Police Chief Lister to be honored Oct. 5

Community Mental Health Services for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley will honor Belleville Chief of Police George Lister at its 6th Annual Award Dinner on Oct. 5 at 7 p.m. at The Chandelier Restaurant in Belleville.

During the years Police Chief Lister has headed the Belleville Police Department, he has provided encouragement and assistance to Community Mental Health Services. Chief Lister, a Belleville native, has always made the Department's services available to Community Mental Health Services on emergency occasions.

Community Mental Health Services offers affordable service for area residents through its various programs. Community Mental Health Services' Partial Care Program provides rehabilitation and vocational preparation to adults with chronic mental illness, while the Family Life Program helps families learn alternatives to violence.

Frail elderly who live in their own homes remain connected to the community through the Friendly Visitors Program. The Outpatient Program sees people in individual, group and family therapy settings, and children in need of special education are preserved in the Therapeutic School and Preschool.

Theresa D'Elia of Belleville, member of the Community Mental Health Services Board of Trustees, is chairperson for the award dinner, which is open to all community persons. Information about securing tickets and placing reservations can be secured by calling 450-3100.

Building Advisory Committee aims to rejuvenate township

By Joyce M. Steel
Zeal and determination to rejuvenate Belleville's image and its spirit aren't qualities reserved for the newly elected mayor and council; they were displayed in force by the township's current Building Advisory Committee at an organization meeting last week.

The committee's chief responsibility will be to advise the mayor and council, with the help of the planning board, zoning board and town planner, on the feasibility and desirability of any construction projects slated in town. Members will also be looking into the ways and means of implementing a beautification project for Washington Avenue and other areas of Belleville.

After the swearing-in of members and the selection of officers, the board attacked the question of a mission statement. With the audience participation of Councilman

Bill Cook, they identified several issues to focus their energies upon.

"We must ultimately create interest in Belleville, and...the possibility of change for a better tomorrow," James Cozzarelli, whom the board named its chairman, said. To do that, several members suggested studying the zoning board's master plan, and meeting with the township's now-defunct redevelopment agency to glean information and insight.

"To be successful at revitalizing Belleville, we need to identify sources of aid, both creative and monetary," Cozzarelli said. Board member Vincent Menza added, "We're considering the low-class neighborhood around here...that's got to get turned around."

A major concern of the advisory committee is outside funding - where to get it and how to apply. Vincent Frantantoni, a former commissioner who attended the Sept. 5 meeting, told members that the township has been relatively successful in obtaining federal, state and county monies over recent years.

"We are the third highest in Essex County where receiving outside funding is concerned," Frantantoni said, surprising many committee members who thought surrounding communities were sur-

Silver Lake residents rally Pathmark eyes security

By Anthony Buccino

Within forty-five minutes of a face-to-face meeting of Silver Lake residents, council members and Pathmark representatives, a 54-year-old Bloomfield woman had her pocketbook stolen in the Belmont Ave. supermarket's parking lot.

For more than one hour, the three groups discussed better security, improved lighting, fencing and litter which residents claim drifts from the store lot throughout the neighborhood.

Monday night's victim told police she had completed her shopping and approached her car when a man in a gray vehicle grabbed her pocketbook and drove away. The victim held on to her purse and was dragged by the vehicle. The woman let go of the purse, which contained about $300 in cash and assorted credit cards. She was then taken to Columbus Hospital where she was treated for injuries to her knees, legs, hands and torso.

The suspect's vehicle, a 1984 Chevy Cavalier had been reported stolen Saturday in Newark. The woman described the suspect as a thin black male, about 6' tall, with black hair and gray clothes. The vehicle was last seen traveling east on Honiss St.

Sam Papa and Marie Burke spoke on behalf of more than seventy-five Silver Lake residents crowded into the council chambers Monday night to meet with three council members and six representatives of Supermarkets General, the Elizabeth-based parent company of Pathmark.

Burke asked the company representatives to put up a fence to keep the debris on their premises. She presented photos of a clean Pathmark lot and what she claimed was litter from the store's shoppers along the neighborhood residences.

She asked the company representatives to fund high wattage sodium lighting throughout Silver Lake.

"It's the type of people who come to shop in your store who stumble on side streets they never heard of," Papa said.

"One of the biggest deterrents (to crime) is the high wattage sodium lighting. That would help us bring our neighborhood back to what it used to be," Papa said. "It's strange to look like a ghetto. These are stern words. We are determined and we are united."

Chris Dampman, representing the store's security said that in July, the company hired their own security people. "We didn't feel you were getting the type of service, so we decided to go out and hire our own people." He added that the people they hire must receive a certificate of conduct from their local police.

"What you have now is marginally better than before," Dampman said.

"The security leaves a lot to be desired," Papa said. "This is going to be a constant review."

"The wind-up is that we're not getting the support from Pathmark. That's why the people are aroused."

"The issues are nuts and bolts type issues," said Betty Greitzer, Pathmark's Director of Public Affairs. "We need to check our files and records. We have some catching up to do...I can assure you they will not be dropped."

Police Chief George J. Lister said that of 1,258 calls for service between Jan. 1 and Aug. 23 in the area between Newark Ave. and Bloomfield Ave., the supermarket location accounted for 115 calls or approximately nine percent.

Current chairman of the township Planning Board Joseph Doyle outlined the history of problems the town has had with the shopping center. Agreements between the Planning Board and Pathmark in 1983 and 1987 noted that the parking area was to be patrolled by cameras which were to be manned by police personnel, and the store had committed to certain hours of security.

The store has since ceased to operate 24-hours a day and is open until midnight.

Doyle said that the police department supplied monthly crime reports in the area and that after the meetings "we did see an improvement." The monthly reports were discontinued about a year ago.

"The planning board in granting the application retained authority on security. When they show response, there is improvement," Doyle said.

Although she wouldn't say yes to the proposal for brighter lighting, Greitzer would not say no.

She explained that the company has been operating in the red for the last three years since a leveraged buyout when employees bought the company. "We saved a lot of people's jobs, we have debt up the wazoo, not to cry or plead poverty, I wish I had one-one-hundredth of I.T.T. or Hoffman LaRoche's charitable budget. With the leveraged budget, all our budgets were cut."

"I'm not shutting the door on anything. Some issues you raised, we'd like to have resolved at one more meeting. We'll continue on until the problems are resolved."

Representatives of the groups agreed to meet again October 1 to continue the discussions.

"I'm very proud of the conduct and decorum of the people in my ward and town," said First Ward Councilman Jim Messina, whose district encompasses Silver Lake. The Council Chambers was full and overflowing with Silver Lake residents, yet at no time was the order of the meeting disrupted.

Belleville Police work nets stolen goods cache

A Bloomfield man was released this week on $1,000 bail after being charged with two counts of receiving stolen property.

Bloomfield Police Chief John McNiff identified the suspect as Francis Garafalo, 58, of 229 Ampere Parkway.

After a lengthy investigation by the Belleville, Bloomfield and Little Falls police departments, warrants were executed 5:15 p.m. Saturday at Garafalo's residence and at a garage he rented at 429 Beardsley Ave., the chief said.

During the raid 144 items, including videocassette recorders, televisions, disc players, adding machines, telephones and the like, were seized from both sites, McNiff said.

Belleville Det. Sgt. Leonard J. Burrell said that township detectives had worked with Little Falls police on the investigation which led to the goods stored at two Bloomfield addresses.

Burrell said that 47 items were retrieved from the garage and 84 from the house.

McNiff said investigators are working to inventory and establish a dollar value for the articles, which police believe were stolen during burglaries in the area.

Two such items have been identified thus far, he said, and additional charges may be forthcoming against Garafalo as the investigation continues.

"Right now, they're checking the serial numbers. It'll be a lengthy process," McNiff explained. He noted the items eventually will be displayed for possible identification by burglary victims.

Burrell said that burglary victims should contact the Bloomfield police for information on identifying missing property.

A hearing of the case was set Oct. 3 in Bloomfield Municipal Court.

Child Emergency I.D. program on Saturday

A free Child Emergency I.D. Program is being sponsored by township councilman Mario Drozd at the Belleville Little League Club House, 92 Montgomery Place, Saturday, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The photo and fingerprinting is voluntary, Drozd said, but parents must sign a permission slip to have the service done.

The child's photo, personal description and thumbprint will be placed on an I.D. card about the size of a credit card, then laminated. Parents are encouraged to store the Child Emergency I.D. card in a safe place and then be made available to police to aid in location efforts.

The Child Emergency I.D. program is sponsored in cooperation with the Essex County Crime Prevention Officers' Association, the Belleville Police Dept. and the Essex County Sheriff's Office. The three law enforcement groups will supply equipment and officers. Also on hand will be volunteers from the Citizens for a Better Belleville.

Drozd urged all parents to have their children receive the free Child Emergency I.D. The free service is being offered to the community and is available to non-residents also, Drozd said.

This is the fifth year he has been directly involved with the program, Drozd said. The annual event's success is due to the public's response and the efforts of the volunteers who make it possible, he added.

Zoning board acts on two applications

The township zoning board passed judgment on two proposed projects at its Sept. 4 meeting.

In the first matter before the board, which convened at 7:30 p.m. at the Public Affairs Building, it gave a green light to the construction of a two-story building for retail and commercial use at 261 Main St., a two-family zone.

The board unanimously voted to permit Joe Rehinbas, a Kearny resident, to build the structure. Rehinbas's wife, Esmerelda, testified before the board on her husband's behalf. She said the couple plans to move the office, warehouse and retail operations of their landscaping business, JA Alexander, to the location once it's finished. There will also be additional office space for rent in the building upon its completion.

In other business, the board voted 6-1 to deny a request by Anthony Costello to convert his garage at 720 Belleville Ave., to a professional insurance agency. The property is located in a one-family district, and, according to township ordinance, two off-street parking spaces - one within a garage - are required for each dwelling in that zone.

Because of the 11 p.m. curfew on municipal meetings, the board was unable to resolve the remaining four items on its agenda. The board adopted its first Tuesday of each month as its official meeting date, and changed its meeting place to Town Hall. The additional agenda items will be addressed at the Oct. 2 meeting.

BOARD MILESTONE - Belleville School Superintendent Michael Nardello congratulates Board of Education president Dr. Anthony D'Agostino who was recently recognized for his more than ten years on the Belleville School Board by the New Jersey School Boards Association.

Hit and run driver sought after morning accidents

Belleville Police are seeking witnesses to a hit and run accident that occurred at 11:48 a.m., Friday, Aug. 31 near the intersection of Linden Ave. and Joramelon St.

The 10-year-old victim told police he was crossing Joramelon St. when he walked from in front of a large truck that was parked facing east on the south side of Joramelon St. The victim said he was then struck by the car.

According to the police report, the driver of the car took the child to a residence for first-aid and left the scene.

The victim's mother said that the driver told the resident, "clean him up, he's a tough kid," before he left. She added that the boy was treated and released at Clara Maass Medical Center where he received 12 stitches on his outer lip and 4 stitches inside his mouth from a plastic surgeon.

The youth told police it was a large dark brown vehicle driven by an older white male who said he was from Clifton. The vehicle may have had fireman's license plates. Anyone who may have witnessed the accident should call Belleville

Belleville POLICE BEAT

A Floyd St. resident reported that she was forced to withdraw $1,000 from her bank account on Sept. 5 and give it to two men and one woman whom she believed had a gun. The trio had driven the woman from Newark to her home where she was told to get her bank book. One of the suspects accompanied her into the bank and took the money from her. The trio dropped the victim off at her house and left.

Miguel Ramon Campis, 47, of Newark was charged with shoplifting Sept. 6 after he attempted to leave the K-Mart with cigarettes valued at $27.94. He was stopped by store security and held for police. Campis was held on $200 bail.

Carmen Mesa, 42, and her daughter Maria Mesa, 22, both of Newark were charged with shoplifting when they attempted to leave a Washington Ave. supermarket Sept. 9, with $40.00 worth of cosmetics. Both women were released on their own recognizance.

Michael Joseph Donlon, 48, of Bloomfield was charged with possession of a weapon, possession of a hypodermic needle, and possession of a controlled dangerous substance Sept. 9 in the parking lot of a Washington Ave. supermarket. Police were called to the scene when witnesses reported a man looking into vehicles in the parking lot. Police arrived and observed Donlon as the witnesses had described. The suspect told police he was looking for his own car which had been stolen earlier in the day. Police reported that the suspect appeared to be acting nervously. During a pat down search, police found a 6" fixed blade knife. During a search incidental to arrest, police also found two hypodermic needles on his person. Donlon was released on his own recognizance.

Angelo Dummodo, 43, of Belleville was charged with shoplifting from a Franklin Ave. drug store Sept. 7 at 3 p.m. A witness reported to the store's owner that the suspect was attempting to leave the store with cigarettes valued at $52.17. The suspect was released on his own recognizance.

Kevin Patrick Marino was held on $250 bail Sept. 5 after he was found to be driving while on the revoked list. Marino was stopped on Smallwood Ave. at approximately 10:45 p.m. He is scheduled to appear in municipal court Oct. 17.

Police were called to Montclair Community Hospital to take a report from a 23-year-old Montclair man who said he was robbed by three men Sept. 3 at about 10:45 p.m. on Belmont Ave. and Franklin St. The victim told police he was followed by three men who pushed him down and took his money but were scared off by a passing patrol car. The victim said he then went to the Glen Ridge Police on an unrelated matter.

A Floyd St. resident reported that a carpet valued at $1800 was stolen from his front porch between 6 p.m. Sept. 4 and 7:30 a.m. Sept. 5. The carpet measured 30x5'. A Cuzzo St. resident reported that someone ripped open his living room screen and entered his home Sept. 6 between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. The victim reported a 20" T.V., a Beta Converter and $10 in cash missing.

A Hornblower Ave. home was reported broken into Sept. 10 at 12:42 a.m. while the residents were away. Among the stolen property was a 19" color T.V. and numerous items taken from the bedroom.

Motor vehicle thefts were reported Sept. 4 on Heckle St., Sept. 5 on Main St., and Mill, Sept. 8 on Mill St., two on Washington Ave., and Eugene Pl. and Sept. 9 on William St.

Note: Police Beat is a representative sample of police calls in Belleville. The department responds to hundreds of calls each week and it is impractical to list every call.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

Why are United States Fighting Men in Saudia Arabia? It's about oil and about order. The free-market price for oil is about $10 a barrel. That is what it was in 1986, when OPEC was in total disarray. At the last OPEC meeting in July production quotas were assigned to get a price of $21. That's what the moderates wanted. Saddam wanted $25. The difference between $10 oil and $21 oil means, for the U.S., an extra $33 billion a year for oil imports. That doesn't even count an equal sum to domestic producers, or the dampening effect on the economy.

The extra $11 a bbl. would bring in around $22 billion a year for the Saudis. But now, because of our decision to defend them from Iraq, oil is selling for over $30 a bbl. and they decided to pump an extra 2 million bbl. a day. Meaning another $22 billion, plus an $18 billion premium on the 5.4 million bbl. a day they were already pumping. Meanwhile, we are paying for the oil and also paying untold billions to defend their right to pump freely.

The U.S. has never been clear about our national self-interest in cheap oil. Republican administrations, devoted to the free market, have tolerated or even eagerly promoted the oil-price fixing cartel.

As part of the Nixon Doctrine in the early 1970s, the U.S. looked the other way as Saudi Arabia and Iran raised oil prices, hoping they would spend the money on military equipment and become the "twin pillars" of Middle East stability. (The Middle East military machines financed by high oil prices have been those of Ayatullah Khomeini and Saddam Hussein.) In 1986 Vice President George Bush went to Riyadh and urged the Saudis to reduce oil production in order to "stabilize" — i.e., raise — prices.

Bush's mission was on behalf of American oil producers. But as a net importer, America has an overall national interest in paying as little as possible for oil. The oil price-fixing cartel is in flat violation of U.S. antitrust laws. American oil producers are, in effect, auxiliary members. If the OPEC ministers met in Houston, they could be arrested on the spot. Perhaps the fact that they meet in foreign countries makes them immune from our contempt. American soldiers should not die in the desert defending the oil kingdoms' right to flout the basic rules of free enterprise, to our enormous detriment.

Does cheap foreign oil create the danger of dependency? What is that danger? It is twofold: a run-up of price and a cutoff of supply. Our interest is in paying as little as possible for oil in the long run, not just today. Too low a price could be a sucker bait, discouraging alternative energy sources and conservation, and setting the stage for a bigger rip-off tomorrow. It is impossible to say what price today minimizes the long-run cost of oil for consumers. What you can say for sure is that oil producers have exactly the opposite objective: maximum revenue in the long run. Letting a producer cartel fix the price cannot be good for consumers.

And even if $21 oil, as opposed to $10 oil, today would save us from $50 oil in a few years, why pay that extra $11 to oil producers? Why not buy the oil for $10, slip on an $11 tax and pocket the difference ourselves? That would raise about $40 billion a year — just about enough to cancel the budget surplus.

The policy of two Republican administrations has been that it is better for the money to go into the treasury in Riyadh than into the Treasury in this country.

There should be a new understanding that all efforts to allocate production and set prices for oil are an insult to both the values and the interests of the U.S.

ISUPROFEN WARNING

A study which appeared in the "Annals of Internal Medicine" recently warned the public that the popular, over-the-counter pain reliever Ibuprofen could cause serious side effects. Specifically, some people could take enough of the drug, without exceeding the manufacturer's recommended dosage guidelines, to cause kidney failure. These groups most at risk include the elderly (particularly those who take diuretics), and people with kidney disease, congestive heart failure, or liver problems. All this comes as little news to doctors who were aware of Ibuprofen's potential side effects when the drug was sold only by prescription prior to 1985. Now, however, Ibuprofen is sold over-the-counter, and it is the consumer who must be aware of any potential risk associated with taking the drug.

We're serious about our commitment to the community. Friendly, helpful service including prompt filling of prescriptions, free delivery, and a full selection of over-the-counter products are yours when you come to ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. Many topics on health and medications will be featured in our column. Watch for items of interest in the upcoming weeks. Open: Daily 9am-10pm, Sundays 9am-5pm.

* NOTE: Anyone who takes large amounts of Ibuprofen on a regular basis should consult a doctor.

This year's Ball will be held at the Short Hills Hilton on Oct. 27 and will honor Raymond Carnes, MD, of New York, director of pathology at the hospital. Dr. Carnes has been on staff at Saint Michael's since 1964.

Tickets for the dinner-dance are priced at $175 per person and a souvenir journal will be distributed. For more information about dinner-dance tickets, contact the Office of External Affairs at Saint Michael's at 877-5494.

Saint Michael's Medical Center is a regional referral teaching hospital offering specialized services in cardiology, infectious disease, blood research, maternal/child care and other clinical programs.

Foster children are also eligible for free or reduced price meals. Application forms are available at your school and application can be made at any time during the school year. If a household member becomes unemployed, or the household size or income changes during the school year, parents should contact the school so that all children receive the proper benefits.

For the school officials to determine eligibility, the household must provide the following information listed on the application: names of household members; social security numbers of all adult household members; total household income and the type of income it is; and signature of an adult household member certifying that the information provided is correct. Households are required to report increases in household income of over $50 per month or $600 per year and decreases in household size. The school will advise parents of their child's eligibility within 10 working days of receipt of application. Any parent dissatisfied with the eligibility determination may contact the school to request an informal conference or by requesting a formal hearing. A hearing can be arranged by calling or writing Phyllis Burgess, 7 Sanford Ave., Belleville, N.J. 07000. Parents may call Kenneth Watson, 751-0200 for further information.

Once determinations are completed, school officials are required to verify a minimum of three percent of the approved free and reduced price applications on file.

In the operation of Child Nutrition Programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap. Also, the names of those receiving free and reduced price meals will be kept private. Children who receive free or reduced price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

passing Belleville in that area. He said recently-acquired money was spent on infrastructure repairs, and $40,000 which was granted by the Green Acres fund has been set aside to purchase and plant trees on Washington Avenue.

While improving the appearance of Belleville's "main drag" tops the committee's agenda, several members pointed out that Washington Avenue is not the only area in need of improvement. "We need to do focal point development...[wherein] we develop an entire area en masse, rather than initiating patchwork projects," Cozzarelli said.

Another resident present in the audience, former zoning board member Victor Canning, suggested the board take another look at the Walter Kidde site, a large, ratable-rich tract of land rezoned several years ago in the hopes that a commercial outfit would develop it. "Take a look at the site now," Canning said. "It's barren dirt. Nobody has done anything with it so far." During a discussion of possible uses for the property, which is currently assessed at over $3 million, restaurant chains such as Houlihan's and Bennigans were mentioned, as well as theater chains like Loews and RKO Cinemas.

Before the meeting was adjourned, board member Sam Lepore expressed hope for the future success of the committee. "I know there have been quite a few other committees like this one over the years; let's see if this advisory board can do a little bit better than the last ones."

His fellow committeemen, including Cozzarelli, Menza, Vice Chairman Lou Paraboschi, Secretary William Lentz, Jack Guerrera and Harry Groome, said they share that hope.

Band writes to troops

The members of the Belleville High School's Buccaneer Marching Band and Color Guard took time out during their recent week-long band clinic to write post cards to the Armed Forces personnel in the Middle East.

The post cards were sent as part of "Operation: Mail Call" being coordinated by the Star Ledger and WCBS News Radio. This program was started by the paper and the radio station as a way of getting mail to the troops, to show support and to let them know they were not forgotten.

The messages from the students were varied, but the basic sentiment was the same — come home safely! Some examples:

"I have friends over there fighting with you. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you." "Even though I do not agree with war, I wish you good luck and hope you come home safely." "Hi! Greetings from Belleville, NJ and the high school marching band. Just wanted to let you know you're not far from our thoughts or hearts. Best wishes for a safe return home." "Hey! We're all here for ya! Come home soon."

The award-winning Belleville Buccaneer Marching Band and Color Guard is under the direction of Joe Kraemer. The band is comprised of musicians from the middle school and the high school. The band and color guard perform at all the high school football games and take part in several marching band competitions each year.

OUR OPINION

Steven Perskie

Last week, Governor Jim Florio announced the re-assignment of his Chief of Staff to chair the New Jersey Casino Control Commission, the state regulatory agency for casinos.

Perskie has served in all three branches of government. He was elected to the Assembly in 1971; and as a member of that body, over the course of the next six years, he became Assembly Majority Whip, authored and sponsored three amendments to the State Constitution, including the amendment to permit casino gaming in Atlantic City.

Perskie was elected to the Senate in 1977; re-elected and chosen by his fellow Democrats as Majority Leader. Colleagues of that day recall that Perskie was extremely bright and demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities. Perskie left the Senate to accept appointment to the New Jersey Superior Court.

When Jim Florio announced that he was a candidate to replace the retiring Governor Tom Kean, Perskie was recruited to be his chief campaign advisor. After Florio was elected, Perskie was placed in charge of the Florio transition office.

Over the years, Perskie and Florio interfaced so well that one could say that Florio and Perskie were — perfect together.

When Perskie assumed the assignment to head up Florio's gubernatorial office as Chief of Staff, it was understood he would serve for so long as required to accomplish the adoption of Governor Florio's program. Over a period of five months, Perskie was very instrumental in lining up the legislative support Florio needed to adopt a governmental program which was all-encompassing.

No governor's chief of staff had a more challenging job than the one Perskie undertook to persuade the party faithful in the Legislature that support of the Governor's legislative package would be to the benefit of our state and the Democratic Party. Perskie's performance in his job was the envy of prior Chiefs of Staff. Having successfully completed his assignment, Perskie was looking for the first opportunity to return to his native Atlantic County where he could resume his primary concerns of being a good father and dedicated husband.

The Perskie name is a public service tradition in Atlantic County. Steve's father was the late Atlantic County Judge David M. Perskie. Steve is the grandson of the late New Jersey Supreme Court Justice Joseph B. Perskie.

His deep Atlantic County roots keep pulling him back to the county of his birth and to the home of the family he loves.

The success of the casino industry is vital to the prosperity of our entire state — but especially south Jersey. The industry draws people from not only all parts of the United States, but it is also a world center for people who enjoy the beach and the attraction of the casinos. The casino industry is in dire need of fixing — and nobody is better able to do the job than Steve Perskie. Perskie is the right choice at the right time, to turn around the fortunes of the casino industry. And what the casino industry needs most is a Mr. Integrity. Perskie is the man.

Tax the other guy — he is richer than I

Two students persisted in charging the free market economy — and, of course, Ronald Reagan — with every crime visited upon animals, vegetables and minerals. The students insisted that wealth should be distributed equally and that government can best assist in that pursuit.

The professor turned to the students, both of whom were otherwise bright and calm laude types (straight "A's"), and asked them a simple question: "In fairness to your fellow students who have not attained "A" grades, would you two be willing to accept a "C" grade so that I could raise the grades of those students who had failed the course?"

Of course not! For it is so easy to demand that "the rich" (billionaires, folks who live in Ridgewood, guys who drive Cadillacs and even hardworking Belleville homeowners) give up their earnings, their income, to redistribute to others of us. Some folks believe "it is okay to tax the hell out of my neighbor next door, but please do not put higher taxes on me — for he has a bigger pool than I enjoy!"

The concept then, that municipalities in New Jersey must line up before Washington and Trenton for more redistribution of income from taxpayers is bad economics, to be sure, for it makes municipalities more dependent on redistribution through bigger and bigger state government.

Moreover, to impose higher taxes on income, on purchases, on fuel use, so as to redistribute — including redistribution to politicians and bureaucrats on all levels — runs counter to traditions, time-honored American values. It creates envy, one of the seven capital (deadly) sins, political ploy for demagogues.

"Tax the rich" soon becomes nothing less than a demonic urge to tax anyone with more money. That is envy and that is socialism.

YOUR OPINION

Shade Tree Commission's first big decision

To the editor:

The following letter was sent to Mayor Marina Perna: Dear Mayor Perna:

A comment on the new Shade Tree Commission's first "big decision" to remove a healthy red oak tree on Wallace Street which the original Shade Tree Commission decided should not be removed. Despite the fact that the tree is to be safe, healthy and non-threatening, the new commission of private citizens, not experts has decided that it is "dangerous" and will fall over during a hurricane! This is ridiculous. The tree is probably 100 years old and its roots are likely to stretch two blocks over. It is not leaning over in any direction. Its trunk is 101 inches in diameter and it is a hard wood tree. A Belgian block or concrete curb could be constructed around the base of the tree eliminating the necessity to cut any roots, thereby eliminating any possible danger of the tree falling down.

Although angered and saddened, I am not surprised at the decision. The new shade tree commission, with the exception of two members, doesn't have much knowledge of trees. There are some beautiful trees in Belleville. How many of these trees will be considered "dangerous" by this shade tree commission? And for what reason?

Senior volunteers

To the editor:

This letter is in regards to your editorial of Sept. 6, where you insinuate that the senior citizens of Belleville went out in force to vote against the Board of Education budget. How do you know how many senior citizens voted or how they voted?

Before you try degrading the senior citizen, do some homework on the senior citizens. In your Belleville Police Beat column there is never a senior citizen who is arrested for shoplifting, rape, robbery, drug abuse, murder or hit and run accidents.

Check your hospitals and you will see the majority of volunteers are senior citizens. The senior citizens deliver hot lunches to the sick and the shut-ins. Check your nursing homes, hospitals, and the underprivileged and you will learn that it is the senior citizen ladies who knit and crochet blankets, hats, lap robes and wheel chair bags free at their own expense. The Senior Citizens Club of Belleville was one of the first to send stamps to our service people in Kuwait.

You stated that Belleville has 12% senior citizens. It is too bad that Belleville doesn't consist of 50% senior citizens, then we would have a town to be proud of. All of the surrounding towns have senior citizen housing except Belleville. It was only through the efforts of former Mayor Marrotti that the seniors have a clubhouse.

Remember your senior citizens of today are the same young people who went out in 1941-1945 to make the world safe for democracy. In the future bite your tongue before you throw brick bats at the seniors.

Maroo Splendoria

Respect St. Joseph

To the editor:

I have read that homeowners, who are finding it difficult to sell their homes, have resorted to the "voodoo-like" practice of burying little statues of Saint Joseph in their backyards, in hopes of conjuring up a buyer for their long-listed property. Such religious shenanigans, most definitely, smacks of disrespect for the memory of St. Joseph.

I'm sure real estate people will agree with me that it would be far wiser for homeowners to offer their homes for sale, at a realistic, non-inflated selling price — than calling upon 'ol Saint Joe to perform miracles.

Thanks Police dept.

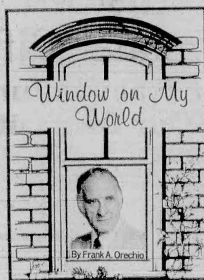

To the editor:

I wish to thank the Belleville Police Department after they were called to my home on Friday evening, Sept. 7th. I was alone and heard noises, so they searched my house inside and out relieving my fears before they left.

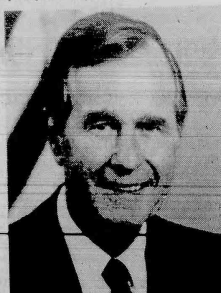

Thanks for your immediate response, your courtesy and your extreme professionalism. It's good to know "there's a cop around when you need one."

There is never enough appreciation shown for the constant good work our B.P.D. does — 24 hours a day — 7 days a week.

• THE SUMMIT meeting of President George Bush and Mikhail Gorbachev should send a strong message to the Iraqi president, Saddam Hussein. Implicit in the president's press conference comments is the message that the United States reserves the right to use military force to terminate the Iraqi takeover of Kuwait. George Bush's handling of the Kuwait invasion incident is to be commended. George, I support you 100 percent.

President George Bush

• THE NUTLEY tax rate increased 61¢. Of the increase, 4¢ is attributed to Essex County government. The increase for the Nutley public school system is 59¢, and the increase for Town Hall 39¢, and the total for all purposes is 138¢. The total for all purposes is $19,559,911, which includes bond amortization and payments for pension, payroll and taxes.

• LAST WEEK, a federal judge ruled it is racially discriminatory for communities to require police officers, firefighters and other municipal employees to live in the towns they serve. The case revolved around the Township of Harrison which has no black residents.

The federal judge made a mistake — community residents should be given preference for vacancies of police officers, firefighters and other municipal positions — regardless of color or religion.

• FOR MORE than a quarter of a century, the St. Mary's Knights of Columbus organization, without the benefit of blaring trumpets, has quietly gone about its business as an extension of the charitable work performed over the years by the priests of St. Mary's Church. Truly, they are Knights in white shining armor. Many evenings, and days, they attend meetings, sacrificing family home life to meet the objectives of membership in the Knights of Columbus. The significance of the Knights of Columbus can be viewed as a community treasure.

• LAST SUMMER, Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alessio sponsored his popular, annual family picnic on the Nutley grounds of the International Telephone and Telegraph. An event that usually draws 1,000 Essex County residents, witnessed at least 2,000 people of all ages take time out from family Sunday duties to honor Essex County's most popular public official, Nutley's very own Tom D'Alessio. He appeared in excellent health and enjoyed the festivities as much as his guests. Among the notables attending were United States Senators Bill Bradley and Frank Lautenberg; State Senators Ronald Rice and Carmen Orechio; Essex County Executive Nick Amato; Essex County Freeholder Director Joe Paravacchio and the popular boss of the Essex County Democratic Chairman Ray Durkin.

• A NUTLEY youth, Lance Corporal Arthur Rego, is serving in Saudi Arabia. His mother called the Nutley Sun to order a subscription for her son. Not only will it be complimentary, but we're adding subscriptions to the Belleville Times and Bloomfield Life, just to give Rego the flavor of our neighborhood. Good luck and God Bless You, Arthur. My best and your buddies.

• THE NUTLEY League of Women Voters mailed a flyer with its monthly bulletin calling attention to a scheduled dinner for 6:30, Thursday, September 27th at the Nutley Museum where attendees will listen to Dr. Joan Goldstein speak on the requirement for clean food and water — which she insists is a fight for a basic human right. I agree. The charge is $10, and for reservations, you are invited to call Anne Lynne Eisenfelder at 667-3013.

• THE Star Spangled Banner has been abused these past couple months. The abuse started with Rosanne Barr who delivered a screeching rendition of a cherished American treasure. Soon thereafter, Irish pop singer, Sinéad O'Connor, refused to permit the national anthem when she appeared on her recent New Jersey concert. Reacting to this defilement of a national symbol, last week, radio stations banned her records, and veterans boycotted her shows. Three cheers for them!

• CBS and Dan Rather should receive the gratitude of a nation for bringing us to the front lines of the Saudi Arabia/Iraq confrontation.

• NO DOUBT there are youngsters who look forward to the end of summer, and going back to school, as joyful as a trip to the dentist. There are still others, hungry for knowledge, who can't wait for the first bell to ring. If there are any young readers of this column contemplating dropping out of school, let me assure you it will be one of the greatest mistakes of your young lives.

I was a high school drop-out. I left school in the second half of my sophomore year. This was a secret I didn't share with any members of my family. During the following summer, I somehow came to my senses, decided to return to school, doubled up on my major subjects and ended up graduating with my grammar school graduating class.

So — I really completed high school in three and a half years. It was wrong for me to drop out of high school, and I was just lucky to redirect my energies and time to complete that important phase of my education. I would plead with any young person considering leaving school — please don't do it. You'll regret it for the rest of your life.

• THE frequent murders in New York City are frightening. Innocent people are shot dead in the street, hard-working cabbies are murdered for their wallets, and crime seems to be rampant and uncontrollable in America's major city. Hell will have to freeze over before I cross the Hudson River. Our tri-town area of Nutley, Belleville and Bloomfield is one of the safest in the nation. Let's enjoy it while we can.

Driving each other crazy

Even in the most ideal home environments, family members have a unique way of "driving each other crazy." Here are a few frequently-voiced family peevs, provided in a humorous tone.

WIVES SAY:

1. Husbands can never find their car keys, sunglasses, aspirin, or a jar of mustard in the refrigerator.

2. Husbands bring home the wrong items from the supermarket, and spend money on gourmet snacks while forgetting to buy the milk.

3. Husbands buy them chocolate when they're dieting, flowers that wilt in a day and clothing that's two sizes too small.

4. Husbands leave their shoes in the living room, throw their T-shirts into the laundry-wrong side out and toss their dirty socks under the bed.

HUSBANDS SAY:

1. Wives, at laundry time, lose their socks and don't turn T-shirts right side out.

2. Wives are late for every occasion — except lunch with the 'girls' and hairdresser appointments.

3. Wives cut coupons from the newspaper before they get a chance to read it.

PARENTS SAY:

1. Teens prefer toiletries, hair-care products and freshly-ironed clothes belonging to other family members.

2. Teens can hear the phone ring from a distance of 5,280 feet, but can't hear a call for dinner from the next room.

3. Kids keep whatever they borrow — be it tools, scissors, calculators or money.

4. Kids can never be found when it's time to mow the lawn, run an errand, or take out the trash.

KIDS SAY:

1. Parents make them wear sweaters because their parents are cold.

2. Parents won't allow them to breakfast on Cherry Coke and leftover pizza.

What can family members do about the family crazies???? Before you reach your boiling point, find a quiet spot, kneel down and ask God for His help — JUST FOR TODAY — There's no sense in worrying about tomorrow. Take things one day at a time ... Remember: One day at a time. God is in control of all situations.

Provided by a matching grant from the Essex County Division of Cultural and Historic Affairs Block Grant Program, the Pushtart Players will perform at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center in a presentation entitled, "Stone, Soup, and Other Stories," at 7 p.m. This program is part of Theater '90, '91 at the library. Rooted in the belief that the arts are basic to education, the Pushtart Players join the literary movement with a collection of folk tales brought to life through the magic of storytelling. "Stone, Soup, and Other Stories" contains story favorites from Africa, India, Eastern Europe, and our own United States. It is filled with humor, fantasy, color, and wit, with each tale gently raising value clarification issues as well.

Maureen Cullen bride of Steven Browning

Maureen Virginia Cullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cullen of Nutley, was married June 2 to Steven Craig Browning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Browning of Totowa and the late Barbara Browning.

Dr. John G. Wightman, pastor of First Congregational Church, Westfield, performed the ceremony in St. Paul's Congregational Church, Nutley. A reception followed at the Gondola, Nutley.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta gown, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves and detachable cathedral train. It was accented with pearls and sequins. A circlet of pearls and sequins held her veil and she carried a bouquet of white and pink roses, stephanotis and gladioli.

Debbie Cullen of Nutley was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Lisa Russomanno of Edison, Marianne Glynn of Nutley, Jaye Marrota of Wayne and Nora and Erin Maguire of Nutley.

They were in bubble gum pink taffeta gowns with sweetheart necklines and puffed sleeves and carried bouquets of spring flowers in shades of pink, white and lavender.

The bride's cousins, Sherrie Harris of Richmond, Va. and Holly Taylor of Freeman, Va., were attendants. Connie Byrnes of Nutley read the scripture and Helen Maguire of Nutley was mistress of ceremonies.

Paul Darrigo of Totowa served as best man. Ushering were Bruno Vitale of West Paterson, Frank De Ceglie of Totowa, Bill Marrota of Wayne, Ken Browning of Landisburg, Pa., brother of the groom and Jim Eifler of West Paterson.

Mrs. Cullen chose a periwinkle blue chiffon gown for her daughter's wedding while the groom's mother was in royal blue summer satin. Wristles were of pink roses.

Mrs. Browning, an alumna of Rutgers University, New Brunswick, is a sales representative with Deer Park Water, Lodi.

Mr. Browning, also a Rutgers University graduate, is the manager of Terrace Inn, Totowa.

A: Hoarseness is an alteration in the normal production of the voice by the vocal cords.
- Q: What are the causes of hoarseness?

A: Anyone who has hoarseness persisting for two weeks.
- Q: Have there been recent advances in the diagnosis of hoarseness?
A: Yes. With the FLEXIBLE FIBEROPTIC LARYNGOSCOPE, a complete examination of the voice box can be done in the office without discomfort.

Belleville Times SPORTS

BUCK SHOTS

By Mike Lamberti

Football is flying on every level. The latest addition to the gridiron madness is the Belleville Jr. Bucs, who will field three teams in the Suburban Twin County Football League (STCFL). This is Belleville's second year in the STCFL. The teams will be in three age brackets, the "A" team, ages 12 and 13, the "B" team, ages 10 and 11 and the "C" squad, for ages 8 and 9.

Joe DeRiggi will oversee the operations of the three Belleville entries. In addition to serving as director, DeRiggi will coach the "B" squad.

This Friday, there will be a Junior Buc Pep Rally at Doc Ellis Field, commencing at 7 p.m.

"All the players will be in full uniform and will be announced to the fans," DeRiggi said. "The cheerleaders will be there, too. It should be a nice evening."

The "A" team will be coached once again by Bill Abrams. Assisting him will be Vin Strumolo, Gerard Corbi, Anthony Svehla and Vito D'Allesio.

As mentioned, the "B" squad is led by DeRiggi. Assisting him will be Frank Stanco, Ralph DeTona, Joe Veneziano, Ray Rafferty and Victor Cannino.

Leading the "C" team for the second straight year is Bob Haug. The assistant coaches are Ted Smith, Adam Pappas, John Valli, Rich Bello and Paul Disporito.

There are eight games on the 1990 schedule. The season opens this Sunday, with a game at Warrnake. In each game this season, the "C" squad plays first, followed by the "B" team, then the "A". This Sunday, the game times are 11:15 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m.

On Sunday September 23, Belleville is at Manchester. Kickoff times are 11:15 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m.

The home opener is set for Sunday, September 30. West Paterson will provide the opposition, with game times of 12 noon, 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.

On Sunday, October 7, Butler comes to town, with the same three kickoff times as the West Paterson game.

In week five, Belleville will play under the lights. The Jr. Bucs venture to nearby Lyndhurst on Saturday evening, October 13. The games will be played at Breslin Field. Kickoff times there are 5 p.m., 6:30 and 8 p.m.

Week six sees Belleville come home for a game with arch rival Nutley on Sunday, October 21. Kickoff times for these big games are 12 noon, 1:30 and 3 p.m.

On October 28, Belleville is home to Clifton, with games starting once again at noon.

The regular season concludes on Sunday, November 4, with a game at Paterson. The first game will start at 11:15 a.m., followed by a 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m. game.

After the regular season, the top teams will take part in the playoffs. Belleville is a member of the American Conference. After the playoffs, the STCFL championship game will be contested sometime in late November, matching the American Conference winner and the National Conference champ.

"There will be two playoff games and then the championship game," DeRiggi said.

The Times will be providing weekly coverage of the Junior Bucs, starting with the results of the season opens next week.

NFL PICKS

We did pretty well for the first week, hitting 9 of 14. Among our winners were San Francisco, the Giants and Atlanta. We hit the exact score of the Dallas-San Diego game, with Dallas winning 17-14.

For this week, look for the Jets to win their first game of the season over Cleveland, 24-14. The upset of the week is in Dallas, where we're picking the Cowboys for an early season upset over the Giants, 20-19. In other games, Detroit 24 Atlanta 23, Buffalo 27 Miami 17, Green Bay 24 Chicago 20, San Diego to pull a minor upset over Cincinnati 27-24, New England 23 Indianapolis 20, Tampa Bay 16 Los Angeles Rams 14, Philadelphia 30 Phoenix 17, Minnesota 24 New Orleans 17, LA Raiders 17 Seattle 10, Washington to beat the 49ers 23-21, Pittsburgh 28 Houston 24 and on Monday night, Kansas City 21 Denver 17. For the week, 9-5, for the season, 9-5.

SPORTS NEWS

As much as I don't like the Mets, you've got to admire this team for being in the thick of the race year in and year out. They're consistent winners who keep their fans interested for the entire campaign.

Did you see the U.S. Open Finals? Pete Sampras looks like he'll be a top player for years to come. John McEnroe proved he still has some good years ahead of him, too.

Just a reminder to Lynn Mariani. Only 16 more weeks, that you possibly stand it? (Open that package!)

Only 264 more days to the John Engel Memorial Day Picnic. Don't forget the Sam Gluffrida five mile run, which is set for October 21. The race will start and end at Belleville High School.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The matchups in the first round of the '82 AFC playoffs were Pittsburgh-San Diego, Miami-New England, Jets-Cincinnati and L.A. Raiders-Cleveland. The semi final round featured the Raiders and Jets and Miami-San Diego.

FOR THIS WEEK

The 1984 Detroit Tigers went wire-to-wire in winning the American League East. Detroit then dominated in post season play, losing just one game en route to a world championship. What team beat the Tigers in post season play? Who did the Tigers play in the AL championship series? Who did they play in the World Series? What pitcher from that Tigers team won the '84 Cy Young Award?

THIS JUST IN...

Buccaneer football coach John Senesky has announced that the final pre season game is set for Saturday morning, at 10 a.m., from Doc Ellis Field. The Bucs will take on Livingston in a full game scrimmage. If you get a chance, stop down and see the team play in its final tune up before next week's opener.

Bucs home to Hackensack next Friday

Final push is on for opener

A teachers strike didn't deter the Belleville football team from playing its first scrimmage last Saturday morning. Due to a job action at Columbia High School, the coaching staff was forced to make some last minute scheduling changes for the opening scrimmage.

Head coach John Senesky and Athletic Director Karen Fucello did some quick work on the telephone and the result was a tri-scrimmage with Wayne Hills and Marist High from Bayonne at Wayne Hills.

"It was an interesting set up," Senesky said. "We didn't know anything about Wayne Hills or Marist. Consequently, we went into the games cold. There was no preparation or scouting for those teams."

"We were very pleased with the way our kids reacted to the game. They moved the ball well against both teams. For the first scrimmage, especially under those circumstances, we fared well."

Senesky was especially pleased with the speed factor from his team. "We're a little quicker than last season and we're more aggressive. We made some big plays and we were up against a very big team in Wayne Hills."

Senesky is right on target when he refers to Wayne Hills as big.

"I haven't seen a team that big since we played some of those Union teams. But our kids played well, they moved the ball and held their blocks. That's what we're trying to teach them right now. If they can hold their blocks for that second or two, we can get the necessary yards on the ground. We've been teaching technique a great deal and it helped out."

Because the turnout was not especially large this season, Senesky has had the opportunity to play a lot of athletes.

"We're trying to take a look at 40 kids in the scrimmages," Senesky said. "Just about everyone got in last week, some in limited action. We'll be looking to our senior class for a lot, but we expect to work on the untapped wealth of younger players on the roster, too."

The Bucs next scrimmage was last Tuesday, when it faced Hanover Park in a passing scrimmage. This afternoon, the team is at Bayley Ellard, starting at 4 p.m. The final tuneup is set for Saturday against Livingston.

Tentatively, that scrimmage will be at 10 a.m. from Belleville High School. Senesky cautioned that those plans could change and it could be played at Livingston. The final plans weren't going to be announced until late in the week.

The season opener, of course, is set for next Friday, against Hackensack, at Belleville High.

There are just 12 seniors on the team this season. Senesky is quite optimistic about the upperclassmen contributions.

"The seniors are providing some very good leadership," the coach said. "Most of the kids have varsity experience from last year and they are looking forward to playing this season."

Art Caruso is the leading candidate to open at quarterback this season. Caruso, according to Senesky, has developed into a fine passer, rather than just a thrower.

"Right now, we're working with Artie in reading defenses and finding the open man," Senesky said.

Ryan Wells will play at wing back and defensive back. Wells, a fine athlete, saw a great deal of varsity action last season. Bill Salvatore, who has done a fine job in blocking and running, should be the fullback.

Carmen Spina has been outstanding at halfback. Spina has good moves and excellent speed in the open field.

Sean Kimball has made a strong comeback from a knee injury and should be a big asset in the offensive backfield. Jason Nardachone will play split end. The senior has excellent hands and good speed. Nardachone could also see action in the defensive secondary.

Rich Ferruggia will center the offensive line and will also be at linebacker. Anthony Papanicolaou has looked good at offensive guard and defensive nose tackle.

Steve Caponi, who excelled in the power index and decathlon, will play at defensive end and offensive tackle. Caponi had an excellent scrimmage last Saturday.

Jim DuHaime returns to his defensive end and tight end positions. Another man with excellent strength, DuHaime will be a valuable player on both sides of the line.

Billy Gray is expected to play inside linebacker and offensive guard. Jim Mastropolo, who also played very well in last Saturday's scrimmage, is expected to see action at offensive guard and nose tackle.

The players just mentioned are the seniors on the '90 roster. Senesky is hoping that with the fine group of underclassmen on the team, a depth factor can be established.

"The ideal situation would be that most of the kids won't have to play on both sides of the line," Senesky said. "That's our goal at this stage of the season."

Senesky feels he will know a lot more about his opening day lineup after this week. The team will have three exhibitions and then will get ready for the opener next Friday.

Cross country team looking to recruits for 1990 season

The call is out from Belleville cross country coach John Tosato. Hoping to round out his 1990 team, Tosato is looking to Belleville High School for a few good men and women to wear the running shoes.

"Our first race is scheduled to be this week," Tosato said. "At this point, it will probably be next Tuesday, when we race at St. Joe's. We're expecting a few runners this week and hope to have our team rounded out by the end of the week. So, if anyone at the high school would like to run, they should let me know as soon as possible."

In order to field a team, a minimum of five runners are necessary. Tosato emphasized that the roster doesn't stop at five and that anyone at the high school is welcomed to try out.

Century 21 Stanford Agency is a service organization dedicated to maintaining the highest level of professionalism and integrity in the field of Real Estate. These professionals understand that buying and moving to a new home is a thrilling yet busy time. It often means adjusting to new schools, new jobs and a new community.

By any standards, Century 21 Stanford Agency is an innovative pacemaker in the volatile, highly competitive real estate industry. The firm is a growing presence in relocation services for corporations and families, for example. It also has a strong capability in the commercial investment market.

While there are many reasons for Century 21 Stanford Agency's growth since the firm began in 1981, one key is the high quality of real estate services. Service quality is rooted in their system of extensive and continuous professional education, for example. And in constant monitoring of performance.

Another reason for Century 21 Stanford Agency's success has been its ability to capture public awareness. Their gold jackets, yard signs, weekly informative columns, as well as their involvement in many community projects has made Century 21 Stanford Agency virtually synonymous with real estate sales to the home buying and selling public. The professionals at Century 21 Stanford Agency are committed and responsive to community real estate needs.

One result from Century 21 Stanford Agency's professionalism, dedication and constant thirst for knowledge to remain in tune with an ever changing market has been the consistent growth in referrals from past clients. Much of their business is, in fact, repeat business from satisfied clients. Insistence on quality service, professional education and their membership in the largest franchised real estate system, Century 21, has hit pay dirt in consumer confidence as well as awareness.

As part of Century 21 Stanford Agency's commitment to fully service their valued customers, they now offer financial services. Their insurance account executive is always on hand to answer your insurance and financial questions. Personal service insures that you have the best protection at competitive rates.

Century 21 Stanford Agency has more than 20 sales representatives serving the Nutley, Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge area. These trained agents are able to provide homeowners with accurate, realistic evaluations of their home's value in today's market. Buyers and Sellers may call Century 21 Stanford Agency at 235-9000 seven days a week.

Century 21 Stanford Agency also provides an opportunity for persons to explore the financial and personal benefits of a career in Real Estate. Their Broker, Nina Kaeser, is always on hand to answer questions about the training, licensing requirements, income potential, and opportunities in real estate sales and management. The company is on a growth and expansion move and is looking to substantially increase their staff. Interested persons should contact Nina Kaeser at 235-9000.

The emergence of the full service real estate office is the wave of the future for Century 21 Stanford Agency. Its office is located at 86 Union Ave., Nutley.

Bloomfield Estates reduces price of model home and lots

Joseph A. Fucetola has announced a price reduction in the model home at Bloomfield Estates. The four-bedroom model is now being offered at $315,500.

Fucetola, President of Bloomfield Estates and the developer of such prestigious communities as Cedar Hill Condos and Park Ridge Estates, both in Cedar Grove, also confirmed that there are 10 building lots available at Bloomfield Estates.

"There are more values here than homebuyers can imagine," stated Milton Eng, the Schlott sales agent managing the Bloomfield Estates Project. "The model offers four bedrooms, a dining room, and a large eat-in kitchen that features quality cabinets, recessed lighting, and sliding doors that open to a 10x12 deck."

A unique feature of the model is its cathedral windows. Other features include a master bedroom with its own bath, double vanity and dressing room. The three other second-floor bedrooms are served by a full bath.

The new $315,500 price covers all of the above in addition to a two-car garage, fully finished basement, and wall-to-wall carpeting throughout. "Families searching for the most for their housing dollar should make every effort to tour this model," Eng added.

Fucetola and Eng cheerfully insist that the reduced price model is only one of the many values available at Bloomfield Estates. For an affordable $262,000, homebuyers can build a home on one of the 10 available building lots. "These lots vary slightly in size," Fucetola said, "but no matter which lot homebuyers select, they can build according to our plans, or we can build according to theirs." All homes come with a Homeowner's Warranty.

Bloomfield Estates is located in the Brookdale section of Bloomfield. It is two blocks from the Oakview Elementary School and close to New York City transportation.

To reach Bloomfield Estates, take the Garden State Parkway to Exit 151, and follow Watchung Ave. East one block. At the end of Watchung Ave., turn left onto East Passaic which becomes Barnett Street. At end of Barnett, turn right on to Sylvan Road. Take first left on to Kinder Drive, and follow Kinder to 32 Pieretti Court.

Joseph A. Fucetola has announced that this 4-bedroom model home at Bloomfield Estates has recently been reduced to $315,500.

Did You Know??

Set off a table centerpiece of late-harvest vegetables and autumn leaves with a touch of gold: gold artichokes and nuts with gold or copper paint.

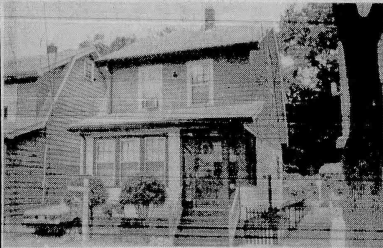

If a wood floor is finished with polyurethane or other penetrating sealer or a resin-based finish, it can be dusted now and then with a barely-damp mop. But if the floor's in poor condition, or unfinished, don't permit even that much water to contact the wood.

Don't think you have room for a little pantry in your kitchen? Utilize the space between the walls! Remove a section of wall-board or plaster and fit shelves between the studs.

To paint a garage floor, choose a latex deck paint that won't come off when hot tires roll onto it. Clean floor thoroughly before painting.

"PITI" is real estate/banking shorthand for the elements — loan principal, interest, real estate taxes and insurance — that make up your monthly payment to your lender.
