John Sena charity to aid needy seniors

"I don't want a lot of publicity. I just want to help some elderly people who need a little something. I don't mean like hitting the lottery. I mean helping with a small thing that would make someone happy. That is why I wanted to have this money I saved these years put into a foundation. I hope everyone understands." — John Sena, founder and standardbearer of The John Sena Foundation.

John Sena had a good idea — a truly GOOD idea. He wanted to help elderly people "with a little something they simply could not afford to buy."

So John Sena, who spent much of his life in Bloomfield and recently moved to Belleville, decided to ask Frank Orechio, president of Orechio Publications, for assistance in fulfilling his idea to help the elderly.

Orechio recommended the setting up of a foundation ("The John Sena Foundation") to administer the considerable financial contribution Sena has contributed to the foundation to help the elderly.

A meeting of the trustees of The John Sena Foundation, with Essex County Sheriff Thomas D'Alessio as chairman, met at Orechio's office recently and organized the foundation.

Primarily, the foundation trustees agreed, with Sena's approval, to distribute the foundation funds to the elderly of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

The distribution method is simple: senior citizens who live in Belleville, Bloomfield or Nutley and who have a need for a particular item or expense may request funds from the foundation. The trustees will have the sole responsibility of selecting the recipients of the cash awards and the amount designated for each award.

Sheriff D'Alessio said it was the understanding of the trustees and Sena that the cash awards be somewhat limited, so that as many elderly people can be accommodated as possible. As examples of cash awards: airfare to visit a sick relative; a new hearing aid; new eyeglasses; a toaster oven; a minor surgery unpaid by Medicare or Medicaid; dentures; special equipment for the bed-ridden or otherwise disabled; utility repair bill.

Official details for those who wish to participate in this special service of The John Sena Foundation will appear soon in the Belleville Times, Bloomfield Life and Nutley Sun.

The trustees of The John Sena Foundation: chairman, Thomas D'Alessio, Essex County sheriff; Paul Alongi, Bloomfield attorney; Dr. Anthony Baratta, Nutley Board of Education; Anthony Capriglione, president of Dollar Savings Bank in Newark; Michael Casale, Bloomfield councilman; Ralph DiRuggiero, former Belleville township commissioner; Sally Ann Goodson, Nutley Board of Education; Joseph McGreevey, Belleville township commissioner; State Senator Carmen Orechio; Russell Roemmele, managing editor of Bloomfield Life and Philip White, public relations director of the foundation. Carmela Senesky, personal secretary of Frank Orechio, will serve as recording secretary of the foundation.

Flag Day

June 14 is Flag Day.

The American Flag represents the living country and is considered to be a living thing emblematic of the respect and pride we have for our nation.

This national emblem is a symbol of our great country, our heritage and our place in the world. We owe reverence and respect to our Flag. It represents the highest ideals of individual liberty, justice and equal opportunity for all.

Our Flag is a precious possession. Display it proudly!

A look at the library

Library Director David Bryant is a modest man - except when it comes to his library.

"The Belleville Public Library is the best library for its size anywhere," he once told me, and the proof of that pudding is apparent in our Bookmarks feature every week.

It's not that the town library offers so much, it's that it offers so much that the township would otherwise lack.

For example, town critics have often complained about the lack of a movie theatre in town. Nutley has one, Bloomfield has two. Belleville has none, but the library shows free movies all the time, and has hundreds more for rent as well.

Belleville has no museums. But here again, the library picks up the slack. Every month there are new exhibits of art, crafts and collectables. It's not that the town library offers so much, it's that it offers so much that the township would otherwise lack.

Belleville has no playhouse. But there is live theatre, just beyond the library's Washington Avenue door. Here, the working-class play-goer can see a wide variety of plays for a minuscule $1 donation. Sure, it's not Broadway but then again Broadway ticket cost well over $100 a pair.

Angry townspeople removed from overcrowded chamber

Commission convenes in chaos ...

Cops guard door against further citizen entry. Chamber is 20 over the limit at the time.

Angelo Veneziano asks the board to postpone the meeting.

Irate citizen is removed from meeting shortly before adjournment.

Angry townspeople shout and yell about at meeting's end.

INSIDE:

By Christopher Bifani

The harmony that was apparent at the largely ceremonial Belleville Commission reorganization meeting last month was shattered this past Tuesday, when the first regular meeting of the new town fathers went haywire.

The problems began at the 7PM pre-meeting, where a steady stream of townspeople quickly filled every seat and began lining the walls. Police were ordered to deny entry to any more citizens, and an angry crowd began piling up outside the second floor landing of Town Hall, peering into the proceedings as two Belleville police officers kept guard, and demanding access to the meeting or a postponement until a larger meeting place could be secured.

By the start of the 8PM commission meet, the crowd outside the door had swelled to more than two dozen, while another dozen gathered on the Town Hall steps and in the lobby.

Inside, the sentiment of many citizens lucky enough to have a seat appeared to lean toward adjournment or postponement. Angelo Veneziano, a member of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville, took to the public podium as the first citizen to express this for the public record.

Commissioner of Parks and Public Property Vincent Frantantoni moved to adjourn the meeting, and his motion was seconded by Commissioner of Public Affairs Joseph Fornarotto.

As the vote was called an increasingly volatile crowd quieted down momentarily as both Frantantoni and Fornarotto voted in favor of adjournment.

However, Commissioner of Revenue and Finance Joseph McGreevey and Commissioner of Public Works Angelo Risoli voted to keep the meeting open, splitting the vote down the middle.

When Mayor Michael Pizzi broke the tie with a vote to keep the meeting open, chaos erupted among the people in the audience, as fierce bickering broke out not only among themselves but directly to the Mayor and Commissioners as well.

Mayor Pizzi's banging gavel did little to abate the crowd, and his threats to have the loudest citizens removed met with hisses from the audience.

"Quiet or you'll all be removed!" he warned, but to no avail.

With the vote tallied, the meeting began and the 1987 Belleville Commission was able to get through an agenda of routine business that included resolutions to pay bills, issue licenses, and even congratulate two town boys, Erich Hochstuhl and Vito Caprio for becoming Eagle Scouts.

However, when it seemed as if things were cooling off on the inside, if not the outside, more monkey wrenches were thrown into the fragile machinery of the fledgling commission: A township fire department official arrived to say that a citizen (unnamed) had complained about overcrowding in the chambers, and it was his duty to remove all on the premises who did not have seats.

Outside, meanwhile, the police were ordering everybody in the halls out of the building, saying that the presence of so many people out there, as in the chamber, was a safety hazard. Even so, the citizens outside stood firm and refused to leave.

Through it all, citizens kept screaming for a postponement, an adjournment, even a recall, and tempers flared as townspeople of all

OUTSIDE:

By Samuel Williams Jr.

Tuesday, June 9,
8:10 p.m.

Outside of the Belleville Commission chambers, two patrolmen blocked the swinging glass door entrance while puzzled citizens peered curiously in at the proceedings.

The 70 chairs inside were all occupied on the inside and the walls supported backs of standing onlookers.

It was clear, though nothing could be heard, that the newly appointed board of commissioners were losing control of the meeting. Meanwhile, more patrolmen parted the crowd to enter into the drama inside.

"We are tax paying citizens. Why can't we go in?" was typical of the fiery questions hurled at the officers.

It was obvious to those outside looking in that there were more than 91 people at the meeting. Why wasn't the meeting postponed so larger facilities could be arranged, many asked.

Chief of Police George J. Lister appeared on the landing where the impatient citizens were confined.

Lister listened but he had no answer. His people were working on it though. His dilemma? Was the room over the limit from the rail out or just the whole capacity of the room?

Citizens on the on the second floor landing didn't care. They elected a new commission to bring about a change and now then they found themselves out of the door.

Mayor Michael Pizzi took control of the meeting, suggesting anyone dissatisfied with what was going could leave.

Angry citizens did just that as a form of protest but onlookers from the outside filled their space.

One citizen stranded outside, Janice Casale of Floyd Street, was there with real concerns about her neighborhood. She was armed with a letter to the commissioners explaining her plight, a copy of a letter circulated within her neighborhood and a petition yielding 25 signatures.

"They actually told us they were being gracious just to let us stand out here. Can you believe that?" said Casale.

Almost instantly, Carol Smith replied.

"It is simply poor planning. They should of had the insight to anticipate this turnout instead of keeping us out here in this heat," said Smith. Temperatures approached 90 degrees on the weltering landing just outside the chambers.

So hot in fact, that two female senior citizens retreated to a first floor bench to avoid being stifled by the heat while waiting to get in.

10 p.m.

The air outside cools hot bodies but not the temperments.

Whether they would meet at Town hall or a larger facility, citizens who remained outside the meeting would be back.

The fledgling Belleville Commission could almost bet on it.

Testimony continues on more condo units

Testimony continued Tuesday night when the Belleville Zoning Board resumed their hearing on an application to construct a three-story wood frame 21-unit condominium at 92 Greylock Avenue.

The application violates Belleville ordinance 2027-Article VII which states "a use of this nature is strictly prohibited in the district."

The property in question would be used for residential purposes but is located in an industrial district. Likewise, board officials expressed concern for off-site parking proposed by Forest Equipment & Leasing Co.

Attorney Bob Gaccione presented two witnesses, Dean Borman and Ronald DePiro, a planner and realtor respectively.

Borman said the area was good building a residential area and would not conflict with the master plan. He believed the usage proposed would not conflict because the area had many residents already in it.

DePiro said if the condominium was approved and constructed the property value of the entire area would increase.

Citizens Form Opposition
Vic Canning, a resident of 58 Roosevelt Avenue, is spearheading a group of residents raising funds to pay for legal aid in hopes of defeating the application.

"The area in question is definitely an industrial area," said Canning. "Most of the testimony is misleading the people. What we will have if they're allowed to become residential is patchwork development and it has to stop," said Canning.

According to Canning and other residents, new industry is in the coming for the area which in their terms is "very vibrant with industry."

Gaccione will present his last witness at the zoning board meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, June 16.

'A little something for the elderly' — Trustees of The John Sena Foundation gather at the offices of Orechio Publications to organize the foundation and to set its purposes. The standardbearer has contributed to the foundation to assist the elderly of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley with small grants. Seated from left, Paul Alongi, Bloomfield attorney; chairman Thomas D'Alessio, Essex County sheriff; John Sena, founder and standardbearer of the foundation and Sally Ann Goodson of the Nutley Board of Education. Standing from left, Dr. Anthony Baratta of the Nutley Board of Education; Ralph DiRuggiero, former commissioner in Belleville; recording secretary Carmela Senesky; Philip White, public relations director; Michael Casale, Bloomfield Third Ward councilman; Russell Roemmele, managing editor of Blomfield LIFE and Anthony Capriglione, president of Dollar Savings Bank in Newark. Two other trustees, State Senator Carmen Orechio and Belleville Township Commissioner Joseph McGreevey were unable to attend the meeting.

Politically motivated...

Maria Conchita Leong

Maria Conchita Leong of Belleville, a sophomore economics major at the College of Saint Elizabeth, is spending six weeks in Washington, D.C., this summer as a participant in the 1987 Institute on Comparative Political and Economic Systems at Georgetown University. Only 100 students from across the nation were admitted to the highly selective program, which is in session from June 5 to July 18.

Participants intern in offices of national leaders, receive briefings from Pentagon, State department and other government officials, and attend classes and lectures on current issues and events. The program, now in its 18th year, is designed to provide career direction and potential job opportunities for participants. Graduates of the program include Rhodes scholars, elected officials and others now in public service.

Recommended by the College history department for the program, which is sponsored by the Fund for American Studies, Maria Conchita Leong also received a tuition scholarship of $1,300. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic performance, extracurricular activities record, and leadership potential.

A native of Macao, the Portuguese colony off southern China near Hong Kong, she graduated from Sacred Heart Canossian College high school there. She speaks Chinese, Mandarin and Cantonese as well as English. Following graduation in two years from the College of Saint Elizabeth, a four-year liberal arts college for women, she plans further advanced study.

Her parents reside in San Francisco, Calif.

Melissa Noto has the 'write' stuff

School 9 student wins national essay contest

Melissa Noto, a fifth grade student in Belleville's School 9 is New Jersey's state winner in the "Quality Comes in Writing" essay contest, sponsored by the BIC Corporation of Connecticut.

Melissa's essay on "Why Writing Will Be Important to Me in the Year 2000" was one of nearly 20,000 entries BIC received in its first ever contest.

The contest was part of the BIC "Quality comes in Writing" program which was sent at no charge to 40,000 English teachers nationwide. As one of the 50 state winners, Melissa will receive a bicycle and her teacher, Mr. Stephen Wodopuja will receive a microwave oven.

"We are extremely pleased with the number and the quality of the essays we received from the nation's fourth, fifth, and sixth graders," commented Keith Koski, BIC Corporation's director of sales and marketing.

"We congratulate Melissa and her teacher, Mr. Wodopuja. Because teachers are so important to grooming our writers, we felt it was important to also honor those teachers whose students won. We also congratulate all the students who took the time to write an essay. They're winners because they realize how important it is to write well in our society."

The BIC "Quality Comes in Writing" program, a writing kit, stressing the basics of good writing and distributed free to teachers, was established in 1985 and according to Koski "the response from the educational community has been overwhelmingly positive." BIC expects the program to be a decade-long commitment.

"As a company that makes writing instruments, we have a vested interest in how well our students write," noted Koski. "As a responsible corporate citizen, we must use our resources in any way we can to encourage a more literate society."

Balsamo honored for service

Pack 350 holds annual picnic

On Saturday, June 6, Cub Scout Pack 350 from Fewsmith Church held their annual picnic at Lyndhurst Park. Over 100 boys and their parents attended. As the corn cooked and the burgers were grilled, everyone participated in many different games. Prizes were won by the youngsters.

While many a parent is tired the day after, everyone had a great time.

Tom Balsamo honored for service

The parents of the boys in Pack 350 from Fewsmith Memorial Church presented Tom Balsamo with a gold watch as a token of their appreciation for his 20 years of service to the pack.

"Tom has been cubmaster for over 16 years and has dedicated himself to the boys. The committee was lucky enough to get his first cub scout — his son Rocco Balsamo — to make the presentation. Tom accepted it just saying 'thank you' as emotions took his voice."

"He is a great man and a great friend of youth," a cub scout spokesman said.

Delta Mu Delta honors town students

Outstanding students were honored at the recent Delta Mu Delta induction ceremony at the Rutherford campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

The Gamma Lambda Chapter of Delta Mu Delta, a national honor society in business administration inducted 50 new members.

Newly inducted members who rank in the top 20 percent of their class and have achieved a B plus or better grade point average include:

Lorraine Giordantelli and Donna Marinelli, both of Belleville.

The honor society, founded in 1913 at New York University, encourages the training opportunities and accomplishments of students in the field of business.

HYDROGEN PEROXIDE

Hydrogen Peroxide is an old, commonly used antiseptic of very little activity. Hydrogen peroxide solution, USP, contains 3 percent hydrogen peroxide in water. When this solution is applied to body tissue it immediately releases oxygen. Very few germs can live in an environment of high concentration of oxygen. However, the solution usually does not penetrate below the crusty layer of the skin. Consequently, it does not reach the really critical areas of infection. In addition, the oxygen is released all at once from the solution, giving the compound a very temporary activity. However, it does have the advantage of mechanically cleaning the wound with its bubbly release of oxygen.

Our helpful, professional staff is the big advantage to coming to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We are Medicaid and Blue Cross approved. Identifies learning disabilities*Pre-kindergarten screening for 3-5 year-old children

The Department of Special Services under the guidance of Dr. Anthony P. Chirico, director, has successfully screened all incoming kindergarten students for the 1987-88 school year. The pre-kindergarten screening is conducted by district speech/language specialists, resource room teachers and elementary school nurse.

Children entering school are screened in the following areas: fine motor, gross motor, cognitive, verbal (receptive language, expressive language, articulation), social/emotional, vision and hearing. In addition, parents supply data regarding the child's medical background and present level of development.

Screening is conducted in each elementary school by a team of examiners. Results are reviewed by the district's learning consultants and children with developmental delays are recommended for the pre-school handicapped program where individual needs and level of development will be addressed.

The pre-school handicapped program for the past seven years has serviced youngsters aged 3-5 that require additional growth before enrollment in a regular kindergarten; provided remediation for youngsters who eventually may be classified perceptually impaired, neurologically impaired, communication handicapped, multiply handicapped or emotionally disturbed; identified youngsters with unique learning styles; assisted parents in effective parenting techniques; and, provided a pre-school handicapped support program (BIPPY).

The pre-kindergarten screening attempts to determine the child's developmental age because not every child is ready for school at the age of five. Parents may assist in determining a child's school readiness by observing their children. If one or more of these traits exist, your child may not be ready for school: regression to baby talk, bed wetting, talking to imaginary friends, sleep disturbances, recurring crying or night mares, short attention span, constant daydreaming, dawdling or weariness, disruptive behavior or if your child is a loner.

The summer program runs from June 29 to August 7, 9 a.m. to 12 noon weekdays, and transportation is provided.

Parents who wish to have their 3 to 5 year-olds screened, should call 450-3498. For additional information about screening or the early childhood summer program, call Dr. Anthony Chirico, director of special services at 450-3494.

Magical mime comes to Belleville

The multi-purpose room at Belleville's Cerebral Palsy School and Treatment Center was transformed into an impromptu arts arena Wednesday, June 10 when the magic of mime, performed by Craig Babcock was presented to the facility's patients.

The performance was brought to the Center's 140 patients, who range in age from 6 months to 47 years old. The Community Artist in Residence Program (CAR) is sponsored by the Arts Council of the Essex area and funded this year by the Rotary Club at Caldwell.

The program is designed to bring live performances of artistic and educational merit to people throughout the Essex area — like the patients at the CP Center — who have neither the means nor the opportunity to attend performances at traditional sites such as theaters or cultural centers.

CAR opens its fourth season with Babcock's performance in Belleville. Trained by the American master mime, Tony Montanaro, he has been lauded by critics as one of the most talented mimes in the country and has been the recipient of choreography fellowships from the N.J. State Council on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Not a traditional mime in white face, Babcock is a witty artist who finds fun and surprise in the familiar. His characters mirror human frailties and realize human fantasies.

As in all performances presented by CAR, Craig Babcock's appearance in Belleville was informal and encouraged interaction and conversation between himself and the audience.

The Arts Council of the Essex Area, a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting the arts in Essex County and surrounding areas, is funded in part by the New Jersey Council of Arts/Department of State.

Thanks for Today

*I do not wish for tomorrow for it could bring grief — or sorrow, these few hours that I borrow
Help me live — just for today.
Grant me strength when days are dreary, hold my hand when I am weary,
help me make some life more cheery
As I walk the Master's Way.
And if I should trip — and tumble, pick me up if I should stumble,
keep me mindful to be humble
As I journey on my way.*

Profiles In Courage

She had lived 20 years — too tender an age for one to experience a destructive and disabling malady. Married only a couple of weeks, she and her husband didn't quite understand the nature of her disease, but nevertheless, they were determined to fight the unknown with unlimited and untested courage and limited resources.

The progressive disease obliged her to seek the aid of a cane to help her walk; she needed special glasses to overcome double vision, and medication to help ease tight muscles. Inexorably and inevitably, the cane gave way to crutches, and the crutches gave way to a wheelchair. By this time, she had reached age 27.

Meanwhile, she appreciated her otherwise fortuitous circumstances — a loving dedicated husband, with financial resources able to provide her with the necessary aid to ease the burden of her handicap, and the extraordinary gifts from God of indomitable courage and compassion for her fellow beings. Undaunted by her progressively debilitating disease, she was determined to raise funds for Multiple Sclerosis research, hoping some day a cure would be found.

From her wheelchair, with the aid of the inimitable Nutley Volunteer Emergency and Rescue Squad to transport her, this lady lectured the students in Nutley and Belleville High Schools on the subject of Multiple Sclerosis. Inspired by her appeals, these good young citizens of two outstanding communities responded by sponsoring fund raising activities to permit her to meet her objective, year after year.

Imagine the grit of this young lady, physically handicapped as she was, travelling the entire length of Franklin Avenue, Nutley, soliciting merchandise from merchants to sell at Chinese Auctions to raise funds. She organized amateur boxing matches, staged charity basketball games, visited civic and social organizations to enlist their support, and even travelled around the country attending seminars on how to become even more effective as a Multiple Sclerosis fundraiser.

Her efforts did not go unnoticed. The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, so impressed by her indomitable spirit and courage, selected her to appear in national television commercials for two years to emphasize the plight of MS patients. Her fundraising efforts eventually exceeded $100,000. This remarkable achievement led to her selection as the honoree to receive the Bronze Hope Chest Award of the Upper New Jersey Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, the highest award the organization bestows upon a human being.

During this period, her condition worsened — finally causing her to become bedridden at the age of 31. Undaunted and oblivious to pain, she arranged for the telephone company to design a special instrument, permitting her to make phone calls without the use of her hands, to give aid and comfort to fellow MS sufferers.

At the age of 34, her physical condition had deteriorated to the point where she required 24-hour nursing care, provided to her as a patient at the Essex County Geriatrics Center in Belleville. Having lost her ability to speak, her only means of communication was through the use of her magnificent, big, blue eyes. Paralyzed from the neck down, her defiant courage remained unwavering, she renewed her determination to live the rest of her years to better the quality of life for mankind. She joined her husband in organizing the Family Council of the Geriatrics Center, turning it into a dynamic force, twice cited by the President's Commission on Volunteerism, becoming a model for family-oriented nursing home volunteer councils throughout the country.

But time was taking its toll, inexorably, daily draining her body of the last vestiges of strength. However, her courage and her will to live gave her the strength to keep going. The time came for her to receive some of the love she gave others, and thus — volunteers from Grace Episcopal Church visited her, reading to her books, magazines, the Bible and occasionally playing music she loved. Friends from the Nutley Assembly of God prayed with her, and volunteers from the Telephone Pioneers of America made blankets for her use.

Her perky smile, piercing eyes and unrelenting resilience to the disease that afflicted her, became an inspiration to everyone about her.

She answered her final curtain call recently, on May 26th — at the young age of 43 — a victim of pneumonia and respiratory failure induced by the MS. Her doughty spirit will serve as inspiration to all who knew this brave lady and admired her overpowering fortitude and unflinching courage. The lady about whom we write, and for whom we pray today, is the late Kathy Vaillancourt, whose dedicated husband, Don Vaillancourt, literally from the first day of their marriage, to the last day of Kathy's stay on earth, never lost faith, and with cast-iron courage, stood resolutely by the wife he loved during the 23 tortuous years of her life.

We salute these Profiles In Courage.

originate? Jersey Commis- Levine of Paterson, research, then Tyler follow want to a parlor original

FIRST of all, don't say pizza pie, since pizza means pie in Italian, you're being a bit redundant. Now we really should whisper this in case some of our Sicilian friends are listening but the true origin of the pizza is Jewish. According to John La Corte, national director of the Italian Historical Society of America, his research shows that around 200 B.C., Roman soldiers in Palestine started to give the Jewish matzo, unleavened bread, a little zip by adding a dab of olive oil and cheese. Their taste for this snack led to its introduction in Sicily, then Albania and Naples. In time the different condiments were added. It was the Sicilians, La Corte said, who glorified pizza by their variations on the theme. Pizza was introduced in this country in the late 19th Century by Italian immigrants in New York.

WE wish Elsie Ciccone a belated happy birthday. Elsie is a Nutley treasure and anybody who has been active in the Township during the last sixty years will have had the privilege of knowing this very beautiful lady.

THE votes cast were not many, but the Primary vote result in Verona may carry a message. Mayor James Treffinger received 188 votes as a Republican Freeholder-at-large candidate. District 4 Freeholder incumbent Monroe J. Lustbader received 193 votes. The other at-large freeholder candidates — Anne Marie Rotunda received 200, Sharon Wade 201 and Norman I. Lapidus garnered 197. Before the Primary, a Verona citizen was trying to convince me that Mayor Jim Treffinger had lost some of his popularity. I didn't believe it — but, the Primary voting results don't lie. And in our opinion, Jim Treffinger is a couple of cuts above the average candidate in quality and class. Despite the vote result, we think Jim Treffinger has outstanding credentials and being the most popular in the voting booth may not necessarily be indicative of a candidate's achievements in life. In Jim Treffinger's case, that is a fact.

THE Virginian "Barney" Mattia Annual Dinner was held last month with one great omission — the presence of Father Matt who always could be relied upon to keep the audience awake. Father Matt's new responsibilities precluded his availability.

LAST Sunday my brother,

Carmen, and I were invited by Chairman Alan Levine of the North Jersey Developmental Center in Totowa to attend a dedication ceremony involving a new facility. We arrived minutes after the ceremony, and it turned out to be our good fortune to arrive late for we were taken on a personal tour of the entire facility. What a fantastic experience! We had no idea that this unique facility was only a ten-minute ride from Nutley. The Center has a skilled, dedicated staff. The facility has a client population of approximately 550 — and every single one receives much loving, tender care. I shall never forget the experience and will be eternally grateful to Alan Levine for extending the invitation. When you're feeling low and your spirit needs outside nourishment, do yourself a favor and visit the North Jersey Developmental Center at 169 Mimsink Road, Totowa. Dr. Ralph J. Sneed is the Superintendent and runs a very efficient operation.

PHIL RIZZUTO — God Bless him! Why is he continuously bypassed annually for nomination to the Baseball Hall of Fame? The omission is more remarkable because of the position Phil Rizzuto played with the Yankees. By any rule in the book, Phil Rizzuto was too short to play shortstop — but he turned out to be one of the best shortstops the game has ever seen. We're going to keep asking the question until Phil Rizzuto receives his rightful place in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

IN my youth, I had an experience I shall never forget. I was 18 years old — and believe me, there was a time in my life when I really was 18 — I attended 8 a.m. Mass at St. Mary's Church and by 9:30 I would take my place with the Blue Army in the balcony of the Second Presbyterian Church, Newark, to hear the dynamic, Dr. Lester H. Clee deliver an inspiring, philosophical sermon. I went through this routine week after week, month after month and year after year. Those years were probably the most formative of my life, and Dr. Clee influenced me greatly. My unorthodox religious lifestyle did not please my Catholic religious leaders. But, I was doing what I wanted to do — and I have never regretted my decision.

I HAVE and always will be a registered Republican. Have I voted for Democrat candidates at any time in my life? Yes — and I'll probably continue to do so as long as people like Congressman Peter Rodino and U.S. Senator Bill Bradley populate the political horizon. In my early years — like 18 to 22 — Nutley Republican leadership did everything in its power to exclude me from the Republican Party. And why in hell I persisted in my efforts to remain a Republican, I'll never know — for it just didn't make any sense. As a matter of fact, one of the most bitter intra-party G.O.P. fights of the last fifty years, found me at the center of the action. To recapture that moment, I reprint an editorial of that day which appeared June 8, 1949 in the Trenton, N.J. leading daily newspaper, The Trentonian, a reading of which will give you a flavor of the times. (And I'll tell you a secret, I enjoyed every minute of it!)

Junior GOP Wrangling
Junior members of the New Jersey Republican Party apparently decided over the weekend to remove from the party elders their hitherto exclusive monopoly on party rifts.

At a meeting in Asbury Park, the New Jersey Young Republicans, Inc., held elections in what proved to be the bitterest and most tumultuous contest in the history of the organization.

Boos, catcalls, fisticuffs — all the trappings of a bitter political battle — marked the voting. Out of the welter of charges, physical wrangling and acrimonious debate came the re-election of Frank A. Orechio of Nutley, as the Young Republicans' state chairman.

In his significant victory, Orechio, who was deserted by his own Essex County delegation, defeated a powerful coalition of Old Guard Republicanism whose imprint is unmistakable in high state GOP circles.

He beat down the opposition of State Republican Chairman John J. Dickerson, former State Chairman Lloyd J. Marsh, Essex County GOP Chairman George Becker and the Young Republicans' own powerful nominating committee.

That's quite an imposing array of talent to oppose any candidacy. Yet Orechio did it — convincingly.

One manifestation of this political upset is the obvious fact that New Jersey Republicans have still another division within their ranks — to go hand in hand, side by side with other, more famous feuds which already have shorn the state GOP of any pretense of party unity.

Although efforts were made in Elizabeth recently by leaders of the warring factions to get all sides together, indications now are that their success was limited — even more limited than the success obtained by the Democrats in Jersey City the other day.

The inescapable conclusion is that both Republican juniors and seniors have major jobs on their hands if they expect to effectively weld these divergent forces into a decisive, hard-hitting organization.

WWII aircraft carrier seamen seek buddies

Belleville mates organize reunion

During World War II, two young men from Belleville served together on the USS Card CVE 11, one of the "baby flat tops" with a 50 x 400 foot flight deck. The carrier and its escort destroyers made up Task Unit 21.14. Their assignment was to hunt down and destroy the "wolf packs," Nazi U-boats which played havoc with Allied convoys carrying supplies and replacement troops to the forces in Northern Africa and Southern Europe.

So well did the unit perform its duty that it was awarded a Presidential Unit citation and a place in the Hall of Fame of American war vessels. It is credited with sinking more U-boats than any team in naval history.

The boys from Belleville — Joe Macchia and Michael DelRusso — lost touch with each other after the war. Both had attended James G. Shawger School in the Silver Lake section of Belleville and later they attended Belleville High School.

DelRusso married Theresa Veneziano from Bloomfield and fathered three daughters —

Amelia Mattoon and Michele McIntosh, both of Belleville, and Barbara Ann Scarrillo of Verona. He is the grandfather of three. He is a general epoxy compounder at Hardman, Inc. located on Cortlandt Street in Belleville.

Macchia and his wife, Beverly, headed south and settled in Melrose, Florida.

Two years ago the two friends met again at the first reunion of the USS Card shipmates, held on September 29 in Jacksonville, Fla. Over 40 members of the crew attended. Now, Macchia and Del Russo are actively engaged in promoting a fourth reunion, to be held Sept. 17, 18, 19 and 20 of this year in the Winrock Inn, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

They are seeking the names and addresses of former crew members, officers and pilots who served with the task unit.

Macchia can be reached at the following address: Rt. 3, Box 3315, Melrose, Fla. 32666. Del Russo can be reached at 517 Delavan Ave., Newark, N.J. 07107 or call him after 5 p.m. at 483-7757.

Roasted — Essex County Sheriff Thomas J. On hand to honor the Sheriff were (l. to r.) Jack Dante, field director of the Essex Council, Belleville; commissioner Joseph Formaroto, U.S. Marshal Arthur D. Borinsky, D'Alessio, State Senator Carmen A. Orechio, Nutley commissioner Frank A. Cocchiola and Eagle Scout Sean Reilly.

Bellevillite receives service award

Professor Tomkins honored at NJIT affair

Reginald Tomkins of Belleville, professor of chemistry at New Jersey Institute of Technology, received NJIT's Foundation Overseers Public and Institute Service Award at the university's Commencement exercises May 21.

"Dr. Tomkins has played a leadership role in numerous programs associated with his department," said Deran Hanesian, chairman of the Department of Chemical Engineering, Chemistry and Environmental Science. "I was very happy to recommend Dr. Tomkins for this award."

A multifaceted academic who does impressive research and is also devoted to teaching, Dr. Tomkins was recognized particularly for his work with ChIME (Chemical Industry for Minorities in Engineering), a pre-college program for disadvantaged minority students, and his work in bringing together scientists from around the world at a meeting of the International Union of Pure and Applied Chemistry at NJIT.

The ChIME program Dr. Tomkins developed for NJIT, now used as a model throughout the nation, involves bringing talented and motivated minority students to the university for six weeks in the summer. The students attend workshops and classes in related subjects, meet with professionals working in industry (particularly minority and women professionals who can serve as role models), and visit plants and offices of companies involved in various facets of chemical engineering. Eighty percent of participating youngsters have gone on to college in technical and scientific fields. The success of the program led NJIT to create a related "Introduction to ChIME" summer program for junior high school youngsters.

Dr. Tomkins, whose own childhood was in rural England, may seem an unlikely champion of American inner-city children. However, it's a role for which he has been training all his life.

"I grew up on a farm, and each summer children from London would come and stay there. Most of them had never seen a cow or a lamb. They weren't minorities, but they were certainly underprivileged," he recalled.

"When I came here, I tried to size up the needs of people in this area. And I see that there are many children, especially Blacks and Hispanics who are not having a very good experience in school compared to other children."

In ChIME, where Tomkins works with the children on a daily basis, students selected are generally the "cream of the crop." He also devotes his time however, to high school dropouts in Newark's Employment Orientation Program. These students, some of whom are "one step away from the penitentiary," can often be helped, Tomkins said.

In his professional career, Tomkins moved easily from one end of the academic spectrum, inner-city high school dropouts, to the other, internationally prominent scientists of IUPAC, who he was instrumental in bringing to NJIT for a conference last year.

Tomkins spent two years planning the meeting, which included the papers and poster sessions common to all such meetings, as well as a barbecue on the Green, a banquet at the Manor in West Orange, organized trips for spouses and informal socializing.

"It's very gratifying to realize scientists from all over the world can go back home and tell people they spend a full week on our campus in Newark and had a wonderful time."

"I've gotten very positive responses from the participants," he says.

Dr. Tomkins came to NJIT in 1987 after serving for nine years on the faculty of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He holds a diploma in education, a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry and physics, and a Ph.D. degree in physical chemistry from the University of London.

Best Sellers

The following fiction best sellers are available at the Library. If a title is not on the shelf, the library takes reservations for 25 cents a book.

"Fine Things" by Danielle Steel, dealing with the vicissitudes of a son of the 60's on his way to the 80's, while "Windmills of the Gods" by Sidney Sheldon deals with the nightmarish experience that befalls a woman, after her appointment to Ambassador of Rumania.

"The Ladies of Missalough" by Colleen McCullough deals with an Australian town at the turn of the century, while "Texasville" by Larry McMurty is a sequel to "The Last Picture Show." "Destiny" by Sally Beauman tells of a 30-year romance, whereas "The Eyes of the Dragon" by Stephen King is a fairy tale.

In "Bolt," by Dick Francis, the jockey hero has to contend with a romantic crisis and an arms-selling intrigue. In "Red Storm Rising" by Tom Clancy, the West tries to stave off the Russians, while "The Prince of Tides" by Pat Conroy is about complex relationships.

In "No Deals, Mr. Bond," by John Gardner, James Bond returns. "Flight of the Intruder" by Stephen Coonts deals with Navy aviators, while "Winter Hawk" by Craig Thomas is a story of the thwarting of a Russian plot to launch Star Wars weapons.

DENTALLY SPEAKING
By Drs. James D. Muglia
and Paul N. De Maio

Mrs. O. of Nutley writes: Now that school has started what dental advice can you give?

Mrs. O. much can be written on that but we'll highlight some points.

1. Brushing should be done before school, after school, and before bed. Flossing should be done daily.

2. Good nutritious food should be eaten as snacks during school. Foods such as fresh fruits, grain breads for sandwiches, portions of raw or cooked vegetables, peanuts, popcorn or crackers.

3. Remember during school stressful situations may occur (exams, homework etc.) which could result in bleeding and painful gums. If that should occur reinforcing the points above is mandatory along with seeking advice from your dentist immediately. We hope that helps you somewhat Mrs. O. and thanks for writing.

The $8000 man...

John Zurlo

John Vincent Zurlo, 18, a senior at Belleville High School, has received a $8000 four-year college scholarship. The award was made by the Pennwalt Foundation as part of its 1987 scholarship program. He is one of 12 students who will share a total of $97,600 during the next four years.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Zurlo of Belleville. The elder Zurlo is a wire-panel assembler at Pennwalt's Wallace and Tiernan Division in Belleville.

John plans to major in biochemistry with a specialization in molecular biology and pursue a career in pharmaceutical research.

He is a member of the National Honor Society and is involved with the Key Club, cross country track and Children of the American Revolution. He has been distinguished in "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

The 1987 winners of the Pennwalt scholarships were selected by a panel of leading educators, based on scholastic records, citizenship and leadership qualifications, letters of commendation from school principals and scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test prepared by the College Entrance Examination Board.

The Pennwalt scholarships, for the sons and daughters of employees, are part of the company's broad aid-to-education program. Presently, many recipients of Pennwalt's scholarships are enrolled in colleges and universities throughout the country. Through the Pennwalt Foundation, the company encourages its employees to support private secondary schools, colleges and universities through the matching gift program. For the first $100 contributed by an employee or retiree, the Foundation will contribute $200, above that, the gift is matched equally up to $1500 per eligible institution.

Pennwalt Corporation, with headquarters in Philadelphia, is a worldwide manufacturer of chemicals, pharmaceuticals and precision equipment.

John Zurlo's $8000 scholarship was the largest award presented at the Belleville High School award ceremony held late last month.

Says citizens are making a 'stink' about it!

Comm. Fornarotto wants garbabe laws observed

Commissioner Joseph T. Fornarotto, Director of Public Affairs, is requesting the cooperation of all the residents of the Township of Belleville regarding garbage disposal.

Numerous complaints have been received that residents are violating policy and procedure regarding Belleville's municipal garbage disposal contract.

The Director states that "it is unlawful to place your garbage at the curb any earlier than 5 p.m. the night prior to your regular garbage pick up day."

Commissioner Fornarotto is requesting that all residents cooperate by abiding by the law.

Pool safety guidelines make summer a splash

Commissioner Joseph T. Fornarotto, Director of Public Affairs, and Thomas J. Longo, Health Officer, remind residents that the hazards of summer are approaching.

Among these is the tragic drowning of small children in swimming pools — residential as well as other kinds of pools. Drowning is, in fact, the fourth leading cause of death among children five years of age.

The Health Department has issued the following guidelines that poolowners should observe.

1. Never leave a child unsupervised near a pool. Anyone watching children must be instructed about the need for constant supervision.
2. Completely fence the pool in and install self-closing and self-latching gates.
3. Don't thing young children are "drown-proof" because they have had swimming lessons.
4. Do not use flotation devices as a substitute for supervision.
5. Never allow the pool to be used if the pool cover is partially in place. Children can be trapped under it. Remove the cover completely.
6. Keep toys away from pool area.
7. Place tables and chairs well away from the pool fence. Children may climb on them to reach the pool area.
8. Remove steps to above-ground pools when not in use.
9. Have a telephone at poolside to avoid leaving children unattended. Keep emergency numbers at this phone.

10. Keep rescue equipment by the pool.

11. Learn CPR (cardio-pulmonary resuscitation). The American Red Cross and the Essex County Heart Assn. offer courses.

Commission

ages were escorted out of the room by police.

At one point an elderly man pointed to former Mayor Michael Marotti and shouted, "This never happened while he was in charge!"

Other citizens defended the position of the three commissioners who voted to keep the meeting open despite the objections of a majority of townspeople.

"There's business that needs to be done," said some in the audience. However, it was unclear what business, if any, could not wait until a meeting could be arranged in larger quarters.

Shortly after 10PM, Frantantoni again moved to close the meeting, when all business but the open hearing of citizens had been conducted. Again tempers flared among townspeople who complained about not being given the chance to be heard. Frantantoni contended that everybody would get a chance to talk, listen and see — once the meeting was scheduled and held at a larger facility.

Edith DiFeo was at the podium in the middle of her turn to be heard when the commotion forced her to stop, and caused Commissioner Frantantoni to again move for an adjournment.

DeFeo complained that she should be allowed to continue speaking, which in turn caused another Bellevillite, Frank Motagna, to say that if "she gets to speak, I do to." The resulting outburst brought four policemen into the fray, and Motagna was subsequently led out of the chamber by police.

At this point, the commissioners again voted on Frantantoni's move to adjourn, and this time the resolution was carried as Commissioner Risoli switched sides.

NEXT WEEK: What next for the new Belleville Commission? Can the shaky start be overcome?

Happy Father's Day

It's a wonderful way to top off his holiday! After the gifts are opened, and all the cards are read, he'll especially enjoy a relaxing dinner here on Father's Day.

We'll treat Dad royally, with a sumptuous array of fine food. After all, doesn't he deserve the very best?

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Gale Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gravatt of Porked River and Mr. and Mrs. V. Russell Kelley of Totowa, to Pasquale Palumbo, son of Mrs. Dalena Palumbo of Nutley and the late Mr. Vasco Palumbo.

The wedding will be held Oct. 10. Miss Kelley, a graduate of Sadle Brook High School, is with Hewlett Packard.

Mr. Palumbo, an alumnus of Nutley High School, is self-employed as P&D Service Station, Belleville.

Eileen Kelleher will enroll this fall at Berkeley School

Eileen Kelleher of Belleville will begin studies in September at The Berkeley School of Garret Mountain, a two-year college of business.

Kelleher will be enrolled in Berkeley's nine-month information processing program which equips students with the background for entry-level positions as well as posts providing administrative support to executives.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mort Kelleher, she is a senior at Belleville High School where she has been a member of the Student Government Organization, Senior Senate, Foreign Language Club, Key Club, orchestra, chorus, prom committee, Octagon Club, Italian Club, assistant business manager of the yearbook and secretary of her sophomore class. She has also participated in schools plays and was active in volleyball.

Friend/Advocate program serves township residents

Annie R. is 83 years old and lives alone in her apartment. She has no relatives and with failing eyesight, has difficulty preparing her own meals and paying her bills. She has become isolated, leaving her apartment only when a neighbor is able to drive her to the grocery store.

There are many elderly people in Essex County whose living situation is similar to Annie's. They are isolated, and without the needed services to assist them in living independently, the possibility exists that they will be unnecessarily institutionalized.

Fortunately for these people, Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley residents Chloe Datto, Judy Beere, William Shaw, Katie Shaw, Don Page and John and Maureen Saar have volunteered to help. Through the Essex County Friend/Advocate Program which is administered by the Community Health Law Project, these Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley residents take time from their busy schedules to visit a homebound elderly person on a regular basis. They assist their clients with decision-making, refer them to available services and arrange medical care and transportation for them, which ultimately provides an important link between the elderly client and the community.

The Friend/Advocate Program is always looking for new volunteers. Interested persons wishing to become a volunteer or desiring more information about the program, should call Barbara Haylik, program director, at 672-0569.

Tel-Med tapes spotlighted

Clara Maass Medical Center is highlighting several Tel-Med tapes during the month of June.

Included are 570, Cirrhosis of the Liver; 942, Alcoholism, The Scope of the Problem; 943, Is Drinking a Problem?; 944, To Drink or Not to Drink; 945, So You Love an Alcoholic; 946, How A.A. Can Help the Problem Drinker.

Tel-Med is a special collection of health information tapes provided by the medical center as a free community service. Interested persons can call 751-7000 and ask for any tape by number and receive a brief description of the problem. When an operator answers, simply give the number of the tape you want to hear.

Pastor is thanked...

To the editor:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Msgr. Fimiani, the priest and sisters of Holy Family Parish, Fr. Lowry of Toms River, Fr. Husted of Paramus, The S.W. Brown Funeral Home, Patrolmen Cassie and Morrison of the Nutley Police Department, and all those people who visited and sent condolences and food, flowers, Masses, and contributions to the Linda M. Ritacco Memorial Fund for The Tournament of Champions.

The outpouring of compassion and sympathy shown was overwhelming. Our family has always been proud of Linda and her work. It brings us great comfort and peace to know that she touched so many lives in such a positive way.

Sincerely yours,
the family of Linda M. Ritacco

Golden is fightin' mad...

To the editor:

The maliciously distorted Letter to the Editor by Cornelius P. Vander Zwan published in the June 4 Belleville Times, captioned "Comments On Golden" is so consummately fraught with the author's presumptuous misconceptions of fantasized unrealities... that it demands a rejoinder.

Who does Mr. Vander Zwan presume he is to publicly write in a published letter that "After getting the results of the election, James Golden admittedly zonked out, dead to the world on May 12th and did not come to till May 19th, when he 'composed his column' with his 'predictions' of who would be Mayor, and who would be commissioner of what department." Is he ignorant of the laws of libel? Admitted by whom?

Mr. Vander Zwan expatiates voluminously about what he and most Belleville people assumed were to happen should certain candidates be elected, but it didn't happen that way... more influential local political people contrived a different pattern. One which patently "shook up" Mr. Vander Zwan.

Mr. Vander Zwan writes in his infamous letter, "Jim Golden is well known for his poor choice of words in Golden Comments"... we say, probably because he doesn't know what they mean... we stand by our correct and proper use of our "Despite his highest vote" was correctly used; since many people assumed that the highest vote-getter would be Mayor, however as we explained, "Under the Walsh Act, Commission Government, three votes of the five office holders name the Mayor."

The most disturbing matter that came to light by the Vander Zwan letter was his paragraph which read, "The truth of the whole matter is, that on Saturday morning, following the customary traditional 'private caucus' on Friday, May 15, just about everybody in Belleville knew what Jim (Jean Dixon) Golden was predicting in his 'Golden Comments' on Tuesday, May 19." That is an error, the column appeared May 21.

"Just about everybody in Belleville knew what Jim Golden was predicting in his 'Golden Comments,'" writes Mr. Vander Zwan... how would he know? Only one person would know what he had written for the May 21 issue of the paper... the editor, Mr. Bifani who would have received the copy Saturday morning, unless someone else opened his letter... were this done it would constitute a brazen breach of confidentiality that would be unpardonable. Was ethics ignored? If so, by whom?

No! Mr. Vander Zwan, reporting election results bears no malicious intent, that you're PO'ed doesn't alter the results, the results STAND, you didn't do as well as you had hoped in this one.

By the way! If you really would like to find out what happened, take a trip down to "Boss" Rega's Lemon Ice emporium some hot summer day and eat a few of his delicious ices and cool off... it could take some of the wind out of your sails. You don't shape up too well when you compete with the big boys in the whirligig of politics.

Our column on the local election was written Thursday, May 15 and mailed Friday, not as Mr. Vander Zwan would like to imply, the postmark establishes the fact and the postman who took our letter addressed to Mr. Bifani.

Mr. Vander Zwan, the lexicon defines "zonked" as being under the influence of alcohol or a drug (as LSD). You wrote and signed it, the paper published it and I'm suggesting that you either retract that statement or you may be called upon to defend your unmerited libel.

James R. Golden

Letters to the Editor

Biting the bullet...

To the editor:

It was an election that stumped the so-called 'political experts' of our town. No one, I mean nobody, even thought Mayor Marotti would not be re-elected. Some political experts have conjectured that maybe the 'Taj Mahal' project and his public statement about it that, "We don't care what you want, we're going to do it anyway!" was the reason he lost. Yet, others have said that in his over-confidence, he put a couple too many 'shills' in the race, hoping to control the open two commission spots, and thereby spread his own political base too thin. Still, others fault his tax increases and rumors of activities I would not care to comment on here. My personal opinion is that he lost a lot of support and respect for exercising his political powers over his 'subjects' on the Board of Education by pushing political job patronage.

And, once again, those familiar earmarks of any Belleville election, 'the bullet voter' and 'the short voter' were ever present. For those non-politicals, a 'bullet voter' is someone who votes only for one candidate no matter whether there are two, three or five positions to be voted on.

The 'bullet voter' mentality includes: 1. an understandable conscientious belief, that there was only one candidate that they believed to be qualified enough to deserve their vote. 2. A not-so-justifiable, because he comes from my section of town it doesn't matter whether he's intelligent, an ex-football player, a nice guy or a functional illiterate. 3. An embarrassing vote for the person some political boss told them to vote for.

Out of 16,739 eligible registered voters, 6,478 or 38% actually voted and there were 1,430 'bullet voters' (20%), or one out of every five voters! The highest 'bullet vote' district was Ward 1, District 12 with 47%; 149 voters out of 320, or almost one out of every two voters. The lowest was Ward 2, District 6, with 10%; 25 out of 252 voters.

Then you have the 'short voter,' a voter who for one or more of the reasons mentioned above, does not cast a vote for all open positions. The dubious honor here goes to Ward 1, District 11, where including 152 'bullet voters' (33%), there were 701 missing votes! Stating it another way, if 6,478 voters each voted for five candidates a total of 32,390 votes should have been cast, but only 26,235 votes were actually cast or 6,155 votes short. Would the results of the election have been markedly different if every voter voted for five candidates? Only God knows!

Is it possible to change or upgrade the basis upon which the Belleville voter casts his or her vote? I really don't know, but I won't give up trying to give the people of Belleville more information about critical issues so they can, if they wish to, make informed decisions.

I thought for sure that coming off an 87 point ($435 average) tax increase, and a proposed 71 point ($355 average) increase for this year, no one in office would be re-elected, but obviously I was wrong about the level of awareness, or the level of gullibility, or the level of tolerance, or more importantly the level of apathy of the Belleville voter.

Since I think like a businessman, not a politician, even after having been a candidate in three Board of Education elections (one successful) and once in a commission race, I haven't the vaguest idea of what makes the Belleville tick and it does not embarrass me to have to admit it.

I pledge to the people of Belleville, who do think for themselves before voting, that I will continue to try to be of public service. I will continue NOT to be a politician. I will continue to dig up information and develop ideas that will save money for Belleville taxpayers. I will continue to be the 'truly concerned citizen' whose letters to the editor you have read ever since I came to live in Belleville in 1969.

Being a 'concerned citizen' is nothing new to me! I will never become part of the problem... no matter on which side of the platform I stand or sit.

a truly concerned citizen

New Jersey Bell Technology Has Information Age Off And Running.

By Art Guida
External Affairs Manager

The Age of Information. That's the name generally used to describe the era the computer and communications experts say we're about to enter.

But take a closer look at the technological advances developed and implemented by New Jersey Bell, and you'll realize that we've already taken the first steps into The Age of Information.

This new technology has provided two major advantages to our customers. It allows us to offer you new services and it has made existing service more efficient.

The new technology you're probably most familiar with is fiber optics. In an amazingly short period of time, telecommunications in New Jersey has advanced from a network of single channel communications carried over bare copper wire to a network in which billions of bits of information speed through fiber optic cables every second.

Here's an example. On a one-inch copper cable, we can handle 1,200 simultaneous calls. By contrast, a one-inch fiber optic cable can handle 435,000 simultaneous calls.

Another vital advance is the ongoing replacement of electromechanical switches with electronic and digital electronic switches. More than half of New Jersey Bell's 210 switches already have been converted and the remainder should be completed by 1990.

An all-electronic network will make it possible for us to provide our new software-based services to just about every residence and business location.

Some of these services are already making their initial appearances. Public Data Network (PDN) allows inexpensive interaction between computers. By using a single communications line and eliminating the need for expensive translation devices and dedicated lines, PDN will allow smaller data users to take advantage of the new technology. Typical uses might include in-home banking and shopping, electronic mail and hookups to databank networks.

Central Office Local Area Network (CO-LAN) enables Centrex customers to economically link computers and terminals and to simultaneously transmit voice and data between buildings or cities.

The emergence of the technology that makes possible these services marked the beginning of The Age of Information. We've been there for some time now, and through the ongoing development efforts of New Jersey Bell, many more new communications marvels will be brought on-line to become part of your daily life.

A parent's love

1 Corinthians 13

Submitted by Gerald Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

If I tell my children how they should perform, but do not lovingly guide them by my words and example, I have become only blaring brass or a nagging noise to their ears. If I could foresee what they can become and even know the very plan of God for them and have absolute faith that it could happen, but fail to give them loving encouragement to meet each day's challenges and frustrations, then my knowledge is useless.

If I sacrifice every earthly possession for my children; yes, even lay down my life for them in some dramatic way, yet fail to show sacrificial love in ordinary circumstances, then love shall not be communicated.

This parent's love of which I speak is low to lose patience, even in the most trying circumstances. It never grows tired of explaining, instructing and answering. It looks for opportunities to express praise and support. It does not make its children dependent in a possessive sort of way, but strives to help them achieve the right kind of independence and the freedom to think for themselves.

A parent's love does not brag over things "I can do," making children feel inferior by comparison. It does not misuse its authority, but realizes that the privilege to rear children comes from the Lord. Love has good manners. It does not "use" children to live out its own dreams or to carry out its orders, but treats children with respect, for they are people too.

Love is not touchy; it is not easily provoked, and realizes that children are children. It does not keep a mental record of wrongs committed or say, "I told you so." Rather, love encourages children by praising their efforts.

Love does not blow up and say, "I've had enough." It believes the best, saying, "Try, I think you can." It loves no matter what happens — low grades, strike-outs, or forgotten lines in the school play. Love is sufficient for every situation. And, be sure of this — Love always brings positive results. Everyone responds to love.

Beyond the stone wall of troubles

Submitted by
G. Ross Laidlaw
Pastor, Brookdale Baptist Church

The Rev. John Wesley was an outstanding preacher and leader of men. He preached with flaming zeal and life-changing conviction in both England and the United States. He was the founder, together with his brother Charles, of the Methodist Church.

One day John Wesley was walking down the road with a man who was in great trouble. The man expressed the fact that he doubted the goodness of God. He said, "I don't know what I shall do with all this trouble."

Wesley at that moment saw a cow standing in a pasture looking over a stone wall. "Do you know why that cow is looking over the wall?" asked Wesley. "No," replied the troubled man. Wesley then responded by saying, "I will tell you. The cow is looking over the wall because she cannot see through it. That is what you must do with your wall of trouble. You cannot see through it so you must look over it and above it."

There is profound wisdom in that story. All of us have been shaken by the death of those young seamen on the "Stark" and by the senseless bombings and acts of terrorism and natural disaster. These things are enough to make us doubt the goodness of God.

God is not the cause of evil — but God allows it. Why? The answer is, only God knows. But since He is infinite and omniscient (knowing all things) and we are finite and have very little knowledge, we have to believe that God is working out some grand purpose even in allowing tragedy and trouble.

When you look at your circumstances, sometimes you despair. We should always look up to God and know that He is there — know that He loves us through Jesus Christ, the Saviour and know that He will forgive and save and help all who trust Him. "Look unto me and be ye saved, saith the Lord: for I am God, and there is none else." Isaiah 45:22.

Friends raise $2,200

The Friends of the Belleville Public Library held their annual meeting at the Library recently and presented David Bryant, Library director with a check for $2,200. The represents the profits of the Friend's fundraising efforts for 1986-87.

The Friends were able to generate library support by arranging popular bus trips to a variety of interesting places and events, by holding cultural programs and by conducting their annual book, bake and craft fair.

Dorothy Charen, the Friend's president, told Bookmarks "The Library does an excellent job in providing cultural enrichment in Belleville, as Friends of the Library we want to help it broaden its offerings."

According to Bryant, "the Friends' support will allow us to display our paperbacks and videos in new ways, complimenting the lobby shelving they bought last year."

Summer story workshop

The Library will be holding a short story workshop for students from grades 7-12. The workshop will be held on July 8, 15 and 22 from 11 to 12 p.m. It will be offered by Cindy R. LaRue, reference and young people's librarian and will cover the basic skills of writing a short story.

Please call Ms. LaRue to register at 450-3434.

Summer crafts workshop

This summer the Library will hold classes for teens, adults and seniors at 10 a.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays in the Meeting Room.

Please check the Library programs and newsletter for a complete listing and registration requirements.

Summer Reading

The June program of "Celebrate Books from the Belleville Public Library," a member of the Essex-Hudson Library Cooperative Region III of the N.J. Library Network, features David Bryant of the Belleville Public Library discussing videos, large type books, cook books, travel books, home repair and sports books for summer viewing and reading.

Adrea Cohen will be discussing the summer crafts programs for teens, adults and seniors, while Cindy LaRue will discuss the Short Story Workshop for the children's summer program. Kathleen Mollica will highlight the programs at the Shafter Branch Library.

Sarah Bryant and Vanessa Weller took time from their playing to visit the "New Jersey Pride" Mobile Museum on its recent visit to the Belleville Public Library.

Cutting Edge display

Currently on display at the Belleville Public Library is a collection of safety razors and related shaving paraphernalia by Paul and Barbara Ciccone of Belleville. They hobby originated from having acquired some old razors from relatives.

"Our collection is comprised of safety razors from around the world, dating back to the late 1880's with over 400 brands of single and double edge blades and 100 strapping (and honing devices and reprints of many old advertisements," Ciccone commented.

Paul and Barbara Ciccone

"Safety razors, not the straight-edge type, are of primary interest to us," Barbara Ciccone indicated. "Included in our collection are many known brands, such as Gillette, Stars, Gems, Ever-Ready and Schick, as well as some unknown brands as Clark, Valet, Conrad, Buffalo, Dandy, Kriss-Kross, Curb-O, Shakespeare and Segal."

The primary sources for expanding their collection are auctions, antique shops, flea markets and other collectors. The publicity from the newspaper article (The Star-Ledger, 4/27/86) generated considerable interest in their collection and they received numerous phone calls from readers throughout the state. The Ciccones were gratified by the many callers who wished to donate items that they felt should become part of a collection.

Barbara Ciccone is a graduate of Nutley High School and Up-sala College.

Paul Ciccone is a graduate of Barringer High School and Up-sala College. He retired as vice president of advertising and sales promotion for a New York based conglomerate. He started his own company, Kingdom Associates, which he operated with his wife. The company, located in Belleville is involved with promotional advertising specialties and trade shows.

The Ciccones have three children, all graduates of Belleville High School.

Trash for the Avenue, cash for the Valley

You can pick up a few best-sellers in the magazine aisle at Pathmark, but Barnes & Noble it ain't! Obviously, here is where the library, with its 110,000 volumes, fills the void best. And borrowing books doesn't cost anything, unless you're overdue. Which reminds me....

Moving right along, Director Bryant showed me figures earlier this year which showed that library usage is up. This is not surprising, since the library can be an edge in this increasingly competitive world where the right knowledge goes a long way, and libraries are the sources of knowledge.

The library folks are also pretty keen on publicity down there, which no doubt helps more townspeople to get involved with library functions. All the stuff you see in Bookmarks every week, they supply. I may serve up a flashy layout or cutesy headline now and then, but they write the stories.

But regular readers of "Bifani on Belleville" know that columns which start out roses often end up thorns, and this week is no exception.

When I first met Bryant, he gave me a postcard with an illustration of the Library on it. Nice looking building, I thought, "where's this?"

When he explained to me (a green settler at the time) that six years ago they plopped a brick box in front of that beautiful Roman-looking Carnegie-funded facade I almost choked. What kind of town government does that injustice not only to one of the best public-domain structures, but to the street as well which suffered a severe, crushing blow to its aesthetic?

Definitely not bright, I thought but in all honesty the spacious airiness that was undoubtedly lost on the outside was recaptured on the inside. The designers of the new addition's interior have done a nice job.

Anyway, it's too late now. Short of ripping the box down (and I've heard people around town favor just that) there's little the current town government can do to improve the exterior aesthetic of the library.

Or is there?

A few weeks ago I was drinking a cola walking into the library. I saw the sign prohibiting beverages inside, so I turned around to fling the can into the nearest trash receptacle. There was none. Then I looked at the sidewalk, lawn strip and curb and noticed all the litter. Since I grew up watching that commercial of the old Indian surrounded by litter with the tear rolling down his crinkled face, I'm subsequently of the opinion that litter is gross.

Common sense dictates that a reasonable amount of people will use a trash can if it's there. And in this era of "reducing the size of government" we all know that it's still the government's job to stick trash cans where they're needed most, like in front of the buildings our taxes pay for.

Bryant's maintenance man is on vacation this week and the litter that had converged on the library's Avenue frontage Tuesday morning was Bryant's problem.

"I started out with one of those things with the spear at the end of it and then I just threw it down and started picking up the garbage with my hands," the suit-and-tie clad director said. To make matters even more funny-but-sad, four townspeople came up to him to tell him that Belleville's a "dirty town."

Hey, if there's a trash can there and people still litter, then we have only ourselves to blame. But if there's NO trashcan around then we have the government to blame....

I think the new commissioners should take note: They're doing a heckuva job INSIDE the library - clean as a whistle, packed with programs and material, and thoughtfully laid out. Let's do them justice by taking care of the OUTSIDE of the library, which starts with a trashcan....

Strolling down what could still someday be a fine promenade, we arrive at the corner of Belleville and Washington Avenues. With Town Hall, the Chamber of Commerce, the only municipal lot and the densest shopping all clustered around that intersection, it is the main part of town. When townspeople and visitors alike think of the center of Belleville, this is the area that comes to mind.

There used to be some nice benches on this corner. I wasn't around at the time, but I've seen pictures. When I arrived on the Belleville scene in 1986, all that was left was this one rickety (almost comical) excuse for a bench directly across from Town Hall.

One day I asked the former Public Works Commissioner if his department could possibly fix it - give it a fifteen minute coat of paint, maybe, and sturdy it up a bit. They fixed it, all right. They carted it away and didn't replace it with another one!

Sometimes it's fuzzy as to which commissioner is responsible for the stuff on the street. As near as I can tell, it's Public Works that handles the trash cans, Parks and Public Property that handles the benches and Public Safety that handles another one of the "little things" that make the difference between a crummy-looking main drag and an Avenue that's holding its own.

The public paint. The yellow on the curbs and the white lines in the street. You'd be surprised what a difference some fresh street paint could make on the town's main intersection. It really needs it.

THIS JUST IN: Essex Executive Nicholas Amato and Belleville Mayor Michael Pizzi have announced a June 18 start for the Valley Neighborhood Preservation Program, a county funded program that will provide home-improvement grants to low-income Belleville Valley homeowners. If that's you, you're eligible for up to $15,000. Valley homeowners who fall into the moderate income category are eligible for up to $25,000 in loans with only 3 percent interest.

Mauro Tucci, Essex County's Director of Housing and Community Development, said, "The program will abate code violations and facilitate the process of safe, decent, affordable housing to area residents."

In other words, it will spruce up the valley a little at a time, which is just what should be happening up on the Avenue.

Assistant Director of the program is Rosemary Senatore-Ciccone, who stopped by the Times newsroom in person to drop off the good news. She said this program is important and she hoped it would be displayed in a prominent part of the paper.

I don't know if this column is what she had in mind, but there's a picture story on page three as well.

More information on the Valley Neighborhood Preservation Program can be had by calling 759-0550 or 450-3306. If you want to make your views known about trash cans, benches and street paint for the center of our town, call 450-3310. Until next week...

Belleville TimesSPORTS

It's hard to believe, but the 1986-87 school year is quickly coming to an end. Graduation ceremonies are just two weeks away, and once again, some impressive seniors will leave the Halls of BHS and look to make their mark on society.

This past sports year provided the fans with a good deal of excitement. For the next three weeks, we'll take a look back at the past year, starting this week with the fall sports season.

It seems long ago, but the fall sports at Belleville High got the year off on a high note. Two teams won NNJIL titles and four of the six varsity clubs posted winning records.

Football Team Posts 6-3 Record

The Buccaneer football team had an excellent campaign, coming back from a 2-7 mark in 1985. The year didn't start off so well, however. The Bucs lost its first two games, by scores of 9-6 against Paramus and 14-0 to Ridgewood.

The Bucs battled Montclair in week number three, with an

Buc Shots

0-2 record and the confidence level staggering. The team needed a boost, and it came in the form of print in the morning paper the day of the game. A local newspaper predicted that Montclair would win easily, somewhere in the 27-0 range.

The Belleville players took the article to heart and on the sidelines the night of the game, you could hear many of the athletes reminding their teammates of the prediction. Junior quarterback Jeff Spilsbury unleashed something new in the Belleville arsenal, a passing attack.

Spilsbury stunned the quicker, bigger Mounties with accurate passes, throwing long on occasion to wide receiver Jamie Galioto. The Bucs gained the lead early, and then held on as the talented Mounties made repeated runs at the lead. Belleville would not relent and in the end, the team held on for a 21-20 victory. It was Belleville's first win over the Mounties since the 1980 campaign and more importantly, it gave the Bucs confidence as the season progressed.

After the Montclair game, Belleville posted wins over Eastside and Bloomfield, setting up a key game with Passaic in week six. As usual, Passaic brought in a solid club and the game was a barn burner at Municipal Stadium.

The Bucs trailed, 7-0 in the third quarter, but got back into the contest with a safety. Shortly thereafter, Jim Dunphy took one of Spilsbury's patented "shovel" passes and ran some 30 yards for a TD, giving the Bucs a 9-7 lead.

However, Passaic showed why it is a solid team, driving 80 yards in the closing minutes of the game and scoring the winning TD with :10 left in regulation time. The final count was Passaic 14, Belleville 9, but it didn't take away from a tremendous effort and a heck of a ball game.

The Bucs were a down ball club after the loss. The setback lowered the Bucs record to 3-3, with three games remaining. The team could have given up, it could have let the loss affect them. However, to the credit of head coach John Senesky and his staff, the Bucs came back strong. The team defeated highly regarded Clifton, 26-6, then stopped Kennedy, 10-7 and Nutley, 27-16 to finish at 6-3. The Bucs and Mounties tied for the NNJIL title, with 6-1 records each.

The win over Nutley was Belleville's first over the Maroon since 1983 and finished the year on a high note. Spilsbury had a marvelous year at quarterback and Dunphy did an excellent job at running back, and defense. Galioto was an outstanding receiver and Dave Mc Neil was an accurate place kicker. All told, it was a team effort and a gratifying season.

Soccer Team Posts Winning Season

Tony De Aquino's soccer team had an excellent season. The team won 12 games and finished third in the NNJIL standings, just one game behind second place Clifton. Chris Goldrick did an outstanding job as goaltender and Keith Woods was excellent on offense.

Woods was named to the first team, NNJIL and first team by the Essex County Coaches Association for his play in mid-field. Goldrick earned second team by the ECCA and Gus Ligo, Roger Real, Walter Capozucca and Frank Perry were named Honorable Mention, NNJIL.

Kelli Glunk Leads Gymnasts

The Belleville gymnastics team continued its improvement as senior Kelli Glunk turned in another fine year to lead the way. Glunk, a senior, tied for first place in the state sectionals in the all around competition. Sophomore Joell Veltre continued her marvelous showing. She advanced to the sectionals for the second straight year and should be one of the top gymnasts on next year's team.

Alise Davies had a fine year for the team and freshman Nicole Zelna showed promise for the future. Danielle Lyman the team captain, earned Honorable Mention, NNJIL for her work on the balance beam. Head coach Ray Iannuzzi should certainly be proud of his teams success.

Volleyball Team Gains State Semis

It was another fine year for the volleyball team, under coach Grace Worley. The team made it all the way to the state semis for the third straight year before losing to top ranked Paramus High. The girls tied for NNJIL supremacy with Clifton and defeated the Lady Mustangs in the state tourney. The varsity roster consisted of Simone Edwards, Christine Melillo, Trisha Tramultola, Quynh Mai, Renee Pettinno and Carolyn Giuffrida. The final record was 24-6.

The cross country team named four runners to the NNJIL squad, headed by senior Craig Burden. The others who made NNJIL post season accolades were, Joyce Luongo, Greg Moriello and Donna Lee Daudelin.

The Belleville tennis team, under coach Karen Fuccello battled hard in the NNJIL. Senior Janet Reiman played first singles for Belleville and did an excellent job.

Next week, a look back at the winter sports season.

Last Weeks Quiz

When the Mets traded Tom Seaver to Cincinnati in 1977, they received Dan Norman, Steve Henderson, Doug Flynn and Pat Zachry in return.

For This Week

Who was the last team to lose the first two games of the NBA championship series, then come back and win the title.

It's a tale of 3 seasons

Bucs post best year since '87

For the Belleville baseball team, the 1987 season was a tale of three seasons. George Zanfini's team posted a 21-9 mark, the finest record at BHS since the 22-7 club of 1981.

More importantly, the program continued its upward improvement. This season marked the fourth straight year that the Bucs improved upon the previous years results. Last season, the team was 20-11.

Of course, a 21-9 record has plenty of positive notes. The Bucs won the NNJIL championship this spring, the first time Belleville has won the conference crown outright. In 1985, the Bucs and Bloomfield Bengals tied for conference supremacy.

The team made it to the semi finals of the Greater Newark Tourney, where it lost to eventual champion Glen Ridge, 4-3. The Bucs advanced to the quarter finals of the state sectionals, where it lost to eventual champ, Elizabeth.

As mentioned, it was a tale of three seasons this spring. The Bucs started the year, quickly, winning its first five games. The team was rated as high as number two in the state and everything appeared to be in high gear.

Zanfini, never one to take early season polls seriously, warned that his team needed a lot of work. His words proved true, as the Bucs hit a snag and lost its next five games.

After going from a high of 5-0 to the rock bottom of 0-5, the Bucs began to level off. The team began its upward trend by stopping highly regarded Caldwell, 24-4. From that day on, Belleville would post a 16-4 mark for the remainder of the year. The team was inconsistent at times, but seemed to get the job done, especially in the NNJIL race.

With three weeks left in regular season play, it appeared the Bucs were hopelessly out of the conference race. Clifton was on a roll, undefeated in conference play and a blowout victor over Belleville twice. The Mustangs ripped the Bucs by counts of 17-3 and 10-1, but Zanfini wasn't giving up on the race. The Bucs played steady ball in the NNJIL, winning the games it was supposed to win and pulling out two big wins over arch rival Bloomfield. In its final game of the NNJIL season, the Bucs defeated Nutley, 8-5, avenging an earlier 10-4 setback to the Maroon Raiders.

Meanwhile, the fates and fortunes of Clifton were headed in the opposite direction. The Mustangs would lose its final four conference games, finishing 10-4 in the league. The Bucs, meanwhile, were 11-3 in the NNJIL and won the title on the final day of the regular season.

In Greater Newark Tourney action, the Bucs were shooting for another appearance in the championship game. In 1986, the team lost a heartbreaker to Columbia, 9-8, in the finals and many members of this years team played in that '86 game.

Thus, the Bucs defeated Verona and Barringer and were favorites to upend Glen Ridge in the semis. However, the Ridgers took advantage of some Buc miscues in the fourth inning, scored four runs and held on for a 4-3 win. Glen Ridge got just three hits all day off Buc hurler Jim Dunphy, but all those hits came in the fateful fourth and the Ridgers were able to get the job done.

In the states, Belleville lost to Elizabeth, 7-5. The game was tied at five in the fourth inning, but Elizabeth tallied solo runs in the fifth and seventh innings to win.

Zanfini, returning as Buc head coach after a four year hiatus this spring, was happy with the final results.

"We could have used a little more depth and a few less injuries," he said. "We were without Jimmy (Dunphy), Dave (Mc Neil) and (Jamie) Galioto for parts of the season. I don't know what we could have done if those guys were in all year. However, I'm more than pleased with the season. We won 21 games and took the conference title. I was happy with the attitude of the kids and the professional way in which they handled themselves. That's really the most important part of this game, anyway."

Needless to say, when a team wins 21 games, there are many who contribute to that success. Below, is a graphic on each member of the varsity team.

Jim Dunphy: Dunphy will go down in the record books as one of the finest pitchers in BHS history. He finished with a career mark of 20-7, second to Dan Borgo on the all time win list. He was 6-4 this season, but as Zanfini would say, it was a deceiving mark. He often drew the toughest assignments and his ERA of 1.53 certainly gives testimony to his talents. He struck out 16 batters in one game. His ERA this year was 1.12 and he struck out 89. Dunphy had four saves to his credit this spring. He threw 164 innings in his varsity career and holds the school record for least amount of runs allowed for a pitcher with over 150 innings of work. He allowed just 111 hits in his career and holds the school record for strikeouts, with 221, breaking Borgo's mark of 205. Dunphy suffered a pulled hamstring this year, which limited his plate appearances. However, he still hit .339, with 3 homers and 21 RBI. He led the team with 4 triples and stole 6 bases. Named to first team, NNJIL for his mound work.

Dunphy will attend Rutgers University in New Brunswick this fall and will continue his baseball career. He was an outstanding athlete who excelled on the football field as well.

Jamie Galioto: Galioto hit .367 this spring, with 1 HR and 11 RBI. He had 33 hits, scored 27 runs and stole 12 bases. He was one of the most consistent hitters on the team and his 33 hits was good for third on the team this year. He led the team in doubles with 11. Named to first team, NNJIL for his play in the outfield.

Galioto's next stop will either by Florida State University, or Jersey City State College. Galioto was an outstanding football player last fall, playing wide receiver. He is an outstanding young man who will be missed.

Al Best: Best had an outstanding varsity career at BHS. He played varsity ball for three years and this season, hit .361. He tied with Jay Marchese for the team lead in runs scored (30). Best had 1 HR and 24 RBI. He led team in walks with an incredible 29. Best also stole 13 bases. Named to first team, NNJIL, for his work at first base. His next stop will be Florida State University.

Jay Marchese: Marchese hit .375 in his junior year this spring. The young man was second on the team in hits, with 36. He led the club in stolen bases, with 25. Marchese had 1 HR and 24 RBI. He tied for the team lead with Best for runs scored, 30. Marchese drew 20 walks this year and on the mound, did an excellent job. He was 3-0 and should be one of the leaders on the 1988 team. He was named to the second team, NNJIL, for 1987 for his play at third base.

Dave McNeil: McNeil, a good power hitter, was limited this spring due to injuries. Despite that, he still hit .310, with 2 HR and 20 RBI. He drew 16 walks and had 18 hits. A senior, McNeil had 2 stolen bases and scored 10 runs. He was a fine football player, as well.

Lou Lucante: The senior had an outstanding season. As a pitcher, he was 4-2, with good control and the ability to keep his team in a ball game. However, it was his offense that made news this year. Lucante hit a team leading .424. He powered 3 HR's and led club with 28 RBI. Lucante stole 17 bases, led team with 39 hits and scored 23 runs. He was named first team, NNJIL, this season for his play in the outfield. This fall, Lucante will attend Middlesex County College, where he hopes to continue his baseball career.

Dean Mauro: A three year varsity player, Mauro hit .246 this spring. He was a steady second baseman, who had 2 HR and 17 RBI. Mauro had 16 hits and scored 18 runs. Next year, he will attend Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Jeff Spilsbury: Spilsbury had a fine junior year, hitting .378 and named to second team, NNJIL. For the year, he hit 3 HR and drove in 20 runs. He had 34 hits, scored 26 runs and walked 21 times. The shortstop should be one of the main ingredients to next years club.

Jon Nardachone: Had a good senior year, with a .259 average, 1 HR and 11 RBI. He had 14 hits, scored 10 runs and had two doubles. He walked 10 times and stole two bases. Nardachone will attend Seton Hall in the fall.

Bob Hutchison: Senior had a good year on the mound, posting a 5-3 record. His fine work as a relief pitcher in the late stages of the season kept Belleville in the NNJIL race. Pitched 58 innings, struck out 58 and walked just 23. Allowed 24 earned runs and posted three saves. ERA was solid 2.87. Was named Honorable Mention, NNJIL. As a hitter, had 9 hits, scored 6 runs and 1 HR, with 9 RBI. An excellent athlete, Hutchison captained the varsity basketball team for coach Don Roll. He will attend Fairleigh Dickinson University this fall.

Joe Delle Monache: A fine utility player, Delle Monache caught and played in the outfield. He will attend Upsala College in the fall. As a football player, he did an outstanding job on defense.

Vito Caprio: The senior did the majority of the catching this year. Will attend Somerset Community College in the fall. A very reliable defensive player.

Frank Orrei: The sophomore did an excellent job on the hill, posting a 3-0 mark. Look for some good things in the future from this talented pitcher.

Zanfini wishes to express thanks to his coaching staff. Nick Grande, once again, was the J.V. coach. Don Roll coached the freshman and Joe Lipoma and Dan Borgo did volunteer work for the team on the freshman level.

Zanfini also received some invaluable help from former Belleville stars Michael Nicotia and Frank Fazzini. On a bright note, Fazzini was just signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers and is playing minor league ball in Vero Beach, Florida.

It was an excellent season, and now the team will gear for next year by playing American Legion ball this summer.

Coach Stanco hopes for improvement

Belleville Legion opens 1987 season

By Samuel Williams Jr.

If pitching improves and inexperience doesn't prove to be a factor, the Belleville American Legion team could fare well on the diamond this season.

The Belleville entry opens their season Monday on the road against Livingston American Legion Post 201 and are scheduled to play their home opener Wednesday on the Belleville High School diamond when they face Newark American Legion Post 10.

Manager Frank Stanco is optimistic after suffering through a frustrating 1-8-3 record last season.

"We're going to be young and relying on a few seniors for leadership," said Stanco.

"If the pitching holds up and we can get alot of offense we should be alright. We're going to be alot more aggressive on the bases," continued Stanco.

Bob Hutchison, Dave McNeil, Jay Marchese and Jeff Spilsbury are a few of the players expected to have an impact on the team's destiny.

Funding for the team has come along slowly however.

"It takes $1300 to finance the team," said Stanco.

"We have received help from both American Legions which we appreciated greatly but we can't expect them to come up with total funding," continued Stanco.

Though the team has uniforms there are other expenses involved.

"We have to have accidental and liability coverage, baseballs at $34 per dozen and referee payments for seven home games," said Stanco.

Somehow, money woes haven't dulled the competitive spirit of the team.

"We realize our youth may hurt us down the line but the boys and the staff are willing to except the challenge," said Stanco.

Donations for the team can be sent in care of Mike Thompson, Belleville Baseball Association, 71 Forest Street, Belleville, New Jersey, 07109.

The 1987 Municipal Budget presented herewith, indicates an estimated 1987 Local Tax Rate of $2.33 per $100.00 of assessed valuations, as compared to the 1986 Local Tax Rate of $2.03 per $100.00 of assessed valuations, an increase of 30 points.

The following schedule compares the components of the 1987 levy with those of 1986 for Township purposes only.

	1987 Estimated	1986 Actual	1987 Increase	1987 Estimated	1986 Actual	1987 Increase
For All Municipal Purposes	$9,338,167.04	$7,786,745.79	$1,551,421.25	$1.99	$1.71	$.28
For Reserve for Uncollected Taxes
Total Local Tax For Municipal Purposes	1,612,379.63	1,450,498.78	161,880.85	.34	.32	.02
Assessed Valuations	$10,950,546.67	$9,237,244.57	$1,713,302.10	$2.33	$2.03	$ .30

The above comparisons deal only with Municipal Purposes. While County and School tax levies and rates cannot be accurately forecast at this time, the amounts for these purposes used in establishing the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" or the so-called "Cash Bash Overlay" conform to mandatory provisions governing the preparation of the Local Municipal Budget. The County Budget and its distributive effect on our Township has not been determined as of this date and the amount to be raised by taxation for School Purposes will not be determined until a later date. When School and County Taxes are finally determinable their effect on the 1987 tax rate will be made known to the public.

Chapter 68, Public Laws of 1975, as amended in Chapter 49, Public Laws of 1983, places limits on certain municipal expenditures. The limit for 1987 is 5%. The following schedule, subject to review and approval by the Division of Local Government Services in the State Department of Community Affairs, shows the computation of the maximum amount of increase allowable in the Budget for 1987 over that of the 1986 Adopted Budget for the Appropriations.

** Combines all segments of appropriations within CAP and excluding CAP.

The increase in the estimated tax levy for Municipal Purposes (excluding the Reserve for Uncollected Taxes) for 1987, in the sum of $1,551,421.25, appearing above in the comparative table of levies and tax rates, can be summarized as follows:

Increase in 1987 Appropriation for Municipal Purposes over 1986

Plus: Decrease in General Revenues Anticipated in 1987 over 1986

Net Increase

Certain functions have been split in this Budget, whereby their parts appear in several segments of the document. In order to comply with statutory and regulatory requirements, these appropriations are tabulated below:

Total 1987 Appropriation: $10,601,788.99

After deliberations on the details of departmental requests, operating appropriations have been set at minimum levels to continue to provide needed services. In this connection it is pointed out that a substantial portion of operating expenses is determined by contractual obligations for both salary and other expense elements, over which the Governing Body has little or no control.

The Board of Commissioners urge all taxpayers to attend the hearing on the Budget for the year 1987 to be held at the Township Hall on June 23, 1987. The Board of Commissioners shall be pleased to respond to any questions at that time.

CAPITAL BUDGET AND CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

This section is included with the Annual Budget pursuant to NJAC 5:30-4. It does not in itself confer any authorization to raise or expend funds. Rather, it is a document used as part of the local unit's planning and management program. Specific authorization to expend funds for purposes described in this section must be granted elsewhere, by a separate bond ordinance, by inclusion of a line item in the Capital Improvement Section of this budget, by an ordinance taking the money from the Capital Improvement Fund, or other lawful means.

CAPITAL BUDGET

- A plan for all capital expenditures for the current fiscal year. If no capital budget is included, check the reason why:
  - Total capital expenditures this year do not exceed $25,000, including appropriations for Capital Improvement Fund, Capital Line Items and Down Payments on Improvements.
  - No bond ordinances are planned this year.
- CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM
  - A multi-year list of planned capital projects, including the current year. Check appropriate box for number of years covered, including current year:
    - 3 years. (Population under 10,000)
    - 6 years. (Over 10,000, and all county governments)
    - 1 year. (Exceeding minimum time period)
  - Check if municipality is under 10,000, has not expended more than $25,000 annually for capital purposes in immediately previous three years, and is not adopting CIP.

NARRATIVE FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

The Capital Improvement Program for the Township of Belleville is presented herein. The capital projects planned for 1987 are detailed on Sheet 36c. The Township of Belleville, exclusive of the Board of Education, does not contemplate any capital projects beyond 1987. Should the need arise, the Capital budget can and will be revised accordingly.

—We have the Home For You—

Real Estate Briefcase

By Jack Reilly, G.R.I.

"I've never bought a home before and I was wondering if you could give a few pointers on how and where to start." — J. Callahan, Belleville Home buying is basically a lot of fun as long as you have done a little bit of thinking and planning to help you make decisions. After all, homebuying is nothing more than a long series of decision making, one after the other, right up until the day that you move into your new home.

Sometimes the best place to start your decision making is by deciding that you DO want to buy a house. The difference between THINKING that you want to buy and WANTING to buy is having the ability to face realities almost every first time buyers face: you can't afford the home you want or the neighborhood it's in.

The perfect home in your head does not exist. Compromises (decisions) must be made along the way which should reflect your experience from shopping around and determining the value of a purchase in relation to what else is available in the same price range.

(Side note: The time to buy is always NOW because an unfortunate fact of life in this area is that homes will never be cheaper than they are today, and you most likely cannot say ninety as a rule that keeps pace with the growth of housing prices. So when to buy is one decision you can't have to make.)

A natural decision list might go something like this: Whether to buy, when to buy, where to buy, what to buy, how much to spend, can we afford, when to look, with whom to buy, with whom to finance, with whom to inspect, what lawyer to use, which do I do first?

Jack Reilly

Easily, the first step beyond deciding that you want to buy is determining what you can afford. Once you know what you can realistically spend, all you need do is identify those areas or sections of town that have housing in your price range. It isn't as simple as it seems, however, to hang on to some dream that a super deal on a super home in a super neighborhood is just waiting for you to find it.

Accept the limitations of your purchase power, and spend your energy in a positive, constructive manner in a systematic search for the home which represents the best balance between compromise and value. Then buy it. In six short years you will look back and be amazed at the equity you have built. And in six short years your home will most likely have doubled in value.

At this point, the decision making starts all over again: "Should I sell? If so, with whom? To go where?" etc., etc.

Attention Realtors!

This special section was created for you and contains editorial copy submitted by you, geared to your local market. An interesting and appealing section that our readers look forward to each week and keep as a handy reference guide. This section is the perfect advertising vehicle for you, the realtors.

If you believe that the only place to publish your listings is in the larger circulation dailies, or your town paper only, you're missing out on a market that is right at your fingertips. When a family is looking to purchase a home, they are willing to move outside of their town — if the price is right and the location near enough to meet their needs.

We all know that visibility opens the door to sales.

What better way to be visible than to publish your weekly listings right here in this special realtor's page, where it will be seen by a select readership with one of the highest degrees of purchasing power and discretionary income in Essex County.

It may SEEM like a good idea to try to sell your own house. But there are many potential pitfalls: improper price (too high or too low); guessing where to place the ads; showing your house to people who may OR may not be interested; and finally, knowing who may OR may not be qualified to buy.
