Commission candidates speak out

Asbestos is the issue — Board of Education members Dr. Anthony D'Agostino (l.) and Ernest Zoppi hear both sides of asbestos testing controversy. (Photo by Christopher Bifani)

Parent faults Board for asbestos procedure

by Christopher Bifani

As the Belleville Board of Education plans for a $950,000 asbestos removal program for the summers of 1987 and 1988, the testing procedure on which that program is to be based has come under fire.

The February 23 school board meeting was an arena of debate over two kinds of asbestos detection techniques. One, called Phase Contrast Microscopy (PCM) was utilized by the P.M.K. Engineering Firm to determine the level of airborne asbestos in all of the township's public schools. The results of that test, said P.M.K. Chief Engineer Jim Ferris, will be presented to the school board tomorrow.

The second, more sophisticated asbestos detection technique is called Transmission Electron Microscopy (TEM). This technique involves the use of a $250,000 electron microscope.

Susan Cafone, president of School 7's home and school association, stated that "the PCM method which will be used by P.M. Keegan (PMK) is not accurate." She said the detection method could not tell the difference between microscopic asbestos particles, which are believed to cause cancer, and harmless particles of dust. She added that the TEM technique is the better removal method.

Chief Engineer Ferris, when reached later for comment, agreed that TEM is the superior removal method.

"TEM is a more sophisticated method that can distinguish between asbestos and non asbestos fibers, and can detect smaller fibers than PCM," he said. However he added that the cost of TEM, which his firm is not yet equipped to perform, is "twenty times the cost of PCM."

Another problem with TEM, he said, was that the waiting time for test results takes days or weeks, while PCM results are available in "a few hours." In defense of the PCM technique which his firm utilizes, Ferris told the Times that since "all fibers observed under the Phase Contrast Microscopy method are assumed to be asbestos, conservative results are thereby realized. The error is on the side of safety."

But looming in the distance is federal legislation which would force schools to adopt the costlier - but far more accurate - TEM system. If that day comes, Ferris said his firm might consider purchasing the required electron microscope.

Concerning tomorrow's report, Ferris declined to comment on its contents saying that, "my clients should see the contents first." He was referring to the school board.

However, Chief Engineer Ferris did state that Belleville schools are "in better shape than the majority of other school districts" regarding airborne asbestos levels.

But, like the members of the Belleville Board of Education, concerned parents are anxiously waiting to know the contents of the P.M.K. report.

necessary. Persons not enrolled in one of the above programs must show some other proof of income, like Unemployment or Social Security check or pay stub. PAA has been eliminated as an eligible factor.

The following are the new income guidelines which are to be used to determine program eligibility.

One person in family, $9,916; 2 people, $13,394; three people, $16,872; four people, $20,350; five people, $23,828; six people, $27,306; seven people, $30,784; eight people, $34,262.

Although some of the would-be commissioners who took out petitions last month have, as expected, dropped out of the race, there's still a large field of candidates seeking a place on the Belleville governing commission.

Earlier this week, the Times caught up with most of the aspirants — posing the same three questions to all:

Why are you running for commissioner?

If elected, which commission post would you prefer?

What are Belleville's biggest problems and what would you do to help solve them?

The replies we received shed some light on what makes a Belleville commission candidate tick...

Commissioner Joseph McGreevey

"I think I can do the town alot of good," stated Commissioner of Revenue and Finance Joseph McGreevey as his reason for seeking re-election.

McGreevey, who is further employed on the payroll department of the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission, offered no surprises when asked which post he'd like if re-elected:

"The same one I've had for the past twenty years," he replied.

When asked what he perceives as Belleville's biggest problem, and what he'd do to help to solve it, the finance commissioner said, "Problems? I think the town is going forward and it's in good shape."

Commissioner Michael Pizzi

"The reason I'm running for re-election is that I haven't completed what I started out to do. In the last four years we've accomplished alot but there's still alot more to do with regard to seniors, medical clinics, transportation. This year we'll be implementing new programs and expanding other programs like dial-a-ride for the seniors and handicapped."

Commissioner Pizzi, who is further employed as a director of security, said that if he's re-elected he'd like to continue serving as the Commissioner of Public Affairs, which oversees health programs and welfare in Belleville.

Pizzi, of Columbus Avenue, says some of Belleville's biggest problems concern senior citizens, particularly the lack of senior citizen housing in town.

"One of the setbacks during my first term was not being able to put up senior citizen housing. I would have liked to see it go up in the last four years but hopefully we'll be able to see it in the next four."

"The infrastructure needs to be maintained. We have to keep this town a nice place to live. Also, we have to get the Avenue back. We've made strides in revitalizing the Avenue. Even as recently as four years ago there were alot of empty stores, now there are hardly any."

"I was disappointed that the public safety building is not being built on the Avenue. It's sort of hidden," Pizzi added, but he is still supportive of new police facilities. Overall, the public affairs commissioner is optimistic about the future of Washington Avenue and points to "the fact that the Chamber of Commerce has gotten involved."

Joseph Dasaro

"Dasaro never says never!"

That was the remark Joseph Dasaro, of Davidson Street, gave at a town meeting in January when asked by a Times reporter if he planned to run for commissioner.

Some six weeks later, and with less than three weeks until the filing deadline, Dasaro is still not saying "never" to another commission bid. But he hasn't said "yes" yet either.

The travel agency owner, chamber of commerce director, and executive director of the Belleville Redevelopment Agency said, "All I did was take out petitions, seek out the signatures required, and be prepared to file on the 19th of March," indicating that he may already have the required 169 signatures.

If he does file, and is elected, which commissioner's chair would he like to sit at?

"I really haven't given it much thought. I would serve the township in any capacity my talents are suited for. I have no preference. When you run for commissioner, you're not really running for a particular position, you're running for the office of commissioner."

Although Dasaro was tough to pin down on the first two questions, the third question — What's Belleville's biggest problem and what would you do to help solve it — garnered a full-sized response:

"I see Belleville's biggest problem as a lack of understanding between those who have the responsibility and power — and the townspeople. There has to be

Potential liability debated

Concerned Citizens protest town payment of subcontracts

by Christopher Bifani

Recent payments made by the Belleville Board of Commissioners to subcontractors working on the proposed Belleville Public Safety Building have sparked an outcry from the Concerned Citizens of Belleville.

These subcontractors, the group believes, should be paid by Neil Siciliano, the township's consulting engineer and point man for the project.

Gabriel Nazzola, vice president of the CCB, told the town commission that the all checks the town writes for engineering services should go only to Siciliano. If he needs to farm out some of the work, then he should write the checks, Nazzola said.

Nazzola added that the arrangement makes the township potentially liable. He said that the firms Siciliano was hiring to do his engineering work were being paid by the town, but being hired by Siciliano.

"People are being paid without any direct authorization from the town," Nazzola exclaimed. "There's no basis, nobody ever bid. It's totally out of whack!"

But Belleville Township Attorney Frank Cozzarelli said that since the contracts were all below the $7500 threshold, the contracts did not have to be bid on.

"I see no impropriety," the attorney stated.

Other townspeople wondered if the town was paying these bills in excess of the monies Engineer Siciliano was budgeted.

Police Commissioner Ralph DiRuggiero responded to those questions: "I am under the impression that all contracts are under neil Siciliano's budget."

Gabriel Nazzola

Concerned Citizens President Vincent Frantantoni jumped on DiRuggiero's "impression" by saying that "you should have withdrawn the resolution (directly paying Siciliano's subcontractors) until you knew for sure."

At the February 24 town meeting the Belleville Board of Commissioners paid Estimating and Management Company $3,800 and Elson T. Killam Associates $2,113.83. In a separate payment, Siciliano received $10,326 from the town coffers.

On the architectural account, the board paid the Manhattan-based Beckard-Richlan firm $35,420 more for their role in designing the project.

The next meeting of the Belleville Board of Commissioners is slated for March 10 at 8PM at Town Hall.

Spring cleaning...

"Happy March, everybody," I exclaimed upon bounding into the Belleville Times newsroom this past Monday. It was March 2, the first working day of the month, and the emerging aura of spring was already fixed in Your Editor's mind.

Now, we all know that spring doesn't officially begin until March 21 but here in Belleville the weather has already taken a warming turn for the better. Tuesday, March 3, the sun shone bright and I took time out from Deadline Day to stroll a bit of Union Avenue. My first thoughts on this first spring-like day of 1987 revolved around that cruiser-class BMX bicycle of mine cooped up in a Malone Avenue garage. Regressing back into adolescence for a few precious moments, I envisioned the trails I intend to blaze through Belleville and Branch Brook Park.

But the flip-side of springtime's carefree daydreaming is the dreaded Spring Cleaning and I soon found myself thinking of the letter to the editor I had just received, the one from a Washington Avenue businessman which lambasts Avenue retailers for their blatant sloppiness. The letter, which appears in this week's edition, is accompanied by a photograph submitted by the author which clearly shows that some Belleville merchants don't mind if their sidewalks and curbs are substituting for trash-

I thought about recent statements made by Chamber of Commerce officials which indicate that maybe the Chamber will finally crack down on the Avenue's biggest slob...the ones who couldn't care less about introducing the tough straw of a push broom to the lonely, long-neglected pavement in front of their stores.

I thought about the praise Commissioner Michael Pizzi heaped on the Chamber, when he told the Times that the Avenue has made great strides in "coming back" now that the Belleville Chamber of Commerce was getting involved again.

With a big turning-point election less than ten weeks away, it seems obvious that every candidate is going to have something to say about the lack of elbow grease on

Bifani on Belleville

Avenue's renewal begins at ground level

Washington Avenue, Joe Fornarotto, an inspector with the township, promises to "enforce the town codes." But they're not all in housing and maintenance. We have codes against litter and broken glass in front of our stores, don't we? You bet we do.

And then there are two potential candidates, Vincent Prantantoni and Joe Dasaro who serve as chamber of commerce directors. Forget about parking and blight for a minute, gentlemen! How about a campaign pledge that if elected you'll use your advantageous dual-office capacities to crack down on Avenue slob? True, this may not garner as many votes as a tax revolt platform, but there is a relationship between the two issues: Washington Avenue ratables would certainly be easier to attract if the Avenue doesn't look like Broadway.

In the old days, springtime in Belleville meant strolling down a squeaky clean main thoroughfare, past historic churches, bustling stores, and a magnificent undecorated public library. Today, a stroll down the Avenue can still be a pleasure if the sun shines bright and if one does not look down at the cracked pavement, crumbling curbs, broken glass and litter.

Later on in the season, an Avenue stroll (or bike ride in my case) promises to be even more enjoyable as lush green foliage returns to those Avenue blocks lucky enough to still be graced with trees.

Of course, with the leaves come the weeds...another scourge to add to Washington Avenue's ground level malais.

I remembered how I embarrassed some folks on the Avenue last year with big Times photos showing the weeds and trash on their properties. While officials at both the Chamber and Town Hall protested that this put Belleville in a bad light, the slob did clean up their acts, and others followed suit.

Bad publicity does spur people to act, it appears, but one would think that in the case of litter and weeds it makes good business sense to remove these problems before they get out of hand. Pull the weeds now, save money on sidewalk repair later. Sweep the litter at the end of the day (or week, even) and reap the business benefits that come with being a good citizen - one who cares about the township and is spotted by appreciative passers-by performing the good deed.

Unfortunately, it will take more than one maverick newspaper editor to get Avenue business owners (and business owners throughout town) to begin keeping their storefronts in tip-top shape. It will take an aggressive Belleville Chamber of Commerce to police its own membership, one that's not afraid to kick the most awful offenders off the team.

Mr. Villano gave a vivid description of the negative effects of strong bleach applied to hair samples which were immersed in a chemical solution for a period of 30 minutes. After careful observations by the students, the hair samples were viewed under microscopes to see the structural damage. These were compared to a control sample which was immersed in plain water for the same period of time and then viewed under the microscope.

Other experiments testing the pH (acidity or alkalinity) of various products used on hair such as: water, soap shampoo, vinegar (used as a hair rinse), and ammonia water (an ingredient found in some bleaching solutions). The knowledge of pH strength of products is important in cosmetology to determine which products are safe to use on hair, and whether a product could tentatively be a source of hair damage.

Bring back CECLS

Belleville Public Library Director David Bryant has a reputation for being an easy-going, quiet man, who wears his many hats (he's a chamber of commerce director, Rotarian, and family man, too) without letting problems get to him.

There is one thing, however, which is getting him riled up.

The County of Essex Cooperating Libraries System (CECLS) is in danger of being eliminated from the fiscal 1987 county budget. This program allows for any library cardholder who is in good standing to apply for a CECLS card and thereby borrow books from every town library in Essex plus most college libraries.

For students and readers in Belleville it provides for full borrowing privileges at Newark Library, the largest in the state with more than a million books and 3,000 different periodical subscriptions. CECLS cardholders may also borrow at the Rutgers library in Newark, the largest and finest college library in the state.

Bryant says Bellevillites borrowed 2587 books through the CECLS program, borrowing from both the aforementioned libraries as well as libraries in Bloomfield and Nutley. By contrast, Belleville loaned out 573 books through the program.

But, despite the apparent success of the CECLS program (overall, 76,000 titles were circulated) County Executive Nicholas Amato reportedly told the library director the program would not be funded for fiscal 1987. In response to that possibility, the CECLS program was suspended as of March 1.

The cost of the CECLS program is $55,000, a miniscule amount compared to the total Essex budget which runs to the hundreds of millions.

Freeholder Arthur Clay, who supports the reinstatement of the program, said "I urge my colleagues to support this program that gives services to over 12,000 Essex County citizens."

He said the program helps our county's brightest students with their educations. Bryant, meanwhile points out that the cost breaks down to only 66 cents per transaction.

There is one more point we'd like the county government to consider when the CECLS program comes up for reinstatement: It is one of the few programs which bring the county together, and it is clearly visible to the taxpayers as a program which shows them something for their money.

Belleville has a fine library, with over 100,000 books. But with CECLS our township's students and readers have access to millions of books. $55,000 is not enough savings to warrant taking that away.

Lenten message

Return to the Lord

By Rev. Arthur B. Schute
Director of Pastoral Care
Clara Maass Medical Center

Lent is hard work. That may sound strange since many of the imposed penances and stringent attempts at "giving something up for Lent" do not weigh as heavily on us as they did on our parents and grandparents.

Lent is hard work! The common lectionary for Ash Wednesday has the Prophet Joel address the people of Israel and us say for the Lord, "Return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning; rend your hearts, nor your garments, and return to the Lord, your God."

It is hard work to return with your whole heart, especially when our heart has so many legitimate and illegitimate demands made upon it, pulling it in so many directions. Think of all the demands that have been made upon the weak, fleshly muscle during this past year — our family relationships, our work our friends, our responsibilities (all legitimate demands); our revenge, our unethical deals, our lust, our willful harming (all illegitimate demands).

That poor heart is going in all directions; no wonder it sometimes develops an arrhythmia!

Think also that Joel says, "Rend your hearts." Rip your heart; Tear it. What would happen, should you take it literally? You would bleed out and die! That is gruesome hard work!

What does all this mean? The Lord wants us during lent to realize once again that He is the Lord and Center of our lives. He wants us to work out the arrhythmias in our heart and have it beat in better rhythm with the pulse of the Lord.

Down through the ages the scriptures and the Church have recommended the three special practices joined together to achieve this rhythm — prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Prayer alone with God and prayer with others to God.

Fasting — controlling intake of food and drink to gain mastery over material concerns.

Almsgiving — to share God's goodness and love to us with others.

If we choose to employ this tried and true way of fixing the rhythm of our heart over the span of forty days, there will be a definite dying, just like someone has ripped out a heart from a chest. There will reappear a new and risen heart, a heart that beats in tune with the Lord's and a heart that really makes the Lord's peace and joy evident in a world that is desperately in need of hope and healing.

Lent is hard work! Do it! It is worth it!

My God is no Stranger

I've never seen God, but I know how I feel...
It's people like you who make Him "so real"...
My God is no stranger, He's friendly and gay...
And He doesn't ask me to weep when I pray...
It seems that I pass Him so often each day...
In the faces of people I meet on my way...
He's the stars in the heavens, a smile on some face.
A leaf on a tree or a rose in a vase,
He's winter and autumn and summer and spring,
In short, God Is Every Real, Wonderful Thing.
I wish I might meet Him much more than I do...
I would if there were more people like you.

The other candidates...

To the editor:

The candidates have tossed their hats into the ring. Many qualified individuals seek office. However there are some potential candidates that I personally would like to see: the retired person living on $350 a month social security, the welfare mother of 5 children, the ex-con (assuming he went straight), the factory worker whose living expenses rise faster than his meager paycheck.

The poor and near poor usually know as much or more about the problems facing ordinary citizens. It is a shame that potential candidates among this segment of society are rarely considered. I, for one, would consider voting for such a person not in spite of his or her background, but because of it.

Job well done...

To the editor:

I wish to thank you for having published my letters requesting the naming of the Municipal Stadium to "Bill 'Doc' Ellis Field." It is the least we could have done for Bill.

I also wish to thank Mayor Marotti, and the town officials for finally approving my suggestion. A job well done. Many sincere thanks.

Candidate cares...

To the editor:

As a Commissioner candidate in the coming election, I believe the Senior Citizens of Belleville should have a Director of Programs to bring all their needs and ideas to the Commissioners for their consideration.

I believe shopping centers and fast food businesses should have their own security and police so more of our cops can police our streets.

I believe the dead trees and stumps should be cut and taken away now — not five years from now.

I believe the streets scheduled to be repaired or repaved should be done on a priority basis, the streets most in need first, etc.

I CARE!

Thank you,
Joseph Fornarotto

Garbage Avenue...

To the editor:

Where are our streetcleaners???

The streets of Belleville need cleaning. Its winter, I know, but somebody has to do something about the garbage, especially on Washington Avenue (east side of the street) the block between Overlook Avenue and Greylock Parkway.

Besides this garbage in the street, there is a lamp pole that regardless of what day it is, has bags full of garbage next to it in front of 544 Washington Avenue.

I run a business across the street from this eyesore and believe me it is hard to find parking on Washington Avenue, but it is worse when you do find a spot and it is full of garbage and broken glass.

Can't we have this mess cleaned up? Why can't the property owners be told that they have to keep the front of their buildings clean? I am sure no one enjoys having to walk past this mess day in and day out.

Reagan and Coolidge...

To the editor:

Through the years Ronald Reagan has acquired an admitted admiration for Calvin Coolidge.

With all the great Presidential role models, such as Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and FDR, at his disposal; how in the world? did Ron allow himself to be brain-washed into adoration of America's "do nothing President," Calvin Coolidge.

History has shown that it was the "do nothing policies" of Calvin Coolidge, that was largely responsible for the great depression of the 1930's, which in turn, stifled the potential Presidential greatness of his successor — Herbert Hoover.

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

The prestige and concern the public associates upon the comparative roles of our municipal elective officials is demonstrated by the apathy they manifest in school board elections and the significant importance they attach to commission election.

The school board budget more than doubles that of the municipal budget. It provides for the education and transportation of our children, upon which the future of this nation is largely dependent... whatever budget they prepare, subject to the approval of the few who vote in school elections, must be raised by local taxation.

With regularity Belleville voters vote down the school board because they feel it will raise their property taxes. When they do, it goes to the commissioners for lower adjustments... sometimes mutual arrangements are arrived at in compromise. Otherwise, the school board appeals to the State Commissioner of Education who usually modifies the cuts imposed by the local commissioners. Whatever, universally throughout the state school budgets go up. This is commonplace in municipalities which have elective school boards... the generosity of the board members to their employees too often determines their tenure as a trustee. Communities which have appointive boards are less likely to be influenced by such considerations.

The prestige contrasts of the two Belleville boards are striking: School Board, filing date passed, only one candidate, other than the two incumbents coming up for election. A young woman, Patricia Pisano 3-A, has filed and is running in the April 7 school election. Board of Commissioners, already, at time of this writing, 14 candidates have filed, with closing filing date being March 19.

True! School trustees serve without remuneration, although there are a few perks. Commissioners have a salary of $7,000 which includes expenses, the Mayor slightly more. Yet, many of the wide field of aspiring candidates say it would cost them $10,000 to run and win. We doubt that because we don't subscribe to the theory that our Belleville voters can be bought.

Is it all for honor and glory or are we concerned with installing in office dedicated, competent and experienced people who are concerned not about their own honor and glory, but the best interest of Belleville's growth and betterment — and doing it within the range of the people's ability to pay.

We entertain the conviction that the electorate of this community are sufficiently intelligent and informed to winnow the chaff from the wheat of the candidates.

Reagan administration policies whereby federal grants and aid to towns and cities as well as counties along with loss of educational aid has forced all levels of government to hike taxes to compensate for this loss.

Governor Kean, likewise, has not been benevolent in his slashing of monies to municipalities. His move to repeal the Ford law which allows senior citizen property owners, who pay realty taxes, to reduce their state income taxes up to $65, will add a further burden on aged taxpayers, while urban cities will benefit from the largess he will heap upon them to relieve their problems.

Perhaps some of the salary increases doled out to Cabinet members and others in state government service would have been held in abeyance until more favorable economical times. Surely they were getting along a damn side better than the average family or individual. Makes one wonder how many of these raises would be given if the Governor had to pay them himself?

Crecco urges Kean to support tax amnesty municipal aid

Assemblywoman for Belleville Marion Crecco (R-Essex) last week urged Governor Thomas Kean to sign legislation that will create a tax amnesty program as a means to provide a short-term solution to problems many municipalities now face because of a loss of federal revenue sharing monies.

In a letter to the Governor, Crecco urged the Governor to support this plan, which "provides a short-term solution to municipal financial problems without an increase in the state income tax."

The bill, which is co-sponsored by Senator Carmen Orechio, is to be presented to Kean March 9.

$84,314; Montclair with $467,511; Nutley with $444,253 and Verona with $113,767.

Crecco backs legislation to stop gas tax increase

Assemblywoman Crecco (R-Essex) has endorsed a legislative proposal that would provide a permanent funding source for the State Transportation Trust Fund without a tax increase.

The Bloomfield Republican said, "Governor Kean asked for an alternative plan. These bills are that alternative."

Two and one-half cents of the eight-cent-per gallon tax on gasoline now goes toward maintenance of roads and bridges.

"This plan will insure that every penny paid by Garden State motorists goes towards improving New Jersey's transportation system," Crecco said.

She said the plan would shift five and one-half cents of the current gas tax from general revenues to the fund.

"The legislature will then have to decide whether to cut spending or increase taxes. I know we can but spending, particularly in the size of the state bureaucracy."

"This legislation will provide our area with nearly two million dollars to keep cops and firemen on the job and stop local property tax increases," the Bloomfield Republican said. "This plan, which relies on funding from the state tax amnesty plan, will keep property taxes down without an increase in state taxes," Crecco said.

"Municipal officials need to know that the federal spigot has been turned off. I don't think that a state income tax increase, through repeal of the Ford Real Property Tax Credit, is the solution. But this concept gives municipal officials time to plan ahead," she added.

Crecco said that the idea behind ending federal revenue sharing "is to bring governmental accountability back to the local level and away from the bureaucrats."

the aid plan would provide Belleville with $621,438; Bloomfield with $794,532; Cedar Grove with $106,205; Glen Ridge with current Resolution 134 would put a question on the November ballot asking voters to dedicate the entire eight-cent gas tax for transportation purposes.

"This plan achieves the goals the Governor has set out without a tax increase," Crecco said. "It does it through a reallocation of priorities."

Assemblywoman Marion Crecco represents the Essex towns of Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair, Nutley and Verona.

Commission candidates speak out a trust established between these two forces that would enable the town to move in the progressive direction it has to if it is to prosper into the 21st century.

"There has been established in this town an attitude of them-and-us, meaning the townspeople and the commissioners. What I would strive to do — if I ran and if I'm elected — is try to bring those two forces together. In the end there's just one common denominator and that's the township."

Joseph Fornarotto

"I decided to run for commissioner because I feel that I can do more for the townspeople than I can as an inspector or an interested citizen. Also, I decided to run because two people — Commissioner (of Public Safety Ralph) DiRuggiero and (Commissioner of Public Works) Joe Grande are not running for re-election. Plus, my experience as a town official means alot — the experience of knowing how to handle people, helping where I can and enforcing the town codes."

At presstime, and with more than two weeks left before the filing deadline, Commissioners DiRuggiero and Grande had not filed petitions to seek re-election. DiRuggiero, however, told the Times in December that he intended to run again. Grande told the Times last week he hasn't made up his mind yet.

Unlike other aspirants to Belleville's governing commission, Fornarotto has no doubt about which post he wants:

"I would prefer to be Commissioner of Public Works because of my experience in contracting and my 10 years in public works in the Township of Belleville," he stated.

And what does he think are some of the township's biggest problems?

"The senior citizens need help," is his first reply. "Second, we need more police protection."

Other township problems he lists include dead trees and stumps which need to be removed, roads, water, sewers and maintenance and improving services to the people.

Vincent Frantantoni

"I decided to run upon the realization that after four years of battling with the current commissioners to get things done it was obvious that the only way I could make a difference for the people of Belleville was to be on the inside where I could truly represent them," Vincent Frantantoni, of Mt. Prospect Avenue stated.

Frantantoni, who is a home improvement contractor and Washington Avenue laundromat owner, said he hasn't yet given any thought as to which commission post he would prefer.

"My main concern has been for the welfare of the people, I feel confident that I can do a good job in any department," he said.

When it comes to "Belleville's biggest problem", Frantantoni quickly responds:

"Our tax situation. Our lack of general services. The improper development of the town. And the image that past administrations have made for Belleville."

Commenting on each of the problems he perceives, Frantantoni said he would "stabilize taxes, set up specific programs for providing and carrying out municipal services as opposed to the helter-skelter way they are now administered, and I'd provide the proper atmosphere to lure industrial development back to our town, and to retain what industrial ratables we have left." These ratables, he said, provide jobs for our citizens.

Jerry Del Guercio

"My main reason for running for commissioner was because of the tax increase," Attilio Jerry Del Guercio stated. "I'm a homeowner. I got a $600 tax increase. Now, Shapiro got most of the blame but as it turned out the town tax rate went up even higher than the county rate. Last year for the first time the reserve for uncollected taxes was separated from the town portion of the tax bill and I feel this was done to mislead the people to think the tax rate didn't go up as much."

DelGuercio, who has a bachelor's degree in government from Seton Hall and is employed as a security supervisor for Essex County, said the commission post he'd prefer most is Commissioner of Public Safety.

"To be honest, I'd probably want police-and-fire. I have no actual preference, but I have 10 years experience in security. Recently I took a civil test to become chief security guard and I scored 1," Del Guercio said.

What DelGuercio perceives as the township's biggest problem is the same answer he gives as his reason for running:

"It's the tax increase. That is the main issue. I think any other issue would be minimal compared to the taxes. I feel the tax rate must be stabilized, otherwise many Bellvillites will not be able to afford to continue living here."

"A problem which ties into this is that our current elected officials have lost the trust and confidence of the citizens. You can see it at any town meeting. The animosity is clearly there."

Del Guercio said that if he's elected his first act — assuming he has the support of at least two other commissioners — would be to suspend the construction of the public safety building.

"I feel that the half million already spent for an architect was ridiculous and the building could have cost overruns and become a big, white elephant. Other options might include using available space such as School 1. I feel this election in May will be a referendum on this project," he said.

Nicholas Mazzola

"I decided to run for commissioner because I think Belleville can be a little better represented, and run in a better manner. By thinking out plans a little better, I'd look for ways to save the taxpayers money," Nicholas Mazzola of Myrtle Avenue stated.

Mazzola, who is employed as a clothing store manager in neighboring Nutley, said he has no preference when it comes to which commission post he would like.

"I would accept any post if elected," he said, "Whatever post I get I would work very diligently at."

Mazzola said that one of Belleville's biggest problems right now is the $5 million which is to be spent on the township's forthcoming public safety building on Belleville Avenue.

"$5 million is too much," Mazzola explained, "Remember, we as Essex taxpayers got a 22% increase in 1986, and if the public safety building is built we will get another tax increase. Plus, we have to employ people to work there, and maintain it."

Mazzola said the solution is "not to build the building. We do have School 1 and it's half empty. We can move offices there and the police department can stay where it is, (expanding) within Town Hall."

Mazzola continued by saying that Town Hall is a "beautiful building — they don't build them like that anymore."

"It's cheaper to renovate than to build new," he said.

Gabriel Nazzola

"It's almost impossible for the average working person in Belleville to afford to live here because of the tax rate. I decided to run for commissioner because somebody has to stop this unending escalation and because I really think the people in office don't listen.

DRY MOUTH
A common side effect of certain medications is dry mouth, or "xerostomia." Certain drugs interfere with signals to the salivary glands. This can inhibit the flow of protective saliva and leave the mouth vulnerable to tooth decay. Many antidepressant drugs can have such effects. Other medicines likely to produce oral dryness include antihistamines, antihypertension drugs, and some ulcer medications and tranquilizers. If dry mouth occurs, scrupulous oral hygiene is essential. Even more important is daily protection of the teeth with a fluoride gel or mouthwash. Using sugar-free gum and commercially available forms of artificial saliva can also offer symptomatic relief. If the side effect of the medication cannot be tolerated, ask your physician about substituting another drug.

We offer friendly, helpful service along with a complete prescription department at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 339 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. Free prescription delivery is provided. Stocks include transistor radios, cameras and film, times watches, gift items, baby needs and greeting cards. Open 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HANDY HINT:

on issues

They've lost touch," stated Gabriel Nazziola of Van Reyper Place.

Nazziola, who works as an insurance man and is a director with the Belleville Redevelopment Agency, said he would prefer to be Commissioner of Revenue and Finance if elected.

"I have a background in bookkeeping and accounting," Nazziola explained, "and I'd like to find out where the money's going. If anybody can find out, I feel I can."

The former school board member believes the township's biggest problem is the "tax problem."

"It's over-burdening for the average family," he insists, "and the way I would attack that or restrain it is to revise the structure of reserves for uncollected taxes."

"Right now Belleville sets a reserve for uncollected taxes based on 5% of the total tax levy. That's the maximum New Jersey allows. I'd set it at the average of the last five years. Our actual uncollected taxes are less than a half of one percent."

In other Belleville election '87 developments, three potential candidates announced after taking out petitions that they have dropped out of the race.

Sebastian Papa, of Belmont Avenue, said "I have decided not to run because I have accepted a new job in New York that will take a lot of my time. Also, I have just been appointed to the Belleville Rent Leveling Board, and that will take up much of my time." Papa said he is throwing his support behind candidate Vincent Frantantoni.

Richard Yanuzzi, of Greylock Parkway, has also dropped out.

"I obtained petitions in an effort to support the growing movement to draft Vinnie Frantantoni. Fortunately, for the people of Belleville, Vinnie has decided to run," Yanuzzi stated.

Saying "I'd rather not comment on it," Peter Kiernan of Joralemon Street has also dropped out of the race.

Next week the Times will ask the questions posed to the above candidates to any new entrants in the Belleville commission election.

The election will be held on May 12 with polls open throughout town from 7AM until 8PM. Citizens over 18 may register to vote up until April 13 at the Township Clerk's office in Town Hall daily from 8:30AM until 4PM. In addition, there have been special night registration sessions posted; call the clerk at 450-3310 for details.

Friends of elderly seeking advocates

There are over 140,000 elderly persons age 60 and older living in Essex County. Many of them live alone and may require additional assistance in maintaining their independence.

Volunteers are trained and supervised by the staff of the Community Health Law Project, a non-profit legal and social advocacy organization.

The training program includes understanding the physical, social, and emotional needs of the elderly, Federal, State and local programs and services for the elderly, and advocacy techniques for securing resources and problem-solving.

Volunteering an hour or two a week can be very rewarding, both for the volunteer and the elderly.

The next training will be scheduled for late March. Persons interested in becoming a Friend/Advocate should call Barbara Havlik or Christine Hall at 672-0569.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Mr. M. of Cedar Grove asks: "When I eat sweets, I get sensitivity around my crowned tooth. Why is this happening and what needs to be done?"

There are many possibilities Mr. M. and here are a few:

- 1) If the crown has a temporary cement, Mr. M. that pain you're experiencing could be from a washing out of the temporary cement leaving a space so sugar and bacteria can start a decaying process.
- 2) If the crown has a permanent cement, then possibly from not brushing the gum correctly may have caused a recession of the gums, exposing an area of the tooth not covered by the crown. This area is quite sensitive to acid protected from sugar in the mouth.
- 3) If the crown is interfering with your chewing process because its shape, then the extra pressure on the tooth could affect the nerve and cause sensitivity.

Bill would add six more judges

Senator acts to trim court back-log

TRENTON — Senator Camren A. Orechio, D-Essex, has introduced legislation to add six Superior Court judgeships to Essex County as a means of increasing the caseload capacity of the state's largest county judicial system.

"Essex County has an excellent Judiciary, but the judges have been facing a serious backlog of cases for some time," the senator said.

Senator Orechio noted the bill, S-3066, would increase the number of Superior Court judgeships in Essex from 28 to 34.

"The additional judgeships will go a long way to reduce the backlog of court cases," Senator Orechio said. "This would not only expedite the rights of the accused to a speedy trial, but it would also ease the burden on the county jail to house inmates awaiting trial."

The Senator, who also serves as Commissioner of Law and Public Safety in Nutley, said the measure would complement efforts by law enforcement personnel throughout the county to have criminal cases disposed of in a timely fashion.

"Our proper response to vigilant law enforcement efforts is to provide the Judiciary with the proper tools to handle the increased caseload," Senator Orechio said. The bill was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee of which Senator Orechio is a member.

Senator Orechio appointed to Fire Safety Commission

In other news from the Senator's office, Carmen A. Orechio has been appointed by Senate President John Russo to the N.J. Fire Safety Commission.

The Commission, which was formed in 1983 and established in the Department of Community Affairs, makes recommendations regarding all phases of fire safety, including fire codes, training, occupational health and safety, public and private fire protection, fire fighting techniques and needs, and master planning for fire protection.

"The Fire Safety Commission has already had a great impact with the implementation of the New Jersey's first Uniform Fire Safety Act, which was designed to protect life and property within the State from the danger of destruction by fire through the strict enforcement of minimum fire safety standards," Senator Orechio noted.

The Senator, in his capacity as Director of Public Safety in Nutley for the past 19 years, instituted an arson unit, and Hazardous Materials Response Team in Nutley which have served as models for other municipalities.

Kelly to kick-off re-election bid

State Assemblyman John V. Kelly (R-30) will kick off his bid for re-election with a buffet supper/fundraiser at the Stadium Club in Giants Stadium on Wednesday evening, March 11, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Honorary chairman for the event is New Jersey Governor Tom Kean and three noted Republican officials are chairing the festivities: Essex Republican Chairman John Renna, Speaker of the General Assembly Chuck Hardwick and County Executive Nicholas R. Amato.

The affair includes cocktails, a buffet supper and entertainment by popular young jazz guitarist John Pizzarelli. The cost is $150 per person.

For ticket information call 661-3555.

Orechio Civic Assn. to host famous doctor

Dr. Herbert Spiegel, president of the Carmen A. Orechio Civic Association, has announced the next organizational meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 11 at 8 p.m. The meeting will take place at the V.F.W., Washington Avenue, Nutley.

The Association has invited Dr.

Rashida A. Karmali to speak. Dr. Karmali received her Ph.D. in Biochemistry from the University of Newcastle upon Tyne, England.

She is presently an Associate Research Professor in Nutrition with Cook College, Rutgers, New Brunswick; Adjunct Associate Professor, Sloan-Kettering Institute, New York; and Adjunct Associate Professor, general surgery, University of Medicine and Dentistry, New Brunswick.

Human nutrition and health

Dr. Karmali will address the group on the topic of "Human Nutrition, as it Affects Health." She will focus on the recently revealed chemicals in fish oils that prevent cancer and also various chemicals which can reverse heart disease.

Dr. Spiegel commented, "Because of the frenetic pace and inherent stress of today's lifestyles, everyone has become aware of the necessity of good nutrition. It is not only important as a means of keeping us looking and feeling good; we now know that good nutrition can actually prevent and, where it already exists, combat very serious diseases. Dr. Karmali's presentation is something none of us should miss."

The Orechio Civic Association, whose purpose it is to promote the welfare and betterment of the people and communities served by Senator Orechio, cordially extends an invitation to the general public to attend the March 11 meeting. Refreshments will be served.

No time

Pastor Gerald Fortunato
Silver Lake Baptist Church

"The length of our days is seventy years — or eighty, if we have the strength... they quickly pass, and we fly away... Beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day" (Psalm 90:10, N/V; 2 Peter 3:8).

Do you ever feel time is the master of your life? There's so much to do and so little time to do it! Do you panic when your watch stops working? How can you get through the day without being able to tell the time? Are you afraid you'll be late or miss something important?

Most of us are obsessed with time. Years ago men used pocket watches, but it took too long to take them out of their pockets when they wanted to check the time. So now we use wrist watches so we can tell the time at a glance. As soon as our children learn to tell time, we give them watches of their own.

Wait a minute! Stop looking at the clock. Do you realize that some day we are going to throw away all our watches and clocks and calendars? They won't mean a thing in heaven. There is no time there. Just eternity rolling on and on and on...

Just think of it! No more deadlines. No tardy slips. No worries about being late. No overdue notices. Just eternity. My, that sounds restful.

Bellevillite busted for DWI

Two men, including one man from Belleville, were arrested Friday after one was discovered to be allegedly driving under the influence of alcohol in neighboring Bloomfield.

While on patrol shortly after midnight, Sgt. Robert Hochstuhl observed a 1981 Chevrolet traveling east on Liberty Street without lights on. It hit a snowbank, then continued on until he stopped it at Liberty and Broad streets, he said.

The driver produced a driver's license with a Lyndhurst address he said belonged to his friend, the car's passenger.

Hochstuhl said he smelled alcoholic beverage on the driver's breath. Two subsequent tests revealed a .11 percent blood alcohol count.

The driver, Gary Martins of Belleville, was charged with driving without a license and driving while intoxicated. He was held on $350 bail and a court appearance set for March 18.

Passenger Robert Conte of Lyndhurst was charged with illegally loaning his license and released.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Brian Fitzgerald of Belleville has been described by his coach as "some kind of person, with a tremendous work ethic."

Fitzgerald, a senior at Queen of Peace High School in North Arlington, is a member of the power weight lifting team at the school. While that may not sound unusual, how Brian became a member is quite a story.

His coach, Bob Cerco, tells the story well.

"This is the first year we've had a weight lifting team at Queen of Peace," explained Cerco. "It was because of Brian that the team was formed. He put the time in, he got the younger kids interested."

It all started when Fitzgerald, also a member of the varsity football team of which Cerco is an assistant coach, began to emphasize weight lifting to his teammates.

"Queen of Peace didn't have a winning record in football over the past seven years," Cerco said. "The players began to work hard on the weights last spring and we came through with a 5-4 mark this fall. We have a young squad coming back and the kids have really gotten into the lifting."

Mike Lamberti's

Much has been documented on the importance of weight lifting to a successful football team. Belleville High School has had an outstanding program for the past ten years and head coach John Senesky attributes that success to a good off season weight program.

The same success can be found at Elizabeth High, where that school places a strong emphasis on hitting the weights. Of course, many high schools have adopted a weight lifting program and have found success on the gridiron, and other sports, because of it.

Fitzgerald played fullback and defensive end for Queen of Peace last fall and was named to the second team, All BCSL for his efforts.

"A number of local schools are looking at him," Cerco said. "They like his size and strength."

Recently, Fitzgerald captured first place in the 198 pound weight lifting class in a match against Palisades Park High School. He finished with a phenomenal total of 1,045 pounds. His figures include 360 pounds in the full squat, 225 pounds, with a two second hold, in the bench press and 460 pounds in the dead lift. That lift of 460 pounds is a 198 pound class record.

Fitzgerald and his teammates from Queen of Peace will be taking part in the New Jersey Teenage High School Championships at Princeton University this Sunday. The team also has plans to face Palisades Park later in the season and to compete in a few tournaments before the school year ends in June.

In addition to his athletic prowess, Fitzgerald is an honor student. He hopes to study accounting on the collegiate level and is looking at William Paterson College, Montclair State and Western Connecticut as hopeful choices for next fall.

"He is a very hard worker," Cerco said of Fitzgerald. "A couple of months ago, he injured his shoulder but never missed a day of rehabilitation. He would ride his bike to the school in the afternoons for his exercises. The injury normally takes eight weeks to heal, but he worked so hard it only took four. He is really a special type of athlete."

Certainly, congratulations are extended to Brian Fitzgerald on his achievements and continued good luck to him as he moves on in his athletic and academic career.

Belleville Crew

It's hard to believe, but the spring sports are just a few days away. Next week, we'll take a brief look at the upcoming spring season. However, the Belleville High School Crew Parents' and Alumni Association will be holding its annual square dance at the Knights of Columbus Hall, on Bridge Street in Belleville. The caller of the dance will be the popular Mike Chupka.

The public is invited and the price of the tickets are $15.00 each. Included in that price is a hot buffet, beer and soda. Several games will be held during the evening as well. For reservations, please call 759-0219.

Recreation

The boys' junior basketball league has been hot with action this winter. In Division A, the Bullets beat the Jazz, 26-20, with Liloia scoring 11 points to lead the Bullet attack. Wandling, Talmadge and Hochrieter scored four points each and Dework finished with three. Jones led the Jazz attack with nine points.

Over in Division C, The Suns beat the Sixers, 16-8, with Brunello leading the Suns attack with eight points. The Sixers were paced by Berg, who tallied four.

In Division B, the Bucs beat the Celtics, 33-21, the Nets stopped the Lakers, 30-10, the Hawks took the Pistons, 24-6, the Nets beat the Pistons, 40-8, the Bucks edged the Hawks, 23-17 and the Celtics lost to the Lakers, 34-21.

Leading scorers for the teams include Mike Mundy for the Bucs, Ken Johansen for the Nets, Zoppi for the Celtics, Dena and Berg for the Hawks, O'Brien for the Lakers and Raszac for the Pistons. Johansen and Mundy currently lead the league in scoring.

Next week, we'll look at the girls' results.

Athlete of the Week

Laurie Dondarski of the girls' basketball team gets the nod. She led the team in scoring in the last week of action and finished the year with a 10.8 ppg average. The sophomore point guard should be a top player for next years team.

Last Weeks Quiz

Karen Fuccello's 100th win as coach of the Belleville girls' basketball team came in February of 1981 in a victory at Nutley.

For This Week

Last Tuesday, the Belleville boys' basketball team battled Union in the state tourney. It was the first time those two teams had met in a number of years. When was the last time Belleville and Union played each other in boys' basketball and what was the result.

Lady Bucs bow to Paramus

If the final game of the 1986-87 season is an indication of things to come, then the Belleville girls' basketball team is certainly headed in the right direction.

The Lady Buccaneers battled one of the states best teams, Paramus Catholic, last Friday and led the Paladins by five points at halftime. The bigger P.C. squad rallied back in the second half, however, and came away with a 62-53 victory.

Belleville ended its season with a 10-15 record. In its final week of action, the girls lost at home to Kennedy, 83-57 and defeated Arts High, 60-53 before losing at Paramus Catholic.

Next week, the Times will wrap up the season for the improving Lady Bucs.

The week started with the game against Kennedy. The Lady Knights are enjoying an excellent campaign this winter and are favorites, along with Teaneck, to capture the Group IV, Section I title in late March. Earlier this season, Belleville played a lackluster game in losing at Kennedy, but this time, the Lady Bucs played much better.

Kennedy took a 19-16 lead after one quarter and extended the margin to 39-29 at intermission. It was the third quarter when Kennedy gained total control, outscoring Belleville, 22-8 and pulling ahead to a 61-37 advantage. The two teams battled even in the final eight minutes and Kennedy won by 26 points.

Sophomore Laurie Dondarski finished the game with 20 points to lead the Belleville attack. Dondarski enjoyed an excellent week, scoring 51 points in the final three games.

Sophomore Simone Edwards and freshman Stacey Johansen also played well, scoring 14 points each. Carol Morrison had six points, Raquel Melson closed with two and Laura Caruso had one. For Kennedy, La Tonya Johnson led the way with 24 points.

Last Wednesday, Belleville staged a second half comeback and defeated a very good Arts squad, 60-53.

"Arts wanted to get the game in because they were going to the state tourney," said head coach Karen Fuccello. "I was very happy with the way we played. They (Arts) had an 18-5 mark entering the game, so we knew we would be in for a tough game."

Belleville gained the early advantage, taking a 14-10 lead after one quarter. However, Arts took control in the second quarter and led, 27-25 at halftime.

Despite playing poorly in the second quarter, Belleville did not relent. The Lady Bucs came storming back in the second half, outscoring Arts 18-13 in the third frame and 17-13 in the final to win by seven points, 60-53.

The victory was Belleville's tenth of the season, the most victories for a Belleville girls' team since the 1983-84 club.

Johansen led the offensive attack for Belleville, scoring 17 points. Over the last six games, the freshman has averaged 18 points a game. Caruso, closing out her varsity career, finished with a career high 16 points. Dondarski closed with 15 and Edwards had 12 points to pace a steady scoring attack.

And finally, Belleville closed out its season by losing a close game to Paramus Catholic. And, once again, the girls were hampered by poor foul shooting.

"We lost the game from the line, no question," said Fuccello. "We shot 9 of 21 from the line and they hit 14 of 17. That tells you where the game was decided."

The Lady Bucs led, 15-8 after one quarter and 31-26 at halftime.

"I couldn't believe it," Fuccello said. "All season long, I knew we could play like that. Everyone was playing well. We were running the offense and taking good shots."

In the second half, Paramus regained its touch, outscoring Belleville 20-12 and 16-10 to win by nine points, 62-53.

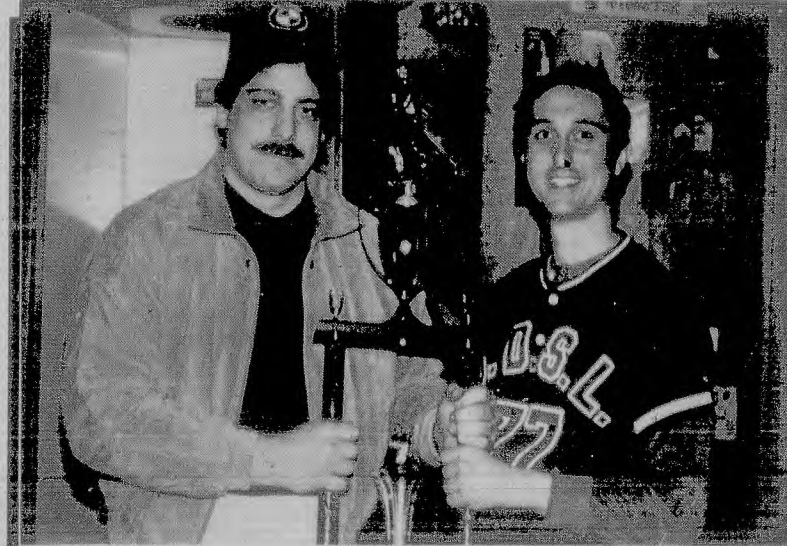

"They wore us down in the second half," Fuccello said of Paramus Catholic. "I was still proud of our effort. That first half gives us the indication that we can play well."

Edwards led the way for Belleville, with 22 points. Dondarski closed out her excellent week with 16. Johansen was held to seven points, Caruso ended her career with four and Melson and Morrison had two points each.

"I was very happy with the play of Laurie (Dondarski)," Fuccello said. "If she can stay in control, she can be one of the better point guards. Our team relies on her to move the ball and set the offense. I was very pleased with her performance."

Dondarski was named Honorable Mention, NNJIL Essex-Passaic for her play at guard this season. Also named to the team was Edwards, who gathered first team honors and Johansen, who was named to the second team.

NOTES: Edwards finished season with team leading 13.4 ppg scoring average. She also led team in free throw shooting with 56 percent accuracy. Johansen was second in scoring and free throw shooting with numbers of 11.3 and 51 percent. Dondarski placed third in scoring with 10.8 ppg average. Girls averaged 47.8 ppg and shot just 48 percent from the foul line, hitting 255 of 526 shots.

Triple Champ — Luigi Chimento (L) of Belleville, a member of the World Series runner-up champion N.A. Fish, receives his trophy for winning the "Triple Crown" in the 72 team J.D.S.L. softball league for Commissioner James Dombrowski. Luigi became the first triple crown winner in the league's ten-year history by batting .811 and belting 16 home runs, and driving in 41 runs.

Coach Tosato is "satisfied"

Positive numbers for BHS tracksters

Head track coach John Tosato was asked to assess his teams performance for the 1986-87 indoor campaign.

"Well," Tosato said, "our shot putters did pretty well." Then, the coach paused for a minute and said, "I was happy with the performance of our sprinters this spring. They all did well in their first season." Tosato thought for another moment and then commented, "you know, I was happy with our middle and long distance runners, too."

In other words coach, you were pretty happy with the performance of the entire team?

"You could say that," he said. "Yes, I guess everyone did pretty well."

It was that type of winter for the team. All the athletes turned in steady, impressive performances. There was nothing overwhelming, just positive numbers. What's even more encouraging is that the outdoor campaign commences next Monday and the coach expects an excellent turnout with athletes that will be primed for a good season.

"We expect everyone who competed in the indoor campaign to be coming out for the outdoor team," Tosato said. "There are some other athletes who played basketball that will be out for the team, too. I think we should do pretty well this spring."

However, the emphasis now is the indoor team. The shot putters, a group of four seniors, all did an excellent job.

The group was led by Gerard Corbo, who had a personal best of 38'2 1/2."

"I've only had one shot putter do better than that since I've been here," said Tosato, referring to Anthony Guarino, who threw the shot and discus for Belleville from 1980-82.

Anthony La Vista's best throw this winter was 36'5" and Jon-Paul Lenczuk finished with a throw of 34'11 1/2". Carmen Iacullo also enjoyed a good season, throwing 32'7".

All four men should do well this spring in the outdoor circuit. Last season, the Bucs were thin in the field events, so Tosato is hopeful that the four seniors can be the answer, especially in those close meets.

Tosato is also optimistic about the performance of sophomore

Mike Damer. His best throw this winter was 26'11" and he should continue to improve in the spring.

The girls had two shot putters, Dawn Cotter and Stacey McCarthy. Cotter's best throw was 22'3" and McCarthy, 19'1".

The sprinters also enjoyed a good season. Five juniors, four of which never ran competitively before, led the way. Jay Marchese, Craig Jackowski, Jerry Padula, Mario Lemongello and Mike Di Biase are all familiar names to Buccaneer football fans. However, these men made a name for themselves running track and came through with good times.

In the 60 yard dash, Marchese had a personal best of 6.9 and Padula's best was 7.1. In the 300, Marchese led the way with a time of 36.1 and Padula finished with 37.1.

Di Biase was probably the most versatile of the five runners, running in events from the 60 yard dash to the mile run. He broke Mike Silletti's indoor record in the 600 meter run.

Lemongello, the only runner with previous indoor experience, ran a 7.3 in the 60 and 60.9 in the 400 meters. Also in the 400, Jackowski and Marchese excelled, with personal bests of 59.2 and 59.7 respectively.

The women also had their share of good sprinters. Junior Erica Townes set a school record of 42.5 in the 300 meter run. She also ran a personal best of 8.2 in the 60 yard dash.

Sophomore Michele Compitiano excelled in the hurdles and a pair of freshmen, Diane Di Vincenzo and Samantha Cotter, did a good job in the sprints. Di Vincenzo ran a 7.4 in the 50 yard dash and Cotter, an 8.5 in the 60.

The middle and long distance teams came through with good success. Senior Craig Burden set indoor records in four events, the 800, 1,000, 1,600 and 3,200 meters. His times were 2:11.8, 2:35, 4:55.9 and 10:34 for the respective races.

This was Burden's first year of running indoor track. In the past, the senior has run cross country and outdoor track, but had spent his winters playing guard for the varsity basketball team. This season, he decided to compete for the indoor track team and coach Tosato is certainly glad he did. Burden should be one of the top distance runners in the NNJIL this spring.

Another man with a good future is junior Greg Moriello. He continued his strong running this winter by competing in the 800, 1,000, 1,600 and 3,200 meters. His best performance came in the 1,600, where he finished with a time of 5:08.1. In the 3,200 meters, his best showing was an 11:16.

"Greg will be looking to break 5 minutes in the mile," Tosato said. "He should do that early in the season. I'm very happy with the way Greg has been running this year."

Junior Bob Scheible ran the 1,000 meters and the 50 yard hurdles, finishing with times of 2:56 and 8.5 respectively. Scheible should be a big plus to the outdoor team.

Sophomore Dave Rosamilia continued his good work in the middle and long distance events, running a 5:59 mile and 12:33 two mile.

Another sophomore, Rich Rummage, had a personal best of 2:46 in the half mile.

For the girls, Joyce Luongo continued her fine performances. The junior placed fifth in Essex County this winter in the two mile, with a time of 13:20. She had a personal best of 3:19 in the 1,000 meters and 2:54 in the 800 meters.

"We'll have about 12 seniors out for the spring team," said Tosato. "That's one of the largest group of seniors I've ever had and we do have some experience in that group. The league will be tough, but I think we can do pretty well."

The coach is looking forward to the arrivals of Lou La and Mark Huamani from the boys' basketball team. La is an excellent high and triple jumper and Huamani excels in the hurdles and high jump.

Tosato also announced that his coaching staff will consist of Rich Ruffalo, Barbara Gundry, Karen Fuccello and Karen Portuese. Gundry was the assistant coach of the indoor team this year, the second season that she has held that post.

Gov. Kean at Town Meeting

A crowd of 1,000 people heard Governor Thomas H. Kean outline the promises and the problems of the state, in a Town Meeting at Nuttley High School last Thursday.

Beginning with a citation of Nutley basketball player Marty Higgins as a "true champion", Kean went on to praise his home county of Essex as a pioneer in many areas, including the development of county parks.

Speaking of Higgins, and of Edward Lenihan, former head of Public Service Electric and Gas Co., Kean said they were "typical of all the people in this area who stand for excellence."

He was to make "excellence" the theme of his remarks, during the evening.

Vincent Francantoni raised the question of overdevelopment of the state, to the detriment of the environment.

Kean answered, "We don't want to lose our open spaces."

He urged the establishment of a commission to study the problem and make recommendations.

Florence Prawdzik of Nutley asked the opening question, "Would there be a state takeover of Essex County welfare costs?"

"It would be fairer if the state as a whole took it over—not the operation, but the cost. If we can find the money, I support it," Kean replied.

Shauna Zarimba of Nutley asked about plans to improve education in New Jersey.

He said he would strive to toughen education standards so that people could say, "This high school diploma is worth something!" He spoke of providing an "alternate route" to a teaching license, in which practical experience would be given weight. There would be the "drastic step" of a state takeover of a district in which children were not getting proper education. "We will replace the school board and the people who run the school with people who can provide that education," he said.

John Walsh of Nutley asked about the establishment of a monorail system between downtown Newark and Newark International Airport.

Kean said he had asked New York Governor Mario Cuomo to let the Port of New York and New Jersey Authority release $50 million to $60 million for the project. "It would be wonderful for the City of Newark. I can say only that he (Cuomo) didn't oppose it."

On the matter of a gasoline tax increase, Kean said he favored it, to help maintain the highway system.

"About a third of the tax would be paid by people from outside the state. We need to provide $3 billion more over the next four to five years for highways. Thirty to 40 percent of the taxes would be provided by business, so less of a burden would fall on the consumer."

Kean credited the improvement of highways under his administration for the healthy economy of the state.

He also said he was pushing for a food distribution center, similar to the one in Hunts Point, The Bronx, for New Jersey. "We seem to run into problems every year, and it takes a longer time than I thought it would."

Mary Ellen Furlong of Nutley asked, "What about the prevention of child abuse?"

Kean said New Jersey leads the nation in legislation on child abuse, and called for an educational program in the schools to bring out more reporting of child abuse incidents.

Speaking his mind—Belleville Vincent Francantoni raises his concern on the overdevelopment of the state. Kean urged the establishment of a commission to study the situation.

B-ball Bucs rack 8-game loss streak

The regular season did not end on a good note for the Belleville boys' basketball team. The Bucs were defeated by Kennedy and St. Joe's and fell to 9-14 on the season.

The Bucs took an eight game losing streak into the first round of the state tournament, held last Tuesday at Belleville High. The Bucs played host to Union High and if they won, were scheduled to battle Elizabeth High School tonight at the Dunn Arena. If Belleville lost to Union, then the 1986-87 season would be completed.

Head coach Don Roll saw his squad lose two close games last week. Versus Kennedy, Belleville was up against one of the states best and the Bucs rose to the occasion, battling the Knights to the last second.

"This was a game we had a shot at," Roll said. "We played the slow down game very well. We had Teddy (Sochaski) helping out on the trap and it worked very well. Their press didn't hurt us at all. We missed some easy layups and they hit some incredible shots. That has to be expected of a team like that. Kennedy is a super club."

Earlier in the season, Belleville had lost by 35 points to Kennedy, so this game had to be termed a moral victory. Kennedy entered the contest with a 23-1 mark and are favorites to win the Group IV, Section I tourney and, quite possibly, advance to the Group IV finals.

Kennedy led this game, 16-12, after one quarter and 28-24 at intermission. The Knights pulled ahead in the third frame, extending the lead to 42-34 after three quarters, but the Bucs stayed close, battling the Knights even in the final frame. The final count was 60-52.

Sochaski led the Belleville attack with 28 points. Leon Puentes tallied 13, Steve Schwed played a solid game, hitting for eight points and Bob Hutchison had three. The Bucs shot 6 of 7 from the foul line.

Versus St. Joe's, Belleville was in a see saw contest until the final quarter, when the host school pulled away to victory.

St. Joe's led, 12-10 after frame and 24-20 at intermission. It was 40-35 after three quarters and St. Joe's used a 25-18 final frame to win by 12 points, 65-53.

Roll was not particularly pleased with the officiating in the game. A series of plays in the fourth quarter, involving forward Steve Schwed disturbed the coach. Schwed had been assessed a technical foul for questioning an officials call and Roll sat him down for a few minutes.

"I put him back in," Roll said. "and Steven goes up for a shot. He got hammered, I mean everyone heard him get fouled, but the official, who is standing right there, doesn't call anything. Out of frustration, Steve made another comment to him and he was thrown out."

St. Joe's took almost twice as many foul shots as Belleville. The host school was 19 of 21 from the line as opposed to 7 of 11 for Belleville.

"We should have won this game," Roll said of the St. Joe's contest. "Hopefully, we can turn it around in the state tournament."

Sochaski led the Belleville attack with 24 points. Hutchison was back in form, scoring 14 and Puentes tallied 13. Mark Huamani closed the scoring with two points.

Roll was expecting the return of Frank and John Morrell to the lineup for the Union game. Both men had been sidelined by ankle and knee injuries and had missed the last six games.

NOTES: Sochaski's scoring average is now 24.4 ppg. He is third on team in free throw shooting at 63 percent. Puentes, who is second on team in scoring with 11.6 ppg average, leads team in free throw percentage with 74. Hutchison is second in free throw shooting with 66 percent accuracy and third in scoring with 11.2 ppg. Bucs averaging 60.2 ppg

Real Estate Briefcase

By Jack Reilly, G.R.I.

What is a survey and why must one be performed when I purchase property? — P Reese Bloomfield

When you enter an agreement to purchase a home, many steps are taken either by your Realtor or your attorney (depending on custom) to be very careful about exactly what it is you are purchasing. One of these steps is the land survey, which is instrumental to determine a precise legal definition of that particular parcel of land which the house sits upon. Even if the purchaser of a property is relatively secure with a general knowledge of the boundaries, other parties usually involved in the transaction will demand that a precise description be given prior to passing of the title.

The exact history of surveying is unknown, though it is known that modern day surveying still in corporate principles and techniques first applied by the Romans thousands of years ago. The surveyor reduces the exact perimeter of a given piece of property, angle and direction. A scaled down drawing of the property is then engineered, which gives an overview of the boundaries and notable improvements and fixtures upon it. Buildings, paved drives, sheds, patios, pools, ponds, streams, etc., will all be noted on the drawing in relative position to the boundaries.

Also, "invisible" easements or right-of-ways which are passed by deed will appear on the drawn survey. These are things which are sometimes common to all properties such as power lines, telephone lines and such. Occasionally, an oddity will appear, such as underground tunnels used by utilities or easements granted to a neighbor to access a certain strip of land at will. Perhaps even a past owner had allowed a neighbor's garage to sit slightly across the line, without changing the deed to reflect it.

All of these reasons and more may be cause for a purchaser to rethink the transaction and highlight the importance of the survey to be performed. However, more importantly, it may often be impossible to obtain a mortgage loan for the purchase unless the purchaser can obtain a title insurance policy to indemnify the mortgagee (bank). All title insurance companies will demand and carefully review a recent survey to determine if there is an acceptable risk to insure.

In our area of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville, the custom is that the attorney for the purchaser is responsible for ordering and reviewing the survey. A visit to your attorney will clear up any questions you may have regarding your individual property survey.
