Half-dozen BHS graduates find each other in Wayne

By Joyce M. Steel

After working in the Wayne elementary schools for eleven years, Sylvia Firschein, a Belleville High School Class of 1951 graduate, began to recognize some familiar faces.

Firschein (nee Haft), a librarian and former teacher, works in the Wayne school system with five other alumni of Belleville High School. She said, although she knew of one former classmate, Technology for Children Coordinator Joseph Gilchrist, currently working in the Wayne school system, it wasn't until mid-May when the others were discovered.

"Little by little we managed to piece it together," Firschein said, adding that they are still looking for more Belleville High School graduates.

After realizing their common bond, "the Belleville Gang" arranged their own informal high school reunion on June 18. According to Firschein, five of the graduates met at the King George Diner in Wayne, yearbooks in tow, to spend the evening reminiscing about their families, friends and high school memories.

"We really had a nice time looking at pictures, recalling trivia and remembering the old times," Firschein said.

Pat Liloia, a 1954 graduate of Belleville High, works with Firschein and Gilchrist as an elementary school teacher. Arlene Mintz (nee Entin), also an elementary school teacher, graduated in 1958. Bob Moore, the president of the Wayne Education Association and a 1965 graduate, teaches high school history. Mary Jo Klegg (nee Romano) graduated Belleville High School in 1958, but couldn't attend the impromptu reunion.

Town budget hearing postponed to next week

The public hearing on the amended municipal budget was rescheduled from Aug. 21 to Aug. 30 at 8 p.m. in the town council chambers.

The municipal budget amendment represents an increase of $869,521.36 from $25,500,991.94 to $26,370,513.30.

According to Mayor Marina Perina, nearly 75% of the municipal budget has already been spent for the current calendar year.

The proposed amended budget represents a 17 point tax increase, or a $7 per month increase on a home assessed at $50,000. The previous commissioners had introduced a zero tax point increase municipal budget which did not account for municipal employees' raises which were effective Jan. 1 of this year, sources said.

The council at their Aug. 14 meeting confirmed appointments to the town's Shade Tree Commission. Appointed to a 5-year term was Harriet M. Canella, 60 Overlook Ave.; 4-year terms, Joseph Porcello, 56 Frederick St and Ann Marie Graziano, 278 Greylock Pkwy.; 3-year terms, Ferdinand D. Tuoci, 61 Rossmore Pl. and Lyle M. Davis, 174 Bell St.; 2-year term, Jerry S. Filangieri, 65 Wallace St.; 1-year term, Ralph Mazzuca, 275 DeWitt Ave. Tuoci and Davis served on the most recent Shade Tree Commission.

In other township business, the following meetings have been scheduled:

The Building Development Advisory Council will hold its first meeting Wednesday, Sept. 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the second floor meeting room at 383 Washington Ave.

The Zoning Board of Adjustment will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Sept. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the second floor meeting room at 383 Washington Ave.

Refuse collection rules outlined

In a concerted effort to make Belleville glitter by canning the litter, residents are being notified this week by the township Health Department of the current Solid Waste Collection problems, and what to put out for the trash, and when to put it out.

Knowing where and when to place trash is half the battle in keeping Belleville clean. Here, according to the Health Department, are the most common collection problems, and the regulations defining who is responsible for what in the township waste stream.

A. GARBAGE COLLECTOR is responsible for:

1. All Household Waste

2. Rugs cut in 4 ft. lengths tied in bundles not more than 40 lbs.

3. Furniture and Bedding.

4. Bulk Items: NOT more than one bundle per pick-up will be collected at curbside. The bundle must be securely tied, not weighing more than 40 lbs.

B. DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS:

1. White Goods: Refrigerators, stoves, water heaters, washing machines and dryers may be placed at the curb for pick-up by the Department of Public Works. Call 450-3412 to arrange for pick-up.

2. Garden Debris, Brush and Grass Clippings: Must be placed in separate containers not weighing more than 40 lbs. per container. Brush must be tied in bundles not more than 4 ft. in length, not more than 40 lbs. per bundle. All of these items must be separated from household garbage, and must be placed on the curb, not in the street. The Department of Public Works will collect these items on your FIRST scheduled garbage collection day.

3. Discarded Tires: Tires may be brought to the Department of Public Works at 560 Cortlandt Street for disposal. No tires will be picked up at curbside. Resident identification is required.

C. HOMEOWNER:

Construction Debris: The removal and disposal of debris generated by home improvement projects is the sole responsibility of the property owner. All plumbing fixtures are classified as construction debris and will NOT be picked up if placed at the curb. Proper disposal is the responsibility of the homeowner.

Aims to raise sunken whaler

Adventurer realizes sailor's dream

By Joyce M. Steel

To Emre Dluhos, the town resident who was recently granted ownership of a 110-year-old whaling vessel sunk to the moorings in an Oregon port, his legal victory is as much for his home town of Belleville as it is for himself.

Dluhos, a specialist at repairing and rebuilding dilapidated sailing vessels, plans to restore the crumbling ship, The Mary D. Hume, to a brigantine in time for the 1992 Columbus Day 500th Anniversary Regatta in New York Harbor, where he hopes to sail her as a representative of his hometown.

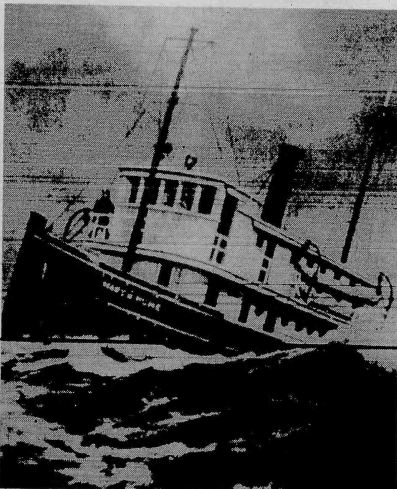

The rehabilitation of the Mary D., as Dluhos fondly refers to her, will be no easy task. But challenges are his lifeblood, Dluhos' friends contend. The wayfarer was enlisted in the U.S. Navy during World War II and the Korean Conflict, and, as a civilian during the Vietnam War, Dluhos frequently ran ammunition and supplies to U.S. servicemen in the Pacific. He was also a member of the Merchant Marines.

During the past two decades, Dluhos has spent most of his time traveling the world at the request of needy ship owners. According to Lou Cicenia, a Belleville native and storeowner and a good friend of Dluhos, "He's the first person to call on if a boat is disabled, wherever it is." Cicenia described his friend as "an extremely well-known, well-liked adventurer."

In fact, Dluhos and the Mary D. braved the same high seas together so often that they might well have passed each other in the night. Like that of Dluhos, the seafaring history of the Mary D. Hume is extensive. Built in 1880 as a steamer, she was converted to a whaler in 1889 and made numerous voyages to the Arctic Ocean. On one of those voyages in 1904, the Mary D. sank in Alaskan waters and was raised and repaired in Seattle, WA. Afterwards, she was used consistently as a tugboat until 1978, when the ship was retired and given to the Curry County Historical Society. The Mary D. Hume was placed in the National Register of Historic Places in 1979.

Dluhos' chance to make his dream for the aging ship a reality has been a long time coming. He first heard about the Mary D. Hume in 1987, after efforts by the Curry County (Oregon) Historical Society to recover her permanently at the Port of Gold Beach failed and the ship partially sank. The society determined that rehabilitating the

BHS dress code changed, attendance rules listed

Belleville High School Principal Joseph Ciccone announced minor changes in the student dress code for the coming school year. He said he had met with student representatives and worked out a solution to the changing clothing styles. Ciccone said he and the group were able to come to terms with a revised dress code.

The principal said that although the attendance regulations and dress codes are distributed to students when classes begin in September, he asked that the regulations be printed here to reach a broader base of township families.

Attendance philosophy and supporting regulations

The administration and staff of Belleville High School adhere to the New Jersey State Commissioner of Education's philosophy on attendance which "requires pupil participation in all regularly scheduled classroom learning activities in each area of study in order for each pupil to receive the maximum benefits of a thorough educational program."

The New Jersey Statutes Annotated (18-A; 38-25) reads, in part: "Every parent...having custody and control of a child between the ages of six and sixteen years shall cause such child, regularly to attend the public schools of the district."

The statute also defines the days when children are required to attend: "Such regular attendance shall be during all the days and hours that the public schools are in session in the district (18-A:38-26).

Acceptable reasons for excused absenteeism

1. Personal illness substantiated by a doctor's note

2. Death in the immediate family - note required

3. Religious holiday as listed by the state

4. Emergency medical or dental appointments

5. Court appearances, documentation required

6. Participation in school sponsored activities i.e. meetings, counseling, conferences, class athletic conferences

A. Based upon a school year of 180 days, absence of more than 16 days in a full year course or more than 8 days in a half year course will not be permitted, and will possibly result in a loss of course credit

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

Upon reading of the Verona town manager's spurning of the newly elected Belleville Town Council's magnanimous offer of $85,000 to accept the local office, the thought occurred to us that such a salary offer should attract only the best of such talented administrative officials.

Reviewing the prevailing political climate of potential available such talented executive leaders we conjectured that the present Essex County Sheriff, Tom D'Alesio will become elected Essex County Executive since present incumbent Nick Amato is not seeking reelection with prospects of gaining a patronage plum from the Governor.

Mr. Amato has served commendably throughout his entire term having stabilized the County budget without any tax increase. He has laid roots in Belleville and grew up here and is a competent Attorney at Law. We feel it would be a wise move should our new Council members dangle such an attractive offer before the eyes of Mr. Amato ... his accomplishments as County Executive surely would qualify him for such a position ... were he disposed to consider it? We couldn't get anyone better.

The S&L bailout keeps rising out of control. Tempers flared at a Senate probe of charges that the government turned over more than 200 failed thrifts to investors in 1988 and what amounted to sweetheart deals. The Resolution Trust Corporation, which is managing the bailout, disclosed plans to dispose of 130 more thrifts and to sell $50 billion of seized assets by the end of the year in an effort to raise desperately needed cash.

The dire signs that the bailout may be in trouble has pushed public outrage over the S&L crisis to a new level of intensity and remaining the country's No. 1 problem and the public's No. 1 cause for concern.

The cost of the S&L bailout keeps rising uncontrollably. The price tag has grown from a White House projection of $166 billion over 10 years to what some experts now fear could be a $1 trillion bill spread over 30 years as the government shuts down nearly half the entire thrift industry. Current forecasts project a cleanup cost of at least $500 billion to be used mainly to pay insured depositors at closed thrifts plus some $340 billion of interest on the government bonds that will finance the bailout.

Many thrifts may go under because of the tough new regulations. The standards require thrifts to have more capital on their books than even some well-managed institutions. At the same time, the bailout failed to overhaul deposit-insurance policies that require U.S. taxpayers to pay virtually the full cost of a bank or S&L collapse.

When asked which party they blamed most for the thrift mess, 36% said the Republicans, while 18% said the Democrats were mostly at fault. Only 12% said they have a lot of confidence in the government to correct the S&L mess. Another 59% indicated they were losing confidence in their local S&Ls.

The bailout woes were glaringly evident when the Administration notified Congress that $100 billion will be needed to keep the program from running out of cash. The news angered Administration critics who were stunned by the size of the request. The $100 billion installment includes $60 billion in bonds the Resolution Trust Corporation plans to repay from the sale of assets of seized thrifts. The remaining $40 billion will become part of the bailout's long-term cost.

In Congress, lawmakers adopted a get-tough role, passing several S&L measures before taking a summer recess. One would mandate life sentences for persons convicted of major S&L swindles. But while such penalties might deter future S&L looters, neither measure would retroactively apply to the fast-buck operators who are responsible for billions of dollars in S&L losses that taxpayers will have to meet. Government officials estimate that incidents of fraud played a role in about 30% of the S&L failures, yet very little of the stolen money is expected to be recovered.

Special Ed mediation booklet

Parents and schools working together to make the best decisions about handicapped students' education isn't just a good idea, says Dr. Jeffrey V. Osowski. It's the law.

Occasionally, it's also a source of conflict.

To help resolve disagreements that may arise between parents and schools, the New Jersey State Department of Education is offering a pamphlet entitled Special Education: Mediation and Due Process. The pamphlet describes steps parents may take to appeal schools' decisions about student referrals, evaluations, classifications and educational placements.

According to Osowski, director of the department's Division of Special Education, parents who are concerned about special education services their children are receiving have two avenues of recourse: mediation and due process.

During the mediation process, parents meet informally with local, county or state education officials to discuss and resolve the dispute. Under the due process option, parents may request a hearing before a state administrative law judge, who will decide the case.

The pamphlet outlines the two options and how to use them. It is available at no charge by writing: New Jersey State Department of Education, Division of Special Education, 225 W. State Street, CN 501, Trenton, N.J. 08625, or calling (609) 292-0147.

SENIORS GET THEIR DUE AT COUNTY AWARDS LUNCHEON — Essex County Executive Nicholas Amato recently honored the many accomplishments of older adults throughout the county at the 15th Annual Senior Citizens Award Luncheon. Military veterans opportunities available for higher education

Military veterans and their dependents can receive financial aid to learn lucrative skills — from selling houses to flying planes — at more than 275 schools throughout New Jersey this year.

The State Department of Education estimates that nearly 12,000 New Jerseyans are eligible for veterans education benefits through the federal Department of Veterans Affairs. To help them take advantage of their benefits, the department offers a free pamphlet entitled Education Benefits for Veterans and Dependents. The pamphlet explains who is eligible for veterans education benefits and how the money may be used.

Some helpful facts:

- The four largest veterans education assistance programs are:
 - The Active Duty Educational Assistance Program, or "Montgomery G.I. Bill" (Chapter 30), which provides a minimum of $10,000 to qualified veterans;
 - The Post-Vietnam Era Veterans Educational Assistance Program (VEAP) (Chapter 32), which provides up to $8,100 to eligible veterans;
 - The Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance Program (Chapter 35), which provides financial aid for spouses and children of veterans who were killed or permanently disabled in active military service or who are listed as prisoners of war or missing in action; and
 - The Montgomery G.I. Bill, Selected Reserve (Chapter 16), which provides educational benefits to qualified veterans of reserve service.

Veterans and their dependents may use their benefits to attend colleges and universities. They may also use them at more than 275 accredited training establishments throughout New Jersey. These establishments include: apprenticeships and on-the-job training programs; correspondence schools; hospital programs; private business and vocational-technical schools; public institutions, art schools, schools of cosmetology; real estate schools; and flight schools (effective Oct. 1).

For more information on veterans education benefits, or to obtain a copy of Educational Benefits for Veterans and Dependents write: New Jersey State Department of Education, Division of Vocational Education, Office of Veterans Education and Training, CN 500, Trenton, N.J. 08625, or call Carl Brown, director of veterans education training, at (609) 292-6326.

MISGUIDED FRUGALITY

Some patients with an eye toward cutting medication expenses decide to stop taking antibiotics as soon as they feel better (usually after about three days). They then store the rest of the medicine for use at a later time. This is a bad idea for several reasons. For one, deciding which antibiotic to use to treat an infection is a complex matter best handled by the physician. Secondly, an antibiotic may lose its potency over time, in addition to possibly causing adverse reactions. Finally, an antibiotic must be taken for its entire prescribed term. Only the least-resistant bacteria are killed in the initial stages of treatment. After that, it requires longer exposure to the antibiotic to kill the more resistant bacteria. Ceasing to take an antibiotic in mid-treatment virtually assures the survival of the heartiest strains and recurrence of infection.

Your pharmacist is responsible for information concerning product and proper dosage in relation to age and condition of individual patient. For all your prescription needs see us at ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, 448 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1556. We are Blue Cross and Medicare approved. Russell Stover candies, baby needs, cosmetics and toiletries are handled. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: If an infection returns because a patient stopped taking an antibiotic, it is likely to be more virulent and harder to treat than the original infection.

Jim Florio

Integrity, loyalty, honesty, ability, courageous, experience and caring! These are the attributes and qualities of our Governor Jim Florio.

Governor Florio has held public office for a couple of decades. He served as a member of the New Jersey Assembly, then achieved an outstanding reputation as the nation's protector of the environment during his years as a member of Congress.

Shortly after Governor Florio took office, this is what he was confronted with:

1. A Supreme Court decision requiring a higher level of funding for most public schools. The gap between city and suburban school funding was so unequal that Florio was required to raise taxes to obey the Supreme Court edict.

2. Governor Tom Kean's last budget in office anticipated revenues exceeding the actual state receipts. This created a shortfall — or deficit of $600 million that Florio was obliged to rectify.

During the closing legislative sessions in the previous year, Tom Kean, a Republican Governor, and a G.O.P. Assembly voted to increase the future governor's salary — but Florio stands accused by uninformed voters.

In his decades of public service, Florio was never subjected to the demeaning terms of "Traitor," "Liar" and other nouns unbecoming the publication in a family weekly newspaper.

Florio's public record is one of honesty, integrity, reliability, courage and vision. When conditions change, an executive is obliged to confront the changing conditions with measures that may not be popular but necessary.

More than once, Governor Florio has said he can't manage state government by polls. The pollsters tell the Governor that taxes are unpopular with the voters. We didn't have to wait for a pollster to tell us that taxes are an unpopular approach to government. Nobody likes to pay taxes. The hard truth is that without taxes, the state can't function.

Governor Florio has asked the general public to be patient with him and wait until his program goes full cycle. Within a period of twelve months, the tax relief measures which were a part of the tax package will come into focus and will prove to the public that Jim Florio will be the Democrat's Abe Lincoln.

Florio has a reputation for telling the truth, and he certainly isn't about to change his character in 1990. Florio has experienced the hard knocks of life. He has known what it is to be poor, and to live on next week's payday. He has known the ravages of war, serving in the Navy. Florio's first six months demonstrated that he is a man that has guts, despite the fact that his critics think he should be gutless.

Florio's critics want the tax package repealed. If they had their way, look at what would happen — the $600 million to balance the Kean budget would not be available. The Supreme Court-mandated improvements of public schools would be defied. Since contracts in place would raise most of the salaries throughout the system of state government, the deficit would be increased. The developing scene would be so chaotic, it is unworthy of consideration.

Life has proven that cheap is expensive. Life has proven that neglect is costly. Life has proven that in government, often it takes guts to do the right thing. And in the instant case, Governor Florio has demonstrated he has an abundance of guts.

Republicans falsely accuse Florio for raising taxes as "first resort to fiscal difficulties." That charge is simply untrue. The first thing Florio did was slash the budget by two billion dollars, and when there was nothing left but bones to the state budget, he was obliged to call for the sacrifice of raising taxes. Will time prove that Florio has been honest with us and that his program will benefit the people of our state? The answer will be an unequivocal "yes."

YOUR OPINION

Supports Supreme Court decision on school funding

To the editor:

The educational decisions handed down by the New Jersey State Supreme Court affirmed and supports one of the most fundamental rights all New Jerseyans can be proud of, that children — our natural and most important resource — shall have a thorough, efficient and equal opportunity to the best education that this state has to offer. It will only be when we, as New Jerseyans, view these decisions as decisions benefitting all children and not simply decisions chosen between urban versus suburban or rural versus suburban that we as New Jerseyans will prepare this state for the coming century.

When we deal with the problems of toxic waste, garbage, water to name a few, we attack these problems where they exist, spending the dollars rectifying those problems regardless of whose district they are in, regardless if the money is spent in one town and/or region — such actions are done because they are the right thing to do toward improving the quality of our environment as well as the life and image of our state.

The decision evolving from the Supreme Court is not something new, strange nor something of such magnitude that it's a concept not readily grasped. The concept nuanse is new, creative and imaginative primarily for it shall be the first time that we will be applying resources to those human beings in need — our children.

Ironically, when it came to our children — the most precious of all of our resources — we used formulas resting on greed, neglecting to directly address where the problems existed. The courageous decision recently enacted reaffirms the reality that when working for our children's future, the outdated formulas of greed no longer will be considered as factors when determining where educational funding shall be placed.

Our children's education will no longer be directed by the dictatorship of tax rates and will instead be re-directed toward where the needs of our children are. By eliminating this retrogressive dictatorship, we achieve the uplift of our state through the betterment of our children's future.

I am certain that every New Jerseyan can rally around our children as much as they rally around concerns regarding toxic oceans, our garbage problems and the elimination of toxic wastes.

The New Jersey Supreme Court has given the Legislature the needed direction lacking since 1975. It is my hope and trust that as my fellow Jerseyans examine this decision, they read such in its proper light and explain it fully to their constituents in its proper form. It is vital that all understand that this recent court decision is not only about the values of our children's education, but that it also strikes into what values we hold as a state.

I look forward to working with the Governor and my colleagues in forging this new New Jersey dependent upon good values and on developing the vast untapped resources of those children locked or left out because of their lacking the necessary resources within their educational foundation. What the state Supreme Court so ably recognized is that funding cannot be the sole criteria, but that it does command a direct bearing to the ability toward providing those children the needed opportunity.

We within the Legislature and as a state cannot stop with just funding concerns, however; we must push beyond into what goes on within the walls of those educational institutions, reaching into what goes on in curriculum planning and development and seeking out what makes our children ready to play a part in our future. What our children learn today determines not only whether or not we shall be competitive within the national marketplace, but the international marketplace as well.

Economic competitiveness is our challenge today; this is the framework which this recent decision must be viewed. If we can achieve educational equality while upholding the basic values which we all share, I guarantee to each and every New Jerseyan that we as a state and a people will stand stronger. We shall stand stronger, however, only by leaving for our children a promise of providing them with an opportunity to have a life better than our own.

I implore all New Jerseyans to view the Supreme Court's decision not as a decision between the haves and have nots, but from a point of view that we shall be judged by how we treat the least of us.

Assembly Majority Leader

Comments swift response

To the editor:

The following letter was sent to Police Chief George Lister.

Dear Chief Lister:

This letter is to acknowledge the fact, that on Tuesday evening, August 14th, I witnessed individuals attempting to steal a neighbor's car on Reservoir Place.

I immediately telephoned the Police Department and within a few minutes the police were on the scene. Because of the quick response time of your police officers, they were able to scout the immediate area and apprehend two individuals who were involved in the attempted theft.

The police department and in particular the officers involved are to be commended for their swift action in this matter.

I would appreciate your forwarding a copy of this letter to all of the police officers involved in handling this situation.

Seeking town's plaque

To the editor:

What happened to the plaque presented to the township by the Concerned Citizens of Belleville in commemoration of our 150th anniversary. Who had the gall to literally pry from the walls of our township lobby, remove and steal a memento for generations to see. Is this an act of vengeance or vandalism.

'Tis a shame that they with the mentality of a jackass stoop so low as to fester their grievances with such a childish act. Well — maybe someday they might mature from boy to man — and then I wonder.

• FROM the White House to the State House, the news is all bad for taxpayers. But the good news from the County Courthouse where the Essex County Board of Chosen Freeholders, led by President Joseph Parlavacchio, in consort with Essex County Executive, Nick Amato has produced a budget for 1991 without any increase. Freeholder Director Parlavacchio has given added meaning to the word leadership. A person who rejects confrontations for accommodations. Parlavacchio has the ability to easily interface with people with whom he may differ philosophically — and politically. Essex County is most fortunate to be served by a quality public servant like Parlavacchio.

• Bill Gruver, the popular former WPAT host, feature reporter for area newspapers and former executive with Ocrechio Publications and OBC-TV writes some of the most interesting letters I've ever had the pleasure of reading. For some time, Bill has been employed with a news service in Phoenix, Arizona. But from the messages he sends me, one would think he never left the Essex/Passaic County areas. Bill is bright and knowledgeable beyond description. His employment with our organization is open-ended — his talents are worthy of hire at any time.

• Martin R. Shugrue, trustee, has been with Eastern Airlines for three months. Under Shugrue's direction, the mammoth job of turning around the Eastern Airlines organization is a success.

The recent indictment of nine Eastern employees, on charges of falsifying repair records is a very serious matter — but the allegations concerned events that occurred two years ago at a maintenance facility that has been closed for a year. The investigation and its report produce have nothing to do with the operations or maintenance practices of today under Shugrue.

Prior to the strike, I was an Eastern Airlines loyalist, commuting weekends on average, 35 times a year between Newark and Ft. Lauderdale/West Palm Beach. Eastern Airlines became family to me. I broke my heart when vast groups of Eastern employees went on strike.

Today, Eastern is back. It is up and flying — and I've purchased $2,000 worth of tickets because I have confidence in the Eastern Airlines of today — as I did in years past. A court-appointed trustee, Martin R. Shugrue should be congratulated for making a success out of a total failure.

• IF the quotes in the Sun issue of August 9th are correct — and as late as this date, August 23rd — they have never been refuted — Nutley is faced with a very serious problem. A Parks Department employee, Karl Anderson, has been engaged for more than a year in a workman's compensation dispute with the department. Anderson lives with a herniated disc pain that he claims resulted from a job related activity. Anderson says that soon after he filed a workman's compensation claim, there has been a continued effort to make life difficult and get him to leave the Township's employment. He states that Parks Superintendent Tom Pandolfi told him in late May of last year, "Karl, maybe you should look for another job." Anderson is a Montclair State College graduate with a B.S. in business and was looked upon as an excellent, dedicated public employee prior to his disability. A doctor retained by the insurance company, Arthur Canario, agreed the injury was a herniated disc and job related. Anderson feels he is being forced to do difficult jobs in a not too subtle effort to induce him to quit employment with the Town of Nutley. Among the jobs he has been assigned are: Move three to six 95-pound bags of cement. Spend half a day in a two to three day assignment working with a jackhammer. Garbage removal. Lift 55 gallon drums up the side of a garbage truck. Help another man lift 150-pound cement and wood benches to the back of a truck. Lift and move 250-pound air conditioners. Shovel snow by hand all day. Forced to work overtime when the tornado hit in November 1989. Had to lift logs on to the truck bed. Parks Department Director Frank Cocchiola comments, "I just tell our people if they have a complaint to file it. I don't get involved." Well — the Director should get involved — after all, it's one main reason that he took the job. Public employees are entitled to their self-esteem and dignity and shouldn't be shunted aside like a cast-off shoe.

• George Bush has our sympathy and support. Adolf Hitler was the most evil human being of the century. At least we thought so. The world is now aware of one S.O.B. who is more cynical and evil than Hitler — if that is at all possible. That person is the president of Iraq, Saddam Hussein. He gobbled up Kuwait because he had a million men under arms and struck the defenseless, adjoining country at two in the morning — a development that shocked the conscience of the world. Hussein was well on his way to gobbling up a second country, Saudi Arabia, and if that plan succeeded, this one infamous person would control almost 50 percent of the world's oil supplies. Hussein is not mad, or dumb — he is a conniving, heartless, Arab whose ultimate goal is to destroy the State of Israel. He is trying to arouse the loyalties of Arab countries by making Israel a target of his rhetoric.

H & R Block presents open house for income tax school

Curious about how income taxes are taught? H & R Block, the country's largest income tax preparation firm, will hold an open house on August 29 to demonstrate to students and the public how income taxes are taught.

The open house will begin at 7 p.m. at H & R Block, 513 Bloomfield Ave., Montclair, which is the location of Block's Income Tax School and one of more than 1,500 schools conducted throughout the country. The course begins on Sept. 10 and continues for 13 weeks.

Tax manuals and classroom materials will be on display at the open house. Instructors, who are veteran H & R Block tax preparers, will conduct a practice session and answer any questions pertaining to income tax preparation.

The school's curriculum of more than 40 tax topics includes such subjects as filing requirements, itemizing deductions, farm returns, retirement plans, rental property and business schedules.

"Anyone may enroll in the school," says Bert Tobia, District Manager for H & R Block. "No previous tax experience or accounting knowledge is required. In the past, our students have included housewives, college students, retired persons and, of course, individuals seeking a career in tax preparation. Graduates will be awarded certificates and 7.5 continuing education units."

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Rev. Gerald Fortunato

A Parent's Love 1 Corinthians 13

If I tell my children how they should perform, but do not lovingly guide them by my words and my example, I have become only blaring brass or a nagging noise to their ears... If I could foresee what they can become and even know the very plan of God for them and have absolute faith that it could happen, but fail to give them loving encouragement to meet each day's challenges and frustrations then my knowledge is useless... If I sacrifice every earthly possession for my children; yes, even lay down my life for them in some dramatic way, yet fail to show sacrificial love in ordinary circumstances, then love shall not be communicated... This parent's love of which I speak is slow to lose patience, even in the most trying circumstances. It never grows tired of explaining, instructing and answering. It looks for opportunities to express praise and support. It does not make its children dependent in a possessive sort of way, but strives to help them achieve the right kind of independence and the freedom to think for themselves.

A parent's love does not brag over things "I can do," making children feel inferior by comparison. It does not misuse its authority, but realizes that the privilege to rear children comes from the Lord. Love has good manners. It does not "use" children to live out its own dreams or to carry out its orders, but treats children with respect, for they are people too...

Love is not touchy; it is not easily provoked, and realizes that children are children. It does not keep a mental record of wrongs committed or say, "I told you so." Rather, love encourages children by praising their efforts...

Love does not blow up and say, "I've had enough." It believes the best, saying, "Try, I think you can." It loves no matter what happens — low grades, strike-outs, or forgotten lines in the school play. Love is sufficient for every situation. And, be sure of this — Love always brings positive results. Everyone responds to love.

Diane Van Jones, 44

Services for Diane Shirley Van Jones (nee Sloan) of Colonia, formerly of Belleville, were held Aug. 9 at Martin's Home for Service, Montclair.

member of the telephone pioneers of America.

She is survived by her husband Vance; two daughters, Yvonne Dickerson and Michelle Graham; three sisters, Janet Nav and Dorothy Hill of Belleville, and Barbara Brown; and five grandchildren.

Antonio Salvatore, 88

A Mass for Antonio Salvatore, 88, of Wayne was offered today in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Wayne, after the funeral from Moore's Home for Funerals, Wayne.

Mr. Salvatore, who died Aug. 19 in the Barnert Memorial Hospital, Pateron, had been a foreman with Textron Industries in Belleville, where he worked for 40 years. Mr. Salvatore retired in 1963.

He was past president of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's Pro-Cathedral Church in Newark. Born in Teora, Italy, Mr. Salvatore lived in Newark and Belleville before moving to Wayne in 1975.

Surviving are four sons, Daniel, Nicholas, Gerard and Anthony; 15 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Sandra Ann Gorry, Paul B. Denning wed

St. Joseph's Church, Belmont, Mass., was the setting July 7 for the marriage of Sandra Ann Gorry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gorry of Hickory, N.C., to Paul Brian Denning, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Denning of Belleville.

Rev. Robert Sullivan performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Sheraton Commander Hotel, Cambridge, Mass.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white silk shantung gown fashioned with a beaded bodice and cathedral train with pearl trim. A Juliette cap and cathedral length veil were decorated with Alencon lace and she carried a cascade of champagne roses and stephanotis.

Patricia Weaver of Birmingham, Ala., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Susan Perry of Warren, Mich., sister of the bride, Teresa Denning of Commerce City, Colo., sister of the groom and Laura Haymes of Chapel Hill, N.C.

They were attired in pink floral printed cotton tea length gowns. Nosegays and hair combs were of coordinated pink summer flowers.

William Denning of Belleville served as his brother's best man. Ushering were Frank Hildenbrand of Belleville and Michael Goor of Scotch Plains.

Mrs. Denning, an alumna of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, is a physical therapist at Children's Hospital, Boston, Mass.

Mr. Denning, a graduate of Belleville High School and Merrimack College, North Andover, Mass., is a member of the technical staff at the Mitre Corp., Bedford, Mass.

The couple honeymooned in Bermuda and have made their home in Belmont, Mass.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Prentiss Ward

Dr. and Mrs. Ward celebrate 50th year

By Patricia Ward Snyder

Dr. C. Prentiss Ward and Harriett F. (Chamberlain) Ward of Belleville will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sept. 7.

In addition to raising three children of their own and now boasting six grandchildren, the Wards have given the gift of life to many more through their half century of work as a doctor and nurse in the Newark/East Orange/Belleville area.

The two Newark natives first met in 1938 at Newark City Hospital where Prentiss was a young intern, just out of Cornell University Medical School and Harriett was a student nurse. They were married two years later — two days after Harriett graduated from the registered nurse program. The wedding was held in the college chapel of Prentiss's alma mater, Princeton University, with original wedding music composed by their friend, Jim Fithian, a mathematics professor at Newark College of Engineering and a colleague at the Newark YMCA summer camp. (Kamp Kiamesha) in Branchville, where the Wards spent about a dozen summers as camp doctor and camp nurse.

In the course of his career, Dr. Ward has been the chief pediatrician in charge of newborn service at Presbyterian Hospital in Newark, the director of premature infant care at Presbyterian Hospital and the associate medical director of Babies' Hospital in Newark.

Mrs. Ward cites her tour as assistant director of Ch-III Home-maker and Home Health Aides in East Orange during the 1960s as one of the most rewarding activities in her nursing career. She says, however, that she considers her highest achievement to have been the raising of their three children — Patricia Snyder, a newspaper journalist from Orrington, Maine; Robert Ward of Spring Valley, N.Y., a math teacher at DeWitt Clinton High School in New York City and Christine Ward, a clarinetist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

After moving to Belleville 24 years ago, Dr. Ward served as the school physician for the Belleville Public Schools (1977-86); as the school doctor for Carteret School in Bloomfield (1975-84), and as the pediatrician for the Youth Consultation Service of New Jersey when this residence for neglected and abused children was located in Newark (1956-71). He also established the Newark Model Child Health Conference in 1967 and extended this program of free public health care for children into Nutley (1972-81), Bloomfield (1972-80) and Caldwell (1972-86).

Meanwhile, Mrs. Ward's nursing activities during their Belleville years ranged from private duty in local hospitals or in patients' homes, to part-time stints as an Essex County visiting nurse, a charge nurse at the Essex County Geriatric Center and a Senior Citizen's Nurse for the Belleville Board of Health.

Although they are now retired from their professional careers, Harriett and Prentiss remain active on a volunteer basis. Dr. Ward, who will turn 80 on Sept. 11, plays the piano as the youth choir accompanist and also serves as a substitute organist at Newark's Old First Church. Up until 1988, he also served as an elder in the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Ward continues to use her nursing experience as a volunteer in the admissions department at Clara Maass Medical Center. She has also served in recent years as an Essex County Hospice Volunteer at the Montclair facility.

The Wards have been active members of the Nutley Historical Society for 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Denning — nee Sandra Ann Gorry

MEDICALLY SPEAKING

SINUS DISEASE

Q: What is sinus disease?
A: Sinus disease is an inflammation of the air-containing cavities of the nose, face, and forehead.

Q: What are the symptoms of Sinus Disease?
A: Chronic sinusitis can include nasal congestion, pain or pressure of the eyes and forehead, nasal obstruction or nasal drip, or simply the sensation of a cold that doesn't go away.

Q: How is sinus disease treated?
A: Most sinus disease resolves with medical treatment, which includes antibiotic and allergy therapy.

Q: What about sinus disease that does not respond to treatment?
A: In more severe cases with Chronic Blockage or polyps, surgery may be indicated.

Q: Are there recent advances in the diagnosis of sinus disease?
A: Yes. With fiberoptic examination of the nose and sinuses in the office and advanced CT scan imaging, doctors are able to accurately diagnose sinus disease.

Q: Are there any recent advances in sinus surgery?
A: Yes. Recently introduced endoscopic sinus surgery is a major breakthrough in the treatment of sinus disease. This surgery makes use of micro-telescopic techniques with no external incisions. These new techniques allow the surgeon to perform safe and more effective surgery. Most often the surgery can be performed with anesthesia on an outpatient basis. Recovery time is usually rapid, with patients returning to their normal activities within days.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

In case you haven't noticed, the football season has arrived. On the professional ranks, the exhibition games have already begun, with the regular season set to begin on September 9. The college game will kick off later in August, with the Kickoff Classic set for Giants Stadium. The participants in that game are USC and Syracuse.

The high school game is also moving along quite nicely. At Belleville, the opening regular season game is set for Friday evening, September 21, when the Bucs play host to Hackensack in a 7:30 p.m. game.

Head coach John Senesky, beginning his 14th year at the helm, has been working with his team in conditioning drills. Later this week, the annual decathlon will take place, testing the players' overall conditioning with a series of running and strength events.

"We've got a small team in terms of numbers," Senesky said. "We only have twelve seniors and the junior class has about 14 players. The biggest group of kids is in the sophomore level, where about 25 players have been working out."

Of course, those numbers aren't final, because the drills in the summer are optional. Some prospective players could be on vacation or might have summer jobs that keep them away from the team during the summer.

"Right now, it's skills and drills," Senesky said of the summer workouts. "We're happy with the kids' performances in the various drills. Right now, we're looking to establish endurance, quickness and agility."

The decathlon is a very important step toward getting the team ready for the fall campaign. If the players grade well in the event, it's easier for the coaching staff to begin teaching plays, rather than getting the kids into shape to play football. The decathlon will take place tomorrow morning.

In addition to the decathlon, the power index will also be tested this week. In the power index, the players will be graded on strength, based on weight lifting compared to body weight.

After the various tests for conditioning, the players will be issued equipment and the two day drills will commence this Saturday.

"We have some good athletes on the team," Senesky said. "The kids have been pretty enthusiastic about the workouts."

Last season, Senesky played a number of young players. Those athletes will be returning to the roster with a year of varsity experience and, hopefully, in excellent condition.

The schedule will not allow for any breaks. The Bucs will be facing powerful teams in Bloomfield, St. Joe's of Montvale, Morris Knolls and Nutley, in addition to the local competition offered by the Pacific Division of the NNJHL.

Senesky's coaching staff will be made up of Joe D'Ambola, Gennaro Russo, Russell Cirillo, Mark Zarro, Larry Zacche and Jack McGregor.

Zarro is new to the coaching staff this fall and Senesky is happy to have him on the team.

"Mark will be working with the linemen," Senesky said. "He worked at Columbia and Glen Ridge before coming to Belleville. He should be an excellent coach for us."

As for Zacche and McGregor, they will once again use their knowledge on the freshman level.

"Larry and Jack do an excellent job with the younger kids," Senesky said. "On the freshman level, the teaching process is very important and they do a real good job in getting through to the kids."

It's less than a month now until the first game of the season. There should be plenty of activity on the high school level now, as all the fall teams begin preparation. As usual, the Times will provide weekly coverage of the varsity football, cross country, soccer, tennis, gymnastics and volleyball teams.

SPORTS NEWS

Did you see the San Francisco 49ers play last Monday? It's going to be very difficult to beat that team this season. However, there are a few teams in the NFC who have a legitimate shot. We'll have our annual predictions on the NFL coming up in two weeks, with Super Bowl picks. Also, once the season starts, we'll do weekly predictions of the upcoming games.

The joke of the week goes to Dave Salata, who thinks he can beat me in basketball. I'll give him five points in a game of 11, let him have the ball out first and I'll still win.

Only 277 more days to the John and Janet Engel picnic. The anticipation is already building.

Could the Mets be getting ready to blow another pennant race? Sure looks like it might happen.

On a much more serious note, you'll see in this week's Times' sports section a story about a five mile race coming up in October. The race will be dedicated to the memory of Sam Giuffrida. Hopefully, everyone in our township can help out somehow with the race.

I don't know about you, but I'm really looking forward to the football season this fall. That's probably because baseball season has been a disappointment, witness the Cardinals last place performance.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The 1984 San Francisco 49ers lost only one regular season game. Their only loss came at the hands of the Pittsburgh Steelers, who won by a field goal in San Francisco. It's amazing how close that Niner team came to perfection. Anyhow, the Niners beat the Giants and Chicago Bears in the playoffs by scores of 21-10 and 23-0 respectively. In the Super Bowl, the Niners romped past the Miami Dolphins 38-16. The game was played in Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto, California.

FOR THIS WEEK

It's been a while since the Kansas City Chiefs have found playoff success. When was the last time the Chiefs made the playoffs? When was the last time the Chiefs won a playoff game? Who was the Chiefs' opponent in that playoff victory. Where was the game played?

Drop heartbreaker to Irvington, 2-1

L.L. Allstars fall in finals

Tension filled the air last week for the Belleville Little League All Stars. The team played three very exciting ball games, all of which went down to the wire. When it was all said and done, Belleville had advanced to the finals of the Cereone Tourney before falling to Irvington, 2-1.

The game started with a 3-2 setback to Irvington in what was the quarterfinal round game.

Belleville scored solo runs in the third and fifth innings. In the third, Anthony Raimo led off with a base hit. Ram Parekh then singled, moving Raimo to third base. Parekh showed some good base running skills, taking an extra base and moving into scoring position when the throw came into third base.

With runners on second and third, a daring double steal was called. Raimo was out attempting to steal home, but Parekh was safe in his attempt at third. Michael Schmitt, one of the teams best contact hitters, did his job, grounding into to the right side and scoring Parekh.

In the fifth inning, Brian Dena continued his outstanding play with a solo homer that cleared the left field fence. Dena's blast closed the scoring for Belleville.

Jason Dunn hurled a complete game for Belleville, allowing just five hits. He struck out four and walked one.

The loss set up a must win situation with Kearny in the semi finals.

The game with Kearny, played the following evening after the Irvington contest, was another nail biter. Belleville received a solid pitching performance from Dena, who was nearly unhitatable during the tourney.

Dena pitched a no hitter and had it not been for a first inning walk, he would have had a perfect game.

He struck out 15 of the 19 hitters that faced him. For the tournament, Dena struck out an amazing 44 hitters in three games.

Kearny's pitcher, Rich Cyrigalis, also pitched very well. He gave up two runs, walked two and struck out ten. He allowed just one hit, but it proved to be costly.

In the first inning, Schmitt hit a hard line drive into the gap. The right fielder reached the ball but couldn't handle it. The play was ruled a double and error, with Schmitt ending up at third base.

The next two Belleville hitters struck out and Schmitt appeared to be stranded at third. But Schmitt made the most of his opportunity and with two outs, he stole home for the first Belleville run.

The only other run came in the fifth inning. Raimo and Parekh walked. Two wild pitches enabled Raimo to score the second run.

The 2-0 victory moved Belleville into the championship game, where it once again faced Irvington.

After a day off, Belleville and Irvington squared off last Thursday evening for the title. Irvington pitcher Terence Robinson pitched an excellent game, holding Belleville to just four hits and one run in five innings of work.

Belleville's only score came in the fifth inning. Raimo doubled and stole third base. John Bravette then singled to score Raimo.

Schmitt hit a double that moved Bravette to third base. Dena walked to load the bases but Belleville couldn't score the second run.

Raimo started for Belleville, hurling the first three innings. He allowed one run and just one hit. Raimo struck out three and walked one.

Schmitt finished the game, allowing one run on two hits in three innings. Schmitt walked three and struck out one.

Some fine defensive plays were turned in by Belleville. Parekh snared a line drive in right field in the fourth inning with runners in scoring position. After Parekh's fine catch, Danny Montano made a good catch in left field and threw to Bravette at second base to complete a difficult double play.

Despite the setback, Belleville played an outstanding tournament. Congratulations to the coaching staff and all the players for an excellent showing in a tough tourney.

Race named for legendary coach

Giuffrida Five Mile Run set for Oct. 21

When he was a teacher and coach at Belleville High School, Sam Giuffrida emphasized charisma and energy. When he suddenly and tragically passed away on May 21, 1989, an entire township grieved the loss of the man it simply called "G".

There are many who say that "G's" presence in Belleville is still very strong. His personality and ability to communicate with the youth of our township was legendary. His work as the crew coach at Belleville from 1965-86 still draws raves from those athletes who performed for him.

The people of the Township of Belleville have not forgotten Giuffrida's contributions. The township plans to honor the coach on October 21 with the first annual Sam Giuffrida Five Mile Race through Belleville.

The race is dedicated to Giuffrida's memory. The proceeds of the race will benefit the students at Belleville High School through the Sam Giuffrida Scholarship Fund.

The race, like the man it is named after, is being run in first class fashion. The course will receive TAC approval. There will be water stops at the beginning of the race, at the two mile point and at the conclusion.

The timing will be computerized and all the athletes will receive his, or her time at the end of the race.

Tee Shirts will be given to all those who register for the race before October 10. The registration fee, before the 10th of October, is $8.00. After the tenth, the fee will be $10.00 and tee shirts will be distributed on a first come, first serve basis.

The race will commence promptly 10 a.m. Preceding the race will be a one mile health walk or sprint, which should begin at about 9:30 a.m.

The race will start, and end, at the courtyard at Belleville High School, a symbolic location indeed. Part of the courtyard is dedicated to the memory of Giuffrida.

Although the final course has not been determined, the race should go up Greylock Parkway, down to Washington Avenue, off to Mill Street and then to Franklin Avenue before coming back to the Courtyard at the High School, where the finish line awaits. Please remember that the exact course has not been finalized. It should be within two weeks.

Prizes will be awarded to the top three overall finishers for both men and women. Prizes will also be awarded to the top three men and women finishers in the final age brackets: 10 years and under, 11-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60-69 and 70 and over.

Jiffy Lube in Belleville will be providing the Tee Shirts for the race.

The race committee is seeking contributions, gifts and volunteers in order to make the day a success. In next weeks edition, we'll let you know who you can contact if you're interested in helping out.

What if...

By Julie Frees Briggs

What if...

You receive a notice informing you that you are the selected winner of a valuable prize. In order to receive the prize you must send cash. How legitimate are these claims?

Most of these notices are phony. Unfortunately, consumers pay untold dollars each year to these professional con artists to find out whether they have won. As soon as the swindler receives enough money he moves on to the next state to begin again. According to the Better Business Bureau these people are rarely caught. When ever you are asked to send money, the rule of thumb is to be WARY.

What if...

You are having trouble stretching your paycheck...you are spending more and saving less. How can one cut corners and reverse this trend?

Try not to buy on impulse and take care of your possessions so they do not have to be replaced. Buy gifts at end of season sales and utilize supermarket coupons. Over a period of time, the savings will be substantial. When purchasing autos, furniture or clothing, be sure and comparison shop. A good way to save on long distance phone calls is to fax. The initial cost of the fax is expensive, but over a period of two years it will certainly pay for itself. With careful planning, even in these expensive times, it is still possible to live better on less.

Did You Know???

The Government National Mortgage Association — Ginny Mae — has increased the limits on Veterans Administration mortgages it will buy, up from $144,000 to $184,000.

Before stripping furniture, remove all hardware, especially anything made of plastic. Stripper works best if applied to a horizontal surface; remove drawers and stand them so that fronts stand flat. You can save some mess by standing table legs in disposable pie pans.

Easy decor: paint walls a flattering shade of white, soften harsh lines with growing plants, and add color with flowers.

Home jobs for August: finish the big summer projects, resurface the driveway, and have the heating system checked before the rush.

Something special: new home of a California computer millionaire features a man-made limestone cave that's scientifically correct, down to the dinosaur footprints, fossils and crystal formations. His kids love to explore the nooks and crannies — and so does Dad.

Unusual homes sometimes need unusual buyers. That's why smart sellers let us find them. List with the pros at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley, 235-9000.
