SUBSTANTIAL DAMAGE - A tow truck hauls away the wreck of a stolen car which was driven into a telephone pole Monday afternoon. Police in a cruiser waiting for a red light on the scene quickly arrested both men. The driver and passenger were both from Newark and the car had been stolen earlier in Jersey City. ## Two injured when stolen car is driven into telephone pole

By Joyce M. Steel

Two Newark men were seriously injured Monday when the stolen vehicle they were driving careened into a telephone pole on Rutgers Street, police said.

An unidentified 17-year-old juvenile was driving the automobile, a 1989 Buick Electra, which was reported stolen last week in Jersey City. Rolando Castelli, 18, was a passenger in the vehicle.

Police said the two were traveling northbound on Washington Avenue at high speeds around 1 p.m. when they attempted to make a right onto eastbound Rutgers Street. The driver lost control of the car after executing the turn, jumped the curb and struck the pole.

At that time, two township police officers were in a patrol car on westbound Rutgers Street, waiting for a red light. They witnessed the accident and approached the vehicle, but the two men exited the car and attempted to flee.

"There was no chase," one officer on the scene said, "but they panicked when they saw the police car." Because the two had sustained injuries in the crash, police easily apprehended them.

The juvenile was charged with careless driving and driving without a license. Both suspects were charged with possession of a stolen motor vehicle. Unable to be driven, the car was towed from the scene, and no serious damage was done to the utility pole.

Castelli was taken to Clara Maas Medical Center, where he was admitted late Monday, and was undergoing surgery at prestime. The youth also was taken to Clara Maas, where he was treated and, according to police sources, released to an adult friend.

Wallace St. tree gets reluctant axe

Belleville's Shade Tree Commission voted 6-0 in favor of cutting down a red oak tree at 66 Wallace St. The tree which had more than eight inches of its sidewalk side trunk cut several years ago juts into the street beyond the curb about 8-10".

The commission decided that safety comes first, and cited the danger to snow plows and cars if the curb were bowed to accommodate the spreading trunk of the tree. The commission agreed unanimously that if the street side of the trunk were cut to accommodate a straight curb line, the safety of the tree would be undermined.

"The angle cut would weaken the tree," said Commissioner Joseph Porcello. "The tree might stand for some years, but how long, we don't know."

"I agree with my colleagues," said Commissioner Ralph Mazzuca. "No one wants to cut a tree down, in this instance, in order to continue the curbing, the cut would have to be made into the tree. In a good storm, the tree would come down."

Chairman Don Tucci said, "It's a point where we're putting life and limb ahead of a tree."

Barry Sutherland of Neglia Engineering, the firm overseeing the construction on Wallace St., said it was not possible to put curbing in to save the tree. "Construction of a curb would severely damage the tree."

Marie Valentinsson, a resident of Wallace St. who is opposed to removal of the tree, asked, "couldn't we go around?"

Tucci said that part of Wallace St. is well-traveled. "If it was a dead end, we might be able to get away with (leaving the tree). The town would be liable (for any injuries). For practical purposes, it's got to go down. It's in the way of progress."

"At this point, we have no choice. We're choosing not to go around it for safety reasons."

Valentinsson pointed to many trees lining Garden Ave. where the roots are growing over the curb.

"On Wallace St., you know how big the tree is. The key is," Mazzuca said, "one side has already been cut. It would stand the way it is now, but in order to make the curb meet, you have to cut the other side. We don't believe in cutting trees down."

"When the time comes, the town has an enormous task," Tucci said. "We will do everything we can as expeditiously as possible." He then pointed out that there is a state law mandating replacement of trees.

The Shade Tree Commission was scheduled to meet Sept. 19 to decide what kind of trees would be planted on Overlook and Wallace sts. Both streets were provided for repaving through a grant administered by Essex County.

According to grants consultant Frank Brooks of Bruno Associates, funding for tree plantings on both streets were included in the grant money.

Tucci said that many of the remaining tree were damaged during construction. "I want an estimate of the damage," He told Sutherland.

Sutherland said he would direct the contractor to get an arborist at the contractor's expense to recommend repairs to the trees.

"The damage was totally unnecessary," Tucci said.

During the meeting, At-Large Councilman Frank Noonan circulated photos of various types of trees and pointed to their growth rates. He told the commission that many nurseries are now having sales on trees for planting.

Noonan also said that recently planted trees on William St. are now approaching the power lines and should be trimmed soon.

The commission reiterated its position as to setting priorities. Tucci said the dangerous trees around schools should be addressed first. He said the commission would request a list of priorities from the Dept. of Public Works.

Tucci also said that any resident of Belleville should send a written request about any dangerous trees

Salary: 83K plus

Council names Kendall

By Anthony Buccino

The Township Council voted 6-1 in favor of hiring Bertrand Kendall as township manager beginning November 5 at an annual salary of $83,607. The contract will provide 5% raises in 1991 and 1992. Kendall will have use of a township-owned vehicle, an expense, account just under $3,500 for training and dues, and will receive the same health and medical benefits as other township employees.

At-large councilman Frank Noonan cast the lone dissenting vote against Kendall's appointment. In a prepared statement, Noonan expressed his own personal views. He said that Kendall is "eminently qualified for the job" and "well-regarded" in the other towns where he has worked, namely Cedar Grove, Montclair and Ridgewood. Noonan said, "I am very impressed by Mr. Kendall and I feel he could do a great job here in Belleville."

The councilman stated Kendall's "salary plus perks will be in the area of $100,000 per year. This salary is quite a bit higher than the salary of other managers in our area."

Noonan said other candidates would work for considerably less and that the council is "hiring the most expensive of all candidates for manager."

Noonan's main concern was to reduce property tax. He questioned, "How can a manager who is able to bargain for such a high salary ask others to forego their salary increases?"

He added, "we cannot reduce property tax until we reduce the cost of government. Salaries are 50% of the town budget, he said, and 35% is the normal amount of municipal budget that salaries should be. Reducing personnel cost whether for the manager or any other employee is paramount.

"So far we have done nothing to show that we are in any way interested in reducing the tax load on our year. In Belleville, he said, he would look at reducing the overall number of employees and cutting back benefits. He said in Montclair "we accomplished some staff reductions for different services." They were also able to work with other towns to consolidate services and save money, he added.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT - Bertrand Kendall (center) will become the town's permanent manager November 6. Here, he is flanked by Mayor Marina Perna (left) and Second Ward Councilman Frank Caputo.

"How Bellevillians," Noonan concluded.

Kendall notified the Village of Ridgewood Sept. 5 that he would be leaving to become Belleville's full-time township manager. He was in his third year of a four-year contract which called for him to move to Ridgewood in his fourth year. Belleville has placed no such restriction on the new manager, who lives in Montclair.

He will receive $83,607 per year as Belleville's township manager, this is the same as he was receiving in Ridgewood.

Kendall said he left Montclair as town manager in 1987 because he was "not particularly happy at that time in my career." As their first manager after a similar change of government, he served as there for seven years.

He said the municipal budget in Ridgewood had a 7% increase this Kendall said it is too early to say what he would do in Belleville, but he would be looking at policies in personnel and retirement benefits.

In the past, he said, he has coordinated major improvements to alternate between the board of education and the municipal government so that taxes would not jump all at once. He cited savings in Ridgewood when the village used an outside maintenance company for their parks dept. and other equipment. He said he would like to see local government "schedule things (such as major improvements) out, because competition means higher taxes."

Kendall said Belleville presents a "better challenge" and is only four miles from his home in Montclair. A Vietnam veteran, Kendall graduated from Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine. He

Mobil Mart continued to October meeting

The township planning board once again postponed making a decision regarding the proposed Mobil Mart which the gas station plans to build on its Franklin Avenue site.

Mobil Oil Corp. representatives attended last week's meeting to provide testimony in favor of the construction. Since its unveiling in December, 1989, the proposal has met with mixed reviews from area residents, but Mobil contends the project will beautify the area and make it convenient for patrons to purchase candy, soft drinks, cigarettes and other impulse items.

Although the proposed site for the Mobil Mart is zoned for residential use, Mobil will not need to request a variance to build the retail outlet. According to zoning ordinance 23-2.3, when a zoning border splits a parcel of land, the entire tract is zoned according to wherever the largest piece of land lies. Because more than half of Mobil's property sits on a business zone, the Mobil Mart is a permitted use.

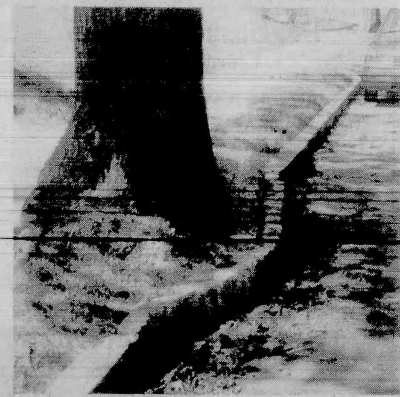

However, the oil company was forced to come before the planning board in April after Robert Domenick, the township's construction code official, deferred the decision. Since then, the township has wrestled with the legality of Mobil's proposal. Based on a separate ordinance, Domenick said a service station is limited to selling gasoline, oil, supplies and maintenance services for automobiles.

The board will take up the question again at its October meeting. In other business at the Sept. 13 meeting, the board unanimously voted to grant Roseland resident Elaine Perna, who owns the Sandy Lane Nursery School on Mill Street, to subdivide with the First Presbyterian Church of Belleville next door.

Perna, who is no relation to the new township mayor, said she had entered into a perpetual parking agreement with the church, allowing them to use her spaces on weekends. They, in turn, will permit her to use the church lot Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Perna said the nursery school has approximately 110 students between the ages of two and six, and parents drop off and pick up their children at staggered points during the day, alleviating the possibility of parking problems.

ALTERNATE SHELVED - A citizen's proposal to save the Wallace St. tree from the chainsaws by using a rounded stone curb as shown here on Clearman Pl. was not acceptable to the Shade Tree Commission for safety reasons.

A bomb threat was called into School 3 at 2:46 p.m. on Sept. 13. According to police, the school received a call from a woman, described as about thirty-years-old, stating there was a bomb in the ladies room. A check of the school by the Essex County Sheriff's K-9 unit, the Belleville Fire and Police depts. followed and no device found in the building.

Ralph Gonzalez, 39, of Irvington, was charged with D.W.I. Sept. 13 at 4:22 p.m. Gonzalez was observed on Forest St. driving in an erratic manner, striking a curb and driving slower than normal. When he was stopped, officers observed a strong odor of alcohol on his breath. He was brought to headquarters and given a Breathalyzer test. He was held on $250 bail.

Two Newark men were arrested Sept. 12 and charged with possession of stolen property and possession of burglary tools. Ismael Hernandez and Juan Raymond Ortiz, both 19, were observed by police running north across Cleveland St. towards a 1980 Pontiac. Hernandez was observed entering the driver's side and Ortiz emerged from behind the vehicle empty-handed. While officers were questioning the suspects, police headquarters received a call that an individual had observed 2 males carrying a large shiny object in a Washington Ave. car lot. Police investigation at the car lot revealed a missing front grill from an Oldsmobile Tornado. Police at the scene with the suspects found the grill in possession of Ortiz and Hernandez. Both men were released on $500 bail and are scheduled to appear in court Oct. 24.

Dana Ramos, 18, of Newark was charged with shoplifting Sept. 11, at 8:52 p.m. when she attempted to leave the store with $66.56 worth of merchandise. Ramos was stopped by store security and turned over to Belleville Police. She was released on her own recognizance.

Ernest Reeder, 28, of Newark was charged with burglary and theft at 7:47 p.m. on Sept. 10. Police officers, responding to an alarm at a Main St. business were met by the caller who said he observed a black male, jump out of a window. The witness said the suspect was carrying a bag and two telephones, which dropped from the bag when he jumped. He said the suspect was about 5'8" tall, slim, about 150 lbs. wearing a blue Yankee jacket, blue jeans and white sneakers, and carrying a yellow bag. Several blocks away, police observed an individual fitting the description, and following an investigation, charged him with burglary and theft. Reeder was held on $25,000 bond or $2,500 cash bail.

Clara Maass celebrates medical record week

This week Clara Maass Medical Center and hospitals across the nation marked the 62nd anniversary of the American Medical Record Association (AMRA) and Medical Record Week, Sept. 16-22.

Follow the Yellow Brick Road into the 90's — Medical Record Professionals Assuring Better Patient Care, is the theme for this year's medical record week.

"We appreciate all of the outstanding work done by our medical record staff, and we want them to know how vital they are to the Medical Center," said Denise Baker, Managing Director of Medical Records at Clara Maass Medical Center. Some of the activities planned for the observance include an open house and a luncheon held in honor of the medical record staff.

The local state chapter, known as the Medical Record Association (MRANA) has over 600 members who serve the community in various work settings such as hospitals, outpatient and rehabilitation centers, as well as accounting and consulting firms.

Today, society depends on information in every field. In the health care field, advances in medical science, legislative reforms, computerization, and the need to manage health care delivery systems and healthcare costs, have created a growing demand for information professionals — professionals with the knowledge and skills to process, analyze, and distribute health care information.

Future career opportunities for medical record professionals are numerous for those who may be interested in either a technical or management level position. The Department of Labor statistics recently listed the medical record technician as one of the fastest growing positions through the year 2000. For more information about the health information profession, write to: Medical Record Association of New Jersey Public Relations Committee, P.O. Box 267, High Bridge, New Jersey 08829.

Schwartz named at CMMC

Clara Maass Medical Center's ongoing commitment to provide new services and to enhance the quality of care, has resulted in the appointment of Malcolm Schwartz, M.D. to direct a staff of in-house pediatric physicians.

Dr. Schwartz, who currently maintains a practice in Paterson, will join the Medical Center's medical staff in September as director of Pediatric Services, within the Department of Pediatrics, headed by Rudolph V. Messina, M.D. In this capacity, Dr. Schwartz will be responsible for the pediatric in-house staff, making pediatric rounds, and the development and operation of all pediatric clinics at the Medical Center.

According to Dr. Messina, "The pediatric in-house staff will impact on all areas of pediatrics, including labor and delivery, the nursery, pediatrics and the emergency room. It will enhance and improve pediatrics care tremendously."

Dr. Schwartz, whose subspecialty is pediatric endocrinology will also become involved with a tertiary center, Children's Hospital in Newark, to make use of the subspecialty resources available at Children's Hospital. He will also hold a position on their teaching staff.

The pediatric in-house physician program at Clara Maass was developed with the assistance of Richard Rapkin, M.D., medical director of Children's Hospital.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

We gleaned from a front page story of the Nutley Sun by-lined by Alfred Cook in the August 30 issue captioned "Free lunch may mean lower taxes, State rebates tied to program" which possibly might prove helpful if studied by the Belleville Board of Education.

It read: "A $600 million deficit in the state coffers is bound to make itself felt everywhere in government including municipal education."

"So almost everyone these days is scrounging for money and John Singacalia, the Nutley school system's business administrator, thinks he's found a source that will save property taxes, but he said he needs the cooperation of parents."

"When Governor Jim Florio signed a school aid bill recently, he opened up a double door to benefit towns," he said.

"The bill, designed to help low income families by providing subsidized lunches for qualified children, and called the 'Children at Risk' program, will also aid municipalities by adding from $1,230 to $1,640 to the town treasury, the business administrator said."

"The more kids eligible for the free lunch program, the more the town benefits," said Singacalia, who is also secretary to the Board of Education. "The more we get, the more comes off property taxes. If we get $100,000 from this, that's $100,000 less in property taxes."

"This new 'At Risk' program replaces the 'Compensatory Education' system which has been used on helping students master basic skills with funds needed to help students in that 'catch-up' program."

"That money had to be used directly to benefit pupils needing help with basic skills."

"Not so this program, the amount paid by the state comes directly off the property tax bill."

"Last year there were 90 students in the subsidized lunch program," the official said.

"More quality, but because of peer pressure many don't even apply for the program," he said explaining that some young people don't want to admit to the need for aid.

Because of the direct effect these new rules have on property taxes, Singacalia said, "It's important that all those who qualify submit an application. It's not a matter of whether or not they actually eat that's important, it's that they qualify."

In a letter to be sent home to parents, Singacalia will say, "It is, therefore, very important that anyone who may be eligible for free lunch benefits should submit an application. You will be helping yourself and your community by doing this. Please help the Nutley schools obtain every dollar from the State of New Jersey for which they are eligible."

What with the mandatory threatening aspect of Belleville property owners being clobbered with a staggering $450 tax increase imposed on a $50,000 assessed property by the newly chosen Council persons, which leaves an irate citizenry angry as hell and sorry they ever voted for this costly Council form of municipal government ... we had better scrounge around to scrape up the extra money or lose the homestead.

Had the Commission type of government been retained the only slight County tax increase would have been imposed. The new Council's restoring $633,527 to the school board budget, after it was voted down by the people, hiked the town budget by 15 points on top of their 17 point increase above the budget the Commission group had settled on within their budget.

Who's sorry now? Almost all Belleville taxpayers!

Middle School Back to School Night

The administration and staff of Belleville Middle School cordially invite the parents of Belleville Middle School students to attend a "Back to School Night" scheduled for Sept. 26, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The evening will open with a Home and School meeting conducted by Annette De Rigi, president of the HSA. Mario DiMaggio, middle school principal, will then introduce the staff.

This is the evening set aside for parents to become acquainted with their children's school.

Besides reminiscing their own school days, parents follow a mini-version of their child's daily schedule. They meet with individual subject matter teachers where introductions to courses are given. They see the various texts that are utilized and become aware of specific goals and course requirements. Guidance counselors are also available to discuss any problems.

A big turn out for this special evening is anticipated with the aim of strengthening parental involvement and fostering good teacher/parent interaction.

Chan a U.S. citizen

Wan Yin Chan, a seventh grade student at Belleville Middle School, proudly became a U.S. citizen on Sept. 6. The oath of citizenship was administered at the courthouse in Newark.

Yat Ming Chan, Wan Yin's father, also became a citizen on that day. The Chans were joined with 96 adults and 1 other child as new citizens. Her mother, Rebecca Chan, has been a citizen since 1988.

The Chan family, who are Cantonese arrived from Hong Kong in 1984. Wan Yin was six years old at the time. They lived in Nutley prior to moving to Belleville five years ago.

Wan Yin previously attended Belleville School Number Three. She has one younger sister, Wai Yin. Wai Yin enjoys roller skating and piano playing in her spare time.

B.M.S. English students support 'Desert Shield'

English teachers at Belleville Middle School welcomed students back to the new school year with a twist on the standard writing lesson. Rather than the all-too-familiar "What I did on my summer vacation" composition, B.M.S. students became morale boosters for our soldiers in the Gulf Crisis.

The middle school's English teachers in conjunction with the Star Ledger participated in a letter writing campaign to service members who are overseas. The students were given paper and envelopes, but brought in their own stamps, one for sending their letters, and one to enclose so that the service man or woman could write a reply. They wrote the letters in English classes under the guidance of an always innovative English Dept.

The students updated the service members about things going on here at home, sports scores, weather and personal information about favorite teams, foods and more. They also asked questions about the person getting the letter such as age, interests and home town.

The biggest concern most letters expressed was the element of fear. "Are you scared?" was seen very often. Another concern was the heat.

The students closed their letters with statements of support and thanks. Some even extended invitations to visit Belleville Middle School some time in the future.

The B.M.S. English Dept. consists of six teachers under the directorship of Paula Cummins. The six teachers have a combined total of 113 years teaching experience. They are constantly working toward the improvement of writing skills in a variety of ways. This lesson not only worked on letter writing (quickly becoming a lost art) but also national pride and current events.

The letters are being sent to military chaplains to distribute through the Star Ledger - WCBS NEWS 88 MAIL CALL. Those service members who do write back will find their letters being displayed on a bulletin board in Belleville Middle School.

Eight new teachers welcomed to BMS

The Belleville Middle School welcomed eight new faces to its staff, four of whom are new to the district.

In the Special Education Department there are two new teachers: Carol Zaccagnini, a graduate of William Paterson College, previously taught at School Number Three. Lauren Joyce Cooper received her bachelor's degree from Avila College, Kansas City, Missouri and taught in Kansas City afterwards. Her goal for this year is to have her students learn to believe in themselves.

BSIP teachers, Janice Kleiner and Allie Ciccone, will be teaching reading and mathematics to seventh and eighth graders. Both have previously taught elementary school for the district.

Eugene Morriello, an alumni of the Belleville schools, is the new band director. A recent graduate of Montclair State College, he has his own band and likes to listen to music.

Teaching eighth grade mathematics is George Droste, a former electrical engineer graduate of Fairleigh Dickinson University. In his spare time, Droste enjoys sports and travel.

ESL teacher, Leilani Gee, has taught in the district for several years and now is assigned to the Middle School for the afternoons.

Rocco Cafone, a former high school guidance counselor, joins the staff as the vice principal. He has a BA from Upsala and an MA from Seton Hall University. His goal for this year is to help the Middle School students become model citizens who will be prepared to enter high school in the near future.

Climb over the ruins

The tell-tale sign of people standing on the Town Hall steps every other Tuesday isn't an outright sign that the citizens are enthralled with the current government. But it isn't an indictment of that government either.

Townpeople begin arriving as early as 6:30 for meetings that begin at 8 p.m. They arrive early to be sure of a seat at the standing-room-only Council meetings. Many who arrive near to the eight o'clock start are turned away by policemen enforcing the fire codes. Only the first seventy-five or so citizens are allowed to enter and watch the proceedings.

It's inside the council chambers that the 'entertainment' begins. It wasn't very long ago when the citizens jammed into the Commission meetings to watch the commissioners duke it out. Many people said it was better than going to the movies. The recent government change has changed the scenario.

Nowadays, the Council is reserved, and extremely tolerant, and it is the audience that provides the entertainment. Although this may not be entirely new at Belleville meetings, it seems obvious that many of the citizens who hoot, holler and grumble are choreographed into their silly shenanigans. We haven't figured out what they expect to gain from their tomfoolery, but it certainly doesn't impress us.

If Belleville had wanted 'mob rule', then we could have saved a whole heck of a lot of tax money on all our elections. The point is that the majority of people in town elected the council to represent them. They elected ward councilmen to represent them locally, and at-large council people to represent the best interests of the whole town.

There is no way Belleville's Town Hall could hold all the people who voted the current council into office. That's not why we have elections for our representatives at the local level. We vote for local representatives so that our ward representatives can represent our smaller neighborhoods and the township as a whole and the at-large council members can act and speak for everyone in town.

The point of having a local government is to put people in place who the majority of voters trust to do the best job that can be done. That was done May 8 when the voters selected the current council.

The business of the town does not progress when the tenor of the meeting is who can yell and scream the loudest. Creative suggestions from the public are always welcome but it is not necessary for the council to react immediately to every suggestion.

A point of fact is that many citizens expressed displeasure when the council adopted an agenda that allowed citizen participation at the end of the meetings. The council eventually agreed to a trial period where the citizen participation would take place before the council voted on resolutions.

Whether the experiment has worked has not been fully evaluated. Some camps point to the fact that council meetings were more orderly before the participation was changed. Others will say that the citizens had no opportunity to question resolutions before the council voted.

A humble observation is that some citizens try to take advantage of the leniency of the council in allowing them to continue past their allotted five minutes or return for another round. They claim to be seeking answers as if the council were a computer that you first program in the question, wait a second, and then the answer pops out.

This is where the ward representatives come in. If a citizen feels that he or she is not getting an adequate answer, he or she should write out his specific question and ask his ward councilman to look into it. The building block of this government is in representation. Citizens should utilize their ward councilmen more and leave the repetitious mumbo-jumbo out of a public meeting.

Anyone who regularly attends township meetings can answer the often-asked questions that are asked by the same people at every meeting. The answers are the same at every meeting. Of course, some people don't get into every meeting, but in terms of citizens' theatrics, they are not missing anything.

When a former official shows up at town meeting after town meeting and hammers away about legal fees that he says were not hidden, and fails to respect the office he himself sought, it is the pure sign of hubris. To say that all he is interested in is clearing the commissioners of some blame (for what, isn't always clear) is all a smokescreen. He is the one who appears at meeting after meeting bringing up things the commissioners did or didn't do.

IT'S TIME FOR THE ALSO-RANS TO STEP ASIDE AND REALIZE THE RACE IS OVER AND THE BEST PEOPLE WON.

The council is at the point of moving the town forward. They have more than 50 highly-motivated people serving on the various boards and advisory councils, working at no cost to the town, working for the betterment of the town. These people are doing their own homework, their own research and bringing their findings to one another to then bring forward to the council.

Belleville is at the foot of the mountain in terms of going where the people who voted in this town want it to be. It won't be a quick, easy climb, but it will be a long, steady climb. The council people are the daring explorers leading the expedition to our brave, new Belleville. But to get underway, they have to climb over the ruins.

Questions Mayor's council actions

To the editor:

The one question uppermost on the minds of the great majority witnessing the debate of the last Town Meeting was: Why will they not listen to those who have the facts?

At this meeting and the previous one we witnessed outrage, police force, and utter disregard for the attending taxpayers. Many in the audience questioned the reasoning ?? and the working ?? of the present administration. The Mayor's attempt to pacify us with her rhetoric; at times, came across as diabolic. Her comments caused one elderly gentleman to throw up his hands in disgust, utter some unsavory words, and storm out of the chambers. He was not alone in his feelings, believe me!

For the second consecutive meeting Mr. Frantantoni — with a folder filled with facts, was not allowed to convey his full message. His pleading with the Mayor that the facts he held, generated from the Town Treasurer's Office, no less, would have a great impact on the validity of the new adopted budget, led to his literally being carried out by her "police force."

The Mayor's only excuse for such behavior on her part was, "Your allotted time is up, PERIOD."

Question? How can one, who has spent not hours but days, digging up the facts in such places as the Town Treasurer's Office and previous meeting minutes, pass on all of this material in five, ten, or fifteen minutes?

Question?? There are too many to discuss here but the one that keeps popping up is "What are they, the present administration, afraid of?" Are there certain situations that call for a "cover-up"? Are they fearful that some fact may bring down their "professional credibility" that they claim to hold? Vinnie came out smoking. They tried to extinguish the fire with police force but the old adage generally holds true —

Republicans meet

To the editor:

On behalf of the Belleville Republican County Committee,

I would like to extend this invitation to all Belleville residents to join with us at our campaign rally this Friday evening.

The rally will take place at the Chandelier Restaurant on Franklin Avenue at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free, all are welcome, and refreshments will be served.

As you are aware, Governor Jim Florio has imposed the largest tax increase in our country's history upon the people of New Jersey. Essex County will be electing a County Executive and Board of Freeholders whose decisions will directly impact your property taxes for the next four years. Governor Florio and his candidates will ask you for your vote in November, all we ask is that you come, meet our candidates, ask them questions, and make your decision based on what is best for the taxpayers of Belleville.

We hope to see you Friday evening.

Richard P. Yanuzzi, Chairman,
Belleville Republican County Committee

where there is smoke there generally is fire!

The meeting ended in chaos. The only finality to the whole mess is that the Mayor intends to do things her way — come hell or high water. If this continues much longer we all will be in one hellish mess. Possibly by the time this is printed you will have received your tax bill. When that day comes I wonder just how silent the "silent majority" who put them on their pedestal will be? Questions??

Adult day care week

To the editor:

Since National Adult Day Care Week is slated for September 16-22, I thought this was the perfect opportunity to make the community aware of the wonderful senior program that our family is currently using. I would like to deeply express our gratitude and appreciation to those members of the program who work so tediously to provide our seniors with the utmost tender loving care.

As most of us who have a senior family member know, it is sometimes difficult to provide the necessary time and attention needed in caring for them on a daily basis. So often do the responsibilities of life consume us that our elders tend to be lost in the shuffle. A refreshing solution to this problem is an oasis to be found at the Senior Care & Activities Center, located in Montclair. Here, from Monday to Friday, a well qualified staff provides transportation to and from the Center, a well-balanced lunch and morning and afternoon snacks for the clients. Supervised arts and crafts are also included. A music therapist encourages sing-a-longs and group participation twice a week in addition to moderate callisthenics to gently stimulate body circulation.

Our father was enrolled in the Center in June of this year and plans to continue with the program for a long time. One staff member in particular remains a favorite with our father for her kind and thoughtful ways — that is the registered nurse/assistant director Janet. Family members can rest assured that their loved ones are well taken care of at the Senior Care & Activities Center.

Explosive meeting

To the editor:

Regarding the explosive atmosphere at the September 11 town meeting, making it necessary to have, at one point, eight police officers on hand, to assist in physically removing a number of citizens from the "proceedings", I can only say: "Thank God, we will only have to suffer for one year under the "leadership and guidance" at the public town meetings of Mayor Marina "your time is up" Perna.

Cornelis P. Vander Zwan

• BEFORE he was a United States Senator, Clifford P. Case was elected to the House of Representatives in November, 1944.

I titled the speech "A Challenge to Prejudice."

Case delivered the extemporaneous speech from notes written on the back of an envelope as he was being driven from the railroad station to the Capitol. His remarks are as appropriate today as were delivered 45 years ago.

Case was moved to make the speech in response to one made by Congressman Rankin of Mississippi who was considered to be a bigot from the deep south. Rankin had criticized Supreme Court Justice Frankfurter and alleged that a majority of Americans who saw action in World War II were white Protestants, denigrating blacks in the process.

Blacks and Jews, independently, should consider sponsoring an annual memorial dinner in honor of Clifford Case for having the courage to speak his mind way back in the distant past on unpopular issues that troubled his heart.

Speech of
Hon. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey
in the House of Representatives

Tuesday, June 12, 1945

Mr. Case of New Jersey, Mr. Chairman, I am native-born, white, a gentleman — a Protestant. That I am these things entitles me to no special status or distinction. Indeed I had no choice as to any of them, except the last. But because I am these things, and thus a member of the comfortable majority in this country, I find myself under compelling obligation to express my disagreement with certain remarks made yesterday in this Chamber by the gentlemen from Mississippi (Mr. Rankin).

As to Mr. Justice Frankfurter.

I am not personally acquainted with Felix Frankfurter. My last and only direct contact with him was as a student for a few weeks, nearly 20 years ago. But several of my close friends and professional associates have long known him intimately and I have had occasion of course, to follow his decisions and opinions in my practice over the years.

I am convinced not only that he is not a Communist, but also that he has no more sympathy with the Communists' philosophy or their political, social, or economic beliefs or methods than does the gentleman from Mississippi or than I do myself.

He is utterly devoted to our American democratic system and the great principle of liberty, equality, and justice under law upon which it rests. His devotion, I suggest, is but the deeper because he springs from a race which has known little but persecution since its history has been recorded; because, alien-born, he does not regard the great blessing of American citizenship so casually as his natural right as do many of us to whom it has come by birth.

He is a resourceful and energetic student of the law and our institutions; a fair-minded and stimulating teacher; always a crusader for justice for the individual; he has become one of the outstanding Justices of the Supreme Court, where he is regarded, I venture to say, by his brethren on the bench, as he is by the profession generally, as somewhat conservative in his views. He has the most profound respect for the Court, for its traditions, and for the law which it has made. I am satisfied, Mr. Chairman, that our American system, our constitutional democracy, will come to no evil at his hands.

Mr. Chairman, one word more.

The gentleman from Mississippi also said that, while in Mississippi the population is about equally divided between whites and Negroes, at least 90 percent of the casualties during this war from Mississippi have been gentle whites.

Mr. Chairman, no group in this country has a monopoly on patriotism. Men of all races, colors, and creeds, whether native or foreign-born have equally sacrificed their lives or given the best years of their youth in this war. The casualty lists show that, as do the gold stars in the windows of homes, both high and humble, in every city, town, and hamlet, and on the farms throughout the land, I suppose there are not many Jews in the State of Mississippi, but I am convinced that their casualties are in proportion to their number in the population, as they are over the country as a whole. And, if that be true also of the Negroes, it is due, I am sure, to no lack of courage or patriotism on their part, but rather to these two reasons:

First, that because of poverty and lack of equal educational and economic opportunity for generations, the percentage of Negro draft rejections on medical and mental grounds is far above the average for other groups.

Second, that, to some extent, they may have been given noncombat service of one kind or another more often than most other groups.

Obviously, both of these factors have been quite beyond the control of the Negroes themselves. I am sure the records of this war will vindicate fully the heroism of the Negro combat soldier.

Mr. Chairman, I did not rise in defense of Mr. Justice Frankfurter or of the courage and patriotism of minority groups in this country. They need no defense by me. I rose because I could not by remaining silent permit any inference that I acquiesced in the sentiments to which I have taken exception. And, more important by far, because of my deep conviction that whenever we of the majority in this country permit such sentiments to be unchallenged, not only are we guilty of a wrong to the minority groups concerned but we risk the greater danger of brutalizing ourselves.

• SO, YOU'RE thinking about buying a weekly newspaper. Well, let me reprint a clip from an old copy of the Publishers' Auxiliary newspaper:

"The devil once bargained for the soul of a young man. The devil agreed to furnish all the money that the young man could spend, and if he did not spend it as fast as it came, his soul was to be the forfeit."

"For several years the young man managed to keep ahead of the game by the aid of wine, women and fast horses, but finally the fiend sent him a tremendous sum, which it seemed utterly impossible to get rid of, when the young man as a last resort started a newspaper. At the end of three months the devil began to growl, at the end of six months he was savage, at the end of nine months he was sad, and at the end of a year he owned up dead broke. The paper went up, but a soul was saved."

LEADING THE PLEDGE - Michelle Waldron and Mark Horst, 3rd graders in Miss Borg's class lead the Pledge of Allegiance at School 9's first assembly of the year.

School 9 students alerted to railroad safety program

School 9 students were visited last Friday by Daniel Sedares of New Jersey Transit Rail Operations. Sedares discussed safety around railroad tracks, which may not always seem to be used.

The majority of students at School 9 told Sedares that they lived near a railroad and were freshly informed about safety around the tracks.

Sedares told the students that each year many people are injured, some fatally, due to their lack of knowledge in railroad safety.

The NJ Transit representative made two presentations including video tapes and discussions at School 9. One program was geared to the primary grades, and the later presentation to grades 4-6. Both assemblies were a success in helping the children learn more about railroad safety.

Mrs. Brown's First Grade class listed four things they learned from the assembly: Don't put anything on the railroad track; Don't play on the railroad tracks; Don't climb on the train if it is stopped; Don't ever try to beat the train across the tracks or go when the blinking red light is on.

The Fourth Graders remembered the following from the assembly: Don't cross railroad tracks except at certain safe places; You can get hit by a train if you don't obey railroad safety rules; Railroads are not playgrounds; Don't throw rocks at trains; Don't put 'stuff' on railroad tracks; Listen to young, don't listen to your friends who tell you to do things you know are wrong.

A teacher said it was a very informative program. The teachers found it an excellent reinforcement tool to stress the need for railroad safety for our children.

Webelos Scout interviews Belleville's new Mayor

Jason Sack, a Webelos Scout, interviewed Mayor Marina Perna last week completing his requirements for the citizenship activity badge in Cub Scouting.

Some topical concerns Sack and Mayor Perna discussed included recycling, taxation, the school system and the possibility of a Holocaust remembrance in Belleville. In regards to the last topic, Perna asked the young man to research the Holocaust issue and report back to her with his ideas.

Sack said the mayor's informative answers and her friendly manner gave him a positive outlook towards his role as a good citizen of Belleville.

'My Place' raises $1000 for M.D.A.

On Sept. 2 and 3, "My Place," a Belleville bar, hosted their First Annual Telethon Party to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA).

The Muscular Dystrophy Association is a voluntary national health agency which provides patient care and services at some 240 clinics nationwide. MDA services include summer camp, therapy and orthopedic aides such as wheelchairs and braces which are entirely funded by northern New Jersey residents.

"My Place" manager Marty Rueter said, "At first I was very skeptical as to whether this type of event would work here, but my brother Hal and I decided to give it our best shot." All Marty's feelings of skepticism were erased by Sept. 4 because within a two-day period "My Place" raised over $1,000 to help "Jerry's Kids." Marty later stated, "It was an all-out effort by both 'My Place' and our loyal customers."

The people of Northern New Jersey that assisted "My Place" received an extra good feeling during the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon knowing they played their part in helping "Jerry's Kids."

The quarrel cure

Be kindly affectionate to one another . . . in honor giving preference to one another. (Romans 12:10)

The story is told about two monks, Andrew and Thomas, who lived in a cave. They got along so well that not even a cross word passed between them. In fact, life was so harmonious that it seemed monotonous at times.

One day Andrew came up with an idea to break the boredom. "Let us have a good quarrel," he suggested, "like people in the outside world!" Thomas responded, "But we don't have anything to argue about." Andrew thought for a moment, and then suggested, "Let's find a rock and place it on the ground between us. I'll say, 'This rock is mine!' And you'll say, 'No, it isn't, this rock is mine!' Maybe that'll get a good argument started." So, finding a rock, and placing it on the ground between them, Andrew exclaimed, "This rock is mine!" Thomas, pausing for a moment, responded meekly, "I think, brother, that the rock is mine." "Oh, very well, then," Andrew said agreeably, "if the rock is yours — take it."

All too often Christians quarrel with one another over insignificant things. In many cases, their disputes could quickly vanish if one side unselfishly yielded to the desires of the other.

A sure cure for quarreling is to give honor and preference to one another.

Confusion, hurt, and strife will reign when hardness marks our talk; But harmony and love abound When kindness guides our walk.

You and I have a High Priest who understands our weaknesses and trials. His name is Jesus. Because He personally endured pain and temptation, "He is able to aid those who are tempted." Since He can identify with our hurts, our sorrows, and our sufferings, should we not avail ourselves of His divine sympathy?

Friends and loved ones may not be able to identify with the deep burdens of your heart, even though they long to do so. But Jesus knows and cares, and He is able to help.

Kendall named Belleville manager

received his M.P.A. from Maxwell School, Syracuse University in 1969. He is the Northeast Vice President of the International City Management Association.

In other council business, the council authorized payments totalling $103,857.29 for the ongoing construction of the Public Safety Addition. The construction which began in June of this year is expected to be completed by the end of 1991.

Former commissioner Vincent Frantantoni again questioned the council on their law department appropriation of $96,000 in the amended budget.

Frantantoni, who lost a bid for an at-large seat in the council election last May following a voters decision to change the form of government, has appeared at almost all of the council meetings since their inauguration July 1, and lately has been critical of the council's stance in holding their meetings in the council chambers while other citizens wait outside.

Township attorney Vincent Nuzzi again said that the council decided to put all their attorney fees into one dept. so that they will know how much has been spent. Nuzzi said that the council's administrative code calls for the legal fees to be under one dept. Council isn't "trying to hide" its legal fees.

Frantantoni said that the legal fees had been encumbered in the 1989 budget and carried over into the 1990 budget. Interim manager Charles Burns said that the funds do carry over for one year.

When Frantantoni refused to relinquish the podium long after his allotted five minutes had elapsed, he was physically escorted from the council chambers and followed out by many noisy supporters.

Immediately upon Frantantoni's ejection, the council chambers calmed and the public participation session was ended.

Refuse collection rules outlined

Knowing where and when to place trash is half the battle in keeping Belleville clean. Here, according to the Health Department, are the most common collection problems, and the regulations defining who is responsible for what in the township waste stream.

A. GARBAGE COLLECTOR is responsible for:

1. All Household Waste
2. Rugs cut in 4 ft. lengths tied in bundles not more than 40 lbs.
3. Furniture and Bedding.
4. Bulk Items: NOT more than one bundle per pick-up will be collected at curbside. The bundle must be securely tied, not weighing more than 40 lbs.

B. DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS:

1. White Goods: Refrigerators, stoves, water heaters, washing machines and dryers may be placed at the curb for pick-up by the Department of Public Works. Call 450-3412 to arrange for pick-up.
2. Garden Debris, Brush and Grass Clippings: Must be placed in separate containers not weighing more than 40 lbs. per container. Brush must be tied in bundles not more than 4 ft. in length, not more than 40 lbs. per bundle. All of these items must be separated from household garbage, and must be placed on the curb, not in the street. The Department of Public Works will collect these items on your FIRST scheduled garbage collection day.

Annual eye health screening offered Sept. 26 at Clara Maass

Clara Maass Community Services, in conjunction with the New Jersey Medical Society, will hold its annual eye health screening 1 to 3:30 p.m. Sept. 26 at the medical center.

The screening will include a test for visual acuity which precedes the physician's physical examination of the eyes and the test for glaucoma. Persons over the age of 35 who have not been under the care of an eye doctor for at least a year, are encouraged to participate in the screening. Prescriptions for medications and corrective lenses will NOT be given, only recommendations for further evaluation where indicated. Those who already wear corrective lenses are reminded to bring them to the screening.

This screening is limited to residents of Belleville, Bloomfield, Nutley, North Arlington, Kearny and North Newark. Participants will be seen on a first come, first served basis. Although appointments are not required, interested participants should call 680-8800, weekdays between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., to pre-register in order to avoid a lengthy wait on the day of the screening. A: Most sinus disease resolves with medical treatment, which includes antibiotic and allergy therapy.

Q: What about sinus disease that does not respond to treatment?
A: In more severe cases with chronic blockage or polyps, surgery may be indicated.
Q: Are there recent advances in the diagnosis of sinus disease?
A: Yes. With fiberoptic examination of the nose and sinuses in the office and advanced CT scan imaging, doctors are able to accurately diagnose sinus disease.
Q: Are there any recent advances in sinus surgery?
A: Yes. Recently introduced endoscopic sinus surgery is a major breakthrough in the treatment of sinus disease. This surgery makes use of micro-telescopic techniques with no external incisions. These new techniques allow the surgeon to perform safer and more effective surgery. Most often the surgery can be performed with anesthesia on an outpatient basis. Recovery time is usually rapid, with patients returning to their normal activities within days.

Gymnasts lose to Mustangs

Piscatowski led the way with a score of 6.9. (Remember, in gymnastics, a score of 10.0 is considered perfect.) Lori Aiello scored a 6.8, Vanessa Rodriguez scored a 6.6 and Danielle Groeling, a senior captain, finished with a 6.35.

In the uneven parallel bars, Groeling scored a 4.35. Dawn Simonetti and senior captain Renee Coppola also competed in the event.

In the balance beam, Denise Wujciak finished with a 5.25. Nancy Matthews scored a 3.6 and Kristen Gallo tallied a 3.9. In the floor exercise, Wujciak was the floor scorer, with a 5.95. Also competing in the floor ex were Mary Anne Ferrera (4.95), Lori Aiello (3.3) and Christina Ferrera (3.3).

There is a new assistant coach at Belleville this season. Tracey Kelly, who starred on the scholastic level for Kearny High School, will be Lemongello's assistant this season.

"Tracey and I competed against each other in high school," Lemongello, a Belleville grad, said. "Tracey also competed on the collegiate level at Montclair State College and she will provide our team a great deal of knowledge in the sport. We're very happy to have her."

Also serving as a volunteer assistant is former Belleville gymnast, Laura Cairo.

Next week, we'll review the 1990 roster and look toward the rest of the season.

N.J. Nets looking for teams

The New Jersey Nets will once again host their highly successful and popular preliminary and post-game program at the Meadowlands Arena during the 1990 season, according to organizer and Nets Vice President of Sales Lou Terminiello.

The Nets' pre and post-game program allows children and adults alike, the opportunity to realize their dreams of playing on an NBA floor in a 20,000 seat NBA building. Participants are able to compete as professional athletes do, for one night, in front of their friends and families. The Meadowlands new parquet floor is the site for all the competition with the arena scoreboard and public address system following the action.

The program, which has drawn accolades from local educators and group leaders, began in 1982 and has attracted teams throughout the Garden State. Teams from local, high schools, grammar schools, CYO programs, churches, and industrial leagues are welcome to participate.

Pre-game and post-game spots are available, beginning Nov. 8 when the Nets take on the Miami Heat in their home opener at the Meadowlands Arena. All games will be played directly before or immediately after all Nets home games this season.

"Some of the top teams on all different levels of basketball have participated," noted Terminiello. "It's a great opportunity for young basketball players to play in a major league atmosphere and offers organizations an excellent fundraising opportunity. We expect an outstanding year and teams interested should contact us as quickly as possible to reserve the date they desire."

Interested teams and organizations should contact Terminiello at the Nets office, Meadowlands Arena, East Rutherford, N.J. 07073, or call (201) 995-8888, for more information.

Buc Shots

season, Murphy would rush for 1,000 yards for the second straight campaign.

1984: Once again, the NNJIL was realigned and the Belleville-Nutley rivalry was moved from a season opener to a season finale. Belleville's new opening day opponent was Don Bosco. This game was played on a very warm Saturday in Ramsey.

The heat didn't affect the veteran Belleville team. A strong defense shut down Don Bosco and Anthony Gizzo scored the first Belleville TD on a fumble recovery in the second quarter. Mike Gibbons closed out the Belleville scoring attack with a long run in the fourth quarter as the Bucs won, 14-0.

1985: At Belleville on a cool Friday evening, the Bucs lost to Don Bosco, 8-2. Belleville led 2-0 in the third quarter before a long TD pass on a broken play resulted in Don Bosco's only score.

Despite the loss, Belleville received a good performance from sophomore Jay Marchese and senior David Long.

1986: The Bucs ventured to Paramus for the season opener and lost 9-6. Jim Dunphy scored the only TD for the Bucs off a pass from quarterback Jeff Spitsbury. The '86 team got hot after an 0-2 start and won six of its last seven games. Jamie Gallo played a solid game for the Bucs, too.

1987: At Belleville on a Friday evening, the Bucs stopped Paramus 7-0. Before the game, a special ceremony was held to dedicate the football field in the memory of William "Doc" Ellis, the beloved trainer of the Bucs who had passed away a year earlier. The field would now be called Doc Ellis Memorial Field.

Craig Jackowski ran 42 yards for the only tally of the night and the stingy Belleville defense did the rest. Spitsbury played a good game at quarterback and Marchese played a strong game on both sides of the ball.

1988: On a pleasant Saturday afternoon at Passaic, the Bucs lost to the Indians, 27-0. Steve Tice, John Cerza, Nick Turano and Ken Salinz played well for Belleville and had good seasons in 1988.

1989: A year ago, Belleville defeated Paramus Catholic by a 21-0 count at Paramus on a warm Sunday afternoon. Actually, this game was scheduled for a Saturday afternoon and the teams had warmed up for the game before a massive rain storm came in. The officials felt the continuous lightning wasn't safe and decided to play the game a day later.

The delay didn't affect the Bucs as Carmen Splna, Seap Kimball, Rui Andre and Salinz led Belleville to a convincing win. Unfortunately, the victory on opening day was to be the only win for the Bucs in 1989. The team lost its next eight games, even though some of those games could have gone either way.

The 1990 team is approaching the season with a great deal of optimism. Tomorrow evening, a new decade of Belleville football will kick off at Doc Ellis field. Hopefully, there will be a large turnout of fans to welcome the new Belleville team.

JETS FOOTBALL

A couple of sports fans called in to WFAN and talked about the Jets victory over Cleveland last Sunday. Most of the fans agreed that the Jets are really a visiting team at Giants Stadium, although the support in East Rutherford last Sunday was good.

The Jets true home has been and always will be Shea Stadium. I realize the team left Shea because they could draw more fans across the river, but there was something special about the Jets playing in Shea. There was history, plane noise, gusty winds and real grass. When you think of the Jets at Shea, you think of the '68 team playing for the AFL title, the memorable '81 playoff game with Buffalo and some not so good teams playing some exciting football.

Even though it's a much longer drive to Shea Stadium than Giants Stadium from Belleville, the enjoyment of the game at Shea made it all worthwhile.

NFL PICKS

It wasn't one of my better weeks, with only six winners in 14 tries. We'll, hopefully, do better this week. For this week, Giants 24 Miami 17, Washington 30 Dallas 17, Philadelphia to upset Los Angeles 20-16, New Orleans 23 Phoenix 20, Chicago 28 Minnesota 20, Detroit 27 Tampa Bay 16, Green Bay 21 Kansas City 17, San Francisco 24 Atlanta 7, Jets a minor upset over Buffalo 21-20 on Monday night, Houston 28 Indianapolis 10, Cincinnati 22 New England 14, San Diego to beat Cleveland 21-14, LA Raiders 20 Pittsburgh 6, Denver 17 Seattle 10.

For the week, 6-8, for the season 15-13.

LAST WEEKS QUIZ

The '84 Tigers lost just one game in post season. The San Diego Padres beat them in game two of the World Series. Detroit swept Kansas City in the ALCS. Willie Hernandez won the Cy Young award for Detroit in 1984.

FOR THIS WEEK

In 1967, when the NFL season was still 14 weeks long, this NFL team went unbeaten for the first 13 games. In the 14th and final regular season game, this team lost and consequently was knocked out of the playoff picture all together. (The playoff rules in the NFL have obviously changed throughout the years. Could you imagine a team losing one game today and not making the playoffs?)

Anyhow, what team are we referring to? What was this team's final record? Who gave this team its only loss? Who ended up winning the '67 NFL championship?

Jr. Buc 'C' team wins opener, 19-13

The Belleville Junior Bucs opened the 1990 season last Sunday with mixed reviews. The "C" team, the youngest squad, posted a 19-13 victory over Wannaque. The "B" squad, the middle team in terms of age, lost a 25-7 decision and the "A" team was stopped 48-18. All three teams played at Wannaque.

This week, the Jr. Bucs will play at Manchester. The "C" team will kickoff the action with an 11:15 a.m. game. The "B" squad gets started at 12:30 p.m. and the "A" team will begin at 2 p.m.

CONTE SCORES TWO IN "C"

VICTORY
 In the "C" game, head coach Bob Haug saw his team win an exciting game last Sunday. Belleville fell behind 6-0, then tied the game at six on a rushing touchdown by quarterback Anthony Conte. Belleville went ahead on a score by John Far, 13-6.

After Manchester tied the game at 13, Conte scored the game-winning TD late in the fourth quarter.

Dan Rafferty, a linebacker, led the defensive attack for Belleville.

"B" TEAM HURT BY MISTAKES

The "B" team lost a 25-7 decision. Head coach Joe DeRiggi noted that his team was hurt by special teams.

"We gave up a punt return for a score and we had a pass intercepted and returned for a score," DeRiggi said. "The kids were a little nervous at first, but they played a real good game."

Damon Placente, a halfback, scored the only Belleville touchdown on a 55 yard pass from quarterback Ken Bollhardt. The score came at the two minute mark of the first half with Wannaque holding a 19-0 lead.

On defense, Al Arminante, an outside linebacker, recorded 18 tackles for Belleville.

BERARDI TALLIES TWO TD'S

The "A" team was led by Sal Berardi, a running back who scored two touchdowns for the Bucs. Berardi's first score was on a 40 yard counter play and his second score came on a 25 yard run off tackle.

Frank Tortorella, the quarterback, scored the other TD, running 80 yards on the option play.

Art Settembrino played a strong Belleville, catching three passes from his tightend position.

Volleyball team loses opener, Worley sees good year ahead

Looking to rebound from a sub-par 1989 season, the Belleville volleyball team enters the new decade with optimism.

Grace Worley's team has dropped its first three games of the '90 season, but the coach sees good things in the immediate future.

"We could have won all three matches," the veteran Hall of Fame coach said. "We have some inexperience in the varsity lineup and that hurts in the early going. But I think we can do well. We had an excellent turnout this fall."

"We have enough players to field a freshman team by itself, which is something I'd like to do. It would be better for the freshman to play their own schedule against conference competition."

The Lady Bucs lost in three sets to Bloomfield and Clifton and dropped a two setter to a very good team in Ridgewood.

The lineup features seven talented players vying for six starting spots.

"With our rotation lineup, all seven kids see extended playing time," Worley said. "We have five seniors and two sophomores in the lineup."

Judy Krych and Kristin McCarthy, both seniors, have been named co-captains for the 1990 campaign. The other seniors are Melanie Bonacorsa, Maria Ribon and Zulay Fiallos.

The sophomores are Melanie VanDam and Colleen Mannion.

The volleyball program went through the first stage of a rebuilding program last fall. The girls were limited to five victories last year after seven straight winning seasons from 1982-88.

"The girls went to volleyball camp during the summer," Worley said. "They are a hard working group and I really feel we'll do pretty good this season."

Belleville plays University this afternoon in a 4 p.m. start at Belleville High School. Next Monday, the team will be at Passaic and next Tuesday, the team will be at Immaculate Heart. Next Wednesday, the girls are home to Hackensack. All matches commence at 4 p.m.

State funds for Cystic Fibrosis

For the first time ever, New Jersey adults with cystic fibrosis now have a special State-funded program designed to provide them with much-needed financial assistance.

The new program — the result of legislation enacted last January — gives cystic fibrosis patients 18 and over help with prescription bills, food costs, medical equipment and supplies, and payment of insurance deductibles. Funding was provided through the State Department of Health in the form of a one-year $562,500 grant awarded to The New Jersey State Organization of Cystic Fibrosis, which has responsibility for administering the statewide program.

Cystic fibrosis is a hereditary disease which clogs the lungs with a thick, sticky mucus which damages airways and makes breathing difficult. People with cystic fibrosis also may not be able to digest food properly. Despite tremendous advances in diagnosis and treatment, a cure has not been found. Cystic fibrosis is the most common hereditary disease in the country, one in twenty carry the gene for it. It is ultimately fatal, with average life expectancy extending only into the twenties, though some patients live longer.

Prescription medications, as well as medical equipment and supplies for cystic fibrosis patients can cost many thousands of dollars a year per patient. Because of the effect of the disease on digestion, patients also need at least twice as much food as well as expensive nutritional supplements, to maintain a healthy weight. Eligible patients enrolled in the program will present an I.D. Card at a designated store to receive specified foods, medication and medical supplies at no cost to them. Medical equipment will also be provided at no cost to eligible patients.

The organization selected to run the new program, the New Jersey State Organization of Cystic Fibrosis, headquartered in Totowa, has a long history of providing direct financial assistance to patients throughout the State. N.J.S.O.C.F. is an independent statewide organization with no affiliation to the national Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The first order of business for the new program will be spreading the word about its' existence to cystic fibrosis adults. "Now that we have the funds to provide some assistance," says Executive Director, Estelle Sikkema, "we want to reach out to help as many as possible, as quickly as possible. We look forward to getting off to a running start, with the cooperation of New Jersey hospitals, doctors, health agencies and the media."

If you have cystic fibrosis or would like more information about the program, you can contact Suzanne Engenbrot at (201) 595-1003 or 1232.

New operation procedure in use at Clara Maass

A new surgical procedure using a laparoscope—a small fiber optic viewing tube—a laser, and a television monitor is transforming gallbladder surgery at Clara Maass Medical Center into a day-and-a-half procedure.

The procedure, called a laparoscopic cholecystectomy was recently performed at the Medical Center by a team of physicians consisting of Satyender Khanna, M.D., attending physician in surgery; Edward Mercogliano, M.D., chief of surgery; and Eugene D'Alessandro, M.D., attending physician in obstetrics, making Clara Maass the third hospital in the state to perform such a procedure.

"This is a new, significant advance in surgery and it's changing the way gallbladder surgery has been done for the last 100 years. It will reduce hospital stay as well as the time people are away from their jobs," said Dr. Mercogliano. Laparoscopic cholecystectomy is a relatively new procedure that is much less invasive than conventional gallbladder surgery. During the procedure, a half-inch incision is made near the navel. A small viewing tube, the laparoscope, is then inserted. Another half-inch incision is made near the rib cage; through this incision the surgeon removes the gallbladder, using the laparoscope inserted near the navel to guide him.

Gallbladder disease, caused by gallstones, afflicts about 20 million people a year in the United States. Surgeons remove 500,000 gallbladders a year by traditional surgery, requiring a week's stay in the hospital and 6 to 8 weeks of post-operative recovery.

"With the use of the laparoscopic procedure, a patient would only be hospitalized 1½ days, with recovery time averaging five to seven days at home," said Dr. Mercogliano.

The use of lasers in medicine is little more than 10 years old, but advances in the design and medical applications of lasers have caused their use to grow rapidly.

"We expect to be able to do other things with the laparoscope in the near future," he added.

What if...

By Julie Frees Briggs

What if...

You are experiencing rejection and disappointment in your personal or professional life. How can you start turning negatives into positives?

If at the moment life has dealt you a poor hand of cards, reshuffle them, and keep shuffling them until you get a winning hand. We all suffer setbacks and disappointments in life. The secret is not to let any situation get you down no matter how "down" you may feel. Life is like the currents of a river, with constant changes, if you keep a positive attitude things are bound to change for the better. Everyone that has ever succeeded in this world has experienced many rejections in the climb up the ladder. Never take rejection personally, after all it is usually just one person's opinion, and that opinion is subject to change, if not today, perhaps in the future. The people who win in life, are the people who do not give up. Almost every President of this country has experienced more than one failure or lost one or more elections on his climb to the top prize.

What if...

You or your home are struck by lightning, what are the odds of this happening?

According to the National Weather Service there are well over one hundred deaths per year from lightning as well as numerous injuries. Most lightning fatalities occur on an open field such as a golf course, or when a person takes refuge under a large tree, or is on or near water. Never walk the beach immediately after a thunder or lightning storm, and try not to get caught in an open boat. If indoors, stay away from appliances. Air conditioners, television sets, sinks and bathtubs and other plug-in appliances attract lightning. Unplugging an appliance during a storm could result in a bad shock. If possible, do not use the phone during an electric storm. It is best to stay away from the fireplace, or an open window or door. Lightning storms are most likely to occur between May and early October. By taking proper precautions one, can have a safe summer.

RESISTING THE URGE

Some people have an habitual urge to pull their hair, while others have an irresistible impulse to pull their hair which may be termed compulsive. This latter group of hair-pullers suffers from trichotillomania, a persistent and repetitive urge to pull one's hair. It is separated from the mere bad habit of hair-pulling by virtue of the fact that it results in missing hair or bald spots. At one time, trichotillomania was thought to be related to such tics and habits as thumb-sucking. Now, however, the success of a drug in treating the problem points to an obsessive-compulsive basis for trichotillomania. The drug clomipramine works by affecting brain chemistry and is proven to decrease the hair-pulling urge in a number of women with severe trichotillomania. This positive effect points to a possible genetic tendency to suffer from the disorder.

One of the responsibilities of a pharmacist is to point out any side effects of a particular medication. Complete prescription service is provided at ROSS-MORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1968, 759-1956. We also handle a full selection of convenient aids including walkers, wheelchairs, crutches and canes. Hours: 9am-10pm daily, 9am-9pm Sundays.

HINT: Clomipramine may help with the treatment of other obsessive-compulsive habits, such as nail-biting and face-picking.

Did You Know??

Rooms painted in pale yellow look sunny in any weather. And the light color makes small spaces look so much larger.

Your window air conditioner will last longer if you have it serviced and removed each fall. If you don't want to take the unit out of the window, protect it with weather-resistant canvas covers.

Remodeling your kitchen? Manufacturers of top commercial ranges are now making professional-style cooktops, stoves and ovens for home use. They have safety features not needed in restaurant kitchens.

Now's a good time to apply caulking that can seal a home against drafts. Caulk seams where different building materials meet — around vents, electrical fixtures, for instance — and at corners. Acrylic latex caulking is an economical all around choice.

Planning to move? Eight weeks in advance is not too soon to start packing items you don't use often. If furnishings need cleaning, send them out now and have them delivered after you're at the new address.

Planning to move? We've got some wonderful homes you'd love to move into. For a look-see, call the real estate pros at Century 21 Stanford Agency, Nutley, 235-9000.

Local realtors show they care through community service

For many real estate agents, the town they do business in is the town in which they reside. With this comes a strong feeling to reach out to the community beyond everyday business and give to their community in other ways.

Your local Board of Realtors feels the same way. Each year through the Community Service Committee, Realtors devote their free time to serve the community through various community service projects.

Helping the homeless, supplying residents with flashing blue lights to put in their windows in times of emergency, distributing "Sing No To Drugs" kits to school children, and individuals in need of support, conducting annual food drives, and many other worthwhile projects are done at the local level.

To help recognize those Boards who contribute so much to their communities, the New Jersey Association of Realtors, along with the National Association of Realtors, each sponsor a local Board Scrapbook competition whereby documenting the community service projects done during the year.

Lucette Monteleone, President of the Bloomfield, Glen Ridge,

Nutley, and Belleville Board of Realtors, is thrilled to announce that our Board won FIRST PLACE in the New Jersey Association's competition.

This year's scrapbook includes highlights of local projects such as a high school essay contest, where Belleville's own Diane Di Vencenzo went on to win New Jersey's contest, a benefit softball game with WNEW radio, for cancer-stricken Tishna Rollo of Glen Ridge, sponsorship of kiddie rides at the 1990 Firemen's Convention held in Nutley; coverage of the "Yes You Can Buy a Home in New Jersey" promotion, as well as upcoming events through the end of the year.

"At a recent state meeting, I was honored to receive, on behalf of our Community Service Committee, thunderous applause and many congratulations," said president Monteleone.

She went on to say: "As a New Jersey state contest winner, our scrapbook has been entered into the National Association of Realtors contest. We anxiously await the results. However, although winning any contest is a terrific feeling, giving to our community in the ways that our committee has this year, is the greatest achievement of all."
