School board invites Florio to explain new funding policy

By Anthony Buccino

The Belleville School Board sent letters Aug. 23 inviting Gov. James Florio, State Senator Carmen Orechio, Assembly members Marlon Crecco and John Kelly to attend the board's Sept. 10 meeting to discuss the "Quality Education Act" and its resulting school funding.

The board's letter said the new state funding plan "is causing much consternation and misunderstanding" and the representatives visit at the school board's public executive session would be in everyone's "best interest."

School Superintendent Michael D. Nardiello said at Monday night's meeting that he had "heard from none of the parties."

In other business, Nardiello presented a prescription plan proposal from Board Secretary/Business Administrator Edward J. Appleton who was on vacation. The proposed prescription plan, Nardiello said, offers coverage comparable to the present plan at a $4,300 savings. The proposed plan is offered by Capital Marketing of Clifton and would be effective in the 1991-92 school year.

Essex County Superintendent of Schools Peter Carter will be the keynote speaker at the opening day ceremonies being held at the high school Sept. 4. Carter had moderated the school budget cuts between the board and the town commissioners when both groups agreed to cut $210,000 from the current expense tax levy of $19,321,532.

The commissioners at their next meeting voted to increase the cuts to $1,043,527. The school board appealed the cuts. When the council took office July 1, the school board negotiated the restoration of $633,527 to the school budget. The council formalized the restoration at their Aug. 14 meeting.

The school board Monday night authorized Appleton to submit the 1990-91 school district budget to the Essex County Superintendent of Schools. The newly submitted budget includes the council's changes and restorations and the current expense tax levy at $18,911,532.

Joseph Celio, president of the Concerned Citizens of Belleville, asked how the school budget would increase tax points.

"We are involved in negotiations," Nardiello said. Board Attorney Frank Pomaco echoed Nardiello's answer.

Nardiello said the restored money reflected about 15 tax points, "although we are still in negotiation." He added that depending on contract settlements, which could be from 0% to 9%, the moneys budgeted for salaries could change.

Although the council restored $633,527, the budget changes reflect $670,811 in salaries for administration, principals, supervisors, teachers, office personnel, and nurses.

Nutley man charged

Threat delays court

By Anthony Buccino

Belleville police arrested Gerald Marc Tasco, 39, of Nutley last Thursday and charged him with false public alarm and contempt of court following a bomb threat Tasco allegedly made to Town Hall Wednesday night at 7:19 p.m. Tasco was arrested at 4:15 p.m. Thursday in Newark where he works as a mechanic.

The suspect was held on $26,500 cash-only bail. He was scheduled to appear in Belleville Municipal Court yesterday, Aug. 29, before Judge Frank J. Zinna.

Tasco was charged May 2 with lewdness following a complaint from two females who gave police a description of the male and his license plate numbers. He was released on $1,000 bail.

On June 6, Tasco entered a not guilty plea. The suspect was scheduled to appear in Belleville Municipal Court Aug. 15, but when he didn't show up, a letter was sent telling him that he must appear Aug. 22 or his bail would be forfeited and a new warrant would be issued. Following the confusion with the evacuation, Tasco did not appear in court.

"I planned two bombs in that building, they better clear out now," the voice said on the police tape Wednesday night. The caller could not immediately be identified because Belleville Police do not have Caller ID, a system which displays the originating number of a call.

Belleville Detective Division Captain Michael A. Pettillo ordered the Town Hall cleared and about 100 people waiting for Judge Zinna's night court were evacuated to the street.

Pettillo then notified the Essex County Sheriff's Dept. Bomb Squad and was told that specially trained k-9's would be en route.

Detective Don Hurley an investigator with the Sheriff's Dept. Bomb Squad arrived and began working with Pettillo and assorted Belleville detectives and uniformed officers.

Shortly afterward, K-9 handlers David Hughes and Bruno, a black Labrador Retriever arrived on the scene, as did bomb technician and K-9 handler Arnold C. Bernard with Coco and chocolate colored Labrador Retriever.

Pettillo and the K-9 handlers worked through the building. When Hughes sent Bruno up the Town Hall's attic stairs, he heard a loud crash as Bruno came crashing through the ceiling tile over a vacant office. Fortunately for Bruno the ceiling tile acted as a "flying carpet" and protected him from being hurt on a bookcase when he crashed through the ceiling.

The building was declared all clear at 8:20 p.m. and the night court would soon be under way.

Further Belleville police investigation led to Tasco's arrest. After his arrest Thursday, Tasco told police he had called from a public payphone a block away from Town Hall at the intersection of Rutgers St. and Washington Ave.

In the foyer outside the vacant office where Bruno the bomb-detecting dog fell through the ceiling, prior to getting on with disposition of legal matters, Judge Zinna performed a marriage between Colcen and Eric Guerra who had been scheduled to be married shortly after 7 p.m. What's a few hours delay when you're about to start a new life together.

HAVE NOSES, WILL TRAVEL - Bruno and Coco, badged members of the Essex County Sheriff's Dept. Bomb Squad, braved the dark recesses of Town Hall to search for hidden explosives. Bruno, a black Labrador Retriever handled by Off. David Hughes found a weak spot in the attic floor and fell through. He was uninjured. Coco, a chocolate Labrador Retriever and his handler bomb technician Arnold Bernard teamed up for the search.

Area banks judged treading water okay

By Joyce M. Steel

A recent survey of the town's financial institutions indicates that most are treading water, despite the destructive underwaters created by the Savings & Loan Crisis.

Of the six banks surveyed, three have suffered a loss in comparison to comparable 1989 figures; First State Financial Services, parent company of DeWitt Savings Bank at 403 Washington Ave., Howard Savings Bank, 726 Washington Ave., and National Westminster Bank, Washington Avenue.

Howard Savings, which had only first quarter figures (to March 31) available, showed a $100 million loss in shareholder's equity, the amount left over when a bank's liabilities are subtracted from its assets. First State Financial lost more than $5.5 million of shareholder's equity in the first half of the year.

Both First State Financial and Howard registered negative net income figures of $2.8 million and $17.5 million, respectively, in their submitted financial statements.

NetWest's net income figures show a loss of $90 million for the first six months of the year, and a loss of $106 million for the second quarter ended June 30. However, total equity capital rose from $1.5 million in June, 1989, to $1.62 million in June, 1990.

The Trust Company recorded a jump in net income, from a June, 1989 figure of $10.9 million to a June, 1990 figure of $11.6 million. Also, the total stockholder's equity rose about $15 million for that period.

The Provident Savings Bank submitted surplus and reserve figures, which jumped from $95 million to $97 million in the year ending June 30, 1990. Peoples Bancorp., the parent company of Peoples Bank, gained more than $4 million in net

Shade tree defers Wallace St. decision

Belleville's newly-appointed Shade Tree Commission was off to a rough start at their reorganization meeting last Wednesday night. When the group arrived at the Public Affairs building at 383 Washington Ave., to hold their meeting, they discovered that the door was locked. At the suggestion of Mayor Marina Perna, the group adjourned to Town Hall to meet in a conference room. Upon arrival at the Town Hall, the group learned that the building had been cleared because of a bomb threat called into the police department.

When the police station had been determined to be clear of any suspect packages, the mayor joined the group in the police officers report room and swore them in en masse. The group, tired of waiting to use the Town Hall facilities, adjourned to more comfortable quarters and elected Don Tucci chairman and Jerry S. Filangieri vice chairman.

Tucci had served on the previous Shade Tree Commission which had been appointed by court order by then-Mayor Michael Pizzi to resolve the conflict of tree cuttings on Wallace St. Tucci said he offers "common sense and energy to the Commission."

Thirty years ago this town was gorgeous. If I can do something to help, that's why I'm here. We've got to get things done, let's make a sensible decision, let's do what's necessary. I've already spoken to the mayor about getting trees trimmed. I'm scared, I see more dead trees than live ones. One of the first issues we should address is the D.P.W.'s current priority list.

"We do have our work cut out for us," Tucci said. "It's a biggie. We've got to get out and see what we can do."

Other Shade Tree Commissioners outlined their backgrounds.

Filangieri, a lifelong Belleville resident has been a biology teacher for 16 years. He grew up in Silver Lake and now lives on Wallace St.

Lyle Davis, who served with Tucci on the previous Shade Tree Commission, holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Natural Resource Management and works for the Department of Environmental Protection as a specialist in air pollution.

Joseph Porcello, a township resident since 1970, holds a degree in ornamental horticulture and works for the Essex County Parks System. He specializes in horticulture and landscape on county golf courses where the exposure is "most intense."

Belleville POLICE BEAT

A woman told police she was walking in the Pathmark parking lot on Belmont Ave. at about 10 p.m. Aug. 1 when a silver station wagon with two black male occupants drove by and grabbed her purse. The vehicle then fled south out of the lot. The males were described as about 20-years old. Taken was a small purse, about $30 in cash, a check book, a savings book and assorted jewelry.

Police charged Edwin Bernard Irvin, 22, of Newark with attempted burglary into a motor vehicle at 11:49 p.m. Aug. 26 at the Belmont Ave. Pathmark. Police observed Irvin trying to get into the vehicle. When the suspect observed police, he walked away from the car. Police later retrieved a wooden handled hammer believed to have been used in the attempt. Bail was pending, a court date has been set for Oct. 31.

A Lloyd Pl. resident reported his house had been ransacked between 7:15 and 10 p.m., and an undetermined amount of property missing Aug. 20. Police observed fresh pry marks on a rear door where entry had been gained into a sun-room. The suspect tried to break a window to enter the residence and when that failed kicked in the door and ransacked the home.

A woman reported that her purse was snatched from her shoulder in the K-Mart parking lot on Main St. Aug. 16 at around 4 p.m. She described the suspect as a 17-24-year old black male, medium weight, between 5'8"-5'10", wearing a red sweatshirt and blue jeans. The suspect was last seen fleeing east on foot through the Grand Union parking lot. The purse was reported to contain about $480 in jewelry and assorted papers. The case is being investigated by the Belleville detective bureau.

An armed robbery was reported at the Hess gas station on Franklin St. at 9:40 p.m. The victim reported that a black male, about 18-years old, 5'8" with a medium build brandishing a silver handled pistol approached him and said "give me all the money you have or I'll shoot you." The attendant complied. The suspect then fled east on Franklin St. The case is being investigated by the detective bureau.

Belleville police arrested Jesse James Wilson, 27, of Newark and charged him with possession of a stolen motor vehicle at 5:40 p.m. Aug. 22. Police observed Wilson driving a 1983 Plymouth Sapporo on Washington Ave. and William St. where he made a U-turn. The officers ran a license plate check which revealed the car to be stolen. The vehicle was pulled over and Wilson and 3 juveniles, two aged 17 and one 16-year old, were taken into custody. Wilson was being held on $25,000 bail and is scheduled to appear in Municipal Court Oct. 10.

Joshua Bunn Walker, 69, of Newark was charged with being a revoked driver in an unregistered, unlicensed vehicle with fictitious plates at 5 p.m. Aug. 25. He was released on $250 bail.

Richard Lowe, 20, of Passaic was charged with eluding police at 3:03 a.m. Aug. 27. Police observed Lowe traveling at a high rate of speed on Route 21 south. When police signalled for him to stop, he continued at speeds in excess of 100 m.p.h. into the city of Newark and finally stopped at Broadway. In addition to eluding police, he was also charged with speeding and careless driving. He was released on his own recognizance and is scheduled to appear in Municipal Court Sept. 26.

Three Newark men and one juvenile were charged with possession of a weapon at 4:30 a.m. Aug. 22 at the Krauser's Food Store on Franklin St. Police observed a vehicle with no license plates in the store parking lot. The driver, David Hemingway, 27, said he had just bought the car that day, and only used it to go shopping. Police observed the blade of a 10" hunting knife protruding from the seat. They then had all occupants exit the vehicle. Hemingway then opened the trunk to show the officers his groceries. Police then discovered two other knives in the trunk. Also arrested was James Robert Peay, 20, Lorenzo Calhoun, 20 and a 16-year old juvenile. Calhoun was also charged with possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of a controlled dangerous substance believed to be cocaine when a spoon in his pocket appeared to have cocaine residue on it. Bail was set for the adults at $5,000 bond or

An Orechio Publication $500 cash, and a hearing is scheduled for October 31 in Municipal Court.

Police charged Eric Walker, 19, of Newark and Jerome Hines, 19, of Irvington with attempted auto theft on Carner Ave. at 12:25 a.m. Aug. 20. The suspects were attempting to steal a 1988 Oldsmobile when police interrupted them. The two men and two juveniles were apprehended following a short foot chase.

Mayor swears in 3 new cops

Belleville Mayor Marina Perna swore in three new township police officers, Joseph Petrone, Gerard Campanella and Lawrence Arancio, at the council's August 14 meeting. The officers were scheduled for four days orientation with the force before entering the Essex County Police Academy in Cedar Grove.

Joseph Anthony Petrone is a graduate of Essex Catholic High School and attended Essex County College for two years and was later certified in paralegal studies.

Gerard J. Campanella is a graduate of E. Stroudsburg University with a B.A. in chemistry. He worked at the Pocono Medical Center as a medical technician and is a graduate of Bloomfield High School.

The adults were held on $25,000 bond or $2,500 cash bail and were scheduled to appear in Municipal Court Sept. 26. The juveniles, ages 15 and 16 were released to their parents.

Note: Police Beat is a representative sample of police calls in Belleville. The department responds to hundreds of calls each week and it is impractical to list every call.

The original tax bill approved by the then-reigning Commissioners shaved the tax appropriations to the bone. They also cut the school budget in an effort to hold the tax line but the school board appealed and the council restored a portion. With the change of government from Council-Manager and the election of new Council governing officials there appears to be a question raised by the newly elected officials if they can adjust to the limited resources allocated to run the community. They consider the funding inadequate and allude to the possibility of voting additional funds to sustain required necessary expenses.

This might cause considerable controversy and confusion should their demand prevail, and if approved, result in an increased tax rate over what had been first projected. Seemingly, what first prompted the movement for a change in Belleville's government stemmed from the taxpayer's anger over higher taxes on property, especially senior citizen property owners forced to live on meager Social Security pensions and low incomes.

Politically ambitious office seekers sensing an opportunity to exploit the resentment of resentful taxpayers seized the opportunity to exploit this anger by condemning the incumbent office holders who were too stupid to recognize that their fighting with themselves were only playing into the hands of these self-seeking aspirants to local political power.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

August 1st, the customary 1990-1991 tax year payment due date, has passed as it did last year without the bills being sent out, as of the date of this writing. However, taxpayers will soon be getting them and probably won't be happy with what they will have to pay.

The apathy of Belleville voters, over 16,000 strong, played into the hands of a small group of indifferent voters who wouldn't even take the time to vote. The infighting among the incumbents militated against their retaining their offices along with attrition of competent men like Joe McGreevey who served Belleville well through his many years on the governing body.

Already local political pundits are observing cloudy skies on the firmament of Belleville. Subtle questions and innuendoes of political ties of incumbents with outside Belleville luminaries in County politics rear their ugly heads, to the concern of local politicians who regard their local turf sacrosanct and guard against invasion.

Encroachment by outside political powers will hardly be countenanced by those who have long wielded sacrosanct political influence over political destinies in this suburban community.

We, the people of Belleville, have good representative government on all levels of government. In Congress Senator Lautenberg and Congressman Roe. In the State Legislature Senator Carmen Orechio and Assemblyman John Kelly add Assemblywoman Marion Greco. In County government we have County Executive Nick Amato and probably next year Tom D'Alessio, the present Sheriff.

We strongly adhere to the principle of "home rule" and frown upon State aid, to a lesser degree of County dominance. We collectively cleave to the view that, as Thomas Jefferson once said, "People are best governed, by being least governed."

Let us trust that we can with comity and dignity adjust to changing times and modes to bring our community into the norm of modernity, progress and growth, that will eradicate many of the stigmas of its troubled past.

Local party for Jerry's kids

"My Place," a Belleville Avenue bar, will hold a Labor Day Party to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The party will coincide with The Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon televised on WWOR channel 9.

The Muscular Dystrophy Association is a voluntary national health agency providing patient care and services at some 240 clinics nationwide. MDA's services include summer camp, therapy and orthopedic aides such as wheelchairs and braces which are entirely funded by individual contributors.

"My Place" patrons have been strong supporters of MDA for years. In March of this year they raised over $2,000 in Anheuser-Busch Shamrocks for MDA. Even with such success only a few months ago, "My Place" is determined to raise more with a Labor Day Party.

"My Place" manager Marty Rueter said, "We are trading those green shamrocks for multi-colored balloons and putting our best foot forward on Labor Day."

Marty and his brother Hal have been the driving force behind "My Place" MDA fund-raising efforts for over three years, but they understand that without their loyal patrons, it would be impossible. "There is something special about raising money for Jerry's Kids that pumps up everyone," said Hal.

The party begins Sunday and continues throughout The Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon.

Events such as these give the caring people of Northern New Jersey a chance to show their support for their less fortunate neighbors afflicted with muscle disease. These efforts mean much to many, but best translate into the new found hope for "Jerry's Kids."

"wanted to get involved" because "a lot of the trees in Belleville upset me." She added, "I can't see cutting a healthy tree down."

Ralph Mazzuca, who is also serving a 1-year term on the Board of Education, said, "I am very pleased to see the genuine concern here. As I look around, there is so much to do, we have the right people. The main thing I stress is a lack of communication. We have to let the people know what we're doing. We're here to save money and to use money in the right direction. We are obligated to do what is right whether it is popular or not. We have to do what is right, let's go out and do the job."

Harriet M. Canella was not at the commission meeting.

The commission set its next meeting for Sept. 5 at 7:30 p.m. in School 7 auditorium. They are expected to decide the fate of one tree on Wallace St. which does not fall into line with the curb. If the roots are cut to accommodate the curb, the tree may fall during high winds or a big storm. All other sidewalk and curb work has been completed on Wallace St. When the tree's fate is decided and the curb completed, the contractor complete the paving.

According to grants consultant Frank Brooks of Bruno Associates, the firm that coordinated the grant money for the Overlook and Wallace sts. project, funding for tree plantings on both streets were included in the grant money. Brooks said that a $40,000 grant to plant trees on Washington Ave. is a two-year project. The latter funds include protective grates for the trees. Brooks said that tree planting funding for other areas of town usually appears as a line item in the Dept. of Public Works budget.

The Shade Tree Commission will also decide what kind of trees will be planted on Wallace and Overlook sts., a decision the previous commission deferred to the new body.

Traffic warning for Labor Day weekend

Many families will try to squeeze in that last vacation of the summer this Labor Day weekend. That is why the New Jersey State Safety Council is encouraging motorists to use extra caution as they travel on our roads and highways.

According to National Safety Council estimates, between 400 and 500 persons will die in traffic accidents between 6:00 p.m. Friday, Aug. 31, and midnight, Monday, Sept. 3. An additional 16,000 to 20,000 may suffer disabling injuries, the Council estimates.

Last year during the Labor Day weekend, 450 persons died and 18,000 suffered disabling injuries.

The New Jersey State Safety Council says, studies show a deadly variety of reasons for crashes from the unthinking driver error to fatigue and abuse of alcohol.

To avoid becoming a highway statistic, the Council urges drivers to "buckle-up" their safety belts and request passengers to do the same.

Don't be stubborn if you've had a few drinks, use the "Designated Driver" plan where one person in a group refrains from drinking and assumes responsibility for driving the others home safely.

And if you're running behind schedule, don't exceed the speed limit, it's better to arrive a few minutes late, than not arrive at all.

Feeling tired? Turn on the air conditioner or open the windows to get some fresh air, stop the car and stretch, drink a caffeinated soft drink. If these don't help, park the car and sleep. It's easy to nod off for just a second, says the Safety Council, and find yourself headed for a crash.

ADVERTISE!

WAITING FOR THE ALL-CLEAR - Shade Tree Commission members wait for the all-clear outside Town Hall following a phoned-in bomb threat.

Five Belleville men arrested in seven burglary incidents

Five local men were charged with at least seven burglaries committed in Belleville, two in Bloomfield and one in Glen Ridge in the last month. Belleville detectives Vincent Cappetta and Sgt. Leonard Burrell culminated a month-long investigation with the arrests of John Verden, 19, and Ronald Zaragoza, 24, both of Homblower Ave., on warrants for Bloomfield and Glen Ridge.

The burglars also involved the owner of a local taxi company and three of his employees who "were sucked into the burglaries by the ring's leaders," according to police familiar with the case. The key movers in the burglaries were identified as Verden and Zaragoza who have no other occupation.

Matthew Pedicini, 32 of Division Ave. was identified as the owner of Franklin Cab Co. at 124 Washington Ave. Kevin Maida, 27 of Jorammon St. and Ralph Chimento Sr., 57, of Liberty St. were identified as drivers for the company. Chimento was identified as a township employee.

Pedicini and Maida were not charged in the Belleville burglaries, Burrell said, however they were charged in the Bloomfield and Glen Ridge complaints.

Chimento was implicated in a recent burglary in Belleville on Prospect Pl. Aug. 20 where police charged Verden and Zaragoza broke into an occupied home and cut the telephone line at night. They left when the occupants interrupted them.

The association between the cab company employees and the alleged career burglars, began after the burglars gained familiarity with the workers and joined them in selling off stolen goods.

Eventually, the employees of the cab company began to work with Verden and Zaragoza in the burglaries by driving them to the locations, sources said. The drivers then picked up the burglars and the cache and returned to sell it off.

Police said the ring stole more than $5,000 cash, in addition to thousands of dollars worth of jewelry and television and video equipment. As of Tuesday, police had recovered two video recorders tied back to local burglaries.

All five ring members were released on their own recognizance after Belleville processed them to Bloomfield and Glen Ridge. All five are scheduled to appear in municipal court Sept. 3, while Verden and Zaragoza are scheduled to appear in Bloomfield and Glen Ridge.

grounds committee toured four schools and were "tremendously impressed" with the renovations at School 4 on Magnolia St. in the Silver Lake section of town. The renovation work at the 75-year old school, including lighting and dropped ceilings, was done by the board's maintenance workers during the past three years, said Trustee Joseph P. Del Guercio. The maintenance department is headed by Vince Fiscella.

Their efforts have made the old building look new, said board vice president Patty Pisano.

The committee was unimpressed with conditions at School 3. Del Guercio said he was "totally dismayed" at the school's condition. He said there was a strong stench in the lavatories and the building was in "terrible condition." Floors had been waxed around boxes of paper on the floor, and when the piles had been removed, the difference was obvious.

Pisano agreed with Del Guercio's assessment.

Nardiello said he had been in contact with School 3's newly appointed principal Rae Salina.

Elementary principals work on a ten-month schedule while the custodians work year-round. The custodians are responsible to the school's principal, Nardiello said.

The board, in an economy measure in 1987, had cut 5 maintenance workers and 8 custodians in the school district. Two custodians are assigned to School 3, but with shift differences, they do not necessarily work together.

OUR OPINION

Silver Lake

Recent events in Silver Lake — including an armed robbery, possession of weapons, a purse snatching, an attempted car theft thwarted — in the last week or so have drawn attention to it being the first frontier. It has been one of the hardest hit areas in town in terms of auto break-ins and auto thefts. One of the last things we want to talk about in the area are the 24-hour supermarket and convenience stores which serve as a magnets for all types of crime from drug possession and shoplifting to car thefts, purse snatchings and litlefting. The Lake is a classic section of town and deserves to be preserved.

Residents of the area have every right to demand more; more from the businesses to protect shoppers, more from the police to protect residents and their property and more from each other to stick together. It seems to us that life in the Lake has never been more saddening in terms of personal property and peril. Police patrols should be stepped up for as long as it takes to send home the message that the Lake is part of Belleville. Operating hours for 24-hour criminal magnets should be curtailed indefinitely. And of course, members of the Council should not sway from their scheduled meeting Sept. 10 with Lake residents and the largest magnet store in the Lake. The Council should walk the area and not accept any doublespeak from the store owners. It's the Lake, and it's Belleville. We're all in this together.

Belleville cleans up with debris removal

Belleville is getting cleaner. Some citizens will deny that — and point to their favorite pile of debris, but the fact is, we've noticed the township is getting neater, the streets are cleaner and the huge piles of debris are almost all gone from view.

The over-loaded D.P.W. yard situation is being addressed and we're sure the solutions will be forthcoming. That will be a great relief to the residents of the area around the north end of Cortlandt St. Of course, the area should never have been used in the first place, but now is not the time to place blame or point fingers, now is the time to correct past mistakes and avoid repeating them again.

The clean-up crews are getting a handle on the curbside pick-ups; every street in town has been cleaned up at least once. Township inspectors are out and about doing their jobs to see that years of neglect are addressed by the people presently responsible. It's not a very popular job, but it does have an edge of empathy.

Like so many other sore spots in town, many things being addressed today did not appear overnight and they will not disappear overnight. That's something we've all got to remember during our daily tirades.

The Health Dept. is taking steps to educate the residents through last week's notice of the most common Solid Waste Collection problems. People just don't know what to do with their refuse anymore, but now they will. So many citizens end up calling this newspaper to complain about their neighbor's trash, well, now we are working with the township to inform our readers how to prepare their trash. Education is the first step towards a solution.

We've long agreed that if the people in town could only get a straight answer about their trash questions, then they'd be pleased to cooperate. Not all residents are going to be pleased with the rules, which, by the way, are not new rules, but once they know what to do with their old tires, their white goods, furniture and bedding, they'll do it and get it over with. Fortunately, these are not items we discard every week, yet, no one wants to be shuffling them about unnecessarily.

There's nothing more frustrating than stacking fallen branches or old tires or an old washing machine in the street and waiting for "someone" to come take them away, and no one does. Putting them out on the wrong day or unbound or weighing too much only frustrates the problem. We've felt that if the people in town knew to bundle items correctly or call for pick-ups on certain items or even to drop off certain items, it would all work out beneficially for everyone.

Everyone must realize that the township didn't close up the dumps that resulted in all this sorting and recycling. Nor is the township the only community hit by the ever-increasing disposal costs. Everyone must also realize that recycling is not a bad thing, either. The services of a disposable society are not as free-flowing as they once were. The township faces higher costs to dispose of our trash, and one way to keep those costs down is to have the full cooperation of the citizens who recycle and discard debris properly.

Anything new takes some getting used to, i.e., new management, new government, new refuse rules, and everything new requires an open mind to see the benefits of what change brings.

Before our trash problems become trash dilemmas, Belleville residents should take some time to refer to the collection format, they'll save time and aggravation in doing it right the first time.

Veteran remembers

To the editor:

The unstable conditions that are evident in the Mid-East appeared in Europe in 1940.

As an enlisted man I was a member of the 13th Infantry Regiment of the 44th Infantry Division, New Jersey National Guard.

Our base of operation was from the Newark Armory, corner of Sussex Ave. & Jay St.

We were engaged in war games in upstate New York during the months of July and August 1940.

Upon return to our Armory in late August we were greeted with orders that the 44th Infantry Division of the New Jersey National Guard would be among the last Division to be mobilized into the Army of the United States.

We were assigned to Fort Dix, N.J. for a period of 1 year. As conditions became worse in Europe the 1 year was dropped, and we had to serve additional time. During the additional time, Pearl Harbor was attacked, and now we were in for the duration of the war, for me it lasted 63 months.

The 44th Infantry Division saw action in the European Theatre of Operation during World War II.

I write this letter to remind our former members of the 44th Infantry Division that we will be commemorating the 50th Anniversary of the mobilization of the 44th Division on Sept. 16, 1990.

Alcohol sales tax

To the editor:

With experience, we are finding some weird and truly disturbing "wrinkles" in the newly enacted 7% sales tax.

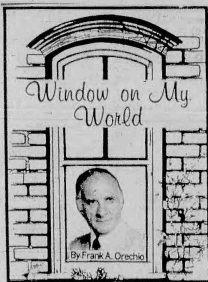

Added to the list of items to be taxed were alcoholic beverages at the retail level. For example, previously the advertised price for a case of beer stated "taxes included." But now, at the register, you fork over an additional $46 on a $12 case of beer. But do you realize that we are paying as much as 35% or even 75% sales tax on an alcoholic beverage at the retail level?

On each bottle of this beer, sold over the bar at a restaurant for example, at $2.50 each, you will pay 17 1/4% alcoholic beverage sales tax, amounting to $4.20 by the case, which comes to a 35% tax!!! a 500% rip off!!!

The figures on a $12 bottle of liquor come out about the same. A 2 oz. "on the rocks" or mixed drink at $3.50 will generate a 24 1/4% tax. With 16 servings from the bottle this amounts to $3.92, again a 35% tax on the $12 bottle. And what about this... The 2 oz. of liquor served in an "exotic" way, generally sets you back about $7.95, which will generate a 56% "alcoholic beverage" tax, or $8.96 for Governor Florio, representing a 75% tax on a $12 item.

Of course, the "exotic" drink contains some other ingredients, like itself, drinks for our children, previously taxed, because they are considered "non food," just like the "pottie" paper now also taxed.

• A QUESTION on the minds of many people today is whether or not Iraq has provoked a shooting war. Iraq's president, Saddam Hussein, obviously miscalculated the world's reaction to his seizure of the adjoining country of Kuwait. American naval and air forces are more than sufficient to blast Hussein and Iraq to kingdom come at a moment's notice.

Hussein is evil, but not dumb. He knows the consequences should Iraq decide to fire the first shot. On the other hand, United States forces were sent to Saudi Arabia on a defensive mission — to defend Saudi Arabia against a potential attack from Iraq's million-man army.

It may take time, but in the end, Hussein will retreat from Kuwait — the kingdom will be re-established and the United States will recall most of its forces, but it will be stuck with the need to maintain a contingent of forces in the Mideast area to defend against a future Iraq invasion.

• I HAVE Much admiration for Ella Filippone, Executive Administrator of the Passaic River Coalition who recently urged Governor Jim Florio to reject the much discussed flood tunnel to relieve Wayne flooding. The flood tunnel supports a buy-out program of affected homeowners. Upon reflection, it appears that Ella has a better proposal than proceeding with the $1.2 billion flood tunnel at the Newark Bay. She changed my mind.

• SUNDAY afternoon, residents and former residents of the Avondale Big Tree section located at the Nutley-Belleville south-easterly border, attended an annual picnic at the ITT grounds on Washington Avenue. More than 200 people of all ages turned out on a fine, sunny Sunday afternoon to enjoy the holiday environment with good food, cold beer and warm handshakes and embraces.

One of my favorite musicians, Augie Cundari, provided music during the entire afternoon. Augie would like the Nutley Public Works Department to consider a senior citizen problem. The late Public Works Director, John Lucy — one of Nutley's ablest public officials — provided townspeople with well water at the southeast corner of Town Hall.

Augie would like to see the well posted raised a couple of feet for the convenience of senior citizens who may have difficulty bending low to fill their containers. Special concern to Augie is the problem of the female senior citizens, I agree.

I had a chance to chat with my old classmate from Washington School days — Pat Pucci, operator of a gas station since he graduated from the Nutley school system. Pat recalls the days in 1973 when there was a gas shortage, and gas sold for $7.96 a gallon. In 1979, another gas shortage existed, and a gallon of the precious fluid sold for $13.22. In 1990, Pat says there is an abundance of gas available — no shortage — but gas is selling for $1.38, and in some cases, higher. He thinks — and I agree with him — somebody along the lines is ripping off the public by taking advantage of the Mideast crisis. This situation calls for an investigation.

Frank Baldino of Humbert Street, a fellow graduate of Nutley High School — Class of '34 — has a complaint with our garbage collector. Baldino asserts that bagmen take too often drop bags of garbage on the sidewalk and drive away, requiring Humbert Street residents to pick up after them. The next time it happens, Frank should call the Public Affairs Department at Nutley Town Hall so town officials could have evidence the garbage contractor isn't doing his job.

• MANY of the attendants at the Avondale Big Tree picnic would like to see the organizing committee sponsor a winter dinner. I think it's a great idea. It warms the heart to greet old friends and neighbors. It just doesn't happen often enough.

• EAST CENTRE STREET residents Florio Pucci and Carmine Alessio have a legitimate beef when they complain that East Centre Street is pollution infested, and complaints to the Suburban Air Pollution Control Board over the last two years have produced no meaningful relief. Gateway Condominium resident, Gail Duras, also spoke up at the recent meeting of the

Town budget questions

To the editor:

Belleville taxpayers who have just been "flailed" by Florio, are soon to be "clubbed" by the Council. A public hearing will be held Thursday, Aug. 30, at 8 p.m. to act on a proposed amendment to increase the municipal budget by $869,522. With four months remaining in the fiscal year, why do they need almost one million dollars more? Is this the efficient form of government they promised us?

On Aug. 14, Mayor Perna stated that 75% of the 1990 budget was spent by the prior administration. Absolutely untrue! The Mayor voted "yes" on Resolution No. 12, "Resolution Amending the Municipal Budget for 1990." If she had read the amendment before she voted, she would have noted that four of the five departments had spent less than 50% of their budgets.

Let us look at the credibility of this Council so far. Six of the Councilpersons campaigned on a platform to accept only a $750 yearly salary. At least two of them said they wanted no salary at all. So, after election, they voted to give themselves salaries ranging from $4,000 to the Mayor to $3,500 for the Councilpersons. They hired a part-time interim manager for $80 an hour. They restored $643,000 to the Board of Ed after the voters rejected this outrageous budget. They returned $325,000 to the surplus account, rather than use it for tax relief as planned. They increased the "Reserve for Uncollected Taxes" by $255,929. They have created many new positions and increased salary accounts by close to $200,000.

Is this what they meant by "checks and balances"? Or did they mean "checks" to increase "balances"? Why was the public hearing on this amendment postponed from Aug. 21 to Aug. 30? Will everybody be away for the Labor Day weekend?

If the amended budget is approved and combined with the Board of Education budget, Belleville taxpayers will suffer a 70 to 75 point tax increase for 1990. Can you afford this? Remember, Budget Hearing — Thursday — August 30 — 8:00 P.M. It's your money.

Vincent J. Frantantoni

(Ed. note: Mr. Frantantoni is a former Belleville commissioner; he unsuccessfully sought a seat on the Council.)

Let's be heard

To the editor:

This is an open letter to the Concerned Citizens and taxpayers of Belleville.

On Aug. 30, Thursday, 8 p.m., there will be a very important meeting and a hearing on the Town Budget. I urge you all to attend this meeting so you can see and hear how your tax dollars are being spent. Be prepared for a large tax increase on your property. So come to the meeting and "Let's Be Heard!"

Joe Celfo, President

Concerned Citizens

Nutley Township Commission complaining that at times, fumes are so strong they provoke headaches.

The West Orange-based Suburban Air, an organization that handles air pollution problems for most suburban Essex communities, has concluded that the materials do not exceed safety standards. Maybe the safety standards are too low. Our elected officials should take another look at those alleged safety standards. The health, safety and comfort of even one Nutley citizen is important enough for officials to address the grievance.

• ROBERT HAUSER is a write-in Republican candidate against incumbent Bob Roe. Hauser is Treasurer of the New Jersey Conservative Caucus. In declaring his candidacy, Hauser said he doesn't expect to defeat Roe, but hopes his candidacy lays the foundation for another future candidate. The Glen Ridge conservative should be admired for even conceiving the idea of a write-in campaign against the institution we refer to as Bob Roe. Our Congressman is one of the most powerful — and the best. The power stems from not only seniority — but resourcefulness and ability.

• NUTLEY is fortunate to be the home of two industrial giants that are AAA corporate citizens of the community.

Hoffmann-LaRoche and International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. have proven in many ways, many times, their individual commitments to improving the quality of life in Nutley. Both, independently, have given their money and the brainpower of their staffs to raise Nutley's quality of life standard.

The hospitality of ITT picnic grounds, dining and kitchen facilities have never been denied to worthy causes, is my plea also.

Hoffmann-LaRoche has contributed its funds and staff power in numerous and meaningful ways to demonstrate a caring attitude about our community. Recently, Hoffmann-LaRoche went one step further. Kingsland Street is a country road. HLR decided that the land for the entire south side of the Kingsland Street sidewalk beginning from Bloomfield Avenue to the railroad crossing, several hundred feet south of the Bloomfield Avenue corner at Kingsland Street, needed some cleaning up. Roche did it in style. The corporation arranged to have the area replanted, and now it has all the earmarks of a plaza. That's what I call good corporate citizenship.

Library dedicated

The Essex Catholic High School dedicated its library in honor of Geraldine Czarniecki of Belleville. Miss Czarniecki taught library science at the school for 22 years before her death last September.

Czarniecki lived her entire life in Belleville. She graduated from St. Mary's elementary school in Nutley, and Our Lady of Good Counsel High School in Newark.

She received her B.A. in history and library science from Caldwell College and her M.A. in Social Studies from Montclair State College. She also pursued graduate studies at Rutgers in media and the use of computers in the library. She was among the first women to join the Essex Catholic faculty.

During her 22 years at Essex Catholic, Czarniecki served as librarian, director of audio-visual services, moderator of the Library and Media staffs, teacher of Advanced Placement U.S. History and of library science.

She also trained student and parent library aides, acted as advisor for senior projects, and coordinated Chapter II and the faculty Sunshine Club.

Miss Czarniecki was an Eucharistic Minister at St. Mary's church and at Clara Maass Medical Center.

HUMID CONDITIONS

Most pharmacists know that usually the worst place to store medication is in the medicine cabinet in the bathroom. Because most cabinets are not airtight, their interiors are subject to fluctuations in heat and humidity that may affect certain medications. Recently, in fact, a drug prescribed for the treatment of epilepsy has been found to lose one-third of its effectiveness if subjected to humid conditions. Studies conducted by the FDA show that, when exposed to humidity, carbamazepine in tablet form hardens and dissolves poorly in liquid tests. Blood samples from people who took the drug confirmed that tablets exposed to humidity were absorbed poorly by the body. This certainly points out the need to store any medication in a dry, cool, dark area.

Information on where to store as well as how to take medications, is available from our pharmacist at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1688, 759-1956. The sale and rental of walkers, wheelchairs, crutches, canes and other non-prescription aids are handled. Open 9 a.m. - 10 p.m. daily, 9 a.m. - 9 p.m. Sundays. Please be extra careful driving over the long Labor Day weekend.

HINT: Tests for the effect of humidity on carbamazepine did not involve the drug in its liquid or chewable tablet form.

income during the same period. Although many financial institutions are either operating at a loss on paper or not showing large margins of profit, industry sources are quick to point out that most banks are hoarding large amounts of cash for anticipated loan losses, a practice triggered by the ramifications of the current thrift crisis.

Last August, President George Bush signed into effect the law commonly known as the S & L Bailout Plan. The plan called for $166 billion over a ten year period to consolidate and/or shut down failed savings & loan institutions. Since then, the estimated figures have grown; some experts believe paying insured investors at closed institutions and interest on government bonds used to finance the bailout could cost close to $1 trillion over 30 years.

The bill also created the Resolution Trust Corporation, which is responsible for adopting those thrifts which are deemed unhealthy, and either merging them with a stable financial institution or liquidating their assets to pay off creditors.

To date, 12 financial institutions in New Jersey are in the care of the RTC, including Paterson's United Savings Bank, whose financial woes were blamed largely on bad loans made to Belleville developer Wayne Cross.

Chris Cooney, a spokesman for the state Department of Banking, said in the case of a state-chartered institution, the commissioner of banking must sign an institution into the RTC. The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) recommends federally-chartered banks to the RTC, he said.

"When the RTC becomes involved with an institution," Cooney said, "in most cases it puts a managing agent in place, merges fit with another healthier institution, or, as a last resort, liquidates it." He added that, whatever happens, the customer's money is safe.

"The thing we're really trying to drive home here is that the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC) insures all investors," Cooney said. However, according to recent Congressional testimony given by L. William Seidman, chairman of both the RTC and the FDIC, the $13 billion insurance fund is projected to show a loss for the third straight year.

Theories on the cause of the S&L crisis vary, but the U.S. Government estimates that nearly half the losses suffered by the failed thrifts are the result of fraudulent management. Industry sources also cite the tendency of thrifts in the 1980s to invest in long term ventures like real estate, which left them little capital to pay off short-term debts.

Most recently, he was the host of "Religious Viewpoint" on channel 36, OBC-TV.

In addition to assisting and providing leadership for newly organized churches, Rev. Fortunato will serve as Adjunct Professor at the local community college where he will teach Italian and Spanish.

One of his greatest joys was to provide a home for "Happy Apple" School. The school, together with its director Linda Moeller will continue to be housed from the church.

"Belleville — indeed BEAUTIFUL VILLAGE — and we have been enriched and blessed by being a part of the community," said Reverend Fortunato, who is an ordained and active minister in the American Baptist Church denomination.

His tenure in Belleville marks the completion of 25 years of continuous, active, and successful ministry that functioned with one objective — helping and meeting the needs of others.

Income Tax Course prepares students for a rewarding career

Each year thousands of students earn money for their school expenses by working as H & R Block income tax preparers. They prepare for this challenging work by enrolling in the H & R Block Income Tax course.

Block's Income Tax Course provides them with hands-on experience preparing individual income tax returns. Students learn how to handle increasingly complex tax situations as the term progresses and they learn which tax strategies can save them the most money, according to Bert Tobia, District Manager, H & R Block.

"Block's experienced instructors have trained thousands of tax preparers," Tobia said. "Many graduates of the course have gone on to rewarding careers in income tax preparation. Classes begin on September 10. A choice of morning, afternoon, evening and weekend classes allows students to pick a time that best fits their schedule."

"Graduates of the H & R Block Income Tax Course receive Certificates of Achievement and continuing education units (CEU's). Qualified graduates of the course may be offered job interviews with H & R Block but are under no obligation to accept employment."

Bert suggests that those interested in more information about the H & R Block Income Tax Course, should contact H & R Block at 155 Franklin Avenue, Nutley or call 235-1000.

RELIGIOUS VIEWPOINT

Rev. Gerald Fortunato

Reasons for moral decay

No true American can rejoice with what we see taking place in our great nation. Astonishing and terrifying changes are going on in American society today. We are witnessing the flood-tide of lawlessness, crime, moral disintegration, violence, and a generation who has no fear of God, respect for the church, love for the family, or desire to obey the laws of the land. We talk about, and legislate against, pollution of air and water, while our moral atmosphere and waters are being corrupted and polluted by lewd and lurid literature. Pornographic garbage is being dumped into America's moral streams and there is "moral rot" everywhere.

Millions of porno magazines and films are sold every month in the U.S. Billions of copies of these instruments of hell are purchased by adults and teenagers, including many church members. We have Pastors, Deacons, church officers who will not open their compromising mouths against these evils. So few are stirred up about the condition in our great nation... our society is a permissive one.

In the past, we have counted strongly upon the fact that our nation was based upon the home as a foundation. Now, the institution of the American home, as we have known it in the past, has virtually come to an end. Yes we still live in houses and there are still millions of people who, as man and wife, are bringing forth children. Prayer, even grace at meals, is virtually unknown in the majority of American homes. There is little or no attempt on the part of parents to train their children in Christian truths. Many parents make no endeavor to discipline their children or to train them in normal behavior and conduct.

This has given rise to what we call the "permissive society." Children are permitted to do any and all things they want to do. The result... the youth of our land have become separated from their parents and have entered into vandalism, sex, alcohol, drugs, and tobacco. Woe to the Pastor or evangelist who preaches and names these issues. Our society calls for a positive message... do not give them any of the "don't do's." The devil is having a "hay-day" in our churches and our land.

There are matters even more serious and alarming. In many places, homes are being broken up as fast as they are being created. The divorce rate is on the increase. Millions are not even taking the trouble or time to get married... they just take up and live together. This is a terrible threat to American society. Add to this husband-wife-swapping that is becoming common practice... this practice of immoral living.

Who ever thought that we would see the day when millions of youth would physically desert their homes and families and drift around the world with disease-filled bodies, dressed in rags, living on the streets with no education, no ambition, no morals, just living their life-style and "doing their own thing." It all illustrates the breakdown of the home as an institution.

The breakdown of the home is the basis for a large part of the breakdown of morals today. It is bringing about the degeneration of society. Judgment is piling up against America. We cannot escape! We only wonder how long it will be before "God's retributive judgment falls." We marvel at the long suffering and patience of God.

- Q: What is hoarseness?
- A: Hoarseness is an alteration in the normal production of the voice by the vocal cords.
- Q: What are the causes of hoarseness?

- Q: Who should have an examination by a throat specialist?
- A: Anyone who has hoarseness persisting for two weeks.
- Q: Have there been recent advances in the diagnosis of hoarseness?

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUC SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

The kids in our township might not like it, but the new school year will kick off next Wednesday morning. At Belleville High School, the sports department is set to begin a new era.

There is a new Director of Athletics at Belleville, and while the name is somewhat familiar, the job will be brand new.

Karen Fucello takes over for the retired Jim Silvestri, and she takes over a job that has increased tremendously in responsibility. For not only does Fucello become the A.D. (the first woman to ever hold that job at Belleville), she also inherits the job of director of Physical Education, which was vacated when Al LoBallo retired from that post last spring.

"The first thing I was asked when I interviewed for the job was 'are you ready for 60 to 70 hour weeks,'" Fucello recalled. "My feeling was that that was the easy part. I'm doing that now, with the various coaching responsibilities. The hours won't be a problem. I'm looking forward to a new era here."

Many school districts in this area have combined the job of Athletic Director and Director of Phys Ed. The job will require a tremendous amount of administrative responsibility, along with the always difficult job of scheduling games and making sure teams get to and from events smoothly. As Silvestri will tell you, that's a lot easier said than done.

When Fucello was selected for the job, she was given the task of starting, in essence, a new decade of sports at Belleville High. She is anxiously awaiting that challenge.

"We need young coaches to learn the business," Fucello said. "New blood is so important. This will be a very important time in Belleville athletics."

Fucello is well acquainted with Belleville sports. She starred in the school system here in 1966. Back then, women's sports did not hold a very prestigious position in the school. As a matter of fact, they didn't exist at all, perhaps with the exception of intramurals and gym class.

By the early 1970's, women's basketball began to gain popularity and Fucello was the team's first head coach at Belleville. Her first team, in 1971-72, finished 10-2. One of Fucello's star players was Debbie Meola, who later would return to be an outstanding assistant coach at Belleville High.

After that 10-2 season, Belleville put together back to back 12-4 seasons. After the 1973-74 season, Fucello took a one year leave of absence. During that span, Mike Cleri coached the girls to an 8-7 record.

In '75-76, Fucello returned to a much younger program and success didn't come overnight. Women's basketball had taken off in the area and the competition was quite intense. Neighboring Nutley High School had put together some powerhouses, winning a state title in the mid '70's. The Raiderettes also won two straight county titles.

Belleville finished 6-16 in '76 and '77, then began to turn the tide with a 13-7 mark in 1978. The big victory that season was a state tournament victory over Nutley. In that game, Belleville rallied from a 20 point first half deficit to win.

After that season, things continued to improve. The girls posted records of 16-7 and 12-10 in 1979 and '80. However, the best years were still to come.

The "glory days" of women's basketball began in 1981. That was the year players like Jennifer Apicella, Dina DeAquino and Lorel Wells joined the team as freshman.

From 1981-84, the records were 15-7, 17-6, 20-7 and 22-7. The team made it to the county and sectional championship games in '84. The girls also won an NNJIL championship during that span. Apicella made most of the individual news, scoring over 3000 points in her career. She is still the all time leading scorer for women's high school basketball in New Jersey. She is also only the second person in the history of the state, men or women, to score over 3000 points in a high school career.

Fucello gained her 100th career victory in 1981 and picked up victory number 200 in early 1989.

After Apicella left, there was some rebuilding to do. The team went 9-15 in 1985 and 2-18 in 1986. However, with young talents like Simone Edwards and Laurie Dondarski, the fortunes turned positive once again. The girls improved from 1987-89, posting records of 10-15, 16-12 and 13-12.

Edwards and Dondarski both eclipsed the 1000 point career scoring mark. Edwards ranks second on the Belleville girls' scoring list, Dondarski third.

Fucello was inducted into the Belleville Hall of Fame in 1987. She is the founder and still director of the Essex County basketball and softball tournaments.

Her work with the AAU earned Fucello national prominence in 1988, when she was honored at the Javits Hall in New York City. Needless to say, Fucello has vast experience in the coaching circles. In addition to basketball, she has also served as head coach in tennis and track. She knows kids and has their best interest at heart. She will make a tremendous Director of Athletics and Phys Ed.

As for her coaching career, Fucello will lead the girls' basketball program for one more year. After that, she will turn the reins over to someone new.

Next week, we'll talk more with Fucello about the future of women's sports and about what she hopes to accomplish in her new position at Belleville High School.

Gridiron opener set for Sept. 21

Buccaneers getting serious

In just three weeks, the 1990 high school football season will commence at Belleville. The Bucs will open the regular season on Friday evening, September 21 when Hackensack comes to town. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Between now and then, there is plenty to do for the coaching staff. Head coach John Senesky held his annual "skills and drills" camp that started in early August. Last week, the decathlon was contested and the coach was pretty happy with the results.

For those of you not familiar with the decathlon, it is a series of running and weight lifting events designed to test the overall conditioning level of the player.

"The decathlon usually tests which players put in the work during the summer. If the kids are in good shape, we can get right into football, rather than spend time getting players in shape now."

"I'm happy to say we had some very good results, both in the decathlon and the power index."

"The results were especially good considering that the weather was rainy for the decathlon last week. Thus, some of the running events were hindered."

"The power index is a part of the decathlon. It's made up of four weight lifting events, the clean, military press, squat and bench press. All players complete three repetitions. The total weight lifted is then calculated against the players' weight and a score is determined."

An outstanding power index is one in the 6.0 or higher range. A score of 5.0 or higher is considered excellent.

One player, J.V. Faliveno, finished with a score of 6.08 in the power index. Faliveno, who will be a junior at Belleville this fall, cleaned 195 pounds, pressed 200, squatted 375 and bench pressed 265 pounds. Faliveno is a 170 pound prospective linebacker. Overall, he lifted 1035 pounds.

Three seniors finished with scores of 5.0 or better. Carmen Spina scored a 5.50, Art Caruso tallied a 5.36 and Steve Caponi scored 5.15. Caponi was one of three players in the power index ratings to lift a combined 1,000 pounds. He was the top lifter with 1055 pounds.

The junior class was also well represented in the power index. In addition to Faliveno, Hector Daniluk scored a 5.41, John McAlon finished at 5.17 and Michael Kimball closed at 5.0. Junior Brian Salmon was the third lifter to reach the 1,000 pound plateau.

Sophomores Michael Citarella (5.71) and John Alvarado (5.14) closed out the lifters who scored 5.0 or better.

In the decathlon, a score of 1000 or better is a tremendous accomplishment. This season, three players broke that mark.

Citarella was the top performer on the '90 team, scoring a 1,036. Caponi and Daniluk were right behind with scores of 1,001 each.

The '90 club is also considered an excellent achievement. Jim DuHaime, a senior, scored 983. Caruso finished at 955, Michael Kimball scored 943, Sean Kimball, a senior, finished at 906 and Spina closed at 902.

In the 800 club, sophomore John Kuebler scored 893, senior James Mastropalo scored 877, Faliveno tallied an 812, senior Rich Ferrugia scored an 804 and McAlon finished at 803.

The decathlon is made up of the four lifting events, the mile run, a half mile run, a quarter mile run, sprints, the 20 yard shuttle drill and the 20 yard hurdle drill.

"There was a good mix of sophomores, juniors and seniors who scored well in the power index and decathlon," Senesky said. "There will be a lot of underclassmen seeing varsity playing time this year and it's good to see those kids in excellent shape."

The decathlon was held last Friday. Since then, the players have been going through two-a-day workouts. Those will continue until school starts next Wednesday.

The first scrimmage for the '90 team will take place on Saturday, September 8 when the Bucs play at Columbia. On September 11, the team is host to Hanover Park. On the 13th, it will play Bayley Ellard and on or around September 15, the pre season will conclude with the annual scrimmage against Livingston.

"Right now, we want the kids to learn at least two positions," Senesky said. "We don't have a large turnout this season, so the more versatility we have, the better. We also hope to have a quicker team than usual."

NOTES: Senesky's career record entering this season is 65-50-2. He is beginning his 14th season as Bucs' head coach. Bucs have played Hackensack three times since moving to the NNJIL in 1982. Belleville won in 1983, 27-0. Hackensack prevailed in '88, 26-0 and won last season, 14-6. All three games were played in Belleville.

Race named for legendary coach

Giuffrida Five Mile Run set for Oct. 21

When he was a teacher and coach at Belleville High School, Sam Giuffrida epitomized charisma and energy. When he suddenly and tragically passed away on May 21, 1989, an entire township grieved the loss of the man it simply called "G".

There are many who say that "G's" presence in Belleville is still very strong. His personality and ability to communicate with the youth of our township was legendary. His work as the crew coach at Belleville from 1965-86 still draws raves from those athletes who performed for him.

The people of the Township of Belleville have not forgotten Giuffrida's contributions. The township plans to honor the coach on October 21 with the first annual Sam Giuffrida Five Mile race through Belleville.

The race is dedicated to Giuffrida's memory. The proceeds of the race will benefit the students at Belleville High School through the Sam Giuffrida Scholarship Fund.

The race, like the man it is named after, is being run in first class fashion. The course will receive TAC approval. There will be water stops at the beginning of the race, at the two mile point and at the conclusion.

The timing will be computerized and all the athletes will receive his, or her time at the end of the race. T-shirt shirts will be given to all those who register for the race before October 10. The registration fee, before the 10th of October, is $8.00. After the tenth, the fee will be $10.00 and tee shirts will be distributed on a first come, first serve basis.

The race will commence promptly at 10 a.m. Preceding the race will be a one mile health walk or sprint, which should begin at about 9:30 a.m.

The race will start, and end, at the courtyard at Belleville High School, a symbolic location indeed. Part of the courtyard is dedicated to the memory of Giuffrida.

Although the final course has not been determined, the race should go up Greylock Parkway, down to Washington Avenue, off to Mill Street and then to Franklin Avenue before coming back to the Courtyard at the High School, where the finish line awaits. Please remember that the exact course has not been finalized. It should be within two weeks.

Prizes will be awarded to the top three overall finishers for both men and women. Prizes will also be awarded to the top three men and women finishers in the final age brackets: 10 years and under, 11-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60-69 and 70 and over.

Jiffy Lube in Belleville will be providing the Tee Shirts for the race.

The race committee is seeking contributions, gifts and volunteers in order to make the day a success.

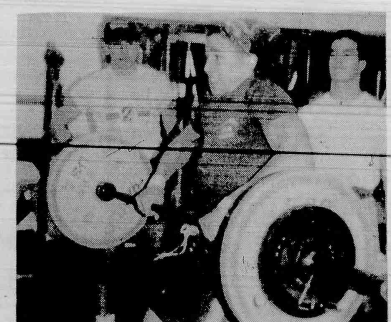

SHUTTLE TO SUCCESS — Brian Salmon (L) and Hector Daniluk go through shuttle drill during recent Buc football decathlon.

PUSHING HARD — Steve Caponi working hard on the weights during power index.

AROUND THE STRETCH — Sean Kimball and Art Caruso racing hard during 1/2-mile run in decathlon. Kimball has recovered from knee injury. Taking the times are Larry Zachee and Joe MacGregor.

GOING UP — Hector Daniluk giving the extra effort in recent power index testing.

RECREATION ROUNDUP

Soccer coaches needed

The Belleville Recreation Department is seeking persons interested in coaching its seven-to-fourteen year old soccer league. The league is separated into several divisions according to specific age groups.

The children learn the basics of soccer and all those attending regular practices play in all games. Games are played on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, beginning late September. All volunteer coaches will be required to attend a certification clinic by the NYSCA before the season begins.

Those interested in coaching may call the Recreation Department at 450-3422 weekdays before 4 p.m.

Anyone interested must reside in Belleville and be available on Saturdays and Sundays. Qualified applicants must be sports-minded, responsible and must work well with people. These positions would also be good experience for a college student majoring in recreation/physical education.

Soccer & touch football applications

Applications for the Belleville Recreation 1990 Fall Sports programs are now available in the schools and at the Recreation office.

Sports officials needed

The Belleville Recreation Dept. is presently seeking adults to work as officials for its Soccer program. The Recreation Soccer League plays its games on Saturday afternoons, noon - 4 p.m. at Clearman Field beginning Sept. 22. Qualified applicants need only be familiar with soccer rules - no formal certification or training is required. If interested, please call the Recreation office at 450-3422 for more information.

What if...

By Julie Frees Briggs

What if...
You would like to name your teen-age children as the beneficiaries of your life insurance, must they be of legal age?

You may choose anyone you wish to be a beneficiary of your life insurance. However, your life insurance company will more than likely insist the money go to a guardian of the children until they are of a legal age. A guardian should be chosen in your will anyway, to insure protection for your children.

What if...
You are buying a house and don't wish to use a lawyer, do you truly need a lawyer when taking a title?

It is not always necessary to have a lawyer at the closing of a house sale, but it is certainly advisable to use a lawyer for the negotiations that occur up to that point. A lawyer represents your interests and protects you in unforeseeable ways. For example, there are literally hundreds of mortgage programs available to a borrower. An attorney can help assure that the program you think you are applying for is what you are getting. Also, he is there to insist on an escape clause in the contract in the event that excessive radon is found in the house, or something of major concern shows up in the home inspection, or in case you cannot obtain financing, etc.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The last time the Kansas City Chiefs made the playoffs was in 1986. That year, the Chiefs lost to the New York Jets, 35-15. The last time the Chiefs won a playoff game was in January of 1970. That year, they beat the Oakland Raiders, 17-7 in Oakland for the last AFL title. Kansas City then beat Minnesota in the Super Bowl, 23-7.

FOR THIS WEEK

Okay Jets' fans, let's test your playoff knowledge a little. Other than the '86 playoff victory over Kansas City, when did the Jets last win a playoff game? Who did the Jets play and where was the game played? Who quarterbacked the Jets in that playoff victory and how did the Jets ultimately do in that season?

COMING UP...

The NFL picks start up in next weeks issue. We'll also have our predictions for the playoffs and Super Bowl.

Real estate market improves as interest rates go down

Housing across the country is selling at a faster pace than last year, primarily because of falling mortgage interest rates, says the North Central Jersey Prudential Real Estate Affiliates.

"People who have been waiting for interest rates to begin falling before purchasing homes, should make their moves now. There are more homes available and the rates are down. The time to buy is now."

Across the nation, the average commitment rate on 30-year, fixed-rate conventional mortgages fell from 10.67 percent in April to 10.33 percent in May. The interest rates were generally lower in May than in May 1989.

Concurrent with the reduced interest rates, the pace of sale on single-family homes increased by 1.2 percent in May over May of 1989.

For the month of May, using the seasonally-adjusted annual rate, 3.29 million single-family homes were sold compared with 3.25 million homes sold in May 1989.

Sam Pica, also a Prudential

Real Estate Affiliate, said the latest reports on median sale prices indicate that the market in the Northeast region may be stabilizing.

Nationally, the median resale-home price was up by $2,200 or 2.4 percent from May 1989. In the Northeast, the prices of the median single-family home decreased by a slight 1.7 percent from $143,800 in May 1989 to $141,300 in May 1990.

The lower median price in the Northeast shows that more homes are being sold in the lower price ranges, indicating a market that is stabilizing.

Nationally, the largest monthly sales pace increase was recorded in the western states where the May resale rate of $90,000 units was a 1.7 percent increase over April and was unchanged from May 1989.

The Prudential Real Estate Affiliates, Inc., is the fastest growing real estate organization in New Jersey, and in the country.

Members include The Prudential: Leo, Diaz and Pica Realtors in Bloomfield.

Did You Know??

Yesterday's luxury is today's must-have — and those necessities are more often than not electronic. Today, for instance, 68 percent of U.S. households have a videocassette recorder, up from 17 percent in the last five years. Some homes have more gadgets than furniture.

Flat-head wood screws are installed so the head is flush with the surface or sunk so it can be covered with filler. Round-head screws protrude so they can be removed easily.

Check a chain saw before use. Teeth should be sharp and clean and the chain should be tight. Chain sprocket should be free of wear. If the chain doesn't stop as it should when you apply the chain brake, have the saw repaired promptly.

Developer in Huntingdon Valley, Pennsylvania, has designed a home with child-safe features — rounded corners on countertops, covered electric outlets, anti-scald faucets, and more. Stairs have banisters at two levels, and a gate to prevent falls.

What do you want in a home for your family? Count on our super pros to find just what you want. See us at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 84 Union Ave., Nutley, 235-9000.
