Four file for three seats; school election April 24

By Anthony Buccino
Nominating petitions for the Belleville Board of Education election must be filed by 4 p.m. today at the board office on Cortlandt St. At press time, five residents had filed petitions for three open seats. The election was pushed back three weeks from April 3 to April 24 when Gov. Jim Florio signed the legislation Feb. 16.

The three open seats are for two 3-year terms and one 1-year unexpired term. Filing for the two 3-year terms were trustee Patricia Pisano of William St. and Vincent Marrone of Magnolia St. Filing for the 1-year unexpired term were Barbara Metz of Mt. Prospect Ave., Ralph Mazzuca of DeWitt Ave. and Joseph J. Scaparro of Emmet St.

Two 3-year terms expiring are board Vice President Patricia Pisano and trustee Rich Yanuzzi, who completed the unexpired term of Phil Linfante. The 1-year unexpired term resulted when Joseph Pappasidoro resigned. The board appointed Michael Lamberti to serve on the board until the next election.

Yanuzzi has filed for the 2nd ward seat in the council race, and trustee Gabe Nazzola is expected to file for an at-large seat in the council race.

The board of ed candidates' original filing deadline was Feb. 8. According to information supplied by the Dept. of Education in Trenton, the deadline for the school district to submit an itemized budget to the county superintended of schools is set for Friday, March 23.

Yanuzzi has filed for the 2nd ward seat in the council race, and trustee Gabe Nazzola is expected to file for an at-large seat in the council race.

Public hearings on the school budget for 1990-91 must be heard before Wednesday, April 11. This is also the deadline for school boards to adopt district budgets.

Legislation approved in Trenton gave Florio an extra 30 days, until March 15, to deliver his annual budget message and thus clarify the amount of state aid New Jersey districts will receive this year.

The board submitted a tentative school budget Jan. 15 to the Essex County School Superintendent. The tentative budget breaks down to Current Expense: $25,042,657; Capital Outlay: $36,727; Debt Service: $88,168,938.

Appleton said earlier that the tentative $25 million current expense budget comprises 31% state aid, a 41% increase in state aid from 1989-90.

Row-A-Thon tomorrow

Belleville crew team members will row all night long from 3 p.m. Friday to 3 p.m. Saturday in the high school gym during their second annual row-a-thon to raise funds for sports equipment.

Since no river runs through the high school gym, the crew team members will row, row, row non-stop on their "ergs", or ergometers, also known as rowing machines.

The crew's two ergs will be used for the 24-hour row-a-thon. The team rowers have sponsors who will contribute money for each mile the students row. Last year's row-a-thon raised about $2,000 which was used to purchase used crew shells.

Row-a-thon admission is free. Crew team supporters and anyone else who wants to see the good side of our students, and cheer them on, are invited to drop in. We promise you won't get wet.

Teenage auto thieves caught after chase and two crashes

By Anthony Buccino
A teenage juvenile from Newark was sent to the Youth House detention center Monday after he used the stolen car he was driving to try to run down a Belleville policeman, elude police, and smash a parked car. He was apprehended in Nutley when the stolen car got a flat tire before he could escape onto Route 21. A passenger in his car was treated and released at Clara Maass Medical Center, and two other teens were released to their parents.

Police noticed two males cross Hornblower Ave. at the corner of Holmes St. at 12:20 p.m. while two males remained in one car. A police check of the license number revealed the car with two teens in it to be stolen.

When the police officers approached the suspect's vehicle, the driver put the car into reverse, then attempted to rundown the police officer. The officer reportedly drew his firearm and when he realized the driver appeared to be a teenager, the officer jumped out of the way without firing.

The stolen vehicle headed north on Hornblower Ave., then west on Joralemon St. and then north on Oak St.

Meanwhile, police apprehended two teenagers at the scene who had entered a resident's car and damaged the steering column.

On Oak St. the suspect's stolen vehicle hit a car parked on the east side of the street and knocked the car across the street and onto the sidewalk. The stolen vehicle sustained heavy front end damage, yet proceeded north on Oak St. at a high rate of speed to Division Ave.

Police following the stolen car from about three blocks behind reported that the stolen vehicle then headed east on Division Ave. and was being driven at all times with total disregard of all traffic signals.

The driver of the stolen vehicle passed a red light at Division Ave. and Washington Ave. and proceeded along Washington Ave. to Park Ave. in Nutley.

The vehicle headed east on Park Ave. and crossed River Rd. to the Rt. 21 underpass where it apparently got hooked on a truck's rear bumper. When the driver finally pulled away from the truck, the car had a flat tire and the youths were taken into custody.

The officer who was nearly run down, "used a lot of good common sense," Police Chief George Lister said, when he saw that it was just a teenager behind the wheel. The youth, Lister said, drove with "no caution at all."

The township has been hit lately by gangs of up to 13-14 youths who drive in to town from other districts to steal cars here, Lister said. The gangs have been hitting here every other day. They know that right now there is almost nothing that will happen to them.

"It took a lot of effort to get the teenager driver kept overnight at the Youth House," Lister said. Generally, within "a day or two, the kids are out doing the same thing after getting out of the Youth House."

In a separate, but related, matter area police have compiled information on teenaged repeat auto theft offenders which indicate that 149 repeat offenders were charged in 687 auto thefts. Of the 149 repeat offenders, 90 teens were 3 or 4 time offenders; 19 teens were 5 time offenders; and 40 teens were more than 6 time offenders.

Orechio and Adubato move to help cancer-stricken girl

State Senator Carmen Orechio and Assemblyman Michael Adubato, Essex County Democratic legislators, proposed legislation Thursday to require health insurers in New Jersey to provide coverage for a life-saving cancer treatment needed for some victims of a rare form of cancer called Wilms' Tumor.

"This legislation is the right way to go, because it not only helps a specific victim of this terrible disease," said Orechio, "but it takes away any doubt on the part of the insurers."

"I stress that this bill will make it very clear that doctors — not insurers — should be determining which kind of treatment should be given to a victim of this rare disease," the senator said.

Orechio pointed out that approximately 50 people worldwide have the disease, but that of all the childhood cancers, it has the highest success rate if discovered early, and treated at the optimum.

"And that means if the chemotherapy has failed, then the proven treatment of the bone marrow transplant must be done. So far, it has a track record of over 70 percent success in defeating this dread disease," he said.

The two lawmakers were joined at a news conference by John and Michelle Rollo of Glen Ridge, whose eight-year-old daughter, Tishna, suffers from Wilms' Tumor. She must receive the bone marrow transplant to have any chance of surviving the deadly cancer.

The family's health insurer, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, agreed to pay for the $125,000 cost of the transplant, but only as a "loan" to the Rollo family.

They will then seek to overturn the ruling of Judge Marianne Trump Barry who directed them to pay for the transplant. They will attempt to reclaim the cost by seeking a reimbursement from the Rollo family.

"I don't think the Rollo family will have a problem once this legislation is enacted," Orechio said.

"I think this legislation will make it clear that our efforts simply reflect what is the right thing to do, and I think Blue Cross and Blue Shield know that."

He also pointed out that, up to this time, past treatments for Tishna's condition have been paid by Blue Cross and Blue Shield. This includes previous treatments with chemotherapy, which so far have proven unsuccessful in stopping the progress of the disease.

"In many cases," said Assemblyman Adubato, "chemotherapy is effective in treating Wilms' Tumor, but there are cases in which it doesn't work."

The legislation would specify that the health insurers must pro-

Out-of-towners lead crime

By Anthony Buccino

Police figures released last week confirm that between 60-80 percent of the crimes in Belleville are committed by out-of-towners.

In 1989, police statistics show that of the 1066 total arrests in town, 752, about 80 percent, were out-of-towners.

Last year, Belleville residents reported 403 auto thefts. Of the vehicles recovered, 13 were found in town and 280, nearly 70 percent, were recovered in Newark, West Orange, Irvington and other urban areas.

Narcotics arrests last year totalled 424 with about 60 percent or nearly 250 of those arrested being out-of-towners.

Other 1989 police statistics released last week include: Summons issued - 31,272; parking - 26,262, moving - 4,946, DWI - 64. Additionally, police investigated 1,859 accidents involving 4 fatalities. Police also checked 579 vehicles and towed 288. Township police responded to 20,144 total calls last year.

Congressional Reapportionment. What is it? Every 10 years the U.S. Government conducts a comprehensive census. Its principal purpose is to count the number of people living in the U.S. and to determine where they live. The answers to these questions dictate the number of congressional seats each state has in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The census count takes place this year. Based on its results, House districts will be redrawn or "reapportioned" to equal 12 the number of persons in each district. (About 450,000 per congressional seat.) This process will take place in 1991 and affect congressional elections beginning in 1992.

The State Legislatures Control Redistricting. After the census is completed, redistricting is done by each state legislature. The state is free to draw the congressional boundaries as it likes, as long as it is not done in a discriminatory manner. Because of this flexibility the final product is influenced by the party that controls the legislature and the governorship. It is also based on geographic, regional and in some cases, personal biases. Results affect both congressional and state legislative races.

Why do we care? If friends are not in control of the redistricting process, we lose our supporters in the U.S. Congress, and in the State Legislatures. The total number of Democrat and Republican congresspersons in each state could also be affected. Finally, the redistricting process can produce similar changes in the state houses as well, affecting the people's ability to win state legislative battles.

Where will these changes take place? The fast growing south and west are expected to gain House seats, while the slow growing northern states will likely lose seats. Even those states whose total number of seats remain the same may have their congressional district boundaries redrawn in order to make it easier or more difficult for incumbents to win elections.

California may gain four to six seats; Florida will probably end up with three more congressional seats; Georgia, should get two; Texas may gain three to four seats.

On the other hand, Illinois, Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania are expected to lose two or three seats each. Others, including West Virginia, Iowa, and Kansas will lose at least one seat. The key question is which representatives will win or lose in the process — the people's friends or enemies?

There will be 36 gubernatorial races in 1990. West Virginia and New Jersey elected Democratic Governors last year. Tight races in Connecticut, Ohio and Massachusetts. Other key states are Oregon, Pennsylvania and Michigan. In Georgia, the incumbent governor is retiring and the race is wide open. Apparently incumbent state Chief Executives in New York, Colorado, Tennessee and Maryland seem re-electable. Important gubernatorial seats will be contested in Florida, Texas, Illinois and Rhode Island... Much is at stake.

Remember back ten years ago when Republican control of the State Government brought about the redistricting of our local district that brought about the loss of Congressman Joe Minish as our Congressman and for most of Belleville the loss of Pete Rodino also. Politics play many "nasty tricks" and people can and do get hurt when they don't vote wisely to protect their own best interests by electing qualified and dedicated individuals to public office for the highest levels of government... promises and platitudes are meaningless without talent, ability and integrity... seek out ONLY those who qualify as being possessive of these qualities... as important as it is in high public office, it is even more important in local office, because most aspiring to such office lack the training... experience and knowledge required to competently discharge the incumbent responsibilities of such an important position.

As we, in the ensuing months, embark upon deciding the outcome of important local school board and Town Council elections, let us with wisdom and sagacity vote intelligently and wisely... Your future tax bill may depend upon it.

vide coverage for a transplant when standard chemotherapy fails in the treatment of Wilms' Tumor, the two lawmakers emphasized.

"Yes, this bill will help Tishna and her family in their time of need, but it will also provide a groundwork for providing coverage in the future," Orechio stated.

The transplant treatment involves the removal of healthy cell-making marrow from the patient's pelvic area, and putting it back after high doses of radiation therapy.

"This is a proven life-saving treatment which is being outlined in very specific terms under this bill," Adubato said.

Orechio pointed out that leading medical journals and medical experts have rated the excellent success ratio of the treatment "one of the highest in dealing with cancer in any form."

The bill will be formally introduced next week and will move quickly through the legislative process, they said.

Orechio, who has been a prime mover of such legislation in the course of his career in Trenton, said, "Anything we can do to save Tishna's life must be done, and done quickly."

Orechio pointed out Blue Cross and Blue Shield acted the way they did in order to prevent the establishment of a "precedent" which would be considered in future cases of so-called "experimental" treatments.

"This, however, is not experimental. It has an established medical history of success, and little Tishna should not have been caught in the middle of an academic debate while her life wastes away," he said.

Pharmacy Footnotes

When a young child gets a cut or scrape, cleaning the wound and applying antiseptic can cause more commotion than the accident. This is because the two most effective antiseptic agents, alcohol and iodine, cause a burning sensation. To be effective, isopropyl (rubbing) alcohol must be rubbed onto the skin for two minutes. Once it evaporates, its effectiveness is lost. As for iodine tincture (a solution of iodine in alcohol), it is a highly effective antiseptic product, but it takes a brave child to endure its burning effect. A milder, but less effective alternative is iodine solution. It contains no alcohol and does not sting as much. Another good product is a cleanser that contains the antiseptic chlorhexidine. It cleans the wound and its residue kills bacteria until it wears away.

Eight candidates file for council election

By Anthony Buccino
At press time, eight candidates have thrown their hats into the ring for council seats in the May 8 general municipal election by filing petitions at the town clerk's office. The town clerk must now compare petition signatures with voter registrations filed in the County Hall of Records.

Completed petitions of nomination must be filed before 4 p.m. March 15. The petitions may be amended for defects until March 21. No names may be added or the name of a candidate signed changed after the March 15 deadline.

Mario Drozdz, 95 Bell St., and Joseph T. Fornarotto, 523 Union Ave., have filed for at-large council seats. The at-large council seats are four-year terms, and the council members represent the entire township. A minimum of 178 signatures is required for this council position.

Jim Messina, 225 Brighton Ave., filed for the 1st Ward council seat. A minimum of 44 signatures is required for this 2-year council position.

Attilio (Jerry) Del Guercio, 8 Grove St., and Richard Yanuzzi, 253 Forest St., have filed for the 2nd ward council seat. A minimum of 52 signatures is required for this 2-year council position.

Kevin Kennedy, 45 Hornblower Ave., has filed for the 3rd ward council seat. A minimum of 39 signatures is required for this 2-year council position.

Victor M. Canning, 58 Roosevelt Ave., and William P. Cook, 290 Division Ave., have filed for the 4th ward council seat. A minimum of 43 signatures is required for this 2-year council position.

Twenty-five residents have picked up nominating petitions for the council election, but not all 25 are expected to file for the race.

The council-manager form of government is defined by the Faulkner Act. Under the council form of municipal government, the newly elected council will select the mayor from among the seven person council. The mayor's term will be for two years. The council must also hire a municipal manager who will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the township.

Registered voters can sign 3 at-large petitions and one petition for the ward in which they live.

similar to those proposed by the present commission government, opposing the project and vowed to be a visible opponent to help assure that it is never built.

"The estimated cost of the tunnel is one billion dollars," Yanuzzi said. "Of this, the state of New Jersey must provide one quarter of the funding. Right now, the fiscal condition of the state does not warrant this spending."

He continued to explain that he does not believe that a tunnel will solve flood problems in North Jersey. "The flood tunnel will only transfer the problems that Wayne is experiencing to Belleville," he stated. "To spend $1 billion is ridiculous." Other alternatives are available which are far less costly and which will accomplish the goal of alleviating the flood problem.

"The taxpayers of Belleville should not be burdened with the cost that would be incurred if the lower part of Belleville is flooded. We are faced with the possibility of a major commitment of tax dollars not only from the state but from the township. This can never be allowed."

Yanuzzi said that he supports legislation sponsored by Assemblyman Marion Crecco and Assemblyman John Kelly (R-Essex) which implements a buyout program for homes currently located in the floodplain.

"A-1315, sponsored by Marion Crecco and John Kelly, appropriates $100,000 to start a program to buy out homes located in the Lincoln Park ten year flood plain," said Yanuzzi, an aide to Crecco. "This will enable the area to once again become a natural wetlands. The cost of the buyout program is $100 million, far less expensive than $1 billion."

Rich Yanuzzi currently serves as a member of the Board of Education and as an aide to Assemblyman Crecco. He is a candidate for Second Ward Councilman in the May 8 municipal election.

Council Manager form of government can be a very positive change for Belleville. In order for the Council Manager form of government to work May 8th requires election of dedicated individuals who care about the Township. I believe that the civic activities that I have been involved in for over 25 years should indicate to the voters that I have the commitment to Belleville to make the new form of government succeed for all of the people.

First, what are the things that a truly dedicated Township Council should concern itself with?

In my opinion the most important decision that the new Council will make is the appointment of the Town Manager. It is absolutely essential that the manager be a professional manager. The person chosen for the job must not only possess the educational background to do the job, he or she must also have a proven track record of being a successful manager in another community.

Belleville has become a very complex community with many problems waiting to be resolved. The new manager will be taking over from a group of five commissioners and their predecessors who have had varied levels of success or failure in dealing with these problems over the years. The council and the new manager will have to agree upon a list of objectives with specific time tables for accomplishing these objectives. Periodically the council will have to review these objectives and the progress in accomplishing them.

In the weeks between now and the election I will be writing and talking about what the people of the Third Ward and I think are the most important goals to be accomplished by the new form of government and my proposals for Belleville's future.

Gabe Nazzola

The Committee to Elect Gabe Nazzola announced that town activist, Gabe Nazzola, has decided to run for one of the three councilman-at-large seats in the upcoming township election on May 8.

According to a committee spokesperson, Nazzola has been approached by several members of the business community and other prominent citizens who voiced concerns about the lack of viable and credible candidates and urged him to run. The businessmen expressed positive anticipation and support for the coming change of government especially since a professional business manager will be running the day to day operation of the town.

Prominent citizens told Nazzola of a common lament heard from their friends and associates that, "If that same bunch gets back in, (they're) going to pack it in, sell (their) houses, and get out of Belleville."

When asked what made him decide to run, Nazzola responded,

"In order to assure the success of the council-manager form of government in Belleville, there must be seven objective persons elected to the council. Seven persons who believe in and support the council-manager form of government and who possess the ability to make a proper selection of a qualified, non-political business manager and to continually monitor his performance. As a self-employed businessman with over 27 years of experience I feel that I am qualified to be one of those seven persons. After years and years of attending township meetings and demonstrating my concern for things that don't happen, and should; and those things that shouldn't happen and do, it's about time I got on the side of the table where I can be a part of that decision making process."

William P. Cook

William P. Cook of Division Ave., has formally announced his candidacy for 4th ward councilman by filing nominating petitions with the Township Clerk. Cook and his campaign coordinator, Anthony Lusnia, filed the necessary petitions on Tuesday, Feb. 13, thus setting in motion a campaign which the candidate hopes will culminate in his election on May 8.

Cook is a lifelong resident of Belleville. He is a graduate of New Jersey Institute of Technology with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering and currently holds the position of Utilities Manager with Hoffman La-Roche where he has been employed for 16 years. Long active with civic and volunteer organizations, Cook has served as vice-chairman of the Belleville Board of Adjustment and secretary of the municipal planning board.

Over the years, Cook has participated in many volunteer groups. He served as chairman of Cub Scout Pack 350 and has been a Recreation baseball coach. He is currently active with the Belleville Irish American Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Belleville Soccer Assoc., and the BHS Vocational Advisory Council. Cook is married to the former Gail Cullen, also of Belleville. They have four sons, Richard, William,

Brian, and Timothy.

Cook, upon announcing his formal candidacy said, "The time has come when our municipal government must return to traditional values and basic management principles. The citizens of Belleville have a right to expect that their elected officials will attempt to provide adequate services in return for fair taxes. That is the foundation of a responsible municipal government."

Cook announced that his slogan will be "Heading for the Future with New Ideas", explaining that "the application of fundamental principles with the infusion of new ideas will permit our township to shake loose from the lethargy which has unfortunately become characteristic of our municipality."

Cook has envisioned a program which would foster integrity in government and education to the residents of the township and will address a broad spectrum of current issues. He has targeted tax stabilization, proper senior citizens' housing, revitalization of commercial districts, drug awareness, and land use planning as issues with which will be addressed during his campaign.

The committee to elect Cook will sponsor a kickoff rally starting at 7 p.m., March 4, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, on Bridge St.

Richard Yanuzzi

Second Ward Council candidate Richard Yanuzzi stated this week that plans to construct a flood tunnel along the Passaic River are "economically foolish and definitely not in the best interest of the residents of Belleville."

Yanuzzi stated that as Councilman, he would introduce resolutions,

OUR OPINION

The Outsiders

The biggest crime problem in town isn't the people who live here, it's the outsiders.

Eighty percent of the arrests in town are of people who don't live here. That is, of 1,066 arrests last year, 752 were nonresidents. Sixty percent of the narcotics arrests in town are of people (Do we really consider them people, scum is a much closer description.) who don't live here. That is, of 424 narcotics arrests last year, approximately 250 were nonresidents.

Almost seventy percent of the cars stolen from our town are recovered south of our border. That is, of 403 cars stolen last year, 280 were recovered south of our border. We must add that thirteen were recovered in town, 110 were not recovered by the end of the year.

These numbers make our hair stand on end. For every one hundred awful things that happen here, between 60-80 of those awful things are done to us by them. They are people whose only reason for invading our town is geography.

We're just a stone's throw away from Newark. Newark has the highest car theft rate of any city in the country with a population of more than 100,000 people.

Newark is beginning to address the problem through its schools. A recent report from Newark police and school officials identified nearly 80 children ages 10 to 14 as the city's "most chronic offenders." Newark BOE President Charles Bell said that that age group is responsible for 40 percent of the stolen cars in Newark.

For the Newark BOE is beginning to address the problem, a problem for which one Newark BOE member said the city and school district should not take all the blame because "all the cars are not stolen from here, they dump them here and our children get the blame and we get the stigma."

Bell agreed at a public forum that the BOE should offer the youths meaningful activities. He was quoted as saying, "We can no longer throw our hands up and turn the other way. The youths must be made to realize that there are alternatives to stealing cars."

Bravo, Mr. Bell. Here are just a few alternatives we've noticed lately...

- Two teens believed to be members of a gang that stole five cars a day for three months were arrested Dec. 22.

- A 16-year-old boy was shot during a car chase. He and his 15-year-old accomplice were arrested after leading police on a car chase through several towns Dec. 28.

- Two 16-year-olds were arrested after robbing a purse, stealing a car and striking a police officer Feb. 7.

- Six teens were charged with stealing two cars from a shopping mall Feb. 12.

- Two teenagers were sentenced to 30 and 15 years in prison for killing two women when their stolen car crashed during an attempt to evade police.

Unfortunately, the list goes on, and on.

Between the thieves and the powerful magnet of our property stands only one group of guys running interference. At night while we sleep, they are out there running static for us. They are our brothers, sons, husbands, fathers, the guys we grew up with here, and who are trying to raise their kids here in town — the police, and they are trying to protect us. It's a thankless job.

How long should these guys have to lay down while the crime swells up around them and us and makes us all look like fools. The police is "us." And it's us against them. We need all the help we can get, and so do our police.

They are "our" cops and they deserve a hell of a lot more respect than they get. We no longer raise our children to respect the men in blue. And when we stop respecting the man, we begin to forget the respect due the law they represent. These guys aren't super, or special — they're just human. Sure, they have their faults, and sometimes they make mistakes. But they are "our" cops. They are the only ones between us and the scum. They are there 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to protect and defend, to protect and defend us.

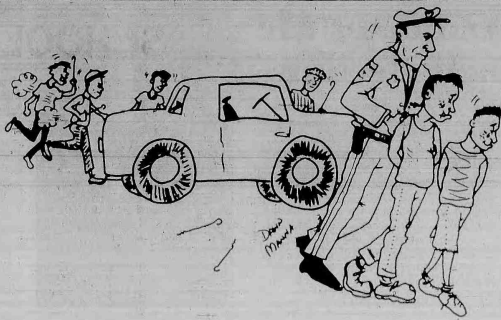

We're tired of having our police put down by elected officials with an axe to grind. And we're tired of seeing our police left in the lurch because a pusillanimous elected official won't stand up to the pompous official from the city next door.

Belleville people aren't the problem, but we've got to stop fighting among ourselves. We've got to show our pride in what we are and where we've been and where we're going. Because if we can't pull together our own pride, we deserve to be overrun.

Meanwhile, if Germany is looking for a place to get rid of their wall, we've got a suggestion.

YOUR OPINION

Thanks 'Good Sams'

To the editor:

On February 13, 1990, I was involved in an automobile accident. It occurred at the intersection of Franklin and Mill in Belleville.

I'd like to extend my thanks to the Belleville firemen, policemen, and paramedics. I'd also like to thank all the people in the area for their help, especially Bill O'Brien of Nutley.

Once again thank you for all the help you all gave me.

Apples for the students

To the editor:

Belleville Middle School participated in the Shop Rite "Apples for the Students" program from Oct. 1, 1989 until Feb. 17, 1990 and in this time collected over $320,000 in Shop Rite register tapes. This was a wonderful accomplishment, considering the fact that Belleville has no Shop Rite store in town.

To the parents, family and friends of the students who brought in the tapes, thank you for the extra effort to go out of town to do your shopping. To the teachers who brought in tapes and also collected the students' tapes and sent them to the office, thank you. To the secretaries for all their help, to Mr. Bill Hollis, for his assistance, thank you. To Mrs. Joyce Talbot and the Home & School Association for their support and cooperation, thank you. Special thanks to Mr. Mario DiMaggio, principal, for his backing and always finding time to listen to my ideas and giving his input to a successful program.

Thank you to the following organizations and businesses for their donations to our "Apples for the Students" program: Belleville Coin & Stamp, Belleville Rosary Florist, Palmer Video, Paradise Florist, Nanina's in the Park, Trust Company of N.J., S & S Video, Mickey's Music, Belleville Cards & Gifts, DeBacco Bros. Sporting Goods, Brunswick Olympic Bowl, Chocolate Factory, Plaza Bakery, Flowerama, and Milt's Photo.

Also, New York Mets, New York Yankees, New Jersey Giants, New Jersey Nets, New Jersey Devils, Rossmore Pharmacy Inc., Joe's Pizzeria and Walter Bauman Jewelers.

To my neighbors and friends, for giving me over 700 Shop Rite tapes in the last four months, thank you.

Last, but certainly not least, my committee, who helped me add up all the tapes, put them in order, carry tapes home from school and gave me their support over the months; my husband Jack and my two sons, Jack Jr., and Joe. Thank you all dearly.

This program's success was true team spirit on behalf of everyone and this all happened in Belleville.

Within four to six weeks, the computer room at the Belleville Middle School will be receiving an Apple IIGS Color System Computer, which includes keyboard, monitor, disk drive, mouse, system disk, tutorial disk and Apple Works software. Also, an Apple Image Writer II Printer and additional software.

Cooperation required

To the editor:

An issue, about 3 years ago, during the reign of the previous Board of Commissioners, affecting Belleville's property taxpayers, was a much needed public safety facility.

Ignoring the rational recommendations of citizens, concerned with filling the need for a public safety facility, the previous Board of Commissioners unveiled their project, now commonly identified as their "Taj Mahal."

The public protest which followed was unequalled in Belleville's history, with from 400 to 500 citizens attending the town meetings, of necessity held at the High School to accommodate them, expressing their opposition to the extravagance.

With the "Taj Mahal" concept defeated, the $10 million bond issue was scaled down to $5 million to finance the construction of the public safety building only.

In the meantime, by continuing to forge ahead, in spite of ever mounting opposition to the "Taj Mahal" by the taxpayers, then Mayor Michael Marotti and his fellow commissioners spent $800,000 of the bond issue money.

Anyone who has had the opportunity to visit the basement of our Town Hall, providing the accommodations for our Public Safety (Police) Department, is agghast at the deplorable conditions our "finest" have to work under.

Contrary to the editor of the Belleville Times' assessment as a "sloppy second" project, Belleville is at the threshold of providing them with a workplace to operate in a professional, efficient and dignified manner.

Our historic Town Hall will be physically connected with the new building, with an elevator making both handicapped accessible, including handicapped accessible public restrooms on each floor, currently a serious deficiency. Another deficiency at the Town Hall will be addressed with the installation of fire and smoke detectors, as well as emergency lighting.

When the police department vacates the present quarters, the area will be upgraded and used to accommodate other town offices, currently in other buildings.

Looking at the total project in a positive light, refraining from derogatory and obstructionist comments, like those publicly expressed by the editor of the Belleville Times, the building committee and the current Board of Commissioners are to be commended for their dedication to purpose and determination to do that which is necessary, for the benefit of Belleville.

What is required is the full cooperation of all to make this, our town, a "Better Belleville."

Cornelis P. Vander Zwan

Something for posterity

To the editor:

To date the ongoing problem with the administration of this town is to overlook the fiscal atmosphere that surrounds us today.

We see taxes and we see now. We have completely overlooked the 3rd dimension and that is time.

Most of us who own property bought it with a mortgage, that was loaned to us by a bank. Most of us older citizens have already paid this money back to the bank. Because of the mild inflation that seems to be a permanent fixture in our economy we paid it off with cheaper (inflated) dollars and now we own a home with what seems to be a greater dollar value than we paid for it.

Similarly this city could borrow money at a low rate (municipal bonds are tax free), then do with it what has to be done. With an efficiently run government we could pay the interest of the bonds and still have stable tax rates.

The people of Belleville who built the high school, and the original Town Hall, did so with a desire to help their children, their children's children or many generations in the future. I am sure that most Belleville citizens today would also like to leave posterity something to thank them for.

Thanks JV wrestlers

To the editor:

I'd like to take this time to offer a "hearty congratulations" to Belleville wrestling's future stars, the JV team. These young gentlemen work hard and have had great success in the shadows of our outstanding varsity team. It would take several pages to list all their accomplishments as a team and individually.

However, since they do not receive adequate press coverage, I know I speak for the parents and fans when I say thank you for an outstanding season to: Mike Conte, Tom Pontrella, Herman Cueto, Carlo Ritacco, Chris Talbot, Alan Cruz, Vinny Strumulo and Anthony Mastropolo.

Lou Conte

Opposes later start

To the editor:

I as a parent of two small children, which is more than I can say of the board of education members, have something to say about who is to say when my children should or should not start school. I think the children of today are a lot smarter and quicker than we were when we were their age. All of a sudden you (the board of education members) decide to get psychologists to waste our money, and take a so-called survey, to say my children should not start school when they are five, because he was born after October 1. I think I should be the one to decide the fate of my children not some psychologist that doesn't know anything about my child. Since when do we learn how to read in kindergarten? I thought this was to learn to play with other children and to get used to the environment?

Now children have preschool which we never had when we were children. So that makes them even smarter earlier. More and more children are going to be bored and turned off from school and education because you say they have to start school later.

If you (members of the board) had small children getting ready to start school now, would you still feel the same about changing the age?

Deborah Campione

Needs a new sign

To the editor:

My dead end street (N. 9th St) continues to receive unnecessary pollution from cars and heavy trucks because of an inadequate dead end sign.

The sign is small and located approximately 30 feet in from the corner of the main street (Franklin St.) and it's usually too late before it is recognized by traffic.

Months ago I referred it to two commissioners and they in turn said to contact the mayor because it's his jurisdiction.

I wrote Mayor Pizzi a hand written letter and didn't get even the courtesy of an answer.

I pay $5,400 property taxes and I must say all aspects of service are poor in Belleville.

BHS Vocational Advisory Council

The Belleville Public School System offers a wide selection of educational programs for its students. Included in this selection are extensive, comprehensive, and excellent vocational and cooperative education programs offered at Belleville High School.

While there are many components in the success of such a vocational program, there is one factor that is often overlooked. Unfortunately, most students and parents are unaware of the Belleville High School Vocational Advisory Council (BHSVAC). The council makes recommendations for improvements within the vocational education program, and offers guidance and assistance to students regarding vocational curriculum, career endeavors, or requirements of vocational occupations.

A question that is often asked is why does such an organization exist in the first place? In many cases, vocational advisory councils are required by law. The recently-established Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) requires the formation of an advisory council before training programs can be funded. Local schools and institutions that operate vocational education programs and receive federal funds are often required to establish advisory councils which provide advice on current job market needs.

The function of an advisory council is to advise, counsel, and assist in the planning, development, and evaluation of a school system's vocational education programs. It is a necessary tool if interaction between the community and the school system is to take place. It should be noted that the role of the council is advisory in nature, and it does not have administrative, policy-making or legislative authority.

The general purpose of the Belleville High School Vocational Advisory Council is to serve as an advisory council with respect to making recommendations to the Belleville Board of Education regarding the vocational programs within the Belleville school system. The specific purposes and goals of the Belleville High School Vocational Advisory Council are to:

1. Study the needs of business and/or industry which may be related to an individual skill program, family of occupations or the total general program.
2. Help in developing a program for the community that will better relate to agriculture, business, and industry.

3. Offer recommendations for the improvement of facilities, equipment, and instructional materials.
4. Assist in evaluating the school/courses in relation to the stated objectives.

5. Correlate the work of the school programs with that of unions, labor, management, and chamber of commerce, with which the advisory council members can develop a communications network.

6. Assist the school programs in selecting priorities.

7. Study school programs in other communities for the purpose of encouraging the use of those practices which may be applicable to our programs.

8. Advise on the revision of objectives and/or goals of the school programs as determined by study and evaluation.

9. Serve as an avenue of communication among education, the world of work, and the community.

10. Evaluate annually the progress made toward the council's goals.

All recommendations made by the council are subject to approval by the Belleville Board of Education. The council hopes to create an awareness of its existence and the benefits it brings to the students and the vocational program itself.

The Belleville High School Vocational Advisory Council is a hard-working group, dedicated to the success of every student enrolled in a vocational or cooperative education program. They work for the students, the school system, and the community by evaluating the students' needs and the needs of business and industry in order to help develop a successful future for all.

Coppola wins poster contest

Michael J. Coppola, son of John and Marie Coppola of Belleville, has been selected as one of 12 winners in the national "A Happy Home is..." children's poster contest.

The competition was sponsored by the National Exchange Club Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse and endorsed by the Educational Press Association of America. Children throughout the United States submitted drawings which depicted what a happy home means to them. More than a thousand entries were received from the four to 12-year-olds, including some from as far away as North Pole, Alaska and Guam. For his winning drawing, Michael, a kindergarten student at Holy Family School, receives a $100 savings bond and a two-year subscription to the children's magazine of his choice. In addition, his drawings will be one of twelve featured in a 1991 calendar.

Medical careers discussed

Vivian Cleffi of the Berdan business school, addressed Belleville High students on career opportunities in the allied health fields. Berdan offers 6 and 9 month programs in medical assisting, medical secretarial and dental assisting. The school is accredited by the American Medical Association, American Dental Association and the American Association of Medical Assistants. Cleffi has been in admissions with Berdan for three years.

Dependency exemptions for children of divorced parents

Special IRS rules determine which of the divorced parents may claim the dependency exemptions for their children.

Bert Tobia, District Manager of H & R Block states that a non-custodial divorced parent can claim the children as dependents if he or she contributes at least $600 per child in support, and a pre-1985 divorce decree or other written statement gives him or her the dependency exemption, even if the custodial parent provided over half of the child's support.

The only other case in which a non-custodial parent may claim the exemption is when the custodial parent signs a statement giving the exemption to the non-custodial parent.

For these rules to apply, the divorced parents together must provide over half the total support of the children. The child must be in the custody of one or both parents for more than one-half of the year.

Tobia points out that if you are a divorced parent who was entitled under IRS rules to claim a dependency exemption in prior years, but did not do so, you may file amended returns and take the exemption in open years.

For further questions, call Bert Tobia at 365-0999.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Gerard Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

God has a good eye and a sharp saw

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that bears no fruit, he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit." John 15:1,2.

"Let's just trim that one branch that's hanging down." When my wife says that, I know I'm in for a full day of work. Has anybody ever gotten by with trimming only one branch? Most of us are lucky if, when we finish shaping the whole tree, we don't have to trim all the other trees in the yard as well.

Sometimes in what I think are my great moments of spiritual commitment I've said to the Lord, "You may trim this unsightly part of my life. It doesn't glorify you; it makes me unattractive as a Christian..." But before I can finish, he reminds me, "I am the vinedresser." In other words, He knows far better than I do what needs trimming in my life, and if I'm going to invite Him to beautify me, I'd better expect a lot of pruning.

If you open your life to God, He won't stop with one unsightly branch; He knows what attractive is, and He intends to make us beautiful. Don't try to tell Him, "This is the only problem branch," because He's likely to say, "That's minor. The bigger problem is this branch over here."

The decision for each of us to make is not whether I will have God trim out of my life; rather, the decision is what will I allow God to make me as fruitful as He alone can, because only He understands fruitfulness. Once we open the garden gate and invite the vinedresser in, nothing is going to stay the same.

Our prayer should be: "Lord, You shape my life the way it ought to be, even though sometimes I know it is going to hurt."

Knights Council 835 recognized for service

The Belleville Knights of Columbush Council 835 was recognized for its many contributions to the community by the organization's international headquarters in New Haven, Ct. Frank Corbo, the headquarters representative presented the "Reach For The Stars" plaque at a special meeting held Feb. 15.

The Knights' International president, Virgil C. Dechant said, "The dedication to the principles and the aims of the order shown by your officers and members is exemplified by the high standard of excellence you have achieved. At the same time, I encourage you to carry forward this enthusiasm to meet the challenge that will face the Knights in the years ahead. May this award be a reminder and inspiration to the members of your council to continue to promote the ideals of Columbian for the good of the church, your community and the order."

Grand Knight Richard Glogoz said the council was honored by the recognition and pleased with their accomplishments.

In the last year, the Knights have been involved in a number of charitable and volunteer causes including the blood drive and the children's Christmas party.

Additionally, the Knights presented the Shield Award to township police Lieutenant William Adelmeh in recognition of his outstanding service and performance above and beyond the call of duty.

The Knights also sponsored a Free Throw basketball contest, an essay contest, a spelling bee, Group members visited the Veterans' Hospital in East Orange. Their Retarded Citizens' Drive supported special people including the Mal Condon Canteen, Belleville, Special Olympics, a local Boy Scout troop and Camp Fatima. The Civic group participated in the Memorial and Veteran's Day parades.

The Knights of Columbus is a Catholic family fraternity service organization with nearly 1 1/2 million members world-wide. Last year the organization contributed more than 27 million hours of volunteer service and donated more than $85 million to charitable causes.

A: Hoarseness is an alteration in the normal production of the voice by the vocal cords.
- Q: What are the causes of hoarseness?

- Q: Who should have an examination by a throat specialist?
A: Anyone who has hoarseness persisting for two weeks.
- Q: Have there been recent advances in the diagnosis of hoarseness?
A: Yes. With the FLEXIBLE FIBEROPTIC LARYNGOSCOPE, a complete examination of the voice box can be done in the office without discomfort.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUCS SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

The spring sports season is just one week away, with practices set to begin next Thursday. At this time of year, it seems a good time to look back at some memories of spring at Belleville High School. I've always had fond memories of my high school days and remember very clearly the Spring of 1975 at Belleville High.

It was my junior year of high school and what I remember most about the sports year in '75 was that every varsity sport posted a winning record. The football team was 5-4, the cross country team finished 7-5, the boys' basketball team was 13-10, the girls' basketball team posted an 8-7 record, the wrestling team was 13-2, the bowling team finished above .500 (I don't remember the exact record), the baseball team finished 14-10, the track team was 8-6, the softball team posted a 7-4 record and the golf team was 5-3.

In '74-75, soccer was a junior varsity sport only. It did not become a varsity sport until the Fall of 1975. There was no gymnastics, volleyball or girls' tennis teams. The indoor track team did not exist, neither did boys' tennis.

Throughout the years, Belleville High has added a great deal to its athletic "menu", especially in the area of girls' sports. But, getting back to 1975, there was an air of excitement in everything we did.

In '75, the disco era was just kicking off. Songs like "Do the Hustle", "Fly Robin, Fly", and "Bad Luck", were big hits. The Vietnam War had just ended and at home, there was a feeling of contentment. The influence of the 1960's was just about over. The era of Watergate had passed. Gasoline was about 60¢ a gallon. It's hard to describe, but it was just a very happy time. Maybe because we were so much younger, with less pressures and responsibilities.

Anyway, the track team, of which I was a member (I ran the two mile), was involved in some exciting meets. I remember when we beat Montclair for the first time in 16 years, winning the meet, 68-54.

I remember our coach, a rookie by the name of Rich Ruffalo, and his "wildman" drills during practices. I remember we had one of the best two milers in the county by the name of Jim Beck. In the Big 10 championships that year, he finished fourth in a very tough field, running 10:08 on the excellent track at Nutley.

We used to love running at Nutley because its track was state of the art and we always had our best times there.

Speaking of the Big 10, what a shame it was that it was disbanded after the 1977-78 school year. Not to get off the subject matter, but we had some great rivalries back then with East Orange, Orange, Montclair, Nutley, Bloomfield, Columbia, Irvington, Kearny and Essex Catholic.

I remember when we raced Nutley at our facility at Belleville High and nearly beating the vaunted Raiders. Nutley had some phenomenal runners, but our guys, namely Beck, Nelson Seda, Mike Fortino, Doug Wansley and John Matera ran really well. We lost the meet in the final event of the day.

Of all the wins that year, the best for the team was the 7-6-4 win against Kearny in the season finale. We had never matched up well against the Kards in the past and we needed that victory to ensure a winning season.

I remember Brian "B" Wood in the mile relay and Fortino, raising his arms in victory as he crossed the finish line to win the mile relay and put the clamps on the year. I remember everyone being thrown into the showers after the meet.

The losses that year somehow provided some good memories. We lost by 10 points to Bloomfield when a sophomore for the Bengals named Kelly Tripucka won the long jump. It offset a tremendous performance by Greg Bunch, Nick Semara and Kenny Drake. Drake was a phenomenal athlete, who led our team in scoring that spring.

Fortino was the team captain and he commanded a great deal of respect. I really looked up to him, and will always remember something he said to me early in a two mile race against Newark Eastside.

Beck and Wansley, as usual, took off early and were 1-2 in the race. It was important for me to finish third, so we could sweep the event and gain a few points.

We had just ran the first two laps of the eight lap race. I was in fourth place. Fortino, standing by the starting line, sees me coming around and bend and says, "Mike, these are the guys that beat you in cross country. Get 'em."

I don't quite know why those words meant so much, but I quickly passed the Eastside runner in front of me and had the best time of my junior year at the BHS course. My time was 11:08 and we ended up sweeping the two mile.

A few days later, at the Big 10 championships, I had my best time of the season, running 11:06 on Nutley's course.

I'm sure not many people are interested in my track exploits, but the point of this story is the memories that are attached to your high school days will last forever. I had some great times at Belleville High. It doesn't seem possible that 15 years have passed since 1975, but you need only look at a calendar to back up that claim.

Next week, we'll look back at that 1975 season a little more, concentrating on baseball and that game that was an athletic far during that year, call me or write me at the Belleville Times and tell me what you remember.

TIDBITS

It doesn't seem possible, but the baseball season looks to be in a little trouble now. I still can't believe that any portion of the regular season will be affected. There's just too much money involved and a settlement should take place. Besides, I've got tickets for the Cardinals' opener, at Montreal on April 3. They can't cancel it, can they?

Can you believe it's been ten years since the U.S. Hockey team won the Gold Medal at Lake Placid? I still get chills watching the victory over the USSR and then the win over Finland that clinched the medal. I'll never forget the medal ceremony, and after the National Anthem, the fans stayed and chanted "USA, USA" for the longest time. It was a big boost to our nation at a time we really needed it. Could those USA hockey players have possibly realized the impact that medal would have on our country?

What do you think of the new National Sports Daily? Good paper, but it seems like a lot of reading just for sports on a daily basis.

FOR THIS WEEK

Have the Princeton Tigers ever won the NIT basketball championship? If so, when was the last time the Tigers won the crown and who did they beat in the finals? Also, the Tigers nearly made history last spring when they played powerful Georgetown in the first round of the NCAA tournament. As you probably know, Princeton lost by one point. A similar fate happened to the Tigers back in 1976. Who did Princeton play in the first round of the NCAA's that year and what happened in that game?

Nardone victory leads way

DISTRICT 7 CHAMPS!

By Joe Piegaro

Thank goodness it's over! Belleville High School won the District 7 wrestling championship this past Saturday by a mere one point over St. Benedict's Prep.

The tournament was a nailbiter from the first match at 103 to the final bout at heavyweight. Those poor souls who suffer from nervous stomachs, high blood pressure or similar maladies won't get back to normal for at least a month.

The Bucs and the Gray Bees were just like the old Ali and Frazier. They drew a line, started punching and didn't stop until the bell sounded at the end of the 15th round. This time, Belleville had one more punch than St. Benedict's and earned the most evenly fought districts in each other's wrestling history.

Belleville finished with 132 points, St. Benedict's with 131. The other finishers were as follows: No. 3 Bloomfield 109.5; No. 4 Glen Ridge 73; No. 5 Kearny 68.5; No. 6 Nutley 44; No. 7 Essex Catholic 21.5; No. 8 Montclair Immac. 6; No. 9 Harrison 5; and No. 10 Newark East Side 4.

Coach Joe Nisvoccia's boys led all teams with five champions, while St. Benedict's had three, Glen Ridge and Bloomfield had two each and Nutley had one.

Here is the division breakdown: 103 — St. Benedict's Rich Bustamente pins Belleville's Josh Cardinale at 2:42 of the second period. The BHS freshman is the surprise of the division as he pins Joe Devlin of Kearny in the quarterfinals and swamps Khoi Pham of Nutley in the semis by a 20-11 score.

112 — Jerry Allora of Bloomfield pins Joe Almeida of St. Benedict's 4:44 into the final period. The Bucs' Mike Miele finishes third as he beats Jim DeSai of Kearny 6-1 in the consolation round.

119 — Anthony Mielnicki of Nutley and Ralph Perna square off in a battle of Region 2 champions. Mielnicki wins the gold medal as he squeezes out an 8-6 decision. The Nutley junior wins the tournament's Outstanding Wrestler award for his efforts.

125 — Displaying unbelievable courage, Junior Nardone comes back from knee surgery to pin all three of his opponents to win his first District 7 Championship. Only 10 days earlier Nardone had surgery on his knee to repair a torn cartilage. The super effort woke up a slumbering Buc team and gave the remaining finalists a new definition of dedication and determination.

130 — Damien DeVito of Glen Ridge records a workmanlike 11-4 decision over Lamar Melton of St. Benedict's. Exactly three weeks earlier DeVito had beaten Melton in the finals of the County Championships by an 8-5 margin. Joe Ombalsky of Belleville finishes third by scoring a 9-5 decision over Kearny's Brian O'Donnell.

135 — In the tournament's deepest division, Lee Hands uses a cradle in the final period to overcome Leland Griffin of Essex Catholic, 7-5. Hands can truly be crowned District 7 champ as he defeated 6 of the 8 entrants in this weight class at one time or another during the season.

140 — Soph Vinnie DeSimone becomes the "Cardiac Kid" as he wins three tense matches in a row to win his first district gold medal. In the opening round, DeSimone was down to Carl Probst of Bloomfield, 7-4, with eight seconds remaining on the clock. A new move, called the "18," had been taught to Vinnie only this past week. He used "18," a variation of the lateral drop, to overcome Probst, 8-7. Vinnie avenged one of his earlier losses by decisioning Rory Walker-Graham of Essex Catholic in the semis, 5-2, then won the crown by squeezing out a 9-8 win over Joe Huss of St. Benedict's.

145 — Glen Ridge's pride and joy, Jamie Stanisci, breezes through his class and records his second straight District 7 gold medal. The surprise here is Kearny's Gene Richard. Last year Richard went to the states after losing three times to our own Dan Hywel. This year Richard got again to Hywel in the finals of the Bloomfield Holiday Tournament in the 152-pound class. Hoping to avoid any further meetings with Hywel, Richard dropped down to 145, but the strategy backfired as Stanisci decked him at 2:30 of the second period. Belleville's Jim Mastroianni is eliminated in the first round by Richard, being pinned at 2:59 of the second period.

152 — One of only two undefeated grapplers in the tournament (Junior Nardone is the other one), Dan Hywel runs his record to 25-0 by pinning all three foes in the first period. Only a junior, Danny has pinned 22 of his 25 opponents, an amazing percentage of .880. The gold medal is Hywel's second, as last year he won the districts at 145 pounds.

160 — Although Anthony Mielnicki of Nutley won the Outstanding Wrestler Award, as voted by the coaches, a more accurate winner would be Ken Henry of Belleville. The senior tri-captain was on a mission this year and completed his assignment with a flourish. Kenny defeated archival Paul Szep of Bloomfield for the third time this year, 3-2, to get into the finals against another arch rival, Chris Archer of Glen Ridge. Archer had beaten Henry the past two meetings, by scores of 11-5 and 8-5, but Henry stopped that streak with a 7-3 triumph in the district finals. The victory over Archer gave Belleville the last 4 1/2 team points needed to overcome the Gray Bucs of St. Benedict's.

171 — Bloomfield's Matt Szep breezes to his second District 7 title by beating Tony Rodriguez of Kearny, 11-2. Mike Costa of Belleville closes out his BHS wrestling career by losing a 12-7 decision to Rodriguez in the quarterfinal round.

189 — Kenya Moncour of St. Benedict's pins Carl Scheuten of Bloomfield with a headlock after being behind the entire match by as much as 5 points. Belleville's Angel Marin exits the tournament in the first round, via a 13-4 loss to John Nosti of Nutley.

Junior forward Jim DuHaime also played well, scoring 17 points and grabbing 15 rebounds.

"Both Troy and Jimmy did a good job," Roll said. "They have been playing very well down the stretch. It they and the other returning players continue working at the game during the off season, we could be in good shape for next year."

Doug Hoogendyke and Tom Klena had six points each against Montclair. Andy DuHaime and Dennis DeWork scored five each and Art Caruso and Mark Nakashian finished with two points a piece.

"It's been a tough year," Roll said. "There were about six or seven games we could have won. The kids played hard, we just weren't able to convert in key situations."

NOTES: In county basketball news, Shabazz won the county crown, beating Clifford Scott in the title game. It was Shabazz' second county crown over the past three years. It was the third straight year that Shabazz had played in the championship game. Last year, it was beaten by Scott in the final. Two years ago, Shabazz beat Orange for the title.

County champs in boys' basketball from 1980-89 were, Weequahic, East Orange (three times, 1981, '86 and '87), Montclair (three times, 1982, '83 and '85), Clifford Scott (twice, 1984 and '89) and Shabazz in 1988.

Belleville avoided further damage in the second quarter, outscoring Montclair 22-19 and narrowing the halftime deficit to 48-33. Montclair used a strong third quarter to take a commanding 70-49 lead heading into the last frame.

The Bucs outscored Montclair, 20-19 in that final quarter, but it wasn't nearly enough to narrow the Mountie lead.

Despite the loss, two players shined for the Bucs. Sophomore Troy Talmadge scored a career high 26 points to lead the offense. Talmadge also pulled down 12

Lady Bucs drop close contest to Montclair

A difficult season came to an end last Tuesday as the Lady Buc basketball team dropped a 42-35 decision to Montclair. The loss wrapped up an 0-20 season for Belleville.

Next week, we'll wrap up the season for coach Karen Fuccello and company.

The game with Montclair was a typical game for the Lady Bucs. Belleville fell behind early, then attempted to come back against a quicker and more experienced team.

"We came out sluggish and fell behind by ten points in the second quarter," Fuccello said. "We made a comeback in the second half. The kids played very well in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough."

Montclair jumped out to a 15-8 first quarter lead and extended that margin to 24-12 at halftime. Belleville cut the lead to 32-21 after three quarters and outscored Montclair, 14-10 in the final frame to cut the final deficit to seven points.

Once again, Fuccello got a chance to play a number of young players who have gained valuable varsity experience this season.

"We're going to be very young again next season," Fuccello said. "But next year, we'll have young players coming back with varsity experience. It should make a big difference."

Danielle DeWork and Amalia Fabiano led Belleville in the Montclair game with eight points each. Mia Hanos finished with seven, Thelma Espiritu had four, Jennifer Bridge scored three, Melanie VanDam and Mary Campbell scored two points each and Colleen Mannion had one.

NOTES: Montclair Immaculate won the Essex County girls' basketball championship last Saturday, beating University Heights 34-20. The championship game was Immaculate's first ECT title. It was Immaculate's perennial visitor to the Final Four of the county tourney but came up short in previous years. Immaculate is the tenth different team to win the county title.

The ECT for girls' basketball just completed its 16th season. Other winners from 1975 to the present include Glen Ridge, Nutley (twice), Columbia (twice), East Orange, Clifford Scott, Shabazz (four times), Irvington, University and Bloomfield (twice).

BUC NOTES: St. Benedict's head coach Mike DiPiano won the Coach of the Year Award for District 7, as voted by his peers. The coach and his team are to be commended on a season that saw them win a team record 18 victories and the state championship in Parsippany B. The tournament was held at St. Benedict's in Newark and was run smoothly and efficiently. The entire staff did a great job from top to bottom. Except for Pete Kowalski, the officiating at the event could be graded no better than a "D."

There were far too many controversial calls, too many conferences, and too many times when an official was out of position. Currently four members of the present BHS squad are settled in the top 20 for all-time varsity wins. They are Ralph Perma, 66 wins, tied for 9th place; Dan Hywel, 61 wins, 11th place; Ken Henry, 52 wins, 14th place; and Junior Nordune, 51 wins, 15th place. Ex-Belleville wrestler and one-time district champ, Phil Zamlot of Essex Catholic was voted District 7 Assistant Coach of the Year. Region 2 action will begin tonight at Kearny High School with second and third place finishers competing for berths in the quarter final round. See you next week!

Budget: Twice bitten

February 25, 1964. The $3,670,269.50 proposed school budget was rejected for the second time by Belleville voters, this time by a 3-2 margin. The proposed budget was originally rejected on Feb. 9 by a slimmer margin.

The current expenses were defeated, 1,613-1,136, and the capital outlay was defeated, 1,664-1,023.

After the defeat, the budget was set to go to the town council for its action before being sent to the county board of taxation. Mayor Nuncio R. Pico said, "We must cut the budget. It is a clear mandate of the people."

Jaycees donate $100

The Belleville Jaycees donated $100 to the Belleville-Nutley Boat-house Fund. The money was part of the local chapter's share in the annual game between the National Football League's New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles.

The game was sponsored by the state Jaycees, and Belleville's share came as a result of 11 of the local members working at the game taking tickets, selling hot dogs and sodas, and directing parking.

The Jaycees had a membership of 30, and undertook sizable community developmental program, such as the Cherry Blossom Pageant and the curb-number painting project.

Teen of the Week

Senior Susan Beneziano was named Teen of the Week by the editors of the "Belleville High School News" section of The Belleville Times-News.

Upon graduating elementary school, she was given the American Legion Award for Citizenship and Scholarship. Beneziano was also a member of the following groups: Future Teachers of America, Drill Team, Leaders' Club, Booster Club, Girls' Intramurals, Student Council, and Class Senate. She hoped to be a French teacher upon completing her education.

Ask a lawyer series

The "Ask a Lawyer" series returns to the Belleville Public Library and Information Center with a lecture on "Buying a Home," March 5 at 7:30 p.m. An attorney will take you from contract to closing with a discussion of the entire process of buying a home. Call the library at 450-3434, the Circulation Desk, to register for the series.

Future lectures will include "Going Into Business" on March 12, "Family Law" on March 19, "Trusts and Estates" on March 26. All lectures will start at 7:30 p.m. The series is a public service of the Essex County Bar Foundation and features volunteer speakers from the Essex County Bar Association.

Belleville history lecture

"The Influence of Two Patron Families—Schuyler and Kingsland on the History of Belleville" was a lecture delivered by Bob MacFadyen, Belleville historian at the Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center's February program. The library hopes to make the history of Belleville an annual lecture in February for American History month, also continuing the tradition established by the 150th Anniversary Committee.

A past president of the Belleville Historical Society, MacFadyen's interest in Belleville history was sparked as a teenager. A Bergen County radio dispatcher, he is also currently president of the North Arlington Historical Society. In addition, he is writing a book on the history of Belleville, which he hopes to be ready for next summer, with the assistance of Joseph Hatch, the great grandson of Josiah Hornblower, and with Andrew Demgard, whose family has been in Belleville for 150 years.

Videos for Black History Month

As a result of a grant from the Martin Luther King Jr. Commemorative Commission, the Belleville Public Library and Information Center has added many educational and dramatic videotapes to its collection. "The Negro in Sports, Entertainment, and Industry," 70 minutes in length consists of three programs, made in the 1940s, highlighting the accomplishments of African Americans. "Don't Leave Out the Cowboys" explains that one out of every four cowboys was African American. Learn about the facts of the Old West from 1864-1880.

"Black Wings" is the experience of the struggles of the African Americans aviators and others, who have found a place for themselves in aviation history, while "Men of Bronze" is the story of the 368th central Postal Directory, heroes of WWII, who spent more days in the front-line trenches than any other infantry. "The Negro Soldier" is a landmark film, examining the role of African Americans in combat from the revolution to World War II. Dramatic videos that have been added include "In the Heat of the Night," "For the Love of Ivy," "A Raisin in the Sun," "Home of the Brave," and "Half Slave, Half Free." To take out these videos, you should have a Belleville Public Library card.

New books on the occult

New books on the occult that have been added to the new books collection of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center include "Dreams, Evolution, and Value Fulfillment," by Jane Roberts, "Haunted Houses USA," by Dolores Riccio, and "How To Read Palms," by Maria Costaville. If the book is not in, the circulation staff, Barbara Dombrowski and Carrie Stahl, will be happy to put the books on reserve for you.

BOOKMARKS

By Adrea Cohen

Books on American Revolution

If you are interested in reviewing the beginnings of our country for American History Month, why not try some of these older and tested titles on the American Revolution. They include "The Birth of the United States," by Jim Bishop, "The Good Americans: the Loyalists in the American Revolution," by Wallace Brown, "Lives of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence," by Reverend Charles Goodrich, "Men in Rebellion," by James Kirby Martin, and "Voices of 1776," by Richard Wheeler in the 973 section of the Reference Department. "A New Age Now Begins," by Page Smith, can be found in the new books section of the library.

Picture Book Contest

Coordinators of the National Library Week Picture Book Contest, 1990, Cindy LaRue and Joan Taub, assisted by Betty Oakley and Mary Spina, have announced that the contest is open to kindergarten through grade 6, middle school students, senior high school, and adults. First, second and honorable mention winners will be awarded book prizes and certificates from the library. First, second, and honorable mention awards will be awarded also for the best illustrated books.

The book that one writes must be fiction or non-fiction, illustrated with original drawings and/or with pictures from magazines, photographs.

Specific information on the rules for the contest are available at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center.

Parenting seminar

Parenting skills are to be reviewed at a series of parenting seminars to be held at the Shafter Branch Library March 7, 14, 21, and April 4, from 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. by the Community Mental Health Services of Belleville, Bloomfield, and Nutley, which have cooperated throughout the years on several projects.

The seminar has been organized by Judith Yirmark of the Belleville Community Mental Health Services. She will be assisted by Gail Derivan, MSW, who works at the Therapeutic School, and Meryl Merskovits, a Rutgers University Social Work Intern at the Community Mental Health Services and a volunteer in the child advocacy program, known as CASA, and Judy Sobel, a staff clinician at the Community Mental Health Services. According to Frederick Lewis, branch librarian, parents will have an opportunity to pose questions and to learn techniques in child management.

Please contact the Shafter Branch Library at 450-3438, 1 to 5 p.m. weekdays to preregister. The Shafter Branch Library is located at 30 Magnolia Street.

Feature film series

The feature film series at the library continues on March 1 with the opera "Il Trovatore," 144 minutes in length. Join us in the Arena of Verona for one of Verdi's greatest masterpieces. On March 7 the library will show a feature film, with discussion, beginning at 1 p.m. On March 15 the public performance video, "35 Years of Entertainment, 1942-1966," will be shown. Return with us to the fiftieth anniversary and enjoy a nostalgic hour with performances like Danny Kaye, Abbott and Costello, and Spike Jones entertaining GI's.

Jewish heritage

The book "The Jews in America" has recently been donated to the Belleville Public Library and Information Center in honor of Dr. Robert Ramer. For his service, Dr. Ramer, president of the Clifton Jewish Center, 1988-1990, was the honoree at a dinner dance in his honor on Feb. 3.

Engaged in the practice of dentistry in Nutley since 1964, he resides there with his wife Alice and four children Sara, Michael, Jeffrey, and Andrew.

Dr. Ramer has been a frequent lecturer on dentistry at the library.

Retirement seminar

A retirement seminar, sponsored by Dean Witter Reynolds, will take place March 20, at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center at 7:30 p.m. At this seminar, learn how to estimate your future needs, how to save enough to meet them and how to plan for a fail-safe retirement at a free seminar.

Reserve your place at the no-obligation educational opportunity for people who wish to provide for a comfortable retirement by calling the library at 450-3434 to register.

Frank DeJel, humanities scholar from Belleville, and assistant library director Adrea Cohen, hold up books that will be studied in the literature and discussion series at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center entitled "The Pursuit of Happiness: America's Nobles in Literature: Weaving a Universal Thread," which will commence on March 14 at the library. The series is being funded by a matching grant from the New Jersey Committee for the Humanities. If you wish to register for the series, call the library at 450-3434 and ask to speak to Carrie Stahl or Barbara Dombrowski, circulation staff.

Environmental lecture

Andrea Colucci, marketing representative for Shackle Corporation, recently addressed the Belleville Public Library's Preschool Mothers on the topic of the environment. Colucci mentioned Earth Day on April 22, which gives the earth a chance to reclaim the purity of the air, water, and living environment. She mentioned that the sponsors of "Earth Day" are asking for a "decade of commitment" in changes in environmental policy. She discussed areas of pollution, who has been responsible for the pollution, and discussed how all the earth's waters are recycled by humans and mother nature.

Over $2 Million in 1989 sales achieved by Vincent Nuzzo

Vincent Nuzzo of Costantine Realty, Nutley, has completed the 1989 year with over $2 million in closed transactions.

Nuzzo stated that 1989 was the fourth consecutive year he has exceeded $2 million in closed listings and sales. He attributes his success to the experience he has gained throughout most of the 1980's and the extensive advertising programs offered by Costantine Realty.

Broker of Record, Louis Costantine stated that Vince is already on his way to another successful year with $670,000 in property placed under contract since the first of the year, and a quarter of a million dollars in closed sales this year. This shows that a little effort and hard work spell success, regardless of market conditions or market conditions.

Costantine Realty is a member of the Bloomfield, Belleville, Nutley and Glen Ridge Board of Realtors and the Meadowlands Board of Realtors. The firm is located on 289 Franklin Ave., Nutley. Whether buying or selling, give Vince a call at 667-7070.

'Yes You Can' campaign launched by local Realtors

The Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors joins the New Jersey Association of Realtors in their "Yes You Can" campaign.

The "Yes You Can" campaign is primarily aimed at first time buyers and seeks to reach them by promoting lower-priced homes throughout the state, the many forms of financing available and the inherent investment value home ownership provides.

The campaign stressed the facts: homeownership has always been and continues to be a sound financial investment. It offers decided tax advantages, and most of all, that this is a particularly good time to buy.

The "Yes You Can" campaign will include a toll-free information number, radio, television and print advertising, billboards and ongoing public relations and promotional events throughout the year.

The campaign will be launched in March when the Governor proclaims March as "Yes You Can Buy A Home In New Jersey Month."
