Washington Avenue goes Hollywood as movie is shot

Lights. Camera. Action. Those three words of movie making were heard in Belleville last week as Washington Avenue took center stage for a feature length film as a scene from the movie was shot outside Lu-Wah Chinese Restaurant.

The movie, a comedy/drama entitled "A Fakebook," is set during the early 1960s in Brooklyn and Queens but according to the assistant director, it was easier to film here. "It's an original screenplay, set in 1961. The leader of a jazz band sees the band splitting up and he's trying to keep it together but everyone's going their separate ways so he's trying to find a new life," said Michael Listo.

"We wanted all New Jersey locations," he continued. "The Belleville Police have been real cooperative. No problems with traffic and they put a man on for the crowd."

Only one scene, for the film was shot but the actors and crew were outside the restaurant for over two hours, starting at noon and ending at approximately 2:30. A member of the crew was familiar with the area and when a Chinese restaurant with the flavor of the 1960s was needed Lu-Wah came to mind.

"I was surprised," replied Manager and Owner Kim Chen when asked about his reaction. "This is a small restaurant in a small town."

According to Director Ralph Topproff the scene went "real quick," even though the actual length of the scene was under two minutes. After completing the scene the crew moved on to Newark, where they were expected to shoot for three or four hours, according to Topproff.

The movie should be completed in about six weeks and if everything goes well a release is planned for next spring.

As for the effect the movie had, or will have, on Lu-Wah's business, Chen was relaxed in his response. "I told them to come after lunch. We had already had our rush by the time they came."

"It's only a small part in a small movie," he continued, feeling it will not increase business a great deal. — By P. Brightman

Parking problem solved

Planners approve Nanina's ballroom

By Pat Brightman

A ballroom expansion to Nanina's In The Park restaurant on Mill Street was approved unanimously by the Belleville Planning Board at its meeting last week after alterations were made on the plans to meet parking requirements.

Revised plans showed an additional 19 spaces, increasing the total to 127, two over the required minimum. The passing is conditional on Nanina's meeting requirements set by the board and some board members, while voting in favor, had comments about the project.

Both Planning Board Chairman Joseph Doyle and Alois E. Schmitt, Jr. said if the proposal was not on a dead end street they would have misgivings. "There is a lot I see here that I wouldn't accept on other applications," commented Doyle, who also said this project is not used as an example in future applications.

"We achieved the additional stalls (parking spaces) by reducing the stalls themselves," stated traffic expert Gerard Greco. According to Greco, the vallet parking spaces were altered to only be three deep instead of the four originally planned.

"This is unique in that upon the removal of the two residential dwellings there will be a public road feeding into one facility, Nanina's," said Greco. According to Greco an additional 22 spots will be available if cars are permitted to park on the street, 28 if it is vallet parked.

The attorney for Nanina's, Jack Sariano, said he had inquired on behalf of Nanina's about the street but there is some confusion if the street is town-owned or county-owned, therefore he did not know the possibility of acquiring the street.

Greco explained there will be 111 vallet parking spaces, at eight feet by 14 feet, 13 spaces for owners to pull in, with dimensions of nine feet by 20 feet, and three handicapped spaces but two additional handicapped spaces were added at the request of the board.

Board member Kevin Kennedy asked how parking would be distinguished at lunch when no vallet parking is available. Greco replied by saying vallet spaces would be one color and larger spaces would be another. To avoid confusion the board requested posting a sign explaining the parking arrangement.

Many safety conditions noted by Police Chief George Lister in a letter dated last month were remedied but concern over aisle width remained.

The conditions set by the board were: any new restaurant signs would need approval by the board; an engineer review of the site drawings; vallet parking; careful consideration of the police comments; signs for parking designation, and the handicapped spaces. A series of variances, including rear yard, front setback, shadetree and number of driveways also were to be met by Nanina's.

Concern over Grand Union

A resident, Lois Silvittio, asked the board what they could do about the accidents occurring at the Grand Union Shopping Center on Main Street. She said, on average, four accidents happen per month because there is no sidewalk and the hedges are too high, creating poor visibility for drivers pulling out. She also said a "No left hand turn" sign is no longer at the driveway of the center.

Doyle said the board had no jurisdiction on the sidewalks but the center is required to keep the hedges trimmed and to have the sign posted. Board Attorney Thomas DiBiasi, Esq. said he would send a letter to the representatives of Grand Union requesting they come before the board.

The board also agreed to send to the Belleville Board of Commissioners an ordinance reducing the number of housing units per acre from 25 to 16.

Expansion to Antonio's approved a second time

An addition to Antonio's Ristorante in the Plaza Shopping Center on Franklin Avenue was approved for a second time by the Belleville Planning Board at its meeting last week.

By a vote of 5-2 the board will allow Anthony Iovino to increase the restaurant by approximately 650 square feet, provided he meet conditions set by the board. The board originally approved the expansion April 14 by a vote of 4-2 with one abstention but a small technicality in the site plan concerning land lots on the township map.

Planning Board Chairman Joseph Doyle and Alois E. Schmitt, Jr. voted against the proposal citing past problems with the owners of the property, F. & P. Associates. "I am also against any expansion at that center," said Doyle.

Board vice chairman Chris Albanese suggested getting right to the technicality but Chairman Joseph Doyle and Iovino's attorney Thomas Murphy disagreed, feeling testimony would be needed for the record.

The confusion on the land lots stems from the fact that a portion of the area Iovino had included for parking may have been owned by two separate individuals. Murphy explained while they are two separate entities owning the property, the individuals are the same as the lot where the parking is located is owned by F. & P. Holding Co. and the restaurant lot is owned by F. & P. Associates.

"There is very little vestibule area, you may be able to squeeze two people," explained architect Victor Alexandro. He also explained a lack of storage space for the restaurant.

"We will eliminate the alley which is full of debris and may be used as a hiding area for individuals," he concluded.

Traffic expert Joseph Staiger testified that of the 117 parking spaces at the center, the 72 in the front are fairly well utilized but the 45 spaces to the side and rear of the center are rarely used.

Resident Jerry Del Guercio wondered if Staiger had anticipated his survey the possibility of the county removing 10-15 spaces but Doyle informed Del Guercio he had spoken to the Essex County Planning Board Chairman and he had said the removal of the spaces was not planned in the near future. Doyle interrupted the "near future" to be no sooner than five years.

"Seats are directly related to parking, not size (of building). The expansion really should have no effect on parking," he said.

Iovino said he wanted the added space so people would have a place "to hang their coats and hats" and to keep them away from the weather while they wait to be seated. He said it will not be used to add any seats.

"He's had ample parking for 23 years," said board member Niles Monica. "I don't see a problem at all. If parking was the question I don't know why they're back here."

Doyle, Del Guercio, and resident Victor Canning expressed concern over a bar being put in the restaurant, as Canning said he noticed in the newspaper immediately after the first approval was given, Iovino applied for a liquor license.

Iovino said there will be no bar, the liquor license was applied for so people may drink while they eat. Doyle asked if Iovino would be opposed to a condition in the resolution stating no sit down or standing bar, and Iovino said he would have no problem.

Other conditions were a 70 seat maximum and a firewall between the restaurant and the bakery.

Recycling program increases tonnage

Recycling tonnage for 1988 has either met or exceeded the 1987 yearly totals with little over half the year gone, according to Recycling Coordinator Joseph Scaperrotta.

The increased amounts of newspapers, cardboard, aluminum, glass and plastics is due to more businesses and private citizens becoming more involved in the still voluntary program. Eventually the program will become mandatory but not until Essex County has a program approved by the state.

In 1987, 2,946.65 tons were recycled, a 50 percent increase from 1986. Of last year's figures approximately 2,200 tons were attributed to cardboard and newspaper, while the three other recyclables lagged behind. According to Scaperrotta, this year glass collection has tripled and aluminum has quadrupled, with over five months remaining.

"We started the glass (collecting) late," explained Scaperrotta. "That started in November of 1987. Aluminum started late in the year too," noting how the opportunity for collection was at a minimum.

Most of the tonnage has been brought to the Recreation and Parks yard on William Street by businesses but residents have also been dropping off items as the program is becoming more known.

"The plastic, which we collected about a ton of last year, is mostly from industry," explained Scaper-rotta. "Businesses have been very receptive about bringing cardboard to the yard."

Financially, the program has been a major success, as Scaperrotta estimated $10,000 being saved on dumping fees due to the collecting of the recyclables. Added to that figure is $14 per ton for newspaper/cardboard, $20 per ton for glass and 45 cents per pound for aluminum but Scaperrotta said the aluminum figure varies often.

"Newspapers and glass are picked up free by the company (Zarraro Brothers of Clifton)," stated Scaperrotta, "they fill up their trucks and mail us a check and the tonnage figure."

"For glass, Pace Glass of Jersey City picks up 35-40 drums with the glass color separated, dump the drums and return the empty drums to us and they send a check in the mail with the tonnage figures," he said.

Aluminum and cardboard must be brought to Clifton but Scaperrotta stated their is little expense in that except for wear and tear on the vehicle. "Very little overhead," he explained.

The amount recycled presently is below what will be required when the county has an approved program. When a recycling program is mandatory, 25 percent of Belleville's total waste must be

Belleville POLICE BEAT

By Pat Brightman

Two cases of arson in Clara Maass Medical Center were reported three hours apart July 14 in the Continuing Care Building of the facility.

The first case occurred on the sixth floor when a fire of a suspicious nature was set in a garbage bin but it was quickly distinguished. Three hours later, outside Room 318 of the building, which is unoccupied because of construction, hospital security discovered a phone book atop of drapes that had been set on fire. By the time the security officer located the fire it was smoldering and no serious damage done. Both incidents are being investigated by the arson squad.

Two 18 year-olds and one juvenile were arrested and charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance and possession of a stolen automobile July 7.

Frank Farina, of Bloomfield, Robert Dawson, of East Orange, and the juvenile were spotted by police in the car in front of a home on Union Avenue, Belleville. The officers observed the auto had no front license plate, checked the rear of the car, found a plate, and called in the plate for verification.

During this time, the three noticed the police officers and fled into the house where the car was parked and proceeded to run out the back door and into neighbors backyards. Apparently the suspects circled the area because a short time later the three were apprehended in the basement of the house on Union Avenue.

A search of the car revealed a plastic bag containing, what police described as a "green vegative" was found on the front seat.

Two Belleville residents were charged with possession of controlled dangerous substance (CDS) with intent to distribute within a drug-free school zone July 8.

Douglass Till, 26, and Phillip Zaregoza, 24, were pulled over by police while they were driving within 1,000 feet of a school zone. A search of the vehicle found two plastic bags of white powder and a vial of white powder. A field test revealed the powder was cocaine.

Further investigation revealed a warrant for Zaregoza from the Essex County Sheriff's Office for conspiracy to violate the drug laws and he was released to the sheriff's office.

An apartment on Mill Street was broken into July 9 while the renter was at work.

The person returned home and discovered an unknown individual forced open the front door. An search of the area discovered a VCR, four gold rings, gucci purse, assorted children's clothing and $300 was taken from the apartment.

On July 7 the plant manager of Van Dyke Division on William Street discovered a person had burglarized the business sometime during the night of July 6 and the early morning hours of the 7th.

While on his early morning check, the manager checked the building office and discovered an IBM computer terminal had been taken. Entry had been gained through an unlocked window in the office. The case is under investigation by the detective bureau.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

Both Presidential candidates, mindful of Mondale's defeat for saying he'd increase taxes, are keeping mum on the subject, but, Congress is now outlining potential tax changes to increase taxes which runs the gamut of raising taxes on the rich to a new national sales tax.

Other options include closing remaining corporate tax loopholes or even raising taxes on what had been sacred entitlements such as Social Security. The election outcome will determine which of these proposals gains ground, but until then, the candidates themselves will be as silent as Grant's Tomb. This dodge leaves the next President without a mandate to carry out specific reforms.

The deficit in next year's budget seems certain to exceed the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings law $146 billion limit. Moreover, rising interest rates could add many more billion dollars to the cost of financing the national debt. That ultimately could trigger across-the-board spending cuts required under Gramm-Rudman - and point, up once again the inability of Congress or the President to grapple effectively with the deficit.

The next President if he wants to get re-elected has a brief chance to cut the deficit ... One agency for a tax hike may be the National Economic Commission, the bipartisan panel set up by Congress after the stock market crashed. Jointly headed by Democratic party elder Robert Strauss and former Reagan cabinet member Drew Lewis, the panel will recommend fixes for the nation's key economic woes.

Among issues to be considered: Whether to remove Social Security from the budget - a move that would force Congress to make larger deficit cuts in the next few years rather than using the growing Social Security surpluses to cover much of the red ink. Moreover, the commission could furnish the political cover for pushing through unpopular changes. "Everybody is going to blame the commission" for whatever reforms are undertaken ... That's the way it's set up.

Records show that $90 billion of recent tax increases have come in the form of payroll taxes, which fall most heavily on the middle class. Families with taxable income between $71,900 and $192,930 now pay a maximum 33 percent tax rate - while for those earning more, the marginal tax rate drops back to 28 percent ... Hiking the rate for all the rich to 33 percent - or even raising it higher - could be lucrative ... every point the income tax is hiked above 28 percent yields roughly $2 billion in additional revenue.

Some of the options that are being considered for evaluation are:

* National sales or value-added tax ... A 5 percent VAT, adjusted for fairness, could bring in $90 billion annually.

* National energy tax (combining gas tax and oil-import fee) ... revenue raised about $18 billion annually.

* Income-tax surcharge ... revenue raised, a 10 percent surcharge could raise $45 billion annually.

Since the candidates have declined to discuss the tax issue, voters will have had no chance to voice their preferences during the campaign ... the country after the election will have a President - but no mandate on the important questions and policies that demand one.

All of which establishes the need for every voter to give careful and studied review of all the nuances and facets of the vital issues that will determine the role you may be affected by Congressional changes that could and probably will have a direct impact upon your personal life style and the increased taxes you will be forced to pay.

As President Reagan's term expires and he rides gleefully into the western sun, you'll soon get a chance to total up the tab his policies, you thought so good, are now going to hit you where it hurts the most ... in your pocketbook.

GROWTH INDUSTRY

The relatively new science of genetic engineering has produced a growth hormone. It is available for children who are more than just a little "short for their age." They suffer from a growth-hormone deficiency which may restrict their height to the four-foot range. Prior to 1985, this condition was only correctable by weekly shots of human growth hormone taken from the pituitary glands of cadavers. Needless to say, this was a very expensive proposition due to the severely limited supply of the protein. It was later discovered that the treatments carried the unacceptable risk of death due to an extremely rare virus within the cadaver-derived hormone. However, pessimism gave way to optimism with the production of unlimited amounts of growth hormone in the laboratory. The FDA-approved pharmaceutical is available for children with this growth deficiency.

A wide selection of prescription drugs are available at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 333 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. "Your Doctor Knows Us: Your Doctor Trusts Us". Our stocks include greeting cards, baby needs, Russell Stover candies, cosmetics and toiletries. Open: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-9pm.

The new genetically-engineered growth hormone is the second pharmaceutical, after insulin, to gain approval in the U.S.

Citizen drops harassment charges

Harassment charges against Commissioner of Parks and Public Property Vincent Frantantoni and Commissioner of Public Affairs Joseph Fornarotto have been dropped by the citizen who raised them.

Michael Giordano, when he originally pressed the charges, said Fornarotto, who is also a housing inspector, used his office to harass him by serving him two citations for the condition of his home on Valley Street. Charges were also brought up on Frantantoni because he heads the construction code department.

Giordano received the citations, for having a car in his backyard and improper alignment on his roof, the week he went to court on another harassment charge against Fornarotto. At the time Giordano said it was an attempt to make him drop the original charges. Nineteen citations were given to residents of Valley Street.

"We have the right to sue if we want but we won't," said Fornarotto. "It has nothing to do with the first charge."

The court date for the second harassment charges was scheduled for last week in Bloomfield. Giordano, when reached at his home, said he had nothing to say to the Times about why he dropped the charges.

The first harassment charge, which Fornarotto was found guilty of June 8, is on appeal.

Summer series continues

"Summer Sounds at Jersey City State College," the College's second annual outdoor concert series, will feature the Stompin' 17 in a "Big Band Swing Era Concert" Tuesday, July 19, at 7:00 p.m., on the Hepburn Hall Lawn, 2039 Kennedy Boulevard in Jersey City. In the event of rain, the concert will be held in Margaret Williams Theatre of Hepburn Hall.

Co-sponsored by the JCSC Department of Music, Dance, and Theatre and Musicians Local 248, the concert is free and open to the community.

Parking will be available in JCSC lots. Those attending should bring lawn chairs. For further information call the JCSC Department of Music, Dance and Theatre at 547-3151.

collected through recycling. Last year, Scaperrotta estimated about 11-12 percent of Belleville's total waste was collected and estimates approximately 15 percent for this year.

"We're still looking into that," he replied when asked about a mandatory program. "We're not under any gun to have it done. We might need curbside pick-up though when recycling becomes mandatory."

A mandatory program from Essex County is not expected this year. Scaperrotta is a member of the Solid Waste Advisory Council and has been keeping up to date on the county's recycling procedures and recycling pick-up in general. One concept he is against, which the county has considered, is having co-mingled pick-up, having one company pick-up all the recyclables.

"There have been problems with that (co-mingling)," said Scaperrotta, noting how in most instances a long-term contract is signed and the price paid for recyclables are not always the best available. "We don't need their (the county's) blessing (for a program)," he said.

OUR OPINION

Security first

At the last Belleville Planning Board a citizen spoke of the dangers of the Grand Union Shopping Center, because of the lack of a sidewalk and poor visibility due to overgrown shrubbery. The planners said they will do everything in their power to force Grand Union to make the proper restorations.

But why does the Planning Board have to? What is wrong with the people in charge of Grand Union and the shopping center? They should not have to be told to fix the problem, they should have enough sense to do it themselves. It certainly can not because of lack of money. How much does it cost to trim shrubs to an appropriate level? We are sure they have whatever the cost may be.

The situation is made worse by the fact very few people obey the speed limit on Main Street. Cars can be seen racing down the avenue, either dreaming they are pilots at Newark Airport readying for take-off, or watching the traffic on Route 21 and attempting to keep pace. Whatever the reason, the driving habits on the street do not help the situation.

As the woman at the meeting said, let's hope the problem is solved before someone is seriously hurt, or worse yet, dies.

More with less

The recent results of the standardized test scores by Belleville school students shows a definite improvement on the educational system in the district.

Test scores on the whole improved and this was accomplished by taking a more difficult test, a more up to date exam that Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Lally said require more thought process from the students. In an effort to attain these high marks, Basic Skills courses have been offered to students who need them, but it should not diminish the results in any way. Everyone involved should be applauded for the job they have done, from administration, to teachers, to the students themselves.

Lally issued a statement that is even more pertinent, that next year's scores have to remain as positive, or be even more positive than this year's results. Next year should tell the story as to whether or not the system is really working, or if it should be restructured.

But, it is the feeling that the test scores will continue to soar and bring a positive element to the schools, even as the budgets continue to get knocked down.

It is truly an accomplishment when someone, or some institution, can do more with less. Never has the phrase been more true than in this case. The commissioners cut over $886,000 from next year's budget, laying off teachers and enlarging some classes in certain instances. The administration and Board of Education have grown to expect the budget to be cut as it has become a common occurrence in the past few years. Strangely enough, it does not seem to have a great effect on the quality of education.

True, some schools, particularly the Middle School, are in need of repair. The Middle School is being renovated with asbestos removal and the classes, halls and ceilings being painted. Other schools will follow as the district will be evaluated in September.

But the quality of education seems to be improving with each passing year, as the test results and percentage of students moving on to higher education rise. The school system has truly done more with less and the benefactors have been the children. And Belleville.

Funding is available

There has been little movement on the approval of a new police facility. After rejecting the last proposal, one for an estimated $5.2 million, a new facility seems to some to be a forgotten item. While we know this is not the case, we will offer some advice to hopefully start the ball rolling once again.

The stumbling from the word "go" with the project has been money, or to be more precise, the lack thereof. The original $10 million new municipal complex, which would have housed all of the governmental departments, was rejected for numerous reasons, with the main one being the incredible price tag. Then came the last proposal, which apparently was $200,000 over what would have been an acceptable price.

Now, what to do? The longer the wait, the more expensive the project will become. That is just the course of financial nature. Even when the Commissioners decide to construct the building, bonding must be done to acquire enough funds. Or does it? A faster, cheaper alternative is available.

The Essex County Improvement Authority (ECIA) offers money to both local governments and private businesses who would otherwise be unable to afford to do so. Such municipal projects funded by the ECIA are construction of a school in East Orange, a three tier parking project in Montclair and fire and sanitation equipment in Newark.

By going to such an institution, a town such as Belleville can receive a low interest loan and not have to go out to bond, a saving of both time and money. Another alternative may be to have the Improvement Authority construct a building and the town lease it over a period of time, therefore, not putting such a strain on one group of taxpayers. This is not quite feasible in this situation in that a new building will not be built, only an annex to the existing building.

The Board of Commissioners may have looked into the possibility of this and found it to be not the right move or they may not, it is not known at this time by anyone else but themselves.

YOUR OPINION

He is concerned

To the Editor:

Please print these comments in your upcoming weekly newspaper. Concerned?? You bet I am!!!

As a senior citizen, taxpayer, and concerned citizen of Belleville I am appalled at the disorderly "Commissioners' Meetings" that have become a "way of life" recently. I attended the last two and came away with a feeling of utter disgust. Could it be a mere coincidence that at both meetings the earliest citizen chosen by the Mayor to speak was one who berated, attacked, and downgraded one commissioner: Mr. Frantantoni?? Could it be a mere coincidence that the individual chosen to speak had one sole purpose in mind, to disrupt the meeting, to instigate the public, to create a situation where the only recourse for Commissioner Frantantoni was to retaliate in the way he did? Granted, the room was heated by unnaturally high temperatures, a lack of air conditioning but more so by the disturbed senior citizens who were provoked into the shouting, etc. If it were not for the seniors who attend and display their anger who knows what may go on in town. If all the citizens of Belleville who have For Sale signs on their lawns would attend these meetings and come to learn about the working at running (??) a town, then maybe many of these signs would come down. Too many of us sit back, complain about high taxes, lack of cooperation between the commissioners and many other legitimate excuses but too few take the time or the interest in attending the meetings. Order has to be restored. Citizens have to be heard. But also, commissioners should and must be allowed to retaliate by voicing their opinions also. Once again, could the happenings at the last two meetings be simply a mere coincidence? The feeling around town is very questionable to say the least!!

4-way stop needed

To the Editor:

This is an open letter to all the Commissioners in Belleville, for in one way or another it affects them all.

On July 7 yet another accident occurred at the corner of Division and DeWitt avenues. This time there were injuries requiring one motorist to be taken by ambulance to the hospital and another treated at the scene.

The force of this particular impact drove one car up onto the terrace and along the full length of the corner house. The other car struck the utility pole situated exactly on the corner. Pedestrians automatically "stop, look and listen" before attempting to cross, knowing the dangerous conditions. Is your imagination working?

Letters have been written before citing this dangerous corner, and still nothing has been done. Must there be a fatality before any action is taken?

Ironically, some studies have been made, I'm told, but also ironically, at times when the traffic flow is or was minimal. Do keep in mind that this street is also a school crossing for School Three which is just one block away.

Suggestions have been made including a 4-way stop, blinker, painted large "stop" letters by the crosswalks; here's another one: what about a sign clearly visible stating "stop ahead" (I've seen such a sign just recently).

The solution is in your hands, Commissioners. What are you going to do about it?

A very concerned, life-long resident,

Mrs. Hetty L. Murray

Definition of concerned

To the Editor:

Concerned citizens accused of being rowdy.

What does concerned mean?

Concerned means worried, anxious. Concerned about escalating taxes. Concerned about rent increases. Concerned about selling our homes. Concerned about relocating. Yes, it's true sometimes we are rowdy because we are worried, anxious and angry.

Fire Department rescue

To the Editor:

I am a very elderly citizen and on life-sustaining equipment. Therefore there are times when I am in need of emergency services.

Not long ago, I fell down home and fractured my hip. My family called the Belleville Fire Department for help. Their ambulance arrived in 3 minutes and rushed me to the hospital.

Today I ran out of oxygen in the early morning hours. The very hot weather caused a heavy drain on my oxygen supply. The Belleville Fire Department Ambulance Corps arrived in 5 minutes with an emergency tank of oxygen. My regular supplier arrived later.

I would like everyone to know of the Belleville Fire Department's excellent service. When you need these fine gentlemen, they are "Johnny-on-the-spot" and God bless them!

Yours truly,

Charles Picone

Nothin' like 'southern pride'

To the editor:

There is no greater pride than, "Southern Pride." And rightly so.

The virtues of the South have been extolled by Southern poets, minstrels, and the tellers of tales.

It has been said: "No Southerner, in his right mind, would rather live up North than down South."

One thing is certain though - All Southerners, regardless of pride, prejudice, or state of mind, will, after their demise - most certainly - choose an "Hereafter" residence "up North," rather than "down South."

Chet Dobkowski

Appaled by the meeting

To the Editor:

An open letter to the Mayor of Belleville

I am appaled at the happenings of the town meeting on July 12th. You could not control the citizens because it was obvious that was not your intent.

When any member of the board of commissioners is accused of any action they not only should be heard - they must be heard.

I was at a town meeting when you had a woman physically removed for voicing her opinion from the floor. You allowed that citizen who was the first and only one to speak to be boisterous, exceed the five minute and use profane language. He should have been removed. Or was that the intent, to have the meeting adjourned?

I did not hear the motion to have the meeting adjourned until you spoon fed the words into Commissioner McGreevy's mouth. If the meeting did not get so loud Commissioner McGreevy would have conducted himself in his normal do nothing - say nothing manner.

When the meeting went to the street which was dragged on because you antagonized the mood of the people by conducting your own meeting in front of the school. You should have left the premises as an example so that everyone would leave and cool off.

When an angry citizen asked you who your mouth piece is I was really shocked to hear the former mayor of Belleville say that he was. I would hope that you are attempting to be a leader and not a follower.

I wanted to make a statement at the meeting but since I did not have the opportunity to do so I will say it now. At the last several meetings there is an obvious attempt to distract the meeting from issues and focus them on personalities which is causing descension and is a waste of time.

In closing I wonder if we will ever know why there is such a struggle for control of the town of Belleville??? It surely is not to see improvement or to have people be proud because frankly I'm embarrassed. I've been here over 30 years and I'm not going to leave.

Mayor Pizzi, the people will not go away, they will be at the next meeting. I would ask that you use your office to create harmony and set some goals so that pride in Belleville will return.

Carol Smith

Arrogance at meetings

To the Editor:

As a member of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville, I must express my indignation and resentment of the questionable competency and fairness of Mayor Pizzi's manner of conducting town meetings of the township of Belleville.

He arrogantly and with apparent prejudice allows speakers to badger and insult our Commissioners with abusive and flagrant foul and obscene language while grabbing away the microphone from an elected official defending himself from false and malicious lies and badly distorted rumors which are untrue.

Mayor Pizzi presides in an arrogant and presumptuous manner favoring those agreeable to his programs and policies while deriding those supporting contrary views.

There is a complete lack of board harmony and selfish personality conflicts between our commissioners thwarts any constructive improvement or progress for the community.

Mayor Pizzi and Commissioner McGreevy who ran with former Mayor Marotti, who lost in the 1987 election, band together voting on the Board, while Commissioners Fornarotto and Frantantoni usually vote together on most issues.

The tie is often decided by the "swing vote" of Commissioner Risoli, who frequently sides with the Mayor's faction, even though he disapproves because he resents the published critical remarks leveled against him by Commissioner Fornarotto because of the questionable manner in which he runs his department.

Unless this disgraceful manner of political squabbling is ended and some form of sanity is restored to rule this town with dignity and order, it will be time to either have a recall of the commissioners responsible for this chaos or a move to change from the commission type of government.

With the new tax bills coming out with $400 and $500 increases in home taxes, it shouldn't be too difficult to get signatures of local residents who would welcome any kind of a change for the better.

Mary Cavallo

Can't hide from public

To the Editor:

It is difficult in Belleville to totally hide from the public, and the "public" reports a drastic increase in the number of "assemblies," members of groups intimately connected with the previous Mayor, Michael Marotti, either by relation, association or as "losers" in the last municipal election, seeking refuge in the hope of political recovery. It is now an "open secret," that Mayor Pizzi, assisted by the members of the "assembly," is waging a concerted effort to remove by any means they can devise, including harassment in the form of police surveillance by his Department of Public Safety, Commissioner Fornarotto to start for one and Commissioner Frantantoni next. These happen to be the two commissioners showing Belleville's taxpayers, that given the chance, even this Town can have an efficient administration (from their departments), giving the taxpayers their monies worth and then some, for Town services. The list of their accomplishments is too long to mention here. Much of it was enumerated at the last Town meeting, till Mayor Pizzi tried to grab the microphone from the hands of Commissioner Frantantoni, and when he couldn't grabbed the microphone from the hands of the Town Clerk, screaming he was "adjourning the meeting" ... A lesson for Commissioner Frantantoni: "Don't point out the shortcomings of Mayor Pizzi nor those of his predecessor"! He will arbitrarily cut you off, because he is the (honorable) Mayor.

I understand Mayor Pizzi has (illegally yet) ordered an action to remove Commissioner Fornarotto from office, on the pretext that he is serving with a "conflict of interest." This in spite of several documented opinions of N.J. State agencies, ruling on cases like these, stating that in their opinion there is no conflict of interest... Personally, I believe there is a lot more "conflict of interest" when a very substantial portion of Belleville's municipal employees are either related or closely allied to it's public officials.

Foot Facts

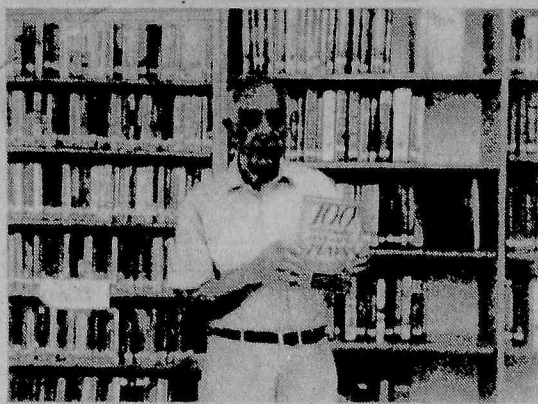

by Paul A. Caputo, D.P.M.

A CUSHY EXISTENCE

Diabetics know that they must take extremely good care of their feet. The sad fact is that anywhere from five to fifteen percent of all diabetics will have to undergo leg amputation at some point in their lives. The problem lies with poor circulation and loss of feeling. These two factors make diabetics vulnerable to infection. Such infections often arise from calluses at the bottom of the foot that become ulcerated and infected. If left untreated, the way is paved for gangrene to develop. However, a new study shows that diabetics who wear running shoes are less apt to develop calluses than patients who wear regular shoes. Running shoes have a cushioning effect on the feet that dissipates the pressure of walking over a larger area of the sole.

Fortunately running shoes are considered high fashion these days. It's common to see them with a business suit or dress, and they're ideal casual wear with jeans. Make sure your running shoes fit your feet. Break them in gradually as with any other shoe. When you need a podiatrist, call DR. PAUL A. CAPUTO at 759-6560. My office, including surgical facility and x-ray, is nearby at 345 Washington Ave., Belleville. Office hours by appt.

Along with their cushioning advantage, many running shoes come in varying widths.

Judge Not!

Someone said, "If you give a man a piece of your mind, you lose your peace of mind." When you give, something happens, whether you are "dishing it out," as they say, or whether you are sharing. Let us look at some of the spiritual laws found in the New Testament, namely, the Law of Retribution. The law as Jesus gave it is: "The measure you give will be the measure you get." The problem is that this law must be understood in the Christian content. The law of retribution we find three times in the Gospels:

1. With regard to judging others
2. With regard to forgiving and giving
3. With regard to hearing God's Word

We'll examine just the first. The first occurrence of this principle is the one in Matthew seven in the "Sermon on the Mount." Verses 1 and 2: "Judging not, that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged; and with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again." The passage that follows this is the well known illustration of the speck and log in the eye. "And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?"

The principle here is a warning against an ever-present tendency; namely, judging others.

Judging people is an all too common pass-time. The tendency in judging others is to see our own faults in them. Psychologists tell us this also. We have a log (or weakness) in our own eye, then we look around to see if others are also thus afflicted, and as we look, we are impressed with the speck in our brother's eye. It seems we are not nearly as ready to overlook the faults in others as we are in ourselves. When we are judgemental of others we can expect others to be judgemental of us.

But the call here is not to judge but to help. The speck you see in your brother's eye, may be but a reflection of the log in your own eye. Jesus said, "First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye." The real point is to help one another - not judge one another! If you measure out help, you can expect it in return. Do you want an abundant Christian life? Here is one of the great deep secrets: "Give and it will be given you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over."

Do you want to live in the stream of God's blessing, then learn from this law that Christ gave.

Lyme Disease show to be aired

Thomas Longo, health officer of the Belleville Health Department, calls attention to a program on Lyme Disease to be broadcast on Channel 13.

Lyme Disease, caused by bites from pinhead-sized ticks, is spreading rapidly across America, and is growing at a rate second only to the AIDS virus. On Tuesday, July 19, at 8:30 p.m. on channel 13, its causes and cures and its nature will be presented. The episode will be rebroadcast on Friday, July 22, at 1:00 p.m. and again Saturday afternoon at 5:00 p.m.

The program, called "Once Bitten: How Animals Can Make You Sick," explains that Lyme Disease is difficult to diagnose because its symptoms mimic many other illnesses. It can be cured by early treatment with antibiotics, but a delay in diagnosis can result in serious, sometimes devastating, complications. And, since a vaccine may take another five to 10 years to develop, health professionals have mounted a major public education campaign to curtail the spread of this disease.

Lyme Disease is caused by a bacterium carried by ticks that live on animals, such as deer, squirrels and even birds. It is most prevalent in central Connecticut, Massachusetts, Long Island and Westchester County in New York, and along some parts of the Jersey shore. However, because the ticks live on migratory animals, cases of the disease have now been found in 32 states.

While the only way to completely guard against exposure is to avoid all wilderness areas - including any wooded areas in suburban communities - there are many simple precautions people can take to protect themselves, and their children, from this disease. These will be outlined on the program.

D'Alessio cites new drug bust methods

According to Essex County Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alessio, the recent arrest of a major Essex County based drug dealer and the seizure of his customized Rolls Royce was a dramatic example of new attempts to remove the enormous profit motive from the illegal drug business.

The sheriff used the occasion of the arrest of Wayne Pray of West Orange to commend federal and New Jersey legislators for enacting laws governing the seizure and forfeiture of property in drug related cases.

"The public should know that these laws are being put to good use every day on the streets by our narcotics officers," said D'Alessio.

New Jersey laws now enable law enforcement authorities to confiscate "any assets, profits, property or other items used in the commission of, or in the furtherance of a crime." These confiscated assets and monies are turned back to law enforcement agencies to further enforcement efforts.

"This new power of forfeiture gives law enforcement a strong new tool," said the sheriff. "We can go after the expensive trappings that make drug dealing look like an attractive profession, especially to young people."

In addition to cash and automobiles, authorities in recent months have confiscated boats, planes, houses and resort condominiums.

"We should all feel a sense of justice and satisfaction that profits made from ruining the lives of so many are now being used to help apprehend and prosecute drug dealers on all levels," said D'Alessio.

"Due to the foresight of New Jersey's law makers, we now have the toughest anti-drug laws in the nation. Hopefully, those who traffic in illegal drugs will soon learn that New Jersey is no longer a profitable place in which to do business."

Butler named director of Social Services

Donna Butler, M.S.W., A.C.S.W., has been named the new Director of the Social Service Department at The Mountaineer Hospital. Butler assumes this position following the retirement of Eleanor Johns, M.S.W., A.C.S.W.

Butler, a Belleville resident, has been a member of the Social Service Department at the hospital since 1977. She earned her M.S.W. Degree from Fordham University.

The hospital's Social Service Department is available to patients and their families to constructively meet crises and personal problems that are created or aggravated by illness. The department provides support and counseling, assists with arranging for placement in nursing homes, rehabilitation facilities and residential health care facilities.

Social Service works closely with community agencies to obtain services such as outpatient counseling for social and emotional problems, job retraining, support groups and financial assistance. For more information, call 429-6136.

New insurance program

Comprehensive insurance services are now available to homebuyers through participating Century 21 franchises in New Jersey.

The new insurance program will simplify the process of arranging appropriate property coverage to satisfy lender's requirements.

"We intend to expand the services we offer to homebuyers to make the road to closing a smooth one," said Robert Sperte, regional director of Century 21 in the northeast. "For most buyers, purchasing a home is a major financial decision and a stressful, taxing process. Our franchisees are now becoming automated and will be able to provide mortgage review services and comparative cost analysis which will ease financing decisions," he said. "If our brokers can also help the buyer to arrange insurance, that's one less headache. Real estate firms offering such ancillary services are better equipped to satisfy the homebuyer's needs and to make the process of purchasing a home an easier one," Sperte added.

Nearly half involved

Nearly half of the 585 Century 21 franchises in the four-state Northeast region, which includes Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Rhode Island, are participating in the new insurance program. Sperte anticipates that by year's end that figure will reach 80 percent.

Participating Century 21 franchisees refer the homebuyer directly to a licensed representative from Century 21 Insurance Services, Inc., who is assigned to that particular office. State-of-the-art automation delivers rapid service.

Representatives are equipped with computers that access an extensive insurance data base. A client's needs can be analyzed and appropriate coverage prepared during a single visit to a participating office.

Various choices

Among insurance products available to the homebuyer are full lines of property and liability insurance, as well as health, life and disability coverage.

For individuals whose financial picture is complex, sophisticated financial services, such as personal risk management analysis and advanced business and retirement planning provide the data required to evaluate and satisfy more exacting needs.

Voters agree to negotiate contract

By a majority vote, the Belleville Municipal Employees Association, Essex Council 1, agreed to have negotiations in the hopes of reaching a settlement for a new contract.

The vote, 62-52 in favor of negotiating, was held after negotiations had broken off and employees sent signed cards and sent them down to Trenton, headquarters of the Public Employment Relations Committee (PERC). After reviewing the cards, PERC decided a vote was necessary and conducted it in Town Hall and the Public Affairs building.

The voting was open to all blue and white collar employees of Belleville except the Police and Fire Departments, who have separate negotiations. The contract expired December 31 of last year and negotiations had been ongoing until May 13, the day the cards were sent to Trenton.

"We would like to resume negotiations on a contract as soon as possible," said Viola Narucki, president of the Employees Association. She said a letter was sent to Mayor Michael Pizzi Friday in hopes of reviving the talks.

Narucki said the International Longshoremen's Association had until Tuesday to file an appeal but decided against the measure.

MORE LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editorial said it all

To the Editor:

Congratulations to the Belleville Times (the issue of July 7, 1988) for your editorial "Flood Tunnel Impact!" (The same editorial, I learned later, appeared in the Nutley Sun. Since my first reading was in Belleville, I write to you.) The editorial is one of the most courageous, honest, and necessary editorials I have ever read. It was deserving of a place on your front page!

James McCann, of whom you write, is an example of the military/industrial - including developers - complex who wield too much power in our country. I repeat "our country." This wielding is at the expense of taxpayers and the common interest! We remember but they forget that Abraham Lincoln told us "God must have loved the common people, so many were made." I suggest the Army Corp of Engineers change its name to the Corps of Envelopment.

However, we must not be frightened or intimidated by this gigantic complex, or any other for that matter. We remember but they forget that Franklin D. Roosevelt told us "the only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

Representative Robert Roe, I regret to state I helped nominate in New Jersey's last Primary Election. He has failed his late friend, indeed, New Jersey's great conservationist / environmentalist, Representative James Howard. Representative Howard's spirit as does that of the Belleville Times / Nutley Sun inspire us to fight for our cause. Someone, likewise reminds us "it ain't over 'till it's over."

U.S. Senator Lautenberg and U.S. Senatorial nominee Peter Dawkins (to my knowledge) are hopes for our cause. Two (2) letters by me to Senator Lautenberg and Representative Roe to date have remained unanswered.

The editorial support of the Star-Ledger in March of this year, of Governor Thomas Kean, and of U.S. Senator Bradley, notwithstanding, the flood tunnel plan for the Passaic River remains without merit. Of course, a change in the editorial position of the Star-Ledger, of Governor Kean, and of Senator Bradley are possible. The same for Representative Roe.

That more people will read your editorial is my constant hope. I suggest that copies be sent to the mayors and governing bodies of the municipalities of which you write. Indeed, a copy should be sent to the person who claims to be the mayor of Wayne. In the latter connection, the Messercola mess is pertinent to the matter at hand.

The Belleville Times / Nutley Sun aptly describes the proposed but not completely planned flood tunnel as "cockam-aigie" or counterfeit and foolish. That it is, with all due consideration including its terminus in Newark Bay or the sea. The cost of astronomical proportions is not worth it. Again and again, the cost of maintenance of the tunnel - incalculable by the very nature of maintenance - is an additional proof of its being unwarranted.

The flood tunnel in the final analysis would be a fiasco, for present and untold generations, and, this is most important, it endangers the very air we breathe and the water we drink - it is that dangerous!

Keep the Passaic River - one of New Jersey's small, but at its best, beautiful rivers - natural. Its lands, likewise. Reclaim those lands that were rightly the rivers at the outset. Stop development of its banks, right and left, from Mendham to Newark, and lands in close proximity. The Passaic River deserves nothing less. Indeed, the United States of America, the state of New Jersey, the communities on the Passaic, from Mendham to Newark - the people, i.e., deserve the same!

Stop the flood tunnel! All steps necessary, including legal action, if necessary, must be taken.

Sincerely,
Nicholas Di Paolo

911 really works

To the Editor:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Belleville Police Department, the Belleville Fire Department (First Aid) and The Clara Maass Emergency Unit for the professionalism they showed during our time of need on June 16 upon our mother's demise. We had a crisis at 2:30 a.m. and did not know what to do. After dialing "911" the response was immediate and the officers took charge and helped us through an extremely trying time. They are to be commended.

We've lived in Belleville for over 50 years and have always found our police and fire departments to be excellent.

A wake-up call

To the Editor:

There have been many letters to the editor recently that I cannot help but wonder where Belleville is headed. Are the citizens of Belleville thinking clearly for themselves or are they prompted to listen to other's opinions and be a follower rather than a leader.

Let's wake up! Belleville needs Joe Fornarotto for many reasons and the people of the Silver Lake area need him more than the rest of Belleville.

The hazardous waste incident on Belmont Avenue ... a letter was sent to the former mayor September 20, 1984. I was told it was of no concern to the residents of Silver Lake. Six o'clock in the morning (almost four years later) the trucks from Pennsylvania are out there waiting to get into the yard to take the waste away. Sometimes they come two at a time.

The garbage that Angelo Risoli wants to weigh (pictures in Belleville Times) from home to another ... has he considered that many residents have never had a child in the school system but still had to pay school taxes. Has he considered that some businesses in Belleville use the streets as though they own them, thereby creating problems for residents. Do businesses pay taxes on street use when their grounds are not sufficient. Has he considered Belmont Avenue got a new street only to be ripped apart because of lack of sewers - some projection on the part of whoever had the plans drawn for the street. There are no sewers for more than two blocks.

As to the No Opinion letter on the Fornarotto incident, I can relate to that. My son was accidentally killed by gunshot wounds and the Belleville Times chose not to print it. The Newark Evening News, however, felt that this was news, particularly since the couple involved "ran away." When questioning the circulation manager of the Newark Evening News as to why the article was not followed up, they said they were told "hands off." He was a Belleville resident, shot in Belleville, and died in Belleville. When his sister died, the Belleville Times put an article in the paper as to the cause of death, which was news to the family and the doctor. Who gave them the authority; I certainly didn't.

The Belleville Times prints what it feels is news and Joe Fornarotto is not news because it is just a lot of malarky. In the event Joe is not successful in his endeavors, I suggest we all look over our shoulders.

As for the mail ... take heed ... look what happened to Belmont Avenue. Do you want more of the same?

Very truly yours,
Ann M. Donatiello

Broken promises

To the Editor:

This is in response to a letter of last week's edition to the Belleville Times, when a citizen praised both Commissioner Joseph Fornarotto and Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni, implying that they were indispensable to the town of Belleville. In the last election, I went out, as did many of my friends to vote for both of these commissioners because they sounded so sincere in their campaign promises. Commissioner Joseph Fornarotto, during his campaigning, when confronted by citizens about his job, being in conflict of interest, replied that if he were elected commissioner he would relinquish his seat. Sometime later, in his campaign, he made the same statement in the Belleville Times, that he would resign that job, if elected. Mr. Frantantoni, who protested against the inefficiency in the town hall under the past commission, claimed that the taxes were too high. One thing he stressed quite vividly in his campaign, if he was elected, he would eliminate the use of town cars for commissioners. I believed both of these two gentlemen, that's why I voted for them. A short time after the election, I read in the paper that one of our town cars was involved in a serious accident which Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni was driving. Now, you may say, it's a small lie, but this is one of the reasons that I voted for him, because I believed him. I fail to see how he can possibly bring taxes down, when he created a new position in his department for Mr. Scaparrotta and it turned out that Mr. Scaparrotta was very visible in Vincent Frantantoni's campaign, putting up signs, working at the polls on election day, etc. etc. This is another lie. It's obvious that this is a political payoff. Commissioner Joseph Fornarotto is currently receiving $28,000 a year at his housing inspector town job, approximately $7,000 as commissioner and approximately $2,000 as an aid. To this gentleman who wrote this letter, I'm sure you meant this in a sincere way. How these two gentlemen intend to bring taxes down is beyond me.

Sincerely yours,
Annie Brave

P.S. This is the first time I'm so concerned because senior citizens are starting to feel the pinch, especially since the taxes are going up in August ... The point is, if a politician tells you one lie, they will lie at anything. As far as I'm concerned their creditability is zero.

Fools corrupt power

To the Editor:

George Bernard Shaw said: "Power does not corrupt men; fools, however, if they get into a position of power, corrupt power"

If Joe Fornarotto loses, the whole town loses. With that kind of power in the wrong hands, who will be next on the list.

Sincerely,
Lisa Reeve

CCB rebuttal

To the Editor:

After years of active involvement in the township of Belleville, particularly the past three years, I feel the time has come to do what I have to do. As vice president of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville (C.C.B.) I choose to respond to the letter of July 14, 1988; Is There Concern? A short simple reply would be yes. However since the integrity and motives of the C.C.B. are put to question in that letter, I will refute it point for point.

1. With regards to the "basic understanding of democracy and respect for justice," both are still alive and well and living at the core of the C.C.B., as they were at the inception of the organization on May 20, 1986. In a democratic society the justice system states "a person is presumed innocent until proven guilty." I, along with all the members of the C.C.B. respect that right, unlike some disgruntled Belleville residents who want to be judge, jury and executioner. Also, in a democratic society, I am given the right to freedom of speech. I personally will use that right, either in a moderate tone of voice, or at the top of my lungs, when necessary, so that some deaf politicians will hear me.

2. As to the suggestion of applauding as a gesture of agreement, or raising of hands in disagreement, I must question when that suggestion was made. As I have attended every C.C.B. meeting and have never heard such a suggestion, nor have many of the other members I spoke to with reference to it.

3. I'm glad that there is "both compassion and understanding" for the plight of senior citizens who supposedly "live in literal economic fear of anything that might result in tax increases and take food from their mouths or force them to sell their homes. Because except for the fact that I am only 37 years old, and not yet a senior citizen, I fall in that category.

At this point the bone of contention is with the use of the word fear. A much more suitable word to best describe the situation would be concern (as in concerned citizen of Belleville). As to the concern about taking food from peoples mouths or having to sell a home, any level headed, responsible person should be concerned that a boondoggle such as the ill fated 10 million dollar municipal complex, be not the reason to go hungry or sell a home. The fact that over eight hundred thousand dollars was wasted on that project, I'm sure, was sufficient to put some people, whether senior citizen or not, on a diet!

4. With reference to mistakes in judgment as to choice of candidates for office in the last election, I will address both the C.C.B. election of officers, and the township's municipal election as I do not know which one has been eluded to.

First, the C.C.B. elections. They were held in accordance with the by-laws of the organization (like it or not). As to the choice of candidates for office, nominations were submitted by a nominating committee, as well as being accepted from the floor of the meeting.

Next the township's municipal election. It was held within the guidelines of state election laws. As it were, twelve candidates ran for five seats, seven lost. The five elected commissioners are now left with the task of moving forward with the township's business and needs. It's forward progress seems to be meeting resistance from some of the vultures who cannot admit defeat!

5. As to the organization being used opportunistically, one must look back to the few short weeks before the May 1987 election, and read all twelve candidates slogans. Was it the one slogan "a truly concerned citizen" that was being used opportunistically?

6. President of the C.C.B. Gerry DelGuercio needs no empathy. As to the inference to controlling the conduct of his membership at public meetings, anyone who is or was a C.C.B. member knows that no one controls any member, or members conduct, at public meetings or anywhere else.

7. Yes, I was in Judge Scanlon's court. I was also in Judge Steer's court on Tuesday, July 12, 1988, when Commissioner Joe Fornarotto was exonerated, as charges against him were dropped.

As to being acceptable conduct, I repeat, I will not be a judge, jury, and executioner as some people profess to be.

In closing I must say that as far as thinking goes, I do know what to think about what C.C.B. members think, because I do know that C.C.B. members think on their own, and follow no one blindly in fear. As a member and vice president of the C.C.B. I will always stand in defense of the C.C.B., against anyone who attacks the integrity or motives of this organization. I was there in the beginning, May 20, 1986 ... I'll be there to the end.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Jablonski
vice president
Concerned Citizens of Belleville

Reservoir preserved

To the Editor:

The Belleville Historic Society member Bernard O'Connor is "sure now" on the money with his proposal to save the Reservoir on Joralemon Street. There are some folks in town that are not aware its even there, but I went to see for myself this site and was sure impressed with its natural beauty, what a wonderful addition to our Township's inventory of Historic Places. Commissioner Frantantoni's plan to create a depository for Belleville's artifacts and develop a much needed park away from the congestion of Branch Brook Park so our citizens can rest and our children play in a peaceful setting is great. Some citizens can just go there to meditate on their good fortune to be living in our "Beautiful Village" Belleville.

I sure hope the people will get behind this effort and support this worthwhile project. Another plus for the citizens is funding from the state and federal government will be available so that Belleville will not have to raise taxes to pay for it. Of course the time and volunteer effort put into something such as this is priceless...

Sincerely,
Kevin G. Kennedy

PASTA IN A FLASH

Pretty primavera salad is a breeze to prepare. This quick luncheon dish has carbohydrates for energy and is cholesterol-free. It also takes advantage of convenient canned vegetables from the shelf. Just add ready-to-eat canned vegetables to cooked pasta, chill briefly and serve!

Primavera Salad

1 can (28 oz.) whole tomatoes, drained and chopped
1 can (16 oz.) mixed vegetables or peas and carrots, drained
1 can (4 oz.) mushrooms, slices or stems and pieces, drained
12 pitted black olives, cut in half
1/3 cup olive or salad oil
3 tablespoons red wine vinegar
2 teaspoons sugar
2 teaspoons dried basil, crushed
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1/4 pound linguine or fettuccine, cooked, drained and rinsed under running cold water
Salt and Pepper

Combine drained vegetables in salad bowl. Combine oil, vinegar, sugar, basil and garlic; pour over vegetables. Add drained pasta and toss. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Makes 6-8 servings.

Belleville Times SPORTS

It should be a summer of learning for the Belleville boys' basketball team in the Elizabeth Summer League. The Bucs are fielding a relatively young squad under coach Leon Puentes, and the varsity hopefuls for the 1988-89 campaign realize that playing this summer will give them an important edge when it comes to varsity jobs in the fall.

Puentes, of course, is the same man who led the Belleville attack for the past four seasons. The point guard, who will be attending NJIT in the fall, enjoyed a standout varsity career. He scored over 1,000 points, becoming the fifth player in BHS boys' basketball history to eclipse the mark. He teamed with Ted Sochaski to lead Belleville to its first winning campaign in 13 years.

The Bucs were 15-9 this past winter, under head coach Don Roll. Roll will be back this fall to coach the varsity, but league rules dictate that a varsity coach can not coach his players during the summer months. Thus, Roll has been delegated to the role (pardon the pun) of a very interested spectator.

Puentes, who works well with young players, has been encouraged by the play of his team this summer. This is the fifth summer that Belleville has been involved in the Elizabeth Summer League. Traditionally, it's one of the tougher leagues in the area. The Bucs first got involved in it back in 1984 under then coach, Rocco Collucci.

Buc Shots

By Mike Lamberti

Some of the teams who play in the league are Irvington, Barringer, St. Peter's of Staten Island, St. Mary's of Jersey City, Academic High of Newark and Elizabeth. The games are traditionally hard fought and the players do gain valuable experience by playing against the tough competition.

Belleville opened the summer campaign by losing a one point contest to Irvington. In the following game, the Bucs grabbed an eight point lead against Academic, but disaster hit late in the second quarter.

The Bucs point guard, Ray Zamloot, went down with a badly sprained ankle and, entering this week's action, was still on the shelf. Zamloot had scored 20 points in the opener and had 11 in the early stages of the Academic game before the injury.

"Losing Ray certainly makes it difficult," Puentes said. "Here's a kid who can give you 20 points a game, and he's on the bench. It definitely makes a difference."

Because Belleville is light in the depth category, replacing a seasoned veteran like Zamloot isn't easy to do. Zamloot, who will be a senior this fall, came on strong in the later stages of the '87-88 campaign. He turned in a solid effort against Shabazz in the quarterfinals of the Essex County tournament.

Ironically, Zamloot's heroics that night at Essex County College came because Puentes was suffering from a case of the flu and saw limited action. Zamloot became assertive on the offensive end and finished the season on a strong note.

Leading the offense thus far this summer is senior to be Dominick Straface. A swingman, Straface is a small forward or can play off guard. He has seen varsity action for three years now and has been enjoying an excellent summer campaign.

In Belleville's first four games, he has scored 20 or more points in each contest. In the St. Peter's game, a 55-33 Belleville setback, Straface accounted for 23 of Belleville's 33 points.

With Sochaski having been graduated, Belleville's man in the pivot for 1988-89 could be Doug Hoogendyke. The upcoming junior is playing summer league ball and with continued work, could make an impact in the fall. He has yet to get the offensive game in motion, but if he hits the boards on a consistent basis and learns the offense, the points should follow.

Puentes is also optimistic about the efforts from Chris Smith, Andy Duhaime, Mike Powers, Jim Krupka and Michael Trezza. The Bucs will play all its games at the Dunn Arena this summer. The league should last until mid August, and Puentes is hopeful his kids will take advantage of the playing time.

Belleville lost a valuable crop of seniors to graduation this spring, and replacing those players on the roster won't be easy. Roll has already said that positions for next fall are wide open. Those players who begin preparing for the 1988-89 campaign now, rather than wait for September, will certainly have the edge.

Playing hoops in the hot summer months of July and August may not be the most enjoyable way to spend leisure time, but you can be assured that players from surrounding teams are working hard now, in an effort to be a key contributor to a varsity program this fall. Most athletes are playing summer league ball, attending basketball camp and working out on their own by running and lifting weights. November is still a while away, but the race has begun toward the regular season.

LEGION TEAM GEARING FOR PLAYOFFS

The Belleville American Legion team completed an outstanding 12-3-1 regular season and now gears up for the league playoffs, which started last Tuesday. Belleville battled Vailsburg in the first round of the double elimination tourney, and has another game slated for tonight. The opponent will be determined by the result of Tuesday night's game.

Frank Stanco's crew has enjoyed a fine season this summer. The team will be without the services of Albert Maldonado, however, for the playoffs. Maldonado, was selected for the prestigious Pan American team and has gone to Ohio to work with the team.

"We're certainly very happy for him," Stanco said of Maldonado last week. "It's quite an honor to be named to the Pan Am team. Our kids were real happy for him. Not having him for the playoffs will be tough for us, but we have a number of talented kids who will lead us."

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The last manager of the St. Louis Cardinals to win an All Star game was Red Schoendienst, who was victorious in the 1969 All Star game as the N.L. won, 9-3. The Cardinals have won three N.L. crowns in the 1980's, however manager Whitey Herzog has yet to win the All Star Game, losing in 1983 to Harvey Keuhn, in 1986 to Dick Howser and 1988 to Tom Kelly of Minnesota.

FOR THIS WEEK

What National League manager won the most All Star Games during the 1970's?

Record stands at 12-3-1

Regular season ends, Bucs prepare for playoff round

It's crunch time for the Belleville American Legion baseball team. Frank Stanco's crew ended the regular season last week by defeating Essex Catholic, 17-1 and losing to a good Vailsburg crew, 5-1.

Belleville finished the season with an impressive 12-3-1 record. The team was 9-3-1 in the league, however that record was good for just fifth place in the division. Bloomfield won the division crown, with Livingston second, Caldwell third and Belleville and Vailsburg tying for fourth place. Vailsburg got the nod because it defeated Belleville in a regular season game.

Thus, Belleville opened the playoffs at Vailsburg last Tuesday. Because the legion playoffs are double elimination, a loss would not eliminate Belleville. Should Belleville win, it would face the winner of Bloomfield-Cedar Grove, which is scheduled for tonight. If Bloomfield wins, the game will be played at Bloomfield. Should Cedar Grove pull the upset, the game will be at Belleville, tonight at 6 p.m.

If Belleville lost to Vailsburg, it would take on the loser of the Millburn-Caldwell game tonight. Belleville will host the game if the opponent is Millburn.

Stanco is optimistic about the playoffs, but admits his team will be at a disadvantage without top hurler Albert Maldonado.

Maldonado received a great honor when he was chosen to represent the United States in the Pan-Am games. He is currently in Ohio practicing with the team.

"We're all very happy for Albert," Stanco said. "It's a tremendous honor for him. All the kids on the team were pulling for him. It certainly hurts our pitching staff, but this is a great opportunity."

Stanco notes that his team is still in good shape, with talents like Jay Marchese, Jeff Spilsbury, Frank Orrei, Mike Di Biase, Anthony Rodriguez, Jamie Galio and Steve Tice in the lineup.

"We'll be okay," the coach said. "I still think we have some of the best talent in the league. The experience of winning the Meadowlands Tournament a few weeks ago certainly helps."

Last week, Belleville breezed by Essex Catholic, 17-1. Tice hurled a solid game, allowing three hits, striking out eight and walking two in a complete game effort. Di Biase led the offensive attack with a perfect 3 for 3 game. He also drove in four runs.

The Bucs got a boost to the lineup when Michael Finan made his summer debut. The talented catcher was suffering from a bad thumb, which had kept him off the diamond all summer. He returned for the Essex Catholic game, catching one inning and getting a time at bat.

"The game didn't give us much work," admitted Stanco. "It was a good offensive game, and Steven pitched very well, but it's not the type of game you want before the playoffs begin."

Against Vailsburg last Friday, Belleville took a 1-0 lead into the fourth inning, but some poor defense accounted for four Vailsburg runs in the frame.

"We suddenly forget how to field a bunt," Stanco said. "We made some defensive errors, and they took advantage. They have a good team, and we didn't execute when we needed to."

The losing pitcher was Frank Orrei, who hurled a complete game. Belleville was limited to six hits on the night.

"We have a few practices scheduled between now and the first playoff game," Stanco said. "Hopefully, we can work out some of the problems we encountered in the Vailsburg game."

If those problems are mastered, Belleville could make a serious run in the playoffs. If the team does not execute to its potential, then the 1988 legion season could soon draw to a close.

Flashback

67 Frosh football: a sign of things

This week's Flashback takes us to the Fall of 1967. The Belleville football team, under the direction of coach John Amabile, had endured a difficult season. The Bellboys were 3-6 in '67, but a victory over Orange in the season finale gave hope to better seasons.

Belleville did turn it around, and by the 1969 campaign, the team was primed for an outstanding season. The '69 team posted a 6-3 record, including that big win over East Orange on opening day that resulted in a post game riot that presented many scary moments. However, Belleville had made some big strides in '69, and many of the youngsters who had endured the '67 season enjoyed the fruits of victory two years later.

Where were you in 1967? If you wanted to buy a new dishwasher, it would have cost you about $198.00 at Karl's. If you wanted a Timex Watch, Grant's had a good deal. You could buy a watch from $6.95 to $16.95, with no down payment and low monthly terms.

A three room garden apartment in Nutley would run you about $125.00 a month in rent. How times have changed.

These two articles appeared in the December 7, 1967 issue of the Times. They both relate to the freshman team, which enjoyed a fine year and later helped the varsity to success.

The Belleville freshmen topped the East Orange gridders by a score of 20-0. Mark Bradley returned the opening kickoff 85 yards for a TD, and then added the extra point, starting E.O.'s defeat singlehanded.

Latter in the quarter, the freshmen line stopped an E.O. drive dead in its tracks, leaving them with fourth and four in their own territory. This forced them to punt. The punt was blocked by Mike Albertine and picked up by Gerald De Paul. Gerry scrambled to the East Orange 8, where he lost his footing. Joe Papisidero ran a bootleg play around the left end for eight yards and the second touchdown. The extra point kick was blocked, so the score stood at 13-0.

The combination of Bradley and Tony Desarno highlighted the second half when they brought the ball 65 yards in eight plays. Bradley got the ball out of his own territory with a 16 yard run.

Three plays later, Papisidero threw a pass to Desarno for 19 yards. Desarno followed this with a run of 30 yards, taking the ball to the E.O. eight yard line. Two plays later, with only seconds left in the game, Papisidero fumbled while trying to handoff to Carmen Russamano. In the confusion that followed, Ricky Caruso, injured hero of the Orange game, picked up the ball and ran for the touchdown.

Little League All-Stars continue to shine

Three all-star teams from Belleville Little League compiled and combined 8-0 record in District 8 All-

Star competition, with the ultimate goal participating in the Little League World Series in Williamsport later this summer.

National all-stars
In three games, the Belleville

National All-Star team has outscored its opponents by a 30-0 composite score as both the offense and defense are playing very well.

In their first game, the Nationals slammed three home runs and received excellent pitching from Chris Imperatrice as they hammered Nutley Central 18-0. Tony Suffness had a homer, two doubles and four RBI's to lead the way. Mike Morgan connected on a two-run home run in the first to get the Nationals started and Anthony Pace added a solo shot and three RBI's. Adding to the offensive explosion was Jerry Turi who went three for three. Imperatrice was almost untouchable as he allowed only a bunt single in the third inning and struck out six in five innings.

Morgan's two-run first inning homer helped the Nationals to their second win, a 6-0 shutout over Livingston. Jim Napolitano, who was credited with the win, pitching four innings, and Jim Landon, combined on a two-hitter. Turi collected two more hits in the winning effort.

Imperatrice won his second game of the all-star competition and Morgan collected his third home run in as many games to lead the Nationals to a 6-0 win over

Ankle injury to Zamloot leaves Buc summer basketball team on wrong foot

The Belleville boys' basketball team has begun summer league play in the tough Elizabeth league under the guidance of former star, Leon Puentes. The Bucs lost to Elizabeth, Academic and St. Peter's last week and took an 0-4 record into this weeks action.

Puentes' team battled St. Mary's yesterday and will battle Governor Livingston at 7:30 p.m. on Monday night. Next Wednesday, Belleville battles Roselle Catholic, at 7:30 p.m. All games are played at the Dunn Arena, in Elizabeth.

Puentes, a 1988 Belleville High School grad and 1,000 point scorer, has been coaching the team during the summer. The Bucs had played well in their first three games, losing to Irvington, 50-49, Academic, 60-57 and St. Peter's, 55-33. Last Monday, the Bucs were blindsided by Elizabeth, 68-37.

One of Belleville's biggest offensive weapons has been sidelined since the second game of the summer campaign. Ray Zamloot, the heir apparent to Puentes' point guard position, suffered a badly sprained ankle against Academic, and it doesn't take a mathematical genius to figure out that the Bucs offense is lacking without him.

"Ray had 11 points in the first quarter of the Academic game," Puentes said. "We were winning the game by eight points when he went down. He's the quarterback of the team, and losing him hurts our offense. It's going to take some time to adjust to not having him in the lineup. Hopefully, he'll be back soon."

Academic led by as many as 13 points before Belleville staged a furious fourth quarter rally, cutting the final deficit to three points. Dominick Straface led the way with 20 points. Straface has been by far the offensive leader of this summer's team. He has been playing at the off guard position and small forward slot.

Mike Trezza had eight points, Chris Smith had five, Mike Powers closed with three, Chris Young had two and Doug Hoogendyke finished with one.

Versus St. Peter's, Belleville was led by Straface, who finished with 23 of Belleville's 33 total points. Hoogendyke and Young finished with four points each.

In last Monday's game with Elizabeth, Belleville fell behind, 12-4, after one quarter and never recovered. Elizabeth, which boasts a solid program, was too much for the undermanned Buccaneers, who need as much offense as possible against the solid competition in the summer league.

Straface finished with 20 points, Hoogendyke had eight, Powers finished with five and Chris Duhaime and Smith had two points each.

Flashback to 1967

FRESHMEN DEFEAT SOPHOMORES, 19-14

There was a time that the annual freshmen-sophomore game drew a great deal of interest. The game isn't really played any more, but in its day, this contest was a huge local rivalry. In 1967, the freshmen team stopped the sophs, 19-14. This story also appeared in the December 7, 1967 issue. Both stories were written by John Mc Carthy.

The freshmen team, in a post season game, defeated the sophomore team, 19-14.

After the sophomores gave up their first chance to move the ball, Mark Bradley, on the frosh's first play, ran 67 yards for a TD to start things off with a bang. Ricky Caruso intercepted as soon as the soph's had their second chance to hold the ball, but a loose handoff gave the sophomore's their first opening. They drove 63 yards for their first TD and then added the 7th point, to lead, 7-6.

The freshmen couldn't be outdone, so after a long drive to the seven yard line, Joe Papisidero hit Carmen Russanano in the end zone making it 12-7. This woke the sophs up and a long bomb intended for Charley Ziegler was intercepted by an alert sophomore defender deep in his territory.

The sophs could have learned from the freshmen team's mistake, but they didn't so they threw a long pass to get it out of the hole. This time it was Joe Valvano who intercepted and he ran to the 37. Joe Papisidero threw his second TD pass, this time to Gerry De Paul on the eight who went in for the third freshmen score, with the extra point increasing the margin to 19-7.

The second and third quarters ended without much more action, but the fourth quarter was tense. After posing a couple of threats that were repulsed by a stubborn freshman defensive line, the sophomores scrambled to the frosh's five yard line. The line dug in but in three plays, the sophomore eleven scored with only 1:00 left in the game. The extra point was good, putting the sophomores within a touchdown's reach of the freshmen. The freshmen, however, froze the ball until time ran out.

EDITORS NOTES: Names like Papisidero, Russamano, Albertine, Bradley and Caruso certainly made news for Belleville football in the late 60's. By 1969, these men were juniors and, as mentioned, led Belleville to a 6-3 record. Amabile resigned as coach after the '69 campaign, and Rocco Caffone came on to coach in the 1970 season. Caffone led the '70 club to a 5-4 campaign and stayed on as coach until after the 1973 season. Tom Testa coached from 1974-76 and John Senesky took over 1977 and has held the reins since.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Playgrounds are open

The second week of playgrounds were filled with fun and excitement. The No. 10 School softball team started out the season by defeating the Recreation playground 17-6. Fine performances were turned in by Kris Holland, Marc Della Volpe, Sean Mahoney and Jeff Vogel. Number 10 also defeated the Stadium team by the score of 7-4. The children also enjoyed making key chains, necklaces, and bracelets.

At the Recreation House playground the boys continued their "home-run derby" with Tom Pontrello and Scott Mayers leading. Crafts this week included learning how to make friendship bracelets and key chains and handmade puzzles.

At the Friendly House the chess tournament was won by John Krug, the nok-hockey tournament was won by Carmine Sabia. The ping-pong tournament was won by Charles Rousele and the checkers tournament was won by John Krug. At the end of the week the playground enjoyed a pizza party.

The Stadium playground defeated the Friendly House this week by a score of 18-11. The Stadium also fell victim to School No. 10 playground to even their record at 1-1. The Stadium also enjoyed making artist crafts this week.

Coaches Sought

The Belleville Recreation Department has positions available for men interested to coach in the football programs.

The "Junior Bucs" tackle program consists of three traveling teams. The Touch Football program for boys ages 8 - 10 provides instruction in the fundamentals of football, while eliminating heavy body contact.

Previous football playing experience and/or previous coaching experience and good organizational skills are required. Applications will be screened before final selection is made. Returning coaches must re-apply, and all coaches will be required to attend the NYSCA certification clinics.

For more information and to obtain an application, please call 450-3422 weekdays. Persons interested in coaching soccer are also encouraged to apply.

Night registration for soccer

The Belleville Recreation Department office will be open on Tuesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. for soccer/touch football registration. Soccer league director Bob Travers will register people who can't get to the office during regular hours on Tuesdays, beginning July 12 through August 9. Birth certificates are required for all applicants and all returnees must re-apply. For further information call 450-3422. The registration deadline is August 12 while the touch football deadline is September 2.

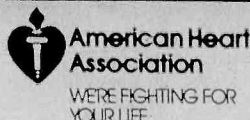

Soccer coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking persons interested in its 7 to 14 year old soccer league. The league is separated into several divisions according to specific age groups.

The children learn the basics of soccer and all those attending regular practices play in all games. Games are played on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, beginning in

Fall sports applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation Department office.

Boys and girls ages 7 - 14 may participate in Recreation Soccer. Nobody above 8th grade can play and all returning players must re-apply.

Boys ages 8 - 10 can play touch football.

For both soccer and touch football applications must be returned to the Recreation Department, 407 Joralemon Street, with birth certificates. Registration deadline for soccer is Aug. 12 and for touch football Sept. 2.

Children can play in only one fall sport.

Jr. Bucs Cheerleading

Applications for tryouts for the Junior Bucs Cheerleading squads are now available at the Recreation Department office on Joralemon Street. Three squads will be selected according to the girls' grade in school, one each for the Midget, JV and Varsity traveling football teams.

Pre-School Registration

The Belleville Recreation Department is now accepting registration for the pre-school play program for 4-year-old children.

The program consists of games, stories, songs, art, outside play when weather permits, short rest periods and occasional holiday parties, especially designed for pre-school children.

Sessions are held from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. five days a week, with class size limited to 25 children. Cost of the 15-week session is $45.

The mothers of the children accepted will serve one duty day about every 8 or 9 days, according to a published schedule.

School will begin Monday, Sept. 19 under the leadership of Susanne Iannini.

For further information and enrollment, contact the Belleville Recreation Dept. at 450-3422 as soon as possible.

DENTALLY SPEAKING

By Drs. James D. Muglia and Paul N. De Maio

Miss R. of Newark asks: "My teeth have no cavities but are grayish brown and I don't like the way they look. Is there any kind of cosmetic paint that can be put on?"

At present Miss R. the only cosmetic coverings are either crowns (caps) or bonding. Since you mentioned you have no decay we would suggest porcelain veneers as a possible solution. Porcelain veneers are fingernail-like casings made of a porcelain color of your choice that goes on the front side surface of your teeth. Very little removal of tooth structure is needed. After the laboratory makes the covering under the direction of your dentist they are then fitted to your teeth. Upon your approval a special bonding procedure then adheres them to your teeth and the cosmetics you desired are achieved. Some care must be taken to keep the bond intact but its minimal. Consult your dentist for further information and have a great summer.

Showcase OF FINE HOMES

Century 21 Stanford Agency tops in service

Century 21 Stanford Agency is a service organization dedicated to maintaining the highest level of professionalism and integrity in the field of Real Estate. These professionals understand that buying and moving to a new home is a thrilling, yet busy time. It often means adjusting to new schools, new jobs and a new community.

By any standards, Century 21 Stanford Agency is an innovative pacemaker in the volatile, highly competitive real estate industry. The firm is a growing presence in relocation services for corporations and families, for example. It also has a strong capability in the commercial investment market.

While there are many reasons for Century 21 Stanford Agency's growth since the firm began in 1981, one key is the high quality of real estate services. Service quality is rooted in their system of extensive and continuous professional education, for example. And in constant monitoring of performance.

Another reason for Century 21 Stanford Agency's success has been its ability to capture public awareness. Their gold jackets, yard signs, weekly informative columns, and billboard as well as their involvement in many community projects has made Century 21 Stanford Agency virtually synonymous with real estate sales to the home buying and selling public. The professionals at Century 21 Stanford Agency are committed and responsive to community real estate needs.

One result from Century 21 Stanford Agency's professionalism, dedication and constant thirst for knowledge to remain in tune with an ever changing market has been the consistent growth in referrals from past clients. Much of their business is, in fact, repeat business from satisfied clients. Insistence on quality service, professional education and their membership in the largest franchised real estate system, Century 21, has hit pay dirt in consumer confidence as well as awareness.

Century 21 Stanford Agency's sales manager, Isabelle Cantlupe, has just been named Realtor Associate of the year. Her sensitivity to the needs of the local board of realtors as well as her dedication to her community makes this a very valuable award to Isabelle as well as her company. It makes Isabelle's continuing commitment to her industry in addition to her community unquestionably obvious, since she alone was chosen to receive this coveted recognition of achievement, out of over 1000 realtor/associates in her area.

As part of Century 21 Stanford Agency's commitment to fully service their valued customers, they now offer financial services. Rick Ege, their insurance account executive is always on hand to answer your insurance and financial questions. Rick's personal service insures that you have the best protection at competitive rates.

Century 21 Stanford Agency has more than 30 sales representatives serving the Nutley, Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge area. These trained agents are able to provide homeowners with accurate, realistic evaluations of their home's value in today's market. Buyers and Sellers may call Century 21 Stanford Agency at 235-9000, seven days a week.

Century 21 Stanford Agency also provides an opportunity for persons to explore the financial and personal benefits of a career in Real Estate. Their full time training director, Michael Parrillo, is always on hand to answer questions about training, licensing requirements, income potential and opportunities in real estate sales and management. The company is on a growth and expansion move and is looking to substantially increase their staff in 1988. Interested persons should contact Parrillo at 235-9000.

The emergence of the full service real estate office is the wave of the future for Century 21 Stanford Agency. Its office, located at 86 Union Ave., Nutley

Summer sales are blossoming at Stepping Ridge

No homebuyer's search will be complete this summer without a visit to Stepping Ridge, where 70 percent of the luxury townhomes available for immediate delivery have already been sold, according to Barbara Lawn, director with Jenderan Associates, which is developing the community on 18 acres in Fairfield and North Caldwell. "People all over town are talking about the quality they've found in our townhomes," she said.

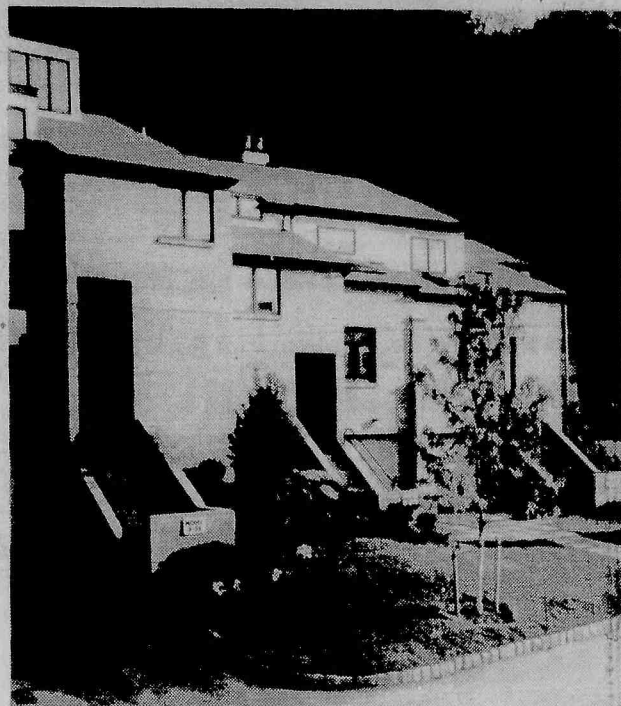

Impressed by the high standards for construction set by Barbara and her husband, Andrew, a professional engineer, new homeowners have been more than pleased with their creatively designed townhomes. Most have heard about the time and attention Andrew Lawn has devoted to this project. He points out that very few builders can afford to put an experienced professional like him in the field. And that's just where Andrew can be found, checking and re-checking his staff's work. "We're trying to achieve the perfection that comes with combining the artisan's craftsmanship and the technician's expertise," he explains.

Visitors to Stepping Ridge are invariably delighted by the many unique features offered in the elegant townhomes there, Barbara Lawn reports. Many comment spontaneously on the breathtaking atrium which serves as the entry foyer in each home. "We've created a natural tapestry of textures and colors that impact immediately in the foyer," she says of this extraordinary room, where floors of Carrara marble complete the elegant profile of shadow and light filtering through the skylight above. They've also been dazzled by the dramatic wall penetrations and skylights that enhance the spacious feeling of these multi-level homes, according to Lawn. "It's exciting to see the many different views of space that appear through these openings throughout the homes," she adds.

Stepping Ridge offers homebuyers seven different floor plans, each of which includes a basement and a private garage. Three decorated models, featuring contemporary and traditional styling, display the versatility of the homes' ingenious architectural design. Each model paints a unique picture with the selection of different cabinetry, flooring, and optional built-in shelving available to meet individual homeowners' needs and preferences.

Nestled comfortably into a sloping hillside, Stepping Ridge presents a handsome facade featuring gleaming solid oak doors set against distinctive brick-and-stucco exteriors. The community is conveniently located just minutes away from nearby tennis courts, banks, notable restaurants, health facilities, excellent schools, public transportation and fine shopping centers. New York City is just 30 minutes from Stepping Ridge, which also features easy access to Routes 46, 23, I-80, the Garden State Parkway and Newark International Airport.

To visit the homes at Stepping Ridge, open weekends from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., from the George Washington Bridge, follow I-80 West to Exit 52 (Fairfield-Caldwell). Turn right at the bottom of the ramp to Passaic Avenue. At the second light, turn left onto Little Falls Road. Stepping Ridge is approximately 1-1/2 miles on the right. From the Lincoln Tunnel, follow Route 3 to Route 46 West to the Passaic Avenue Exit (just past Willowbrook Mall). Make a left off the exit to Passaic Avenue. At the first traffic light, make a left onto Little Falls Road. Stepping Ridge is approximately 1-1/2 miles on the right. From points West, follow Route 46 East to Passaic Avenue,

Leading Century 21 realtor/owners attend regional advisory board meeting

Carole Viola and Jim Farese, prominent Passaic County Realtor/Owners, attended the President's Advisory Meeting for the Northeast Region of Century 21 held at the World Trade Center, New York City, June 15.

Held twice yearly, the Advisory Board Meeting provides an opportunity for Century 21 brokers, Northeast Region staff, and representatives from the International Office and Metropolitan Life/Century 21 Insurance Services to share ideas about the current trends in the real estate industry and to develop business strategies for the coming year. Leading Century 21 brokers in the four-state region, which includes Connecticut, New Jersey, New York and Rhode Island are invited to participate in the day-long event.

"The session affords a valuable opportunity to hear from the prominent brokers about competition in their market places. Their contribution enables us to better serve our consumers in the Northeast Region," said Robert Sperte, Regional Director, Century 21 of the Northeast.

Enhancement of services offered to consumers, modernization of facilities, Century 21 Insurance Services, and a major new national advertising program were topics highlighted at this June's meeting. Current financial and real estate trends were also discussed.

"A principal goal for the Region continues to be enhancing the number and quality of services Century 21 franchises provide homebuyers and sellers," said Carole Viola.

"Today's fully automated Century 21 office delivers financial and technological expertise. As new services such as insurance are introduced we are better able to serve the public," Jim Farese added.

Their Century 21 A CV Clifton office was one of the top-ranked franchises in the state during the 1st quarter of 1988.

De Piro Realtors reports Terry Lane almost sold out

De Piro Realtors of Nutley is pleased to announce that Terry Lane Condominiums on Passaic Avenue, Belleville is completing sales on its 2 and 3 bedroom units. "When sales opened up the developer, James Landon, knew he was offering a quality product at a good price. He chose De Piro Realtors to market them. Our staff did their best to expose Terry Lane to the public and we did," stated Ron De Piro, President of De Piro Realtors. "The fact that we have almost completed our sales is proof of the dedication to work hard to service our listings in this area," De Piro further stated.

James Landon will now put his efforts to completing his new project, a 4 unit condominium on Fredrick Street, Belleville. De Piro Realtors will also market these units and complete sales at Terry Lane. Terry Lane has 3, 3 BR units remaining. They include a unique stone and glass design, courtyards, walls of glass, balconies, gas forced air heating, central air, separate laundry room and some units with lofts. All offer quality construction and garages. Prices are at $167,500 and can be viewed by calling De Piro Realtors at 667-0006 for a private showing, you will be impressed!

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Nothing's so romantic as yards and yards of fabric floating around a bedroom. One look gossamer panels of mosquito netting, hung from a swag in the ceiling and spread over the corners of the bed.

***

When exterior paint peels down to the bare wood or masonry, there's a moisture problem. Vapor barrier should keep indoor moisture from escaping through the walls. Caulking is vital to keep outside moisture from seeping in.

***

Vinyl sheet under a tablecloth protects a table used for dining without sacrificing the good looks of the table setting.

***

Water stains on a wood floor, if they're just in the finish, will respond to rubbing with a good cleaner-polish or with fine steel wool. But if the stain's gone through to the wood itself, it calls for sanding and recoating.

***

Living history: tourists will troop through Van Cortland Mansion in New York City, built in 1748. One feature is a Dutch cupboard bed, designed to keep out the cold; one climbs INTO it, not ONTO it.

PRAYER OF APPLICATION

TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Hoy Spirit you who solve all problems, who light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who give me the Divine gift to forgive and to forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusion. I wish to be with you in eternal Glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine. The person must say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. After 3 days the favor request will be granted even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor, only your initial should appear at the bottom. N.N.

PRAYER To The Holy Spirit
Oh, Holy Spirit, thou who are all knowing, who brightens every path that I may reach my ideal, thou who givest me this divine gift of forgiving and forgetting wrongs done against me and who in every instance of my life art with me, I'd like in this short dialogue to affirm my gratitude for all your blessings and affirm once again that I never abound. My desire is to be with thee and all my loved ones in perpetual grace. Thank you for your mercy on me and mine. (Persons should pray 3 consecutive days without revealing petition. Within 3 days grace will be attained regardless of how difficult the petition might be.) Publish this prayer once grace is attained. Grateful of grace attained. R. & J.K.
