

OUR OPINION

Bell Tel's Caller ID

In recent weeks, New Jersey's newspaper and television covering has focused on an innovative service offering introduced by New Jersey Bell — Caller ID.

Caller ID allows customers to see the telephone number of the person calling before answering the phone. Naturally, this enhances the customer's ability to manage calls, and for this reason alone Caller ID is useful. But the social benefits of Caller ID transcend convenience. The service's contribution to emergency service providers, law enforcement agencies and fire departments is well documented and has already resulted in the most tangible and substantial of benefits — it has saved lives. Its contribution to the quality of life generally — though less dramatic — is equally impressive. New Jersey Bell estimates that more than 360,000 customers receive obscene calls each year. Caller ID service allows the victims of such calls to take immediate and decisive action either by calling back or by reporting the offending telephone number to the appropriate authorities. Importantly, Caller ID has a profound deterrent effect on obscene and harassing phone calls whether a customer has the service or not.

New Jersey Bell was contacted by an 80-year-old Newark woman who had been besieged by harassing phone calls. The calls virtually disappeared with the deployment of the service in her area even though she did not subscribe to Caller ID.

There is a threat, however, to the service and the substantial benefits it provides. Opponents feel that callers should be allowed to "block" the passage of their telephone number — that is, they want the right to make anonymous phone calls.

We disagree and feel strongly that Caller ID should not be restricted. With blocking, the service no longer deals effectively with obscene and harassing calls, or malicious calls such as bomb threats and false alarms. In those rare cases where a customer has a need to prevent identification when initiating calls new or existing technology should be developed and applied in a manner that doesn't cripple Caller ID. The service is much too valuable and the benefits much too significant to do anything else.

Thanks Meg

Ordinarily this would be a good time, in fact a jolly good time, to join with the commissioners, freeholders, businessmen and assorted other citizens in lamenting the latest news on the misbegotten Passaic River Dual-inlet Tunnel; namely, that President George Bush stands, as preppy talk would have it, squarely behind the proposition.

Ah, but we've been this route before; Senator Bradley answers a question, a colonel in the Army Corps of Engineers releases a study, a campaign begins, a town governing body adopts a resolution, and at once, the proximity of that $1 billion, 13.5 mile underground pipe looms ever larger, menacing us again in the Lower Passaic Valley.

Or so we thought. Comes now Meg Greenfield of Newsweek in the March 5 edition with a theory of governance that, however playfully and charmingly lofted in that "dear-me what have we here" style, provides us with a clear view of the Washington D.C. way of doing things, and if she be correct, the danger the "projected tunnel" presents is not to the township, nor the Lower Valley, but rather to our psychs. It tasks us as Moby Dick did Ahab.

And it's timely too. Oh, it is not that she comes and says directly the monster will not be built; indeed, she probably knows nothing about it, though it should be said, the whole sorry enterprise beginning back in 1936 or so, certainly supports her theory.

And her theory, succinctly put, is this — in Washington, "...basically nothing is ever supposed to happen, in the sense of actually getting done. Things are meant to be worked on ... and on and on and on ... but never, God forbid, completed."

For Meg Greenfield and those others spinning endlessly along the Beltway between the chef's salad at noon and the pick-up at the Chinese Restaurant at 6 p.m. all this illustrates that Washington — and the Washington timetable — is fast disappearing — and its authority fast evaporating.

And yes we surely would have agreed, but Ms. Greenfield's analysis demonstrates that while all this may be lamented in the hub at Washington — if we can call it that — here in the provinces, it is something to be applauded.

For in fact, we here, for the last 54 years or so have been in a constant fret that that fool tunnel will someday be built; that there will come a time when the final study is issued, a report duly made, bonds passed, funds raised, votes taken and yes, a spade put to earth.

Not likely if Mrs. Greenfield is correct.

Calvin Coolidge may have been wrong when he said, in effect, that the business of government is business.

And it may well be that Meg Greenfield is correct when she says, "the businesses of a large part of Washington and of our politics generally is busy-ness."

When it comes to that tunnel, we can only hope she's right.

Still, it's out there beneath the sea lurking like the Great Whale preparing to sound, tasking us. Will it still be there 50 years from now?

YOUR OPINION

Prepare for 21st century

To the editor:

I have submitted my petitions on March 5 and I now announce my candidacy for Councilperson for the Third Ward. I am a working mother and as such I will be looking at the current needs of our community from a woman's viewpoint, although not without experience. I have been County Committee Woman for ten years, District Leader and State Committee Woman for four years for Essex County.

Repairing roads, sidewalks and buildings is as important to me as to any citizen. However, as a woman, I feel that I could be especially sensitive to the needs of other women, such as:

Providing better social, recreational and sports programs and activities to make the quality of life better for our children.

Providing child care for the children of working mothers whose children get out of school at 3 p.m. and the mother doesn't come home from work until 5 or 6 p.m.

Looking at the problems of our children today from the viewpoint of a mother of four children who are still attending the Belleville School System, (one in High School, one in Middle School and two in School No. 3).

Family involvement with the current drug problem is most important. I would like to set up a program to look at the problem of substance abusers from the viewpoint of the entire family.

Caring for the problems of women who have reached older age, especially those women who are widowed and without families.

Cooperation with the other council members to pick the best possible Town Manager and then cooperating and working hard for all of us to reap the lasting benefits of this new and better form of government; a government whose main goal is preparing this town for the 21st century.

Reflects on BOE service

To the editor:

I have been very proud to represent you for the past three years on the Belleville Board of Education.

In retrospect, permit me to reflect a moment back to a unique situation three years ago. I had immediately realized a void in communication that existed between the Board of Education and some legislative members. With that concern, I contacted our Assemblyman and voiced my concern. We expedited arrangements to meet to discuss our plight and the need for better communication. The results were most rewarding. With the assistance of our Assemblyman, Belleville received $228,000. For this, I am proud.

It is most certainly thorough and efficient to pursue all efforts in continuing effective dialogue with our legislators. I have upon number of occasions traveled to Trenton in behalf of our schools and children. Most importantly at this time is "full funding," a very important issue in which I am very much involved. Being visible has afforded me the distinct opportunity to voice my resentment in not having "full funding" of education. This has resulted in being appointed to the position of Legislative Chairperson. It is familiarity with the issues at the state level that dramatically increases the Belleville Board of Education's effectiveness in improved services to the community and children.

What does all this mean to you, the taxpayers? I am called upon by the New Jersey School Boards Association at the local level to lobby legislators on important issues affecting labor relations, education reform initiatives, student health and safety, school district finance and operation, and transportation. Board members can help make changes that will benefit the educational system.

Town deserves respect

To the editor:

I have submitted my petition to the Belleville Town Clerk and I am running for one of the three Councilman-at-Large positions in the upcoming May 8 Municipal Election.

I feel that the most important job facing the new council is picking the right man for the job of City Manager. If we get the best man possible, together with an intelligent, cooperative council, we will be able to make the change of Government permanent this time.

Taxes must be stabilized. The municipal government is responsible for 38 percent of the total property tax. I will work hard to insure that this 38 percent will be maintained despite inflation.

We must consider using the excellent financial rating of the town to help with current building and development of the area.

We must provide senior citizen housing for the Seniors of Belleville.

We must make every effort to increase rates both through helping private investors to come and convert some of our old vacant buildings into efficient modern plants and the sale of town property that is not being used now for its full potential.

Most of all, I will do everything in my power to reestablish respect — respect of the citizens towards the Town employees, the respect of the employees towards each other and most of all, I will do everything in my power to earn the respect of both the citizens and the Town employees.

— Frank J. Noonan

'The voice of the people'

To the editor:

Mr. Buccino, once again your reporting of the township meeting proceedings puts a very necessary spotlight on issues that have twice been moved to irregular dates and times of discussion (Feb. 7 & Feb. 20) to obviously limit any widespread public awareness.

We first brought to public attention back in December 1989 the fact that the Public Safety building project had somehow grown from 24,000 sq. ft. to 32,000 sq. ft. and that the 5 million dollar price tag had grown close to 6 million. We reiterated these facts once again in your February 1st edition.

Now, unless Commissioner Frantantoni accuses you of misquoting him or making mistakes as he has accused other reporters, we find the following facts according to Frantantoni:

• Before being elected in May of 1987 Frantantoni, "the voice of the people", was absolutely against spending 5 million for the Public Safety building project.

• After being elected he surprised his CCB fellows by saying he would vote for the project if it stayed below 5 million, and not a dollar more.

• Two and a half years later on Dec. 28, 1989 he says the building will cost $5,395,000.

• He attempts to confuse people by separating the $165,000 cost of the connecting link (between the existing Town Hall and the proposed Public Safety building) as though it was not a part of the building project cost.

• He identifies the cost of Town Hall renovations at $200,000.

Your article further verifies that the building has in fact grown from 24,000 to 32,000 sq. ft.

The problem I'm having is getting the dollar figures to agree with what Frantantoni is saying.

After over three years of vacillating, Frantantoni has gone from justifying a $1,666,000 building of 24,000 sq. ft. to a $6 million dollar 32,000 sq. ft. building. He pretends to question other agenda expenditures and bills while ignoring others as he toys with millions of our tax dollars at irregular "special" meeting dates.

• There is $4.2 million left from the $5 million bond issue, after spending $800,000 on unused architectural and engineering work product.

• Adding to that the $2 million additional bond issue approved on the special February 20th meeting brings us to a total of $6.2 million.

• Subtract the $200,000 identified as the cost of Town Hall renovations and you're left with $6 million.

Whether you identify that $6 million as $5,395,000 for the building, $165,000 for the connecting link, and $440,000 for equipment, the total expense to the taxpayers is $6 million.

Where has the credibility of this "voice of the people" gone? Is it any wonder why we call him the "six million dollar debt man"?

Gabriel A. Nazzola
P.S. I do personally support the need for newer, larger, modern stock of the art police facilities. But, the need should fit the pocketbook of all the taxpayers of Belleville.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We spoke with Commissioner Frantantoni on your points. In 1987, Frantantoni was against the scope of the project in that form. The $5 million budget did not address the renovations to town hall. Now, the proposed project with its estimated cost of $5.3 million includes the town hall renovations, the connecting link. Also included in the $5.3 million cost estimate are the professional and engineering fees and the cost of a construction management company, according to Frantantoni. The original $10 million bond was cut to $5 million. From that $5 million bond was paid $800,000 in architect's fees inherited from previous plans. The currently proposed $2 million bond is needed to cover the shortfall between the $5 million bond and the expected $5.3 million cost. If all of the additional bond money is not needed for the project, the commissioner explained, the bonds will not be issued.

Congratulates wrestlers

To the editor:

At this time I believe our wrestling champs of Belleville, the coaches, the faculty should be congratulated for their performance in winning the championship in District 7.

For many years the sports system in Belleville has been one of the finest in the state but without recognition from outside newspapers.

Every once in a while you hear about our youths — one or two — going over the line and getting into trouble — drugs, alcohol or an accident of some kind. But, for a township of only a little less than three square miles, with new housing, many new residents and children being born and going to our schools, it's still a good town to raise a family and our kids are good kids.

Joseph Fornarotto

Candidate's statement

To the editor:

The following is a statement from Kevin G. Kennedy, candidate for 3rd ward councilman.

Decisions are what elections are all about. I ask you with confidence to listen to all candidates, for I feel strongly that you will join my growing and energetic campaign. For our district can not be taken for granted because you the people have the power to change our district and the township. It is a decision that each citizen must make for themselves.

In the upcoming weeks I will be having a series of my platforms outlined for you. I hope you have already heard of my platform to appoint a sound, experienced township manager, to work with my fellow council members and to judge what problems are the priorities within our township.

It's common practice that the ward councilman will say that their problems are bigger than their colleagues' problems. That's why I feel I am the person that will stand up for all the citizens in our ward. With my experience listening to people at the Planning Board, and making negotiations between the applicants and neighbors to keep the peace and let progress come to Belleville.

As a member of the Planning Board since 1987, I have had to make some tough decisions because I believe in solving problems before they become costly mistakes. My record on the Planning Board can speak for itself.

I want you to vote for me with confidence.

Kevin G. Kennedy
3rd Ward Council Candidate

Until recently the volunteers at the facility had no appointed leader and direction was given by a multitude of people.

This year the center received a grant from the TRW Corp. which provided funding for the center to hire one individual to manage the corps of volunteers. Bertha Jones has been entrusted with this responsibility.

As the Volunteer Manager, Jones will be responsible for coordinating and organizing the activities of the volunteers.

"Jones is enthusiastic and has uncovered new roles for volunteers and untapped some sources for potential volunteers," Burgess said.

As always volunteers are still needed and welcome at the center. Burgess is currently looking for a volunteer with electronic and mechanical abilities who might be able to adapt toys with special devices to enable the clients at the center to be able to use them.

As Burgess said, "we always have a place for a volunteer, as we will always have a place for a new client."

Adults only

Because "Our Children Are Targets" only adults will be allowed to attend a special open meeting of the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education Wednesday, March 28, 7:30 p.m. in Belleville High School Library. The meeting, which is open to all township residents, will feature guest speakers pharmacist Bill Lynch and Sgt. Joseph Rotunda of the Belleville police narcotics squad.

Pharmacist Lynch will discuss the therapeutic use of drugs and the illegal use of legal medicines. Sgt. Rotunda will address the laws of illegal sales and distribution.

Frank Graves - the last of the populists

By Bill Gruver

Frank Graves died last week. He was 66 years old and was Paterson's Mayor and State Senator for the 35th District. Those are facts about the passing of public man unlike any other.

Graves made a lifetime profession of politics. He had no other interest, no hobbies and no interest in sports. His only interest was politics and government. He was effective and almost unbeatable. But he was no saint. Graves was a tough guy who treated many with a sharp comment or retort. Some thought of him as rude and ill-mannered. But he could charm even his enemies when he wanted to. He was most proud of his closeness to those he represented. A "hands-on" public official, Graves answered all of his own phone calls. He never had a press secretary and never wrote down what he was going to say in any speech. He acted impulsively on his own instincts which, most often, were good. When he made mistakes, he would drop a failed issue and go on to something else.

But he was a very complex man. Although thousands said they were friends of Graves, he had only a handful of close confidantes. He kept a wall around himself so only a few could get close to him. He was best known as New Jersey's law and order public official. He was the author of the "Graves Act," which mandated a minimum three year prison sentence for anyone convicted of a crime who used a gun in the process. He also authored the state's tough anti-drug legislation and publicly said he favored the death penalty for drug traffickers.

Graves would often be seen driving around Paterson's streets at night checking any possible crime scene or even traffic mishaps. He used his portable police radio day and night to check on police activity. Graves had been mayor of Paterson twice in his lifetime. The first time was from 1961-66 as one of the state's youngest mayors. He gained notice in that period for unleashing dogs on rioters and strong opposition from minority groups. But when he became mayor the second time around in 1982, it was a different Frank Graves. He encouraged more black and Hispanic participation in politics and awarded top city posts to those from the ethnic communities.

He was often mentioned as a possible candidate for Governor. To these suggestions, Graves remarked, "I am a local yokel. This is where I want to be and will stay here (Paterson)."

Graves made a heavy imprint on Northern New Jersey politics even to the point of dominating the workings of the Passaic Valley Water Commission through his appointed commissioners. Also, as a former Passaic County Freeholder, he would attend County Board meetings and debate with members about programs. He thought might harm his city or his Senatorial District. He was happiest when in political battle. He hated campaigns where there was no real opposition, such as the last time when he won re-election as State Senator. He became so bored, that he rarely attended campaign events since he had no opponent.

A loner by choice, Frank Graves was not a part of any coalition. He always acted alone, except to team up with some fellow senators on a favorite bill. Although a lifelong Democrat, Frank Graves would cross-party lines when it suited him. Year after year he supported his old friend, Passaic County Sheriff Ed Englehardt and County Freeholder Walter Porter, both Republicans. That angered many of his fellow Democrats, but none said so in public.

A World War II veteran, Graves was wounded twice during the Allied invasion of Sicily and Italy and received two Purple Hearts. He married the nurse who cared for him during his convalescence. He had three daughters, but he rarely appeared in public with his family. Graves was in fact married to politics.

He was a fierce defender of urban centers. Paterson was called America's first industrial city, founded by Alexander Hamilton. And Frank Graves never admitted that Paterson had fallen on hard times, or that it's once proud past had faded.

He was often brutal with his subordinates, like Lyndon Johnson, a political chieftain who held all power close to the vest, like Huey Long or a paternal figure for his city, like Fiorello LaGuardia. He was the last of his breed. And he will be long remembered because he has no emulators.

A man with many flaws, Frank Graves was a fascinating political figure. But his type has long since passed from the scene. That is the way Frank would want it.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Gerald Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

Whose life jacket are you wearing?

"We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren" (1 John 3:16).

On February 3, 1943, at 1:15 a.m., the troop transport "Dorchester" was torpedoed and sunk in the cold North Atlantic waters off Greenland. The ship was only 90 miles from its destination, but within twenty-seven minutes 678 of the 904 men on board were "lost in the iceberg waters of the North Atlantic." Among these 678 men were four chaplains — John Washington, Alton Gooch, George Fox, and Clark Poling — a priest, a rabbi, and two ministers.

These four chaplains went down with their ship because they had given their life jackets to soldiers who had none. With utter disregard for self, the chaplains stood hand in hand, praying to the God they served for the safety of those men who were leaving the sinking ship. To recognize this great feat, the Civilian Club International has set aside a week each year to pay honor to all ministers of all faiths. The week is referred to as the International Clergy Appreciation Week.

Great people of courage are few and far between. Selfishness is usually the order of the day. We live in the "me" time of life. Yet, God teaches us that the only way people will know that we are Christians is by the unselfish attitude we have towards each other. Christians are to love each other so much that exchange of life would not be uncommon among us. We are even told to "love them who persecute us" and "to pray for those who spitefully use you." We are told to turn the other cheek and not seek revenge.

These are tough lessons. They require that we give up our life jacket. It would be easy to keep it and feel safe. "I've got mine, you get yours." "We have to take care of No. 1, if we don't who will?" Selfishness has destroyed many a fine person.

Remember, Christ gave His life jacket to us and now He requires us to be willing to give it to someone else. This is the ultimate expression of love. Whose life jacket are you wearing?

Vietnamese Pot Belly Pig, not a recipe, a pet!

By Steve Baldin

Ugly, unsightly, repulsive, horrid, homely, revolting.

Cute, charming, pretty, delightful, pleasing, beautiful.

Prince Charming. The ugly duckling.

These adjectives and phrases usually suggest some characteristic that is either appealing or not, to the beholder's eye.

This listing can also be used to describe feelings attached to the current interest that started in California and swept east across the nation at an epidemic pace.

This is the newfound interest in Vietnamese Pot Belly Pigs being harbored in homes as pets.

In keeping with the times the Nutley Pet Shop in Belleville has begun supplying the "pet of the '90s" to area residents.

"On Mar. 2, we took ownership of a 12 week old Pot Belly Pig, Wilber, as we call him and by Mar. 6, he was sold. A guy named Bobby Drum, from Lyndhurst purchased him for $2,200," Mark Feola, Manager of the Nutley Pet Shop, said.

Since Wilber arrived and left so quickly, the Main Street pet facility took ownership of the brothers, Arnold and Porky, two 8 week old Pot Belly Pigs.

At all of their eight weeks Arnold and Porky weigh about 12 pounds each, stand on four inch legs that barely keep their eight inch circumference from scraping the ground and are scarcely covered with a coarse black coat that shows much of their pink skin from whence the coat has sprouted.

The Pot Belly Pigs, which live about 25 to 30 years will reach a maximum weight of 40 pounds or about the same as a medium sized canine.

"What makes these animals so unique is that they can be trained much as a dog or cat can," said Tom DePiro, who is the son of the store's owner.

"They can be trained to use a litter box like a cat, meaning that they don't have to be walked and that makes them the ideal pet for an apartment," he added.

Indigenous to Viet Nam and the warm climate veterinarians suggest that they not be taken out for long periods of time or at all during the cold months. Though they have the intelligence to be litter trained they can be placed on a leash and walked along the streets just as a dog is walked.

"They are vegetarians as opposed to dogs being carnivorous," Feola explained. "These little porkers can survive on fruits, vegetables and pig pellets, which are only a vitamin supplement. Right now these two brothers because of their young age also need mother's milk."

At $2,200 per, the Pot Bellies do not outprice some of the other residents presently calling the Nutley Pet Shop home.

"For example, we have a green wing scarlet macaw which lives for approximately 80 years, selling for $2,300 and some of our other animals are also in the $2,000 range," DePiro said.

Feola added, "I've seen them being sold for $3,000 and for a female anywhere between $4,500 to $6,000."

Fad, craze or here to stay, Vietnamese Pot Belly Pigs are one of the current attractions of the nation. As DePiro explained, any type of animal purchase will be dependent upon what one is looking for in a pet.

Book discussion series

"The Pursuit of Happiness: American's Novels in Literature: Weaving a Universal Thread," ten lectures and discussions by scholars in 1990, will begin on March 14 with a lecture on "Babbitt," by Sinclair Lewis, followed by a discussion, conducted by Humanities' scholar Frank De Lisi. On March 28 at 1 p.m. "The Good Earth," by Pearl Buck will be discussed by lecturer Dr. Jane Brown, professor of English, Trenton State College. There are ten lectures in the spring and the fall in the series. Call the library at 450-3434 to register. Pick up the brochure on the series on your next library visit.

National Library Week Art Show

Applications are available for The National Library Week Indoor Art Show and Photography Show Competition. Sculpture is also included. Applications are available at the Circulation Desk of the library. If you are not from Belleville, you may register by calling 450-3434, but must fill out a form the day of the show. General Art Show Chair is James J. Cozzarelli Jr., Honorary Chair is Mrs. Richard Shafter, secretary of the library board of trustees. If you have any questions, please call Adrea Cohen, art show coordinator, at 450-3434.

Candidates' Forum

Mario Drozd

Mario Drozd of 95 Bell Street, has filed his petitions for Councilman-at-large on Feb. 13. His campaign is being coordinated by Ann Marie Perna, his general campaign manager, and Sam Papa.

Drozd is married to the former Kathleen Sibilla and they are the parents of two children.

Mario effectively directed the Belleville change of government movement last year, which ultimately was adopted by the citizens of Belleville in an election held last May. At that time, he served as chairman of the Change of Government Committee, which later on became known as the "Citizens for a Better Belleville, Inc." of which he was the group's president. He recently stepped down as president, when he decided to seek the office of a Councilman-at-large.

Drozd believes the newly adopted Council-Manager form of government will offer the township a better system of checks and balances. The time has come for a change in Belleville, and the people's vote demands a radical change for a new direction. The people are demanding a move forward for Belleville in a progressive manner. They are strongly urging more aid from Federal, State and County government for the enhancement of the township. Specifically funds to redevelop

Washington Avenue and proper senior citizen housing, similar to our neighboring town of Nutley. He believes that the citizens of this township deserve much better service for their hard-earned tax dollars.

Mario is involved in the following committees: Belleville High School Vocational Advisory Council (vice president); Belleville High School Vocational Scholarship Fund (chairperson); Belleville-Nutley Columbus Day Parade Committee (Belleville chairperson for 1990); Belleville Kiwanis Club, organizer of the Child LD Program, member of School No. 5 PTA, and the High School Home and School Assn., also member of the Belleville-Nutley-Bloomfield-Glen Ridge and West Essex Board of Realtors.

It is time for a new political image that is concerned with the future generation. Yes, the time for a positive change forward has come.

"I Pledge to Represent the Citizens of Belleville with Performance Not Promises, Hard Work, Not Excuses," according to Drozd.

In weeks to come, more issues will be discussed.

Kevin Kennedy

Kevin Kennedy is a candidate for Third Ward councilman on Tuesday, May 8.

Kennedy firmly believes that local government should represent the interests of the townspeople and not a select few.

Kennedy said he wants to keep the residential character of Belleville, while trying to seek cost efficient ways to give services to the town.

He wants to foster a beneficial and positive relationship for townspeople and local merchants to show people what we have here, right in Belleville. He wants to develop projects to upgrade the appearance of the town.

Kennedy said we must improve the programs for our most important resource, our senior citizens. We must also try to have more cooperation between landlords and tenants.

His roots are in Belleville and he has been active in town in many ways. He is a part-owner of an indoor car lot on Academy Street. Kennedy has worked in state government since 1985. He is a member of the Belleville Planning Board, Special Education Committee, aide to an Assemblyman, and many volunteer organizations.

Kennedy said he is committed to bring Belleville back to where it should be. He will be a positive and independent voice on the township council.

Richard Yanuzzi

Second Ward Council candidate Richard Yanuzzi stated this week that he is supportive of efforts to revitalize Washington Avenue and to strengthen the business community.

"There are many grants available from the federal, state, and county governments to improve businesses," said Yanuzzi. "As councilman, I would encourage our merchants to take advantage of these programs to upgrade their facades."

The Board of Education Trustee explained that he would also host programs in an effort to inform local businessmen of the opportunities that are available to them.

"I would sponsor a seminar for the Washington Avenue merchants and work in conjunction with the Belleville Chamber of Commerce to establish a small business advisory council in order to explain the various grants, such as Essex County Development community block grants," Yanuzzi continued. "The new council government must make a commitment to revitalize the shopping district. Washington Avenue is the heart of our township and we must take strides to revitalize it."

An Orechio Publication

"The present commission government is taking steps to provide additional parking, and we should continue these efforts. When new properties become available, we must examine the feasibility of constructing additional parking lots. The state currently administers Washington Avenue as part of Route 7. Belleville should make an effort to obtain control of the road to make improvements, including narrowing the sidewalks, establishing angle parking, and planting trees. This beautification will only attract residents of our area to our business district and once again establish it as one of the premiere shopping centers in Essex County."

Richard Yanuzzi currently serves as a trustee on the Belleville Board of Education and as an aide to Assemblywoman Marion Crecco. He is seeking election to the Second Ward Council seat in the May 8 municipal election.

Thomas Spillane

While visiting at the homes of people in the Third Ward to get my petitions signed, one question is asked more frequently than any other.

The question is, "How are we going to pay for the Council Manager form of government?"

Since the Council will have to hire an experienced Manager, that is a very important question.

We must remember that the Council Manager form of government is very different from the Commission form. In the Commission form, each of the Commissioners is a department head. In the Council Manager form, the Council performs much the same function for the Town that the Board of Education does for the school system. The Board of Education members receive no pay or benefits for the time and effort they expend on behalf of the school system.

We have many other boards and groups in Belleville which are staffed by volunteers. I am talking about groups such as the school related parent associations and advisory groups, the Community Mental Health Board of Directors, coaches for children's sports activities and many, many more. Like many people in Belleville, I have served on several volunteer committees and financial gain was never a goal of any that I served with over the years.

In my opinion, the Council will be performing the same type of activities as the rest of the volunteers and we should treat the Council members as volunteers.

The money that we save in this area would help attract a top notch Town Manager, who should be able to come up with many additional ways of saving the taxpayer's money. The Township must be run as a business with the bottom line being that performance of services accompany tax savings.

I feel that my past and present experience for a major corporation can help provide both savings and services to the people of the Third Ward.

Thursday, March 15, 1990

William P. Cook

Taxes are the price our citizens pay for services owed to them by the government that imposes those taxes. Taxation in our Township must be stabilized while simultaneously improving or at the very least maintaining current service levels.

Management consultants estimate that American industry has at least 30% waste in its operations. Due to the inherent bureaucracy imposed in a governmental organization, I would venture to guess that our Township approaches, and most likely exceeds that figure.

Waste should not be interpreted as merely excessive staffing, but can be found in every facet of business or government. Waste really takes the form of unnecessary procedures, inadequate equipment and facilities, poor morale, and most of all, people's time.

Under the new form of government, waste can be more readily identified and eliminated under one administrator, the Town Manager. Our township will hopefully be managed as a business, with the citizens as the customers. The Town Manager must be sufficiently qualified to make decisions and recommendations which benefit the township as a whole, and not be partial to individual departmental budgets or pressure groups. Most important, this attitude must be balanced with a desire to maintain and improve services. Everyone in the public sector should be accountable for their actions and this accountability starts with the newly elected Town Council and the Manager.

These expected results are not beyond the realm of possibility. In fact, most major corporations today have embraced some form of Continuous Improvement Program. I am fortunate in having had extensive training in the management tools required to make system evaluations and have observed results on a first hand basis.

By utilizing these pretested concepts, I am confident that we can curb the current rate of tax increases previously experienced, and still be responsive to the needs of our citizens.

Pre-school kids enjoy making a chair 'for real'

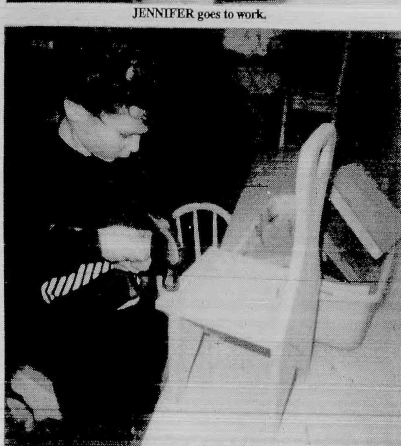

Michael Hudak, industrial arts teacher at Belleville Middle School, visited his young son's pre-school class and provided the children with an enriching experience.

Young Michael and his classmates had been doing carpentry work and had been introduced to the standard tools by their teachers at Community Nursery School's Full Day Program. They had practiced holding a hammer and driving nails into wood. But, when Mr. Hudak visited, each child was in for a carpenter's treat.

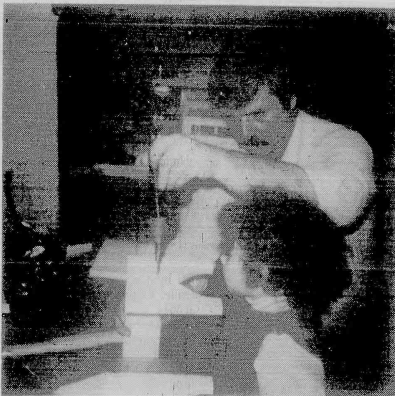

Using screwdriver, screws, hammer, nails, sandpaper and soft wood, each child, with the help of Mr. Hudak and the teachers, put together a small, personalized colonial chair. The children and parents were delighted with the finished product and the experience.

Community Nursery School of Nutley, Inc., is a non-profit organization which offers two half-day nursery school programs, one at St. Paul's Congregational Church in Nutley and another at Bethany Presbyterian Church in Bloomfield, and a full day pre-school program and a full day developmentally appropriate kindergarten program at Vincent United Methodist Church in Nutley.

JENNIFER goes to work.

STAVI is fascinated with the screwdriver.

MIKEY "saws" his new chair in half.

Mr. Meola, an alumnus of Nutley High School, is in maintenance at ITT, Nutley.

Forum on child care options set March 27 by Clara Maass

Do you need child care? Do you know what child care options are available to you? What are the differences and advantages/disadvantages of each?

To address this important issue, Clara Maass Community Services is sponsoring a forum, "Who's Minding the Baby? Options in Quality Daycare," 7 to 9 p.m. March 27 at the Community Services Center, 236 Hoover Ave., Bloomfield.

The forum will address concerns such as the range of options available, strengths and weaknesses of the type of care, regulations and licensing requirements, cost approximations and child care evaluation guidelines. The presentation will also attempt to clarify myths, misconceptions and concerns common to parents considering child care. A checklist will be provided to facilitate your determination of the best type of care for you and your child.

Literature will be distributed and light refreshments will be served.

Pre-registration and prepayment of a $7 fee is required by March 23. To register or for more information, call 680-8800 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. weekdays.

Wesley Methodist serving spaghetti dinner March 30

Wesley United Methodist Church, 225 Washington Ave., Belleville, will host a spaghetti dinner 6 p.m. March 30 at the church.

Pasta, meatballs, salad, rolls and homemade desserts will be served. Tickets are $6 for adults and $3 for children under 12. For reservations, call Carol Smith at 759-6908 or Arline Cronauer at 759-3766.

The dinner will be catered by Craig Decker. He has been chef at the Top Notch Restaurant and the Marlboro Inn, both in Montclair. A member of the church, he enjoys working with the high school age young people.

The dinner and fashion show will feature fashions from Plaza Men's Shop in Belleville and Mandie's of Nutley. Proceeds will be used to purchase new equipment for the medical center's emergency room and infant nursery.

MEDICALLY SPEAKING HOARSENESS Q: What is hoarseness? A: Hoarseness is an alteration in the normal production of the voice by the vocal cords. Q: What are the causes of hoarseness? A: Most cases are caused by infection (laryngitis). Some others are related to voice abuse, environmental exposure, or smoking, which can cause vocal cord nodules and polyps. Q: Who should have an examination by a throat specialist? A: Anyone who has hoarseness persisting for two weeks. Q: Have there been recent advances in the diagnosis of hoarseness? A: Yes. With the FLEXIBLE FIBEROPTIC LARYNGOSCOPE, a complete examination of the voice box can be done in the office without discomfort. Q: What if I need surgery? A: Surgery can be done under general anesthesia on an outpatient (same day) basis. All removed tissue is sent for a biopsy study. Modern techniques such as the OPERATING MICROSCOPE and, in indicated cases, LASER, allow accurate and precise surgery. Recovery is rapid with patients able to resume most activities the next day. MEDICAL & SURGICAL EAR, NOSE & THROAT GROUP John A. Cece, M.D. Bruce E. Gordon, M.D. Arthur I. Belleville Times SPORTS

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

It's that time of the year again, when the NCAA college basketball season takes center stage. Usually, this is an extra special time in the world of sports, because in addition to the college scene, the baseball season is usually drawing nearer. However, this year, due to this ridiculous baseball lockout, it seems pretty much assured that the season will not start in early April.

So, let's concentrate a little on the NCAA's. The field is wide open this year, so much so that I don't expect any of the top seeds in this year's tourney to make the Final Four in Denver. Not UNLV, not Connecticut, not Oklahoma and ditto for Michigan State.

Instead, I'm going with a final four of Michigan, Illinois, Kansas and Virginia. The championship game will be an all Big 10 battle, with Michigan and Illinois playing for the crown.

You might not want to take that prediction to the bank (last year, I picked Oregon State to make the Final Four), but all four of those picks merit some consideration.

Michigan would like to be the first team since UCLA in 1973 to repeat as NCAA champs. The Wolverines have a strong nucleus back from the team which beat Seton Hall in a great title game last spring.

Illinois made the Final Four last year, only to lose to Michigan in the national semis. You don't think the Illini would like another shot at their arch rival in the big dance? No question, especially when you consider that Illinois could be facing a lengthy NCAA sanction after the season is completed.

Over to Virginia, the Cavaliers have a little emotion on their side. Terry Holland, the coach of Virginia for some 15 years, will be leaving at the end of the year for the A.D. job at Davidson, Virginia, which made the final eight last year before losing to Michigan, could be buoyed by Holland's departure and might do an "Al McGuire" for him.

Kansas won the NCAA's in 1988, then sat out the '89 campaign due to NCAA sanctions. The Jayhawks, number one for a good part of the 1989-90 campaign, will be primed for a serious run at the title.

In my estimation, the toughest bracket will be the western regional. There, UNLV is the number one seed, followed by Arizona, Michigan, Louisville, Oregon State, New Mexico State, Alabama, Ohio State and Providence.

The strangest scenario featured Notre Dame gaining entrance to the NCAA's while DePaul, who beat Notre Dame twice during the regular season and won more games overall than the Fighting Irish missed the tourney. The selection committee stated that politics would not play a role in determining the 64 team field, but you've got to wonder why a 16-12 team in Notre Dame made the tourney.

The NIT could be in line for one of its stronger tourneys this year. Penn State, with a 21-8 mark, is in. Other teams that won 20 games or more that will play in the NIT are James Madison (20-10), Louisiana Tech (20-7), Southern University (25-5), Wisconsin-Green Bay (23-7), Southern Illinois (26-7), Hawaii (23-9), Holy Cross (24-5), Kent State (21-7), Creighton (21-11) and Long Beach State (22-8).

Other "marquis" names that will play in the NIT are DePaul, Maryland, Arizona State, Stanford, Oklahoma State, UMass, Tennessee, Memphis State and Rutgers.

How Notre Dame gained a tenth seed in the NCAA tourney and these other clubs didn't make it at all is really interesting. (Now that I've chastised Notre Dame, watch the Irish win the National title).

Anyhow, if you have a few minutes, jot down your selections for the NCAA Final Four and get them to me by next Tuesday, March 20. If you don't have time to mail them, call them in to the paper at 759-3200 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Leave your name with whoever answers the phone and the four teams you feel will reach Denver. We'll print your selections in the March 22 issue.

BASEBALL LOCKOUT CONTINUES

This is starting to get serious. Here I am, with tickets to the Cardinals' opener at Montreal on April 3 and the Cardinal home opener on April 6 and no settlement is near. It looks like refund time with the airlines and the ticket office.

It's hard to believe that the two sides can't come to a compromise. It's not like the two sides are struggling. The owners are doing well (they won't admit it), with megabuck contracts from cable TV and soaring attendance.

The players, well you just have to read the papers to see that the average salary is nearly $500,000.00, and rising. There are ten players in the majors who will make $3,000,000.00 or more this year. That's, of course, if the season does get underway.

Being that there is so much money involved, it's still hard to believe that the season will be affected. When

Girls hoops look to future

By Mike Lamberti

When you put it into perspective, the 1989-90 girls' basketball season at Belleville was a learning experience. Now, the questions remain whether that experience will have a positive effect on future teams.

For the record, the Lady Bucs were winless in 20 games this year. However, head coach Karen Fuccello, no stranger to victories with over 200 in her years at Belleville, believes the future could hold some good times for the program.

"It was a tough year, no doubt," the coach said. "But we had the opportunity to play a lot of young kids and the freshman program had its first winning season in a number of years. If they play and go to camps during the off season, we could be okay next year."

The team will lose five seniors to graduation this spring. Despite the difficult campaign, Fuccello gives the seniors a great deal of credit for keeping the team spirit high.

"The seniors provided a great deal of leadership. Hopefully, their work will not go in vain. The seniors gave it their best and I couldn't ask for anything more."

Senior Mia Hanos led the team in scoring with an 8 ppg average. More importantly, Hanos was an offensive standout in the last half of the year. She scored 16 points against powerful Bloomfield in an early February contest. Her career high was a 20 point effort against Paramus. Hanos also added games of 15 and 13 points in conference matchups.

"Mia came on strong down the stretch," Fuccello said. "She was the classic overachiever. She really worked hard and it paid off."

Senior Jennifer Bridge rebounded from a series of injuries to play well in her final high school campaign. A gutsy competitor, Bridge will now concentrate her efforts on the softball diamond, where she was a standout infielder on the 1989 senior championship team.

Another senior, Thelina

Espritu was a determined competitor who gave four solid years to the varsity program. "T," as she was called by her teammates, played the point and off guard positions. She often sacrificed points for assists and was an excellent team leader.

Senior Amalia Fabiano was the second leading rebounder on the team, with 7.1 rebounds a game. She provided steady play on the boards and was able to score those necessary points off the offensive rebounds.

The last senior was Jocelyn Sansano. The "sixth man," Fuccello often used Sansano to apply pressure defense.

"Jocelyn was an excellent defensive player," Fuccello said. "She always did the job coming off the bench."

Sophomore Danielle DeWork was the second leading scorer on the Lady Bucs, averaging just under eight points a game. She led the team in rebounding with over 9 (9.15) a game.

"Danny has a great deal of potential," Fuccello said. "She tough under the boards and learning how to score those points in the paint."

There was only one junior on the varsity roster this year. Zulay Fiallos did a good job for Fuccello this season and will be one of the leaders for the 1990-91 squad.

The sophomores on the team this year were Jennifer Abrams, Dana Damiano and Carey Woodruff. The freshmen were Kim Salernitano, Mary Campbell, Yanina Calvi, Sue Spirook and Melanie Van Dam.

"We'll have a good nucleus of young players coming back next year," Fuccello said. "The JV team came on strong down the stretch and the freshman team, as I said before, had a winning year. It's a tough league, but I think our kids will take this year as a positive learning experience and apply it to next season."

Next week, we'll have a wrap-up on the freshman and JV squads.

BLOCKING OUT — Senior Amalia Fabiano (42) blocks out two Bloomfield opponents during recent Lady Buc game. Also looking for rebound is senior Jennifer Bridge. The two upper-classmen made key contributions to a young Lady Buc squad this winter.

Benefit softball game set for this Sunday AM

Belleville softball coach Carl Corino has announced that his 1990 team will participate in a benefit softball game this Sunday. The game, a 50 inning intersquad contest, will benefit the Scleroderma Research Society and the softball program. It will begin at 9 a.m. from Clearman Field.

"It will be a fun morning of softball," Corino said. "Basically, each pitch will constitute an out or a hit. If a player fouls off a pitch, it's an out. The players will be playing for pledges. People can pledge whatever they want for any player they want."

According to Corino, the pledges will be by innings for each player. Anyone interested can pledge any amount they wish for each inning a respective player competes in the game.

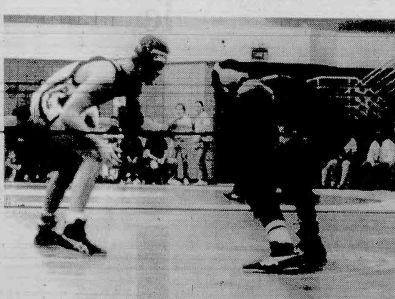

Scleroderma is a rare tissue disorder. It recently took the life of Corino's mother, Jenny.

The Scleroderma Research Society is a voluntary non profit tax exempt organization which supports medical research to find a cure to this life threatening connective tissue disease. Until a cure is found, the Scleroderma Research Society helps the afflicted live as fully as possible by providing, without charge, individual and family counseling, educational, literature and meetings and medical referrals.

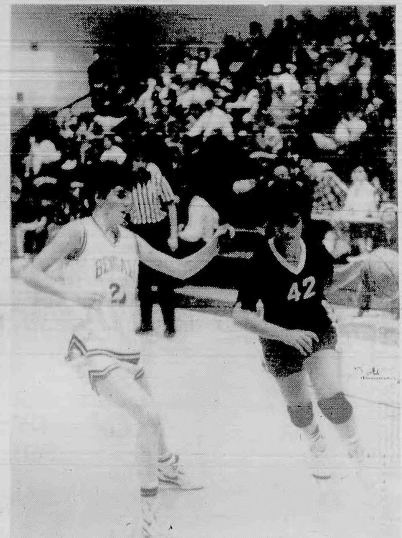

Anyone interested in pledging can contact a member of the softball team or Corino. People can also pledge the day of the game.

The rain date for this charity game will be on March 24 at Clearman Field.

Little League baseball tryouts continue

Tryouts for the Belleville Little League will continue March 19 and 21st. All tryouts are at Belleville High School and will begin at 6:30 p.m.

On March 19, the 9- and 11-year olds will try out. On the 21st, the 10- and 12-year olds will get their turn. Tryouts at Belleville High School will be in the area of fielding.

On Saturday, March 17, the batting tryouts will be held at Clearman Field, beginning at 1 p.m.

If a youngster between the ages of 9 and 12 wishes to play and has not signed up, he or she can pick up an application by contacting Frank Caputo at 759-3002 or Pat Turi at 751-0190. The child must be accompanied by a parent and is to bring his or her birth certificate when applying.

The Little League season will commence a little later than normal this spring. Opening day is set for May 5. The reason for the late start is the new infield that is being installed at the Marotti Little League field.

The Times will be devoting a good deal of coverage to the Little League this spring.

Scholar athlete dinner set for Apr. 5 at Mayfair Farms

The Essex County Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame will hold its 25th Annual Scholar Athlete Dinner on Thursday, April 5, 6:30 p.m., at Mayfair Farms in West Orange.

In addition to the 29 scholar athletes, the chapter will honor the following individuals: Ben L. Spinnell of West Orange, executive vice president of First Fidelity Bank, will be recipient of the "Distinguished American Award."

Peter A. Carlesimo of Montclair, one of the best-known athletic directors in the country, will be recipient of the "Contribution to Amateur Football Award."

John Dure of Irvington, a graduate of Fordham University, will receive the "Distinguished Coach's Award."

Tickets for the event are $25 per person. Reservations can be made by sending your check, made payable to the Essex County Chapter N.F.F., to Peter F. Horn, 265 Prospect Ave., West Orange 07052, phone 731-4000. Or call Bill Smith, chapter president at 731-2726.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Baseball/softball applications

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that applications for all recreation baseball and softball programs are available in all public and parochial school offices and at the Recreation Department office.

Boys ages 8-9 can play Peanut League Baseball; 10-12 year old boys can play Junior League Baseball; and 13-15 year old boys are eligible for Senior League Baseball. Girls ages 8-14 can apply for all levels of Recreation Softball, including the Suburban team. Specific league structure/age breakdown for girls' softball will be determined after the registration deadline. In order to qualify for any league, the child must reach the minimum age before Aug. 1, 1990 and he/she cannot exceed the minimum age by July 31, 1990.

All leagues are for Belleville residents only.

High school freshmen or JV team players, or Suburban League team players (7th and 8th grade) are eligible for the Rec leagues. All applications must be returned to the Rec House with birth certificates by Friday, March 23. Players trying out for the previously mentioned teams should complete Rec applications before the deadline in case they get cut.

In all cases, applications must be completed in full and signed by a parent, and all returning players must re-apply. Applications accepted after the March 23 deadline will be considered late and will be treated accordingly. The Rec House (407 Joramemon Street) hours for registration are Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Beginning Feb. 26, the office will also be open Monday nights from 6 to 7:30 p.m. for registration. All children attending required practices will play in every game. Our leagues stress sportsmanship, basic skills and fun.

Coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking coaches for its boys' baseball and girls' softball leagues. Men or women interested in coaching a baseball or softball team in youth leagues for ages 8 through 14 are urged to contact the Recreation Department at 450-3422 as soon as possible.

Sportsmanship, basic skills and fun are the objectives of the leagues. Every player on each team who attends required practices will play in every game. Come volunteer your time and share your interest and knowledge with the youngsters in town.

All potential coaches will be required to attend a training & certification course given by the Recreation Department.

Participants at these clinics will be given instructions on psychology of youth sports, first aid, maximizing performance and organization of practice, as well as tips on specific coaching techniques in the sports of baseball/softball. Participants will be certified by the National Youth Sports Coaches Association upon completion of the clinic. An attractive benefit afforded to all Certified Coaches is a $500,000 liability insurance coverage. The exact dates of the clinics will be announced.

For further information or to register, contact the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 between 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Umpires needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is in need of adults and boys or girls, age 16 or older, to umpire games in the recreation baseball and softball leagues. Games are played on weekday nights and Saturdays during the months of May-June. For more information or to apply, call the Recreation Department office at 450-3422 or stop at the Rec House on Joramemon Street before 4 p.m. on weekdays.

Playground applications

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that applications for Summer Recreation positions are now available. Playground director and sports clinic instructor positions are open to those who will have completed their first year of college by the summer of 1990. Preference is given to those majoring in recreation, physical education, teaching and psychology. In certain cases, consideration will be given to high school seniors who have demonstrated leadership skills and/or outstanding athletic ability. There will be few positions open so those who desire summer employment are urged to apply promptly.

Persons wishing to apply should phone the recreation department office at 450-3422 weekdays to obtain an application. Interviews will be scheduled around Easter to accommodate college students who are home for spring break. Potential applicants must be residents of Belleville and must be available to work for seven straight weeks from June 25 to August 10. All returning employees must also re-apply.

League directors needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking one or two adult men to serve as league directors for spring and fall sports. The part-time positions entail supervision of league games/personnel, assigning umpire/referees, rescheduling rainouts, writing press releases and charting players' participation records.

Anyone interested must reside in Belleville and be available five nights a week and Saturdays. Qualified applicants must be sports-minded, responsible and must work well with people. These positions would also be good experience for a college student majoring in recreation/physical education. For further information or to apply, please contact the Recreation Department at 450-3422.

Recreation track

The Belleville Recreation Department will be offering a recreation track program for boys and girls in grades 6, 7 and 8. The program will tentatively be conducted Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Stadium from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon. Scheduled to begin April 3, the program will be designed to introduce aspiring runners to the fundamentals of track and field. Participation, rather than competition, will be stressed. Training will consist of instructions and fun activities, instead of intense physical workouts. This year's program instructor will be Anthony La Vista, a former runner for the Belleville High School Track team.

Children in grades 6, 7 & 8 who reside in Belleville are eligible. Those children who will be playing baseball or softball should not take part in this program, however, since practices and schedules will conflict. To register, come to the Recreation office at 407 Joramemon Street between 8:30-4:00, Monday-Friday, with your birth certificate.

A.S.A. umpire tests

The Belleville A.S.A. Umpire's Association will be conducting the A.S.A. Softball Umpire's Test on April 16, at 7 p.m. at the Rec House, 407 Joramemon Street. Any adult, male or female, interested in taking the test should call the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 to obtain an application for the test. There is a $20 non-refundable Exam Fee that must accompany your application.

Persons who register for the test can attend the A.S.A. Softball Rules Clinics, to be given March 22 and 29, and April 12 - 6:30 p.m. at the Belleville Recreation Department. These clinics are designed to prepare all potential umpires for the test on April 16. The clinics will be conducted by Frank C. Amico, Belleville's umpire-in-chief.

The registration deadline is March 23. The course and test are open to all persons, 18 years of age and older. A 70% passing grade will be required. Successful applicants will then be qualified to umpire A.S.A. softball after paying their membership dues, and will be responsible for securing their own work assignments.

Good season for JV Bucs boys basketball squad

In last weeks issue, Belleville boys' basketball coach Don Roll expressed optimism about the future of the program. With some promising underclassmen coming back, the Bucs could be a solid team in the NNJL in 1990-91.

Part of Roll's optimism is attributed to the success of the JV basketball team. The '89-90 club posted a 9-11 mark. For a JV team, that's a very good record, considering the JV lineup is never a consistent entity. Quite often, a JV player who performs well for an extended period finds himself promoted to the varsity level.

"The JV kids showed a lot of spark," Roll said. "The worked well together, they passed well and looked for the open man. Those kids dived for loose balls and did the little things necessary to win games."

The coach of the junior varsity was Nick Caffaro. The first year coach guided the junior Bucs to victories in their first four games of the '89-90 season, and that set the tone for the entire campaign.

"The kids started off on a winning note and it carried over for the rest of the year," Roll said. "As I said last week, it's important to get off to a good start, because winning, like losing, can become contagious. Once they started winning, the kids didn't want to go the other way. Even in our losses, the kids never gave up."

There were four juniors on the JV team this season, eight sophomores and one freshman.

JIM DU HAIME: The junior started the year as a starter for the JV team, but by seasons end, he was one of the top players on the varsity. The 6'2" center/forward will be a key ingredient to next seasons success.

RYAN WELLS: Roll called Wells a big surprise in 1989-90. The junior played power forward on many occasions this year, despite the fact he stands 5'6" tall. "Ryan used his body well and was a strong rebounder," Roll said.

TINO LONGOBARDI: The junior played the small and power forward positions this season. According to Roll, he improved his game immensely from his sophomore year and Longobardi could be a strong varsity candidate next winter.

JIM CICALASE: A junior, Cicalase was a solid rebounder and an effective shot blocker. He played the power forward position for most of the season.

BRIAN JIMENEZ: The sophomore was the starting point guard for most of the JV campaign. He did a good job in running the offense and should be challenging for a varsity job next season.

SAL STRAFACE: Like DuHaime, Straface started the year on the JV level and finished up as a major player on the varsity. The off guard, Straface has a good outside shot and a quick move to the basket.

SAM NA: The soph was one of the more effective three point shooters on the JV team. Like Straface, he plays the off guard position in the Buccanear offense.

MARCO FERMIN: Another sophomore, Fermin can play either the small forward or power forward position. Roll feels that Fermin can be a very good high school player, with continued hard work during the off season.

PETER FABIANO: The sophomore has a good jump shot and is an effective swing man, playing the off guard position or filling the small forward slot.

MICHAEL VISTA: Vista, a sophomore guard, can play either the point guard or off guard slot. He did a good job in backing up Jimenez at the point this year and was also effective at the two (off guard) spot.

MICHAEL KIMBALL: A very aggressive player, Kimball, a sophomore, can also play the swing position (off guard or small forward). He plays the game with a very aggressive style and is one of the top three point shooters on the team.

DAN DELLE SANTI: Delle Santi, a sophomore, did a good job at the off guard position and possesses a solid jump shot.

DENNIS DE WORK: Just a freshman, DeWork made the difficult jump to the varsity look relatively easy. Roll is very high on DeWork's work ethic and hard nosed approach to the game.

The JV Bucs posted some impressive wins this year. The team stopped Bloomfield and Nutley twice and also beat league powers Hackensack and Teaneck. The team started the season with an impressive victory over inter-conference rival Clifton.

"Once again, if the kids continue to play during the off season, we could be looking at some very talented players next year," Roll said. "I was very proud of the effort by the JV players this year."

Letters to the Editor

Tax the Church

To the editor:

Is it fair that you, the taxpayer, should be forced to pay for another person's taxes? Should your tax rate be increased because that other person does not have to pay for such necessities as Police and Fire protection, road maintenance, garbage disposal, and a host of other services supplied by the town? Do you find it fair as a Belleville taxpayer when your taxes are increased to make up for the $794,000 worth of taxes not paid by this tax exempt group? The answer probably is NO.

There is an extremely wealthy group which receives such a privilege: the Church. By state mandate, the Church is exempt from taxation on all their real-estate holdings. In Belleville alone, the value of this property is worth of $9 million. This is based on a 1970 assessment valuation, which does not include improvements.

The township of Belleville has to raise $40 million annually to pay for essential services. The burden of providing $794,000 of that amount is now placed upon the general taxpayer. This causes an increase in the amount that each taxpayer has to pay. Since the Church does not pay, you pay more!

Article I, Section 3 of our New Jersey Constitution states: "No person shall be obliged to pay tithes, TAXES, or other rates for building or repairing any Church or Churches, place of worship, or for the maintenance of any ministry."

The 1st Amendment to the United States Constitution has been interpreted to require an absolute separation of State and Church. This tax exemption violates these two requirements because it is a subsidy administered by the government.

If your taxes are $4,000 a year in Belleville, roughly $80 of that goes towards the $794,000 which is not paid by the Church. Remember, "You pay more, because they don't pay." Don't let the often heard "cry of poverty" fool you either, Benjamin Franklin had this to say:

"When a religion is good, I conceive it will support itself, and when it does not support itself, and god does not take care to support it — so that its professors are obliged to call for help of the civil power, 'tis a sign, I apprehend, of its being a bad one."

With the growing political concern over a source of revenue needed to pay for municipal services, there is an immediate need to re-assess the validity of the Church's tax exempt status.

You pay more, because they pay nothing!

Don't punish cops

To the editor:

I am writing in defense of the two Belleville police officers, William Palatella and Patrick Godnick, who may be brought up on charges for the Dec. 4 car chase. I feel the officers were doing their job. What do we have police departments for? To turn their heads and look another way? How do we expect to have an effective police department, if we tie their hands.

The police officers didn't strike another car. They were doing what police should be doing, fighting crime. And that's wrong?

I hear the same thing all the time. Where were the police? or maybe if the police got here faster, etc. etc. We've all heard it. But it seems when the police are right on the job, someone is quick to say they're wrong. Talk about a Catch 22 situation.

The criminals today are on a free ride. Drugs, car theft, burglary, just to mention a few. There is no way to get a handle on crimes against society, if we are going to restrict our police.

Criminals have no respect for people, property, or for that matter, life. How do the police protect us from these people, if we restrict them. How are we to feel safe when the very people protecting us have to worry about disciplinary charges for doing their job. Are we not punishing the wrong people?

I have always respected law enforcement, and back what ever they do to protect our people, our property and our town. If we are going to punish our police for fighting crime, at a time when crime is completely out of control, then I say shame on us.

LOCAL SPORTS READY TO TAKE OFF

Fortunately, the high school athletes aren't staging a strike and Belleville Athletic Director Jim Silvestri doesn't plan on locking out the athletes from their practice fields. Spring sports will be kicking off in less than three weeks.

Practices are underway for the baseball, softball, track, tennis, golf and crew teams. Last Monday, the temperatures hovered over the 80 degree mark, a welcome sight for the coaches, who usually find this time of year to be really tough as far as gaining consistent practice time.

Next week, we should have a complete listing of the schedules and complete coverage of the spring sports will also commence in next weeks issue.

Once again, if anyone is interested in reporting JV sports, PLEASE feel free to contact Anthony Buccino, the editor of the Belleville Times between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. You don't have to write the stories, you just have to call them in to me on a Sunday or Monday evening.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The four teams who made up the Final Four in 1982 were, North Carolina, Georgetown, Houston and Louisville. Georgetown and North Carolina advanced to the championship game. North Carolina won a thriller, 63-62. The game was played at New Orleans, in the Super Dome. Players who competed in that title game who now play in the NBA are, Michael Jordan, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Patrick Ewing and Eric Sleepy Floyd.

FOR THIS WEEK

Name the four teams who made it to the Final Four in 1981. In what city was the Final Four played in? Name at least one starter from each team in the Final Four that year. Also, two events highlighted the Final Four weekend. What were they?

Rutgers St. repaving set

Town workers removed seven trees, five of them dead, from Rutgers St. last week in preparation of the repaving project scheduled to begin March 19.

The town will plant ten trees along the street when the construction is completed later this spring. According to Commissioner of Parks and Public Property Vincent Frantantoni, roots from the removed trees were causing the street and sidewalks to buckle and crack.

In all, the repaving project includes new curbs, streets and sidewalks on Rutgers St. from Washington Ave. to Hornblower Ave.

The legal services were specifically obtained to write the specifications and charges against the two men.

Attorney Steven Glickman of Newark has been retained. Payment has been authorized for $100 per hour and not to exceed $2,000.

In other business the commissioners agreed to hold back crediting the water accounts of 16 consumers for a total of approximately $1,365. With an error in reading cited as the primary excuse for the unusual amount of refunds Commissioner Joseph Fomartto brought the 70 members of the public in attendance to laughter when he asked the other commissioners, "can the meter readers read?"

Issuance of the credits will be postponed until the reason for the unusual amount of errors can be explained.

DelVecchio earns 'Ironman' award

Mike Del Vecchio of Belleville, an NJ Transit employee who works in the Newark City Subway, recently received an award for 10 years of perfect attendance.

Del Vecchio received an "Ironman" award from S. Thomas Gagliano, Executive Director of NJ Transit, and George Heinle, Vice-President and General Manager of NJ Transit Bus Operations.

Del Vecchio is a mechanic in the line department and maintains the power distribution system and signals. He has been a subway employee since 1969.

The 4.3 mile subway, which runs from Newark Penn Station to the Belleville Border, is the only light rail system in operation in New Jersey. In 1989, the subway carried approximately 4 million passengers, an increase of 800,000 passengers since 1985.

Dolci named PVH director

Kirk J. Dolci of Belleville was recently named Director of Patient Accounts at Pascack Valley Hospital (PVH) in Westwood.

In his new position Dolci will be responsible for all billing, credit, collection, and cashier functions of the 309 bed non-profit medical facility in Westwood.

Dolci brings over 20 years experience to his new role. Prior to joining PVH he was the Patient Accounts Manager at Meadowlands Hospital in Secaucus. In addition, he was previously employed by the following: Greater Hospital Center at Passaic, Bergen Pines County Hospital, University of Medicine and Dentistry and Columbia Presbyterian Hospital.

The new director holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Jersey City State College.

Dolci is married and the father of two sons.

Pontrella lends skills

Belleville resident Joseph Pontrella, an accountant with Green Anderson and Company, was on hand Feb. 24 at the Paul Roberson School in New Brunswick to help members of the community with their tax returns.

Pontrella donated his time through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program. This program is designed to help the underprivileged and the elderly with their tax returns. Area accountants set up in the school library and assisted people with their taxes on a walk-in basis. The community definitely took advantage of the program.

"The day was a success! I was busy all day preparing tax returns," Pontrella said. "Most people have questions when it comes to their taxes and I feel really good when I can answer their questions and help them understand their taxes."

Pontrella is on the tax staff at Green Anderson and Company, a full service accounting firm.

TAXING FORMS UNFURLED — Joe Pontrella donated time and talent to the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program.

TRW Foundation funds CP Center with $20,000 for volunteer manager

The Cerebral Palsy Center in Belleville was one of two area organizations selected to receive funding of $19,828 from TRW to create a new position of Volunteer Manager, who will organize and supervise the agency's program with emphasis to incorporate the use of disabled individuals and senior citizens for varied activities. Bertha Jones of Newark has been employed as the Volunteer Manager to initiate the project.

Cerebral Palsy Center is a non-profit agency which provides a variety of services for physically disabled infants to adults. Volun-ters have served the Center in many areas including board members, program assistants and fundraisers. It is expected, that in addition to enhancing all program areas, the development of the Client Volunteer Program will offer disabled individuals an opportunity to participate in meaningful activities and to develop new skills.

The TRW Foundation initiated the Volunteer Management Program in 1984 as a means "to explore the notion that volunteers hold at least a partial answer to the loss of funds that non-profit organizations have experienced over several years, as a result of government and other cut backs"... The New Jersey Grants represent the involvement of six states and twelve non-profit agencies.

Of nearly 40 Essex and West Hudson and Morris County non-profit organizations who submitted proposals, the Cerebral Palsy Center and Newark Literacy Campaign were the recipients that were selected by a five member committee of TRW employees living in the Tri-County area.

"The Cerebral Palsy Center is a United Way Agency.

Mr. Gallombardo will retire

September of 1966 and that's where he has been until now.

Gallombardo, in retrospect of all the years, spoke as one might picture the mentor Socrates speaking to a protegee and philosophically said, "elementary school teachers take the child into their classrooms in the form of a rough diamond and begin to polish it."

"It is only the dedication of the teachers and principals that prepare our citizens to be the leaders of tomorrow."

In 1985 Mr. G and Belleville suffered a major setback. Mr. G passed out in the office that he still occupies in School 5 and was later informed that he had had a heart attack.

"My concern at the time was not to make a major production of the event in order not to cause any trauma for the children. Two teachers found me lying right there," Mr. G said pointing to the floor, "and I told them that I didn't want to go to the hospital but they insisted. I finally agreed but waited until the classes began so that the halls would be empty."

"I guess maybe it was a little serious because I had to take a year off. I didn't just retire because I just didn't feel it was the right time," he added.

Gallombardo explained that he couldn't thank everyone responsible for his success in Belleville. There have been so many people who have been wonderful, he is afraid he might skip over someone.

Mr. G wants the best person possible chosen for the job to replace him. He said of the person, "no matter what the personality of the individual might be, the office of the principal must be respected with all the integrity that the authorities stands for."

If one believes that retirement is a time for celebration than Mr. G will have two reasons to celebrate.

Arch, who has been a widower since 1976, after celebrating his retirement in June will celebrate at his own wedding in the same month. He is marrying Connie Brienza, a special education secret-

Temporary Assignment Expenses may be deductible

If your employment requires you to travel away from home on a temporary job assignment, you may be eligible to deduct many of your expenses from your income subject to tax, advises Bert Tobia, District Manager of H & R Block, the international tax preparation firm.

Block tax preparers report employees may deduct all "reasonable and necessary" costs connected with their temporary duties while away from their place of employment and their homes. The temporary assignment must not last more than two years.

What happens if your temporary assignment becomes a permanent job? No matter, you can still deduct the business expenses, according to Tobia. Keep in mind, however, the deductions allowed are for those expenses incurred during the period the assignment was temporary. Expenses for the period in which you knew the assignment was permanent are not deductible.

Some examples of reasonable and necessary expenses are plane or rail fares, taxes and public transit, car rentals, meals and lodging, telephone and postage, cleaning and laundry costs, and tips.

As with all tax deductions, accurate records are important, so save receipts and keep a log of mileage and incidental expenses.

If you have any further questions, call Bert Tobia at 365-0999.

TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the following proposed ordinance was introduced and passed on first reading at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Township of Belleville held on Tuesday evening, February 27, 1990 and further notice is hereby given that the second and final reading of said ordinance will be considered by said Board of Commissioners at a meeting to be held at the Town Hall, Washington Avenue and Belleville Avenue, Township evening, March 27, 1990 at eight o'clock p.m. when all objections to the passing of the same will be heard and considered.

Mary Lou Hood Township Clerk

BOND ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE REHABILITATION OF MUNICIPAL STADIUM IN AND BY THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, NEW JERSEY, APPROPRIATING $160,000.00 THEREOF, INCLUDING $50,000.00 EXPECTED TO BE RECEIVED FROM THE NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AND AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF $110,000.00 BONDS OR NOTES OF THE TOWNSHIP FOR FINANCING PART OF THE COST THEREOF.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY: (Not less than two-thirds of all members thereof affirmatively concurring)

Section 1. The improvement described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance has heretofore been and is hereby authorized as a general improvement to be made or acquired by the Township of Belleville, New Jersey, New Jersey, for the said improvement or purpose stated in Section 3, is hereby appropriated the sum of $160,000.00, said sum being inclusive of all expenditures heretofore made therefor and including the sum of $80,000.00 as the down payment for said improvement or purpose required by law for new acquisition of property by the Township of Belleville, New Jersey, by virtue of provisions in a previously adopted budget or budgets of the Township for down payment or for capital improvement purposes.

Section 2. For the financing of said improvement or purpose and to meet the part of said $160,000.00 appropriation not provided for by application hereunder of said sum, negotiable bonds of the Township are hereby authorized to be issued in the principal amount of $150,000.00 pursuant to the Local Bond Law of New Jersey. In anticipation of the issuance of said bonds and to temporarily finance said improvement or purpose, negotiable bonds of the Township in a principal amount not exceeding $157,500.00 are hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to and within the limitations prescribed by said law.

Section 3. (a) The improvement hereby authorized and the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued is the improvement of the existing municipal stadium including the rehabilitation of the concrete structure, barrier free access to bathing and restrooms, improvements, additional parking facilities on Nolan Street, landscaping and walkways to the field. Such improvements also include all preliminary planning and design, construction expenses and all work and materials necessary therefore or incidental thereto, all as shown on and in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor on file in the Office of the Township Clerk.

(b) The estimated amount of bonds or notes to be issued for the improvement or purpose is the sum of $152,500.00.

(c) The purpose of the bonds and notes authorized to be issued is to finance commitments that may be incurred from the date of adoption of this bond ordinance.

Section 4. All bond anticipation notes issued hereunder shall mature at such times as may be determined by the Chief Financial Officer, provided that no note shall mature later than one year from its date. The notes shall bear interest at such rate or rates and be in such form as may be determined by the Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer shall determine all matters in connection with notes issued pursuant to this Ordinance, and the Chief Financial Officer's signature upon the notes shall be conclusive evidence as to all such determinations. All notes issued hereunder may be renewed from time to time subject to the provisions of N.J.S. 40A:2-8(a). The Chief Financial Officer is hereby authorized to sell part or all of the notes from time to time to public or private sale and to deliver them to the purchasers thereof upon receipt of payment of the purchase price plus accrued interest from their dates to the date of delivery thereof. The Chief Financial Officer is directed to report in writing to the Governing Body at the meeting next succeeding the date when any sale or delivery of the notes pursuant to this Ordinance is made.

made. Such report must include the amount, the description, the interest rate and the maturity schedule of the notes sold, the price obtained and the name of the purchaser.

Section 5. The following additional matters are hereby determined, declared, recited and stated:

(i) The said purpose described in Section 3 of this bond ordinance is not a current expense and is a property or improvement which the Township may lawfully acquire or make as a general improvement, and no part of the cost thereof shall be paid or specially assessed on property specially benefited thereby.

(ii) The period of usefulness of said purpose, the description, the interest rate and the maturity schedule of the notes sold, the price obtained and the name of the purchaser.

(c) The supplemental debt statement required by said Law has been duly made and filed in the office of the Township Clerk and a copy thereof has been filed in the office of the Director of the Division of Local Government Services in the Department of Community Affairs of the State of New Jersey, and such statement shows that the gross debt of the Township as defined in said Law is increased by the authorization of the bonds and notes provided for in this Ordinance, and such statement and the said obligations authorized by this bond ordinance will be within all debt limitations prescribed by said Law.

(d) An aggregate amount not exceeding $10,000.00 for interest on said obligations of issuing said obligations, engineering costs and other items of expense incurred in and permitted under Section 40A:2-20 of said Law may be included in the cost of said improvement and is included in the foregoing estimate thereof.

Section 6. The full faith and credit of the Township are hereby pledged to the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on the said obligations authorized by this bond ordinance. Said obligations shall be a general obligation of the Township, and the Township shall be obligated to levy ad valorem taxes upon all the taxable property within the Township for the payment of the principal of and interest thereon without limitation of rate or amount.

Section 7. Funds, in the sum of $150,000.00 for interest on said obligations of the Township from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection is available from the Green Acres and Recreation Opportunities Bond Acts of 1971, 1974, 1978, 1983 and 1987. Financing under this program known as the Green Acres Trust Local Assistance Program, Project Number 0701-88-001, is comprised of the following:

Grant Funds - $77,500.00

Loan Funds - $112,500.00

Grant funds received therefrom shall be applied either to direct payment of the cost of the improvement or to payment of the obligations issued pursuant to this Ordinance. The amount of obligations authorized but not issued hereunder shall be reduced to the extent that such funds are received.

Section 8. The temporary capital budget of the Township is hereby amended to conform with the provisions of this ordinance to the extent of any inconsistencies herewith.

Section 9. This bond ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after the first publication thereof after final adoption, as provided by said Local Bond Law.

Easter

CLASSIFIED SPECIAL

APRIL 5 & 12, 1990

On April 15th we celebrate Easter — on March 20th we welcome Spring. This is the time of year when people are buying new clothes, refurbish their homes — the list is endless.

Timing is essential to sound profitable advertising. You have to "shoot when the ducks are flying." This sportsman's axiom translates into retail practice like this: Spend your money when most customers are in a mood to buy your type of merchandise.

The Nutley Sun — Belleville Times — Bloomfield Life have a $392 MILLION MARKET. We can guarantee that this market will see your advertising. Our circulation is 100% paid. Our newspapers are delivered through the U.S. MAIL — they're also sold in over 125 newsstands. Our newspapers don't land on the lawns, nor in the trash; they're not blown away by the wind!

So be a wise advertiser... put your advertising dollars where they will work for you and take advantage of our special Easter Sale.

RATE
$5.00 per column inch — your ad appears in all three newspapers.

REAL ESTATE FORUM

By Jim Farese

Q: My husband and I own a 3 family home. We live in the first floor and rent the other two apartments. We are buying a one family home to live in and thought that rather than selling the 3-family, we would refinance it for our downpayment and keep it for an investment and wait for a better market to sell it in. What do you think? Also, how would we compute the depreciation deduction on our 3-family?

A: There are a few precautions to be aware of in your planning. Most important is the chance of losing your 1034 rollover. The profit from the sale of your principal residence can be tax deferred if you apply it to the purchase of a more expensive home for your principal residence. If you wait longer than 2 years, you may lose that tax advantage and be subject to tax on the entire gain when you eventually sell.

Another consideration is how far will you be moving and can you manage your investment property from there?

As to computing your depreciation deduction, there are a few guidelines to consider. First, the value of the building and the land must be determined. Land is not depreciable. Current law allows for residential investment property to be depreciated over 27 1/2 years. However, you are probably on a depreciation schedule already depending on how long you've owned the building.

Note: The basis of depreciation is the smaller of (1.) the fair market value of your old house on the day you move out or, (2.) your adjusted cost basis of the property on the day you move out. In our area the adjusted cost basis is generally lower.

Please consult your accountant for these delicate decisions. I really don't have enough specifics to be more precise.

(Some of the questions may contain legal or accounting matters. Mr. Farese is not an attorney and advises you to consult the proper authority before any decision is made.)

Did You Know??

Lawn-care note: The National Park Service does not use pesticides on the Mall in Washington, D.C. Instead, it utilizes rubbish control and bird feeders to attract the natural enemies of the pests.

Paint removers with a semi-paste consistency are easiest to use because they cling to surfaces. Residue is rinsed off with warm water and detergent; some types call for a cloth soak in paint thinner.

Wicker will stay in good shape longer if it's vacuumed regularly, then wiped with a cloth dipped in detergent and water. Any grime that's ground in can be scrubbed with a brush dipped in the same solution.

When grout crumbles, moisture damage is often to blame. Repair promptly. Scrape out loose grout with a can opener, then repair with fresh grout.

There still are tax breaks for home sellers. In most cases you can defer paying taxes on the capital gain as long as you buy another home within two years that costs more. After 55, you can gain $125,000 tax-free.

Buying your own home is the first step toward the best tax shelter of all. We'll help you make it happen at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley, 235-9000.
