Commission considers future of police station proposal

By Christopher Bifani

A special meeting of the Belleville Commission - called to discuss the future of the proposed public safety building - resulted in no significant action due to the absence of two commissioners. The meeting had originally been called in order to vote to authorize bidding on modified plans.

Township Attorney Frank Cozzarelli said, "a project of this scope should be brought to the entire board."

The attorney recommended that a vote to authorize the next round of bidding be taken at the next Commission meet on August 11.

parking deck. It's a poor quality building. Walls were removed but not one square foot was cut. The rear deck had stairs but now they're removed. I think it's proper judgment to come up with something that fits our needs."

Regarding the parking deck, Siciliano said that its construction would result in a net gain of about "seven or eight spaces". Currently there are about 99 spaces on town property. Mayor Pizzi explained that the construction of the parking deck would make up for spaces lost where the building goes.

Key township officials, including Mayor Pizzi, Attorney Cozzarelli

"At the center of the discussion were 58 modifications to the original plan"

Absent from the August 3 special meeting were Commissioner of Revenue & Finance Joseph McGreevey and Commissioner of Public Affairs Joseph Fornarotto.

At the center of the discussion over the proposal's future were 58 modifications to the original plan, designed in to cut the estimated cost of the plan. Modifications were deemed necessary by the Commission-appointed building committee after the first round of bidding yielded no contractors who could put up the public safety building within the $5 million budget cap. The lowest bidder the first time around came in 37% over budget, Commissioner of Parks & Public Property Vincent Frantantoni said.

Commissioner Frantantoni, along with Mayor and Police Commissioner Michael Pizzi, are the two commissioners on the building committee. Other committee members include Belleville Police Chief George Lister and Township Consulting Engineer Neil Siciliano.

Some of the key modifications which the architects, Beckard-Richlan Associates of Manhattan, recommended include replacing slate floors with less durable vinyl and scrapping the proposed concrete block walls and substituting sheetrock. The quality of the air conditioning and lighting systems was also reduced under the modified plan.

Siciliano stressed that the cost-cutting measures taken by the architects and "approved by a consensus of the building committee" would not result in a sub-standard building.

However, Commissioner Frantantoni - a critic of the plan for months before his ascension to the Commission - was not convinced.

"It's not just a reduction in quality," Frantantoni stated, "it's a reduction in parking spaces - six spaces have been cut from the and Engineer Siciliano all recommended to the Commission that they vote to authorize another round of bidding.

Said Pizzi: "If we don't go out to bid now we lose a lot more than if we do."

Said Cozzarelli: "We must keep an open mind. If this project becomes feasible...I would be inclined to go with the project."

Meanwhile, the principal architects - Herbert Beckard and Frank Richlan - indicated that a study of different architectural designs would cost between $10,000 and $15,000 more. To date, more than $700,000 has been spent on plans and studies for municipal construction in town center.

And what if the Commission authorizes new bidding and all bids received still come in over budget?

"The town would be in a position to go back to the architect - because the project has been out to bid twice - and come up with an alteration of the program. If this goes out and comes in within budget then they've achieved their responsibility."

The meeting, which did not include a public hearing, was attended by about 60 townspeople, most of whom conveyed a somber mood. Some citizens, including Commissioner Frantantoni, had predicted "all along" that the project would come in over budget, but the bearing out of this prophecy appeared to bring little comfort to those in the Commission Chamber August 3.

"Scrap the project!" some citizens demanded out of turn.

But whether the Belleville Commission votes to "scrap the project" or "put it out to bid and see what flies" remains to be seen at the next meeting, scheduled for August 11, 8PM at Town Hall.

That meeting will include a hearing of citizens.

What price garbage?

Town waste to be trucked out of state at about $1 million more per year

Belleville's garbage disposal - currently budgeted at $684,000 per year for 1987 - will cost taxpayers much more in the years to come, following the shutdown of the Meadowlands landfill in Kearny August 1.

At a special meeting of the Belleville Commission July 31, it was revealed that garbage disposal is expected to cost $72,000 more per month because Belleville must now utilize a trash transfer station on Frelinghuysen Avenue in Newark where the refuse is compacted and trucked out to a landfill in Pennsylvania.

The estimated figures, provided by Haulaway - the township's Hoboken based contractor, were described by Belleville Registrar Ralph Risoli as being "not too liberal and not too conservative."

However, the estimated impact on next year's budget promises to be astronomical.

Whereas garbage disposal cost Belleville $57,000 per month from January, 1987 through July, 1987, the cost for August, 1987 through December, 1987 - and for all of 1988 is expected to leap to $129,000 per month.

The Belleville Commission, which approved an $81,000 "down payment" on the price hike, must now approve an emergency appropriation of funds - approximately $360,000 - to finance the township's waste removal for the rest of the year. That money will ultimately come from next year's budget.

Thus, the budget line for garbage disposal - based on current estimates - will balloon from this year's $684,000 to next year's estimated $2 million.

This means garbage disposal alone may well account for a tax hike in 1988 of more than 25 tax points.

For 1989 and 1990, the annual cost of removing the township's trash is expected to cost about $1,648,000 - or an increase of about $1 million over the pre-trash crisis rates.

During the meeting, the Commissioners (with the exception of Mayor Michael Pizzi who was on vacation; Commissioner Joseph McGreevey served as acting mayor) discussed options to reduce the cost of garbage disposal to taxpayers.

One possibility, raised by Commissioner of Parks & Public Property Vincent Frantantoni, is to locate a commercial firm that would agree to truck Belleville's waste to a private landfill at a less cost than what Essex is currently charging Belleville and all Essex municipalities.

Township Attorney Frank Cozzarelli said that this possibility is currently being determined in the courts.

Meanwhile Commissioner of Public Works Angelo Risoli said that garbage trucks should be checked upon coming into town to make sure they are empty and Belleville is charged only for Belleville garbage when checking into the transfer station.

However, Belleville Police Chief George Lister said there is nothing to prevent the contractor, theoretically, from collecting outside refuse after they are checked.

"We don't want to pay for garbage that's not ours," Risoli said. Because of the new procedures, garbage disposal now costs Belleville $102 per ton - up from $25 per ton.

In 1991, a waste incinerator is scheduled to open in the Ironbound section of Newark, some three miles south the Belleville line. County officials estimate that garbage disposal costs will drop to about $50 per ton when the facility comes on line.

Recycling and conservation were also discussed as ways of reducing Belleville's garbage disposal costs.

"It will clearly benefit the townspeople to join together in this crisis," Township Attorney Frank Cozzarelli said.

Commissioner Frantantoni said that townspeople should avoid products that are excessively packaged and participate in the recycling of glass, cans and newspapers.

The Commissioner recently began a recycling program at the Parks & Public Property yard on Williams Street off east of Washington Avenue. Separated glass, cans and newspapers may be brought to the office on weekdays up until 3PM, where it will be unloaded and processed by town employees.

In response to the Essex trash crisis, the Belleville Times will be running a series of recycling tips provided by the Department of Parks & Public Property.

CCB 'keeps on keeping on' after Frantantoni's departure

By Samuel Williams Jr.

When trustees for the Concerned Citizens of Belleville (CCB) formed in May of 1986, their goal was to fight excessive taxation, lack of services and incompetent management of local government.

Today, their membership includes a little over 500 members who pay an annual fee of two dollars per year.

To their credit so far, the organization has successfully fought the proposed $10 million dollar town hall project, forced a former commission to drop a 110 point tax increase dropped to 87, produced a 23 page report regarding asbestos in the school system which forced the Board of Education to investigate and eventually resulted in a fine and they stopped town officials from giving away town property in favor of auctioning to make more money for the town.

CCB members have made their presence felt in recent commission meeting held in Town Hall.

Many of the participants in the first two commission meetings belonged to the CCB and so many members showed that the second meeting had to be held at School 10 on Belleville Avenue.

Not only are CCB members plentiful as demonstrated in those meetings but many of the concerns expressed are valid and arguments are well researched and informative.

Likewise, two of the five newly elected commissioners, Vincent Frantantoni and Joseph Fornarotto were members of CCB.

Frantantoni was the first president for the organization but relinquished the position when elected to the commission.

Frantantoni said his involvement with the CCB may have had a small degree of influence in his election to office because of the large membership.

However, Frantantoni is quick to point out most CCB members are looking to make a stand.

"I believe there is renewed interest of townspeople since we formed. The organization is branching to other directions now, things like volunteer programs which will benefit the community," said Frantantoni.

Frantantoni said there was another organization that existed several years ago named the Citizen's Union of Belleville who for that period was quite influential.

Gabriel Nazzola has assumed responsibility of the presidency since Frantantoni left exudes with confidence at the prospect of CCB's growth.

"We can continue to be a good organization because we provide people who don't want to be apathetic a means to be heard," said Nazzola.

"We are asking our members to be the eyes and ears in the community and to identify problems in town meetings," said Nazzola.

Nazzola likens the CCB objective to a statement made by Daniel Webster which reads as follows:

There are many objects of great value to man which cannot be obtained by unconnected individuals, but must be obtained, if at all, by association.

Nazzola said the town government was continually under scrutiny by the CCB and key issues would be examined.

The Trash Crisis

Politically, Essex is perhaps the most powerful county in the state. The Governor is from Essex, some of the most influential state senators and assembly delegates are from Essex, and the county is home to the state's most powerful minority political machine.

All this influence, however, was not enough to avert the trash crisis. Several Essex municipalities tried through their attorneys to force the state Department of Environmental Protection to keep the Kearny landfill open, but to no avail. That landfill, which is located in Hudson County, will accept garbage for a few more months from Hudson County municipalities, and then it will close its gates forever.

In Essex, meanwhile, trash has meant clash with virtually every plan meeting fierce local opposition. The County's plan to build a trash incinerator in the flourishing Ironbound section of Newark has been challenged by community groups there for years now, with the county winning in court.

However, this incinerator is not scheduled to open until 1991, and in the meantime the plan to truck the garbage out of state via three trash transfer stations (two in Newark and one planned for Orange) have also met with opposition from the reluctant host municipalities.

For Belleville, as this week's lead article details, the result is a steep hike in the cost of garbage disposal. And regardless of how successful our government leaders may be in seeking interim solutions, the price of garbage disposal will never again be $25 per ton.

Thus, the only way to keep the cost of garbage disposal down is to dispose of less garbage.

This is where Commissioner Vin-

Wins 24 Gold Medals!

Essex wheelchair sports team sets record in competition

Members of the Mountaineer Children's Specialized Hospital wheelchair sports team won a total of 35 medals, 24 of them gold, and set seven national records in the fourth annual National Junior Wheelchair Championships held recently at Rider College in Lawrenceville.

Children's Specialized was the host hospital for the event which was sanctioned by the National Wheelchair Athletic Association and the Tri-State Wheelchair Athletic Association. The hospital's recreation director and team coach, Andy Chasanoff, was the meet director for the event.

Victor Kokos, age 12, of Belleville, was a finalist in the javelin throw and Jeff Giamfi was an 800 meter wheelchair race finalist.

Winning seven gold medals and setting four national records in the process was nine-year-old Jennifer Hazen, of Bloomfield, who is in her fourth year of activity with the Children's Specialized Hospital team.

Jennifer's national records in her class came in the 100, 200, 400 and 800 meter wheelchair races. She also turned in first place performances in the discus, javelin and shot put. In the wheelchair slalom event Jennifer took a second place award.

Joey Hoffman, an 11-year-old from West Orange, set a national record in the javelin throw. He won silver medals in the shot put and discus competitions.

Winning six gold medals was David Smith, an eight-year-old from Newark. His first place results came in the 60, 100 and 200-meter wheelchair sprints, the Indian club throw, softball throw and the shot put.

Newark resident Jeff Giamfi, age 15, captured a gold in the 100 meter sprint, a silver in the 400 meter and a bronze in the shot put.

A new national record in the swimming competition was set by 18-year-old Mike Spinney, of Middlesex, in the 500 meter freestyle. Spinney won three other golds in the backstroke, breaststroke, breaststroke and freestyle, all at the 100 meter distance.

Silver medals in swimming were by 14-year-old Kyle Mulroy of Colts Neck in the individual medley, 25 meter butterfly, 50 meter freestyle and 200 meter freestyle.

Jennifer Heitmueller, a 14-year-old from Wall Township, broke a national record in the individual medley and also captured gold medals in the 25 meter butterfly, the 50 meter backstroke and freestyle and the 200 meter freestyle. Heitmueller also won a second place in the javelin throw and a third in the shot put.

In addition to her medal winning performances, Heitmueller was a finalist in the 100, 200 and 400 meter wheelchair races and the discus.

"The youngsters gave it all they've got and showed a lot of desire. All their practicing and dedication paid off," said

Chasanoff. "The weather for the nationals was hot and humid with temperatures in the 90s but that did not weaken their spirits. We are all proud of the athletes representing Children's Specialized Hospital."

"Wheelchair sports is a great activity for disabled kids," Chasanoff added. "It gives them goals to work to achieve and stimulates their development in all areas of living. It gives them confidence and a good feeling about themselves. Now they are being recognized for their abilities rather than their disabilities."

For his part in organizing this year's championships, which were held in New Jersey for the first time, Chasanoff was presented the Ted Kaplan Award by the New Jersey Wheelchair Athletic Association. The award is named after the late Ted Kaplan, a pioneer in the wheelchair sports movement, and recognizes an individual who shows the same qualities and commitment to advancing wheelchair sports which characterized Kaplan.

Kelly says bill will aid vets

'Veterans Department' bill advances

Assemblyman for Belleville, John V. Kelly announced that legislation, which will create a cabinet level Department of Veterans Affairs was released by the Assembly State Government Committee July 23 by a 4-0 vote.

Locally, a public hearing had been held in mid-June at the Nutley Armvets by the Select Committee on Veteran Affairs on the bill, number 3527, which is co-sponsored by Assemblyman Kelly.

Kelly commented, "There are more than 900,000 veterans in the State of New Jersey that will benefit by the creation of the Department of Veteran Affairs. This bill is not intended to increase state bureaucracy, but to reorganize the existing programs and services for veterans so that government will be able to work more efficiently and effectively. A single department will be better able to coordinate and deliver services to veterans."

The creation of this department is contingent upon abolishing another state department. Legislation to eliminate the Department of Energy passed the Assembly and is awaiting action in the Senate.

Kelly burn victim legislation signed into law

Legislation which will enable the National Burn Victim Foundation of Orange to provide numerous programs for burn victims was signed into law by Governor Thomas Kean on Thursday, July 23.

Assembly bill 2818 will allow the Burn Foundation to expand programs in the area of child abuse. The Foundation currently maintains a 24-hour hotline for consultation services. Kelly commented, "This legislation will allow the Burn Foundation to continue the 24 hour hotline and to expand their Emergency Burn Services to 24 hours."

He added, "This legislation will specifically train medical personnel, social workers and criminal justice professionals to recognize child abuse through burning incidents."

To bid or not to bid

What we have referred to in the past as Belleville's municipal construction drama is now better described as a tragedy. To date nearly $750,000 of taxpayers' money has been spent on planning, designing and bonding a new police headquarters.

But not one brick has been laid. First, the previous Belleville Commission tried to construct a $10 million municipal "complex". But townspeople, socked with last year's incendiary 87 point tax increase, rebelled against the plan and it was subsequently modified to include only a new police station - at a cost not to exceed $5 million.

However, $300,000 was already spent on the first plan, which meant the new plan could cost no more than $4.7 million.

Nevertheless, the Commission was assured by their appointed architects that a 24,000 square foot public safety building could be built within budget.

Unfortunately, the architects were wrong.

When the plans finally came in last spring - and were put to bid for the first time - every bid came in over budget, with the low bid arriving at 37% over!

But the architects, who are contractually bound to design a building within Belleville's $5 million cap, didn't go back to the drawing board. They went to the "cutting board". Six spaces were chopped from the parking deck. Retaining walls were eliminated. Floor surfaces were downgraded. Climate control systems and lighting fixtures were cheapened.

In all, 58 modifications to the original plan - including sheetrock walls instead of concrete block - were proposed by the architects in an effort to attract an under-budget bid the next time around. According to town officials as well as the architects, these modifications were approved by a consensus of the building committee overseeing the project!

But today a new Commission is in charge, and the carte blanche support of this debacle is fading fast. This Commission is asking questions, hard questions, about the $5 million white elephant they've inherited from last year's administration.

Do we put the modified plan out to bid?

Or do we simply scrap the project, take a $750,000 loss and try again?

At Monday's special commission meeting no decision was reached because two Commissioners were absent.

Mayor Pizzi, however, instructed that a resolution authorizing the acquisition of bids be put to a vote at this Tuesday's regular Commission meet.

We believe the quality of the current proposal has been severely compromised by the modifications. Further, we believe that the basic design of the building - including the size and shape - are beyond this township's means.

But, at this point the only logical step is to put the proposal out to bid again because if the bids come in and they're still over budget, then the onus will be upon the architects to go back to the drawing board - and not the cutting board - and give Belleville a more modest design at no extra charge.

If a low bid does come in under budget, the Commissioners will still have the chance to vote for or against awarding the contract.

By the numbers

One of the least noticed, and potentially one of the most important, things about any home is its address number.

When we move in to our new nest, we paint the number, or nail the brass numerals, or post a fancy sign -- "The Dingbats -- 1212 Swamp Road" -- and by the time the 30th mortgage payment has rolled around, we have painted over the numbers and let the sign post lie where the last hurricane blew it.

After all, we reason, everyone knows where we live, including the neighbor's Cocker Spaniel.

Or we put up a storm door that effectively covers the overhead number in any case.

The result is that a large percentage of house numbers simply are not viewable to the casual visitor.

The casual visitor, however, may be an Emergency Squad member, a doctor, a firefighter or a lawyer bringing an inheritance check.

Finding a house in a strange neighborhood can be difficult by daylight, and virtually impossible at night.

At least one out of four homes in Belleville apparently lacks easily visible address numbers, according to a not-so-random survey made by one of our circulation managers.

A computer breakdown brought the situation to the attention of this newspaper somewhat forcibly, recently.

The triumph of 20th Century genius -- the computer, not The Sun -- decided to stop printing addresses of subscribers, and The Sun resorted to quill and ink to write the addresses, and then to footpower to deliver the papers to the people who had been missed because of the computer revolt.

Our man in the street soon discovered that a lot of householders are either living incognito or have allowed their proud address signs to fade away.

It used to be a custom that every June some college student would turn up with luminous paint and a stencil, and offer to do house numbers on the curbing, and thus pay his way to law school.

Having become a lawyer, he probably now serves subpoenas at those same houses.

But that should not deter us from a new community project, to be sponsored by some worthy organizations - P. U. N. -- Paint Up the Number.

Perhaps, then, our circulation man will be able to find his way back to the office, and some of our finest homes will no longer be cut off from civilization.

Yes, Peter -- run, run, run...

To the editor:

I agree, wholeheartedly, with the sentiments expressed in your editorial, "Run Peter Run" (7/23).

Black and white party infighting should not play a part in Rodino's decision to run or not to run. Rodino's exemplary years in the Congress of the United States entitles him to run again, if he has a mind to.

Peter Rodino's presence, and intelligent questioning at the Iran-Contra hearings, was a breath of political fresh air. Unlike some of the "friends of the Administration" members of the committee, Congressman Peter Rodino left no doubt in the minds of TV viewers that he was there for the sole purpose of eliciting the truth -- and not to whitewash the Administration's involvement in the Iran-Contra scam.

After listening to the warped views of Lt. Oliver North and Admiral Poindexter, I am more convinced than ever that our Democracy is being tampered with by the Reagan Administration.

Yes Peter, run, run, run! America needs you!

Eyesore tough to Overlook...

To the editor:

Enclosed please find pictures of a property, located on the corner of Beech St. and Overlook Ave. in Belleville. It has been an eyesore for many years now. Landlord does not reside there. At present the house is unoccupied. But even when there were tenants, it looked the same. No one ever bothered to cut the grass, or clean the snow. It is an eyesore and dangerous.

I know you are concerned of the appearance of Washington Avenue, but I live on this street and everyone complains of the appearance, but does nothing. Bad enough the street is like a roller coaster. We have been after the town to do something about that for the last three years. Maybe if you put these pictures in the Times or come and check for yourself, you will see what I am talking about.

Talking garbage II...

To the editor:

Another inevitable shortcoming of a hometown weekly newspaper is the absence of a full fledged investigative reporter, and the Belleville Times unfortunately is no exception. Making this observation some years ago, and motivated by an unconscionable tax rate, I began sending letters to the Editor based on my own investigative efforts into the conduct of our local government.

Here's more on the garbage contract 'dumping tickets.' At $3.63 per cubic yard, these dumping tickets were worth $42,652.50 per year, and $213,262.50 for the five year contract. At the escalated price of $4.80 per cubic yard, they're worth $52,400 per year and $262,000 for the five year contract.

No one seems to know exactly how many of these dumping tickets (that we taxpayers paid for in the contract) have actually been received and actually used by township trucks since Sept. 5, 1984. By September 1987, we should have received between $127,957.50 and $157,200 worth of these tickets, depending upon the dumping price per cubic yard. The past and the present Commissioner of Public Works have both complained about these elusive dumping tickets and the need to temporarily dump refuse, street sweepings, trees, brush, leaves, etc., in the Public Works yard.

If the Township hasn't gotten the dumping tickets it is entitled to, it would appear to be a breach of contract. Only recently, so we've been told, there is a legal action in process concerning the garbage contract but we don't know if it deals specifically with the dumping tickets. If the Township did in fact get the dumping tickets, but they have not been made available for use by Township trucks, where are they, and who used them? The taxpayers of Belleville have a right to know if they're getting what they paid for. More facts, hypothetical motivations, next week.

Tax heat

The oppressive hot, humid and sultry weather of the week of July 19 to 25 generated a torpidity of inactivity resulting in jejune apathy which left most of us limp and enervated; irritability and irascibility became commonplace only to be further exacerbated by the receiving of the new 1987-88 municipal tax bill, which became the sockdolager of conclusive argument to confirm the misery and devastation of that horrifying week.

From our file records going back to 1968, the total tax on a home valued at $40,300 was

Golden Comments

By James R. Golden

$746.46; successively, 1969 was $848.64; 1970 was $940.44; 1971 was $1071.00; 1972 was $1150.56; 1973 was $1217.88; 1974 was $1279.08.

1975 was $1354.56; 1976 was $1432.08; 1977 was $1446.36; 1978 was $1587.82; 1979 was $1656.33; 1980 was $1781.26; 1981 was $1926.26; 1982 was $1942.46; 1983 was $1974.70.

1984 was $2168.14; 1985 was $2216.50; 1986 was $2567.11. Now, 1987, is $2768.61.

It is to be observed that prior to 1984, the year of Reagan's 2nd election, local tax bills in the year prior to the year of local municipal elections (years 1967, 1971, 1975, 1979, 1983) showed lower tax increases because the preliminary tax quarter payments due February 1 and May 1 showed lower payments than those of August 1 and November 1 payment dates of that year's aggregate bill. This practice enhanced the re-election chances for the incumbents.

An illustration: The 1982 tax bill mailed out in July calls for 1982 Final Tax Bill with 3rd quarter due Aug. 1, 1982 and 4th quarter due Nov. 1, 1982 with a 1983 Preliminary Tax Bill with 1983 1st quarter due Feb. 1, 1983 and a 1983 2nd quarter due May 1, 1983 which are lower than the 3rd and 4th 1982 quarter payments... then again in July 1983 you got a 1984 Preliminary Tax Bill and a 1984 Final Tax Bill both of which had rates that are much more than the previous tax bills.

These tax increases are shattering the lives and security of those on fixed income, especially senior citizens on Social Security whose Medicare costs increase with increasing deductions from their monthly checks. Employees in private industry or business establishments do not get the raises nor high salaries of employees in public - governmental service or educational public school systems, yet, it is they who are called upon to pay for this largess and political pap which offers all... full coverage health care and insurance coverage without any cost to themselves, which is paid for by taxpayers.

The "tight-fisted" policies of the Reagan Administration which has cut out most grants to states, counties and municipal governments has passed the costs on to the local taxpayers. Educational cuts have harmed education while increasing local taxes.

Now the garbage dilemma besets all Essex County municipalities with prospects of paying $1,500,000 more per year for garbage collection costs... more taxes. Appeals by local officials to the Judiciary to keep the landfills open are ignored while trash disposal rates (per ton) go up from $25.28 to $102.50 we'll have to pay for with even higher taxes... will it never stop?

Belleville isn't the only town caught in this devastating whirlpool of financial destruction, but, its political leaders and school trustees had better "wake up"...

No more three year across the board 7 1/2 percent pyramiding raises nor fancy salary raises, which with arrogance amounts to telling the taxpayers "Let them eat cake."

Should they float the pleas of the people, and they're damn angry, they may storm the bastille... enough is enough. There are many old-timers who participated in this town's growth and development; they served their time, paid their dues and plan to remain here... they don't plan to be driven out by overburdening taxes beyond the means of the average prudent oldtimer to provide for his future and financial needs.

We hold to those convictions and believe every effort should be made to implement them.

FLIGHT 890

By Frank A. Orechio

WE all have our own very special problems that life presents. They come in different forms, shapes and lengths. Recently, I was asked could I classify the greatest problem I faced in life. I had to think hard on that one. Ethnic bigotry of the 1930's and 40's came to my mind since my name begins and ends with "O." Our neighborhood was looked upon as second class by residents of the wealthy section of town.

And then as I reflected upon the years of my youth, I suddenly remembered fifteen torturous years. Those were the years between the ages of five and twenty, and my greatest physical handicap was stuttering. More often than not, I couldn't say two words without stuttering. I went through the Nutley School system subject to the giggles and laughter of my classmates as I rose to my feet in an attempt to answer questions. I was a student who did his homework — and there were not too many among us who did a thorough job of studying. I was one. For every question asked by the teacher, my hand was among the first to be extended in the hopes that I would be called upon. Deliberately — without exception, teachers avoided calling upon me, apparently out of concern that my stuttering would bring on personal embarrassment.

The more my teachers avoided me, the more upset I became — and the more likely my stuttering would increase. However, it wasn't until I was twenty years old, in a Rutgers speech class, that the late Dr. Richard C. Reager, the Chairman of the Speech and Debate Department of Rutgers University, made me realize there was nothing physically wrong with my throat — that I was physically capable of speaking without stuttering. I remember one day, Professor Reager arranged for an assembly of all his speech classes, and required each of us to take the stage and deliver a five-minute speech. Frankly, I trembled in my shoes, for public speaking was not my strong hand. Nevertheless, the moment arrived and I was obliged to deliver my speech. I even surprised myself. I spoke for exactly five minutes — never hesitated — and received an "A" for my performance. If ever I experienced a morale builder in my life, it was the recognition that I had within me, the ability to construct and deliver a speech, that met with the total approval of my critics. In this early battle of my life's experience, I satisfied myself that nothing is impossible, once an objective is established and the commitment to persevere is made.

Make no mistake about it. If you want something badly enough — more often than not, you can — and will achieve your goal. The Iran-contra public hearing is complete after 41 days of testimony. The Iran-contra Committee members consisted of Senate and House members. The most important thing to come out of the hearings is the knowledge that President Reagan has been telling the truth from day one. The main thrust of the hearings was to prove that President Reagan didn't tell the truth about the Iran-Contra affair. Well, much to his critics' surprise, the integrity of the Presidency was sustained by the testimony of all the 29 witnesses that appeared before the Committee.

I have a lot of faith in the words of President Reagan. I feel for our country, when Reagan's term comes to an end, and there's nobody around to replace him, from either party, that has the stature to carry Reagan's briefcase, let alone succeed him in the office of the Presidency.

The hearings produced evidence to indicate there was a secret government within our government, that was establishing foreign policy without the knowledge or consent, of the only person who has the responsibility and the authority — the President of the United States.

The hearings produced more than sufficient evidence for us to conclude that democracy was promoted overseas at the expense of compromising it at home.

The most publicized witness, Lt. Col. Ollie North in the Armed services of our country, there are as many Lt. Colonels as there are Deputy Sheriffs in New Jersey testified that he lied to the Congress of the United States — he lied to his colleagues — he lied to his superiors — and while he didn't indicate it, he probably lied to his wife, too. Once a prolific liar, it can be assumed the liar maintains the capacity to lie to anyone, any time.

A YEAR AGO, we lost a dear friend, and New Jersey lost a native son who rose to national prominence as one of the nation's leading newspaper reporters. He was Guy Savino, publisher of the Lyndhurst Leader newspapers and former Chief of the New York Bureau of the old Newark Evening News. We miss him still. All we ask is that God grant that his soul rest in peace.

THE Nutley Police Department is making an aggressive effort for the cooperation of Nutley residents to join its members in a "National Night Out" to demonstrate a united effort against crime. Across the United States, at 8 p.m., August 11, 1987, eighteen million Americans are expected to participate in "America's Night Out" — Neighborhoods Against Crime.

Posters bear the message, "Lock up your doors, turn on your outside lights and come out and sit in your front yard or on your porch from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m., meet your neighbors and 'Put a Light on Crime.'" This is not only a worthy effort but a very essential one. Criminals must get the message that all humanity is united to stamp out crime wherever its ugly head appears.

The Commissioner has long been an advocate of recycling. And here's why:

First, for every ton of garbage that's recycled, that's $102 less that the township has to pay to have hauled away.

Two, all the recycled garbage is SOLD to scrap dealers so there's money to be made on top of the money saved.

Three, the more trash that Belleville recycles the bigger the township's annual state recycling grant will be...so recycling pays three ways!

But recycling isn't all roses, especially for a town that's never had much of a recycling program to begin with.

For one thing, the recycling program that Commissioner Frantantoni has implemented involves dropping off glass, newspapers, and aluminum cans at the Parks & Public Property yard on Williams Street. However, the township isn't insured for a stream of townspeople wandering into the yard to drop off their waste. Right now, the procedure is for citizens to pull up to the yard, then go into the office to get assistance. A town employee will then unload the citizen's car of its debris and the citizen drives away. But what happens when the program is in full swing and dozens of citizens daily start doing their "civic duty" by responding to the good Commissioner's recycling plea? Chaos at the Parks yard, perhaps? The need for a full-time employee?

Of course, if just one ton of garbage is rescued per day, that's a daily savings of $102 — more than enough to justify hiring a recycling coordinator.

I guess it all depends on the townspeople. If Bellevillites, like the people of an increasing number of towns, really get into the habit of recycling — a lot of money can be cut from that extra million dollars per year that trash collection is expected to cost us...

Pastor Gerald Fortunato, leader of the flock at Silver Lake Baptist Church, was recently appointed to the Board of Trustees of Essex County Community College, this upon the recommendation of County Executive Nicholas Amato.

The good Pastor is apparently wearing many hats along with his collar, as he has submitted his name as a candidate for the Belleville Board of Education seat vacated by Dr. Joseph Capello, who moved out of town.

In other Silver Lake Baptist Church news, the flock will be holding their 2nd Annual Church Picnic on August 9 at the Eagle Rock Reservation in West Orange.

Time is from 10AM to 6PM. For more information call the church at 759-3762.

Who is acceptable to God?

"Lord, who shall abide in Thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in Thy holy hill?" (Psalm 15:1)

King David's approach to the subject of God's will is much less direct, and much more poetic, than most of the other writers we have considered.

An Irish evangelist of the past generation gave an exposition of Psalm 15 which he titled, "Whom Is the Guest of God?" He applied the psalm to the person who seeks to have fellowship with God, noting that David expresses the idea in symbolic language, "Lord, who shall dwell in Thy holy hill?" The question is rhetorical, for the psalmist provides the answer by describing the actions and attitudes the Lord requires of His "guests."

David has written another Psalm, the 24th, part of which is very reminiscent of Psalm 15. In that psalm David again uses metaphorical language, asking, "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?" And he answers his query in even more symbolic idiom, "He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart." (vv. 3-4). Here the clean hands imply righteous actions, and the pure heart signifies sincere motives. These are the basics for fellowship with God, represented here by the hill of the Lord and the holy place.

Let us pray this prayer — "Make me more keenly aware, Father, of what is, and isn't, acceptable to You."

Proud Papa...

To the editor:

It has been said that education is the key that unlocks the door to the future. How big a door that key opens depends on how well one applies himself or herself to the opportunities presented by public education.

If a student approaches education with a completely open and objective mind, seeking to absorb all the knowledge available to him or her, the results and rewards are many.

Eric A. Nazzola, Class of June 1987, is just such a student. This young man approached his education as an opportunity, knowing that its limitations were confined only to the limitations of his own energies. Eric is a scholar, an athlete, and an all-around student. He spent his high school career in 'high gear,' he never coasted. He involved himself with the music program while still in the Middle School as a trombonist in the Marching Band and continued through four years of high school to become the Drum Major in his Senior Year. He began his wrestling involvement with the Recreation Wrestlers and finished a quality varsity letterman. He tried the Crew Team for a year, but time conflicted with the Marching Band.

Throughout his high school years he also pursued his interests in the theatre, beginning with smaller supporting roles in several plays and ending with the leads in "Barnum" and "Grease." He was a member of the National Honor Society, the S.G.O. (Student Government Organizations) and the Italian Club.

Eric was the first student in Belleville High School history to ever win the Mathematics contest three years in a row. He also won a Chemistry contest in his senior year.

To put it succinctly, Eric is a goal-oriented young man and he knows to what extent one must apply himself if one is to achieve his goals. No one ever has to tell him to do his homework, to do his jogging, or weight lifting or whatever it takes to succeed at whatever one attempts to do. He completed his High School career No. 2 in his class and as Class Salutatorian.

Has it paid off? You bet your life it has! Eric has been recognized by so many colleges and universities as a student they want in their educational community that he received literally hundreds of solicitations and offers of scholarship.

Eric weighed the many offers carefully and chose Seton Hall University. Seton Hall offered Eric one $5,000 per year scholars program scholarship for four years; and in addition a $1,500 per year scholarship for four years as a pre-med student. Eric was also a recipient of a $1,000 per year four year scholarship as a Governor's Distinguished Scholar given to the top 3 percent of the 94,000 students graduating in 1987 in New Jersey. He also received numerous other scholarship awards at the Raymond O. Smith Scholastic Awards Dinner at Belleville High School.

In all, his applying himself fully and availing himself to all the educational opportunity had to offer has paid off to the tune of over $32,000 in scholarships over the next four years. Not too bad 'a pay' for going to high school for four years with an open mind and a sincere desire to learn.

Of course, the greatest pride in Eric's accomplishments comes from his parents who now know that they can concentrate on saving to pay for medical school, internship, and surgical specialization, because Eric almost paid for his college education himself. His projected future educational cost will run into six figures.

Many thanks to the Belleville School system teachers for creating that element of challenge necessary to inspire the best efforts from our students.

Could his parents be any prouder? I think not. I know that his father has said that his son's educational accomplishments gave him more satisfaction than if he had won in his bid to be elected a commissioner of Belleville. In particular, because it proved that even in Belleville education will eventually come out on top! How do I know that? I know because I am that proud father.

These dogs are the pits...

To the editor:

This letter is in reference to our postman, Joe Della Ferra. He is having trouble with pit bull dogs on his route. He is getting no assistance from his supervisor or his postmaster.

This man is more than just a mailman, he is a concerned and a caring person. There is a pit bull on the corner by our house, and our six-year-old daughter, Gemma, was petrified to pass this dog's yard. The dog was barking, growling and trying to jump the fence and when Joe walked over to her, she was frozen with fear. Joe brought her home safely to us. If it wasn't for him, she might have been attacked.

We don't want to lose this postman. He has always given us excellent service with our mail and service above and beyond the call of duty. We don't think his supervisors realize how good this man is. Their suggestion to him is not to continue and try to make our neighborhood safe, but to change routes with someone else. Don't they realize that they are just putting yet another person in danger instead of finding a solution to this problem? This is not just a postal problem, it concerns children and neighborhood residents too.

This is not a petition. That has already been done. This is a personal "Thank You" to Joe for saving our little girl. We want to help him in any way we can.

Good luck, Joe!

Keep abortion legal...

To the editor:

The practice of abortion is a very controversial subject. Some people can understand and even secretly admire the dedication of anti-abortion pro-lifers. However many people truly believe in freedom of choice with the individual being allowed to make his/her own personal decisions. Most women despite marital status will have sex. No method of birth control (except the unpopular abstinence) is guaranteed 100% to prevent pregnancy, including sterilization. Most women can not or will not give up their babies for adoption after carrying them for 9 months. The vast majority of women are not independently wealthy (i.e. movie actresses) and many do not have access to guaranteed support (i.e. a husband with a good job or wealthy - and generous - lover).

The decision to have an abortion is never easy. It should be the last viable option considered, not the first. But, imperfect people live in an imperfect world. People will have sex. Birth control will fail. A pregnancy can cause a lot of hardship and misery. A truly unwanted baby can become a burden on society as much as on the parents (i.e. welfare, medical costs, child abuse, etc.) The same pro-lifers that campaign against abortion are many times the same people that complain about rising welfare and other social program costs. The same people that are anti-abortion (i.e. President Reagan and other politicians) allow many of our elderly poor to live under inhuman conditions, a truly national disgrace.

Abortion is an evil, but many times it is the lesser of two (or more) evils. Being pro-choice means the right to choose for ourselves. Legalized abortion must be preserved. Our elected officials should not try to take it on themselves to choose for us.

Don't Drive Drunk — Cary Wong (left), who attends Belleville High School, recently wrote a prize winning essay on drunk driving, earning third place for his 250-word piece on the dangers of drunk driving and alternatives to this and to riding with an intoxicated person. NJ Transit, the statewide public transportation corporation, sponsored the "Play It Smart... Play It Safe... Don't Drive Drunk" essay contest among Essex County public and private high school students, ages 16 and up. With Wong, 16, are his uncle, Chin Wong, and Randy Jones of NJ Transit.

200 townspeople attend rally for Republican senate hopeful

Two hundred supporters attended a kick off for Belleville Legal Assistant Thomas Zampino, the Republican candidate for State Senate in the 30th District.

Among the speakers at the Chandelier Restaurant were Senator John Dorsey, the Senate Minority Leader, and Zampino's Assembly running mates, John Kelly and Marion Crecco.

Current and past Board of Education Presidents Phil Linfante and Grace Purdie also spoke on Zampino's behalf.

Toni Marone, the vice chairperson of the Republican Party in Belleville read a letter from Governor Tom Kean urging those in attendance to help Tom Zampino get elected in November.

"It's time for a change," said Zampino, as he promised "to work to solve the problems of the entire district and not cater to special interests as my opponent has done in the past."

Zampino is currently working to develop the Republican Party Platform for November.

Zampino critical of senatorial courtesy

In other Zampino news, the GOP candidate has strongly criticized the parliamentary maneuver used by senators known as "senatorial courtesy," and has stated that if elected to the Senate, he will refuse to use the privilege and vote to abolish it.

Senatorial courtesy is the process by which any senator may block the appointment of a gubernatorial nominee from his district or county.

Recreation Roundup

Summerfun!

The fourth week of playground activity was filled with fun and excitement. At the School 10 playground, the homerun derby was the game of the week. The champions of the contest were Kenny Johansen and Mike Mundy. The junior league softball team continues their winning ways and remains in first place. The senior league softball team recorded two victories against the stadium. Everyone at the School 10 playground enjoyed the week ending watermelon party.

At the stadium playground B.G. Dena and Jerry Turi won the wiffle ball contest. Cira Stanecki won the Kalah tournament. Frank Trupia won the discus throwing tournament by a throw of 10 feet 7 inches, and Linda Wujciak won the "Yes I can" tournament.

At the friendly house, Anthony Gardner was the horseshoe champ this week, by defeating Carmen Sabia, Chris Liversay, Bruce Seely and Chris Schafer. Kickball and football were also hot items this week with everyone participating.

At the Recreation Department playground the children kept cool by having a water balloon fight. Andy Duhaime continued to lead the Rec Department playground in wiffle ball homeruns with 75. The Rec playground also enjoyed a hot dog party and a lemon ice party.

Men's Softball Championships

Suppa's Bar and Carolan Construction won the post-season playoff tournament in their respective divisions of the Belleville Recreation Men's Softball leagues last week. Suppa's swept two games from Schwartz & Pisano in the finals of the A Division, beating them 3-1 and 3-2.

Carolan Construction needed three games to eliminate Motorcycle Mall in the finals of the B Division playoffs, winning game one 10-3, losing game two 2-1 and winning game three 6-2. En route to the finals, Carolan defeated Eastern Molding 9-5 and Motorcycle Mall won their semifinal game over Belleville Shoes, 4-2.

Belleville Times SPORTS

We start our look at the Belleville freshman wrestling program by going back to the 1968-69 team, the first freshman grappling team in BHS history.

Of course, the coach of that team, and many teams to come, was Dennis Villano. He served as coach for 17 years and put together an incredible record. Villano didn't step in and take the wrestling world by storm. He had to build up the program in the early years, and there were growing pains.

However, by the 1972 campaign, Villano's troops molded itself into a formidable group. This week, we will look back to the 1969 and 1970 teams, the clubs that paved the way to future success.

1969, A New Beginning

The 1968-69 freshman team was 1-1, beating the Bloomfield sophomores and losing to a freshman squad from Nutley.

"We had a hard time getting matches that year," recalled Villano, who at the time was 24 years old and just starting his professional career as a teacher. "We had some tough wrestlers on that team. We used basic moves. This was our infancy. The matches weren't pretty, but the kids wrestled tough."

Buc Shots

By Mike Lamberti

The captain of that first freshman wrestling squad was Alan Sidrechio. Villano chose the captains in the early years, but later left it up to the wrestlers themselves.

Some outstanding grapplers on that team were, John Mustacchio, Mike Egidio, George Villano (Dennis' brother), Mike Pici, Angelo Sanzaro and Bill Natale.

Mustacchio went on to an outstanding varsity career. However, the entire freshman team did well in that initial campaign. One year later, in 1970, the team competed in six matches and the interest in the sport began to expand.

1970, The Beginning of a Dynasty

When the 1969-70 freshman wrestling team began its season, many of the current seniors at Belleville High School were just arriving in the world. It was a different time in the late 60's and early 70's. Anti war slogans were big, the Peace and Ecology signs were evident throughout the country. The Mets had just won a World Series, stunning the Baltimore Orioles in five games. The Kansas City Chiefs of the AFL would go on to win Super Bowl IV in January of 1970. Long hair on men was popular and college campus demonstrations on the Vietnam War was big news, with the Kent State disaster making news.

At home, the second freshman wrestling team was co-captained by Brian Banda and Rich Giordano. The teams heavyweight in '70 was John Smith.

Some of the outstanding wrestlers on the Bellboys were Ron Borgo, Phil Cuzzi, Dominick De Nino and Robert Gebhard. Villano recalls a story about Gebhard that epitomizes the toughness of the Belleville wrestler.

"Bob is wrestling against Seton Hall Prep and in the first round of the match, he breaks his collarbone. I didn't know it, and I don't think he knew it at the time, either. I noticed that he was working with just one arm and I kept saying, 'Bob, use both arms when you make a move.' I noticed his neck was a little red after the first quarter, but he said it was just a bruise and he could keep going.

"Anyway, I let him wrestle the second round and asked him again after the second round if he was okay. At that time, he said he might have broken the collarbone, but he still wanted to continue the match.

"Naturally, I threw in the towel, you don't want to see any athlete risk a further injury. He just wanted to keep going. That's the type of kid that we had on all the teams."

The '67 team finished with a record of 3-2-1. Needless to say, Gebhard's injury finished him for the remainder of the season.

"We began to improve in 1970," Villano recalled. "Just two years later, in 1972, we started a string of three straight undefeated seasons."

Next week, we'll profile those glory years, looking back at the 1971-74 clubs.

Pondering the Headlines

Some thoughts for this week. How does Walter Payton make just $700,000.00 a year while Bo Jackson will earn over $1 million for eight games for the L.A. Raiders? Payton has certainly been a decent running back who has gained a few yards in his career. I'm sure Walter is making additional monies in his various business ventures and is living quite well, but can you actually compare a guy like Payton, a true legend and the best runner in NFL history, to Bo Jackson?

Can the Mets make a serious run at the NL East title? Why not? The team has overcome some huge adversity in the early going and has the ability to win the big games, witness the road trip the Mets finished last week at St. Louis and Montreal.

If the Belleville boys' basketball team joins the Bloomfield Summer League next year, will it play the Bloomfield "B" team, the Bloomfield "C" or the Bloomfield "K" team in its opener.

Congratulations to Rich Ruffalo on his outstanding accomplishments at the Can Am Games at Hofstra University. More on his heroics in this issue.

Will George Steinbrenner send Don Mattingly down to Columbus if Mattingly goes 0 for 4 two games in a row. Mattingly and Dave Winfield are about the only players who haven't been sent down this year by the Yanks. Will Steinbrenner fire Lou Pinella if the Yanks should lose three games in a row?

Last Weeks Quiz

The running back who made the famous quote, "I'm bored, I'm broke and I'm back," was John Riggins, who returned in 1981 to Washington after retiring in 1979. Riggins had some excellent seasons for the Redskins after his return. He finally retired after the '85 season.

For This Week

The Green Bay Packers and Dallas Cowboys have a long and fabled rivalry in the NFL. When was the last time the two teams faced each other in a playoff game and what was the result.

Town teacher takes gold at Hofstra

Ruffalo 'Can Am'do

Richard Ruffalo continued his outstanding work in track and field at the Can-Am games at Hofstra University. Ruffalo won two gold medals at the games and took home two silver medals.

The Can-Am Games stand for the Canadian American Pacific Games for the Physically Challenged. Ruffalo, who is blind, has made quite a name for himself with his outstanding work in athletics.

Ruffalo's gold medals were in the javelin and weight lifting. In the javelin, Ruffalo, who owns the world record, threw 45.60 meters.

Coach Roll mad with league management

Bucs eliminated from playoffs

A few weeks ago, Buccaneer basketball coach Don Roll expressed dissatisfaction in the management of the Bloomfield Summer basketball league.

Last week, Roll's feelings were more toward outrage following his teams elimination in the playoffs at Bloomfield.

The Bucs will battle Don Bosco Tech in the regular season finale of the Elizabeth League tonight at 7:15 p.m. from the Dunn Arena. Next Monday, the playoffs commence at Elizabeth, in a single elimination tourney.

Roll originally was not happy with the Bloomfield league because of the lack of qualified, carded officials. Last week, that lack of officiating led to a very unorganized contest at Bloomfield High School.

The Bucs and Bloomfield Bengals were playing a semi final contest at Bloomfield High last week. The winner was slated to play Nutley, who had defeated Clifton, in the first semi final.

"The Nutley-Clifton game had to be stopped with one minute left," Roll recalled. "It had gotten out of control."

The officials who called the game, according to Roll, were not varsity officials who are certified by the state to be officials.

"We paid $325.00 to get into this league," Roll said. "We were promised varsity officiating in the games."

The weight lifting event was an outstanding effort. It was the final event of a long day and Ruffalo suffered a painful sternum injury during the early stages of the event.

"I wasn't sure if I could finish the event," Ruffalo said. "My chest was really sore, but I decided to give it a shot."

Ruffalo's "shot" was good enough to win the gold medal. He finished with a dead lift of 430 pounds, a squat of 375 and a bench press of 308.

His silver medals came in the shot put and discus. In the shot, Ruffalo tied a world record with a toss of 11.93 meters. However, because Ruffalo tied for first place in this event, the rules state that the athletes second best throws are used and Ruffalo's toss was not as good as the eventual winners.

In the discus, his toss was 30 meters and a silver medal.

Another Bellevilleite, David D'Notaris, did well in weight lifting. D'Notaris, a blind athlete, weighs just 138 pounds, but conquered some outstanding weights at the Can-Am games.

He finished with a squat of 325, a bench of 236 and a dead lift of 341. He earned a bronze medal for the tourneys best overall lifter.

Ruffalo's plans now include a spot in the World Games at Ottawa, Canada in April of 1988. The coach will work on the weight lifting events there.

Next summer, Ruffalo will travel to the Olympics for the Physically Challenged, to be held at Seoul, South Korea, the same location of the Summer Olympic Games. Ruffalo will compete in the shot put, discus and javelin at Seoul.

NOTES: Ruffalo competed in the Nationals at Albuquerque, New Mexico in June, winning a gold in the javelin and weight lifting events. He took a silver in the 50 meter free style swimming event. The coach finished his day with a bronze medal in the discus.

Flashback! Those '82 football Bucs

This reporter remembers quite fondly the upcoming flashback story. Let's go back to the Fall of 1982, not that long ago, when the Belleville football team played a game at Municipal Stadium. The opponent was Passaic High School, who at the time was ranked number one in the state of New Jersey and in the top 10 in the United States.

For three years preceding this contest, the Bucs and Indians have staged some epic battles. In 1979, Belleville won, 26-14 with a strong second half rally at Municipal Stadium. In the '80 contest, Belleville scored late in the game and stopped Passaic, 13-9 at Passaic. In 1981, Passaic won a thriller, 7-0, on a first quarter touchdown that held up.

It led to a classic confrontation in the fall of 1982. This article appeared in the October 7, 1982 issue.

Displaying a simply awesome defense, and coming through with the key plays at the most opportune times, the Belleville Buccaneers pulled off a big 3-2 upset over the states top ranked team, the Indians of Passaic, before a sellout crowd at Municipal Stadium.

"They were a very good football team," Senesky said of the Indians. "That was a war, in every sense of the word last Saturday. We made a lot of mistakes on offense and we had a few mental lapses on defense, but the heart on this team can never be measured. I said it last week, there is something in these kids that cannot be measured. I can't say enough about their effort."

Indeed, there was a lot of hard hitting on the part of both sides. The Bucs, although they lacked the Indians size and speed, hit hard and effectively, limiting the Indians marvelous runner, Craig Heyward, to 94 yards rushing in 21 attempts. They also forced Heyward to fumble once and the Indians junior also accounted for two dropped passes.

"If they had caught a few of (quarterback Mike) Volpe's passes, it could have been different," Senesky said.

For Belleville, Mike Murphy, their junior fullback, led the way with 51 hard earned yards rushing. The Bucs offense did not do too much damage, thanks mainly to the Indians awesome defense, one which limited the Bucs to 87 yards in total offense. It was the defense, which accounted for Belleville's only score of the contest.

Late in the first quarter, Passaic was in punt formation on its 13 yard line. Dave Mozeika, who was simply incredible at linebacker, came through to block Heyward's punt. The ball rolled dead at the Buccaneer 21 yard line. Three plays could only manage three net yards and Robbie Cancelliere came in to attempt a 36 yard field goal.

Before he could get it off, the gun sounded, ending the first quarter. This was a break for the Bucs because they had the wind at their back for the field goal attempt. The plan worked well as Cancelliere split the uprights perfectly to give the Bucs a 3-0 lead.

The Indians came right back, and thanks to a 32 yard run by Tyrone Stowe, moved to the Buccaneer 21 yard line. However, Heyward fumbled on the next play and the Bucs were out of trouble when Dave Grant recovered.

Before halftime, the Indians had one more chance to score. From their 25, Passaic drove to the Buccaneer 17, aided in part by a Volpe pass to Bob Grier that accounted for 21 yards. From the 17, Heyward took a handoff from Volpe and scampered in for an apparent touchdown. While the fans celebrated, the officials, who were quiet throughout the game but made some effective calls, cited holding on Grier and Passaic was sent back to its 30 yard line. The Indians could get no closer than the Buc 17 and Belleville took over on downs.

Passaic coach Tom Elsasser, who said before the game that, "we'll run right at them and give them a taste of Iron (Heyward)", had his team kickoff for the second half, even though they were supposed to receive. On the Bucs first play from scrimmage, Cancelliere fumbled and Passaic recovered.

The Indians drove to the Buccaneer 15 yard line, however Grier was cited for holding a second time, the ball was moved back to the 28 yard line and the Bucs had escaped another tight rope.

Perhaps the Indians final drive was its most effective. From his 31, Heyward scampered 24 yards to the Buc 46. After a fine yard penalty sent Passaic back to its 49, Heyward got five yards back to the Buc 46. After two plays netted no yardage, Volpe attempted a desperation pass on fourth down. The ball was incomplete, however the Buccaneer bench had not started cheering yet.

The reason was a little yellow flag sitting at midfield. The official called pass interference on Belleville, giving Passaic a first down on the Buc 32. The Indians got it down to the ten for a first and goal, but the Buccaneer defense dug in.

Having lost Ray Kimble on the drive because of a sprained ankle, and having lost linebacker Craig Mack earlier in the quarter because of an injury, the Bucs relied on two young players, Fred Scherer and Steve Kimble, to fill the gap.

The two did an outstanding job, holding Heyward and Co. in check and assuring the victory. Passaic's only two points came when Cancelliere stepped out of the end zone intentionally, getting Belleville out of a hole and pretty much wrapping up the contest.

"Give a lot of credit to Anthony Sorrentino (the Bucs defensive coach)," Senesky said. "He made some excellent calls."

"Also, Joe D'Ambola was excellent with the extra point team. On that field goal, everything had to be perfect. Robert Charles did the snapping, Joe Borrello was the holder and of course, Robbie had to kick it. Also, Mark Walsh's coverage on punts has been outstanding, and Charles has been very good on snaps. We did the right things at the right time, but most of all, we had emotion. The kids wanted it very badly."

EDITORS NOTES: The '82 Bucs finished the season with an 8-2 mark, losing a heartbreaker in the state sectional playoffs to Union, 12-7.

Town Little Leaguers finish tournament with a 2-2 record

by Philip B. Di Meo

With a 12-3 loss to Nutley-National on July 21, 1987, and a 7-2 loss to Bloomfield-North 2 days later, Belleville Little Leaguers were eliminated from the Championship round of the Nutley Invitational Tournament.

In what was Belleville's first defeat in 1987 Tournament play, Nutley-National, capitalizing on on-base opportunities, took a quick 3-0 lead after 2 innings. The first Belleville run of the game crossed the plate in the top of the fifth when, after consecutive walks were issued to Frank Nemeec, Mark Bruzzio, and Kevin Davis, leading the bases, Tom Escott came through with an infield single.

A 9-run bottom of the fifth rally by the Nutley nine all but put the game out of reach for the Belleville 10-year olds which, up to that point, had been held to only 1 run on 1 base hit.

Belleville attempted a rally of its own in their last at bat when Brian Dena opened up with a double. Third baseman Anthony DiMeo followed with a double of his own in the right center alley, and runners were in scoring position. Frank Nemeec's second walk of the game loaded the bases. A clutch-hit double by Mark Bruzzio allowed both Dena and DiMeo to score, but the Belleville drive ended there.

In its July 23 outing against Bloomfield-North, Belleville was held scoreless for 5 innings.

A victory would put them in the Championship round. A loss would eliminate them from competition.

Bloomfield-North began with 2 runs in the bottom of the first, then added 5 more in the fourth. Down 7-0 in the sixth, Belleville's Kevin Davis bunted his way to second, stole third, then came around to score on a wild pitch. Belleville was on the scoreboard. First baseman Robert Dena walked, then received a free ticket to second on a balk call. Shortstop Joe Colucci followed with another successful bunt and himself moved to second when teammate Ivon Martin, hit by a pitched ball, was awarded first. The bases were loaded and the Belleville fans were hopeful for the first time during the game. Anthony DiMeo took his turn at bat and, with the bases full, blasted a shot to deep left field that was inches away from being a grand slam. Belleville's second, and final, run of the game came when Robert Dena walked in to score on a pass issued to Bruzzio.

With its second loss, Belleville was eliminated from Tournament competition.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Did You Know??

Affordable luxury: cover an inexpensive sofa in simple fabric, then dress it up with throw pillows covered in sumptuous fabric. It takes very little fabric to cover a pillow and low-price sample remnants may be available.

How much paint do you need to repaint your bedroom? You won't forget next time if you note on the wall under the switchplate how much you used THIS time.

New wrinkle in condominium resort time-sharing: "quarter shares" — the use of the property for two weeks out of every eight.

Waxing the bottoms of chairs and rockers will keep them from marking polished floors.

Size is relative. New Yorkers think Manhattan Island is big — but Queen Elizabeth's Balmoral estate is twice the size, and the King ranch in Texas is 50 times bigger. (On the other hand, Monaco is smaller than New York's Central Park.)

How big is the house you're selling? We'll find you the buyer who needs what you've got, and is willing to pay for it. List with the marketing experts at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley, 235-9000.

It may SEEM like a good idea to try to sell your own house. But there are many potential pitfalls: improper price (too high or too low), guessing where to place the ads, showing your house to people who may OR may not be interested; and finally, knowing who may OR may not be qualified to buy. NOVENA TO ST. JUDY
This novena has never been known to fail. It is novena must be said for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised.
O Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, our kineman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need to you I have recourse from the dept. of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present urgent petition. To return, I promise to make your name known and call you to be invoked. St. Jude, pray for us all who invoke your aid.
