Congratulations, BHS Seniors!

By Christopher Bitani

Under the warm glow of a setting summer sun, 180 Belleville seniors graduated from high school this past Monday. As hundreds of cheering relatives, friends and neighbors packed Municipal Stadium to watch.

School officials, including Superintendent Michael Nardello, High School Principal Joseph Ciccone and members of the board of education, took turns at the podium, greeting row upon row of seniors as they stepped up to receive their diplomas.

Susan Aschauer, Valedictorian, addressed her classmates and the crowd.

"As I said, thought that occurs to us as we graduate is that we are leaving a second family of friends, faculty and administrators, that each of us has grown fondly accustomed to during our years at Belleville High.

"We must, therefore, always remember our years here no matter where life may take us. To our parents and teachers, we thank you for allowing us to think for ourselves and for trusting us enough to let us make decisive steps for the future. We are able to further develop, emotionally and intellectually, thanks to our experiences at Belleville High," she said.

Michael DeChiara, Salutatorian, also addressed the audience. He spoke of the great responsibility his generation will have to assume, a generation that is reaching adulthood at a critical time in history.

"America is slowly being handed down from generation to generation and has now fallen into our hands," DeChiara said. "The burden of its stability will soon rest upon our shoulders.

"The future is ours. We have the power to carefully create peace or, carelessly, cause war. The responsibilities of such a burden are great."

DeChiara credited the Belleville school system for providing his class with the preparation to face such an uncertain future.

"Such necessary leadership qualities must be carefully developed," he said. "Belleville has helped to guide us through our developing years."

Forty-seven Belleville seniors,

22 girls and 15 boys, graduated with honors Monday night. Female honor students included Valedictorian Susan Darlene Aschauer, Monique Denelle Bowke, Barbara Jean Coppla, Christine Marie DeAngelis, Felicia Maria Del Duca, Lisa Ann Farrow and Maria Angelis Garcia.

Also, Claudia Hartmann, Dana Italiano, Desiree Ann Johansen, Colleen Ellen Kelleher, Claudia Isabel Lara, Melissa Suzanne Layne, Christine Jane Lehmann and Jill Maureen Lillis.

Also, Linda Annette Matto, Laura Valerie Messo, Tia Maria Narciso, Linda Jean Pissotti, Sharon Russo, Carrie Ann Sibilia, and Melissa Mari Wesner.

Male honor students included Timothy W. Buckley, Kim Wah Chan, Emilio Cordova, Saluta torian Michael Thomas DeChiara, Hany Elcheb, Christopher Scott Fetch, Vito Joseph Lacerenza, and Richard Charles Meyer.

Also, Christopher Nicholas, Nardoni Karl Michael Neiminger, James Michael Petra, Steven Allan Platt, Vincent James Pucci, Geoffrey M. Valente, and Russell Paul Zamlot.

A complete list of Belleville High School Class of '86 graduates appears on the First DeWitt congratulatory page in this week's edition.

Representing the honors group was third ranked graduate Linda Pissotti, who concluded her address with these remarks:

"If I had the power to redesign the traditional diploma, I would write and to the words of St. Paul: 'You have fought the good fight; you have finished the course; you have kept the faith.' May this faith in yourselves continue to grow," she said.

The Future Is An Open Book - Some of Belleville High School's 380 Class of '86 graduates display their hard-earned diplomas following a commencement ceremony which attracted hundreds of township well-wishers.

Board, citizens continue debate on public safety building costs

By Jean James

The Belleville Board of Commissioners, Tuesday, June 24, heard another round of pleas from residents concerning plans for the construction of a new police head quarters.

Two weeks ago the commissioners stated that the vote on the adoption of a plan will take place on July 8, a time when all the commissioners can be present.

The primary concern of those addressing the commissioners was the cost of a new structure. "Even without this building we're still looking at a 70 to 80 point tax increase," Vinnie Frantantonio, president of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville said.

Frantantonio added that the average taxpayer would face a tax increase of over 400 dollars which includes increases in local, school, and county taxes plus the cost of financing a police building capped at between $2.5 and $5 million.

At the last commission meeting, Commissioner Michael Pizzi introduced a resolution passed by the board that intends to limit spending on a new police building to five million dollars. At the June 24 meeting, Township Attorney Frank Zinna said that bond counsel Charles Mapson is preparing a resolution that will formally memorialize the vote to cap spending at five million dollars.

A number of current proposals call for a 24,000 square foot building, that would be three stories high and contain the police department, firing range, law department, municipal court, and administrative space. Plans by the citizens committee working with project architect Frank Richlan placed the cost of such a structure at approximately $4.5 million.

Members of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville have debated the price tag.

Gabe Nazzoli stated that in 1983 plans for the construction of a police building had a 1983 cost of roughly $1.7 million, and he quoted two construction cost guides that would bring the new building to under two million dollars, far less than the costs given by the citizens committee report.

During the next weeks the board of commissioners will further investigate and analyze the plans and costs estimates presented to them and are expected to choose a plan on July 8.

On another matter, Edith DeFeo addressed the board on the matter of crime in the areas of Cedar Hill Ave., Mt. Prospect Ave. and Belleville Ave. near Belleville Park.

DeFeo stated that a home had been burglarized once and that another burglary attempt at the same home was made one week later.

"They are living in fear, they are sleeping in shifts," DeFeo said of the neighborhood's residents.

DeFeo called upon the Board to pressure the county to place lights in the Belleville Park area.

Public Safety Commissioner Ralph DiRuggiero said that he would further investigate the matter and proposed that an increase in the Neighborhood Watch program could help deter crime.

In other action the board of commissioners endorsed attempts by 30th District Assemblyman John Kelly to acquire $225,000 from the state budget for the clean-up of a May 1983 toxic waste spill on Main Street. The spill by Research Organic Inc. had been cleaned up by the state.

It is $300,000 in clean up costs. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in costs have already been paid.

More condominiums await determination by zoning officials

A plan to erect a 48 condominium apartment project by Adprint, Inc. at the corner of Essex and Little streets is one of at least three condominium applications before Belleville Zoning Board.

A hearing on the application filed by Adprint will be continued at the next zoning board meeting July 1. Testimony was taken at the last meeting June 17.

A variance is necessary to build condominiums at Essex and Little streets because the area is zoned for general business, not residential use.

Two other applications filed with the zoning board are to build condominiums at 204 Passaic Ave. and 22-28 Belmont Ave.

A three-story, eight-unit complex is planned by Angelo and Caruso company for Belmont Avenue. Twelve units, also to be housed in a three-story building, are planned by James Landon for Passaic Avenue in a two-family zone.

Earlier this month, the zoning board approved Bella Casa Caterers' request to convert the Italian-American Veterans Hall, Acme Street, to a commercial banquet facility. Located in a two-family residential zone, the caterer will now be permitted to prepare food for service on the premises or away from the hall.

Local lawyer Alan Floria defends 'dirty' rock club

Just one month after passing his bar exam at Seton Hall University, Alan Floria is getting his hands "dirty."

The former Walnut Street resident is representing The Dirt Club in neighboring Bloomfield following the remarks of a councilman there who wants to force The Dirt Club to change its name.

Bloomfield Councilman Michael R. Casale said that The Dirt Club, owned by Johnny "Dirt" Schroeder, is "getting to look more and more like dirt every day."

In addition to forcing Schroeder to change the club's name, Casale wants the club owner to renovate as well. In the meantime, Casale wants to withhold renewal of the club's liquor license, which expires on June 30.

But Floria told The Times that Casale has no right to force The Dirt Club to change its name.

"There's no vulgarity, no obscenity in the name," Floria said, adding that dirt is an integral part of the club's ambience. Decorating the interior of The Dirt Club are jars from all around the world, including Mt. St.

Helen's volcanic ash, and dirt from Jericho in the Middle East.

Floria said, "I've been a frequent visitor of The Dirt Club for several years." He added that although his specialty is tax law, he is happy to represent Johnny Schroeder further legal action become necessary.

Floria, who works for the law firm of Horowitz, Bross, Sinans and Imperiale of Newark, said he will try to expedite the renewal of Schroeder's liquor license.

although he noted that "there is no legal requirement that they make a decision right away."

Many local hands owe their start to The Dirt Club, which is one of the few remaining venues that spotlights original, unsigned New Jersey rock talent.

React, a popular Belleville rock band, has performed at The Dirt Club. Ambition, another popular Belleville band is scheduled to perform there next month.

BELLEVILLE briefly...

Three lucky citizens pick winning tickets

Three Belleville residents are among the 180 finalists, vying for the Pick 6 million dollar bonus drawing which will have been held June 25 at Monmouth Park Race Track in Oceanport.

The three township finalists, each of whom are guaranteed at least a $250 prize, are: K. Balkiewicz, Alfred Cozzi, and

Paul E. Veltre.

In addition to a grand prize winner receiving $50,000 per year for 20 years, there are nine runner-up prizes ranging from $50,000 to $2,500.

The odds are one in six that a Belleville resident will win one of the big prize.

Kiwanis give awards to color-ful children

The Kiwanis Club of Belleville recently presented awards to the third and fourth grade winners of its coloring book contest.

Third and fourth graders in each of the elementary schools participated in the contest which was anti-drug oriented. Students competed in the contest by coloring the book, "Marce Narco," which acquainted participants with the dangers of narcotics.

The winners, two in each school, won a United States savings bond and were honored at a regular meeting of the Kiwanis.

Winners of the contest were: Shai Carr and Anthony Caruso, School 8; Daniel DePoeque and Anthony Vinello, School 9; Jennifer Wolman and Mark Vidal, School 10; Nadia Petrillo and Frank Dausher, School 3; Beverly Ta Yoo and Nina Cadi, School 4; Brian Dena and Jamie Sarello, School 5; and Ji Yean Oh and Christian Jacobs, School 7.

Locals pols to bocce it up

WOR-TV's Joe Franklin is doing it. Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alesio is going for it. Senator Carmen Orechio is chasing it. Numerous Jersey Mayors are signing up for it.

It's the New Jersey elimination for the 13th annual Sambuca Romana Bocce Tournament, set for Saturday, July 19 at Landell Park in Lyndhurst, which attracts players from all over the state. Run date is July 20.

There is no charge to enter or view the annual event. Entries may be obtained from the Department of Parks, Cleveland Avenue, Lyndhurst 07037. Lyndhurst Mayor James Guida, who is host to the tourney, is putting in new courts for the occasion.

Belleville Mayor Michael Marotti said he hasn't been invited yet, indicating that perhaps they're scared he will beat them.

Woman's Club fields V.P. for eighth district

Marie Drake of the Woman's Club of Belleville is a candidate for the office of vice president, Eighth District, New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Currently state music chairman, Drake has been a member of the NJSFWS Chorus for 13 years and previously served the district as music and drama chairman.

Active in community affairs, she is a volunteer at Clara Maass Medical Center and has served with Boy Scout and Girl Scout units. Drake is also active with the American Heart Association and serves on her church vestry.

July 4th explodes at Municipal Stadium

As many flock to the shore to escape the heat and chaos of city life at holiday time, many Bellevilleites will stay home to experience the traditional ceremonies of the Independence Day celebration here in town.

To begin the festivities on Friday, July 4, the Recreation Department will hold its annual field day for youngsters ages 6-14 at the Municipal Stadium, starting at 10 a.m.

The events, which will be open to all young Belleville residents, will be divided into three age categories. There is a junior division for 6-8 year olds, an intermediate division for 9-11 year olds, and a senior division for the 12-14 year olds.

Events will include the 50 and 100 yard dashes, an agility race, a three-legged race, sack races, a girls' relay race and a boys' tug-of-war.

All activities will be supervised by the members of the Belleville Recreation playground staff under the direction of Superintendent Dennis Backley. Trophies will be awarded to the winners and all will share in slices of watermelon.

On Friday night, a spectacular fireworks display will be presented at the stadium starting at sundown. The rain date for the fireworks will be Saturday, July 5. In all, it promises to be an exciting holiday and Bellevilleites young and old are invited to share in the glitter of our country's historic day.

Installed as honorary vice-president was Michael Harvey; Joanne Dunn, second vice-president; Helen Tresfeger, corresponding secretary; Mary Ann McCrea, recording secretary; and Ginny Cotagna, treasurer. The officers terms are for the 1986-87 school year.

Belleville teens lauded by Senator

Claudia Hartmann and Tina MacDonald were among the 389 youths statewide honored last month at a dinner sponsored by U.S. Senator Bill Bradley.

The event, called the Young Citizens Awards, was held at Rutgers University in New Brunswick.

Bradley described the assembled award recipients as young New Jerseyans dedicated to community service, who identify their own well-being with that of the community.

Hartmann is a student at Belleville High School while MacDonald attends Queen of Peace High School in North Arlington. Both received certificates of commendation at the event.

Proposed $870 mil. pipeline meets a flood of opposition

By Phil White
and Kara Laczynski

Nutley and Belleville officials are joining area legislators in expressing concern this week at another set of public hearings on the proposed 13.6 mile underground flood tunnel which would discharge into the Passaic River at the Nutley Clifton border.

Hearings this week, including one last night (Wednesday) in Rutherford, are addressing the key issue of how year-to-year maintenance costs of the tunnel would be paid.

Mayor Harry Chenoweth of Nutley, Mayor Michael Marotti of Belleville along with other commissioners and Assemblyman John Kelly and Assemblywoman Marion Crecco were all scheduled to appear at the Rutherford session last night.

"I'm still 100 percent against the tunnel and always have been," Chenoweth says. Although the Nutley Town Commission has not officially come out as opposed to the tunnel concept, Belleville's five commissioners are all on record as opposed to the tunnel.

The hearings this week, however, are not so much to consider the pros and cons of the tunnel itself, but rather to determine how the $870 million project would be paid for and then maintained.

If recommendations made in a consultants' report to the state are followed, both Nutley and Belleville would pay $42.40 per each $100,000 of evaluated property every year.

In addition, pumping stations would be required to pump storm drainage up over the levees and into the Passaic River during times of high water. Without pumping, storm drains in both Nutley and Belleville would back up and produce street flooding throughout the community. The June recommendations made no provisions for the state to pay for the labor and maintenance of these stations.

But officials in Pequannock already are on record as saying that not only should other communities bordering the Passaic River share in the cost, but so should up county municipalities like Ringwood and West Milford which are aggravating flood conditions through increased construction.

Nutley and Belleville, theoretically at least, benefit from the flood control project because levees and flood walls would be constructed the entire length of the Passaic River from Clifton south to about where Route 280 crosses the river in Newark.

The project is designed not only to alleviate upstream communities from flooding, but also to protect towns south of Nutley from severe tidal surges coming up river from Newark Bay. Even were the tunnel itself not constructed, levees three feet above the Passaic River bank would be needed to protect Nutley and Belleville from the most severe tidal surge, the type anticipated on a 100 year average.

"I think we'll be using a draft report on how the costs should be paid as a basis for our hearings this week," Richard Bellis, tunnel project manager for the state, told The Sun yesterday.

Directors of the Public Works Department in both Belleville and Nutley are among the most vocal opponents of the tunnel plan. Both Nutley's Peter Scarpelli and Belleville's Joseph Grande say they are concerned about the cost of building and maintaining storm water pumping stations.

Officials from Nutley and Belleville met this past week to plan strategy for this week's hearing. The last such session involved Mayor Chenoweth, Mayor Marotti, Grande, Assemblyman John Kelly, and Belleville Commissioners Ralph DiRuggiero and Michael Pizzi.

Despite the fact that all communities south of Nutley and Belleville — on both sides of the river — share identical concerns over levees and pumping stations, little opposition to the tunnel plan is being voiced.

"Nearly all of the opposition is coming from Nutley and Belleville. The rest of the communities essentially are saying 'What's taking so long? Let's get started,'" Bellis told OBC TV News this past winter.

Sen. Carmen Orechio, while reserving his own opinion on the tunnel plan until all studies have been completed, is pushing legislation appropriating state and federal monies to buy out flood-prone properties.

The N.J. Department of Environmental Protection and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers are proposing funds for the buyout of properties as well. But to replace the tunnel with a total buy-out plan would be even more costly than building the $890 million tunnel itself.

The tunnel is designed to protect against the 100-year flood or in Nutley and Belleville's case, the 100-year tidal surge. To buyout all properties flooded on the average of once every 10 years would be $1.8 billion, or about twice the tunnel's cost. The buyout cost for structures in the 100-year flood (16,500 residential units and 2,200 commercial buildings) would total $3 billion, according to Sam Tosi, spokesman for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The Wednesday (last night) hearing was scheduled for 7:30 in the Rutherford council chambers, 175 Park Avenue. Another hearing is coming up next Monday at the West Paterson Borough Hall on McBride Avenue at the corner of Brophy Lane.

Sen. Orechio introduces stronger state legislation to protect abused children

Legislation introduced by Senator Carmen A. Orechio, destined to strengthen New Jersey's efforts regarding the proper placement of abused and neglected children in permanent homes has been released by the Senate Committee on Children's Services.

The measure, Senate Bill No. 2078 is based upon recommendations of the N.J. State Child Placement Advisory Council. Senator Orechio explained that the bill would bolster the efforts of county child placement review board case workers in dealing with foster children through an adoption assistance program in order to expand state foster care. The bill would also involve the review boards and their recommendations in the decision process, and coordinate the act with recent changes in federal law.

Through this bill we will institute a mechanism which will provide ongoing monitoring of those abused children the public never fears about. We need to do a better job in looking at what is happening to those children to ensure that the decisions made are in their best interests, Senator Orechio said.

Board, citizens continue police station cost debate

recovered and the new money would replace Belleville's expenditures.

The bill has already passed the state assembly and will now go to the state senate and the commissioners will ask for State Senator Carmen Orechio's assistance in passing the bill.

The board also unanimously approved the payment to the community development fund for the Belleville Economic Restoration program, to two businesses on Washington Avenue that were destroyed by a fire in March. Gino's Pizzeria and Restaurant and J & P's Cleaning and Tailoring will each receive $9,000 towards the replacement of equipment lost in the fire.

Also approved unanimously was an ordinance that sets forth rules and regulations for the Belleville Police Department. Currently, Police Chief George Easter.

The rules and regulations include such items as department organization, uniforms, and officer demeanor.

The next regular meeting of the Belleville Board of Commissioners will be held on Tuesday, July 8, 1986 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Belleville High School.

Kean's summer home

The ink was just about dry on the deed which conveyed title to a home in Fire Island, New York, when an obscure Democratic voice from nowhere indignantly implied in vague language that Governor Tom Kean was a hypocrite for selling our great state as a place to live and work — when at the same time, he buys a home on Fire Island, New York.

This is a cheap shot at a governor who gives us many reasons to feel good about our state. No governor in recent history has made us more proud of the state we call home than Tom Kean.

The Kean family has been vacationing on Fire Island for many years. That Tom Kean decided to buy a home instead of renting, apparently makes all the difference to demagogues among us.

To the carping critics of Tom

Kean, we say — for shame.

Two former-vacation-homes in Florida — one in Boca Raton and the other in Delray Beach. We speak of former Governors Richard Hughes and William Cahill. These outstanding sons of New Jersey are no less proud of their state than Tom Kean. But they, in common with Tom Kean, seek refuge from business pressures by going out of state, thus isolating themselves from the continuing relationship they established with thousands of people over many years of public service.

We encourage Tom Kean to recharge his batteries at Fire Island in order that he may vigorously address the problems of his people and his state, carping critics notwithstanding.

Compromise now

It has taken fourteen months for the citizens of Belleville to successfully oppose the commissioner's grandiose plan for a $10 million municipal complex. The cause was just: The township simply could not afford it.

Unfortunately, the long battle has delayed construction of a sorely needed public safety building which a clear majority of townspeople demand, according to a recent Belleville Times readers poll.

But if an expanded, efficient public safety building was sorely needed fourteen months ago, that need has been dramatically increased in light of developments that have occurred since then.

The crime rate in Essex County has skyrocketed by 15%. Murders are up 38%. A drug epidemic, spearheaded by a vicious cocaine derivative called 'crack' has strained law enforcement capacities at both municipal and county levels. And it looks like things will get worse before they get better.

The good news is that both sides of the municipal complex controversy have recently demonstrated a renewed willingness to negotiate, with commissioners scaling back their plan to include only a public safety building, which township activists support.

Today, the only hurdle left appears to be agreeing on a price tag for the long-awaited public safety building. The commissioners say $5 million or less, while The Concerned Citizens of Belleville, Inc. (the township's leading activist group) say $3 million at the most. Can this $2 million stumbling block be overcome? Can citizens and elected officials agree on a price tag somewhere in the middle?

One thing is certain, the township can not afford to wait until after the May, 1987 municipal elections to break ground on a new public safety building.

The township can not afford to do nothing, build nothing, while county-wide crime, reflecting this year's drug abuse trends, rises yet again.

Rescind the original $10 million bond ordinance, roll up the shirt sleeves, and compromise NOW!

C.B.

Residents in favor of town hall plan

To the editor:

After six months, we the parents of Frank Richlan (the architect commissioned to build the Town Hall Complex) are writing so we can give an opinion on the matter. There will be accusations of "vested interest," so be it. We also have been tax payers for 45 years and have written to your newspaper regarding other subjects and matters.

Yes, a new building will make a difference. Remember that also the monies derived from the sale of property which are being used for various town offices all over town, plus the taxes forthcoming from them will add to the town coffers. Commissioner Ralph DiRugiero made it very clear in his letter to the Times of March 3, 1986. Belleville has very few long term debts and is in sound financial condition.

A few words about the ring leaders and trouble makers, namely Mr. Frantantoni and Mr. Vander Zwan. The abuse to which our Commissioners have been subjected is horrendous. At a recent meeting Gabe Nazzola alluded to our son with a foul mouth, filthy expression, while our son stood at the podium. An apology is in order from you Mr. Nazzola, even if you say it may be a part of your regular daily speech.

People will not attend meetings if they are not allowed to voice their opinion. If it's Pro new building, they get shouted down. Have heard said our son is a very patient man, we think they mean a gentleman. To have Herbert Beckhard, a highly respected architect in the U.S., witness the goings makes us feel ashamed.

Mr. Frantantoni and Mr. Vander Zwan, since it's rumored one of you aspires to sit in a Commissioners seat, let's have another long letter to the Editor from you both, as to your business and educational background, no calling you at home.

Frank graduated from No. 7 School, Seton Hall Prep, Catholic University of Washington, Columbia University with a Masters on a Scholarship. Let's show some courtesy for all at the next meeting.

There is no Civic Pride, when it's said the "building is too beautiful for Belleville." Nothing should be too beautiful if you cared about it. How about people told at the door before the meeting, "Be sure to make a lot of noise tonight."

Visit the Town Hall, see how antiquated and inadequate the facilities are. Town employees deserve better. Taxes always go up and mostly have nothing to show for it. The new building will show us something worthwhile. A Civic Center is a good place for young people in particular, many towns have them. For a house assessed at $50,000, the increase would be $1.0 yearly and at one assessed at $40,000 it would be less than a hundred. Too many people and home owners seem to think the assessed amount is also the selling price, not so. Belleville's tax rate is the lowest in our area, remember we will surely become another Newark, Hillside or East Orange. The selling price of a home then will surely go down, and fast.

We elected 5 good men. Stick to your original plan — show your strength. Remember President Reagan when he said "Back to work in 48 hours or you're fired." He lost no votes, instead he won by a landslide.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richlan
Dwight Ave.

Republican candidates thank voters

To the editor:

The following is a letter to the voters of Essex County:

While the voting in the Republican primary was light because we were not involved in a heated primary election, we are grateful to the voters who did visit the polls to express their preferences.

We are grateful also for the opportunity to represent the Republican party in our effort to provide responsive and responsible government to the surrogate and county executive offices.

Voters interested in an improvement in our county government, we're sure, will want to vote the Amato-Orechio team on Tuesday, November 4, 1986. Many thanks.

Nick Amato for county executive
Carl Orechio for county surrogate

Commissioner Joseph Grande thanked

To the editor:

An open letter to Commissioner Grande:

After many requests that went unanswered, before Commissioner Grande took over the Public Works Department, I recently called again concerning a section of broken street curbing in front of my house, which was a hazard.

I was really surprised when the Commissioner personally came to inspect the problem at night, suggested a remedy and as he promised, the work was satisfactorily completed by his masons Rocco and helper.

Keep up the good work Commissioner Joseph Grande.

Respectfully yours,
Louis Mee
90 Melrose Street
Belleville, N.J.

Commissioner Pizzi's help appreciated

To the editor:

Last week I failed to thank Commissioner Mike Pizzi for all his help with our annual charity boxing show.

Commissioner Pizzi secured the box for these bouts. No bout can be put on without the doctor's examination. This is to insure the safety of the boxers. It's also a state law.

A belated thanks,
Ray Spencer, President

The parable of the church that died

By The Rev. Gerald A. Fortunato
Silver Lake Baptist Church

There was a man who lived during the 20th century. He had a new living room, two cars, color television, and his family was in the best of health.

His custom — when he was in town, when the fish were not biting, when he was not on the beach or at the lake, when he had no weekend guests, when he could get up on time, when he was not too tired, or when he had nothing else to do — was to go to church. When he went, he spent his time deploring the decaying state of the church, criticizing the pastor and other members of the church who were not as good — "This time," as he thought himself to be — "Sunday School attendance was low. The music poor, the congregation small, the offering smaller still, and the pastor discouraged."

"They ought to do better," he said, "what do they think religion is all about, anyway?"

Many vacations and days off came and went. According to the way of the world, this man's children grew up. They did not go to church (following the example of their parents of course). The reason for their lack of interest in the church, according to their father, however, was due to the fact that the people at the church were all hypocrites and they could not stir up enough interest in his children's religion. The man's health soon failed.

One day he noticed something strange. Those people down at the church no longer came by. They did not call. The pastor no longer sent little notes in the mail. The man went into the hospital and no one came to visit him. And he was very lonely.

But being a great-hearted man, he decided to forgive them and go to church once more. But behold, when he arrived at the church, there was no church. There was only a corner grocery store.

"Where is the church?" he demanded.

"Oh, somebody said, 'that church went out of business several years ago.'"

"Oh," cried the man in anger, "they should never have let that happen. They should never have let my church die!"

Could this ever happen to your church?

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

There are 535 members in Congress, they, not the President, make the laws. They can, with sufficient votes in both Houses, override a veto of the President. These Congress persons hail from all states and Congressional Districts of the nation. It is they who are the close representatives of the people; it is they who know and understand the problems and circumstances of their constituents and of the areas they represent. It is this propensity and address to the vexing problems of those they represent that, to a far greater extent than the President, engenders an empathy and solicitous concern to ameliorate the plight of the underprivileged; the unemployed; the aged and the poor — the need to help support education and provide moderate public transportation fares for low salaried workers and health care within the means of the average person.

What do millionaire Senators who spend several millions of dollars to get elected and supply-side advocates whose plans have failed know, not care about the rank and file little people of America?

Why, we ask, has Congress passed the Gramm-Rudman budget cuts bill, a measure patently unconstitutional (presently being litigated in the federal courts) since all bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills. WHY DID CONGRESS SUPELSELY ABOLISH THE SUPPLY-SIDE THEORY OF TAXES AND DUTY TO THE PEOPLE?

Why did Congress throw up its hands and pusillanimously and improperly delegate to the President, the right and duty of Congress only, to determine the raising of revenue and the amount of appropriations? This apparently unlawful delegation of Congressional power should be rescinded by the courts, since at no point in the constitution under Article II are such powers ascribed to the office of the President. As the old "happy warrior" of New York used to say, "Let's look at the record" of just what President Reagan proposes to do under the Gramm-Rudman bill that Congress foolishly passed.

Eliminate Agricultural Extension Service; Air carrier subsidies; Amtrak; Appalachian Regional Commission; Community service block grants; Economic Development Administration; Small Business Administration; Health professions training grants; Export import bank direct loans; General revenue sharing; Highway safety grants; Intensive Commerce Commission; Job Corps; Rural development grants; Urban development action grants; Organ transplant network; U.S. Public Health Service; Privatization; Bonneville Power Administration; Conrail; Dulles International Airport; Federal Housing Administration; National Weather Service satellites; South eastern Power Administration; Southwestern Power Administration; Washington Natl. Airport; Western Area Power Administration; Selected services of the U.S. Postal Service; Naval Petroleum Reserves in Calif. and Wyoming; Surplus federal property, including up-to 5-million acres of federal land holdings in the rural West and scores of individual parcels and buildings nationwide.

Deep Cuts — Community development block grants; EPA sewage grants; Farm credit loans; Federal employees pay hike; Federal housing subsidies; Federal migrant worker health program; Federal payments to states from timber harvests of federal lands; Federal pension and disability programs for military and civilian employees; Medicaid; Medicare; Rural cooperative lending subsidies; Scheduled military pay raises; Soil and water conservation subsidies; VA hospital construction program.

Increased User Fees — Application fees on all federal loans; Army Corps of Engineers fees for inland navigation; Coast Guard charges to private boat owners; Meat and poultry inspection fees; Grazing fees and land rentals on federal lands; National Park Service recreation fees.

Such a phantasmagorical blood bath scheme would appear to resemble the pipe-dream of a smoker of pot — surely, Congress, with all its faults, would NEVER "buy" such a madcap proposal, any member of Congress who votes for such a measure would NEVER be returned.

Stick it out!

Dear Students:

On the day of Belleville High School's graduation ceremony, I dropped by the school to pick up a list of 1986 graduates. Some of the names had been crossed off and a school official explained that these were the dropouts and failures — teenagers who, for one reason or another, never quite made it to the big day.

It made me think of another name, way back in the early eighties, that was crossed off a similar list of graduates from a high school in Bergen County. It is the name that appears after "editor" in the staff box.

I dropped out for many of the reasons teenagers drop out today. I didn't like discipline, and I thought a diploma was just a piece of paper that didn't mean much in the real world.

Boy, was I wrong! I soon found out that the only jobs I could get were in warehouses moving boxes around and in fast-food kitchens washing dishes. The money I earned wasn't even enough to buy a car. And people, both adults and peers, had little respect for me because I was, after all, a quitter.

But I was fortunate. Fed up with low paying jobs and lower self-esteem I took and passed a high school equivalency test. And although I missed the thrill of my prom and the pride of graduating on stage, at least I had that piece of paper that turned out to mean so much. With that I was able to attend public college and embark on my chosen career of journalism.

While congratulations are due to the hundreds of Belleville graduating seniors, this editorial is really aimed at the kids who were crossed off the list. Take advantage of existing night schools and state programs and get that diploma!

And to next year's seniors who have one more year of discipline, education and hard work before grabbing hold of that "piece of paper" here's one bit of advice:

Stick it out!

C.B.

Assemblymen Kelly and Zecker sponsor insurance legislation designed to contain costs hikes

The Assembly today approved two bills designed to contain costs in liability insurance actions. The measures are part of a five-bill package aimed at easing New Jersey's liability crisis.

One bill, A-2402, sponsored by Assemblyman Gerald Zecker, would require large damages awarded in liability cases be paid in installments. The bill was approved by a vote of 41-19.

Zecker, R-Passaic, Essex, vice chairman of the Assembly Insurance Committee, said any judgment awarded in excess of $200,000 for future damages would be paid in installments under a schedule approved by a court.

"The purpose of this legislation is to make the cost of judgments cheaper by permitting them to be paid out over a longer period of time," Zecker explained. "This cost containment measure is an integral part of the insurance package."

The second bill, A-2403, sponsored by Assemblyman John V. Kelly, R-Essex, would require the use of arbitration for all liability cases in which the amount in controversy is $20,000 or less. The bill was approved by a vote of 63-3.

"The purpose of this arbitration procedure is to limit costs by eliminating costly litigation in smaller cases," said Kelly, a member of the Assembly Insurance Committee.

Both bills now go to the state Senate for consideration.

Essex County seniors offered gourmet course

Older adults in Essex County have an opportunity to take advantage of gourmet cooking classes this summer at a 75 percent reduced fee.

Through a cooperative arrangement between the Essex County Division on Aging and the Cooking Studio of Kings Supermarkets, Inc., seniors can improve their culinary skills and enjoy the lunch they cook on five Mondays during July and August.

Essex County Executive Peter Shapiro said the cooking classes are a "terrific way to combine good eating and good nutrition in a sociable afternoon."

He said the new initiative, which was developed by Kathy Fruglio, nutrition coordinator for the county's aging agency, is the latest in a series of programs designed to encourage better nutrition and health maintenance for older adults.

The sessions, which normally cost $23 to $28 each, will be open for Essex older adults at a fee of $7 each. The fee includes a lesson from an experienced instructor, a cooking demonstration and the gourmet lunch.

All classes are at the Cooking Studio, 778 Morris Turnpike in Short Hills between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

County gives free training in business

The Urban League of Essex County will be accepting applications for free training in word processing and business skills development.

Classes begin in July.

To be eligible for consideration, all candidates must be an Essex County resident (17½ or older), have a high school diploma or G.E.D., and have been unemployed or underemployed for the past three months.

Persons must apply in person at the Ultra Center, 744 Broad St., Suite 307, Newark, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

BULK-PRODUCING LAXATIVES

Bulk-producing laxatives—containing methylcellulose—generally are the best choice for treating simple constipation. When products containing methylcellulose get into the intestine, they absorb water and swell. This gives the intestine a natural feeling of fullness which, in turn, stimulates movement. Although usually effective in 2 to 24 hours, they may require as long as three days. Bulk-producing laxatives may combine with the laxatives that are found in some pain relievers. They should not be taken together because they could cause these drugs to be absorbed improperly. Some bulk-producing laxatives contain psyllium which, in combination with salicylates, speeds up movement in the intestine. This causes the drug to be passed out more quickly and, thus, decreases absorption.

For a fine choice of vitamins over the counter products and gift items come to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 730-1956, 730-1958. Library receives paperback funding

The Belleville Public Library has received funding from the Home and School Association of Belleville to cover partial expenses for the library's purchase of new paperback books listed on the School District's Summer Reading List.

The Summer Reading List, in its third year of use within Belleville's elementary and middle schools, encourages reading as a year long process for learning and pleasure. The library has consistently supported the motives of the Summer Reading List and this summer as in 1984 and 1985, will feature displays and advice to aid students and youngsters in selecting good books to read.

Library Director, David Bryant, said that the financial support of the Home and School Association will enable the library to provide every title, currently in print, on the list.

"The Home and School Association does so much to help Belleville students, now they continue that effort at the public library," said Bryant.

Schools 1, 4, and 5 donated $100 each to the paperback effort. Donations from other Belleville Home and School Associations are anticipated.

Summer programs for all at Belleville public library

This summer the Belleville Public Library, 221 Washington Ave., will provide programming for all ages. In the James Co-zzarelli Children Room and the Branch Library, there will be a "Celebrate Books" reading club, beginning on June 26, with a balloon launch and a clown magician at 10:30 a.m. A NJ Environmental Center Program will follow at 1 p.m. There will be Statue of Liberty crafts programs and media presentations the week of July 1.

In all areas of the library, there will be crafts programs, games and special events, also Monday Evening Family Night programs.

For a complete listing of the library's programs, request the library's programs and crafts newsletter on your next visit to the library and register for the varied programs. Call the library at 259-9200 for further information.

Winter Wrap-up

Continuing the wrap up of the 1985-86 sports year at BHS, we move to the winter sports. The cold weather had settled in in the northeast, but the action was hot and heavy indoors.

As usual, the wrestling team put together another impressive campaign. The Buccaneers, under first year varsity coach Joe Nisiovicia, put together a 10-4 record and advanced to the state sectionals for the second straight year. Nisiovicia, replacing the near legendary Gene D'Allesandro, did a marvelous job with a very young team.

D'Allesandro and another wrestling giant, Dennis Villano, had submitted their resignations prior to the '85-86 season. However, coach Nisiovicia, the former junior varsity mentor, kept wrestling strong throughout the season.

The team had only three seniors. Tim Buckley, Dave Silletti and Mike Minichini. Buckley put together an 8-11 record. Silletti finished with an impressive 14-8-1 and Minichini, 10-8-1. Some excellent performances were turned in by Joey Cerreto, 23-4 at 116 pounds, Mike Juliano, 20-6 109, Mondo Nardone, 22-2 123, Carmine Tirone, 18-7, 142 and Marc Criscione, 20-6 at heavyweight. Lou Lucante, Phil Zamlot and John Stampone rounded out the starting squad. All three men will return next winter and figure to be key ingredients to future success.

The basketball programs finished with mixed reviews. The records weren't too impressive, but both the boys and girls basketball entries were young teams that will have a strong nucleus back in '86-87.

The boys team, under second year man Rocco Colucci, posted a 5-19 mark, somewhat improved from the 2-22 season turned in in 1984-85. Once again, Colucci had a young team that improved with experience. The Bucs faced a tough schedule against the NNJIL, Kennedy, Eastside, Montclair, Passaic, Bloomfield and Nutley were all solid entries and gave the Bucs fits all year long.

Belleville lost a number of close games, showing the team can play with the bigger conference foes. In Colucci's first year, the Bucs were blowout victims on a number of occasions.

The team had only one senior, Ronald Washington. The 6-3 center played a vital role on the team in the form of rebounding and leadership. Young players like Bob Hutchison, Ted Sochaski, Leon Puentes, Frank Morel, Chris Chiarmonte, Steve Schwed and Craig Burden give Colucci hope for the future.

Sochaski, a sophomore, led the team in scoring and has a good chance of breaking the 1,000 point career mark in his junior year. Only Phil Colalillo was able to do that in Belleville basketball history. Abdel Anderson, with over 1,300 points, is still the all time BHS scoring leader. Colalillo had a chance to break Anderson's mark in 1984, however appendicitis put a premature end to his high school career.

Karen Fucello's girls' basketball team finished with a 2-18 mark. Once again, it was a young team, with two senior starters, Desiree Johansen and Dina De Medici, were the starters with super sub Tracy Delaney, a senior, the sixth girl off the bench.

Youngsters like Judy Nehila, Laurie Dondarski, Simone Edwards, Sandy Brew, Laura Caruso, Danielle Pizzi and Racquel Melson should be much improved next year after a year of varsity experience. Nehila, a sophomore, ended up leading the team in scoring with a 12.9 ppg average. She had a career high 35 points in a conference game against Montclair.

The indoor track team showed improvement, as did the bowling team. John Tosato and Barbara Gundry were the coaches of the track team and Mike Early helped the bowling team to a third place finish in the NNJIL.

As the weather became warmer, the athletes moved outside to commence the spring season. As most of the fans know, it was an excellent campaign.

A good deal of attention was focussed to the baseball and softball squads. Both teams had excellent campaigns. The softball team posted a 26-6 mark, setting a new Belleville High record for most victories by a varsity team in a single season. Carl Corino's girls were a young entry, with just two senior starters, Desiree Johansen and Sherri Sorrentino.

Young players like Trish Tramutola, Laurie Dondarski, Laura Caruso, Danielle Walker, Cindy Ruggiero and Maryanne McArthur will return next year and figure to keep the program solid. Of course, you can't say enough about sophomore pitcher Jeanine Luzzi. All she did was set a record for most victories by a Belleville pitcher in a single season, 21, and earn all county and conference honors.

The baseball team, under Ralph LaCerte, posted a 20-11 record, marking the first time the program has won 20 games since 1981. Unlike softball, the baseball team was built around a number of excellent seniors. Dave Long, Alan Huopp, John Aurienmima, Tim Coffey and Joe Perna. Underclassmen Jim Dunphy, Dave McNeill, Lou Lucante, Dean Mauro, Bob Hutchison and Ernie Brodie will return next season and should keep the program in good condition.

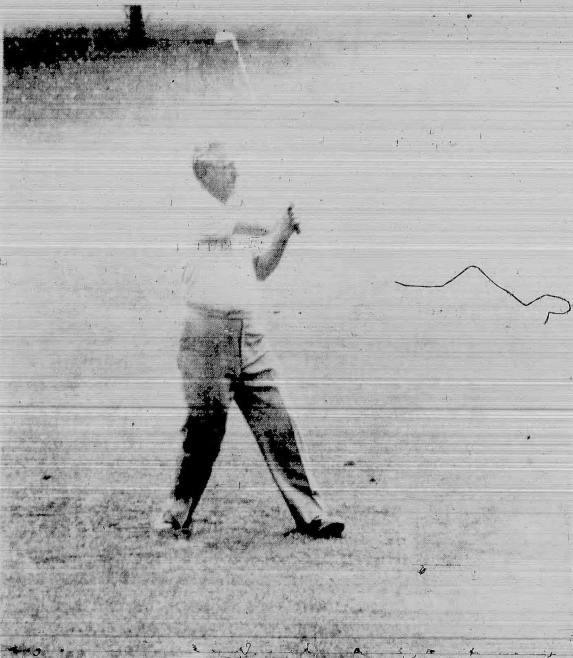

The crew team, after three straight national titles from 1982-85 from the girls' team, had a rebuilding job in '86. Sam Giuffrida's squad handled it very well. The boys' senior four did an excellent job down the stretch and the boys' freshman boat improved all season long. The girls' junior and senior four showed improvement and should be even better next year.

Willie Chandler and Craig Burden led the track team to a good season. Chandler, a senior, set a number of school records in the sprinting events and won the NNJIL championship in the 100 and 200 meters. Burden, a junior, was an excellent middle and long distance runner. Joyce Luongo had a good season for the girls' team.

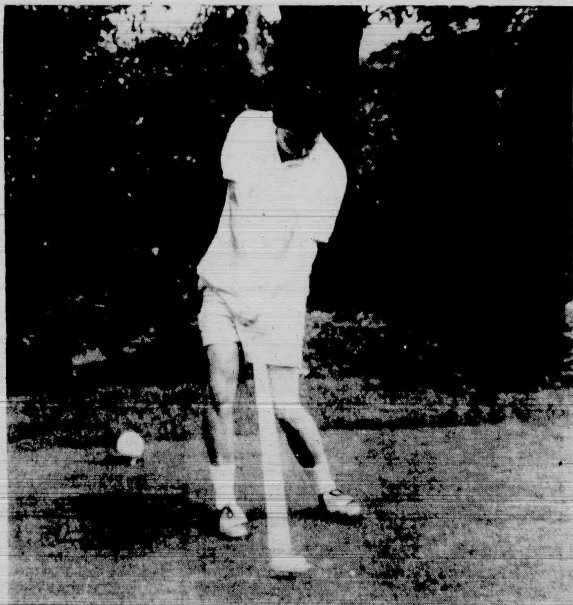

Rocco Colucci's golf team posted a .500 record in a rebuilding season. Colucci is looking to a number of young players to keep his team on top in '87.

All told, it was an exciting and successful year of athletics at BHS. With a number of young athletes having gained varsity experience, it leads you to believe that the 1986-87 school year should provide continued enjoyment for BHS sports fans.

Belleville recreation offers free tennis lessons to kids

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that Tennis Lessons will be provided free of charge to all Belleville youngsters ages 8-16. Tennis lessons will be given at the Belleville Municipal Stadium Tuesday and Thursday mornings beginning July 1, for 6 weeks (last day, August 7). Participants must wear sneakers and provide their own racquet and balls. The schedule is as follows:

Ages 8-11: 9 to 10 a.m., ages 12-16: 10 to 11 a.m.

The lessons will be conducted by Belleville High School tennis coach Tony Salese. Interested participants can register with the instructor when they arrive at the courts. Anyone who takes part in the summer clinic can possibly be eligible for indoor tennis during the winter. For further details and to register see the instructor at the courts.

Some 140 golfers braved threatening clouds and then oppressive heat Monday, June 16, during the Belleville Recreation Department's Annual Golf Tournament. Amidst yells of "Fore" the golfers hit the links at the Forest Hill Field Club in Bloomfield for golf, cocktails and dinner in what has become a tradition for Belleville officials, residents, employees and guests.

Belleville's Skippy Squarrito shot the best round of the day, a 73 to capture the overall low gross trophy, but not all the golf was that good.

"I started good on the front nine with a par, another par, and then I went haywire," said Belleville Mayor Michael Marotti, who shot a 101.

Eighth District Republican Congressional candidate Thomas Zampino also had a tough day.

"Since Bob Roe (Democrat incumbent) has 48 years in Congress, I had an 18 on the first hole in his honor," Zampino said.

Gene O'Brien won the trophy for Town Resident Low Gross shooting a 78. Mike Ciallella of the Public Works Department was the Low Gross Town Employee with an 86. The Resident Low Net award went to John Valle with a 72. Belleville's Code Enforcement Officer Robert Domenick was the Town Employee Low Net with a 74.

Other awards went to Lou Luzzi for the closest to the pin tee shot on the fifth hole at one foot, nine inches and Brian Savarese had the longest drive on the 12th hole. Belleville Police Chief George Lister was awarded the Belleville PBA's annual award, given in memory of Detective Martin McNish.

The most cherished award of the day, the Township of Belleville's Duffer Award was given to the most honest golfer of the day, Detective Vincent Cappetta. Cappetta shot, in the words of township treasurer Isadore Padula, "a whopping 155."

Buccanettes rack 3 wins, make playoffs

The Belleville entry in the 7th-8th grade girls Suburban League chalked up three more wins to return their record to 10 wins, 3 losses on the season. The Buccanettes rolled over Summit 25-5 at Summit. A seven run first inning was all the team needed to win. Cheryl Puleo, Denise Zecca, Stacy Johansen, and Tony Costa led the offense, with Costa hitting her first homer. Johansen gained the pitching win in relief for Belleville.

In a tight defensive game, the Buccanettes defeated a much improved Cedar Grove squad by a 3 to 1 score. Johansen clubbed a 2 run homer in the third inning, and Amanda Fabiano doubled home a run in the fourth to lead the offense. Johansen hurled a one-hitter and struck out eight.

West Caldwell came to town needing a win to clinch a tie for first place in the division and defeated Belleville 5-3. Poor fielding by the Buccanette defense led to four unearned Caldwell runs. Belleville was held to just 4 hits, with Johansen slamming a 2 run homer in the first. Moyer caught a good game in a losing effort.

Getting back on track in a big way, the girls bombed Verona 22-2. The team played well on defense, while on offense Treacia Donnelly, Lori Moyer, Jennifer Bridge, and Diane Dinicenzo hit the ball well, with Donnelly going 4 for 4 with two doubles. Johansen pitched a 5-hitter to her ninth win.

The Belleville Buccanettes have qualified for the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year. The results of these games will be published in the next week edition.

Buccaneers are ready for summer of hoopla

Summer is here. That time of year when the beach and vacation take center stage. There is plenty of warm weather, cookouts and baseball games. Probably the last sport a fan would think of now is basketball, but for the local Belleville basketball hopefuls, the season is just beginning.

For the fifth straight year, the Buc basketball team is in a summer league. From 1982-84, it was the Bloomfield league, with competition coming from local communities and NNJL teams. Last season, the Bucs played in two leagues, competing in the Bloomfield and the highly touted Elizabeth league. In Elizabeth, Belleville faced some of the best teams in the state and gained tremendous experience.

This summer, the Bloomfield league has folded and all attention is now turned to Elizabeth, where the Bucs will battle some powerful teams.

"It's going to be a battle," said head coach Don Roll, the assistant coach during the regular basketball season that starts in November. "The kids played in this league last summer, so they know what has to be done to be competitive. I think we have a good team this summer. We have some experience and the team is hungry."

The league begins play on Monday night, June 30. There will be two games a week, held on Monday and Wednesday nights. All games are played at the Thomas Dunn Arena in Elizabeth. Game times are 6 and 7:30 p.m. Because of the prestige of the Elizabeth league, the divisions will be divided into two, with eight teams in each division. Belleville will play each team in its division twice, for a total of 14 regular season games.

To give you an idea of the competition, Belleville's divisional rivals consist of Elizabeth, Columbia, Weequahic, Barringer, Plainfield, Irvington and St. Patrick's of Elizabeth. All of the teams, with the exception of St. Patrick's are Group IV schools with a lot of talent. Barringer posted a 22-3 record last season, Plainfield won a state championship back in 1983 and is always strong. Elizabeth captured the state title in 1985 and were one of the states best last season. Columbia, Weequahic and Irvington are usually solid entries and St. Patrick's is a good Parochial team.

Last season, Belleville won two games in the Elizabeth league, then pulled off a major upset in the first round of the playoffs by defeating Columbia High. The Bucs were then defeated in the semi finals by Don Bosco Tech in a close three point contest.

This season, the prognosis is strong. Belleville recently added a 6'6" forward, a transfer student from Atlantic City High named Wayne Barnes. From early indications, Barnes can definitely help the team.

"He has good leaping ability and natural instincts," Roll said. "He needs work on posting up and the baby hook shot, but he has the tools."

Barnes will be a junior this fall at Belleville High and could provide the team with a much needed big man up front.

Joining Barnes will be another junior, Ted Sochaski. Most fans in the area know all about him. He has excellent skills and is a prolific scorer. Sochaski, a forward, has been working hard since the end of the regular basketball season in March and is ready for a big summer.

Upcoming senior Chris Goldrick completed a good track season and is in good shape. The forward has good leaping ability and can shoot very well.

The Bucs will be without the services of senior Bob Hutchison. The forward with the deadly shooting eye is recovering from surgery on his jaw and will be out of action for most of the summer. He will, however, be 100 percent for the start of the regular season.

Junior Leon Puentes will anchor the backcourt. He has started since his freshman year and has all talent necessary.

Some other familiar names on this summer's team are Frank Morel, John Morel, Mark Huamani, Chris Chiarmonte, Loung La, Wally Davilla, Steve Schwed, Arnold Lumbao and Pete Gerst.

"We've been practicing for about three weeks," said Roll.

"We're working with a new high post offense, similar to the one at UCLA. This enables more back door cuts for our scorers. The players are getting adjusted to the new formation, so when the regular season starts in a few months, it won't be something brand new."

All tolled, Roll feels the team is doing well in the early going.

"We'll see what happens when the summer schedule opens up next Monday," he said. "So far, it looks pretty good."

Recreation Softball Results

The Expos posted their first victory of the season by defeating the Clippers 3-1. The victory moved the Expos to third place in the Pee Wee League.

In the Pictal League, the Royals lost to the Angels by a score of 8-2, but bounced back to defeat the Dodgers 4-2. The Reds and the Dodgers played to a 1-1 tie, following the Reds loss to the Indians 8-6.

The Jaguars lost a slugfest to the Panthers 24-20 and continued their hot hitting with a 2-1 victory of the Leopards. The Jaguars and the Leopards are tied for second place in the junior league.

Johansen, Long - outstanding BHS athletes

Every year at this time, Belleville High School holds its commencement exercises and some 400 seniors bid farewell to BHS. Hopefully, most will leave with good memories of the school and certainly, the hope is that all the seniors find happiness and good luck in their future endeavors.

There were some very impressive seniors on the sporting scene at Belleville High, upperclassmen that gave not only their athletic ability, but more importantly, their leadership role. The seniors of '86 played an important role to the younger athletes that hope to keep Belleville High on top in future seasons.

For the next few weeks, we will highlight some of those seniors. This week, a look at Desiree Johansen and Dave Long.

Johansen, a three letterwoman, competed for the tennis, basketball and softball teams. She earned post season honors in softball for her play at shortstop. Despite a busy schedule in sports, she found the time to get straight A's during the second marking period. She was honored by a number of organizations for her marvelous contributions to athletics at BHS.

When this reporter thinks of Desiree Johansen, he remembers a young, shy, non talkative freshman that showed marvelous potential on the basketball court. The only player left who played on that marvelous 1983-84 squad that featured Jennifer Apicella, Dina De Aquino and Co. Johansen did her job in a quiet and effective manner.

She led the team in scoring in her junior year, with an 11 ppg average. This past season, she captained a team that finished just 2-18. She sacrificed her scoring abilities to handle the ball against opposing presses. Johansen had never played point guard until her senior year, but did it with no complaining and the concern of watching her young teammates improve.

Losing 18 games in 20 attempts might have frustrated some players, but Johansen took it in stride. She never changed her easy going personality and was a pleasure to speak with, win or lose.

On a more positive side, she posted an 11-3 record playing first singles for the tennis team. If you follow tennis, then you know that first singles in this area means you're playing some of the best singles players in the state. Johansen followed some pretty good first singles players at BHS: Carolann Salerno, Denise Giuliano, Kim Indero, Cheri Tillman and Rose Leonidis were all outstanding players and Johansen can safely put her name with those outstanding former BHS players.

Finally, she earned all county and NNJIL honors for her outstanding play at shortstop for the softball team. The senior set school records for most at bats in a career and most games played. Once again, she was an upperclassman on a team filled with freshman, sophomores and juniors. Johansen and Sherri Sorrentino were the only seniors on the team. The softball team finished 26-6 this spring, setting a record for most victories by a varsity team at BHS in a season.

Desiree Johansen was a class competitor. She brought a refreshing, competitive nature to her respective sport. She got the job done and will leave BHS as one of its best athletes. Good luck to this fine young lady.

Another fine athlete, Dave Long, was an outstanding football and baseball player. The senior played linebacker for John Senesky over the past two years, earning a reputation for hard hitting and smartness on the gridiron. He can also add his name to an impressive list of past linebackers at BHS: Phil Gerza, Craig Mack, Ricky Racioppi and Bob Mozeika were some of the past linebackers that excelled at BHS. Certainly,

Long can be included in that company.

Long's big talent came in baseball and he quickly made a name for himself on the varsity. As a sophomore, Long earned a varsity position and over the past two seasons, provided power and steady fielding in the outfield.

Long set a new record for most RBI's in a career, breaking the old mark set by Frank Fazzini. Long helped the Bucs to a 20-11 mark this spring and a final round appearance in the Greater Newark Tourney, where Belleville lost a heartbreaking 9-8 decision to Columbia.

Like Johansen, Long did his job in a quiet, but effective manner. He got the results on the field and has a bright future in store. Good luck to him as he continues his athletic career.

Next week, we'll take a look at two more senior athletes at Belleville High.

Fall sports applications currently available from Recreation Dept.

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1986 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation Department office. Boys and girls ages 7-14 may participate in Recreation Soccer. Belleville resident children who will be 7 by December 31 and who will be no older than 14 on December 31, 1986 are eligible. Nobody above 8th grade can play and all the returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8-10 can play Touch Football, if they so choose. Belleville boys who will be 8 by December 31 and who will be no older than 10 on December 31, 1986 are eligible. All returning players must re-apply.

For both Soccer and Touch Football, all completed applications must be turned in to the Recreation Department, 407 Jorammon Street, with birth certificates no later than Friday, September 5, 1986. Children are limited to register in one fall sport only — therefore, boys cannot play in both these activities or in tackle football if they play Soccer or Touch Football.
