Stock market 'crashes' school

By Joyce M. Steel

If it weren't for their high-pitched voices and obviously childish faces, some fourth, fifth and sixth graders at School No. 3 might be mistaken for hardened Wall Streeters.

Each Friday, a handful of students participating in a statewide "Stock Market Game," sponsored by the N.J. Council on Economic Education, gather together and turn one of the classrooms into a makeshift stock exchange, complete with strewn copies of the Wall Street Journal and financial reports on some of the country's most popular stocks.

"It's a great way for the kids to learn about economics and how the stock market works," said Mrs. Villano, one of the sponsoring teachers, as the 16 students involved bantered over whether to buy Disney or Reebok. "They're really enjoying it," Villano added.

The game began on Oct. 5, when each team in the state received $100,000 in "play money." The object is to continuously reinvest that money, and whichever team ends up richest as of the Dec. 13 deadline will win. The students meet weekly, but should an emergency situation arise in the market, affecting their portfolio, they may get together immediately to buy or sell.

"We've told the kids that, whether or not they win or do well, we plan on doing something special for them after it's over," Villano said, adding that most of the children involved have spent much of their free time boning up on the workings of the stock market.

While the fall game is being considered a pilot by the teachers involved, they hope to open it up to more students for another ten-week program slated for the spring.

Council keeps Cozzarelli

By Joyce M. Steel

The township council voted unanimously to retain the counsel of Frank J. Cozzarelli in his fight against Research Organic, the company which for decades occupied a plot of land on Main Street now designated as one of the state's worst toxic waste sites.

Mayor Marina Perna said before introducing the resolution that keeping Cozzarelli on the case makes fiscal sense.

"Mr. Cozzarelli has worked on this matter for quite some time," Perna said. "We felt it would be more costly and time-consuming to the township to bring in another attorney." Township Attorney Vincent Nuzzi added that Cozzarelli has handled the litigation for nearly eight years.

According to Cozzarelli's new contract, which did not go out for public bid pursuant to the state's "professional services" statute, he will be paid $100 per hour for his services up to trial, and the total bill cannot exceed $5,000. Nuzzi said a trial date has been tentatively set for sometime in February.

The Mayor and Council were questioned during the public participation session about vacation pay given to Cozzarelli in June. He received nearly $26,000 in back vacation pay as a result of approximately 11 years of service as township attorney and assistant township attorney.

Nicole's rock -n- roll celebration

By Anthony Buccino

In the orchestra pit at Belleville High School auditorium, eight-year-old Nicole Frerichs is dancing to the tunes that were popular when her parents were children. Dance, spin, clap, Nicole. Dance, spin, clap, over and over again in time with the rhythm. On stage, the singer's voice croons for her benefit. "You can dance," from the song, "Save the last dance for me." Nicole dances, spins, claps.

The song ends and the crowd leaps to its feet to applaud. Nicole, shyly runs to give a hug to her mother in the front row.

Three legends of rock 'n' roll history performed recently at the high school fund raiser for the Nicole Fund, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping area resident Nicole Frerichs. Nicole is afflicted with severe epilepsy, and often has up to 90 seizures a day. She needs consistent medical attention, and the family's medical expenses are being offset by the fund.

More than 400 rock -n- rollers of all ages paid a mere $12 to attend the benefit held Sept. 26 at B.H.S. Many in the audience were singing along to the great hits of the 50's and 60's. Yet no one got through the evening without knowing why the groups had gathered at B.H.S. Nicole was spotlighted and sung to, and she danced when she had the chance.

~ Shirley Alston Reeves, the lead singer of the Shirelles, sang songs including "Da Do Ron" from 1958, and "Mr. Lee," "Baby, It's You" and "Soldier Boy." The Marvelettes performed "Dancing In The Streets," "Don't Mess With Bill," and "Mr. Postman," among others.

During a break, the show's promoter Dan Luongo brought Nicole and her special friend Tishna Rollo on stage. Luongo's company, Music Masters had put together a fund raising concert for Tishna to help with her medical expenses.

The Drifters sang "On Broadway," "This Magic Moment" and, of course, "Save The Last Dance For Me." Lead singer Charlie Thomas said that when these songs were first popular, kids were stealing hubcaps, now they're stealing the whole car. He chided members of the audience to remember what they were doing when they first heard the songs.

The show-stopper was Charlie Thomas singing solo to Nicole. At the beginning of the song, he gave Nicole a Drifters t-shirt. After the song, she showed it to everyone in the front row. She was so happy to have so many friends come to her rock -n- roll celebration.

NICOLE'S ROCK -N- ROLL CELEBRATION - Tishna Rollo joins Nicole Frerichs on stage with show promoter Dan Luongo and others for a special moment on a special night. The rock -n- roll show benefit raised money for the Nicole Fund which helps with medical expenses for Nicole.

200 educators attend

Teacher talks to resume

By Anthony Buccino

Nearly 200 teachers who have been working without a contract since July 1 attended Tuesday night's Board of Education meeting. Belleville Education Association President Martin Lang said the group's first negotiation session with the board was Jan. 16 and now nine months later, "perhaps the birth of a new contract is imminent."

After the meeting, Lang said that the B.E.A. and the board have set a meeting Oct. 16 to resume contract talks. It is the first time the two groups have met since an impasse was declared Sept. 17. At that time, both sides agreed to call in a mediator.

Lang would not comment on any reason for the renewed negotiations. He had said the teachers' association were ready to resume contract talks but "something in the proposals had to change."

"We appreciate some of Belleville's financial problems," Lang said to the board Tuesday night, "but we know, we are sure, that the solution can not be found by further maiming education, rather, the solution is in the quality and desire of the educational staff."

Board trustee Joseph P. Del Guercio asked that the board's cost-cutting from the past few years be read into the record. The savings included cuts in personnel of 5 maintenance persons, 8 custodians, the reduction of one vice-principal at the high school, reduction of one supervisory position and 3 secretarial positions. The savings amounted to nearly $600,000.

Belleville High School student representative Melanie Bonaccorso asked, "All the money we're saving, where's it going?"

School Superintendent Michael D. Nardiello said, "If that money hadn't been cut, it would have been added to the budget, so, it saved taxes."

Del Guercio said that in the last 23 years, the local school budget had been passed once.

"Hopefully, you see it (where the savings are used) in your classroom."

Many districts that are smaller than us have budgets $8-10 million beyond our budget.

"We are dealing with a population in Belleville that does not want increased taxes. We owe you, I owe you. I will guarantee you get it (quality education)."

Murder victim's family ups information ante

By Joyce M. Steel

The family of Anthony Petaccio, the Belleville businessman found stabbed to death in a bank parking lot July 3, increased to $15,000 the reward being offered for information leading to his killer, police said.

Petaccio, a former West Paterson resident and Roman Catholic deacon, was the apparent victim of a robbery during the early morning hours of July 3. He was found at 8:20 a.m. in the People's Bank lot, alongside his parked 1988 Jaguar. The keys were still in the vehicle, and Petaccio's wallet and watch were found nearby.

Police said Petaccio was rushed to University Hospital, Newark, where he was pronounced dead on arrival. The cause of death was determined to be a single stab wound to the chest.

Petaccio's family immediately offered a $10,000 reward in the hopes a witness would come forward. The stabbing occurred during rush hour, while commuters were waiting for a bus across the street and the bank lobby was open for business. However, the crime scene was obscured by tall hedging.

Essex County police, who are working with Belleville detectives on the case, said no new leads have been uncovered since Petaccio's murder. In July they identified the weapon used in the stabbing as a mail-order commando knife, approximately 12" in length, with a checkered rubber handle.

Anyone who might have seen or heard anything about the incident is being asked to call the Belleville Police Department, Detective Bureau, at (201)450-3333. All information will be kept confidential.

Old ordinance is hot issue

By Joyce M. Steel

For nearly five years, John Drzymkowski served up hot dogs, sodas and casual conversation to passersby from his vending cart on Joramelon Street. No more, since the construction code official dug up and dusted off an aged ordinance forbidding vendors to stay in one place for too long.

The 1963 law, which entitles peddlers and hawkers to park for no more than 15 minutes in one place, apparently has gone unenforced for some time. It also limits vendors to public streets, but Drzymkowski, like several other service truck operators, has been stationed on private property since 1986.

Interim Town Manager Charles Burns, who last month imposed a "gag rule" forbidding employees to speak to the press, was unaware of the situation, and granted Construction Code Official Robert Domenick permission to answer questions. However, despite numerous calls to his office, Domenick refused to comment.

"I'm looking at a 60 percent drop in business, at least, since this happened," Drzymkowski said. He had been paying a rental fee to the owners of a commercial building on Joramelon, adjacent to the K-Mart Shopping Center, for the use of space in the parking lot. He is currently parked in a less visible spot nearby.

Drzymkowski said he received word of the ordinance through his ex-"landlords," who got a letter from the construction code official in late September advising them to evict Drzymkowski from the property. However, another commercial property owner decided to take him in.

"He was losing his livelihood," the owner, who wished to remain anonymous, said. "I figure hot dogs are as American as apple pie, and...we Americans have to stick together and help each other out." He said Drzymkowski's truck has been rooted on his property for about two weeks, and so far, he has not been advised to chase him off.

Township sources said Drzymkowski and several other vendors in Belleville were ordered to comply with the ordinance after one mobile merchant wanted to set up shop on the grounds of a gas station. When he was denied, he questioned the policy regarding other hot dog salesmen in town, prompting officials to "crack down" on them.

According to Drzymkowski, he has not been approached by police in reference to the ordinance, either before or after he moved. "I never had a problem with the police in all the time I've been here," he said. However, Chief George Lister confirmed that officers have been instructed to enforce the ordinance.

Del and restaurant operators in the area have said the competition given them by the hot dog vendors has never been an issue they would take legal action on. Drzymkowski added, "No one around here sells hot dogs but me, anyway."

Drzymkowski has been instructed to apply for a variance to the construction code official if he wants to stay in one place. The process costs close to $4,000, which Drzymkowski said he can't afford.

"I'm just going to have to wait and see what happens," he said, breaking away to take an order from a coveted customer.

HOT DOG! Plenty of them, in fact...but not too many customers for vendor John Drzymkowski. Formerly parked in a commuter-visible spot off of Joramelon Street, Drzymkowski was forced to move when the construction code official began enforcing a 27 year-old ordinance.

Belleville POLICE BEAT

Incidents of shoplifting were prevalent in Belleville this week. Lt. William Adelhelm said. According to Adelhelm, police responded to seven shoplifting complaints which led to arrests between Oct. 1 and Oct. 8.

Two Newark men were arrested and charged with shoplifting and possession of stolen property Oct. 8 after they allegedly attempted to leave the Silver Lake Pathmark concealing $34 worth of merchandise. When they were brought to police headquarters for processing, Kevin and Garrett Jay Hendley, 32 and 30, respectively, were found to be in possession of four stolen credit cards.

Angela Lomusco, 18, of Belleville and Jacqueline Sallette, 18, of Nutley were both charged with shoplifting by management of the Washington Avenue Pathmark Oct. 6. Lomusco, a cashier at the supermarket, was allegedly observed underrunning merchandise for Sallette in the amount of $33.25. The two were released on recognizance and scheduled to appear in court Nov. 7.

Dwayne Anderson, 26, of Orange was being held on $200 bail Oct. 4 after he allegedly attempted to steal six cartons of cigarettes from Silver Lake Pathmark, valued at $102. He will appear in court Dec. 5. An East Orange man, Joseph D. Branca, was charged with shoplifting from the supermarket Oct. 4 after he reportedly tried to leave the store concealing $115 worth of merchandise. He was released on recognizance and scheduled to appear on Nov. 28.

Jeny Montiro and Bilma Velez, both of Newark, were charged with shoplifting from the Silver Lake Pathmark Oct. 3. They allegedly packed their purses with a total of $111 in merchandise and attempted to leave the store. Both were released on recognizance and court dates were set for Nov. 21.

William D. Moore, 42, of Orange was arrested and charged with shoplifting Oct. 4 after he reportedly attempted to leave Kmart without paying for the 35 packages of batteries he was carrying. Bail was set at $200, and a court date was set for Nov. 21. Alicia Chandler, 24, of Newark was charged with shoplifting from Kmart

Oct. 1 when she allegedly attempted to leave the store with $360 worth of merchandise concealed in a garment bag. She was released on recognizance and scheduled to appear in court Oct. 31.

A dozen automobiles were reported stolen to Belleville Police between Oct. 1 and Oct. 8. The locations of the thefts were as follows: 199 Main St., 162 Holmes St., 78 Cleveland St., 295 Belmont Ave., 14 Cleveland St., 90 Cortland St., 4 Honnia St., 35 Belmont Ave., 261 William St., 63 Heckel St., 170 Heckel St. and 103 Little St.

Parade group chooses its 'Bella Signorina'

Although the official holiday has come and gone, the Columbus Day events planned for this weekend in Belleville and Nutley promise to prolong the celebration of the discovery of America.

The parade committee, in putting the finishing touches on the extravaganza, have chosen three Belleville women to represent the township as "Bella Signorina" and her "Ladies in Waiting" during the parade and festivities.

Diane Michele DiVincenzo, a lifelong resident of Belleville and freshman at Seton Hall University, South Orange, was chosen as this year's Bella Signorina. To be eligible for the position, applicants were required to be of Italian heritage, single and between the ages of 16 and 20. They were also required to submit a resume and recent photo.

DiVincenzo, 18, graduated from Belleville High School in June. While there, she compiled an impressive list of accomplishments, including the presidency her senior year of both the Student Government Organization and BHS's chapter of S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving). She was a member of the National Honor Society in her junior and senior years, and used her own academic ability to help other students as a tutor in the Helping Hands and Peers Educating Peers programs.

Active since her freshman year, DiVincenzo also wrote for the school newspaper and magazine, held the position of publicity editor for the 1990 yearbook, and participated in the school chorus, concert band and key club. She played varsity softball, cross country and winter track for four years.

As a former Miss Belleville and Lady in Waiting for the 1988 Columbus Day Parade, DiVincenzo said she applied this year for Bella

Diane Michele DiVincenzo

Signorina out of sheer determination. "I never give up on anything, and I wanted to make my parents and my grandmother proud, so I decided to go for it," DiVincenzo said.

Flanking DiVincenzo will be Amalia Fabiano and Crista Tripodi, this year's Ladies in Waiting. Fabiano, 17, also graduated from BHS in June, and currently attends Katharine Gibbs School for Hotel Management. During her high school career, Fabiano was vice president of S.A.D.D. and the Student Government Organization, and a member of the Italian Club, the softball and basketball teams, and the Future Business Leaders of America.

Tripodi, 16, is an active junior at BHS, participating in the drama club, chorus, orchestra, foreign language and key clubs. She spends her weekends as a flag twirler for the BHS Marching Band, performing during halftime shows.

DiVincenzo, Fabiano and Tripodi will participate in both the Columbus Day parade, scheduled for Friday night at the Chandelier Restaurant, and Sunday's parade, billed as one of Essex County's largest processions.

Tickets for the ball, which begins with a cocktail hour at 7 p.m., are available through the Chandelier; call 759-2500. The parade will assemble at noon Sunday at Belleville High School, and step-off is slated for 1 p.m. The motorcade will include more than 60 military, antique and other unusual vehicles, and 50 marching units and bands will participate. State, county and local officials have agreed to come help Belleville and Nutley celebrate Columbus Day.

Golden Comments

By Jim Golden

When the budget battle ends, the middle class will be hit the hardest and where it hurts the most. These budget cuts, the largest ever considered. Simply put, the balloon payment on the federal deficit has finally come due. In a recession, the red ink could reach $400 billion next year. Interest payments on the national debt have increased 222 percent over the decade and could become the largest budget item by 1992.

This fall, with worldwide financial markets in an uproar and the economy slipping, the public seems ready to hold politicians accountable. So, in a giant and belated recognition of what has gone wrong, members of Congress will be asking to make painful changes in the way the government operates just weeks before an election.

Conservatives describe this as the second phase of the Reagan Revolution; Democrats see it as the sorry result. Both are right. Reagan's 1981 budget-and-tax-cutting frenzy found Democrats and Republicans slashing social spending for the poor, passing social spending for the poor, passing more responsibility to their state and local brothers. When this round finally ends, the new equation will be just as dramatic: Roughly one third tax hikes, one third defense cuts and one third cuts in once untouchable middle-class "entitlement" programs such as Social Security and Medicare.

The choices are the more painful because they have been so long in coming. The reason: Reagan-era gridlocks. Republicans, afraid of being attacked for cutting Social Security, agreed to leave entitlement programs unchecked. Democrats unhappily allowed more cuts in social spending rather than play into GOP hands by calling for new taxes. The result is "like gangrene, instead of cutting off a foot, we now have to cut off a leg."

In all the public fighting, the most noise has been over taxes. For Democrats, the arguments against a capital-gains-tax cut and for tax increases for the wealthy play nicely into the Reagan-era legacy: Theirs as the self-proclaimed party of the poor and the middle class, and the Republicans as the party of the rich. In fact, a recent survey shows that the Democrats have succeeded; 51 percent now identify the GOP with "rich, powerful, monied interests," a figure that has tripled in three years. Even White House aides admitted to failure on this rhetorical front and seemed ready to index capital-gains-tax cuts to reflect inflation. Still, unhappy Democrats remained insistent on a new tax burden for the wealthy, including new limits in deductions and an increase in the top marginal tax rate.

But as the debate progressed, the largest Democratic fears centered around the politically explosive spending reductions. If entitlement programs are cut by at least $100 billion — while Democrats agree to regressive "sin taxes" on alcohol and tobacco and an increase in the gasoline tax of at least 8 cents per gallon — the poor and middle-class Democratic constituencies will be hurt. Proposed cuts in guaranteed student loans, for example, would affect low-income students as well as minority-run institutions.

Some of the sacred cows might be gored. One plan called for saving $20 billion over five years by taxing 85 percent of the benefits of the wealthiest Social Security recipients, who now pay taxes on half of their Social Security income. (President Franklin D. Roosevelt when he signed the Social Security Bill back in the thirties pledged that Social Security payments would never be taxed, but Reagan changed that.) And with Medicare expected to grow by about 13 percent next year, Democrats offered to shave at least $52 billion over five years. Initially, they had considered even more, but when backbenchers in both parties reacted with dread at the prospect of substantially raising the premiums on the wealthiest Medicare recipients, the leaders backed off. Even so, there would be an increase in the Medicare premiums — to $34.32 from $28.60 per month for all on Medicare, and the program's deductible would double, from $75 a year to $150 a year. The plan also calls for an increase in the Medicare payroll tax for working Americans.

Board questioned on administrator pay

Lang was "one sided in his views. What does he consider a fair contract? A cost of living? I'm very uptight on this. The basic taxpayer is a joker who works to put taxes in the till. You could do nothing without us. We are accountable, you have to be accountable."

Victor Canning Jr. asked the board why, according to reports in a daily newspaper, the administrators were ranked fifth in pay when teachers were 31 on the same scale of comparable communities. "Why are administrators paid over $80,000?"

Through the chair, Nardiello said that his salary was $87,000 including longevity.

Canning then asked board president Dr. Anthony D'Agostino, "What was the proposal the teachers were offered at negotiations?"

D'Agostino said the board would not release negotiation figures.

Canning asked the board why it was continuing to try to have Senator Carmen Orechio and Governor James Florio visit a public board meeting to explain the foundation funding of the Quality Education Act, "when they refuse to answer."

D'Agostino said the board had Assembly members John Kelly and Marion Crecco address the issue and wanted the other side to have "equal treatment." D'Agostino asked the board for permission to draft a letter to the governor and the senator inviting them to address the board.

Trustee Gabe Nazzola said the board should have the governor address them for two reasons. He cited the Assembly members are republicans and Orechio and Florio are democrats.

"The second reason they ought to come here was that the governor said he was going to increase spending — I see that as positive note — and relieve the tax burden on homeowners. It is incumbent on him to explain the numbers coming through. When he tells people there will be an increase in state aid, but $78 million will go to paying pensions, it's disillusioning, bordering on juggling figures. It's just misleading."

Town resident and high school teacher Dennis Villano said that comparing the results of student testing on High School Proficiency Tests with those of other districts that spend much more shows a "hell of efficiency rating. The teachers here are doing the most with the least."

commissioner, said the amount was in excess of what Cozzarelli had earned, and requested a breakdown of his years of service and vacation entitlements per year. Murzi, however, said he and Town Treasurer Isadore Padula had reviewed the calculations and determined them to be correct.

The mayor and council approved the payment over the summer in a monthly bills package. They decided not to take steps to recoup any of the vacation monies, Perna said, because former Mayor Michael Pizzi had authorized it as part of Cozzarelli's wages and salary, and the measure had not gone before the former commission for a vote.

"We don't want to expend $15,000 or $20,000 in legal fees to recover it," Perna said. Councilman Frank Caputo added, "We were not all in agreement on the figure ($26,000), but we did what we felt was best after the fact."

OUR OPINION

Chertoff—the best choice

United States Attorney, Michael Chertoff, a career prosecutor, will be installed as United States Attorney for New Jersey on Friday, October 12 by the Federal Judges of the Circuit which includes New Jersey. Chertoff will be sworn in October 22. Absent any affirmative action by President George Bush, Chertoff will remain United States Attorney during Bush's incumbency. The U.S. Attorney's Office is the top federal crime fighting unit—a job at which Chertoff is an expert. He has earned a reputation for impeccable honesty, while in the process, compiling a remarkable record of prosecuting political, financial corruption and organized crime. Chertoff clerked for Supreme Court Judge William J. Brennan, Jr. In 1983, he joined the U.S. Attorney's Office in Manhattan. In 1987 he became the First Assistant U.S. Attorney for New Jersey.

Chertoff has not been sufficiently partisan in his non-partisan job to meet the standards established by National Republican Finance Chairman Larry Bathgate II. New Jersey has an outstanding reputation for having qualified, apolitical, personalities appointed to the post of United States Attorney. The last person to hold that high office was Federal Judge Sam Alito, Jr. His First Assistant was Michael Chertoff who was appointed to the top post on an interim basis.

U.S. Attorney General Dick Thornburgh strongly supports the permanent appointment of Chertoff. We praise the Attorney General. Thornburgh is anxious to protect the U.S. Attorney's Office from undue political influence. And the best person to meet that high standard is Acting U.S. Attorney Michael Chertoff.

Many criminal probes, including the on-going investigation into official corruption in the City of Passaic, are in sensitive stages, and being handled by U.S. Attorney Chertoff's office.

As others have observed, there should be no debate over the permanent appointment of Michael Chertoff. By any standards, Michael Chertoff is the best and most qualified person to assume the permanent post of U.S. Attorney for the State of New Jersey. If George Bush is interested in clean government as the core of the U.S. Attorney's job, his choice for permanent appointment as U.S. Attorney is a simple one—Michael Chertoff.

Tunnel down

The recently enacted amendment on the Passaic River Flood Tunnel, introduced by Rep. Robert Torricelli Sept. 26—blocking walls, docks and levees along the river in Bergen and Essex counties—may be the boon needed to kick the 19.5 mile channel over the edge so the whole misbegotten idea goes belly up.

And if that's not enough to send it off the trestle some say it rides on, two other items may yet derail it: the fact that every man, woman and child in the United States will be paying toward its maintenance, and the fact that the state will still have to kick in some $310 million of the $1.2 billion tab, an unlikely prospect in the face of the fiscal problems staring down the governor at present.

Ella Fillipone, chairwoman of the Passaic River Coalition, a long-time opponent of the tunnel solution, said that while the prospect of other states paying for the maintenance and operation of our tunnel may seem good for us now, it sets a bad precedent.

True enough. As she points out, somewhere down the road, we might end up paying for the maintenance and operation of water projects everywhere else.

Besides, that kind of new thinking goes directly to the rear of 1986 legislation stipulating that funding for maintenance of state projects be provided by the state.

Is there a court case there or not?

Or is that part of the inconsistency that needs to be resolved before President Bush decides to sign the measure?

And here in New Jersey, it is surely evident that the state is not hemorrhaging money so it's doubtful either the state legislature or the governor would attempt to cobble another $310 million on to that $2.8 billion tax increase the governor's blamed for.

YOUR OPINION

Questioning police

To the editor:

On 9/24/90 my son was stopped in our driveway by Belleville Police, because they thought he fit the description of one of two suspects who had just robbed a gas station a few blocks away. They asked him where he was going (I live here) and his name. They frisked him and told him to get in the car.

The suspect he supposedly looked like was Hispanic, blonde hair and wearing a black jacket. My son is not Hispanic, has brown hair and was wearing a gray jacket. He got in the car because he knew he was innocent. As they were pulling out of our driveway, my son told them that as he was walking down Union Ave., a black and Hispanic ran up behind him and got in a black car. As he was telling them this, he saw the same car entering the park and told the cops, but they proceeded to take him to the gas station.

When they arrived one victim said it wasn't my son, but four so-called witnesses said "he's the one." The cops made my son walk back and forth so they could get a better look. There were at least six cops telling my son to admit he did it. If the victim at the gas station said he didn't do it, why should he admit it? They also took my son to Clara Maass to another victim who said it was not my son. My son was humiliated and harassed in front of many people and I would like to know WHY?

Also, the only way I found out about this whole mess, was that two young ladies and one guy were kind enough to ring my bell and tell me. To them I say thank you. Because I was so upset, I didn't get their names. I arrived at police headquarters just as they were bringing my son in. They put him in a room and I said I would like to see my son. I was told by Det. Petrillo that my son was 19 (he's 18) and I couldn't be in the room when he was questioned. I only wanted to tell my son I knew he didn't do it, and that I was behind him 100 percent. I also wanted to know why he was being questioned if both victims said my son was not the suspect. I was so upset, I went home to call my husband, so maybe he could help me.

Before I left, Det. Petrillo said my son would be home if he tells the truth. If this is some kind of scare tactic, I didn't appreciate it. After I left, more detectives went in the room to help question him. My son told them to let him take a lie detector test. I was told by my husband, after he spoke to Det. Petrillo, my son would be home shortly (this was 10 p.m.). I'm glad my son was smart enough to deal with this situation. My son arrived home at 11:45 p.m. He was very upset. He was harassed and humiliated, and I think the suspects have more rights than the innocent.

I feel my son is owed an explanation, as to why he was treated in this manner, being he cooperated with the police from the minute they stopped him. As for the four witnesses at the gas station, I hope some day you are in the same situation as my son, and some idiots accuse you.

I hope you will take the time to read this letter, and give me some answers, because I received no cooperation on the night of 9/24/90.

Contract impasse a show?

To the editor:

Teachers not happy? Well, neither am I. A cost of living increase should be considered adequate with the added benefits thrown in the pot. It's ironic that no teachers showed up for open house Monday night at School 4 and they all are legally and morally bound to make show. Said that they embarrassed principal Mike Harvey to hold the fort.

Bellevilles—wake up! Our teachers are not as dedicated as the union sez and they do, they're paid to attend and 90 mothers were disappointed. As teachers they were obligated to attend and prove they were worthy for our kids. This proves that money is the criteria and your kids' destiny is at their disposal, a shame, a sham, they pretending. These untouchables can command and we the people, their benefactors, must bow. Is this democracy?

I venture to say wage settlement will be an approximate eight percent increase, as planned, plus gratuities for principal salaries, supervisory personnel, teachers etc. as per 1990-91 budget schedule. This is built into the budget and must be spent. This is phantasmagoria and nonsense.

On examining the budget of 1989-90 it appears that the eight percent bench mark increase is positive and all this flimflam by the teachers and the board of ed is show. As per in the Herald News of Sept. 28, 1990, teachers have been offered 7% for the 1990-91 school year, with staggered raises the following two years of 6% each September and 3% each February. An approximate increase of 24% in three years. The teachers union calls this proposal—a bad news. Bad news for the people.

For example—the supervisor of instruction is presently earning in 1989-90, $65,662.00 and in 1990-91 will be $70,915.00, an increase of $5,253.00—exactly 8% even money—as budgeted.

Now again an elementary school teacher earning $47,000—in 1989-90 school year will earn $60,340 in the three years ending June 1993—pricing themselves out of the market and we in poverty. How can the average Belleville taxpayers averaging $22,000 per year tolerate this abuse? How can our young taxpayer with kids survive? How can the needy senior put bread on the table and keep his American dream. I wonder if greed will eventually destroy our way of life.

Dan Ippolito

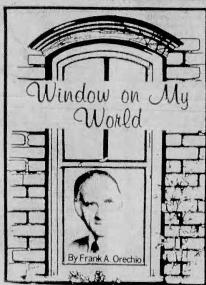

In favor of regulation

To the editor:

George Bush would be wise to nationalize the U.S. oil industry—until the Persian Gulf oil crisis is resolved. Government control, most definitely, would prevent the creation of false oil shortages.

I see the total regulation of America's oil industry, during the Iraq dispute, as the only way to prevent our greedy oil barons from crippling the U.S. economy, as they did once before—during the Carter Administration.

• AMVETS NUTLEY POST 30 is making plans for its annual dinner dance scheduled for November 10 at Post headquarters at 184 Park Ave. The event has a history of being sold out. Interested members are being told no tickets sold at the door. This is a healthy circumstance which all clubs would like to experience.

• THE United States Attorney's Office of New Jersey is in the capable hands of Michael Chertoff who will be installed Friday, October 12, 1990. Chertoff is an odds-on favorite to receive the permanent appointment, unless, of course G.O.P. political heavyweights maneuver President George Bush to give the permanent appointment to a Republican Party hack responsive to the financial heavyweights who will always try to dominate Republican policy. Quite a corrupting influence—money—money—money. man's/woman's greatest need but always subject to its potential corrupting influence.

• BLASI RITACCO, one of Nutley's Avondale neighborhood pioneers, died suddenly last week at age 73—a shock to his family and his friends. Throughout his meaningful life, Blasi accumulated friends and never made an enemy. Blasi was a classmate who graduated in our 1934 Nutley High School class. If the word "decency" didn't exist, it would have been invented to define Blasi Ritacco's lifestyle. A gentle man—he was among the most decent persons I have met in my 73 years. At 73, Blasi enjoyed the good health of a young person in his 50's. He was an important and active member of the Avondale Big Tree Association, participating in plans which included an annual winter dinner to compliment the summer family picnic sponsored by the Avondale-Big Tree Neighborhood Association. May God bless his soul and give strength to his family members who loved him and now miss him. In his passing, we lost a good friend.

President John Russo is also urging members to attend the Columbus Day Ball scheduled for Friday night, October 12, at Belleville's outstanding catering restaurant, The Chandelier.

• THE Nutley Elks' past exalted ruler, Jerry Carnovale, is a candidate for State Vice President of the North Central District of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. We wish Jerry success. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Elks is sponsoring its annual Scholarship Card Party on Friday, November 2, 8:00 p.m. Last year, three $750 scholarships were awarded to Nutley High School seniors. This year's chairladies are Connie Blesha, Cathie Danchak and Claire Pepe.

• WHISPERS: Beware of bargains in parachutes, in life rafts, in brain surgery, and advertising. Recently, I was asked by a friend if I was ever wrong. Well—once I thought I was wrong, but I was mistaken. For some years, I have foregone the life of a political activist to enjoy a grandstand seat as the parade of today's politicians marches on. Down the years that I was an activist, it seems to me political leaders and public officials in general, had more class, resourcefulness—and yes, dedication.

Of course, today, we have exceptions at every level. In the three towns which are represented by our newspaper base, there are some appointed and elected public officials who are as much dedicated as any past public official. The trouble is, today there aren't as many.

At the County level, we have dedicated public servants like Essex County Executive Nick Amato, Essex County Sheriff Tom D'Alessio, Essex County Freeholder Board Chairman Joe Paravachio, and Essex County Chairmen of both political parties, Democrat Ray Durkin and Republican John Renna.

At the State level, we have our two Assembly members, Bloomfield's Marion Crecco and Nutley's John Kelly, and our State Senator, Carmen Orechio.

At the national level, we have the most competent representatives anywhere to be found in the United States.

We have veteran Congressman Bob Roe, one of the most powerful members of the United States Congress. In the Senate, New Jersey has two of the most effective and competent United States Senators, senior U.S. Senator Bill Bradley and U.S. Senator Frank Lautenberg.

• GOVERNOR Jim Florio's closest political advisor for the last couple of decades, and longtime friend, Joseph C. Salema, succeeds former Supreme Court Judge Steve Perskie as Florio's Chief of Staff.

Joseph C. Salema

Mr. Salema brings to the Governor's Office the type of political savvy seldom present in the high councils of our most recent Governors. It may be true, but most political pros from both sides of the aisle are quick to observe that "Florio and Salema—Perfect together." One commentator is right on target when he observed, "Florio could start a sentence and Joe Salema could end it." This combination of statesman and political craftsman should bode well for New Jersey's future.

EDITOR'S NOTE - "Belleville High School News" is a new section of our newspaper, which will run in each edition, space permitting. It features a weekly roundup of student activities and events, reported by the students themselves. All Belleville High reporters are members of the school's journalism class.

A JOB WELL DONE - BHHS students Heather Kane (center) and Albert Balkiewicz (right) scored high enough on their PSAT/NMSQT tests to earn recognition; they were named Commended Students recently by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Two students commended

Belleville High School students Heather Kane and Albert Balkiewicz have been named Commended Students in the National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the program, will be presented to these outstanding seniors.

About 35,000 Commended Students nationwide are being honored for their outstanding performance on the 1989 PSAT/NMSQT, which places them in the top five percent of more than one million students who entered the 1991 Merit Program by taking the qualifying test. Commended Students scored slightly below the level required to continue in the 1991 competition for Merit Scholarships, but they have shown exceptional academic promise.

An official of the Merit Program stated, "Being named a Commended Student in this extremely competitive program is a credit to these young people and their schools. Commended Students were offered an opportunity to be referred by the Merit Program to two colleges or universities of their choice. We hope the referral service and the recognition Commended Students have earned will enhance their higher education opportunities and increase their motivation to use their abilities to the fullest. These young men and women represent an important intellectual resource which our nation needs."

Frosh yearbooks sold

By Tom Pontrella

Color slide show! Musical! An array of prizes! Special pictures! Enthusiasm! School spirit! And, a chance to make history! These are just a few of the special events that the Belleville High School journalism students have in store for the members of the freshman class. Freshman Yearbook Week will be celebrated Oct. 15-19. Only freshmen will be allowed to purchase a copy of the two volume 1991 Monad during this week.

Yearbooks will be on sale before and after school in room 154, as well as in the cafeteria during all lunch periods. Freshmen will be able to place a $10 deposit on the $45 purchase.

Prizes will be awarded each day to students who purchase a yearbook. A lucky winner will be drawn from each day's receipts and announced the following morning during homeroom period. One of the following prizes will be awarded each day of the sale: a free yearbook, a free 18 page ad, 20 free boosters, the student's picture in the color section, and a free sweat-shirt.

As added incentive to the freshman class, the yearbook staff will add two pages of candid photos to the freshman section for every increment of 50 books sold to freshmen.

Car wash will raise funds

By Rosemary Gencarelli

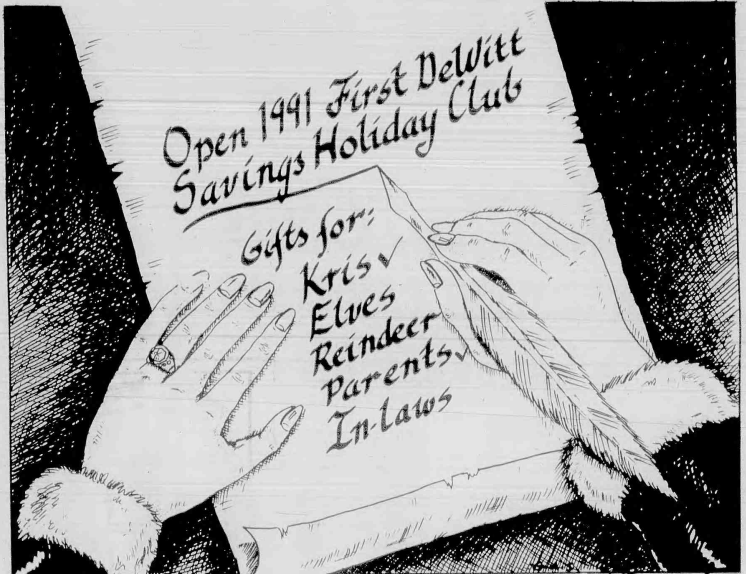

The 1991 senior class of Belleville High School is sponsoring its Annual Senior Car Wash on Saturday, Oct. 13, in the BHHS parking lot from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Supervising the activity will be the senior class advisor, Mr. McDonough and the senior class officers: Rosemary Gencarelli, president; Albert Balkiewicz, vice president; Lisa Petracca, secretary; and Renee Coppola, treasurer.

Donations of $5 per car and $7 per van will be accepted. All are welcome to join in the fun. Come out to support the 1991 senior class.

POLICE CHIEF HONORED - Belleville Police Chief George Lister is presented a plaque by Terry D'Elia, chair of the Community Mental Health Services 6th Annual Award Dinner. Lister was honored for his encouragement and assistance to the C.M.H.S., which serves Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield. (Photos by Anthony Buccino)

What if...

By Julie Frees Briggs

What if...

You are at a party and someone starts flirting with the person you are with, ignoring you. What should you do?

Remain calm, cool and icy. Break the happy "two-way" conversation by taking your partner gently by the arm and saying, "There is someone I would really like you to meet, will you excuse us please." Once you have your partner in tow, explain your feelings and then introduce your partner to anyone else in the room.

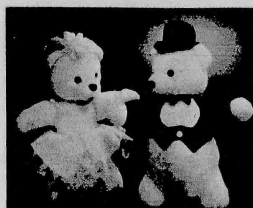

What if...

Your co-worker has a very negative attitude. Can this effect your performance and well being?

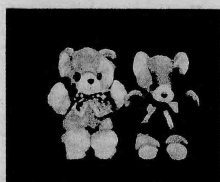

Yes! If unaware, someone else's negative attitude can be as contagious as the flu. A positive mental attitude is essential in order to be successful and happy. The best way to prevent negativity from spreading to you is to take each of these gripes your co-workers presents and turn them around or replace them in your mind until they are positive ones.

Flu-Fighting Medication

There are preventive measures that can be taken to help ensure that anyone who lives or works in close proximity to someone who has the flu does not suffer from the same fate. By taking the prescription drug amantadine within the first two days of onset of influenza, flu symptoms can be made less severe and cleared out disappearing sooner. The drug may also prevent its user from contracting the flu. Since amantadine only works while it is in the body's system, it is only a practical preventive during specific time periods (during the time of direct exposure). In addition, amantadine can cause nervousness and sleeplessness, and only works to fight influenza A, not B.

We maintain a full selection of prescription drugs at ROSSMORE PHARMACY, 338 Washington Ave., 759-1956, 759-1968. The sale and rental of convalescent aids are handled. This includes walkers, wheelchairs, crutches and canes. We also carry cosmetics, toiletries, greeting cards and gifts. Watch our column in the upcoming weeks for many different topics on health and medications. Open: Daily 9am - 10pm, Sundays 9am - 9pm.

NOTE: Another flu-fighting drug, rimantadine, may have fewer side effects than amantadine.

Eat This-the video

For Italian Heritage Month, the Belleville Public Library and Information Center will be showing the video "Eat This," starring Dom DeLuise, on Oct. 12 at 1 p.m. In this video Dom invites his Hollywood friends into his kitchen. There are demonstrations of broccoli and rigatoni, a Frittata for Julia Child, Braciolo, Homemade Sausage, Eggplant Rolls, Puttanesca Sauce, and Crispi.

Bring your favorite recipe in to share with the other viewers. Call the library at 450-3434 to register for the showing.

Library Director David Bryant conducts a tour for the Friends of the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. If you have a class or a group that would like to tour the library, please call the library at 450-3434.

The Librarian of Congress, James H. Billington, has designated 1991 as "The Year of the Lifetime Reader." Children's librarian, Leigha White, initiates this program early on at the preschool storytime in the James J. Cozzarelli Jr. Children's Room.

October Film Festival

On Wednesdays, at 1 p.m. at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center, a feature film series and discussion will be featured. On Oct. 17, "Mississippi Burning," with Gene Hackman, Alan Parker, and William Dafoe, the story of a government investigation into the disappearance of three civil rights workers in Mississippi during the summer of 1964, will be featured. On Oct. 31, "City Freedom," with Denzel Washington and Kevin Kline will be featured, the story of unforgettable friendship of a black activist and a liberal white newspaper editor in South Africa. The videos were provided by a matching grant from the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Commemorative Commission. Call the library at 450-3434 to register.

What's new in health care books?

When health problems occur, books can frequently provide information, as well as comforting advice. Among the new health titles added to the library are "Alzheimer's: Caring For Your Loved One; Caring For Yourself," by Sharon Fish, "Coping With Osteoarthritis," "Diabetes Actively Staying Healthy," by Marion Franz, "Living Well With Epilepsy," by Robert Gummit, and "Seasons of the Mind: Why You Get the Winter Blues and What You Can Do About It," by Norman E. Rosenthal.

Enter the unknown

"Enter the Unknown," a book exhibit prepared by Carrie Stahl and Barbara Dombrowski, of the Circulation Staff, is currently on exhibit at the Belleville Public Library and Information Center. Julie Pedalino, library page, did the artwork for the exhibit.

Among the books on exhibit are "The Amazing World of Superstition, Prophecy, Luck, Magic, and Witchcraft," by Leonard R.N. Ashley, "Facts, Frauds, and Phantasms: A Survey of the Spiritualist Movement," by Georgess McHargue, "Ghosts and Goblins: Stories for Halloween," by Wilhelmina Harper, "Here Mr. Splitfoot: An Informal Exploration Into Modern Occultism," by Robert Somerlott, "The House of the Nightmare and Other Eerie Tales," by Kathleen Lines, "The Visionary Girls; Witchcraft in Salem Village," by Marion Starkey, and "Yankee Ghosts," by Hans Holzer.

The books are located on the first floor of the library.

MEDICALLY SPEAKING

HOARSENESS

Q: What is hoarseness?
A: Hoarseness is an alteration in the normal production of the voice by the vocal cords.

Q: What are the causes of hoarseness?
A: Most cases are caused by infection (laryngitis). Some others are related to voice abuse, environmental exposure, or smoking, which can cause vocal cord nodules and polyps.

Q: Who should have an examination by a throat specialist?
A: Anyone who has hoarseness persisting for two weeks.

Q: Have there been recent advances in the diagnosis of hoarseness?
A: Yes. With the FLEXIBLE FIBEROPTIC LARYNGOSCOPE, a complete examination of the voice box can be done in the office without discomfort.

Q: What if I need surgery?
A: Surgery can be done under general anesthesia on an outpatient (same day) basis. All removed tissue is sent for a biopsy study. Modern techniques such as the OPERATING MICROSCOPE and, in indicated cases, LASER, allow accurate and precise surgery. Recovery is rapid with patients able to resume most activities the next day.

Belleville Times SPORTS

Spina, S. Kimball, McAloon score in 1st win

DuHaime, Caruso lead Bucs

By Mike Lamberti

Following the opening night loss to Hackensack a few weeks ago, head football coach John Senesky expressed optimism about the future. The coach felt that the 1990 squad would steadily improve as the year progresses.

In game two, the Bucs played an inspired game against Bloomfield, losing in the waning minutes, 17-7. Last Saturday afternoon, in week three, Belleville put it all together, winning its first game of the season over Paramus Catholic, 21-0 on a very warm afternoon in Paramus.

The Bucs will be home tomorrow evening to face powerful St. Joe's of Montvale. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

The victory over P.C. snapped a ten game Buc losing streak, dating back to September of 1989. Ironically, the Bucs last victory also came at Paramus Catholic, 21-0 in last year's season opener.

"It was a good win for our team," Senesky said afterward. "We knew that Paramus Catholic had a fine offensive team. Their quarterback (Vito Campanile) had a great game last week against Teaneck (over 200 yards rushing) and we knew he was very dangerous."

"Our kids came into this game without the services to two starters and shortly after the game started, we lost a third starter. But this team played a solid defensive game and took advantage of opportunities."

The Bucs started the game without two starting linemen. Steve Caponi (pinched nerve in neck) and Rich Ferruggia (cracked shoulder) were on the shelf. Caponi is listed as hopeful for tomorrow.

night's game, but Ferruggia is out for at least two more weeks.

Senior running back Bill Salvatore started the game off impressively, rushing for 31 yards on his first four carries. However, Salvatore suffered a mild concussion late in the first quarter and he had to sit out the rest of the game.

Enter Ricky Constantino, Scott Mayers and Anthony Papantonio. The three men did a solid job in replacing the ailing Bucs. Mayers, playing for Caponi, was very impressive on the defensive line. Papantonio, who started against Bloomfield at center two weeks ago and was solid, played another impressive game.

Constantino, a sophomore, saw extended playing time as a fullback and showed tremendous promise.

"Papantonio has been playing very well," Senesky said. "He does a very good job on the line. Mayers has played well on both sides of the line. Constantino has made a big step from freshman last year to varsity football. He'll only get better as the year goes on."

The Bucs scored twice in the second quarter after a scoreless first frame. The big break came late in the first quarter. Campanile threw what appeared to be a touchdown pass to Justin Everett. However, Everett dropped the pass in the open field and the Bucs got a reprieve.

"The wind was a little tricky," Senesky said. "I think their receiver took his eyes off the ball for just a second."

Belleville's Jim DuHaime, who was awesome on defense throughout the afternoon, recorded one of his four sacks moments later. The sack forced a fumble, which Jim Mastropalo recovered and returned to the P.C. 27.

From there, Salvatore gained six yards to the 21 and Sean Kimball gained two more to the 19. After that, it was Carmen Spina who did the rest of the work, picking up the final 19 yards on some excellent running. Spina dove into the end zone for the Bucs first offensive score of the season.

With the Bucs leading 6-0, its defense did the job again. Campanile threw a pass that was deflected. Sophomore safety John Alvarado intercepted the pass and returned it to the P.C. 28.

Quarterback Art Caruso, who was also spectacular, ran nine yards to the 19. From there, Caruso did the job in the end, hitting Sean Kimball with a 19 yard TD pass late in the first half.

"I just ran a fly pattern and it was wide open," Kimball said of his reception. "It felt great to get that first score. Hopefully, there will be a lot more."

The Bucs opted for two points and converted when Caruso hit Kimball again for three yards. The pass increased the Belleville lead to 14-0.

At halftime, both teams retired to the lockerroom, looking forward to getting out of the very hot sun.

"The heat definitely affected both teams," Senesky said. "We tried to get the kids as much water and oranges as possible. It was a draining afternoon."

Paramus Catholic came out fired up for the third quarter and moved the ball into Belleville territory. However, the Buc defense stiffened and forced P.C. into a punt.

For the second straight week, Alvarado blocked the punt. This time, John McAloon picked up the loose ball and ran untouched 49 yards for the third Belleville touchdown.

"I was covering the fullback on the play," McAloon said later. "John was rushing the punter and when he blocked it, the ball came right to me."

Mike Kimball kicked the point after to increase the Buc lead to 21-0.

The defense did the job for the remainder of the game, allowing a touchdown late in the contest.

Defensively, DuHaime, Hector Daniluk, Mastropalo, Mike Citarella, Brian Salmon, Spina, Sean Kimball, Alvarado and Michael Alfano played very well.

"This was a big win for our team," Spina said after the game. "We were able to convert on opportunities. We have to use this and

Our space is limited this week and there is a lot to cover. First off, the Belleville soccer team lost three conference games last week, falling to Nutley 1-0, Paramus Catholic 2-0 and Don Bosco 3-0.

The losses sent Gino DePinto's team to 1-7. The Bucs are at Hackensack this afternoon at 4 p.m. On Sunday, the team is tentatively scheduled to play an Essex County tournament game. Next Monday, the Bucs are supposed to play host to Paramus in a 4 p.m. start. That game could be postponed if the Bucs play in the counties on Sunday. Next Wednesday, the Bucs battle Teaneck at Clearmont Field.

DePinto credited Franco Vitello, Richard Preto and Matt Kastner for strong games on defense. The goaltenders, Emanuel Arujo and Rocco Constantino have also done well.

THE JUNIOR BUC "A" team tied Butler last Sunday at Doc Ellis Field, 13-13. Joe DeRiggi's team will take on Lyndhurst this Saturday evening. Kickoff time for the "A" game is 8 p.m. at Lyndhurst.

"It was two evenly matched teams playing each other," DeRiggi, the Bucs' head coach said afterward. "Butler was a little bigger than us, but our kids held their own. Butler had won their game last week 40-8, so they were coming in with a lot of confidence."

The Bucs scored first when Sal Berardi threw a 37 yard option pass to Anthony Frantantonio. On that scoring drive, Tom Eccott hauled in a 25 yard pass from Berardi.

Belleville led 6-0, but Butler came back to take a 7-6 lead with a score early in the second quarter. Belleville came right back when Berardi ran six yards for a touchdown. Frank Tortorello ran for the extra point and the Bucs led 13-7.

Butler tied the game at 13 late in the third quarter. They attempted to run for the go ahead point, but the Buc defense stiffened and the game ended up tied.

"It would have been nice to win," DeRiggi said. "But we'll settle for the tie. It was a real hot day and the kids gave it their all."

Tortorello recovered two fumbles for Belleville. Mike Prosperi had an interception. Eccott played a solid game in the defensive secondary. On offense, Berardi ran for 80 yards and Tortorello gained 65 rushing yards.

IN BELLEVILLE RECREATION SOCCER, the Spurs beat the Lancers 2-1. Two second half goals by Eric Stear, with assists from Anthony Kallis and Jabrham Blante led the way for the Spurs.

Goalie Natalie Guallardi played a solid game in the nets. Midfielder G.L. Barbosa also did well. For the Lancers, Nick Colucci scored the lone goal, off an assist from Joe Goglia.

The Torres beat the Aztecs 8-0. Anthony Rasczyk, Joe Cutugno, Frank Taur and Mike Czupak scored two goals each for Belleville. The victory was the second of the year for the Torres and also, the teams second shutout.

The Aztecs beat the Eagles 6-0. Undeclared, the Aztecs received the hat trick from Herbert Bolante. Michael Killian scored two goals and Dino Kallis scored once. Michael Jablonski played a fine all around game for the Aztecs.

Eagle goalie Michael Tremel played a good game, recording numerous saves.

Finally, the Rowdies stopped the Cosmos, 1-0 in a very competitive game.

IN BELLEVILLE SOCCER ASSOCIATION ACTION, the Sting Rays in Division 6 beat West Paterson 1-0. Sponsored by Dr. Samuel Sbars, the Rays lone goal was scored by Mike Fitzgibbons. (Sorry, Mike, I spelled your name wrong last week). Strong defense was turned in by Chris Rannucci and good goalkeeping was turned in by Billy Britzger.

Sponsored by the Junior Womens Club of Belleville, the Strikers beat Pequannock 4-1. The win improved the teams' record to 5-0. The Strikers trailed at the half 1-0, but came on strong after the intermission. Nick Colucci and Steve Collett scored one goal each and Ivan Martin scored twice for the Strikers.

Sante Salme led the midfield attack and Dave Enriquez and Mike Guzman paced the defense. Vic Mesce made several outstanding saves in the nets for the Strikers.

The Devils, sponsored by Bill Murray Auto Parts also won against Pequannock. Goals by Steve Abdulatif, Joe Genearille and two by Lawrence Martin provided the offense. Eric Stear played well in midfield and assisted on two goals. Defensively, Jason Alfano, David Auerbach, Chris Adamo and Justin Mohren were excellent.

The Bandits, sponsored by Nardachone and Colavito, Esq., lost a 2-1 decision to Newton. The Bobcats and Spit Fires, sponsored by Bedrock Stone, lost to its opponents from Pequannock 2-0 respectively.

THE ATHLETES OF THE WEEK are Jim DuHaime and Carmen Spina from the Buc football team. Both men were outstanding in the Buc's first win of the season last Saturday. DuHaime recorded four sacks and Spina led the Bucs in rushing with 69 yards. Congratulations to the entire team for an excellent game.

IN NFL PICKS last week, we didn't fare too well, hitting just 5 of 12. For this week, San Diego 27 Jets 17, Washington 24 Giants 23 (this weeks upset), San Francisco 23 Atlanta 10 (that's the last time I pick against San Francisco this year until they lose one. Thanks a lot Houston), Houston 28 Cincinnati 24, Kansas City 24 Detroit 14, Cleveland to win its second straight over New Orleans 17-14. I'll be in Tampa Bay this weekend to see the Bucs and Packers play. The pick here is Tampa Bay 27-24. Denver 21 Pittsburgh 20. I.A. Raiders 23 Seattle 14, Dallas to win again, beating Phoenix 30-28, L.A. Rams to beat Chicago 27-22 and on Monday night, I'll be in Philly to see the Eagles hopefully beat the Vikings, 24-20 in what could be Jerry Burns' last game as Vikings head coach. For the week, 5-7, for the season, 38-28. Don't forget, the AFC East teams, except the Jets, are off this week.

FOR LAST WEEKS QUIZ, the only team in the 1980's who started the year 0-3 and made it to the NFL playoffs were the 1981 New York Jets. The Jets finished 10-5-1 and made it to the wildcard round. There, the Jets lost a thriller to Buffalo in Shea Stadium, 31-27. The Jets rallied from a 24-0 deficit to make the game quite interesting.

FOR THIS WEEK, Roger Staubach of the Dallas Cowboys had an NFL career. Who was Staubach's last game as a pro? What were the results? Who was the Cowboys' opponent in Staubach's final game?

Breaking a tackle and gaining some yardage is soph fullback Ricky Constantino. Ricky replaced the injured Bill Salvatore and did well. (Photo by Lisa Montalbano)

Gymnasts fall to Bears, home to Mounties next

By Mike Lamberti

There was a time that the Belleville gymnastics team would consider a match with Brearley High School as a learning experience. Traditionally, Brearley was a team that would average 100 points a match.

These days, Brearley has come down to earth a little and Lady Buc coach Gina Lemongello was somewhat optimistic about her teams chances last week. Unfortunately, the end result was a Belleville defeat, 70-10-64.75.

Belleville battled Bloomfield last Tuesday. Next Tuesday, the Lady Bucs are home to Montclair, starting at 4:30 p.m.

"We came close to them, but it wasn't enough," Lemongello said.

In the vaulting exercise, Lori Aiello led Belleville with a 6.65. Her performance was good for third place overall. Danielle Groeling finished with a 6.6, Venessa Rodriguez had a 6.55 and Kim Picasatowski scored a 6.55.

In the uneven parallel bars, Belleville took a first and second place. Groeling finished first with a score of 4.75 and Renee Coppola was second (4.45). Also doing well in the bars were Dawn Simonetti (4.1) and Jennifer Kastner.

In the balance beam, Renee Coppola topped the third event with a score of 5.4. Also performing well in the event were Kristin Gallato and Nancy Matthews (4.45 each) and Christina Ferrera (3.55).

In the floor exercise, Marianne Ferrera led the way with a 6.1. Aiello scored a 5.85 and Christina Ferrera tallied a 5.0.

The team was without the services of Denise (yes, that's her name) Wujciak. Lemongello said that Wujciak would be back in the lineup for last Tuesday's match with Bloomfield. By the way, that match with Bloomfield is for the annual trophy, awarded to the winner of the Belleville-Bloomfield gymnastics match.

Sorry about that, Denise Wujciak

In last weeks edition, it was reported that Linda Wujciak was victorious in two matches for the Belleville gymnastics team.

Six years ago, that might have been true. However, the girl who won the two matches in Belleville's first victory two weeks ago was Denise Wujciak.

Venus Hackensack, Denise won the balance beam with a score of 5.9. In the floor exercise, she finished first with a 6.55.

Linda Wujciak, by the way, did compete for the Belleville gymnastics team back in 1982-84.

We apologize to Denise for the mistake and congratulate her on some fine performances.

Bucs host St. Joe's tomorrow

move on to next week."

Next week is tomorrow evening, when the Bucs play host to St. Joseph of Montvale, ranked seventh in the state.

St. Joe's comes in with a 2-1 record, having beaten Teaneck 17-14 last week.

"They're a solid club," Senesky said of St. Joe's. "They have excellent size and speed. Their quarterback runs a 4.5 40. Their running backs are division one prospects that are quick and weigh about 220. It's going to be a tough assignment."

NOTES: Bucs and St. Joe's met only one time before, back in 1983. In that game, at Belleville High, Bucs won 30-6. Salvatore is hopeful

Jr. Buc 'B' team beats Butler 14-7

Damon Placente and Ken Bolhard scored touchdowns to lead the Junior Buc "B" team to a 14-7 victory over Butler.

Joe DeRiggi's squad will be at Lyndhurst on Saturday evening. Kickoff times are 5 p.m. for the "C" team, 6:30 p.m. for the "B" team and 8 p.m. for the "A" squad.

Placente started the scoring in the first quarter with a 50 yard run. The conversion failed and Belleville led 6-0.

Butler scored later in the first half to regain the lead 7-6 after the conversion.

The score remained 7-6 until late in the third quarter. There, David Vargas intercepted a pass to give Belleville the ball near midfield as the fourth quarter began.

The Belleville running game took over, with quarterback Bolhard, Jim Palo and Al Arminante running well. Placente had a key run on the winning scoring drive, gaining 40 yards to the Butler five.

After Placente's run, Bolhard finished the scoring drive with a quarterback sneak for the game winner.

Senesky on Caruso: "Arty can make a bad situation into a good one. He can turn a broken play into something positive. That's the experience factor."

Billy Prosser turned in an unbelievable interception late in the first half for the Bucs. The interception was reminiscent of one turned in by former Buc Ralph "The Bear" DePasquale in a 1979 game against Passaic.

The touchdowns scored by McAloon and Kimball were their first varsity scores.

TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the following proposed ordinance was introduced and passed on first reading at a meeting of the Municipal Council of the Township of Belleville, N.J. held on Tuesday evening, September 25, 1990 and further notice is hereby given that the second and final reading of said ordinance will be considered by said Municipal Council at a meeting to be held at the Town Hall, Washington Avenue and Belleville Avenue, Tuesday evening, October 23, 1990 at eight o'clock p.m. when all objections to the passing of same will be heard and considered.

Mary Lou Hood, Municipal Clerk

Ordinance to Amend Section 3-28 of the Codified Ordinances of the Township of Belleville, Entitled, "Abandonment and Removal of Shopping Carts From Shopping Centers, Stores or Other Business Locations."

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY: THAT Section 3-28 of the Codified Ordinances of the Township of Belleville provides for the Impoundment of shopping carts by the Township when any cart is found upon any street or sidewalk or in any break or drainage right-of-way and for the Township to take the same or cause the same to be taken to property or premises of the township where the same shall be held until redeemed or sold.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED that the fee for the redemption of impounded carts be and is hereby amended by changing section 3.28 (c) "Redemption of Impounded Carts" to read as follows: c. Redemption of Impounded carts. Any impounded cart may be redeemed by the owner thereof at any time prior to the sale, dismantling, destruction or disposal thereof, and he shall be entitled to receive such cart upon tendering the sum of $25.00 dollars. In addition, the person seeking to redeem shall pay the cost of advertising the sale thereof, if any. No cart shall be delivered to a person seeking to redeem it unless proof establishing to the satisfaction of the township such person's ownership or right to possession is submitted. Any delivery to a person apparently entitled thereto shall be a good defense to the township against any other person claiming to be entitled thereto. Belleville Times Oct. 11, 1990 Fee: $27.73

A great time to buy a home — ask your Realtor

Many people are currently wondering whether or not this is the "right time" to buy a home. According to the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR) and its 34 local Boards, the time to buy — or sell — couldn't be better.

To help make buyers — and sellers — aware of this, the association's member Boards and more than 4,000 local Realtor offices statewide will host the "Discover Homeownership Open House Event" on the weekend of Oct. 13-14. The event, featuring more than 10,000 open houses, will provide a unique opportunity for buyers to view the many types of homes in all price ranges currently available to them.

According to Janet Barton, president of the New Jersey Association of Realtors, many homes on the market today are more affordable than in the past because of lower mortgage interest rates and special loan programs.

"The supply of homes on the market is large enough to accommodate the needs of almost every buyer," said Barton. "Today, the conditions for both buyers and sellers may be the best since 1985. They may be even better, when you consider that the 'dream years' of the '80s were lopsided in favor of the seller, while today's market offers advantages for both."

"Since it is often better to move on information you know, the time is right to act. If you have been thinking about selling, call a local Realtor and find out how to begin. If you are in the market now, and are serious about selling, contact your agent and develop a strategy of incentives to get your home sold."

"Potential buyers should contact a local Realtor about getting qualified for special mortgage programs with low rates like those administered by the FHA and the New Jersey Housing and Mortgage Finance Agency (NJHMFA). Buyers should also develop a family budget and identify the kind of home they can afford."

"By attending Open Houses, prospective buyers can get a very good feel of what is available to them. From there, they can work with a Realtor to narrow down their needs and make their choice of a home from a truly informed standpoint."

Barton added that a Realtor can do much more than show homes. "He or she can help answer your questions about financing and guide you to financial institutions that can provide loans to meet your needs. A Realtor can help determine your eligibility for special loan programs, and provide information on how to obtain those loans. A Realtor can also help you determine the type of home you can afford, and provide you with a realistic estimate of monthly expenses."

"We urge everyone who has ever considered buying a home to attend our Discover Homeownership Open House Event," said Barton. "Chances are, there is a home waiting for you out there."

Realtors to hold 10,000 Open Houses this weekend

The homebuying public will have a unique opportunity to view the many types of homes currently on the market in all price ranges during a "Discover Homeownership Open House Event," scheduled for the weekend of October 13-14. Sponsored by the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR), its 34 member Boards and more than 4,000 local Realtor offices, the event will feature more than 10,000 open houses on this weekend.

Participating Realtor offices will distribute "Captain's Logs," a helpful checklist to be used during open house tours, and coupons that entitle open house attendees to a free copy of the New Jersey

Home Guide. The guide is a 32-page booklet that explains how to buy a home — from saving for the downpayment to choosing the right style — and lists referral numbers for local Realtor Boards and financing information. The guide can also be obtained free of charge by calling 1-800-YES-IN-NJ Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The "Discover Homeownership Open House Event" is part of NJAR's "Yes You Can Buy a Home in New Jersey" campaign, a public awareness program designed to call attention to the many types of homes and financing programs available to homebuyers in New Jersey.

Making the decision to rent or to buy

Making the decision to rent or buy is a question faced by many sooner or later. As part of its "Discover Homeownership Open House Event," scheduled for the weekend of Oct. 13-14, the New Jersey Association of Realtors (NJAR) offers the following guide lines:

A leading consideration for people is the investment benefits gained when making a home purchase. History proves that the purchase of a home is one of the wisest financial moves one can make. The most common form of purchase is with financing. As inflation continues, which it has done year-to-year, homeowners will pay off their debt with "cheaper" dollars than those which they originally borrowed. They find the value of their home rising without a corresponding increase in their monthly mortgage payments.

Tax advantages when owning a home are extremely beneficial. Real estate taxes and the interest on your mortgage qualify as itemized deductions on federal and state income tax returns. When you pay rent, only a portion is deductible on New Jersey State tax returns and nothing at all on your federal returns.

Permanency, though an intangible factor, is proving more and more to be a decisive factor for people who have gone through years of landlord-tenant arrangements. The desire to be in control of one's dwelling with options to decorate at will and not have to "answer" to a landlord works to take people down the home purchase path. Owning a home means just that — you own it; you make the decisions on decorating; you make the decisions on home improvements; you make all the decisions — it is yours.

To make renters, and other homebuyers, aware of the excellent ownership opportunities apparent in today's market, NJAR, its 34 member boards and more than 4,000 local Realtors statewide will host a "Discover Homeownership Open House Event" on the weekend of Oct. 13-14.

Hints For Homeowners

Family security is one very good reason a growing number of homeowners are looking over their garage doors very carefully. They know that a well-maintained garage door is an important key to keeping the uninvited outside and keeping families safely on the inside.

Following these tips from Frank S. Fitzgerald, president of the Garage Door Council, may help you during a garage door security check. Says Fitzgerald:

If your garage door is damaged in any way, don't put off repairs.

An electrically operated door, if properly counterbalanced, will operate smoothly. If counterbalancing isn't done right at installation, it will reduce the life expectancy of your door opener.

Look for qualified repair people. Check the Yellow Pages under "Doors." Look for those dealers who display the emblem of the Far Western Garage Door Association or the Door and Operator Dealers of America.

Free Guides for Buyers

The new Realty World "Buyers Guide" and "Seller's Guide" are now available free from Northern New Jersey Realty World Brokers. The pocket-size guides each contain more than 40 pages of easy-to-read, comprehensive information on buying and selling a home.

"These two free booklets are absolute necessities for anyone who's thinking of buying or selling a home," said Kenneth Cibroski, Realty World Corporation president.

The "Buyer's Guide" suggests how to determine what price range you can afford, the pros and cons of different types of financing, how to look for a home, how to make an offer, and what to expect at settlement.

The "Seller's Guide" features information on how to prepare a house for sale, what's involved in marketing a house, how to handle offers and negotiate the contract, how to plan your move, and what to expect on settlement day.

The guides also explain special programs the Realty World System created to make buying and selling a home easier, including the Real Safe home protection plan.

For a free copy of the "Buyer's Guide" or "Seller's Guide" contact Realty World Monaco Realty, 507 Franklin Ave., Nutley, 667-8000.

Century 21 Stanford Agency to participate in statewide Discover Homeownership Open-House Event Oct. 13 - 14

Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Avenue, Nutley, will participate in the New Jersey Association of Realtors' Discover Homeownership Open House Event the weekends of October 6 and 7, and 13 and 14. The firm's open houses will be among more than 10,000 open houses to be hosted those weekends by NJAR members.

The Discover Homeownership Open House Event provides a unique opportunity for homebuyers to view the many homes available to them. The statewide open house weekends are part of NJAR's "Yes You Can Buy a Home" New Jersey campaign.

In conjunction with the Discover Homeownership Open House Event, NJAR has extended the offer on its New Jersey Home Guide, a 32-page color magazine that contains information on buying a home — from saving for a downpayment to selecting the right style house.

Century 21 Stanford Agency will offer a free coupon for the Guide at local open houses. The Guide can also be obtained by calling 1-800-YES IN NJ, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information on the open house weekend or on buying a home, please contact Century 21 Stanford Agency, 235-9000.

The Home Front

Did You Know??

Pale colors make spaces look bigger, especially if you carry the same tones throughout. For a natural look, consider sandy taupe paint for the walls paired with terra cotta tile floors.

Have you installed clean filters in your forced-air furnace this fall? If not, do it now. Check at least monthly to see if they should be cleaned or replaced. Care will pay off in better performance.

Here's how to hide an ugly radiator — make a folding screen out of stock shutters. They're inexpensive at a lumber yard, and can be painted or stained to complement any decor.

Why not paint brick walls or chimneys? Because it tends to peel. To remove old paint, pressure-wash or use a chemical remover.

It should be easier to plan remodeling jobs, now that many contractors have joined trade organizations with higher standards. National Association of the Remodeling Industry (1-703-276-7600) and the National Remodelers Council (1-202-822-0216) make referrals.

It will be easier to find a comfortable home that fits your lifestyle and your budget when you work with the real estate pros at Century 21 Stanford Agency, 86 Union Ave., Nutley, 235-9000.
