Face $1 million budget cut

Board raked for budget bills

By Anthony Buccino

Board of Education members were criticized Tuesday night for not appearing at the commissioners' meeting Monday night when the commissioners voted 3-1 to cut $1,043,527 from the defeated school budget.

Four board members and other administrators said they had attended a program honoring two school district athletes. Board President Dr. Anthony D'Agostino said the board members were criticized in the past for not attending events honoring school children, and now that they had attended, they were criticized for not being somewhere else.

D'Agostino said the board members received a copy of the commissioners' resolution at 3:45 in the afternoon and had little time to study the commissioners' recommendations. He said he was "personally dismayed and confused at the tremendous cuts in education. We must study their proposals and come up with our conclusion in the near future."

Representatives from the school board met last Thursday with Essex County Schools Superintendent Peter Carter and township attorney Frank Cozzarelli. Mayor Michael Pizzi and Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni to review the defeated budget and discern where cuts could be made.

Belleville Schools Superintendent Michael Nardiello explained the procedure of the meeting, the county superintendent set the parameters and served as a "go between" for the two groups. "By law, the township had to pass a resolution certifying the tax levy by May 14." The meeting lasted from 3 p.m. to past 7 p.m., he said.

D'Agostino said that Carter had instructed board members to keep away from the commissioners' meeting "because there is a tentative agreement, it will not be necessary for you to attend their meeting."

The board's school budget was criticized for seeking to address maintenance problems at several schools including re-roofing and converting to electronic ballasts.

Trustee Ralph Mazzuca said, "I want you to understand that as a new board member, we understand your plight, the plight of senior citizens on fixed incomes. Our main concern is to always try to consider the budget. What we're trying to do is preventative maintenance. I've seen things neglected when their repair would have cost $1,000 and the ultimate repair resulted in thousands of dollars. We don't arbitrarily spend money."

Commissioner Frantantoni addressed the board saying that he had no opportunity to review the budget before the special joint meeting. "An agreement was not reached, a proposed agreement was. The original $210,000 cut was not amicably agreed to. I agreed to consider it. I and the board of commissioners reserved the right to spend the weekend reviewing the budget."

"I was shocked at line item increases. Look at the budget with realistic view," the commissioner said. He said he expected to hear people say that the commissioners who didn't get elected cut the budget. Commissioners Frantantoni, Angelo Risoli and Joseph Fomartotto, who were defeated in the recent council election, all voted to increase the budget cut from $210,000 to $1,043,527.

"We haven't cut anything from the children," Frantantoni said of the cuts, "we haven't asked for one single teacher or position to be cut." The commissioner did cite what he called "questionable maintenance projects."

The commissioner said he was addressing the board as a public official. He told the board to "bear in mind we're under severe economic straits."

Commissioners chop BOE budget cull $800,000 after joint meeting

By Joe Sklar

A school budget cut of $210,000 was increased to $1,043,527 by the township commissioners at a special meeting Monday evening. Mayor Michael P. Pizzi and Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni represented the commissioners at a closed meeting last Thursday with committee representing the board of education. At that meeting both groups agreed to cut $210,000 from the defeated school budget.

The commissioners voted three-to-one in favor of the additional school budget cuts. Mayor Pizzi voted against the additional cuts, while commissioners Frantantoni, Angelo Risoli and Joseph Fomartotto voted to cut the budget. Commissioner Joseph McGreevy was not present at the meeting.

Ten area residents were present and some cheered when the cuts were made in the school budget Monday night. No board of education members were present.

According to Belleville School Superintendent Mike Nardiello, who heard the news the next day, the board and commissioners agreed to a budget cut of $210,000. The total budget after the initial cuts was $24,910,555.

"Would the word devastated express my feeling?" Nardiello said. "The budget was a minimum. I'm staying with the budget we submitted. This is going to hurt the district to the point we won't recover. We thought we had come up with a reasonable figure."

Peter Carter, Essex County Superintendent of Schools, and mediator of the May 11 meeting, said he was surprised and disappointed when he heard about the increased reductions.

Ed Appleton, BOE Secretary/Business Administrator, had sent a letter dated May 11 to Township Clerk Mary Lou Hood, which stated: "an agreement was reached between the Commissioners and Board of Education members present (at the May 10 meeting). It is the understanding of the Board that the Commission will formally enact the contents of the agreement by resolution at a public meeting."

Commissioner Vincent Frantantoni, who said he had tried to call a board of education members to tell them to be at the May 14 meeting referred to their absence as part of a "conspiracy."

Appleton said he thought the budget had been agreed upon and saw no reason to attend the meeting. On Tuesday morning he said "Our understanding was that everything was worked out amicably. I am somewhat surprised—given the magnitude of the difference (in budget cuts). I thought there was no need for the Board of Education to be at the meeting. I even said (at the May 10 meeting) that we wouldn't be attending."

At the commission meeting, it was disclosed that when the original budget was defeated, cuts were made in different school accounts. Administrators' salaries were cut by $6,000, now the new budget cuts Administration salaries by 29,663.

Principals' salaries which had been cut by $8,000 are now cut by $56,498.

Supervisors' salaries went from a decrease of $7,000 to a decrease of $26,157.

Budgeted cuts for teachers' salaries went from $153,000 to $612,000.

Other instructors salaries were cut from $4,000 to $16,000.

Decreases in Health salaries went from $2,000 to $7,391.

Equipment Replacement funds went from a cut of $3,704 to $5,000.

The cutback for New Equipment stayed the same—at $1,296.

Insurance and Judgements stayed the same at $5,000.

Special Education salaries cuts remained fixed at $9,000.

Tommy, representing the Nutley ShopRite, placed second in the "Super Salad" category for 6 to 9-year-olds, and won a 19-inch color television. He was one of 24 finalists selected from thousand of entrants in the six-state cooking competition.

High School presents spring concert May 23

The Belleville High School Music Department will hold its annual Spring Concert on Wednesday, May 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school's auditorium. Performing groups participating in the program include the chorus, orchestra, chamber orchestra, concert band, and jazz ensemble.

The chamber orchestra, under the direction of Ed Black, will begin the program with the famous "Canon" by Johann Pachelbel. The entire string section of the Belleville High School Orchestra will then perform Handel's "Concerto Grosso" Opus 6 No. 4 in A minor, followed by the full orchestra's reading of the original version of the first movement of Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C minor. The orchestra will conclude the first part of the program with Robert Russell Bennett's arrangement of selections from "The Sound of Music" by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

For the 125-member mixed chorus, Dr. Thomas Finetti has programmed Randall Thompson's "The Last Words of David," Mozart's beautiful motet, "Adoramus te, Christe," Anton Bruckner's motet "Virga Jesse Florent," and two Negro spirituals, "Ride the Chariot" and "Daniel, Daniel Servant of the Lord."

The choral portion of the concert will conclude with an arrangement of selections from Andrew Lloyd Webber's hit musical, "The Phantom of the Opera."

The concert band, under the direction of Mr. Kraemer, will begin its portion of the program

Walgreen's to wait for sign

Planners respond to lawsuit

By Anthony Buccino

Belleville Planning Board Attorney Thomas DiBlasi said at the board's meeting last Thursday night that the private session held following a vote on the Walgreen's sign at the Feb. 6 meeting was within the scope of exceptions of the Open Public Meetings Act.

DiBlasi said Friday in Superior Court, "That the meeting was held in accordance with the open public meetings act, section 10-4-2, 7, pending or anticipated litigation, I believed that a legal conference was in order to advise the board as to our legal obligations under the sign ordinance and under the land use statute."

Judge Marilyn Loftus presided over the pre-settlement hearing Friday.

Walgreen's agreed not to erect the 42'x52' sign until the court case is resolved. "The case will now be referred back for processing," Loftus said.

The agreement eliminated "the need for a temporary or emergent relief" such as a restraining order to keep the drug store from erecting its sign.

The case will now run through the normal judicial process, DiBlasi said. He will file a response to Civil Action complained filed by Raymond and Vincent Cozzarelli, brothers and co-owners of Rossmore Pharmacy Inc. located at 338 Washington Ave.

The case will now be handled just like any other case, DiBlasi said, there will be interrogatories and depositions, if needed. The case will be based on the records of the Feb. 6 meeting and will not be affected by any changes on the Planning Board, he said.

The Cozzarellis filed suit in Superior Court against the township Planning Board, the township itself and Walgreens Stores, Inc. claiming that a sign permit was issued following an illegal, or closed meeting, of the planning board.

The planning board first voted at that meeting to deny the permit.

Then at closed legal conference meeting called by Planning Board Chairman Joe Doyle, the board attorney said he reviewed the legal obligations with board members.

Following the closed meeting, the planning board returned, DiBlasi declared the earlier vote null and void and then the board voted in favor of the Walgreen's sign request.

A show cause order from Superior Court sent April 18 to the township restrained Walgreens from constructing the proposed sign, however, DiBlasi told the board last Thursday that Walgreen's agreed to honor the lawsuit and not request a building permit for the sign until the legal matter was resolved.

The Cozzarelli's lawsuit maintained that "the private meeting was not for any recognized exception under the Open Public Meetings Law" and thus, was illegally convened.

The suit also states that the Coke dealers nabbed in raid on apartment

The Belleville Narcotics squad arrested two township residents on drug charges at their Overlook Avenue apartment May 12, according to Detective Sergeant Joseph Rotonda.

Louis Castillo, 35 and Gina Sayin, 31, both of 31 Overlook Ave. were arrested and charged with intent to distribute and possession of cocaine, possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of an unidentified controlled dangerous substance.

The Narcotics Squad had received information three weeks ago about drug distribution, Rotonda said. The squad then set up surveillance and observed suspicious activity. Based on their observations, the squad sought a search warrant from municipal Judge Frank Zinna. The warrant was issued and a raid conducted Saturday evening.

Police confiscated $425 in cash, a quarter ounce of cocaine, scales, plastic packaging bags and other drug paraphernalia, Rotonda said.

In two unrelated incidents, two Belleville juveniles were remanded to the township juvenile bureau when they were found to be in possession of remote paging devices while on school property.

Under state statutes, no juvenile can be on school property with paging devices without specific medical reasons or for employment purposes. The juveniles, who were not identified because of their ages, were discovered in two township schools. One juvenile was in the high school and the other was in the middle school.

Bank robbery suspect arrested in Bloomfield

Belleville detectives teamed up with F.B.I. agents and Newark police officers to arrest suspected bank robber Francisco Reyes, 31, in his girlfriend's apartment in Bloomfield Friday morning, according to Belleville Detective Sergeant Leonard J. Burrell.

Reyes was subsequently charged with five bank robberies which took place this year, including the Tri-City Peoples Bank in Bloomfield Ave., in Belleville which was robbed Jan. 23 and April 25.

Police raided the apartment at 6:30 a.m. Friday when the combined squads apprehended Reyes. A 45 caliber automatic handgun was found under Reyes' mattress. Reyes was taken into F.B.I. custody and was expected to appear before a Grand Jury May 15.

Local police formed a coalition dubbed the Bloomfield Avenue Task Force which stated out banks on Bloomfield Avenue from Newark to North Caldwell. About 40 officers from participating towns made up the squad.

"There was extensive cooperation between the departments," Burrell said. Additionally, officers from parole departments, probation departments and narcotics squads were called in to assist in the surveillance. Six Belleville detectives worked on the case.

"The big break came from Detective Jerry Bugliose from the Newark Police Department's North District," Burrell said. "Bugliose provided instrumental information in identifying the suspect."

Reyes was expected to be charged under federal bank robbery statutes, Burrell said. The suspect had a serious, extensive criminal record, Burrell said, although no other information could be made available.

"I'm relieved to get a guy like this off the street," Burrell said.

In addition to the two Belleville banks, Reyes is suspected of robbing the Carteret Bank in Newark, the Peoples Bank in Bloomfield, and a Peoples Bank in North Caldwell.

Belleville POLICE BEAT

Five Newark residents were arrested May 11 and charged with shoplifting from two stores in a Main St. mall. In connection with shoplifting of merchandise valued at $468.82 from a clothing store, police arrested Mildred Feliciano, 20; Aquanetta Lacour, 28; Carol Ann Hall, 26; Cheryl Diane Thomas, 19, and Aubrey Washington, 26. The group was observed attempting to steal merchandise valued at about $500 from a video store in the same mall. When the store employee approached them, one of the suspects threw a compact disc player at the employee. The group then fled the scene and was apprehended at Holmes and Main sts. In addition to the shoplifting charges, Lacour, Thomas and Washington were also charged with robbery and possession of stolen property and were held in Essex County Jail. Feliciano and Hall were released on their own recognizance.

A 1989 Chevrolet Corsica reported stolen from New St. and Leslie Terr. May 13 was recovered later that day in Newark. Police charged Edward Walsh, 20, of Newark and Derrick White, 20, of Belleville with disorderly persons offenses May 13 at 2:10 a.m. Both men were released on their own recognizance and are scheduled to appear in municipal court June 20.

Thursday, May 17, 1990

Nicholas Costa, 46, of Belleville was charged with driving while on the revoked license May 13 at 7:29 a.m. He was released on $250 bail.

Damage was reported to the steering column of a 1988 AMC Jeep parked on Cleveland St. May 13.

Marilyn Colorado, 18, of Newark, was charged with being an unlicensed driver on May 12. She had been stopped at the corner of Holmes St. and Washington Ave. She was released on $50 bail.

A 1988 Chevrolet Camaro reported stolen between 11:45 p.m. May 11 and 2:29 a.m. May 12 from a Harrison St. address was recovered May 13 in Newark.

A mini storage shed valued at $52.99 was reported stolen from a pickup truck May 12.

A 13-year-old juvenile was apprehended for shoplifting three packages of gum from Walgreen's drug store on Washington Ave. May 12. The youth was turned over to the Juvenile Aid Bureau and released to a parent.

A 14-year-old juvenile from East Orange was taken into custody in the vicinity of N. 7th St. when he was found to be in possession of a vial of crack cocaine May 10. The youth was turned over to the Juvenile Aid Bureau.

An AM/FM radio cassette was ripped from the dashboard of a 1979 Chevrolet Malibu May 12. The vehicle's owner reported that he found the driver's side door open at 8:30 a.m.

Special Education Week during Mental Health Month

May 14-18 has been designated as Special Education Week. This comes appropriately during Mental Health Month.

The Therapeutic School & Preschool has always celebrated Special Education Week with a fun activity for the children.

A United States Army Band from Fort Monmouth in full uniform performed for the 50 children attending the Therapeutic School & Preschool, followed by a luncheon for the band, staff, children and families.

This extravaganza is the culmination of a creative music therapy program which began in September, 1989. Karen Hughes, registered music therapist, has provided the children an opportunity to play these instruments: flute, clarinet, trumpet, trombone, snare drum, violin, guitar, french horn, tuba, baritone, sousaphone, piano, electric guitar and saxophone.

This incredible feat was accomplished with the assistance of Steve Spinoza, proprietor of Spinoza Music Shop in Belleville. Spinoza provided the instruments weekly at a nominal fee. The children experienced each one first hand.

Another facet of this program involved music majors from Montclair State College who came to the Therapeutic School and Preschool and played their instrument of expertise.

Each class that participated in the program was videotaped performing. Helping children to feel good about themselves while they are learning has always been the primary philosophy of the Therapeutic School and Preschool. The program met this criteria and much more.

The children are impressed with their ability and success. Beyond this, they are able to name all the instruments and the older children can identify the sound each instrument makes when listening to music. The program has been shared with parents.

The Therapeutic School and Preschool is an approved private school by the State Department of Education serving children with emotional and developmental delays age 3-10. The school has been serving special needs children since 1971. There are presently seven classes and a staff of 27. The staff includes: Director/Principal, administrative assistant, child psychiatrist, social worker, seven special education teachers, two speech pathologists, a teacher/therapist, music therapist, adaptive physical education teacher, eight para-professional classroom assistants, school nurse and student interns. Fourteen communities send children to the program.

An extended school year is available during the month of July.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

Newsweek correspondents Thomas M. DeFrank and Bill Turque in Los Angeles in a recent article captioned "Keeping Up Appearances" writes "Ronald Reagan tries to improve his tarnished image, but friends say he's being badly served."

They point out that not too long ago he visited his former agent Lew Wasserman, now a Hollywood mogul, in the Universal Studios commissary. Wasserman asked the former president if there was any way he could be lured back to the movies. No, said Reagan with his crinkly grin, that would be cashing in on the presidency. "Well, Mr. President," Wasserman cracked, "we don't necessarily have to pay you."

Reagan's scruples are welcome, if a bit late. They write, after $7 million in book advances, $2 million for shaking hands and making speeches in Japan, and $1 million a year for homilies on the mashed-potato circuit — all that to supplement pensions of $133,172 a year and investment income of $300,000 — he is widely seen already as a champion at cashing in. In his otherwise idyllic retirement in California, the former president is hurt and a bit baffled at this tarnish on his image, and is trying to correct it.

Guided by the PR firm of Burson-Marsteller, Reagan has stepped up his charity work, made some highly visible unpaid speeches, tried to underline the triumphs of his administration and agreed that his wife should lower her public profile. But many of his old friends are still worried. They think he is badly served by a weak staff, and blame themselves for failing to steer Reagan off some of his dubious ventures of the past year. And some old advisers charge that Nancy Reagan herself is no longer giving first priority to her husband's place in history.

The Reagans are hardly in disgrace, and their new life contains far more pleasures than pains. At last count the former president retained the approval of 47 percent of his countrymen. But that in itself is a considerable fall from the 68 percent job rating he enjoyed on leaving office, and Reagan's friends tend to overstate the damage. "Every move they've made since leaving office has been a disaster," says a former aide. The worst gaffe was the overpaid Japanese trip, orchestrated by Reagan's old friend and Charles Wick, a kitchen-cabinet regular. But the couple has also been damaged by publicized favors from friends, by the critical scorching given Nancy's book "My Turn," and by a trailblazing interview on the Larry King show. Even when trying to be altruistic, the Reagans have run into trouble. When the former president wrote an op-ed piece eulogizing the teenage AIDS victim Ryan White, AIDS activists carped that he hadn't done enough to fight the disease and accused him of hypocrisy.

Former aides blame Reagan himself for relying on a weak staff and cronies like Wick. "Nice guy, great friend, judgment stinks," says a longtime associate about Wick. A good deal of criticism also focuses on Nancy Reagan. She still has her loyalists, but in interviewing nearly two dozen sources for this story — including former aides, kitchen-cabinet members, longtime retainers and political allies — Newsweek found her defenders surprisingly lukewarm, and a new antagonism in people who used to praise her. "Her agenda has changed," said one former loyalist. "She used to worry about him. Now she wants to live the lifestyle of her buddies." Others said Mrs. Reagan has been pushing her husband to travel and make more of his lucrative speeches, at $50,000 each. Reagan himself has told at least one friend that "Mommy" wants him to travel more than he likes.

Perhaps the weakest link in Reagan's new chain of command, as many friends see it, is his retirement chief of staff, Frederick J. Ryan Jr. A former White House appointments secretary, Ryan draws fire as a political dot who isn't even good at his liaison job. "It's easier to get the Reagans on the phone than to get Fred," complains a former colleague. Even worse, Ryan seems to be yet another of the long string of aides the former president has permitted to take advantage of him. With a salary of at least $125,000 assembled from several sources, Ryan also has a lucrative sideline as a corporate consultant. Newsweek has learned that Ryan keeps a phone line in Reagan's office, uses Reagan's staffers for spot assignments and that at least one of his clients, Japanese businessman Yasuyuki Nambu, was granted meetings with Reagan.

Belleville Knights blood drive

The Belleville Council Knights of Columbus will hold a residence Community Blood Drive on Saturday, June 2, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 94 Bridge Street.

"This is a perfect time to give a special gift of life to a needy area patient," said Tom Doeffinger, chairman.

"During the summer months, there is an extreme shortage of blood, so whoever can, please donate."

"Blood reserves are critically low and last year New Jersey had to import blood from other states. The only way to solve this shortage is to increase volunteer donation," Doeffinger said.

All residents, aged 18 to 66, who have not had heart disease, hepatitis, a recent pregnancy or major surgery are urged to donate. Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds.

Temperature, blood pressure and hemoglobin count will be taken before the donation. Accepted donors will receive a free cholesterol test and a year-long blood coverage for their families.

North Jersey Blood Bank officials emphasize that all materials are sterile, used only once by qualified nurses and personnel and are then discarded.

This blood drive is open to all residents of Belleville and vicinity. Brother Knights, Belleville police and firemen.

For more information, please contact Grand Knight Richard Glogoz, 759-8626 or chairman Tom Doeffinger, 751-7144.

Belleville High School Physics students, under the leadership of John Tosato, competed in the 1990 New Jersey Physics Olympics capturing first place in one event and finishing in fifth place overall.

The Physics Olympics, sponsored by the American Association of Physics Teachers, consists of a series of seven competitions which requires students to employ principles of physics. The events were held March 31, at Trenton State College.

The BHS team took first place in the Barge Building Event which required students to design and build a barge from a sheet of aluminum foil that is 2.5 inches by 2.5 inches and support and keep dry the greatest amount of sand. The Belleville team also placed fourth in the Bridge Building Event and the Windmill Event.

Tosato and his team of sixteen students spent many hours after school and at home preparing for the events. All of Tosato's students participated in completing at least one project.

The twelfth grade students include Gerry Andrews, Danielle Collett, Enrique DelaMerced, Peter Dorzas, Matthew Godrick, Chris Kroski, Alvert Loyn, Gavran Nangia, Ken Sainz, Jennifer Salmon, Angela Silva and Dana Young.

The eleventh grade students included Jennifer Best, Heather budget which was scheduled for introduction May 17 at a special meeting was postponed because funding figures for Distressed Cities Aid were not available. The school budget cuts are for the 1990-91 school year.

Following the meeting, school board attorney Frank Pomaco said the board has fifteen days, until May 29 to decide whether to appeal the township commissioners' cuts to the state commissioner of education. The school board would have to file its notice of intention to appeal by that date. They would then have 15 more days to actually file the appeal. At that time, the township commissioners would have 15 days to respond to the school boards appeal. During all this filing, there could be an ongoing dialog to resolve the budget differences. Pomaco said that the board had not made any decision.

Should the township budget be approved without the final school budget figure, the township could have to cut other services to provide the school district with operating funds, sources said. Cuts demanded by the "lame duck administration" could, theoretically come from other township services including police and fire to make up the difference in the final cut. This could put unforeseen restraints on the incoming council.

On the other hand, sources said, the filing back and forth through the legal system could outlast the present commissioners, and the township budget could be delayed until some time in July, when the newly elected council will have to resolve the budget differences with the school board.

with Alfred Reed's arrangement of the theme from "Lawrence of Arabia," by Maurice Jarre and will follow with a band transcript of Beethoven's "Egmont Overture," and an arrangement of highlights from Frederick Loewe's "Camelot."

The concert will conclude with three selections by the jazz ensemble, also under the direction of Mr. Kramer: "No Holds Barred," "On the Count of 3," and "God Bless the Child," with senior Kim Fraone as featured vocalist.

Student soloists featured in the program are sophomore Marnie Bonacorsa, piano, performing Chopin's Etude Opus 10 No. 5 in Gb; senior Julieanne Pedalino, clarinet, performing the 2nd movement of Camille Saint-Saens' Sonata for Clarinet and Piano Opus 167, and senior Mark Tonelli, guitar, performing "Midsummer's Daydream" by Rik Emmet.

A donation of $2 will be accepted at the door.

Crecco announces grant

Assemblywoman Marion Crecco (R-Essex) has announced the Township of Belleville has received a $171,000 grant from the Department of Community Affairs of the part of the Safe and Clean Neighborhood Grant program.

"This money will be used for the salary, wages, benefits, equipment, and uniforms required for police officers, and for a variety of neighborhood improvement activities," said Crecco, a member of the Assembly Consumer Affairs Committee. "I'm pleased to see that this grant program under the Community Affairs Department is operating to the benefit of Belleville citizens."

Crecco explained that the money awarded was for the first quarter of 1990 from Jan. 1 through March 31.

OUR OPINION

On July 1, the glass slipper will fit

In 1989, the township of Belleville celebrated its 150th anniversary. For the Ball, all the mice scurried about busily performing all the necessary magic in order to present the township as the belle of the ball. The volunteerism shined and all observers saw what could be of a township so long down-trodden.

On May 8, the people in town took one giant step towards restoration of the dignity once taken for granted but lately so sorely missed. The seven people who were elected to the new council have their work cut out for them. The box of magic potions is empty, but these seven people have the talent and intelligence to conjure progress from a sleepy town so long ignored. It can be done, and these seven possess the best resource pool to do it.

The council must iron out a few details before they take office July 1. First, they must decide who shall be mayor. They must also adopt the administrative code which will determine how long the mayor's term shall be, i.e., one year, two years, etc. The mayor will preside over council meetings but has no more power than any other member of the council. The mayor must also serve the constituency that put him or her in office.

From where we stand, any one of the seven would make an excellent mayor. Certainly each new council member has a good case to become mayor, although the top vote-getter probably has the strongest case.

We're confident that the intelligence and professionalism of the newly-elected council will shine through in their choice for mayor.

The next step is to bring in a qualified township manager. The township manager will be the municipal chief executive and administrative official. It will be up to the township manager to cull through the present municipal hierarchy to separate the wheat from the chaff. The savings here will quickly justify the manager's salary, be it $50,000, $90,000 or $180,000. Remember that with the five commissioners gone, the township will save their yearly salaries and the costs of providing them with town cars, auto insurance, health insurance and secretaries, those reassignments and savings will add up immediately. The new manager, selected by the intelligent, resourceful council, will be worth his weight in gold.

The council must be able to work with the new manager towards the same goals for the township. A smart manager, as the central conduit for all the township's business, will bring progress to the township, implement the money-saving changes needed, and move the township towards the next century. This will undoubtedly cause some ruffled feathers, but the township is desperate for a housecleaning.

Before the new council acts on its plans to address the problems of Washington Avenue, senior citizen housing, attracting ratables, etc., they've got to take a close look at the independent boards and consultants now working with the township.

There should be no wholesale slaughter of the sitting boards and no wholesale booting out of the advisors who have been working for the township.

The planning board, zoning board of adjustment and the rent levelling board as they now sit serve at the pleasure of the commission. When the commission government ends, the council will restaff these boards. Between now and July 1, the council must make a concentrated effort to review the practices of these boards over the last three years. Have they served the township well, have their judgements been based on the laws of the township regardless of what the gut feeling might have been. Have they spied needed changes but were powerless, under the commissioners, to implement those desperately needed changes.

The council, out of fairness to the people who serve on these boards should talk to their chairmen and the individual board members and seek the insight of their experience. The council will then be in the best position to decide who should be reappointed and where fresh faces are needed.

The council should also bear in mind that the people who sit on these boards, with the exception of their attorneys, collect no pay and serve for the best interest of the community. They must also be fluent in the law of their own boards and familiar with the decisions overturned in other townships. That experience alone could save the town from another lawsuit or blackeye. The boards are also probably the best informed to guide the council in new directions for progress. Their interest in the town's progress and how to reach that progress is indeed a telling point in the interview process.

In evaluating the usefulness of the township's consultants and engineers, the council, before they summarily dismiss them, should conduct similar interviews with Bruno Associates, Neglia Engineering and any other consultants and engineering firms the township has used over the past few years. We take this opportunity to remind the council that the consultants and engineers worked, and were paid, at the direction and discretion of the commissioners to meet the commissioner's goals.

The council should therefore discuss its own goals with these consultants and engineers and explore the possibilities of redirecting their efforts and experience to reach the council's goals. We think that the council could be pleasantly surprised at the untapped resourcefulness these firms have to offer. Perhaps seeds of innovation offered in the past were trampled before the public ever had a chance to benefit. The council should approach the future with eyes wide open.

Just as Cinderella's smile beamed when the prince placed the glass slipper on her tiny foot, Belleville, too, will beam with tears of joy when on July 1, the glass slipper will fit.

YOUR OPINION

Mother remembrance

To the editor:

Enclosed is a letter I wrote to my mother during my tour of duty in the South Pacific in 1944. Included in the letter is a poem I wrote for her which I now dedicate to all mothers, young and old.

- Favorite Songs -

There are many songs I love to hear,
I like opera, swing, and others.
But I always lend a willing ear,
To songs that sing of mothers.

The reason why I love them so,
Is all so very clear.
Tender thoughts they do bestow,
On one whom I hold dear.

"Sure and Ireland must be heaven,
For my mother came from there".
Better words could not be given,
To that melody so fair.

"Mother McChree, my heart would steal,
The words are like a psalm.
I always feel that she was real,
She sounds just like my mom.

Remember the song about the girl,
That married dear old dad?
She was his girl, but she's my pearl,
And no better could be had.

Her unfeeling love's my guiding star,
She loves me, as no other.
That's why my favorite is by far,
The song that praises mother.

Work together

To the editor:

Seven years have passed since my oldest child has entered the Belleville school system. Presently, there are three in attendance. From observing their progress and growth and having a personal involvement in different positions of the Home and School Association, I am very pleased with the efforts of our professional educators. They teach with great dedication, offer compassion and challenge when needed, and attempt to inspire our loved ones to experience the joy of learning.

After attending board of education meetings on a regular basis, I am disturbed by constant negativism expressed by our citizens. I am extremely proud to be a Belleville High School graduate as well as a mother of three children in the school system. I wish to thank all of those "unsung heroes" who dedicate their lives by forming the leaders of tomorrow.

"Good things are happening in Belleville."

Jean Percario

Pleased with educators

To the editor:

To the people of Belleville:

Give yourselves a pat on the back for having done a splendid job in the recent election.

I especially want to thank the people who voted for me. I am humbled by your confidence in me.

I will not try to hide my feelings on having lost. It hurts to lose. But I am more than elated on the outcome. We have elected a splendid group of people to office which bodes good for the incoming government. We are off to a good start.

Had I won a seat, this is what I would have said to you. Just because I won the right to represent you, this does not release you from helping to uplift our town. Belleville needs the support of all of us to restore its former healthy condition. We must restore good will amongst us.

The good people whom you have elected needs all the support we can give them. Their job is monumental. Let us give them a fair chance. No more back biting. No more disrupting meetings, no more factionalism. No more disrespect and name calling. It is time for all to work together for the good of Belleville.

Michael Giordano

Programs needed

To the editor:

As Executive Director of the Community Mental Health Services, I am writing during this Mental Health Month of May because I believe that community residents have little information about mental health matters and many do not realize the scope of mental health problems among our children. This year the National Council of Community Mental Health Centers is focusing on the problem of the dually diagnosed youth, i.e., these young people suffering from substance abuse and emotional disturbance.

There are very few programs specifically designed to help these young people with their complex and very serious needs. Many of these young people become involved with the criminal justice system. Very few get the kind of help they need simply because very little is known about their problems and how to help them.

Obviously, much more research is needed. However, with the difficult economic situation that the nation and our own state are now facing, it is unlikely that more research will be possible. In addition, the mental health needs of all children are suffering retrenchment. Without public outcry and strong advocacy, mental health funding will continue to be reduced at all levels.

Please consider the future of our young people along with the future of our communities. Reflect on what the children in your town may need and speak out to your elected officials to let them know.

Join me in taking a stand during this Mental Health Month to help our youth.

Alice Ricci, A.C.S.W.
Executive Director

Preserve the earth

To the editor:

An open letter to Mrs. Balaban of Wallace Street.

Mrs. Balaban, you have a supporter in your plight to save the devastation of trees on your block. This writer feels very strongly in preserving the earth and the environment.

At one time there wasn't so much carbon dioxide or chemicals in the air, but today there is too much. Trees provide shade in hot weather, a house with a few good shade trees next to it is a lot cooler than one without trees. That house needs a lot less energy for air conditioners and that means less coal burned to make energy. Not only do trees absorb the carbon dioxide in the air but provide beauty and the very oxygen we breathe.

Yes, Mrs. Balaban, you can count on us. Keep up the good work. We need more Mrs. Balabans in Belleville.

Lou Cicienia

Knights thank contributors

To the editor:

The Belleville Knights of Columbus with the cooperation of brother knights, the women's auxiliary and other volunteers, recently held a fund drive to help benefit mentally retarded citizens and children with learning disabilities. The drive was held April 19 to 22.

Belleville Knights of Columbus Council No. 835 sponsors different groups of people including:

The Belleville Special Olympics; The Mal Condon Canteen; A local Boy Scout group made up of mentally retarded children from the Essex County area; Camp Fatima, a camp for retarded children, staffed by qualified volunteers; and the West Essex Rehabilitation Center.

In the past, all of this has been accomplished through your generosity and benevolence in providing much needed financial support.

General Chairman Frank Corbo, and Grand Knight Richard Glogozia wish to thank the many individuals who helped coordinate this drive, especially Ralph Lardieri, Al Casaleto, Jim McConnon, and Rocco Corbo. Also brother knights, the Women's Auxiliary who helped in this successful drive, the business people, local supermarkets, banks and churches, who allowed us to collect at their places.

Special thanks to the great people of Belleville and vicinity, including Newark, Nutley, Bloomfield, etc. Also the Belleville Times for news coverage and those people who sent in their donations by mail.

The Belleville Council No. 835 will hold an "Awards Night," when amounts collected in this drive will be allocated. In addition, awards will be presented to the winners in the free throw contest, spelling bee contest, essay contest and other special awards.

Thank you, fellow citizens who have contributed to the great success of this endeavor. Your support and acceptance of those young men and women are reminders that we are not alone in our efforts to improve the lives of these special people.

Pete Mackiewicz
Communities Activities Chairman

Thanks supporters

To the editor:

I would like to thank the people who supported me in this past 3rd Ward council election. Make no mistake I will not become dormant or quiet these next two years. I will stand up for the people of the 3rd Ward and our township.

But now I ask all my supporters to now join me and support Councilmember Spillane to make Belleville what it should be. I offer my assistance to him and any councilmember who wants to make Belleville what it should be. Again to the people of the 3rd Ward thank you for your support and kindness.

Kevin G. Kennedy

Fornarotto says thanks

To the editor:

Commissioner Fornarotto wishes to give thanks to all who cast one of their votes for him, those who put up signs on their property and all those who believed in him.

He also wishes to congratulate the seven new electees who will run the Township of Belleville.

As commissioner, Mr. Fornarotto tried to do the best he could to serve as Director of the Public Affairs Department for the Township of Belleville.

With all the "promises" the new seven members campaigned to do, we hope they can keep them: "More Police on the Streets", "A Salary—No More Than $750.00 per year", "No Benefits", "A Central Repair Garage for all Township Vehicles", "Detectives Working Weekends, Nights and Holidays", "No Officials Phone Bills Paid by the Taxpayers", "Bring All Services Back to the People Without Extra Cost", "No Cars for Elected Officials".

Commissioner Fornarotto's 1990 budget was the same as 1989 and believes every department can do the same within the State's Cap Law. Through economy and attrition the Township can keep the budget controllable.

The main tax problem now will be the $2,700,000 increase in school taxes.

Ralph M. Risoli
Committee to Elect Fornarotto

BOE budget cuts

reases stayed at $9,468.
Contractual Service decreases stayed at $2,750.

After the first set of cutbacks there had not been any decreases on Heat and on Capital Improvement. At the May 14 meeting Heat was cutback by $20,000 and Capital Improvement was cut by $200,000.

The reasons for the further cutbacks, Prantantoni said, were economic. He said the salaries, after cutbacks, were "more than adequate in these trying times."

Prantantoni said the increased cutbacks were due to inflation as well as the reduction year after year of student enrollment. This year, he said, Belleville Schools' enrollment decreased by 75 students.

Board figures show the district wide enrollment as of September 30, 1989, was 3,620 students. Over a 10 year period, school enrollment has declined about 23.9%, according to September enrollment figures.

Prantantoni called the expenses for the Board of Education "astronomical," and said: "taxpayers in this town can no longer afford it."

The Board of Education was scheduled to meet Tuesday evening at School 7 to discuss the commissioners' demanded cutbacks and the appeal process to restore the cuts.

Governor Jim Florio's state aid funding cuts to Belleville for the 1990-91 school year left a $2.9 million shortfall in the school budget adding nearly 63 tax points to the school tax levy. The tax increase represented an increase of $325 on a house assessed at $50,000.

The school board's budget with full state funding would have resulted in a 3 tax point increase to the school levy.

VAILLANCOURT RECEIVES AWARD — Donald C. Vaillancourt of Nutley, Corporate Vice President in charge of Corporate Communications and Consumer Affairs for The Grand Union Company, receives the Founders Day Award from Felician College in Lodi, in recognition for his dedication to corporate social responsibility. Presenting the award is Sister Theresa Mary Martin, President of Felician College, while Vaillancourt's wife, Dianne, looks on. The award was presented on April 25 during the college's Eighth Annual Founders Day dinner at the Sheraton Meadowlands Hotel in Secaucus.

action of the planning board approving the Walgreen's sign will "suffer irreparable harm due to the location of such sign and the aesthetics of the neighborhood will be greatly diminished."

DiBiasi said at the planning board meeting Thursday night, "It was obvious to every member of the board that this matter was the subject of anticipated litigation. To show how right we were, we received one. Had the board voted the other way, Walgreen's would have brought suit.

DiBiasi said that he spoke to Judge Loftus about remanding the matter back to the board for another vote, "that would be one way to end the procedure quickly." He said he would offer that procedure to the Cozzarelli's attorney, Louis Mangano of Elmwood Park.

The application for the Walgreen's sign was noted at PB-147 Washington Avenue. Associates-Walgreens, and was adjourned from the January planning board meeting to their February 8 meeting.

The best Bellboys ever

25 Years Ago
May 20, 1965...The Belleville High School varsity baseball team continued to rewrite the record books by becoming the first BHS team to be seeded in the Greater Newark Tournament. The Bellboys added to their legend by defeating Cliffside Park in the first round.

Third-year coach Nick Pettit's team was ranked second in the 33rd annual GNT, with only powerful Union ahead of the Bellboys. The last time a Belleville squad was among the 16-team GNT field was 1948, when the Bellboys were an unseeded entry.

The 3-1 win over Cliffside Park was the Bellboys' 15th win of the year, the most in Belleville history since the 1948 squad won 12 contests.

Rich Pucciarello improved to 5-0 with the victory, allowing only three hits (all in the second innings) in a nine-inning stint.

Residents' water reaction
Belleville residents reacted cooperatively to the ban on unnecessary water which was recently put into effect.

On the first day of restrictions, police received only three complaints of violators of the ordinance. The offenders, all homeowners who forgot the restrictions and illegally watered their lawns and gardens, were warned for the first offense.

Town officials soon hoped to have some idea how effective the restrictions were in cutting water consumption.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Gerald Fortunato, Pastor
Silver Lake Baptist Church

'What Shall I Give My Children?'

Give them the gift of time. Most of us are aware of how quickly time speeds away. Do not be selfish with your time. Especially with your children. Take time to play with them. Take time to pray with them. Take time to tell them the great stories of the Bible. Take time to enjoy your precious children.

Give them the gift of amazement. In a world of chicanery and cynicism it is sometimes more difficult to think of the wonderful marvels of God. Do not get lost in mechanics of analysis. Help children take the sweeping view of the great and majestic things God has created.

Give them the gift of security. Children want to be hugged, kissed, and held. They want to feel the love that strong arms encircling them can give. Show them that you trust in the living God.

Give them the gift of self-esteem. Tell them they are made in God's image, that God is the one responsible for making life possible. Commend every positive aspect of their lives. Turn the negatives into opportunities for encouragement. Let them be your helper in the kitchen, around the house and yard. Work together.

Children give us many gifts in exchange for the above. They give us happiness through their smiles and affection. They give us love through the twinkle in their eyes. They give us meaning when they grasp our hands and hold on tightly.

What a great God we serve who has given the world the magic of children.

Mrs. Petrella, 90

A Mass for Mrs. Elizabeth Petrella, 90, of Nutley was offered May 12 in St. Mary's Church, Nutley, after the funeral from the Harrison-Pucci Funeral Home, Nutley.

Mrs. Petrella died May 9 in St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center, Paterson.

Born in New York, she lived in Newark, Lyndhurst and Belleville before moving to Nutley 36 years ago.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Ann Bilowich; two sons, Robert and Louis Joseph; a brother, Stephen Scanlon; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Florence Clark

A Mass for Mrs. Florence M. Clark of Oakland was offered May 16 in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Oakland, after the funeral from the Oakland Memorial Home, Oakland.

Mrs. Clark died May 13 in the Valley Hospital, Ridgewood. She was a dispatcher for many years with the Sybron Chemical Corp. in Elmwood Park. Mrs. Clark was a member of the Mother's Club and the Student Aid Fund, both of Oakland.

Born in Belleville, she lived in Oakland for 33 years. Surviving are her husband, John A., and three daughters, Mrs. Karen Wells, Colleen and Mrs. Carol Kokulak.

Poetry project

A Poetry Project by the pupils of Sherri Shapiro, English teacher, Belleville Middle School, is currently on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. Among the books on exhibit are "Bugs, Insects and Creepy Crawlies," by Caren Villano, English 7, Period 8; "Poetry Project-Love and Courage," by David Chulanandana, English 7, Period 1; "Poetry Project," by Andrea Curran, English 7, Period 1; "Poems of War," by Danny De Pasque, English 7, Period 8; "The Many Wonders of the Beach and Ocean," by Frank Marrero, English 7, Period 8; "African Poetry," by Danny Brunello, English 7, Period 8; "Poems of Christmas," by Michael Scanzillo, Grade 7, Period 8; and "Poetry Project- Animals," by Philip Chang, Period 8, English 7.

The exhibit can be viewed during regular library hours in the second floor display case, near the New Jersey books.

Friends' installation, program

The Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center will have their Annual Installation of Officers and a special program, entitled, "Autumn Stages," presented by the Senior Lifestyle Theatre. This should be an evening of entertainment for people of all ages. The Installation and Business Meeting will take place at 7 p.m. Those being installed for 90-91 include Isabel Wittinger, president; Eleanor Keleman, first vice-president; Jessie Salter, second vice-president, in charge of membership; Juanita Fornam, third vice-president and historian; Eleanor Keleman, recording secretary; Lillian Wescott, treasurer; Adrea Cohen, publicity; Lillian Wescott, coordinator of tours; Cindy LaRue and Dorothy Charen, co-chair of tours; Mae Anderson, hospitality; Mary Donorovich, telephone squad; Eleanor Keleman, co-chair of the telephone squad; Dorothy Charen, fund raising; Joan Taub, tributes; and David Bryant and Shirley Leardo, library liaisons.

Autumn Stages, Lifestyle Theatre, is a non-profit troupe of older adults, who will share their lives—their lifestyles, in a repertoire of narratives, mime, scene, songs, and dances. As in all their performances, troupe members will not only enact episodes from their own lives, but also draw out and involve materials from their audience histories, right on the spot, at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center.

Last year, Autumn Stages and its director, Dr. Wilder, were presented The Governor's 1989 Award, the prestigious Robert Farneghetti Award for Excellence by the Northeast Gerontological Society, a six-state professional organization, and the Essex County Cultural Award.

Lives of New Jersey women

The lives and work of three centuries of New Jersey women has been added to the collection of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center in the reference work "Past and Promise; Lives of New Jersey Women."

The reference work was compiled by the Women's project of New Jersey and has almost 300 biographies of famous women, past and present.

Maria Masone earned first place for graphics in the Belleville Public Library's Indoor Art Show for National Library Week.

Jennifer Idrovo, Grade 3, earned second place for line drawings in the Belleville Public Library's Indoor Art Show for National Library Week. She is seen with her picture in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room.

Christine Hinchey earned third place for Grades 1-3 in graphics in the Belleville Public Library's Indoor Art Show for National Library Week. She holds up her picture in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room.

David Hinchey, Grade 4, who earned first place for line drawings, is shown with Mark Idrovo, Grade 6, who won honorable mention for charcoal at the Belleville Public Library's Indoor Art Show.

Removing the Stroke Penalty

An updated report on the beneficial effect that aspirin has in reducing the risk of heart attack in men over 50, downplays any risk of stroke. The preliminary study followed 22,000 physicians over the age of 50 who took an aspirin every other day. The dramatic finding of the original study was that 44 percent of the aspirin-takers had fewer first heart attacks than their placebo-taking counterparts. However, the original study tempered these findings with the warning that increased aspirin use may well increase the chance for stroke. Now, new analysis shows that the stroke risk is insignificant when compared to the benefits of aspirin in reducing first heart attacks. Men under age 50 experienced no benefit from increased aspirin use.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dalla Riva — nee Theresa Piccininni

Dalla Riva-Piccininni nuptials are performed

Theresa Marie Piccininni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Piccininni of Belleville, became the bride recently of Michael John Dalla Riva, son of Mrs. Dorothy Dalla Riva of Belleville and the late Frank Dalla Riva.

The groom's cousin, Rev. Michael Hanly of St. Raphael Church, Livingston, performed the ceremony in St. Peter's Church, Belleville. A reception followed at The Grand Marquis, Old Bridge.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin and lace off the shoulder gown with a sweetheart neckline and cathedral train. It was trimmed with beaded sequins and pearls. A headband of pearls and rhinestones held her veil and she carried cala lilies, white roses and stephanotis.

Rose Marie Lettieri of Clifton was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Debbie Casella, Rox Martino and Renee Norton of Belleville. Lori Buono of Nutley, Meryl Dalla Riva of Newark, Nancy Dalla Riva of Cedar Grove, sister of the groom, and Samantha Divak of West Caldwell, cousin of the bride.

They were attired in black and white lace and satin mermaid style gowns. Headpieces were of black and white sequins with sprays of pearls and they carried white lilies with white astro lilies, roses and babies breath.

Robert Dalla Riva of Belleville served as his brother's best man. Ushering were Gary Carfagno, Peter Norton, Kenny Beck, Joe Custode and the bride's brother, Ralph Piccininni, all of Belleville, the groom's brother, Frank Dalla Riva of Newark and Jack Nasti of Bloomfield.

Mrs. Piccininni chose an aqua silk dress appliqued with sequins while the groom's mother was in a soft mauve dress. Corsages were of white roses.

Mrs. Dalla Riva, a graduate of Belleville High School, is a senior electronic publishing specialist with Hoffmann-LaRoche, Inc., Nutley.

Mr. Dalla Riva, an alumnus of Belleville High School and Bergen Community College, is co-owner of Bella Casa Caterers, Belleville.

The couple honeymooned in Aruba following the Aug. 20 nuptials and have made their home in Nutley.

AT THE CONVENTION — Mary Nucci and Helen Cowan, both of Belleville and past regents of Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Court Santa Maria 61, Belleville, attended the 42nd biennial N.J. state convention last month in Ocean City. Theme of the convention was Thanking God and Remembering. Cowan is also State District Deputy.

their mothers' protective antibodies, leaving them open to illnesses that are accompanied by high fevers and/or diarrhea. If these symptoms last more than 24 hours, the child should see a pediatrician.

Although the baby is in no danger when teething, parents can do a number of things to help ease the child's pain. Topical anesthetics made for teething infants are now available. However, it is important to follow your dentist's or pediatrician's advice as to their proper use. Parents can also simply massage the babies' gums with a clean finger or a cold, damp cloth.

A chilled teething ring or teething biscuits will also satisfy the child's urge to put something in his or her mouth.

When teeth come in, babies need aid

By Glenn Rosivack, D.M.D.

When a baby starts to cut teeth, its parents may think the process will never end. However, teething is a relatively harmless stage that, in fact, should begin a lifetime of healthy dental habits.

Babies' teeth begin to erupt around six months of age and the process can last well into the child's second year. Teething is generally marked by excessive drooling, overall restlessness and irritability. Children may place their fingers in their mouths more than usual.

Some children also develop high fevers and diarrhea at this age and this may or may not be associated with teething. Babies begin to cut teeth at the same time that they lose

MEDICALLY SPEAKING

SINUS DISEASE

- Q: What is sinus disease?
- A: Sinus disease is an inflammation of the air-containing cavities of the nose, face, and forehead.
- Q: What are the symptoms of Sinus Disease?
- A: Chronic sinusitis can include nasal congestion, pain or pressure of the eyes and forehead, nasal obstruction or nasal drip, or simply the sensation of a cold that doesn't go away.
- Q: How is sinus disease treated?
- A: Most sinus disease resolves with medical treatment, which includes antibiotic and allergy therapy.
- Q: What about sinus disease that does not respond to treatment?
- A: In more severe cases with chronic blockage or polyps, surgery may be indicated.
- Q: Are there recent advances in the diagnosis of sinus disease?
- A: Yes. With fiberoptic examination of the nose and sinuses in the office and advanced CT scan imaging, doctors are able to accurately diagnose sinus disease.
- Q: Are there any recent advances in sinus surgery?
- A: Yes. Recently introduced endoscopic sinus surgery is a major breakthrough in the treatment of sinus disease. This surgery makes use of micro-telescopic techniques with no external incisions. These new techniques allow the surgeon to perform safer and more effective surgery. Most often the surgery can be performed with anesthesia on an outpatient basis. Recovery time is usually rapid, with patients returning to their normal activities within days.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUCKET SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Belleville girls' basketball coach Karen Fucello has seen some outstanding high school teams during her 19 year career. However, when her Lady Monarchs, a Junior Olympic squad for ages 16 through 18, faced a group of Soviet Junior Olympics, the coach found out about the rigors of international competition.

"It was quite an experience," Fucello said of the game with the Soviet Union. "You can call it a David and Goliath situation. We were facing the top Soviet women's basketball players, ages 19 and under. Our team was made up of players from one part of New Jersey. We were using kids from our 16 and under team and our 18 and under team."

"The physical differences in size was quite apparent. Their front line was easily 6'5" and better and their guards were over six feet tall. Also, the international rules were new to our kids. It's a fast, up tempo type of game. The Soviet squad reminded me of a female Lloya Margaret team. Two passes, sideline break and throw to the wing for a three pointer."

The Soviets beat the girls from New Jersey, 113-61. Earlier in the day, the New Jersey girls had to play an AAU qualifying game. Fucello wasn't using that as an excuse, however.

"I'm not saying we would have won had some of the girls not played earlier in the day. I would have liked to have been competitive with them, however."

Fucello explained that life as a Soviet Junior Olympic basketball player has tremendous demands.

"They practice five hours a day and only go home twice a year. The drills they do on a daily basis include dribbling two basketballs, one with each hand, and dribbling a soccer ball between their feet, all at the same time. Keep in mind, they're doing that drill at full speed, too."

"All of their players can juggle, which gives them good hand eye coordination. Many of them go to the prestigious Moscow School of Basketball."

On the road, Fucello said the Soviet team "loves American men and American shopping malls. The kids are amazed that there are no lines at the malls." (Obviously the Soviet team never saw Willowbrook during the Christmas holidays.)

The Soviet team was a little surprised that they will only practice two to three days a week. I told them that most of the girls are involved in other spring sports and they're all from different high schools in New Jersey. So getting them together every day is almost impossible."

After the game, the two teams got together at the Holiday Inn where the Soviet team was staying for a pizza party.

"It was a great cultural experience," Fucello said. "We had interpreters at all the tables, so the kids got to converse a little. It was just a terrific experience. I call it a basketball awakening and I think it will give the kids here an idea of what kind of dedication it takes to become an Olympic quality athlete. There are about eight players on the Soviet Jr. Olympic team that should be playing in the 1992 Olympic games in Barcelona."

Even though the Lady Monarchs weren't ready for full scale international competition, yet, the girls have enjoyed an excellent season. The 16 and under team will venture to Chattanooga, Tenn. for the AAU championship this summer. That same squad has also been invited to Santa Barbara, California.

In addition to being the head coach of the 16 and under squad, Fucello is head coach of the 18 and under team. That squad will also venture to Tennessee this summer after capturing the New Jersey championship.

Some of the girls who participated in the Soviet game include Chris Stelling of New Providence, Kristen Somogry of St. Peter's in New Brunswick, Judy Miles of Pascack Valley, Laura Leacy from Bloomfield, Lakesha Wright from Paterson Kennedy, Teya Eaton from Livingston, Whippany Park's Karen Max and Wendy Toussaint, who played her high school ball at Irvington.

Good luck to the Lady Monarchs this summer as they look to capture a national AAU title.

REDS EXCEL IN PIGTAIL LEAGUE

In pigtail softball, the Reds defeated the Angels, 17-15. Susan Donnelly pitched a complete game for the Reds and went 4 for 5 at the plate. Cheryl Russo was 3 for 3, scored four runs and played outstanding defense at third base and shortfield.

Johna Giordano went 5 for 5 and scored three runs. The game was called after six innings due to darkness.

In another game, the Reds defeated the Royals, 34-12. Donnelly had a phenomenal day at the plate, going 7 for 7. Jillian Ernst went 5 for 7 and scored five runs. Jessica Rotino went 7 for 7, scored five times and smacked four doubles. Susan and Gilda Brooks played well, as did Natalie Campletto, who did a good job in right field.

Russo and Ernst turned a double play in the game for the Reds.

CREW REUNION AND JOHN ENGEL

Once again, the Belleville crew teams, classes of 1965 through 1986 will have a reunion on July 28, 1990, starting at 8 p.m. at the Nutley Knights of Columbus Hall. The cost of the reunion is $20.00 per person. Proceeds will benefit the Sam Gluffrich Scholarship Fund. If you haven't obtained a ticket, call Cheryl McCarthy-King at 627-4537 or Sue Post-VanMelen at 450-8502.

Our newest subscriber, John Engel had sent me an invitation to his Memorial Day picnic. Unfortunately, it was lost in the mail. So, John, take this as my RSVP that I will be there. I can't wait to get together with you and Jan again. It's been too long.

BASEBALL NEWS

It's not often that a divisional title is clinched in May, but who can possibly catch the Oakland A's in the AL West? The only team with an outside shot is Minnesota, but the Twins don't have the pitching to keep up over the long haul.

Does anyone know who is playing in the Stanley Cup Finals? As predicted in this column before the first round was over, the Phoenix Suns will be the surprise team in the NBA playoffs in 1990. My prediction of the Cleveland Indians winning the AL East still looks decent. The Cardinals winning the NL East? Not with that offensive lineup. They beat Atlanta two out of three last weekend and looked terrible doing it. Great trade Whitey. The Cards didn't need Brunansky any way. Stick to an offense with no run production, just as long as you've got a closer in the bullpen from the right side. When the Cards lose games 5-1 to the Mets this summer, Herzog can say his bullpen kept the score low. Hey Whitey, why don't you trade Pedro Guerrero to the Mets for Ron Darling next.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The '82 Atlanta Braves set a major league record by winning its first 13 games of the season. The Braves struggled down the stretch, but had enough to win the NL West with an 89-73 record. In the playoffs, the Braves were swept by the Cardinals. The Braves manager in '82 was Joe Torre. The last time the Braves had a winning record was in 1983.

Livingston gains county final 3-1

Lady Bucs stopped in semis

For most of the 1990 season, the Belleville softball team has won games despite being outbitten by its competition. Carl Corino's team has done it with timely hitting and solid defense. Last Saturday at the county semi finals, Livingston employed that successful formula and consequently, Belleville will not be in the county championship game this year.

The Lady Bucs fell to Livingston 3-1 at Pulaski Park in the semi finals of the Essex County tournament. Livingston and Caldwell will meet in the title game next Saturday at Pulaski.

Belleville had a pretty good week last week, despite the loss in the county game. The team continued its march to an NNJIL crown by stopping Immaculate Heart in a thriller 4-3 and beating Hackensack 6-0. The team was beaten by Paramus 11-1 last Friday, marking the first loss in conference play for the team. The defeat also snapped a 14 game winning streak for Belleville.

The Lady Bucs took an 18-3 record into this week's action. The team faced Teaneck and Paramus Catholic earlier this week. Tomorrow, the girls are at Nutley in a 4 p.m. game. Next Monday, the girls host Immaculate Heart at 4 p.m. and next Tuesday, they begin play in the state tourney at Clearmont Field. Belleville will face the winner of the Linden-Scotch Plains game in the first round of the states.

Despite the loss in the county semi finals, Corino was looking ahead.

"The kids played well, Livingston played better," he said. "Last year in the county championship game won by Belleville 1-0 in ten innings, we got the decision."

OUT AT FIRST — Belleville first baseman Mia Hanoos makes catch at first base during recent game against Bloomfield. Lady Bucs were 18-3 heading into this week's action. (Photo by Paul Smith)

This year, Livingston came back. We have been outbitten numerous times this year, but we won by not committing errors and getting timely hits.

"This time, we out hit our opponent (5-3), but we made errors and they got the timely hit. We have a lot to look forward to. We're ahead in the conference race and I'm looking forward to the (Group III) state tourney. It's our first experience in this state grouping. Hey, an 18-3 record is pretty good and there's still some big games coming up."

Belleville was victimized by errors in the Livingston contest. The Lady Bucs committed six errors and all three Livingston runs were unearned. The Lady Lancers scored twice in the fourth and added a big run in the top of the seventh.

In the bottom of the seventh, Belleville staged a rally. Carey Woodruff singled and went to second on a passed ball. After Judy Krych grounded out, Amalia Fabiano singled Woodruff to third. Melissa Marcantonio hit a sharp single, scoring Woodruff and moving Fabiano to second.

Leadoff hitter Jennifer Bridge was the next batter and she lined what appeared to be a hit up the middle. However, the Livingston pitcher made an excellent play, snatching the liner before it hit the ground. She then threw to first to double off Marcantonio and end the game.

"It looked good when it went off the bat," Corino said of Bridge's shot. "After Bridge, we had (Mia) Hanoos and (Stacey) Johansen coming up. So we had the hitters we wanted in that situation. Their pitcher made a real nice play on Jennifer's hit."

Johansen pitched the entire game for Belleville. She allowed just three hits and struck out seven. However, three Belleville errors in the fourth set up two Livingston runs and two more miscues in the seventh allowed the third run.

The week started with an impressive road victory over a very good

Baseball team snaps slump, wins two

Solid pitching and some impressive hitting propelled the Belleville baseball team to two victories last week, snapping the Bucs' nine game losing streak in the process.

Belleville took a 5-14 record into a game with Teaneck last Tuesday. The Bucs faced Paramus Catholic yesterday. Tomorrow, the team is home to Nutley in a 4 p.m. game and next Monday, it's a home game with Don Bosco at 4.

The Bucs stopped Bloomfield 9-3 and Don Bosco 5-1 in league play last week. The team lost to Hackensack 11-3 and Paramus 12-6.

The Bucs broke a long losing streak by beating Bloomfield. Jason Gallito pitched the first three innings for Belleville, allowing two earned runs, three hits and walking three. Jason Nardachone, who had an outstanding game for the Bucs, got the win by pitching four innings and allowing no earned runs. He struck out two and walked two.

Bloomfield went ahead 2-0 in the second, but Belleville came back with five runs in the last of the second. Mike Melham started the rally with a single. Rich Ferruggia walked and Ryan Wells singled to score Melham. On the play, an obstruction call was made by the umpire and Wells was awarded second base, with Ferruggia taking third.

Nardachone singled to score Ferruggia. Bill Salvatore walked to load the bases and Art Caruso reached on a fielders choice, with Salvatore being erased at second and Wells scoring.

Mike Alfano hit a sacrifice fly to score Nardachone with the fourth run of the inning. Carmen Spina singled and Andy DuHaime singled to score Caruso with the fifth run.

The Bucs scored once in the third when Nardachone tripled, Salvatore walked and Caruso grounded out, scoring Nardachone.

In the fourth, Spina walked and went to second on a balk. Melham singled to score Spina. Wells singled and Nardachone hit a long double to score two runs and boost the Belleville lead to 9-2. Bloomfield scored once in the seventh to make the final count 9-3.

Nardachone had a standout day at the plate, going 4 for 4 with three RBIs and two runs scored. Caruso was 3 for 5 and Wells and Melham collected two hits each.

Last Tuesday, the Bucs received another well pitched game and prevailed 5-1 over Don Bosco.

Ferruggia hurled a complete game, allowing no earned runs and two hits. He struck out five and walked five.

"We played very well in the Bloomfield and Don Bosco games," head coach Nick Grande said. "We're still making too many errors, but the kids came around and played well enough to win. We needed to get back in the win column."

Belleville scored three times in the first inning against Don Bosco. Caruso started things off with a walk. He stole second base and went to third when Spina grounded out. Melham singled to score Caruso. He went to second on a wild pitch. Wildness then hit the Don Bosco pitching staff. Ferruggia, Wells and Nardachone all walked, with the later walk scoring Melham. Salvatore then walked, scoring Ferruggia.

In the sixth, with the score 3-1, Belleville scored two more runs. Salvatore doubled and went to third on a single by Mike Capasso. Capasso then stole base. Salvatore tried to steal home, but was caught at the plate. On the attempted steal of home, Capasso went to third base. Caruso walked and stole second base.

Alfano hit a sacrifice fly to score Capasso and Spina lined a single that drove home Caruso.

Melham was 3 for 4 in the game and Spina was 2 for 3.

The results weren't as positive in the Hackensack game. Belleville lost by an 11-3 decision and committed seven errors.

"It was an horrendous display," Grande said. "We didn't execute any of the fundamentals properly. This was a game we should have won."

The Bucs jumped out to a 2-

Rowers win two medals at Mid-Hudson regatta

The Belleville crew team performed well at the Mid Hudson Regatta last weekend, taking home two gold medals.

Bob Cassin's team will now prepare for perhaps the most prestigious race of the season. Tomorrow morning, the Bucs will venture down to Philadelphia to compete in the Stotesbury Regatta. The races will commence tomorrow afternoon and will conclude Saturday.

The junior four boys "A" shell captured a championship, beating Kearny and FDR of Hyde Park in the championship race. The boat raced the 1500 meters in a strong time of 5:24.

"The kids brought their stroke down in the race and did very well," Cassin said. "It was quite a finish. Our kids really turned it on down the stretch."

The Bucs were in third place with 300 meters to go. In the last 50 meters, the team pulled into second, then used a furious rally to overcome Kearny and win the championship.

Members of the boat are Lee Hands, Sean Kimball, Jim Mastropolo, Dale Watkowski and Heather Apruzzese.

The novice eight boys shell also won the gold medal, sweeping to victory in the qualifying and championship race. The winning time in the championship race was 6:30. The Bucs won the title in a thrilling race with boathouse rival Nutley, prevailing by one second.

Members of the novice eight shell are Anthony Gaccione, Darren Pierson, Bob Gauthier, Mike Capozio, Frank Koch, Bill Zigmund, Matt Kastner, Jack O'Connell and coxswain Alexandra Lynch.

"The boys novice eight was, in essence, a freshman boat," Cassin said, "and they were up against more experienced rowers. Nutley had two sophomores and two juniors in the shell in the championship race. I was real proud of the kids' performance. We also faced a lot of new crews at the Mid Hudson. It was a good experience for our team."

The girls novice eight team placed fourth in its qualifying race and didn't make the finals. Cassin indicated that some of the girls who rowed in that shell will participate at the Stotesbury Regatta.

"We'll probably go with two lightweight four shells at the Stotes," the coach reported. "So, some of the girls from the novice team will be racing this weekend. The girls were a little disappointed with their race at the Mid Hudson. They've had a real good season and they were hoping for a shot at the finals."

The girls senior four shell, who has endured numerous injuries this

Bulls, Spirit prevail in BSA Colucci, Tafur score 'hat'

The Belleville Bulls of the Belleville Soccer Association stopped Pequannock 6-2 last weekend. The victory was the fourth of the season for the Bulls.

Nick Colucci had his second hat trick of the season and Ernie Scari scored two goals to lead the attack. Danny Bartosiewicz scored once in the game for the Bulls.

The defense was paced by the midfield play of Joe Colucci, Damian Archundito, Robin Guevara and Rick Thatcher.

The BSA's Spirit, a Division 3 entry, came through with an impressive win over Butler 5-1 last Sunday at Municipal Stadium.

Frank Tafur scored the hat trick in the game. For the season, Tafur has seven goals. Greg Groening scored twice and he now has 15 goals this season, tops on the team.

Despite heavy rains in the second half, the Spirit held together in posting its fifth win of the year. Those who played in the game for Belleville were Mike Puccio, Chris Imperatrice, Joe Colucci, Dominick Arduini, Frank Toledo, Steve Coluzzi, Ljubisa Prolovic, Mike Guzman, Ivan Martin, Groening and Tafur.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Umpires needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is in need of adult male boys or girls, age 16 or older, to umpire games in the recreation baseball and softball leagues. Games are played on weekday nights and Saturdays during the months of May-June. For more information or to apply, call the Recreation Department office at 450-3422 or stop at the Rec House on Johnson Street before 4 p.m. on weekdays.

Cheerleading registration

The Belleville Recreation Department has announced applications for tryouts for the Junior Boys Cheerleading squads are now available at the Recreation Department office on Jaramelon Street. Three squads will be selected according to the girls grade in school, one each for the Midget, JV and Varsity traveling football teams.

Cheerleading clinics will begin May 19 at the registration deadline for tryouts being May 25. Birth certificates will be required of all applicants and everyone intending to tryout must register by the May 25 deadline. Girls who will be in grades 3-8 during the 1990-91 school year are eligible, and all returnees must re-apply.

For other information, contact the Recreation office at 450-3422.

Coaches certified

The Belleville Recreation Department announces that 74 volunteer coaches from the Recreation Baseball & Softball Leagues have successfully completed the National Youth Sports Coaching Association Volunteer Coach Certification Program. The NYSCA program is intended to make coaches aware of the psychological, emotional, and psychological needs of the children on their team. Each coach has signed the NYSCA Code of Ethics Pledge indicating their desire to conduct themselves and their team in the best interests of the children in mind.

"Ralph 'Skip' Capizzi, certified clinician conducting the certification program said, "We are very pleased that these volunteers participated in this program. By learning and working together we can significantly improve the quality of youth sports for all of the children involved in our community." The NYSCA motto is "Making Youth Sports Fun for Kids" and the Belleville Recreation Department Baseball/Softball Leagues plan to reinforce this philosophy by remembering that the game is for children, not adults.

Men's softball results

(through May 3): Roselli's leads the Belleville Recreation Men's Softball Tuesday "B" League with a 3-0 record after sweeping their weekheader last week, 5-4 over Wallace & Tiernan and 4-2 over Five Brothers Carting. Palmer Video (2-1) also won a pair of games, beating Larry's Park Service 8-6 and Belleville Political & Social Club 5-4. Larry's Park Service (2-1) shut out Wallace & Tiernan (1-2) by a 6-0 score, and Five Brothers Carting (1-2) rallied past (0-3) BPSC 7-5.

Chaples (3-0) leads the Wednesday "A" League after winning 10-0 over Wiggles and 3-2 over Draperies Plus. Wiggles (2-1) defeated Michael's Roscommon House 9-6, Rossmore Pharmacy (1-1) topped (1-2) Michael's 4-2, and Draperies Plus (0-2-1) and the Aces (0-1-1) battled to a 9-9 tie in 8 innings. Rossmore and the Aces must resume an incomplete game at a later date since their contest was called at darkness before becoming official.

Bedwood Kennels (3-0) has made their presence known in the Thursday "B" League as they beat Philmore Associates 11-1 and Assembly Point 8-5. Assembly Point (2-1) bested Ab-Tech Printing 9-3, Veniero Trucking (1-1-1) topped Chandelier 17-4, and Tech (3-2) won 10-2 over Ab-Tech (0-3). Philmore Associates (1-1) also tied Veniero 3-3. The Monday "A" League was rained out on April 30.

Girls gear for Group 3

Immaculate Heart team, I.H. came into the game in second place in the NNJIL, and things didn't look good for Belleville going into the seventh inning.

I.H. led 3-1 in the seventh and Belleville was down to its last out with runners on first and second. Bridge was on second way of fielders choice and Johansen was on first thanks to single.

Laurie Moyer, a senior catcher, then stepped to the plate and lined a long double, scoring both Bridge and Johansen and tying the game at three.

"Needless to say, that was a huge hit," Corino said of Moyer's double.

The game remained tied at three until the top of the tenth. There, Colleen Mannion singled and stole second base. Woodruff then singled to drive in Mannion with the go ahead run.

Belleville had eight hits in the game and Hanos collected two of them. Treca Donnelly was the winning pitcher for Belleville, hauled the entire game, she walked just one and gave up six hits.

"That was a big win for us in the league," Corino said. "The kids really showed character by coming back in the seventh inning."

Against Hackensack, Johansen pitched the first five innings to earn her tenth victory of the season. She struck out seven and walked just one. Donnelly hurried the final two frames to preserve the shutout.

Johansen had a big day at the plate, too. The senior was 2 for 3 and clouted a homer. Moyer was 1 for 2, with a key single that drove in two runs in the third inning.

Last Friday, the girls were defeated by Paramus 11-1.

"That was just one of those games," Corino said. "I expected a real tough game with Paramus and we just didn't play well. We made four errors. Once in a while, you're going to have an off game like that. I really can't say too much about that game."

Donnelly pitched for Belleville and took her first loss of the season. Her record entering this week's action was a solid 8-1. Johansen was 10-2 after this week's action.

NOTES: This will be the first time since 1981 that Belleville is not in the county championship game. Back in '81, the team was shocked in the quarterfinals by Shabazz. Belleville has a two game lead in the NNJIL. The girls are looking for its second straight league title. Unless any scheduled games this week are postponed, the regular season ends next Monday with the Immaculate Heart game. Next Tuesday, the state tourney begins.

year, made it to the finals, where it finished third in a tough field of seven. The girls lost to Arlington High School and Kearny in the title race, finishing less than two seconds off the lead. Belleville's time was 7:01.5 in the finals, with the winning time at 7:00.

"The waters were real choppy by the team that boat raced," Cassin said. "The tide had changed and it made the race very difficult."

The girls junior four finished second in the finals, beating Kearny, Nutley and Poughkeepsie in the finals. The girls lost the championship race by just two seconds.

The boys' senior four shell was unable to compete at the Mid Hudson, but will be back this weekend at the Stotes.

"We'll have a light week of practice," Cassin said. "It will be more speed work, with shorter practices. We want to give the kids some time to rest and get ready for the Stotes."

The boys will bring a freshman eight, two junior four shells and a senior four to the Stotes. The girls will take two lightweight four teams, a junior four and senior four shell.

0 lead in the first. Melham walked and went to third on a double by Joe Cocuzza. Alfano then hit a triple to score two runs.

Hackensack scored three times in their half of the first, then scored twice in the third, once in the fourth, four times in the fifth and once in the sixth. The Bucs scored a run in the seventh when Jim DuHaima singled, stole second and scored on a hit by Caruso.

Capasso pitched the first five innings for Belleville. He gave up just one earned run, even though ten Hackensack runners had crossed the plate after five innings. Capasso struck out four and walked two. Galisto pitched the final inning, allowing two hits and striking out one.

Alfano was 2 for 3 for Belleville, driving in two runs.

Versus Paramus, the Bucs fell by a 12-6 margin. Belleville led 2-1 after one inning. Spina walked and went to second on a hit by DuHaima. Ferruggia singled to load the bases and Alfano hit a sacrifice fly to score Spina. Wells then singled to bring home DuHaima.

Paramus scored four times in the second for a 5-2 lead, but Belleville narrowed the game to 5-4 in the last of the second. Salvatore walked and Capasso singled. Both runners moved up one base on a ground out. Melham singled to score Salvatore. Capasso also tried to score on the play, but he was cut down at the plate. Andy DuHaima then tripled to score Melham and cut the gap to 5-4.

Paramus scored twice in the fourth and four times in the fifth to break the game open. The Bucs scored twice in the last of the fifth to cut the deficit to 11-6. Andy DuHaima singled and Ferruggia doubled, putting runners on second and third. Alfano hit another sacrifice fly to score DuHaima, and Wells singled to bring home Ferruggia.

DuHaima led the Bucs by going 3 for 3. Ferruggia was 2 for 2 and Wells was 2 for 4.

Nardachone pitched the entire game for Belleville. He allowed seven earned runs and 11 hits. The junior struck out two and walked six.

The Bucs were hurt by six errors in the game and two wild pitches. Belleville will be without the services of Caruso, the starting shortstop, for the rest of the year. The junior is sidelined with mononucleosis.

GENERAL OPPORS.

LAUNDRY SUPERVISOR

Immediate opportunity exists for a take-care individual to manage the daily operations of the Laundry Department of this 475-bed community medical center.

The Laundry is responsible for providing clean linen to the medical center's patients and staff—a critically important service.

We are looking for an experienced individual who can supervise, maintain par levels, and assure the smooth operation of this busy department.

If you are results-oriented and looking for job satisfaction, we'd like to talk to you!

For information and application, please call Betty Calles, Employment Coordinator, at 450-2117.

The Home Front

By Nina Kaeser

Did You Know???

No need to install expensive outdoor lighting for your next party. Just invest in lots of those little disposable flashlights, and "plant" them all around your yard, aimed up through bushes and trees.

For safety's sake, extension ladders should be placed no closer to the vertical surface than one quarter the length of the ladder. Be sure the ladder is footed on a firm surface.

Use vinegar to remove soap scum from the edges of chrome fixtures on sinks and tubs. Dip a cotton swab in vinegar and rub, or saturate a paper towel and let it soak on the offending mess.

If foundation plantings and flower beds are covered by several inches of mulch, rain is less likely to splatter and leave dirt on the foundation. Small stones or gravel would work, too.

One way to open up a small room is to provide a view to a larger space. If two small rooms are separated by a wall, remove the non-weight-bearing portion to create a "window" or pass-through.

The smart way to find a new home: get the help of the experts at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley. 235-9900.
