Council race draws closer as ballot positions are drawn

By Anthony Buccino
Ballot positions for the township council race May 8 were drawn Monday afternoon in Town Hall by township clerk Mary Lou Hood.

Voters on May 8 will vote for three at-large candidates and one ward candidate. The ballots will indicate numbers 1-8 A for the at-large candidates and 9-12 B, as needed for the ward candidates. The ward candidates will appear only in their own ward.

The at-large candidates' positions on the ballot are: 1-A Vincent

Frantantoni, 2-A Gabe Nazzola, 3-A Frank J. Noonan, 4-A Marina Perna, 5-A Joseph T. Fornarotto, 6-A Andrew M. Blochak, 7-A Michael Giordano, 8-A Mario Drozdz.

The 1st ward candidates' positions on the ballot are: 9-B Jim Messina, 10-B Angelo Risoli.

The 2nd ward candidates' positions on the ballot are: 9-B Richard P. Yanuzzi, 10-B Attilio Jerry Del-Gurcio, 11-B Frank A. Caputo.

The 3rd ward candidates' positions on the ballot are: 9-B Kevin G.

Kennedy, 10-B Michael J. McGreevy, 11-B Thomas J. Spillane, 12-B Cathleen Modesta Noonan.

The 4th ward candidates' positions on the ballot are: 9-B Victor M. Canning, 10-B William P. Cook.

Hood said Tuesday that post cards informing voters of their wards and districts would be sent out shortly by the Essex County Elections Board. She added that sample ballots will be sent to registered voters informing them of their polling place.

United township effort urged to get back school funding

By Anthony Buccino

The Board of Education Monday night authorized the tentative proposed 1990-91 school district budget totaling $25,033,516, which, if passed April 24, would represent between 61-65 tax point increase. That increase represents an average increase of $325 on a house assessed at $50,000.

The board also initiated a move to get the township citizens involved in an effort to urge the state government to restore $2.9 million cut from Belleville's state aid entitlement in Governor Florio's proposed state budget.

"We have to show we are united," Trustee Joseph P. Del Guercio said. "We cannot afford this reduction in state aid. The programs mandated by the state must come with the funding."

Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino called the governor's "draconian cuts devastating."

"In the past few weeks, our town showed what it can do when it works together," Trustee Michael Lamberti said, referring to the turnout of citizens in favor of saving School 9 at the last two board of ed meetings.

Board Vice President Patricia Pisano suggested the citizens write letters to the state officials to get the funding restored. She had sample letters available at the meeting that residents could send to the township's representatives in Trenton. She suggested that in addition to writing to the governor, residents contact Senator Carmen Orechio, Assemblyman John V. Kelly and Assemblywoman Marion Greco.

The board instructed Schools Superintendent Michael Nardicello to coordinate the necessary arrangements for bus loads of citizens to travel to Trenton in a caravan, if necessary, to let the people be heard.

Trustee Richard Yanuzzi told the board that the governor's budget hasn't been passed by the state senate or assembly. "This is the time to contact our legislator's offices," he said.

D'Agostino said that even though other towns are planning similar demonstrations and trips to Trenton, the people of Belleville "have to be in the forefront. We have been cheated the most."

Residents Joseph Restaino and Joseph Celio, who represent various senior citizen groups in town, were asked directly for their support by the board president. D'Agostino said it is important for the senior citizens to "join our cavalcade of buses."

Commissioner Joseph Fornarotto was asked by the board contact the mayor and other commissioners to enlist their support in restoring the state aid to the school budget.

Fornarotto said he would like to give input, and wanted support to also come from "teachers and people who could be hurt" by the cuts. He suggested the board consider closing school for a day so that those affected could also travel to Trenton.

D'Agostino urged the board and citizens to "arouse attention in the way we know how, through a Belleville approach, not in concert with other towns, from our seniors to the youngest parents of pre-schoolers."

Governor Florio's proposed budget includes cuts which would result in Belleville's school district receiving only 62.5% of full funding, according to Board Business Administrator Edward Appleton.

Through full funding, Belleville would have received $7.8 million, Appleton said. The state proposes to cut $2.9 million and send $4.88 million to the township through state aid entitlements.

Belleville was hit hardest when the state aid formula was changed in regards to appropriating equalization aid, Appleton said. Under the old formula, the township would have received $5.4 million, but is now faced with a 47% loss in equalization funding alone, he said.

"The state's equalization funding to the township was cut $2.5 million from the anticipated $5.4 to $2.9 million."

Appleton cited other school districts which were not hit as hard as Belleville by the new formula. One district was cut from 83% of funding to 80%, while Belleville lost 47% of its state funding, Appleton said.

Of the $25,033,516 in the total school budget, $24,910,555 is for Current Expense, $34,023 is for Capital Outlay, and $88,938 is for Debt Service.

Included in the resolution, the board requested permission from the Essex County Superintendent

Reverend Jung Na hosts multi-national congregation

By Steve Balkin

His slanted brown eyes burn with anger. His "yellowish," worn, smooth face twists with pain as the ever-present memory emerges from his subconscious and comes forth from his lips. Although the incident happened 37 years ago while the small adolescent was living south of the 38th parallel, he retells the story of when his father was needlessly killed as though it happened yesterday.

Today, at 50 years old, the short, Korean-born, Jung Na still searches for the drunken American soldier who shot and killed his father, right before his eyes, in a Seoul marketplace as the allied forces were withdrawing at the end of the conflict.

Na seeks out this man not to avenge his father's death. He searches for this man to embrace him and say, "I forgive you."

When this happened 37 years ago and his mother said, "I forgive that poor American youth," Na became so enraged that he called his mother "number one crazy person in whole world."

A lot has happened to Na since that day in the Korean marketplace when he saw that drunken youth murder his father. Na has become an ordained reverend and today he is the pastor of the multi-national member congregation of Wesley United Methodist Church and the self-proclaimed, "number two crazy person in whole world."

The road that led to Na's ordination has been rocky at best. The first man to bring Christianity to the sanctuary of Korean Buddhism 106 years ago was Drew University, Madison, N.J., theological school graduate and missionary, Henry G. Appengeller.

Na's ancestors were immediately ruptured by this new religion and hence, became outlaws. Clandestine and covert services were the only type that could be held in this Buddhist mecca and to worship outside the faith of the land was a crime.

From the first Na convert and all the way to Jung, the entire family has been devout, outlaw, Christians. It was later in his life that Na came to understand how his mother was able to forgive her husband's killer.

Na adopted the Christian way of life although he had his doubts. For a large portion of his early life he worshiped two gods, one being the Lord and the other being money. Na believed that with money true happiness would be automatic.

In his pursuit of what Na perceived as true happiness he believed that science was the answer. He enrolled in a Korean university and majored in physics. Upon his graduation he enlisted in the Korean Air Force.

After an enlistment in the air force Na had another realization, science is not everything. In his never ending pursuit of true happiness Na enrolled in Yonsei University, Seoul, Korea, where he earned a master's degree in business administration.

Upon his graduation from Yonsei, Na landed a job as a technical science representative with Tungston Steel, Co. and as he described, "I was making mucho won." (Won is the monetary unit of Korea.)

"I thought I had everything. A job that took me all around the world, paid an enormous salary and considered to be in the upper, upper class not only in Korea but anywhere in the world," Na said.

"Then something happened. I met number three crazy person in whole world, Reverend Pinkston. Reverend Pinkston was an American missionary who came to Korea to spread the Christian word. What made him crazy person was that his son was killed by the North Koreans during the conflict and now he comes back to help Korean people," Na added.

The Reverend Pinkston was the changing point in Na's life. It was through the teachings of this man that Na came to love only one God and abandoned his love for money. He was so sure of this calling that he resigned from Tungston.

When Na left the multi-national corporation he took a job at an orphanage being responsible for 150 children.

"My wife couldn't believe what I was doing. She was so angry she couldn't speak," explained Na.

"After a short time, of being angry, Jung Na, my wife, showed up at the orphanage and I say to her, 'Oh, you number four crazy person in whole world,'" Na grinned and said.

According to Na, working at the orphanage wasn't enough. Sure, he could help the children but he couldn't do enough when it came to bringing the children to God.

Then he remembered Henry G. Appengeller, the man from New Jersey who brought Christianity to Korea and that was it.

In 1981 Na packed up his belongings, his wife, Jung Na, his daughter, Jean Na, and his son, Sam Na, and came to America to attend Drew University.

As though he was free from bondage Na would soon realize what he had always wanted in life and five years later he received a master's of divinity from Drew University's school of theology.

In June 1986, not only was it his first assignment Na became the first Asian Minister the Wesley United Methodist Church.

Like Confucius, the Reverend Na has brought many of the far eastern philosophies to his Washington Avenue church that he shares with his parishioners, whose membership list reads as though roll was being called at the United Nations.

"At this church we have come up with a little expression that we wish would spread out of the confines of Belleville and reach the entire world, 'understanding before criticism,'" Na said.

MDSD "On the sabbath the charismatic Reverend preaches his morning worship in his broken, though fully understandable, English. Additionally, he holds a special afternoon service which is totally in Korean.

The congregation, made up of many different kinds of people have grown to love this small community leader. The intensity he exhibits when he retells the incident about his father is the same intensity he brings to the pulpit when he preaches.

He said, "there is no color, no culture in the love of Jesus Christ. Human is same, the fundamentals in loving Christ are same."

"Look out that window," the Reverend continued, "and you see all different kinds of trees. If all were same, would be monotonous. Variety is beautiful. Humans should learn to live in a perfect harmony just like the trees."

In all his dealings with his congregation, the pastor places a major emphasis on the family structure and speaks proudly of his own. His daughter, Jean, graduated second in her class from Belleville High School in 1989. His son, Sam, is currently enrolled at the high school, in his sophomore year and is constantly on the honor roll.

"My children have not yet come to totally accept my non-materialistic way of life. They are in agreement that I am number two crazy person in whole world," the Minister said.

"I always reassure them, don't worry, God will provide everything we need in life. When my daughter asked me where we would get the money for her to go to college, I say, don't worry, God will handle it. Shortly after that conversation my daughter received a full scholarship to the college she is currently attending. I say, I told you not to worry," the pastor fondly recalled.

Once a year everyone in the congregation gets to show off at the Annual International Dinner. Germans bring sauerbraten, Italians bring pasta, Irish bring corn beef, Chinese bring moo goo gai pan, Indians bring curried dishes and the Pastor's wife, Freckles, as the congregation has come to call her, brings the native Korean dish, kim chi, fresh from being buried underground for all the winter months.

Belleville POLICE BEAT

A 1986 Corvette reported stolen from a Union Ave. address March 11 was recovered later that day by Newark police.

Edgardo Gonzalez, 26, of Newark was charged with shoplifting after he attempted to take $79.99 worth of tapes from a video store on Washington Ave. March 10.

A 1985 Cadillac Seville reported stolen from a Belmont Ave. residence March 12 has not been recovered.

Police arrested two Belleville residents following a motor vehicle violation stop March 20. When police approached the stopped vehicle, the passenger was observed attempting to conceal a white pill under the car seat. Both men were ordered out of the car and following a routine pat-down search, police found a tin foil packet containing white powder believed to be cocaine. Charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance were the driver Michael Barabace, 29, and passenger Louis Vasquez, 26.

Nicholas Ricca, 47, of Nutley was charged March 19 with driving while on the revoked list. Ricca had been stopped for a motor vehicle violation. He was released on $250 bail.

Gonzalo Eduardo Rodas, 22, of Newark was charged with being an unlicensed driver March 18, following a motor vehicle violation.

Criminal mischief was reported March 23 at two locations on Overlook Ave. The rear window of a Ford Bronco was smashed with a blunt object and a back hoe left on the street for construction purposes had its windows smashed.

That same night, the rear window of a 1987 Jeep Wrangler was smashed on Liberty St.

A 1986 Buick Regal was reported stolen from Washington Ave. March 22.

A 1986 Chevy Cavalier reported stolen from a parking lot on Sanford Ave. March 21 was recovered by Newark police.

A 1980 Cadillac Eldorado was reported stolen from a driveway on Bellevue Ave. March 20.

Nurse school has new director

Sue A. Strohman, managing director of the Clara Maass School of Nursing recently discussed plans for the future of the nursing school.

Located in Bloomfield, the Clara Maass School of Nursing takes its name from a nursing graduate who has her life in a yellow fever epidemic in the early years of this century. For 97 years the School of Nursing has provided an outstanding program of education for nurses. Graduates of the rigorous program have excellent records of job placement and career and academic advancement.

Academic courses are conducted at Upsala College. Students take their nursing courses and gain clinical experience at Clara Maass School of Nursing and at Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville. It is possible for full-time students to graduate in only 22 months, ready for employment and prepared for the State Board Licensing Examination for Registered Nurses. Full-time students in the evening and weekend division can complete the program in 33 months.

In her role as managing director, Strohman is responsible for the administrative duties of the nursing school. "There is a diverse student population; all ages, different cultural and educational backgrounds, men and women, married and single, parents and non-parents. This diversity adds a richness to the educational program and makes it both a challenge and a rewarding experience to work with the students," said Strohman.

Strohman's goals include increasing enrollment and bringing into the School of Nursing highly motivated individuals who are dedicated to the nursing profession.

Prior to joining the Medical Center, Strohman was assistant administrator at Citizens General Hospital in Kensington, Pa. Previously she was director of the school of nursing there. She holds a master's degree in nursing from the University of Pittsburgh, as well as an M.S.Ed. from Duquesne University.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

40 independent State authorities that preside over roads and bridges, housing and the Meadowlands Sports Complex and have the ability to raise great amounts of money to finance massive public works and private business development are facing fiscal controls which will be much tighter under Governor Jim Florio.

Departing from the practice of previous governors, Florio has said he is not going to allow these agencies to conduct themselves free from any perceived sense of accountability to the public interest goals of the state, since he has veto power over 27 of the 40 operating authorities and independent commissions in New Jersey and now wants to extend his power further.

The state with a combined outstanding debt of $15 billion and the capacity to generate hundreds of millions of dollars in toll receipts, racing revenues and interest, the autonomous authorities are, in effect, separate governments that operate virtually free of the system of checks and balances. The outstanding bonds for the various authorities total five times that of the state's bonds.

Florio's position is in sharp contrast to the relationship the past four governors had with independent authorities. For the most part, authorities, such as those operating the three toll roads, took the initiative on expansion plans and toll hike requests and delivered a package to the governor's office. His only option was to approve or veto the minutes of the meeting in which the decisions were made.

Implicit in such an arrangement was the "option of deniability," which could be used by governors to publicly deny knowledge of plans for toll hikes or other controversial actions that had been initiated by the autonomous agencies.

Florio admits he is stripping himself of that protective device by involving himself in the decision-making procedure so he will know what the minutes say before they are delivered to him.

Florio said, "Not only am I willing to give it up, but I am anxious to give it up, because if something is going to come home to roost back here in my office at some point because someone's less-than-diligent monitoring of these systems, give me that authority and I will be happy to take the praises and the black eye from time to time. But I am not going to do that unless I have the ability to monitor what is happening out there, the perception is I've got the veto power. If I have the responsibility, I want some degree of say by my people who know about these things."

Florio has vowed his intent of using his appointment powers to take majority control of the boards of the independent authorities so he can determine their spending plans and priorities and judge such things before they are presented to him on a take-it-or-leave-it basis with only 10 days to make his decision.

The new governor, Jim Florio, stressed the people he appoints will understand "we will have a policy and everybody will be charged with implementing it. They will know my perception of what their role is in the game plan of having good transportation for New Jersey, good economic potential for New Jersey, good environmental protection for New Jersey. They are in charge of implementing their segment. They should not be out there doing their own thing."

If there is any defiance of his programs, Florio made it clear he will not hesitate to use his veto powers. One high ranking administration official said, "Those people are going to know when they get their appointment who the boss is."

"It's not the executive director, not the chairman. The boss is the Governor of New Jersey."

Florio stressed that, "With all agencies we are going to limit the independence of authorities because they are carrying a good idea to its illogical extreme." He wants tighter control and accountability of these authorities."

Fundraiser planned to honor D'Alessio bid

Tom D'Alessio

Plans were announced this week for a gala fundraiser honoring Tom D'Alessio, Democrat candidate for Essex County Executive in the June 5th primary.

The reception is scheduled for Wednesday, April 4, 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the Mediterranean Manor Restaurant, on Jefferson Street in Newark's East Ward.

Newark Mayor Sharpe James, who is serving as campaign manager for the D'Alessio for County Executive Campaign, is expected to officiate at the event and a host of state, county and municipal officials, including family and friends, are expected to attend.

For ticket information about the event, which will include refreshments and buffet supper, call 235-1830.

Scouts 'take lead'

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. proposed a national project to join with America's schools to serve girls who, for a variety of reasons, have been difficult to reach. The project is designed to encourage the development of leadership skills and self-esteem in girls of all ages.

Called "Take the Lead," activities take place during the day in various school settings, depending on the specific needs of the girls, teachers and schools involved.

The decision to offer "Take the Lead" nationwide is based on a number of successful pilot projects conducted by local Girl Scout councils over the last decade. With the approval of Boards of Education, troop meetings are held during classroom time. Teachers may act as leaders and offer a variety of activities based on Girl Scout program formats.

The purpose of the projects is to provide girls with educational and recreational activities designed to help them build self-esteem, develop values, increase their ability to relate to others, and contribute to society. All classrooms and programs conform to both Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. and local Girl Scout council policies and standards.

"What we are saying to these girls," says Girl Scout National Executive Director Mary Rose Main, "is that you can take the lead in your life and your future. You do that by staying in school, avoiding early pregnancy, refusing drugs by living all those values we talk about in the Girl Scout Promise and Law. To the schools we are saying, 'You don't have to go it alone. Girl Scouts are here to work with you.'"

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. was 78 years old on March 12. With over 3.1 million members, it is the largest organization for girls in the world. For information about Girl Scouting in Essex County, Summit or New Providence, please call the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County at 746-8200.

Thelina Espiritu is honored as Congressional Scholar

By Kristen Brauer

Thelina Espiritu, an outstanding scholar at Belleville High School, has been chosen to represent New Jersey as a Congressional Scholar in the National Young Leaders Conference Post Graduate Program.

As a Congressional Scholar, Thelina will be part of a select group of graduating high school seniors distinguished as one of our nation's outstanding leaders of the future.

Thelina will spend one week associating with high ranking U.S. administrators, senators, representatives, and members of the Washington diplomatic corps, as well as national journalists and prominent scholars. Special functions, such as a presentation on the Floor of the House of Representatives and a special issues briefing by White House Staff members, will be held. She will leave the conference with a greater understanding of the United States' system of government and will be well equipped to shoulder the leadership challenges of tomorrow.

Thelina Espiritu

After the conference, Thelina will be presented with the National Youth Leadership Award.

As a junior, Thelina attended the Washington Workshop, a weeklong congressional seminar. This provided eligibility for nomination to this prestigious conference.

Belleville High School News

Kirsh's work translates well

If you are going to teach any level of a foreign language and get students who have been previously taught by Fran Kirsh, you can be sure they are going to know their "stuff." If you ask Fran Kirsh to help in an emergency or to serve on any committee, you can be sure she'll be there for you and she'll do a great job.

Francene Kirsh started her career teaching Spanish in Belleville in 1971 and worked for 10 consecutive years at the Junior High School. She came to the High School in 1981 and has been very active with the foreign language program since then.

Kirsh's teaching style is marked by exactness, efficiency and a thorough approach to learning. Her lessons are well planned with extremely well organized classes. Her teaching is clear, detailed and comprehensive, and she is tough and demanding with her students.

Nevertheless, Kirsh's lessons are enriched by liveliness, vitality and enthusiasm. The academic aspect of her lessons is complemented by a variety of materials and activities, such as worksheets, filmstrips, posters, holiday celebrations and cultural trips. That is why she is also very much liked by her students.

Professionally, Kirsh has helped the high school in many ways, being part of various groups, such as the Principal's Advisory Committee, the Discipline Revision Committee, the Dress Code Committee, and the Honor Society Selection Committee. She also spends her own time organizing extracurricular activities, especially as an advisor to the Foreign Language Club.

For a few years now, Kirsh has been working together with Irene Richter in advising and guiding the Foreign Language Club. Because of Richter's maternity leave this year, Kirsh has been doing the job alone.

Among other activities, she organized a French breakfast, an international Christmas party and an interesting lecture on student college preparation and foreign language careers.

The most important goal of the club has been raising money for a foreign language scholarship. This month, Kirsh has been working hard in organizing a cookie sale and with the help and enthusiasm of club members, has been able to raise a considerable amount of money.

Both as a teacher and as a professional, Fran Kirsh is an asset to the foreign language program and to Belleville High School. She sets high expectations for students and works hard to achieve them. She is always ready to help and enthusiastic in her profession.

OUR OPINION

Reach Out

*Why go in search of beauty to all those foreign lands
When there's a wealth of loveliness
So very close at hand.
Just step outside your doorway
And see the birds in flight
Or watch the sun in early morn
Turn darkness into light.
Not far beyond your reaching hands
Are trees so straight and tall
Rustled by a gentle breeze
They sing their song to all.
Who gives these treasures to us?
It is our Savior's plan...
You'll never need to search for Him
He's right there where you stand.*

Global warming ain't proved

Remember nuclear winter? Now we have global warming. The scientific community should hang its head in shame in helping to scare the daylight out of folks, first with horror stories about Earth being pitched into eternal dark winter should nuclear weapons be used against the Soviet Communists, and now with other horror tales about Earth being pitched into eternal light summer if society does not mend its ways — such as in using aerosole powered underarm deodorant.

As everyone says about everyone else saying about Mark Twain's comments about the weather — everyone talks about it but nobody does anything about it — so let us say about global warming: It ain't proved!

The point is, of course, that no-growth activists want to close down our modern capitalist, free society in favor of a highly socialist, regimented society. Fearmongering about global warming, as fearmongering about nuclear winter, is aimed at restructuring America and its economic system into a new order, similar to the older orders now being kicked out of Eastern Europe.

Besides, even if Mother Earth did warm up a couple of degrees, we would save on our heating bills and not have to go to Florida or the islands when we vacation in the winter...

Ah, to think the threat of global spring thawing is next!

Affirmative action in arrests of law-breakers

New Jersey State Police have been arresting many homosexuals for using the rest stops on New Jersey Turnpike as a location for making sexual advances to other males. The State Police have reacted, obviously, because of complaints of motorists — including parents of boys — who have every right and reason to fear abnormal sexual activity in public restrooms.

New Jersey State Police have also been arresting a goodly number of drug dealers on New Jersey Turnpike, I-295, I-80 and on other interstates primarily used by those trafficking in illegal drugs. Many of the drug arrests have been of blacks and Puerto Ricans.

Apparently, everyone wants the enforcement agencies to do something to stop illegal sexual activity in the restrooms and drug transport on the Turnpike and on other highways, but when the State Police do their job, and do it effectively, the homosexual and civil rights pressure groups upchuck the usual accusations of bias — in this instance, bias in who is arrested.

Most motorists are familiar with the reason the rest stops on the Parkway have been closed: overt homosexual activity. Truck operators, pausing for mandatory rest at truck stops and service centers, are familiar with the knock on the cab door by the male or female prostitute, or drug pusher, and that is why many truck drivers prefer to park on out-of-the-way shoulders. Most folks know the real — and sometimes filthy — world out there.

It is difficult enough these days to protect society from those who abuse it, and would commit violence against it, but apparently homosexual and civil rights pressure groups want a kind of affirmative action quota of their kind in arrest records of State, Police: "You may arrest this or that percentage of those breaking the law, but you cannot arrest more homosexuals or blacks or Puerto Ricans than ten percent of the total arrests."

State Police may have made a few mistakes. So do all law enforcement agencies. But to rid the rest stops of illegal sexual activity and to nab drug pushers on the roads of our states certainly have the support, overwhelming support, of the ordinary, law-abiding public.

Affirmative action or quota systems should not exist in American justice, least of all in arresting law-breakers.

Thanks School 9 support

To the editor:

On behalf of School Number Nine's PTA Executive Board, we would like to thank the parents, teachers, children, homeowners, concerned citizens and the Consolidated PTA's for all their support in keeping School 9 open. We can't thank you enough for standing by us when we needed your help and support. We would especially like to thank the OPE, HSA, PTA's for their support. Together we are united as one.

Keep elections separate

To the editor:

The Township of Belleville is in a special situation this spring, with two very important elections being held within two weeks of each other. One for the Board of Education and the other for Township Council with a multitude of candidates to be considered.

That is why it is important to keep the two elections separate, yet supporting the candidates of your choice on their respective election dates.

The Board of Education election is to be held on Tuesday, April 24, between the hours of 2 p.m. and 9 p.m. Although there are only two candidates who filed for the two three-year terms, of which I am one, it is very important that we serve with your vote of confidence. In addition, there is a one-year race which must be decided, as well as the budget. You will find the three-year candidates on Line A and the one-year candidates on Line B.

I thank you for your past support and look forward to your continued support by voting "2-A" on April 24.

Vincent Marrone
Candidate for election to the Belleville Board of Education

Continue the progress

To the editor:

"Continue the Progress" will be our theme as I seek your support for a councilman-at-large seat in the May 8 election.

The selection of a Town Manager is an important part of Council-Manager government, but more important will be the continuity in the ongoing operation of our township. After all, the Township of Belleville will not come to a screeching halt on June 30, and a new Township will not suddenly appear on July 1, with all the knowledge and experience needed to continue to provide services to our citizens.

Contrary to the views of a small group of citizens calling themselves "Citizens for a Better Belleville", there has been a tremendous amount of improvement and progress in Belleville the past three years. The very visible improvements have been the renovations of our public buildings, the rehabilitation of our recreation facilities, and the beginning of the restoration of our road system.

The present Board of Commissioners has maintained a very lean budget the past three years, in spite of severe increases in the costs of garbage disposal, health and insurance payments, and a general downturn in the State and National economy. Belleville's "New Beginning" began in 1987 and continues today as the new spirit of cooperation and volunteerism moves forward.

My own record will speak for itself, as my department's productivity has dramatically increased, while personnel has been reduced through attrition.

My many years of civic involvement, the experience and knowledge gained as a commissioner, and my total dedication to the Township of Belleville, will assist me to guide and lead our new Council and Town Manager through an extremely important and critical transition period.

With your continued support, we shall successfully provide the continuity necessary for our Township to survive and prosper.

Vincent J. Frantantoni

Challenge a 'cheap shot'

To the editor:

I am very surprised by Mr. Vincent J. Frantantoni's challenge to the Noonans' candidacies based on their residency status. I have known the Noonans' to be outstanding citizens in Belleville for many years, and think this is a cheap shot if Mr. Frantantoni is basing his objection solely on the letter sent to him by the Noonans' to an open house.

I believe if a person is blessed by the good Lord and they worked hard all their lives to obtain these extra pleasures, they should enjoy them in good health. Isn't that what America is all about? I do not think for one minute Mr. Frantantoni's objection is valid and feel this challenge will be dismissed after the truth comes out.

I believe Dr. Frank J. Noonan and Mr. Joseph Fornarotto to be excellent candidates for councilman at large positions in our town because they truly care about our people and town. If Belleville residents are not wise, and vote for candidates that are more interested in themselves than our town we may qualify to shoot the next Ghost Busters movie in Belleville.

So I urge you to vote on May 8, and choose intelligent candidates who care for our town, and most of all wait for the truth to come out before making up your mind, because no one can suppress the truth!

Thomas Betz

Knows 1st Ward needs

To the editor:

Although my family and friends have urged me to seek an at-large council seat, I have decided instead to run for the position of First Ward council member. The First Ward, running along the Newark border, is particularly exposed to the situations of crime and vandalism as well as other situations which arise from being one of Belleville's oldest and most densely populated wards.

As a life-long resident of the First Ward, I understand the needs of the people here. I believe I speak for my neighbors in supporting:

- Park and Walk Police Patrols for all of Belleville, with extra emphasis on the areas with the highest crime rates.

- A moratorium on variances for condominium construction. Parts of the First Ward are already too congested because of condos — enough is enough!

- The conversion of the Essex County Geriatric Center into senior citizen housing. And since Belleville has hosted the center, tax free, for all these years, Belleville should get a fixed percentage of the units earmarked for Belleville seniors.

- The Greening of Belleville — In my first two years as Public Works Commissioner, we've removed more than 1,500 dead trees and stumps. This year we're planting new trees, beginning with 50 trees on Washington Avenue and at least 50 more for Rutgers, Overlook and Wallace Streets. But hundreds more are needed.

- The Cleaning of Belleville — Strict enforcement of the Business Maintenance Code, placement of more trash cans, pressure on state, county and Conrail authorities to clean up their properties, roads, ramps and crossings, will all lead to a cleaner Belleville. In addition, I propose a Citizens Beautification Committee, with appointees from each ward — more on that in a future letter.

These are just a few of the issues which concern the First Ward and all of Belleville. The biggest issue is taxes, and with huge county and state budget deficits curtailing what we receive in outside aid, keeping taxes down while continuing essential services and projects will be the main challenge this new government faces. As a commissioner who's balanced his departmental budget each year, I believe I have the experience and expertise to help meet that challenge.

Finally, I pledge to be a councilman who is there for the people of my ward, be it on the phone — my number is 759-1909 — or at the open public ward meetings I plan to hold — I will be an accessible representative you can rely on to hear you in the First Ward, and to speak for you in Town Hall!

LET'S KEEP RISOLI!

Costs of groundwater contamination

By Ella F. Filippone, Ph.D.
Executive Administrator,
Passaic River Coalition

What does New Jersey have in common with Minnesota? Ground water contamination! For years, the public believed that ground water was clean and pure, and we needn't worry about it. The decade of the '90s will identify more and more problems with this valuable natural resource, on which 95 municipalities in the Passaic River Basin are totally or partially dependent for their drinking water supplies.

The economic implications for municipalities and businesses are wide-ranging — threatening property values, tax revenues, and business development. The costs associated with cleanup and remediation are high and call for the employment of sophisticated, technically competent geohydrologists.

The Freshwater Foundation at Navarre, Minnesota surveyed representatives of 21 municipalities, their utilities, 13 industries, and one state agency in Minnesota which had all experienced groundwater contamination. The study, "Economic Implications of Groundwater Contamination to Municipalities and Businesses" sought to apply the economic effect of groundwater pollution on such factors as: devalued real estate, diminished real estate taxes, relocation of commercial development, loss to tax base, increased legal fees, increased operation and maintenance, increased water rates, as well as the cost of direct cleanup and remediation.

They found that of those surveyed, groundwater contamination cost over $76 million. For municipalities, the major cost associated with groundwater pollution was in loss to the tax base because of real estate devaluations and lack of business development. Five cities lost over $8 million in tax revenues. Seven cities spent $8.4 million directly on new equipment and water treatment. Four cities reported water rate increases ranging from 50 to 1000 percent. Twelve cities spent over $1.8 million on consulting services and additional staff time.

Businesses incurred more costs than municipalities. Approximately $21 million was spent in site cleanup/remediation; approximately $13 million in consulting services; approximately $7 million in soil and water testing. Four companies spent over $12 million on properties contaminated by previous owners and for which they became liable after purchase.

Certainly if a similar survey were undertaken in New Jersey, the numbers would be considerably higher, perhaps "staggering" is a better word. Yet such actions must be taken to protect the public health of those using the ground water resources. Protection of ground water quality must not be viewed as a short-term expense, but as a long-term investment. Policies, such as wellhead protection and acquisition of specific watershed lands, will cost millions, but may in the long term save our water supply, which in New Jersey is already in short supply as we look to the future beyond the Year 2000.

New Jersey utility and local governments must work together to assure that not only do we preserve what we've got, but that contaminated groundwater does not get any worse and that a program and time schedule for clean-up gets under way.

In May, the Passaic Valley Ground Water Protection Committee will celebrate its tenth anniversary. Currently 15 municipalities are actively involved in its programs, dedicated to groundwater protection. Why aren't more towns involved? The time has come!

Rebate repeal simply outrageous

Essex County Freeholder Arthur Clay called the proposal to repeal the homestead rebate program, now in its 13th year, as "simply outrageous" and called on area legislators to not only vote against this proposal but to "denounce" it as a direct rip-off of the taxpayers hard-earned money.

Clay said he intends to sponsor a resolution before the 9-member Board of Freeholders next week denouncing plans by the Florio administration to repeal the homestead rebate which uses money collected through the state income tax to provide checks to more than a million homeowners statewide.

"This is the first time I've ever heard of a tax-relief program that is going to cost taxpayers money, and a lot of it," said Clay, who said his phone has been ringing off the hook since the announcement last week of the tax increase proposals from Trenton.

According to Clay, the average homeowner in the area receives a check once a year, during the first weeks of July, for approximately $180, and this represents almost $10 million worth of tax relief to the people in his district.

Clay, the Fifth District Freeholder, represents the townships of Belleville, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge, Montclair and Nutley on the 9-member Board.

Dinner Theater in Mountain Lakes, to enjoy a luncheon and theater program of "GIGI" on May 1. The Friends' chartered coach will leave the Belleville Public Library at 221 Washington Avenue, at 10:30 a.m. The Friends anticipate returning to the library at 5 p.m. that day.

Pharmacy Footnotes

ADDED INFORMATION

Patients who receive prescriptions from their doctors may want to inquire about the availability of a Patient Medication Instruction (PMI) sheet for that medication. PMIs are meant to supplement the information that a patient receives about a medication. They are part of a drug information program launched by the American Medical Association. Each PMI contains information about a particular drug's use, how it should be taken, associated precautions, possible side effects, and information on discontinuing its use. While PMIs are not available for all prescription drugs, those that are in use will be periodically updated. The more patients know about prescription drugs they are taking, the less chance there is for misused use.

When you need information on a prescription drug, take the time to give us a call at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. We are Medicare and Blue Cross approved. A full selection of convenient aids can be found here including walkers, wheel chairs, crutches and canes. Baby needs, Russell Stover candies, transistor radios and other items are also available. Our column will feature many different topics on health and medications in the upcoming weeks. Open: Daily 9 am - 10 pm, Sundays 9 am - 2 pm.

NOTE: Eventually, PMI sheets will be available for about 100 classes of drugs.

Library gets grants for lecture series

The New Jersey Committee for the Humanities has approved the grant application of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center for a maximum of $2,000, for 10 lectures and discussions by scholars in 1990 to be given Wednesdays at 1 p.m. The Library will match the grant with in-kind services and books for the series.

The theme of the series, "The Pursuit of Happiness — America's Nobles in Literature: Weaving a Universal Thread" and the literature were suggested by Belleville resident and humanities scholar Frank DeLisi. He is the former head of the English Department at Central High School in Newark and adjunct professor of English at Rutgers University, working together with Adrea Cohen, assistant library director. Library director David Bryant will oversee the project.

Following is a list of the ten lectures, including the author and title of the book to be discussed, and the name of the discussion leader:

3. April 11 — Eugene O'Neill "Mourning Becomes Electra." Lecturer: Dr. Edward Huberman, Prof. Emeritus of English and American Literature, Rutgers.

4. April 25 — William Faulkner "Light in August." Lecturer: Dr. Mary Byrne, associate professor of humanities, Ocean County College.

5. May 9 — Ernest Hemingway, "For Whom The Bell Tolls." Lecturer: Dr. Jane Brown, professor of English, Trenton State College.

6. Sept. 12 — Ernest Hemingway, "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" and "The Killers." Lecturer: Dr. Edward Huberman.

7. Sept. 26 — John Steinbeck, "Winter Of Our Discontent." Lecturer: Dr. George Moore, lecturer, author.

8. Oct. 10 — Isaac Bashevis "Enemies: A Love Story." Lecturer: Dr. Robert Gold, professor of English, Jersey City State College.

9. Oct. 24 — John Steinbeck, "Of Mice and Men." Lecturer: Dr. George Moore, author, lecturer.

10. Nov. 7 — Saul Bellow "Seize the Day." Lecturer: Frank DeLisi.

The Belleville Public Library director David Bryant feels the library is a perfect place for public continuing education, a kind of people's university and an excellent location for the discussion of Nobel Prize authors.

To register for the series, call the library at 450-3434.

Surplus food distribution

Commissioner Joseph Fomaroito announced that the distribution of surplus food commodities for all income eligible Belleville residents will be held at the Department of Public Affairs on Friday, April 6, beginning at 10 a.m.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Gerard Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

Look at the birds of the air

"Look at the birds of the air..." Matthew 6:26
Jesus pointed His disciples to the birds of the air for a lesson dealing with anxiety. He told them that there is no need to be anxious. The birds of the air do not worry because He feeds them and He certainly will do likewise for us.

I have always enjoyed watching the ducks and geese flying south during the fall, wondering just where they might be going and from where they have come. They look so graceful in flight. There are some valuable lessons to be gained when one thinks of these flights, especially the flight of a flock of geese.

1. THERE IS STRENGTH IN NUMBERS — The scientists who study such things have discovered that by flying in a flock the geese can fly 71 percent further than if they flew alone! "And day by day continuing with one mind... together" (Acts 2:46). "...not forsaking our own assembling together..." (Hebrews 10:25). God knows that we can accomplish more when we work together, pray together, sing together, and fellowship together. There is strength in numbers.

2. GEESSE HELP EACH OTHER — The familiar V created by the flock will cause a swath of air that gives each successive goose a lift. They will also exchange places to let the lead goose rest. "Bear one another's burdens..." (Galatians 6:2). We always need to be ready to help each other. We also need to assume the responsibility of leadership from time to time.

3. THE HONKING — The incessant honking of the geese is for orientation and encouragement. "Therefore encourage one another and build up one another..." (1 Thessalonians 5:11). What kind of honking do we do?

4. DROP-OUTS — When one goose has to drop out of ranks because of sickness or injury, several others will drop out and stay with the sick or injured goose until it is back to health. "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one..." (Galatians 6:1). With a spirit of concern and gentleness God expects us to help restore the spiritual drop-out.

Simple yet powerful lessons from a flock of geese. May we indeed look to the "...birds of the air."

Rowers find a home

25 Years Ago

April 1, 1965...Ground-breaking ceremonies were held for the new crew boathouse for Belleville and Nutley. The building, financed entirely by public subscriptions, was located on the Passaic River bank in Kearny.

The members of the Belleville-Nutley Rowers Association reported work on the first of three sections for the boathouse was to be completed in 30 days.

The Rowers Association, an incorporated group, was organized solely to accomplish what the boards could not: raise funds to build a new home for the high school crew teams.

The total cost for the boathouse was $45,000, with $14,500 spent on the first section. The Rowers Association also spent $6,000 on the dock and float at the Kearny site.

Strumolo appointed

For the third consecutive year, former councilman Vincent T. Strumolo was named Belleville community chairman of the annual American Cancer Crusade.

President Charles J. Ward of the Essex County Chapter of the American Cancer Society announced Strumolo's appointment to the 1965 campaign, which was set to run from April 1 to April 30.

In accepting the chairmanship, Strumolo called for "an all-out community effort to help erase the scourge of cancer."

Trustcompany reports earnings up 19 percent

Siggi B. Wilzig, Chairman and President of The Trustcompany Bank Corporation (OTC), parent company of The Trust Company of New Jersey, announced that the bank reported a 19 percent increase in net income for the year ended Dec. 31, 1989.

Net income for the year increased from $16,323,000 to $19,467,000. During the same period, deposits increased 12 percent to a record $1.7 billion and assets increased 11.5 percent to a record $1.8 billion.

Wilzig stated, "The bank's excellent earnings performance is in sharp contrast with the New Jersey banking industry. The Trust Company's conservative investment and loan policies have resulted in unparalleled growth over the past five years," Wilzig added. "We have never held any 'junk bonds' nor made any joint venture real estate loans."

The Trust Company is the only bank in the history of New Jersey to reach $1.8 billion in assets without costly mergers or acquisitions.

Rescuer helps deliver Conrail safety message

The railroad is not a playground, the children at School 4 learned last week through a memorable presentation by Conrail representatives Tom Devine, Andy Boele and Anthony Falzo.

Falzo, last May rescued two tots from in front of his moving locomotive in Ramsey. His story, which first appeared in Bloomfield Life, has appeared in People Magazine and on the TV show Rescue 911.

The quiet, unassuming hero would be content to continue his uneventful life as a conductor as he has for seventeen years, but the fame that found Falzo last May now opens the doors for children in schools across the country to learn about railroad safety.

Just as fast as if you put your hand into a fire, Falzo explained to the children, and pulled it out as fast as you could, well that's how fast I decided to jump off the train and help get those children out of the way of the train last year. The rescue took 7 seconds, he told them.

But not everyone is lucky enough to have Falzo come to their rescue, Boele said. Nationally, in just one year, there were over 6,000 accidents at railroad crossing gates. They resulted in 2,224 injuries and 584 deaths.

Devine told the children that even though a train hasn't traveled on a neighborhood track in years, you never know when it may be used again. Freight trains move along at about 50 mph and mail trains zip along at about 70 mph. At those speeds, it can take one and a half to two miles for a train to stop.

Trains move in any direction along a track, Devine stressed, so you can never tell from which direction a moving train could silently slip up behind you.

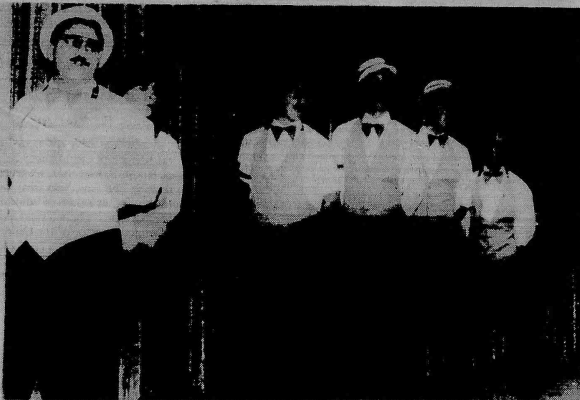

"You can be a hero," Boele told the children, "when somebody says 'let's go down to the railroad to play,' say 'no.' You'll be a hero because you save your life and if your friend doesn't go, you've saved your friend's life."

Devine, a Belleville resident, has been with Conrail for 33 years. He is the chairman of Conrail's Children's Safety School Program. The program has visited township elementary schools 7, 9 and 4 to spread the news that the railroad is not a playground.

Lt. Escott explains laws to combined classes

The Middle School's Team 3 students were visited by Belleville Police Lieutenant William Escott last Monday. Toni Mancini, the team's social studies teacher, had been teaching the students about the Constitution and they were extremely interested in the Second and Fourth Amendments.

However, in this hustle and bustle world, Mancini found it is very difficult to get a knowledgeable guest speaker to spend the time needed to discuss these two difficult areas.

When he heard of Mancini's dilemma through his son Tommy, a student on Team 3, Lt. Escott graciously volunteered to come to the Middle School and address the team.

For more than an hour, Lt. Escott covered search and seizure and gun control. He also fielded questions from the students.

The Second Amendment involves the right to bear arms. Lt. Escott touched upon the subject of assault weapons, the stand of the National Rifle Association, gun permits, the transport of guns and New Jersey gun laws.

The Fourth Amendment involves search and seizure. Lt. Escott explained probable cause, what constitutes the right to search, how police obtain warrants, and even student lockers.

The students were surprised to learn that police are mandated by state law to enforce and protect 24 hours a day, not just while they are on duty. It gave the students a new perspective and respect for the role of the police.

Lt. Escott was impressed that the students were so attentive and well-behaved. The teachers of Team 3 wish to thank Lt. Escott for giving of himself and his time to help the middle school students better understand the role of our police force in protecting our rights under the Constitution.

Camp program needs counselors

Teenagers residing in Belleville are urged to contact the Association for Retarded Citizens of Essex County for C.I.T. (Counselor-in-Training) positions at Camp Hope.

Camp Hope for the Retarded is an eight-week summer day camp program, located in East Hanover.

The C.I.T. volunteer position is available to boys and girls, 13 to 16 years old, for a four-week period. Daily hours are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and transportation may be available.

Applicants must be available for orientation the week of June 18 in the late afternoon. The camp season is June 25 to August 17.

Those interested call Lee Bergman, or Cindy Walsh, 535-1181, to arrange for an interview.

Learning a lot from history students get into costumes

Europeans from the Middle Ages to Modern Times were represented when School 7's sixth grade Academically Talented students held a "Famous Europeans in History" fair Friday, March 16.

The students, from the classes of Susan DiRuggiero and Gioia Crawford, donned original costumes and presented tabletop displays which depicted the famous figures from history.

Children, staff and relatives enjoyed visiting with Galileo, Shakespeare, Michelangelo, Queen Victoria, Marie Curie, Louis Pasteur and many other presentations.

Countries represented were England, France, Italy, Poland, Germany, Spain and Austria.

The children researched their historical figures and were well-informed about whom they portrayed. They answered many questions readily and enthusiastically. A great time and appreciation of history was shared by all.

I would like to respond to Joe Fornarotto's letter and set the record straight.

Who does the writing for you Joe? Why do you try to take credit for mandated programs for senior citizens which have been in existence long before you became commissioner? Why do you imply that should you lose the election, these Federal, State, County and local programs will be in jeopardy? Why do you try to frighten seniors with these lies?

I am older than you, Joe, and I never had the easy life which you have always enjoyed as a public employee, living all these years on the taxpayers. I worked in private industry while struggling to raise a large family.

You worked in Essex County Housing in the City of Newark, at a very high salary. You were in politics right up to your eyeballs and enjoyed all the privileges and patronages politics had to offer. You were in more trouble more times than Henry Aldrich used to get into. (Us old folks remember Henry Aldrich. The moment he got up out of bed he found himself in trouble). Unlike Henry Aldrich, you always managed to slip into trouble and come up smelling like a rose. Strange that you always found a judge in Newark to overturn all, except one, your convictions. How much did your political pals help you out there?

Wasn't there a senior citizens' bus line before you were elected to the post you now ride and wasn't there a Dial A Ride too? And didn't the Department of Health offer annual free check ups for seniors and didn't the Federal Government give the town food stuffs to give away to needy seniors? Why do you tell big lies and try to convey the impression that you, Joe Fornarotto, are giving these services to seniors? How desperate are you to cover your dismal failure and your incompetence with outright lies and distortion? I want your answer, in your own writing, to these charges.

Frank J. Noonan

After receiving notices from various sources that my wife Cathleen and I are being attacked on our Belleville residency, I walked out into my garden at 27 Independence Court in Clifton. The day was warm and windless, the sky a solid pale blue. Noting that the daffodils and crocuses were in bloom, and the late spring perennials were sprouting all over the place, I thought — by May 8, 1990, this beautiful escape from troubles will be badly neglected by me.

Horticulture has always been important to me. The thought that this important aspect of my life will not be available to me, this year caused me a little pain. Is it worth being attacked on something as basic as my right to vote or to hold public office? Then it occurred to me that it is just this reason, and this reason only, that I am running.

This little man, who is so troubled by my presence in the race, is the problem and he doesn't even realize it.

Yes, Mr. Frantantoni, my garden will suffer this year. I will have less time for recreation. I am convinced that the presence of my wife and I would be a force for good in our poor troubled town. We will continue to point out to the people that truth and reason would surely make a better Belleville.

Marina Perna

In order to effect change in Belleville's government, one must have a basic understanding of how a government works and what precludes a government from achieving maximum efficiency. Succinctly stated, government is an exercise of authority in the administration of the affairs of a community. The purpose of a municipal government is to serve the public and to protect the public health, safety, general welfare and morality. A city council's function is to conduct activities and operations for the promotion of public good. All action taken by the city council must be designed to further these objectives.

Mindful of these concepts, how then, can Belleville proceed to achieve a maximum level of efficiency? First, the newly elected members of the city council must recognize the limits of their authority whether derived from a direct delegation from the people, legislative home rule, or particular state legislation. Although the council must not go beyond its authority, it is important the council utilize every available means to exercise its authority to the fullest extent.

Second, Belleville's budget system must be reformed to reflect careful planning during the budget year. Goals such as senior citizen housing, waste disposal and improvement of the Washington Avenue business district must be programmed into specific projects which will receive the resources necessary to accomplish the task. With sound management we should not run into the pitfalls of the past in underestimating the costs of a project and having to borrow against reserves to make up the difference.

Third, once fiscal resources are allocated to town services such as street cleaning, paving or public recreation, a system of control must be devised to insure that these services are actually being performed.

A recognition of Belleville's problems is a step towards a better government. A vote for individuals who provide viable solutions is the means to achieve maximum efficiency.

Mario Drozd

I am seeking the office of councilman-at-large because it is time for a change of leadership in the township, starting with seven new faces. I would like to be one of the new faces.

The change of government election last May was a signal that the people want an end to the township's deterioration, lack of services, constant negative publicity and constant tax increases. Our financially strapped senior citizens have been crying out for proper housing since the 1970's. Since that time, our neighboring communities have built housing for their senior citizens. You ask, "Why not Belleville?" So I do.

The young, middle age and senior citizens are equally affected by the stagnation of the township. It affects everyone financially. Businesses are moving out instead of moving in. We must restore pride back to Belleville. What does all this mean? I, being actively involved for years in the township, as a homeowner and taxpayer of the community have been asking the same questions year after year.

Why?

To move ahead, we must establish goals:

1. For the township to move forward, the elected council must work as a team.
2. Hire a township manager of the highest caliber.
3. Council members must represent all the people of the community, not just neighbors and friends.
4. We must avoid taking short-term gains at the expense of long-term losses.
5. Be concerned with the total development, physical, economic and social of the community.
6. Expect and respect citizens' complaints. Have a follow-up system to insure they are effectively dealt with.
7. Develop a vision of the future. No vision, no plan.
8. Ask the public, how are we doing, how can we together do things better.
9. Good things do happen, the public should share the success.
10. Let's not be afraid of changes.

Tom Spillane

For many years the voters of Belleville have been hearing politicians say that they are going to do something about Washington Avenue. Some of them even tried to do something about the problem.

But, the bottom line is that for years nothing has been done to improve the Washington Avenue shopping area. This problem acutely affects the Third Ward and also has an effect upon the entire Township of Belleville.

We have to stop talking about Washington Avenue and start doing something positive before it's too late. What Washington Avenue lacks is adequate parking facilities. Just stop to think of how many times you would have stopped for something you wanted to purchase but there was not a parking space within two blocks of the store you wanted to go into. Multiply your experiences by all of the other people in town who have done the same thing to see how much business the Washington Avenue merchants are losing.

One answer to the problem is a series of mini-parking lots with a capacity of ten to twelve cars each. The meter fee could be structured to make the lots pay for themselves instead of being supported by property taxes. Besides the Washington Avenue merchants and landlords, who else gains from this proposal? We will all gain. We will be able to stop at a store that is convenient to our homes. Stores that are now vacant will be rented. Storeowners and merchants will be able to fix up their premises. Belleville will not only be better; it will look better.

William P. Cook

Fourth ward council candidate, William P. Cook, has targeted proper Senior Citizen Housing for Belleville residents as a prime objective for the Township.

"We are currently one of only two municipalities in the entire county that does not provide senior citizen housing," Cook said. "Building grants and subsidies have started to overcome previous administrative problems, and the time to act is now."

Cook suggested that an ideal location would be the vacated county Geriatrics Center property. "The county has not yet made a final development as to the final disposition of the Soho site. The area is ideal, and large enough to provide adequate parking, green space, and an architecturally satisfying and functional building."

Cook also commented that the Township Administration should be more proactive in seeking the property. "The Geriatrics Center has been in Belleville for as long as many of us can remember. During that entire period, the 35 acre site has remained tax-free and I feel the county owes the Township some consideration."

"Our officials should be lobbying and negotiating with the County Executive and the Freeholders, especially since Mr. Amato has stated that that use as senior citizen housing would be a possibility. Our goal should be to have housing for Belleville seniors, not a county facility where we might only get a small piece of the pie."

An Orecchio Publication

Cook also suggested another senior citizen program he would try to have implemented if elected. "The various senior citizen groups and clubs in the Township provide an excellent resource for people to learn about available programs. For various reasons, many of our citizens do not belong to these organizations. We should institute a Senior Citizen Information Center, a one-stop-shopping phone service where seniors can call for information of any type from air travel discounts to tax assistance to zoning. The phones could possibly be manned by volunteers who would have this information catalogued. They would be able to provide an answer or have someone with the necessary expertise to return the call. There are many programs available that people do not utilize because they don't know about them or they don't know who to call."

Cathleen Noonan

On March 22, 1990 I was notified that Mr. Vincent Frantantoni had filed an objection to the candidacy for Council of my husband Frank and myself on the grounds that we have a second home in Clifton. He further noted that as evidence of this second home, he had in his hand possession of a handwritten letter from Frank inviting him to a Christmas party at our house at 27 Independence Court in Clifton. He further states that since the first of the year he has been accumulating extensive data on myself and my family and that we have been living at this Passaic County address.

It is difficult to believe that a busy Washington Avenue merchant, a busy general contractor and a very busy town official, would have time for such silly things as following me and my family.

Does he feel that I am bad for Belleville and my presence on the council would make the job of picking a new Town Manager more difficult? Is my educational background so tainted that I would not be able to make rational decisions? Are the Belleville citizens such that they couldn't make up their minds as to the quality of the various candidates? If it is the case then Mr. Frantantoni is doing the right thing in opposing our place on the ballot.

Frank and I have promised that we will keep campaigning on issues, and not personalities.

We certainly hope that as our campaigns develop, Mr. Frantantoni will think the better of us.

Kevin Kennedy

The following is a statement from Kevin G. Kennedy.

This is the fourth in a series to discuss my platform in support of my candidacy for 3rd Ward council. I would like to discuss one project that I have on my energetic agenda — senior citizens housing. Like many other communities, Belleville has a growing number of senior citizens, a vital part of our community. Unlike many other communities, Belleville's elected officials have not seen fit to exert themselves to obtain senior housing for this precious resource. We have to plan for senior housing now so we can keep our loved ones in the township without leaving their children, grandchildren and long-life friends. They offer a vast amount of vital experience and knowledge which can enhance all our lives.

I pledge to spearhead this too-delated effort to bring this idea to reality, first by forming a senior citizen advisory council, and then urging H.D.U. to fund the housing, all at a double-time pace.

As with most things, the only way to understand an issue is to meet personally with the people who are most affected, and having done so, I am in a position to fully understand the concern of our seniors.

I'm confident that the voters of the 3rd Ward, as well as those of the entire Township, will completely agree with this pledge.

Also another major concern of mine is the youth of our town. I have personally witnessed a new playground in our Ward torn apart known as "Kellys Court."

I feel that boredom and lack of youth activities is the primary cause of mischief throughout the township.

It is my belief that there are employees working at night in the schools. Supervision can be maintained by volunteer parents, seniors, police, council members.

Thursday, March 29, 1990

Having the opportunity to visit such a program and received information from the city of Newark. I personally visited one working recreation center and feel if it can work in the city it can work in a smaller scale in our township for our youth. Vote with confidence Kevin G. Kennedy.

Ralph B. Mazzuca

A rally was held on March 21, at the Knights of Columbus on behalf of Ralph B. Mazzuca. Mazzuca is seeking the one year seat as a trustee for the Board of Education. Speaking on his behalf was Gerard Morano, Director of the Office of Employment and Technology from the Newark school system. He expressed that with his extensive qualifications, dedication and concern for children that he will be a valuable asset to the board of education.

Mazzuca emphasized that he had 31 years in education both as a teacher and a supervisor. Because of his experience in obtaining grants and funding throughout his employment, he stated that he has the leadership qualities necessary to do the best job for the children. He stressed that an open line of communication should be maintained amongst parents, senior citizens, school personnel, and board of education members.

In conclusion, Mazzuca wanted everyone to share this thought, "Schools were established for children. We shall pass-on, but children will remain. We, as adults, have a duty and an obligation to work together with our minds and hearts to provide the best education possible, to have our children reach their fullest potential physically, morally and mentally. The children of today are our leaders of tomorrow."

An overwhelming support was expressed by the outstanding turnout and standing ovation following Mazzuca's speech. Over 200 people came to show their support for the Belleville education candidate. Some of the people in attendance were Rev. Fortunato, board members Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, Pat Pisano, Seymour Grossman, Richard Yanuzzi council candidates Mario Drozd, Mike Giordano, Marina Perna, Bill Cook, and Frank Caputo.

Frank Caputo

With numerous friends, family and avid supporters in attendance, Frank A. Caputo, candidate for 2nd Ward councilman, kicked off his campaign with a breakfast that was held on March 25 at the Chandeliers Restaurant.

Many of the invited speakers highlighted Caputo's accomplishments and qualifications and emphasized Caputo's campaign theme of "A New Beginning" for the citizens of Belleville.

Essex County Sheriff Thomas J. D'Alesio, Democratic candidate for County Executive, noted that he was at the breakfast "to salute Frank Caputo for what he stands for." D'Alesio made particular note of Caputo's genuine concern for children, and that this concern was clearly evident as Caputo performed his job responsibilities as Substance Awareness Coordinator for the Newark Board of Education.

Telling the citizens in attendance that they had an "opportunity for a new beginning in this town," Joseph C. Parlevacchio, president of the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders, indicated that Frank Caputo "has friends in county government." Parlevacchio described Caputo as a person who is "committed, who cares and understands people."

"We are all partners in a new Belleville," emphasized Jim Cozzarelli, member of the Board of Trustees, Belleville Public Library, and Caputo's "wisdom, knowledge, and creative strength will carry Belleville for years to come." Cozzarelli continued by calling Caputo "a political visionary" whose "efforts will be genuine."

and indeblite."

Frank Caputo ended the program by addressing his supporters and calling for unity amongst the citizens. "When I look at a child and an adult, I look at them in the same way, with dignity and respect. If we can have dignity and show respect for each other, we will move forward. We have today and tomorrow and I believe, together, we will make Belleville a town we can all be proud of, young and old."

The Committee to Elect Frank A. Caputo has indicated that numerous activities are planned for the citizens of Belleville's 2nd Ward leading up to Election Day, May 8, 1990. Further information will be circulated to all ward residents.

Andrew Bloesch

Under the slogan and theme of "Government That Works Without Further Taxation," Andrew M. Bloesch of Greycliff Parkway announced his candidacy for councilman-at-large in the May 8 township council election.

Bloesch, 40, is currently employed as a high tech electronics for General Motors in Linden. His highly diversified background includes an Associate Electrician Degree from the RCA Institute in New York in 1972, and he is a 1988 graduate from the American Institute of Paralegal Studies. Bloesch is also a member of the American Amateur Astronomers Association, and has published two journals in the Space Science Journal.

Bloesch said that if elected councilman, he would fight to make sure that the proposed flood tunnel is never built. "The people of Belleville should not be burdened with a billion dollar project that will cause severe flooding in the Valley section," he said. "More logical plans are available, such as a buy out of homes in the Wayne area. This program is much cheaper, and much more practical."

He continued to state that he is opposed to the construction of a new town hall complex. "I was opposed to a new building when the issue first appeared, and I remain opposed to one," he continued. "I believe the taxpayers of Belleville can save money and see a more efficient government with the renovation of the existing building and locating the police at school number one."

"Some of the present commissioners were highly vocal in opposing this building, but now, three years later, plans to construct it continue. The town has spent over one million dollars on this project without a brick to show for it."

Bloesch also stated he wishes to work on improving town services if elected. "Our residents are paying high tax rates. They deserve to receive services for which they are paying. Unfortunately, this isn't so, and it must be addressed."

Bloesch is married to Mary Susan Ringall Bloesch. They have two children.

Richard Yanuzzi

Second Ward Council candidate Richard Yanuzzi stated this week that as councilman he would seek to continue the township's program of cleaning and reining water mains in order to bring clean water to all of Belleville's residents.

"The new town council must make a commitment of continuing to work on water mains," Yanuzzi said. "Many of our current pipes are antiquated or dirty. Clean water going through dirty pipes only brings dirty water to our citizens."

Yanuzzi continued to explain that with the current status of the township infrastructure, all of the pipes would need to be cleaned and relined in order to assure that our residents will have clean and safe drinking water.

Yanuzzi also stated that he is interested in improving the system by which trees are serviced in the township.

"We must expand our efforts in removing dead or dying trees and cutting roots which are uplifting sidewalks," Yanuzzi continued. "We must also work on trimming healthy trees which have branches growing into power lines."

"Something must be done to provide better service for these requests, instead of phoning for assistance, and either never receiving a phone call or waiting six or seven months until someone shows up."

Yanuzzi currently serves as a member of the Belleville Board of Education, and as an aide to Assemblywoman Marion Crecco. He is seeking election to the second ward council seat in the May 8 municipal election.

Testimonial dinner April 26 to honor Austin MacArthur

The Home and School Association of School 3 is planning a testimonial dinner to honor Austin J. MacArthur, principal of School 3.

Dinner will be April 26 at the Friar Tuck, Cedar Grove. Tickets are $30 per person which includes a choice of breast of capon, coron bleu or roast sirloin of beef and unlimited wine and soda during the meal.

Reservations and payment must be in by March 31. For information, call Toni Auerbach at 751-6994.

Clara Maass Guild sails April 29 on charity trip

The Clara Maass Guild will set sail April 29 on the Star Ship for a cruise around Manhattan, including brunch, music, dancing and live entertainment.

The Star departs 11:30 a.m. from Pier 62 at West 23rd St. at the Hudson River in Manhattan and returns dockside at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are $65 per person and must be reserved by April 10. Call 228-9320 for reservations.

Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase equipment for the medical center.

Clara Maass now offering car seat loaner program

In an effort to ensure regular car seat usage, Clara Maass Medical Center is now offering a car seat loaner program for short and long term rentals.

Automobile accidents are the number one cause of accidental death for children under the age of four. Every year, 800 child passengers are killed and 50-70 thousand are injured, many seriously. An estimated 90 percent of the fatalities and 70 percent of the injuries can be prevented with regular, proper car seat use.

Infant and toddler car seats will be available for short and long term rental periods for a nominal fee. The car seat loaner program is intended for persons who cannot afford to purchase a car seat, or choose not to purchase one; persons who have friends or relatives visiting and need a seat temporarily; persons who have been involved in an auto accident (even a minor one) in which a car seat was involved.

New Jersey State law requires all children under 18 months of age to be buckled into an approved car seat, whether in the front or back seat. Children under age five must be in an approved car seat if they ride in the front seat. As back seat passengers, regular seat belts must be used.

For further information about the car seat loaner program, contact Monique Davis, Health Educator, at 680-8800 or Shelly Sandler, OB Clinical Specialist at 450-2047, weekdays 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

MEDICALLY SPEAKING

HOARSENESS

- Q: What is hoarseness?
A: Hoarseness is an alteration in the normal production of the voice by the vocal cords.
- Q: What are the causes of hoarseness?
A: Most cases are caused by infection (laryngitis). Some others are related to voice abuse, environmental exposure, or smoking, which can cause vocal cord nodules and polyps.
- Q: Who should have an examination by a throat specialist?
A: Anyone who has hoarseness persisting for two weeks.
- Q: Have there been recent advances in the diagnosis of hoarseness?
A: Yes. With the FLEXIBLE FIBEROPTIC LARYNGOSCOPE, a complete examination of the voice box can be done in the office without discomfort.
- Q: What if I need surgery?
A: Surgery can be done under general anesthesia on an outpatient (same day) basis. All removed tissue is sent for a biopsy study. Modern techniques such as the OPERATING MICROSCOPE and, in indicated cases, LASER, allow accurate and precise surgery. Recovery is rapid with patients able to resume most activities the next day.

BUCK SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

One of the more exciting weekends in sports will commence late Saturday afternoon with the Final Four of NCAA men's college basketball. Four teams, Georgia Tech, UNLV, Duke and Arkansas will battle on Saturday, with the two survivors set for the championship game next Monday evening.

Who do you like in the national semis? Some of our resident experts have made their bold predictions and I'd like to share them with you.

Belleville track coach John Tosato put himself on the map as a college hoops prognosticator in 1985 when he boldly stated in this column that Villanova would beat Georgetown in the finals. As most fans know, 'Nova did just that, stunning G-Town by two points in one of the most exciting games in record.

Now, Tosato has come out and predicted UNLV and Duke to play in the finals.

"My track team will kill me for this, because they're Georgia Tech fans, but I like UNLV to win the whole thing," Tosato said. "They've got it all together."

When he's not complaining about a lack of a playing field, baseball coach Nick Grande is busy studying college hoops. Like Tosato, he has picked UNLV and Duke to play in the championship game.

"I'm pulling for Duke to win, because of the Jersey kids (Ala. Adebunloyi from Bloomfield and Bob Hurley from Jersey City start for Duke), but it's hard to pick against UNLV. They put on quite a show last weekend (in beating Loyola-Marymount)."

Softball coach Carl Corino is a well rounded sports fan. The coach took time off last weekend from softball practice to make his prediction. Unlike Tosato and Grande, Corino is opting for the other two teams in the Final Four.

"Arkansas and Georgia Tech in the finals," Corino said. "I like Arkansas to win it all."

When asked why he thought Arkansas would win, Corino replied, "my cousin moved to Arkansas a while back. During the holidays, we got together and he told me then that Arkansas would be a team to be reckoned with when it came to the tourney. 'I've got to stay with that prediction. I think they have the speed and talent to win.'"

Former baseball coach George Zanfini, who has traveled to many Final Fours over the years, is predicting an all ACC championship game.

"Duke and Georgia Tech," Zanfini said. "I like Georgia Tech to win it all. UNLV has a tough inside game, but I think Tech is the outside shooter to beat them. In either event, I feel the winner of the Tech-UNLV game will win the title next Monday."

Football coach John Senesky considers himself a guru when it comes to college hoops. His opinions regarding basketball are highly regarded in this area. When asked who would win this year's Final Four, Senesky had these comments.

"Who's playing,?"

When advised of the four teams, the coach said, "well, I guess I'll go with Arkansas and UNLV to play in the finals. I like UNLV, mainly because it's easy to spell."

"I was watching the pro bowlers four last weekend and missed the games. As you can tell, I'm not a big fan of college hoops. Now, if this were football..."

Belleville Athletic Director Jim Silvestri is well rounded in all the sports. He was pretty sure of who would play in the finals. "Duke and Vegas, with Vegas winning," the retiring A.D. announced. "Most of the teams I predicted in the office pool were out in the round of 32. But you have to go with Vegas. They're really playing well."

Our college basketball expert, the Mike Francesa of the Belleville Times is Joe Papisidero, the former Belleville boys' basketball coach. The King of Cliches, the man who made "they've got guys back who weren't there last year" a household quote, is going with Duke and UNLV in the finals.

"Duke will win it all," Paps said. "In a one game championship, anything can happen. Vegas looks to be the strongest entry, but anything can happen in this game."

Vegas does look strong. But they remind me of Georgetown in 1985 and Houston in 1983. Those teams looked absolutely unbeatable, but in the championship game, they lost. "Like the majority of the people on our panel, I like Duke, but I think Georgia Tech will pull the upset and beat UNLV. In the championship, I think Duke will finally break the jinx and win it all."

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

In 1980, UCLA advanced to the Final Four. The Bruins defeated Clemson in the regional championship game. In the national semis, UCLA defeated Purdue. The Bruins coach was Larry Brown. The point guard on the '80 UCLA team was "Rocket" Rod Foster.

THIS WEEKS QUIZ

Three quizzes this week. The first one regards Joe Papisidero. Earlier in this column, I mentioned his now famous quote, "they've got guys back who weren't there last year." When Papisidero first said that to me in February, 1989, he was referring to an upcoming opponent. Who was that opponent?

Now, the second quiz. Duke and Arkansas last appeared together in the Final Four back in 1978. Who were the other two teams that made up the '78 Final Four? What were the matchups in the '78 Final Four semis? Two players from New Jersey were starters for their respective teams in the Final Four. Who were those players? What high schools did they play for? What college did they play for?

The third quiz. Name the last player to play for two different national championship semis' basketball teams.

FOR NEXT WEEK

As you have probably read in previous editions of the Belleville Times, the Scholar Athlete dinner will be April 5 at the Mayfair Farms. At that dinner, the top football scholar-athletes from Essex County are honored. Belleville's recipient is Ken Sainz. We'll look back at Ken's career and also remember some of the past Belleville scholar-athletes.

Will field be ready in time?

Belleville baseball coach Nick Grande is beginning to get frustrated. He isn't frustrated with his players and he isn't down about his coaching staff. He is looking at a problem that has become all too familiar with his program the past two seasons. A lack of a playing facility.

"We've been told that the field will be ready for play by April 1," Grande said last weekend. "That's fine for opening day, but where is it written that April 1 was the big day. We opened up on March 8 and we don't have a steady place to practice. We were denied permits by the county to use Belleville Park. Consequently, we're using the JV field, which isn't big enough to house all three teams (the freshman, JV and varsity)."

As all Belleville baseball fans know, the team was without a home field for the entire 1989 campaign. The Bucs played a few "home" games at nearby Nutley Park, but that was hardly a home field advantage.

This year, as the field continues to be prepared for the season opener, Grande is becoming impatient with the lack of facility.

"I'm really tired of talking about it," the coach said. "It's just ludicrous that I can't find a consistent place to practice properly. I'm planning on using the varsity field this week. I've got to get the kids on that field and get some steady time. People ask me where the team practices and I say 'wherever I can find a place'."

Because of the bad weather last week, two scrimmages were postponed. The Bucs did get in two exhibitions, playing at Montclair last Friday and Clifton last Saturday.

"We looked pretty good," Grande said of the two scrimmages. "We played much better against Clifton, which I feel is a very good ball club this year. We made mistakes, both mentally and physically. I can deal with the physical aspect, because we haven't had that steady practice time."

"But I get annoyed with the mental mistakes. We played a good game against Clifton, but in one inning, we made four errors and that broke the game open in Clifton's favor."

Grande was happy with his teams base running and feels that the batting eye will come around.

"We have some scrimmages coming up this week, and if the weather holds up, we should be able to get in a good week of batting practice. The hitting will come around."

Grande has a relatively young

Tosato says season could be one big roadshow in 1990

The Belleville track team will open the 1990 season on April 3 at Bloomfield. Buccaneer head coach John Tosato has admitted that his team might have to race all of its meets on the road because of lack of a proper facility.

"Nothing has been done to the track," Tosato said. "A decision on our home meets will probably be made this week. We've submitted several work orders and have made calls, but there has been no response."

Despite the obstacles, Tosato has been happy with the early season preparation.

"The good weather has helped," Tosato said. "We've been able to get in a lot of work."

There are some talented runners returning to the spring lineup this year, headed by senior John Sternik. Sternik will run the sprint events, mainly the 100, 200 and 400 meters, along with a leg of the mile relay. The senior had a good indoor season and was spectacular last spring for the Bucs.

Senior Doug Hoogenydyk will concentrate on the sprint events and also the jumps, namely the high, triple and long jumps.

Senior Bryan Rock will see action in the 400 meters and 400 meter hurdles. Another senior, Marcelo DiGiano, will compete in the hurdles and high jump. This is DiGiano's first year on the track team, and Tosato is very happy with the seniors work ethic.

Junior Emilio DeGuia will concentrate on the high hurdles and the jumping events. Brian Doyle is slated for the distance events, mainly the mile and two mile. Another man who will work on the distance events is Enzo Vian.

The pole vaulters appear to be senior Angelo Silva and freshman Mike Citarella.

Tosato is very encouraged by his weight team. Juniors Steve Caponi, Andrew Hutchinson and George Wallace have looked good in the shot put, discus and javelin. Also doing well in the weight events are sophomore Mark Capizzi and freshman John Alvarado.

The coaching staff, in addition to Tosato, features Mike Popovich, Richard Ruffalo, Anthony LaVista, Karen Pucello and Karen Portuese. The latter two will be the coaches of the girls' team.

"Bloomfield is a young team," Tosato said of the Bucs opening day opponent. "It should be a good match."

Golf team opens season on April 2 vs. Nutley Raiders

Tackling a very ambitious schedule, the Belleville golf team will begin its regular campaign on April 2 against arch rival Nutley. The match will be held at Forest Hills Country Club.

Gene D'Allesandro's club will have at least 28 matches this year, with a possibility of 30 matches.

"The kids should get as much experience as possible," D'Allesandro said. "The team will also be playing in a number of new country clubs this year. It should be a good opportunity for the team."

The Bucs have matches scheduled at Glen Ridge Country Club, Montclair CC, Upper Montclair CC and the Mountain Ridge CC. In addition, the county championships will be contested at Greenbrook CC.

Belleville, which finished third in the counties last year, will return a strong nucleus from last years team.

"We lost Anthony Alvino and Chris DuHaime from last years team," D'Allesandro said. "Those two will be missed. But I feel confident with the kids we have coming back. The only thing I'm disappointed about is only six kids came out for the team."

Right now, senior Sal Taibi is slated for the number one slot in the lineup. There are four juniors and one sophomore vying for the remaining four slots. The juniors are Jerry Mahoney, Vic Talamini,

Sal Taibi was the number two man on last years team. Peter Taibi played very well as a freshman for the '89 club, working mostly in the number three position. Talamini returns to the Bucs after missing the 1989 campaign. Scott played in the fifth slot on the '89 team.

D'Allesandro expects some difficult matches this year against defending state champ Bergen Catholic, Don Bosco, Paramus Catholic, Caldwell and St. Joe's of Montvale.

"We'll be looking to have a good time this year," D'Allesandro said. "We have a good group of kids. If we concentrate on improving our game and not concern ourselves on the W's and L's, we'll be okay."

NOTES: Bucs were 13-4 last season, finishing third in the conference and county. Alvino tied for the conference championship last year. This is D'Allesandro's fourth year as golf coach. In his first three years, Bucs have a record of 46-9. During the decade of the 1980's, the Belleville golf program averaged a record of 12-5.

Mike Salzarulo coached the team in 1980, Rocco Colucci was the head coach from 1981-86 and D'Allesandro has been at the helm since 1987.

ball club in 1990. At first base, he is working with sophomore Mike Melham and junior Rich Ferrugia.

The second base candidates are Jason Nardachone and Mike D'Achille. The shortstop could be junior Art Caruso, with D'Achille also gaining some time at short.

The third base spot is wide open. Joe Cocuzza appeared to have the starting spot, but a shoulder injury might keep him on the shelf for a while. Mike Capasso and Andy DuHaime have also seen action at third base.

The catcher looks to be senior Ken Sainz. In the outfield, Carmen Spina looks good in leftfield, Paul Auriemma and Ryan Wells are vying for the centerfield slot while rightfield is being contested by Bill Salvatore, Jason Galio and Jim DuHaime.

Some of the pitching candidates are Andy DuHaime, Jim DuHaime, Mike Kimball, Galio and Capasso.

"The kids know they have to learn more than one position this year," Grande said. "We've been using the scrimmages to mix things up a little. We're trying to get a look at the kids at different slots. I also have some sophomores who have looked good and could gain a varsity slot. I'll know more about them later in the week."

NOTES: Bucs are supposed to be home to West Essex this afternoon in a scrimmage. Game time is set for 4 p.m. Tomorrow, the team is at Columbia. On Saturday, Bucs will take on Lyndhurst in a 2 p.m. start at Lyndhurst. The season opener is scheduled for April 6, at Kennedy.

Grande was hoping to get a regular season game in before the April 6 opener.

"That's a late starter," Grande said. "We're trying for an April 3rd or 4th game against a Union county opponent."

Grande is also hoping that the schedule will eventually have an Essex County flavor one day.

"We're traveling to Bergen County consistently. There are some excellent rivalries right here in Essex County and it would give our kids better exposure. This season, we'll be playing teams from five different counties (Bergen, Essex, Morris, Passaic and Union). I hope that in future years, we can play teams more from this area."

Advantage wins season opener

For the first time in three years, Belleville is being represented by a Division II Soccer Team under the leadership of Coach Bob Travers and known as the Belleville "Advantage". The team boasts some fine local talent and has played the past two Sundays in the Mid-New Jersey Youth Soccer Assoc. League (MNYJSL) against some well-known formidable teams from East Brunswick and Bridgewater.

Since the team hasn't had any scrimmage games, Coach Travers was apprehensive as to how well the Advantage would do. He soon found out as his team beat East Brunswick 5-0 on goals by Brian Travers (2), Chris Jaworski, Stan Saja, and Jim Wandling (captain). The Advantage were especially impressive at the defensive and numerous charges by East Brunswick were negated outside of the 18-yard area.

This past Sunday, the Advantage played its second consecutive home match at Belleville High School Stadium and easily beat a tougher Bridgewater team 8-0 as six different players got onto the score card. Stan Saja and Jim Wandling each scored two goals. Brian Travers, Darren Lewis, Chris Mazurkiewicz (penalty kick), and Greg Delmonte finished off the offensive barrage with one-apiece. Jim Wandling, Stan Saja and the coach's son, Brian now have three goals apiece after two weeks.

The strong defensive unit of Tony Silva, Brian Travers, Chris Jaworski and Frank Crocco (captain) have been extremely successful in preventing opponents from taking good shots on goal. Goalies Chris Mazurkiewicz and Emmanuel Arrajo have combined for both shutouts and are looking forward to the State Cup Games in anticipation of a "little more action in goal."

The team travels to Flanders on Saturday for the first game on the road to the State Cup Finals and will also play games 3 of the regular season on Sunday in Westfield. The home schedule will be included in next week's article for the younger up-and-coming soccer star of Belleville to come out and watch some fine soccer.

Cobras defeat Strikers, 3-2

The Belleville Soccer Association Division I Cobras soundly defeated the Scotch Plains Strikers, 3-2, this past Sunday at Belleville Municipal Stadium. It was the opening game of the spring season for both teams.

The Cobras dominated the contest from the onset with a score coming just 10 minutes into the game. Paul Mora led an attack downfield and crossed to Victor Guevara who slammed the ball past the defending goalie. At the 30 minute mark, the Cobras were awarded a corner kick. Mora hooked the ball into the net from the corner unassisted, giving Belleville the lead 2-0 at the half.

Five minutes into the second half, the Strikers scored on a perfectly executed cross pass in the box. At the 65 minute point, the Scotch Plains team scored again as the Belleville goalkeeper was forced out the net to defend against a one-on-one, and the Striker player chipped the ball over his head.

The Cobras did not want just a tie however and immediately retaliated with an unassisted goal by Enzo Vian. Belleville then seemed to intensify its attack with shots by Fab Di Carlo and Bill Jaworski hitting the post before the game ended after 90 grueling minutes of play, the Cobras victorious.

The Belleville defense was superb throughout the game with a strong showing by Franco Vitelli and Eugene Gencarelli. The fullbacks played a high defense, keeping the ball on the Belleville side of the field for a majority of the game. Belleville goalie, Tim Cook had 10 saves.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Playground applications

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that applications for Summer Recreation positions are now available. Playground director and sports clinic instructor positions are open to those who will have completed their first year of college by the summer of 1990. Preference is given to those majoring in recreation, physical education, teaching and psychology. In certain cases, consideration will be given to high school seniors who have demonstrated leadership skills and/or outstanding athletic ability. There will be few positions open so those who desire summer employment are urged to apply promptly.

Persons wishing to apply should phone the recreation department office at 450-3422 weekdays to obtain an application. Interviews will be scheduled around Easter to accommodate college students who are home for spring break. Potential applicants must be residents of Belleville and must be available to work for seven straight weeks from June 25 to August 10. All returning employees must also re-apply.

A.S.A. umpire tests

The Belleville A.S.A. Umpire's Association will be conducting the A.S.A. Softball Umpire's Test on April 16, at 7 p.m. at the Rec House, 407 Jorammon Street. Any adult, male or female, interested in taking the test should call the Belleville Recreation Department at 450-3422 to obtain an application for the test. There is a $20 non-refundable Exam Fee that must accompany your application.

Persons who register for the test can attend the A.S.A. Softball Rules Clinics, to be given March 22 and 29, and April 12 - 6:30 p.m. at the Belleville Recreation Department. These clinics are designed to prepare all potential umpires for the test on April 16. The clinics will be conducted by Frank C. Ameo, Belleville's umpire-in-chief.

The registration deadline is March 23. The course and test are open to all persons, 18 years of age and older. A 70% passing grade will be required. Successful applicants will then be qualified to umpire A.S.A. softball after paying their membership dues, and will be responsible for securing their own work assignments.

Recreation track

The Belleville Recreation Department will be offering a recreation track program for boys and girls in grades 6, 7 and 8. The program will tentatively be conducted Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Stadium from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon. Scheduled to begin on April 3, the program will be designed to introduce aspiring runners to the fundamentals of track and field. Participants ipation, rather than competition, will be stressed. Training will consist of instructions and fun activities, instead of intense physical workouts. This year's program instructor will be Anthony La Vista, a former runner for the Belleville High School Track team.

Children in grades 6, 7 & 8 who reside in Belleville are eligible. Those children who will be playing baseball or softball should not take part in this program, however, since practices and schedules will conflict. To register, come to the Recreation Office at 407 Jorammon Street between 8:30 - 4, Monday - Friday, with your birth certificate.

Umpires needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is in need of adults and boys or girls, age 16 or older, to umpire games in the recreation baseball and softball leagues. Games are played on weekday nights and Saturdays during the months of May-June. For more information or to apply, call the Recreation Department office at 450-3422 or stop at the Rec House on Jorammon Street before 4 p.m. on weekdays.

Women's volleyball playoff results

(From March 20) The Jammers repeated as champions in the 1990 Women's Volleyball League as they defeated Gino's Pizza 15-9, 15-9 in the playoff finals last week. In the semi-final round, the Jammers swept Spiked Punch 15-2, 15-6 and Ginos rallied past Reunion 4-15, 15-13, 15-8.

Nets clinch title

The Nets in the Junior Boys Recreation League have clinched the league title for the second consecutive year. The boys, superbly coached by Earl Wake and Juan Rodriguez, just completed an undefeated season with a record of 10-0. The members of the championship team are: J.R. Rodriguez, Mike Russomanno, Dominic Raimundo, Matt Mulcahey, Tim Sobanko, Cory and Neil Hansford, Brian Conway and Luis Torres. The boys would like to thank coaches Wake and Rodriguez for all their time and effort. They would also like to thank their parents for their support.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that on Thursday, April 12, 1990, at 8:00 p.m., the Belleville Planning Board will hold a hearing on the application of Henry Ramer, P.A., as Agent and Attorney for Mobil Oil Corporation, 245 Diamond Bridge Avenue, Hawthorne, New Jersey 07066, for bulk variances, an offstreet parking variance, site plan approval, waivers and such other approvals as the Board may deem necessary in order to approve the subject plans, in order to renovate the existing gasoline station located at 389-397 Franklin Avenue (Corner of Joramelon Street), Belleville, New Jersey. The property in question is shown on the tax maps of the Township of Belleville as Block 576, Lots 32 and 36 and is located in the B-13 and R-1 zones. Applicant proposes to alter the existing station by demolishing a kiosk, reconstructing a pump island, and adding a new building including a retail sales area and one new 11.3 square foot including a retail sales area and one new 11.3 square foot "Mobil Mart" sign.

The application will be heard on April 12, 1990 at 8:00 p.m. at 383 Washington Avenue, second floor, Belleville, New Jersey. When the case is called you or your attorney may appear.

All maps, plans and other documents relating to this application are on file at the office of the Planning Board, 383 Washington Avenue, Belleville, New Jersey, and may be inspected during regular business hours.

Easter

CLASSIFIED SPECIAL
APRIL 5 & 12, 1990

On April 15th we celebrate Easter — on March 20th we welcome Spring.

This is the time of year when people are buying new clothes, refurbish their homes — the list is endless.

Timing is essential to sound profitable advertising. You have to "shoot when the ducks are flying." This sportsman's axiom translates into retail practice like this: Spend your money when most customers are in a mood to buy your type of merchandise.

The Nutley Sun — Belleville Times — Bloomfield Life have a $392 MILLION MARKET. We can guarantee that this market will see your advertising. Our circulation is 100% paid. Our newspapers are delivered through the U.S. MAIL — they're also sold in over 125 newsstands. Our newspapers don't land on the lawns, nor in the trash; they're not blown away by the wind!

So be a wise advertiser... put your advertising dollars where they will work for you and take advantage of our special Easter Sale.

RATE
$.50 per column inch — your ad appears in all three newspapers.

MECHANICALS
9 columns x 21 inches
1-3/8" column width
1/8" between columns

DEADLINES

Weichert Realtors to launch Buyer Protection Plus

Weichert, Realtors has developed an exclusive incentive program that enables sellers to include a consumer protection package to the purchaser of their home.

The innovative three-part program, Buyer Protection Plus, protects homebuyers from home repair bills; insures their home and all belongings; and provides an option to refinance their mortgage, without paying points.

"Most consumer products today come with warranties, guarantees, or insurance. Shouldn't the largest investment of your life come with some protection?" said Larry Mueller, regional vice president. "One of the best benefits of Buyer Protection Plus is that it helps sellers distinguish their home from others in a glutted market."

Buyer Protection Plus offers buyers a one-time option to refinance their mortgage without paying points, which would otherwise cost 3 percent of the loan amount.

It also gives buyers a home warranty plan that covers repair or replacement bills on certain appliances, utilities, and amenities for one year.

Buyers also get a one-year homeowner's insurance plan, providing standard coverage through a top-rated company.

For more information on Buyer Protection Plus, contact your local Weichert office.

James Weichert, president of Weichert, Realtors, reviews with his marketing team how the company's new Buyer Protection Plus program benefits consumers in the real estate market.

JoAnn Cabe is tops in Schlott's Montclair office

JoAnn Cabe, a sales associate with Schlott Realtors' Montclair office, has been named the top sales associate of the month in her sales office. Cabe produced a greater sales and listings volume during January than any of her colleagues in the Schlott office.

A 5-year real estate professional, Cabe is an active member of the Montclair and Bloomfield Board of Realtors.

Consistently a high achiever since she entered real estate, Cabe has frequently been cited as a top real estate producer. She is a member of the Million Dollar Club.

In addition, she holds the prestigious Broker designation of advanced real estate education.

For information regarding homebuying and selling services in the area, contact JoAnn Cabe at Schlott Realtors' Montclair office, 103 Park St., Montclair, 783-5100.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Did You Know??

Ordinary toothpaste can be used to clean plastic laminates. It has just enough cleanser and "grit" to cut through grease and grime, yet it won't scratch.

Plants can bring the outdoors in. Ideally, planters and/or plantings should be large in scale, in keeping with the room. Fragrant herbs add a special touch.

It's not so hard to steam off wallpaper with a vinyl or foil finish if you scratch the paper with rough sandpaper first.

Something good is on the way to use up old soda bottles, detergent containers, and fast-food boxes. Rutgers Center for Plastics Recycling Research in New Brunswick, New Jersey, has found a way to turn them into "lumber" to build park benches, retaining walls and more.

Picture-perfect house: the Paris home of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor has been restored to its 1960 best — furniture, servants and all — by a wealthy Egyptian businessman. It will be a private museum.

Picture-perfect home or a handyman's special — if you want to sell your property, you'll get knowhow and service when you list at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley, 235-9000.
