Goal is $5000

Student drug program fund drive continues

"Defenders Against Drugs," an ambitious drug awareness program making its Essex debut under the sponsorship of The Belleville Police department, is still about 40 percent short of its funding goal.

"$2,500 has been collected toward our goal of $5,000," Commissioner of Public Safety Ralph DiRuggiero said. The program is being privately funded and is expected to begin in early 1987.

Targets K-10 graders

Anti-drug education has traditionally targeted older students, but with drug abuse becoming prevalent among grammar school children, DiRuggiero said, "It is essential to educate our children about the perils of drug abuse at the earliest possible age."

"Defenders Against Drugs" is being coordinated by Detective Joseph Rujando, and features films, badges, pledge certificates and comic book characters similar to the "Masters of the Universe" cartoons on TV.

The commissioner said the program is designed to strip drugs of their appeal to youngsters.

"We want to help our kids feel good about saying 'no' to drugs," DiRuggiero said.

The following is a list of contributors for "Defenders Against Drugs."

Back-to-back crimes

Gun-wielding gang strikes Silver Lake

By Christopher Bifani

The Silver Lake district of Belleville, identified by Belleville Police as being one of the township's heavier crime areas, was victimized by a gang of four men last weekend, who brandished at least two handguns and committed back-to-back crimes.

Belleville Police spokesman Lt. William Adelman, said the mini crime spree began Saturday, December 13 at about 8 p.m. at the intersection of Franklin and Magnolia Streets.

Michael Muccigrasso, 17, of Frederick Street, told police he was standing on the corner when a maroon Chevrolet Impala pulled up occupied by four black males.

Muccigrasso told police that two of the males got out of the car and approached him. One of them—described as 5'9", thin, with a mustache and goatee, and wearing a black leather jacket—pointed a black handgun at the teen.

"Give me your money or I'll shoot you," the suspect reportedly said.

Muccigrasso said he gave the suspects $10 and the suspects ran back into the car and fled. The second suspect was described by Muccigrasso as being about 5'8", chubby in build, and wearing a white bomber jacket.

Approximately two hours later, a second armed robbery allegedly occurred on Florence

Belleville Bridge open for traffic

Vincent J. Inzerillo, of neighboring Kearny was the first motorist to officially cross the Belleville Bridge when it opened Friday, December 12. Inzerillo, sporting a brand new Mercedes Benz automobile said the reason he was crossing the bridge was to shop in Belleville's Grand Union supermarket.

The bridge was shut down several months ago and was due to reopen in the early fall. Additional structural problems were subsequently discovered, however, and the opening was delayed.

Next, a mishap occurred when the bridge house fell into the river, further delaying the opening.

Since the bridge connects three municipalities and three adjacent counties, its opening has been much anticipated, especially by tri-county merchants.

Dance Orientation — Belleville Brenda Daniels, instructor at Daniels Universe of Dance and Gymnastics of Nutley, and Merce Cunningham Studios, N.Y.C., is dancing in Japan from December 8 through 20. Daniels, a "master of fine arts" graduate in dance from State University of New York at Purchase, is performing with Tom Simons and Dancers, a small New York based modern dance troupe. The group will begin its tour in Tokyo, with 9 performances, then travel to Osaka for three additional shows. The tour will conclude in Kyoto, the capital of ancient Japan. In the spring, Daniels will again perform with the Palindrome Dance Company in Germany and the Netherlands.

90,000 accidents annually

Essex official warns shoppers on toy safety

Robert J. Russo, director of the Essex County Division of Consumer Services, issued a warning to all consumers planning to purchase toys for the holidays to be on the alert for toys reported dangerous by the Federal Consumer Products Safety Commission.

Dolls, trucks, cars, wagons and balls are among children's favorite playthings, but over the last three years, according to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission estimates, an average of 90,000 children under age 15 each year received hospital emergency room treatment for injuries from these and other toys. Fatalities and serious injuries have occurred when children swallowed or choked on small parts. Falls on or against toys are also a frequent type of accident. Also, sharp edges or points found on products designed for children's use have resulted in lacerations and puncture injuries.

Russo said, "Parents should select toys to suit the age, skills, abilities and interest of the individual child. Look on toy packages for age recommendations as well as safety concerns. Look for sturdy construction. When buying soft toys for children, make sure you purchase a well-made item with eyes, nose and other small parts tightly secured. Safety regulations have been issued for cribs, baby bouncers and walker jumpers, bicycles, fireworks, and children's sleepwear.

Manufacturers must assure the public that their products comply with the toy safety regulations. CPSC's investigators follow up on consumer complaints about hazardous toys by inspecting firms which make or import these products to ensure that the regulations are being followed. During these inspections, samples of products are collected for testing at commission laboratories to determine where they meet the regulations.

Russo said, "If certain toys require adult supervision, be sure to make that commitment and set the 'ground rules' for play." He reminded consumers to check with the Consumer Products Safety Commission by calling its toll free number 1-800-638-CPSC to see if a toy has been recalled or whether it is potentially harmful.

Rent board denies hardship increase

By Pat de la Parra

A hardship increase was denied Sam and Louise Taibi and Rosemary Rossi for the property of 94-96 Magnolia Street by the Belleville Rent Leveling Board.

"The figures provided by way of the ordinance don't figure a hardship return and the application is denied," said Board member Thomas Zampino.

The owners were claiming the period of October 1, 1985 to September 30, 1986 as the hardship period due to capital improvements they made.

The Board allowed $450 for a gas heater based on a ten year depreciation, $380 for eight smoke alarms based on a five year depreciation, $190 for four doorbells based on a five year depreciation, $880 for 44 double hung windows based on a ten-year depreciation and $45 for four smoke detectors and eight batteries based on a ten year depreciation.

In addition to capital improvements totaling $1,945, the Board added $3,327 for municipal taxes, $850 for insurance, $185 for water, $100 for utilities and 3 percent for maintenance to bring the total expenses to $6,812.

The rentals for the four family property totaled $13,500. When the expenses were subtracted from the rentals, the difference was $6,688. The property is assessed at $61,400 and the ordinance allows a profit equal to 10 percent of the assessed value which would be $6,140. Therefore, the increase was denied because $6,688 was greater than $6,140.

SOBER DRIVERS — Captain A. Koelsch of the Belleville Police Department displays a AAA New Jersey Automobile Club Foundation for Safety "Sober Drivers Have Happier Holidays" poster. The posters are part of AAA's annual holiday campaign to remind Essex, Morris and Union county residents of the dangers of drinking and driving. In addition to the posters, which are being distributed by local police departments, the "Sober Drivers" message is also appearing on billboards and in newspaper and radio advertisements.

Local resident excels in bodybuilding test

Anne Marie Frederick of Belleville recently won the women's lightweight class of the Garden State Bodybuilding Championship. The championship, which attracted more than 80 competitors, was sponsored by I.A. Beer. Other sponsors included Savage Supplements, California Fitness, Physical Demands and Back To Nature.

Men's open basketball

The Recreation Department will once again offer the Men's Open Gym for Basketball on Saturday afternoons from 1-4 p.m., beginning December 6 at the Middle School Boys Gym.

The program is limited to Belleville resident adult men only who must register for the program by coming to the Rec. House office on 407 Joralemon St. to apply for a photo I.D. card which will be required to gain admission to the gym.

When applying, each participant must furnish a driver's license (as proof of residency), a close up facial photo (1 1/2" x 1 1/2" h), and a $1 application fee. At no time will there be admission without the official identification card. Sorry, no guests or non residents will be allowed due to security reasons.

Registration period is from Nov. 17 to Dec. 3, Monday through Friday, from 8:30 to 4 p.m. Persons who cannot get to the office during business hours can mail in a copy of their Driver's License along with the photo and the fee. For more information call 450-3422.

Children's basketball league

The Recreation Department is forming a basketball league for children in grades 3 to 8. The league will be conducted for boys on Monday nights at the Middle School boys gym from 6 to 9:30 p.m. If there is enough interest, a girls' league will also be formed on either another week night or on Saturday. Interested players should pick up an application form at the Rec. House, 407 Joralemon St., no later than the December 19 deadline.

Gun-wielding gang hits Silver Lake

Street near the intersection of Franklin Street.

In this reported incident, Steven Dondarski of neighboring Bloomfield, 27, stated that he was putting a Christmas present in his car when a black male approached him brandishing a silver handgun.

The suspect told him to hand over the package. The victim ran from the suspect who began to give chase, but did not fire the weapon.

Instead, the suspect stopped and stole the victim's car, a 1983 Toyota coupe bearing the license plate number 332 VK5.

Police believe that the suspect in this incident is a member of the same group, since he was described by Dondarski as being chubby and wearing a white bomber jacket, similar to the suspect in the earlier incident.

At press time, there are no suspects apprehended for the perpetration of these reported crimes. Also, the stolen Toyota has yet to be recovered.

In a related development, the police records show that a handgun was allegedly taken by the same gang of four who reportedly committed the armed robberies of December 13.

Police had few details on this crime, however, except for the fact that it allegedly occurred at the intersection of Newark and Magnolia streets on the same evening.

The preliminary investigation of these incidents was conducted by Officers Thomas Rossi and Alan Ciccone. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau.

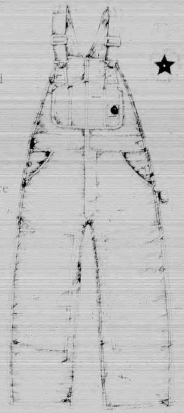

Fruits of their labor — The Belleville Rotary Club's Annual Citrus Sale was a success this year, as in previous years. At the unloading of the shipment of oranges and grapefruit, fresh from Texas, these happy volunteers take time out of their Rotarian Rene Gabbaui, Chris Gabbaui, and Rotarian George Lister, Chief of the Belleville Police.

In 'Doc' Ellis' name

As many Belleville High School football players and fans can attest, William 'Doc' Ellis was an invaluable asset to the varsity football program. His untimely passing saddened the township and his skill as a trainer will be sorely missed.

The Belleville Varsity Club, under the direction of newly elected president Wayne Worley, has begun a William 'Doc' Ellis Memorial Fund. In this small way, Doc's good name may live on.

The club plans to take donations sent in Doc's name and put them in a special account. According to Worley, who was a lifelong friend of Doc Ellis, the money would be used for scholarships to student athlete scholars, and possibly for some kind of monument or marker in Doc Ellis' name.

Mr. Worley has asked that people wishing to donate to the memorial fund should address their correspondence to: Belleville Varsity Club, Belleville High School, 100 Passaic Ave., Belleville, N.J., 07109.

War toys

Psychologists call them war toys — the soldier dolls, fake guns, plastic tanks and other militaristic playthings that seem to be gaining more popularity among pre-teens than ever before.

The argument against war toys is that they condone — even glorify violence. Dr. Thomas Radecki, a psychiatrist and research director of the National Coalition on Television Violence, says the massive promotion of war toys "encourages violent ways of interacting with the world."

The argument for war toys is that they provide an emotional outlet for children, a harmless escape valve. As one education professor puts it, "Take the (war) toys away, and you cripple their ability to respond healthily to their own dire stress."

While we do not deny that children need play to let off youthful steam, we too question the continued popularity of war toys in a world where more than three dozen real, life-taking, land-ravaging wars are currently wage.

Somehow, "Bang, bang, you're dead" doesn't seem to blend with the other traditional exclamation tions of Christmas morning joy. Some proponents of war toys attempt to justify them by pointing out the theme behind them — that of good triumphing over evil. Even the commercials for war toys emphasize this point.

But there are other ways, other toys, that can stress this theme without resorting to plastic symbols of violent death.

Even superhero dolls — like Spiderman and Superman — are a better alternative than war toys because these comic legends never utilize guns or life-threatening force.

But if the main purpose of war toys is to help children work (or play) through their periods of stress or to simply let off steam — we wonder why these objectives can't be reached just as easily with other high action competitive toys — racing cars, basketballs, BMX bicycles.

This holiday season, we encourage parents and relatives to seek alternatives to war toys. The cry of the season, after all, is not "War on earth, good will toward men."

Let Santa be a messenger of peace.

President Reagan

There are some elements in our society that just wait for the opportunity to give our President a hard time. At the moment, leading national commentators are trying to put the screws to Reagan because somebody in his administration, authorized the sale of arms to Iran in hopes of freeing the American hostages in Lebanon and gaining influence with factions in the Iranian government.

There seems to be enough evidence in the public domain to suggest that the CIA is secretly aiding Iraq by submitting detailed information to permit Iraq to continue bombing raids on Iranian power terminals and power plants. The two countries have been at war for a long time, and there seems to be no end in sight.

For the past two years, U.S. satellite reconnaissance flights gathered intelligence that was forwarded to Iraq. At the same time this relationship existed, the Reagan administration was covertly selling arms to Iran, hoping the transaction would free American hostages in Lebanon. Any cooperation in this alleged effort was conducted without the knowledge of President Reagan. But day after day — the public press — the print media and television — continued to bombard President Reagan with questions concerning how much he did know — when did he know it — that American arms were entering Mid-East conflict.

While the end is indeed noble and worthwhile — and can be justified — there is no evidence that President Reagan has been a part of such an arrangement. What the anti-Reagan press and television commentators refuse to accept is the fact that Reagan has not been involved in these decisions — if they were indeed made.

Yes — it is time the hostile press gets off the back of President Reagan. Reagan has enough to do trying to solve our domestic and international problems without being hamstrung by left wingers more concerned with political opportunity than serving the greater interests of our country.

Rodino, step down . . .

To the editor:

In any court of law, when it is manifest that a judge, or a juror is prejudiced against the defendant, they are duty bound by our system of law, to disqualify themselves from any participation in passing judgment on that defendant.

It is eminently clear that many of our President's accusers have openly opposed his every move for six years. Some have been active supporters of candidate Mondale who was resoundingly rejected by the people of our country in one of the worst defeats ever suffered by a Democrat.

Senator Kennedy, one of Reagan's most venomous opponents, has most recently declared the Reagan revolution is over. How arrogant of this hypocrite to negate the wish and desire of the people, whose choice was made very emphatic by their votes. The desire of millions made naught by one man.

Democrats who barely won in the recent election, avoided totally any issue dealing with other than local matters have now become foreign affairs experts and have leaped into the fray with gusto going for the kill.

Congressman Torricelli, that Mondale supporter, avoided national issues during his campaign and so did Rodino, who never left any doubt about his stand on Reagan by telling his constituents that he wanted one more term to block Reagan from implementing the program in the remaining time he has left as President. Cutting federal programs is anathema to the 10th District.

Rodino is showing signs that he would like to "impeach" yet another president by behavior reminiscent of the Watergate days, longing for the limelight.

I say that any and all congressmen and senators who have displayed any animosity or prejudice towards the President should be disqualified from conducting any hearings or whatever else, in the Iranian case now under investigation, or to participate in any form or shape, or to make any public utterances in the proceedings. How can they be objective?

Kennedy, Biden, Mettenbaum, Solaz, Rodino, Torricelli, Weicker, et al. In the interest of justice and fair play, please step down, get out of the way. Your business is at home and all together too obvious.

Michael Giordano

Bring on Rodino . . .

To the editor:

I agree wholeheartedly with your editorial, "Bring on Rodino." I'm sure Of Pete Rodino would give the American people the same honest, outstanding performance he gave them throughout the Nixon Watergate investigations.

Considering Richard Nixon's failure to complete two Presidential terms, and Ronald Reagan's apparent difficulty to get through his second term politically unscathed, perhaps, to keep America honest, we should limit our Presidents to a single four year term.

Letters to the Editor

Slanted and biased . . .

To the editor:

I found your article "From the editor's desk" typical of the slanted and biased reporting that is associated with the Belleville Times.

"You objected to the word 'boob' and 'hoodlum' that have appeared in 'Letter to the Editor'."

Mr. Bifani while you were covering the December 9th town hall meeting did you think all these insults, catcalls and abuse hurled at my husband was in good taste?

"Why, Mr. Bifani did you not speak about that in your 'From the editor's desk'?" Why did you not comment on it in your other article?

Mr. Bifani my husband has done more favors, good deeds for more people than you can possibly count. Mr. Bifani no one has better rapport with the young people in our town and what he dislikes is the people like the ones you saw in action at the 12.8.86 meeting. 90 percent of those people have never seen the High School any sporting event and the only time you see or hear them is when their taxes go up.

If those people had 1/10 of my husband's interest in our kids and town then perhaps Belleville will not become a Newark! If you think I am wrong, Mr. Bifani, go to the schools, athletic events and ask for yourself.

Mr. Bifani in my opening sentence I asked your paper if being slanted and bias and I feel that you are a leader of such. In the 1st March edition of your newspaper you ran an article which read "Frank Montagna, Belleville resident indicted." Your article went on very careful and made sure that each and every charge was listed. It also made sure that the total jail time that my husband faced was listed. You, Mr. Bifani, also went into great detail to explain each and every charge and many others had never in the past seen the name of a Belleville resident who was arrested, charged or indicted having his name printed by your paper.

But so be it.

On the 22nd of September 1986 my husband went on trial. On the 29th of September the judge threw out 1 of the 4 charges. (No basis). On the 2nd of October the jury found my husband not guilty of the last charge and a few of them stated to me "Why was Mr. Montagna indicted?"

New to you, Mr. Bifani, on the 2nd of October at 2:30 p.m. you had a good 20 minutes and told your hearers, 37 months of agony my husband's good name was clean again. Yet, Mr. Bifani stated to me that you would not run an article of, of course, what I had said. I was correct.

It is now the 15th of December and unless I am blind, Mr. Bifani, I have never seen an article which cleared my husband's good name.

Why Mr. Bifani were you not told me that because your newspaper is exactly what I find many others think it is to be.

I was also told by many other people in this town that they either wrote or spoke to you concerning an article or reference to my husband's trial and you did not print something.

Mr. Bifani you are supposed to be a reporter, a reporter is supposed to report the news — not distort or omit what he sees fit.

Perhaps Mr. Bifani at a time in Belleville to discontinue using the Belleville Times as the official town paper and if my husband Frank Montagna starts a movement to do so, I assure you he will succeed.

I wish to thank all those good people in our beautiful town who helped, supported and kept their faith in my husband's interview. I will never be able to thank them all for their kindness. My entire family, a couple, Oakes, Mark, Mantagna and Frank Montagna Jr. thank you.

Mr. Bifani, if you do not print this letter, I will read it out loud at the next town hall meeting. I have kept a copy.

Rita Montagna
DeWitt Avenue

Editor's reply — I didn't write the article on your husband's indictment, nor was I editor of the Times at that point.

I took over the editorship of the paper in June of 1986, and since then have done my best to expand township coverage. We don't get every story all the time, but then again what newspaper does?

As for clearing your husband's 'good name' — you did a nice job of that yourself in your letter. Printing your letter, by the way, only confirms that the Belleville Times is not slanted or biased. I certainly didn't print it because of your amusing threats.

Furthermore, the Belleville Times is the official town newspaper because it has more Belleville news per week than any other weekly or daily. Count up the stories for yourself. Count the pictures. The letters. The columns.

And as for your contention that The Times is a "rag" — here's a suggestion: Don't buy it any more. Newsstand sales are running 15-25 percent ahead of last year at this time, so I and many others obviously don't share your opinion.

Nevertheless, should you feel compelled to again write a letter to your 'town newspaper' editor, please feel free to do so. The Belleville Times remains an open forum for all points of view.

Christopher Bifani

Montagna's gumption . . .

To the editor:

I must respond to Ida Bevere and Joseph DeLuca's letter. Let me give you some facts about your leader, Mr. Montagna.

He has come to my house, seeking my husband's support to defeat Board of Education candidates. He has called my husband for help seeking district leaders so he could defeat the Town Chairman. A few years ago he was a super active worker supporting a candidate to over throw our present commissioners. I have seen and heard Mr. Montagna attack a local businessman at a town meeting, and argue with a parent at a football game.

If you would like to set the record straight, you are cordially invited to come to my home — where my husband will be more than happy to show you facts and figures.

When you see the truth with your own eyes, you may want to re-write your letters. I am sure you will want to use your same adjectives, "hoodlums, wolves, and gang" and re-apply them to your idol.

Wait till you receive next year's tax bill and see who is "misinformed." Maybe you can pay your taxes with some of that money you received to Tough on 'tuffy' letters . . .

To the editor:

My congratulations to Christopher Bifani on the contents of his Editorial Comments issue of 12/11/86 regarding the "quality" of three letters to the editor — the first one in the 124 edition and two follow up in the 1271 edition of the Belleville Times.

I also and my thanks for the publication of these potentially libelous letters, since the action of publication served to advise Belleville's citizens of the "class" of the letter writers.

traveling styling team consisting of members from the Total Image Salons, introducing his International Postal Collection.

On November 18 and 17 they attended the Garden State Beauty Festival in Atlantic City, to rave reviews! On November 21 Total Image was the stylists for the Miss Teen Essex County Scholarship Pageant held in Nutley.

Starting January Dennis will start his 1987 schedule with his styling team, performing in Long Beach, California, Chicago and other salon shows throughout the U.S.A., demonstrating the Dennis Bernard haircare methods.

At these shows Total Image will be introducing Dennis Bernard "Power Tools" hair care products.

Although in such a short time, Dennis Bernard has become one of Essex County's prominent businessmen, he gives much credit to his staffs.

"I am very fortunate to have such talented and cooperative staffs," admits Dennis. "Without them our organization would not have reached the success level it has."

It has been a busy year for Dennis Bernard Campanaro of Newark, starting with his January wedding to Sandee O'Donoghue of Montclair.

Last March, Dennis, President of Total Image Hairdesigners Inc., and staffs from his salons attended the N.Y. International Hair Show. Since then the Total Image Hairdesigners styling team has been performing at major salon shows throughout the U.S.A.

Dennis opened Total Image Hairdesigners in Sept. 1980 with a four-chair salon on Bloomfield Ave. in Newark. The Total Image concept became a success. And in 1982 he opened his second salon in Belleville.

At this time with the help of his partner Mr. Ralph Mesce of Newark, a 3rd level expansion is being completed. The additional space will include new nail facilities along with suntanning and more available stylists to accommodate the rapidly growing clientele.

Since 1982 Dennis has also opened salons and franchises in Nutley, Union, Hillside, and a mall salon in Sayreville, his sixth!

Bombs Away — Essex County Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alessio pictured at the podium to the right demonstrated the mobil unit of the new Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad to a crowd of elected officials and law enforcement leaders in Newark earlier this month.

Essex County Sheriff's Office equipped with Bomb Squad

The Essex County Sheriff's Office presented the resources of its new Bomb Squad this week to elected officials and law enforcement leaders from throughout Essex County.

The Sheriff stated that approximately 150 bomb threats are made each year in Essex County and that a dozen exploding devices are actually discovered.

The Essex Sheriff's Bomb Squad will be available to assist any municipal police department seven days a week, 24 hours a day. The Bomb Squad's mobile unit has both suits for the of boots, explosive detectors, bomb blankets to contain fragmentation and a water cannon to defuse explosives. The bomb disposal trailer is equipped with a hydraulic arm which is operated by remote control.

The Sheriff's Bomb Squad is trained to detect all types of explosives including dynamite, plastic explosives and explosive powder.

"I am proud to present the specialized personnel and equipment of the Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad," D'Alessio said. "With the addition of this resource, the law enforcement community of Essex County will have increased capability to respond to incidents of terrorist threats and the use of hazardous and explosive devices."

Mayors and police chiefs were among those joining Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alessio as he demonstrated the mobile bomb unit, the bomb detecting canine and the other specialized components of the Sheriff's Bomb Squad.

D'Alessio noted that the county courthouse complex in Newark was the target of several anonymous bomb threats, including the explosion of a pipe bomb earlier this year. In addition to the county courthouse, D'Alessio stated that Essex County houses a large federal court building, an international airport and several major port facilities.

"I feel that the Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad will serve as a badly needed and long overdue safety resource for Essex County residents," said the Sheriff.

The Sheriff's Office is now one of two law enforcement agencies in the county, along with the Newark Police Department to be certified to dismantle explosive devices in Essex County.

According to Sheriff D'Alessio the Bomb Squad will be headed by Sheriff's Detective Vincent Cammarata, who is an FBI certified "Hazardous Devices Technician." He will be assisted by axes.

Passaic River group supports restoration effort

The Steering Committee of the Passaic River Restoration Project (PRRP) has announced their acknowledgment and unanimous acceptance of new authority recently delegated by an act of the U.S. Congress to formally oversee federally sponsored restoration work on the east bank of the Passaic River from Dunter Dam to Kearny Point.

The delegation of such authority by Congress is included as part of the "Water Resources Development Act of 1986," introduced by Congressman Robert A. Roe (D-N.J.'s 8th Dist.) who represents most of Belleville. The President signed this measure into law November 17, thereby authorizing up to $5 million for use on the PRRP.

River Restoration

Under this federal authorization the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers shall, under the auspices of the PRRP Steering Committee, implement certain specific restoration activities that will enhance the natural environment of the Passaic River for recreational purposes. Such activities shall include bank stabilization, the construction, operation, and maintenance of recreational facilities, tree plantings, the development and protection of native vegetation and wild life, etc.

Actual land acquisition is also authorized as a means to accomplish certain improvements deemed necessary by the Corps of Engineers and the PRRP Steering Committee as part of the overall project.

The central planning document accepted by all municipal participants which details a preferred course of action for riverfront restoration for the entire east bank area is known as the Restoration Master Plan. This plan is currently being updated to include the City of Garfield and the Town of Hazlet as full participants in the project.

This current edition of the Restoration Master Plan will establish the procedure and priorities by which the Corps of Engineers will conduct specific physical improvements to the riverfront as required by Congress, noted Ella Filippone, Executive Administrator for the Passaic River Coalition.

Belleville supports project

The Steering Committee is comprised of mayoral appointees and other civic leaders from Garfield, Wallington, East Rutherford, Rutherford, Lyndhurst, North Arlington, Kearny, and Harrison on the east bank of the Passaic River.

Clifton, Nutley and Belleville are on record as supporting this project although no actual restoration work is presently planned for these west bank municipalities, and the Passaic River Coalition said.

The Passaic River Restoration Project is a joint effort of the Passaic River Coalition, a non profit urban watershed association, and the aforementioned Lower Passaic Valley municipalities to prevent further degradation of the Passaic River in its tidal section and restore its adjacent riverfront to its former prominence as a prime historical, cultural, and recreation corridor within the Garden State.

Restoration a year away

The Secretary of the Army is mandated under this federal act to review and comment on proposed riverfront improvements as included in the Restoration Master Plan and as directed by the PRRP Steering Committee. "During the first year after authorization," November 1987 being this deadline.

Implementation of the project is due to commence soon thereafter.

Tax strategies

Individual retirement accounts: A popular way to save

The Individual Retirement Account (IRA) has been a popular way for New Jersey residents to save for retirement while getting a current tax break by having IRA contributions deducted from current taxable income," said Ben Tobia, District Manager of H&R Block. "But the new tax act will limit the number of people who can deduct contributions to retirement savings accounts on their tax returns."

"Many local residents have benefited from IRA deductions, but now will lose them. Originally, IRAs were introduced as a way to encourage people to save for retirement. However, under the push for tax reform in the last year, this tax incentive has now been cut by new tax legislation."

"Under the new tax act," Tobia continued, "anyone may still contribute to an IRA, but the catch is that only certain people will be able to deduct their contributions on their tax returns. Indirectly, that's the reason the IRA has been so popular."

The new tax act makes those whose adjusted gross income is over $50,000 for a joint return, $35,000 for singles and who are covered by an employer plan, ineligible for the IRA deduction. There are special rules for married taxpayers who file separately.

"Couples with adjusted gross incomes between $40,000 and $50,000, $25,000 and $35,000 for singles will find that they can no longer benefit from the maximum IRA deduction. The maximum deduction of $2,000 ($2,500 for spousal IRAs) will be phased out for individuals in this income range who are also covered by an employer plan. That will affect an awful lot of New Jersey residents because they will be at, or above, those income limits."

Tobia continued: "Those people who are still eligible are those who are not covered by employer plans and those with or without employer plans whose adjusted gross incomes fall below $40,000 for married couples and $25,000 for singles. These people will be eligible to contribute to an IRA following the same rules as in past years. They may contribute and deduct up to $2,000 annually or up to $2,500 in a spousal account."

"Taxpayers who wish to continue to contribute to their IRAs may do so, even if they are no longer eligible to deduct their contributions. However, only the interest or earnings on their new contributions will be tax deferred until they retire."

Tobia feels most confident that these restrictions will gradually be lessened through various amendments over the next few years.

COOL AIR HUMIDIFIERS

One way to cope with a cold is to use a cool air humidifier. These machines spray a cool mist into the air to help the moisture lubricate the nose and throat. This keeps the mucus moving so that it does not collect in one spot and cause congestion. Cool air humidifiers are also useful for those who do not have a cold. When a home's heating system is on during the winter, the air is dried out, and the throat. This creates an environment receptive to viruses which in turn cause colds. Remember, that all cool air humidifiers work in the same way. The only difference is how much water they hold. The advantage over steam supporters is that a small child cannot be burned by the air stream they produce.

Service is the biggest advantage of coming to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave. 758-1968, 759-1950. Our staff is well known for their friendly, helpful service. Home security tips

More than three million residential burglaries are committed annually — one every ten seconds. Don't become a victim.

Secure all swinging doors with dead bolt locks. Use an auxiliary locking bar to secure sliding doors.

Keep doors locked whether you are at home or away. Close and lock windows when you leave your home.

Don't hide spare keys. Burglars always seem to find them. Instead, give your key to a trusted neighbor.

When going on vacation stop all deliveries and ask a neighbor to stop by your house once a day to pick up advertising circulars or anything else that may pile up at your front step.

Use automatic timers to turn indoor lights on and off to make it appear you are at home.

Identify all belongings. By engraving an identification number on your possessions you can reduce the chances that your possessions will be stolen. If they are stolen, the number will make it easier for the item to be returned to you if it's recovered by the police.

Santa's Mailbox

Belleville boys and girls are encouraged to get out their pens, pencils, and crayons and start writing their lists to Santa Claus now.

Special mailboxes have been set up to accommodate the expected heavy mail. One is at Town Hall on Washington Avenue and the other is in front of the Silver Lake Fire House on Franklin Street.

Children can't miss the mailboxes. They're bright red and clearly marked "Santa's Mail." So no one has an excuse for not writing early.

By very special arrangement between Mr. Claus and the Belleville Recreation Department, all letter writers are guaranteed an answer. No stamp is necessary and this special mail box is for Belleville residents only.

If children are too young to write, they are urged to draw a picture and Santa will get the message. Be sure to have someone print the child's name and address so that Santa can answer the letters.

Cases of unsolved burglaries continue to mount in town

By Christopher Bifani

The caseload of unsolved burglaries continued to mount this month, as Belleville residents and store managers reported another three home break-ins, two store break-ins, and one attempted break-in of a home.

Pro shop bowled over
The pro shop at Olympic Bowl lanes on Washington Avenue was the scene of a burglary, Wednesday, December 10, at 11:26, manager Martin Christina told police.

Reportedly taken were five pairs of bowling shoes worth about $25 a pair and three bowling balls worth $35 each.

Officers George Sheridan and Chris Kondrack did the preliminary investigation work. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau. No arrests have yet been made.

Kitchen window shattered
Connie Bergeron, 56, of Franklin Avenue reported a burglary at her home Monday, December 16.

Bergeron told police that when she came home from work at around 5 p.m., she noticed her kitchen door window had been shattered by a rock, and that entry to her home had been gained through the kitchen door.

Upon inspecting the premises, Bergeron discovered that her bedroom had been ransacked. Taken were two full glasses of coins — one of quarters, the other of dimes. No estimate of amount was given.

Also taken in the incident were articles of jewelry including a diamond ring, a cross pen, and children's clothing.

Officer Alan Ciccone did the preliminary investigation. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau. No suspects have yet been apprehended.

$600 taken from apartment
When Joe Festa, 25, of Newark Avenue arrived home the afternoon of Monday, December 15 the first thing he noticed was that something was wrong with his front door.

There were jimmy marks on the door frame, and forced entry had apparently been gained.

According to Belleville Police, Festa's apartment was not ransacked, but a jewelry box were sacked, but a jewelry box were Festa was keeping $600 was the apparent target.

"Apparently someone knew where the money was kept," a spokesman from the Detective Bureau said.

Preliminary investigations were handled by Officers Frank Mesce and Alan Ciccone. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau. No arrests have yet been made.

Gone fishing

The storage area in the rear of Angelo Cardulo's Celia Terrace apartment was broken into Sunday, December 14 and reportedly gone was more than $400 worth of fishing equipment.

According to Belleville Police, the incident occurred at about 11:47 a.m.

Officers Joseph Tramolini and Frank Valse did the preliminary investigation. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau. No arrests have been made as of pressing.

Krausz's deli burglarized

The Belleville Avenue Krausz's convenience store was the scene of a break-in Saturday, December 13 at about 1:29 a.m., Belleville Police said.

The alleged incident began when a suspect or suspects gained entry by breaking a window.

A Belleville resident apparently heard or saw the incident and phoned police who responded and subsequently discovered the broken glass and a rear emergency door half open.

Circumstances, nothing appeared to be taken. The counter area had been ransacked, but cash remained in the register.

"Apparently they were afraid, nothing seems to be missing," a BPD spokesman said. He added that an inventory is pending to determine this for sure.

Following the incident, Krausz's store manager Ellen Danzlik was notified. Next, the fire department responded to board up the shattered glass window.

Officers William Palatella and James Del Grassi handled the preliminary investigations. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau. No suspects have been apprehended as of pressing.

Break in foiled

The home of a Washington Avenue senior citizen was apparently meant to be the staging point for the burglary of an adjacent restaurant, but no entry was gained because the connecting door was heavily secured.

The incident occurred sometime before Saturday, December 13. Mrs. May, no first name given, 66, of Washington Avenue, phoned police to report that her screen had been pushed and her home entered.

Nothing was apparently taken from May's home and no property was disturbed.

Initial investigation has been handled by Officers Frank Weedo and Carmen Pedalino. The case has been turned over to the Detective Bureau. No suspects have yet been apprehended.

Living happily ever after: 50 percent of couples don't

By Karen Marcus, MSW

Fifty percent of today's married couples do not live happily ever after. Unhappily half of all marriages are ending in divorce. No matter what causes a relationship to end, divorce is a major emotional crisis for both partners in a marriage.

Regardless of the duration of the marriage, whether or not the divorce is mutually agreed upon, whether or not there is a custody battle for the children, the dog or the dishwasher, the end of a marriage means losses for both partners.

There is the loss of a spouse, and with that, the loss of a dream of a life shared with another. There is the loss of extended family, in-laws, friends and business associates. There is the loss primarily for fathers, of day-to-day contact with children. Also, there is the loss of property, a home and financial and emotional security.

People who divorce need time to mourn their losses just as though they were mourning a death. As with a death, the mourning process of divorce is characterized by three stages: First, shock and denial. Second, anger and depression and the third and final stage of acceptance and understanding.

Shock is the first emotional state experienced by people facing divorce. After the initial shock wears off, people tend to deny what is happening. Some withdraw from family, friends and activities, once enjoyed. Others try to block out feelings by keeping so busy they don't have time to think. During this stage, some hope in vain for a reconciliation. Denying the situation will not change or improve it.

Anger and depression describe the second emotional stage of divorce. People may feel lonely, frustrated and resentful of the hand they've been dealt. Feeling sentimental one minute and furious the next is normal. Not being able to live in the style to which you were accustomed adds to the emotional strain. The future seems uncertain, and there is the fear of being single again in what seems like a couples' world.

Acceptance and understanding are the final stage in the mourning process. Being divorced finally becomes reality, and a separate identity must be established. Creating a lifestyle that does not include the exposure, and being comfortable with that lifestyle, is a major step toward acceptance of divorce. At this stage, people can come to terms with all their losses and can rebuild and replace what was lost in a way that is satisfying.

Divorce has always had a negative connotation, but the experience can have some positive impact. Divorce is the end of marriage, but it is not the end of family relationships, friendships, happiness or life itself.

Joining a support group can be most helpful in coping positively with divorce. In a support group, there is an opportunity to connect with others who are dealing with the same issues and fears. Separated and divorced people have an obsessive need to talk about what's happened to them, and a support group is a good place to talk and to redefine the concepts of family and happiness.

People facing divorce should know that they will go through this three-stage mourning process and that the feelings they experience are normal. Even though it may be hard, separated and divorced people should stay in touch with other people.

For statewide support group referrals, call the Mutual Aid and Self-Help Clearinghouse at 1-800-367-6274.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Mike Lamberti's

Buc Shots

After a very successful fall season at Belleville High, the focus of attention now turns to the winter sports, where some talented athletes hope to continue the trend of good fortune.

The Buccaneer wrestling team, under the direction of second year coach Joe Nisvoccia, will be a solid entry. The Bucs return the nucleus of last year's squad which posted a 10-4 record and won the District 7 title. This season, Nisvoccia has some lofty goals for his team.

"I might as well go for it all," the coach said. "We would like to repeat as district champs, maybe take the regionals, win the county tournament (which is held at the end of the regular season), and capture the N.J.H.L. title (which Clifton won last year). I guess it's a lot, but these kids are willing to work hard and we have some good talent here."

Good talent and Belleville wrestling have become synonymous over the years. The Bucs have had some incredible teams over the past dozen years, with an undefeated squad in the 1983-84 campaign ranking among the best. Jim Silvestri coached the squad from 1971 through 1976, then turned the reins over to Gene D'Allesandro for the 1976-77 campaign. D'Allesandro went on to post some incredible numbers, winning 80 percent of his matches for nine years.

D'Allesandro stepped down after the '84-85 season and his assistant, Nisvoccia took over. The new coach inherited a young, inexperienced team and the prognosis was for a rebuilding campaign last winter. This year, the Bucs still have youth, but that youth has some experience and the athletes are ready to tackle a very ambitious schedule that Nisvoccia has presented them.

Some top performers from last year that figure to lead this season's squad are Mike Iuliano at 101 pounds, Joe Cerreto at 122 pounds, Armando Nardone wrestling at 129, Phil Zamlot at 148 pound slot, Lou Lucante at 158, Dawson Bloom wrestling at 170 and Marc Criscione in the heavyweight position.

The Bucs face some tough teams in Roselle Park, Edison and Bridgewater West, in addition to the usual tough foes from Bloomfield, Netley and Clifton of the N.J.H.L.

Boys Hoops

It should be an interesting year for first year coach Don Roll and Company. The Bucs are returning a strong nucleus from last season's 5-19 club. The Bucs of 1985-86 showed marked improvement over the second half of the season and hope to carry that over to this season as the players gain experience, strength and a year's experience.

The starting lineup will probably feature Ted Sochaski, Chris Charrigotte, Leon Puentes, Chris Goldrick and Bob Hutchison. All five players saw considerable playing time last year with Sochaski, Charrigotte and Puentes all starting. Hutchison and Goldrick shared time at a forward position last season and Roll hopes to move Hutchison to the guard position where his fine shooting ability will make him a threat.

Coming off the bench will be good athletes in Frank Morrell, Mark Huamann, Loung La and Steve Schwed. Roll is hoping that some junior varsity players will continue to improve as the year progresses. The Bucs will face a tough schedule, as usual, battling the N.J.H.L. powers and taking part in the Tri County Christmas Tourney at Kearny High School. The team has high hopes of winning that tourney, which would mark the first time a Belleville boys basketball team has won a holiday tourney in 20 years, if not more.

The Bucs open the season tomorrow night, at home, against a strong Ridgewood team. Tip off time is 7:30 p.m. Next Monday, the Bucs will stay home to face Clifton in a 4 p.m. start.

Girls Team Looks Strong

When Karen Fucello lost that all star lineup of the 1983-84 campaign, the one that featured Jennifer Apicella, Dina De Aquino, Tracy Buono, Lorell Wells and Donna Brooks, she knew that rebuilding would not come overnight.

Thus, the girls went through campaigns of 9-13 and 2-18, working with younger players in the hope of building as nucleus for future seasons. The work appears to have bore some fruit for 1986-87. While the current Lady Buccaneer team is young, there is some experience and talent on the floor.

Sophomores Simone Edwards and Laurie Dondarski, junior Judy Nehila and senior Laura Caruso return this year and Fucello is hoping that freshman Stacy Johansen can fill the number five position. Johansen has excellent athletic skills and was an offensive powerhouse in the Suburban League a year ago. While there is a big difference between Suburban League and N.J.H.L., Johansen could make an early impact. Fucello also has depth on the bench, with Raquel Nelson, Sandy Brew, Joann D'Ambrose, Carol Morrison and Maria Longobardi. As with the boys, the schedule is not easy. Belleville opens with Ridgewood tomorrow night, then will travel to Clifton next Monday. The girls will compete in the Tri County Christmas Tourney, at Queen of Peace High, battling the host school in the first round.

Indoor and Bowling

The indoor track team is coached by John Tosato and Barb Gundry and will be competing in invitational meets. The Times will be providing weekly coverage of the team, starting in next week's issue. Ditto for the bowling team, coached by Mike Early, who figure to be a force in the N.J.H.L.

Last Weeks Quiz

The 1967 Baltimore Colts got off to an 11-0-2 start, but lost its finale to the Los Angeles Rams and missed out on the playoffs. The Colts and Rams were in the NFL Coastal Division and both teams finished 11-4-2. Back then, there were no wild card entries.

For This Week

Much has been mentioned of the home field advantage in the NFL playoffs. Who was the last NFL team to win the title game on the road and who was that team's coach?

Varsity tangles coming off 10-4 season

Rebuilt wrestlers are ready

Last winter, Joe Nisvoccia took over a young Buccaneer wrestling team, supposedly in a rebuilding season. In Belleville, rebuilding in wrestling usually means a team with winning record and a force in the post season tournaments.

As it can be seen, Belleville accomplished those goals in 1985-86, posting an impressive 10-4 record, the finest record of a winter varsity sport at Belleville High. The Bucs won the District 7 championship, competed in the prestigious Group IV, Section II tourney, and finished second to Clifton in the N.J.H.L. standings. Not bad for a rebuilding year.

Now, as a new season quickly approaches, Nisvoccia has a young, but talented squad that will battle a very difficult slate in 1986-87.

The Bucs open the season next Tuesday, December 23, with a match at Teaneck, starting at 7:30 p.m. The junior varsity match starts at 4 p.m. Next Saturday, December 27, the Bucs will take part in the annual Bloomfield Christmas Tourney at Bloomfield High.

On the schedule this winter are some powerful schools. Edison High comes to town on December 30 for a 4:30 p.m. start. On January 3, the Bucs are best to another powerhouse in Roselle Park, also at 4:30 p.m. On January 17, the Bucs compete in the rugged Elizabeth Tournament. On the 30th of January, the team travels to Cedar Ridge for what promises to be a tough match. On February 11, it's a trip to Bridgewater. Of course, the Bucs will battle the N.J.H.L. schools with tough matches expected from Bloomfield and Nutley.

It's competitive, Nisvoccia said of the 86-87 slate. "But if you want to be one of the best, you have to wrestle the best. This schedule will give our kids the chance to improve as the year progresses."

The lineup is strong, especially in the lower weights.

At 101 pounds is junior Mike Iuliano. As a sophomore last winter, he posted a mark of 20-4 with 10 pins. He was a District 7 champ, a runner up in the regionals and was voted the Most Improved Wrestler at the annual wrestling dinner last March. He also recorded the fastest pin on the team last year, dropping his man in 16 of the first round.

He's a hard worker in practice, Nisvoccia said of Iuliano. "He could be one of our alternate captains this winter."

Senior Joe Perna and sophomore Lou Coco will be vying for the 108 pound slot. Perna was an undefeated junior varsity wrestler last season, posting a 20-0 mark. Coco improved tremendously since last year. He competed on the freshman squad last winter.

At 115 pounds, sophomore John Stampone figures to get the nod. He is one of the few freshmen to ever make the varsity roster in Belleville grappling history. Last year, he was 12-8, battling mostly junior and seniors.

He should do well this season, Nisvoccia said of Stampone. "He got some experience from last year and has been wrestling since the fourth grade."

Junior Joe Cerreto moves up to the 122 pound slot this year. Cerreto had a marvelous campaign last year, finishing 22-3-1. He won the district and regional titles, captured the championship in the Bloomfield tourney and lost in the state tourney to the eventual state champion.

Cerreto has a good chance of breaking the Belleville record for most victories in a varsity career. Ironically, if Cerreto breaks the record, he would unseat his older brother Dominick, who currently has the most victories in a varsity career at Belleville.

Cerreto has been a varsity wrestler since his freshman year and should be a top performer at 122.

At 129, Belleville has another quality athlete in junior Armando Nardone. Last season, he posted a 21-2 record, winning titles in the districts and regionals. He won a title in the Bloomfield tournament and was voted the Outstanding Wrestler of the tourney. Nardone was also the only winner in the Elizabeth Classic last January.

Although he was only a sophomore, Nardone was voted the Most Valuable Wrestler of the 1985-86 squad. He wrestled at 122 pounds last year and is ready for the challenge of 129 this winter.

At 135 pounds, seniors Eric Nazziola and Dave D'Notaris are competing. Both men saw action on the junior varsity last winter, with Nazziola posting a 15-2 mark on the JV. He also won the Elizabeth JV tourney.

D'Notaris has excellent strength and is a known weight lifter. "Nisvoccia has indicated that there will be a wrestle off at that position and at 141 pounds where D'Notaris and Niki Keykurun are working. Keykurun has shown steady improvement and will be a tough candidate."

At 148 pounds is senior captain Phil Zamlot. Nisvoccia describes him as a hard worker and fine team leader. Last season was his first year of varsity action and he came on strong in the second half of the year.

"He beat two guys who had beaten him earlier in the season last year," Nisvoccia said. "He showed a lot with his second half performance."

Senior Mike Martinez will be looking for work at both 148 and 158 pounds. He was a junior varsity performer last season.

Senior Lou Lucante will be vying for time at 158 pounds. Lucante played football for Belleville High and should be in excellent condition. Last season, he came out for the team early in the season and wrestled at 170 pounds. However, 170 was too heavy for him and Nisvoccia feels that 158 will be a much more comfortable weight for Lucante.

Dawson Bloom, a junior, saw some varsity action last year and was a good junior varsity wrestler. He figures to get the nod at 170 pounds, although another junior, Frank Pacheco, will be looking for time at that slot.

Like last year, Nisvoccia does not have a candidate for the 188 pound slot. He does have some candidates for the position and is hopeful of naming a candidate soon. Last year, Belleville had to forfeit a number of matches at 188 pounds because they didn't have a varsity wrestler for the tough weight class.

Finally, the heavyweight class should be well represented with "The Bear," Marc Criscione. He weighs in at approximately 280 pounds and is one of the team captains.

Criscione was 20-5 last year and captured a district title. He also placed third in the regionals and took part in the state finals. He led the team in pins last year with 14 and can certainly write his name next to some former Belleville heavyweights that have excelled on the mat. Some former Belleville heavyweights include Anthony D'Agostino, Ben Dominguez, Scott Grant and George D'Allesandro.

"The fans enjoy watching Marc wrestle," Nisvoccia said. "He is a great kid to work with and is a good team leader."

The early signs certainly look promising as Belleville looks to continue its fine tradition of outstanding wrestling.

First year Soccer Association coach reminisces

1986 soccer season was special

By Philip B. Di Meo

May I take this opportunity to express my appreciation and thanks to the 1986 B Division Spurs, their parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends for making this soccer season my first and a year to remember.

These enthusiastic seven to nine year olds practiced hard, played well, learned, and can certainly be proud of their many accomplishments, among which was winning the B Division Championship. But what made this season so special? I think, was the fun we managed to have along the way—win or lose.

For example, there was the November 1 "Mr. B Day" we planned when, just prior to game time, our players, costumed in Mr. B look alike beads and pillow bellies, paraded with Mr. B placards and Spurs pennants to pay a surprise tribute to Bob "Mr. B" Jaworowski, a gentle giant of a man who continues to contribute so much of his time and energy to youth athletics.

There was the double surprise that same day when Bob and I appeared at the field covered in blue and orange body make-up and wigs in parody of a super Mets fan. With the video camera rolling, everyone had a great time. Before the real cake was served, there was the whipped cream pie in the face greeting with which our team parents and supporters welcomed our players as they came off the playing field at the end of the game. The Spurs won that game, but it wouldn't have mattered. We were having fun.

I remember, too, the "second dollars," oversized pony $10 bills with the Spurs logo centered over a soccer ball, mounted in place of Franklin's portrait. What were we doing to players as "big bonuses" following the final whistle of another game? The Spurs happened to win that game, too, but again, it wouldn't have mattered. All of us were having a good time.

Then there was the last day of the 1986 soccer season when, tied for first place, the Spurs were scheduled to play their two games less than two hours apart. That meant there would be little time for our kids to go home, eat, freshen up, and return to the field needed to a Championship victory celebration. The team standings and game schedules were such that the Championship would not be decided until the end of the game following ours. We were celebrating the end of the season, and once again we were having fun.

Just like the "big leaguers" on TV, our kids had everyone else, for that matter, uncorked the bottles in anticipation, shook them in readiness and took aim at one another. After a few minutes there wasn't a dry person left on the Spurs side of the field.

Although nearly approaching their seventh hour at the playing field that day, many of our team parents and supporters, cold and before the start of the second game. Our team parents and supporters once again banded together and organized sort of an "at-field picnic, thus turning a potentially discouraging set of circumstances into just one more occasion to have fun, and we did.

The Spurs won both games that day, but the "champagne" shower actually it was apple drink that awaited them after the end of the second game was in no way considered somewhat soaked from the "champagne shower" remained there to watch the outcome of the game following our last one. The spontaneous expressions of joy which rang out at the end of the game, the sudden burst of hugging, kissing, hand slapping and dancing by our team parents and supporters could have rivaled the reaction Mets fans had to the end of the sixth game of the World Series.

Varsity basketball season opens tomorrow

By Mike Lamberti

After a summer of leagues and camps and an autumn of practicing and working out, the Belleville boys' basketball team will venture into a new season tomorrow night when it plays host to Ridgewood High in a 7:30 p.m. tip off.

Don Roll's club will host Clifton next Monday at 4 p.m. and then take part in the Tri County Christmas tourney next Friday and Saturday. The Bucs will play Queen of Peace next Friday at Kearny, starting at 6:30 p.m. The other game that night will feature the host school, Kearny, battling North Arlington at 8 p.m. On Saturday, December 27, the consolation and championship game of the tourney will be held at Kearny High. Game times are 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. respectively. Last year, North Arlington won the tourney with Belleville placing third.

Roll's debut tomorrow evening will come against one of the better teams in Bergen County. Ridgewood boasts a solid front line and, as usual, is well coached.

"It will be a good test for us," Roll said. "Ridgewood is usually a good team and I figure them to be solid this year as well."

The Bucs concluded its exhibition slate last Tuesday when it battled St. Mary's of Elizabeth on the road. Last weekend, the Bucs faced powerful Barringer at home and the results were pretty impressive: Barringer, a finalist in the Group IV, Section II tourney in 1985-86, is usually a force in the Newark City League.

"We won five (of seven) quarters," Roll reported. "The only thing that bothered me was on a few occasions, we would start playing their game. Our kids have to learn to play within their abilities. It's tough to run against teams like that. We have the talent, but we have to play to our talent level."

Roll was impressed with the play of juniors Ted Sochaski, Leon Puentes and Chris Chiarmonte and senior Chris Goldrick.

"Teddy didn't have a good offensive game," Roll said, "but he made up for it with good defense and some good assists. That's the difference between last year and this year with Teddy. He is learning to play an all around game and not let one phase of the game get him down."

Sochaski, the teams leading scorer, will more than likely be the top offensive threat this year as well. While Sochaski had an "off" game on the floor, Puentes more than made up for it.

The junior point guard, who also has offensive explosiveness, ran the offense well and was the beneficiary of some fast break layups.

Barring any major changes, Roll's lineup for tomorrow nights opener will feature Puentes and Bob Hutchison at guard with Sochaski, Goldrick and Chiarmonte up front in a three forward offense. Goldrick, a smart player, has good leaping skills and can shoot the ball well. Chiarmonte has improved his rebounding game and can score underneath.

Roll will also look for help off the bench with Mark Huamani, Frank Morrell, Steven Schwed and Loung La Huamani. Morrell and La are seniors with playing experience and Schwed is a junior with good athletic ability.

The key for this team is to get off to a good start. If the Bucs can win the holiday tournament and enter January with a head of steam, the effects could be quite positive. January is traditionally a tough month, with most of the competition coming from the NJJL and that means Eastside, Kennedy, Bloomfield and Montclair.

Hope to improve on 2-18 season

Girls basketball opens at Ridgewood tomorrow

Hoping to improve upon a 2-18 record of a year ago, the Belleville girls' basketball team hits the hardwood for the season opener tomorrow night. Karen Fucello's troops are at Ridgewood for a 7:30 p.m. tip off.

After the Ridgewood game, the girls will battle Clifton next Monday on the road, starting at 4 p.m. The girls will take part in the Tri County Holiday Tournament on the 26th and 27th of December. On the 26th, the girls will battle Queen of Peace, commencing 6:30 p.m. The other first round game features North Arlington and Kearny. All games are played at Queen of Peace High School. On the 27th, the consolation and championship games of the tourney will be held at 6:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. respectively.

The girls finished its pre-season with games against Orange High and Shabazz last week. Versus Orange, Belleville came out on top and against Shabazz, the team showed some very positive signs.

Mistakes hurt us in the Shabazz game," Fucello said. "We worked hard to get the ball up court, then make a silly mistake and lose it. We didn't handle the press as well as I would have liked. Our inexperience is showing, but hopefully, we can overcome that as the year progresses."

While the starting lineup features some familiar names this winter, the majority of the lineup is filled with underclassmen.

The only senior in the starting five is Laura Caruso. A three-year varsity performer, Caruso will be the team's power forward and will be relied upon to crash the boards.

If she can drive hard to the hoop and not fall back on her layups, Caruso will be a definite threat underneath.

Fucello plans to employ a two forward three guard defense this winter. The other forward in the rotation is sophomore Simone Edwards.

Edwards, who saw extended varsity action last winter, has outstanding athletic ability. Although she started the season on junior varsity last winter, she was second on the team in total fouls shots attempted, a sign that she can draw the foul with aggressive play on the offensive boards. If she can improve her foul shooting, she will be a big offensive threat.

The team's top offensive threat in 1985-86 was sophomore Judy Nehila. She averaged 12.9 ppg and shot 62 percent from the foul line, both stats leading the team. She is back for her junior year, but during the off-season, she underwent arthroscopic knee surgery.

She is still getting back into basketball shape," Fucello said of Nehila. "She is playing excellent defense and knows what she's doing out there."

If the offense continues to improve, look for good things from Nehila this winter.

Sophomore Laurie Dondarski, who like Edwards played AAU ball last spring, should start at the point guard position. Dondarski has improved her jump shot immensely and is a good ball handler. All she needs is the experience of playing NJHL ball and she will be a fine talent. She did see some varsity action last winter as a freshman.

The fifth starter should be freshman Stacy Johansen. Last season, she was outstanding on the Suburban League, averaging over 30 points per game. Johansen is the younger sister of former Belleville star Desiree Johansen, who was graduated last spring.

Johansen could be a swing player, moving from guard to forward on occasion. She is certainly a talented athlete.

Fucello also has some experience coming off the bench. Johnny Sandy Brown, Joann D'Ambrose and Raquel Meleon should be effective. Meleon is coming off knee surgery but appears to be in good shape.

Sophomores Maria Longobardi and Carol Morrison could also see varsity time this winter.

The coaching staff is Fucello, Debbie Meila on junior varsity, Karen Portuense with the freshman and Sal Moriello coaching the Suburban League.

It's a young but steadily improving team that Fucello takes to Ridgewood for the opener tomorrow night. The coach expects a tough outing with a good Ridgewood team, but the experience of playing a solid team like Ridgewood should help the team as the year progresses.

Gifts you can give year round

By Pastor Fortunato

THE GIFT OF PRAISE — Appropriate mention, right in front of the other person, of superior qualities, or of a job well done.

THE GIFT OF CONSIDERATION — Putting yourself in the other's shoes and thus providing your genuine understanding of the other side of the case.

THE GIFT OF CONCESSION — Humbly saying at just the right point, "I am sorry, you are right and I am wrong."

THE GIFT OF GRATITUDE — Never forgetting to say "Thank you" and never failing to mean it.

THE GIFT OF ATTENTION — When another speaks, listen attentively. Meet the eyes squarely.

THE GIFT OF INSPIRATION — Plant seeds of courage and action in another person's heart.

THE GIFT OF YOUR PERSONAL PRESENCE — In sickness, in trouble, or in great joy, there is nothing quite equal to your personal expression of sympathy or congratulations.

Resolve to give these gifts each day. You will be pleasantly surprised at what you will receive in return.

Resolve

Build on resolve, and not upon regret.

The structure of thy future. Do not grope

Among the shadows of old sins, but let

Thine own soul's light shine on the path of hope.

And dissipate the darkness. Waste no tears

Upon the blotted record of lost years.

But turn the leaf and smile, oh smile, to see

The fair white pages that remain for thee.

Prate not of the repentance. But believe

The spark divine dwells in thee; let it grow.

That which the preaching spirit can achieve

The grand and all-recreative forces know:

They will assist and strengthen as the light

Lifts up the acorn to the oak tree's height.

Thou hast but to resolve, and lo! God's whole

Great universe shall fortify thy soul.

Local firm sponsors cancer TV show

Hoffmann-LaRoche Inc. of Nutley is sponsoring a television show to promote early detection and diagnosis of disease and of substance abuse.

"The Early Detection Test," the winter offering in the quarterly Frank Field Health Test Series, tells viewers about the life-saving potential of diagnosis and therapy. The half-hour program will provide important health care information in an entertaining quiz format. It is scheduled to air January 3 at 6 p.m. over WCB, channel 2.

Dr. Frank Field, CBS senior health and science editor, and daughter Allison will give viewers a chance to answer questions like these:

- How much higher are your chances of getting colon cancer if someone in your family has had it?
- Are farmers or weekend sun-bathers more likely to develop skin cancer?

- If you're in general good health and under the age of 50, is an annual stress test recommended?

Prominent physicians will then offer practical information on how viewers can safeguard their health.

Among the experts joining Fields will be Richard Berkowitz, M.D., chairman of obstetrics and gynecology, and his colleagues from New York City's Mt. Sinai Medical Center, Arthur I. Holleb, M.D., American Cancer Society, Henry Harris, M.D., American Academy of Pediatrics, Donna Milovan, M.D., chief of infectious diseases, Beth Israel Medical Center, New York, and Mitchell S. Rosenthal, M.D., president of New York's Phoenix House, a drug abuse treatment center.

While health care specialists provide current medical information, celebrities such as Broadway's Walter Charles (Ita Cage Aux Folies), Gregg Edelman (Cats), Judy Geeson (The Comman Pursuit) and Brian L. Green (Big River), and with television actrix Lynn Lipton, will offer historical anecdotes on early detection.

The Frank Field Health Test Series is one of a number of television specials sponsored by Hoffmann-LaRoche Inc. which is widely known for original research and development in the health care field. The company has produced numerous important pharmaceutical and medical products and is a leader in biotechnology. Roche also provides a wide range of diagnostic products and clinical laboratory services and is a major producer of pure bulk synthetic vitamins, as well as animal health and agricultural products.

Real Estate Briefcase

By Jack Reilly, G.R.I.

What is the difference between a REALTOR® and a REALTOR ASSOCIATE®?
Michele Rosa, Nutley

The public (and the press) have a bad habit of equating the term REALTOR® with "one who sells real estate." This is quite incorrect and yet widespread misuse is common. The term REALTOR® is a registered trademark (look it up in the dictionary) and should always appear in print in capital letters. The only licensed use of the term REALTOR® is by real estate brokers who are members in good standing of the National Association of REALTORS®.

Unlike generic terms used by other professions (i.e., doctor, lawyer, etc.), REALTOR® signifies a special membership in a trade association which is dedicated to the preservation of private property rights and an established code of ethics which each of its members must adhere to. Any broker who does not belong to this organization is merely a real estate broker and can not be identified as a REALTOR®.

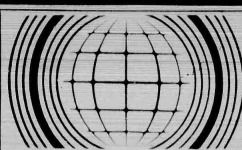

Since a great majority of real estate practitioners are not brokers, a sub-category was created in the trade association to accommodate them: Realtor Associate®. This membership category is for the licensed real estate salesperson who is in the employ of a REALTOR® and wants to belong to the association. A salesperson who enjoys the status of a member affiliate as a Realtor Associate® must also adhere to the strict code of ethics set forth by the National Association of REALTORS®. Again, the salesperson who does not belong to this association is merely a real estate salesperson, and can not be identified as a Realtor Associate®.

A recognizable logo is displayed in most member offices and is used in member advertising. It is the large block letter "R". When looking for the services of a real estate professional, remember to look for a REALTOR®.

McDonald Realtor plans growth

Margie McDonald Realtor has been providing personalized real estate brokerage services to the Bloomfield, Nutley, Belleville and Glen Ridge communities for thirty years. The company now plans to provide more of the same highly personalized services using the time-tested formula of family owners getting personally involved in all phases of the operation.

It is doing that by forming a partnership, Margie McDonald Realtor, Ltd., that will be owned and operated by members of the McDonald family. Margie McDonald herself will be providing guidance based upon her many years of invaluable experience.

Other members of the family will be overseeing the direct sales operations, to be led by Karen McDonald Illaria, Margie McDonald's daughter. Still other family members will be bringing management, financing and data processing expertise to the partnership. "It will all add up to our ability to provide the state-of-the-art services offered by the larger, farflung firms in real estate, while still keeping the personal touch," says Margie McDonald. "That's very exciting."

In addition to Karen McDonald Illaria, the Manager of McDonald's sales operations, the company has also recently added Roy Bruns, Frances Carle, Dolores Cooper, Eugene Domaracki, Karen Golding, Richard Golding, Ann Jenkins, Edward Marra and Gloria Mosier as sales associates. Ann James continues to provide courteous service as executive secretary. All bring good experience and an appreciation of the importance of personal services to their new positions.
