Eliminate six teachers

Commissioners slash $886,641 from the school budget...

By Pat Brightman

In their effort to "cut the fat while keeping the meat," the Belleville Board of Commissioners voted to cut the rejected $20.7 million school budget by $886,641 by a number of avenues, most notably relieving teachers of their positions in the elementary level and increasing class sizes.

Of the $20,700,773.50 proposed, only $14,076,911 would have been collected by taxes. The budget was voted down by a 941-631 margin April 5.

It is expected the Belleville Board of Education at its meeting Monday night will appeal the resolution to the state.

If the resolution stands, the tax points for the school budget will fall from 53.1 to 34.2.

The resolution stated one teacher from School 3, two teachers at School 4, one teacher at School 5 and two teachers at the High School should be eliminated. A math position at the High School, presently vacant, should also be removed. Total cost savings will be $145,205.

Other positions that were recommended to be eliminated were one guidance counselor in the Middle School and two in the High School, saving $48,000, one vice principal in the High School, $47,436, the Assistant to Board Secretary, $35,000, School Board Accountant, $35,000. The part-time Second Assistant Superintendent's position was also recommended to be eliminated, at a savings of $12,000. By removing this position, a $2,000 stipend to an elementary teacher will be eliminated because the Second Assistant, Lawrence Pico, can become full-time principal once again, a position the teacher was while Pico was Second Assistant.

Total cuts to administrative and teacher positions is $324,641. The elimination of the elementary teachers will increase class size from 15-17 to 26-29 students.

When Commissioner of Public Works Angelo Risoli asked Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello if he thought any cuts in administration could be made, Nardiello said he was advised by counsel not to make a comment.

Additions to original

The original resolution called for $624,000 in reductions, or "modifications," as Board Attorney Frank Cozzarelli described the cuts. But Commissioner of Parks and Public Property recommended the extra cuts in jobs after reviewing the situation.

"In the administration I think we can make further cuts," said Frantantoni. "There's a large reduction in the student population at the High School and looking at the eighth grade it will continue to go down. There's no need for three vice principals, there should be at least one reduction. I have a memo sent by the Superintendent of Schools dated January 24 that states there can be a possible reduction of one vice principal and his secretary. And we wouldn't be hurting the students at all."

"There are nine supervisors of instruction at the High School and I believe we can cut that by at least two or three," continued Frantantoni, "we can leave the cuts to the Board of Education."

Frantantoni was not through with his ideas for the High School, saying, "they're losing 150-200 students next year I think very conservatively we can make a reduction of two teachers. I don't think two teachers have 80-90 kids in a class."

"When you say you won't effect the students, that's your opinion," said Mayor Michael Pizzi. "These are the recommendations of the Superintendent of Schools, so I don't think I'm affecting the children," countered Frantantoni.

But Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello disagreed with Frantantoni's statement saying the memo was a "worksheet."

"It's not true," said Nardiello when asked if the memo were recommendations. "He was told that three times."

"I made the recommendation for School 3 up to 26 students but 29 (students) I will fight them on. It's not good education and it's not sound."

Fornarotto agrees

Commissioner of Public Affairs Joseph Fornarotto agreed with Frantantoni's recommendations and even suggested making more cuts, saying it was time for "balloon busting." He said the commissioners should cut everything in the memo sent by Nardiello plus the recommendations of the commissioners.

"It's a business and you have to save for a rainy day," stated Fornarotto, "well it's the rainy day now."

Cozzarelli said to the board to keep in mind that they should not make cuts just for the sake of reducing the tax points.

"You have to balance the concerns of having an astute budget with the proper education of the children in the district."

Other changes in the school budget were: increasing the Current Expense Miscellaneous Anticipated Revenue by $100,000; apply $300,000 from the Free Appropriation Balance, permitted by law; reduce contract services, which includes legal fees, by $40,000; reduce the Insurance and Judgement Account by $50,000; reduce the benefits account by $9,000, and reduce the heat by $35,000.

Frantantoni said board members had revealed to him the heat allocation was enlarged to include salaries of employees and the funds would be transferred. When he asked Cozzarelli if this was legal, Cozzarelli said, "perhaps it is not a wise budgeting technique."

...but Board of Education makes appeal to State

The Belleville Board of Education voiced their displeasure with the Board of Commissioners and passed a resolution appealing the commissioners' school budget cuts to the New Jersey Department of Education at its meeting Monday night.

Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello said the appeal will probably not be heard until June. A meeting of a finance committee, consisting of Nardiello, Board President Anthony D'Agostino, Budget Committee Chairman Daniel Borgo and Joseph DelGuercio, and Essex County Superintendent of Schools Dr. Eleana Scambrio will be held May 11 to discuss the options.

Comments from board members and some citizens severely criticized the commissioners' $886,641 slashing of the $20,700,773.50 school budget, of which $14,076,911 would have been raised by taxes.

"Close to $900,000 is an outrage," said Barbara Cicalese. "I cannot sit silent while the commissioners set us back 20 years. It shows me as a parent and a board member the commissioners don't care for the children. It's a smokescreen of their $4 million hike." Cicalese also suggested to the audience that they should protest outside of Town Hall their displeasure of the cuts. Her comments were met with applause from the audience which included school teachers.

"As a board member and taxpayer I also have a problem with this ridiculous cause of devastation," said DelGuercio, who was elected last month. "I believe cuts could be made and we can streamline but I'll never be in favor of anything that cuts teachers in this district." He said he will be part of a tax cut but not of a devastation of the school system.

The other newly elected member, Joseph Papisidero, said he did not agree entirely with the cuts made by the commissioners. "I believe some personnel cuts should be made but I don't agree with the resolution."

Borgo said to say the proposed budget was perfect would be a (continued on page 8)

New on Channel 36

The inauguration of a weekly cablecast of area high school baseball games and the hiring of a new reporter for the evening news highlight this week's activities at Orechio Broadcasting.

Camera crews now videotape the Friday afternoon games for broadcast the same evening beginning at 8 p.m., with a repeat Mondays at 8 p.m. said Tom Sullivan, vice president of OBC.

"Passaic at Bloomfield will be seen this Friday (May 6)," Sullivan said, "and Passaic at Clifton May 13, Belleville at Nutley on the 20th and Nutley at Clifton May 23."

"These broadcasts are being made possible through the support of a number of area businessmen and we ask in return that our viewers support them," Sullivan said. The game coverage is part of an increasing number of new programs on OBC in recent weeks and months.

Julie Frees has been appointed as a reporter and co-anchor for Orechio Broadcasting's Channel 36, which presents a daily newscast on the Suburban and UA-Columbia cable systems serving Nutley, Belleville and Bloomfield.

A graduate of Seton Hall University, where she majored in broadcast journalism, Frees is also a graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Manhattan, she studied at the Gene Frankel Theatre Workshop in New York and studied with Herbert Berghof at the HB Studio.

She interned at OBC during her last year at Seton Hall and also at NBC in New York, where she worked on "Today" and "The David Letterman Show."

Her work experience includes doing the voice overs for Herb Jordan and Son General Tires commercials on WMCA Radio's broadcasts of Notre Dame football, plus many other voice-over commercials on New York radio and a bit part in the movie "Times Square." She also worked as a deejay in several New Jersey hotels.

"I believe her presence on Channel 36 will enhance our ability to keep our viewers informed on local events in a crisp and professional manner," said Frank Orechio, president of Orechio Broadcasting and Publications.

In their remembrance

Belleville became one of the first municipalities in the state to raise a flag honoring POWs and MIAs from Vietnam in a ceremony held Sunday morning.

The black flag, with white lettering, was raised with the American Flag in front of Town Hall at 10:00 a.m., beating nearby Kearny by one hour in conducting the first flag raising in the area. Veterans of wars and the Belleville Commissioners were present.

The state has recently mandated all towns fly the POW/MIA flag to commemorate those still missing from the war fought 20 years ago.

"On behalf of the Veterans Council I offer this flag to the commissioners and it will fly below the American Flag in memory of our comrades in Vietnam," said Commander Nicholas Raimo as he handed it to Mayor Michael Pizzi.

"This flag will be flown today and will continue to fly in front of Town Hall," stated Pizzi.

After the flag was raised an eight gun salute was given in memory of those still in the southeast Asian country. The homage paid to those lost in Vietnam has a special meaning to Raimo because he toured the wartorn country in 1967 to find answers to the many questions the war posed.

"There has to be more done," commented Raimo. "No one is getting the true facts out of Vietnam."

"There are still many of our soldiers lying around over there," he said.

Veteran Patrick DeAngelis agreed with Raimo's suggestion that many American soldiers are still in Vietnam. "They send us about five (soldiers) at a time. They use it as a barter," he said in a disgusted tone.

"A lot got married to Vietnamese," said DeAngelis. "They went AWOL. They were given five years to re-inlist but they wanted to stay there. The flag isn't really for them, it's for the POWs and MIAs still over there."

Benches and bins arrive

Early rains can't dampen Washington Avenue cleanup

It couldn't rain on the Belleville Chamber of Commerce's parade Saturday, even though there were early showers, as the first annual Clean-up Washington Avenue was a success, despite a disappointing volunteer turnout.

Only a handful of private citizens assisted Department of Public Works employees and Chamber members clean the avenue and install nine new, sparkling benches and 25 trash bins.

Scout Troop 350 arrived early but because of the rains decided tentatively to offer assistance May 14 by painting the curbs on Washington Avenue. Before they can break out the paint brushes approval must be given by Police Chief George Lister.

Mayor Michael Pizzi greeted the clean-up crew at 8:30 a.m. as they began at the corner of Mill Street and Washington Avenue. As the majority of the crew cleaned the street and sidewalks, Deputy Commissioner of Public Works Chester Green and Road Foreman Jimmy Cordi were strategically placing the benches and trash bins. Public Works had worked for the past two weeks constructing the blue and yellow benches while the bins were donated by Chamber members.

"I think it was definitely successful," said Chamber President Jaye Tarantino. "The idea was very positive, the merchants were receptive and when you ride down the avenue and see people sitting on the benches and litter in the bins there's satisfaction and a sense of accomplishment."

Tarantino also expressed thanks to the volunteers, particularly Gabe Nazzola, and Public Works employees, who, she said, were very enthusiastic and did a "great job."

The main reason viewed for the success seemed to be merchant and public response. By Saturday afternoon citizens were using the benches to relax and the trash was put in the cans, not on the sidewalk, for the most part.

"It's fantastic," exclaimed Howard Goldfarb of Milt's Photo. "This commissioner should highly commend. They got a guy that cares about the town."

"I've been here 20 years and this is the first time anything like this has been done."

"Every store doesn't have to be done over or be brand new," said Lou Cicenia of Charles Jewelers and Chamber Vice President. "All that has to be done is for everyone to keep the avenue clean."

Perhaps the most heartwarming story from Saturday's program was Nellie MacFee getting a bench again. A short time ago Public Works removed an old bench that was cracked and in disrepair from the front of the apartment complex MacFee lives in, 242 Washington Ave. MacFee, who is blind, called the department asking where the bench was, saying she sat on the bench almost everyday.

On Saturday, Green and Cordi replaced the bench with a new one and a friend of MacFee's, Thomas Corbo, brought the woman down and explained that a new bench had been installed. Needless to say, MacFee was ecstatic about having a bench again and when she sat down said, "oh, this is a strong bench!"

After a break for lunch the crew worked until approximately 2:30 when they reached the Nutley line.

Belleville POLICE BEAT

By Pat Brightman

A series of burglaries and thefts, including K-Mart and Photomat, occurred in Belleville but the Police Department does not feel they are connected in any way.

On April 28 security at K-Mart reported an unknown male, believed to be in his early 20s, jimmied open the cash register in the automotive section of the store and stole the cash in the draw. He then fled with an unknown female, also believed to be in her early 20s. Inventory is still being done to determine how much money was taken.

The manager of the Photomat store on Main Street discovered the fast developing store had been broken into when she opened the store for business on April 27. The manager discovered the rear door lock was broken and the day's starting cash stolen from the cash register draw.

Three lanier dictophones were stolen from the X-ray department of Clara Maass Medical Center. The theft occurred April 20 but was not reported to police for one week. There was no forced entry into the department.

Officers Allen Ciccone and James DelGrosso were detailed to a home on Celia Terrace April 26 where the owners said someone had entered the house while they were out for the morning. Entry was gained through the rear door and jewelry and cash were taken.

Similar entry was gained on a house on Belmont Avenue April 24. The resident claimed when he returned home the rear kitchen door was pushed in and money and jewelry were stolen.

Officers Albert Spencer and Victor Mesce were detailed to a home on Mill Street April 26 and were told by a neighbor a house appeared to have been burglarized. The neighbor was watching the home because the owner was in the hospital and the neighbor noticed the rear window was broken. It could not be determined if anything was taken since the owner was still in the hospital.

A 35 year-old Newark man was arrested by Officers Anthony Romandeth and John Towey April 27 after merchants had called regarding a suspicious car.

The officers were detailed when a call came in that a car was circling Franklin Street. The two stopped the car and while checking the driver's credentials noticed a plastic bag containing green vegetation. The driver was then arrested and charged with possession of marijuana.

A large doublepane window located on the northwest corner of School 8 was broken by a rock thrown by a vandal over the April 22-24 weekend.

Commercials class offered

Have you ever watched a television commercial and found yourself saying, "Hey, I can do that?"

Robert Sapoff, who has starred in award winning commercials for Bazooka Bubble Gum and Federal Express, will be teaching a special 2 and one half hour seminar entitled "How You Can Appear In Television Commercials." Sapoff's Bazooka commercial won a Clio award, the commercial industry's equivalent of the Oscar.

"Each year thousands of dollars are made by people who appear in television commercials," said Sapoff in a prepared statement. "And not just by veteran actors. Today beginners and non-professionals are also landing good jobs and enjoying commercial residual checks. This is partly because the current advertising trend emphasizes the 'real' person. Remember Clara Peller, the grandmother-turned-actress who immortalized the line, 'Where's the Beef?'"

The seminar will cover all the basics of beginning a career, including photographs and resumes, agents and casting directors, union and non-union work, auditioning, etc. In addition, each student will "audition" for a commercial on camera using professional commercial copy. The student will then review the "audition" and receive feedback.

The seminar is being offered Tuesday, May 17 from 7:30-10:30 p.m. in the Holiday Inn of Totowa, Rout 46 West. Early registration fee is $25. (The fee will be $35 at the door) The class size will be limited. To register, mail a check made payable to Robert Sapoff and send to: Commercials Seminar, 83 Crystal Ave., West Orange, N.J. 07052. Please include your phone number. For further information, please call 731-1577.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

In the great game of politics there are bosses and bosses, some are good and some of them are bad; when they're bad the public suffers, contrary-wise the people benefit when they sponsor candidates of high quality that reflect dedication, integrity and respect for high principles in public service.

Often we have, in quotes, alluded to "boss" Rega and with vindication since his electioneering prowess and success in contributing to the victories of successful candidates in Belleville elections is exceptional.

His is an uncanny talent of not only running a successful business, but an innate ken (knowledge) of evaluating the temper, needs and pulse of the people of this community.

In many years past, the hub of political activity in Bellville was Commissioner Pat Water's kitchen on Bayard Street in the Valley. As years passed, Silver Lake and the Pico's and Rossi groups wielded power in a large way, then a bright, unobtrusive young couple bought up the corner property at the intersection of Belleville and Union Avenues and started up a business of serving what the people wanted and pleased them...that was when Jackie's Corner and his kitchen burgeoned forth as the centerpiece of political discussion and activity throughout the four seasons of the year.

No, Jackie Rega is not a political boss in the real sense of the word. However, what he does and contributes to promoting and fostering better administration in the operations of our local school system and town government by supporting and helping the elect qualified, sincere individuals who will be above politics and be truly concerned about providing this type of service within the capacity of our people to afford...we feel this sets him apart from the commonplace political boss.

Mr. Rega's recent letter to the Editor captioned "A New Voting Trend" has evoked much favorable comment among local readers who are alarmed about the school budget, which the voters voted down. He certainly sounded a strong note when he wrote "the taxpayers of Belleville no longer will tolerate these political shenanigans being played by some of the Board members."

Mr. Rega explains in his well phrased letter: "The reason why the budget seems continuously to be rejected is not because the citizens of Belleville begrudge our children good education. What they to lament about is, having our board attorney at every board of education meeting at a fee of approximately $100 an hour, when he is not needed and, I repeat, creating these high salary positions just for the purpose of building a political machine."

Apparently education is no longer aloofly and sacrosanctly divorced from the ugly hand of politics which can often play an unsavory role in hiking the already high cost of education; especially at the college level where annual fees close to $20,000 are not uncommon.

The tight fist policies of the Reagan Administration in cutting grants to local school boards has played a large part in forcing tax increases brought about by the loss of public school aid from the federal government, which must be made up through local municipal taxation increases.

School board members, knowing about this loss of grants, should have known that this was a bad time to consider large salary increases...it might have been good politics, but it sure didn't make the average taxpayer happy.

OUR OPINION

Back from the dead

The Walter Kidde site on Main Street may be on its way to becoming a shopping center, if the proposal of Rout 21 Associates is accepted by the Zoning Board of Adjustments. This is a far cry from the old tire factory it was for many years and a different alternative than what was proposed in September, a 425 unit condominium complex. It appeared as though the land, with the project, was dead.

There is an overall general dislike for condos in Belleville, so when the plan in September was scrapped not many people shed a tear. But the property was going to waste, and becoming an eyesore, like so many other areas of town. Now it appears a mini-mall will be constructed on the site. This has many advantages, more than a condominium complex. The shopping center, obviously, will bring in new business to the town, not in the form of another restaurant or Jiffy Lube, but stores for clothing, shoes and casual items. It will bring an up-to-date, modern facility to Belleville, replacing an old, outdated one. It is well located, off of Route 21, so the success of the center is not totally dependant on town shoppers alone, it can draw from the surrounding communities, a definite advantage.

The negative, which will be voice by many merchants on Washington Avenue, is it is taking business away from the main avenue of town, how can the merchants survive? It is a good point but Washington Avenue has not drawn these types of merchants for years now. To blame it solely on the construction of K-Mart, Grand Union shopping center and the Walter Kidde center when it is built is not pointing the finger at the right culprit. There are many reasons for the decline of the avenue, and the construction sites such as the three mentioned is part of it, but there is more. Much more.

The Walter Kidde site will bring in businesses and, therefore, business into Belleville. That is a plus, no matter how you look at it. Whether new business comes in on Washington Avenue or Main Street it is imperative that it comes. That is the bottom line. A step forward for the whole town, not just one avenue. And who knows, maybe Washington Avenue will return from the dead, as quickly and as surprisingly as the Walter Kidde site.

In remembrance of...

This past Sunday the Board of Commissioners and the Veterans Council of Belleville gathered to raise the POW/MIA flag to remember those still missing from the Vietnam War. It seems after 20 years the Americans who fought in the war are getting their just due.

The recognition began a few years ago, with the memorial built in Washington D.C. remembering those who died during the "police action" in the Southeast Asian nation. A statue of three American soldiers in Vietnam followed shortly thereafter. But why did it take so long for the soldiers to be honored. Granted many people were against the war and felt the United States had no right to be in Vietnam, the protests of the 1960s showed us that. But it was not the soldiers who wanted to go over and fight, they were doing what their country asked them to do.

The confusion surrounding the war added to the lack of respect of the soldiers but once again why did this have to happen? Why did patriotic Americans have to be looked down upon because they did as they were expected. Many soldiers may not have agreed with the decision of the government to send troops across the Pacific but they went anyway, while others went to Canada, and were considered heroes in some circles.

It may be coming late but at least some honor and recognition is coming to those who fought in the Vietnam War. They were treated very poorly when they returned by both the government of the United States and the citizens of the country. The war, as any war does, took a tremendous toll on the Americans who fought there, whether it be coping with the war itself, the treatment they received when they returned, or the drug problems many brought back with them, along with the nightmares. Finally, it appears the veterans from the Vietnam War may be considered equal, in all respects, with all other American war veterans.

Clean-up a success

The Washington Avenue clean-up has to be considered a success. Despite the small volunteer turnout the goal of the clean-up was achieved: make Washington Avenue a cleaner, more respectful street to shop on. The Belleville Chamber of Commerce and Department of Public Works deserve respect and admiration for doing such a good job.

The avenue has new benches, bright blue and yellow, that have in the few short days been used a great deal, as have the trash bins donated by members of the Chamber, which are quickly being filled. With the garbage going in the bins instead of on the avenue and the street being cleaned by the streetsweeper twice a week, the avenue may remain a clean street to stroll down.

And all it took was the insight and forcefulness of a few people who would like to turn the town around. They should be commended for their efforts.

Knights say thanks

To the Editor:

The Belleville Knights of Columbus Council 835 conducted their annual drive for funds to aid the mentally retarded, those with learning disabilities with the assistance of brother knights, Womens Auxiliary, Mal Condon Canteen and other volunteers.

The Belleville Knights, in a further expansion of their community activities programs, conducted a special fund raising drive from Thursday, April 21 to Sunday, April 24.

General chairman, Past Grand Knight Frank Corbo, assisted by Grand Knight Joseph Wolf and Past Grand Knights James Kiernan and Ralph Wendler, brother knights and other volunteers groups, made this 14th annual retarded citizens drive most successful.

The Belleville Knights of Columbus wish to thank the Belleville Times for news coverage, the business people, local supermarkets, banks and churches, for allowing volunteers to collect at their store fronts and places of business. They also want to thank the great people of Belleville and vicinity for their generosity in this meaningful drive.

It is an important thought perhaps some day through efforts in the retarded drive they will be able to help themselves.

A special "Thank You" to all who volunteered their time and effort on this 14th annual retarded citizens drive conducted by the Knights of Columbus.

Thank you, fellow citizens who have contributed to the great success of this project. Your support and acceptance of our young men and women are true reminders that we are not alone in our efforts to improve the lives of these special people.

Highjacker deal a shock

To the Editor:

To make a deal with the highjackers at the Algiers Airport a few weeks ago was a shock to the world.

The highjackers held 31 hostages for 16 days against their will and besides they murdered two persons from Kuwait.

I believe these highjackers made a deal with the Algerian authorities that was a shock to the world.

The deal they should have made was to give them a private plane to a country flown by two pilots with an escape by parachute and the plane would crash into the ocean with all the highjackers on board to let the world know.

You just can't take a person's life against their will for your own beliefs.

And, by the way, what is the United Nations for?

Dear Jim,

I try to read your column in its entirety. Sometimes I agree with you, sometimes not. This week's column where you criticize Mr. Vander Zwan because his calculations on his "Hypothetical Family Income and Social Security Benefits," was incorrect and unjust, because you too made very poor calculations. The old saying, "He who lives in glass houses, etc." holds true to you also.

The way I figure it out using your worksheet on page 12 of the Form 1040 Instructions, this Hypothetical family would have a tax bill of $3,709, exactly $2,128 less than you, Mr. Golden figured it to be. Yes, you take half of the S.S. money in box 5. You add that to the $32,000 giving you $39,098. You then subtract the $32,000, giving you $7,098. This figure is then divided by 2 giving you $3,549.

$3,549 added to $32,000 is $35,549, then you subtract from that a standard deduction of $6,200 plus two exemptions of $1,900 each and your Taxable Income is $25,549. The tax on this is $3,709 not the $5,837 you allude to.

Further, Jim, President Reagan was the first President to have the gumption to see that Social Security was going "Down the tube." Something drastic had to be done. He went to the biggest corporations in these United States and asked for help. He received from them their brightest minds. They were non-partisan. They, not the President, made the decision to tax a part of Social Security to preserve its solvency.

Now I ask you, Mr. Golden, would you prefer to pay tax on a portion of your Social Security or have no Social Security??? Since you are so well versed in math you figure it out. Again, a hypothetical family with $32,000 of untaxed and unearned income without S.S. would have to pay $3,184 in income tax. That same family with an additional income of $14,196 Social Security would pay only $3,709 in taxes or $525 more for $14,196 additional income.

Surely, Jim, even you would choose the latter, so quit criticizing the present administration. Soon you will have a choice to choose, Dukakis took over as Governor with a State Surplus in the billions — look at their depleted surplus now. Jesse will give everyone everything, but he doesn't say where the money will come from. Think Jim. Think!!!

Michael Capanear
Belleville

P.S. You do not have to have $32,000 to pay on S.S. Your income can be much less than that. I simply used your hypothetical figures.

By Frank Orechio

Highland Beach, FL. — WELL, next Tuesday, May 10th, is the big day that voters of Nutley have been waiting for the past four years — Township Commission Election Day — to elect among nine candidates five citizens willing and able to give of their time and talent to keep Nutley moving ahead. Mayor Harry Chenoweth has packed it in after forty years of dedicated public service to the community that gave him birth. Harry has served with distinction and responsibility. We wish him well in his retirement — for most certainly, he has earned it. Harry will be missed. One candidate who almost could be considered an understudy to Harry is Nutley Savings & Loan President John Kelly. Both Chenoweth and Kelly are members of the Nutley Savings & Loan Board of Directors and practically could second guess each other on what they are thinking or about to say. Among the nine candidates, there is no one more qualified or through association better able to succeed to the seat Chenoweth has vacated than Assemblyman John Kelly.

I cast my votes as follows: Jerry Amiano, Frank Cocchiola, John Kelly, Carmen Orechio and Peter Scarpelli.

Jerry Amiano has performed well for ten years as Revenue and Finance Commissioner and is the first professional person to hold down the office of Revenue and Finance Director. He deserves re-election.

I voted for the re-election of Commissioner Frank Cocchiola because he has served very faithfully and well over the past sixteen years. In the southeast corner of town, through his efforts, a sports complex has been developed second only to the sports complex on Route 3. Year after year, the facility is used by thousands of people, young and old. I don't agree with the concept. Originally, I was the motivating influence that led to the town purchase of the Father Glotzbach and Father Owens parks. In fact, I negotiated their purchase at a total cost of $23,500! The Louisiana Purchase had nothing on us. My concept in 1948 was for the parkland to be used as neighborhood parks, primarily by the Avondale-Big Tree population. However, it has developed into something else — but at the very least, it has added to the greening of Nutley. The recreation facility at 44 Park Avenue must be the envy of neighboring communities. It has evolved into a civic center, as well as an indoor sports center. Our parks are in good condition. Cocchiola earned my vote.

I have already discussed Assemblyman John Kelly, who, in his own way, has demonstrated to the town at large that he is dedicated to the welfare of our community and its people. Kelly is the logical choice to replace Harry Chenoweth on the Commission.

Public Safety Commissioner Carmen Orechio has led that department for sixteen years — a very difficult department to manage, even in the best of times. Our Police Department has effectively kept drugs out of Nutley — and that's to the credit of the department members and Police Commissioner Carmen Orechio. I voted for him, too. Carmen has pledged a continued fight to keep Nutley safe and keep drugs beyond our border. A laid-back public official, Carmen avoids publicity like the plague. He is most happy when he can do good and not ask why. He is a good and decent man. The only time he was away from Nutley for an extended period of time, was when he served with the Armed Forces in the European Theater of War during World War II. He is my brother; I love him; I respect him. He has rubbed shoulders with royalty, but never lost the common touch. Carmen was born on St. Mary's Place, played football for Nutley High School and Rutgers University, his alma mater. The only reasons to re-elect Carmen to the Public Safety Commission job he has done so well is his performance in office and his commitments to keep Nutley safe and free of drugs.

Commissioner Peter Scarpelli is rounding out his first four-year term as Public Works Commissioner. Scarpelli heads one of the most difficult departments because everything he does — or doesn't do — comes under the scrutiny of the public eye — except for the garbage collection which is assigned to Harry Chenoweth's Department of Public Affairs. But streets, sidewalks, curbs, water supply, water pipes, sewers — they all come under the jurisdiction of Scarpelli. A pothole is blamed on Scarpelli. A rut is charged against Scarpelli — a very unfair charge since potholes and ruts cannot be attended to within hours of the happening. Fortunately for Nutley, Scarpelli has spent his entire life's work in the private sector, performing the same work as his public office requires. As with Commissioner Amiano, the town receives from Scarpelli professional experience at no extra cost. No commissioner could have served in the Public Works Department and performed any better than Peter Scarpelli. He has earned re-election.

So — while the other four candidates — all qualified and all dedicated — could do well in office, the scales tip in favor of re-electing the four incumbents, Amiano, Cocchiola, Orechio, Scarpelli and Assemblyman John Kelly. We commend John Nosti, Frank Rusignuolo, Bob Rusignuolo and Walter Smith for their willingness to sacrifice an important part of their personal lives in order to better serve the people of our community — and, if not this time, there is a next time.

EASTERN AIRLINES cancelled its West Palm Beach flight Saturday, and its able shift manager, Bill Shultz, arranged for accommodations aboard a Continental Flight to West Palm Beach. Readers of this column know well my frequent praises of Eastern. Well, I have news for you, the Continental equipment is far superior to the average Eastern Airlines plane that I have taken all these 22 years. And — the Continental flight attendants were fantastic, especially Cynthia Lyons of Avenel, N.J. and Carol Anne Rhea of Richmond Heights, Ohio. The plane was piloted by Captain Douglas Jensen who provided a rather smooth ride to West Palm. I have no hesitation to fly Continental again — either by accident or design.

LATE Friday I made a "delicious" mistake. I stopped in at the Crescenzi family Gelateria on Darling Avenue, Nutley. I had a jumbo banana split, which I enjoyed for the next two days. The two cups of delicious capuccino was just what the doctor would have ordered, if I called upon him.

AND speaking of doctors, my warm personal congratulations to my dear friend, Dr. Albert Gaydos, as he celebrates fifty years of looking after the welfare of his patients. Our records indicate that I first sought his expert service 27 years' ago. While we celebrate Dr. Gaydos' fifty years practice of medicine, let us also take a bow toward his wife, Bunny, who's always at his side, manifesting a family interest in a patient's welfare.

SHERIFF Thomas D'Alessio, chairman of the dinner honoring Dr. A. Zachary Yamba, president of the Essex County College, addressed an invitation to "Mayor" Peter Scarpelli. Is the Sheriff making a prediction? Is he predicting a replay of the 1948 results?

I ENJOYED the OBC-TV segments, "Harry Chenoweth Reminiscences." I'd like to see more from Harry on his memories of politics beginning with the 1931 election of his pal, John Lucy, to the Board of Education. John and Harry served for many years as ushers at St. Mary's 10 o'clock Mass.

SUNDAY is Mother's Day. I don't have mine — I hope you have yours. A person is given one mother in life — and too often, she is taken for granted. It would be a wonderful day if each day we rise to greet the morning sun, that we also thank God for giving us a wonderful mother. If your mother is still living, embrace her and kiss her — for you owe her much.

Optimist Dinner held

A crowd of over 200 attended the Belleville Optimist Club's first "Friends of Youth" awards dinner honoring Anthony Carrino, former Belleville Mayor Michael Marotti and Superintendent of Schools Michael Nardiello Friday night in the Branchbrook Manor.

The gala was termed a success by Optimist Club President Emil Nardachone who had thought of the concept over six months ago. "We talked about it in October when I became president," recalled Nardachone. "It began to gell five months ago and we made plans three months ago."

"The main theme of the Optimist Club is youth," he continued. "The slogan 'Friend of Youth' is the international slogan of the club."

The 12 members of the Board of Directors made suggestions and discussed many different candidates before selecting Carrino, Marotti and Nardiello, according to Nardachone. He said he was pleased that such diverse, individuals were chosen.

"We looked at the accomplishments of the three, we were looking for a mix," stated Nardachone, "of educators, government officials and individuals who helped athletics. Instead of limiting it to one person we decided on the three."

"We looked at a lot of different individuals, a lot of people who may in the future be honored," he said.

Despite the admitted success of the evening and the many worthy people for the award, Nardachone said the dinner may not be an annual occurrence. The 43 member club, 17 new members have come aboard since Nardachone became president, holds many events throughout the year, including a few upcoming events.

Later this month the club will hold "Respect for Law" week, honor three Belleville representatives of a state essay contest tonight and be a presenter, along with the Marotti Civic Association, of the awards to the highest rated Belleville High School students. This comes on the heels of such things as an oratorical competition, held last Thursday, a $550 donation for the new weightroom at the high school, Easter Egg hunt, essay contests and a Junior Varsity baseball tournament.

But Friday night belonged to the three friends of youth and the three were more than honored with the awards they received. Carrino, who has received 21 accommodations as a Newark police officer, considered it a special honor since he is not from Belleville.

"Some are fortunate to work in public service and I'm so blessed," said Nardiello, who called the award a "coveted honor." "There's not greater joy than to see someone slighted by nature rise above and accomplish something some people didn't think they could do."

"Growing up with a name like the three of ours (Carrino and Nardiello) and living in Silver Lake — no one knew you," recalled Marotti. "I decided while I was in the service to help the youth, anyone not just from Silver Lake." Marotti was one of the leaders in getting Little League started in town back in 1951 and his civic association is constantly helping athletic and social organizations.

NO TAMPERING WITH STATISTICS

Prior to the introduction of the child-resistant bottle, accidental ingestion of aspirin accounted for most accidental poisonings among children in this country. According to the National Center for Health Statistics, 92 children died of aspirin overdose in 1967. By the time aspirin bottles were outfitted with tamper-resistant caps in 1972, that figure had dropped to 46. Everyone's hopes were finally met in 1985 when it was reported that not a single child under age 5 died from accidental aspirin poisoning. This hopeful statistic is bolstered by others. Between 1972 and 1984, childhood deaths from other drugs has declined by more than two-thirds. This is wonderful news for us all, and a tribute to the drug industry's commitment to safety.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Gerald Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

Won by her love

A brilliant American student of wealthy parents fell a victim of infidelity to God, and turned his back on his early Christian training. One day he was so thoroughly dissatisfied with himself that he remarked to his mother, "I am tired of it all. I am going to leave and will not bother you anymore."

She followed him to the door and pleaded with him and wept over him. Then she gave him her final word, "My boy, when you come to the darkest hour of all, and everything seems lost, if you will honestly call on your mother's God, He will not fail you."

Out into the darkness he went. His sin, particularly his infidelity, was driving him swiftly to destruction. Down, down he went in his headlong, reckless course, until he felt he could endure it no longer.

In a hotel in a certain town, 425 miles from home, he decided to commit suicide. Wearied with his sinful life, he got out of bed at an early hour and prepared to end his life. He said to himself, "I'll bring to an end this farce called 'human life.'"

Just then, there flashed across his memory the last words of his dear mother before he left home years ago: "My boy, when you come to the darkest hour of all and everything seems lost, if you will honestly call on your mother's God, He will not fail you."

A power gripped him, restraining him and bringing him to his knees to pray: "O God of my mother, if there is such a being, I want light. And if Thou wilt give it, no matter how, I will follow it."

God shone into his darkened mind, broke down his stubborn will, and without hesitation he met the terms of the Gospel by faith and claimed Christ as his Savior.

His first thought was to return to his home and tell his mother. To his amazement he saw his mother walking down the garden path to meet him with smiling face and tears, and she exclaimed, "O my son, I know why you are back home. You have found the Lord, for He has told me."

This young man became the well-known evangelist R.A. Torrey, who was used of God to win many people to Christ in many lands. He himself was won to Christ by his mother's love.

Why Mother's Day?

Have you ever stopped to think why we have a Mother's Day? And what reason they had for choosing the month of May? Well, I have given it much thought and consideration, and if I may, these few facts I give for your appreciation.

To me the month of May is the beginning of new life. When the bare trees and ground feed on God's glorious sunlight. To see His hands mold and make each flower. Sometimes adding His love in a form of heavenly showers.

Now when I think of "Mother," I also think of a new birth and how, through God's power, a babe she brings to earth. He has entrusted to her keeping a vessel that is His and that, through her example for Christ, he too will live.

Just as the sunshine in May brings forth these sweet savors, so does a Christian Mother who strives to gain God's favor. She's loved and cherished by her family, one and all. And by those who know her — be they big or small.

These are just a few reasons I give you for thought and I'm sure you'll agree they add up to a lot. Thank God for His mercy, His love, and grace, being constantly reminded when I look on Mother's face.

We honor Mother not just in May... but every day!

MOTHER

Who else, in all creation's span,
Can comfort like a mother can?
Who else can gently dry our tears,
And somehow calm our deepest fears?
Who else can make us glow inside
Like Mother, when she smiles with pride?
About some little thing we've done,
And say, "My daughter!" or "My son!"

And when we're wounded — tell me this,
What heals us more than Mother's kiss?
With her assurance pain must go,
Because she says it will be so!
We think of this, our mother's love,
and hear a whisper from above:
"Just as thy mother's watchful eye Guards and cares for thee, so will I."

Members of The Commons say problems are vanishing

By Tom Sullivan

Two members of the board of directors at The Commons, the 432-unit co-op that straddles the Nutley-Belleville border, say problems that made headlines during the winter are vanishing with the spring.

Early this year apartment buyers and tenants formed an association to do battle with Franklin Sponsors, developer of the co-op, because they claimed poor management and massive tax hikes made life in the complex impossible and lowered property values so that it was impossible to sell their units.

They claimed that many apartments had inadequate heat, sewage was backing up in some sections, exterior maintenance has been neglected and potential buyers were being turned off because six apartments burned out last summer remained a gutted and blackened eyesore.

Two board members, Marie Santafemia, who serves as secretary, and Frank McCloskey, who is also treasurer, said that the problems have been systematically tackled, with many already eliminated and others nearing solution.

They acknowledged that the heat and sewer difficulties were very real and given top priority.

"The heating deficiency was a congenital one, going back to the original design of the complex," said McCloskey. "The boilers are in very good condition but the inclines were inadequate so that apartments at the end of the line were not getting heat."

He said that A.O. Smith booster circulators have been installed and heat is now reaching all units.

The sewage complaints also reflected a long-term problem, McCloskey said, with backups corrected as soon as they were reported but fresh ones occurring almost immediately.

"We got the original blueprints and located manhole covers long overgrown or covered with earth," McCloskey said. "That enabled crews to clean the lines and what they took out obviously went back to the earliest tenant days. Pampers, rubber gloves and other debris that should never have gone down the toilet. We think this has resolved that problem."

Ms. Santafemia said that Franklin Sponsors has been putting in about $50,000 a month to resolve the problems, and this was paying for painting and rehabilitation of the wood and brick exterior, which will continue throughout the summer.

Fire damage, too

She said that the gutted apartments are also now undergoing rehabilitation, that the grounds have been cleaned up after winter and the guard house is now manned 24 hours a day.

"There were complaints about lack of communication between management and occupants," Ms. Santafemia went on, "so that has been addressed with a newsletter, and the manager, Toni Carter, who has been there since November, has been given high marks for her availability and success in dealing with day to day problems."

She acknowledged that tax increases have caused a hardship for apartment owners, and said the board has joined the Belleville Co-Op Association, which is trying to relieve the problem of paying twice for garbage removal.

"We suffer these huge property tax hikes because the town gets a dramatic increase in its garbage collection bill," she explained, "but they do not collect our garbage. We have to hire our own contractor for that, so we get a huge increase in that direct cost, too. Actually, we have negotiated a contract that saves us $13,000, but we are still paying twice for this item."

She said of 7,932 dwelling units in Belleville, 783 are co-ops or condominiums with the same problem of paying twice for garbage collection, and they expect to eventually mount a challenge to either have the municipal contractor collect the refuse or the township give them a tax rebate.

The 15-year-old complex, sponsored for co-opping in 1986 by a group of Bergen County lawyers headed by developer James Demetrakis, has undergone substantial tax increases in both Nutley and Belleville, adding $2.02 in costs per share held by the occupants and non-resident investors.

Apartment owners have between 750 and 1,250 shares depending on size, which means the addition of $1,500 to $2,500 a year.

In 1986 the complex was assessed by Nutley at $4,062,100 but after the co-op went through, that figure jumped to $9,091,400. The new figure was appealed and reduced to $7,791,400, taxed at the township rate of $6.89, which will increase this year.

In Belleville the 1985 assessment of $3,995,000 was unchanged in 1986 but skyrocketed to $9,725,100 in 1987 with a tax rate of $6.87.

These costs are passed on in the form of monthly service charges assessed by the co-op management, which range from $620 to well over $1,000, plus a mandatory annual charge of $325 for pool and recreational facilities and $20 per parking space.

"The monthly maintenance charge is 76-percent federal tax deductible," said Ms. Santafemia, "because it represents taxes and the basic co-op mortgage. Of course individual buyers who also took out mortgages must add that payment in to their monthly overhead."

A one bedroom apartment in the complex presently has a market value in the mid $60,000's and two bedroom units perhaps $10,000 more, McCloskey said, adding that persons who were tenants there at the time of co-opping bought at insider prices that were as low as $38,000 a unit.

Currently the sponsor has about 35 apartments unsold, which are being offered from $62,500 up.

Resident given fine

The Associated Humane Societies received a phone call from a Belleville resident who complained about opossums in his yard. The Society's Animal Control Officer, Richard Becker, visited the residence and was met by the property owner, Joseph Sicca, who advised he had stabbed an opossum with a pitchfork. Officer Becker immediately went to the area and found the opossum had a pitchfork driven through the neck and into the ground.

Afraid to remove the pitchfork for fear of doing further damage, he brought the opossum and pitchfork back to the Society immediately where the Medical Department staff had been alerted. The opossum was tranquilized and the veterinary staff removed the pitchfork and began the long and tedious process of cleaning out the wounds. Several hours later, the opossum passed away and an autopsy indicated it resulted from a small tear in the esophagus.

Society Executive Director Lee Bernstein, who is also an SPCA agent, signed complaints against Sicca and the matter was heard before Belleville Municipal Court Judge Frank Zinna who fined Sicca $50.

Sicca had also complained about another opossum in his yard. Before leaving the scene, Becker located the terrified animal hiding in a grapevine. The opossum was captured and released later that night in a safely wooded area.

DIDN'T SURVIVE — This opossum couldn't survive a brutal attack by a Belleville resident.

Board of Ed voices displeasure

fatality but personnel cuts can not be made because help and guidance must be provided to the students by teachers and administrators.

"You can call it fat and make personnel cuts and look like miracle workers," said Borgo, "but $800,000 is a lot of money and you can't do it to a school system."

"We have improved and move forward," said Phil Linfante, "cuts like these would reverse what we've done for the last five years. There is no doubt it would definitely effect the children. If we're not going to fight for the children we don't belong here."

Board Vice President Patricia Pisano said the needs of the children and the improved conditions of the schools would be hurt by the cuts. She also wondered aloud what cuts the commissioners have made on the municipal budget.

"What are they cutting?" asked Pisano. "They're making cuts at the expense of our children. I resent the grandstanding at the effect of our children."

D'Agostino said he realized it was a catch-22 situation with so many residents living on fixed incomes and the budget rising. He said the board has been in private discussions to try and find a workable solution.

Gabe Nazzola, who worked with Town Attorney Frank Cozzarelli on some of the cuts made by the commissioners, called the other cuts "stupid." He also said, with no disrespect, that part of the problem may have been the commissioners are not educated enough on a school budget to make proper cuts.

Agree with cuts

There were other citizens who were opposed to the voice of the board and suggested they take a look back and evaluate the situation before they make any final decisions.

"You people can afford to pay the taxes because you make money until the cows come home," said Michael Giordano. "I'm on a fixed income, I can't afford it. I'll have to move out."

"You look at one side," he continued, "the school side. You don't look at your responsibility to the public."

Cornelius VanderZwan agreed with Giordano, saying the board doesn't have "the slightest concern for the public." He said the board arbitrarily makes decisions that are unpopular with the public.

"Why don't you increase the Current Expense account since you collect interest on it?" asked Ed Torti. "You think your top heavy with administration. Why do you think that now when for two years the people have been telling you about it?"

In an effort to help the budget difficulties, a resolution was passed Monday night requesting money from the state surplus be used as compensation for the loss of full funding over the last two years. The board also passed the calendar for next year with an amendment stating a half day on January 16, for remembrance of Martin Luther King, Jr. The day had been completely off but was changed to half day so classes could end Friday, June 23 instead of Monday, June 26.

Friendly Visitors Program

Nearly 100 volunteers will be recognized on Thursday, May 12, at a 6:00 p.m. dinner to be held at Fewsmith Presbyterian Church, 444 Union Ave., Belleville.

The volunteers who serve through the Friendly Visitors Program, a part of Community Mental Health Services, made nearly 12,000 phone calls and almost 7,000 hours of visiting with the frail elderly of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

Ellen Williams, Gerontology Consultant, will reflect on the Oral History project volunteers have participated in this year. Schedule: 6:00 p.m. - Dinner; 7:00 p.m. - Program, Oral History Report and Certificate Distribution.

School Seven 'goes to the dogs'

Belleville School 7 has gone to the dogs, or at least it did last week, as the 4-H Seeing Eye Puppy Project made a visit to town to discuss the program.

Four members of the program, along with a blind woman, and seeing eye dogs took centerstage as children ages nine and above listened intently but mostly enjoyed watching the Golden Retriever, Labrador Retriever and German Sheppard puppies that accompanied the trainers. Seeing eye dogs come from these three breeds and the only time another dog is used is when the blind person is allergic, when a boxer is used.

"They're the only ones used because they have the right temperament and intelligence," said Audrey Kaplonsky. "They're called 'working class' dogs because they thrive on working, it's what they enjoy."

Sally Garland, the blind woman, agreed, saying, "she loves her work" about her Labrador, Vanna.

The dogs are bred in a special kennel in Mendham, New Jersey, except for Golden Retrievers which are purchased by the organization. When the puppy reaches eight to ten weeks of age, the 4-H receives the dogs and for the next three months, get them acclimated to life outside the kennel.

"We train the dogs to get used to car riding, the regular hustle and bustle of family life plus the quiet times around a house," said Kaplonsky.

The 4-H volunteers have all veterinarian bills paid for and receive $50 a month which covers dog food expenses. The program, established in 1941, is available to anyone over the age of nine, as long as youngsters receive permission from their parents. Other programs include dog obedience and small animal training.

"Vanna has memorized the food store, dentist's office, doctor's office, the pharmacist and I tell her we're going to one of those places and she leads me right to it," said Garland. "The bank is her favorite stop because they have dog biscuits, so I tell her we're going to the 'cookie bank.'"

Garland said seeing eye dogs usually are used for eight to ten years because age sets in and the dogs are no longer sufficient enough to do everything necessary. The dog can then be kept as a pet or sold.

A dog show will be held in Brookdale Park in June to showcase these amazing animals.

VIP service

Due to popular demand, a special service aimed at cutting down on automobile theft will again be offered by the Belleville Police Department and the Essex County Sheriff's Office.

Known as the "VIP" (Vehicle Identification Program), it is designed to help prevent car theft and to help return stolen vehicles to their owners. The service involves etching the vehicle identification number on the windows of an automobile with a special indelible chemical. The vehicle window will also display a decal stating that the auto has been registered with the VIP program.

The program is being conducted by the Sheriff's Office in cooperation with the Belleville Police. According to Sheriff D'Alessio and Chief Lister, the VIP program is of special value to owners of new and high priced autos.

Sheriff's Deputies will etch the vehicle identification number on the car windows of any Belleville resident wishing to participate.

The program will be conducted on Saturday, May 14, from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the rear parking lot of the Belleville Police Department, at 152 Washington Avenue.

There is no charge for the VIP service. Residents wishing more information about the program can call the Belleville Police Department at 450-3365.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSINESS DESK

By David Bryant

Vac-U-Max
37 Rutgers Street
Belleville, N.J. 07109
759-4600

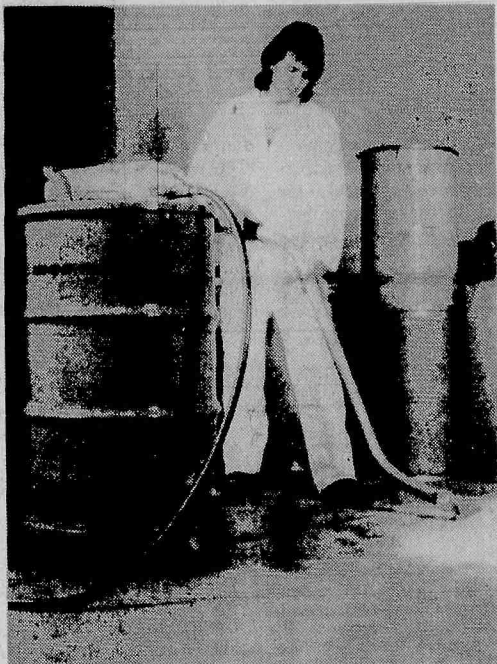

Belleville has long had an ideal commercial mix of manufacturing, sales and service companies. One Belleville Chamber member combining these three kinds of elements into one thriving enterprise is Vac-U-Max located at 37 Rutgers Street. Vac-U-Max has been in Belleville since the company was founded more than thirty years ago.

Vac-U-Max is recognized as a leading supplier of both of its major product lines - pneumatic conveyors for movement of dry materials and small parts in pharmaceutical plants, chemical processing plants, food processing plants and many others - and heavy duty vacuum cleaning equipment for use in practically every type of industrial environment. Its products are widely advertised in prominent industrial trade journals and are sold throughout the world by a well trained and experienced sales network.

The service aspect of the company's business comes into play before, during and after the sale. Most Vac-U-Max systems are fairly sophisticated and are designed to the customers' requirements. This requires close cooperation between Vac-U-Max engineers, the sales representative, and the technical people at a customer's facility, frequently before a job can even be quoted. This liaison necessarily continues throughout the fabrication period and after delivery, until the system is working to the customers' satisfaction. The company's thirty plus years of experience have earned it a top ranking as a problem-solver in its products areas.

Vac-U-Max employs seventy-four people in a wide array of management, technical, fabrication and assembly positions. Management credits the skills and dependability of its locally recruited work force with building the company's image as a top quality manufacturer. Doing business in Belleville since 1957 has also led Vac-U-Max to join one hundred seventy other members of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce in saying, "It's Better in Belleville."

Members of the Chamber who are interested in promoting their business, may address their information to David Bryant, c/o Belleville Chamber of Commerce, 155A Washington Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07109, 759-4848. Anyone wishing to join the chamber... please call 759-4848 between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Surgeons approve program

The Commission on Cancer of the American College of Surgeons has renewed its approval of the cancer program at Clara Maass Medical Center. This achievement acknowledges staff dedication to providing high-quality care to patients with cancer.

Established by the American College of Surgeons in 1956, the nation-wide Hospital Cancer Program encourages participating hospitals to equip and staff themselves for up-to-date diagnosis and treatment of cancer. Recognizing that cancer is a complex group of diseases, the program promotes consultation among family physicians, surgeons, medical oncologists, diagnostic and therapeutic radiologists, pathologists, and other cancer specialists.

An integral part of a hospital's cancer program is its Registry. All patients who are diagnosed or treated for cancer are listed in the Registry so that the hospital can follow-up for continuing care and assistance with rehabilitation. Statistics collected through the Registry allow Clara Maass Medical Center to participate in national studies designed to improve patient care.

The American Cancer Society estimates that 985,000 cases of cancer will be diagnosed in the United States during 1988. Although only one-sixth of the nation's hospitals have approved cancer programs, 68 percent of patients who are newly diagnosed with cancer are treated in these hospitals.

A newly renovated 50-bed Medical/Oncology Unit at Clara Maass Medical Center, providing centralized treatment and care for cancer patients, is one of the largest in New Jersey.

Dear Friend:

Commissioner Carmen A. Orechio has been part of Nutley's township government these past 20 years during which time he has performed admirably and with distinction.

He has demonstrated a sincere leadership quality many will find hard to match.

Carmen has been a dedicated, caring public servant — he has helped so many of us in so many ways, at all hours of the day and night, rendering a unique service we have come to almost take for granted.

The Commissioner is once again a candidate for reelection. He needs our help.

Please contact your friends and relatives in Nutley and ask them to consider casting one of their votes for Carmen when they go to the polls on Tuesday, May 10th. His lever number is 5A.

Many thanks for your help.

What Season Is Your Mother?

Let her know with a gift certificate for a Color Analysis by Angela.
Certified Color and Make-up Artist

We start by giving you a three-step facial, which cleanses the face of all make-up. Only then can a person's unique skin tones be determined under our special lights.

We then drape you with as many as 60 different colors. In a very short time you will be absolutely sure which shades are right for you. Once your season has been confirmed, you will be graded on each color in your seasonal group to determine which are the very best shades for your particular combination of features.

You will then be offered a purse-sized color palette to be used as a shopping guide to give direction in your wardrobe planning. It contains the following:

- Fabric swatches of your 30 personal colors and their grades.
- A 20-page informative booklet on your seasonal personality, styles, fabrics and accessories.
- An EXCLUSIVE COLOR GRID, which will show you how to create desired impressions and influence reactions of those around you by choosing certain colors.

Also included is a make-over using our unique line of seasonally coordinated cosmetics, designed to enhance your personal coloring and complete your Total Look. You will learn techniques of make-up application and how to emphasize your best features.

Recipe for your beautiful skin

By Elena Belloix
Owner of Balneo-Esthetic

A beautiful skin is not just an inherited feature, it also is prove of a healthy body and mind.

The condition of the skin is determined by general health, nutrition, personal life style, stress, climatic changes and skin care routine.

The skin is one of the most vital organs of our body, its functions are extremely important for maintaining the life itself. The elimination process, the necessary condition of a healthy organism is the main function of the skin. When in certain situations our body is not able to eliminate the metabolic waste, the skin is one of the first organs affected, showing inside problems through several modifications in color, texture, tone, moisture, etc.

Other organs playing an important role in the whole elimination process of the human organisms are the lungs, kidneys and small intestines.

Any problems affecting these organs, such as breathing difficulties (asthma, sinusitis or respiratory allergies), water retention in the case of kidney trouble, acne and blemishes in a situation of chronic constipation, create a certain type of skin that I was able to help it along in may career only by knowing these facts.

The excessive use of tobacco, drugs, alcohol or longtime use of medication modify also the skin condition, creating a pale skin, distention of the capillaries, poor tonus, poor elasticity, dryness, blemishes, high sensitivity. This is a skin type professionally called "asphyxiated" meaning a skin that can not breathe.

Another important fact of our today life affecting our skin more and more, involving the whole quality of human health, is the "syndrom of indoor existence," — a long time spent inside the house, at work, in the car. The medical scientists warn the public to spend more hours in outdoor activities, to enjoy the sun, the fresh air, the woods, the sea and the mountains.

Man needs more contact with the natural environment in order to strengthen the resistance of the organism, to breathe better, to increase the cardiovascular activity, the glandular functions, and to relax the nervous system.

The easiest way to constantly maintain contact with the outdoor environment is to walk — a wonderful exercise for the body and mind.

If you practice walking every day for at least one hour, your skin will look healthy, and have a special glow.

The human being is a product of nature and its functions are in accordance with the rules of nature. Today it is well known that many of the illnesses effecting our organisms are produced by a poor adaptability to the environment, a result of very limited exposure to the outdoor life.

Spring is the best season for changes — a new diet, a new attitude, new look, sometimes even a new job. This is the time to become an outdoor person and learn to love it.

Following are some easy tips for a better appearance and healthier body and skin:

In the morning take a vigorous shower, alternating warm and cold temperature to stimulate the cardiovascular activity. Let the water run at least 5 minutes along your spine. Use cold water on the face, splashing it a couple of times.

Do not skip your breakfast, this is the most important meal of the day. Eat some fresh fruit, fiber cereals, especially if you have elimination problems.

On the clean skin use a small amount of your toner and a light moisturizer. If your body skin is dry, apply a body milk, 30 min. before you get dressed. Do not forget your hand cream, hands are very dry in the spring.

Try to walk to your office, at least two times a week, if, of course, the place is nearby.

While you work, drink plenty of mineral water and fresh juice. After lunch, go outdoors, or at least open the windows wide. When the work day is over, before dinner, take a walk near the house or in the park for 20 min. to free your spirit from all the work pressure. Being more relaxed, you'll have better digestion and will be more pleasant with your family.

Remove your make-up as soon as you arrive home, using your appropriate skin cleansing. Do not forget to always rinse your face with cold water. Blot your toner all over the face and neck, and that's all. Let the skin breathe, after 8 hours of make-up, perspiration and pollution.

In case of very dry, aged conditions, a night cream is indicated. If you use organic cosmetics such as seawater, algae or plant extracts, you will follow the best skin care routine. These kind of products are proved scientifically to slow the aging process of the skin, to heal the tissues, to purify the skin, to hydrate better than any creams and maintain a very clean skin.

All the toners that I use in my salon are pure seawater, seawater with herbal extracts, seawater with algae extracts. The results are very much appreciated by my customers.

These products are used for all kinds of skin, dry, sensitive, blemished or acne. Once a week you can do your mini-facial home along with the monthly professional facial. Steam your face with chamomille flowers or mint, use some corn meal as a scrub to remove the blackheads, prepare your own toner, mixing a couple of drops of orange juice in a base of mineral water, and at the end, apply a light moisturizer (or a egg yolk mixed with 1 tbsp. of honey). An appropriate mask for your type of skin is indicted at least once a week.

For persons over 35 years old, professional skin care is necessary. A visit to a specialized salon will be not just a skin cleansing, but also an education time for yourself. Never overdo with nourishing creams, moisturizers, protection or others. These synthetic made products will work against their good intention. Their role is to stimulate the main functions of the skin, and give a chance to the skin to play its part. When an overdose of cosmetics is poured into the skin, the natural ability of this organ to do something, becomes extremely poor.

Persons with skin problems should always follow professional advise, medical or a skin care specialist. Never buy cosmetics, no matter how famous they are, to apply on blemished skin without seeking professional expertise. Women with children are the ones that require more special care for their skin, because of the many body changes due to pregnancy, nursing, stress of raising children, taking care of the family.

For these mothers, an hour of relaxing facial or body care will be "heaven." They need more hours outdoor, to relieve the stress of everyday pressure.

When my children were babies, I used to hold one and carry the other one on my back, and walk for hours. We were on trips together in the mountains, at the sea-side and I never had a pain or a headache, due to the relaxing feeling nature was always able to offer me.

Most of my customers are mother, and I like to believe that they came to me as a friend who understands their needs, not just for having a skin treatment.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Having spent last weekend in Cincinnati, Ohio, I had the chance to see the excitement generated by the Cincinnati Bengal organization regarding its selections in the recent NFL draft. Two former NNJIL standouts were among the players selected by the Bengals. One of those players, of course, is our own David Grant, who was graduated from Belleville High School in 1983 and had a standout career at the University of West Virginia.

Grant and Brandy Wells, who starred for Montclair High and later, Notre Dame, were both selected by the Bengals in the early rounds. Grant went in the fourth round and is being viewed by the Bengals as a nose guard or possible defensive end.

Ironically, it was Grant's play against Wells back in a 1982 high school football game that put the Bellevilleite on the map to the big time college scouts.

Let's set the scene. Belleville and Montclair were playing a big high school football game in the fourth week of the 1982 season. Both clubs were undefeated and both were ranked highly in the state rankings. Belleville had outscored its first three opponents, 67-2, and was coming off a 37-0 whitewash of Clifton the previous week.

The Buccaneer defense was spearheaded by Grant and Craig Mack, and was led on offense by quarterback John Borrello and

By Mike Lamberti

Michael Murphy, a junior running back who would later rush for 1,000 yards.

Montclair was paced by Wells, an outstanding running back and defensive back. The Mounties, as usual, were big and quick and had the ability to score early and often.

Montclair jumped out to an early lead, and when Wells intercepted a Borrello pass, he was clear to the end zone for a third Montclair score. Belleville head coach John Senesky remembers the play.

"Wells was gone, no doubt about it, but a lot of college scouts who saw that film remember David's speed in trying to catch Wells. For a big man, David could move and he impressed a lot of people with his determination and athletic ability on that play."

Montclair went on to win the game, 22-2. Belleville would not lose another regular season game for the remainder of the '82 season. The Mounties and Bucs both advanced to the Group IV, Section II playoffs. Belleville lost to Union, 12-7 and Montclair defeated Columbia. In the championship game, Union defeated Montclair.

The Bucs of '82 tied for the NNJIL championship with Montclair and both Grant and Wells earned a number of post season accolades.

"David was a tough player to motivate, sometimes," recalled Senesky. "He was just so good, that he didn't have too many challenges in practice. When it came to the game, though, he was tremendous. His size and speed were excellent."

"I had the chance to talk with him the other day, and he's very excited about being drafted. We, as coaches, are also very proud. David is a class athlete and he worked very hard to get where he is. I couldn't be happier for him."

While Senesky and his staff are happy, Grant's family is boarding on ecstatic. David's father, John Grant, a highly respected educator in the Orange school system, spoke with me last Monday evening and expressed the family's feelings on the important day.

"It was a long day," the elder Grant recalled of the NFL draft. "ESPN was televising the draft and only did the first three rounds on TV. David was getting impatient, and after the third round, was speaking to a friend on the telephone."

"We have call waiting, so we didn't know when the call finally came through. We just heard David yelling and we knew it was good news."

Grant received the call from the Bengals head coach, Sam Wyche. Shortly after, the celebration began, in earnest, for the Grant family.

"This is something David has always wanted," John Grant said. "We're all very proud and very happy. David is very excited about the opportunity and is looking forward to starting work."

A Cincinnati newspaper ran a picture of Grant in last Wednesday's issue and the Bengals seem high on his ability.

Grant attended the Bengals mini camp for rookies after the draft and will then get ready for summer camp. He is the first Bellevilleite to be drafted since Steve Ferrughelli earned the honor in the mid 1960's with the New Orleans Saints.

Grant will be going to a Bengal team that was 4-11 in 1987. The Bengals have a proud tradition of football excellence and are building a young team. The Bengals entered the professional ranks in 1968 as a member of the AFL and two years later, pulled a big surprise by winning the AFC Central Division title.

The Bengals best season was 1981, when the team posted a 12-4 record and won the AFC championship. Cincinnati lost in the Super Bowl to San Francisco, 26-21.

The Times will follow Grant's budding NFL career through the summer months, and hopefully, into the fall. Next week, a talk with the man himself and his feelings about becoming a professional athlete.

ATHLETES ON THE RISE

The spring sports at Belleville have been doing pretty well. Accolades this week to some outstanding athletes that have helped their teams to success. Racquel Melson has become a powerful batter for the softball team. The senior centerfielder cracked a grand slam homer last week and has been tough to stop.

Also for the softball team, Laurie Dondarski continues her excellent play. The junior second baseman has been hitting the ball very well and leads the way in stolen bases.

For the track team, Mario Lemongello has been having an excellent season. The versatile athlete competes in the 400 meters, the 200 meters and the mile relay team.

The golf team, under the guidance of coach Gene D'Allesandro, has jumped out to a 6-2 record. Anthony Alvino has done a good job at the number one position for the Bucs. He has been consistently in the low 40's over nine holes. Belleville won a big match over Caldwell last week and is gunning for a shot at the prestigious state tournament. In addition, the team is hoping to win a second straight NNJIL title.

Corino close to milestone

Lady Bucs get back on track, defeat league rivals to boost record 11-4

After struggling through a week of injuries and losses two weeks ago, the Belleville softball team got back on the winning track, beating league rivals Eastside, Montclair and Passaic. The wins boosted Belleville's record to 11-4 on the 1988 season and moved coach Carl Corino closer to that milestone of 200 career victories.

Belleville battled Nutley, yesterday, in an NNJIL contest. This afternoon, the Lady Bucs take on Good Council in the first round of the Essex County tournament. Belleville was seeded third in this years tourney. Tomorrow, the team is host to Kennedy and next Monday, will be at Clifton. Next Wednesday, Bloomfield comes to town. All games commence at 4 p.m.

Last week, Belleville defeated Eastside, 8-1, Montclair, 12-1 and Passaic, 17-2. In all three games, Belleville's offense was in high gear, with Racquel Melson and Laurie Dondarski leading the way.

The week started with the bad news that had been somewhat expected. Slugging first baseman Carol Morrison sustained knee ligament and cartilage damage and underwent major surgery. Obviously, she's out for the remainder of the season, but more importantly, our best wishes are extended to Carol for a complete and successful recovery.

Against Eastside, Belleville received a fine pitching effort from sophomore Tricia Donnelly. She struck out seven, walked just one and allowed only five hits in hurling a complete game and boosting her season record to 2-1.

At the plate, Dondarski had an outstanding ball game, going 2 for 2. She scored four runs and stole five bases on the afternoon.

Janine Luzzi, who injured her wrist in the Clifton game, was back in the lineup as a designated hitter. The senior was 1 for 2 and drove home a run in her first game in ten days. Laurie Moyer hit the ball well in the Eastside game, as did Melson.

Against Montclair, Belleville broke open a tight contest with eight runs in the fifth inning. Although the final score was a comfortable 12-1 margin, Corino felt his club was well tested.

"They gave us a battle," he said. "We got some breaks in the fifth inning and took advantage of them. It was a good game for Luzzi, too, on the mound. In fact, I thought it might have been her best game of the season so far."

Luzzi pitched a complete game, striking out four, walking two and allowing just two hits. In addition, the senior hurler retired the last 16 batters of the ball game in improving her season mark to 8-3.

In Belleville's big fifth inning, the eight runs were scored by Natalie La Bella, Anne Carlucci, Dondarski, Michele Milano, Melson, Luzzi, Jennifer Bridge and Simone Edwards. La Bella, Milano and Luzzi all walked in the inning and Edwards had a two run double.

In the game, Dondarski was 3 for 4, Melson, 2 for 4 with 3 RBI's, Bridge, who has been playing very well, was 2 for 4, Edwards had 2 RBI's and Milano was 1 for 2.

The game with Passaic lasted just five innings as Belleville built a 15 run lead. The Lady Bucs had 16 hits in the contest and the game marked the return of Stacey Johansen to the Belleville lineup.

Johansen, a sophomore, had been sidelined with a knee injury, but she was able to play against Passaic and served as the team DH. She was 2 for 3, and Corino hopes to have her on the pitching mound for some action in the future.

The day, however, belonged to Melson, the senior centerfielder. She was 2 for 4, with 5 RBI's, including a grand slam homer.

"Racquel has been playing very well," Corino said. "She's become our big RBI leader."

Dondarski also had two hits, Luzzi was 2 for 3 and Moyer finished 3 for 4.

As for the Essex County tournament, Belleville was seeded third, behind top seeded Caldwell and second seed, Livingston. Caldwell has won the tournament the past two years, beating Belleville in the championship game both times. Rounding out the top seeds this year are Cedar Grove at 4, Nutley, fifth and Verona, sixth.

If Belleville beats Good Council today, its next opponent will be Verona, on or about May 14. Verona has an outstanding pitcher and Corino feels it will be a very difficult contest.

As for Corino, this afternoon's game with Good Council could have very special meaning. If Belleville defeated Nutley yesterday, it would have been Corino's 199th career win, setting up the milestone victory for this afternoon against Good Council at Clearmon Field. Corino started coaching Belleville softball in 1980 and has guided the program to a record to 198-47 entering yesterday's game with Nutley.

Key to Buc's continued success relies on staying with fundamentals

It has become obvious that the key to success for the Belleville baseball team is an aggressive, fundamentally sound game. When the Bucs play to that tune, the result is usually favorable. When they don't, it can be a long afternoon on the diamond.

Last week, Belleville showed both sides of that scenario. The Bucs posted victories over Bloomfield, 20-10 and Passaic, 3-1. In between those wins, Belleville tied Eastside, 5-5 and were blitzed by Montclair, 10-3. The game with Eastside will be made up as a new ball game on May 17, at Eastside High.

Belleville took a 7-6-1 record into a game with Nutley yesterday. Tomorrow, the team is at Kennedy in a 4 p.m. start. Next Monday, the Bucs are host to Clifton and next Wednesday, it's a game against Bloomfield, on the road. All games start at 4 p.m. In the meantime, head coach Nick Grande is waiting on the results of the Greater Newark Tournament draw. The Bucs will probably be in a preliminary game, but it wasn't known for sure when, or where, the game would be played.

Belleville started the week by blitzing arch rival Bloomfield, 20-10, at home. This was a game where the Belleville bats took center stage, banging out 21 hits on the afternoon.

Bloomfield got its share of dingers, too, connecting for 10 runs on 12 hits, but Belleville had more offense on the afternoon. The Bucs jumped out to a 5-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning, but Bloomfield came right back with five runs of its own in the top of the second inning off Belleville pitcher Frank Orrei.

The Bucs broke it open in the bottom of the second inning, scoring eight runs, with a Mike Di Biase homer leading the way. Belleville scored one in the fourth inning and tallied six more runs in the fifth to complete the high scoring day. Bloomfield gained two runs in the fourth inning and three in the fifth to close out its scoring.

Orrei went all the way for Belleville, striking out six and walking five batters. On the offense, Jay Marchese had three hits, including a homer and 5 RBI's, Gary Villano had a homer, Di Biase smacked two home runs and drove in five runs, P.J. Grande was 2 for 3, Jeff Spilbury was 3 for 3, Anthony Rodriguez was 2 for 4, George Speer was 3 for 5 and Mike Thompson finished 2 for 2.

Belleville's next game was against Paterson Eastside, but the game ended in a 5 all tie after 10 innings of play. League rules dictate that a tie game is to be made up in its entirety, not from the point of suspension, thus the two teams will start all over again on May 17.

Against Montclair, Belleville played one of its poorer games, losing by a 10-3 margin to the Mounties. The Bucs committed eight errors in the game and allowed seven earned runs.

FOLLOWING THROUGH — Jay Marchese follows through with a pitch in last week's game against Montclair.

Jay Marchese was the starting, and losing pitcher for Belleville. The Mounties big inning came in the third, when they pushed across four runs to take a 6-0 advantage.

Belleville scored once in the bottom of the fourth. George Speer walked, stole second and scored on a single by Villano.

In the sixth, Belleville added two more runs. Mike Finan singled and Speer singled. Both men moved up one base on a throwing error by the Mountie catcher, putting men on

Despite their record, track team is improving

After losing a one sided match to Montclair, the Belleville track team ran well against Passaic last Thursday, but lost by an 82-49 count.

The Bucs also competed in the Millburn Relays last Saturday. Last Tuesday, the team was at Nutley and this weekend, the Bucs take part in the Essex County relays, at Montclair. The event starts tomorrow afternoon and continues Saturday morning.

The Bucs were beaten rather soundly by Montclair, 118-13 on April 19. The Mounties are one of the stronger teams in the NNJIL and were outstanding against Belleville.

Mario Lemongello had the best day for the Bucs, taking a second place in the 400 meters in a time of 55.5 and a third in the 200 meters, 24.8. Freshman Brian Drobish took a third in the 800 meters with a time of 2:32. Dominick Tucci was second in the discus, 94'8" and third in the shot put, 34'11".

Against Passaic, the Bucs went down to defeat, but once again, the team had some good performances, especially in the running events. Lemongello, who is having an excellent campaign, won the 400 meters with a time of 55.7. He was second in the long jump (18'10 1/4") and anchored the winning mile relay team which posted a time of 4:36.5.

The members of that mile relay team were, in addition to Lemon- gello, Jerry Padula, Roger Real and Drobish.

Greg Moriello appears to be back in form after missing the first couple of weeks of practice due to pneumonia. Moriello won the 1600 meters in 5:16.2 and posted a victory in the 3200 meters, 11:35.4.

The Bucs swept the 1600 meters, with Moriello, Gaurav Nanjia (5:28.1) and Angelo Silva (5:33.3) leading the way. In the 3200 meters, in addition to Moriello, Paul Parmenter was second in 11:36.

Sophomore Mark Tonelli won the 800 meters, with his time an impressive 2:16.7. The 400 meter hurdles featured Ted Sochaski as the winner, in a time of 68.9. Ray Zamloot took second in the high jump with a leap of 5'4". Bob Chululandana was second in the pole vault, 8'6" and Charles Gerris placed third, 8'0".

Tucci took a pair of third place finishes in the discus (96'10") and the shot put, (34'11"). Real was

Golf team takes fourth in county championship

The Belleville golf team had an excellent match at the Essex County championships, taking fourth place in a field of 19 teams. The linksters have also compiled a 6-2 record thus far in 1988, and head coach Gene D'Allesandro is optimistic about his teams chances for the remainder of the season.

Belleville battled Hackensack and Bloomfield earlier this week. The Bucs will face Montclair this afternoon in a key NNJIL battle, commencing at 4 p.m. The match will be held at the Montclair Country Club and could determine the conference champion. Tomorrow, the Bucs are host to Eastside High, at Branch Brook Park. Next week, Belleville faces Clifton, at the Upper Montclair Country Club and next Tuesday, it's a match with Glen Ridge, at the Glen Ridge Country Club. All matches begin at 4 p.m.

Thus far this season, Belleville has posted victories over Kearny, Essex Catholic, Paramus, Nutley, second and third base. Thompson grounded out, first baseman to pitcher covering, with Finan scoring on the play. Villano then grounded out shortstop to first, with Speer crossing the plate.

"We didn't play well," said Grande afterward. "I think the kids were a little down after that Eastside game the day before. We were without Rodriguez (who was thrown out of the Eastside game on a controversial call) and I think the team was down."

With Rodriguez back in the lineup last Monday, Belleville defeated Passaic, 3-1. This was a scoreless contest through five innings before Belleville scored twice in the top of the sixth.

Spilsbury started the rally with a single and stolen base. Marchese then singled home Spilsbury and Marchese went all the way to third base on a throwing error. From there, he scored when Rodriguez grounded out.

After Passaic scored a run off Thompson in the bottom of the sixth, Belleville added an insurance run in the top of the seventh inning. Orrei reached safely on an error and a throwing error by the Passaic catcher enabled Orrei to reach third base. He scored when Di Biase grounded out.

Thompson pitched an excellent ball game for the Bucs. He went all the way for the win, allowing just five hits, striking out eight and walking none. Belleville had just three hits in the game, but the Bucs made the most of its opportunities with good base running, aggressive fielding and excellent pitching.

"It was a good ball game, for both sides," said Grande. "I thought Michael pitched an outstanding game and it was a good comeback after the Montclair game."

The win also boosted Belleville's league mark to 3-1 in the NNJL. The Bucs will have some tough battles with Clifton and Nutley in league play and the GNT is just around the corner, so some key games are on the horizon.

ON THE MOVE — P.J. Grande sprints off of first base during the Buc's game with Montclair.

third in the high hurdles (20.1) and Mark Tonelli closed out the scoring with a third in the 400 hurdles (69.2).

At the Millburn Relays, Belleville entered three events and did pretty well. In the 4 x 1600 relay, the team of Nanjia, Silva, Parmenter and John Matos clocked in at 21:48.4. The sprint medley team of Padula, Moriello, Zamloot and Tonelli finished in 4:09.5.

The distance medley team, consisting of Tonelli, Padula, Nanjia and Moriello finished in a time of 12:34.9.

"I thought the relay teams did pretty well," head coach John Tosato said. "In the Passaic match, we had some pretty good performances in the running events. The kids have been working pretty hard and we've been competitive with just about everyone. Montclair, however, is just an outstanding team this year. They're going to be tough to beat."

DENTALLY SPEAKING
By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Mrs. R. of Nutley writes: "I'm concerned about oral cancer. Is there any self-examination I can do?"

Excellent question, Mrs. R. The self-examination you can do and everyone should do is as follows: Tilt your head and feel around your neck area for any unusual lumps. Grasp your upper lip between your thumb and index finger and moving along your lips feel for any type of mass. Then do the same on the lower lip. Using the same technique grasp your right cheeks between the two fingers and again feel for any lumps. Do the same on your left cheek. Finally, grasp your tongue, again feel for any lumps.

Look at your gums and mouth area for any discoloration or unusual marking. Observing these areas follow by feeling for any lumps that may be under the skin's gum surface. This technique requires some supervision initially so have your dentist go over this self-examination technique with you.

For Mother's Day

A day your Mother will never forget
TREAT HER TO THE BEST
A Day of Beauty

Begin with a luxurious European Facial, then relax with a full body massage. A body wrap, as given in La Costa and French spas, helps tone and firm. Remove unwanted hair with a body wax and then pamper your fingers and toes with a manicure and pedicure. We serve a light lunch and then on to our fabulous cosmetic counter for a complete make over and lesson. Your Mother will feel and look younger and more beautiful than she has in years. It will be a day she will remember for a long time.

Gift Certificates available.
