Parents rally - School 9 stays open, for now

"DON'T CLOSE OUR SCHOOL" — Was the rallying cry from parents and children supporting School Nine. The supporters made their feelings known at the BOE meeting Monday night.

The Board of Education voted unanimously Monday night not to propose a resolution to close School 9. However some board members said they might expect the same subject to be discussed next year at this time.

According to a statement read by Superintendent of Schools Michael D. Nardiello, "the recommendation to close School 9 is strictly based on economics."

The BOE's Building and Grounds and Finance Committees presented their criteria used to evaluate the feasibility of either closing School 9 or keeping it open. The committees' report predicted closing the school would result in savings of slightly more than $182,000. They estimated the cost of running the school, including salaries and maintenance at about $265,755 per year.

Trustee Joseph Del Guercio said Belleville's school district received the "Knock out blow from Gov. Florio last Friday at 2 p.m." when the township's state aid was cut by $2.9 million.

Del Guercio said that the governor's action was "leaving it to be absorbed by the taxpayer." Del Guercio worked on the budget committee that put together a budget which would have reflected a 3.5 tax point increase for residents. However, following the governor's action, the school tax levy would jump to a 61-65 point increase. That increase represents an average increase of $325 on a house assessed at $50,000.

"There are only so many things you can do to cut a budget," Del Guercio said. "Mr. Nardiello based his recommendation on sound rational decisions with a great deal of research." He said, "Society is brainwashed on the concept of the neighborhood school. Research shows that a child is less challenged by a homogeneous group."

Del Guercio said that he "personally found it acceptable" to close the school, but changed his mind after last week's board meeting when he said he "witnessed the reactions of our most vocal citizens" who showed support for keeping the school open.

More than 200 parents and students showed up at the board's executive session to support the school remaining open. More than 100 parents and students circled the entrance to the high school carrying signs saying "Rally For The Valley" and "The Biggest Little School In Belleville".

The elementary school, the last one in the Valley section of town, has been faced with declining enrollment since 1981 when School 1, also in the Valley was closed. School 9 enrollment peaked at 160 and declined steadily until 1987 when it reached 122. The following year it rose to 135 students, but this year, according to September 30 enrollment statistics, the school is down to 109 students. The school's student capacity is nearly 180.

In 1981, the township converted to a four-year high school, a two-year middle school and implemented the Magnet Schools program for the remaining elementary schools.

Under the Magnet Schools program, School 3 attracted fine arts students; School 4 attracted English as a Second Language students; School 7 attracted the Academically Talented students; and School 10 attracted the Basic Skills students.

Also under the magnet schools program, elementary schools 5, 8, and 9 remained as neighborhood schools.

Under the magnet program, students with special abilities or needs are bused to schools which serve those specific needs. Because of the magnet system, not all elementary school students who live in the Valley attend School 9, many are bused to schools in other parts of town.

School Principal Pat Forte, contacted Tuesday, said that the school does not have the physical facilities to house a large magnet program. He said that all classrooms in the building are occupied and that the school has grades K-6.

"If enrollment continues to decline, what happens next year at this time?" Trustee Michael Lamberti said, following the meeting. "Where is the breaking point before it is no longer feasible to keep the school open? I hope that any future decisions on the school's fate will be void of political overtones."

"Gabe (Nazziola), Joe (Del Guercio) and myself, along with Mr. Nardiello weren't trying to be the bad guys. There are some difficult decisions to be made, especially with the massive budget cuts that we are now faced with," Lamberti said.

Petitions challenged as council race begins

By Anthony Buccino

At large council candidate Vincent J. Frantantoni filed written objections dated March 19, to three other candidates. Frantantoni in a letter sent to Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood and Essex County Superintendent of Elections Karla J. Squier objected to the candidacies of Frank J. Noonan, Cathleen M. Noonan and Gabe Nazziola.

Frantantoni's letter cited his objection to the Noonans' candidacies as residency. Frantantoni enclosed with his objection a copy of a letter sent to him by the Noonans inviting him to "an open house at our home" which listed a Clifton address.

Frantantoni's letter cited as the reason his objection to Gabriel Nazziola's candidacy as State Statute, Title 18A:12-2, which his letter said "does not allow an individual to serve on the Board of Education and also be a member of the Governing Body."

Noonan, when contacted at his office Monday, said he would wait to comment on the objection when he received the proper notification. Noonan did say that just because he was "fortunate to have the means to support four residences, and the right to declare one of them my domicile — where I eat, sleep, etc. —

I can't imagine giving up my rights as a citizen."

Nazziola had said previously and at public meetings that Title 18A:12-2 does not prohibit him as a board of education member from seeking a council seat. He said that if and when he was elected to the council, then he would step down from the board.

According to the election law regarding candidate selection and attacking petitions, the municipal clerk, because this is a municipal election, would have to be notified of an objection within two days after the last day for filing. If an objection is made, the election officer shall mail to the candidate a notice of the objection.

The municipal clerk is authorized by the election law to "pass upon the validity of such objection in a summary way unless an order shall be made in the matter by a court of competent jurisdiction and for this purpose such officer shall have power to subpoena witnesses and take testimony or depositions."

The law continues, "He shall file his determination in writing in his office at least thirty-four days before the primary election for the general election, which determination shall be open for public inspection."

Commissioners approve bonds safety complex moves ahead

The Board of Commissioners voted unanimously at their March 13 meeting to authorize the issuance of $1.9 million in bonds or notes for the Public Safety Building construction project. The commissioners appropriated $2 million and authorized the bonding of $1.9 million which will be used to link the Town Hall with the new addition.

The appropriations include the acquisition of telecommunication equipment, acquisition and construction of the additional link, certain renovations to Town Hall and furnishings.

The board did not defer the issuance of the bonds, as reported here last week. However, the bonds will not be issued until the construction progresses to the point where the bond funds are needed for their specified portions of the overall public safety complex project.

The $2 million bond ordinance was passed on first reading Feb. 13, and later passed on its second and final reading March 13.

Belleville POLICE BEAT

Police arrested Michael Sogliuzzo, 33, of Belleville, for possession of a controlled dangerous substance March 14. Sogliuzzo was stopped for a traffic violation, when police observed him placing a vial of white powder in his sock. The suspect was asked to exit the car and a routine pat-down search revealed two vials of white powder. Sogliuzzo was given several motor vehicle summonses.

A 1985 Pontiac Firebird reported stolen from a Newark Place residence March 15 was recovered later that day by Newark police.

Michael Mignone, 21, of Bloomfield was charged with aggravated assault March 15 after two victims reported he has struck them separately. Police reporting to the scene found one victim bleeding profusely from the head. The victim claimed that he had been struck in the head with a beer mug by Mignone. Another party reported to police that he had also been struck by Mignone.

Police charged Frank Cordero, 21 of Belleville with driving a motor vehicle while on the revoked list. He was released on $250 bail, and is scheduled to appear in municipal court April 18.

A 1979 Lincoln was reported stolen from an apartment complex parking lot on Belleville Ave. March 9.

1986 Chevy S10 pick up truck being used by a pizza delivery man was stolen by two men on Little St. March 9. The driver reported trying to deliver a pie to an address where no one would accept delivery. He returned to the store, when another call came in for the pizza. When he returned to the address two men told him "We want the truck." The vehicle was recovered the next day.

Additional Supporters for School No. 9 — More than 100 people turned out to support School No. 9 students and parents in their drive to keep the school open.

School 9 saved again

sions began with a memo July 1 of last year. The memo listed 5 economic recommendations including the disposition of School 9, the disposition of School 1 which currently houses the Board of Education offices, Clearman Field, and laboratories at the Middle School.

Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino said, "If I knew last week what I knew now, we wouldn't be at this meeting. It does our heart good to see parents attend our meeting."

"We're in trouble with the mandates from the Trenton people. Each day seems to get worse. They are providing us with less money. It will take exerted efforts from you to pass the school budget so that we can provide services," D'Agostino said. "It will be up to the future town fathers to decide what to do with a failed budget."

"Give serious thought to those who live in Silver Lake and the Valley. It is of vital concern to keep those areas in shape, to keep them in tact," D'Agostino said. He then recommended the board look into selling off the present board of ed building and relocating to a converted large house in the Valley. The current BOE building is under utilized and in need of much repair, he said.

Diana Price, president of School 9's PTA said she had "expected a fight" but was delighted and excited by the outcome of the meeting.

For another year, the "Biggest Little School In Belleville" will remain open for neighborhood children who want to attend.

Golden Comments By Jim Golden

Behind the false prosperity of the 1980's, the United States is suffering severe economic damage. Savings and net investment are declining, the national and foreign debt is soaring and real interest rates are rising to record levels. The inflation-adjusted wages of American labor are falling and have been for 15 years. Our infrastructure is crumbling, our educational system is deteriorating and our reputation for quality manufacturing and our leadership in technology are being spent wastefully. Sovereign control over our finances, our money supply and our interest rates are weakening, and our foreign markets are declining in industry after industry. There is still an American dream, but this is not it.

Germany and Japan save and invest two to three times as much as we do per employee. Japan has out-invested America per employee for 20 years. Why? Because real interest rates in the United States in 1989 were three times higher than in Japan. The reason is clear: Federal budget deficits that exceed $200 billion, excluding the raids on Social Security and other trust funds. These deficits use up 75 percent of our savings, push up interest rates and squeeze out capital investment in highways, airports, research and development labs and education. We are spending 80 percent less as a percentage of our output on infrastructure than we did in the 1950's and less on elementary and secondary-school education than any of our major industrial competitors.

The most troubling result of the 1980's is the loss of American financial supremacy just when world financial markets have become more important than ever. Today, the top 13 Japanese banks alone have a value that approximates five times the value of our 50 largest financial institutions. Germany and Japan have taken over the longstanding U.S. role as the low-cost, low-interest producer of capital. It is a small wonder that money has become Japan's leading export to the U.S., money that Japan earned the old-fashioned way:

working hard, saving hard and trading hard. Japan's trade-surplus billions are now being used to buy bonds and make direct investments. The result? Goodbye Rockefeller Center. Goodbye Columbia Pictures. But not goodbye America. We have not lost control of our economy, but every sale arouses the fear of a future of Japanese ascendancy and American decline.

The villain is not foreign capital, which we need to meet our budget deficit. The evil lies in our profligacy which has made us depend on foreign money. We need a positive American program to reduce the deficit, to increase savings and investment and to lower interest rates. There must come a reduction and final elimination of the deficit. However, if America's leaders form fiscal policies based on popularity polls, we will never get our house in order.

Nobody likes taxes, but sacrifices to restore fiscal sanity are hardly burdensome — a 4 percent per year cut in inflation-adjusted defense spending, a tax on gasoline and an annual tax increase of 1 percent. America would still have the lowest overall tax rate of any Western industrial nation. And only we can play the role of the leader of the West.

President Kennedy wrote a book, Why England Slept, about the failure of Britain to respond to the emergence of Hitler, when Prime Minister Chamberlain tried appeasement and promised the British people "peace in our time." President Bush is promising America "prosperity in our time" without trying to make politically acceptable the sacrifices necessary to provide it. In Britain, Winston Churchill did that, rallied the nation and earned his place in history, while Chamberlain is consigned to history's dustbin.

President Bush might reflect on how he would figure in a book entitled Why America Slept. It is being written every day he delays.

Candidates' Forum

Richard Yanuzzi

Second Ward Council candidate Richard Yanuzzi stated this week that he is disturbed with the proposed budget of Governor Jim Florio because of the catastrophic effect it will cause to the taxpayers of Belleville.

Yanuzzi, a member of the Board of Education, stated that because of the lack of state funding to education, property taxes of the residents of Belleville are in danger of another substantial increase.

"Governor Florio has asked for a cut of between $500,000 and $700,000 in funding to the Belleville school system," Yanuzzi said. "This means that our local taxpayers would have to pay this difference. To pass this cost along to our taxpayers is an outrage, and I will not stand for it."

Yanuzzi stated that if elected, he would propose that Mayor and Council resolve an immediate appeal to the Governor and the Legislature to restore funding to education in order to protect the taxpayers of Belleville.

"The school aid formula has been fully funded only once in the last nine years under Governors Kean and Florio," Yanuzzi continued. "School aid from the state has a direct impact on property taxes in Belleville, and this non-funding can not continue. I am most disturbed that as a school board member, Governor Florio would offer such drastic cuts in state aid, especially after school boards were most accommodating to him by allowing the new governor an extra three weeks to prepare the budget."

"The Governor and the Legislature must be made aware to realize that the taxpayers simply can not afford these mounting increases," he stated. "They must be told that we will not stand for them. People shouldn't be forced from their homes to pay for spending sprees of a few politicians in Trenton. As Councilman, I will be Belleville's voice for a fair share of state aid."

Richard Yanuzzi serves as a member of the Board of Education and as an aide to Assemblywoman Marion Greco. He is seeking election to the Second Ward council seat in the May 8 municipal election.

Cathleen Noonan

As a working woman and a mother I look at my four children as security for the future. As I grow older I like to think that my children's families will be a source of enrichment in my life so that I don't feel that my future will be bleak and empty.

In my job as manager of a busy medical office, I see many senior citizens who don't have the comfort of a family, or even worse, they have a family that doesn't care or can't be bothered.

I want to reach out to those lonesome single seniors and put meaning back into their lives.

As a woman and a mother, I do care. I will be available to all the seniors, but I will be especially looking out for the citizens who may be forgotten and lonesome.

Joseph Fornarotto

On May 8, 1990, I will seek election as a Councilman At-Large in the Township of Belleville.

I believe this to be the most important election in the history of our township.

Under this newly adopted form of government (Council-Manager) there will be a total of seven councilmen or councilwomen. Three (3) of the seven (7) will be elected At-Large, four (4) will be elected in designated wards.

In 1988, after my retirement, I dedicated my entire time as a full-time Commissioner in the Department of Public Affairs, to personally handle any citizens' problems or complaints and followed through with possible solutions.

Through combined efforts with Essex County, the Department of Public Affairs was able to provide our seniors with a new senior bus. The department also recently purchased a new and up-to-date cholesterol machine that serves our citizens free of charge.

Senior Citizen Housing should be our top priority. I have been advocating this for a long time. Hopefully, it will become a reality. Also, rent subsidy is needed for those people who are having a difficult time making ends meet.

I believe a centralized repair garage should be set up for all town vehicles.

As a life-long resident of the township and during the past 20 years, I have been actively involved in municipal matters.

I believe that my three years of experience in municipal government qualify me to serve as a Councilman of the township.

Tom Spillane

One of the objectives that I seek to attain as the Third Ward Councilman is to both recognize and address the needs of the youth of Belleville. From my own observations gained while raising three children in town and in talking to the youth of Belleville it is quite evident that there has been a lack of attention to this area.

In order to determine what the needs of our teenagers really are it would first be necessary to set up an advisory group. The advisory group would have to include both teenagers and adults.

Some things are so evident though that we don't need an advisory group to tell us what is wrong.

When teenagers have to hang around at the high school parking lot at night, something is wrong. In other communities within our area there are recreation centers for the teenagers to go to at night. We don't have a recreation center for our youth, but we do have school buildings which are not being used at night. In order for the municipal government to use school buildings as recreation centers it would require cooperation between the Board of Education and the Town Council and Manager.

This type of cooperation has been practiced for a long time in Belleville, but unfortunately it has been done to a very limited degree. If we in Belleville are really serious about keeping our youth away from drugs and out of trouble, we can find places where our teens can engage in some wholesome activities and do it at a minimum cost to the taxpayer. I would limit the use of school gyms for Belleville students and residents and off duty police officers could be hired to ensure safety. Basketball, dancing and even talking are activities that need only a place to occur. Parents will know that their children have an alcohol and drug free place to go.

Marina C. Perna

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the fervid enthusiasm with which you welcomed my petitions and candidacy for council-at-large. I appreciate your comments and suggestions on the various issues regarding taxes, services, the business community, senior citizens and social welfare. I earnestly can say that I share your same concerns and grievances, and I intend to address these issues effectively.

As a life-long resident of Belleville, I am well aware of the deep-rooted problems that have plagued our system and hindered efficient government. As a graduate of Belleville High School, I am familiar with the needs of the students and teachers alike. I believe in the promotion and development of a rigorous school system, because education is the backbone of society. If our children fall behind, then collectively we suffer a detriment. Only by the success of its individual citizens can Belleville retain recognition as a fine community.

An Orechio Publication

As an attorney at law, I hope to make a contribution to Belleville by giving back to the people some of the benefits of the legal expertise I have acquired. State and federal resources must be tapped in order to bolster our local economy. We must seek assistance from our legislators.

The Township of Belleville is at a critical juncture in its history. The new council-manager form of government chosen by the people, no doubt requires the hiring of a competent expert to oversee public matters. To the same extent, and perhaps more importantly, a professional council must be elected who can comprehend the intricacies of the city manager's proposals and make recommendations in accordance with Belleville's demands.

As an advocate I wish to serve as a vehicle through which the citizens at large express themselves. I will work towards maintaining reason and order in effectively implementing public policies. We are starting over again. Let us bring pride and professionalism back to Belleville. Let your vote evidence the desire to effect change.

Frank J. Noonan

In all our day to day dealings there is nothing more specific than the fourth commandment — "Honor thy father and thy mother." To do otherwise would be to go against the will of God.

This means to give RESPECT to my mother and father, your mother and father, and all the elderly, whether they are parents or not. The elderly are the members of society most vulnerable to sudden changes, whether these changes are social or economic.

Sudden increases in taxes, cost of food, clothing and housing strikes terror in the hearts of our elderly. These folks realize that they don't have the vigor, strength and earning power that they had in their youth. In truth, they are not looking for "freebies," they are looking for security.

Yes, I intend to follow the will of God and respect the wishes and needs of our seniors, whether I am elected or not. This is one commandment that I make every effort to keep.

Township voters approved a referendum last year to change from the commission form of government to the council-manager form. The council-manager form of municipal government is defined by the Faulkner Act.

Under the new council form of government, the newly elected council will elect the mayor from among the seven person council. The mayor's term will be for two years.

The council must also hire a municipal manager who will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the township.

Other municipal boards such as the Planning Board and the Zoning Board will be appointed by the council after it takes effect July 1.

Drawing for ballot position will be held in Town Hall on March 26 at 3 p.m.

OUR OPINION

A fighting chance

We have a tendency to brush off the problems of the world especially if they don't hit us where we constantly feel them, such as a bad toothache might. For the most part, we go on with our lives, day to day, as if maybe it will get better. Maybe tomorrow we'll put off a few things and get down to working harder to make our lives a little bit easier. But that's just maybe. Otherwise, if it doesn't hurt, why bother to fix it. We'll get by. We always have gotten by.

We have the tendency to figure, "Aw, what the heck, nobody needs my help. They'll get along fine. If somebody needed me, they'd ask me. I never say no. But if no one asks me, I'll just mind my own business. Life's not great, but hey, it's okay."

We have a tendency to slough off some responsibility for the world, by claiming that we only live in a very small part of it. And anyway, what can one person do?

Not much. Or so they say.

We've seen some signs of encouragement lately. From satellite pictures we've seen one man hold off a tank. We've seen the cry of freedom torn down a wall. And we've seen a lot of little people right here in town band together to save a school. For now.

And also in town we've seen the nucleus of concern growing about how to fight off invading drugs and drug dealers whose targets are the lives and souls of our children. It's not something to be taken lightly. Our children are targets, and their souls are the bullseye.

There's not one parent in town who can honestly say he hasn't worried about his child's exposure to drugs, whether it's in school, on the playground, from the movies or from TV. The kids are well aware that drugs are out there. And the "Just say no" slogan has caught on. But it's not enough. Our kids deserve more than a fighting chance. They deserve our help in constructing every roadblock between them and the drug dealers who would have their lives and souls.

A good start in town has been the purchase of drug education curriculum called "Here's Looking At You 2000" which has been provided to three elementary schools on a rotating basis. The curriculum is expensive. It should be in every school so that our children can receive positive reinforcement to know when and how to say no, not only to drugs, but to peer pressure, too.

The spearhead group behind raising the funds, about $25,000, to purchase enough of the intensive, comprehensive drug education curriculum guides to provide every township school with at least one guide, is called the Belleville Alliance for Substance Education, BASE.

BASE isn't some alien organization rousing the good people of town to separate them from their money. BASE is, as the name implies, a Belleville organization, and their activities encompass efforts to make both the citizens and the children of Belleville more aware of the substance abuse menace choking communities around us.

Of course nothing happens without money. And money doesn't fall from the sky, it never did and it never will. The people of BASE, your neighbors, have tried to raise the money for the guides right here in the community. So far, they've received commitments for about $9,000. Just $16,000 more and every school in town could have its own drug education curriculum guide.

Certain people would like to say that since the guides would be used in school, then the school should pay for it. Believe it, our school administrators would love to purchase the guides outright, but, as they say, to work it into the budget could take years. Rationally, we all must stop and think just how many little lives would be lost if we had to wait that long. The school board has committed $5,000 of an easement it received towards the purchase of the guides, but any other money coming for the program is as delicate as the passing of the school budget April 24.

We've all got a chance to see what BASE is all about at their next meeting March 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the High School library on Passaic Ave. It's an "Adults Only" event, and every parent who knows nothing about drugs in our town should make every effort to attend. Most importantly, two experts in the field of substance awareness will be on-hand to share their insights into the menace around us.

Detective Sergeant Joseph Rotonda from Belleville's Narcotics Squad will discuss the illegal use of drugs and the penetration these substances have in our community. Rotonda sees the drug menace every day in his job, and he will share some of his expertise on the signs of substance abuse.

Also on hand will be pharmacist Bill Lynch of Good Health Pharmacy, who will address the illegal use of legal drugs. Lynch has visited classrooms throughout town to enlighten our children about substance abuse.

Here in town, we've seen the needle and the damage done. We've lost too many of our children and friends to this scourge upon our house. Our children are targets, some of them have been hit and have fallen, gone forever. Others limp along. And yet, the healthy, untouched young ones have to be helped before they too are slain, they have to be given a fighting chance, or all will be lost.

We've got to make the most of these two opportunities to save our kids, we've got to learn more about how to fight the drug menace at our doorstep from the experts who know, and we've got to support the BASE committee in their pursuit of the curriculum guides for our kids. It's time to get involved, our children are at stake.

YOUR OPINION

Interest in education

To the editor:

As a Belleville resident for eighteen years, with two children currently attending Belleville schools, I have a sincere interest in the education and welfare of our children. With 31 years as an educator, I can be most effective as a board of education trustee. I have the experience and knowledge to enhance programs by seeking available county, state and federal funds. Since I have initiated and assisted in obtaining many grants for the Newark Board of Education, I am familiar with funding that might be applicable to our township. Together, we should develop means to enhance our school facilities for recreational and senior citizen activities.

The privilege to vote for the person of your choice is an American right not shared by many peoples of the world. Exercise this right on April 24. Your vote affects your children, my children, our tax dollars and the future of all of us. Remember the children of today are the leaders of tomorrow.

Ralph B. Mazzuca
Board of Education
Candidate (one year term)

Thanks supporters

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank each and every person who encouraged me to seek a council-at-large seat in the upcoming May election. Under normal circumstances I would have written an individual note to everyone thanking them and explaining my reasons for not seeking the position at this time. However, on Wednesday evening, March 14th, my car was broken into and several items were stolen. Among the items missing were my signed petitions.

I am honored by the swell of support that my possible candidacy garnered in such a short period of time, and I am honored by the confidence that so many of you placed in me. Unfortunately, at this time, my career does not lend itself to the flexibility the council seat demands to properly serve the community of Belleville.

I wish all the candidates much luck and hope to be able to lend any assistance necessary to the Township of Belleville as we move forward into the 1990's. There are tremendous possibilities for our community, and I am sure that our new leaders will be well equipped to lead us in those directions.

Nancy L. Cimino

Save our school

To the editor:

The Belleville Board of Education is holding a meeting March 26 at 8 p.m. at the High School auditorium.

School No. 9 PTA is asking all parents of the school and people of the "Valley" to attend this meeting. The Board of Education is strongly considering closing School No. 9. The Board of Education has already taken away one school in our area. Don't let them take School No. 9 too!

If the Board of Education is successful and closes School No. 9, they will be isolating an entire section of town, and it will lower the property value on our homes!

Belleville has always been based on the "Neighborhood School Concept." If they close School No. 9 we will not have a neighborhood school. The children will have quite a distance to go to school.

Most importantly, think of how it will affect our children! They have grown to love our school, they need it, and are entitled to it!

School No. 9 PTA

Thanks signers

To the editor:

I would like to thank everyone who attended my breakfast at the Bella Casa. You made it a great start to what is going to be a campaign which surely will lead to my election to councilman on May 8th.

I am looking forward to meeting all of the people of the 3rd Ward as I go door to door in the next six weeks. Again I want to thank all my supporters and a special thanks to all those who signed my petitions to put my name on the ballot.

Kevin G. Kennedy
3rd Ward Council Candidate

BOE spectacle

To the editor:

On Monday March 12 I witnessed a spectacle, the likes of which I believe are very detrimental to the Belleville Board of Education and which were at the very least, outrageously ignorant.

I am referring to the words of board member Nazzioia, at a meeting which was very important to the present and future parents and students of School 9.

When asked by Mrs. Joanne Verderamo of Ralph St., who has a son in School 9, about a past meeting when it was stated that there was no mention of closing School 9, Mr. (and I use this title with very little respect) Nazzioia finished his answer with "either Mr. Canning smokes funny cigarettes or you do not hear too well."

Later, Mrs. Joan Current stated that she believed he owed Mr. Canning an apology. Mr. Nazzioia responded, and when Mrs. Current made a remark he told her to "shut your mouth."

I believe everybody in the audience was both stunned and outraged at Mr. Nazzioia's remarks. I, for one, think Mr. Nazzioia owes both the audience and the rest of the board an apology for his ignorant behavior.

I am sure there will be an answer forthcoming to this letter from Mr. Nazzioia, but I do not intend to carry on a "battle of letters to the editor."

Suffice it to say that I do not intend to vote for Mr. Nazzioia in his quest for councilman at large and I will tell my family and friends not to vote for him either.

Mr. Nazzioia won his seat on the board of ed by a very slim margin to a virtually unknown candidate last year, and I wonder after this last spectacle of his, how he will fare in future elections.

George Simon

Register to vote

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who made my campaign kickoff breakfast the very success that it was.

On March 4th at the Chandelier Restaurant I was honored by all who attended and hope that everyone had a good time as I did.

April 11th I will be hosting a get acquainted rally at the Amvets Hall, 100 Newark Ave. If you are a registered voter in Ward 1 please attend and introduce yourself — however, by then I should expect that I will have met at least 50 percent of you by canvassing our area.

If anyone who reads this letter is eighteen years old or older, and is not a registered voter, or knows of anyone who is not a registered voter, please feel free to call me, or my wife Marie at 751-5890 and someone will be available to you with registration cards and instructions on filling them out. Our goal is to win an election, but more importantly it is to educate ourselves as to why Belleville lacks the charisma it once had.

Hard work and cooperation have not been a part of Belleville politics for some three years and a change of government has been made. We must now take advantage of that change by electing and appointing qualified leaders. That can only be achieved in the voting booth.

May 8th is not very far off so please listen carefully to what every candidate has to say. It will affect you and it will affect your town.

Once again thank you all and please remember that "good leadership can make a difference!"

Jim Messina
Council candidate 1st Ward

New tulip Avenue

To the editor:

Many years have passed, and for the past and present elected officials, no one had the foresight or guts to improve the condition that exists on our main thoroughfare, Washington Ave.

Each corner has a sewer trap and just take a look at each grade covered with garbage, take a look at the sight, the moment you make a right turn on Belleville Ave., garbage all over and in empty lot (back of building) look at the dirt near the gutters and sidewalks, deplorable, and how! Look at all the fly-by-night (temporary) business signs hanging on store fronts.

Notice how many people put their flimsy stacked garbage bags and containers, days earlier before garbage pickups. Also note the conditions of sidewalks and some gutters at many areas. Oh yes, the only thing that has been added to the main Washington Ave. area is a sprinkle of tulips. Wow! This is what one calls great dedication.

An open suggestion to our elected officials, would you like to see a well kept, thoroughfare? You won't have far to travel, only minutes away to Nutley. See their main avenue Franklin Ave., what a tremendous, beautiful, pleasurable difference. Franklin Ave. in Nutley is indeed clean, the sidewalks are beautiful. They look like they were laid in tile with a light reddish color — their gutters have been all upgraded and set in a beautiful standup position. Signs on each business store are professional and permanent looking, looking very inviting for business. But, most important, look at the street itself, well-kept (no pot holes) and clean.

As a reminder to our elected officials before you try to confuse the electorate of Belleville, do take this trip to Nutley and really see the big difference, which no one here in Belleville has taken the concentration and time in beautifying the poorly kept looking condition of Washington Ave.

There is a saying, a new broom sweeps clean, so with this approaching election, let's hope that none of you elected officials have the nerve to place your name on the ballot.

If I'm correct you all were against this change of government, so in good conscience, please don't try to confuse us in you wanting to get elected again.

I think we have enough tulips planted now, and don't intend to have Washington Ave. change its name to Tulip Ave., and for tulips all we get in return is tax increases.

Al V. Cerino

Yellers are now spenders

To the editor:

I have been reading the Belleville newspapers for the past five or six years. I like the letters by a Mr. Vander Zwan, he never finds any fault with Commissioner Frantantonio. Here a man, along with many others, in 1986 and 1987 helped defeat the $10 million bond for the new town hall complex. Now, let's keep in mind this complex was to hold all "FIVE" town departments and the Board of Education. It was also to have a parking garage.

Now, in 1987 there was not this big change of government like some would like you to believe. Two commissioners decided not to seek re-election. Commissioner Pizzi at the time had led the reduction of the bond to $5 million in 1986-87. Now in 1987 the new board of commissioners went out to bid on the police complex. The bid came back for the whole project at a price of $3,464,480 and it didn't include the architect's fees of $800,000.

Also, let's remember due to Vinny screaming about the complex, the drawings had to be redone. Commissioners' Frantantonio, Risoli and Fornarotto voted no to the bid and the building died.

Now a year later, they're spending the $5 million bond, spent over $80,000 for a house on Valley Street, are now trying to buy a lot and another house on the south side of Belleville Ave., that'll most likely cost $300,000.

So, for $8 million or more we're going to get one department. Remember when you go vote May 8th, that the ones that yelled the loudest in 1987 are now the spenders of our hard-earned tax dollars.

If this makes sense to you to spend this money for one department, I urge you to vote for the ones who are costing us this money. If they get elected maybe they will build new buildings for each department!

Cathy Gaingeruso

Ask Jesus — He Knows

A small boy was sitting on the living room rug surrounded by parts of a toy he was trying to assemble. His father sat nearby, watching as his son's frustration grew with each unsuccessful attempt. Finally in total exasperation the boy threw the pieces he was holding onto the floor.

"I've done everything I know to do," he wailed at his father, "and still nothing works! I can't get it together!" "No, son," his father replied, "you haven't done everything."

"What haven't I done?" the child demanded. His father replied, "You haven't asked me to help."

Sometimes a simple truth is the answer to a complicated situation. How many times have you faced some decision and you were not sure what to do. You were in agony about it. Perhaps just as you were ready to give up, you remembered: Ask Jesus. He knows. After you took a few minutes to inform the Lord fully about the mess you were in, and maybe managed an apology for not including Him earlier, you received your answer. Somehow the Lord managed to work things out without any help from you.

The Apostle James said in his letter: "If any of you lack wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given him." (James 1:5)

Ours is a troubled world where demonic forces twist our motives and soil our weaknesses, fears, resentments, prideful thoughts, and secret sins. Yet we know that nothing is hidden from God's eyes. The Lord already knows all there is to know about us and our problems; yet He loves us anyway and stands ready to offer His help when we turn and ask Him.

When we finally turn and ask, it doesn't mean there will be an immediate answer. Sometimes, there is, but more often there isn't. Yet just to share openly and honestly with the One who already knows puts us in a place to be strengthened and encouraged. "The battle is the Lord's" (1 Samuel 17:47). Victory in any struggle seems nearer when we realize we do not fight the battle alone. ASK JESUS — HE KNOWS!

Church tax disturbing

To the editor:

Allen Ciccone's suggestion that Church property be taxed may create a situation that even he would find disturbing. If he stated correctly that my property tax is higher by $80 a year (or about $1.54 a week) because Belleville's Churches do not pay such tax, I have a sigh of relief in gratitude for the bargain I am receiving.

How much more than $80 would be due if a school, such as St. Peter's, had to close because of the Church's inability to pay both a property tax and the costs of maintaining the school. The large number of children who would have to be assigned to the public school system would necessitate our Township furnishing space, hiring personnel of various classifications, obtain additional supplies, and so on, at a cost too staggering to imagine.

Mr. Ciccone speaks of the First Amendment to the Constitution without indicating that it reads:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

Unfortunately the meaning of the Amendment, declared in force since 1791, has of recent years been so twisted in interpretation that sanity has become a victim. How can Mr. Ciccone think that this Amendment prohibits a property tax exemption for a Church?

Article 1, Section 3, of the Constitution of New Jersey reads:

"No person shall be deprived of the inestimable privilege of worshipping Almighty God in a manner agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; nor, under any pretense whatever, to be compelled to attend any place of worship contrary to his faith and judgment; nor shall any person be obliged to pay tithes, taxes, or other rates for building or repairing any church or churches, place or places of worship, or for the maintenance of any minister or ministry, contrary to what he believes to be right, or has deliberately and voluntarily engaged to perform."

Mr. Ciccone chose to given an excerpt, and the capitalization of the word taxes are his own. The meaning of Section 3 becomes clear when it is read in its entirety.

As of now, I do not know where to find the quotation of Benjamin Franklin mentioned by Mr. Ciccone. If he were to furnish the source, I should like to research it.

Mr. Ciccone, please take to heart the meaning of the Preamble to New Jersey's Constitution.

Save School No. 9

To the editor:

An open letter to all Belleville citizens:

School No. 9 must remain open. We can not allow the Board of Education to close another school in Belleville. It will surely be the death of the Valley. We can not allow sections of our town to be sacrificed.

The littlest school in Belleville will be missed by the 115 students and families that presently attend School No. 9, but should be missed by everyone in town.

Class sizes are becoming more manageable throughout the system. A teacher can do a much better job of teaching with a smaller number of students in class. A class size of 16 to 18 children is ideal. Our future lies with these children. We have the duty and responsibility to see that each and every student receives the best education possible, if that means smaller class sizes — so be it. We can not be pennywise and pound foolish.

As a School No. 9 alumni, perhaps I am a little sentimental. But I do believe every child should have the right to attend school in their own neighborhood.

SAVE SCHOOL NINE!

Values endorsement

To the editor:

The following letter was sent to "The Citizens for a Better Belleville":

Thank you for endorsing my candidacy to be the Third Ward Councilman. I know that your organization went to great lengths to select qualified candidates for the upcoming May 8 election. I am also well aware of the hard work that your organization did in order to bring the Council Manager form of government to Belleville.

Knowing your endorsement means that I am one of the persons that you are willing to entrust the success of that government is very humbling. The only promise I make to you is that, when elected, I will do everything in my power to make the new form of government work for the benefit of all of the people of Belleville. I realize that I must work harder each day until election, in order to turn this promise into performance. Being able to carry your valued endorsement will make that work a little easier.

Tom Spillane

America! America!

To the editor:

On March 12 I had the misfortune of attending the Board of Education meeting. I was appalled by the conduct of two of our board members. The people should attend some meetings and they will observe how rude and arrogant those officials they elected are.

A citizen (Ippolito) was recognized at the citizens portion of the meeting to speak. Before he had a chance to blink his eyes, our president (D'Agostino) cautioned him about the 5-minute rule. The citizen tried to complain about the shoddy work that was done at the Middle School (painting) and I believe he also used the word "shoddy." He was repeatedly interrupted by the president which flustered the citizen. The president told him his 5 minutes were up and the citizen tried to talk.

The president then recognized another speaker and that speaker walked to the microphone and started to speak, causing Ippolito to move away and eventually sit down.

Prior to this, another rude and arrogant board member (Nazziola) spoke to Ippolito and cautioned him about his remarks. He went on to use a now famous word in the vocabulary of the board members "slander." Gabe, your remark in reference to what another person does was the most distasteful one ever uttered at any meeting held in our town and I have no doubt it was "slandorous." You went on to advise Ippolito to contact the Public Advocate's office because you were tired of hearing his complaint.

When the first speaker was rudely gagged and the next speaker started to complain about the baseball field and that complaint has been brought up over and over and over again, not once did our president caution or tried to invoke the 5-minute rule. The speaker went on and on and on.

Why president, to my and many others' disgust did you gag one speaker and allow another to carry on and on.

One of our problems lies at the feet of our legislators in Trenton. A law should be passed forbidding or barring teachers from sitting as trustees on boards of education. Recently, we had 5 out of 7 board members who are or were teachers, running our schools and I think that is a conflict. At the present time, we have 4 out of 7 who are teachers or have children that are.

Our board members have become smug, rude and arrogant, simply because there are not enough people running for the seats. Take this year — 2 seats open, 2 people running. Last year — 3 seats open, 4 people running. Those being elected think that the people have flocked to them are sadly mistaken. A word of advice to all of the seven: There is a new breath of fresh air stirring in Belleville and some day it will blow into and through the board, and then we will have elected officials who will put children and people first and not their own selfish motives.

Live within our means

To the editor:

With the $1 billion budget gap being faced by our State government, it has become apparent that when our local governments raise their budgets dramatically over the previous year's spending, they can no longer expect the Federal or State governments to bail them out. The stream of Federal funding has slowed to a trickle over the last few years in attempts to balance the Federal deficits.

Governor Florio is now proposing raising our State Sales and Income Taxes and eliminating the present Homestead Rebate and the Ford Act, which allows homeowners to defer their property taxes and renters to deduct a portion of their rent from their State Income Taxes. In return, the Governor proposes giving $1.25 billion back to municipalities in state aid.

The problem with this plan is that a majority of the funds go to Newark, East Orange, Jersey City, Elizabeth, Camden, Paterson, Passaic and Trenton, while Belleville gets thrown a bone of usually less than $1 million. The savings in property taxes, through state aid, is outweighed greatly by the increase in Sales and Income Taxes paid by Belleville residents, resulting in a net loss to Belleville taxpayers. Also, the state aid given is only guaranteed for one year, while the increase in state taxes is permanent.

The only long term solution is for municipalities to learn to live within their means and stop extravagant government spending. Although state law allows only a 5 percent spending cap increase per year, so many line items have been given an exemption from the law that municipal budgets have at times increased by 10 percent or more per year. When a municipality creates a budget that requires an increase in taxes of greater than 5 percent and then seeks Federal or State aid to offset the increase, it is the equivalent of a child who leaves home to live on his own, lives beyond his means, and then return to his parents to bail him out.

Municipalities must learn to be responsible and clean up their own act by eliminating unnecessary positions, promotions and inefficient programs. Any critics to this philosophy need only take an example from our own Belleville commissioners, some of whom have had as much as a 10 percent surplus left in their budget which they applied toward stabilizing our taxes for the next fiscal year. As a candidate for Second Ward Councilman, I would encourage the recruitment of a Town Manager who would apply this philosophy to all Belleville departments and I would endorse any policies he may make to promote more efficient town services in a cost effective manner to stabilize our municipal tax rate.

Co-op class learns work etiquette

Bill Cook, a co-generation utilities manager with Hoffmann-La Roche, recently addressed the combined cooperative education classes at Belleville High School. Cook's topic was "Etiquette in the Work Place." His presentation dealt with those skills needed for acceptable behavior in the office, shop, or work place.

The main areas discussed were personal appearance, telephone manners, office gossip and politics, handling conflicts, smoking at work, attitudes toward co-workers, work space, appearance and punctuality.

Cook reminded the students that the work place is designed for work and not to party. "We live in a complex society and we must learn to negotiate conflicts that occur between workers," Cook said. "Ambition and drive are good traits but getting ahead should not be at the expense of others. A general rule to follow is, what is good for the employer is usually good for you and your career."

Cook's presentation is part of the Business On Parade program sponsored by the Belleville High School Vocational Advisory Council. The program is designed to develop a link between the school and local businesses. Representatives are asked to come into the school and discuss topics that are of importance to a student's success in the work place and on the job.

High school future engineers visit Rutgers University

Future engineers from Belleville High School attended the Engineering Your Career Program on Feb. 28 at Rutgers University in Piscataway. The day featured a number of exciting engineering displays presented by such engineering corporations as AT&T, Johnson Engineering Incorporated, Edwards & Kelcey, Inc., and Malcolm Pirnie.

Also, representatives from universities such as Fairleigh Dickinson, Rutgers, Stevens Institute and NJIT met with the students to discuss the admittance procedures and opportunities offered by each respective university.

The day centered around a discussion of "The Role of the Engineer in the 1990s," featuring engineering experts providing an overview of their areas of expertise and responding to student needs.

Because of their interest in engineering and their high ability in mathematics and science, the following students attended the program under the supervision of Dr. Richard Benninger, director of Student Personnel Services, and Michael Lemongello, mathematics supervisor: Ara Akian, Albert Balkiewicz, Jennifer Best, Vincent DeBenedetto, Marcelo Di Giano, Peter Doraz, Justine Ernst, Judy Krych, Joe Mauriello, Lisa Petracca, Kej Salnz, Patricia Sisto, Connie Tong, Michael Trezza, and Jackie Warnock.

Math students earn honors

On Feb. 28, thirty three of the best mathematical students at Belleville High School participated in the 41st Annual American High School Mathematics Contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association, the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, and the American Mathematical Society. The local results of this very competitive and rigorous exam are as follows: tied for third place are Emilio DeGua and Joseph Ombalsky, tied for second place are John Matos and Gaurav Nagia, and the winner is Dale Waskowski. All five students will be honored at the Raymond O. Smith Scholastic Awards program in May.

BHS students to visit college

Belleville High School has been working closely with Bloomfield College in a variety of ways. During the week of April 23 Belleville High School students will spend a day on the campus of Bloomfield College.

Interested students will be transported to the campus, exposed to college-level classes, fed in the college cafeteria, and transported back to Belleville. Students who are interested in attending the program may sign up with their counselors on a first-come first-served basis.

Andrew Nelson, dean of admissions, and Evans Herman, counselor, recently spent a morning in Belleville's English for Speakers of Other Languages classes. They reviewed the opportunities available at Bloomfield College for students from other countries. Bloomfield College has received national recognition for its ESL Program.

At a special statewide event to be held at Stevens Institute of Technology on April 4, to honor her selection, Leffelbine will receive a citation plaque that will be displayed at Belleville High School.

In addition, a check for $1,000 made out to Belleville High School will be presented to Joseph Ciccone, principal, in her honor. Belleville High School is proud that one of its teachers has been selected especially when the competition was statewide.

Parmenter earns scholarship at Berkeley Business school

Marc Parmenter of Belleville is the recipient of a partial-tuition scholarship to the Garret Mountain campus of Berkeley College of Business, West Paterson.

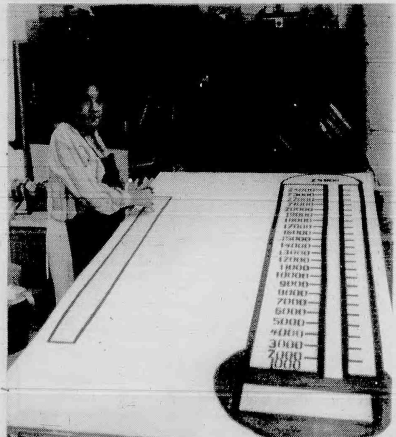

The Berkeley Alumni Association scholarships, awarded by competitive examinations, are part of a $2 million package in direct tuition aid to students which Berkeley provides annually.

Parmenter is enrolled in Berkeley's 18-month business administration program, which offers options for specialization in marketing, management and accounting and leads to an Associate in Applied Science degree.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parmenter, he is a student at Belleville High School, where he is a member of Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA).

Pre-schoolers at Wise Owl Nursery School are preparing to celebrate the "Week of the Young Child," sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

'Week of the Young Child' begins

Kicking off the "Week of the Young Child," sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children, Wise Owl Nursery School will host an "Open House" Saturday, March 31 from 10 a.m. to noon.

Charzewski joins college fraternity

Jessica Charzewski of Belleville, a junior at Caldwell College, was recently inducted into the Gamma Gamma Chapter of Kappa Delta Epsilon, an honorary professional education fraternity.

At their recent meeting, Clara Hall, National President, and Dr. Frances Carter, Executive Director of Kappa Delta Epsilon, presented the formal charter to Caldwell College and inducted the College's 23 students and 3 faculty members into the fraternity.

Invitation to membership was extended to all full-time certification candidates who have been formally accepted into the Education Department and have achieved at least a 3.0 GPA.

Project Children student exchange plans fundraisers

Project Children, the nonprofit organization that brings children from Northern Ireland to the New Jersey-New York area each summer for freedom vacations, has begun its 1990 program and fundraising effort.

Last year the program brought 755 Protestant and Catholic boys and girls 10 to 12 years of age to the area, 240 to New Jersey. This year's goal is to raise sufficient funds to bring 800 children.

Host applications are now being distributed by area coordinators to interested families.

Joseph Barry of Bloomfield, a coordinator of the New Jersey effort, said the cost incurred by host families in the program is limited to the expense of providing their guests food and shelter for the six weeks of their stay, which will be from June 21 to Aug. 2 this year.

The Greenlake Lake, New York-based program was begun in 1975 by Denis Mulcahy, a New York City police officer. In the last 14 years more than 5,000 children have visited the United States under the program.

"Unfortunately, the need for Project Children continues as violence, death and military occupation are normal things to a child of Northern Ireland," Barry said.

"It continues to be a place where all children, Catholic or Protestant, well off or poor, are deprived of a normal childhood as we know it."

Host applications and more information about the program is available from the coordinators below.

Located at 617 Washington Ave., Belleville, Wise Owl recently celebrated its twentieth year in business.

The National Association for the Education of Young Children is highlighting the "Week of the Young Child," (April 1-7) by having nursery schools conduct special programs for the public.

The association offers professional development opportunities to early childhood educators designed to improve the quality of services to children from birth to eight years of age — the critical years of development. This year's theme is, Quality child care: Good beginnings never end.

Wise Owl sees this as a great opportunity to invite the public to see a well-established quality pre-school. The staff hopes graduates of Wise Owl as well as prospective students will stop by for a visit.

Wise Owl accepts children ages 3-5 for a 2½ hour pre-school program.

School 9 students tour state through colorful slide show

Scott Butterfield from the New Jersey Center for Environmental Studies conducted a slide tour of New Jersey to boys and girls of School No. 9 on Friday, March 16. The tour showed slides of the cultural and natural history of landmark sites in the state.

Without leaving Belleville, the children toured High Point, Sandy Hook, Jockey Hollow, the Pine Barrens and Cape May. They were treated to close-ups of various birds, flowers, trees and lakes found in these areas. A question and answer period followed the presentation.

Jordan Toro, a 4th grader, indicated that the program was very educational.

Michael Ansetta, also a 4th grader, said he like how they illustrated all the interesting places that he now wants to visit the Pinelands.

"It was fun learning about all the interesting places that New Jersey has to offer," said fellow student Stacy Trefsgar.

SHIP volunteers help seniors fill out medical paperwork

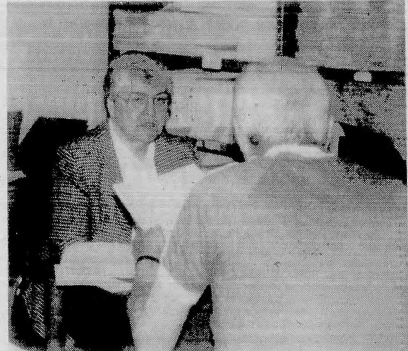

For many, the most frightening part of a hospital stay is not the surgery or the tests or the stay itself, but sorting out the mountains of paperwork that invariably follow upon discharge.

For Clara Maass Medical Center volunteer Betty McIntee, that's where the challenge begins. Betty, a retired home health claims coordinator and a volunteer at the medical center since 1986, serves as a Senior Health Insurance Program (SHIP) representative.

The SHIP program recently begun at Clara Maass is a service sponsored by the Essex County Division on Aging and Community Affairs. As a trained SHIP representative, it is Betty's job to assist senior citizens who have difficulty filling out claim forms for Medicare, or supplemental insurance; who need assistance in sorting out supplemental insurance policies; or who just have questions regarding health insurance in general.

In addition to Betty, there are three trained volunteers who offer free assistance to senior citizens. For an appointment with a SHIP volunteer, call 450-2150.

SHIP VOLUNTEER Betty McIntee assists senior citizens with the paperwork which accompanies a stay in the hospital.

MEDICALLY SPEAKING
SINUS DISEASE
Q: What is sinus disease?
A: Sinus disease is an inflammation of the air-containing cavities of the nose, face, and forehead.
Q: What are the symptoms of Sinus Disease?
A: Chronic sinusitis can include nasal congestion, pain or pressure of the eyes and forehead, nasal obstruction or nasal drip, or simply the sensation of a cold that doesn't go away.
Q: How is sinus disease treated?
A: Most sinus disease resolves with medical treatment, which includes antibiotic and allergy therapy.
Q: What about sinus disease that does not respond to treatment?
A: In more severe cases with chronic blockage or polyps, surgery may be indicated.
Q: Are there recent advances in the diagnosis of sinus disease?
A: Yes. With fiberoptic examination of the nose and sinuses in the office and advanced CT scan imaging, doctors are able to accurately diagnose sinus disease.
Q: Are there any recent advances in sinus surgery?
A: Yes. Recently introduced endoscopic sinus surgery is a major breakthrough in the treatment of sinus disease. This surgery makes use of micro-telescopic techniques with no external incisions. These new techniques allow the surgeon to perform safer and more effective surgery. Most often the surgery can be performed with anesthesia on an outpatient basis. Recovery time is usually rapid with patients returning to their normal activities within days.

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Despite a difficult girls' varsity basketball campaign, the future has tremendous promise, according to coach Karen Fuccello. The JV and freshman teams had good campaigns, and the coach feels if the athletes continue to work hard, excellence could result.

"If all depends on them now," Fuccello said. "If the kids play during the off season and do the things that are necessary to improve, we could do pretty good in the next couple of years."

The JV team, under the direction of veteran coach Debbie Meola, posted a 4-12 record, but that mark is deceiving when you consider the constant turnover on the JV team.

"What you have to remember about the JV is the lineup is never set," Fuccello said. "If the varsity game is a 4 p.m. game, then the JV players know how many quarters they can play. But if the JV game is first, we have to watch how many quarters the kids play, because we might need them to play more varsity than anticipated."

Meola, of course, is not new to the girls' basketball program. The unsung coach, Meola first joined Fuccello's staff in the Fall of 1976 and has served as her assistant ever since. It's not often that an assistant will stay on for that long a period, but Meola is a teacher first and seems to enjoy her role of working with the younger players.

Although the team posted a 4-12 mark, four of the losses were by two or three points.

The leading scorer on this years team was Colleen Mannion. The sophomore also saw a good deal of action on the varsity. Mannion led the JV team with an 11 ppg average. Her best offensive showing was a 21 point effort against a solid Bloomfield team.

Jennifer Abrams was the second leading scorer for the team averaging about 8 ppg. Like Mannion, Abrams also saw action on the varsity team.

Other girls who started for the JV team include Dana Damiano, Mary Campbell and Yanina Calvi.

Sophomores who saw extensive JV action include Erica Gomez, Debbie Ciallella, Carey Woodruff, Johnetta Smith, Lisa Galloway, Neehemah Sheppard and Darlin Illera.

The freshman team, under the direction of coach Karen Portuese posted its first winning campaign in six years. The girls were 8-6 and posted some impressive victories. Most notably, the girls defeated Nutley, 51-31, Columbia, 46-19 and Teaneck, 35-34.

"Those kids did very well," Fuccello said. "Karen (Portuese) did a good job in motivating the kids and substituting. There were a lot of positive attitudes on the team."

Fuccello kept the freshman team together most of the year, opting not to bring too many of the girls to the varsity level.

The leading scorer on the team was Kim Salernitano. She averaged just under ten points a game. Her best offensive game was a 23 point outburst against Nutley.

Other starters on the freshman team were Christine Caputo, Sue Spirook, Tara Gallito and Jessica Cialese.

Freshman who saw considerable playing time were Stephanie Fraone, Michele Moreno, Kelly O'Mara, Kim O'Mara and Melanie Van Dam.

Portuese, who has coached the freshman for six years now, is a former Belleville girls' basketball star. She was an outstanding point guard for Fuccello from 1977-79. During that span, Belleville improved tremendously, jumping from a record of 6-16 in '77 to 13-7 in '78 to 16-7 and a berth in the county finals in 1979.

"It was a real good year for our young kids," Fuccello said. "The kids made excellent progress. But, like I said before, the next two years are critical. If the kids want to improve on what they've built, they have to play and practice as much as possible during the off season."

BASEBALL'S BACK

Even though this lockout was a turnoff, there should be very little ill effects when the regular season commences on April 9. Baseball is back and with it, that feeling of happiness for the avid sports fan.

It turned out to be a pretty good package for the players. All along, their main bone of contention was salary arbitration. The players wanted two years, the owners said it should stay at three. In 1985, during the last strike, the players bargained away the two year arbitration.

The owners basically stuck to their guns on that subject, although a few players will gain salary arbitration after two years. The players "minimum" salary will be increased to $100,000.00. The pension plan will receive a $55 million deposit from the owners each year.

Did you see the Bergen Record last Tuesday? In the sports section, Texas Rangers' outfielder Pete Incaviglia made a statement which basically tells you how far off the track some of the players have become.

"People think we make $3 million and $4 million a year. They don't realize that most of us make $500,000.00."

He makes it sound like $500,000.00 is minimum wage, a

Bucs open at Kennedy

Baseball season starts Apr. 6

Wanted: A practice field for the Belleville baseball team. Preferably, the field should be in Belleville. Anyone who has a field in decent condition should contact head coach Nick Grande.

For the second straight year, the Bucs baseball program is looking for a field to practice on. Unlike last year, the varsity baseball diamond should be ready for use on opening day, which is set to begin in two weeks. However, Grande needs a place to practice now.

"We have to get consistent playing time outside," Grande said. "We were denied permits by the county to practice in Belleville Park. I can't believe that a team from Belleville cannot gain access to a park in its own township. Because of the rain (last) weekend, the JV field at the high school is under water."

"Fortunately, we have some scrimmages on the road this week, so we should have that necessary practice time. Hopefully, the JV field will be in decent shape by the middle of this week, because, don't forget, we have a JV and freshman program that need the work in addition to the varsity."

The Bucs batted Elmwood Park and Secaucus earlier this week in scrimmages. Tomorrow, Belleville travels to Montclair for a 4 p.m. game. On Saturday, the team ventures to Clifton for a 10 a.m. scrimmage. Next Tuesday, the Bucs are supposed to be home to Kearny in a 4 p.m. game.

Opening day is set for Friday, April 6 with a road game at Pateron Kennedy.

Belleville is coming off a 12-12 season in 1989. The Bucs lost four games by one run in '89. Of course, the main story to the '89 campaign was the lack of a home field for the Bucs. Belleville played all 24 games outside of Belleville, with a temporary home field in Nutley Park.

Grande has a new JV coach in

Jim Sumerou and Chuck Martin is back as the freshman coach.

There are just three lettermen returning from last years team. Juniors Art Caruso, Carmen Spina and Ryan Wells will be the nucleus of a young, ambitious team.

"The kids have shown a great deal of hustle and determination," Grande said. "Because of the great weather we had last week, we were able to practice in the morning and after school. The players have a very good work ethic. I'm happy with what I've seen so far."

Grande admitted that the turnout was low this spring, but the quality of the players is quite encouraging.

"Right now, we have to stay outside," Grande said. "If the weather is good, then we have to have a place to practice. The kids need to work on their batting stroke and fielding on a diamond."

"We should know a little more about where we stand after this week. We've had a few minor injuries, but things should start coming together."

Benefit softball game set for this Sunday AM

Because of last weekends rain, the Belleville softball team has postponed its benefit game until this Sunday morning. The game, a 50 inning intersquad contest, will benefit the Scleroderma Research Society and the softball program. It will begin at 9 a.m. from Cleamian Field.

"It will be a fun morning of softball," softball coach Carl Corino said. "Basically, each pitch will constitute an out or a hit. If a player fouls off a pitch, it's an out. The players will be looking for pledges. People can pledge whatever they want for any player they want."

According to Corino, the pledges will be by innings for each player. Anyone interested can pledge any amount they wish for each inning a respective player competes in the game.

Scleroderma is a rare tissue disorder. It recently took the life of Corino's mother, Jenny.

The Scleroderma Research Society is a voluntary non profit tax exempt organization which supports medical research to find a cure to this life threatening connective tissue disease. Until a cure is found, the Scleroderma Research Society helps the afflicted live as fully as possible by providing, without charge, individual and family counselling, educational literature, meetings and medical referrals.

Anyone interested in pledging can contact a member of the softball team or Corino. People can also pledge the day of the game.

Buc tennis opens season on April 2 vs. Barringer High

The Belleville tennis team will open the 1990 campaign on April 2 with a home match against Barringer.

Tony Salese's squad has been practicing consistently since March 8. The outstanding weather for this time of year has been very pleasing for the fourth year coach.

"We've been able to get a lot of time on the courts," Salese said. "It's very unusual for this time of year. The kids are working hard and the drills are progressing ahead of schedule."

There are nine players out for the team this year. At first singles, senior Troy Hickey and junior Mark Mellinger are battling. At third singles, junior Adam Ly and sophomore Sam Na have been competing for a starting job.

Other seniors out for the team are Al Leyson, Henry Dela Merced, John Matos and Philip Ly. All of those men are candidates for starting berths on the doubles teams.

Freshmen Semyon Kogan, Joe Gomez and Amol Shah are doing well in their first year of varsity tennis and could see some action on the doubles team this year.

"We should be pretty competitive in our conference this season," Salese said. "We've got some scrimmages coming up this week that should give a better indication of where we stand."

The Bucs are at Rutherford tomorrow afternoon for a scrimmage and next Wednesday, the team will be at Cedar Grove for its final scrimmage before the regular season opens.

Softball team getting ready for season opener

A team of the 80's is looking good in its preparation for the 1990 campaign. The Belleville softball team, which averaged over 23 wins a season during the 1980's, will open the regular season on April 2 with a game against Lyndhurst.

In the meantime, head coach Carl Corino has a busy exhibition schedule on tap. The Lady Bucs took on North Arlington and Toms River East last week and battled Verona and Cedar Grove earlier this week. Tomorrow, the girls are home to Whippany Park in a 4 p.m. game. On Saturday, Belleville is home to West Orange in a 10 a.m. game.

"Things have been going pretty well," Corino said. "The weather has been real good. It's the first time in a long time that we've been able to get this much quality practice time so early in March."

"Things are shaping up. We're basically a senior oriented team this year. About the only thing I'm really concerned about is the lack of hitting. We've got to get the offense going."

The Lady Bucs lost five seniors to graduation last spring. Three of them, Laurie Dondarski, Simone Edward and Carol Morrison accounted for a good deal of the Belleville offense.

"Those three girls were about 60 percent of our offense in 1989," Corino said. "We're going to need some of our new starters to step forward."

Corino is very optimistic about the Lady Buc battery corps. Seniors Stacey Johansen and Trecia Donnelly will see most of the pitching chores and Laurie Moyer is back as the starting catcher.

Jennifer Bridge returns to her shortstop position. The senior got off to a slow start last spring, but came around after a very well in the second half of the campaign.

In the infield, Mia Hanos has been working at first base. Carey Woodruff, who played so well at third base last year, could be moving to second base this spring.

Melissa Marcantonio could be the new third baseman. In the outfield, Amalia Fabiano, Diane DiVincenzo, Danielle DeWerk, Colleen Mannion and Judy Kyrch have all been seeing time. In addition, DeWerk could also see some action on the mound.

"We have some freshman and sophomores who could move up to the varsity too," Corino said. "I'll know more about them after this weeks scrimmages."

Belleville had a phenomenal season in 1989, winning 24 ball games and taking home the county and NNJL championships. The county title was the first for Belleville since 1983, although the team has been to the county championship game for the past eight years and nine of the past ten seasons.

BSA Bobcats capture Walkkill V title

The Belleville Bobcats of the Belleville Soccer Association Division 5B, won the National Championship in the Walkkill Valley Indoor Soccer Tournament.

The Bobcats played six games against tough northern county teams; all in one day to win the title. The Bobcats came up first against Walkkill Valley and they won 4-1.

Next the Bobcats played against Vernon. The Bobcats dominated and won, 5-2, with assists from Robert Callahan and Derek Soor.

Their next opponent was the Jefferson team. Here the outstanding defensive plays of Joseph Mastropietro and Louis Scanzillo were the keys to the 2-0 victory.

One more game before the semifinals was against Walkkill's "A" team. This was a cross-over game of an older team against a younger team. Even though these players were much bigger and more skillful, the Bobcats' goalie Michael Biase played a great game and only gave up two goals. Bobcats lost their first and only game for the day, 0-2.

The semi-final game was drawn against Vernon. The Bobcats' scoring techniques proved to be too much, as the Bobcats won again, 3-0.

There was a total of 15 goals by Bobcat players: Patrick Hensinger,

2; Joey Mastropietro, 1; David Ranucci, 2; Joe Torluccio, 2; Michael Porecco, 3; Malori Cameron 4.

The Bobcats' coach, Doug

Thatcher, gave the first place trophy to Cozzarelli-Mautone, attorneys at law, who sponsor the team, for their showcase.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Baseball/softball applications

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that applications for all recreation baseball and softball programs are available in all public and parochial school offices and at the Recreation Department office.

Boys ages 8-9 can play Peanut League Baseball; 10-12 year olds boys can play Junior League Baseball; and 13-15 year olds boys are eligible for Senior League Baseball. Girls ages 8-14 can apply for all levels of Recreation Softball, including the Suburban team. Specific league structure/age breakdown for girls' softball will be determined after the registration deadline. In order to qualify for play, the child must reach the minimum age before Aug. 1, 1990 and he/she cannot exceed the minimum age by July 31, 1990.

All leagues are for Belleville residents only.

High school freshmen or JV team players, or Suburban League team players (7th and 8th grade) are not eligible for the Rec leagues. All applications must be returned to the Rec House with birth certificates by Friday, March 23. Players trying out for the previously mentioned teams should complete Rec applications before the deadline in case they get cut.

In all cases, applications must be completed in full and signed by a parent, and all returning players must re-apply. Applications accepted after the March 23 deadline will be considered late and will be treated accordingly. The Rec House (407 Joramelon Street) hours for registration are Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-noon and 1 to 4 p.m. The office will also be open Monday nights from 6 to 7:30 p.m. for registration. All children attending required practices will play in every game. Our leagues stress sportsmanship, basic skills and fun.

Umpires needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is in need of adults and boys or girls, age 16 or older, to umpire games in the recreation baseball and softball leagues. Games are played on weekday nights and Saturdays during the months of May-June. For more information or to apply, call the Recreation Department office at 450-3422 or stop at the Rec House on Joramelon Street before 4 p.m. on weekdays.

A.S.A. umpire tests

The Belleville A.S.A. Umpire's Association will be conducting the A.S.A. Softball Umpire's Test on April 16, at 7 p.m. at the Rec House, 407 Joramelon Street. Any adult, male or female, interested in taking the test should call the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 to obtain an application for the test. There is a $20 non-refundable Exam Fee that must accompany your application.

Persons who register for the test can attend the A.S.A. Softball Rules Clinics, to be given March 22 and 29, and April 12 - 6:30 p.m. at the Belleville Recreation Department. These clinics are designed to prepare all potential umpires for the test on April 16. The clinics will be conducted by Frank C. Amey, Belleville's umpire-in-chief.

The registration deadline is March 23. The course and test are open to all persons, 18 years of age and older. A 70% passing grade will be required. Successful applicants will then be qualified to umpire A.S.A. softball after paying their membership dues, and will be responsible for securing their own work assignments.

Playground applications

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that applications for Summer Recreation positions are now available. Playground director and sports clinic instructor positions are open to those who will have completed their first year of college by the summer of 1990. Preference is given to those majoring in recreation, physical education, teaching and psychology. In certain cases, consideration will be given to high school seniors who have demonstrated leadership skills and/or outstanding athletic ability. There will be few positions open so those who desire summer employment are urged to apply promptly.

Persons wishing to apply should phone the recreation department office at 450-3422 weekdays to obtain an application. Interviews will be scheduled around Easter to accommodate college students who are home for spring break. Potential applicants must be residents of Belleville and must be available to work for seven straight weeks from June 25 to August 10. All returning employees must also re-apply.

Recreation track

The Belleville Recreation Department will be offering a recreation track program for boys and girls in grades 6, 7 and 8. The program will tentatively be conducted Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Stadium from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon. Scheduled to begin on April 3, the program will be designed to introduce aspiring runners to the fundamentals of track and field. Participation, rather than competition, will be stressed. Training will consist of instructions and fun activities, instead of intense physical workouts. This year's program instructor will be Anthony La Vista, a former runner for the Belleville High School Track team.

Children in grades 6, 7 & 8 who reside in Belleville are eligible. Those children who will be playing baseball or softball should not take part in this program, however, since practices and schedules will conflict. To register, come to the Recreation office at 407 Joramelon Street between 8:30 - 4, Monday - Friday, with your birth certificate.

Men's volleyball playoff results

(From March 13) Belleville Sports defeated Legends 15-6, 15-11 in the Men's Volleyball playoff finals to take the league championship. In the semi-finals, Belleville Sports topped MVR Air Conditioning 15-5, 15-9 and Legends eliminated Spring Garden Landscaping 15-2, 15-11.

salary that can just barely make ends meet. If Incevgilia is trying to gain the sympathy of the general public, he might need a little more refining of that statement.

Oh, by the way, is Ron Darling going to pitch for the Mets this year, or will he still sit out the year? Does anyone really care?

FINAL FOUR

So much for the Michigan, Illinois, Virginia and Kansas Final Four predicted in this column last week. At this point it is real difficult to come up with a Final Four. Let's just enjoy this weekends games and talk about it next week.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

In 1981, the Final Four was contested in Philadelphia. The four teams were LSU, North Carolina, Virginia and Indiana. The finalists were Indiana and North Carolina. Sam Perkins was a starter for North Carolina, Ralph Sampson started for Virginia and Isaiah Thomas was a starting guard for Indiana.

The two events that highlighted the Final Four weekend were near tragedy and controversial/funny. The near tragedy was the assassination attempt on President Reagan on the Monday of the championship game.

There was talk of cancelling the game that Monday, but Reagan made excellent progress in surgery and it was determined he was out of danger late that afternoon. The other controversy was Bobby Knight, the coach of Indiana, having a run-in with an LSU fan. The run-in ended with Knight stuffing the fan in a garbage can.

FOR THIS WEEK

The last time UCLA advanced to the round of 16 in the NCAA basketball tournament was in 1980. That year, the Bruins made it to the title game, where it lost to Louisville, 59-55. Who did UCLA defeat to win the regional title and who did the Bruins defeat in the national semi finals to gain the championship game berth. Who was the UCLA coach in 1980 and name the Bruins point guard from that season.

Crew team looks good in dual race with Kards

An enthusiastic team and favorable weather have given new Belleville crew coach Bob Cassin a good start for the 1990 campaign.

The Bucs rowed against powerful Kearny last Saturday in a mile exhibition. The first regular season race set for April 1, when the Bucs travel to Philadelphia for the first of a series of Flick races.

The Flick races are held on Sunday's in Philadelphia. The Bucs usually travel down to Philly about four teams during the season, then compete in the City Championships in May. The City Championships are the conclusion to the Flicks.

The Kearny race last Saturday was a good opportunity for Cassin to watch his team against a very strong crew.

"They're real strong this year," Cassin said of Kearny. "Our kids did pretty good for the first time out. It was a three mile race in pretty tough waters. The current was strong and the wind was pretty tough. It was a good opportunity for our kids to see where they're at."

The Bucs have been traditionally a slow starting team. Under the Sam Gluffrida and Scott Fabian tenures, Belleville boats usually started off slowly in April, then picked up momentum by the time the regattas commenced in early May.

Cassin hopes to have four boys' teams this year. He plans on a freshman (novice) eight shell, two junior fours and one senior four.

"There could be times when we use a junior eight, because in our league, we won't be allowed to race two of the same shells," Cassin said.

Later in the season, the coach will probably add a pairs shell. Last season, Belleville used the pairs set up for the first time and did very well in the regattas. The pairs shell is made up of two rowers.

"It's too early to talk about pairs right now," Cassin said. "You have to wait for the water to warm up and we generally don't use the pairs until late April or early May."

Last season, the tandem of Brian Villano and Tom Eccles advanced all the way to the national championships.

The girls' team, who is coached by Dennis Villano, hopes to have a girls senior eight and a girls freshman (novice) eight.

"The girls have more experienced rowers, so we might use the eight set up for the varsity," Cassin explained. "You learn technique by rowing fours. The girls team has the technique. A lot of them have been rowing together since the eighth grade."

"Against Kearny, the girls team did pretty well. I have to say that Kearny's team has national championship calibre. They're really good."

Cassin noted that their teams possess good technique, but need to improve on boat speed.

"That will come with practice and regular competition," Cassin said. "In endurance sports, the speed comes with repetition. We have a good group of kids here. It should be an enjoyable year."

Nets to help Nicole Fund

The NJ Nets have chosen their game with the Phoenix Suns on March 30 at the Byrne Arena in the Meadowlands Sports Complex to help little Nicole Frerichs and the Fund which bears her name. The game, which begins at 7:30 p.m., will produce donations from each ticket sold to the Nicole Fund, which is seeking to help alleviate the enormous medical bills facing this little girl and her family.

Nicole is 7, and has suffered since the age of 2 1/2 from seven different kinds of seizures, sometimes as many as 90 a day. The costs of further tests and research, in and out of the state, are growing every day. It is the stated goal of the Fund to pay these past bills, and continue this important research, and to eventually buy or build a one-level, ranch style home so that ramps and accessways for Nicole and her family will be permanently established. With a roof over their head, it will be easier for all to concentrate on saving this brave little girl's life.

Each ticket sold will be $13, of which the Fund gets a substantial donation. Corporations and other businesses which purchase blocks of 25 tickets or more will have their name displayed on the Diamond Board at halftime. During the halftime break, a ceremony honoring Nicole will take place, with the Nets presenting her with an autographed basketball.

For further information please contact Maureen Murphy at 201-935-8888. Tickets can be purchased in Nutley at the Health Department at 149 Chestnut St.; in Bloomfield at the Civic Center, Broad St.; the William Norton Insurance Agency at 309 Broad St.; and at the Customer Service counter of the Brookdale Shop-Rite.

Also, the Key Clubs of Bloomfield, Belleville, Nutley and Glen Ridge High Schools are actively involved, and can be contacted for further information.

Race to benefit MS set for Apr. 1

SELF CONTROL

It used to be that a person with minor symptoms of ill health would automatically turn to the doctor for diagnosis and medication. However, over the past two decades, there has been a steady trend toward self-diagnosis and self-medication. In recognition of this trend, the Food and Drug Administration began reviewing its approval of over-the-counter products in 1972. Since then, the FDA has filed the prescription-only restrictions on at least 30 medications. For its part, the FDA ordered improvements that made the new over-the-counter drugs safer and more effective. The consumer's responsibility lies with self-diagnosing correctly and reading the instructions and restrictions that apply to the drugs taken.

If you have a question on any medication, or the proper way to take it, give us a call at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We are always pleased to help. Stocks, include cameras and film, greeting cards, Times watches and many gift items. Hours Daily 9 am - 9 pm, Sundays 9 am - 9 pm.

HINT: Since 1982, the money Americans have spent on self-diagnosis kits has more than quadrupled.

CLASSIFIED SPECIAL APRIL 5 & 12, 1990

On April 15th we celebrate Easter — on March 20th we welcome Spring. This is the time of year when people are buying new clothes, refurbish their homes — the list is endless.

Timing is essential to sound profitable advertising. You have to "shoot when the ducks are flying." This sportsman's axiom translates into retail practice like this: Spend your money when most customers are in a mood to buy your type of merchandise.

The Nutley Sun — Belleville Times — Bloomfield Life have a $392 MILLION MARKET. We can guarantee that this market will see your advertising. Our circulation is 100% paid. Our newspapers are delivered through the U.S. MAIL — they're also sold in over 125 newsstands. Our newspapers don't land on the lawns, nor in the trash; they're not blown away by the wind!

So be a wise advertiser... put your advertising dollars where they will work for you and take advantage of our special Easter Sale.

RATE
 $5.00 per column inch — your ad appears in all three newspapers.

1989 Million Dollar Sales Club

Yes, you can buy a home in New Jersey!

On March 8, the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors joined over 500 New Jersey Realtors in Trenton for a parade and rally marking the beginning of a 3 year-long campaign to promote home ownership in the Garden State.

Realtors from local Boards across the state came in bus loads and car loads to assemble at the War Memorial in Trenton, and marched to the State House steps where Governor Florio signed a proclamation endorsing March as "Yes You Can Buy A Home In New Jersey" month.

"We know Realtors are out there helping people," Florio said.

"and this campaign will help let all the people know."

Everyone had a great time, and the message definitely got across. The overwhelming response to this campaign confirms that home buyers want to pursue their American Dream, but lack of knowledge about the home buying process has kept many from doing so until now.

People interested in knowing more about house hunting, financing programs, the buying process and more information on pursuing their American Dream are encouraged to call the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville Board of Realtors at 743-5114.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Did You Know??

When it's time to fertilize the lawn, keep pets in the house. Fertilizer ingredients could make furry friends ill if they lick it off their paws.

For some houses, it's unwise to put a third layer of shingles on a roof due to the added weight. And worn, warped or brittle shingles should always be removed before new ones are applied.

Comb painting is a distinctive finish for floors and walls. Paint surface with a base color; when it dries, add top coat, a small area at a time. "Comb" with a notched squeegee or cardboard. Repeat on other areas. If you don't like design, repaint and try again.

Mirrors should be hung directly on the wall with hooks. Picture wire is not strong enough for any but the lightest mirrors, and may eventually stretch and break.

"Points" are charges that the borrower must pay the lender up front outside of the mortgage itself. Each point is one percent of the loan.

We speak the language of real estate. Let us translate for you at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley. 235-9000. Whether you're buying or selling, you can depend on our real estate knowhow.
