Board tables hiring of Bruno Associates

By Christopher Bifani

The Bloomfield firm of Bruno Associates was the subject of public debate at Monday's town meeting, when several citizens voiced opposition to the hiring of that firm for the purpose of soliciting federal grant money. Gabriel Nazzola, Vice President of The Concerned Citizens of Belleville, Inc., argued that the town might be able to save money by having their own people in the finance department fill out the various forms and applications—the complicated paperwork that gets the grant process rolling. Nazzola further stated that county, state and federal funding programs often provide application assistance for free and encouraged the board of commissioners to look into that area.

Another prominent citizen who voiced opposition to the hiring of Bruno Associates was Joe Dasaro, the Executive Director of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency. Although Dasaro does not often see eye to eye with the CCB on many Belleville issues, he was in line with the group on his opposition to the hiring of Bruno Associates, who would be paid

Drug program planned for Belleville schools

Commissioner Ralph J. DiRuggiero has announced that the Belleville Police Department, in conjunction with the Board of Education and the Consolidated Association of the Belleville Schools, is planning a drug education program for Belleville schoolchildren.

a film about drug abuse and a brief presentation on the proper use of drugs. Following the formal presentation, the children will be asked to sign a pledge promising not to use drugs. Coloring books, badges and other educational material will also be distributed.

DiRuggiero said plans are underway to introduce the statewide "Defenders Against Drugs" program to public and parochial schoolchildren in kindergarten through 4th grades. Belleville would be the first community in Essex County to participate in this program, DiRuggiero said. The Commissioner of Public Safety said the Police Department is currently soliciting funds from area corporations, businesses and service clubs to offset the $4,500 cost of the program, which is expected to begin in early 1987.

"The drug problem has become a national epidemic, affecting every segment of society," said DiRuggiero. "It requires a coordinated approach by both law enforcement and the schools and that is what the Defenders Against Drugs program provides. It is also essential to educate our children about the perils of drug abuse at the earliest possible age."

The program, which is being coordinated by Detective Joseph Rotondo of the Belleville Police Department, involves the use of

"This program will strip drugs of the glamour that is sometimes associated with them," said DiRuggiero. "We hope to create a sense among our children that drugs are evil and dangerous. We want to help our kids feel good about saying 'no' to drugs."

The Defenders Against Drugs program was developed by the New Jersey Narcotic Enforcement Officers Association and has been in use in New Jersey communities for about two years. Detective Rotondo has been developing the program for Belleville for about five months.

DiRuggiero said the program has the solid support of Mayor Michael V. Marotti, the other Commissioners and Board of Education President Phil Lintante.

The program will be privately funded. All monies will be received, distributed and accounted for by the Consolidated Association of the Belleville Schools, according to Eileen Brown, chairperson of the association. Contributions may be made to Defenders Against Drugs program, P.O. Box 684, Belleville, NJ 07109.

Reading and writing skills debated at school board meet

By Howard Klausner

The Board of Education expressed concern about efforts to raise the reading and mathematics levels of public school students, at Monday's session, despite assurances by school officials that progress was being made.

At one point, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally said, "I'm not going to stand by and hear the whole burden being laid on the ninth grade. This is a K-9 operation and everyone is involved."

His protest followed discussions of test results for ninth graders, which showed them to be ahead of the county and state average, but below the average for neighboring towns.

Trustee Barbara Cicalese asked that Superintendent Michael Nardello supply the board with monthly reports, indicating how the principals of the grade school were carrying out new programs to intensify education.

I could give you a report saying that pages one through nine of a text had been assigned and read," Nardello said, "but what would it tell you?"

He added, "The proof of the pudding will be the test results in December."

Test results, particularly those given under the state-wide High School Student Proficiency program, showed that 77 percent of the Belleville High School students passed the English test.

The goal this year is 88 percent, one school official said. Efforts by teachers to improve the students' learning abilities had reached the point, another official said, where some of these teachers will be turned out in two or three years.

School officials said it was up to the school board to provide additional funds for more teachers, texts and equipment, to achieve the gains its wants.

Trustee Dr. Anthony D'Agostino argued that better management was needed to coordinate and evaluate ongoing programs.

Paul Cummis, reading supervisor for the schools, said students did "extremely well on the tests" taking into account the variables found within the community.

"We are classified as urban suburban," Cummis said, "and within that category, there were more affluent communities with higher test scores."

Despite that, Cummis said that measurable improvements are being made in reading skills, and that the 83.5 percent average score in the Belleville schools, on state wide, tests, was a very good average.

The school officials outlined the programs now being pursued to improve student skills, with an emphasis on heavy homework and more tests.

At this point, Cicalese raised the issue of monthly reports by the school principals, which Lally and Nardello protested.

One official summed up the HSPT program (High School Student Proficiency Test) as standing for Hell, Strain, Pain and Torture. In other business, the board named Charles Miele as acting board secretary, and proclaimed Nov. 15 through Nov. 22 as Public Education Week, when parents will be invited to visit the schools.

Essex United Way kicks off campaign

By Pat de la Perra

The United Way of Essex and West Hudson, the blanket organization covering 13 towns including Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield recently kicked off its 1986-87 campaign with a record goal of $10.8 million at a luncheon in Newark.

The goal for the Belleville residential campaign is $1,968 according to Ina Green, who coordinates the Belleville campaign out of the United Way Nutley office at 169 Chestnut Street.

"We send out letters at the end of September, and follow up with a phone call November 1st at night with several volunteers doing the calling out of the office. We follow up with a second mailing," Green said.

In addition to the residential campaign, the United Way conducts a campaign in schools and local government through donor option where employees contribute to the agency of their choice. Also, businesses are solicited.

Green asked anybody who would like to give to send their donation to the United Way, 169

Chestnut St. Nutley, NJ 07110. Checks should be made out to the United Way.

The United Way campaign runs from September to December. From January to October, allocations are made to the agencies that receive United Way funds.

Among the Belleville agencies that receive United Way funds are the Cerebral Palsy Center of Essex and West Hudson and the Community Mental Health Center of Belleville. Bloomfield and Nutley The Cerebral Palsy Center received $144,700 in 1986 to provide physically and mentally handicapped with therapy and care, special education and recreation. The Community Mental Health Center received $62,000 in 1986 for mental health services, counseling and crisis intervention, companionship and recreation.

This year for the first time, the United Way campaign will have a mascot—a stray dog Frederick G. Meissner Jr., the general campaign chairman, picked up on Route 280 and gave a home.

"I call the dog 'Lucky' and he represents the will to survive and conviction to win that we're going to need to meet this year's goal," said Meissner.

Lucky has been visiting the agencies that receive United Way funds.

Commission to review executive government

By George Kroll

Areas covered by Orechio Publications newspapers were not successful in electing anyone to the Charter Study Commission in the Nov. 4 contest that saw 45 candidates go to the voters for six years.

The top seven winners from the field of 45 in the order of finish are: Newark Councilman Donald Tucker, 14,608 votes; Short Hills resident Donald L. Campbell, 13,754; Samuel A. Spina, 11,649; mayor of West Garden, Philip Retondu, 11,587; former county supervisor and funeral director from Newark, Ann Cooper, 11,212; former Milburn councilwoman Fran Aschuro, 10,851; Newark North Ward Democratic chairwoman and Thomas P. Goblin, 10,423; Essex County Freeholder vice president who resides in Montclair.

Following in close order were Newark City Council President Henry Martinez, 10,369; and Raymond Cadey, who serves as chief of staff to County Executive Peter Shapiro. Cadey received 10,239 votes.

Nutley candidate James M. Pro finished in the 27th position receiving 6,421 tallies. Bloomfield's Robert Russo finished 29th with 6,152 votes and Anthony V. Petrillo, also from Bloomfield, received 5,723 votes. John G. Grewert from Belleville was last with 2,365 votes. Grewert is a law partner of Pro.

The binding referendum was placed on the ballot by a resolution sponsored by the freeholders last summer after several Essex County cities threatened to pull away and form their own county. They blamed Shapiro for causing a 22 percent increase in county property taxes.

Voters apparently believed he was the cause and voted him out of office. He was upset by former Democratic surrogate turned Republican Nicholas Amato, an attorney who lives in Verona and is a Belleville native.

The charter study question—the idea of the freeholders—was opposed by the Citizens for Charter Change who lost their battle in court. They alleged that the proposal to study the Essex County form of government was merely a smoke screen established to beguile voters into believing that such a commission will solve our fiscal crisis.

Shot-luck affair

Turkey Shoot winners

The Belleville Recreation Department's 20th Annual Turkey Shoot once again was blessed with fair weather on November 2, 1986, but this year's turnout was somewhat of a disappointment. Only 336 resident pilgrims tried their luck in this year's shoot, which is approximately 175 fewer than 1986. The winning sharpshooters who did attend, however, received $8.00 gift certificates towards turkeys or merchandise at the Pathmark of Belleville on Washington Avenue.

Winners were: William Agosto, Jr., Danielle Ambrosino, Nick Baneky, Paul Baneky, Robert Barretta, Randy Baumann, Dawson Bloom, Bob Boyer (3), Carol Boyer, Jim Boyer (2), Joe Boyer (2), Richie Boyer (3), Frank Carlucci, Bob Cassin, Robert Fetch (3), Walt Jordan, Tony Lombardi, Jr., Anthony Marotti, Michael Mermin, Scott McDonald, John Melillo, Marty Murphy, Eric Nordmann, Dom Olive, Gina Pasquale, Frank Petite, Frank Portelli, Douglas Ritschel, Michael Salzano (2), Frank Seibilia, Tom Sheehan, Tom Wilson and Russell Zarnoff.

The highest possible score is 30 points, but this year's highest tally was 25 points by Marty Murphy. Other scores in the 20's were: Jim Boyer (23), Richie Boyer (22), Carol Boyer (21), Jim Boyer (20), Bob Boyer (20), Frank Petite (20), and Robert Barretta (20).

An Ode to Peter:

Lord, are you trying to tell me something?

For—

Failure doesn't mean I've been disgraced.

It does mean I dared to try.

Failure doesn't mean I should give up.

It does mean I must try harder.

Failure doesn't mean I'll never make it.

It does mean I need more patience.

Failure doesn't mean you have abandoned me.

It does mean you must have a better idea!

Nicholas Amato

Former Essex County Surrogate Nicholas Amato won a resounding victory over eight-year incumbent Peter Shapiro. Amato's victory was in the neighborhood of 14,000 votes, a large margin of victory by anybody's measure.

Nick Amato deserved to win. He was telling the voters the truth while Mr. Shapiro was distorting the truth and blaming everybody but himself for the financial mess which confronts the county today.

County Executive-Elect Nick Amato assumes his responsibilities on Jan. 1. Until that time, Mr. Shapiro has the responsibility for an orderly transition of government business. As a lame duck official, Mr. Shapiro should refrain from committing Nick Amato to a course of conduct laid down by Shapiro during the post election period, and until that time when Nick Amato is as County Executive.

Shapiro says he was "...sandbagged by Essex County Democrat Chairman Ray Durkin and other Democrat Party leaders." Another excuse for his loss advanced by Mr. Shapiro was that the State Republican Party committed hundreds of thousands of dollars to his defeat. Still another excuse Mr. Shapiro gave for his defeat was the support Nick Amato received from Governor Tom Kean. In this regard, Shapiro said, "I thought beating me last year was enough for Tom Kean and I don't know why he campaigned against me this year for the County Executive's seat." Mr. Shapiro has political smarts. He can't be so dumb as he wants us to believe he is, when he observes that it was his expectation that Governor Kean would not come to Essex County to take a stand in favor of Republican candidate Nick Amato. Essex County is Tom Kean's home county. Kean lives in Livingston, New Jersey. Tom Kean has every right to tell the public who he thinks can best serve the public as Essex County Executive.

Peter Shapiro's post election comments were strictly sour grapes — bitter grapes at that. In our memory, we cannot recall a losing candidate who manifested so little grace in losing an election.

The most significant statements to come out of the post election period were those made by a Peter Shapiro spokesman, publicist Fred Hillman. In the Thursday, Nov. 6 edition of the Philadelphia Inquirer, the following paragraph appeared: "According to Hillman, the feeling among many of the 'old guard' Democrats was that Shapiro 'is not one of us — he's younger, he's smarter, he's handsomer, he's Jewish.' In Hil-lman's view, the Amato-Shapiro race exacerbated the rift between Italians and Jews in Essex. And Newark's black voters, he said, just didn't think they had a stake in the outcome of the race."

These remarks from Mr. Hillman call for a repudiation by Peter Shapiro of Mr. Hillman and the thoughts he expressed.

As an Italo-American in the stream of Essex County politics for the past 50 years, we have not seen a "rift" between Italians and Jews in Essex. Lord knows, the Jews of this world need all the friends they can get. And the Italo-Americans are among their best friends — Hillman notwithstanding.

It should be noted that Mr. Hillman's wife is a Trenton lobbyist on Shapiro's payroll at $28,000 per year. We hope the pending loss of her job may have emotionally disturbed Mr. Hillman to the point of making the foregoing, irrational statements.

As an added starter, Peter Shapiro blames the increase county taxes as a major reason for his loss. It is typical of Peter Shapiro to point the finger outward toward anybody in sight — placing the blame for things gone wrong upon other people, upon other shoulders, and upon other public bodies. Throughout the recent campaign, Peter Shapiro blamed the Democrat Essex County Board of Freeholders for the tax increase — and for good measure, he repeatedly attacked Democrat Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alessio.

More than anything else, in retrospect, it appears that Shapiro's lack of humility and his campaign against the Democrat Essex County Freeholders and his tirade against Essex County's most popular Democrat, Sheriff Tom D'Alessio did him in. If Peter Shapiro had any credibility with the voters, his story about the blame for the tax increase would have been accepted by the voters. The fact of the matter is, he lost credibility with the voting public. In his comments about the tax rate and trying to explain the county's unpaid bills, Mr. Shapiro's intellectual dishonesty came through loud and clear — and he well deserved the defeat he suffered.

In a post election comment, Mr. Shapiro spoke of the support he received from the media with the following remarks, "I was supported by all the respected newspapers in Essex County." Amen, Mr. Shapiro, may God show you more mercy than you have demonstrated toward those who sought your defeat. Mr. Shapiro, eight years ago you came into office as a class act and today you leave office with an act of your own, but without class.

'Doc' Ellis Field debated...

To the editor:

I attended a town meeting on October 28th, listened to the items on the agenda, and was amazed at the arrogance of some of the town officials. They seem to forget they are chosen to be the servants of the people, for the people, etc.

A member from the Concerned Citizens organization requested that consideration be given to the naming of the municipal stadium to "Doc Ellis Field." Mayor Marotti responded by saying he had others in mind, who probably were more deserving or something to this effect.

Mayor Marotti should acquaint himself with the dedication Bill (Doc) Ellis gave to the youth of Belleville gratis, for approximately 35 years. I wonder how many more Mayor Marotti can name who have done as much, or does he have intentions of naming the stadium in honor of some political figure?

I suggest you former football players, who know what Doc Ellis did, speak up and inform those in authority of your feelings in this matter. Varsity club members could circulate petitions throughout the town, and thus help bring about the naming of the stadium to Doc Ellis Field.

I am a firm believer in the adage of American ending in I can, in this case with the help of all concerned, we can accomplish a deserving tribute to Doc Ellis.

Library lauded...

To the editor:

While attending a recent reception for the remaining of the Silver Lake branch of the Belleville Public Library in honor of Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, I was struck once again by what a critical role the public library plays in our community.

Our main library building on Washington Avenue was built through the philanthropy of Andrew Carnegie who provided the funds for the construction of Carnegie libraries in 147 towns and cities throughout the country. The Belleville Public Library was completed in 1911 at a cost of $8,000.

Carnegie, the great industrialist and philanthropist, believed that libraries offered the common man the opportunity to improve himself, to pursue learning and knowledge, and to enrich his life. He believed that Andrew Carnegie cherished it still very much alive, and that was obvious to anyone attending the reception in honor of Mrs. Shafter and the 75th anniversary of the Belleville Public Library.

Our town has changed greatly over the years, but one of the abiding influences has been the Belleville Public Library. It is there today as it was yesterday for students doing research, for book lovers who want to read the latest best seller, for adults who have returned to school or who wish to educate themselves, for children who will learn to read with books from the James J. Gozzarelli Jr. Children's Room; and for those who simply want to spend a few hours browsing through newspapers and magazines amidst that special tranquility that libraries provide in the hurly burly of the modern world.

We in Belleville are especially privileged to have people of the caliber of Barry Shafter involved with our library. Mrs. Shafter joined the Board of Trustees of the Belleville Public Library twenty-eight years ago and has served continuously since that time. She was the driving force behind the establishment of the branch library in the Number 4 School that now bears her name.

Another of the trustees, James J. Gozzarelli, Jr., spent more than 200 hours renovating the Children's Room, turning an ordinary room into a striking neo-classical space intended to inspire learning and reading. Mrs. Shafter and Mr. Gozzarelli are part of a library board that is first rate in every sense and oversee a dedicated and hard-working staff directed by the talented, capable David Bryant.

During this, the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Belleville Public Library, reflection on the role of the library in our community seems appropriate. I urge the readers of this newspaper to pay a visit to the library soon. You will surely be reminded once again as I was, that our public library is among our most important institutions.

Ralph I. DiRuggiero
Commissioner of Public Safety

Of pumpkins and politics

Politics and pumpkins: it was but a few days before Halloween and, as usual, Mr. Rega was peddling his pumpkin wares on one of those gorgeous fall days that tends to move people to avail themselves to the fast fleeting days of autumn's beauty. The crowd of customers, whether motivated by the great weather of the editor's headline "Where are you Jackie Rega?" brought them out in large numbers — business boomed and politics was life.

Several of the headlines in Belleville's political infrastructure were conspicuously noticed, expressed among the crowd — you can bet they weren't haggling over the price of pumpkins and you can be certain that much projection of future coming political events and strategy was poured into the wily, cunning that will be brewed in the coming weeks and days.

"Lure!" That pithy "Where are you Jackie Rega?" sure flushed "Jackie" Rega back into the local political mainstream that has awfully infected him from away back when he was conspired Chris Bifani, the editor, will take in a lot of good copy because of his clever captioned headline — it sure increased the sale of Jackie's pumpkins.

From our observations it would appear that considerable pressure will be exerted upon the "Lemon Ice King" to get back into the political arena in which he so prominently basked — those voters who "peppered up" just before Halloween may have had a more significant concern than just to buy pumpkins.

When questioned on the sentiments of Rega's victories, he mentioned Ralph Lardner, Nick Ramo, Peter Rattone, Al De Luna and Vinnie Vecchiare. He Rega remained hesitant to disclose his recent address from political action; hitting disappointment in the performance of some movements he had lent support to, which failed to measure up to expectations.

Mr. Rega indicated he would be more active in pending efforts to support the furtherance of "questionable" causes — henceforth he seeks integrity, truth and honesty.

Notwithstanding, the controversy over the selection of Frank Richlin by the Belleville community as architect for the proposed new construction of a much needed new police complex and the fees paid for his services, there appeared in the July 30, 1986 issue of the Suburban Star Ledger under the caption "All things must change" and so will office parks, says architect — an account that (large office park developments in New Jersey will likely look different from today's parks, says the Manhattan architectural firm).

According to Bechard Richlin Associates, changes in available space, building techniques and the personal tastes of space users will result in a changed form in the future.

Franc Richlin, a partner in the firm and director of the Bechard Richlin's New Jersey operations, points to the following aspects of future suburban office development: "a concealment of insight by parking lots. Parking will go underground or in multi-story garage facilities which will be treated with a high degree of architectural sensitivity.

Office parks will be developed as mini cities with shopping, entertainment, hotel services, fitness facilities and other uses complementing office buildings. An effort will be made to create a lively, people-oriented atmosphere that will cut down the use of the automobile by office workers.

Continual development of the building with high computerized energy and security services, as well as an extremely complex and intensive underpinning of telecommunications and other instantaneous communication devices.

Suburban office buildings will get taller and the size of floors will get smaller. This will be due to the increasing cost of land and the curtailment of large clerical forces through more intensive use of computerization, use of landscaping will blend the office building into a premiere suburban mode.

Special care nursery gives babies a chance

At Clara Mass Medical Center the birthright of every baby is a good start. Health first steps on the way to a lifetime of health and enjoyment.

But not all babies are born healthy. Some have hearts that just don't work right. Some have lungs that just don't breathe right. Some are born too soon and tiny. Others are hanging on to their lives. These newborns require special care.

For instance, little Kristin from Raleigh, North Carolina, has a heart that just won't pump enough blood to her lungs and that just won't stop. She was born too soon and tiny. She was born with a heart that just won't pump enough blood to her lungs and that just won't stop. She was born with a heart that just won't pump enough blood to her lungs and that just won't stop.

At Clara Mass, a special care nursery gives these babies a chance. The nursery is staffed by nurses, doctors, and respiratory therapists. The babies are kept in a warm, comfortable environment. The nurses provide the best care possible for these tiny babies.

The nursery is a place where babies can grow and thrive. The nurses provide the best care possible for these tiny babies. The nursery is a place where babies can grow and thrive. The nurses provide the best care possible for these tiny babies.

Belleville fashion students visit California in style ...

Karen Odorizzi and Donna Caruso, both of Belleville, were among 19 fashion students from The Berkeley Schools of New York and New Jersey who participated in a week long fall fashion tour of Southern California. Both Belleville residents are enrolled in The Berkeley School of Garret Mountain's fashion marketing and management program, which leads to an Associate in Applied Science degree.

"Our fashion students need exposure to American designers," explains the tour's organizer, Florence Lentz. "We should strongly support the American fashion market." Lentz is coordinator of fashion placement for The Berkeley Schools.

The tour started in San Francisco, where the group visited the national headquarters of The Gap, Esprit and Gunne Sax. They also checked merchandise at two large shopping centers to see how it compared with what is sold on the East Coast, and they took some time out for sightseeing.

"At Gunne Sax we met Jessica McCintock, the designer, who talked with us about how she does her designs," Odorizzi recalls. "We saw samples of her gowns. They are old-fashioned, pastel-colored, lacy but not with many ruffles. Her bridal gowns are ivory, not white."

A vice president of The Gap explained how they grew from a very small operation to a nation wide chain. Caruso says "He told us that they recently bought Banana Republic and that they are starting a line of Gap children's clothes."

On the road from San Francisco to Los Angeles, the group stopped at Carmel and then stayed overnight at San Simeon. The next morning, they toured the Hearst Castle at San Simeon.

"Hearst Castle is beautiful and gigantic," Odorizzi says. "The dining room has very high ceilings and a very long, narrow oak table set with silver candelabras."

In Los Angeles the group spent an entire day looking at three very different retail fashion centers.

"We started at Rodeo Drive and Wilshire Boulevard, a very deluxe shopping area," Lentz recalls.

"Next we went to Beverly Center, a truly Californian mall with three floors of stores, restaurants and theatres set atop five floors of garages. Finally we visited the Melrose area, where fashionable younger Californians shop."

"Beverly Center is like a whole town, with restaurants and night clubs, shops, a supermarket and 14 movie theatres," Caruso recalled. "Melrose is a lot like Soho in New York," Odorizzi noted. "It has unusual small shops. I remember one store was filled with clothes made of many shades of pale lace."

Next on the Los Angeles agenda was a tour of Universal Studios. "Valley is where the fashion business is going," Lentz observed. "So it's important that our students understand how film works."

The group also toured the operations of a different kind of media, The Los Angeles Times.

"The tour of Universal was great fun, even though it was raining that day and we got very wet," Caruso says. "When they were explaining special effects to us, I got into a space suit and was made to fly on strings."

At Cole of California, the bathing suit manufacturer, the group met Anne Cole, the designer-owner of the firm. The students toured the entire operation and saw all aspects of production, including the advanced laser and computer technology used for cutting the fabric at the plant.

The students also went to the Los Angeles Mall, three big buildings in which nearly every Southern California designer has a showroom.

Both Odorizzi and Caruso will be graduated from Berkeley at the end of this year. Both are 1985 graduates of Belleville High School. Odorizzi lives with her parents, Rudi and Judy Odorizzi, and her brother. Odorizzi is president of Phi Beta Lambda's Berkeley-Garret Mountain chapter.

Caruso lives with her parents, Raymond and Marylou Caruso, and four brothers and sisters. Caruso's mom, Marylou, also toured Southern California with the Berkeley group as a chaperone.

West Coast Fashion — Participants in a California fashion tour sponsored by The Berkeley Schools include, from left, Miss Donna Caruso of Belleville, Mrs. Marylou Caruso, mother of Miss Caruso who served as a chaperone, Miss Gretchen Orsini of Bloomfield and Miss Angela Carnicella of Newark.

Punched cards out ... micro-computer in!

Business trends are constantly changing. The unit card control system is out and micro-computers are in.

Belleville High School has initiated a new course called "Introduction to Data Processing." This is a semester course open to all 11th and 12th grade students. This course is replacing the old key punch course started 10 years ago.

"This is the last year that we intend to supplement the course with key punch equipment and punched cards," said Mr. Misernano, supervisor of the business department. "We recently acquired nine TRS-80 micro-computers and one printer, two more on the way, the software, and the supplementary materials to make this a hands-on, meaningful course for the students."

Data basing — BHS computer teacher, Mr. Misernano, shows junior, Lavonne Godfrey, and senior, William Connolly, the ropes.

Marketing programs successful

Ralph LaConte, cooperative marketing education coordinator, has prepared his activity program for the year. The program has been highly successful for many years and anticipation for this year is at its high point.

The Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA), with LaConte as the advisor, will compete in various areas of performance on a district and regional level, and, hopefully, on the State level again this year.

The marketing program is open to all 10, 11 and 12th grade students. The senior year is filled with activities, competitions, and student participation in the world of work.

Students attend required classes in the morning and report to work stations in the afternoons, supervised by Mr. LaConte.

The year will conclude with an employer/employee "luncheon" in June.

Marketing man — Ralph LaConte, coordinator for BHS Cooperative Marketing Education program, is planning an employer/student employee luncheon for later in the school year.

On Taxes

Tax code tips

The recently passed tax act will mean extensive changes in the United States tax system, changes which will affect almost every American taxpayer and especially Essex County taxpayers, according to Bert Tofan, district manager of H & R Block.

The major point to keep in mind, Tofan said, is that some of these changes will affect the 1987 tax return that taxpayers will be filing in early 1987. Also, the tax law changes do not all go into effect at the same time. All the changes will not be in place until 1991.

Tofan indicated that his office has been receiving hundreds of calls, particularly from Essex County residents asking how the new law will affect them. He said, "The new tax laws mean lower and lower tax rates. The previous 14.4 percent tax rate will be reduced to five in 1987 and to two for 1988 and later years, bringing the tax rates eventually to 15 percent and 28 percent. In addition, the standard deduction and personal exemption amounts have been raised."

Some deductions have been eliminated, reduced or restricted. New Jersey state income tax and local property taxes will still be deductible. Fortunately, Essex County residents can receive some restitution for our walloping county tax increase by continuing to deduct those taxes. Unfortunately, those of us who are married, work and have working spouses will lose the married deduction — it has been repealed.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Mike Lamberti's

Buc Shots

With the fall season beginning to wind down, it seems a good time to look at some of the performances turned in by our teams at Belleville High this fall. The Fall of '86 has been a good sports season at BHS, with both team and individual performances highlighting the autumn months.

Of the six varsity sports, four have posted records of 500 or better. In addition, there have been some excellent individual performances turned in and it's quickly becoming evident that the 1986-87 school year is going to produce some memorable occasions.

Gymnastics Set Team Record

What more can you say about senior Kelli Glunk. She had a phenomenal season in 1985 and came back with equal, if not better, success in '86. She finished second in the NNJIL overall championships and won the balance beam event. For the second straight season, she qualified for all four events in the prestigious state sectional tournament which will be held this weekend at Union High School.

However, Ray Iannuzzi's team doesn't stop at Miss Glunk. Seniors Danielle Lyman, the team captain, and Alise Davies turned in good seasons, as did Tina Charles. Youngsters such as Joeli Veit, Nicole Zelina, Nicole Pucciarello, Melissa Nucara, Patricia Hanson, Andrea Lemongello and Sandy Cotter give Iannuzzi hope for future seasons.

Volleyball's sophomore earned a berth in the state sectionals for the second straight year. She will compete in the floor exercise. Zelina, just a freshman, has improved steadily over the season. She has to be considered a top candidate for state sectional consideration in 1987 and further, Pucciarello was hurt earlier in the season, but she has come on strong as the season progresses. Once again, she's only a freshman.

In 1985, the team was 6-4, the first time in the programs history that it finished above .500. This year, the team finished at 6-7, however the competition was much tougher. Iannuzzi scheduled a formidable cast of independent powers in addition to the usual strong teams from the NNJIL, namely Montclair and Clifton. The girls faced some stiff tests from independents Brearley, Clark and Neuman Prep.

Belleville finished fourth in the NNJIL championships and set a team record by breaking the 90 point mark in a match. In fact, Belleville did it three times in '86, with the team record currently at 93.5, set against Kearny last Thursday in the season finale. In the NNJIL championships, Belleville scored 90.45 points and placed fourth behind powerhouses Clifton, Ridgewood and Montclair.

Worley's Wizards Win Title

After years of being close, the Belleville volleyball team won a share of the NNJIL title in 1986, tying Clifton for the top spot. Grace Worley's team finished the regular season with an incredible 22.5 mark, the finest in team history. Now the girls will concentrate on the state tournament, where the team has performed very well the past two seasons. In 1984 and '85, Belleville advanced to the state semi finals before bowing to Fair Lawn High.

The team has been paced by six strong players: Christine Melillo, Simone Edwards, Quynh Mai, Renee Pettnoe, Carolyn Guiffrida and Trish Tramutola have been the stalwarts of the team. The girls had a busy schedule this fall and had very little time to practice in between matches. There were some weeks when the team played five matches in five days, but the girls held up well.

Edwards and Melillo were named first team, NNJIL while Tramutola earned Honorable Mention. Belleville opened state journey play against Bayonne last Friday at home. If they won that game, they were scheduled to face Clifton earlier this week.

Burden, Luongo, Moriello Pace Runners

The Buccaneers' cross country team has been paced by senior Craig Burden, junior Greg Moriello and junior Joyce Luongo. Burden has been running very well. He earned first team, all conference and won five dual races. Luongo had an excellent second half of the season and is in good shape heading into the indoor track campaign. Moriello could be the Bucs' top cross country runner in 1987.

De Aquino's Bucs Riding High

Tony De Aquino has his best team since the 1983 club. The Bucs entered last week with a 10-4-3 mark and advanced to the second round in county play. Chris Goldrick has done a good job as goaltender. Keith Woods, Nick Keykuran, Tom Morris, Walter Caposucca, Frank Perry and Mike Gusetti have been pacing the offense. The Bucs qualified for the state tournament and did well in the NNJIL race.

Football Bucs Battling Hard

John Senesky's Bucs took a 3-3 record into the Clifton game last Saturday. The Bucs have played exciting football this fall, losing clearly season games to Paramus and Ridgewood and the heartbreaker to Passaic on November 1. After losing to Ridgewood, the Bucs came back to beat Montclair, Eastside and Bloomfield. The team was 3-1 in the NNJIL and tied for first place with Clifton, Montclair and Passaic heading into last Saturday's contest. There have been many heroes for the team this fall, with more exciting football coming in games against Kennedy this Saturday and the Thanksgiving Day game with Nutley at home.

The "G" Watch

Good news from the Guiffrida family. Sam Guiffrida, "Coach G" to his friends, was scheduled to come home from the hospital last Friday. As you probably know, Sam was stricken by a heart attack, but, thankfully, he has made excellent progress. Just about everyone in town has been asking for him and it certainly is great news that Sam is feeling better.

Last Weeks Quiz

Penn State beat Georgia, 27-23, in the 1983 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans to clinch the National Championship.

For This Week

When the Los Angeles Rams won the NFC title in 1979, they won all their playoff games on the road. Who did the Rams beat in the '79 playoffs to advance to Super Bowl XIV.

Most impressive victory of the season

Bucs beat Clifton, 26-6

By Mike Lamberti

We have learned a lot about the 1986 Buccaneer football team this season. We've learned that the team can win the close game against a strong team, witness the victory over Montclair. We've learned that the Bucs are capable of winning games they're supposed to win, witness the workmanlike victory over Bloomfield last Sunday at Clifton High. We learned that the team can win a big game against a quality team one week after losing a heartbreaker.

Belleville came away with its most impressive victory of the '86 campaign, beating the powerful Clifton Mustangs, 26-6 at a wind swept Clifton Stadium. The victory boosted the Bucs record to 4-3, 1-1 in the NNJIL.

and came one week after that heart wrenching 14-9 loss to Passaic. Belleville, Montclair and Passaic continue to lead the NNJIL with 4-1 records. The loss dropped Clifton's mark to 6-2, 3-2 in the conference. The Mustangs and Nutley are tied in the conference standings.

Belleville will face another difficult opponent this Saturday at 1:30 p.m. The Bucs will be at Hinchliff Stadium to do battle with Paterson Kennedy. The Knights will come in with an 0-6-1 mark, however Buccaneer coach John Senesky is quite wary of P.K. Last season, Kennedy beat Belleville, 7-0, at Municipal Stadium.

The significance of this victory is even more resounding when you consider that the Bucs were without the services of two starters, Lou Lucante and Pat Kimble, were sick most of the week and could not suit up for the game.

"It was a big win for us," Senesky said of the Clifton game. "Our defense played well, we got the big plays on offense and we were able to hold down their passing game."

Mustang quarterback Bill Shaughnessy entered the game as the most prolific passer in the NNJIL this year. The Buc defense intercepted three of Shaughnessy's passes and the Mustangs used the running game, a little more than Senesky expected.

Belleville jumped out to a 13-0 halftime lead. Quarterback Jeff Spilbury started the scoring with a one yard plunge. Spilbury had an outstanding game, hitting 12 of 17 passes for a phenomenal 233 yards. Later in the quarter, Spilbury found his favorite target, wide receiver Jamie Galato with a 17 yard TD pass to boost the Buccaneer margin to 13-0. Belleville's point after conversion after the second score was muffed when the snap was high. Therefore, Dave McNeil's streak of point after conversions rainfalls at 11.

In the third quarter, the Bucs built the lead when Spilbury went to the "shovel" pass, hitting Tim Dunphy for a 59 yard score. The shovel pass worked quite well in the Passaic game, when Spilbury hit Dunphy twice for big gains, one of which was a touchdown. After McNeil's conversion, the Bucs led, 19-0.

The Bucs sealed the win with a fourth quarter score. Spilbury scored his second touchdown of the game from one yard out to boost the Buc lead to 26-0. Belleville went for two points, but the pass failed.

Clifton added a late touchdown when Shaughnessy threw a 31 yard score, cutting the lead to 26-6. The Mustangs missed the conversion and the game ended shortly thereafter.

Jimmy (Dunphy) played another outstanding game," Senesky said. "He's been hurt but he keeps coming back strong. Our defensive secondary with Joei Delle Monache, Dunphy and Galato were excellent."

The Bucs must now concentrate on Kennedy. The Knights have a big team, size wise, and do possess good speed.

"They're going to be tough, especially on the road," Senesky said. "I'm really surprised at their record. They have some very good athletes on that team. Their two running backs both weigh over 200 pounds. They're a young team and possess an aggressive defense."

The win over Clifton was certainly a big boost for the Bucs and keeps them right in the thick of the conference race.

NOTES: The Belleville-Clifton series was renewed in 1982 after a 20 year hiatus. The teams have met four times since '82, with Belleville now holding a 3-1 edge. The Bucs have won all three games at Clifton, winning 37-0 in '82, 7-3 in '84 and last Sunday's 26-6 win. Clifton's victory came at Belleville, 6-0 in 1985.

The 26 points scored by Belleville was the most for the Bucs since a 35 point game against Bloomfield in October of 1984. Dunphy caught four passes for 128 yards in the game. No injuries to report. Bucs will look to Nutley and Clifton for help in this week's conference games. Clifton plays Passaic and Nutley will battle Montclair. The other conference game matches Eastside and Bloomfield. Montclair and Passaic will face each other on Thanksgiving Day, so the conference race is, certainly wide open.

Bad luck in first round of states

Mounties over soccer Bucs 5-0

By Chris Lawlor
The Belleville High School Soccer team suffered two heartaches in the past week as they lost to Montclair 5-0 in the first round of the Grp. 4, Sect. 2 state tournament and were nosed out by Clifton for second place in the final league standings.

It was the third time that the Bucs lost to the Mounties this season, as the defending NNJL Passaic-Essex champions waited until the third quarter to break open a scoreless match.

"They just had too many goals for us," said head coach Tony DeAquino. "We had our chances but just couldn't score."

The Mounties, David Oliver broke the ice at 15:05 of the third quarter, and then about two minutes later Luis Main put the ball past Bucs netminder Chris Goldrick for a 2-0 lead.

Montclair added an insurance goal midway through the final period for the victory.

Losing in the first round to the Mounties may have been tough for DeAquino, but his 1-1 tie with Paterson Kennedy was one that he could not believe. A win would have tied Clifton for second place.

With eight minutes left in the contest, center midfielder Keith Woods scored his magic for the seventh time this season. The senior drilled a shot by Knight goalie Jerry Vidal for the apparent game winner.

But not to be denied at least once, the Knights did so with a 5-2 when Abraham Santrich sent a shot toward the goal that was redirected to the net. Goldrick at this point was already committed to his left and the ball wound up in the net for the equalizer.

"It was really hard for Chris Goldricks to recover," said DeAquino. "Of all the ways to tie up the game I never thought it would happen that way."

Alex Arayo got the assist on Woods' goal and Goldrick was busy on the day stopping 10 shots. Meanwhile Vidal made 13 saves for the afternoon off the busy Buc feet.

The Bucs' 1984-85 are still waiting to see if matches with St. Peter's Prep and Seton Hall Prep will be replayed. DeAquino hopes that they can be resolved this week sometime. He also mentioned that both teams are involved in Parochial A state play.

Now that most of the teams have ended their seasons, DeAquino announced which players were selected by all county and league squads.

Woods was made both a first team midfielder by the Essex County Coaches Association and all NNJL Passaic-Essex Division, also by the vote of the coaches.

Senior goalie Goldricks was named to both second teams and Gus Lago, Roger Real, Walter Capuzawa and Frank Ferry made honorable mention.

Real also made second team all-league all-tullock and Ferry was honorable mention.

1-9 season yields 4 all-conference players

Cross country Bucs had 'good times'

It was a season of individual improvement for the Belleville cross country team. The Bucs posted a 1-9 regular season mark, but had four athletes named to the all-conference team. The team lost four close meets this season and head coach John Tosato was very happy with his team's steady improvement.

"I'm very pleased with the performance, especially at the end of the season," Tosato said. "We had some very good times this fall."

Senior Eric Burden leads the way for the 86 teams. Burden a four year cross country and track performer, had an outstanding campaign.

He won five of ten dual races and placed no lower than third in the five races he did not win. His best time of the season on the home course was 16:57 in a race against Montclair. Burden ran a 16:38 against Nutley later in the season.

He was named first team, NNJL, and had a good race in the Essex County championships, placing 25th overall in a strong field. Burden's time in the county race was 16:51, his career best time on a 3.1 mile course. That race was held at Branch Brook Park.

Burden was scheduled to compete in the sectional championships held last Saturday.

Junior Greg Moriello continued to improve. As a sophomore last spring Moriello showed steady improvement for the Buccaners track team and he carried that into the fall. Moriello's best time was 17:18 on the home course. He too took part in the sectional race last Saturday.

"He was a quiet type of runner," Tosato said of Moriello. "He and Craig formed a good 1-2 combination."

Moriello was named Honorable Mention, NNJL, for 1986.

John Zurlo, a senior, completed his county career with a strong season. Zurlo a four year runner for coach Tosato, had his best time in the county race. He ran 17:43 at Branch Brook Park.

Junior Bob Schiebel suffered an injury to his lower back in the middle of the season, but he returned for the county race and did well. Schiebel's best time of the season was 19:24, against Montclair at home. At the county race he ran a 19:43, not bad for someone just coming off an injury.

John Morrell, a senior, did a nice job for the Bucs. This was his first year of running cross country and his best time of the year was an impressive 19:26, against Nutley. Morrell, a good basketball player, showed tremendous improvement as the year progressed.

Improvement was also the name of the game for sophomore David Rosamilia. His best time was 20:26 in a race against Montclair. He will be back, along with Moriello and Schiebel to form the nucleus of the '87 cross country squad.

For the girls, Joyce Luongo had a very good second half of the season. She earned second team, NNJL, and improved her time a full three minutes for the season.

She came on strong during the second half of the year.

Tosato said of Luongo. "She was disappointed with the way she ran earlier in the season. Joyce is a tough runner. She worked hard."

Luongo's best time came in the county race, where she ran 21:10 and placed 22nd overall. Luongo started the season in the 24 mile range. Only a junior, you should see a lot of good things from Luongo for the remainder of this year and after next.

There have been some good female runners at BHS over the last ten years, namely Sue Smith, Dana Caruso, Barbara Gundry and Patty Bliss. Caruso holds the record for fastest time in the Belleville course, but that was the old course at Belleville Park. The team has been running at Nutley since 1981. However, the distances are comparable and Luongo has a good chance of giving Caruso's mark a run for the money.

A senior, Donna Lee Daudein, completed her fourth year of running by being named Honorable Mention, NNJL. Her best time was 24:35, versus Nutley. Daudein also ran well in the counties and will now concentrate on the indoor season. She is a dedicated runner and has improved steadily each season.

Two youngsters should improve steadily over the next few years. Freshman Diane Di Vincenzo and sophomore Gina Guarino both had good seasons. Di Vincenzo is a good distance runner and Tosato feels she could be an even better middle distance runner. Her best time of the year was 26:34, against Nutley.

For Guarino, her best outing was a 26:50, also against Nutley. Tosato was very pleased with her performance and feels Guarino will be an important part of future teams.

Most of the runners will now concentrate on the indoor track team. Burden will probably play varsity basketball, but the remainder of the squad should be set for indoor track. The indoor season is made up of invitational, with the main idea to get the runners in shape for the outdoor campaign.

Overall, it was a good year for the cross country team. The Bucs were very competitive in the NNJL, losing close races to Passaic, Bloomfield and Montclair. The Bucs came back to beat Bloomfield in the NNJL, and county races. The Bucs victory in the regular season came against Arts High.

Religious Viewpoints

People in trouble need the church

Long before the coming of Jesus Christ the Chronicles stated, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land."

If ever there was a time when people needed to hear this Good News proclaimed it is now — here in New Jersey, here in the U.S., here on Earth.

Truly, Americans are "My People." The outpouring of God's blessing in raw materials and mental know-how to so richly "subdue the world and have dominion over it," even into space, proclaims His awesome presence.

And yet like lost sheep, we have gone astray. A nation so richly blessed, a nation so filled with church houses, a nation with so many "church members" — how can so many Americans be so dependent on drugs and things other than prayer?

Alcohol, tobacco, marijuana, heroin, cocaine, "crack" and many synthetic drugs have become a way of life for so many of God's lost children. The drugs are used to cover pain, loneliness, guilt, hurt, insecurity and yes, sin.

Oh, the numbers of times I have heard the alcoholic, the drug addict, the troubled person cry out, "I'm no good and nobody wants me," translating the feelings of no confidence in oneself and a complete loss of trust in anyone else.

The church, the body of Christ, is so needed to proclaim loud and clear the Good News of God's healing power. We Americans have placed such a high priority on education and lately on physical fitness, but what about spiritual wholeness? Without it the other two leave us in complete, so weak, so vulnerable.

Often, state and national government leaders ask your Pastor, is the church getting more involved? If the answer to the need for alcohol and other drugs is "that power outside — oneself, greater than oneself," is this not really the work of the church?

How the church is so needed to provide sincere, understanding support, groups in which the troubled person, lost in alcohol, drugs, or just self, can find God and grow in His Spiritual well-being.

Modern medicine has given us an array of words to use to explain our troubled lives. But have any of them been any better in doing the job of setting us free, at giving us peace of mind and fullness of life than those in the short verse of 2 Chronicles 7:14? In our complex society, we find it hard to accept the simple little words that say so much: God did create people — men and women — in His own image. In His own likeness, in His own power to live. We have the full freedom to choose to walk with Him, living by the directives of His laws, or to walk away from Him, defying His laws and breaking ourselves against them.

Without God, without the Church, without the Body of Christ, there is no wholeness in life. The troubled person needs the Church.

If America is to be healed, then God's people "must humble themselves and pray, and seek His face, and turn from their wicked ways."

The harvest is so ripe and awaits the harvesters. Our children want to be free of drugs and they want to know the way of the Good News of the family of God in Christ. The church is so needed to share the knowledge of the saving grace.

— Rev. Gerald Fortunato

Take steps now, take deductions later

There is little doubt that new tax law changes will affect almost every Essex County and New Jersey taxpayer, according to Bert J. Tobia, district manager of H & R Block. He explained "whether the legislation will help or hurt taxpayers remains to be seen. However, we at H & R Block, the country's largest tax preparation firm, believe there are some steps taxpayers can take now that will allow them to take advantage of deductions and credits they may not be able to take once the new tax laws go into effect."

"This is a good year to give to charity, especially for non-itemizers. After 1986, non-itemizers will no longer be able to deduct charitable contributions on their tax returns."

"If you are planning to make any of the following moves in the near future, try to arrange them so that they occur in 1986. Changing jobs, moving, contributing to an IRA, or a 401(k) borrowing money, selling stock, deferring income or paying for certain deductible expenses."

He advised:

1. Getting a new job: Job hunting expenses are part of miscellaneous deductions and the amount of these deductions will be limited to amounts that exceed 2% of your adjusted gross income. Also, the new tax law will make all unemployment compensation taxable.

2. Moving: Moving expenses will become an itemized deduction. If you don't itemize, you will lose this deduction. If you move in 1986, you will still be able to deduct your moving expenses from your gross income.

3. Contributing to your IRA: If you are single and are covered by an employer plan and earn more than $31,000 ($50,000 if you're married filing jointly), you will no longer be able to deduct contributions to an IRA for tax years after 1986, so now is the time to do so. You may make contributions to your 1986 IRA under current law until April 15, 1987.

4. Borrowing money: If you are planning to make a large purchase sometime in the near future, borrow the money and buy the items in 1986 or 1987 and take advantage of interest and sales tax deductions. 1986 is the last year for which you can deduct sales tax. In 1986, you will get the full deduction for interest, but in 1987 only 65% of your personal interest will be deductible. In later years, this interest deduction will be further phased out and eventually be eliminated.

5. Contributing to a 401(k) plan: In 1987, the limit on contributions to this type of plan decreases, from $30,000 to $17,000. If you contribute in 1986, you will still be able to put up to $30,000 into your 401(k) plan depending on your situation.

6. Selling stock: If you're planning to sell stock at a gain, it's a good idea to do it in 1986. If you sell in 1986, you will be able to exclude from taxation 60% of the gain. If the stock you are sold for more than $100,000, the 20% amount of gain will be taxed.

7. Deferring income: If you are in one of the higher income tax rate brackets, it is a good idea to defer income until 1987, when tax rates will be lower. And better yet, try to put off receiving 1987 income until 1988 when tax rates will be even lower.

8. Taking other deductions: It's a good idea to take advantage of any miscellaneous deductions and medical deductions you can before the new laws go into effect. The new laws will limit the amounts you can deduct in both of these areas. It's also a good idea to take advantage of any business-related deductions as they will be severely restricted under the new tax laws. Before 1986 is over, you may want to check with a knowledgeable tax source to find out what the new laws are and how you can still take advantage of the current laws. Tobia said.

Outstanding Volunteer — Harley Martin (left), a resident of the Essex County Geriatrics Center in Belleville, was recently given a volunteer award by County Executive Peter Shapiro in recognition of the help he gives the staff of the Geriatrics Center in caring for the other residents there. Shapiro presented the award last week to Martin during an annual ceremony recognizing the county's outstanding volunteers.

Our Wesley Methodist is Pinnacle of Faith

On Sunday, November 16 at 10 a.m. a combined service of the Congregation of the Korean United Methodist Church in Passaic and Wesley Methodist Church, Washington Avenue, will commemorate the 195th birthday of one of the oldest established seats of Methodism on the east coast.

As the "Mother Church of Methodism," Wesley has played her part in the expansion of the Church. In 1808, members of Wesley were instrumental in founding the first Methodist Church in Newark. It was known as Wesley Chapel.

In 1830, Wesley members helped to found the North Belleville Methodist Church on Passaic Avenue in Nutley, now known as the Vincent Methodist Church.

Though the present Church was built in the year 1900, Wesley United Methodist Church was originally on the corner of Main St. and John St. in 1803. The growth of the Church from a small gathering organized and started in 1791, established the current building on Washington Avenue. Though it seems small, this edifice is a monument of faith, tenacious

Christian spirit and true Methodist spirit.

This Church that has carried a congregation of 800 in 1900 had in the 1970's dwindled to 200 in number. But, with the determination of the faithful few and prayers, the Church has survived financial and spiritual buffets to stand this day as example of what is possible when God is on the side of those who keep the faith.

An Anglican Church to the core with her tradition and heritage the doors are open to any that hunger for love and service. The congregation can boast of European descent, a Korean minister, and Indian and Philippino christian families. The Union of Spirit is the strength of Wesley today. God's love abounds within the wood-paneled walls, the stained glass windows and the ministry extends with the message: "All Ye That Labor and Are Heavy Laden Come!" For our doors are open for reverence, sharing and praise.

195 years of service to God, Methodism and the community. It is the hope of the courage, the inspiration and the challenge of the future.

BHS Guidance Office hosts Career Night

The Belleville High School Guidance Department will host more than 85 universities, trade, technical and business schools at its eighth annual Career Night Nov. 17 from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Career Night, which gives students an opportunity to meet with representatives from a variety of colleges and vocational schools all in one night, is the biggest event the guidance department sponsors, according to Phil Esposito, guidance counselor and coordinator of Career Night.

"We invite colleges not only from New Jersey, but different places, including New York and Pennsylvania, and also trade, technical and business schools and representatives from the military," Esposito said.

"Each representative has a table where students and parents can come by very informally and ask questions about the school," he added. "They can visit one table of 44 tables, it's totally up to them."

Career Night is open to all students at Belleville High School as well as alumni who are still not sure what they want to do. Esposito said.

"It is a very good opportunity for the students because all the information is under one roof," Esposito said, however, he added that the school offers students the opportunity to meet with representatives throughout the year.

Real Estate Briefcase

By Jack Reilly, G.R.I.

NO! Absolutely untrue. The subject that you raise here revolves around what is known as the "Attorney Review Clause." There are a great number of misperceptions which have risen out of this otherwise simple clause which appears on all contracts drawn by licensed real estate agents in the state of New Jersey. The purpose of the clause is to give the buyer and seller an opportunity to enter an agreement in the absence of their attorney, without forfeiting their respective right to legal advice and protection.

Each would then have three business days to have the terms of the contract reviewed by a licensed attorney to assure the safety and legality of the transaction. Most importantly, the three days set aside is not an automatic "right of rescission," and should never be viewed as such. It is merely a right to an attorney review.

The Attorney Review Clause does provide for specific procedures which, if followed, may void the contract. However, make no mistake upon signing a contract of sale, both buyer and seller have entered a binding agreement, subject to its provisions and contingencies. At this point, the property is considered "sold," and is held off the market until either the title passes or one of the agreed contingencies becomes applicable.

The Attorney Review Clause, as noted above, has caused its fair share of misunderstanding since it first became law about two years ago. Charges of misuse and abuse from all sides has reached the ears of state authorities who are now considering a limitation to the scope and implementation of the clause.
