Fire scene in Belleville early Monday morning.

Only a coincidence?

Back-to-back fires leave 20 homeless

A two-alarm fire which destroyed two Washington Avenue buildings, housing a dry cleaner, a pizzeria and a total of four apartments, has left in its wake 20 homeless Belleville residents.

The fire was termed "suspicious" by Fire Captain Walter Beresford, and although arson has been ruled out for now, an investigation is underway.

Irish parade this Saturday

Mayor Michael Marotti will lead Belleville's participation in this Saturday's St. Patrick's Parade in neighboring Nutley.

The parade, now in its eighth year, has become one of the largest in New Jersey. Among the 18 participating bands Saturday will be musicians from Belleville High School. Members of the Belleville Board of Education along with the Board of Commissioners will be participating in the parade and its ceremonies.

Step off at 1 p.m. from the Holy (Please see "St. Patrick's" page 3)

Belleville to compel teachers to undergo medical testing

By Kara Laczynski

Belleville teachers will be compelled to undergo medical examinations performed by board of education-appointed physicians under certain circumstances following a resolution passed unanimously by the board at its meeting, Monday night.

The new resolution requires that all board of education employees be examined by a doctor of the board's choice. If the employee has been absent for more than 10 consecutive days, Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello and/or the appropriate school principal must order the examination. The board will pay for all board-ordered medical services.

The administration wants to monitor more closely those employees who may be having problems with attendance.

School Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino said at the meeting.

Under the board's old absentee policy, employees had to present a doctor's certification of illness after five days' absence. Employees were free to be examined by the doctor of their choice. But according to Nardiello, the policy needed to be strengthened.

"The doctor's notes tend to be very vague as to illness, and in fact some physicians refuse to give a diagnosis," he said Tuesday. "We need to determine how long a person is going to be absent to make arrangements for a substitute."

With a board-appointed physician performing an examination, the administration will receive detailed medical information.

on the part of the Belleville fire department because the firewatch lasted less than an hour and a half after the first blaze was declared under control.

Four hours after the firewatch ended, the second fire began in the same building, spread quickly to the adjacent building and ultimately reduced both buildings to ash and rubble.

Three firemen were treated for minor injuries, according to Fire Captain Vincent Sorrentino, who said that one was burned in the face, one collapsed at the scene, and one suffered from smoke inhalation.

They were taken to Clara Maass Medical Center where they were treated and released.

Capt. Beresford had authorized a facecut, which entails leaving men on the scene with a hooked-up fire hose to insure against re-kindling, but the men were relieved sometime between 11 p.m. and midnight.

While Beresford believed the two fires were unrelated, some Belleville residents wondered about the possibility of negligence

Eight of the nine candidates competing for three open seats on the Belleville Board of Education participated in a "Candidates Night" forum at School 4 on Magnolia Street.

Current Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino of Dorchester Terrace and board member Gabriel Nazzola of Van Rensselaer Place joined board hopefuls Daniel Borgo, also of Van Rensselaer Place; Barbara Cicalese of Fairview Avenue; Michael Giordano of Valley Street; Mark Susan Rimgail-Bloschak of Greylock Parkway; former Board member Thomas Spillane of Lloyd Place and Richard P. Yanuzzi of Greylock Parkway in an evening which gave Belleville voters an in-depth look at the candidates.

Candidate Catherine Grangeruso of Greylock Parkway could not attend, but had a statement read publicly on her behalf.

The proceedings were strictly timed so that no candidate had the floor longer than the others. Nevertheless, the affair was a lengthy one, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and carrying on to about 10 p.m.

Issues covered ranged from school repairs and course expansions to school accreditation and the feasibility of the proposed school budget.

One issue which was the subject of much debate among the candidates was the price tag of legal fees charged by the board's attorney, Larry Schwartz.

Rimgail-Bloschak described the $10,000 retainer fee paid to Schwartz as "ridiculous" and pointed out that the attorney charges less retaining fees or no retaining fee at all to other school systems in which he serves as board attorney.

Yanuzzi said that while he thinks Schwartz is a very good lawyer he's "totally disgusted with what we're paying him."

Spillane also believed Schwartz's fees were too high. He favored seeking other bids for the job. He suggested that in the face of competition, Schwartz might lower his price.

But other candidates disagreed that Schwartz was being paid too much. Both Borgo and Cicalese believed that it was "worth it."

Board President D'Agostino was fully in support of the monies paid to the lawyer and said that a substantial portion of the $95,000 Schwartz received was for two tenure cases in which he successfully removed two unsuitable teachers from the Belleville School system.

D'Agostino praised Schwartz, saying he helped "rid our school system of misfits" at which point many in the audience applauded.

The positions of Giordano and Nazzola on the matter were less clear. Giordano's statement did not indicate his opinion on the matter and Nazzola said, "I'm not sure, I'm not a lawyer."

Also at issue during the course of the evening was the current state of the Belleville Middle School. All candidates favored improvements to the facility.

But the biggest issue was the school budget itself, which in the words of candidate Nazzola "is a $19 million business and the people operating it should be qualified to do it, Vinnie."

While the overwhelming majority of Belleville citizens attending the March 11 board of commissioners meeting seemed opposed to the new municipal complex, some township residents were solidly in favor of the project.

One such resident, Kay Giaccone of Rutan Road said, "I think we need a new Town Hall because of the condition of this Town Hall."

In a related event, Frank Jablonski of Franklin Avenue criticized the cost of appraising the property which must be acquired for the construction. He said he was able to get his home professionally appraised for $40, and could not understand why Belleville's appraisals cost more than $2,000.

The next meeting of the Belleville Board of Commissioners is at 7:30 p.m. on March 25.

Parking ban will resume March 17

Chief George Lister of the Belleville Police Dept. advises motorists that the street cleaning ordinance temporarily suspended for the winter months will be enforced beginning March 17. Motorists are requested to voluntarily comply with posted restrictions to help keep Belleville clean.

Legal fees upset candidates

But the biggest issue was the school budget itself, which in the words of candidate Nazzola "is a $19 million business and the people operating it should be qualified

Schwartz, Nazzola, D'Agostino and Borgo indicated they would vote for the budget in its present form, which includes a 25.4 point tax increase, or an average of $130 per taxpayer.

Yanuzzi and Rimgail-Bloschak were not in favor of the school budget in its present form, with Yanuzzi objecting because the tax increase was too high and Rimgail-Bloschak opposed to the price of retaining the current attorney.

The others were undecided. Giordano said he would have to take a look at the budget line by line first and Cicalese said, "We'll have to just wait and see."

All candidates expressed a desire to provide Belleville students with quality education while presenting the taxpayers of Belleville with a reasonable budget.

At the conclusion of the evening coffee and refreshment were served. More candidates' nights are being scheduled for other schools prior to the April 15 election.

Using long tax form may save you money

By Bert Tobia
H & R Block District Manager

In the minds of many taxpayers, the long form, 1040, is only used to file a federal tax return which includes itemized deductions.

This misconception can result in paying more tax than necessary in some cases. Although the short form, 1040A, has been expanded to cover many common deductions, there are circumstances in which a long form is either necessary or desirable.

For example, anyone with earnings from sources other than wages, interest and dividends must use the 1040. This would include anyone who is either self-employed, won the lottery, sold stock, receives rent or alimony, obtained a state tax refund for a year in which he itemized deductions, collects a taxable pension or has an interest in trust or estate, partnership or S Corporation.

Use of the long 1040 form is the only way to claim a deduction for alimony paid or moving expenses that are job related or business use of an automobile or an interest forfeiture caused by early withdrawal of savings.

Likewise, some of the credits available to individuals can only be claimed on a long form. These include the investment credit, the residential energy credit and the special credit for purchase of a diesel powered car.

A person who uses the filing status - qualifying widow or can only do so on a long form and anyone who has made estimated tax payments can only indicate this fact on a long form.

A DELICATE BALANCE

There are some relatively common side effects of antibiotics. They stem from the fact that while antibiotics battle infection, friendly bacteria may be eliminated as well. For example, if antibiotics are taken for more than a few days, useful bacterium in the intestinal tract help break down food can be killed off, resulting in diarrhea. Most likely to cause this discomfort are broad-spectrum antibiotics such as tetracycline whose ability to knock out many types of bacteria is sometimes helpful. Taking antibiotics with food may prevent this upset. However, some foods slow down the effect of several antibiotics. To help in finding a tolerable balance between side effects and effectiveness, consult your doctor or pharmacist.

We'll be glad to answer your questions on side effects and effectiveness of any prescription medication you're taking. ## Prayer

Build on resolve, and not upon regret,
The structure of thy future. Do not grope
Among the shadows of old sins, but let Thine own soul's light shine on the path of hope.
And dissipate the darkness. Waste no tears
Upon the blotted record of lost years,
But turn the leaf and smile, oh, smile to see
The fair white pages that remain for thee.
Prate not of thy repentance. But believe
The spark divine dwells in thee; let it grow.
That which the preaching spirit can achieve
The grand and all-creative forces know.
They will assist and strengthen as the light
Lifts up the acorn to the oak tree's height.
Thou hast but to resolve, and lo! God's whole Great universe shall fortify thy soul.

— Ella Wheeler Wilcox

School board candidates

Believe it or not, there are nine highly qualified and respected citizens willing to make the sacrifice to compete for three seats on the Belleville Board of Education. That's terrific! All too often, Board of Education seats are filled without competition — a reflection of citizen disinterest in the township's most important activity, conducting our school system. Thank goodness we have nine candidates willing to face the people and discuss issues. It is anticipated this school board election will set a modern record for people participating in this type election. And that is the way it should be. The township's most important commodity is its student population. This broad interest in a Board of Education seat bodes well for Belleville's future. It means that there are many people out there who care about the quality of education available to our students. This is a sign that Belleville continues to be on the march seeking a better Belleville.

As in the past, the Belleville Times columns are available for candidates to present their messages to our reading public.

Jacob K. Javits

New York's former U.S. Senator Jacob K. Javits died last week. During his lifetime of public service, Javits served for many years on the Congress with new Jersey's late Senator Clifford P. Case. They had similar public careers. Both served in the Lower House of Congress and then became U.S. Senators. Both shared the same political philosophies — they were moderate Republicans.

They both strived for social justice — representing the little man — always fighting for the dignity of man.

Javits, like Case, was a man possessed of great courage and impeccable integrity. They were in the fight to make the American dream come true. They were both of humble origins but both knew the meaning of wealth — and the power of wealth.

Civil rights; rights for the working poor, and a strong foreign affairs policy were lifetime objectives of Jack Javits.

The milk of human kindness flowed through the veins of this great man, Jacob Javits is no more — but around us, we can find monuments that will forever stand as testimony to his unlimited courage and dedication to the rights and concerns of the poor among us.

Reagan's Nicaragua

President Reagan is on the right track in his effort to aid Nicaraguan rebels in their fight to overpower the Communist government which was recently seated.

President Reagan is seeking the military assistance as well as humanitarian aid to further the cause of the Nicaraguan rebels.

Both efforts were defeated by various congressional committees

— but, optimistic Reagan continues to fight for his principles — and in that effort, we are with him all the way.

Central America is a stone's throw away from our borders. We cannot afford to permit the installation of a Communist government within the shadow of American borders. Cuba is bad enough — we do not need another Cuba close to the American mainland.

Too many generals!

To the editor:

I'm writing in regard to Mr. Blosschak's letter entitled "Republican party needs help" published March 6.

First, let me bring to Mr. Blosschak's attention that in the past several years, the Republican party under the direction of Jerry Ferrara and Angelo Risoli and many dedicated committee members, has succeeded in electing Republican candidates in the Town of Belleville. There were many individuals who would like the candidates to believe that they were responsible for their victories, however, it was the Republican organization which actually did the work while the others that I refer to stood around telling everyone how great and powerful they were.

I can understand why Mr. Blosschak lacks this knowledge because he and his wife have only been associated with the organization for about nine months. I must assume that this makes them an authority on the subject of Republican politics in the Town of Belleville.

It's no secret that Mr. Blosschak and his wife are associated with Mr. Yanuzzi and Mrs. Nazzola who, in 1985, tried to take over the organization in what now appears to have been a power play by Mr. Yanuzzi's present campaign for the Belleville school board. I might add that the takeover that I refer to came after they served about five months in the organization, before they became an authority on Republican politics.

The lack of loyalty that Mr. Blosschak refers to toward the chairman and the organization I'm sure comes from the handful of supporters that Mr. Yanuzzi and Mrs. Nazzola have within the organization at present. As far as the so called headquarters on Union Avenue, I, as well as many others, can make the statement that this headquarters was very seldom open. I hope that the people who ran this so called headquarters haven't taken too much credit for the existence of this headquarters other than the work done by the hard working committee members in preparing for the November election.

As for Mr. Blosschak's comment referring to the Republican party needing help, I must agree. However, the help this organization needs is for people such as the Yanuzzis and the Nazzolas to stop infiltrating this organization with the intent to take the organization over for their own political advancements.

The Republican organization suffers from the too many generals and not enough soldiers theory. May I suggest to the Yanuzzis and the Nazzolas and the other generals that if they honestly believe in the organization, try working with the soldiers of the organization instead of splitting the organization in an effort to gain control for their own political gains. An organization will only work when all the people within that organization work together as the organization.

I close by saying that the Belleville Republican Organization has a majority of loyal, hard working individuals who can continue to build a stronger organization in Belleville. May I suggest that all future candidates try working with the organization in an effort to gain its respect and support instead of invading the organization in an attempt to take over for their own political advancements. Might I also suggest that these candidates ignore some of the self-proclaimed leaders of the organization, for it is the background people who seek no recognition who actually get the job done.

B. Morgan

Shoving it down our throats

To the editor:

For years we have been hearing about the need to bring all town departments under one roof. The urgency was compounded by the "unfortunate" fire which destroyed the town garage and all the equipment. But never in my wildest dreams had I envisioned that the solution could only be the construction of the "state of the art," "one of a kind in the nation" edifice our town fathers have been sold as needed to serve the needs of our town.

Surely what is being shoved down our throats wasn't the only solution to bringing the departments "together" if that is indeed so vital? The cost of the project will be over $10 million appropriated by the taxpayers footing the bill? I didn't know we had that much in the kitty. From the condition of the town's roads during the past few years, this town doesn't have two nickles to rub together, which may be due to all the money being spent to give lump sum salary PLUS percentage increases at the same time, with no money left over for maintenance, in order to stay under the "budget cap."

It was only on Feb. 25 that the commissioners awarded a $694,000 contract for architectural plans, barely a week later the footings are practically being dug before we had a look at what was decided on. I am not all happy with the extraordinary speed at which this project is being executed. It is not at all like the customary slow moving bureaucracy we are accustomed to, and I am beginning to wonder why.

Cornelis P. Vander Zwan

Should we banish the lady?

To the editor:

Because of the firing of Lee Iacocca, the hula-baho and political wheeling and dealing surrounding the renovation of the Statue of Liberty, many Americans probably would not mind if the government shipped the pampered French prima donna back to the country from whence she came.

Should the land of her birthplace refuse her entry, I suggest we call upon New Jersey's famous magician, David Copperfield, for a repeat performance of his great magical illusion, "The Vanishing Statue of Liberty."

Is it nothing to you?

"He beheld the city and wept over it," Luke 19:41

By Rev. Gerald Fortunato

It is often the way of children to think nothing of what their earthly fathers have done to support them. Or, with regard to mothers, though we become sentimental about them in our greeting cards, we often are thoughtless of how much they sacrifice of their own pleasures, comforts, and strength, for the benefit of their family. There seems to be an increasing void in the American memory to show appreciation of the sacrifices of fellow countrymen in the establishment of our guarantees of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

But far worse than this disregard of paternal and patriotic sacrifices, is our lack of appreciation for the sacrifices of the Son of God to bring us new life and the happiness that comes with redemption from sin.

On a crowded market square in a city of the Old World, where wayfarers and workers daily pass, a wayside crucifix rises above the heads of the unnoticed throngs. Above the thorn-crowned head on the cross is this inscription: "Is It Nothing To You, All Ye Who Pass By?"

It is saddening for any country when its young men must leave home, family, friends, and life ambitions, and go to some faraway place, to endure privation, face ghastly peril and excruciating pain, often not knowing for what. And often only a medal comes back, which a loved one holds sadly in her hand. "Is it nothing?"

It was the pathos of the world when the Captain of our salvation left His home and the company of angels, for a lonely earth far away, facing devil hordes, and a hell of suffering in a last ditch battle against sin. We hold in our hands a cross medalion in memory of that battle in which He laid down His life for the salvation of mankind.

It was for me the Savior bled and died,
It was for me the Lord was crucified,
It was for me He cried upon the tree,
Ah, yes, it was for me!

"Is it nothing to you?"

Let my love the answer be!

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

Education matters become a salient source of concern during the month of March. Those concerned about the operations and functions of our local public school system should mark and attend the public meeting dates and devote considerable attention to the publication of the school budget which is published in today's issue of the Belleville Times. The following dates are significant: March 10, regular meeting of the school board at School No. 1, 8 p.m.; March 13, publication of 1986-87 school budget in today's Belleville Times (study it carefully); Most of all attend the public meeting on the school budget at School No. 10, 8 p.m. Monday evening March 24.

These matters concern the quality of our community's education of our prized possessions, our children and our country's future security and progress. Too long have many parents and taxpayers paid back, leaving the entire spectrum of education to the professionals without the input concern that parents should show.

Educational costs continue to rise, yet the proportionate quality of education does not show improvement — new, harsher High School Proficiency Tests (HSPT) may soon winnow out the prospects of graduation for substantial students.

Many factors contribute to unseemly conditions in many schools well beyond the control of teachers or supervisors: drugs, alcohol, peer pressure and even teacher "burnout." Remedies to correct these conditions MUST be found, but how?

Have parents shirked their responsibility "palm[ing] off" on the schools the role of raising their kids? There are many unanswered questions, perhaps the return of the martinet — the school master with a switch — is the solution. Pampering hasn't worked.

Attend these meetings, study the budget, acquaint yourself with the problems besetting our public schools — make a contribution of proffering some constructive aims and a way of implementing them.

Heed the clarion call, someone out there may be an old-timer or pedagogue possessing the clout that has the "magic" to turn this madstrom of high-cost ineffectual education proficiency results around.

Let us hope that someone with the knowledge and "know how" of efficient productive results, obtained at prudent moderate cost, will attend the public meeting of the school board at School No. 10 on Monday evening, March 24 at 8 p.m. to rise up, to speak upon the school budget and offer sage words of wisdom in regards to running public schools in a business-like manner devoid of politics, cliques and cabals.

It is now the time for successful business management people to project their acumen and professional experience into the orbit of volunteering, without charge, the benefits of their talents, garnered in the commercial world, and relating their practices and policies of pragmatic nature to school trustees in the manner, which is prudently applied, could materially enhance and improve the businesslike management of most of our public school systems.

It is probably only a vain hope — but, would only that such an "angel" appear!

Principal at School 7 offers gifted workshop

—By Christopher Bilani

Marilyn Hawthorne, Principal of School No. 7, was chosen to give a gifted and talented workshop to her North Jersey colleagues March 7 at a conference in the Aspen Hotel Manor in Parsippany.

Entitled "Developmental Writing Skills—Elementary," Hawthorne's presentation focused on building writing talent in grammar school age students through what she described as a three fold basic premise.

One, that there be a concentration of instruction in the fundamentals of language to include grammar, usage, punctuation and mechanics.

Two, that the lessons be structured to incorporate active student participation.

And three, that the students be given ample opportunities to develop their own writing samples, she said.

The program included Hawthorne's workshop, 23 other workshops, lunch and coffee in the morning, a mid-morning lunch, a general session and a keynote presentation by Dr. Daniel Kunz of the Young Astronauts Program.

It was sponsored by the gifted and talented consortiums of Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Hunterdon, Morris, Passaic, Somerset, Sussex and Warren counties.

UNICO honors Cucuzza

Joseph Cucuzza of Belleville was among five persons honored by the Newark Chapter of UNICO National at its 14th annual Achievement Awards breakfast March 9 at the Town & Campus, Union.

The purpose of the affair was to recognize the accomplishments of people who exemplify UNICO's motto, "Service Above Self."

Cucuzza was honored for more than 25 years of service to local young people through the playing and coaching of baseball. He started in semi-professional baseball prior to serving in the Army and his fame grew with the South Orange Generals and the East Orange Soveris. After several State Semi-Pro and Eastern U.S. championships with both teams, he became a player-manager in 1967. In 1979, he turned to amateur baseball and worked with local Babe Ruth and American Legion teams.

Sheriff's friends will honor D'Alessio tonight at Biase's

Jerome D'Greco, president of the Essex County Board of Freeholders, will serve as chairman of the event.

"He has worked hard to guarantee that the Essex County Sheriff's Office provides all our citizens with the finest in law enforcement services. We expect a large crowd of friends and supporters to join us as we honor our sheriff," Greco said. For ticket information, call 235-1830.

Orechio joins protest over Iacocca ouster

Senator Carmine A. Orechio joined the storm of protest today over the ouster of Chrysler Corporation head Lee Iacocca as chairman of the government advisory commission on the restoration of the Statue of Liberty.

As head of the private foundation that has raised $23 million for the statue's renovation, Lee Iacocca has spearheaded a project that is a source of tremendous pride for all Americans, Senator Orechio said.

"In fighting to maintain the integrity of this national landmark by protecting it from the exploitation of commercial development, Mr. Iacocca was fired over an alleged conflict of interest," the Senator said. "However, it is difficult to believe this was the real reason for his removal."

Orechio called the action of U.S. Interior Secretary Donald Hodel "shameful" and "an insult to one man's crusade to preserve a national monument to freedom." Ellis Island was a site where millions of immigrants were processed when they arrived to the United States," the Senator continued. He called Iacocca's work "a patriotic effort to maintain a symbol of hope which drew millions of immigrants, including my own parents, to this country and the promise of freedom."

UNICO honors Cucuzza

Joseph Cucuzza of Belleville was among five persons honored by the Newark Chapter of UNICO National at its 11th annual Achievement Awards breakfast March 9 at the Town & Campus Union.

The purpose of the affair was to recognize the accomplishments of people who exemplify UNICO's motto, "Service Above Self."

Cucuzza was honored for more than 25 years of service to local young people through the playing and coaching of baseball. He started in semi-professional baseball prior to serving in the Army and his fame grew with the South Orange Generals and the East Orange Soverls. After several State Semi-Pro and Eastern U.S. championships with both teams, he became a player-manager in 1967. In 1979, he turned to amateur baseball and worked with local Babe Ruth and American Legion teams.

Orechio joins protest over Iacocca ouster

Senator Carmen A. Orechio joined the storm of protest today over the ouster of Chrysler Corporation head Lee Iacocca as chairman of the government advisory commission on the restoration of the Statue of Liberty.

"As head of the private foundation that has raised $23 million for the statue's renovation, Lee Iacocca has spearheaded a project that is a source of tremendous pride for all Americans," Senator Orechio said.

In fighting to maintain the integrity of this national landmark by protecting it from the exploitation of commercial development, Mr. Iacocca was fired over an alleged conflict of interest," the Senator said. "However, it is difficult to believe this was the real reason for his removal."

Orechio called the action of U.S. Inter-Secretary Donald Hodel "shameful" and "an insult to one man's crusade to preserve a national monument to freedom." Ellis Island was a site where millions of immigrants were processed when they arrived to the United States," the Senator continued. He called Iacocca's work "a patriotic effort to maintain a symbol of hope which drew millions of immigrants, including my own parents, to this country and the promise of freedom."

Remembering a good friend, Mike Graham

It has been noted that time heals most wounds. Well that's certainly true. Through time one usually learns to deal with the passing of someone close and can move on in his, or her life. There is a semblance of order, a feeling that things are somewhat back to normal.

When you lose a loved one, it takes extra time for the healing process to begin. Then, an anniversary comes around and you start to think about the person who was taken from you and reflect on the contributions that this person gave to society.

The month of March marks five years since the tragic passing of Michael Graham. It was back on March 21, 1981 that Mike left us in a sudden and heart wrenching way. He was just 19 years old. I remember first hearing the news from a friend, Dana Caruso, as we met in Branch Brook Park to run on a Sunday afternoon.

For those who knew Mike, and I was a very good friend of his, the news didn't hit right away. It just couldn't be. I thought: This was something that just didn't make sense.

Soon enough, however, the news was made clear and a stunned Township searched for a way to handle the grief. It is never easy and quite often, one never finds a way to totally deal with a loss.

When I first wrote about Mike's passing back in 1981, I spoke of what Mike Graham meant to his friends and coaches. At this time, I'd like to look back on the life and times of Michael Graham, because he was a person who lived life to the fullest.

Michael ran track and cross country for Belleville High, having been graduated in the Spring of '79. During his days at BHS, he was one of the finest runners to ever wear the Blue and Gold. In the time of the Spring '78, he had a junior long time Belleville record, in the half mile, by running the event under two minutes. It is a record that still stands today and could stand for quite some time.

In addition to track, Graham was an outstanding cross country runner. As a sophomore, he ran the gruelling Belleville Park course in 16:10, a marvelous accomplishment considering the school record was and still is 15:20. Graham came close in his junior year to approaching the record, but fell short. His senior year of cross country was hampered by a stress fracture in his foot.

Upon graduation, Mike attended Fairleigh Dickinson University. In the Fall of '79, Graham and his brother, Tom, ran in the Belleville six mile run and the two finished in a tie for first place.

The children of Gerard and Cecilia Graham were excellent track performers. Younger son Tobi, who graduated in 1980, was a fine cross country runner and two miler. A daughter, Cecilia, became the first Belleville girl to win a county championship. It came in the Spring of 1981, just two months after Mike's passing. Cecilia won the Essex County high jump championship and went on to the state sectional, where she placed fourth. Ultimately, she competed in the state finals. Cecilia graduated in the Spring of '82, but that special day, in May of 1981, at the Essex County championships in South Orange, will always be special in my mind.

To the family of Michael Graham, just a note to say that Mike has not been forgotten, not by his friends, or teammates. He was, and still is, a very special person.

Annual Dinner

On April 9, 1986, the Essex County Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame will hold its 24th annual Scholar-Athlete Awards Dinner at the Mayfair Farms Restaurant, in West Orange.

In addition to the 30 scholar athletes from Essex County, the dinner will also pay tribute to Joseph A. (Bo) Sullivan, President and C.E.O. of Bonomi Industries and Chairman of the New Jersey Turnpike Authority. Mr. Sullivan will receive the Distinguished American Award.

Charles J. Schneider, former football coach and Director of Athletics at Weequahic High will receive the Distinguished Coaches Award.

Howard Finney III of Montclair, President and Founder of the Montclair-Coburn Football Association, will be recipient of the Chapter's Contribution to Amateur Football Award. Tickets for the affair are $20.00 and may be purchased from the treasurer, Ralph Rizzolo, at 992-8448. The Chapter President is former Notre Dame and professional football standout, Frank Trupica.

A Belleville football player, along with nominees from the other Essex County schools, will be honored at the dinner. Past representatives from BHS include recent Belleville Hall of Fame inductee Alan Cervasio, Joe and Frank Zangari and Ed Aulisi. It promises to be a good evening for the young student athletes of Essex County.

NCAA Tourney

Who do you like in the NCAA Tourney? Next week, I'll talk to the various coaches at BHS, along with some athletes from the high school to get their feelings on who the winner may be. I've watched a lot of college ball this winter, and while St. John's, Kansas, Michigan, UNLV and Kentucky look powerful, you can't help but think Duke is the team that no one will be able to handle. The Blue Devils have faced every challenge possible, from second ranked Kansas, to Notre Dame, and of course, the A.C.C. regular season and post season tourneys. Perhaps the difficult regular season schedule could wear Duke down in the post season, but it's hard to pick a team that could beat them. My favorite darkhorse, Notre Dame, watch that team during the tourney. They've played a very competitive schedule and lost to Duke by one point, at Duke, in late February. The Irish could be a surprise entry in the Final Four.

Cerreto, Nardone, Iuliano, Tirone, Criscione advance to state tourney

By Joe Piccaro

Belleville High School's wrestling team continued its assault on the record books as five grapplers earned the right to compete in this week's State Tournament held in Princeton's Spacious Jaxwin Gymnasium.

Led by the "Terrible Two-tone," Joey Cerreto and Armando Nardone, the Bucs will also be represented by Mike Iuliano (102), Carmine Tirone (142), and Marc Criscione (157). Cerreto and Nardone won Region 2 championship, with Iuliano finishing second, Tirone and Criscione finished third in their respective weight classes.

Never before has a Belleville team sent so many individuals to the state tournament. The 1976-77 team came close with four. That year, Mark D'Amico, Ed Canuso, Ron Grolmond and George D'Alessandro earned the right to compete in Princeton. Of the four, only D'Amico returned the following year.

Of this year's contingent, all five will be returning. Coach Joe Nisi, vocally must have been a very good boy this year as his Christ mas presents are being presented in March.

Cerreto and Nardone repeated victories over the Pallante brothers of Caldwell as they had earlier in the season in the Bloom field Christmas Tournament. Cerreto scored a 4-2 decision over Larry Pallante while Nardone won 7-6 over Victor Pallante.

Cerreto's weight class was tougher than had been expected, but he met the challenge with three hard fought victories. In the opening round, Joey scored an 11-5 decision over Chris Steinbacher of Ridgefield. In the semifinal round, Clifton's Fred Goldbach was turned back by a score of 4-0.

The finals saw Cerreto locked in a 2-2 struggle with Pallante with only 30 seconds left in the match. After receiving a stall warning from the official, Cerreto used a tilt to score a two point year fall and earthen his first place gold medal.

At 123 pounds, Mondo Nardone breezed into the finals before scoring his victory over the elder Pallante. Nardone scored an easy 10-1 decision over Steve Banya in the quarterfinals, then ran up a 46-2 score against John Ha of Hasbrouck Heights in the semis.

Nardone was tied 5-5 with Vic for Pallante with less than a minute to wrestle, as overtime seemed unavoidable. Mondo had other ideas, however, and scored a takedown with eight seconds left on the clock. Nardone allowed Pallante to escape with four seconds on the clock to force the final 7-6 score.

Nardone now has a 2-2 record for the year, while Cerreto has a 2-3 slate.

Sophomore sensation Mike Iuliano came close in his first try in the Regionals, but settled for a silver medal after a 1-4 loss to Frank Demary of West Essex in the finals. Mike had scored an 11-4 decision in the quarterfinals over Darren Castellano of Caldwell then recorded a 4-2 win in the semis over Bernard Barrot of Paterson Kennedy. Iuliano almost pulled an upset in the finals over DeMary as he had the West Essex grappler flat on his back after executing a lateral drop. Both boys went out of bounds shortly afterwards and the move was negated. With a record of 20-3, "Bulldog" has a chance to advance in the state tournament's opening round this Wednesday.

Garmine Tirone opened his Regional competition with a fall over Tom Keeler of Rutherford. In the semis, Garmine was leading eventual gold medalist Steve Fano of West Essex 13-5 before getting caught in a fluke move. Tirone was pinned with just over a minute left in the bout and was forced to settle for a try at the bronze medal. In the consolation match against Clifside Park's Steve Ciurici, Garmine scored a second period fall to secure his trip to Princeton.

At 18-6 for the season, the bulky junior will get a chance to add to the state in Wednesday's preliminary round action.

Belleville's standout heavy weight, Marc Criscione, had the bad fortune to be paired in the same division with Clifton's Dave Scott and Caldwell's Bart Lockwood. Both opponents are contenders for the gold medal in the

A hypothetical look at Silvestri's pro team

As has been tradition for the past five years, the wrap up of the Belleville girls' basketball team begins with a hypothetical look at what the team would command if they were a professional club.

Team owner Jim Silvestri has announced that he will not sign three veterans to contracts next year: Desiree Johansen, Dina De Medici and Tracy Delaney have decided not to play for Belleville High next year. Johansen will sign a pact with the New York Mets, who are in need of a quality shortstop.

De Medici has been highly touted as a head basketball coach for a Division I college team next fall. Although that team is not known yet, it's not surprising if De Medici winds up in Houston, where Guy Lewis just retired after 38 years at the helm. De Medici will look to return the Phi Slama Jama act to the Cougars for next year.

Delaney has been asked to write a book on the perils of sports injuries and will be the team physician for the New York Knicks next season.

As for the players who plan to return, Laura Caruso will ink a one year pact, with incentives that would make her per salary over the half million dollar mark.

One year ago, freshman Judy Nehila approached Silvestri about a contract that would make her the highest paid player in BHS history by 1989. Silvestri promised to look at the proposal, but said nothing further. Now, after a very good sophomore year, Nehila should sign a two year contract. Although Belleville's policy is not to reveal figures, rumors are the contract could exceed three million for two years.

Two freshman, Simone Edwards and Laurie Dondarski, are asking Silvestri to keep his check book open. Edwards is seeking a three year pact, which will include attendance clauses and slam dunk incentives. Insiders say the dollar amount of the pact could be in the area of the contract signed by Larry Bird last season. Dondarski is seeking the same terms, minus the slam dunk clause, and could be a million dollar player by her junior year. Raquel Melson, Danielle Pizzi, Maria Longobardi and Sandy Brew will also look for increases on their present contracts and should receive them without going to arbitration.

Head coach Karen Fucello is expected back for her 15th year of varsity coaching at BHS next fall. Despite a sub 500 record this season, the future looks good for the young team and Fucello is expected to receive an increase in her contract.

That's a fun look at the girls'

Boys basketball team finishes rugged season

Showing a marked improvement from the '84-'85 season, the Belleville boys' basketball team finished with a final record of 5-19 for the '85-'86 season.

Head coach Rocco Colucci, finishing his second season as varsity coach, was happy with some aspects of his team's performance.

"I was a little disappointed in that we didn't win more games," the coach said, "but we did play much better (than in 1985). We were in some close and exciting games, but we didn't win some of those close and exciting games. We played very well (but lost) to Eastside, Don Bosco, Bloomfield, Nutley and the first game with Clifton. We could have easily won four or five more games. We didn't have beaten Teaneck, but we didn't play well in that game. The Ridgewood game was one where we had a lead at halftime, but couldn't hold on."

Colucci noted turnovers and missed rebounds as his team's biggest enemies.

"Our foul shooting didn't help, either," the coach said. "We shot just 57 percent, which is not good. We missed some key rebounds in close games and turned the ball over at some in-opportune times."

The Bucs lose just one senior, but that man will be difficult to replace.

"Donald Washington gave us excellent board play," Colucci said of the lone senior. "He will be sorely missed. It's going to be difficult to replace someone with his strength and ability down-low. His spot 17 up for grabs next year. We need a strong defensive post player and a strong rebounder."

Washington finished fourth in team scoring with a 7.3 ppg average. In his final game, against St. Al's, he led Belleville with 18 points in a 73-47 Buc victory.

Ted Sochaski, a sophomore, finished the season as the team's leading scorer. Sochaski scored 378 points; an average of 15.8 ppg over 24 contests. He shot 57 percent from the foul line. In his first two years, Sochaski has 550 career points.

Another sophomore, Leon Puentes was second in team scoring with a 9.9 ppg clip. The point guard led the club in free throws attempted, 26, and was fourth in free throw percentage, 59.

basketball team. Seriously, the team did show improvement over the second half the 1985-86 campaign and despite a 2-18 mark, should be a much stronger unit next fall.

"The returning players have to make a commitment," Fuccello said. "They have to play hard during the summer, attend camps and do the things that the other teams are doing. We are in a very tough conference and have to play year round if we hope to improve."

The girls lose three seniors to graduation. Johansen, De Medici and Delaney leave the team with good memories and the respect of their coach.

"They were great for the program," Fuccello said of the three seniors. "They all helped the younger kids and want to continue helping them during the off season. I can't say enough good things about them."

Johansen was the team captain and an excellent leader.

"Desi emerged as the leader on, and off, the court," Fuccello said. "She grew up and matured with the team, which is something you hope all the players do. The mark of her fortitude was that she never lost her good nature and always remained positive. She was a very good competitor."

Johansen averaged 9.9 ppg this year and shot 50.4 percent from the foul line. She led the team in foul shots attempted, 103 and foul shots completed, 52. She finished second on the team in scoring this year and was named to the second team, all conference. On top of her athletic talents, Johansen is an outstanding young lady, a straight A student, at BHS, and a super person to talk with.

Next for Johansen is softball, where she will occupy the shortstop position. Johansen is a tremendous softball player and should be one of the leaders of this years team.

De Medici showed tremendous improvement over the season.

"She came into her own in the second half of the season," Fuccello said. "She was a great example for the other kids. She pushed them and encouraged them to work harder."

De Medici will now advance to the softball team. She hopes to be a coach after college. Once again, De Medici is a fine person to talk with and a class individual.

De Medici averaged 11 ppg, but her true forte was defense. She was aggressive on the boards and a very good competitor.

Delaney averaged 1.0 ppg, but her value came with good defense and a great attitude.

"She wanted to be a good basketball player," Fuccello said. "Tracy went to basketball camps and worked hard. She knew her limitations and was an asset on the court."

Delaney overcame a bad ankle sprain to help the team throughout the season. She never gave up on herself and was a good example to the younger players.

She will now move to the softball team. Once again, she was a pleasure to have known and was a fine competitor.

Leading the way for next years team is junior Laura Caruso, sophomore Judy Nehila, Rachel Melson and Sandy Brew and freshmen Laurie Dondarski, Simone Edwards, Maria Longobardi and Danielle Pizzi.

Caruso was fourth in team scoring this year, with a 5.1 ppg average. She shot 45 percent from the foul line and was aggressive on the boards.

Laura has to learn not to fall back on her layups," Fuccello said. "When she drives in straight, she gets the points, or is fouled. She has the ability to be a very good player."

Nehila had a tremendous year. She led the team in scoring and free throw shooting, with marks of 12.8 and 56 percent respectively. She scored 244 points in 19 games and hit on 34 of 61 foul shots.

Judy knows what she has to do to become a better player," Fuccello said. "She has to see the entire floor and know when to take the shot. Judy has tremendous potential."

Nehila earned honorable mention, all conference, for her work this season.

Edwards was a big surprise this season. The freshman was third in scoring with a 5.2 ppg average. She shot 48 percent from the foul line, hitting 41 of 86 shots. The 86 shots attempted was second on the team. She had the ability to draw fouls with good rebounding. Her defense was also strong.

"That was her greatest asset," Fuccello said of Edwards defense. "I asked her to play big players on the other teams, roles that I would normally assign to an older player. She had the instinct to play good defense. She picked up the concepts faster than any player I've ever seen."

Dondarski came on strong over the last ten games. She averaged over two points a game and was second in free throw shooting at 52 percent.

"She has great intensity," Fuccello said of the 5'0" guard. "She has to learn to control that intensity, though. She has always given 100 percent to the program. She just has to learn to slow down and run the offense under control."

Melson, Longobardi, Pizzi and Brew are all young players with the ability to be solid varsity performers next year.

Melson is a good guard, who is learning the offense. She was a big asset to Debbie Meola's junior varsity team, which finished 12-6. Brew has the talent to be a strong forward, she needs to continue to develop her skills during the off season.

Pizzi and Longobardi are the two tallest members of the team. Both girls will be counted on to crash the boards for the next three years and add points with offensive rebounds.

As a team, Belleville shot 47 percent from the foul line, a mark the girls will have to improve upon next winter. The team was 114 in the conference, 24 outside the NNJHL.

"There were a lot of teams that we could have beaten this year," Fuccello said. "However, none of those teams played in our conference. There is a lot of talent in the NNJHL and if we hope to be competitive, we can't pick the ball up in November. The work starts now."

Jayvee squad wins Kearny JV tourney; Perna sparks team

By Joe Piaggio

Belleville's Jayvee Squad, led by undefeated Joe Perna, completed an outstanding season by winning the Kearny JV Tournament.

Although the Jayvee Bucs entered the tourney with five open weight classes, they managed to record two first place finishes, two second, one third and two fourth to bring home the team championship trophy.

The Kearny Tournament was a fitting climax to a season which included a 12-1 dual meet record and a second place finish in the Elizabeth Minuteman Tournament. In that event, the Bucs would have won yet another first place team trophy had not 135-pounder Dave DeNotaris sustained an injury in the championship bout.

DeNotaris was well ahead in its match when he received a concussion, forcing him to default in the bout and losing his chance for a gold medal.

The dual meet record could easily have been 13-0, but in the Ridgewood meet, four forfeits caused the Bucs to lose a match, they could easily have won with a full squad.

The junior varsity team was sprinkled with freshmen and sophomores, but the undisputed leader was junior Joe Perna. The fiery 101-pounder finished first in both the Elizabeth and Kearny tournaments, as well as completing the dual meet season with a spotless 13-0 record. He was tops on the squad in wins (17 of), forfeits (9) and team points (100).

Perna was followed in the lineup by freshman Bob Mulcahy. At 108 pounds, Mulcahy was injured for both tournaments, but managed to record a 6-2 record with three wins.

Another freshman, Mike

Senesky, became the "Rookie of the Year" as he forged an 11-1 record in his first year on the mats. Senesky is a crowd pleaser and a future champion. His 11 wins included nine pins and a second place finish in the Elizabeth Tournament.

The 122-pound slot was filled early on by soph left Apple, who posted a 4-6 record. Later in the season, Apple shared the weight class with Joe Piscopello. Although Piscopello earned a 3-2 record in his short stay, it is rumored he will be moving to Lawrenceville once the school year is over. Apple, with a bit more seasoning and a rededication of his efforts, could become a solid performer.

Junior Eric Nazzola and Dave DeNotaris rounded the 129 and 135 slots intermittently during the year. Nazzola wrestled the first half of the season at 129 pounds and won the Elizabeth Tournament. After he moved up to 135 pounds, he placed third at Kearny. Nazzola forged a 15-2 record as a termed a "pleasant surprise" by Colucci, finished third in team scoring.

"Bobby and Chris (Goldrick) were big surprises for us this year," Colucci said. "If they continue to work during the off season, they could be a big part of next years team."

Hutchison averaged 9.2 ppg and led the way in free throw shooting with a 76 percent accuracy.

Goldrick finished with a 3.5 ppg scoring clip and shot an impressive 73 percent from the line, good for second on the team. Goldrick really came on down the stretch and the junior will be vying for a starting position next winter.

Junior Loung La, a candidate for a guard slot next winter, missed the final three games due to a leg injury. La averaged 2.9 ppg over the first 21 games and was a 50 percent foul shooter.

Two more juniors, Frank Morrell and Craig Burden, will be looking for starting positions next year. Morrell has the ability to play in the post. He needs to play during the off season and hit the weights.

Burden, a good ball handler, does not score much, but has quickness and is smart on the court.

Colucci is hoping for continued improvement from Steve Schwed, Mark Huamami, John Morrell, Pete Gerst, Bob Willis and Chris Chiamonte. All those players saw varsity action this year and could be an integral part of next years team.

As a team, Belleville shot 56.9 percent from the foul line, hitting 194 of 341 shots. The Bucs record of 5-19 was a three game improvement from last years 2-22 record.

Highlights of the season included the big win over Kearny at the Meadowlands Arena and the near victory against state ranked Eastside, at Belleville. Disappointments include the loss at Kennedy, when Colucci pulled the entire starting team in the third quarter because of ineffectiveness and used his younger players the remainder of the game. The loss to Queen of Peace in the Holiday tournament is a game that Belleville would like to have back.

"The losing still hurts," Colucci said. "It's nice to improve and be competitive, but the kids will have to want more than that for next season. The NNJHL is very strong. I'd like to see us make the state tournament next year and get past the first round of the Essex County tournament. Those would be good achievements."

In the mean time, the players will compete in the Elizabeth Summer League this summer and attend basketball camp. If the players continue to work hard between now and next November, the results could be promising for the 1986-87 squad.

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Mrs. G. of Nutley asks: "My baby girl is 1 year old. When should I start brushing her teeth?"

Congratulations Mrs. G. on your 1 year old. At this time she probably has four to eight teeth and you should start brushing them for her. Either a drug store or a dentist would have tooth brushes that are soft, besides the teeth, brush the gums. You might find that she likes to chew on the brushes.

Under your supervision, however, chew on the brushes. This relieves the itchy feeling the gum could have from other baby teeth erupting.

With your help and depending on her level of coordination, by 2 1/2 years old she'll be brushing by her self. When she does reach 2, bring her to your dentist for the sake of familiarizing her to the dental office. We find children starting at two - three with no decay and biannual checkups can be kept decay free for most of their adult life.

We call our Zero Base Certificate a Pussycat because it's so easy to buy and so easy to take. There are no fees and no risks. The maturity value is guaranteed by The Provident and each depositor is insured by the FDIC to $100,000. It's PURR-FECT.

Our Zero Base Certificate locks in a compounded rate at today's yields. It's ideal for low tax-bracket custodial accounts such as a child's education fund, your daughter's future wedding plans and for tax-deferred accounts such as IRAs and Keoghs. Corporate and private pension plans. Think of it, too, for that new kitchen, or that great vacation trip!

Set your goal and tell us when you'll need the money. We'll tell you how to invest a little now and get a lot later.

*Illustration shown is for 10 year maturity based on 9.58% annual yield on a 9.15% annual rate compounded daily. Zero base certificates are available for 5 to 10 year periods. Actual interest rates are quoted at time of deposit. FDIC requires a substantial penalty for withdrawals prior to maturity on time deposits.

Fire Safety Tips First aid for burns

Doing the wrong thing for a burn in the first few seconds and minutes can cause painful and disfiguring consequences. According to the Belleville Fire Department, the first aid for a burn is to cool it with water, cover it with a clean cloth and get medical care immediately. Do not use anything greasy or oily on a burn — no butter, ointments, creams or vaseline. Do not put ice directly on the skin and don't pop a blain victim in.

Cooling a burn is essential because skin will continue to burn even after the fire is out or the heat source is removed. If not cooled immediately, the burn will penetrate deeper into the skin layers. The deeper the burn, the more serious it is. The longer it takes to treat, the greater the chance of infection, the greater the need for surgery and the more painful the experience.

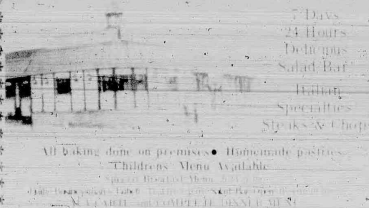

Cool water should be used to remove the heat, however, don't cool too large a burn — shock may occur. Never use ice. If adequate cooling occurs, it is less extreme and might damage the skin further. Putting grease or oily substances on the burn will hold the heat in and make it worse. In addition, any ointment or grease applied to the burn wound will have to be cleaned off at the hospital or doctor's office and that can be painful.

A burn's seriousness is classified as first, second and third degree, depending on how deep the skin has been damaged. A first degree burn appears red and sore, but not blistered. If cooled with water promptly, this burn should heal on its own. A second degree burn is blistered and painful. Third degree is white, brown or charred and may appear painless at first.

Both second and third degree burns require medical attention. Cool the burn with water, cover with a clean cloth and keep the victim quiet and warm until the rescue squad arrives. Call the rescue squad at 438-4300.

Do not treat burns yourself. You could cause an infection or use the use of the burned area permanently. If you are uncertain, always ask to be taken to the nearest burn hospital or flown to such a facility. Do not take burns lightly; complications can be fatal.

CHINA GARDEN

THE CHINA GARDEN

The best luncheon buffet in the area is at The China Garden. On Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays each week, a sumptuous selection of Chinese dishes is available. There are four appetizers and eight hot dishes, as well as fried rice and lo mein noodles, on the buffet. The luncheon special also comes with a choice of soup.

On a recent visit, exotic dishes like baby shrimp with garlic sauce, hot and spicy chicken, chicken and broccoli, were on the buffet, as well as the standard oriental fare like pepper steak, egg rolls, and spare ribs.

If you have any room left, after sampling all that, there is also a dessert table (not often found at luncheon buffets!)

Service was very attentive at luncheon — there are plenty of efficient waiters who keep refilling teapots, and clearing used plates.

There is also a dinner buffet on the same days the luncheon buffet is served. On the other days, a regular menu is available for both lunch and dinner.

The China Garden is located at 306 Main Avenue in Clifton. The phone number is 773-7633.
