Goldrick (126 lbs.) in 2:15.

Ken Henry (145 lbs.) was winning his match, 8-1, before losing by a third period disqualifying slam.

In the tri-meet against Caldwell and West Orange, Belleville lost to Caldwell, 41-39.

Belleville was down nine weight classes in a row before coming on strong to get within two points of last year's league runnups.

Winning by pins were Rubas (112 lbs.) in 40 seconds, Goldrick (126 lbs.) in 49 seconds, Mike Zacarella (135 lbs.) in 49 seconds, and Henry (145 lbs.) in 52 seconds. Dan Hywel was winning his 119 lb. bout 1:37 before getting caught for a fall at 2:57.

We had some real tough breaks against Caldwell and Maplewood, coach Joseph Nivoccia said. "Our four undefeated wrestlers, who are also the backbone of our team, lost close matches. It was these two opposing teams were strong exactly where we are strong and their wrestlers came out on top."

We were also forced to forfeit several matches which put us at a disadvantage from the start," he added.

Against West Orange, Belleville scored an impressive 55-30 defeat in their last league match of the season.

Winning by pins were Emilio Nardone (80 lbs.) in 2:25, Ralph Perna (90 lbs.) in 1:30, Rubas (112 lbs.) in 58 seconds, and Henry in 28 seconds.

Winning by decision were Phil Albanese (100 lbs.) and Goldrick (126 lbs.) in 1:44.

In regular season league matches, Belleville was led by 145-pounder Ken Henry with a 7-1 record. His only loss was by a disqualification at a time he was winning by an 8-1 score.

John Perna (60 lbs.) finished the league matches with an 8-1 record. Emilio Nardone (80 lbs.), Angelo Torromeo (85 lbs.) and Ralph Perna (90 lbs.) finished at 7-2, while George DelGrande (65 lbs.) has a 6-2 record.

Matt Goldrick finished with a 6-3 record at 126 lbs. and Mike Rubas finished with a 7-1 record at 112 lbs.

Other wrestlers on this year's team were Anthony Velardo, Mike Miele, Phil Albanese, Mike Capadonna, Dan Hywel, Mike Zacarella and Jim Aughenbaugh.

The coaching staff of the recreation wrestling team included Nivoccia, along with Lou Riccardi, Al Henry and Jerry Patrizio.

Missed foul shots agonize Lady Bucs

left and a 34-31 lead. An Eastside player missed a foul shot, with the ball hitting the backboard, but never the rim. Normally, that should have been a violation with Belleville awarded the ball on the side. However, the official never called a violation, despite Fucello's objections. Belleville hit a layup at the buzzer and lost by a point.

In talking with an official last weekend, this reporter was told that missing a violation of that sort is a correctable error meaning the official could have put the ball back on the clock. Nevertheless, Belleville suffered a heart-breaking loss, the second time this year the girls have lost a one-point game.

Edwards led the way for Belleville with 11 points. Canuso finished with seven. Dina De Medici and Johansen had five each. Laurie Dondarski finished with three and Judy Nehlik tallied two.

The following day, the girls traveled to Newark to face Shabazz. High tech four time defending county champion in round one of the Essex County tourney.

Once more, foul shooting played a key to the defeat. Belleville was 12-28 from the foul line. What does not show up in that statistic is that the girls missed the front end of a one in one free throw ten times. That's 26 points that the girls missed out on and when you consider the team lost by 29, it's easy to see where the problem was.

Shabazz jumped seventh in the state, ranked out to a 14-0 lead and led; 20-3 after one quarter. Johansen had two foul shots and Dondarski one for Belleville in the frame. The Lady Bucs did not score its first field goal until four minutes into the second quarter, when Johansen tallied a jumper to make it 23-9. At halftime, the score was 31-14.

Their press did not hurt us. Fucello said of the Shabazz pressure. We made some silly mistakes, but we also missed some easy shots. We could have been a lot closer.

Belleville closed to within 12 points in the third quarter, 33-21. When Shabazz hit on a jump. However, the Lady Bulldogs went to work from there scoring eight straight points to pull ahead, 41-21. The score at the end of three was 45-24 and Shabazz went on to a 61-32 win.

Johansen led the way for Belleville with 11 points. Nehlik had nine, all the second half. Edwards finished with seven and Dondarski closed with five.

NOTES: Girls are shooting 46 percent from foul line. Nehlik leads team in scoring with 10.2 ppg average. Johansen is second with 9.5 and Edwards is third with 5.4. Dondarski played two of her best games last week at point guard. De Medici came through with a solid performance at Eastside, scoring five points and playing good defense.

Johansen leads way for Suburban team

The seventh and eighth grade Buccanettes improved to 4-4 last week as they defeated Florham Park 46-46 in a see-saw battle in the Suburban Junior Girls Basketball League.

The Buccanettes were led by Stacey Johansen's 23 points and Ann Costa's 18 points.

Meanwhile, the boys' team slipped to 0-7 after losing to Milburn 48-28.

Knicks, 76ers, Nets 2-0

Three undefeated teams lead junior BB league

The Knicks defeated the Suns, 8-7, in the Belleville Recreation Department's Junior Basketball League.

Pat O'Brien led the Knicks (2-0) with three points and Chris Imperatrice and Robert Dena scored two points each. In other action, the 76ers defeated the Bulls, 16-13.

Jim Landon and Michael Mundy led the 76ers with eight points each. Michael Tynan led the Bulls with four, while Ken Burr scored three and Michael Matton, Markese Beverly and Joe Ciferella scored two points each.

The Nets defeated the Celtics, 22-6.

Jeff Rathick led the Nets with seven points, along with Bill Kimball's and Anthony Gandel's six points. Ken Johansen and Mike Puleo tallied two points each.

The Celtics were led by Jim Wading with six points.

The Lakers, led by David Liloia's six points, defeated the Bucks, 10-6.

Danielle Dework had four points for the Lakers, while the Bucks were led by Anthony Parzenese's four points and Robert Curcio's two points.

The standings are as follows:

8-9-year-olds
Knicks	2-0
76ers	2-0
Suns	0-2
Bulls	0-2
10-11-year-olds
Nets	2-0
Celtics	1-1
Lakers	1-1
Bucks	0-2

Radio Shack, Sally's Auto win in Over 30 league

Megaro Memorial Home (0-7) lost to Radio Shack (2-5), 32-27, despite Pat Megaro's eight points, while Sally's Auto Parts (4-1), surprisingly defeated the Belleville Knights, 47-25, in the Over 30 Men's Basketball League.

In other games, Modern Millwork (5-2), led by Red Higgins (12 points), defeated De Piro Realty (2-5) in overtime. Vinnie Chumica led De Piro's with 17 points.

Barry's Go Go (1-0) defeated Vito Sylvestro's Garden Market (0-4), 55-26.

In the Men's League, Nu Plas surprisingly defeated Club 36 East, 73-47, with Tim Bonnon leading Nu Plas with 24 points.

For Pete's Sake won with a forfeit over the Raiders and STS lost to Nutley Pub, 61-49, with Todd Mc Dougall leading Nutley Pub with 18 points.

In the "B" Division, Plaza Travel defeated Corbo March's in overtime, 50-46, despite Greg Bever's 14 points.

R.M. Graphics handed Veniero Trucking its first loss of the season with a 51-47 victory, despite Phil Collito's 20 points.

Wayne Bubet's 26 points lifted Gondola Ristorante over the Valley Falcons, 63-53.

For This Week

In college basketball, Georgetown University has been one of the most successful teams over the past four years. As a matter of fact, the team has lost just one game in the month of March from 1983-85. Name the team that beat Georgetown in March and the year it happened. A hint: It was not Villanova, who beat Georgetown last year in the NCAA finals. Villanova won the title on April 2.

Buc wrestlers defeat Bengals, 38-18

second place finish should hold up in the Districts.

At 135 pounds, Phil Zamlot lost a week he would rather forget. Zamlot lost a 9-5 decision to Bloomfield's Anthony Minervino and a 7-2 decision to Rod Nardone of Kearny. In both matches he appeared flat and stale.

With a record of 9-8, Zamlot can be seeded no higher than fifth in the upcoming Districts. He has now lost four consecutive matches and has been beaten soundly in every one of them. He has dug a tremendous hole for himself and needs an immediate and drastic turnaround if he expects to place in District 7. An earlier prediction of attaining a bronze medal must be retracted until Phil starts to wrestle as he did earlier in the year.

As in the Wide World of Sports, Carmine Tironi experienced the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat all in the same week. Against Bloomfield, Tironi pulled the upset of the year by decision. Tironi's state tournament qualifier Art Cuffari by a 10-9 margin. Tironi was superb and he used leverage and conditioning to defeat the stronger and more experienced Cuffari.

However, versus Kearny's Henry Richard, Tironi made at least a half-dozen glaring mistakes and was trounced by a 15-7 score. The junior transfer from Fair Lawn repeatedly tried to muscle Richard with a double underhook and was caught four times for a total of 12 points. Although Tironi had his Kearny opponent on his back at the buzzer, it was simple a case of too little, too late. The defeat was particularly harmful to Tironi as it now drops him to a possible third seed in the Districts, whereas after the Cuffari victory he could conceivably be seeded first. Still, he is the best wrestler in the 141-pound class and remains my choice to win a gold medal in District 7.

Senior tri-captain Dave Siletti improved his season log to 13-1, but exhibited some negative tendencies along the way. Siletti won a close decision over Bloomfield's Frank McLaughlin, but was soundly beaten by Kearny's Andy O'Donnell, 10-3.

Siletti has now lost to the two best 148-pounders in the district and can be seeded no higher than third in the tournament. Additionally, he has gotten himself into a rut in regards to his style of wrestling. Never a defense grapple, Siletti's stock in trade has always been a relentless, offensive style of competition. Lately, however, he has been wasting literally half the match looking up with his opponent instead of pressuring his foes with takedowns.

As with Phil Zamlot, the predicted finish for Siletti must be retracted. It was originally felt he would win the 148-pound division, but the late rash of stalling type wrestling puts him at too great a disadvantage to O'Donnell and Mark Muller of Nutley. Unless Siletti starts to wrestle with the same reckless abandon we have witnessed in the past, he will finish no higher than third.

"Belleville's third tri-captain, Mike Minichini, saw his record drop to 10-6-1 as he lost his third consecutive bout. A 13-6 decision to Tony LaVacca of Bloomfield was followed by a 17-6 loss to Kearny's Brian Mitchell. Although the defeat to LaVacca was expected, the loss to Mitchell was not, especially by so large a margin. Minichini, like Zamlot and Siletti before him, has dug a deep hole for himself in the district. He can be seeded no higher than fifth, but should get an early chance for revenge as Mitchell should draw the fourth seed. Third place was predicted easier for Minichini, and that prognostication should hold true.

If an award could be given for sheer guts and determination, Lou Lucante would win it with no one posing a serious challenge. Wrestling at 153 or 154 pounds, Lucante takes on the best at 170 pounds and makes 'em all sweat before the laws of nature take over. As he has all season, Lucante wrestled valiantly before giving in to physical and experience factors.

Lucante was pinned by Bloomfield's Tony Araujo and lost a 16-5 decision to Dave Rodriguez of Kearny. Currently at 2-7, he will probably draw Tom Caruso of Essex Catholic or Lance Harris of St. Benedict's as his foe in District 7.

Freshman Jason Siletti was given an opportunity to gain some varsity experience, but was pinned by Kearny's Dave Nash. With a 1-2 record, he will probably be held out of the district and Belleville will forfeit those particular matches.

Heavyweight Marc Crescione has not drawn the fanfare this year which has been accorded to Cerreto or Armando Nardone, but he has a 15-3 record with a team leading 12 pins in his credit. Crescione made short work of Bloomfield's Nick Mason in less than a minute, then pinned Kearny's Mike Hogan late in the first period. Except for Nutley's Steve Godsell, he is unchallenged in District 7 and should win his first gold medal.

Buc notes: Just a couple of thoughts which really burn me up. Including schools like Clifton, Nutley and Bloomfield (which were off our schedule every year anyway) Belleville's record against N.J.H.S. foes is a ridiculous 29-1-1. Are we that good or does the Bergen county contingent of schools need to be jumped like a heap of garbage? What do you think?

It's never too early, or too late, to start planning for retirement. And right now the incentives are the best ever!

Today, everyone who works, even those covered by another pension plan, can take advantage of our new Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It makes good sense and lots of money.

Here's why:

Every dollar you contribute to your IRA is tax-deductible, right off the top. Plus, all the interest you earn over the years is tax-sheltered until you retire (when you should be in a much lower tax bracket). So, you save both ways.

Married working couples can now contribute up to $4,000 of yearly income. Couples with one working spouse can put away up to $2,250. And single individuals can contribute a maximum of $2,000 each year. All tax-deductible. All tax-deferred.

The sooner you start your IRA, the more money you'll have at retirement. It's that simple. Choose the plan that's best for you and start retiring today. You'll enjoy a much richer tomorrow!

Formerly of Grace Baptist Church

Across the valley, as far as the eye could see, were lofty mountains that seemed to be reaching up to touch the very borders of heaven. I felt very close to God. "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth." (Psalm 121)

How impressionable is the natural man and how prone to be misled by carnal feelings which he often mistakes for spirituality.

God doesn't dwell in trees or winds or on the mountain top — God dwells in people. Though my feeble mind may find it easier to meditate upon God away from the distraction of civilization, it is not because He is closer to me in one place or farther away in another. His presence with me depends upon not where I am but what I am in Christ.

My friend are you sure that you are in Christ? "If any man be in Christ he is a new creation, old things are passed away, behold all things are become new" (2d Corin. 5:17) You get in Christ when you realize your lost sinful condition (Romans 3:23) and invite Christ to come into your life. This is a personal commitment you must make if you are to be in Christ. "But as many" as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name" (St. John 1:12).

CONVENIENCE

Our prescription service is bound to please you. Hand us your prescription when you enter the store and, in most cases, pick it up when you're ready to leave. Our large prescription inventory and friendly staff combine to make your prescription purchase quick, easy and pleasant. Refill requests may be telephoned in advance for your convenience. We will gladly telephone your physician to transfer your prescriptions to our store.
