Nanina's addition proposed

Ambulatory center for Clara Maass rejected by Planners

A proposed ambulatory care center to aid outpatients for Clara Maass Hospital was rejected by the Belleville Planning Board at its meeting last week.

The Board also began proceedings regarding an expansion to Nanina's In The Park restaurant and said they will re-call Antonio's Ristorante because of discrepancies in testimony.

The Board voted 3-3 for the Clara Maass project, with Kevin Kennedy, Chris Albanese and Frank Simeone voting against and Joseph Doyle, Alois Schmitt, Jr. and Edward Heibert favoring the expansion.

The major problem with the proposed center at Clara Maass was parking, which would be reduced by 103 spaces. The testimony presented by Clara Maass stated the reduction is spaces, from 1,340 to 1,237, most of which would be removed from the rear, would still leave enough for peak hours.

A previous study conducted by the Planning Association of North Jersey stated maximum parking required for peak hours would be 1,107.

"The Medical Center is inspected annually by the State Department of Health," said Robert Arnold, vice president of support services at Clara Maass. "To say the center doesn't meet state standards...the physical structure was built in the 1950s it can't keep pace with standards instituted in 1988."

Arnold said not a single bed would be added to the Center, the addition would be for the convenience of the patients. He said with improved technological advances more outpatient procedures can be done and this would be an opportunity to shift some resources from the main facility.

Robert Gaccione, attorney for Clara Maass, explained by beds, Arnold meant no additional overnight patients would be housed.

Arnold explained many parking spaces would have a turnover effect. "The ambulatory surgery is a morning and afternoon procedure," commented Arnold. "It's anywhere from 6-10 a.m. The surgery is about one and a half hours to two hours from arrival, so the latest there out by is 5 or 6 p.m. Occasionally there's someone coming out of anesthesia who we have to wait for but that's only occasionally."

"Emergency usually doesn't begin until 5 or 6 o'clock."

A letter from the Cerebral Palsy building behind the hospital stated 23 spaces designated for Cerebral Palsy could be made available to Clara Maass if needed.

Arnold said an additional 70 spaces will be available because the School of Nursing will be moving to an off-campus site, approximately 2 miles from the hospital, when classes begin in September. "The School of Nursing will be moved off-campus because the need for the existing space is great. The space used for non-clinical uses is in a prime location. We will move the non-clinical part where the nursing school is presently."

"Based on discussion and testimony the purpose of the new building would be to transfer operations from the existing building so whatever traffic is generated now would go to the new building," said Traffic Consultant Joseph Staiger. "Any new traffic would be negligible and none."

"The parking is more than adequate."

Gaccione felt parking should not be a major consideration of the proposal. "I think the benefit to the community far outweighs any potential parking problems."

Nanina's addition

The proposed addition to Nanina's restaurant is 17,400 square feet, which will be broken down into a ballroom, parking garage, an open terrace, storage, delivery and valet and coat room.

The major stumbling block with the proposal is parking, with the project deficient by 51 spaces. Attorney Jack Soriano suggested the restaurant may be able to lease the section of Mill Street because it has no outlet and serves no other purpose but for patrons of the restaurant.

Two existing houses next to the restaurant will be torn down and ten trees will be removed to create room for the expansion, which will increase the ballroom capacity by 100, from 150 to 250.

"Obviously the two houses are in disrepair," said Robert Cozzarelli, architect for the project. "The plan is to demolish the homes and have the additions take place."

"It will be a classical architectural design," described Cozzarelli of the ballroom. "The design will convey that the proposed addition has been there a long time. It will blend in with Branchbrook Park and look like an Italian villa."

When the board suggested if more trees could be cut down to create more parking, Cozzarelli expressed the desire to keep the wooded effect for the atmosphere of the restaurant.

Antonio's recall

Antonio's Ristorante, in Belleville Plaza, had its expansion temporarily put on hold by the board, who voted to re-call owner Anthony Iovina and other representatives because of a discrepancy in testimony.

"A previous parking test conflicts with last month's testimony," said Doyle. He also said since there was division in the vote, 4-2 with one abstention, approval will not be granted until the conflict is resolved.

Iovina is scheduled to appear at next month's meeting, scheduled for June 9.

I KNOW ITS HERE SOMEWHERE — PSE&G van is parked in the back of Town Hall last week while PSE&G officials searched high and low for a gas leak. After 25 years a leak was finally discovered. (Photo by Pat Brightman)

25 year old gas leak discovered

Nine holes in a gas line in Town Hall were discovered by PSE&G last week, 25 years after the first smell was reported.

The problem was not considered serious and was fixed shortly after the leaks were found.

"They checked the meter and it moved so little they said it wasn't dangerous," said Commissioner of Parks and Public Property Vincent Frantantoni.

PSE&G have been called four or five times a year since 1963 but leaks were not located. Over the course of the two and one half decades there has been one evacuation of Town Hall because of the smell. Employees of Town Hall said some days there has been no smell at all while on others the smell has been strong.

During a visit two weeks ago, a PSE&G employee could not find a leak. After completing his checks, he asked if there were any gas appliances in the building and was told a gas furnace was under police headquarters. The employee turned ed the gas to the furnace off but when he returned last week the meter was still running.

"They didn't even know there was a meter," commented Frantantoni. "The have it reported we don't even have one."

Frantantoni searched the area with the PSE&G official, first the outside, looking to see if any gas was seeping into the ground, and then the building itself. A check of the line then revealed the holes which were repaired.

Town weighs possibilities of picking up own garbage

By Pat Brightman

In an effort to reduce the ever-increasing garbage costs, Mayor Michael Pizzi has instructed Commissioner of Public Affairs Joseph Fornarotto and Commissioner of Public Works Angelo Risoli to research the feasibility of having town employees collect Belleville's trash.

Estimated cost for garbage for this year is $3,111,880. The breakdown is $2,123,000 for dumping fees, $688,880 for Haulaway to pick up the trash, $180,000 for unused garbage tickets and $120,000 for Public Works expenses. If the town were to collect its own garbage the $688,880 would be cut. Fornarotto pointed out the collection figure will go up because the contract with Haulaway expires after this year.

"When he (Haulaway representative) comes in, he's going to raise the contract a few hundred thousand," predicted Fornarotto.

Fornarotto has expressed an interest in possibly joining other towns and having a combined garbage pick-up in an effort to cut costs. He said he has talked over the possibility with Bloomfield and Nutley, but Nutley recently signed a new contract with a private hauler. Nutley will pay $1,819,000 per year for three years, an increase of $600,000 from its last contract.

"I kinda like the idea," said Risoli, "we wouldn't have to pay the middle man. We'd save close to a million dollars a year if we handle it, after we buy the equipment."

Initial investment

The initial investment of the project, particularly buying garbage trucks, may dissuade some to the idea. Both commissioners feel three trucks must be bought if the pick-up program is to be functional. Fornarotto has priced trucks at $80,000 and there are other aspects that must be considered.

"We need equipment," stated Risoli, "at least three garbage trucks. Then there's upkeep and maintenance. This things all have to be ironed out before we make our decision."

"I made a survey when I was campaigning so I know," said Fornarotto about garbage costs. He said during his survey five years ago, and since that time, he has talked to other towns which pick-up its own garbage, including Irvington, Montclair and Clifton. All the towns officials he talked to told him money was being saved.

"The first year or two it's going to cost us," predicted Risoli. "We'll have to go out for a bond ordinance."

"It'll pay off in a couple of years," said Fornarotto. "Every year we're going to have to spend a million dollars (in hauling fees) but we won't have to with this. The trucks last 10 years."

Public Works has one garbage truck, purchased a few years ago, but it is 11 years old and would need an estimated $15,000 in repairs to be used for garbage pick-up.

"It's well worth it," said Risoli, "we use it for leaves. Instead of sending a truck, we used that. It saved on wear and tear."

No added personnel

Fornarotto said no added personnel would need to be hired, just a specific division known as the sanitation department. Insurance and employee benefits would remain the same, also, according to Fornarotto. Risoli said at least nine employees would be needed if three trucks were used.

Another area in need of discussion is how many times a week garbage would be picked up. Risoli said with three trucks and no added personnel pick-ups would have to be once a week but Fornarotto disagreed.

"I don't believe in once a week," claimed Fornarotto. "We'll keep the same services."

Health Officer Thomas Longo, who watches garbage pick-up, says the number of pick-ups a week will not have an effect on health. "There's no problem with one (pick-up). The amount (of trash) will stay the same, they'll just need to have the capacity to store the garbage. It would be more of an inconvenience."

Police apprehend suspect in area purse snatching case

By Karen A. Lynch

After four months of what Bloomfield Police Chief John J. McNiff termed "maximum investigative effort," East Orange officers Saturday apprehended the man believed responsible for more than a dozen area purse snatchings accompanied by sometimes brutal assaults on his victims.

Spillerman Adolph Hill, 23, of East Orange has been linked so far to similar incidents in 10 neighboring communities, including Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Irvington, Maplewood, Newark, Nutley, South Orange, West Orange and Union.

Investigators from East Hanover, Millburn and West Caldwell also participated in the probe, along with detectives from the New Jersey State Police and Essex County Prosecutor's Office Major Crimes Unit, McNiff said.

At press time Hill, who is unemployed, was being held without bail in East Orange City Jail. Officials anticipate he will be transferred to Essex County Jail and the case referred to a grand jury, McNiff said.

No date has been set as yet for an arraignment as the investigation continues.

Events leading to Saturday's arrest began about 10 o'clock the previous evening, when Hill allegedly stole a white 1987 Chrysler and purse from a woman in South Orange.

At 1:15 a.m. Saturday, East Orange police officers Victor Tucker and Alejandro Sanchez responded to a report of a suspicious man stripping a car. In fact, Hill was changing a flat tire, McNiff said.

He said when a computer check indicated the vehicle had been stolen from South Orange, Hill was arrested and charged with the theft.

A subsequent search of the vehicle revealed two purses, one of which was from South Orange, "and then the investigation began," McNiff said.

Hill has been charged with at least one purse snatching in Belleville and is still being questioned by Belleville Police to possible ties with at least two others.

McNiff said the investigation is continuing to determine whether charges against James A. Jones of East Orange should be dropped. Jones, 18, was arrested April 18 and charged in the Oakridge Road purse snatch.

McNiff said Hill had been released from the Yardville Correctional Facility (now Garden State Reception and Youth Correctional Facility) in January on parole for a homicide in Orange about five years ago.

Purse snatching-assault incidents began in the Essex County area in February and netted the robber an estimated several thousand dollars, the chief noted.

He said "at least" a dozen stolen cars were used during commission of the robberies, in which the majority of the victims exited or were in the vicinity of the Garden State Parkway.

A tan Chevrolet Celebrity was used several times, he said, and Hill allegedly stole license plates and switched them among the various vehicles.

McNiff characterized the investigation, which involved thousands of manhours among law enforcement officials, as "very intense...and of the highest priority."

Belleville POLICE BEAT

By Pat Brightman

A 19 year-old Belleville resident was stabbed by a juvenile after an argument about a minor traffic incident.

On May 6, the victim and a friend ate at Wendy's and while driving down Joralemon Street, passed a white sub-compact car. While they were stopped at the light on the corner of Joralemon and Union Avenue, three white males came out of the sub-compact and approached the car. An argument ensued between one of the males and the victim and another of the males came from behind and stabbed the victim. The three jumped back into the sub-compact and drove away.

Police made an investigation and arrested two juveniles. The victim, taken to Clara Maass Medical Center, was released and has suffered no complications.

A woman's purse was snatched from her by a black male as she attempted to enter her home on Cortlandt Street.

The woman left for work on May 9 and afterwards went to cash her check. As she was on her way home she observed a black male, described as approximately 5'10", medium build and in his mid-twenties, following her. As she approached her door and began to unlock it, the man approached her and attempted to grab her purse. After a struggle, in which the woman's shoulder was injured, the man grabbed the purse and fled to a car, which drove away. The woman was taken to Clara Maass for examinations and released. A total of $256 was stolen.

A vandal traveled Belmont Avenue the night of May 10 and slashed tires on a 1971 MG and a 1971 Ford.

On May 11 someone entered a home on Cortlandt Street and stole a shotgun from the owner's bedroom closet.

Apparently the culprit who took the 12-gauge Remington Pump knew the owner because there was no forced entry, the house was not ransacked and no other items were taken.

A woman parked her car, a 1977 Toyota, on Magnolia Street May 9 and when she returned found she had been boxed in by a Haulaway garbage dumpster, creating a large dent in the car's front, right fender. Police notified Haulaway, which had the dumpster moved.

Clara Maass lower level parking lot was the scene of an attempted auto theft that was unsuccessful. An individual broke into a 1987 Mitsubishi and popped the ignition but the car would not start because of a dead battery.

An owner of a 1986 Ford Thunderbird discovered his driver's side window was smashed by a bat like object May 12.

The owner was in his home on Linden Avenue when he heard a window shatter and a loud muffler. When he looked out the window he saw the smashed car window and a car driving away. No identification of the car or the individuals was given.

Sometime in the early morning hours of May 8 a vandal damaged a 1987 Ford Mustang by smashing the trunk, causing a large dent and numerous scratches.

Scheumester becomes a specialist

Officer Rory O. Scheumester of the Belleville Police Department has become a specialist in traffic accident investigation.

Recently, he participated in a two-week training program, sponsored by the New Jersey Automobile Club Foundation for Safety, teaching police officers how to properly identify and record physical evidence and essential facts found only at the scene of a traffic accident. Using measurement, scale diagramming, photography and principles of math and physics, course participants learn proper techniques for traffic accident and/or traffic homicide investigation.

"This is an excellent training program," said Scheumester. "The skills I've learned will be of tremendous value to my department. Not only am I better equipped to investigate traffic accidents but I can also make recommendations that could improve motorist and pedestrian safety in our community."

For example, course participants analyzed skid marks and parts of the accident vehicle such as headlights and determine how fast the accident vehicle was traveling and at what time of day the accident occurred. This information can be used in determining appropriate roadway speed limits and intersection markings. Proper techniques for preserving physical evidence, interviewing the driver and witnesses, and care preparation were also taught.

Funding for the course was provided by the New Jersey Automobile Club Foundation for Safety, a non-profit organization founded by AAA New Jersey Automobile Club members, which sponsors safety education and awareness programs for residents of Essex, Morris and Union counties.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

Essex County Executive Nicholas Amato and Larry Schwartz, both lawyers and protégés of former Commissioner and Democratic Chairlady Mary Senatore are much in the news these days. While neither lives in Belleville any longer, both share fond and partial memories of the Cherry Blossom Capital of America.

Mr. Schwartz excels in school board law and represents several such bodies in the state, while Mr. Amato had served several terms as County surrogate, a quasi-judicial office with authority in the probate of wills, the settlement of estates, and the appointment of guardians.

A quirk of political chicanery whereby the County Democratic party chairman dropped Mr. Amato from the party ticket as candidate for re-election as Surrogate which proved to be the best break ever for the astute Mr. Amato, who by subtle maneuvers bizzare in political circles, jumped ship and with the support of influential party leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties joined forces and who proselytized and converted him to become the Republican party candidate for the office of County Executive which he did and came out a big winner doing a superior job in his new role.

He is now studying the prospect of moving the Belleville geriatric patients to the county psychiatric hospital in Cedar Grove. By combining the facilities, the county could save operating costs and add revenue to the county budget, the county executive said, through a long-term lease of the Belleville property.

Freeholder President Thomas P. Giblin and mental health advocates contend that such a plan could work if the County Hospital Center is upgraded and services improved for the geriatric and psychiatric population.

Giblin said, "Officially, the county executive hasn't presented us with anything for the board to act on, but it wouldn't be fair to say I haven't heard rumors that the public has. I guess the primary reason is economics where you can generate a long-term lease for the county and then have a consolidated operation up in Cedar Grove."

Concern was expressed by the freeholder president over the issue of consolidation having an impact reaction upon the county workers who might be affected by such a move and he also said review would have to be made with full input from the patients and their families.

A budget battle of more than a year between the state and the county has raged with Amato claiming he has no legal obligation to maintain the hospital and should have state help. He argues that without the Hospital Center the state would be caring for the patients. But, Essex County would have to pay the state half the cost of maintaining a county resident in a state facility.

It would appear that Mr. Amato's chief concern now is to move ahead with a $5 million capital improvement plan for the Hospital Center... much appears to be held in abeyance until some arrangement can be arrived at between the state and Essex County to facilitate the solution to this dilemma.

It is apparent that Nick Amato is a determined executive who isn't about to let the state "push" him around and that's all the better for all the people of Essex County who have the highest county budget in the state.

Route 21 accident leaves two injured, one seriously

A two vehicle accident closed down Route 21 in both directions Monday afternoon, creating traffic back-ups that caused motorists to travel through Nutley and Belleville to arrive at their destinations.

There were two people injured, Ecriss Robinson, the driver of an 18 wheel truck, and Mateo Rodriguez, who was driving a station wagon. Both were transported to University Hospital in Newark. Robinson was listed in critical condition while Rodriguez was considered stable.

According to Nick Nicolette, Jr., of Nicolette's Towing and Recovery Service, Rodriguez, driving his Gran Torino in the fast lane of the state highway, attempted to move in the slow lane and hit the truck driven by Robinson. On contact the vehicles locked, went through the guard rail and plunged into the Passaic River.

Four hours and six tow trucks later both vehicles were retrieved and removed from the highway. But not before creating havoc with lunch-hour traffic and causing confusion and inconvenience for motorists. Washington Avenue was used by many truck drivers as an alternate route to and from Newark.

Wilshire Oil earnings

Wilshire Oil Company of Texas (NYSE) today reported net income for the first quarter ended March 31, 1988 of $156,000, or $.02 per share on revenues of $2,008,000. Net income for the corresponding quarter of the prior year was $153,000, or $.02 per share on revenues of $1,884,000.

Although the price of oil and gas in the first quarter of 1988 was lower than last year, the Company was able to maintain last years level of income. For the same period, revenues increased by seven percent.

Wilshire is a North American oil and gas exploration and production company with interest in over 1,600 producing wells. As part of the Company's diversification plan, Wilshire recently acquired more than 10 percent of the shares of Jacobs Engineering Group, Inc. (ASE).

"When the police called they said it was an emergency," recalled Nicolette. "They told us the two were pinned and in the water so we moved quickly."

Rodriguez was able to escape his vehicle under his own power but Robinson had to be assisted by both police and fire crews on the scene. Both were immediately taken to be examined at the hospital.

Amazing he survived

"The truck driver had to be extracted from the cab while the driver of the stationwagon was able to get out of the car without assistance," explained Belleville Police Sergeant Christopher Kondrack.

"I don't know how he lived. If he was heavy he would have died," said Nicolette of the slender truck driver. Nicolette explained the trailer of the truck, which he estimated as weighing 20 tons, was resting on the cab, with Robinson immobile. Robinson's lower body was lodged between the seat and steering wheel, while his upper body was hunched over the wheel and dashboard.

An eyewitness credited the police and fire crews who acted swiftly and had Robinson out of the truck in less than half an hour. A county scuba diving team and state officials were also on the scene, as the tow trucks pulled the two vehicles from the banks of the river.

Nicolette said the trucks used by his company were Mack, 35-ton Emergency Recovery Hydraulic Wreckers, a "heavy-duty crane" in layman terms, to lift the truck. The trucks landing gear, underneath the trailer, had to be burned off because they were lodged into the embankment.

Nicolette, whose father's towing company tows for the Belleville Police Department, said the area where the accident occurred is a hazardous section where many accidents take place. "A lot of times people come around the curve too fast and when they put on their brakes they lock up and they skid off the road."

OUR OPINION

Golden opportunity wasted?

There is an opportunity for many homeowners to improve their living area and it will not cost them much, if any to do so. What we are talking about is the Valley Rehabilitation Program, which has been instituted by the county to assist homeowners make home improvements they would not normally be able to do.

For now, the program is for a section of town from Washington Avenue to the Passaic River and from Mill Street to Joralemon Street. According to Mayor Michael Pizzi, either not many people know of the assistance program or they just don't want any assistance for what could be a variety of reasons. One may be plain pride. Many people do not want to ask for money to assist them because they feel it isn't the thing to do or they will have a lower self esteem than if they were to tough it out and make the best of the situation. Another reason may be fear; fear of what they have to do for the money. Can I lose my home? Will people be allowed to look at my house whenever they feel fit? How much interest must be paid, and by when? Basically people wonder what the catch is, because it sounds too good to be true.

Well there is no catch. In some instances straight grants are allowed, whereby a person can receive money without having to pay it back. In other cases, low interest loans are given to individuals who qualify. The only requirement sent to the homeowners is they can not move out of the house for a certain period of time after the completion of the renovations, which is only fair. A person should not be allowed to fix a home with county funds and then turn around and sell it to make a profit.

Applications and information are in Town Hall because Mayor Pizzi is concerned not enough people are taking advantage of this golden opportunity. The consequences are somewhat twofold. If the money is not used people will continue to live in homes that could be improved, which is a shame. The second is that other individuals who do not live in the section of town but would love assistance to improve their home will not receive the chance to apply. These people will suffer because the county will say "Why should money be given to Belleville if it's not going to be used?" It shouldn't and it won't. It's time for the people to wake up, swallow some pride if that's the case, and improve their homes, which in turn, will improve Belleville, while they can.

Academically talented

Six students from the fifth grade at School 7 have participated in a scholarly contest among other schools in Essex County. After three wins, the team will compete in the finals next Wednesday in Cedar Grove in the hopes of being crowned county champions.

These students are another example of what the Belleville school system seems to be producing and not many people seem to know about. According to advisors and parents the support shown to these exceptional children has been minimal, with small contingents attending the competitions and not a one from the Board of Education.

It would be nice to see the group supported by those who run the schools and have worked to make improvements so results such as this can be achieved but they have been no where in sight. It doesn't appear to have fazed the children as they have done more than make Belleville proud.

The children have obviously shown their academic talents but the competition has done more than just been a showcase for these talents, it has prepared them for the future, when competition will be a large part of their lives. It has taught them the meaning, and importance, of teamwork. The pressure of a final contest, while not showing immediate gains, will help in the future, as will the pressure of having to speak publicly. Public speaking seems to have become a lost art form and by gaining experience at this time the children will be able to express their thoughts much more clearly in the future. Thoughts that will be worth listening to.

Questions raised by accident

The Monday afternoon accident on Route 21 raised some interesting questions, specifically how safe is the highway to drive on? Many people were shaking their heads to not only the accident but to the question itself.

The section where the accident occurred has been a trouble spot for years, according to people in the know. What will the state do about it? One problem is the fact so many trucks drive on the road, and while we are not saying truck drivers are bad drivers, we are saying there are more blind spots driving a truck than driving a car. But the layout of the highway is also a problem. Exit and entry ramps are not in strategic locations, many are on curves and bends in the highway. The fact that there are so many curves and bends is also a problem. It was designed to hug the Passaic River, but does it have to hug it like a mother hugs a child who has been lost for years and then found?

The drivers must shoulder some of the blame, for they are the ones driving and getting in the accidents. But maybe a team of highway officials should review the layout of the highway and make some alterations before there are more accidents.

YOUR OPINION

Finds fault with DPW

To the Editor:

One has to wonder what does it take to make a politician running for office keep his promises when elected!

How many times have we heard and listened to their promises while the campaign is on. Some people believe in them to such a degree that they either contribute monies or go out and work to help them get elected because they honestly believe in what those candidates are saying. But once elected all those promises go out the window.

Such a case happened in our local election held in May. We elected three new commissioners, (Fornarotto, Frantantoni and Risoli); all three ran and promised to control local spending. Fornarotto and Frantantoni I honestly believe are trying to keep their campaign promises, but Mr. Risoli has not.

Let me cite several ways to prove that. Point 1: Since being elected in May, Mr. Risoli has hired 4 new employees (one is a relative), other commissioners are looking to lay off. Point 2: Mr. Risoli has 3 girls working in his office, their combined salary is close to $90,000. Mr. Risoli has stated on numerous occasions he could lay off two and the remaining still would not have a full days work. One has to remember one of the girls worked for the engineering department while it was under the Public Works, but that department was moved to Mr. Frantantoni's department, so why does Mr. Risoli need the three girls.

Point 3: Although at this time, I can't actually prove it, Mr. Risoli should provide to us the figures for overtime since he took office, a comparison should be made between his one year in office and the final year of the last commissioner.

Point 4: Why is Mr. Risoli making such a fuss over Saturday's "Washington Ave. Clean Up Day." He of course is trying once again to get his face and name in the Belleville Times. Why does he have to bring in men to clean Washington Ave. on a Saturday? It is supposed to be done during the regular working hours.

Point 5: Mr. Risoli has around 40 men, every Saturday and Sunday 2 men are kept what is commonly known as "on call." These 2 men sit at home (or wherever) and every so often call the office to see if there is an emergency. If there is none, they still get paid. It has been brought to Mr. Risoli's attention on numerous occasions all he has to do is to stagger 2 men and let them work one weekend and be off Monday and Tuesday. This would occur once every 20 weeks for the same 2 men and these men should not sit home, they should be at the Public Works building and doing some kind of work.

Finally taxpayers, Point 6 is what I consider Mr. Risoli's ultimate slap in the face to the taxpayers of Belleville. The Atlantic City convention held last November. Mr. Risoli attended the convention as did the Mayor and the rest of the commissioners. What Mr. Risoli did, he took employees with him. What Mr. Risoli did not do is what I find appalling. He did not make certain employees, who were not entitled to go at our expense, pay for their own expenses. Now taxpayers let's compare: Mr. Frantantoni spent a total of $360. Now hold on to your hats. Mr. Risoli spent a total of $1,823.54.

That, taxpayers and all of the other 5 points is what I consider an arrogant politician. Let us remember Mr. Risoli's campaign pledge "Slash Taxes." Our elective system has its flaws but it also has its good points. One is we can always have a recall movement and in Mr. Risoli's case, a recall is a necessity.

Looking for the lost

To the editor:

I was in the Army Air Corps during WW II and a member of the 17th Bomb Group, 95th Squadron. For the past 11 years we have been holding reunions and are still searching for our last members. I have been helping in this matter.

Two of our missing members had wartime addresses in your general area. The first man is Anthony Scotesse and the address was 9 Margaret Avenue, Nutley, N.J. He was a member of the 95th Squadron.

The second man is David J. Callahan and his wartime address was 22 Washington Street, Belleville. He was a member of the 34th Squadron.

Since our information on these men is limited we do not know what their duties in their respective squadron were.

I left the U.S. in December of 1942 and we were stationed at air bases in North Africa, Sardinia, Corsica and Dijon, France, in that order. We were in Dijon when the War in Europe ended and we headed for the U.S. to re-group and go to Japan but the War there ended before we had to go.

I hope someone who knows where these men are, will contact me so I can get in touch with them. I want to thank this newspaper for their kindness and cooperation in this matter. Hoping to receive some good news soon.

People were 'Moonstruck'

To the Editor:

The recent election of Academy Award winner Cher's ex-spouse and former show-biz partner, Sonny Bono, to the mayoralty of West Palm Beach, California, adds weight to the popular theory that — we humans are, at times, influenced by the fullness of the moon.

It seems to me — many of the good citizens of West Palm Beach, who cast their ballots for Sonny Bono were, most definitely, "Moonstruck" at the time.

Framed by Risoli

To the Editor:

Open letter to Commissioner Angelo Risoli

Dear Commissioner,

Im am expressing my gratitude to you for the framed picture you presented me of the photo that appeared in the Belleville Times, April 14, 1988 — of my recent lecture at the Belleville Public Library in reference to my fan collection.

I shall treasure the framed picture for always! Each time I'll glance at it, I'll recall my first lecture and also — how nice of you to do such a lovely deed.

Your thoughtful gesture touched me.

Bless you, Angelo Risoli.

IT IS incredible to believe that there are people among us who want to legalize the illicit drug trade. Elected officials of Washington, Baltimore, Minneapolis and some leading Congressmen in recent weeks have observed that laws against drug trafficking are unable to be enforced; and they are now calling for the repeal of laws against cocaine, heroin, marijuana and other drugs. Arguments in favor of legalization have appeared in highly respected publications. Those in favor of repeal are advancing the silly argument that drug laws and not drugs themselves caused the most damage to society.

Drugs are the engine of crime. Any crime you could imagine has been committed in the name of drugs. Drug use is a youth killer. The use of drugs has deprived America of many of its potential future leaders. The illegal use of drugs is not only confined to our young — it spreads across the spectrum of all age groups.

We would urge our religious leaders, educational leaders, law enforcement brass and industry leaders to meet in an all-out war against the illegal use of drugs. THE triumph of smear is evident in the defeat of the highly respected Nutley Township Finance Commissioner Jerry Amiano. At the eleventh hour, an anonymous mailing went to Nutley voters demeaning the highly respected Jerry Amiano. These mailings also distorted the record, advanced half truths and lies against Commissioner Carmen Orechio with telling effect.

THE Cress family of the Franklin Seafood are among the most popular merchants in Nutley — a much-deserved reputation. These hard-working people deserve all the success in the world.

THE rising incidence of animal abuse is alarming. Such mistreatment of animals should be classified as a felony by our legislators so that the cruel, heartless persons who stoop to abuse animals receive their just due.

JESSE JACKSON says the Democrat nomination is now between two people, Michael Dukakis, the Governor of Massachusetts, and Jesse Jackson, the Chicago preacher. From where I sit, it appears Jesse is whistling in the dark. He is too smart not to realize that Dukakis will be the Democrat nominee for President. It is my belief that all along Jesse was positioning himself for the brass ring in 1992. Of all the presidential candidates, only Jesse Jackson has made it his business to visit high schools around the nation extolling the virtues of America, and in the process, got himself some markers for the 1992 Grand Prix.

THE feminist author, Germaine Greer, told The Women's Journal magazine, "I think the Italians are the best lovers in the world. They are utterly absorbed." Greer further observed that British men found it very difficult to treat women as people. And for the French, Greer observes that they are too vain to be much good, and the Arabs hate to touch and to be touched. Author Greer also thinks that Americans are frightened of women because, in her words, "Women are terrific lovers because they try so hard. However, after a while, even that becomes depressing." The bottom line of feminist author, Germaine Greer, appears to be, "I think the Italians are the best lovers in the world." I will not question the woman's judgment.

WHAT should be done about nudity in the movies? It is a question that has been examined and debated more often than sex or violence. The question is — does nudity in movies corrupt young people? Does it encourage sex crimes? I am against nudity in the movies — whether it be male or female nudity. If actors and actresses refused to take off their clothes, there would be no nudity. But — some people subscribe to the philosophy that they will do anything for the buck — even if they demean themselves and compromise their self-respect.

DAN RATHER, the CBS Evening News personality, has detractors who are trying to influence the CBS brass to give him the boot. I like Dan Rather. He is unbiased and straight as an arrow. Dan Rather has class, character and ability. These qualities are hard to beat. If I owned stock in CBS, my vote would be in favor of giving Dan Rather a raise.

The Belleville Public Library invites the public to enjoy viewing "Picture Yourself at the Library," a giant photo mural composed of pictures of the Belleville children who visited the library between April 1 and 23, 1988. Youngsters attending story hours, craft programs or came to the library to complete homework assignments, had their picture taken by interim children's librarian, Kathleen Mollica and her staff.

Library director David Bryant said, "This mural composed of the wonderful young faces of Belleville should be looked at as a collective township portrait of the next generation's best and brightest."

The photographs were taken in both the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room, and the Mrs. Richard A. Shafter Branch Library in Silver Lake.

Photographic Exhibit

The photographs of Andre Cantelmo of Maplewood are on display for the month of May in the meeting room of the Library. Cantelmo was born in Newark and educated in Nutley.

He does all of his own printing, mat cutting and framing. An accomplished photographer, he has earned major awards, such as the P.S.A. Gold Medal, the Print of the Year Award from the Tri-County Camera Club, the New Jersey Federation Medal and has had his work on the front cover of "Antique Toy World."

Cantelmo has had major exhibits at the Bergen Community Museum, the Dorothea Fisher Gallery, the Metropolitan Gallery in Morristown, Georgian Court College, the Vancouver British Columbia Photo Exhibit, and the Louisiana State Fair.

He is a member of the Friends of Photography, the Tri-County Camera Club, and the Watchung Art Center. The exhibit can be viewed during library hours.

ON EXHIBIT — this month in the Reference Room of the Belleville Public Library is the art of Concepcion Canosa of Belleville.

Belleville artist on exhibit

On exhibit during the month of May are oil paintings by Concepcion Canosa of Belleville, who came from Argentina in 1964. For nine years she taught piano in Newark and is currently teaching Spanish at the Berlitz School of Language in Summit and Ridgewood.

"Thanks to Gladys Sherman, I have discovered something beautiful through the world of art," she commented. She has been her student for several years.

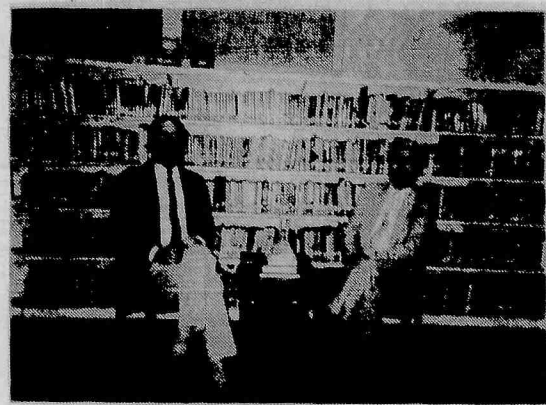

Ms. Canosa's paintings include a variety of flowers and still life. The exhibit can be viewed during regular library hours.

Australian Bicentennial

On display at the Belleville Public Library is an exhibit for the Bicentennial of Australia birthday. Made possible through the efforts of Helene Konkus the exhibit is provided by the Lending Department of Newark Museum.

On exhibit is an Australian boomerang, invented by the native tribes of Australia, also a toy koala bear, one of the most appealing wild animals, a kangaroo skin, and various articles on Australia.

The exhibit can be viewed during regular Library hours.

Band's Walt Disney tour

If a member of the Belleville High School Band has washed your car, sold you cheesecake or raffle tickets or you've been to one of the Belleville Music Parent's Flea Markets, it's all been to raise money so the band can go to Walt Disney World in Florida.

The band was invited to Florida last Spring. In order to perform in Disney, they had to send an audition tape and photograph of the band. Upon receiving the acceptance letter, they then scheduled the trip and performance dates. The trip will be May 19 through May 22 and it will be the first ever performance of a Belleville band in the Epcot Center. The Belleville Band will participate with bands from all over the country as part of Disney's Magic Music Days.

There has been a great deal of preparation for this trip. The band spent approximately $28,000 on air fare, hotels, modified summer uniforms, drum cases, footlockers, meals, Band Jackets and special electrical equipment for the parade. All money was raised by the students in cooperation with the Belleville Music Parents Association.

The students have been rehearsing as well as buying bathing suits and getting sun tan lotion. The trip should prove to be an exciting experience, one that the students will always remember.

Chubb graduate hired

A local resident has taken a position as a programmer following completion of studies in the Career Programming course at The Chubb Institute in Parsippany.

Joseph Martin of Belleville has joined Commercial Data Processing in Fairfield.

The Chubb Institute, which also offer career programming and operations training at Journal Square in Jersey City, differs from most career oriented schools in that applicants are required to have work experience or college background. The Institute is accredited by the National Association of Trade and Technical Schools and approved by the New Jersey Department of Education.

Area purse snatch suspect nabbed by police

"We received 100 percent cooperation from all the agencies involved," he said, noting area officials met several times to share and update information.

State Police artists drew three composites of the suspect, described as 5 feet, 8 inches tall and muscular, as the probe developed.

McNiff said the investigation became frustrating and difficult because of the suspect's random selection of victims and locations throughout a broad geographical area.

"Typically, an area is hit over and over," he said.

"But in this case, there was no pattern in the timings or locations."

Another factor complicating the probe was that Hill, unlike many purse snatchers, apparently did not use such purse contents as credit cards to leave a trail for investigators to follow.

Also, purse snatchers typically do not assault their victims, McNiff noted.

He said officials believe Hill was acting alone.

Investigative techniques, McNiff said, included the use of female police officers as decoys and State Police monitoring of parkway exits at prime hours.

Officials also obtained printouts of every prisoner released on parole since January.

"Our profile of the suspect led us to believe he had recently been released from prison," he said.

Foot Facts

by Paul A. Caputo, D.P.M.

HITTING THE ROAD

Often called the most unstable joint in the body, the knee is partially susceptible to problems. Many of those problems are linked to the manner in which the feet strike the ground. For instance, a foot that rotates upon impact with the ground can relay undue pressure up to the knee. The foot normally pronates (collapses slightly inward) when we walk. Excessive pronation, however, has a magnified effect when a person runs. This irregular positioning of the foot can combine with the compounded pressure of running to produce a twisting effect upon the knee. Runners with knee pain should have the podiatrist evaluate their gait. This may make it possible to modify their mechanics of running with an orthotic device (prescription insert), and thus alleviate pain.

With each step you run, your feet are subjected to a force five times your body weight. Foot and leg problems, including knee injuries, achilles tendonitis, and shin splints are a common experience for runners. Treatment is available. For a consultation, call DR. PAUL A. CAPUTO at 759-6560. Our office is at 345 Washington Ave., Belleville. X-ray facilities available on the premises. Office hours by appointment only.

Hint: Even moderate pronation can cause knee pain during a heavy regimen of running or jogging.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Gerald Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

Love's Abandonment

"I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus as my Lord" (Philippians 3:8)

A few comments tucked into the biography of a saint who lived in the 15th century caught my attention. "The habitual attitude of Casaubon's soul (a French religious scholar) was abandonment; not merely resignation, but prostration before the Unseen. He moved, thought, and felt as in the presence of God."

There is a joyful recklessness about the word "abandonment." We cannot abandon something and still clutch it, reluctant to let go because we fear it will cost us too much.

Earthly lovers know the joy of abandonment to each other when they feel secure in one another's love. We who have entered into the most satisfying, secure love relationship possible with our Lord can know the joy of abandoning ourselves to Him.

As Christ replaces His will for our old viewpoints, selfish lifestyles, and destructive loves with His own will, we may feel twinges. But as He lives His life through us, we become too satisfied with the freedom and joy He gives to give up obedience to His will.

If you feel pain today as the Lord gets specific in His loving demands, believe that one day you will agree with Him in every evaluation. Open your heart and life to receive His replacements.

Let us pray: "Lord, I am beginning to like the sound of the word 'abandonment.' Keep me from hanging onto any of my pet trifles."

J.P.'s CLEANERS
543 Washington Avenue
Belleville, N.J. 07109
759-5728

J.P.'s Cleaners is located at 543 Washington Avenue, Belleville. This family owned and operated service business was established in 1975. With five employees and a lengthy list of satisfied customers, J.P.'s Cleaners has grown and prospered in Belleville.

Offering a full line of dry cleaning services, spot removal, and custom tailoring, J.P.'s should be a first choice for cleaning expensive or unusual fabrics and clothing. The advantage of brand new, computerized cleaning equipment combines with expert staff to assure the finest care of garments left in the hands of J.P.'s Cleaners. J.P.'s Cleaners' reputation is widely known: prompt and quality cleaning service with the resulting clothing as fresh and clean as new.

J.P.'s Cleaners is owned by Giacomo and Paula Nasisi who take pride in their busy and recently rebuilt shop. Due to an unfortunate fire in March of 1986, Jack and Paula decided to remain in Belleville and restored their operation by completely rebuilding in the same location, a brand new, fully modernized building complete with state of the art cleaning equipment. It was an admirable decision to stay in Belleville, and their customers flocked to support their new opening, because of their courage and dedication to their loyal patrons. The Nasisi's quickly point to the fact that they are seeing a second generation of clientele. With only one shop and the resulting concentration of their energy and expertise, J.P. Cleaners joins nearly 180 other members of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce in proving once again that, "It's Better in Belleville!"

Members of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce interested in promoting their business, may address their information to David Bryant, 66 Belleville Chamber of Commerce, 155A Washington Ave., Belleville 07109, 759-4848. Anyone wishing to join the Chamber, please call 759-4848 between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Free blood pressure checks

At least 35 million Americans have high blood pressure, and half of them do not know it. To call this to the attention of the public, health officials have designated May as "Hypertension Month." They urge that all adults unaware of their blood pressure taken.

Therefore, Commissioner of Public Affairs Joseph Fornarotto and Health Officer Thomas J. Lon-go of the Belleville Health Department will conduct a free blood pressure screening program. During the week of May 23 nurses from the Health Department will be at various sites throughout the town to perform this service for any adult living in Belleville who wishes to participate.

The schedule for the free blood pressure testing is:

5:45 p.m.-8:00 p.m.
Monday, May 23 - High School Stadium
Tuesday, May 24 - Little League Field
Wednesday, May 25 - Clearmont Field
Thursday, May 26 - Recreation House

Dukakis rally scheduled

The "Students for Dukakis" Committee will host a rally for Governor Michael Dukakis on Tuesday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m. at the Sunbank Building (Dukakis office) near the Nutley Town Hall. The Sunbank Building is located at the corner of Chestnut Street and Vincent Place, across from the Nutley Public Safety Building.

"Students for Dukakis" is a volunteer group of students, part of "Mike Dukakis for President." "Students for Dukakis" is coordinated by J. Frank Vespa, who is also the president of the Nutley Young Democrats.

Guest speakers at this event will include: Scott Hartman, a member of the Dukakis for President Committee of Boston; New Jersey Senate President Pro Tempore Carmen A. Orechio; Ray Bramucci, Director of New Jersey Offices for U.S. Senator Bill Bradley; Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alessio; and Mrs. Joanna Noonan, who is running as a Dukakis delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Atlanta, Georgia, July 18-22.

All students are invited to attend this gala event on May 24. For directions or information on volunteering for the Dukakis for President Committee, please contact Frank Vespa at 235-9268.

Galvin to speak at meeting

John Galvin, Municipal Clerk and Director of Planning for the town of Bloomfield, will be the guest speaker at the Manufacturers' Association of the Bloomfield-Belleville area meeting on Thursday, May 26, at the Glen Ridge Country Club.

Prior to Mr. Galvin's talk, election of officers for the 1988-1989 year will be held.

The Manufacturers' Association was organized in 1920. Members include manufacturers and businesses servicing manufacturers. Information on membership can be obtained by calling Ed Sauka, PSE&G, at 365-5464.

MORE LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

28 years of thanks

To the People of Belleville:

I would like to express my gratitude to the people of Belleville with whom I have worked for the past 28 years. Not only have you provided me with a livelihood during this time and for my future years, but also I have always been blessed with your patient support, understanding and cooperation throughout the years.

Recently, because of my participation within the faith community of Saint Peter's, I have become very much aware of and concerned for the fact that most of the suffering in the world is caused by injustice and is largely endured by children. I would like to make use of the occasion of my retirement from my work with your children by reaching out into the world with a gesture of my gratitude for the community of Belleville.

With this sentiment in mind, I am going to make a personal contribution to Bread For the World and add to it any retirement gifts which I might receive. If anyone would like to celebrate with me in this way it would honor me in a way that I could rejoice in for the years to come in Winchester, Illinois.

Anyone who shares this sentiment can send a contribution to "Bread For the World" in care of Martha Carson at School No. 7, with a reminder to me as to where and how we shared our lives in Belleville.

Thank God for allowing me this long, secure experience with Belleville and may he continue the richness of his blessings on all of you. Love,

Bernard Evans
Elementary Instrumental Music

Against the mall

To the Editor:

In regards to a mini-mall on the Walter Kidde site on Main Street:

We, the town of Belleville, do not need a new shopping center, with K-mart and Grand Union complex on the Main Street. We do need Senior Citizen homes or a complex for our older citizens.

Nutley has one, Bloomfield has two, East Orange has a few and Orange has one or two, Irvington has two. But Belleville nothing. Maybe the merchants on Washington Ave. will benefit too, because senior citizens have to buy to exist and exist we must do.

Thanks to Home & School

To the editor:

The faculty at Belleville Middle School wishes to thank the Home and School Association for making Friday the 13th a great day. In honor of National Teacher Week, they presented each teacher with a corsage or boutonniere and treated us to a lovely breakfast of bagels, doughnuts, coffee and tea with all the trimmings.

The entire staff appreciates your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,
Belleville Middle School Faculty

Commends Sheriff

To the Editor:

Essex County Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alessio should be commended on his effort to rid this county of drugs. One program in effect by Sheriff D'Alessio is an Anti-Drug Enforcement Speaker Program in Essex County. We contacted his office for our monthly meeting on May 2, 1988 and he sent us Detective John Goode from his office.

Detective Goode did an outstanding job with his presentation on legal and illegal drugs. He displayed items that children can purchase from some neighborhood candy stores and certain record shops. These drugs can be taken home and parents would never suspect that a child can get high off of them. We urge all P.T.A.'s and Civic Groups to contact our great Sheriff Tom D'Alessio's office for his Anti Drug Program.

From 'Rocky' to 'Poe'

To the Editor:

In the not too distant past, actor Sylvester Stallone has voiced his admiration for America's late-great author — Edgar Allan Poe.

Stallone has also admitted his burning desire to portray Edgar Allan Poe in a film of the poet's life.

Should Sly Stallone's "Poe" be thrust upon the silver screen, I'll wager — the ghosts of both, Poe and his ominous bird, that mysterious Raven — will croak in unison — "Nevermore!"

Applauds state aid bill

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Professional Nurses of Essex County, I would like to thank Assemblypersons John J. Kelly and Marion Crecco, for introducing Assembly Bill A2767, along with legislative co-sponsors Maureen Ogden, James Zangari, Michael F. Aduato, Harry McEnroe, and Stephanie Bush. They all worked hard to get this bill passed, as the Assembly did unanimously.

The bill calls for state aid for county mental hospitals, including $7,320,000 for Essex County Hospital Center. The money is to be used to upgrade direct patient care staff levels, including salary increases to nursing staff, to undertake capital improvements and to purchase needed equipment.

Of course, no money is forthcoming, until and unless the state senate passes the companion Senate Bill S1981, introduced by Senator Richard J. Codey, and secondly, Governor Kean approves it. However, these facts do not lessen our gratitude to Assemblypersons Kelly, Crecco, and the co-sponsors.

They are obviously concerned about the care of the mentally ill and understand how critical conditions are at the Hospital Center and that time is running out. This concern and understanding has led them to act swiftly and positively, to get their bill through the Assembly.

Essex County needs more elected officials like John V. Kelly, Marion Crecco, and the other supportive Assemblypersons, who are responsive to their constituent's needs, while being responsible with their tax money.

Thank you Assemblypersons Kelly, Crecco, and all the other co-sponsors, for doing your best, to help us give quality care to our patients.

Laura Chaffee, R.N.

Courts appalling

To the Editor:

I'm a lifelong resident of Belleville and a recreational tennis player. My wife and I went up to play Sunday for the first time this year. We were appalled at the conditions of the courts. One net is completely torn across the top, and the large cracks in the court were patched with ordinary tar. Not only are these patches already cracking, but I slid onto a patch and ended up with a sneaker covered with tar. This with the temperature only in the 60's. I can picture the melting mess we'll have when the temperature goes into the 80's.

These terrible conditions not only affect the many recreational players, but imagine the effect on the young men and women on the Belleville High School tennis team. My daughter, Lori, played team tennis for Belleville for four years, so I'm very aware of the uphill battle these youngsters face in competing with the more affluent towns where tennis is a recognized and supported sport. The very least we could do is apply some of the recreational funding to give them courts they could be proud of, rather than making them a laughing stock.

The four original courts have been totally destroyed, due to neglect and a lack of maintenance; now the new ones are going the same way.

There are a number of companies in the North Jersey area that specialize in re-surfacing tennis courts. The cost to do this one time properly is for less than the cost of these temporary repairs, which will result in the ultimate destruction of a valuable recreation facility.

As voters and substantial taxpayers, I urge all of you to pursue this issue with the commissioners. I can assure you we will.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Commissioner Frantoni, I look forward to his reply.

A "Friendly" Week

By Eric Quinones
25 Years Ago

May 16, 1963...Drug busts continued to be the headline grabbers back in yesterday as seven Belleville youths were picked up on charges of narcotics use. The boys were scheduled to be arraigned in the Municipal Court before Magistrate Edward J. Abremson. It was hoped that this case would open youngsters' eyes to the evils of drugs.

Boxing made its Belleville return as the Essex County Shrine Club promoted amateur fights at the Elks Club ballroom. All proceeds went to charity.

Two town photographers were among the winners of the New Jersey Tercentary Photographic competition. The winning photos were a color shot of the Cherry Blossom Queen and a black and white photo of a surf fisherman.

In a joint effort by the Belleville Recreation Department and the Kiwanis Club, a six month "Bicycle Safety" program was instituted. Emphasis was put on avoiding accidents by learning hand signals and following the rules of the road.

A "Friendship Fund" set up by members of the Belleville Women's Club reached $193.19 this week in their continuing effort to raise money in order to finance a trip to Africa by Gilbert Sherman, a student at Rutgers University. The reason behind Sherman's trip was to help construct a school for African children as part of Operating Cross Roads Africa.

The Belleville High School baseball team took two games from the Kearny Cardinals, 3-2 and 12-0. These victories moved the Bellboys into the win column of the Big Ten

BHS presented its yearly Science

Fair this week. Projects representing work in biology, physics, chemistry, and general science were displayed. Projects ranged from reports to models of atomic energy plants.

PICKING THE WINNER — Belleville Lions Club President Dennis Mortone holds the winning ticket picked by Richard Ruffalo in the Club's Island Vacation Raffle.

Lions' raffle winner

Sy Grossman was the winner of a week in St. Maarten sponsored by the Lions Club International of Belleville which held its drawing at its luncheon May 12 in Forest Hill Field Club.

The trip is for two to spend seven days and seven nights in a private villa, complete with maid service. Round trip airfare and a rental car are also included in the winnings.

Pulling the winning ticket was Richard Ruffalo, a teacher in Belleville High School and a qualifier for the Para-Olympic Games to be held in Seoul, Korea. Ruffalo dug deep into the wicker basket which contained approximately 300 entries.

Money raised by the "Island Vacation Raffle" will be used to assist worthwhile causes. The Belleville Lions Club has served those in need in the community since 1925. In that time the organization has donated time and money to worthwhile causes, emphasizing service to less fortunate, particularly the blind and deaf.

The 18 members in the Belleville chapter are part of the largest service club organization in the world. The local club also has three lifetime members.

The group meets every second and fourth Thursdays at Forest Hill for a luncheon. They discuss possible fundraisers and donations to those in need. Anyone interested in joining the club can call Secretary Donald Ross at 751-0110 or Treasurer Frank Picone, 759-3717.

Academically Talented team competes for championship

The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat.

For seven fifth grade students of School 7, there have been a few thrills lately but not one agonizing moment as they are competing in an Essex County Academically Speaking competition being held in West Essex Middle School in North Caldwell. The team will compete in the finals May 25.

"It's similar to a mini-College Bowl," described Ann Marchioni, teacher and assistant to Head Coach Annette Woglom. "It's a rather complicated procedure, with five different rounds."

The six member, one alternate team has defeated Cedar Grove, Roseland and Livingston to advance to the finals. They do not know who they will face because they did not see the other semi-final match but Marchioni said it does not really matter. For the seven students, Brian Taggu, Jessica Misosia, Daniel Drunello, Michelle Gangoly, Anthony Demeo, Ralph Gencarelli and Jodi Karlowicz it has been more of a learning experience than a chance to show-off their intelligence.

"The students are really enjoying it," said Marchioni. "It's a good experience. They're developing poise and public speaking and they're learning how to deal with pressure."

But not too much as the teachers have made sure the children do not have a win-at-all-costs attitude. "We're not doing it every moment of every day. It's a fun thing. We didn't really enter it to win."

A wonderful opportunity

The concept came from Nicholas Corbo, the Superintendent of Schools in Cedar Grove. After discussing it among themselves, the two decided it would be a wonderful opportunity for the children.

When the idea was forwarded to the students, they were more than thrilled with entering, according to Marchioni. The two teachers had to decide which seven of the 38 students were best suited to represent Belleville.

"We held mock situations," recalled Marchioni. "to see who felt comfortable and we chose from that."

"Some of them have fantastic facilities. They have photogenic memories."

Marchioni said the teachers have kept the students in quiz shape with the help of trivia books. All are looking forward to the finals but even if they taste defeat for the first time, the program was a definite plus and the students will be rewarded.

"We'll do something special for them. We haven't decided yet but we will definitely have something," predicted Marchioni.

One disappointment according to Marchioni has been a lack of support by students, some faculty and administration. She said no Board of Education member has attended any of the first three competitions but she has her fingers crossed in the hopes the students will receive some support next Wednesday.

Giving the Brush to Infection

The toothbrush is often overlooked as a breeding ground for bacteria. Recent research has shown that the long bristles in these toothbrushes provide a perfect place for food particles to mingle with trapped water. As a result, germs have a chance to multiply unceasingly. The worst offenders are toothbrushes with natural bristles. The hollow core in each of these bristles acts to draw up water like a straw. All this points to replacing toothbrushes every few weeks. Studies show that people who replace their toothbrushes every two weeks recover sooner from chronic sore throats and gum infections. An infected toothbrush only keeps the problem alive.

If your sore throat or gum infection requires a prescription medication you're sure to find it by coming to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. Greeting cards, cosmetics, toiletries, Timex watches, transistor radios and gifts are available for graduations and Father's Day. Open: Daily 9 am - 10 pm, Sundays 9 am - 9 pm.

HANDY HINT:

Germs can live in the bristles of a toothbrush for up to a month.

Conroy participates in exercise

Navy Petty Officer First Class Michael F. Conroy, son of Donald F. Conroy of Harrison St., recently participated in exercise Team Spirit 88 while serving aboard the U.S. Naval Ship Spica, homeported in Oakland, California.

The exercise is designed to improve the defensive readiness of the U.S. and Republic of Korea forces.

He joined the Navy in July, 1971.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Mrs. R. of Nutley writes: "I'm concerned about oral cancer. Is there any self-examination I can do?"

Excellent question, Mrs. R. The self-examination you can and everyone should do is as follows: Tilt your head and feel around your neck area for any unusual lumps. Grasp your upper lip between your thumb and index finger and moving along your lip feel for any type of mass. Then do the same on the lower lip. Using the same technique grasp your right cheeks between the two fingers and again feel for any lumps. Do the same on your left cheek. Finally grasp your tongue, again feel for any lumps.

Look at your gums and mouth area for any discoloration or unusual marking. Observing these areas, follow by feeling for any lumps that may be under the skin's gum surface. This technique requires some supervision initially so have your dentist go over this self-examination technique with you.

Annual Rate

THE FLOOR.
WE WON'T LET IT GET ANY LOWER THAN THIS.

WE'LL START YOU OUT HERE.

THE CEILING?
THE SKY'S THE LIMIT.

If the uncertainty of today's economy has you all shook up, come see the Hungry Bankers and plant your feet firmly on a solid floor.

We'll set you up with our New Midlantic Prime CD. It's a one-year CD with a variable interest rate that's only 1.50% under our Prime Rate! If you open a Prime CD right now, you'll start off with an interest rate of 7.50%.

What if the Prime climbs? So will your interest earnings! That's the best part of Midlantic's Prime CD!—there's no limit to how much you can earn!

Plus we'll give you the security of a solid rate floor. This means your interest can't go below 7%—even if the Prime does.

Then as if that weren't enough, there's the Midlantic Interest Bonus. When you deposit the minimum $5,000 or more into a Midlantic Prime CD from any other financial institution, we'll credit $10 to the interest you earn. Deposit $20,000 or more and we'll make it $25. Deposit $50,000 to $100,000 and get a $50 Bonus.

And a Midlantic Prime CD is risk-free because, like all of our CD's, it's FDIC insured.

Besides the Prime CD, Midlantic offers you a whole range of fixed market rate investments. So come in and talk to the Hungry Bankers—chances are they have the right investment for you. Or give us a call at 1-800-MID-BANK.

Saint Peter's Co-op Program completed

A group of Saint Peter's College students will complete semester-long internships related to their career goals this month, thanks to the Jesuit college's Cooperative Education Program.

Named one of 15 top co-op programs in the nation last year by "Better Homes and Gardens" magazine, the Saint Peter's program this semester has allowed 163 students to receive academic credits and/or a salary through a professional internship. Saint Peter's students may earn up to nine credits toward their college degrees by participating in co-op.

This semester, more than 70 employers hired Saint Peter's students. Dr. Peter Gotlieb, co-op director, cited the compliments he has received from employers that demonstrate the caliber of Saint Peter's students.

"Saint Peter's students are eager and willing to learn," said Deborah M. Murray, of the Jersey City Women, Infant, and Children's (WIC) program. "I have found them to execute their positions in a highly professional, competent, independent and efficient manner. They were capable of completing all tasks placed before them."

Another employer, Tom Jaffa of Deloitte, Haskins, and Sells, said of Saint Peter's interns, "They have proven to be excellent staff members and a step ahead of everyone else. They are experienced before they even start. This is an excellent way to train future staff professionals in the ins and outs of the working environment."

The following Saint Peter's students from Essex County will complete spring semester internships: John Tafur, Belleville, Jamesway Corp.; Samuel Critides, Glen Ridge, Price Waterhouse and Co., C.P.A.; Yvette Porter, Irvington, Liz Claiborne Accessories; Alphonse Pecoraro, Newark, The B.O.C. Group; Carmen Marzella, Nutley, C.E. Cande Corp., and Lori Zarri West Caldwell, I.B.M. Corp.

"Your Health Is Our Concern"

Belleville students celebrate Law Day early

By Denise Dorizas

Law Day 1988 was proclaimed by President Reagan and was observed on May the first, but Law Day came earlier this year for Essex County students. Essex-Newark Legal Services in collaboration with Essex County College and Essex County Courts offered to students of Essex County the opportunity of examining the legal process first hand. Ten students from each high school in Essex County were invited to attend. Ms. Schneider of Belleville High School chose the following students to participate in the activities: Victor Bian, Dipali Desai, Denise Dorizas, Renee Juliano, Aisha Khadr, Michael Raimo, Robert Scheible, Cheri Valse, and Timothy Writt.

The program, executed for the most part at Essex County College, encompassed an array of speakers and two mock trials. The speakers

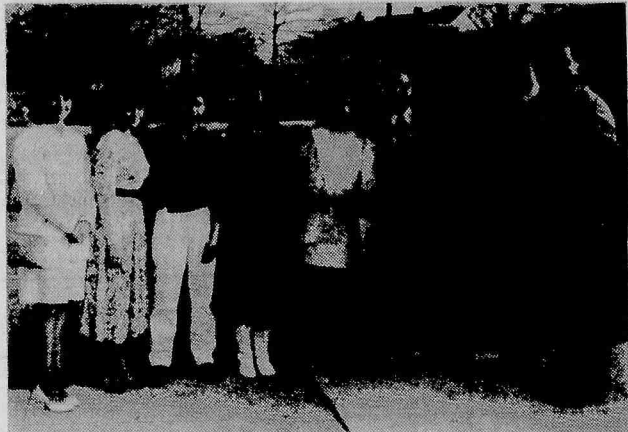

The students listened while each speaker explained different aspects of the law and its effect. Even a mock arrest was acted out before the students in order to demonstrate the Miranda rights of an individual. After the speakers, the students were each assigned a role and placed into groups for a mock trial. Each group was given the same case to which sides of petitioners and respondents were taken. Then the creativity and ingenuity of the students flowed. Each side prepared a case and presented their statements before a mock judge. The judge rendered a decision upon the statements and issued damages. Representatives of the Essex County Legal Services were present to assist in the proceedings and to answer any questions which ranged from law to which college they attended. These people were crucial in the development of the act as jurors and render a decision. Of the twelve jurors, seven were from Belleville High School. The prosecuting attorney, Horatius A. Greene, and the defending attorney, Melvyn Bergstein, presented their cases, called witnesses, cross-examined witnesses, and made closing arguments to the jury. Hon. Mahlon L. Fast explained to the jury the events as the trial proceeded.

After both sides were heard, the jury was asked to retire to the jury room and render a decision. This was a most difficult task for both attorneys presented excellent arguments. The jury became totally involved in the task they were assigned. Each person possessed their own opinion and time was running out; thus, the jury resulted in deadlock at the end of the day.

The day was both exciting and educational to all involved. This is an excellent program which hopefully will be continued in order to stimulate the youth of America to learn about our most precious asset and foundation - the law.

consisted of Hugh Heisler of the Essex-Newark Legal Services; Thomas P. Giblin, President of Essex County Freeholders; Lorraine Stanley from the American Civil Liberties Union; Kenneth Ply, Essex County Prosecutor; powerful speaker Professor Arthur Kinoy of the Rutgers School of Law in Newark, and Brenda Ayah, Esq.

After lunch, the students were taken to the Essex County Courthouse to witness and take an active part in a mock trial version of the problem presented to the students. This time the case would be argued by certified attorneys before a real judge. Certain people acted as witnesses and twelve members of the visiting students were chosen to

Family Supper and Awards

On Friday, June 3, the Belleville Knights of Columbus will hold a Family Supper and Awards night. The event will take place at the Knights of Columbus rooms located at 94 Bridge Street, Belleville.

Mary Burrell wed to Ronald E. Baumsteiger

Mary E. Burrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Burrell of Toms River, formerly of Belleville, became the bride recently of Ronald E. Baumsteiger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sarla of Forked River.

The Rev. Ralph Holman performed the ceremony in Holy Cross Church, Toms River. A reception followed at The Old Time Tavern, Toms River.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown accented with beading and lace and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long puffed sleeves.

A crown of white silk flowers held her cathedral length veil and she carried red roses.

Wendy Sathmary of Tuckerton was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Patricia Burrell of Belleville, Diane Codispoti of Randolph and Diane Underwood of Andover.

They were attired in red satin gowns with short puffed sleeves and scalloped hemlines. The honor attendant wore a crown of red and white silk flowers and carried a matching bouquet. The others had white silk flowers for headpieces and bouquets.

Robert Walker of Belleville served as best man. Ushers included Leonard Burrell of Belleville, David Codispoti of Randolph and Christopher Underwood of Andover. Ringbearer was Thomas L. Burrell of Belleville, nephew of the bride.

Mrs. Burrell, an alumna of William Paterson College, Wayne, is editor of special publications with Times-Beacon newspapers, Manahawkin.

Mr. Burrell, a graduate of RETS Technical School, attends Ocean County College. He is with Viking Yacht Co., New Gretna.

The couple honeymooned in Jamaica following the Feb. 13 nuptials and have made their home in Mystic Island.

Golden anniversary — Luigi and Elsie LaLuna celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a party May 1 at the Chandelier, Belleville, hosted by their children, Mary and John Fortunato, Millie and Carmine Lisante, Art and Carole LaLuna and John and Rose Ann LaLuna. The couple was married Apr. 30, 1938 in St. Rocco's Church, Newark. They have 10 grandchildren.

Essex County Tournament

Buc softball prepares for seventh straight semi-final

We start this week by congratulating Belleville softball coach Carl Corino on winning his 200th career game on May 7, when his club defeated Good Council in the first round of the Essex County tournament.

Now in his ninth year of coaching, Corino had a record of 204-49 entering this week's action. His team has battled some difficult odds this spring, with the loss of two varsity starters, Carol Morrison and Stacey Johansen to extensive injuries. Morrison is out with a knee that required major surgery and Johansen, having just recovered from a bad knee herself, broke a bone in her leg sliding into second base.

Despite it all, Belleville played its best game of the '88 campaign last Saturday when the team upended Verona, 4-1 in the quarterfinal round of the Essex County tournament. It moves the team into the semi final round for what has to be a record seventh straight season, and eighth time in the past nine years.

Belleville is undefeated in semi final play during that span. This Saturday, the team is slated to play Livingston, an old nemesis, at Pulaski Park, beginning at 6 p.m. The other semi final places two time defending champ Caldwell against another solid program in Cedar Grove.

Belleville and Livingston have put together a strong rivalry over the past seven seasons. In 1982, the teams played two memorable games in state and county action. In the '82 state sectional semi final, Livingston rallied from a 4-0 deficit to win, 8-6 in eight innings.

The '82 Lady Bucs would not fold, however. Five days later, the teams met again, this time for the championship of Essex County. Behind the play of veterans Nancy Coffey, Rose Leonidis and Natalie Chimento and the inspired play of youngsters like Dina De Aquino, Donna Brooks, Tracy Buono and Donna Campana, Belleville defeated Livingston, 8-0. A seven run fourth inning broke a scoreless game wide open in Belleville's favor.

In 1985, the teams met again for the county crown, with Belleville a heavy favorite. This time, Livingston met the challenge and posted an exciting 5-4 victory.

This season, Livingston stopped Belleville in a regular season game and the Lady Lancers will provide a very difficult challenge to Corino's squad on Saturday.

Despite the odds, Belleville seems to thrive on pressure. The team has received an outstanding performance from second baseman Laurie Dondarski. Now a junior, Dondarski has become an outstanding all around athlete. She competes for three varsity sports at Belleville, the volleyball, basketball and softball teams.

Corino feels she has become one of the best leadoff hitters in the area and is the catalyst to the Belleville attack.

The coach has also received a good performance from sophomore shortstop Jennifer Bridge.

"She's done an outstanding job," Corino said of Bridge. "This is her first year of varsity ball and she has played the field very well. Her performance with the stick has also improved considerably."

Last Saturday, Belleville defeated one of the counties better hurlers in Kelly Mc Cormick of Verona. A first inning, bases clearing triple by Natalie La Bella opened the doors for Belleville. La Bella's triple, with the bases loaded, scored three runs and gave the Lady Bucs the early momentum.

The battery positions are manned by sophomores who are gaining valuable experience. Laurie Moyer continues to show outstanding ability as the team catcher. Moyer replaces the graduated Laura Caruso, who didn't do much at Belleville except earn all state honors. Caruso was a simply outstanding athlete who played the backstop very well.

As a matter of fact, the catching position for Belleville softball has become a whos who of outstanding athletes. Before Caruso, you can find Tracy Buono (1981-84), an all state player and brilliant student, and before Buono, Denise Zarra (1977-79), a Belleville Hall of Famer, who played for Corino's wife, Eve.

Tricia Donnelly has done a nice job on the mound this spring. She was 6-1 entering this week's action and pitched an excellent game against Verona last week. She should draw the assignment this weekend against Livingston.

The team has also received good performances from Melissa Marcatono, and Michele Milano.

It will take a top effort from Belleville this Saturday, but certainly you have to like the teams chances. Good luck to the girls as they look to take another trip to the county championship game.

BUC BASEBALL TEAM ON A ROLL

Nick Grande certainly has to be optimistic about the play of his baseball team entering this crucial week of action. The Bucs won three games last week and boosted its team record to 11-7-1 on the year. Belleville's biggest win of the season came last Saturday, when the Bucs rallied from a 6-0 deficit in the sixth inning and beat Barringer, 9-8 in 13 innings in a Greater Newark Tournament contest.

Belleville overcame a tremendous performance by Barringer's southpaw hurler Albert Maldonado, who struck out 19 batters in 12 1/3 innings of work.

While Maldonado was very impressive, let's not forget the outstanding pitching of Frank Orrei. In 8 2/3 innings, Orrei struck out 11 batters and allowed just two hits. The pitching performance on both sides reminds me a little of a 1975 matchup between Belleville and Irvington.

In that game, Belleville's Greg Petite matched up against Irvington's hard thrower Ron Krill. Petite held a 1-0 lead until the sixth inning, when the Campers, then the number one ranked team in New Jersey, tied the game.

Krill exited, and Steve Wacker came in for Irvington and was practically untouchable for the next nine innings. The game was tied at one when Petite exited for Belleville in the 11th inning to a rousing ovation. Irvington eventually won, 4-1, in the 14th inning, but it certainly was a great game.

Getting back to last Saturday, while Orrei did the job on the mound, Gary Villano proved to be the hero at the plate. Villano drilled a two out triple in the top of the 13th inning that scored George Speer and Michael Thompson with the tie breaking runs that gave Belleville an 8-6 lead.

Villano then scored what proved to be the game winning run when P.J. Grande beat out an infield single. Belleville then

It hasn't been the smoothest of seasons for the Belleville softball team. Injuries have taken its toll, but the girls have found a way to stay in the hunt. Last Saturday, the team won a huge game against Verona, 4-1, in the quarterfinal round of the Essex County tournament.

Carl Corino's crew took a 17-6 mark into this week. The girls battled Montclair and Passaic earlier this week. Tomorrow, Belleville is host to Nutley in a big conference game, starting at 4 p.m. The team has a state game with Union scheduled for this afternoon, although that wasn't official as of press time.

On Saturday, the team plays Livingston in the semi final round of the ECT. This marks the seventh straight season that Belleville has appeared in the semi final round of the county tournament. Belleville is 6-0 in the past six semi final games.

Last week, Belleville lost to Bloomfield, 3-2, then came back to sweep Kennedy, 16-0 and 10-0 in a double header. The Lady Bucs upended Eastside, 13-5 last Friday and last Saturday, the girls defeated Verona in the ECT game.

"I thought we played our best game of the year against Verona," Corino said last weekend. "It was a very good effort on our part. I thought Tricia (Donnelly) pitched a very good game for us. Our kids responded to the challenge and did the job."

Belleville had its hand full against one of the better pitchers in Essex County, Kelly Mc Cormick.

"We knew she would be tough," Corino said of Mc Cormick. "We were able to jump out to an early lead and our kids did the job."

Belleville took a 3-0 lead in the top of the first inning. Laurie Dondarski, who has been phenomenal all season long, started things with a single. Jennifer Bridge and Laurie Moyer then beat out infield hits to load the bases. It set the stage for Natalie La Bella, who had the biggest hit of her season with a bases clearing triple.

"Natalie had a clutch hit," Corino said. "That really got us going."

Mc Cormick settled down after La Bella's triple, holding Belleville to one run for the remainder of the game. However, Donnelly, a sophomore, was more than equal to the challenge.

She hurled a tremendous game, striking out two, walking three and allowing just six hits in a complete game effort. The victory boosted her season mark to 6-1.

Belleville's final run was sparked by Dondarski once again. She singled to start the inning and moved to third base on a sacrifice by Michele Milano. Dondarski then scored when Bridge grounded out.

Dondarski had two hits in the game, scored two runs and stole four bases. La Bella was 1 for 2 and had those three big RBI's.

Against Eastside, Belleville won handily as Donnelly did the job once again. She struck out four and walked two in pitching a complete game. Belleville received four home runs in this contest, two of which came from Simone Edwards who was just coming back after an injury.

Laurie Moyer and Melissa Marcatono also drilled homers to pace the Belleville offense. Milano had three hits in the game, La Bella had two and Marcatono finished with two hits and 3 RBI's. Edwards had 5 RBI's on the day and Dondarski finished with four hits and two stolen bases.

Belleville had a rare double header against Kennedy and came away with two shutouts. The scores were 16-0 and 10-0 as Donnelly hurled both games. She was credited with

Bucs come back and defeat Barringer in 13-inning marathon game, 9-8

After an emotionally draining victory over Barringer in a GNT game last Saturday, the Belleville baseball team came out flat last Monday and lost a key NNJIL contest at Montclair.

The Bucs fell to 11-8-1 on the season, and the defeat was the only blemish on a very good week for the Buccaneers.

Nick Grande's club enters a crucial week. The team was at Eastside yesterday and was host to Passaic yesterday. This afternoon, the team is at Kennedy in a 4 p.m. start. Tomorrow, the Bucs are at Nutley, also at 4. On Saturday, the club travels to Cedar Grove for a quarterfinal contest, with Cedar Grove, commencing at 2:30 p.m. Next Monday, the team is host to Kennedy, and next Wednesday, the Bucs go to Bloomfield. Both of those games begin at 4.

Last week, the team upended Irvington, 6-0 in the preliminary round of the GNT. Belleville also defeated Eastside, 16-2 and Barringer, 9-8 (in 13 innings) before losing last Monday's contest at Montclair, 7-2.

The game with Montclair last Monday was a disappointing loss for the Bucs. Montclair was leading Belleville by one game in the conference race entering last Monday's battle. However, it was all Montclair from the outset as the Mounties pulled away to a five run victory.

"We were terrible," said a rather disappointed Grande afterward. "Absolutely no intensity at all. That was a big game for us in the conference standings and we got nothing going at all. Their pitcher was a lefty, and he was nothing like the guy we faced last Saturday (versus Barringer). However, we made him look tremendous. They (Montclair) took advantage of their opportunities and we never got going."

Ernie Brodie took the loss for Belleville. The Bucs were limited to three hits on the day.

Against Barringer, things didn't look too good in the early going. After three scoreless innings, the Bears exploded for four runs in the bottom of the fourth for a 4-0 lead.

Barringer's pitcher, Albert Maldonado, appeared to be total control. The southpaw would strike out 19 batters in the marathon contest and his outstanding assortment of pitches more than impressed Grande.

"Without question, he's the best we've seen this year," the coach said of Maldonado. "In fact, I'd venture to say he's one of the best in the state. He's just a fantastic athlete. Our kids remember him from little league days and we knew what to expect."

Thus, it was hard to believe that Belleville could rally against this talent. Barringer added two more runs in the fifth inning, and entering the top of the sixth, the Bucs were behind by a seemingly invincible 6-0 margin.

However, Belleville was determined to come back. P.J. Grande started the sixth with a walk. Jeff Spillsbury singled and both men scored when Jay Marchese lined a triple. Mike Finan came back with a double, scoring Marchese and narrowing the margin to 6-3.

Anthony Rodriguez made the game closer when he hit a single, scoring Finan. Rodriguez then stole second base and came around to score on a Frank Orrei single.

The Bucs stilled trailed, 6-5 entering the top of the seventh, but once again, some clutch hitting enabled the Bucs to tie the game. A controversial call also enabled the game to go into extra innings.

Belleville tied the game on a Spillsbury double and a single by Marchese. Now the controversy starts. Marchese stole second base, putting the go-ahead run into scoring position.

Finan stepped to the plate and hit a drive to leftfield. The Barringer leftfielder makes a diving catch, but as he falls to the ground, the ball is dislodged and rolls free. Marchese rounded third base and scored what appeared to be the winning run.

However, the third base umpire ruled that the catch was valid and Grande came out to "discuss" the matter.

"It was a bad call," the coach said. "The umpire called it a voluntary release, but I can't see how when his momentum knocked the ball out of the glove. It was obvious. He hit the ground and the ball jarred loose. I asked him to check with the home plate umpire, but he said the call was final."

The call came with two outs, so the inning ended with the game tied. The pitchers then took center

Crew team competes in the Mid-Hudson

The Belleville crew team competed in the Mid Hudson Regatta last weekend and took home two team championships. The boys and girls' senior four shells were victorious in Upstate New York and now the team gears for the two biggest weeks of the crew season.

This weekend, the Bucs will travel to Philadelphia for the prestigious Stotesbury Regatta. Next weekend, Memorial Day Week-end, the Bucs will finish the 1988 season by racing in the National Championships, to be held in Virginia.

Last Saturday, Belleville arrived at the bouthouse at the unheard of time of 4 a.m. to begin a long jaunt to the Mid Hudson Regatta. The race is held in Upstate New York and starts early because the Hudson River has a tendency to be quite rough by the afternoon.

By the time the final race of the day came around, the waters were indeed tough to handle. The final race, the boys' senior four, featured two boats from Belleville competing in the finals.

The regular senior four shell and the midweight four boys took part in the race. As was the case the previous weekend, there was not a midweight race, so the boys had to move up in class to the senior four category.

"Two teams dropped out of the senior four race," recalled head coach Scott Fabian. "We were able to get two boats across and they finished 1-2 in the race."

The boys senior four, made up of Dale Watkowski, Vin Colaninno, Len Linfante, Gus Leming and Heather Apruzesse were victorious. Right behind was the midweight four, consisting of Jerry Russo, Mike Mc Guire, Brian Villano, Tom Eccles and Sue O'Donnell, who finished second. Last week, at the Upper Merion Regatta, the midweight shell finished ahead of the senior four boat. Both teams should be in top form for the Stotesbury Regatta this weekend.

The girls senior four was an impressive winner. The team made a change in the lineup, with freshman Danielle Groeling taking Carolyn Giuffrida's place in the shell. Giuffrida couldn't make the race due to academic requirements.

In addition to Groeling, the remainder of the senior four boat were Kim Trefsgar, Kristine Villano, Joyce Burke and Laura Nard-

Recreation Men's Softball Results

As of May 10

Suppa's Bar, For Pete's Sake and De'Bacco's 322 lead their respective Men's Softball League standings with undefeated records at this point. DeBacco (3-0) is ahead in the Wednesday A League after winning 9-4 over Michael's Roscommon House and 17-3 over Carolan Contractors.

Michael's (2-1) defeated Rossmore Pharmacy 9-4 and Carolan (2-1) outlasted Racioppi's Bakery 3-1. Racioppi's (1-2) topped Wallace & Tiernan 6-1 while Rossmore (1-2) also beat Wallace & Tiernan, 5-2.

Suppa's (5-0) leads the Monday A League standings after beating Belleville Shoes 17-2 and Plaza Travel, 11-2. Dirty Turps (3-2) edged Printing Techniques 2-1, but fell to Howard Savings (3-2) by a 5-4 margin. Printing Techniques (2-2-1) walloped Belleville Shoes, 16-4, and Plaza Travel (1-3-1) edged Howard Savings, 7-6.

For Pete's Sake is ahead of the Tuesday B League with a 5-0 record after winning 6-1 over Belleville Political Club and 10-4 over Andros Farms. Five Brothers Carting (4-1) won 6-3 over Roselli's Amoco but lost, 9-7, to Andros Farms (2-3). Eastern Molding (3-2) swept their double header, beating Roselli's (1-4) in eight innings, 15-10, and besting BPSC 12-2. The Thursday B League was rained out.

Tennis team caps off best week so far by defeating Glen Ridge in counties

The Belleville tennis team enjoyed its best week of the 1988 season to date, beating Paterson Eastside in an NNJIL battle and winning a match in the prestigious Essex County tournament.

Tony Salese's club battled Passaic yesterday and will be at Paterson Kennedy this afternoon. Tomorrow, the club is at Nutley. Next Wednesday, Belleville travels to Bloomfield, and next Friday, the team ends the season with a match at Elmwood Park.

Last week, the Bucs shutout Paterson Eastside, 5-0. The team competed in the Essex County tournament last Thursday, losing in the first round to Columbia, 5-0, then upsetting Glen Ridge in the consolation round, 3-2. The victory over Glen Ridge enabled Belleville to play in the consolation semi final round, where it lost to a good Irvington club, 5-0.

"The county tournament was outstanding," said Salese. "The talent in this county is phenomenal. The level of tennis that some of those kids play at is really something to see."

Millburn won the team championship, beating Newark Academy. As for Belleville, its victory over Glen Ridge certainly deserves some accolades.

The Bucs received victories from Jonas Imprago at first singles, Andy Cueva at second singles and the doubles team of Gus Lijo and Dawson Bloom.

In the opening round of the counties, Belleville was on the short end of a 5-0 count against the number seven seed, Columbia High School. Imprago played an excellent match at first singles against a very talented player in Nelson Eubanks.

"I thought Jonas did a very good job," said Salese. "He was facing an excellent player in Eubanks and took a number of the games to duce. There were some excellent volleys in that match; too."

Imprago lost the match in two sets, 1-6, 3-6.

In the victory over Paterson Eastside last week, Imprago, Cueva and Dawson Bloom won at first, single and third singles respectively.

The first doubles team of Khoi Pham and Mark Mellinger and the second doubles of Ahn Bui and Hao Ly completed the shutout for Belleville.

The Bucs are hoping for a few more victories before the season concludes next Friday.

"We've made some strides this year," Salese said. "The kids have been playing very well of late."

BUC SHOTS

withstood a Barringer rally in the bottom of the 13th and prevailed by one run.

The victory moves the Bucs to the quarterfinal round of the GNT, where Cedar Grove awaits this weekend. Cedar Grove is ranked second in Essex County and will provide a tough assignment. Should Belleville get by that game, then it could face top seeded and defending champion Glen Ridge in the semi finals next weekend. Glen Ridge beat Belleville in last years semi final contest, 4-3.

Needless to say, there should be plenty of excitement on the diamonds for Belleville High this weekend. Good luck again to both the softball and baseball teams as they enter a big week.

LAST WEEK'S QUIZ

The 1975 Islanders defeated the New York Rangers in three games, then stopped the Pittsburgh Penguins in an exciting seven games series. The Islanders had trailed in that series, 3 games to 0, then came back to win the next four. The Islanders then lost in the Stanley Cup semi finals to Philadelphia, also in seven games.

2 defeat to Bloomfield. The loss all but ended Belleville's hopes of winning another NNJIL crown.

"That pretty much ended our hopes for the conference," Corino said. "We had our chances, we left 13 runners on base. We just didn't connect when we had to."

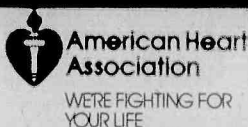

Janine Luzzi was the losing pitcher for Belleville. She allowed just five hits, but walked nine and struck out one. The Lady Bengals scored twice off Luzzi in the second inning for a 2-0 lead.

Belleville cut the gap to 2-1 in the third. Bridge walked, stole second base, advanced to third on a passed ball and scored on a sacrifice fly by Racquel Melson.

After Bloomfield extended the lead to 3-1, Belleville came back with a run in the sixth inning.

Bridge started the rally with a single. Melson singled Bridge to second and Luzzi hit a fly to right field which was caught. However, a throwing error on the play allowed Bridge to score from second base for Belleville's second and final run.

stage, with both teams scoreless for the next five innings. Marchese started the game for Belleville and hurled the first 4 1/3 innings. He was then replaced by Orrei, who hurled 8 2/3 innings of outstanding baseball. Orrei struck out 11 batters and eventually got the win.

In the top of the 13th inning, Belleville scored three times off an obviously tired Maldonado. Rodriguez walked, George Speer singled and Mike Thompson was hit by a pitch, loading the bases with no one out.

one. The shell won the Upper Merion Regatta last weekend, and like the boys entries, should be a tough challenge in this weekend's Stotes.

The boys and girls junior four shells also did well. Both teams took third place in the finals. The boys junior four is made up of Tom Pontrella, Mike Romano, Steve Caponi, Lee Hands and Sean Kimball. Romano is a junior while the remainder of that team are all in their freshman year.

The girls junior four consists of Denise Ives, Charlene Santora, Liz Morris, Sue Aufiero and Jessica Nappi.

Russo cap bill advances

Legislation sponsored by Senate President John F. Russo that would protect taxpayers from dramatic increases in state spending advanced last week to the full Assembly for consideration.

The bill, S.105, was unanimously released by the Assembly Appropriation Committee.

"This taxpayer protection legislation is five years overdue," said Senate President Russo, who has been fighting for the reinstatement of the cap law since the statute expired in 1983. "I urge Assembly Speaker Chuck Hardwick to make this measure a priority for consideration."

The Senate President noted that state spending has increased $6.1 billion since 1982, or 107 percent. The proposed 1988-89 budget raises spending by $1.3 billion - more than twice the inflation rate.

Senator Russo's proposal would limit increases in state spending to the three-year average of statewide personal income growth. Under the plan, state spending caps could only be broken if two thirds of the members of each house of the Legislature vote in favor of doing so.

"Government should be forced to live within its means instead of making taxpayers pay for runaway state spending," said Russo.

The original 1976 state cap law, sponsored by Senator Russo, was the first in the nation. Nineteen states now have similar laws.

Grande called for a suicide squeeze, but the batter missed the ball and Rodriguez was hung out to dry at third. With two outs, and the game still tied at six, Gary Villano delivered the key blow, a triple that drove home Speer and Thompson and gave the Bucs an 8-6 lead. P.J. Grande then beat out an infield hit, scoring Villano and giving the Bucs what proved to be the winning run.

To Barringer's credit, they didn't quit. The Bears scored twice off Orrei in the bottom of the 13th off a single, three walks and a sacrifice fly. The game ended on a ground out to shortstop.

"It was a big game for us," Grande said. "I hope Maldonado's arm is okay. He must have thrown well over 200 pitches for them."

"I thought Frankie (Orrei) was outstanding for us. It was just a great game."

Belleville had 15 hits on the afternoon while Barringer finished with 13.

Versus Irvington, Belleville won 6-0 as Ernie Brodie hurled a complete game shutout.

Brodie, a senior, allowed just four hits on the day. He struck out eight, walked none and was in complete control of the contest.

The Bucs tallied three times in the second and three times in the fourth inning to account for the six runs.

In the second, Finan walked and Rodriguez and Speer singled to load the bases. Mike Di Biase lofted a sacrifice fly, scoring Finan and Villano came through with another key hit, a single scoring two runs.

In the fourth, Belleville did all the damage after two men were out. Villano walked and Grande reached safely on an error. Spillsbury singled in one run and Marchese drove home two more, with an error accounting for that third run.

Spillsbury was 2 for 2 in the game, Marchese was 2 for 2 and Rodriguez finished 2 for 4.

Against Eastside, Belleville breezed to a 16-2 victory. Mike Thompson got the victory, hurling a complete game. He allowed just four hits, struck out five and walked three.

The Bucs put the game away early, scoring four times in the first inning. Grande started things with a walk. Spillsbury singled, but Marchese hit into an around the diamond double play. With two outs and Grande on third, Finan reached safely on an error, scoring the first run. With Finan running, Rodriguez hit a single and Finan came all the way around to score the second run thanks to a throwing error.

Speer then singled, putting runners on first and third and a long single by Di Biase accounted for two more runs and the 4-0 lead.

Belleville had 10 hits on the day. Speer was 2 for 2, Di Biase finished 2 for 4, Finan had 3 RBI's and Grande finished with 2 RBI's. Also doing well was Steve Iannuzzi, who had two ribbies.

Belleville now enters a critical week. The team, weather permitting, will be playing every day this week and on Saturday, faces a big game in the quarterfinal round of the Greater Newark Tournament.

Car chase ends in Belleville

By Karen A. Lynch

An alleged would-be van thief who attempted to run down several police officers was apprehended last week when he tried to escape on foot.

Chris Allen "Kareem" Pannell, 20, of Irvington was charged with theft of movable property, criminal trespass, eluding arrest and three counts of aggravated assault in Wednesday's incident, which began in a Grove Street lot and ended in Belleville.

Pannell is being held on $2,500 bail in Essex County Jail, Caldwell, and the case will be referred to a grand jury, Det. Sgt. Thomas Bianco said.

Bianco said he received a call at 11:50 a.m. from the owner of National Travelers, a van customizing firm, who said a suspicious man was looking into parked vehicles.

Bianco and Patrolmen David Burke, Thomas Colandra and Joseph Graney went to Franklin Street and Watessing Avenue and waited.

About five minutes later Det. Sgt. Daniel Davis, who had stayed in telephone contact with National Travelers, informed them a man had just entered a pink and white van and was driving toward the exit.

Accompanied by Sgt. Christopher Kondreck of the Belleville Police Department, officers approached the front gate. The van operator braked to a halt on seeing them, Bianco said.

When Bianco exited his patrol car and held up his police badge, the operator allegedly accelerated and drove toward him, forcing Bianco back into his vehicle for safety.

Graney, who had run around the front of the police car, "also had to jump to safety to avoid being run down," Bianco said.

Pannell then drove toward Burke, who jumped onto the sidewalk, then north on Watessing, heading toward Kondreck, according to reports.

The van swerved onto the sidewalk and back into the roadway, continuing north with officers in pursuit.

It fled into Belleville, where on Brighton Avenue Pannell allegedly lost control and struck a chain-link fence.

He exited the van and attempted to flee, but was brought to the ground and handcuffed by Bianco, Graney and Kondreck.

No injuries occurred during the arrest, Bianco said.

"These days we have to be more cautious, especially with stolen motor vehicles," he said of the alleged assault attempts.

Bianco said the investigation will continue: "Other vans have been stolen from there in the past."

OVER THE LINE...

By Gregg Friedmann

"Not just a job..."

Well, I'm back, and guess what! Give up?

I won't keep you in suspense. I'm all set to go on another journey.

Sound like fun?

Good! Read on. I'll provide the introduction.

Hop on the bus, Gus—We're in the real world!

You know—bustling businessmen, huge cities, smog, insider trading...well, you get my meaning.

Why are we here? Because in the real world people work hard to get ahead. Nothing is handed to you, and you usually wind up washing your own Fruit of the Looms, at least for a little while.

But nobody wants to read that. This is supposed to be entertaining not mundane, right? Right.

Well?

O.K., settle down—You KNOW I have a point, a purpose to using up all this ink.

So what is it?

Simple. Many people wish their jobs were more fun, and a lot less routine. Folks just don't want good times to begin Friday night and end on Monday morning when you wake up half-alive and ask the "Big Guy" what you did to deserve this.

Well, buck up, little camper—things aren't that bad.

Picture a job where you do a little maintenance, and then bask in the sun for a few hours, and then go home. Responsibilities? Tremendous: You have to keep an eye (in fact both) on those in the pool.

Did I say pool?

Yep, and I also said basking in sun.

For "Double Jeopardy," what IS this job?

Why, lifeguard, of course!

Oops—get off the floor, you're scaring the dog. Yeah, I said lifeguard.

Cool, huh? It is. I've been one for the last two summers, and I'd like to make some clarifications.

Speaking for myself, I have numerous duties at the pool. I'm at work about an hour before the pool opens to vacuum. (Official Pool Lingo Word: Vacuuming. Definition: To relieve the pool floor of debris and other intruding objects such as leaves, band-aids, etc.)

Then, the chemicals have to be checked at regular intervals. As many of you already know, both chlorine and pH are used. (Official Pool Lingo Words: 2 and 3—Chlorine. Definition: Chlorine is added to pool water in an effort to prevent harmful bacteria and such from living and multiplying in the pool water. As far as pH is concerned, its main purpose is to control the acidity of the water.)

But then what? How do I spend the rest of my time? Why, by guarding two pools at once, which can mean keeping track of mega amounts of swimmers on week-ends. (I shall now except the Official Pat Brightman Sarcasmic Sympathy Award, although I didn't prepare a speech. For those not in the know, Mr. Brightman is the editor of the Belleville Times, and does a heckuva job—but hey, that's only my opinion. I'm not in charge.)

All kidding aside, guarding IS an enjoyable position, but it IS a big responsibility, as well. Only a select few can hold this coveted occupation, since you must pass a gruelling (and I do mean gruelling) course and final exam to be able to work as a lifeguard.

Still, the majority of my time is spent sitting in the sun, sporting a pair of shades, and watching the toddlers doggie paddle. I readily admit that, but I also enjoy dealing with people and teaching those ex-diaperites to swim, dive, etc. It is because of this that it becomes more than just a job. It becomes, well, an adventure!

Well, I'd like to tell you more but (a) I'm out of ideas, (b) I don't have anything else to say, and (c) I seem to have misplaced my favorite pair of surfer shorts.

As a direct result of the above revelations, I'll simply have to say "G'day" until next time...same bat-time, same bat-newspaper.

Crecco introduces two bills

An Assembly Resolution sponsored by Assemblywoman Marion Crecco (R-Essex) designation the Month of May as "Children's Liver Foundation Public Awareness Month" won Assembly approval earlier this week.

Crecco also co-sponsored a bill with Assemblyman John V. Kelly that would revise the state's Sheltered Workshop Act to allow full payment of costs under the extended employment program which won release last week from the Assembly by a vote of 69-0.

"More than 100 types of liver diseases have been identified in children and of the more than one million cases of hepatitis reported each year in the nation, more than half of these cases occur in children," said Crecco.

The Assistant Majority Whip also added that "the New Jersey chapter of the Children's Liver Foundation has played an important role in promoting awareness of children's liver disorders an supporting medical research since the group was founded in 1975."

Her resolution, AR-90, requests Governor Thomas H. Kean to issue an official proclamation for the observance of "Children's Liver Foundation Public Awareness Month."

"Many of the diseases of the liver that afflict children can result in permanent damage and the eventual death of a youngster," commented Crecco. "Recently, great strides have been made with improved surgical techniques and the technology for treating disorders. It is appropriate that we call attention to this form of disease and the heroic efforts that are being made to stamp it out."

AR-90 passed the Assembly by a voice vote and was sent to Governor Kean.

Blood Center officials emphasize that it is impossible to contract aids or any other illness through the donation process. All materials are sterile, used only once by qualified nurses and workers and then discarded.

A complete physical will be given before you can donate. Otto Romanski, Blood Bank chairman, said "Remember the life you save may some day be your own."

The drive is open for all members of the community as well as brother Knights, Belleville police and firemen and all donors who wish to donate.

For additional information please contact Grand Knight Joseph Wolf, 991-4930 or Otto Romanski, Blood Bank chairman, 759-9656.

PRAYER OF APPLICATION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Holy Spirit who solve all problems, who light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who give me the Divine gift to forgive and to forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusion. I wish to be with you Eternal Glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine. The person must say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. After 3 days the favor will be granted even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor, only your initial should appear at bottom. G.E.
